PREFACE

The preparation of Directories, perhaps as vividly as anything else, impresses the compiler with a sense of the progress of the country in all that constitutes material prosperity. Villages bearing names yet unfamiliar are found to have taken root where not many years ago the stillness of the forest was only invaded by the stroke of the woodman's axe, and what were formerly thin settlements are seen to be advancing, under the impetus of an active and persevering population, to the rank of important towns.

Looking back over the sixty-eight years during which this firm has been engaged in the publication of Directories, the Publishers find ample evidence of an expansion in which the people of this country may well take pride and satisfaction. Referring especially to Quebec, this Province which, in 1857, when LOVELL'S CANADA DIRECTORY was issued, contained 457 places, now includes some 1715 places in which business occupations are carried on, besides a large number of places inhabited by farmers and others, not engaged in mercantile pursuits. In the population and flourishing industries of the cities and towns there is like evidence of continuous and healthy progress.

Of the labor expended on the present Directory it may not be out of place to say a word or two here. In the Prospectus the Publishers promised that no effort would be spared to produce a work which would worthily reflect the greatness, the energy, and the progressive spirit of the important Province of Quebec. That promise they have kept in view throughout the long interval of preparation, and they venture to think that it is amply fulfilled by the work which they now lay before the public.

It is the pleasing duty of the Publishers to make grateful mention of the kindness which in so many instances facilitated their researches. To the Postmasters, and other gentlemen, throughout the Province, the Publishers are under special obligations.

C'est dans la préparation des Directorées que le compilateur est le plus vivement frappé peut-être, des progrès accomplis par le pays dans tout ce qui constitue la prospérité matérielle. Des villages dont les noms sont encore peu familiers ont surgi là où, il n'y pas encore beaucoup d'années, le calme de la forêt n'était troublé que par les coups répétés de la hache du bûcheron. De petits groupements de colons, grâce, à un afflux actif et persévérant, sont devenus des villes importantes.

Comparons les diverses éditions du Directoré publiées par cette maison depuis soixante-huit ans et nous constaterons une expansion bien propre à remplir de satisfaction et d'orgueil tous les citoyens de ce pays LE DIRECTORY DU CANADA DE LOVELL publiée en 1857 ne donnait qu'une liste de 457 places, aujourd'hui il en énumère 1715 où l'on trouve des gens d'affaires, sans compter un grand nombre d'autres habités des fermiers ou des personnes qui ne sont point engagées dans des entreprises commerciales. La population sans cesse croissante et les florissantes industries des cités et des villes, témoignent avec la même force d'un progrès continu et de bon augure.

Il ne serait peut-être pas hors de propos d'attirer l'attention sur le labeur considérable nécessité par le présent Directory. Dans leur prospectus, les Editeurs ont promis de n'épargner aucun effort pour faire de cet ouvrage un miroir fidèle de la grandeur, de l'énergie et de l'esprit de progrès de l'importante Province de Québec. Toujours durant la longue préparation du volume ils se sont rappelé cette promesse et ils osent croire qu'ils l'ont parfaitement réalisée.

C'est un agréable devoir pour les Editeurs que de faire mention de l'aide bienveillante qui a souvent facilité leurs recherches. Aux maîtres de poste et à plusieurs autres messieurs de cette province les Editeurs désirent exprimer leur sincère reconnaissance.
