World News In Brief

London, July 10.—(Reuters)—The Viceroy of India, Admiral Viscount Mountbatten has been recommended as Governor-General of India and Mohammed Ali Jinnah, president of the Muslim League, as Governor-General of Pakistan, Prime Minister Attlee announced today.

In making the announcement Attlee said he hoped severance of India into two parts—the new Dominions of India and Pakistan—would not last long.

Montreal, July 10.—(CP)—Inquests will be held today for a man and a boy, drowned during the week-end and whose bodies were recovered yesterday. Marc Laurzon, 16, drowned when he went swimming at nearby Plage Mon Repos after eating supper July 5, and Leopold Poirier, 43, accidentally fell in Riviere des Prairies while attempting to start his motor boat.

Athens, July 10.—(Reuters)—Greek police were today continuing their search for 4,000 persons suspected to be involved in a plot against the government, official sources here stated.

Arrests of Greek Communists, alleged to be involved, continued today and last night.

Of the 2,500 persons so far reported arrested, the Athens news agency said 2,163 were taken in the Athens area. Other arrests were made in Salonika, Volo and Aganion in northern Greece.

Demetrios Maximos, Greek prime minister, said today: "The United States Government agreed with the arrests, and, I believe, the British Government, too."

Three Rivers, Que., July 10.—A flying saucer "big as a star and shining like gold" was reported over Three Rivers last night by three women who were canoeing at nearby Pointe du Lac. Mrs. L. G. de Charette and Pauline and Therese Gouin said the flying disc appeared over the lake for about three minutes.

About the same time a local merchant, Antonio Gauthier, said he followed the course of the disc with a spyglass.

4 Canadians Said On "Death List"

Windsor, Ont., July 10.—(CP)—Four Windsor men are among some 135 named in that one of them called a "death list" published by an alleged Communist newspaper in Pittsburgh.

Vujko Yaksich, one of the four, said the paper refers to support of the Truman doctrine as their "offence." He added that the publication, "Free Expression," refers to the 135 men as among "the worst criminals and killers of the people."

Yaksich, former national president of the Serbian National Shield of Canada and a delegate to the all-Serb Congress in Chicago last month, said the men are known as "supporters of the Draza Mihailovich ideal and Canadian and United States democracy."

The three other Windsor men are Peter Bulat, National President of the Shield; Paul Popov, president of the Windsor branch of the Shield; and Peter Cue, national secretary. All 135 were delegates to the Congress, which went on record in support of President Truman's world policy.

Best Wishes From All Parts Of World Are Received By Princess On Her Engagement

Duplessis Is Charged With Aiding Vice

Hemmingford, Que., July 10.—Charges of protecting vice to aid the party funds and of depriving Quebec of between $30,000,000 and $35,000,000 annually by refusing to co-operate with Ottawa were levelled at Premier Maurice Duplessis and his Union National Party here last night by provincial opposition leader Adair Godbout speaking in support of Mrs. Mae L. O'Connor, Liberal Party candidate in the July 23 Huntingdon provincial by-election.

Taxpayers' money is finding its way into electoral funds the former Premier stated in attacking Mr. Duplessis' failure to investigate the vice situation throughout the province and the sale of liquor permits which he said netted "sums ranging to thousands of dollars."

"We repeatedly asked for such an inquiry insisting that it cover both the last Liberal and National Union administrations," but the Premier has been opposed to such an inquiry because he knows it would bring out things that would turn the stomachs of the honest people of this province," Mr. Godbout said.

Provincial autonomy has never been threatened by the Federal Government, he declared. "Autonomy is not even concerned with the federal offers to the province to reduce taxes. These proposals are simply aimed at simplifying taxation. Mr. Duplessis' persistent refusal to come to terms with Ottawa like seven other provinces is simply because the Liberals are in power there," he maintained.

Mr. Godbout praised the candidacy of Mrs. O'Connor, the first woman to run for the Provincial Legislature. He stated, "We cannot afford to leave women out of politics any more because one of the main duties of governments now is to supervise social legislation. And who better than women know the needs of their families and children?"

Senate Would Revise Law For Divorce

Ottawa, July 10.—(CP)—Possible solution to the controversial question of Quebec divorces coming before Parliament was in the offing today following suggestions made yesterday in the Senate.

The Senate Divorce Committee, in its final report, announced that a record number of petitions had been received from Quebec, the only province without its own divorce courts, and said that although they would be granted, recommended that some non-parliamentary body be made responsible for divorces in that province.

Number of petitions amounted to 350, compared with the previous record of 290, set last year.

Senator Thomas Vieu (Quebec) and Senator John Sinclair (L.P.—Prince Edward Island) urged appointment next session of a special committee to study the problem and suggested it might be possible to amend the constitution to make the provinces instead of the Dominion responsible for divorce.

Senator Wishart Robertson, Gov-

Bitter Dominion-Provincial Issue Is Again Thrown Open

Ottawa, July 10.—(CP)—Parliament was up-dated on Canada's vital defence picture yesterday and at the same time plunged into the complicated sphere of Dominion-Provincial financial relations, a development which threw hopes for early prorogation to the four winds of chance and the oratorical eagerness of its members.

Inaugurating its morning-sitting wind-up drive, the Commons sat through pre-noon and afternoon hours of questioning of Defence Minister Claxton—after he outlined a 14-point defence program—and not a dollar of his $240,000,000-odd defence estimates was passed. The Dominion-Provincial bombshell burst at night.

It came in the form of a 10,000-word statement by Finance Minister Abbott as he moved second reading to a bill to implement financial agreements with seven provinces and which makes provision for Ontario and Quebec should they later agree to enter. Mr. Abbott's lengthy state-

Date For Wedding of Princess Elizabeth To Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, Former Prince of Greece, To Be Set Within Few Days—Announcement of Engagement Steals Spotlight From International Politics and Domestic Economic Problems.

London, July 10.—(CP)—A radiant Princess Elizabeth, her eyes sparkling like the three-diamond engagement ring that glistened on her third finger, received best wishes from all parts of the world today on her betrothal to Lieut. Philip Mountbatten.

"We are very, very happy," she told a friend as she leafed through pile after pile of congratulatory messages in Buckingham Palace, where her handsome fiance also was in residence.

Outside the vast gray palace, a crowd that swelled to more than 2,000 stood in steady rain for a glimpse of the Princess when she left with her family for a Westminster Abbey ceremony.

Hurrahs and shouts of "Good Luck" rang out as the Royal Family left in a limousine for the Abbey, where the King unveiled a new memorial chapel to the fliers who saved the country from invasion in the Battle of Britain.

Mountbatten, on 14-day leave, did not accompany the Royal Family.

The announcement of the royal engagement and speculation over plans for the wedding—the date for which is to be set within a few days—temporarily stole the spotlight from international politics and domestic economic problems.

Thirty-seven fighter pilots who fought in the battle acted as ushers while a guard of honor of 30 other pilots formed outside the historic abbey. At the end of the service of dedication a fanfare was sounded and the abbey bells rang out.

Dominion, American and Swiss visitors were among the thousands standing in the rain outside the Abbey to watch relatives of airmen who died in the Battle of Britain, and high-ranking officers of the British, American, French, Norwegian, Dutch and Polish air forces file into the Abbey for the dedication ceremony.

Rain threatened to cancel the Royal garden party planned for this afternoon at which the Princess and Mountbatten were expected to make their first public appearance.

An official announcement today said Mountbatten would accompany the Royal Family to Scotland. Before departing for Westminster Abbey today the Princess and her husband-to-be had their official engagement photographs taken in the bow room of the palace.

In Ottawa Prime Minister Mackenzie King informed the Commons last night of the engagement of Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten and said parliamentarians would want to join in wishing them every good wish.

In a brief statement he said the Canadian Government had been consulted by the King and had been glad to give its concurrence.

John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, Angus MacInnis, acting C.C.F. leader and John Blackmore (S.C.—Leithbridge) added their best wishes.

It was learned that a member of the Privy Council of each Dominion will go to London later this month to endorse the King's permission for the marriage. There was no indication which member of the Canadian cabinet will sign for Canada.

While the public speculated whether a royal wedding between gracious Princess Elizabeth, 21, and her fiance, handsome Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, 26, of the Royal Navy, would be held in October or next spring, messages of congratulation from all parts of the world flooded into the massive, grey-stoned Buckingham palace, with the Commonwealth Prime Ministers leading all.

Announcement of the betrothal in a special court circular was so timed that it could be made simultaneously to all of the King's peoples in the Commonwealth. The Prime Ministers of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Southern Rhodesia were notified by the King at the same time as he told Prime Minister Attlee.

Thousands of small homes, pubs and cafes buzzed with gossip of the forthcoming wedding. The ordinary folk recognized a touch of family affection in the wording of the King's announcement—that he had "gladly given his con-

Royal Engagement

Britain's Royal Romance delay temporarily banished gloomy thoughts of economic crisis and political strife in England and word of the engagement of Princess Elizabeth to Lt. Philip Mountbatten, the former Prince Philip of Greece, was welcomed throughout the British Empire. Top photograph was taken last December and shows Philip and Princess Elizabeth (right) helping Princess Margaret Rose remove her wraps. Two recent photographs are shown at bottom left and centre, while at right the Princess and Philip are seen at the reception which followed the marriage of her lady-in-waiting.

At Least 15 Countries To Attend European Aid Talks

Paris, July 10.—(AP)—A boycott of the European Economic Conference by virtually all states within the Soviet sphere developed today as Hungary joined Bulgaria, Romania, Yugoslavia and Poland in rejecting a British-French invitation to meet at Paris Saturday.

With today the deadline for replies, attendance by at least 15 of the 22 invited powers was certain. Only two countries in the Russian sphere, Finland and Albania, remained to be heard from.

Albania was expected to follow the lead of Russia, whose Foreign Minister Molotov opposed the plan for economic co-operation in three-power talks last week. Observers last night said there was only a 50-50 chance that Finland would accept.

Switzerland, meanwhile, announced three conditions for her participation. The Government announced that the Swiss would assume no obligations contrary to Switzerland's traditional status as a neutral; that the conclusions reached at Paris concerning Swiss economy would be subject to Swiss Government approval, and that the Swiss reserved the right to maintain trade agreements with nations not represented at the Conference.

Czechoslovakia, which has close political and economic ties with the Soviet Union, and Austria, where some Russian troops still are stationed, have decided to take part in the Conference.

In the invitations, distributed last Thursday, Britain and France proposed that participants in the Conference set up committees to survey Europe's resources and needs in a move to get United States aid in continental reconstruction.

State Secretary Marshall offered such aid, provided Europe took the initiative in recovery planning, in a letter to the conference.

May And Garssons Seeking New Trial

Washington, July 10.—(AP)—Ex-Congressman Andrew J. May and munitions makers Henry and Murray Garsson appealed Wednesday for a new trial on grounds their July 3 bribery convictions were "unfair" and the result of "prejudice."

The three contended there was insufficient evidence to warrant their convictions on charges that the Garssons conspired to buy and May agreed to sell his wartime services as chairman of the House Military Committee for more than $50,000.

Their petitions asked a new trial, an outright acquittal by setting aside the jury verdict, and an arrest of judgment.

UN May Be Asked To Settle Balkan Issue If Veto Used

Lake Success, N.Y., July 10.—(AP)—Authoritative sources said today the United Nations General Assembly might be asked to settle the Balkan problem if Russia votes a United States proposal for a border watch along Greece's northern frontiers.

The possibility of such a step was suggested as French and Colombian efforts at reconciling the opposed American and Russian proposals for settlement of Balkan disorders appeared doomed.

The United States made it clear that she would settle for nothing less than a semi-permanent U.N. border commission to watch over Greece's frontiers with Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

New Contract Sends Miners Back To Work

Less Than 10 Per Cent of U.S. Soft Coal Production Unaccounted For as Southern Mine Operators Capitulate to Lewis Demands.

Pittsburgh, July 10.—(AP)—The United States' bituminous production spurred toward normal today as "able and willing" A.F.L. miners from the north and south dug coal under terms of a new and unprecedented wage agreement.

Southern mine operators, last holdouts to the "take-it-or-leave-it" terms of John L. Lewis, capitulated yesterday. The vast West Virginia and East Kentucky bituminous mine interests signed first, leaving less than 10 per cent of American soft coal production unaccounted for.

However, mines in Virginia and Tennessee were described as temporarily withholding signature because they feared collision with state laws regulating the closed shop and dues checkoff.

The only sour note came from Washington where representatives Fred Hartley (Rep.—N.J.) co-author of the Taft-Hartley Labor Law, warned that coal operators risk criminal prosecution for signing the Lewis contract. He claimed it violates the new labor act.

Laurence J. Tierney, Jr., a signer and a spokesman for the Southern Association, summed up the employers' reaction to Hartley's charge: "If we're wrong, we're perfectly willing to be wrong. And we hope Fred Hartley is right. I hope we'll be able to pick comfortable cells. We'll probably have good companionship."

Virtually normal production in the northern, western and mid-western coal fields was expected today. Nearly 135,000 of the 300,000 miners covered by the northern signing reported yesterday.

Many of the south's 100,000 coal diggers also prepared to work today although industry sources did not expect normal operations there until the end of the week.

The miners went back with a 44-cent hourly increase in pay, hiking the daily rate from $11.85 for a nine-hour day to $13.05 for eight hours. The contract covers the employment of miners only during the time as "such persons are able and willing to work."

The new contract promises at least a year of peace in the usually turbulent coal fields, scenes of four walkouts in the past eight months. Two of the stoppages were on a national level.

"It's the best contract we ever had," summed up a grizzled mine veteran. But he voiced the fear that increased living costs might eat up most of the benefits.

This Boat Builder Has His Problems

Montreal, July 10.—(CP)—Montreal's problem man for today is J. Ashen who some time ago decided building boats would be a nice hobby.

Accordingly he built, inside his small factory what he says is the first cabin cruiser built in Montreal that has a steel hull.

The problem: Launching it. The 36-foot boat with an 11-foot beam wouldn't move out of the building through its ordinary exit. Ashen took out a window. He knocked out a lot of wall. He got it half out and the police stopped him because he had no permit to block a road, even temporarily while getting his vessel to water. So back it went into his building, until he got the necessary permit.

Said Ashen: "Boatbuilding? Boy, what a hobby!"

Authoritative sources said if Russia used the veto to block U.N. action in the Balkans at this time the other steps would have to be taken.

They suggested that one step would be to hand the problem to the General Assembly when it meets in September. The assembly, they pointed out, could establish a commission without fear of being blocked by a Soviet veto. Only a two-thirds majority vote is required for assembly action.

An assembly commission, however, would be somewhat restricted in its work. It would not have the complete powers that a Security Council Commission would be given. For instance, it could not call upon individual governments to aid in any required action in the Balkan area. It could, however, watch over the Balkan area and make reports.

Authoritative sources declared the U.S. had turned down French

FIMVILLE PEOPLED BY IMITATORS
Hollywood, July 10.—One of the great mysteries of Hollywood is that the whole town runs in cycles. In everything from movies to diets to automobiles to places to live to eating. Anywhere else you call it keeping up with the Joneses. When one studio finds a certain type of actor or actress, acceptable at the box office, they all look for the same type. M-G-M made a star out of Van Johnson. He was an overgrown kid with a freckled face and gals wanted to mother him. So everyone started looking for Van Johnson types. It was the thing to do. Then Warner Bros. discovered Lauren Bacall. She talked way down there. That started the "talk-down-in-your-toes derby." Deep-voiced gals from near and far were sought out, tested and offered to the public. About the only one besides Bogart's Baby to register at the box office was Elizabeth Scott. She went Bacall one better and talked through the soles of her feet.

PICTURES COME IN CYCLES
The studios follow each other in the movies they make. "Lost Weekend" started a cycle of drunk pictures. Warner Bros. will film "The Story of Eddie Cantor" following success of "The Jolson Story." It's been a long time since the Rin Tin Tin pictures, but Lassie started a new dog cycle. And after Lassie had proved herself at the box office a couple of times, others followed suit. "Bob, Son of Battle," is one of the followers. "The Outlaw" was followed by "Duel in the Sun." "Spellbound" was the leader for a band of pictures based on psychiatry. In their daily lives the Hollywood stars follow the same pattern. Someone wanted to get away

PITCHING HORSESHOES
by Billy Rose

I went to a snooty party the other night. Real snooty. Blue-bloods from way back. Before the gentlemen with the checkered vests inquired how I happened to get invited, I'd like to explain it was a charity affair and I had been asked to bring along a couple of entertainers. As I was causing devastation among the canapes, somebody came up from behind and gave me the unimportant kiss on the cheek. It was a Movie Star, an actress whose face you probably know better than your own.

"What are you doing at this clam bake?" I asked her, after the hellos. "I've known the hostess since I was a kid," she said, and flashed the smile that's got for three million dollars at the box office. I thought that was a little bit odd, but didn't press it. When I first met the Movie Actress about twenty years back, she was doing a hot Charleston specialty in a little night club down the street from one of my early tourist traps.

This gal's life is one of the fire-cracker stories of show business. She got a job in Hollywood playing bit parts, clawed her way to stardom, went into eclipse when talkies came, learned how to act with words, and then stormed back to the top over mountains of younger and prettier flesh. I watched the Actress as she stood there, holding court at this elegant gathering. She made the society belles look pretty dusty—and she knew it.

She was dressed in a little black number dreamed up by Adrian that must have set her back six bills. Around her neck was a diamond necklace that would have been a bargain at a quarter of a million. "Not bad for a gal who did only a go-go Charleston," I said to myself. And then I noticed she was also wearing a little fraternity pin over her heart—seed pearls and black glass—worth all of twenty bucks in a rising market. I sidled over and said, "Where'd you get the pin? Don't tell me you're going in for college boys this season."

The Movie Actress laughed up and down the scale. "A story goes with this pin," she said. "But I'll only tell it if you promise not to use my name." "First the story," I said. "We'll talk about the promise later." "Maybe it won't sound like much," the Actress began. "It happened out on Long Island when I was 16. In Westbury. My mother brought me up out here in one of those houses with five rooms and two mortgages. The rich kids in Westbury called it 'The Eyesore.' They had equally charming names for me. 'Miss Gym Bloomers' was one of them.

"Most of the girls in our neighborhood went to private schools. These little switch acted as if Public High were some kind of reform school. How I hated them! Of course, it was because I wanted to be like them. "I especially hated a girl named Bettina. She went to Miss Finch's School for Young Ladies. I used to laugh at her languid way of talking—that is, when I wasn't trying to imitate it. Many's the night I dreamed about killing Bettina. And I might have done it, too, if I thought I could have gotten away with it.

"One day Bettina told me how the president of the freshman class at Williams was giving her the big rush. She said she was going to the Spring Hop with him, and that he had promised her his fraternity pin. At 16, that fraternity pin shaped up to me like the crown jewels of Russia. "When Bettina came home from school that June, I asked to see the pin. She doubletalked a little, and then confessed the freshman had given it to his mother. "That was the big moment of my life, Billy. I unbuckled my jacket and showed her my fraternity pin. The one I'm wearing tonight. Bettina just about split when I told her it had been given to me by the captain of the Yale football team."

"You must have been pretty fond of that Yale boy to keep wearing his pin all these years," I said. "Yale boy, my eye," grinned the Movie Actress. "I went without lunches for three months to pay for that pin."

"How come you're wearing it tonight, then?" I asked. "It doesn't exactly go with that necklace." The Movie Actress smiled. "The necklace is to make the girls here tonight a little unhappy. The fraternity pin is for our charming hostess, Mrs. Bettina Havemeyer, formerly of Westbury, Long Island." "I've decided not to use your name when I write this story," I told the former Charleston dancer.

Coal Must Move Into Bins At Once, Consumers Are Warned

At a recent meeting of the Anthracite Producer-Retailer Committee, held in New York, the retail members as a group learned for the first time that the producers were unanimous in their fears of an anthracite shortage this coming winter unless the mines could operate at full capacity during the summer months.

The Anthracite Producer-Retailer Committee, composed of solid fuel retailers and Pennsylvania anthracite producers, stated that "hard coal needs for the next winter will require full production every week until next spring and if coal is not moved into consumers' bins now, it cannot be produced in sufficient quantities next winter to meet all needs at that time. Consumers and dealers are advised to "buy now" so producers can produce now."

Careful analysis of all factors affecting demand during 1947-48 indicate an increased demand of approximately two million tons. This makes no allowance for last year's abnormally warm weather, anticipated shipments to Canada and to foreign countries suffering from fuel shortages. The expected large deficiency of coke, installation of anthracite heating equipment in new homes and the wider industrial use of anthracite are the big factors in the probable increased demand. The committee assumes that considerable tonnage will be lost to oil, but the expected increase in the price of household heating oil and factors indicating a probable shortage of oil may soon change that picture radically.

LONG SERVICE MEDAL GIVEN EARL TURNER

Earl Turner, Scoutmaster of the Fifth Sherbrooke, St. Peter's, troop was the recipient of the long service medal at the Scout Camp on visitors day.

Over one hundred visitors, parents and friends visiting the boys attended the event which included a special open air religious service conducted by the Rev. Russell Brown of St. Peter's Church.

Norman Tovey, chairman of the Badge Board stated that the board had been reviewing the records of the leaders and some recommendations were made for suitable awards to be made in recognition of their services. He then called on Mr. C. G. Blake, district commissioner, Sherbrooke district to make the presentation of the first of these awards.

In presenting the award, Mr. Blake outlined briefly the history of Mr. Turner and stated that he had more than fulfilled the requirements needed for the long service medal.

Mr. Turner was a member of the old Inverness troop in 1918 to 1920 and prior to that he was a member of the lone scouts troop of America 1914-1918. He became skipper of the "life saving scouts" Sherbrooke 1935 to 1936 and then transferred to the Fifth Sherbrooke troop as Scoutmaster in 1936 where he has been active ever since with the exception of six years war service.

The Sixth Sherbrooke troop with their skipper Eric Sharpe were also present.

LOCH GAEL WAS SCENE OF FINE GARDEN PARTY

Waterville, July, 10.—"Loch Gael" the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Gale, Waterville, was the scene on Thursday, July 3rd, of a garden party, and tea held by the Ladies' Aid of the Waterville United Church. The guests were received by the president, Mrs. R. L. Gale, and vice-president, Mrs. Robert Smith.

Tea was served to one hundred and forty guests including friends from Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, Coaticook and North Hatley.

Mrs. Warren Gale was convener of the sales table, while Mrs. Stuart Bier, assisted by Mrs. Douglas Campbell, was in charge of the tea.

Crimson and pink peonies in a copper kettle centered the long tea table under the trees, where tea was served by Mrs. W. H. Baglow, Mrs. Alice Cairnie and Miss Gladys Swanson.

This has long been an annual event in the affairs of the Ladies' Aid and it is hoped that those held in the future will continue to be as successful.

30 Entries Already Received For Annual Fair At Richmond

Richmond, July 10.—With some thirty entries already received for exhibiting in the main building, and judges named for the various livestock entries, the directors of the Richmond County Agricultural Society anticipate a record year as plans are completed for the 91st annual Richmond County Fair to be held here on August 14-15-16.

Entries close on August 9th, it is pointed out by Miss Antoinette Linahan, Fair Secretary, who states that all persons who are desirous of entering exhibits for this year's exhibition should make their entry on or before August 9th as none will be received after that date. The Richmond County Fair is open to all residents of the County, as well as Durham, Kingsey and Ely.

A splendid prize list is being offered this year.

President A. E. Dyson heads the hard-working slate of officers this year again, and with him on the Board are Vice-President E. D. Taber, W. E. McIver, and Miss A. Linahan, Secretary-Treasurer. Some 24 different committees are active in preparing the various departmental entries and arranging the different phases of the exhibition.

This year, a new midway will hold forth on Richmond Fair grounds for the three days and nights of the 91st annual Fair, with Daniels Greater Show, an all-Canadian organization, bringing many new and exciting rides and shows to amuse both young and old on the gay, white way of mirth and music. This attraction is always a highlight of the Fair, and in engaging Daniels Greater Shows the directors feel that they have a midway on which everyone will be well entertained.

On the grandstand stage, which, with the large modern grandstand itself, is being repainted and put into readiness for the two-day performances of George Hamid's all-star vaudeville acts, Richmond Fairgoers this year will see some unusual and highly entertaining circus numbers brought direct from New York City. The Hamid stage show will provide humor, thrills and amazement in the colorful trappings and actions of the several acts, new to this part of the country.

A popular band will be on the

EXPANSION OF COOPERATIVE IS ANNOUNCED

Notification that the sub station of the cooperative d'electricite of Brigham has been connected to the 48,000 volts line of the Southern Canada Power Company was received today from the Cooperative's Headquarters in Brigham. Authorized by the office of Rural Electrification, the connection was made June 26 by Engineers of the Company.

With this new development, the Cooperative of Brigham will cover 80 miles of main lines serving 400 members and customers. Since the Cooperative's incorporation in August 1945, the members have subscribed more than $30,000 as shareholders. Preliminary work started in July 1946.

The Cooperative came into being through the efforts of the board of administration presided by Emile Gote and due to Rev. P. E. Godeite's achievements in promoting the cause of the Cooperative among citizens of the county. Rev. Godeite, parish priest at Brigham, made the first proceedings, held meetings and acquired right of ways in order to make this undertaking possible.

In a statement made today, Alex J. Gagnon, Cooperative manager assured the members that the lines would be completed this year. "This will enable us to give members the service they have desired for so long," said Mr. Gagnon.

E. T. Anglican Minister Sails For Labrador Mission Fields

Halifax, July 10.—An Anglican Minister, Newfoundland-born and homesick for the sea after four years' at an inland parish, aided by his one-man crew, a bishop's 22-year-old son, hoisted the sails of a 36-foot ketch-rigged vessel Glad Tidings today beginning a three week voyage to the mission fields of Labrador.

Rev. F. W. Mitchell's rough appearance aboard ship might shock his Stanstead, Que., parishioners and Rt. Rev. H. W. Moorhead, Bishop of Fredericton, might not consider the hunting knife strapped on son John's belt as appropriate for a mission cruise.

The sailor priest said "It's never to be by the sea again after four years. People born by the water are never completely happy away from it."

MANY MATTERS ARE DISCUSSED AT CONGRESS

By DOUGLAS GREEN
Canadian Press Staff Writer
Winnipeg, July 10.—The role of public relations in the conduct of municipal government was scheduled to be discussed today by delegates attending the 10th annual convention of the Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities, with Mayor Camille Houde of Montreal as chairman.

Consideration of the relatively new field of public relations follows panels on town planning, civic recreation, municipal finance and housing—a topic which led the federation yesterday to request a conference on it with Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Reconstruction Minister Howe and other members of the cabinet.

Mayor G. G. McGeer of Vancouver termed municipal finance "the most important and difficult" of the problems confronting those responsible for municipal government.

Under Confederation, the responsibility for local needs had been left to provincial governments.

The Income Tax Act of 1917 constituted the first federal invasion of the field of direct taxation, and since then it had ad-

POLICE CHIEF AT COATICOOK GETS AWARD

Coaticook, July 10.—John Nickel, Secretary of the Dow Award Committee, has just announced that Roch Dandaneault, Chief of Police, at Coaticook, will receive the Dow Award at the end of this month, in recognition of his act of heroism in rescuing a man from drowning in the Coaticook River last May.

The incident occurred when a car driven by O. Tetreault of Ste. Edwidge, was driven into the river and the driver misjudged the length of a driveway bordering the riverbank, and plunged his vehicle into some seven feet of water. Tetreault and a fellow passenger, Homer Roy, managed to escape, but the third passenger, Achille Roy, 64, was trapped in the submerged vehicle.

Summoned to the scene of the accident, Police Chief Dandaneault ripped off his cap and uniform, dove into the rain-swollen river and swam to the car where he forced open a front door against the heavy current, dragged out the man and brought him to safety with the aid of a rope flung from the shore.

The Dow Award is given in recognition of acts of extreme bravery by Canadian citizens, and is given following recommendation made by a committee of prominent newspapermen.

MOTHERLESS PUPS HAVE MOTHER CAT

The old saying of "fighting like cats and dogs" is contradicted at the home of Mrs. George Barfield on Courcellette Street as a full grown cat is rearing six puppies whose mother died suddenly after giving birth to the litter.

vanced until Ottawa, controlled all powers of taxation with the advent of the Second World War.

Industrialization had increased employment in urban areas, Mr. McGeer said. Municipalities now were in better financial positions than they had been for some years, but this improvement had come about largely at the expense of deferred maintenance and expansion and as the result of heavy expenditures by the Federal Government.

A tremendous building boom now was in progress across Canada, but should a recession occur many of those contemplating expansion would "freeze up."

RAGWEED IS DESTROYED IN CITY DISTRICT

This year, as in past seasons, local sufferers from hay fever are being protected as much as possible by the city through its program to stamp out ragweed and other noxious plants, the Record learned this morning from City Clerk Antonin Deslauriers.

Beginning early, Parks Superintendent J. A. Tardis treated the city's parks with a weed-killing spray solution about a month ago, while the same service was made available, in fact, with the weather areas reported by citizens as likely to harbor pollen-producing weeds.

The hay fever season will begin shortly, bringing with it no small amount of discomfort for those susceptible to the malady. Local residents, however, may be thankful that this district is comparatively free from ragweed, source of the pollen particles which annually cause dire distress to thousands, and that a vigorous municipal program further enhances the possibility of passing the summer months without contracting the disease.

partly, as would every good Canadian, would support the proposals so far as they provided for the fiscal need of the weaker provinces. But he had criticism on other grounds—the approach of each province separately which made for disunity, the lack of a new Dominion-Provincial Conference—and declared the provinces were being asked to give up their rights.

After the Dominion-Provincial Flurry the House went back to defence estimates and heard Mr. Claxton say that Canada's military experts do not believe the Dominion will become a theatre of war "for a good many years." During his long questioning, he also disclosed Canada's naval ships were and are being winterized "so that they can operate in northern waters" and gave a sharp "no" answer to a question as to whether there would be compulsory military training in Canada this year.

THE COMMUNIST PLOT IN GREECE

By DeWitt Mackenzie, AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Greek Government's announcement that the situation in Greece was due to Anglo-American interference and had denied that the U.N. order forbidding military personnel (meaning U. N. and British) off Greek soil.

It was in the pre-dawn of yesterday that Greek police and military made swift raids which netted close to 3,000 police charged with plotting rebellion against the state. Many important Communists reportedly had fled to the mountains or were in hiding. Officials stated that all those arrested would have hearings and that those implicated probably would be exiled on the numerous islands off the Greek coast in the Aegean.

One wonders whether Gromyko would have delivered exactly the same speech if he had known the Greek police were to swing into action against the Reds a few hours later. Anyway, the Soviet delegate's attack on American and British aid and defence of Communism in the Balkans provided another Gromyko drama for the Security Council at Lake Success.

The occasion was a debate on the majority report of the Balkan investigating commission, based on study of the situation on the spot. It placed responsibility for fomenting disorders in Greece upon the neighboring states of Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria—all communized and satellites of Moscow.

Gromyko said the Greek Government was the guilty party, and demanded that the council reverse the findings of the commission and make that Greece was guilty of causing disturbances in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria. He declared that Russia couldn't accept an American proposal for the establishment of a semi-permanent U. N. watch along the borders in question. Mr. Gromyko didn't say how many foreign military he claimed to be on Greek soil. However, a Greek source said there were only about 6,000, mostly British. The rest were American training troops.

The Soviet representative also called for United Nations supervision of all economic aid to Greece. This was calculated to put the American program of direct support under international control. The effect of Gromyko's fiery proposals of course must be to delay the Security Council in making a decision regarding the investigating commission's report. Any delay of this sort obviously would be of advantage to the Red elements which have been aiming at the establishment of a Soviet in Greece. It would permit continuance of such tactics as have been employed by Red elements along the frontiers of Greece's northern neighbors.

The discovery of the plot in Athens presumably has put a dent in the Communist program, but it isn't likely to halt the Red drive. At Least 15 Continued from Page 1 a Harvard University speech on June 5. Countries which have signified their intention of taking part, in addition to Czechoslovakia and Austria, are Britain, France, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Iceland, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Switzerland, Eire, Portugal, Italy, Greece and Turkey. Franco Spain was not invited. Poland and Yugoslavia rejected conference bids last night. The Polish action was announced after a four-hour cabinet meeting in Warsaw. Yugoslavia's negative reply followed several days of government discussions. In her official rejection, Yugoslavia complained that she had not been consulted before the invitations were sent. She added that she already had made long-term agreements with numerous countries and done much toward reconstruction with her own means and that "therefore we cannot accept a program which would hamper the revival" of economic life.

The Sydney Sun reported approving comment on the match in a front-page editorial that "every citizen of this country will share in the hope that the reign of Princess Elizabeth and Philip when it comes will prove as rich as that of Elizabeth's great namesake of the past."

Conference After Marriage Likely

London, July 10. — The Evening Star gossip column said today a Commonwealth Conference is likely to be held in London after Princess Elizabeth has been married to Lieut. Philip Mountbatten to discuss "a number of Empire constitutional issues."

Best Wishes

sent" to the betrothal of a "dearly beloved daughter."

As London newspapers were going to press with the sensational announcement, Princess Elizabeth still was dancing merrily at a private party—the guest of Hon. Robert and Lady Serena James at a coming-out party for their daughter Fay.

It was close on 2 a.m. when, in a picture dress of lime green tulle and embroidered with gold sequins and an ermine shoulder cape, she tripped down a dim-lit pathway to a large automobile waiting to take her home.

A small crowd gathered, waving and smiling as the car sped along Constitution Hill back to the Palace. Mountbatten—the former Prince Philip of Greece who recently became a naturalized British subject—did not attend the party. He drove to London from an R.N. Petty Officers' School at Corsham, Wilt., where he is an instructor, dined with the King at the Palace and stayed the night there.

The romance between Philip and the Princess—their presumptive to the British throne—has long been brewing. Mountbatten, a nephew of Viscount Mountbatten, Viceroy of India, like his uncle shares a love of the sea and had a distinguished record with the navy during the war.

The son of Prince Andrew of Greece, and Princess Andre (Princess Alice of Battenberg), Philip renounced his royal titles last March to become a British subject. As Elizabeth's husband when she becomes Queen, Philip presumably will occupy a position somewhat similar to that of Prince Albert of Saxe-Cobourg-Gotha, consort of Queen Victoria. Under English royal succession, the husband of the reigning Queen is a consort only—and the sole exception was William of Orange.

William, Prince of Orange, was the husband of Mary Stuart, daughter of James II. When James was deposed late in 1689, William and Mary became joint rulers and William continued on the throne after Mary's death. The Princess' uncle, the Duke of Windsor, said from Antibes, France, that the engagement "was very nice" and that he wished the Princess and her fiancé "all the luck in the world."

The reaction of the man on the street varied. Some called it "an unwise step" and others said "the partnership will be a good one." One shop assistant said he was against the marriage because "I do not like Greeks"—although Mountbatten is not Greek but predominantly Danish-German-English by blood.

Girls questioned mentioned how handsome the young officer is and one 19-year-old shorthand typist said: "He is a young, handsome man with a good record and should make a good partner for Princess Elizabeth. Whoever she marries—it won't make any difference to this shorthand typist." Newspaper comment also ran the range with most London papers splashing the story. The Times gave a fatherly pat on the head to the couple and suggested editorially that the match was solely for love. The Communist Daily Worker, on the other hand, headlined the story: "Peacocks for Philip: Taxpayers to find $35,000 a year?" The engagement roused speculation that the couple will travel around the Empire sometime soon after their marriage in the fashion of the present King and Queen, the late King George V and Queen Mary and the Duke of Windsor when he was Prince of Wales. It was suggested that after a suitable honeymoon period—traditionally at one of the Royal residences in the United Kingdom—Princess Elizabeth and Philip might visit Canada, where the former Prince of Wales was widely known and liked.

The Doctor Says

EASY WAYS TO TREAT IVY POISONING

By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.

If exposure to poison ivy, oak or sumac has occurred, clothing should be removed and the exposed skin cleansed with green soap, laundry soap potassium permanganate or alcohol. It is not likely that any of these methods will be successful if the poison has penetrated the skin—and it only stays on the surface about 5 to 15 minutes.

As soon as the skin reaction subsides, no further difficulty develops in the average case unless the poison has been spread to other portions of the skin by the patient. Secondary outbreaks at some distance from the place of exposure result from contact with contaminated hands. To prevent them, a full tub or shower bath, using plenty of soap, is recommended.

Ideal method of building up resistance to plants of the poison ivy group would be taking regular doses by mouth, gradually building up the dose until a high resistance is developed. This takes a long time and is not practical. Efforts of patients to shortcut the method by eating large quantities of the leaves results in severe inflammation of the bowel.

Treatment of ivy dermatitis varies with the extent and severity of the reaction. The affected portions should be covered with wet packs of dilute solution of potassium permanganate. Use plain sheeting or other white cloth folded six to eight times, soak and apply to the irritated skin.

"Paint" Treatment
Application of calamine lotion or powder with phenol is soothing. Also it should be applied three or four times a day with a soft paint brush and the part thoroughly cleaned once a day with water.

Treatment of ivy dermatitis with hot running water has been advocated in recent years. Affected portion is held under the tap and water as hot as can be tolerated is run over it.

In widespread involvement of the skin, baths of weak solution of potassium permanganate may be tried. General body baths in which cornstarch, bran or oatmeal are put in the water are soothing, a pound of each to a tubful of hot water. Put the starch in the water directly, but keep the bran or oatmeal in a cheesecloth bag.

Question: Are varicose veins made worse by pregnancy?
Answer: Veins tend to enlarge during pregnancy and in some cases the condition is permanent. But varicose veins are just as frequent in childless women.

CUTS DISHWASHING TIME 3 WAYS

- VEL penetrates, cuts grease; loosens dirt faster;
VEL eliminates wiping... makes dishes, glasses gleam;
no streaky film to wipe away.
No dishpan ring with VEL... no soap scum to scour away.

JUST put a few teaspoonfuls of VEL in your dishpan (about half as much as soap.) Add water. VEL gives the water amazing new cleaning power that lasts long after suds dissolve. VEL removes grease faster, more completely than soap—in hardest water. Your dishes, glasses sparkle and shine without the touch of a towel.

VEL keeps stockings sheerer, lovelier!

Says Shirley Underwood of Toronto: "After washing with VEL my nylons rinse bright and sheer as new! A few dips, a little gentle squeezing in lukewarm water, and VEL makes nylons and undies gloriously fresh! No dulling soap film!"

KEEPS MY WOOLENS SOFTER, FLEECIER THAN ANY SOAP!

Says Mrs. S. Brown of Newmarket, Ont.:

"I've never had a wool sweater stay so soft and fleecy. Washed with VEL and lukewarm water there's no shrinking or matting, no clogging soap film—colours stay bright."

Q—Can't educators do something to make men less finicky about what they eat? Wives have enough trouble, without being confronted with all sorts of unreasonable and childish whims of their husbands.

A—Agreed. But all studies show that women have more food dislikes than do men. Richard Wallen of the University of Cincinnati is one of the latest to report on this subject. He thinks boys are more consistently forced to eat things they dislike; girls are more often pampered in their prejudices. Maybe you won't agree with him! More women than men dislike avocado, bass, cantaloupe, caviar, coffee, cream of asparagus soup, cream of mushroom soup, dasheens, green pea soup, hominy, kale, hamburger, lobster, parsnips, pigeon, quail, rabbit, Scotch broth, spaghetti, tomatoes, venison, and watermelon. Don't ask me why!

Q—What is the average total cost of a childbirth? A—About $300 for a couple living on a $2,500 a year salary according to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

lightful time was had by all. The Church School superintendent, Mrs. C. Hall, was in charge of the entire program. A new idea was initiated at this time with the senior girl and senior boy attaining the highest number of points in all the sports throughout the day receiving a cup. These went to Ruth Adams and the boys, Alan Buckland and Dickie Seguin, were tied for theirs. The little ones were not forgotten, and were also treated to a number of sports events, for which they were duly rewarded. The members of St. Paul's Church School, numbering upwards of sixty with the accompanying teachers and parents, enjoyed their outing on Thursday to Bondville. Rev. E. D. Mitchell was in charge of proceedings, assisted by the following teachers, Mrs. Wesley Parkes, the Misses Pauline Dow, Buddy Smith, Audrey Tibbitts and Sally Stoddard. Swimming, boating and games were enjoyed throughout the day, when prizes were awarded to the winners. # REINFORCED LOCAL SQUAD MEET ST. JOHNS HERE TONIGHT

Lessard Come From Behind To Win While Ossie Carnegie Homers Twice

The majority of the fans at Dufresne Park went home hoarse from cheering and a little booing last night as Lessard eked out a 7-6 victory over Rand in one of the most exciting games played in the Industrial "A" Softball League this season.

In the second game of the doubleheader the Savard aggregation defeated the Y.M.C.A. crew 17-9.

The seventh inning was by no means lucky for the Rand squad who lead 5-1 at the end of the sixth inning.

To start off the last minute rally, proving that a ball game is never won until the last man is out, no matter how high the score, A. Dube and Pelletier singled for Lessard and Dion hit out a lousy double scoring both runners.

With both teams tense, Adjutor Cote came to the slab, picked up a bat, looked out in left field and then on the first pitch by Caunter, poled out a round tripper scoring Dion and tying up the ball game.

In the last half of the frame the Rand squad went out one-two-three.

In the extra inning, A. Dube connected for a home run scoring Lamontagne, who had previously hit safely. The next three men went out in short order but the damage had been done.

Ossie Carnegie, who hit two round trippers during the early part of the battle one over the fence into the tennis courts was intentionally balled and trotted down to first base moving Ellyson over to second. With two men out and nobody away Pepin banged out a single scoring Ellyson who came home as Pepin was trying to steal second. Pepin was put out. The next two batters up for the Rand never saw first base and the game was over, with Lessard emerging victorious you would like to say.

the winners after staging a four run comeback.

Caunter was touched for 11 hits while Lamontagne, the Lessard hurler gave up 9.

The Savard outfit got off to a good start against the Y.M.C.A. as the first man up, Collin, hit a homer and then the next seven men were walked. Savard led 5-0 at the end of the first inning.

The Y.M.C.A. who were without the services of three of their regular players, came to life towards the end of the game scoring 9 runs.

In the only industrial "A" game played at the Parade Grounds, the Panther Rubber downed the N.D. du Rosaire squad 10-7.

Eileen Fildes of Montreal paired with Hod Hovey of Winnipeg to win 6-1, 6-0, in a mixed doubles encounter against Marian Eaton and Al Cook of Winnipeg.

Locals Defeated St. Johns 2-1 Last Night With Lefty Letteri On Mound

The Sherbrooke Baseball Club returned home today fresh from a 2-1 victory over St. Johns last night and it seems that the locals are well on their way up the ladder in the league standings.

Larry "Lefty" Letteri hurled for the locals last night while Bill O'Brien was behind the plate.

It was a pitching duel from start to finish with Blumette allowing seven hits and Letteri giving up five.

The newly acquired players were not in last night's lineup but it is expected that they will arrive in town today in time for tonight's clash.

Bete Tallifer hit a lousy double in last night's tilt to get on base and Don Sheeran drove a 440 yard triple to score the winning tally.

Norman Dussault made two outstanding catches in center field while he also connected for two hits.

Lefty O'Rourke will get the assignment for the locals on the mound tonight with Folini, Marcell and Phillips ready if needed.

Tomorrow the league leading St. Johns aggregation will return to Sherbrooke for another battle and if the locals can knock off the heavy hitting visitors tonight and tomorrow it will be easy picking for the rest of the season. Don't be surprised if Sherbrooke ends up in the first division.

HOCKEY UNDER OLYMPIC CODE AT '48 GAMES

Montreal, July 10.—(C)—"As I see it there will be ice hockey at the winter Olympic games on the terms of the International Olympic Committee, so far as amateurism goes, or none at all."

A. Sidney Dawes, president of the Canadian Olympic Committee, said yesterday.

He made this comment on his return from a committee meeting in Hamilton yesterday and after being advised of a London despatch which said two overseas hockey officials denied signing an agreement under which their hockey rules would be altered to conform to the definition of an amateur as laid down by the International Olympic Committee.

The two officials were Dr. Fritz Kraatz, president of the International Ice Hockey Federation, and Anson Johanson, president of the Swedish Ice Hockey Federation, who attended a June meeting of the International Olympic Committee in Stockholm.

"I can tell you about that," said Mr. Dawes. "Those two men have apparently not had time to sign the agreement."

He said that when he saw the agreement and signed it, it held the signatures of Britain's delegate, Lord Burrell, and Avery Brundage of the United States. Mr. Brundage had said Kraatz and Johanson had agreed to sign it.

"But even if they have not signed the agreement, that will not alter the International Olympic Committee's definition of an amateur," Mr. Dawes added.

The Olympic definition: "An amateur is one whose connection with sport is and always has been solely for pleasure and for the physical, mental and social benefits he derives therefrom and to whom sport is nothing more than recreation without material gain of any kind."

As to Canada's Allan Cup winners, Montreal Royals, not being able to represent Canada in the winter Olympics because of the I. O. C.'s ruling on amateurism, Mr. Dawes said that George Dudley, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, told the Hamilton meeting that his body would not be able to certify the Royals as being eligible under the definition.

MONTREAL LOSE ANOTHER GAME TO TORONTO

Hammerin' Hank Sauer kept Syracuse Chiefs in the game against Newark Bears with his 31st home run of the season last night, then won it for the Chiefs with his 32nd blast with one on for a 7-5 victory.

Newark saw a 4-1 early lead fade with starter Marius Russe being chased in the eighth, and with Sauer tying it up with his first homer, off reliever Duane Pillette, in the ninth.

Joe Collins' boot with two out in the 13th opened the gate for the Chiefs as Frankie Drews reached first. Then Sauer crashed Don Schmidt's first offering far over the left field wall.

Sauer's homer set a new high for a Syracuse player as he surpassed the 31 round-rippers registered by Dan Clark in 1926.

In other International League games last night, Jersey City clipped the seventh-place Baltimore Orioles 4-2, and the tail-end Toronto Leafs edged the league-leading Montreal Royals for their second straight, 4-3.

The other game on the slate, an afternoon affair, saw Clem Haugmann lose his sixth straight low-scoring ball game as the Rochester Red Wings blanked Buffalo, 2-0.

RECORD UPSETS PHILIP CAREY BY 5-3 SCORE

The last-place Sherbrooke Record ten spilled Philip Carey, 5-3 at the Parade Grounds; Fairbanks' record ten spilled Carey 5-4 in another Parade Grounds fixture, and Sherbrooke Machinery outscored Union Screen Plate 8-7 in Lennoxville in Industrial "C" Softball League games last night.

It was not by heavy hitting that the Record won over Carey. The Record was out-hit 7-6 by Carey. It was by making the most of a few safeties, and The Record gave a good example of how much can be accomplished in this way. In the fifth inning, Pardy homered with Bennett and Cook on base through singles. That was three runs. In the sixth, Denault and McLeod singled one after the other and scored on Beaulieu's double. That gave The Record five runs.

In the meantime, Beaulieu and Denault, The Record fingers, held the Carey batters at bay. The worst damage by the Lennoxville squad was two consecutive homers, by McLennan and Vanasse, in the third chapter. Carey got three runs in all in this inning.

The final score was The Record 5, Carey 3. The victory ended an eight-game Record losing streak. Denault won the game for The Record.

In the Brakeshoe-Fairbanks affair, Brakeshoe led 4-0 at the end of the fifth inning. Brakeshoe was a fourth-place team. Fairbanks, a fifth-place outfit, had beaten Sherbrooke Machinery and Union Screen Plate, both of whom were tied with Carey for first place in the league standing. Why could not Fairbanks beat Brakeshoe?

They did. In the sixth inning, Harvey, of Fairbanks, got on base on a fielder's choice and tallied on Cloutier's double. One run. In the seventh, a single by Demers scored two runners, an error brought home another runner, and another single sent Demers across the plate. That made it 5-4 for Fairbanks, and that was the final score.

Sherbrooke Machinery were behind practically all the way in the Lennoxville game. But it was a close struggle, and by getting two runs in the top half of the seventh Machinery topped Screen Plate 8-7. Glenecross hurled well for the city team, and annexed his fourth triumph of the campaign. The victory put Machinery in first place in the league standing for the first time this season.

Linescores and batteries are as follows: Philip Carey . . . . . 000 300 0-3 The Record . . . . . 000 032 x-5 Lavoie and Halock; Beaulieu, Denault and York.

Brakeshoe . . . . . 000 130 0-1 Fairbanks . . . . . 000 001 4-0 F. Bouchard and Cloutier; Dorey and Richards.

Bridgeport, Conn.—Joe DiMartino, 149, Bridgeport, outpointed Vic Costa, 154, New York, (8).

Portland, Me.—Hermie Freeman, 133½, Bangor, Me., outpointed Roy Andrews, 134, Lowell, Mass., (10).

Tandberg's Victory Over Joe Baksi Was Right Down Joe Louis' Alley

New York, July 10.—Joe Baksi so unexpectedly dropping a decision to one Olle Tandberg in Stockholm was right down Joe Louis' alley.

Not that Old Black Joe requited an out, but the champion may now go on playing golf and doing exhibitions without any questions from even Uncle Mike Jacobs.

I doubt that Louis would have tackled Baksi at Yankee Stadium, Sept. 19, even had the Kulpmont, Pa., beer hall bouncer disposed of Tandberg in a highly satisfactory fashion.

It is quite all right with the Brown Bomber that the smorgasbord on the other side settled all this without his having to risk any unpleasantness with the 20th Century Sporting Club by refusing to be stapled into an autumn outing. It is best for all hands, including the paying guests. The plodding Baksi and his two left feet and Tandberg now have a profitable rematch and the pair can stagger around in their own class all fall and winter.

When Tami Mauriello belted Louis across the Stadium ring with the opening ball last September, the Bronx keeper put a very bright idea in Smoky Joe's head. It was to retire unbeaten and to capitalize for the remainder of his days on his matchless record, something to which the Alabama-born Negro is so richly entitled. A few of us discussed this with the titleholder after his second knockout of Billy Conn in June last year, advised and urged him to hang 'em up.

Louis took on Mauriello only as a favor to Mike Jacobs—to keep the promoter's organization going and help fill his radio commitments. In return it is believed the proprietor of the 20th Century Sporting Club charged off a good share of Louis' personal debt to him on which income tax had already been paid.

Louis' every action since has made it plainer that he does not care to fight again. He has gone out of his way to build up cases against prospective opponents. "I don't see how the public would pay more than 15 cents for a championship fight with a contender who pops out of nowhere," regarding Tandberg, the latest example.

Because previous experience had convinced him that he could not please the patrons in exhibitions, Louis had booked himself in a motion picture house packet show when he accompanied the writer to Honolulu for an appearance last Nov. 11. It was in the islands that Louis found people were content simply to see him in action and under no pressure. Toward the end of a protracted shipping and sugar strike—with only relief ships docking—Louis drew $53,000.

While in Hawaii, Louis received a rich offer from Mexico City, was offered $100,000 for two appearances in Australia. The five-day packet show was out. The Latin American tour followed.

More recently he has appeared in exhibition bouts in the far west. Countless American and Canadian centers want him. The Orient and the Antipodes beckon. He has yet to appear in the British Isles and on the continent.

The cockeyed world will for some years be eager to see the Louis, who is—or was—considered invincible.

Whacked on the chin for keeps or outscrabbled by some egg, Louis would be just another ex-champion.

When people speak of Louis fighting, they overlook the fact that he has to train.

That is what the Bomber dislikes most. It was extremely difficult for him to get in shape for Conn last summer after four years in the Army. He spent 10 months in training.

There is no one in sight for Louis now and there isn't likely to be next year, when he will be larger around the hips and 34.

By the time some young fellow like Bernie Reynolds follows, Louis really will be Old Black Joe.

It is extremely doubtful that a finely-conditioned Joe Louis will again be unleashed to fire for keeps.

I hope it turns out that way. So few of them know when they have had enough.

Louis would be just another ex-champion.
