GENERAL LUDENDORFF TRIES TO SLIP BLAME ON TO KAISER

SENATORS HAVE AMENDMENTS IN MASS FOR TREATY

One Senator Alone Has Prepared Seventy—A Curious Situation

LEADER IS NEEDED

Majority Lacks Cohesion—English-speaking Alliance is Urged

Special to The Star from Our Own Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, July 30. — Some idea of what may be expected when the Senate Foreign Relations Committee really gets into action on the Peace Treaty is foreseen in the statement that Senator Fall, Republican, of New Mexico, has prepared seventy amendments for submission to that body.

No intimation is given as to the clauses at which these amendments are aimed, but evidently only a few can escape. Other Senators are not less enthusiastic over changes and, if the committee could have its way, by the time they would be through with the treaty, there is every reason to believe that the "Big Five" would not recognize their offspring.

The committee, having concluded reading the treaty, will now peruse the Franco - American document which guaranteed France against aggression, and which was forced from President Wilson yesterday. This will be but a short matter, and when it is concluded, the first experts on the Peace Treaty will be heard. It is stated that they will be Bradley Palmer and Bernard M. Baruch. They will explain the financial clauses and will be followed by many of the other technical advisers who were with President Wilson in Paris.

The proposal that the Senate should strike, or, as it was more politely phrased, take a recess, has been discarded. It was made as a reprisal for the heading up of the Franco-American treaty by the President. As a reprisal, it was most effective, for the President delivered the document yesterday.

In his message accompanying it, for the first time, the President gave his interpretation of the disputed Article X, stating definitely that each nation member would determine what action it would take, no matter what the decision of the council of the League might be.

The explanation, however, will not be accepted as binding by those in favor of a reservation on this point, who definitely assert the right of Congress to pass on any military or war-like proposals.

This interpretation by the President is hailed as a long step toward a reservation on this article. The opponents claim that if this is the case, the League is what President Wilson claimed it would be without the article, merely a debating society.

PLANNED ATTACK FRONT AND REAR.

The threat of a recess has also, it is claimed, by the opponents of the administration, had the effect of causing the President to again postpone his swing around the circle. Had he left Washington on the proposed tour, the Senate would have followed the example of the House and taken a holiday. And it is stated that in each city in which the President spoke he would be embarrassed by finding himself sandwiched between two of his most doughty opponents, Senator Borah, it was planned, should precede him and Senator Hiram Johnson follow him.

Senator Hitchcock, I am told, has informed the President that he may count on 40 solid votes in the Senate for the Treaty as it stands. There are a few uncertain, but the number for reservations has been computed at 50. The hope of the Administration, however, still lies in the fact that the 50 are not solid on any one amendment, and so a comic deadlock is possible, no reservations because a majority cannot be collected for any one, and the treaty itself held up because the two-thirds majority necessary for its ratification is impossible.

A remarkable example of the lack of confidence among the leaders of the Republican party and the jealousy that exists was shown in the lobby yesterday. From the floor of the Senate, the leader, Senator Lodge, observed Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, who has been receiving not a little publicity of late, surrounded by newspaper correspondents. Very gravely the floor leader walked to the group and publicly reproved the Senator and urged him to be careful of what he said.

REAL WEAKNESS OF MAJORITY.

Undoubtedly the chief weakness of the majority is the lack of a real leader. Great interest was shown in the speech of Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado. The Senator has been long dubious about the Treaty, and his recent talk with the President did not assist in arriving at any decision on the matters that disturbed him. His speech was one of the most remarkable heard in the debate. It was pessimistic in tone. He saw no end to wars, and stated that internationalism such as the League of Nations aims at would be a measure were it not attainable. In conclusion he saw the only hope for peace in an alliance of the English-speking nations. He said:

"If I could write a covenant for a League to force peace, I would, bearing in mind the arbitration treaties of 1913 and continued Allied association for treaty enforcement, confine it to the English-speaking nations and colonies of the world. Theirs are the institutions of free men, theirs the wealth, the commerce. They are carriers of the sea. They advocate and enforce the impartial admiration of justice and of law. They control the armaments and can mobilize the armies that may be needed to enforce the peace between nations.

"No people would disregard the admonition or reject the counsel of such a league. Its benign influence, the ripe fruit of centuries of experience in self-discipline, which is the parent of selfgovernment, shedding its rays over the habitable globe, guaranteeing protection and extending aid to those not yet able to move unsupported along the pathway of national development, would do more to minimize the danger of war and promote the ways and the arts of peace than any other international understanding the wit of man can devise.

"And if these nations be true to themselves and to the impulses of their common origin, whatever we may now do or fail to do, these will in time be leagued by destiny for the harmony and wellbeing of all mankind. If they cannot save the world, it is past all redemption."

REFERENDUM ON CHICAGO STRIKE

Leaders Assert Radicals Forced Quick Action Against Majority

CONFERENCE IS ON

International President Investigating Action of Men in Refusing Award

Special to The Star.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Officials of the 15,000 striking street car and elevated railway employes today planned a referendum to determine whether the city's transportation strike shall be continued.

L. D. Bland, international treasurer of the Carmen's Union, asserted that he would take steps immediately toward completing the vote. The hasty action in calling the strike early yesterday without an hour's notice to the public, and after refusing a 67 cent hourly wage, Bland said, was caused by 300 radicals among the union men.

Bland is to confer with W. D. Mahon, international president, who arrived in the city today. Mahon, who had recommended that the men accept the wage scale offered, is expected to start a rigid investigation into the persons causing the quick calling of the strike.

Further complications in the strike situation were assured today when employes of the Aurora, Elgin and Chicago Electric road voted to strike. The road uses the tracks of the Metropolitan Elevated Line of the city. More than 15,000 additional workers will be forced to walk or use automobiles and steam roads, it was estimated.

No meetings of officials of the road or union were held yesterday. Each side "sat tight" to await developments today, following the arrival of Mahon. Company officials contended they had offered a reasonable increase in pay at 67 cents an hour, while the men held out for 85.

MINORITY FORCED STRIKE.

Union officials, headed by Bland, blamed radicals, who, they contended, forced the strike upon the city by breaking off negotiations.

The union membership is 15,000; the attendance at the meeting where the strike vote passed over protest of the leaders was 6,000. It was said that another twenty-four hours may pass before the referendum vote can be completed.

Meanwhile the tie-up on this, the second day of the strike, was as complete as on yesterday, the first day of the walkout. Officials of the companies said no effort would be made to run cars with the aid of strike-breakers; that they would simply wait until the situation had cleared somewhat before taking any action. The conservative element believe the referendum will result in showing that the strike vote does not represent the majority of the union's membership.

Working Chicago found its way to business today by the various methods brought into service yesterday, but the congestion to traffic was greatly reduced.

SETTLEMENT OF NEAR EAST NOW FAR FROM CLEAR

U.S. Silence as to Willingness to Accept Mandate Delays Matters

SYRIAN DIFFICULTY

French Attitude Not Helpful—Result of U.S. Commission's Inquiry

London Times-Public Ledger Cable to Montreal Star by G. S. Adams. Copyright.

PARIS, July 30.—A settlement in the Near East, never easy of achievement, is being still further complicated by the absence of any definite indication from America as to her willingness to accept the mandate for Armenia and Constantinople. It is clear that upon her reply the whole character of the Near Eastern settlement depends.

The distribution of mandates is naturally a difficult matter. As regards Palestine and Syria, the French and British governments, in a declaration to the populations concerned issued in November last, pledged themselves very explicitly to consulting the wishes of the people. It was suggested that an inter-Allied commission representing America, France and Great Britain should proceed to those districts to ascertain by plebiscite what these wishes are.

As a matter of fact, only the American commission has proceeded to the Near East. It will be back in Paris within the next fe wdays, and, broadly speaking, the result of its activities is said to show that American mandate is preferred and that, failing the American mandate, British control would be more cheerfully accepted.

Reports as to the results of this American commission's activities have been published in the French press, and have called forth a good deal of sorrowful criticism by the French, who speak freely of the activities of British agents and of propaganda in Syria and Palestine.

A good deal of this comment is, to say the least of it, misinformed, and in no particular more so than when it assumes that the British Government desires for itself a mandate for Syria.

BRITISH DON'T WANT SYRIA.

On more than one occasion British representatives have stated that in no circumstances would they seek a mandate for Syria, but at the same time the British have urged that the occupation of those countries by British rather than by French troops is desirable, in the interest of peace, until the mandate, which the British think ought to be given to the French, has been conferred and accepted.

The Arab populations are not by any means easy to deal with, and the installation of the mandate system there ought not be attempted in a hurry. In the meanwhile, it is to be deplored that there should be attempts to increase the difficulties of the moment by indiscreet diatribes against British progaganda. The British maintain their attitude, and still intend to decline a mandate for Syria.

It would be more useful to the cause of Anglo-French-American friendship were this fact repeated in the French press. The intricacy of the settlement in the Near East and in other regions where French and British interests are involved has led to the suggestion that the best means of finding a settlement would be direct Anglo-French negotiations of the kind which laid the foundations for the Entente Cordiale.

HUNGARIAN SOVIET NEAR END OF ROPE

Army Lost Heavily Against Rumanians—Allies May Occupy Budapest

Special Star Cable by United Press.

VIENNA, July 30.—With its army on the verge of collapse there is further evidence that the days of the Hungarian Soviet are numbered. In their offensive against the Rumanians, it is estimated, the Reds lost 4,000 men.

The desire is unanimous in Hungarian moderate circles that Budapest be occupied by British or American troops. French forces were not wanted, and it was stated, above all, that Rumanians should not be sent, for fear of the hostility they would cause among the population.

The Czecho-Slovak army already is advancing on Szegedin. At the same time, the White Government has received approval from the Serbians to mobilize the Hungarian population in the territory occupied by the Serbs.

The White War Minister, General Bellcska, who is acting as commander of the army, announced yesterday that the first division, comprising 16,000 men, was ready for action, and that a second division would be ready at the end of this week. A special division, consisting of Transylvanian Hungarians, also is being recruited.

French forces, which are evacuating Szegedin, entrusted the town to the White army today.

LUDENDORFF NOW PUTS BLAME UPON FORMER EMPEROR

Says He Was Responsible for 1917 Decision to Hold Belgian Territory

DENOUNCES BAUER

Condemns Statements in Assembly Criticising Crown Council

By Associated Press

BERLIN, July 30. —Responsibility for the Crown Council's decision in 1917, that Belgian territory must be held, was placed upon the former German emperor by General Ludendorff, in a communication published yesterday by the Deutsche Tages Zeitung.

General Ludendorff's letter said that great headquarters merely sketched the military situation and stated what measures they believed necessary to protect Germany's west frontier in an economic way. The former German Emperor, General Ludendorff said, decided the question, and his decision was binding upon military headquarters.

Premier Bauer and Dr. Hermann Mueller, Foreign Minister, were condemned by General Ludendorff for their statements in the German National Assembly at Weimar on Monday, criticizing the Crown Council's actions and making public reports of Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff, advising the retention and military occupation of the Liege district. General Ludendorff inquired where Dr. Mueller obtained the military information concerning great headquarters.

PLANNED TO CONTROL BELGIUM.

An outline of what the military authorities were said to have considered the necessary "economic unity" with Belgium also was published by the National Zeitung. This outline, according to the paper, contemplated the extension of the German customs system to Belgium, the levying of imperial taxes on monopolies there, obligating Belgium to accept German control of Belgium taxation, trade representation and the divisions of the income tax. It suggested also further voting equality of citizens of Germany and Belgium and various regulations regarding shipping, legal and industrial questions.

German shipping, according to the published economic outline, would be given rights in the harbor of Antwerp, Belgium would adopt the German monetary system, all damage claims against Germany would be annulled Germany would take over the Belgian railroads, and the German workmen's protection insurance law would be introduced in Belgium.

ERZBERGER REVELATIONS DISCUSSED.

London Times-Public Ledger Cable to The Montreal Star. Copyright.

BERLIN, July 30.—The Erzberger revelations continue to form the exclusive topic of conversation among all persons interested in politics. Richard Kuehlmann, former Foreign Minister, in reply to General Ludendorff's charges, says that a responsible Cabinet is, in his opinion, competent to ascertain what can be published forthwith concerning important diplomatic proceedings.

He does not consider himself in a position to publish anything about confidential proceedings during his period of office without authorization from the Foreign Office, and doubts the utility of such publication for the German policy as a whole.

He considers matters can only be effectively cleared up by proceedings such as those proposed to take place before a State judicial tribunal, which would allow of an examination of political events in relation to each other by means of all documents.

RIVALLED DEEDS OF CAPT. KIDD

Sea Pirates Staged Dramatic Holdup on Black Sea

Special Cable by United Press.

LONDON, July 30.—The daring days of sea piracy have been born anew in the Black Sea, according to a news agency despatch today from Constantinople.

Georgian brigands, after smuggling themselves aboard the Russian steamer Constantine, staged a dramatic hold-up in the middle of the Black Sea that closely rivalled the achievements of the late Captain Kidd.

Drawing revolvers, the bandits lined up men, women and children on the decks and ordered the captain to continue his course. The hold-up men then proceeded systematically to rob the passengers of gold coins, notes, jewellery and other valuable worth 35,000,000 roubles.

Near Rizeh, on the Turkish coast, the brigands blew up the steamer, rowed ashore and escaped with the booty.

Foch Made British Field-Marshal

Special Star Cable.

LONDON, July 30.—Marshal Foch was given the rank of Field-Marshal of the British Army by King George at Buckingham Palace and was presented with a sword of honor at the Guildhall today, when he was tendered the freedom of the city.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, Field-Marshal Haig and members of the Cabinet were present. Foch was honored by a military escort. Afterward he attended a luncheon at the Mansion House.

LEADERSHIP FIGHT IS NARROWED DOWN

General Conviction That Contest Will Be Between Fielding and Mackenzie

DARK HORSE TALK

No Sign of Any Such Development — Reunion Moderates Dominate

Special to Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 30.—The Liberals are declaring that they will have 2,000 delegates at the convention in Ottawa, beginning Thursday, the 5th, that every county will be fully represented; that all their differences will be harmonized; that the leader will be chosen without dissent and that their program will be swallowed without a gulp by every delegate; that every misery of the human race will be provided for in the declaration of policy; that the menu will tempt all classes and that their policy will ultimately prevail even if they lose the next election.

The Hon. Wm. Martin's self-elimination from the race for the Liberal leadership is not exactly a surprise. When he was down here in the spring he said he would not be a candidate. Some of his friends advised him to go in for it and others counselled waiting. Meanwhile, his name has been freely mentioned, and probably not without a substantial degree of advertising value. He is young, and he can wait. If he went to a vote in the convention and lost, it would affect his prestige provincially.

Another element in the situation is that, "Federally," the supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the West are in charge of the party organization, and some of them are still inclined to one who stayed in the straight and narrow path in 1917. If this feeling be not submerged in the reunion, it would affect not only Mr. Martin but may also extend to Mr. Fielding. The more predominant view, however, seems to be to efface the old differences and get together.

Vigorous canvassing is being made for Fielding on the ground that the salary of $9,000 enjoyed by the leader of the Opposition from the public funds is attractive and that he needs it. It is said the promoters of the Fielding campaign are depending on the French-Canadians to forget or condone the past.

Mackenzie King is here, but keeping very quiet. Just after Sir Wilfrid died, his name was boomed somewhat, but afterwards, when he went to England on research work, the boom seemed to fade away and gradually die.

Now and then the name of George P. Graham is put forth and not improbably he will be proposed for the leadership. Fred Pardee has an element of support but, with Mr. Martin out the present outlook seemingly is for a choice between Mr. Fielding and Mr. Mackenzie.

Some of the observers predict a dark horse, a second day Bryan, coming in at the eleventh hour and carrying the convention with some "fiery cross" speech but, if there be, potentially, he has not loomed up, even remotely, in the offing.

LIBERAL PARTY'S ATTENTION.

A contest between Mr. Fielding and Mr. Mackenzie, if it narrow down to that, will involve the question as to whether the attitude of the party is to be "stand pat and no compromise" or whether the differences of 1917 are to be adjusted. There are varied opinions. The moderates are all for re-union. Some of the stand-patters have not forgotten what they regarded as treachery to the "old man" at the last election.

Unless the present indications are astray, the former are in a decided majority, recognizing that a continued division must produce a result like what occurred before. What has been described as Mackenzie's "protectionist" speech last session has undoubtedly injured his chances in certain sections of the country, especially with those who are out for a fiscal policy veering towards ultimate free trade.

Nowhere is more interest manifested in the situation than in Government circles. They are looking on and wondering what will happen, and are particularly interested in seeing whether the East and the West can come together on a common platform.

The Government knows what it is to have a somewhat refractory caucus, with one element pulling one way and another pulling hard the other way. There is this difference, however, while it will be easier for the other side to agree upon a platform that, at this stage, is, essentially academic.

The advance guard on the ground is headed by Hon. Frank Oliver, the stormy petrel from the west. More will arrive today for the meeting tomorrow of the convention committee.

BERNSTORFF FOR CABINET.

LONDON, July 30.—The German Cabinet will be reconstructed in a few days, with Count von Bernstorff succeeding Hermann Mueller as Foreign Minister, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Berlin stated today.

MINERS TO CONFER WITH OWNERS IN YORKSHIRE TODAY

Strike May Last Another Week, However, With Consequent Dislocation

INDUSTRIES SUFFER

Men Meanwhile Crowd the Railroad Stations Bent on Going for Holidays

Special Star Cable.

LONDON, July 30. — Yorkshire coal miners are meeting the mine-owners at Leeds today, having accepted the owners' invitation for a conference. The Minister of Labor, Mr. Horne, conferred last night with the miners. Progress was made toward a settlement of the strike, it is understood.

The strike is now in its third week, with a possibility of extending at least another week, despite the fact that Premier Lloyd George has arranged a settlement with the Miners' Federation. The miners have not yet returned to the pits, because the local leaders in Yorkshire refuse to accept dictation from the federation.

Herbert Smith, president of the Yorkshire Miners' Council, insists upon a settlement through direct negotiations between the Yorkshire mine-owners and the miners of that region. If he clings to that attitude, ten days or two weeks may be required to bring about a settlement, with the possibility that either Mr. Lloyd George or the Minister of Labor may be compelled to intervene on behalf of the state.

INDUSTRIES SUFFERING.

If the strike lasts until next week, the miners probably will remain away from the pits until after the August bank holiday. They cannot go to work until a great many repairs have been made. In the meantime all the industries in the Yorkshire region are suffering from lack of coal. Tens of thousands of workers are idle, and their number is being increased daily.

Railway officials assert that if this strike continues, the whole railway situation will have to be revised. They say another week of non-production will throw the country's transportation system into chaos.

Reports from various sections show a constantly diminishing output, with a big increase in the number of unemployed. In spite of this situation the Yorkshire miners crowd the railway stations, bent on making a holiday, and trusting to luck to have a job when they return.

DEMAND AN ARMED FORCE FOR LEAGUE

Claims French Militarists Will Insist if Defense Treaty Rejected

EXPECT HOT DEBATE

Foreign Relations Committee to Open Treaty Hearings Thursday

Special to The Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Should the Senate fail to ratify the French defence treaty, which is now before the Foreign Relations Committee, militarists in France will insist that the League of Nations set up a general staff to direct its military operations, and create an international armed force, according to Opposition Senators today.

These Senators asserted that their belief was based on information received from Paris. The Senators who made this declaration are hostile to both the League and the French treaty.

Even with the special treaty, they said, their advices show there is a strong demand in France that the League be strengthened by giving it armed force to sustain its decrees.

HOPE FOR AN AMENDMENT.

Opposition Senators hope that the French Chamber of Deputies will amend the League covenant, forcing the treaty of peace back to the conference, and giving the American opposition an excuse to vote for textual amendments and strong reservations here.

The Foreign Relations Committee will begin open hearings on Thursday on the financial and economic phases of the peace treaty, Bernard M. Baruch, the first of four experts to be heard, will appear.

The amendment which will be proposed for Irish independence has been drawn up, it was learned. It provides that Ireland, the Philippines and Korea shall hereafter be regarded as independent nations. In this form, its sponsors think, it will not offend Britain, as it affects the United States and Japan as well.

FRANCE'S CLAIM FOR RHINE BANK

Premier Clemenceau Outlines His Reasons to French Chamber

Belgian Foreign Affairs Committee Approves Treaty Ratification

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 30.—Premier Clemenceau, accompanied by Captain Andre Tardieu attended today's meeting of the committee of the Chamber of Commerce which is considering the peace treaty, and brought written replies to questions formulated by the committee regarding the left bank of the Rhine.

Captain Tardieu read the replies, after which there was a lengthy discussion, M. Clemenceau amplifying the replies. He recalled that the Government had presented a memorandum to the Peace Conference, setting forth at length the reasons why France should hold the Rhine bridgeheads. The document presented February 27 was discussed until the middle of March.

At that date, the French Government, in agreement with the Allies, combined various military systems which fully assured the safety of France, and which, taken one with the other, were equivalent to occupation of the bridgeheads. These measures were accepted by the peace conference and incorporated in the treaty. In addition to them came later treaties with Great Britain and the United States, guaranteeing immediate and unlimited military aid.

The Premier and Captain Tardieu, answering various objections raised regarding the rapidity of possible German concentration, and the distance of the military help of the Allies, pointed out that it was impossible to admit that an army reduced to 100,000 men, could, even in the face of universal indifference of the world in general, and France in particular, be raised to several million men armed and equipped, ready for war. The hearing of M. Clemenceau lasted three hours.

SEES DANGER TO OIL INTERESTS

Special to The Star by United Press.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Japan is buying up the oil interests of Americans in Mexico who want to leave their holdings because they feel they are insufficiently protected, Senator Phelan, California, declared in an interview today.

Senator Phelan made this assertion in urging this Government to take a strong hand to safeguard American rights south of the Rio Grande.

"In view of the critical oil situation and establishment of a policy by Great Britain to absorb the oil of the world both in the United States and out, if possible, our Government as a means of natural protection should take a positive stand in Mexico and see that American interests are protected in the most emphatic and conclusive way," Senator Phelan declared.

"Japan is buying the claims of discouraged Americans in Mexico who do not hope for any protection. As soon as this Government vigorously takes an interest in the matter, Americans in Mexico will be given renewed encouragement and the United States will be able to make up deficits in its oil supply.

HAVRE PORT CLOSED

HARVE, July 30.—The union of employers of the port and city, considering that the dock workers have broken the contract signed for a six months' period by the port workers' union last March, notably by sabotage and demands for higher pay, has decided to stop all work in the port from July 30. Other concerns, not members of the employers' union, have undertaken not to hire any dockworkers while the conflict lasts.

It was further hoped that an announcement would be made before recess.

CHICAGO GROWS QUIETER AS THE RACE FEUD WANES

Is Still Serious But Police Believe They Have it Under Control

BUSINESS SUFFERS

Negro Employes Laid Off as a Precautionary Measure by the City

Special to The Star.

CHICAGO, July 30.—Another death was recorded today in Chicago's race war. Berger Odman, white, succumbed to injuries received on Monday night.

The increased patrol in the black belt today held its inhabitants to one small outbreak in which oe white officer and a negro were wounded. The negro had slipped out of his home toward a grocery when he was rushed by four whites. The officer was injured when the white men retreated, firing at the negro.

Eighty-five negroes and seventeen white men were arrested. Many may face prosecution. Several were picked up by officers who saw them in the act of killing, according to the police. The prisoners include eleven uniformed ex-soldiers from a colored regiment. Two wore the Croix de Guerre.

Negroes arriving from the sotuh were stopped at the depots and taken to police stations or warned to leave the city for some safer place.

Conditions in the "loop" were better today with the employment of several hundred civilians as special officers. A few negroes stranded in the "loop" were sent home in closed vans proffered by big business houses. It was expected the police stations might be cleared of some refugees in that manner late today if conditions warranted their removal.

Negro business men distributed more than 300,000 handbills urging negroes to remain off the streets and to obey the police and, above all, not to attack a white man. George F. Manns, head of a business men's committee, said the appeals were effective.

To reinforce the 4,200 state troops, mobilized here, to be used in the event of a renewal of the riots.

Adjutant-General Dickson, who ordered the additional troops — the Ninth and Tenth Illinois regiments to Chicago, believes the use of troops will be unnecessary. He is, however, prepared for any eventuality.

Negro leaders conferred with the mayor and the chief of police, urging the appointment of a committee of whites and blacks to devise protection for the negro and the discouragement of race prejudice.

MORE TROOPS ON THE SCENE..

Additional militia companies arrived today. Unostentatiously they were hurried to armories.

An appeal for 200 citizen soldiers in uniform to help handle traffic in the downtown section was issued today by the city public safety department. During early hours today traffic went as it would, and numerious minor accidents occurred, traffic policemen having been sent to the riot zones.

Every type of conveyance was used for carrying to the business district the city's army of 250,000 workers, stenographers and clerks. Trucks, cabs, express wagons and other vehicles were pressed into service.

Several lunch rooms and restaurants and dining rooms of several larger hotels were forced to close and to hang out signs asking for porters, waiters and kitchen men. Negro help was either sent home by employers through fear of violence, or failed to show up for work.

The Palmer House restaurant was closed as was that at the Briggs Hotel and the Lexington. Other large "loop" hotels obtained white chefs and waiters.

"Dum-dum bullets were found on the persons of Thomas Smith and Bob Jones, negro porters arrested last night, according to the police. The negroes were former soldiers.

PACKING HOUSES SUSPEND.

The stockyards packing houses were forced to suspend practically all killing and receiving of stock today. White workers refused to work with negroes employed in the pens and slaughter houses, and the negroes were withdrawn.

A warning was issued last night by packers to stock men to cease shipping livestock to the Chicago market until the rioting has ceased.

Nearly fifteen hundred negro employes of the city were laid off by official order, owing to the riots. Many of the number were employed in street repair work. By official order nine municipal playgrounds in or adjacent to the racial war zone were closed. Not more than five per cent of the negro clerks, inspectors and janitors employed at the city hall reported for work, and the greater number of those who did appear were told to go home again and stay there until further notice. At the garbage reduction plant only the whites, about one-fourth of the usual force, appeared for work, and at the city's asphalt plant there was an entire absence of men, all the employes being negroes. All city work in the second and third wards parts of each being in the "black belt," has been suspended.

Negro chauffeurs, clerks and carriers at the post office were assured the fullest protection by Postmaster Carlile, under whose jurisdiction are several hundred negroes. The Government will not submit to any interference with the handling or distributions of the mails, the postmaster said. "Our employes have the fullest protection."

Adjutant-General Dickson, after making a tour of the danger zone early today reported the situation much improved compared with yesterday. He said the most serious condition confronting the police is in the stock yards district.

The August grand jury, which convenes next week, will obtain evidence on the race riots through its own investigation, MacLay Hoyne, State's attorney, announced today. Vigorous prosecutions will be instituted, Mr. Hoyne said, and charges of murder by rioting will be made if the evidence can be directly connected with any person.

FIGHTING AGAIN RAGED THROUGHOUT CHICAGO IN NIGHT

More People Killed But the Police Believe Situation Now in Hand

TROOPS NOT CALLED

Details of Fighting Reveal Desperate Passion on Both Sides

Special to Star.

CHICAGO, July 30.—With twenty-eight known killed and 500 wounded since Sunday, nearly 5,000 armed troops are still waiting in their armories for the word which will send them out to cope with the race riots which have raged for three nights, and which burst out with renewed violence last night. The entire city police force is on riot duty, but the authorities hazard the opinion that the worst is over and that it will not be necessary to call out the troops.

Yesterday the rioting spread from the "black belt" into "the loop," Chicago's business district, while the Italian colony joined in the fray and waged war on the negroes. As far as can be ascertained, two blacks and two whites were killed last night, a third negro dying from wounds received Monday.

The coroner's official list of dead to date reports that an equal number of blacks and whites have been killed.

The first pitched battle of the night occurred at Thirty Fifth and State streets, one of the centres of trouble since the first rioting on Sunday. A small automobile filled with whites, each armed with a pistol and all firing indiscriminately at blacks, crashed into a patrol wagon at the street intersection.

Two of the whites were killed in the collision. Two of the others and every policeman in the patrol wagon were hurt.

Immediately there was a rush of blacks and policemen to the wreck. The police could not push the enraged negroes away and opened fire, killing one negro and wounding thirty others. The wounded policemen and whites were placed in ambulances and a crowd of whites followed them to the Providence hospital. Outside that institution, which is maintained and manned by negroes, a crowd of blacks had gathered and the two races quickly clashed.

A call for police brought a strong detail who charged half a dozen times before the rioters were dispersed. One negro police sergeant and a dozen rioters were wounded in this clash. One of the whites wounded in the fight at the automobile was Frank Hoedek, an employee of the Federal Collector of Internal revenue. He was caught under the machine and a negro shot him in the face. The negro was arrested.

Of the 25 fatalities reported by the police, ten were white persons and 15 were negroes.

Of the negroes killed during the night, one an unidentified negro youth in the west side Italian district, was knocked from a bicycle, stabbed, and shot a dozen times by a crowd of white men and boys. Kerosene was poured over his clothes and ignited. Police rescued his body.

Ira Henry, 40, negro, was shot and killed by a mob. The police said Henry had shot and wounded Patrolman Walter Sullivan.

Several fires, supposedly of incendiary origin, occurred in the negro section of the South Side during the night.

FIREMEN WERE SHOT AT.

Firemen responding to alarms were met with showers of bricks, and in some cases they were shot at.

Sixteen policemen were shot and wounded while on duty in the "black belt."

During the night and early morning, negroes were pursued by crowds of whites wherever they showed themselves outside the negro section.

After midnight a young negro wearing a Canadian uniform and two wound stripes was beaten into unconsciousness in the business district. Police took him to a hospital. He said he had seen three years' service with the Canadian army overseas.

Mayor Thompson and Chief of Police Garrity today expressed the belief that the crisis has passed. Garrity declared he would not use the militia placed at his disposal unless absolutely necessary.

The negro section was patrolled today by police who had instituted the zone system. One captain and fifteen policemen were stationed in each zone, consisting of about ten blocks.

Snipers were at work throughout the district where most of the rioting occurred. Following wounding of Policeman Ralph Cheney and Jeremiah Murray by snipers' bullets, police raided a house occupied by John Dixon, negro. Dixon was arrested and considerable ammunition was found in his rooms.

GOVERNOR READY TO ACT.

Governor Lowden remained in Chicago. During the day he was to have conferences with Adjutant General Dickson, Chief Garrity and Mayor Thompson. He declared that if troops are needed he will call on every available man.

"The soldiers will be sent into the zone, ready for action," said the Governor. "Of course, you can never tell how far it will go and where it will end."

Police last night drove a mob of several hundred persons from around the Sherman Hotel, in the heart of the loop, where it was believed negroes were employed. The hotel, it was learned, was employing white help.

Miles south of the black belt there were fights in the evening in Woodlawn and in Englewood. A stray bullet from the latter clash wounded an aged white woman a block away.

The North Side troubles centred around West Division street. There was considerable shooting throughout the Barrabee street police district, but so far as could be learned no fatalities resulted. Several negroes and numerous white were arrested, most of the latter giving Italian names.

Groups of negroes in the uniforms of soldiers, several wearing medals, toured the streets, shooting sporadically. It was reported that a policeman had been killed at Thirty-Fifth and State streets; that a truckload of girls had been fired on; that four women and twenty men had barricaded themselves in a South State street building and fired on all white passers-by, until arrested.

At Fifty-First and Halstead streets the whites hanged a negro in effigy.

NEGRO EXODUS NOW ON.

Hundreds of negroes, many carrying personal possessions and some without baggage, joined in an exodus today. The majority of them, chiefly in family groups, bought railroad tickets for Memphis and Nashville. A considerable number said they were going to Indianapolis.

The menace of fire was added to an already serious situation when Fire Marshal O'Connor reported he had been informed negroes were threatening the torch to homes of whites on the South Side. The marshal said every available fireman was being held in reserve to meet such an emergency.

A repetition of the desperate fighting in the county jail between white and negro prisoners during the day was made impossible by locking the blacks in their cells and placing a machinegun in position to rake the cell doors and the main entrance to the jail.

Rioting continued long after midnight and several casualties were added to the list of dead and wounded. A negro residence at Fifty-Seventh street and Wentworth was burned by whites but the occupants escaped. The ninth and tenth regiments of Illinois, troops from Cairo, are reported on the way to Chicago to increase the available soldiers, but none have taken up patrol duty, the city officers so far having refused to concede defeat and ask military aid.

LADIES OF ORANGE ORDER IN SESSION

Membership of Order 6,000 After Successful Year

OTTAWA, July 30.—"We'll always live under the grand old Union Jack," is the greeting flung from the banner over the entrance to Racquet Court this week where 150 delegates of the Grand Lodge of British America of the Ladies Orange Benevolent association are in session for their twenty-sixth meeting. The first session included addresses from Most Worshipful Grandmaster H. C. Hocken, M.P., of Toronto, and the Most Worshipful Grand Mistress, Mrs. C. O. Akerley, of St. John, N.B.

Mr. Hocken urged the members of the L.O.B.A. to "broaden their work throughout Canada for the Protestant orphans, particularly, along the line of establishing orphanages." That the present is a time for action along these lines, was urged by the Grand Master. Later in the convention Mr. Hocken will confer with the ladies regarding proposals for the assistance to orphans, and the committee appointed to meet him includes Mrs. Nixon of Winnipeg, Mrs. Alton of Edmonton, Mrs. Thompson of Toronto, Mrs. F. Allen of Ottawa, Mrs. Anderson of St. John, N.B., Mrs. Hatfield of St. John, N.B., and Mrs. MacLean of Charlottetown, P.E.I.

There are now over six thousand five hundred members in the L.O.B.A. in Canada according to the report presented by Mrs. Jennie Gordon of Toronto, the grand secretary. During the past year, one thousand one hundred and six members were initiated; seventy joined by certificate, fifty-three were reinstated and ninety died.

Mrs. W. J. Kissick of Ottawa, the grand treasurer, and the moving spirit of the entertainment committee for the convention reported the finances of the association for the past twelve months. Receipts were $2,934.33; balance from last year, $3,292.60; expenditure $2,905.75, leaving a balance at the end of May 31 this year of $3,321.18.

Mrs. Akerley, the grand mistress, congratulated the L.O.B.A. on its remarkable success during the past year, and in the opening of this the twenty-sixth meeting in British America, she asked her sisters to render thanks to Almighty God for His bountiful providence extended toward us for the past year. She continued: "We meet, I trust, inspired with one great purpose—that to uphold the principles for which our order stands. We represent different walks of life; differences in matters of vast importance, but in meeting let our differences on all matters be lost sight of; and while we tarry, let us as true and loyal women do our work with integrity and oneness of purpose."

Mrs. Akerley thanked the Sentinel for its help to the L.O.B.A. and urged every member to subscribe.

Last evening over 600 members of the Grand Lodge of the Orange Order and of the Ladies Orange Benevolent association attended the reception. The speakers included H. C. Hocken, M.P., General Sir Sam Hughes, Rev. Mr. Palmer, and Sam Crooks who acted as chairman. A program of dances and musical numbers was presented.

WANTS KAISER TO REPRESENT SATAN

Says $1,000,000 Offered Wilhelm to Be Filmed for Movies

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 30—The Kaiser has been, or shortly will be, offered one million dollars to play the part of Satan, or something equally as evil, in a motion picture production to be filmed anywhere a permit can be arranged, according to W. E. Keefe, legal representative of a local motion picture magnate. Mr. Keefe yesterday addressed the following communication to President Wilson:

"While representatives of the Allied and Associated Governments are discussing what disposition is to be made of the Kaiser, on behalf of one of the largest motion picture promoters in the world, I crave your assistance in gaining the former chief of the Huns as a motion picture asset.

"We are willing to pay the Kaiser or any government guaranteeing his appearance in four or five-reel pictures depicting his part in the great world war. This photoplay will be staged before the Kaiser goes to trial, if arrangements can be made. We will arrange to film the picture in America, Holland, England, Germany or whereever the powers controlling the Kaiser's complete movements may decide. This is a bona fide offer, made in the interests of posterity, and we would appreciate your co-operation."

D. W. Griffith is reported to be the promoter represented by Keefe, and Thomas H. Ince also has been mentioned in this connection.

BOY ARRESTED FOR SWEETHEART'S DEATH

Drowning Tragedy Near Paterson, N.J.—Alleged Confession

Special to The Star by United Press.

PATERSON, N.J., July 30.—Lester Decker, 20, was under arrest here today in connection with the death of his sweetheart, Miss Mabel Harris, 20, who was drowned in Prompton Lake Sunday night.

Decker, according to the police, said that he and Miss Harris were returning from a picnic when he became tired and lay down in the canoe to rest. He suddenly awoke, he said, to find himself floundering about in the water below a dam. He had great difficulty reaching shore. A search for Miss Harris was fruitless.

According to the police, Decker then returned home and told the girl's mother that she had gone to the sanitarium where she was employed. When her mother received no word from her late yesterday the police were called and Decker is alleged to have confessed.

Ask Him Where He Will Advertise

Mr. Storekeeper, when the salesman comes in and says, "We are going to advertise these goods," ask him where his house is going to advertise.

Ask him if the goods are going to be advertised locally in the newspapers where your customers will read about them.

There is one kind of advertising the manufacturer can do for you that will sell goods for you.

That is advertising in the daily newspapers of your own city.

That is the only kind that will reach all the prospective customers for the goods and for your store.

G.W.V.A. BAND TO GIVE CONCERTS

Adopt Program of Free Open Air Concert for Poor

The Great War Veterans' Band Association has decided to give a series of free open-air concerts in the more congested parts of the city, for the benefit of those who have but little opportunity to hear good band music. It is probable that these concerts will be held at least once a week, though it has not yet been decided definitely.

An appeal has been sent out by the executive to several prominent citizens and business firms of this city in the hope of obtaining sufficient funds to carry out this musical uplift programme. Sufficient funds have already been received to ensure four free concerts. The first wil take place at Richmond Square, St. Antoine street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

The objects sought by these concerts are:

To provide amusement for those who do not generally enjoy recreation of this kind, and to give them something to think about beyond their discomforts and industrial grievances. To encourage and maintain a first-class band in Montreal. To enable returned soldiers to earn a fair fee for their music in addition to their wages in their ordinary occupations. To provide a fund for the purpose of defraying the costs of music, repairs, instruments, uniforms and incidental expenses.

DOMESTIC RELATIONS COURT NEEDED HERE

Appeal to Be Made to Sir Lomer Gouin Soon

The formation of a Domestic Relations Court is a step that is being strongly urged at present by local sociologists. An appeal will be made to Sir Lomer Gouin to support the inauguration of such a court. Judge Choquet is one of the leaders of the movement. "We need a tribunal where the lesson is not impounded upon the memory of the delinquents by any sledge hammer method, but rather by plain homespun truths brought out in a sort of family council and in a friendly spirit," he has said.

From his experience as judge of the Juvenile Court and as police magistrate, the judge had discovered, he said, that demoralized homes and incipient criminality go hand in hand. He thought that some 80 per cent of the cases in the Juvenile Court and the Police Court had their start in disrupted homes. He is therefore, advocating a special court as a preventive agency against home disruption. He believes that most of the cases of non-support, which are often times the first steps towards more serious cases, could be arranged in a Domestic Relations Court without publicity and without costs.

UNIQUE METHODS OF VATICAN CHOIR

An elaborate brochure published in connection with the approaching visit if the combined choirs from the Roman bascilicas and the Vatican gives novel information as to the methods employed by the Vatican singers in gaining the unique effects which no other choir has ever been able to obtain. For example, it transpires that in the great Miserere which has been sung in the Sistine Chapel for centuries, certain passages supposed by the listener to be sung by one high voice of extraordinary power, are sung by two voices, the two being so perfectly blended that they are invariably mistaken for one. Something the same means is employed in making crescendi and diminuendi, not only the amount of tone produced by each individual voice, but the actual number of voices, being increased in the one case and diminished in the other.

SOLDIERS' MEALS SHOW INCREASE

With the return of more Canadian soldiers from overseas an increase is noted in the number of men who are availing themselves of the privileges extended by the Red Triangle Hut on Dominion Square. The business manager's report for the past week shows a considerable increase in the number of meals served to soldiers. The total for the week was 4,190, this being 3,328 regular meals with 862 additional meals. The number of beds paid for by men using the Hut numbered 369, while 88 beds were donated to men who were in need of help.

ODD ITEMS

WATERMELONS GROW ON TELEGRAPH WIRES.

FREMONT, July 29. — Farmers west of Fremont this afternoon picked watermelons off telegraph and telephone wires. Some were in perfect condition while others were cut, ready for consumption.

No, the melons did not grow on the wires. They were tossed there when a motor truck, driven by William Atwood, went into a ditch and crashed into a telegraph pole.

The truck was loaded with watermelons and potatoes. Mr. Atwood was uninjured. The truck was wrecked.

NO JOKE FOR HENRY.

TORONTO, July 29.—He was a dignified and smartly liveried chauffeur when he entered the store to make some purchases for his mistress, but he lost his self-control when he emerged. Hanging from the door of madam's sumptuous Rolls-Royce was a card which read "Taxi —10 Cents." A perspiring stout woman was sharing the seat with her plump, pig-tailed daughter and countless bundles. She pointed to the sign and refused to get out. The day was hot. Henri was hotter. A crowd gathered as a still hotter argument waxed warmer. Mother and pig-tailed daughter finally were convinced the taxi card was a joke.

WOMAN ELECTED TO LEGISLATURE.

KAMSACK, Sask., July 30.—Mrs. M. O. Ramsland, the Government candidate, was elected to the provincial legislature from the electorate district of Pelly yesterday by a majority of 282, with ten polls to hear from, which it is claimed will increase her majority. She is the first woman to be elected to this legislature and the second to contest a seat. Her opponent was a returned soldier.

TO MANUFACTURE SALVARSAN.

TORONTO, July 30.—Dr. J. W. McCullough, provincial officer of health, is in receipt of a license issued by the Commissioner of Patents, Ottawa, to manufacture salvarsan, a drug used in fighting venereal disease. Dr. McCullough stated today that the provincial board would immediately take steps to establish a plant in connection with the provincial laboratory for the manufacture of this drug.

G. T. R. OFFICIAL BANQUETTED.

TORONTO, July 30.—Lorne McDonald, formerly divisional freight agent of the Grand Trunk Railway, in this city, who was recently promoted to be assistant general freight agent of the company at Montreal, was given a farewell banquet and a watch by friends at the Queen's Hotel here last night.

IMPERIAL

When Big Business, seeking relaxation, squanders its swollen profits on Big Pleasure, New York's whole glittering underworld dances to its whim.

Strong men craving excitement, cunning men of doubtful past, beautiful women without memories or hopes, swirl through the shining palaces of night, recklessly squandering health, morals, reputations and hard-earned fortunes.

To play with the devotees of Big Pleasure means the opening of the Golden Doors to the woman who has brains, beauty and nerve.

Such a woman is

NO ALIEN LABOR IN COBALT MINES

Mine Managers Agree to Recommendation of G.W.V.A.

COBALT, Ont., July 30.—At a meeting of the returned soldiers of the district held yesterday noon a committee was appointed to wait upon the mines managers' association and the miners' union in an effort to obtain some basis for a settlement of the present strike here. The meeting enthusiastically endorsed a motion calling for the exclusion of all aliens from the mines.

The proceedings, over which Postmaster Walter Binney presided, became quite lively at times, and there was considerable plain speaking. The press was excluded on a vote taken at the outset of the meeting.

The resolution regarding alien labor follows upon an announcement made by the executive of the local G. W. V. A. that the mine managers had agreed to this concession asked for by the veterans.

NOT CEDING CYPRUS.

CASHED CHEQUES

Working on Farm Now But "Guess He'll Go to 'Pen'"

Evidence to the effect that special rubber stamps had been bought to forge the names of firms on cheques, was heard before Judge Cusson this morning when "Mo" Schatzberg, Sidney Smith, alias Thomson, and Hiram Rosenfeld, alias Harris, alias Koffman, alias Feldman, had their preliminary trial on a charge of conspiracy to forge cheques amounting to about $7,000. Schatzberg has numerous other charges against him and will have his jury trial in September before the Court of King's Bench. He is alleged to have forged cheques amounting to over $50,000 during the past year, and the actions have been taken by the Bankers' Association. Rosenfeld is the only one of the trio who is out on bail. This was fixed at $4,000 recently by Judge Choquet.

A boy of 15 named Leibovitch told the judge that he had met Schatzberg sometime in May. The following day, when he was in the Martinique lunch room on St. Lawrence boulevard, he had been asked by Schatzberg and Rosenfeld to cash a cheque for $1,210.85 made out by the "North American Iron & Metal Co." in the Bank of Hochelaga; also one signed "Z. Demetre" in the Royal Bank of Canada.

He had agreed to go to the Bank of Hochelaga where he got the cheque accepted. Rosenfeld had given him $120 for his trouble. He had later cashed other cheques and had been given $50 on each occasion.

He had also gone to the rubber stamp firm of Walker & Campbell, 93 Bleury street, and had ordered rubber stamps for which he had paid 60 cents. He had seen Rosenfeld make use of the stamp marked "North American Iron & Metal Co." on a forged cheque; he had also seen both Schatzberg and Rosenfeld write out cheques which he knew were pure forgeries.

Another rubber stamp marked "Canadian Leather and Shoe Findings" had been procured. He had seen Schatzberg write both cheques for this firm and signed "Z. Demetre." This happened at 4 Mount Charles Lane, where Schatzberg lived.

CASH CHEQUE TO PAY BAIL.

Later he had been on a trip to Ottawa with Schatzberg and Rosenfeld, and on the way they had freely discussed the matter of forging cheques. A cheque had to be cashed, Schatzberg is supposed to have said, in order that he be able to pay his bail, for he expected to be arrested on returning to Montreal.

It was as he had anticipated, for when he arrived, J. Garon, a private detective, was waiting for him at the station. That morning he—the witness—was asked to go to the Rachel street branch of the Royal Bank and cash a cheque on the "Canadian Leather and Shoe Findings." He had become frightened, however, and refused to go. Eventually the cheque was cashed.

Cross-examined by Jos. Cohen, Leibovitch stated that he had not done any work for about two years. He had formerly been employed by the C.P.R. Since then he had been "helping his parents about the house, going errands, etc."

"Did you only go out on errands for your mother?" asked Mr. Cohen.

"Oh no," interrupted Peter Bercovitch, K.C., for the prosecution. "It is quite evident that he went on other errands as well."

When the matter of cheque forging had first been discussed in the lunch room on St. Lawrence Boulevard, there had been five strangers at the table besides Schatzberg, Rosenfeld and himself, he told James Crankshaw, Jr., another counsel for the defence.

FARM HAND NOW.

He declared that he had made a full confession to the detectives the day he was arrested in June.

"What are you doing now?" asked Mr. Cohen.

"Working on Mr. Garon's farm," replied the witness, much to the cross-examiner's surprise. He continued that he had been promised that he could stay there until the trials of the trio were over.

"What will you do then—have you any idea what is going to happen to you?" asked Mr. Cohen.

"Yes, I guess I'll go down to the pen for awhile," he replied amid laughter.

Ralph Levasseur stated that he had received a forged cheque from Smith, alias Thomson. He had cashed it in the Beaver Hall Hill branch of the Royal Bank, but had later been arrested and had pleaded guilty. He was also at present working on Mr. Garon's farm at Napierville he said.

The case was adjourned for argument on August 7.

FORGER MAY BE KNOWN IN WEST

Sentence on Bernard Garner is Delayed for a Week

The sentence of Bernard Garner, the $4,500 cheque forger, who pleaded guilty to Judge Cusson the other day, was postponed this morning for a week. It was explained that Garner is possibly a well-known criminal who has already served a term for forgery in Winnipeg in 1910. His finger prints are wanted at Ottawa in order to establish this. Should he be found to be the same man it will, of course affect his sentence in this case.

Garner was arrested in the Royal Bank after having cashed a cheque marked James A. Ogilvy's, Limited, and actually had $3,350 in his pocket when the bank manager stopped him.

MILITIA MOUNT GUARD AT LEVIS

Ship Strikers Claim Action Not Justified as No Disorders Feared

By Canadian Press.

QUEBEC, July 30. — A detachment of soldiers with rifles and a machine gun is mounting guard this morning at the Davies Shipyards at Levis, where yesterday some nine hundred International Union men struck for shorter hours, more salary and better conditions.

This bringing into play of the militia, according to officers of the International Union, is in no way justified, the strikers, according to officials of the International Union, having in no way threatened either life or property.

The Internationals, who fight mainly for the recognition of their union, claim today that three hundred national union men joined them since yesterday morning. This claim is minimized, however, by officials of the national union. The strikers are awaiting developments and in the meantime making a strong canvass among the national men to have them join the striking force.

One of the largest and most cumbersome forms of money is found in Central Africa, where the natives use a cruciform ingot of copper ore more than ten inches long.

RETURNED OFFICERS TO FETE CURRIE

Corps Commander Will Be Given Dinner on Arrival Here

The officers of military district Number 4 will tender a dinner to Gen.-Sir Arthur Currie during his stay in Montreal, if Gen. Currie is able to accept the invitation which has been cabled to him by a committee of local officers of which Brig.-Gen. McCuaig is the secretary. The dinner will be held at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, and, if the present plans are carried out, will be a purely military affair.

The military reception to be given Gen. Currie, will, it is understood, take the form that the cancelled Ypres celebration was to have taken. Only returned soldiers will participate. The arrangements are in the hands of Brig.-Gen. Sir F. O. W. Loomis.

SPEEDY CHAUFFEUR FINED.

Tearing along Notre Dame street at forty miles an hour yesterday afternoon, Evariste Gervais, a chauffeur, of 611 Frontenac street, was stopped by patrolmen and ordered to appear in court this morning. Judge Cusson made no comments, but fined him $30 and costs, or one month.

RACE RIOTING IS IMPOSSIBLE HERE

African Bishop Says That Canada Treats Colored Man Best

The race rioting in the United States is a very serious thing, says Bishop Amos Fleming Dickson, the African bishop of Montreal, but people in Canada need have no fear of the same thing occurring in this country, for the negro here has nothing to complain of in the way he has been treated. Canada is the only country, says Bishop Dickson, where the negro feels he can get protection and live peacefully.

The negroes, says Bishop Dickson, are the most loyal people to the country in which they live. Even in the United States where the feeling against them is strong and where lynchings are of quite frequent occurrence the black men have shown striking instances of their loyalty. One of the negro papers tells of a man whose fourteen sons had enlisted. Just before his sons sailed for France his brother was lynched, but this man, instead of becoming bitter towards the country which had treated him so badly, sent his boys off cheerfully, saying that even if the remaining members of his family were all lynched he must do his bit to keep the Stars and Stripes from trailing in the dust. When members of the negro race maks such loyal citizens the Bishop cannot understand how right-thinking white men can allow such things as have occurred in the past in many parts of the States.

Bishop Dickson thinks that Canada needs a million good negro citizens. They are good farmers, conscientious workers and intensely loyal, far more so than the majority of Europeans whom Canada is accepting.

"Most of the negroes who came to the Dominion are Britishers in the first place, and many of them come from the West Indies, he said. "The latter are law-abiding and well educated, and in a few years assimilate Canadian ideas and manners, while most of the European races take a generation or more before they can be called true Canadians. All the negro wants is a fair chance and Canada seems to be awake to this fact and is doing her best for the negro who in return is willing to stand by her on all occasions.

"There are very few Socialists among the blacks, no anarchists and no Bolsheviats, for the negro is primarily peace-loving and law-abiding and will not create a disturbance of any sort except under very great provocation."

NOT CRIMINALS BUT IMBECILES

Took Salt Shakers from Chinese Restaurant for a Joke

Pleading that they had only taken them for a joke, Benedict Steve and Joseph Paquette, charged with stealing two salt cellars valued at 30c from a Chinese restaurant, asked through their lawyer, D. McAvoy, K.C., that their case be dismissed.

"It is not exactly what one would expect criminals to do," said Mr. McAvoy.

"No, it is exactly what a couple of imbeciles might do, though," returned Judge Cusson, and remanded the case until August 1 for summary trial.

GERMAN AIM WAS TO MAKE BELGIUM THEIR PROVINCE

Premier Bauer Reads Letters from the High Command

NO INDEMNITIES

Ravage of Country Would Only Be Usual Effect of War

By Associated Press.

COPENHAGEN, July 30.—Control of Belgium and possession of the city of Liege was the determination of the German high command in 1917. Chancellor Michaelis drew up a tentative plan for peace negotiations, incorporating in this the demand for Liege and adjacent territory and the economic union of Belgium with Germany. The Chancellor, however, planned to hold Liege only provisionally, as a factor of security.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg was opposed to the giving up of Liege. He would hear of no talk of indemnities, nor would he indicate Germany's intention to the enemy.

General Ludendorff, another of the nigh military authorities, was for keeping the entire Liege district in German hands. He advised strong military pressure and the driving back of the British and French armies. Only thus, he contended, could Belgium become economically and intimately connected with Germany.

The German attitude was disclosed by declarations read by Premier Bauer before the Weimar Assembly Monday, when the peace overtures to Germany alleged to have been made by Great Britain and France through the Vatican in August, 1917, were again the subject of discussion.

As preliminary Dr. Hermann Mueller, the Foreign Minister read the much-discussed telegram from the British Minister at The Vatican to the Papal Secretary of State which was referred to by Mathias Erzberger, Vice Premier in a recent speech before the assembly, relative to a peace settlement.

PROPOSED RAPE OF BELGIUM.

Premier Bauer followed Dr. Mueller. He attacked the Conservatives and declared that the former Emperor would certainly be brought to trial and proved guilty of many things.

"The re-introduction of a monarchy in Germany is impossible," he said. "I will read you two declarations, one from Chancellor Michaelis to von Hindenburg, dated September 12, 1917, and the other dated September 15, 1917, containing von Hindenburg's reply and accompanied by a memorandum from von Ludendorff. You will then understand why no decisive reply could be given regarding the reinstatement of Belgium."

Dr. Bauer then read the Michaelis note as follows: "In accordance with the wishes of the High Command I drew up the following bawsis for peace negotiations, for the protection of our commerce. We demand the city of Liege and adjacent territory. Belgium must be intimately and economically united with Germany. When Belgium has fulfilled all our demands for security of economic connection, which will take several years after the first peace negotiations, we consider that military measures can then be abolished. Consequently we only ask to hold Liege provisionally as a factor of security."

Von Hindenburg replied as follows: "I do not conceal that the navy and patriotic circles will feel it a hard blow if we give up the Flanders coast—a delusion which can only be alleviated if compensations are also known by the navy to be fulfilled. Economic connection with Belgium cannot be realized without pressure on Belgium, even after peace is declared, and for that purpose, several years will be necessary, which for military reasons is possible only when England and America desert France.

"If we are in possession of Liege and unlimited masters of the situation, we can take the measures necessary. I therefore do not believe that we should give up Liege.

"The hardships which will be endured by our neighbors are the inevitable result of the war under present conditions. There can be no talk of indemnities; neither can we indicate our intentions to foreign countries."

MUST DRIVE BACK ENGLISH.

Ludendorff's memorandum says: "We must keep the district firm in our hands. Possession of the Meuse line only is insufficient. We must drive the British and French armies still further back. It is only thus that Belgium can come economically and intimately connected with us, and this could not be effected without strong military pressure. Without a lengthy occupation and the possession of Liege, the neutrality of Belgium is a phantom, not to be reckoned with."

Premier Bauer, prior to his reading of the declarations of Chancellor Michaelis, von Hindenburg and Ludendorff, emphatically asserted that the restoration of a monarchy in Germany would be impossible. He also declared that the former Emperor would certainly be brought to trial.

Having made public these statements, the Premier continued: "At the same time the so-called Fatherland party was formed, which supported the demands of the high command. It was the members of this party who supported the annexationists and drove the German people into destruction."

The Premier was interrupted by many of the members, who, leaping to their feet, shouted: "Murderers," "Traitors," "Political radicals."

So great was the din occasioned, it was impossible to hear the Premier's further remarks.

GOVERNMENT UPHELD.

The German National Assembly voted confidence in the Government yesterday by a large majority.

The Assembly previously rejected, by a vote of 243 to 53, a motion of lack of confidence offered by the party of the Right.

The debate in the Assembly was characterized by strong party recriminations. The opponents of Mathias Erzberger, the vice-premier, reproached him for having waited so long to make his disclosures, and accused the Socialists of being actuated by motives of revenge against certain persons.

Herr Erzberger maintained the necessity of establishing a state tribunal, because the nation was anxious to fix the responsibility for the criminal prolongation and amazing termination of the war.

Amid noisy scenes he maintained in every respect his previous remarks and declared that a more favorable position for peace was hardly conceivable than that which was allowed in 1917 to pass unutilized by a weak government dominated by soldiers. He asserted that the overthrow of Michaelis was, above all, his work, and accused the Michaelis government of duplicity, disunion and helplessness. His speech was loudly applauded by the majority parties.

The House adopted a proposal by the Social Democrats to distribute among the people copies of the Minister's speeches, the Papal Nuncio's letter and Chancellor Michaelis' reply, and also the Independents' proposal to publish complete reports of parliamentary sessions at cheap prices in order to make them accessible to all the people.

BRITISH EFFORT TO CAPTURE TRADE

Merchants to Launch Gigantic Campaign in Central Europe

PLAN REVIEWED

Many Important Difficulties Yet to Be Cleared Away

London Times-Public Ledger Cable to Montreal Star. Copyright.

LONDON, July 30.—The first real hint of what the British Government after-the-war policy is to be is contained in a Board of Trade appeal for a big campaign by British merchants to capture the markets of Central Europe. Now that the blockade has been raised, the board points out, these markets have been opened to the world and it may be expected that there will be a considerable demand in Germany for all kinds of goods.

"It is no part of the policy of His Majesty's Government to discourage British Traders from competing in this market." The appeal says:

"It is necessary in the interests of this country to develop its export trade in the fullest possible extent and in every direction, and it is very desirable that British traders should at once make every effort to secure proper footing in Central Europe."

An official of the National Union of Manufacturers pointed out in an interview that the decision raises a very important question which that body has already gone into without finding a satisfactory answer. That question is how is Germany going to pay? She can only pay in gold, in securities or manufactured goods. He said the first two are limited and heavily mortgaged and the only real currency for imports we cannot accept. The decision has evidently been come to in view of some of our allies determination to trade with Germany irrespective of our own wishes and inclinations.

Another point is whether in our efforts to get the trade of Central Europe we are not to give priority to the requirements of some of our Allies who are greatly in need of manufactured articles. If we do not neglect those Allies the Central European markets will be captured before we are ready for the assault. A big effort to increase exports to Germany may eventually raise the cost of living further in this country unless production here is greatly increased and Germany only gets our surplus.

"The whole situation will remain unclear until the Government makes up its mind that it is to be the nations policy with regard to the imports into England from the rest of the world."

BRITISH VIRTUES WILL WIN THROUGH

Says King in Answer to London Peace Congratulations

LONDON, July 30.—(Reuter.)—The King and Queen yesterday drove in state to Guildhall to receive the congratulations of the corporation of London on the conclusion of peace. They were everywhere cheered along the route. The brilliant assembly on the platform at the Guildhall included the premier and other ministers, ambassadors, Admiral Beatty, Field Marshal Wilson, Lord Reading and other distinguished people.

Replying to the address, His Majesty, who wore the uniform of an admiral, contrasted the circumstances of his visit to the Guildhall a year ago when it was impossible to foretell when victory would come or how much it would cost, with the situation today, Germany's fighting power destroyed and our terms accepted. His Majesty incidentally expressed the sincere wish that the recent example at St. Paul's of several religious denominations joining for the purpose of expressing the nation's gratitude for peace might prove a step towards closer co-operation of religious communication for the spiritual life of the nation.

His Majesty paid a tribute to the imperishable deeds of the forces of the Empire and the splendid services of the mercantile marine. The war had emphasized that the restoration of our overseas trade, the recreation of our mercantile marine and the development of our ports must be pursued energetically in order to regain our old supremacy. A spirit of unity, self-sacrifice, patience, industry and thrift was required in order to reap the full benefit of peace. (Cheers.) The greatest possible production of necessary commodities was essential in order to maintain the high industrial and commercial position we held before the war. He was confident that the ancient sterling virtues of the British people would not fail us and prayed that God would continue to guide and inspire us so that we would be enabled to worthily use our victory." (Loud cheers).

The Germans were said to have insulted the Danish flag.

STERLING EXCHANGE TO STAND ON ITS OWN

LONDON, July 30.—Questioned in the House of Commons last night concerning the depreciation in the rate of exchange between Great Britain and the United States, Stanley Baldwin, junior Lord of the Treasury, said the government could do little to rectify the matter except by the expedient of borrowing large sums in the United States. ALBANIAN REVOLT GROWS.

SALONIKA, July 29.—The number of Albanians in revolt against the Italian troops of occupation is growing daily, according to the newspaper Macedonia. Several of the Albanian chiefs who were opposed to Essad Pasha, provisional president of Albania, are co-operating with his partisans in an attempt to force the Italians to evacuate.

Appeal to Silesians to Join Army for Eastern Offensive

ZURICH, July 30.—The Freheit declares that the military circles have not given up hope of resuming war whenever the chance offers, especially on the eastern front. Enough of protests on paper; we must act; you must defend your province by the force of arms. Think of 1813. A nation unwilling to sacrifice everything in the defence of the country is an unworthy and a doomed nation. The Goerlitz corps of volunteers, a component part of the army of the empire, is called upon to take part in the defence of Silesia. Silesians, enlist in our corps."

Special Standing Commission Appointed to This Duty

AUSTRIA GIVEN DELAY

Has Seven Additional Days in Which to Make Answer

PARIS, July 30.—The Inter-Allied Supreme Council decided yesterday to appoint a permanent commission to co-ordinate and interpret the German Peace Treaty. The commission will be composed of five members representing the five great powers.

The commission will have its headquarters in Paris but is empowered to convene elsewhere if necessary. It will sit after ratification of the treaty. The members will have diplomatic standing and will be aided by staffs of technical advisers.

The Earl of Derby, British Ambassador to France, was announced as Great Britain's representative.

AUSTRIA IS GRANTED DELAY.

Austria has been granted seven additional days for consideration of the peace terms. August 6 will be the final day on which the Austrian representatives may submit inquiries. This was decided upon by the Supreme Council today.

FRANCE AIDS ITALY.

M. Venizelos, the Greek Premier, appeared before the Supreme Council yesterday to urge the claims of Greece in Thrace.

A proposal by Signor Tittoni for Italy in favor of inter-Allied control of raw materials was considered and referred to the economic commission.

France has agreed to let Italy have immediately part of her coal coming from the Saar Basin as a temporary relief of the fuel famine in Italy.

GERMAN REQUEST REFUSED.

The council also decided to ignore on Bethmann-Hollweg's request to stand trial for the former Emperor. A commission of experts will be named to apportion control of the rolling stock of the German, Austrian and Bulgarian railways. The economic clauses of the Bulgarian treaty, which are now virtually complete, excepting definition of the boundaries of Bulgaria, were approved.

The council approved the report of the special postal commission which authorizes all the Allied countries to resume postal and wire connection with Germany under such restrictions as the individual countries regard necessary.

The second arrest was made yesterday when Madge Wilson, colored, was apprehended with a parcel from Montreal labelled "cigars". The value of the drugs in this this shipment was set at $500. She will be arraigned Wednesday.

RUSSIA DEMANDS CHANCE TO BE FREE

Strong Opposition to Circle of Buffer States

OUTLET TO SEA

Koltchak's Party Insists Russia Remain as Before the War

Russian Wireless Service.

OMSK, Wednesday, July 30.—The Siberian newspapers comment favorably on articles in the French press that insist on the re-establishment of a free, united Russia. Some articles that deal with the advisability of the creation of socal-led "buffer states" on the borders of Russia are severely criticized. The Russ published by the agricultural co-operative organization, comments as follows on the exchange of notes between the Allies and the All-Russian Government in Omsk:

"The All-Russian Government, recognized as such by all the local governments, made a dignified reply fully expressing the democratic principles upon which it is built. We greet the Allied note, but we cannot refrain from observing that it took the Allies a long time to understand the movement which originated at Omsk. This has weakened us immensely.

"We have more than once heard that Bolshevism is the enemy of the world's civilization and that we are defending the entire world in fighting actively against this evil. Until lately these unfortunately were only words. We understand those democrats in the Allied countries who would like to postpone recognition until there is a government created in Russia by the constituent assembly. But, on the other hand, it must be understood that the convocation of the constituent assembly is impossible until anarchy is conquered and normal conditions are somewhat re-established. The sooner the govled by Admiral Koltchak conquers Bolshevist anarchy, the nearer is the moment of the constituent assembly. Our enemies are making great use of the Allies' hesitation in their policy toward Russia."

The Socialist paper Nasche Dyelo, published in Irkutsk, says: "The German imperialists have long desired to reduce Russia to the old Moscovia by depriving her of outlets to the sea. Russia cannot exist without such outlets. This was one of the reasons why the entire nation repudicated the shameful Brest-Litovsk peace, concluded by the Bolshevik. Fortunately German militarism is crushed and we are deeply gratified to say that Russian contributed very much to the splendid Allied victory. We rejoiced at this victory, feeling certain that the annulment of the Brest-Litovsk treaty meant the re-union with Russia of the territories she lost.

"But now it seems that Russya faces the same danger. Cables coming from Allied countries show that certain circles maintain the idea of creating a series of small, independent states on the borders of Russia. We cannot think that our Allies would impose upon Russia the conditions which Germany imposed upon us after destroying our army. We, Russian citizens, without any distinction of party, raise our voice to the entire world and say that we do not deserve this humiliation; that the cutting off of outlets to the sea will kill our industries and agriculture; will create impossible conditions for our working class and will make us vassals of other nations. Russia's future can be decided only by the constituent assembly, and no one has the right to deprive us of a single foot of our territory."

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION.

Russian Wireless.

OMSK, Wednesday, July 30.—Religious persecution continues in Bolsheviki Russia, according to information received by the Intelligence service of the Siberian army. These advices say that the Moscow, Adronikovak and Veneviatsky monasteries are being used as barracks for Chinese, and Lettish soldiers. It is reported that the famous monastery at Exandro-Nevskaya Lavra is being used as a moving picture theatre and dance hall for Bolshevik soldiers.

LORDS BOW TO WILL OF THE COMMONS

Lloyd George Followed Anxiously the Discussion on Transport Bill

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 30.—The Government had anxious moments in the House of Lords last night during the debate on the transport bill which already had encountered fierce opposition in the House of Commons, where it was considerably amended. The Marquis of Salisbury moved that the bill be divided into two bills, one dealing with railways, waterways, and the like, and the other tramways, road traffic, harbors and docks.

This motion was strongly opposed by the Government and during the debate, which turned largely on the question of nationalization, David Lloyd George, the Prime Minister, listened attentively from the rail fronting the throne and was in earnest consultation with Earl Curzon of Kedleston, Government leader in the House, Sir Eric Geddes, Minister without portfolio and others.

After considerable debate the motion of the Marquis of Salisbury, which if it had been carried, would have led to a serious dispute between the House of Lords and the House of Commons, was rejected.

Hearst's Magazine—a Liberal Education

The object of Hearst's is to entertain and enlighter. Through all its entertainment, however, runs a certain serious purpose—a definite mission. And that mission is to discuss, elucidate and solve—so far as is possible—the vital questions of family and public life that people everywhere are themselves considering and discussing.

Not since Cervantes wrote Don Quixote has a Spanish novelist attained such universal popularity as Vicente Blasco Ibáñez—author of "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse." In Hearst's for August comes Ibáñez' first short story—"A Serbian Night," In the same issue are stories by Robert W. Chambers, Richard Washburn Child, Frederic Arnold Kummer, Arthur Somers Roche and others.

Can any real man from God's own open country loiter about New York City without corroding his very soul? That is the theme of ARTHUR STRINGER'S masterly novel now running in Hearst's. Competent critics pronounce "This Light Must Live" the best serial in any magazine.

The magic of the Sheikhs El Djebel—the Eight Castles and the 50,000 Hassanis in white turbans and robes of white—all are known to Tressa Norne, the blue-eyed American girl. "The Slayer of Souls," a new series of stories by ROBERT W. CHAMBERS — in Hearst's for August.

"Spiritualism," says CONAN DOYLE, "is the most important development in the history of the human race." Now comes a great novel, "Resurrection Rock," by Edwin Balmer, showing some of the most sensational discoveries in spiritualism. Begin it in the new August Hearst's. In the same number are novels by Arthur Stringer, E. Phillips Oppenheim and Gouverneur Morris.

IF you are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary—if you don't particularly care for a magazine that will make you think—you won't want Hearst's this month or any other. But if you want the works of the world's great writers; if you want the words of the world's real leaders; if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers; don't fail to make sure each month—starting today with August—of your regular copy of

'PEG STRIKERS WILL GO UP FOR TRIAL HINTS MAGISTRATE

Declares Evidence Shows They Come Under Indicement

FIGHT RE EVIDENCE

Strikers Wanted to Exclude Documents Seized in Raids

Special to The Star.

WINNIPEG, July 30. — Evidence adduced at the preliminary hearing of the sedition charges against the Winnipeg strike leaders has already shown the actions of certain men high among the strikers come within the scope of the information under which the men are held, Magistrate R. M. Noble declared from the Bench yesterday. Magistrate Noble named none in particular, but his remark was taken as significant of what might follow, when the time for the decision of the court is reached.

Mr. Noble made the statement in the course of remarks to Marcus Hyman, counsel of the defense, who had protested evidence concerning the strike had not been linked up with the charge of conspiracy and no effort to connect the two had been made by the prosecution.

That with the denial by Mayor Gray of charges often made by labor that the citizens' committee of 1,000, ran the city during the strike, and an attempt by the defense to prevent the introduction of evidence seized by the R. N. W. M. P. during raids, on the ground that the search warrants were invalid, marked the high spots in the day's hearing.

Mayor Gray testified he did not receive a demand from the committee of 1,000 for the dismissal of the police force or for the declaration of martial law, but admitted that private members of the committee had made such demands.

TRY TO EXCLUDE EVIDENCE.

E. J. McMurray, chief counsel for the defense, attempted to keep the documents seized at the homes of William Koalling, Max Stigler and Dominec Phillippi, by Corp. J. H. Burke, Mounted Police, from being placed in evidence, but Magistrate Noble declared he considered ruling out of evidence was more a matter for the trial than for the preliminary hearing.

Corpl. Burke testified that under his warrant, he could search the homes of officials of the One Big Union. He admitted on cross-examination, that he did not know of any other Socialistic organization to which Koelling, Stigler and Philippi belonged.

Mayor Gray testified he did not believe the ironmasters had placed their affairs in the hands of the committee of 1,000 and that the latter had refused to settle the strike.

"I should certainly gather they had nothing to do with the ironmasters," he declared.

THE CITIZENS' COMMITTEE.

"Did the citizens' committee insist on the police force being discharged?" asked McMurray.

"I don't remember that."

"Did the citizens' committee put point men on streets without your permission?"

"I don't know."

The soldier striker faction, the mayor testified, had little to say about collective bargaining. "They seemed interested for the most part in the police situation and in holding parades," Mayor Gray said.

"Now, Mr. Gray," continued McMurray, "were there any citizens who asked you to put martial law into effect?"

"No," he replied, "not as a committee."

"Did many members?"

"Not many."

"Did the citizens' committee of 1,000 ask to have the police force dismissed?"

"It never did."

"Well, why was the police force dismissed?" McMurray asked.

"They were discharged because by admission of their own accredited representatives they were under the orders of the strike committee and not the police commission," replied Mayor Gray.

"If they had signed the agreement they would not have been discharged?"

"No."

"That was practically breaking off their connection with other unions?"

"With the Trades and Labor Council—Yes."

KEPT HIS OATH OF OFFICE.

McMurray then took a new tack in his questioning. "At this meeting, when Mr. Queen made the remarks you referred to Monday, you were in the chair?"

"No, Mr. Queen was chairman. It was a committee meeting."

"Now, as chairman, he was within his rights when he told you to sit down?"

"It isn't the duty of a chairman to say, 'We are running this town all right and can get along without constituted authority,' and that sort of thing," retorted the mayor.

"What I am trying to get at is this, Queen's remarks were due to the fact that he was tired of hearing you reiterate statements about constituted authority," said McMurray.

"He hadn't had much chance to hear me reiterate anything about constituted authority. It was during the first forty-eight hours of the strike."

"But you were tired of hearing his rebellious talk, and he was tired of hearing you talk about constituted authority?"

"I certainly couldn't stand for that sort of talk and remain true to my oath of office."

Eventually the questioning turned back to the police force, and from that to the arrest of the defendants.

"Were you consulted as to the arrest of these citizens?"

"No."

"Whatever authorities caused arrests did so without your advice and approval?"

"Yes."

The cross-examination of the mayor was then closed.

W. J. Price, a civic employe, told of having been ordered out on strike by Cowley, president of the Civic Employes' Federation, with a threat that if he did not quit work, he would never be allowed to work with any civic employe again.

O. B. N. BRANCHES SOVIETS.

J. B. Coyne for the prosecution, then referred to the copy of the verbatim copy of the Calgary convention which had been filed early in the trial. He read the names of the delegates, among them George Armstrong, R. B. Russell, R. H. Johns and W. A. Pritchard, the accused and W. H. Logan, W. Keating and Max Steglo, documents from whose homes had been put in as exhibits.

He then read extracts from the report, the first extract being the preliminary report of the policy committee, presented by R. H. Johns, which outlined the plans of the One Big Union. He then read extracts which referred to the movement as "revolutionary," and in which delegates asked that plans be made to prevent the post office department either from censoring the matter they would send through the mails, or if they passed censorship of "dumping them or something." Another extract was read in which the various organizations of the O. B. U. were referred to as "Soviets."

No Liquor Even at the Sacrament of Marriage

TORONTO, July 30. — Port Credit was to be the scene of a merry little wedding had not Patrol Sergeant Southern intercepted Mike Cashar, of Montreal, at the Union Station as he alighted from the Montreal train here yesterday. In Cashar's possession was found a bottle of brandy and five gallons of alcohol which the accused said he was taking to Port Credit for his wedding, which was to have been celebrated shortly. "A foolish way to start married life," said Magistrate Dennison, fining him $200 and costs or three months.

LABOR MUST PROVE CAUSES OF STRIKE

Blame Cost of Living and War Profiteering for the Outbreak

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Judge Robson, head of the Royal Commission to inquire into the causes and effects of the general strike, struck a new note in the investigation yesterday when he told a witness, A. F. Wood, that if labor could prove the fact that the recent strike had been called solely on the demand of collective bargaining, he could not see that discrimination could be justly shown by employers. This demand, said the commissioner, had been conceded by the iron masters, the citizens' committee and apparently by everybody except a few individuals and employers could not withhold employment from a man if he admitted that the reason for the strike was just. Labor would have to prove that there were no other reasons back of the strike than the principle of collective bargaining.

Three witnesses were heard, A. Boughton, president of Lodge 127, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen; H. D. Stevenson, a locomotive engineer, and A. F. Wood, fireman.

This session was called at the request of the running trades representatives and was adjourned until this morning.

All witnesses testified to a general unrest that had been evident in labor during the present year. The cause of the strike was placed on the high cost of living, which one witness blamed the government for permitting to exist. Profiteering was also mentioned as a cause of the strike.

Witness Stevenson recommended the formation by the government of a permanent commission to adjust differences between labor and capital.

NFLD. OPENS PORTS AGAIN TO FLOUR

OTTAWA, July 30.—The last restriction on imports into Newfoundland from Canada has been removed by the restoration of flour to pre-war conditions. The Canadian Trade Commission has been informed of the change, and will, henceforth, license freely all applications for flour for the island dominion. It has been necessary, hitherto, to await the shipper's receipt of import license before an export license from Canada should be granted. The commission is also informed that no further control of quality of flour is exercised by the Newfoundland Food Board. Large quantities of Canadian flour are needed by the cod fishing industries, for which the purchases are usually begun in August.

THE FIVE-DAY WEEK BEGUN AT SYDNEY

Miners to Demand Same Pay for Five as Six Days

ODDFELLOWS MEET

Detective Searching for Liquor Found Military Stores

SYDNEY, N.S., July 30.—That there is little danger of the Sydney steel plant closing down for lack of orders in the near future is the opinion expressed by Hon. Gideon D. Robertson, Minister of Labor in the course of a reply to the local steel workers who had asked him to use his influence as a member of the government to procure orders for steel to keep the local plants working. The letter follows:

Ottawa, Ont., July 23, 1919.

Dear Sir:

Replying to your letter of the 17th instant with reference to the scarcity of orders for the Dominion Steel Company and reported closing down of the mills and furnaces on August 1. I think the rumor of the closing down of the mill is probably incorrect but there is undoubtedly a greatly decreased demand for iron and steel, very largely due to the unstable labor conditions throughout Canada during the past few months which has seriously retarded business in the metal trades and building trade and is very seriously affecting the demand for the production of steel mills. The government had under serious consideration the cancellation of the contract for ship plates, inasmuch as the war conditions which necessitated the arrangement having now passed by but, with a view of providing all employment possible and assisting the steel mills to keep in operation at Sydney, this is not being done. The question of further orders for rails was discussed some time ago and inasmuch as there have already been more rails manufactured and delivered than can be used this year, it does not seem desirable to give further orders at this time for this particular class of steel products. The continuation of the plate contract and the Canadian National Railways recent action in ordering larger supplies of coal than are needed for current requirements should considerably relieve the situation there and will I think be recognized and accepted as going as far as it is consistent to expect the government to go at this time.

Yours very truly,

(Sgd.) G. D. ROBERTSON,

Minister of Labor.

SYDNEY, N.S., July 30.—The Jubilee colliery worked three days last week with fair prospects that the men will be more regularly employed next month, as the Scotia is making every effort to dispose of the product, a certain quantity of which will be used for steam purposes at the other collieries. A Scotia official stated that there is no necessity for all the alarming pessimist and evil foreboding featured in the press. There was little visible distress and there was nobody hungry or in want.

FIVE DAY WEEK BEGUN.

SYDNEY, N.S., July 30.—The five day week is to be put into effect by District 26, United Mines Workers of America, this week. Beginning next Saturday, August 2, there will be no coal mined on Saturday. Repairs and similar work, however, will be done on Saturday and the men's leaders believe that by having Saturday given over to such work it will greatly facilitate the operation of the mines. They believe that in a short time with the five day week conditions as regards the miners' work and earnings will be better than ever. There is some complaint among the miners about putting the five day week into effect but the executive feel that they have no option on account of the recent vote on the question being so overwhelmingly in favor of the five day week. The feeling is general that it will only be a short time before increased pay will be demanded that will make five days' earnings equal to six days now.

UNITED MINERS' DEMANDS.

SYDNEY N.S., July 30.—J. B. McLachlan, Secretary-Treasurer of District No. 26 U. M. W. of America, has sent a letter to John Anderson, Manager of the Minto (N.B.) mine. He presents the demands of the Minto miners and asks that they receive immediate attention. If the demands are not acceded to, a conciliation board will be applied for immediately. The Minto management have been totally ignoring the union recently organized by the Minto miners. The miners at Minto are making several demands which they consider reasonable and just. They want an increase of ten per cent. over the present wage, the erection of scales on the tipple so that their coal can be properly weighed, an eight hour day, weekly pay and collection of dues through the pay office. The miners will stick by these demands and if they do not receive recognition lively proceedings will ensue.

MARITIME ODDFELLOWS MEET.

MONCTON, N.B., July 30.—Between six and seven hundred delegates are expected to attend the sixty second session of the Grand Lodge of the Maritime Oddfellows to be held in this city on August 13 and 14. Special significance attaches to this session from the fact that this is the centennial of the founding of Oddfellowship in America. The Grand Sire, Judge H. V. Borst, of Amsterdam N.Y., will attend, this being the first visit of the executive head of the order in America to the Maritime Lodge.

MILITARY STORES STOLEN.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 30.—Inspector Tracy was searching the premises of John Nicholson, Quinpool Road, last night, expecting to find liquor. He discovered none of this however, but he found an assortment of military stores which he estimated to be worth thousands of dollars and which are believed to have been stolen. It comprised blankets, tents, rubber boots, and a variety of materials used by the military. It needed two large lorries to remove the stuff, which was taken to the armories. As for Nicholson, he was placed under arrest, and was locked up in the police station. The property was found in a garage at Nicholson's place.

DAMAGE BY WIND STORM.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 30.—The wind and hail storm that swept Sackville, Waverley, and a region not more than eight miles from Halifax in some parts of its track, was not felt at all in the city, indeed, it was not known here till several hours after its occurrence that there had been any storm. There were fleeting clouds over Halifax and distant thunder was heard but nothing more. At Bedford, boats hauled up on the road side were picked up by the wind and hurled bodily into the waves of Bedford Basin. In Waverley there was a wholesale destruction of windows, and at Sackville, the side of a house was blown out. The damage to the crops is severe from the heavy hail stones, but the extent of the storm is not thought to be very extensive.

INDIAN BAD MAN GIVES HIMSELF UP

Simon Gun-a-noot, most famous of all Canadian Indian outlaws, who has voluntarily surrendered himself after successfully defying all efforts of the Government to capture him. In the past thirteen years the Canadian authorities have spent $30,000 in fruitless pursuit of him. He now says he has given himself up in order to enable his sick wife to obtain the comforts of civilization and his children education. He was "snapped" en route to Vancouver from the north, on the steamer Prince Rupert, in company with his counsel, Stuart Henderson, K. C.

The surrender of Gun-a-noot has aroused great interest among the Indians of northern British Columbia, where Simon is regarded as a great hero by reason of his muscular strength, his prowess as a hunter and rifle-shot.

Simon is charged with the murder of two white traders whose dead bodies were found on the trail outside Hazelton, B. C., a few hours after Simon had fought with them because they were said to have plied his young wife with liquor while he was absent from home.

Simon is well-to-do in spite of his nomad life in the wilds. He is believed to know of much new mineral wealth in the northern interior. His surrender is expected to remove a long-standing feud between the white traders and the Indians of the unexplored interior of northern British Columbia, and to open the way for development there. Simon's last act before leaving the north was to arrange for the baptism of the youngest member of his family of five children.

CROP REPORTS

RUST MAKES SOME CROP CHICKEN FEED

Brandon District Optimistic Reports Prove Unfounded

GRAIN IN ELEVATOR

Conference in Calgary Today to Devise Aid for Farmers

Special to The Star.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Suspension of grain trading in October options on the local Exchange modified interest in the crop conditions through the west locally, but reports of a more or less alarming condition continue, and it is no secret that dealers believed this would afford an excuse for putting No. 1 hard up to $3 a bushel.

In view of the new ruling, the stocks of grain in the west are interesting. At Calgary, Saskatoon and Moose Jaw Government interior elevators there are to-day 500,528 bushels of wheat, 617,681 oats, 38,049 barley, and 4,773 flax. There were 400 cars in sight for inspection to-day as against 74 in 1918.

The rumors of grain damage through the west in addition to drought refer to widespread rust.

Brandon, Man.—Reports of rust and samples of rusted wheat are shaking the confidence of the wheat farmers in the Brandon district in their optimistic belief that the wheat average in this district will be between 18 and 20 bushels to the acre. Individual fields located in all points of the compass with Brandon as the hub show damage from rust, in some instances cutting the yield estimated for the fields affected from 25 bushels an acre to chicken feed only. This refers particularly to late wheat. A great deal of wheat will be ready for the binder this week, and this is undamaged.

Kemnay, Man.—C. B. Sinkbeil's farm shows a 70-acre field that was summer-fallowed last year. The wheat appears excellent to a passer-by, but the owner who looked for 25 bushels to an acre now estimates he will have chicken feed, if he cuts it.

Somerset, Man.—Barley and rye threshing have both started on the farm of August Lefebvre. Barley averaged 30 lbs. to the bushel, 49½ lbs. from the machine. Rye is 5 bushels and 10 lbs. to the acre. The barley threshed was exactly 85 days from seeding till cutting.

Wheat-cutting is starting on the same farm to-day, and a good crop is promised. Many farmers have already started wheat-cutting. The kernels are plump and good. There is a little rust, but not enough to hurt the early-sown grain.

Pierson, Man.—Two-tenths inches of rain fell yesterday, bringing the crop up ready for harvest, with big yield prospects.

Yellow Grass, Sask.—Heavy rains on Monday night and yesterday, but too late to improve wheat much. Grain harvest next week with wheat in very poor condition.

Estevan, Sask.—Through southern Saskatchewan little rain has fallen this summer, but half an inch on Monday helped the wheat some, but not a very good yield possible.

MORE SUMMER FALLOW.

REGINA, July 30.—Wheat-cutting has commenced in many parts of Saskatchewan, according to reports received from corerspondents of the Bureau of Statistics of the Provincial Department of Agriculture. Early sown rye has been threshed near Fort Qu'Appelle yielding 25 bushels per acre. It is expected that harvest will be general next week in almost all districts, with the exception of certain parts of the south-eastern district where plentiful rainfall has caused a heavier growth than in other parts of the province.

From reports received from crop experts, it is estimated there is a 27 per cent. decrease in the amount of new breaking compared with that of 1918, the amount being: 1918, 614,980 acres; 1919, 447,112 acres. It is gratifying to note that the amount of land summer-fallowed shows a slight increase amounting to three per cent., and while the percentage is small, the total increase amounts to no less than 151,989 acres. The acreage under summer-fallow in 1918 was 4,060,801, while the acreage this year is 4,212,790 acres.

MONTREAL MEN ARE BACK FROM SIBERIA

VANCOUVER, July 30.—A small contingent of Canadian soldiers from Siberia were among the passengers of the liner Empress of Russia. They report everything quiet in Vladivistock, and in all the regions of Eastern Russia. The following easterners are in the party:

Color Sergeant Major M. J. C. Boisjoly, Quebec; Private Rena Guay, Quebec; Pte. G. S. Thomson, Toronto; Sgt. Major E. R. Kelly Montreal; Sgt. W. S. Collin, Montreal; Sgt. F. Laverty, Montreal; Lieut.-Col. A. C. Lambert, Ottawa; Major B. Thompson, Ottawa; and Sergt. J. M. Stewart, Ottawa.

THE OLD GARDENER SAYS:

The month of August is the only time in the year when you can transplant oriental poppies with full confidence. You may succeed in spring, but you are more likely to fail because then the soft, fleshy roots are not easily handled. In August, when these roots have become hard and woody, the plants have no objection to being moved around at the gardener's pleasure. Perhaps you have grown only the old-fashioned flaming red orientals and do not realize the dainty beauty of the newer pink and white kinds. Try Mrs. Perry and Perry's White if you want some real novelties in your garden.

LAKE WIRELESS MEN THREATEN STRIKE

PORT ARTHUR, Ont., July 30. — Wireless operators on the upper lakes may leave their keys on both ship and shore stations midnight August 10, if the Department of the Naval Service operating the Marconi Wireless Company in Canada does not take steps to remedy certain grievances which the men have.

According to the statement of one of the operators on a Great Lakes steamer it is understood that the men are forwarding a protest to the Government and are asking for a conciliation board or an official to look into their grievances. The protest it is said, contains eight points in which is alleged discrimination against employees in the matter of seniority.

The men on the Upper Lakes are not organized as yet and it is not known whether they will be supported by the organized operators on the east and west coasts. There are fifty or sixty operators on the Upper Lakes.

CONFERENCE OVER DROUGHT.

CALGARY, Alta., July 30.—Premier Stewart of Alberta is holding a conference here this afternoon with stockmen, ranchers and farmers in respect to conditions caused by the drought in Southern Alberta and relief for them.

BANKS AIDING FARMERS.

CALGARY, July 30.—Banks and companies which lend money to Alberta farmers are giving full consideration to the plight of the people in the drought area, and have gone on record in letters to H. Higginbotham, secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta, as being ready to extend generous treatment to those who have suffered and are under obligations to them. The Union Bank of Canada, the Bank of Montreal, the Imperial Bank of Canada and the Canada Life Assurance Company have written to the U. F. A. to this effect.

Canada Had as Many Troops in Peace Parade as Australia Had

OTTAWA, July 30.—It is officially stated that on account of the arrangements for demobilization it was with the greatest difficulty that a Canadian detachment was got together to represent the Dominion in the peace celebration in London on July 19th. The effort, however, was as successful as could be expected under the circumstances, and Canada, it is stated, was represented in the demonstration by as many troops as Australia.

BILL TO ADHERE TO LEAGUE.

MADRID, July 30.—The Foreign Minister introduced a Bill in the Senate yesterday empowering the Government to adhere to the League of Nations and the international labor agreement as incorporated in the treaty of Versailles.

HAMILTON SEEING CANADIAN ENTRIES MARVELLOUS GOLF

Great Things Expected of Dominion Players Who are Fighting to Stem the American Invasion

HAMILTON, Ont., July 30.—The task of retaining the Canadian Open Golf Championship title in Canada lies upon the shoulders of Nichol Thompson, the Hamilton professional, his brother, Wm. J. Thompson, the Toronto amateur, Karl Keffer, of Ottawa, the present holder of the title, and Albert Murray, the Kanawaki Golf Club pro., of Montreal; for they are the only Maple Leaf players that appear to be in a position to overhaul Douglas Edgar, of Atlanta, Ga., the former French open champion, who secured a lead of four strokes over his nearest rivals in the first and second rounds of the title play at Hamilton Golf Club yesterday.

The Atlanta professional turned in the second best card of the morning round with a 72 and then bettered that by one in the afternoon, equalling the best score of the day for a total of 143. His game was remarkably free from spectacular plays but showed splendid judgment throughout so that his margin appears very secure unless untoward difficulties should crop up in the final thirty-six holes today.

THOMPSON'S CHANCE.

Nichol Thompson, who was runner up for the title at Montreal in 1913, appears to be in the best position to stop the American invaders from taking the title across he border, for, besides his great advantage in knowing nearly every blade of grass on his own course his cards of 73 and 74 show that he is playing remarkably effective golf and is right on the path that should lead to victory if by any chance the leader should slip a cog or two. His brother, William, is apparently right at the top of his form and playing with Edgar, is chasing his opponent at a clip that even his friends never believed him capable of. He had identically the same cards as his brother with the exception that he shot a 74 in the morning then put forth a great effort in the afternoon. If he should be able to keep up this splendid pace there is a chance that he will come through to victory and if he should succeed he will be the first amateur to ever have attained that honor.

U. S. BOY WONDER.

Another amateur that is to be taken into serious consideration in the decision of the title is Robert T. Bobby Jones, of Atlanta, Ga., the phenomenal boy golfer of the United States, who is Southern champion, for he set the pace for the tourney when he uncovered the best score for the morning round with a 71, and although that mark was equalled twice during the afternoon, it was not bettered, and one does not believe that his performance, for consistent playing throughout the round could be improved upon. Tearing along on under four for the outward journey he did not make a slip until the eleventh when his three shots down the course found the rough so that it took four to reach the green, followed by two putts for a six, which was the only one to mar his performance. In the afternoon, however, the youngster could not find the hole with his putts and wasted shot after shot so that his terrific work through the green was counteracted around the hole and a 77 brought him down from the proud position achieved in the morning. He had them to give race as leading amateur to W. J. Thompson. It should be an interesting battle to watch this pair of "Simon Pures" battling for the gold medal for the best gross score.

BARNES "COMES BACK."

By a remarkable recovery in the afternoon with a 71, James Barnes, of St. Louis, twice in succession winner of the western open title, put himself in a position to catch the leaders after he had fallen from grace with a 78 in the morning round. Barnes' afternoon feat was remarkable, going out in 35 or one under par. Coming home he continued to hold his pace until the fourteenth and fifteenth, where scores of five on each took away from him a chance for a 69 and with a little luck on the seventeenth another four would have undoubtedly put him in a very commanding position. But if the foregoing coterie of American stars loom up strongly one must not forget that the Canadian open champion, Karl Keffer, of Royal Ottawa, is tied with Barnes and scores of 76 and 73 show that he is not flashing in and out but that his particular brand of superbly steady golf is going to carry him some distance yet. The dizzy pace necessary in the final thirty-six holes will not disturb him in the least and one can almost figure that if any of those in front of him slip at all they will have to give place to the champion.

DISAPPOINTING DEIGEL.

Many were disappointed in the showing in the morning round of Leo Deigel of Detroit, the nineteen-year-old pro. who finished second to Barnes at Cleveland on Friday in the Western open. Chas. H. Rowe, of Pittsburg, and Albert Murray, of Kanawaki, with scores in the late 70s. But they all redeemed themselves in the afternoon by negotiating the round in 72, 73 and 74 respectively, while another to improve his position was John Haddon, the Toronto amateur, a 75 giving him a total of 153 after a first round of 78. Frank Adams, of Winnipeg, had a morning round that almost drove him to desperation for he was all over the course and only a strong finish enabled him to reduce the count against him to 83 but in the afternoon a flash of his real ability was seen when he ambled around in 72, although this leaves him twelve points the leader.

There were many, however, that failed to better themselves in the afternoon and so they succumbed to the hard course and high wind as they are low in the rear and only phenomenal golf will give them a chance to share in the spoils. Hard luck followed some of the players among whom were not a few stars, but this was always the way of the game, for it treats favorites and "duffers" alike. Percy Barrett, Weston, David Spitall, Toronto; Jack Gordon, Buffalo; David Black, River Mead, Ottawa; Arthur Desjardins, Outremont, Montreal, and Kearney Marsh, London, all had good chances at the end of the morning eighteen holes, but failed to take advantage of this start and fell away.

HE BLOOMED EARLY.

Frank Thompson, of Miasissauga G. C., Toronto, another youthful member of the Thompson Brothers, started like a young cyclone, going out in 35 in the first round, taking 46 to complete the inward journey for a total of 81, but in the afternoon a 77 was a very nice score for this seventeen-year-old boy. William McLuckie, of Kanawaki, Montreal, and George Lyon, of Lambton, Toronto, Canadian amateur champion and ex-champion respectively, did not do themselves justice for they acquired totals of 161.

Scores of 166 and under qualified for the final thirty-six play today, which permitted fifty-four players to battle for the honors, including twenty amateurs. Some record-breaking scores are expected in the final dash for the honors.

SIXTEEN IN A ROW FOR BABE RUTH

Yesterday's hero in big league baseball was Babe Ruth. He equalled the American League record by hitting a home run in yesterday's game with the Tigrs, his sixteenth in the season. But the Red Sox lost, 10 to 8.

The Indians relinquished second place to the Tigers by splitting with the Athletics, 8 to 2 and 7 to 11.

Eddie Cicotte derricked himself after after being hammered for eight runs. The Yankees won, 10 to 1.

The Browns took Washington, 6 to 3.

The Browns took Washington, 6 to 3.

The Browns took Washington, 6 to 3.

The Giants beat the Pirates in the first, 3 to 0, but lost the second, 7 to 6.

The Reds broke even with the Braves, 3 to 2 and 4 to 6.

WAR CANOEISTS WILL WORK OUT TONIGHT

In preparation for the Championship Regatta which will be held at St. Johns next Saturday, the St. Lambert war canoe will have final workouts tonight and tomorrow. The crew will be compose of L. McDonald (stroke), B. Murdock, F. Dix, C. Potter, E. Sproule, C. Snyder, E. Albutt, C. Sproule, C. Maxwell, D. Montgomery, C. Powell, R. Patton, E. Wain, S. Barr, H. Lynch, C. Hartland and Fred McDonald (captain). All members of the boat seem to be in the pink of condition and ready to render a good account of themselves in competition with the fast crews coming down from Toronto and Ottawa.

It is reported that Parkdale, of Toronto, have been making very fast time in practice, and New Edinburgh, of Ottawa, are also going strong. There will be nine War Canoes in both the half mile and mile races, and the finish should prove most spectacular.

St. Lambert will have many other entries in the senior, intermediate events, and hope to capture a place in the Senior Four with McDonald, Barr, Sproule and Murdock's crew. Barr is also entered for the single.

It has been decided not to cancel the regular Friday night dance in the Club house, but the members of the crew will not be present.

Some disappointment is felt among the bowlers who are forced to play their scheduled game in te St. Pierre Trophy against Valleyfield, as most of the club members are going to St. Johns Saturday to cheer their crews.

NEWTON, Mass., July 30.—R. Norris Williams will meet Richard Harte in the final round of tennis singles for the Longwood bowl as a result of two long, and hard-fought matches yesterday. Williams defeated N. W. Niles 6—2, 12—10, 4—6, 4—6, 6—4, and Harte defeated Charles Garland, of Pittsburgh, 7—5, 4—6, 14—12, 6—3.

A. PINSONNEAULT,

Director, St. Johns Yacht Club, one of the executive officers of the C.C.A. Dominion Championships to be held at St. Johns, P.Q., Saturday.

SUSPENSION OF LALONDE IS LIFTED

There is a strong possibility, so members of the National A.A.A. executive announced today, that Newsy Lalonde, the "stormy petrel" of lacrosse in the present season, will turn out on Saturday with his old club, to cross sticks with their foes the Shamrocks at the east-end ground.

Lalonde has been under suspension for some time by Nationals, playing in only one N.L.U. fixture this season. He insisted on playing Sunday matches with the St. Zotique club, and for each Sunday match he played, was suspended by Nationals for the Saturday following. Last Sunday, Lalonde did not play, the St. Zotique team being without a game, and therefore he is now automatically reinstated by the National club. Directors said today they were ready to use Lalonde if he turned out.

Two young players are in view to fill the place left vacant by the tragic death of "Happy" L'Hereux, veteran net-minder of the club. The position is between Lafleur, of the National II. team, and Romeo Piche, who starred in the nets with the Viger Independent club two years ago. Both these players will be out at practice tonight.

The team will be stronger on the offensive than for some time. Richard Duckett, who was absent last Saturday, will be on the line-up again, and "Dare Devil" Gauthier, the veteran home star, will be out. In addition, several of fthe most promising players of the second team will be in uniform, the rule which allows changes during a game giving these players a chance to show their wares in faster company.

SUCCESS FORESHADOWS CANOE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The meet of the Canadian Canoe Association, for the Dominion Championships, which is to be held at St. Johns on Saturday, August the 2nd, is foreshadowed by success on account of a large and classy set of entries and good arrangements in regard to disposing of the various events.

The Western division composed of the Toronto clubs will be strongly represented, hotel accommodations having already been secured for upwards of one hundred entrants, as they will arrive in St. Johns on Friday morning.

The Northern Division, composed of the Ottawa clubs, will also be well represented, and the Eastern division the largest division of the association, will be represented by entries from practically all the clubs.

A large number of Montreal people are making arrangements to take the trip to St. Johns and it is certain that with good weather, the largest attendance in the history of these meets will be recorded.

FORMER MONTREALER DISPOSES OF HORSES

SARATOGA, July 30. — Wilfrid Viau's colors will not be seen in the States again after the close of the Saratoga meeting, as his magnificent stable is being auctioned off.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Viau announced their entire stable would be closed out before the end of the coming meeting, and that immediately after the closing of Saratoga they would leave for Paris, where they have a home. The Viau horses are eleven in number, with the great Westy Hogan, probably the most handsome race horse on the turf, as the star of the lot, which includes George Starr, Camoufleur and others.

"It is possible that we will have a breeding establishment in France," said Mrs. Viau, "and most certainly we will have some horses to race there. If we should decide to go in for breeding, we, of course, would take back Omar Khayyam who has been my own horse and pet. At present he is under lease to Mr. Hancock, of Kentucky, but later he may go back to France where he was bred."

According to the present plans of the Viaus the entire racing establishment will go out of business and all the horses put up for sale to the highest bidder at the end of August. They had expected to be bidders for yearlings at the August sales, but now that they have decided to reside permanently in France they will buy French stock, as those of American breeding are not allowed to race for the prizes in that country.

REVIVAL OF YACHTING IS UNDER WAY

A special effort to revive yacht sailing and racing on Lake St. Louis is being made by the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club.

To achieve the end of placing this sport on it's proper footing the co-operation of all yacht owners is being secured, not only at Lake St. Louis, but at the Lake of the Two Mountains as well.

The active sailing committee of the club, are now very busy in this regard and one method adopted to arouse the interest of yacht owners has been to get together as many boats as possible in the same class in order that they may compete in races on favorable and equitable terms.

With this particular object in view, the committee intend to encourage "B" class racing as much as possible as these boats constitute the racing class on the lake and therefore during the month of August, a series of "B" class races will be held.

RACE ON SATURDAY.

As a preliminary to this series there will be a race next Saturday afternoon, Aug. 2, over the Pointe Claire triangular course. The race will start at 3:30 p.m. off Pointe Claire wharf. As there are not enough "B" class boats on the lake for all those wishing to sail in this class there will be a race for the miscellaneous class, which includes the Seawanhaka cup boats, 22 footers, 4th raters, 3rd raters, 2nd raters and all other yachts on the lake.

The club launch "Dorval" will leave Dorval at 2:30 p.m. and will be at the disposal of members and their friends who desire to follow the races. The launch will call at the wharf at Pointe Claire and it is hoped that any members, who are unable to reach Dorval in time, will take this opportunity of going on board to watch the races.

In order to make the races as interesting as possible the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club are making the races open to all yachts on Lake St. Louis and the Lake of Two Mountains, whether their owners are members of the club or not.

The committee hope that all yacht owners and especially the "B" class skippers will endeavor to race their boats and thus awaken the public to a renewed interest in sailing.

FOOTBALL BOARD SELECTS PLAYERS

The trial game played last night between two selected elevens was quite a success, a large crowd witnessing some very clever play. The high wind was troublesome in the first half. Early in the game, Billy Crossland dropped a lofty one, quite deceiving Gallacher, and opened the scoring for the "Stripes." The feature was the work of Josh Jones, at left half and O'Shaughnessy in goal, while Macfarlane at inside left gave many pretty touches. Armstrong equalized the score, and the game ended in a draw of one goal each.

TEAM SELECTION.

After the match the P.Q.F.A. board met in the R.R.Y.M.C.A. to select the team to play against Toronto next Monday for the Carisrite trophy and transact other important business. The picking of Montreal's eleven took quite a time, the ability of each player being seriously discussed. With one exception, every man was voted for, resulting in some close decisions. It will be noted that quite a few changes have been made from the last eleven which drew with Toronto on Dominion Day. Montrealers selected are: O'Shaughnessy, goal; Norman Hill and Clarke, backs; Adam Rae, Wright and Jones, halves; Wourterz, Armstrong, McCarthy, Stott and Irwin, forwards.

Reserve—Crossans. Toronto have selected the following: Halliwell, Hutchinson, Brownlee, Acomt, Jones, Brown, Anderson, McGuire, Lavery, McNeilly, Jackson.

QUEBEC CUP DRAW.

Twenty-six clubs entered for the Quebec Cup first round August 6th, and the draw is:

St. Paul vs. Dominion Bridge.
Vickers vs. Bakers.
Calvin vs. Sweet Caps.
Hamilton vs. Canadian Vickers.
Highlanders vs. St. Annes M. H.
Sons of Scotland vs. Locos.
eVrdun City vs. Nomads.
M. A. A. A. vs. Beloeil.
Harrison vs. Sons of Scotland A.
Great War Veterans vs. Lyalls.
Rosemount Jrs. vs. Verdun City R.
C. P. R. vs. Sons of England.
Grand Trunks vs. Rosemount.

COMPLAINTS DEALT WITH.

The case of Referee Brooks' report against McChristie and Erskine, of Sons of Scotland, was not sustained, but linesman McDonald was censured for running on to the field to notify the referee he was going over the allotted time. This caused the spectators to take an unwarranted part, hence the censure.

Referee Wainwright's report of incidents that occurred in the dressing room, after the C. P. R.-Sons of Scotland game, was read and left over to next Tuesday. In the meantime, C. P. R.'s president, captain and Jimmy Mackay, will be notified to attend.

The joint request from Grand Trunks and Highlanders for a share of receipts at Saturday's Connaught Cup final was read and discussed. In view of the possible expenses of either team's visit to Toronto, it was decided to leave the matter over to the end of the series.

STAMP OUT BETTING.

Neil Hepburn brought up the matter of open betting among spectators, and a resolution was passed instructing all clubs to use their best endeavors to stamp out the evil. Also officials and players must not enter competitions or take part in any game of chance.

Tomorrow evening there will be two league games. At Regina Park, Verdun City meet Canadian Vickers and on Trunks' ground, Great War Veterans entertain Nomads.

BENEFIT MATCH TONIGHT.

What promises to be an exciting affair takes place this evening at Alexandra Park, when Locos play the Car Sides. There is always intense rivalry between these departments in the Grand Trunk Shops, and tonight's game will be no exception. The proceeds will go to the benefit of George Miles, Trunks' clever outside left, who met with an accident about six weeks ago, and has been unable to follow his employment since. So worthy a cause deserves a bumper gate.

The P. Q. F. A. board had an idea last night when they cleared the room, that the team to play Toronto was picked in perfect secrecy. This was entirely an erroneous view, for the "walls had ears," and these ears caught the names one by one, passing them on to an anxious throng in the adjoining room.

Eight Survivors in Seabright Tourney

Special to The Star.

SEABRIGHT, N. J., July 30.—There were eight survivors in the Seabright Lawn Tennis and Cricket Club's singles today, and four in the invitation doubles.

In the singles, Hunt T. Dickson, Walter Merrill Hall, Howard Voshell, William T. Tilden II., Axel Gravem, Leonard Beekman, Francis T. Hunter and Frederick B. Alexander won their matches.

RUMOR SAYS THREE LOCAL TRACKS WILL RACE BY AUG. 16.

It looks today as if there will be horse-racing on the Island of Montreal next month after all.

Rumors flew abut quick and fast this morning to the effect that Delorimier, King Edward, and Mount Royal tracks would open then, on the strength of Sir Allan Aylesworth's decision published last week.

DATE GIVEN AUGUST 16.

They went even so far as to state that the first named would start on August 16.

Delorimier is at present controlled by Joe Cattarinich and Lee Dandurand, but neither would confirm nor deny the rumors; neither would Mr. Desmarteau controlling King Edward or Tom Duggan controlling Mount Royal.

All they would say was: "We cannot say anything definite today and we do not know as yet exactly where we are at."

It is said in addition that an emissary of these interested went to the States a few days ago to drum up horses for the prospective meets.

Those in control of Blue Bonnets and Dorval decline to discuss the situation at all, but it is very unlikely that these tracks will open.

YANKS' TAILS ARE UP AFTER CHICAGO WIN

Special to The Star.

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Yanks returned home yesterday not in any spirit of humility as might have been expected after such a disastrous trip, but proud and full of pep. So much so that they went after the White Sox with great vehemence and smote them sorely, winning by a score of 10 to 1. Eddie Cicotte, the Yank's particular jinx, was swatted clean out of the box in the fifth and after the estimable gentleman from Chicago had been soaked for four runs and five hits in the one inning, he threw up his towel and stalked off the field. Every Yank but Pratt got a hit. There were three triples and five doubles among them, and Danforth, who replaced Cicotte, must be wishing that player had stuck it to the end. Herbert Thormahlen, besides giving quite a performance with the club, was on the job as pitcher. The lone run of the White Sox was started on its way through an error by Pratt. Peckinpaugh did some amazing work in the field, his brilliant catch at the opening serving to lift the Yankee morale sky-high.

The Giants celebrated the opening game of their western trip by sharing honors in a double-header with Pittsburgh. The New Yorkers captured the first game by a score of 3 to 0. But the locals nosed out a victory in the closing affair, 7 to 6. However, inasmuch as the Reds also broke even with the Boston Braves, the Giants continue to hold their own in the league fight. Fred Toney, McGraw's best twirler, did good work in the first game, restricting the enemy to three feeble hits.

BRITTON TAKES ON EIGHT-ROUND FIGHT

By H. C. Hamilton, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Jack Britton, welterweight champion, and Mike O'Dowd, middleweight titleholder, have been matched to box eight rounds before the Newark Sportsmen's Club the evening of August 22. O'Dowd will make 158 pounds ringside.

This will be the fourth meeting of the two champions, although the first since Mike annexed the title by knocking out Al McCoy. Jack won a referee's decision in a 12-round go at Boston in 1916. They fought two ten-round no-decision contests the next year, one in St. Paul and the other in Brooklyn.

By knocking O'Dowd out, Britton could win the middleweight championship, but Mike could not reciprocate, since they will fight above the welterweight limit.

O'Dowd will begin training at once, but Britton will rest a few days because of his recent encounter with Ted (Kid) Lewis.

SPOIL SPLIT THREE WAYS FOR PLAYERS

CINCINNATI, Ohio, July 30.—The National Commission announced today that the club members of both the National and American leagues had voted favorably on a new plan for distribution of the players shares in the world's series, whereby the players of the first three teams in each league will participate in the division of the spoils.

Sixty percent of the world series receipts for the first four games will go into a pool which may be augmented by fifty percent of the players share of any inter city games played between the team finishing second and third in both leagues. Seventy five percent of this pool will go to the teams participating in the world's series, sixty percent of this to the winner and forty percent to the loser. The remaining twenty five percent of the pool will be apportioned between the second and third teams in each major league, sixty percent thereof to go to the players of the teams finishing second and forty percent to the teams finishing third.

Fifty percent of the players share of the receipts of all post season games between the second and third teams in the National and American leagues shall be divided between the participants, sixty percent to the winner and forty percent to the loser. The other fifty percent of the players share goes into the big pool.

Players taking part in the world's series and post season games must have been under contract to the club with which they play on August 31 previous to the series.

Probably no man ever wanted the earth more than the one who is making his first trip across the pond.

OTTAWA IS BIDDING FOR OLYMPIANS

OTTAWA, Ont., July 30.—Ottawa is going to make a big bid to get right back into amateur athletics again, at a meeting last night of the newly organized Ottawa Athletic Federation it was decided to make an effort to bring to the capital the Canadian olympic athletic trials which are to be held next spring to select candidates to represent the Dominion in the big sport carnival at Antwerp, Belgium, next year. A resolution was unanimously passed and wired to president R. E. Melleville of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, urging that Ottawa be selected as the place for the trials which will attract athletic stars from all parts of Canada.

Ed. Archibald, Canadian champion pole vaulter, who is president of the Ottawa Amateur Athletic Federation, stated that he was convinced that Ottawa would be able with a little encouragement to develop and produce some splendid athletes and expressed the hope that Ottawa would get the "big meet" as to create new enthusiasm here.

Pres. Ed. Archibald and Don Tuck, of The G. W. V. Association were named as a committee to draw up the constitution and by-laws of the new federation with power to add to their number.

The following attended the meeting: Pres. Ed. Archibald, Don Tuck, G.W.V.A.; Con. Frank, representing The Plant City hockey and baseball leagues: Guy Boyce, Britannia Boating Club and City Hockey Commission; John Rotter, Ottawa and District Football Association; Harvey Pulford, Ottawa Rowing Club; Lieut. Dicks, Firemen; A. A. Gordon Willis, Police; Ald. Arthur R. Ford, Ottawa Tennis and Lawn Bowling Club; Dr. Alford, Chairman, Y.M.C.A. physical board; W. Burke, Separate School Athletic Association; E. W. Healey, Vittoria Lawn Bowling Club, and Aberdeen Hockey Club; Reid Tubman, Ottawa, New Edinburgh Canoe Club; W. J. Fraser and W. A. Matheson, Civil Service Lawn Bowling Club; Ed. Slattery, Senecas Baseball Club; E. C. Mortureux, Ottawa New Edinburgh Canoe Club and Gene Dubuc, Ottawa Wheelmens' Association.

The class events will be the 2:08 pace and the 2:12 pace. Besides, there is the deciding heat of the 2:06 trot of yesterday. Royal Mac and Wilkes Brewer will engage in it to settle the victor of this gruelling extra heat contest. The track is in excellent shape and weather conditions are splendid for the third day.

WILL SOMEBODY
PLEASE TELL me
WHY IT is
IF I put a slug
IN A slot machine
AND GET some gum
I CAN be arrested
AND SENT to jail,
BUT IF it happens
I PUT in a nickel
AND THE machine doesn't work
AND I don't get anything,
THAT THERE'S nothing at all
THAT I can do
EXCEPT GET sore,
AND BESIDES the gum
THERE'S THE slot machine
THAT TELLS your weight,
AND THE other day
IN A city hotel
I GOT on one
AND DROPPED a nickel,
AND THE needle thing
THAT RUNS around
JUST SHIVERED a little
AND NEVER moved,
NOT EVEN a pound,
AND A boy was there
IN A uniform
AND A great whisk broom
WITH WHICH he attacks
THE HOTEL guests,
AND I asked the boy
WHAT THE matter was,
AND FOR a whisk broom boy
HE WAS very bright
AND MADE reply,
"I GUESS it don't work."
AND THAT same thing
HAS BEEN happening to me
FOR SUCH a long time
THAT I'VE made up my mind
WHEN THE weather gets cool
TO START out some day
AND KEEP on going
TILL I find someone WHO KNOWS someone
WHO KNOWS the name
OF SOMEONE else
WHO HAD once been told
THE NAME of a man
WHO KNEW someone
IF HE could be found
WHO MIGHT be able TO ENLIGHTEN me
AS TO where I could find
A MAN, woman or child
WHO MIGHT happen to know
THE NAME of some man
WHO HAS something to do
WITH THE slot machines.
AND AFTER that
I'D GO find the man
AND I'D tell him a tale
OF THE pent up rage
THAT WAS stored in me.
AND I'D give him a chance
TO TAKE me out
AND BUY me some gum
AND HAVE me weighed
TILL I weighed a ton.
I'D EITHER do that
OR I'D buy some stock
IN THE slot machines.
I THANK you.

TO COME during which I am.
UNABLE TO call or write or telephone.
AND I need Jean just like.
WE NEED flowers and birds and.
ALL THINGS beautiful and its.
NOT AS though we are happier with others.
FOR WE decided that long, long ago.
SO I want Jean to tell me to come.

THANK YOU. "Lonely."

JAMES STEWART TO BE CANADA'S NEW WHEAT CONTROLLER

Acted for Great Britain and the Allies During the War

DEALERS PROTECTED

Instead of Dealing With the Public They Will Deal with Board

Special to The Star From Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 30.—The wheat policy which has been decided upon by the Government means a national system of controlling and handling the wheat crop. A special board for the purpose will be created, and the grain supervisors will either be a part of it or co-operate with it. If he will accept, James Stewart, of Winnipeg, will head the board.

Trading in futures having been stopped, there will be no more wild speculation until this season's crop is marketed. The grain dealers will not be put out of business, but in place of selling direct to the world market, will deal only through and in co-operation with the board.

So that cash advances may be made to the farmer, a minimum price—probably $1.75—will be fixed. With it will go participation certificates, and when the whole crop is disposed of, the farmer will get whatever additional amount may be coming to him in respect of the price realized after deducting the cost of marketing. There are strong hopes that the price secured will be higher than the price fixed in the United States.

SENSATION IN WINNIPEG.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Somewhat of a sensation was sprung on the local grain market yesterday, when instructions were received by President F. J. Alderson, of the Grain Exchange, from the Hon. Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, to withdraw immediately all facilities for trading in wheat futures. This was done at once, a few minutes after the opening of the markets, and before any buying or selling had been consummated, although several bids had been received at prices ⅝c higher for October delivery and ½c higher for December than Monday's closing quotations.

The Grain Exchange Council held a meeting to consider the matter, but in the absence of any further news from Ottawa it was found impossible to take any further action, and the wheat market will remain closed until further instructions are received.

After being closed for nearly two years, the wheat market was permitted to reopen on Monday, July 21, and after seven days of trading, prices had advanced 25½c on the October delivery, the opening price being $2.20, and closing on Monday, July 28, at $2.45½. The advance has been steady, fresh gains being made daily. It was common rumor on the Exchange that the demand and bullish sentiment was coming from American interests only.

Providing the Dominion Government decides on a fixed minimum price and a closed market for wheat, it is regarded as probable that the Wheat Export Company, with James Stewart at the head of it, will be appointed to purchase and handle this year's crop. This company represented the British and Allied Governments during the past two years, and purchased all wheat and flour supplied for these governments.

STUDY REINDEER ONLY IN AUTUMN

OTTAWA, July 30.—The commission named by the Government some weeks ago to make a report on the possibilities of the sub-Arctic regions of Canada will not commence its inquiry until the autumn. The commission was named on the recommendation of Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, after conferences with Stefansson, the explorer, who believes that the great caribou herds of the Far North can be made the source of a supply of human food and considerably relieve the existing world meat shortage. Mr. Stefansson is a member of the commission.

Good News For Motorists

GASTINE

Gives GASOLINE ECONOMY and EFFICIENCY

Will Not Injure The Finest Motor

Despite the increased cost, much of the gasoline at present on the market is of a low grade and contains many impurities, such as tar, asphaltum, iron and sulphur, causing a quick accumulation of carbon in your cylinders.

Your car does not have the "PEP" it should have, and it causes your consumption of gas to be increased.

75% of all motor troubles are due to carbon. Carbon causes pre-ignition, which results in loss of power, scored cylinders and a tremendous strain in the bearings. It is under these aggravating conditions that Gastine best proves its efficiency and value. No motorist who is interested in economy and efficiency of operation can afford to be without it, and will not be after it has been demonstrated to him.

Use Gastine Because!

Over 5000 Montreal Motorists are enjoying its use today.

Sold by all leading Hardware and Automobile Accessory Dealers.

THE BRITISH MUNITION DEPARTMENT says in part: "GASTINE" tablets have been submitted to a committee of experts who advise in these matters, and on their recommendation a research was made which showed that "GASTINE" brought about the removal of carbon and resulted in gasoline economy.

$1.25 Per Box of 100 Tablets—Slip them in your pocket. Easy to carry.

IS THERE LOVE?

The question is, "what is love, or is there such a thing as love?
TOPSY.

Ans.—I hope so. It seems to me it would be a pretty "rotten" world if there were no such thing. As to what it is, who can tell? The lover thinks it is the "divine passion." The ecstasy of rapture and the rest of the world think it is insanity. Did you ever read that charming story in F. W. Bains, "A Digit of the Moon."

"After one week, man came to Twashtri, and said: "Lord, this creature that you have given me makes my life miserable. She chatters incessantly, and teases me beyond endurance, never leaving me alone; and she requires incessant attention and takes all my time up, and cries about nothing, and is always idle; and so I have come to give her back again, as I cannot live with her." So Twashtri said; "very well," and he took her back. Then after another week, man came again to him, and said; "Lord, I find that my life is very lonely since I gave you back that creature. I remember how she used to dance and sing to me, and look at me out of the corner of her eye, and play with me, and cling to me; and her laughter was music, and she was beautiful to look at, and soft to touch; so give her back to me again." So Twashtri said "very well;" and gave her back again. Then after only three days, man came back to him again, and said;" Lord, I know not how it is; but after all, I have come to the conclusion that she is more of a trouble than a pleasure to me; so please take her back again. But Twashtri said, "out on you! Be off! I will have no more of this. You must manage how you can." Then man said: "But I cannot live with her." And Twashtri replied; "Neither would you live without her." And he turned his back on man, and went on with his work. Then man said; "What is to be done? for I cannot live either with or without her?"

WHY DO THEY?

What do you think of a married man flirting with every girl he meets, and the girls flirt with him also? They should worry about him being married. I blame the girls. What do you think? Some girls if a man looks at them, they think he wants to flirt. What is your answer and why do so many married men flirt? What is the reason?
AN ANXIOUS WIFE.

Ans.—The thing you know all about. The riddle you have solved, the game you have mastered, the car you have caught—are any of these as attractive as that which is just beyond your grasp? Forbidden fruit has always been most attractive ever since the days of the garden of Eden, and as long as man retains a spark of original sin, it always will be. If you want your husband's eyes to remain fixed on you or to return to you with the "light that never was on land or sea" shining in them, make yourself always charming, and attractive, and wear a smile. You can't wear your hair in straggling wisps, don a blouse and skirt that do not meet, or things that are not immaculately laundered and expect to be as easy to look at as some fair young thing "all dolled up" in the latest style. Look yourself over and you will probably find the answer.

IS IT TRUE?

[illegible] has been said lately in [illegible] columns about the fact [illegible] men never give a lady a [illegible] street-cars. I am a young lady [illegible] and let me say a few words about the women who do their shopping downtown, and use the "rush hours" to come home on the street-cars. I ride in the street-cars from three to four times a day and about 75 per cent of that time, should I have to stand, some gentleman always is kind enough to give me his seat. But I can't say the same thing about ladies who have two or three children with them, and for whom they do not pay any car-fare. They let these children occupy seats, while grown up people will have to stand. Wouldn't you think a woman with any common sense when she sees a car crowded would take a child on her knee? No doubt they are the ones who write complaining about men not giving them a seat on the street-cars.
"TUESDAY"

IRISH EYES.

(1) Would you please tell me what color real "Irish eyes" are? I have heard people speak of "Irish eyes," but am not sure what color they are.
(2) The difference between the words "egoist" and "egotist."
JEANINE.

Ans.(1) Grey or blue, with black lashes. (2) Colloquially, they are used interchangeably. In ethics egoism is the doing or seeking of that which affords pleasure or advantage to one's self, in distinction to that which affords pleasure or advantage to others. In this sense the word does not necessarily imply anything reprehensible, and is not synonymous with egotism. Egotism is an excessive esteem or consideration for one's self, leading one to judge of everything by its relation to one's own interest or importance.

FASHIONS FOR TODAY

Modish Skirt for Midsummer.

No Patterns are sold with this.

The sketch gives a suggestion for a summer suit, which may be made of Tussah, pongee or other heavy silk, or of linen or cotton repp. Inasmuch as a summer suit of light-colored material requires frequent visits to the cleaner or laundress, with possible shrinkage, the one that is too closely fitted will not give very long service, whereas the loose or bloused model can stand a trifling shrinkage each time it goes to the cleaner and still be wearable.

The model shown has the popular narrow skirt, fastening at the left front. If desired it may be slit at the hem for greater comfort in walking.

If this suit is made of linen, a vest of plaid gingham, flowered cretonne or other washable fabric may be used. If one of the silk materials is employed, the vest may be of fancy brocade or of a gay flowered silk.

This suit may be regarded as a forerunner of fall suit styles, according to present predictions. The early models shown feature rather long coats, but it is interesting to note that there seems to be no prospect of a radical change in skirt width. Whatever may be done in regard to next winter's suits, the opinion at present seems to be that the narrow skirt will hold throughout the fall, and Paris and America are holding to their widely varied opinions in regard to the length.

French designers still prefer the very short skirts, regardless of width, while our style leaders insist that the ultra narrow kirts must be ankle length or longer.

For present wear a very popular type of suit is the sports model of heather mixture tweed. This fabric probably will be in great favor in the fall.

A trimming much approved for the summer suit of pongee, Shantung or similar material is brushed wool, which is used for collar, cuffs and sometimes pocket facings and bandings on the skirt.

GOOD TASTE IN DRESS

By Lina Cavalieri,

The Most Famous Living Beauty.

Among women it is a trite saying that there is no satisfaction equal to that of knowing one is always becomingly and suitably gowned for every occasion. Even the members of the sterner sex have long ago acknowledged the truth of this aphorism. More than that, the honest ones among them will candidly admit that the prettiest women they know can be transformed into a perfect fright by the manner and style of her clothes.

Attractive and becoming gowns are necessary because they furnish a suitable frame for the picture. For this reason a woman's dresses and hats must be selected with the utmost care that they may not overshadow or distort her personality.

Keep in mind, after studying your own individuality, certain art principles that apply to dress. This is a good one as to color. "Dress up to your eyes, your hair or your complexion." Permit me to explain. If a girl has brown eyes she may not always wear brown gowns. But she can be exceedingly careful to wear no tint that will make her creamy skin sallow. For her creamy shades are becoming because they harmonize with her complexion.

If a woman has red hair she will be wise if she wears shades, regardless of the tint of the moment, that will throw the hair into relief — as blue, green or black. If a woman has Irish eyes—that fascinating mixture of blue and gray, that holds in its depths much of infant innocence, yet much of worldly wisdom, deep eyes that fascinate because they are inscrutable—she will invariably look her best in gowns that match her eyes, the same indeterminate blue and gray.

Think of yourself steadily and not tenderly in the selection of stuffs. If you are thin and active, soft materials, such as chiffons, crepe de chines, light-weight silks and other diaphanous materials, will be most becoming. If you are of heavier build, then the heavier silks and broadcloths are more expressive of your personality, and are, therefore, much more effective.

Do not forget that the dividing line between the skirt and the bodies is ugly. If you cannot have a one-piece dress, then hide the dividing line by a girdle with long hanging ends and tassels. If you are stout, let the girdle be of the same shade and material as the gown.

Within the past few years almost all women have learned the value and the beauty of long, straight lines for the figure. Parallel lines running lengthwise are the lines of beauty in dress, because they consistently follow those of the body. For this reason a gown whose pronounced lines are from the shoulder, the drapery curving slightly at the waist, gives a touch of infinite grace and beauty to the figure.

Trimming must be harmonious in effect and blend well into the background of the dress itself. Trimming that runs around the figure lack beauty, and if of contrasting material they have a most ludicrous and unbecoming effect. The high girdle gives the appearance of greater length to the limbs. And if the girdle should happen not to be of the same color and material it should not be too glaringly of the opposite.

Remember, too, that stiff effects are highly inartistic; so avoid the appearance of being trussed up like a fowl in the oven or a soldier on dress parade. For this reason, no matter what the fashion dictates, shun tight sleeves, tight gloves or the tight skirts that are so narrow they give the wearer a mincing and unnatural gait. Loose gloves give a feeling of ease to the hands and are far more graceful than the tight ones that give the hand an appearance of being stuffed into it.

When selecting your hat, a bit of brilliant color may be introduced; but let it not be directly above the face, for then the cheeks will have the illusion of being pale, whether they are or not. Whatever looks best on you is the style that is suited to you. And you yourself are the most competent judge of this, not the saleswoman or the proprietor of the store, whose business it is to see that you buy his wares whether they are becoming to you or not.

The average increase in wages granted to British miners is equivalent to between 110 and 120 per cent. on pre-war average wages of all classes of workers.

CHAPTER LXXXVII.

Despite my determination to read, my thoughts constantly wandered to Manville and his aunt. Was she belittling me to him? Was he making excuses, trying to placate her for finally giving his wife, the mother of his child, her place in his household? Then came another thought, one I knew at once I must give no chance to disturb me—he was sure to take me at my word and spend many of his evenings with her. I should be much alone. Gradually I would go out more with him than I had done and we would entertain more than ever we had. But still the fact remained that often he would go out without me to his aunt and—it came with a shock—to Ruth Markham's perhaps. I had almost forgotten my jealousy of the handsome widow in the stress of the past days. But she was still to be considered, I knew by the emotion the thought of her caused me.

In my plans made while in the little country town waiting for Manville's decision had been many items which might look and seem rather silly and childish if repeated. But not one that I didn't honestly believe would make for our happiness. I had played a mediocre game of bridge. Manville was fond of cards. I would have a teacher and master the game. He was particularly interested in certain subjects. I would make myself acquainted with those subjects by a course of study and reading. There were certain things he liked to do, places he liked to go. Even though I might prefer something or some place different I would accommodate myself to him. But—I would try to do it tactfully so as not to lose one single point I had gained. I would propose doing and going, not wait to be told I must. I had revolted. I would not appear to retract one single thing I had told Manville was my due, not one; yet at the same time I would cater to him in every way I could compatible with my newly claimed independence.

He came in about ten o'clock.

"Did you have a pleasant evening?" I asked brightly, jumping up to assist him with his coat, then letting my hands fall to my sides and holding my face up for a kiss instead. I had waited upon him like a servant in the old days. Rather no servant ever would do for pay what I had so faithfully done for nothing—often being found fault with even so.

"Yes, and no." He kissed me, then went out into the hall and hung up his coat — almost the only time he ever had done so since our marriage, unless I were ill.

"Does Aunt Cynthia like her rooms?"

"Yes. She could not very well help liking them. They are delightful."

"That's nice. Did you give her my message?"

"Yes, Susan. And that is the 'no' part of my evening. She is too much hurt to meet you half way, in fact to meet your advances at all."

"You mean she doesn't want me to visit her?"

"Not at present." I knew he was trying to soften his message.

"Did you tell her I offered to bring Anna?"

"Yes, and she would like to see Anna, but she will send Martha for her if she may."

"What did you say?"

"I suggested Nancy, as I knew Anna doesn't like Martha; but Aunt doesn't care for Nancy and refused to have her brought unless Martha came for her."

Bitter words trembled on my lips. Then I said quietly:

"Very well, Manville. Martha can take her. If Anna has any bad effects from the visit—your aunt hasn't another black cat, has she?"

"No—she hasn't replaced Commodore." He laughed merrily at my expression and my question.

"I tell you what we will do. We will let her take Pet"—the name she had insisted upon calling the kitten. "That will keep her from being afraid, I think. It may help her to dissociate Aunt Cynthia from Commodore. And it may also please your aunt that she has learned to like the kitten."

"I don't know. You can try if you like." I knew from his tone he hadn't much faith in my experiment. But I also realized that Anna might be naughty, if not really frightened, if she were alone with Aunt Cynthia and Martha, neither of whom she liked and one of whom she was afraid. For the child never had overcome her fear of Manville's aunt. Up to the very day Aunt Cynthia left us she would shiver and cry if aunt came near her, and hide in my skirts, with a pitiful plea not to make her go to aunt.

We said no more about it, but I could see plainly that Manville's visit had distressed him. Before we went to bed I said:

"I am sorry your aunt takes everything as she does. She will get over it and be friendly in time, I am sure."

"I hope so." But his reply held very little belief that I was right.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

(Copyright, 1919, by T. W. Burgess.)

Peter Rabbit never will forget the first time he saw Glory the Cardinal, sometimes called Redbird. He had just hopped over the old stone wall on the edge of the Old Orchard when a beautiful clear, loud whistle drew his eyes to the top of an apple tree. With a little gasp of sheer astonishment and delight Peter stopped short. He couldn't quite believe that he saw what he thought he saw. He hadn't supposed that any one even among the feathered folk could be quite so beautiful.

The stranger was dressed all in red except a little black around the base of his bill. Even his bill was red. He wore a beautiful red crest, which made him still more distinguished looking. And how he could sing!

Of course Peter lost no time in hunting up Jenny Wren. "Who is it, Jenny? Who is that beautiful stranger with such a lovely song?" cried Peter as soon as he caught sight of Jenny.

"Glory the Cardinal," replied Jenny Wren promptly. "Isn't he the loveliest thing you've ever seen? If I were Mrs. Cardinal I'm afraid I should be jealous. There she is in the very same tree with him. Did you ever see such a difference?"

Instead of the beautiful red of Glory, Mrs. Cardinal wore a very dull dress. Her back was a brownish gray and her throat a grayish black. Her breast was a dull buff with a faint tinge of red. Her wings and tail were tinged with dull red. But if she wasn't handsomely dressed she could sing. In fact, she was almost as good a singer as her handsome husband.

"I've noticed," said Peter, "that people with fine clothes spend most of their time thinking about them and are of very little use when it comes to real work in life."

"Well, you needn't think that of Glory," declared Jenny in her vigorous way. "He's just as fine as he is handsome. He's a model husband. If they make their home around here you will find him doing his full share in the care of their babies. Sometimes they raise two families. When they do that Glory takes care of the first lot of youngsters as soon as they are able to leave the nest, so that Mrs. Cardinal has nothing to worry about while sitting on the second lot of eggs. Everybody loves Glory. Excuse me, Peter, I'm going over to find out if they're really going to stay."

In Fact She Was Almost as Good a Singer as Her Husband.

When Jenny returned she was so excited she couldn't keep still a minute. "They like it here, Peter!" she cried. "If they can find a place to suit them they are going to stay. My they will add a lot to the quality of this neighborhood."

Mr. and Mrs. Cardinal whistled and sang as if their hearts were bursting with joy and Peter sat around listening as if he had nothing else to do.

HEALTH TALKS

By JOHN B. HUBER, A.M., M.D.

HOW TO PREVENT HYDROPHOBIA.

Yesterday we considered the causes of hay fever. What can be done for such a sufferer.

The doctor gives remedies to improve the stability of the nervous system—arsenic, phosphorus strychnine. Change of climate is advisable. City dwellers who can go to the Laurentians, Adirondacks or to the White Mountains are, the most of them, perfectly well during the attack. Not all because one of my correspondents having his home in Canada suffers greatly with the malady. Though the dry mountain air is generally the best there is no general rule and some people do well at the seashore.

Thorough local treatment of the nose and throat is absolutely necessary, especially of inflamed areas and diseased pockets about the sensitive area. The antitoxin of Dunbar mentioned yesterday is employed but only under the direction of a skilled physician. Otherwise serious harm may result. This serum is applied to the nose and throat on rising in the morning and again during the day on the slightest irritation in the conjunctiva or in the nasal mucous membranes.

Questions and Answers.

NEURASTHENIA.

Will auto concentration electric massages cure such diseases as neurasthenia, apoplexy, ocular, nervous or gastric vertigo and intestinal putrefaction?

Answer—I do not believe so.

SUPERFLUOUS HAIR.

I am a girl of 20 years. I have hair on my face. Could you tell me what to do to destroy the roots of the hair?

Answer—The only sure method is by the use of the electric needle in the hands of a doctor very expert in skin diseases. Two articles on superfluous hair will soon appear in this paper.

AN INFECTED TONSIL.

One of my tonsils has a slight infection and I am wondering if that could be the cause of any other organic trouble. I have no decayed teeth.

Answer—As I have already mentioned in this column, an infected tonsil may be the forerunner of rheumatism, heart ailment and many another organic disease. You had better have your tonsils either treated or, better still, removed. How do you know you have no decayed teeth? You cannot be absolutely assured of that without an X-ray picture of the teeth. I advise you to have this X-ray taken.

ARE CATARRHS CURABLE?

You have stated in this column that catarrhs of the upper air passages must be cured and kept cured. Splendid advice, but I did not think it was possible.

Answer—Like many other chronic conditions, catarrh is curable by team work—that is, the doctor and the patient working faithfully together. Catarrh is not a disease in itself but is an indication of something wrong in the system. It is the business of the doctor to find out the underlying cause of the catarrh and to rid the system of that, if possible. It is also necessary of course, for the doctor to make local applications to the nose and throat. In that way most catarrhs could and should be cured.

BE MODERATE.

For years I have eaten salt between and after meals. Does it harm me? I eat it by the spoonful. Is ice-cream good for one's health? How much should be eaten in a day? Is it inclined to make one fat?

Answer—Moderation is the most important word in the whole dictionary. Be moderate in the use of salt as of everything else. The excess you take thickens your blood. Yes, in moderation. Eating a great deal of ice cream will tend to make you fat.

We Can Advise You on all matters appertaining to cleaning and dyeing. Our long experience in these important industries gives us confidence in our claim as experts. We have made good by

SIGNATURES ON CHEQUES FORGED

Officers Give Evidence in Lacasse Forgery Case

The District Court Martial met yesterday afternoon to continue the hearing of the Lacasse case, in which Sergt. J. F. Lacasse, of the C.A.P.C., is charged with forging and uttering fourteen military pay checks, in amounts from $20 to $77.80. It was charged that the accused had abstracted blank cheques from the paymaster's office, signed Capt. R. H. Heward's name to them, and afterwards the names of the payees. Capt. Heward testified that the signatures on the cheques had not been made by him. Several other officers and men gave witness that the endorsations had not been made by them although their names were on the backs of the cheques produced in court. Joseph Victor Langevin, who conducted the Hotel St. Antoine, stated that he had cashed most of the forged cheques for Lacasse. The case was then adjourned.

AMNESTY REFUSED MINOR OFFENDERS

Robert Bickerdike, hon president of the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare Association, was advised yesterday by W. Stuart Edwards, acting Deputy Minister of Justice, that the suggestion made some time ago by the association that a general amnesty for prisoners who at the time of peace were undergoing sentences in prison of not more than thirty days, had been refused. Mr. Stuart added that the council, to whom the Department of Justice had submitted the proposition, did not consider it would be practicable or desirable to proclaim a general amnesty on the occasion of the advent of peace.

In expressing his disappintment at this negative result, Mr. Bickerdike stated that in his opinion the Government had missed an opportunity of giving a moral stimulus to hundreds of minor offenders, which would have been a good start for the new era of peace.

TWO FATALITIES

Boy Was Trampled to Death by Horse—Woman Injured

Struck by a westbound Ottawa train on the Grand Trunk tracks, between Strathmore and Valois last evening, Nick Petlata, aged 45, of 106 Chatham street, was instantly killed. The body was taken to the Montreal morgue.

Trampled on by a horse at the rear of his home last evening, Guy de Ladurantye, aged 7, of 225 St. Timothy street, suffered a badly crushed head, and died almost immediately.

Knocked down by a C.P.R. train at Montreal West yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Edith Donald, aged 45, whose address is believed to be 378 Mountain street, suffered severe injuries to her head and right leg. She was taken to the Royal Victoria Hospital.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1919.

RECIPROCITY AT WASHINGTON.

ACCORDING to reliable advices from Washington, the Canadian Reciprocity Act will be repealed by Congress. The reciprocal provisions in the Underwood tariff affecting wheat and potatoes will be eliminated, and wheat and potatoes from Canada and all other countries will become subject to duties. It will be remembered that although the Reciprocity Act was adopted under a Republican President, and while there was a majority of Republicans alike in the House and in the Senate, the Act was not regarded by Republicans as a Republican measure and was carried only by the solid support of Democrats, supplemented by a portion of the Republican party. It seems now to be clearly the intention of the Republican leaders to repeal the Act and generally to increase duties on agricultural products.

There is doubt whether such a measure will be vetoed by President Wilson. Curiously enough, the more extreme Republican politicians would not be displeased if the President should apply the veto to Republican tariff legislation. They believe that during the period of reconstruction a readjustment of duties is necessary and that opinion among the farmers is generally favorable to higher protection for agricultural products. Thus a veto by the President would help the Republican party.

Anyone who has knowledge of the considerations which entered into the Presidential contest of 1912 will know that Mr. Taft lost heavily over the reciprocity agreement with Canada. Farmers in the great Western agricultural States reasonably or unreasonably objected, as they still object, to Canadian competition. They have come to believe in the advantages of home markets and in the value of protection for American agriculture. For half a century protection has commanded the support of a majority of American farmers, just as in older Canada, ever since 1878, a majority of the farming constituencies have supported the National Policy inaugurated forty years ago.

Not even in 1891, when free trade with the United States was the issue, nor in 1896, when Laurier came into office, did the Liberal party take a majority out of Ontario. Indeed, even with the combination of Liberals, the Third Party, under Mr. D'Alton McCarthy, and the Patrons of Industry, then at their full strength, the Protectionists held Ontario in the election which ended the long era of Conservative government at Ottawa. No one doubts that Quebec is as protectionist as Ontario, but other considerations in this Province have obscured the industrial issue. In the Prairie Provinces there is a formidable low tariff sentiment, but even the West has Protectionists, as there are a multitude of Canadian Nationalists who place the general interest before all other considerations.

Whatever may be the judgment of the Prairie Provinces at the moment, it is certain that as the years pass the West will develop industries and the true value of home markets will be recognized by Western farmers. Saskatchewan and Alberta are among the richest States on the continent. They will not be content to pursue agriculture alone. They will desire to apply to the development of their other resources exactly those measures of technical, scientific and financial assistance which they apply to agriculture. Thus they will create new centres of population, provide variety of employment for Western-born Canadians and reduce the dependence of the West upon the industrial centres of the United States and of older Canada. But this teaching comes best from Western leaders, unsuspected of affiliation with Eastern interests, and who enjoy that contact with Western feeling and Western conditions which gives their words authority.

No party in Canada desires that the Reciprocity Act should be repealed by Congress. We cannot, however, deny the right of American statesmen to pursue the policy which they believe is best for their country, just as we in Canada rejected the reciprocity compact for industrial and national reasons. Whatever may have been the merits of the agreement negotiated by the Taft Administration and the Laurier Government, those who contended that the agreement would make Canada to a degree dependent upon Washington reasoned soundly. Eight years after the agreement was made Republicans in Congress have determined to increase duties against Canadian products, and even as it is there will be disturbance of conditions in Canada through the action of Washington. How much greater the disturbance would be if the whole agreement had gone into effect, and how ominous would be the prospect if we had ever gone the length of absolute free trade with the neighboring country.

There never was in Canada such general good feeling for the United States. It is infinitely desirable that our relations should not be adversely affected by any fiscal measure which Washington may adopt. Let us legislate in Canada, not in enmity to Washington, but with a single regard to Canadian interests and try to believe that concern for American interests alone dictates American policy. At the moment, however, we have another illustration that George Brown was right when he withdrew from the Confederation Cabinet for the ostensible reason that he could not sanction a Reciprocity Treaty dependent only upon concurrent legislation. Whatever may be the character of our fiscal policy in the future, at least our freedom of action should not be embarrassed by agreements with other countries terminable at will by parliamentary bodies over which we have no control.

RACE RIOTS IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE seriousness of the race riots in Washington and Chicago cannot be measured even by the long lists of killed and wounded. In two weeks the life-work of scores of truly patriotic whites and negroes has been undone, for the memory of the horrors of street warfare and the hate engendered by the wanton murder of scores of individuals of both races will not easily die out.

Some United States newspapers profess to see in the two outbreaks, coming so closely together in point of time, though separated by a thousand miles of distance, evidences of Bolshevik activities and the reaction from the German propaganda spread throughout the country during the war. More probably, however, the immediate cause lies in an awakened race consciousness among the negroes inspired by the war and the part their race played in it. Unstinted praise was bestowed upon negro battalions, and it was only natural that the negroes themselves should look for some immediate and tangible result in the betterment of their social status. The speeches made by their leaders at recent meetings indicate that the absence of any such improvement has greatly inflamed racial feeling on the part of the negroes, and the form their resentment has taken is not likely to awaken any belated sympathy from the whites.

The outlook for the future is none too bright. There are approximately ten million negroes in the United States, and their numbers are increasing. In certain sections of the country they greatly outnumber the whites, and it is significant that in these districts the relations between the two races are on the whole more friendly than where the negroes are greatly in the minority. The present day American is paying dearly for the horrible slave traffic of a century ago, and the present crisis calls for both firmness and understanding of its causes. So long as supine white officialdom calmly announces in advance of a forthcoming lynching, that nothing can be done, as in a recent instance, there will be lynchings, and so long as there are lynchings there will be hatreds that must be paid for some day. And, on the other hand, so long as negro agitators are allowed to make the sort of speeches they have been making recently, the excitable and ignorant among their followers will be stirred to bloodshed. The so-called "negro problem" in the United States will not be easy to settle in any case, and it will get no easier by further neglect.

A PREVENTABLE DISASTER.

LAST week a man unable to swim clung in an overturned boat and watched his wife drown. Had this man learned to swim, he could easily have saved a life of infinite value to him and to others.

Preventable death is shocking. It leaves upon those immediately concerned, or the authorities, or the public in general, as the case may be, a sense of reproach and stigma. Failure to act in the face of danger which can be averted by effort is unworthy of manhood, womanhood or organized society.

The most distressing wastage in Canada is that caused by tuberculosis, distressing because the scourge is widespread and also because the loss is preventable. A statement issued by Dr. S. Boucher, city medical officer, shows that the situation in Montreal as regards tuberculosis is very grave. Since January first, there have been 925 new cases reported, and 729 of the infected have died. Three times as many died from tuberculosis as from any other cause.

Montreal slacks badly in the war on tuberculosis, in which every spirited community or every circle of intelligent people is engaged. This city provides a fertile feeding-place for the monster, delivering up regularly an increasing number of victims.

Of all Montreal's shortcomings, this one is the most inexcusable. It can be remedied merely by recognizing that life and happiness are more desirable than death and misery, and acting on the assumption.

Since January first, Montreal has watched 729 of her citizens die because she did not act to save them. This helpless "clinging to the boat" can be abandoned for action worth while as soon as sufficient citizens of goodwill and honor decide that it is too undignified and shameful to be tolerated.

THE WORLD'S PRESS

The Law of Compensation.

Galveston News: One good thing about modern lunch counter soup is that if you spill it on your shirt it doesn't leave a grease spot.

Defining a Bolshevist.

Springfield Union: When it comes to complete characterization no one can improve on the newly installed grand exalted ruler of the Elks' description of the parlor Bolshevist as "a soft-baked, maundering idiot, with half-digested radical theories and a ball-bearing tongue."

The Beacon Light of Africa.

London Daily Chronicle: Common sense has prevailed over passion on both sides, and British and Dutch alike in South Africa have recognized that neither race can exist there under any conditions of comfort without co-operation. We look from South Africa to Ireland with renewed hope. It is clearly not impossible that we yet see Mr. de Valera himself acclaimed in London as the first Prime Minister of a contented Ireland.

Flowery Names.

London Morning Post: It is a curious reflection for a flower-show that many men have won a verdant immortality by giving their names to flowers; the names linger, but the origins are forgotten. Who connects the peony with Paeon, the Greek physician, or the gentian with Gentius, King of Illyricum, the fuchsia with the botanist Fuchs, the lobelia with Lobel, the dahlia with Dahl, who was a pupil of Linnaeus, or nicotine with one Jean Nicot, an ambassador who brought tobacco to France?

Preparedness.

London Times: We advocate at present no specific solution of our military problem, but we do say that we must prepare against a recurrence of the perils of this war; that this preparation must be such as will increase popular control over foreign policy; and that the dangers of militarism are increased by separation of civilian and military into two classes, and diminished in proportion as the Army is the people and the mirror of the mind and the energy of the whole nation.

Throw on the Limelight.

Sydney Bulletin: How many wars have been made in the past, not by people, but by a handful of old men—often very stupid old men? How many would have been averted if the people had had a say? And how many more if they had had an understanding say? The world, as an outcome of the proceedings of the past five years, has conceived a deep suspicion of press, diplomatic and every other form of obscurantism. It is eager to see the principle of adequate ventilation applied to all public matters—even the most nationally important. So eager that it is prepared to believe that many Huns may have sinned because they knew not what they did.

Cracker Fund for Parrot.

New York Times: Full permision to administer a "cracker fund to the best of your skill and ability" was granted by Judge Richard Doherty in Jersey City to Henry Condict, senior member of the law firm of Condict, Boardman & Condict, executors of the estate of the late Mrs Phoebe Griffith, who died a year ago and left a trust fund of $1,500 for a parrot named "Ethel." The "cracker fund," as Judge Doherty called it, had caused the executors of the estate considerable worry. The bird is very healthy, and Judge Doherty found on consulting the highest authorities on parrots that these creatures generally are long lived. But the $1,500 will maintain Ethel in luxury for some little time to come.

Sifting the Immigrants.

Kansas City Star: There is a growing sentiment among Americans that little is to be gained in this country from the presence among us of millions of unskilled and ignorant labor of this transient type, and there are many economic and political questions to be settled before we reach the proper decision in this matter. Sentiment is growing in America that if these aliens refuse all propositions looking to their Americanization and naturalization, we will lose little or nothing if they pull their stakes and go to their old homes. We are gaining nothing by filling up the country with people who care nothing for it and whose only idea is to remain here until they can make enough to go elsewhere to spend it.

The Rule of the People.

Westminster Gazette: The statesmen of the world would be very blind to the signs of the times if they were not aware that all the guarantees they give one another will depend in the future, as never before, upon the judgments passed on them by their peoples and Parliaments. If the great armies are ever to be mobilized again, it will only be for great issues clearly understood and proof given that there is no other way. And that proof will be rigorously exacted by the mass of working-people who form modern armies both in Europe and in America. All these people will be watching from henceforth, as they have never before watched, to see that statesmen play fair and are honestly attempting to put the world in order, and they will have their own very positive judgments as to what is and what is not good cause for fighting.

English World Language.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: The latest editions of dictionaries of the English language published in the United States contain more words than are found in French, German, Italian and Spanish combined. A great increase has come with the advance in applied science. Take, for example, the subject of electricity, or, in a lesser degree, aviation. It would be wastage to have in every language a separate lexicon for new terms rendered necessary by the development going forward along new lines. These changes are rapid, and it would be foolish to cultivate a confusion of tongues in dealing with them. The commerce of the world, it is clear, will be preponderantly carried on by the nations that speak English. In international financial affairs the English-speaking races will be distinctly in the lead. English is more prominent than any other language at the Versailles peace table. It is the tongue of two of what are called the Big Four in the weighty negotiations. In its dreams of world domination the German Government required English to be taught universally in its public schools. An educated German is rare who lacks a working knowledge of English. The entire world may rest assured that the English language is worth while. It is itself a composite, but with a virile, admirable foundation of its own.

A Volunteer's Grave.

Not long ago, it was a bird
In vacant lilac skies
Could stir the sleep that hardly closed
His laughing eyes.

But here where murdering thunders rock
The lintels of the dawn,
Altho they shake his shallow bed,
Yet he sleeps on.

Another spring with rain and leaf
And buds serenely red
And this field will have forgot
Its youthful dead.

And, wise of heart, who loved him best
Will be forgetting, too,
Even before their own beds gleam
With heedless dew.

Yet what have all the centuries
Of purpose, pain, and joy
Bequeathed us lovelier to recall
Than this dead boy?

A BETTER MOTTO.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—What we'll have we'll hold, and what we haven't we want," is a large factor in creating this great, and dangerous unrest; now existing, and spreading in this, and many other countries.

One good remedy, in my opinion, is to change the motto to:—What we have we'll share, and what we haven't we'll be content without. CITIZEN.

THE KAISER'S MILLIONS.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—It is reported the ex-Kaiser has a private fortune of $35,000,000. Why should not the punishment of this man, who has done everything wrong but kill himself, begin with the confiscation of this money? ALLEN G. INGALLS.

FROM APE TO MAN.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—A. P. P.'s endeavor to connect evolution with creation is clever, but untenable. Science proves that countless ages ago we developed from a cell, in the latter stages evolving from the ape to savage, from thence to our present state. This fact should not appear unreasonable, when the cell goes through a similar process of development today, but requiring only about twenty-one years for the cell to pass through its various forms to man.
NORMAN KING.

BACK HIM UP.

The Editor, Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Ruskin said: "The quiet admission, which we are all of us ready to make, that because things have so long been wrong, it is impossible they should ever be right, is one of the most fatal sources of misery and crime from which this world suffers."

And so it is with the "yearly lease." Each year at moving time, editorials appear and say in effect: "Don't wait until moving time comes round again. Get busy during the ensuing year."

Now a man (a strong man, I hope) offers his services to break this stupid and wretched rule, and broken it can be and shall be, if those interested wish it.

In a short conversation I had with Mr. Wooda this week he gave me to understand that lying at back of the yearly lease was a combine of monied men who would fight any proposed alteration tooth and nail.

If that is so, union is strength; let erstwhile yearly tenants combine; do not even wait for Mr. Woods, whose plans are maturing apace. Write to him and strengthen his hand, and if able send a little money as an earnest of good faith, for remember it is going to cost a tidy sum, which it is to be hoped will be forthcoming.

FROM THE STAR FILES

THIRTY YEARS AGO.

(From The Star Files, July 30, 1889)

The Late Duke of Clarence.

London.—It is announced that H. R. H., Prince Albert Victor of Wales will start in September on a six months tour of India.

His Royal Highness, Prince Albert Victor Christian Edward, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, and Earl of Athlone, the eldest son of His late Majesty King Edward, was born in 1864, and died in 1892. In 1877 he entered the navy as a cadet. In July, 1879, he went to sea in H. M. S. Bacchante and visited the West Indies. The following year the Bacchante formed part of a flying squadron which went to Vigo, Madeira, St. Vincent, Bahia, Montevideo and the Falkland Islands; thence to the Cape of Good Hope and Australia, at which two stations Prince Albert Victor spent a considerable time. From Australia he went to Fiji, Japan, China, Singapore, Colombo, Suez and returned to England in the summer of 1882 by way of Egypt, the Holy Land, and Athens. In October, 1883, he became an undergraduate at Trinity College, Cambridge, continuing his studies during the long vacations at the University of Heidelberg. After this he was transferred to Aldershot to study military Science. His diary, together with that of his brother, now His Majesty King George V., during their cruise in the Bacchante, was published in the spring of 1886. In 1887 the Prince visited Ireland, and he was created Hon. LL.D. of Cambridge in 1888. His early death was due to an attack of influenza, followed by acute inflammation of the lungs.

Montreal.—Capt. Lindall of the Dominion Line Steamer Vancouver, claims to have made the fastest voyage on record from Liverpool to Montreal. The Vancouver left Liverpool on July 18, at 4 p. m. and arrived at this port on July 27 at 7 p. m. Stops were made at Moville, (Ireland), Rimouski and Quebec.

Megantic, Que.—Quite severe frosts have occurred in this district.

Montreal.—The civic light committee held a short session yesterday afternoon. There were present: Alf. Rainville, chairman, Prefontaine, Clendinning, Malone, Tanguy and Laurier. It was decided to continue the use of gas for the official lamps in front of the Mayor's residence. A bill for lighting coal oil lamps in St. Jean Baptiste and St. Gabriel wards was referred to a sub-committee.

QUEBEC'S LIQUOR LAW.

La Patrie.—The experience we have enjoyed since the first of May in this province does not cease to interest our neighbors in Ontario, who, during the war, have been subjected to the most severe restrictive measures and who will soon be called upon to pronounce by referendum on partial or total prohibition. Several newspapers have sent representatives to Montreal to make enquiry into what is happening with regard to the enforcement of the new law permitting the sale of beer and light wine. There still exist a few shebeens but the situation is better than it was before. The people have a better appreciation of the benefits of abstinence and sobriety. Everything is not perfect yet but with goodwill we will reach the goal that our legislators aim at, of diminishing the ravages of intemperance and suppressing the cause of much misery and many diseases. But we shall not realise what we have in view unless the law is rigorously obeyed. The sale of alcoholic liquors by the glass is strictly prohibited. Let the law be energetically enforced. The stores where liquor is on sale, also need supervision. The Government has appointed inspectors who will visit these establishments and will have control over the granting of licenses in order to put a stop to abuses. The authorities appear to have been fortunate in their selection of these appointees. If they do their duty they will contribute to the task of reducing the ravages of drunkenness and will help to realise the hopes that good citizens have founded on the restrictive measures passed at the last session of the Legislature. And Quebec will be the model province of the Confederation.

GERMAN HYPOCRISY.

La Presse.—The delegates from the German industrial unions who are assembled at the International conference at Amsterdam, have been questioned by the delegates from the Allied nations on the subject of their attitude during the war. The reply of Carl Rudolph Legien, president of the German Federation of Labor, delivered with a great deal of assurance, declared that the German workers were under the impression that they were fighting a defensive war. If this reply was truthful truth it would give us a poor opinion of the intelligence of the German working man. Let us hasten to add that Herr Legien and his comrades know much better than that.

UNUSUAL EPISODE AT CANADIAN SHOW

Woman in Audience Boldly Challenged Veracity of Officer

Special to The Star From Our Own Correspondent.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Australian and Twenty-Seventh Division night at the Canadian War Memorials Exhibition, in the Anderson Galleries here, was the occasion for an unexpected episode which ended with five hundred indignant women, officers and guests voicing their protests against a stylishly gowned woman who had challenged the veracity of a speaker.

Capt. Leon Dabo, liaison officer of the Twenty-Seventh Division in France, was telling of Germany's perfidy in forging the trade-marks of the Allied nations upon products. He charged Germany with using the words "Sheffield Steel" upon cutlery, when he was interrupted by the woman.

"That is a lie!" she remarked.

Instantly a hush came over the audience. The speaker flushed and looked at the woman, who returned a defiant stare. Ushers came down the aisle to where the interrupter was sitting, and escorted her to the lobby, where a Canadian officer informed her she would have to leave the building. In the hearing of Major Norman Thwaites and several reporters, the woman, who spoke with a decided foreign accent, said "There was some misunderstanding," and declared that she had not meant any offence. She added that she was a Belgian, but refused to give her name.

INTREPID ANZACS.

Gen. O'Ryan, who commanded the 27th, gave some interesting stories of the Anzacs, and paid striking tribute to their influence over the American troops alongside.

"After the Americans were brigaded with the Australians, a strong bond of affection was forged," said Gen. O'Ryan, "which was responsible for many comical situations." He told of a group of Americans and Australians in London on a furlough, intending to have one "vigorous party." They struck upon a fashionable hotel and summoned the head waiter with great gusto, telling him of their desires.

"Right sir, quite right, sir, yes, sir," he responded demulously. "I'll warn all the other guests immediately, sir."

A British general recounted to the Twenty-Seventh's commander the complaint of a Tommy sergeant that the Yanks were returning prisoners who were "very poor pickin's." Gen. O'Ryan said he was strongly in favor of the doughboy in the front line getting everything he wanted. A little anecdote of his illustrated what "pickin's" meant.

"My men had taken prisoner a Hun wearing gold-rimmed glasses, whose academic appearance prompted the title of 'professor.' Anxious to have a little fun, the soldiers said: 'Let's ask the professor what everyone is fighting for. We've already got the Allies' side of it.'

"The professor drew himself up with great dignity, and appeared highly pleased with his position. 'We Chermans fight for de Vaderland, French for la Belle France, even Englanders fight for his king, but the Australians and Americans, mein Gott, must be fighting for souvenirs.'"

'NO WINE, NO WORK' THEY GOT THE WINE

And Joyful Committee Sample Fourteen Barrels

NEW YORK, July 30.—Substitution of an inferior sour wine for their stipulated ration of one quart of Bordeaux daily, precipitated a "no wine, no work" strike among the crew of the French liner Chicago, which was only ended when fourteen barrels of the desired vintage was brought alongside and put aboard, it was learned when the vessel arrived here from France yesterday.

After the Chicago had steamed 30 miles down the Garonne river to Pauillac on July 17, members of the crew discovered something amiss with their daily potation. They immediately declared a "strike" and refused to handle the ship unless the wine was changed.

An officer was dispatched to Bordeaux to notify the company of the situation and soon afterwards a lighter with fourteen barrels aboard was brought alongside. The crew appointed a committee of six to determine whether the new consignment was satisfactory. Each barrel was sampled and approved. Then the ship sailed after a delay of 72 hours.

COLLIER'S WEEKLY CHANGES HANDS

NEW YORK, July 26.— Direction and control of Collier's Weekly, including all books and other publications issued by P. F. Collier, Incorporated, has passed to the Crowell Publishing Company, under the terms of a contract signed here, George D. Buckley, president of the Crowell Company, announced last night.

The Crowell Publishing Company already is sponser for the American Magazine, Woman's Home Companion and Farm and Fireside. In taking over control of Collier's Weekly, President Buckley declared there would be no change in the name or policy of the periodical or in its publishing staff. Mr. Buckley, refused to name the price paid.

Poured Oil on Babies and Burned Them as Well as Herself

NELSONVILLE, Ohio, July 30.—Several hours before authorities were to remove them to the Athens county home today several children, ranging in age from 6 weeks to ten years, were found with their mother, Mrs. Tony St. Navisar, burned to death or asphyxiated in their home at Kimberley, a small mining town near here. The children were tied to their beds and coal oil had been sprinkled over the room.

It is supposed that worry over the separation caused the mother to destroy herself and the children.

ADRIATIC RESUMES PRE-WAR SERVICE

NEW YORK, July 30.—Beginning with the departure from New York on August 14 of the steamship Adriatic, the White Star Line will resume its New York - Cherbourg - Southampton service interrupted by the war in August of 1914. The steamer Olympic, now undergoing an overhauling after five years of war service, will be added to this run upon coming from the ship yards.

BLOCK LEAGUE BY RESTRICTING ARMY

WASHINGTON, July 30.—A proposed amendment to the constitution providing that the President cannot send American soldiers out of this country to execute the orders of any international tribunal or court, such as the League of Nations, was introduced in the House today by Representative James, Michigan.

P. A. S. FRANKLIN GOES HOME.

NEW YORK, July 30.—P. A. S. Franklin, president of the Mercantile Marine Company, sailed for Liverpool yesterday on the White Star liner Celtic. At the office of the company it was said Mr. Franklin had gone to Europe in connection with routine business of the line.

Where Baby's Talc Goes—

No Wonder Baby Couldn't Find His

COLGATE'S TALC POWDER

It is so soothing, so cooling, so comfort-giving, everybody "borrows" baby's Talc. Father, mother, sister, brother—all are guilty—and no wonder!

There is no finer Talc made than Colgate's. It soothes and comforts the skin; protects it from the sun and wind. It refreshes after exercise removing hot weather stickiness and making summer dressing comfortable.

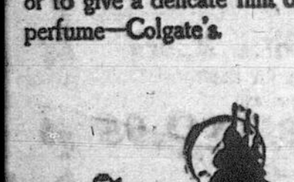
Remember, whatever price you pay, you cannot get a better Talc than Colgate's.

At the seashore or lake, Colgate's is really necessary. It removes stickiness and makes dressing comfortable.

Golfers sprinkle Colgate's in their shoes before starting out. So refreshing after the game, too.

Colgate's is invaluable to those who ride horseback. It prevents chafing.

As a face or body Powder, or to give a delicate hint of perfume—Colgate's.



Out on the water, where sunburn may mar the pleasure, protect your skin with Colgate's.

A Sick-Room Aid

Where bandages or sheets chafe the patient, Colgate's gives great comfort. Keep a tin of Colgate's Talc on the medicine shelf.

The Vital Importance of the 10.54% BORIC ACID in COLGATE'S Talc Powder

Boric Acid—the mild, efficient antiseptic—is most important in talc for the baby. Without a sufficient quantity, any talcum powder lacks a great essential. Analysis shows Colgate's Talc to contain 10.54% BORIC ACID. Of five other Talcum Powders analysed, none contained over 4% Boric Acid.

Therefore, insist on Colgate's. Use it; and use it often! On Display Today.

MISS CARTIER TO BE NATION'S GUEST

Committee Was Formed Yesterday to Entertain Distinguished Visitor

A strong committee, headed by Lady Lacoste and Lady Williams-Taylor, was formed yesterday afternoon to entertain Miss Hortense Cartier, who sails for Canada on Saturday on board S.S. La France, accompanied by the Hon. Philippe Roy, Canadian Commissioner at Paris, and his son.

Miss Cartier, who comes to Canada for the first time in 47 years, will be the guest of the nation. The city will be asked to receive her officially and present her with a souvenir of her visit to Montreal. A special day will be dedicated to her at the Cartier Fair, and at the unveiling of the Cartier monument on September 6, Cartier's anniversary, an illuminated address will be presented to her by the committee.

Considerable interest is shown in the plans being made for Miss Cartier's visit which will be about two months in length, and the meeting called by E. W. Villeneuve at the Windsor Hotel yesterday was attended by a representative group of women. A letter was read from Lady Williams-Taylor, who is absent in the west, accepting the joint presidency of the committee with Lady Lacoste, and offering the use of her motor for three days a week during Miss Cartier's stay. A second meeting will be called as soon as the exact date of Miss Cartier's arrival is known.

The following officers were elected: Honorary president, Mrs. E. W. Villeneuve; joint presidents, Lady Lacoste and Lady Williams-Taylor; vice-presidents, Lady Hingston, Lady Mortimer B. Davis, Mme. F. L. Beique, Mme. Rosario Thibaudeau, Mme. F. J. Bisaillon, Mme. Clarence I. de Sola, Mrs. H. A. Ekers, Mrs. D. Lorne McGibbon, Mme. George Desbarats, Mme. J. G. H. Bergeron, Mme. Narcisse Dupuis, Mrs. G. E. Hall, Mrs. Wurtele and Miss Guerin, joint honorary secretaries, Mrs. L. Charton and Miss Agnes Bury; joint honorary treasurers, Miss Estelle Power-O'Brien and Mrs. L. P. Crepeau.

Members of the executive committee are: Mrs. D. Levi, Miss M. Donovan, Mrs. Clark Murray, Mrs. M. J. Quinn, Mrs. John McIntyre, Mrs. J. C. Walsh, Mrs. G. A. Morrison, Miss Morrison, Mrs. J. Sullivan, Mrs. W. W. Butler, Mrs. A. E. Morris, Mrs. Edmond Brossard, Mrs. D. S. Freedman, Mrs. N. K. Laflamme, Mrs. C. A. Barnard.

CARTIERVILLE ASKS FOR MORE PRESSURE

A delegation of citizens and taxpayers of Cartierville, headed by Ald. Filion, called upon the Administrative Commission yesterday to complain that the water pressure up in their neighborhood was recently reduced, and urged that the pressure as heretofore given be continued, owing to the needs of the citizens of that part of the city and more especially owing to the danger of fire at this season of the year, when heat keeps dwellings, sheds and barns at the burning point.

The commissioners promised to give the matter their immediate attention.

"TO PROVE ERZBERGER TRAITOR."

BERLIN, July 30.—Dr. Karl Helferich, the former Vice-Chancellor, announced yesterday that having failed to induce Mathias Erzberger to sue him, he will enter suit against Erzberger "to prove him a liar and traitor and to bring the truth to light."

HOLIDAYS IN THE LAURENTIANS.

The Laurentian Mountains retain all their popularity for Montreal holiday-makers. This is easily understandable, because the Laurentians, in addition to their own beautiful attractions, are so easily accessible from this city. An hour and a half's railway journey brings you right there, and then for over a hundred miles there are very attractive resorts clustered along the railway line. Amongst these may be mentioned Shawbridge, Ste. Adele, Val Morin, St. Faustin, St. Jovite, Ste. Agathe, Ste. Marguerite, Lake Trembiant, Labelle and Nominingue, as well as a number of others. All kinds of recreation are available at these places, especially water sports, for lakes are everywhere. Those who are still puzzling over where they shall spend their vacations this year should obtain a copy of a new handsomely illustrated folder just issued by the Canadian Pacific Railway, "Resorts in Quebec," issued in both French and English languages. This gives much attention to the Laurentian district; and because it contains also a list of hotels and boarding houses, is full of suggestions for intending visitors. Copies of the folder can be obtained from F. C. Lydon, City Passenger Agent, 141-145 St. James St., Montreal.

FOLLOW ENGLISH HOUSING PLANS

Dr. Nadeau, Provincial Housing Director, Explains Intentions

The provincial plans for housing have already been approved by the Federal Government and the task is now before the provincial and municipal authorities. Dr. Emile Nadeau, provincial director of housing, will have the general direction of approximately $7,000,000 of the $25,000,000 which the Federal Government voted for housing in Canada. Dr. Nadeau says that the public should not be impatient if it takes a little time to get the housing scheme in working order, for it must be remembered that Canada's slums have taken 300 years to build.

Dr. Nadeau met a number of the citizens of the City Improvement League last night at the Engineers' Club for the purpose of explaining what has been done and what it is proposed to do. Criticisms and questions were invited and answered.

Among those present were F. W. Stewart, president of the league; Dr. W. H. Atherton, secretary; W. M. Birks, representing the Board of Trade; Dr. F. E. Devlin, of the public health committee of the league; Dr. J. J. Guerin, ex-president and advisory board; U. H. Dandurand, president of the housing committee of the league; Lyon Cohen, of the Child Welfare Committee; F. J. Todd, of the town planning committee, and J. P. Anglin, of the housing committee.

For the present at least money will not be lent to individual lot-owners. Through Dr. Nadeau recommendations for loans will be sent in to the Provincial Government, and the money will be lent to municipalities on the understanding that it will be turned over to housing societies which will build communities on the style which has been found successful in England. Dr. Nadeau sketched the history of the "garden-cities" of England and told of the plans for 100 more garden-cities and of the manner in which England had provided for the housing of her munition workers.

In answer to Mr. Birks, Dr. Nadeau said that there need be no fear of politics as long as he was director, but that real estate prices are a difficulty to be overcome, for it is absolutely necessary to secure land at reasonable rates if the work is to be a success. If suitable land cannot be obtained from individuals there is no reason why a portion of Maisonneuve Park should not be used, as the site of a garden-city. One objection raised to this community building was that in the English system, even after payment in full, the owner, in the event of wishing to sell his house, is not free to choose the buyer but the building company has the privilege of buying back. Some thought that this would not work in Canada, but it seems that this is a matter of regulations, and that people who take houses in a community would know the situation in advance. Tenants will be all shareholders.

NO ACTION BY CITY.

Dr. Nadeau in speaking of the present situation pointed out that the Administrative Commission has not yet passed a by-law asking for its allotment of $7,000,000, and thought that when this had been done it would be better to appoint a director or at any rate a smaller commission. His idea about the allotment of the money is that cities and towns of the district of Montreal should receive $3,000,000; the cities and towns of Quebec district $2,500,000; and the remaining cities and towns $1,500,000.

The appointment of an expert technical advisory committee would mean a deduction of 2½ per cent from all loans, for the plans would be drawn up by this committee for all municipalities and all would build alike. The British system of playgrounds and parks will be largely followed.

Mr. Cohen voiced the thanks of the gathering to Dr. Nadeau, and said that housing was the great need in Montreal today. Mr. Dandurand suggested that if sufficient progress is not made by the local commission that it might be well for the City Improvement League to encourage some citizens to subscribe towards a million dollar society. Of this amount $5 per cent would be from the Government loan, $50,000 would be left as stock for the tenants, and $100,000 subscribed by the citizens. No definite promise was given on this matter.

Military Queries and Answers

Recruit, Montreal.—1. Is a Canadian who served in the American Expeditionary Force entitled to gratuity or any other money from the Canadian Government? 2. Is an American who served 5 months in the Canadian Expeditionary Force entitled to gratuity? 3. Is a foreign born Canadian resident who served with the American Forces in France 10 months entitled to anything else besides the $60 he receives on discharge from the American Government?

A.—1. No. 2. Yes, if he was overseas. 3. Not that I am aware of.

W. B., East Farnham, Que.—I enlisted April 23, 1917, in Montreal. Discharged December 30, 1918, at Toronto. Made application on enlistment for separation allowance for my father. I named him as my beneficiary. Got no satisfaction till April, 1918—one year after enlisting. Can you help me get the allowance of the first year of my enlistment?

A.—Have you copies of official correspondence on the subject?

Mrs. A. L., Joliette St.—My son, a returned soldier saw service in France. He was discharged over a year ago. He is now ill in the hospital. The doctor said the sickness he has was caused while he was a soldier. Why it is that he is asked to pay $2.00 a day while there?

A.—You will have to give fuller information. What is he supposed to have?

N. McL. R., Amherst, N.S.—I enlisted February 12, 1915, in Montreal. After 11 months service in France and Belgium I was discharged in June, 1917. I received three months post discharge pay. On April 1, 1919, I received a cheque for $80.60 war gratuity, first payment from Ottawa. Have received nothing since nor any answers to my letters. Shall appreciate any assistance you can give me to have this matter adjusted.

A.—You have not informed me if you are married, and if so, whether your wife received separation allowance—please write me particulars of all P.D.P and W.S.G. payments received.

C. R., Cadillac St.—I served overseas for two years. Was discharged in Quebec, May 20, 1919. Have been home 2 months, but have not as yet received any gratuity. Have written to Paymaster at Ottawa but without reply. 1. How can I get in communication with Authorities at Ottawa? 2. What gratuity am I entitled to and when should I receive first instalment?

A.—The matter is in the hands of the A.D.P.S., M. D. 5, Quebec. If you do not hear in two days, write again.

E. W., Chateaubriand.—My son went overseas in 1914. Was in France till 1917. Was overseas nearly 3 years. Came back and was discharged in July, 1917. He has received all his gratuity, but I did not receive mine yet. He is my sole support. I filled out a paper 5 weeks ago and sent it to Ottawa but no reply came. Can you find out why the delay?

A.—If no cheque in two weeks write me again.

Wireless Section C.C.S.C.—About one half of the Canadian Corps Signal Company, whose Dispersal Areas were anywhere east of Toronto, were for some reason discharged at Halifax on June 13th. A receipt was given us in place of our discharge papers and buttons, which were promised to be sent us by registered mail about 2 weeks later. Neither have turned up yet. Several have wired and written to the O.C. Dispersal Station, Halifax. 1. To whom shall I next apply? 2. To whom shall I write re second gratuity payment not received?

A.—1. Suggest you write the G.O.C., M. D. 6, Halifax. 2. Tell all your troubles to the same officer. The Halifax dispersal station must be understaffed, and overworked or sleepy.

J. O. G., Bager St.—I enlisted in August, 1914. Went to France. Was discharged November 1, 1917. Since February last I have written two applications for war service gratuity, and received a letter from Ottawa dated April 7th, stating that my application was received and was under consideration. Wrote twice since, but received no reply so far. How can I get those people interested in my case?

A.—Perhaps I can get you the information, but must know your number or rank.

Mrs. M. F., Clarke St.—My husband is Paymaster and has been in the R. N.C.V.R. for over 2 years. Is it only those who have joined the R. N. C. V. R. who get the increase in pay?

A.—Will you kindly be just a little more explicit.

Ex-Driver R. F. A., Granby.—I enlisted with the Imperial Artillery in May, 1915, in Scotland, and was demobilized December, 1918. Received $100 gratuity January, 1919. Now I hear that those men who crossed and joined the Imperial Forces are to have their gratuity made up to equal that of those who enlisted on this side. 1. Is this correct, and to whom should I apply for some? 2. I am receiving a weekly allowance for one year of $1.32 from the British Government. How am I to go about getting this payable on this side, and is any addition made owing to higher rates in Canada?

A.—1. It has not been so decided yet. Write the Officer Paying Imperial Pensions, Ottawa.

Mrs. H. L., Dagenais St.—How can I find out if my husband had any balance due him at the time of his death?

Life and Character Reading

JULY 30.

We have here an artistic dreamy nature, not very practical and getting some pretty hard knocks in life before awakening and dealing with people and events with strength and success. These people show a great lack of natural policy at times and do the most eccentric things. They win the confidence of their friends, but often abuse it without seeming to know what they are doing.

These people are not aggressive and will avoid and abandon a cherished plan rather than meet the opposition. The governing sign is Leo and the planets are the Earth and the Sun. The natural colors are yellow, red and green. The most fortunate period is the last two weeks in July, and the birthstone is a ruby or a diamond.

The Orderly Room Mail Bag

Sir,—Kindly allow me a small space in your esteemed paper to voice my opinion re $2,000 gratuity so much talked about. I have read with interest previous letters as thousands others have, and I think the public should be given to understand where the grouch lays; take, for instance, the men who volunteered at the commencement of hostilities and served all through, that makes 4 years and 10 months up to May 1919, for First Division, and 4 years and 8 months for Second Division. Does the government so belittle our first 18 to 20 months' service that they ignore them completely, or is it an oversight on their part? I served 4 years and 8 months, and I find on return that I have deteriorated in my trade after so long away, and it is only through the generosity of my employers taking into consideration my long service that I am able to carry on. I think the government should give all overseas men an increased bonus according to length of service. I would have no compunction in taking it after reading of the bonus given to the civil servants.

When we enlisted the issue of stake was too great to allow us to think of after years, so we gave ourselves willingly to right a wrong without thought of personal gain, so it is up to the government to come across.

A VOLUNTEER, 24th BATTN.

WOULDN'T HURT CANADA.

Sir,—Will you allow me a few lines in your column to answer the letter signed "Fair Play"?

By your letter, "Fair Play," I see you know that the reservist did receive some money whilst on the reserve in Canada, viz., 12 cents a day. Some money, eh? On the outbreak of the war these men, who were nearly all married men, left their wives and children, and they got the sum of 12s 6d per week. No Patriotic Fund at that time to help them, as the fund was not formed then. The man himself got 18 cents a day, and I may inform you, "Fair Play," we had permission to stay and join the Canadian contingent that was going to be formed. But the most of us, including myself, went right away, as we had been paid to do, most of us arriving in France between the 20th and the end of August, 1914. There happened to be a little fighting going on at that time. Very strange, isn't it? (It wasn't trench warfare, either!) Consequently most of them went under. A few of them arrived back and the first thing they did was to help to get the Canadian soldier their gratuity—that is, the one you are getting now. They did not ask for anything for themselves, being professional soldiers. Most of the Canadian troops who are returning differ from you, "Fair Play," as it is they who are helping us to get it, and that is what we and they consider fair play. Another thing, "Fair Play," they are going to get it, anyway, as the G.W.V.A. are working for this, and anything the G.W.V.A. work for, they get. So you need not worry your worthy head. There is a man in England now from Canada conferring with the British Government regarding this.

Do you know, "Fair Play," that Australia made its British reservists pay up to the same as the Australians were getting? It would not have hurt Canada to do the same.

Military News and Views

To Send Delegates.—Unlike the Great War Veterans' Association the local executive committee of the Great Army of Canada has decided to send delegates to the approaching liberal convention and have selected Captain R. L. Calder, M.C., Captain McDuff, who is president of the Vimy post No. 4, and A. M. Jasienski.

He "Ain't Actin' Natural."—I see that an American Movie Picture concern has offered the ex-Kaiser a million dollars to take the part of Satan in some film production. Apart from the absurdity of the proposal it would seem that the idea could hardly be successfully carried out as the ex-Kaiser "ain't actin' natural" these days.

"General" Stupity.—When Gen. Sir Julian Byng recently addressed the boys at Cheltenham College he said that whilst he was at Eton he was "always at the bottom of the school waching disinguished geniuses coming and going until one day General Sir Henry Rawlinson arrived at Eton and he (Byng) was ousted from his distinguished position and could no longer claim to be the stupidest fellow at Eton." So there is some wee bit of hope for a lot of us.

A Thanksgiving Service.—The Lachine Branch of the G.W.V.A. is holding an undenominational peace service next Sunday evening at 7 p.m. at Park Lasalle. The bands of the 4th C.G.R. and the Montreal G.W.V.A. will be present. Invitations have been extended to the Fraternal Societies of Lachine to take part in the parade to the park. After the service the Veterans' band will give a concert under the leadership of bandmaster Crout. I understand there is to be no charge for admission.

Discharge Papers.—Valuable information for many returned men in the district of Montreal has just been obtained from the military authorities at Ottawa. Many men discharged at Halifax, on their return from across the water, were not given any regular discharge or war service badge. Enquiries in regard to this matter were numerous at the information bureau of the Knights of Columbus Catholic Army Huts, where the question was taken up with the powers that be.

Information has now been received from Ottawa to the effect that some discharge certificates were held up at Halifax on account of the supply of war service badges being exhausted. These are now available and have all been forwarded to the home addresses given by the men on discharge. Many of the latter sent out are being returned to the authorities at Halifax marked "not known" and "not called for." These may be had on application to No. 6 District Depot, Wellington Barracks, Halifax, N.S.

HOMES BURNED

Seven Lachine Families Lost All in Bad Fire Yesterday

In a fire which did considerable damage to a wooden dwelling house on 7th Avenue, Lachine, yesterday, seven families had to look for new homes and furniture. The Lachine firemen battled with the flames for three hours before they had it under control. Fireman Quesnel was struck on the head by a piece of debris and had to be taken to St. Joseph's Hospital. The damage is estimated at $5,000.

A number of doors and window sashes were destroyed by fire which broke out last night in the yards of Joseph Demers, builder and contractor, 627 Marquette street. The damage amounts to about $1,000.

BOLSHEVISTS ARRESTED.

Charged with having Bolshevist literature in their possession two foreigners, one an Austrian, the other a Bulgarian, have been arrested at Grand'Mere by the town police under instructions from the Federal authorities. Their names were given as George Yardonoff and Peter Angelhoff. They are to appear in court on Friday.

MEDICAL FACULTY DINED DR. ADAMI

A farewell dinner to Dr. J. G. Adami, of McGill University, was given at the Mount Royal Club last night by members of the medical faculty of the University. Dr. Geo. E. Armstrong, acting Dean of Medicine, presided and proposed the health of the guest of the evening in a eulogistic speech which traced the growth of the pathological work at te University under Dr. Adami. Dr. Blackader in a few words expressed the feeling of his colleagues in losing the inspiring personality of Dr. Adami. Dean Adams, acting principal of McGill, spoke warmly of the patriotic services rendered by Dr. Adami as a Colonel in the C.A.M.C., and regretted that McCill had to lose such a valuable man. In reply, Dr. Adami made a warm farewell to the university with which he had been associated for many years, and while regretting the severance of the tie yet he felt that his new position would open up wider opportunities for the advancement of his work.

OTTAWA SEPARATE SCHOOL CASE CLOSED

Privy Council Considers Decision Without Hearing Respondents

By Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, July 30.—The Privy Council continued its hearing on the Ottawa Separate Schools appeal yesterday afternoon. Sir John Simon, in further support of the trustees' appeal, answering Lord Haldane, said he claimed respondents should receive sums mentioned in judgment of trial court without deduction of any sum claimed to have been paid by the Ottawa separate schools commission in conduct and management, and that the counter-claim of the Bank of Ottawa should be dismissed.

Sir John Simon further said regarding the Bank of Ottawa that the sum ordered to be paid by judgment of the trial judge constituted at the time and still was a sinking fund to meet certain debentures issued by the appellant board and that it always had been set apart and earmarked and held in trust for such redemption purposes.

In regard to the case against the Quebec Bank he urged it was no defence to the claim against the bank to say the commission had applied it for school purposes for the commission, it would be no defence for the bank.

Finally Sir John Simon urged that the right of privilege which had been infringed was a privilege which the appellants had as duly constituted trustees of the Catholic separate schools of spending this money themselves. Even assuming the commissioners had applied the money to the same purposes as the appellants would have done, it in no way affected their right to recover the money.

Senator Belcourt having addressed their Lordships on the same side, Lord Haldane announced the board would not hear respondents then but would consider their decision.

VOTE OF CONFIDENCE IN GERMAN ASSEMBLY

Will Explain to Nation Causes of Germany's Defeat

Special Star Cable.

WEIMAR, July 30.—Confidence in the Ebert Government was voted by a large majority in the German National Assembly yesterday.

By a vote of 243 to 53 the Assembly defeated a motion censuring the Government, presented by the party of the right.

The Bill creating a State tribunal to try persons responsible for the war has reached the special committee which will consider it, it was announced officially. The tribunal, as provided in the Bill, will consist of prominent German jurists and historians.

The Foreign Minister, Dr. Mueller, declared before the Assembly that the Government favored giving publicity to the circumstances attending the conduct of the war. The Home Minister, Herr David, said that many documents showing the causes of Germany's defeat, would be presented to the nation soon.

"HARD-BOILED" SMITH BLAMES HIGHER-UPS

NEW YORK, July 30.—Responsibility for cruel treatment of American soldiers at Prison Farm No. 2, near Paris, was placed squarely upon the shoulders of Major-Gen. F. S. Strong and Col. E. P. Grimsted, by Lieut. Frank H. (Hard-Boiled") Smith in testimony given by him yesterday before a sub-commitee of the House of Representatives at Governor's Island.

"Those higher in authority knew everything that took place in the prison," he declared.

"What were your orders when you were placed in command?" he was asked.

Smith replied that he had been told by Col. Grimsted that the orders of Gen. Strong were that prisoners were to be treated with the most ruthless severity.

Smith declared that even if conditions were as represented at farm No. 2, they were far worse at other prison camps in France. Farm No. 2 was a "pleasure resort" compared with the "Bastille," St. Anne, Chingcourt, Sans Sulpice, and other American detention camps, he said.

STRONG LOCAL TONE--N.Y. BULL AND BEAR CLASH--FUNDS UP

STRONG TONE CHECKED BY N. Y. BREAK

Aside from those securities which were under special influence due to industrial conditions, dividend prospects, etc., there was but little of interest evident in the local market at any time during the morning session. Traders seemed largely inclined to stay away from the market and New York's trend was followed with some anxiety. The early break on Wall Street had any thing but a helpful effect on the general undertone in Montreal.

Asbestos was again the feature of the early trading and continued its advance, today making a new high on the present movement at 76 1-4, after opening at 75. The close was firm at 76. While this stock was not the active leader of the list, it was such point of strength, which serves to indicate the extreme narrowness of the trading. At 76, the stock showed a net gain of 1½.

B. C. Fishing was among the most active issue, and after opening at 64 1-4, advanced to 65, when some selling carried the price back to 64 1-4 to a net loss of 1-4. The undertone here, however, appeared to be firm.

Wabasso Cotton continues a market feature, although at no time do the transactions in the stock greatly exceed one or two odd lots. Such trading, however, has served to put the stock up from the recent low of 87 to today's high, established by a broken lot at 102. Small floating supply accompanied by dividend expectations appear to be the reasons for the strength.

In the rest of the list, there was but little of importance to note, with the exception of weakness in Iron, which, incidentally, was the most active. The stock opened under pressure at 67½ and declined to 67 at the close, a net decline of 1.

Smelters was moderately active and continued to give evidence of steady accumulation and a diminishing floating supply, while the general undertone of the stock appears to be very strong.

Other issues on the list were as follows:

Dom. Glass 59, unchanged; Quebec 19, unchanged; Steel of Canada 71, down ½; Breweries 181, down 2; Mont. Power, 94, unchanged; Loco., 82; Tucketts 46 to 45, down 1; Brazilian 57½ to 57¼, down ¾; Brompton 63, unchanged; Smelters 31, up ½; Riordon 140, down 1; Laurentide 217, down 1; Spanish preferred 107, down 1; and Steamships preferred 85, down ⅛.

IMPERIAL TOBACCO ISSUE

Special Star Cable.

LONDON, July 30.—It is proposed to raise fresh capital for the Imperial Tobacco Company of Great Britain. The method to increase the capital to $165,000,000 is by the creation of nine million new shares of $5 each. The expansion is due to the increase consumption of tobacco since the war, to which smoking by women has greatly contributed

LONDON MONEY MARKET

LONDON, July 30.—Closing money 2 7-8 per cent; discount rates short bills 3 7-16 to 3 1-2 per cent; three months bills 3 9-16 to 3 5-8 per cent. Gold premiums at Lisbon 110.00.

Investigation of operations of Pacific Coast oil companies by the Federal Trade Commission is provided for in a Senate resolution introduced by Senator Poindexter, Washington.

GREATEST PROGRESS AHEAD, SAYS MR. GARY

Special to The Star.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—"If the people of this country have sense to take advantage of their opportunities there is no question that the greatest progress in the history of any country is ahead of us." Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, was quoted as saying in an interview today.

Regarding reports that the European financial situation is critical Gary said: "If bankers says so, I would subordinate my opinion to theirs. The question of rates of exchange is serious, possibly, but I would not characterize it as dangerous. It seems to me that difficulty ought to be overcome."

Increase in the corporation's earnings during the June quarter, compared with the previous three months, was accepted today as indicating revival of the steel trade is well under way, and that this improvement would continue through the year.

NEW HIGH FOR FUNDS; FRANCS-POUNDS DROP

While there was comparatively little business put through in the market for New York funds here this morning, the tone was extremely strong, and the rate once more advanced to a new high level. Shortly before noon, the sale of a block of funds established the market at the record price of 4 17-32 per cent. premium, after the rate had been holding at the nominal level of 4 7-16 per cent. This compares with yesterday's high level of 4 9-32 per cent., or an advance of ¼ of 1 per cent.

The market for funds is still extremely dull, but indicating great firmness, with the result that funds are expected to very closely approximate the 5 per cent. premium level within the next few days, unless some presently unforeseen factors crop up, such as large settlements across the border that would tend to ease the position slightly.

The sterling exchange market was inclined to easiness, with the rate on demand quoted at 4.34¾, and cables 4.35½, as compared with the early morning level of 4.35½ for demand and 4.36¼ for cables. Francs were weak opening at 7.33 for cheques and dropping to 7.36½ around noon, and cables opening at 7.31 and dropping to 7.34½, thus making a new low. Lires were also easier at 8.62 to 8.63 for demand and 8.60 to 8.62 for cables.

Other exchanges were as follows: Guilders demand, 37½, and cables 37⅝. Swiss cables, 5.53; peseta cables 19.18; Stockholm cables, 24.90; mark cables, 6⅝, and Vienna cables 3.

Probably the most interesting incident of the New York foreign exchange market, however, was the continued fall in the German mark. Two weeks ago it was 8¾ cents to the reichsmark, as against a parity of 23.8. Last week it dropped to 6¾ cents; now it is down to between 6 and 6⅝ cents. This depreciation is equivalent to about 70 per cent. This is hardly surprising, however, in view of the payments to other markets which Germany has for the future.

Brazilian exchange on London was also off slightly this morning being down 1-32 pence to 14 9-16 pence.

Cattle Trade Brisk, and Prices Holding

The offerings of live stock at the Canadian Pacific Stock Yards this morning amounted to 150 cattle, 500 sheep and lambs, 950 hogs, and 600 calves.

The tone of the market was firm, and the yards were cleaned of all stock offered. Prices of butchers' bull were a shade off, and the best class were conspicuous by their absence. What were available sold at $7.50 to $8.50 for the best, and $6 to $7.50 for poorer grades per 100 pounds. Butchers' cows per 100 pounds were quoted at $6.50 to $9.50 for the best, for which there was a heavy demand, while good quality were $5.50 to $6.50, and canners down to $5 per 100 pounds. Grass calves were $7.50 per 100 pounds, while milk-fed were higher at $15 to $17 per 100 pounds. Sheep were $8 per 100 pounds, and lambs sold at $16 per 100 pounds. It is predicted that they will be lower next week by a least one dollar per 100 pounds. Choice select hogs off cars were in active demand, at $24 per 100 pounds for the best selects, while others were down to $20 per 100 pounds, but the demand for this class of stuff was not keen.

Opinions from Wall Street

Laidlaw & Co.—Steel report is considerably better than had been anticipated and should serve to revive confidence in market, which has perhaps been drooping little of late.

Logan & Bryan wire Greenshields & Co.—Believe desire to release holdings of shares of companies that have enhanced materially in values since early part of current year will be more pronounced for a while—at least and therefore thinks it better part of wisdom to reduce long lines of industrial stocks.

Miller & Co., wire Fairbanks Gosselin & Co.—Great many people seem to think that money will if anything work closer as we approach harvest tendency generally, however, seems to look for smaller markets for a while.

Pynchon & Co. wire Craig, Luther & Irvine.—On decided recessions would continue to favor steel, copper and equipment issues.

E. and C. Randolph.— W. W. Price says: While I view with anxiety these final reactions in culmination of this market it does not appear to me that it will reach its full development until U. S. Steel, the real leader of market, has responded to speculative fervor and activity which have characterized so many of industrial issues on board, and I look for this stock to advance before market has finally culminated.

Post & Flagg.—The short interest in steel is estimated at anywhere from 600,000 to one million shares, and if they ever start to cover there will be some fun here. The market is more two-sided and the best judges advise the purchase on dips for the time being.

Horneblower & Weeks wire O'Brien & Williams: If there is no response to the steel statement and to the improved technical condition resulting from yesterday's selling, bears will gain courage and become bolder in their attacks on the market.

Post and Flagg—Fact that money loaned near close yesterday at 9 p.c. shows that there is just barely enough if not quite enough money to go around here. I have called attention to this fact right along, and think eventually it is going to cause break in market for these high interest rates tire people out by degrees

BEAR SLAM ONLY PARTLY SUCCESSFUL

NEW YORK, July 30.—Stocks largely repeated yesterday's performance, opening strong but reacting sharply in the first hour and rallying in the second.

It was said that the better feeling created by the Steel statement was more than offset by fears of money stringency. The announcement that the Federal Reserve Board went into session again today hung like a Damocles sword over the market, the fear being created that some interference with loans was possible if not probable.

The notable exception to the weakness was noticed in the tobacco group. These advanced to new high levels. United Cigar Stores after opening at 214 to 215 dropped back to 212 but in the early afternoon went to 219. Retail Cigar Stores was a very active feature selling off from 107⅝ to 106, but later advancing to 109⅝. Tobacco Prods. in the early market fell from 110 to 108½ but later went to 112. Sumatra ranged from 107⅜ to 106 to 107⅛.

The action of U. S. Steel was watched with much interest and as expected the opening was strong at 112⅞ to 113⅛, but in the general reactionary tone it fell away to 110½ and on the later improvement went to 111¾. Crucible was 140⅜ to 135 to 138. Beth. Steel B. 101 to 97⅝ to 98⅝; Midvale, 57½ to 56⅛; and Republic 97⅝ to ⅜ to ⅝. Nova Scotia Steel was dull at 85 to 83.

Other features were: United Food 86 to 84⅝ to 86⅞; Studebaker, 113 to 109¼ to 110¾. Southern Pac. 105⅞ to 106 to 105¼; Sinclair Oil, 61½ to 59⅞ to 60½; Rubber, 125½ to 124 to 126⅝; Royal Dutch, 96½ to 94⅛ to 95¼; Reading, 89 to 88 to ⅝; Pan. Am 115⅛ to 112½ to 115; Ohio Cities Gas, 57½ to 57; Mex. Pet., 192 to 188⅛ to 191¾; M. O. P. 35⅝ to 34½; Marine, 63¼ to 61 to 62¾; preferred 120 to 118⅛ to 119; Keystone, 102⅝ to 100¼; Kelly Spring. 135⅝ to 133; Alcohol, 142½ to 139 to 141; Gen. Motors, 227 to 223 to 228; Baldwin, 117½ to 113⅝ to 115½; A. I. C. 111 to 107⅝ to 108⅛; Union Pac. 132; C. P. R. 161 to 160⅛ to ⅛; Texas Oil 268; New Haven, 39⅝; Leather, 113¼; Anaconda 74⅞, Smelters, 84⅝, and Stutz 118.

Stocks derived much of their strength at the outset from the favorable quarterly steel statement. The initial transaction in United States Steel comprised a block of 4,500 shares at an advance of virtually one point. Related issues were one to almost two points higher with oils and motors and tobaccos supplemented yesterday's gains. There was an active inquiry for rails. Reading and Texas and Pacific displaying special activity.

As a group tobaccos still acted best and Cigar Stores made a new record high at 214, up 1, while Retail Stores Corporation also went into new high ground at 107, up ⅝.

Early promise of strength was speedily dissipated, prices breaking sharply before mid-day. Declines were concurrent with Washington advices that the federal reserve board was again in session and that action to curtail speculative operations might be recommended. Reactions of two to five points were recorded by leaders, notably United States Steel, Crucible Steel Mexican Petroleum Marine common, Atlantic Gulf, American International, American Tobacco, Maxwell, Stutz and General Motors, American Sugar and Industrial Alcohol, Standard rails losing 1 to 2 points. Call money opened at six to 6½ per cent.

U.S. STEEL EARNINGS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

NEW YORK, July 30.—United States Steel Corporation's quarterly statement, which was made public after the close of the market yesterday, while not one that would arouse any great enthusiasm, at least indicated that conditions were probably somewhat improved during the second quarter of the year as compared with the first three months. Total earnings after deducting usual expenses, including federal income and war excess profits taxes, amounted to $34,331,301, as compared with $33,513,384 in the first quarter, an increase of $817,917. Earnings in the second quarter of 1918 amounted to $62,557,391. Net income for the three months amounted to $23,324,106, while surplus was $5,308,587. Net earnings for the first quarter were $22,874,429, and surplus $4,822,316.

Earnings for the half-year were $67,844,685, as compared with $119,518,815 in 1918, a decrease of $51,674,130. Total earnings for first and second quarter of each year, 1912 to 1919, follow:

Year	First Quarter	Second Quarter

Regular dividends of 1¾ per cent on the preferred and 1¼ on the common were declared.

Press Opinions on N.Y. Situation

Times. — The sinking spell which stocks experienced for an hour yesterday, and the subsequent lack of real rallying power had a direct connection with the credit situation. It was not so much the fact that call loans secured by industrial collateral had a harder tone than for several days past as the sentimental influence of rumors that the Federal Reserve Board was considering the money market, which caused heavy selling. The reserve board's meeting in Washington proved to be a routine affair and dispatches received afterwards said that the stock market loans, in which the board expressed a great deal of interest a few weks ago, had not been up for serious study.

Sun:—The specific reason for the recessions was ascribed to apprehension regarding the future influence of the money market with an unauthenticated report that the August bulletin of the Federal Reserve Board would announce definite action to reduce the amount of credit available for speculative purposes. The meeting of the Federal Reserve Board at 11 o'clock yesterday morning was well advertised on news tickers over brokers' wires.

World:—The credit situation will undoubtedly continue to be the chief factor in the market, but this does not mean that there will be any great volume of investment selling. The gambling element probably will be held under control and that may prevent the repetition of some of the spectacular performances of the last six weeks, but with all the favorable developments have taken place a serious setback in the investment markets is scarcely to be expected.

Tribune:—It was again a case of waiting in the stock market. The trading element, with its mind focussed on the steel statement due after the close, was content to let prices drift. The market was somewhat more active than on Monday, and dealings got back above the million-share level. But the price trend was most erratic, stocks displayed pronounced weakness for a time in the forenoon, then recovering partially in the afternoon. The closing was highly irregular, but the undertone was firm.

Financial Men in the Public Eye

E. H. GARY,

Chairman of U.S. Steel, whose repeatedly optimistic utterances have been a feature of the market.

Topics of the Street

At the opening of the Montreal Stock Exchange this morning, all the earmarks of a good market were evident, supported by the strength in Wall street, but it was not long before the break in the latter market gave local activity the quitus.

The result was that business lagged and total transactions for the morning only exceeded yesterday's by 216 shares, the total being 4,744 shares.

Iron was the most active stock on the list the total being 1,235 shares. In the rest of the active issues, totals were:

B.C. Fishing 740; Spanish River 676; Asbestos 236; Tucketts 235; Steamships preferred 1'0; Smelters 135; Brazilian 145; Steel of Canada 130; and Breweries 100.

Some renewal of interest and strength in Spanish River common today was viewed as reflecting gossip about the position of the newsprint trade in the United States and the intimation that it expects not lower, but if anything, higher prices for newsprint after the government regulations are withdrawn around the first of October.

Spanish River, with its large output shipped entirely to the American market, would stand to benefit directly if such expectations are realized.

The news received by the market this week concerning Dominion Steel is not of a nature to induce buying. This was reflected in the price during the earlier dealings today.

While the position of the American steel stocks is showing continuous improvement, as indicated by the quarterly statement of the U. S. Steel Corporation, the outlook for Canadian plants seems obscure and the only prominent issue which has not reflected this is Steel of Canada, which has held its ground well.

The best safeguard the public could have against a period of wild and extravagant bullish inflation of stock prices in Wall Street lies in the circumstances that there is a well defined and striking conflict of opinion between bull and bear forces.

In fact the two are waging a bloodless battle with the result that efforts of the bulls to boost prices still higher are meeting with determined opposition.

A few months ago prices soared uncontested apart from the orderly conversion of paper profits into cash or the shifting of speculative accounts from one field to another. Everybody was bullish then, but now it is different. The result is that large short interests are being built up. This is a safeguard against breaks or disturbances which must tend to stabilize prices and make for greater security of the market as a whole.

The demand for Asbestos common which is forcing it to the border of new high price ground is accompanied by some very positive assertions that the company will increase its dividend in the fall.

One per cent might appear a very fair increase but the bulls are not modest and claim that it will be a two per cent jump, which means from 5 to 7 per cent.

It might be interesting to note in this connection that the preferred, while non-cumulative is a participating issue, ranking equally with the common as to dividends after 5 per cent on the junior issue.

This would mean that that with the common on a 7 per cent basis the preferred would receive 8 per cent and would enable an additional $60,000 for common and a further $80,000 for preferred dividends, or a total additional disbursement of $140,000 or $530,000 all told.

Although the dividend record of the company only dates back a little over two years as to preferred stock and from the beginning of the present year on the common, it is urged by the bulls that the company is enjoying as good, if not a bettter year, than the preceding fiscal period, which was a record under the present corporate state.

The present market for the company's product, it is claimed, is nothing like what it will be when the European market gets back to even a fair demand. Germany was a great market for asbestos before the war and it is expected that in time the demand will revive. The same applies to other European countries as soon as their present financial disabilities are alleviated to some extent.

The recent new high price range reached by Canadian Cottons reflects opinion in the Street that the company will increase its dividend in the autumn, probably to 7 per cent against the 6 per cent now paid.

This appears to be a period of great dividend expectations, more particularly in the textile group. Both Dom. Textile and Can. Cottons yield around 6.60 per cent on the present dividend positions and how far this may have gone towards anticipating future action remains to be seen.

Wabasso Cotton has gone to a price to yield very little over 6 per cent so that if the ticker tells the truth it seems certain to be in the dividend news soon.

Canadian Cottons has been paying 6 per cent since April, 1918, and started on 4 per cent in 1916.

SMELTERS POOL ABLE TO RETIRE

In connection with the improvement in the market for Consolidated Smelters shares, which has been marked in the past few days, it was stated that one proof of this was that the supporting pool, which operated in the market at various times within a period of nearly a year, had wound up its affairs successfully now that the market has shown such marked ability to take care of itself.

It will be recalled that Toronto unloaded all its stock on the Montreal market during the war and made every effort to bear the price to get it back. War conditions operated to depress the company's shares with the result that a large quantity of stock accumulated for sale in the hands of local brokers at the war minimum price. This was estimated at anywhere from five to ten thousand shares at various times but when the supporting pool was formed it is estimated that it amounted to between five and six thousand shares.

Before the minimum prices were abolished by the stock exchange and shortly before the company decided to make an issue of $3,000,000 debentures it was decided to form the pool, buy all the stock offering at the minimum price of 25 and thus improve the technical position of the shares.

It must be obvious that those who participated had the greatest confidence in the future of the enterprise. Its chief drawbacks had been occasioned by labor troubles, not only at its own works, but in the mines from which it draws its supplies of fuel.

Large war undertakings in the interest of the Imperial Government and the supply of war materials caused heavy capital outlay, from which returns were somewhat slow in being received.

Realizing that the company would eventually emerge successfully, the pool assumed the responsibility for the market, and at one time, it is computed, held as high as 20,000 shares. Its holdings have been gradually reduced as the market improved and more public faith was evinced. Lately it was decided that it would be unnecessary to continue operations, and the market is now in the hands of the public, which is evidently impressed, judging by the volume of buying.

WHEAT ONLY AFFECTED BY LATEST PROPOSAL

Special to The Star from Our Own Correspondent.

OTTAWA, July 30.—The decision of the Government in respect to the wheat policy will affect the grain exchanges in the handling of wheat, but not other grains. Open trading in wheat and selling of futures have been stopped, and this ban will likely continue till the season's wheat crop has been disposed of. The dealers, however, will not be put out of business.

The wheat Purchasing Board which is being created will buy from them, and while controlling the crop and fixing the price, will, doubtless, utilize or co-operate with the grain dealers' organization.

WINNIPEG, July 30.—Oats opened unchanged for July at 92⅝. September ⅛ lower at 90, and December ⅝ down at 86⅝.

Victorian offerings comprised 2,600 bales, greasy crossbreds selling at from 17d. to 48d.

Adelaide varieties, 908 bales, included greasy crossbred lambs and pieces, the best selling at 33½d. and 28½d., respectively.

New Zealand was represented by 1215 bales of greasy medium crossbreds. There was active bidding by the home trade and French buyers, the latter securing a majority of the offerings. The best sold at 31d.

CORN DECLINED ON BETTER CROP REPORTS

CHICAGO, July 30.—Corn declined in value today largely as a result of scattered rains and a prospect of more. The chief selling was on the part of houses with country connections. Trade, however, lacked volume.

Opening prices which ranged from ⅝ cents to 3⅝ cents lower, with September 193 to 196 and December 169½ to 171, were followed by moderate rallies from the bottom figures of the initial range.

Oats eased down with corn. After opening unchanged to ⅜ off including September at 80 to 80¼ the market continued to sag. Provisions were upheld by renewal of strength in the hog market. Weakness of grain exercisd only a temporary bearish influence.

Ont. Crop Outlook is Showing Improvement

The following is a summary of reports made by agricultural representatives to the Ontario Department of Agriculture this week.

The outlook for spring grains has been much improved by recent rains which were fairly general, but did not reach all sections. The showers were much needed, as barley and oats had headed with very short straw, which in some field stood only a foot or two high. In some cases the rains, unfortunately, came too late to have much effect. The harvesting of barley has begun in some counties, and in some cases the mower has had to be used. Odd fields of early oats have also been cut, some on the green side, to escape the grasshopper. A light yield of both grain and straw is expected for both of these crops.

Fall wheat is nearly all cut, and mostly in the barn, and while threshing results range from fifteen to thirty-five bushels per acre the general result will be about an average. Norfolk reports a larger acreage than usual being fallowed for fall wheat.

There is likely to be a good general yield of corn. Early sown has made tremendous growth, but that put in later is not so promising.

TO SELL SURPLUS FOOD

WASHINGTON, July 30.—The House last night adopted a resolution reported out by one of its war investigating committees, requesting Secretary of War Baker to place on sale without delay surplus food products held by the War Department and valued at $120,000,000.

Notes on 'change

After a short and merry spurt for nine days, trading in Winnipeg wheat futures were suddenly cancelled there yesterday by order of the board. Promptly on the opening of the market President Anderson of the exchange announced that the grain exchange board would permit no trading in wheat futures, and the initial bid of 2.46 3-8 for October delivery and 2.42 1-2 for December represented the only speculation in wheat futures of the day's session.

The Free Press Bulletin says today: "Providing the Dominion Government decides on a fixed price and a closed market for wheat, it is regarded as probable that the Wheat Expert company, with James Stewart at the head, will be appointed to purchase and handle this year's crop."

Official figure wheat close made two-forty-five yesterday's closing, owing to a dispute as to the trades made today which were cancelled. All trades up to yesterday's close must stand the council orders. Daily average trading since opening small not average over fifty thousand bushels.

MORE ACTIVE STEEL TRADE NOW EVIDENT

NEW YORK, July 30.—The Iron Age tomorrow will say:

Increasing operation of blast furnaces and steel plants is still the rule, and the tendency is rather emphasized in the Pittsburgh district. The Carnegie Steel Company is now operating 46 out of 59 blast furnaces, having started up 15 in the past month. Its steel ingot capacity is now operating at 75 to 80 persecent.

What is notable throughout the industry is that unfilled orders are accumulating in a mid-summer month often marked by slackening.

Higher prices have become effective in a few lines. Most of the mills have announced a $5 per ton advance on all wire products for export, but in the case of Canada have confined the advance to wire rods, which are now $57.

Several independent sheet mills advanced black sheets $2 per ton on July 28, and galvanized sheets $4.00. Three other sheet mills are practically sold up for the year. On some automobile sheets sales for the first half of next year one or two mills realized $5 per ton over today's prices. The sold-up condition of the bar mills is emphasized, but prices stay where they were.

While some steel companies have sold about 150 per cent of their capacity in July, their bookings continue unbalanced, being less than capacity in plates, the larger size bars and in all railroad products. Meanwhile the inevitable day of railroad buying is nearer, with indications that on some products prices will be higher than at the time of the Railroad Administration's great refusal.

The activities of the labor unions have been most marked lately at Cleveland, Chicago, and in western Pennsylvania outside of Pittsburg.

BAR SILVER STEADY

Bar silver showed but slight change today in New York at $1.07 an ounce and 55 5-16d. in London.

New Can. Marconi Co. Financing Announced

Announcement is made that the annual general meeting of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Co. of Canada, Ltd., will be held at the head office here on September 17, at 11 a.m.

At this meeting, shareholders will be asked to consider and, if deemed advisable, ratify a by-law to reduce the capital stock of the company from $5,000,000 to $3,750,000, by reducing the par value of the outstanding stock from $5 to $2.50 per share, and authorizing an additional issue of 500,000 shares of new stock at the lower par value.

EGG CONSUMPTION WAS NEVER EQUALLED

The domestic egg market has been very firm lately, and some advances at country points are noted, owing to the unprecedented consumptive demand absorbing all offerings. Several cars of American eggs have arrived in Toronto, however, costing 49c laid down there, which have relieved the situation to a certain extent. There have also been some arrivals of prairie province eggs in this city. With this relief whilst jobbing prices are so far unchanged there is an easier feeling.

Reports generally from the country state production is increasing. The exchange rate between Canada and the United States has again fallen, which will materially affect the cost of eggs and other products from the United States and make it more difficult to import at reasonable prices.

The local market continues firm with prices for specials jobbing at 62, extras 57-58c, and firsts 51-52c.

Further inquiries have been received from Great Britain, but prices are reported below holders' ideas. Consumptive demand continued good for the higher grades.

In the poultry market receipts of live broilers and spring ducks show a material increase, particularly the former. Old roosters are also coming more freely. Arrivals of fowl are less. The price for broilers has been reduced from 1c to 2c per pound, and 2c more is being offered for fowl. Demand continues good and absorbs the offerings so far. Sales of live fowls have been made at 30c to 35c and milk-fed broilers at 42 to 44c.

STAHLBERG HEADS FINNISH REPUBLIC

Reprinted From Yesterday's Post-script Edition.

HELSINGFORS, July 29.—The defeat of General Mannerheim, the strong man of Finland, in the presidential elections, strikes a blow at the Russian cause and is regarded as a victory for Bolshevism. Karl Stahlberg has been elected the first president of the Finnish Republic.

The election was devoid of excitement, since the arrangement made among the Social Democrats, agrarians and progressive parties rendered the result a foregone conclusion. The voting by the deputies of the Diet was Stahlberg, 143; Mannerheim, 50; Tanner, Social Democrat, 1, Relander, 1.

Mr. Procope, a member of the National Swedish party declared that the vote did not represent the nation. General Mannerheim unquestionably would have been elected by a direct vote of the people. It is doubtful whether Mr. Stahlberg can combine the elements of order. The new president is 54 years old. He is a former professor of Low University, Helsingfors. He became Minister of Commerce in 1914, and latterly was president of the supreme. He is known as a cautious party man and is generally respected.

General Mannerheim's supporters do not believe he will remain commander-in-chief, but if he resigns, the break-up of Finn White Guards is inevitable.

WOULD IMPEACH FORD WITNESS

Klingensmith Suffered Lapse of Memory on All Questions

Special to The Star by United Press.

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 30.—Frank L. Klingensmith, vice-president and general manager of the Ford Motor Company, on the stand here today in the Ford-Tribune libel suit, said he never had heard Henry Ford make antagonistic remarks concerning the Government.

Klingensmith suffered lapse of memory on all questions following, and Attorney Stevenson announced his intention of impeaching him.

Asked concerning the Ford interview in the Chicago Tribune, which appeared June 21, 1916, Klingensmith said he remembered the general conversation but that his memory failed him as to what actually was said except that it was not as it appeared in the newspaper.

In direct examination Klingensmith said Ford never opposed the government taxation program, but refused to "let us join any organization for such a program."

NEW YORK SAYS LEWIS GETS $2,500 AND BRITTON $3000

Special to The Star from Own Correspondent.

NEW YORK, July 30. — James Buckley, who has been mixed up with things pugilistic for a good many years, but who has recently been devoting his entire time to his theatrical affairs, has decided to once more invade the pugilistic shores and stage a championship contest between Jack Britton and Ted (Kid) Lewis.

Buckley, it is reported, has signed the pair for a fifteen-round decision at Montreal, Canada, on the night of August 26. For his service the welterweight champion will receive $3,500, while Lewis will draw down $2,500.

For many years Buckley had charge of the affairs of Gunboat Smith. Buckley also was in charge of the Sharkey-A.C. in this city for a good many years and also staged the championship battle between Benny Leonard and Johnny Kilbane in Philadelphia two years ago, when Kilbane was knocked out in three rounds.

CHAMPAGNE GETS FIVE YEAR TERM

Was Found Guilty of Forty-Six Charges of Forgery

Joseph Eugene Champagne, found guilty of no less than forty-six charges of forgery, was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary by Judge Choquet this afternoon in the Court of Sessions.

Champagne, a former promoter of theatres and ex-manager of the Chicago firm of Wolfe, Sawyer and Heller, committed forgeries totalling about $40,000.

BACKWARD RACES CAUSE BOLSHEVISM

This is Theory of Middleton Hope, Addressing the Rotary Club

That Christ's message of democracy and freedom was bearing fruit in an increased desire among the masses of the white races for a fuller life, and that this desire for a higher standard of living was retarded by the backward races of the earth, resulting in the present widespread industrial unrest, variously termed Bolshevism, Syndicalism, and I.W.W.-ism, was a statement made by Middleton Hope, chartered accountant of this city, and expert on economics, in speaking at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club at Freeman's.

Neither capital nor labor was responsible for the present unrest, said Mr. Middleton Hope, but the trouble was primarily due to the fact that the international ramifications of capital nowadays led to the backwardness of the Eastern races having corresponding retarding effect upon the living standard of the masses in the western world. The speaker admitted, however, that there was considerable antagonism between capital and labor, and declared that labor was not producing one-quarter of its former output today.

Mr. Hope thought the war had merely accentuated the unrest, which was manifest before the outbreak of hostilities in the formation of Socialist societies and the woman's suffrage movement.

The Rotarians were startled at a number of Mr. Hope's statements, among which were:

"Increased remuneration for the worker leaves him worse off than before."

"Watering stock does not increase cost except in case of a monopoly."

Explaining the former remark, Mr. Hope said that with higher remuneration additional interest had to be paid on the extra capital invested, causing a corresponding increase in the cost of the article, which had to be borne by the consumer.

The speaker was taken up on the second statement in the discussion which followed his address, but stuck to his contention that where a monopoly existed watered stock did not increase the cost to the public.

Rotarian W. Allan asked the speaker if our day school education with its meticulous attention to the affairs of Mary, Queen of Scots, and the exploits of divers robber kings, to the neglect of economic subjects, was not responsible in part for the present industrial unrest, and Mr. Hope agreed that such was the case.

RAID PROCEDURE IS CALLED ILLEGAL

Reprinted From Yesterday's Post-script Edition.

The procedure followed in the raids which have taken place for months past in the "red light" district was challenged this morning by Leopold Houle, who appeared this morning before Recorder Geoffrion in the Recorder's Court on behalf of several women caught in the raids.

Mr. Houle raised the objection that most, if not all, of the arrests made in connection with the raids were illegal, and following his statement he presented declinatory exceptions in three cases, asking that the clients on behalf of whom the exceptions were presented be liberated forthwith and the accusations against them be dismissed with costs.

Mr. Houle maintained that the arrests were illegal for the following three reasons: The arrests were made without any warrant; the appearance before the Court of those made under such circumstances was compulsory, therefore illegal and void; the constables who made the arrests had no previous information as to the nature of the alleged offence of the accused personally and therefore these arrests could not be legally made on sight alone.

Recorder Geoffrion reserved judgment and said he would render his decision on August 6.

GERMANYS STATUS IN LABOR WORLD

May Enter Labor Conference Without Forming Part of Nations League

BULGARIA'S POSITION

Germans Charged with Attempting Trade Relations with Soviet Russia

By Associated Press.

PARIS, July 30.—An official report of the meeting yesterday of the peace commission of the Chamber of Deputies says that the commission heard Stephen Pichon, the foreign minister, who was assisted by Jules Cambon, and M. Fromageot.

M. Pichon replied to various questions of an international character.

The Foreign Minister and M. Claveille, Minister of Public Works, explained conditions with regard to international labor. They pointed out that Germany, without forming part of the Society of Nations, could enter into the conference of labor provided for in the peace treaty, on the demand of the conference as accepted by the allied and associated states.

The commission then heard a report on the military clauses of the treaty, which recommended strengthening of the control and means of investigation, which articles 203 and 213 gives the society of nations. The report gave rise to a prolonged debate.

Premier Clemenceau will be heard today on the question of the left bank of the Rhine, Louis Barthou, former Foreign Minister, will read a general report on the treaty on Monday.

BULGARIA'S POSITION.

Continued consideration of the Bulgarian peace treaty was on today's program of the Supreme Council, which held no meeting this morning, but met this afternoon and again took up the terms to be offered Bulgaria.

The commission of inter-allied Powers named to consider the revision of the treaty of 1839, involving territorial and other questions affecting Belgium and Holland, held its initial meeting here today. Representatives of the Dutch Government arrived in Paris today to attend the sessions, at which they, with representatives of Belgium, will be heard on the various questions to be brought up.

GERMANS BUSY IN RUSSIA.

A German delegation went to Russia recently and returned with elaborate and alluring economic offers, the Echo de Paris stated today. Russia, the paper said, is conducting a campaign to effect an alliance with Germany.

Cecil B. Harmsworth, Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, told the British House of Commons on July 17 that the Government believed Germany was attempting to establish trade relations with Soviet Russia and that a German mission has visited Russia or was about to do so. He said he had no exact information on the subject.

HON. WALTER SCOTT JAILED OVER LINE

Arrested by Immigration Officer, But ex-Premier Broke Jail

MAHNOMEN, Minn., July 30.—At Pembina, North Dakota, today, en route from Victoria, B.C., via winnipeg to Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, Hon. Walter Scott, ex-Premier of Saskatchewan, was peremptorily ordered from the Northern Pacific train at ten o'clock this forenoon, by U.S. Immigration Officer E. R. Russell, and kept locked up during three and a half hours until nearly 2 p.m. in a strongly barred cell.

Mr. Scott alleges that he then liberated himself by breaking through the plastered wall into a hall which led to a stairway into a ground floor office and thence it was simple to open a window and regain freedom. A jagged hole in the wall confirms this assertion.

Officer Russell later found Scott in the Northern Pacific telegraph office, said he should be arrested, went out, and returned together with a man whom he said was a constable, but changed his mind on being shown a draft of a telegram which Scott was filing, addressed to Sir Robert Borden, Premier of Canada, regarding the incident.

At four o'clock, A. R. Davidson, of Messrs. Davidson and McRae, Winnipeg, motored into Pembina, going south. Mr. Davidson kindly offered his services. He said he would take Mr. Scott back to Winnipeg or elsewhere. Scott expressed a wish to go to Noyes to take the Soo Line evening train on to Detroit, but Officer Russell forbade this. His order was that Scott must return to Winnipeg and obtain a passport.

DOUBTED SCOTT'S STATEMENT.

Mr. Scott's statement is to the effect that Officer Russell became angry and overbearing over the perfectly truthful answers which Mr. Scott made to the officer's questions at the outset. He alleges that he told the officer that he was a Canadian citizen, that he had no fixed residence during three years past, and that if he now followed any business it was farming. Officer Russell professed to believe that these answers were not truthful, and in the end, as stated, ordered Mr. Scott from the train, and locked him in the cell.

It is understood here that regardless of Officer Russell's threat to have him again arrested if he attempted to do other than return to Canada, Scott made his way to Noyes and boarded a south bound Soo Line train, presumably for Detroit.

Sir Robert Borden has been requested already to make a protest to Washington against the unmerited indignity to which ex-Premier Scott was subjected.

CANADIAN FLIERS' REMARKABLE FEAT

Broke Flying Record from Cairo to London by Ten Hours

GREAT ENDURANCE

Mission Was One of the Utmost Urgency—Warmly Praised

By Canadian Press.

OTTAWA, July 30.—How two Canadian airmen broke the flying record from London to Cairo is related in an interesting record of the trip which Lieut. Harry Yates, of the Royal Air Force, has forwarded from Egypt to his parents in Ottawa.

Lieut. Yates and Lieut. James Vance of Toronto, undertook the trip on a few hours' notice. Their mission was one of great urgency, by reason of disturbed conditions in the near east, and time was of utmost importance—hence the use of airplane. They left London on the evening of June 21st, and reached Cairo shortly after dark on the evening of the 26th, having broken the existing London-Cairo record by ten and one half hours.

They spent two of the five days on forced landings due to petrol trouble, so that their actual flying time for the three thousand miles was just three days. They averaged from two and one-half to three hours' sleep per night and one hot meal a day, and were very greatly fatigued at the journey's end.

PRAISED BY ALLENBY.

After their arrival and safe delivery of their distinguished passengers, they were tendered a dinner by Brigadier-General Salmono and complimented by General Allenby.

Lieut. Yates writes:

"We both thought it was over several times. Two-thirds of the route is over country which is mountainous right to the water's edge and a forced landing means a certain crash. We had three forced landings with petrol trouble, and, as luck would have it, it was my trick at the wheel on each occasion.

The first (which aged me at least two years) happened just after we entered the Gulf of Corinth. There were mountains on three sides and the Gulf on the fourth. I managed to get down into the bed of a mountain torrent and actually got away with nothing worse than a broken tail skid; I thanked my lucky stars that I knew Handley-Page's as I do."

WHEAT ORDER HIT WINNIPEG 'CHANGE LIKE BOMBSHELL

Instructions to Stop Option Trading Created Wild Scene

DEALERS CONFER

Furious Speculation as to What Government Order Means

Reprinted From Yesterday's Post-script Edition.

Special to Star from Own Correspondent.

WINNIPEG, July 29.—Like a bombshell came the Government order to the directors of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange to immediately stop all option trading in wheat. It was ten forty-five when the order was received and the last quotation was two forty-six and a half and the market was on the jump, partially in response to three dollar wheat quotations at Minneapolis. There was intense excitement in a moment when the caller stepped on the board and read the Government wire.

Grain houses, elevator managers and mill men hurriedly consulted the exchange and the management at once went into secret session.

The wire is supposed to relate only to option trading as the cash wheat is Government wheat bought on the old guarantee for the Allies. There is furious speculation as to exactly what the Government order at this stage does mean. Some maintain it is the logical result of the wild speculation disclosed since option market was resumed Monday week after two years' suspension.

The October delivery started at two-twenty and rapidly advanced to the forty-six and a half quotation today, and looked as if it would be two-sixty here before the market closed today.

There was a report that the Government feared the price would be put up to three dollars here and the Allied interests be held up for this amount, and the order to stop trading came to head this off, possibly meaning the Government plan to take over the crop at an agreed price and save the situation. Great excitement prevails among dealers.

LOCAL NEWSBOYS WANT TRADE UNION

Brewery Workers Met to Discuss Organization

Reprinted From Yesterday's Post-script Edition.

The newsboys of Montreal are the latest body of workers to desire entrance to the ranks of organized labor. Some 300 or 400 members of the Newsboys' Protective Association will gather at a mass meeting tomorrow evening at 3 Notre Dame street east, to arrange for the association's transformation into a trade union with international affiliation.

The brewery workers to the number of 600 met last night at 3 Notre Dame street east to organize. They were addressed by Mr. Corcoran, the organizer and by Messers. Girard, Biron, Walsh and Larose.

The marble workers and cigar makers are still on strike. In the case of the former the union officials declare that they are hourly expecting a settlement. The cigar makers however, are as far from a settlement as ever.

Railway shopmen all over Canada will be interested in an award affecting wages, hours and working conditions in the three divisions of the Federated Shop Trades in the United States, which will be made public this week. Negotiations between the Canadian division and the Railway War Board had been adjourned pending the announcement of the American award. The executive of the Canadian division with the exception of R. J. Johns, of Winnipeg, is in Washington conferring with labor leaders there. The American award will be used as a basis for the negotiations regarding wages and hours in the Canadian railway shops. The trouble that has been impending for some time in railway labor circles may be averted by the award, although until it is made public, the present delicate situation will be unchanged.

The milk drivers and dairy employes, local 448, will meet on Friday at 7.30 p.m. at the Labor Tempe. Their meetings take place regularly on the 1st and 3rd Fridays of each month.

FIRST PUBLICATION OF FAMOUS NOVELIST'S LAST BOOK — A GRIPPING TALE OF ADVENTURE IN THE SOU SEAS AND AMONG THE MYSTERIES OF CENTRAL AMERICA

And what plan was being broached around the corner of the ell by her men and Francis Morgan? Her mind strayed on, deaf to the suitor at her feet. Francis! Ah—she almost sighed and marveled. What of her self-known love for Geary? Why had this stranger Gringo so enamored her heart? Was she a wanton? Was it one man? Or another man? Or any man? No No! she was not fickle nor unfaithful. And yet . . . Perhaps it was because Francis and Henry were so much alike, and her poor, stupid, loving woman's heart failed properly to distinguish between them.

And yet—while it had seemed she would have followed Henry anywhere over the world, in any luck or fortune, it seemed to her now that she would follow Francis even farther. She did love Henry, her heart solemnly proclaimed. But also did she love Francis, and almost did she divine that Francis loved her—the fervor of his lips on hers in his prison cell was ineraseable; and there was a difference in her love for the two men that confused her powers of reason and almost drove her to the shameful conclusion that she, the only woman of the house of Solano, was a wanton!

A severe pinch of her flesh against Henry's ring, caused by the impassioned grasp of Torres, brought her back to him, so that she could hear his speech pouring in.

AN OFFER OF MARRIAGE.

"You have been the delicious thorn in my side, the spiked rowel of the spur forever prodding the sweetest and most poignant pangs of love into my breast. I have dreamed of you * * * and for you. And I have my own name for you. Ever the one name I have had for you: The Queen of my dreams. And you will marry me, my Leoncia. You will forget this mad Gringo, wso is as already dead. I shall be gentle, kind. I shall love you so that it will be impossible for the memory of him to arise between us. For myself, I shall not permit it. For you * * * I shall love you so that it will be impossible for the memory of him to arise between us and give you one moment's heart-hurt."

Leonica debated in a long pause that added to Torres' hope. She felt the need to temporize. If Henry were to be saved. * * * and had not Torres offered his services? Not lightly could she turn him away when a man's life might depend upon him.

"Speak—I am consuming!" Torres urged in a choking voice.

"Hush! Hush!" she said softly. "How can I listen to love from a live man when the man I loved is yet alive?"

"Loved! The past tense of it startled her. Likewise it started Torres, fanning his hopes to fairer flames. Almost was she his. She had said loved. She no longer bore love for Henry. She had loved him, but no longer. And she, a maid and woman of delicacy and sensibility, could not, of course, give name to her love for him while the other man still lived. It was subtle of her.

He prided himself on his own subtlety, and he flattered himself that he had interpreted her veiled thought aright. And . . . . . well, he resolved, he would see to it that the man who was to die at ten next morning should have neither reprieve nor rescue. The one thing clear, if he was to win Leoncia quickly, was that Henry Morgan should die quickly.

"We will speak of it no more now," he said with chivalric gentleness, as he gently pressed her hand, rose to his feet, and gazed down on her.

She returned a soft pressure of thanks with her own hand ere she released it and stood up.

TO SAVE HENRY.

"Come" she said, "we will join the others. They were planning how, or trying to find some plan, to save Henry Morgan."

The conversation of the group ebbed away as they joined it as if out of half-suspicion of Torres.

"Have you hit upon anything yet?" Leoncia asked.

Old Enrico, straight and slender and graceful as any of his sons, despite his age, shook his head.

"I have a plan, if you will pardon me," Torres began, but ceased at a warning glance from Alesandro, the eldest son.

On the walk, below the piazza, had appeared two scarecrows of beggar boys. Not more than ten years of age, by their size, they seemed much older when judged by the shrewdness of their eyes and faces. Each wore a single marvelous garment, so that between them it could be said they shared a shirt and pants. But such a shirt! And such pants!

The latter, man-size, of ancient duck, were buttoned around the lad's neck, the waist band reefed with knotted twine so as not to slip down over his shoulders. His arms were thrust through the holes where the side-pockets had been. The legs of the pants had been hacked off with a knife to suit his own diminutive length of limb. The tails of the man's shirt on the other boy dragged on the ground.

"Vamos!" Alesandro shouted fiercely at them to be gone.

But the boy in the pants gravely removed a stone which he had been carrying on top of his bare head, exposing a letter which had been thus carried. Alesandro leaned over, took the letter, and with a glance at the inscription passed it to Leoncia, while the boys began whinning for money. Francis, smiling despite himself, glanced at the spectacle of them, tossed them a few pieces of small silver, whereupon the shirt and the pants toddled away down the path.

The letter was from Henry, and Leoncia scanned it hurriedly. It was not precisely in farewell, for he wrote in the tenor of a man who never expected to die save by some inconceivable accident. Nevertheless on the chance of such inconceivable thing becoming possible, Henry did manage to say good-bye and to include a facetious recommendation to Leoncia not to forget Francis who was well worth remembering because he was so much like himself, Henry.

Leoncia's first impulse was to show the letter to the others, but the portion about Francis withstrained her.

HENRY HOPES ON.

"It's from Henry," she said, tucking the note into her bosom. "There is nothing of importance. He seems to have not the slightest doubt that he will escape somehow."

"We shall see that he does," Francis declared positively.

With a grateful smile to him, and with one of interrogation to Torres, Leoncia said:

"You were speaking of a plan, Senor Torres."

Torres smiled, twisted his mustache, and struck an attitude of importance.

"There is one way, the Gringo, Anglo-Saxon way, and it is simple, straight to the point. That is just what it is, straight to the point. We will go and take Henry out of jail in forthright, brutal and direct Gringo fashion. It is the one thing they will not expect. Therefore, it will succeed. There are enough unhanged rascals on the beach with which to storm the jail. Hire them. Pay them well, but only partly in advance, and the thing is accomplished."

Leoncia nodded eager agreement. Old Enrico's eyes flashed and his nostrils distended as if already sniffing gunpowder. The young men were taking fire from his example and all looked to Francis for his opinion or agreement. He shook his head slowly, and Leoncia uttered a sharp cry of disappointment.

"That way is hopeless," he said. "Why should all of you risk your necks in a madcap attempt like that, doomed to failure from the start?" As he talked, he strode across from Leoncia's side to the railing, in such a way as to be for a moment between Torres and the other man, and at the same time managed a warning look to Enrico and hissed. "As for Henry, it looks as if it were all up with him——"

"You mean to doubt me?" Torres bristled.

"Heavens man," Francis protested.

But Torres dashed on. "You mean that I am forbidden by you a man I have scarcely met, from the councils of the Solanos who are my oldest and most honored friends."

Old Enrico, who had not missed the rising wrath against Francis in Leoncia's face, succeeded in conveying a warning to her, ere, with a courteous gesture, he hushed Torres and began to speak

"There are no councils of the Solanos from which you are barred, Senor Torres. You are indeed an old friend of the family. Your late father and I were comrades, almost brothers. But that— and you will pardon an old man's judgment—does not prevent Senor Morgan from being right when he says your plan is hopeless. To storm the jail is truly madness. Look at the thickness of the walls. They could stand a siege of weeks. And yet, and I confess it, almost was I tempted when you first broached the idea. Now, when I was a young man, fighting the Indians in the high Cordilleras, there was a very case in point—Come, let us all be seated and comfortable, and I will tell you the tale . . . "

TORRES DEPARTS

But Torres, busy with many things, declined to wait, and with soothed, amicable feelings shook hands all around, briefly apologized to Francis, and departed astride his silver-saddled and silver-bridled horse for San Antonio. One of the things that busied him was the cable correspondence maintained between him and Thomas Regan's Wall Street office.

Having secret access to the Panamanian Government wireless station at San Antonio, he was thus able to relay messages to the cable station at Vera Cruz. Not alone was his relationship with Regan proving lucrative, but it was jibing in with his personal plans concerning Leoncia and the Morgans.

"What have you against Senor Torres that you should reject his plan and anger him?" Leoncia demanded of Francis.

(To Be Continued.)

Pass Resolution, However, of Admission and Excuse at Congress

By Associated Press.

Amsterdam, uly 30.—The work of the international trades union congress yesterday was hindered by a protracted discussion in committee of the old international organization, over the German declaration of the stand of German trade unions during the war. The Germans maintained an unrepentant attitude until Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor told them plainly that if it were continued it would be impossible for workers of others countries to retain relations with them in the future. The Germans thereupon somewhat relaxed.

The position of the various nations in the voting, places the British and Americans in an unfair situation. They represent together more than 8,000,000 workers among the 17,000,000 represented at the congress, but have only nine votes of the total of 27, which may be cast on motions.

The committee, on its return, reported as follows:

That the statement of Herr Sassenbach, (German Socialist) be incorporated in full; that the regrets expressed therein be registered; that the German delegation confirm frankly and openly the spirit of Sassenbach's declaration; that if the avowal be frank, open and satisfactory, the conference will proceed to the order of the day; and that it unsatisfactory, freedom of action be reserved."

Against all expectations the conference adopted the report without debate after M. Sassenbach in a few words confirmed the German declaration.

The main points of the resolution presented by M. Sassenbach follow:

The German trades union recognized that Germany acted wrongly in Belgium and always condemned atrocities committed; German occupation of Belgium and the deportation of Belgians was not done with the consent of the German workers, it was the conviction of the German workers that Germany was fighting a defensive war.

The German workers always had been opponents of war and armaments and never gave assent to the government's imperialism; if, at the beginning of the war, all had been known that now was known, if the workers had not been misled and betrayed by the government, the attitude of the workers and their leaders would have been different.

REJECT PROPOSAL TO ALTER BELGIAN LION

Deputy Wanted Monument at Waterloo Turned Away from France

By Associated Press.

BRUSSELS, July 30.—A proposal made in the Chamber of Deputies by a Socialist deputy that the huge Belgian lion on the battlefield of Waterloo, marking the victory of the British and Prussians under the Duke of Wellington and Blucher, over the French commanded by Napoleon in 1915, be turned about so that the head of the lion would face the north and away from France, has met with opposition by the Finance Minister. The proposal was that the lion's position be changed after the ratification of peace with Germany.

The Minister of Finance said this monument recalled one of the greatest events in history and that it held no hostile significance towards France, whose army in which there were many Belgians, covered itself with glory in the fights in which Waterloo was the centre of the battle. He added that it formed as much a part of British history as of French, and that other monuments in Belgium would be raised to commemorate the great war in which France, Great Britain and Belgium, as Allies, fought the common enemy.

GERMAN PREMIER DISCUSSES KAISER

Special Star Cable.

COPENHAGEN, July 30.—"It will be shown before the State tribunal that the former Kaiser was not wholly innocent of responsibility for the world convulsion," Premier Bauer declared before the German National Assembly, according to a despatch today to the Politiken.

Bauer advised the Assembly it was not best to discuss Wilhelm's connection with the conduct of the war.

"If you do," he said, "the Kaiser, whom you loved, will not come out well."

DEMAND UNION GIVES UP RECORDS

CALGARY, July 30.—Formal demand has now been made by the International representatives of the United Mine Workers of America at present in Calgary for the district offices, papers, documents and monies to be handed over. So far this has not been done by P. M. Christopherson or the secretary-treasurer, Browne, who have replied that the policy committee is meeting on Thursday next, when the matter will be discussed.

LIBERAL DELEGATES.

GERMAN-AUSTRIA'S DIFFICULT TASK

Dr. Renner Says Only Hope of Nation is in League

By Associated Press.

COPENHAGEN, July 30. — A despatch from Vienna says that Dr. Karl Renner, in a letter to President Seitz, of German-Austria, outlining his policy on acceptance of the Foreign Ministry, says that German-Austria's struggle for future existence is proving much more difficult than even pessimists expected. Austria, he asserts, can hardly live in its present position and can only surrender itself trustfully to the League of Nations.

German-Austria will not mix in the politics of the great Powers nor share in the rivalries of its neighbors, Dr. Renner continues, but will pursue exclusively a League of Nations and try to rebuild its national economic situation and create a new social order.

"Its hopes will not be in vain," Dr. Renner declared, "unless the League of Nations fails to be true to itself and refuses recognition of German-Austria's right to existence."

REPORT 53 KILLED IN TRAIN HOLDUP

EL PASO, Texas, July 30.—Mexico City papers received here today gave meagre details of the hold-up of a passenger train on the railroad between Mexico City and Vera Cruz last week, in which fifty-three passengers were reported killed. The train was held up and robbed by bandits who fired into the passenger coaches, according to the newspaper report. No foreigners were known to have been among those killed.

BEAT ADOPTED WITH HOE; 32 WOUNDS

WINDSOR, Ont., July 30.—"You are an inhuman creature and a disgrace to your sex," said Police Magistrate Miers yesterday when sentencing Mrs. Waterfalls, of Sandwich township East, to six months in the Mercer Reformatory for beating her nine year old adopted son with a hoe. The woman beat the boy into insensibility wounding him in thirty two places with the tool.

PLANS AERIAL ROUTE TO CONGO

King Albert has contributed to the special fund of the mission, and also for the necessary flying machines.

WINNIPEG LABOR FACTIONS SPLIT

Labor Council Adopted the Constitution of One Big Union Last Night

By Associated Press.

Winipeg, July 30.—The split which has been foreseen for some time by those in the labor movement actually occurred last night when the Winnipeg Trades and Labor Council by a large majority of the delegates present, adopted the constitution of the One Big Union and ordered the secretary and secretary of the council to turn over all the council's property to that organization.

There were about 120 delegates present out of a total membership of about 350. Prominent members of the council declared after the meeting that it was not a representative one, as the tactics of the radical members towards those not in agreement with them was such as to keep away many of the delegates of the saner type.

The report of the special committee appointed at the last regular meeting for the purpose of investigating and making recommendations respecting an O. B. U. form of trades and labor council was presented.

It recommended a constitution which was then read clause by clause and adopted with little discussion. The preamble was devoted to proving that the system of craft union organization was a failure and that the O. B. U. was the logical alternative to it.

The council proposed by this report was to be known as "The Winnipeg Central Labor Council" and was to be composed of delegates from the several Winnipeg O. B. U. "units."

BRITISH TROOPS ALL OUT OF RUSSIA IN FEW MONTHS

KEPT SOVIET BUSY

While Otherwise it Would Have Attacked New Weak States

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, July 29.—There was a full attendance of members in the House of Commons yesterday to hear Winston Spencer Churchill, Secretary for war, explain the Government's Russian policy, which the Liberals and Labor Unionists both have been strongly attacking recently.

"It would be a great mistake to condemn the policy of the Allied powers in regard to this movement," said Colonel Churchill. "It was as an essential war measure in the war against Germany that the Allies decided to occupy Archangel and Murmansk. It has achieved greater results than ever were hoped for, even if it did not achieve all the results expected at the time we landed at Archangel.

"When the Allies landed at Archangel," Colonel Churchill continued, "German divisions were passing from the Eastern to the Western front at the rate of six per month, and that movement was stopped. Early in March the cabinet decided that Archangel and Murmansk should be evacuated before another winter set in, and directed the war office to act accordingly and also to send whatever reinforcements might be necessary for safeguarding the withdrawal. Further, the Minister said, due regard had to be paid to the obligations contracted towards the population and the local Russian Government and the army which had been called into being. The widest latitude was given the military to execute this policy, and its decision was communicated to the Russian leaders, including Admiral Koltchak.

NECESSITY TO KEEP TROOPS THERE.

"It may seem easy for those at home," Colonel Churchill continued, "to say 'let us get out; let us cut our loss' but to those on the spot it was a matter of great and painful difficulty to sever ties and quit the scene. I had earnestly hoped and trusted it would be possible for the local North Russian government to have a separate line after our departure, but after the requirement imposed on Admiral Koltchak I do not feel that we can indulge in that hope any longer."

Speaking on the general situation, Colonel Churchill said Admiral Koltchak's and General Denekine's armies hardly existed a year ago, but that now they were considerable in numbers and were engaging 300,000 Bolshevik, which were more than two thirds of their military force. He added that Koltchak was continually retreating, but that Denekine was making formidable advances and that the military question being decided was whether Denekine could continue to advance as to take part of the pressure from Koltchak, or whether Koltchak could recover and advance to Denekine. The Bolshevik forces which Koltchak and Denekine were engaged with would otherwise be attacking new weak states with which otner Bolshevik were engaged, the Minister said.

BACK IN FEW MONTHS.

Colonel Churchill contended that failure to support Koltchak and Denekine would have allowed the Bolshevik to grow in strength, which would have fatally deranged the balance in Europe, stultified the League of Nations at the outset and developed a fomidable situation. He added that in a few months there would not be a single British soldier in Russia, "but on the other hand we are continuing a powerful contribution of munitions to Deaekine and considering the question of economic aid."

The Minister declared he thought it would be a fatal mistake to ignore the possibility of co-operation between hostile Russia and revengeful Germany or to suppose "that our victory and European affairs can be left to take care of themselves."

Colonel Churchill concluded his address with a warning against agitators and for direct action. He declader the things the agitators had attacked, like conscription, were grievances which would be obsolete.

BUXTON REGRETS CANADIANS' LEAVE

By Canadian Associated Press Cable.

LONDON, July 30.—The Mayor of Buxton entertained Colonel Paul Hanson, commandant of the Discharge Depot and other Canadians to a farewell dinner. The Mayor said that in the last three years the townspeople had learned to know Canadians well and respected them thoroughly. Something like 100,000 Canadians had passed through the Discharge Depot. They had behaved like gentlemen and made lasting friendships amongst the civilians. Everybody would be sorry when they had all gone. Colonel Hanson paid a tribute to the cordial manner in which all classes of the townspeople had treated the Canadians.
