TO CUT LOOSE FROM RUHR AND RHINELAND No Action Taken Regarding Return Of Ex-Crown Prince

Allied Council Did Not Take Up Chief Problems

Ambassadors Avoided Mentioning the Two Burning Questions, the Return of Former Crown Prince to Germany and Germany's Attitude Regarding the Resumption of Allied Military Control Owing to Fact that Allies Were Not in Accord as to Proper Course of Action—Britain, Which Took Initiative in Sending Note to Germany Regarding Return of Frederick William, Is Now Said to Be Desirous of Dropping Matter, While France Is Ready for Action.

(Associated Press Despatch)

PARIS, November 14.—The Allied Council of Ambassadors failed to consider at its meeting today the question of what action should be taken in connection with the return of the Crown Prince to Germany and as to Germany's attitude regarding the resumption of Allied military control. The entire session was devoted to routine work, and it is understood the ambassadors avoided mentioning these two burning questions because the Allies were not in accord as to the proper course of action.

Great Britain, which took the initiative in the sending of a coercive note to Germany regarding the return of Frederick William, is now said to be desirous of dropping the whole matter, while France which was at first indifferent but later came to favor action of some sort, is ready for such action.

The question may come up at the next meeting of the ambassadors tomorrow.

FRANCE WANTS EX-CROWN PRINCE EXPELLED FROM GERMANY

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Nov. 14.—France is bringing strong pressure to bear on Great Britain, looking to joint action for the expulsion of the former Crown Prince from Germany.

For the moment, the British Government believes it useless to try to undo the accomplished fact, but no decision regarding a final policy will be announced until the cabinet, which is meeting today, has carefully examined the whole subject in the light of Premier Poincaré's latest overtures.

Meanwhile the Government has received no official intimation that the former Kaiser intends to duplicate the sensational dash of his heir. British officials are confident that Holland will observe her pledge to act as a jailer for the former war lord until time or rather fate settles his destiny.

France is also urging Great Britain to send a strong rejoinder to Germany regarding Chancellor Stresemann's negative reply to the Allied request for greater protection and latitude of action for the inter-Allied military control commission. France favors energetic actions being taken against Germany if Berlin refuses to give up the ex-Crown Prince, or declines to extend the safeguard and authority requested for the control commission.

In the British view, the seizure of Hamburg or other German ports is not to be ruled out from possible action by France if Germany refuses to capitulate, but officials here declare Britain will decline to support any such drastic measures.

KAISER'S RETURN UNDER CONSIDERATION FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Notwithstanding the official equanimity over reports that William Hohenzollern was planning to return to the Fatherland, some of the newspapers here continue to express suspicion as to his designs.

The Doorn correspondent of the Daily Mail says the former Kaiser's return has been under consideration for several weeks. The newspaper recalls various recent rumors which are supposed to confirm William's intentions, but none of these has a very solid appearance, and no where is there anything that tends to substantiate the report.

RETURN OF EX-PRINCE IS NOT AN AUSPICIOUS OMEN

(Associated Press Despatch)

FRANKFORT, Germany, Nov. 14.—The return of the former German Crown Prince to Germany is anything but an auspicious omen, and the German people have a right to know why the government permitted it during the present situation, observes the Frankfort Gazette, the leading south Germany Liberal organ.

The newspaper rejects the inference that the home coming of Frederick William suggests a suspicious relation to the recent Munich putsch, but it observes that if he finds a "welcome home" sign stuck upon the door of his castle at Oels, it will reflect "untruth, as he is highly unwelcome to the German people in the present perturbed internal situation."

FORMER KING FREDERICK TO WELCOME EX-CROWN PRINCE

(Associated Press Despatch)

LONDON, Nov. 14.—There is a rumor in Amsterdam, says a despatch to the Exchange Telegraph from the Dutch city, that former King Frederick August of Saxony has arrived in Oels to welcome former Crown Prince Frederick William.

DOORN, Nov. 14.—The burgomaster of Doorn assured the correspondent of the Associated Press yesterday on his word of honor that he was aware of any intention on the part of former Emperor William to leave Doorn.

POINCARÉ SCORES VICTORY

VIENNA, Nov. 14.—Dr. Karl Selts has been elected Mayor of Vienna.

CITY COUNCIL HEARD PROTESTS ON VALUATIONS

Complaints Against Valuation Roll Were Argued Before the Council at Special Session Last Night.

The protests against the estimates on the city valuation roll for the current year were heard last evening before a special session of the City Council called for that purpose. All the aldermen, with the exception of Alderman Crepeau, were present. In almost every instance, the protests were argued in person by the property owners concerned.

There were thirty-five complaints filed at the city hall against the valuation roll for the year, a number which is small compared to that of previous years. In only comparatively few cases were changes made in the figures prepared by the valuers.

The valuation of a property owned by O. A. Begin, fixed at $5,500 for the past two years, was reduced to $5,000; A. Chevalier, valuation last year $9,000, this year $7,500, reduced to $7,000; J. E. Camborn's business tax, fixed for two years at $400 was reduced to $300; St. Pierre Ltd., valued for last two years at $30,000 reduced to $15,000; Sam Echenberg valued last year at $13,000, this year $13,500, reduced to $13,000; Sam Echenberg, valuation for two years $35,000, reduced to $30,000; Joseph Guay, valuation last year $6,000, this year $7,000, reduced to $5,500; C. B. Howard, Howards, valuation last year $75,000, this year $240,000, reduced to $75,000; Alfred Hamel, valuation past two years $3,000, reduced to $2,500; D. J. McManamy, valuation last year $30,000, this year $35,000, reduced to $30,000; E. S. Stevens & Co., business tax, fixed at $600 last year and $800 this year, reduced to $600; Mrs. I. Smith, valuation for past two years $3,000, reduced to $2,500.

The protests of Newton-Dakin Company, Park Realty Company, Sherbrooke Housing Company and one protest of C. Thibault were left over for further consideration. In the case of the protest of the valuation of the St. Pierre Limited, property, the reduction was made because of the fact that the plant is now closed.

After hearing the arguments of the owners and the explanation of the valuers, the following protests were dismissed and the valuations made by the valuers sustained: B. A. Land Company, A. Beaulieu, Birson & Fils, (2) O. A. Begin, A. Chevalier, Mme. E. Desrosiers, Edwards Realty Company, Joseph Green Estate, Sam Echenberg (2), Mrs. William Farwell (2), E. and T. P. Rankin Co., (2), Joseph Guay, Honore Hugo, B. C. Howard Estate, J. Lavallee, Emile Quintal, Sherbrooke City Lands Company, Mrs. I. Smith, F. Tillington, C. Thibault (2).

PREMIER BALDWIN'S DECISION FOR IMMEDIATE ELECTION IN BRITAIN DOES NOT MEET WITH APPROVAL

Opponents of Government Disgusted and Resentful—Some of Comments Are Vicious, and Premier Baldwin Is Charged with Unexampled Levity, Shabby Manoeuvring, Trickiness, and with Having Lapsed from Traditional Honor and Decency of British Public Life—Complete Hostility Among Three Political Parties.

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, Nov. 14.—Dissatisfaction with the decision of the Government to hold an immediate election is manifest on all sides. The views expressed by press and public today indicate that the idea of an election is extremely unpopular.

This disinclination to take a poll of the electorate on the protection question is manifested by all parties. The Government's supporters reluctantly acquiesce, while their political opponents are disgusted and resentful. Some of the comments are vicious, and Premier Baldwin is charged variously with unexampled levity, shabby manoeuvring, trickiness, and with having lapsed from the traditional honor and decency of British public life.

There is no doubt that the Liberals, Laborites and Socialists are very angry. The Conservative newspapers while in some cases scarcely disguising their disagreement with the Premier's decision, say in effect: "The die is cast. It cannot be helped now, so let's fight it out."

This section of the press gives the Premier full credit for honesty of intention, and commends him for risking his political career in obedience to the drivings of his conscience.

These first comments also emphasize the complete hostility among the three political parties and the determination of each to fight single-handed. Whether this isolation will be fully maintained as the contest progresses remains to be seen. But now the Government papers denounce alike Liberal free traders and the Socialist capital levy; the Liberals scorn alike protection and the levy, while the only Socialist-Labor paper "refuses to be hoodwinked or tricked," by either of the old parties, and banks on "the comprehensive policy of constructive realignment" to which its party is pledged.

Today's line-up of the press for and against the Premier probably is not final, but thus far his newspaper supporters are in the minority. Two or three of them withhold full approval, complaining of the difficulty in which the Premier's decision has placed the electors, especially the Conservative free traders, who undoubtedly are numerous in some parts of the country, particularly in Lancashire and Scotland. Those disposed to be entirely friendly were mostly without enthusiasm.

The fact seems to be that few people are convinced of the wisdom of the Premier's decision from a party viewpoint, and this for the moment outweighs the ultimate consideration of whether protection would prove good for the country. The Conservatives manifestly are very doubtful how the election will result for their party.

Their chief organ, the Morning Post, says: "The forces arrayed against the Government are exceedingly powerful. All the enemies of this country and its industries are

GREAT MANY OUT OF WORK IN GERMANY

Statistics Show that There Are Two Million Idle Persons in Occupied Territory.

(Associated Press Despatch)

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—A semi-official statement issued yesterday on the unemployment situation gives statistics showing that there are two million idle persons in the occupied territory. It is added that if dependents of the unemployed and those persons working on short time were included in the statistics, at least one half of the population of the region would be shown to be unemployed.

In the unoccupied territory 700,000 persons unemployed and 1,500,000 persons working on short time are receiving assistance, while counting those not receiving assistance it is calculated that more than a third of the total population is out of work. The number of idle would be much greater but for the short time system, which is being resorted to in the fullest possible extent.

The statement adds that the situation is the more critical because chaotic financial conditions preclude the government from giving the people adequate assistance.

German Government Plans To Leave Ruhr And Rhineland To Their Own Devices Or To The Pleasure Of France And Belgium

Fact that Further Support of Ruhr and Rhineland Populations Would Constitute Unbearable Burden on Reich Is Believed to Have Influenced Germany's Leaders in Deciding to Leave on Shoulders of France and Belgium All Responsibility for Fate of German People in the Occupied Territory.

(Associated Press Despatch)

BERLIN, Nov. 14.—Political leaders were discussing today the apparent decision of the Central Government to withdraw all federal support from the Ruhr and Rhineland provinces, leaving these territories to their own devices or to the pleasure of France and Belgium.

The impression grew that the cabinet ministers, state premiers and spokesmen of the occupied regions, in their secret conference here yesterday, had concluded upon the abandonment of federal jurisdiction over these areas as a means of saving the rest of the country. The fact that further support of the Ruhr and Rhineland populations would constitute an unbearable burden on the Reich is believed to have influenced Germany's leaders in deciding to leave on the shoulders of France and Belgium all responsibility for the fate of the German people in occupied territory.

MOVE MADE TO SHORTEN TRIAL OF GOV. WALTON

Nearly Whole Day Devoted to Review of Campaign Fund Solicitations by Former Advisor of Governor.

(Associated Press Despatch)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 14.—The impeachment trial of Governor Walton moved forward through a maze of figures with indications that a definite move to shorten the length of the hearing was in prospect. Virtually the entire day was devoted to a review of campaign fund solicitations by Dr. E. I. Bynum, former advisor of the Governor, and an investigation of the executive's bank account and building and loan stock investments.

Dr. Bynum testified that he was only one of several agents who sought campaign funds for the Governor, and that he did not have a record of the amount he obtained.

The court was thrown into an uproar when counsel defending the Governor launched into a cross-examination of Dr. Bynum, which was characterized by members of the court as "outrageously unfair."

Bynum testified that he and Aldrich Blake, who succeeded him as executive chancellor, had considered placing a secret telephonic device in the Governor's office to "protect" the executive.

The questioning objected to was designed to bring out that Bynum was pro-German during the great war.

FIVE KILLED AT LEVEL RAILROAD CROSSING

New York Central Train Crashed into Auto at Crossing Near Hudson, N.Y.

(Associated Press Despatch)

HUDSON, N.Y., Nov. 14.—The death in the hospital here last night of Asbury Dingman, of Millerville, raised to five the number of persons killed when a New York Central freight train rammed an automobile at the Mountmaindale crossing, near here, about dusk. Two men and three women were killed.

Witnesses told Coroner Finley, of Philmont, that the touring car was driven with curtains down, around the sharp curve and on to the tracks before the approaching train. There was no watchman at the crossing, it was said, but witnesses declared the crossing bell was ringing.

When you are weak and run down you need a food tonic which will supply the nourishment which you are not obtaining from your food.

The food energy which Father John's Medicine contains is exactly the kind of energy which is most easily taken up by the system and by the processes of nature turned into tissue or flesh.

Mothers Should Not NEGLECT BRONCHITIS In The Babies

Mrs. E. Langdon, Kingston, Ont., writes: "My baby boy had bronchitis when he was two weeks old, he recovered from the attack but took it again, several months later, and on account of the severity I was almost panic-stricken to know what to do for him. My mother advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as she had used it for several years with splendid results.

I got a bottle, and after I had used it I could see a decided improvement in him; after several bottles he was completely relieved.

As a mother, raising a family, I am very grateful to know that I have found a real remedy for bad colds and bronchitis, as it lifts care and anxiety from an anxious mother's shoulders."

The Joys Of whiter, cleaner teeth Let this test reveal them

Here is a way which has brought to millions prettier teeth and safer. You will never go without its benefits when once you find them out. Accept the test we offer. Watch the results for a few days. They will be a revelation.

By fighting film The results come by fighting film on teeth—that viscous film you feel. Under old methods, much of that film resists the tooth brush, clings and stays.

Soon the film discolors, then forms dingy coats, so white teeth lose their beauty.

Most tooth troubles are also due to film. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed by millions in it. And they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Few people in old-way brushing, escape the film-caused troubles.

WALES HOME RECEIVES ANOTHER DONATION.

In spite of the fact that the deficit for 1923 of the Wales Home at Richmond was announced over-subscribed some time ago, contributions are still being received by the executive, the money being intended for the purpose of reducing this deficit. These donations are being used to place the home on a sound financial basis.

The latest contribution comes from Mrs. Nelson Mitchell, of Granby, who has forwarded a contribution of fifty dollars to the committee. This donation and other funds have been invested and applied on the endowment fund, which now amounts to $77,200, all of which is bearing interest. It is the hope of the executive to increase this endowment fund to the sum of $100,000, and all contributions sent for this purpose will be gratefully received.

The executive committee wish to thank all who have so generously come forward and assisted in wiping out the large deficit, which has now been entirely paid off.

The regular monthly meeting of the Belvidere Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. E. Price last week with a good attendance of members. Mrs. Ellis, the president, was in the chair for the business session, and the usual reports were read and adopted. Several items of business were discussed, and it was decided to take $10 from the fund to purchase clothing for a family in need. Several donations were also promised to the same cause, and it was planned to have a day for sewing, Mrs. Chas. Wheeler kindly offering her house for the day's work.

The Institute is interested in the Anti-Tubercular campaign, and the members will endeavor to attend the lectures to be given in the city hall. The local institutes, like many others, find conditions such that there is need of active interest on the part of every member to combat disease, and to insure improvement in milk and meat products.

At the close of business dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses, and the members were invited to meet next month at the home of Mrs. W. J. Chills.

METHODISTS DISAPPROVE OF LIQUOR LAWS

Stand of Methodism on Prohibition and Quebec Liquor Act Described in Report of Committee.

The stand taken by the Methodist Church on the prohibition question, and especially the Quebec Liquor Act, is set forth in the following report made by a committee of six members which was appointed for the purpose at a recent joint meeting of representatives, both clerical and lay, of the Methodist Church in the Eastern Townships:

"The Methodist people of the Eastern Townships affirm once again their unalterable conviction in the principle of prohibition as applied to the manufacture, sale, importation and exportation of intoxicating liquor except for industrial, medical and sacramental purposes. In exposing this principle as a religious people, we feel we have the sacred and honored support of the prohibitions of the Decalogue of the Old Testament; as citizens of a country with constitutional government which maintains social prohibitions against murder, theft, assault and vagrancy, we feel that we have a just right to seek prohibition against the social menace of intoxicating drink; and further, as a people who believe in democracy, we claim the right to seek this prohibition against the social menace of intoxicating drink; and further, as a people who believe in democracy we claim the right to seek this prohibition through the vote of the people considering the well being, and even the desires, of not only one or two provinces but our country as a unit, and humanity as a whole on the entire continent.

"We also desire to place ourselves on record as deploring the re-proach which has settled on our province through the reactionary nature of our legislation touching intoxicating drink, inasmuch as the boundary line which has been halloved by a hundred years of peace, is now desecrated by 'rum runners', and is disrespectfully referred to as 'the far-flung bottle line.'

"We would further register our conviction that the Quebec Alcoholic Liquor Act at present in force in our province has not eliminated the illicit sale nor the illegal manufacture of drink, as witnessed by the fact that not less than fifty-five offenders appeared in a single court on a single occasion on the former offense; and the great Catholic Church to its credit let it be said, has felt it necessary to give special warning to the people against the latter offence.

"That a large part of the drink sold within the province is for consumption outside the province is in itself a reproach of the first magnitude. That any province should be so callous to law-breaking in neighboring provinces and states is an attitude so appalling as to give all lovers of peace and good-will very serious concern.

"We observe that much has been made by the government of the autonomy granted to municipalities under the provisions of the present act, and that technically the autonomy of territory under the Canada Temperance Act is provided for; but inasmuch as 'no section of the Quebec Liquor Act can apply to districts where the Canada Temperance Act is in operation, (from a letter by Mr. G. A. Simard, chairman of the Quebec Liquor Commission,) even in the matter of preventing drink being shipped to violators of the federal law; inasmuch as the 'one bottle a day' provision is largely a dead letter, making it possible for individuals to secure drink in considerable quantities to carry into dry territory; and inasmuch as the responsibility for the enforcement of the Act, in municipalities which use their right of autonomy to refuse the acceptance of permits, rests primarily on the municipal council, the commission not being positively bound to take action, the boasted autonomy becomes, and has become, little more than a tyrannous and helpless servility.

"And, finally, we deplore that the chief apparent aim of the government through its commission, is not to reduce the consumption of alcohol to the smallest amount, but rather to increase the material provincial revenue, while using the needs of education and of roads to justify their policy.

"We maintain that the greatness of our sires was never enhanced, nor their needs met by any policy that gave first place to 'corruptible things, as silver and gold.'

"Signed on behalf of the Methodist Church as represented in the Eastern Townships:

"Henry Mick, Chairman, Stanstead District;

"Thos. B. Moody, Sec. E. and S.S. Stanstead District;

"B. B. Brown, Chairman, Quebec District;

Uncle Jim's Letter

Dear Corner Children:—

Such a nice bundle of letters that came this morning! And among them was one from our old friend Douglas, who lives across the border, but who remembers the corner folk and likes the home news. We will be glad to welcome you back to Sherbrooke, Douglas. I am sure your school is a fine, large one with all modern equipment, and the pupils must have jolly times.

Elsie also tells us about her school. It is fine to know that the schools are receiving attention in the way of recreation as well as study. I would like to see you, Elsie, on horseback. I often wonder why more girls do not learn to ride when there are so many horses, especially on the farms.

I will be glad when winter really gets here; I do not like the late fall as it is so dreary until the ground is covered with snow; then hurrah! for our good old Canadian winter.

You will see by today's list that the J.R.C. group is growing. These are new members for this year and they will receive the pin and the magazines. I have received two pledges from Sherbrooke children, but have not included their names as I think all the city schools have groups. Will you please let me know, Dorothy and Ellen, if you belong to a school group?

Tomorrow we will have more letters and the riddles that have been sent in. Some had appeared before so I marked them off.

Yours very truly,
UNCLE JIM.

Change the Air

In the average type of home or apartment the leakage of air around doors, windows, etc., supplies sufficient ventilation for ordinary requirements. This is, of course, if the fresh air enters so as to mingle with the air in the house.

Ventilation has become a part of the business of the heating contractor, for ventilation is as important to the good health of people as any other item. Knowing how to assure complete circulation of air in a house—or even a room—without creating a dangerous draft, will save doctor's bills, colds and coughs all winter. Proper ventilation of the home will make all healthier and happier. And then be sure you have humidifiers for the radiators to keep the air moist. We have them. And if you haven't had them, you'll have them by and by, when we convince you how necessary they are for better health during the cold weather.

your corner so I thought I would write to you. For pets I have three cats; the oldest one is fourteen. I am in the fifth grade at school. My brother Floyd is not going to school now as he was very sick in the summer. He was learning to ride horseback and I like it fine. We have more fun at school now as they have given us baseball and football. A great deal is being done for our school; we have a new cupboard, and other nice things in the school. I am reading 'Hairpin Sue' and I like it. Are you glad winter is coming, Uncle Jim? I am, because we can slide and make snow men. We have some nice long hills here to slide down. I will close. Dear Uncle Jim:—

It is a long time since I have written to you. I hope you are well. I am in the fifth grade at school. My brother Floyd is not going to school now as he was very sick in the summer. He was learning to ride horseback and I like it fine. We have more fun at school now as they have given us baseball and football. A great deal is being done for our school; we have a new cupboard, and other nice things in the school. I am reading 'Hairpin Sue' and I like it. Are you glad winter is coming, Uncle Jim? I am, because we can slide and make snow men. We have some nice long hills here to slide down. I will close. Your niece,

Change the Air

In the average type of home or apartment the leakage of air around doors, windows, etc., supplies sufficient ventilation for ordinary requirements. This is, of course, if the fresh air enters so as to mingle with the air in the house.

Ventilation has become a part of the business of the heating contractor, for ventilation is as important to the good health of people as any other item. Knowing how to assure complete circulation of air in a house—or even a room—without creating a dangerous draft, will save doctor's bills, colds and coughs all winter. Proper ventilation of the home will make all healthier and happier. And then be sure you have humidifiers for the radiators to keep the air moist. We have them. And if you haven't had them, you'll have them by and by, when we convince you how necessary they are for better health during the cold weather.

HEALTH OFFICER RECOMMENDS AN INCINERATOR

Last Case of Typhoid Fever Was Reported on October 5 — Many Inspections Made.

The October report of the city medical officer is outstanding for two items of importance relative to the improvement of conditions in the city. In the first instance the medical officer, Dr. Demers, advises that the last case of typhoid fever was reported on October 5, and that apparently all danger is past. It is also strongly recommended that immediate steps be taken for the construction of an incinerator following complaints with regard to smoke from the dump on the Brompton road.

The report shows that during the course of the month there were twenty-four deaths and sixteen cases of contagious disease. Twenty-one complaints were received and sixteen visits were made by the medical officer, and 323 visits by the inspector.

The seizures for the month included 525 pounds of meat, one pint of cream and four pints of milk. Forty-one control visits were made with regard to the inspection of dark rooms, defective plumbing, etc., while seventeen inspections were made of bakeries and confectionery stores. In many instances improvements were ordered to be made.

CERCLE FRANCAIS TO MEET TONIGHT.
Definite arrangements have been made for the organization meeting of the Cercle Francais which will be held in the Clay Hall, council chambers, this evening at 8 p.m. sharp. It was originally proposed to hold the meeting in the auditorium, but inasmuch as the same is being used by the Anti-Tubercular Association, the civic authorities have courteously authorized the use of the upper end of the council chambers.

A number of ladies have expressed the wish of being present at tonight's meeting and they will be gladly welcomed as the proposed Cercle Francais is primarily for the encouragement of the French language among citizens, whoever they may be. The issue is one which will require serious consideration relative to the most efficacious method of procedure.

The Association proposes to offer English speaking citizens an opportunity of acquiring a better and greater knowledge of French, through practical channels, conversation, essays, etc. Special consideration will be given to the younger generation who are destined to carry on in the years to come.

FIVE YEARS IN EXILE.

Approximately five years ago, William Hohenzollern, Emperor of Germany, was driven into exile, but advices received today state that he is now considering an immediate return to Germany.

In commenting upon the German revival, the Globe observes:

"Although the latest 'putsch' has the aspect of opera bouffe, it may not be the end of the story. The years of adversity following the peace, instead of uniting Germans in a resolve to see the country through its trials, have merely put a sharper edge on the divisions which existed before the war, but which had been subordinated to national spirit and Imperial ambition.

"It is true that the Republican regime has not been a shining success, but from the point of view of the Allies any change would be a change for the worse. A Monarch or a dictator on the Throne of the Reich would be the signal for further aggressive measures by France, probably an extension of the zone of occupation.

BRITISH ELECTIONS.

Definite notice that the British Parliament will be dissolved tomorrow and that a general election will be held on Wednesday, December 17th, has come somewhat as a surprise to Canadian students of British politics.

The issue promises to be a clear cut one between Protection and Free Trade, with Premier Baldwin at a disadvantage inasmuch as his acceptance of the protectionist doctrines has been due only to a very recent conversation and, in certain quarters, it is not believed to be wholehearted but rather the result of circumstances.

The elections will be outstanding for two predominant incidents. The Lloyd George and Asquith factions have affected a reconciliation and a united campaign will be made by the Liberals to secure a return to power.

The other striking feature is the strong bid to be made by labor to secure a majority in the government and incidentally bring about the first labor government Great Britain has ever known.

PRESS COMMENT

WHEAT AND THE PANAMA CANAL.

Wheat is practically a non-perishable product and will stand shipment anywhere. The only dangerous factor in shipment through the tropics is the presence of moisture, which might occur in any grade of wheat, as originally graded at point of production.

BRITISH-AMERICAN ALLIANCE.

The British and American Commonwealths are the most powerful in the world, and while other nations tend to break and fall asunder the English-speaking commonwealths are becoming more closely welded as time goes by.

A MARITIME DELEGATION.

It seems plain enough that a Maritime delegation should be organized without delay. It could not possibly do harm; it ought to do great good. It should serve to bring the Western and the Eastern sections of the Dominion closer together and promote a better understanding of each other's problems.

NEWSPAPERS AND GRUDGES.

Newspapermen don't try to punish people through the columns of the paper as often as the public thinks. There are newspapermen who have their enemies. In fact it is the rule that they do have their enemies, for it's hard to keep from making them if you work around a newspaper, but there are only a few newspapers that use their organ to settle a private grudge.

PUNISHMENT BEFORE TRIAL.

The prisoner is presumed innocent until he is proven guilty; but if he is obliged to taste the deserts of the guilty in advance he has been punished before he has been tried. Such degradation is unjustifiable and only makes correction more difficult in the event of conviction.

MAKING YOUNG MEN THINK.

In the radio Thomas A. Edison sees means of making thinking creatures of young Americans. During a long interview, which, if it did not concern cabages and kings, did cover a wide range of topics, including the unfitness of Henry Ford for the presidency, Mr. Edison touched upon the radio craze.

DOGS AND ECONOMICS.

Not only is it "sweet to hear the watch-dog's honest bark bay deep-mouthed welcome as we draw near home," it is pleasing to know that it has an economic value. An insurance company has announced that it will reduce rates on burglary risks for houses that have one of these four-footed burglar alarms about the place.

On the farm, in the city, in the apartment, the dog—if he barks—is an asset. While any handy substitute for a bootjack is being thrown at the cat, Fido can rest in peace on the hearthrug, content in the knowledge that he has an economic value in present-day life.

Congested city life was almost on the point of pushing this beloved companion into the suburbs, when the insurance company came to the rescue. Not only has it been hard to provide quarters for the dog, it has been hard for the dog to be forced to limit his liberties. Now the dog has risen from the simple sentimental class to the empyrean of economics.

To Become Wealthy

At Age 65—

ONE only will be wealthy—

FOUR will be well-to-do and able to enjoy comfort and recreation—

FIVE will still be working for a living, with no prospect of relief from drudgery—

THIRTY-SIX will have died; in many cases leaving families enduring hardships—

FIFTY-FOUR will be dependent on friends, relatives or charity.

Is an Ambition That is Cherished by Many.

You, perhaps, have the same ambition. At least, you want to be well-to-do later on, and able to enjoy comfort and independence.

What Are Your Chances?

Experience shows that of 100 average healthy men 25 years of age, the following will be true at 65:

- 1 only will be wealthy.
4 will be well-to-do.
5 will be compelled to go on working for a living.
36 will be dead.
54 will be dependent upon friends, relatives or charity.

Facing These Facts

Can you afford to go along without a definite plan of saving and investment, uncertain whether you will be well-off or an object of charity?

There need be no such uncertainty about your future if you adopt the safe and definite plan of setting aside a deposit regularly each year for a Canada Life "Endowment at 65."

It will guarantee you in cash at age 65 the sum of $2,000—$5,000—$10,000 or more.

It is a certainty—the full amount of your policy will be paid in any case, whether you live or die. Other investments may depreciate in value or fail. The will take care of your home, your business, or your personal interests, as nothing else can.

Substantial dividends are allotted at intervals.

If these be allowed to remain at your credit each year instead of being withdrawn, the face of the policy will be payable earlier than the date set.

Armistice Day Observed—Reports of Meetings and General News Notes from Bury District.

BURY, Que., Nov. 14.—The regular meeting of the St. Paul's W. A. was held on Thursday last at the residence of Mrs. S. J. Prangley. There was a large attendance. After the devotional exercises, a reading was given by Mrs. Frank Turner from "Japan in Transition," and was much enjoyed by all present.

The "talent money" was handed in by the members, amounting to the excellent sum of $63 with several yet to be heard from. The meeting closed at four o'clock with the members' prayer, after which a delicious tea was served by Mrs. Prangley and Mrs. Brazenall as their talent money. The sum of $6 was realized. The success of the talent enterprise has enabled the treasurer to send off their pledge money amounting to $50.

The concluding meeting of the season of St. Thomas' Guild was held on Saturday afternoon last at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Dawson. There was a good attendance. Important business was transacted, amongst which it was unanimously resolved to vote financial assistance toward the upkeep of St. Thomas' Church. An excellent financial report, duly audited, was presented by the treasurer, Miss Bessie Dawson, showing a very substantial balance on hand, after discharging all liabilities. A very hearty vote of thanks was given to the treasurer and all the officers of the Guild for the efficient and acceptable manner in which they had discharged their duties during the past season.

Armistice and Thanksgiving Day was suitably and appropriately kept in St. Paul's Church on Sunday last. There were large congregations at both morning and evening services. The former commenced at 10:55 o'clock, when the Rev. C. T. Lewis, in very touching terms appealed to the congregation present to bow their heads and bend their knees for two brief minutes in reverent memory of the eight boys of the parish of Bury, together with the 59,000 odd Canadians whose bodies are lying under the white crosses in France and Flanders. At two minutes past eleven o'clock the whole congregation joined in singing "Let Saints on Earth in Concert Sing with Those Whose Work is Done." The remainder of the service was of a national Thanksgiving character with special hymns suitable for the occasion very effectively rendered by a large choir, with hearty congregational singing. A forcible and appropriate sermon was preached by the rector. In the evening another thanksgiving service was held at which a large congregation took part. An exceedingly stirring and helpful sermon was preached by Major the Rev. A. W. Buckland, rector of Cookshire, who was engaged in active service in France and elsewhere. Throughout the day the musical portion of the services reflected very great credit upon the choir members.

The chancel of St. Paul's Church on Sunday last was decorated with dotted plants, whilst the altar was decorated with white chrysanthemums and pink carnations given by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Allison in loving memory of their little daughter, Greta Catherine. The ladies of the Methodist Church and members of the Aid met together on Thursday, November 8 at the home of Mrs. M. T. Stokes. In spite of counter attractions a very large turnout of members made a most successful meeting. Arrangements were made for the afternoon tea and sale of work, and a large amount of sewing was done at the meeting for this purpose. It was originally intended to have this sale of work the last week in November, but the date has now been put at Friday, December 14. This should prove to be a good opportunity for the purchase of Xmas gifts, as a very fine lot of both useful and fancy articles are being prepared. There will also be food and candy tables. The event will take place in the Odd Fellows' hall. Several bills were passed for payment and one new member was added to the roll. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. R. C. Crawford, who also conducted the devotional exercises. Tea was served by Mrs. M. T. Stokes and Mrs. G. Atkins, assisted by Mrs. Byrd, guest of Mrs. Stokes. Mrs. Alden Saunders was visiting friends in Bury recently. Messrs. Everett Rainey and Percy Armstrong journeyed with the Bishop's College rugby team last Friday week to see the match with Loyola, returning home Sunday evening. Mr. Charles F. Goodenough received a carload of very fine two-year-old steers from the West on Saturday. Most of them were Herefords.

Immediately after the wedding they will leave to spend the winter in California. POWER CONSTRUCTIONS WILL BENEFIT OTTAWA

OTTAWA, Nov. 14.—(Special)—It is felt in business circles here that the forthcoming increase in hydro-electric power available for the citizens of this district through the development by the Ottawa River Power Company of the site near Bryson, Que., will be a valuable acquisition tending, as it will, to add materially to the industrial importance of the community. It is felt that an adequate and cheap supply of power always attracts new enterprises, this being the first new development in the district in a number of years. Older plants have been improved and extended, but this is the finest actual new construction. The demand for power in a growing community doubles itself every seven years. This is practically a mathematical fact which has been found by interests closely associated with this important industry. If a community fails to maintain a healthy growth in an industrial way it may be taken for granted that there is something wrong with the facilities provided for expansion, and a plentiful supply is one of these. Ottawa's supply of power has not kept up with what should be a normal and healthy increase in demand, but this will be rectified in about a year when the new power becomes available. The plan of the Ottawa River Power Company, which is a subsidiary of the Ottawa-Hull Power Company, provides for an ultimate capacity of 75,000 horse power, and provision will be made to that end in the sub-structure of the new work, but it is intended to supply only 25,000 horse power at first. The additional two units can be added at comparatively small cost the moment the additional power is required. The power will be developed under a 60-foot head and is expected to be operated before December, 1924. Fraser, Brace & Co., the contracting firm which has taken the work in hand, has had a wide experience in water power construction, having recently completed the new plant of the Manitoba Power Company, and are also engaged in the work of the new St. Maurice Power Company, Shawinigan subsidiary. Another important plant which they built was Cedar Rapids, now part of the Montreal Power Consolidated aggregation. A transmission line is now about completed from Hull for a distance of 50 miles to Calumet Falls, near Bryson, to facilitate construction work. This is a 72,000 volt high tension line.

MOVE TO RECONSTRUCT GIANTS

(Associated Press Despatch.) NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The passing of Dave Bancroft, Casey Stengel and Bill Cunningham from the Giant roster and the acquisition by that team of Billy Southworth and Joe Oeschger, is construed by baseball fandom as the opening move by Manager John McGraw toward almost complete reconstruction of the New York National League Club. If such it proves, it will mark the fourth time in McGraw's twenty-one years as Giant manager that he has overhauled his organization. At each of his earlier moves ultimately brought National League pennants to New York, followers of the game will watch with interest his every move from now until the start of the 1924 campaign.

SHERBROOKE SKI CLUB WILL HAVE A WINTER HOME

Issue Discussed in Detail Last Evening—Miss B. Lawrence Awarded Trophy.

At a special general meeting of the Sherbrooke Ski Club, held in the Canadian Bank of Commerce, King and Wellington Streets, last evening, the members decided that the time was ripe for the erection of a club house. The decision was unanimous and the executive committee has been empowered to open negotiations both with regard to land and building.

It is proposed to form a holding company to finance the erection of the building, this company to lease the building to the club for a nominal sum. The funds are to be raised by an issue of stock, $5.00 per share, and same will be redeemed by the Ski Club from time to time, as finances permit, so that eventually the whole property will revert to the Sherbrooke Ski Club.

The amendments to the constitution, drafted by the Constitution Committee and the Executive Committee, and duly submitted to all members, were approved in their entirety.

During the course of the evening President A. W. Reid had the pleasure of presenting Miss B. Lawrence, winner of the two ladies' races, with the club trophy. This had been held over from the annual meeting to allow the completion of the engraving.

F. X. A. GIROUX DISCUSSED LAW AND THE WOMAN

Speaking at Rotary Club, He Emphasized Value of a Marriage Contract—Promote Better Domestic Relations.

The legal position of women in the Province of Quebec, was the subject of an interesting address by Mr. F. X. A. Giroux, prominent lawyer of Sweetsburg, before the members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club last evening. The address was followed by a discussion of different points raised, during the course of which Mr. Giroux substantiated his arguments by quoting examples relative to the points in question.

A distinct tribute was paid to the speaker when a vote of thanks was moved by Rotarian Jos. Asselin and seconded by Rotarian Chas. St. Jean, both members speaking in French. Mr. Giroux replied briefly in his mother tongue, expressing his appreciation of the club's courtesy in asking two of its members to extend the vote of thanks in the French language.

Taking as his subject "The Woman and the Law," Mr. Giroux observed: "I do not propose speaking to you relative to the suffrage or women's political rights but rather in connection with her status under the civil law as it applies to marriage, property and administration.

"Contrary to the general belief entertained in certain quarters, the civil law of the Province of Quebec aims to protect the woman, and when it does all those of this purpose it is due to exceptional circumstances, and, occasionally, to the negligence and carelessness of the interested parties. Very seldom is it due to fraud by the husband or owing to lack of provision by law.

"To begin with, unmarried women, whether widows or spinsters, have the same rights as men and it is only through the course of marriage that woman's position is altered. Even then, if the law is complied with and honestly enforced a woman is afforded every possible means to protect herself against the world at large and even against her husband if he runs foul.

Advisability of Marriage Contract.
"If, however, in marriage, we see an association for mutual support, advancement and happiness, the law is there to help attain that object. Prior to marriage, every young couple should consider the advisability of living under the community of property as established by the civil code or whether it would be preferable to provide a separation of property, in which case a marriage contract must be drawn up prior to the union.

"Many young folks, when preparing for marriage, fail to consider seriously the business end of the ceremony and parents should make it a point of instructing their children along these lines. A marriage contract can be secured for a nominal sum prior to the official recognition of the union. Afterward it can be secured only by judicial pronouncement and under special circumstances.

Mr. Giroux commented upon the differences between the two systems, community and separation of property, dealing with its advantages and disadvantages. Referring to the Rotarians as "Knights of the Golden Rule" he asked them to inscribe on their programme the promotion of better domestic relations inasmuch as the family is the basis of society. He quoted statistics showing that there was an appalling number of discontented couples in Canada as well as in the United States and contended that a thorough investigation of circumstances relative to these broken homes would show that the source of the woman's grievances was elsewhere rather than due to faulty civil laws.

Following Mr. Giroux's remarks, Rotarian E. L. Stewart Patterson, of Amherst, A. M. Sanzter, R. I.

ANTI-TUBERCULAR LEAGUE CAMPAIGN OPENS TONIGHT

Opening Gun Will Be Fired at City Hall This Evening—Details Practically Completed.

The educational campaign undertaken under the auspices of the Anti-Tubercular League for the District of St. Francis, will open this evening in the auditorium at the City Hall. Drs. A. Demers and P. P. Beaudry, assisted by willing workers, have made a wonderful change in the hall, and striking pictures have been put in place, showing the ravages of tuberculosis and describing methods to be adopted to prevent its spread.

Interest is being shown in this campaign by all the schools throughout the city, and the Provincial Government is making special arrangements for speakers. This evening's programme will be largely introductory and the greater part of the evening will be spent in presenting a series of moving pictures which tell a graphic tale.

Citizens are invited to visit the auditorium during the course of the day and see for themselves the complete collection of data which has been acquired by the local authorities. Many of the X-ray photos have been taken in the local hospital, and they show the different stages of the disease actually recorded in patients treated for tuberculosis.

Friday will be the big day of the campaign. Dr. Lessard, Dr. Wyatt, and other prominent authorities will address the evening meeting in the City Hall, and during the course of the afternoon the children from the Protestant school will be given an opportunity of listening to some of the preventative measures which they should enforce. Saturday morning the pictures will most likely be shown in the Premier Theatre for the benefit of the children.

An effort is being made to secure the complete co-operation of all local medical authorities, and it is expected that a special session will be held tomorrow afternoon, when the city doctors and nurses will be in attendance. The campaign is one of vital importance and citizens are strongly advised to visit the hall, where important truths will be pictured and measures of relief will be demonstrated.

Page and E. G. Pierce entered into a discussion of various incidents relative to the civil laws as they affected women. At the close of the meeting, President Phosne McManamy reminded the members that the organization meeting of the Cercle Francaise was scheduled for this evening and asked them to attend in as large number as possible.

PREM. BALDWIN'S DECISION FOR

Mrs. Phillipson will make a contest for her Berwick seat. She is likely to retire in favor of her husband, whom she was chosen to succeed when he was unseated.

Among the other women candidates is Miss Williams, daughter of Aneurim Williams, who has been a prominent figure in past parliaments, although he is not a member of the present one. Miss Williams will probably be the youngest woman seeking election. She is twenty-seven years of age, and consequently is too young to hold a seat as an elector, no woman under thirty being entitled to the franchise. This limitation, however, does not apply to aspirants to parliamentary seats.

The fate of Lady Warwick in the bye-election she has been contesting has now been postponed until the general poll. In the meantime, she and her rival candidates in Leamington continue their campaign.

It's the Blade that Counts.

In the last quarter—score tied—everyone "on their toes"—each man on both teams straining for an advantage, and using his last ounce of energy toward one purpose—to "buige" the net and score the winning "ouunter".

That's when the skate blade counts—it must have just the right "edge" that it has early in the game—it must grip the hard ice sufficiently to give you the speed advantage over your opponent.

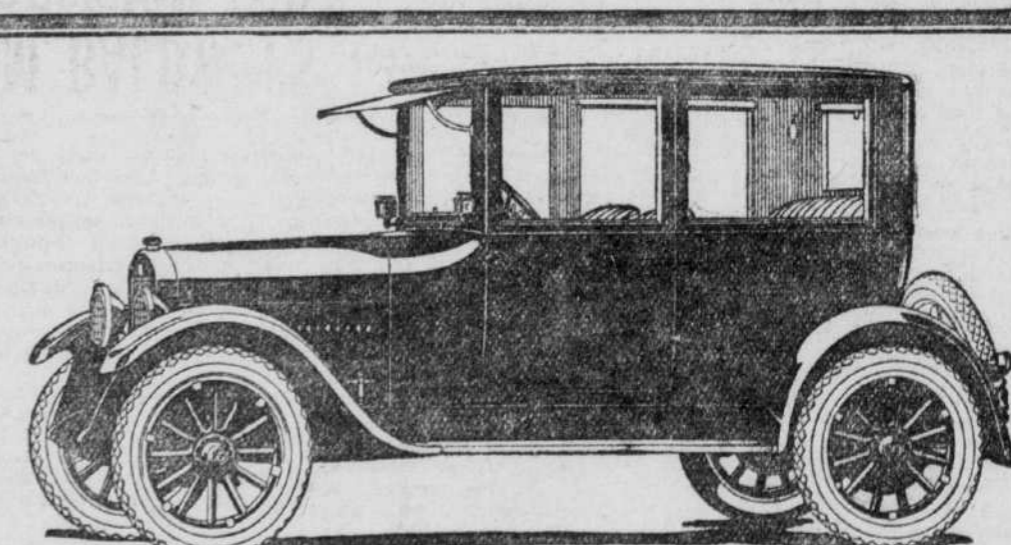

In moments like this the skates are all-important—games have been won or lost on the efficiency or inefficiency of a single player's skates.

That's why, year after year, hockey players, whose names are almost household words, stick to STARR Skates with their correctly tempered blades—the blades that hold their "edge" long after ordinary skates are dull.
