Approval For British Plan Of Evacuation

Hopes For Early Solution of Spanish Trouble Materially Improved With Acceptance of British Proposals By Non-Intervention Committee — Britain Insistent Removal of Volunteers Precede Completion of Pact.

London, June 21.—(C.P. Cable).—The Spanish Non-Intervention Committee today accepted the main features of the British revised plan for evacuation of volunteers.

The agreement improves the hopes for peace in Spain. France has informed Great Britain that the Pyrenees frontier now is effectively closed to the passage of arms and ammunition.

The British plan, when finally through the Committee, will be submitted to both sides in Spain for approval.

S. B. Kagan, Russian representative, declared there were "good prospects" of reaching an accord, indicating that Russia, whose attitude hitherto has been the big question mark, would line up with Great Britain and France in seeking a Spanish settlement.

The Committee adjourned at one p.m. to resume its sittings late today.

Mr. Chamberlain's determination to proceed through the non-intervention machinery was his answer to Premier Mussolini's request that the Anglo-Italian pact be made effective at once, regardless of the Spanish conflict and the Italian Black Shirts yet on Spanish soil.

The Prime Minister is understood, the Associated Press said, to have informed Mr. Duce the quickest way to get the Anglo-Italian treaty in operation was for Italy to co-operate in withdrawing her troops and to advise General Franco to accept an armistice for discussion of peace terms.

At the same time France was expected to press Barcelona to the same end.

Should final success crown the non-intervention Committee's efforts, Mr. Chamberlain would be in position in the House of Commons debate today to outline his plans for a general European settlement. He also would be in position to give his definition of a "settlement" in Spain.

Even in the event of an agreement, however, there remain formidable obstacles. There is yet no sign that the Spanish factions would agree either to the scheme to withdraw foreign troops or to a truce. Mussolini has committed himself to a demand for a complete victory for Franco.

Spanish Government sources in London, commenting on the report from Paris that the border would be sealed tightly against supplies, said: "The Chamberlain-Mussolini manoeuvring testifies to our tough resistance, but the situation is admittedly serious, effective closing of the French border would greatly handicap us since we already are feeling the pinch because of insurgent attacks on sea-borne supplies."

The press was optimistic. "The possibility of procuring a truce is being keenly canvassed in London," said the Daily Telegraph (Conservative).

"Mussolini knows he cannot turn the Anglo-Italian agreement into reality by claiming it is not his fault if no settlement has yet been reached in Spain," the News-Chronicle (Liberal) commented.

The political editor of the Daily Herald (Labor) wrote: "A new factor in the situation is the closing

LITTLE CHANGE PREDICTED IN CROP ACREAGE

Western University Official Believes Area Under Production Will Be Stabilized at Sixty Million Acres.

Ottawa, June 21.—(C.P.)—Total area devoted to field crop production in Canada probably will be stabilized at about sixty million acres for some time to come, Dr. L. V. Kirk, dean of the Department of Agriculture, University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, said in a paper prepared for delivery today to the Canadian Chemical Association in the second day of its convention.

Dr. Kirk discussed trends in Canadian crop production in a symposium held on Canadian natural resources and their development by chemical research. The introductory paper was prepared by Dr. G. S. Whitby, Director of the Division of Chemistry, National Research Council, Ottawa.

Analysis of the statistics of field crop acreage from 1870 to 1930 indicates the period of most rapid expansion is definitely past, said Dr. Kirk. In those years the rate of increase in field crop production averaged 4.7 per cent annually.

Increase in acreage will be limited by two factors: the probable retirement from production of much land in the arid areas, and the reduced fertility of the wooded land now available for cultivation on the northern fringe of settlement," he said.

Canadian chemical research should be more or less concentrated on the utilization of those resources in regard to which the country has some natural advantages, said Dr. Whitby. This reasonable principle was a natural guide in a free, as distinguished from a self-sufficient or totalitarian economy.

The art of agriculture has changed to a science in a few decades, said Dr. Wilfred Galloway, Division of Chemistry, National Research Laboratory, Ottawa.

"Few farmers realize they are really chemists," he said. "Yet agricultural

Eighteen Indicted Before Federal Court For Part In Espionage Ring

New York, June 21.—(AP)—A story of one of the most extensive spy rings discovered in the United States unfolded today in the wake of a Federal Grand Jury's indictment of eighteen persons, headed by high German officials.

The defendants were charged with conspiring during the last three years to obtain United States defence secrets and deliver them to the German Government or "factories" in Germany. Two other indictments detailed specific acts — theft of plans for an army pursuit plane from the Seversky plant at Farmingdale, Long Island, and theft of an army and navy code book.

The indictments resulted from four months of Federal investigation and five weeks of jury hearings. Of the eighteen persons indicted, only four are available for prosecution — in jail here under heavy bail. They are a former woman hair-

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH LOSES GREAT LEADER

Rev. Dr. Donald MacOdrum, Recently Elected Moderator of Canadian Church, Succumbs to Short Illness.

Brockville, Ont., June 21.—(C.P.)—The Presbyterian Church in Canada today is without an official head today through the death of Rev. Dr. Donald MacOdrum, elected Moderator of the Church at the General Assembly in Toronto only three weeks ago.

Dr. MacOdrum, minister of the First Presbyterian Church here since 1925, died suddenly yesterday at the age of seventy-four. Since his retirement from the Assembly, held June 1st, he appeared to be enjoying good health and preached two sermons on Sunday. He died thirty minutes after suffering a heart attack.

Church regulations make no provision for election of a successor until the next Assembly, scheduled for Midland, Ont., next June. Meanwhile, urgent business requiring personal attention of the official head of the Church may be transacted by any former Moderator. Probably these duties will devolve upon Dr. Donald Munro, New Glasgow, N.S., whom Dr. MacOdrum succeeded.

Prominent members of the church across Canada paid tribute to the Moderator after hearing of his death.

First native of Nova Scotia to be Moderator since 1876, Dr. MacOdrum was born in Mira and was educated at Sydney and Pictou academies, Dalhousie University and the Halifax Presbyterian College at which he completed his studies in 1889.

Teaching school before his ordination, he went to his first charge at Marston, N.S., later at Moncton, N.B., Pembroke, Ont., St. Andrews, N.B., Halifax and Brockville. He resigned the Brockville charge recently, to take effect in September.

He was a former Moderator of the Ottawa and Montreal Synod of the Church and served as chairman of the Brockville Presbytery. A successful church official he visited missions in Trinidad, British Guiana, Japan, Korea, Manchuria and India and toured Palestine in 1928. In 1910 he was a delegate to the Mission Congress in Edinburgh.

His widow survives with three sons, Rev. M. M. MacOdrum, Sydney, N.S., Alastair, a student at McGill University, and C. Gordon, Brockville.

CANADIAN ORES WERE USED IN CURIE LABS

Ottawa, June 21.—(C.P.)—Madame Curie-Joliot, daughter of the famed discoverers of radium, is at work on ores from Canada's sub-Arctic radium deposits, it was disclosed here today by F. B. Friend, of Port Hope, radium physicist who arrived in Ottawa to speak before the Society of Chemical Industry.

Her objective is the development of commercial methods for the recovery of other minerals of the radium group, particularly radium D, which have not yet been produced industrially, Mr. Friend said.

One and a half tons from the Port Hope radium refinery have been shipped to the Curie laboratories in France so that the research could be carried on.

GERMANY READY TO COMPROMISE ON BOND FIGHT

London Doubts However that Concessions Berlin Is Prepared to Make on Austrian Loan Issue Will Be Sufficient.

London, June 21.—(V.P.-Havas)—German and British experts today prepared to resume conversations on the Austrian debt problem with considerable speculation prevailing in the city as to the concessions which Berlin may offer.

Conversation on this issue were started at Berlin a few weeks ago but were understood to have approached a deadlock when the German Government refused in principle to acknowledge responsibility for the debts. The German delegation arrived here Monday at the request of the British Government to resume talks.

"News of the German experts' arrival makes it quite clear that, rather than face compulsory clearing arrangements, the Germans are now willing to compromise," the News Chronicle (Liberal) declared today. "The main point at issue now is whether the new German offer will be an adequate one."

"On that point there is one thing that must be said. That is that there should not be a question of bargaining away the rights of the Dawes and Young bondholders in exchange for concessions on Austrian loans. The two questions are quite distinct."

NEW APOSTOLIC DELEGATE TO CANADA NAMED

Castel Gondolfo, Italy, June 21.—(C.P. Cable)—Pope Pius today named Monsignor Ilderando Antonietti as Apostolic Delegate to Canada.

Monsignor Antonietti is titular Bishop of Sinnada and was Apostolic Delegate to Albania in 1936. He has been charged with affairs for the Holy See at Burrow, the Spanish Insurgent capital.

The Apostolic Delegation at Ottawa has been vacant, with Monsignor Umberto Mozzoni the charge d'affaires.

HANDICRAFT STUDIED

Fredericton, June 21.—(C.P.)—Classes for unemployed young women are being organized throughout New Brunswick by teachers trained for leadership at courses given here under the Dominion-Provincial youth training plan. The classes are expected to provide handicraft work for more than 1,500 girls.

Demands Managed Currency To End Canadian Economic Ills

Proposals of Vancouver Liberal Member for Drastic Currency Reform Meet with Scant Favor from Finance Minister—Complete Independence of Bank of Canada from Politicians Promised During Debate on Nationalization.

Ottawa, June 21.—(C.P.)—A managed currency based upon the experience of Great Britain is Canada's opportunity to provide employment, build a national highway system and end the financial embarrassment of Dominion and Provincial Governments, in the opinion of G. G. McGeer, (Liberal Vancouver-Burrard).

With typical fire and plain talking the former Vancouver mayor wound up a hectic House of Commons session yesterday with a claim the Bank of Canada was not controlling credit and that the Government was failing to implement its pre-election promises on monetary reform.

Mr. McGeer was frequently in conflict with Finance Minister Dunning whose remarks, coupled with interjections from Opposition Leader Bennett, brought a sharp retort from the Vancouver member.

"It is never dreamed," he said, "that it would be my misfortune to sit in a Canadian House of Commons and see the Leader of the Opposition, a Conservative, more Liberal than some of the Liberals sitting on the treasury benches."

"You haven't yet," Mr. Dunning declared.

The debate, which followed a four hour wrangle over the unemployment disturbances in Vancouver, arose over the resolution on which Finance Minister Dunning based his bill to enable the Government to acquire complete and exclusive ownership of the Bank of Canada.

This, Mr. McGeer said, was "a step in the right direction" but he was not ready to cheer until there was some effective effort made by the Government to so manage currency so as to put money to work rather than leaving it in the banks, England had done it successfully and Canada had that experience as a guide.

J. S. Woodsworth, C.C.F. leader, precipitated the debate on eviction of the Vancouver unemployment, forcibly removed Sunday from public property they had occupied for a month. His action forced post-debate until today when Hon. Earl Lawson, (Conservative York South) will launch the Opposition attack.

Members of all groups in opposition joined in criticizing the Government on its handling of the Vancouver situation. Labor Minister Rogers replied with a reiteration of his declaration that no special status would be established for unemployed in Vancouver, especially when urged by such a demonstration as was carried on there.

Justice Minister Lapointe said the law had been broken and the authorities replied with the greatest forbearance and tolerance. So long as he was Minister the law would be maintained.

Members of the C.C.F. and Social Credit group warned that the policy of the Government was paving the way for more tolerance of the complete Government ownership of the Bank of Canada. Mr. Dunning said the chief reason was that constitution of the bank was being made

TWO BODIES RECOVERED FROM NORTHLAND PLANE

Flin Flon, Man., June 21.—(C.P.)—Bodies of Archie Turnbull, manager-pilot of Turnbull Airways, and Allen J. Wallace, member of a geological survey party, were found yesterday in the wreckage of their Bellanca plane on the southeast shore of Lauria Lake.

The wreckage was found by Pilot Kenneth Main, flying one of three planes of Turnbull Airways participating in search for the men missing since they hopped off Friday for Reindeer Lake, two hundred miles north of this northern Manitoba mining town.

Reports here said the plane apparently burned immediately after the crash. It was believed both men died instantly.

MAJORITY FOR DE VALERA AT RECORD POINT

Expected to Have Majority of at Least Sixteen in New House—Gains Made Largely at Expense of Labor.

Dublin, June 21.—(C.P.)—Only the size of Prime Minister de Valera's strong majority was in doubt today as returning officers checked up proportional representation ballots from the four seats still undecided in last Friday's general election.

The Prime Minister's Fianna Fail party had seventy-six members elected against forty-two for William Cosgrave's Fine Gael party; nine for Labor and seven independents. Total strength of the Dail is 138.

Both leaders, and William Noon, leader of the Labor Party that suffered a setback with two of its prominent figures defeated, withheld comment on the election until all seats were decided.

The Fianna Fail was delighted. Even the most optimistic Cabinet Minister had not expected such a large majority. A swing of one or two seats had been expected in view of the Government's success in reaching the accord with the United Kingdom to end the six-year economic warfare.

But a turnover to give the Government a majority that may reach sixteen or more had no Opposition appeared too much to hope for and today all Eire agreed that the party had given Mr. de Valera a clear mandate for his programme of national defence, economic reconstruction and any other policies he may plan.

CRITIC LEADS FOR MINNESOTA FARMER-LABOR NOMINATION

Minneapolis, June 21.—(AP)—Hjalmar Petersen, outspoken foe of Governor Elmer A. Benson for the Farmer-Labor nomination for Governor, swept into a narrow lead today on the basis of incomplete returns from yesterday's primary election.

With 1,086 of the state's 3,739 precincts reported, the vote stood: Petersen 72,680, Benson 72,228.

The Beochter also recalled allegedly forcible expulsions of Germans from Alsace-Lorraine in 1920 after France annexed the region.

"We never yet have told the Jews to get out at twenty-four hours' notice with a hundredweight of personal property as the French did with Germans of Alsace-Lorraine," Hitler's paper exclaimed.

Large Scale Attacks Against Jews in Berlin Declared an Act of Self Defence by Hitler's Own Paper

Berlin, June 21.—(AP)—Stung by eye-witness reports in foreign newspapers, the German press today broke its silence on the anti-Semitic drive which seems aimed at "cleansing" Berlin of its 140,000 Jews.

A scornful editorial in the leading Nazi organ, Chancellor Hitler's own "Voelkischer Beobachter," sought to justify the drive as an "act of self-defence by the persecuted against Jews who are swamping Berlin, especially from Austria."

Although the drive begun June 1 continued, the Ministry of Economics exempted foreign Jews living abroad from property registry regulations which the United States had protested. New regulations also relaxed the rules as they apply to German Jews living abroad.

"Paradoxical though it may seem," the Beobachter declared, "the louder the foreign press has railed about anti-Jewish persecutions, the more the Jews have wanted to come here."

"It is the material prosperity of the Reich that attracts them and makes them submit willingly to any restrictions placed upon them for the Jews are notoriously thick-skinned."

The Beobachter charged the new influx consisted primarily of "smugglers of drugs and currencies, counterfeiters and professional swindlers." It accused the Jews also of behaving with intolerable impertin-

PRESS SEARCH FOR BODIES OF WRECK VICTIMS

Twelve Persons Still Believed Trapped in Silt-cozing Bed of Custer Creek.

Miles City, Mont., June 21.—(AP)—With thirty-one already known dead, fatigue-worn searchers worked today to lift up again from the silt-cozing bed of Custer Creek a tourist sleeper which railroad officials estimated contained twelve more victims of the worst United States railroad tragedy in a decade.

Twenty-two of the thirty-one known victims were identified. The bodies of two unidentified women were taken last night from the sleeper which plunged with the Milwaukee Railroad's crack "Olympian" train through a flood-weakened trestle early Sunday. Twelve other bodies were found earlier yesterday and one woman died in a hospital.

The sleeper, submerged nearly thirty-six hours by the cloudburst "flash flood" that filled Custer Creek with a torrent twenty feet deep, was jacked up on blocks after hours of slow toil last night.

Suddenly the heavy steel car slipped loose and sank again into the sticky silt left in the stream's bed when the flood subsided yesterday.

Meanwhile, railroad and Government officials launched an investigation of the wreck.

All save one of the victims met death instantly, officials said.

Of sixty-five injured rushed to the eighty-five-bed hospital here, nearly all were released after minor treatment.

KING WATCHES MANOEUVRING OF HOME FLEET

His Majesty Participates in Home Fleet Demonstration for First Time Since Assuming Throne.

Portland, England, June 21.—(C.P.-Havas)—The King watched manoeuvres of the Home Fleet today from the battleship Nelson, which he boarded after spending the night on the Royal yacht Victoria and Albert.

The King was accompanied by his personal aide-de-camp, the Duke of Kent, and Admiral Sir Charles Forbes, Commander-in-Chief of the Home Fleet. It was the King's first participation in fleet manoeuvres since he came to the throne.

The fleet of eighty ships left Weymouth Bay for the high seas at 9:20 a.m. His Majesty went aboard the Nelson by tender and at a signal the entire fleet raised anchor and headed southeast.

A squadron of cruisers took position about a mile and a half behind the Nelson, which flew the Royal Standard, with the new cruiser Aurora carrying the commander of the destroyer flotilla, the late King George V, will be the speaker.

CRACK BRITISH JOCKEY SEEKS WIN

Wilmington, Del., June 21.—(C.P.)—Bruce Hobbs, seventeen-year-old British jockey who won the Grand National at Aintree with the United States-owned Battleship, and Rigan McKinney, America's outstanding steeplechase rider, are expected to meet for the first time in the $6,000 Georgetown steeplechase at Delaware Park.

Hobbs, already winner of two races in the United States, will pilot Mrs. Dodge Sloane's National Anthem. McKinney is slated to ride one of Thomas Hitchcock's entries, probably Annibal.

WORKLESS FROM VANCOUVER RUN INTO VICTORIA

Large Group Gather at Nanaimo for Invasion of British Columbia Capital Demanding Work Relief.

Victoria, June 21.—(C.P.)—A threat of Vancouver single jobless that there would "probably be a few more hundred unemployed problem children on Victoria's doorstep" took shape today as a contingent of one hundred men here awaited the arrival of two hundred comrades from Nanaimo.

It was not known when the latter would begin their eighty-mile trek down Vancouver Island from the coal-mining centre which they reached last night by boat from Vancouver. They spent the night in the hall of the local United Mine Workers of America, who provided them with food and a small sum of money.

Premier Pattullo, who returned here late yesterday from a flying visit to Vancouver to discuss the situation arising from the eviction Sunday of fifty jobless from the Civic Art Gallery and Central Post Office, said the possible reinforcement of unemployed already here was "confirmation showing the whole thing is organized and premeditated."

"We've got to have a showdown," he asserted. "British Columbia cannot take care of the unemployed from all over Canada."

NANAIMO CITIZENS WELCOME DELEGATES

Nanaimo, B.C., June 21.—(C.P.)—Nanaimo citizens in large numbers today offered hospitality to a contingent of Vancouver unemployed.

At a meeting in the hall of the local United Mine Workers of America, speakers last night welcomed the two hundred jobless and said they would do what they could for them while they were here.

It was not decided just how the men who arrived from Vancouver last night enroute to Victoria would proceed the eighty-odd miles to the capital.

Their leader, Frank Harris, said there was a possibility they would remain here until tomorrow.

BRITISH PRODUCERS SEEK TO CURTAIL INFLUX OF SUBSIDIZED GERMAN GOODS

London, June 21.—(C.P.)—Alarmed by mounting imports from subsidized industries in continental countries, an organized campaign has been launched by business interests in Great Britain for anti-dumping measures patterned on Canadian and the United States plans.

The Empire Industries Association has taken the lead in the movement against such imports and has directed its heavy guns on Germany in particular, which in recent years has captured a big slice of the United Kingdom market in the low-priced motor car field.

The Association points out that imports of German light cars increased from twenty-eight in 1935 to 5,181 in 1937, while 3,183 were admitted during the first four months of 1938 despite a 35-1.3 per cent ad valorem duty.

The German product, known in the Reich as the "Strength-Through-Joy" car, retails in the United Kingdom from £135 ($875) or anywhere

Chinese Bolster Defence Points As Flood Waters Halt Japanese Offensive

Unexpected Delay in Japanese Advance Also Allows Chinese to Import Large Quantities of Foreign Arms and Munitions — Japanese Forces Divided into Two Armies to Press Warfare into Northern Areas.

Shanghai, June 21.—(C.P.)—China reorganized and strengthened Hankow's defences today while Japan's offensive against the temporary capital remained stuck in the mud by the spreading flood of the Yellow River.

Every day's delay to the Japanese, the Chinese high command said, has been used to bolster strategic points blocking what is expected to be Japan's line of attack deeper into China.

Sixty new divisions, numbering about 500,000 men, were said to have been prepared to take up positions in Hankow's last line defence.

The unexpected delay also was vitally helpful, Chinese declared, in assembling new equipment, including a large number of planes from Russia and elsewhere, 1,200 Russian tanks, 380 Russian guns and 500 other guns.

Blocked by the floods, the Japanese were reported in retreat from the Honan Province front where, two weeks ago, wavering Chinese resistance placed Chengchow, junction of the north-south Peiping-Hankow and east-west Lunghai railroads, in peril of capture.

Chinese sources said the invading forces were dividing into two armies. One, they said, apparently would join the Yangtze river offensive against Hankow and the other would attempt a new campaign against the Chinese Communist stronghold in Shensi province in the northwest.

PREPARE NEW CODE FOR MEDICAL GROUP

Halifax, June 21.—(C.P.)—General Council members of the Canadian Medical Association resumed their meetings today to discuss "a new code of ethics in the medical profession." No further details were given when the subject was announced at the close of the annual convention's first day sessions yesterday.

The first day saw an important step in the development of the Association. Seven of the nine provincial medical societies represented at the meeting approved a plan wherein they would become divisions of the national organization. Only two, the New Brunswick and Manitoba societies, retain their original identities.

Tonight Council members will be guests of the Nova Scotia Health Department in a dinner with the Canadian Public Health Association meeting in annual session at the same time. Sir Humphry Rolleston, of Surrey, England, physician to the late King George V, will be the speaker.

LAKE SHIPPING RESTRICTED BY UNUSUAL SLUMP

Lack of Saleable Grain at Lakehead Held Responsible for Greatest Part of Slump.

Toronto, June 21.—(C.P.)—A seasonal slump has hit Canadian shipping on the Great Lakes and more than sixteen vessels have been taken out of service until an expected traffic revival about July 15. Sarnia reported six grain carriers laid up, the biggest mid-season tie-up in years.

Shipping men in Toronto attributed the lack of cargoes principally to shortage of saleable grain at Fort William and Port Arthur. There are only 2,000,000 bushels of contract grade wheat in store at the lakehead.

The tie-up is accentuated by the increased number of ships put in service this spring to handle an unusually heavy volume of shipping, which included a rush of corn from Chicago and even wheat shipped from Toronto to the lakehead, a report said.

CARNATION MILK DECIDES TO LOCATE HERE

Erection Of $250,000 Plant To Benefit District Farmers

Lengthy Negotiations Between Company and City Officials Successfully Climaxed Yesterday—Sherbrooke Plant Will Have Capacity of 200,000 Pounds of Fresh Milk Per Day, Representing Daily Output of 2,000 Cases of Evaporated Milk.

Establishment in Sherbrooke of the Carnation Milk Company, by which a practically unlimited market will be opened for the milk production of Eastern Townships farms, was announced by Mayor Marcus Armitage last night at a meeting of the City Council.

Decision of the Carnation Milk to build its second Canadian plant in this city has climaxed almost two years of negotiations between the company and city officials.

All arrangements have been completed, the necessary contracts signed, and the company is ready to proceed with clearing and levelling of two lots on Wellington street south in preparation for the erection of a $250,000 building. Lots have been acquired from the Sherbrooke Railway Company and the Sherbrooke Real Estate Company and include the site of the old car barns. Considerable preliminary work will be necessitated before construction of the factory can commence.

The Carnation's only other plant in Canada is located at Aylmer, Ont., with a receiving station at Springfield, Ont.

W. C. Cross, of Oconomowoc, Wis., vice-president of the company, stated to a Record representative following the Council meeting last evening that the Sherbrooke plant will have a capacity of 200,000 pounds of fresh milk per day. "This means," he said, "that a practically unlimited market will be opened for district milk producers."

The plant's capacity will allow for a daily output of 2,000 cases of

PRETTY CLOSING EXERCISES BY YOUNG PUPILS

Many Parents and Interested Friends Attended Closing Exercises at "Le Petit Chateau," Mrs. McCaw's Private School on Quebec Street.

Among the many school festivities marking the cessation of lessons for the summer holidays, perhaps nowhere are the closing exercises more intriguing than at Mrs. McCaw's private school where the youthful pupils presented a charming programme to the delight of their proud parents and interested friends.

The programme for this season follows: Hymns, "All Things Bright and Beautiful," "Dare to Be a Daniel," and "When He Cometh"; French dialogues by the pupils of grades I and III; French songs by the school, "An Clair de la Lune," "Mon Frere Jacques" and "Allouette"; recitation by Jimmie Dick, reading lessons dramatized by Grade I, "The Big Basket" and "The Circus"; nursery rhymes in song, "Jack and Jill" and "Hey Diddle Diddle"; singing the flag songs, "The Maple Leaf" and "O Canada," by the school play, "Hansel and Gretel"; by the pupils of Grades II and III; presentation of prizes, when each pupil received a school closing gift from Mrs. McCaw.

All pupils successfully passed their June tests and the results follow:

Grade I, in alphabetical order: Judy Armitage, Patricia Arter, Jean Barrie, special prize for reading; Elizabeth Blue, special prize for number work; John Brown, Jackie Bryant, Joan Clark, Jimmie Dick, Jean Edwards, Jimmie Gilbert, Barry Holt, Nancy Munster, Ardith Stewart, special prize for writing; Janet Tailion.

Grade II, in order of merit: Bobby Muir, Mr. Gingras' prize; Joan Codere, prize for writing; Betty Black, Mrs. Moffatt's prize for rapid arithmetic; Francis Clark, prize for writing.

Grade III, in order of merit: Vera McCrea, first prize; Margaret McFadden, prize for French; Jeffrey Skelton, Mrs. Moffatt's prize for politeness; Rosemary Graham; Mary Skelton; John Black, prize for general improvement; Bobby Walters; John Mitchell, prize for improvement in writing.

CITY COUNCIL ADJOURNED FOR SUMMER PERIOD

Ald. J. E. Royer Appointed Pro-Mayor to Replace Ald. J. E. Lacroix at Last Night's Session of City Fathers.

City Council last night left little time in clearing its slate of routine business and adjourning until September. There were few items of importance on the City Fathers' agenda, and Mayor Marcus Armitage's announcement that the Carnation Milk Company had decided to locate in Sherbrooke and Ald. Alfred Cinq-Mars' forecast of further changes in the Police Department were the only highlights of the session.

Although it was a hot night, the aldermen's tempers were quite cool. Perhaps they were too weary with the heat to indulge in any discussions. Even Ald. Eugene Thibault, the chairman of the Finance Committee who explodes quite frequently, was well-behaved. He even had a complimentary remark for Mayor Armitage regarding the Carnation Milk matter.

Ald. J. E. Royer was appointed pro-Mayor to replace Ald. J. E. Lacroix, whose three-month term has expired. Here Ald. Thibault worked up enough energy to suggest "the same salary" for Ald. Royer. This was considered a jolly remark and the Council laughed. There is no remuneration for Mayor, pro-Mayor or Aldermen in the civic administration.

Upon the motion of Ald. Maurice Delorme, Council agreed to set Thursday, June 23rd, and Thursday, June 30th, as market days, so as not to conflict with St. Jean Baptist Day and Dominion Day.

Council also approved expenditure of $5,000 for material for the construction of the Vacation Colony camp.

Permission was refused the Canadian Exposition Show to hold a carnival in Sherbrooke and the services of a temporary employee at the Tourist Bureau were engaged.

City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers read a letter of thanks and appreciation from Rev. E. C. Amaron, Principal of Stanstead College, in connection with the work of the municipal fire department during the conflagration that razed the college's main building.

Request from undertaking establishments that they be exempt from the twenty dollar license fee for ambulances was tabled for further study.

High Time City Authorities Start Paving London Street

Residents of London street, "choked and cloaked in a cloud of dust," are up in arms against the City Fathers over the delay in connection with the paving of this thoroughfare. London street is admittedly in a deplorable condition. The street is rough and the dust thick. A recent petition to the City Council that the street be paved has gone unheeded—in fact, it was even reported "lost" until one harassed citizen offered to personally delve into municipal files and retrieve it. The civic authorities quickly found it them—but no action has been taken, and resident along that street are suffering accordingly.

Recently the City Council declined not to pave any streets until petitioned by citizens to do so. At that time they already had the request from the majority of London street proprietors. The Council's stand was welcomed by the London street citizens. "Now something will surely be done!" they exclaimed.

Previously, they had been told that the street was too long and the cost too high for immediate paving work. The City could not afford it. Large sums were spent right and left, but nothing could be done about London street. The Council's decision to pave only upon the citizens' request appeared to "cinch" the matter. The City had already had a petition from London street. There seemed no excuse for further delay.

College And School Grant Property Essential To New Lennoxville Span

With the necessary land granted to the Town of Lennoxville by officials of Bishop's University and Bishop's College School, work will go ahead at once on the approaches to the new three-span bridge to be constructed on the site of the present "Long Bridge," it was learned by the Record last night from Henry W. S. Downs, Mayor of Lennoxville.

It is estimated that cost of the new structure will be approximately $100,000. During the construction of the present wooden bridge will be shifted over towards its former pier, so that traffic can continue to pass over the St. Francis river at this point.

Mayor Downs said that Lennoxville is indebted to the University and School for their generosity in granting the necessary property for the project. In appreciation of their kindness an attractive fence and gate will be placed along the highway in front of the University, enhancing the appearance of both the thoroughfare and the campus.

The new bridge will be the third to be constructed within a short time near Lennoxville. Last year the College street span was damaged by flood waters and a modern concrete and steel structure erected. In addition, the new Comstock bridge on the Sherbrooke-Stanstead highway was recently opened.

COLLECTING OF GARBAGE SHOWN TO COUNCILMEN

Films illustrating the manner in which trucks used by the City of Montreal for Garbage Collection Operate.

Films showing the manner in which garbage trucks used by the City of Montreal operate were shown before Mayor Marcus Armitage and members of the Council following the regular session of the City Council last night. The films were screened by two representatives of the trucking firm which supplied the trucks used in Montreal.

Claimed capable of carrying three tons of garbage each, the trucks are equipped with a hydraulic press which packs the garbage into a compact mass, thus making it possible for the trucks to carry this large amount of garbage at each trip.

At the present time nine horse-drawn carts and one motor truck are used in garbage removal here. It is claimed by the truck company representatives that one of their machines similar to those used in Montreal would do the work of at least three of the horse-drawn vehicles.

Cost of the trucks is approximately four thousand dollars each. In addition to the hydraulic press, the trucks are equipped with a device for raising and opening the body automatically.

Some weeks ago a delegation from the City Council went to Montreal to inspect the garbage-collecting facilities of that city, but no decision has as yet been reached concerning any change in the present system used here.

ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC GREAT SUCCESS

Event Held on Shores of Lake Memphremagog by St. Andrew's Church Was Much Enjoyed—Sports Featured Programme.

The children of St. Andrew's Sunday School, accompanied by their parents, journeyed to Wright's Beach, near Magog, Saturday afternoon and spent a delightful afternoon on the shores of Lake Memphremagog.

Buses and cars left the church at 1:30 p.m. and upon arrival at the beach most of the picknickers made use of the very excellent bathing facilities to cool off after the trip from Sherbrooke.

During the afternoon baseball and other games were enjoyed. Supper was served at about five p.m. Much enjoyment was experienced by participants and spectators in the quality of the records established. At the close of sports programme Rev. J. R. Graham presented prizes to the winners.

The return trip was commenced at 6:45 p.m. and concluded one of the most successful picnics ever held by St. Andrew's Sunday School. The weather was warm and while thunder was heard in the distance no rain fell during the afternoon to mar the outing.

The appreciation of the Sunday School was expressed to those who kindly assisted in making the outing successful by loaning cars and making donations to the picnic fund.

Predicts Further Changes In Municipal Police Department

Alderman Cinq-Mars Declares that in Six Months Time "No One Will Recognize the Department"—Denies Rumors of Friction Between Chief Camirand and Members of Police Board—Recent Promotions Have Gone into Effect.

Still greater changes in the Police Department were predicted last night by Ald. Alfred Cinq-Mars, chairman of the Police Committee, at the regular semi-monthly session of the City Council.

The Police Board president would not elucidate what these additional changes would be. He flatly stated, however, that in six months "no one will recognize the present Department." Rumors of friction between Chief of Police H. O. Camirand and the Police Committee were denied by Ald. Cinq-Mars. The Chief and the members of the Police Board were working in close harmony for the welfare of the Department and its greater efficiency in the future.

Changes to date have been numerous. Installation of the radio police, training of the cadets, instruction in firearm drill, centralization of the Department's telephone system construction of lockers for the accommodation of the police and firemen and recent announcement of promotions have been included among the steps taken by City Council to improve and modernize the workings of the Department.

But Ald. Cinq-Mars does not appear satisfied to rest there. Former chairman of the City Hall Committee, he has taken up his new duties with ardor and enthusiasm. When asked what further changes he had in view for the Police Department, he stated to a Record reporter that he could make no statement at present, as he desired to discuss these plans with Chief Camirand and obtain his opinion before acting.

Ald. Cinq-Mars last night refused to claim full credit for whatever improvements were to be noted in Chief Camirand's departments. The Police Committee as a whole had been responsible for the changes, he said, and he could have accomplished nothing without their co-operation. Continued on page 7, col. 6.

But What Of Sane Progress?

High are floating the powerful banners of might in the world today, as war rages in Spain and China, and harsh civil orders are carried out in Russia and that section of Europe that is known as greater Germany. Headlines leap out from front pages. "Two Thousand Jews in Prison as Reich Renews Drive," "Jews Face Renewed Terror," "Vienna Jews Terrorized by Nazis," "Purge of Purges Carried Out in Ukraine by Stalin," "Murder in Spain," "Villainy in China."

Truly, Mars is having a rare feast at the expense of the world, and how he must chuckle at man's foolishness. Twenty years since the end of the Great War, and already the world seems to be tottering towards another mass blood-letting. Veterans of France are still alive throughout the world. Soldiers that fought on both sides. Men who today are in their early fifties, vigorous, active and in the prime of life. During those four years of war these men must surely have learnt respect and admiration for their enemies. Respect for the endurance that kept the dreary years of battle rolling on and admiration for courage under stress. But they must also have learnt hate and resentment. Hate for the dirt and suffering of the trenches; resentment for the stupidity and grasping ambition that had brought about war.

What do these veterans think today? What are the lessons they have to give to us who come after? Surely there is some other cure for the ills of the world but this continuous blood letting. Medicine has given us wonderful healing medicines for the body, but Government seems to be unable to get past the stage of putting in a knife and letting the blood rush out, even unto those drops that mean life.

Instead of progress it seems as if we are going backwards, for in Spain, Russia and Germany, brother turns on brother and father strikes down son. What is more unnatural than turning in hate on one's own countrymen? Even those who claim that "war is natural, man must always fight," have no glib phrase to explain away civil war or internal purges.

What is the answer to this problem which is cutting away the very foundations of civilization as we know it? The world has failed in bringing men to that level where they can govern themselves calmly and peacefully for the good of all. And, sorrowful as it may be, the powers for good must fight with what weapons they have at hand.

In order to preserve a sphere for progress, freedom, art and peaceful living the democracies must arm and be ready for any eventuality. They must be stronger than the powers of hate battering at them from all sides. Disarmament has not proved a beacon for a war-weary world but has only given dictatorial nations time to lead in the race for supremacy. Therefore, if we are to have the right to fulfil our own destinies each one must be prepared for sacrifice and do his part.

Canada At Glasgow Empire Exhibition

The Montreal Gazette, commenting on the part Canada is taking in the Empire Exhibition at Glasgow, says the Dominion stands to profit judging by the keen interest taken in the Canadian Pavilion and the goods on display.

The current number of Scottish Trader, the organ of the grocer and cooked meat trade, contains an illustrated article on the Canadian exhibits, in which Major G. B. Johnson, Trade Commissioner for Canada in Scotland, tells of the numerous inquiries about Canadian wares and the practical results already achieved. According to Major Johnson, the firms exhibiting are very pleased with the prospects. During the first eleven days of the Fair no less than 32,425 samples were sold, including cheese, apples, canned fruits, vegetables and soups, bacon, honey, maple syrup and sugar, salmon and lobster, tomato sauce, confectionery, macaroni and cheese, and salmon sandwiches, the bread of the latter being made of eighty per cent Canadian flour; whilst Vienna rolls are made entirely of the flour of Canada. The demand created by the sale of these articles will be diverted to the shops of Glasgow and other parts of Scotland which stock Canadian products. The possibilities of increased sales as a result of this distribution of samples may be estimated from the fact that in the first eleven days a total of 1,038,319 people visited the Exhibition, as compared with 476,099 during the same period at Wembley.

One of the striking features of the Canadian Pavilion is a gigantic map of Canada in burnished copper, covering an area of 1,000 square feet. This vividly illustrates the Dominion's resources and varied enterprises. Mining centres, cities, aerodromes, power plants and Mounted Police outposts are marked, and by pressure of a button the visitor may illuminate any point of interest. The officials in charge of the Canadian Pavilion comprise, in addition to Major Johnson, J. O. Turcotte, Exhibition Commissioner, and J. M. Boyer, Assistant Trade Commissioner, and, of course, members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. The article in the Scottish Trader testifies to their efficiency in carrying out their duties.

Circus Is In Town

What joy, delight and happiness, today is circus day! What thrill is there to equal sitting in a great tent, chewing peanuts and howling at the clowns? Even the most staid of us gasp at the stunts of the man on the flying trapeze and lose our hearts to the pretty performer on the big white horse.

There may be those who think that an editorial page is too dignified to comment on a circus, and that an editorial on clowns, animals and performers smacks of advertising—a return for paid notices or press passes.

However, nothing daunted we will push on, admitting freely that this article is written with the express purpose of trying to induce you to go to the circus tonight. In these days when a mixture of gloom and horror, nicely seasoned with bloodiness, seems to be the prevailing spirit abroad, anything that can add to the sum total of human pleasure and happiness deserves to be thrust as much as possible into the public gaze.

A circus is one of those events that you usually start out to with the intention of seeing that "the children have fun, don't you know," and end up by staying out to look at the sights long after the younger members of the family want to go home.

By all means, go to the circus, no matter with what intentions you start out with. Forget cares, business worries, and the all round rotten state of things in the world. Have some fun and forget that you are a dignified, respectable citizen. Take your coat off, buy some candy and find that divine gift of laughter. Try to see a bit of yourself in the clowns as they tumble by, rolling along with their antics, and realize that perhaps we all take ourselves too seriously.

If it is childish to roar with laughter, then be children. If it is undignified to sit in a great tent, eating too much and stuffing in too many soft drinks, then be undignified. But whatever you do, have some fun and enjoy yourself.

Editor's Note-Book

It seems that residents of London street have had a petition for paving before the City Council since last February. Why then the cry from the City Fathers that no work will be done unless the citizens ask for it? London street dwellers have passed the stage of sending petitions; they are really begging for a paved road.

Travel by air has made possible a lot of things that seemed incredible a few years ago. Recently a breakfast party was held in Buffalo at which all the guests arrived by plane from places miles and miles away, and as soon as breakfast was over, they all dispersed to their daily business, as if nothing unusual had taken place.

It is reported that Japanese authorities are offering cash payment for every head of a Chinese guerrilla that is brought in. And this is an age when we believed that head-hunting had been suppressed, except perhaps, among some of the most savage Dyak tribes. Civilization has not got even skin-deep among the Japanese.

Dr. Dafeo had his birthday just a day after the quints but it's a good job he wasn't a day late when the famous Dionne girls made their bow.

Congratulations to Lieut.-Colonel Henry Gagnon of the Soleil, who is celebrating twenty-five years of service with that newspaper.

BRITISH STEADINESS UNDER STRESS

(Ottawa Citizen)

At this moment, British relations with Italy may be more strained than they have been at any time since the beginning of the civil war in Spain. The bombings of British ships in the Mediterranean arena is calculated to strengthen British opinion into a stronger demand for retaliation than even Premier Chamberlain can resist.

The majority of British people are probably convinced that Mussolini is treacherous. The whole nation has manifested British steadiness under the humiliating circumstances of the non-intervention committee's effort to confine the present Mediterranean war to Spain. The submarine piracy last year would have brought the British navy into action against the lurking enemy but for the will of the British people to keep out of the bottomless pit of another war.

Many Conservatives, as well as the Liberal and Labor leaders of opinion, would now agree more than ever with Anthony Eden's view that Mussolini and Hitler cannot be trusted. He wanted more evidence of good faith before relying on negotiated agreements with the Fascist and Nazi states.

By-elections have shown a strong British aversion to Lord Halifax's way of handling the situation since he displaced Mr. Eden at the Foreign Office. At the same time, the responsible British ministers may well be sustained by the knowledge that they are pursuing an honest course, endeavoring to find a civilized way to settle international differences.

There is something more to be said, too, for the Chamberlain policy of patience, even when British ships are sunk by skulking submarines and bombed by aircraft—as cities are being bombed in the conflict of outside forces over the prostrate body of Spain. An extension of the war over Europe would involve millions of people, innocent people in civilized countries including Great Britain and France, in its final horror. It would blast the very structure of civilization. It would bring no relief to Spain, but it might bring even more diabolical bombing on London, Paris, Berlin and Rome than is at present being inflicted on Barcelona and Canton.

Sentiment for the Spanish republic cannot be allowed to determine British policy toward Germany and Italy, any more than the youth of the nation should be set on the march in defence of British investments abroad. Many influences operate to excite public opinion to the point of pushing nations into conflict abroad for reasons of sentiment, or of investment, has to be followed with sober determination.

THE FRENCH PRESS

RAILWAY QUESTION

(L'Evenement, Quebec)

Mr. Hungerford is the technical administrator of the National Railways. He directs the state railway system which is larger, but apparently less fortunate, than the Canadian Pacific, whose active president is Sir Edward Beatty. These two leaders whom circumstances have placed in opposition have both grown up in their respective services. Both are considered to be placing the public interest above any advantages the C.N.R. or the C.P.R. may obtain from the present discussion. There is no question between them of any industrial rivalry, but of an essential co-operation the details of which are to be solved for the economic progress of Canada.

What is seen what degree of administrative co-operation Sir Edward Beatty proposes, without establishing a monopoly, to eliminate the cost of extravagant competition and to realize economies which may range from fifty-six to seventy-five million dollars a year. Mr. Hungerford objects to this sort of association which does not admit the correctness of the estimates given. He believes that the two enterprises should co-operate to a greater extent, but without destroying useful competition. As a counter-proposition to the Beatty project, he suggests a sort of arbitral tribunal to which Parliament would entrust the power of forcing the directorates of the C.P.R. and the C.N.R. to submit to the exigencies of certain disputed improvements.

Undoubtedly, if Mr. Hungerford seems to represent the point of view of his colleagues in the direction of the National system, it does not follow that he is speaking in the name of the Government. His opinion is that of an expert personally engaged in a discussion. As Sir Edward Beatty he is invited to present his thesis on the facts and figures, and especially on the technical arguments. Ultimately, it will remain for the representatives of the people to give the practical solution to this controversy.

PRESS COMMENTS

DECLINE OF THE ENGLISH SUNDAY

(London Spectator)

The heavy fall in the number of children attending Sunday schools reported at the Baptist Union meetings this week (Baptists, 16,000 fewer in the year; Congregationalists, 23,000; Methodists, 66,000; Anglicans, 82,000) is a serious matter for the churches, but perhaps not as serious as it looks. By no means all the lapsed thousands would have gone on to be church members, and by no means all of them will fail to become church members. The general attitude toward Sunday, and the family car in particular, has created heavy competition to the Sunday school, which can never hope to retain anything like the place it held in the life of the churches a generation ago. Whether it can even retain any place at all is a little uncertain.

FRANCE FACES THE FACTS

(Sibley Huddleston in The Contemporary Review)

The real problem is not financial—though severe penitence must now be done for the years of prodigality and falsification of the national finances. The real problem is social. There must, unless France is to decline in status, be a return to discipline, to order, to legality. The gospel of idleness, preached and practised with such lamentable effects, the policy of hatred and of the clenched fist, must efface themselves before the needs of production. In short, France must again submit to non-sectarian government. And unless France is to abdicate her place in Europe, to surrender to irresistible external force, there must be an immediate Franco-Italian reconciliation with diplomatic representation at Rome, and an understanding between France and Nationalist Spain. To imagine that it will be easy to repair the ravages of the Front Populaire would be to betray complete incomprehension of the political malady of France; and the Daladier Government must be judged by its works. Yet I may truly say that it starts after a distressing period, with the world's good wishes and a reasonable hope of some measure of success.

It's wrong to say dictators have no sense of humor. Mussolini calls Italy and Germany "democracies."—Quebec Chronicle-Telegraph.

What is so rare as a day in June? Well, a day in Spain without a harrowing slaughter of innocents would be something of a novelty.—Stratford Beacon-Herald.

If we are to save democracy in this country we must find a way to iron out the violent fluctuations in our business cycle.—W. Elliot Janeway, economist, writer.

Sometimes it seems to me almost as if the world must wait for understanding leadership until youth of today comes to maturity.—Dr. Harry Woodbury Chase, chancellor of New York University.

The people of today have failed to develop a quality of inner life.—Rev. Dr. Charles R. Brown, dean emeritus of the Divinity School at Yale University.

GRAND FINALE

HAVE A SMILE

The Florida beach and the blue sky looked inviting to the visitor, but before venturing out to swim he thought to make sure.

"You're sure there are no alligators here?" he inquired of the guide. "Noahub," replied the lanky, grinning broadly. "Ain't no 'ators yah."

Reassured, the tourist started out. As the water lapped about his chest, he called back: "What makes you so sure there aren't no alligators?" "De sharks done skered dem all away!"

A colored parson, expatiating on the Prodigal Son, exclaimed vehemently:

"An brethren, let me tell you of the great love dat father had. He knew his son would come home some day, so he kep' dat fattened calf through all the years, waiting."

"That teacup you broke yesterday can't be matched anywhere, Mary!"

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Author of "You Can't Ugg," "Just Among Friends."

Fear Termites

Some of you have heard of, or have had experience with, those little white ants, or termites, that work and live in the dark, and eat the life out of sound timber, until total destruction results, unless these enemies are wiped out.

There are a great many human termites working away in this world, especially at this time, who are trying to undermine Confidence, Courage, Initiative, and Hope, which may be said to be among the timbers of human character and the contributors to happiness in this world.

These human termites—Fear termites, let us call them—are eating away each day at these supports of Confidence, Courage, Initiative, and Hope.

If nothing is done about it, the little white ants are happy and work, night and day, at their task of consuming the very life of the wood in which they work. It is their life, for they live upon wood.

It is a terrible thing to start the fire of Fear, for it consumes everything within its area—and then hunts new spaces in which to offer its destruction.

Never has this world been so filled with human Fear termites. They are met upon the streets, in offices, and—everywhere. No constructive effort is practical until these Fear termites are eliminated.

Our forefathers were not afraid. They faced privations of which we cannot appreciate. The pioneers were not afraid. They braved every possible danger—the Indians, famine, wild animals, sickness—and many of them, death.

Let us get rid of these Fear termites! Let us exterminate them wherever found—exterminate them with the very things that they hope to exterminate: Confidence in the future, Courage to face loss and discouragement, Initiative to build anew by creating something useful, and Hope on which to live while the process of recovery is on its way. Fear termites cannot live upon a programme such as this! Nor can they combat it.

McKENNEY ON BRIDGE

LEADING TRUMPS AT FIRST CHANCE CAN LEAD TO DISASTER

BY WM. E. MCKENNEY
Secretary, American Contract Bridge League

"Draw the trumps from the short hand as soon as you have no further use for them—and not before."

This is a good rule for the declarer to follow, instead of leading his trumps at the first opportunity, then discovering too late that he needs another ruff in dummy to make his contract trick.

In today's hand, North, the declarer, has a single problem after the opening lead. In common with many another hand at the bridge table, the choice of the best double dummy lead would have defeated the contract, but you will admit that the underlead of the ace and king would be rather unusual defense against a suit contract to win 10 tricks.

South's opening bid was so light that he would have been hard pressed to find a ruff if East had passed. However, with the interesting bid, he was able to tell his partner that

Contract Problem

(Solution in next issue)

Seven no trump by South was a ticklish contract to arrive at. Can you discover how the contract was made, despite the fact that West opened a club?

he held a minimum, and then contracted for game on the strength of his trump honor when North bid three hearts.

When East saw the dummy, he shifted at once to a trump, in order to prevent a ruff of a spade in dummy. North saw two lines of play which might give him his contract. A successful finesse against the club queen involved finding a three-two diamond distribution, and if this were to be played for, the entire hand might just as well rest on it.

A low diamond was led from dummy after winning the second trick there with the heart king. West won and returned a club. North refused the finesse, drew trumps and made his contract.

Social and Personal

The many friends of Mrs. A. Purse, Short street, will regret to hear that she is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital where she underwent an operation yesterday.

Mrs. Robert Smith and her three sons, Ronald, Robert and Gordon, left Sunday to join Mr. Smith in Dundas, Ont., where they will in future make their home.

Rev. Basil Jones, Dean of Divinity at Bishop's University, Lennoxville, and Mrs. Jones, left yesterday for New York whence they sail on the Queen Mary to spend the summer holidays in England.

Miss Elizabeth Terrey, a bride-to-be of the week, was the guest of honor at a delightful bridge party given by Mrs. Robert Smith at her home on Bethune street. Bridge was played at two tables, the prizes being won by Miss Florence Kingsley and Miss Ruth Leslie. The bride-elect was presented with a pyrex shower, these most acceptable gifts being artistically done up like a prettily decorated wedding cake. Tea was served in the dining room, the lace covered table at which Mrs. F. Campbell, of Cookshire, presided, being centered with yellow chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl and green, yellow and white candles in crystal candelabra.

Mrs. A. J. Ross and Mrs. Francis Gelinas entertained on Saturday afternoon at the former's home on Frontenac street, in honor of Miss Ena Seaward, a bride-to-be. Mrs. J. S. Mooney and Mrs. Daphne Mooney entertained delightfully at the tea hour on Saturday afternoon, at their home on Walton avenue, in honor of Miss Simone Desmarais, whose marriage takes place this week. The living room was gay with summer flowers and in the dining room, where tea was served, the table, covered with a "Barone" lace cloth, was centered with a hand chased silver bowl filled with pale pink peonies, and lighted by tall white tapers in silver holders. The color scheme was continued in sweets and ices. Mrs. Desmarais, mother of the bride-to-be, married tea and the ices were cut by Miss Claribel Mooney. Assisting were the Misses Gladys Johnston, Maureen McManamy, Grace Baker and Alice McKenna. The guests were given cards on which to write their favorite recipe. These when completed were placed in a pretty hand-painted box and presented by the hostesses to the guest of honor as a souvenir of the happy occasion.

Members of the Sir John Sherbrooke Chapter of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire are greatly elated over the success which attended their Street Fair, the proceeds far exceeding their expectations, especially as the weather proved so unpropitious. The various prizes winners were announced as follows: Mrs. H. K. Stearns, of Westmount, the hand knitted bed jacket; Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell the petite-pointe pillow and Mrs. W. E. Hume the angel cake. Special thanks were extended to those outside the Chapter, whose willing and capable assistance is greatly appreciated by Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell, the regent, and her band of faithful followers, who so splendidly "carried on" and by their cheerfulness and determination made a huge success of what "might have been" a dismal failure. Especial mention was made of Messrs. R. Larabee, Cliff Bryant, Eddie McGinty and Ernest Armitage, while to everyone who assisted the members of the Chapter are deeply grateful.

Congratulations are being extended today to Mr. John H. Gordon, Vimy street, on the occasion of his seventieth birthday.

Mrs. E. F. Tomkins, of Coaticook, is spending a week in Sherbrooke visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Tomkins, Dufferin avenue.

The many friends of Master Douglas Davies, Island street, will be sorry to hear that he is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital where he underwent an operation for appendicitis yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Badger and sons, Messrs. Gordon and Ernest Badger, of Bolton Pass, and Miss Grace Grandmaison, of Knowlton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin, Aberdeen avenue, during the week-end.

Mrs. C. A. Baldwin, of Tomifobia, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Molyneux, and family, King street west, after spending a week in Ayer's Cliff where she was a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. E. Doran.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cochrane, of Georgeville, Que., announce the engagement of their daughter, Evelyn Gibson, to Kenneth S. Muer, son of Mr. Alfred Muer, of Montreal, and the late Mrs. Muer, the wedding to take place quietly early in July at Montreal.

The many friends of Miss Maise Stormont, of Bury, who is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital, will be pleased to hear that she is progressing favorably. Mrs. W. Stormont, who is in Sherbrooke to be near her daughter, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. Cathart, London street.

Miss Lottie O'Boyle, of Ottawa, who journeyed to Sherbrooke to attend the O'Boyle-Temple wedding and has since been a guest of her brother, Mr. A. J. O'Boyle, and family, at their home on Laurier avenue, left yesterday for Quebec to attend the National convention of the Catholic Women's League, in which she holds office in the Capital City.

Mr. Alan B. Mooney, who is about to assume the role of benedict, was the guest of honor at a smoker given at the Mayor House on Saturday evening. On behalf of the friends assembled, Mr. Newton Munkittrick made a suitable presentation to Mr. Mooney, voicing in a felicitous and humorous speech their best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Mrs. Franklin Terrey entertained delightfully at the tea hour at her home on Pacific street for her sister-in-law, Miss Elizabeth Terrey, whom many friends are honoring prior to her marriage. The bride-elect was presented with a shower of miscellaneous gifts, which were brought into the room by her little niece, Jane Terrey, who had also been parcels packed in her doll's carriage.

Members of the Union Sewing Circle who met last evening at the home of Mrs. H. Baker, Elgin avenue, adjourned until September. Mrs. J. H. Morgan, the president, presided, and Mrs. A. Members of the Church Union Group entertained delightfully yesterday afternoon at Mrs. J. D. Joslin's home on Vimy street in honor of Miss Elizabeth Terrey, a bride-to-be of the week, who is being honored by many friends. Tea was served informally at small tables placed about the shady lawn which surrounds the hostess' attractive home. To Mrs. W. L. Reford Stewart, president of the Group, fell the pleasant task of making a presentation to the bride-elect and of voicing the best wishes of the members for her future happiness.

Mrs. W. L. Reford Stewart gave a lovely children's party on Saturday afternoon for her daughter, Ardyth, who was celebrating her seventh birthday. About sixteen youthful guests played games and spent a jolly afternoon on the lawn and later tea was served, a raily decorated birthday cake being very much appreciated. Little Miss Ardyth received many pretty gifts, in fact so numerous were her birthday remembrances that one might think "Santa Claus" had made a mistake and come too early for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cillis, whose marriage took place recently, were the guests of honor last evening at a delightful surprise party at their home on Lower Belvidere Road, where about sixty of their friends and relatives assembled to extend their congratulations and best wishes. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and during the course of the evening two presentations were made to the bride and groom. On behalf of the Belvidere Women's Institute, Miss E. I. Drummond, the president, presented a lovely occasional chair to Mr. and Mrs. Cillis, following which Mrs. Charles Parkin presented them with a beautiful dinner set from their friends. Both the bride and groom voiced their thanks and appreciation for the wedding gifts and the kind wishes which accompanied them. Delicious refreshments were served by Miss Doris Cillis, Mrs. J. W. Mahogany brown, violet shades, ivy green and cinnamon beige are among the novelty daytime colors shown in the current collection of Schaparelli, although black and navy blue are the basic spring colors. Prints are important, and include circus motifs, massed bouquets and amusing patterns of surrealist inspiration. For evening, peacock blue is the leading shade, combined with "shocking" pink or purple. A whole range of violets is also favored, and often combined with green, vivid red or deep rosewood tones.

To make celery curls, wash celery in cold water thoroughly, separate and cut away any dark colored or bruised sections. Cut the stems in short lengths, then with a sharp knife cut several slits in each end toward the center, leaving only a half or three-quarters of an inch whole. Soak in cold water until the split ends draw into curls.

KAYSER TEAM WON EIGHT STRAIGHT GAME

Conquering Kleinmen Downed City Transit

League-Leaders Won Five to Two in Fine Tilt—Beavers Came from Behind to Topple J. N. Boisvert and New Wellington Chalked Up Ten to Seven Triumph Over Lennoxville.

The Kaiser-City Transit clash drew large crowds to the centre-diamond on the Parade Grounds last night to witness a thrilling game between two evenly-matched teams. Kaiser, league-leaders, extended their undefeated streak to eight games by defeating Caliste Dagneau's crew five to two, largely as a result of the stellar pitching performance of "Burr" DiMass. New Wellington chalked up a ten to seven victory at the expense of Lennoxville while Beavers rallied to trounce J. N. Boisvert thirteen to ten in a six-inning encounter.

Henry Klein's charges, as usual, got away to a fast start and rang up three runs in the first inning. Herve Courchesne walked, Paul Drapeau singled and then Chartier, slugging Kaiser outfielder, smashed a liner at Majella Laforet, in the Transit outfield. The drive was too hot for Laforet to handle and scored three runs.

Tight fielding and neat pitching by DiMass and Hibbard, the transportation hurler, featured the game up to the fourth, when City Transit changed their swinging tactics to laying down tantalizing bunts. The Kaiser infield was caught napping and Roger Dion and big Gus Leroux crossed the platter with two runs, shaving the Kleinmen's advantage to a single counter.

Kaiser recovered their three-run lead in the fifth as Drapeau singled, Paul Dion tripled and "Guldo" Roy miscued in the City Transit infield. Although DiMass was touched for nine hits he was master of the situation throughout the battle, and whiffed eight opposing batters.

Line-ups: Kaiser: Courchesne, Drapeau, Dion, Chartier, Latulippe, Pinard, Morin, Audet, Roy and DiMass. City Transit: Roy, F. Kirby, W. Kirby, R. Dion, Leroux, Hibbard, H. Kouri, Dufour, Laforet and Cormier.

Score by innings: Transit ..... 000 200 0-2 9 2 Kaiser ..... 300 020 x-5 6 1 Batteries: Hibbard and Dufour; DiMass and Pinard.

BEAVERS FIGHTING SPIRIT TOLD
Facing a ten to six deficit going into the sixth inning against Boisvert last night, the unpredictable Beavers pulled up their socks and brought seven runs clattering over the plate to give them a thirteen to ten victory.

After two and a half scoreless innings a series of hits, passes and errors handed Boisvert five runs, and they added four more in the fourth. Beavers managed to break the ice with a brace of tallies in their turn at bat in the same inning.

A home run by Kouri, Bud Mutchler, Bill Jowett and Gosselin scored in the Beavers' half of the fifth, while McLean crossed the plate for Boisvert. Starting off the sixth the Beavers refused to be beaten and raised their first to third.

Boisvert were held scoreless in their turn at bat, and Umpire Mullin called the game on account of darkness. A home run by Dave Holgate featured the Beavers' attack.

Line-ups: Beavers: H. Terrey, A. Kouri, C. Mutchler, W. Jowett, D. Holgate, C. Terrey, W. Mutchler, D. Wootton, E. Hooge and A. Gosselin. Batteries: Moore, McLean, Corcoran, F. Slater, Patton, Murray, Heath, Bacon, Davidson and G. Slater.

Score by innings: 000 247-13 11 5 Boisvert ..... 005 410-10 10 2 Batteries: Hibbard and Wootton; G. Slater and F. Slater.

HOME RUNS FEATURED THIRD GAME
Dunc McLeod and Harry Trotter, of New Wellington, and Bozer and Lacasse, of Lennoxville, hit for four bases in the game which was won by the hotelmen by the score of ten to seven.

A nine to nothing New Wellington lead faced Lennoxville at the start of the sixth inning and although the visitors kept trying they were able to score seven runs only, while the winners added another tally in the sixth.

Line-ups: Lennoxville: Maurice, Hadlock, Lacasse, Bozer, Povey, Bellam, Moon, Bickley, J. Maurice and Dube. New Wellington: P. Dugre, Pournier, Rousseau, Trotter, McLeod, Roy, Bilodeau, Gosselin, P. Fournier and H. Kouri. Batteries: Bellam and Moon; H. Kouri and McLeod.

STERLING PLAY LAST NIGHT IN COURT TOURNAY

"Freddie" Bradley Won Straight Set Victory Over Bernadette Langis—Bishop and Goyette Downed Gagne and Joncas.

Defeating Bernadette Langis in straight sets to the tune of 6-0, 6-3 last night in the invitation tennis tournament sponsored by the Sherbrooke Lawn Tennis Association, Frederica Bradley won her way into the semi-finals and will play Gertrude Joyal this evening.

Freddie Bradley displayed the form which has made her the outstanding performer in the Eastern Townships and swept to a convincing victory. With her service and driving particularly good, Miss Bradley ran off six games in succession to take the first set love, and although Miss Langis rallied to win three games in the second set, had the match well under control at all times.

Archie Bishop teamed up with Lucien Goyette to rap out a 6-2, 6-3, 5-7, 6-0 triumph over Raoul Gagne and Bill Jones in a thrilling doubles match. After capturing the two sets with little trouble, Bishop and Goyette ran into a snag and their opponents fought from behind to pull a 7-5 set out of the fire. However, the winners pulled their game together and ran out the fourth and deciding set in short order.

In the third match of the evening Therese Boisvert and Ivan Boisvert defeated Jeanne Blouin and Hec Prefontaine 6-4, 1-6, 7-5. Keen driving by Ivan and neat placement work by Therese proved too strong a combination for Blouin and Prefontaine, although fighting very gamely and capturing the second set six games to one, were forced to bow to superior team work and court-craft.

The singles match scheduled between Johnny Hibbard and Yvan Cote was postponed.

WINDSOR MILLS SCORED SECOND LACROSSE WIN

Homesters Chalked Up Five to Three Victory Over St. Pat's to Consolidate Hold on First Place in E.T. Loop.

Windsor Mills, June 21.—Playing here last night before another large crowd the Windsor Mills lacrosse squad chalked up a five to three victory over Sherbrooke St. Pat's for their second straight triumph in the Eastern Townships Amateur Lacrosse League.

Last night's encounter was packed with thrills and spills and kept the Arena in an uproar as goals and penalties followed each other in rapid succession.

The first period was fast and furious as both aggregations went all out for the initial tally. Fifty, after fourteen minutes and fifty seconds, Bailey took a pass from Grant Dunsmore and bulged the twine behind "T. Joe" Galvin in the Irishmen's nets.

Alce Booth individual star of the night, went to work in the second chucker and notched a brace of pretty goals. His first came after four minutes and ten seconds on a pass from Alf Sundborg and his second, which sent the homesters into a three to nothing lead, was scored at six minutes and thirty-five seconds, unassisted.

Veilieux, who performed the hat trick for St. Pat's, notched their first counter after ten minutes and thirty seconds.

Neither outfit could tally in the third period, but Veilieux capped a neat goal at the seven-minute mark in the fourth frame. Alce Booth came back for Windsor Mills to score single-handed after eight minutes, ten seconds and tallied again five minutes later. Veilieux popped up again forty seconds after to paste the final goal of the game behind Tom Sundborg, Windsor Mills net custodian.

Tom Hammond Guarantees a Heads-Up, Fast-Moving Ball Club—Pete Dashedewski, an Outfielder, Expected to Arrive Today.

Tom Hammond, who after walking into a rousing reception at the new stadium on Saturday afternoon, accepted the managerial reins of the local team, really means business. He has his boys digging in with a will and will not be satisfied until their form is one hundred per cent improved.

Hammond is drilling his hitters in the art of the sacrifice bunt, and the old, tight brand of ball that his hirings played last year is more effective than the slugging, wide-open brand of ball displayed under the regime of Charley Small.

He has his players hard at work racing around the bases, aiming to speed up and improve the base running, and his pitchers are being drilled on covering the bag or balls in the standing.

Hammond is not decided whether or not "Shorty" Dimo, second sacker who came here with him along with pitcher John Redder, will start immediately but in any event, Elliot Small has been released and a new second sacker will be seen in action.

If Dimo is not in shape, Mandeville will fill in at second until Dimo's condition is O.K.'d by Hammond. At present Durbulo will play first base, Mandeville or Dimo second, Avayian short and Huxtable third, with Blandori behind the bat.

Pete Dashedewski, a two hundred pound outfielder, was scheduled to arrive today and will get into the line-up immediately. Charley Small will stay as a player, and will patrol the left-field pasture, while Johnny Crowley will roam over the center-field patch. "Tizzle" Cohen, for the time being, will stay in left field but may be changed at any time.

John Redder, the new pitcher, has a good reputation. At one time Dimo, Redder, O'Flaherty and Cicero, of St. Hyacinthe, played on the same team and Cicero, in an interview, gave Redder a good recommendation.

Redder, Calvert, Drisko, Moher, Reichel, Hammond and Ernest Wright will form the hurling brigade. Wright, who hails from Franklin, South Carolina, and won seven straight games without defeat this season, is expected at any moment by the local officials. Fallon will be given a chance to improve over his recent performances but will be cast adrift if he fails to deliver.

Hammond plans to have fifteen heads-up ball players, and is confident that his boys will hit the first division before many days pass. He Asselin and Amedee Roy will remain with the team as utility men.

Roland Dugre and his associates on the executive would have it known that Charley Small, although unable to produce a winning team, is still a valuable player. With the weight of managing a losing team off his shoulders, Charley is expected to more than pull his weight in the outfield and at bat.

Rene Loubier made a creditable showing against Babe McLeod, of Montreal. He stood right up there and kept swinging all the time, but McLeod was just a little too classy for him and wouldn't let him hit him. A flickering left shot out time and time again and baited Loubier on the snout, and McLeod would dance away again before the Sherbrooke tussler could throw in a counter-punch. This was the best fight of the evening, and there was no question as to the decision, although there was boing from some quarters of the Arena.

Our old friend Eddie Carroll recently defeated K. O. Costello on the judges' decision.

A rumor is making the rounds in local sporting circles to the effect that "Hally" Evans, speedy back-fighter for Quebec Granites, will be seen in the uniform of the Sherbrooke Athletics next fall. Evans is more than a crack athlete, he is a perfect gentleman, and would be a decidedly valuable addition to the team and to the city.

Tomorrow is the night when the whole thing will be settled. For weeks fans have been wondering whether Schmeling is too old, whether his legs will stand up, whether he can toes over the old right like he used to and whether Joe Louis is still a "sucker" for a right and still fights with his fists only.

A lot of money and maybe a championship will change hands when the Nazi standard-bearer and the "Pride of Harlem" come to grips.

LOUFETTE IS RUNNING INTO A BLACK JINX

Won Twenty Games for Second-Division Bees Last Year but Has Been Getting All the Bad Breaks this Season—Yanks Passed Red Sox.

If you look far enough down in the National League pitching records, you'll find the name of Lou Fette, of Boston Bees, and figures to show he has won only one game and lost eight this season. And right beside it you can imagine a big jinx.

Lou was one of those oldsters who won twenty games for a second-division Boston club last year. This season he has been making up for that surprising showing by getting all the bad breaks.

In the normal course of events, Fette likely would have had a victory yesterday instead of watching Bees go down to a thirteen-inning three-to-one defeat by Cincinnati. And at the same time Reds would have been returned to third place in the standing.

The Reds were officially moved ahead of Chicago's Cubs yesterday when league president Ford Frick altered his original ruling on the protested game against St. Louis May 14.

Instead of letting it stand as a Cardinal victory until it is replayed in August, Frick decided to call it a tie game for record purposes and thus Cincinnati moved a few points ahead of Chicago in the percentages.

The Reds remained there when Ival Goodman's stripe off Johnny Lanning, Pete's successor, broke up yesterday's game. The Cubs, meantime, were knocking off Brooklyn Dodgers five to one behind Bill Lee's seven-hit flinging to keep pace. The only other game yesterday returned New York Yankees to second in the American League by a three-point margin over Boston Red Sox as they conquered St. Louis eight to four in the replay of Sunday's tie.

In the nine innings Fette pitched, he gave only five hits and one walk, but that pass cost him the victory. Lonnie Fry drew it, took third on an error by Bees Garms and scored after Goodman's fly.

Bees didn't tie it up until the ninth when Bob Reis, batting for Fette, singled to bring home Bob Kahle. Then in the thirteenth, Goodman's triple brought in Wally Berger with the winning run, and seven straight games without defeat this season, is expected at any moment by the local officials. Fallon will be given a chance to improve over his recent performances but will be cast adrift if he fails to deliver.

Hammond plans to have fifteen heads-up ball players, and is confident that his boys will hit the first division before many days pass. He Asselin and Amedee Roy will remain with the team as utility men.

Schmeling And Louis Set For Feature Tilt

About Forty Per Cent of Experts Like the "Schlager" Although Weight of Public Opinion is Against Thirty-Two Year Old German—Louis Still Predicts Quick Killing.

New York, June 21.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, bronzed and ready after five weeks of hard training in the mountains, comes into town tonight for the crucial fight of his long career, tomorrow night's fifteen round tussle with heavyweight champion Joe Louis at Yankee Stadium.

It will be a far different entry from the one made by the German Schlager two years ago, when he came in for his first bout with the wonder negro. Fight experts on that occasion thought they heard the tumbrels rolling through the streets, and the odds were six to one and up that Schmeling was a goner.

This time he comes as the proud, confident conqueror, certain that by midnight tomorrow he will be hailed as the first man to regain the heavyweight title. He knocked the young negro out in the twelfth round of their first meeting, and he means to do it again before an expected throng of 75,000 and a $900,000 "house."

Again the weight of expert opinion is against the thirty-two year old German, but only in a slight degree by comparison with the 1936 fight, when Max predicted his own victory almost exclusively. This time a comprehensive poll of the experts reveals a forty per cent of them like his chances.

Having completed his workouts yesterday, Schmeling is making the five-hour trip from Speculator by automobile and train. The city is in the midst of a mild heat wave, and he is likely to feel the difference in temperature from his 2,000-foot retreat.

Louis, unless he changes his plans, will not motor in from Pompton Lakes until he appears at the Commission office for the official weigh-in at noon tomorrow. He has done some active training since his final sparring session last Sunday and is said to be eager to climb through the ropes.

Dr. William Walker, of the Boxing Commission, has pronounced the pair in perfect condition.

The gamblers still are offering attractive bets, $9 against $5 for Max's latest observations reveal that he is as cocksure as ever of the result, and even a little spiteful in his evaluation of Louis.

"He talks much about knocking me out," says Max, "but he remembers how I hit him. Don't worry, he remembers. He knows that he hit me, too, and that I took it."

Louis, who appears to have developed a genuine distaste for the German, repeats doggedly that he will score a quick killing. This hasn't been played up as a "grudge fight," but there will be considerable feeling behind every punch thrown tomorrow night.

Somehow it seems right to have the Sultan of Swat, the one and only George Herman "Babe" Ruth back in the baseball picture, and a packed stadium at Ebbetts Field roared in welcome as the "Bambino" put in an appearance. They say "Boiling Billy" is out and the Babe in. We'll see.

Harry Sharpe, sixty-eight, of St. Louis, is a fight visitor. This may not mean much to the present day crop, but Mr. Sharpe knocked out Frank Crosby in Nameki, Ill., February 5, 1893 in the seventy-third round of what is said to be the longest fight ever held under Marquis of Queensbury rules to end in a knockout.

MOGE AND PLOSKI AFTER BERTHS HERE
Bill Moge and Hal Plecki, classy infielders on last year's local Provincial Baseball League team, are in town seeking positions on Tom Hammond's aggregation, but team officials are still adamant, and are sticking to their decision not to let them play.

Fitcher Ernest Wright has arrived in town, while outfielder Pete Dashedewski was expected at noon today.

While most of the city was sleeping early today the Cole Brothers Circus roared into Sherbrooke over the Canadian National Railways from Drummondville, where it appeared yesterday, and by mid-morning the capacious circus grounds at the Plateau Camirand, in East Sherbrooke, were a scene of great interest and activity as work of assembling the circus city went on under the direction of skilled foremen. Above are Marie and Yvonne D'Arsey, two of the attractive girls who appear in the show.
