Two children die in burning home near Granby

GRANBY — (Staff) — Two children lost their lives last night in a fire which destroyed their parents' home on Route no. 13, two miles from this city, on the road to Cowansville.

Dead are Lyne and Carole, six and five years old respectively, children of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Croteau. The parents were both away at work at the time of the fire, police said.

Pariah city

ABERDEEN (AP) — The growing typhoid epidemic in Aberdeen has turned Scotland's leading resort into a pariah city.

The epidemic, which has caused the death of one woman, continues unchecked. The total of identified cases reached 248 today and 39 suspected cases were under observation.

Car plant soon?

MONTREAL (CP) — Jean Deschamps, Quebec deputy minister of trade and industry, said Tuesday night decision to establish a French automobile assembly plant in Quebec province "is only a matter of days away."

Honor Pope John

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Church paid homage to Pope John today on the first anniversary of his death.

At churches throughout the world his memory was recalled. Here at the headquarters of Roman Catholicism a memorial mass was scheduled in St. Peter's Basilica.

Rusk recommends

WASHINGTON (AP) — State Secretary Dean Rusk and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara returned from a Honolulu conference today with a number of recommendations for President Johnson on new action to strengthen Southeast Asia against Communist pressures.

Grits end talks

OTTAWA (CP) — Top Liberal party workers and organizers ended a two-day meeting Tuesday night with a ringing declaration by Prime Minister Pearson that if an early general election is precipitated, the onus and responsibility will be on the Opposition's heads.

Council may end

HAMILTON (CP) — The possibility that the Canadian Conference on Social Welfare may be dissolved and its functions taken over by the Canadian Welfare Council was indicated here Tuesday.

Reuben Baetz of Ottawa, executive director of the welfare council, told the organization's annual meeting that overtures have been made by the conference, inviting reaction to the idea of making the Canadian conference on social welfare a project of the council.

A neighbor, Mrs. Narcisse Champagne, who was watching the house, saw flames leaping from the second storey window of the children's room at about 9:45 p.m. She ran to the house in a vain attempt to save the children, but the fire was too far advanced. She then returned to her house next door and telephoned the Granby fire department, police said.

When the fire department arrived the fire was well under way and they could do nothing to save the children from the wooden structure, police said.

There are two other children in the family but they were away from home at the time of the fire, police said.

Water was used from a well about a thousand feet from the house. The fire department was called in at 9:54 p.m. and they rushed to the scene with one truck and pump and 12 men. They returned to the station at 2 a.m., an official said.

Q.P.P. from Granby investigated the fire. The cause of the fire was not known, police reported.

French general to be key man

OTTAWA (CP) — Maj.-Gen. Jean Victor Allard, a wartime commander of the Royal 22nd Regiment, is expected to become one of the key men in the reorganized defence department.

Informed sources say the 50-year-old native of Ste. Monique, Que., likely will be named chief of operational readiness, the No. 3 job in the new defence staff, with the rank of lieutenant-general.

Moreover, Gen. Allard may become chief of the defence staff in some two years when Air Chief Marshal Frank Miller, chief - designate, and Lt. - Gen. Geoffrey Walsh, vice-chief-designate, retire at about the same time. He would be the first French-speaking Canadian to reach the highest position in the armed forces.

Meanwhile, there are indications that the government legislation establishing a single chief of staff in place of the present chiefs of staff committee system will not be passed by Parliament before the original July 1 target date.

The bill still is in the Commons defence committee where former Conservative defence minister Douglas Harkness has been giving it a searching examination. Mr. Harkness' main point is that the new system will be more cumbersome than the present one.

GIVING EVIDENCE

Defence Minister Hellyer and Associate Defence Minister Cardin still are giving evidence and the committee will also hear from at least three retired officers.

In the meantime, defence headquarters has almost come to a standstill.

SYLVAN SETTING — Plans by the newly formed Townships Playhouse Guild Incorporated are well underway to convert this former pigery into a new playhouse at North Hatley. Situated on the west side of Lake Massawippi one mile out of North Hatley towards Magog near the Noble Ranch, the huge barn is on land given by Arthur Virgin of North Hatley, honorary president of the organization.

The playhouse will have a seating capacity of some 250 persons, and will be opened in the summer of 1965. (Record photo by Doug Gerrish)

To build playhouse near North Hatley

NORTH HATLEY — Establishment of a new Playhouse at North Hatley was announced this morning in a joint statement issued by Arthur Virgin of North Hatley, honorary president, and Mrs. J. A. Scott of Magog, chairman of the board of directors.

The new venture is being incorporated as a non-profit organization under the name of the TOWNSHIPS PLAYHOUSE GUILD INCORPORATED, and plans to open in the summer of 1965.

North Hatley's new playhouse, situated about a mile from the west shore of Lake Massawippi, is being transformed from a former pigery into a picturesque, up-to-date summer playhouse. The board of directors has assured the public that all traces of the former tenants have long since disappeared! Reconstruction plans are well advanced and will include spacious level parking facilities, as well as comfortable seating accommodation inside the playhouse for an audience of upwards of 250.

In bringing legitimate stage presentations back to the Eastern Townships, said Mrs. Scott, "we have been encouraged by the good wishes of many people in this area who have shown great enthusiasm for this project. We are most fortunate in having acquired the present site and building which has been made possible by the generosity of Mr. Arthur Virgin of North Hatley. Our plans for re-modelling are now complete and we are at present negotiating with a well-known company to produce plays for our first season next summer.

"In addition to reviving good live summer theatre in the Eastern Townships, we plan to sponsor a summer school of acting and stagecraft and to establish scholarships for deserving students of the Theatre Arts. The playhouse will also be available to local theatrical and musical organizations, on a rental basis, for presentation subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

"Our next step, and it is the means whereby we are to survive," Mrs. Scott said, "is to launch a public financial campaign for renovation and improvements. In this connection I am pleased to acknowledge with sincere thanks receipt of a donation — our first money donation — of One Hundred dollars."

Top candidate for nomination

Goldwater takes win in California

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Senator Barry Goldwater swept to a stunning California victory and a commanding position today in the Republican presidential race. By a narrow margin, the Arizona senator captured a rich bloc of 86 delegates from Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York in California's primary yesterday. The delegates are bound to vote for Goldwater on the first ballot at the nominating convention in San Francisco starting in July.

Farm funds fall

OTTAWA (CP) — An important federal agricultural lending agency is nearly out of funds because of demand, Agriculture Minister Hays told the Commons Tuesday night in explaining amendments to toss $200,000,000 worth of financial beef into the reserves of the farm credit corporation.

Higher loans will cost farmers more, he said, but the existing five-per-cent interest rate will be continued for amounts up to the existing loan ceilings of $20,000 and $27,500. Those ceilings are to be doubled to $40,000 and $55,000 and anything over the existing limits will bear interest at a variable rate of six per cent or more.

More changes can be expected, Mr. Hays said in referring to the role of financial Credit in helping Canadian farmers adjust to fundamental farm industry shifts.

His proposals to boost the lending maximums and increase lending capacity won general support. But the parliamentary Opposition took a dim view of the higher interest rates.

Quebec mayors want to stay in REGINA (CP) — Quebec delegates to the annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities said Tuesday they want to stay in the federation.

But they told a press conference they would ask the CFMM executive to see that the federation gives more attention to the special problems of various areas of Canada and takes greater care to avoid trespassing on provincial government rights in dealing directly with the federal government.

The press conference came after CFMM President C. N. Kushner, mayor of West Kildonan, Man., said there were "powerful forces which would have you (Quebec members) leave the federation."

Rockefeller captured most of the state's 58 counties, but a decisive surge for Goldwater in late southern California returns, chiefly from Los Angeles, nailed down the bitter contest for the westerner.

Results from 29,800 of 32,861 voting districts showed: Goldwater 969,937; Rockefeller 938,386.

The victory in this last presidential primary before the July 13 Republican national convention brought Goldwater within striking distance of the 665 votes he'll need for the nomination.

He called it a "giant step" toward his quest to lead the Republican ticket into the November election.

Pierre Salinger, former White House press secretary, defeated state controller Alan Cranston for the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate seat held by ailing Democratic Senator Clair Engle.

The 39-year-old former San Francisco reporter, who could not even vote for himself because he's registered in Virginia, will face the Republican nominee, onetime actor George Murphy.

Goldwater's presidential primary win came only after a cliff-hanging count of votes that had Rockefeller ahead for a while.

Republican national chairman William E. Miller said the California results pushed Goldwater close to the 655 convention votes needed for the nomination.

Governor Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon, who will serve as convention keynote speaker and temporary chairman, said the senator appeared to have clinched the nomination.

Goldwater flew to Washington after watching early results flow into his Los Angeles headquarters.

WINS DERBY

EPSON, England — (CP) — The Irish-trained colt Santa Claus, a heavy favorite, swept to victory today in the English Derby, the richest horse race ever run in England.

Flag flies in US

NEW YORK (CP) — The flag that Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson wants Canada to adopt as its official emblem waved bravely in the breezes on Park Avenue Tuesday, red maple leaves, blue bars and all.

A big copy of the Pearson-favored flag, not yet approved by Parliament, hung from a flagstaff on the front of Delmonico's Hotel, Park Ave., and 59th St., visible for three or four blocks in each direction.

Sets minimum wage target date in 1965

OTTAWA (CP) — The federal government has set Jan. 1, 1965, as target date for establishing a national minimum wage for workers in industries under federal jurisdiction, a reliable source reports.

The deadline is subject to early parliamentary approval of legislation to establish the minimum wage and other labor standards.

The labor standards measure is expected to be placed before the Commons soon—in time for debate before a summer recess.

Covering about 556,000 employees under federal jurisdiction—about 10 per cent of the non-farm work force—the government's labor code is reported to provide:

- $1.25 an hour as a minimum wage.
- An eight-hour standard work day.
- A 40-hour standard work week.
- Two weeks vacation with pay after each year of employment.
- Eight paid statutory holidays annually.

The source indicated that machinery will be provided in the legislation to give local industries in low-wage areas more time to meet the $1.25 level.

Aim of the extra time would be to avoid economic disruption for local firms that could result from sudden upward adjustments in wage costs.

However, the source said individual firms granted extra time would be given deadlines for meeting the federal minimum.

Most workers within federal jurisdiction are employed in industries where wage rates are already above the $1.25 level. The federal labor code would cover workers on the railways, airlines, shipping lines, on the waterfront, in banks, radio and TV stations, telegraph offices and grain elevators.

About 339,000 are employed in private industry. Crown corporations and other public agencies. Another 197,000 are federal civil servants.

More than 5,000,000 other workers have jobs in industries under provincial jurisdiction. While all provinces have minimum wage laws, most are generally below the proposed federal level. In some provinces, the minimum rates apply only to certain districts or to certain occupations.

In the last two years, most provinces have been moving their minimum wage rates upward.

Pickersgill in flag fight

OTTAWA (CP) — Transport Minister Pickersgill is expected to walk right into the Commons flag fight today, fresh from a brief trip to London and Paris.

Even before Mr. Pickersgill's return, the Opposition peppered the government with questions Tuesday about his audience with the Queen last Friday.

Prime Minister Pearson denied suggestions that the transport minister met the Queen on a government mission to consult her on the flag resolution introduced in the House last week.

He said Mr. Pickersgill travelled to London and Paris at his own expense on a private business trip. The minister had decided to seek a courtesy call at Buckingham Palace to inform the Queen about the flag resolution.

Opposition Leader Diefenbaker said this information should be passed on to Newfoundland Premier Smallwood.

He quoted Mr. Smallwood as telling the Newfoundland legislature that the federal government had done the province a great honor by sending the Newfoundland representative in the federal cabinet (Mr. Pickersgill) on a mission to consult the Queen.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — So it's goodbye, Hollywood, aloha, Hawaii, for Richard Boone.

After 14 years as a Hollywood actor, including service in three television series, Boone is moving with his wife and 10-year-old son to the island of Oahu. But that doesn't mean he's relegating himself to a life of ease among the palms.

"I am not capable of retiring," he explained. "I'm merely shifting my base of operations to a place that is only 4½ hours away from Hollywood by jet. I expect to be here often, if producers call me, and I hope they do."

But he also hopes to be working in the islands.

"I think I've learned the production side of our business pretty well—I'd be pretty stupid if I hadn't," he said. "I want to establish a film studio in Hawaii with the purpose of producing features and television series and providing a base for other movie companies that come to Hawaii for locations."

INDOOR SHOOTING

"The studio would be a boon for film locations. It would give companies cover sets to use in case of bad weather; within two hours they could be shooting indoors. Time lost by weather can be murder on a budget. We lost 16 days on Rio Conchos, which I just made at Kanab, Utah."

Boone has rented a house near Honolulu for 15 months, then will decide where he wants his permanent home in the islands. There can be no doubt as to his pulling up stakes. He has shipped his fishing boat to Hawaii, and his son Peter is registered at Punahou School.

Three members of Cowansville HS. staff honored

COWANSVILLE — The teachers of the High School held a surprise shower in honor of three of its members, on May 25, in the school's Home Economics room.

The three honored were: Miss Elinor Craig and Miss Brenda Frizzle, who are to be married this summer and Mrs. J. Thomas, who is retiring.

Each was presented with a gift and the good wishes of the staff for future happiness.

Mrs. T. Hauer was in charge of food and decorations.

Mr. Gleason Painter was called to Ontario by the illness of his brother, Mr. Lindsay Painter.

attorney. Conviction followed.

"People often are attracted by low prices," said a bureau representative. "And often are tempted to call in someone who advertises a charge of only $1, $2 or $3 for a service call. We've pointed out many times that a repairman can't make a living on such a basis and that he might try to make up the difference with other charges."

The three major television networks, using millions of dollars worth of electronic equipment, hope to demonstrate dramatically tonight how computers have changed the business of reporting election results.

All three expect to come up with computer projections within a few minutes after the California polls close and to reveal accurately the winners. NBC and CBS will have returns specials at 10 p.m. EDT and ABC will report with tape bulletins followed by an 11 p.m. special report.

South Durham Guild and W.A. hold meeting

SOUTH DURHAM — Members of St. James Guild and W.A., met May 20 at the home of Mrs. Hazel Mitchell. Devotions were led by the president.

Delegates for the bi-annual meeting of W.A., to be held in St. Peter's Church, Sherbrooke, were asked to plan to go June 9 or 10.

Items for the Indian School were on display.

It was decided that the friendship circle parties would start the first part of June and continue throughout the summer.

The travelling food basket and the jingle apron were handed in.

The bazaar convener sold remnants and reported that aprons are needed.

The next meeting is to be held at the home of Murray Wright.

Lunch was served at the close of the meeting.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

'NO TRUMP' IS CONTRACT PEST

One of my pet peeves arises from that type of bridge player I have dubbed the "no-trump-ist."

Everyone likes to play no-trump contracts, but the no-

West opened the queen of hearts and dummy's king was gobbled up by East's ace. Back came a heart and the defense cashed six fast heart tricks while South was busy discarding winners.

South complained bitterly about his bad luck. He pointed out that his bidding had forced West to make a blind lead and that West might well have opened a spade or a diamond. It also was even money that West would hold the ace of hearts, whereupon the heart lead would not have hurt him anyway.

For some strange reason, North had nothing to say. Perhaps, she was just too nice to speak up or maybe she had learned that it wouldn't do any good. There is no cure for this no-trump disease. Any criticism of a no-trumpist is apt just to lead to more and worse no-trump bids from him in an effort to show a profit on one of them.

I did not comment either. Kibitzer should be seen and not heard and I am not going to comment now, except to point out that if North had been the no-trump declarer nothing could have hurt him.

Card Sense

Q—The bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Clb. Pass 1 Dia. Pass
1 Hrs. Pass 1 Spd. Pass
2 N.T. Pass ?

You, South, hold: Spades, K-J-7-5; Hearts, 5-3; Diamonds, K-Q-J-10-4; Clubs, A-6

What do you do?
A—Bid four no-trump. You have 14 good points and a very nice diamond suit.

About Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The Better Business Bureau covering the New York metropolitan area recently received a flurry of complaints about a television repair service—fake repairs and phoney bills.

A television set in working order except for one worn-out $2 tube was installed in the home of a bureau investigator and the New York metropolitan area repair service summoned.

The repairman, muttering something about a big, difficult job, carried the set to his shop. In due time it was returned—with a $41 bill. The information was turned over to the district attorney. Conviction followed.

"People often are attracted by low prices," said a bureau representative. "And often are tempted to call in someone who advertises a charge of only $1, $2 or $3 for a service call. We've pointed out many times that a repairman can't make a living on such a basis and that he might try to make up the difference with other charges."

The three major television networks, using millions of dollars worth of electronic equipment, hope to demonstrate dramatically tonight how computers have changed the business of reporting election results.

All three expect to come up with computer projections within a few minutes after the California polls close and to reveal accurately the winners. NBC and CBS will have returns specials at 10 p.m. EDT and ABC will report with tape bulletins followed by an 11 p.m. special report.

Monks shun publicity

ST. BENOIT DU LAC — (Staff) — Too much publicity is making the St. Benoit du Lac Benedictine monastery close its doors to reporters "for a few years."

A monastery spokesman said yesterday that the monastery has received a great deal of publicity in the last few years.

So much, in fact that the Abbot has asked that no further news stories be given for a while.

The monastery, located on the east shore of Lake Memphremagog, is noted as a place for retreats. The monks there also make l'Ermite cheese that is sold across Canada.

But while newsmen will not be able to write stories there, they are still free to avail themselves of St. Benoit's famous hospitality.

Mayor to urge municipal loan for water plans

Mayor Armand Nadeau said this morning he would propose financing of Sherbrooke's drinking water project — irrespective of which of the two proposed solutions is chosen — through the federal government's municipal loan fund.

The mayor said he would propose petitioning for a $2,625,000 loan from the fund at next week's meeting of city council. The loan would finance about two-thirds of the estimated $3,500,000 cost of the project.

Cerebral palsy meeting

The aims of The Cerebral Palsy Association of Quebec Inc. will be outlined Thursday at a general meeting of the Eastern Townships Division at St. Francois School, 825 Bowen Street, Sherbrooke.

Parents and all persons in the Townships who are interested in cerebral palsy are invited to attend the meeting which begins at 8.15 p.m.

Louis J. M. Gravel, president of the Cerebral Palsy Association will explain the aims and show a film. Doctor Albert Royer of St. Justine Hospital and president of the Medical Council of the Association will speak about the medical aspect of cerebral palsy. The meeting will be presided over by division president Mrs. Fred Langer.

Hit, run charge

A Bromontville automobilist was charged in Sessions Court Tuesday with impaired driving and hit and run. The charges arose out of a road accident on Route 5 near Windsor the previous night in which Clement D'Allaire was implicated. He pleaded guilty to both charges, was fined a total of $100 and had his licence suspended for three months by Judge Redmond Hayes.

Tourist Association director says:

Canadians don't know own land

Canadians are the most travelled people in the world but they don't know their own country, a director of the Canadian Tourist Association Maurice Gervais told the Sherbrooke Rotary club Tuesday.

"It is a shocking statistic that two out of five adult Canadians have not lived in or visited in any province but the one in which they live" said Mr. Gervais.

The speaker, who is also assistant general manager of the Banque Canadienne Nationale was speaking to the club on behalf of the Canadian Tourist Association, which groups representatives from varied levels of government, industry and commerce interested in tourist promotion.

Speaking on the travel in Canada theme, he said that in these days when so much discussion centers on the problems of maintaining confederation, there is no medicine more strongly recommended by the Association than to "Know Canada Better" by travelling in Canada. He felt that in this way Canadians will better understand each other.

The Canadian image of a vast empty land devoid of culture and history which so many Europeans and Americans had is, to a large degree shared by Canadians themselves, Mr. Gervais said.

"We are as guilty of this misconception as they are," he declared.

To show that Canada defied this definition, the speaker took Rotary members on a quick word tour across the country describing many of the natural and man-made tourist attractions.

Drawing his own conclusion from the armchair tour, Mr. Gervais remarked that "Canada has been dealt an extraordinary hand of cards."

"But it is up to all of us to play the hand right."

The speaker emphasized the importance of the tourist industry in the Canadian economy describing it as "big business."

"It is no longer a third class enterprise that happens every summer. The volume of tourist dollars that go into someone's till in Canada is more than $2 billion each year."

"About $600 million of this comes from foreign tourists — from the United States and from overseas countries. That is almost double the amount we received from external sources five years ago."

He said that a doubling of tourist volume is expected from West Europe in the next three years. But the main push for the tourist dollar must be made in the United States. Here we have only scratched the surface he said.

The fact that Canadians have in the past spent more per capita in travelling outside the country has been a "terrific financial strain." The devaluation of the dollar and restrictions on customs had redressed the balance to a great extent, he said.

"But we must increase the number of American tourists from last year's 1 1/2 million total."

He said that the project of tourist promotion which the TCA is pursuing is one of the most important to Canadians. He estimated that five to ten per cent of our labor force works in tourism.

Old autos put out to pasture

Car junkyards hard to regulate; Quebec contemplates legislation

Old cars are often treated like old horses—when they're old and gray they're put out to pasture.

So when one passes by on the road one is caught by the breath-taking view of rusty fenders, broken windows, and tireless axles. And around them are tires and tanks and transmissions—sprinkled here and there with old crankcase oil.

Many municipalities have in the Eastern Townships by-laws regulating auto junk heaps—but some are better enforced than others.

Sherbrooke, according to city hall officials, has seven junkyards, each of which must pay $200 for a licence. A city bylaw requires that the yards be surrounded by a six-foot fence and that scrap be piled no higher than the fence.

City approval must be obtained before any new yards can be started.

The bylaw is difficult to enforce, says city building inspector Aime Gagnon. Junk yards will comply for awhile, then will begin to pile scrap above fence levels or outside of the yard. When squeezed hard they will comply again but after a few months the yard will be as bad as it was before.

Mr. Gagnon mentioned seeing a yard on Courcelle Street which two weeks ago, was piled ten feet high with scrap.

In a case like this, he says, a letter of warning is sent to the yard's owner. If he doesn't comply legal procedures against him must be approved by the city council.

Often, he says, the legal procedures will be dropped when the owner complies with the order—only to be resumed some months later when the junkyard has returned to its old conditions.

Sherbrooke MLA and provincial Labour Minister Carrier Fortin says that junkyards are ugly and disagreeable and should be fenced. There is no doubt, he says, that around the new highways of the province no junkyards will be allowed to be established.

Quebec Minister of Highways, the Hon. Bernard Pinard is reported to be preparing legislation to regulate roadside auto junk yards. At present, say department spokesmen, there is a law regulating roadside signs but none against junkyards.

New legislation would give the department of highways jurisdiction over land beside highways bypassing cities and towns.

It would also require special department of highways permission to put up junkyards as well as roadside signs.

At present the regulation of junkyards is left to municipalities.

One such junkyard is situated on Belvedere Road beside the Belvedere Development and outside the Sherbrooke City Limits. It extends from the road for an estimated thousand feet and is made up of some hundreds of wrecked cars.

Pressure from neighbors as well as an Ascot Township by-law is forcing the owner, Cyrille Sevigny, to move his stock to a more out-of-the-way place on the Albert Mines Road five miles away.

By DAVID WEBSTER
(Record staff reporter)

Homeowners in the nearby development, many of whom have picture windows facing the junkyard say that it is ugly and they will be glad to see it disappear.

The bylaw prohibiting junkyards within 500 feet of the Belvedere Road was passed over ten years ago, says Ascot Township secretary Ralph Broadhurst, but it has been hard to enforce. Mr. Sevigny did not have enough room at the back of his property and began to put cars closer to the road. However, when the land near him was taken for the housing development pressure was exerted so that he is now moving to a larger 20-acre farm.

There are six junkyards scattered around in the township, he said. And they seem to grow.

"I think regulation of them needs provincial backing," he says. "For there's nothing in our code that can deal adequately with them."

Putting a fence around them doesn't help too much, he suggested, for it can become dilapidated and look as bad as the junkyard it surrounds.

However, he said, auto scrapping is a necessary business for there has to be someone to do it. And the dealers have to make a living too, he said.

Carl Lundeborg who has a large number of auto bodies on his farm on Route 5 near North Hatley, looks upon his display of car wrecks as advertising.

"But aren't they ugly?" one asks.

"They don't stink do they?" he returns forcefully. "If you go by a farm you smell manure piles." "If the government is going to restrict junkyards it should take measures against manure piles too," he added.

"I have lots of room here," says Mr. Lundeborg, "for I can fill up the whole farm." He is (predictably) cool to government restrictions. "This is my business and my bread and butter," he says. "I have to work alone because if anyone else worked here he would rob me blind of auto parts."

"However," he said, "if the government wishes to put up a fence or something along my property it is okay."

He suggests that the government could plant trees along his property as part of their reforestation program. This would shut out the view of the wrecked cars.

"But everybody notices me because I'm on the main highway," says Mr. Lundeborg. "Besides mine there are junkyards on the Cookshire, East Angus and Capleton Roads."

MAY WARMER, DRIER BUT SUN SHONE LESS

Eastern Townships' residents were treated to above-average temperatures and below-average rainfall during the month of May, although the sun shone much less than usual, according to figures released by the Dominion Experimental Farm, Lennoxville.

The average temperature for the month was a balmy 55.35 degrees, about three degrees higher than the average for the past half-century and five degrees warmer than last year. The highest temperature for the month was 87 degrees, only two degrees lower than the record high. The coldest day of the month, however, was a nippy 26 degrees.

Only 2.43 inches of rain fell in the Townships during May, slightly less than last year and more than half an inch less than the 50-year average. The largest rainfall for a single day fell the 14th with .57 inches.

Many overcast days, however, led to a total of only 17.6 hours of sunshine, more than 30 hours below the May average, and almost 100 hours below last year's total. Nevertheless, this total was a comfortable 50 hours above the record low, set in 1945.

Stanstead approves additional hydrants

STANSTEAD — (Special) — Additional hydrants are to be installed along Stanstead's Dewey street from the Main street and beyond the boulevard so that there will not be more than 500 feet between hydrants, it was decided at Monday's meeting of Stanstead Municipal Council.

Council also accepted an offer by Howard Cass for a 60 foot U street to be laid out South of Hackett street. Highway engineers will be asked for approval.

A $50.00 grant was authorized in support of the Frontier Swim project and another $25.00 for the Border Peanut League baseball. It was agreed to donate to the Weir Memorial Park appeal the same amount as Rock Island and Beebe Councils will, but not exceeding $100.00.

Mayor E. J. Struthers will represent Stanstead Council at a meeting of the Union of Municipal Councils to be held June 13 at the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec City.

A complaint was heard about dog nuisance to gardens. This is being turned over to the Municipal police department for attention.

In order to have all hydrants in the Municipality checked by the fire department for pressure, Council agreed to allow $20,000 per fireman for practices. There will be at least 12 annual practices.

Council gave permission for E. Hyatt to fence, at his own costs, the fair grounds west of the boulevard to be used as pasture until further notice. A small remuneration will be made by Mr. Hyatt to Council.

Mayor Struthers and possibly other Council members will attend a meeting of the County Council in Ayer's Cliff, June 10. Centralization of the Registry office, now located in Stanstead will be discussed.

Cyprus force needs police powers

Addressing a joint session of the Canadian Senate and House of Commons, Mr. U. Thant, the secretary-general of the United Nations presented his views of the Cyprus situation.

Urging an extension of the present peace-keeping operations he declared that a total breakdown in Cyprus could lead to a wider and more dangerous conflict. The very fact that the United Nations force was sent to the island is a recognition of this danger and no objection can be taken to Mr. Thant's opinions in this respect.

But when he declares that the UN contingent is not in Cyprus to seek a military victory because police forces do not exist in the island or seek military victories, the Secretary-General is on less solid ground.

Normal procedures for a police force called in to break up fights is to first disarm the participants, if possible. This does not mean that the police are exceeding their authority nor are they being repressive or punitive. They are just applying basic common sense to their basic job of restoring peace.

One of the problems facing the UN force in Cyprus is that those who shape UN policy refuse to give the troops the powers of a real police force.

If the Canadians and others who make up the "police" force were given the right to disarm the rival Greek and Turkish Cypriot gangs who are carrying on terrorist activity, the number of incidents which threaten to achieve major proportions would be sharply reduced.

Unarmed groups or groups equipped only with sticks and stones cannot stir up trouble like those armed with shot-guns, rifles and machine guns.

During every social season girls step into the upper set by coming out.

Seven piece swimwear illegal too?

There was a time when the wearer of a one piece swim suit was regarded as a shameless hussy who probably smoked.

Now, in Sherbrooke at least, the wearing of one piece swimming apparel has the full sanction, yea, the compulsion, of municipal law.

We can foretell the shame that will descend on the family the next time that our maiden aunt, Mathilda Toogood, a rather conservative girl of 63, takes her dip in Jacques Cartier park clad in her usual cap, middly blouse, bloomers, stockings and bathing shoes.

A siren will be heard in the distance. Squad cars will race to the scene. Burly policemen will emerge from the dust raised by the vehicles. The fire department motor boat will be launched and Aunt Mathilda will be dragged from the waters, clapped in irons, and driven, under heavy guard, to the local lockup.

If two-piece swim suits are illegal, how much more so are seven-piece garments, not to mention unmentionables?

It will be for the courts to decide, of course, but it would be reasonable to assume that if council provides for a fine of $20 or two months in prison for wearing a two-piece suit, then Aunt Mathilda's seven-piece should be worth $70 or seven months.

Don't speed on slippery roads and you'll stop one type of rocking and rolling—over!

Bursaries unconnected with library

Dear Sir:

The Austin Women's Institute is most grateful for the publicity given by your paper to their new library project in Magog.

At the same time I feel that I must ask you to correct certain misstatements which occurred in the article "English Language Library Sought for Magog" which accompanied the excellent photograph taken by Charles Catchpugh in your May 29 issue.

The first bursary, alluded to as my gift in memory of my late husband, was in fact, given by the members of the Institute in 1950, a tribute which I have always appreciated very deeply.

Mrs. Fisher did present a bursary to the Princess Elizabeth High School in memory of her late husband, Mr. Eric Fisher, who did so much for the school during his lifetime.

In neither case have these bursaries anything whatever to do with the library project which was the subject of the article. This was inaugurated less than a year ago and has been entirely financed to date by Institute funds raised at their summer fairs.

Both Mrs. Fisher and I would be greatly obliged if you would publish this letter to correct any misapprehension in the mind of the public which may unwittingly have been caused by your article.

Yours truly,
MARJORIE S. MITCHELL

Could have had Ensign 5 years ago

Gentlemen:

Am enclosing ballots, from my wife and myself, in the National Flag Poll, although I think that the newspapers are foolish, and are at least five years behind the times.

The Red Ensign could have been accepted as the Canadian Flag five years ago, if our politicians had shown a little intestinal fortitude at the time, but they did not have it.

I would say that the majority of those who are now opposed to a new flag have never touched, owned, or raised a flag over their home, or business, for many a year, even on Dominion Day.

I have raised the Red Ensign over my garage daily for the past eight years, from the time the snow goes until it flies again, but if a new distinctive flag for Canada is adopted, I will fly it gladly.

We need a flag which all Canadians, of whatever national origin, can accept as their own. Let us start thinking as Canadians, not as English, Irish, French, etc.

Yours most sincerely,
Herman R. Conley,
Windsor.

Pearson has acted irresponsibly

Sir,

There are some who ask "why so much fuss over a flag, a bit of cloth?"

The fight to retain the Red Ensign is not over a bit of cloth, but what it represents. What it represents must be observed if any legislation is to be desirable and beneficial.

Of course, Mr. Pearson has acted very irresponsibly in sparking such an inflammable, controversial subject.

Mrs. L. Pratt, Galt, Ont.

Flag change news sours stomach

Dear Sir,

May I have a small space in your paper?

I am getting a sour stomach listening to the radio, and reading about the changing of our flag. I cannot find anyone who can tell me what good it would do or why we need a change.

Our flag has stood for honor and our boys have fought two wars to keep it flying over our country.

Why would the members that we poor goats vote for and get to run our affairs, want to spend their time in such a useless manner when there are so many more important things to do?

Many of our good men gave their lives for our country and flag, and now we have high paid men who want to tear it down and throw it in the garbage.

They are acting like the juveniles, that every city and town are having such a job to keep in line, by putting bombs in telephone booths and other places, also pushing down tombstones and any kind of destruction.

The police would find them and they would be punished. What can we expect of our young people, when adults do the things they do.

Many thought things were going to the dogs, so at the last election formed a minority government, and the way some things are being done. Thank God, it was not a majority!

The National Anthem is another thing that wise men want to change. What is the rush as it would cost a lot to be published and if things keep on, we may be singing, "Yankee Doodle."

Yours truly
Leslie Call

WEST BERLIN (AP) — West German Chancellor Ludwig Erhard says he favors exchanges of newspapers between West Germany and Communist East Germany. He told a student audience this is in response to a recent suggestion from Communist party boss Walter Ulbricht that he might be willing to permit it.

But old ideas die hard

Agitate for 18-year-old voting

By BEN WARD

Agitation to give 18-year-olds the right to vote in federal and provincial elections is gaining momentum in Canada.

Four of the 10 provinces have already reduced the provincial voting age from 21 to 18 years of age, a fifth is on the verge of it, and action at the federal level is likely in the not-too-distant future.

There are some notable hold-outs, however, and the battle is far from over. The tradition that 21 is the age of maturity, political as well as physical, appears to be dying hard.

A Cross-Canada Survey by The Canadian Press showed this situation:

—Quebec and Saskatchewan give the vote at 18.

—British Columbia and Alberta set it at 19.

—Newfoundland is in the process of enacting legislation for voting at 19.

—Ontario's cabinet has discussed the idea of reducing the voting age.

—Moves to lower the voting age were defeated last year in the Nova Scotia and Manitoba legislatures.

—Servicemen may vote federally at any age.

OTTAWA TO ACT

Federal legislation to lower the civilian voting age to 18 is one of the election pledges the Pearson government has promised to fulfill during the 26th Parliament, which could run until early 1968.

A tip that action might come sooner was seen last November when the Commons committee on privileges and elections voted unanimously to recommend such a move. The committee's report was given to the Commons but has not come up for consideration.

Prime Minister Pearson told a Young Liberals' meeting in Montreal Nov. 16 that he planned to act on the measure "soon."

Approval by Parliament would add 783,000 names to federal voters' lists. There now are about 10,000,000 eligible voters in the 21-and-over category.

Federal action might lead to extra pressure on the provinces to grant the vote at 18.

Sample reaction across the country tends to favor voting by the younger set. Proponents argue that with today's growing stress on education, an 18-year-old has a better grasp of national affairs—both from the historic and current standpoint—than the average adult.

But young people themselves are not unanimous in favoring a lower voting age.

"I don't think it would be a good idea unless restrictions were placed on it, such as high school graduation," says Evelyn Weir, 17-year-old student in Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

"I don't think in many cases a person 18 or 19 is competent to form opinions, but I think that if a person is old enough to give his life for his country he should have some say in the government. People in the armed forces should have the vote."

Mrs. Carolyn Morrison, Conservative member of the Manitoba legislature, says: "I firmly believe that our young people at 18, at least the greatest percentage of them, archbishop of Algoma and Metropolitan of Ontario.

"I would think that at the present juncture the minimum voting age should remain at 21. I haven't detected any undue pressure on the part of young people to possess the right to vote."

He suggests that before such legislation is introduced in Ontario, seminars be held across the province to hear the views of young people.

Apart from the war years when some provinces allowed 18-year-old servicemen to vote, the first provincial step toward lowering the age limit was taken by Alberta in 1944. Saskatchewan made its move in 1948, B.C. in 1953 and Quebec this year.

Richard Bizier

Sings a song of separatism

By MALCOLM REID

MONTREAL (CP) — What does an unemployed 19-year-old just out of jail for separatist terrorism do?

Richard Bizier preaches Quebec separatism in song in a downtown Montreal nightclub.

When he left Montreal's Bordeaux Jail after serving four months of a six-month sentence for helping Georges and Jeanne Schoeters plant a bomb in an Outremont RCAF centre, Quebec separatist publications said Bizier was "free to starve to death."

But soon his photograph appeared on the marquee of a St. Urbain Street cabaret with the Parisian name of St. Germain des Pres.

"Marc Gelin had the idea that I could sing nationalist songs in his act—he is very nationalist himself," explains Bizier. Gelin, a crooner who somewhat resembles Bizier in tall plumpness, has since moved with his troupe east to a new club on St. Catherine Street called, with more habitant earthiness, Le Cochon Borgne — The Half-Blind Pig.

There, twice each night and three times on week-ends, Richard Bizier delivers numbers ranging from topical ditties ridiculing Quebec federal ministers Maurice Lamontagne and Guy Favreau to a song from the French Resistance.

SEPARATIST AUDIENCE "I don't want to make a career in music," he says. "It gives me a chance to pass on a message, to work for independence democratically, and at the same time save money for my studies."

Before he joined the Front de Liberation Quebecois, whose 1963 bombings killed one man and maimed another, he worked as an elevator operator in the Queen Elizabeth Hotel. But the money he earned there went into the terrorist organization, he says, and he did not take up political science studies at the University of Montreal as he had intended.

Most of the clientele exposed to his message at Le Cochon Borgne are young and separatist, and he admits he is preaching largely to the converted.

"But some people come here who are undecided, and there is nothing like music for stirring people's enthusiasm."

His voice is not as polished as his fellow-performers' and he hasn't got their verve—

MANAGER NEUTRAL

Bizier expresses sympathy for other independence movements than Quebec's, such as that of Flemish-speaking Belgians and of the Irish republicans—some of whose rebel songs he says he heard from a sympathetic Irish customer.

THE CUSHION SOLE SOCK THAT WENT TO TOWN!

Originally we thought of them mainly for golf, tennis, skiing, badminton and other sports. But first thing we knew people were wearing them every day... they really went to town, day in day out. People had never enjoyed anything like the restful cushion of 100% Kroy wool. And the comfort of the wool on the inside of the sock and the strength of the stretch nylon on the outside really intrigued them. They liked the "One Size" idea that made it easy to get a perfect fit. There's a choice of twenty pleasant colours in this famous Harvey Woods Kroylon Cushion Sole sock. Try a few pairs for sports and everyday wear.

For and about Women

Walker-Parsons wedding

BURY — The marriage of Donald Martha, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Parsons of Bury, to Mr. Ardley Burns Walker, only son of Rev. W. E. Walker, took place on Saturday, May 23, 1964, at 3.30 o'clock, in the United Church, Bury. Rev. R. Skuse, pastor of the church officiating, assisted by Rev. W. Walker, father of the groom. Mrs. Roy Harrison was the organist, who accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Alan Sutherland, who sang, Bless this House, prior to the ceremony and during the signing of the register. A Wedding Prayer. Large bouquets of mauve and white lilacs adorned the Chancel and the guest pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a dress of white lace over taffeta with high neckline and long sleeves ending in points over the hands, three tier full length skirt, with detachable train of lace applied organza, tied in front with a small bow. Her shoulder length veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a lace flower. A sterling silver cross and earrings, gift of the groom were her only ornaments. She carried a white Bible adorned with yellow roses and streamers. The Bible was a gift from Mrs. Stewart of Scotsburn, N.S., the widow of the late Mr. Stewart who had married the bride's parents, and later baptized the bride and her twin brother.

Mrs. Hugh Wright, cousin of the bride and matron of honor, Miss Audrey Mills, friend of the bride, as bridesmaid, Miss Barbara Walker, sister of the groom and little Miss Dawn McPherson of Foster, cousin of the bride, as flower girl were dressed alike in aqua organza over taffeta, similarly styled with short sleeves, high lace edged neckline and full street-length skirts. The flower girl carried a basket of white shasta daisies and yellow roses, the others carried nosegays of shasta daisies with yellow centers. All wore similar head dresses of aqua flowers.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Lynn Parsons wore a jacket dress of blue embossed, brocade chiffon, beige accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Walker, mother of the groom, chose a navy linen dress, with white accessories and corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Leslie, the groom's maternal grandmother was in a dress of blue and white floral crepe with navy accessories and corsage of pink baby mums.

Mrs. Parsons, paternal grandmother of the bride, wore a dress of blue and white printed rayon surah, with white accessories and corsage of white baby mums.

Mr. Rodney Melver of Scotstown was best man and the ushers were Messrs. Richard Parsons of Scotstown, cousin of the bride, and her twin brother, Donald Parsons.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the auditorium of the Pope Memorial School, the bride's table featured the three tier wedding cake, flanked by candles in crystal holders and low bowls of lilacs-of-the-valley and ferns.

Later the young couple left for their wedding trip to Washington, D.C., the bride wearing a two-piece linen suit of pale yellow, with matching hat, beige accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Walker will take up residence in Montreal.

Out of town guests were from Montreal, Knowlton, Foster, Richmond, Danville, Sherbrooke, Milby, Lennoxville, Cookville, Thetford Mines, Inverness, Sawyerville, Gould, Bishop, Scotstown, Coaticook and Gorham, N.H.

Bachelors — rate girls for lifetime appeal

Things a young man rarely thinks about until it's too late, and he has married the girl: Whether she can cook, or is interested in learning how to do more than warm up a frozen dinner.

Whether she is energetic, or just naturally lazy. Whether she is fond of children, or whether they drive her crazy.

Whether she likes things neat and tidy, or doesn't mind everlasting clutter.

Whether she can entertain herself by reading or working at a hobby, or needs constant entertainment because she hates to be alone.

Whether she has enough curiosity and interest to want to go on learning all of her life, or is satisfied with what she learned in school.

Whether she has a happy disposition, or is miserable a lot of the time.

Whether she can meet trouble courageously, or goes to pieces when things go wrong.

Whether she is mentally sharp, or actually a little on the dumb side.

Whether she really wants to get married, or just wants to get away from home.

Whether she will always have to have her way to be happy, or herself by reading or working at a hobby, or needs constant entertainment because she hates to be alone.

Football's first for foot-loose city girls

SAN DIEGO, Calif. — Hugette Nadeau and Angeline Cassar, a couple of well-known Sherbrooke girls, believe in first things first. So, naturally, one of their initial acts after flying here from Montreal recently was to purchase season tickets for the San Diego Chargers football games.

Then was time enough to worry about less-important matters, like permanent lodging (an apartment on Park Boulevard and jobs—Hugette carries the impressive title of business woman manager for a finance company; Angeline is being trained as a bank collection teller).

"Isn't everybody?" asked the diminutive, black haired Miss Nadeau when queried about this avid interest in football.

"We don't think it's funny," she said, laughing. "It's nothing that terrific. Even before we left, we wanted to buy tickets for the San Diego football team. We thought they would be hard to get."

"We follow the National Football League games on television," said Angeline. "We're real strong football fans. We had heard of the Chargers. Your championship game was televised back home. That was the first time we'd seen them. We follow the Montreal Alouettes. A lot of Americans make up the team (including Chargers' Tobin Rote and Jerry MacDougall in recent years)."

"We had intentions of coming to California," said Miss Cassar. "because of the weather mainly. We never had been here before. The choice was between Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego. The weather here is a lot better. You don't have smog like in Los Angeles or the dampness of San Francisco. San Diego is large, but it still hasn't a big-city atmosphere."

"Everybody is more friendly," said Hugette. "They're adorable."

The two new San Diego residents are not necessarily husband hunting, but Miss Cassar admits "we've met a few very interesting young men."

"To be honest," said Hugette, "we've not really been looking. We've been too busy settling down."

Once settled, they can get serious about it.

SEASONED TRAVELERS TO DIG ROOTS

"In Montreal you just can't get tickets," chimed in Hugette. "The first two things we did officially was contact the immigration office, then buy tickets."

Actually, the girls didn't rush directly to the Charger office. "First," said Miss Nadeau, "we did some sightseeing to be sure we liked San Diego enough to stay, and we did."

"This is where we'll try to dig (sic) our roots," said Angeline, a tall, sandy-haired young lady who, like her friend, admits to being "in the mid-20's."

Despite their tender years, Hugette, of French descent, and Miss Cassar, whose parents

Bringing Up Baby

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

One of the wonders of babyhood is the development of manual dexterity. Busy fingers become aware of their usefulness at 3 or 4 months. Exciting to watch baby discover that fingers are fine for sucking, playing with and getting the feel of everything from nose to toes... toys to clothes. At 4 or 5 months he can grasp toys... at 6 and 7 hold his bottle securely. Eight or 9 months find those hands working together... and oh magic moment, at 1 year, he can pick up and pinch-hold small objects with nimble thumb and forefinger.

P.S. If baby doesn't conform to the above "norms," don't worry. He'll do these things in his own sweet time, the best time of all.

New breakfast bonanza with a flavour bonus. How about a special cereal surprise for baby? Gerber Carrots, Sweet Potatoes, Mixed Vegetables and Garden Vegetables, like all good-tasting Gerber Foods, are specially processed to protect precious vitamins. As for meal-apple, Gerber Vegetables have come-hither colours and garden-true flavours. Small wonder so many babies love them and thrive on them. Gerber Baby Foods, Niagara Falls, Canada.

Two sock stories. (1) If you've more than one tot in your house, why not initial sock bottoms with indelible ink? Saves sorting time... prevents mis-mating. (2) Remember, socks should be checked for fit as often as shoes. Tight socks can cramp tender toes, too.

★ Today's recipe ★

Strike up the band... it's strawberry time again! Time to start making up all your favorite fresh strawberry recipes once again. And naturally you'll want to team them up with all those delicious dairy foods that Canadians everywhere salute this June Dairy Month.

For although we use dairy foods all year round, day in day out, June's the month we set aside to especially honor them. And here, from our friends in the Canadian Dairy Foods Service Bureau, are three new strawberry dessert creations combining June berries with such dairy foods as whipped cream, cream cheese, sour cream and whipped evaporated milk. There's a scrumptious Glazed Strawberry Pie, a Strawberry Ribbon Cake that's stored in the frig and cut in pretty squares for serving and Whipped Strawberry Meringues for a refreshing finish to a big meal.

Simple but spectacular is this Glazed Strawberry Pie with its luscious whole berries covered with a fresh strawberry glaze. The pretty border piped around the edge is a delightful combination of cream cheese and dairy sour cream, a perfect partner for strawberries you'll find... perfect too for prettying up other fruit pies this summer.

GLAZED STRAWBERRY PIE

(Makes 6 to 8 Servings)

- 1 baked and cooled 9-inch pie shell
- 3 pints fresh strawberries
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
- $\frac{1}{8}$ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 (8-ounce) package soft cream cheese
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- $\frac{1}{4}$ teaspoon vanilla

For The Crust:

Combine sugar and water crumbs; drizzle with melted butter and combine thoroughly. Press mixture evenly in the bottom of a 8- or 9-inch square cake pan. Chill thoroughly.

For The Strawberry Layer:

Combine jelly powder and sugar and dissolve in boiling water. Stir in strawberries and lemon juice. Chill until softly set.

For The Cheese Layer:

Beat whipping cream until stiff. Cream cheese; beat in icing sugar, salt, vanilla and part of the whipped cream. Fold in remaining whipped cream.

To Assemble:

Spread half the cream cheese mixture over the crumb base. Cover with half the jelly mixture. Repeat with remaining cream cheese mixture and top with jelly mixture. Chill for several hours; until firm. Cut into squares to serve.

Light and airy, but with plenty of flavor, WHIPPED STRAWBERRY MERINGUES

$\frac{1}{2}$ cup dairy sour cream

For The Filling:

Wash and hull berries. Crush sufficient berries to yield $\frac{1}{2}$ cups. Combine cornstarch, sugar and salt in a small saucepan; blend in crushed berries. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until smoothly thickened. Cover and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally for 5 minutes. Stir in lemon juice and butter. Arrange remaining strawberries in pie shell. Spoon hot glaze over berries. Chill.

For The Topping:

Cream cheese; beat in sugar, vanilla and sour cream. Chill and garnish pie.

STRAWBERRY RIBBON CAKE

(Makes 6 to 8 Servings)

- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cups fine graham wafer crumbs
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup butter, melted
- 1 (3-ounce) package strawberry jelly powder
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sugar
- $\frac{1}{4}$ cups boiling water
- 1 (10-ounce) package frozen strawberries or $\frac{1}{2}$ cups fresh strawberries, crushed
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice
- $\frac{1}{2}$ pint ($\frac{1}{4}$ cups) whipping cream
- 1 (8-ounce) package soft cream cheese
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup icing sugar
- Pinch of salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

For The Crust:

Combine sugar and water crumbs; drizzle with melted butter and combine thoroughly. Press mixture evenly in the bottom of a 8- or 9-inch square cake pan. Chill thoroughly.

For The Strawberry Layer:

Combine jelly powder and sugar and dissolve in boiling water. Stir in strawberries and lemon juice. Chill until softly set.

Bride-to-be of Granby feted at Sweetsburg party

SWEETSBURG — On May 20, Mrs. H. Strange held a bridal shower at her home in honor of Miss Norma Ray, of Granby, whose fiancé is Frederick Mahanah, of Labrador and Cowansville. The chair of the bride-to-be was set in a bower of pastel blue and white streamers and bells, and her gifts arranged in a 150-year-old early Colonial cradle.

Mrs. C. Mahannah helped Miss Ray unwrap the gifts, after which Mrs. Strange read a recipe, How To Cook for a Husband.

The guests participated in a paper hat designing competition, which was won by Mrs. May Scott and Mrs. M. Hodge, the prizes being little glass hats.

GENERAL NOTES

The following were recent guests of Mrs. Bruce Miner, of Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Miner, of Cowansville; Mr. and Mrs. F. Groundwater, of St. Lambert; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. At Stanstead College

Provincial official guest speaker at annual Alumni meeting

STANSTEAD — Harold G. Young, Inspector General of the Protestant section of the Provincial Department of Education, of Quebec, was the guest speaker at the Stanstead College Alumni annual meeting and banquet, which took place at Stanstead College on May 23.

The speaker, on a witty note, told of his past visits to this College, which dated back to 1938. To the graduates of the school this year, who were guests of the Alumni, Mr. Young, said: "We look back to the beginning as you graduate. When you finish with the old and will enter the new, a door closes and you move on. Being able to graduate from High School doesn't come to everyone; we see in you the future, we older ones are interested in your welfare, so we give you advice as you go into the world where you have many opportunities."

"Opportunities to fail and try again. To make a success and a victory are good but it doesn't teach all. Sometimes failures lead one on to bigger and better things, to cause one to re-evaluate oneself. As you go on to university or to work, no one is interested in what you did but what you can do. Your worth is only what you contribute. The earth with its riches, the space with its promises is your heritage."

Mr. Young was introduced by Gordon McGilton and thanked by Geoffrey Newman.

Mrs. George Banks and her staff served an excellent steak dinner to several members of the Alumni, members of the College staff and the 1964 graduates.

SEATED AT HEAD TABLE

Seated at the head table were Edward C. Cayley, The College Headmaster, and Mrs. Cayley, Mr. Young, guest speaker, Philip Scowen, chairman of the Executive College Board, and Mrs. Scowen, Sutherland Stewart, Alumni president and Mrs. Stewart, Geoffrey Newman, vice-president of the Alumni, and Mrs. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hackett, Miss Georgia Copeland, secretary, Miss Gertrude Ketcham, treasurer, and Gordon McGilton.

Rev. Frank Stanton said grace. Mr. Stewart proposed a toast to the Queen and president of the United States. Later Mr. Stewart welcomed everyone to this annual gathering at the school.

The business of the meeting included a preamble of the Alumni constitution, these were approved and will be printed in booklet form and ready for distribution at the 1965 reunion. Mr. Stewart presented Mr. Cayley with a bursary for a deserving student at the College.

Mr. Cayley, in his remarks, stated that the bursary presented last year by the Alumni was used by a very deserving boy at the school, who is doing very well in his studies. The headmaster paid tribute to his teaching staff in the school, and said that the school is in good shape. He hopes it will become even better and that it depends greatly upon the trustees and Alumni to keep the importance of the school a living thing. Values are taught at Stanstead, loyalty, faith, trust in a complex world. To the boys graduating this year, Mr. Cayley spoke a few personal words of advice.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Elected to office for the ensuing year were Geoffrey Newman, president; Miss Georgia Copeland and Gerald Bennett, vice-presidents; Miss Betty Boyd, secretary; Bill Shepherd, treasurer; Montreal area chairman, Jean Claude Charlebois; advisory, Alan MacMillan, Joel Bonn, Keith Alsop, Bill Peterson, Philip Curtis, Michael Moskau, John Paradis; and to represent the Eastern Townships, will be the immediate past president, Mr. Stewart. Miss Elsie McFadden was named to the honorary vice-president's list.

REPORT PRESENTED

This report was presented by Gordon McGilton and approved by the floor. Mr. McGilton also stated that the Alumni honorary president, and former principal of the College for many years, Dr. E. C. Amaron, who recently suffered a heart attack, and is a patient at the Renfrew Hospital, Ont., is reported to be gaining. Also that a former student here and one of the honorary vice-presidents, Dent Harrison, of Montreal, had died during the past year.

Mr. Newman took the chair after the nominations, and briefly addressed the graduates and Alumni members.

Brian Austin, a graduate, on behalf of his classmates expressed their appreciation and said that they all are looking forward to becoming good members in the Alumni Association.

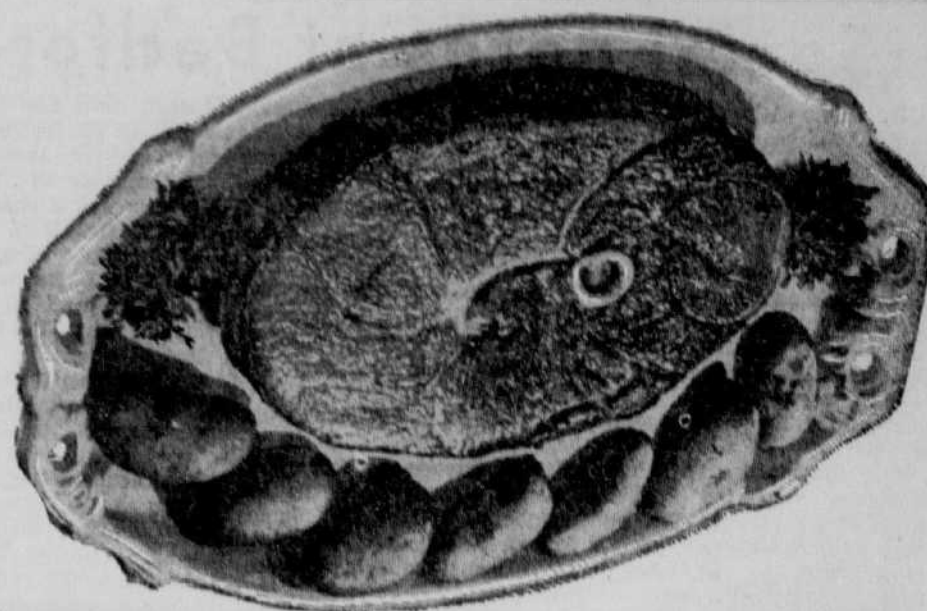

The dinner and meeting terminated by the singing of the Alma Mater and National anthem.

Schweppes comes to town

Schweppes Bitter Lemon is the whole lemon

Bitter Lemon is a brand new kind of mixer—the first really new drink of this century.

Different. Its flavour comes from the whole lemon—juice, rind, pips and pulp—with a dash of quinine. Only Schweppes could have created this top-selling mixer from England to Australia.

Mix new Bitter Lemon with rye, rum, gin and vodka—or drink it straight as an adult soft drink.

Ask for Schweppes Bitter Lemon. Nag your storekeeper.

Presentation to first president

Review year's work at meeting of Richmond County Institutes

RICHMOND — The annual meeting of Richmond County Women's Institutes was held May 16, at St. Francis High School. The attendance at the morning session was 36 with 43 in the afternoon.

The president, Mrs. T. E. Gilchrist, conducted the meeting and Mrs. Ellard, president of Quebec Women's Institutes was guest speaker.

The fortieth anniversary of the founding of Richmond County W.I., was observed by presenting the first president, Miss Alice Dresser, with a corsage. The business meeting followed with all reports showing good work done by all branches during the year. The membership of the eight branches in Richmond County is now 172.

Correspondence included a thank-you letter from the C.I.B. for a donation, from the Sherbrooke Hospital Campaign, from the Sherbrooke School for Retarded Children, and a letter acknowledging sympathy from Miss Evelyn Baker, daughter of the former first vice-president, Mrs. Milton Baker, of Shipton branch.

A request regarding junkyards, and litter along roadsides which had been sent to the Melbourn Municipal Council, and letters regarding educational projects, and nominations for Q.W.I., were read.

A letter nominating Mrs. V. R. Beattie to the office of second vice-president of Q.W.I., was also read.

Mrs. Hutchings introduced Miss Auger who spoke on interior decoration, and showed illustrations on the subject. Mrs. Jameson thanked her for her interesting address.

Dinner was served in the cafeteria by the Richmond Young Women's Institute. Rev. R. A. Cameron of the Richmond-Melbourn United Church gave a short talk on the value of W.I. work. Mrs. Cameron was unable to be present because of illness.

After lunch, slides were shown in the cafeteria with Mrs. Gilchrist reading the commentary. The slides are part of a W.I. collection of views from every province of Canada. Those shown were of the province of Quebec.

At the afternoon session, Mrs. Ellard spoke on the work of that W.I. Eight hundred and fifty-nine Christmas stockings were sent last year to the Save the Children Fund by all branches. There are now 109 branches in Q.W.I., some new ones being in northern Quebec. She said there are problems due to language difficulties with Indians, Eskimos and New Canadians, but these are being overcome, and these branches are progressing. She stressed the Pennies for Friendship Fund and spoke of her work with the Canadian Broadcasting League.

The Provincial Convention will be held at Macdonald College from June 22 - 26. The leadership training course has been cancelled for this year.

The pin for 25 years' membership in the W.I., will cost $3.35. It is in the form of a pin with a bar underneath.

A spinning-wheel is to be presented to the Adelaide Hoodless home-stead from Q.W.I.

The plaque at Dunham is to be unveiled on July 15, at the place where the first institute meeting was held in Quebec. Miss Dresser thanked Mrs. Ellard for her enjoyable talk.

The election of officers followed the president's address, with Mrs. Ellard presiding. Mrs. K. Stevens, chairman of the nominating committee presented the following slate of officers:

President, Mrs. Elton Gilchrist, Melbourn Ridge; first vice-president, Miss Alice Dresser, Cleveland; second vice-president, Mrs. Vincent Farant, Richmond Hill; secretary, Mrs. John Walker, Spooner Pond; treasurer, Mrs. Neilson Jameson, Richmond Young Women's Institute.

The conveners are: Agriculture, Mrs. Charles Grainger, Richmond Young Women's Institute; citizenship, Mrs. William Broscomb, Shipton; education, Mrs. Elton Carson, Dennison Mills; home economics, Mrs. Ernest Hutchings, Spooner Pond; publicity, Mrs. George Johnston, Melbourn Ridge; welfare and health, Mrs. Samuel Doyle, Gore.

Knitted articles for Christmas stockings were displayed by Denison Mills branch. The bursary committee is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Carson, from Dennison Mills.

The unveiling of the plaque at Dunham was discussed and it was decided to inquire about chartering a bus to go in a group.

It was decided not to hold a county meeting in July this year. A donation was made to the Richmond library. A drawing on a floral centrepiece, the proceeds going to Pennies for Friendship, was won by Mrs. S. Doyle, with a second drawing won by Mrs. J. Leavitt.

The September radio broadcast is to be made by Shipton branch.

At the October meeting which will be held on Oct. 17th, Richmond Young Women's Institute will have charge of the kitchen, and Spooner Pond branch will look after the sale table. It was decided that each branch should bring two articles for sale, these to be auctioned at the meeting.

Snow White and Seven Dwarfs theme at High School graduation exercises

RICHMOND — Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs was the theme of the graduation exercises at St. Francis High School held May 22 in the spacious gym. Thirty-one students make up the graduating class this year, 18 girls and 13 boys.

The decorative theme was made possible by Derek Tilley and his art class with Grade X students and showed Snow White and her seven dwarfs in all their color and glory, even to the poison apple, which hung suspended from the centerfold with streamers dangling all across the gym. Around the sides, baskets or boxes of flowers stood out well with scenes from the famous fairy tale.

Mr. Cocks led the procession as they entered the room. Following the singing of O Canada, Rev. A. Cameron read the invocation and B. Armata, chairman of the school board welcomed the guests. Mayor George Savoie extended greetings from the Town of Richmond. Presentations followed.

Basil Wheeler was presented with the Hume Shield, awarded to the pupil best exemplifying scholarship, sportsmanship and school citizenship. Basil is a Grade X student.

The Denison Cup, given by the late W. J. Denison, is awarded annually to the girl best exemplifying the same qualities. Heather Skillen received the cup from Mr. Denison's daughter, Mrs. D. Robinson. Another award made was the Donald Brown Trophy, given annually to the best all-round student in Grade VIII, and won this year by Martha Cripps. Mr. Van der Wal made the presentation.

GRADUATING CLASS

L. F. Somerville, outgoing principal of St. Francis High School, then introduced the graduates, speaking briefly on each and their possible future achievements. They are Susan Armata, Gloria Armstrong, Susan Bayne, Louise Booth, Jennifer Gilchrist Dawn Goodfellow, Diane Grainger, Linda Hawker, Hilda Husk, Margaret Johnston, Jean Leckie, Betty Mason, Donna Roach, Marion Robinson, Heather Skillen, Susan Somerville, Sandra Stevens, Ann Sundborg, Lloyd Day, Ronald Fee, Paul Fortier, Kermit Goodhue, Peter Holt, James Johnston, Alan Lockwood, Edward Malboeuf, Bruce Mallette, David Rattray, Wayne Smith, Bruce Tibbitts, Glen Wight.

Speaking briefly on the grads, Mr. Somerville noted the general aspirations as they appear now. He hoped they would follow the careers of their choice, noting that agriculture is the popular calling for the boys; teaching and nursing for the girls. That is as it should be, he said the three parts of the world's work so necessary to mankind.

In his closing remarks, Mr. Somerville bid farewell to the whole school. "May sound learning and good sportsmanship flourish and may the graduates of St. Francis always command respect for their support of right and justice," he concluded.

PRINCIPAL HONORED

The high school students then made evident their appreciation of their principal, Mr. Somerville, and Mrs. Somerville. Gloria Armstrong presented Mrs. Somerville with a bouquet of flowers and, from the students, a movie screen to the principal.

M. J. Butler, who will succeed Mr. Somerville as principal at the next term, gave a special address which was presented to Mr. Somerville. The text was as follows: "Your staff congratulates you on the completion of your twenty-fifth year as principal of St. Francis. We are happy to make this public acknowledgment of the many high qualities which have characterized and distinguished your service to the school.

"You have always supported us loyally. You have set us an example of unrelenting hard work. You have allowed easy access to your presence, and have listened with an open mind to the suggestions both of the experienced with a claim-

TROPHIES PRESENTED — The Denison Trophy and Hume Shield, awarded to pupils best exemplifying scholarship, sportsmanship and school citizenship, were presented to two students at

Skillen, and Basil Wheeler, who received the Hume Shield. Mrs. Robinson presented the trophy which had been donated by her late father, W. J. Denison. (Record photo by Wm. H. Lunan) to wisdom and of the young with a desire to experiment. You have been quick to recognize the strength of individual teachers and have praised generously any outstanding achievement. You have kept your staff happy and at peace.

"We honor the integrity of your administration. We are proud to have worked under your teaching staff and the pupils, Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow.

He mentioned his 17 years with and Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow.

Graduation exercises held at Granby High

GRANBY — The graduation exercises of the High School, of which, William Munroe is principal and W. E. Marshall vice-principal, was held in the school auditorium on May 27.

For the procession of the graduating class the ceremonial march, Graduation Day, was played by the High School band. The Invocation was read by the Rev. C. W. Foggo and the Graduation Hymn was sung.

The chairman of the board of commissioners A. W. Robinson spoke briefly. A report of the Student Council activities was read by Miss Suzanne Allen, after which reports of the athletic activities were given by Miss Sabine Georges, for the girls, and John Windsor, for the boys.

The principal's report, presented by Mr. Munroe, was most gratifying. An address was given by Miss E. Lorraine How of Montreal, director of the Quebec Junior Red Cross.

The Doctor Says

SCARLET FEVER CONTROLLED BY PENICILLIN INJECTONS

Q—My son recently had scarlet fever. No one would come near our home for fear they would get it. In what stage can a person transmit this disease to others? How long does the contagious stage last?

A — Scarlet fever can be transmitted during the period three or four days before the onset of the fever and for about a week after the onset. Prompt treatment with penicillin shortens this period, but unless the antibiotic treatment is continued for 10 days, the victim may become a carrier. Because the disease is so easily controlled with penicillin, quarantine is usually not required unless an epidemic develops.

Q—What causes a person to have a sore mouth and tongue? I read that anemia could cause it but I have had blood counts and am not anemic.

A—The commonest cause of sore mouth and tongue is taking food that is too hot. It may also be caused by eating raw pineapple, by smoking, and by trench mouth and other infections. When the cause is found the proper treatment can be prescribed.

Q—If a person recovers from rabbit fever, is he likely to have any after effects in later years? If so, what?

A—Tularemia or rabbit fever is an acute infection. Inadequate treatment is sometimes followed within a week or two by a relapse, but after effects in later years are rare. One attack usually confers permanent immunity.

Q—I am an albino. I have had nearsighted astigmatism since birth. Doctors tell me nothing can be done to improve my vision. I have tried glasses but they do not help. What can be done to improve my vision? Is this condition likely to be passed on to future generations?

A—Yours is a recessive hereditary condition that is more common in men than in women. It is passed only if there is some albinism on both sides of the family. Thus it may skip a generation only to reappear in the grandchildren. It is characterized by a lack of pigment throughout the body. For this reason the albino becomes severely sunburned on slight exposure to the sun and will never acquire a tan.

Because the inside of the eyeball lacks the usual protective pigment, even normal daylight makes the albino very uncomfortable. His vision is often poor because of astigmatism and other errors of refraction but these could be corrected were it not for poor development of the central portion of the retina. For this there is no treatment.

Richmond host to Royal Canadian Legion Darts Tournament, trophies presented, Danville Branch wins

RICHMOND — Branch 41, All three branches competed in the round-robin tournament, District No. 8 Round-Robin Darts Tournament held this past season. Trophies were presented to winners in the men's, ladies' and individual divisions during the annual closing party which was held at the Legion Hall, Richmond Saturday night.

Richmond's Branch 15 was host to the Drummondville Branch 51 and the Danville Branch with about 60 members on hand. The ladies section of Richmond had won their division again and have won several times since the trophies were put up for competition.

Individual honors went to Kay Crack of Richmond and Johnny Vigneault of Drummondville, each receiving a small trophy along with a lighter. Runners up Harold Kydd of Richmond and Mary Scott of Danville were presented with a lighter.

Fred Leclerc, District Commander, of Drummondville presented the trophies to both teams and to the individual winners. Gerard Raymond, Dow representative from Drummondville, was on hand for the presentations with the Dow trophy going to the Richmond ladies.

Millar Scott, captain of the Danville team, accepted the District Cup for his club while Amy Dalton of Richmond accepted the Dow Trophy in the Richmond ladies section.

Sonny Liston applies for reinstatement

MIAMI BEACH (AP)—President Ed Lassman of the World Boxing Association said Tuesday Sonny Liston, former heavyweight champion, has applied for reinstatement to the WBA ratings.

Liston was dropped from the ratings after his arrest in Denver on charges of reckless driving and carrying a concealed weapon.

His letter asking reinstatement noted that the charges were disposed of last week. Liston was fined $600 and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence.

Pitchers turn in top jobs in American loop

Dean Chance stormed out of Fred Haney's office in a contract hassle recently and aimed a parting shot at Los Angeles Angels' general manager.

"All right," said Chance, "I'll pitch an $18,000 season."

Neither Chance nor Haney expected him to try to do it in one game.

But Chance turned in one of the top pitching performances of the American League season Tuesday night, keeping Boston Red Sox hitless for 5 2/3 innings and finishing with a two-hitter while striking out 15 in a 1-0 Los Angeles victory.

Chance, 22, a right-hander, had a shot at a no-hitter and probably a raise until Dick Stuart lined a single to centre with two out in the sixth. He also had a shot at the record 18-strikeout mark until he ran out of whiffs in the last two innings.

Chance had 13 strikeouts through seven innings, but struck out only one in each of the last two innings and settled for the season's high of 15, an impressive 2.12 earned-run average and a 4.2 record. Now he needs only 20 more victories to get his raise.

The 24-victory yardstick was applied by Haney a week ago Tuesday when the Angels called a special press conference and brought up the subject of Chance's contract dispute with the club. At that time, Haney said an $18,000 season figures out to about "24 winning games."

While Chance was showing Haney his stuff, standout pitching efforts were turned in by: —Sam McDowell, a $100,000 bonus baby recently recalled from the minors who struck out 14 as Cleveland Indians defeated Chicago 3-2 and knocked the White Sox out of the league lead.

—Baltimore's Dave McNally who posted his second shutout with a six-hit, 4-0 triumph over Kansas City Athletics that lifted the Orioles into first place.

—Gerry Arigo, who kept eight hits well spaced in Minnesota Twins' 6-2 triumph over New York Yankees.

The other AL game scheduled —Washington at Detroit—was rained out.

Besides Stuart's single, the only other hit off Chance was a single by Felix Mantilla leading off the ninth.

Chance got the only run he needed and the only one of the game in the fourth when Jack Lamabe walked Joe Koppe, Billy Moran singled and Lee Thomas doubled.

Fern Dube belts two doubles to drive in two runs, Thorne gets two also, meet again tomorrow

Sherbrooke Alouettes came up with a fine all-around performance last evening to post a 6-3 win over Drummondville Royals at the local park before 650 fans. The win moved the Al into a tie for second place in the Provincial League.

This evening the Al's journey to Granby to meet the Knights in a postponed tilt while tomorrow night they will be at home to the Royals at the Park Avenue Stadium. The Al's are deadlocked with Acton Vale half-a-game behind the paced Knights.

Claude Prud'Homme turned in a fine job on the mound for the Al's. He gave up only four hits while going the distance whiffed seven and issued four free walks. He was tough and received fine support from his mates. He was touched for three doubles and a single. In the second inning the Royals bunched two hits, both doubles, with a walk to tally two runs. Sawyer and Ayoub knocked out the two baggers. In the fourth a single, walk, an error and sacrifice fly, by Cinalone, accounted for the Royals' third tally.

Following this Prud'Homme kept the Royals away from the plate with the help of his mates. The Al's came up with a fine defensive job in the field. They were charged with four errors but the Royals couldn't capitalize on them.

Maurice Hurlburt committed two on throws to first while St. Vincent tossed a wide one and Prud'Homme was charged with the other when he failed to field a bunt in time. The Royals booted twice. The Al's opened with two hits to tally their first run in the first inning. They were held off until the fourth when two walks and a lousy double by Dube accounted for two runs to knot the count 3-3.

In the fifth the Al's exploded for three hits to register two more runs. St. Vincent and Thorne each drove a run with their singles. This was all for the Al's until the eighth inning when they got to Cinalone again.

Dube opened with a double while Thorne's single and then came home on Jean-Guy Dion's long sacrifice fly. This ended the scoring although the Royals staged a short-lived rally when pinchhitter Bourbeau clouted a double with two away. Prud'Homme then forced Estrie to go out at first to end the game. Cookie Rojas continues his hot streak as Phillies stop Dodgers to maintain lead, Giants lose

The Cookie isn't crumbling for Philadelphia Phillies.

Ever since manager Gene Mauch decided last week that Tony Taylor needed a rest, Cookie Rojas has been behaving as though he owned second base. A career 221 hitter, he's currently averaging a gaudy .548, including 14 hits in 21 appearances since he took over.

Rojas continued his hot streak with two hits against Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday night as the Phillies maintained their National League lead with a 4-3 victory.

Cookie scored his first run when he doubled, stole third and came in on Richie Allen's long fly. After Ken McMullen's two-run homer had tied it at 3-3 in the top of the seventh, Rojas opened the Phillie half with a single.

Allen's single and an intentional walk loaded the bases and Cookie trotted home with the winning run when Ron Perranoski walked Steve Covington.

INCREASE LEAD

The victory, coupled with San Francisco Giants' 3-1 loss to Pittsburgh Pirates, extended the Phillies' league lead to 1 1/2 games. In other NL games, Cincinnati Reds rallied to beat Warren Spahn and Milwaukee Braves 7-5. New York Mets came from behind and whipped Houston Colts 7-4 and Chicago Cubs downed St. Louis Cardinals 5-2.

Rojas' hitting helped Dennis Bennett win his seventh game in 10 decisions. In addition to scoring the first and fourth runs, Cookie squeezed John Herrnstein home with a perfect sacrifice bunt in the second inning.

And to rub salt into Los Angeles' wounds, old friend Ed Roebuck hurled the ninth inning.

Indians pound out win over Orioles, clout seven homers

Camille Aubert paces attack with two homers, Red Sox down Tigers, two games on tap here this evening

Indians are still leading the pack in the Sher-Lenn Little League, with three wins under their belts for their three outings. Last night they dumped Orioles 31-21 in a wide open game that featured seven home runs and 10 errors.

In the other part of the twin bill Red Sox posted a 7-3 win over the Tigers. Tonight the Senators meet the Twins and Yankees tangle with White Sox.

Indians in the later part of the first inning against the Orioles came up with five runs. Camille Aubert, who hit two home runs in the game, got his first one with two men. Simard and Grenier had hit safely before Aubert's clout. P. Doyon and D. Champagne drove in the other two runs.

Orioles showing more power than usual made it a 5-5 ball game in the top of the second. They got to Gregoire, the Indians starting pitcher, for two hits. Boisvert, the third baseman, clouted a triple with three men on. M. Milot got the other hit in the inning.

Indians went scoreless in the last of the second but Orioles repeated their previous inning in the third as they again got five runs to put them ahead 10-5. F. Boisvert lashed out a home run in the inning for the Orioles.

Two bases on balls, two hits and an infield error got Indians four runs in the last of the third to close the gap between the teams.

M. Mailot hit in the Orioles' single tally in the fourth. Indians ran wild in their part of the fourth getting nine hits good for 12 big runs. D. Champagne with a homer and C. Aubert with a triple doing most of the damage.

Errors were responsible for the seven runs the Orioles got in the fifth inning no less than three misuses being made by the Indian outfield and infield. These with four hits, a second home run by F. Boisvert, accounted for the tallies. Indians in the fifth settled the issue as they finished off their scoring with 10 runs. Camille Aubert clicked for his second homer. L. Fleury, P. Doyon and M. Simard also hit in the inning. Orioles got one run in the top of the sixth on the sixth on two bases on balls and a single by F. Boisvert. Indians taking the

Manager Hank Bauer confident his Orioles will stay on top of pack

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"We're up there, now we gotta stay," said manager Hank Bauer after his Baltimore Orioles took over first place in the American League with their 20th victory in 26 games.

Bauer surprised almost everyone by predicting a third-place finish for his club in spring training. Now what does he think?

"What counts is where you are on Oct. 4," Bauer said. "I'll let you know then. So far, they have been playing very good ball, and we've won about eight games in the ninth inning. First one guy gets the job done, then the next game it's someone else, but always someone comes through."

Bauer said the only real surprise has been the pitching of rookie Wally Bunker, a 19-year-old fast-ball pitcher with a 6-0 record.

"I started him against Washington because we had two pitchers hurt and he pitches a one-hitter. Then he just kept going. He's happy with his pitching staff."

"I think we've got the best pitching in the league because of our depth," he said. "Our bullpen has done an outstanding job."

Baltimore has won 15 of 16 games decided by one run. A major reason is the bullpen of Harvey Haddix, Stu Miller, Dick Hall and Wes Stock, which has a combined 11 victories and 11 saves.

Dates for 1964 O'Keefe Golf Circuit are released, Quebec PGA tourney to be played at Laval-sur-le-Lac

Team matches between champion pros from Quebec and Ontario, one of the highlights of last year's golf season, will feature the 1964 O'Keefe Golf Circuit throughout the province.

The Interprovincial Pro Championship, which carries a purse of $5,400, will be held on Saturday, Aug. 22, at the Rosemere Golf Club.

It will bring together the eight low finishers in the Quebec PGA Championship, scheduled for the swanky Laval-sur-le-Lac course July 23 and 24, and the eight low scorers in the Ontario PGA event being held July 9 at the Bayview club in Toronto. At stake in each of the provincial tournaments are a $4,000 purse and the O'Keefe Trophy.

This was revealed yesterday by sponsors of the popular circuit, which this summer enters its 10th consecutive year and comprises two pro events and 14 amateur tournaments.

In selecting Laval-sur-le-Lac as site of the 1964 Quebec PGA Championship, officials picked a truly competitive course. The club hosted the Canadian Open just two years ago and its par 72, 6830-yard course is recognized across the country as a good test of golf.

An important change, which players as well as spectators are expected to welcome, has been brought to this year's event. Instead of playing the gruelling 36 holes in a single day, participants will play 18 on July 23 and another 18 the following day.

Quebec's growing population of amateur golfers also comes in for plenty of attention on the 1964 circuit, with 12 regional and two provincial events—and scores of trophies and merchandise prizes—set aside for class A, B and C shotmakers.

Starting June 12 at Maribor, Quebec, and ending Aug. 16 at Baie Comeau, 18-hole, medal play tournaments will be held in each of 12 zones. The provincial finals will be held at Boucherville Aug. 29.

The second Quebec amateur title event will be held at St. Hyacinthe Sept. 19 and will be restricted to club champions throughout the province in classes A, B and C. The two provincial tourneys are being held separately this year and, with more clubs added to nearly every zone, a bigger and stronger field is expected in each event.

Rounding out the O'Keefe golf promotion this year will be the awarding of special golf caps to anyone scoring a hole in one. A total of 196 aces were rewarded in such fashion in the Quebec Zone in 1963, as against 159 the previous year. Monthly breakdowns were June, 38; July, 44; Aug., 52; Sept., 38, and Oct., 26.

Westbury Rifle Club holds closing dinner

The Westbury Rifle Club held their closing dinner at the East Angus Hotel where presentation of trophies took place and the election of officers.

Leslie Wilkins presented a trophy to the winning team composed of Miss Margaret Rowland, C. Willard, A. Rowland and Norman Davis, captain. The ladies high average was won by Mrs. H. Paquette and Mrs. W. Cunningham made the presentation. Norman Davis presented M. Leonard with the high junior trophy.

Clinton Willard was elected president while John Kennedy was named secretary and Miss Margaret Rowland treasurer. The range officers will be chosen at the start of the next season.

Workshop held at Cowansville United Church

COWANSVILLE — Emmanuel United Church played host on May 23, to the Vacation School leaders who came to attend a Regional Workshop. Mrs. S. Harrowing, of East Farnham, who is the Vacation School leader at Emmanuel, welcomed the guests, 10 in number, who came from Mansonville, this was the only guest church represented at the Workshop. There were 10 leaders from Emmanuel present.

Leaders of the Workshop were Rev. John Shearman, former Conference Field Secretary, and Miss Eunice Hatch, of Amherstburg, Ont., a student at Covenant College, Toronto, who last year spent a month caravanning for the United Church at an Indian reservation near Peterborough, Ont.

Films were shown, small groups held interesting discussions, asked many questions which were answered in a very interesting and helpful manner by the leaders. All groups studied the material available for the different classes to be held this summer at vacation schools.

GUEST SPEAKER

Rev. Dr. A. Borman, a professor at the United Theological College, McGill University, Montreal, was guest speaker at the 11 a.m. Service at Emmanuel Church on May 24. Dr. Borman read the Lessons and delivered an inspiring sermon, A Creed For Heroes.

After the service Rev. J. McCord invited Mr. Borman to have luncheon with the members of the Session and their husbands and wives. A bountiful buffet, arranged by the lady members of the Session, was enjoyed by about 30 guests. Dunham, Farnham's Corner and East Farnham joining with Cowansville for the social period together.

Girl Guides And Brownie News

BEEBE

The first Beebe Brownie Pack met at the Wesley United Church hall on May 13, with Mrs. Helena Rollins, Brown Owl, in charge.

Games were played while waiting for the arrival of Brownie Commissioner, Mrs. McInosh, of Austin, and the district trainer, Mrs. Helen Spafford.

Three Tweenies were enrolled, Debbie Derusha, Elizabeth Dezan, Sandra Johnson.

First year service star was presented to Linda Lepitre, Peggy Young, Diane Troelstrup, Deborah Mosher, Lynn Troelstrup, Maxine Dezan, Laurie Davis.

Golden bars were awarded to Linda Lepitre, Diane Troelstrup, Deborah Mosher.

Mrs. Elwin Shepart passed a Tenderfoot Test, working toward a Warrant Test, before becoming an Assistant Pack Leader.

WATERVILLE

Fourteen girls of the first Waterville Girl Guide Company and four Magog guides spent a busy and enjoyable weekend camping recently, about a mile out of town, on the Errol Beliveau farm.

At the weekend camp the three Waterville girls who were enrolled as guides were Evelyn Williams, Sandra Williams and Linda Achilles.

Second Class Badges and Hostess Badges were received by the following: Elaine Deacon, Meredith Kezar, Jane Loiselle, Christine Olivier, Melanie Reed, Cheryl Williams and Karen Williams. Nancy Barter and Patsy Bauer, who were unable to attend the camp, have also received these badges.

Susan Williams received the Trackers Badge, the Athletic Badge and the Needlewoman and Laundress Badge, the last completing her Little House Emblem.

A Teacher's Badge went to Jo-Ann Williams and Cheryl Williams received a Horsewoman Badge.

COWANSVILLE

The 1st Cowansville Guide Company met for the last time this spring, at the church, on May 27.

The following prizes were awarded to girls for outstanding work over the year:

Best patrol: Trillium, Eleanor Archer, Alison Dryden, Dorothy Merchant, Debby Roffey and Jo-Anne Bruhmüller.

For attendance and inspection: Eleanor Archer, Alison Dryden, Alice Falcon, Jean Beattie, Barbara Goettel and Dorothy Merchant.

For best badge work: Charlotte Cawley and Lynn MacDonald.

For Guide work: Dene MacDonald, Dawn MacDonald and Charlotte Cawley.

Dorothy Merchant is planning to attend camp at Brompton during the summer vacation.

We're planning a special vacation with our winnings of $500
