Mr and Mrs Kenney will be at home to friends today from two to five and from seven to nine in the evening

Equity Welcomes New Reporter

This week Mr. William Kenney Sr. has joined The Equity as a reporter for the Fort Coulonge district. This is very good news for readers in that vicinity as well as for the rest of the people of Pontiac County who have been wondering what is going on up there since Rev. Younger-Lewis moved to Carleton Place.

This is also great news for this newspaper in its current efforts to build up a better coverage of the County. With the old standby's Mrs. Maud Bailey of Maryland, Mrs. Earl Findlay of Bristol, Len Coyne of Bryson, the recent addition of W. T. Mousseau in Campbell's Bay and now Mr. Kenney in Fort Coulonge, we are assured good news stories from these places and urge readers to report all their news to these people.

The Equity still needs reporters in Quyon, Beechgrove, Ladysmith, Otter Lake, Chapeau, Davidson, Waltham and a number of other places and will welcome any offers or suggestions to fill these positions.

Fort Coulonge Council Buys New Fire Truck & Equipment

At the regular meeting of the Fort Coulonge Municipal Council, March meeting, it was decided to purchase additional and new fire fighting equipment, comprising of a new fire truck, hose, ladder, motor pump, etc.

The expenditure of approximately $16,000 is involved in this transaction, part of which is taken care of by the Quebec government grant.

Following the move of purchasing the very much needed equipment, the council cast about for a suitable location for housing the equipment, as present quarters are not adequate, and at a subsequent special meeting held last week arrangements were made at which the White Rose garage, owned and operated by Mr. Everett Courtney is to be taken over by the Village Corporation and the premises altered to take care of the new purchase. This will be used as a fire hall and town equipment depot.

This Is The Crop Which Needs No Middleman

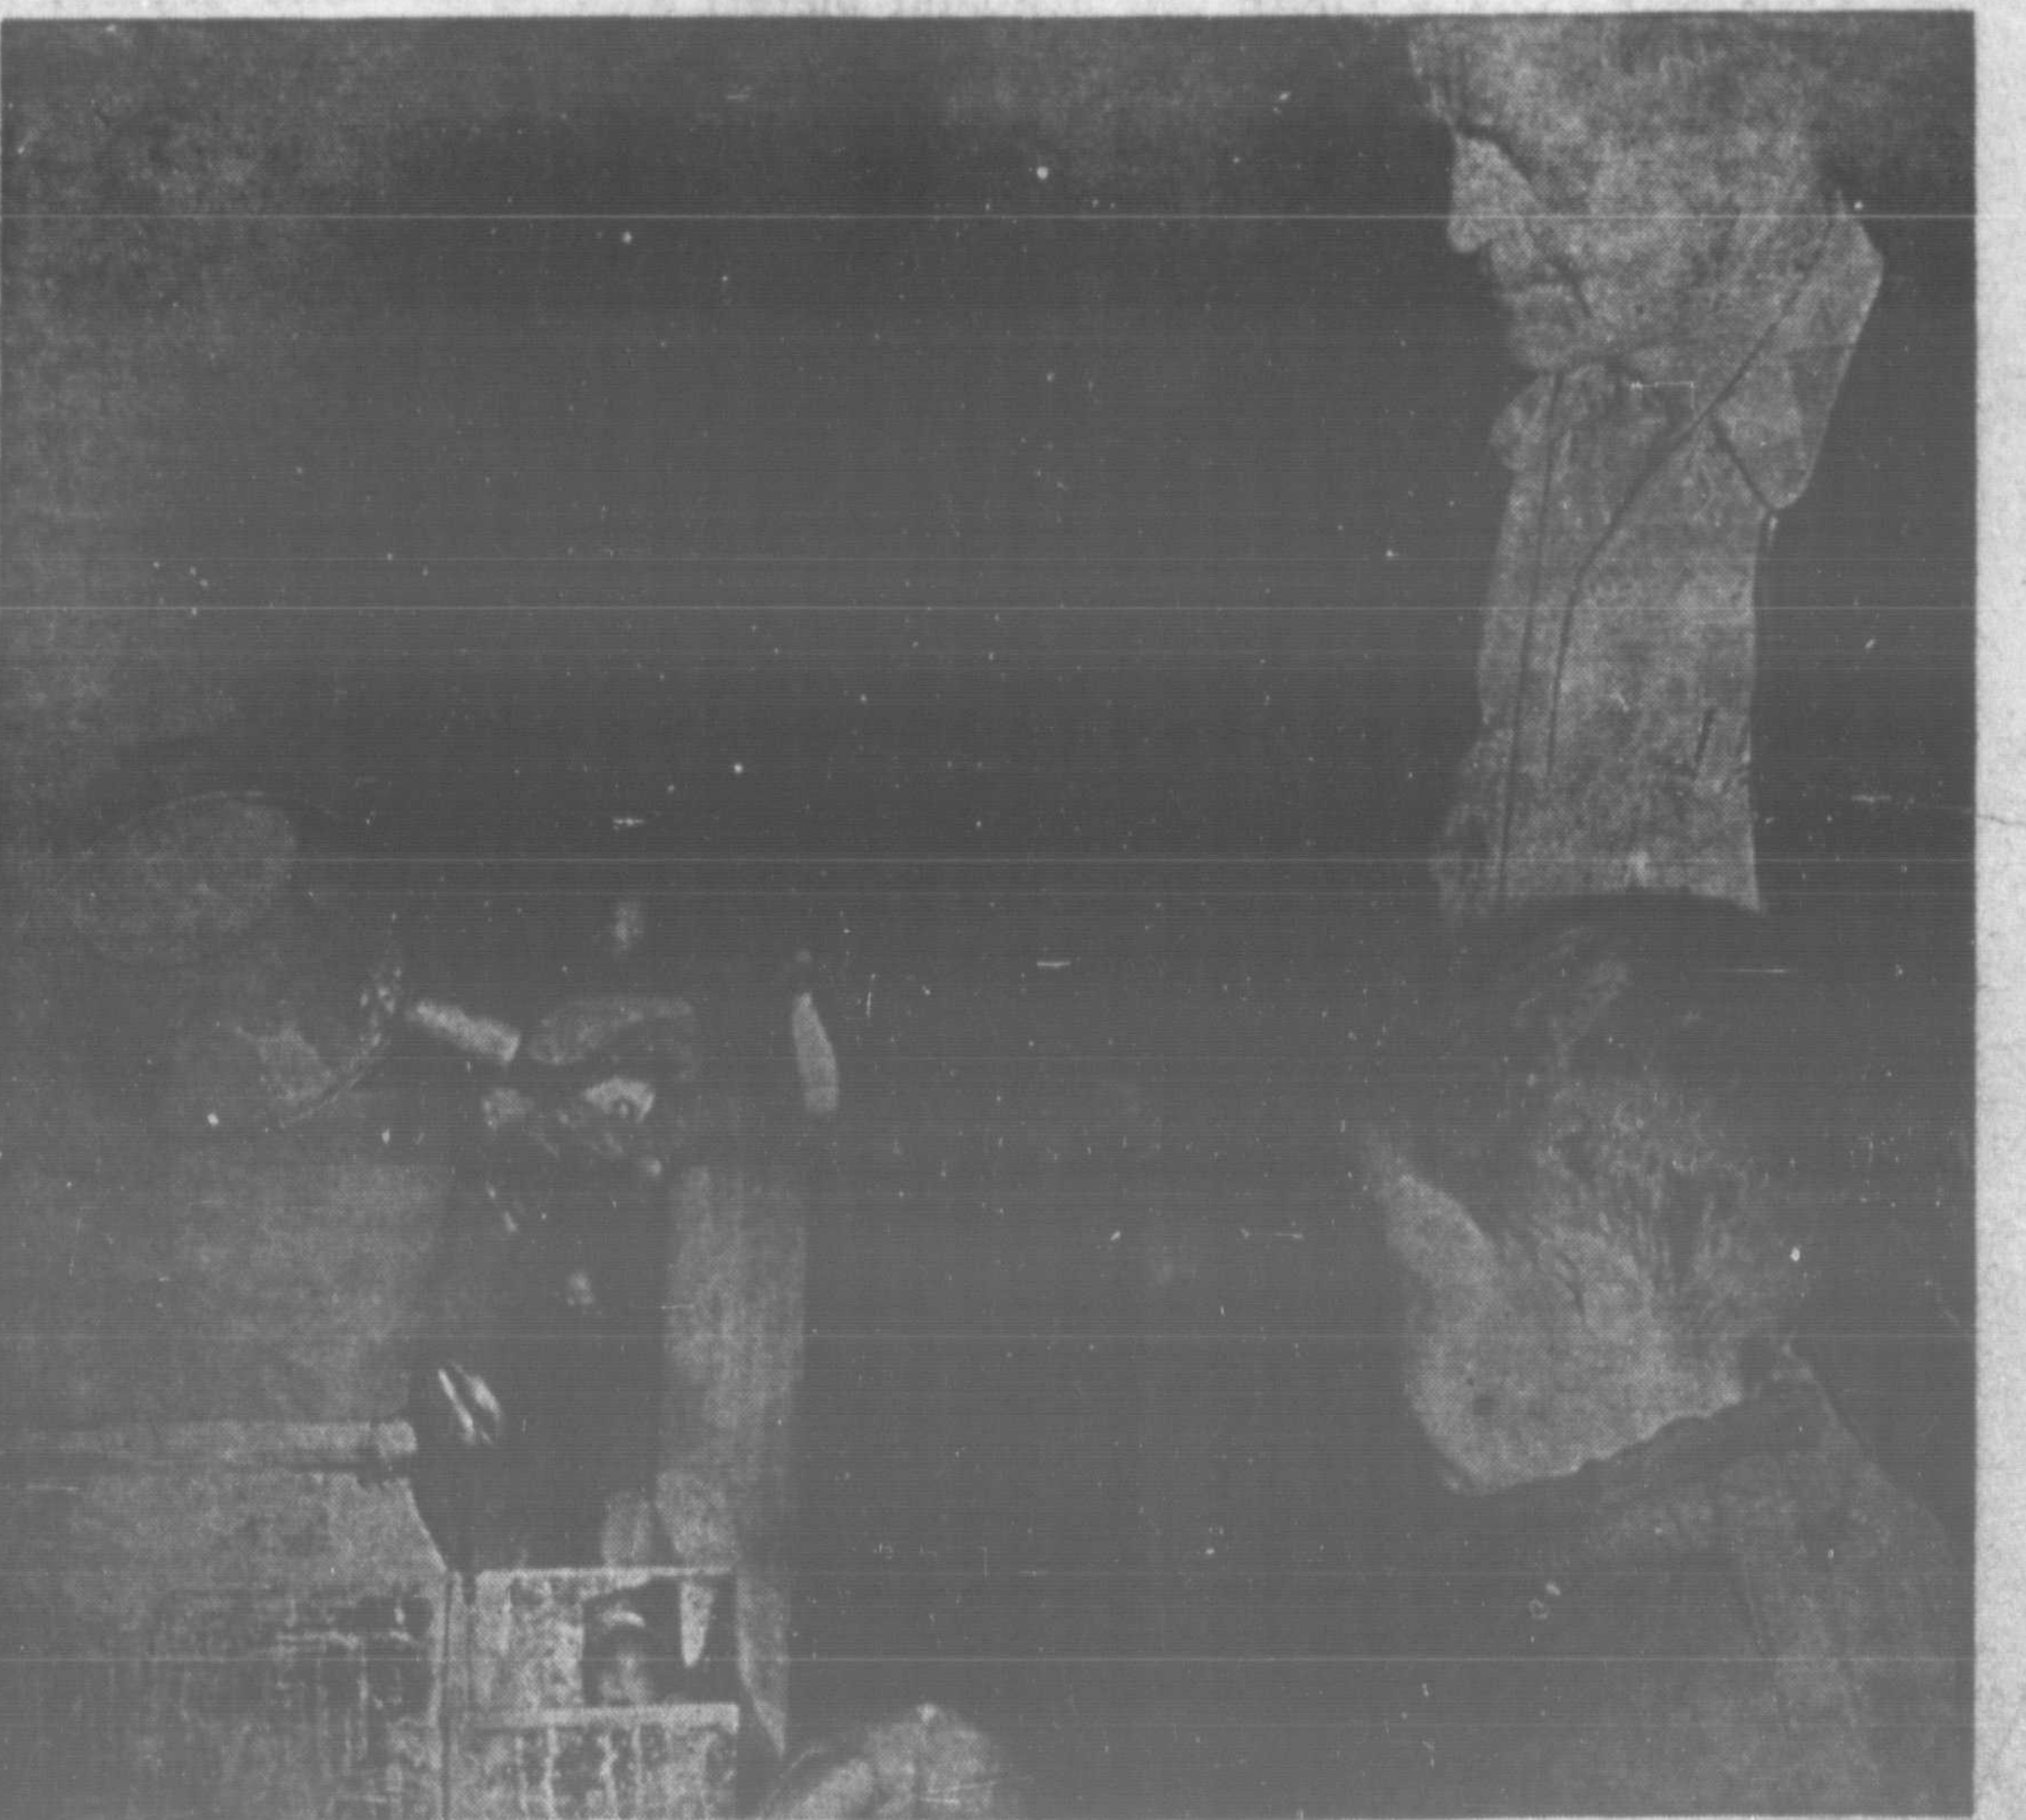

Usually there is snow underfoot when the sap is being collected for syrup making but Tom MacFarlane's sled runs smoothly over the leafy forest floor this year as the friendliest of weather greets the best sap run seen hereabout in several years.

Sap runs fast, fairly gushes from some of the 1545 trees being tapped this year at MacFarlane's. Farmers turned sugar-men all over Pontiac are engaged in the rewarding annual task of bringing in the sap. Frosty nights and clear days have combined this year in producing what should turn out to be a record sap run. The market will take all the maple syrup that can be produced and still want more so these particular seasonal labours should not be in vain.

Neil McCagg and Dave Davies are seen filling the large drum with the crystal clear raw sap, a pleasant chore when there is a good run and this work goes on all day and sometimes at night because you never know which drop will be the last. Sap is one crop which starts and stops automatically with no known method of changing its rate of production.

—Equity Photo

Evaporating the sap in a series of vats is the modern counterpart of what Tom's grandfather, another Tom MacFarlane of another century, used to do in the cooling kettles. Sap in these kettles was boiled down outdoors and dipped from kettle to kettle as it cooled. Today young Stewart celebrates his sixth birthday in the syrup shed watching his Dad sampling the product of this season's planning. Syrup thus produced is marketed direct to the consumer by the producer and on this farm as on various others in the neighborhood, expansion is always in the minds of the operators.

BUT WE ARE NOT CHILDREN

The case for affiliation of a local union has been presented by a correspondent in a letter published in this paper as a rebuttal to OUR contention that a local union, without outside affiliation, would best serve the interests of the men working at The Hilton Mines.

We have already stated our views, and now feel disposed to say just one more thing about it: Affiliation means the joining together of two entities in the relationship of parent and child. This is a necessary relationship where adults and infants are concerned, even if some adults because of inherent defects in their character or mental capacities exert improper influences on their children. It is a necessary relationship because the child is incapable of looking after its own physical needs; and also requires guidance and teaching in the ways of society. All of these things are best furnished by parents.

To carry this concept over into any trade union established at The Hilton Mines, would, we believe, be pointless, simply because the men of this area have sufficient experience in organization management to be classed as adults rather than children in that field.

"NOTHING TO DO" IN SHAWVILLE

There are many great needs in this area which seem more important than recreation, and yet there is a case for this facility as well. We need accreditation at the hospital. We need an old folks' home. We need industry. We need good high school teachers. We need — we need — we need. Many things which were not important twenty or thirty years ago are now necessary because time does not stand still.

Today we need a municipally controlled and supported recreation commission. The old timers here will say this is just plain silly because they themselves do not need it. The usual patterns of life in this sort of community have not required organized sports, arts and crafts for adults.

In fact it always amazes the townspeople to hear newcomers say that in Shawville there is nothing to do. Heavens to Betsy! Anyone will tell you there is too much to do here — even to the point where one husband placed a jesting ad in the classified columns for a substitute wife during the curling season.

We are always flabbergasted with newcomers to this town who say there is nothing to do in Shawville! Once we get started listing all the things that a person could do with their spare time we never get stopped. Each of the many churches offers opportunities for spare-time activities for people of every age. There is also the Home and School Club, the Women's Institutes, the Scouts, Guides, Cubs and Brownies, the CGIT all needing adult help in a dozen ways. There is ice skating and hockey, curling, and marathon bridge. There is the Hospital Auxiliary, Rotary, Lions, Canadian Legion and the K of C, which all provide sociability along with an opportunity to help the community. The Chamber of Commerce provides another opportunity for service, as do the Lodges.

There are two summer resorts within ten minutes of town where swimming, boating, aquaplaning etc. can be enjoyed. Our area is known widely as a fishing and hunting paradise. These sports can be engaged in easily in the immediate vicinity and trips can be arranged by pack or by plane to remote spots for the more serious sportsmen. Winter sports are as ready as you are with the Pontiac ski trail starting at your front door and going wherever you want to go.

A number of local men own horses which provide sleighing in winter and many sorts of diversion in summer all the way from serious harness racing and showing to casual driving in the country. Any newcomer who wanted to share some of this sort of enjoyment would find Shawville an easy town in which to own a horse and lots of advice on its care and training.

There's a tiny public library at the printshop and movies to watch at Bryson through the year and in Shawville from time to time, and there are concerts and plays and dances arranged by the various clubs throughout the year as well as regular dances at public dance halls in several Pontiac Villages.

The Farm Forums provide the answer to the person who wants to learn to discuss or debate with his neighbors in the more rural areas. Also, since this district is being changed by the influx of population of a new sort, this very population could use some of its spare time to plan and execute projects which would help Shawville become the sort of town the new people want to live in.

But there is still a need, we are told for organized recreation in Shawville. In seeking nurses for the hospital we find that the recreational facilities of the town are important. In the desperate bid for teachers we find that our own town's lack of recreational facilities is a serious drawback. When we make a serious bid for an industry here to increase our tax-wealth, we will find our recreational facilities being scrutinized by prospects along with all other aspects of the town such as sanitation, healthful atmosphere, available power and available labour supply.

Recreation is not a fad any more — it is a serious consideration of municipal bodies everywhere in Canada. We cannot pattern our recreation after Ottawa where full time workers manage a city-wide recreation program using the schools as centers and moneys from the city's treasury. Nor can we pattern ourselves after Renfrew where a recreation director works from a building donated by one benefactor. In fact even if we were to study the recreational programs in villages the size of Shawville we would not have the answer because each town has different needs and its own set of circumstances.

Shawville is in the most fortunate position of already having a readybuilt community center second to none. This is usually the big stumbling block in planning recreation for a town and does not exist here due to the foresight of those who planned and built the County High School in this village.

What Shawville needs, to develop a recreational program here which will satisfy the needs of the transient population as well as the newly settling and prospective populations, is a part time recreational director appointed by the Council.

NOTES ON GOSSIP

"Some truth there was, but dashed and brewed with lies to please the fools" (Dryden).

Rumour and gossip are nuisances and can become menaces to business, government and individuals. They poison relations between people and affect the well-being of society.

Gossip is a rattling tongue that dissects dead scandals or whips up new ones.

Perhaps we should hang all the gossips, only it might come to pass that there would be no one left to pull the rope.

One thing we can do is kill by ridicule or exposure any gossip that comes to our attention.

How does gossip start? It may arise from love of one's own pet ideas. When we take a slap at something we don't like, we experience an emotional release. Just as important, we give ourselves a chance to explain to ourselves and others why we feel as we do. On a lower level, our gossip may be accusing others of having done what we would like to do.

Flushed by success, the coiner of rumour becomes arrogant. The attention he receives turns his head. He mistakes his toy trumpet for the trombone of fame.

Only the common cold is a rival to rumour in the speed with which it spreads and the dis-

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Peter Stickler Writes

Shawville, Quebec
March 21, 1957.

Editor, Equity.

Your cosmopolitan pages like many other cosy little country journals could be swamped under, swamped or even "brow-beaten" by prolific writers (I am not one) concerning what Government should not do about MONEY, or about the more efficient control or distribution thereof.

Mr. Coyne is doubtless just as sincere as Plutarch or Plato, Wills, Huxley, or even all the Russians, in reaching out for such Utopian ideals as Government that would make all mankind in fact equal in the handling of this complex commodity. Such an accomplishment by any human agency would be hailed as the financial "expression of the Kingdom of God on earth" — please excuse my intrusion upon the sacrosanct, but I've just quoted in part a phrase coined at the first League of Nations by some clergymen. Maybe Heaven wouldn't want such a hybrid situation as such a government; maybe if such a distribution or control of money as we might desire were immediately in vogue we should require a government agent (or angel!) at every shop counter or at every nook and cranny in the world where man has a deal with man or nation with nation. It would require super-man, or supernatural civil service. We would all be kicking and eventually be "kicked out."

But we in Canada have come a long way in the last two decades in the latter phase of progress, for a community so recently removed from her mammy's apron strings, when other nations (as old as Egypt) are seized by war, revolution and unrest — all over that stuff called "the coin of the Realm".

When President Wilson struck off the much used (and abused) phrase: "Make the world safe for Democracy", many of us young idiots were stopping west bound military missiles for one dollar and ten cents per day. Disillusioned, we asked the question: "Did we make the world safe for Democracy, or did we make the country even that we were serving on blood bettered fields of strife safe for profiteers and cartels? For a while we thought that the latter was just the case, but are now completely satisfied that this crazy old world is not safe for anything not even for scientists.

This country's government, spurred of course by many progressive parties, didn't do too badly in monetary reforms, for it is not so long since one Prime Minister was able to pay Four Hundred Dollars of "the coin of the Realm" for a mere place to sleep — per month. Meanwhile war veterans could not get hold of four hundred cents to buy newspapers for that period of time to spread on the cold stone floors of old town halls while trying to sleep, and seeking employment in their daily, monthly and yearly tramp from place to place. Then, believe it or not, we got jobs on the Trans Canada Highway at twenty (20) cents per day! I was offered the job, and the same pay, but always managed to get the odd coffee and a decent place to crawl into for the night with a satisfied tummy perhaps.

So much NOW for government control of money or a better distribution of wealth between the "haves" and the "have-nots", so that the spread is not so great, nor the silly caste system so evident. And SHAME! I say to the person who misinformedly complains in these words: "My income tax is what pays the old age pension — ad infinitum ad nauseam".

Our seventy year old citizens have paid more into the "jack pot" than they will ever get out of it, and so have veterans of wars in most cases, for statistics prove that men who have been "over the top" a few times in such wars as the modern kind have aged appreciably. All such pensions come out of the National Dividend and simply compensate some of those whose sweat and blood have made the country what she is.

Income tax was instituted in 1861 and confirmed as a war preparation measure in 1913 when statesmen saw on the horizon just a year away the epochal military conflict — for mere commercial interests. This is what that special tax was created for and Don't Forget it, you are paying out of your income for WAR and for war personnel, not for old age pensions or for any other pensions nor for the machinery to institute any great reforms. These come in answer to a call from the times — sometimes the hard way.

Only for shame-sake and the fear of revolution (which really threatened) were social legislation and war veterans' affairs brought into present being here.

If human government, composed of perfect men, imbued with a LOVE GOD AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF policy could work in our present economy, of course there would be ideal government and happy people — an arrangement for transcending Utopia, but such law does not exist in the hearts of many, nor in the mind of big business, nor in the power of a proletariat. When the miraculous change does come: "A man shall be more precious than the gold" — a quotation from the OLD BOOK — if you don't mind, and this should even now be the law of the land. But what Her-culean conflict should be expected to write such law upon the hearts of humankind? It could be neither evolution, revolution or legislation. It could be none other than hinted at in Hansard by the late McKenzie King, or what is written in the United States Congressional Record actually called "ARMAGEDDON". Many even now, like one Daniel, can and do interpret the "hand writing on the wall" of a silly old "Babylon" NOT WORTH SAVING.

Superfluity Shop To Reopen This Week In Shawville

The Shawville Hospital Auxiliary announces this week the re-opening of the Superfluity Shop on Main Street. The shop will be opened on Tuesday, April 2, and be open on Tuesday and Saturday afternoons and evenings from then on until further notice. It was necessary to close this shop for the winter because of extreme cold.

The Superfluity Shop is always in a position to receive donations of articles for sale. Old or unused lamps, tables, chairs, sleds, bicycles, baby furniture, knick knacks, shoes, rubbers, skates, overshoes, skirts, sweaters, coats, fur robes, hats, children's wear, books, costume jewellery, kitchen utensils, toys, dolls, doll cloths, works of art and anything else that might bring a few cents or dollars to the Shop is welcome.

The salesladies at the Superfluity Shop are all volunteer members of the Shawville Hospital Auxiliary and every cent of profit is used for the betterment of the Pontiac Community Hospital.

Aside from soliciting donations, the ladies also would be pleased to see a good number of customers in their store. You never can tell when some item which is not needed by its present owner might come in very handy in your home. So if you have been wanting an inexpensive outfit for your child or some hard to find item, have a look at the Superfluity Shop in Shawville.

Whispering campaigns can be organized to slander a person or people. The only answer found so far is quick and definite publication of the truth, stemming from an honest will to have understanding prevail.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Wrong Impression

Editor "The Equity"
Dear Sir:
I would appreciate it if you would publish this letter for the information of your readers. One of the Ottawa newspapers has reported that in a recent talk to the Rotary Club I stated that in our Shawville schools "rooms were often overcrowded with 27 to 30 pupils". Although these figures are probably the result of nothing more than a typographical error, I am anxious that the impression they have created be corrected. All of us — board members, teachers, and parents — would be very happy if all our class enrolments could be held down to no more than thirty. The concern I expressed was over class enrolments of thirty five or more, especially when the pupils were being instructed by teachers inexperienced in the particular work they were doing.

Yours sincerely

The Editor
Shawville
Mr. Editor;

After reading your column "Let's Do It Ourselves" — I feel compelled to set down a few of my views on the subject.

Your (?) theory of do it ourselves is by no means a "New Years Baby". In the not very far past, a group of employees of one of our local industries decided to do just as you suggest, i.e. — a local Union, independent of affiliation and concerned only with local problems. What happened?

The acting business agent for this new and powerful organization met with the management of the company involved, making known that the union members desired a few minor changes in Co policy. So what? So the company ceased operations for a few days, the newly formed union became a victim of amnesia and the ex-members went back to their accustomed HIGH standard of living.

Any union of labour or trades is a local union, albeit it is affiliated with a National or International organization. It elects its own officers by ballot or acclamation, as in any democratic election. At this point, the electors are not forgotten by the elected. When a matter of policy comes under consideration, it is discussed by all the members, following which, each individual votes for or against, as their judgement dictates. Decision is based on the majority of votes.

Affiliation with an outside or international organization stands for support and guidance in union affairs or policy, without which any fledgeling organization is very apt to fail. It does not mean domination by a dictatorial power nor that the local branch cannot decide on its own needs and measures. Support and guidance cannot be classed as domination.

In support of this statement I would ask — When General Motors Corp. was strike-bound, as of a short time ago, was Ford Motors also strike-bound? No. What about the Carpenters strike in Ottawa, some three years ago? Did it affect carpenters in Toronto or Montreal or where will you? No. When the C. P. R. employees went on strike, did C. N. R. employees have to go ditto? No.

If the group organization controls the local branch, why is there such a variance in union rates, from one local to another? And why is there such a variance in pay of organized labour or trades, in say Ottawa, Hull or any place else and unorganized labour or trades in Shawville, where, with a few exceptions cost of living is at or above

Rotarians Told That Religion Is To Create Unity

Rotarians from Shawville joined the Pembroke Club Monday night for an inter-club meeting, which was held at the Hotel Pembroke, with the Pembroke president Arthur Eggert, presiding.

The speaker for the occasion was Albert Rakovsky of Montreal, vice-president of the United Nations Association, who made a strong plea for international unity, stating that this unity must start in the nation and the home.

Mr. Rakovsky is a native of Viper?

As a member of a union which is affiliated with an international organization, I would like to say I am proud to be a member. I firmly believe the working class of Shawville will eventually embrace unionization. The sooner they become organized, the better, for it will surely raise their standard of living.

A higher standard of living means more "take home" pay which in turn means more to spend on both necessities and luxuries. This increase sales volume and circulation of cash, which is a key to prosperity.

For a bigger and better Shawville.

sincerely

The Equity,
Shawville,

With elections in June coming, there are a few rules governing the responsibilities of the people that should be observed; First, All Municipal halls should be thrown open without charge to the Candidates and their respective orators to enable them to appear before the electors and proclaim their stand on the political issues of the day. They should be seeking election for our benefit and should not be charged a rental fee to make known to us how they purpose to do it.

2nd This appears to be the only chance we have to find out the candidates knowledge of the difficult situation we find ourselves in and how they propose to remedy it.

3rd. Pontiac deserves an individualist, a man who will fight for the peacetime progress of our rural population without farm support taxes? How he intends to work for a reduction in the heavy tax burden, already long overdue.

These Mr. Editor are among the many important questions that should be answered by the Candidate either through the press or on the rostrum, so let us invite candidates to our Municipal Halls and School Houses to get their answers.

Rev. T. P. Tait Chairs CWL Euchre And Bingo

The monthly Euchre and Bingo held under the auspices of the Catholic Women's League, Bryson, Que., in the parish hall on Sunday evening was attended by parishioners and card party adherents from near-by parishes. Rev. T. P. Tait was chairman and distributed prizes to the Euchre and Bingo winners.

Mrs. Rodolph Gauthier and Mrs. A. Corriveau were 1st and 2nd prize winners for the ladies and James Wall and Robert Lemay took the men's prizes. The Major bingo prize was won by Mrs. Joseph White. Mrs. J. L. St. Pierre won the door prize. CWL convenors were Mrs. Louis Lemay, Mrs. Maurice Lance, Mrs. Rheel Sicard and Mrs. Irvin Shea.

those conditions. We must help our neighbour as we would help ourselves.

The third aspect of the United Nations is spiritual said Mr. Rakovsky and there must be a common platform. Christianity, he said, is split and divided into numerous denominations and sects and the same thing applies to other religions.

"We must bring the Christian-Jewish religion to all the world, bring together the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount, Moses and Christ," he declared.

"This can be done," he continued, "for all believe in one God and have much in common. The purpose of religion is to create unity and if it creates disunity it would be better to have no religion. The salvation of the world is to be united. It would be a better place to live and there might be no more war."

Mr. Rakovsky paid tribute to the part Canada is playing in foreign affairs. Hon. L. B. Pearson and the Canadian government had played a major role in the recent crisis in the Middle East and Canada stands first in the esteem of the world, he said.

In 1912 it had been predicted that Canada and the United States would achieve material leadership and then, after a time of great tribulation, would gain spiritual leadership. The first, he said, has come true and he felt that the time of suffering may be near.

Two-thirds of the people of the world are at the starvation level and UNO helps them because in that condition they are an easy prey for communism and dictatorship. Democracy can't live under

Brownies, Guides And Mothers Enjoy Banquet, Entertainment

Thirty Brownies and about a dozen Girl Guides with their leaders were guests of their Mothers

last Friday evening at a Mother-Daughter Barquet held in St. Paul's Parish Hall, Shawville.

An outstanding success, enjoyed equally by the children, the Mothers and the special guests, the banquet was cocooned by Mrs. W. Arthur Hodgins, Mayor Lee A. Hodgins, Rev. Elliott and Mrs. Elliott, Capt. ACF Winslow and Mrs. Winslow, Principal John A. Tolhurst and Mrs. Tolhurst were special guests at the head table. Also at the head table were Guide Mrs. Mahlon Hayes, Brownie Leader Mrs. Charles Imison, Tawnie Owl Mrs. Art Lalonde, Grey Owl Miss Diane Hodgins, White Owl Miss Helen Imison, Chairman Mrs. Art Hodgins, of the Mothers' Association and vice-presidents Mrs. Albert Tanner and Mrs. Iverson Harris. Rev. Elliott asked the blessing.

After eating a superior dinner, the guests were introduced by Mrs. Imison and a toast to the Queen was proposed by Guide Jennifer Dickson who then led in the singing of the National Anthem. Little Helen Hodgins toasted the Mothers who were represented in reply by Mrs. John McKinley.

His Worship the Mayor of Shawville spoke a few glowing words with respect to the Guides and Brownies, particularly complimenting the two little "toasters". Capt. Winslow spoke briefly on Civil Defence and the possible part that could be taken by a Guide, urging that as many girls as possible should study First Aid.

Mr. Tolhurst captivated the children in his opening remarks and kept them with him through a short talk during which he expressed surprise and pleasure at the organization of Guides and Brownies in Shawville. Mr. Tolhurst said he knew he could count on Brownies and Guides to help out at school functions in future.

Mrs. Reuben Smith thanked the Anglican Church for the privilege of the Parish Hall and Rev. R. G. Elliott said the Guides and Brownies were welcome any time. Brown Owl (Mrs. Imison) then took over the program with her very large pack of active little Brownies. They first performed a flag drill which really needed a gym for proper performance but was nevertheless effective on the little stage at the hall. Then two little Brownies in large hats sang "Easter Parade", the Gold Cord girls put on a little Sunday School skit, the entire pack danced a Virginia Reel and then sang "Side by Side".

The Guides carried out an investiture ceremony for two new members, Claudia Wickens and Mary Ann Kuka after which the Brownie Pack and Guide Company each sang their own version of "Taps" and the meeting came to a close.

Sympathy is expressed in this column to the family and relatives of Alphonse Rainville, formerly of Fort Coulonge and a resident of Bryson for the past five years who died in a Montreal hospital Monday.

Ben Bastien received word from Oakville, Ont., where his brother works for Ford Motors that he, the brother and three others after receiving their pay envelope last pay day were slugged or way-laid by some ruffians and knocked unconscious, when they came to their pay envelopes were gone, no identity of the robbers is yet known.

Spring seems to be here in earnest, what with all the geese flying north the numerous spring birds proclaiming it and the Potato Chip wagon at its old stand at the Bryson Theatre, what other proof do we need, that summer is nigh.

My Window on The World by The Rev. E. Rex Taylor

You can't spend your life looking out of windows. Rooms have to be cleaned, curtains need laundering, the windows themselves have to be washed from time to time.

Looking back over some of my columns I seem to have spent a lot of time considering the world's problems. I'm inviting you to come up to the window now and look through it to the other side of the panes.

The church has its headaches too, you know! One of them you have already heard about probably shortage of recruits for the ministry.

Shortages of personnel, of course are not unknown elsewhere. In almost every profession there are not enough men and women to go round. That is to be expected in an expanding economy. It is already on the way to being met however. When the university students of today graduate the situation will have eased a little.

The problem jumps into sharp focus when I inform you that there are not enough students in training for the church. Why is it? Men and women are flocking to the schools of medicine and engineering. It's no good saying that parsons don't receive the same sort of money as doctors and engineers. God forbid that we should see the day come when we are inundated with applicants for our pulpits because of the stipends offered. "Ill fares the church (like the land) to hastening ill a prey, where wealth accumulates and men decay". In passing let me say that this must not become an excuse for paring the parson's pay. An underpaid ministry is just as big a disgrace as an overpaid one. The Carpenter who had nowhere to lay His head is also the Man who said that the labourer was worthy of his hire. Never forget that.

It's not the small money, it's the small minds which are keeping likely young men from offering themselves for what is after all the finest and grandest job in the world.

And these small minds are not confined to the pews and the highways and byways. I won't enlarge on this aspect of the problem here because quite a lot has been said about it elsewhere. A parson's visit is for more important things than admiring the gold fish although he admitted that a sincere interest in all aspects of his flock's lives is the gateway very often to the ultimate goal.

Small minds—and I use the term with no sense of disparagement whatsoever, but merely to indicate a restriction of mental activity before the frontier has been reached—are prevalent in spiritual and theological circles of thought.

It seems to me that the great need of the hour is for a christian sociology, a christian doctrine of work and a re-emphasis of the christian doctrine of man.

God seems to have nothing to do with the everyday life of the vast majority of people on the earth to-day. Machines seem to function just as well without as with God. Production is a creation of man. And with the increasing mechanism on the farm that same fallacy has crept into agriculture as well. God may be Lord in the religious sphere. But man is Lord in the world of work. My daily life is here, religion is over there. Here is the reality of the hard struggle of life—there is an unrealistic moral teaching. The church is outside the real events of daily life.

Pardon the vulgarity of the expression but God must be geared to the times and be seen to be so geared. The vast majority of ministers I am sure would say a hearty "Amen" to this. One of the problems that remains is this: How far are the foreshortened horizons of the pulpit due to a reluctance from the pew to launch out into these deeps? Would you welcome and support your pastor in this or mistakenly complain of his not preaching the gospel?

Frozen Food Takes Big Step Forward

Ottawa—The frozen food industry has taken a mighty leap forward with the announcement of a "rental plan" by Dominion Provisioners Ltd., Canada's largest and most successful home freezer and food program.

Mr. Arthur Chill, professional graduate engineer in frozen food technology and General Manager of Ontario for the firm stated that this is the biggest single advancement since the beginning of the "freezer-food plans" in Canada. It enables every family to find out for themselves whether the plan will work in their home or not and at no risk.

The Company's new slogan "try before you buy" takes the big "if" out of their future sales. As Mr. Chill says, "we would much rather have a family find out before they buy just what it means to have the complete program in their home." One important factor that even Amana—manufacturers of the world's finest food freezer—have not been able to incorporate into their engineering design is common sense. This may make the difference of the plan working well as it has for many thousands of satisfied users, or not working at all for a few families.

We have learned that there is no magic in the operation of a food plan. It is a simple and logical method of buying and storing the finest quality foods in a freezer that will maintain proper temperatures to protect and preserve the far superior nutritional value of frozen food. The critical storage temperature is 287 degrees F above zero.

If the temperature rises above this point, there is a chemical process called enzymic action that takes place causing partial deterioration and loss of nutrients as well as an overall loss of quality, taste and texture.

Is there any great difference in freezers? Yes, and very important differences. Like any other manufactured product, you get what you pay for. No one gives you something for nothing as the story goes, and a cheap freezer price-wise is usually just that, quality wise. A freezer stores the most important items you buy—your food that keeps you alive and in good health or conversely possibly in poor health. It is a complex piece of equipment designed and built to do a specific job—store food at proper freezing temperatures—not just below freezing.

What precautions should a prospective freezer owner take in selecting the plan for his family? Use the same common sense before purchasing that you must use afterwards. Beware of the "free gift" enterprises—someone pays for them and it is usually you. Approach with caution the firm that has only price to sell—that is usually all you get. Put up the red signal for danger when a glib tongued salesman cannot produce in writing the beautiful promises he makes verbally. Get really angry and you should be insulted whenever a food plan representative quotes you your cost of food and freezer before he even knows what kind of food, how much, and how often you buy. Remember this—a food plan can only be as good as the food supplied and the purveyor who packs it for you. Be sure the Company you join, own and operate their own processing plants—else how can they guarantee you continuous service or food quality—in fact how can they guarantee anything except delivery of a freezer.

Probably every family within a few years will own a freezer. It is no longer a luxury but almost a necessity. Think about it, investigate, ask questions and get the answers—demand proof—any reliable firm can furnish proof of statements made by their representatives. Perhaps as Dominion Provisioners suggests, "try before you buy" rather than "buy now—cry later."

Leslie Cruickshank Weds Marlene Hanes

Marlene Gladys Hanes Wed In January

White mums adorned the altar of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Fort Erie, and white satin bows marked the pews for the marriage of Marlene Gladys Hanes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Haines, of Fort Erie, to Leslie Cruickshank of Morrisburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cruickshank, Bristol Mines, Que., at 3 p.m., Saturday, January 19th.

Rev. W. B. Irwin officiated at the wedding ceremony, and Mrs. Phyllis Williams played the wedding march.

Given in marriage by her father the bride chose a floor length gown of lace and tulle. The lace bodice with Sabrina neckline was trimmed with lace medallions centred with rhinestones. Lace extended into wide panels in front and back over the bouffant tulle skirt. She wore a fingertip veil of silk illusion held by a crown of matching lace leaves trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centred with an orchid.

Mrs. Jas. McClary, matron of honor, wore a ballerina length gown of sea-coral velvet with off-the-shoulder neckline forming short sleeves, fashioned in princess style with added back fullness and matching shoes. She wore a crown of tiny leaves and face veil of the same color as her gown. Her flowers were deep pink carnations and ivy leaves.

Mrs. Donald McNeill, sister of the bride, wore a similar gown but in cobalt blue velvet and carried a cascade bouquet of pale pink carnations and ivy leaves.

Blakely Cruickshank, Aylmer East, brother of the groom, was best man, Wilbert Cruickshank of Arnprior, Ont., another brother, and Donald McNeill, brother-in-law of the bride, were the ushers.

A reception followed at 5 pm at Michele's Restaurant and the bride's mother received in a navy blue silk dress with bolero jacket trimmed with rhinestones, navy hat trimmed with matching colored feathers, black accessories, and her corsage was pink carnations. The groom's mother was attired in teal blue lace, black hat and accessories, and her flowers were also pink carnations.

For travelling by motor to the Southern States and Florida, the bride wore a beige knit suit, brown shoes and bag, beige hat and a brown fur jacket complemented by a corsage of yellow roses. Upon their return the couple took up residence at Morrisburg, Ont.

Guests were present from Ottawa, St. Catharines, Niagara Falls, Ont., Fort Erie, Arnprior, Niagara Falls, NY, and Bristol Mines, Quebec.

Isobella Jane Baird

Mrs. Isobella Jane Baird, resident of Enderby, BC, since 1905, passed away suddenly at her home on Wednesday, March 6, at the age of 73.

Born in Shawville, the late Mrs. Baird and her husband were married in Ottawa in 1905, coming directly to Enderby. Except for one trip back to her native province, Mrs. Baird has resided here ever since.

A well-known and respected citizen, Mrs. Baird will be greatly missed, especially by those who were pioneers like herself.

Her husband, the late Andrew Baird, predeceased her in 1941, as did a son, Douglas, who was accidentally killed in 1942, as well as four daughters who died in infancy.

Surviving to mourn her passing are four sons, Robert, Wesley, Osborne and Audrey, all of Enderby; two daughters, Mrs. Myers (Ella) of New Westminster and Mrs. Henry Davison (Ruby) of Deep Creek; as well as twenty grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Two sisters, Mrs. Jim Caldwell of Shawville and Miss Laura Hodgins of Lloydminster, Sask., also survive.

Funeral service for the late Mrs. Baird was held from St. Andrew's United Church on Wednesday, at 2 pm with the Rev. H. M. Irwin officiating.

Pallbearers were Messrs. Robert Stoward, Arne Halvorsen, Richard Blackburn, Lawson Strouger, G. E. McMahon, all of Enderby, and E. A. Norman of Arnprior.

Renfrew Intermediates Lead In Late Hockey Playoffs

The weather doesn't look much like hockey and as there is no ice in Shawville it almost looks as if the Farmers League will have to call it quits after one game in the finals. Having put Radford out of the running, Wyman entered the finals early last week against the Dairy Kings, beating them in this first of a possible five games. As the rest of this final series is unlikely to come off, it looks like Wyman for this year's honors.

The Intermediate team, however, is still playing having shifted to Renfrew's artificial ice for the "Bert Garrett" Trophy play. They met the Renfrew Intermediates last night and came second best with only six points to Renfrew's 11.

Royce Richardson was brilliant throughout the game playing centre for Shawville and Bill Hodgins did a great job in the nets but still Shawville gave out in the third period. Scoring went 4-2 for Renfrew in the first period and Shawville took the lead in the second 6-4 but couldn't manage another point in the third while Renfrew knocked in another seven. Frankie Finnigan, Desi Keon, Billy Horner, Philip Hodgins and Bill Pirie were greatly missed by the rest of the Shawville team.

Playing for Shawville were Bill Hodgins, Earl Powell, Doug Thomas, Royce Richardson, Bob Findlay, Gil Fraser, Cecil McTiernan, Ray Young Pat O'Donnell, Garry Young and Larry Murray. Renfrew lineup was Hugh Colton, Butch Cavette, Ed Cooke, C

Lemencheck, L. Freeman, H. Hagarty, H. Eady, M. Young, B. Miller, Bill Miller, G. Siro, Glen Kyer and Mel Currie.

Shawville will have another chance at Renfrew probably early next week. Best two out of three winners play Arnprior.

Candy is dandy, roses are touching, but for sheer intoxicating luxury there is nothing that I know of that sets up the lady of the house like the poppa of the house saying "Put on your hat, we're eating out."

It isn't only the eating out that is fun,—there is the magic moment when you come home and look in the kitchen, and there it is all slick and shiny and no dishes to wash, or bits to put away.

Elwood Brownlee Dies At Home Monday

Mrs. Elwood Brownlee, Ken Wilson and Constable John Richardson found the body of Elwood Brownlee, 54 lying on a couch in his home, shot through the chest early Monday morning this week. Coroner Dr. Frank Cowley and Detective Andre Audet were called and pronounced the man to be dead. "There will be no inquest as there is no evidence of anything other than suicide", said Audet.

Mrs. Brownlee had been away from home overnight and returned at about 6 a.m. Her husband was at that time loading his Topper model 48 twelve gauge shotgun. Mrs. Brownlee asked him what he was going to do. Knowing he had been depressed on Sunday she was afraid something would happen so she went to neighbor Lloyd Atkinson's and phoned Manson Horner. He came down to Atkinson's at 8:30 and drove her to Ken Wilson's who then took her to get Constable John Richardson, Wilson, Richardson and Mrs. Brownlee then went back to Brownlee's where they discovered the dead man, shot in the chest which was perforated from the side.

Mr. Brownlee was born in Clarendon Township, and lived almost all his life in that area. He was a son of the late Joseph A. Brownlee and Susannah Richardson. He married the former Emily Hodgins 30 years ago. She died in 1943. In October, 1953, he married the former Mrs. Hilda Laughren who survives.

He leaves in addition of his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Earl Cooney, of Quyon. There are three sisters, Mrs. Wesley Pirie, of Clarendon; Mrs. Leonard Walsh, of Chelmsford, Ont.; and Mrs. James Barber, of Zion Section; and three brothers, Clifford, of Hairy Hill; Alta; Kenneth and Lloyd, both of Clarendon. There are two grandchildren.

Mr. Brownlee was a member of the Municipal Council of Clarendon, for some years, and a former Commissioner of the United School Board of Clarendon and Shawville. For some time he served as chairman of that board. He was a member of Radford United Church.

Funeral service is this afternoon from the W. J. Hayes and Sons Funeral Home, to Shawville

United Church where Rev. H. G. ... interment was in the Radford United Church Cemetery.

Marketing Is Main Issue As Short Course Opens

By Ross Dickson
The annual Agricultural Short Course got off to a good start yesterday with the seed judging and weed identification competition held after school hours in the Shawville Masonic Hall. Sterling Knox, with a score of 89, just barely won the event as Garnet Thompson scored 88 and Robert Hobbs scored 87 in close competition. Dalton Hodgins, Donald Campbell and Danny Drummond also scored in the eighties and Keith Hodgins, Lorne Tubman and Stewart Kehoe not far behind.

Notary Harland Rowatt spoke to the evening session of the Course on the ever important matters pertaining to titles, deeds and wills. A Notary, said Mr. Rowatt, is a public officer who keeps all deeds until a person dies at which time they are dealt with according to law. Notaries are appointed for life.

Dr. Leonard Roy of the Quebec Agricultural Marketing Board explained the Quebec Agricultural Marketing Act, telling how it was drawn up so that farmers may organize themselves to market their products as a group. To form an organization under this act you have to have 75% of the producers and also 75% of the total value of the product in the organization. This board acts only on request of the producers. The organization

Campbell's Bay Didn't Want A Shoemaker After All!!!

Campbell's Bay Chamber of Commerce has discovered something about Campbell's Bay people and it has cost them considerable trouble and expense to find this out. The fact is that Campbell's Bay people prefer to get their shoes fixed in Renfrew even when equal facilities are available in Campbell's Bay.

The C of C and the people of Campbell's Bay established a shoemaker in their town after listening to the people clamor for one for years. This shoemaker was an expert craftsman in every way but was not able to support his family here. A casual survey of Renfrew shoe repairmen revealed that shoes from Campbell's Bay were being brought across the river regularly.

So now the shoemaker, who was so badly needed in Campbell's Bay and yet who just barely kept soul and body together there during the past winter, living more by the help of good neighbors than by the fruit of his own labours, has gone to Renfrew where he is able to make a good living. Already he has been engaged in repairing shoes in Renfrew for Campbell's Bay people who would not take their shoes to him while he was in their own home town.

Mr. Alva Rintoul, of the Ontario Hog Producers Association explained the operation of their organization in Ontario. They have had a lot of trouble getting organized and they expect more trouble yet, however they feel the end result will be well worth while. This organization is trying to set up marketing points throughout the province of Ontario where the pigs can be auctioned off. One of these points will be at Ottawa but Mr. Rintoul cautioned that under present Ontario legislation they cannot deal with hogs coming in from other provinces. This point is of special interest to Pontiac hog producers. Further legislation by the Federal Government has been requested to cover in-terprovincial trade.

A panel discussion was also held last night with Wyman MacKechnie in the chair. Local marketing problems were discussed. Mr. Gordon MacMillan reported that they have been receiving quite good co-operation in marketing hogs and beef cattle for the last few months. The marketing of dairy products continues to be a great problem. Organization of pulp marketing has as yet been unsuccessful. It was the feeling of the panel that the production of some farm products is changing towards the big business operation category. This is especially true of poultry production and in some places hog production is also turning in this direction.
With these marketing problems, the panel felt that the production of quality products and the efficiency of production is of prime importance.
The Agricultural Short Course continues tonight at the Masonic Hall and Friday night at Shawville High School.

Kilgours' MC Grand Farm Forum Annual Roundup

Seventh Line Forum was host to Pontiac Farm Forums at the last gathering of the Forum season on Monday evening, March 25 at the Shawville High School.

The meeting, attended by a representative group of active Forum members and visitors heard a broadcast from Toronto with a discussion of Farm Forum values and a final news report from Floyd Griesbach, secretary of the National Radio Forum. The meeting was then turned over to MC Walter Kilgour and assistant MC Arthur Kilgour.

Mr. J. Tolhurst, principal, welcomed the group and the Rev. Rex Taylor of Bristol was a one-man comedy act complete with anecdotes and vaudeville violin.

When the laughter had subsided, the group heard Constable John Richardson give an interesting resume of the flight of the Zoltar Rigo family from oppression in Hungary. The family although unfamiliar with English, understood the universal language of music when Mr. Taylor played Hungarian folk dance and gypsy music for their benefit.

A game was played under the supervision of Arthur Kilgour, with group four winning by a necktie, and everyone enjoyed refreshments served by the ladies of Seventh Line Forum. Harold Richardson voiced the thanks of the gathering for the hospitality rendered them and so ended the 17th season of Quebec Farm Forum Association in this area.

Shawville Fire Victims Rebuilding Same Site

Clarence Richardson, whose house was totally destroyed except for one front door, two weeks ago, has reported that progress on a new dwelling is going ahead satisfactorily. With the financial and practical help of a great number of his friends and neighbors as well as customers on his milk route and the business people of Shawville, there is every hope that the Richardson's will be moving into their new home in the fall.

During the past two weeks Mr. Richardson has been granted his holidays by the Pontiac Dairy where he works and has accomplished considerable work. The old burned out house was first flattened and the debris carted away to the dump by the truckload. A new cellar was dug and concrete footings poured upon which a cement block basement has been built.

An eight room house will be built on this basement after the plan of John Hodgins (lower John that is, not upper John) house in Shawville, during the summer months. The only reclaimable item from the old house is the front door, which Clarence hopes to hang in place in the new house as a one last memento of their old home.

Bristol History - 2

The Preacher Came By Canoe

Although these people were busy hewing homes for themselves out of the forests of this primitive land, they began to think of the education of their children. One man offered the use of part of his barn, which had recently been constructed as a school house, until a better place could be provided.

It was not long until a school house, known as No. 1 School, was built on the 3rd Concession of Bristol. The teacher's salary was $12 per month.

In 1827 the first clergyman that I have a record of came through Bristol and baptized several children. He was Rev. Ansley, an Anglican minister from Hull. He came up the Ottawa River by canoe and as there were only paths through the woods he had to walk to make his pastoral calls. A few years later an Anglican church was built between the 3rd and 4th Concessions of Bristol. Later on this church was moved to the 3rd concession.

St. Luke's Anglican Church, erected on the 6th Concession was consecrated August 1874. Another Anglican Church, St. Thomas, was erected on a rock just south of the 2nd concession. It was opened for Divine Service on Christmas Day, 1875. These churches are still used for Divine Worship.

A Methodist minister, Mr. William Gardiner, came to Bristol and built a small church where service was held for a few years. Mr. Gardiner also went as far up as Portage du Fort, a distance of fifteen miles, but some of the people moved to Clarendon so the church was soon vacated. Prior to this the Presbyterians had been having meetings in the different homes and in the school houses so, feeling the need of a church to worship in, one was built just south of the 3rd concession. It was opened in 1846. Rev. Melvin was the first minister and the first elders were Mr. William King, Mr. Hugh McCredie and Mr. Alex Taylor.

Services were held regularly in this church until 1904 when it was burned, on March 13th. In October the basement was ready and services were held there. Another church was erected on the same grounds and dedicated in August 1905. In 1925 this church was disturbed by the Union Question and is now known as St. Andrew's United Church. It has been equipped with electricity and Divine Service is held there every Sunday.

About 1930 the trustees of this church purchased a piece of land beside Norway Bay from a Mr. Ross, a native of England and set it aside as a cemetery. Strange to Fort Coulonge — The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Neville on Thursday afternoon. The president, Mrs. B. Dorff was in charge, assisted by secretary Mrs. R. Graveline and the treasurer Mrs. G. Smith.

The meeting opened by singing the WI ode. This being the annual meeting, the roll call was the payment of fees and Mrs. Dorff welcomed all visitors present. Reports were given by treasurer, Mrs. G. Smith and secretary Mrs. R. Graveline. Welfare and Health Mrs. H. Smith, Home economics, Mrs. Fumerton and Citizenship and relate, the first man to be buried there was a Mr. Ross.

The Roman Catholics in the Township of Bristol comprising, at the present time, sixty-five families are predominantly English speaking and the records date back to 1848. Long before this, pioneer Missionary Fathers journeyed through these parts saying Mass in the settlers homes, coming by way of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Rivers from Quebec City, a distance of several hundred miles.

In 1902 Father Brunet served the Mission from Portage-du-Fort and constructed the present brick veneer church. Father Cote succeeded him until June 21, 1928, when the parish of St. Edward the Confessor was officially established and Father Sullivan was named its first Pastor.

Agriculture Mrs. M. Haley.

This being educational week, a paper from Mrs. Taylor of Macdonald College was read by Mrs. Ira Whelan. A donation of money was sent to a family who lost their home by fire. The polo penny race was completed and Mrs. Fumerton's team was the winner.

All officers were re-elected for 1957-58 as follows: president, Mrs. Dorff; vice-president, Mrs. Fumerton, secretary Mrs. Graveline; treasurer, Mrs. G. Smith; Convenors—Education Mrs. L. Neville; home economics, Mrs. Whelan; Citizenship and Agriculture, Mrs. M. Haley; Welfare and Health, Mrs. H. Smith; Publicity, Mrs. Fumerton; Refreshment committee Mrs. W. Sharpe and Mrs. E. F. Russell. The April meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Dorff.

The meeting closed by repeating the WI Collect, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, after which refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. L. Neville and Mrs. R. Graveline.

Can Expect Fewer And Larger Farms

The latest census shows 11,719 fewer farms in Quebec in 1956 than in 1951. By now the decline must exceed 12,000 farms.

The number of farms in Quebec is now about 122,000 which is about 9% fewer than in 1951. This speed of decline in the number of farms was only exceeded in the Atlantic provinces. The decline in Quebec took place in all but three counties.

Accompanying the decline in number of Quebec farms was a 5% reduction in total farmland (from 16.8 million acres in 1951 to 15.9 million acres in 1956). The net result of the two changes was an increase in the average size of farms from 125 to 130 acres.

These changes bring Quebec's agricultural development into line with that of Canada as a whole. For decades in Canada, the number of farms has been declining and the average size of farms has been increasing. Prior to 1951, however, Quebec did not share in these general trends. This was because 1. the province subsidized the "colonizing" of small farms in frontier areas; 2. Quebec farms had not yet felt the full force of mechanization; 3. the impact of industrialization had not yet been sufficiently strong and pervasive.

In the last few years, however, Quebec agriculture has turned the corner. The exodus from farming has been rapid since 1951 due to a slump in agriculture while the rest of the economy was booming. Quebec is becoming an industrial province. From now on we can expect still fewer and bigger farms, more mechanization, and higher farm incomes.

The economic changes highlighted here are spectacular enough, but there are also far-reaching social and political effects. The closely-knit rural communities are being thinned out and opened up to all kinds of disturbing influences. The horizons of the farm family are being rapidly extended by influences such as TV. The economic welfare of agriculture requires fewer farms, but the political influence of agriculture depends on maintaining a large number of farmers. The declining farm population means, therefore, that the political power of the farm vote will weaken.

QWI Executive

The Executive of the Quebec Women's Institutes is meeting this week in Montreal. The president, Mrs. G. D. Harvey, Stanbridge E., will preside and the agenda will include action on recommendations made at the recent Board meeting and plans for the coming season.

The schedule for county annual meetings will be one item. These are held in the spring and each year are visited by various members of the Q.W.I. Executive. This necessitates much planning but it is felt that it affords an important contact with the governing body and the members in the field.

Preliminary plans for the annual leadership course the end of May at Macdonald College will also be discussed, and the provincial convention a month later at the same place.

Mary Jane Wilson Dies In 85th Year

ABUNDANT LIFE BY ORAL ROBERTS

FAITH GUIDED HIM IN A HURRICANE

For many years Mr. T. J. of Garfield, New Jersey, has been an electrician at the Wright Aeronautical Plant. Though a regular day-shift worker, he was assigned to a midnight shift for one week-end. This was in 1955. During that week-end, a terrible hurricane struck. Suddenly the incoming power lines failed, leaving the entire main plant in darkness. The man usually in charge of the main substation where the deadly 26,000 volt lines were, was on vacation. Mr. J. had received no instructions as to what to do in such an emergency. Yet, this was his responsibility. He ran from the main plant to the substation. Lightning cracked and struck all around. But let him tell it in his own words: "Suddenly, I realized I knew nothing about the sub. I stopped. I was terribly frightened. I prayed: 'OH, GOD, PROTECT ME FROM HARM AND GUIDE ME TO DO WHAT IS RIGHT. PLEASE SEND ME HELP. I NEED IT BADLY.'" His short prayer contained three requests: for protection, guidance, and help to come. Now see how God answered!

Bendix plant 2 miles away. He told me that a few MINUTES AGO, SOMETHING told him to come to our plant. He made it in about three minutes. (Answer No. 3). "Eight minutes later, our lines dropped out again. The Public Service man watched me repeat my previous performance. 'You did exactly the right thing,' he said. I told him I'd never handled the job before. He did not believe it. Then I told him the whole story. Now he believes there must be something to prayer." Everyone admits that no matter how much intelligence, strength, or natural resources we have, there are limitations to our ability to handle every situation successfully, because we are human. Prayer and faith in God will let into our lives that which, if we depended solely upon our own might, we would be left without. Jesus said, "If you believe, all things are possible to him that believeth." Most people take this promise as they do a life preserver in a boat, think it mighty comfortable to have, but hope it will never be needed. But God is a good God! He delights to help us. He is able and he is willing to assist us in every phase of our lives. In this day, today, take him as your partner. Turn your faith loose and let God show you how to meet your problems and difficulties. The same God who helped Mr. T. J. is anxious to help you.

Large Funeral For Mrs. Joseph Lafrance

Fort Coulonge—The funeral of the late Mrs. Joseph Lafrance of Mansfield and Pontefract which was held Saturday, March 23, from her late residence in Davidson, Que., to St. Peter's Roman Catholic Church, Fort Coulonge was one of the largest held in this district. The funeral cortege representative of relatives and friends from all points of the County and over the river from her own family community, Westmeath and Lapasse. The body was met at the door by Rev. Father Joseph Gravelle, Parish Priest, who also sang solemn mass assisted by Mgr. John Krimpton as deacon and Rev. Maurice Gaudreault as sub-deacon. Burial was in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Lapasse. Libera was sung in Mount Carmel Church by Rev. Father Ambrose Maika. Mrs. Lafrance, who died in an Ottawa hospital after a short illness, was the daughter (Mildred) of Alex Lacroix and his late wife Mrs. Jeannie Fleury. She was born in Lapasse in 1909 and was married in Lapasse in 1943. The couple moved to the Lafrance Farm Homestead in Davidson, where she and her husband lived and farmed and she will be sadly missed by the many summer cottagers and visitors as she was a very co-operative neighbor and friend. Mrs. Lafrance is survived by her husband and one son Ronald and one daughter Jennie, both at home; her father, Mr. Alex Lacroix, Lapasse and two sisters, Laurette in Lapasse and Mrs. John (May) Gervais of Westmeath.

New Electronic Device For Surveyors

Toronto, March 4 — An electronic device capable of locating lead, zinc or copper from an airplane was shown at Sunday's opening of the 25th anniversary convention of the Prospectors and Developers Association. Called an electromagnetometer, it operates by setting up a magnetic field on the same principle employed with twitching iron filings in high school physics labs. When any conductor enters this field, it creates a secondary field with shows up on the instruments connected with the device. Its manufacturer (Aeromagnetic Surveys Ltd.) says the unit eliminates the need for old-fashioned equipment such as picks and shovels and tedious land travel over difficult terrain. The unit is usually first used from an airplane equipped with a triangular sending aerial and dragged behind the plane much like the targets used by aerial gunners in practice. Once a field is located from the air, ground parties go into the area to confirm and map findings with ground units. These operate on the same principle. They are carried by two men who are connected by several hundred feet of cable. Diamond drills are used then to get exact information and, in most cases, a mining operation is started. The units have been used to locate bodies of zinc and copper ore in the Bathurst area of New Brunswick, which have an estimated value of $600,000,000. This particular survey took two days in the air and a couple of months of paper work to compile the data. About 2,000 Canadian prospectors are attending the four-day PDA meeting.

County Council Reveals Budget Requests Sunday Liquor Ban

McGuire, the Township of Allumette Island E., and 23 County Councillors forming a quorum of Council. The Secretary-Treasurer was also present. The roll was called and Oaths of Office and of Allegiance subscribed by Councillors Robinson, Downey, Turcotte, Madore, Moyle, Fulford, Taber, Amyotte Hodgins, Dostigny, McBane, Farrell, O'Brien, Zimmerling and Gibson.

It was moved by Cr. James Turcotte and seconded by Cr. John J. McBane that Earle P. Fulford of Clarendon be nominated.

It was moved by Cr. L. Brennan and seconded by Cr. L. Beausoleil that Cr. James Turcotte of Thorne be nominated. Crs. McGuire and Turcotte immediately declined and withdrew and Cr. Earle P. Fulford was acclaimed Warden for the year 1957.

The minutes of the last regular quarterly session of December 12, 1956, were read and it was moved by Crs. D. Lunam and Lee Hodgins that the minutes of the last

It was moved by Crs. Thomas J. McGuire and Thomas O'Brien that Cr. James Turcotte be a County Delegate for 1957. Carried.

The 1957 Board of Delegates therefore will comprise His Worship Warden Earle P. Fulford and Crs. Lee Hodgins and James Turcotte.

The following correspondence was read to Board: A letter from the Campbell's Bay Chamber of Commerce re Winter Highway maintenance; appeals for assistance from the Salvation Army, The Canadian National Institute for the Blind; Hull Social Welfare and the Canadian Legion, Pontiac Branch; this County's letter accompanying resolution to the Quebec Liquor Commission on the Sunday Sale of intoxicants; and a letter from the Ministerial Association of Pontiac on the same subject.

(Letter from Council to Liquor Commission is here published)

"In recent years, responsible citizens of this county have vigorously protested against the Sunday sale of intoxicants and its associated evils—immorality, reckless driving, and a general disregard of the observances of law and order. Lately these conditions have become intensified and are no longer tolerable in certain areas, and the liquor law enforcement in this county, is, to the visitor, a pitiful gesture.

"Consequently I enclose herewith the following documents:

"1. This county's resolution asking for the total ban on the Sunday sale of intoxicants.

"2. This county's resolution asking for the support of the local municipalities in this movement.

"3. A list of the municipalities asking for the absolute ban on the Sunday sale of intoxicants.

"4. A list of the Protestant clergy who have supported this movement.

"5. A list of the Catholic clergy who have supported this movement.

"6. A copy of resolution received from the Village of Bryson in 1953.

"The Municipal Council of the County of Pontiac trusts that the foregoing resolutions and clerical appeals will be seriously considered, and that the end so much desired by the vast majority of the inhabitants—the ban on the Sunday sale of intoxicants—may be attained."

It was moved by Cr. Dufault and seconded by Cr. Robinson that Crs. Beaulieu, McGuire, Farrell and McBane and Warden Fulford comprise the 1957 Finance Committee. Carried.

Mr. L. A. McClintock addressed the Board appealing for a substantial increase in the Grant to the Blind and outlined the services provided at no cost to the local municipalities.

Messrs Richard Bowie and Andre Audet appealed for assistance for the Canadian Legion which suffered heavy property loss in a recent fire.

It was moved by Cr. Robinson and seconded by Cr. Turcotte that the subject of grants be studied by the Finance Committee.

Discussion was heard on the Chamber of Commerce resolution, but the matter was deferred for action until the June session, awaiting a more clarified interpretation of its intentions.

A. Daley, audit, $46.00; Mun. of Alayn and Cawood Bounty $20.00; Ray Bowie, Sec-Treas Bond $10.; A. Labelle, salary $200.00; Gestetner Supplies $25.45; Stationery $35.75.

The session was resumed at 1.30 with the Financial Committee examining the Budget for the current year 1957.

Major Arthur Hill addressed Council in an appeal for assistance to the Salvation Army.

The Finance Committee returned to the Chamber and recommended that the following changes be made in the Grant estimates for 1957; Increased Chapeau Community Hospital to $1250.00 from 1000.00 and a new Grant of $250.00 to Canadian Legion; Decreased Salvation Army from $400 to $300.00; Hull Social Service from $1000.00 to $800.00; and Pontiac Farm Forum formerly $100.00 is cancelled.
