

783.442
D683c
1846
MUS-ETR

BSS

CHANGE NOT THOU

Melody by

Donizetti — Arranged by W. C. Peters.

Written by H. Cosby

New York: FIRTH, POND & CO. / Franklin St.

ANDANTE.

Con Espress.

pp

Oh! la - dy let thine i - mage dwell In my de - vo - ted heart, As in some deep and lone - ly well, Shines one bright star a - part. For there en-shrind', be-side thine own, No i-mage greets mine eye, For dolce. cal?

505

609081

oh! the well re-flects a-lone That one star in..... the sky.

3^d Verse. I pray thee do not chase a-way The dream that cheers my sleep,..... Nor pray thee let thy bright eyes rest Up-on my path-way still,..... As deem tis fleet_ing as the ray That gilds the mid__ night deep: Nor

Nor

sun light beams up_on the crest Of yon_der dis__ _tant hill. The

The

say 'tis fair and fleet_ing too, As yon pale rose_bud there, That

That

world may sleep in clouds be_low, And sha_dows creep a__ _pace, For

For

like a star is shi_ning thro' Thy glos_sy ra__ _ven hair.

sor_row can_not dim the brow That's lit by thy bright face.

