China Issues An Appeal To The United States

Calls Attention To Grave Situation Created By Japan—Would Like To Know American Attitude On The Circumstances—Southern Nationalists Advance On Tientsin—Foreign Troops Prepare To Guard Their Nationals—Chinese General Dismissed—Japan's Conditions For Settlement.

(Associated Press Despatch)
SHANGHAI, China, May 14.—The Nationalist government council yesterday passed a resolution of dismissal of General Ho Yao-Tsio, whose army was implicated in the first collision with the Japanese troops at Tientsin.

NOTE SENT TO PRESIDENT COOLIDGE BY CHINA
(Associated Press Despatch)
SHANGHAI, May 14.—Foreign forces prepared to guard the nationals as the Southern (Nationalist) troops advanced on Tientsin, sixty miles east of Peking, their objective in the Nationalist spring drive.

As the Southern troops moved north, the Nationalist council formally called President Coolidge's attention to the recent clash between Southern and Japanese forces at Tientsin and asked the attitude of the United States government "toward this grave situation created by Japan."

Capture of Tientsin by the Southern forces would cut Peking off from the sea and the Northern commander Chang Tso-Lin from his base and headquarters in Manchuria.

Foreign Population in Serious Situation

A large foreign population in Tientsin would be placed in a precarious situation such as resulted in grave clashes at Nanking last year and Tientsin.

The foreign military commanders who have a force of 8,600 troops at their disposal, decided to establish an outpost line on a radius of 7 miles from the city. Japanese troops were assigned to guard important points in the foreign concessions.

Four thousand of the foreign troops in Tientsin are Americans, who are equipped with 20 aeroplanes, five tanks and five field guns. One thousand are British, 3,000 are French and 600 are Japanese.

The foreign preparations were being made in the face of Nationalist claims of a victory at Tsingchow, fifty miles south of Tientsin on the railway leading to Tientsin. General Yen Hsishan, military governor of Shansi an ally of the Nationalist government, announced that his troops occupied Tsingchow after a swift advance. They captured 7,000 Northerners with large booty and arms and ammunition.

General Yen apparently had swept down the valley of the Puto river and cut off the retreat of the Northern forces fleeing from Shantung. Another ally of the Nationalist regime, General Feng Yu-Hsiang, was last reported as having occupied Tchow, 60 miles south of Tsingchow near the Chihli-Shantung border, driving out the Northerners who concentrated there after the fall of Tientsin.

Not a Request for Intervention

The Nationalist protest, growing out of the clashes which followed their occupation of Tientsin, made no specific request to President Coolidge for intervention. It read:

"Japanese troops have invaded Shantung, actually waging war on China. The Chinese people remember that the Shantung question was settled through the efforts of friendly powers, especially the United States."

"We desire to know the attitude of the United States government and people toward this grave situation created by Japan."

The action followed closely on the heels of the Nationalist protest to the League of Nations and off Newfoundland. The weather has been unsettled in the Maritime Provinces and light showers have occurred in a few sections of the West, while in Ontario and Quebec it has been fine.

THE WEATHER

FAIR AND WARMER

Pressure is high over the Great Lakes, also over the Western Provinces, and relatively low over the Southern States and off Newfoundland. The weather has been unsettled in the Maritime Provinces and light showers have occurred in a few sections of the West, while in Ontario and Quebec it has been fine.

HIGHEST WATER IN NINETEEN YEARS
OTTAWA, Ont., May 14.—With the Ottawa river swelled to the highest point in the past nineteen years, the levels both of it and the Gatineau were approximately the same this morning as they were last night. The feeling here is that unless there are some unexpected developments in the north country the peak has been reached.

Kuomintang news agency, also announced the rejection of Chang Tso-Lin's demand for the Nationalist government to all civil and military leaders requested them to "save the country from destruction" and other troops to cease hostilities.

The Kuomintang news agency announcement said: "Chang Tso-Lin can never be taken in the Kuomintang (the Nationalist organization) but his subordinates who have proved their sincerity toward the Kuomintang might be accorded appropriate treatment in order to expedite the summing-up of a national convention."

Heavy Loss of Life
The Chinese at Tientsin estimated that 2,000 of their countrymen were killed or wounded, including 200 civilians, in Chinese-Japanese clashes there. The Japanese authorities announced the killing of 16 Japanese soldiers and 189 soldiers wounded.

The Japanese cut the Tientsin-Peking railway to prevent reprisals by the Nationalists. Since the Japanese have disavowed any intention of establishing a military government, the policing of Tientsin has fallen to the commander in chief and other bodies.

Japan's Attitude.
It was understood in Tientsin that the Japanese intend to adopt measures pending the settlement of the Tientsin:

First—Occupation and direct operation of the Tsingtao-Tientsin railway.

Second—Occupation of the foreign settlement at Tientsin.

Third—Establishment of a neutral zone ten miles along the railway and around Tientsin.

Using its heaviest guns the Northern garrison Hai Chi shelled Amoy Island ports until driven off by answering fire. The populace, including foreigners, was panic stricken. No casualties were reported.

The Peking gunboat was believed to be seeking the Norwegian steamer Vate, which was unloading arms and munitions for the Nationalists.

JAPAN DECLARES HER READINESS FOR SETTLEMENT

(Associated Press Despatch)
TOKYO, May 14.—An official spokesman said today that the foreign office was anxious to open negotiations for the settlement of the Tientsin affair but did not contemplate combining it with settlement of the Nanking incident.

The spokesman added that if it were true that the Nationalist government intended to dismiss General Ho Yao-Tsio because of the Tientsin incident, this would greatly facilitate negotiations.

Japan, he said, was not at present considering sending a communication to the League of Nations on the subject. He intimated, however, that Premier Tanaka might discuss the advisability of doing so.

THE ITALIA

WILL SOON START NORTH

Waits For Good Weather To Go Into Polar Regions.

(Associated Press Despatch)
KING'S BAY, Spitzbergen, May 14.—The dirigible Italia will make another flight into the North Polar regions as soon as good weather prevails.

The crew is working day and night filling up General Nobile's craft with gas and benzene. The wet snow of the last day and night has covered the Italia with a white mantle which is difficult to get off, but it was melting today and the ship was drying under the sunshine.

POLAND TO CELEBRATE HER NATIONAL DAY

Amnesty Granted Many Prisoners On Anniversary Of Polish Independence.

(Associated Press Despatch)
WARSAW, Poland, May 14.—The terms of the general amnesty which the cabinet proclaimed Friday night in celebration of Poland's freedom, have been published Saturday by the Government and show themselves particularly generous to political offenders.

Ukrainians, in particular, benefit by the complete pardon given those convicted of political offenses in the early years of the Republic of Poland.

All Communists sentenced before May, 1926, and those under seven years of age who have been sentenced since that date will have one-third of their punishment remitted. Offenses against the administration, including all newspaper affairs, are completely pardoned.

GREAT TRIAL TO TAKE PLACE IN MOSCOW

Russians And Germans Charged With Trying To Destroy Coal Industry Of Russia.

(Associated Press Despatch)
MOSCOW, May 14.—The building which was a most renowned meeting ground of Russian nobility under the Czar and which is now the centre of the revolutionary cultural activities, will be turned next Friday into a court room for the trial of fifty Russians and three German mining engineers.

These are charged with attempting to destroy the coal industry of Russia, thus to pave the way for a gradual capitulation by the Soviet to the capitalist world. The first announcement of the arrests and preliminary accusations sounded so fantastic that skeptics of Soviet methods suggested that they had been trumped up in order to eliminate undesired intellectuals.

The publication of the voluminous indictment and confessions, said to have been made by nearly half of the defendants has thrown new light however, on the hidden menace against one of the key industries of Russia.

M. Eladze, one of the best known Russian mining engineers, said in part in his confession, "the entire technical staff with rare exceptions is uniformly colored and equally unreliable for the Soviet regime."

The confession said that investigation in many coal fields would disclose destructive processes continuing among technicians despite their oaths of loyalty.

ABERDEEN

JOURNAL SALE IS CONTESTED

Lord Rothermere Trying To Secure Famous Scotch Paper.

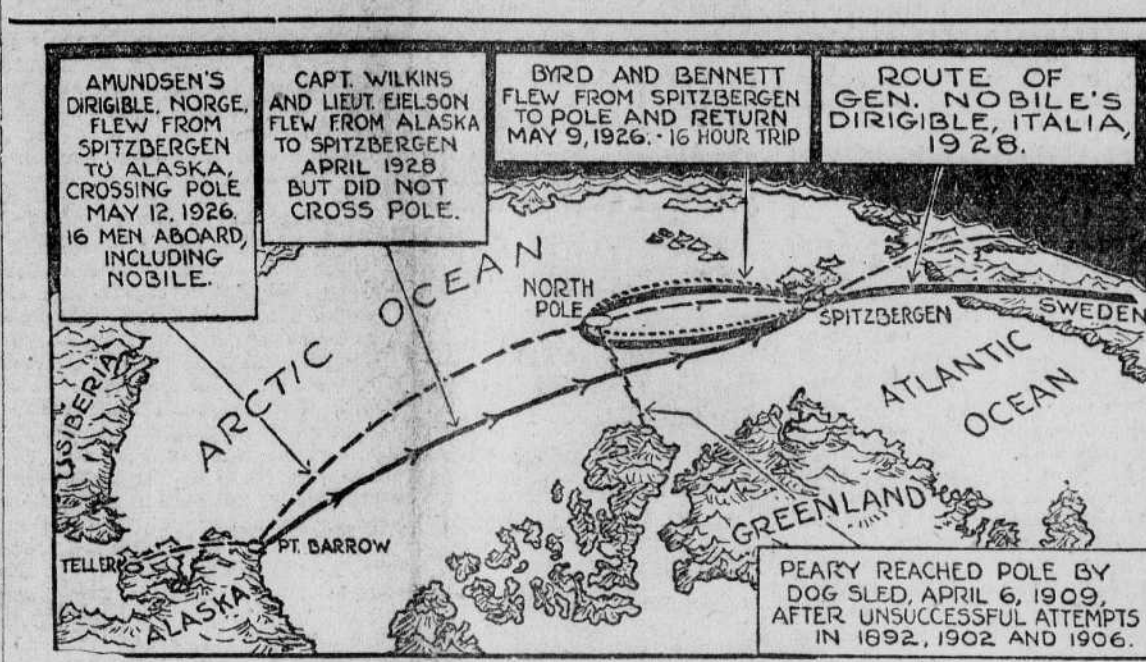

(Associated Press Despatch)
LONDON, May 14.—Despite the fact that a meeting of shareholders of the Aberdeen Journal by a large majority agreed on May 9 to accept the offer of £4 per share for the newspaper stock made by a group headed by Sir William Berry and Sir James Berry, the latter's great journalistic rival, Lord Rothermere, whose offer of £4 6s per share was rejected, has now made an offer of £4 10s per share and challenges the validity of the sale to the Berry brothers.

In making their offer for the newspaper, the Berrys agreed to maintain the identity and present policy of the paper and retain the existing staff. Lord Rothermere undertook to maintain the staff as far as possible and maintain the constitutional policy of the paper.

KILLED DURING FENCING BOUT

(Associated Press Despatch)
BRUSSELS, May 14.—During a fencing match to decide the open championship of Belgium, M. Neef was killed when the button became detached from his opponent's weapon. The blade penetrated Neef's body six inches near the right lung.

GENERAL NOBILE'S ROUTE TO THE NORTH POLE

The heavy black line on the above map shows the route chosen by General Nobile for his flight to the North Pole and return from Spitzbergen in his giant dirigible Italia. The other line shows how the pole has been reached by three former expeditions—Peary by dog sled; Byrd and Bennett in a plane; and Captain Amundsen in a dirigible—in times past. The recent Alaska-Spitzbergen flight of Captain Wilkins and Lieut. Eielson is also shown.

Fort Coulonge, On Ottawa River, Under Water As Result Of Serious Floods

Damaged Caused On Upper Ottawa Will Be Very Heavy—Countryside For Miles Under Water—Thoroughfares Inundated—Railway Lines Under Water—Farm House Abandoned.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
FORT COULONGE, Que., May 14.—Desolation stretched for miles here as scores of families were rendered temporarily homeless with the steady rise of the Ottawa and Coulonge rivers which virtually transformed this village into an island. The loss to date will run into thousands of dollars, it is estimated.

For miles around, the countryside, trimmed by hard working farmers for the summer crops resembles lakes of varying proportions. Scores of desolation meet the eye everywhere. Farm houses, abandoned overnight, farmers returning to salvage some of their cherished belongings deserted in earlier flights, and mothers rowing boats through the front doors.

All of the four main thoroughfares leading to and from this village are so inundated as to render vehicular traffic impossible, and boats are the chief means of conveyance. Marchand bridge, across the Coulonge river is jammed with thousands of logs, and grave fears are entertained for the safety of the structure.

School children will have to journey to their class rooms in boats, practically all the roads leading to the schools being submerged. Wading is impossible in most places, the water having attained a depth of from two to five feet.

The tracks of the Canadian Pacific Railway although gangs have been at work for several days rebalancing the line, were inundated for nearly a mile on the stretch leading into the village today, and when the train left last night the wheels were awash. The train proceeded out of the village at Snail's pace.

The condition proved one of anxiety for persons with property along the shores of these two rivers. They had hoped the peak had been reached Saturday, but the two streams continued to move up and this gave rise Sunday to many disquieting rumors, the most frequent being that the Temiskaming dam had failed and the waters from it would send the levels of the Ottawa much higher.

Later came the rumor that the Bitou dam up the Gatineau had given way. Both these rumors were unfounded.

BOY OF FRENCH CONSULATE AGENT BEING TAKEN TO OTTAWA

MONTREAL, Que., May 14.—The body of Emile Gaboury, consulate agent for France at Halifax, who died Saturday night at Rochester, Minn., will arrive at Montreal tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held from the home of Mr. Gaboury's father, Dr. T. C. Gaboury, collector of provincial revenue, 2038 Adam street, on a date to be decided. The funeral was to have been held on Wednesday morning but a telegram from the deceased's brother, Raoul, of Edmonton, Alta., saying he would be here on Thursday, caused a postponement.

Statement Made By Editor Of China Year Book At Montreal.

MONTREAL, May 14.—"It is ridiculous to suppose that the Chinese Northern troops could stand against the Japanese highly trained soldiers if serious hostilities were to be undertaken," said H. G. W. Woodhead, editor of the China Year Book and Peking and Tientsin Times, en route from China to England by the Canadian Pacific, when interviewed on board the S.S. Montcalm, sailing from Montreal this morning.

The only way the Chinese could effectively retaliate, he explained, would be by starting excesses against Japanese nationals and causing another boycott. The British position in China has improved, was Mr. Woodhead's opinion, although in the present situation with the other powers she is likely to remain benevolently neutral, as Japan, in guarding her own large interests, has afforded protection also to other foreign nationalities. Japan herself is not likely to ally herself with one Chinese faction or another in guarding her nationals and interests.

On the Montcalm were also many others from the Orient who had crossed the Pacific on the Empress of Canada and without delay made connection across the continent with the Montcalm, sailing from Montreal for Liverpool.

THE QUEBEC-SHERBROOK PRESBYTERY

Meeting Held at Richmond—Ordination Of Women Discussed—Principle Endorsed—Committees Re Conference Named.

The Quebec-Sherbrooke Presbytery of the United Church of Canada convened in Chalmers Church, Richmond, with the Rev. Matheson, M.A., B.D., in the chair.

The Rev. E. S. Coates, of Richmond, conducted the devotional exercises after which the roll call was made showing a splendid attendance, both of laymen and ministers. A very busy morning was spent and a good deal of work accomplished.

The Rev. E. Hagar, B.A., of Knowlton, at the request of the executive, introduced the subject of ordination of women.

The Rev. Mr. Hagar presented the case in an address of remarkable lucidity and strength. Eminent fair in every viewpoint, the speaker, with close reasoning, here and there lightened with a vein of humor, opened the discussion upon this delicate question.

At the close of the address a committee was appointed to draft a resolution which might bring the matter before Presbytery with a possibility of a vote. The hearty appreciation to the Rev. Mr. Hagar for his splendid address was tendered by the Presbytery.

The ladies of Chalmers' maintained their reputation as hostesses and at 12.30 the Presbytery was invited to luncheon in the parlor.

One could see that here, at least, things prepared were irresistible temptations to the visitors, many of whom enjoyed a quiet rest afterwards while others attended committees.

Memorial of the Rev. J. B. Hicks, B.A.
At 3 o'clock the Rev. J. B. Hicks, B.A., of Farnham, at the request of the executive, gave a paper entitled "Forty-Five Years in the Ministry."

The Rev. J. B. Hicks, B.A., now of Farnham, has been granted superannuated relationship to take effect July 1st and has resigned from his pastoral charge. Mr. Hicks entered the ministry of the former Methodist Church in July, 1883, and was first stationed in Grenville a circuit with six preaching appointments. Mr. Hicks afterwards became a teacher in St. Andrew's College, then he was sent to Bury and it was during his pastorate there that he was ordained.

During his ministry Mr. Hicks has served his church in seventeen different appointments and has declared that while the method of stationing men under the Methodist system has defects, he considered it a great deal better and a great deal less humiliating than the present system. At the time of his admission to the ministry the conference numbered 212 members, of whom only thirty are left. "God bless His workmen but carries on His work."

Mr. Hicks knows a great deal about union of churches, for he was in the ministry before the union of the Methodist Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Bible Christian Church, making the Methodist Church of Canada, and he has remained in the ministry long enough to witness the consummation of church union between the Methodist Church of Canada,

JUST KIDS SAFETY CLUB ENTERS UPON SECOND WEEK; ROOM FOR ALL IN THE CLUB

Extra Order Of Buttons Coming—Only One For Each Boy Or Girl—Not Fair To Expect More—Mr. E. W. Farwell Joins As Honorary Member—Promises To "Look Up And Down Before Crossing Street."

Well children, the Just Kids Safety Club today begins its second week. It is a week old today and what a busy time the first week was. There certainly was a rush for membership and well over a thousand badges were given out at the Record Office.

What kind of a time are we going to have this week? There are no doubt many other children who want to sign up and of course the Record does not want to disappoint anyone, so more badges have been sent for, but there are still plenty to accommodate all new members for the time being.

No Children Included in Week-End Accidents

News reports this morning tell of a very large number of week-end auto accidents throughout the city, but of course there were no children injured in any of these, as the majority of city kiddies are now members of the Club and are very careful to look and down before crossing the streets.

Mr. E. W. Farwell Joins

We have a new honorary member, and you could never guess who it is. It is Mr. E. W. Farwell, former president of the Sherbrooke Board of Trade. Mr. Farwell came into the Record Office the other day and asked if he could not join the Club. "You have never said anything about age limit, so I wondered if I could not get in. I always look up and down the street and I hope all the club members do," Mr. Farwell said.

Commenting upon the honorary members of the Club, Mr. Farwell remarked, "By the way I don't see why you let such 'old' fellows as Bert Skinner, Keith Edwards and Joe Tetrault, in a club like that should be for the young snappy chaps, that's why I wanted to get in."

Some Abuse Have Been Made of Badges

There is a little bit of advice which is intended for the club members. Some children have spent their time trying to think up ways of getting a number of badges, and unfortunately in some cases three or four medals have been given to the same person. Now, children, this is not a good way, one medal is enough for anyone. If everyone is fair there will be medals enough for everyone, but if some cheat others will have to go without their buttons as the supply will run out.

This week is known in Sherbrooke as "Clean-up Week," let us all get together and "clean-up" as it were on membership. The Record wants every child in Sherbrooke, as well as everyone

Why Certain Women Always Attract Men

The women that charm and attract that compel attention, are always healthy—their eyes are bright, skin is clear. Above all else these women keep their system regular, keep their blood pure and free from the poisons of constipation. No corrective for women's ills can match the easy action of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Purely vegetable in composition, these little pills never gripe or cause distress. They assist nature to keep the bowels working in proper order. LINDBERGH HAS NOT TROUBLED INSURANCE CO.

Aviation Insurance For $100,000 Has Not Presented Single Claim For Damages — Loewenstein, Carried By Famous Flier — Belgium Capitalist, Carries Largest Insurance Policy Issued.

(Associated Press Despatch)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., May 14.—Although he carries a blanket public liability aviation insurance policy for $100,000 on any aircraft he may be flying, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh has not presented a single claim for damages in the thousands of miles he has flown since he piloted the Spirit of St. Louis from New York to Paris.

This was announced today by the insurance companies which issued the policy to the trans-Atlantic flier when he left on his "good will" flight to Central and South America. The companies also revealed that Captain Alfred Loewenstein, Belgian capitalist, who is making an air tour in a ten-passenger Fokker, carries the largest aviation insurance policy ever issued by them. The plane is insured against fire, accidental damage, windstorm and theft for $45,000 in each instance. In addition Loewenstein holds a public liability policy, excluding passengers, for $100,000 and a property damage policy for $25,000.

Well, such was the Liverpool built tug and I was proud of her. Whilst I was running her she never had a leak or a mishap to her machinery. She was a good home anywhere. I received several boxes containing apparel for the goddess and also a box of things I knew nothing about or little Peru either, in fact I was right as a gentleman and I was proud of her.

So bidding good-bye to Angola I swung clear with my first tow and stopping only once at Lima's and delivering the presents and also a few welcome bottles for the "woodoo fakers" I held on up stream night and day, making record voyage. The little steamer caused quite a commotion as we steamed by the many villages on the banks. Whilst the boys on the steamer answered the shouting of these simple natives, "Where did it come from?" they laughingly answered, "O wamuti Inpolo Agani!" (The high steamer has given birth to this little one) and this many of them believed.

"Come Back to Us!"
The next trip I made was to Samba Falls as the rivers were now falling and it was dangerous to risk a trip in large craft. I made many trips up the Angani, and even in the dry season, I very seldom had any trouble as she drew very little water when not overloaded. On these trips to Samba Falls I was always asked when the White Lady was coming to visit them, they never seemed to forget her and they would really prefer to see her than the new boat she had made such a kindly and lasting impression on them.

It took a few trips to get down the produce and I felt quite sorry plein on Monday, April 30th, to close school, which was greatly enjoyed by those present.

General Notes.
Miss Doris Walker is spending some time with Mrs. A. Savage, of Hill Head.

Mrs. Butler and Master Lorne Butler, of Nelson, were calling on Mrs. A. Graham one day recently.

Miss Bessie Walker is attending school at Inverness.

"That man wrecked my home."
"He ran away with your wife!"
"Worse than that; he married our cook and now my wife cooks."

When I had to bid a fond good-bye to these good people, as I had at last made up my mind to make a trip home to the old country as my folks in the old home in Lancashire were continually writing for me. There was quite a gathering at Apaque's when I finally left for good and all, which expressed heartily sorrow as I departed especially old Apaque who declared I was the only friend ever he had had in his life. As I departed they lined the shore and the cries of "Come back to us we shall always be thinking of your return," could be loudly heard. I felt sorry to depart from such friends. But a good lasting upriver trade had now been firmly established so I parted without a single regret excepting at the loss of true friends which is a high loss at all times.

A "Speath" to Nina.
On my return to our supply stores I met many new friends. The little French soldier who had served me so well when I was in need of help at Issangue Island had received his final order for his up country journey to join de Brazza and we spent the night enjoying ourselves and I saw him off with his fleet of canoes next morning. He was a brother from Brittany and was fine company. We quit the best of friends and he carried my respects to his chief de Brazza.

I now proceeded up the Angani or my last trip carrying as well as a large tow the traders who were following their calling in that part of the country. We had a great trip as I told them it was my last trip and I was homesick, I bid fond good-bye to the old king of the Evilies and his chiefs and they gave me a royal send off telling me to be sure and return after my trip and bring back the White Lady (the Presbyterian missionary). Old Injuly expressed great reluctance at my parting but this had to be.

I arrived at our new station without mishap only old Peter Nolan was down with slight fever. I was next ordered to Gaboon for a small tow and also some passengers who were anxiously waiting. All my accounts I had made out. I had a fine balance and I took the news of my intending departure to Sinclair. I had a fine record and I was satisfied and this I carried with me.

We had a fine trip down the river and I called only for a couple of hours at Nina's and told what I had done. And that as soon as I was able I would see to her escape and would see she was free as an Angelang (white bird from the sea). I could see the emotions I had produced in the inmost soul of Nina. She looked superb under the effect of my little whispered speech. And all she answered was "I am ready at any time," and as I parted she gave me a most thankful smile. The rest of the attendants at the Josh House I left either drunk or half drunk and was soon well on my journey to Gaboon.

Poor Peter now got much worse in spite of the attention I could bestow on him and as we had a rough passage by sea it seemed to make him worse. On landing he was sent immediately to the French hospital, but only lived a few days after I left Gaboon on my return journey. I gave in my resignation to Mr. Carisle our chief agent, handed over my accounts, etc., and we spent the night in his sanatorium as he had very little time for conversation during the day.

I told him I might have a visit from a college friend of mine who contemplated visiting the coast for a couple of months shortly and when I told him who he was he laughed and said birds of a feather. The young gentleman would visit the coast as Mr. Graham, botanist from Liverpool, so that he knew exactly what to do when he came. Of course he would forward him on, and he would see that he came incog. Any time I wished to go I was at liberty, he would see to everything for me.

I now had time to re-read my mail most of it being from little Peru who had received my letter telling him exactly how things were with me and that I had made up my mind to steal the goddess as per her own plan which I had detailed. He was coming at once he said, and as he was nearly of age there would be no lacking of funds, etc.

Waiting for Peru.
As I was now a free man I often visited Herr Schiff and he told me that if I wished to return to the coast he would supply me with any goods I wished cheaper than I could buy them in Europe and would back me to any amount. Of course I told him if I returned I meant to do business on my own, but I made no promises.

Sinclair himself was anxious to hold his trade and I had brought him a mulatto from the River Niger district who proved first class and could manage the tug anywhere, and the boys I left with him knew the river channels as well as I did so all went well. I passed most of my time hunting and was able to ship home quite a large collection of the denizens of the African forests and glades, besides curios of all kinds. During these trips I often visited Azingo always calling at Nina's.

Having agreed to rescue Nina, the English girl kept as a captive goddess by African tribesmen, Trader Horn is preparing to quit the Ivory Coast, as the theft of the goddess means certain death if he stays. A new tug, the Iowatha, has arrived for the river trade, with Peter Nolan as engineer.—Horn now continues the narrative of his youth in the Seventies, written at the age of seventy-three.

INSTALLMENT XXXIV
FAREWELL TO THE RIVER
The Iowatha was wide and roomy and had a high forecastle of a kind where I and old Peter had plenty of room and light, fresh air, etc. I quickly made so that all on board were snugly housed. She towed with little sound. I made many a rough trip to Gaboon when everything was howling the little Iowatha was at her best. Something that would lull you to sleep in the whitest equal if you like rocking.

We born in Lancashire are always rocked to sleep and in fact I've often seen a sailor's wife with many children, pull a laughing lad from his milk and say "Nay na wait, that foxing," she would then slap him in the cradle which was cocked so as to give the cradle a jirk and he was soon fast asleep under the influence of the bob rocking like we in our ship's fo'c'sle. Too much coaxing makes a small lad so that the good old sailor too I quickly made so that all on board were snugly housed. She towed with little sound. "and...I promise to keep that schoolgirl complexion"

Thousands are doing it through this simple rule in natural skin care, followed in this way:

WOMEN used to lose the priceless charm of youth, then struggle everlastingly to regain it. Today, by following natural and proved ways in skin care, they keep it.

Start by avoiding the use of unproved ways on your skin. A good complexion is too priceless for experiment. You can retain natural charm and freshness through the years simply by taking ordinary precautions with your skin.

Foremost skin specialists of the world recommend soap and water cleansing as the first rule in skin care. Leading beauty experts employ it. Results are proved on every side. Try it—it will do much for you.

The rule to follow if guarding a good complexion is your goal

Wash your face gently with soothing Palmolive Soap, massaging the lather softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all. Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Avoid this mistake

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or one represented as of olive and palm oils, is the same as Palmolive.

And it costs but 10c the cake! So little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain a cake today. Then note what an amazing difference one week makes.

spending several weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Williams. He was accompanied by Miss Mary Williams, who is visiting relatives in Sherbrooke and her friend, Miss Dorothy Bennett, at Marleton.

TRULY UTOPIAN

About this time of the year the romance of the open country calls to young and old. In spite of the vastness of Canada great difficulty is often experienced as to where one should go, and particularly if you desire somewhere not far from your own province. What about the province of Ontario, where the placid lakes gently hug the ever-green forests, while over all is a glorious summer climate. Here the days are delightfully cool, the nights refreshing, and best of all, no "Summer-fog." Ontario is undoubtedly the land of deep forests and jewelled waterways, and above all, the home of the light canoe. If you once taste the joys and wonders of a vacation beside Lake Nipissing, Rideau Lakes, Kawartha, Muskoka, French River or Orillia, you will always return and say with the deepest fervor in your heart "Truly this is Utopia." Ontario awaits you, so seek the aid of Mr. J. A. Melville, City Passenger Agent, 91 Wellington Street North, Phone 130, or any Canadian Pacific Ticket Agent, and soon you will be content amid this country of blue skies, lakes and river.

Keeping Canada's Business Life
Prosperous and Fertile

CANADA has a huge industry in which at least $40,000,000 is invested, about which little appears in the various trade reports. Its function in the country's life corresponds to that of the Gulf Stream in the seas.

If the people who give their time to this work stood in a single row across Canada, from Atlantic to Pacific, there would be one person every 350 yards—and it costs about $2,000,000 a month to meet the payroll.

WHILE this great utility is privately owned, it belongs to the people as does no other. They depend on it to fight for their interests, to act as their informer, friend and guide, and to inspire progress in every part of the land. It is a powerful auxiliary to Business. This unique industry is indispensable, and is known as THE DAILY NEWSPAPER PRESS.

SOMEONE has said that next to the rising sun the Daily Newspaper is the most wonderful thing in the world. And because it touches so intimately the lives of all the people of Canada it is easily the best of all advertising mediums, as it is the cheapest.

It carries its treasures of news—gathered from all parts of the earth—directly into the home, and it is cordially received as one of the family. Linked up with it, Advertisements receive a sympathetic reading, because Advertisements of the stores, the factories, financial houses and other institutions are, after all, merely the NEWS of industry, commerce and finance. And the reception the Advertisement receives is the thing that counts in results.

Statistics show that as much money is spent annually in Newspaper Advertising as in all other forms combined.

BUSINESS MEN simply cannot afford NOT to advertise through these mediums of such far-reaching appeal and power

INJURED IN MOTOR ACCIDENT YESTERDAY

"FLOWER DAY" WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

"Flower Day," which was held by the I.O.D.E. on Saturday was a decided success. In spite of the rather cold weather the flowers sold quickly and by six o'clock the supply was exhausted. The proceeds, which are for the I.O.D.E. Memorial Hospital, were very satisfactory. Though the individual donations were not, on the whole, as large as in other years, it is estimated that more flowers were sold than usual.

REUNION WILL BE HELD AT NOTRE DAME

Convention Of Former Pupils Of Notre Dame Convent Will Take Place Early Next Fall—Committees Appointed At Meeting Yesterday.

At a meeting of Alumnae Association of Mont Notre Dame Convent yesterday afternoon, it was decided to hold a reunion of all pupils who had attended the convent. The date for this event was not decided upon but it will take place the last of September or the first of October.

The meeting was opened by Mother St. Michael, assistant superior, after which Mrs. L. E. Codere, president of the association, explained that the meeting had been called to make plans and form committees for the proposed reunion. The time for such a convention was opportune, she said, as the convent was nearing the third of a century mark and this year concluded the fifty of the superior, Mother St. Anne, at the convent. Mrs. Codere asked for the co-operation of all present in organizing a reunion covering so many years and each promised to help in any way they could. The hope was expressed that a number of former students who had become nuns would be able to attend the reunion.

The vice-president, Mrs. F. Payette, spoke briefly after which the committees were chosen. Miss Saint-Jean and Miss Kathleen Leonard were elected to assist the secretaries Miss Eugenie Codere and Miss Herbert. Representatives from each parish were chosen and with the assistance of a committee they will secure the names and addresses of all students they may know of. The following are the conveners, St. Patrick's Church, Mrs. Richardson; St. Jean Baptiste, Miss Anna Plamondon; St. Michael's Cathedral, Mrs. C. E. Bachand and Mrs. O. Trudeau; St. Therese Church, Miss Therese Desève and Redemptionist parish, Mrs. Louis Olivier and Mrs. L. N. Audet. Conveners for Notre Dame and St. Jean d'Arc parishes will be appointed later. Committees will also be appointed in the surrounding towns.

A financial committee of Miss Annie McWilliams and Mrs. W. Lamy was chosen with power to add other members. The following are on the entertainment committee, Mrs. Rioux, Mrs. M. Shea, Miss E. Couture and Miss Beauchene. Mrs. George Moore is convener of radio publicity.

No detailed programme for the convention has been drawn up but it is probable that the day will be filled as follows: mass in the morning followed by breakfast at the convent after which there will be a drive around the city. In the afternoon the present pupils will give a reception and an entertainment will be put on by the former pupils. The convention will conclude with a banquet in the evening.

DISAPPEARANCE OF LOCAL MAN CAUSING ALARM

Police Are Trying To Locate Remie Cote, of Armstrong Avenue—Left Home On Thursday Night Or Early Friday Morning.

The Police are at work trying to solve the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Remie Cote, forty-eight years of age, of this city, who left his home on Armstrong Avenue during Thursday night last or early Friday morning and has not been seen since.

The fact that this man had on previous occasions expressed the wish to drown himself has led the authorities to carefully search the river in the vicinity of Armstrong Avenue, but no trace has been found of him.

The unfortunate man was a cripple and could hardly walk without the use of his crutches. However, he left these behind him, and it is not known how he could possibly have managed to walk. When last seen he was wearing black trousers, a white and black striped shirt and felt shoes. He did not have any hat or cap at the time.

CLEAN-UP WEEK STARTED HERE THIS MORNING

Mayor And Chief Issue Appeal To Citizens To Co-operate In Movement In Order To Improve And Beautify City.

"Clean-up Week" began here today. The weather this morning was ideal for out of door work, and it is expected that citizens got down bright and early to the matter of spring cleaning.

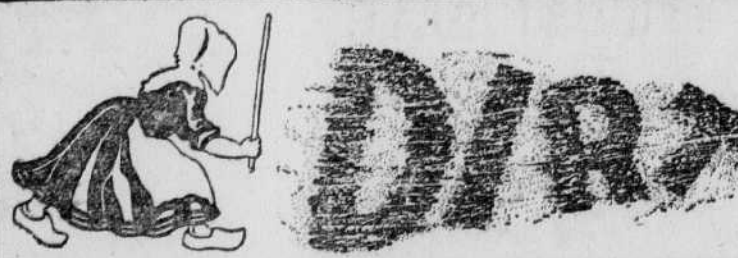

The first local citizen on Wellington Street to remind passers-by of "Clean-up week" was Mr. Jos. Rosbloom, who had men at work this morning painting his store building, while no doubt in other sections of the city similar work was being done.

Mayor J. S. Tetrault has issued a special appeal for all citizens to observe "Clean-up Week". Speaking in this respect the mayor says: "Sherbrooke is a pretty city, we have fine buildings, nice clean streets, pretty surroundings and a lovely view from all sections of the city. Now it is too bad to have this spoiled by dirty yards, neglected lawns or untidy sheds or garages. 'Clean-up Week' is specially set aside for such kind of work and I hope that everyone will do their best to make the week a success here and that good results will be shown at the end of the week."

Chief Camirand Asks Everyone To Co-Operate.

When interviewed by the Record this morning, Chief H. O. Camirand said that he sincerely hoped that everyone would get down to hard work in connection with "Clean-up Week" and that all the numerous

Healthful Cleanliness

Old Dutch Cleanser protects your home with Healthful Cleanliness because it removes the dangerous invisible impurities as well as the visible uncleanness. Old Dutch chases all dirt—none is left behind.

There is nothing else like Old Dutch. To the eye it looks like a fine powder but through the microscope you see thousands of flaky, flat-shaped particles of distinctive character. These particles possess natural detergent qualities—they erase the dirt, and by a process similar to "adsorption" take up and carry away all impurities.

This drawing of a highly magnified Old Dutch particle illustrates how completely and safely Old Dutch works. Being flat-shaped, these particles make a perfect contact with the surface and do not scratch. With a clean sweep they leave the surface smooth and free from uncleanness.

Old Dutch doesn't scratch. Avoid damaging grit. This drawing shows a highly magnified particle of hard, scratchy grit at work. Being of irregular shape the sharp, hard points dig into the surface and leave scratches which not only mar its beauty but are lodging places for dirt and impurities.

BRITISH COLUMBIA "the land of opportunity"

The Soil Laughs a Harvest

WING to its mountainous character, British Columbia has not been generally recognized as an agricultural province. Yet agriculture has within the last few years attained to second importance, with its revenue for 1927 estimated in excess of 73-million dollars! Ten per cent. of its total land area is possible farm land, approximately twenty-two million acres. Only three million acres of this vast territory have so far been placed under cultivation. Millions of virgin acres await the turn of the plough, to fulfill their promise of agricultural wealth to those who come to till the soil.

HIGH PRODUCTIVITY

The fertile soils of sun-flooded valleys and choice alluvial lands, and the equality of the climate, make record crops possible, and rotating crops continuous for the greater part of the year. No other western province has been able to compete with British Columbia's field crops. The average return per farmer in this province is $3,300 a year.

WORLD RECOGNIZED PRODUCTS

British Columbia's livestock is recognized among the best in the world today. British Columbia dairy cattle have won world records... and dairying is becoming one of its main farm revenue producers. British Columbia poultry production has several world records to its credit... owing to favorable climate and marketing conditions, there being more commercial poultry farms here than in all the rest of Canada. British Columbia apples, peaches, apricots, cherries, plums, pears and small fruits are known throughout the world... apples winning the highest honors at the famous Wembley Exposition. Our vegetable and flower seeds are prize-winners, and widely sought from all over the world.

UNUSUAL DIVERSITY

There is a diversity in the agricultural production of this province that can scarcely be approached in any other part of the Dominion. Among the various classes of floriculture, horticulture and agriculture, tobacco-raising, bee-keeping, fur-farming, grain and fodder crops, are meeting with success.

FARM DISTRICTS ACCESSIBLE

Five principal farming districts are under development adjacent to main transportation lines. These are situated around the lower Fraser River Valley, Vancouver Island, the Okanagan and Kootenay Valleys, the Lillooet and Chilcotin districts, and Central British Columbia... Northern British Columbia now bidding as a new rival. Government and railway boards have mapped out new settlement areas and are ready to co-operate with the settler of limited capital, to develop these lands. On a total tax rate of 13.5 mills, $1,500 exemption is allowed on improvements.

OTHER RESOURCES

Agriculture is but one of the rich resources of Canada's Pacific Province. The lumbering industry leads, with an annual revenue of $4 million dollars; mining is third, with over 62 million dollars a year; fisheries produce 27 million dollars. Over eight thousand industrial firms are recorded in the province, with an annual pay-roll exceeding 175 million dollars. The very diversity of its resources stabilizes British Columbia's prosperity.

SEE THE WEST!

Why not plan a vacation in British Columbia this year, and look over the Land of Opportunity for yourself! There are boat trips and train trips, hundreds of delightful resorts, and scenic motoring over nearly 18,000 miles of beautiful highways. You can hunt and fish, climb mountains, swim, golf, play tennis, polo, bowling... do the thousand things your heart may desire.

From A Woman's Viewpoint

(By Portia)

At a women's meeting the other day "A Club Woman's Creed" was repeated by all present. It ended with the words "And, Oh Lord God, let us not forget to be kind." That is a request each and all might repeat daily—"let us not forget to be kind." We are rather prone to forget.

The annual blessing of autos in the Province of Quebec will take place this month, and it is stated that this ceremony "is drawing more cars each year." May we suggest that to the blessing may be added the prayer: "let us not forget to be kind?"

The viewpoint of "A farmer's wife of the town line road" appearing in the Record is well worth repeating, and it brings to mind a statement made by a Sherbrooke woman: "We would have better reads if women were given a say in the matter." We cannot dispute it, and we also know that good roads, like money, is not evenly distributed in our country. People living on dirt roads and paying car license have a right to feel discouraged, for the problem of "better roads" is a big one, but it must be solved if our country is to progress.

In one or more of the "slam" letters appearing recently in the Record short skirts were severely criticized, and rightly so—in some cases. But extremes in that style, as in others, show the same spirit, or idolatry for style, that made women of the past generation hitch their corset laces to the bedpost and then "gee up." There will always be extremists.

We hear a great deal about abandoned farms in our fair townships, but a farmer's wife who keeps in close touch with the happenings of the day reminds us "if we look into this matter we will find that many of these farms are not abandoned. The houses may be vacant, but the farms are rented and the lands yield crops. Of course that is true, but the deserted houses show that there's something wrong, or does it mean that a farmer, today, through labor-saving devices, is able to run two or more farms? It is worth

Arbor Day will be observed in Sherbrooke on Friday next, when in the midst of a distinguished gathering, some fifty trees will be planted in Dufresne Park, West Ward.

This is in connection with a programme inaugurated by the Hon. Mr. H. Mercier, Minister of Lands and Forests. It is expected that the Hon. Mr. Mercier will be present in the city for this event, while other guests will be Dr. F. O. Call of Bishop's University; C. B. Howard, M.P.; E. W. Tobin, M.P.; Hon. J. Nicol and Mr. J. A. McClary, of the Lennoxville Experimental Farm. Mayor J. S. Tetreault is calling a special meeting of the City Council this afternoon to discuss the possibility of having Friday afternoon proclaimed a half holiday in order to give school children an opportunity of attending this ceremony.

A representative of the Department of Lands and Forests is in the city today and is making preliminary arrangements for Friday's activities.

while to remember that the land is being worked, even if the house is vacant, but we could wish that every house had its family, as in the old days. Trader Torn says: "There's nothing so lonely as a place where some one has lived and gone away," and there is truth in the statement.

This month has several special days, or festivals, and among them is Mother's Day, modern in its origin, but in sentiment as old as the hills. Some folks say that every day should be Mother's Day, but it does the world no harm to pause in its haste and worry to pay special tribute to mother—that means of course, all women—with the mother heart, for there are many such who have no one to call them by that endearing name.

PRINCIPAL MACKENZIE PREACHES HERE

Addresses At Plymouth Church Associated With Mother's Day Celebration.

Mother's Day was fittingly observed yesterday in Plymouth United Church. At the morning service Dr. Ellery Read was assisted by the Rev. Principal MacKenzie, M.A., B.D., of Stanstead College, who delivered a very able and helpful sermon from the text, "As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you." (Isaiah 66:13). The preacher paid a beautiful and touching tribute to mothers in their sympathy and sacrifice for their children and pointed out that the comfort the mother gave to her child was comprehensive in its power to meet all needs, strengthening and challenging. In closing, the young people were especially called upon to respond to the love that had been showered upon them by their mothers by living worthily and nobly, thus fulfilling the hopes and prayers of their mothers. The sermon was replete with many appropriate illustrations and made a deep impression upon the congregation. The devotional service was conducted by the minister in the church, and Mr. Albert Blier gave a fine interpretation of Rudyard Kipling's poem, "Mother of Mine," as set to music by Berthold Tours.

Following the morning service the school had an open session in the junior, intermediate and senior departments, which was well attended. The superintendent, Mr. Thomas F. L. Cohoon, was in charge. There were special selections of music by members of the school, Mrs. Gordon Richards singing "Memories of Mother," and a quartette of senior C.G.I.T. composed of Marion Hall, Gertrude Cohoon, Harriett Brownlow and Sylvia Mead, "My Mother's Prayer." Both numbers were well rendered, as was also a recitation, "The Mother" (Robert Service), by Genevieve St. Pierre.

Principal MacKenzie was the speaker and held the attention of his audience, young and old alike, as he spoke to them on "Mothers As Partners With God." There were many interesting stories and illustrations which the children appreciated, and they listened intently to the whole address. At the conclusion of the address Mr. Cohoon voiced the thanks of all present for the great service the speaker had done the church and school in the delivery of his messages.

At the evening service the choral music included the anthem, "All In All" (Wm. Dressler) with contralto solo by Miss Grace Wilkie, and the solo, "The Good Shepherd" (Van de Water), sung by Miss Della Wilkie.

Both of these were well sung and made a distinct contribution to the devotional service.

The sermon by Dr. Read was on "A Mother's Jewels." Speaking from the text, "Her children arise up and call her blessed" (Prov. 31:28), the speaker emphasized the importance of mothers discriminating between material responsibilities and social pleasures and recognizing the priceless value that there is in their children. The children who are grateful to their mothers are those who treasure in their hearts the memories of a mother's sacrificial love.

Community has no corner on sharpness in knives. And stainless steel can be had in many other blades today. But this is the only carving-keen, stainless steel table knife yet made which brings the extra blessing of brightness! It shoots sunlight into the dulllest dining-room—justifies discontent with anything less modern. Why not dress up your table?

MOTHERS' DAY OBSERVED IN TRINITY CHURCH.

Mother's Day was observed in Trinity Church yesterday at all the services. In the morning the theme of the sermon was "The Appeal of Mothers' Day" and the special music included a solo by Mrs. C. F. Wardsworth entitled, "Mother, My Dear." The choir sang as its anthem, "The Roseate Hues of Early Dawn."

In the afternoon the Sunday School session in Wesley Hall was given a Mothers' Day cast by the use of special Mothers' Day hymns. Mr. E. M. Armitage sang also "There Were Ninety and Nine."

The evening hour of worship was given to a Mothers' Day lantern service, all the hymns used being special Mothers' Day hymns sung to familiar tunes. Mr. Albert Blair sang Kipling's "Mother of Mine" and the choir rendered the anthem, "The Day is Past and Over." Rev. Dr. Lennon's sermon bore the title, "The Hidden Thoughts of a Mother's Heart." The sermon was illustrated in part by lantern slides pictures.

Record Sheep Heads Caught

Two fine examples of the elusive mountain sheep were recently captured by Jim Brewster, of Brewster Transportation Co., in the Banff Territory. The heads captured are records for the size, the one on the right being 19 inches with the other 18 1/2, this measurement applies from the highest point on the horn to that on the opposite side.

These sheep are often seen from the windows of Canadian Pacific trains which travel through that district and are often a great inducement by their sheer beauty, for tourists to return and hunt these animals. They naturally take artistic poses, often seen posed on the highest crags of mountains, to be alarmed by a slight rustle and away they go, fast as the wind, jumping here and there from one point to another until they reach a plateau of security.

They are game worth hunting and the hunter who secures one is usually immensely proud of his prowess with his rifle.

TOBACCO TRADE TOLD TO KEEP THE GRADE UP

Commission Sees Britain Good Market For Canadian Leaf — Commons Debates Appropriations — Immigration Permit Traffic Accuser Must Appear.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

OTTAWA, May 14.—Hon. W. R. Motherwell tabled in the House today the report of the commission appointed to investigate the tobacco growing industry. The commission recommends for Ontario:

1—That growers guard against overproduction of low-grade leaf.

2—That for 1928 (1) the growers who are about largely to increase acreage give every effort to producing best possible quality in order to not glut this market with low-grade crop.

(2) Burley growers slightly reduce acreage, growers only planting what can be well taken care of.

Canadian burley is not in keen demand in Great Britain and the export trade of this type will not be rapidly enlarged. (3) The surplus 1927 crop in the hands of the processors and manufacturers may materially influence 1928 crop absorption. (4) All dark tobaccos be firecured for the British market.

3—That unseed 1927 crop be disposed of as quickly as possible since its natural deterioration, if not processed would, in any case, largely counteract a higher market in 1928 should such exist for low-grade leaf.

4—Canada can produce the finest quality dark fire-cured and should make every effort gradually to increase production of high class leaf of this kind which meets with distinct favor in Great Britain and may replace this type now imported into Britain from Kentucky.

5—High quality leaf, properly graded and processed, and in constant quantities, is the basis of gaining and holding a popular place on the tobacco market of Great Britain.

6—The Canadian domestic market is still the best market for Canadian growers and the improvement of quality, therefore, is equally important.

7—Growers, especially in newer districts and of less experience, are advised to give special attention to the following points in production, which greatly influence the quality and value of the crop.

(1) Use type suitable to soil. (2) Adopt the best rotation and cultural practices. (3) Greatest care in obtaining pure seed of proper variety. (4) Plant early to get full and early maturity. (5) Increase distance of planting for dark tobacco where greater body of leaf is desired. (6) Fertilize generously but not wastefully. (7) Top early and low to develop full maturity and avoid production of cheap green tips. (8) Prime dark tobaccos during growing season to hasten maturity, improve quality and get rid of useless and leaves at least cost. (9) Stop cutting tobacco too green—it produces low grade leaf of little or no more value than frosted tobacco. (10) Handle tobacco more carefully and avoid shatter, tear, bruise and dirt. (11) If growing on shares, see that your grower knows how to produce high grade leaf—then help him to do it.

8—In curing tobacco the following suggestions are made: (1) Grow only what you can cure well in suitable buildings. (2) Cure carefully—good leaf may be made worthless otherwise. (3) If fire curing, use ample heat at proper times—smoking alone is not enough. (4) That processing companies and federal and provincial departments meet and agree upon and adopt a system of stripping grades—four or more for each type of tobacco and arrange demonstrations amongst growers. (5) That a conference of the same officials discuss and enumerate the many types of grades now used in domestic and export trade. (6) That federal and provincial encouragement be given toward the establishment of a nicotine factory and as a first step, some one be sent to study such processing and business methods as might be available. (7) That the pool directorate be asked to develop plans for organization and operation, so that growers, manufacturing companies and government alike may know how it might function, and if satisfactory, support this marketing method in order to get into operation as soon as possible. (8) If the pool is not to function, then the federal Government

DEATHS REPORTED

MR ISRAEL LIBBY, CENTRE ROAD.

IRON HILL, Que., May 14.—The late Mr. I. B. Libby, whose death was reported in the Record last week, was a son of the late Andrew Libby and his late wife Nancy Davis, of Knowlton.

The deceased was born at Knowlton in 1854, and married Miss Sarah Marsh in 1881. They had lived on the farm where his death occurred for thirty-nine years, making a comfortable home for themselves. Death came unexpectedly and brought to a sad summation their happy married life. Mr. Libby succumbed to a stroke of apoplexy, in a few hours. Everything possible was done for his relief, but without avail.

The late Mr. Libby was a kind, considerate husband, an obliging neighbor and good friend. He will be missed in the neighborhood for his many acts of kindness, and ready help when called on. In politics he was a staunch Liberal.

He is survived by his sorrowing wife and one sister, Miss Eliza Libby, the eldest member of his father's family, who is very ill at her late brother's home and who is being tenderly cared for by Mrs. Libby.

Out of town people who were present at the funeral, which was held at Brome in the Anglican Church on Wednesday afternoon, were, Mr. and Mrs. Carmi Libby and Miss Ernestine Pichel, Brome; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Booth, Farnham, and daughter, Miss Leola Booth, of Montreal; Mrs. Amy Libby, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fletcher, Brome; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marsh, of Bolton.

Pall bearers were neighbors, Messrs. F. E. Spencer, C. Austin, H. Hunt and Glen McClay.

Many friends and neighbors paid a last tribute of respect to deceased and beautiful flowers covered the casket.

Funeral service was conducted by Rev. Gedy and interment was in St. John's Cemetery.

The many friends and neighbors extended heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved wife and sister in their affliction.

THREE GAMES
OF FOOTBALL
ON SATURDAY

Celanese, Playing At Drummondville, Defeated Y.M.C.A. 5 To 0—Windsor Mills Lost Out 3 To 2 In Scheduled Contest With The Textile Team At Magog—Beebe Won 1 To 0 Victory At Expense Of Q.C.R.

Celanese sprang a big surprise in Eastern Townships football circles on Saturday afternoon last at Drummondville when they handed out a five to nothing trouncing to the strong Y. M. C. A. team of Sherbrooke in a regular fixture of the Eastern Townships Football League, which shows that they ought to be strong contenders for the League pennant this year.

Magog won their scheduled contest at Magog on Saturday last, by a one goal margin, when they won at the expense of the visiting Windsor Mills squad by a count of three to two.

The blue jerseyed Beebe eleven swooped down from the granite stronghold on Saturday to make their initial appearance in Sherbrooke this season by defeating Quebec Central, last year's champions, in a closely contested game, by a count of one to nothing.

Goal Scored Twenty Seconds To Time.

The Q. C. R.-Beebe contest had all the earmarks of being a scoreless game, for it was not until twenty seconds before time that Henderson, Beebe forward, accepted Anderson, Sr.'s pass to drive the sphere past McGinty.

For the first fifteen minutes of the Q. C. R.-Beebe contest both sides were on even terms, with the visitors being favored by the slight breeze which was blowing up the field. Quebec Central obtained the first break and, taking advantage of it, forced two corners in succession, though good work by Kirwin in the granitene nets blocked the efforts of Tywman and Pentland. Beebe took the play out of the hands of the Railroaders and for a time made McGinty work stopping shots from Anderson, Sr., and Robertson, who were the most experienced officers of the Beebe line. Half time, Q. C. R. 0, Beebe 0.

The Green Shirts opened the second half with a rush on the Beebe nets, but were soon forced to give

OPEN GOLF
CHAMPIONSHIP IN ENGLAND

British Contender Makes Good Start In Competition.

HUNSTANTON, England, May 14.—Great Britain drew first blood in the British women's open golf championship today when Miss Elizabeth Williamson of the Royal Cromer Club eliminated Miss Madge Miller, of Oakland Hills, Detroit, 3 and one.

A cold northeast wind blowing off the sea caused a great deal of trouble to the early starters and bursts of chilling rain added to their discomfort.

The gallery stuck close to the clubhouse until the match between Mlle. Simone Thion de la Chaume, of France, the defending title holder, and Miss Glenna Collett, chief United States contender, started. Then they donned rain-proof coats of all weights and colors and prepared to brave the worst in order to see the outcome of the first round which might determine the champion.

The French girl holed a forty-foot chip shot from the green edge of the first hole with a birdie three.

Miss Collett took the long second ground to the visitors, who bombarded the Q. C. R. nets from all angles. McGinty, however, was wide awake and, with the aid of his guards, kept his nets clear. The Railroaders came to life and for a time made Kirwin work blocking the well timed efforts of Pentland, Jackson and Tywman. It was not until the final whistle was twenty seconds away that the visitors notched up what proved to be the winning corner. It came during an offensive by the Blue Shirts. Anderson carried the sphere down the field and tapped the pigskin over to Henderson who in turn drove a hard shot past McGinty into the Quebec Central nets. Beebe 1, Q. C. R. 0.

The line-up: Beebe: Kirwin, goal; Hazelton and Larson, backs; Anderson, Sr., Mesher and Cruden, halves, and McIntosh, Anderson, Sr., Henderson, Robertson and Stewart, forwards. Q.C.R.: McGinty, goal; B. Crine and Jarvis, backs; Tywman, Scott and Loach, halves, and McHarg, D. Crine, Jackson, McNally and Pentland, forwards.

Referee, Mr. E. Croft.

MANY VISITED
HOSPITALS ON SATURDAY

National Hospital Day Was Observed Here—Reunion Of Children At St. Vincent de Paul Hospital.

The doors of the Sherbrooke Hospital and the St. Vincent de Paul General Hospital were opened Saturday afternoon to public in observance of National Hospital Day, when all were invited to make a tour of inspection of these institutions. Many people took advantage of this opportunity to gain an insight into the wonderful work being done there, and to become better acquainted with those in charge.

The registration book at the Sherbrooke Hospital showed that the visitors included a number from out of town. The guests were taken over the hospital by the nurses, who explained the use of the different rooms, and gladly answered any questions regarding the work, in which a great deal of interest was shown. The Nurses Home was also visited by those who wished to do so.

A special feature of the afternoon at the St. Vincent de Paul Hospital was the reunion of all children born there during the past ten years. A service was held in the chapel and flowers were distributed, after which a group picture was taken of the children and their mothers. There were eighty-five children present and fifty-four mothers. Three hundred and sixty-five children were born at the hospital during this time, but many are from out of town and could not be present. Attractive paper baskets of candy were given to the boys and girls who were delighted with these gifts.

The Reverend Sisters took the visitors through the hospital, and the new wing and chapel were much admired. The children's ward was an attraction, and many people stopped to speak to the little folk who proudly displayed the candy baskets they had received.

National Hospital Day was inaugurated in 1921 and commemorates Florence Nightingale's birthday. It has been observed in this city for a number of years, and enables the public to see the fine work being done by those whose lives are devoted to the care of the sick.
