

Reorganization Plans Approved by Ayrshire Group At Annual Meeting

More Field Work, More Publicity For Breed Is Urged in New Plan

The principle of what appeared to be a rather extensive reorganization of the Canadian Ayrshire Breeders' Association was adopted by the breeders who attended the annual meeting at Toronto Feb. 4th. It finally implemented, a matter left largely with the directors, it will mean sweeping changes in the set-up of the organization.

The man who headed the committee which brought in the reorganization plan for the Ayrshire Breeders' Association was Dr. J. R. Pelletier, head of the Dominion experimental station at Ste. Anne de la Poudre, Que., is the new president of the Canadian Ayrshire Association. He replaces Archie Kains of London, Ont., president for the past year.

The report of the committee which has been considering reorganization of the association for the past year advocated a generally more aggressive attitude, more fieldwork and more publicity for the breed and the setting up of three standing committees with supervision over administration, breed improvement and breed extension and publicity. The services of fieldmen for the organization were recommended and better office accommodation where records would be safer.

Great Detail

The report went into all matters in great detail setting forth the duties of the proposed committees and making sweeping recommendations for reforms. It was pointed out that the report was in the form of recommendations only and that for the present board and directors the annual meeting were being asked to approve it in principle only. The changes would be effected over a period of time and it might be that many parts of the report would not be acted upon. The meeting gave its approval to the report on this understanding, especially that any sweeping changes would only be put into effect after the membership had been given plenty of time for study.

The suggestion was made at the meeting that present fees paid by the Ayrshire breeders to their Association were not in line with present day needs nor in line with what other purebred breeders were paying.

After a ballot vote had been taken the following Ontario directors were elected: Donald Cumming, Archie Kains, L. P. Evans and R. Brodie Ness.

At the annual luncheon, Dr. L. A. Donovan, St. John, N.B., William Hunter of Grimsby and John L. Stansell, Aylmer, were made life members of the association. Dr. A. L. McNabb, principal of Ontario Veterinary College, was the speaker.

Dr. McNabb pointed out that the new drug discoveries, penicillin and the sulfa drugs for instance, had vastly changed veterinary thinking and practice in recent years. He admitted that there were fewer vets than needed, only some 1,000 in all Canada. OVC had graduated 1,650 but over half of these had left

Chateauguay Valley Ladies Bonspiel; Aubrey Rink Wins Trophy; H'don Consolation

The Chateauguay Valley Ladies Bonspiel opened on Wednesday morning and continued until Friday evening when the finals in the main event and consolation were played. Meals were served by the Ormstown Ladies' Curling Club during the three days.

Miss Laura Walsh presided and presented the trophy to the winning skip and her rink, Mrs. John Gruer of Aubrey. They were also the recipients of individual prizes which were electric lamps.

The runners-up in the main event, an Ormstown team skipped by Mrs. Amos McCaffrey were awarded tea-pots.

Mrs. Lloyd Kelly of Huntingdon skipped the winning rink in the consolation and with her team were awarded bath sets while Mrs. Cluff and her rink of Valleyfield as runners-up received pictures.

Miss Walsh congratulated the winning teams and called on former curlers in the persons of Miss Elta Stewart, Miss Lydia Babin and Mrs. Janet Redick for remarks, bringing another successful bonspiel to a close.

Cornwall Man Freed In Manslaughter Case

Valleyfield—James Scott, 36, of Cornwall, Ont., today was acquitted on a charge of manslaughter arising out of the drowning of three Cornwall residents in 1943.

The three died when their rowboat capsized and the Crown claimed that Scott had caused the accident by circling the small craft with his yacht and rocking the rowboat with high waves.

Those killed were Louis Miron, Moe Mondoux and James Gallagher, all of Cornwall. The accident occurred on Aug. 12, 1943, at Hopkins Point, Que., across Lake St. Francis from Cornwall.

There were seven persons in the rowboat when it capsized while Scott had three companions in his yacht.

The four survivors from the boat and three other persons who were on the shore testified that Scott circled the rowboat causing waves which resulted in the accident.

Scott and his companions denied this and claimed that they made a semi-circle around the boat to avoid weeds that abound in that part of the lake.

The jury returned the verdict of acquittal after deliberating for about an hour. Mr. Justice Alfred Durand presided at the trial.

Montreal Milk Producers Pass Resolution at Annual Meeting

The Montreal Milk Producers' Co-operative Agricultural Association today passed a resolution urging the maintenance of the ban on margarine, at its annual meeting held in the Mount Royal Hotel, Montreal, on Saturday.

The organization, its 4,800 members making up the largest single dairyman's group in Canada, adopted the resolution as a measure of support in the Dairy Farmers of Canada fight to maintain the ban against the introduction of margarine into Canada.

Urges Appeal to M.P.s

Gilbert McMillan, of Huntingdon, who brought the attention of the meeting to the question of margarine, asked that, in addition to passing a supporting motion at the meeting, dairymen should contact their local M.P. and make sure that he knew their feeling on this "important matter."

John Rennie, M.L.A. for Huntingdon county, made a plea for dairymen not to "get panicky" and reduce their herds at this time. He admitted that good prices could be obtained today by selling cattle to the United States, but he felt that farmers would soon regret doing so, as there was evidence that feed prices were coming down. Hercule Riendeau, M.L.A. for Laprairie, made a similar plea in French.

Farmers generally blamed bad weather and poor crop prospects for the recent increases in milk prices.

Officers Elected

In the election of directors for 1948, the old board of J. P. Beauchemin, Vercheres, John K. Dickson, Ormstown; David Black, Lacute; Henri Hebert, St. Paul; Paul Noy, W. L. Carr, Huntingdon; P. D. McArthur, Howick; W. E. Poulin, Marville; Francois Godfrin, L'Assomption; A. D. MacDougall, Maxville, were all re-elected. John Dickson and P. D. McArthur were returned as president and vice-president respectively. The faithful work of assistant secretary and plant superintendent W. D. Lowe was recognized when he was promoted to the important post of secretary-manager, succeeding the late W. W. Moore.

Annual Meeting of Ormstown Branch Montreal Milk Producers Held Wednesday

Suggest Milk be Handled Primarily by Montreal Milk Producers' Association

ORMSTOWN—On Wednesday, February 4, the Ormstown Branch of the Montreal Milk Producers' Association held the annual meeting, Mr. Jas. Winter, president, presiding. Despite the fact that statements made at a meeting at Huntingdon were to be questioned and the weather was only fair, producers were present at the meeting, including five visitors from Huntingdon and one from Howick. The meeting was arranged at a time to coincide with the Montreal Milk Producers' meeting being held in Montreal, on Saturday, Feb. 7th. This offered an opportunity to the producers to ask questions and discuss the proposed amendments to the by-law of Montreal Milk Producers. The secretary of the Ormstown Branch, Mr. John K. Dickson, is also president of the Montreal Milk Producers and consequently very ably replied to questions and criticisms and was capable of explaining very fully how the regulations worked.

A number of producers expressed the suggestion that all milk be handled primarily by the Montreal Milk Producers and then be sold to Montreal distributors. It was stated that a similar campaign had been started about 15 years ago but had failed at that time due to insufficient support from producers. It was thought that with proper organization this plan might be carried out.

Mr. Donald McEwen wished to have recorded a vote of appreciation to Mr. John K. Dickson for his part in the recent broadcast: "Why the Increase in Price of Milk?" In this broadcast Mr. John K. Dickson expressed the viewpoint of the milk producer while Mr. W. R. Aird of Dominion Dairies spoke for distributors and Mrs. George Goodwin, housewife, for consumers. This appreciation was unanimously extended to Mr. Dickson.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows: President, James Winter; Vice-President, Donald McEwen; Directors, Lorne Elliott, Arnold Brown, John Kilgour, W. J. McGerrigle, Allan Cavers and Aime Chayer.

Mr. John Dickson, secretary of the Ormstown Branch for the past 15 years, asked that in the interest of the branch a new secretary be appointed. His opinion was that since the secretary has direct contact with the Montreal office it was an advantage for various people to hold the office. Mr. Clifford Sproule was appointed secretary for the coming year. The president expressed his appreciation to Mr. Dickson for the time he had given to this office and those present concurred in this expression by a clap of hands.

Leaders of Tomorrow Topic of Address at B. of T. Dinner

Hugh B. Savage, C.A., Montreal, Guest Speaker, Given Close Attention

The Huntingdon Board of Trade sponsored a well attended banquet at the Chateau, on Monday evening, which was featured by the members and their lady friends taking part. Mr. Hugh B. Savage, C.A., of Montreal, was the guest speaker and he gave a most inspiring address entitled "Leaders of Tomorrow".

Mr. A. Pawcett, President of Huntingdon Board of Trade, was chairman for the evening and first called on Mayor A. C. H. Picard to address the gathering. Mayor Picard spoke on the co-operation of the Board of Trade and the help that the Board of Trade gives. In particular, he mentioned the new by-law to regulate building in Huntingdon, which will soon be passed by the council.

Mr. Evan McCormick, Field Secretary of the Canadian Chambers of Commerce, Montreal, was the guest speaker and he gave a most inspiring address entitled "Leaders of Tomorrow".

The chairman in his remarks said that the Board of Trade had been successful in having the C.N.R. make a survey of the town and its facilities in a view to encouraging industries to locate here. In this connection the C.N.R. had published a booklet about Huntingdon and these would be distributed in the near future. In the meantime it was proposed to make additions to the booklet and include pictures of Huntingdon and to make it in a handy pocket size. This survey had been conducted at no cost to the Board or the town. He outlined some of the work that the Board had done in the past and the work on the new building by-law. He thanked Mayor Picard and the aldermen for their co-operation in this and other matters. As soon as the weather is fit, the Board proposed to erect signs at each entrance to Huntingdon, bidding welcome to visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rivett entertained the gathering. Mr. Rivett with piano selections and Mrs. Rivett with monologues of a humorous and light nature brought forth much applause.

Mr. N. Foisey, 1st Vice-President of the Board of Trade, had the duty of introducing the guest speaker, which he performed in a unique and humorous manner. He asked the gathering to imagine they were at home listening to their radios and the announcer was telling of a prize fight. Typical of the announcer giving a description of the various rounds, he went through the various stages of the speaker's life in rounds and at each new phase he would strike a bell as round 1, round 2, etc. He told the audience that Mr. Savage was a champion speaker, that he served as a sailor on the high seas during the war, an outstanding student in university life and had obtained a degree of Bachelor of Commerce. This is perhaps the most novel introduction that has ever been used in Huntingdon.

Mr. Hugh Savage when he began to give his address, was evidently surprised at the introduction and said as much. He started out by asking questions on how much is known of the young men of today. What they feel about Canada, how they fit into the business life of today and particularly the veteran and how he fits into the business life. He told the audience that he included socialism and communism in their thoughts and notions. He put himself in the position of an executive to a president and began to lay his thoughts before the president and a party of friends on a fishing trip.

When you are away from Canada, as many of the young men were away from Canada during the war, you think more about it than when you are here, the speaker said. Men rubbed shoulders with the theme of the whole address was to give the young men a chance to make something of themselves and to encourage them in their ideas, guide their footsteps into positions of trust and responsibility.

Mr. E. C. Martin thanked the speaker for his very fine and interesting address. Just as soon as the gathering had departed, Mr. S. J. Currie provided a sound system for the speakers and while they were speaking he also made a recording which included Mr. Foisey's introduction and the address of the guest speaker. Just as soon as the gathering had departed, Mr. Currie played back the recording and Mr. Savage was deeply interested in hearing his own voice in this manner. It was something new to him and he said it gave him an opportunity of checking himself. Altogether this banquet provided much in the way of new ideas all through.

Egg Story — Like Fish Stories

There are quite a few egg stories these days, we presume it must be getting near Easter and the hens are doing their best to keep up a good supply. This week word was received from Ovide Duhamel and Sons, St. Anicet, to the effect that on Monday morning they took from the nest a chicken's egg of abnormal size—7½ inches the long way and 7½ inches in circumference.

With regard to the story published in the last issue about the egg standing up along, Mr. Louis Roy has informed us that it can be done at any time and he has tried it. This same word has been received from two or three more of our readers. It looks as if the egg stories are like fish stories and will have to be taken with a grain of salt.

Increase in Quebec Budget From Year Ago

Up $18,000,000 According to Figures Tabled in Legislature

QUEBEC—The most important part of the province's budget, the expenditure for the coming fiscal year 1948-49, a preliminary estimate of the budget to be delivered by Hon. Onesime Gagnon, Provincial Treasurer, was tabled on Thursday afternoon, in the Legislative Assembly. Though containing only half of the story to be revealed by Mr. Gagnon, the figures nevertheless show a tendency of the administration to keep up with the growing needs of the various services of the administration.

Last year's expenditure totaled $123,873,636, of which $78,704,386 was voted, and $45,169,250 was authorized by statute. This year, according to the estimate tabled by Mr. Gagnon, the 1948-49 expenditure would be $141,990,457, of which $91,464,907 is to be voted and $50,525,550 is authorized by statute.

Where the Money Goes

A comparison of this year's estimates enables one to show where the Government, through the Treasury, has spread the expenses in the various departments of the administration.

Agriculture, one of the most important branches of the administration, last year had a total expenditure budget of $8,650,000; this year, it will be $9,806,000.

Youth and Social Welfare

A newly created ministry which promises to take a large part of the budget is allowed for the coming fiscal year a budget of $1,779,000, while last year, an organization which had a budget of $12,619,500.

Health, which has its budget increased to $18,483,250 from $12,619,500 last year.

Education, last year had a budget of $4,508,020, and this year will be allowed $13,785,350, one of the greatest increases in any budget for one year.

On the other hand, colonization funds this year had a budget reduced from $7,462,100, last year, to $6,745,400.

Public Works, last year had an estimated expenditure of $7,229,600. In 1948-49 it will be reduced to $6,603,000.

Roads, always an important branch of the administration, will have a budget of $14,050,000, compared with last year's $11,859,000.

Other Departments

Other departmental budgets of less importance show a variation. Following are the 1948 budget tables compared with the 1947, tabled yesterday:

Municipal Affairs, 1948, $255,700, 1947, $303,700; Agriculture, $8,650,000 and $9,806,000; Youth and Social Welfare, $12,619,500 and $14,779,000; Game, $782,100 and $882,800; Colonization, $7,462,100 and $6,745,400; Executive Council, $13,181,400 and $13,177,600; Trade and Commerce, $10,900,000 and $12,256,600.

Fisheries, $861,000 and $861,000; Hydraulic Resources, $1,184,500 and $487,500; Provincial Parks, $2,521,900 and $2,837,100; Lands and Forests, $2,591,900 and $2,837,100; Labour, $1,241,000 and $1,316,000; Treasury, $7,462,100 and $6,745,400; Trade and Commerce, $10,900,000 and $12,256,600.

Picture Incomplete

The above figures do not tell all the story as regards expenditure, since a number of special laws enable the Government to borrow for special purposes. Furthermore, as regards education, the budget shown above is not complete without mention of special measures in force, whose cost is spread among many departments. Mr. Gagnon will tell the whole story when he delivers his budget speech.

Annual Meeting Holstein Breeders Held at Toronto

J. M. Fraser, Ont., Elected to Head Holstein-Friesian Association For 1948

J. M. Fraser, of Streetsville, Ont., one of the best known Holstein breeders in Canada, was elected president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of Canada at the annual meeting at Toronto on Wednesday, Feb. 4th.

W. Ray Wilson, of Kenmore, is the new first vice-president. Mr. Wilson was third vice-president last year but moved up two steps owing to the tragic death last year of R. Ray McLaughlin, of Oshawa, who was second vice-president.

It was one of the largest meetings the association has ever held. At a meeting of the 1948 Holstein-Friesian Association directors held Thursday officers were elected. In addition to President J. M. Fraser and First Vice-President W. Ray Wilson, the meeting named W. A. Hodge, St. Laurent, Que., as second vice-president; J. Durno Innes, Woodstock, third vice-president; and George W. Henry, Todmorden, as fourth vice-president. The latter two are new to the top offices.

Honor Mr. Tulley

J. T. Tulley, Peterboro, was one of those who received Master Breeder shields from W. R. Reek, president of OAC. The other two were W. C. Good, of Brant County, who gave the credit to his sons, and the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa. George Innes accepted the award for the CEF and gave credit to his staff and those who had gone before him as Dominion Animal Husbandman. Mr. Tulley is the youngest breeder to receive this highest honor in the giving of the Holstein Association. He had made an enviable reputation for so young a breeder.

Resolutions

Four resolutions were passed by the meeting, presented by R. Ray Wilson, at the request of the resolutions committee. One asked that the Health of Animals Branch be requested to make provision for the identification, testing and certification of export animals by full time employees of the Department and that additional staff be employed by the Department to ensure accurate testing, accreditation and free listing and that such services be brought and kept up to date. Another that the Health of Animals Branch be sufficiently large to ensure at least monthly tests and check tests of high producers and provide prompt reports. A change in the form of ROP reports was suggested so that all daughters of a sire completing records during the year will be listed under the name of their sire. The fourth resolution was a vigorous protest against allowing oleo.

New Records

The Holstein shows throughout the Dominion were outstanding in 1946, culminating in a Royal that was of exceptional quality. Grants totalling $14,784 were paid to fairs throughout the country by the association and its provincial branches.

Seven Canadian records for milk and butterfat production were established during the year, five of them world records. Particularly notable was the world record for yearly production of butterfat on twice-a-day milking over all ages and breeds made by O.H.H. Abbecker Darkness and the world Holstein record for lifetime production of butterfat on twice-a-day milking made by Supt. Ruby Echo. No less than 10 records over 900 pound fat were completed, these reaching a high of 1,259 pounds by Amulree Baroness Pietje.

There are now 29 approved artificial breeding clubs in Canada for Holstein and approximately 20,000 head were bred artificially through these clubs in 1947.

Annual Meeting Ormstown War Memorial Committee

The annual meeting of the Ormstown War Memorial, Community Centre, was held in the Ormstown Community Centre, on Thursday, Feb. 4th, at which a representative number of members and interested organizations were present. The Ladies' Auxiliary submitted a report of their activities which included the operation of the Dining Hall at the Ormstown Fair, community out-of-doors sing-songs during the summer months and operation of a Snack Bar at the Ormstown Fair. The report was presented by the Chairman, in his report, gave a short review of the history of the project and of the difficulties being experienced in getting the construction of the Memorial Hall under way.

The gathering decided after hearing an expression of opinion from the Ladies' Auxiliary representatives to accept the offer to operate the dining hall at this year's exhibition.

The retiring governors were asked to continue in office until incorporation was complete when a general meeting will be called for the election of directors and other business incidental to the transfer from the present organization to the corporation which is being effected without change in name.

Season of Lent; St. Valentine's Day

THE Lenten Season is now with us and this is the Christian period of self-denial and devotion to prayer. By some it is strictly observed and by others it is practically ignored. Services are held in the churches throughout this season with special days observed for special purposes. The time then arrives when the crucifixion of Christ causes that solemn time of mourning and then the glory of the news that Christ has risen and the "Alleluia Chorus" is heard in most churches throughout the Christian world. A new world is born, new life comes with the spring that is heralded, the sun again begins to have warmth and new hope arises in the breasts of men. There is something mystic in this period of the year as if an unseen guidance was at work cheering all and giving them new hopes to complete the tasks that confront them. The period of Lent is supposed to give strength through prayer and devotion and the self denial is a symbol of the sacrifice that Christ made for all mankind. In these days of trials and tribulation more and more people are resorting to religious piety as a relief from the worries of the day. It is likely therefore, that this season of Lent will see more devotion to the religious beliefs than for some years.

On Friday, the Women's World Day of Prayer will be held throughout the Christian world and numbers of women's organizations have already planned their programmes for this day. Churches throughout the Beauharnois district will be attended on Friday and the services will be in complete charge of the women of the various districts.

On Saturday, it will be St. Valentine's Day, a feast day in honour of St. Valentine, a Christian Martyr of the 3rd century. The sending of valentines to sweethearts is not really a part of the celebration, although through the years this has become a custom and probably links with the ancient Roman celebration of the Lupercalia. According to an old belief birds used to mate on this day and possibly this is associated with the tokens of love and tender greetings that are now a part of St. Valentine's Day. Probably this all fits in with the Lenten season, but it is strange that it comes so soon in this period. One other Saint's day comes in this period and that is Saint Patrick's Day, also universally kept and celebrated.

Thus today, Ash Wednesday, we have commenced the Lenten season of self denial and devotional duty.

The Prices Jumble

ON every hand today, one hears grumblings and mummings about prices. Dissatisfaction is expressed on all sides—the seller is displeased, the buyer is displeased. With the seller prices are not high enough and with the buyer the prices are too high. The government is considering a Committee to probe prices and try to find out what is happening all along the line.

Prime Minister King has hinted that certain tax changes will take place when the budget is brought down, and that these will affect the cost of living. According to a government report the cost of living index has risen 21.3 points during the period January 1st, 1947 to January 2nd, 1948. This brings the total to 147.6 for the week ended January 30th. Food and home furnishings have been the largest contributors to the increase and from the trend, prices will continue to rise.

The condition that exists in Canada is practically no different to that which exists in most every country of the world. Even word is coming from Russia that there is trouble in that country over mounting prices and that all is not rosy. Probably never before has there been world inflation at one and the same time and it is a picture of economy that is hard to construe. The United States news of the past week has been that prices are beginning to tumble and President Truman is warning of a crash ahead. This country being so closely allied with the States, may easily be headed for a similar crash. Canada, however, has done a little more to control prices than the States and at least butter has not reached the dollar per pound mark as it has in the States. Such procedure may be the controlling force in this country and may let us down more lightly.

France has taken the step of revaluing her currency and this may prove to boom her export markets and increase her dollar balance. But such is bound to have an effect on other countries and it may lead to a general revaluation of world currency. Such a step would be world inflation in earnest. The British government has issued a white paper telling that wages and profits must be held where they are or the consequences may be dire indeed. Thus we have a picture of the remaining leading governments of the world being in difficulties with their economic stabilization and this includes Russia. Usually inflation will hit one country and leave others alone, by means of domestic controls such inflation can be made to return to a normal footing. The problem facing us today is entirely new in the economic set-up and one that will require much juggling before it is again on an even keel.

The United States is considered today to be the richest country in the world, yet warnings are being issued that a crash is impending. If the bottom falls in that country, then Canada will undoubtedly be the next to feel it. It will follow that it will resound around the world because the United States economy is so tied up with the rest of the world today.

It is no wonder then that prices are a topic of conversation in this country wherever people congregate. It may be as well that the government is keeping in close touch with the situation as no one can tell just how soon we may be facing a crisis. There is no doubt that conditions are getting out of proportion and it is possible that someone is taking advantage of the situation to make something for themselves. The prices probe will no doubt uncover such practices if they exist. Whether the abolition, or a reduction of the sales tax would have any great effect is debatable, as the tax does not apply on a great many of the foods but would mean a saving on clothing and such like. It is possible that the abolition of income tax on all incomes $3,000 per year and under, would have the effect of releasing a few more dollars toward purchase of goods, but it may also add to the evil of inflation by releasing more money for purchases. There are, however, a number of hidden taxes which may be reduced or abolished that would help the situation. It may be this that Premier King has in mind. Meantime we must await the outcome.

Auditor General's Blue Book

ONCE again that blue book which comes from the Auditor General's Department each year, has arrived at the office of The Gleaner. It is the accounting of all the governmental receipts and expenditures as applied to all the various departments of the Federal Government and contains the report of Mr. Watson Sellar, as auditor general.

In past years this book has contained much in the way of war expenditures, but now that the war is over, the accounting for this is fast disappearing. There remain such accountings as pensions and various rehabilitation schemes, but mainly now, the accounting has to do with peacetime governmental matters. Most of the fault that Mr. Sellar has to find with the accounting this year, is however, to do with wartime matters. Naturally in such a large volume of business transacted by such a number of different departments and handled by a huge staff, there are bound to be many items that need checking and drawing attention to. Mr. Sellar keeps a close watch on the government exchequer and is not backward in bringing to light practices that he feels are unethical to good book-keeping. Relaxation of ordinary business methods of accounting are sharply brought to the attention of the departments concerned and references made to orders governing the issue or practices involved. Throughout the book are many references to laxities which he feels should be given more attention, but upon the whole there are only a few outstanding highlights.

The Auditor General points out, the men of the Polish Army who were brought to Canada as agricultural labourers should have had a closer checking before they were allowed to come to this country. Several of them developed tuberculosis and received hospital treatment at government expense. However, the British government had agreed to stand 50 percent of certain sum in this regard and the money has been received and credited. Had these men been more closely checked at the outset, it is possible they would have been rejected and the expense saved. Another case cited was an army paymaster who embezzled $34,839.98 of the funds and was sentenced to 2 years imprisonment. No restitution was made and no recovery effected, although the man was bonded for $10,000. Another army paymaster was held responsible for a loss of $2,000 and it was agreed to stop certain amounts from his pay. On his discharge $1,300 still remained to be paid, but the man refused to pay it. There is no evidence that the department tried to collect and the account goes forward from year to year as a "paymaster's advance". The auditor general says this is objectionable when there are no funds to cover it. Still another reference is to Dutch guilders acquired by the army as the result of operations in Holland, which had not been redeemed by the Netherlands government. No settlement has been reached and redemption not shown in the Public Accounts, but remains on deposit to the credit of the Canadian government in a "blocked account" in a Netherlands Bank. Some payments of dependents' allowances were made from the fund to soldiers' dependents in Holland. The balance is 2,562,449 Dutch guilders.

It is such things as the foregoing that the eagle eye of the Auditor General ferrets out of the mass of accounts that pass through his hands during the course of auditing the national cash books. In his remarks he does his best to bring attention to these and many other errors in the bookkeeping in order that the national monies will be kept in the straight and narrow path and do not go too far astray.

The Battle of Margarine

DURING the past several weeks it will have been noticed that the various farm forums and other farmers' organizations have been busily engaged in discussing the question of whether the ban on the manufacture and sale of margarine in Canada should be lifted. The resolutions sent in to the government by these bodies have been to the effect that the ban should be retained and if more butter is needed in this country, that it be imported from New Zealand.

Soon this question will have to be fought out in Parliament and the members there feel that it will be a very contentious matter when it is discussed. They fear it will cause a split between the country and the city members. Rural communities being mostly composed of the farming population, are opposed to the ban being lifted, while city communities being mostly composed of a manufacturing population, feel that margarine should be available to them because of the high price of butter. The farmer feels that if margarine is manufactured and sold in Canada, that he will suffer through a slump in the sale of his own product and that it will react unfavorably toward him. The opposing side feels that the introduction of margarine will not affect the farmer as the supply of butter is still on the short side and will remain so for a long time to come. They say that if it is necessary to import butter from New Zealand, then the manufacture of margarine in this country will not only help the supply situation, but give employment to more of our people, thus keeping the money in Canada. They also point out that margarine is made and sold in the States and that it does not appear to have caused any undue suffering among the farming population there.

The recent Geneva trade agreements prevent Canada from barring any import and hints are that the government to get around this, will slap on heavy taxes on oleomargarine. This also has its difficulties because if all countries acted that way, the Geneva agreements would become farcical. Most members fear the question and term it as "dynamite" that will split the government ranks into two groups "city versus country". It is therefore felt that when the vote comes it should be free, an expression of individual opinion.

While the farmer organizations have bombarded the government with resolutions to retain the ban, consumer and union organizations have sent resolutions to lift the ban. It looks that this may develop into one of the most controversial questions that Parliament has had to face in many a long day.

NEW CARS HAVE TROUBLE TOO

THE WEEK AT OTTAWA
by the Canadian Press

Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (C.P.)—Parliamentarians heaved long sighs as last week ended. After a violent four-day battle over a parliamentary committee to investigate Canada's ballooning living costs, members turned off a bitter stream of charge and counter-charge — but only until Monday.

A solid wall of opposition criticism of the committee's powers — or lack of them — failed even to dent Prime Minister Mackenzie King's plans for handling the investigation.

There were many opposition charges, but perhaps the most general was that the government was using the committee to evade "responsibility" for the increases.

They urged that the committee be empowered to recommend a course of action to deflate the price balloon. Without this, the opposition charged, the committee was useless.

Not a few members, including those on the government side, had suggestions about what the government should do.

David Croil, Liberal member for Toronto Spadina, and Lionel Bertrand, Liberal for Terrebonne, Que., joined those who urged the government to re-impose price ceilings and subsidies. Mr. Croil added the suggestion that the excess profits tax, dropped Dec. 31, be revived to curb profiteering.

Justice Minister Ilsley had a swift denial for those who said the government was taking no action against profiteers. He said that more than 50 companies were under inquiry by the combines investigation commission and he suggested that the proposed committee determine, as a fact-finding body, the truth of reports that trade combines and monopolies are operating.

Outside parliament there were also voices raised against the committee. The Canadian Congress of Labor said flatly that it would be in the public interest if the parliamentary opposition refused to serve on it.

The Congress — embracing an estimated 350,000 Canadian workers — sent telegrams to the leaders of the three opposition parties, Progressive Conservative, C.C.F. and Social Credit, saying that it was convinced the proposed committee

"is wholly inadequate and unnecessary." The government, the Congress charged, was trying "to evade its responsibility and postpone action which is urgently demanded by the people of Canada."

It came as no surprise to many consumers but the jump in the December cost-of-living index provided ammunition for opposition guns. The December index trembled on the edge of a new high. The previous peak was in July, 1920 — 150.6 — and the figure for December 1947 was 148.3 — up 2.3 from November.

The P. M. gave tax-payers a tantalizing whiff of the heady wine of tax reduction in introducing his motion for a prices committee.

Speaking of the cost of living, Mr. King said newspapers were claiming that the way to bring it down was to "make certain changes" in taxes. He hastened to add that the government "cannot disclose its program on this matter until the budget itself is brought down."

That was all, but the mention of "its program" left observers wondering whether Mr. King might not be tipping off the country that the government had something up its sleeve for the tax-paying citizen.

Speculation surrounding Mr. King's future has developed two great houses that have long been the most famous if not the most pretentious in Ottawa.

One is Rideau Hall, the official residence of the governor-general and the other, Laurier House, where the prime minister has lived a bachelor's life for the last 25 years or so.

These two houses were singled out, first, because Mr. King said he will offer his resignation to a Liberal convention in August and second, because he has not turned a cold shoulder to a growing campaign for his appointment as the first Canadian-born governor-general.

The chances of the P. M. becoming governor-general seem to depend on whether or not public opinion will swing in favor of the proposal, first made in the House of Commons last week by Bona Arsenault, Liberal member of Bonaventure, Que.

When the Prime Minister made his controversial retirement statement another controversy was revived. It centres on the ownership of Laurier House. There is little doubt it was left Mr. King as his personal property by Lady Laurier who died shortly after the great French-Canadian Liberal leader. But there are those who still harbor the impression that it was left him as Liberal leader and that it actually is the property of the party.

He may turn the house over to his successor or he may live there the rest of his life. Then again, he may someday take up residence in Rideau Hall.

President Truman's warning last week that the inflationary boom in the United States would plummet into an economic crash unless the rising spiral of prices is halted by government curbs in the midst of a sudden sharp slump in grain for future delivery and a resultant effect on American stocks and bonds.

Losses ran into the millions. On three successive days wheat futures dropped the permissible 10-cent limit on the Chicago Grain Exchange. Corn and other staples also travelled downward. The effect on stocks and bonds in United States exchanges was almost spontaneous. At New York in one session securities dropped $1 to $5 for the biggest decline since July, 1946.

The grain market break actually was not new. It has been going on for 2 1/2 weeks. Only late last week did the retreat deteriorate into a rout. Most grains reached highs on Jan. 16.

Back of the feverish selling were basic factors known for some time. They were: an excellent crop outlook in Europe, the knowledge that government purchases of wheat for export this year are nearing completion, and the protective snow in the United States wheat belt which means a good spring crop.

With American crop prospects good and with world demand slackening, most analysts conclude that the good old days of $3 wheat are gone.

The drop in grains had its effect in the London exchanges. British securities, particularly speculative issues, broke sharply last Friday with losses of millions of pounds.

London market sources said that traders, looking to United States financial circles for a lead, feared the possibility of a world-wide deflationary movement. The British government's new policy against further general wage increases was another anti-inflationary factor behind the sell-off.

The firmness of British government bonds cleared reflected the deflationary fears with investors getting out of speculative issues into fixed-interest securities.

Practically all London newspapers front-paged the plunge of American stock and commodity prices, many combining the reports with President Truman's warning. Some papers speculated optimistically that the fall in commodity prices might ease the plight of dollar-short countries dependent on American supplies of grain.

Eire's complicated system of proportional representation turned up with a strange paradox in the national elections last week.

Complete returns showed Saturday that Prime Minister Eamon de Valera's government party, the Fianna Fail, had won only 86 of the 147 seats in the new Dail (parliament), in which 74 seats are required for a majority. The combined opposition, including parties that had sought coalition government — to which de Valera is opposed — won 76. In the old Dail,

THE WORLD'S FUTURE IS BEING DECIDED NOW

OUR TOMORROWS depend on what happens to the world's children TODAY. In ruined lands around the globe there are millions of them in misery — scrambling for shreds of food on garbage dumps, shivering in rags. On the continent of Europe, half the children born since the war are already dead of malnutrition. Those who survive — there and elsewhere — are desperately in need of food and clothing. They need schooling, too, for their neglected minds grow as sick as their withered bodies.

They are the future . . . if they are not saved, our world is lost!

Canadian Appeal for Children is now conducting its campaign to meet the challenge of these desperate and immediate needs. This is a campaign by the people of Canada, with a minimum objective of $10,000,000 to provide food, clothing and school supplies for the children—safeguard the health of expectant and nursing mothers—in devastated lands around the world.

Wherever possible, all donations will be used for the purchase of Canadian goods, and the distribution of goods will be under the direction of responsible United Nations operating agencies. Your help is needed now. You sympathize. You want to give. But goodwill and good wishes are not enough. Since you may not be canvassed, don't let failure to act be on your conscience. Any BANK will accept your donation. Turn your sympathy and good wishes into a tangible contribution — go to your bank now and give.

TODAY WE LIVE IN A GREATER CANADA

The 4th World's Maritime Nation

TODAY, Canada's merchant navy ranks fourth in the world—next to those of the United States, Britain and Norway. Our ocean-going tonnage is now four times as great as before the war. In 1939 we had only 35 regular ocean-going ships on our register. Now there are 153. The total of all our ships of over 1600 gross tons (including upper lakers, canal freighters and coastal passenger vessels) is now 386—representing over a million and a half gross registered tons of merchant shipping! That maritime achievement is typical of the tremendous industrial and commercial developments which have created new and greater opportunities for all Canadians right here at home in our own country today.

Between the wars, Canada built no sea-going ships of any size. Today we have 17 major, fully equipped yards, with over 100,000 tons of shipping under construction, including vessels for European and South American countries.

Only one-eighth of the total cargo entered and cleared at Canadian ports was being carried by Canadian ships before the war. Last year our own ships were handling well over half of this tonnage.

G. H. WOOD raised sufficient money in 1923 to buy a tiny Toronto soap plant employing two workers. Since then his energy, industry and consistent emphasis on salesmanship have built his company into the biggest sanitation products organization in Canada, manufacturing 176 separate items.

Mr. WOOD says: "I've always felt that business success comes from a combination of initiative salesmanship and harmony between labour and management; and nowhere is that combination more certain of achieving results than right here at home in our own country now."

Rev. R. G. MacMillan

At the regular Monday noon Luncheon Meeting of the Rotary Club, Rev. R. G. MacMillan, of Athol, was the guest speaker. His subject was Christian Influence, based on the first chapter of Job and the 26th verse. "There standeth one among you whom ye know not!" He spoke of the influence of Christianity on our civil life, which has brought forth the idea of hospitals, orphanages and homes for the aged, conduct toward our fellows. He cited the case of a doctor giving all his energy to bring back to life a person who may be considered a good-for-nothing, who would be less trouble dead than alive as far as society goes, but doctor does his best to save the life. Christianity has been responsible for the upward surge of the poor and has been responsible for much of the social unrest because the people are better educated and are not content with slavery. They want schools and all the other advancements of the enlightened world. God has revealed himself not only as the Saviour, but as the carpenter of Nazareth. The world picture is black and dismal, but the war has kindled a new attitude of men toward his enemies. The Marshall Plan is an evidence of this that is in part a loving of one's neighbor as oneself. All this stems from the influence of the Christian teachings.

Second Annual Horse Parade Chateaugay Huge Success

CHATEAUGAY - Trim-looking horses, bright sleighs and fur-coated drivers gathered on the frozen river last Sunday for Chateaugay's second annual Horse Parade. Over 35 entrants, led by Mr. Cecil Carpenter, President of the Chateaugay Harness and Saddle Club, lined up for the long drive to the Village, the horses prancing briskly to the strains of a military march. The scene brought back nostalgic memories of a horse, buffalo-robed past, almost disappearing from our modern automobile era.

Horses were brought from Montreal, Lachine, Ville La Salle, Caughnawaga, Beauharnois, Valleyfield, Ormstown and Howick by their enthusiastic owners. The start was slightly delayed by some late arrivals but by 2 o'clock the parade had lined up in the order of Single Drivers, Driving Teams, Pony Teams, Pony Singles, Saddle Horses and Farm Teams. Many youngsters took an unexpected and joyous part in the event when they were invited to "pile on" the heavy sleds of the farm teams.

A few false starts slightly taxed the patience of the thousand-odd spectators, but many stayed to the chilly end of the parade. Mr. E. LeBeauf of Beauharnois took top honours in the races, driving his own horses to win a First and a Second in the Free-For-All, and two Firsts in the Classified. Mr. Paul Laberge, of Montreal, was a close contestant with his entry. The results of the races were as follows:

Free-For-All Pace and Trot—

The Farmers' Race was won by Mr. Pitre, of Ste-Philomene.

Following the races the out-of-town horsemen were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Carpenter. Mr. Carpenter, on behalf of the committee, expressed appreciation of the financial assistance so generously given by all the merchants and many other friends of the Chateaugay community. He also thanked the civic leaders and the police, both local and provincial, for their great assistance.

For the sake of safety, last Sunday's flying feature was postponed until Feb. 15.

N.H.L. Players Attend Chateaugay Hockey Dance

The Plaza Hotel, on Friday, January 30th was the locale of one of the most successful hockey dances in this district's sporting history. A galaxy of past and present hockey stars headed by "Toe" Blake and "Pit" Laine, of N.H.L. fame were present and added to the success of the evening with speeches and assistance in the presentation of the various trophies and prizes.

"Toe" Blake presented Don Duffey with the "Gerald Duffey" Most Valuable Player Award. The youngster's eyes fairly popped out of his head when the famous "Toe" shook his hand and expressed the wish that the embryo hockey player would some day go on to win the "Cecil Hart Trophy" in the big league.

Canadian star, Bobby Fillion then spoke a few words to the French speaking audience in an expert manner. The grand old star of former days, "Pit" Laine, was next to step up to the "micro". He displayed a speaking versatility reminiscent of his play on the ice lanes. Talking in both languages, he stated that it was a pleasure to be present among old friends and that all fans should stay behind the "blue, blanc, rouge" aggregation, as they still had a team of championship material. Flashy "Pit" Morin of the Senior Group Royals recalled his padding days with the Lachine Club.

Thanking Comrades Parry and Portwine for their kindness in assisting at the installation ceremonies, Comrade Smith stated that it is always a pleasure to have Comrade Parry presiding at a meeting of this nature because of his familiarity with the aims and objects of the Legion as well as the ritual for this occasion.

The padres, when asked to say a few words, each in their turn thanked the members for the honour of being asked to associate themselves with the Legion and promised their support of the branch at all times.

In his closing remarks, the president thanked the members for their confidence in electing him to office and promised that the aims and objects of the Legion would be his guide in conducting the affairs of the branch.

At an inquest held in Chateaugay on Monday night, the district coroner, Dr. I. K. Williams rendered a verdict of accidental death in the case of both victims.

CHATEAUGAY CANADIAN LEGION BRANCH INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS
The annual installation of officers for Chateaugay and District Branch 108 of the Canadian Legion took place in St. George's Church Hall, on Tuesday, Feb. 3. With past president W. J. Reid in the chair the meeting opened with the usual ritual of O Canada, a tribute to fallen comrades and one minute's silence.

After the opening ceremonies, the chairman called on Comrade Hugh Parry, Immediate Past Pres., of the Quebec Provincial Command of the Canadian Legion, to take the chair and act as installing officer. Comrade Parry then asked Comrade Fred Portwine of Branch 60, and Past Chairman of the Montreal Council to act as presenting officer. The following officers were then installed for the ensuing year: President, Comrade Louis Smith; Chaplains, Rev. D. R. Morrison, Rev. E. Reeves-Gravel, Rev. W. G. Walsh; 1st Vice-Pres., Comrade J. P. Boucher; Treasurer, Comrade I. W. Gilbert; Secretary, Comrade J. Bulmer; Committee: Comrades P. Edgell, J. Bonnell, H. Davies, W. J. Reid and H. Rowell; Sgt.-Arms, Comrade R. Lane.

The Late Miss Helen M. White

VALLEYFIELD—The community was saddened at the passing on Sunday morning, February 1st, of the late Helen M. White at the Central Division of the Montreal General Hospital. She had been in poor health since last July and suffered very much during her long illness.

Helen White was born on August 3rd, 1921, at Kensington, Que., the daughter of Eva Elizabeth Murray and William Arthur White. She attended Huntingdon Academy and Valleyfield Convent. At the time of her illness she was employed as a typist at Canadian Schenley Limited.

The many floral tributes and expressions of sympathy, as well as the exceptionally large attendance at the funeral were worthy marks of esteem towards the young woman. Her ready smile and easy going manner will be greatly missed by her co-workers and many friends of Huntingdon and Valleyfield.

Helen's loss is also mourned by her two brothers, David, who is at Nichols Chemical Company, and Lloyd of Mercks and Company, as well as her many uncles and aunts.

low-Kilkenny district are to be contested this week. Balloting was delayed because of a candidate's death.

At Saint Moritz last Friday, on ice that was badly chipped and cuppy in spots after a morning hockey game and a hasty freezing, Ottawa's Barbara Ann Scott skated to a triumph that brought Canada its first Olympic figure skating crown.

Wearing No. 13 on the sleeve of her white, fur-trimmed costume, the blonde, blue-eyed ballerina of the ice out-skated and out-scored 24 of the world's best women skaters to be acclaimed champion by a cheering crowd even before the judges added up their points.

International experts said that in succeeding to the title won three times before the war by Sonja Henie, Barbara Ann turned in a better performance than the Norwegian judges rated her first on the placing sheets and the other gave her a third for 11 placings.

The dimpled world and European champion made spins, spirals and loops look like child's play as thousands of spectators shouted hoarsely, "Barbell, Barbell!"—pet Swiss name for the 19-year-old Canadian.

After the victory, Barbara Ann's beaming mother, Mrs. Clyde Scott, told reporters the new Olympic title-holder has no desire to turn professional and Barbara Ann herself said her answer "would be I think I want to remain an amateur."

"I want to learn to cook, too," she added.

A tourist called on an old resident of the town:

"Hey, uncle, how far is it to Gravenhurst?"

"I dunno, mister, it used to be 'bout twenty-five miles, but the way things has come up around here, may be near forty now."

What's come over me - these days?

Often a woman becomes panicky and gives way to fears and nerves when perfectly natural changes are taking place in her system. And the unfortunate part is that these dark dreads and fears may cause a nervous breakdown ... needlessly!

Plenty of sleep, fresh air, wholesome food and Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help to build up your vitality and tone up the whole system—so that nerves and hysteria are forgotten. Yes, when you're in good shape physically and mentally—with no condition of "nerves" to magnify the slightest change—you can keep serene and happy right through the most trying times.

So remember, at the first sign of the fidgets, hysteria or nervous doubts—start building yourself up with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. You'll rest better, look better, feel better. Keep yourself in good condition with this time-proven remedy which has helped thousands of Canadian women. The name "Dr. Chase" is your assurance.

CHILDREN'S MOVIES:

The movie for next Saturday afternoon is called "Son of the Navy" and the story centres around the U.S. Army Air Corps during the war years. It is a story about dirigibles and training and will certainly be most interesting for all boys and girls. Show begins at 2.30 and doors open at 2.15.

BOXING:
Boxing has certainly taken a back seat during the past couple of weeks and likely will continue to do so during the hockey and skating season. However, all boys are reminded that spring training will commence as soon as the hockey season is over. So try to keep in good shape in the meantime.

GIRLS' NIGHT:
On Wednesday evening (tonight) at 7.30 p.m. the long wait for "Girls' Night" will commence, and we would like to see as many girls as possible out on that evening, because the program will be arranged in accordance with the wishes of the girls. There will be no special hours

IN THE FIELD OF SPORT

GOOD HOCKEY PROMISED AT LOCAL ARENA FOR FRIDAY NIGHT

Hockey enthusiasts in this district are in for a real treat on Friday night, when Harry Hoy, former star athlete for Huntingdon Academy, is bringing his Lacrosse Seniors here for an exhibition game with the formidable Huntingdon Senior aggregation. This will be Huntingdon's first appearance on home ice after a successful series of out-of-town games. Good, clean hockey is assured. Come out and support your home team. Puck faced at 8.30.

Bowling
The Huntingdon Bowling League season is rapidly drawing to a close. Enthusiasm and good sportsmanship are prevalent at all times amongst participating teams. Point scores have been changing rapidly and teams have been changing positions in unexpected numbers. This past week saw a record-breaking game scored up by Riel Bros. That team scored a total of 1269 pins in one game against their League opponent, Shawinigan Water & Power Co. on Tuesday evening. This is the highest score made in any one game by a League team this season.

The following are the position standings of the various teams. Men's Industrial League: Shawinigan Construction, Riel Bros., Huntingdon Gleaner, Shawinigan Water & Power Co., Noel Drive, and Knights of Columbus.
