WESTMOUNT GOES OVER TOP

Local Boys Missing At Sea On "Athabascan"

Among local men listed as missing on H.M.C.S. Athabascan, a new 1,900-ton destroyer of the Tribal class, which was sunk off the Western tip of France recently, are: Telegrapher James Martin, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Martin, 1035 Greene Avenue. He enlisted in the R.C.N.V.R. in June 1942. Two brothers, Pte. Cecil R. Martin, R.M.R., and Corporal Cyril J. Martin, 17th Hussars of Canada, are serving overseas. There is also a 16-year-old brother, Jack, a cadet with the 17th Husars.

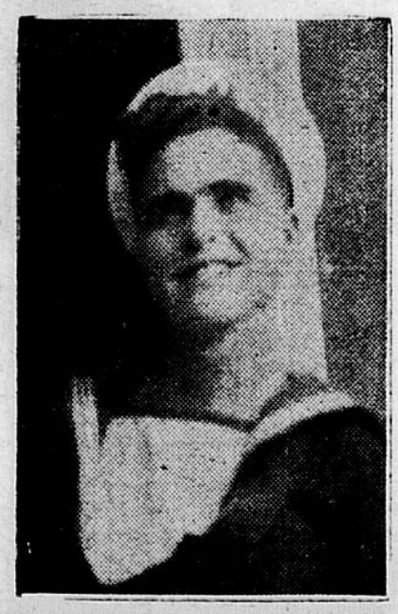

Cook, John Lovell Manson, 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Manson, of 755 Greene Avenue, was born here and worked for the Dominion Stores.

He was also employed by the John Legassick Company. He joined the navy in January 1941. Before enlisting he was an ardent cyclist, and in 1937 won the amateur Quebec championship for the Wolfe Cyclist Club. He also played hockey for the same club. A younger brother, Pte. Leslie Manson, has been overseas for three years with the 1st Battalion, Black Watch.

WORKERS EXCEED QUOTA

Victory Loan history was made in the City by the Canada Bread Company's employees who were the first to go over the top of their objective with 100% of their employeees purchasing bonds, and obtaining 125% of their objective in dollars.

Municipal Association Issues First Names For Honor Roll

The Honor Roll of Westmount citizens serving in the war, which is being erected by the Westmount Municipal Association at the entrance to Victoria Hall, is now well on the way towards realization.

The plans have been completed by the architect, Campbell Wood, and fabrication by the Masonite Company is going ahead.

Valuable help has been given by a group of "Y" girls from the Badminton Club and Robin Hood Club, who, under the supervision of Jim McJannet, have spent many evenings typing and checking the lists of names for the Roll.

In order that relatives and friends may also have the opportunity of checking the names, they are to be published in several instalments in the Westmount Examiner. About 1800 names have been sent in so far. The first of such instalments appears below.

Anyone finding errors or wishing to add to this list will please send details to Reverend H. S. Laws, Secretary of the Westmount Municipal Association, Victoria Hall. The information desired is the name of the person on active service, regimental number if available, rank, present address and any additional information. The name and address of the person giving the information should also be given.

Gardens Damaged By Unruly Dogs

Numerous complaints have been received recently at the Police Department regarding residents' gardens and lawns being torn up and damaged by unruly dogs.

It is reported that dags running loose without a leash, or unaccompanied by owners, is against city regulations, and owners are subject to fines if this practice is allowed to continue.

Westmount "Y" Popular With Armed Forces

Since the beginning of the war, the Westmount Branch of the Y.M.C.A. has extended its facilities for swimming, gymnasium, dancing, suppers, etc., to 308,587 members and men in uniform, it was reported at the dinner and annual meeting held last Friday.

It was also reported that 595 members were on active service, of whom 44 have alrady given their lives, six members are missing or are prisoners of war and eight have returned from active service.

The meeting was attended by about 150 members and friends, and Miss Jean MacPherson, spoke on the Leave Clubs in Great Britain.

"A home away from home," is the way Miss MacPherson described the hostess houses which provide room and board for boys in the service. Their popularity is evidenced by the fact that more than 35,000 men in uniform registered in the first year at one club.

Irving Tate paid tribute to the work of the women's war services committee and J. J. Atkinson reported for the nominating committee, of which he is chairman.

New Objective Now is Sought By Unit Heads

Success crowned the combined effort of the salesmen, organizers and staff of the Westmount Victory Loan, Unit 201, when they obtained their objective on Tuesday noon.

From the time that Robin Badgley, age 12, arrived early on the opening day to purchase the first bond, Westmount residents have heeded the appeal to support the loan to their utmost ability and took their place in the March to Victory.

The enthusiasm of the salesmen has been an outstanding feature of this campaign and their reports to headquarters have always reflected the very cordial reception shown to them by the citizens of Westmount; and it is to this co-operation of the citizens that the success of the Campaign should be attributed.

While elated over the fact that they have obtained the objective set, the organizers point out that the objective is the minimum requirement, a substantial oversubscription would demonstrate beyond a doubt Westmount's determination to "Put Victory First."

The Campaign will not close until Saturday and the Unit Office will remain open until the latter part of next week.

To those citizens who have delayed purchasing their bonds a call to Fitzroy 2471 will insure a salesman calling for any new or additional subscriptions.

If We Fail

And if our lines should form, then break
Because of things you failed to make;
The extra gun or ship or plane
For which we waited—all in vain,
Will you then come and take the blame
For those supplies that never came?
For we, not you, will pay the cost
Of battles you, not we, have lost.

These lines of poetry were found on the body of a Marine, somewhere in the Far East.

Westmount Woman Has Purse Stolen

It is reported that on Sunday at 9.40 p.m., Mrs. M. Rowan, of 4217 Western Avenue, claims that she was stopped by two men who snatched her black leather handbag containing $3.30 and personal papers.

Mrs. Rowan said both men were hatless and wore no coats, and she noticed that one had a dark sweater and white shirt.

T. C. Lewis Commands Hussar Regiment

Lieut.-Col. T. C. Lewis, formerly of the R.M.R., has been named officer commanding 17th Duke of York Royal Canadian Hussars, 7th Reconnaissance Regiment, overseas.

Early Morning Fire Damages Home On Sherbrooke St.

Fire broke out at the home of Dimitri Andreef, 4493 Sherbrooke Street, on Saturday morning about 3 a.m.

It is reported that the family of Mr. Andreef had retired as usual Friday night around 12 o'clock, and the son of the house was awakened in the early hours of the morning with the smell of smoke. On rushing out of his room he was confronted with fire and smoke pouring up the stairway cutting off the escape of the family already wakened, who were forced in their night attire out on a second floor verandah. A member of the Westmount Police Department, patrolling on Sherbrooke Street at the time, quickly turned in the alarm to the Westmount Fire Department, which arrived in a couple of minutes on the scene and rescued the occupants safely from the burning house.

The Andreef family are loud in their praise and grateful for the efficient work of the Westmount firemen who arrived on the scene so quickly and had the fire under control, and also saved their lives from the burning building.

Licenses Due May 1st

It is reported that dog licenses and bicycle licenses which are due on May 1st, should be applied for immediately at the City Hall.

Owners of dogs with their 1944 licenses on when lost, will be assured of having them returned but if they have not got their proper license, they are apt to be picked up and taken to the S.P.C.A.

Dr. W. H. Watson Gets Appointment In Saskatchewan

It was announced that Dr. W. H. Watson, Victoria Avenue, who has been on the staff of the Departent of Physics at McGill University for the past 13 years and who is now engaged in war research work, has been named head of the department of mathematics at the University of Saskatchewan. He has not yet sent in his resignation at McGill.

Dr. Watson, who was a medallist in applied mathematics at the University of Edinburgh and is chariman of a special committee on applied mathematics of the National Research Council of Canada, holds several degrees.

He graduated with honors at the University of Edinburgh, receiving an M.A. degree. He joined the staff there, where he was a lecturer between 1921 and 1928. He was then named Carnegie Research Fellow at Cambridge where he worked under Sir Ernest Rutherford in the Cavendish Laboratories.

While at Cambridge he also held for a time the Clerk Maxwell studentship. He received Ph.D. degrees from both Edinburgh and Cambridge.

In 1927 he was appointed assistant professor of physics at McGill and in 1939 was made associate professor. Since the outbreak of the war, he has been engaged in war research. His new appointment will be for the start of the next session.

Local Boy Wins L.C.C. Scholarship

Winners of annual scholarships to Lower Canada College were announced last night as follows:

Donald Kearns, 4534 Hingston Ave., a student at Willingdon School; John B. Stirling, 96, 34th Ave., Lachine, of Lachine High School and Donald Stephen, 655 Victoria Avenue, Westmount, of Roslyn Avenue School.

Sixty-two boys enrolled for the scholarship examinations, which were held at the Lower Canada College early in April. The ten best candidates were interviewed last week by the principal and members of the Board of Governors, who announced their decisions last night. There was no award of scholarship "A" for entry into Form 5B.

Donald Stephen, who won scholarship "C" is the son of G. R. Stephen, 653 Victoria Avenue, and grandson of George Stephen superintendent of the N.D.G. Community Hall, and is the third member of his family to win a scholarship to the School where both the older brothers are at the top of their classes.

John Stirling, winner with Donald Kearns, of scholarship "B" is the son of J. Stirling, 96, 34th Avenue, Lachine. Donald Kearns is the son of Wm. R. Kearns.

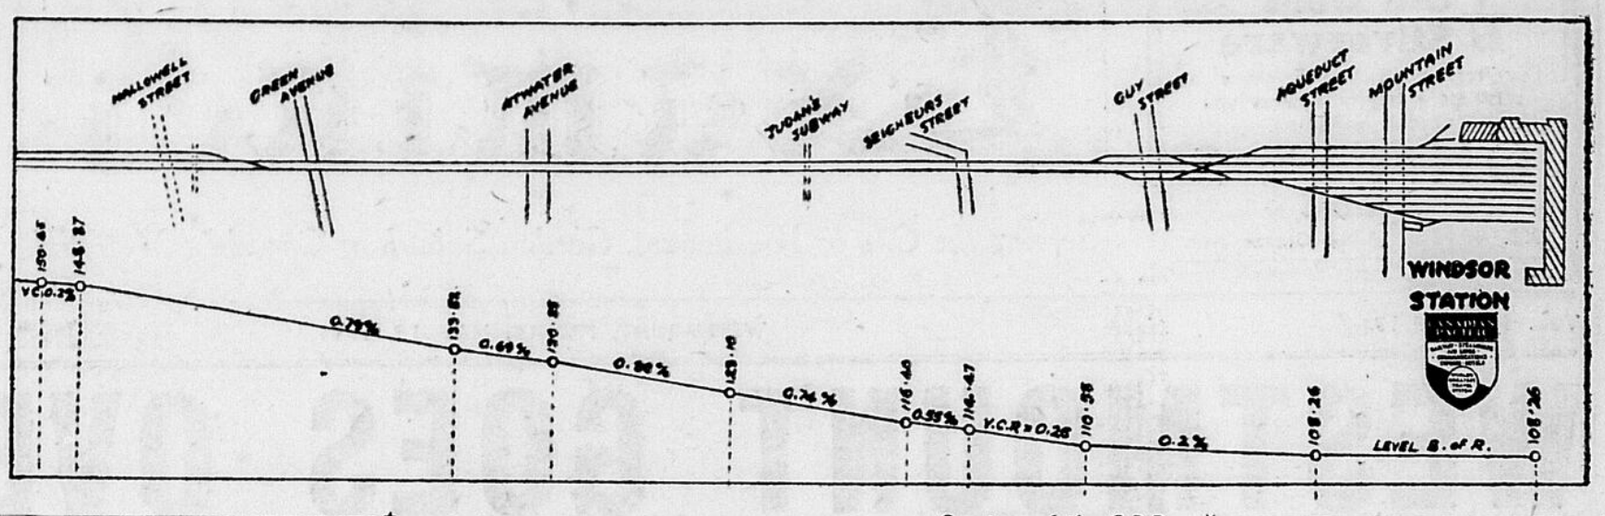

Re-Make Tip

Have you an old beach robe, too worn to serve its original purpose? There are several possibilities in these capacious garments. If it is of terry cloth, no matter how small a part is salvageable, it can be made into wash cloths; if larger pieces can be cut, they will make good hand towels. Perhaps your beach robe was a gay print. In this case it might make over into cushion covers for the sunroom couch or you might get a colourful breakfast cloth or place mats out of it.

Map Illustrates C.P.R. Grading

A controversy of minor proportions stirred up recently with the publication of figures pertaining to gradients on the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's right-of-way between Windsor Station and Westmount is settled here with the reproduction of a scant profile map provided by the Canadian Pacific Railway engineering department staff. The map illustrates individual grades throughout the section of right-of-way in question together with the overall rise in elevation between Windsor Station and Westmount. This top portion of the map illustrates the C.P.R. main line out of Windsor Station, as though seen from above, while the lower portion illustrates in profile the gradient from Windsor Station level to a point just east of Westmount Station. Track then continues level to a point beyond Westmount Station.

As seen from the map above elevation of track at Windsor Station is 108.26 feet while the elevation at Westmount is designated 150.45 feet. Difference between the two figures, 42.92 feet, is, therefore, the overall increase in elevation betwene the two stations.

Flt.-Lt. J. K. Bell Is Awarded D.F.C.

It was announced recently that Flight-Lieut. J. K. Bell, of Westmount, is the winner of the Distinguished Flying Cross, and received his award recently at Buckingham Palace.

Flight-Lieut. Bell was married in 1941 to Miss Jean Logan of Pictou, N.S., who now resides at 218 Redfern Avenue.

Flight-Lieut. Bell is the son of Mrs. John Bell, New Glasgow, N.S., and the late Dr. Bell. Born in New Glasgow, and educated there and at Mount Allison University, Sackville, N.B., and Dalhousie University, Halifax, where he received his M.Sc. in 1940, he worked with a Montreal chemical firm prior to enlisting in September, 1940. He went overseas in September, 1941, and has since been doing operational tours over Europe. He won the D.F.C. following his return from a flight over Germany when his gunner was seriously wounded, his pilot worn out to the point of being unable to operate the plane any longer which compelled him both to chart his own course and fly the damaged plane back to England.

The Magic Carpet

BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

ARGH, The Tale of a Tiger, by Buckingham. — This is a story of the jungle—a jungle ruled by tooth and claw and stern economic laws. It is the life story of a pair of tigers and of their cub Argh who was rescued from a jungle fire and became the pet of a Forestry officer.

JAMBA, The Elephant, by Waldeck. — Of all the elephants taken in the drive directed by Isanga, Jamba was the best, or so thought young Bomi. But Jamba was difficult to train and it was only the devotion of Bomi that caused Jamba to become tamed. It is the story of Jamba from the jungle-quiet herd of wild elephants through captivity and training, to freedom again, and the final struggle of allegiance between man and the jungle.

DIRK'S DOG, BELLO, by Meindert De Jong. — The stormy day an English ship broke up in the terrible waters outside the harbour, Dirk rescued the Great Dane, Bello. After that, by the law of the sea, Bello belonged to him. Wildly happy at first, the boy was suddenly faced with the enormous problem of how to feed Bello — for Dirk's mother was unable to do more than provide for her little family.

However, this isn't merely the story of Dirk and Bello, but of a little village in Holland—the sky, the sea, the dikes, the people.

CHILDREN OF THE SEA, by Wilfred Bronson. — This is the tale of a dolphin and his friendship with a boy who lived on the island of Nassau. The dolphin was born in the backwater of the Florida Everglades and the first part of the book describes with excitement and charm his life among the sea creatures of both southern and northern waters. Then comes the story of Smudgy, the boy of Nassau, and finally the enchanting account of the friendship between boy and dolphin.

These books may be obtained at the Westmount Library.

LIEUT. CHARLES THRELFALL

Lieut. Charles M. S. Threlfall went overseas in 1940 as a Bombaridier in the 5th Light Anti-Aircraft Battery from Montreal, served as a sergeant and recently graduated through the Officers' Training College of the British Army. He was educated at St. Lambert High School, Dr. Powers School and Wyckham House, and he was attached to the Public Relations Department of the Montreal Stock Exchange at the time of his enlistment. His parents, Captain and Mrs. M. S. Threlfall, reside at Longueuil.

Grass Fires Menace Birds

Grass fires have recently destroyed a number of pheasant nests containing an average of ten eggs each, on the grassy slopes of Mount Royal, according to survey made by a member of the District Sportsmen's Association.

In commenting upon the discovery, it was remarked that it was hard enough for the pheasants, which were brought into the district by the Association, to hold their own against the elements, dogs, cats and even poachers, without seeing their nests destroyed before the pheasant chicks had a chance to hatch.

An appeal to boys who are the usual setters of grass fires, to remember the harm they can do to these birds, and the general public are asked to co-operate by educating the children and by extinguishing grass fires when they discover them.

Buenos Aires, gay capital of the Argentine, is one city that has actually done something constructive about automobile parking—a headache in any city. A parking space sixteen square blocks in area has been built under one of the city's spacious plazas. It accommodates a thousand cars, greatly relieving street parking.

Workers' Morale Topic of Address To Rotary Club

Relationships between employer and workers was the subject of an interesting address on Wednesday by E. G. Hildebrand, assistant-vice-president of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, to the Westmount Rotary Club in the Oak Room of Victoria Hall.

Mr. Hildebrand touched on 14 aspects of the problem as affecting the attitude of the employer to his help and vice versa.

Many of the things that had a bearing on this attitude appeared of a minor nature, he said. They might be nothing more serious than a worker feeling that his abilities were under-estimated or directed into the wrong channel, but this feeling was at least potentially dangerous to the general morale and was a matter for the personnel manager to iron out.

Mr. Hildebrand was introduced in a characteristic speech by F. C. Whitaker, immediate past president of Westward Rotary and a fellow member of the Bell Company staff. He was thanked by E. A. Harrison.

Chester W. McBride, president of Westmount Rotary occupied the chair and conducted the meeting.

1st Company Boys' Brigade Wins Trophy For Sqad Drill

There was great rejoicing last Friday evening in the 1st Westmount Company when they learned that their squad had come out victorious in the Battalion Drill Competition, held at St. Alban's Church hall. For a number of years they have entered into this competition, each time hoping to be victorious, but somehow missing it by a very slim margin. However, there was a great thrill experienced when the judge, Lt.-Col. Elmslie announced that the 1st Company were victorious. The squad, composed of the following: Col. Sgt. Edwin Goring (in charge), Corp. Bob Eastwood, Corp. Alan Keith, L/Cpls. Ian Campbell, James Dugan and Ptes. Alister Riddell, Ron Thurston, Tom Haywhurst, Lawrie Martin, Pte. Bailey, Alan Robinson, Geo Smith and Jorden Durocher. The steady coaching given the boys by Lieut. Alex. G. Anderson meant much toward enabling them to carry out anything that might be required of them. The Judge commended them very highly on their steadiness on parade, perfectness in uniform and appearance and accuracy in which their movements were carried out.

The company is entering two teams in the Battalion swimming competition to take place on Monday evening and is again hopeful of bringing home a share of the awards. The teams have been well trained for the occasion and shall put up a good performance. This is to take place in the M.A.A.A. Captain J. H. Richardson will be in charge. Much of the time these Friday nights is being spent in preparing for the busy weeks which lie ahead. On the 20th instant, the Montreal Battalion Review will take place in the Black Watch armoury and the 1st Company wil have an important role to play. On the 26th, there will be a display of boys' work by the Presbyterian Sunday School Association in which the 1st Company is playing a leading part and then on the first or second Friday of June, the activities will terminate when the annual Inspection and Display takes place. These will be important days for the boys and occasions which they always enjoy to the fullest.

Recruits have been steadily flowing into the Company and it is hoped that this month shall see this new squad reach the 20 mark, thus avoiding a large campaign in the Fall. The brass band is progressing steadily and has still a few openings for players.

Many Local Boys Among Graduates

Recent pilot, navigator, air bomber and wireless air gunner graduates in Nos. 1, 2 and 3 Training Commands, R.C.A.F., included a large number of airmen whose homes are in No. 3 Training Command. The list released at No. 3 Training Command Headquarters, is as follows:

Safe Wheeling Is Requested On City Streets

Cyclists should remember that they are subject to the traffic rules and regulations of the Province of Quebec, as well as those of the municipality where they reside, and that such by-laws have been enacted for their own safety and protection and that they must therefore abide strictly by all said rules and regulations.

To be within the law the following regulations will act as a guide to all bicycle riders to drive wisely and carefully:

No bike rider is alowed to travel two, three, four, five and even six abreast on a public road. Rather, you must travel in a single file at the extreme right of the road.

That is what By-Law No. 36, paragraph 1c. of the Motor Vehicles Act says:

"On any public highway which does not include a roadway specially set aside for slow traffic, persons riding bicycles must travel in single file on a strip four feet wide at the extreme right of the pavement."

In making this appeal, the Province of Quebec Safety League add ince of Quebec Safety League adds: "It is a sound and wise law, enacted for your protection against heavier vehicles following you or coming in the opposite direction."

Hilda Galt Dance Revue To Aid Minesweeper Fund

Everything is in readiness for the 8th Annual Revue "One Night of Rhythm" by the Hilda Galt School of Dancing, which takes place in Thursday, of next week at 8 p.m. at Victoria Hall.

From the colorful opening featuring the younger children of the school, the show will proceed with a series of production numbers dominating the programme. "Kiddies on Parade", "The Gay Rancheros", "Hawaiian Paradise", the beautiful "Moonlight Ballet", "Night Life", the "Chinese Beauties" and a most stirring Military Finale.

Beautiful costumes and special lighting effects and scenery have been procured to make this edition of "One Night of Rhythm" the most spectacular Dance Revue presented. Variety will be the keynote of the production, Tap, Ballet, Toe, Musical Comedy Song and Dance Routines, spectacular acrobatic numbers and Tap on Toe specialties will round out a very well balanced programme.

Jane Lee, celebrated singing star of stage and screen, whose voice has been acclaimed in all the major cities of the Empire, will be featured in the Finale.

Soloists who will appear on the programme include; Terry Goodwin, Dorothy Reed, Bernice Brown, Shirley Elkin, Geraldine Reinblatt, Marilyn Cumming, Edna Mae Bannerman, Jackeline Adams, Teddy Traynor, Ann Gregory, Eunice and Shirley Porteous, Barbara Davidson, Constance Baker, Barbara Millar, Betty Hendry, Ann Elizabeth Woodcock, Lorna Bulford, Carol Burling, Maureen O'Reilly, Heather McIntosh, Mary Wildig, Sally Brayley, Ruth Lowie, Lillian Thompson, Edith Wong, Elsa Pesner, Elissa Richstone, and Sheila Seigler.

Marion Vaillencourt, Tilley and Harold Morris at the twin pianos will accompany the Show.

As is her custom Hilda Galt donates the entire proceeds of her Revue to some worthy cause. This year it is the British Minesweepers Fund, an organization whose work needs no explanation.

"One Night of Rhythm" is rich in material and excellent in presentation. It cannot fail to please the audience and their pleasure should bring aid to the splendid cause of the British Minesweepers Fund.

Wire Appeals To R.R. Employees

C.N.R. President Sends Telegrams to 94,000 Individuals

A telegram to 94,000 individuals was sent over the wires of the Canadian National Telegraphs to inaugurate the Sixth Victory Loan Campaign throughout the Canadian National Railways in Canada. It was signed by R. C. Vaughan, Chairman and President of the National System, and read:

"In the last Victory Loan Campaign the employees of the Canadian National System subscribed a larger amount of money than the employees of any other company in the country and we broke all our own previous records for bond purchases. This time we must do even better. The last great battle of the European war is about to begin. We must get into it with all our determination and all our resources; we must back our fighting men with everything we have. I ask all members of the Canadian National family to put Victory above all other considerations and to support the new loan to the absolute limit of their financial ability."

The Province Takes Back Its Natural Resources

(Contributed)

The recent legislation passed by the two chambers of the Legislature and ratified by the Lieutenant Governor of the Province, Sir Eugene Fiset, has given Quebec its own Hydro. This master-piece of legislation, stemming from our Premier and his colleagues has made a dream of long standing become a reality.

The Commissioners of the new Hydro are now settling to their tasks. Men of sound experience all, their names are well-known: Senator T. D. Bouchard, President; J. Raymond Latreille and J. W. McCammon, civil engineers; G. C. McDonald and L. Eugene Potvin, chartered accountants.

The choice of the commissioners clearly indicates that the new Hydro will be operated according to the finest and most efficient business principles. For more than forty years, our new Hydro chief has bent all his energies towards efficient administration, both in parliamentary circles and in his own St. Hyacinthe. He is a competent authority on all types of provincial and municipal problems, and more particularly, has devoted a great deal of time to the study of government-administrated electricity.

The production and distribution of gas and electricity through the province is a job that can only be done properly by the use of specialists — men who know their work in the handling of engineering and business problems. Quebec's Hydro can claim that it is well represented in each of these fields, thanks to the happy choice of the balance of the commissioners. These are men who are bound to succeed in this giant undertaking, and the public will salute their choice knowing that the business has gone into good hands.

One can remember, now that it is over, the furious shouts of "Theft!" which stemmed from some quarters. The accusation has remained without proof, and needs no further examination. The citizens of the province now realize that the Province, through its elected representatives, has simply taken back its own rights which were never originally granted for the abuse to which they have been put. It was a step which could not have been delayed much longer. It will become more and more apparent, too, that this necessary legislation has been designed to work in the interest of every citizen.

Mr. Godbout, and the far-sighted men around him, as well as the commissioners themselves are to be congratulated upon the great work they are undertaking for this Province . . . a work which has been begun under the finest possible conditions and which is worthy of the highest hopes of all our citizens.

Sodality Day Set For Sunday

On Sunday the various Sodality groups of the Island of Montreal will observe the fifth wartime world-wide Sodality Day.

This year's celebration will take the form of an outdoor Holy Hour to be held at Loyola Campus.

The service will begin at three o'clock.

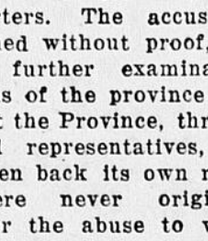

Presiding over the colorful but solemn ceremony will be His Excellency Bishop Lawrence Whelan, Auxiliary Bishop of Montreal.

The groups participating will be the Union of Parish Sodalities of the Archdiocese of Montreal; the Catholic Action Students, who represent the college Sodalities; the Girls' Section of Missa (Montreal Inter-Student Sodality Association); and the Boys' Section of Missa, the latter two groups representing the Catholic High Schools of the city. The theme of the afternoon's worship will be swift victory, and a true and lasting peace.

Maybe King Cole was a merry old soul because he didn't have to worry about the coal situation.

MRS. HENRY L. CROSTHWAIT

Friends and relatives attended the funeral service of Mrs. Ellen Leyland Johnston, wife of the late Henry Leyland Crosthwait, at the Chapel of Jos. C. Wray & Bro., Mountain Street, on Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Crosthwait, who passed away at her residence, 331 Clarke avenue, on Friday last, is survived by her two sons, Major T. G. L. Crosthwait of the Canadian Grenadier Guards, recently returned home from overseas, and Irwin L. Crosthwait.

Rev. H. Campbell, of Emmanuel United Church, conducted the service, and interment took place in Mount Royal Cemetery.

MRS. JAMES BELL

Friends and relatives attended the funeral service of Mrs. Mary Sommerton Bell, 90, wife of the late James Bell, on Tuesday afternoon, at the Chapel of Jos. C. Wray & Bro., Mountain Street.

Mrs. Bell, who passed away at her residence, 148 Abbott avenue, on Sunday, was born in St. John's, Nfld., and had lived here for 55 years.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. H. C. Shaw, and three sons, George, of London, Ont., and William and Victor, of Montreal, and 10 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Three of the grandchildren are overseas on active service. They are Capt. J. W. Shaw, R.C.O.C., who is stationed in Italy; Sqdn.-Ldr. Jim Bell, now serving in South Africa, and Cpl. Jack Bell, who is with the R.C.O.C. in England.

Rev. A. T. Love, of St. Stephen's Church, conducted the service, and interment took place in Mount Royal Cemetery.

St. Luke's United

The Sunday School will unite with the church at the morning service next Sunday to observe a "Family Day" at church. The minister's themes for the day will be dealing with the family in relation to the church and the community. The topics are "The Church In The Home" and "The Home In The World." There will be references to Mother's Day and special flowers to honour the mothers present as well those who have passed on to their heavenly reward. A service of baptism will be performed in connection with the morning service.

The regular meeting of the Half-Way Club will be held in the Ladies' Parlor, on Saturday, May 13th, at 8.15 p.m. Mr. Rivard, of the Montreal High School, will speak on "The R.C.A.F. and Current Types of Planes." Several musical numbers will be presented by members of the club. During the business meeting the constitution, as outlined, will be discussed. Be prepared to offer criticism, preferrably constructive.

The Women's Association are holding another rummage sale on May 3rd. Any articles of clothing or furnishings will be gratefully received and may be left at the church at any time previous to the sale.

The Session will meet on Wednesday, May 17th, at 8 p.m.

Messrs. Arthur and Norman Watson, members of our church, are leaving this week for the summer mission fields to which they have been appointed. Arthur will be at Monarch, Sask., and Norman at Thurso, P.Q. We wish them a happy summer and godspeed in their new work.

The monthly meeting of the Jean Graham Auxiliary will take place at St. Columba House, Grand Trunk Street, near the corner of Ropery St., in Pt. St. Charles, on Tuesday evening, May 16th. The Rev. J. K. Brown will address the members at that time.

Calvary Church

The services in Calvary United Church on Sunday next will be in keeping with the most commendable custom of setting apart a Sunday in May as "Mother's Day."

The Church School will meet as usual at 10 a.m. in all departments from beginners to seniors.

The Minister of Calvary, Capt. the Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D., will conduct the services of worship and preach the sermons both morning and evening. At 11 o'clock a special order for the service of worship as supplied by the Religious Education Council of Quebec will be used. Assisting in the service will be the Misses Gwyn Williams, Gwen Edwards, Harriett Albers and Averil Keiller to represent Indian, Pioneer, New Canadian and Modern Motherhood, wearing costumes to illustrate these various aspects of the theme. A story of the great Christian lady of China, Madame Chiang-Kai-Shek will be told by Mrs. S. C. Dobson, while the theme of the sermon to be delivered by Dr. Jones will be "Flowers for Mother's Day."

The evening service at 7.30 p.m. will continue the thought of Motherhood in the Christian home and family circle by emphasizing the place and part that the singing of hymns has had in the enrichment of life. Favourite hymns, illustrated with coloured slides will be shown on the screen and sung by the congregation. Dr. Jones will conduct the service and tell stories of the hymns and the writers of these old favourites and how God has used these messages of sacred song in blessing to men and women.

The Young People's Union will meet on Monday, at 8.15 p.m., in the Macaulay Hall, for a quiz programme — True or False — on current events of historical and geographical interest. Sam Russell, the convener, will be Master of Ceremonies.

The Red Cross Group will meet on Tuesday in the church parlours from 10.30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

On Wednesday, May 17th, at 6.30 p.m., the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held in the Church Hall. This event, which has always been one of the outstanding festivals of the year in the work of Calvary Church and its School, will be held under the auspices of the Arrow Club. In addition to the usual toasts, music, etc., the group will welcome a guest speaker, Mrs. George Agar, B.A., Liverpool, who will give an address on "Great Days." Mrs. Agar was for a time Tutor in St. Mary's College, Bangor, North Wales, and is well known as one of the outstanding lady speakers in the Montreal area.

The congregation is sharing most enthusiastically in a 30-year Thanksgiving Campaign to raise a special fund of $25,000 in grateful acknowledgment of God's goodness to the congregation throughout the 30 years that the present church has been open for services and ministry. Urgent major repairs, some requiring immediate attention, include a new roof, a new floor and liquidation of existing mortgages are among the challenging objectives for which the campaign has been undertaken at the present time. It has also been unanimously and heartily agreed that 10% of all monies raised shall be sent to help rebuild the bombed churches of Great Britain. Friends of this church and its work are earnestly and cordially invited to share in this worthy enterprise by their prayers and contributions in order that through this campaign the Church may be the better equipped for richer and more effective service.

THANK YOU CANADA
...but there's still a WAR JOB to do!

OFFICE OF THE MINISTER
CANADA
DEPARTMENT OF NATIONAL WAR SERVICES

To my fellow Canadians:-

You the citizens of Canada and members of the Voluntary Salvage Committees and many other Voluntary War Workers have done an excellent war job.

Canada, in doing her part to help win the war, has been greatly assisted by your voluntary and unselfish devotion to the important duty of saving and turning in the essential war materials. You have backed up the boys overseas and your activities have been a material factor in turning the tide of battle against the enemy. When Canada's stock piles have been dangerously low, you have discovered, saved, and salvaged waste material which has been turned into weapons, ammunition, explosives and containers. Your Salvage Campaigns have been Nation-Wide and of National importance. Your job has been a big one which you have nobly performed.

When at war the past is the past and we must look to the future. Again I appeal to you!

There is another National war emergency which must be met and overcome. Experts on the matter have assured me that there is a critical shortage of Waste Paper and that the situation is desperate. War supplies must reach our Fighting Forces who will use them against the enemy. War supplies must be safely packed. As we march on nearer to the enemy more supplies are required by our Fighting Men. More - much more Waste Paper is wanted now.

Paperboard mills are working on a day-to-day basis and some are facing shut-downs because reserve stock supplies of Waste Paper are critically low. From now on every scrap of waste paper is to be saved and turned in to the Nation through regular Waste Paper channels.

Fellow Canadians please help!

Yours sincerely,

L. M. Lafleche

L. R. LaFlèche,
Minister, National War Services.

CANADA NEEDS 20,000 TONS OF WASTE PAPER EVERY MONTH

WHAT IS WANTED: You can remedy this critical paper shortage by saving every scrap of Waste Paper, namely: wrapping paper—store bags—cardboard—cartons—corrugated board—old magazines and books—envelopes and letters—newspapers. These represent the raw material for making vitally needed Paper containers.

HOW TO DO IT: Tie securely in separate bundles. (The little time you take will save thousands of man hours.) Then dispose of it through your local voluntary Salvage Committee or other War Voluntary Organization, or sell it through any known trade channels, your pedlar or others. The important thing is to get your Waste Paper moving to the mills.

WESTMOUNT, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1944

USEFUL PUBLICATION

THE BRITISH and Canadian branches of the Empire Parliamentary Association have embarked upon an interesting venture in their joint sponsorship of a new quarterly publication called "Summary of Congressional Proceedings, U.S.A." It is modelled upon the "Journal of the Parliaments of the Empire," which the association has been publishing for some years past, and it seeks to give a summarized account of proceedings on the Congress of the United States which are of general interest to the British Commonwealth. It therefore omits discussions concerned purely with domestic issues in the United States, but supplies lucid and concise accounts of debates dealing with international problems, or relations with the British Commonwealth.

The design of the new journal is to promote in the countries of the British Commonwealth a fuller knowledge of and a better understanding of proceedings in the United States Congress, and, as the debates in both Houses at Washington not merely reflect the trends of American public opinion but also help to determine policies, it can serve a very useful purpose of political education in Britain.

If the present happy co-operation in war of the British Commonwealth and the United States is to be perpetuated, as it ought to be, into the era of peace, a mutual understanding and appreciation of each other's points of view and problems is essential. These have not yet reached the fullness which is desirable, to judge by the utterances of certain politicians on both sides of the Atlantic, and any agency which will promote them deserves encouragement. The journal, which is published by the Oxford University Press, is primarily intended for members of Parliament, but it should prove a mine of valuable information for a discerning public.—Globe and Mail, Toronto.

VICTORY BONDS AND THE POST-WAR

A SILLY and harmful suggestion heard too often these days is that when the war is over the Government of Canada may not be able to meet its obligations, with a consequent doubtful future for Victory Bonds. Finance Minister Ilsley, in a speech at Windsor this week, dealt with such talk, and it is to be hoped that his words are read widely. Said he:

"It will be of the greatest importance that we maintain, indeed assure, a ready and stable market for all these millions of bonds that we have sold. We have now the monetary and financial machinery and we have developed the methods for accomplishing this, and we will therefore be able to deal with any situation which may develop in a way which will keep faith with the millions of small investors who are supporting the savings program in this emergency."

The notion that this rich country is going to pass into poverty or chaos with the war's end, unable to meet its obligations, is a fantastic travesty of obvious fact. We have the resources, the people, the plant and machinery, the managerial and productive skills—why on earth should anybody imagine that we will be incapable of using them?—Ottawa Journal.

The honour of the task that is your care—
Defenders of a just cause, sent by fate
To Egypt and to Palestine to share
The work of guarding well the Eastern gate;
Must sometimes, in the still hours, make you pause
To think of One who, coming from on high,
Fought there the battle of a mighty cause
And died for it when He was young to die.

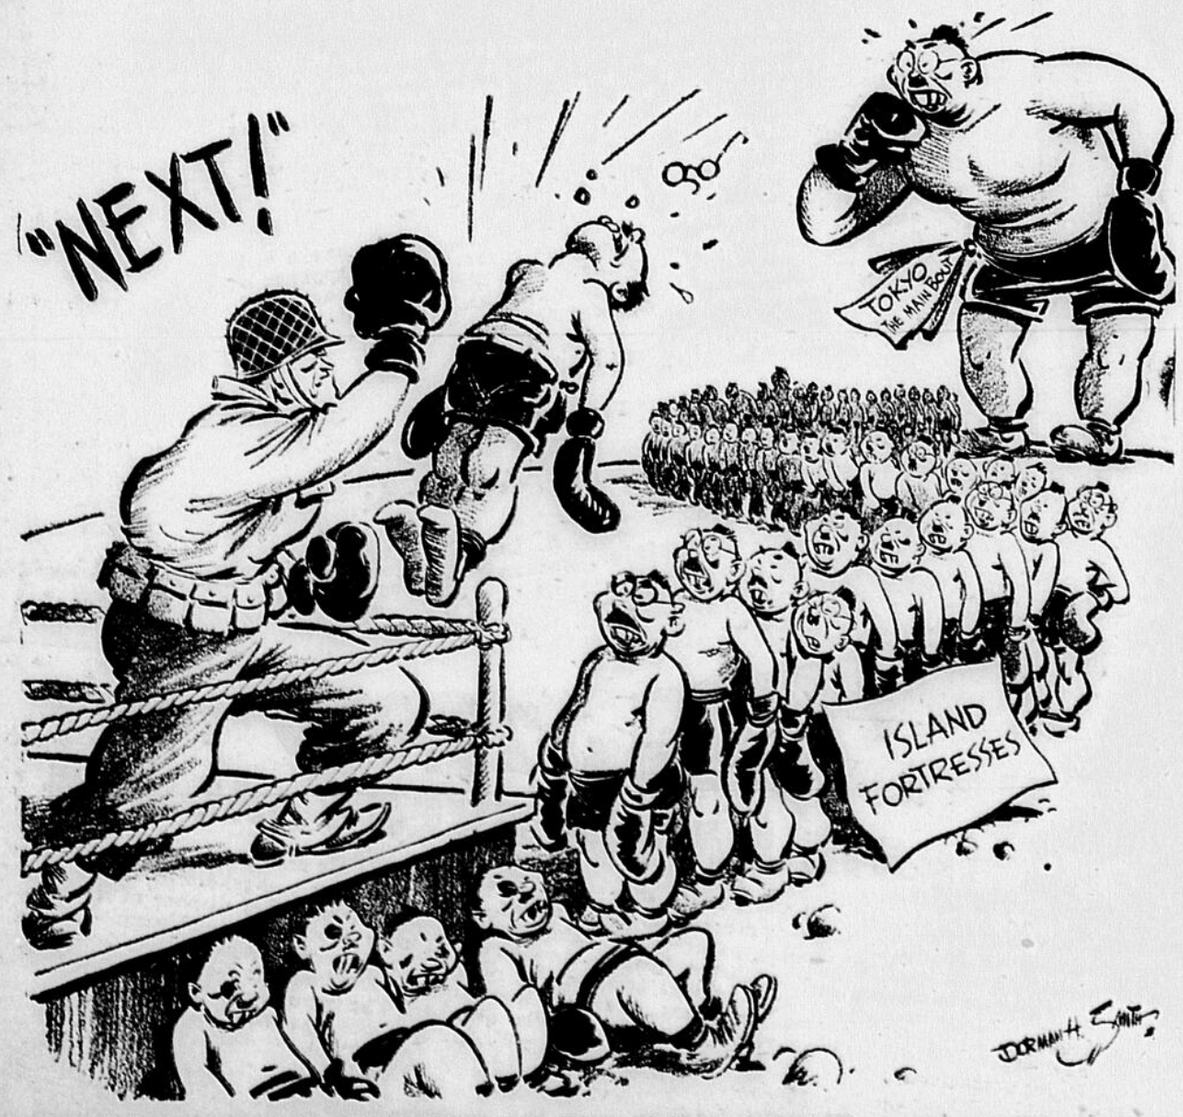

In Palestine where once His footsteps trod
Those self-same paths, the while His Spirit winged
A prayerful cry on to His Father, God,
Above the foes in hatred round Him ringed;
So, too, where He has trod, you walk the sands;
So, too, in very truth, you search the sky;
Must you not almost touch His guiding Hand,
Or feel His Spirit near you, passing by?

The housing problem brings out many suggestions of at least partial solution. For instance, a correspondent writes: "There are hundreds of neat service stations closed for the duration of the war. Could not these be rented to desirable tenants? They all have sanitary conveniences, running water, power, etc."

One day's news reports 126 Jap planes and 17 war vessels destroyed. How long can Nippon stand this kind of destruction? The Allies are prepared to keep it up.

Without any known recruiting or coercion, the "lost legion" appears to be proceeding from strength to strength.

SPEEDING UP THE PRELIMINARIES

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

Recently two British cabinet ministers spoke of "private enterprise" and "public ownership and control." Hon. Mr. Morrison, Home Secretary, thinks private enterprise has lost its moral basis which was a system of rewards and punishments. The conscience of mankind is turning against that system. If we set out to forbid combination and enforce competition we might find ourselves fighting against the tendency of our times. If we enforce supervision of business from outside, that might be either ineffective or a nuisance. There is, he said, only one other course: "Public control can be exercised by public corporations with a good deal of business freedom, but with sufficient measure of public responsibility and accountability to insure that they serve the public interest."

Hon. Oliver Lyttleton, Minister of Production, disagrees. He believes that both Liberalism and Labor are out of date and that it is in the power of the Conservatives to come to the rescue. He sees ways in which those who, like Mr. Morrison, are socialists and those who are firm believers in private enterprise may find common action possible. "One of the greatest objects of statesmanship in the economic field," he said, "is to get the exact balance between state and private enterprise. Neither is the correct or total solution of the problem, nor does the solution lie in any exact mean. It lies in allowing common services from which risk has been eliminated and which depend on statutory rights to be provided by the state, and on the other hand in allowing the whole field where risk has to be run to be left to private enterprise, having run the risk, to reap the profit."

Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin, moderator of the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., drawing conclusions from a recent visit to Scotland, pointed out some points of contrast between the Presbyterian Church there and in the U.S.A. 1) The Scottish church ministers to a great stratum of people, rich and poor, employer and employed, and lays stress solely on reverence. In the U.S.A., all churches tend toward geniality and reverence is a minor point. 2) The American Presbyterian asks, "What did I get out of the sermon?" The Scot feels, "This is the Sabbath and I must pay homage to God." 3) All churches in the U.S. emphasize spontaneity in prayer rather than content or form, with the result that there is little thought involved. 4) Heresy is creeping into the American church by way of the choir loft. The Scottish music stresses reverence and awe. 5) A great amount of sentimentality has crept into the American churches. Dr. Coffin summed up the situation by quoting the words of a Scottish visitor to the U.S.: "The preaching was tolerable, but the prayers were appalling!"

A memorandum was passed around a certain office and one young pedant scribbled a postscript drawing attention to the fact that a sentence ended with a preposition. This caused the original writer to circulate another memorandum and complained that the anonymous postscript was "offensive impertinence, up with which I will not put."

My friend Oswald Garrison Villard, the accomplished and veteran journalist, recently sent to Puerto Rico to make a study of conditions in that overpopulated island and on Rexford G. Tugwell, the Roosevelt appointed Governor, who is both the most popular and the most unpopular Governor of this island since American occupation. Mr. Villard in his article entitled "That Man Tugwell" in The Christian Century, states that the Governor is admired by the plain people who are convinced he is devoted to their advancement and that he is hated by the privileged who fear their property interests are jeopardized by the radical developments which aim to rectify the intolerable conditions in this American colony. Some 250,000 live in the vilest of slums and their children throng the milk stations (opened through the public spirit of Mrs. Tugwell) for what is often their only meal for the day. These are the 40,000 hungry ones who are added to this overpopulated island.

The Populares party which supports the Governor is led by Luis Munoz-Marin, the son of Luis Munoz-Rivera, Puerto Rico's national hero. Its slogan is: "Bread, Land and Liberty" — a wicked one at the expense of the rich, its enemies say. The leader declares he will not stop until every family has an income of $500 a year. "Here you have radicalism at its worst. When you think of American working-class families living riotously on a revenue as large as that—why, you hear the creak of the tumbrils and the crash of the guillotine."

Munoz-Marin was not able to prevent the lower House's passing a vote of censure upon the Governor which so pleased his enemies among the reactionaries in the U.S. Congress. A minimum Wage Board has helped to raise wages of sugar cane employes an annual wage of $105 ten years ago to $277 a year while the tobacco growers "have $181 a year on which to support their families and revel in San Juan nightclubs." 200,000 of the 2,000,000 resident here are employed by the sugar industry, which boasts that "there is not another acre of land in the world that is getting as much income from its sugar crop lands as Puerto Rico."

The trade cartel has bred hardly any thing in this (U.S.A.) country except slums at home and disasters abroad. It has become increasingly incapable of delivering the goods to the people. Only war, it seems, can any longer whip it to full production. The world of 1942 is its complete indictment. The cartel system hasn't worked. It not only hasn't worked, but it has tied the channels of trade into such constrictions that the end has been an explosion.—From "Fortune." $1.00 a copy. Business Man's Magazine.

The Church Calls to Worship

Air Commodore To Preach Here

The St. Andrew's congregation has been called to observe next Sunday as a Pre-Invasion Day of Prayer. For some time, Dr. Kerr has planned to dedicate some Sunday to the important matter of intercession. On previous occasions National Days of Prayer were held throughout the Commonwealth and were invariably followed by startling victories and heightened morale.

Air Commodore W. Ewart Cockram has been invited to conduct this service next Sunday morning. He is one of the most brilliant young men in the United Church Ministry. Called to succeed the Very Rev. Dr. Richard Roberts at Sherbourne St., Toronto, he relinquished this important church at the outbreak of war in order to devote himself to the welfare of the men of the air force. His promotion was rapid until he has now been appointed as Head of the Chaplaincy Service of the R.C.A.F., both in Canada and Overseas.

Of all days of National Prayer, none comes at such a deadly crisis as this one. Every member of the congregation is urged to dedicate this day as a day of prayer for the officers and men who will soon be called upon to carry out the greatest invasion of history. Air Commodore Cockram will also preach at the evening service.

Mr. Goth has received some thought provoking letters from enlisted men of the congregation in recent weeks. These have served to endue Mothers' Day in this fateful year of 1944 with a new significance. Our thoughts are with those "over there" as we think of the approach of "D Day" and what the outcome will mean. Mr. Goth will approach Mothers' Day from this angle in his sermon next Sunday morning, taking as his topic: "Mothers in the Conflict."

In the afternoon at 3 o'clock the Church School will mark Mothers' Day with a special service in the Church Auditorium. All parents and friends of the School are invited to attend.

At the evening service Mr. Goth will preach on the theme "Is There a Second Chance?" being a message for all who are in any way discouraged or defeated.

Dominion-Douglas

In Dominion-Douglas Church next Sunday morning the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed. Dr. Lloyd Smith will take as the pre-Communion theme, "The Sacrificial Feast."

Church School will meet in all departments at 3.00 p.m.

In the evening there will be observance of Mothers' Day and the minister will speak on "Behold Thy Mother." Holy Communion will be administered at the close of the service.

The Young People will hold their closing meeting.

On Monday, at 7.00 p.m., the Cubs will hold a Parents' Night meeting.

St. Matthew's Church

St. Matthew's Scouting groups have a busy week ahead of them this week. Tomorrow (Friday) evening, the Scouts and Cubs will hold a joint Parents' Night. Beginning at 7.15 in the Church Hall, the boys will present a varied programme illustrative of all their year's activities.

At the eleven o'clock service, on Sunday, the Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies will hold their annual Church Parade. A large attendance, not only of the boys and girls themselves, but of all their parents and friends is expected at this service, and those who are coming are warned to be there in plenty of time.

Something special in the monthly Communion Breakfasts of St. Matthew's Young People's Bible Class last Sunday was the invitation of the newly confirmed young people of the church. At the service there was an attendance of over a hundred, while sixty-two stayed afterwards for the breakfast. After the meal we listened to a much appreciated address from our Rector entitled "My Rule of Life". We hope that these young people will continue to come to the Corporate Communions on the first Sunday of the month.

Next Sunday evening, the Rev. Alan Greene of the Columbia Coast Mission will give an illustrated address at St. Matthew's at the evening service. There will be a short evensong followed by Mr. Greene's address. Mr. Greene has visited St. Matthew's on previous occasions and has always been heard with a great deal of interest. The service commences at 7.30. The address will take the place of a sermon.

The Junior Branch of the W.A. will hold its closing meeting next Wednesday afternoon at 4.00. The Juniors have been very busy preparing their program and hope to have a large attendance. All are invited.

Westmount Baptist

Dr. and Mrs. Ben Gullison will be the guests of Westmount Baptist Church over Mother's Day. These devoted and gifted missionaries are rendering outstanding service, and their addresses throughout the country are attracting large and vitally interested audiences.

The morning service will be addressed by Mrs. Evlyn Gullison. Her address will carry the title: "A Moving Story of Indian Mothers."

In the evening Dr. Ben Gullison, who is not only a skilful medical missionary, but an expert photographer, will present a fascinating series of coloured slides made from photographs taken by himself. The sheer artistry of these pictures adds greatly to the impressiveness of the message which accompanies them.

The Gullisons will also speak at the Fireside which follows the evening service.

On Sunday evening, May 21st, Westmount Baptist Choir, under the leadership of Hibbert Troop, will present its final recital for the season. A very fine programme is being rehearsed and it is expected that a large audience will hear this presentation.

On Wednesday, the congregation will hold a great pre-invasion prayer meeting. It is expected that all families in the congregation who have members in the various services will be present on this occasion. From then on, the church will be open daily for prayer so that passers-by may enter for a few minutes to wait upon God on behalf of husbands, sons, brothers and sweethearts in the army, navy and air force, as well as for victory for the cause of freedom.

The Red Cross Unit will continue to begin work at 10.00 a.m. or Wednesdays, and any woman who can come anytime in the morning or afternoon will be very welcome.

Social and Personal

Mrs. Alfred Powis has returned from Hamilton, Ont., where she was the guest of Mrs. Russell T. Kelley.

Mrs. John Rankin and daughter, Barbara, of Kensington avenue, left recently for Calgary to spend some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nixon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Gaherty and their family have moved from Elgin Terrace and have taken up their residence at 636 Sydenham avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Rene Moncel and their family have moved from Rosemount Acres, St. Bruno, and have taken up their residence at 482 Roslyn avenue.

Mrs. C. H. Dickins left at the beginning of the week for Victoria, B.C., where she is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. D. McKee for a month.

Mrs. John S. Galt, who has been the guest of her father, Mr. E. G. Howard, for some time, left on Monday to spend the summer at Chester, Nova Scotia.

The president and executive of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Homoeopathic Hospital of Montreal are holding a tea for the members after the closing meeting on Wednesday, at three o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Totten, of Pittsburgh, Pa., came to town for the wedding, yesterday, of their son, Lieut. (j.g.) Francis X. Totten, U.S.N.R., to Miss Lelia Timmins. The Misses Mary and Ann Wymard, also of Pittsburgh, were among others coming here for the wedding. All are guests at the Ritz-Carlton.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilder Penfield were among the special guests invited by the National Council for Canadian Soviet Friendship to meet the Most Rev. and Rt. Hon. Cyril Garbett, Archbishop of York and Primate of England, before his address on Canadian-Soviet Relations in the Sir Arthur Currie Memorial Gymnasium, on Monday evening.

Lieutenant and Mrs. H. L. Picard, whose marriage took place in Vancouver, on May 2, arrived in town on Monday. Lieutenant Picard left immediately for the east coast where he has been posted while Mrs. Picard is spending some time here the guest of her husband's mother, Mrs. R. F. L. Picard.

The Rev. C. Ritchie Bell, minister of MacVicar Memorial Church and Moderator of the Montreal Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church of Canada, will be the special speaker at the meeting of the Westmount Park Young People's Union next Tuesday evening, at 8.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hiscock announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorna, to Sub.-Lieut. Lorne Smiley, R.C.N.V.R., son of the late H. A. Smiley and of Mrs. N. Smiley.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Davidson announce the engagement of their daughter, Frances Alice, to Mr. Eric Tait, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Tait.

The marriage has been arranged to take place quietly on Saturday, June 3, at the home of the bride's parents.

APPROACHING MARRIAGES

Mr. J. Maurice Kannon, announces the approaching marriage of his sister, Dorothy Irene, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Michael Kannon, to Mr. George Frederick Brighten, elder son of the late F. J. Brighten and of Mrs. David Scales, which will take place quietly at the Church of St. Ignatius of Loyola on Saturday, May 20, at nine o'clock.

WEDDINGS

PICARD-FRY

The marriage of Margaret Virginia, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Fry, of Vancouver, to Lt. H. L. Picard, R.C.N.V.R., of Westmount, son of the late Robert Picard and of Mrs. Picard, took place Thursday evening, May 4, in Shaughnessy Heights United Church, Vancouver, the Rev. G. Duncan Wilkie officiating.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a gown of brocaded ivory satin having a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Her veil of tulle illusion was caught by gardenias and she carried a bouquet of lilies, roses and lily of the valley.

Miss Blanche Fry, as maid of honor for her sister, and Miss Evelyn Carter, as bridesmaid, were gowned alike in frocks of chiffon over taffeta, and they wore flower hats in blending tones with matching veils, and carried bouquets of pink roses and blue iris. Miss Fry's frock was in a cyclamon shade and Miss Carter was in periwinkle blue.

Lt. Ross Hind, R.C.N.V.R., acted as best man for Lt. Picard and the ushers were Lt. Grant Hooper, R.C.N.V.R., Lt. Bruno Verbeck, R.C.N.V.R., Mr. Howard Fry and Mr. Robert Efford.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Later, Lt. and Mrs. Picard left for Banff, en route to Westmount, to visit the groom's parents.

CHRISTENINGS

The christening of the infant daughter of Maj and Mrs. R. S. White took place last Friday afternoon in the Church of the Ascension of our Lord.

The baby was given the names of Patricia Ann, and the godparents were Capt. W. K. White, The Black Watch (R.H.R.) of Canada and Mrs. White.

Following the ceremony Maj. and Mrs. White entertained for the members of the immediate families.

RECENT WEDDING

Mr. Eric Ellis Bonham and his bride, the former Miss Mavis Elizabeth Paton, photographed as they were leaving Dominion-Douglas Church, Westmount, following their recent wedding. Mrs. Bonham is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Paton. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roy Bonham, of Toronto.

Short Little Coat Is This Season's Hot Number

The darling of this season, the necessary accent in this season's wardrobe, is the short wool coat in some startling shade. People like them, find them endlessly useful. Shocking or "hot" pink, lime, purple, and saffron melon have a way with them, suggesting the peppery moods of Mexico and South America. Practically every collection shows these short wool coats with their own variations as to cut and length—boxy or full-backed. In making their selection, keep in mind the color of your basic suit, for part of this coat's purpose is to background your suit pleasantly.

WOMEN'S CHARTER DRAFTED IN AUSTRALIA

A Government endowment of 30s. (about $6) a week for wives, equal pay for women and abolition of restrictions against their working on night shifts were among the recommendations to come out of a four-day conference of Australian women held in Sydney, Australia, recently.

With delegates present from all of the states, representing 77 women's organizations, including 14 trade unions, the conference sought to establish a "Women's Charter" which will insure for them improved status and equality of citizenship in the postwar world.

Importance of the economic independence of wives was recognized in a resolution calling for the Government to pay them a "personal endowment of a minimum of 30s. weekly." This is in addition to the child endowment of 5s. a week already payable to the mother for each child after her first-born.

Basis of Resolve

The resolution was taken on the basis that "dependent economic status denies liberty, opportunity, and justice to the homemaker," while "economic independence strengthens character."

One delegate declared, "A person without money has few rights, and it is not fair that any human should depend on another for essential food and clothing. Today 16-year-old daughters who work have more independence than their mothers at home. Under the present system, a wife's only chance of having money for her sole use — providing she has not a private income—is for her to prove her marriage unsatisfactory and get a special maintenance allowance by order of court. Economic independence is an essential move toward real equality for married women."

Stressing the justice of equal pay for the sexes, the women protested the restrictions against women working on night shifts. The conference turned aside the explanation of a male representative of the Textile Workers Union that the men wished to spare women the hardship of night hours. In reply, a woman delegate declared, "It is only when you get up into the better-paid jobs that the latent chivalry in men comes out and they protest that women are not strong enough for night work. Poorly paid charwomen work right through the night, but I have never heard any man protesting or offering to do their job."

Status in Services

The conference condemned the fact that women in the military services receive about one third less pay than the men, and declared women in the auxiliary services must be granted the same status, pay, and benefits as men holding equal rank.

The assertion that Australia has only enough kindergartens for 10,000 out of 450,000 children from two to six years of age prompted expression of the postwar aim of the establishment of a child center within every half mile, a primary school every two miles, and a center of technical and higher education in every area.

It was proposed, also, "that a national children's bureau should be established within the Department of Postwar Reconstruction or the Health Department to collect and classify information regarding the welfare of children of all ages from birth to maturity. On the information thus obtained, the Commonwealth Government should formulate a national program for promotion of the welfare of children."

Dorothy Gish, currently appearing in Paramount's "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," made her acting debut at the age of four as Little Willie in "East Lynne."

Mother's Day Celebrated Long Ago In 14th Century

Mother's Day appears to have been an old, old custom and not something originating in the 20th century. It went under the name of Mothering Day and came to be celebrated in rural England in 1385.

As the people worshipped, various customs came into the service and in the 14th century in England, wafers were used in celebrating communion services. From this custom grew one special Sunday called Wafering Sunday or Mothering Sunday, when young people were admonished to carry wafers to their mothers and to visit them. This was a Sunday in Midlent and called Midlent Sunday.

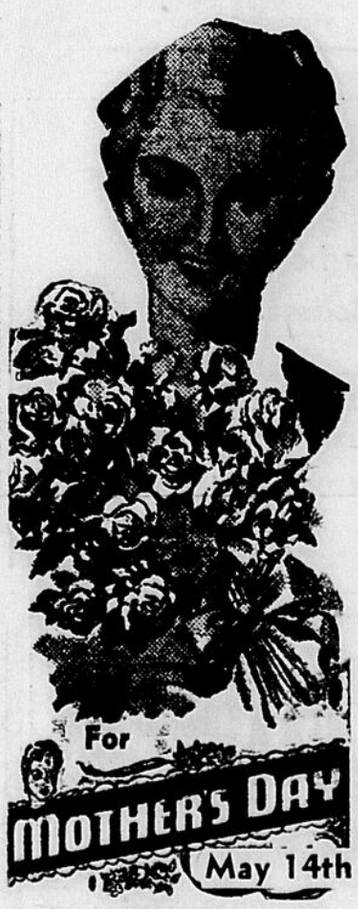

A wafer iron or water tongs is not unlike a waffle iron, being a contrivance with two long arms, like pincers, with a round head or plate at the end of each arm. It measures about three feet including the heads which are seven inches in diameter. The heads have incised ornaments, meaning that the designs are cut into the iron. There were very elaborate patterns of hearts and scholls, cut freehand as all art was done in those early days, with an iron tool.

Two wafer irons sufficed each village, sometimes three, and one person managed them over the fire. A man was called a "waferer" who cooked the wafers. The irons rested in the embers as they were used, as those old iron utensils were handwrought and exceedingly heavy. All food was cooked either directly in the embers or held over them. It must have been a slow, tedious task to cook one wafer at a time, supplying a whole community.

A recipe of the 19th century is as follows: "Dry flour well which you intend to use, mix a little pounded sugar and finely pounded mace with it; then mix it into a thick batter with cream; butter the wafer irons, let them be hot; put a teaspoon of butter into them, so bake them carefully, and roll them off with a stick." The wafers were exceedingly thin, for as the heads of the iron close together, there is scarcely room for any dough to be put in. The wafers were served cold and not hot as were the waffles. Wafers continued to be used for domestic purposes until the 19th century.

Mrs. Pare Tells Mothers' Club Highlights of Florida Trip

Some of the vicissitudes that beset the traveller returning from Florida were related at the regular meeting on Tuesday of the Catholic Mothers' Club, by its president, Mrs. Pare, who was welcomed back after a four months' stay in the south. The meeting was held in St. Leo's Academy. Mrs. Pare was the guest speaker and Mrs. Edgar Reynolds, vice-president, presided.

A general outline of the life she and her husband led in Florida was given by Mrs. Pare. They brought back many exquisite sea shells, both large and small, some of them in creamy white, painted with flowers, and other small ones grouped in floral sprays on useful and decorative articles. Mrs. Pare explained the variety of uses for sea shells—for ashtrays, decorative designs on boxes, jars and vases, for necklaces and other jewelry, and in proof of this showed the butterfly ornament in her own hat, fashioned by herself from shells on the spur of the moment when no suitable metal ornament could be bought.

Mr. and Mrs. Pare had travelled to Florida by car, but being unable to get enough gasoline for their return trip, they were forced to leave the car behind and come back by train. This "agoin' home" was not the simple matter of pre-war days, however, as it took Mr. Pare just twelve hours to get reservations on the train. Seated on small chairs, the would-be travellers waited in the queue through "the wee sma' hours," Mrs. Pare taking her turn as did the wives and friends of others, waiting for reservations. From 8 p.m. to 8 a.m. the vigil lasted, but their efforts were eventually crowned with success

There was little or no butter available for civilian use in Florida, said Mrs. Pare, but they were supplied with oleomargarine which they found quite palatable

Canned goods, the speaker pointed out, were strictly rationed, one can of peaches costing 32 points, with only 16 points being issued for canned goods each week.

Club Business

Miss Nancy Asselin and Mr. Jack Shannon, who were introduced by Miss Melvin, welcomed Mrs. Pare on behalf of the student body; and they thanked the Mothers' Club for its kindness and interest in student welfare.

Mrs. A. De L. Macdonald gave a resume of the club's activities, and Mrs. Rowland, an account of the tea given for the Services.

Mrs. W. J. Keating is chairman of the nominating committee, and is assisted by Mrs. Bulger, Mrs. John Colford, and Mrs. W. H. O'Reilly. Mrs. Keating would like to receive nominations for candidates to the new executive, either by telephone or by letter, as no nomination papers will be sent out this year.

Mrs. Ed. Ryan was pianist for the singing of the national anthem.

Wartime refreshments were served.

The ideal wedding still includes, "Something old and something new, something borrowed, and something blue."

R.C.C.S. (Signals)

The R.C.C.S. (Signals) next-of-kin meeting to be held at 2 p.m. in the Armoury, Bleury St., on Wednesday, May 17th, will be an old-fashioned "Quilting Bee". Thimbles and scissors will be needed. All members are cordially invited to attend. The final plans for the forthcoming Military Whist will also be made at this meeting. Refreshments will be served and there will be door prizes.

St. Luke's

Mrs. A. H. Lawson will conduct the devotional exercises at the Woman's Missionary meeting to be held in the church parlor on Tuesday, at 3 p.m.

Mrs. A. Young will speak on "Temperance and Christian Citizenship," and Mrs. J. Thomas on "Community Friendship." Miss Jean Hacking will be the soloist.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Xavier Apostolate Guild will be held on Monday, in Congress Hall, at 3 p.m.

The Reverend Edward M. Brown, S.J., will speak and reports will be read.

Military Whist

The Captain Percival Molson Chapter I.O.D.E., are holding a military whist in the Navy League of Canada hall, 1429 Closse Street, at 8 p.m., on Saturday. Mrs. C. F. Gardner is the convener.

There will be door prizes and refreshments.

St. Stephen's

St. Stephen's Women's Association are holding a bridge in the parish hall at Weredale Park on Wednesday, both afternoon and evening.

Sodality

The general meeting of the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Church of the Ascension of Our Lord will be held in St. Paul's Academy on Monday, at 7.30 p.m.

SODALITY DAY PLANS COMPLETE

The committee in charge of World Wide Sodality Day have completed extensive planning for a successful observance. The following groups will take part: St. Augustine's, St. Aloysius', St. Anthony's, St. Dominic's St. Malachy's, St. Michael's, St. Patrick's, St. Thomas Aquinas', St. Gabriel, St. Willibrord, St. Mary's, St. Ignatius', St. Raphael's, and Ascension.

The following have been invited to attend St. Kevin's, St. Agnes', St. Roch, St. Joseph's, The Legion of Mary, Loyola College Sodality, and the Newman Club.

Correct Coiffure Can Give Height To Tiny Bride

A bride should know well the value of careful grooming for weeks before the great event; how the waves of a new permanent deepen and take on a more brilliant sheen with persistent brushing; how essential it is to have nails carefully manicured, and a face powder blended specially to bring out the best in her complexion. She might also have her beauty stylist recommend a makeup which will blend with the color of her bridal costume.

It lies, too, in the power of the hair stylist to arrange the hair so that the bride will neither dwarf the groom or send him sky-rocketing by making her appear too short. There are secrets in every trade, and the correct coiffure has saved the day at many a wedding for a tall bride and a short bridegroom.

LUCIA MALLORY

"See my new bike, Aunt Lucia!" proudly exclaimed my young friend, Bobby Barron. "It's all mine now, every spoke!"

Flora Barron and I were sitting on her front porch when Bobby came home from school. Flora's children always call me Aunt Lucia, though I am only a make-believe relative.

"Your new bicycle is a beauty, Bobby," I replied. "You are making good use of it on your new paper route, aren't you?"

"Yes, that's why I had to get it. My old one was worn out, and I needed a good one to carry my papers. Jack helped me buy it, and now I have paid him back."

"Does that mean that you have paid Jack all that you owed him, Bobby?" Flora asked her son.

"Yes, Mother," the boy replied, "I paid part of the money back to Jack last month. Yesterday I had $6.20 left after I had made this month's collection and paid for my papers. I gave Jack $6.00 and he gave me a receipt that says, 'Paid in full.'"

Flora smiled as Bobby pulled a carefully folded paper out of his shirt pocket and spread it out for her inspection. "You might have kept a little more money for yourself and finished paying Jack next month," she suggested.

"I thought about that before I paid Jack, Mother," Bobby answered, "but I wanted my bike to belong to me. I have 20 cents left. That will have to last me till next month."

"All right, Bobby," his mother agreed. "It's a wonderful feeling to be free from debt! Thirty days will pass quickly and what you earn next month will be all your own."

"I want to try to earn more money next month, Mother," Bobby confided. "There are some new people on my route. I'm going to give them sample copies of the paper this evening."

"That's fine!" Flora commended her son. "I hope the new people will like your paper so well that they will become subscribers."

As soon as his mother had finished speaking, Bobby sped away on his new bicycle to call on his prospective customers.

"Bobby did not have enough money in his savings account to buy a new bicycle when he started on the paper route, Lucia," Flora explained to me. "Jack was going to give Bobby the money he needed, but their father and I insisted on his making a loan instead of an outright gift."

"Jack has new work himself this year, hasn't he?" I asked.

"Yes, Jack is working after school and on Saturdays at the Fairway Store. It would have been easy for him to help his little brother, but we do not want Bobby to grow up with the habit of expecting a big brother to be ready to give him money whenever he needs or wants it. We are trying to develop in each of our children the habit of financial independence."

"One can readily see how much that independence means to Bobby," I assured my friend. "He would not have been half so pleased to show me his new bicycle if he had not paid for it himself. But you do not forbid your children to make gifts to each other, do you?"

"Oh, no," Flora replied, "we would not take from them the joy of giving. They spend many happy hours planning gifts for each other, but that is different from stepping in and supplying money whenever needed. We want our children to have a sensible attitude toward money."

"Financial independence"—"a sensible attitude toward money"—those phrases came back to me as I was walking home that evening. How many times one brother or sister carries the financial burdens of the whole family, while the other brothers and sisters become more or less unhappy leaners on the one who foolishly gives them too much! Many mistakes in adult life could be prevented if every child were given an opportunity to develop financial independence.

Betty Speirs announces that the curtain will rise promptly at eight o'clock on Friday evening when the Speirs-Miller Studios will present Springtime Revue featuring the 'Wishing Well', 'Ave Maria' and 'The Little Red Schoolhouse'.

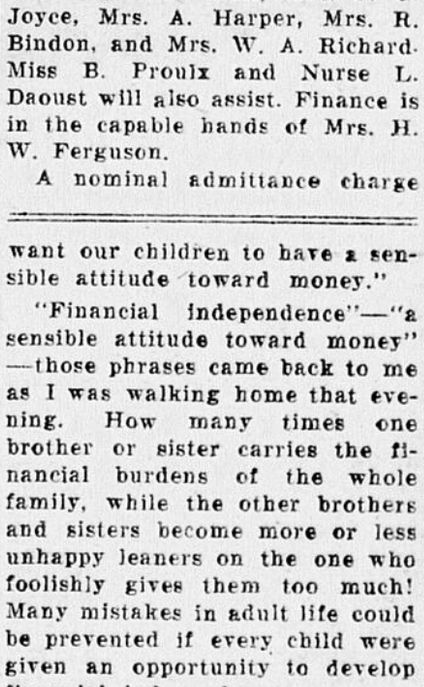

FASHION EXPERT TO HIGHLIGHT RED CROSS TEA

Mrs. Doreen Day, the authority on ladies' fashions at the T. Eaton Co. Ltd., will demonstrate the "very latest" on living models at the afternoon tea and entertainment being given by the Verdun Red Cross Home Nursing and First Aid Branch at the Canadian Legion Hall on Thursday, the 18th May, at 3 p.m., in aid of the Mayor's Cigarette Fund. The interest already being displayed promises to make this one of the most popular events of the early summer season.

Leading the organizing committee is a galaxy of hostesses including Mrs. Edward Wilson (Mayoress), Mrs. Mildred McKnight, Mrs. Geo. E. M. Hilton, Mrs. Walter Charland, Mrs. A. D. Archambault, Mrs. Fred O'Grady and Mrs. S. J. L. Glew. Pouring tea will be Mrs. Hamilton Stitt, Mrs. J. G. Joyce, Mrs. A. Harper, Mrs. R. Bindon, and Mrs. W. A. Richard. Miss B. Proulx and Nurse L. Daoust will also assist. Finance is in the capable hands of Mrs. H. W. Ferguson.

A nominal admittance charge is being made, and it is hoped to increase the receipts by raffling a number of useful gifts donated for the purpose by local merchants. The talk and fashion demonstration by Mrs. Doreen Day will begin at 4 p.m. and the doors will be closed during this part of the program.

A new substitute for cork, particularly for cork discs used in bottling food and beverage products, is made from sugarcane, cornstalks, peanut hulls and other farm wastes, together with vegetable glues, sugars and apple honey.

JUST A LITTLE SCRAP!

This toddler's family piled up a big heap of waste metal. Then the little scrap of a thing herself, Jean Brown, climbed into the middle of the junk pile. Salvage truck pick-up salvaged her on the spot—and returned her to her mother.

FREE INSTRUCTION ENJOYED BY MANY AT RE-MAKE CLINICS

An ever-increasing number of pupils, starting from scratch, are receiving free instructions from the many expert seamstresses at the Re-make Sewing clinics who devote their time voluntarily to teach housewives how to "wear it out, use it up and make it do." Shrunk, worn-out or out-dated clothes are washed, dyed, reversed, pieced, tucked, pressed, cut-down, combined and restyled to emerge into practical wearable garments. The mothers who attend are enthusiastic at the smartness of their re-made outfits and the pertness of their children's clothes which used to be "cast-offs" stored in their cupboards.

The "Re-Make Wrinkles", a booklet compiled by the Consumer Branch for the benefit of housewives eager to acquaint themselves with the magnificent work done at these clinics, can be obtained by writing to the Re-Make Centre, 680 St. Catherine St. W., or by calling HA. 6451 or PL. 1281, Local 242.

Any woman wishing to contribute in this conservation program, may also apply to any of the other re-make clinics located at the Y.M.C.A. buildings, 4585 St. Catherine St. W., Westmount, 1000 Gordon Ave., Verdun and 4335 Hampton Ave., N.D.G.

To Save Old Vets Unnecessary Steps

Recently the offices of the Pensions Department of the Canadian National Railways moved from an upper floor to a more convenient location on the ground level, and C. R. Mackenzie, superintendent of pensions for the company, said that the change made a great hit with the local veterans and explained: "Many retired railwaymen like to come downtown and collect their cheques so that at times we have a mighty busy and crowded office." The retired men like to visit old scenes, maintain touch with conditions and exchange greetings with old friends and fellow workers. Men in the eighty and ninety year groups are quite active and a number of these recently came to the office to offer subscriptions for the Sixth Victory Loan There are nearly seven thousand retired employees of the National System receiving monthly pension cheques.

As an angle new at least to the general public, on the migrations across the Behring Straits in early times, has been given emphasis by a Soviet ethnographer, Maria Stepanova, who has made studies revealing that much more extensive than usually supposed were the migrations from east to west, that is, from Alaska to Siberia.

NEW LIQUOR PERMITS NOW EFFECTIVE

New permits for the purchase of alcohol and spirits are now in effect

WHERE TO GET YOUR PERMIT

Permits are available to all persons 20 years of age or over, at all Quebec Liquor Commission stores and at 905 Delorimier Street, Montreal, or at the main office for the Quebec district, in Quebec City, corner Dalhousie and St. André Streets.

METHOD

The national registration card of the applicant must be shown at the time of application.

On the issuance of the permit, the national registration card will be marked with a small lozenge-shaped stamp to show that a permit has been granted the individual.

The two sheets, each containing an age declaration of the applicant and the authorization of the Quebec Liquor Commission must be filled out and signed by the party applying for the permit. One of these sheets remains in the issued permit book, the duplicate remaining on file with the Quebec Liquor Commission in order to keep necessary records of ration books and to maintain control of the rationing system.

There is no charge made for permits issued to residents of the Province of Quebec or members of Canada's armed forces, no matter from what part of the country they come.

Permits will allow the purchase of the same quantity of alcohol and spirits as authorized by the previous permit books, namely 40 ounces every two weeks.

A permit will be authorized only for the applying party and is not transferable. In other words, a man cannot apply for a permit for his wife. She must apply in person.

A permit obtained under false pretences, or presented for liquor purchases by anyone other than the person to whom it was originally issued, will be confiscated.

NON-RESIDENT TEMPORARY PERMITS

For civilians not residing in the Province of Quebec, and for members of the armed forces other than those of Canada, a special temporary permit will be issued, subject to the following conditions.

1 — Suitable identification papers must be presented.

2 — The temporary permit will be good for a period of two months and will be issued at a cost of $1.00.

3 — At the expiration of two months the issued temporary permit will be invalid but may be extended for a like period on the payment of $1.00. A renewal application must be filled out for this extension.

All other conditions of the regular resident permit apply in the use of the temporary non-resident permit.

The amount of alcohol and spirits allowed on the temporary permit will be 26 ounces per month.

MAIL ORDER PURCHASES

Permits for ordering by mail in districts not served by the Quebec Liquor Commission stores, can be secured from the mail order store where you usually make your purchases. When ordering by mail, enclose your permit which will be returned with your purchase.

The Quebec Liquor Commission earnestly requests all citizens to use their permits fairly and only for their personal purchases. Co-operation would also be appreciated in reducing purchases to a minimum.

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

At York Theatre

AT THE YORK UNITED SATURDAY!

When 20th Century-Fox announced that it was planning to give us the magic of Alfred Hitchcock and the genius of John Steinbeck in one motion picture, those of us who have long thrilled to the incomparable talents of both the screen's master of suspense and America's finest story-teller, shouted "Hallelujah!" in joyful anticipation.

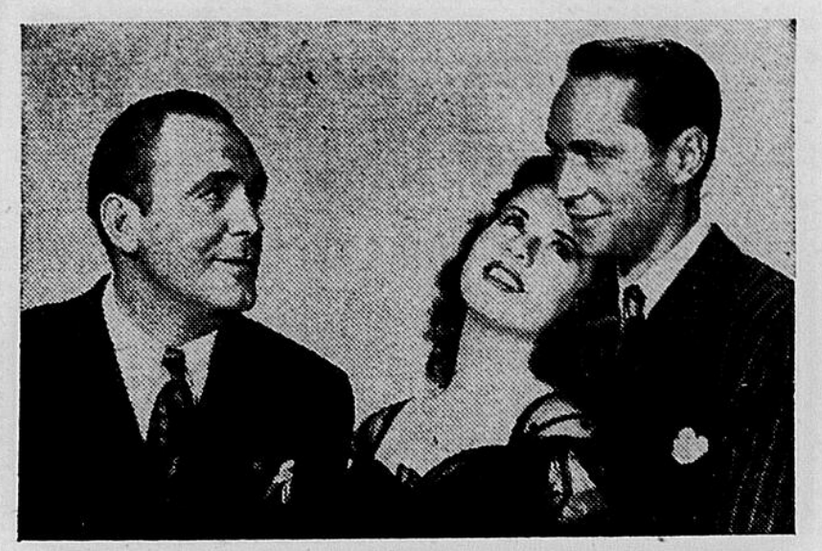

It is this reviewer's happy privilege to report that the eagerly-awaited event—Alfred Hitchcock's production of "Lifeboat" by John Steinbeck—which opened at the York United Theatre last night, fulfilled our hopes far beyond our greatest expectations. In brief, "Lifeboat" can be acclaimed the most powerful entertainment the screen has ever known.

Tallulah Bankhead, who is starred, scores an outstanding triumph in what is, by all odds, the greatest portrayal of her career, supported by William Bendix, Walter Slezak, Mary Anderson, John Hodiak, Henry Hull, Heather Angel, Hume Cronyn and Canada Lee—all inspiringly cast in equally unforgettable roles.

"Lifeboat" is the stirring and suspenseful drama of three women and six men whose ship, having been torpedoed, find themselves adrift in mid-Atlantic—stripped of the veneer of civilization by the imminence of death . . . and with no law but that of the wild sea and their own tempestuous emotions. And a more never-to-be-forgotten and richly portrayed lot you've never seen on any screen.

There is "Connie"—Tallulah Bankhead—the beautiful, mink-coated newspaper correspondent; no lady, perhaps, but all woman . . . who calls a spade a spade, and claims a rough-and-ready seaman for her man. There is "Gus"—William Bendix—the jive-mad sailor from Brooklyn, whose only interest is "Rosie" and Roseland. And the U-boat commander—Walter Slezak—who sank their ship; he owes them his life and repays them Nazi-style. And the American Army nurse, Lieutenant Alice—Mary Anderson—who is travelling halfway around the world to meet the wrong guy . . . with the right one at her side. And "Kovac"—John Hodiak—all man and a yard wide; "Connie" puts her brand on him . . . with lipstick!

Out of this seething cauldron of man's rawest emotions comes a taut and dramatic story only John Steinbeck could tell . . . only Alfred Hitchcock could bring to the screen in all its suspenseful power and mighty screen entertainment.

Pat O'Brien, Deanna Durbin and Franchot Tone in a scene from "His Butler's Sister", which opens at the York United Theatre on Saturday playing until Tuesday night.

At The Monkland

As timely as a military communique, M-G-M's "Salute to the Marines," Wallace Beery Technicolor starrer, is a tender, inspiring story of American heroes and is currently at the Monkland United Theatre.

A dramatic picturization of the U.S. Marine Corps, "Salute to the Marines" marks Beery's thirtieth year in pictures and one of the most colorful roles of his career.

The film also brings Fay Bainter, beloved and renowned stage and screen actress, and Beery together on the screen for the first time. Beery portrays a hard-bitten, lusty and garrulous Marine sergeant, veteran of 30 years' service. Miss Bainter is his peace-loving wife who persuades him to retire to a so-called "peace settlement."

Two-Fisted, Action-Packed

Action-packed, two-fisted and replete with Beery humor, "Salute to the Marines" shows the leathernecks in the Phillipines. The story centers about Marine sergeant Beery, but it also pictures the typical Marine fighting his country's battles. It was filmed in cooperation with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Beery and Miss Bainter are supported by a noteworthy cast. Reginald Owen portrays a Nazi fifth columnist posing as a leader of a peace-loving Filipino community. Ray Collins is Beery's kind but gruff colonel. Marilyn Maxwell and William Lundigan supply a romantic angle. Keye Luke is an ex-Filipino boxer, and Donald Curtis, new screen find, is an infantry lieutenant who also seeks Marilyn's hand in vain.

"Salute to the Marines" moves at a fast clip. Action and drama are expertly balanced with humor. Battle scenes, vividly depicting an invasion of the Philippines, highlight this heart-warming story of the Marines.

S. Sylvan Simon adds another to his fine reputation by his deft direction. To guarantee authenticity to dialogue and scenes, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer wa sassigned the services of Lieut. Col. G. McGuire Pierce, U.S.M.C.

Clare Boothe Luce asks that the U.S. draft its glamour girls. They probably would not be nearly as effective with arms as they are with legs.—Saturday Night.

The joys of heaven will begin as soon as we attain the character of heaven and do its duties. —Theodore Parker.

Nature's first and last lessons teach man to be kind, and even pride should sanction what our natures need.—Mary Baker Eddy.

AT WESTMOUNT THEATRE

A galaxy of stars, topping a lilting musical romance of a soldier and the Colonel's daughter, photographed in gorgeous Technicolor, are only a few of the treats to be found in M-G-M's prize package, "Thousands Cheer," now playing at the Westmount United Theatre.

The plot is the tender romance of young Kathryn Jones, played by Kathryn Grayson, who gives up a career as a concert soloist with Jose Iturbi's orchestra to be with her father, John Boles, and do morale work at his camp. Her ambition is to patch things up between Mary Astor, her mother, and her father who have been separated for fifteen years because Boles' heart belonged first to the army. Kathryn meets Gene Kelly, an ex-circus performer, who is so discontented with his army lot that he is the problem soldier of the camp, learns his difficulties and helps him become a model soldier, but not before the two have fallen in love, much to the consternation of her bewildered parents.

A highlight of the film is the hour-long USO show put on by Kathryn at the army camp. Mickey Rooney as master of ceremonies does several of his famed impersonations, Judy Garland teams with Iturbi in a boogie-woogie number, Red Skelton appears in a skit with Donna Reed, Marilyn Maxwell, the M-G-M "Glamazons" and little Margaret O'Brien, and Frank Morgan impersonates Dr. Gillespie with Ann Sothern, Lucille Ball and Marsha Hunt as patients. Eleanor Powell contributes one of her outstanding tap routines and Lena Horne does wonderful things with 'Honeysuckle Rose" to the accompaniment of Benny Carter and his band. Virginia O'Brien, June Allyson and Gloria DeHaven do a number with Bob Crosby and his orchestra, and Kay Kyser adds to the gayety with his orchestra.

Jose Iturbi in his first appearance on any screen is a delight to all theatregoers. He accompanies Kathryn Grayson in several numbers and presents the United Nations Victory song, "United Nations on the March" in a breath-taking finale. In addition to Miss Grayson, Kelly, John Boles and Mary Astor the cast includes Ben Blue, Frances Rafferty, Mary Elliott, Frank Jenks, Frank Sully, Dick Simmons and Ben Lessy.

Joseph Pasternak produced with a lavish hand, sparing no details in his effort to provide really worthwhile entertainment, and Director George Sidney did justice to his work. Musical direction was under the baton of Herbert Stothart.

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

At The Snowdon

An absorbing human drama of a man who lived up to his own teachings, "The Iron Major" stars Pat O'Brien in the title role of one of the most entertaining screen offerings of the year. The picture deals with the career of the late Major Frank Cavanaugh, war hero, football coach extraordinary, and loving, dutiful father of six sons and a daughter who are, today, in the Armed Forces, fighting for their country. The part of "Cav" is one that the husky O'Brien is ideally suited to portray.

Frank Cavanaugh became one of the greatest football mentors in history, with his successive years of victorious teams at Holy Cross, Dartmouth, Boston College and Fordham. When America went into World War I, "Cav" then a man of forty-one, with a wife and six children, went in also. After making an enviable military record in France, "Cav" was seriously wounded and returned to America where he resumed coaching, his teams playing brilliantly, until shortly before his death ten years ago. Pat O'Brien's portrayal of "Cav" is said to be the finest thing the noted Irish actor has yet given the screen. Ruth Warrick plays the part of "Cav's" loyal wife and Robert Ryan that of the coach's former team-mate and religious advisor.

The co-feature, "Passport To Destiny," starring Elsa Lanchester, is a "surprise" comedy sensation of the season. The tory concerns a magic talisman which a certain Ella Muggins, London scrubwoman, possesses. She is convinced it will guard her from all harm and therefore plans to visit Berlin and wipe out the "narsty little paper 'anger" by herself. Now she reaches the German capital, liquidates Lord Haw-Haw and numerous other Nazi stuffed-shirts, affords one of the funniest film-farces of the year. Elsa Lanchester, noted British actress, supported by Gordon Oliver and Lenore Aubert are the leading players. Produced by R.K.O. in Hollywood, "Passport To Destiny" was directed by Ray McCarey, one of the best comedy-directors in the business.

Starting Saturday at the Snowdon Theatre!

Mary Beetles Dance Recital To Aid U.K. Bombed Areas

On Friday, May 26th, the Kinsmen Club of Montreal will present The Mary Beetles Spring Dance Recital in aid of their milk fund for children in bombed British areas.

The staff and pupils of the school have been putting forth every effort to make the presentation a success and the program will consist of a delightful blending of all types of dancing, singing and dramatics.

The dance items, which are under the direction of Jeanne Rodier, assisted by Rosemary Leggett and Nancy Saunders will include the Dance of the Hours, a charming ballet in which the hours of the day appear in four groups, Dawn, Day, Evening and Night, each dancing in turn. Featured in the number will be Patsy Parsons, Ann Holland and William Turnbull.

Equally lovely, but of an entirely different nature will be the Wedding of the Panda and the Penguin in three acts featuring the bride Constance Steers, the bridegroom, Terry Leslie, the preacher, Buddy Thomas, maid of honor, Meriel McLean, best man, Gerald Parsons, Flowergirl and page, Carol Leavitt and Derick Shaw, also bridesmaids and ushers will be in attendance. The godmothers and guests will be the pandas and penguins.

The vocal contributions will be under the direction of Barbara Button Patterson, and the dramatic presentations will be handled by Mary Ruth Whiting well known dramatic teacher. Mary Iwasaki and Marion Wylie will be the accompanists.

The entire presentation will be under the direction of Mary Beetles.

GOOD ATHLETES, POOR SOLDIERS

Many hockey fans last winter, and baseball fans this summer, have been puzzled by the fact that a young man can hold his own in a strenuous, bumping, hockey match, or run forty yards to pull down a long fly ball, and still be unfit for military service. Your chronicler has more than a few times heard hockey players, baseball players, and other athletes roundly criticized for not being in uniform. The opinion seems to be held by a lot of people that these boys, through one pretext or another, have obtained deferments or avoided the services, when they ought to be in uniform. "If they can play like that, they can be soldiers," seems to sum up the complaints.

* * *

The fact is that the great majority of the boys you see performing have been rejected by army doctors. Why is it that examining boards are turning down athletes in large numbers, while accepting flat-chested office clerks or soda dispensers who never played a game of hockey or baseball in their lives? In brief it is because athletes, though generally strong muscularly and as agile as pups, have suffered injuries in the course of their athletic careers that make them poor army risks. Nearly all of these boys would like to be in uniform, but the opinion of the army doctors is that they wouldn't stand the gaff in the army, and presumably the army doctors know their business.

* * *

Professional athletes who have been through ten or twelve years of the rigours of hockey or baseball are subject to all kinds of occupational ills which disqualify them for the armed services. Many of them have suffered injuries to ankles and knees, and the army doesn't want men whose underpinning will cave in every time they step into a ditch. Many of them have at one time or another suffered from hernia. Others have damaged shoulders that limit arm movements, flat feet, impaired eyesight, or punctured ear drums.

Such injuries or impairments do not necessarily handicap them in their athletic pursuits. They can be patched and braced by a good trainer, but the army doesn't carry trainers around with every infantry section to give the boys a rub down and apply the adhesive tape every time the boys go on parade.

* * *

Take the case of Lou Boudreau, playing manager of the Cleveland Indians. A Cleveland sports writer once made the remark that if Bauer and Black ever went out of business, Boudreau would have to retire. Boudreau's ankles are among the worst in baseball. He has to have them bandaged daily with yards of tape before he steps on the diamond. Boudreau also wears a tape corset to hold a stomach muscle in place. Bandaged up, he can play a high class brand of baseball; but it would be another story if he had to march a few miles with a sixty-pound pack on his back.

It will be recalled that Spud Chandler, the great right-hand pitcher of the New York Yankees, was accepted only for limited service because, believe it or not, the army doctors found he had not the full use of his right arm. Ernie Bonham, another Yankee pitching star, was found to have a lame back; while the great Mort Cooper, Cardinal ace, who struck out six Yankees in a row in the final game of last autumn's world's series, was rejected because of high blood pressure.

* * *

The office clerks are meanwhile accepted even though they have never done anything strenuous in their lives. They are found to be good soldier material. They might be a bit short on physique, but the army looks after that deficiency. But the army doesn't want to be bothered with sewn-up hernias, punctured ear drums, brittle ankles or knees, or any of the other multitudinous injuries and infirmities to which athletes are subject, not only because they might give trouble in the field, but because they might result in large pension outlays after war is over.

* * *

Let us get rid of the idea that just because a boy can run the bases like a deer he is a slacker. On the contrary, he is doing a good job maintaining the morale of hundreds of thousands of war workers and others upon whom the worries of war weigh heavily. He is helping provide healthful and pleasant escape from the worries and cares of these days. The chances are about fifty to one that if he could he'd be out there with a rifle or machine gun. But the armed services won't have him.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur decided to-day that Maj. Richard I. Bong should not receive a case of Scotch or Champagne as a "reward" for knocking down 27 Japanese planes. He said he does not consider "liquor or spirituous wines as appropriate recognition of Bong's deeds." A headquarters release said that although MacArthur had "the highest admiration for Major Bong's aerial skill and gallantry," he felt that the flier's recent promotion from Captain to Major the proper reward. The Poplar, Wis., flier has been promised a case of Scotch by Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, Great War ace, whose record he surpassed. — Associated Press Despatch, April 17, 1944.

Rogers Hornsby, manager of Vera Cruz in Mexican League, gives pitchers some advice. Crowd of 22,000 saw his Blues defeat Mexico City Reds in opener, 6-4.

Y's Chats

Learn-To-Swim

The 7-10 year old learn-to-swim classes are entering their third week; the boys meeting on Monday and Thursday at 4.00 o'clock, and the girls, Tuesday and Friday at the same time. Many have already conquered the width of the pool, fifteen feet, and several have actually covered one length successfully, forty-eight feet. These classes may be joined at any time and will continue into June.

Vacation Club

Plans are now in preparation for the Westmount "Y" Vacation Club for boys who spend all or part of the summer in the City.

Camps

The new Kanawana Kamp folders are now available at the office. Make your reservation early and don't be disappointed.

The "Y" camp for young men and young women, Camp Otoreke, in the Laurentians is now open. Registrations are being accepted now. Again experience advises to urge prospective campers to send their applications in early.

Badminton Club

The final social evening of the Badminton Club was held Thursday evening, with bowling, dancing and refreshments.

Boys

Week-day afternoons and Saturday mornings, the boys are out in the Westmount Park playing softball and soccer.

Last Thursday evening, Westmount Y.M.C.A. Midget Basketball team won the Montreal "Y" championship from the North Branch Midgets who were the cup holders of last year. The Northenders bowed in defeat after two straight wins by the victorious Westmounters.

The Westmount boys have not been defeated this season and usually won their games by a clear margin. Only on one occasion did they have cause to worry and that was when coach Glenn Wood was absent from a game, but even they managed to tie the score at 22. Coach Wood attributes the team's success to hard play and clean sportsmanship.

In the first play-off game which was played at Westmount "Y" on April 25th, the Westmount boys romped off the floor on the long end of a 30-16 score. Wolfe Siemers was the star for Westmount, hooping up 12 points, while Jack Dudley and Bill Fee followed closely with 8 points each. Marvin Greenbaum rounded out the score with 2 points and some crafty playing. Bridel and Walker carried the scoring punch for North Branch with 12 and 4 points respectively.

In the second game, played at North Branch on April 27th, Westmount ran up a 27-7 lead in the first half. In the second half, Westmount rested on their laurels and played a strictly defensive game, while North Branch threw caution to the four winds and played an all-out brand of ball. Although they outscored the Westmount team, they lost the game 36-31 and also the championship crown.

Last Friday the team was presented with their cup and their championship crests at the Westmount "Y" annual dinner. Those receiving crests were Jack Dudley (captain); forwards: Bill Fee, Wolfgang Siemers, Ronald George, David Binmore, Cameron McFadden; guards: Marvin Greenbaum, Wenty Young, Bruce Thomson and David Ross.

Bombers Lose Three Straight Games to Argos

By BOB LUNNY

Bob Lunny's Bombers lost their third straight game to Brian Shea's and Johnny O'Meara's Argos. The Bombers were ahead 10-5 at the end of the 3rd inning, but they went wild and gave away the game 20-10.

In the morning game Argos and Upper Grosvenor could not play due to a shortage of players; Pete Lennon was one of the big guns for the winners. Lennon batted 800 and his infielding was excellent. Little Johnny Drury had a lot of what it takes to go behind and catch for the Argos. Johnny played one of his best games since the league opened. The Argos, after a hard first inning, played heads-up ball for the rest of the game. Beside Drury and Lennon, Frank Wickham, John O'Meara and Brian Shea also made good hits for the winners.

Bob Bourassa and Bob Harwood played like two great pros if you want to put it that way. The both Bobs made no errors on the 3rd base and short-stop spots. Both boys kept up the spirit of the team since the league opened.

You can tell when Junior begins to take an interest in the girls. He puts hair slickum on his head.

Panthers To Meet Giants Today In Pee Wee Game

Ross Gillingham's Panthers and Phil Martin's Giants remain the only unbeaten teams in the pee-wee section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League, each of the clubs have chacIked up a pair of wins in as many starts.

The Panthers had two easy wins at the expense of the Beavers and the Vampires. The Panthers beat the Beavers 27-16 and shut out the Vampires 23-0.

The Giants registered an 11-4 victory over the Beavers to give them their second straight win.

Other games during the week saw the Vampires cop a close one from the Cubs by a score of 5-1 and the Beavers win their first game in three starts, over the Cubs, 23-1.

The league leading Panthers and Giants meet this afternoon in the lone pee-wee game scheduled but tomorrow morning a triple-header will be staged at Westmount Park with the Aces playing the Beavers on diamond No. 1; the Vampires meeting the Giants on diamond No. 2 and the Cubs hooking up with the Panthers on diamond No. 4

On Monday afternoon the Panthers play the Aces on diamond No. 4 while on Thursday the Cubs meet the Giants on diamond No. 3

Four Games Of Inter-Troop Softball To Be Played Tonight

The fight for the leadership in the Inter-troop section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League continues at a hot pace with the 1st Westmount and Trinity troops topping the rest of the teams with three wins in as many games . The Calvary troop are right behind with but one loss in four starts, while St. Leo's, St. Matthias, St. Andrew's, Sea Scouts and 2nd Westmount trail along in that order.

1st Westmount bagged a pair of games last week, handing both Calvary and St. Matthias their first losses of the season. 1st Westmount beat Calvary 17-7 and eked out a 28-27 decision over St. Matthias.

Trinity won their third straight game by defeating 2nd Westmount 10-6 while St. Matthias downed St. Andrew 27-15 and St. Leo's defeated St. Andrew's 31-9. Calvary took one from Sea Scouts by default and a couple of games were postponed to round out the week's activities.

Four games will be played tonight, at Westmount Park, 2nd Westmount meets 1st Westmount and Calvary takes on St. Matthias. Up at King George Park St. Andrew's meets Trinity and Sea Scouts play St. Leo's. On Tuesday night Calvary play St. Leo's at Westmount Park with 1st Westmount and St. Andrew's also tangling at the same park. On Wednesday two games are slated for King George Park with 2nd Westmount playing the Sea Scouts and Trinity taking on St. Matthias. These are the last scheduled games of the section and as soon as the postponed games are played the playoffs will commence.

Four Teams Tied For 1st Place In Bantam Softball

Four teams are tied for first place in the bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League, all of them having registered two wins in three starts. A couple of upset wins on Saturday morning brought the teams to an even level.

The biggest upset of the season so far, occurred when Mike Tucker's Dodgers came from behind on two occasions to nip the Royals 6-5. Johnnie Choyce's home-run in the fifth frame with bases loaded caught up with an early four run lead that the Royals had held up till that time. The Royals counted another run in the first half of the seventh to go ahead 5-4 but the Dodgers were not to be denied and won out in their half of the last inning with a two run rally after two men were out.

In the second upset, Bob Lunny's Bombers turned back the unbeaten Eagles, 8-7. The Eagles dominated the early stages of the game and held a 6-1 lead up till the last half of the fourth inning when the Bombers tallied three times. The winners added three more in the fifth frame and anot more in the fifth frame and another in the sixth to take over the lead, 8-6. The Eagles made a bit of a come-back in the seventh inning but the best they could do was to push one run over the plate, leaving the Bombers an 8-7 winner.

In the third game on Saturday morning, the Tornados swamped the Red Wings 22-1 to keep abreast of the Bombers, Eagles and Royals in a tie for first place in the league standing.

The Eagles and Royals won other games played during the week, the Eagles beat the Red Wings 20-2 and the Royals polished of the Tornados 11-8.

One bantam game will be played this afternoon with the Dodgers meeting the Red Wings on diamond No. 4. Tomorrow morning three games will be played with the Red Wings playing the Bombers on diamond No. 1, the Dodgers meeting the Tornados on diamond No. 2, and the Eagles tangling with the Royals on diamond No. 4. Wednesday's doubleheader will see the Tornados playing the Bombers on diamond No. 3 and the Red Wings meeting the Royals on diamond No. 4.

ST. LEO'S SPORTS
By BILLY HAROLD

On Saturday, June 10th, at the Molson Stadium, the Knights of Columbus will stage their first Annual English Catholic High School Track Meet. It has not been decided to what extent our school will be able to take part in this meet as we find ourselves severely handicaped for the lack of a convenient training site that can provide the facilities to train for the various events.

At any rate it appears that our participation will be on a small scale featuring boys of the midget age.

Odds and Ends

Our annual boxing show, which was held last Friday, turned out to be an outstanding success and was witnessed by a large crowd of parents and friends.

Although the Westmount High School boys didn't carry off many honors in the boxing show, they did leave behind a wonderful impression as all had been real genuine sportsmen and reflected great credit to their school, and we here, at St. Leo's, will always assure them a welcome in any ffuture boxing show.

Our coach Andy McGillis was highly pleased to receive recently a fine letter from coach Frank Leahy of Notre Dame University and supporting his views on his opposition to the new football rule allowing extended interference anywhere through the line.

This year's Sports Social will take place next Friday, May 19th, in the Oak Room of Victoria Hall, and it is sure to be a big affair and will round out a record breaking year in sports for our athletes. Athletic presentations and dedication of the new athletic honor roll will feature the evening.

Congratulations to Jack Shannon on receiving the Father McDonagh Trophy for being the athlete of the year at St. Leo's. Dave Manning also received an award from Charles Shannon for his pinch hitting efforts during the past hockey season.

Jack O'Brien showed real gameness in winning his bout in the boxing show and if there was any award for this then Jack would breeze home with this honor.

Tommy Brennan, St. Leo's boy who played with Boston Olympics and Boston Bruins, returned home last week from Hollywood where the Olympics played a series of exhibition hockey games. Tommy reports that the Californians have taken to hockey in a big way and that the game is a cinch to boom out on the West Coast after the war.

Thanks to the hard working executive of Milton Orr, Johnnie Rogers and Jack Martin, the boxing show realized a good sum of money to buy deserving awards for some of our outstanding athletes during the year.

All the local boys in the boxing show were the recipients of boxing medals donated by Sergt. Vic Lattimer, R.C.A.F., a former all around top notch athlete at the Academy.

"Y" SECRETARIES

E. I. Taylor, who has acted as executive secretary of Westmount Y.M.C.A. for the past four years and is now posted to be executive secretary of the International Branch of the 'Y' in Montreal and (right) W. H. Spearman, until recently manager of the Beaver Club in London who will return to his former position at the Westmount Branch.

W. H. Spearman Returning From U.K.; E. I. Taylor To Take New 'Y' Post

Absent from his home for over two years W. H. Spearman of 4280 Hingston Avenue will return shortly from London where he has been manager of the Beaver Club, the mecca for Canadian soldiers in London.

Mr. Spearman will return to Westmount Y.M.C.A. as executive secretary, the post he left to take up work with the War Services of the Y.M.C.A. A member of Westmount Rotary Club, Mr. Spearman for the last two years has been posted on the club calendar as absent on war service abroad. He left the Westmount branch soon after the outbreak of war. For two years he was area supervisor of Y.M.C.A. war services in Eastern, Ontario and Quebec. From there he went to England.

E. I. Taylor of 42 Ballantyne Avenue N., Montreal West, who has acted as temporary executive secretary for Westmount Y in the absence of Mr. Spearman will resume duties in the International Branch of the Y.M.C.A. on St. Catherine street east where he has been appointed executive secretary.

The two Y.M.C.A. officials are among the best known civilian Canadians to two kinds of Canadian servicemen—Mr. Spearmen to the men in the Empire capital and Mr. Taylor to the thousands of soldiers, sailors and airmen who have enjoyed the urday night dances held for their benefit at the Westmount branch.

Mr. Taylor's son E. I. Taylor, junior, is on active service with the Royal Canadian Navy.

Young People Debate Tonight

The final debate of the Montreal Presbytery Young People's Union will be held tonight. at Erskine and American United Church at 8.15 p.m. Teams from St. Lambert United Church Young People's Union and Calvary United Church Young People's Union will debate on the subject "Resolved That a Government Controlled Plan of Health Insurance Be Adopted in Canada." To the winning team will go the Montreal Presbytery Y.P.U. Challenge Trophy.

Yes, We Have More Bananas

Due to transportation costs, bananas were previously marketed in central areas only, but a recent order of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board now provides a more equitable distribution of the limited supplies reaching Canada. To allow for excessive freight costs, the retail price is now 15 cents per pound in the West, northern Ontario, northern Quebec and the Maritimes. In southern Ontario and southern Quebec, the retail price will remain at 14 cents per pound.

Horse-drawn chariots were used on battlefields in large numbers in ancient days; long scythe-shaped blades mounted as extensions to the axles cut down the enemy; chariots carried a driver, a bowman and a shield-bearer.

CHINESE MANPOWER BUILDS ALLIED AIR POWER

Lack of modern equipment and machinery fail to daunt resourceful Chinese who are building modern airfields in China. Three hundred thousand workers are on the job. Stones for runways are laboriously chipped by hand, as seen in top photo. Spread out, the stones are cemented together with "slurry," mixed by hand and carried in ancient yoked buckets as in center photo. Bottom photo shows a Liberator bomber roaring over scores of Chinese, straining at back-breaking job of leveling field by hauling over it huge stone rollers. Photos by NEA-Acme war correspondent Frank Cancellare for the war picture pool.

R.C.A.F. SQUADRONS TAKE HEAVY TOLL OF ENEMY

Extent of the participation of Royal Canadian Air Force squadrons overseas in the war against the enemy during 1943 and up to the middle of February, 1944, is illustrated here. The statistics cover the operations only of squadrons manned and maintained by the R.C.A.F. They do not take into account the contribution of the many more thousands of R.C.A.F. personnel attached to R.A.F. units. A sortie (the total of which is shown upper left) is one operational flight by one aircraft. In addition to the destruction pictured here, R.C.A.F. squadrons also inflicted heavy damage on enemy U-boats, merchant vessels, tugs, barges, military installations, motor vehicles and transports of all kinds.

WHERE ROMMEL AWAITS INVASION

A chain of "command forts" as mapped above, for use as advance headquarters when the Allies attack, has been established for Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, commander of German anti-invasion forces in Western Europe, according to reliable information reaching London. The "forts," stretching from Britanny into Belgium, are strongly constructed, with deep underground quarters, and are only 30 to 60 miles from the Channel coast.

MONKEY SHINES

Jock, monkey with an insatiable thirst for beer, keeps himself in suds by shining servicemen's shoes. At least, so say monkeyshine-conscious members of signal unit at Fort Ord, Calif.

WRENS OFF SIGHT-SEEING

Down in the big city! The evergreen trees beside the skating rink at Rockefeller Centre in New York made these Canadian Wrens just a bit homesick, their first Sunday afternoon in the city, when they went out on a sightseeing tour of the city in which they were to work with the Royal Navy. They were impressed by the golden statues, the flags of the United Nations and the towering skyscrapers in Radio City. These three young Canadians were members of the first draft of Women's Royal Canadian Naval Service Writers to be assigned duties in New York City.
