St. Joseph's Carnival — A Spectacular Success

Huntingdon has set a precedent in what may well become an annual tourist attracting fiesta. The local arena was jammed to capacity with interested followers of student activities from the entire region.

St. Joseph's School, under the able leadership of Mr. Florian Tardif, Principal, had long been preparing for the Carnival of Saturday, February 9. The organizers had outlined a timetable of activities in a carefully prepared program which proved to be the guidepost of the day.

Notre Dame School had been invited to participate in various ice competition events and Huntingdon Academy were invited as special guests in the evening's relay races.

During the afternoon session, boys and girls in primary and secondary grades participated in three-regged races and tricycle races on ice. These were followed by a surprise win of Notre Dame Hockey Team, who showed little sense of propriety by defeating their heavily favored host, St. Joseph's by the score of 3 to 1.

The first period of the hard fought event accounted for three of the goals that were scored during the game. Ronald Temblay, who always manages to score a goal, obtained two of them during the period on passes from team mate, André Bergevin. St. Joseph's fought back and scored when Saumier connected on a pass from Maurice Leboeuf. The second period was scoreless but did not lack in excitement. Fast skating, hard checking and brilliant goal-tending were characteristic of both teams. In the final period St. Joseph's made an arduous attempt to score but the spectacular goal-tending of Arthur McIntyre was invulnerable At the fourteen minute mark of the third period, a very well placed pass by Ronald Tremblay to Marc Lefebvre accounted for the third goal of Notre Dame and last in the game. Once again special mention should go to Arthur McIntyre, the Notre Dame goaler. Arthur was outstanding in the game and provided the crowd with many thrills. He is one of the key figures in the "newly formed" Notre Dame team, under the direction of their head coach and general manager, Mr. Douglas McKenna.

EVENING ACTIVITIES

The first event was the judging of the Masquerade costumes. Once again, Notre Dame was victorious with Lynda and Arlene McCallum receiving first prize. Their red velvet majorette costumes and batons were most attractive.

Further elimination races were held and the fast skating of Brenda Saumier and Sheila McIntyre obtained first place for Notre Dame.

Next was the girls' hockey game which perhaps drew more attention than the boys' game. Although it lasted for only fifteen minutes, the excitement and ardor which the girls of the French High School and English High School provided, will be long lasting. Credit should go to these young ladies who bravely took to the ice without proper hockey equipment.. Bumps and bruises resulted but were soon forgotten. The final score was 3 to 1 in favour of the French girls. The "Pocket Rocket" of the night was Miss Nicole Robidoux who scored all three goals for her team.

The St. Joseph's boys took to the ice once again in the evening. Their opponents were the Alumni, who managed to overpower the boys and defeated them by a score of 4 to 3.

The finale to a wonderful day was held at the Huntingdon Chateau. The teachers of St. Joseph's School invited all organizers, teachers and school commissioners to a buffet. A delicious meal was served and all present enjoyed themselves immensely.

Ormstown High School Notes

by DARLENE BURTON

On Tuesday, February 5th, Ormstown and Huntingdon Senior Boy's Hockey Teams met in Ormstown. The final score was 4-3 for Huntingdon. Scoring for Ormstown were Doug Marshall 2, Ian Nussey 1.

The Senior Girls' Hockey Team played their first game in Howick defeating their opponents 5-2. Scorers were Linda French 2, Carol Hughes, Diane Bryson and Janet Cavers each one.

Reports were distributed last Wednesday with some sighs of relief and disappointment. A word to the wise — approximately 90 days of school left.

The Students' Council would like to invite all High School Students to a Beatnik — Hobo Dance. Prizes are to be given for the best male and female costumes.

Successful Carnival Held At Dewittville Saturday Evening

Last week-end the Dewittville Rink was the scene of considerable activity. On Friday evening a hockey game between Franklin and Dewittville intermediate boys was held. The visiting Franklin team were victorious winning the game by a score of 5-1. On Saturday afternoon an Ormstown Pee Wee team, composed of boys from 8 to 10 years of age, accompanied by their coaches, Messrs. Donald McEwen and Vernon Ouimet, played a game against the Dewittville Pee Wees. Again the local boys were beaten by a score of 7-0. However, the Dewittville boys appreciated very much these opportunities for some friendly competition and our aspiring young hockey players are determined to work hard to improve their game and make a better showing next time.

On Saturday evening a very successful carnival sponsored by the Dewittville Women's Institute, was held. The weatherman co-operated very well providing ideal carnival weather. Sounds of music and the happy voices of children filled the crisp night air when about 75 children in their colored costumes paraded onto the rink. Mr. Roland Greenbank acted as master of ceremonies and in his usual capable manner organized the races and later acted as referee for the broomball game. The masquerade judges, Miss Winnie Rowles, Mrs. Dorothy Catto and Mrs. Stanley Ruddock, had a difficult task awarding prizes in the various classes.

The prize list reads as follows:

Due to the generosity of Mr. Mac Smellie, who very kindly loaned us his house trailer, the members of the Institute did a very brisk business selling hot chocolate, coffee, doughnuts and hot dogs throughout the evening.

After the judging of the costumes, races were held for the children and the winners were the following:

Rounding out the evening's entertainment, a lively broomball game took place between two teams entered by Captains Harold McCaig and Royce Ruddock ending in a two-all tie. Finally, there was skating for all.

We wish to extend a sincere vote of thanks to all those who attended and to everyone who worked to make the carnival such a success.

Howick High School Holds Ice Carnival

Although the second annual Carnival had to be postponed one day due to weather conditions, a large number of pupils and parents turned out to enjoy the excitement of Carnival Night at Howick High School.

The first of the special events was the selection of Carnival King and Queen from the large group in costume. Jane Stuckey was chosen queen and a scarcely recognizable Richard Turner was crowned king. There were skating races for all ages from five to fifteen; the final ice activity was a fiercely contested broomball game between members of the staff and members of the Student Council. Despite numerous cries of anguish from "barked shins", neither side managed to score a goal.

The Carnival moved in doors for the balance of the evening. The winners received prizes, and all the guests enjoyed the hot chocolate and other refreshments. The dancing continued until 12:00 a.m.

A sincere vote of thanks is in order for Milton Reddick and his committee; this group organized and carried through a very enjoyable program.

QUEEN OF THE CARNIVAL

Swimming Pool Project Is Off To A Start — Further Planning To Be Done

The meeting called to discuss the matter of a swimming pool for Huntingdon and held at the office of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd., on Monday evening, was very well attended.

Called by the committee of the Soft Drink Fund of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd., and Model Dye Works for the purpose of discussing the possibility of having a swimming pool in Huntingdon for the use of the whole community, the project seemed to stir interest. The Soft Drink Committee had most generously offered to donate funds for the project.

Mr. R. L. Tinker opened the meeting by stating that it was an impromptu meeting by the employees of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. and Model Dye Works for the purpose of getting a swimming pool and possibly leading to other sports activities. The plan at present was particularly for the summer. The pool if built, would be fully supervised and it could mean that a full time manager and assistants would have to be employed. Thus it would have to be maintained on a full time basis. The fund which the Soft Drink Committee has on hand would be to benefit the employees and their children and the whole town.

Mr. Tony Guerin, one of the members of the Soft Drink Fund Committee, then took over the meeting to explain what had been done to determine the possible cost. He said the plan was to have a swimming pool and a recreation centre. The possible cost of a swimming pool which would included a wading pool and necessary dressing rooms, exclusive of the land required, would be between $25,000 and $30,000. Such a pool would be large enough to accommodate 1,000 families and would be about half the size of an Olympic pool. It would be an L-shape with part for diving and part for swimming. A price for such a project had been obtained and this was $30,000, but other prices could be obtained once the idea of the project had been accepted and the decision made to go ahead with the plan.

At this point Mr. Guerin spoke about a site and said that Cleyn & Tinker had something in mind regarding this and asked Mr. Tinker to give the explanation. Mr. Tinker said that the company had several lots of land about the town and it was felt that the project should be in town. The company was therefore prepared to lease a piece of land on the south side of the river and which was situated immediately behind the Leach Textiles apartments on Fairview Road. This piece of land would measure about 200 x 200 feet and it is possible that as the need required it, more land could be obtained in the same vicinity as the company owned a large area. The land would be leased by the company on a lease for 99 years at a rental of $1. per year. The company would not sell the land.

In order to do business, Mr. Tinker suggested that an organization should be set up and registered under a non-profit organization and obtain a charter. With such registration and elected officers to administer the organization, it could then enter into negotiations to take over the land if needed to borrow money.

It was then disclosed that the sum of money available from the Soft Drink Fund at the present time is $12,000. As the project would need $18,000. to complete, this amount would have to be raised in some way. In addition it would be necessary to raise the amount required to operate and maintain the pool each year. A suggestion was made that the capital amount could be borrowed and paid back over a period of years. In such case the Soft Drink Fund is prepared to make repayment of the sum borrowed. It would then be expected that the various organizations agreeing to join in on the project would be responsible for raising the amount of money required to operate each year. It was felt that this sum would be about $7,000. per year.

It was further suggested that in order to get the organization going that a Board be named to administer the project. In this it was felt by the Soft Drink Committee that as they were the main financial interest, that they should have four directors on the Board and that the total number be seven, the other three to be named by other associations.

Also suggested was that if required, a fee would be charged families other than mill employees wishing to use the pool and this money be used for the operation of the pool. Donations from the other organizations would also be needed to keep the project floating.

Mayor Lefebvre was asked if the Town of Huntingdon would participate by giving some assistance. He replied that he did not know what the Town might be prepared to do, but thought it probable it would be willing to supply water for the pool. He would take the matter up at the next Council meeting and see what could be done.

After some discussion as to the feelings of the representatives present from other organizations, it was decided that each would go back to their own organization and discuss the matter on what had been gleaned from this meeting. They would then try to arrive at what each of their organizations would be willing to do to assist the project and toward forming an association to operate it.

It was felt that the plan is a good one and the idea is to work towards construction of the pool with a view to having it operate this summer.

The meeting adjourned and will meet again at the same place and hour on Thursday, February 28th.

Representatives were present at this meeting from the following —Huntingdon Board of Trade; Huntingdon Rotary Club; Royal Canadian Legion; Ladies Auxiliary of the Canadian Legion; Knights of Columbus; United Church; Huntingdon High School; St. Joseph School; Huntingdon Playground Association; Sacred Heart League; Maple Leaf Grange; St. Joseph's Church; Soft Drink Fund Committee; Daughters of Isabella; Huntingdon Town Council, Lacordaire Society and others.

Any other organizations wishing to learn more about the project are invited to attend the next meeting. However, they should come prepared to state what they would be willing to do to assist in the matter.

The Sick Committee also reported a number of parcels and cards which had been sent to shut-ins during the months of December and January.

The final results of the Polio Campaign were not yet to hand but it was felt that the campaign had been most successful and that a sum of $1,100 would be achieved, if not surpassed. The Committee was sorry to hear that Mrs. Brodie Gardiner was in the hospital. Mrs. Gardiner had done yeoman work collecting for the March of Dimes in the Dundee area, and good wishes were expressed for her speedy recovery. At this time it was decided the Ladies Auxiliary should make a donation of $10.00 to the Polio Campaign.

Two members expressed their willingness to attend a meeting to be held on Monday evening, in connection with a proposed swimming pool for the town of Huntingdon.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mr. David Watson, President of the Huntingdon Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion, presented Mrs. Winnifred Napier with a Past President's Badge. In making the presentation Mr. Watson commented that the Badge had been well earned; Mrs. Napier had always been a willing and hard worker in connection with many projects during the past year.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary is scheduled to be held on the 7th March and all members are urged to attend.

Some discussion took place regarding staff and it was decided to adjourn the meeting until Wednesday, February 13th, when more time can be devoted to this subject.

The Ormstown W.I. met on February 5th at the home of Mrs. Younie. A good representation of members were present, also two visitors. After the usual opening, the roll call showed that all the right hand neighbours were wonderful people.

The following committees were appointed:

Program — Mrs. E. Marshall, Mrs. A. K. English and Mrs. A. McNeil.

Nominating — Mrs. E. McKell, Mrs. Rember and Miss K. Murphy.

Conveners reported on:

Agriculture — Mrs. R. Ovans gave pointers on how to keep from death by carbon monoxide gas.

Home Economics—Mrs. Kilgour on natural grown foods compared with artificially produced food.

Education — Mrs. Rember spoke on Public Speaking also teaching machines, compared with living teachers.

Citizenship Items — by the president, Mrs. A. McNeil.

An interesting item held over from the January 3rd meeting which took place at Mrs. Kilgour's home was the program by a Huntingdon teacher, Miss Jean Arthur, who spoke on mental retardation among children. She was well informed about these unfortunate children, having taken a summer course at Macdonald College on this subject, also had worked with these children in the "Children's Memorial Hospital".

As part of her talk she demonstrated useful articles that can be made by these children. After much time spent making them, the child gets a great deal of satisfaction, but patience and plenty of understanding is needed by the teacher.

A suggestion was given that the W.I. might be of great help in getting a fully qualified teacher to work with the children, who are found in all schools.

All present were much enlightened on this subject and many thanks were extended to the speaker.

My Thanks

I do wish to thank the many people who called me about the article in my column last week on the blind budgie, in one of our department stores. I especially want to thank Mrs. Lunn of Chateauguay Heights, and Mrs. Millar of Colonia for their warm remarks. The condition of this bird was made known to the manager and it is now removed from the store. I do hope it is not left in some dark corner and forgotten.

Red Anchor Rover Crew

Ian Reilly who was just invested as a squire into the Red Anchor Crew will soon be invested as a full Rover. The Crew will be taking a short trip to the Champlain Valley this Spring. They are making the final plans now.

Vanguard Senior Troop

Last Friday evening, Mr. John L'Ecuyer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, accepted an invitation from the Vanguard Troop. Mr. L'Ecuyer, an electrician, demonstrated a few things to do with radios, televisions and record players. Riki Stanford was pleased to find out what was wrong with his record player and John MacLean found out how to fix his radio. They both brought down their instruments for the occasion. Ross Grant found out he had a dead battery in his portable radio. We all thank Mr. L'Ecuyer very much for his co-operation and his demonstration on electronics.

Pathfinder Troop

Mr. Carr, the new assistant Scout Master led the troop in a new game. The game was called French Poodle and was patterned on similar line to that of British Bulldog. The exception being that the man running through the wall of scouts is tied with two clove hitches around the legs. It is a new twist and I'm sure it might be picked up by the other troops very soon.

To get down to real news, Ron Davidson of the Heights and Wesley Morris of West End were made Assistant Patrol Leaders. February 9th saw four of the six assistant patrol leaders at Lake Placid and Saranac. The assistants were sort of left out because they coudn't and didn't attend the Patrol Leaders Banquet on February 2nd. They enjoyed themselves on this trip and thank the drivers. The boys who attended were: Bruce Oliver, Ron Davidson, Wesley Morris and Ross Murdoch.

Last Sunday, February 10, Brian Walsh, Riki Stanford, Ross Grant, Kevin Barrett and Wayne Dombroski took a short trip to Rouses Point or rather to Fort Montgomery which is one mile from the Point. We visited the site because this is the spot where the Mohawk and Pathfinder troops camped last May 25th to May 27th. We arrived at about 11.30 a.m. and had a small snack of Bovril. We all returned satisfied with the busy day and we thank Mr. Crepeault for the transportation.

Odds and Ends

Don't forget that the St. Andrew's Group Father and Son banquet is this coming Friday. Mr. Maurice Richard, "The Rocket", will be the guest speaker. The theme for Boy Scout Week this year will be a "Salute to Scouting Round the World" and between February 17th and 24th more than 300,000 cubs, scouts, rovers and adult volunteer leaders will observe the week surrounding the February 22nd birthday anniversary of Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Scout Movement.

Scout Good Turn

French Scouts are sponsoring a blood donor clinic at the Cherrier School, 3655 St. Hubert St. in Montreal, between 2 and 5.30 p.m. and between 7 and 9.30 p.m. February 21st. Authorities of the English Scouts of Montreal urge their members to help their French-Speaking colleagues.

Congratulations to ADC Condé Crépeault who was appointed a member of the National Training Team at the Provincial Council meeting on January 19th where he was presented with the certificate of Assistant Deputy Camp Chief and the third Gilwell Bead.

RECIPE EXCHANGE CORNER

PEANUT BUTTER CRUNCH

Melt ½ cup white sugar

½ cup corn syrup in a double boiler (or on low heat if not using the double boiler).

entatives at the United Church Quiet Day held recently. All the others attending were Guide Leaders. Our District has set a good example which will be followed by many next year we hope.

No Patrol Leader Conference This Year

In the December Newsletter which is sent to Scoutmasters, letters were enclosed for the PL's asking their suggestions for the Annual PL's Conference. Only about 5 Patrol Leaders out of approximately 75 in our district have sent in a reply. The last three conferences were quite successful but the response was very disappointing this year. We know for a fact that several Scoutmasters did not even bother to give the letters to the PL's. In view of the lack of cooperation we are therefore cancelling the Conference and furthermore it is our intention to cancel any other district events such as Camporee, Cub Rally, Scouters' Meetings, etc when no interest is shown by the scouters concerned. (The above is an excerpt from Scoutmaster's Corner). Take it from me the scouts enjoy these events and I thought it might be of interest to them to read it.

That is all for this week, but remember if you have the urge to see your name in print give me a call at 692-6113 and tell me about it.

Remove from heat and add 1 cup peanut butter and a drop of vanilla.

Mix well and then pour over the corn flakes. (Use 5 to 6 cup corn flakes).

It is wise to grease your hands with butter in order to mix it well as it is rather hard to do it with a spoon.

Spread on a greased 8 x 8 pan and when cool cut in squares.

A reminder to any of you who planted bulbs indoors-now is the time to bring them out into the light. By now the roots will be well established and pale shoots should be up an inch or two above the surface. Bring them into a bright but not sunny room where the temperature can be maintened around 55 F. After the shoots have turned green, increase the light, but try to keep the temperature down to 60 F. The bloom will not last if you force the bulb.

Hyacinths sometimes get stuck and need to have their stems stretched by placing a paper cone over the pot. Cut off the tip of the cone and the plant will reach for the light.

That's all for this week, folks. Don't forget your comments or hints or recipes are always welcome. The number is still 692-9272.

Notes From The Police Blotter

Raoul Lefebvre, age 26, Huntingdon, Que., was arrested in town on February 2nd, on a charge of impaired driving. He appeared in Valleyfield Court and was fined $50 and his driving permit was suspended for three months.

NITRO NEWS

(Mrs. E. St. Onge)

Old friends and neighbours of Mr. and Mrs. Leo St. Onge and family, who used to live on Robb St., were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden death of Mr. St. Onge last Saturday evening. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family.

Nitro Guides and their leaders, Mrs. Leslie Champ and Mrs. Armand Cyr, had been very busy getting ready for their Valentine Tea which was held at the Protestant Church last Saturday afternoon, but it is just too bad that so many people in Nitro couldn't also have gotten as busy as they altho in a very different way! It doesn't take long to change from a house dress to a "Sunday - go - to - meeting" dress, powder your nose and put a dab of lipstick on, grab your hat and coat and then hie yourself out to encourage the Guides!!!!!! Or the Sponsors of any other good cause. Goodness only knows we don't expect a full course meal at a Tea but we can at least show our interest in it —in this case — the girls who will take our places in the years to come.

We are all sorry to hear of the nasty accident Mrs. Tommy Hughes had last week. She and Master Thomas paid a Birthday visit to her aunt and coming down the the stairs to take a taxi home, Kathie slipped and fell down three stairs. She broke her leg in three places, the shin bone being badly splintered which requires an operation this week. The taxi driver took her to a hospital then took Thomas home. Luckily, Kathryn was home to look after him but she never thought to ask the driver just which hospital he had taken her mother, so there were a number of frantic phone calls made before she was found!

Just a year ago Saturday, Betty MacDonald became Mrs. Bruce Dingwall. This ceremony was performed in The Anglican Church in Beauharnois, By Rev. John Hall of Valleyfield, as St. Marks Church at that time was only a name, being not long after the fire. So we begin with wishing these two a happy First Anniversary. Sunday afternoon, which was also the tenth day of February was another happy day for Betty and Bruce and close friends. That afternoon at 3 o'clock their little son was baptized in the new church. This was the first Baptism in the new building also the first time Rev. Hall had had a baptism on the first anniversary of a couple whom he had married. The wee one was given the names Dale Bruce, his Godparents are Betty's sister Norma and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lavigueur. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Elson and yours truly were the only others present at the church but a little group of relatives and close friends gathered at the Lavigueur home for a visit after. Bruce had been posted out West so we all made the most of a visit with he and Betty — and Baby Dale — before they leave.

A baby daughter arrived via Valleyfield Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Ferland, early last Saturday morning. Congratulations to this happy family.

We were sorry to learn Pauline Roy had been a patient in hospital again but seems to be responding to treatment. This little Miss has had her share of illness these past few months so now we are hoping she will soon be well and strong again.

Rather cold weather last week with thermometers reading 24 below!!!

Among birthdays celebrated last week were a first one for Master Rolland Czech, and other celebrations for Sharron McKissock, Susan Boudreau, David Burke and Yvonne Forget. Hope you all had a Happy Birthday.

Mrs. Maither was pleasantly surprised on Saturday, to have a visit from old residents of Nitro, now of Ottawa, Mr. and Mrs. Card.

HELLO THERE

A Happy St. Valentine's Day to you all and especially to all the youngsters who take great pleasure in exchanging Valentines with their playmates.

BIRTHDAY WISHES

A belated happy birthday goes out to Loretta Ellis of St. Leon who was five years old on Sunday, February 10th.

A very happy birthday to one of our Lucky Club Members, namely Geoffroy Bache of St. Leon Street. Geoffrey will be 11 years old on February 13th.

GOOD NEWS

It was good to hear that come St. Valentine's Day, young Christina Vireck of St. Andre will have her cast removed and then no doubt she will be able to walk without the aid of crutches.

Congratulations to Donna Wilkes of St. Andre and Lynn Fabio of Ethier Street. These two young ladies were enrolled in the 6th Brownie Pack on Wednesday evening, February 6th.

Our two young Irish Colleens on Ethier Street, Frances and Marie Kavannagh, spent a very enjoyable day Sunday, February 10th. The Clann na Gael Irish Dance Group of which they are members, put on a concert for the St. Barbara's Parish in LaSalle, after the Father and Daughter Breakfast. I hear that the Clann na Gael Group will be putting on a St. Patrick's Day concert in Chateauguay early in March. Just as soon as final plans have been completed we will let you know all the details.

SYMPATHY

Sincerest sympathy is extended to Mrs. E. Hayden of St. Leon Street on the loss of her mother who passed away last week.

WOMEN'S AUXILIARY

Don't forget ladies the next meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Lachine General Hospital, Chateauguay Branch, takes place on Tuesday, Feb. 19, at 10 a.m. at 53 St. Leon Street. Why not plan to attend and bring along a friend. Don't forget Mothers your children are welcome too.

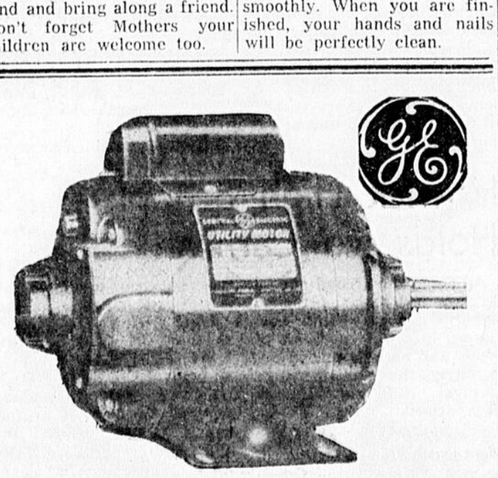

HANDY HINTS FOR THE HOMEMAKER

If the zipper on a garment has become balky, lubricate the metal teeth (but avoid smearing the fabric) by rubbing them lightly with beeswax.

First aid for scorches — If an article is scorched during ironing, dampen a clean cloth with three percent hydrogen peroxide about the size of the area of the stain. Place this cloth over the stain, iron over it and the stain should disappear.

Do not dry any foam-rubber product over direct heat or in the dryer: this has been known to cause fires due to the oxidization of the foam rubber.

When applying paste wax to floors or furniture encase your hand holds the bag in vegetable bag (preferably one with no holes). The heat of your hand holds the bay in place and spreads the wax smoothly. When you are finished, your hands and nails will be perfectly clean.

Letter To The Editor

IN THE SWIM OF THINGS

It used to be said that the Town of Huntingdon was behind the times, that the people could not work together because there were too many cliques and each pulled against the other. Over the past couple of years things have changed and the town has pulled off a few projects that show with a little leadership things can be done. Look at the War Memorial Arena, the Christmas Lighting, the Merchants Huntingdon Plaza. In all these projects there was a getting together of minds for the betterment of the community. Maybe at one time we were behind the times but, now we are catching up.

An example of this was a meeting held Monday evening at the office of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd., to discuss a project which has been a necessity in our town for quite some time. It has been proposed by the Soft Drink Fund Committee of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. and Model Dye Works Ltd. that a Swimming Pool, complete with Diving and Wading Area, could be built for the use of the people of the town. This project would cost in the neighbourhood of $30,000.00. This is a lot of money but, the Committee presently have on hand $12,000.00 which they could be willing to use to get this project off the ground. Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. have stated that they would be willing to lease a piece of land west of the Leach Apartments on Fairview Road, for one dollar a year for a period of 99 years.

Here we have two organizations who, through their generosity have given a dream of many people in this town a sense of reality. One would give up land that is valuable for building, or if sold could bring a nice profit, the other would be offering an accumulation of funds saved over the years, nickel by nickel, from the profits of Soft Drink Machines in the Mills.

With leadership like this, every organization, every person, should get in the swim of things and make sure that this project is carried through. Other things could have been done with this money but, through the unselfishness of the Soft Drink Committee of Cleyn & Tinker & Model Dye Works Ltd. the money will be used for the benefit of the whole community.

At Monday evening's meeting, representatives from nearly all the local organizations were told that the operating cost of the Swimming Pool, would be about $7,000.00 each year once, it is built. This money would have to be raised by charging admission or by selling season passes at so much per family, unless other local organizations could, through the knowledge gained by their representatives at this meeting, pledge themselves to pay as their treasury would allow, an amount each year to cover the operating cost. If this could be done no admission would have to be charged and no one would be turned away when they came to swim.

It's all up to us now whether we sink or swim, if you are called to a meeting concerning this project in an organization to which you belong follow the leadership of Cleyn & Tinker Ltd. and their employees, give until it hurts, get in the swim of things.

Jon Proudfoot,
Huntingdon.

HEY! — Look At The Hay!

We often see huge loads of hay heading for the U.S. border and down-state, but seldom, if ever, a load as big as the one on J. H. Williams' truck, above. Stanley Hamilton, Athelstan, standing nearest the cab, bought the timothy and clover from farmers in Chateauguay County and Jimmy Cavanagh, driver for Harold Williams, trucked it to Athelstan. The load above weighed over eight tons and part of it, built over the tailgate of the truck, cannot be seen in this picture. Mr. Hamilton has purchased a number of loads like the one pictured here.

Rotary Club Boys' Public Speaking Contest

Huntingdon Rotarians met on Monday at noon for their weekly luncheon meeting at The Chateau Huntingdon. Rotarians Jon Proudfoot and Richard Tinker advised fellow members that tickets for the Mardi Gras party are available. Dr. James Seagers, B. Sc. M. Sc., Ph. D., of Sturge Limited Valleyfield, was the guest speaker. Dr. Seagers told of his experiences as a member of the Duke of Edinburgh Second Commonwealth Study Conference on the Human Consequences of the Changing Environment in the Commonwealth and Empire, Canada 1962. He said this was sometimes irreverently known as the "Duke's Do". Because of lack of space in this issue and because we wish to give our readers a complete account of Dr. Seagers' interesting report, we are holding the details until our next issue. Dr. Seagers emphasized that he believed the future of the British Commonwealth depended greatly on the continued efforts of the Duke and said he was a dynamic man with great personality.

Rotarian Mac Brockman reported that he had dispatched invitations to High Schools in the area with regard to the Rotary Club of Montreal Boys' Public Speaking Contest. $1000. in scholarships and prizes, awards to all contestants and a Rotary Shield to the winning school are offered in the 1963 Contest.

The preliminary contest will be held before the Huntingdon Rotary Club on Monday, March 4th, at 12.30, when the local Rotary Club will give cash awards to the winners and smaller cash awards to each competitor.

The following is the letter written to High Schools in the area and as more details become known, and the names of the schools and students wishing to participate are received, they will be published in The Gleaner.

Howick Ladies Play In Lady Tweedsmuir Trophy Games At Ottawa

Last week the weather grew stormier, and temperatures sank lower and lower, but tension mounted higher and higher as eight lady curlers made plans to visit Ottawa Rideau Curling Club and Government House. Curling to a farmer's wife is just another part of a day which is tied up with getting children away to school, cleaning mending, cooking — and assisting with barnyard chores.

A real summer holiday seldom comes their way, so winter curling keeps Mom happy on the farm. However when they defeat the local contenders in the Lady Tweedsmuir; then the August Royal Montreal eightsome, and suddenly find Ottawa comes next — life gets hectic.

Mrs. G. Roy representing L.C.A.; and Mrs. W. G. Brown, President of Howick Ladies Curling Club accompanied the two rinks to Ottawa, and the husbands also were invited to attend the game and visit Government House.

Our ladies looked very smart in their new gold sweaters, with dark slacks, and the husbands heard many admiring comments from the throngs of Ottawa fans. A radio reporter made similar comments.

The opposing rinks represented the Ottawa Granite Club, and after a closely contested game, they emerged winners of the Lady Tweedsmuir Trophy by a combined score of 24-19. The Howick ladies lost the games but President Agnes Brown reports she was proud of them and they were a credit to the club in every way.

A delightful tea was held at the Rideau Club following the game, when our curlers became better acquainted with their friendly and charming opponents.

On Friday they were given reserved seats for the finals of the Governor General's Trophy, all of whom were entertained at Government House that evening.

This proved to be a very informal and happy affair. His Excellency the Governor General had injured his right arm and could not shake hands. It was announced that he would be seated and anyone could speak to him. His wife, Madame Vanier mingled with the guests, and a word to her aide-de-camp, brought an introduction and opportunity to speak.

The ballroom, with gold drapes, paintings and crystal chandeliers, was a beautiful sight. A buffet table the length of the ballroom was laden with delicious foods which everyone enjoyed.

Soon they had to be out in the storm again, headed for Howick. The drive home was an unpleasant experience. Howick was the end of the road for some of them, but President Agnes Brown rolled out the red carpet and entertained three extra guests over night.

Eight tired but happy lady curlers will not forget this unexpected but thrilling visit to the Rideau Curling Club and Government House. We congratulate them on their achievement.

RICH Bonspiel

A clear crisp Saturday, following a stormy Friday, proved to be excellent weather for the 11th annual RICH bonspiel, which is probably one of the most informal and enjoyable events of the curling season. Play started at 9.30 a.m. and continued until 6.30 p.m., when 14 rinks had finished the 10 end game required to qualify for the final play off. Vera Stewart and Muriel E. Ness skipped the two rinks with the highest percentage, and played the final game at 8 p.m. before a crowded house, the main event being won by the Stewart rink, with Ellen King, Joan Cole and Audrey Cluff.

The clubrooms had been decorated for the occasion with hearts and valentines. The Valentine of the day, Mrs. Rich, was present for lunch and the afternoon and appropriately enough, was celebrating her birthday. Happy birthday was sung and a greeting card signed by everyone present.

As usual, old friends were there from Aubrey, Riverfield, Montreal and Howick, who plan to be present at this annual event. Mrs. Andrew Allen, Mrs. Ewart Orr, Mrs. Andrew Carruthers, Mrs. J. R. Younie, Mrs. Husband, and other plate glass skips; while Mrs. W. Allen, Mrs. Margaret Angell and Mrs. Maude Gruer continued as active skips. 40 years ago Mrs. Angell walked up the ice, now she wears slacks — and runs!

President Agnes Brown, in her usual kindly humorous manner, welcomed everyone, and thanked the match and kitchen committees for what they had done to make the day so successful and enjoyable.

The silver tray was presented to Mrs. R. Stewart and her rink by the President, and they selected prizes of curling salts and peppers. The consolation prizes received by Mrs. Douglas Ness and her rink were dainty cups and saucers.

Delicious refreshments were served to all the curlers and friends who were present.

The Howick branch of the Red Cross held their meeting in Howick Curling Rink Club room, on February 4th. Two quilts were tacked and 13 members attended. Our objective for next year is $700 The bed, wheel chair and other articles are all out on loan. Next meeting March 4th, there is to be quilting.

W.I. Meeting

The Howick W.I. met on Tuesday February 5th, at the home of Mrs. Steeves and her sister Mrs. Grass. Mrs Bruce Ness, 1st Vice-President, presided. After the regular opening and roll call a number of items of business were attended to.

The coming demonstration on hat making and cooking was discussed. This will be held during the second week in March and is open to all who care to come. The public speaking contest will be held in the High School during Education Week. We also decided to renew our subscription to Federated News.

The guest speaker was Dr Ubar, who came to this country two years ago from Istanbul, Turkey, and who is at present on the staff of the Barrie Memorial Hospital.

He was introduced by Mrs. Archie Peddie. As Turkey is a country that we do not hear too much about a great many questions were asked especially about the Turkish women, education and customs. Dr. Ubar said that the population of Turkey was around 30 million people and they were 99% of the Moslem faith.

The Government places very high taxes on cars, as much as $2,000 being put on cheaper cars. Car parts are brought into the country and assembled in Turkey. Taxis do a thriving business because of this. When Turkish women marry, they give up their gainful employment and concentrate on home making. The speaker pointed out that in Turkey the man was the head of the house and decided all major issues.

Some time ago all Turkish women never went out publicly without having their faces veiled, but this custom has been discarded. Methods of cooking food in Turkey differs greatly, from Canadian methods. Olive oil is used mainly for frying. Electrical equipment is not too plentiful while canned vegetables are not popular.

The speaker was thanked by Mrs. Roy Younie for this most enjoyable and informative talk.

Refreshments were served by the Chateauguay and English River groups.

Mrs. Lawrence Towns, Pres., opened the meeting with 14 members present. Roll call was "Superstitions".

Mrs. Leo Lewis gave a financial report which is most favourable.

A letter from Miss Ruth Runnells was read, Miss Runnells is a Technician from Macdonald College who is available this year to give courses on various subjects. This was tabled until next meeting.

Conveners reports were given as follows. Lime as a soil fertility. Education — forthcoming Public Speaking at Franklin Centre with the finals at Hemmingford in March. Home Economics — Many interesting hints on baking and cooking features. Welfare and Health — Flowers and scents are a help to invalids and do wonders for patients in hospital or in sickrooms.

Mrs. Towns presented the following nominating committee: Mrs. P. Baxter, Mrs. Carl Jackson and Mrs. Frank Rowe. Programme Committee being Mrs. Leo Lewis, Mrs. H. Frier and Mrs. H. Reid.

A card from Mrs. Middlemiss County President was read.

The committee appointed to approach the school board regarding the erection of a school fence, brought back a very encouraging report to the meeting.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned on the motion of Mrs. P. Baxter.

A cookie contest then followed. Prizes were awarded to the winners, Mrs. Howard Blair and Mrs. Keith Dickenson. Coffee and delicious refreshments were then served by the hostesses.

Mr. Lloyd Bruce of Montreal accidently broke his leg on Saturday at his father's home while walking from the road to the house. His foot slipped down into a bank of snow and his leg broke between the knee and ankle. He is at present in the Barrie Memorial Hospital.

Three of Mrs. Sherrington's piano pupils took Toronto Conservatory piano exams recently at Victoria Hall, Montreal. Louise Tremblay took Grade II while Diane McNiece and Pixie Sherrington took Grade III. Mrs. Sherrington took the Grade VIII exam. Results will not be known for about two weeks. These exams may be taken in mid-winter or in June and several other pupils of Mrs. Sherrington plan to take the June exam.

Mrs. Christine Sherrington was a delegate to the "Music Workshop" St. Lambert on Saturday, Feb. 9th. This was held to help instruct teachers of music, especially teachers of school choirs. English classes were conducted by Gifford Mitchell, Supervisor of Music in the schools of Greater Montreal, and French classes by George Little, Director of the Montreal Bach Choir. Delegates from more than 20 municipalities of the South Shore including Howick, Hemmingford, Huntingdon, Dundee and Beauharnois were present.

The sessions were very inspiring and instructive. Mr. Mitchell gave a demonstration music lesson to a Grade IV class and spoke on the subject of the importance of children getting instruction in Tonic Solfa, reading music and singing.

WEDDING
DUBOIS - TOWNS

On Saturday, Jan. 26, 1963, the marriage of Barbara Helen Towns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Towns, Franklin Centre and Raymond Bruce Dubois, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Dubois of Montreal, took place in the Franklin United Church. Rev. Lorree officiated, assisted by Mr. Douglas Markle, student minister. Mr. Herbert Clarke was organist and the ushers were Mr. Ross Dubois, brother of the groom and Mr. Gordon Hayball, cousin of the bride.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white brocaded floor length gown with finger tip veil and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only attendant was her sister Carol, who wore an apple green brocaded dress with shoes and veil to match and carried a bouquet of yellow and white mums. Mr. Garry Chassée was best man.

Following the reception, which was held in the Franklin Intermediate School Auditorium, the couple left for Ottawa.

The members of Ormstown Legion Branch 196 wish to thank Mr. Norval Blair and all his canvassers for their time and effort in the March of Dimes Campaign and to those who gave so generously to help out this worthy cause. They collected $119.90. This certainly will be of benefit to some disabled person in their fight to carry on in life.

Festival d'hiver de l'Ecole Secondaire St-Joseph, Huntingdon

Le Gala sportif de l'E.S.S.J. a eut lieu samedi à l'aréna local, sous la présidence de Mgr J. A. David, Curé et des Membres de la Commission Scolaire.

Un total d'environ 400 concurrents ont pris part à ce Festival.

Une mascarade ouvrait la soirée; de jolis costumes ont obtenu aux deux soeurs Alleen et Linda McCollin le premier prix, à Jacques Lemay, le deuxième prix et au petit D. Leblanc, le troisième prix.

La reine du Festival, sa Majesté Inga Dybka et le Prince Consort, M. Réjean Brais, furent présentés à une assistance record pour Huntingdon, aux applaudissements et aux cris de la foule, enchantée de la beauté et du style de leurs vêtements. Ils étaient ravissants.

Inga fut couronnée au milieu de sa cour, les duchesses: Honora Primeau, Aline Moniqui, Hélène Dorais, Lise Barrette, Nicole Lepage, Diane McIntyre, Sharon Higgins, Noëlla Quesnel. Quelle belle reine!... et quelle personnalité!... Quelle soit félicitée d'avoir été l'heureuse élue, et remerciée d'avoir rempli son rôle avec tant de féminité et de gentillesse. Monique Tardif a fait une jolie et élégante bouquetière.

Le prince Réjean I, élève de 9ème année, s'est acquitté de son rôle avec beaucoup de distinction et d'urbanité. Il a fait honneur à son école et à son groupe.

Le Corps de Musique de l'E.S.S.J. a évolué sur glace, présentant un programme très bien réussi, au son des airs folkloriques qu'ils ont joués avec brio.

Félicitations et remerciements aux officiers et à leur Directeur, M. Tessier, pour l'excellent travail accompli.

Our 'round-the-clock burner service keeps your heating system at peak efficiency

BURNER SERVICE:

Can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use

AN efficiently-operating heating system can save you as much as 2¢ on every gallon of oil you use. We offer you burner service protection to keep your heating system working at peak efficiency.

Even the busiest family car does not put in as many hours of work in a year as the average heating system. Like a car engine, your heating system must be checked regularly, and adjusted when necessary. Otherwise it will waste fuel. Parts will also wear out more quickly.

Our 24 hour burner service guarantees you top performance all winter long. And it saves you money these three important ways:

1. By making sure your burner is cleaned and adjusted for peak efficiency—to give you maximum heat from every gallon of fuel.
2. By catching little troubles before they become big ones. (A small adjustment or repair now may save you many dollars later.)
3. By insuring you against unexpected repair bills—and by keeping your furnace in working order.

Now, with Shell Heating Oil and 24 hour burner service working together, we can take care of all your heating problems.

HUNTINGDON

par PIERRE MENARD

Dans les milieux officiels, on parle beaucoup de ce temps-ci, de la construction d'une nouvelle ECOLE SECONDAIRE REGIONALE dans la ville d'Huntingdon. Tant de débats sur un sujet ne sauraient être le fruit d'une rumeur; on aurait tôt de démentir catégoriquement ces allégations. J'ai donc décidé de m'enquérir de la situation auprès des autorités. Les réponses sont très réservées; on ne voudrait pas précéder dans les déclarations les signatures officielles. Mais si nous analysons tout le travail qui a été fait dans ce sens, nous pouvons être assurés que dans un avenir rapproché, la ville d'Huntingdon sera bel et bien dotée d'une école secondaire régionale pouvant accomoder environ 700 élèves, et qu'elle sera fréquentée dès le début, par plus de 400 élèves de langue française et de langue anglaise. Cette école n'est pas que l'objet de rêves: c'est une nécessité absolue. Si bien que lorsque la Commission Scolaire locale sollicita du gouvernement provincial, l'assistance nécessaire pour la construction d'une école, les locaux actuels étant insuffisants, on leur répondit que leur problème serait résolu par la construction d'une école secondaire régionale conçue et administrée suivant les dernières données du monde moderne.

Mais il fallait d'abord fonder une Commission Scolaire régionale; les 15 municipalités de la région de Valleyfield et d'Huntingdon ont toutes souscrit promptement à cette exigence. Cette Commission sera régie par sept commissaires qui sont sur le point d'être nommés. Les besoins sont toutefois si pressants qu'on n'a pas voulu attendre que les cadres de l'organisme administratif soient fixés pour passer à l'étude du problème. Déjà l'inspecteur du service de l'instruction publique a fait une analyse sur place de la situation, a étudié les possibilités, a fait les constatations et émis ses opinions. On a même arpenté de long en large certains secteurs de la Ville d'Huntingdon capables de résoudre le problème de l'emplacement de l'immeuble pour la région. Les résultats de l'étude sont catégoriques: il faut une école de 60 classes pour la région de Valleyfield et une autre de 20 classes pour la région d'Huntingdon. Les besoins immédiats sont là, et l'économie d'opération exige cette répartition. Les formalités essentielles à la réalisation de ces projets se remplissent à une vitesse vertigineuse. La discrétion des milieux officiels se comprend bien; on ne voudrait pas se compromettre sur des détails. Mais devant tout ce branle-bas, comment pouvons-nous ne pas considérer la construction éventuelle de l'Ecole Secondaire Régionale locale comme un fait certain et très prochain?

Attendrons-nous pour nous préparer à la venue de cette école, que la peinture de l'immeuble soit terminée? Si les besoins scolaires ont grandi à ce point, c'est que tous les autres besoins ont grandi proportionnellement. Une telle expansion produit l'effet d'une boule de neige. La construction d'une école provoque l'immigration d'un personnel enseignant. Les services requis par ces nouveaux citoyens suscitent l'emploi de nouveaux commis dans les magasins, et ainsi de suite. L'économie locale en sera vigoureusement accélérée. Mais il faut bien le comprendre: les dépenses initiales sont payées par le prélèvement des taxes. Nous pouvons bénéficier de la situation sur tous les aspects, mais si nous sommes imprudents, nous pouvons aussi en être victimes. Les dépenses de consommation activent l'économie, mais ce sont les dépenses et les investissements dans la production qui l'alimentent. Les argents qui vont vers l'extérieur doivent revenir dans notre ville par la vente du produit local, par le tourisme ou par les services locaux par l'extérieur. Si nous surveillons bien cet équilibre, les autorités se sentiront à l'aise pour récupérer les fonds nécessaires à leur administration sans proposer d'augmentation de taxes onéreuses à chacun d'entre nous, mais ils pourront plutôt taxer les immeubles nouveaux. La philosophie est simple: aidons-nous à nous aider.

Réjouissons-nous donc des démarches du service de l'Instruction publique et des 15 municipalités de la région: leur apport est essentiel à la formation de nos enfants. Mais surtout, agissons de manière à bénéficier entièrement de cette merveilleuse évolution de notre société.

Votre Ami Pierrot.

Speaking Contest. The preliminary contest will be held before the Huntingdon Rotary Club on Monday, March 4th, at 12.30. The principal or chaperone, as well as the contestant, is invited to have lunch with the members of Rotary. After lunch the various speakers will be heard.

I am enclosing a pamphlet giving particulars of this competition and the details of the prizes that may be won. I might add that the Rotary Club of Huntingdon offers a small monetary prize to each of the contestants participating on March 4th and a larger one to the victor.

Would you please let me know by return mail whether your school intends to enter a candidate or not, and if so, his name. I should appreciate hearing from you at the earliest possible date even though you decide not to compete.

For the March 4th contest there are 12 topics from which to choose; these will be forwarded to you at a later date. In order that conditions may be the same for all candidates you are asked not to reveal these topics until February 27th.

Yours truly,

Commission Scolaire Catholic

La Commission Scolaire Catholique de Huntingdon a tenu son assemblée mensuelle régulière à l'école St-Joseph, mercredi le 6 février avec tous les commissaires présents.

Après approbation des minutes de l'assemblée précédente, la lecture des comptes à payer fut faite par le secrétaire-trésorier; il fut remarqué qu'au cours du mois de janvier des réparations majeures ont été apportées au système de chauffage des deux écoles, St-Joseph et Notre-Dame spécialement aux moteurs des fournaises, ce qui occasionna des dépenses supplémentaires.

Le secrétaire-trésorier a été autorisé par la Commission scolaire à assister, accompagné de deux commissaires, au colloque qui se tiendra à l'Hôtel Queen Elisabeth de Montréal, le 20 février prochain, sur la formation et le fonctionnement des commissions scolaires régionales avec obligation pour le secrétaire-trésorier de faire rapport à la Commission scolaire des débats qui se tiendront à cet endroit.

Le président du syndicat des professeurs et institutrices de Huntingdon, M. Albert Matte, est venu devant la Commission Scolaire discuter de la convention collective à être adoptée pour les deux prochaines années; M. Matte, après une assemblée avec le personnel enseignant, a demandé aux commissaires s'il y aurait possibilité que l'échelle de salaires proposée par la Commission Scolaire à savoir de $3,000.00 jusqu'à concurrence de $4,000.00 soit majorée quelque peu sans préciser de chiffres précis cependant; les commissaires après quelques discussions ont maintenu leur position première, avec une dissidence cependant, celle de M. Adrien St Onge, et ont passé une résolution que l'échelle de salaire de $3,000.00 à $4,000.00 tel que proposé antérieurement avec en plus des suppléments différents selon les diplômes, constituait une augmentation plus que raisonnable; de fait l'augmentation proposée équivaut à environ 25% du salaire actuel.

Sur ces propos, M. Matte a promis de soumettre cette résolution à ses membres et de donner le résultat à la Commission Scolaire très bientôt.

Ce sont sur ces propos que l'assemblée pris fin.

A titre de secrétaire-trésorier, je prends l'opportunité de donner ici quelques chiffres qui intéresseront sans doute la plupart des contribuables; en effet il arrive souvent que demande nous est faite ce qu'il en coûte pour administrer votre Commission Scolaire pour une année; pour l'année fiscale 1962-1963, un budget de l'ordre de $326,000.00 a été préparé et approuvé par votre Commission Scolaire et à date environ $195,000.00 ont déjà été depensés; du budget total, le personnel enseignant qui comprend treize professeurs, vingt-neuf institutrices, douze soeurs de la Congrégation Notre-Dame, coûte $201,100.00; à ce dernier montant il faut toujours ajouter un montant d'environ $1,000.00 payé à des professeurs suppléants.

Le transport coûte environ $26,700.00, pour lequel le Gouvernement contribue 65%.

Cette année, la Commission Scolaire dans le but de fournir les livres de classes gratuitement aux élèves a dû dépenser aux environs de $11,000.00, auquel il faut ajouter les livres de bibliothèque et instruments de laboratoires pour le Cours Secondaire.

Aux dépenses ci-haut mentionnées il faut ajouter toutes les dépenses d'administration tel que: concierges, secrétaire-trésorier, chauffage qui coûte à lui seul environ $7,000.00.

De ce budget de $326,000.00, environ $80,000.00 sont perçus en taxes foncières, $20,000.00 des rétributions mensuelles pour les élèves de l'extérieur et le reste nous vient en octroi de toutes sortes, statutaires ou spéciaux, du Ministère de la Jeunesse.

Tout ceci, messieurs les contribuables dans le but de vous intéresser à la chose scolaire qui prend de plus en plus une importance capitale de nos jours et qui, disons-le aussi, accapare une grande partie des budgets de nos gouvernements actuels.

G. Pilon, Sec.-Trés.

PROJET D'UNE PISCINE A HUNTINGDON

Lundi soir dernier une assemblée avait lieu au bureau de Cleyn & Tinker Ltée, afin de discuter de la possibilité d'avoir une piscine à Huntingdon. Cette assemblée avait été appelée par le comité du Fonds des Liqueurs douces de la compagnie. La plupart des organisations de la ville étaient représentées, y compris, le conseil de la ville de Huntingdon, la Chambre de Commerce, le Club Rotary, le Centre des Loisirs, l'Association de l'Oeuvre des Terrains de Jeux, la Légion Canadienne, l'Ecole Secondaire St-Joseph, le Huntingdon High School, le Maple Leaf Grange, la Ligue du Sacré-Coeur, les Filles d'Isabelle, le Cercle Lacordaire, un membre du clergé de United Church et de l'Eglise catholique.

Le projet tel que proposé par le comité du Fonds des Liqueurs Douces a été énoncé comme suit par MM. Tinker et Guérin.

Un centre récréatif pourrait être érigé qui aurait pour but de pourvoir aux sports d'été des gens de la ville de Huntingdon. Ce projet pourrait débuté par l'aménagement d'une piscine d'une piscine d'une grandeur suffisante pour accommoder 1000 familles. Celle-ci aurait la forme d'un "L" avec une partie pour le plongeon et une pour la nage en plus d'une patatgeuse pour enfants. Le projet comprendrait aussi des cabines pour se changer, des douches, des casiers et le tout clôturé. Le coût approximatif peut se chiffrer dans les 25,000 ou 30,000 dollars.

La compagnie Cleyn & Tinker a indiqué le désir de fournir un terrain d'une grandeur suffisante pour l'aménagement de la piscine avec option d'agrandissement pour finir le centre récréatif. Le terrain suggéré se situe sur la rive sud de la rivière sur le chemin Fairview entre les rues Lorne et Henderson La compagnie ne désirant pas vendre ce terrain le louerait pour une période de 99 ans au montant de $1.00 par année.

Les fonds immédiatement disponibles pour cette fin s'élèvent à $12,000. Vu que le projet de la piscine proprement dit s'élève de $25,000. à $30,000. la balance devrait être empruntée. Ce prêt pourrait être remboursé sur une certaine période avec les revenus du Fonds des Liqueurs Douces. On s'attendrait à ce que les frais administratifs qui peuvent se chiffrer à environ $7,000. par année soient payés par les différentes organisations de la ville. Cependant, les recettes provenant des abonnements de toute personne autre que les employés de la compagnie et leurs familles pourraient défrayer une partie de ces frais.

Pour l'administration de ce projet il serait nécessaire de former une association qui aurait une charte provinciale Sept directeurs seraient nommés comme officiers de l'organisation dont 4 seraient des membres du comité du Fonds des Liqueurs douces vu la grande proportion financière que ce comité apporte à cette entreprise. Les autres membres seraient nommés par les diverses autres organisations.

Une discussion générale s'ensuivit sur la proposition faite. Les représentants du Conseil de Ville ont indiqué qu'ils seraient sympathiques à une demande officielle de la nouvelle association pour aider à défrayer le coût de l'entretien. Les représentants des autres organisations ont indiqué, en principe, leur intérêt dans le projet et ils présenteront la proposition à leurs membres afin de discuter la possibilité de fournir un montant annuel.

La prochaine assemblée se tiendra au même endroit le 28 février à 8:00 P.M.

La Société des Jeunes Auteurs

Lundi dernier, se réunissait dans Huntingdon, un groupe de jeunes gens désireux d'écrire des chroniques, des reportages pour les journaux, des articles variés sur l'histoire de notre région, sur le monde moderne de nos bourgeois, nos ouvriers et nos ménagères etc...

La Société désire promouvoir l'esprit des arts littéraires sous leurs diverses formes et faciliter la publication des diverses oeuvres produites par le talent local. Le principal sujet de la soirée fut, évidemment la rédaction des articles et des nouvelles que nous devrions faire publier dans notre journal: le GLEANER.

Try a quiet moment sometime during your day. It relaxes and helps in so many ways, when we are worried, tired and cares seem to overwhelm us. Here is something to read while you are having a morning coffee or tea at 4 o'clock.

My Moment With God

Dear Father:

You have sent me blessings that I never dreamed would ever come to me. I did not ask you for these because some of them came through suffering, through self-denial, through giving instead of taking. I would not have chosen them for myself and yet, as a result of them, I have grown in love and patience, understanding and maturity.

I'm thankful, dear God, for a wonderful family around me, a neighbour to give a helping hand to, a sick child to visit, an elderly friend to comfort. I'm thankful dear God, that you are infinitely wiser than I am. I'm thankful that you know what is best for me and will lead me in that way.

Amen.

Successful Dance

Social chairman Tony Croft of West End called to report a most successful dance on Saturday Feb. 9th, at the Beauharnois Hall. Sixty people attended and danced to Geo. Leblanc's 4-piece band, obtained through B. Gauthier. Prizes were won by Geo. Gourley, Bill Hulshoff and B. Gauthier. The cases of ale were won by R. Emard and the band.

The anniversary waltz was played for George and Evelyn Rankin who celebrated their 15th.

Mr. Croft would like to convey to Mr. E. P. Belanger who delivered and picked up refreshments purchased from him by the committee; to Frank Legault for the lovely decorations; and to all who helped in any way, his sincere thanks. In April the same band with another 2-pieces have been hired for the dance at the same hall.

Correspondent: MRS. T. L. ELLIOT

It struck me this week that writing for a newspaper is quite similar to talking on radio or television, inasmuch as one doesn't know if anyone is reading what one writes, any more than on the other mediums, one doesn't know if anyone is listening. There are occasions when someone comments on an article and when this happens, it is quite stimulating and makes you feel you are writing for someone other than the editor. This train of thought led me to think of "Plain Talk" which I listen to every morning at 7:50 and this made me wonder if I might be permitted a little "Plain Talk" — I hope the editor will grant permission:

We folks living in a new community are just as much "pioneers" as our ancestors were way back when they first settled in this country, as described in Robert Sellar's History of Chateauguay and the adjoining counties, Beauharnois and Huntingdon. Of course we have many advantages over them, which I feel I don't need to list here, but they certainly make our "pioneering" much easier. Nevertheless it is still pioneering. When people live together in a community, they must do just that, live together. We cannot live a little self conceived life, disregarding our neighbours and our neighbours' children. "Why not?" you may ask. Why not indeed — I always felt that if I looked after my children I was fulfilling my obligation.

Then, when my daughter wanted to continue in Brownies and her Daddy had to drive her to Maple School every week, I realized we needed a Brownie Pack here, and also that someone had to run it and so my own little self-contained life received its first call.

We now have two Brownie Packs and we have a Guide Company. We also have an Explorers Group and the C.G.-I.T., so the girls are fairly well looked after — but these groups can only continue if they are supported by the girls' parents. Now how about our boys of this age group?

A team of fathers are doing a wonderful job by leading them in a sports programme, but how much support are they getting? Once again it depends on the "always faithful few" and there's a limit to what even these people can do. How about all the young lads around here who wish to become Cubs and Scouts? Are you doing your share toward the training of our youth? Remember they are the potential leaders of tomorrow, so we owe it to ourselves to contribute towards their growth and training.

Another thing all pioneer ancestors had to do was establish churches in their new community. It is just the same for us.

Maybe you are not interested in the church and feel you don't need it. I wonder if you think very earnestly for a minute, if you can honestly say that. Perhaps at this moment you feel you have no need for the church, but can you honestly look into your past without seeing a time when you needed the church, and as you look into the future there you see the need again, and, perhaps more important still, the church needs you. The church needs your prayers, your support, your ideas and your strength to enable her to spread the word of God, to spread happiness, love and kindness to those in need and to bring all people into the true light of understanding. The church needs YOU, the PEOPLE, because YOU are the church.

And so, if you have thought that perhaps you may be able to do something to help with the youth leadership in our district, then won't you please act upon your thought — there are so many ways you can help. And if you have thought, "Well really I would like to go to church", then won't you also act upon that thought and go to the church of your choice this Sunday and not allow any of those swaying little excuses to stop you. Thank you Mr. Editor for printing this and thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Subscriber, for reading it.

St. George's Anglican Church

I owe an apology for an incorrect date last week. I am very sorry "Young Mothers", the meeting I mentioned is to be held this Thursday, February 14th, at 8 p.m. in the Church Hall. In addition to the guest speaker, a home economist from Macdonald College, the young mothers are inviting "Young Grandmas" to enjoy the lecture and a Valentine Tea Party.

Rev. John Buck is happy to announce the commencement of a regular service to be held at 11.15 a.m. in addition to the present 9.30 a.m. service. The new pattern of church services as of February 17th is as follows — 8 a.m. every Sunday, Holy Communion; 9.30 a.m. on 1st and 3rd Sundays, Communion; on 2nd and 4th Sundays, Matins. 11.15 a.m. 1st and 3rd Sundays, Matins 2nd and 4th Sundays, Communion. 7.30 p.m. evensong. Please note Sunday School will be conducted for children of all ages at both 9.30 and 11.15 a.m. Due to the extra Sunday School there is naturally a need for more teachers. If you feel you may be able to assist in this capacity, please contact Rev. John Buck, 692-0911, or Mr. Harding, 692-0837, or Mr. Brooks, 692-9726.

Some ladies of the congregation were fortunate in attending the Annual Meeting of the W.A. of the Diocese of Montreal. There were about ten delegates in all, some attending on the Tuesday and some on Wednesday. The meeting opened with a service of communion at 10 a.m. on Tuesday. The theme for the meeting was 'Bear ye one another's burdens'. The principal speaker was Rev. Maurice Wilkinson, chairman of the Social Service Committee. Several guest speakers were present and, at an evening meeting, a discussion took place on Christian family life and Christian education in the home. Speakers at this discussion were Miss Hattie Halborne and Miss Marion Walsh.

Congratulations and very best wishes for a life of happiness and health go to Ronnie Pearson of St. Ferdinand St. who celebrated his 21st birthday last Thursday.

Chateauguay Centre United Church

The Explorer Group is holding a skating and tobogganing party next Friday, following which they will return to the church to see a movie and have refreshments. Mothers, if the weather is too bad then the girls will remain in the church. Mrs. Howie, Chief Councillor, is happy to welcome Mrs. G. Willis and Miss S. Pearson as new helpers. Unfortunately Mrs. Willis is sick in bed at the moment but we hope she'll soon be on her feet again.

GIRL GUIDE NEWS

On Tuesday evening, January 29th following enrolment of Sandra Wilson, Captain Joan Turriff presented second class badges to Vicki Bartram, Betty McKay and Gabrielle Sauerich of the 1st Chateauguay Company.

On Tuesday evening, February 5th following inspection, the guides enjoyed a skating party on the Julius Richardson School Rink and later in the evening gathered around a campfire.

Somewhat of a damper was cast on the party with an unfortunate fall in the school foyer by Pat Douglas who required four stitches to close a bad cut.

Captain Turriff and the girls hope that Pat is now feeling better and they extend good wishes to her.

Congratulations to the Scarlet Tanagers, winners of the Shield for the month of January.

An unfortunate accident during a broomball game at Notre Dame de l'Assomption Rink has sent Ernest Lussier to hospital in serious condition. Ernest, a resident of Blvd. D'Youville, is well know in Chateauguay. He is the husband of the former Simone Dupont and the father of two sons. A spinal injury has brought on paralysis. His brother-in-law Lucien told me on Tuesday that he hoped for better news later in the day. Our best wishes to Ernest who will have the prayers of many for a speedy and complete recovery.

Our best wishes to Mrs. Margaret Pritchard, Secretary of the Town of Chateauguay Heights who is hospitalized at the Mayfair in Montreal.

C. H. S. NEWS

Things have really been buzzing around the High School. One of the main items of interest was the adoption of the new constitution.

Last Thursday the student body voted upon the amendments to the Student Council Constitution. The main change being that members of the council will be elected in May rather than in September so that they may have things organized. In this way more work can be accomplished.

The president of the council, under the new constitution will be elected by the student body rather than by members of the council.

Another item was that of committee chairmen. As it stood before the chairmen had to on the council but under the new constitution they may come from the student body.

These amendments were accepted unanimously by the students.

The Student Council has announced that they along with the Junior Red Cross Council will participate in S.W.A.Y. No, it's not a dance! It stands for Students' War Against Yaws. Yaws is a disease commonly found in Africa. It is very painful and can result in death. Penicillin will help to cure the disease.

The project is being headed by the Town of Mount Royal High School. The objective is to raise $4,000,000 in the next four years to be presented during the 1967 Canadian Centennial Year.

The Student Council and Red Cross will soon be announcing plans to raise money for this worthy cause so let's cooperate with them.

Plans for the Graduation Dance are now underway and the probable date is either May 24 or 25.

Mr. Peterson, Gym Instructor hurt his leg last week. It is hoped that he will soon be back in action soon.

Interim reports are either out or will be shortly and this can mean more work for some of us. However don't give up yet as the Easter exams are coming soon, probably March 14-20.

A.Y.P.A. NOTES

Fine weather, sharp skates, good ice and teenagers proved to be the formula for fun at the Skating party sponsored by St. George's Senior A.Y.P.A. After skating on the Terrace Rink the group retired to the Church Hall for hot chocolate, cookies and dancing.

This is just one of the many activities planned by the A.Y.P.A. for the next two months. More members are needed. The next meeting will be in the Chuch Hall this Sunday at 7:45 p.m.

DANCES

The dance at the Chateauguay Heights Recreation Club last week-end was very poorly attended. The Lightning Rods supplied the music. These dances were once very well attended and if anyone has any reason why things have changed or can offer suggestions to improve the dances please call me and I will be glad to pass along your comments to Bob.

BIRTHDAYS

I hope that all of the following people had or will have a happy birthday: Karen King, Glenn Fair, Al Barnett, Gene Gowan, Eda Jonosh, Mrs. Sheila Boucher, Mike Tricky, Douglas George and Gill McDonald.

Happy St. Valentine's Day.

Parkview Recreational Association Promotes Sports For Children

The Parkview Recreational Association is in the midst of organizing a membership drive to augment its forces. The aim or object of this group, for those who may not have heard, is to provide all year-round sport activities and also recreational activities for the children of this area. For this reason, this association is worthy of the support of every Parkview resident.

Since its conception in November, the P.R.A. has done wonders. Besides erecting a shack for shelter which is situated on Parkview Blvd. and Laurier Avenue, this group has done the following:

1) It has provided a Christmas Party for 195 children.

2) It has entered four hockey teams in the Chateauguay Minor Hockey League; one for each division which are — Mosquitoes (ages 7-10), Pee Wees (ages 10-12), Bantams (ages 12-14) and Midgets (ages 14-16).

3) It has provided each of the above-mentioned with hockey sweaters plus two complete sets of goalie equipment. It should be mentioned at this time the P.R.A. also obtained from the League of Proprietors of Chateauguay-Centre, two sets of goalie equipment and two sets of sweaters which are presently being used by the house league. Over and above this, the League has contributed numerous other sports equipment for the children such as bags that are to be used as bases to play ball, basketball nets, etc. For these contributions, the P.R.A. is eternally grateful.

4) For the children of mosquito age who could not play for the area team, the P.R.A. has organized a league in conjunction with the Prudential area.

5) This group has also entered a man's broomball team in the Chateauguay Broomball League. This league is composed of six teams from different areas in Chateauguay.

6) This organization is also in process of forming a girl's team and boy's hockey team o juvenile age (16-18 yrs.) to play exhibition games.

The membership at present stands at 120 members which for the short time this association has been in operation is quite satisfactory. However, this number represents but a small fraction of the residents of this area.

Parkview has been in long need of an association such as this. At long last you now have a group of people who are willing to work for the benefit of your children, but this can only be done by showing your cooperation and becoming members of the Parkview Recreational Association.

The fee is a mere $5.00 per year per family. You can rest assured that, as far as your children are concerned, this will be the best investment you've ever made. For information please call Mr. George Barnabe 691-1868, Gordie Lynch, 691-1894 or Dave Constantini 692-0457.

It is hoped that the children taking part will be costumed for prizes), besides the many races and exhibition hockey. Figure skating will be an added attraction. Miss Beverley Murray, Pro of the Club is pleased with the progress of her young charges and will present them at this first H.R.C. Ice Carnival. Anyone who wishes to participate or attend the carnival must have a Family Membership which may be obtained from any committee member. Make sure you have yours in time to enter the children.

CHATEAUGUAY SPORTS ROUND UP

(by JOHN McDONALD)

Phone No. OX. 2-2647

The Juniors have an off night this coming Saturday but action will again get under way Saturday, February 23rd. The Castors with a three point lead should hold onto their lead over the final three weeks of the schedule and take the championship. Second place is a bit difficult to pick. The Mohawks are now holding down that spot with 9 points with the Warriers 1 point back while the Lions are in fourth spot, one point behind the Warriors.

With the Castors giving yours truly no other alternative than to change his early season prediction, I now have to pick the Castors to finish on top, followed by the Warriors, The Mohawks and The Lions. If the standings should work out as I now predict, then the Castors would meet the Mohawks and The Warriors, the Lions in the Semi-Finals.

Taking the teams' records against each other to date, I would pick the Mohawks to defeat the Castors and the Warriors to defeat the Lions, thus seeing the Mohawks and Warriors in the finals. My batting average in the prediction department at the moment is pretty low, so any or all of the four teams could and probably will prove me wrong.

Last Saturday saw the Castors take a 2 to 1 victory over the Warriors, while the Mohawks and Lions played to a all tie. The first game saw the Castors take their third straight victory from the C.C.R.A. Warriors, with Gerry Aucoin getting the winner with just a little over a minute left to play. Donald Laberge was the other Castor marksman while M. Bouthillier was the lone Warrior marksman. The Warriors third line of Bouthillier, Clayton, Bouthillier have in the past month been doing most of the Warrior scoring, but Coach Dempster still gives them less time on the ice than the other two lines. Gerry Kezar supposedly the teams' number one centerman, is to my opinion doing little or nothing to help his team by trying to be a one man show on the ice. Hogging of the puck whenever he has it has caused the Club at least a half dozen goals to date. A perfect example of what a player of Kezar's type can do to a Club was demonstrated last Saturday when a C.C.R.A. defenceman retaliated against his teammate by deliberately refusing to pass him the puck when he was in the clear. This sort of thing has hurt the C.C.R.A. Club in the past and will certainly go on hurting it, if Coach Dempster doesn't start laying down the law to his team.

The second game saw the Mohawks take an early lead when the League's top point getter, Clifford Ryce scored at the 1.59 mark. D. Brabant tied the score for the Lions at the 10 min. mark of the same period. The second and third period was scoreless with the game ending in a one all tie. The Mohawks dominated the play throughout most of the game, but just couldn't put the puck into the net. Lady Luck is sure not riding on the shoulders of the Mohawks, but hard luck Johnny has a strange hold on them.

Following are the leading 9 point-getters in the C.V.J.H.L.

	Goals	As.	Pts.
Clifford Ryce	7	8	15
George Norton	7	7	14
Donald Laberge	7	7	14
Gerry Aucoin	6	6	12
Norm. Simmons	3	8	11
E. Montour	9	2	11
D. Brabant	4	4	8
W. Deere	0	7	7
R. Lacharite	3	4	7

In the goal tending department, C. Korb leads the race with 19 against. N. Brosseau follows with 20, Eddy McElroe has 24 and Williams with 25. In the penalty department C.C.R.A.'s Joe Lee leads the parade with 44 minors.

The Chateauguay old-timers took to the ice following the Juniors and went down to a 14 to 5 defeat at the hands of a crew from Dorval reinforced by a half a dozen juniors from the Cote Ste. Catherine Lions. John Dempster led the Chateauguay crew with a pair of goals. Jules Lacasse Andre Legault, and Nat Leduc notched singles.

Gray-haired John stole one of his Junior's style of play in this game by playing the lone wolf and completely forgetting that he had two linemates on the ice with him. "Sport-talk" Soles was up to his old tricks being on the best of speaking terms with the blue line where he stood around and watched proceedings, looking for a breakaway. Bill back-checked once in the game and the other team scored so Bill figured he just might as well conserve his energy. Yours truly played his usual game doing absolutely nothing.

This column extends its deepest sympathy to C.C.R.A. defenceman, Bill Lobban, whose mother passed away Thursday, February 7.

GLARE

Glare is one of the main dangers of night driving because the driver who experiences it loses all notion of his exact position on the highway. "Prudentia" emphasizes that in case of accident, the driver who failed to dim his lights, as prescribed in the Highway Code, will be attributed the greater share of responsibility.

Presentation Of Church Music At Chateauguay And Ormstown

By M. McCutcheon

A combined Choral Evening and Organ Recital will be presented by the Choir and Organist of St. Andrew's United Church, Chateauguay on Sunday next, February 17th, at 7.30 p.m. at St. Andrew's and will be repeated at St. Paul's United Church, Ormstown, the following Sunday, February 24th, at 7.30 p.m. Both services are open to all denominations.

The main work to be presented by the Choir is Part 1 of the Cantata "The Holy City", a truly magnificent and melodious work, well worth listening to on its own. In addition the program will include some of the Choir's favorite anthems and solos. Those attending will be invited to join in the singing of very well known hymn tunes.

One of the objects of this presentation is to encourage a greater interest in Church Choirs and Church Music in the area and it is hoped that people of the Chateauguay Valley will turn out in goodly numbers both in Chateauguay and Ormstown. The program has been carefully chosen so that no special knowledge of music is required to enjoy the items which will be presented.

Chateauguay High is getting more school spirit all the time. This year we have four clubs sponsored by the Students' Council: the drama club, under the direction of Mr. Patterson, photograph club under Mr. Freeman, United Nations club under Mr. Steeves and chess club under Mr. Fullerton. As well as this we have senior and junior girls' and boys' basketball teams (with uniforms), a well run Red Cross and the most well organized Students' Council we've ever had.

Unfortunately our gym teacher, Mr. Petersen, hurt his foot and as a result of this the boys basketball game was called off. So there is no sports news this week. Sorry!

The Student Council is having a two-year project to get a rink for the school. The boys' hockey team fell through this year, perhaps when we get a rink of our own we'll have one.

Interim report cards come out at the end of this week so most of the students are kept busy studying (we hope) for tests.

There will be a Parent Teacher meeting February 14th at the High School. Please take note of this and attend. It would be gratefully appreciated, too, if more parents would turn out for Home and School meetings. If we want things we must fight for them and it's not fair to sit back and let a few willing people do all the work. Please do come to future meetings.

Mr. Eric Wesselow, well known artist and resident of Chateauguay, came to the school last Tuesday to talk to grade XI students.

Speaking first as a linguist Mr. Wesselow emphasized the importance of understanding the culture of a nation when studying a language. Answering a question, he stated that three months of active, intensive study should be sufficient time in which to learn another language.

The importance of a broad background in science and the liberal arts was the other main point Mr. Wesselow stressed. He deplored too early a specialization, a problem in our society.

The students were impressed by the speaker's familiarity with many languages and his knowledge of world affairs.

Mr. Ingram attended a mathematics workshop and reports he found it very stimulating and informative.

Notes and Jottings FROM Robert Sellar's Historical Writings

The taking up of lots proceeded more actively east of Herdman than west of it. Nearness to Frankin induced settlers to move in and John Black, Joseph Arthur, Archd. Mather, William Gibson, and James Downs came in 1820, and formed a small neighborhood. Being entirely ignorant of bush-life they had a hard time of it at first, and but for mutually assisting each other could not have held their ground. In 1822 Hy. Rennie and Robt. Gibson came, the first securing 35 in a singular way. The lot was vacant and the first who took possession would secure the patent. One of the Duffins fancied the lot and hearing of Rennie's intention to settle on it, determined to forestall him. Getting word of this on a Sunday, Rennie set himself to defeat him. As he could not legally take possession on Sunday, he was constained to wait at Arthur's until another day begun. There was no clock in the settlement, so he and Arthur sat up until the cock crew, when, knowing it would be about 1 o'clock Monday morning, they sallied forth, reached the lot, and swung their axes with such good effect that by daylight there could be no question as to who was in possession. His shanty was erected on the little hill east of the graveyard. From his lot being midway between Rockburn and Herdman the school came to be placed upon it the first teacher being Christy Campbell. In 1829, by a great effort, a small church was built, which stood in the present graveyard. It was a frame building, with balloon-roof, 24 feet square, built by Brewster and McHardy, and subsequently 6 feet was added to it for a belfry. In 1831 Mr. Rennie lost an infant son, who was buried beside the church, which began the use of the plot as a graveyard, he giving a deed for an acre and keeping a burial register, which his nephew (James Rennie) has continued. The Rev. Mr. Merlin preached as his other appointments permitted. When asked as to his next visit, he would reply, "I will come sometime". He was not punctual and the congregation were always kept waiting. Wm. Taylor of the 1st concession precented. No contribution was made towards Mr. Merlin's salary. The situation of the church was convenient to the residents on the 1st concession for the only road east of the Powerscourt side-line to the 3rd concession was the military road cut out by the Americans during the war. It followed the line between 34 and 35 until the swamp was reached, when it bent east and come out opposite to the present church. Lewis McKay, who visited Huntingdon for the first time in the fall of 1822, and drew lot 35, range 3, said "the Blacks were engaged reaping their first crop and, though the season was dry, the only way I could get to Athelstan was by passing up the war-road to the 1st concession, and along it to Powerscourt, where I took the Chateauguay road. The country was very 'wild at that time and I often trapped beavers to the north of my farm. Venison was the only meat we had, and I shot deer from my own door. Bears gave us a good deal of trouble, for they came from the swamps to the north in search of food.

The first settler at Rockburn was Matthew Shearer, who took up 44 in 1821. Selling to Robert Rennie he moved to Russelltown, and his name became associated with a story of a pedlar alleged to have been murdered at the Flats in the fall of 1826. Shearer, from being involved in the radical riots, fled from Scotland in the fall of 1819 and eventually drifted to Hinchinbrook, where Robert Gibson became his neighbor, and with whom he lived. On transferring his lot to Rennie, he worked with several farmers in Franklin, finally marrying and settling down at the Flats, where he had a small house next to John Forbes. One day, in September, 1826, there came along a French Canadian pedlar, with a great pack of goods, and was readily given permission to stay overnight. His goods were much too fine and costly for the settlers, and finding, after a considerable stay, that he could not sell them, he resolved to cross into the United States, and succeeded in getting a man to convey his goods thither. For their kindness in entertaining him, the pedlar presented Mrs. Shearer (a daughter of William Brisbin) with silk enough to make a dress and left behind a box and other valueless articles, until his return. As he never came back, the story got abroad that he had been murdered, and it was generally believed. It was entirely unfound, for the cause of the pedlar's non return, was, that on the road to Plattsburgh he met an American, A. Rand, who purchased his stock of goods in bulk, when, having no need to go back to the Flats, he struck out for fresh pastures. Shearer moved to the Bay of Quinte, where he throve, and probably remained unconscious of the unjust suspicions he left behind him.

It has always been evident that there are a few people who are willing to work for the community and a lot who are willing to sit back and reap the benefits. The workers don't ask for much in return except the support of those they work for.

As a case in point let me cite the Military Whist held by the Ladies Association for Girl Guides and Brownies last Wednesday at 111 Hillsdale Drive. After weeks of planning, soliciting prizes from local merchants and telephoning the 80 families who have girls in the Brownies or the Guides, 13 persons came only 5 of whom were parents of Guides or Brownies. The L.A. realizes that they can't expect a 100% turnout but they should be able to get at least 50%.

People should understand that these organizations don't run on good will alone and when a money raising function is put on, the need is there. If people who have a special interest in an organization do not support it how can they except others to support it and how can they expect the organization to keep on functioning.

We have all seen many worth-while associations or groups have to cancel their projects and disband from lack of support. It is true that there are many associations and many demands made on time and pocketbook, so this may be the time to appraise the situation, decide on one or two projects you feel are worthwhile and give them your whole hearted support.

As for the Guides and Brownies it may very well be that they will have to cancel their activities as no one has stepped forward to replace the outgoing officers of the Ladies Association whose terms of office are up this month.

We realize that snow removal is necessary and generally well done in the area, but why does the plough return a second time long after everyone has shoveled their driveways, and cut a one foot ridge into the banks which just blocks everyone's driveway again?

Having shoveled out after the snowfall, after the drifting and after the first onslaught of the plough this last effort seems the last straw.

LETTER FROM SEIGNIORY PARK

(by FERGUS HORSBURGH)

At school, it was always very useful, in learning to speak conversational French, to know how to inquire as to the whereabouts of the pen of one's aunt. Apparently there was also a popular book some years ago giving 1,000 everyday expressions to aid the student, of which surely one of the most helpful was "Send help immediately — our postillion has been struck by lightning".

—O—

I never thought that I was more gullible-looking than the next guy until the other day when a friend told me about Magnetic Hill in New Brunswick. "It's a fact", he said "you park your car at the bottom of the hill, switch the motor off, and the magnetic ore pulls you uphill". I couldn't take him very seriously and thought he was taking advantage of my status of New Canadian to have me on.

"A gimmick of some sort, or perhaps an optical illusion?", said I. "No", he replied, "this is one of the things we learn at school. It's because the Magnetic Pole is in Canada, and in odd places there is a tremendous concentration of magnetic ore. I know, because I've been there and experienced it".

I still felt that my friend was teasing, so to call his bluff, I bet him a dollar it was a gimmick, probably of an illusionary character, and he accepted my bet. So he must be serious, musn't he? But how am I to prove my point? Maybe that is the trick — maybe it can't be proved one way or the other. Three separate encyclopedias are silent on the issue, although they do tell of the remarkable Reversing Falls Rapids. Perhaps the ommission of all reference to Magnetic Hill is significant, but how to collect my dollar?

—O—

We all know the type of person who insists on his "rights" in life. Like the jaywalker who walks on a green light even if he sees a motorist is going to break regulations and presumably kill him. Or, always a possibility at the entrance to Seigniory Park, wo motorists approaching each other in opposite directions, each insisting on his "right" to the middle lane.

British Guiana Drivers' Licences used to print this little limerick inside the cardboard cover as a reminder to such fools:

"Here lies the body of William Jay,
Who died defending his right of way,
He was right, dead right, as he bowled along,
But he's just as dead as if he'd been wrong."

—O—

There was much activity down by the Club on Monday morning, when most of the population of Seigniory Park seemed to be there to exchange books at the McLennan Travelling Library. Next visit will be March 25th, same time as before. An added attraction last Monday was the presence of a CBC cameraman, who filmed some people going in and out of the bookmobile — some of you may have seen this item which was due to be shown on Monday night's Metro Edition of the News, English and French versions.

Some people may not realise that books may be requested in advance. Mrs. Blanuta has a catalogue which may be borrowed and she will also advise how requests should be sent in. It is wise to get this done about two weeks before the Library is due in our area. Requests which are not filled at the first of asking will be carried forward until the Librarians have an available copy of the book in question.

It is hoped that a Bowling Competition might be arranged with other Cub-Packs in this area, should they be willing to participate. BABY SHOWER GIVEN FOR BROWN OWL & TAWNEY OWL IN DELSON

Brown owl, Mrs. Pat Snee, and Tawney Owl, Mrs. T. Sheepwash, leaders in the First Delson Brownie Pack are shortly expecting a visit from the stork, so Mrs. Linkutis arranged a surprise baby shower and party for these young leaders, which took place last week-end. These expectant mothers had a very busy day last Saturday, attended a Leaders Course in Montreal arriving home in time to attend a meeting at the home of Mrs. Linkutis, (so they thought). However, they were very pleasantly surprised and to add to their delight, bouquets and lovely shower cakes were sent in duplicate. Yes sir, The Mammas-to-be received two nicely decorated cakes each, and each received two bouquets. Now we do hope that old stork won't follow suit girls. That would be over doing things, don't you think? Good luck and best wishes to you both.

The weekly meeting of the Y.P.S. of St. Andrew's United Church will be held on Friday evening, Feb. 15th at 7.30. On account of the stormy weather last week, the meeting was postponed. Mr. D. J. Burden will take charge of the programme.

We send along our good wishes to Mr. Bill Sheepwash who is now hospitalized for a check up. Bill has been a patient in Queen Mary Veterans Hospital before now and highly praises the medical staff for great care shown toward patients.

This next little item I'm filing away labelled "Never thought it would happen." Have you ever dialed a number and had the operator answer and tell you that you must have called the wrong number and would you please be very careful in dialing? Early Sunday evening I was busy writing this column when the phone rang, hoping it was some news to print, I rushed to answer it, it was the operator telling me that my long distance charges were ready, I informed her that no one had made a long distance call at this number, she asked my number and when I told her, she said she was very sorry that she had the wrong number. Isn't it nice to know that even telephone operators dial the wrong number too sometimes?

Hello, everyone! Wasn't the past week-end one of the loveliest of the season so far? Due to previous bad weather some of our local hockey games were behind schedule. This explains why hockey had to be played on the Langlois rink on Sunday afternoon from 1 to 4 P.M. However, there were times when the rink was available for pleasure skating. Now, before anyone complains, let me remind you that notices were delivered advising the residents of district that unless others took the initiative and looked after the small skating rink, the present rink committee could not possibly do it, as the larger rink takes up so much time to maintain as it is. If there had been more cooperation from others, both rinks could be in use.

This week I received a letter from a reader of this column who signed his or her letter "The Dog Hater". Before I go on to comment about the contents of the letter I must say that in future I will not acknowledge in this column any unsigned letters, or any without a return address. I have absolutely no way of knowing if such unidentified notices re comments, favourable or not, are sincere or just a hoax. In the belief that "Dog Hater's" complaints are honest, I will make my comments as per letter's request. May I ask that the writer telephone me to identfy himself. If you so desire I promise to keep your identity a secret.

According to the above mentioned letter, there are nine big dogs (somewhere) which roam the streets unleashed, defill the streets and residents' private property, damage flowers, shrubs and small trees. Chasing the dogs also has not produced the wanted results. This angry person feels the time has come to take stronger action to protect his or her own family, children, and property. The letter warns that poison will be put out for the dogs. If the owners will not keep their pets tied up, these same dogs will be found dead.

Perhaps if all of those concerned will sit and think for a moment, such drastic measures need not come about.

All dog owners know by now, that the law states that dogs must be on a leash or tied up at all times of the year. If not, the owners are liable for a heavy fine or court action. I have this on good authority—Police Chief Gervais of the Town Police Force—692-6771.

Unfortunately we do not have "dog catchers" here. It is one thing to see a dog running loose and another matter to try to catch him, either for identification purposes or to take him to the pound. Anyone attempting this could get bitten. I personally believe that the time for warnings is past and fines should be handed out to the owners in question. Why dogs are premitted by their possessors to wander on other's property where they can, and often do, cause damage, is something I cannot understand! The majority of our residents put in much time and effort to improve their homes and property and have no desire to see it damaged by anyone or anything. There are dog owners who disregard, not only the law, but also their neighbours possessions. I think it is quite obvious what your responsibilities are when you decide to buy a dog!

As for the poison, it would seem that such action is just the same as the action of irresponsible dog owners. You are allowing yourself to destroy or damage someone else's property! If you do put out poison and manage to destroy a dog or two, you may be held responsible for the loss. I'm sure your neighbours who have dogs must be aware of your anger by now. (May I add that it may be justified anger, too)! However, what are the dangers of this poison with children around? It would be a tragedy if children accidently got a dose. Think very seriously before you do anything, please,

I again urge all dog owners to abide by the law and keep your dog tied up, or your pet may become fatally ill.

Anniversary greetings go out this week to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Somers of 82 St. Francis Blvd. They celebrated their Silver Wedding or 25th Anniversary on Tuesday, February 12th. Best wishes from all of us!

Last Thursday on hearing a noise, I looked out of our front room window and saw a Volkswagen being pushed and steered by our friend, Mrs. Mary Leahey. Mary had made a detour to avoid being tied up by a collison of two taxis between Beauchamp and St. Paul Streets, on Salaberry Blvd. Unknown to most motorists, our two streets were an absolute mess, not having been plowed since the Saturday night before, so Mary's car got into difficulties. One taxi driver kindly lent assistance, but another one couldn't do anything more intelligent at first, than lean on his horn when he found his way blocked! Soon, he pitched in, too, but after a fruitless struggle during which the Volkswagen just slipped and skidded, the two gentlemen went off.

The frustrating thing, as far as we were concerned, was that my husband was home, but sick in bed, and for medical reasons I could not help! But I decided there were men who could. Several of them from some electric company have been erecting new power poles in our area and last Thursday, there were four of them watching Mary struggle with the car. I literally marched down to them and requested their assistance, in English. They did not seem to understand, so I employed my very fractured French and with success! They picked the car out of the small snowbank into which it had slipped and after one good push — away went Mary! It was so easy after the men came to the rescue, but why on earth did they have to be asked? They were only three houses down and could certainly see what was happening!

Perhaps there is a company ruling regarding matters of this nature. Could one of my readers enlighten me as to whether or not some firms forbid or discourage their employees from coming to the assistance of motorists or others in trouble.

This year, as far as some of our area streets are concerned, has been a bad one in regard to plowing snow and sanding. The service has been poor compared with how smoothly things were done three years ago. Let's hope the service improves by next winter!

The Gardens Men's Broomball Game on Sunday evening past was won by our men by default. Only 3 members of the opposing Parkview team showed up. The next scheduled games will be Wednesday at 9 P.M., at Chateauguay Station and next Saturday at Chateauguay Terrace starting at 8 p.m.

THE ARCHITECTS
"SCOUTS OF THE WORLD - BUILDING FOR TOMORROW"

CANADA IS HEADQUARTERS OF WORLD SCOUTING BODY

Canada is now the centre of the world Boy Scout movement and a Canadian, Major-General D. C. Spry, a native of Winnipeg, is the Director of the Boy Scouts World Bureau which, in 1958, was moved to Ottawa from London, England, its home since its inception in 1920.

Often referred to as the Secretary-General of the United Nations of Scouts, General Spry, a vigorous 49, has been chief executive officer of the Boy Scouts World Bureau, with its membership of over 8,900,000 in 145 countries, since 1953. Prior to this he served for two years as Deputy Director with special responsibility for the Western Hemisphere.

The Boy Scouts World Bureau, located at 77 Metcalfe Street in downtown Ottawa, is the secretariat of the Scouts World Conference and Committe. The three together — Conference, Committee and Bureau, form the constitutional framework of the World Scouting. The day to day business is carried on at the Bureau and in regional offices in Mexico City, Mexico; in Manila, Philippines, and in Damascus, Syria. Each country has its own International Commissioner who deals directly with other countries on matters that concern them. The Bureau, in its turn, deals with the International Commissioners.

With 73 member countries, the Boy Scouts World Conference represents a world Scout membership of 8,984,658 actually located in some 145 countries on six continents.

A Declaration of Faith

The following resolution, passed by the International Scout Conference at Copenhagen, in Scouting's early years, is in essence a declaration of faith so far as world wide Scouting is concerned:

"The Boy Scout Movement is of national, international and universal character, the object of which is to endow each separate nation and the whole wide world with a youth which is physically, morally and spiritually strong.

"It is national in that it aims through national organizations at endowing every nation with useful and healthy citizens.

"It is international in that it recognizes no national barriers in the comradeship of the Scouts.

"It is universal in that it insists upon universal fraternity between all Scouts of every nation, class or creed.

"The Scout Movement has no tendency to weaken but, on the contrary, to strengthen individual religious belief. The Scout Law requires that a Scout shall truly and sincerely practice his religion, and the policy of the Movement forbids any kind of sectarian propaganda at mixed gatherings."

BOY SCOUT FINANCE CAMPAIGN

Government House, Ottawa
A MESSAGE FROM
GOVERNOR GENERAL VANIER

A few months ago the marvel of space flight was taken a step further when the first live television programmes were broadcast from North America to Europe and from Europe to North America. By means of a satellite orbitting high above the earth we can now see events as they happen thousands of miles away.

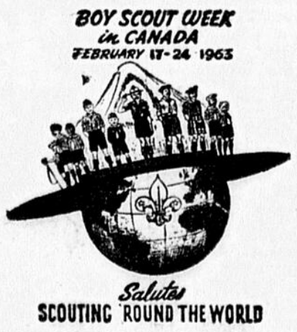

Space satellites have brought a certain reality to the statement so often made that the world is shrinking. They have brought also a new answer to the age-old question: "Who is my neighbour?"

Today, as never before, everyone is our neighbour. A neighbour is not only a person who lives next door, or on the same street, or even in the same city or country — nowadays neighbours are everywhere and anywhere. He whose voice and image can be brought into our homes by the miracles of modern science is our neighbour.

That is why the Boy Scout theme "World Scouting" is so appropriate this year, 1963.

I hope that every Cub, Scout and Rover will make it his personal obligation during this week to get to know more about the Scouts in other countries around the world, so that the Brotherhood of Scouting, so well known to all who have attended World Jamborees or international camps, will now become a living experience for every member of the movement.

Brotherhood is a living, vital part of Scouting. Shared by each of the world's nine million Scouts it can make an inestimable contribution to world understanding and, thus, tto world peace.

FUND ASSISTS NEEDY SCOUTS

Group donations to the Canadian Scout Brotherhood Fund, will be one of the features of Boy Scout Week, February 17 to 24, 1963. Since 1950 some $14,000.00 has been distributed by this fund which originally was established to help Scout disaster victims throughout the world. Recently the scope of the fund was widened so that now it can be used to assist Scouts, where a need is demonstrated, whether or not disaster is involved.

Members of Cub Packs, Scout Troops, Rover Crews and leaders across Canada, are being urged to make a special effort to support the Canadian Scout Brotherhood Fund during Boy Scout Week 1963 with its emphasis on World Scouting. The fund now stands at $3,794.60.

Election Time Again

As we said it looked last week, so it happened and Prime Minister Diefenbaker threw in the sponge and dissolved parliament due to the loss of a Want of Confidence Motion. The minority groups in the House supported the Liberal motion and the Diefenbaker administration was defeated.

Much happened in Ottawa during the past week and so fast that people are still confused as to all issues. When the Government was defeated, Mr. Diefenbaker did not seem to bother much about it and then there came rumors that his Party was asking him to resign and that members of his cabinet had split with him on issues of the nuclear question. Later this was denied and Mr. Diefenbaker said he had received a vote of loyalty from all members and began to announce a part of the platform his Party would put before the electorate in the forthcoming election. Still later came word that several prominent members of the Diefenbaker cabinet had resigned due to differences of opinion on the nuclear question. Among these was Georges Hees, Minister of Trade and Commerce, who has been doing a good job and was considered a true friend of the Prime Minister. This resignation occasioned more surprise than any other and it was then considered that the split in the ranks was getting serious. There is a fear that the Prime Minister may lead his party into the battle on an anti-American campaign. This in view of the fact that the announcement on his position with regard to nuclear weapons, by the States, in some measure brought about the downfall of his Government. Also, it is felt, will be included in his campaign, is the matter of nuclear weapons. All of this creates a feeling that such a course of campaign would not be wise. There is still therefore a feeling that perhaps the Prime Minister himself should relinquish the reins of the Party and allow a new leader to guide it through this election. There is a feeling that, in other words, Mr. Diefenbaker has lost his touch with the people of Canada. Therefore if he continues as the Leader of the Progressive-Conserative Party, that Party will suffer in consequence. Mr. Diefenbaker however, is not sharing that view apparently, and is in fine fighting mood and ready to go out and do battle in his own defence and that of his Party. It is just possible that such determination could serve him in good stead.

To predict the outcome of this election would be a most difficult task. There are so many issues that if all are properly discussed, each Party will have to make tremendous promises and not be able to fulfil them, even if made in true honesty of purpose. First and foremost we believe the economy of the country must be changed and this means that unemployment must be reduced. How this is to be brought about is something for which we have no answer at the moment and it would seem that none of the Parties have either, or they would have done something about it.

While nuclear weapons are being held as the important issue, we feel that the economy of the country comes first. Our economy needs to be in good shape before we can decide about nuclear weapons which will cost us plenty. Latest announcement says that the Unemployment Insurance Fund is in a bankrupt state and is depending upon a huge loan from the Government to keep it functioning. This is because there is such a drain on it due to the large number unemployed and for so long. Concentration has been made to increase trade with other countries in order to provide more work for our people in the production of goods. While there has been considerable improvement in this direction, it is still far short of what is required.

This election will cost the country millions of dollars, it will provide temporary employment for some, but otherwise it will not be of any great benefit to the economy. We feel that much better service would have been done the people and the country if the various political Parties had pooled their resources in an effort to find a solution to the many problems instead of concentrating their engeries on dissolving Parliament. No matter to what Party they belong, they are all the elected representatives of the people and supposed to concentrate on running the country on a businesslike basis for the good of all.

Ordinary business would never allow something to sap away its strength. There would be immediate measures to correct the problems in any way possible. This might mean paring down expenses to the very minimum in order to have income catch up a little. The heads of the business would work together trying to find a solution for their ills. They would not work in opposition to one another, for they would not get anywhere.

It will be interesting to note if any of the political parties who will offer themselves for election, will have a real workable plan which will get this country back on its feet. Has any one got a cure for unemployment? There is one cure and that is to create more buying power for our goods and so increase production so that more people can be employed. This could mean drastic action for many of the imports but it may mean increased domestic production and employment for our people and improvement in our economy.

On the local scene there is a certain amount of confusion also because The Gleaner learned with regret that Merrill Barrington, ex-Member of Parliament for Chateauguay-Huntingdon-Laprairie, suffered a heart seizure on Friday. While our sitting member, Mr. Jean Boucher, will undoubtedly present himself for re-election, there is considerable doubt if Mr. Barrington will be his opponent now on account of his health.

Teaching Themselves

ONE mark of human nature is that a man often tends to show resentment when an outsider comes in to tell him how to run his affairs.

The result is that he may refuse to co-operate even though he realizes that he's receiving sound advice.

Britain's experience with her colonies has led some of her more enlightened administrators to realize that the best way to get things done is to provide a setting where the people themselves provide the necessary leadership.

It hasn't always worked but where it has, the progress has been spectacular. The principle is obviously a good one.

Now it is being applied in Canada. And the beneficiaries are Indians, many of whom have been living on reservations where lack of sanitation has resulted in an unnecessarily high level of disease.

For many years federal government medical officers have been trying to teach Indians the importance of cleanliness. Often they were ignored. One reason was that they were outsiders and their advise was resented.

It fell to Ethel Martens, a federal health department instructor, to come up with an obvious solution. Why not let the Indians teach themselves?

Thirteen Indians, including four women and two chiefs, were given a six-month course, most of it at Norway House in Manitoba. Two were given additional training as dental assistants.

They then were sent to 10 reservations in various parts of Manitoba. The reservations were picked because they were over-crowded and had poor sanitation and garbage disposal systems. In addition, many persons were drinking untreated water.

Within a few months the Indian residents had pitched in to clean up their reservations. Miss Martens was able to report that the local programs were a "tremendous success".

The Indians began building privies, digging garbage disposal pits and boiling or chlorinating their water.

Although the government austerity program has so far prevented spread of this training program to other parts of Canada for both Indians and Eskimos, authorities in Ottawa now are convinced they have found the right approach.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

SUGAR and SPICE

By Bill Smiley

For some reason, Valentine Day brings out the worst in me. The idea of having a special day for expressions of love appeals to me, but not in the middle of a Canadian February.

At this time of year, I can hardly stand myself, let alone my wife, my neighbor's wife, and various other people I'm supposed to love. Bearing this in mind, perhaps you will excuse the faintly anti-romantic tone of the following.

Nothing disconcerts a woman quite as much as the suggestion that she is not the fingers-to-the-bone type of worker she claims to be. And that's a big statement, because an awful lot of things disconcert a woman.

Trouble is, most men swallow this legend. They come home from work with their tails dragging, and barely have their coats off when the recital starts. They react in various ways to the avalanche that flows from Mum on everything she did from the time she got out of bed this morning.

One of the most widely used methods of retaining sanity is to paste an interested look on your face, go right on eating your dinner, and emit a repertoire of small sounds indicating incredulity, approval and sympathy, accompanied by popping the eyes, if your mouth is full, wagging your head from time to time, and shrugging your shoulders at the opportune moment. This gets you through the meal. Then she says. "Why do you never talk to me?"

Another way of countering the vivid account of the way she got at the ironing right after she made the beds is to say, "Oh, put a sock in it. Who the hell cares how long it took you to wax the floor?" But this method is not recommended unless your wife is paralyzed from the waist down. And up.

The more subtle and intelligent approach is one I have developed, and which I am too public-spirited to keep to myself. It is to read women's magazines. Practically every one of them these days contains an article about how to hold your husband.

For example, this week I found a couple of dandies. One reads: Stop Boring Your Husband! This second asks, Are You Exploiting Your Husband? Just crease the magazine at the article, put some fingerprints on it, and underline a few pregnant phrases. Then leave the open magazine in some place where she's likely to see it, such as the bathroom or inside the refrigerator.

Next, find a few murder mysteries in which husbands have done away with their wives. Or news stories in which a man has gone berserk and axed his entire family. Get into the habit of reading them aloud to your wife, jovially, and with relish. Start grinding up asprin tablets and dropping them into glasses of milk just as she enters the room.

When she starts talking about working so hard, fix her with a piercing stare and ask softly, "Are you really unhappy with your life, darling?" This method is practically guaranteed to give her something else to think about sesides what she told the milkman when he shortchanged her.

It's all very well for women to talk about how hard they work, and what a state their nerves are in, from the continual pressure of "kids, kids, kids!" But I, for one, am not interested, and don't believe a word of it. Third of all, I'd rather talk about me.

If life is such a round of drudgery, why are they so frantic to get married? Oh, I know the answer to this one, too. It goes, "I certainly didn't expect it to be like this. You used to talk to me about everything. Now you just sit there with your nose in the paper. Other people's husbands talk to them."

Of course they do, and so would we, wouldn't we, chaps, if our wives would only SHUT UP!

Don't expect her to admit it, but today's woman, if she is a fair mechanic, has a life that would make her grandmother turn green with envy. Somebody else does her baking. A machine does her washing. The milk and groceries are delivered (unless she lives in the city, where the latter amenity has been dispensed with). She doesn't have to pump water or chop kindling or shovel snow or shoot Indians or drive a team or birth babies or preserve fruit.

She has so many time-saving devices she hasn't time to look after them all. And with radio, television, and telephone, she doesn't have to suffer the worst plague of her grandmother — loneliness.

Or does she ?

On top of the mechanical aids that have removed the drudgery from her life, she has a husband who might think that a woman's place is in the home — but wouldn't dare say it. Come on, kids, confess that you never had it so good.

Or do you?

Happy Valentine's Day. And even if it's only old Bill Smiley — I love you.

Provincial Capital Report

QUEBEC (CP) — Quebecers forget their troubles and go a little batty for at least three weeks out of each year, and that time is here again.

The Winter Carnival opened and the biggest and most boisterous crowd in the Carnival's nine-year history came out to hail its new queen, a pretty 23-year-old from the suburb of Sillery.

Lise Mercier, Duchess of Laval, was crowned Lise I when her name came up three time in a row in a lottery held at the Quebec race track.

The ceremony was outdoors for the first time this year because in the past so many people had crowded into the Colisée, Quebec's Hockey Arena, that the Carnival organizers thought the bigger area of the race track could accommodate them better.

Despite the bitter 10 above cold, the jammed crowd enjoyed itself and cheered lustily when Bonhomme Carnival, the eight-foot snowman who symbolizes the carnival, arrived on a dog-pulled sled.

They cheered even more loudly when 20 guns and a barrage of fireworks announced the election of Queen Lise I.

The Queen is chosen by lot because it is considered self-evident that all the seven duchesses contending are equally beautiful. The first duchess whose name is drawn three times gets the crown.

The day after the coronation, Quebec's Lieutenant-Governor, Paul Comtois dropped the more somber duties of his office and inaugurated the ice palace in Youville Square.

The massive structure of 1,400,000 pounds of ice is shaped in the form of interlocked triangles, surrounded by seven slim, pointed pillars representing the seven duchesses of the carnival.

The Lieutenant-Governor flipped the switches that one by one lit up the points of the ice palace and finally the centrepiece.

Then he took Queen Lise by the arm and descended from the Palace to St. Jean Street to lead the traditional square-dancing in the public street.

Later in the week, other carnival activities began including the international dog derby, a tug-of-war between Quebec's most massive men, and a race by waiters and waitresses balancing trays of drinks.

The carnival ends Feb. 26.

Premier Jean Lesage and Opposition Leader Daniel Johnson both took the fall of the Diefenbaker Government calmly.

Both said they will not take part in the Federal election campaign and will allow their party members full freedom of action.

Said Mr. Lesage of the Government's defeat:

"It smells so much of elections that I think I will continue the custom that the Premier of Quebec does not become involved in Federal elections."

Mr. Johnson said Union Nationale Party Members would be free to support candidates of their choice, but he hoped they would support those who favor a Constituent Assembly.

Mr. Johnson has proposed that Canadians form a constituent assembly and re-write their constitution themselves.

Hon. George Marler, Minister without portfolio in the Liberal Government and Government Leader in the Legislative Council, put to rest rumors that he had not been in favor of the expropriation of electric companies. Expropriation was one of the planks — the main one — of the Lesage program is the Nov. 14 elections.

Mr. Marler rose in the Upper House to say that he had never been against the principle of expropriating private power companies.

He said he had had some reservations about where the money would come from, but that recent loans floated by the Government had ended this worry.

Sonny Grant and his dog, Rex, are well-known to Huntingdon residents. When the time comes for Sonny to deliver his papers, Rex. is ready and waiting to be harnessed to the homemade sleigh. Rex has belonged to Sonny for about a year and in that time he has shown remarkable intelligence. He has been trained entirely by the Grant boys. If Sonny is delivering a paper or an order for his father, Rex waits patiently, guarding the sleigh until his young master returns.

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) — High drama gripped this normally reserved capital last week and drew rare attention from abroad.

At the centre of the stage stood John G. Diefenbaker, prime minister for nearly six years and fighting for his political life at 67. Watching from the wings was the government of the United States.

In the balance were such questions as the fate of the minority Progressive Conservative government, a decision on nuclear weapons, Canada's relations with the U.S. and the financial position of the government.

Tremendous counter-pressures had been building up for more than a week when the first break came Monday morning. Defence Minister Douglas Harkness announced he had resigned from the cabinet the day before because of a breach with Mr. Diefenbaker.

The Liberal and Social Credit parties introduced motions of non-confidence in the government when Parliament met Monday afternoon.

Persistent reports flew down the Parliament Hill grapevine that six or more members of the cabinet had threatened to resign unless Mr. Diefenbaker stepped aside as prime minister and Conservative leader.

Opposition Unites

The three opposition parties united for the second time only Tuesday night and defeated the government twice by votes of 142 to 111.

Mr. Diefenbaker visited Governor-General Vanier shortly after noon Wednesday, announced the dissolution of the fractious 25th Parliament and called a general election for Monday, April 8.

The prime minister emerged triumphant from a two-hour Conservative caucus and ministers said their "family quarrel" was over and the cabinet was entering the election campaign united and confident.

As these developments were unfolding, screaming headlines told the story across the United States and Europe. government officials in foreign capitals waited with apprehension and the Soviet press darkly accused the Kennedy administration of trying to topple the Diefenbaker government.

As the week ended and tension subsided, leaders of the four parties were busy planning for the political struggle of the next two months.

Fourth in Six Years

The winter election will fall only 294 days after last year's vote. It will be the fourth federal election in six years and the cost to the taxpayer is expected to approach $11,000,000.

Enumeration of voters will take place Feb. 18-23 and an estimated 10,000,000 names will be placed on the lists.

Nominations will close March 11 in 21 remote constituencies and March 25 in the other 242 ridings. Advance polls will be open Saturday, March 30, and Monday, April 1.

The chief election issues likely will include these: Canada's defence policy; the now famous U.S. state department press release of Jan. 30 criticizing Canada's position on nuclear arms; tariffs and trade; relations between the English and French language groups and that old standby, unemployment.

The nuclear weapons issue led to Mr. Harkness' resignation from the cabinet. He told reporters that nuclear warheads should be acquired immediately from the U.S. for four Canadian weapons systems: Bomarc missiles, Honest John rockets, Voodoo jet interceptors and CF-104 strike-reconnaissance aircraft.

Mr. Harkness said his views and Mr. Diefenbaker's had become too far apart for a reconciliation on this question. He said he believed that the government could not be re-elected on its present defence policy.

Keep Negotiating

Mr. Diefenbaker told the Commons the next day that the government's defence policy would be placed before Parliament "clearly, definitely and finally" after Canada's role in NATO was clarified at the NATO ministerial meeting to be held in Ottawa next May.

He said his government would continue to negotiate with the U.S. so that, in case of need, nuclear warheads would be "made readily available."

The Liberal non-confidence motion that was approved Tuesday night accused the government of lack of leadership, disunity in the cabinet and indecision in dealing with national and international problems.

The Social Credit motion charged that the government had failed to give a clear statement of its defence policy, failed to organize the business of the Commons properly and failed to follow up its legislation with a positive program of action.

The 25th Parliament, which sat for 72 days, passed 21 items of government legislation. Another 40 government bills died on the order paper at dissolution and none of the 1962-63 main spending estimates was passed.

Will Use Warrants

The government is expected to resort to governor-general's warrants to pay its employees and its bills until the new Parliament meets. These warrants are in effect cabinet orders approving spending items, which are submitted to Parliament at the first opportunity.

The April 8 election will not only be a bitter fight for survival between four political parties, but it will be a supreme test for Mr. Diefenbaker and Liberal leader Lester Pearson.

Mr. Pearson, 66, will be leading his party into combat for the third time and his future may depend on success. Similarly, a Conservative defeat could spell the end of Mr. Diefenbaker's long career in politics.

Commons standing at dissolution was Conservative 113, Liberal 99, Social Credit 30 and New Democratic Party 19. Four seats were vacant of the total 265. Three of the vacant seats were captured by Conservatives in the 1962 election and the fourth resulted from a court ruling voiding the election of a Liberal.

Letter To The Editor

Sir:

I notice in the Gleaner a letter from an Aubrey resident remarking how difficult it is to find the new ski hill at Covey Hill, and suggesting ads be taken in Montreal papers etc.

Frankly I doubt it is necessary to spend money in Montreal papers, as regular small ads in the Gleaner merely stating that a ski tow is available at Covey Hill, and the location would soon have more than it could handle, if strangers could just find Covey Hill in the first place.

In other words, if normal highway signs were put up along the highway to indicate the route to Covey Hill, as is done with many other towns, then people could not only find Covey Hill but also all the towns in between, for it would then only be necessary to tell strangers to follow the signs to Covey Hill in order to reach Howick (now by-passed by the new bridge and new highway) or Aubrey or Havelock or even Covey Hill, and once there, suitable private signs could indicate the turn in to the ski hill.

First the stranger must find Covey Hill, and a private person cannot put signs on a government highway, but there is no reason why the ordinary highway signs should not be erected. They would be most helpful to all. Both for winter skiers and for summer tourist wishing to use the excellent custom house facilities at Covey Hill to cross to the USA.

Very truly yours,
E. H. MacLair.

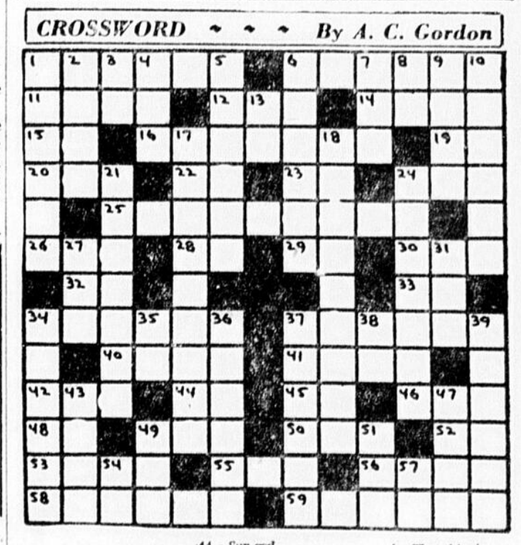

WANDERING WITH ERNEST ADLEY

Here I would like to inject a personal reminiscence which may be of interest to some members of the Kirk. It will probably be long winded (my family accuses me of having that trait so I may as well go along with it). It all starts from the receipt of a letter from Glasgow from which the following quotation is extracted: "Mary went out in the evening to a Youth Club dancing session. An innovation for the Scots Kirk I assure you. It is all very well run and supervised by an Elder". It shows how the times are changing for it reminded me of a weekend (mercifully short) I spent with a First War comrade at his home in the Maritimes. I will be generous and not pinpoint the exact locale. He belonged to a very strict Kirk family but the villain did not forewarn me to the penance I was about to undergo. Here, again, my kindly disposition asserts itself and I have forgiven him long since for he had strayed somewhat from the fold during his several years of army life and had been away from home for several years prior to the war. My most vivid recollections of that visit include seeing an almost life size coloured photo of another son also in the same battalion as myself—who had been killed at Vimy Ridge and which was standing on an easel in the "parlor", the drawing down of all blinds facing the street on Sunday morning, the putting away of all reading material with the exception of the Bible and the Presbyterian Witness and the eating of precooked and cold food all day Sunday. Two visits to the Kirk were deemed

Obituaries

The Late Miss Nettie Anderson

Miss Nettie Anderson for many years a resident of the Gore, died suddenly at Montreal, on February 3rd, 1963.

Nettie was born on the River Outarde but most of her early life was spent at Corbin, Que., where her father, the late William Anderson owned and operated a farm and large grist mill, before he retired and returned to the old homestead at Andersons Corner. Like her uncle, the late James Anderson, she was very interested in horses and frequently exhibited her saddle horse at the Havelock Fair.

After the death of her mother, she remained in her home for a few years on the Gore. She was away the morning the store at the corner was destroyed by fire and did not return to occupy her home there again, expressing fear that as the store was set on fire in the early hours of the morning, and the individual responsible being still in the vicinity, if the house was treated in the same way escape might not be possible. She therefore procured an apartment in Montreal, where she resided until illness made it necessary to move, about three weeks ago.

The Late Marrin Donnelly

Martin Donnelly passed away at the Saranac Lake General Hospital on Wednesday, January 30th, where he had been a patient for three weeks.

Mr. Donnelly was born at Trout River, January 30th 1885, a son of the late Henry J. and Ellen Dempsey Donnelly. He had been a resident of the Saranac Lake area for the past 47 years and had owned and operated Crystal Spring Dairy Farm, one of the largest in the area from 1920 until about a year ago, when he retired from active work. Since that time he and his family operated a greenhouse at the farm, a hobby which he greatly enjoyed.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Nora Vancourt Donnelly; one son, Francis; two daughters, the Misses Mary and Rita Donnelly, all of Saranac Lake; three sisters, Miss Helen Donnelly, Saranac Lake; Mrs. John Myre, Huntingdon; Mrs. John Almond, Fort Covington N.Y.; and seven grandchildren. A brother Ambrose Donnelly of Chateaugay, N.Y. predeceased him.

The last rites were conducted in St. Bernard's Church, Saranac Lake. Burial will be in the parish cemetery in May.

Norman Stevenson $157.00 Sterling Stevenson $157.00, Jean Forget $3.00, K. M. Ferns $51.00. Carried.

Moved and seconded that Simon Bourdon's bill be left on the table. Carried.

Due to a dangerous condition which exists, moved and seconded the Secretary request Mr. Lecavalier, road Engineer, to inspect the condition of the corner at Fairview Rd., Lorne Ave and Huntingdon-Athelstan Road with a view in mind of having suitable Stop Signs erected, serious accidents having occurred recently at said corner. Motion Carried.

Moved and seconded the Shawinigan W. & P. Co. be asked to remove 2 roadside trees opposite the barns of Mr. Allan Wilson range 1, as said trees interfere with the Power lines.

It all depends on whether your home needs the touch of a master-painter, new bathroom fixtures, or a complete re-modelling job in the kitchen.

If there's work to be done to improve your home, now is the time to put it in hand. Wintertime is the time when hands skilled in putting houses in order are available at short notice. Now is the best time to get repairs and renovations done thoroughly, quickly and at lowest cost.

If the work you have in mind costs more than you care to put out in cash — there's no problem. Simply see your neighbourhood branch of "MY BANK" and arrange for a low-cost B of M Home Improvement Loan. The man who serves you at the B of M will be glad to do it — even if his name isn't George.

Hemmingford Township Council Has Busy Session

The monthly meeting of the Hemmingford Township Council was held in the Town Hall on Monday evening, Feb. 4th, Mayor Alister Somerville presiding. Also present were Councillors Aylmer Hadley, W. J. Brown, W. Beattie, M. Bouchard, H. Poissant and H. Leduc. Six ratepayers were also present.

The Secretary read a letter signed jointly by two Barbers and the Hairdresser in Hemmingford namely Mr. W. Menard, Mr. Pelchat and Mr. R. Blain which stated that the Parity Committee of Valleyfield, the body responsible for setting the working hours and prices of all Barbers and Hairdressers in this district, had instructed them that in future they would be required to close all day on Monday and that the prices for haircutting for men would be $1.00 Tuesday to Thursday and $1.10 on Friday and Saturday. The local Barbers wished to appeal against this ruling. They wished to retain their present price list, namely 90c during the week and $1.00 on Friday and Saturday and also with all other business establishments in the village closed on Thursday, they did not receive any business either, and wished to close on Thursday afternoon and remain open on Monday. Their request seemed reasonable to all Councillors present and a resolution, supporting the suggested prices and hours of closing contained in the letter from the three Barbers concerned, was moved by Councillor H. Poissant, seconded by Councillor W. J. Brown and carried unanimously.

A letter was read from Mr. R. F. Keddy, Secretary of the Hemmingford Athletic Association, thanking Council for their generous grant of $150 toward their activities.

A resolution moved by Councillor W. Beattie, seconded by Councillor H. Poissant, that Mr. W. Carr of Huntingdon be appointed Auditor for the forthcoming year, was carried.

A resolution, moved by Councillor M. Bouchard, seconded by Councillor Hadley, that the Secretary take the Books to the Auditor for the annual audit, was carried.

A communication received from the Dept. of Family and Social Welfare informed Council that the rates to be paid by municipalities for the children in their area who had been placed under the care of this Department had been raised to 30c per day for those 12 to 18 years and 26c per day for those up to 12 years. A statement enclosed showed that this municipality owed the Department the sum of $364.52 for the months of July, August and September, 1962. During the discussion which followed, Council was of the opinion that one of the children named on the statement had never resided in this municipality. The Secretary stated he had already taken this matter up with the office in Valleyfield but had been informed that any queries of this kind must be dealt with by the Department in Quebec. Council felt that before payment of this bill could be authorized it should be investigated and asked the Mayor to contact the appropriate authority in Quebec in order to straighten the matter out.

With respect to the Burns Discharge, the Department of Agriculture stated that the work, temporarily suspended for the winter months, would be recommenced in the summer of 1963.

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. G. Meloche, Q.C. of Valleyfield, which stated that the case of Francois Gobeille versus the Municipality of the Township of Hemmingford had been inscribed for hearing but no date had yet been set. It was hoped to obtain a date in the month of April. For the benefit of the new Councillors the Mayor explained that after the Roll had been homologated, Mr. Gobeille had applied to the Court to have the Roll set aside as it had been made illegally. Council had thereupon engaged the services of Mr. George Meloche to represent them in this matter. Immediate action had been necessary, said the Mayor, as, had Council not answered the charge within seven days of delivery of the Writ, the case would have gone by default, the new Roll would have been set aside and they would have had to revert to the old Roll. The Mayor reminded Council that according to the Code, three Assessors and a Rural Inspector must be appointed at the next meeting in March.

The Secretary read a copy of a resolution passed by the Council of the Village of Hemmingford to the effect that 'This Council enquires if the Municipality of the Township of Hemmingford is interested in renting space in the new Town Hall in Hemmingford? Council would be pleased to meet the Municipal Council to further discuss the matter if they so wish.' During the discussion which followed the reading of this resolution, the question of the ownership of the Old Town Hall was raised. The Mayor explained what action had already been taken on this matter. Both Notary Bouchard and Notary Fortier had scrutinized all available documents and each had arrived at an opinion — exactly opposite to one another. It was, therefore, unanimously decided on the motion of Councillor Hadley, seconded by Councillor Martial Bouchard, that the Secretary, together with Councillor W. J. Brown, the Mayor and any other Councillor who wished to attend, should approach a lawyer, recommended by Notary Fortier, to determine the ownership of Lot 39 in the Village of Hemmingford and the buildings erected thereon.

Following a discussion on two accounts dealing with the payment for work done on watercourses, the Secretary was instructed to collect all outstanding watercourse payments.

It was moved by Councillor Hadley, seconded by Councillor Poissant, that Councillor Martial Bouchard be appointed to notify Regional Construction Co. of roads needing sanding or ploughing. Residents are asked to phone Councillor Bouchard if their roads need attention.

Moved by Councillor Brown, seconded by Councillor Beattie that the tax rate remain the same as the previous year, namely 10 mills.

Mr. W. M. Mayhew informed Council that a very bad odour was blown across his property when the garbage on the village dump was burned and that he had found a large rat, evidently from the dump, under his car.

The Secretary was authorized to pay the following bills: Wilfred Gauthier for 3 tiles $19.80; H. Duquette, Rural Inspector $5.04; Shawinigan W. & P. Co. $2.78; Huntingdon Gleaner for Election stationery $59.74; Election Expenses, Returning Officer, preparing of lists, etc., $115.; Mr. A. Robinson, Constable $15.; Mr. R. Bouchard, Presiding Officer $25.; Mr. Conrad Priest, Poll Clerk $15.; Mrs. E. Burton, Scrutineer $15.; Mrs. I. Brosseau, Scrutineer $15.; Secretary's salary for the month $96. Moved by Councillor Poissant, seconded by Councillor Brown.

March of Dimes Campaign

The chairman and the committee of the March of Dimes Campaign wish to thank all members of the Ladies' Auxiliary and the men of Branch 244 who turned out and helped on Sunday afternoon, February 3rd to make this campaign a success.

At the appointed time of 2 p.m. the ladies were at the Anglican Church Hall ready to start collecting and the men were ready with their cars to drive them to the various routes and areas. The good fire burning in the stove and the hot coffee and doughnuts awaiting the members on their return were very welcome.

Very many thanks to the people of Hemmingford for their generosity and also to the non-members who turned out to help the branch, not forgetting the two younger members of the community who brewed the coffee, served it and did the washing up.

The total amount collected from Hemmingford Village, Township, Sherrington, Barrington and Henrysburg areas either through the Dime Cards which the local merchants were good enough to place in their stores, restaurants and hotels, or throught the house-to-house canvass amounted to $308.18.

Guest Night, February 21st.

The next meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be held on Thursday, February 21st, at 8 p.m. It is hoped that all members will attend and endeavour to bring with them a friend. Refreshments will be served. Members will be notified later of the place of meeting.

W. I. News

A pleasant and very interesting meeting of the W.I. Branch, Hemmingford, was held on the evening of February 6th at the home of Mrs. W. Beattie, with twenty-one members and five visitors present.

The Treasurer stated the Card Party and Food Sale had been very successful and also reported a good bank balance.

Mrs. J. Robertson, Secretary read an answer to the letter which had been written to Mr. K. Fraser re condition of the roads, but as the situation shows little improvement, another letter is being sent to him.

Conveners' Reports follow: Agriculture — Mrs. L'Esperance presented her bill for expenses connected with the School Fair. She also read a letter she has written to Hon. Alcide Courcy, Minister of Agriculture on the matter of free distribution of seeds, and awaits an answer to same.

Education — Mrs. W. Beattie read from a newspaper clipping "Canada's education system is a constant and successful compromise, which should not be considered a system of weakness or surrender, but of wisdom, tolerance and maturity." Professor D. C. Munroe, speaking in London, England described it as a blend of the wisdom of the past with the prophesies of the future. He said Canada had three possible approaches to education, multicultural, unicultural, and bicultural. The reconciliation of French and English cultures of Canada is the best. He said Canadian education still follows closely the need for a universal and practical education founded on the principles of religion, morality and developing the intellectual and physical powers of man. This combination is "dynamic education".

The Public Speaking Contest was dicussed. Mrs. McAdam stated she had asked Mr. Brash to judge the finals. Coffee and doughnuts will be served that evening. Mrs. Beattie said that two days will be required for the higher grades and one for the lower, definite dates in March to be decided upon after conferring with Mr. Matheson.

Publicity — Mrs. Harris read an article announcing the inauguration of an adult education program at the Federated Colleges in Guelph. Fees, enrolment limits and actual courses in English and colour and design would give FWIO members direction in playwriting and in making original designs or "samplers" — the two fields in which National Federation of W.I. has sponsored competitions for Canada's centenary year.

Home Economics — Mrs. R. Petch announced a handicraft display is being held at the Show Mart in Montreal from February 8-17 which will include some of the beautiful work of the members of Hemmingford Cercle des Fermieres.

Mrs. Petch referred to the matter of food coloring and said that the latest information received from the CAC is that it is being carefully regulated by the Food and Drug Administration. Any food coloring should only be added by a dropper. The subject of additives to food is also carefully supervised, producers having to apply to the proper authorities for permission to use same.

A discussion on the Farm Forum broadcast of February 4th followed. The members who had heard the program gave their views, and the general opinion was that more could be accomplished by sending trained persons to these foreign countries to live with the people at their level so that they could become better acquainted with their habits and be just one of their neighbours. It was mentioned that those listening had experienced difficulty in hearing what was said by the delegates from abroad. It was agreed to send a small donation to Mr. Mark Waldron to help defray the cost of circulars sent out to each branch in connection with broadcast.

Mrs. J. Robertson read from a paper she had received from Canadian Save the Children Fund re Christmas stockings, and it was decided that the members would make up stockings and have them completed by June. The requirements are that the stockings be made of any bright durable fabric such as chintz, cotton or denim and measure approximately 14 x 18 inches from top to bottom, having a Maple Leaf emblem or the word Canada appliqued on the outside. The contents could be, knitted cap or helmet, scarf, mitts, blunt scissors, coloured pencils but not wax crayons which would not stand the tropical heat, soap in a plastic box, small coloring or picture books, rubber balls or toys, hard toffee or candy to travel well. Girls would like jewellery, barrettes or bows for the hair, scarf, etc. Boys would like ties, small puzzles etc. Anyone having anything such as has been described or whatever they think suitable along these lines (not necessarily new, but in very good condition and small enough to fit in a stocking) please contact a W.I. member. It would be much appreciated.

Mrs. G. Ellerton, County Home Economics Convener suggested that in April we have a shower of aprons or other appropriate articles which could be sold the day of the County Convention, home baking, plants, jams, etc. to be brought later.

Mrs. E. Keddy, Program Convener, outlined what promises to be a very interesting program for the year 1963-64.

Mrs. R. Petch read an interesting article re the value of milk. It said that butterfat is now a "dirty word" in the dairy industry which is now laying emphasis on milk as a source of predigested proteins. This will eventually result in a complete revolution in animal breeding. She asked the members what they thought of promoting a milk program in the Hemmingford schools. A discussion followed and after a unanimous vote it was decided that the Conveners of Home Econ., Agriculture and Health and Welfare should approach parents to find out how many children would drink the milk, and then get in touch with the dairy authorities to investiage the possibility of having milk placed in the schools.

The Roll Call was answered with a Valentine verse, some sweet and sugary, others humourous.

Mrs. R. Petch then conducted a guessing game of names of towns and villages in the County.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Beattie and co-hostesses, Mrs. Matheson and Mrs. Deere substituting for Mrs. Gnass.

Things As I See Them

By Jacqueline Hebert

CITY CROUCHED

Herman Wouk describes the phenomenon as 'America Distilled" — probably the best definition of New York you'll hear in a month of Sundays.

Allow me to prattle on here with the impressions the borough of Manhattan has given me — an old hayseed at heart (and God forbid that I should become urbanized).

Since the afternoon some speculative old gentleman deposited $24 for twenty-two square miles of property, the population has rocketed skyward and sideways into a swarming mass of two million running legs, waving arms, jewelled fingers, peering eyes, craning necks, and twisting hips. In fact, the old gentleman's investment has climbed upward to such an extent that, if you are interested in feasting your eyes on its lofty heights, you have to lie on your back in the middle of Fifth Avenue; and this is the only city I know of where you can do just that and get no attention whatever — except perhaps from a bewildered or amused tourist.

Speaking of tourists, Manhattan is their Mecca. They infiltrate via the airports, freeways, trains, buses, and boats, to ogle from atop the Empire State Building pointing and uttering delighted little cries, to tramp wide-eyed through the hallowed halls of the U.N. Building, to float open-mouthed around the Statue-Of-Something-Or-Other, to harass already-frustrated saleswomen, and to pay exorbitant prices for dinner at The Top of the Six's, where they sit in a state of euphoria produced by the sea of lights below — fireflies in tall grass — or by whatever they are caressing in their hands that tinkles and bubbles.

New York is notorious, indeed infamous, for various and sundry things, not the least of which are the traffic jams. I have seen congestions on some of the main approaches and thoroughfares that appear to have been accumulating for at least twenty years — a veritable ladies' parking lot! The sounds of war are no more horrifying, I'm sure — hundreds of horns honking like the wild cries of a million ducks, red irate faces protruding out of car windows discharging phrases I never knew existed, policemen blowing whistles and waving like madmen, the occasional crunch of metal on metal, car radios blaring, the constant hiss of air brakes, the grinding of gears, and the inevitable cab driver berating his neighbor through his cigar-stuffed teeth. Yet, day after day, after day, they manage to untangle the mess — an excellent example of American ingenuity, or perhaps a whim of Fate?

Cabs are relatively inexpensive and can be recommended as an ideal form of conveyance for those of you who are swashbuckling Errol Flynn types, or for those of you who have strong hearts, and are not too, too interested in longevity. In a fit of madness one day, I stepped hesitantly into a cab. It took me a half hour to go four blocks. It was 5 o'clock and the Time and Life Building was perspiring people out of every pore, nook, and cranny, as if it were about to go up in flame. I would have disembarked and made my way on foot, except that we were in a middle lane and the quickest way I know of to commit suicide is to step in front of a car propelled by some form of being, who suddenly transforms into a vengeful god when placed behind the wheel of an automobile in Manhattan. I have well-founded suspicions that they have a Society for Population Control, which awards five points for every pedestrian who is crushed into the cobbled streets!

These very people who are engaged in this mobile war do, however, have a sense of humour about the situation. The most amusing and typical story I have heard is this one:—

A woman had been driving down a one-way street for several blocks before she discovered her dilemma. At the next intersection, she motioned a young policeman over to her car and asked what she should do. "Well, lady, you go down two blocks and turn left", he directed. "Is that legal?" inquired the bewildered woman. "Lady, you'll get yourself killed, but you'll be out of my precinct and I won't have to make out the report". Enough said?

Then, of course, let us not go on without elaborating on the activities indulged in by the shoppers! There is always a sale in progress, and the sidewalks have become two moving belts of determined and irate individuals — not unlike a stampede of wounded rhinoceroses — going to and coming from. The shopper is a peroxided, made-up woman pounding her spiked heels into the cement and with a cigarette dangling out of her mouth. The shopper is elegantly dressed and pulled along in a cloud of Chanel No. 5 by her perfectly clipped little poodle. The shopper is a dowdy-looking little lady dragging her kiddies along. The shopper is many faces of a woman.

The items on sale are usually piled or thrown on a table. It is not difficult to recognize the sale table. One need only look for a battered old thing with frail and varicosed legs being assaulted by a heap of moving limbs, driving, pushing, and thrusting themselves at it. The poor little sale table swarmed over like an uncovered pile of manure. It is very easy to have the shirt off your very back bought and paid for before you can make it understood that it is not for sale — such is the chaos!

New Yorkers need never be chilly. The amount of "anti-freeze" they consume does the job quite well! Indeed, to order dinner without cocktails before, wine during, and a liqueur after is considered quite, quite barbaric, if not provincial. The irony of it is that the city is composed of provincials — transients like myself — gathering together to make a career, or a name, or money, to then move back to whence they came. Gray-flannel and black-chiffon figures splashing on a veneer of sophistication and savoir faire that a good warm country rain would penetrate in a hurry.

It is dirty, and noisy, and frenzied; but it is alive, vibrant: MANHATTAN — the glittering pile, a tall, beautiful, lighted world. And if this report is tinged with cynicism, it has been a difficult effect for me to produce, as at present I am being wooed by Manhattan and am totally mesmerized by its charms.

Lacolle

Short History—Bridgetown—County of Huntingdon—Now Forgotten

The following item has been sent to us by a person who prefers not to disclose a name, but who was born in Franklin and close to the town named. The party knows of the town before it faded out of existence and feels that its history should be known. It is therefore that we publish the account of Bridgetown, which was situated very close to where Franklin is now. In those early days there were prospects of it being a very prosperous town, but the years have proved otherwise.

Bridgetown, Quebec

A century ago this little country hamlet was quite a busy little section and for those early years did quite a thriving business of varied kinds. There is a small river crossing the road there and that is what gave it the name Bridgetown. It is a narrow stream but when spring thaws came it became a roaring torrent and in 1886, on Easter Sunday, April 10, 1886 took away two bridges and a stable, carrying a cow and horse with it. This happened at noon and some folks were just going home from church and the last couple to cross it, just about a minute before it went out, was Mr. and Mrs. John Craik. In a few weeks the temporary bridge was taken away and the public were using a masonry bridge of beautiful construction. It was built by Wilson Kirkland, a master mason. Being built to accommodate traffic of horse and buggy days it became necessary for a wider one to be built to accommodate the present day traffic, and the fine masonry bridge was demolished. The second bridge that was washed out that day was replaced by one built by Simon Rennie, 1886. A grist mill and sawmill got their power from the river. Besides this, there was a blacksmith and wheelright shop. A store and Post Office was owned by Ames and Farfo, who, as years accumulated for them, sold out and this building was occupied by a tinsmith who did a good business at that early date. There also was a butcher shop, tannery and shoe maker. A short distance out was a Episcopal Church of brick construction which, years ago, was replaced by a masonry building. There was a school near by which had many pupils, belonging to the workmen's families. In spring time the saw mill was run 24 hours daily as there were many logs. Great piles of lumber filled the mill yard. This business was owned by George Rowe also the blacksmith and wheelwright business. Logs became scarcer as the years rolled by and land had been cleared. For some years there has been no industries of any sort there. In 1808 the miller died and was buried on the Gentle farm and his coffin made of boards from the Gentle barn. The school is now a church. Time and progress have done their work and Bridgetown is just a memory for any one who at one time knew what it was in years gone by. Franklin Centre is now the centre of the community. In the several small cemeteries around Bridgetown sleep the pioneers, forgotten and unknown by the present generation. May this little item rouse the interest of the dwellers around the area and let others know that Bridgetown did exist.

OLD TIMER.

Ste. Agnes

The Late Robert Alexander Arnold

On Monday, January 28th, in the Huntingdon County Hospital, Robert Alexander Arnold passed quietly away after having been a patient there for about two weeks. The deceased underwent a serious operation last June in Montreal General Hospital from which he had never recovered.

Robbie was born in Ste. Agnes on August 10th, 1892, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James W. Arnold. In June 1919 he was united in marriage to Edna McPherson to which union one son, Thomas, was born.

During his lifetime Robbie remained a farmer, having only retired from active farming four years ago when his son Tommy and his wife took over the home farm. About this same time Robbie built for himself and his wife a new home where he expected they would enjoy their years of retirement.

Robbie also drove the school bus for the past several years, and in this capacity endeared himself to the young people in the community who came to know him well.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Edna, his son Tommy, and one brother, Mr. Thomas Arnold of Athelstan. A brother, William, predeceased him some five years ago.

The funeral service, which was conducted by the Rev. Wm. Black, was held on Wednesday, January 30th, from the Kelly Funeral Home.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Harold McDonald, George Sutton, Wilbur Stowell, Ernest Latulipe, Oliver L. Leblanc and Gregor Leslie.

Mr. Dunc McPherson entered the Barrie Memorial Hospital over the week-end, and on Monday morning underwent a gall-bladder operation. Sincere wishes for a speedy recovery are with you from your friends in this community, Dunc.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Quesnel visited relatives in Montreal last Sunday.

-o-

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McPherson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore, motored to Montreal on Sunday, where they thoroughly enjoyed attending the "Ice Follies" at the Forum. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Garth McPherson and family in Lachine.

Wandering With Wadley

necessary. The back of the pew was sloped slightly forward instead of backward so, if you wished to use the full depth of the seat you were really leaning slightly forward, thus being kept wide awake throughout the sermon. Early on the Monday morning as I joyfully wended my way to the railway station accompanied by my friend we saw his father walking ahead of us. Under his arm he carried a Bible and I was told that he kept it open throughout the day on the counter of his general store. "Ernie", my friend said, "there goes a man who guarantees to give you 15 ounces for every pound you buy from him."

Do you remember the time when hyphenated or "double barrelled" words were in far more common usage than they are nowadays? Here are a few examples:

Hoity-Toity	Namby-Pamby
Hocus-Pocus	Hulrey-Burly
Willy-Nilly	Helter-Skelter
Shilly-Shally	Holus-Bolus

A few more are being held in reserve but we are wondering if any readers can provide us with a few more. No doubt there are others and they all had a real and significant meaning to people and things and could, on occasion, be very descriptive indeed.

Did you ever really take a close look at the raw, immature, aenemic and somewhat pathetic carcass of a defunct bird commonly known as a "broiler" and actually develop a mouth-watering desire to possess it for your very own? Or did you just shudder and decide to telephone one of the many places which do such a wonderful job of smothering such objects with colour, sauces, oils, condiments and gravies and then deliver it to your door disguised as something to eat? For, shorn of such colour, sauces, oils, condiments and gravies, it would be a sorry thing to eat, having the appearance, flavour and consistency of flannel.

Not so many years ago one could obtain a chicken, fowl or turkey which in its normal lifetime, having had its fair share of field and barnyard seeds, insects, maggots, worms and other choice morsels as its normal fare, would pass on and end up by giving the most delightful aroma in cooking and the most delicious flavour and tenderness in eating, thus fulfilling completely its life and after life mission.

Nowadays, with planned diets, electrically controlled daylight and the most artificial of lives, they all end up with absolutely the same lack of flavour whether you eat them in Halifax of Victoria.

There was a time when games were played for the sole purpose of playing. Although a person or a team preferred winning to losing, it was not of the greatest importance. And then came spectators who, naturally, backed their own girl, man or team and made vocal noises to prove it. Later on organizers appeared on the scene and decided that, with proper planning, money could be made out of games. Then followed the buying and selling of individuals to ensure that, by all possible means, the team would win which had the greatest amount of money to spend. The word "game" is still used but it is simply just another business. Of course, plenty of games are still played for the sake of the game but they fade into complete insignificance compared to the professional displays.

During a rather long and, at the same time, always most interesting career as an exporter of fruit from the North American continent to the United Kingdom market I was often called upon to compare the merits of a fruit grown in one area to that of the same fruit grown in another area. Naturally, the grower or packer to whom you were speaking at the time hid the wish as best he could that his fruit would be declared far above and beyond in excellence anything of a similar nature grown elsewhere. Being a diplomat of the greatest discretion, I always tried to oblige but I always had reservations. A good contentious subject would be apples, particularly in this district. And I am very willing to stick my neck right out. To my mind, the finest all round apple for eating, cooking, baking and any other purpose you may think of is the ALBEMARLE PIPPIN. Possibly many of you have never heard of it. It has been grown for a very long time indeed almost exclusively in Virginia, and, more particularly in the county of that State whose name it bears, Albemarle County. It grows in heavy red soil on the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains and is left on the trees to the last possible moment in order to ensure that it will be completely tree ripened. It is then picked, wind permitting, and can be stored in an ordinary cellar without benefit of any artificial means of preservation until the following June. And then it can be brought upstairs with its crispness and flavour unimpaired. You will have noted that I wrote "wind permitting". On occasion, a gale will sweep round the side of the mountain just before it is the right time to pick and then the poor grower will have nothing but a crop of windfalls. But they have always taken that chance.

If any of you should wish to make an argument out of this, please write to the Editor. He is younger and, besides, he has not got a blood pressure.

Grange Members Visit Holland, England, Italy, Hawaii, Holy Land By Slides And Recordings

On Tuesday evening, those who attended the regular Grange meeting enjoyed a wonderful programme arranged by our Worthy Lecturer, Bro. Cecil O'Connor.

Salim Kahn showed coloured slides of the above mentioned countries and the narration about them was played by records. These pictures were in marvellous coloring and so life-like, most of the members felt that they had paid a visit in person to these lands.

And now, who is Salim Kahn? He is a student in 4th year Agricultural Engineering at Macdonald College. Salim, who is of Indian descent, is the son of a prominent rice farmer in Georgetown, British Guiana. He and his wife are at St. Anne at the College and while Salim pursues his studies she works in the St. Ann's Military Hospital and is taking a course in hairdressing. At the end of his course, they intend to return to British Guiana.

At the close of the programme. Salim offered to come back and show us the remainder of the countries that he has visited. Notice of this will be given and all are welcome to spend the evening with us.

Everyone enjoyed meeting this young man, who has such a pleasing personality. He was accompanied by Benjie Brown, son of our Bro. Ed. and Sis. Dorothy Brown, who is also a Macdonald Student.

Under Grange business, Sis. Cosgrove, Chairman of H.E.C. displayed the literature on the Gingerbread Contest to be held when the weather is better, also told the members if they were interested in the Sewing Contest to contact Sis. Hattie Shearer, (Phone 264-2481) about rules, etc.

Bro. Allan Hunter installed Bro. Art Goodfellow as Gate Keeper. Sis Paul acted as Marshall and Bro. Curran and Sis. Dorothy Cosgrove as Regalia and Emblem Bearer.

The members voted to take advertising space in the Notre Dame School Year Book.

A card party was spoken of and plans will be made and a date set by the Committee.

FEBRUARY 17 - 24 1963

BOY SCOUT WEEK IN CANADA
THEME IN 1963
WORLD SCOUTING

FEBRUARY 17 - 24 1963

ORMSTOWN TROUP IN TRAINING:— Scouts Joey Grant Jim Rorison, Ray Chartrand, Tommy Boyd and Malcolm Younie study "knots" with Scoutmaster Johnson (center-rear).

Greetings from 306,000 Canadian Boy Scouts to over eight and one half million brother Scouts in other lands will highlight the 1963 observance of Boy Scout Week in Canada, February 17 to 24. In support of the theme for the week, "Salute to Scouting Round the World", letters of greeting will go from Canada's International Scout Commissioner, Earle T. Moore, to International Commissioners in 72 other countries, members of the Boy Scouts World Conference.

In addition many Canadian Scouts, individually, and as Groups, will be contacting Scouts of other lands through correspondence. Many World Friendship Proficiency badges will be earned in this way and numerous Scouting souvenirs will be exchanged.

In their own meeting places Cubs, Scouts and Rover will focus attention of their membership and of parents and friends on world Scouting, in an effort to create a greater understanding of this, the world's largest uniformed youth movement. Travel posters and pictures of Scouts of other countries will decorate Scout halls, and be featured in special displays in store windows, public lobbies and other meeting places.

Special attention will be given to newcomers from other countries, and in some instances they will be invited to come as guests, in costumes of their native lands, to Scout banquets and special meetings marking Boy Scout Week in Canada.

Films from around the world will play an important part in many of these Scout Week meetings.

Winding up the week's activities will be special church services to honour the memory of the founder of Scouting, Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell on "B.P. Sunday", February 24th.

SCOUTS John Moore, Gordon Furey, Andrew Sancton, Jimmy Rowe, Jamie Anderson and Don McCormick study the troop flag with assistant Scoutmoster Bob Chartrand.

1st Hemmingford Boy Scout Troop:

Founded in 1954, this very active troop has varied from twelve to eighteen members, and is sponsored by the community at large. It is an "open" troop meaning that it welcomes boys of any race, creed, or religion.

Community minded citizens such as James Laurie, Clifford Winters, Sam McVey, James Robertson, Fraser Matheson, Peter Ross, and Frank Deery, have combined their skills and enthusiasm to maintain interest at a high level, and have continuously merited the support of our local merchants and businessmen.

Scouting has as a primary aim "character building" in its broadest sense, and Baden-Powell, founder of the movement, proved himself a man of vision when he conceived the principles of scouting. It is still as modern in its outlook today as the latest electronic device. Scouting seeks to instill in the mind of youth the thought of peaceful co-existence of men of all colors, creeds and political leanings, a sobering thought in this ever-shrinking world.

Despite its relatively small strength, numerically, varying from twelve to eighteen boys, we have managed to turn out three Queen's Scouts, the movement's highest rating, and have hopes of having another boy qualify for this honor very shortly. One of these boys attended the World Jamboree in England.

Ideally situated, with camping facilities and large areas to practice scoutcraft and other outdoor activities, we are the envy of many less fortunate troops. Ils Aux Noix in the Richelieu, old Fort Lennox, and the lands of such men as Howard Webb, Walter and Beattie Barr and others have greatly facilitated our scout training program. Like all small groups we have found financing a problem at times but have managed to carry on an activity that we feel is of paramount importance to our youth.

Along with our Boy Scouts proper, an excellent Wolf Cub pack is functioning for the younger ones, providing us with scouts of tomorrow.

As we celebrate "Boy Scout Week in Canada" we cannot forget the saying "Son, the world is yours—Be PREPARED at all times to cope with its problems—smile when the chips are down" and never forget that promise:

"ON MY HONOR I PROMISE I WILL DO MY BEST TO DO MY DUTY TO GOD AND TO THE QUEEN TO HELP OTHERS AT ALL TIMES—TO OBEY THE SCOUT LAW".

If we could all put this to practical use—what a changed world it would be.
