DECLARATION OF FRANCO-RUSSIAN ARMS ACCORD STARTLES CAPITALS

Despite Denial of Report by French Foreign Minister, Belief Is Generally Held that Russia and France Have Reached Some Sort of Understanding—Move Depreciated in World Chancelleries as Return to Pre-War System of Alliances, with Counter-acting Move by Germany Inevitable.

The declaration in the French Chamber of Deputies that Russia is ready to lend military aid to France in event of aggression against the latter, coupled with reiterated charges Germany is fast re-arming, continued to echo in world chancelleries today.

Foreign Minister Pierre Laval denied a military accord existed, but it seemed to be the general belief France and Russia have some sort of understanding, and in Britain and elsewhere this was deprecated as a return to the pre-war system of alliances.

If such an understanding exists, it was felt in London, Germany would necessarily have to have a counter-alliance which might have disastrous results for world peace. The Daily Herald called it counsel of the blackest despair and emphatically declared the British people had washed their hands firmly of alliances of the old pattern.

The Soviet declined comment, saying the statements were probably misinterpreted, but in Berlin the reports were bitterly labelled poisonous to the international atmosphere.

Meanwhile the Paris Chamber has approved a huge increase in the war budget and altogether her naval, military and air expenditures will be $100,000,000 higher than last year, approaching $840,000,000. Japan has already approved an increased naval budget. The government in London has given notice further increases may be expected in the British estimates some months hence.

Another disquieting factor in the international situation is the quarrel between Yugoslavia and Hungary over responsibility for the Marseilles assassinations inasmuch as the rest of the Little Entente and France support the Yugoslav charges of complicity, while Italy is ready to back Hungary in its counter-attack, labelling the Yugoslav charges "international terrorism." At the best this can only delay the much-needed Franco-Italian rapprochement.

DEFINITE ALLIANCE WITH SOVIET FORCES IS DENIED

Paris, Nov. 24.—Foreign Minister Pierre Laval today flatly denied the existence of a Franco-Soviet military accord.

This was in reference to a statement by Leon Archimbaud, French budget reporter, that the Soviet Union had offered her army to aid France in case of attack by Germany.

Archimbaud yesterday told the Chamber of Deputies that either the Soviet military alliance or military accord, merely observe that the Russian army is very strong and has been offered to us in case of conflict with Germany."

FRENCH TAXPAYER FACING HEAVY MILITARY BURDEN

Paris, Nov. 24.—An assertion from an official source that the military might of Russia had been added to France's "iron ring of security" echoed through the nation today as the French taxpayer contemplated a new staggering army appropriation of $375,000,000.

Leon Archimbaud, Reporter of the Budget, declared in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday that an "understanding" existed by which Russia would "offer" France its huge, well-equipped army and superior air force to help crush Adolf Hitler in the event German attacks France.

Authoritative denials of the reported renewal with the Soviets of the pre-war relations between France and Imperial Russia, the old Entente Cordiale were lacking. The new Minister of War, Gen. Louis Maurin, was present when Archimbaud made his startling assertion, but did not comment. He warned the deputies of the "German peril."

Other government circles, however, denied there was any military agreement between the two countries, and insisted the Budget Reporter was merely expressing his belief what France and Russia should do in the event of war.

Continued harangues concerning the danger of another German invasion by land and air, coupled with a analysis of alleged comparative weakness of the French defences, brought quick passage of the 5,689,215,855 franc army appropriation.

Total budgets for the army, navy and air force call for an expenditure by the French taxpayer of some 12,700,000,000 francs—approximately $388,000,000—on national defense in 1935, an increase of 1,640,000,000—approximately $108,240,000—over the 1934 expenditure of 11,060,000,000 francs—$730,158,000.

Thus France will spend for military purposes twenty-six per cent. of her total 1935 budget of 47,573,000,000 francs—$3,139,820,000.

French military circles have assured the nation the appropriations are necessary as France's "answer" to Hitler's "failure to observe the treaties" by rearming.

Both Archimbaud and Col. Jean Fabry, former Minister of War, said that France's knowledge of German rearmament, the details of the German troops, and information regarding the secret manufacture of arms and aeroplanes came from Russia.

Archimbaud was careful to point out there was no formal alliance between Russia and France, but declared unequivocally that an "understanding" did exist.

"We must recognize," he said, "that Hitler tried to align against the Soviet its natural enemies, first Poland and then Japan.

A BRITISH GENERAL ELECTION IN 1935?

Birmingham, England, Nov. 24.—A hint that there will be a British general election in 1935 was given yesterday by Neville Chamberlain, Chancellor of the Exchequer, during a speech at the annual meeting of the Midland Conservative Association.

He said he presumed the Association "would not have one more annual meeting during the life of the present parliament."

FLAGS WILL BE FLOWN IN TRIBUTE TO ROYAL COUPLE

Ottawa, Nov. 24.—Flags will be flown on all Dominion Government buildings on November 29, on the occasion of the wedding of Prince Maurice of Greece to the Duke of Kent, youngest son of the King and Queen, Secretary of State C. H. Cahan announced last night.

Advice has been received by the minister that by command of the King flags are being flown on that day on government buildings in Great Britain.

GERMANY WILL NOT TOLERATE ANY HOSTILITY

"All Elements Hostile to Our Regime Have Been Driven Out," Declared Propaganda Minister in Defending Work of Hitler Rule and Asking for Unified Support.

Berlin, Nov. 24.—Nazi Germany was asked today by Dr. Paul Goebbels, the Propaganda Minister, to accept existing monetary difficulties and shortages in raw materials as a means of "delivering the people from international Jewry."

The fiery little minister addressed a large gathering last night, defending the work of the Hitler regime and asking for unified support.

"The government needs courage to take unpopular measures," he said. "We know times are hard, but we are obliged to accept our destiny such as it is. A people does not satisfy its hunger through 'hurrahs'."

The Royal Commission on mass buying, he said, could not deal with minimum wages because the Supreme Court of Canada had ruled that the enforcement of the minimum wage laws was in control of the provinces.

Other facts given by Premier Bennett included:

Western wheat growers gained $25,000,000 in additional wealth because the Dominion Government had instituted stabilization efforts on the Winnipeg grain exchange and prevented prices from collapsing. The estimate covered the last six months.

The Dominion Government has no intention of terminating financial aid to the provinces for relief purposes.

Legislation respecting unemployment insurance may be introduced at the coming session of Parliament, opening sometime in January.

The Prime Minister expects to remain here during the week-end, but he may find it necessary to start back for Ottawa Sunday night. He is attending to private business during his "holiday" trip, which, like all similar trips to his home city, keeps him pretty busy.

CANADA LEADS WORLD ON ROAD TO RECOVERY

Calgary, Nov. 24.—Canada is "not out of the woods" but she is first among nations of the world in leading the way toward recovery Prime Minister R. B. Bennett told two hundred delegates to the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts convention here yesterday.

The Prime Minister who arrived in Calgary from Ottawa had a busy day, meeting many friends and associates.

In an interview, Mr. Bennett indicated legislation regarding unemployment insurance would be introduced at the coming session of Parliament, and that it may be necessary to make some amendment to the Farmers Creditors' Arrangement Act owing, he said, to difficulties in connection with dual control by provinces and Dominion of the Farm Loans Act.

Mr. Bennett found depressed conditions, world wide in effect, were causing greater interest in public affairs, and, speaking of business, said it was certain that regulations of Government would be more apparent in the future than they have previously been.

Speaking to the municipal delegates, the Prime Minister reviewed international affairs, and present conditions in Canada.

"Our own country is relatively new," he said, "and I say it to you in no boastful sense, that before the war Canada was fifth or sixth among the leading nations of the world."

Stranger as it may be she still occupies that position and sometimes better. He emphasized Canada's credit must be maintained.

Premier R. G. Reid of Alberta introduced the Prime Minister to the convention delegates, and paid tribute to his work in the interest of the Dominion.

London, Nov. 24.—Construction of a spacious building capable of being hermetically sealed, for the defrosting of Canadian chilled and frozen meat, is planned for the Port of London, it was reported today. The building, it was said, will be of 300,000 cubic feet.

STORY OF SHORTAGES IN WEIGHTS IN CANADIAN RETAIL TRADE TOLD

Dominion Inspector Found Forty-Three Per Cent. of Purchases in Certain Areas Below Indicated Weight—Hon. H. H. Stevens Characterized Disclosures the "Most Disgraceful Method of Cheating the Public There Is"—Investigation Revealed Practice Has Spread Throughout Dominion.

Ottawa, November 24.—Further evidence in the matter of short-evidence in the matter of short-ages of weights and measures in chain stores will be presented to the Royal Commission on Mass Buying when that body resumes its enquiry here on Monday. Sutherland Cuddy, Dominion Inspector, will continue his testimony.

Yesterday the Commission had Mr. Cuddy on the stand all day and heard disclosures on what Hon. H. H. Stevens, former Commission chairman, characterized as the "most disgraceful method of cheating the public there is." The witness described his investigations throughout Canada, conducted at the behest of the Commission, and showed that the practice of short-weighting the customer was widespread in chain stores and groceries.

In Ontario, the groceries, however, had a better record than the clerk-served chain stores. Mr. Cuddy illustrated this in two schedules which disclosed that the general average of shortages for both types was approximately thirty-one per cent., but, with the groceries omitted, the average, for the clerk-served chain stores exclusively, soared to forty per cent.

The situation in Quebec was different from Ontario in that the shortage percentage of both types was in the neighborhood of forty-three per cent.

Mr. Cuddy believed a reasonable situation with regard to weights and measures would be to have packages fifty per cent. overweight, forty-five per cent. correct and five per cent. short weight. Store-keepers must be given some latitude to provide for shrinkage of their goods. He believed the groceries gave their store managers a much more generous allowance for shrinkage than the clerk-served chains, and their packages were re-checked more frequently.

His investigation sometimes produced amusing results. While making test purchases in Montreal Mr. Cuddy and his colleague were in a store when the manager telephoned a warning to another store to "look out for the Government inspectors."

His arrival in Winnipeg was heralded in the newspapers with the result that storekeepers, on the principle of "forewarned being forearmed," appeared to exercise more care. When he was in Vancouver he was telephoned at his hotel by an unknown caller who enquired if he was the government man testing the weights and measures.

The practice was to send his colleagues to the stores of one chain at "zero hour" to make their purchases, and then proceed to the next chain.

The Commission today decided to place on the record the names of all who had been convicted of short-weight since January 22, 1929. Whether the names of others, who have been reported but against whom cases are pending or information has been laid, will be placed on the record has not yet been decided.

FIND SOLUTION TO MYSTERY OF COAST TRAGEDY

Explanation Tending to Lift Mystery Veil from Deaths of Two Colonists on Barren Island of Galapagos Group Offered by Tuna Clipper Captain.

San Pedro, Calif., Nov. 24.—An explanation tending to lift the mystery veil from the deaths of two colonists on one of the barren islands of the Galapagos group was offered today even as a scientific party was on its way there intent on solving the puzzle.

From descriptions radioed to the Associated Press when the bodies were found a week ago on volcanic Marchena Island, Capt. Fred Ostrem identified the victims as Arthur Estamp, thirty-four years old, and Alfred Rudolph Lorenz, forty.

The captain, who brought his tuna clipper into port yesterday, is well acquainted with the half dozen colonists who isolated themselves from the world on the islands off the coast of Ecuador.

He deduced that the two had gone to the island for fresh meat when Estamp's thirty-four foot power cruiser, the Pulmon, was wrecked on the rocks. With no passing ships to see their distress signals, the two waited certain death from thirst on the waterless island.

Ostrem said the boat was the gift of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., but in New York Roosevelt denied it. "I knew Estamp well. He was a Norwegian. Lorenz was the deserted companion of the Baroness Eloise Bonquet de Wagner. They became friends when Lorenz released Estamp after he had been held prisoner for three days by the Baroness. She had objected to his shooting fresh meat on the island."

Ostrem suggested Estamp obtained the baby clothes found near the bodies from Mrs. Albert Wittman for his wife. This also would explain the letters written by Margaret Wittman found near the bodies.

LIBERAL CANDIDATE FOR WEST HAMILTON SELECTED

Hamilton, Ont., Nov. 24.—Alderman William Ainslie, of Hamilton, last night was chosen Liberal candidate in the next federal elections for West Hamilton riding. About four hundred delegates were present at the convention where J. J. Hunt, West Hamilton Liberal Association vice-president, charged the central body's officers were violating the constitution by attempting to select the West Hamilton man without permitting the electors any choice.

Mr. Ainslie offered to face any convention, providing it was open and the central executive resigned. Mr. Ainslie's name was the only one placed before the convention.

GAME WARDEN FINDS MOOSE GIFTED WITH GOOD MEMORY

Next Time Warden Feels Like Befriending an "Antlered Monarch of the Wild" He Will Not Say It With Rocks.

Augusta, Me. Nov. 24.—Game Warden Merle Hour, of Princeton, wishes a certain bull moose might have been endowed with a poorer memory.

The warden discovered a lone moose on the highway the other day and shied a rock at the beast in an attempt to drive it into the underbrush. Although there is no open season on moose in Maine, Hour felt there might be deer hunters abroad who would be tempted to take a pot shot by mistake.

The rock plunked against the animal's ribs. Immediately thereafter the moose and the warden reached up the road, the warden leading.

Next day the warden and the moose met again in the same region. The moose bristled and the warden took to his heels. Next time the warden feels like befriending an "antlered monarch of the wild" he won't say it with rocks.

REPORT HITLER AND REICH ARE AGAIN AT ODDS

Reichswehr Said to Be Objecting to Nazi Interference in Army, to Important Place Given to Nazi Party Organizations in State and to Rhythm of Re-armament in Germany.

Paris, Nov. 24.—The usually well-informed French newspaper Le Journal, carried reports from Berlin today that conflict between the Reichswehr and the Hitler regime had been renewed. The Reichswehr were reported as objecting to Nazi interference in the army, to the important place given to Nazi party organizations in the state, and to the rhythm of re-armament in Germany.

The army, it was claimed, feels that it should be the sole judge of the way in which the Reich should re-arm.

The report said that Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler had paid two visits to General Werner von Blomberg, the Reichswehr Minister, who for some time past has remained in a sanatorium under pretence of illness. In this connection it was said that General Werner von Fritsch, chief of staff, had sent Hitler a memorandum complaining in the name of the army against the excessive importance accorded in the Nazi state to the Nazi party and its organizations.

Other reports said that General Blomberg would be replaced by General von Reichenau and von Fritsch by General Von Rundstedt, Military Governor of Berlin.

In informed quarters it was stated that the general headquarters staff approved neither the rhythm nor the re-armament methods of the third Reich. The army was said to hold the view that it should be the sole judge in the rebuilding of the German military machine. The German army will insist, the report said, that the government attempt to obtain the conclusion of disarmament convention between all the interested powers and force Germany's return to the International Council in Geneva.

The action of the general staff was reported to be receiving the support of a government group headed, it was said, by Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, interim Reich Minister of Economy.

MUSSOLINI TO SUPPORT STAND OF HUNGARIANS

Hungary Will Make Sensational Counter-Attack to Yugoslav Charges of Complicity in "Marseilles Tragedy."

Rome, Nov. 24.—Italy will support Hungary against the charges made by Yugoslavia before the League of Nations of complicity in the Marseilles assassinations, it was announced here today.

MAY CALL SPECIAL SESSION OF LEAGUE COUNCIL
Geneva, Nov. 24.—Hungary prepared a sensational counter-attack today to Yugoslav charges of Hungarian complicity in the "Marseilles Tragedy," and it was indicated that a special session of the League of Nations may be called to air the dispute.

The allegations by the Little Entente nation were termed "an act of international terrorism" by Igor Eckhardt, Hungarian delegate to the League. He conferred with Joseph A. C. Avenol, secretary-general of the League, and it was believed Hungary would ask "urgent" treatment of the question by the Council.

The Hungarian delegate is awaiting further instructions from Budapest as Switzerland, fearing possible agitation arising out of the controversy, adopted special police pre-

A MARKED CHANGE IN ATTITUDE OF JAPANESE REVIVES PARLEY HOPES

Nipponese Delegate to Naval Talks Declares He Has "Certain Ideas" for Reconciling Existing Differences at Three-Power Talks—Britain and United States Delegations to Re-open Examinations of Japanese Reasons for Demanding Naval Parity.

London, November 24.—A declaration by Admiral Isoroku Yamamoto, Japanese naval delegate, he had "certain ideas" for reconciling the divergencies existing led to a belief today there were concrete reasons for yesterday's Anglo-American decision to continue the talks with Japan, designed to produce an agreement on continued limitation of navies.

The impasse that has existed in the tri-power talks for some weeks may be broken on Monday, it was intimated, when for the first time the leaders of the Japanese and American delegations meet alone. They are Ambassador Tsuneko Matsudaira and Norman Davis, American Ambassador-at-Large.

Mr. Davis declared the Americans were optimistic of a change in Japan's "uncompromising attitude," saying if the Japanese merely wanted to get rid of existing treaty restrictions they need not have come to London or entered in any talks, because that could be done by a treaty denunciation from Tokyo.

The British and Americans, separately, will attack the problem afresh with an examination as to the actual Japanese reasons for demanding parity with their navies. National security is a fundamental of the Washington Treaty, and they want to know why Japan considers this has been upset.

Sir John Simon, British Foreign Secretary, has reasonably explained publicly that equal security for the naval powers does not imply parity in naval armaments.

There are many factors entering into national security, chiefly the question of world responsibilities, making it obvious that security for the British Empire, for one, is not the same thing in terms of fleets as for Japan.

The British and the Americans had another meeting at which it was decided the delegates must continue to discuss the problems, and agreed there was no reason at this time to abandon hope of an eventual agreement. Both delegations were opposed to granting the Japanese demands as they stand and resolved separately to attack the problem again at its centre—just why the Japanese want parity.

Talk of the British and Americans presenting a stiff front to the Japanese, it was authoritatively explained, is much too strong an interpretation of the British attitude, should the Washington ratios eventually be abandoned, to salvage parts of that treaty.

Official sources indeed were still kept busy denying or straightening out the various reports that get a circling around the problem, and agreed there was no reason at this time to abandon hope of an eventual agreement. Both delegations were opposed to granting the Japanese demands as they stand and resolved separately to attack the problem again at its centre—just why the Japanese want parity.

The Americans themselves took pains to point out the British have kept them fully informed and have not made any attempt to play the part of a broker between the American and the Japanese. Anglo-American relations have been and still are most cordial, it was emphasized.

JAPANESE NAVAL ATTITUDE OUTLINED BY AMBASSADOR
Philadelphia, November 24.—Hiroshi Saito, Japanese Ambassador to the United States, in an address last night said that "it appears" the United States and Japan "are heaven-ordained to be mutually beneficial and ever to be the co-guardians of the peace of the Pacific."

Speaking before the American Academy of Political and Social Science, the Ambassador said Japan regards the ratio system in the naval question "as inappropriate and proposes that the parity system, by the establishment of a common upper limit for all navies, should be instituted."

From this point of view, the Ambassador said, "Japan is going to give notice of her intention to terminate the Washington treaty of 1922."

"This will be done regardless of the developments at the preliminary conference at London," he added.

"There are two important points in our new proposal. The first is that equality or parity should be attained in the naval strengths of the powers concerned; and the second, that a drastic reduction should be accomplished in the naval armaments."

"Japan is earnestly interested in the diminution of the navies, so that the chance of war should be reduced and the financial burdens upon the people should be lessened."

"The most practical and the most reasonable way of accomplishing this aim would be, to the mind of the Japanese Government and people, to adopt a programme under which, in reducing the size of the navies, none would feel a menace to its national security. That is exactly the basic idea underlying the Japanese proposal."

INDUSTRIALS
MARKET LEAD

Passing of Inflation Fears Results
in Gradual Exchange of Metal
Stocks for Shares of Industrial Firms.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Industrial and mining stocks proceeded on their separate ways through another week, the former advancing and the latter continuing to go back. The retreat of the mines involved all groups although, with exception of Noranda, the already shrunken base metal shares offered more stubborn resistance to the bears for the week than the golds and the silvers.

In holding to the up side Canadian industrial shares kept in step with the New York market which registered an average gain of a little less than a point. Gold stocks, however, continued to move up on the New York board, falling there as on the Canadian markets. In some quarters the opinion is put forth that holders across the line are anticipating currency stabilization and a bull market and are switching from the Canadian golds, in which it is said, they invested mainly as a hedge against inflation, to their home industrials.

In the first five sessions of this week Dome traded 7,500 shares on the New York market, McIntyre 3,200, Hollinger 4,700, Lake Shore 4,300, Pioneer 2,500, Rock Hughes 1,200 and Wright Hargreaves 7,700. Net losses there closely approximated the recessions on the Toronto market.

In the medium-priced group of gold stocks on the Toronto market, losses were smaller than in the previous week and there appeared to be some drying up of the selling. A few of the larger recessions were twenty cents for Macassa, Little Long Lac and God's Lake, ten cents for Sylvanite and four cents for Silver Star.

Silver shares had a shaking down in the face of a rise in the price of bar silver on the New York market of three-quarters of a cent. Silver is now only five-eighths of a cent over its best price for several years. Yet Eldorado, during the week has dropped fifty cents to $1.03 and shows a shrinkage of about eighty-five per cent. from its price of a little over a year ago. The slump has not been explained by any news from the mine where, officials declare, operations are running smoothly. Nipissing lost six cents, Bear Exploration and Radium Three, White Eagle two and one-half and Castle one.

The egg market was quoted on graded shipments in cartons or 1-c. lots at 38c for A-large, 34-35c for A-medium, 32c for A-pullets, 20-21c for B, and 18c for C. Small lots in the retail trade were quoted by wholesale jobbing houses as follows:

Carton Loose
A-1 large 45c
A-1 medium 43c
A-large 43c
A-medium 39c
A-pullets 35c
B-large 27c
B-medium 25c
C 22c

The butter market continued at 21c to 21 1/4c for No. 1 in cartons or 1-c. lots, with small lots in the retail trade quoted by jobbers at 22c for solids and 23c for prints. The cheese market was 9 1/2c to 9 5/8c for No. 1 Ontario.

The potato market held steady, with New Brunswick at 40-45c; Quebecs at 35-40c and Prince Edward Island stock at 45-50c per 80-lb. bags.

Quotations on dressed poultry to the retail trade, as given by wholesale jobbing houses, were as follows on A grade, with B grade ruling 2c per pound less.

Turkeys 21-22c
Milk chickens 22-24c

MISSING ISLE
RETURNS FROM OCEAN DEPTHS

Unseen Since It Was Swallowed
Up Twenty Years Ago, "Vanishing Island" Has Suddenly
Popped Up High and Dry on Coast of Trinidad.

Washington, Nov. 24.—A vanishing island, unseen since it was swallowed by the "serpent's mouth" twenty years ago, has suddenly popped up high and dry on the coast of Trinidad to the consternation of the inhabitants of the British West Indies.

Flabbergasted by the phenomenon, the American vice-consul at Trinidad forwarded a report to the State Department today describing the antics of the strange "jellylike" visitor from sub-oceanic regions.

The geological freak, he reported, had apparently changed into something like a "well-ploughed farm" and erupted on Trinidad's shoreline like a gigantic wart on a hill pickle.

"In November 1911, this strange island rose from the sea in Erin Bay in South Trinidad," the vice-consul reported, "accompanied by extraordinary commotions in the sea and immense columns of smoke and flame. People thought the end of the world had come."

The island was composed of hot jellylike mud from which steam spouted, and it exuded a smell of sulphur, he said.

Slowly the island began disappearing, "washed away by the heavy seas and strong currents from the serpent's mouth," and then it was suddenly gone, swallowed by the waters.

"And now," he reported, "the missing island, pushed to the surface by another upheaval—has come ashore. For some distance inland near Erin a split has occurred in the earth and a large area, hitherto much the same as the rest of the island, has taken on the appearance of a well-ploughed farm. The surface is broken and cracked, thrown up here and sunken there, trees lean at absurd angles, and the whole appearance is that of a crazy quilt."

On the shore line a whole new beach, the right hand of the foot long, has been formed by subterranean upheavals and mud pushing down to the coast and raising the beach.

An official report to the British authorities says the phenomenon is of volcanic origin.

NEW DEVICE DEvised FOR TREATING FLAME VICTIMS

Skilled Mechanics Among Chicago's
Firemen Have Devised a
Spray Gun for Saturating
Burns with Tannic Acid.

Chicago, November 24.—Skilled mechanics among Chicago's firemen have developed a new device for emergency treatment of flame victims—a spray gun for saturating burns with tannic acid.

Tannic acid treatment of burns is one of the newest developments of modern medicine, although the Chinese are reported to have used the same idea. The acid, applied to burned areas, unites with the serum and forms a protective crust over the wound, barring infection, and also counteracts shock. Where once hope was abandoned for patients burned over a third of the body area, it is now possible to save life even though as much as half the skin surface is destroyed.

MASONIC LODGE HISTORY TOLD AT COATICOOK

Interesting Paper Submitted by Brother B. N. Robinson Outlined History of Ashlar Lodge Since June 7, 1867.

Coaticook, Nov. 24.—How Ashlar Lodge was organized and how it developed to attain its present proportions was the subject of an interesting paper submitted to a regular meeting of the Lodge last week by Brother B. N. Robinson. Brother Robinson had delved into the minutes of every meeting since the institution of the Lodge and his paper contained much interesting information.

The initial installation of officers for Ashlar Lodge took place on June 7, 1867. R. W. Brothier, J. H. Graham, D.D.G.M. presiding. The charter officers were George Wood, W.M., J. H. Brothier, S.W., H. R. Richardson, J.W., H. A. Wood, secretary, Stephen Davis, treasurer, Thomas B. Trihey, S.D., Albert Shurtleff, J.D., D. Young and A. Murray, stewards, and C. E. Lyman, Tyler. The Lodge was opened in the first degree under the Scottish rite after Brother Thomas, of Stanstead, read the dispensation from the Grand Lodge of Canada. Accompanying Brother J. H. Graham were R. W. Brothier, J. H. Stearns, R. W. Brothier, S. J. Foss, W. Brothier, Thos. H. D. Martin, W. B. Colby, C. S. Channell, Thomas Mart, Rev. R. P. Stewart and twenty-six brothers from other Lodges.

The Lodge rooms were located in the Jencks block at the corner of Pleasant and Cutting streets. The first applications for membership were made by Brother E. V. Norton, G. O. Oak, Wright Sleeper, A. K. Fox, A. H. Cummings and A. F. Adams. W. M. George Wood was named delegate to attend a convention in Montreal in 1869 when a Grand Lodge of Quebec was formed. R. W. Brothier, John W. White, Jr. came a member in 1877 and six years later joined the Kill-winning Lodge, Montreal, but made frequent visits to Ashlar Lodge in September, 1883. Ashlar Lodge was visited by Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, and other high officers, who were entertained at a banquet in the Queen's Hotel operated by Brother Thomas B. Trihey.

In May, 1885, the Lodge moved to the second floor of the Shurtleff block owned by Brother T. T. Shurtleff. R. W. Brothier, H. E. Channell, officiating at the opening ceremony in the new headquarters. Electric lights were installed in 1898 and on February 2, 1901, twenty brothers attended a memorial service for the late Queen Victoria in the Methodist Church. Ten months later W. Brothier, C. E. Lyman was made an honorary member of Ashlar Lodge.

On December 14, 1904, twenty-two members of Ashlar Lodge; eleven Grand Lodge officers and fifteen visitors attended the dedication of the new Masonic rooms in the Fox block on Cutting street. The new members present at the banquet which followed in the Thorndyke Hotel. The following year privilege was given Victoria Lodge No. 16, I.O.O.F., to use Ashlar Lodge rooms when their quarters in the Shurtleff block were destroyed by fire on March 7, 1905. Brother A. O. Norton presented the Lodge with a valuable chart and in November, 1907, two large pillars were donated by W. Brothier, W. G. Cross.

Eleven Grand Lodge officers, a large number of visitors and many brothers from other Lodges and a large gathering of Coaticook citizens witnessed the laying of the corner stone of St. Stephen's Church at the corner of Cutting and Pleasant streets on May 13, 1908, by Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Quebec, George O. Stanton. Brother A. O. Norton presented the Lodge with three comfortable chairs on this occasion. On April 9, 1919, the Fox block was purchased by the Coaticook Masonic Association and since that time has been the home of the Lodge.

On this date W. Brothier, Rev. C. G. Stevens was named Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Quebec.

Through the efforts and personal attention of the late Brother F. F. Christie and other brothers the Fox Lodge rooms were thoroughly renovated in 1924.

"Looking over the membership list of Ashlar Lodge I find many of Coaticook's leading business men," Brother Robinson said in conclusion. "This shows that our order better self upholds the principles of Masonry, because otherwise Ashlar Lodge would not have functioned for the past sixty-seven years. Thinking men of today realize that we are living in a very critical period—a situation brought about by jealousy, greed for wealth, lack of confidence and co-operation. What a mighty force for good would result if Masons throughout the world as well as members of all other organizations which have peace and good will as their foundation could unite in one great effort to bring the world back to normal!"

At the conclusion of his historical sketch Brother Robinson was tendered a hearty vote of thanks by the members of the Lodge.

How to Make Better Cough Remedy Than You Can Buy

A Big Saving, and It's So Easy! No Cooking!

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of plain syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make at home. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking! No trouble at all.

Then get from your druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16 oz. bottle, and add your syrup. This gives you 16 ounces of truly wonderful cough remedy, far better than anything you could buy ready-made, and you get four times as much for your money. It lasts a long time, never spoils, and children love its taste.

TALKING ABOUT BANKS AND GOLD.

Closing the doors to banking experience does seem an anomalous way of selecting the directors of what is to be the premier bank of Canada. In other words, we are expected to make bankers out of farmers, our business men and our manufacturers, but specifically such men who have had no experience or training in the technique of banking.

Yet we have to avoid the parochial in making a selection, lest the Bank of Canada be a replica of a Canadian National Railway in its amateur management.

Perhaps it might be well to put the new Bank under the supervision of the Railway Commissioners, or vice versa. It would be akin to calling a tract of land a park because there were no trees on it.

We are erecting a new institution, and through prejudice solely, we are superseding the best brains of the country with men who just think they are appointed for the purpose of showing the proven men that they do not know the gold standard from an Indian burial ground.

Banking is a profession. It requires twenty years of experience and study before even the brightest young banker gets the first glimmer of our internal and external problems. There is a difference between mechanical understanding, as practised by an automaton and the deeper knowledge of what it is all about.

We can sympathize with the young men to whom the constructive work has been confined.

The Prime Minister was quite right when he said that Canadian banking did not give to its graduates even an inkling of what is required for international exchange, and for the multitudinous volumes of statistical structures required for the mastery of export and import problems. As the fourth nation in the world as a trading nation we do require experts and trained bankers. They must have actual experience, and not just the theory of it.

As for the Directors, a board of seven is absurd.

The English banks, all of which are known as the Big Five, have at least twenty directors. The Canada Bank should have at least fifteen members on the Board. And what a time they are going to have to get even seven who will be qualified and representative when the choice is circumscribed and the best men of the country are disqualified.

Thinking it over deeply, and viewing the tangles and difficulties of the set-up even before they begin to re-model and reconstruct what we have to believe was a superior banking system, we can foresee a jolly hard time for Mr. Bennett, even though he has behind him a Minister of Finance of keen perception.

WHERE AND WHO ARE OUR LEADERS?

A powerful article on the impending orgy of Socialism in the United States, following the wave of unbridled democracy in that country, appeared in the Montreal Star from the pen of the Chief Editor.

Though the article has the poetic caption, "Sweet Dreamland Faces," there is in it some of the strongest prose it has ever been our pleasure to bear from the quiver of A. R. Carman. We reproduced it yesterday.

No government is sufficient unto itself. The administration of the day does not always constitute the representative thought of a nation, for we are prone to mistake the talkative for the thoughtful.

In this grave era of recovery and reconstruction we need the best trained brains of the country. Many of our good men have been silenced or ignored, whilst we listen to the echoes of the throng who would find pleasure in the rodeo.

We can here echo the saying of Sir Robert Peel, who, when he found that he had been pursuing the wrong jade for long years, thus made amends when announcing that he would abolish the Corn Laws of England. This was after a long period of depression following the Napoleonic wars, when England had been in sad distress, and when even her great men were doleful. For a decade John Bright and Richard Cobden had spoken with wisdom in every part of England, pointing the way.

Here is what Sir Robert Peel said:

"There is no arguing with an empty belly. Famine is no respecter of parties, and a starving people cannot wait too long for the calculations of statesmen to mature. The people expect enlightened truthfulness and helpful action. I must fulfil their expectations."

Fortwith all taxes on food were abrogated. England recovered at once. Her prosperity returned. Her place in the world was fortified.

Mark these words: England will return to the adoption of the policy of Sir Robert Peel in the not distant future.

When that happens, where will Canada stand? The Shadow knows.

A WORLD TURNED UPSIDE DOWN.

Britain turned the German navy into metal for ploughshares, and now the Germans are ploughing a lone furrow. France is fearsome and afraid, yet for twenty years before 1914 Germany was "preparing." The Teutons do make haste slowly, and we can forget them safely for ten years, even though they are beating the drum continuously.

In the meantime Count Zbarakoff, who sells munitions by the boat load, is so keen for an order that he would try to arouse jealousies and hatred between the Anglo-Saxon nations.

He has even conceived the possibility of a yellow alliance with Japan, whilst he tries to instil into the Japs that the Slavs and perfidious Albion have designs.

War talk! Well, we are too busy trying to make enough money to pay taxes and railway deficits. So doggone busy that our courts are cluttered with 82 radio license cases.

Cheer thought for to-day: No new taxes. The last of the sugar tax may go to sweeten our cup.

EDITOR'S NOTE BOOK.

Despite the regularly paid censors for the movie films there are people who would have a super-job of putting more decency into the films. These goodie-goodies remind one of the old lady in Lennoxville who thinks she is impressively good when she quotes Scripture at random and with irrelevance and irreverence. They are akin to Tom Sawyer and Aunt Polly whom Tom said was washing and scrubbing his shirt clear down to his immortal soul. Many of us can go back to the Victorian era when a leg was a limb.

Canada's huge surplus of wheat hangs over the wheat market like a dark cloud, keeping prices down all over the world. Fear of what may happen is more hurtful than the actuality—always. The fate of the Wheat Pool is but one more age-old lesson of what happens when we think the other fellow's job is easy, as did the Western farmers when they thought they could sit in easy chairs and govern the export flour and wheat trade of an Empire.

Just to still the rumour that the Editor is a sick man we tell of two days in seclusion with an influenza cold which might have been imparted to others but for a voluntary quarantine. The cold has gone, and we are restored to our regular eight thousand odd circulation, with want ads still a cent a word.

Hon. Mitchell Hepburn mounted his Pegasus in Toronto the other night and formally opened the Royal Winter Fair. Laconically, the Premier said "Gid-dap" just as in the old days on the Elgin Farm.

Cheer thought for the day: In 1934 we used in the St. Lawrence Valley 1,000,000 more tons of mined-in-Canada coal than in any previous year, all from the mines of Nova Scotia.

With Fullerton's failure Bennett must act on the railway problem. The time is now. Define a policy, and stand by it.

There is one way of bringing about universal peace: Let the men who fail in peaceful negotiations take the front rank in an ensuing war.

See that your vote is registered; also your revolver and your radio; else the Bogey Man will get you if you don't watch out!

Just a few more deflated dollars and inflated gold values and President Roosevelt will have spread the spirit of optimism with baloney dollars.

MISSION GROUP HELD MEETING AT WATERLOO

Interesting Address Given at Gathering of Extra Mile Mission Circle—Joint Meeting Held by Young People's Organizations at Waterloo.

Waterloo, Nov. 24.—A meeting of the Extra Mile Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. Palmer, with a good attendance. The president, Miss Lillian Wright, was in the chair. The meeting was opened with a hymn followed by Scripture reading by Miss Wright. Prayer was offered by Mrs. E. W. Wilson. Miss Alice Malboucuf gave a most interesting resume of a chapter in the new study book, "Eastern Women of Yesterday and Today."

The business period was closed with the mizpah benediction and a social hour was enjoyed in riddle guessing and a contest on birds. The prize for the latter went to Miss Alice Malboucuf who obtained an equal number of points with Mrs. Henry Bird. Following the contest refreshments were served by the hosts.

YOUNG PEOPLE HELD JOINT MEETING.

In the parlors of the United Church on Tuesday evening the Young People's Association entertained the members of St. George's Anglican Young People's Association when in the presence of a capacity audience a spirited debate was held the subject of which was "Resolved that financial assuredness is not generally a requisite of marriage in the civilized world, under present day conditions." The affirmative was taken by Lawyer McKergow and Mr. Clemens, of Granby. Mr. Dick Shaw and Mr. Alan McKergow defending the negative side of the question. The judges were Mr. R. B. Moysey, Mr. H. R. Biron and Miss Lewis, of Granby. Strong, well thought out and convincing arguments were advanced by both sides.

During the evening a mock marriage entitled "A Womanless marriage" was cleverly performed by the following cast: bride, Mr. Paul Wilson; groom, Mr. Percival Bessie; best man, Mr. Vernon Graves; bridesmaid, Mr. Luther Allen; bride's father, Mr. George Young; bride's mother, Mr. Willie Greig; officiating clergyman, Mr. Ralph Broadhurst, flower girl and page, Alan and Alice Lewis. Peals of laughter resounded through the parlors during the whole scene.

After refreshments had been served, which were enjoyed by over sixty guests and members, a pleasant hour was spent in musical games.

FINE NEW HALL IS OPENED AT GLEN SUTTON

Varied Programme Marked Official Opening of New Parish Hall at Church of the Good Shepherd—Other Items of General Interest.

Glen Sutton, Nov. 24.—The people of the Church of the Good Shepherd officially opened a new parish hall with an impressive programme. It is fifty-seven feet in length, seven feet being the width of the stage and twenty-six feet wide. Built in a maple grove near the highway, at the bottom of the hill upon which stands the church, its site is at once picturesque and convenient. Whilst there is much to be done on the exterior, the inside has been beautifully decorated. Its furnishings up to date include heating apparatus, cook stove, piano and hardwood floor. Material is on hand for the building of a kitchen, vestible and possibly cloak rooms, which will be added as soon as the weather is again suitable. Through the munificence of a few kind friends, the hearty and vigorous co-operation of the men of the parish, with their coats off and their sleeves rolled up, the splendid encouragement and practical assistance of the Ladies' Guild, the cost of the building has been provided for.

After prayers and the singing of a few hymns a musical programme was given by the choir, the artists being Miss Dora Wood, Miss Madeline Jacobs, Mr. Myron Wood, tenor, and Mr. John Curley, treble. An item of interest was a song sung in unison by four little girls, Wilma Leavitt, Doris Needham, Mary Dolson and Esther Jacobs. Guest artists included Misses Wilma and Jennie May Jones, of North Troy, Vt., and Mr. M. Arkin, violinist. Rev. A. E. Rollet, rector of Knowlton, and Rev. Norman Egerton, rector of Waterloo, were present and gave interesting and helpful addresses, for which the audience showed its most cordial appreciation. The remainder of the evening was of an informal social character, refreshments being served by the Ladies' Guild.

SELECTED FOR NEW INDUSTRY

Quebec Asbestos Corporation, Limited, of East Broughton, Will Open New Manufacturing Plant on Site Purchased from Carey Maple Sugar Company.

Attracted by the many advantages which this thriving district has to offer, the Quebec Asbestos Corporation, Limited, of East Broughton, has selected Lennoxville as the site for the establishment of a new manufacturing plant. The asbestos company has purchased the premises of the Carey Maple Sugar Company, at present occupied by the Quebec Maple Products, Limited, which includes a large three-story building and twenty-five acres of land.

Regarded as a tangible sign of improved business conditions and returning confidence, the establishment of this new industry in Lennoxville is also an indication that the Eastern Townships district is recognized as a sound and profitable district for the investment of foreign capital.

Quite a number of Ontario cities and towns endeavored to obtain this new factory, but the private ownership of public utilities in Lennoxville, free from the difficulties to be encountered where public ownership exists, the absence of political interference in the administration of the town's affairs, and the splendid export facilities provided by the three railway systems in this district convinced the officials of the company that Lennoxville would be the ideal location for their new plant.

Two years ago the Canadian business of the Carey Maple Sugar Company was bought out by Robert Broughton and Frank J. Jenne, of Lennoxville, who leased the Carey plant and carried on the business of the Quebec Maple Products, Limited. Now that the factory has been sold to the Asbestos Corporation, the Quebec Maple Products will construct a plant of their own along the C.P.R. tracks in Lennoxville.

Robert Broughton, president of the Quebec Maple Products, stated to the Record today, that work is to commence on Monday on the foundations for the new structure, which is to be a three-story building, forty-eight by a hundred feet. The Quebec Maple Products expect to move into their new premises by February 1st.

Some alterations to the Carey plant and the installation of new machinery are necessary before the Asbestos Corporation can commence to manufacture its raw material. This new large industry in Lennoxville, which will manufacture various asbestos articles, bids fair to become one of the most important businesses in the district.

GIRL GUIDES PRACTICING "MORSE" CODE

Last evening the First Sherbrooke Company Girl Guides, under the command of Capt. Miss Lydia Hicks, met at the "Howard Residence" for their weekly drill. Following inspection the Guides in their several patrol corners practiced the "morse" code. It was decided to cancel next week's meeting on account of the Hi-Y-ette Club play, as several Guides are taking part.

Games were enjoyed for a time and the meeting closed with "Taps."

JOLLY "CUB" PARTY

The "Cubs" of the Sir John Sherbrooke Boy Scouts were entertained right royally in St. Paul's Church hall by their Mothers' Auxiliary, assisted by Cub Master J. Giroux and several scouts. About thirty Cub Scouts enjoyed games and a jolly sing song under the leadership of their Cub Master, who also, with the assistance of the Scouts, organized a candy and apple hunt.

Later the boys did ample justice by the Mothers' Auxiliary. Arrangements for the party were made at a meeting of the Auxiliary held at Mrs. M. Singleton's home on Esplanade avenue, following which the hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. B. Thorne.

ACQUITTED ON THEFT CHARGE

Because of lack of sufficient evidence, Stella Victoria McAllister Eryou, of Granvilleville, was acquitted on a charge of theft by Judge J. S. Couture in the Magistrate's Court yesterday afternoon.

The girl was accused of having stolen five dollars from Mrs. Charles Woodward, of New Hampshire, who was visiting at the home of Angus F. Eryou, of Granvilleville, on October 1st last. The complaint against the accused was taken out by Angus Eryou.

FINED FOR IMPERSONATING AN OFFICER

Jean Paquette, liking for soft drinks was the direct cause of his "downfall."

Paquette is from Montreal.

He appeared in Police Court today and was fined five dollars and costs for impersonating an officer. This is how Paquette did it, according to the police.

He entered a restaurant and said that he was an "officer" from Montreal testing soft drinks. He would be handed a bottle of pop, drink it down, smack his lips contentedly, and walk out of the shop.

Paquette visited about ten restaurants in this manner before the police got wise to his "racket" and he was taken into custody.

The Quebec Asbestos Corporation, Limited, and also president of the Philip Carey Manufacturing Company, of Cincinnati, Ohio, one of the largest industries in the United States, was in Sherbrooke and Lennoxville this week to complete final arrangements for the new industry.

Ernest E. Spafford, manager of the Quebec Asbestos Corporation, who carried on all the preliminary arrangements, was largely instrumental in convincing the company officials of this district's advantages as the site for the new plant.

SCOTTISH FOLK
DISCUSSED BY NOTED SPEAKER

Miss Jennie Brown Delivered Interesting and Instructive Address at Bishop's University Last Evening on "The Crofters in the Highlands and the Islands."

Miss Jennie Brown, M.A., a graduate of Glasgow University and Britain's sole woman motion picture producer, who is touring Canada under the auspices of the National Council of Education, visited Bishop's University last evening and, speaking before a large and appreciative audience, delivered a most interesting address on "The Crofters in the Highlands and the Islands."

The room was in charge of Miss Elsa Burt, assisted by Miss Bernice Burt, with Mrs. C. E. Parkin in charge of the tea making. The attendance was large and the gathering a success from every point of view.

At the outset of her address Miss Brown paid a glowing tribute to the sterling qualities of these humble, simple-living people, whom she termed the heart and backbone of Scotland and the British Empire, remarking that the sons of many of these patriotic people had become outstanding scientists and statesmen in all corners of the globe.

The history of these sturdy highlanders and sea-faring Scots, said the speaker, dates from very early times. In the thirteenth century they were divided into clans, and constant fighting under their chieftains was their chief recreation. The conquest by the Norsemen, and later the Spaniards, nearly blotted out their race, but intermingling with these races has saved them from complete extinction.

The traditions of the Orkneys and the Shetlands, remarked the speaker, are the most romantic traits of the Scottish folklore. Both seafaring men and farmers, and also skilled in handicraft, for centuries, they led a care-free simple life until they were subjected to poverty by corrupt rulers and harsh landlords. Even the church oppressed them with extortionate tithes.

To further their hardships it was found that fewer men could watch over a grazing den of sheep, so the price of sheep went up and the price paid to the men went down.

Thus emigration began and for generations some of the finest of this hardy peasantry were forced to leave their crofts. In the last century, however, the "Crofters Act" has restored to them their lawful rights making them "free men once more."

Miss Brown then went on to compare the Shetlanders of forty years ago with those of today. The picture of life there during the past two generations, the speaker said, was that of an isolated fishing and farming community. Each croft supported its own household "dependent on no man for food, fuel or clothing, with little variety, but never starvation."

But many changes have taken place in Shetland in the last forty years. Steamships, steamships and wireless "have brought the rest of the world to Shetland." The youth no longer desire to remain at home. The depreciation of their industry of hand-knitted sweaters, due to outside competition with machinery, has brought financial depression upon them. "However their problem is solved no one has yet attempted to explain," said the speaker, but "it would be a great pity if such a lovely handicraft should be lost."

Miss Brown, an advocate of the picture film as an important element in education, continued her lecture by showing several films, portraying the rare beauty of the natural scenery of the crofts and sea-coast of Scotland. These illustrated vividly the picturesque life and environment of the crofters, and gave the audience a true insight into the character and characteristics of these hardy, kind-hearted inhabitants of the Scottish isles and highlands.

At the end of the lecture Dr. McGreer extended a sincere vote of appreciation to Miss Brown for her interesting and instructive address.

ALTHOUGH BIGGEST PARTY, CONGRESS LACKS MAJORITY

Opposition Led by Congress, Nationalist, Party in Indian Legislative Assembly Will Probably Total Seventy Members.

Bombay, November 24.—With only fourteen results outstanding in the Indian Legislative Assembly elections today indicated that while the Congress, Nationalist, party would be the biggest party in the new assembly, the total opposition would fall short of a majority.

Today's results gave the Congress forty-seven seats, Pandit Malaviya's separate nationalist group eight, the Muslim Unity Board four, Indian Commerce section three, European eight, Muslim League, independents and landholders 20.

This totals ninety out of one hundred and four elective seats, the remainder in the Assembly which totals 148 seats being filled by official and nominated members.

The Opposition led by the Congress will probably total seventy members, just short of a majority, as the Muslim Board and Indian Commerce delegates are expected to vote with the Congress on major issues, and some of the independents may also join them.

AFTERNOON TEA BY CANDLE LIGHT

The "Candle Light Tea" held yesterday afternoon in St. George's Church hall was appropriately named, for the lighted tapers used as centrepieces for the tea tables provided the light and gave the homelike appearance in the early dusk of the fall afternoon. On the large tea-table, where Miss Beatrice McCune poured tea, and on the food table, over which Mrs. L. V. Parent presided, large and baby bronze-colored "mums" were effectively used in decoration.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Parent, and their wants catered to by a bevy of members of the Girls' Auxiliary, these including Janet and Lorna Speid, Margaret Parent, Mary Ward, Charlotte Ames, Frances Baker and Marjorie Morrison.

The tea room was in charge of Miss Elsa Burt, assisted by Miss Bernice Burt, with Mrs. C. E. Parkin in charge of the tea making. The attendance was large and the gathering a success from every point of view.

AUDIENCE ENJOYED PICTURES OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

One of the first official acts of the recently organized Students' Council of the High School was to secure the services of J. M. Humphrey, born in Lunenburg, but for the last thirty years a resident of British Columbia, and a coast-to-coast traveller twenty-three times. Mr. Humphrey's lecture on British Columbia was beautifully illustrated with scenes from that province, and as a reason for making Canadian pictures more popular, he has been guilty of educating our young people away from Canada by always showing pictures of other lands.

The audience was led across the Dominion from the Maritime Provinces, through the older prairies, and across the prairies, the melting pot of races, to British Columbia, with the slogan "True Canadians must see and know Canada first."

The great variety of climate was illustrated in the pictures of snow-capped ranges and those showing delicate and fragile Easter lilies and snowdrops in July made a striking contrast to the illustrations of blossoming fruit trees and luxuriant growth of flowers and vegetables. But perhaps the greatest thrill of all was to be found in the trip up Revelstoke Mountain, the highest reachable point in Canada.

The depression, Mr. Humphrey believed, was slowly but surely lifting, and he predicted a time of great prosperity for the country. Principal Aikman introduced the speaker, and expressed appreciation for the splendid and colourful description of the western province.

The Students' Council is a new feature of High School life, and is arousing considerable interest in the community.

DEATHS REPORTED

MR. MILAN CURTIS BISHOP, BISHOPTON.

Bishop, Nov. 24.—The funeral of Milan C. Bishop, who died on November 5th, was held from the home to the United Church, and thence to the Lakeside Cemetery, where interment took place on November 17th.

Prayers were said at the house at 1:45, after which the full service was concluded at the United Church, the pastor, Rev. R. S. Smith, officiating, assisted by Dr. W. S. Lennon, of Sherbrooke.

A large number of relatives, neighbors and friends were in attendance, and the numerous and beautiful floral tributes eloquently expressed the love and respect of the donors.

During his address Mr. Smith made frequent reference to the sterling, upright character of the deceased, his kindly qualities as a friend and neighbor, and his usefulness as a citizen.

The hymns, which were selected by Mr. Bishop some time before his death, were "The Lord Is My Shepherd," "Unto the Hills Around Do I Lift Up," and "Peace, Wonderful Peace."

The bearers, six brother Odd Fellows, were Messrs. O. S. Joyce, E. L. MacKenzie, J. R. McFadden, J. L. Clark, Curtis Joyce and Lloyd Hooker.

The last rites of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, which fraternal order the deceased belonged to, were performed at the graveside.

Relatives from a distance who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. F. Lord, Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Dundin, Lennoxville; Miss Rachel and Mr. Kenneth MacLachlan, Springfield, Mass.; Mrs. Harry Magrath and Mr. Paul Magrath, Old Orchard, Me.

Milan Curtis Bishop was born in Dunsdell in the locality now bearing the village name of Bishopton, on March 11, 1864, and was the son of Sidney and Mary Bishop.

Rich-Bishop, a direct descendant of the first John Bishop, to whom, with his associates, the township of Dunsdell was granted for settlement purposes in the year 1800 and had passed his entire life in his native village. During the greater part of his adult years he was proprietor and operator of the old Bishop grist mill, and had, during all these years, served the public with a fidelity, carefulness and moderation of cost that has rarely been equaled.

Always ready to help in the community work he had served in many public offices, some of them being: for many years as a trustee of the Lakeside Cemetery Company; member of the Municipal Council, assessor, road overseer and health officer.

For the past thirty years he was on the Board of the United Church and was an elder at the time of his death.

He was a charter member of Maple Leaf Lodge 36, I.O.O.F., and had filled many offices in that Order, having been District Deputy and a Past Noble Grand. In politics he was a staunch Liberal.

He was quite an accomplished geologist and mineralogist and during his searchings to and from his native village he had accumulated a large collection of minerals and other geological specimens.

A few years ago Mr. Bishop invented and had registered at Ottawa an automatic level crossing safety signal device of interesting value.

The immediate relatives left to mourn his loss are his widow, who was Margaret MacLaurin, of Dunsdell, whom he married on November 16, 1893; their only son, Archie W. Bishop, of Sherbrooke; Mrs. Archie W. Bishop and their son, Norman and Mrs. Victor Gilbert, Ivy, a niece, whom the deceased had brought up from infancy. Besides those mentioned there are two brothers and one sister, all living in the United States.

Glendale, Cal.; Wallace S. Bishop, Aurora, Ont.; Agnes, Mrs. George Burritt, of Markdale, Ont., and hosts of others in Dunsdell and elsewhere.

All residents of Bishopton and many others in nearby localities mourn the unexpected passing of a citizen whose integrity and neighborly good qualities were so undeviating throughout his life that he was not fully appreciated until he was gone.

The bullet entered his body an inch below the heart, struck a rib and was deflected into the liver. He was immediately rushed to the Bedford Hospital, where X-rays were taken and the little patient made as comfortable as possible until the arrival of a specialist from the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal. Parts of his clothing were removed from the wound, but on account of the position of the bullet it was deemed unwise to attempt its removal. If no complications arise the patient is expected to recover. Everything possible is being done to insure a complete recovery. A special nurse is in attendance. Mrs. Husband was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. Charles Laduke, Mrs. Clifford Jones and Mrs. Verlan Casey.

Rev. Mr. Lackie conducted the services in St. James' Church on Remembrance Day when the two minutes silence was observed before the opening hymn. Led by Veteran Norman Perry, Sarnia's Imperials, Eastern Canada's Rugby Champions, Today Engage Regina Roughriders in Dominion Gridiron Classic at Toronto.

Toronto, Nov. 24.—Norman Perry, who started a football career when Lionel Conacher was hitting the high spots, when "Red" Batstone, "Shrimp" Cochran and "Pop" Leadley were reaching their prime, may be playing his last game today. It has always been Perry's ambition to quit when the Sarnia Imperials were on top.

Today the Imperials faced the Regina Roughriders here in the Canadian final. Perry, a veteran of fourteen seasons, has been selected on the all-Eastern team. He has had one of his biggest years. If the Imperials turn back this western invader, the first running half will be ready to retire.

A top-notch for years, the Sarnia-born and bred player finally achieved recognition this season as one of the greatest ball carriers of his day. He doesn't pass or punt—he runs. In a broken field he has few equals. He is a sure catch, a fine pass receiver, and an extremely capable punter.

Regina's force arrived on the scene yesterday to make no predictions about the seventh inter-sectional engagement they have participated in. The Imperials, on the other hand, were confident of victory. More than 1,000 supporters from the border city arrived today to cheer the brigade that defeated the Hamilton Tigers, "Big Four" champions, in the eastern final.

The Roughriders expected to see Ralph Pearce do more damage in the open field than Perry. They hoped Walter Olson would be more successful in forward passing than either Rocky Parsala or Hugh Strling. They were neither so sure nor hopeful that Olson would hold his own in punting with Strling.

The turf at Varsity Stadium was soft but not treacherous. Rains yesterday were nullified by strong overnight winds. The footing will be good.

TWO INVERNESS SQUADS DOWNED THETFORD BOYS

Concluding Matches in Inter-Lodge Carpet Bowling Tournament Resulted in Victories for Teams Skipped by A. D. McCommon and Rev. Flint.

Inverness, Nov. 24.—Inverness teams made a clean sweep of the two matches which concluded their inter-lodge carpet bowling tournament with Thetford Mines. Rev. Mr. Flint's quartette scored an eleven to ten verdict over Howard McHarg's squad and A. D. McCommon skipped his Inverness lads to a twelve to seven victory over Fred Putnam's aggregation.

The McCommon-Putnam argument was a close battle as both teams struggled for victory. The home team opened the scoring with a single in the first end and contributed two points in the third chapter to tie the count after the visitors had notched three points in the second stanza. Thetford forged ahead in the sixth end only to have the McCommon-ites deadlock the issue as the ninth inning was completed.

Singles in the tenth, eleventh and twelfth ends and three points in the thirteenth session brought Inverness its victory, the visitors being held scoreless until the final end when they registered their seventh tally.

The lead which Rev. Flint and his cohorts established in the early stages of the second contest was sufficient to outpace the rally staged by the visitors in the closing frames of a hotly-contested match. The Inverness representatives gathered a three-point margin in the first three ends and Thetford knotted the count in the fourth stanza.

From this stage on the Flinstons rapidly increased their advantage and by the tenth end were six points ahead. Thetford's valiant rally fell one point short of again tying matters and the Inverness quartette romped away with an eleven to ten decision.

Following the matches delicious refreshments were served by the Inverness ladies and the happy gathering dispersed after singing Auld Lang Syne.

The teams lined up as follows: Inverness Thetford Mines John Dempsey Dr. Digneus Elmer Little T. McCannium E. R. Greaves H. Stevenson A. McCommon Fred Paterson Skip—12 Skip—7

J. Appleton Rev. M. Seeley Dale Smith T. Johnston Eug. Mosher Bill Wright Rev. Flint H. McHarg Skip—11 Skip—10

MONCTON HAWKS BLANKED BY SAINT JOHN SQUAD.

The Saint John Beavers are out of cellar position in the "Big Four" Mercantile League today, leaving the Charlottetown Abegweit in full possession of that place and pulling up on even terms with the Halifax Wolverines, one point behind the league-leading Moncton Hawks.

The Beavers handed the Allan Cup title-holders their third defeat of the season last night when they whitewashed the Hawks by two to one in Moncton, while the Abbies and the Wolves battled seventy minutes to a four-all tie. This left the Prince Island boys just one point below the Saint John and Halifax teams.

BOWLING

KAYSER LEAGUE REACHES HALFWAY MARK

The ten teams in the Julius Kayser Duckpin Bowling League today looked towards the second half of the schedule, since the hope of that some means may be devised to stop the Violets from coasting to the championship. With nine games written into the books the Violets hold a three-string lead over their nearest rivals, the Whites, while only four strings separate the runners-up from the Greys in seventh position.

The Violets increased their margin this week by noosing out the Greys. The Whites' plans were badly jolted last night when they dropped two strings to the Reds, while the Purples also suffered a setback when they lost a two to one decision to the Browns. The results left the Reds and the Purples deadlocked for third place, a single string behind the second-place Whites.

The Oranges shoved the Greens further into the cellar by banking Frank Irwin and his mates, while the Blues, despite Frank "Toreador" Parker's absence, succeeded in capturing the odd string from the Maroons to maintain their precarious hold on seventh place.

R. Croteau, of the Greens, and F. P. Latulippe, of the Reds, shared individual honors in a week which saw no three-string aggregate surpass the four-hundred mark. Croteau posted a high single string of 157, while Latulippe headed the three-string column with 385.

NO CHANGE IN COTTON LEAGUE STANDING

The Sherbrooke Cotton Mills Duckpin Bowling League started the second half of its pre-Christmas schedule last night. The results of the matches created no change in the ranking, although the Tigers relinquished joint partnership with the Top Notch squad in the runner-up berth to the Gentlemen.

The fifth-place Pickles supplied the upset of the week by taking two strings from the Tigers. The Gentlemen and the Top Notchers maintained their close race for the leadership, the Gentlemen nosing out the Camels and the Top Notchers earning a decision over the cellar-dwelling Veterans.

Howard Patton won the week's honor man with a single-string total of 157 and a three-string aggregate of 485.
