Shawville Rotarian extended a hearty welcome to Clarence Dean of Dean and Merritt as a new member of the club. Rotarian President Cyril Powles called on Rotarian Alex Fokes to induct Mr. Dean. Mr. Fokes outlined the many services which Shawville and International Rotary offer. He stressed the importance of the motto "Service Before Self" and mentioned some of the aims of Rotary such as the brotherhood of men and the promotion of peace.

More Bears (If Anyone Cares)

One of our readers from the West where everything is bigger and better (it says here) has topped all bear stories with one about fifty bears chasing an immigrant family out of their home in Northern British Columbia. The man is a logging truck mechanic and he and his wife and twin six year olds lived in a log cabin. As soon as they had moved in a bear came and took all their food so they borrowed more from a neighbor. For the next three nights bears came and broke in and cleaned out the larder. The immigrant shot all three. Next night fifty bears came, laying seige to the place. Then there was a knock on the door and when the man opened it a bear took a swing at him—he shot it dead. The payoff for the good wife was when bears chased her children home from school and charged the cabin when the boys were safely inside. The children were lowered out the back window and fled with their mother just as the bear was breaking down the door. Now the immigrant is looking for a job in Vancouver.

This story was sent in by the Laughren family of Detroit Michigan and except that it is printed on pink paper we have every reason to believe it to be fairly true—not that it matters—it's still a good story if you like bear stories.

Fox Hound Field Trials

Best All Canadian Fox Hunter Trials Since Organized Seven Years Ago

The best field trials ever held by this association took place at Quyon Friday and Saturday, October 30 and 31 with ideal weather and lots of foxes. The 40 dogs taking part were housed in the Agricultural Society's Cattle barn on the Fair grounds where the master of the hunt, A. L. Pimlott assembled his group at 6.30 a.m. to proceed to casting grounds for 7 o'clock cast.

Judging by the large number out to see the start, among whom were cameramen from the National Film Board, there was no lack of enthusiasm on the part of the Quyon and District citizens.

Light lunches were served both days from 6.30 a.m. from a canteen on the grounds by the ladies of Quyon United Church. Hounds from seven clubs in Ontario and Quebec took part in the trials and were judged for speed, driving, hunting, trailing and endurance. The winner of the trials and new possessor of the All Canadian Title was a hound Fletcher Kirby owned by A. F. Cook and Angus McDermid, Stratford, Ontario. Second place was won by Dr. Gesture owned by Thomas Zeiland, Lindsay; third was Banker's Murray, owned by L. Carter, Cornwall; fourth was Page Paddy, William Peer, Guelph; fifth, Armstrongs Lucky Doctor, Roy Morrell, Toronto; sixth Tomahawk Sands, A. F. Cook and Angus McDermid, Stratford; seventh, Bonnyman's Aristocrat, B.D., Bonnyman Ottawa; eighth, Steele's Spot, Everett Steele, Quyon; ninth, Button's Buzzard, Edmond Trudeau, Quyon, tenth, Cornsilk, H. Grau, St. Laurent.

Master of Hounds was A. L. Pimlott, Ottawa and Angus McDermit was assistant. Home plate judge was Albert Manary, Shawville and field judges were H. Roach, Peterborough, H. Hammond, Quyon, L. Stark, Montreal, J. Kirchbury, Montreal, R. Hunt, Port Hope, G. Foster, Toronto, G. Resit, Stratford, S. Baxter, Orangeville, F. Mulligan and A. Mulligan, Quyon, A. Crowder, Ottawa, E. McMullen, Cornwall, T. M. Bryson, Ottawa and J. Baskin, Dunrobin.

The prizes were presented at the Banquet Saturday evening, held in the Auditorium of Onslow Intermediate School by the Ladies Guild of St. John's Anglican Church. E. D. Bonnyman, Ottawa, President of the All Canadian Fox Hunters Association as Master of Ceremonies praised the local Association for the capable manner in which all arrangements had been made and also the people of Quyon for their hospitality on behalf of the out of town associations from Montreal, Ottawa, Cornwall, Peterborough, Central and Western Ontario. Among the guest speakers were Mr. Hugh Proudfoot, M. P. and Mr. Lee Hodgins, Game Warden, W. J. Monahan, Ottawa Director of Canadian Kennel Club. Owing to illness in his family, Mr. Raymond Johnston, M.L.A., was unable to be present. On behalf of the Fox Hunters Association, Mr. F. D. Boomer retiring secretary was presented with a watch.

The drawing which had been in charge of the Quyon Club then took place. Mr. S. Robinson, Campbell's Bay drew first prize, a 30-30 Savage rifle; David Mulligan, Campbell's Bay won second prize, a fishing tackle outfit and third prize was won by John Lucas, Quyon, a 22 rifle.

COURT REPORT

ROBERT AMYOTTE of Fort Coulonge pleaded guilty Tuesday night before Hon. Roland Millar, district Magistrate, on a charge of breaking, entering and theft, and he was sentenced to 6 months in jail. The offence took place on the 21st of October, 1953, when Amyotte broke into Mr. Ferdinand Laporte's house, and stole two tires of a value of $50. Detective Andre Audet conducted the investigation and made the arrest.

JOSEPH ZACHARIAS of Otter Lake also pleaded guilty on a charge of theft and was sentenced to time already spent in jail. He was arrested after an investigation made by Constable Earl Bennett revealed that he had stolen a row-boat from Mr. J. Fleury of Otter Lake.

Letter From Korea

Korea, October 17, 1953

Dear Editor Just a few short lines to show my appreciation of receiving The Equity each week, although it is a month late when I get it. Things are going very smooth here in Korea so far as work and the weather is concerned some of the boys think they are working too hard, but we are having wonderful weather in the last three months for doing our work, the nights are getting rather cool, but we are prepared for that now as the other day we were issued heavy parka jackets and sleeping bags. For sports during the summer we used to go swimming in the Imjim river, just north of the 38th parallel. I had better mention our wonderful ball team which played hard all summer. At the end of the play-off, they defeated the 23rd Infantry Work Shop, 4 out of 7 games. For that they get a trip to Japan for three weeks and while there will play against a team in Tokyo. We wish them good luck.

For my own pastimes, I used to do a lot of visiting, my favorite place was the P.P.C.L.I., but now my good friend, Pte Mervin Hodgins has gone to Japan on course on mortars and from there he will be going home, another place I used to visit was P. Bty. 81fd Reg't., R.C.A., where Gnr. Rolly Renaud was posted, but Rolly is now on his way across the great Pacific and hoping to be in Quyon very soon.

Well folks I must run along for now.

Yours truly,
Corporal Nelson W. Wall,
Sigs. Tp. 81 Fd. Reg't. R.C.A.

Brownlee Wedding

The marriage of Hilda Laughren, daughter of Mrs. William Tubman and the late William Tubman to Elwod Brownlee, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Armon Brownlee, was solemnized Wednesday evening, October 21 in the United Church parsonage, Shawville, by Rev. H. G. Lester. Witnesses to ceremony were Mr. Clarence McLean and Mr. Hubert Brownlee. The bride chose a beige suit with brown accessories for the occasion.

A Thought For November 11

Suppose you were in great personal danger. Perhaps you are standing in the middle of the highway and don't see the great logging truck which is bearing down upon you from behind. Then, just in the nick of time your life is saved by a young man who loses his life in saving yours. To him you owe a debt which can never be payed. You owe him a life which he can no longer have. So what can you do about it? This is the perplexing position we find ourselves in as we contemplate those who died on the battlefields, in the prison camps and in the icy seas so that we would not be overtaken by a danger we could not see. We cannot give them what they lost for us. All we can do is to keep a better watch for our own security and never again be caught standing in the middle of the highway unaware of the proximity of danger.

First Football Season Open In Shawville

The Story Of Little Red, The Hydrant Who Got His Way

Once upon a time there was a little red hydrant whom everybody called Little Red for short. Little Red wasn't just exactly like all the other little hydrants in the village, content to sit on a street corner having constant converse with busy pedestrians, anxious dogs and leap frogging children. No sir. Little Red chose for his spot a corner at the edge of the town where few people ever came because there wasn't even a sidewalk and the street wasn't paved yet. There Little Red spent many happy hours just contemplating the beauties of nature and watching the trucks roll in and out of the creamery across the way.

Then all of a sudden things started happening. Almost at the same moment two modern buildings started up right on Little Red's special corner. One was a dry-cleaning plant across the street, which didn't effect Little Red directly but all the comings and goings of the builders began to frazzle Little Red's nerves. But the other building was an office building where everyone would be going to pay their electric light bills and Little Red's worst fears were justified when they opened their shiny front door and there was Little Red standing right in the middle of the doorway.

Next thing that happened was the paving of the street and more and more people came past in cars and on foot. This was getting to be too much for Little Red. Bill paying time was coming up again and the very thoughts of hundreds of people brushing against him as they went through the modern door into the modern office was not to be tolerated. So one dark night—and it was so close to Hallowe'en that it might almost be classed as a good witches doings—Little Red moved about ten feet down the road. And there he sits today—aloof and alone as he used to be with only the stucco wall of the building to keep him company, and the occasional dog to keep him abreast of the news.

Doc Armitage Coaches Local Lads

Football has come to Shawville with a big splash of bright colors. Last Friday the exhibition grounds rang with the cheering voices of several hundred spectators as the Shawville team played their first game against a team from Ottwa's Technical High School. The final score of the game was 23 to 17 with the high score going to Tech, but it was a very close thing from the start. Dramatic play was the order of the day with McCleary, Shawville and Carey of Campbell's Bay starring for the home team. Doc Armitage coached the group which is outfitted by the Rotarians and Lions and uses a grassy plot at the agricultural grounds for a gridiron and home made goal posts. For a gang none of whom had ever played football before and 8 out of 10 of whom had never even seen a game, the Shawville boys are doing a creditable job.

An unofficial cheering section and volunteer water boys completed the picture for the afternoon and now the boys are practising up for their next encounter which might be Cobden.

Bristol Village Remembrance Ceremony

They shall not old grow
As we that are left grow old,
Or the years condemn.
Age shall not weary them.
At the going down of the sun
And in the morning
We will remember them.

Beattie Mayor of the Municipality, will be Chairman of the program to begin at 2.30 p.m. The monument donated by the Municipality will be unveiled by Thomas McNeill, a veteran of World War I and the first wreath will be placed by Mrs. W. J. Murray representing Mother's of Canada bereaved by war. Speakers will be Rev. Kingsley M. Cutler who was an army chaplain overseas in World War II, Mr. Hugh Proudfoot, M.P., Mr. Ray Johnston, M. L. A. Rev. Father MacDonald was to have attended but a conflicting appointment will prevent this. Bristol will, on that day, be especially remembering John MacFarlane, Frederick Dean and William Herron who lost their lives in the 1st War and Frederick Murray, Edgar Smith and Leslie Russett, killed in the second World War, but people from all the surrounding villages are invited to join Bristol and share in this solemn and beautiful ceremony.

"This & That"

Buy expensive fertilizer and use expensive manpower to spread it but when the leaves drop freely from the trees and cover your lawn with the best mulch you could possibly obtain, rake it up and burn it and throw the ashes in the dump heap.

A certain well known and well loved visitor to Fort Coulonge, the place of his birth, went out last Saturday morning, well equipped with license, gun and canoe, to bag some wild ducks. He was lucky for he saw some and being a fairly good shot, he fired twice and killed five. Putting out in his canoe to retreive them he had a bright smile, but when he pulled them in the smile quickly departed, for to he found that he had shot five tame ducks belonging to the well known member of the Federal House for Pontiac County. Apologies were tendered and accepted and we can guess what the member and his family had for dinner on Sunday.

In Shawville, if you're looking for the Dry Cleaners you'll find them in their new bulding across from the Creamery. They say that better business means better service so great things are expected.

Also in the new building, new services line is Rennick's Service Station which has a new garage and new services for customers.

The Boy Scouts need chairs in their new headquarters and the District Commissioner has issued a plea for donations. If anyone has a spare chair—kitchen chair or stool—would they call Captain Winslow and a Scout will come and pick it up.

Something new in the way of adevrtising is being undertaken by Dean and Meritt's in Shawville. Coupons have been distributed which are good for cash on purchases in every department in the store. These coupon days extend until November 14 at which time there will be a drawing and some lucky coupon user will win a valuable prize. It's an interesting idea and its outcome wil be closely watched by other stores in the district.

For the second time recently The Equity has been forced by so much news coming in from correspondents to put out a ten page paper. Each time this has been made possible only by the willing and cheerful assistance of the Renfrew Mercury. What we lack at The Equity is a cutting machine big enough to cut the newsprint down to size for a one sheet insert. Fortunately our good neighbors across the river have a big cutter and by dashing over early Thursday morning with our extra pages printed four up and having them quartered at the Mercury we are able to get all our news into The Equity. Unfortunately there just isn't room for any bigger machinery in the present Equity quarters, but this situation will be remedied fairly soon.

THE EQUITY

FOUNDED IN 1883

Publisher: David R. Dickson

Last week a columnist in The Equity levelled a rather startling charge against the County of Pontiac. He said, "There are families which are living in conditions which rival any found in the worst slums of the world. Some homes are too dirty to raise healthy livestock and conditions of immorality exist which the community chooses to ignore. . ." If it were anyone else making such a statement we might suppose they were exaggerating. But Rev. Cyril Watson has no cause to stretch the facts. He sees things as they are and it is his mission in life to try to better them. The way to better a poor situation, according to him, is to arouse the community to action on behalf of the unfortunate. If there are children living in the conditions he describes, then they are indeed unfortunate. And if there are old people living alone who "have not sufficient strength to prepare proper meals for themselves", the Christian community should certainly feel a responsibility for them. But the first thing to do is to discover just exactly what conditions do exist here and then see what can be done about them. Rev. Watson suggests an Old Folks Home and a Children's Aid Society Branch. Both these things would require help from the Government but neither could be considered unless the need were very evident and written in black and white. If there are serious conditions of need in this county, our readers should let us know, so that when the time comes to ask for help there will be a clear record to refer to.

Doing the School Board circuit is interesting and educational and even entertaining. Most of them show their delight at having visitors who come with no complaints. It seems to be the custom among tax payers to leave the school board strictly alone unless they have some complaint against it. Then they rush in, hardly knowing what sort of problems the school board is empowered to deal with, and make their demands. Almost every complaint that is brought before a board would not be brought if the complainant had come to previous meetings as an observer and knew what lay back of the board's various decisions. Each board comprises a group of conscientious men doing an extremely difficult job. The technicalities involved in the administration of one or several schools are complicated beyond the imagination of most ordinary citizens. The commissioners in Pontiac are fortunate in having Lloyd MacKeen who, knowing the Education Act like a Bible, spends long hours from one end of the county to the other interpreting it to them; taking many of their most onerous tasks onto his own shoulders and forever acting as a buffer to lessen the shock of disagreeable contact between irate tax payers and their school boards. But it is the school board itself which, in the final analysis, is responsible to you for the administration of school affairs. They work long hours and overtime without overtime pay for you. They would probably be surprised to see a small crowd of citizens coming into their meetings each month, but their surprise would turn to delight, we feel sure, when they discovered that the citizens were there not to criticize and complain but just to find out what it's all about.

Many Varieties Of Donations Are Acceptable At Pontiac Hospital

Since the harvests that have been so bountiful this year, the Pontiac Community hospital comes with an appeal for help. Many people have full cellars, but the bins and shelves of the hospital are almost empty. So the hospital is starting a drive to last for the next few weeks for donations of produce for your institution. As this is a county institution and serves all classes, we are asking the people of the county to bring in supplies, that the hospital may be able to carry on its work of help more efficiently.

The hospital needs potatoes; it uses 200 bags of these a year. Donations from county folk of a few bags each would give the hospital a supply and the indivfdual donor would never miss them. We could also use supplies of garden vegetables, such as turnips, beets, carrots parsnips; and donations of these will be highly acceptable. We could use fruit, such as raw apples; and canned goods including pickles, jams, jellies and preserves. One man has suggested that when he kills his pig or cow for winter use, he would bring in a good chunk as his donation to the hospital. Many people could give a few dozen eggs or some butter and there are other things that will suggest themselves to you.

The hospital is like most hospitals; it could not run on its revenue, without the help of kind friends. We hope you will help with generous donations.

There are several things we would like to mention. Your hospital, in its building, provides excellent facilities for storage in a large and cool cellar. For more perishable goods, there is a high class refrigeration system to preserve donations. So everything will be carefully used.

Donations from those living nearer the hospital may be brought in at any time; to the service entrance; and arrangements can be made with the secretary to have them unloaded. For those more distant, we appeal to societies, leagues, guilds and auxiliaries to ring up their members and friends and have the goods gathered together locally and brought in loads to the hospital. In this way there can be an opportunity for goods to come from even the farthest points in the county.

All goods received will be gratefully acknowledged by the secretary of the Board; and we urge upon all to come to the help of your hospital with as large donations as possible.

BOY SCOUT NEWS BY CAP

While all the figures are not in as yet, Apple Day was again a success towards assisting Scouting in the District of Pontiac. The Group Committees in Quyon, Starks Corners, Shawville and Bryson wish to thank the Public for your support in their annual drive for funds. The entire proceeds of all monies received go towards the supplying of books and equipment for each centre. This is the one day of the year when the boys assist their Group Commmittees to finance their activities. Thank you very much Mr. and Mrs. Scout Supporter.

Sales commenced in Shawville at 9.00 a. m. and the District Scoutmaster, Mr. Jack Tolhurst, sent teams of boys to different parts of the town for house to house canvas after which the boys sold as they could to the general public on the streets. Although sufficient tags or what was considered to be sufficient, had been ordered well in advance they ran out and it is regretted that many purchasers were unable to be furnished with one of the tags. Next year a larger supply will be obtained. The best Cub Salesman was Robert Hobbs who for the third year in succession has led the Cubs in this respect. This year he was handicapped owing to one arm being in a cast. Tommy Smart came second, both of these boys selling over ten dollars worth of apples. The leading Scout was David Yach. While all the boys did a good job, 17 had over the five dollar mark in their bank when opened. These banks were furnished by the White Rose Gasoline Company through Mr. A. D. McCredie which was very much appreciated. It certainly saved someone from doing a lot of soldering of tops on baking powder cans as Scouting regulations do not permit the boys to handle the money themselves and their customers are requested to place their donation in the can themselves. While Apple Day is actually a Tag Day for Scouting during which the Public give whatever they see fit whether it is ten cents or ten dollars for a tag, the apple is given to the customer as a token since Scouts do not receive anything for nothing and at least endeavour to give some value for the purchase of a tag.

Friday night the office of Mr. J. M. Argue had some 39 baskets from the Wolf Cubs and 14 from the Scouts all decorated to be judged for prizes. These prizes were given for originality of the decorations, practibility in being used in selling and general appearance. The Judges, Mr. Argue and Mr. Clarence Dean, the Group Committee Chairman remarked that they would like to give a prize to each one. With the Scout colors of red, green and gold predominating it was certainly some job to pick the winners. Every boy who put in a basket is deserving of a great deal of praise for the fine appearance. However after about a half hour deliberating and eliminating the prizes were awarded first to Bobby Scott, 2nd to Ross Dickson and third to Andy Devine of the Wolf Cubs and in the Scouts to first, Jack Campbell and 2nd to David Yach. There were not so many Scout baskets as there were Cubs. The names of the winners were not known until after the judging was finished and in fact in one case, it was not until the next day as the Cub had forgotten to put his name on his basket. There was a great deal of enthusiasm and keenness on the part of the boys, but I think special mention must be made of those who were handicapped. While Robert Hobbs had one arm in a cast, Jimmy Carmichael had both of his arms tied up and his brother John Carmichael who was on crutches with his leg in a cast, fixed himself an ingenious arrangment of bag which he tied around his waist so he could be in there helping out on Apple Day. With that kind of enthusiasm it is no wonder Scouting is being accepted in Pontiac in the way that it has. There can be no doubt but that this idea of Lord Baden-Powell is bringing results and this world is better for him having been here and giving us this great Game of Scouting.

Thank you again, everybody, for your support to these boys on their annual Apple Day.

Rotary Hallowe'en Party Big Hit With Local Youngsters

With the grounds of the Exhibition association lit up by an immense bon fire, the Shawville Rotary Club held a most successful Hallowe'en Frolic on Saturday night. The Program started with a great parade of some 300 children in comic or character costumes up the Main street of the village directed by Rotarian A. F. Fokes, and at the gounds the crowd of children and adults that gathered ran well over a thousand.

The parade was a noisy one as the children had been supplied with noise makers by the club and the Lions Address system, kindly loaned for the occasion, gave good music for the parade. Judging followed on the grounds, with four committees doing this rather difficult task of awarding 45 prizes donated by Rotarians for the best costumes. The Judges were Mr. and Mrs. Ken Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ross White, Mr. and Mrs. J. MacLean, Rev. R. G. Elliott and Dr. R. Armitage.

The prizes awarded were as follows, in oredr of merit:-

Character, senior boys, Arthur Rice, Edward Tanner, Harold Davis, David Yach, Donald Yach, Donald Barnett; girls, Genevieve Wickens, Sheila Horner, Marion Horner, Sheila McRae, Joan Olmstead.

Character, junior boys, Clayton Dale, Bruce Hayes, Billy Imison, John Judd, Terry Smith, Bian Smith; girls, Sharon Taylor, Joan Taylor, Mary McKinley, Sandra Hodgins, Eunice Krause, Claudia Wickens.

After the judging was completed a great feast of hot dogs was given to the children, with all eating as many as they desired and some left over for the adults. The convenors in charge of this, which did a fine job, were Asa Smart and John McKinley, and over a thousand choice rolls and weiners were put over the counter.

Following this Leslie Dale and his committee gave a fine display of Fireworks to close the evening.

While the object of Rotary was to give the children and the community an enjoyable evening in which the club invested $150 and a lot of hard work, a by-product was seen in the fact that practically no damage, such as has taken place on other Hallowe'ens was seen this year.

Farm Forum Rally

The Fall Rally of Pontiac Farm Forums was held Thursday evening, October 22, at Pine Lodge, Bristol, with a large gathering of Forum members and their friends present.

Donald Paul showed two films, "The Son", and a "Mother Goose" fantasy for the children. The chairman introduced Keith Russell, the new secretary of Forums for Quebec, who gave a short talk on the set-up of Forums in Quebec. We also enjoyed a brief discourse by Mr. George Stones, teacher of Agriculture and Physical Education at Shawville High School.

Mr. Stones stated that the Agricultural course being taught at Shawville is a four year one beginning in grade 8. As this is the introductory year, Agriculture is being offered in grades 8 and 9 only. There are eighty students enrolled, of whom about 50% are girls and 75% come from farms. Instruction is both theoretical and practical. For instance, while a student is not taught how to milk a cow, he is instructed on scientific feeding formulas, the care and mangement of a herd.

Summer projects are also planned. Students in grades 8 and 9 will be expected to choose one, such as raising one hundred chickens, three or four pigs, an acre of grain or potatoes or caring for two or three hives of bees. The students will be taught to keep approved records and instuction will be given on simple farm accounting procedures.

Mr. Stones was brought to Shawville to organize and develop the Agricultural course by the Pontiac County Protestant Central School Board. A native of Cape Breton, Nova Scotia, he received his education at the Truro Agricultural School and later at MacDonald College. He is married and holds the degree of Bachelor of Science in Agriculture.

Mr. Gordon Brownlee introduced Harry Woodburn of Cyrville, Ontario. Mr. Woodburn, managed, in his talk, to give the most comprehensive outline of what comprises a real "live" Forum, that we have listened to for some time. The speaker, a member of the same Forum as H. H. Hannam, President of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, showed the pitfalls that must be avoided, and the goals to be sought in our discussions. He emphasized particularly that it is what we put into a Forum, not what we hope to "get out of it," that brings results. Mr. Woodburn was thanked by Pheobe McCord.

Following a communal singsong, a pleasant social hour was spent, with a 'pot luck' lunch served by the convenors.

The Power Of The Spoken Word

by Rev. Cyril Watson

There is an old saying "Sticks and stones may break my bones but words will never hurt me." There may have been something in this adage at one time but I feel that it is no longer true. Today it is often the case that we give a dog a bad name and then we hang him! For today the spoken word has greater power than at any time in past history. Modern methods of communication bring one man's words to the ears of the world as soon as they are spoken. How necessary it is for us then to consider the effects our words will have before we say them.

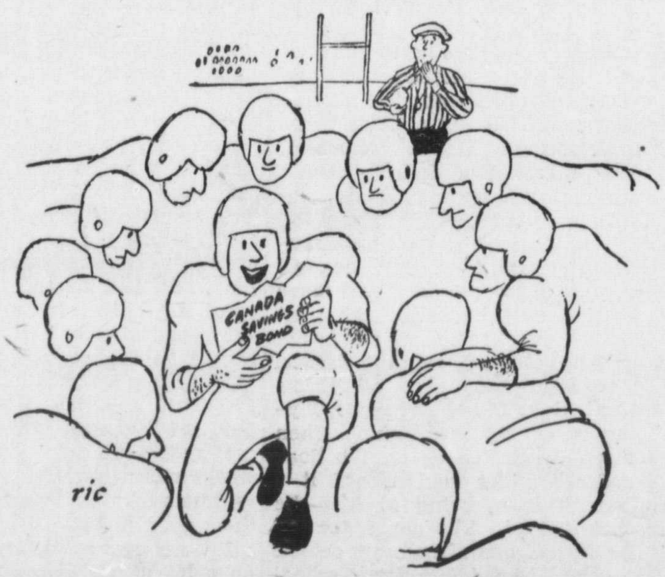
There are three questions each of us should ask himself before he speaks. First he should inquire of himself, "Is what I am about to say true?" There is so much untruth in the world today that a concerted attempt by all thoughtful citizens is needed to see that we do not add to it. We should be particularly careful when talking about other people. A good reputation in the community may take a whole generation to establish and it may be torn down in five minutes by a few false statements. And often the reputation so destroyed is not rebuilt when the statements are proven to be untrue.

But it is not only in the matter of reputations that we need to be sure of our facts. We can imagine the disasters that would arise if a doctor or lawyer were to proceed on false information. I maintain that all of us need to be as exact in our statements as the scientist is in his. Truth is a goal towards which we must always strive in all that we say.

The second question we should ask ourselves before we say anything is simply this, "Are our words good words? Will they add to the total of good thoughts in the minds of our hearers, or will they add to the already overwhelming load of sadness, pain or wickedness which most of us carry on our backs as Pilgrim carried his burden along the way of life?" A word of thanks, a word of encouragement, a word of greeting—all these are worth saying. They can set the mood for the whole day, brighten the outlook for a whole community as they are passed on from one to another. These are words which are worth saying and their power for good is just as great as the power of other words for evil.

Finally, before we speak, let each of us ask himself, "Are these words that I am about to say useful words? Will they help the hearer, or hinder him? Are they words that I would want to hear myself? Will they add beauty and kindness to the world or will they add ugliness and cruelty?"

When we consider that a word once spoken can never be withdrawn, that a word can live in the memory of the hearer long after the speaker has died, that our ideas are all word-pictures so that in one sense the word precedes the idea it expresses we can see how powerful words are. Even in the days of long ago, men realized this and indeed the greatest and most powerful action that ever took place was thought of as the result of speech. For we read of the Creation that God said, "Let there be light" and there was light. Not the hands of God but his voice was credited with this greatest of all powerful acts.



"So that's what they talk about!"

At the last meeting of the 1st Shawville Troop the culmination of some hard work on behalf of both the Scouters and the boys was demonstrated with the Investiture of nine Tenderfoot Scouts, some of whom have just come up from the Pack. This just leaves two Chums who have not passed their Tenderfoot Tests. In addition to these, one Scout received his 2nd Class Badge all of which are shown in the Scout Gazette. The Scout Hall is beginning to look like one with the flags of the Units on the walls and Patrol Corners with their relative Patrol Boxes, painted in their Patrol colors. There are still a number of things to be done as yet and, as there are no seats or chairs, these will have to be furnished. If there is any friend of Scouting who has a kitchen chair that can be spared, it would be very welcome. There are over 40 Wolf Cubs and over 20 Scouts and Rover Scouts each who meet in the Scout Hall so that some 40 or 50 chairs could be used. Large chairs would not be suitable as they would take up too much room. If anyone has a spare chair a phone call would arrange to have a boy get it and bring it to the Hall. The meeting closed with a few games and some Hallowe'en activities.

A Bronze Arrowhead Course will start on Friday, November 13 at 7.30 p.m. This is for Junior Leaders and it is expected that there will be a fair number from all four centres of Pontiac District. Wyman Farm Forum

Fourteen neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Everett McCorriston on Monday, November 2nd to listen to the National Farm Radio Forum broadcast. "The Agriculture Representative and the Farmer", the first discussion broadcast of the season; and to discuss the questions as set forth in the 'Farm Forum Guide'. The first question, "In what way do the farmers in your Forum make use of the services of your Agricultural Representative, was answered by everyone reporting different services by which they had benefited through the Agricultural Representative such as obtaining Government Grants for livestock, purchase of lime and other fertilizers, ditching, advice regarding suitable sites for new buildings, and taking part in the "Better Farming Competition." The second question "What Kind of Help Is Most Needed From Your Agricultural Representative in your Community", had the group thinking quite hard, and among other suggestion was one that most everyone agreed on, namely arranging for more ditches to be dug. Another was that farmers themselves should go to their Agricultural Representative to seek his advice on the kind of grain to sow and where to sow it. "How can farmers and forums help the Ag. Rep. to reach people?", was the third question read from the "Guide" by the chairman. Garth Graham. By inviting the Ag. Rep. to one or two of our Farm Forum meetings to talk over problems with us, and by telling our neighbors of his services, and encouraging them to take their farming problems to him.

A game of croquinole was enjoyed by the men and the ladies added a few more rows to their knitting whilst having a little visit during the preparation of supper by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. G. Graham and Mrs. M. Horner. A collection was taken up, to go towards the Forum's County allotment. Everyone was on the way home as the clock struck eleven.

DON'T USE IMPROPER FUSES

"Faulty wiring" is given as the cause of a surprisingly large number of fires. In many cases it might better be "Improper fuses."

The use of metal inserts or oversize fuses is dangerous.

In case of excess current or short circuit the wires will overheat and might cause a fire.

Fuses are safety devices. If fuses blow frequently, you are either overloading the system or something is wrong with the wiring or devices on that circuit.

Call a competent electrician in case of trouble.

Pole construction offers a low cost method of building farm structures. Using this method, farm buildings can be erected which will be serviceable for about fifty years. Basically they consist of poles set in the ground checkerboard fashion to support the roof and sidewalks. Rough lumber can be used throughout and cutting and fitting reduced to a minimum. Tests have shown that untreated Eastern cedar poles will last for about twenty years while pressure-creosoted pine poles have a service life of approximately fifty years. Because of the high cost of conventional barn construction pole structures are becoming increasingly popular and are being used for housing many kinds of livestock.

It takes the right feed to produce PROFITABLE RESULTS.

Straight Grain Fed Hogs—
—take too long to feed (up to 9 months)
—require too much feed (about 1100 pounds each)
—get much too fat (miss out on grade premiums)

SHUR-GAIN fed Hogs do better—
—reach market weight earlier (5 to 6 months)
—go off on much less feed (650 pounds or less per head)
—grade better (earn more premiums)

All this means more profit to the SHUR-GAIN Feeder

Prove it for yourself — try the SHUR-GAIN program—

From 10 days to 10 weeks of age—SHUR-GAIN Pig Booster
From 10 weeks to about 120 lbs. live weight—a mixture of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate and grain (1 Concentrate to 4 grain)
From 120 lbs. live weight to market—a mixture of SHUR-GAIN Hog Concentrate and grain (1 Concentrate to 6 grain)

Ladysmith News

Mrs. W. Yach

(Held Over From Last Week)

A shooting match was held at the Don Early farm, Cawood. At high noon a fair crowd had assembled and the heavy artillery began. Consequently each and every bullseye was the winner of a luscious broad breasted turkey. Now if the lucky one had a good cook and a few vegetables before hand, he should now be sitting down to quite a fancy spread.

St. John's cemetery, Ladysmith, which has been on the improvement agenda all summer apparently is nearing completion. On Friday a goodly group of enthusiastic workers took to drawing fill, removing a large cedar tree, levelling the ground where necessary. In comparison with a year ago there is a remarkable change evident which everyone will heartily approve.

Miss Eleanor Pasch from Shawville, spent a week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs Fred Pasch, Ladysmith.

The annual Hallowe'en Masquerade dance was held in the Ladysmith Hall, with witches and other freaks galore. Cash prizes awarded for the most original costumes went to Wolf Lake, Otter Lake, Shawville and Ladysmith. Needless to say an evening of much fun and laughter was enjoyed by all.

Funeral services were held by Rev. George Robrtson, Anglican Ministr of Clairmont Anglican church.

Left to mourn his loss are three sons, Kenneth, Kitchener and Beatty.

Pallbearers were: D. P. Brown, Smith Moore, John Waeffler, D. Duncan, Walker Mayo and Tom Robinson.

Burial was in the family plot in the Emerson Trail cemetery.

Pontiac Cattle And Horses Shown At Ottawa Winter Fair

Pontiac County was well represented at the recently held Ottawa Winter Fair. Six Exhibitors of cattle took part in the showings and three exhibitors of horses, and all made quite creditable and some made outstanding showings.

The following cattle men were on hand:—

C. T. Brownlee & Son, Walter Kilgour, Edwin Pirie & Son; Dwight McDowell & Son; Arthur Kilgour, Sydney Draper.

All these cattle breeders deserve credit for their enterprise in attending the fair and for the splendid results each attained.

Horsemen of the district were represented by entries from the stables of Campbell & Liberman, Lawrence Hynes and Walter Kilgour. Each of these horse entries gave quite satisfactory accounts of themselves and some were outstanding. All these exhibitors deserve congratulations.

An outstanding win in the cattle section was made by Kilmac Winnie Marathon owned by Walter Kilgour, when she won the 3 year old class in milk, later proceeded to win the senior, and finally the Grand Championship.

Sandy Creek

Last week we were very fortunate to have a visit by a prospector from Uranium City and Lake Athabaska, Sask., Owen Hearty. He spent the summer months prospecting in the Lake Athabaska area, has been to all the most promising properties including the famous Gunner property which is now a proven mine. Mr. Hearty has checked on several of the properties in this area and reports the showings very satisfactory especially the Yates Uranium property, and if the area were prospected in more detail and further work done in this district, there could possibly be another Gunner. So get busy boys and get down on your hands and knees for that is the way they made their showing in Athabaska.

Telephone 30

No one hears the door that opens,
When they pass beyond the call,
Soft as dropping petals of a rose,
One by one our loved ones fall.
But the memory of each loved one,
Like the fragrance of a rose,
God sends to linger with us,
Till our own life's door shall close
—Lovingly, daughter Margaret.

Little—In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Bland Little, who passed away November 9, 1941.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance
Just memory fond and true
Just a token of affection and,
A heartache still for you.
—Ever remembered,
Mother and brother Cecil
