"On the Dniester and the Pruth the enemy has delivered ineffectual attacks. In the sector of Souches the enemy made a general attack, but was repulsed with heavy losses.

An alarm was given as soon as the Austrian machine made its appearance over Verona early this morning and all lights were extinguished. All the forts defending the city directed a fire at the aeroplane which after throwing down the missiles, succeeded in escaping.

Verona is a fortified city, and next to Venice, is the most important town of the Italian compartment of the Alps. It is situated at the base of the Tyrolean Alps on both banks of the River Adige, 63 miles west of Venice.

Verona is distinguished by its striking medieval palaces. Its institutions comprise academies of painting and sculpture, a municipal library of about 50,000 volumes and several museums containing valuable collections of art, natural history and antiquities.

Verona has a population of about 75,000. It contains in normal times a garrison of 6,000 men and is the seat of the commandant of the Third Army Corps.

MORE MACHINE GUNS

To add to the protection of the "boys at the front," to assist in the defence of the Empire, and to help bring about the ultimate triumph of British arms and of the Allied forces, are three reasons which actuated Mr. Ronzo H. Clerk in giving a machine-gun to supplement the equipment of some Canadian regiment.

Mr. Clerk's letter is as follows: "To the Editor of The Montreal Star: "Sir,—It affords me great pleasure to enclose my cheque for $750.00 for the purchase of a machine-gun for the Canadian troops. I sincerely hope this will add to the protection of the lives of our boys at the front, and will also assist in a small way in the defence of the Empire and in the ultimate triumph of British arms and the Allied Forces.

"Yours truly, "RONZO H. CLERK."

The Sixtieth Battalion will be well equipped with machine-guns, thanks to the generosity and patriotism of those who, in the last fortnight, have realized the need for more guns for Canadian Battalions and have been in a position to help supply it.

The Fifth C.M.R., under Lieut.-Col. Harry Baker, M.P., for Bromo County, is not being overlooked. The "Eastern Townships" Machine-Gun," subscriptions for which were received by the Sherbrooke Record, will go forward to the Fifth as soon as it can be purchased. Dr. R. E. Guy Smith, in sending a cheque for $750 through The Star, expressed the wish that it should buy a gun for the Fifth. Mrs. Richard Ramsay Mitchell and Mrs. W. J. Benalack have also requested that, if possible, the guns they are donating go to the front with the Mounted Rifles.

Special to The Montreal Star. WINNIPEG, July 28.—Both parties in the present contest being agreed that the Roblin Government and all its works are bad, and no voice on that behalf breaking this interesting unanimity, the campaign is getting itself down to specific pledges as to what each party will do to the crafters if returned to office.

Premier Norris has the reputation of being a kindly and even easy-going man. Indeed in the past his supporters have had occasion to complain that he has given away important tactical advantages because of his proclivity to meet the other side more than half-way.

For instance, the Liberals have for limiting bar hours already at the war session of the Legislature, nearly a year ago, but in the present contest Premier Norris was jolted along by Sir Edmund Roblin until the Government sprang its own early closing measure, and completely blanketed the bill of the Opposition.

DEFINITELY COMMITTED. It is pretty certain, therefore, that it will be only with great reluctance that the Premier will consent to propositions of men with whom he has no many sympathies, even if it be on the opposite side of the House. But that is just what he is most definitely expected to do, and whatever reservations he might personally have liked to make, his hand must have been forced by the action of the Opposition in the House.

SUBMARINES A FAILURE FROM BRITISH VIEW

Special Star Cable by Archibald Hurd, British naval expert. LONDON, July 28.—The Germans have now been carrying out their submarine policy for six months. We have very complete detailed information from the Admiralty of the result. In the first place, have we been starved? The answer is decidedly in the negative. In the second place, have neutral ships been terrified into avoiding our harbors? The answer again is in the negative. In the third place, have our merchant sailors become craven under the German threats? Again the answer is in the negative.

PETITIONER IN CASE AGAINST McDONALD IS TO BE EXAMINED

Mr. Justice Monet Will Hear Evidence Before Deciding Whether to Issue Writ Against Controller or Not—Lawyers Argue

J. Alphonse Thibaut, whose petition for a writ of quo warranto to unseat Controller McDonald is now before the court, must appear before Mr. Justice Monet in Practice Court tomorrow morning to be examined on the affidavit which is attached to his petition. The question whether or not the writ is to be issued will be argued tomorrow. Mr. McKewen, K.C., appearing for the Controller McDonald, moved this morning that the petitioner be ordered to appear for examination, and that he be given until Friday to prepare his contention. The petition for the writ of quo warranto was granted his request in the first instance, but set the hearing for tomorrow instead of Friday.

HEBERT CAN RETAIN SEAT UNTIL TRIAL

In reply to a query from Mayor Martin, the City Attorney, Mr. J. B. Williams, a member of the Board of Control, has advised that he is not prevented from attending the trial of Mr. Hebert because the Superior Court issues a writ of quo warranto against him; the writ is not a writ of right but one that is issued at the discretion of the court. The proceeding is almost quasi-criminal. We are entitled to know whether this proceeding emanates from the proper motive and whether the facts alleged in the affidavit are true. If we can show in the examination of the petitioner that his facts are untrue, then the writ will not issue.

Pays No Attention to Resolution of Allied Labor Men

Mayor Martin is not disposed to pay much attention to the resolution passed by the Allied Municipal Labor Clubs last night, as recounted in another column of today's Star. In a resolution the members called for the resignation of Mayor Martin and Controllers Hebert, McDonald and Cote.

NORTHCLIFFE SAYS GIVES HOPE FOR MEN MISSING IN EUROPEAN WAR

Impossible for Free Men to Be Ruled by Second-Rate Races

PRAISES FRANCE'S SHARE IN CONFLICT

Thinks Germans are Attempting to Frighten the Americans

Special Star Cable by United Press. LONDON, July 28.—On this, the anniversary of the first of the declarations of war that led to the present world conflict—Austria against Serbia—the United Press asked Lord Northcliffe, Europe's most widely known publisher, to summarize the first year of the war. His views in response to that request follow:

(By Lord Northcliffe) (Copyright, 1915, by the United Press. Copyrighted in Great Britain.) LONDON, July 28.—These are my views of the war from my own purely individual British standpoint.

First, I desire to give credit to the Russians who established a non-military and unprepared nation like ourselves to hold off colossal German attacks at the beginning of the war.

Secondly, I desire to say that the efforts of France are insufficiently appreciated in the United States, and to a lesser extent in Great Britain. Owing to the efforts of Socialist politicians and professional peace-mongers, France was not prepared for the sudden German onslaught.

Of our own part in the war it is a little invidious for an Englishman to speak, but there has not, I think, been a more heroic and gallant nation than the United States and Canada of the fact that our fleet has swept the German submarines from the Atlantic.

Submarines may increase, but so may our means of counter-acting the submarines. Our fleet has been so badly meddled with that it is now only a shadow of our great seamen, Fisher, resigned because of political interference in a certain position of the United States.

The English, Scotch, Welsh, Irish, Canadian, Australian, South African and Indian soldiers, and the large number of Americans who have joined our forces in one way or the other, have exhibited, in the face of the most terrible and bloody fighting, a bravery that equals any previous examples of courage in the world's history.

What Bismarck called the nation of house servants, always obedient to the word of command, has been converted into a nation of free men and individualists. The organized military tyranny which seeks to dominate the world.

I have always held that this massed attempt of the second-rate nations to dominate the world will fail because it is unjust and engineered by the free races of Europe who will undergo far greater tribulation at the hands of the organized servants than they have yet endured, but the end is just as certain as it was in 1812, when, instead of massed mediocrity, the world was fighting the individual genius of Napoleon.

Speculations as to whether the United States can or should enter the fight, or whether they will be bullied into it, do not bulk as largely here as they are made to do in the newspapers of the United States.

We know that we have the sympathy of the vast proportion of Americans. We know that the Allies can finish this fight by themselves. The responsibility of entering into the bloodiest conflict in the history of the world is one for the American people themselves to decide.

I am not able to fathom the reasons for the violent anti-American campaign conducted by the official newspapers of Germany. It may be that the Germans are attempting to frighten the Americans. Such a campaign was made against England just a year ago. It had no effect whatever on English public opinion.

I have no more to say about the future of the war than I have said on many occasions. The war stands very much where it did, with this difference, that whereas a great many Germans have been killed, the Allies have not yet reached their strength in men.

Our politicians have done very much what your politicians do in the early days of the Civil War. Politicians are about the same all the world over. We have not produced our Lincoln or our Grant, our potent British names both—but I have no doubt that we shall.

BERLIN WIRELESS DECLARES FRENCH SUBMARINE SUNK

BERLIN, July 28.—(By wireless to Saville).—The French submarine Mariotte was destroyed by a German submarine on July 26 in the Narrows of the Dardanelles, according to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Mittag-Zeitung. Thirty-one members of the French submarine's crew were captured.

The Narrows, where the engagement took place, are about midway in the Dardanelles straits, between the Aegean Sea and the Sea of Marmora. They are fifteen miles from the entrance to the Straits.

The French submarine Mariotte was built at Cherbourg in 1911. The vessel displaced 618 tons when submerged, and was 216.7 long. She was fitted with six torpedo tubes, and was capable of travelling fifteen knots an hour on the surface, and ten knots when below.

TURK MINISTER OF JUSTICE NOT FOR PEACE TERMS

GENEVA, July 28.—Nedjemken Effendi, the Turkish Minister of Justice, who came to Switzerland last week by way of Vienna, has been operated on for appendicitis at the hospital of Dr. Roux in Lausanne.

An attempt by The Associated Press to secure an interview with the Minister concerning the situation in Turkey brought forth a note from Nedjemken that he was ill and unable to discuss his country's affairs.

The correspondent, however, talked with Fasmun Eskel Effendi, who came to Switzerland with Nedjemken, and who gave denial to reports that he and Nedjemken were here, invested with official powers, to open separate peace negotiations with the Entente Powers.

"Turkey did not desire this war," said Fasmun Effendi, "and would gladly see the arrival of peace, but all recent rumors concerning Turkey seeking a separate peace are untrue."

Asked what was the object of the visit of himself and Nedjemken, Fasmun Eskel said that it was due primarily to the prediction of an operation on Nedjemken, and secondarily, that they might spend a holiday in Switzerland after the great strain both had been under since the commencement of the war.

THE 60TH BATTALION AT VALCARTIER

The 60th Battalion was inspected this morning at Valcartier by His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught, according to a message received at headquarters. The review and inspection were very successful.

The Governor-General complimented Lieut.-Col. F. A. Gascoigne highly on the condition and training of the men and spoke of the efficiency and rapidity of the recruiting. According to Col. Gascoigne, the men of the battalion have received the highest marks in their work as well as in their play.

Thirteen men were sworn in this morning. Forty-two were taken on yesterday. Forty will leave for Valcartier tonight. According to the parade sheets ninety-seven men are needed.

But here will be the inevitable shrinkage and fully 125 more will probably be taken on. It is expected that the full number will be in camp within the next few days.

Tomorrow the band begins its rehearsals. A number of men now in camp will be sent to Montreal that they may take advantage of the training under Bandmaster Gagnier of the Grenadier Guards.

Several men are expected from Shawinigan and Valleyfield and letters of enquiry continue to pour in from various points throughout the country.

Among the recruits who went to Valcartier last evening was Charles Cavers, a newspaper man who is well-known in Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa.

MARKED BY MAN; MAY HAVE BEEN ACCIDENT

"Come on daddy, come back and love mummy and me," said a reproduction of a postcard bearing this inscription and depicting a wife bidding farewell to her young son, was recently printed in The Star, being forwarded by a Canadian soldier who found it clutched in the hand of a dead German.

This clipping from The Star was found on the unidentified body of a man who was brought to the morgue last night. He was killed by the G.T.R. train between Chatham and Canning streets.

In his pockets was a small case marked "W. H. Johns," and in the case was a postcard picture of the man himself, bearing a pathetic message to his wife, and a photo of a baby boy, evidently his son. There was also a military paper showing a wife's consent to her husband's enlistment, but a blurred name only, which appears to be "Geo. Daclier," appears on the paper. The man had not a cent in his pocket.

It would appear that penniless and destitute, he had intended to leave his wife and baby boy and go to the front. That the separation preyed on his mind would appear from the pathetic message on the back of his photo, in which he had written, "I carried the clipping of the souvenir of the battlefield. His death may have been accidental, or he may have taken this way to end his suffering, a fact which is left for the police to discover.

The man was evidently a laborer, about 40 years old, five feet eight inches in height, and of medium build, with dark complexion, and dark brown hair and moustache.

PICKING POCKETS CHARGE AGAINST TWO. "Gus" Lambert and Michael Currie whom the police say are known as pickpockets, were sent up for trial by Judge Lees this morning. No defence was offered, and the two will appear again on August 3. Emile Labrecque pleaded guilty to stealing an automobile from his cousin, Paul Garlepy, on July 19. He went on a joy-ride to L'Assomption, where the car was badly smashed up. He will be sentenced tomorrow by Judge Lees.

U.S. AMBASSADOR TO INVESTIGATE LEELANAW CASE

Berlin Asked to Explain Sinking of Orduña to States

MORE BRITISH PRESS COMMENT

Captain of Leelanaw Says Germans Were Most Courteous

BERLIN, July 22.—The American Ambassador today presented to the Foreign Office a note of inquiry regarding the attack by a German submarine on the British steamer Orduña.

Special Star Cable by Herbert Temple, of the International News.

LONDON, July 22.—Ambassador Page yesterday began an investigation of the sinking of the American freight steamer Leelanaw by a German submarine. He instructed E. H. Dennison, United States Consul at Dundee, Scotland, to secure affidavits from Captain Dalk and other officers of the ship, which will be forwarded to Washington.

A news agency despatch from Aberdeen states that the commander of the German submarine which sank the Leelanaw did not board the American steamer to ascertain whether its cargo was contraband, but merely requested the crew to disembark, and when the sailors were on the boats began firing on the ship.

BRITISH COMMENT SEVERE.

Comment on the matter was withheld at the American Embassy, but the English newspapers discuss it in lengthy editorials.

The Evening Standard declares the sinking of the Leelanaw was a "contemptuous violation of the treaty of 1856," which forbids the use of submarines in the way of the German plan.

"We strongly suspect that the German Government will find at least that it has gone a step too far," says the Globe. "It had plenty of time after the receipt of the American note to warn its submarines."

"The action of the submarine in sinking the Leelanaw can hardly be regarded otherwise than a contemptuous violation of the treaty of 1856," says the Fall Mail Gazette.

"President Wilson may take the view that the Germans did not have time to communicate with the commander of the submarine, but it is only on such a pretext that he can avoid taking action."

The Chronicle says that there is every evidence, apart from the sinking of the Leelanaw, that the German submarine was on commercial trading, including neutral shipping, in the North Sea area of the same period. It is believed by the daily press to be the first result of the American note to Germany.

GERMAN OUTBURSTS VIOLENT.

ROTTERDAM, July 22.—The more Berlin ponders over the American note the less it likes it. Yesterday's "Tageblatt," Capt. Persius, the naval expert, breaks out in a frantic effort to prove by evidence that British and German ships are armed, and that with the compliance of the United States, which he declares, has now become a partner of England in unscrupulousness.

He claims that the German Government has in its possession regulations issued by the American Government permitting armed merchant ships to enter American harbors, and a memorandum dated September 24, which was sent out by the State Department permitting armed merchant vessels in any country to enter American harbors provided the armament used was only in self-defense and fixing the calibre of the guns at not over sixteen and two-tenths centimeters.

"This memorandum," he asserts, "was only issued after it was established that no German ships could take advantage of the same. Guns of this calibre are perfectly able to guarantee the destruction of a submarine, and thus Washington pronounces its blessing on Mr. Churchill's armed merchant vessels."

Capt. Persius adds that they know that Churchill's criminal measure was generally accepted by the Admiralty. The intention of England in fighting for subsistence means that for England morals are silenced. This accords with the English political tradition, but not with those of the United States.

"The United States now becomes a partner in England's unscrupulousness. This memorandum is a direct blow to international law and a violation of neutrality designed to give a tremendous advantage to England."

Germans Courteous Declares Captain of the Leelanaw

By Canadian Press. ABERDEEN, via London, July 22.—They could not have treated us more courteously than they did," was the unanimous verdict of Captain Eugene Dalk and the members of the crew of the American steamer Leelanaw, who yesterday afternoon recounted their encounter with the German submarine. They travelled about sixty miles on the deck of the submarine, and were acquainted with its crew, several of whom had been in America.

The number of the Leelanaw's crew remained aboard the submarine at his own request. He was one of the members of the American ship, and, as a result of German nationality, preferred joining the crew of the underwater craft to the probability of internment in England.

Captain Dalk, a resident of Philadelphia, made a matter-of-fact statement regarding the sinking of his ship and was not inclined to add details to the main facts as he outlined them.

"There is no story in it," he said, "we stopped when a shot was fired at us, and then we had to leave. Our ship was shelled, bombed and torpedoed, but it took an hour and a half to sink."

ROMANIA STANDS FIRM IN REFUSAL TO PASS MUNITIONS

Surprise to Germans and Deprives Turks of Needed Supplies

By Canadian Press.

NEW YORK, July 22.—A cable to the Tribune from Milan says: Telegrams from Bucharest report that the Rumanian government still categorically refuses to allow munitions to Turkey to traverse her territory.

The Germans were so sure that Rumania would yield that they had forwarded thousands of carloads of war material, which is now congesting the Austrian railways on the Rumanian frontier. Fifty cars which had passed the frontier were seized by the Rumanian authorities.

As the Turks are unable to obtain fresh supplies of ammunition, they have determined to make a desperate effort, while they still possess some reserves, to drive the Allies from the peninsula of Gallipoli.

At the last council of war held in Constantinople, at which Field-Marshal von der Goltz and Gen. Lemar von Sanders were present, it was decided to concentrate the Adrianople garrison and the troops guarding the Black Sea at Gallipoli. This decision is proof that Turkey does not fear an immediate attack on Adrianople by Bulgaria.

BULGARIA NEEDS CASH. The arrival of M. Stojanoff, director of the Bulgarian public debt, in Berlin is additional proof that Bulgaria is unlikely to move. German banks still owe Bulgaria 150,000,000 marks, which she has not repaid since she loaned it to her ally in 1913.

The official organ of the Stamboulist party in Bulgaria, has published a categorical denial of the report spread by the Rumanian press, had taken the initiative in the formation of a Rumanian-Greek-Bulgarian alliance, the occupation of Constantinople and the Dardanelles by Russia. No such league exists or is planned.

AWAIT COURTS' DECISION ON U.S. ENLISTMENTS

By Canadian Press.

WASHINGTON, July 22.—No interference by the State Department is contemplated in the various cases now before the Department of Justice, where foreign subjects have been indicted under the Foreign Enlistment Act for alleged aid to their countrymen homeward bound for military service.

This was the impression conveyed to the Russian ambassador today during an unexpected call at the department regarding Montenegrin agents under arrest on such charges in Chicago and Seattle. He was told that as the Department of Justice already had started proceedings, nothing could be done until the courts had passed on the questions involved. The Russian Embassy is advised these persons that they were here in the absence of a Minister from Montenegro.

THE BRITISH VIEW. A similar reply was made recently to the British subjects indicted under the act. The Embassy had advised these persons that they were within their legal rights. It is regarded as certain that diplomatic protests will follow convictions in these cases.

The British view is that the act prohibits only the hiring of persons in this country for service in a foreign army. In other quarters it is argued that the prevention of the enlistment of American citizens in foreign armies was what the act sought to accomplish, and that it did not apply to foreigners resident in the United States.

FRENCH WOMEN OBJECT TO SHOPS SELLING LIQUOR

By Canadian Press.

PARIS, July 22.—A committee of "The Crusade of the Women of France," including Mesdames Alphonse Daudet, Emile Zola, Poincaré, Viviani, Augagneur and Deroulé, the Duchesse de Rohan and the Countess of Greffulhe, passed a resolution yesterday condemning the sale of alcoholic beverages in the shops of confectioners, tobacconists and grocers, and demanding that the sale of spirits be prohibited in communities where munitions of war are manufactured.

The Prefect of Police, charged with the enforcement of the anti-alcoholic law, issued by General Gallieni, Military Governor of Paris, on request of the "Ligue des Femmes," has refused to do so until the courts had passed on the questions involved. The Russian Embassy is advised these persons that they were here in the absence of a Minister from Montenegro.

GERMANS SEEK TO DEMORALIZE FISHING SUPPLY

By Canadian Press.

LONDON, July 22.—Apparently determined to demoralize the British fish supply as much as possible two German submarines have appeared suddenly among the fishing fleet off the north coast of Scotland and by shell fire sunk nine trawlers, the Tostyia, Celtic, Cydonia, Galloway, Stratmore, Honoria, Cassio, Hermione and Sutton.

In such cases, in spite of a vigorous water boat, the crews of the fishermen escaped without injury, although the men of the Honoria and the crew of the Sutton drifted in their open boats for forty and forty-five hours respectively before being picked up in northern harbors.

All the men were landed safely yesterday. Many other fishing vessels have been forced to take refuge in northern harbors.

Some of the fishermen declare that the Germans on board the submarines spoke good English. In one case they shouted out to the British sailors: "We have nice little torpedoes here for Winston Churchill (former First Lord of the Admiralty), and the Foreign Secretary, Sir Edward Grey."

EVERS REMARKS ABOUT NATIONAL LEAGUE ROW WERE VERY UNFORTUNATE

George Ferring, Kansas City Infielder, Uses Bat 30 Years Old and Made from Prison Scaffold Upon Which Many Were Hanged

By Frank G. Menke. NEW YORK, July 28.—The thrill seems to have been removed from the National League race through the recent widely quoted remark of Johnny Evers...

Never in the modern history of baseball have the teams whirled along toward the month of August so closely bunched that a mere matter of eight games or so separated the first and last place outfits.

It is really too bad for baseball that Evers made that foolish remark. It has hurt in many years, and it has cooled the fever of many of the fans who were getting all "hot up" about the closeness of the National League battle.

A newspaper chap recently wrote a lengthy article pointing out that Jack Warhop, the Yankee pitcher, was "the unluckiest pitcher in the American League." After perusing Warhop's record, it seems to us that Warhop is one of the luckiest blokes that ever hustled into big league baseball.
