

The amount ($56,657) paid for opening Brennan street had to be brought down to the debit of some account, which might have been named anything for the sake of classification, until legislation was had to make the Railway Loan. When the latter was floated, the cost of making the line was placed against that account, as it was Mr. Robt.'s duty to do. Even supposing that a mistake had been made, it is no credit to the bers will soon entertain us at another of a like kind. The Rev. Edward Wood, rector, and other clergymen were present during the evening. The concert closed at ten o'clock with the singing of the National Anthem.

— A well-known gentleman recently lectured in Marlboro, and the Times says of him: "As a stump speaker he has few equals and no superiors, but he has no more qualifications for a lecture platform than General Butler has for a ballet dancer."
