PREMIER FISHER DECLARES FOR A WORLD CONFERENCE

Canadian Associated Press.

Liverpool, July 13.—Premier Fisher, of Australia, in an interview just before sailing for home, said:—

"I do not see any insuperable difficulties in the way of extending the Imperial Conference into an international gathering to which every nation would send representatives for the purpose of discussing matters of mutual interest.

"As regards the actual defence of the Empire outside nations would take no part in the deliberations, but it would be a great step in the direction of universal peace if the nations could meet on the lines of our conference.

"I think the discussions have paved the way for the broadening of the foundations of the Empire and for a still closer co-operation," the Australian statesman concluded.

FAMILY STANDS IN URGENT NEED OF SUCCOR

Father Delirious in Hospital, Mother a Consumptive, and Children Without Food.

A poverty-stricken family, seemingly worthy of every assistance, are struggling to keep body and soul together in their miserable home, on a nameless lane just below the Grand Trunk tracks, off Canning street.

In the upper flat of No. 481, a Star representative found a sick mother with five small children this morning. The father, Mr. John Reynolds is in the Western Hospital suffering from an abscess of the head He is delirious most of the time and is expected to die at any moment. His disconnected talk shows his anxiety as to how the $7, due for this month's rent of his three-roomed home, is to be paid.

Mrs. Reynolds, apparently a consumptive, and so weak she can hardly stand, told the reporter that she had no money in the house, and as for food, only a few scraps of bread were left from what the nurse from the home yesterday had left her.

The father, who holds third class engineer's papers, has been out of work for a long time owing to his sickness Mr. Reynolds is a native of England but his wife is a Canadian, The youngest children are twins, three years old, and while one lay asleep on the bed, the other, a little brown-eyed girl, prattled to the reporter. All the children are clean and healthy, and obviously well cared for, in spite of their parents' impoverished state. Mrs. Reynolds has not a cent towards the rent which is due on Monday next.

It was learned from neighbors that the people are most deserving of help No credit had ever been asked at the corner grocery store. A story was told of how Mrs. Reynolds caught her eldest boy of 10 years carrying ale bottles home for a neighbor, for which service he was to receive five cents Punishment was threatened if he ever visited the ale house again.

It is said that the children run the risk of contracting tuberculosis if they are left in their present condition with their mother, for whom an appeal is made that she may be sent to a sanitarium where she would have some chance of recovery.

The first care, however, is to provide nourishing food and then the rent.

Waters, Michigan, Wiped Out.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Grayling, Mich., July 13.—Several hundred more people are homeless today as a result of the complete wiping out of the village of Waters, 18 miles from here, last night

This brings the total of homeless in the burning of three towns, Oscoda, Au Sable and Waters, up to 3,000.

The whole northeast section of Michigan to-day is a desolate blackened waste, with only here and there a few ruins left to mark what was only a few days ago a prosperous village or farm.

PRINCE OF WALES INVESTED TO-DAY IN PRINCIPALITY

KING HIMSELF PERFORMED DUTIES OF INVESTITURE

Special to the Montreal Star.

Carnarvon, Wales, July 13.—With all the pomp and ceremony of a minor coronation, Prince Edward, the 17-year-old heir to the throne of England, was invested at Carnarvon Castle to-day as Prince of Wales. The gorgeous uniforms and robes of State, the impressive ancient ritual, and the quaint costumes of Welsh spectators, of whom some ten thousand were present, all set in the large courtyard of the ancient castle, presented an unusual picture.

King George, with his passion for ancient ceremonial and precedent, is the first King to revive the ancient custom of investing his son with the title where the first Prince of Wales was born, since Prince Henry, afterward Henry V., the hero of Agincourt, was invested by his father, Henry IV.

MATCHLESS WEATHER AND ENORMOUS CROWDS.

The quaint town, in festival attire, made a holiday and drew within its borders thousands of Welshmen from the surrounding country. The weather was matchless, and two hours before the arrival of Their Majesties, and the Prince, great crowds had gathered along the route from Griffith's Crossing, where the Royal party alighted, to the castle gate. The buildings along the streets were lavishly decorated. Troops, blue-jackets and marines kept open the way through which the procession passed. In the vicinity of the castle, a thousand London police and firemen held an open place.

The scene within the Castle was picturesque, the vast enclosure within the towers and battlement walls forming an ideal setting for the coremonial. The outer and inner Baileys were lined with stands, enabling several thousand persons to obtain an excellent view. Their Majesties and the Prince received an enthusiastic reception.

King George and Queen Mary, with the Prince came on the Royal yacht Victoria and Albert from Ireland to Holyhead. This morning, a special train bronught them from Holyhead to Griffth's Crossing, a small station, 2 1-2 miles north of Carnarvon. Royal carriages and an escort of cavalry were awaiting the party, upon the arrival of whom the procession was formed.

Carnarvon was entered by the north road and the party proceeded through the main street to the great castle square.

INESTITURE TAKES PLACE IN CASTLE YARD

Here, on a platform in the centre of the square, the Mayor and corporation received the Royal visitors and presented addresses. From Castle Square to the first entrance into the Castle there were two processions, that of the Prince of Wales preceding that of Their Majesties by a few minutes. The Prince entered the Castle at the ancient water gate on the sea front. As he passed in the Standard was hoisted on Eagle Tower, while the Royal Welsh Choir of 400 voices sang.

The King and Queen followed. As they entered the Castle the Prince's flag was lowered ,and the Royal Standard run up.

In the towers near the entrance two suites of Royal apartments had been prepared for Their Majesties and the Prince, and to these they retired and were robed for the ceremonial. When they again appeared the processions were reversed, the King and Queen, with the suites, preceding the Prince and his supporters. The party proceeded to a raised platform in the centre of the great inner courtyard, where the investiture took place. As the King and Queen appeared in the open air the choir sang, "God Save the King."

This was followed by the singing of "God Bless the Prince of Wales."

PICTURESQUE FEATURES OF ANCIENT RITUAL.

Then the Prince, carrying the immense hat which tradition has reserved for the Prince of Wales—a hat with three-foot ostrich and heron feathers fastened with a clasp bearing the motto "Ich Dien ("I serve"), surrounded by noblemen, knelt before the dais. He was attired in surcoat, cloak and mantle of crimson velvet.

The King placed a crimson velvet cap, ornamented with ermine, and a corpet on the head of his son, as a token of Principality. Then the hand of the Prince, His Majesty placed a golden verge as the emblem of government, and on his middle finger a ring of gold signifying that he must be a husband to his country and a father to his children.

While His Majesty was investing his son with the insignia, the latter's parents, authorizing the Prince to hold the Principality of Wales in trust for the King of England, were read, and later handed to him.

The service of consecration followed, the Bishops of St. Asaph and Bangor officiating and being assisted by two Welsh Non-Conformist ministers.

The processions then re-formed, and moved to the Queen's Gate of the castle, where the King presented the Prince of Wales to the people. The Prince addressed a few words in Cymric to the cheering thousands.

This concluded the ceremony, with the exception of the procession outside the walls. Their Majesties' party and the Prince's party, uniting, made a complete circuit outside the castle walls. Then, re-entering by the main front entrance, they passed to their apartments and disrobed preparatory to the return to Holyhead.

Believe Castro Has Come Back

Special to the Montreal Star.

New York, July 13. — The local Venezuelan colony is stirred as it has not been since December, 1908, when Juan Vicente Gomez, then Vice-President of Venezuela, turned on his friend and business partner, General Cipriano Castro, seized the Presidency with which Castro had temporarily entrusted him while he went to Europe for medical treatment, and declared himself, the Chief Executive and General Castro an exile.

Since then Castro has been not only an unwilling exile, but lately has even been declared a pirate, because it was believed he was sailing the high seas under a flag to which he had no right.

Venezuelans believe Castro has "come back," and that his presence in Venezuela means a revolution.

GOVT. PROGRAMME FOR NEXT WEEK IS UNDETERMINED

Prospect of Early Passage of Reciprocity at Washington May Clear the Situation.

ALL SIGNS CONTINUE TO POINT ELECTIONWARD

Popular Opinion, However, Thinks it Will Be Delayed Till After Harvest.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 13.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier was at his office in the eastern block to-day and received numerous callers.

The Prime Minister has lost no time in getting down to work, much of which awaits him.

Beside the departmental routine which has accumulated, preparations have to be made for the reassembling of Parliament next Tuesday.

All of the Ministers except Messrs Fielding, Oliver and Paterson have returned to the city and there will be daily sittings of the Cabinet.

The Order of Business.

The principal thing to be determined is the order of business, and whether unfinished legislation and supply will be proceeded with at the outset or reciprocity again tackled forthwith as the time is opportune to discuss a number of matters which have arisen since the adjournment of the House including developments at the Imperial Conference. There is a probability that whatever is the Government's own programme little with regard to it will be done next week.

The probability, however, of the reciprocity bill passing soon at Washington has a tendency to clear the atmosphere, making the issue more definite, and it is expected that comparatively little time will be lost in getting at the real question but for which prorogation would have occurred weeks ago.

Will Push Reciprocity.

When this subject is taken up it will likely be continued from day to day and of the eventual result there is little reason for doubt. The pact which now bids fair to be ratified soon at Washington will be pushed ahead with all the force of the Government, but with equal vigor it will be resisted by the Opposition who feel that public sentiment will amply justify their attitude. The natural constitutional climax will be an election, preparations for which by both sides are obvious everywhere. Just when it will come opinions differ. Some think it will be in a few weeks, others, probably the majority, hold that it certainly will not occur till harvest time is over.

The Redistribution Situation

It is intimated that some sort of a redistribution will be offered and based on estimates rather than actual count of population. Some members have already arrived and because of the exceptional situation and what it is likely to lead to an unusual degree of interest attaches to the forthcoming political developments. Just how they will occur the order of procedure and the relative preliminary jockeying of the two parties may be uncertain and problematical, but as to the outcome there is no division of opinion. Unless all signs and indications are astray there is going to be dissolution in the autumn with reciprocity as the dominating issue of the election.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT COMES IN OCTOBER, SAYS SIR WILFRID

Premier Urges Ottawa Citizens to Get Ready for His Reception.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 13.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned to Ottawa last evening from the Imperial Conference and Coronation and was given an enthusiastic reception by four thousand of his fellow citizens who turned out to bid him welcome, while the addresses were presented by the Liberal Associations of Ottawa and Hull and the demonstration was thus largely a party one. Sir Wilfrid in his reply completely eschewed politics. He said that Ottawa people would soon hear enough of that, as Parliament was about to resume. Instead, the Prime Minister referred to the Coronation and particularly to the coming of the Duke of Connaught for whom he bespoke a patriotic welcome. Afterwards he spoke of matters connected with the improvement of Ottawa and expressed his great pleasure at being home again and his appreciation of the welcome accorded him.

People Cheer His Arrival.

The Prime Minister's car was attached to 7.15 Canadian Pacific train from Montreal and at the Central depot a large crowd gathered to meet him. As he alighted, a band played "O, Canada" and there was much cheering. He was accompanied by Hon. L. P. Brodeur and Hon. Charles Murphy and was met by Sir Alan Aylesworth, Hon William Pugsley, Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, Hon. G. P. Graham, Senator Edwards, the city members—Messrs. McGiverin and Allard and many prominent citizens. A procession of carriages and automobiles with bands followed through the streets of lower town where there was much decoration in his honor. It wound up Parliament Hill, where, on a gaily bedecked platform, embellished with electric devices, the addresses were presented, the one in English by H. P. McGiverin, M.P., in French by A. Allard, M.P. and on behalf of the Hull Liberals by Dr. Fontaine. They made reference to Sir Wilfrid's stand at the Imperial Conference and commended his attitude on the questions there raised. On coming forward to respond, Sir Wilfrid was presented with two floral bouquets and was loudly cheered.

Sir Wilfrid's Reply.

Replying, Sir Wilfrid referred to his trip abroad and said its happiest day was the one on which he arrived home in Canada. Speaking of the coming of the Duke of Connaught, he said:

"There is one duty to which I would like to refer in view of a certain event which is going to happen in a few months. In a few months, as you all know, it shall be your privilege to receive as the new Governor-General of Canada His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught. He will come here in the month of October and I am sure I am only expressing you desire as I am expressing mine when I say that we should endeavor to make his first impression of Ottawa a favorable one. Therefore the object to which I deem it my duty as a citizen of Ottawa to refer is to ask, as the Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, that we should embellish our city as much as we can in order to further that impression.

"When my friend and colleague, Hon. Mr. Murphy, came to meet me on the train a few hours ago my first question to him was not about the politics of the country, not about the fate of the Government, of which I have no very serious doubt, but whether the works of improving the city were progressing as fast as they should, and whether they would be completed for the arrival of the Duke of Connaught. I am glad to know that they are progressing. I was sorry to say that they are not progressing as rapidly as I would like to see them. Something has been done on the station but a good deal remains to be done there. Something has been done on the hotel and I believe that the hotel will be ready in time. But I would like to know whether or not the new Driveway along the river towards Rideau Hall will be completed for the arrival of the Duke.

"We must make efforts so that when the Duke lands at the station he shall drive along the new driveway to his home. You will agree with me that this is an ambition that is worthy of the position which I occupy not only as a resident of Ottawa and as a citizen of this city, but as the Prime Minister of the country. It will be our privilege, as I told you a moment ago to have with us as our new Governor-General a member of the Royal family.

"When we have a member of the British Royal family coming as the representative of His Majesty the King, it is due to us to make the event worthy of a loyal people. I was asked by the Duke of Connaught, by the Duchess and by the Princess Patrica what kind of a reception they would have. I told them, and I am sure I was only repeating the conviction of your hearts, that if the affection of a loyal people could make their stay happy in Canada they would be happy indeed while they were amongst us. They said to me that they were looking with keen pleasure and expectation to their visit to Canada. I am sure that they will not be disappointed. It is not as Prime Minister of Canada, but as a citizen of Ottawa, that I ask you to receive him. Four years ago, on a similar occasion, I stated and I have only to repeat, that if I should vacate the position I now occupy I want no other position than that your Government should appoint me as a member of the Improvement Commission. That is work which I have had much at heart. The improvement of the city of which I have now been a resident for the last fifteen years, in which I shall live the rest of my days and in which I shall die.

"From the bottom of my heart let me tell you if words can convey to you, but on the present occasion words will not convey, the deep impression you have made on my heart by the kindness and cordiality of your reception."

The Prime Minister was then escorted to his residence on Laurier avenue, where he made another brief speech, expressing his pleasure on being home.

PETER MURPHY AND KAVANAGH FOR BIG MATCH

Two Shamrock Men for Tecumseh-Montreal Struggle at Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—President Murphy of the N. L. U. this morning announced the following referees for Saturday. Montreal at Tecumseh, Peter Murphy and Jim Kavanagh; Cornwall and Capitals, Eddie St. Pere and J. Brennan. Shamrocks at National, Roddy Finlayson and another yet to be named.

President Murphy decided to-day that Ottawa must secure the consent of the other clubs in the Union before they could play Dupras, released to them by Nationals. They must notify him by noon Saturday that such permission has been secured, otherwise he will instruct his Referee that Dupras is not eligible to play with Ottawa. The release was given after June 30th, the last day for the transfer of players or the signing of new men.

President Murphy stated that if on his own initiative he allowed Dupras to play, he would be flooded with requests from other teams and he knew of several now ready to be launched at him. Personally he thought it in the best interests of lacrosse to strengthen Ottawa and Cornwall wherever possible.

KING'S FAREWELL TO THE IRISH PEOPLE.

Dublin, July 13.—The King in a message to the Irish people says:

"I cannot leave Ireland without at once giving expression to the feelings of joy and affection inspired by the wonderful reception which the people of Dublin have given to the Queen and myself."

The King declares that the spontaneous and universal loyalty has greatly touched their hearts and will never be forgotten. He promises to pay another visit at no distant date and will then visit other parts of the country. His Majesty concludes:

"Our best wishes will ever be for increased prosperity for your ancient capital, and contentment and happiness for our Irish people."

Monster Parade in Toronto.

Toronto, July 13.—Toronto's Orange celebration yesterday was a record-breaker, seventy lodges being in line, with a total of 5,566 members, an increase of 1,730 over last year's turnout. The parade was over four miles in length, and occupied 90 minutes in passing the City Hall. There was no such interference with the street car service as precipitated small riots in previous years. The route of three miles from the Queen's Park to Exhibition Park was lined with thousands of spectators. At Exhibition Park speeches were delivered by prominent members of the order, and a programme of games was carried out.

A strongly worded resolution, denouncing the Ne Temere decree as "a cruel and immoral order," was passed, as were resolutions condemning Irish Home Rule; the use of the French language in the schools; demanding changes in the naturalization and immigration laws to prevent the dumping of undesirables in Canada.

Captain of Ben Earn Censured.

Yarmouth, N.S., July 13. — In the matter of the investigation, presided over by Capt. L. A. Demers, Dominion Wreck Commissioner, assisted by Capt. B. R. Hilton, Marine Instructor, and Capt. J. W. Anderson, Nautical Assessors, into the causes responsible for the stranding and subsequent total of the S.S. Ben Earn on the Half Moon Ledges, off the Nova Scotia Coast, on the evening of the 16th of June, the court finds that the master placed too much reliance upon the casual soundings taken. Taking into consideration the good reputation of the captain, the court will not deal with his certificate, but cannot refrain from censuring him, and advising him to exercise more caution.

A Complaint From Sherbrooke St.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—Can you tell me by what right the long-suffering residents of Sherbrooke and Drummond streets were deprived of any chance of sleeping, after the tropical heat of Monday? Is the hysterical outcry of the S.P.C.A. and the comfort of a few dozen Italian laborers of more consequence than the night's rest of worn business men, of sick and aged women, and of little children? It seems to me the most shameless infringement on the rights of the citizen which has yet been perpetrated in this long-enduring city. By all means let the Ritz-Carleton contractor be tender over the suffering of his men and horses, but not at the expense of the lives and reason of the community.

A SLEEPLESS WOMAN.

AMBROSE MEANS LASSOED WILD ANIMALS.

Young Buffalo Wild West Show Comes to Montreal.

When the English residents of East Africa heard that the Buffalo Jones exploration party was coming to Africa to lasso lions and other wild animals, such as rhinoceri, they laughed with glee, but when the American cowboys returned from the interior with a full grown lioness they piped another tune. Chief of these cowboys with this expedition was Ambrose Means, a devil-may-care sort of chap, who is absolutely fearless to any and all danger. It was he who cast the first rope that caught the first lion ever lassoed. When the Young Buffalo Wild West exhibits at Delorimier avenue and Ontario streets Monday after noon and night, Ambrose Means will appear in the arena and will give vivid demonstrations of how the wild animals of the African veldt were captured alive. Annie Oakley, the peerless wing and rifle shot, is the bright particular star of the Young Buffalo Wild West Show.

A big street parade will be given at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition.

Miss Eva Booth Prostrated.

Concert at Lafontaine Park.

There will be a band concert given to-night at Lafontaine Park by La Musique de Montreal nuder bandmaster Boucher. A feature of the programme will be the Coronation March.

The Hull people paid little attention to it. About fifteen hundred lodge men were in line. Afterwards there was a picnic at a point outside the city.

MR. ROBERT MEIGHEN DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF NIGHT ONLY; LOSS GREATLY FELT

Native of Ireland, He Made His Way from Humble Beginning to Great Commercial Success—Was Advocate of Imperial Preference and Opposed to Reciprocity—Believed in Milling Competition and Opposed Watered Mergers — Last Statement Was to Take Issue With Assertion of Sir Wilfrid Laurier—Many Men in High Places Pay Warm Tributes to the Dead.

THE LATE MR. ROBERT MEIGHEN.

Mr. Robert Meighen, who died suddenly at his home, 140 Drummond street, this morning, is now believed to have been a victim of the fierce heat wave, from which Montreal has been suffering.

For the past twelve months or more Mr. Meighen had been suffering from pancreatic trouble, but its ailment was not such as to cause any serious apprehensions, and indeed it did not appear in any way to interfere with his activity or his spirits.

During the heat wave he had kept about as usual, being every day at his desk in the head office of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, of which he was president, and attending to his many other interests as well. There is no doubt, however, that the long-sustained heat wave exercised a weakening influence on him, and it is believed to have been the direct cause of the aggravation of his trouble, leading to his death, which is officially stated to have been due to acute pancreatitis.

To the members of his family, to say nothing of his many friends, his death came as a great shock, for almost to the very last there was nothing in his condition to cause alarm. Yesterday he was down town as usual, laughing and chatting with his friends in the business district, and putting in a good day's work in the office.

He left the office between four and five o'clock in the afternoon apparently in his usual health and spirits, and without having made any complaint as to the state of his health.

Death Came This Morning.

On arriving home shortly afterwards, however, he said that he was not feeling up to the mark, and around nine o'clock in the evening it was deemed advisable to call in the family physician, Dr C. F. Martin. But Mr. Meighen continued to grow worse, and he showed a high temperature. At a quarter to six this morning he died.

Since he returned to Montreal from England a couple of years ago, Mr. Meighen had not been away from the city, except to make short business visits to Toronto and other places. His age—he was 72—did not appear to have any marked effect in curbing his activities.

Up to the very last his briskly-moving figure and hearty laugh and salutations were familiar in the down-town districts of the city, and on the floor of the Board of Trade. He was a regular attendant at the monthly meetings of the C.P.R. directorate, of which he was a member, and could always be relied upon for consultation in regard to the many other business interests with which he was associated.

Was a Philanthropist.

Mr. Meighen's death, it is no exaggeration to say, will be mourned all over the Dominion, and in particular in Montreal, where his personal friends were numbered by the hundreds. Bluff and outspoken as he was, there was a heartiness and a transparent sincerity about him that caused him to be highly esteemed among all classes of the community. He was a great philanthropist, both in regard to public objects, and in many private channels. He was, too, the soul of honor, and if he once gave his word would make any sacrifice rather than it should be thought he would not live up to it.

Mr. Meighen was an outstanding figure in the ranks of the industrial and financial pioneers of the Dominion, but apart from his commanding influence as a business man, he bulked largely as an Imperialist, and was perhaps as well known for his advocacy of measures for the binding and upbuilding of the British Empire as he was for his leadership in industrial development.

A Characteristic Chat.

An intimate friend of Mr. Meighen told a Star representative to-day that he had an appointment with the deceased for ten o'clock this morning. "I met him on St. Francois Xavier st., about one o'clock, and stopped him and shook hands. I then said that I desired certain information in respect of Reciprocity and the milling interests. The scope of the information desired was considerable, but without a moment's hesitation Mr Meighen said: 'All right; I'll have it for you at ten o'clock and will fetch it to your office.' Before that hour he was dead.

"He referred to Sir Wilfrid's speech of the night before. He took exception to the Prime Minister denouncing the opponents of Reciprocity as 'Imperialistic jingoes.' 'He insulted me and people like me,' said Mr. Meighen. 'I have as good a right to my views as has Sir Wilfrid. I have demonstrated a capacity for success, just as he has; and he has not worked harder in the general interest than I have. His denunciation of my ideas I don't mind; but he has no right to stigmatize me and people like me for holding them.' Mr. Meighen then quoted these words: 'The Empire is my country, and Canada is my home'; and he added: 'I am as good a Canadian as Sir Wilfrid Laurier.'"

"Asked how he was standing the hot weather, Mr. Meighen said: "I am all right,' and off he went up street."

Advocate of Preference.

When talking on Empire matters, Mr. Meighen sometimes laughingly claimed to be the originator of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain's policy of Imperial preference within the Empire. Whether this was so or not, he was certainly one of the first to advocate this scheme in Canada, and both on this side of the water and in England his voice and his pen for many years had ever been ready to advocate the cause. His public statements were always carefully thought out and well argued, and he always commanded interest and attention even from those who differed fundamentally from his views.

As far back as February, 1902, he brought the question of Imperial preference before the Montreal Board of Trade, and his speech on that occasion aroused great attention in various parts of the Empire.

Mr. Meighen stated on that occasion that he had called the meeting because, in consequence of advices received by him from reliable sources in Great Britain, it appeared desirable that the colonies should now express their views in regard to the movement in England tending towards a change in her fiscal policy. On his motion, seconded by Mr. H. Laporte, and dissented from only by Mr. C. H. Blaks, the Board of Trade resolved:

A Resolution Adopted.

"That this meeting is of opinion that Great Britain could best serve her own interests and those of her colonies by adopting such change in her fiscal policy as will give the products of her colonies a preference in her markets, as against the products of foreign countries, it being believed that such preference would stimulate trade and develop colonial enterprise, an dmoreover serve to make the colonies attractive not only to the large number of British subjects emigrating annually from the British islands, but also to the surplus population of other countries, and at the same time benefit Great Britain by largely freeing her from dependence upon foreign countries for her food supplies."

Opposed Reciprocity.

From the very first, Mr. Meighen was a determined opponent of reciprocity. He outlined his views on

ADMINISTRATION OF TAFT ATTACKED BY LA FOLLETTE

Senator Says Reciprocity Involves Fight Between Plain People and Confederated Privileges.

REDUCES NO DUTIES THAT AFFECT PEOPLE

Complete Surrender to Special Interests and Reversal of Roosevelt Policy.

Washington, July 13.—Senator La Follette, in a speech against reciprocity, today reviewed, act by act, the administration of President Taft in unsparing terms and declared that the contest involved was the "fight between the plain people and confederated privilege."

"Considered a measure of reciprocity" said Senator La Follettes of the Canadian agreement, "it violates every tariff principle of reciprocity heretofore expressed in the platform declarations of the Republican party and recommended by former Republican presidents.

"Considered as a tariff bill it violates every tariff principle and platform promise upon which William H. Taft was elected president of the United States. In the beginning it was heralded as a blessing to the consumers. So was the tariff bill of 1909. It promises to reduce duties for the benefit of the people. It reduces no duties, the effect of which can ever reach the people but it does reduce duties for the millers, the packers, Standard Oil the brewers, the coal combines, and in some measure for the already grossly protected interests. It is nothing that it pretends to be, and professes to be nothing that it is. It is a little brother to the Payne-Aldrich bill, the greatest legislative wrong inflicted upon the American people in half a century."

ALLEGES REVERSAL OF ROOSEVELT POLICIES.

The speaker said that the pending legislation based on the Canadian pact was so related to the "strange course of Mr. Taft upon the tariff question, and the protective policies which he was elected to maintain," that the real stable worth of his recommendations could not be fairly judged without reviewing the more important issues involved in his election and the more important acts of his administration.

Continuing his criticism of Mr. Taft's administration, Senator La Follette said:

"Throughout the first pages of his first general message he found no space to say a word for the great measure that had made the name of his predecessor revered and loved everywhere in the United States.

"Is it to be wondered at that, the Republican voter in 1910 felt that he had several scores to settle? A President whom he had elected, believing him to be the custodian of the Roosevelt policies had dismissed the Roosevelt Cabinet and appointed in their places men, in the main(of known hostility to these policies.

"In all the record of this administration, no more glaring example is presented of the complete surrender to special interests and the complete reversal of Roosevelt's progressive policies, than that shown in dealing with the amendments to the Interstate Commerce Act. It would have been difficult to have framed a piece of legislation affecting Interstate Commerce more harmful to the public interest than the bill drafted by the Attorney-General and recommended to Congress by President Taft."

McGill Employes' Picnic.

McGill University employes held their annual picnic at Bout de l'Ile yesterday, when a programme of sports was carried through.

The 100 yards race for men over 50 years of age was the event of the day, and the baseball match of five innings Buildings vs. Grounds Staffs, furnished much excitement, the Building's Staff winning by 20 to 6.

The committee was composed of Messrs. H. A. Stagg, W. Tobin, I. Geroux, T. Coles, W. Hazel, T. Taylor, C. Thompson, W. Jeffries, and T. Grayden as starter.

Latest Reports Place Death List at 700; More Than 200 Being Drowned in Porcupine Lake

Survivors Tell Thrilling Stories of Escape From Fiery Furnace—Assistance Coming From All Quarters—No News Yet About Reported Burning of Elk Lake—Englehart Rumored to Be in Danger of Burning — List of Dead and Injured.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cobalt, Ont., July 13.—A death list which is increasing in proportions with each report that comes in, which certainly amounts to hundreds, and may eventually exceed a thousand. This is the outstanding feature of the disastrous forest fires which swept the PoPrcupine on Tuesday.

There is no possible way of arriving at even an approximate estimate of the list of dead yet. It is known, however, taht the loss of lite in Porcupine Lake itself was very heavy. Several independent estimates put this at over two hundred. It is believed that upwards of one hundred miners lost their lives on the Dome Mine alone.

On the other mines the estimate of lives lost varies. Up to noon to-day eighty-seven dead had been positively accounted for.

The injured are being brought out as rapidly as possible. Already upwards of a score are housed at the Lady Minto Hospital at New Liskeard, and more are on their way.

The damage to the mining property is put down at over two and a half millions of dollars.

Four towns have been practically destroyed—Cochrane, South Porcupine, Pottsville, and a portion of Golden City. Elk Lake is reported destroyed, and Englehart is in danger still.

Several thousand people are homeless, and in urgent need of food and clothing. The nearest towns are sending all the aid, both in supplies and clothing they can, and Toronto, Ottawa and other cities are also rendering assistance.

The railways are carrying the survivors where they want to go free of charge. Ottawa City has voted $1,000 to aid the sufferers. Boards of Trade and other bodies are also devoting money to this end.

Death List in Porcupine Fire Growing Hourly.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—The death list in the Porcupine fire grows hourly. The latest estimate is, that at least seven hundred have lost their lives, and many experienced prospectors are of the opinion that the total list of dead will never be known, believing that hundreds of men met death in lonely parts of the region under prospection.

Following is a complete list of all the known dead, so far as has been definitely ascertained up to this p.m.:—

Only three of 84 employes of West Dome had been accounted for up to noon yesterday.
There is no means of estimating the total number of dead at Dome Mines, but the manager, Captain Meek and Mrs. Meek, Capt. Lawson, the clerical force, and Henry Hansan, mill construction foreman, are safe.
The Dome has nearly 300 employes. One report says that at least one hundred perished.
It is stated that there are twenty-seven dead in the West Dome shaft, and thirty foreigners in the Dome shaft.

Injured in Hospital.

The following is the list of injured persons from the Porcupine who are being attended at the Lady Minto Hospital in New Liskeard,—most of them from the Dome Mines:—

West Dome Mines, plant and all buildings, loss about $75,000.

Mines Escaping.

Despatches received here indicate that the mining properties in Northern Tisdale and some of those in northern Whitney escaped the fire. The Scottish-Ontario Gold Mining Syndicate is located just north of the fire belt, which swept around the side of the lake, but no damage is reported from there.

It is believed also that the Dobie Mine, the Achilles, and others in that district have been unharmed. Charles Watson, manager of the Dobie, returned to the property a few days ago, and it is said that he then took measures to secure further precautions against fire.

The rotary building at the Shallow Lake cement works, Wiarton, Ont., was gutted by fire late yesterday. Loss $8,000.

TO THE HELP OF THOSE WHO ESCAPED

The appalling calamity which has fallen on the Porcupine District will first shock and then stir the quick sympathy of the entire country. The flames swept down on the devoted mining town like an avalanche of death, and there is nothing comparable with it short of the swift stroke of an earthquake or a volcanic eruption.

But the great and immediately pressing fact for us to realize is that help—abundant help—must go forward at once. In such a country, the reserve of food is never large; and an advancing wall of fire devours such supplies as lie in its path, as ruthlessly as it wipes out human life.

For the hundreds who lie dead, there will be other hundreds who will fin dthemselves without food or adequate clothing; and, if they are not succored without delay, the death list must grow. Unnecessary hardship frequently follows such a tragedy with a slower but no less sure death-roll of its own.

Montreal interest in the district is great; and this city can well afford to do its full share in helping those who have mercifully escaped the scythe of flame. We should not hesitate nor stint our gifts. The organized business bodies, such as the Board of Trade and the Chambre de Commerce, should lead off; and individual sympathy can follow swiftly such effective leadership. The City Council can well make a grant, too, which will come from the entire citizenship of this mining and financial metropolis of Canada.

Promptness is the first virtue in such a case; and free-handed generosity is the next. He who gives quickly, gives twice; and the greatest generosity becomes at this time only the plain duty of a wealthy community.

The owners of the Hollinger mine have started a relief fund in Montreal, for the Porcupine fire sufferers with following amounts:—

Henry Timmins	$500.00
Noah Timmins	500.00
John McMartin	500.00
Duncan McMartin	500.00
D. A. Dunlop	500.00

Money sent to the Star will be forwarded as quickly as possible to the afflicted district.

INQUEST RESUMED IN SHAW TRAGEDY

Cornwall, Ont., July 13. — The inquest into the death of William Shaw, who died in the Cornwall General Hospital on Friday, July 7, following the Bridge End shooting affray of Dominion Day, was resumed at the Cornwall court house this morning.

Dr. Hamilton, coroner, presided. The whole morning was taken up with the evidence of the driver of the car, H. A. Tomkins, of Ottawa, who told of taking Dr. Magee, his brother Magee and Shaw to Bridge End by way of Balmsville, where they picked up a constable.

Mr. Tomkins' story was that he did not know the nature of his mission till he reached Bridge End. When the car stopped in front of the brick house of D. C. McRae, the quartette jumped out hurriedly. Dr. Magee and Uren, after trying the front door, went around the house, while the other two walked up and down on the road. When he was driven away to save his tires from mutilation, the witness was accompanied by Mack, Magee and Shaw, who urged Dr. Magee and Uren to come away and avert further trouble. They refused and went down the road, but came back, and all started away. Witness did not hear a shot, but when he became aware that Shaw was hurt they were going down a little hill. At the conclusion of Tomkins' evidence the inquest adjourned.

Seven Men Injured.

Excitement was caused on the river front shortly after noon to-day, when seven men working on scaffold near the outlet to the Harbor Commissioners' new grain elevator, No. 2, were hurled violently to the ground and had to be conveyed to the General Hospital in two ambulances.

They were working on a scaffold, when a large beam cut the scaffold in two like a knife.

Survivors Forced to Remain in Lake; Three Hours to Escape Flames

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—The first of the refugees from Porcupine reached Toronto this morning, a dozen or more tired-looking, footsore, smoke-begrimed prospectors and pioneers of the burned out area dropping off the Cobalt special which arrived at the Union Station at 7.30. They were dressed in clothes of all descriptions and although some were penniless and extremely hungry they appeared to be a happy lot, happy because they were back in the land of plenty, away from the land of holocaust. They carried with them the unshakeable bush fire smoke smell with which they had been "soused" in their rush for safety. Several carried packs upon their backs containing all that they had left while others came empty handed.

"It was an awful disaster," said Mr. Wardrope. " Iwas one of the five or six hundred who took refuge in Porcupine Lake, and it was one of the most appalling sights I ever witnessed. The flames from the fire licked out for more than 100 feet beyond us and we were fifty feet from the shore. We all stayed in the town till the dynamite explosion occurred and then we took to the lake. It was really our only escape and hundreds of us were in the lake for three hours. Men and women hung on to logs, boats and canoes. The roaring flames shot far above our heads. Burning embers descended in a hailstorm of fire. The air became sultry, then scorching, then unendurably hot. We were forced further and further from the bank. Those who clung to rafts, bonts and canoes survived in the deep water. Hundreds, women and children among them perished. Inch by inch the fire forced them away from the shore into water that rose higher and higher, but there was no other relief from the scorching furnace blast ahd burning rain. Driven beyond their depth they struggled frantically to regain their footing but were forced back again by the flames and went down.

"We all helped one another as we could, but everything that could float was soon overboard to double capacity. There were five of us in one canoe, A. D. and J. A. Williams, of Kansas City, L. P. Abshirr, of Kansas City, P. McCaffrey, of Ireland and myself. As soon as we took to the water the canoe upset and the five of us kept hold on it. One man I know of, Nathan Howes, of Spokane, Wash., whose name has not bten in the papers was drowned in the Lake."

Hundreds are Dead

"How many do you suppose are dead?

"It would be impossible to tell, but it must be up in the hundreds," said Mr. Wardrope.

Mr. Wardrope, who is a mining engineer was developing some claims in Fripp Township for western capitalists and had five men working under him. Three of the men perished in the flames.

"I know of those three men being burned," said Mr. Wardrope, "and I was told that another one of them had also died."

"Who were these men?"

"I dont' know their names. They would have to be found out from the lists and they were buried in the ground. Everybody buried all their books and documents in order to save them for future reference.

"One of the tragic events of the terrible disaster was to see a lot of my friends out of the shaft of the West Dome property. About fifteen of them got into the shaft to escape the fire and they all were either burned or smothered."

"Do you think that any Toronto University students are lost?" he was asked.

"If they were back in the bush they could not save themselves," he replied. "You see about ten square miles of forest have been burned to the ground, and the flames swept through so rapidly that few could escape. As far as I am aware the only ones wwho are gone are the prospectors and miners."

W. R. Ridge and E. S. Ridge, two brothers from Kansas City, Ka., formerly of Goldfields, Nev., related how they had dashed through seven miles of burning country, stumbling over miles upon miles of burning corduroy road, finally reaching South Porcupine, which they did not recognize as everything, including the docks, had been destroyed.

"We almost walked into the lake," said Mr. W. R. Ridge to the Star correspondent, before we were aware that we were on the tonsite."

"We had left South Porcupine only four days before in order to visit the Hollinger mine, and after the orst part of the blaze was over decided to make our way back. I am afraid we left too soon, as the heat and smoke became almost unbearable, but we managed to keep going and stick to the road. In some places we had to pull our hats over our faces in order to get through, and many times we were almost choked with the blinding smoke. When we got to South Porcupine we saw about a thousand people standing up to their necks in water.

"Just as we arrived a party of twenty from the Vipond mines got in. They had fought their way through flames and their clothing was partially burnt, while several horses which they had brought with them had lost their manes and tails.

MANY LIVES SAVED AT HOLLINGER PROPERTY.

"A great number of people were saved at the Hollinger property. That place was like an oasis in a desert. Quite a large area had been cleared and they had a water pump, so fifty buildings were saved. I imagine there were about four hundred refugees from all directions at this spot beside the four hundred which the Hollinger Company employ. People came pilling in from all districts like rats from a sinking ship and assisted in fighting the flames.

"It will be very hard to estimate the death loss. A great many must have lost their lives at the Big Dome, West Dome and Dome properties.

"One boy came in from Big Dome with the report that forty-eight dead had been found around there.

"What they need there is food, tents and doctors. There is practically nothing left and the bare necessities must be supplied immediately to relieve suffering. Contrary to expectations, only a few came to Toronto by the Cobalt special. Ordinarily this train is crowded with investors, miners and others. Among those who arrived safely were: Ed. Holland, of Toronto; W. H. Bond, of the Imperial Mines; A. D. Williams and son, of Kansas City; H. M. Roach, Mr. Wardrope, of Hamilton, and the Ridge brothers, of Kansas City.

Two abominable starts marred the day's racing at Delorimier Park yesterday. The smallest crowd of the meet testified to the fact that the public is getting "fed up" with the kind of racing that has been dished out at the merry-go-round. The starting especially calls for a lot of improvement and some decisions of the judges, when placing the horses at the finish, have been very questionable, to put it mildly.

The third race, in which five horses started, saw Sam Bernard and Grecian Bend, the only two horses who received any kind of a heavy play, practically left at the post. Grecian Bend had been played down from 3 to 1 to 9 to 5, and Sam Bernard was the public's choice. He was pounds the best horse in the race. Off to a rotten start he made up a lot of ground and was shut off twice when trying to come through on the rail. Grecian Bend ran a poor race and never made up any ground. Mazonia, who went up in the betting from 2 to 1 to 4 to 1, won the race hands down.

Another joke start occurred in the sixth race. Donovan, who was a split favorite with Quincy Belle, being left flat footed at the post. He had no chance and Bergen trailed his field all the way. Again in this race not one of the horses that had been heavily played, finished in the money. Bodkin, Donovan and Quincy Belle being the betting mediums of the race. Quincy Belle finished third, but the price on her to show was 1 to 2. Ynca, a pretty shifty filly, and who was held by the books at the false price of 8 to 1, won all the way. Carroll rode a nice race on the Telegram filly and nursed her right along until entering the stretch when he let her down and won going away from Tom Shaw, who was in front of Quincy Belle.

The first race called for a lot of excitement. Girondo began to move up with Tender right after passing the stand for the first time, and going around the third turn, the filly stumbled and fell, throwing the boy heavily. Brendemeer, coming right behind, could not be pulled up in time to avoid falling. Girondo lay on the track apparently badly hurt, but Bergen made his way to the paddock unassisted and rode in every one of the day's races. Girondo had to cancel his engagements for the afternoon and he can consider himself very lucky to come out of the spill without any broken bones. After Tender had fallen, Rubiola, a 15 to 1 shot, remained in front the whole journey, and won by a nose from Coal Shoot, with Dan O'Grady five lengths back.

The second saw the return to the saddle of Tommy Burns, the once premier rider of the Metropolitan tracks. He rode his own horse Premier, and finished a bang-up second to May Bride, who ran a beautiful race. Burns used nice judgment and saved ground all the way until the stretch, when under a fierce drive Premier passed Sandiver, the favorite. The latter ran a dull race and received an indifferent ride from Bergen.

Henry Crosscaddin, favorite, Flarney and Complete, both 6 to 1 shots, finished noses apart in the fourth race.

Isabel Casse made her field look cheap in the fifth. Getting away to a good start she drew away into a long lead and won by over ten lengths, with Bergen sitting still and looking back at the distant field. Sally Savage and Goodacre finished practically even for the place, but the keen eye of the judges caught Sally Savage second and Goodacre third. Minder, on Sally Savage, remarked to Gore, on Goodacre when they were pulling up their horses to come back to weigh in: "I think you beat me out for the place."

Susan, Allowmaise and Fleming was the finish of the seventh. Fleming off to a poor start had all the poor racing luck and could not quite get up.

Jockey George Carroll was fined $50 and set down for the balance of the meet for breaking through the barrier with Ynca. Carroll is very sore at the treatment he has been getting since coming up from Latonia to ride at King Edward Park. He claims the other boys have it in for him and that three or four times in the stretch when it came to a drive he has been hit over the back by some of the other boys' whips. He says he did not break through the barrier intentionally but could not hold his filly. The offence was not very flagrant and to one who saw Miss Felix with Bergen up, go repeatedly through the barrier last Saturday, it would seem that the punishment was uncalled for.

MR. RODDY FINLAYSON.

CAPITALS THINK THEY HAVE A GREAT GOALER.

Are Very Proud of Foley — They Expect to Play Dupras.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, Ont., July 13.—At least four of the clubs in the N. L. U. are willing to concede Hector Dupras to the Capitals, and with a majority of the clubs behind their request there is little doubt but that the speedy ex-National home star will line up with the Capitals against Cornwall on Saturday. Coach Smith needs Dupras to fill out his home field, and unless the Cornwall Club throw up some unexpected obstacle, he will have his request granted. One chance may be made upon the defence, but the team will not be chosen until to-night, when the twelve will wind up their preparations for the Cornwall fixture, every man being expected to turn out.

Foley in the nets is due to be a sensation this year, his work getting better every night. Last evening he pulled off some marvellous saves, and with the great protection that he was afforded, it was a big job for the home to net the rubber. Jack Ashfield returned to the fold last night, going strong in mid-field, the team now look very fast about mid-field, and if McIntyre, the Toronto recruit, happens along before Saturday, he, too, may be used in the game against Cornwall. Owner Bliskey has been in Toronto for the last two or three days, and he may bring McIntyre back to Ottawa with him.

Out of Eight, Five are Open to All, Three to Province Bred Only.

The management of the Montreal Jockey Club has decided on the 4th of August as the day for the closing of the fall stakes. This season will see eight stakes run at the meeting at Blue Bonnets. There will be six on the flat and two over the steeplechase course. Out of the eight, five are open to all, while the other three are for province-breds and Canadian-owned. The stakes have all been increased in value, which will be an attraction for the best horses now racing on the American continent.

On the opening day the King's Plate will be run. This is for province-breds, and has been increased in value to $1200. This increase will be kept up each season as long as the quality guarantees it.

The Hendrie Memorial, which was run as an overnight handicap last fall, is included in the stakes this season. It is for steeplechasers and over a distance of three miles.

The Earl Grey stakes at 1⅛ miles is worth $1200 this fall, and should see a record entry. There is no stake worth less than a thousand dollars as well as the entrance money.

The over-night purses will range in value from four to seven hundred dollars. The opening handicap has seven hundred added, while there will be a handicap run every afternoon.

The work of re-modelling the stables has been carried on with great rapidity, and more than half of them are now completed. This will be greatly appreciated by the horsemen who race here. There are several other improvements to be made to the plant between now and the opening on Saturday, September 16. The following are the stakes to close on August 4th:

King's Plate, for 3-year-olds and up, foaled in the Province of Quebec; $1200.

Hochelaga Handicap, for 3-year-olds and up, 6 furlongs; $1000.

Earl Grey cup, for 3-year-olds and up, 1⅛ miles; $1000.

The Derby cup, for 3-year-olds and up, for Canadian-owned, 1¼ miles; $1000.

Champlain stakes, for 3-year-olds and up, 1 mile; $1000.

Strathcona Steeplecase, for 4-year-olds and up, about 2½ miles; $1000.

Hendrie Memorial Steeplechase, for 4-year-olds and up, about 3 miles; $1200.

The Government will donate $500 to be divided among the breeders of the first four horses to finish in the King's Plate and the Provincial Nursery Stakes.

THE ALL-CANADIAN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Miss Moyes and Miss Summerhayes Both Won Their Matches.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 13. — Splendid progress was made in the all Canadian championships yesterday, when a very large gallery was present at the Rosehelm courts. Both Miss Moyes and Miss Summerhayes played good tennis, and won their games fairly easily. Witchall and Pepall met in the open singles. This was one of the closest and most exciting games of the tournament, and was won by Witchall after three hard sets. Baird again showed brilliant tennis in his match with Bickle. Both Spanner and Laird won their games, and the match between them to-day is expected to produce some of the finest tennis that will be seen this week. The doubles match between Dunlop and Stobb and Rooke and Bickles swayed from one to the other until the end of the third set, when the latter pair won out on condition.

A programme full of features has been arranged for this afternoon. Baird meets Dineen in the open singles, and Baird will have to extend himself to win. Burns and Smart and Dineen and Spanner will meet in the open doubles, and Baird and Witchall will meet the junior pair, Bagley and Calder. In the mixed doubles Burns and Miss Best are scheduled to play Baird and Miss Andras. The finals will be played on Saturday.

VALUABLE PRIZES FOR PRINTERS' PICNIC.

At King Edward Park on Saturday, July 22nd.

The Sports Programme has now been completed, and many valuable prizes have been donated for competition. Among others there will be an open event for members of unions in the city, while a feature will be made of ladies' and girls' races. Valuable prizes are also offered in the boys' races. The dancing arrangements have been completed, and an orchestra, in addition to the park band, secured. A track is being prepared, so that there will be no reason why the sports part of the programme should not eclipse that of previous years. Special prizes are given for the best photographs taken in connection with the picnic, entries for which should be handed in on the day. Efforts will be made to make the day a blue ribbon one in the history of Montreal Typographical Union No. 176. The usual price of admission (20c for adults and 10c for children), will be charged.

WESTERN LACROSSE JUST LIKE IN THE EAST.

Magnates and Referees Talk About Serious Fouls for Two Hours and Do Nothing.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 13.—Delegates to a special meeting of the British Columbia Lacrosse Association listened to a strong arraignment of Tommy Gifford for his unsportsmanlike conduct in the game here on Dominion Day. In the official report the referees, Messrs. Ditchburn and Cusack, talked two hours on the necessity of uplifting the national game by barring players who would do such things, and then adjourned without accomplishing anything whatever. The referees advised the association to make an example of Gifford. Finally, even the motion to fine Gifford $50 was lost.

METROPOLITAN GOLF.

Englewood, N.J., July 13. — J. J. McDermott, the national open golf champion, of Atlantic City and Gilbert Nicholls, of Wilmington, Del., tied for the lead at the end of the first thirty-six holes at the Metropolitan Golf Association open championship, with scores of 144, on the links of the Englewood Country Club. The young champion came to the fore with a rush in the afternoon when he reeled off a 69.

The prize for the best eighteen-hole score went to Oswald Kirkby, the Englewood amateur, who made 68 on his second round. His total of 145 for the 36 holes places him on even terms with James Thomson, of the Philadelphia Country Club.

THE BEST OF REFEREES WANTED

The best of Referees are not too good for the Tecumseh-Montreal match in Toronto.

Montreal had a practice last night and look to be in pretty good shape. Fred Scott seemed stronger than he was during the past two weeks, and they are all confident that they can beat Tecumseh, if the Referees are striot.

As far as te local match on the National grounds is concerned the Referee trouble is finished. Messrs. Bob. Taylor and Roddy Finlayson have been appointed

Special attention will be paid by the committee to announcing the results from the Toronto and Cornwall matches. Tickets can be had from Mr Larose at 325 St. Lawrence Boulevard

The Montreal team leaves to-morrow night by C. P. R and President W. E. Findlay and General Manager Davidson will accompany them.

The Toronto Star says:—The two Scotts, Layden, Roberts and Hogan, with Albert Dade in reserve make up the Montreal home, which is considered one of the best in the league. We will see on Saturday if they can make any impression on the Tecumseh defence.

"Jack" McKenzie, the Tecumseh defence fielder, who has been out of the game for a couple of weeks will be in again Saturday, and will likely have the task of checking Fred Scott, the great home man of the Montreal team.

Kinsman in goal, Green, Yeaman and Graydon out in front, comprise about the finest defence that the Toronto public have seen in many a year.

Charlie Querrie's advice to his players was great in Saturday's game Keep on playing fellows; if there is any loafing to do, I can do it all myself,' 'is the way the chief put it

The Toronto Telegram says:—If by any chance Montreal shoves Dade and Fred Scott on their original line-up on Saturday, the Tecumseh defence will have a busy time of it. This Dade-Scott combination is a hard one to stop. They both bore right in, and it is difficult for the defending players to stop them without giving them a penalty producing jar.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—Many close followers of the national game are of the opinion that Montreal just about willbeat the Tecumseh at the Island Saturday. They contend that the shifty Montreal attack will prove too fast for the Indians' defence, and that their tricky, tantalizing style of play will be wilder their opponents and cause them to indulge in tactics that will lead to the banishment of Tecumseh players from the game. The Scotts and Hogan are a dangerous trio, and if any latitude is allowed them they will score many goals. The Toronto players to a man declare Montreal will give the Indians a tough argument.. On the whole, though, Querrie's aggregation is regarded as looking like the best balanced team, and with Jack Mackenzie back in the game, Manager Querrie is not at all anxious as to the outcome of the struggle. A bunch of real money has been sent down to Montreal by the Indians' supporters, and reports are to the effect that the adherents of the M.A.A.A. outfit have covered most of the collateral. Much interest is being taken in the contest, and the largest crowd of the season is expected to be at the Point Saturday. President "Jimmy" Murphy has not selected his officials as yet, but he says he will have his best men on the job.

KING EDWARD AND GRAND CIRCUIT.

It is announced that as soon as the racing season is finished work will be commenced upon a mile track to take the place of the present half-mile race course. Mr. Laurendeau has decided to put his track in the same class as Blue Bonnets, and some of the other well known Canadian and United States tracks. In view of this, Secretary A. A. Gingras, of the King Edward Trotting Club, has been ordered to apply for admission to the Grand Circuit.

THE RACE OF JULY 22

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE CALEDONIAN SOCIETY.

When at the solicitation of the President and the Executive of the Montreal Caledonian Society, The Montreal Star last year decided to offer a cup for another Amateur Star Race, to be run in connection with the Annual Caledonia Games, it made a rule that it should be won twice, not necessarily in succession, before it becomes the property of any one.

It will be run under the rules of the Amateur Harrier Union of Montreal.

BOOKMAKERS BANISHED BY THE GOVERNOR

Fastest Mile of the Season Paced at Grand Circuit Meet, Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 13. — By order of Governor Marshall, the bookmakers' stalls were deserted while the second day's card of the Grand Circuit race meet in this city was on. What betting there was was done in front of the grand stand in private pools. Considerable money changed hands in this way, but it is said the amount was not to be compared with the betting of yesterday.

The track was good, and the fastest mile of the season was recorded when Zombrewer, driven by Snow, registered 2.04¼ in the second heat of the 2.09 pace, the feature event of the day. She took the third heat, a quarter of a second slower, and was pushed until right at the finish, when Sir R. pulled up and lost the last heat only by a neck.

Sporting Views And Reviews

Good old Cambridge! It was one of her stout sons who saved the day and clinched victory for the British College athletes. It was pretty largely a Cambridge victory, although Oxford made a valuable contribution by winning the two-mile run. The Britishers made four of their five wins on the track, where they proved their superiority. The only race that is a test of speed and running powers that the American students won, was the half-mile. A Harvard boy captured this race and by so doing captured tht highest honor won by his team.

Increased interest will be given many of our local regular regattas by additions to their regular programmes of demonstrations by the recently organized Montreal Branch of tht Royal Life Saving Society. At the regattas members of the Branch will give demonstrations of the best methods of rescuing persons in distress in the water and in danger of drowning. Then will follow demonstrations of resuscitating those taken from the water in an unconscious state. These demonstrations will teach much needed lessons. For want of knowledge respecting the rescuing and reviving of the drowning many lives are lost each season. The necessary knowledge, and which should certainly be possessed by all who go in for acquatic sports, it is the desire of the Montreal Branch of the Royal Life Saving Society to impart. It is a good work, and the regatta committees should assist as much as possible in carrying it out.

ONLOOKER.

TRAP SHOOTING NEXT AT KING EDWARD.

There Will be a $1500 Clubhouse and $800 in Purses, Besides Other Prizes.

The trap shooting establishment will be the first of the new sporting features of King Edward Park to be finished. Plans for the club house have been accepted, and the traps have been ordered.

The traps will be affairs of the newest design, which bear the stamp of approval of the various big trap shooting institutions of the United States and Canada. These traps were used in the recent shoot of the Canadian Indians at Toronto, which was the biggest thing in the way of a tournament pulled off on this side of the American border in a decade.

The club building will be modest in design, but of substantial construction and commodious proportions.

The front will be mainly of glass, and the shooting platforms will be so arranged that the marksmen will fire in nearly opposite directions.

The buildings and traps will cost in the neighborhood of fifteen hundred dollars.

It is the intention of the promoters of the enterprise to open the new traps with a grand international tournament of three days' duration, which will fit in with the aviation programme. Details of the tournament have not been completed, but it is safe to predict that $800 or more will be dispensed in rewards to the twenty-five high scores of the three days' shoot.

Besides these prizes handsome trophies will be offered for contests between aspiring professional and amateur marksmen. The construction of the clubhouse will be finished in four weeks' time, and the opening tournament will be held as soon thereafter as details can be arranged.

From the twenty-two men making the best showing in these games the All-Montreal line-up will be chosen. The west end game will be refereed by Mr. Moore, and the east end match by R. Brand. A final game will be played on August 9 between the selected Montreal team and the rest on the M.A.A.A. grounds in order to perfect team play. NO RACES AT CHICAGO.

Chicago, July 13. — The two weeks' race meeting scheduled to begin at Hawthorne track to-morrow, was called off to-day. The attitude of the authorities, who refused to permit betting in any form, is responsible.

Edward White, representative of the owners of Hawthorne, said: "We could not pay expenses out of the gate receipts alone. To think of giving a purse of $500 for the chief event each day was out of the question, so we decided to call off the meeting."

Betless Meet On Saturday

Chicago, July 13.—Chicago's first race meeting in seven years, which is scheduled to open at the historic Hawthorne track on Saturday, and to continue for a fortnight, will be held without betting. The sheriff declares that anyone attempting to bet, or any one receiving a wager, will be arrested and that seventy-five deputies will guard against gambling.

BASEBALL HAS PLEBISCITE.

Albany, N.Y., July 13. — After a debate which fairly bristled with Scripture quotations and extracts from the works of famous theologians, the Assembly yesterday afternoon passed the bill of Assemblyman Bush, which provides local option on the Sunday baseball question. Under the measure the question can be put to a vote of the people in any community of the state on a petition signed by 5 per cent. of the electors.

FITZPATRICK'S COSTLY ERROR GAVE MONTREAL A LOOK-IN AT TORONTO YESTERDAY FOR AN EVEN BREAK

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 13.—Two good games of ball were witnessed at the Island Stadium yesterday, Toronto taking the first by 5 to 2 and Montreal capturing the second by 6 to 5. Lester Backman, recalled from Troy, was put in the box for Toronto in the first contest and pitched a fine game. Billy Burke opposed him, and justified all that had been said of him. Unfortunately, he lost control in the early stages of the game, and the Leafs took full advantage of every mistake he made. He braced up, however, and but for his temporary trouble would have won his game.

The second game was notable for hard hit balls. Gandil hit against the centrefield fence for a home run, the ball sailing just a few feet above Vaughn's head and between O'Hara and Shaw. The latter pinned a fast pitch to the centrefield bleachers on a line for a circuit ticket, and Jordan hit one farther and harder than the other two, but the ball caromed off an electric light standard and came back into the field, the batsman making but two bases on the swipe. It was Jordan's 99th hit of the season. The Leafs made two fast double plays in this piece. Gandil's homer gave the Royals a lead of one in the second inning, but French's error on O'Hara and a home run by Shaw made it two for Toronto. The Leafs got farther in front in the fifth when a base on balls was hit around by O'Hara and Delehanty. Another bad error by Vaughn, a triple by Nattress and singles by Gandil and Curtis were good for three runs in the sixth. Toronto tied the score in the seventh when Delehanty drove O'Hara and Rudolph home with a line drive when two were down. Curtis' single and a base on balls in the ninth were followed by Fitzpatrick's costly error again with two out and the two winning runs came across.

A REAL PURSE.

$20,000 for Wells and McFarland Fight.

New York, July 13. — E. M. Macdonald, manager of Matt Wells, English lightweight champion, received a cablegram yesterday afternoon from the London Sporting Life offering a purse of $20,000 for a fight between Wells and Packey McFarland, of Chicago, in December. Sporting Life is probably acting for some London boxing club.

McFarland in Demand.

San Francisco, Cal., July 13.—Milton T. Clark, who will have the September boxing permit for San Francisco, is making an effort to match Matt Wells and Packey McFarland for a 20-round bout here on Admission Day, September 9th. Wells already has been signed by Tom O'Day, acting for Clark in New York, and it is expected that McFarland's signature will be secured immediately.

Champion Wolgast, who left for his home in Michigan yesterday, announced that he may take on Pal Moore for ten rounds in the east before his bout with Freddie Welsh in November.

Canadian League Ball.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 13. — London defeated the rejuvenated Guelph team in a Canadian League game yesterday by the score of 7 to 1. Kehoe, the new Guelph pitcher, was in the box, and fifteen were gathered off him, five runs being tallied in the second period.

St. James To Meet Maples.

For the return game between these teams, St. James' will rely on the same eleven that beat Tetreaultville. On their recent form, St. James' should avenge the previous defeat by Maples.

Team as follows: Greaves, goal; Wright and Brown, backs; McKeown, Heath and Fennah, half backs; Asbrey (capt.), Jones, Hoad, Adshead and Kitchener, forwards. Reserves, Holmes and Upshaw.

WOLGAST SEEMS AFRAID TO MEET KNOCK-OUT BROWN

New York, July 13.—Along the White Way yesterday afternoon the main question—barring a few words about the heat situation—was, why did Wolgast funk on a fight with Knockout Brown? For, taking the matter in any light, it appears on the face as if the champion really side-stepped out of a battle with his two-time conqueror. What makes the situation look rather queer in the champion's camp is that he refused to listen to any challenge from Brown until some money was posted. As Jones wired, "Brown must put up his money before challenge will be considered."

When Danny Morgan, Brown's manager, was informed of Jones' wire, Morgan came across with a $1000 forfeit, and then sat back to hear from Wolgast. The instant Morgan's money was posted, a wire was sent to Wolgast announcing the fact and asking for further advices. The answer was a solar plexus to Morgan: "Wolgast refuses to pay any attention to Brown." And immediately on the heels of this message came the news that Wolgast had signed up for a championship fight with Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight.

The last time Wolgast was here he was beaten by Brown at the National Sporting Club, and immediately after that fray announced that he was coming back to get a return match. Now that he has signed articles with Welsh, it means that a Brown-Wolgast match is out of the question for the present unless the battle with Welsh falls down or the persistence of Brown forces the champion to enter the ring with him again.

It's hard to imagine for a moment that Wolgast fears meting Brown in the ring, but from the rapidity with which he closed with Welsh, Morgan does not hesitate to say that the champion is trying to worm out of a fight with Knockout Brown.

What perplexes Morgan is that in his fight with Welsh, Wolgast insists upon a side bet of $10,000. The Englishman posted $1,000 several weeks ago to bind the match, and said he was willing to produce the balance of $9,000 as soon as Wolgast acceded to his request. When the conference met Monday night in Los Angeles to close the match, Welsh did not have the $9,000 and was given until August 10 to post this amount.

Morgan announced right along that as soon as Wolgast agreed to meet Brown, the latter's $10,000 would be posted immediately. Morgan is hoping that Welsh changes his mind about the big wager, and that Wolgast will refuse to battle. In that case the champion will have no legitimate reasons for refusing to fight Brown for the title.

"Knockout" in Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 13. — Toronto is certainly getting a secure place on the professional boxing map. The latest encounter scheduled for this town brings together the famous "Knockout" Brown, of New York, and "Fighting" Jack Kelly, of Baltimore, who will box before the Olympic Club, at the Island Stadium, on July 25.

WITH THE SMALLER BALL TEAMS

Montifiore League.

The next game in the above league will take place on July 16th, at 10 a.m., on Fletcher's Field. The contest will be between the Zionist and Eureka. These teams are now of equal standing, and both managers claim a victory. "Casey" Goldberg will be on the mound for Eureka, and Rozenberg will most likely twirl the "cork pill" for the Zionists. The winner of this contest will likely be champions of the first Hebrew league in Montreal.

Disraeli Club League.

The third series of games in this new Hebrew League will take place on Fletcher's Field on July 16th. The contesting teams will be as follows: Primes vs. Vics.; Grays vs. Leafs.

Cardinals vs. Arrows.

The two leaders in the Junior League clash for the first time on Saturday afternoon at 3.30 on Fletcher's Field. There is keen rivalry between these two teams. A defeat for the Cardinals would give the Arrows a slight lead, and a loss for the Arrows would place Cardinals in a position that would be hard to overcome by the other teams. Drysdale or Villeneuve will do the twirling for the Cardinals, while Arrows may spring a surprise in their choice. Jimmie Drury says the Arrows are going to play some game against the temporary leaders.

Monarch vs. Ontario.

Lafontaine Park will be the battle ground for the game between these two teams in the Junior League on Saturday afternoon. The Ontarios are not going to take any chances, and have decided to put Kane in the box. The game starts at 3.30 p.m.

Celtic vs. Crescent.

The result of the game to be played between these two teams in the Junior League on Saturday afternoon at Lafontaine Park will place the loser on the top line of the standing if printed upside down. Meehan will likely pitch for the Crescents.

The Knickerbocker League.

On Saturday afternoon all the teams in the above league have games on. The Maple Leafs, the leaders, are up against Point St. Charles, a new team admitted to take the place of the Royals, who have withdrawn. The following is the complete schedule of games to be played in this league on Saturday afternoon: Clippers vs. Emeralds, Elmoras vs. Cubs, and Maple Leafs vs. Point St. Charles.

Other Contests on Saturday.

Tetreault Shoe vs. C. P. R. A. A. A.
Canada Car vs. Jenkins.
Melrose A. A. vs. Canadian Reserves.
St. Thomas Aquinas vs. Church of Ascension.
Park Extension vs. West End.
C. P. R. Junior vs. Celtics.

Regals Defeated St. Marie.

In a closely contested game, the Regals defeated the St. Marie nine by a score of 11 to 10. The good stick work of the Regals featured, notably that of Wheaton and Price.

Pitcher Kane's Good Record.

Kane, the pitcher of the Ontario B.B. Club, has a record for pitching two straight games, winning them with thirty-three strike-outs. On Saturday, defeating Arrows, the first time they were defeated on their grounds in years, he secured seventeen strike-outs, allowing five hits. The next day he defeated the St. George B. B. Club by 9 to 3, striking out sixteen men.

Kane has a record for pitching six games by striking out 81 men, and allowing 27 hits, walking 7 men on balls. Arrows' pitchers will have to go some to beat Kane.

The Emmetts beat the Lackawannas by 23 to 9. Batteries: Emmetts, Rafferty and O'Brien; Lackawanna, Bellveau and Blanchard.

Wanderers vs. Marieville.

The Wanderer Baseball Club are working hard in preparation for their game on July the 16th with the Marieville team, as the Marieville baseball team have been beaten only once this season. Both clubs are in excellent condition. The Wanderers will have three new players on their line-up for this game, and will be accompanied by a large number of their friends.

Morrisburg Beat Dry Island.

Morrisburg, Ont., July 13. — Undoubtedly the best game of baseball seen here in recent years was played on Saturday, between Dry Island and Morrisburg, resulting in a victory for the home team, the score being 7-6, taking 12 innings to decide.

The Dry Island nine is composed of players from Cleveland, headed by Mr. James Corrigan, a young millionaire of that city, and owner of Dry Island, opposite this town.

Mr. Corrigan's team played here in 1909 and also last year; on both occasions they were beaten handily. This season he came back strong, and was determined to win at any cost.

Mallen started to pitch for the locals, but was taken out of the box after three scores had been counted in the second. Sweet was substituted. In the third the visitors got two, and one in the fourth.

The Burghers got after Pitcher Hubbard in the sixth for a pair of runs, and in the seventh four. Steverding was now pitching for the millionaires.

Morrisburg lost a number of chances in the last three innings, having runners on bases in each inning, but by poor coaching and slow base running it was not until the 12th, with a man on third, that Dain, with his big black bat, did the needful with a stinging grounder through second.

It was a regular batting feast, the Clevelanders getting 14 hits and Morrisburg 13. The local pitchers struck out 18 men and the visiting twirlers only 4.

Score: R. H. E.
Dry Island.....0321000000000—6 14 6
Morrisburg.....0000024000001—7 13 4
Umpires—Townsend and Alexander.

The Ontario B.B. Club will play the Monarchs on Lafontaine Park on Saturday. A win for them will put them on the heels of the champions of 1909 and 1910. Ontario will have a strong line-up. The batteries will be Kane and Eva.

Mr. James Larissey, of 85 Barre st., has resigned as manager of the Lackawanna Baseball Club.

JUNIOR SOCCER MEN.

Will Try to Get Game With Australian Boys.

The regular weekly meeting of the Junior League, P.Q.F.A., was held last night at the Y.M.C.A. Building. There being only routine business, a very quiet session was the result. Rose and Thistle had two points deducted for playing an ineligible player.

A committee was formed to get in communication with the Junior Australian team, which intends to tour America, with a view to arranging a possible game with the Junior League of this city.

In future each club will only be allowed two visitors at each meeting.

London, July 13.—The annual cricket match between the Gentlemen of England and the players at Lord's Ground was finished yesterday, the Gentlemen winning by 130 runs.

JETTY MIXTURE

Nature as a Pipe-Filler Can't be Beaten

Man May Doctor Tobacco Mixtures —But of These Beware!

Why is the average pipe-tobacco doctored?

Why does most of it contain Licorice, Molasses, Sugar, Gum, etc.

The manufacturer will say "the smoker likes flavouring."

Perhaps true! But only because the average pipe-tobacco is so poor it needs flavouring.

No man could prefer an unclean, unnatural smoke to that of pure tobacco, properly cured and blended—and no man will, once he knows.

JETTY MIXTURE

Natural Tobacco—1 oz., Ten Cents

Here is a tobacco as sweet and pure as the day it came from the field—without artificial flavour or adulterant of any kind.

Thoroughly cured and mellowed, and skillfully blended, it gives a cool, sweet, clean smoke,—different from any tobacco you've ever tried.

One of the reasons for this is that it is a product of Carreras Limited—made under the same conditions as the famous Carreras brands in London, England.

FORMER JAPANESE CONSUL-GENERAL TO CANADA DEAD

Hon. Tatszgoro Nosse Had Brilliant Diplomatic Career in the Service of Native Land.

Ottawa, July 13.—News arrived in Ottawa yesterday of the death of Hon. T. Nosse, formerly Consul-General for Japan. Since Mr. Nosse returned to the Far East from Ottawa he had been acting as governor of the province of Zendra Nanda, in Korea, with a million and a half souls under his care.

Tatszgoro Nossi was born in Western Japan, in 1858, and after completing his education in his own language entered the Imperial University of Tokyo in 1875 for the study of English, taking the degree of Bachelor of Arts, following which he took a course at the Diplomatic College and was sent to Washington to study international law. There, in 1880, he entered the public service as an attache of the Japanese legation. He was later advanced in the service by appointments at New York and San Francisco.

Had Extensive Experience.

Recalled to Japan in 1885 to undergo examination for a Consulate, he was successively Government Commissioner of Police and Health at Yokohoma, special commissioner of water-works and harbor construction, and later in the Consular service at Chefoo, Corea.

In 1895 he was appointed Consul-General to Canada, with headquarters at Vancouver, which were afterwards removed to Ottawa. He was the author of several books on trade subjects and the Customs of the people among whom he lived.

Mr. Nossi rendered distinguished services to the Japanese army and navy, and in recognition thereof received the decoration of a Companion of the Order of the Sacred Mirror and was given a life pension. He received also the silver medal of the Imperial Red Cross Society of Japan for services to the field hospitals and ambulance corps.

In religion he was a Unitarian. He married in 1887 the Hon. Lady Kin Kusomotto, only daughter of Viscount M. Kusomotto. He retired from the Canadian post a few years ago.

CENSUS MAN FORGOT APARTMENT HOUSE AND 100 PEOPLE

Hampton Court Tenants Declare That They Did Not Receive a Visit from the Enumerator.

Yet another very serious omission from the census has to be recorded, involving the omission of, at a low estimate, 100 names of persons who should have been enumerated. They are the tenants of the Hampton Court Apartments at 355 Mountain street.

As day after day passed by, and no census enumerator appeared, the tenants began to ask their neighbors if they had received a visit. As in each case, a negative answer was returned, the janitor was spoken to, and it provoked question each family occupying apartments in the building, with the result that it was ascertained not a single family had been approached by anyone with regard to the census.

The janitor, William Topp, informed a Star reporter this morning, that there were 23 families occupying apartments in the Hampton Court building, and that, at a conservative estimate, each family would average at least three individuals, so that it is evident quite 100 persons have not been enumerated, in this building alone.

Fire on St. Helen's Island.

St. Helen's Island was visited by a bush fire which gave some of the guards and officials of the island a severe fight yesterday afternoon. The bonfires of Tuesday night for the reception of Sir Wilfrid Laurier set fire to the dry grass on the side of the island facing Montreal. George St. Pierre worked for hours to keep fire from the old military building.

Fire made its way towards the Montreal Swimming Club. Mr. P. Rousseau and Mr. Harry Stuart of the club formed a bucket brigade and quenched it.

Sues Montreal Street Railway.

Paper Mills AND Paper Limits For Sale

The undersigned offer for sale that splendid property known as "The St. Raymond Paper Mills" situated at St. Raymond, P.Q.

In view of the certain and continuous rise in the price of printing paper as the forest resources become exhausted, this presents a favourable opportunity to make a safe and remunerative investment.

There is every indication that news print will in the near future sell at a minimum of three cents per pound. This admitted fact renders this property singularly attractive. It is now on a good paying basis, and in full running order.

Ladies delight in these perfect fitting undergarments. They are knitted all in one piece—not cut to fit—and have no clumsy seams to irritate the skin. The special weave at throat and around the waist (as illustrated) shows how the Knit-to-fit Suits prevent that uncomfortable "bunching." Silk hand crochet around neck and down the front, cuffs and ankles.

All sizes—all weights—in all fabrics from silk to cotton. Write for illustrated catalogue if your dealer does not handle Knit-to-fit.

Senator Gallinger's Son Killed.

Portsmouth, N. H., July 13.—Dr. Ralph E. Gallinger, of Concord, son of U. S. Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, was killed in an automobile accident last midnight. Dr. Gallinger and A. E. Davis, a Concord insurance superintendent, were the occupants of the machine. The car struck a sandy stretch of roadway and turned turtle. Dr. Gallinger was pinned beneath the automobile and instantly killed. Davis was thrown clear, and although severely injured his condition is not critical.

German Petroleum Monopoly.

Berlin, July 13.—The Tageblatt says the Government will introduce a bill in the next Reichstag creating an imperial monopoly in petroleum. It is alleged that the reason for this action is that the incessant cutting of prices by the Standard Oil Trust threatens to cause Austrian refiners to withdraw from the German market, which would give the American combination a monopoly. It is feared that prices in German consumers would then be raised.

Bring up the little ones to chew "the beneficial confection."

They all want to chew this delicious gum. Let them chew all they want. It's fine for young teeth and fine for older teeth. It prevents trouble in well stomachs and drives away trouble in un-well stomachs.

It's a very dainty tidbit at a very little price. The more of it you chew, the better it is for you.

ANGLO-JAPANESE ALLIANCE TO BE MODIFIED NOW

London Times Says This Was Thoroughly Discussed at the Imperial Conference.

London, July 13.—The Times intimates that the question of the Anglo-Japanese alliance, in order to bring it into harmony with the proposed Anglo-American arbitration treaty, was fully discussed at the Imperial Conference. Therefore any new arrangement made with Japan will be made with new authority and new moral force arising through the previous assent of all the self-governing dominions.

Hence, the Times considers that one of the most important results of the Imperial Conference has still to be announced.

The Times editorially dwells upon the importance of the Tokio despatches announcing a revision of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. It says that it seems highly improbable that if the two governments arrived at the agreement described in these despatches, they have not also agreed to revise other articles of the treaty, with a view to its prolongation.

There was a free interchange of views upon these high matters at the Imperial Conference, says the Times, and it is clear, therefore, that the Dominion Ministers were satisfied that this policy is the best that could be devised in the lasting interests of the Empire as a whole and of each of its constituent units.

"If the first outcome of the new principle of consulting the Dominions on foreign policy, is a modification of the Japanese alliance on terms which will facilitate the conclusion of an arbitration treaty with the United States," concludes the Times, "it will be highly encouraging."

SOUTH WATERBORO IN RUINS

Maine Town Devastated by Flames —Goodwin's Mills Menaced.

Biddeford, Me., July 13.—Fire practically wiped out the village of South Waterloo late yesterday. The hotel, railroad station, all of the stores in the village and more than two score dwelling houses, are in ruins, and the fire, which has spread to the woods, is still raging. Goodwins Mills, a village a few miles from South Waterboro was in the direct path of the flames. The principal industry of the town, the saw mill of C. W. Smith and Sons, employing seventy-five men, was destroyed.

A hurried estimate of the loss on the buildings destroyed in South Waterboro, with their contents, places the figure at upwards of $100,000, while the timber loss already sustained is many thousands more.

John Agnew, of Owen Sound, fell down stairs in a Wiarton hotel last night and broke his neck. He will probably die.

REALTY REVIEW

VOL. I. MONTREAL, THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1911. No. 172

Getting Down to Business

The last heat wave certainly put a lot of people up in the air. Others it put down and out. Those who were merely up in the air must now get down to the routine of business.

Everybody would much rather go fishing, of course, at this season of the year, but all kinds of necessities and responsibilities require their services. We would not doubt the Premiier dreads the coming conflict on reciprocity, but even the chief executive must get down to brass tacks once in a while. These may sound like a bunch of platitudes, but they have the merit of being true. Real estate facts are also platitudes, and are very interesting from a financial view point.

Public notice is hereby given by the undersigned secretary-treasurer, that at a special session of the Council of the Town of Outremont, held at the ordinary place of meetings of said Council, in said town, on the seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, By-law No. ninety-six (96) was duly passed and adopted in conformity to law.

That the objects of said by-law are to authorize the town to effect a loan and make a bond issue of one hundred and seventy-five thousand dollars ($175,000) to procure parks and playgrounds for children, and to erect underground conduits for telegraph, telephone, electric and other wires, and to transfer such wires in said conduits.

That the loan actually provided for shall be payable in forty-two (42) years and shall bear interest at the rate of four and one-half (4½) p.c. per annum, payable half-yearly, and shall be refunded by means of annual tax of nine thousand six hundred and twenty-five dollars ($9,625) to be levied annually during the existence of said loan, in order to pay interest and sinking fund on the same.

Judge Constantineau Charges Vankleek Hill Newspaper Man With Libelling Him.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., July 13.—Mr. Albert Constantineau, Judge of the United Counties of Prescott and Russell, has issued an indictment against Mr. H. C. Jones, editor of the Review, Vankleek Hill, Ont., charging him with criminal libel.

The Review published some pointed comments on the speech of Judge Constantineau, delivered at the St. Jean Baptiste Celebration, in Montreal, recently, in which he is alleged to have said he was living in the Province of Ontario in peace, but that it was a species of armed peace.

The case is called for to-day at eleven o'clock before Magistrate Gauthier, of L'Orignal. An adjournment will likely be made to allow the Editor to prepare his defence.

New York, July 13.—Mr. John Wanamaker, merchant and former Postmaster-General of the United States, has returned from the Coronation on the Oceanic. Mr. Wanamaker, who believes in the future of Canada, met many Canadians while abroad. He also was presented to the Duke of Connaught, who will soon become the Governor-General of Canada.

"Canada is a great country," he said. "It is a fine field for Americans. The tide is already turning there from the south and from the west.

"There is need no longer to tell young men to go west. They can go north and do well. Canada is a good field for young men."

FEDERAL FIRE INQUIRY BEGINS

Conservation Commission Conducting An Investigation Into Other Than Forest Fire.

Ottawa, July 13.—Apropos of the appalling number of recent fires, the Dominion Commission of Conservation is conducting an investigation into fires, other than forest ones, in every city and town of Canada.

When its work is completed it will make important recommendations to the Government in regard to the fireproof construction of buildings and proper fire-fighting appliances in use in municipalities.

WILL ORGANIZE SCHEME OF RELIEF FROM MONTREAL

Timmins Mining Interests Call Meeting in City to Aid the Destitute of Porcupine.

Mr. Henry Timmins, of the Timmins mining interests of Porcupine, who was in the city to-day, expressed himself as overwhelmed by the news from the mining district.

"The tremendous loss of property" he said, "is nothing compared to the lives that were lost; the property can easily be replaced. I cannot understand how those people should have gone down the shafts for safety, when they could get any place else. It meant certain death for them. The first thing we did when our fire occurred was to get the men from underground and to see that they were all out.'"

Mr. Timmins is calling a meeting of his associates in Montreal this afternoon to decide upon immediate steps for the relief of the destitute. "At present," he said, "I cannot tell what is most needed in the fire-swept district, but I have telephoned to Toronto for more precise news. I have no doubt the Ontario government will rush supplies to the scene without delay. Something in the nature of general relief will have to be afforded, however, and our company will do all that it can in that direction. Mr. MacMartin, of our firm, is on his way to Montreal now, and he along with my brother and myself will find what can be done from Montreal.

"Although the property loss was terrible, I do not think it will have much effect on mining development. Most of the companies have fair treasuries and I think their mining machinery can easily be replaced. I have just heard that our power plant is safe. That is a good thing not only for ourselves, but for the whole camp."

Regarding any possible means of preventing such a fire, Mr. Timmins said: "You cannot possibly stop a fire like that. I see that it was about three miles wide and the force must have been terrific. Everything is so dry up there, and with the gale blowing at the time, it would have not only been useless, but lives would have been thrown away trying to stop it.

"There is no use denying that it will be a set-back to the camp; everything was looking so good there lately, and new discoveries were being made every day which more than confirmed the first news of the value of the district."

In sending relief, Mr. Timmins said it would be important to ascertain how the railway was affected. He had heard nothing definite on this point, but he feared that several of the bridges might have been destroyed.

E. A. Bough Goes With Relief.

When the news of the fire at Porcupine reached the city, Mr. E. L. Bough, of E. L. Bough and Company, 157 St. James street at once left for Porcupine, on behalf of the West Dome Mining Company, with instructions from the directors to spare no expense in doing all that can be done for any employee of the company who may still survive or for those connected with them.

Apart from the loss of property, valued at $70,000, the West Dome Mine has lost heavily in life, for out of 84 employees, there are only three who have been accounted for alive.

The dead include Angus Burt, assayer of the mine, and his wife, R. A. Weiss, chief engineer, Mrs. Weiss and their three-year-old daughter. The above and 25 other employees of the West Dome were found in a timbered shaft. Mrs. Augus it is evident from marks on her body, must have been killed by the fall of burning timber, and the others who had taken refuge in the shaft, were either killed by an explosion of some dynamite or were asphyxiated by the fumes.

The bodies cannot yet be removed owing to the poisonous gases that have resulted from the dynamite explosion.

With regard to the late chief engineer R. A. Weiss, Messrs. Bough will be grateful if any relatives will communicate with the firm.

CHILDREN BURNED BY SUN'S HOT RAYS

Sent to the Country for Relief are Scorched by the Sun.

Two children, aged six and seven years, are now recovering from severe sun scorchings they sustained while out in the country under the patronage of a charitable institution of this city. The children were placed in the home by their widowed mother, Mrs. Margaret McLean, 126 Ontario street East, for whose keep she paid $5 each in advance. As is customary with this particular institution, the children, numbering nearly one hundred, were sent to the mountains. One of the rules of the home is that the children do not wear shoes nor stockings nor hats. With nothing to protect them, the two children, who are not accustomed to the open country life, had their feet burned, as well as the neck and shoulders, and the six-year-old child, a girl, had her ears severely scorched. Both the children have acted queerly since being taken away from the home. The little girl especially is suffering greatly, and has become very nervous. The case has been reported to Mr. O. H. Skroeder, of the Society for the Protection of Women and Children, and an investigation is to be made.

FIRE NEAR RIFLE RANGE.

No Water, So City Men are Helpless.

Out of the twelve alarms that the firemen of the different districts had to respond to within the past 24 hours, three were for outside the city. Help was asked from Calumet, where the Riordon saw mills were destroyed, to which 15 men with a hose waggon and engine were despatched from No. 12 station. The other two out-of-town calls were for St. Jerome and Pointe aux Trembles.

At the latter place the firemen were helpless. Superintendent R. W. Allen, of the Rifle Ranges, had seen the flames burning the dry grass and underbrush for the past eight days, and when the fire came within a hundred feet of the targets, he thought it advisable to call the brigade. A detachment under Chief Tremblay went out yesterday, but it was impossible to get a hose near the fire, as there was no water in the vicinity. The firemen returned to the city without doing anything. A bucket brigade was formed of neighbors, and they drew water from a quarry, by which means they succeeded in subduing the flames.

Mr. Allen stated he feared the stop butt was endangered, which is 600 feet in length, 70 feet high, and built largely of wood, with an estimated value of $60,000.

MR. ROBERT MEIGHEN DIES AFTER ILLNESS OF A SINGLE NIGHT

this subject at the very meeting above referred to, and his remarks on that occasion so well define the position he took when the recent pact was announced that they may be quoted. He said (advocating, as he then was, Imperial preference.)

"It is well established that there are few, from the schoolboy up to the statesman, who does not realize the fact that the United States is not the natural market for the surplus products of Canada, but that on the contrary, the Americans are our natural competitors. They produce products similar to ours. They produce them in larger quantities than they require for home consumption. They are exporters of their surplus the same as we are. They are our aggressive competitors in every market of the world. I am sorry to say that we now do a portion of our business by the side door, or the back door. We hand it over to American transportation companies. We allow our products to be exported to foreign countries by Americans, and we have strong reasons to believe that our Canadian products are often, when so exported, baptised by the name of American."

A Sterling Character.

"I knew Mr. Meighen intimately for the greater part of the last thirty years," said Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, who was greatly shocked to learn of the death of the president of the Lake of the Woods.

"He was a sterling character; an able, hard-working business man; a man of large purpose; and one who took a large and patriotic interest in his country. Few deaths have occurred recently which have expressed so great a loss to the community. Mr. Meighen was a member of the Board of Directors of the C. P. R., and showed his characteristic interest in the affairs of the company. His death is a great loss."

Ill Afford Loss.

Sir Edward Clouston said that the late Mr. Meighen was a man of strong convictions, adding: "We can ill afford his loss."

Lieut.-Colonel Burland, President of the Board of Trade learned with profound regret of the sudden passing away of his kindly old friend, Mr. Meighen.

"Mr. Meighen was one of the strong men of the older generation. He was a prominent and valuable member of the Board of Trade. In fact, no meeting of the Board of Trade seemed complete without his pronouncement on the subject under discussion, which was always received with marked attention.

"Mr. Meighen was an ardent Imperialist, and his support of any patriotic movement could always be counted on. He believed in Canada for the Canadians, within the Empire. His death is a great loss to the Board."

His Views Were Firm.

"Mr. Meighen was a strong, aggressive man," said Mr. C. R. Hosmer. "He held his views with great firmness. Nobody ever was long in doubt as to the principles and convictions of Mr. Meighen. He spoke out unequivocally. You might not agree with him always; but you knew where to find him. He was also a great Imperialist, and always insisted upon British connection. He was a man of power as a business man, while he gave attention and thought to matters which affected the Empire as a whole."

Splendid Business Man.

"The death of Mr. Meighen is a great loss," said Mr. Robert Bickerdike, M.P.

"He was a splendid business man—far-seeing, aggressive, full of fight and courage. He was a true Britisher, loving the flag, and all the inspiring things for which the flag stood. He was among the first to preach preferential trade within the Empire—a cult which was to lead sequentially to free trade within the bounds of the British Empire.

"This he advocated with great strength, courage and persistency, in season and out of season.

"Mr. Meighen was opposed to mergers and the watered stock of great corporations. It is hard to realize that he is dead, for only two days ago he urged me to bring in a bill in Parliament making watered stock an indictable offence."

He Loved His Flag.

Mr. Robert Reford said that a man like the late Mr. Meighen needed no encomium. His life is known to all. He was a sterling man, strong and able, a great Imperialist, who loved the flag and was willing to suffer, if need be, for the maintenance of British connection. He will be much missed

Advice Always Weighty.

Mr. Farquhar Robertson, ex-president of the Board of Trade, said it was an awful shock to learn of the death of Mr. Meighen. "He was one of our strongest members of the Board of Trade. His advice was always weighty and to the point. He took a great interest in all the questions which we discussed, and threw himself into any matter or project with an almost boyish enthusiasm. He was the first to advocate free trade within the Empire—that is, locally. He was criticized, of course, and called impractical; but he stuck to his guns, never taking back water. He was an ardent Imperialist, in the broad and comprehensive sense. He loved to think of the Empire as a great whole. To realize this he worked hard, and who shall say how potent was his influence in the moulding of opinion? Mr. Meighen will be much missed, as a business man, as a man of action and as a sterling patriot, who had no patience with those who would loosen the tie that binds us to the Mother Country. The community is much poorer to-day for the death of Mr. Meighen."

Rival Was Friend.

Mr. Shirley Ogilvie, president of the Ogilvie Milling Company, stated that, while his company had long been a rival of the one presided over by Mr. Meighen, he had known the latter intimately for years, and the news of his death came to him this morning as a great shock.

"Mr. Meighen was a man of wonderful energy and ability," said Mr. Ogilvie, "and his loss will be a severe blow to the entire business world of the Dominion. He was a man who held strong opinions on issues great and small, and he never lacked the courage of expressing his views with his characteristic energy. He was a shrewd, far-seeing man who carried through all his undertakings in his own peculiar way and the milling world of Canada, in particular, will miss him exceedingly.

"Personally, I had a very high regard for him and appreciated his friendship very much. His integrity was absolute in every thing he was connected with, and in his death I feel that I have lost a friend whose good will I valued very highly."

An Honorable Man.

Hon Robert Mackay, who was associated with Mr. Meighen on the boards of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the Ban kof Montreal, and the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, and other enterprises in the city, said that he regarded the late gentlemen as one of the most honorable men he had ever met.

"We did not always see eye to eye, especially in politics," said the Senator, "but that fact never interfered with our friendship, which was of many years standing, and I feel his loss very keenly. In the several concerns in which I was interested with him, he was generally admitted to be a man of great business acumen and one whose views, always strongly expressed, were worth hearing at all times and in all contingencies. His connection with the milling industry of the Dominion was a long and highly creditable one and he will be much missed there. On great issues, as well as less important ones he was far-seeing and shrewd and was the type of man the community cannot well afford to be without."

The Late Mr. Meighen's Career

The late Mr. Robert Meighen was born at Dungiven, near Londonderry, Ireland, on April 18, 1839, so that he was seventy years of age. His father died when he was very young, and the family came to Canada, settling at Perth, Ont., where the children were educated. It was there the Meighen boys stablished themselves in business as wholesale and retail general merchants. The firm of Arthur Meighen and Bros. became widely known for its probity and enterprise, in fact, one of the largest doing business in the old Bathurst District.

In 1879 greater things were looming up for Mr. Robert Meighen, and he removed to Montreal, where he became associated in business with Sir George Stephen, now Lord Mount Stephen, and whom he afterwards succeeded as president of the New Brunswick Railway Company, which now forms part of the Canadian Pacific Eastern lines. This position Mr. Meighen held at the time of his death.

Had Gift of Common Sense.

Sir George Stephen, himself a master mind, saw in his brother-in-law that rarest of gifts, common sense, coupled with sound judgment, poise, thrift and unparalleled honesty of purpose. It was a natural sequence that their efforts should centre in the Canadian Northwest. Mr. Meighen had previously invested in the Portage Milling Company, at Portage La Prairie. There, was formed the nucleus of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co., which to-day is shipping flour to the four corners of the globe. The immense growth of this company since its inception has been due in no small degree to the foresight and judgment exercised by Mr. Meighen, not only in his own personal efforts, but in securing heads of departments capable of carrying on this extensive busiess with marked success. It is about twenty years since he was chosen president of the company.

A Strong Personality.

Mr. Meighen was a man of strong personality. His methods were his own. He was known for his peculiarities from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and, in fact, in many parts of the Old World.

In Montreal his familiar presence "on 'Change" was looked for every day. When exciting and critical corners turned up in the grain and flour markets, the brokers stood around and frequently exclaimed, "Where is Meighen? Let's hear what he has got to say."

The cause for such remarks were twofold. First, Mr. Meighen was keen and thoroughly posted on the probabilities of the market. He made it his business to be well informed always, and his anticipations of changes were based upon a judgment ripened in the severe school of hard earned experience. Second, he had a faculty of seeing through any scheme like a searchlight, and the slightest attempt at "rigging" the market would be scented by him in a trice. The grain brokers knew well that they need never try to "put up a job" on Mr. Meighen. Sometimes his fondness for some particular policy, political or commercial, upon which he had very definite opinions, caused him to be argumentative. It was usually the custom for those who knew him to jokingly gloss over any excited words with the remark, "You have studied that subject too much for me, Mr. Meighen." These arguments sometimes hinged on Mr. Chamberlain's fiscal policy, sometimes on politics, sometimes on grain prices. Whatever it may have been, Mr. Meighen was usually very positive about his information, and the man who measured swords with him had to be sure of his facts or he was floored in the first round.

Imperial Preference.

It is now many years since Mr. Meighen advocated the policy of Imperial Preference of Trade. His confident belief in it had been instrumental in educating Canadians in many parts upon this question. His clear-cut, original expressions, his quick decisions in business, and with all pleasant aggressiveness at all times, made him a business man easy to remember. He had stamped his character on the extensive business of which he was the head, and his individuality ran through all the important ramifications.

His original expressions were notable; for instance, he is reported to have said when asked about purity in politics: "Don't paint the pump if you want clear water; clean out the well."

He wasc a lover of reading and his model of a newspaper was thoroughly ideal. He was intimate with one or two newspaper writers in Montreal, and they were favored with his keen judgment on many difficult questions. His magnificent library was never idle and he believed that books are valuable only as they corroborate what you know, reading being self-revelation.

Was Lover of Art.

His private office was adorned with handsome oil paintings. Glancing at the names of the artists one is sure to find those of some clever local workers in whom Mr. Meighen believed, and whom he wished to help, so he bought the pictures, even though his palatial home at 140 Drummond street, Montreal is massed with masterpieces of art from the Old and New World. His home was his hobby and those who were his guests were fortunate, indeed.

Mr. Meighen's Family.

The late Mr. Meighen's son is in business in Montreal. Lieutenant-Colonel Meighen, formerly commanded one battalion of the 5th Royal Scots, and he is also one of the best known polo players in the East. Mr. Meighen's daughter is the wife of Mr. R. W. Reford, son of Mr. Robert Reford, the head of Reford Shipping Co., of Montreal.

A brother-in-law and former partner of Mr. Robert Meighen is Lord Mount-Stephen, one of the founders of the Canadian Pacific Railway.

His Commercial Life.

Mr. Meighen always took a lively interest in the Board of Trade and the industrial progress of this city, as well as of the Dominion at large.

The great success of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company was largely due to his knowledge of grain conditions and his great confidence in the Canadian West. He was for many years a leading member of the Montreal Board of Trade and Corn Exchange, where from time to time he was an eloquent exponent of the Imperial preference idea, advocating such a policy even before it was adopted by Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

The late Mr. Meighen was not only president and general manager of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the world, but he was a director of the C.P.R., a position to which he was appointed in June, 1908, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Sir Robert Reid. He was also director of the Bank of Toronto and other financial and industrial companies.

He was one of the trustees of the St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and member of Mount Royal, St. James', Montreal, and the Canadian Clubs.

Favored Competition in Foodstuffs.

The contest some years ago in Toronto and throughout Ontario over flour rates between the Lake of the Woods Milling Company and the Ogilvie Flour Mills Company, led to repeated stories that the trouble would end with the combination of these two big concerns. But they were set at rest by Mr. Meighen's own declaration that "there is not much likelihood of any merger as long as I live."

It was solely as a matter of principle that Mr. Meighen would not agree to any such proposal.

"I hold," he declared on one occasion, "that there should not be any monopoly in a line that would affect the price of bread to the entire community; but that, on the contrary, there should always be at least reasonable competition.

"I am not going to make any money at the expense of the people of the country through selling my holdings in order to effect a merger of these two milling industries."

The Farmer Master of the Dominion.

The late Mr. Meighen always showed special concern about the agricultural interests of the country and he occupied a unique position of influence and authority among that body of farmers who are the owners and users of the agricultural lands in the West.

"The farmer is the man in Canada to-day," he said on one occasion. "He is the real master of the Dominion. He rules now, and he will rule for a generation yet unborn. It must be so. The great future of Canada is being made at the present time in the West. In the West is the centre of world-attraction, and it is on those fertile prairies that there must arise that great nation the prophets see, and the wise men are planning to receive. For Canada holds two-thirds of the best wheat-producing belt of the North American Continent—I don't use the word America, for we have the largest part of this Continent. And because of that fact, that great food fact, the place of Canada in the Empire is vital and strategical in its effect upon the future of the Empire, if it is to remain self-sustaining in its food supply.

Ties of Commerce Political.

"Every business man knows this, that the ties of commerce are political, and therefore the political relations of the Dominion with the Mother Country are of prime importance to the commerce of the two nations. The crucial point in connection with our trade relations with the Mother Country is that every nerve should be strained to maintain and keep the trade under the Flag. If the trade of Western Canada is directed south, and Canada is directed south, and handled by the United States middlemen, and our products shipped from the United States, placing our farmers in the hands of United States middlemen, I do not care to commit myself on paper to what may be the ultimate results.

"The ideal of Canada is not outside the Empire, but within it. And no other ideal has ever been thought of by the Canadian people. Our future is under the Union Jack, for Canada is British all through, from the Atlantic to the Pacific; British in its power to grow and in its power to last, to progress and to prosper."

CUOCCOLO AND ALFANO RIVALS IN THE CAMORRA

Captain Fabroni Asserted Murder of Former Due to Contest for Supreme Power.

Viterbo, July 13.—During the continuation of his examination to-day Capt. Fabroni, of the Neapolitan Carabineers, expressed indignation over the accusations that the Carabineers had manufacturer evidence against the Camorrists.

The witness described the ring that the murdered Gennaro Cuoccolo had worn and said that the one exhibited in court and alleged to have been recovered from the Camorrists appeared to be the same that Cuoccolo had possessed.

In his evidence, yesterday, Capt Fabroni said when the Camorra was at the zenith of its power, two factions were fighting secretly, but ferociously, for control of the criminal body.

Enrico Alfano, because of recent electoral successes was in the ascendancy, and the influence of Genaro Cuoccolo who had been the king receiver of stolen goods, was waning. Alfano wished to establish an undisputed empire with Rapi, Vitozzi and Ferdenando di Matteo as his lieutenants. The murder of Cuoccolo was necessary as he interfered with the gains of the others who were in a hurry to make a fortune. Alfano trusted in his impunity from arrest.

GRAPHIC STORY OF THE DISASTER TOLD BY NEWSPAPER MAN WHO ESCAPED FROM SOUTH PORCUPINE

District Completely Swept by Flames in Four Hours—Streets Strewn with Dead Bodies—Fleeing Refugees Overtaken by Fire or Smothered by Clouds of Smoke—South Porcupine Destroyed in Twenty Minutes — Heartrending Scenes as Panic-Stricken People Fought for Places in the Boats—Many Well-Known Miners Were Killed—Seeking Refuge in Shaft Stored With Dynamite.

Toronto, Ont., July 13.—One of the earliest as well as one of the most graphic descriptions of the Porcupine disaster is given by Edward S. Little a newspaper man who was in South Porcupine when the fire broke out, and who, with extreme difficulty, made his way out, and reached Cobalt, from which place his story was telegraphed to Toronto. He says:

In four short hours, commencing at 12.30 Tuesday afternoon the fire raged from the Standard mines right through to the shores of Porcupine Lake, eating up South Porcupine, Pottsville and part of Golden City, as well as many small buildings along the lake front.

While part of the loss of life occurred near Porcupine Lake, the greatest havoc will be around the main mines, notably West Dome and Big Dome. Here the entrapped miners, cut off by the flames, took to the shafts, where they perished.

At Preston, East Dome safety was sought in an untimbered shaft, and there was no loss of life.

The streets of South Porcupine are strewn with dead human beings, horses, dogs and cattle, while along the mine roads charred corpses lie at intervas. The names and number of dead can be but roughly estimated, but a large number of prospectors in the bush must have perished in the seething furnace of flames, driven by a sixty-mile gale.

It is known, however, that of the staff of 300 at the Dome but a few were saved, while at the West Dome but three out of 84 employees are now known to be alive. Along the highway between West Dome and South Porcupine, over a comparatively open section, there the six charred bodies.

In the ruins of the town of South Porcupine there lie the bodies of William Gohr and his clerk, Mac. Smith Captain George Dubar and Tom Geddes.

PEOPLE WERE SLOW TO APPRECIATE DANGER

Early Tuesday morning dense clouds of smoke could be seen in the southwest, but the fire was apparently remote. A small fire also broke out in Lakeview, Porcupine townsite, but this excited little notice because of the frequency of bush fires. As noon aproached, thick clouds of smoke reached the zenith, marking the approach of the fire and soon the sun was obstured. At 2.30 the fire had covered an area of 25 miles in length, and over two miles in width and had reached the base line of Tisdale mines in Delora township; Philadelphia, in Shaw township; and the Eldorado and United in Southern Whitney.

At 1.15 p.m. fi the seriousness of the situation was realizeb in South Porcupine. The fire call was sounded on the Dome Mine whistle, with repeated blasts from other whistles. By this time the sky was black with smoke and residents began to pack valuables and light baggage for a hurried departure. Soon the flames had reached th Foley & O'Brien mine, having enveloped the Preston, East Dome, the Dome, West Dome, North Dome and what remained of the Dome Extension after last Sunday's fire.

In half an hour the outlying shacks had been reached. This was the beginning of the end. It became apparent at once thhat the town and possibly all the inhabitants were doomed, for the width of the fire was sufficient for it to sweep over the entire town of South Porcupine and around both sides of Porcupin Lake. The fire reached the frame buildings of the town with a roar heard for miles.

TOWN DESTROYED IN TWENTY MINUTES' TIME.

In twenty minutes South Porcupine was completely in flames and in three hours there were but corpses and smouldering embers where the most flourishing town of the camp had stood.

Men, women, and children crowded to the water front. Launches and canoes, scows and boats were pressede into commission and the women and children were first packed into the boats and sent to Pottsville and Golden City, both safe at thax time.

Panic and chaos prevailed. Men fought with each other for their families, and Police Officer Murray, with Jack Gardner, had to stand off the panic-stricken foreigners, who rushed for each boat as it came in. Men were hurled into the water and many rushed in as the only place of safely Thirty launches and as many canoes soon had the women landed in safety on the other side of the lake.

REFUSED TO LEAVE WITHOUT HER HUSBAND.

There was one exception, and that the most pitiful of all. Mrs. William Gohr, with her baby in her arms, refused to leave the town until she had news of her husband. Mr. Gohr, like the others who perished in town, had gone back in an effort to save some valuables, and with his clerk was penned in the building. For over two hours Mrs. Gohr stood in the water of the lake, a hundred feet from shore, calling to her husband and refusing to leave until he was found. Even after all had deserted the town, and the fire had died out, she remained in a tent on the shore awaiting recovery of her husband's body.

To add to the terror of the situation scores of horses, cattle and dogs ran wild through the town. Their disemboweled and scorched bodies now line the streets with the bodies of dead men.

MANY ACTS OF HEROISM PERFORMED.

Acts of heroism were too numerous to mention in detail, while the horrors of the holacaust are too gruesome for print. One man said after the fire:

"The man who could go through this, could travel through hell with a smile o nhis face."

One man was led through the town with both eyes burned out, and moaning because his partner had perished; another with his face and arms a mass of blisters, an dstill another had his abdomen burst open by burns. Harry Roche, a mining engineer, and A. S. Shields, representatives of the J. B. O'Brien Mines, beat their way back through town when the flames were at their height and brought out an unknown man who was so seriously burned that a portion of his hand fell off when he was picked up.

SOME OF THOSE WHO LOST THEIR LIVES.

Little will ever be known of the experiences of some of the prospectors in the bushes, as only the dead remain, but a few have alerady come to light. At United Porcupine, where lived the three Flynn brothers, never before separted ,two are yet alive, but one remains behind ,a charred mass. At this property there was no shelter from flames, and the men sought refuge on an outcropping of rock. There Andy Yuyil, the foreman, perished, with Frank Flynn, and Joseph Fletcher, while another named Dwyer, a Colorado miner, is missing. J. T. Flynn and Joseph Flynn watched their brother burn to death, the former receiving serious burns on arms and face. With them was Gilbert Gibbs, whose face was burned beyond recognition, and whose arms and body were scorched. Flames came on them with such rapidity that even blankets and towels to case about them could not be obtained, and yet these hardy men survived the furnace, and after the fire had passed, made their way over five miles into Porcupine and are now on their way to their homes in Bracebridge.

At the Philadelphia, when it became evident that the mine must go, Manager Ashmore, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Shovel and others retreated towards town. With the party was C. E. Adams ,a resident of Philadelphia, who was at the property in the capacity of bookkeeper. Adams was in poor health and died in the arms of Manager Ashmore, of heart failure.

WENT INTO SHAFT STORED WITH DYNAMITE

The men from the Eldorado all escaped. What occurred at the West Dome, the centre of the most terrible part of the catastrophe, will probably never be known, but so old and experienced a miner as Robert A. Weiss would probably never have led his associates into a timbered shaft in time of fire unless all other means of escape were cut off. There are in the West Dome shaft 27 bodies, including that of Weiss. It is known that 100 pounds of dynamite were in the bucket at the mouth of the shaft. Of the 84 employes of the West Dome only three are known to be alive.

Employes of the Preston East Dome, headed by Captain Jack Wilson, visited the West Dome property as soon as possible, and, dropping chains of ladders entered the shaft. The body of Mrs. Burt, wife of Angus Burt, the assayer, was found hanging half way up the ladder, where while trying to escape, she was hit by a falling, burning timber, the marks of which remain on her body. The smoke and the gas from the exploded dynamite were so stifling that no other bodies could be removed. The escape of those at the Dome and Preston East Dome, which were in the centre of the fire zone, is little short of miraculous.

THIRTY FOREIGNERS PERISH AT THE DOME MINE.

At Preston East, Dome, not a man was lost. Some entered an untimbered shaft, taking with them food and buckets, and passed up water to the others Captain Wilson and some of the employes lay in a creek and threw water over themselves, and even over the rabbits driven from the bush by the fire, which sought refuge by snuggling up against the men. Captain Wilson's eyes were burned, but no serious injuries were sustained.

At the Dome, it is known that 30 foreign laborers perished in a shaft where they sought safety. Other bodies are lying about the property, and of the force of three hundred it is doubtful if half remain alive.

The escape of Manager Meek and his wife and children, with Mrs. Meek's mother, was providential. Their last stand was behind a row of water barrels, which proved an effective barrier to the flames and preserved their lives, and even that of their cow. Henry Hanson, who is in charge of the mill construction, with a few others, kept behind the heavy rock foundation of the mill and survived. Still others stood in the big reservoir of water on the property and escaped with sore eyes. Men stationed at the pumps on the lake, although in a place of safety, became panic-stricken made for the bush and there perished.

THE VIPOND PROPERTY A TOTAL LOSS.

The Vipond was a total loss, but all the men escaped to the Hollinger, which was just outside the fire zone. The Digby Veteran, American gold fields and others may have lost men. No word has been received from the Success, where there are 54 men.

The McIntyre and the mines around Pearl Lake, including Bewick Moreing & Company escaped without loss of life or property but the town of Pearl Lake was again visited by fire. The Rea had a small fire, but nothing serious resulted.

The Scottish Ontario properties in that section were also the north of the fire. In the meantime the fire swept through both sides of Porcupine Lake and was burning at the Foley O'Brien. At the latter the employees, with Mr. Rickard and Superintendent Motz, sought shelter in a root house, making their way to the town after the buildings there had been wiped out.

On the Foley O'Brien property stood the Canadian Explosives dynamite magazine, containing 12 tons of dynamite. This burned for some time before it exploded. At the time of the explosion Ernest and Harry Holland, Captain Munn and several others were only three hundred yards away. They were hurled from their feet by the concussion, but received only bruises.

TWELVE TONS OF DYNAMITE EXPLODED.

On a siding in Lakeview Porcupine, a car of dynamite exploded, breaking every pane of glass in Golden City

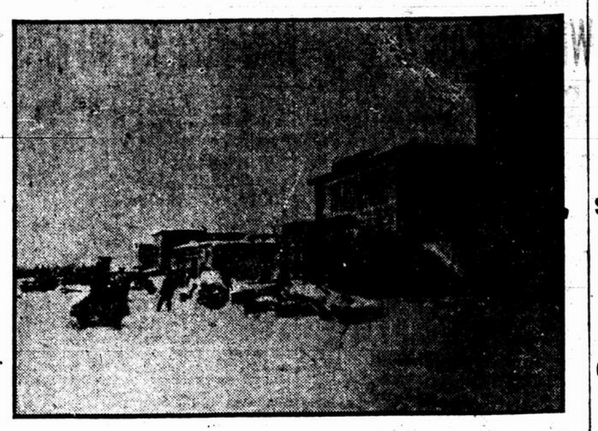

Men and women standing in the water at South Porcupine were thrown from their feet, and flying debris was scattered everywhere

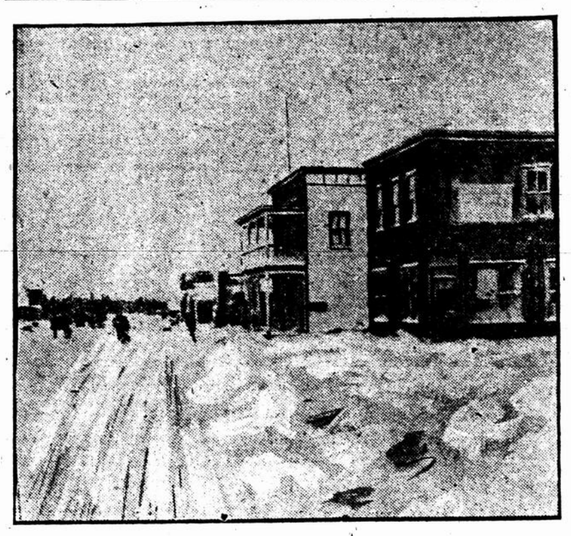

A piece of iron fell at the dock, shattering the arm of an unknown man about to board a canoe. He was picked up and taken across the lake and his arm later amputated. Doctors worked heroically, but the fire had destroyed drug stores and other necessaries for relief. There remained nothing but to administer stimulants or sedatives.

At eleven o'clock Tuesday night several doctors visited the Dome and other mines to render assistance. The flames crept around Porcupine Lake to Pottsville and there destroyed all the buildings except two Italian boarding houses, into which Constable Percy gathered all the Italians with the warning that any man stirring our would be put out.

The fire in Golden City consumed about one-third of the town, entering from north and veering around to the Murphy house, where men at the point of guns were forced out to fight the flames. The best residences of the town were destroyed and several churches and other buildings also. Food was soon exhausted, and this morning there remained nothing to eat except a small supply of crackers, which must suffice until relief trains are sent in. These trains are already sent for. Glen Foster equipped a train of doctors, nurses and supplies, as well as a hundred coffins for the camp and this should arrive at midnight.

NEWFOUNDLANDER FOUND LOST FAMILY

New York, July 13.—Separated for twenty-one years from his wife and boy, both of whom he had long mourned as dead, victims of a fire which destroyed a great part of St. John's, Newfoundland, in 1890, James S. Kenefick was yesterday united to his lost ones at Jersey City.

For ten years, since he learned that his wife and child did not perish in the St. John's fire, Kenefick had searched for them, following clues from Canada to Brazil, but always in vain, until by chance he ran across an erstwhile fellow fisherman, James Carroll. The latter told him that Mrs. Kenefick, with her baby, believing her husband had met death in the flames, had accompanied the Carrolls first to Boston and later to their present home, in Jersey City.

FOUR NEW YORK SLEUTHS ON TRIAL

Detectives Held in Connection With Disappearance of Nine Letters in Stokes Case.

New York, July 13. — The Stokes case was kept in the public eye today by the trial of the four city detectives on charges arising out of the disappearance of nine letters from hte collection taken from the apartment of Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad after they were arrested for shooting the wealthy hotel man.

The investigation is being hurried so that the evidence may be laid before the present grand jury, which will decide whehter or not the girls shall be indicted on a charge of assault.

Two men, Sam George, of Ottawa, and Philip Trudel, of Hull, were crushed to death by the collapse of a boom carrying a load of sand and gravel beneath the Sappers Bridge, Ottawa.

LOSS BY FIRE AT CALUMET WILL EXCEED $200,000

The Calumet Paper Mill and Boiler House, destroyed by fire.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Calumet, Que., July 13.—The entire saw mills, lath, clap-board and shingle mills of the Riordon Paper Company here, were completely d troyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Two hundred men are out of work. The total loss, including $00,000 feet of lumber, and an enormous quantity of shingles, lath, and clapboards, offices, a school house and eight private dwellings, owned by the company and rented to employes, will amount to over $200,000. Everything is covered by insurance.

Fortunately for the safety of the town, a special train from Montreal, early in the afternoon, [illegible] Lieutenant Merineau, and fifteen firemen with one engine, and 2,000 feet of hose.

The fire broke out in the saw mill, under the bandsaw, about noon, and within half an hour all the buildings were on fire. At one oclock the entire lumber yard, covering almost the whole of Calumet Island, half a mile in length, was in flames. All the fire apparatus of the mills, the town, and the Riordon Sulphite mill at Hawkesbury were called out, and with the assistance of the Montreal force, did excellent work.

The saw mill had a capacity of 80,000 feet a day, mill 45,000 and the clapboard mill 20,000.

Plant Will be Rebuilt.

Mr. Carl Riordon, managing director of the Sulphite mill, and Mr. J. B. White, manager of the company's saw mills, in Quebec, states that the plant will be rebuilt, [illegible] that most of the men will be given work in the other mills, and lumber camps.

The mills were originally owned by the Baptes and the Ottawa Lumber Company, and later they were bought by the G. H. Perley Company, of Ottawa, in 1899. In 1909 the company amalgamated with the Riordon Paper Company. There were no accidents of any character during the fire.

All last night the Montreal force played steady streams on the flames, which were raging even to-day amongst the heaps of sawdust. The village of Calumet was visited by fire a month ago, when seventeen buildings were burned.

THE LA FOLLETTE AMENDMENTS UP IN SENATE TO-DAY

Senator Says His Proposed Duty Reductions Will Save Consumers Annually $341,000,000.

ON COTTONS AND ON WOOLLENS IN STATES

Defeat of Senator Bailey's Free List Amendment—A Significant Debate.

Washington, D.C., July 13.—Senator La Follette's long promised wool and cotton tariff revision amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill, proposing duty reductions, which he calculated would save the consumers $169,000,000 annually on cottons, and $172,000,000 on woollens, was yesterday scheduled for introduction to-day.

In a statement concerning the amendment, Mr. La Follette says that against this enormous saving to the consumers, which assumes that the price to the consumer would be reduced to the same extent as the reduction of duty, the loss of revenue to the Government under the two schedules would approximate $30,000,000.

"The change for the woollen schedule as a whole," said Mr. La Follette, "would represent a reduction from an average ad valorem of 61.74 per cent. under the present law, to 38.24 per cent., or a reduction of 23½ ad valorem, and over 38 per cent. below the present rate. The average ad valorem rate on cotton goods, including artificial silk, is to be reduced under the proposed amendments, from 55.50 per cent., under the present act, to 29.45 per cent., representing a reduction of over 26 per cent. ad valorem, and over 47 per cent. below the present rate."

Mr. La Follette declared that the duties proposed were still greater than necessary to protect American manufacturers from European competition. However, as this is a temporary measure, he preferred, he said, "to err on the safe side," and make sure "that no legitimate American industry can possibly be injured by any of the proposed changes."

SENATOR HEYBURN SAYS ALL REAL REPUBLICANS OPPOSE RECIPROCITY.

Senator Bailey's free list amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill was defeated in the Senate late yesterday by a large majority.

Pursuing the policy of forcing the opponents of reciprocity to proceed without delay, Senator Penrose urged Senator Bailey to introduce his wool tariff amendment at once. The latter did so, and the Senate adjourned with the amendment pending. It is a modification of the wool tariff bill recently passed by the House and places all duties on raw and manufactured wool at a general average of 30 per cent.

"Semi-Democrats," "borrowed Democrats," and like terms were applied to the Republican senators supporting the bill, by Senator Heyburn, of Idaho, in a speech against the measure. He declared that when the vote on the bill is taken all real Republicans in the Senate, will be opposed to it, while the "semi-Democrats" will vote for it, along with the "fee-simple Democrats."

INSURGENTS CLASSED AS "MAVERICKS."

"How can we educate the leader of the party back to Republican principles?" asked Senator Nelson, of Minnesota.

"Who is leader of the Republican party?" asked Senator Heyburn.

Senator Bailey declared that the Republicans were in a state of mutiny, and did not know their leader.

Mr. Heyburn declared that the reciprocity bill came to Congress "wrapped in the flag of the pirate."

"We are told: 'Here's the bill; now you pass it without any change," said Mr. Heyburn.

He declared that he opposed amendments to the bill as well as the bill itself, because "every amendment is a splinter off the Republican flagstaff of protective policy."

"That can't be," interjected Senator Clapp; "the flagstaff has been broken and the flag pulled down."

"I'll bet you 7,000,000 Republican votes that it is not true," said Heyburn. He added that he believed the Republicans would ultimately come together again on protective principles. Asked by Senator Bailey as to how he would classify the insurgents, Heyburn said they were "mavericks," waiting to be branded.

"If they can be rounded up in the White House lot I know how they will be branded," said Bailey.

Senator Heyburn characterized some of the Progressives as "progressing like a crab; you can't tell which way they are going."

"This is not the deathbed of the Republican party," said Senator Heyburn, referring to the split in the Republican ranks, "but it will be the deathbed of many of the men who are supporting this reciprocity bill when the people realize that it means the pulling down of the protective system."

Senator Dixon, of Montana, declared for the Bailey amendment, and added that if the reciprocity bill passed, he was willing to "stay until December and go through the whole tariff list."

TEACHER'S CASE.

Acting for Mr. A. J. H. St. Denis, Mr. Gonzalve Desaulniers has inscribed in Review, the case af Mr. St. Denis against the Catholic School Board which was dismissed by Mr. Justice Guerin by judgment rendered on the 30th of June last.

The case was entered in the shape of a petition for injunction against the enforcement of a resolution of the board dismissing five special teachers because they had had connection with Masonic organizations. The interim injunction was granted by Mr. Justice Lafontaine and finally the permanent injunction was refused by Judge Guerin who, after having heard the case on the merit, dismissed the petition with costs.

PILOT IS SUSPENDED BLAMED FOR GROUNDING

Statements as to Weather Conditions Contradicted by Mate and Helmsmen.

A formal investigation was held yesterday into the grounding of the steamer Stormont, at Longue Pointe on May 5, and as a result Francois Rivard a branch pilot, was found guilty of ignorance and inexperience. The Court had his certificate suspended for twelve months. Captain L. A. Demers, the wreck commissioner, was assisted on the bench by Captains Francis Nash and A. T. Haworth.

Captain McMaster, of the Stormont, explained that the vessel was, in his opinion, an easy going boat and steered well. At the time of the accident he was not on deck.

The pilot claimed that it was a hazy night, but that he was expecting to pick up the gas buoy at Longue Pointe in spite of the fact that he had received orders from the pilotage office to the effect that this buoy was then put out. He stated that he could not see the range lights on account of haze.

John Lewis Jones ,the second mate, contradicted that statement, and said that the night was a perfectly clear one, and that objects on the land could be quite easily seen.

The helmsman also said that the night was perfectly clear.

Mr. E. E. Howard represented the owners of the Stormont, the Montreal Transportation Co., while Mr. Lafortune acted for the pilot.

GREAT CELEBRATON HELD AT BELFAST

Hundred Thousand Orangemen Participated — Isolated Skirmishes.

Belfast, July 13.—The Orange demonstration yesterday, in celebration of the Battle of the Boyne, was on an immense scale. Fully 100,000 Orangemen assembled in Castlereagh and marched to Belfast. The Marquis of Londonderry, Mr. Carson and others were loudly acclaimed at the mass meeting. The resolutions antagonistic to Home Rule for Ireland were unanimously passed.

There were isolated skirmishes of the usual annual type between Catholics and Orangemen, one of which occupied the attention of the police for three hours. Stones and clubs were used freely.

The Marquis of Londonderry, in his speech at the mass meeting, while predicting bankruptcy and ruin, and perhaps civil war in the event that Home Rule be granted Ireland, warned his hearers that Home Rule was not to be defeated without the support of the people of Great Britain, and that they would lose that support if they indulged in riot

"We had some trouble with them ten years ago," he said, "but they came around all right. Should they refuse, or in the case of any one else refusing t obe enrolled or to give information, the procedure is to report them to the Justice Department. THE DISASTER AT PORCUPINE.

It will be days before any accurate estimate of the dead can be made in the scorched and blackened country where a week ago the forest was dotted with prospectors' camps and the hills resounded with the roar of blasting operations. Part of Porcupine, the Mecca of thousands and the symbol of fortune to tens of thousands more is in ashes, and the hundreds of venturous souls who heard and followed its call, no one knows how many are alive to-day to tell the details of the tragedy which, coming without warning, left but few witnesses of its passing. Against its black background, acts of heroism and self-sacrifice which have already come to the knowledge of the outside world stand out gloriously. It is the one bright aspect of an overwhelming disaster, this knowing that with death in its most awful form snatching at them, man after man risked everything to save a comrade or to make sure that no fellow-man was left, helpless and hopeless, within range of the utmost human endeavors to rob the flames of their triumph. Porcupine's dead will be found and buried as soon as the smouldering embers of its forests make it possible; Porcupine itself will spring eagerly and immediately into new life, for where there is gold there is little time to be wasted in sad memories or fruitless repining; but the stories of the heroism of this disaster will be told and re-told long after the traces of it have been obliterated by the kindly processes of nature. When the emergency comes, the good red blood of the Anglo-Saxon rises to meet it just as willingly and as courageously as in the brave days of old. Chivalry has no higher ideal than that of the man who is ready to give his life, not for his friend but for any of his fellows.

THE ECONOMIC ARGUMENT BROKEN DOWN.

It seems to be all over at Washington but the shouting. A number of Senators are still anxious to put themselves on record in speeches against the bill which will show their particular constituents that they did their best for them; but no one professes any hope now that the measure will fail. The Presidential steam-roller has crushed out all opposition, though but a few days ago it looked as if the economic aspects of the agreement would arouse enough antagonism to kill it.

A fact which is not sufficiently appreciated in this country as yet, is that the economic argument has been openly abandoned at Washington. It has, in truth, been hammered to pieces; and even the invincibly optimistic Taft no longer possesses the hardihood to present it to the people. The President began by carrying the cheering news to the wage-earners that Reciprocity would "reduce the cost of living" for them. This was a statement made right in the teeth of the facts collected by his own investigators and reported under his own orders to Congress. These investigators showed that the prices for most foodstuffs is now higher in Canada than in the United States; and so established the absurdity of the claim that the free admission of Canadian food-stuffs to the American market would reduce the prices of food there. The result is that President Taft has at last reluctantly abandoned his first position, and now admits that Reciprocity will not affect "the cost of living."

As for the American farmers—the producers of foodstuffs—the President turns this fact of high prices in Canada to account in order to reassure them in their fear that they may be hit by Canadian competition. But even he lacks the hardihood to tell them that Reciprocity will help them. All he says is that it will not seriously hurt. Now if Reciprocity will not help the American wage-earner and will not help the American farmer and will not help the American manufacturer—who gets no new market—what American interest will it help? Who in the United States is voting for it for economic reasons? When you have mentioned the newspapers who expect to get cheaper paper in the dim and distant future, you have mentioned the first and the last and the only interest which anticipates a profit.

But if it is not being carried for the sake of its economic effects, why is it sweeping so irresistibly through the American House of Representatives and Senate? Why? We would like to have the pro-Reciprocity press give us one reason which it is creditable to this country to facilitate.

THE WICKEDNESS OF CAMPAIGN FUNDS.

THE grave indictment is solemnly brought against the Canadian manufacturers that they were equally guilty with the jingo imperialists in initiating the movement against reciprocity and they are further accused of spending money lavishly in the newspapers and journals and elsewhere to give their opposition a fictitious importance.

The guilt, the wickedness, the sin, of initiating any movement against reciprocity is too obvious to need emphasizing. But when it comes to spending money in the fight against reciprocity, we presume the enormity of the offence is accentuated by the fact that the manufacturers are strongly suspected of spending their own money. It is not like spending public money in booming reciprocity. That is a different thing altogether. The good people who are so horrified at the expenditure of private funds in fighting reciprocity always talk as though campaign funds were invented and are maintained simply for the protection of protection.

As a matter of fact, the whole free trade campaign in England was carried on by the lavish expenditure of money. The chief difference between the tactics of Cobden and those of the Canadian Cobdenites of the present day is that Cobden obtained the sinews of war by private subscription not by milking public contracts. After the Council of the Anti-Corn Law League had spent $500,000, in educating the people of England, Cobden wrote a pathetic appeal for another $250,000. They not only distributed campaign literature, but they had tea parties at all their meetings to make them more attractive. He described Forfar as a poor little borough, but he expected to raise about $750 there. Aberdeen he found "a fine large town with several extensive manufactories and a good shipping port, but strange to say, almost the only place in Scotland where the capitalists seem to have taken no part in the Free-trade movement" but he "hopes to stir them up to-morrow." In 1844 they had disaributed 9,000,000 tracts and they wanted to raise $450,000 of which $70,000 was raised at a single Manchester meeting. At that time they were spending $5,000 a week. And to think that the only fault Mr. Cobden had to find with the manufacturers was that they didn't chip in enough for "the cause"! Upon the whole, he seemed satisfied to say, "Watch it grow!"

HOT WEATHER EXTORTION.

To the poor of New York, hot weather apparently means more in the way of hardship and suffering than to those of any other of the great cities of the continent. Twice in the last week, the price of milk has been raised and the "five cent" lump of ice, which represented about the limit of the tenement district indulgence, has disappeared, a "ten cent" lump of the same size and quality taking its place. There is no doubt that it is much more difficult to keep milk fresh and to deliver it to city consumers in that condition when the temperature is in the nineties than when it is twenty degrees lower, nor can anyone expect milk dealers—or the "combination" of milk-dealers which now exists in the majority of large cities—to conduct their business at a loss for the sake of ministering to suffering humanity. On the other hand, the excellent profit which is made out of the milk business forty-eight weeks a year hardly justifies a rise in price to cover a possible loss during four weeks of extremely hot weather, especially when it is a matter of common knowledge that once the price of such a commodity goes up because of extraordinary conditions, it requires weeks and even months to reduce it again to normal after the emergency has disappeared. There is even less justification for doubling the price of ice to the poor just at a time when a piece of ice is a necessary of life and not a luxury. It is claimed that the ice shortage which threatens New York is due to the fact that the "Ice Trust" has been taking chances on the weather and did not allow much of a margin for emergencies when stocking its storage houses last winter. If this should prove to be the case it is still problematical if any action can be taken to effectively punish the officials responsible even though their "measures of economy" have meant the deaths of scores of children. New York is a large and prosperous city but every once in a while some incident shows a flaw in the foundations of its prosperity which may some day have serious consequences.

THE TOSSOCK MOTH.

It is better to start the fight at once against the tussock moth and his depredations than not to start it at all, but it would have been very much better still to have begun it earlier in the season when the chance of saving the trees in parks and public places was a more even one. The tussock moth is no new visitant; he is indigenous, his malevolent activity has been exposed time after time, and we have even seen effective private campaigns started against him here in Montreal when public activity lagged behind its responsibility. By delaying until now any serious effort to check the obvious depredations the moths have made already this year, we must reconcile ourselves to frayed and ragged trees for the balance of the summer in such conspicuous places as Victoria, Dominion and Viger Squares, and very probably to the death or permanent disfigurement of such of them as were most vigorously attacked. We should, however, be thankful that some effort is being made to check the spread of the pest and to save what remains of vitality in the trees it has already attacked.

Robert Meighen was a man in whom Montreal took an affectionate pride. The sincerity of his love for the Dominion the loyalty of his devotion to her interests and the tireless energy he displayed in supporting policies which appeared to him as wise, and in opposing those which seemed detrimental, were all manifestations of a stalwart Canadianism which nothing could daunt or deflect from its purpose. Mr. Meighen was essentially an optimist: he saw first the glories of the future and its possibilities, and the difficulties of achieving them only as incidental. To the large vision of the idealist he added the shrewdness and wisdom of the man of affairs. His judgment of men like his judgment of things was clean-cut and decided, and what he favored or what he fought was favored or fought with all the vigor and enthusiasm of his nature. His death will be mourned in many cities and regretted in many widely separated circles.

The death of Sir Eldon Gorst removes a man who did his best to introduce representative institutions into Egypt; and whose last report was a confession of failure. Sir Eldon was one of the Englishmen who have given their lives for that mysterious land, and had no little share in the material improvements which have so largely increased the life-sustaining power of the valley of the Nile. So long as Britain is served by its army of self-sacrificing exiles who labor all their lives under alien skies and long all their lives for the quiet lanes and broad parks of England, she will remain the greatest colonizing power in history and the most successful governor of "backward peoples."

Germany proposes to have no nonsense from the Standard Oil Company. When that Company is found benevolently lowering the price of its product, the German Government does not fall on its knees in gratitude. It shrewdly suspects that the purpose is to drive the Austrian competitors from the German field, with the intention of subsequently, raising the prices, and making the Germans pay for the cost of the war. So the German Government proposes to meet this situation by making petroleum a Government monopoly.

The Government press are beginning to withdraw their suggestion that an election might be precipitated before redistribution. Even the eagerness of some people to get the awkward issue of Reciprocity out of the way, would hardly make the Ministers willing to offend the West by disfranchising it for the life of a Parliament, and at the same time to present their opponents with so telling a "cry" as opposition to this high-handed proceeding.

A Toronto judge has decided that a lost bet is a legal debt. Hitherto it has been regarded only as a "debt of honor"; and, as the betting fraternity are more apt to pay debts of honor than tailor bills, the decision marks a net loss for the status of a wager.

How Porcupine Was Discovered

The discovery of Porcupine was inspired by a perusal of the reports compiled by the Ontario Bureau of Mines.

The report of the Bureau of Mines of 1899, contained a paper by Dr. W. A. Parks, dealing briefly with certain geological characteristics of the Porcupine district. The report suggested that the district was worthy of exploration for the discovery of gold. Mr. H. F. Hunter, of Toronto, who had for some years been interested in mining, after reading this report was particularly attracted with the possibilities of the district, and decided to prospect it. In the summer of 1907, Mr. Hunter's prospecting party, in charge of Jos. J. Dwyer, a well-known north country prospector, proceeded to this district, remaining until late in the autumn. On the west shore of Porcupine Lake, on the properties now owned and operated by Porcupine Lake Gold Mines Limited, they made their first discovery.

The trip out was deferred as late as weather would permit. On the way the canoes of the party had to be abandoned, and before reaching the railway, blankets, supplies, everything, in fact, except the samples that were collected, were left along the trail. Dwyer's samples of ores and of country rock so impressed Mr. Hunter that he was determined that a winter trip should be undertaken in order, if possible, to learn at once something definite of the chief discovery.

In January, 1908, Dwyer, with four men, left Matheson, then the end of steel, and a trip was begun that contrasts strangely with the present journey to Porcupine. It took 22 days to reach Porcupine Lake (the Pullman passenger will soon cover the distance in less than two hours). Tents were pitched on the lake shore, and then began the initial developments of Porcupine's first gold discovery. Not until Mr. Hunter's arrival in the latter part of the following April did Dwyer see a new face at his camps.

Mr. Hunter describes the last stage of the journey from Night Hawk Lake to Porcupine Lake, a distance of about 10 miles, as taking from two o'clock one afternoon until eight o'clock the following evening. The details may well be left to the imagination. One trip across country was enough, and after an enforced wait at his camps during the break-up another overland trip was avoided by the building of rafts. With these the trip down Porcupine River carrying several hundred pounds of ore, was undertaken. Reaching Night Hawk Lake, the canoes abandoned the fall before were picked up, and the journey to the railway easily completed.

Two other visits were paid to the property by Dwyer, and another by Mr. Hunter in the spring of 1909. By this time a considerable amount of deep trenching had been accomplished; but heavy drift and deep capping over the vein made surface work as a means of tracing the ore body, too difficult for a small gang of men. The foot-wall having been uncovered near the water's edge, a test pit about nine feet deep was sunk on the ore body between this and the lake shore line. Altogether, enough work had been accomplished to disclose the character and value of the ore. This caused Mr. Hunter to decide temporarily to abandon the work, and to construct a winter road for more extensive development of the property.

Jack Wilson, and later Geo. Bannerman, came along shortly after Dwyer and his party had left. They found Dwyer's tents untenanted. They were surprised to discover a blacksmith shop and coal in that inaccessible region. They saw at once that prospectors had succeeded in discovering visible gold. Inspired by this incident, in a short time Bannerman had staked the property now known as the Scottish Ontario, and, later, Wilson staked the Dome. Meanwhile, specimens from Dwyer's discovery were being shown in Toronto. From that time on the interest in Porcupine grew. The Dunlap-McMartin-Timmins group became interested, securing an option on the properties now known as the Hollinger. Work on the winter road was rushed. Porcupine became easier of access, and its subsequent history and development are well known.

FROM THE STAR FILES THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY

The Late Lord Byron.

"The statue of Byron, which the Greeks have erected to the cherished memory of the poet, is about to be unveiled at Missolonghi, where he died."—From the Montreal Star, July 13, 1881.

THE great Lord Byron was born in Hollis street, London, on January 22, 1788. His father was the nephew of the fifth (or wicked) Lord Byron, as he was usually called. In 1798 he succeeded to his grand-uncle's title and estates, and he and his mother settled at the family seat of the Byrons, Newstead Abbey, Nottinghamshire. Two years were then spent in a school at Dulwich, going to Harrow in 1801. In 1805 he entered Trinity College, Cambridge. During his stay there his poetic impulses began to find expression, and in 1807 he published his "Hours of Idleness." Perhaps the keynote of Byron's character was an extraordinary and egotistical sensitiveness which was a contributory cause of many of his troubles, and everywhere finds expression in his verse. Yet he was capable of great generosity and fine feeling. He displayed a very strong feeling for the Greeks, and in 1824 he resolved to help them in their struggle for independence. He sailed from Genoa in January, 1824, arriving at Missolonghi. His physical powers, however, were unequal to the strain, and he died of rheumatic fever on April 19.

"The semi-annual examinations for admittance to the study of law and to practise at the Bar commenced yesterday morning in the Court House and ended to-day. The following were admitted to practice at the Bar: E. McMahon, A. B. Berthelot, T. T. Brousseau, A. David, E. O. Drouin, J. W. Emard, G. Foster, E. Guerin, E. Lamirade, Wm. Lighthall, H. G. Lajoie, C. A. Madore, A. S. Mackay, C. Raynes, L. J. B. Tache, L. E. Turgeon, A. G. Ingalls, W. A. Polette, J. E. Paradis, W. A. Weir, S. Jackson, A. G. Cross, E. Gauthier, J. D. Leduc, and R. S. Weir. The following were admitted to the study of the profession: Auguste Delisle, R. Forest, A. Franchere, C. Lanctot, C. R. Daoust, L. P. Brodeur, C. Bruchesi, A. Robineau, F. J. Chamberland, J. H. Rogers, G. E. Malette, H. Pelletier, N. Rielle, G. C. Campbell, F. McLennan, A. N. Desautel, M. Landreville and F. Gerin Lajoie. The students as a whole passed a very successful examination. Of the twenty-five who applied, for admittance, all passed, and eighteen of the 29 who applied to study were successful. This is the last examination to be held under the old law, as a new law was passed this spring that there shall be only one board of examiners for the whole province."—From the Montreal Star, July 13, 1881.

"Two men jumped over the counter of Davis & Sexton's Bank, Riverton, La., on Monday, and secured the money ($40,000), while Mr. Sexton was at the safe getting change for a bill presented by the robbers. They then mounted their horses and rode away, inviting the crowd to follow them."—From the Montreal Star, July 13, 1881.

"I Remember--"

Repeated reference having been made by contributors to the "I remember" column to the beginnings of our railway systems in the city and province, Mr. Robert Miller, Assistant Superintendent of Terminals on the C. P. R., and known probably from one end of the system to the other as the "Sage of Windsor Street station" (from a philosophical strain in his make-up which finds expression in gently satirical comments upon life) recalled the history of the famous wooden railway which joined Sorel with Drummondville, in the sixties.

"The Richelieu, Drummond and Arthabasca railway was a wooden railway, which was hailed as a sort of a miracle, when it was, after infinite difficulty and heartburning, constructed," he said. "A railway between Sorel, Drummondville and Richmond, had been long talked of by the people of the place mentioned. My father was appointed secretary of the promotion meetings, and wrote out the minutes, the memorial, the notes and reports. The parties who were interested in the project had but little money, but a railway was considered to be necessary to every kind of salvation for that portion of the Eastern Townships.

"Among the men interested were Judge Hemming, Mr. Valentine Cook, (father of Colonel Cook, of Montreal, the well-known Registrar); Mr. W. J. Watts; Mr. Walkham; Colonel Butler, of Montreal; Dr. A. Bernard; J. T. Coze, and several other French-Canadians in St. Germain."

"The railway had been made an election issue for years. Members had been pledged to work for it; to worry the government; but nothing had been done. At last, Judge Hemming was returned for the local house—pledged to get the support of the government. The Judge took the matter up; the government promised a subsidy; and the several municipalities were invited to tax themselves, according to their importance and population. Municipalities such as Grantham, Drummondville, Walkham, St. Germain, voted grants readily enough, but others remained cold. Then a county by-law was passed which made each municipality responsible. Those which had already subscribed as municipalities, were willing to vote for the by-law; but more than one, with great subtlety, had themselves, by process of law, cut off from the county and tacked on to another one.

"However, the railway got started, the contract was let to Mr. L. E. Senecal, a name which came to mean a great deal subsequently, at $5,000 per mile. Think of it—$5,000 per mile and modern railways costing from $20,000 to $30,000 per mile! But, remember, said Mr. Miller, that this was a wooden railway. The rails were of maple wood. The pins that held them together were of wood. The mortising of the rails were of wood. Then, again, there were no high prices paid for the right of way. In fact, nothing was paid.

"The distance between Sorel and Drummondville — for Richmond had been left out of the calculation—was 37 miles. The work was accomplished in due course. The opening was a gala day in Drummondville. My father, who knew the ineffectuality of a wooden railway, but also knew that it was impossible at the time to think of a steel one, remarked, when the first train came to Drummondville, 'All roads lead to Drummondville.' There were two engines—the 'L. E. Senecal, and the 'E. J. Hemming,' and the requisite number of cars—freight and passenger.

"Now, that railway never paid. It never paid anybody or anything. It killed the cattle; but it did not pay for them. Nobody ever thought of preferring claims for damages for lost goods, as is the case now. Everybody had to hustle for freight. If the superintendent of the road heard of a load of hay, which had to be moved, he took off his coat to hustle for it. The wages of the men depended, not on any money in the bank, but the amount of business that paid money from month to month.

"And then the railway had a habit of paying no attention to the schedule. It was not forseen at the time, but the system was averse to working in the rain. When it rained, the railway was knocked out of business. If a passenger enquired, after waiting for hours, what was the matter with the train, he would be answered, 'the rain.' The system was not put out of business by an ordinary shower. Showers it could endure; but a downpour was fatal. The wheels of the engines and cars skidded on the wooden rails, and propulsion was impossible. For days at a time the system was tied up. Of course, it did not run in the winter time. The wooden rails, if you had perfect wood, lasted pretty well, but if there was a knot in any rail, then the rail was speedily rendered useless.

"But that absurd railway served a useful purpose. My father always said that the steel railway would follow the wooden one, and he was right. The steel road came in time, but while the wooden one lasted, it was of much benefit. Aside from its aid in establishing intercommunication, it was the means of obtaining for the farmers better prices for their tanbark, which was quite a commodity. Prior to the running of the railway, the price was a dollar per cord. After the railway came, the price went up to $7 per cord.

"Colonel Foster, the brother of the present Judge Foster, of Knowlton, had started the South Eastern, and this line, after the wooden railway had been running for from four to five years, took the latter over; re-organized it; changed the route of it; modernized it; made it to pass through Acton, via Drummondville; and, as part of the South Eastern, it was run until the C. P. R. took over the latter, wiped out both small systems by name—linking them to its own eager, modern spirit and energy. But while still called the South Eastern, the system had its humorous features.

"For instance, I was station agent at Longueuil; freight agent at Montreal and claims agent everywhere. As freight agent I had to write to the station agent—that is, to myself, on business. Of course, all the letters were copied.

"One day the late Mr. T. A. McKinnon, the manager, one of the kindest men that ever lived, in looking over the correspondence book, found a letter written by me as freight agent to myself as station agent, and in which I had addressed myself, in a whimsical way, as 'Dearly Beloved and Honored Sir,' at the same time signing myself as 'Yours till death.'

"What the dickens is all this about?" the general manager asked.

"Well, you know," I said, "that I think a lot of the man to whom I wrote that letter."

And then Mr. McKinnon laughed.

"As claims agent I had to go over the line. One time there was a dispute about the condition in which a barrel of molasses had been shipped. I was sent to settle the matter. The agent, who had complained that he had received the barrel in a bad state said, (not knowing me) that that fellow Miller need not think to pull the wool over his eyes, by pretending to think that the goods had been shipped in good condition. If he had Miller here he would give him a bit of his mind.

"I am Miller." I said. "The devil," said the agent, and ran away, crestfallen.

"All our troubles ceased when the C. P. R. took over the South Eastern. The Richelieu, Drummond and Arthabasca wooden road was the pioneer in its day and served its purpose, although it had, in its operation, certain suggestions of comic opera, while the South Eastern was an advance—a system small in itself, yet of great service in the opening up of the Eastern Townships; but the C. P. R. came along with its means, its equipment, and what was negligible became part and parcel of the great modern system feeling its energy and eagerness, and made to serve more important ends than had ever been contemplated by the men who worked for years to get railway communication in the Eastern Townships."

THE PASSING HOUR

THOSE who ran away to the sea to ride on a cool wave can now safely come to land again for awhile.

NONE TO GIVE AWAY.

"How is your garden getting along?"

"Why do you ask that question?" demanded the suburbanite suspiciously.

"Merely out of politeness."

"I see. I thought maybe I had promised you some vegetables."

AN old fox learned most of his wisdom out of the foolishness of his youth, but folk aren't foxes.

TEARS and a dull face do not spell virtue, any more than bright eyes and laughter spell corruption.

A WOMAN who had no opinions of her own when she was engaged has all the more after she is married.

DO the hairy breasts of the wild geese indicate an early and cold winter?

Big Dog—"What do you live on if you reside in a music store?"

Little Dog—"The boss throws me a few old trombones."

MUSIC hath charms to soothe the savage beast, but it is always better to play bagpipes outdoors and untuned pianos under water.

WHEN a man is a particularly insufferable bore, it's a sign it's about how he takes his exercise.

EARLY in August the German Crown Prince and Crown Princess will receive the wedding present given to them by the cities of Prussia five years ago, when the wedding took place, and now nearing artistic completion. This system of five-year-old wedding presents may do for an old fashioned country like Germany, where divorces are exceptional, but it would never do for this continent.

MR. ANDERSON, of the Bell Telephone Company, says that the average number of complaints received from subscribers is one in three years. Evidently, like other telephone messages, a good many complaints never get far beyond the transmitter.

THAT the gallant Colonel is still the greatest power in the United States is suggested by the fact that a South Carolina paper refers to him as "the Dowager President."

THE uniform of a sailor of the United States Navy was found by the roadside in Central Park, and the New York Telegram says: "The police concluded that some sailor had disrobed during the night, then donned other clothes and departed." The perspicacity of the New York detective police must be read about (preferably in a New York paper) to be appreciated. That is what keeps the desertion rate in the U. S. Navy down to the highest in the world.

IT must have been a little flat-dweller who defined a mountain range as "A large sized cook stove."

THE heroic persistency of the Washington Weather Bureau men who keep on predicting "cooler to-morrow" will be rewarded some day. It is only a question of time when they are bound to be right—if they continue to pursue their unwavering policy.

THE chief Liberal whip of the British House of Commons has got a little list of five hundred gentlemen, who are willing to save the country by becoming peers of the realm. Would it not be an awful thing if after they are appointed the House of Lords should refuse to receive them? Mr. Gladstone once tried to reform the House of Lords by creating life peers, and Queen Victoria appointed one upon his recommendation. The House of Lords refused to receive the new peer, and the Queen subsequently created him a peer with remainder to his heirs male.

ENGLISH AS SHE IS WROTE.

"Paris, June 29.

"My deerest Managers:

"I am now write this letter petite from hurry up to arrive New York so for you to observe on the S. S. Arabic before which I am return. I am not write how lovely time since I am away, but am glad to tell when I see you all right.

"I shall be most delight for rehearsal and am glad if you shall admire my "Spring Maid" dress, as I secure in Budapest which I write you before.

"I am just learn in Anglis quite perfect all the Princess role and think if you will like my speaking the lines. Hulah! the voice is very fine as you must see. Also in Paris have I secure those green stocking the same like Miss McDonald pretty ones.

"I hope if we have a nice trip back to America, but I am not meeting Mr. Luescher. Was it not too bad? Also I miss Mr. Klaw on returning and other friends.

"Oo, revoir. I hope if you will be delight again to see your little "Mizzi.

"P. S.—I am take many pictures for you again if you shall like them."

THERE was a time when the proudest boast of the first great trans-continental railway was the Parisian politeness of its officials. To-day politeness reaches its high-water mark in Berlin. The Meggendorfer Blaetter reports the following conversation:

Visitor (waiting an invitation to lunch) —"Two o'clock! I fear I'm keeping you from your dinner."

Hostess—"No; but I fear we are keeping you from yours."

IT IS hard for the unspeakable trust to please everybody. The German Government is going to try a homeopathic remedy. It is going to establish an Imperial monopoly in coal oil on account of "the incessant cutting of prices by the Standard Oil Company," which threatens to drive the Austrian refiners out of the German market and place the German consumers at the mercy of the Rockefeller monopoly. A trust which incessantly cuts prices evidently needs curbing, and what so effective as another monopoly?

IT IS expected that the census will show over 8,000,000 people in Canada. This, added to the people the census will not show, will make quite a respectable population.

MR. WANKLYN SUES ALLEGING LIBEL.

Action Against Mr. Olivar Asselin Over Contract Criticism.

Mr. Olivar Asselin, now secretary of the Hassam Paving Company, who had reached quite a notoriety for the number and the importance of actions for libel provoked by his writings is now being sued for $15,000, action being entered by Controller Wanklyn against Mr. Asselin, for alleged libel.

The statements complained of were to the effect that Mr. Wanklyn as a leader of the Board of Control, had secured paving contracts for his friends, not serving the best interests of the city.

The statement was first made in an article signed by Mr. Asselin, covering a full page in one of the small French Sunday papers; it was then reiterated in an interview given by Mr. Asselin to a French daily, a few days later.

At the request of Mr. Wanklyn, the daily apologised, but Mr. Asselin has so far declined to withdraw his statements, and therefore the action.

Sues City After Fall.

An action for $1,500 was entered against the city by Dr. A. Cheval, of St. Hilaire, acting in his capacity of curator to Alphonse Richer. It is alleged that on the 28th of April last, Richer fell on the sidewalk and received internal injuries which impaired his reason. The accident occurred on Sanguinet street, and it is alleged that the sidewalk was in a dangerous condition.

FAILS TO APPEAR.

N. E. Baron Absent From Fire Inquiry.

At the investigation before the Fire Commissioner yesterday afternoon, N. E. Baron, grocer, of 305 Charlevoix street, failed to appear. Miss Harriet Baron, his sister said she knew nothing of the fire that destroyed the store and did not know anything about the business affairs of her brother.

The investigation was adjourned.

Foresters' Pilgrimage.

BIG SECTION OF ST. JEROME WIPED OUT BY FLAMES

27 Families Rendered Homeless and Property Loss of $200,000 Resulted.

Special to The Montreal Star.

St. Jerome, Que., July 13.—Twenty-seven families are without shelter, and nearly the whole business section of this town is a mass of smoking ruins as the result of a conflagration which threatened to destroy the whole town yesterday afternoon. A rough estimate of the total loss places it at two hundred thousand dollars, only one-half of which is covered by insurance.

The fire was discovered at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the sheds of Mr. Bruno Beaulieu, and the flames spread rapidly, owing to the high wind and the dryness of the material.

All the fire fighting force of the town turned out and the firemen of the Rolland mills and the Rubber factory joined in the fight.

When the first hose was laid down it was found that there was practically no pressure, and it was necessary to connect the steam pumps with the river, which meant a loss of at least twenty minutes, during which time the fire gained considerable headway. Moreover, it was then found impossible to attack the blaze at its centre, from which point the sparks were flying over the neighboring houses, as the Beaulieu store, which was a mass of flames, contained considerable dynamite, and also a reservoir containing one hundred and eighty gallons of gasoline.

In half an hour all the block of houses between St. Ann, St. George and St. Louis streets was ablaze, covering an area of five hundred yards

As the brigade seemed powerless before the conflagration all efforts were confined to the salvage of valuables, the goods in stock in the many stores being neglected for the household furniture.

The city of Montreal was communicated with and Acting-Mayor Gauvin allowed a squad of twelve men under Chief Hooper with fire-fighting apparatus to be despatched to the burning town, but as they had reached Mile End, they were stopped as the fire was practically under control.

Firemen Had Close Shave.

Firemen continued pouring streams of water over the ruins and half a dozen of them had a narrow escape when, a little before sunset, a strong explosion took place on the site of the Beaulieu general store, throwing debris hundreds of feet in all directions. The dynamite or the gasoline had exploded. Fortunately nobody was injured.

The List of Losses.

The list of losses include the following: Mr. Bruno Nantel, general store, with stables, sheds, and considerable stock of wood, hay and straw, totally destroyed, loss $70,000; insurance $33,000; J. E. Leduc, merchant tailor, house, store, stock and household furniture, totally destroyed, loss, $6,000; small insurance; A. Prudhomme, harness maker, house and goods in stock, about $1,000; P. Precourt, shoemaker, $500; E. Gratton, house, $900; Dr. Labelle, house and furniture, $3,500; Jos. Belanger, photographer, house, studio, and furniture, $9,500, partly covered by insurance; R. N. Matte F. Vezina, J. D. Guay, P. Savard, B Gougeon.

All the families thrown out of their houses were sheltered by friends and relatives. The origin of the fire could not yet be determined.

J. L. FLYNN'S THRILLING STORY OF HIS PARTY'S FIGHT FOR LIFE

Special to The Montreal Star.

North Bay, Ont., July 13.—There were a thousand people on the station platform last night when the Cochrane train came in with refugees from that place, besides several survivors from Porcupine.

Most of the passengers were women and children who had been rendered homeless by the fierce fire which swept down upon Cochrane, and, leaping with incredible rapidity from building to building, swept out the thriving town of 2,500 inhabitants.

North Bay ladies were on hand with refreshments for the travellers, while railway agents issued free transportation to all points to which they wished to go, as many were without funds.

Three men from Porcupine, en route to Bridgeport, were on this train, each one bandaged from head to foot, having been burned in the fire which destroyed the plant of the United Porcupine mines. The men presented a sad appearance, their clothes hanging in shreds, they were wearing old dressing gowns and devoid of headgear. They were J. L. Flynn, Joe H. Flynn, and Gilbert Gibbs, all of Bracebridge, who passed through a terrible experience, and, though severely burned on their arms and heads, feel grateful that they escaped with their lives.

MEN WERE CORNERED LIKE RATS IN A TRAP.

J. L. Flynn's story of the fire was very thrilling. The fire was seen coming miles away and travelling very fast, but the men at the mines thought it would pass the property. The wind veered, however, and the flames leaping down on the mine buildings, the sleeping house, cookery, and two blacksmith shops were a mass of flames in an instant.

All attempts to fight the flames were unavailing. The men were soon surrounded with a wall of flames. Six men were on the property, together with a mine operator named Dewey, who sought refuge there from the advancing flames.

Cornered like rats in a trap, the men rushed from one place to another in the maddening heat with their clothes burning, and finally decided to try a rush through the flames to higher ground. Seven men started, but only three passed through the fire, gaining a rocky eminence burned and blistered, but safe.

When the fire passed and the heat became less intense the two Flynns and Gibbs rushed back and found the bodies of their companions, burned, blackened, and lifeless, on the ground.

Th dead men were the manager of the mine, Andrew Youille, of Wilton avenue, Toronto; Joseph Fletcher, Toronto; Frank Flynn, Bracebridge, and Dewey the American. Frank Flynn was a brother of the two Flynns who escaped, and Youille was a brother-in-law.

MAN SHOT FOR ATTACKING LIQUOR PLACED UNDER GUARD

Men worked hard rescuing children, who ran to and fro frantic from the fire and flying pieces of wood and shingles, which were wrenched from the roofs by the gale. All the children were saved, but grave fears are felt for the safety of the men in the bush, some saying that fifty may have perished.

Special constables were sworn in, and efforts were made to keep whiskey from the thirsty ones. This was only partly successful, and one man was shot by a constable for persisting in an attempt to get at liquor under guard. The bullet passed through the man's cheek. The wound was not serious, but the effect was salutary.

LATEST DETAILS FROM SCENE OF CALAMITY.

Martin Roche, jeweller, took out most of his stock and placed it in a canoe on Cammando Lake, hiring a man to watch it. The watchman was repeatedly driven from his post by the flames, but tied his canoe to the bank and returned when he could. The stock was intact in the morning.

Mrs. Ashbee, who came out yesterday from Cochrane, was taken from the train at Flaggheart, where she gave birth to a child. Her husband was suffocated in a well during the fire, but she so far has been kept in ignorance of his death.

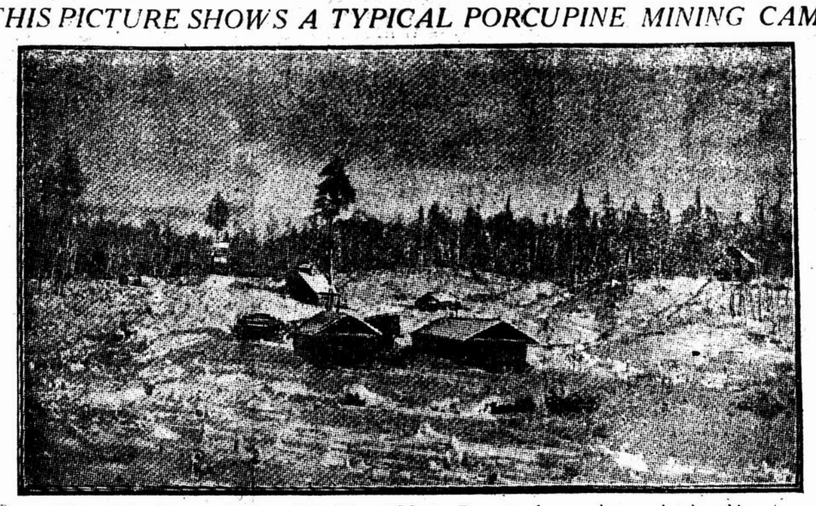

A large number of injured are coming from Porcupine on special trains, and will be cared for at various hospitals in the North Country.

The Dome mine ran a special of its own with the wounded to Copper Cliff Hospital. Fires are still burning and passengers report that Matheson is surrounded by flames and will have a hard time escaping.

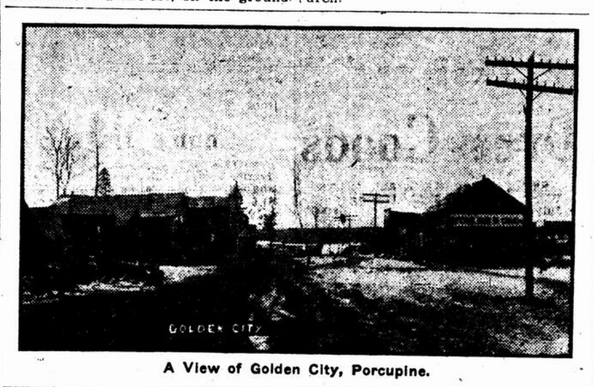

The Warren Lumber Co., at Solwood, was burned out yesterday, with heavy loss, much lumber being destroyed. An insurance of ninety thousand dollars came into effect only to-day.

A. T. S. & N. O. brakeman, Abel Lefebre, was killed at Latchford yesterday. He leaves a wife and nine children.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Englehart, July 13.—A special from Porcupine pulled into Englehart at twenty minutes past 12 this morning bearing 250 refugees. Behind, in three box cars, huddled in blankets, were twenty-two injured men, three women, and two corpses of men who had died during the journey. The others were the injured from the West Dome Mine, which has suffered severely.

The mine has twenty-eight fatalities, including Manager Weiss, his wife and child, who were killed by suffocation in the shaft. Capt Meeks of the Dome, and Mrs. Meeks were on board. Capt Meeks is blind.

The injured are being taken to New Liskeard, Haileybury, and Copper Cliff. They were accompanied by several doctors and a volunteer staff. Supplies were put on board at Englehart for the sick. The refugees ate everything in the refreshment room. Another refugee train is on the way from Porcupine.

Over forty bodies are still in the lake. The death-roll is reported at two hundred. Residents fled on the lake in boats and were upset by squalls. The south end of Porcupine and Pottsville were burned to the ground. The survivors say the dead lie in the streets. There were also numerous deaths in Cochrane.

FLAMES RISING TWO HUNDRED FEET IN AIR.

The fire swept down in a tornado of wind which nothing could withstand, and the flames rose two hundred feet in the air, swirling and roaring. The fire travelled twelve miles within four hours, and despite the five acres of clearing of the United Porcupine property, jumped the gap and licked up the buildings.

Flynn met a man coming out, who said he had counted forty-eight dead bodies of men and eight dead horses on two miles of the road, and he and his companions believed, from their knowledge of the country and the prospector population that the dead would number hundreds.

Yesterday fifty coffins were sent in to Porcupine, but it is believed many more will be needed. Scores must be suffering from burns and heat prostrations.

HOW A. S. WRIGHT SAVED AN OLD LADY FROM DEATH

A. S. Wright, master mechanic on the Transcontinental at Cochrane, came out with his wife and child, and told a vivid story of the fire there. The wind was blowing a gale, and the fire swept down so quickly that there was no time to do anything but run for safety. Box cars were run into town on a contractors' spur, and women and children were hustled to safety.

Wright returned for an old lady neighbor after getting his own family out, and had to carry her. While he was passing a building an explosion occurred, and he and his burden were knocked heavily to the ground. The heat was intense and Wright dug a hole, in the sand with his hands to get breath, keeping his face close to the ground. His face was burned severely, but he managed to get the old lady to safety.

FORTY BODIES ON ROAD FROM DOME TO SOUTH PORCUPINE

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—Horror followed horror in the reports which hour by hour reached Toronto of the great forest fire in the Temiskaming region. It is impossible, up to this time, to state with certainty the extent of the loss of life and property, but late reports placed the loss of lives at 300, and of property at several million dollars.

The greatest catastrophe appears to have happened at South Porcupine. Of six hundred persons who sought refuge in the lake when the fire swept through South Porcupine, two hundred persons, many of them women with children in their arms, lost their lives, according to a private message received by Mr. "Weldy" Young last night. The message came from Mr. Carlton, of Haileybury, a prospector, who was in the lake when the fire was at its height.

As the fire grew hotter and hotter, he says, people were crowded out into the deep water, and were drowned.

Another message, to Mr. Casey Moran, stated that between the Dome Road and South Porcupine, at least forty bodies, lying charred along the corduroy road, were counted. Most of these had met death through suffocation and burning.

Mr. Carlton reported also that the West Dome mine had been totally destroyed and that 21 men had been suffocated to death in the shaft. Superintendent Weiss, his family, and his assistant, Mr. King, were among those who lost their lives. Eight lives were lost at the Dome mine, which was destroyed, with the exception of the mill. Superintendent Meeks and his family were saved.

The Preston East Dome mine was totally destroyed, together with the Imperial and the Foley-O'Brien. No losses of lives are reported from any of these mines, however.

MR. E. R. BAUGH HAS GONE TO PORCUPINE.

Mr. E. L. Baugh, of Montreal, one of the largest stockholders in West Dome, and the originator of the Porcupine and Hudson Bay Gold Mine, Ltd., went north to Porcupine last night, to look after the bodies of the men on the West Dome and Hudson Bay property.

Mr. Baugh has full authority from Mr. Heinze and the West Dome Corporation to take all steps necessary with regard to caring for the bodies of the dead and relieving the wounds of the living.

Mr. A. P. Proctor, partner of Mr. Baugh, says probably three hundred people are burned.

SWASTIKA MINE IS REPORTED SAFE.

Dr. Steel, of the Swastika Mining Company, received a telephone message from the company's manager at Haileybury, yesterday, denying the report that Swastika was destroyed. The property at the time of the message was quite safe.

ALL BUILDINGS OF McINTYRE MINE SAVED.

Mr. J. P. Flynn and Mr. Albert Freeman, of the McIntyre Mining Company, last night, received the following telegram from Mr. C. B. Flynn, vice-president of the company, at Porcupine:

"Terrible forest fires over great extent all day, now quieted down. Great losses. Every one heroic and faithful work on part of McIntyre crew save all buildings on McIntyre."

TEMAGAMI RESERVE UNTOUCHED BY FIRE.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane, Minister of Lands, Forest and Mines, said that while the country from Dane to Cochrane was nearly all burned over, it was gratifying to know that Temagami Reserve was safe.

TELEPHONE COMPANY STAFF ALL SAVED.

STANDARD STOCK EXCHANGE CLOSED.

In view of the terrible loss of life and property in Porcupine the Standard Stock Exchange is closed for business to-day.

The decision to do so was reached late last night, when the tremendous extent of the losses became known.

MRS. YOUILLE DOUBTS HUSBAND'S REPORTED DEATH

Toronto, July 13.—Andrew Youille, who is reported among the dead, lives at 317 Wilton avenue, in this city, and has been a well known mining man in the north for the past five years or more. He was manager of the United Porcupine mine. Mr. Youille is survived by a young wife and a baby six months old.

Mr. Youille's wife received a letter from her husband yesterday, which had been posted at Kelso. Mr. Youille wrote he had heard of the fires at that time, but said he did not think they would reach the place where he and his party were, because they were well protected with barrels of water.

Mr. Youille was 33 years of age, and prior to his experience in North Ontario he had mined and done contracting work in British Columbia, Manitoba, Kansas, and Colorado.

Frank Flynn, Mrs. Youille's brother, left for the North only last Friday. He was 24 years of age, and had worked in the North since Cobalt first started as a mining centre.

Two of Flynn's brother, John and Joseph, are also in the North in the vicinity of Porcupine.

Mr. P. Hirston, one of the big shareholders in the United Porcupine, who is in the city, is inclined, along with Mrs. Youille, to doubt the reports on account of the fact that Mr. Youille was much experienced in the north and would not be likely to leave himself and his party unprotected.

W. J. Fletcher, also reported dead, belongs to Denver, Colorado, and had been working for Mr. Youille for the past three or four months. He was 26 years of age.

W. R. MOORE DROWNED IN PORCUPINE LAKE.

Toronto, July 13.—William R. Moore, who is reported to have been drowned in Porcupine Lake through the upsetting of a canoe, which contained, in addition to himself, three Italian laborers, had been employed on the properties in Southern Tisdale, owned by a syndicate headed by Frank C Armstrong, of New York, and D. Lorne McGibbon, of Montreal.

Although a young man, Mr. Moore knew the north country thoroughly, having prospected over it for several years. He was connected with the original development of what is now the Dobie mine, of which Messrs. Armstrong and McGibbon are also directors, and he enjoyed to a singular degree the confidence of his employers. He was exceedingly popular in the mining centres, and his judgment on properties was much sought after.

In a letter received by the mining editor of the Globe after the news of his death reached here, Mr. Moore wrote enthusiastically of the improvement in the general character of the camp and of his own bright prospects. Mr. Moore's parents are residents of Ottawa.

Toronto, Ont., July 13.—Mr. Frank A. Child, who was principal proprietor of hardware stores at Cochrane, Kelso Mines and Matheson, is in the city. He was at Parry Sound with his family when he got news of the fire, and came on at once to Toronto, to take steps to re-start business.

He says this bush fire is the worst thing he has known in his experience. Both his Cochrane store and his Kelso store have been destroyed, and his Matheson business almost certainly has followed.

"I carried at my Cochrane place," Mr. Child said, "$14,000 worth of stock, which was insured for $7,000 to $8,000. I can't imagine yet how the fire could take the whole town. It started about three-quarters of a mile from my store. The wind at the time was raging from 40 to 50 miles an hour.

"Oh, yes," he added, in answer to a question, "we shall re-build, and better than before—and I hope with proper building restrictions. I am going back to-morrow, and I hope to be started in business again by Monday. I shall take with me tents and all the stock I can."

The trouble was, he said, that insurance was so high that very little insurance was put on, as most people could not afford it. It cost him a ten per cent. rate on his store.

Mr. Child has been in the Porcupine district three years.

DESCRIPTION OF COUNTRY OVER WHICH FLAMES CARRIED DEATH.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Cobalt, Ont., July 13.—Three townsites were located on Porcupine Lake in the early days of the Camp. South Porcupine was at the bottom, and at the other end of the lake, which stretches in a North Easterly direction, stands Golden City, the only settlement to escape the flames. On the north side stood Pottsville, and according to the late despatches a little corner of it, known as Powell's Point, was saved.

There can be at least some certainty as to the loss in these centres, but far away from them, in the wilderness, where prospectors are alone, or in little groups, no one will ever know how many of them were in the path of the flames and how many were too far away from water to save themselves.

These secrets are buried in the ashes of the great fire, and other secrets which prospectors set out to discover are laid bare. The country has been denuded of the covering which hid its riches, but in revealing its treasures the elements exacted a frightful toll.

A rough and ready description of the district would place the area of the fire midway between Manitoulin Island and the mouth of the Morse River. For miles the country was covered with a thick growth of poplar and birch. It is low-lying, for the most part, and was carpeted with a thick, soft moss, from which sprang the luxuriant foliage characteristic of the Northern woods. In an exceptionally dry season, such as has been just experienced, this foliage is converted into masses of tinder which are piled about the birch trees with their paper-like bark, themselves awaiting a chance spark. It may have been the salvation of hundreds that the region is dotted with lakes and cut up by small streams.

The railway, which permitted the escape of many of the women and children, branches off from the main line of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway at Kelso. The right of way passes Golden City, and extends around the north side of the lake to South Porcupine. To the west are the properties of the Dome, the Armstrong McGibbon Syndicate, and further west again, on the borders of two smaller bodies of water, Gillies and Pearl Lakes, are the Hollinger, McIntyre, and Pearl Lake gold mines.

To the north is the Rea Mines camp. Throughout this Pearl Lake region there were numerous clearings, but eralized area there were miles of dense forest.

The settlements were connected with the towns of Porcupine Lake by an uncertain trail, which wound its way through the tangled underbrush and the slender poplar trees from the end of Steel at the big lake westward to the Mattagami River. For some distance west of Porcupine Lake, the flames appear to have travelled along this trail. The greatest damage occurred farther west. The Dome Mines the premier corporation in the Porcupine district, which was equipped as probably no other mining property ever has been in Canada, seems to have been swept by the flames. One hundred men are said to have perished here.

On West Dome, the adjoining property, which was being developed by August Heinze and some Toronto capitalists, R. A. Weiss, the engineer in charge, is dead, and his body, with those of his wife and child, lies at the bottom of the shaft in which the engineer sought safety as the wave of fire rolled over the surface. They were probably suffocated.

Near them, the body of Wm. King, a mine captain. Mr. Weiss had been a Heinze lieutenant for many years. He was a western miner, but had hoped to live out his life in Canada. He was a man of enormous physical size and possessed great strength.

The news of the death of Wm. Moore the prospector, appears to have been received at South Porcupine. No details have been received, and a thousand friends of the young prospector until more definite news is received, will hope there has been a mistake.

Starting at Gold City, the fire appears to have swept on still in a northeasterly direction into Cochrane, with its more solid buildings and better fire protection. These, however, appear to have been of little avail.

Cochrane is the junction point of the Toronto & Northern Ontario and National Transcontinental railways. It lies 500 miles north of Toronto, and has had every promise of becoming an important city. It is in the clay belt, a region of much agricultural promise, and the land is belted by a rich growth of fir, tamarack and other woods.

The place was founded less than three years ago, and had already a population of 2,500. In its centre is the beautiful Commando Lake, making not only a source of water, but of rest and recreation. Now a few scattered and scorched buildings mark the site.

Altered Pay Cheque.

Charged with increasing the amount of a pay check from $10 to $16, Yon Loyeresp appeared before Judge Lanctot this morning, and on pleading guilty was remanded until Tuesday for enquete. His excuse was that his wife had died and he needed the money.

Mountain Street Paving.

To the Editor of The Montreal Star:

Sir,—Preparations are being made to pave Mountain street from Dorchester down to St. James, leaving four old buildings projecting half across the roadway, two on the corner of Dorchester, one of the corner of St. Antoine, a Chinese laundry (wooden), Castle's old factory, and a "Shoe Shine Parlor." What sense or object in preserving these antiquities, which ruin the street? The same thing is seen all over the city, with improvements half completed, nullifying all the benefit.

The Controllers, apparently, have similar views to their predecessors, or they do not go about to see what is being done. Mountain Hill carries by far the heaviest traffic in the city, and the congestion is rank.

ORTIE McMANIGAL MAY NOT SURVIVE LOS ANGELES TRIAL

MacNamara Brothers Enter Pleas of Not Guilty to Nineteen Counts in Indictments Presented.

McMANIGAL HOLDS TO HIS CONFESSION

His Wife and Friends Reported to Have Urged Its Repudiation.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 12.—John J. and James B. MacNamara, alleged dynamite plotters, answered "not guilty" yesterday to nineteen charges of murder against them when, after they had spent ten weeks in the county jail, Judge Walter Bordwell had overruled every point advanced by the defence for the quashing of the indictments alleging their connection with the destruction of the plant of the Los Angeles Times, on October 1, 1910.

John MacNamara was the first to be asked how he wished to plead. He answered "Not guilty."

Hardly a minute later James B. MacNamara made a similar response to the same charge. Afterward they replied at the same time to the accusations. When nineteen murder accusations growing out of the Times explosion had been answered, John J. MacNamara stood alone and answered "Not guilty" to the charge of complicity in an explosion at the Llewellyn Iron Works in this city.

The defence asked that the date of the trial be not fixed until Joseph Scott, one of the MacNamara attorneys, could return from San Francisco.

The prosecution objected, but Judge Bordwell ordered a continuance until Friday morning, when the trial date will be settled.

McMANIGAL REPORTED ON VERGE OF COLLAPSE

Mrs. Ortie McManigal and her uncle, Geo. Behm, of Portage, Wis., shared the public's interest with the MacNamara brothers. Mrs. McManigal and her uncle came to Court directly from the jail, where the two made another effort, it is asserted, to induce Ortie McManigal, the alleged confessed co-conspirator to repudiate his confession.

Torn between conflicting desires to do as his wife wished and also to keep his alleged pledge to become a State witness, McManigal is said to be on the verge of collapse. The visit of McManigal's wife and uncle to his cell yesterday followed a similar call on Tuesday. Behm, who arrived here several days ago, reared McManigal from boyhood, and is said to have urged his nephew to do as his wife wished and remain true to his fellow-prisoners.

McManigal is said to have wavered but to have refused finally to desert the prosecution.

"I cannot do it" he is quoted as saying. "They will hang me if I do."

BABY SUTTON.

Mrs. B. SUTTON,
of 100, Clapham Park Road, S.W., writes:—

"When my little daughter was about two months old she did not thrive. Being unable to feed her myself, I tried various infant foods, but none benefited her, and she became so weak and ailing that the doctor was unable to vaccinate her, and I began to fear that I should never be able to bring her up.

"At last I tried Virol. From the first my girl seemed to improve, until now at ten months old she is as fine and bonny a baby as anyone could wish to see."

New York's Ice 'Trust' Under Fire

District Attorney and Police Will Investigate Methods of Knickerbocker Company.

New York, July 13.—The District-Attorney and the City Police to-day began investigations of the Knickerbocker Ice Company, which does by far the largest ice business here. The charge is that the so-called "ice trust" has withheld ice from independent dealers during the recent prolonged hot weather, in other words, conducting its business in restraint of trade.

Ice riots in the tenement districts, which occurred during some of the hottest days, when the poor found it almost impossible to procure the smallest quantities for their humble needs, had attracted attention to the situation and spurred the authorities to quick action.

BENEFIT TO CANADIANS.

Canada's London Rendezvous.

That the visitors' bureau at the Star's London Office is much appreciated by visiting Canadians, is made evident by the many expressions of enthusiastic approval directed to the Star from all parts of Canada.

The central and convenient location of the offices, in the heart of London's Canadian colony, is what appealed to Mr. Wm. Power, of the firm of W. & J. Sharples, Quebec, who writes:

Fearing Panic Mining Exchanges Close--A Sensational Rise in "Rails"

"RAILS" LEAP 158! "WOODS" AT 143 1-2, RIO WAS HIGHER

A sensational rise in Toronto Railway was a feature of the morning session, the stock opening at 152 and jumping to 158 on enthusiastic buying.

News from Toronto was scarce, but the market took it for granted, as stated yesterday, that there is a melon cutting campaign on, and that there certainly must be something better than an 8 per cent dividend in sight.

Rio was another strong spot, and worked up to 113¼ under an inspiring lead from London.

Lake of the Woods was higher at 143½ and it looks as if interests which have been after control will again make another effort to get the company and bring about a merger with the St. Lawrence. A pogramme which the late Mr. Meighen bitterly opposed

In Wall Street

A wire said: "A firm undertone gave an appearance of strength to the stock market during the morning session, but trading was listless and movements were small, except for a few issues, which were affected by particular influences. Good weather reports and lower quotations for grain and cotton improved the speculative sentiment. Trading was active in American Beet Sugar, and it went up 1⅞ to 54. Excited dealings in Porcupine mining stocks on the curb resulted from the fire."

J. S. Bache: The market shows a good undertone.

FEARING A PANIC MINING EXCHANGES ARE CLOSED TO-DAY

Owing to the Porcupine disaster, the Montreal and Toronto Mining Exchanges were closed to-day, and the Toronto Exchange will not open until Monday.

This action was due to fears of a panic among the speculators, but the action in closing was severely criticized by many, who felt that the Exchanges had only magnified the monetary loss.

Hollinger, which was fire swept some months ago, had little to lose, while Rea and the Bewick-Moreing camps escaped.

Hollinger opened at $12.50 but rallied to $13.75, while Rea was $5.65 to $5.75.

Some of the properties, the stocks of which are heavily held by speculators, were large sufferers by the fire; hence the closing of the Exchanges.

The question as to whether the Montreal Mining board will close to-morrow will be decided later by the members.

Some of the people carrying heavy amounts of the cheap stocks which have been extensively traded in lately were considerably worried to-day and were glad to see the Exchanges close.

By next Monday more definite news will have been received, and the people behind the different properties will know where they are at.

Among the properties to escape the disaster were the Jupiter, Pearl Lake, McIntyre, and Booth Armstrong. In the north the Doble and Scottish Ontario properties were not touched.

ONE OF MONTREAL'S RICHEST MEN.

The late Mr. Robert Meighen was one of the richest men in Montreal.

He was a large shareholder of C.P.R., "Soo," Bank of Toronto, Canada, North-West Land, Great Northern, Bank of Montreal, Lake of the Woods, and other concerns.

His interest in Canada North-West Land stock alone is worth over $1,000,000, while his land holdings in New Brunswick and Montreal were also extremely valuable.

Mr. Meighen's death had no effect upon the market, as he was purely an investor, and paid for everything he bought.

That his death may result in a change in the control of the Lake of the Woods Milling Co. is a possibility.

TOPICS OF THE STREET

We have to go back almost as far as the days of Napoleon to find a level to correspond with the present low price of British Consols.

The present quotation in consols is about equal on their 2½ per cent. interest to the old 3 per cents. at 94. At the present rate consols yield 3.19 per cent. to the investor, from which, however, must be deducted 1s 2d in the pound, income tax, and a surtax of 6d in the pound, on amounts in excess of $50,000.

The Star mentioned the other day that Consols advanced 10 points after the Battle of Waterloo and a reader supplies information which proves that French 5 per cents advanced 3 points after the battle.

The rise, he points out, was due to the belief that the defeat of Napoleon meant an era of peace.

One of the worst panics the Paris Bourse ever experienced came on the day the news arrived that Napoleon had escaped from Elba. The 5 per cents dropped 9 points.

It is strange how everybody has suddenly discovered that Toronto Railway can afford to cut a melon.

Not long ago the Star called attention to the stock when it was selling around 120. It was dead to the world. By herculean efforts a pool took hold and hoisted it a little, but few dreamed it could go where it is to-dayq.

Everybody now figures that Toronto is able to pay 10 per cent. with all kinds of ease.

A Montreal man who bought Toronto Railway at 125 in April, 1906 and carried it through the 1907 panic, when it saw 83, sold out in January this year at 126½, and was so pleased with himself that he celebrated with a dinner to several friends.

He is thinking of going into mourning again.

Quite recently the Yankees listed Virginia Chemical stock in Paris and this week the dividend was cut from 5 to 3 per cent. Then Wall Street wonders why American stocks are not popular with the Frenchman.

Porcupine is paying a high price for its gold.

THE LATE ROBERT MEIGHEN.

People around the "Street" to-day could scarcely believe the news of Mr. Robert Meighen's death.

Mr. Meighen has scarcely known a day's illness in his lifetime, and, while he has aged a good deal in the past five years in appearance, he still went about with his old-time vigor.

Only the day before yesterday he told the writer that he was standing the heat fairly well, although he had some trouble sleeping.

He was about yesterday as usual, but did not feel well, and went to bed shortly after he arrived home. He concluded that he was suffering from a minor stomach trouble, which had given him some annoyance during the past year.

Mr. Meighen's death leaves a big gap in Canada's industrial and financial ranks, and will be keenly felt all over the country. Apart from his business enterprises he took a deep interest in trade questions, and sounded the Chamberlain policy even before the famous English statesman announced it himself.

Columns could, and will, be written about this able and many-sided man, whose loss is deplored by a host of friends.

Export cattle are $5.90 to $6.10; export bulls, $4.50 to $5.00; butcher cattle, choice, $5.70 to $5.95; lambs are $10 to $11; calves, choice, $7 to $8.50; yearling lambs, $8 to $9.

FLOUR MARKET FIRM.

There continues to be a good enquiry from foreign buyers for spring wheat flour, and as the prices bid were in line with millers' views, in some cases sales of some round lots were made. The local market is firm under a continued good demand for the season from both local and country buyers. We quote prices as follows:

Manitoba spring wheat patents, firsts, $5.30; seconds, $4.80; Manitoba strong bakers, $4.60; Ontario winter wheat patents, $4.00 to $4.75; straight rollers, 90 per cents., $3.70 to $4.20; straight rollers, in bags, $1.80 to $2; extras, in bags, $1.60 to $1.70.

MR. R. FORGET HAD A CONFERENCE WITH SIR W. M'KENZIE

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, Ont., July 13. — Toronto Rails aviated again this morning, selling up to 158, having received an impetus from the arrival here from Montreal of Mr. Rodolphe Forget, M.P., who represents the Eastern interests in the company.

Mr. Forget had a talk with Sir William Mackenzie this morning, but after it was over, neither of them was in a loquacious frame of mind.

They said, however, that a meeting of the directorate would be held later, after which there might be an announcement, but as to what was on the tapis they woul dnot say.

Consols Up

British consols closed higher on 78⅞ for money and 78 15-16 for account.

J. M. M'INTYRE PRESIDENT.

Mr. J. M. McIntyre was yesterday elected president of the Canada Syndicate Limited, and Mr. J. W. Pyke vice-president.

"MEX" TRAM. FOR YEAR SHOWS GOOD INCREASE IN NET

During the year two quarterly dividends of 6 p.c. and two at the rate of 7 were paid, taking $939,581, leaving a balance of $894,066.52, out of which $250,000 was added to reserve account, which now amounts to $2,513,087.68, and $644,066.52 was carried forward.

The company is capitalized at $2,500,000, of which $500,000 will be held as treasury stock. The shares, which will have a par value of $5 each, probably will be listed at $2.50.

The directors of the new mine include: Mr. R. B. Watson, of the Nipissing and La Rose; Mr. W. S. Edwards, Mr. David Fasken and Mr. E. P. Earl.

SMALL ADVANCE IN MEAT PRICES.

At the Montreal Stock Yards, West End Market, the supply of live stock for sale this morning consisted of 250 cattle, 50 sheep and lambs, 600 hogs and 350 calves. The trade in cattle, sheep, lambs and calves was fairly active, and the prices realized were much the same as those quoted above. The demand for hogs was good, and prices ruled firm, with sales of selected lots at $7.50, and mixed lots at $7.25 per 100 lbs., weighed cars.

At the C.N.R. market, prices advanced ¼c per lb. The trade was fairly active, with sales of steers at from 5½ to 6¼c, cows at from 3½ to 5c, and bulls at from 3 to 5c per lb., as to quality.

The tone of the market for small meats was also stronger on account of the increased demand and limited offerings, and prices for sheep advanced $1 per head, with sales at from $4.50 to $6 each, and lambs were 50c per head higher at $3.50 to $4.50 each, while calves were unchanged at from $3 to $5 each.

QUESTION.

(N. Y. Journal of Commerce.)

The market has shown that it will not stay down. If so, what?

MONEY IS EASIER ON "STREET" DEAL

Money is easier in Montreal, due possibly to the belief that the Street Railway deal, as stated in th Star a couple of weeks ago, is nearing a settlement.

Bank England

The proportion of the Bank of England's reserve to liability this week is 52.13 p.c., against 45.30 last week.

FINANCIAL NOTES

Nipissing was offered at 10 to-day, with 9¾ bid. This is the lowest for a long time.

La Rose was 4⅛ bid, 4¼ asked.

Standard Oil stock was 648 to 652.

McDougall & Cowans quoted South African warrants at $780 to $785.

Bar silver in New York, 53 cents.

Bank of England rate unchanged at 3 per cent.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1 1-4 per cent. has been declared on Mexico Tram stock, payable August 1.

Wall Street stil insists that the corn crop is ruined.

Hollinger had its fire some months ago, and is now better off than those that escaped the first disaster.

J. W. Gates

Paris, July 13.—Although he had a relatively good night, the condition of John W. Gates this morning was less favorable.

Last evening the physicians said that the patient had improved somewhat, the congestion of the kidneys having relaxed measurably, giving ground for greater hope that he would survive.

COUNTRY CHEESE BOARD.

Madoc, Ont., July 13. — At the cheese board 540 cheese were boarded. All sold at 11 9-16c.

Woodstock, Ont., July 13. — Only seven factories boarded, the cheese make of July amounting in all to 7600 boxes. All the offerings sold on the board at 11 9-16c, being an advance of 5-16c over the sales of last week.

CHEESE MARKET STRONG.

Receipts of cheese were 6,536 boxes, as against 7,030 boxes for the corresponding day of last year. The local market is stronger in tone owing to the greater strength of country prices, and finest westerns are quoted at 11⅜ to 11¾c, and easterns at 11 to 11¼c.

MARKET FOR OATS STRONG.

The foreign demand for oats continues good, but owing to the sharp advance in prices in the West no business could be worked. The local market was strong, and prices advanced ¾ to 1c per bushel. There was some enquiry for round lots on spot, but notwithstanding the big stock held on spot here and the above advance in prices there were none offering.

75 PER CENT OF WHEAT CROP IS NOW HEADING OUT

Special to The Montreal Star.

Winnipeg, July 13.—The Free Press, in its special crop report issued on telegraphic advices from over two hundred points throughout the three western provinces, says to-day that, while crop conditions on July 12 are not quite so ideal as they were on June 14, the date of the last summary, they are in reality more satisfactory, because of the fact of being a whole month nearer the harvest, and, therefore, a whole month farther away from possible general catastrophe.

While on June 14th there was absolutely no damage to report, July 12 finds the crop with certain areas damaged and a small amount ploughed down because of lack of rain, while a small area, principally in Northern Saskatchewan, has suffered from too much rain. There are also reports of comparatively trifling damage from frost, hail and wire worm. Taking these areas of damaged crop together, they do not figure out at more than one per cent. of entire acreage of wheat, and possibly they are less than that.

Fully 75 per cent. of the wheat is in head, with 40 per cent. of the oats and about 50 per cent. of the barley, and about 40 per cent. of the flax is in bloom. Indications are that the harvest will begin in Manitoba about the end of the first week in August, and will be general by August 15. In Saskatchewan, the harvest will not begin before August 15, and will not be general before the 20th. In Alberta the harvest in the south will begin for winter wheat the first week of August, but in northern Alberta, even winter wheat will not be ready before the 15th, and the harvest will not be general before the 20th.

HEAVY RECEIPTS OF WHEAT IN STATES

Special to The Montreal Star.

Chicago, July 13. — The wheat market was a rather small affair, with prices ranging from about yesterday's close to ⅝c below it. Offerings were apparently free on rallies, latter caused principally by the corn market's strength, and some black rust and some unfavorable Russian crop talk.

Russian news was conflicting, and offerings of both Russian and Argentine wheat liberal.

J. F. PRITCHARD.

HOG MARKET IS FIRM.

Receipts of provisions were 3,300 packages lard, 2,032 packages tinned meats, and 126 boxes hams and bacon. A firm feeling prevailed in the market for live hogs on account of the small and good demand, and sales of selected lots were made at $7.50, and mixed lots at $7.25 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars. A good trade continues to be done in abattoir fresh-killed dressed hogs at $10.25 to $10.50 per 100 lbs. The demand for hams and bacon is good, and an active trade is passing.

BEWICK-MOREING CO. WERE VERY LUCKY

Bewick, Moreing & Co. had wires this morning from Porcupine stating that the residence and No. 1 and No. 2 camps on Pearl Lake escaped the flames, and also that the Rea was safe. When the wires were sent it looked promising for rain.

The Hollinger was not touched. Hollinger had its fire some months ago.

TWO HUNDRED MILLION BUSHELS SAYS SIR WM. WHYTE

"My early prediction of 200,000,000 bushels stands," said Sir William Whyte, vice-president of the C. P. R., who has just arrived from the West, to the Star, to-day, at the head offices of the company.

"That is, barring unfavorable weather conditions during the next three weeks, which are certainly not anticipated, and a scarcity of labor to harvest the crop when we get it, in respect of which matter there is decided uneasiness.

"My prediction, in fact, may be overtopped. Professor Shaw, of the Minnesota Agricultural College, and other experts, have been making minute examinations and report that my prediction, is a conservative one. This is allowing for the effects of a certain neglect of the soil in the Mennonite region.

"Just think," said Sir William, enthusiastically, "of what this crop will mean to the North West—to the whole of the Dominion.

"No wonder we are getting such a stream of immigration. Think of half a million a year—that is what it is coming to. Something like 400,000 already. Canada's fame is spreading abroad. But there is the question of help. This is very serious."

COARSE GRAINS.

American corn is much stronger, and sellers of No. 3 yellow are now asking 71c per bushel, ex-store. We quote as follows:

Oats, No. 2 Canadian western, 42⅛ to 43c; oats, extra No. 1 feed, 41⅞ to 42¼c; oats, No. 3 Canadian western, 41 to 41⅞c.

BALED HAY UNCHANGED.

There is no change in baled hay, for which the demand is fair for local consumption. We quote prices as follows: No. 1 hay, $13 to $14; No. 2 extra quality, $12 to $12.50; No. 2, ordinary hay, $10 to $10.50; No. 3 hay, $9 to $9.50; clover, mixed, $8 to $8.50.

ROLLED OATS ACTIVE.

The demand for rolled oats and cornmeal is increasing, and the market is more active with a firm undertone. We quote as follows: Rolled oats, $4.55 per bbl. do. $2.15 per bag; cornmeal, $3.10 to $3.20 per bbl.

RAILS UP TO 159 1-2 THEN OFF A LITTLE, R. & O. HAS A BOOM

Toronto Rails, Richlieu and Lake of the Woods were the afternoon features.

Rail moved up to 159 1-2 before there was any reaction, while Richelieu made 120 3-4. The stock was very erratic.

Lake of the Woods moved over the 144 mark for reasons stated in the first column o fthis opposite page.

The move in R. and O. was not unexpected as the stock has been widely tipped by the new interests and their friends.

Second German Ship at Agadir.

Berlin, July 13.—It was announced to-day that the German gunboat Eber is being sent to Agadir, Morocco, to maintain communications for the cruiser Berlin, and to relieve the latter in case she visits another port for coal.

This explanation indicates that the Berlin's mission to the southern coast of Morocco may be a prolonged one.

TRAGEDY OF WEST DOME HOLOCAUST SLOWLY REVEALED

Special to the Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—"We have taken every one out of Porcupine who wants to come out,' said Chairman Englehart, of the Temiscaming and Northern Ontario Railway Board this morning. "S B. Clement, chief engineer, wires that they have plenty of food and sleeping accommodation for all that are left. Only one thing is short, and that is bread, and they are arranging to forward this.

"Supt. Black, of the Railway, advises me that they have brought down three hundred from Porcupine last night, and delivered them at Liskeard and Haileybury. A car went through to Copper Cliff with nine of the Dome staff.

"All the dead accounted for so far are 87 and of these 11 were on the Dome property.

"Foreman Meeks, of the Dome property, is smoke blind, and his mother is seriously ill and not likely to recover.

"All settlers, about 150 families, between Matheson and Kelso have been burned out. They are now at Matheson with nothing left. Instructions have been sent to Supt. Black to take care of them and put Mr. Hough, recorder, in charge.

NO WAY TO OBTAIN ACCURATE FIGURES YET

"There is absolutely no way in which any accurate figures of the dead or the losses can be obtained at this time, or even approximately estimated," continued Mr. Englehart. "We have two trains running and women and children are getting the best of care and attention. Everybody is being carried to any place they want to go. It is a terrible fire, and with the responses, the people have made to the call for assistance, there will be likely rearrangements made for the future of the people who were burnt up there. This is a phase of the question which will receive our immediate attention. This matter can be taken up with the Board of Trade, immediately after the sufferers have been arranged for.

THINKS DEATH LIST HAS BEEN EXAGGERATED.

"While there is no way of estimating the death toll, I cannot but think that it is exaggerated," said Mr. Englehart.

"After the fire is out there will be no way of getting the number of dead accurately. If many have been burned in the bush, there may be nothing remaining, not even the bones. Mr. Black has been instructed to do whatever suggests itself to him and to help the people. Frederick Dane goes north to-night.

"This morning I received the welcome news that the T. Eaton Company, of Toronto, has shipped a carload of all kind of supplies, containing tents, blankets, stoves, utensils and everything that could be calculated to be of any use in an emergency of this character. They have placed two experienced men in charge and I have wired Superintendent Black to supervise matters so that everything will run smoothly. The Nasmith Baking Company will to-morrow morning send out one thousand loaves of bread, and the Shredded Wheat Biscuit Company will also ship twelve cases of their products to the sufferers."

Toronto Relief Committee.

The special relief committee composed of Mayor Geary, President R. S. Gourlay, of the Board of Trade; Treasurer Ellis, and Messrs. McKendrick and R. Home-Smith will confer at 11 o'clock every morning. At a special meeting this morning it was decided to have President Gourlay, pay a visit to the burned district as soon as possible, but that will not be before the beginning of the week.

It was decided also again to appeal to the fifty-two Boards of Trade throughout the Province of Ontario for assistance, in order that those who have lost everything may be able to start anew in their northern homes.

PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT WILL AID SUFFERERS.

The provincial Government will do all in its power, Attorney-General Foy announces, to aid the fire-stricken people of the North. The government railway will be utilized in conveying people from the zone of danger, and in transporting supplies to those who are rendered destitute. This action was resolved upon yesterday at a Cabinet meeting presided over by Mr. Foy, as acting Premier.

Chairman Englehart, of the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway commission, was authorized to take entire charge, on behalf of the Government, of the relief operations in the fire districts.

The sick and injured are to be taken on the trains free of charge, and the railway officials have orders to spend what money is necessary in their judgment properly to meet the emergency.

TENTS AND COFFINS BEING SHIPPED NORTH.

"Have you made any arrangements for tents and sleeping accommodation?" Secretary Morley of the Board of Trade, was asked to-day.

"We have been in communication with Col. Henniming, of the Headquarters Militia staff here, and he has expressed his sympathy for the people, and will get into communication with the Ottawa authorities at once with a view to giving one thousand tents from the military stores," was the reply.

"We have urgent calls from the north for caskets," said Mr. W. Eckhardt, of the National Casket Company, to-day, "and it was necessary for the railway to hold the train that leaves here for one hour this morning in order to get 30 caskets shipped by express to Porcupine and New Liskeard. That is a large order to be sent by express, but the orders are coming in still and about thirty more will be shipped on the next train.

"We have no intimation regarding the number of dead or the number of caskets that will be required. We were working here until 4 o'clock this morning, getting matters in shape so as to facilitate any urgent call at a moment's notice."

Mr. Edmonds, manager of the Christie Biscuit Company, when asked what they had sent, said: "We have made a cash contribution of $300, and we are sending 25 barrels of soda and other biscuits up to help out in the matter of food."

OTTAWA CITY VOTES $1000 TO RELIEF FUND.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, July 13. — The Ottawa Board of Control to-day is voting $1,000 to the relief fund for the Porcupine fire sufferers.

The Prime Minister to-day wired to the Mayor of Cochrane a message of sympathy in the loss of life and property occasioned by the forest fires.

LISKEARD WILL TAKE CARE OF ALL INJURED.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Liskeard, Ont., July 13.—The citizens of Liskeard have formed a relief committee and have wired Porcupine that they will take care of all injured persons, and, if notified, will make room for them in the hospital here. More provisions are also being sent north from New Liskeard for the sufferers in Porcupine. Hardy, an Englishman, fireman at the Dome mine, died at Golden City on the train on the way to the hospital.

FIRST BODIES ARRIVE TO-DAY IN COBALT.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Cobalt, Ont., July 13.—The first bodies to arrive in town from the Porcupine camp, victims of the recent holocaust, were those of James Webb and William McLaughlin, both men suffocated in the West Dome shaft. They came down on this morning's train,—a special which left the Gold Camp about midnight and arrived here at eight o'clock. On the train were upwards of 100 men, women and children who were coming out from the scene of Tuesday's catastrophe.

The two bodies were in charge of Jack O'Connor, a fellow-workman, who was off that day in Golden City, and hence missed the flames. He was out at the West Dome shaft last night, and stated that up to five o'clock the workmen had taken out eighteen bodies, including the bodies of Manager Weiss and Mrs. Bob Weiss and their little daughter, Mr. and Mrs. McQueen (head carpenter), and Mr. and Mrs. Burt (assayer.) The others taken out were miners.

At 5 o'clock last night there still remained between ten and twelve bodies in the shaft. The workmen took the bodies out by means of a chute. The ropes were tied around the bodies and then hoisted up.

Bob. Weiss, the manager of the West Dome, who met death in the shaft, had been in the camp since early this year, coming here from Colorado to look after the interests of F. Augustus Heinze. He was well liked and of a jolly nature. He was the biggest man in this North Country, standing over six feet in height and tipping the scales at 370 Pounds.

Mrs. Weiss and her daughter Errol had a narrow escape from death in March last, when they were forced to jump from a second story window at the Miller house in Kelso, when it was burned to the ground. They have been living at the mine ever since and met their fate with Mr. Weiss in the West Dome shaft.

BILLY MOORE DIED SAVING A FRIEND.

Among the tragedies of the day was the death by drowning of Prospector Billy Moore, of Cobalt, formerly of Ottawa. Moore was fighting the flames in South Porcupine. At the last moment he took to a canoe with Geo. Green, of Cobalt, and Jack McMurrich, a well known barrister. He might have been saved had he not returned to pick up Mervin Strain, a barber. After they had gone 300 yards, the overcrowded canoe upturned, and all were thrown into the water.

Moore seemed to be holding his own until he tossed his paddle to McMurrich, who was in difficulty. Just then the flames reached over their heads, and Moore sank. The others, except Strain, managed to reach the farther shore, after being an hour and a half in the water.

TWENTY-FIVE DEAD AT THE WEST DOME.

West Dome representatives in Toronto have received telegrams giving the total number of deaths at that property as 25, including Robt. A. Weiss, superintendent of the mine; Mrs. Weiss, and Miss Weiss.

They are burying the dead on the property. Those saved, so far as known, are Charles Mentzel, J. S. Tracey, and another named Fairfax. The loss is total, and the survivors have wired asking for funds to get out.

The total loss of mine equipment is estimated at close to $1,500,000, while the loss in time will be much more, as all these mines will have to practically cease operations until buildings are erected and plants purchased. The loss to the buildings in South Porcupine and Pottsville will amount to $500,000, which will bring the total financial loss of Tuesday's fire up to $2,000,000.

Imperial Mines Total Loss

Messrs. A. H. Crampton and Jos. Healey, manager and superintendent, respectively, of the Imperial Mines, returned on the special this morning from Porcupine, where they lost all their personal belongings as well as all buildings on the property.

The company suffered no loss of life, as all of the fifteen employes escaped safely. The party left the camp at twelve oclock as the flames were just reaching the buildings. In the party was Mrs. Harper, of North Cobalt, wife of the cook at the mine. She had to go a mile and a half cross-country, fleeing from the flames, until the right of way was struck. Then the entire party had to practically run four miles to South Porcupine.

MARVELLOUS ESCAPES FROM DOME MINES DESCRIBED.

Special to the Montreal Star.

North Bay, July 13.—Hundreds of refugees are arriving here from the north. Fifty coffins were sent north last night.

William Fowler, of 58 Harbord street, Toronto, who was in South Porcupine while the fire raged there, arrived here at 7.15, this morning. He reports that Andrew Gibson and Alexander Gibson, of 759 Manning avenue, are also safe.

"It was terrible," said Mr. Fowler, speaking to the Star. "It will be impossible for some time yet to say just how many lost their lives. I was with a surveying party six miles south of Porcupine when we were caught there with Andrew and Alex Gibson, of Toronto; William Taylor, of Haileybury; Silas Hands, of Porcupine; Alex. Bruff, and two other brothers.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Englehart, Ont., July 13—Deep gloom pervails throughout the entire camp, as one of the blackest fire calamities in the history of Ontario is gradually unfolded in official correctness, with reports gathered from every quarter where messengers can travel.

Bush fires are very numerous around the town. Carleton is surrounded by fire, and on Tuesday afternoon and evening eight people had a hard fight to save the town. Several farm buildings and saw mills were burned to the ground in the neighborhood, besides which many bridges were burned.

Elk Lake Reported Burned.

Special to The Montreal Star.

North Bay, Ont., July 13.—It is reported that Elk Lake has been wiped out by fire. Particulars are unobtainable, however, and the report is not confirmed.

A New Railway Folder.

The Grand Trunk Railway have just issued the first edition of a reconstructed compilation of their complete timetable in folder form. After careful thought and much labor this work has been turned out so that the travelling public may, with as little trouble as possible, readily turn to any information they desire concerning this extensive railway system.

The timetables not only include all the lines of the Grand Trunk Railway System, but a complete timetable of the lines of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

The index is so arranged that the name of any station can be readily turned to as the timetables have all been numbered, and the number of the station in which the timetable appears is given in the index opposite such station.

Information for travellers regarding sleeping car tickets, stop-overs, exchange of tickets, free side trips, etc., is given, and complete information as to baggage arrangements.

A series of condensed timetables are included in the folder over which is inserted an outline map of the route between the points given in these timetables.

A new map has also been included, which shows the Dominion of Canada and a portion of the United States from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and on which is shown the line of the Grand Trunk Railway System, the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and their connections.

A page is devoted to sleeping and parlor car tariffs, and another to the cab tariffs of the cities of Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, London and Chicago.

As much information as possible has been embodied in this publication, and the information has been so arranged as to make the contents as plain as possibly can be done with a railroad folder.

MEURLING GIFT TO MONTREAL FOR COURTEOUS ACTS

Mystery of Will to the Poor Cleared for Mayor by Lawyers of Dead Man.

Mayor Guerin who is in London has solved the mystery as to how Gustave Meurling came to leave $100,000 to the poor of Montreal, and how, in addition to this, he left an estate in France which will still further augment this big sum.

A letter was received to-day by the mayor's secretary, Mr. John Guerin, in which His Worship, states that the information given him was got from Messrs. Stibbard & Gibson, the London firm that drafted the will.

The details given to the Mayor by the legal firm in question are that Mr. Meurling's real home was in France. He was married many years ago to a French-Countess, a woman of considerable note, but after several years of married life they were divorced. Five years later Mr. Meurling married another French woman, but she died three years later.

At the time of his death he was seventy years of age.

Messrs. Stibbard & Gibson state that about a year ago the deceased, who frequently came to England to attend the races, came to them and after stating that he had considerable property, asked their advice as to how he should leave it, as he had never had any children. It was suggested to him that he should leave it to a London hospital which was interested in caring for children. In reply to this Mr. Meurling said that while he liked London, he did not know the English people sufficiently well to follow the advice. He further stated that while he lived in France he did not like some of the laws that had been passed by the Republic, and he certainly would not leave his money to any French institution.

Finally Mr. Meurling informed his lawyers that he had decided to leave his wealth to the poor of Montreal. Upon being asked his reason for this, by Mr. Gibson, Mr. Meurling then made the statement that many years ago he had lived in Montreal. While in that city he had been much impressed with the courtesy and kindness of the people, and he had also been pleased with the moral tone of the city generally. The firm therefore drew up his will accordingly.

In the letter received from the Mayor, His Worship states that this will has now been probated in England and that it is now a bona fide instrument. There now comes in somewhat of a difficulty, the Mayor explains, in regard to the French will. It appears that Mr. Meurling took a copy of the English will to Mentone France, where he lived in order to have his lawyers there make an exact copy of it; in other words, to make arrangements so his estates in France could also be handed over to Montreal. The Mayor states that he has written the French lawyers and they have replied that before taking any definite action in the matter they must have fuller instructions. "This being the case," the Mayor says, "I have decided to leave for Mentone at once. If possible I will get the whole matter straightened out before I return."

Naturally there was much satisfaction at the City Hall to-day when the above facts became known, and when it was realized that this fortune was not a myth after all.

MR. McLEISH WINS.

Secures Injunction and Gets Use of Princess Theatre.

Mr. George S. McLeish, formerly manager of the Princess Theatre, was to-day given an interlocutory judgment in his favor by Mr. Justice St. Pierre. Mr. McLeish asked for an injunction to restrain the Canadian Amusement from allowing the Howe pictures of the coronation to be given next week at the Princess theatre.

This was granted and the right to occupy the theatre is given to Mr. McLeish to exhibit colored views of the event.

THE LATE MR. MEIGHEN'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late Mr. Robert Meighen will take place on Saturday. Beyond this arrangement the hour has not yet been settled.

Special Notice.

THE FUTURE OF THE MILLING INDUSTRY IN CANADA.

Canadian wheat makes the best flour produced in the world. The millers of other countries, in order to meet the situation, endeavor to obtain Canadian wheat, but the users of flour, the bakers and housewives, are finding out that the best flour is not only made from Canadian wheat, but is milled in Canada. The demand for Canadian flour is so great that the mills are taxed to the utmost to satisfy the demand. There is nothing in the commercial world of a greater certainty than the future of the Canadian milling industry. This being the case, an opportunity to secure stock in a well managed and favorably situated flour milling company, is one that the careful investor will be quick to appreciate.

The Campbell Milling Company of West Toronto and Peterboro, has found it necessary to enlarge its outfit, and for this purpose has organized the Campbell Flour Mills Company, Limited, which will take over the entire existing business and erect new mills at Midland.

Campbell, Thompson & Company, 43 King street west, Toronto, are offering $300,000 seven per cent. commercial preferred stock in the new company at par, which carries with it a bonus of twenty-five per cent. commercial stock.

This stock is unusually attractive, and intending investors are advised to communicate with Messrs. Campbell, Thompson & Company. A prospectus will be mailed on request. Prompt action is desirable, as the stock is being subscribed rapidly. The books will be closed not later than July.

The management of the new company will remain the same as in the Campbell Milling Company.

ADVENTURER HERE OUTFITTING FOR ARCTIC TRADING

Catain Couch Does Not Think Hudson Bay Route is Paying Proposition.

While the good ships Pelican and Beothic, that nose their way through icy Arctic waters for the benefit of the Hudson's Bay Company, lie calmly in this port, it is a rather curious coincidence that their chief rival, the staunch Adventure, which is chartered by Revillon Freres, should also moor here and outfit for the coming season's campaign along the Labrador coast, through Hudson straits, then down the east coast of Hudson Bay and into the very heel of James Bay.

Here is real romance rubbing elbows with prosaic commerce, and there is sufficient material afloat in Montreal port just now to furnish plots and plans for a score of Ballantyne stories. What a chance for a boy to meet a man who had actually set foot in Ungava, who had met the ice drift from Fox Channel and had been held prisoner in August ice fields!

Captain Couch comes into the category of "jolly" as applied to mariners, and when he rests comfortably in his seat in the Adventure's cabin, yarns fall thick and fast, and seem like Clarke Russell stories come to life, and relieved by the humor of a Jacobs' tale.

Captain Couch has many set beliefs. He thinks, for instance, that fair Devon is the most beautiful country in all this wide world, that "Lorna Doone" is the greatest book ever written; that Newfoundland's men are handiest, and that the Montreal Daily Star is the finest paper in North America.

The Hudson Bay Route

A Devonshire man with twenty-five years' experience and life in Newfoundland, and many cruises in Arctic waters, Captain Couch has a wide knowledge of conditions in the great circle, and he is emphatic in his assertion that the Hudson Bay water route is not a profitable commercial possibility.

"The ice conditions are so uncertain, and they change from year to year," said Captain Couch. "Sometimes there is thick ice in August, and here is a photograph that shows the Adventure surrounded by ice at Port Burwell on August 11, 1906. Sometimes there is clear water on July 15, but more often there is not, but it should be a specially constructed vessel to brave the power of the ice fields. Now the Adventure is specially designed for that purpose, being built after plans of Mr. Alex. Harney, of St. Johns, Newfoundland. She was built at Dundee and engined at Dundee. Her frames are only fourteen inches apart and are further strengthened by pitch pine beams six feet apart. With all that she was once squeezed so tight that her sides were shoved in two inches, but not a plate parted from its fellow. You can imagine what such pressure would do to any ordinary craft. Her plates are 1 1-2 inches thick so that they can stand quite a strain."

Heroes of Trade.

Captain Couch had some interesting tales to tell of the growth of trading posts. For instance, a party of four set ashore at Port Harrison; an old country Frenchman, Armand Herodier, and a Canadian, F. C. Martineau, with two Esquimaux. They set to work, erected their house, and although there was not a sign of a native when the Adventure left them at their lonely post, yet when a year later the staunch craft poked her way in, there was a big party in sight, and a wealth of furs ready for shipment to civilized lands to be fashioned for my lady's comfort. Life in such a post will not want for adventure, but they needs must be hardy men to spend their lives so.

There is plenty of fur in the land yet, said Captain Couch, principally foxes, white and silver, and martens.

While on the subject of ice and weather, Captain Couch pointed to pictures of himself and the men with heads swathed in bandages. This he explained was as protection against the mosquito! It appears that there is always a bad season of about three weeks when these pests make their presence painfully felt and the northern skeeter is a sharp nipper.

The Adventure, as befits her name, has had an adventurous career. Five years ago she was employed by the Canadian Government and took supplies to the police forts at Fullerton and Churchill, and for four years has been charatered by Revillon Freres, and used in their fur trade enterprises.

FULL OF QUALITY NOBLEMEN CIGARS

Twin Brothers

"Things equal to the same thing, are equal to one another."

Euclid did not smoke, but we may deduct from his philosophy that the DAVIS' "NOBLEMEN" CIGAR, and the high grade "imported" cigar, are TWIN BROTHERS.

Because they are both made from the choicest Havana leaf, by skilled Cuban workmen. THE DAVIS' "NOBLEMEN" (2 for 25), is 50% CHEAPER because, being made in this country, it escapes the heavy duties which are imposed on "imported goods."

Prejudices are something like the spots of the Leopard—they are hard things to remove, but one trial of the "NOBLEMEN" will prove to the smoker that it is equal to any 25c "imported" cigar on the market.

"NOBLEMEN" size 2-for-a-Quarter.
"PANETELAS" size 10c straight.
"CONCHA FINA" size 3 for 25c.

NEW YORK EAST SIDE MOB GOT ICE BY RIOTING

Stormed Pier and Offices of Ice Company—Smashed Windows and Were Served.

Special to The Montreal Star.

New York, July 13.—Just as a cool fifteen-mile breeze from the ocean drove the thermometer yesterday and broke back of the heat wave, the poor people of the East Side tenements, driven frantic by their sufferings, attacked the ice piers along the East River front, and the demonstrations became riotous at several places.

The most violent outbreak was at the station of the Foster Scott Ice Company, an independent concern, at the foot of Statton street. This is the station where the bulk of the poor of the swarming Rivington street section are accustomed to go for ice in time of stress.

Shortly after 9 o'clock, a motley throng of women, children, and peddlers, crowded the pier, clamouring for ice. Many had been there since four o'clock, but had been put off. The report had spread that a full boat load of ice had docked there in the morning, and the crowd grew momentarily larger and more demonstrative.

When it was seen that a long line of waggons backed up at the dock were being loaded, a crowd of one hundred women besieged the company's office. "Ice, ice, give us ice!" they yelled, shaking their fists in the faces of the manager and his assistant and grabbing for tickets on the manager's desk.

The women were forcibly pushed back and buckets of water were thrown on them.

"You must wait till we load the waggons," announced the manager.

"Wehave waited since four o'clock" yelled one woman. "We cannot wait any longer.

"My child is dying," wailed another.

"My husband is sick. He may die if you do not give me ice," screamed a third. Then they broke the windows. After that they were given tickets to get ice.

Milk Price Up in Toronto.

Special to The Montreal Star

Toronto, July 13.—The Retail Milk Dealers' Association of Toronto, has decided to raise the price of milk to the consumer by giving 12 quart tickets for a dollar in bottles and 14 tickets in bulk, instead of 13 and 15 tickets respectively, as at present. The dry season and consequent short crops are given as the reason for the rise, which goes into effect August 1.

WARD LINE FIREMEN OUT.

Company Compromise Offer Refused by the Men.

New York, July 13.—About 1,000 firemen, stewards, and oilers of the Ward Line steamers were called out again to-day, following the rejection of terms offered by the company to its striking employes.

Assistant General Manager Macy said that the company's liner, Morro Castle, would be able to sail to-day as scheduled, despite the efforts of the men to tie up the line.

The Marine Firemen's Union, last night, ended a truce declared several days ago, rejected the advance in pay effected as a compromise, and held out their original demands, recognition of the union and $0 a month and 75 cents a day "grub money" for the freight steamer firemen.

Will Now Sue for Costs.

Judge Lanctot gave judgment in favor of the defendant in the case of Musco vs. Salviati. The latter had been arrested on the charge of altering a receipt. The Court considered that the evidence produced was not sufficient. Mr. Salviati has instructed his attorneys, Messrs. Pelissier and Wilson to take legal proceedings against Musco for the recovery of the costs.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL PUT THROUGH

Mechanics' Institute Building Sold for $350,000 to a French Syndicate.

St. James street property is in great demand and fancy prices are being asked and secured by holders. The latest big deal involves the sale of the Mechanics Institute building, corner St. James and St. Peter streets, to a French syndicate. Final decision will not be reached until next Tuesday evening, but it is almost a certainty that the offer will be accepted. The price figures out at the rate of slightly over $52 per foot, or $350,000.

The figure set on the property some time ago was $325,000, but an offer of this amount and another of $335,000 were subsequently withdrawn. The offer of the French group is considered a particularly handsome one, representing as it does a lump sum of cash that the board of the institute will find immediately available for their future projects.

That Dragged-Down Played-Out Feeling that comes to all of us at the close of a hot day can be banished utterly through he regular use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

This feeling of tiredness, its accompanying lack of appetite and your inability to sleep soundly and restfully simply show a neglected physical condition that could not exist if an effort were made to aid the system in keeping up the performance of its duties.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is a gentle and invigorating stimulant and tonic that influences for good every important organ of the body and brings restful sleep. It is a form of liquid food that aids digestion; when taken just before a meal it stimulates the mucous surfaces and little glands of the stomach to a healthy action, causing a sufficient flow of the gastric juice to digest the food, and it promotes perfect assimilation. It also excites the flow of saliva for the digestion of starchy food, preventing fermentation in the stomach and bowels.

All liquor dealers, or direct, $1.25 a large bottle. Medical booklet and doctor's advice sent free to any one who writes.

WIFE DYING AND CHILDREN STARVE

John Theriault charged with refusing to support his wife, who is dying, and his six children, who are on the verge of starvation, appeared in the Recorder's Court. Constable Lamount told a harrowing story of Theriault's alleged neglect towards his family. The woman is lying hopelessly sick at her home and the police are trying to place her in the home for incurables. Six young children are left to themselves and had been without food for some time when they were taken in charge by the S. P. C. to Women and Children a few days ago. Theriault was remanded for eight days while efforts are being made to place the wife and children.

As he was leaving the dock, Constable Lamount asked the $2.50, which the accused had in his pocket be taken away from him and sent to his wife. John said he would willingly give two dollars but would keep a half a dollar for tobacco. The money was handed to the Constable.

ANTI-FIGHT FILM DECISION UPSET.

Judge Morse Holds That Ontario Provincial Government Exceeded its Powers.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Toronto, July 13.—The Order-in-Council passed by the Cabinet of the Province of Ontario is not of sufficient force to stop the exhibition of the Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures in the city or province, according to a decision of Judge Morse.

The judgment is upon appeal from a decision of Police Magistrate G. T. Denison, convicting Alexander McLean of the charge of illegally exhibiting the fight pictures in Toronto.

At the time of the seizure McLean was under bonds of $10,000 to return the films to New York in good order.

Staff Inspector Kennedy, when asked what would be the result of the decision, said so far as he was aware no further attempts had been made to exhibit the pictures in Toronto. It was explained that the Province had the right to withhold or cancel the license of any moving picture operator or owner who did not comply with all the regulations of the province.

AIDED IN ESCAPE OF POLICE PRISONER

Mr. Recorder Dupuis Scores the Men Brought Before Him.

"I do not know what we are coming to," said Mr. Recorder Dupuis, in the Recorder's Court this morning, "I do not know what position to take. Half the time it is not the loafers who try to interfere with the police officers when they are in the act of arresting anybody, but some of the most respectable men in our city have been before me charged with assaulting the police and helping the prisoners to get away instead of lending help to the constable in effecting the arrest. This is the fourth or fifth case of a similar nature before me this week only. I am going to put a stop to that. Lock these men up in the cells. Sentence to-morrow."

H. Edlington and Henry Taylor were jointly charged with interfering and assaulting Constables Leveille and Lambert when the officers were arresting a man at the corner of Ontario and Bleury streets last night.

Mr, Guthrie Honored.

In honor of the 50th anniversary of his marriage, Mr. David Guthrie was entertained at luncheon yesterday at Melville's, and they presented him with a pure filled with gold as a mark of the high respect in which Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie are held.
