BRIGADIER-GENERAL WATSON HONORED WITH KNIGHTHOOD

Managing Director Of The Quebec Chronicle Is Now
Made a Knight-Commander of the Bath and Takes Title "Sir David."—Announcement in the London
Official Gazette.

SIR DAVID WATSON, K.C.B.

London, Jan. 13.—Special to the Chronicle—Among the honors to Canadians at the front issued to-night in the Official Gazette appears the name of Brigadier-General David Watson, of Quebec, Commanding Officer of a Canadian Infantry Brigade. Brigadier-General Watson is made a Knight Commander of the Bath, which means that his title now is Brigadier-General Sir David Watson.

Since he left Canada in November, 1914, as Colonel of the Second Battalion, Brigadier-General Sir David Watson, as he now is, has rapidly forged his way to the front, always having been one of the outstanding figures of the Canadian Expeditionary Force. At Salisbury his men had already made a name for themselves by reason of their efficiency and they were not long at the front before they were complimented by General Alderson who told them there was no finer battalion in the First Contingent. This reputation was further enhanced by the gallant and heroic stand which they made against terrible odds at the battle of Ypres. For his bravery and resourcefulness on that occasion Colonel Watson was mentioned in despatches. Later he was promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General and a few days ago he was again recommended by Field Marshal French for "gallant and distinguished service."

Prior to the war General Watson was in command of the Eighth Royal Rifles. He was one of the officers who figured in the last Coronation Contingent and also formed one of the party which in 1913 accompanied the Minister of Militia to the French war manoeuvres. On that occasion he travelled over much of the ground which has been the scene of much sanguinary fighting since the outbreak of the present struggle.

Brigadier-General Sir David Watson was born in Quebec on February 7, 1869, the son of William and Jean Watson. He was educated at the High School and married Miss Mary Browning. He has been connected with The Chronicle ever since he started on his business career and became Managing Director of this paper in 1901. He was elected President of the Quebec Associated Press in 1908 and went as a delegate to the Imperial Press Congress held in London in the following year. He received his commission in the Eighth Royal Rifles in 1900 and was promoted Captain in 1903 and Major in 1910.

He has always been a great all-round athlete and excelled particularly in lacrosse and hockey.

His new honors are not only a distinction for himself but also for the Ancient Capital which is proud to have such worthy representatives on the firing line to uphold its fame.

ARMISTICE BETWEEN AUSTRIA AND MONTENEGRO IS THOUGHT END OF THEIR UNEQUAL FIGHT

Montenegro Is Virtually Absorbed By Invading Forces—Austrian Control Of Adriatic Front Menaces Italy—Maritime Consequences In Eastern Mediterranean May Be Far-Reaching—Allied Occupation Of Corfu Excites Germans—Alarmist Rumors Concerning Kaiser's Health Continue To Circulate

London, January 13.—Another decisive stage in the Balkan situation has been reached, with Montenegro now following Serbia in virtual absorption by the invading forces. It was learned tonight that Austria and Montenegro had come to an armistice, this being construed as the last act of the little country after having its capital, Cetinje, dominated by the Austrian capture of Mount Lovcen.

Whether King Nicholas will continue the unequal struggle is considered doubtful here, but the accepted view among the best posted men in London is that Montenegro has practically passed under Austrian control. The chief significance of this does not lie in the small territorial acquisition, which is less than Serbia, but in Montenegro's Adriatic front, lying alongside the Austrian main offensive naval station of Cattaro, where, today's despatches announce, the entire Austrian fleet, including three Dreadnoughts, is assembled, and from which the recent naval raid was made against Italian transports going to the relief of Serbia.

This further extension of Austria's Adriatic front with the dominating naval centre of Cattaro is viewed as further tending toward the realization of Austria's object of making the Adriatic an Austrian sea and thus checking Italy's ambition to make it an Italian sea.

Italy had so much at stake that officials and diplomats had been waiting anxiously for the steps Italy would take to relieve Montenegro and at the same time avert another Austrian extension on the Adriatic. They were aware that Italy had once before prevented Austria from gaining territorial concessions from Montenegro near Cattaro by emphatically objecting to the treaty made in 1912. As Italy was then a member of the Triple Alliance, Austria reluctantly yielded to the Italian objection.

It was believed that dynastic reasons would play a part in Italy's assistance if Montenegro, as King Nicholas' daughter is the wife of the King of Italy, but help from that quarter did not arrive, as the Italian expedition was landed further south, in Albania, and has not been heard from since.

The London Times asserts that Italy's interests in Montenegro are as important as England's in the opening of the Dardanelles and that the prospective annihilation of Montenegro will have far reaching maritime consequences in the eastern Mediterranean.

The news of the Allied occupation of Corfu is said to have excited the greatest indignation in Germany, where the fact that Achilleion Castle to the German Emperor. It is said that the Emperor has sent a personal protest to the King of the Greeks, holding Greece responsible for any damage to German property.

The official communication from Constantinople asserts that the Turks knew well in advance about the Anglo-French plans for the abandonment of the last Dardanelles positions, and made preparations accordingly, but the fire from the French and British warships appears to have been successful in screening the retiring troops from the Turkish attempts to exact a heavy toll.

Rumors of the state of the German Emperor's health have again assumed an alarmist tone, but without authoritative backing. A Rome despatch reports that the Crown Prince has been summoned to a council to discuss measures in case the Emperor's illness is prolonged. An Amsterdam despatch attaches significance to the fact that the Emperor failed personally to read the speech from the throne at the opening of the Prussian Diet, and says that the Emperor repeatedly promised to be present at this function.

An Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company says:—"The Emperor is still a-bed suffering from his throat and a fever has set in."

The correspondent fails to give the source of his information, however. The only news direct from Berlin quotes the Tageblatt as saying that the "boil" from which the Emperor is suffering does not prevent his walking out.

FOREIGN OFFICE BLAMED.

London, January 14.—The Morning Post editorially draws attention to the blockade question, saying:

"There are at last hopeful signs that parliament is recovering from the mental catalepsy which was one result of the formation of the coalition ministry."

It blames the Foreign Office for making useless agreements with neutral traders, and adds: "We can only repeat that so long as the Foreign Office usurps the proper business of the Admiralty, so long will the war continue."

BRITISH AEROPLANES MISSING.

London, January 13.—Four British aeroplanes which were sent out from the British positions on the continent Wednesday have failed to return to their base, according to the official announcement given out tonight. The statement says:

"Last night the enemy exploded a mine near Givenchy, following up the explosion by a bombing attack, which was driven back. Today there has been some hostile shelling about Givenchy, but on the whole it was quieter than usual along the entire front."

"Four of our aeroplanes sent out yesterday have not returned."

BIG ESPIONAGE PLOT.

London, January 13.—The recent inauguration of a censorship upon both out-going and in-coming American mails has already produced results, according to officials, in the form of the revelation of a widespread espionage plot, which the officials declare, has amply justified the organization of the large department necessary to carry on the work.

According to evidence revealed by the opening of American mail, it is stated, an organization of spies has been sending information to an American branch which forwards it to Germany by various routes, chiefly by one through Holland.

IS KAISER'S ILLNESS SERIOUS?

London, Jan. 14.—4.15 a.m.—
An Amsterdam despatch to the Daily Express says:

"Anxiety in Berlin for the Emperor's health reached a climax when it was announced at the eleventh hour that, contrary to his intentions, the Emperor had not read the speech from the throne at the opening of the Diet."

"The ceremony of the opening of the Diet took place inside the palace, so that the Emperor need not leave the building. Therefore it cannot be said that he was merely remaining indoors as a precaution. This confirms the rumors that the Emperor's illness is serious but it is impossible to obtain further information."

How To Make Your Hair Beautiful

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment
Works Wonders, Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de composee) and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and 1-2 drachm Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on a soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find fine downy new hairs sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.

WOUND DEATHS EXCEED THOSE FROM DISEASE

COMPARISON WITH THE BOER WAR SHOWS REVERSAL OF RATIOS.

London, January 13.—Associated Press.—The ratios between deaths by disease and deaths by wounds are reversed in the present war as compared with the Boer war. In South Africa disease was responsible for a large percentage of the casualties, whereas in the trenches in France disease has been reduced to a negligible minimum. The wounds in the South African war were usually neat bullet holes, which looked as if made with bradaws, while in the present struggle not only have shells and bombs brought new and terrible kinds of wounds, but a highly cultivated soil full of micro-organisms such as tetanus, have added new dangers to the most trivial kinds of flesh wounds.

The difference between sources of casualties in the two wars was the subject of a lecture before the Royal College of Surgeons this week by Sir Anthony Bowlby, who attended the King during his recent accident in France. He laid the destructiveness of modern warfare to close range fighting and the use of high explosives. Shells have such varied effects that there are no typical shell wounds. Even rifle bullets tear the tissues badly, owing to their terrific velocity at short range. In Africa the bullets travelled half a mile or more and lost their force. Bombs and hand grenades throw up large quantities of the trench dirt, which enters the wounds and infects them with extreme rapidity. Men when wounded usually fall into mud and water in Flanders, or into the dust, if it is summer.

Sir Anthony said the building of communication trenches had, however, considerably lessened the danger of infection. In the early days of the war, before this means of passing under cover to the rear was tried, the wounded men had to be kept in the advanced trenches until night afforded some protection to the stretcher bearers, for any attempt to collect the wounded in day time drew the enemy's fire. One man he treated lay for ten days before he could be rescued and consequently lost both feet as the result of gangrene. Now the men are carried out of the trenches by means of chair stretchers which get around the corners. But men falling in front of the trenches have to be rescued at night as formerly.

Not only the time lapsing before aid is received, but the physical condition of the men due to lack of food, drink or sleep must also be taken into account in estimating their chances of surviving.

WHAT DYSPEPTICS SHOULD EAT

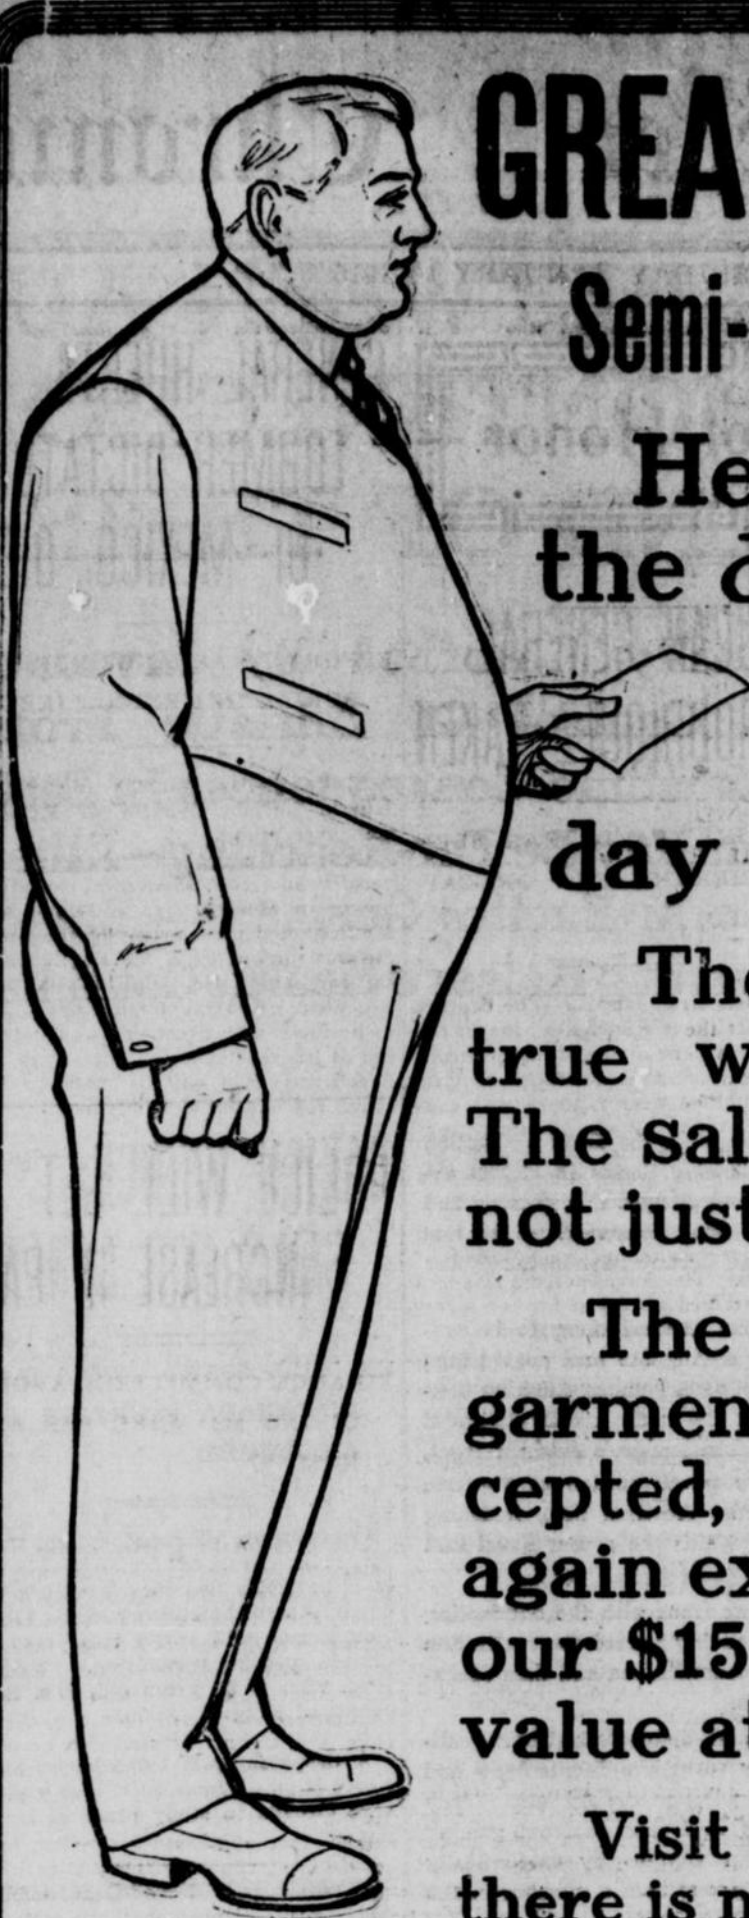

A PHYSICIAN'S ADVICE.

"Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are, nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Unfortunately, such a rule eliminates most foods which are pleasant to the taste as well as those which are rich in blood, flesh and nerve building properties. This is the reason why dyspeptics and stomach sufferers are usually so thin, emaciated and lacking in that vital energy which can only come from a well fed body. For the benefit of those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, I would suggest that you should try a meal of any food or foods which you may like, in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisurated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisurated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has no direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. As a physician, I believe in the use of medicine whenever necessary, but I must admit that I cannot see the sense of dosing an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs instead of getting rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisurated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisurated magnesia as directed above, and see if I'm not right."

DUTCH STEAMER STRIKES A MINE.

London, Jan. 13.—The Dutch steamer Maashaven of 2,609 tons, bound from Norfolk to Rotterdam, has struck a mine, according to a wireless message picked up at Scheveningen, forwarded by Reuter's correspondent at The Hague.

The crew is reported to have abandoned the vessel, which was still afloat with her fore-castle ablaze. Fourteen men were rescued by the steamer Goentoe, which also saved the Maashaven's papers, according to the despatch, while eight men were picked up by the steamer Juliana.

LEGISLATURE DISGUSTED WITH SEDITIOUS SPEECHFIRST TIME SUCH UTTERANCES HAVE BEEN HEARD IN THE HOUSE, SAYS HON. L. A. TAS-
CHEREAU—TELLIER SUPPORTS GOVERNMENT

The debate on the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne which was concluded in the Legislative Assembly here last night took an unexpected turn when the Nationalist member for Montmagny in a violent speech denounced Canada's participation in the war.

Hon. L. A. Taschereau.

Hon. L. A. Taschereau, Minister of Public Works, followed the member for Montmagny and roundly condemned his utterances. He hoped that the sentiments expressed by the Nationalist member would never get publicity across the seas. It was the first time that such utterances had been heard in the House and he hoped that in France it would never be known that they were made by a French-Canadian. He pointed to Australia, India and other colonies and said that he was proud to say that Canada was in line with them for the defence of the Empire. He believed that French Canadians should enlist and he was happy to state that they were doing so in large numbers.

The member for Montmagny—"When is the Hon. Minister going?" Mr. Taschereau—"The member for Montmagny is in the Militia. He should be at the front long ago."

Mr. Taschereau affirmed that if the French Canadians did not do their duty in the present war their position in this country would become untenable after the conflict.

Mr. J. M. Tellier.

Mr. J. M. Tellier, member for Joliette, and former leader of the Opposition, who is an intimate friend of the member for Montmagny, strongly applauded the remarks made by Hon. Mr. Taschereau, and rising said that he had not intended to take part in the debate but for the sentiments expressed by the member for Montmagny. He felt that the member for Montmagny had expressed his views sincerely, but he wanted to have it well known that he did not share those views in any way. He had applauded the Minister of Public Works and that meant that he approved everything that the representative of the Government had just said. He knew the cause for which the member for Montmagny was fighting but he had made no help that cause at all.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell, Provincial Treasurer, said that he felt it his duty as one of the minority in this province to take part in the debate after the expressions of the member for Montmagny. He hoped that at no distant date the French minority in Ontario would receive the same measure of justice as the English minority received in Quebec. He had travelled through the Province of Quebec and had found that the unanimous feeling was in favor of Canada's participation in the war. He thought that there were too many members for Montmagny in Ontario and if matters were left like their course without all the agitation it would be better for all parties concerned. He thought also that there was too much discussion in the Province of Quebec as to which nation among the Allies was doing the most.

Mr. C. E. Gault, Conservative member for St. Antoine Division, Montreal, thought that the Ontario difficulties would all be settled in time. Justice would be done where justice was due. He pointed to Ireland where all differences were set aside at the outbreak of the war, and considered that the same thing should be done here.

It was shortly before midnight when the debate closed and the address in reply to the Speech from the Throne was unanimously carried.

Throughout the afternoon and in the early part of the evening sitting the debate followed the course which it had taken on Wednesday. Speeches were delivered by Sir Lomer Gouin, Mr. A. Sauve, Hon. A. E. Caron, Mr. George B. Campbell, Mr. A. Philps, Mr. A. Bernier, Mr. Foster, and it was then that the member for Montmagny started all the trouble.

Sir Lomer Gouin.

The debate was resumed yesterday afternoon by Sir Lomer Gouin, who was greeted with prolonged applause as he rose and in his opening remarks he paid tributes to the memory of the late Jean Prevost and Sir Charles de Boucherville. He then turned to the speech delivered on the previous day by the leader of the Opposition. He said that Mr. Cousineau was mistaken in stating that the average salary of female teachers in the Province of Quebec was $180.00. The salaries averaged $245.

The Government had done much for education during the past ten years, and as a result one hundred new schools were being erected every year. The Province spent $1,700,000 for education in 1915, as compared with $400,000 in 1896.

OKUMA UNMOVED
BY THE ATTEMPT
UPON HIS LIFERECALLS EFFORT MADE TO ASSASSINATE HIM 28 YEARS AGO.

Tokio, Jan. 13.—Count Okuma was unmoved by the attempt made on his life today, and smilingly referred to the attempt made to assassinate him 28 years ago, when he lost a leg.

"They tried to kill me then and now they have tried again and failed utterly. Whatever happens I shall continue to do my duty to the Empire," said Count Okuma.

Secretary Kumatsu, who accompanied Count Okuma during the attack on him in 1888, was again with him last night. He has been appointed a permanent steward for bravery.

Owing to the lateness of the hour the streets were deserted and no one was injured. The houses in the vicinity of the explosion were not seriously damaged.

The outrage has caused a great sensation here, and much speculation as to whether it was attempted by some fanatic or was due to an anarchist organization. Count Okuma's withdrawal of his resignation as Premier last year is said to have created enemies for him.

NOT MANY DRUNKS
IN LONDON CITY.

London, Jan. 11.—In the area of London known as the "city," which was formerly surrounded by the walls of London and is now the financial center with only a small residential but a large working population, there is only one conviction a day for drunkenness out of one and a half million persons. This statement was made at a meeting of the city council by Sir A. Dower in behalf of the 420 licensed bars contained within these limits. His figures were based on police court records and an estimate of the number of persons working in the city during the day. There are only 20,000 actual residents. In view of this record of sobriety, the saloonmen asked the council to endorse a petition to the board of liquor control, asking for a relaxation of the present stringent rules. The bars pay local taxes amounting to $500,000 a year, it was said, and they suffer great hardship under the new rules. The council decided, however, that it was out of its province to endorse the liquor men's petition.

BRITAIN'S ATTITUDE
REGARDING BLOCKADE

London, Jan. 13.—The attitude of the British Foreign Office respecting the blockade of Germany is summed up as follows in the White Paper of January 4th:

The actions of the German government led to the adoption of more extended powers of intercepting German commerce in March, 1915. The Allied governments then decided to stop all goods which could be proved to be going to or coming from Germany.

"The state of things produced in effect a blockade adapted to the conditions of modern war and commerce, the only difference in the operations being that the goods seized are not necessarily confiscated."

MCBEATH MAYOR OF VANCOUVER.

Vancouver, B.C., Jan. 13.—Alderman M. McBeath, formerly one of the representatives of ward 7, was elected mayor of Vancouver tonight, over four other candidates. The following were the figures:

McBeath, 3,352; Kirkpatrick, 2,526; Hon. Joe. Martin, 1,919; Hepburn, 1,514; McNeill, 1,362.

Mayor McBeath, who was the youngest member of the old council, is the youngest mayor ever elected in Vancouver. He is president of the Northern Securities Company, and came from Allanford, Bruce county, Ontario, to Portage La Prairie, Man., then to Winnipeg, and then to this coast some years ago.

U. S. MAIL HELD UP.

None Has Been Received in Stockholm for a Week.

Stockholm, via London, Jan. 13.—10:35 a.m.—No American mail has been received here since Jan. 3. This fact has created speculation on the part of the newspapers as to whether the non-receipt of mail is due to its seizure by Great Britain or to a new American arrangement to send letters post only by Scandinavian steamers.

Great Britain's note regarding the stopping in transit by the Swedish government of parcels post for England and Russia was received today but will not be published.

The Dagens Nyheter's London correspondent interviewed a secretary in the British Foreign Office, who said that parcels of rubber seized by the British were destined for Germany by way of Sweden, but this statement is vigorously opposed everywhere here. The newspapers point out that according to the London Declaration rubber is not contraband, and that the strict export prohibition in Sweden would make such traffic impossible.

The British attitude in claiming that it is assisting the Swedish government to prevent smuggling is regarded here as a subterfuge.

Over forty thousand parcels for Russia are stored at Gothenburg. Twenty-three steamers loaded with timber for England are blockaded in the Sundsvall district.

MEXICAN GENERAL
RODRIGUEZ TAKENALL HIS BAND HAS BEEN EITHER KILLED OR CAP-TURED.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 13.—The capture of General Jose Rodriguez, one of the most prominent of the Villa Generals, by a party of 125 Americans and Carranza soldiers near Madera was confirmed tonight by the Mexican consulate here. The Americans and Carranza soldiers were commanded by Maximiano Marquez.

The consulate announced that all Rodriguez's band had been killed or captured. The advices from Madera also contained a request for reinforcements for Marquez and his men.

General Almeida also was among the Rodriguez band and has been executed, according to these advices. Rodriguez also had been ordered executed by General Gavira, commanding the Carranza garrison at Juarez, the consulate announced.

Early reports had connected Rodriguez with the Santa Isabel massacre, but subsequently passengers on the train from which the ill-fated foreigners were taken declared the attacking party had been commanded by General Reyna and Colonels Lopez and Beltran.

A messenger said to have arrived in disguise at the home of General Victoriano Huerta brought news of a defeat of 3,500 Carranza troops yesterday near Escorial by a Villa force under General Benjamin Argumedo, one of Zapata's lieutenants. The 5,000 men under Argumedo are said to have been raised in Oaxaca by Generals Blanquet Mondragon and Aguilar, formerly officers in Huerta's army.

The tense and bitter feeling aroused by the murders of foreigners in Mexico made itself evident in various activities among mining men and citizens here. Miguel Diaz Lombardo, former Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Villa cabinet and General Jose Prieto, one of Villa's commanders, were arrested on charges of vagrancy and this action was followed by an announcement by Captain W. D. Green, chief of police, that "every Villa leader in El Paso will be run out of town."

No further action was taken to the proposal to organize a body of 1,000 American mining men to run down Villa bandits. Sanction for the operation of such a body of men will be sought from the Carranza government before further action is taken.

STERLING BANK

TELLER ACQUITTED

Montreal, Jan. 13.—Leslie K. Kastner, formerly paying teller of the local branch of the Sterling Bank of Canada, was acquitted today by Judge Leet on the charge of stealing $2,850 from the Sterling Bank, but committed to stand trial on a charge of having made false entries in the bank books. Judge Leet said Kastner evidently had made the entries acting under the instructions of the accountant, J. J. Couchon, and may not have made them with criminal intent.

Couchon, the accountant, was held on a charge of stealing $2,850 and was committed for voluntary statement on Jan. 18.

Ald. Cote expressed himself in favor of voting the sum of $1,500 each to the Police and Fire Departments. Ald. Verret moved that the sum of $3,000 be voted in order to increase the pay of the policemen. Those in favor of his motion were: Ald. Paquet, Collier, Plamondon, Galibou, Martin and Lavigne. Against: Ald. Dussault and Cote.

London, Jan. 13.—The British steamship Clengyle, sunk in the Mediterranean on Jan. 2, was torpedoed without warning, according to a Havas despatch today from Marseilles.

The same despatch reports that the steamer Tafna, which arrived at Marseilles from Philippeville, escaped for the second time from a submarine by speed and clever manoeuvres.

Captain Chester of the Clengyle and 20 men of the crew were picked up by the steamer Mossoil, the despatch adds, while three Englishmen of the crew and seven Chinese were lost.

LEGISLATION TO EXTEND THE LIFE OF PARLIAMENTSPEECH FROM THRONE FORESHADOWS IT—WAR
MEASURES WILL OCCUPY THE COMMONS—SIR
ROBERT COULD NOT ATTEND OPENING.

(Special to The Chronicle.)

Ottawa, Jan. 13th, 1916.—Legislation to extend the term of the present Parliament for one year and for further co-operation by Canada in the defence of the Empire was foreshadowed in the Speech from the Throne at the opening of Parliament today. The speech, as expected, dealt with the war situation and with war measures exclusively. Such other legislation as will be brought down by the government will be directed toward meeting war conditions in Canada in their various phases.

No Tariff Changes.

It is not probable that the budget speech will be delivered as early as has been the case in the last two war sessions as it is understood there will not be any tariff changes. There will be legislation as already announced to facilitate borrowing by farmers on live stock.

Various notices of motion and of bills to be introduced were given today. Mr. Turfitt, the Liberal member for Assiniboia, intends to raise the question of the free admission of Canadian wheat into the United States market and has given notice of a resolution that in the opinion of this house in order to secure to the farmers and people of Canada the advantages of the American market for wheat products and potatoes, steps should be taken at once to put these articles at once on the free list in the Canadian tariff.

Ceremony is Brilliant.

Although the purely social functions which characterize the opening of Parliament under normal conditions are lacking this year, as has been the case since the war began, today's opening ceremony was marked by the customary brilliance. It had been feared that H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, a recent sufferer from grippe, might not be able to play the leading part in the inaugural function, but such anticipations turned out to be unfounded.

Sir Robert Still III.

Sir Robert Borden, however, although he will be in the House on Monday was unable to attend today. His place was taken by Sir George Foster. Accompanied by Members of his staff His Royal Highness arrived promptly at 3 o'clock and was received with hearty cheers by the crowd which had assembled on Parliament Hill. The mounted escort usual in other years and the firing of a royal salute were omitted today. Summoned by Black Rod, Members of the Commons, headed by the newly elected Speaker, Hon. Albert Severyn, repaired to the Senate chamber.

The session was duly opened with the traditional ceremonial. The setting was as beautiful as ever, the galleries being thronged with spectators, while ladies in evening dress, representatives of friendly foreign governments, members of the Supreme Court, and of the Senate occupied the body of the Chamber within the bar.

His Royal Highness, accompanied by the Duchess of Connaught occupied the Throne, at the right of which stood Members of the House of Commons and Headquarters Staffs and the acting Prime Minister, Sir George Foster. H.R.H. the Princess Patricia sat to the left of the throne with several ladies in waiting. The ceremony was

FALL OF MOUNT LOVCEN MAKES
ITALY ANXIOUSKING, FOREIGN MINISTER AND
PREMIER HOLD CONSTANT CONFERENCES.

Paris, Jan. 13.—"The news of the fall of Mount Lovcen arrived at a time when Albanian affairs were being heatedly discussed in political circles as the result of an article by Deputy Andrea Torre in the Corriere Della Sera," says a despatch to the Journal from Rome. "The article pointed out that Austria always aimed at northern Albania, while Bulgaria also desired Albania, being unable to get Kaval."

"Deputy Torre, in his article, said it was necessary to ask if the Entente in general and Italy in particular had considered this part of the Teutonic allies programme."

"It cannot be denied that the fall of Mount Lovcen has made a painful impression in Italy, the more so as Italy had frequently declared she would not tolerate the occupation of Lovcen by the Austrians, in view of the strategic importance of that position."

"King Victor Emmanuel, Baron Sonnino, the Foreign Minister, and Premier Salandra are holding constant conferences, and the cabinet is meeting frequently."

short, owing to the brevity of the speech from the throne but the speech itself was followed with unusual interest by members of both Houses. Parliament then adjourned until Monday when the Debate in the Address will begin. At the Speaker's receptions held after the opening of parliament Madame Landry wife of the Speaker of the Senate, was assisted by Mrs. T. S. Sproule and Mrs. Murphy, wife of Senator Murphy of Prince Edward Island, while Mrs. Severyn, wife of the new Speaker of the Commons, was assisted by Madame Casgrain.

QUEBEC, JANUARY 14, 1916.

HON. MR. SEVIGNY.

The formal elevation of Mr. Albert Sevigny to the Speakership will be generally popular on both sides of the House. His promotion has been rapid but well-merited, for although he has been four years at Ottawa, he quickly made his mark there, thanks to his ability as an orator, his devotion to his duties and the strong, sane stand which he has taken on all matters of vital national importance.

Mr. Sevigny is one of the most brilliant and most worthy representatives of the French Canadian race and, responsible and delicate though his new position may be, he can surely be counted upon to fill it with tact, justice and dignity.

THE GAME LAWS.

A movement to prohibit hunting during the month of September is said to be on foot. Most sportsmen will hope that it will not meet with much success. September is the ideal month of the year as it is the only one in which a man has the double privilege of fishing and hunting. For that reason it is the month when the majority of American sportsmen visit this province. But, should a ban be put on hunting during September, many of these visitors would probably go elsewhere for their sport. This would be a pity as this class of men leaves a good deal of money within our borders and employs a considerable number of men. Some of them have invested quite a little in camps and clubs. They should certainly be encouraged in every reasonable way to come to Quebec and patronize our hotels, railways, sporting and provision stores, guides, carters and what-not. Besides, they bring in a by no means inconsiderable revenue to our local government.

AUSTRALIAN CADETS.

We regret that owing to some incorrect information which we received the other day we published an article in these columns which we have since found out was far from being just to the Australian Cadets who recently visited Quebec. The impression which we were given was that the Australian Government had little or no connection with the tour and that it was more in the nature of a private speculation. We are now satisfied that that impression was erroneous and therefore hasten to correct it.

We are now satisfied that the tour had the official approval of the Australian Government. The parents of the cadets contributed a sum of $350 for each cadet and the various Australian governments guaranteed other expenses. All are members of the Young Australian League and they were picked out in different towns because of some special ability. All had undergone military training and, if their uniforms were bought in California, it was because they did not gather together until they were on board the ship which brought them to America.

Figures on the concert which the cadets gave at the Auditorium prove that a comparison between their contribution to the Red Cross Society and the amount realized by Miss Veda Macpherson is hardly fair in view of the fact that the Cadets were charged so heavily for expenses that only $39.00 was left over when all was paid. Of this half was given to the Red Cross.

We regret that our article which was published in good faith should have been based upon a misconception.

CONSCRIPTION.

All the Citizens of the British Empire will rejoice that the opposition to Premier Asquith's conscription bill has dwindled down to a negligible quantity. They will also be quick to praise Mr. Redmond for the assistance which he has given the British Prime Minister. All through the war Mr. Redmond has acted as a patriot and a statesman and his name will go down in history as one of the outstanding figures of his age.

Looking at conscription coldly, one finds that it is not altogether pleasant for the shirker. He finds himself in the position of having to do something which otherwise he would not have done. This is always galling to your true shirker, whose idea of justice and fair play is to let well enough alone. As long as he is comfortable, the rest of the people can go hang. It must be borne in mind that conscription is aimed directly at such men as these. There is nothing to prevent them going to war except a confirmed delirium for anything that savors of hard work or discomfort. They may be wealthy or they may be gutter snipes, but beneath the veneer they think alike. Independence means no more to them than being permitted to do as they like.

There comes a time in the life of every nation when the individual must shrink into insignificance. The nation itself, and the ideals for which that nation stands, are all important. Individual tastes must be forgotten in the common danger and every resource, whether public or private, must be strained to the uttermost. In such condition does Britain find herself. Germany, as a result of conscription, rendered herself sufficiently powerful to menace the happiness of the world. If the young men of Great Britain do not realize this danger for themselves, they must be taught what conscription really means and by the same token what life under German domination would be like. The measures introduced by Mr. Asquith are distinctly war measures. The need for them was created by the slackness of Britain's unmarried men in volunteering for active service. After the war, conscription will become merely a memory, made less bitter by the fact that it won where other means failed.

The opponents of conscription declare that it means the loss of Britain's greatest treasure, personal liberty. Perhaps so, but what does personal liberty of a few shirkers count for in comparison to the continued liberty of the British nation? Already British casualties are enormous, stupefying. Are we to let the personal liberty of the individual who does not want to fight make this sacrifice fruitless? Never!

Conscription may be bad and it may be against all our traditions of the sacred right of the individual, but it came near giving Germany the greatest victory in the history of the world. Without conscription, by the very ardor and determination of our volunteers, we have stemmed the tide, but conscription is needed to turn it and force it slowly back. So say the leaders of the government and if they do not know, who does?

They have cut out the fancy bread in Vienna but there is still a lot of fancy bred in Berlin!

Aside from its being a mediocre alteration will some one tell us what a "perfect passion" is?—Philadelphia Inquirer.

With pleasure! It is what Col. Roosevelt reads President Wilson's messages in.

The New York Tribune's editorial terming Britain's action in excluding the Irish from conscription as wise is along the right lines. Conscription may be needed in certain parts of the British empire, but no Irishman has ever to be made to fight. The little green Isle may have had its grievances against England in the past, but when danger threatens the old flag the Kellys, Burkes and Sheas and O'Learys are the first to pick up a gun.

Major-General Hughes has taken the first opportunity to deny that there is any foundation for the report that the Derby plan will be introduced in Canada, and he rightly contends that, up to the present at least, the voluntary system has been so successful in Canada that he sees no reason to believe that Sir Sam Hughes is sufficient of a democrat to precipitate some stirring times when any form of compulsory service is forced upon his department. It is one of the ambitions of the Minister of Militia, as we believe it is of the people of Canada, that Great Britain, during this war, shall receive support from Canadians to the capacity of our resources, and that without any semblance of compulsion. And when the war is over, it is the hope of every Canadian that this country will have performed a very substantial part in the defeat of Germany, with the assistance of an army of men, every one of whom voluntarily offered his services for that purpose.

Albert Thomas says that there are between thirty and forty thousand French women directly engaged in the manufacture of munitions, and the women workers comprise from one-fifth to one-sixth of the persons making shells and other ammunition in France today. It is really a large percentage, and one that has increased several hundredfold since August, 1914. "There is no part of a 75 shell a woman cannot make as well as a man. All this work"—pointing to the mysterious insides of a fuse—"can be done better by a woman, once she is trained to it, than a man. Why, in certain establishments women are carrying out the particularly ticklish job of charging the shells with high explosives. And at Lyons they have gone even further. Women are making complete shells like that one there"—Mr. Thomas indicated a 165 m.m. shell, the heaviest fired from a French field gun—"and are doing every bit of it, from moulding the steel to polishing up the finished product."

PRESS COMMENT.

Greece, because she was unable to make up her mind which way to strike, now faces the peril of being crushed helpless between the upper and nether millstones. Prompt action upholding her alliance with Serbia might have saved both countries; or early opposition to the Allies might have prevented her gaining foothold on Greek soil. However, bitter her fate now, there can be little sympathy with Greece, since she suffered Constantine to buy it with treachery.—New York Sun.

Sixteen months ago the State Department's Ancona note might have seemed to the American people to ring with the vibrant note of steel. But they have read many chapters of State Department rhetoric on the violation of international law, the slaughter of innocent non-combatants, outrages against civilization, inhuman and barbarous acts. The American people recall with shame how many months back it was that the Lusitania horror was committed, how frequently since then the rights of the United States have been defiled and the submarine crimes repeated. The American people recall with indignation how much our government has talked about it all, with no complete satisfaction ever given us; how, in Washington's dealings with those infamies, it always has been palaver, never power. And the American people, sick beyond endurance of talk that can never impress those who are guilty of the submarine piracy when nothing is ever done, cannot but think how, when after more than a year we have reached the stage where the submarine atrocities are only transferred from the German to the Austrian name, the end of the next year may merely see the same things done under the flag of the unspeakable Turk. Then, after another era of State Department notes, we may expect to see the Bulgarian colors run up over the undersea pirates for yet more of the old horrors.—New York Press.

Albert Ballin, director-general of the Hamburg-American Line, declares in an article in the Vossische Zeitung that one of the chief aims of the men, presumably Germans, who will be called upon to construct lasting peace is the restriction of armaments. Yet, despite his words, can Herr Ballin with consistency be reckoned now as in the ranks of those who properly and nobly demand that armaments hereafter be curbed? Hardly. Germany, of course, desires a world-wide restriction of armaments if she gains all that her imperialistic purposes seek. Having gained military success on land and having conquered much territory, she is ready to try to throw the responsibility for a continuance of the war upon her enemies and to urge the reduction of those very armaments which she built up for the purpose of conquest. Her position is precisely that of the Westerner who armed himself to the teeth in envy and fear of a prosperous neighbor with whom he had quarreled. Their dispute finally brought about a battle in the street of the mining town in which they lived. The well-armed belligerent soon disposed of his opponent, who had depended for protection on nothing more than a single Colt and enough cartridges to fill his chamber. "Now," said the victor, after assuring himself that his neighbor would stand no more in his way, "I suggest, as a man of peace, that every man in this town quit his foolish habit of carrying guns and leave them at home, only to be used to repel burglars." And he expressed horrified surprise when, instead of taking his advice, every man in town buckled on an extra revolver and replenished his cartridge belt. Later, when reaching for his handkerchief to mop the tears he was shedding over the sins of this militaristic crowd, his neighbors mistook his move as an attempt to draw something worse than a handkerchief from his hip pocket and proceeded to shoot him to pieces. This time he was not in a condition to make further suggestions, much less to do any explaining.—Financial America.

CALL 100 WOMEN

Ask them what they think of Zam-Buk and you will be surprised how many of them would tell you it is the best known healing balm, and that it should be in every home. A contest in "Everywoman's World" recently proved this! Women from coast to coast have proved by actual test that Zam-Buk is unequalled for the skin diseases and injuries of children as well as of adults. They have found Zam-Buk different to ordinary ointments in that it allays the irritation as soon as applied; prevents festering, inflammation, blood poisoning, etc., and permanently heals in a very short time. As a mother and head of a family you owe it to yourself to have Zam-Buk always handy! If you have not yet tried Zam-Buk, get a box at once. Druggists and stores, 50c.

ELECTORS MEET IN PALACE WARD

MR. MARCELIN PETITGREW IS CHOSEN AS THE MUNICIPAL CANDIDATE.

There was a meeting held last night at the City Hall for the purpose of choosing a candidate to replace Ald. L. A. Cannon, for No. 1 Seat, Palace Ward.

Present, Messrs. Louis Terreau, J. Dery, Pierre Jobidon, J. G. Couture, notary; Charles Pettigrew, Marcellin Pettigrew, Adolphus Pfeiffer, A. E. Seifert, Henri Fontaine, P. Whelan, Narcisse Morin, Eug. Trudel, Dr. Langlois, Eugene de Blois, Charles Cote, Jos. Turcotte, J. Montreuil, Jos. P. Ouellet, L. Ruel, E. Dion.

Mr. Charles Pettigrew was elected chairman. Gus. Montreuil, notary, was elected secretary.

The meeting regretted that Alderman Cannon has decided to withdraw from the municipal affairs, and then proceeded to consider who would be the choice of the committee to replace him.

Mr. Jos. P. Ouellet, architect, was unanimously called by the meeting to accept the candidature. Mr. Ouellet declined same, after having thanked those present, regretting his inability to accept on account of his professional requirements, which force him to be out of town almost half of the time.

He then moved that Dr. A. Langlois be a candidate, who also regretted he was unable to accept.

It was moved by Mr. Jacques Dery, seconded by Mr. J. G. Couture, N.P., that Mr. Marcellin J. Pettigrew be nominated. Which said motion was adopted.

Mr. Pettigrew thanked the meeting and agreed to run as a candidate.

The meeting then closed.

LETTERS FROM FRONT.

Captain Henri Chasse Whites From 22nd Regiment.

Capt. Henri Chasse, who is attached to Col. Gaudet's regiment, the 22nd French-Canadians now at the front, writes an interesting letter to L'Evenement.

Among other things he mentions the occasion of the visit of Brigadier-General Watson to the lines of the 22nd Battalion. He says:

"Yesterday, General Watson visited our officers. He was radiant and well pleased to see the gaiety which reigns here. He is very popular with us, because he has always a good word for the men. Near the trenches we have built several shelters for support companies and we have named this place 'Watsonville,' in honor of our Brigadier-General. On our right we did the same thing and gave it the name of 'Turnertown,' in honor of this popular General of the Division. I do not know if these improvised villages will remain after this war, but they will bring to mind the names of two brave officers who have brought great honor to our good old city of Quebec."

CIVIC FINANCE COMMITTEE.

In reply to an article published in L'Action Catholique a few days ago to the effect that the property of a certain religious community was forced to pay in taxes, more than some other religious institution of this nature. Messrs. Blais and Savard, city assessors, appeared before the Civic Finance Committee at a meeting last night and gave figures to show that the increased taxation on the institution in question was owing to the fact that more buildings had been erected.

33RD BATTALION IS ENTERTAINED

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH LADIES AID PROVIDES TREAT FOR SOLDIERS.

Last night in St. Andrew's Kirk Hall the Ladies Aid Society entertained about one hundred and fifty men, including several officers of the 33rd Battalion C. E. F. to supper.

The entertainment commenced early in the evening with supper and nothing was left undone by the President, Miss Scott, assisted by members of the Ladies Aid Committee and some twenty young ladies, to make the men feel quite at home. After the good things provided had been disposed of a fine programme of music, songs and recitations was presented which was thoroughly enjoyed. The Pipe and Drum band was in attendance and rendered a very fine selection. The Rev. Dr. Love presided over the entertainment and a short address welcoming the men and adding words of encouragement in respect to their future duty.

Captains Richmond and Sloan, on behalf of the regiment, returned thanks to the ladies for the hospitable treatment they had received and assured them that the event would long live within their memory.

The entertainment concluded with the singing of "Will ye nae come back again," in which all heartily joined in the chorus, followed by "Auld Lang Syne," and the National Anthem.

Tonight a similar number of the regiment will be entertained and a right royal time may be expected.

COUNCIL TO AID HARRIS ABATTOIR

WATERWORKS AND DRAINAGE SYSTEM TO CATTLE MARKET PROPOSED.

The vexed question of laying a waterworks and drainage system to the cattle market and abattoir which is to be erected by the Quebec Abattoir Co., in Limoilou, has at last been decided. Last night at a meeting of the Civic Finance Committee, Ald. Galibois proposed that the sum necessary for the work ($25,000) be voted subject to the ratification of the Legislature, also that the amount for this work be taken from the total sum which the City will seek authorization to borrow at this present session of the Legislature. Mr. Galibois' motion, which specifies that the work be started immediately, was carried unanimously.

Before this decision was reached His Worship Mayor Drouin and a number of Aldermen gave their views. The Mayor stated that by proceeding with this very necessary work during the winter it would give employment to a large number of laboring men, and tide them over the dull winter season. He remarked that the City's action last winter in providing work among local laboring classes did much towards relieving distress among the poor of the city.

Ald. Lavigne, Ald. Collier and other members of the committee expressed themselves in favor of Ald. Galibois' motion, providing the Abattoir Co. carry out its part of the contract in making an early start on the erection of the market.

Mr. Gosselin, the contractor, stated that he was ready to go ahead with the work eight days after the contract is signed.

VICTORIA CURLERS.

A general meeting of the members of the Victoria Curling Club will be held at the rooms of the club this evening at 7.45 p.m.

As this meeting will be an important one it is expected that as many members as possible will attend.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant: with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

CURIOUS CASE IN COURT OF SESSIONS

LIMOILLOU WOMAN CONTENTS THAT QUARREL BROUGHT ON PREMATURE BIRTH.

A peculiar assault case was argued in the Court of Sessions before Hon. Judge Langelier yesterday. The principals are two married women, residents of Limoilou. The plaintiff, Mrs. Paradis, according to the evidence, was so severely handled by Mrs. D. Matteo, that the rough usage she was subjected to brought about the premature birth of her child.

Mrs. Matteo declared on examination yesterday that on the day of the quarrel, ashes were thrown on the steps leading from the rear of her home, and thinking Mrs. Paradis was responsible for the contemptible act she asked for an explanation. The assault on the plaintiff followed, hair-pulling playing a prominent part in the mixup.

Judge Langelier condemned the defendant to a fine of $10 and costs. The fine and costs amounted to over fifty dollars.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

Yesterday in the Court of Sessions, Tancrede Boisvert, was condemned to pay a fine of $350 and costs, with the alternative of six months in gaol. Vincent Agriolo, a waiter, preferred a charge of vagrancy against his wife. A number of witnesses having been heard on both sides, Judge Langelier took the case en delibere.

ROSS RIFLE CO. SEEKS EXEMPTION

PROPOSAL TO PAY $2,000 ANNUALLY TO COVER WATER TAX.

A letter from the Ross Rifle Co., asking that instead of paying taxes, they be charged the flat sum of $2,000 annually to cover the civic water tax, etc., was read at a meeting of the Civic Finance Committee last night and the request in the main was received with favor, but final decision was left over until next week.

It was pointed out in the request that the Ross Rifle factory gave employment to upwards of fifteen hundred men with an average weekly pay-sheet of $36,000 and it was to the City's interest to encourage this important home industry. These facts were not disputed by the Mayor or any of the Aldermen present; rather they were upheld, all being unanimous that the City should do its utmost to support the Ross Rifle factory in the best possible way.

Ald. Collier, after dwelling on the importance of this industry to Quebec related how other industries could obtain tax exemptions without the least difficulty. He cited the arrangements whereby the Harbour Commission, C.N.R., and Transcontinental Railway were practically exempt from the payment of water taxes. In the case of the Harbour Commission they were supplied with water from the City for a very trivial sum, while they in turn charged for supplying this same water to vessels leaving the port of Quebec. The meeting favored exempting the Ross Rifle from paying taxes for ten years, but decided to leave the matter over until next week for final decision.

COMMERCIAL MEN TO FORM LEAGUE

MEETING TO ORGANIZE HOC-
KEY LEAGUE WILL BE HELD THIS EVENING.

A Commercial Hockey League is under way and its formation will be discussed and likely consummated at a meeting to be held this evening in the St. Roch's Hotel.

The Grande Allee Rink have been approached in the matter and have offered the teams suitable terms to play their games at the uptown rink, therefore, it is most probable that the schedule will be drawn up immediately upon the organization of the league tonight.

The teams which will be represented in the Commercial League are as follows: Canadian Northern Ry., Q. R., L. H. & P. Co., Public Service Corporation, Mechanics' Supply, Terreau & Racine and Samson, Filion Co. These firms or corporations have some good players in their employ and it is likely that a most interesting series will be arranged.

Two representatives from each club are expected to attend tonight's meeting.

BANKERS LEAGUE OPENS TONIGHT

TWO GOOD GAMES AT THE GRANDE ALLEE RINK.

The Bankers Hockey League will get under way at the Grande Allee Rink this evening when a double bill will be staged.

In the first game the champion Bank of Montreal team will meet their old rivals of La Banque Nationale and a great exhibition of hockey should result. Both banks have a generous supply of hockey talent who will look to their laurels this evening.

The second fixture on the card is the Canadian Bank of Commerce vs. Allies. The Allies are composed of the pick of the rest of the City Banks and this game should be equally as good as the first.

A large crowd is expected to find its way to the Grande Allee Rink this evening to witness the Bankers hand out "queer" checks.

M'LOUGHLIN AND BUNDY

MAY SELL ATHLETIC GOODS

San Francisco, Jan. 11.—Eastern tennis enthusiasts and officials are concerned, it was learned here today, over the prospect that Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco, who lost the national singles championship last summer, and T. C. Bundy of Los Angeles, who with McLoughlin lost the national doubles championship at the same time, are going to form a partnership and sell athletic supplies in Los Angeles.

McLoughlin said today he had received telegrams from Eastern officials expressing "regret" at the step and remarking that no rule "now" existed to make his proposed venture a bar to his standing as an amateur.

Officials of the Pacific States Lawn Tennis Association have expressed the view that the amateur status of the two should not be questioned. McLoughlin said he and Bundy were going ahead with their plans. Both are now real estate salesmen.

CHAMPION'S RINK STILL UNDEFEATED

BOSWELL SHIELD NEARLY CHANGED HANDS BUT DE-FENDERS WON.

The 3rd match for the Boswell Shield was played last night at the Victoria Curling Club between the now almost invincible defenders, W. S. Champion's Rink and Alex. Gorrie's Rink of veterans. The game was one of the keenest played in this competition, the Rinks being even up at the 11th end 9-9, the last end was a splendid exhibition of Curling, Champion, however, winning out by one shot.

The teams:—
Defenders: C. V. Norris, W. C. J. Hall, H. E. Price, Col. F. Lafferty, F. J. Home, C. W. Walcott, W. S. Champion, Alex. Gorrie.
Skip—6-10. Skip—6-9.
Won by W. S. Champion by 1 shot.

OFFER MADE FOR TEN-ROUND BOUT

TEX RICKARD TRYING TO BRING MORAN AND WIL-LARD TOGETHER.

New York, Jan. 12.—Tex Rickard, who staged the championship battle between Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson at Reno, July 4, 1910, is back in the promoting game. He has formed a partnership with Samuel McCracken, a circus owner, and offered $45,000 for a ten-round bout in New York City between Champion Jess Willard and Frank Moran. Rickard says Tom Jones, manager of Willard, has accepted a guarantee of $30,000, while Moran has expressed a willingness to tackle Willard for $15,000. The contest is scheduled for March 1 and, according to Rickard, articles will be signed in a few days.

When the promoters of the Willard-Fulton bout at New Orleans dropped out of the game, Jack Curley, who is associated with Tom Jones, held a conference with the Madison Square Garden owners, when the latter offered Willard $30,000, for two bouts at the Garden, but the conditions of the proposed contests did not meet with Curley's approval and he announced his intention of arranging a contest in the open air early in the summer between Willard and the winner of the recent Moran-Coffey bout. Curley left New York Tuesday night for Chicago, where it is understood he will see Jones and discuss the Rickard offer. As no articles have yet been signed, Curley may succeed in gaining Jones' consent to have Willard box in New York under Curley's management.

As Governor Whitman has prohibited boxing in armories, the only building in New York large enough for a big bout is Madison Square Garden. James Johnston, the manager of boxing at the Garden, stated yesterday that Rickard and McCracken could not rent the building if they succeeded in signing Willard and Moran. Rickard admitted that no building had been rented for the contest.

Chairman Fred A. Wenck, of the boxing commission, said he had no official knowledge of a ten-round bout between Willard and Moran, although he understood negotiations were under way. He explained that if Rickard or McCracken presents a properly executed letter for one year, for a building that would comply with all the requirements of the state athletic commission, he would issue a license.

Sporting Notes

The Survivors will meet the Bull Dogs at the Arena, Saturday. The Toronto boys are out to make a name for themselves by beating Quebec on their own ice.

But Quebec is resolved to lose no more and hope to start afresh, Saturday.

Evidently Newswy Lalonde was the aggressor in the mix-up with Hall in Montreal. The Mail says:—

Lalonde cross-checked Hall near the Quebec goal, and the latter fell to the ice with Lalonde on top of him. With everything in his favor, Lalonde immediately started to use his stick on Hall, and opened up a big gash over the "bad man's" eye. Big Mummery also took a hand in the combat, and was cut about the mouth, while Paddy Moran made a wild wallop at Lalonde. The officials benched Lalonde for the remainder of the match, while Hall drew a major penalty. Hall was not the only player that was hurt. Arbour, one of George Kennedy's recruits, was carried off the ice in the second period with a gash over his eye that required five stitches to close. While Producers was lifting Mummery's stick, Arbour was hit over the forehead.

The Bankers open their hockey exchange at the Grande Allee Rink tonight. All checks carefully scrutinized by the referee before being honored.

Ottawa are up against it. They have won two out of six games and they meet Canadiens in Montreal Saturday night and Wanderers in Ottawa, Monday night. If they lose both these games it will be a hard blow. It is up to them to beat Wanderers at home anyway for the benefit of all concerned.

Rusty Crawford is starting to find the net with regularity. But Malone and Smith are being closely watched.

Joe Malone's most effective scoring was done when in centre ice. Malone requires lots of room to work while Tommy Smith can stick-handle through a very congested area. Perhaps the team would score heavier if the men were shifted to the positions they held when the championship was won in 1913. Malone played centre, Smith left wing and Crawford right wing. Smith played left wing splendidly in 1913 while Crawford can make a better fist of right wing than Malone. Of course this is only a suggestion on our part but we think it worthy of a trial.

The coming game between the Discharge Depot team and the Pay Office of No. 5 Division is creating great interest.

"Cattell" the point man for Divisional Pay Office is a well-known South African Athlete and Hockey Player, having played for the "Scalpers," a Kaffir team in Zulu Land.—(Some ice down there).

The City League hockey race promises to be the greatest in the history of the local game. Sons of Ireland are tied with Montagnais for first place. And the Emmets, St. Patricks and Crescents are right behind. Laurentides have yet to win but are still in the ring.

There will be a big bartenders festival at the Arena on the 22nd.

Fancy Dress Carnival at the Arena Tuesday night.

Arena league games this evening should be interesting.

Saturday's game between Toronto and Quebec should be a good one. Harry Cameron is well worth seeing in action. He can travel some.

At last Toronto is beginning to see something in the six-man game. The Toronto News, says:

Six-man hockey, though it may be of the mongrel variety, is ten times better than the amateur brand as has been shown in the Senior O.H.A. hereabouts of late. There is not much sport in the proposition, which permits seven men to play against five or even four opponents. But that is what has happened several times locally. There should be a limit to the number of players that a referee can rule off at one stage of the combat. As it stands, now the presiding official can make or mar a match. This should not be the case. Nearly all the goals scored by the Battery last night were shovelled in when their opponents were short-handed. On Saturday the Argos tallied on three or four occasions when the Riversides were not at full strength.

NORWEGIAN COD LIVER OIL

We have just received direct from the Isdahl firm, Norway, our importation of Finest Non-Freezing 1915 Medicinal Lofoten Cod Liver Oil from the last catch of this season, and we can guarantee its quality and freshness.

This oil, in view of its great purity, is easily supported by the most delicate stomach.

Several oils, two or more years old, or extracts taken by two primitive methods, have largely contributed to create the belief that Cod Liver Oil is always repugnant to drink.

Such is not the case if the quality is such as we are offering.

We believe we are the only firm in Canada carrying the Norwegian oil of this season's catch, since the very high price and war risks have hitherto hindered the usual importation.

We also keep the Newfoundland Cod Liver Oil.

OFFICIALS DIFFER ON HUDSON BAY ROUTE

MARINE DEPT. SUPT. VERY PESSIMISTIC AND CANALS
DEPT. SUPT. OPTIMISTIC.

Ottawa, January 13.—The pessimistic report of Marine Superintendent Anderson, of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, as to the navigability of the Hudson Bay route, is not supported by the experience of the Department of Railways and Canals during the past year.

Mr. Anderson, it will be remembered, represented the difficulties attending navigation in Hudson Bay waters as very great, owing to the almost continuous presence of ice and fog. He estimated the season of navigation as something like two weeks and suggested the use of hydroplanes as pilot ships. A much more favorable report, from the marine superintendent of the Department of Railways and Canals, Capt. Webb, has reached Hon. J. D. Reid, acting minister, who is in charge of the operations in connection with the construction of the Hudson Bay Railway. Practically all the supplies for the building of the railway at the Port Nelson end and or the construction of the terminals at Port Nelson have been taken in by water by way of the route which Supt. Anderson condemns.

Dr. Reid has received the report of the departmental marine superintendent covering the navigation during the season of 1915. The vessels employed in the transport of materials and supplies were the Canadian Government steamers Sheba and Durely China; also the chartered steamers Bellaventure and Adventure. The Nelson hulk Benmore also made one voyage out to Sydney and back with a cargo of coal in tow of the Bellaventure. The Bellaventure and the Adventure made three voyages each between Halifax and Port Nelson; the Durely China and the Sheba two voyages each; and the quantity of cargo landed this season totaled 19,600 tons, not including timber. The ships were loaded to their fullest extent, and nothing was left behind at Halifax, Sydney or Montreal. Everything taken aboard was safely landed at Port Nelson and nothing lost except a small portion of hard pine from the foredeck of the Adventure during bad weather, which might happen to any ship on any route.

The marine superintendent said that the temporary lights used last season proved a great help to navigation, but recommends that a lightship in line with Nelson Channel replace the light on Cape Tapman, unless the latter can be made sufficiently powerful to cover a greater radius. He adds that when wireless stations are established, navigation will be greatly facilitated, and that the employment of an icebreaker is also important to safe navigation.

In conclusion, Capt. Webb notes a steady improvement in results, and has every reason to regard the progress made as satisfactory.

NEW YORK MARKET.

(Canadian Press).
New York, Jan. 13.—Efforts to lift the market out of its recent slough of depression by a concerted drive against the increasing short interests in special stocks proved abortive in today's bull and professional market. A few of the war order shares made sharp recoveries from low prices of yesterday, particularly Crucible Steel, which was helped by the company's favorable statement of earnings for December. Another encouraging development in that quarter was the report that the administration at Washington had registered its opposition to any legislation aimed at an embargo on exports of munitions.

There were numerous substantial gains in high priced specialties, including United States Industrial Alcohol Common and Pfd. American Coal Products and other issues of kindred calibre, but the movement in these stocks was plainly manipulative and excited no general interest. Copper's for a time displayed a better tone on unconfirmed rumors of export orders at the new high price of 24 1-2 cents.

During the mid-session the rise gathered further impetus from a demand for high class rails, including New York Central and some of the Pacific's as well as Chesapeake and Ohio, New Haven and the Southern group. Gains were largely, if not wholly wiped out in the final hour, when heavy selling of Mexican issues was resumed. Mexican Petroleum made an extreme decline of 6 to 110 1-2 and America Smelting dropped 3 3-4 to 103 3-4. The weakness of these shares was accompanied by many disquieting reports dealing with conditions in the southern Pacific.

United States Steel, which manifested an irregular tendency at the outset, fell away with other leaders toward the close, its final quotation of 85 1-4 representing a net loss of 7-8. Total sales amounted to 515,000 shares.

With the exception of Italian remittances, little falling to the new low record of 6.77, foreign exchange was fairly strong. Buying of bills on Germany continued, with marks at 76. International Bankers were reported to have received additional installments of American securities for sale in this market. The Bank of England's weekly statement showed no noteworthy changes.

Bonds were firm during the forenoon, with further heavy trading in Mercantile Marine 4 1-2's, New York Central debentures 6's. Total sales of bonds, par value, $4,320,000.

NEW YORK CLOSING LETTER.

McDougall & Cowans, Stock Brokers, No. 116 Mountain Hill, Quebec, "Phones 1402-1403.

New York, Jan. 13.—The bidding up of prices in a few of the industrials did not stimulate the general market and stocks developed a heavy tone in the afternoon. A little before the end of the session Mexican Petroleum and American Smelting and Refining broke sharply, although no news was received in regard to the Mexican situation. War order issues like Crucible and Baldwin which had been bid up more active on decline. A large amount of stock was received from England on the St. Paul which arrived yesterday and the offering of a portion of it for sale tended to depress the railroad list. Wall Street loans have been reduced but little as a result of the recent selling movement and the technical position of the market is little better than it was at the opening of the year. Sales to 3 p.m., 507,547; bonds, $4,356,000.

CLOSING MARKET LETTERS.

By private wire to Breen & Gourdeau, Stock Brokers, 63 St. Peter Street, and 6 Sault-au-Matlot "Phone 185.

New York, Jan. 13, 1915.—After a generally higher opinion in the stock market today quoted values developed a generally strong tone and in the further advance which followed a number of issues scored noteworthy gains. The market retained its strength until well into the afternoon when morning conditions were reversed, at least, so far as price direction was concerned. Under this wave of selling much of the earlier gains were not alone wiped out, but several stocks showed net losses on the day when the close was reached. A remarkable phase of the situation was entered in the fact that nothing in the way of news of market wide importance favorably or otherwise was announced to ascribe for the market's actions. Professional operations to a very large extent were held to be responsible for the day's transactions. While we have faith in the market's future, we continue to anticipate quoted value to hold to trading limits for the present.

QUEBEC LEGISLATURE

ium, the Premier said that had one been imposed in Quebec, the Province would have suffered in the way of provisions which had imposed them had suffered, that is, from lack of capital.

Touching on roads, Sir Lomer said that during the past four years the province had spent $14,000,000. This was not a record which deserved the reproaches of the Leader of the Opposition.

Speaking of the war, the Premier said: "We want final victory, and believe it will come," went on the Premier, "I would ask the Leader of the Opposition to credit us with that sincerity. He tells us that Liberal Deputy went to Two Mountains and told the electors not to enlist. He says that the Province of Quebec is looked on with suspicion because of bad declarations made in this Province."

"It is not a long time ago, only a few years ago, that the future Conservative deputies went through the Province, into every parish, and told the farmers that they must defy the Imperialism of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. I recall candidates who frightened farmers by telling them their children were to be killed and maimed in foreign lands, slaughtered on warships in the seas of China, etc. Such declarations were never made by Liberals in this Province or any other Province."

Sir Lomer then referred to a sitting of the Assembly in 1910, when a motion was moved by Mr. Prevost, seconded by Mr. D'Auteuil, regretting a patriotic speech made by Hon. L. A. Taschereau in Toronto. The Premier noticed in the list of Conservative members who had voted for the motion such men as Cousineau and Gault.

"Quebec has shown that it has always led for the cause and to help this cause, of liberty,—and if further demonstration of this fact is needed, let us be told of how we can show it, and the Province will do it," concluded the Premier.

Mr. Gault rose after the Premier, and said regarding his vote on the motion quoted by the Premier: "We all make mistakes sometimes, and that is a vote that I have always been sorry for."

He was heartily cheered.

Mr. A. Sauve.

Mr. Arthur Sauve, Conservative member for Two Mountains, who followed the Prime Minister, said that the Liberal Chieftain had affirmed a host of things, among which he declared that the members of the Opposition were constantly attempting to blacken the reputation of the Province of Quebec.

The speaker knew a Liberal leader who in 1892 had stated that the majority of the school inspectors of the Province of Quebec could not read, and still the Prime Minister resented the just criticisms of the Leader of the Opposition. The member for Bonaventure, in moving the address, had made a comparison between the regime of 1905 and that of 1915. Was it the intention of the present government to show how they had improved on the Parent regime. He thought that Mr. Parent must be very far gone when he did not call upon his friend, the Minister of Public Works, to avenge him.

One of the Principal boasts of the Prime Ministers was that the various public works which the Government were having done were undertaken without borrowing, yet he found in the Journals of the House records to show that nearly seven million dollars had been borrowed for various works.

Taking up the Government's road policy, Mr. Sauve said that a number of municipalities had been threatened with legal actions by the Government because they had failed to pay the interest on money advanced when at the same time the Government had entirely failed to pay their share of the work. He declared that the government sent incompetent inspectors and engineers without judgment, to look after the various works for the improvement of roads. The result was that the predictions of the Opposition were coming to pass today that the Government had undertaken this important work without system. How was it that the work in some municipalities had cost double the estimate and had proved so disastrous for the municipalities? The municipalities, he said, did not want the government to send fifth-class engineers to learn the practical end of their profession at the expense of the public.

Mr. Sauve asked the Government if it was not the case that the Department of Roads was busy last summer repairing the work already completed which had given out, and he said that certain engineers had been discharged by the Department.

Mr. Tessier: "It is not true." "That is an example of the good education of the Liberal Government," replied Mr. Sauve. "The answer was given by the Minister of Roads as is shown by the roads which he has built."

In his closing remarks Mr. Sauve asked the Government to institute an enquiry into the work which had been carried out on Provincial Roads and expressed the hope that the estimates would be brought down soon and not left until the dying hours of the session to be rushed through without consideration.

Hon. J. E. Caron.

Replying to Mr. Sauve, the Hon. J. E. Caron, Minister of Agriculture, expressed regret that the member for Two Mountains did not hesitate to misrepresent the Province of Quebec in order to attack the Gouin administration. Defending the administration in connection with agriculture, he pointed to the various medals which had been won and which went to show that the Quebec farmers were up to the spirit of the times. The government made good use of the Federal grant to agriculture, but the local government spent half a million dollars a year for agriculture.

After the adjournment of the House for dinner, Mr. Caron resumed his speech at the evening sitting.

He gave a detailed account of what had been done for agriculture since 1905. Speaking of agriculture exports he said that those of Quebec had reached $181,000,000, and Ontario with a larger rural population only reached $167,000,000.

Mr. George B. Campbell.

Mr. George B. Campbell, Conservative member for Pontiac County, was the next speaker and criticized the colonization administration of the Gouin Government.

Mr. Campbell said they hear a lot about good roads these days, but at Ames, which was the only important village at all in Abitibi, there were government roads which were worse than no roads at all. He said that there were 66 lots at Ames which had been located for over two years in a bush which had not enough clearance in it upon which a man could kneel down and say his prayers. He complained, too, that many colonization lots were not being held for colonization but for speculative purposes. He also gave figures to prove that there were a large number of French-Canadian families who were leaving Quebec to settle in Ontario, and he thought an explanation was due from the Government as to why this should be the case when colonization inducements here were supposed to be so good.

Mr. Andrew Philips, Liberal member for Huntingdon said that it was easy for the member for Pontiac to criticize, but much more difficult to suggest a constructive policy that would do better. He said that anybody could criticize, but independent critics raised their hats to the Gouin administration for the progress it had made in colonization and in good roads. Mr. Philips mentioned the road improvement of the Eastern Townships and said that people who came over from the States and Ontario admired the way this Province had set to work to improve its roads. He said he was proud to be a member of the Gouin Government, for everywhere the present administration was commended for its excellence.

Mr. A. Bernier.

Mr. Alphonse Bernier, Conservative member for Levis, referred in touching terms to the deaths which had occurred since the last session. Turning to the Gouin administration he told the Prime Minister he must not think he can defy public opinion in the Province of Quebec. He criticized the administration of the Montreal Technical School and said there were far too many professors for the number of students.

Colonization, he said, seemed to be dying rapidly since the Government had choked off the Prevost-Kelly investigation and settlers seemed to have lost confidence in the Government. He pointed to the state of affairs in the civic administration of Montreal and affirmed that the legislation which permitted such a state of things had been approved by the local Government.

He declared that the Opposition had done their duty and were ready to face the electors with a clear conscience and full of confidence in the results.

ITALIAN LINER STILL CARRIES HER GUNS

New York, Jan. 13.—The Italian Liner Giuseppe Verdi sailed for Naples late today with her two 3-inch guns still mounted on her after deck. She was permitted to clear up on the receipt of assurances that the pieces are to be used only for defense.

Word came from Washington today to the Collector of the Port, Dudley Field Malone, that the Italian government had given such assurances to the State Department and that the Verdi's clearance papers might be granted.

The Treatment of Influenza or La Grippe

It is quite refreshing these days to read of a clearly defined treatment for influenza or La Grippe. In an article in the "Lancet-Clinic," Dr. James Bell, of New York City, says he is convinced that so much medication is both unnecessary and injurious.

When called to a case of La Grippe, the patient is usually seen when the fever is present, as the chill which occasionally ushers in the disease, has practically passed away. Dr. Bell then orders that the bowels be opened freely with salts, "Aristol" or citrate of magnesia. For the high fever, severe headache, pain and general soreness, one soft-banana tablet every three hours is quickly followed by complete relief. As for A-R Tablets, these are also unexcelled for headache, neuralgia and all pains.
