URGENT APPEALS WERE IGNORED

Rear-Admiral Sims Again Again Centres Fire on Navy Dept. at Washington

Washington, D.C., March 17.—Again centering his fire at the Navy Department on his charges that it insisted on declining all war operations from Washington, Rear-Admiral Sims told the Senate Investigating Committee today that his urgent appeals for an adequate staff in London were ignored until November, 1917.

Admiral Benson, chief of the operations, reached London during that month, Admiral Sims said, and quickly convinced himself of the necessity for establishing a real advance base headquarters of the Navy Department abroad with an adequate staff to make possible full co-operation with the Admiralty and co-ordinating all activities with the Allies.

"I had been recommending such action for five months and specifically in my letters of May 16, July 16 and October 23, 1917, had pointed out the necessity for the establishment of such an advance base headquarters abroad," said Admiral Sims.

After Admiral Benson had reported, the Department changed its attitude and a cable to Benson on November 11 said a decision had been reached and it would be advantageous to have a permanent staff in England to work with the plans of the Department of the British Admiralty.

"If this meets your approval additional officers will be sent to augment those already in England who are fitted for this work," it said.

Admiral Benson then asked that Captain F. H. Schofield and Commander Knox be ordered to report to Admiral Sims and Admiral Jellicoe for such duty and that, done at once, Admiral Sims testified, while his own recommendations for nearly six months for the same action had been disregarded.

"It is hardly necessary to state that this is merely another instance of the attitude of the Department during all those first critical months of the war," said Admiral Sims. "A recommendation I had been making for months was not carried into effect until Admiral Benson, during his short stay in London convinced himself that it was justified."

"The soundness of the policy was again demonstrated by the fact that the Department adopted it and throughout the remainder of the war continued to recognize, though sometimes grudgingly, the necessity for what had been continually recommended and which should have been obvious from the very first."

Admiral Sims was expected to conclude tomorrow his long statement begun more than a week ago. He has not been interrupted by committee members during its presentation and if his statement is concluded tomorrow, cross-examination probably will not be taken up before Saturday or possibly next week.

Unity of Command.

Unity of command of the Allied and American naval forces overseas similar to that which afterwards obtained in the Western front was recommended by him to the Navy Department as early as July, 1917, but was not approved, Rear-Admiral Sims today told the Senate Committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war.

The Admiral said that efforts to direct a large force of American ships and men by cable and letter from a point 3,000 miles away gave too many opportunities for misunderstanding of messages and for their interception by the enemy.

"The enemy secret service proved itself to be extraordinarily efficient," he said.

In his letter recommending that naval authority be concentrated at London, Admiral Sims said it was unquestionable that efficiency would be greatly improved if any one of the Allies were selected to direct all operations, "the others merely keeping

IRISH DEBATE IS CHOKED OFF

Senate Tabled Proposal To Declare Ireland Free By Reservation

Washington, March 17.—Hastening to clear the way for final action on the peace treaty the Senate today choked off a St. Patrick's Day debate on the Irish question by tabling 54 to 21 a proposal to declare by reservation that Great Britain should proclaim Ireland free.

The motion to table was made by Senator Kellogg, Republican, Minnesota, who denounced the proposal as "politics."

The Irish declaration was proposed by Senator Shields, Democrat, Tennessee, as an amendment to Senator Owen's reservation declaring that the British protectorate over Egypt was to be considered a war measure only. The vote tabled carried down the reservation itself and all proposed amendments, including that by Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado, for Korean independence, and another by Senator King, Democrat, Utah, providing for freedom for the Philippines, Porto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Hawaii.

Senator King said he offered his amendment merely to show how ridiculous the Senate was making itself.

Attempt to revive the Irish issue failed, the Senate voting 46 to 21 to table a reservation proposed by Senator Reed. Under this reservation the League Council might recommend by a three-fourths vote the release of any country held "by the superior power of another nation."

Thirty Republicans joined with sixteen Democrats in voting to table the Reed reservation while six Republicans and fifteen Democrats were against tabling.

The Senate next rejected, 51 to 15, a reservation introduced by Senator Norris, Republican of Nebraska, similar to the Owen reservation relating to Egypt.

The Republican irreconcilables, combining with the Democrats, overthrew the plan of Republican leaders to attach to the treaty a general declaration of American policy toward future European wars.

The declaratory reservation, which would pledge the United States to regard with "grave concern" any threat to Europe's peace or freedom, was voted down 25 to 39, after the irreconcilables had tried in vain to amend it. Intended as an offset to the reservation denying the obligations of Article Ten, the proposal had been expected by Republican leaders to attract many Democratic votes, but on the roll-call only two Senators on the Democratic side supported it.

Disposition of the reservation was regarded as clearing up the last doubtful issue of the treaty fight and the leaders immediately made plans to bring a vote on ratification by Friday. By unanimous consent it was agreed to limit speeches on all other pending reservations to fifteen minutes and to run tomorrow's session into the evening if necessary to put the ratification resolution into final form. About a dozen reservations remain to be voted on, but it is generally conceded that none of them will be adopted.

LOST LIFE IN FLOOD.

Bridgetown, N. S., March 17.—Hugh Whitman, a returned soldier, lost his life in the flood that swept over the valley on Saturday night.

His body was found yesterday by Owen Currie at Bloody Creek, a few miles west of Bridgetown. The deceased was a son of Henry Whitman, of Round Hill.

ing the one selected fully informed of their available resources."

"I realize my position in London renders me open to suspicion, that I may be unduly influenced by the British viewpoint of the war," the Admiral's letter stated. "It should not be necessary to state, however, that I have done everything within my ability to maintain a broad viewpoint."

RESIGNATION HAS BEEN HANDED IN

International Strike Very Probable As Protest Against New Regime

The Hague, March 17.—(By Ass'd Press)—The resignation of the government of Chancellor Kapp in Berlin was handed in this afternoon. It is announced in a Berlin despatch from the semi-official Wolff Bureau received here shortly before 4 p.m. An international strike as a protest against the destruction of the German Republic is probable unless the new regime in Germany is overthrown very soon, according to William Oudgeest, Secretary of the International Federation of Labor.

Reports received here from Heerlen, Holland, which is on the frontier of the Allied occupied German territory, say that the Spartacists hoisted the red flag and deposed the mayor at Halle, Westphalia, and Ohlig, Rhenish Prussia, but that British troops restored order and reinstated the mayors.

Amsterdam, March 17.—A serious insurrection movement in Westphalia, has resulted in battles with the troops and there have been a number of casualties, according to the Telegraaf's Munster correspondent.

Fighting was reported to be still in progress last night at Hagen, where troops had been rushed to put down a local Soviet republic, the correspondent adds.

Two battalions of troops have been despatched by the Munster workmen, the despatch says and the total of armed laborers is now eight thousand. The insurrection has been received by the laborers with heavy machine gun fire. The remainder of the troops are concealed near Soest and Well where they are awaiting reinforcements.

Majority Conference.

A special despatch received from Berlin under date of Wednesday says the members of the majority parties conferred with Wolfgang Kapp and that the result of the deliberations was transmitted to Stuttgart. The conference was held in consequence of a several hours discussion of the situation in the Reichstag between members of the old parties, including those of the right, and at which Dr. Karl Helfferich, former Vice-Chancellor and Secretary of the Interior, was present.

The Berlin correspondent of the Frankfurt Zeitung says that Kapp and Von Luettwitz have declared their unconditional retirement as a result of negotiations and have transferred the Government to Vice-Chancellor Schiffer.

General von Huelsen has taken over the command of the troops.

Collisions in Brunswick on Tuesday brought a crowd and the public security guard resulted in a number of civilians being killed or wounded, according to advices from Brunswick today.

Geneva March 17.—(By Ass'd Press)—General von Bulow, commanding the troops in Saxony and general Moellie, Commander of the Bavarian forces, have placed their troops at the disposal of President Ebert, according to despatches from Stuttgart.

OFFER NO DEFENCE.

New York, March 17.—Counsel for Cleveland Bergdolt, a wealthy young Philadelphia, charged with being a draft dodger, this morning announced that no defence will be offered, claiming that the government has failed to establish a case. The trial judge-advocate in his argument to the court asked that a sentence of thirty years imprisonment be imposed.

HAD INFORMAL NEGOTIATIONS WITH ENTENTE

Kapp Spokesman, Says However, That There Was Nothing Binding

Reichsrat Met Secretly

Luettwitz Authorized to Seize and Operate All Printing Works

Berlin, March 17.—(By the Associated Press)—When asked today regarding the report that the Kapp Government was negotiating with the Entente, the Kapp spokesman who met the correspondents intimated that there had been informal discussions, but said there were no "binding negotiations."

He reiterated that General Merker came to Berlin with the knowledge of the old Government and the approval of Friedrich Ebert and Gustav Noske.

One effect of the revolution has been the interruption of negotiations to repatriate Russian prisoners, of whom there are more than 200,000 scattered throughout Germany. The Associated Press is informed that the negotiations were almost concluded when the Government was overthrown. It was planned to ship the prisoners from Stettin to Reval and pass them into Russia through Esthonia.

The Reichsrat met secretly yesterday and disposed of a measure providing for a wage increase for public employees. Herr Schiffer presided. One of Chancellor Kapp's acts yesterday was the issuance of a decree empowering General von Luettwitz to take possession of all publishing houses and printing works and operate them for the Government as he might think fit.

There was no resumption of the tramway, underground and other railway services today, and the Government appealed to the men to "continue work against the Bolshevists, who threaten the welfare of the state and individual with destruction."

Berlin University and all other colleges in the city have been closed until further notice, and examinations have been postponed in order not to prejudice students who had placed themselves at the disposal of the new Government.

By order of von Luettwitz, extraordinary court martials have been re-established. Police president Ernst has been granted leave at his own request.

The Government has seized a supply of meal reserved for the Jews for the feast of the Pass-Over by the old Government; the meal has been distributed to the workers.

General von Luettwitz has refused to comply with repeated requests of Prince Joachim Albrecht for the release of the Prince from the Moabit jail where he is being held in connection with an assault on members of the French Commission in the Hotel Adlon dining room recently.

Other disorders occurred in the suburbs of Friedland, Charlottenburg, Schöneberg and Tegel, the latter a radical labor center.

Kapp's Resignation.

The official communique announcing the resignation of Chancellor Kapp endeavors to give a patriotic aspect to his withdrawal. It says: "The Bauer Government having voluntarily decided to fulfill the most essential personal demands addressed to it, the rejection of which on Saturday led to the establishment of the Kapp Government, Chancellor Kapp considers his mission fulfilled and retires, resigning the executive power again into the hands of the military commander-in-chief."

"In this he is moved by the conviction of the extreme necessity of the Fatherland, which demands solid union of all against the annihilating dangers of Bolshevism."

Stuttgart, March 17.—It is believed the National Assembly will open here late today despite the railroad strike. President Ebert and Minister of Defence Noske, as well as Philipp Scheidemann, former Premier, are here.

Professor Hartmann, Austrian Ambassador to Germany, arrived here today to confer with the German leaders. He declared that he feared a revolution in Vienna and Budapest in the event of the success by Chancellor Kapp.

JUSTIFICATION OF DISOBEDIENCE

Price Bros., Counsel Argued Commerce Board's Order Was Extra Vires

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—Justification of the refusal of Price Brothers and Company to obey the order of the Board of Commerce controlling price and shipment of newspaper paper was presented to the Supreme Court today by Alime Geoffrion, K.C., whose argument was only concluded at the end of the day, lasting from four P.M. yesterday. It was anticipated that the case would be concluded to-night, but Colonel O. M. Biggar, K.C., for the Attorney-General of Canada, and Eugene Lafleur, K.C., for Price Brothers have still to plead and the case will last at least another day.

Mr. Geoffrion took the stand that the Board's order, which sought to compel Price Brothers to supply newspaper to specified consumers in Montreal in specified quantities at a price of $30 per ton, infringed on the rights of provinces and was in excess of the powers conferred upon the Board of Commerce under the Combines and Fair Prices Act, and the Board of Commerce Act. The whole case for Price Brothers apparently hinges on the jurisdiction of the Board of Commerce over business transactions within the Province of Quebec, and numerous cases were cited by Counsel to show that such power could not be vested by Parliament in a single tribunal created under Order-in-Council.

SINN FEIN FLAG

AT PORTAGE DU FORT

Portage Du Fort, Que., March 17.—The flag of the Irish Republic flapped in the breeze over the town hall here this morning, the Sinn Fein colors, green, white and orange, causing a sensation to put it mildly.

Naturally people were demanding reasons and to all inquiries Mr. Leonard Coyne, Secretary-Treasurer of the town innkeepers' guild, replied: "We wish to recognize the right of the Irish people to govern themselves and to show respect to Papineau and McKenzie, who through their rebellion 32 years ago, obtained self-government for Canada."

"Long live De Valera and the Republic."

BOY 'KICKED TO DEATH'

Pueblo, Colo., March 17.—Five school boys arrested in connection with the death of the eleven-year-old son of Mrs. P. A. Kuykendall, confessed to the police, that they kicked the boy to death because they were jealous of his high standing in the school the boys attended.

HOUSE DEBATED SOLDIERS' RE-ESTABLISHMENT

Major Andrews, of Winnipeg, Wants Another Special Committee

GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION

Take Best Means To See That the Investigations Carried On

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—Re-establishment of returned men monopolized the day's proceedings in the House. Last year, a special committee of the House investigated re-establishment at some length. But there were several fields which the committee, admittedly, was unable to explore; and today Major Andrews, of Winnipeg, (himself a returned man), moved the appointment of another special committee.

Early in the debate Sir George Foster, repeating the promise made by Mr. Rowell a few days ago, declared that it was the intention of the Government to appoint a committee empowered "to take up and carry on from the point that the old committee left off."

But the Government was not in a position to give its decision "off the bat." On this there was some murmuring among the Opposition. "The Government," Sir George added, "does not propose to burke another question. It proposes to take the best means in its power, after a little consideration to see that these investigations are carried on."

Major Andrews, in presenting his motion, urged that re-establishment should be settled at home in the same spirit as was shown by the men when they went overseas. Lieut.-Colonel Peck, C.C., supporting, thought questions should come before the committee in this order: Pensions, re-establishment, gratuity. Support, too, was given to the motion by Captain McGibbon and Captain Manion, the former citing instances of present hardship in civilian life suffered by returned men. Captain Power, while supporting the motion hoped that appointment of a committee would not be used as a camouflage before next week's G. W. V. A. Convention in Montreal. A "strong" official speech by D. D. McKenzie, former House Leader of the Opposition brought him into spirited conflict with E. W. Nesbitt, a member of last year's committee. Mr. McKenzie declared that the patience of returned men was about exhausted by the Government's dilatory and tedious ways.

Aid to the men had been deliberately delayed and a committee used as a camouflage. The soldiers' settlement scheme had been taken advantage of by emissaries of the Government to graft at the expense of the men.

Nesbitt Hot.

Mr. Nesbitt, speaking later, especially resented reference which Mr. McKenzie had made to last year's committee. Had Mr. McKenzie attended any of the committee meetings, Mr. McKenzie shaking his head, replied that he had not.

Heatedly, Mr. Nesbitt retorted that if Mr. McKenzie had not attended the committee's meetings, it was unfair that he should criticize. "It is not only unfair," Mr. Nesbitt shouted, "it is absolutely mean."

The Speaker intervened. He requested withdrawal of the word "mean."

Mr. Nesbitt complied, but insisted on the use of "unfair." And in reply to Mr. McKenzie stood at that Captain C. G. Power, Quebec South, said that when the last committee's report was brought before the Commons he had moved that it be referred back as the recommendations were inadequate. If they were inadequate then they certainly were not sufficient at this time. Relief had been provided but many necessities cases suffered because these men would not apply for public charity. He would support the resolution with the hope that the appointment of a committee would not be used as a camouflage before the G. W. V. A. Convention at Montreal next week by those who had made promises and had not fulfilled them.

Veterans Sick.

The returned men were sick of committees and of having their claims shelved by being referred to these bodies. He asked if it was intended to appoint a different committee on pensions. He was sure the Government did not intend giving any further gratuity to this committee would be useless on that ground.

Captain Power said land settlement as work should be investigated, but not by a committee of city men, who like himself, "did not know a plow from a harrow."

He advised the Government to look to the cross-benchers for advice on land settlement. The Government would also be advised to pick out the different phases of re-establishment and have a committee composed of each composed of men who knew what they were dealing with.

Children Cry for Fletcher's CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep. NO ADJUSTMENT OF DIFFERENCE

Canadian Shippers and Railways Disagree Over the Latter's Regulation

Ottawa, Ont., March 17—(By Canadian Press)—No adjustment of the difference between Canadian railways over the regulation of the latter instructing their agents to refuse payments of freight consigned to points in the United States, was reached at the hearing before the Railway Commission this afternoon. After representatives of boards of trade and manufacturers as well as the railways, had put forward a number of arguments in support of their case, the hearing was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Chief Commissioner Carvell intimated that he did not think the railways could be compelled to accept payment in Canada unless they saw fit and also that he knew of no good reason why they should be compelled to suffer loss owing to unfavorable exchange conditions.

Commissioner A. C. Boyce advanced the view that it was unfair for a Canadian shipper to pay in New York exchange if the haul was largely over Canadian railways. The railways thought it inadvisable to try and institute any charge in collecting the international freight tariffs, as suggested by some of the shippers.

R. A. Pringle K.C., appearing for a number of manufacturers in the province of Quebec, took the ground that the Railways had no right to make such a regulation without first passing a by-law and submitting it to the Board of Railway Commissioners. The regulation they had made involved a change in the method of payment which was subject to the Railway Commission. Such a change should certainly not have been without giving the public at least thirty days' notice, thus making it possible for shippers to conclude new contracts. He said that the Railway companies should accept payment for freight when offered to them by the shippers, but the Chief Commissioner was of the opinion that there was nothing to compel the railways to do this.

THIBODEAU FACES FORGERY CHARGES

Was Secretary of Tramway Benefit Assn.—Is Charged with Embezzling $19,000

Montreal, Que., March 17—Charged with forgery and embezzling $19,688.89, Zolique Albert Thibodeau appeared before Judge Lanctot in enquete court today and was committed for trial. His voluntary statement will take place next Thursday.

According to the charge, Thibodeau was the secretary or chief clerk of the National Tramways Employees' Mutual Benefit Association, and the chief witness against him was the Chief Accountant of the Montreal Tramways Company who investigated the books of the Association and found the total of defalcations for the years 1904 to 1919 amounting to the above mentioned sum. It was stated that there were about 1,250 cheques or receipts—figures had been forged—only six were produced in court.

CONDITIONS IN VARIOUS TOWNS

Germany Compared by Dutch Press Correspondent To a Rudderless Ship

The Hague, March 17—The Handelsblad's Berlin correspondent sums up conditions in various towns of Germany as follows:

"Quiet prevails in Coburg and the entire southern Germany. Halle and also East Prussia are quiet, but in many other towns there is a general strike, among the number, Munich, Hanover and Hamburg. At Hamburg however, the gas, water and electrical services are in operation.

"Serious demonstrations by the Socialists, Independents and Communists have occurred in the towns of Elberfeld, Bochum and Leipzig. In street fighting at Dortmund seven persons were killed and several wounded. A strike is threatened in Wurttemberg. The new Government has arrested the Socialist President Alder and the papers are under a censorship."

The Berlin correspondent of the Nieuw Rotterdamse Courant telephoned a message to his paper last night, but communication was severed before he finished. He said: "Germany is a rudderless ship. Kapp's undertaking proves increasingly to be not an achievement, but a political boyish trick. The new government is seeking on all sides for support, but realizes that support is nowhere to be found. If the situation were not so serious, one could see the humorous side of this operetta revolution."

"Kapp supported his efforts to win over the Independents by proposing to form a Cabinet embracing the extremist Left to the farther Right, but this naive plan naturally miscarried. The new government seems to have allowed the right moment for action to pass and now is endeavoring to seek a safe issue through negotiations with the old regime."

Wieringen, Holland, March 16—(By Associated Press)—There has been much feasting and other celebrating within the quarters of former Crown Prince Frederick William here since the news of the new development in Germany began to reach Wieringen. Frederick William being reported as regarding the situation joyfully. He is said to have assured the burgomaster that he will not attempt to leave Holland.

DEBATE ON THE IRISH QUESTION

United States Understands That Great Britain will Recognize Republic

Washington, D.C., March 17—In the Senate today, Senator Shields, Democrat, Tennessee, opened debate on the Irish question by introducing an amendment to the Owen reservation saying it was the understanding of the United States that Great Britain "will forthwith recognize the existence and political independence of the Republic of Ireland and agree that it become a member of the League of Nations, with equal representation accorded to all other sovereign and independent Governments."

Speaking in the amendment's support, Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, said that although Ireland was a civilized nation hundreds of years before England, "she has been crushed into subjection."

Senator Townsend, Republican, Michigan, opposed both the Owen reservation and the Shields amendment as an undue interference with Great Britain's affairs, while Senator Phelan, Democrat, California, defended the right of the Senate to discuss questions of international moment not directly affecting the "United States."

"Let's quit demagoguing about Great Britain," said Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa. "I wonder what we would think today if someone was going through the British Empire raising funds for a free Philippines or a free Hawaii, or a free Virgin Islands. For my part I don't care about any Irish vote that is to be gained at the expense of continually maligning a great nation like Great Britain."

Senator Thomas, Democrat, Colorado, suggested that the British navy "nearly always has been the mainstay of the Monroe Doctrine."

WEAR OR NOT WEAR CORSET?
French Fashions are Being Watched With Eagerness as to Final Outcome in Spring.

Not only have the fashion shows staged in this country suggested the possibility that there may arise a demand for a corset which holds the figure firmly in place, with a slight emphasis on a marked waistline, but the French openings, with recurrent stress on the "smoothly fitted bodice," also suggest a departure from the easy, so-called "corsetless figure," which has held sway for so long a time.

It will be interesting to follow the season with an eye to its ultimate effect on corset fashions, possibly in the spring. Whether it will be the smaller group, with the easy, comfortable figure, to which the American woman has apparently become attached, judging from a five-years' adherence to it, or the newer and larger school, which takes its inspiration from the eighteenth century is hard to predict at this time.

QUEBEC THURSDAY, MARCH 18, 1920.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY
DULY HONORED

Anniversary Quietly But Loyally Observed by Irishmen in Quebec

St. Patrick's Day though quietly observed in Quebec, was nevertheless honored by the Irish men and women and their descendants with the same love and spirit of patriotic fervor for the motherland, that characterizes the gael no matter where they have been scattered in all parts of the globe.

The absence was conspicuous of an outdoor demonstration such as occurred in the Ancient Capital in the good old days of the past, when Irishmen with banners unfurled and emblems of Erin held aloft, marched through the streets in procession in step with numerous bands of music, making the streets resound with martial music.

The spirit of Irish patriotism and love for the old land still lives however, in the hearts of the descendants of Erin in Quebec. This was evidenced yesterday by the wearing of the green and the happy greeting interchanged on the way to attend the religious service held in old St. Patrick's Church.

In the meantime the occasion was not forgotten by the citizens generally. The green flag held a prominent position from the flagstaff of the City Hall, while the flags of all sister national societies were flown in compliment to the National Feast of Ireland.

Besides the Irish residents of Quebec who wore the sprig of imported shamrock or green color, a great many French-Canadians also wore in green in respect to their Irish fellow citizens.

Religious Observation

The event of the day was its observance by the religious service that took place in St. Patrick's Church. The main altar of the Sacred edifice was beautifully decorated with palms, natural shamrock, and a profusion of electric lights, while the interior of the edifice was adorned with green and white colors that blended in harmony with the blaze of light from the altar, and the happy faces of the large congregation.

A solemn high pontifical mass was celebrated by His Grace Mgr. Roy, Auxiliary Archbishop of Quebec, assisted by Rev. Abbe Garneau, deacon, and sub-deacon, and in the Sanctuary were Mgr. Pelletier, Rector of Laval University, Rev. Canon Laflamme, cure of Quebec, Rev. Abbe Dion, Garneau, Labrecque, Caron, Nicol, Laberge, Roy, Nadeau, Desrosiers, Huot, Lepage, and Morissette. Rev. Father E. A. Maguire, Parish Priest of St. Columba, de Silery Rev. Father Costello, Rector, and Fathers of St. Patrick's Church.

Among the invited guests who occupied seats outside the Sanctuary rails, were, His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, and Lady Fitzpatrick, accompanied by their A.D.C. and His Worship Mayor J. Samson.

The musical portion of the mass was very fine. Mr. Andrew Jacques presided at the organ, played a number of Irish airs before the beginning of the service.

The Sermon

The Rev. Father Anthony McBrearty, C.S.S.R. of Montreal preached the special sermon and chose for his text "In Thee Have Our Fathers Hoped, and They Were Not Confounded," speaking in part the Reverend preacher said: Every Catholic nation has an apostle and points with just pride to the one who brings them the light of Faith. Ireland's beloved apostle is St. Patrick, and like the other nations, therefore, his sons and daughters "the world over" are united in paying tribute to their saintly benefactor. Countless voices chorus his praise and numerous pulpits eulogize his memory. The shamrock, which is worn with love and reverence by his children, today, bespeaks the love they bear the holy apostle.

It was Ireland's privilege during centuries to retain her cherished faith, and it is to St. Patrick, who rendered a three-fold service to that country, infusing into the blood of the people an undying love and staunchness for their faith, and therefore a three-fold honor is due him today. Ireland's conversion is considered the most remarkable chapter in history, being operated so swiftly and without blood, which is little short of miraculous.

"Touching on the history of Patrick's early life, the speaker pictured him setting foot on the pagan soil of Erin for the first time, an apostle solely relying on God, not backed up by armies, power or wealth, undertaking the tremendous work of establishing a religion and instilling into the hearts of the people an entirely new doctrine. He described the arrival of the Saint in the year 432 at Easteride, presenting himself before the king and three killed and six were injured at St. John's, P.Q., yesterday

Montreal, Que., March 17.—(By Can. Press)—Three men were killed and six seriously injured, one of whom is not expected to live, when a concrete building in course of erection for the Singer Manufacturing Company at St. John's, Que., collapsed this afternoon, and buried under the debris about a dozen men. The accident is thought to have been caused by the giving away of two concrete beams which resulted in heavy cement roof falling through the building into the cellar. The collapse is supposed to have been caused by frost having got into the cement before it was thoroughly set. The dead are:

Emery Brault 30, St. Johns.

Benoit, 24, St. Johns.

Chauvin, 48, of Irberville.

All three were crushed to death.

William Duclos, of St. Johns, one of the injured whose head was crushed beneath the pieces of cement, has been unconscious since he was picked up and is not likely to recover.

The accident occurred about 1:30 when there were about a dozen men at work and it was 5:15 before the last victim, Brault, was recovered. The roof fell without any warning and the men were precipitated from the top floor to the cellar. The walls held and it was necessary to smash portions of them to get at the groaning victims.

Brault leaves a wife and three children and Chauvin is survived by his wife and eleven children.

An inquiry will be held tomorrow at St. Johns.

courtesies assembled on Tara's heights overflowing with zeal and burning charity to convert the whole world. Like Paul of old, he stood before the court, who with one accord accepted the religion of Patrick and the light that flashed on Tara's hill spread throughout the land, causing monasteries to spring up, and the faith to shine brightly in the lives of the people so that before his death, St. Patrick was known to exclaim, "I found the island universally pagan, but left it universally Christian."

"The two most priceless gifts instilled into the Irish blood by the Saint, were Sanctity and Faith, and these gifts have been perpetuated down to this day and will go down deathless throughout the coming centuries. These qualities flourished in the early days in the various monasteries and convents, in Ireland, where all other nations flock to receive their education and carried away with them the spirit of sanctity and learning that had caused Ireland to be styled the "Isle of Saints."

"During three centuries it was the will of Divine Providence to leave the beautiful island bask in the sunshine of God's smile; on her, no disturbing elements cast their shadows, but after a calm comes the storm, and an Ireland serene and happy in the faith of Patrick must henceforward be tried in the crucible of sorrow and taste bitterness through the dark hours of distress, and withstand the fiercest gales of persecution that ever tried a nation."

"The Danes were the first invaders, who swept over the land despoiling and destroying everything and until the year 1014 the Irish succeeded in arising and shaking off the yoke, casting the Danes into the seas. The second storm was the Normans subjected the people to their dominion for 400 years and Ireland was finally transferred to the English dynasty. This was the final test of her faith, for it was demanded of her to fight or give up that faith. She chose the former, and then followed the struggle which existed to the present day, a struggle which has been fought on a thousand battlefields and in which the best blood of Irish children has been spilled, her lands left waste and desolate, but she kept her glorious faith intact, a fact which has baffled her enemies through the long years of cruel oppression carried on ruthlessly in Ireland in every county town and valley of that unhappy land."

"Ireland's enemies," said the preacher did not know her and never will, for to obliterate the faith in the hearts of the Irish nation they would have to knock Ireland off the map and tear up the sods planted by St. Patrick and mowed with the tears and blood of his countless martyrs and patriots. That is why the schemes of Cromwell, the penal laws of William of Orange and such measures right down to the present day have not succeeded in stamping out the faith in Ireland."

"Today we should rejoice in this great triumph of our faith, and the practical lesson pointed out to every son and daughter of Erin is to live up to that faith and be worthy of the great St. Patrick, and the prayer that should ascend from the lips of every one of her children today is that Ireland may be blessed and one day become a great nation, with her children firmly adhering to the faith."

St. Patrick's Dinner

At the conclusion of the religious service the usual St. Patrick's Day Dinner was given at the Presbytery by the Rev'd. Rector and Fathers of St. Patrick's Church and among the guests in attendance were His Grace Mgr. Roy, His Grace Mgr. Mathieu, Archbishop of Regina, and clergy who assisted at the mass; also members of St. Patrick's Church.

Promises Dutch Government to Refrain from All Political Activity

The Hague, March 17.—(Ass. Press)—A royal decree issued March 16, says the place to be allotted to former Emperor William of Germany as his residence will form part of the province of Utrecht, and that it will be fixed later by the Government. The decree was in connection with an announcement to the Allied Premiers regarding their request not concerning the one-time monarch.

Will Be Good

London, March 17.—The Dutch Premier has informed the Presidents of the Upper and Lower Houses of Parliament by letter that former Emperor William has assured the Dutch Government that he will refrain from all political activity and do nothing which would involve Holland in any international difficulty, says a despatch to the Central News from The Hague.

Prince Feisal Says Syrian Independence Will Not Affect Them

London, March 17.—Details of the Syrian situation received in London state that Prince Feisal, the newly proclaimed King of Syria, has officially intimated that neither the independence of Syria nor his acceptance of the throne will in any way affect the cordial relations between himself and the Allies. The king has declared himself in favor of an Arab state comprising Lebanon, Mesopotamia and Palestine, over which he shall have sovereignty. He also favors an indivisible Syria which would not affect the present European administration and advocates the assistance of British and French advisers, advice received here state.

The latest despatches show that the situation in Damascus is normal but elsewhere there are signs of much nationalist activity as the result of pan-Syrian congress, which dissolved after a declaration pledging activity for an independent Syria. The country around Aleppo is much disturbed and the despatches says it is indicated Prince Feisal has not carried the whole population with him.

A MAN ARRESTED IN COAL BUNKER

Declares Himself To Be An Editor of Two Papers in Oregon

London, March 17.—A despatch to the London Times from Abo, Finland says at a preliminary hearing and under cross-examination, the man arrested in the coal-bunker of a Finnish steamer bound for Sweden recently asserted that his name was John Reed and declared he was the editor of two newspapers in Oregon. The man, who previously had given his name as Pasgornich and declared that he was an American, said he had arrived in Russia five months ago, according to the despatch.

A despatch to the Times from Abo Monday in announcing the arrest of the man on board a Finnish steamer said he had English, American and German passports and diamonds and money amounting to a large sum. Also there was found on him, according to the despatch, Soviet propaganda literature, cunningly prepared photograph stamps, reduced to the size of postage stamps, and a very small compass.

John Reed, editor of Voice of Labor, said to be the party organ of the Communist Labor Party in the United States, was indicted in Chicago along with a large number of other alleged radicals last January, charged with conspiracy to overthrow the Government by force in violation of State Syndicalism Act.

Reed is said to be a close friend of both Lenin and Trotsky.

TRAIN ACCIDENT AT LUNENBURG, N. S.

Lunenburg, N.S., March 17.—As the morning train from Lunenburg got on the main line and was backing to the station at Mahone Junction today, a freight came around the curve from blockhouse and a head-on collision resulted. A large number of passengers were on the train and all were considerably shaken up. Some were cut and bruised, but none received serious injuries. Both the locomotives were badly damaged. A wrecking train from Bridgewater cleared the line. The trains are operated by the Halifax and South Western Railway.

ALLIED FORCES HAVE OCCUPIED CONSTANTINOPLE

Military Demonstration Met With Only One Untoward Happening

UNDER THE BIG GUNS

Formidable Allied Fleet Is Anchored in Bosphorus and Dominates City

Constantinople, March 16.—(By the Associated Press).—Constantinople was occupied this morning by Allied forces under General Sir Geo. F. Milne, of the British Army. This long-looked-for military demonstration by the Allies against Turkey was carried out with only one untoward happening a serious clash at the War Office, where Turks resisted the Allied troops.

An exchange of shots resulted, in which several Punjabs, of the British East Indian forces and a few of the Turks were killed.

The excitement caused by the occupation quieted down before darkness which brought absolute calm.

The landing of the forces of occupation was carried out under the guns of the formidable Allied fleet anchored in the Bosphorus. The British dreadnaught Benbow was moored at the Galata quay, her guns trained on Stamboul. Another man-of-war faced the arsenal in the Golden Horn while all the other warships in the Bosphorus were standing by, with their decks cleared for action.

There was no resistance to the Allied forces as they carried out the orders for the occupation of the historic capital of the Ottoman Empire. The population, in fact, showed little alarm, nor was there any signs of panic except in one section of Stamboul, as the commanders of the Allied troops brought their forces ashore.

These forces included four thousand bluejackets and marines from the British warships and contingents from the forces of all the Allies represented here. Indian detachments having Moslems on their rosters were amongst the troops taking part in the operation.

Comprehensive military and naval plans had been made for carrying out the Allied measures and precautionary steps taken. Last night a number of Turks and other persons who were regarded as possible disturbers of the peace were arrested, including the Commander of the 16th Turkish Division.

The dead walls of Constantinople have been placarded with a proclamation by Major-General Henry F. M. Wilson, of the British troops, declaring that anyone committing any act that threatened the safety of the Allied forces would be sentenced to death or such other penalty as the court might fix.

The flutter that occurred in Stamboul as the troops marched in was on the part of the shopkeepers near the Bosphorus, where the clash occurred. The crowd of shops, in their first fright, but speedily reopened them.

The Allies are declared to believe their measures have provided amply for the maintenance of security and order in Constantinople and consider it questionable whether even the so-called nationalist forces in Anatolia are in a position to attempt any thing serious.

The Allied High Commissioner here has issued a statement declaring that the Allies have no intention of destroying the authority of the Sultan, but wish to strengthen his power. It also says the Allies will adhere to their intention not to deprive the Turks of Constantinople, but that they may be compelled to modify their decisions if massacres and disorders continue.

The Allies have occupied the Ministries of War and the Navy and assumed control of the Posts, Telegraphs, and Telephones, which have been temporarily suspended. Shipping also has been suspended.

A Bonar Law

Andrew Bonar Law announced in the House of Commons today that Constantinople had been occupied by Allied troops as proposed and that at only one point was there any fighting. Two British soldiers were reported killed and one officer and three men wounded.

One Turk officer and eight Turks were killed and others were wounded.

Mr. Bonar Law said that at the same time the Turkish Government had been warned that the occupation of Constantinople would continue until the terms of the peace treaty were duly executed and further if outrages against the native Christians continued the terms would be more severe.

For reasons previously indicated, it was decided that the Government in conjunction with its Allies, should proceed with the occupation of Constantinople. The general administration of that city would not be taken over, but the Ministries of War and Marine would be occupied. The postal and telegraph services and navigation on the Bosphorus would be placed under Allied control and the police put under Allied officers.

CANADIAN TRADE
SHOWS INCREASE

One Hundred Million Dollars More Than Previous Fiscal Year

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—(By Canadian Press).—An increase of $103,926,832 in the grand total of Canadian trade for the eleven months of the fiscal year ending February 29, as compared with the same period last year, is shown by the monthly statement issued from the Customs Department. For the eleven months which ended on February 29 last, the total of Canadian trade, both imports and exports, was $2,110,548,504, while for the same period in 1919 it reached a total of $2,006,621,672. The increase in imports during the eleven months period, as compared with the previous year is $77,324,941, and in exports $26,601,894. Imports for the eleven months of the present fiscal year totalled $922,018,804, and exports for the same period totalled $1,188,529,699.

German Peace Delegates Find Difficulty in Communicating with Stuttgart

Paris, March 17.—From information received in German circles in Paris, the situation in Germany is still undecided. No solution has been reached, and the German peace delegation and Embassy are finding greater difficulties in communicating with Stuttgart.

Communication with Berlin has been completely interrupted.

Premier Millerand had a conference this morning with Marshal Foch and the latter's assistant, Gen. Weygand.

Which had stormed French headquarters at Bonn and had pillaged stores and private houses, says a Berlin despatch to the Journal. The disorder began by an attack on a French military auto truck. The driver and several others were obliged to flee upon the mob, in order to avoid being lynched, the despatch says.

Washington, D.C., March 17.—The Ebert Government on its withdrawal from Berlin, requested all countries to withhold recognition of the regime in control at Berlin, according to the statement today. The statement accompanying the request said that the Ebert leaders left Berlin to avoid bloodshed, the announcement is said to have been distributed by airplane.

London, March 17.—General Merker, has personally admitted that he acted entirely on his own initiative in his attempt to reconcile the old and new German Governments. This is on the authority of an official despatch received here.

Forty-four persons have been killed in Essen, according to an official British telegram.

NOTES SENT TO SOUTH AMERICA

Washington Requires That There Shall Be No Breach of Peace

Washington, D.C., March 17.—The American Government has sent two notes to Bolivia and is preparing to send a third requiring that there be no breach of peace in South America.

Peru, through Ambassador Pezet, has asked the American Government to use its friendly offices to prevent a breach of the peace in South America growing out of the attack by Bolivians on the Peruvian Legation at La Paz.

At the State Department it was said that the representations made to Bolivia had been "urgent" and that a second note had been dispatched, and a third prepared because no reply to the first had come from Bolivia.

No Direct Advice

Lima, Peru, March 17.—Officials of the Peruvian Government have received no direct advice from Bolivia since Monday afternoon relative to disorders at La Paz, where the Peruvian Legation was attacked on Sunday night. Latest reports from Bolivia were received yesterday morning from Guayaquil Station on the railway from the border to La Paz. It was stated the Bolivian Government had seized all rolling stock and was replacing Peruvian employees with Bolivians.

General Ismael Montes, former President of Bolivia, is apparently in complete control of La Paz and has called out all Bolivian reserve troops.

SIR GEO. FOSTER
ANSWERS QUERIES

Government Is Powerless To Enact Laws Fixing Labor Hours

Ottawa, March 17.—(Can. Press).—Replying to Hon. Charles Murphy in the House, today, Sir George Foster said that Hector McInnes, K.C., of Halifax, had been appointed one of the counsel in connection with the arbitration proceedings with the Grand Trunk Railway. Mr. McInnes did not fill an official position overseas during the general elections in 1917.

Mr. Foster—"Is the government still of opinion that this Parliament has no power to enact legislation fixing hours of labor?"

The Minister of Justice—"Yes, unless such legislation should become necessary or proper for the purpose set forth in section 132 of the B. N. A."

"Is it the intention of the government to enact the 8-hour day during the present session?" Mr. Foster asked.

"The enactment of legislation is the function of Parliament," responded the Minister of Justice. "As to proposing legislation should such be called for under article 132 above mentioned, the government will announce its intention if and when the situation arises."

Replying then to questions by Mr. March, of Sagot, Mr. Doherty said the government had arrived at an understanding with the Quebec Government relative to fines paid by defaulters under the Military Service Act. So far as these fines were received by the Province, Mr. Doherty proceeded, they were to be returned to the Dominion.

STORMY DEBATE
ON GRATUITIES

Great War Veterans' Hold a Convention at Peterboro, Ont.

Peterboro, Ont., March 17.—A stormy debate on the gratuity question occupied the attention of some two hundred delegates at this afternoon's session of the G. W. V. A. Provincial Convention in session here. The debate opened with a resume of the main points in the issue by Comrade C. Wilson, of Toronto, and three hours later closed with the meeting unanimously adopting the G. W. V. A. soldiers' re-establishment scheme, as submitted to the Parliamentary Committee in October last.

The contentious point in the scheme presented to the convention was the clause in the report dealing with the needs of the applicant. This requires applicants to furnish proof of need and answer many personal questions as to the proposed use of the gratuity money. The majority of the delegates were of the opinion that such questions should not be submitted to the applicant on the ground that the applicant was fully entitled to the money and it was nobody's business what he did with it.

This questionnaire was eliminated from the report, and a resolution which was brought in by a special committee that this particular scheme be adopted, was carried unanimously.

Comrade R. Warburton, of Kingston, was the sole objector to the gratuity scheme. He claimed that the scheme had received all they were entitled to, and said that in other countries such as Belgium, where gratuities had not been granted to the soldiers a quick recovery had been made.

A telegram from J. P. Burnham, M.P., read at the meeting, stated that the Acting-Premier, Sir George Foster, had promised to appoint another committee to consider the gratuity claims of the veterans.

This brought forth a roar of laughter from the convention.

COMPLETION OF HUDSON BAY RY.

Some Western Members Propose Sending Petition To Government

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—(By Can. Press).—Immediate completion of such Hudson's Bay Railway is to be urged in a petition to the Government of some Western members who are calling their friends to a meeting scheduled for tomorrow morning. That there is a split in the ranks of the Westerners was, however, learned definitely tonight.

Those in favor of the completion of the road urge that the Government should undertake all possible construction work this year and that experts advise that the project is a feasible one, to say nothing of the fact that the road would probably have been completed long before now if the war had not put a sudden stop to all public works of more than minor dimensions.

The main argument against it is that here are still many miles of railways to be built to areas which are already established farming communities and for which roads, the inhabitants of such communities have waited patiently for many seasons.

ALKALI IN SHampoos
Bad for Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats everything else to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dirt, dust and dandruff.

SUIT AGAINST TOWN ASSESSOR

Ex-Mayor Desrosiers, of East View, Ont., Institutes An Action

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—A Desrosiers, Mayor of East View, 1919, this morning filed a writ at the court house by which a suit for $20,000 was instituted against Mr. Arthur Guilbault, town assessor of East View.

This suit had arisen out of the recent case before Judge Gunn, by which Mayor J. H. White was sued. In that suit it was sworn by a witness that there were 10 names either improperly on the East View assessment list from which the voters' list is taken, or improperly left off the list.

It is stated that one of the motives impelling Dr. Desrosiers to take this action is to justify his 1919 administration, as Mr. Guilbault was one of his chief town officials.

The case will be tried at an early date before the sittings of the Supreme Court of Ontario in this city.

SADIE ROONEY
WAS ARRESTED

Charged as Accessory Before Fact of Robert Moore's Murder

Lawrence, Mass., March 17.—Mrs. Sadie Rooney, was arrested here tonight charged with having been an accessory before the fact to the murder of Robert C. Moore, at Greenville Junction, Maine, last Saturday night. According to the police, she and William Pomeroy, who is under arrest, with Jesse C. Scott on a charge of murder had lived as man and wife for about two years, although Mrs. Rooney told the police they had not been married.

Mrs. Rooney will be given a hearing tomorrow. The police said that she denied all knowledge of the murder, except what she had read in the newspapers. They said she told them she worked in Moore's home for a time about two years ago and met Pomeroy there and that she accompanied Pomeroy to Nova Scotia and later to various other places, coming here last January. She obtained employment here in a dye works.

HELD REINS OF POWER FOR LESS THAN FIVE DAYS

Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, the Self-Appointed Dictator, Retired from Control

MISSION FULFILLED

Old Government Decides To Meet Most Of Essential Demands Made

Berlin, March 17.—(By the Associated Press).—After holding the reins of power for less than five days, Dr. Wolfgang Kapp, the self-appointed Chancellor and dictator, has retired from office and control. He resigned today, and an official communication explained that the Chancellor considered his mission fulfilled when the old Government demands addressed to it. He was also moved to this action by the extreme necessity of the Fatherland, which demanded union against the dangers of Bolshevism.

The real circumstances of Kapp's retirement are still shrouded in mystery. An important factor undoubtedly is to be found in the deliberations of the Under-Secretaries and Imperial Council yesterday, which Major-General von Luitwitz attended.

The view of this conference were that both Kapp and von Luitwitz withdraw in order to terminate an intolerable position.

Von Luitwitz agreed to this, but when he returned to the chancellery, he allowed himself to be persuaded to change his mind and retain office. To him has been delegated the executive power by the former revolutionary chancellor, and it is difficult to say what will happen now that von Luitwitz remains the military dictator at Berlin.

In conference with the foreign correspondents yesterday, Kapp's press chief made play with the Bolshevik danger. In a second conference an attempt was made to reveal the fact that the Berlin Government was likely to be of only short duration.

Although the general strike dealt this Government a mortal blow the decisive fact is that Kapp and his supporters had no political prestige, their government being built only on machine-gun. The statement made at these conferences gave a self-expression and caused a suspicion that the cry of alarm about the Bolsheviks was preliminary to the announcement of retreat.

The chief of the press bureau warned the correspondents against showing themselves in the streets, as a communist revolt was expected hourly.

That any kind of compromise is out of the question now is undoubted. President Ebert of the old Government is strongly entrenched at Stuttgart, where, according to semi-official advice, the council of the Empire met today and unanimously approved the old Government and solemnly condemned the military coup of Berlin.

Frightened Berliners last night were asking: "The white or red terror, which?"

This was in consequence of an official announcement that the rebels were planning rising and calling upon the people to save the country from Bolshevism.

Government officials said to the Associated Press:

"We fear bloodshed tonight. It is difficult for us to hold the troops back."

In preparation for the expected rising, officials camped in their offices all night.

QUEBEC, MARCH 18, 1920.

OUR ANCIENT LAND-MARKS.

The Chronicle very heartily endorses the efforts of Captain "Chubby" Power to have the walls and fortifications of old Quebec turned over by the Militia Department to the Battlefields' Commission for preservation as objects of historic and antiquarian interest. In spite of the contentions of Col. Currie to the contrary, if the recent war has proved anything, it is the unsuitability of walled defenses to resist modern artillery attack and, although they may be employed as part of a trench system in case of necessity, it is only after the population has departed and the city is reduced to ruins as happened in the case of Ypres to which he refers.

Indeed, the walls and fortifications of Quebec, far from being a protection might conceivably be a source of real danger to the Ancient Capital. While the laws of civilized warfare forbid the bombardment of "open cities" they sanction the shelling of "fortified towns" and, consequently, as a result of invasion this city might be knocked to pieces, on the pretext of its obsolete walls and citadel.

These works are inseparably bound up with the history of the Dominion and it is of the highest national interest that they should be preserved as nearly as possible in their original state. It is impossible to make them really sanitary or convenient quarters for a modern garrison but the Militia Department, which is mainly concerned with this practical desideratum, is not likely to show any tenderness towards architectural decrepitude.

On the other hand, the Battlefields' Commission, under the presiding genius of Sir George Garneau, has not only done splendid landscape gardening work on the Plains of Abraham but has shown a commendable respect for history and a keen antiquarian instinct. For this reason we are convinced that the walls and fortifications could be entrusted to no better or more able hands than those of the Battlefields' Commission. While the walls and citadel may be the property of the Federal Government, the citizens of Quebec have the most direct interest in their fate and the Chronicle believes that local opinion will strongly coincide with the proposals of Captain Power.

FORMING PUBLIC OPINION.

A forcible illustration of the manner in which some editorials are written, and public opinion formed thereby, is furnished by an article of the Montreal Gazette, which joins the bureaucratic chorus of "non possumus" in regard to the Federal Housing Loan with suspicious alacrity, and is eagerly seized upon by a local apologist of the Provincial Government as conclusive proof of the deficiencies of Dr. Nadeau's programme.

Although the full text of the Chronicle's somewhat lengthy but nevertheless important interview with Dr. Nadeau was carried by the Canadian Press, the Gazette was prevented—presumably by considerations of space—from publishing more than those portions of it which had particular reference to Montreal, and so the Editor based his comment upon a mutilated version that failed to give any fair interpretation of Dr. Nadeau's case.

Otherwise he would have recognized the force of the comparison established between the Good Roads policy of the Provincial Government and the Housing programme that it rejected with such contumely; otherwise he would have seen that the former Director of Housing had a clear cut business policy that was capable of defense to any practical business man.

The most singular feature of the whole affair is that such determined opposition should develop in the cases of Alberta and Quebec, before a single attempt has been made to prove the merits of the controversy. Although it is highly probable that the general public has given little thought to housing, it is untrue to say that the measure of the Federal Government was never properly thought out. This was prepared on the advice of a distinguished expert whose services had been lent to Canada by the British Government, and is based on the eminently successful practice of the United Kingdom during the past twenty five years. It is working in this Dominion where it has been given a fair trial and there is no reason whatever why it should not do so. On the other hand it is clear that nothing can be accomplished by folding one's hands and repeating automatically, "it can't be done, it can't be done".

We are aware that the laboring class is very dear to politicians on account of the number of votes that it represents, and Dr. Nadeau has indicated how the housing needs of labor can and must be provided for. We are also aware that the same politicians attach small importance to the difficulties of the middle class, which has no organization and, consequently, no effective means of asserting its influence; but we would remind these gentlemen that it is numerous and that its hardships at the present time are relatively greater than those even of labor itself.

The middle class today is in urgent need of suitable housing at a reasonable rent and if anything can be done to relieve that demand the reaction will extend to other classes of society. Thus, if there is a shortage of nine hundred houses in this city, a model development of three hundred houses would relieve six hundred families and, by tending to reduce the average rental, would be of general benefit.

The main point, however, is that the Gazette, and those for whom it speaks, are throwing up their hands without an effort and that the real estate speculators are the only ones who will benefit thereby. No one can dispute the fact that more and better houses are needed in practically every municipality of Canada. Neither can any one dispute the fact that it is useless to look to private enterprise for effective action until reduced building costs offer a more reasonable hope of profit. The only salvation, therefore, rests in State aid. Alberta was unwilling to touch the Federal loan with a ten foot pole, Montreal may refuse to touch a cent of it, but here are others not so obstinate or so self-opinionated. As we have already said, Sherbrooke has availed itself of this money and is perfectly satisfied with its bargain. There is also a Citizens' Committee in Quebec which is desirous of utilizing the local share. Whether a success or failure, the Provincial Government cannot lose a cent of money and, at least, something will be done to relieve the housing shortage. If the Government will only entrust the money to trustworthy organizations we venture to say it will receive gratifying proof that its pessimism has been unfounded.

IMPERILLED FORESTS.

It is discouraging to note from the Canadian Forestry Journal that, in spite of so much educational propaganda, the months of May and June last year constituted one of the most hazardous seasons that has imperilled the forests in the St. Maurice Valley for many years. Fifty two percent of the first are said to have been attributable to the railways, chiefly the Government-owned railways, and since those same months are not now far distant, a strong effort should be made to enlist the co-operation of the railroad executives concerned to enforce stricter carelessness among their employees.

Mr. Henry Sorgias, Manager of the St. Maurice Forest Protective Association, reports that the fire losses in 1919 were the heaviest since 1915. The patrol force consisted of six inspectors, one sub-inspector, and 69 patrolmen. There were 169 forest fires, 48 per cent of the total area burned was cut-over land, 37 per cent in old burn, and 15 per cent in merchantable timber and young growth. Fifty-nine per cent of the damage done was caused by two fires set by locomotive and dam-keepers. The area burned amounted to 41,320 acres.

The Ottawa River Forest Protective Association, Mr. Arthur Graham, manager, covers 26,618 square miles of territory. In 1919 was encountered one of the worst fire seasons since 1914. The permanent patrol staff numbered 200 men, including 11 inspectors. In the eastern section, 4,717 acres were burned over, only 218 acres representing merchantable timber. In the western section 83,467 acres were burned over, of which 20,694 acres were under merchantable timber. These figures include both member and non-member areas.

The Laurentian Forest Protective Association utilized a staff of 67 men, covering an area of 11,163 square miles. There was a total of 69 fires as against 96 in 1918. The damage, however, was the heaviest since the association was formed, 58, 037 acres being burned over. Mr. R. L. Seaborne, manager of the association, lays emphasis upon the carelessness of employees of the companies and fishermen in failing to extinguish fires during the dry season. He also stresses the urgent need of more intensive educational work.

The report of the Eastern Division of the Southern St. Lawrence Forest Protective Association, gives a total of 148 fires in 1919, burning over 1,590 acres. The total area patrolled was over 5,700,000 acres. Mr. J. D. Brule, manager of the eastern section, did most valuable work along publicity lines and managed to deliver 25 lectures during February and March, and do a great deal of other valuable educational work. In the western section, the manager, Mr. C. B. Guerin, reports 76 fires, which burned 1,726 acres. Mr. Guerin's territory covers over 3,400,000 acres.

The German situation is still clouded with uncertainty. As the smoke of conflict began to die away it seemed as though neither party had gained a decisive advantage over the other, so that both had agreed to form a coalition. The most important fact of the revolutionary stroke and a very gratifying one is the absence of any strong monarchical feeling in Germany today. In spite of their protestations, it is highly probable that Dr. Kapp and Von Luetwitz are friends of the former Kaiser and would have proclaimed themselves as such if there had been any reasonable chance of striking a responsive chord in the public mind. The safe custody of Wilhelm and Friedrich is now a matter of all the greater urgency and if Holland will not surrender their persons she must accept responsibility for their actions.

In order to save others from the offense, we rise to remark that Germany has fitted on the Kapp but refuses to wear it. Incidentally this Kapp's the climax!

Some Things the Public Would Like to Know:

We have struggled through the Influenza and Equinoctial storms but what is coming next?

Why revolutionaries always proclaim that they have turned the State upside down merely to restore law and order?

Press Comment.

WOMEN MINISTERS.
(London Daily News)

The refusal of the Lower House of Convocation to allow women to pray and speak in churches ignores a good deal of history. Even in the days of the Pharisees some of the most sacred religious offices were held by women. In the early days of the Christian Church women shared both in the ministry and the ministrations, playing an important part in the progress made by the Primitive Church. For the first 200 years of the Christian era women were even ordained as priests, and for 800 years they served at the altar and administered communion. It is strange that, today, when the claims of women are being so widely recognized, a body whose congregations consist largely of women, and where women do almost all the church and parish work, should deny them admission to the pulpit.

HAD GLADSTONE LIVED.
(Manchester Guardian)

Even now one feels a certain quiver of apprehension in the thought of the Jovian thunder which would have gathered on Mr. Gladstone's brow could he have listened to Mr. Bonar Law's almost casual confirmation of the disappearance from Europe of the independent kingdom of Montenegro as the result of her adhesion to the Allied cause during the war. Historically there are memories enough to be recalled. Probably Gladstone never embarked more eagerly on any military demonstration than that undertaken for the insistence on the carrying out of the provisions of the Berlin Treaty in respect of Montenegro. At the earliest possible moment in the 1880 Administration he tackled the question, and obtained a naval demonstration off the coast of Albania.

BRITISH SHIPPING SUPREMACY.
(Hong Kong Press)

Every Briton must have been proud to read the statement embodied in a cable despatch that the supremacy of British shipping has been re-established, and that the Empire's share of the confiscated enemy shipping, added to the great output of new ships, has given us, within a year of the close of the war, a total tonnage five per cent greater than we had before the war. It is scarcely necessary to add for the information of people whose business is with shipping that our carrying capacity is "still short of requirements". Whatever deficiency exists, however, will certainly be met in time, for every month many new ships are being launched from the yards of the United Kingdom.

FISHER EXPLODES.
Here is one of Lord Fisher's characteristic explosions in the London Times: "Hansard, December 11, 1919, column 1,121: Some three-quarters of a million sterling (£739,000) of the fastest battlecruiser in the world with the lightest draught of water and an equal arm apportioned for similarly humbugging the Renown, her sister ship! Why? The Faddists want more arm-our! The Congenital Idiots can't see that speed is armor! The fast battlecruiser Invincible sent Admiral von Spee to perdition (where he belongs) without having a single man on board the Invincible killed or wounded! Why! Because she had superior speed and the bigger gun! Give Peace in our Time, O Lord! (Unless you sack the lot!) You know the French story! They operated successfully but they killed the patient!—and the surgeons said, 'Mort—gueri!'"

MR. E. H. WADE
PASSES AWAY

A Well Known Lumber Merchant Died at New Liverpool, Que., Last Night

The death occurred at his residence Longwood, New Liverpool, last night of Mr. Edward Harper Wade, for nearly fifty years a prominent figure in the lumber business in this city and Province.

His was a long life of usefulness during which he enjoyed the confidence and respect of all his fellow citizens irrespective of nationality or creed. Besides his attachment to business, Mr. Wade was a writer of ability and contributed a great deal to lumber publications besides writing profusely in the daily press on various subjects. He was a well-read and well-informed man, and was an ardent supporter of Home Rule for Ireland and of "bonne entente" in Canada.

Mr. Wade was born in Liverpool, England, on September 25th, 1846, and came to Quebec in 1870 to enter the employ of C. & J. Sharples & Co. He filled different important positions in the lumber business for years and at the time of his death was general manager of the Harper Wade Export Company.

In June 1874 he married Miss Margaret Simons, of Quebec who died several years ago.

He is survived by four children, Captain Percy H. Wade, of New Liverpool, Mr. A. Stanley Wade of Montreal, Mrs. G. D. Anderson, of Breakeville, and Miss Annabel Wade of New Liverpool.

His death is a serious loss to Quebec and his family will have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

JEFFERY HALE'S HOSPITAL.
The Treasurer of Jeffery Hale's Hospital begs to gratefully acknowledge the receipt of $255.95 from the Quebec Snowshoe Club.

Dance at the Kent House tonight.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

As a result of the seizure of a quantity of beer on their premises, Messrs. Cote and Drouin, of St. Foye Road, were condemned to pay a fine of $50, and costs, by Hon. Judge Choquette, in the Court of Sessions yesterday morning. The same penalty was imposed upon Donat Fournier for a similar offence. Convicted on a charge of loitering, two young girls named Alvine Racine and Yvonne Veilleux, were sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

JUDGE CAMELIEN NOEL HAS PASSED AWAY

The death occurred on Tuesday at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Montreal, where he had been undergoing treatment for some time, of Judge Camélien Noel, of Edmonton, Alta. The deceased gentleman was a brother-in-law of the Hon. Judge C. E. Dorion, and nephew of ex-Judge H. C. Pelletier, of this city.

The late Mr. Justice Noel was born in 1865 at Arthabaska. Some years ago when Sir Wilfrid Laurier was Prime Minister, he was appointed a Judge for the Province of Alberta.

The deceased is survived by two sisters, Mrs. (Judge) C. E. Dorion and Miss Corinne Noel, and two brothers, Mr. Eugene Noel, of Sedley, Sask., and Mr. Alcide Noel, of Montreal, for whom much sympathy will be felt in their bereavement.

Trains for tonight's Dance at Kent House, at 8:00 and 8:30 o'clock.

ONLY FIVE NEW

INFLUENZA CASES

Dr. C. R. Paquin, City Health Physician, is sanguine that the influenza epidemic, as far as it concerns the city of Quebec, has spent its force. Only five new additional cases were reported by the local medical practitioners to the Department yesterday, as having been reported from the day previous.

The mildness of the outbreak in this city and the very few deaths that have resulted, has given great satisfaction to the City Health Department and the medical profession in general. This good result, in the opinion of Dr. Paquin, is the outcome of precautions taken by the people against contracting the sickness and the prompt attention given the afflicted who responded to the advice given in this connection at the beginning by the Health Department officials.

SOIREE WAS A SIGNAL SUCCESS

Large Audience Was Delighted with Splendid Entertainment for St. Patrick's Day

The quiet observance of St. Patrick's Day in Quebec was fittingly brought to a close at the Auditorium Theatre last night when the sixty-fourth Grand Annual Soiree was held under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Literary Institute.

As usual, the audience was a gathering of Irish people from all parts of the city who consider it a duty to foregather on such occasions as one of the means of celebrating their national holiday. The spacious hall was all too small to contain the large assemblage and the musical comedy which was presented by Mr. Harry S. Quart, left nothing to be desired, in fact the entertainment was of such a pleasing nature, and brought out such exceptional vocal and dramatic talent that it was a revelation to all who had the privilege of hearing it. From the orchestral overture until the finale the audience was treated to light, breezy entertainment which was very refreshing and awakened a high pitch of enthusiasm as was demonstrated by the cordial applause and the insistent encores.

Before the rise of the curtain, Rev. Father Costello, C.S.S.R., Rector of St. Patrick's parish, came out on the stage and addressed the audience briefly. He wished them all a hundred thousand welcomes and explained to the audience how much he appreciated the kind action of St. Patrick's Literary Institute in permitting the proceeds of the entertainment to be used in aid of the new St. Patrick's Church. He warmly greeted the large audience and said that their vast numbers showed that the Irish spirit was still alive in Quebec. In the course of his remarks he thanked all those who took part in the matinee or soiree and paid particular tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Quart who were responsible for the organization and direction of the Soiree, and to Miss L. A. McCauley for the direction of the Matinee.

He announced that on Wednesday, the 24th, Mr. Lindsay Crawford, Editor of the Statesman, would deliver an address in Columbus Hall on the Irish situation, fully urged everyone to attend and give the lecturer as cordial a reception as possible. "A Limerick Frolic," a two-act musical comedy, was the attraction of the evening and was a splendid avenue for the talented young ladies and gentlemen who took part. The clean, healthy comedy with which the production was replete was admirably brought out by the capable cast, while the vocal numbers were rendered in a manner which brought out the signal gifts of the singers and spoke volumes for the excellent training which they received.

It would be next to impossible to select a particular star in the cast of characters, all were at their best in their respective roles and fully deserved the enthusiastic applause which accorded them.

PIONEER PORTER
PASSED AWAY

First Colored Man to Run a Sleeping Car to Lake St. John

Joseph Chambers, colored and the first parlor car porter employed on the Quebec and Lake St. John Railway, passed away suddenly from heart disease at Germantown, Michigan, on the 11th instant. The information of Joseph Chambers' death was received in a letter addressed to the Chronicle by Mrs. H. M. Walker, who points out that the deceased had charge of the private car of Mr. J. G. Scott, when that gentleman was the general manager of the Q. & L. St. J. Ry., and that he was the first colored man to run a sleeping car into the Lake St. John district, and was familiar with many of the former travelers on that line including M.P.'s and such men as Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Hon. S. N. Parent, G. Lemoine, B. A. Scott, A. E. Doucet, C.E., and others. The deceased lived in Quebec and Chicoutimi for over 20 years and it is recalled that he was a good cook and a trustworthy servant.

LOUIS GRAVEURE COMING

Famous Baritone is Soloist For Two Grenadier Guards Band Concerts

Louis Graveure, the baritone, who is to appear here on March 27 at the Auditorium, as soloist of the two concerts by the Grenadier Guards Band, is a blonde, viking sort of person, whose presence on the concert platform conveys strength. Mr. Graveure's appearance does not belie him. He is pre-eminently an athlete. From his earliest years he was trained by his father whose trade was that of a diamond-cutter. At this kept him indoors to a great extent, he decided to train actively in his leisure time. For company he chose the little Louis.

Mr. Graveure feels an endless gratitude toward the parent who realized the necessity of physical development. He believes that the quality and strength of his voice developed at an earlier age than it would have had his muscles had no early training.

Mr. Graveure began to traverse the out-places of the world at an early age. The diamond lure drove him to South Africa. There he joined up with a surveyor who had found diamonds in a stream. It was Mr. Graveure's duty to put up the money to supply the necessary outfit for the expedition, and it was also his duty to trace back to the source of the diamonds, up the stream.

HOOVER NOT CANDIDATE.

Concord, N. H., March 17.—The Democratic National Convention here this morning received a telegram from Herbert Hoover saying he was not a candidate for the presidency and could not approve of his name in the state presidential primaries.

With the Spondulix, Mr. W. MacNamara and Farmerette Chorus. Mother of Mine, Mr. P. MacInnis. I Love to Hear an Irish Song, Mr. A. Axlott and Chorus. The Land of The Irish Immigrant, Mrs. H. S. Quart. Maggie Maguire, Mrs. A. Vezina. A Typical Tipperary Over Here, Mr. A. Axlott and Colleen Chorus. Closing Chorus, Ensemble. God Save Ireland, Mr. D. O'Gallagher and Chorus. Mr. Loic Trudel Musical Conductor.

Members of Chorus:

Ladies—Miss Loretta Grogan, F. Lemieux, F. Knox, H. Dollard, E. Swindell, Alice Walsh, T. Hayden, P. Marier, L. Kerr, M. Derouin, F. O'Connell, V. Laliberte, B. Marier, L. Reynolds, A. Conolly, M. Walsh. Gentlemen—Messrs J. Shields, J. P. MacInnis, A. Axlott, H. McElroy, S. David, W. Power, P. Brophy, J. Mahoney, T. Seville, W. Lawver, E. Aubrey, R. F. Bartels, R. Hudson, A. Ricken, A. Normand, R. C. McGeouch.

Great credit is also due to the members of the chorus for their singing and graceful dancing. The scenery was also very attractive and all in all the entertainment was one of the most successful amateur events ever staged in Quebec.

Matinee.

The Auditorium was filled with a patriotic and appreciative audience yesterday afternoon to enjoy the matinee that was given under the auspices of the St. Patrick's Literary Institute. The performance was under the able direction of Miss McCauley, whose previous successful efforts in the same direction were a guarantee that the performance would please. It is safe to say that yesterday's programme and the manner in which it was carried out surpassed all previous St. Patrick's Day matinees. The choruses, songs, dances and tableaux were all charmingly rendered together with the comic dialogue that provoked enthusiastic applause from start to finish.

The Auditorium was simply packed when the performance commenced with a selection of Irish airs by the orchestra, followed by a chorus "Soldiers of Erin" by St. Patrick's School Choir. Next twenty little tots sang the "Dear Little Shamrock" with charming effect, that was followed by vocal solo and chorus "We Are Pretty Butterflies" rendered by some twenty Misses in charge of Miss Freda O'Connell. The flag drill and chorus by the twenty-eight young ladies who took part was a pretty feature, in fact the whole programme was pleasing and greatly appreciated by the large audience.

SONS AND 'VARSITY MEET AGAIN TONIGHT

LATEST IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

LOYOLA AND ST. PAT'S TEAMS AT THE ARENA

SONS OF IRELAND AND THE TORONTO VARSITY TO MEET TONIGHT FOR SECOND TIME

Locals Expect to Overcome Two-Goal Lead Held by Queen City Team—Hammy Laroche Will Play Tonight—Total Goals in Both Matches to Count—Sons in Good Shape

The second game in the Preliminary Round for the Allan Cup takes place tonight in the Toronto Arena, when the Sons of Ireland and the Toronto Varsity teams will meet again.

The first meeting between these two teams on Tuesday resulted in a victory for the Queen City students by a 6 to 4 count, but Hammy Laroche was not playing for the locals, while McNaughton and Lacombe were not feeling well, but got into the game nevertheless.

Advices from Toronto state that Hammy will be in action again tonight, and that he has recovered from the minor ailment that prevented him from playing in the game on Tuesday, and with their captain back in the line up, the locals are feeling extremely optimistic. They expect to overcome the two goal lead held by their rivals, and to emerge victors over the Blue and White of the University of Toronto. According to reports on the game, the local boys were not very good in the first match, but the Queen City hockey fans are likely to get a surprise tonight when the Sons step on the ice for the second time. This is the first occasion that the Sons have gone after the Allan Cup, and they will make their opponents sit up and take notice.

All the players who participated in Tuesday's game, as well as Hammy Laroche will play tonight, and the general consensus of opinion is that they will win, and win handily.

Toronto, March 17.—Commenting on last night's Allan Cup elimination game between the Quebec Irish and Toronto Varsity, Charlie Good, local sporting writer says:

Unless both the University of Toronto and the Sons of Ireland hockey teams show a wonderful improvement all round, neither the inter-collegiate or Quebec championships can be seriously taken in the Allan Cup contention if the play last night in the National Amateur semi-finals is a true criterion of their ability. Varsity won because their work was less slovenly than that of their opponents, who were perhaps fortunate to confine the march against them to two goals. The lighter Quebecers out-speeded the students, but combined poorly and shot from too long range to be effective. Three of their four goals were in the nature of gifts being scored from scrambles due to slow clearing of the University defence. Varsity went to the other extreme declining to part with the puck until they were on top of the net with the result that they tossed off many good opportunities.

GOYNE WON RACE.

The Pas, Man., March 17.—Can. Press.—Walter Goynes, the famous crippled Alaskan, musher, who lost both feet as a result of freezing on the Alaskan trails some years ago, won the Hudson's Bay dog race, which started from here last evening. Pranteau finished second, followed by Hayes, while Winterton brought up in 4th place. The time was 13 hours 22 minutes for the 100 miles. The second man finished one hour and a half later.

LOYOLA MEET THE ST. PATRICK TEAM

First of Matches for Deery Cup Will be Played at the Local Arena This Evening

The first match of the season on local ice for the Deery Cup, emblematic of the Intermediate championship of the E.C.A.H.A., is scheduled to take place at the Arena this evening, when the strong Loyola team, Quebec intermediate champions, clash with the formidable St. Patrick's outfit, from Sherbrooke. This is the first of a home and home game series, the return game being played in Sherbrooke on Saturday night.

A large crowd ought to be present at the match for it is probably the last hockey match of the season that will take place at the Arena. The Loyolas are the holders of the Deery Cup, the same having been awarded them after the refusal of the St. Lambert team, of Montreal to journey to Quebec to meet the Loyolas here, and this will be their first effort at defending it.

Both teams are very evenly matched, according to reports, and a great match should result. The Loyolas went through the season without a defeat, and ended by trimming the Intermediate League champions St. Valier by the lop sided count of 6 to 1.

St. Patrick's are reported to have been playing good consistent hockey out in Sherbrooke all winter, and they won the championship of their league by a good margin. Whether they will trim Loyolas is another question, which will be decided tonight. Each team is anxious to score a victory, and thus have the edge on the other for the return game and neither will spare any effort to obtain one.

Loyolas have been playing great hockey all winter. They possess a grand little team, all the players of which are very evenly balanced. Turgeon, in goal, is the only City League player in their ranks, but several of the others were sought by the managers of the different City League outfits during the course of the last season to make the jump to City League ranks, but they all refused. Their defence is composed of Cantin and Pouliot, two men who are fast skaters, very difficult to pass, and possess wicked shots. In Savard, Zinec, and Pouliot they possess three fine forwards. Their substitutes are equally as good as the regulars, so that they have one of the most formidable little sextets that ever stepped on the ice.

PLAYERS ON U. S.

HOCKEY TEAM NAMED
Pittsburg, March 17.—The personnel of the American hockey team to be sent to the Olympic games at Antwerp in April was announced here last night by Roy D. Schooley, manager, as follows:

Forwards—Joe McCormick, Larry McCormick and Drury of Pittsburg; Goheen and Conroy of St. Paul; and Geran and Synnett of Boston.

Defence—Small and Tucker, Boston; Fitzgerald of St. Paul; Goal—Bonney of Pittsburg.

Twelve players will be taken to Europe, according to present plans. Mr. Schooley announced although it is possible the number may be increased to fourteen.

The choice of sub-goal tender has not been made definitely, but it is said to lie between Weidenborner, of St. Paul and Lacroix, of Boston.

SEATTLE TEAM ON WAY EAST

Pacific Coast Champions Will Arrive in Ottawa Sunday—
First Match on Monday

Ottawa, Ont., March 17.—The Seattle team, champions of the Pacific Coast League and contestants against Ottawa for the Stanley Cup and the world's hockey championship, will arrive in the capital next Sunday afternoon. This was definitely announced tonight by officers of the Ottawa Club, following the receipt of a telegram from Manager Muldoon, of the Seattle Club.

The Pacific Coast champion will be ready for the first game on Monday, Mr. Muldoon said.

Though the weather turned very mild Monday and rain fell heavily on Tuesday, conditions improved to such an extent tonight that ice-making resumed at the Arena.

Unless more rain comes or the mercury takes another jump good ice surfaces will be provided for the first and second games at least.

Weather probabilities tonight were fair and moderately cold and there was sufficient frost in the rink last evening to freeze the ice hard enough for the best of hockey. Colder weather has prevailed in the West and if it comes East, ideal hockey conditions will likely be in vogue.

GILLINGHAM WON.

London, March 19.—Can. Press.—Gillingham defeated Cardiff 3 to 0 in a Southern League game this afternoon.

WHAT HAPPENED AT KUT.

Speaking at Newport, England, at a fête organized by the Comrades of the Great War, Gen. Sir Charles Townend said that he wished he could live long enough to see what history would have to say about the defence of Kut. He was ordered to go forward with a handful of men, instead of having 12,000 men at his disposal he should have had 12,000. He had warned the authorities, or what might happen if he was asked to go on with only a limited number of effectives, but after having given the warning his duty was done. Any orders he received afterward had to be carried out. With a sufficient number of men he could have guaranteed not only to take Bagdad, but also to hold it. The Turkish army could have been thrown into the river. He very nearly accomplished that as it was, but under the circumstances which hampered him, if Bagdad had been taken it would have had to be evacuated the next day. He had found almost as many enemies when he came home as he had beaten in the field. He decided to halt at that place (Kut) to give the Government time to send out more troops from overseas, but without the necessary number of troops he was forced to surrender. Owing to starvation men were dying at the rate of 25 a day, dying of hunger, but at the same time, he remarked proudly: "I did not surrender even then until I was ordered to do so, and told that no relief could be sent to me."

Sporting Notes

If the Sons win tonight's fixture and the round, at Toronto, they will play the winners of the Sudbury-Granites matches, for the semi-finals, in Toronto on Monday and Wednesday next.

The more we read about Jimmy Wilde's doings the more we are becoming convinced that Jimmy is a real title holder. When he arrived in this country and took on Jack Sharkey and was not given the popular decision over Sharkey, they began to think that Jimmy was a bloomer. But not so today. With the exception of Sharkey's temporary setback Jimmy has decisively beaten all opponents they have brought before him since that day. All that he ought to do now is to take on Sharkey again and if Sharkey does not insist on his own referee Wilde ought to beat him.

—Boston Post

The first cup match of the season will be played at the local Arena this evening, when the strong Loyola team, champions of the Intermediate League of Quebec, and holders of the Deery Cup, will meet the formidable St. Patrick's team, of Sherbrooke, in the first of a series of home and home matches. The return game will be played at Sherbrooke on Saturday.

Sons of Ireland and Toronto Varsity at the Toronto Arena this evening. The Sons will go into the game tonight with the knowledge that their opponents have a two goal lead over them, but they will have Hammy Laroche back on the line up, and feel that his presence will be worth more than two tallies.

WEST INDIANS DISAPPOINTED

Would Like Canada to Trade More With Them, Says Keefe

St. John, N.B., March 17.—The people of the West Indies are disappointed that Canada does not trade more with them, said Francis H. Keefe, M.P. for West Arthur, and Kenora, Ont., and Under-Secretary of State for External Affairs, in addressing the Canadian Club here today.

Mr. Keefe said that the United States had been casting eyes toward the West Indies and asked what the Government proposed to do about it. The exports of the British West Indies, he added, amount to about $65,000,000 annually, of which Canada takes $22,000,000 direct.

Directly and indirectly, Canada purchases $117,000,000 worth from the West Indies. The islands import $35,000,000 annually, of which Canada sends $7,000,000. The people of the islands and of British Honduras, British Guiana and Bermuda are very loyal and want to trade within the Empire in British Guiana there are twenty United States commercial travellers to one Canadian, showing that Canada is to blame for adverse trade balances.

Mr. Keefe said it was up to Canada to develop a great West Indian trade and to provide proper transportation facilities.

The ports of Montreal, Halifax and St. John, he said, would be particularly benefited by an improvement in trade relations. At the present time Canada was doing practically nothing to improve trade with these islands.

NEW RESERVATION TO PEACE TREATY

United States Will View Any Future Upheaval with Some Concern

Washington, D.C., March 17.—A general declaration of international policy, under which the United States would view with grave concern any future upheaval threatening the peace and freedom of Europe, was agreed on by Republican Senate Leaders today and presented as a new reservation to the peace treaty.

Intended to replace the more definite pledges of article ten, the reservation is to be pressed in the Senate as the farthest step the Republican leaders are willing to go toward abandonment of American isolation and participation in European conflicts. Its text follows: "It shall be the declared policy of this Government that the freedom and peace of Europe being again threatened by any power or combination of powers, the United States will regard such a situation with grave concern, and will consider what, if any, action it will take in the premises."

Senator Lenroot, of Wisconsin, drafted the reservation in consultation with Republican leaders, and introduced it in the Senate at the end of the debate, on the Irish question, which delayed action and blocked the plan to set a day for a final vote on the treaty's ratification. It generally was predicted tonight, however, that discussion of the remaining issues of the treaty controversy soon would spend itself and that the ratification roll-call would come Friday or Saturday.

JUDGE CLASHED WITH COUNSEL

The Magistrate Threatened to Leave Court Unless Statement Was Withdrawn

Winnipeg, Man., March 17.—(By Can. Press)—Flatly denying the charges of the Crown that there had been a seditious conspiracy to overthrow the Government and claiming that had been nothing seditious in the speeches of the accused, who had merely availed themselves of privileges which were the constitutional rights of Britishers and that the strike at Winnipeg had been for the sole purpose of getting the principle of collective bargaining admitted, W. H. Trueman K.C., who is directly defending Alderman Heaps, today addressed the jury in the trial of the seven strike leaders.

Although there was a night session, Mr. Trueman had not concluded and he will likely speak for greater part of tomorrow. He will be followed by Alderman Queen.

Clashes between Mr. Trueman and Mr. Justice Metcalfe were a feature of the proceedings. Counsel was frequently called to order by His Lordship, who on one occasion asserted that either Mr. Trueman or he would have to leave the court if a remark made by the counsel was not withdrawn. The crisis was averted by Mr. Trueman withdrawing the words. The incident was occasioned by counsel making what was described as a statement of fact, but not evidence to the jury and then asking permission to speak regarding them.

At another point the Judge remarked that he had never received the treatment from any counsel that he had from Mr. Trueman and that he questioned if any other judge would have allowed counsel to remain in the court room.

REPRESENTATION AT WASHINGTON

British Papers Discuss Idea of Canada Have a Separate U. S. Ambassador

London, March 17.—(Can. Press)—The Manchester Guardian discussing Canada having a separate Washington representative says it is natural for the Dominions, whenever anything does not quite go to their liking to think that their interests are not being fought for so dourly or with such knowledge as if they had fought in their own keeping. Canada's interests are so closely intertwined with the United States that it is small wonder that Canada should wish for a clearer or more authentic voice at Washington. The creation of a post of this kind will involve practical difficulties, but the whole constitutional working of the empire is full of practical difficulties which it is its glory so far to have overcome. The difficulties will really be lessened, not enlarged, by an increase in the dominions power to guide its own future.

The Manchester Daily Despatch thinks that Canada's claim will excite similar aspirations in other free dependencies and considers this policy regrettable and futile because it tends to weaken the ties binding the British race, and also because no single dominion can enjoy the strength it would have with the power and influence of the home government behind it.

TOM MIX FITS INTO NEW ROLE

Famous Stunt Artist Is Syndicate of Star, Director and Author

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself," is an adopted motto of Tim Mix the Fox star, and one that has carried him far on the road to success.

If there is something wrong with a photoplay, the public blames the producer, he in turn may blame the star, the star blames the director and the director fixes his wrath on two—the cameraman and the story. Mix has just simplified this procedure considerably by constituting himself a syndicate of three—star, director and author.

Mix has studied motion pictures so long and so thoroughly that he has mastered the most intricate technical details and knows lighting as well as does a cameraman. Bad lighting has spoiled many scenes that otherwise would have been most effective. Mix has studied closely the subject of photography, so in a way, he qualifies even as a cameraman.

SS. LADY GREY IS HAVING TROUBLE

Task of Breaking the Ice-Barrier Is Difficult, If Not Impossible

The Government ice breaker Lady Grey, is meeting with a very difficult if not impossible task in breaking through the ice barrier in the vicinity of Portneuf. Under ordinary circumstances when the winters were not so severe as the present one, experienced river men, said that the attempt of the government ice breaker to break through the ice formation at Point Platon was useless until the thaw would set in. In the month of March to rot the ice. Capt. Mercier who is master in charge of the Lady Grey speaking of the work he is carrying on to break through the ice barrier up as high as 15 feet over the thick ice and the task of breaking a channel through it is almost impossible. In the meantime the people of Three Rivers and west of that city to Montreal are anxious in case spring floods should overrun the low lands. The water in the port of Montreal is steadily rising according to the Harbor Commission gauge, which tends to increase their anxiety. From Quebec to Father Point the river is free of ice, and navigation is perfectly possible, and if it were not for the loosening of the ice by the Lady Grey above Quebec this harbor would have almost clear water.

INCREASED ATLANTIC PASSENGER RATES

New York, March 17.—Steamship agents said today that cable rates of increases in Atlantic passenger rates referred to westbound traffic and was intended to make up for the difference in exchange. It was unlikely, they added, that there would be any increase in Eastbound fares soon.

NAVIGATION IN GREAT LAKES

Toledo, March 17.—The first signs of 1920 navigation on the Great Lakes appeared here yesterday when the freighter Peter A. B. Widdener was towed from the shipyard dry-docks and loaded with coal. She will leave as soon as the ice in the northern channel clears.

HISTORIC FLAG.

The two flags that were flown over headquarters during the desperate battles that were fought by the Canadians at Passchendaele are now prized possession of St. Paul's Church in Toronto. One of the flags was down over the headquarters of Gen. Plummer of the Second Army at Cassel, and the other over Gen. Currie's headquarters at Poperinghe. But after all flags did not get much into the actual fighting in this war, as is shown by the fact that the flag at Poperinghe was 14 miles from Passchendaele, and the one at Cassel 14 miles away.

BRITISH STEAMER PILED UP ASHORE

Tewkesbury Breaking Up Off Newfoundland—Crew of Thirty, Také to Boats

Halifax, March 17.—The British steamer Tewkesbury, eastward bound from Hampton Roads, went ashore at two thirty o'clock this morning, four miles north of Cape Pl. Nfld., according to information reaching the Naval Department here. Further advice stated that the ship began to break up shortly after striking, and that the crew of approximately thirty men seized their one opportunity and took to the boats in an endeavor to find shelter at the base of the two hundred foot cliffs, which line the Newfoundland coast at this point. Disaster overtook the ship in such suddenness that it was impossible to render assistance. At 2:30 a.m. the wireless operator aboard the Tewkesbury reported that the steamer was ashore and at 3:07, thirty seven minutes later, he reported that the crew had been forced to take to the boats in an endeavor to land at "Bay Last". The last word from the Tewkesbury previous to her going ashore, was received at noon yesterday when she asked for and received her position from the directional finding stations at Cape Race and Canso. Her position at that hour was 45.03 N., 56.1 W., or forty two miles south of St. Pierre, Miq. The Tewkesbury was a steamer of 2,740 tons.

SHIPPING MOVEMENTS

The C.P.O.S. Minnedosa will sail today from St. John N.B. for Liverpool with a large number of passengers.

The steamer Cassandra of the Anchor Donaldson line, which was scheduled to sail from Glasgow for Halifax and Portland on March 19, has been delayed on account of the plumbers strike in Glasgow and will not be able to leave that port until March 31st. This will delay her sailing from Portland, which was to have been on April 9th and will not now take place until April 24th.

The Montague, C.P.O.S., sailed from Vancouver on Feb. 19th, and arrived at Yokohama on March 10th. From there she will go on to other Japanese and Chinese ports.

The Imperator, Cunard line, Robert Reford Co., agents, arrived at Cherbourg on the 16th from New York.

A despatch from Halifax reports that a wireless message picked up last night by the naval staff from Cape Race Station saying the United States Shipping Board steamer Kootenai was asking for a tow to Bermuda.

The message stated that the ship was 50 miles northeast of the island, and reported to be on the verge of breaking down, being unable to keep going much longer. She was experiencing engine and boiler trouble and asked for some ship to tow her to Bermuda. The Kootenai is a steamer of 5,500 tons deadweight and sailed from Sunderland on February 27 for New York.

Halifax, N.S., March 17.—Towing the propellerless Wisconsin Bridge, the steamer East Side arrived in port yesterday afternoon. Both steamers belong to the United States Shipping Board fleet. The East Side, responding to the distressed ship's calls, took the Wisconsin Bridge in tow on March 3rd and made slow but steady progress to Halifax. The rescue ship was bound from Bordeaux for New York and the Wisconsin Bridge was from Hango for New York.

CITY OF QUEBEC CITY HALL

CITY CLERK'S OFFICE BY-LAW NO. 11

By-law to Amend By-law No. 1 and following re-internal Government of the Council.

(Drawn up in the French Language)

At a meeting of the Municipal Council of the City of Quebec, held at the City Hall, in the said City of Quebec on the 5th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty, (1920), in conformity to law, and in virtue of a by-law passed by this Council, pursuant thereto, and after the due observance of all the formalities prescribed by the statute in such case made and provided, at which meeting were present the absolute majority of the members composing the Council of the City of Quebec, that is to say: His Worship the Mayor, Aldermen Bedard, Bouchard, S.L., Bouchard, J.C., Collier, Delagrave, Fiset, Labreque, Lantier, Lesage, Mercier.

It is ordered an enacted by the Municipality Council of the City of Quebec and the said Council do hereby ordain and enact as follows:

10—Article 35 of By-law No. 1 concerning the internal government of the City Council, as amended by the By-law No. 1A of the 8th March, 1912, and by By-law 10 of the 21st of December, 1917, is repealed and replaced by the following dispositions:

35a—The Standing Committees of this Council shall be:

10—The Finance and By-law Committee.

20—The Public Works Committee.

30—The Water Works Committee.

40—The Police Committee.

50—The Fire Committee.

60—The Health Committee.

The public works Committee shall have charge, care and control of all the works to be done by the city and everything relative to markets and ferry, except water works, and shall be exclusively under the control and care of the Water Works Committee.

GOOD HEALTH IS MAGNETIC

All Admire Strong, Robust, Healthy, Vigorous Men and Women

If You Are Weak, Run-Down and Ailing, Let Vinol Enrich Your Blood and Create Strength and Vitality for You

For the weak, run-down, anemic, over-worked, ailing men and women there is little joy in life. It is easy to drift into this condition, over-work, a neglected cold, or a severe sickness may have left in its wake, poor, thin, devalitized blood, a sluggish circulation, no vitality and you are simply dragging around from day to day, getting up each morning just as tired as you went to bed. Now, why not change all this by taking advantage of our druggist's guarantee that VINOL will enrich your blood, quicken your circulation and carry strength and vigor to every part of your body, or return your money if it fails. Mrs. W. J. Nixon, of Vankleek Hill, Ont., says: "I was sick for months. I had no appetite and could not seem to get my strength back. I told my doctor I was going to try VINOL, and he said it was fine. I found it gave me a good appetite and I rapidly gained in strength. For all run-down nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, over-worked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is nothing like VINOL."

Death of King George III
London.—After the death of his late Majesty, who passed away on January 29th, had been formally announced, the following instrument was prepared and signed and read to the Prince Regent:—
"Whereas, it having pleased the Almighty God to call to His Mercy our late Sovereign Lord, King George the Third, of blessed memory, by whose demise the Imperial crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, is solely and rightfully come to the high and mighty George, Prince of Wales. We therefore, the Lords spiritual and temporal of this Realm being here assisted by those of his late Majesty's Privy Council, with numbers of other gentlemen of quality, with the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of London do now hereby, with one voice and consent, of tongue and head, publish and proclaim that the high and mighty Prince George, Prince of Wales, has now by the death of his late Sovereign, of happy memory, become our only lawful and rightful liege, Lord George, the Fourth, by the Grace of God, King of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith and so forth, to whom we do acknowledge all faith and constant obedience, with all hearty and humble affection; be-seech God, by Whom Kings and Queens do reign, to bless the Royal Prince, George the Fourth with long and happy years to reign over us."
"Given at the Court, at Carlton House this 30th day of January, 1820."
"God Save the King."
Then follows the signature of the Privy Counsellors, etc., present.
His Majesty, King George IV then made a declaration of his tenderest affection for his native country and his dominions to do all in his power to provide the glory and happiness of the Kingdom.

St. Patrick's Day
The sons and daughters of Erin in the Ancient Capital had a beautiful day yesterday, even though the weather was a little cold, for the National festival. In all directions upon the streets were to be seen the carriers of the green ribbon or sprig of shamrock, and flags flew gaily in various localities upon public buildings and elsewhere.
The only procession was that of the National Societies from St. Patrick's Hall to the Church, but this was a handsome one, made more so by a number of banners and a band of music. The Church was handsomely decorated for the occasion with flags, banners, etc., and the High altar was exceedingly brilliant with tapers, etc., and surmounted by a statue of St. Patrick. Mrs. Power presided at the organ and rendered a selection of national airs. Mr. M. J. Murphy was Choir Master, and the musical portion of the service was very grand and impressive. The mass was Millard's in G, the officiating priest being Mgr. Marois, V.G. The sermon which was a very brilliant and successful rhetorical effort was preached by Rev. Father Rossbach, and it was upon the life and labors of St. Patrick and the history of the Irish race down to the present day.

Chambers' Guide of Quebec
A new and popular edition of Chambers' Guide of Quebec City and District is now in the Press of the Morning Chronicle office, and will be published shortly with map, price 25 cents. This is the best Guide of Quebec ever published. It is accurate, graphic and convenient in size. Sportsmen and tourists cannot do without it.

COPPER IN WAR AREA.
The war area in Northern France and Belgium is estimated to contain 3,000,000 tons of copper, of which one-third may be reclaimed. Sections where hard battles raged are said to have 250 tons of iron to every 3 1-2 acres.

At The Theatres

Constance Talmadge at Victoria Today in "A Virtuous Vamp"

When is a shimmy? This hybrid of the dancing art has caused more discussion, more censor, and greater interest than even the celebrated "Turkey Trot" and "Bunny Hug." The censor blasphemed it as a "movement" rather than a dance. It has been given more variations than the origin of man.

And now Constance Talmadge star of "A Virtuous Vamp," to be presented at the Victoria Theatre, commencing today describes the actual shimmy in a diagrammatic pose, with no less an authority than Gilda Gray, generally credited as the danseuse who introduced it in America, as the source of her definition. In the story of "A Virtuous Vamp," the one man who will not respond to her vamp arts and wiles is an insurance broker who enlists her aid to investigate the application for a $50,000 policy on the shoulders of a shimmy dancer. Constance as Nellie Jones, the "virtuous vamp," exemplifies the shimmy for the broker. To do it correctly she sought Gilda Gray, who, in one of the big cabaret scenes in the production, entertains the sufferers of held-over July thirsts with a real shimmy dance.

The 8th episode of Ruth Roland serial and Big V comedy on same bill.

AT THE EMPIRE THEATRE TODAY

"Great Air Robbery" And Two Episodes of "The Lion Man"

The Empire Theatre offers an exceptionally strong bill today, tomorrow and Saturday when Lieut. Locklear, the daredevil of the skies in "The Great Air Robbery" and tenth and eleventh episodes of "The Lion Man" together with a screamingly funny comedy will be shown.

Nazimova at the Allen Today in "War Brides"

This is described as her best picture, and is said to surpass all other productions by a wide margin.

A special musical program has been selected for this production, and patrons of the Allen are promised a real treat if they attend this picture.

The thirteenth episode of "The Invisible Hand," a Canadian National Pictorial and a sunshine comedy, in two parts completes one of the biggest bills ever offered at the Allen.

Vaudeville and Picture Bill Today at The Auditorium

The Auditorium presents today, tomorrow and Saturday, its regular 5 acts of vaudeville also a big feature photoplay, a Mac Sennett comedy in two reels and other attractions.

Matinee from 2 to 5 in the afternoon at 15 and 20c. Evening performance from 7:30 to 11 at 20-30-40 cents. Tax included.

DID NOT THINK IT WAS POSSIBLE

Miss Parent Couldn't Believe Medicine Could Do What Tanlac Did For Her

"For four months before taking Tanlac I was almost an absolute wreck, but now I am well and strong again," said Miss Marie Louise Parent of 1367 Notre Dame St., East, Montreal, when seen by the Tanlac representative at her home recently.

"For a long while I have suffered from indigestion. After eating, I had the sensation of a big lump in the pit of my stomach and I would be seized with such spells of nervous coughing that I could not retain my food and would almost suffocate. I had spells of dizziness when my eyesight became so affected that I seemed to be standing in a cloud of smoke. My circulation was very poor and whenever I went out in the cold my fingers would become numb and as white and cold as marble. I finally lost all desire for food, and became as weak as a girl can possibly be. I had to sit or lie down most of the day and was almost afraid to cross the room by myself for fear I should fall. My joints used to get so stiff that I was afraid I should lose the use of them altogether. At night when I did have a chance for a little rest my sleep was disturbed by the most dreadful nightmares.

"It was father who read in the papers the remarkable way Tanlac was helping people and one day he brought home a bottle for me. I never would have believed it possible for a medicine to do what Tanlac has done for me. Why very soon I had a surprisingly big appetite and could eat meals that I never thought I should ever touch. I soon found that I could digest my food perfectly. I no longer suffered from the cold when going out and my sleep at night was as peaceful as a child's. I never thought I should be so strong again as I am today, and now instead of having to be waited on I am able to work like my other sisters; there is always plenty to do where there are thirteen children as in our family, and I can now take my share of attending to the younger ones. Many of my relatives and friends have now tried Tanlac and are all enthusiastic about it. No one who has not used it can have any idea what a remarkable medicine Tanlac is sold in Quebec by Jolicoeur's pharmacy and by Martel & Dion; and in Levis by Maurice Dion, under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.

Something About Feather Pillows

What is more unsanitary than a Feather Pillow?

Did you every stop to think how careful you are to put nice clean pillow slips on to those same old pillows?

They are handed down from one generation to another with nothing more than an occasional airing.

We wash your FEATHER PILLOWS without removing the feathers, and dry them with warm air and constant agitation in our HOT AIR DRYING MACHINE, which thoroughly sterilizes and renders them soft and fluffy.

Elderdown Quilts also nicely cleaned and returned soft and fluffy.
