WHEREAS great frauds have been practised upon the inhabitants of this Province, by evil disposed persons, who have imported into the same, or manufactured therein, Spurious Copper, or Brass Coin, or Tokens, for the purpose of passing them, for a much higher value than they were intrinsically worth: Be it therefore Ordained and Enacted by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council, for the affairs of the said Province, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada," and it is hereby Ordained and Enacted, by the authority of the same, that no Copper, or Brass Coin, or Tokens of any description, except the lawful Copper Coin of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, shall be imported into this Province, nor shall any Copper, or Brass Coin, or Tokens, be manufactured therein, except under the authority of an express permission, to some certain person, body, politic or corporate, to import or manufacture the same, granted by and under the hand of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government; such permission containing a description of the Coin or Tokens to which it shall extend, the quantity thereof to be imported or manufactured, and the time during which such permission shall be in force; Provided always, that all Coins imported or manufactured as aforesaid, shall have the same relative value to the British penny or half penny, with those recently imported by the Bank of Montreal, under the sanction and authority of the Executive of the Province.

II. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all such Coin or Tokens as aforesaid, imported or manufactured in contravention of this Ordinance, shall be forfeited to Her Majesty for the public uses of this Province, and the person or persons who shall have manufactured or imported the same, shall, thereby, incur a penalty not exceeding five pounds currency for every pound troy of the weight thereof; and it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, on the oath of any credible person, that any such Coin or Tokens have been so unlawfully manufactured or imported as aforesaid, to cause the same to be seized and detained, and to summon the person or persons, or any one of them, in whose possession the same shall be found, to appear before him; and if it shall appear to his satisfaction, on the oath of any credible witness, other than the informer, that such Coin or Tokens have been manufactured or imported in contravention of this Ordinance, such Justice of the Peace shall declare the same forfeited, and shall place them in safe keeping to await the disposal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, for the public uses of this Province; and if it shall, in like manner, appear to the satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace, that the person or persons in whose possession such Coin or Tokens were found, knew the same to have been so illegally manufactured or imported, he may condemn such person or persons or any of them, to pay the penalty aforesaid, with costs, and may commit him, her, or them, to the common gaol of the District, for a period not exceeding two months, if such penalty and costs be not forthwith paid, or until the same be paid.

III. Provided always and be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Justice of the Peace, that the person or persons in whose possession such Coin or Tokens shall have been found, was not or were not aware of their having been so illegally manufactured or imported, such penalty may be recovered, by any person who shall sue for the same in any Court of competent Jurisdiction, from the owner or any one of the owners thereof, on the oath of any one credible witness, other than the person so suing.

IV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall also be lawful for any Officer of Her Majesty's Customs to seize any Coin or Tokens, which any person shall import or attempt to import into this Province, in contravention of this Ordinance, and to detain the same, as forfeited, to await the disposal of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or Person administering the Government, for the public uses of the Province.

V. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that if any such Coin or Tokens, other than the lawful coin of the United Kingdom aforesaid, shall, at the time this Ordinance shall go into force, be in the possession of any person, other than the owner thereof, such person may refuse to deliver the same, except upon a permission to that effect from the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Person administering the Government, who may, if he shall deem it advisable, make it a condition on which such permission shall be granted, that the person applying for the same shall immediately re-export such Coin or Tokens, in which case any duty paid on the importation thereof shall be returned to the owner, as a drawback, by the Chief Officer of the Customs, at the Port whence such exportation shall be made.

VI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the expiration of fifteen days from the time when this Ordinance shall go into force, no person shall utter, tender, or offer in payment, any Copper or Brass Coin, other than the lawful Coin of the United Kingdom aforesaid, or the Tokens of some one of the Chartered Banks of this province, or of the Banque du Peuple, or American cents, or such Coin or Tokens as may have been lawfully imported into, or manufactured in this province, according to the provisions of this Ordinance, under a penalty of the forfeiture of double the nominal value thereof; which penalty may be recovered, with cost, in a summary manner, on the oath of any one credible witness, other than the informer, before any Justice of the Peace, who may, if such penalty and costs be not forthwith paid, commit the offender to the common gaol of the district for a time not exceeding eight days, or until the same be paid.

VII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that one moiety of all penalties imposed by this Ordinance, (but not of the Coins or Tokens forfeited under the provisions thereof,) shall go to the informer or person suing for the same, and the other moiety shall belong to Her Majesty, for the public uses of this province.

And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the due application of all penalties and forfeitures received for Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be accounted for to Her Majesty, her heirs and successors, through the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's treasury for the time being, in such manner and form as Her Majesty, her heirs and successors shall direct.

IX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Ordinance shall not go into force, until it shall have been published in the Quebec Official Gazette and in the Montreal Gazette.

X. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Church Warden in office of every parish within this province, shall be furnished, as speedily as can be, with a copy of the said Ordinance in both languages, which he shall read, or cause to be read, at the Church door, immediately after Divine Service in the forenoon, the first Sunday after having received the same, and for every and for each neglect or refusal by the said Church Warden in office, to read, or cause to be read, the said Ordinance, on the day and in the manner above mentioned, he shall be subject to a fine of twenty shillings.

XI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Ordinance shall be, and remain in force, until the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty two and no longer.

CAP. VII.

An Ordinance to amend the Act passed in the thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, chapter nine, commonly called the Road Act.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend a certain Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the Reign of King George the Third, cap. nine, intitled, "An Act for making, repairing and altering the Highways and Bridges within this Province, and for other purposes;" Be it therefore Ordained and Enacted by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council for the affairs of the said Province, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intitled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada;" and it is hereby Ordained and Enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, it shall be lawful for the Grand Voyers of the several Districts of this Province respectively, to appoint one or more Deputy or Deputies, and him or them to remove, and appoint another or others, in their or his stead, as need may be; provided that such appointment or removal be publicly announced in one of the newspapers published in, or if there be none, then in one of the newspapers circulating in the District in which such appointment or removal shall be made.

II. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall also be lawful for the Grand Voyer of each District to appoint more than one, but not more than three Surveyors of Roads in each Parish, Seignior or Township, the extent of which, or the number of roads in which may in his judgment render such augmentation necessary, and also to increase to fifteen the number of Overseers, and Overseers' Districts in each such Parish, Seignior or Township; and it shall be lawful for such Grand Voyer forthwith to appoint such number of Overseers therein as may be requisite to complete the number of fifteen, and to appoint one Surveyor or two Surveyors therein, to serve until the next election of Road Officers for the place, and the persons so appointed shall be bound to serve as such, as if they had been elected and appointed under the authority of the Act hereinbefore cited.

III. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that during the continuance of this Ordinance, each Surveyor of Roads and Bridges, shall in the month of October, in the last year during which he is to serve, cause Overseers to be appointed for the two following years; and he shall do this in the place and stead of the Captain of Militia and in the manner prescribed by the Act last above cited, and shall make a return of his doings in this behalf to the Grand Voyer, during the fifteen days next after such election, and that if such election and such return be not made as hereby required, such Surveyor shall be bound without any judgment being necessary to that effect, to continue in office during the two years next following.

IV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Grand Voyer, or his Deputy or Deputies, shall make his or their tour of inspection, as provided by the thirtieth section of the before mentioned Act, twice in each year instead of once as in the said section is provided, viz:—between the fifteenth day of April and the first day of June, and the first day of October and the fifteenth day of November, in each and every year.

V. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the general biennial appointment of Surveyor of Roads, shall be made by the Grand Voyer, or his Deputy, in the course of the month of November.

VI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Grand Voyer or his Deputy shall, before making his tours of inspection, give notice in writing to each Surveyor, at least eight days before the time of such tour, of the day and hour at which he will make the same, instead of giving notice thereof in the Quebec Gazette, as by the Act hereinbefore cited, he was required to do.

VII. And whereas it frequently happens that two Parishes are under the charge of one Priest, or Rector, and that Divine Service is performed only once in a fortnight in each of them, or that there is no place of Worship in certain Townships or extra parochial places: Be it therefore further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the publication of Notices, required under the Act hereinbefore cited, or under this Ordinance, shall be valid, if made by or in the presence of a Surveyor or Overseer of Roads, for the place to which they relate, in any parish in which Divine Service shall be celebrated by the Priest having charge of the Parish in which such place is situate,—a notice in writing having also been posted by such Surveyor on the church door of the Parish or Township interested, or in default of a church, at the most public place in such Parish, Township, or extra parochial place.

VIII. And be it further Declared, Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that such Procès Verbaux only of the Grand Voyers, as relate to the objects mentioned in the ninth section of the said Act hereinbefore cited, that is to say: to the opening of a new road, or to changing the place of an old one; to establishing a new Bridge, or changing the place of an old one—shall be subject to the formalities required by the twentieth section of the said Act, and that in all other cases where the Grand Voyer, or his Deputy, shall draw up a Procès Verbal under any other requirement of the said Act, he shall be bound to enter the same in his Register, and to furnish an authenticated copy thereof to the Road Surveyor of the place, who shall publish it or cause it to be published, immediately after Divine Service, in the forenoon, on the Sunday or holiday next after he shall have received it, in the manner provided in the seventh clause, after which such Procès Verbal shall be binding, and have full force and effect in Law, according to the tenor thereof; Provided always, that whenever the Grand Voyer shall be called upon to abolish an old road, or bye-road, which may have become useless or burdensome to the public, the Procès Verbal which he shall draw up for that purpose, shall be subjected to all the formalities required by the twentieth section of the Act aforesaid. Provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Deputy and Deputies of the Grand Voyer in any County, consisting chiefly of Townships, to prosecute the homologation of Procès Verbaux before the three senior acting magistrates, residing within the said County, on any day and hour certain, not less than eight days after notice shall have been given by handbills, posted in the most public places in the Township or Townships, interested in such Procès Verbal, and stating the name and residence of the person or persons with whom a copy or copies of such Procès Verbal has been deposited for public inspection, and the names of the magistrates before whom the homologation of the Procès Verbal is to be prosecuted, and the place of their sitting: Provided also, that the senior of the three Justices of the Peace, before whom any such Procès Verbal shall have been homologated, shall deliver the same to the Grand, or Deputy Grand Voyer, by whom it shall have been prosecuted, with a copy of the judgment homologating the same, attested by him; and such Procès Verbal shall be enregistered by the Grand Voyer or his Deputy, and then transmitted by him, with a certificate of such enregistration, to the Clerk of the Peace for the District in which such Procès Verbal is to be carried into effect, to be by him filed and kept among the records of his office.

IX. And whereas the Act hereinbefore cited, does not determine the manner in which reparations are to be made, and that great diversity has consequently prevailed in the manner of making the same, and great injustice has sometimes been done thereby; Be it therefore further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that all public work, the cost of the ground taken, and of the Procès Verbal, shall be apportioned by the majority of the Overseers, in proportion to the extent of front of the lands held by the proprietors or occupants mentioned in such Procès Verbal; and that in any village, each building lot shall be assessed as one third of a lot of land, of three arpents in front, if there be any lands out of such village to be assessed in the same repartition, or according to the extent of front of each building lot, if there be no such lands to be so assessed.

X. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that whenever the Overseers shall be themselves unable to make any repartition required by law, it shall be lawful for them to employ a Clerk to prepare the same, and to add to the sum to be assessed the costs of such repartition, which costs shall be taxed by the nearest Justice of the Peace.

XI. And whereas by law, the work on roads and bridges, for which lands which have been abandoned were liable, are required to be performed by the proprietors or occupants of land in the Parish, Seignior or Township to whom such work is most advantageous, but who are frequently the poorest settlers, possessing lands in the most remote portions of such Parish, Seignior or Township; Be it therefore further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that in any such case, it shall be lawful for the Surveyor or Overseer for the place, to cause to be taken from any land so abandoned, any timber requisite for any fence, bridge, or causeway, for which such land is liable, and also to sell or cause to be sold as much timber, stone, or other material, from off such land, as may be necessary to defray the expense of making, repairing, or keeping up the roads and bridges, and to pay the contribution in money, to which such land may be liable.

XII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the persons, who shall have addressed a Petition to the Grand Voyer of any District or to his Deputy, for the purpose of obtaining a Procès Verbal of any kind, shall be bound to pay into the hands of the Clerk of the Peace for the District, on the day of the return of the Procès Verbal, the amount affixed by the Tariff as the costs due to such Clerk which shall be afterwards repaid to them, (after deducting the portion for which they are liable) by the Road Surveyor, when the Overseers shall have paid over to him the amount assessed for all the costs of the said Procès Verbal.

XIII. And whereas the said Act hereinbefore cited, provides only for the construction of Wooden Bridges eighteen feet in width: Be it therefore further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Grand Voyer or his Deputy, whenever he shall deem it more advantageous to the public, may order Bridges to be constructed of Stone or Brick, or Bridges on Trussels, of which he shall determine the dimensions.

XIV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the streets in the several Villages in this Province, shall be considered as the front Roads of the proprietors or occupants of lands or lots bounded by such streets, and such proprietors or occupants shall, with regard to the opening, keeping up, repairing, draining and levelling of Roads, the construction, repairing, and keeping up of Bridges, and to all obstructions and encroachments on the Public Highways, be subject to the orders, pains and penalties, and to the jurisdiction of the Justices of the Peace, and of the Grand Voyer, to which the proprietors or occupants of lands in the country parts are liable, or subject, for their front Roads or bye-Roads.

XV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the Road Surveyors, or the majority of them in any Parish, Township or extra Parochial place, to cause any portion of a Winter Road under their direction, to be beaten, after every fall of snow, of the width of twelve feet at least.

XVI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Grand Voyers and their Deputies shall have power to lay out or alter, conforming as far as it may be practicable to the laws now in force, any Roads or Bridges on any lands or lots, as they may deem necessary for the public advantage, and to cause the same to pass through, or along, or upon any land or lots, as they may deem the most advantageous for making such Roads and Bridges: Provided always, that when any Road shall occupy more than double the front of any such land or lot, the proprietor or occupant thereof shall not be held to the furnishing the ground, or the expenses of performing the work necessary for the said Road, beyond the extent of the said proportion, but the same shall be purchased and the work performed at the expense of the persons who may be held thereto by Procès Verbal: Provided also that no Road, so altered or laid out in virtue of the foregoing section, shall pass so as to injure any dwelling house or occupied building, or through any garden or orchard enclosed or cultivated as such for and during the preceding two years, without the consent of the owner or occupier thereof.

XVII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall and may be lawful for the Road Surveyor of any Parish, Township or extra Parochial place, to call by a sufficient notice, published at least eight days before, a meeting of all persons in such Parish, Township or place, held to contribute materials, or perform any labour on any Route, or Bye-Road, or Bridge, at which meeting such Road Surveyor shall preside, and take the determination of the said meeting, whether the contribution or labour to which they may be held by Procès Verbal, or by law, on such Route or Bridge, shall, for the season then ensuing, be publicly put up and adjudged on a day, hour and place certain to be then fixed, to the lowest and best bidder, engaging to contribute and perform all that is required in respect to the said Routes or Bridges; and to be liable to all the penalties which may be incurred during the period of the said engagement, for default of the performance of the contribution or work to which the persons intrusted were liable, and from which they shall and are hereby discharged during the term of such engagement, and the amount of the payments to be made to the person engaging as aforesaid, and the necessary expenses resulting therefrom, shall be apportioned among those held to the contribution or work to be done, according to the Procès Verbal relating to such Route or Bridge, and the Law.

XVIII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that Pilots, regularly licensed as such according to law, and continuing to act as Pilots, shall be exempt from service as Road Officers, as well in the capacity of Surveyors as of Overseers.

XIX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Town and Banlieue of Three-Rivers, shall be and they are hereby withdrawn from the control of the Grand Voyer, and placed under the immediate control of the Justices of the Peace resident therein, who shall appoint one or more Surveyors and Overseers for the Banlieue, for the Pief Ste. Marguerite, and for the district between the Town and the Ferry across the River St. Maurice, and the said Banlieue, Pief and District, shall continue to be governed by the Act hereinbefore cited, as amended by this Ordinance, but under the control and direction of the said Justices of the Peace; and all matters and things relative to the opening, widening, repairing, and keeping up the Streets, Lanes, Drains, Watercourses, Bridges, Aqueducts, Wharves, Squares and public places within the said Town, shall be subject to the Rules and Regulations, which shall be made by such Justices of the Peace, and sanctioned by the Court of King's Bench for the District of Three-Rivers, in the Superior Term thereof, and published by the Town Crier, at the usual places, and in the usual manner: Provided always that no such new street shall be opened or established, which shall not be at least thirty French feet in width.

XX. And whereas, by the said Act hereinbefore cited, it is, in the second and fourth sections thereof, Enacted, that there shall be made a ditch three feet wide, on each side of each and every front road, or bye-road, without distinction, and it frequently happens either that a narrower ditch would be sufficient, or that no ditch whatever is requisite, as in places where the road runs over sandy hills; Be it therefore, further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that the Grand Voyer shall, in his Procès Verbal, determine in what places ditches shall be deemed necessary, and what their dimensions shall be.

XXI. And whereas by the fifth section of the Act hereinbefore cited, it is Enacted, that whenever any new Bye-road shall be opened, the value of the cleared land only shall be paid to the proprietor, and it may happen that such bye-road may be opened through woodlands of great value, or on which the trees are reserved for the making of sugar; Be it therefore, further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that whenever any Bye-road shall be opened across any land, either wholly or partially covered with wood, the uncleared portion of such land, taken for such Bye-road, shall be paid for, as provided in the said fifth section.

XXII. And be it further Declared, Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for the Grand Voyer or his Deputy to order that, in places where the nature of the ground requires it, the Road shall be raised in the middle, so as to give a fall on each side, whereby the water may the more readily run off, and that the surface of the Roads between the ditches, or throughout the whole breadth thereof, shall be made and kept smooth as often as may be deemed necessary.

XXIII. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that a sufficient number of copies of the present Ordinance shall be printed and delivered to the Grand Voyers of the several Districts, to be by them forwarded to the Road Surveyors of the Parishes, Townships, or extra Parochial places within their Districts respectively, by such Road Surveyors to be preserved and transferred to their successors in office.

XXIV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that each and every person, who shall in any way offend against the provisions of this Ordinance, or shall disobey any order of the Grand Voyer or other Road Officer lawfully made under the authority thereof, or any Road Officer, who shall refuse or neglect to comply with the requirements of this Ordinance, shall thereby incur the penalty attached to a like offence, disobedience, refusal or neglect, by the Act hereinbefore cited and amended, and to be recovered, paid and accounted for in the manner provided, with regard to similar penalties, by the said Act.

XXV. And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that this Ordinance shall be and remain in force until the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and no longer.

ANNO SECUNDO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

CAP. IX.

An Ordinance to repeal so much of an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, of the twenty-fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Second, as directs the Period of the Execution of persons convicted of the crime of Murder, and for other purposes.

WHEREAS by an Act of the Parliament of Great Britain, passed in the twenty-fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, King George the Second, intitled, "An Act for better preventing the horrid crime of Murder," it was, amongst other things, Enacted, "that all persons who should be found guilty of wilful murder, should be executed, according to law, on the day next but one after sentence passed; (unless it should happen to be Sunday, and then, on the Monday following.)" And whereas it was by the said Act further provided, "that sentence should be pronounced in open Court, immediately after the conviction of such murderer, and before the Court should proceed to any other business, unless the Court should see reasonable cause for postponing the same; in which sentence should be expressed, not only the usual judgment of death, but also the time thereby appointed for the execution thereof, and the marks of infamy directed thereby for such offenders, in order to impress a just horror on the mind of the offender, and on the minds of such as should be present, of the heinous crime of Murder;" And whereas it was by the said Act provided, that after such sentence should have been pronounced, "in case there should appear reasonable cause, it should be lawful to, and for such Judge or Justice, before whom such criminal should have been so tried, to stay the execution thereof, at the discretion of such Judge or Justice; And whereas it was by the said Act provided, "that it should be in the power of any such Judge or Justice to appoint the body of any such criminal to be hung in chains, but that in no case, whatsoever, the body of any murderer should be suffered to be buried, unless after such body should have been dissected and anatomized; and every such Judge or Justice should and was thereby required, to direct the same either to be disposed of to be anatomized, or to be hung in chains, in the same manner as was then practised for the most atrocious offences;" And whereas, for the ends of Justice, and especially more effectually to preserve from irrevocable punishment any persons who may hereafter be convicted, upon erroneous or perjured evidence, it is expedient to alter and amend the said recited Act, in these respects; Be it, therefore, Ordained and Enacted by His Excellency the Governor of the Province of Lower Canada, by and with the advice and consent of the Special Council, for the affairs of the said Province, constituted and assembled by virtue of, and under the authority of an Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, passed in the first year of the Reign of Her present Majesty, intitled, "An Act to make temporary provision for the Government of Lower Canada," and it is hereby Ordained and Enacted by the authority of the same, that so much of the said Act of the twenty-fifth year of the Reign of His late Majesty, George the Second, as is hereinbefore recited, shall be, and the same is hereby repealed.

And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, that from and after the passing of this Ordinance, sentence of death may be pronounced, after conviction for Murder, in the same manner, and the Judge shall have the same power, in all respects, as after conviction for other capital offences.

J. COLBORNE,

Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforesaid, and passed in Special Council, under the Great Seal of the Province, at the Government House in the City of Montreal, the second day of March, in the second year of the Reign of Our Sovereign Lady Victoria, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, and so forth, and in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine.
