Charge Voters' Lists Padded; Chief Justice Will Investigate

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

There was quite a bit about a lot of things in Monday's campaigning for the June 10 federal election — along with a charge of dishonest doings in Toronto.

Both Prime Minister St. Laurent, in Montreal, and John Diefenbaker, in Nova Scotia, set tables of widely diversified election topics before their listeners. Both drew good crowds. Mr. St. Laurent also drew some lively heckling.

CCF Leader M. J. Coldwell in Regina charged the Liberals with "retreating" from promises made in the past to set up a national health plan.

Social Credit Leader Solon Low, meantime, awaited Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen's decision whether the former Conservative prime minister would check the effect of a telegram sent by Prime Minister St. Laurent to the British government during last November's Suez crisis.

Progressive Conservative Leader Diefenbaker also took a serious view of a letter calling for Liberal votes which he said was sent to all members of the armed forces over the name of Mr. St. Laurent.

Complaints by Progressive Conservative, Liberal and CCF candidates in the Toronto constituency of St. Paul's resulted in Nelson Castonguay, chief electoral officer, appointing Chief Justice J. C. McRuer of Ontario to investigate reported padding of voters' lists there.

Mr. Castonguay announced in Ottawa that an "open organizational meeting" for the inquiry would be held today.

Mr. St. Laurent was heckled and interrupted frequently Monday night as he concluded a jaunt through Quebec with two speeches in Montreal.

Most heckling came at a meeting attended by between 5,000 and 6,000 in the Montreal Show Mart. A group of 50 youths demanded to know when the publicly-owned CNR's big new Queen Elizabeth Hotel in Montreal would be re-named Chateau Maisonneuve and "what about a national flag?"

The heckling did not deter Mr. St. Laurent from defending his government's external affairs policy, backing its use of debate-limiting closure in last year's Commons pipeline debate and describing the Liberal party as "the historic defender of provincial rights."

At Kentville, in a crowded day that took him to many mainly rural Nova Scotia points, Mr. Diefenbaker said "no more serious thing has been done in my political experience" than the Liberals' sending a letter to servicemen.

He said the Liberal document has been circulated to all servicemen while his own party has not

Hint UK Will Stop H-Tests

LONDON — (P) — Two London newspapers say Britain will cut short her current hydrogen bomb tests in the Pacific after her next and third blast. It had been understood that the government planned to touch off four explosions.

Government officials refused to confirm or deny the reports by The News Chronicle and the Labor party's Daily Herald in dispatches from the test centre at Christmas Island.

These reports say the tests will be curtailed because of:

1. Pressure brought by the Labor opposition in Parliament to keep radioactive fall-out to a minimum.
2. Success of the two tests held thus far and the opinion of experts that one more test will provide the information they need at this time.

Prime Minister Macmillan, while refusing to accede to demands to call off the Christmas Island tests, has repeatedly pledged that they will be held to a minimum.

In Brighton, Most Rev. G. K. A. Bell, Anglican bishop of Cichester, called on Britain today to take a lead in banning nuclear tests. The 74-year-old churchman told the Sussex Diocesan Council that theologians should join with scientists "in moral condemnation" of the use of nuclear weapons.

Press Drive For Cuban Terrorists

HAVANA — (P) — Three bombs exploded in Havana Monday night as Cuban authorities pressed a fresh drive against rebels accused of trying to sabotage the capital's water and electric supply.

The bombs went off in various parts of the city, causing some property damage. No casualties were reported.

The bullet-riddled body of 30-year-old Antonio Cornejo Acosta was found lying near a pipeline which brings in part of Havana's water supply. Several charges of dynamite were reported near the body.

Police called Acosta a terrorist, but did not explain how he was killed.

Wants Flying Saucer

LONDON — (Reuters) — The Times today carries a want ad for a flying saucer in its column of personals. "Flying saucer and spaceship full-scale models, working drawings etc. urgently wanted," the ad says, listing a London telephone number.

DuPont Ruling Spurs Congressional Flurry

WASHINGTON (P) — Monday's United States Supreme Court ruling calling for separation of Du Pont Co. from General Motors Corp. has resulted in some congressional arguments as well as confusion in industry.

Senator Richard O'Mahoney, Wyoming Democrat who presided over a long inquiry into General Motors 1½ years ago, predicts that the high court decision will give fresh impetus to new antitrust bills pending in the U. S. Congress.

"I think this decision will be a memorable one in the history of the Supreme Court and the interpretation of the anti-trust laws," O'Mahoney said.

The court's 4-to-2 decision, on the other hand, prompted Delaware's Democratic Senator J. Allen Frear to predict that the ruling "could in my opinion have an adverse economic effect on the country at large."

"It seems to me the court has gone far and wide and found only the thinnest possible basis on which to reach its majority decision," said Frear. Du Pont is incorporated in Delaware.

BACK TO LOWER COURT
The court ruled that the huge chemical firm must give up its "commanding position" in General Motors. It ordered the case

PARIS — (Reuters) — The French government crisis reached the end of its second week today with a tense political tug-of-war between veteran politician Pierre Pflimlin and the Socialists he wants to coax into a new cabinet.

Pflimlin, 50-year-old Mouvement Republicain Populaire (Catholic) party leader, is studying the stiff terms presented to him Monday night for Socialist participation in a new government.

The national council of the Socialists, party of outgoing Premier Guy Mollet, attached tough conditions to their decision to participate.

But Pflimlin feels that a partnership with Socialists is essential if a new coalition is to have the strength and stability to tackle France's pressing problems in revolt-torn Algeria and in the financial field.

PROPOSES ACTION
Pinning his chances on a Socialist "yes," Pflimlin proposed an "action program" as the basis of a government to take in all the major parties except the Communists and the anti-tax Poujadists.

Liberal Candidate Dies

GUELPH, Ont. — (P) — Liberal candidate Henry A. Hosking died Monday and residents of Wellington South will vote about a month later than other Canadians as a result.

Mr. Hosking, the riding's member of Parliament since 1949, died at 48 from a pancreas ailment. He had been in critical condition in hospital since he was taken from his home 12 days ago.

Chief election officer Nelson Castonguay said in Ottawa the last time a candidate died in a federal election campaign was in 1940, when Willy Poisson, candidate in Trois-Rivieres, died March 25 a day before the election.

Mr. Hosking, operated on for his ailment last year, underwent a second operation in Toronto last April after he was taken off an Ottawa-bound train at Oshawa suffering from a recurrence.

Mr. Hosking leaves his wife; his father; two brothers, including William in Bathurst, N.B.; and a sister.

Burmese Bad Guys

RANGOON, Burma — (P) — Bandits staged a wild-west-style train holdup 10 miles from Rangoon. Three men climbed over the tender and at rifle-point ordered the engine crew to halt the train while eight companions went through the cars for loot.

Tot Drowns At Katevale

A 14½ months-old tot drowned in less than two feet of water yesterday at Little Lake Magog while his parents were busy cleaning a summer cottage a few feet away.

The body of Marcel D'Avignon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donat D'Avignon, of Katevale, was found floating near the bank of the lake around 11:50 a.m. yesterday.

Provincial Police Sgt. Eugene Morin said that the child was left in his parents' locked car but it is believed that one of the older children in the family unintentionally unfasted the door and left it open. The child is thought to have wandered off and tumbled down a slope into the water.

The boy was rushed to La Providence Hospital in Magog where artificial respiration was given without success.

The D'Avignons are parents of five other children.

Game Needs An Adding Machine

GALT, Ont. — (CP) — Alex Lister struck out 17 Highland batters and pitched a seven-inning no-hitter for Manchester Atoms in a Galt Minor Baseball Association game Saturday — and let in nine runs.

It didn't faze him a bit, however. Alex sat by most of the time as his team scored 47 runs. He hit three homers himself to make up for the 17 bases on balls he gave up.

Living Costs Go Up Again

OTTAWA — (P) — Canada's cost-of-living index edged up another 0.2 per cent in April, mainly because of increased prices for various commodities and services, the Bureau of Statistics said today.

The index-based on 1949 prices equalling 100 — stood at 121.1 at the end of April, compared with 120.9 at the end of March. A year ago the index stood at 116.6.

The food and clothing indices were unchanged, but the catch-all index "other commodities and services" jumped to 126.3 from 125.1.

In the latter group prices advanced for a wide variety of items including theatre admissions, bus and street car fares, haircuts, newspapers, beer and auto insurance rates.

Tear Gas Used Says Union

MURDOCHVILLE, Que.

— (P) — One person was reported injured Monday night in a clash between provincial police and striking members of the United Steelworkers of America (CLC) as tempers frayed in the 84-day-long strike.

Union spokesman Roger Bedard said police used tear gas and clubs to break up a union demonstration near the entrance to the Gaspe Copper Mines Limited property. One thousand union men walked out on strike at Gaspe Copper last March 11.

Lieut. Gerard Timlin, head of the 110-man provincial police detail, said he could not confirm or deny the report. The local hospital reported only one person came in for treatment, a man with a head cut requiring a few stitches.

Strikers were ordered to abandon their picket line at the plant of Caspe Copper Mines Limited today following a clash between workers and provincial police Monday night.

Roger Bedard, spokesman for the striking United Steelworkers of America (CLC), said provincial police "armed with machine guns" ordered six pickets — the maximum number allowed at any one time — away from the plant.

The disturbance followed a union meeting in the town. Mr. Bedard said about 2,000 persons — "500 strikers and 1,500 persons from the area" — attended the meeting. When it ended they staged a parade through the town in their cars.

Some cars apparently stopped near the mine entrance, Mr. Bedard said, but "nobody tried to get into the mine."

ARGUE WITH POLICE
He reported an argument developed with police and the officers used their sticks and tear gas to disperse the crowd.

The meeting ended about 10:30 p.m. and an altercation started about half an hour later. The town was reported quiet two hours after the incident although police cars still cruised the streets.

Mine manager W. G. Brissenden said he was not present when the incident took place.

The union normally stages a meeting each Monday when strikers living outside the town come in to collect pay.

Trouble between the company and the union is rooted in a dispute over certification. The company obtained a writ of prohibition last June to stop the Quebec labor relations board from ruling on a union application for certification. No ruling has been given on the case.

A.B.C. Home And School Appoints New Officers At Cookshire Meeting.

The A. B. C. Home and School Association met in the auditorium of the Cookshire High School with R. B. Carr in the chair.

The secretary, Mrs. J. Wood, read the minutes.

Mrs. Bagley reported for the current committee, and stated that the material had been purchased. Mrs. Wood then gave the quotations for rods, making up of curtains, etc. In view of the fact that the total expense would be more than the available funds in the treasury, it was decided to have some of the members do the sewing and a committee was appointed for this purpose, namely, Mrs. Heatherington, Mrs. Tredinnick, Mrs. R. Elliott, Mrs. Bagley and Mrs. Greenwald.

Mrs. H. C. Barter gave the treasurer's report and Mr. Barter the Dental Clinic report. Mrs. Heatherington, representative for the local association gave a full report of the conference of the Quebec Federation of Home and School Associations which was held in Montreal recently. Mr. Carr thanked her for this excellent resume.

Mr. D. MacRae presented the report of the nomination committee, and the slate of officers for the ensuing year is as follows: Immediate past president, R. Barton Carr; president, Mrs. T. Bagley; vice-presidents, Mrs. D. Standish, Mrs. J. Murray; secretary, Mrs. M. Westgate; treasurer, Mr. F. Tredinnick; dental clinic, Mrs. E. Watson, H. C. Barter; programme committee, R. Sanford, Mrs. C. Standish, H. V. Burns; membership committee, Miss Louisa Elliott, Mrs. Roberta Richardson, Mrs. Carl Groenewold; regional council, Canon W. C. Dunn, D. MacRae; refreshment committee, Mrs. F. Tredinnick, Mrs. M. Jacques; publicity convener, Mrs. Heatherington.

The guest speaker, Mr. Robert Smith, principal of St. John's

High School, was introduced by Mr. Carr, and gave a detailed account of the "co-curricular activities" of the St. John's Home and School Association. He pointed out that the members of this association, in co-ordination with other town societies, endeavoured to find out what was needed for the young people in the way of sports, hobbies, etc., then supplied talent from the association members and gave some financial assistance.

Mrs. M. Westgate thanked Mr. Smith for his instructive talk. Mrs. A. Learned and Mrs. L. Cork, then served refreshments. Mrs. E. Clarke is spending a short holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Scott, in Grandmere.

Mr. and Mrs. John VanDer Leden are visiting relatives and friends in Ontario.

The Cubs and their Cub Master wish to thank all who so kindly contributed to the "paper drive" recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. Florence Cook spent the week-end in Shawinigan Falls with relatives and friends.

BROMPTON —

Mr. Dwight Daigneault has completed his term at Bishop's University and is spending a few days in New York visiting friends, before leaving for Douglas, Manitoba, where he will partake in the C.O.T.C. course during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Shannon, of Valleyfield, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson while attending the Grand Lodge I.O.O.F. in Sherbrooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daigneault and children of Sherbrooke were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Daigneault.

Mrs. Fred Lecuyer of Rhode Island, motored home to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Ward, for the holiday weekend.

Mrs. Oldford of St. John's, Newfoundland is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cheal of Sherbrooke, were guests of Mr.

Former Liberal Organizer Backs Thibault

Alphonse Trudeau Attacks Liberal Monetary Policies

By CUTHBERT JONES

A one-time organizer-in-chief for the Liberal party in Sherbrooke County, a former mayor of Sherbrooke and an Independent Liberal candidate in the federal elections of 1949, Alphonse Trudeau last night exploded the second bombshell of the local election campaign when he spoke in support of the Progressive Conservative candidate, Francois Thibault, at a party rally held in St. Jeanne d'Arc Church hall on Galt street west.

Opening speaker on the rather lengthy list of orators, Mr. Trudeau smilingly admitted that his appearance in support of the Conservative candidate might occasion some surprise but the reasons for the change in his politics were two-fold: The personalities of the two candidates and the failure of the Liberal administration to meet the needs of the people, especially in the provision of low-priced housing for Canadians in the low and medium income brackets.

"I know Mr. Thibault," he declared, "and I appreciate his qualities and his sincerity. I believe that he will make a fine representative for Sherbrooke County. In fact, I am convinced that the majority of the Liberals share my view that he would be a better representative for the county than Mr. Gingues."

"I urge these clear-headed Liberals to vote from their own interests and not from affection."

THE HOUSING PROBLEM

Turning to matters of government policy, Mr. Trudeau was critical of the tight money and high interest program of the federal government, which, he said, was seriously curtailing business in Canada.

It was seriously cramping the home-building program, he continued, and was preventing the moderate income groups from purchasing their own homes.

Following amendments to the National Housing Act in 1944 to permit greater loans by Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation for home-building, the Provincial Government had passed legislation authorizing the payment of three per cent of the interest on mortgages of $7,000 and less, Mr. Trudeau explained. But the beneficial effects of the provincial measure had been offset by increased interest rates imposed by the federal government and the cutting down on the amount of money available from private sources.

"Mr. Gingues, who is in the home-building business, should have known the trouble this credit tightening would cause," the speaker concluded, "but he failed to take any move to protect the home-buyer."

THAT SURPLUS

Liberal speakers were boasting of the great prosperity that existed in Canada, the candidate,

Francois Thibault, said during the course of his address, but the only prosperity apparent was the huge surpluses which were building up in the federal treasury.

He favored increasing income tax exemptions to the level of those granted by the provincial government—$3,000 for married couples and $1,500 for bachelors.

He also suggested that family allowance payments be continued after the age of 16 if the children were attending school, as this was the time when parents really needed assistance in educating their children.

"The Roman Catholic School Board, of which I am a member, has been criticized by Mr. Gingues for increasing taxes," continued Mr. Thibault, "but I would ask you to compare the rates here with the rates in Ontario. Then you will find our taxes are comparatively low."

DUMPING

He also criticized the failure of the Liberals to enact effective anti-dumping legislation to protect the textile working and the

Joint Meeting On Parking Lot Issue Delayed

The meeting planned between the Chamber of Commerce and the City Council to discuss the downtown traffic situation has been delayed indefinitely, Roger Belisle, manager of the Chamber said yesterday.

He said the members' original intention was to study the parking situation along Wellington north and south, and to offer suggestions for the Council's scrutiny. They were to deal with the projected second-storey addition to the Meadow St. lot and the planned parking ground for Wellington St. south, he said.

However, since the initiation of the study, the members have found that "many unforeseen factors entered into the situation," especially in connection with Wellington St. south where any parking changes there would affect the West Ward, he added.

Mr. Belisle said the Chamber members met with Town Planner Lehave two weeks ago—another meeting is planned for today—who told them he had not completed work with regards to parking in the South Ward.

Although the Chamber's examination of parking in the south end was progressing slowly, the study of Wellington St., North was well advanced, he said.

In the meantime, Mr. Belisle noted, "We are trying to find suggestions about parking meters and the like. We won't stop until we have found the right solutions to the parking problems at the least cost."

Knife-Brawl Victim Is Still On Hospital's Critical List

Twenty-three year-old Roland Desrochers, suffering from a deep heart wound received in a bloody downtown melee Sunday night, was reported conscious but still on the critical list this morning by St. Vincent de Paul Hospital officials.

Desrochers, who lives at 100 12th Ave., was rushed to the hospital after being stabbed during a brawl with a knife-wielding assailant at the corner of Albert and Wellington St. North around 10:30 Sunday night.

Norman Pepin, 24, of Durham St., was held for questioning by municipal police a few hours later. Pepin will probably appear for preliminary hearing in Court of Sessions Thursday on a charge of injuring Richard Pinard, 19, with an offensive weapon. Yesterday he pleaded not guilty to a charge of carrying a switch knife.

Municipal Police said that Pe-

ROLAND DESROCHERS The Victim

pin attacked Pinard around 8 p.m. Sunday night on Wellington St. North across the street from where Desrochers was injured.

A teenage girl was also involved in the Pinard incident but police refused to identify her. She suffered a cut to the finger when she tried to separate Pinard and Pepin, police said.

TEENAGER THREATENED

Unofficial reports were also received of a third incident, later Saturday night, when a teenager was threatened by two men with switch knives in front of the Y.M.C.A. on Dufferin St.

Apparently the two men were passing in a car near the Y.M. and started making insulting remarks to a group of teenagers. When one of the youths answered them, the two men stopped the car and threatened him at knife point.

Police are continuing their investigation into these incidents.

Improved Water Pressure Studied At Lennoxville

Suggestions for improving Lennoxville's water supply were discussed at the regular session of the Town Council last evening, with debate centering around reports that much power and water were being wasted owing to the present system of having the pump work twice daily to fill the reservoir. This results in pressure being high at some times of the day and too low at others.

Ald. Lunderville suggested that four small booster pumps be used in the higher sections of the town to maintain pressure while Ald. Rayercraft favored a big booster to operate directly from the reservoir line.

Opposition was presented to the latter suggestion because it would aggravate the stress and leakage noted by Mayor Gilbey and Ald. Lunderville during a recent inspection of the water system.

The issue was referred to the Water committee for further study.

Notice was also given of a by-law to reduce the number of licensed taxicabs in the town from twelve to eight as a prelude to the proposed merger of the Veterans and St. Francis taxi companies, which would operate from the St. Francis stand on Queen street.

Provision was made for incorporated companies owning property within the town to vote in referendums, the official representative to be named annually and the selection registered at the Town hall.

The aldermen also decided to study increasing the amount of employers and public liability insurance carried by the Town and inquiries will be made to a number of insurance firms for quotations.

Ald. Norman Welsh was pro-mayor for the current quarter.

Ald. A. Rayercraft expressed the thanks of the Council to those responsible for the success of Clean-Up Week.

Open House At Dominion Textile Plant Being Held

Civic officials, and other dignitaries attended the opening of the Dominion Textile Open House yesterday afternoon at the Pacific street plant. The Open House continues tonight, Wednesday and Thursday nights. Members of the public are cordially invited to take advantage of this opportunity of viewing the workings of a modern textile mill.

Sherbrooke branch superintendent Raymond Charlebois said at the Open House yesterday that "what you have seen this afternoon is merely a sample of Canada's very large and very important textile industry. But I think it is a good sample."

"You have seen here some of the most modern textile manufacturing equipment that is made. You have seen a plant that is efficient, working conditions that are healthy, safe and comfortable. And you have seen top quality cotton goods being produced for discriminating Canadian customers."

Mr. Charlebois touched upon the competition factor in the textile industry. He stressed "it is the presence of a progressive textile industry in this country that keeps Canadian Consumers at the price-mercy of foreign manufacturers."

"We do not fear just competition. We are competition—for

The Liberals Are So Modest

A circular sent through the mails by the Central Liberal Committee is a marvel of modesty. The cover sheet, resembling that of an insurance policy, is entitled: "Insurance policy issued by the Liberal Party. Family, Employment, Old Age, Health, Beneficiary: Your Family."

The Liberal Party, we are told, ASSURES your family's future; the Liberal Party INSURES your for your old age; the Liberal Party INSURES you against unemployment; the Liberal Party INSURES your health and the health of your children and the Liberal Party INSURES the welfare of veterans.

Family allowance, old age pensions and other social benefit amounts distributed are given and we have no quarrel with them. But we do question the Utopian impression of complete security which the folder leaves. If this impression were a true one then copies of this "insurance policy" should be cherished; they should even be placed in corner-stone boxes to show generations of the future how fortunate are our citizens.

No one will deny, at least, that its author is an optimist. But he is just a little out of touch with reality. He should meet a few parents we know who are not quite so confident about their family's future; a few old age pensioners who do not seem to realize they are INSURED for their old age.

The country is not going to the dogs. But sensible people don't expect everything and they don't like to be told that they have everything when they haven't.

The folder does prove one thing: the Liberal capacity for claiming credit. One example will suffice.

"Approximately 200,000 veterans and their dependents in Canada receive pensions from the St. Laurent Government," the pamphlet says.

The impression many would get from this sentence is that the St. Laurent Government deserves special credit for veterans' pensions. (The veterans, of course, actually receive their pensions from the taxpayers of Canada.)

The fact is that the Government of Canada would be paying pensions to veterans whether it happened to be dominated by Liberals, Conservatives, C.C.F. or Social Crediters. A Conservative government extended pensions to veterans after World War I as a matter of course. All the allied nations did so following both wars.

The St. Laurent government deserves as much credit for issuing veterans' pensions as it does for issuing postage stamps.

Traffic Research Foundation

The president of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Rhys M. Sale, suggested last week that the estimated $150,000 a year required to carry out research into traffic accidents should come from industry. He urged support of a plan proposed by the Canadian Medical Association to establish a Canadian Medical Traffic Research Foundation.

Mr. Sale's statement is both timely and laudable. There is no doubt that the medical profession, working with established authorities and groups whose aims is to reduce traffic fatalities, can make a valuable, and perhaps historic, contribution in cutting down on the heavy toll highway mishaps take of Canadian lives every year.

The father of the Research Foundation Plan, Dr. Harold Elliott, director of the Department of Neurology and Neurosurgery at the Montreal General Hospital, said in Sherbrooke last month that the framework of the Foundation is now in existence across Canada, ready to begin an intensive five-year program.

Its purpose is to "isolate, record and analyze, the principal and controlling human factors which cause, or contribute to the cause of traffic accidents, injuries, and death." In short, the Foundation will approach traffic accidents in the same way the medical profession has approached polio, cancer and other killers.

Dr. Elliott outlined the different ways in which medicine can help solve the problem. These include setting up good driving standards on a medical basis, safer design of roads and cars, revision of the whole system of emergency first aid, increased study of traffic crash treatment in hospitals, and a scientific approach to drunken driving.

The program represents a pioneering venture into the prevention of traffic fatalities and injuries. It adds up to something which could become a milestone achievement in our automobile-gear society.

The local St. Francis Valley Branch of the Quebec Division of the Canadian Medical Association has endorsed the Foundation, and pledged support to its aims, as has the whole Canadian medical profession.

It must have, too, the active and financial support, not only of industry, but also of the whole population whose lives it seeks to save.

Election Horse Sense

Sam Slick, the legendary Nova Scotia humorist invented by Judge T. C. Haliburton, is quoted by the Toronto Star to apply to the present election campaign as follows:

"It is in politics as in horses: when a man has a beast that's near enough up to notch, he'd better not swap him; if he does, he's been almost sure to get one not as good as his own. My rule is: I'd rather keep a critter whose faults I do know, than change him for a beast I don't know."

Which is fair enough. But what does one do when the critter starts driving, and makes the man do all the pulling. Even Sam Slick would have to agree that there is only one solution: get a new critter before you're ruined!

Press Comment

FEEBLE MINOR PARTIES.

(Ottawa Journal)

The Social Credit party has no hope of forming the next national government. The barest majority in the House of Commons would require 134 members and Social Credit has nominated only 116. The CCF, so stout in its denunciation of government pipeline tactics last year, would have accepted that in some constituencies it contests with small hope the result will be to split the opposition vote and facilitate the election of a Liberal, a supporter of the party which so offended parliamentary procedure.

There comes a time when politicians must put country ahead of party. The restoration of the two-party system in Canada becomes of increasing importance if only to ensure that Parliament is protected from the bullying of one relentless majority. If the day comes when there is complete disgust with the Liberals and Conservatives, a determination to replace them, the CCF's and Social Crediters will not need a crystal ball to tell them their opportunity has arrived.

But at this moment they can do no more than advertise their lack of public support. That being so, they should give their votes to that one of the two older parties which comes closest in policy, spirit and behaviour to their ideal.

NOT SO FUNNY

(Cape Breton Post)

Japanese doctors are trying to find out why a 21-year-old man they have been examining for two months, has grown to seven feet, three. He was found hiding in the woods where he lived six years after running away from school because he could not bear the teasing of his classmates, who believed growing taller than five feet was funny. Cape Breton grew a giant once, but has never heard of him being laughed at for his size. The general impression of Giant MacAskill was of awe rather than ridicule.

Prairies In Miniature

Quebec Oil Rush On This Summer

By DAVE OANCIA

Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL—The search for oil and natural gas in the St. Lawrence lowlands of Quebec, a region described as the "prairies in miniature," will likely hit a record pace this summer.

Sparked by a sizable discovery of natural gas at Batiscan, 90 miles southwest of Quebec City, companies holding exploration licences have mapped out extensive wildcat drilling and geophysical programs.

The provincial government estimates that roughly $1,000,000 will be poured into the petroleum hunt. Most of this will be spent on drilling more than two dozen wells, but some will go for geophysical work.

The Quebec mines department described the Batiscan gas discovery by the Bald Mountain Oil Company Ltd., as the "first large commercial gas find" in the province.

Dr. I. W. Jones, director of the provincial geological survey, said the well flowed under good pressure at roughly 3,500,000 cubic feet a day—an amount considered good even in gas-rich Alberta.

The existence of natural gas and oil in the lowlands has been known for almost a century. Farmers drilling wells for drinking water have struck gas. St. Lawrence River valley residents have been using gas discovered this way for heating and cooking for almost 75 years.

One of the most spectacular discoveries was made by a motel operator near Trois-Rivieres, midway between Montreal and Quebec. He drove a two-inch pipe into a gas-bearing formation and gas spewed from the pipe for 76 days without interruption. The flow was estimated at 5,000,000 cubic feet a day.

Dr. T. H. Clark, Montreal consulting geologist, said the motel keeper's find definitely provided the incentive needed for more detailed exploration. "No part of the lowlands should be ruled out as a potential source of oil or gas," he said.

The lowlands cover roughly 10,000 square miles, equal to about one per cent of the area covered by the interior plains of Western Canada.

Since the motel keeper's accidental discovery, 29 companies have obtained exploration licences from the provincial government.

Few formal government edicts and regulations govern operations.

Unlike the Prairie Provinces, Quebec has no petroleum and natural gas conservation board.

Exploration licences are valid for three years and can be renewed for another three if commercial quantities of gas and oil are not found. An exception is the Lowlands Exploration licence which is good for five years, with a renewal clause.

Most of the oil companies operating in the lowlands region have banded into an association, similar to, though not as highly organized, the Canadian Petroleum Association of Western Canada.

Government officials say the present policy is designed to keep companies working on the land covered by exploration licences. One official said, "We don't want the province's resources held in reserve while supplies are drawn from other areas."

MIXED-UP TELEVISION

(New York Herald Tribune)

Britain's relatively new commercial television network unintentionally entertained its listeners recently more than it meant to. Technicians failed to relate sound and picture properly. Some of the results:

"Clean your teeth with this," said the announcer, and a succulent sauce flashed on the screen.

"The never-fail car lubricant," said the announcer, and a glass of beer appeared.

"Give this to your cat, he'll love it," was illustrated by a pretty girl pouring a glass of champagne.

The climax was a commercial in which a sleek cat walked across the screen and a woman's voice said, "That's my husband."

The sponsors, paying at the rate of $8,400 a minute, received free time to make up.

END PLAY MAKES SLAM

Dr. John Moscow of New York writes, "I hope you approve of the bidding of this hand. I only had 16 points for my three no-trump response but I felt that my two ten spots justified the slam bid."

I do approve of the bidding, and the play as described by the Doctor is even better.

The Doctor won the opening club lead with his ace and went right after spades. West dropped a low diamond on the second spade and things looked real bad. Dummy's jack of diamonds was allowed to hold the next trick and a second diamond lead was held by declarer's king. If West had won the second diamond the hand would have been a cinch from then on since East would have been squeezed in spades and hearts.

West's double holdup made things very difficult but Dr. Moscow managed to make the hand by an end play against East. He ran the club suit and noted that East discarded two hearts and the ten of diamonds.

Now the Doctor had a real problem. East held two spades and three other cards. Were all three hearts or were two of them hearts and the other a diamond? Dr. Moscow decided that West's first discard would not have been a diamond if he had started with only four diamonds and hence West would hold both missing diamonds.

The ace, king and another heart were played and East was in and had to lead away from his jack of spades to give the Doctor his twelfth trick.

CALENDAR KNEW BETTER

(London Free Press)

Folks who argue that there should be no fooling around with the calendar got a powerful meteorological argument to back them up this week. Look what happened to our May 24 holiday.

Because Victoria Day fell on Friday we celebrated it on Monday, the 20th. Celebrated is hardly the word. It was a thoroughly miserable, November-like day.

And Friday? A perfect day, azure skies fleecy clouds, mercury in the low 70's. And everybody working. That'll teach us. Or will it?

NEW PARLIAMENT HOUSE

(Australian News Service.)

The Federal Government was urged on May 2 by the presiding officers of Parliament to begin planning immediately for a monumental new Parliament House in Canberra. They said the existing building was inadequate. In a joint statement they suggested a world-wide architectural competition for the design of the building.

"There should be visible reminders that we and the future generations have a trust to guard and sustain those precious privileges which have won for the British Parliamentary system the admiration of the world," the statement said. "A monumental Parliament House is the embodiment of the recognition of that trust."

HEART OF THE MAPLE TREE

Oh, the English hearts are hearts of oak—
A very fine thing to be!
But if I had my choice I'd take
The heart of the maple tree;
For in the Fall the queen of trees
Has colour and beauty bold,
She stands on the hill with her heart on her sleeve—
All russet and flame and gold!
And in the Winter as we sit
Around the stove so warm,
The heat from the maple's heart is good
As we listen to the storm.
When Spring is here we once again
The maple's worth can see,
For the sap runs out so sweetly from
The heart of the maple tree.
In Summer we may sit beneath
Her cool green leafy shade—
And this, my good old rocking chair
Of the maple's heart is made.
Oh, the English hearts are hearts of oak—
A very fine thing to be;
But here's my choice, let's drink a toast:
"The Canadian Maple Tree!"

farmers and its growing centralization tendencies.
"The Liberals tell you they are the only national party—the only party that can effect national unity. If this is so, it seems rather strange that eight of the 10 provincial governments are fighting the return of the Liberal administration."

Ald. Antonio Pinard presided over the meeting, the other speakers including Gerard Turcotte, Gaetan Cote, P. Eng, Hermegeilde Perron and Armand Fiset.

Ayrshire Society To Hold Field Day

The Quebec Ayrshire Society will hold its annual field day on June 26th, at Alderwood Farm, property of Mr. J. G. Wilson, St. Valentin, P. Q.

All Ayrshire breeders are cordially invited to attend with their family and friends.

On this occasion, there will be a "calf race" where the catcher becomes the owner of a calf. All young breeders under 13 years old are invited to take part in this "calf race".

Cards Of Thanks

MacFARLANE — The family of the late Alton Stuart MacFarlane, wish to acknowledge with appreciative thanks, the kindness of all the relatives and friends, who met our cortege at Pine Hill Cemetery, all who sent flowers, expressions of sympathy, and those who furnished dinner for everyone from a distance.

MacLEAN — The family of the late Mrs. D. A. MacLean would like to express their thanks to those who assisted them in any way at the time of her death and burial.

In Memoriam

ALLAN — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, John McVie Allan, who passed away June 4, 1956.
His charming ways and smiling face,
Are a pleasure to recall.
He had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved to all.

Hitch-Hiker Survives Cliff Crash

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — A hitch-hiker suffering from brain concussion and amnesia crawled on his hands and knees up a 150-foot cliff Monday following an accident.

James Daffan of Roanoke, Va., did not remember how long he had been at the bottom of the ravine alongside state highway 1, some 46 miles south of Monterey.

Found pinned under a car in the ravine was the body of Lawrence Keith Chittenden, 20, of Hollywood, Calif., a naval reservist bound for training in San Francisco.

Patrolmen said there were no skid marks and that Chittenden's car apparently went over the side of the road, plunged straight down 50 feet and then bounced another 100 feet down to the bottom of the ravine.

It Costs Money Not to Lime

Recently a prominent agricultural experiment station published some figures that opened our eyes.

Based on 26 years of experimental results, it was stated that a 160-acre farm which used lime and clover had an average annual income of $950 more than the same farm would have made without lime and clover. Here are the figures, based on 40 acres per crop:

	FARM A No Treatment	FARM B Lime and Clover
CORN	1440 bu.	2320 bu.
OATS	1560 bu.	2000 bu.
WHEAT	800 bu.	1120 bu.
HAY	60 tons	72 tons
Total value of crops	$2826	$3876
Difference		$1050
Annual cost of lime		100
Annual cost to Farmer A	$950 for not using lime

If you are Farmer A, let us help you become Farmer B. If you are Farmer B, we want to keep on furnishing lime-stone as you require it.

Furlined Parkas, Slacks, Steno's Arctic Wear

OTTAWA — Just what does the well-dressed stenographer wear to work at Frohisher Bay-sealskin trousers and a furlined parka?

Mrs. Phyllis Dolan had cause to wonder as she packed for a week-long visit to the Arctic community on the southeast shore of Baffin Island to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Northwest Territories Council.

But she was not thinking in terms of sealskin and fur. It was a question of being chic but not chilly on her first visit to the Arctic.

She tried to select a northern spring wardrobe from southern winter and spring apparel, keeping in mind that at this time of year the Frohisher Bay climate is unpredictable.

SLACKS IF NECESSARY
Council secretary R. A. Bishop protested he was no expert when it came to suggestions for feminine wear in the Arctic. The men in the party were expected to be comfortable in suits, topcoats and rubber galoshes, with a sweater or heavy undergarment.

But where does that leave the ladies?

Marriages

DUBUC — BURFORD

WINDSOR MILLS — The marriage of Miss Betty Jane Burford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Burford, of Chateaugay Village, to Mr. Robert Henry Dubuc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dubuc, of Windsor Mills, took place at St. George's Anglican Church, Windsor Mills, on Saturday afternoon, May 25. Rev. Guy Marston, of Sherbrooke, officiated, assisted by Mr. Chapman of Windsor.

Spring flowers were used to decorate the church, and during the service, the soloist, Miss Nancy Gleason, of Richmond, was accompanied at the organ by the bridegroom's sister, Miss Katherine Dubuc, who played selections from Handel during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length white lace dress with scalloped neckline trimmed with pearls and rhinestones, and sleeves ending in points over the hands, the princess waistline falling into a full skirt. Her veil of silk net, worn by the groom's grandmother fifty years ago, was held in place by a bandeau of orange buds, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Her pearl necklace was a gift of the groom.

The maid of honor, Miss Barbara Burford, wore a street length princess style dress of turquoise blue with matching jacket and bandeau, white accessories, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Mr. Frank Harper, jr., acted as best man and the ushers were Mr. Douglas Burford, of Chateaugay Village and Mr. Basil Conley, of Windsor.

Mrs. Burford, the bride's mother, wore a mauve printed silk sheath-style dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Dubuc, the groom's mother, chose a twinkling blue printed silk dress with matching linen duster, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held at St. Andrew's United Church Hall, where spring flowers were used in the decorations. The bride's table was centered with a three tier wedding cake and white tapers in silver candelabra.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubuc left for points of interest in Ontario, the bride travelling in an ensemble of twinkling blue linen duster with sheath style printed silk dress, white picture hat and gloves, black patent leather bag and shoes, and a corsage of red roses.

Guests attended from Stratford, Ont., Scotland, St. Lambert, Montreal, Sherbrooke, and Richmond.

PAYNE — DURRELL

WATERLOO — The wedding of Miss Joyce Durrell, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. Durrell, of Waterloo, to Mr. Grant Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Payne, of Granby Hill, took place at St. Luke's Anglican Church, Waterloo, at three o'clock on Saturday, June 1st. Rev. Paul Busing officiated. White and purple lilies were used to decorate the altar and pews and during the signing of the register, the organist played "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Ellis Durrell, wore a waltz length gown of white flocked nylon over taffeta with long sleeved bolero, her short veil of nylon tulle gathered to a figure-eight headpiece. She carried a white prayer book, a gift of the groom, with streamers of American Beauty roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Bernard Wood, of Waterbury Centre, Vt., was gown in a waltz length dress of light blue nylon over taffeta with a bandeau of woven straw in pink and blue, and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Mrs. Payne, mother of the groom, wore a navy blue and white print dress with white accessories and a red and white corsage.

Mr. Clarence Yarnold, of Waterloo, acted as best man, and ushers were Mr. Gerald Williams, of Waterloo, and Mr. Stanley Cross Field, of Granby Hill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents. Later the bridal couple left for a wedding trip through Connecticut, the bride travelling in a light blue nylon dress with matching duster, white accessories, and a corsage of American Beauty roses. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Payne will reside on Eastern Avenue.

Out of town guests came from Bolton Centre, South Bolton, Farnham, Montreal, Granby and Knowlton.

Women's Groups

SANGSTER MEMORIAL W. A.

The regular meeting of the Sangster Memorial W. A. was held in the Church Hall on Wednesday evening with the president, Mrs. R. Wheeler in the chair.

After the meeting had been opened with the W. A. prayer, Mrs. E. E. Gilson, on behalf of Mrs. J. Boucher, led the devotion on the theme of "Sharing a Good Life."

Correspondence was read by the secretary, Mrs. E. E. Gilson, including a report on missionary service.

Miss Doris Johnston reported on cards and flowers. Mrs. D. Galbraith reported on fancy work, and made arrangements for mission work to be done by the members during the summer.

Mrs. A. Noble thanked the ladies on behalf of her son, Jack Noble, for cards sent at time of sickness.

A food sale will be held on 6th June at 12.30 in the Keeler and Cross Store.

Members wishing to attend the Quebec Presbytery Annual meeting to be held in Quebec City, on June 11th, were asked to contact Mrs. R. Wheeler as soon as possible.

A tour of the University of Sherbrooke has been arranged to take place on June 12th. After the tour the ladies of the W. A. will proceed to the home of Miss Lettie Hodge, 960 Fulton Ave., where the closing meeting will be held, hostesses being Miss Lettie Hodge and Mrs. J. Hillman.

The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. D. Galbraith and Mrs. M. MacCoubrey.

Beauty Tips

It's best to camouflage heavy arms. Sleeveless blouses and strapless dresses will exaggerate your plump. If you must wear a sleeveless cocktail dress, for example, a scarf or stole will cover the upper arms nicely.

MISS MARGARET ANN EATON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Eaton, of Yarmouth, N.S., and MR. The wedding has been arranged to take place in Holy Trinity Anglican Church, Yarmouth, N.S., on Saturday, July 6th. Both Miss Eaton and Mr. Parker are graduates in Arts of Acadia University, Wolfville, N.S. (Photos by Rozee's, Yarmouth, N.S.)

Veal Paprika With Noodles

2 cups cubed veal, salt, 1 teaspoon Monosodium glutamate, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 onion chopped, 1/4 cup chopped parsley, 10 oz. can condensed mushroom soup, 1/2 cup water, 8 oz. wide noodles, 1/2 cup sour cream, 1 1/2 teaspoons paprika.

Sprinkle veal with salt and monosodium glutamate. Melt butter over medium heat. Add veal and onion and saute until brown. Add parsley, soup and water. Mix thoroughly, and cover and cook over low heat for 20 minutes. Stir occasionally. Cook noodles uncovered in rapidly boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Add sour cream and paprika to veal mixture and mix well. Reheat but do not boil. Serve over noodles. (Serves 4-6.)

New Blouse Wear Ideas

From a collection of 1958 resort blouse ensembles by Hubert de Givenchy come these new ideas for blouse wear. Our girl starts (left) with a cool blouse and skirt in black-and-white star printed batiste of dacron and cotton. Blouse has surprise effect with side closing, is worn with gently shirred and stiffened skirt. Pockets of skirt are banded in black grosgrain. The same blouse (center) takes on a different look when it's worn with skirt that has easy fullness at the hipline slimming down to a deep hem. Fabric is mixture of dacron and flax. Covered-up look (right) comes with blouse of artful cut with sloping shoulders and deep cuffs. It's done in sunny orange poplin of dacron and cotton, is worn with tapered slacks of creamy poplin with fine green striping in the same fabric blend. Both wash and drip-dry back to smoothness. All three blouses offer a costume look.

Social and Personal

Mr. Russell Haight left on Sunday for his home in Menlo Park, Calif., after a short visit with his aunt, Miss E. G. Haight and his sisters, Misses Margaret and Constance Haight, Portland Ave.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smith and Mr. John Smith, of St. Lambert have arrived, called by the death of Mrs. Smith's father, Mr. George H. Hurley, Island St.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Knights, of Hyde Park, Vt., and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Fortier, of Worcester, Mass., were guests, during the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Raymond, McManamy Blvd.

Miss Joan Burke, Miss Joyce Farwell and Miss Louise Shepard left yesterday to take up residence in Calgary, Alta.

Mrs. H. P. Stone, of Richmond, was the guest, for the week-end, of Mrs. E. S. Beerworth, Vimy St.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Lowerson, Prospect St., Lennoxville, spent the weekend in Charney, Que., where they were called by the death of Mrs. Lowerson's brother-in-law, Mr. Frank E. Parsons.

Bright Outlook Is Weapon Against Age

My hat goes off to the many charming women who are beyond their threescore years and 10, and still going strong.

I met one at a party, closer to 80 than 70, who proved to be the most interesting and charming woman in a group of women. All the rest were only half her age or even younger.

Her eyes were as clear and bright as a girl's. Her skin was soft. There wasn't a grim or unhappy line in her face, just crinkly lines about the eyes and mouth that deepened when she smiled or laughed, which was often.

Not once did she mention the good old days, or talk about the past, or wonder what the world and the young people in it are coming to.

Not once did she mention her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren, until someone asked her how many she had. Then she simply told the number of each and let it go at that.

She talked about things of interest. She told an amusing incident that happened at her on a recent trip.

YOUTH IS OUTLOOK

She mentioned a new invention she had read about and allowed a show she would certainly like to be around for the next 50 years as she thought they were going to be mighty interesting.

She is young despite her age because she is living in the present and the future instead of the past. She has a life of her own instead of living through her children. She is young because she is hopeful of the future, instead of thinking the world is going to the dogs.

And she is young because she is still looking for things to like and admire and enjoy, instead of things to criticize, frown upon, or deplore.

I am willing to bet that every one of the younger women who spent an afternoon with her had the fleeting thought, "I hope I'm like that when I'm her age."

The chances are good they will be. For the number of "young" older women seems to be increasing every year. What a joy and inspiration they are.

Fashion

The best thing to do with wardrobe mistakes is to learn by them. Why aren't you happy or comfortable wearing them? What's wrong about them? If you analyze your mistakes, you're not likely to repeat them.

Presentation To Bishopton Lady

BISHOPTON — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans recently opened their home for a party in honor of Miss Ina Hooker, who was presented with a new wheelchair.

It had been unanimously decided at a meeting of the Bishopton Farm Radio Forum to raise money to buy a new chair for Miss Hooker, who has spent all her life in this locality and has been a cripple for over 25 years. The Forum started the campaign with a donation of $25. Canvassers called on friends, neighbors and relatives, both far and near and in a short time over $270 was collected. With this sum a folding wheelchair, complete with brakes, tray, headrest and leg panel, was purchased, also an electric blanket and car robe.

Mrs. Ernest Bennett, Farm Forum chairman, made the presentation to Miss Hooker, wishing her much future happiness. The recipient thanked each and everyone for their generous donation and many kindnesses, saying it was "the happiest time" of her life.

The remainder of the evening was spent playing "500" at nine tables, with prizes going to ladies. Mrs. Denzil Kenney; consolation, Mrs. Lloyd Hooker; gentlemen, Clarence Vintinner; consolation, Denzil Kenney; lucky prize, Mrs. Aubrey Bailey.

Refreshments were served and the guests left, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Evans for their hospitality and wishing Miss Hooker much joy and comfort with her new wheelchair.

MISS INA HOOKER

Three Villages Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, of Rock Island, are frequent visitors of his brother, Mr. Oscar Davis, and Mrs. Davis, in Fulford, where their mother, Mrs. Catherine Davis, is ill.

Word has been received of the death of Ernest T. Bowen, age 73, which occurred at Laconia, N.H. Mr. Bowen was born at Hatley and was married to Eva George, of Mansonville. Mr. and Mrs. Bowen for many years lived at the Boundary and he was in partnership with Ernest Channell, of Stanstead, and owned and operated the Stanstead skating rink. The Bowsens at one time were owners of a farm situated directly on the Holland Canadian-American border. He was a brother of Mrs. Frank Hartley, of Stanstead, whose death occurred last month. The funeral was held at Laconia, where interment also took place and was attended by relatives from this district.

Friends of Mr. Lloyd Broadbent, who has been ill for several weeks will be pleased to learn he is much improved. He is spending an indefinite time with his wife and children at a cottage at Bishopton.

Mrs. Catherine Eryou returned to her home in Stanstead, after spending two weeks at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Bronson and family in Hamilton, Ont., and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hethrington, in City View, Ont.

Mr. Ronald Bowen, of Toravay, England, is spending an indefinite time at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Sawyer and Mr. and Mrs. James Martin in Stanstead.

Mrs. John Beasse, of Stanstead, Mrs. B. L. Monty, Misses Helen Cosgrove, Jean Robertson and Madeleine Dunn, all of Rock Island, were in Magog to attend the Catholic Women's League Diocesan Convention.

Friends of Fred Murphy, of Derby Line, will be pleased to learn that his health is improving, after being a patient in Broadview Hospital for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Thompson and family, of St. Catharines, Ont., were week-end visitors at the home of his sister, Mrs. Clarence Hill, Mr. Hill and family, Rock Island.

Friends of Charles Waide, of Rock Island, will regret to learn he is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Sisco, of Rock Island, were week-end guests of relatives in Waterville, Compton and L'Esperance.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nourse and two children, of Rock Island, spent the week-end in Sawyerville and attended the funeral of her grandfather, Mr. Judson Waldron, held at East Clifton.

Mrs. Gilbert Woodard and two children, of Georgeville, have returned home after spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Rollins, Rock Island.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bowen and family, Rock Island, were: Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Snow and daughters, Wendy and Sharon, of Richmond, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen and Terry, of Lennoxville.

John Lees, of the Canadian Naval Service, recently stationed at Newfoundland, is spending a 30-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lees and Tommy, in Rock Island. Later, he will report for duty at Halifax, N.S., where he will be assigned to the "Huron".

Mr. William Van Lest, of Montreal, was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Dewey, Stanstead.

Miss Aileen Eryou, of Montreal, spent the recent week-end with relatives at the Boundary Villages.

Mrs. Clarence Lyons, Mrs. Rudy Miller, Mrs. Raymond Curtis and Mrs. Ida Haselton were in Sherbrooke to attend the 60th Rebeccah Assembly held at the Mayfair room of the New Sherbrooke House, representing Crystal Rebeccah Lodge No. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. Turcotte and family, of Rock Island, spent the week-end in Springfield, Mass., where they visited relatives.

CLAPHAM —

The Ladies' Guild was entertained by Mrs. Johnson recently, when 20 people were present. This being the annual meeting, Rev. G. Kendrick took the chair, and all officers were re-elected as follows: Mrs. W. A. Christie, honorary president; Miss A. Johnson, president; Mrs. W. A. Christie, vice-president; Mrs. H. Little, treasurer; and Mrs. Johnson, secretary.

Recent week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Christie were, Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller and Miss Joan Miller, of Pointe Claire, and Miss M. Bennett, of Lennoxville.

Mrs. Johnson, Miss Anne Johnson and Miss Margaret Johnson spent the week-end in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lamontagne and family and Mr. and Mrs. Desjardins and son, of Thetford Mines, spent a few days at their cottages here.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Johnson were: Mrs. W. Walker, of Woodville, N.H.; Mrs. R. Hoar, Mrs. J. Dessogio, Mrs. L. Walker, of St. Johnsbury; Mr. W. Walker, of Littleton, N.H.; Mr. H. Walker, of Woodville, N.H.; Mrs. F. Bennett, of Canterbury; Miss M. Kerr, of Montreal; and Mr. and Mrs. R. Bennett, of Ottawa.

Suggested Considerations On Crop Cost Estimations

Forage crops may be harvested as dry hay or silage by many different methods and with various types of equipment. There is no single method or group of machines suitable for all farms and all conditions of operation. The system used in harvesting will depend primarily on the amount of hay harvested, investment in equipment, climatic conditions, man labor requirements, storage methods and location, topography of the land and on many other factors.

Cutting and raking of the crop does not present so many problems as curing and transferring the crop to storage. The hand loading method is costly in labor, while the investment in equipment is low. With combination harvesters, much less heavy manual labor is required but a large investment in equipment is necessary.

To economically harvest a crop, it is extremely important that labor should be used efficiently and that equipment be properly maintained. Some farmers harvest twice as much hay as others when using the same crew and method. Machinery, where it can be used satisfactorily, efficiently and economically, will aid in harvesting by reducing heavy manual labor which is normally required, by increasing the speed of operations, and by lowering the cost per ton in collecting the crop. However, if not properly maintained and efficiently utilized, machinery will only partially demonstrate its value and may increase the cost of harvesting the crop.

Most authoritative calculations of harvesting operations and machine costs are based on the machinery records of the Experimental Farms Service, and on other literature dealing with this subject. To determine the cost per ton in each operation it has been necessary to select certain specific values and rates derived from the recorded and estimated data. All of the assumptions, methods and values used in computing costs are stated in texts or tables. Factors included in estimating machinery costs are depreciation, interest, housing, repairs and service labor, fuel and oil. The cost of any operation will depend on the conditions that exist on each individual farm. It is suggested therefore, that the data which is presented to each individual person on the subject be used as a general guide to costs and efficiency and that the values be adjusted to conform with local conditions.

DANVILLE —

This community was saddened to learn of the sudden passing of Mr. Frank Olney, a life long resident of this place. Although in failing health for some time, his death came as a shock to his many friends. A favorite of all who knew him he will be sadly missed by young and old alike.

Huntingville L. A. Reports Activities At May Meeting

HUNTINGVILLE — The May meeting of the Huntingville Ladies' Aid was held at the Community Hall.

The president, Mrs. C. Spaulding, opened the meeting with a devotional period, followed by the minutes read by the secretary, Mrs. N. Bowers.

Thanks were expressed to the members for cleaning the hall and to Mrs. E. Hunting for repairing the ends of the carpet. The new table was on display.

Ways and means committee, Mrs. Lyonnais, reported on the proceeds of two dances and stated another dance would be held June 1.

The hall has been rented for election day, June 10. The members agreed to serve a picnic on June 23 for the "down home" people, as requested by Mr. Patton. The arrangements for this will be under the convepership of Mrs. Fairbrother. Members of the congregation willing to donate are asked to contact Mrs. Al. Bradley, or Mrs. Sewell.

The treasurer reported cash on hand $10.95 and a bank balance of $28.10.

The annual meeting will be held in June, when officers will be elected and combined reports given. It is also hoped Mrs. Klinck will be the speaker at this meeting.

The program committee consists of Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Bowers.

A suggestion was made that any one willing to donate I.G.A. gold stamps for premiums please turn them in at the next meeting.

Thanks were expressed to Mrs. Grady for her donation of a picture of Queen Elizabeth.

The meeting closed with a hymn, following which a ham and salad supper was held.

BROMPTON —

Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Robinson have returned home, after spending six months with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Robinson, in Edmonds, Wash. Travelling by car, they visited friends in Calgary and Edmonton, and toured the western provinces and northern states. They also attended the Robinson-Bellefleur wedding at Renfrew, Ont. On their return home, they were given a "welcome home" party by their immediate relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson, Doreen and Marion, Mrs. Eva Strew, Mr. Archie Lamont, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Robinson, Marilyn and John, and Miss Edwina Robinson, of Greenlay, were guests at the Robinson-Bellefleur wedding in Renfrew, Ontario.

Coach Doug Peahead Walker Returns With 18 New Imports; Clubs Prepare For Rebuilding Job For Coming Year

The task of revamping lineups for a new season has never been made with greater determination by the Big Four football clubs in the light of the league's record in the last three Grey Cup finals and the West's rise to football supremacy.

Major changes in the lineups can be expected, right from the league champion Alouettes, who have lined up the most impressive array of American imports, to the last-place Toronto Argonauts who have undergone a complete shake-up involving a new three-man coaching staff, a new program to recruit Canadian players and a reorganization of the club's directors.

Low Hayman, former general manager of the Alouettes and one-time Argo coach, has been given the job as managing director in an effort to make Toronto a contender again. The new coaching staff is headed by Hampton Pool, head coach of Los Angeles for the three years. Pool succeeds Bill Swacki.

Hayman already has announced signing of 19 new imports and expects to have about 25 try out before the opening game of the season Aug. 20. Most of last year's imports, with the exception of guard Ron Marcinak, end Bucky Curtis and tackle Bill Lucky, are expected to return. They include ends Al Pfeiffer and Menan Schriever, halves Dick Shatto and O. K. Ferguson, quarterback Arnie Galiffa and tackle Bill Albright.

The Alouettes, with Doug Peahead Walker back for his sixth year as head coach, have signed 18 new imports. The holdovers are quarterback Sam Etcheverry, backfielder Pat Abruzzi, ends Hal Paterson and Red O'Quinn, tackle Billy Shipp and centre Tom Hu-

Jim Norris Is Sick And Tired Of Government Measures Against His Club And Arthur Wirtz, May Quit

MIAMI — (P) — James D. Norris, president of the International Boxing Club of New York, said Monday he is "sick and tired" of government measures taken against his club and its Chicago mate headed by Arthur Wirtz.

Norris indicated to a reporter that any court decision against the clubs would be fought.

"I'm sick and tired of all this stuff," Norris said when informed a federal judge's final decision would be announced June 24 in a monopoly suit against the boxing enterprises.

"I might get out of the fight game altogether if it weren't for the challenge of the thing," Norris said. "But I don't like being asked out . . . forced out."

IKE'S PRO . . . No. 6 Slight Tug Of Left Arm

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the sixth of 12 articles written for NEA Service and Sherbrooke Daily Record by Ed Dudley, professional of the Augusta National, who includes President Eisenhower among his famous pupils.

By ED DUDLEY

Start the downswing with a slight tug of the left hand and arm.

If the downswing is started properly, there is no body action at the beginning.

Thereafter the body automatically starts to move and the weight shifts. This enables the left side to turn out of the way as impact. The hands and arms automatically follow through. If you start the downswing correctly, everything follows through. This is why the start of the downswing is so important.

At the start of the downswing the player should bear in mind that the complex muscular machinery engaging in a tremendous surge of power in the reverse direction is likely to cause him to feel a lot of body twist.

This is correct, but it is the split-second definition at this instant that the pupil must become aware of and master through repetition.

NEXT: The instant of impact.

Windsor Summer Bonspiel Finalists

The above photo shows the two rinks who met in the finals of the 5th annual Summer Bonspiel staged by the Canada Paper Curling Club of Windsor. Dick Ross' foursome emerged with the decision over Ernie Mason's squad 12-8. In the front, left to right, Skip Mason, G. Crosby, D. Sweet and M. Planidin. Standing same order, Skip Ross, C. Allen, D. Jondreville and F. MacKenzie.

WINDSOR — Canada Paper Curling Club rinks dominated the finals of the 5th annual Summer Bonspiel staged over the weekend. Dick Ross and his rink copped the finals 12-8 while Andy Michaud emerged the winner in the consolation section of the popular summer event.

A total of 84 rinks took part in the 'spiel which opened a week ago with matches slated every night. The rinks emerging with the high plus each night won their way into the final round which was held Saturday.

Eight rinks commenced play Saturday morning at 10.00 with the winners advancing in the main and the losers dropping in to the consolation. T. W. Houghton of Windsor won out over Healy from Richmond and Dick Ross bumped G. MacRae. In the early shift Ken Jackson of Sherbrooke stopped Andy Michaud and Ernie Mason came through with a win over D. Lamont of Shawinigan Falls.

Mason knocked over the Jacksons to reach the finals while Dick Ross downed his club-mate Walter Houghton. In the consolation semis Healy downed MacRae and Michaud won over Lamont.

In the finals Dick Ross and his crew came through with the decision over Ernie Mason's rink while Andy Michaud of Windsor knocked over A. Healy of Richmond.

In the ladies section Mrs. Doran of Town of Mount Royal edged out Mrs. A. Kerridge of Sherbrooke 9-7 in a close battle. Eighteen rinks took part in the ladies' event for the Howard Smith Trophy. In the semi-finals Mrs. Kerridge's foursome came through with a 9-1 win over Mrs. MacPherson of Sherbrooke and Mrs. Doran eked out a 7-5 victory over Mrs. W. Houghton's Windsor rink.

Dow Downs Restaurant Pat 5-3 While Hotel Albert Wallops Labatt 21-2 In City Senior Softball League

Dow and Hotel Albert continued their winning streak in the City Senior Softball League last night when they posted victories in the twinbill presented at Dufresne Park. Albert walloped Labatt's 21-2 while Dow came through with a 5-3 decision over Restaurant Pat.

Gaston Pelletier opened the slugging barrage for Albert with a home run, a triple and two singles besides getting two free walks. Jean Paul Pepin hit a round-tripper. Maurice Bouchard picked up three safeties in his four official trips to the plate.

Ronald Gregoire was credited with the victory. Ronald Carmichel opened for the losers and gave up nine hits, ten walks and retired four. He was replaced by Claude Ricard who finished the game with Carmichel taking the loss.

The other tilt between Dow and Pat's was much closer. Fern Dube and Gilles Guenette each helped the winners with a home run while Jean-Guy Fougues and Claude Ruel smashed out doubles. Gerard Gagne went the distance giving up five hits for his victory.

Albert Thomas toiled for the losers and despite his loss turned in a good job. He was touched for nine hits and retired two while issuing three passes.

First place in the league will be at stake tomorrow when Hotel Albert and Dow will clash in the first half of the doubleheader. Restaurant Pat and Labatt will tangle in the night cap.

Owner Predicts Crepello Will Win Epsom Derby, With Luck, Tomorrow

LONDON — (Reuters) — Multi-millionaire Sir Victor Sassoon, whose Crepello is a heavy favorite to win Wednesday's Derby, cautiously predicted Monday that his handsome chestnut will win "with a lot of luck."

Sassoon told the annual derby luncheon at London's Press Club that he saw his 9-10-4 favorite Sunday and he looked "very well indeed."

His statement had the effect of quashing rumors that his husky three-year-old is not in good condition.

Odds on Crepello lengthened slightly at an odds caller Monday. The colt had been held at 2 to 1 last Friday.

Other top favorites are Greek shipping magnate Stavros Niarchos' Pipe of Peace, second choice at 7 to 1, and the Aga Khan's Prince Taj, a 100-to-9 shot.

Queen Elizabeth also is conceded a good chance with Douthe, fifth choice at 100 to 8. Besides hundreds of bookies nervous about the £5,000,000 already bet on Crepello, thousands of Irish Sweepstakes ticket holders await the result from Epsom.

An estimated 2,000,000 spectators are expected to jam the picturesque track about 25 miles from London for the granddaddy of all horse races which started in 1780.

At the luncheon, Prince Aly Khan maintained that Prince Taj was the horse to beat. But he touted a long shot — Chipendale, 50 to 1.

A spokesman for Niarchos was equally optimistic, saying that Pipe of Peace "has given us no reason to suppose he does not stay. I think he is sure to run a good race."

The two American horses given an outside chance of snatching victory over Epsom Downs' 1½-mile, undulating course are Royamont, owned by Mrs. George Ohrstrom of New York, and Tempest, owned by cosmetics queen Mrs. Elizabeth Arden Graham.

Indians Down Red Sox In Little League

Rotary sponsored Indians opened their Little League season with a convincing 14-2 win over the Optimist sponsored Red Sox at the Parade Grounds last night. Young Roche Labbe the winning pitcher allowed three hits and sent 10 men down by the strike-out route. George Addis was charged with the loss. Tonight the Athletics are hosts to the Senators at the Parade Grounds, game time 6.30.

Indians opened up with two runs in the top of the first inning getting these on one hit and two walks. Red Sox came back with two runs with Addis and Norton getting singles. A home run by Labbe, with the bases loaded in the second stanza, gave the Indians a 6-2 lead. They added two more in the third as Addis lost control and issued five bases on balls. Indians were pulled before the inning ended and was replaced by Sandy Cotton.

Cotton pitched good ball in the remaining three innings. Indians got three more runs. Cotton struck out seven men. Labbe gave out three hits, Denis Labrecque helped Labbe's cause when he hit a homer in the sixth.

The game was pretty fair for an opener and with a little more practice the teams will improve. Labbe, Labrecque and Houle shone for the winners, while Addis, Cotton and Norton played well for the losers.

Marlyn Kiernan paced the locals with her four hits, which include a three-bagger in the sixth inning. Violet Brock, who started on the mound for Richmond, slammed a homer in the third frame giving the home club a 7-2 lead.

Medinettes counted their two runs in their half of the second inning. Carmen Roux, hurler for the visiting club, picked up two hits as well as J. Poisson.

The locals tagged Roux for 17 hits while Asbestos grabbed nine off the combination of Violet Brock and Donna Selby. A good-sized crowd watched the girls play and they gave a good account of themselves. This was the first visit of the Asbestos club.

Stops Dodgers' Losing Skid With 4-0 Win For His Fifth Victory; Pirates Stop Giants For 3rd Straight

Johnny Podres, Brooklyn's stubby southpaw, emerged as the Dodgers' No. 1 "stopper" today, just when manager Walter Alston had decided to crack down on his slipping National League champions.

The Dodgers, who had lost seven of their last 12 games to fall into fourth place for the second time this season, read a "no more race track" order from the skipper Monday after dropping four in a row. Alston figured his champs were champs for the horses and weren't paying enough attention to baseball.

Then along came Podres, snapping Brooklyn's losing skid with a neat three-hitter that quieted the ambitious Philadelphia Phillies 4-0. It was Johnny's fifth victory, his fourth shutout — and the second time he has called a halt to a Dodger slump.

With the victory the Dodgers climbed into a third-place tie with the idle Milwaukee Braves, three games behind the first-place, idle Cincinnati Redlegs. The Phils, who have lost only two of their last eight in their surprising surge, remained in second place, 2½ games short. Pittsburgh Pirates made it three in a row over New York by beating the Giants 6-5 in the only other game scheduled in the majors.

Podres, who dealt a three-hit, 1-0 shutout against Pittsburgh in his last start, struck out nine and walked four while dropping his earned run average to 2.05 and salvaging the finale of a four-game set in Philadelphia.

The Dodgers, outthit only once during the four-game skid, smacked nine hits — including Gil Hodges' sixth home run and Gino Cimoli's sixth, too — to beat Don Cardwell, one of the Phillies' bright rookies. He gave 7 hits, struck out 7 and walked but two before giving way to a pinch hitter in the seventh.

The Pirates, swinging for 11 hits off five pitchers, ran up a 3-0 lead in the second against starter Ruben Gomez, then came back with two in the third against loser Joe Margoneri after the Giants had tied it in the top of the frame.

Nelson King, who struck out Willie Mays and Dusty Rhodes to put down the Giants' comeback third, won his first in relief of Vern Law, but needed a mop up relief job from Elroy Face. It was King's squeeze bunt that scored the clinching run in the fifth after Johnny O'Brien had tripled.

Bauer, Mantle, Berra, Martin And Ford Fined $1,000 For Fracas In Night Club; Trade Reports In Air

CLEVELAND — (AP) — New York Yankees have lost nine of their last 15 games, they've been fined for playing night games in a plush saloon — and the panic button's been pushed. Trouble is, it wasn't the world champions who did the pushing.

Word leaked out Monday that the club had fined Hank Bauer, Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra, Billy Martin and Whitey Ford $1,000 each, and Johnny Kucks $500, for club early in the morning of May 16.

The report no sooner was confirmed by the players than it popped:

1. A report that Bauer and Martin are on the trading block.

2. A report that manager Casey Stengel and general manager George Weiss are on the outs.

Bauer and Martin commented it's great to be a Yankee, with Martin adding "I hope it doesn't happen. I'm afraid to think how it would feel to play against the Yankees."

Bauer has been mentioned as trade bait since before spring training. So has Martin, particularly since the nightclub incident which broke up his 29th birthday party.

Billy and Mantle are pals and rumor has it the Yankee front office is afraid Martin may give Mantle some bad habits.

It was reported Monday that Martin, Mantle, Bauer, Ford and Mickey McDermott had been fined $250 each less than a year ago for missing a train in Boston. McDermott since has been traded to Kansas City. Another trade, naturally, could break up the remaining quartet.

Berra, a three-time winner of the American League most valuable player award, and Kucks apparently are newcomers to the crowd. At the time of the nightclub fracas, Stengel benched Berra who also was in a hitting slump for one game when the comment that "he oughta know better" and added he didn't think it was right "for those fellows to keep a young fellow Kucks out that late."

Kucks, admitting he was fined $500, at first was thought to be among the $1,000 sufferers, prompting Stengel to observe "that poor boy oughtn't to be fined the same as the rich players."

Kucks' salary is estimated at $15,000. Berra hauls in $60,500; Mantle $60,000; Ford $35,000; Bauer $27,500 and Martin $21,000.

Stengel said "never had any friction between them, with Weiss pointing to 'the results of our eight years' association' and terming the report "deliberately malicious."

Stengel said "never had any trouble with Weiss. He hasn't lost a game this season. The nightclub thing happened three weeks ago. Everybody's tryin' to make a scandal out of it. Maybe it's because we're the Yankees."

Notre Dame And St Jean-Baptiste Post Victories In Junior Ball; Indians And Fuller Meet Tonight

Notre Dame and St. Jean-Baptiste came through with victories in the Sherbrooke Junior Baseball League tilts played Sunday afternoon. The next game is slated for this evening at the Park Avenue Stadium when the Indians will tangle with Fuller.

Roger Fortier, of the East Sherbrooke squad, turned in a fine job on the mound for his first win of the season when his mates stopped the Indians 3-2. The victory permitted them to move into second spot in the standing.

The tilt was played at Dufresne Park before 400 fans. Fortier gave up six hits, retired three at the plate and issued only two free walks. His opponent, Real Rousseau whiffed nine gave up only four hits but issued nine walks.

Notre Dame posted their third straight win when they thrived Normie Dussault's Fuller squad 9-4. Desbiens and Prudhomme gave up only two hits with the former being charged with the safeties. Prudhomme worked the last part of the tilt and retired six at the plate.

Scholar-Citizen Awards Made At Waterloo School Graduation

WATERLOO. — The highest award that may be won by pupils of Waterloo High School was presented to Lorraine Charest and Richard Moore, who were named scholar-citizens of the year, during the school's graduating exercises.

Scholar-citizens are chosen by the principal and board on the basis of high performance in all aspects of school and community life, scholastic work, participation in sports, and unselfish leadership in school and community affairs. The award is not necessarily given every year but only when a student, or two students, a boy and a girl have merited particular recognition. Their names will be engraved in gold on a board which hangs permanently in the school foyer.

The annual exercises and prize giving followed by the grad-dance, took place in the school auditorium, with board chairman, Robert Flood, presiding and W. Bradley, Q.C., of Montreal as guest speaker.

Members of the graduating class are Susanne Busing, Lorraine Charest, Myrna Cook, Tryphena Flood, Carol Hanson, Gwyneth Hayes, Ollie Jenkinson, Richard Moore, June Smith, Fred Spencer, Barry Stowell and Ozzie Trussler. Class valedictorian was Myrna Cook.

Following prayer by Rev. Colin West, Mr. Flood made a few remarks on the success of the closing school year, and Principal O. T. Pickford gave a short report of the year's work. Members of the Board and representatives of local industries presenting prizes were asked to make the awards to students in Grades eight to ten.

In each grade school commissioners' book prizes for first, second and third in general proficiency were awarded as follows:

8-P. Alan Cooper, Dorothy Clark, Patricia Charest; 8-L. Ruth Brunton, Jackie Bailey, Dorothy Jones; 9. Thomas Busing, Susan Martin, Eva Stromanis; 10. Carol

Ann Jones, Sabine Busing, Kenneth Flanagan.

In Grade 8 first prize in mathematics (Corona Ltd.) went to Jackie Bailey, 2nd, Ruth Brunton; 1st in English literature and composition (Slack Bros. Award) Ruth Brunton, 2nd Dorothy Jones, 1st in spelling, (Waterloo Plywood) Dorothy Jones.

Grade 9, 1st in mathematics, Susan Martin, 2nd Thomas Busing; English literature and composition, 1st Thomas Busing, 2nd Susan Martin; 1st in spelling Thomas Busing.

Grade 10, mathematics, 1st Carol Ann Jones, 2nd Kenneth Flanagan; English literature and composition, 1st Carol Ann Jones, 2nd Sabine Busing; social studies (Eastern Star award) 1st Carol Ann Jones, 2nd Sabine Busing, Dr. M. Katz proficiency award, Carol Ann Jones; award by Adam Lumber for highest standing in French language in either 10 or 11, Carol Ann Jones.

In his address to the graduates Mr. Bradley who was introduced by Commissioner Wesley Parks, placed before his audience the key words Faith, Loyalty and Courage, and elaborated on their development and their usefulness through life. Properly applied, Mr. Bradley suggested, these three qualities could be used to meet nearly every situation. The speaker was thanked by Students' Council president, Lorraine Charest, and by Commissioner A. J. Buckland.

High School Leaving diplomas were presented to the graduates by Mr. Bradley. Prizes for Grade 11 were: General proficiency, 1st Carol Hanson, 2nd Barry Stowell, 3rd Susanne Busing; mathematics awards went to Barry Stowell and Ollie Jenkinson whose marks were tied; English literature and composition, 1st Lorraine Charest, 2nd Carol Hanson. An award to the top student by Maclean's Publishing Co. went to Carol Hanson and MacLean's award to the valedictorian was given Myrna Cook.

Other prizes were: Henry Birks silver medal for leadership in student affairs, Lorraine Charest, Grade 11; award for the highest aggregate in sports by the Crystal Springs Bottling Works, girl, Elaine Whitehead Grade 10, boy, Bruce Racicot, Grade 8.

A short prayer by Rev. Paul Busing closed the exercises.

Blue and white streamers of crepe paper formed a false ceiling in the school gym for the dance held to the music of Doug Whiteher and his band. Decorated by students of Grade 10 and Miss Betty Griffin, the hall was festive with spring flowers on the stage and lilacs in the basketball hoops. Handpainted portraits were scattered across the walls.

Derby Line Group Makes Donation To Welfare Work

DERBY LINE — The May meeting of Foster-Cosby Unit of the American Legion was held at the home of Mrs. Jack Berry in Derby Line. The president, Mrs. Gertrude Stevens, was in the chair.

The motion was approved to send a girl from Derby Academy to the Girl State again this summer.

Final arrangements were made for the annual sale of poppies by the Girl Scout troops. These flowers are made by disabled veterans and the money raised from the sales is used for the benefit of veterans.

A sum of money was voted to give assistance to child welfare work in a veteran's family in this area.

Plans were made for the annual Memorial Day service of worship, which was held at Stanstead South Church, where Rev. E. Geoffrey Tenneson delivered the message suited to the occasion.

First polio shots for adults were given recently at the clinic held in the Derby Line Village Hall.

The next meeting will be held on June 17 at the home of Mrs. Francis Roderer. The meeting adjourned and refreshments were served by Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Cyril Cargill.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
Jerry Davis, of Rock Island, who recently observed his sixth birthday, was guest of honor at a party given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Merton Davis.

The guests, Nigel Tenneson, Keith Brady, Randy Bronson, Terry Probyn, Bobby Paradis and Jerry's two brothers, Rodney and Stephen, upon arriving at the cottage went for a hike in the woods, with Mr. Davis as leader.

Games were played, then a fire was built in the outdoor fireplace, where the boys cooked hot dogs and marshmallows. Mrs. Davis served hamburger sandwiches. A birthday cake, decorated in "jet flyer" motif and lighted candles, was cut and served.

Jerry received several lovely gifts, and as the boys prepared for the homeward trip, Jerry presented each guest with a small gift.

CHANGES AFFECTING CANADIAN GOVERNMENT ANNUITIES

INCOME TAX EXEMPTION

A CANADIAN GOVERNMENT ANNUITY, contracted for by a taxpayer on his own life, may now qualify for Registration as a Retirement Savings Plan under the Income Tax Act.

Premiums paid on such a CANADIAN GOVERNMENT ANNUITY may now be deducted from earned income thus effecting a saving in personal income tax.

The amount you may deduct is subject to the following conditions:

1. If you are not now a member of a Registered Pension Fund or Plan, you may deduct Canadian Government Annuities premiums up to 10% of earned income, but not exceeding $2,500 a year.
2. If you are currently a member of a Registered Pension Fund or Plan, you may deduct the premium paid on a Canadian Government Annuity contract and the contributions made under your present Pension Fund, but the combined payments eligible for deduction cannot exceed 10% of your earned income, to a maximum of $1,500 a year.

LOWER PREMIUM RATES

Purchasers of Canadian Government Annuities after April 1, 1957, will benefit from reduced premium rates reflecting an increase in the interest rate.

For full information on several types of plans available, consult your DISTRICT ANNUITIES REPRESENTATIVE, or mail, postage free, the coupon below.

St. Francis High School Graduating Class

Novel Decoration Theme Features Annual Dance

RICHMOND — The annual graduation dance of St. Francis High School was held in the school gymnasium, with "The Quintones" of Sherbrooke supplying the music.

Receiving the 300 guests were Mrs. G. Rothney, Mrs. E. Richmond, Mrs. W. Denison, Mrs. E. Crack and Mrs. L. Somerville.

The theme for the decorations was "Under Water", with sea green and blue streamers floating from the ceiling in a bell-shaped formation. Sea life was very realistically portrayed by life-size paintings on the walls of a varied collection of sea dwellers—porpoises, crabs, octopuses, jobsters and mermaids swimming through a maze of seaweed. Overlooking all from the stage backdrop was a painting of the sea washing against the shore with sea gulls circling the tower of a white and red lighthouse.

The girl graduates, looking very charming in ballerina-length white evening dresses and wearing corsages, were: Yvette Beauchesne, Lise Belanger, Dayle Cayer, June Clark, Bernice Dunn, Hazel Goodfellow, Loretta Grainger, Myrna Hamilton, Viola Lowry, Betty Lou Millar and Donna Selby. The boys of the graduating class included: Franklin Burrill, Wayne Crack, Donald Davidson, Robert Dole, David Fortier, Murray Richmond and George Winget.

Norman Badger, Grade X, master of ceremonies, presented the graduates to the guests with relative and amusing remarks about each. Murray Richmond gave the class valedictory.

Norman Badger, winner of the Hume Shield awarded annually to the high school student best exemplifying scholarship, athletic achievement and school citizenship, was presented with his trophy. Friends and students were pleased to have with them Mr. Ian Hume, of St. Lambert High School, whose name the shield bears. Dale Crook and David Gee, each several times winner of the trophy, were also present.

Refreshments were served from a snack bar, decorated as Davy Jones' Locker, by several young pirates and dancing was enjoyed until 1 a.m.

DENISON'S MILLS —

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McConachie, of Toronto, visited relatives and supervised the placing of a monument in the cemetery in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe Sutherland, Mrs. McConachie's parents.

Among those taking part in the spring pageant at St. Francis

High School, were Misses Gail Patrick, Betty and Joan Hannan, all displayed sewing completed during their school term.

Miss Jolene Denison received the Senior girls trophy for St. Francis High School, at the recent sports day held in Danville, when the R.D.A. schools competed.

Bury Bride Elect Given Shower Prior Marriage

BURY — Miss Claudette La Pointe, a popular bride of the month, was delightfully entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hunt where the spacious rooms were decorated with spring flowers.

On her arrival, Miss La Pointe received a corsage from Mrs. Hunt and was presented with a table of daintily wrapped parcels from the 30 guests who were present to extend their best wishes to the bride-elect.

Miss La Pointe was assisted in unwrapping the parcels of china by her aunt, Mrs. B. Desruisseaux and Mrs. Webb of East Angus, aunt of the prospective bridegroom. After the gifts had been passed around Miss La Pointe thanked all present.

The evening was brought to a close when Mrs. Hunt, assisted by Mrs. R. Mayhew, Mrs. E. Gillander, Mrs. V. Tarrant, Miss H. Edwards served refreshments.
