Ormsdown Fair Soon

WITH the weather the way it has been for the past few weeks outside events have not been very attractive and the fact that Ormsdown Exhibition is soon to take place has perhaps not been realized as fully as would otherwise be.

The closing date for entries was reached on Wednesday and Manager Carlyle Dickson was a busy man tabulating last minute items that evening.

Strike Echoes

THE people in this district will remember the strike at Valleyfield, among the textile workers, and they remember the near strike that threatened Huntingdon. All this trouble came from the one source and from the same leaders, now Lachute is having its troubles with the very same leaders and in the same type of manufacture.

These tactics smell very highly of Communism when they go so far as to refute the guardians of the law as to the right to restrain riotous actions and to maintain the peace in the course of their duty to uphold law and order.

When strikes reach the proportions that there is utter disregard to all law and order, they then amount to riot and these situations should be treated as such.

We would draw attention to the fact that Hitler rose to power through his work with the Unions of Germany. He played them against the employers until the employers were willing to grant almost anything to keep up production.

Barrie Memorial $100,000 Campaign

MOST of the readers of The Gleaner will have seen the picture of the proposed New Barrie Memorial Hospital which appeared in our columns the past week and no doubt they will have been struck by the general appearance conveyed by the drawing.

While the new building is designed with an idea of making additions that will provide 50 beds, it may be years before such are needed. The general set-up, however, provides for the future which is something the present building did not do.

The people will have the opportunity of showing their faith in their community and in this hospital during the campaign, when the canvassers call upon them for their contribution to the cause.

England Starving

DURING the past week or so a statement was made by a visitor to this country, from England, to the effect that the English people were starving.

English people have been on far stricter rations since the beginning of the war than we in this country have ever been. They are still on a ration in everything and they are required to build up the trade of Great Britain to beyond what it was before 1939.

After suffering the privations of war and feeling the blows of the enemy in more ways than one, is it any wonder that they are weakened and like unto starving?

Since the war, a labour government has come into being in England and this has not helped matters. While being more or less supported by the Unions of the country, they have been able to keep strikes at a minimum, other restrictions have been imposed that probably would never have been allowed under other party government.

The people of England in their weakened state do not seem to want to fight back and seem as if hypnotized by the power of the government. Many of them believe that their government is doing a good job.

Lately the statement has been made that England is still one of the strong countries of the world. But when one looks at the Empire and sees the trouble in Palestine, the trouble in India, and the inability to get any kind of satisfaction with Austria, they wonder if the Labour government is just the right type to put England on its feet. We would say that not only are the people starving for desired addition of food and raiment, but the country is starving, too, for some of the great leaders that have brought England out of her troubles in the years gone by.

Effect of Austerity in Britain

LEWIS MILLIGAN

Britain is a nation slowly dying of starvation, declares Dr. Bickness, a member of the Royal College of Physicians, in an article appearing in the Medical Record.

When I read this in a dispatch from London I was reminded of a conversation with a Londoner in the Strand in the early days of the war.

But the food situation has gone from bad to worse in Britain during the past twelve months. The American loan has been largely spent, it is charged, on unnecessary goods and in the promotion of socialization.

The epidemic of gambling which has spread over England is doubtless due to the "austerity" that has been imposed upon the people, whose lives have become drab and colorless.

The odd thing about this feverish desire to make big money is that it has been intensified under a socialist regime, whose chief aim is to curb the alleged greed of the capitalist for big profits, and level down society to economic equality.

LETTER to the EDITOR

To the Editor, Huntingdon Gleaner.

Having moved into Dewittville last spring to reside with my son, who works for Mr. Donald M. Rowat, we found there was a great interest taken in gardening.

It is far better to grow tomatoes staked as you save both room and fruit. Plant them three feet between the rows and 18 inches between the plants.

see the same as an outsider can see that they are slowly being moulded into a state similar if not altogether on the lines of Russia. Nationalization of industry little by little, is slowly proceeding, the government would dearly like to suppress the press, but this would be too significant to the Englishman and would immediately arouse his suspicions.

Yes, England is starving for the leaders of the courage of the old days and with the true tradition of statesmanship that has brought Britain to the top and out of her troubles of yesteryear.

THE WEEK AT OTTAWA

By SHANE MACKAY Canadian Press Staff Writer

Ottawa, (CP)—The gold mining industry captured a temporary lime-light last week as the House of Commons continued the lengthening budget debate.

Rodney Adamson (PC—York West) blamed last July's revaluation of the Canadian dollar against that of the United States as the cause of current financial difficulties faced by mining corporations.

Mr. Adamson said American business interests were anxious for the adjustment because prior to last July Canada, with its 10 per cent discount, was making great inroads on South American markets and was becoming America's heaviest competitor in the Latin field.

When the "deal" was made, said Mr. Adamson, the United States Congress was taking a lukewarm attitude toward the loan. Its passage was important to the Dominion because granting of Canada's own $1,250,000,000 loan to Britain was conditional on the American one being made.

William Benedickson (L—Kenora-Rainy River) told the Commons that while the budget offered no new tax relief for gold mines, it should be recalled that special tax concessions had been granted only a few months ago.

He called upon John Bracken, Progressive Conservative party leader, for a clear-cut statement on what his party would do for the gold mining industry if it came to power.

The staggering facts shown in the New York Times are that the nations are maintaining nineteen million (19,000,000) men under arms and are spending twenty-seven billion dollars ($27,000,000,000) a year on defence.

What is involved? Many contend that if Canada is to be an effective factor in this kind of an armament race it is obvious that she would require men and money out of all proportion to her wealth and population.

The question is how much are we able and willing to add to our budget (to be paid out of taxes) and our armed forces (recruited or conscripted from our youthful manpower) to keep up with other nations.

Our place in the United Nations The greatest value obtained from the discussions and controversies about our defence is the realization that our hope of continuing peace and prosperity can come only from the success of the United Nations organization.

What will we give up? The question which no one who takes this view is willing to answer is "what substantial items can we give up in order to have a 'self-respecting' defence force?"

There are many who contend that the additional "items" which must be added to our budget ahead of a large army are: more substantial old age pensions, an adequate health insurance program and our projected public investment plan.

Our place in the United Nations The greatest value obtained from the discussions and controversies about our defence is the realization that our hope of continuing peace and prosperity can come only from the success of the United Nations organization.

1947, 1948 or 1949. The board of transport commissioners took to the road this week beginning a six-week journey across the Dominion to hear regional evidence in the railways' demand for a 30-per-cent freight rate increase.

EXTRA WORK BAN Halifax, (CP)—A general order prohibiting city employees from accepting part-time employment outside of their regular duties was recommended to city council by the Civic Safety Committee.

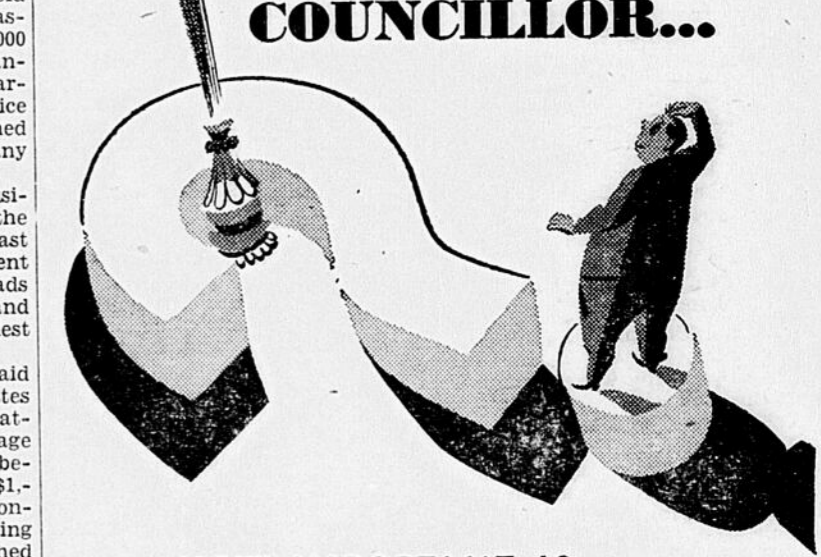

BUSY WIRES Toronto, (CP)—Canadian telegraph offices handled an average of 12,758,376 telegrams originating in the Dominion during the 10 years 1936 to 1945. Highest number in a year was 15,758,247 in 1945.

ENJOYED BY MORE families than any other brand of coffee in the world... that's Maxwell House. Because of its extra flavor it's always "Good to the Last Drop!"

Gleanings: Finance Minister Abbott told the Commons the new financial agreement with Nova Scotia contained nothing which had not been offered to the other provinces.

Mr. Hartt also tangled with Progressive Conservative members when he charged Canadian history had never witnessed a "more traitorous action" than that of Premier Duplessis of Quebec and Drew of Ontario in seeking to "encroach" on the rights of the Dominion government.

Mr. Hartt charged Paul Masse, defeated Independent candidate in the by-election at Cartier, had been "financed" to the extent of $30,000 by Premier Duplessis.

HOW IMPORTANT IS PROPER STREET LIGHTING TO YOU AND YOUR TOWN?

Proper Lighting Reveals Your Attitude To Your Town. Brightly lit streets and thoroughfares tell people that here is a progressive town guided by a progressive civic council.

Proper Lighting Shows Concern With Civic Welfare. Street lighting means keeping pace with progress. It offers citizens the full facilities of your town by day and by night.

Proper Lighting Keeps Your Accident Rate Down. A minimum of street accidents is a source of pride to any town. Proper illumination on all streets is the number one reason for low accident rates.

Proper Lighting Gives Your Merchants A Better Break. Merchandise is on display more hours each day; tourists notice and buy from stores with attractively lit windows.

Adequate street lighting improves and enhances the value of your town. It reveals the community attitude, prosperity and welfare. Consider the advantages. A bright town has a bright future. Don't keep your town in the dark.

THE OLD HEN GETS IN A STEW

Chicken has become a frequent "must" on Canadian menus. It is the most versatile of meats and may be served with the simple, economical meal or for "company" dinners. Chicken has few equals when it comes to delicious flavour and appetite appeal.

The time of year is almost at hand when the old birds will be culled from the chicken flocks. These birds may be used in several ways. They may be steamed, stewed, fricasseed or canned for later use.

These older birds are prepared as for roasting, but require a long, slow cooking, using moist heat to soften and make tender the tough connective tissue. Chickens cooked in this manner will lose some of their juice and flavour, but this is regained when the broth is served as gravy with the meat.

Fowl is usually cut into serving pieces before stewing and then placed in a kettle, half-filled with lightly salted water. It should be simmered, covered, until the meat is tender. It should never boil. The pieces should be turned occasionally to ensure even cooking throughout. A tablespoon of vinegar added to the water helps to make the meat more tender. It is sometimes necessary to replenish the water during the cooking period. A young fowl will require from 2-3 hours to cook until tender.

Fricasseed is another method of cooking fowl. The bird may be cut into serving pieces, rolled in flour and browned on all sides in hot fat. Then simmered in a small quantity of water or tomato juice.

If stewed fowl is to be served cold, it should be allowed to cool for an hour or more in the broth—the meat will be more moist. Three to four cups of cooked meat will be obtained from a four-five pound chicken. There are many ways in which the meat from stewed or steamed chickens may be used in appetizing combinations. The home economists of the Consumer Section, Dominion Department of Agriculture, suggest chicken shortcake, chicken pie, or chicken croquettes if you like it served hot. For those who like it cold, a chicken salad, sandwich or jellied aspic may be appealing.

FRICASSEED CHICKEN WITH SOUR CREAM

1 4-lb. chicken, cut into serving portions
3 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
3/4 cup fat
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped parsley or celery leaves
1 1/2 cups sour cream
Rub chicken with vinegar and roll in mixture of flour, salt and pepper. Melt fat and brown chicken on all sides in hot fat. Place browned chicken in large casserole, add onions, celery leaves and cover with sour cream. Cook covered in a moderately slow oven 325 deg. F. until tender 2 1/2-3 hours. Six servings.

CHICKEN MOUSSE

1 1/2 tablespoons granulated gelatine
2 tablespoons cold water
3 egg yolks
1 1/2 cups chicken broth
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups cooked chicken, chopped
1/2 cup chopped sweet pickles
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks and add chicken broth. Cook in top of double boiler until mixture coats spoon. Add salt, pepper and soaked gelatine. Stir until dissolved. Cool mixture until partially set. Add chopped chicken, pickles and fold in the whipped cream. Pour into a greased mould and chill until firm. Unmould on bed of lettuce and garnish with sliced tomatoes, sliced hard cooked egg, watercress and radishes. Serve with mayonnaise. Six-eight servings.

and rentals at the time the property is taken over.

Q.—All self-contained suites, apartments and houses permitted the ten percent increase?

A.—No, the ten percent increase applies only to accommodation which was completed and rented before January first, nineteen forty-four.

Q.—If a landlord had his rent set by the Rentals Board between January first, nineteen forty-four and March, nineteen forty-seven, at a much lower rate than prevailing rates in the same district, can anything be done about it?

A.—The landlord should apply to the Court of Rentals Appeals in his vicinity, for an adjustment in his rent. This should be done before he offers his tenants the two-year lease.

Q.—Suppose a landlord is renting his property at a lower rental than that of similar property in the same neighbourhood. Can he now obtain more than the ten percent increase?

A.—Before offering his tenant the two-year lease, the landlord should make application to the rentals board for an increase not exceeding prevailing rentals for similar accommodation in the area.

Q.—If the Rentals Board should grant such an increase, may the landlord then request the ten percent increase?

A.—Yes, he may, by offering his tenant a two-year lease.

Q.—Under the two-year lease, has the tenant the right to break his lease on thirty days' notice?

A.—Yes, by giving thirty days' notice in writing to his landlord, the tenant may legally vacate.

Q.—When does the ten percent increase become effective?

A.—On a monthly rental basis, the ten percent increase becomes effective thirty clear days from the first rent day due after April seventh, which was the day the order became effective.

SOME HELPFUL HINTS

Griddle Cakes
Griddle cakes and waffles will have a much finer texture if the eggs are beaten separately and the whites added last to the batter.

Coffee
To reduce the tannic acid in coffee to a minimum, grind the coffee very fine, put in a linen cloth, and pour boiling water over it.

Milk
To prevent milk from scorching the dish or pan in which it is to be heated, rinse the utensil in cold water before the milk is poured into it.

Too Salty
If food becomes too salty, place a wet cloth over the top of the vessel in which the food is cooking, and the steam will draw the salt into the cloth.

Brass
Scour brass ornaments until they have taken on all the polish that will adhere, then apply a thin coat of varnish, and they will keep bright for a long time.

Fruit Stains
Before removing a soiled tablecloth and napkins from the table, look for fruit stains and put camphor on them. Then wash the same as any white goods.

Blood Stains
Old blood stains may be removed by using iodine of potassium diluted with four times its weight in water.

Never again will I doubt the loyalty and understanding of dogs. Always, in a nonchalant, detached way, I have liked them—now, a shepherd pup's thoughtfulness has made me their staunchest admirer.

Came the war, and my husband left for a Quonset hut far away. Pal seemed to sense the change in our home. Back to "secretarying" for the duration, I left Freddie, my son, at school each morning, bringing him home each evening after work.

Pal's watchful eyes followed us each evening as we drove into the driveway and disembarked with bags of groceries and school books—as Freddie went up to the chicken house and gathered the eggs and I trekked around to the front yard for the paper.

One afternoon we drove in, and there in a neat pile, on the edge of the grass where we stopped the car, were the eggs. The next afternoon the eggs were gathered again, and beside them lay the evening paper. Still I was hesitant to give Pal credit, until Saturday afternoon.

Freddie and his friends were playing croquet, and I was lolling in a yard chair. About four-thirty, Pal arose nearby, sauntered up to the chickenhouse and brought back an egg carefully, in his mouth—made another trip, with another egg. We were convinced when the eggs, not one broken, were in a neat pile at

This column is conducted under the supervision of the Women's Regional Advisory Committee to the Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Q.—Just who are eligible for the new ten percent increase in housing rentals?

A.—Landlords of houses, duplexes and apartment blocks are eligible for the new ten percent increase, providing they were built prior to January first, nineteen forty-four. Each living unit must be self-contained, with private bathroom and complete living facilities.

Q.—If a landlord converts a house which he owns into self-contained living suites, is he eligible for the increase?

A.—Yes, he is...providing, of course, that the accommodation is self-contained.

Q.—How should landlords go about increasing their rentals?

A.—They should apply to the nearest rentals office of the Prices Board and ask for a special two-year lease form. Duplicate copies should be secured for each tenant, who, if he accepts the conditions, will return one completed form to the landlord.

Q.—What happens if the tenant refuses to sign the two-year lease?

A.—In that case, if the tenant does not accept within thirty days of the offer, his right of occupancy ceases, and he can be forced to vacate under provincial law.

Q.—Suppose the landlord does not ask the tenant to sign the two-year lease?

A.—Then he cannot collect the ten percent rental increase.

Q.—The landlord isn't compelled to offer a two-year lease, is he?

A.—No, he isn't. But, in such a case, the tenant is still protected from eviction.

Q.—What happens if a landlord sells his property before the lease expires?

A.—As there is no sales clause in the lease, the new owner would have to accept the existing tenants.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

MR. AND MRS. FRED PEASE

It was another great day in the lives of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pease, of Glenora, Que., when they celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Saturday, May 17th, at the home of their son, C. H. Pease. Special permission had to be obtained from Bishop Langlois, of Valleyfield, for the Golden Wedding ceremony to be conducted at the above home and Rev. Father Capron, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Trout River, N.Y., conducted the ceremony. An altar was erected in front of the fireplace in the living room, where the couple renewed their marriage vows. Miss Rev. Father Capron, pastor of St. Bridget's Church, Trout River, N.Y., conducted the ceremony. An altar was erected in front of the fireplace in the living room, where the couple renewed their marriage vows.

Following the ceremony, the wedding breakfast was served on the original table which was used at the wedding fifty years ago. The linen and the glassware were the original wedding gifts and used again on this memorable occasion. Only members of the immediate family were present to celebrate the anniversary, these being two sons, Chester and Cecil, one daughter, Mary, and three grandchildren, Anthony, Patricia and Susan, son and daughters of Cecil; Mr. and Mrs. John Wattle, brother of Mrs. F. Pease. Those from a distance included: Mrs. Emma Farrell, Bridgeport, Conn., sister of Mr. F. Pease; Mr. and Mrs. Wilfrid Tolson, Silver Springs, N.Y.; nieces and nephews from Valleyfield and Tupper Lake, N.Y.; Father A. Pigeon and his assistant Father Quenneville of Valleyfield; Rev. John Morand, of Valleyfield, Que., nephew of Mrs. F. Pease.

The happy couple were the recipients of many gifts and beautiful flowers as well as messages of good wishes and congratulations.

Reader Interested in Article On "Violent Christianity"

The following letter has been received from Syracuse, N.Y. in which the writer professes interest in one of the articles written by Mr. Lewis Milligan and which appeared in The Gleaner a few weeks ago.

R.D. No. 2, East Syracuse, May 14, 1947

I was greatly interested in what you wrote under the heading "Violent Christianity". I don't know what Sir Stafford Cripps had in mind, of course—but I wonder if we don't underestimate the POWER of the weapons Christ put in our hands.

Faith, kindness, hope—all the things embraced by the "Love" one another as I have loved you." According to Harry Emerson Fosdick the word Jesus used did not mean "affection" as the English language word Love does but "Understanding and Creative Good-will."

Last year my four-year old son was having a awful time with the other children in the neighborhood. An older girl in the group picked on him unmercifully, she wouldn't let the other children play with him either.

We tried everything, from having him share his candy and other treats to putting the girls parents wise to what was going on.

But the candy only brought demands for more, he would come in saying the Girls wouldn't play with him if he didn't bring more.

Punishment only made her more vindictive when she got him out of sight.

This day he came in demanding a stick, the girls were trying to run him down with their bikes.

A neighbour was with me and we tried to interest him in other things. He stood by the window watching the other children, and finally said "That's an awful pretty dress Mimi's got on."

My neighbour said "Why don't you go out and tell her you like her dress?" He did, and I'll never forget the surprised look on her face as he shouted it to her.

She came dashing to ask me if I had told him to say that. I told her how it happened and she ran to tell her mother what Roger said. It was a little thing, but it made a complete change in her. Since then she has protected the younger children. She feels accepted by her neighborhood and has become co-operative at home and school.

When they got over the surprise, the warmth that comes of being approved would be as the Rays of the Sun to dispel suspicions and fears.

DEATHS

JACK-At his residence, Chateauguy Basin, Que., on Thursday, May 15th, 1947, Stanton Robert Jack, beloved husband of Louise Robertson Slack, in his 78th year.

ORITUARY

THE LATE STANTON R. JACK The death of Mr. Stanton R. Jack, resident and farmer of Chateauguy Basin for many years came as a sudden shock to his many relatives and friends. Although Mr. Jack was well over his three score years and ten, his good health, pleasing personality and enduring vitality gave the impression that he would out-live many of his younger friends.

However on Tuesday morning, May 15th, Mr. Stanton Jack failed to come out from the barn that he had entered during the course of his morning rounds. After finding him and summoning Dr. I. K. Williams, his family learned that he had succumbed to a stroke and was partially paralyzed. He was not expected to live many hours after the stroke but his extraordinary strength brought him through the next day and finally on Thursday morning he passed away.

The funeral took place from his residence on Saturday, May 17th, at 2:30 p.m. He was laid to rest in Chateauguy Cemetery, Chateauguy Village. The Funeral Service was in charge of the Rev. McKinley Rose, St. Andrew's United Church, Chateauguy Basin.

He leaves to mourn his loss: Mrs. Louise Robertson Jack (wife), two sons, Kenneth and Evan Jack and one daughter, Roberta Jack and a number of grand children.

Some excitement was caused in Chateauguy Village, Saturday, May 17, when a lone beaver was seen busily working back and forth across the river just beside the bridge. The beaver was first noticed by J. Robert, clerk, in the Banque Canadienne Nationale, at a few minutes before 1 p.m. as he glanced out of the window of the Bank overlooking the Chateauguy River.

Mr. Robert and Roland Laberge, Provincial Policeman of Chateauguy, called upon Alcide Lecuyer and with a fishing net as their sole equipment finally subdued the beaver after an hour and a half of struggling from one side of the river to the other. Once subdued, they caged the animal and left it in charge of Henri Lafavre over the week-end. Monday morning, officials from the Ministry of Games and Fisheries of the Province of Quebec came out and requisitioned the beaver for display at Parc Lafontaine Zoo, Montreal, Que.

Softball League Elects Officers The Chateauguy Softball League heralded the opening of their 25th consecutive season of operation with a highly successful general meeting held last Wednesday evening.

Most important item on the agenda was the election of officers for 1947. Mr. Rene Parent was re-elected to the presidency by acclamation, an office he has held for a number of years and carried out his duties in his own inimitable manner to the great satisfaction of all concerned. Mr. Rene Parent will occupy the post of 1st Vice President with Mr. N. Brossot as 2nd Vice-President. Mr. Donald Noonan as Secretary and Mr. Cy Gilbert serving as Treasurer rounds out the Executive for the forthcoming season.

The league will consist of five teams this year under the leadership of the following Captains: Mike Moynihan, Bert Lilley, Pete Gilbert, John Warren and Harold Kelly. Unfortunately, the anticipated Village entry failed to materialize, however, the present five-team league will provide some mighty fine entertainment for ball fans this summer.

Donald Noonan is working hard on a souvenir "25th Anniversary Programme and Schedule" which will be ready for opening day. This is quite an endeavour for one man and orchids are quite in order for this hard working member of the "exec".

Two very active members of the League were absent from the general meeting due to their hospitalization, namely Iver Jones and Bill Wilson, Jr. The League has forwarded flowers and most certainly wish them a speedy recovery. Everyone hopes they will be on the diamond for the 1947 season.

C.A.C. News

The war canoe will take to the water tonight for its initial practice and the very able chairman of the Racing Committee, Paul Bonnell reports that the "Big Boat" will be manned by a crew worthy of any competition. No positions in the boat are pre-assigned and only the outstanding paddlers will be entered, so everyone has a chance to prove their ability and land a place in the big event.

Mr. Jim Smith has resigned the post of Treasurer and has assumed the responsibility of Chairman of the Financial Committee. Mr. Bill Yarnell, well known young war veteran, succeeds Mr. Smith as Treasurer and a hearty welcome and every wish for success is extended these two men in their new positions.

A meeting of the Ladies' Committee was held Tuesday evening and it was decided that once again Chateauguy would boast a ladies' crew in open competition. All young ladies interested in paddling this season are requested to communicate with Miss Eileen Canvin or any member of the Club.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. W. Wilson extends sincere thanks to her Chateauguy friends for the many flowers and cards received during her recent illness.

The objective of Avalon is practical as well as idealistic.

"Dedicated to the fostering of a Cultural Renaissance in the United States through forging closer cultural ties with other nations of the Western Hemisphere, that a unified culture may be developed. Dedicated to the discovery and encouragement of genius in all its forms, that its gifts may not be lost to humanity or perverted by deprivation or misunderstanding. Dedicated to the belief that the Golden Rule is the only successful law of life and that "without vision the people perish."

From the Avalon members the magazine "Different" solicits short stories, short articles concerning children of exceptional gifts; behind the scenes revelations in politics, practical ideas on education, strengthening ties with other nations, sound plans for enduring peace.

Free criticism is given on each rejected poem, story or article and marketing advice when requested. For some time I've been considering the possibility that an Avalon Chapter might make an appeal to many in this community. Several people have expressed their interest. Mr. Alwyn Coristine of Montreal, Canadian Regent, and Mrs. C. McGuire Bagg have offered to help with advice and suggestions for a wider organization. Any person whose interest lies in the discovery and development of creative and artistic talent is welcome to further information. Members of Montreal Avalon have been quite successful in selling poems, stories and articles locally and on the United States market. Bluebell Phillips will shortly have an article in the Standard.

Soloist from Montreal High School

The Keats' Montreal Chapter of Avalon World Arts Academy held its final meeting of the season, in Stevenson Hall, on May 16th. Mrs. C. McGuire Bagg, President of the Chapter, demonstrated the underlying motives of Avalon: "the discovery and encouragement of genius, in all its forms" when she introduced a young Montreal singer, 15-year old Anne McCubbin, a Tenth Grade student at Montreal High School. She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Helen Ockenden.

The audience was charmed and delighted with the several classical numbers, both serious and gay. The lyric quality of Anne McCubbin's voice, her perfect control in tone and delivery combined with a winsome personality give promise of a concert career for the youthful artist. Dressed in a long gown of pale blue chiffon, she presented a living cameo portrait of a star and the emotional response of an audience of authors, artists and musicians was most enthusiastic.

Miss Margaret Scripture, who had just returned from a concert tour of Ontario and Michigan, gave an account of her visit to the Avalon Chapter at Ann Arbor, where the membership is composed of professional and business men and women, housewives and students all finding fun doing creative work. She also attended an International meeting at the University of Michigan where students from South America, Jamaica and Spain find common ground in various creative efforts under inspiration of Avalon.

Mr. Leslie A. Roberts, well-known war correspondent and author speaking on Journalism, said that campaigns of hatred now rampant in the press of North America have a bitter, tragic significance. A great proportion of this so-called news is merely slanted propaganda. Moreover, any writer who questions this procedure is dangerous and unwarranted is promptly classed as an "appeaser", a "fellow-traveller" or even a "communist".

In this province, Mr. Robert remarked, we have the current strikes at Lacoste, Chambly and Grandmere, followed by distortion of facts for public consumption by police, press and radio. We have permitted to help with advice and suggestions to become the mouthpiece, not of the people whom it is supposed to serve, but of special interests. This is largely the fault of the people due to their unwillingness to work politically on their own community level. Ownership of the press remains the property of entrenched wealth. The press exists primarily to give expression to the views and opinions which are not those of the majority of readers. Its objectives are not the greatest good to the greatest number, but the advancement and protection of the top-flight ownership.

Mr. Alwyn Coristine congratulated the President, Mrs. Bagg, upon the very successful handling of the difficulties encountered during the first months of organization.

Mrs. W. L. Carr of Huntingdon thanked the speakers and soloist and Mrs. Harold Mills presided at the tea table.

Mr. Leslie A. Robert and Miss M. E. Jones, Librarian of the Montreal Daily Star, were welcomed to membership of Avalon.

SERVING CANADIANS THROUGH CHEMISTRY

Chemistry? IT DOESN'T MEAN A THING TO ME!

IF YOU WERE a farmer it might seem that way at first glance. But take another look!

Those fine crops, which mean so much to Canada's health and economy, often depend upon chemical fertilizers. Weed and pest destroyers, orchard sprays too, are but a few of the services that chemical research extends to agriculture.

Through good times and bad, the chemical industry plows a straight furrow, ever moving forward to create better things for farm, industry and home. Look to chemistry with confidence for a finer future... and to the C-I-L oval symbol of an organization devoted to serving Canadians through chemistry.

Specially Written for THE HUNTINGDON GLEANER By ALAN HARVEY

Two of Britain's most influential voices spoke out last week on the state of Germany, Europe and the world. Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, one of the Big Four foreign ministers, hinted that his patience may be wearing thin when he told the House of Commons at the week-end that Britain's foreign policy will be reviewed if the November meeting of foreign ministers fails to reconcile existing conflicts in Anglo-Soviet relations.

"I have seen many 11th-hour and 59th-minute settlements," he said at the conclusion of a two-day debate on foreign affairs, "and the probability is that if we keep our temper and our patience, we may in the end reconcile these differences." "If finally it cannot be done, then the government... will have to review the whole of its policy."

At the same time, Bevin served notice that Britain still considers herself a "great power" and intends to maintain her grip on the Middle East, "vital to the British Commonwealth and to the peace of the world."

In another significant pronouncement on foreign affairs, Opposition Leader Winston Churchill launched his campaign, foreshadowed last January, for a "united Europe" to revive the continent from its post-war plight of a "charnel-house" and to unite it as "one of the four pillars in the temple of peace."

By FRED KERNER

By putting his nose into the affairs of Canada's adored Barbara Ann Scott, Avery Brundage of the United States Olympic Committee has started another ruckus not at all unlike the one he started 11 years ago when he had Jesse Owens ousted from amateur ranks.

Brundage who is the self-styled savior of the simon-pure athlete has few friends in the United States and his recent to-do has probably lost him any Canadian friends he may have had.

There were rumors that the threats to Miss Scott's amateur standing were being made so that United States skaters would have a better chance at the skating title in next year's Olympics. This may or may not be so. To us it sounds like a little nonsense, especially when Brundage's past is known.

Brundage not only is clamping down on the world's figure skating champion. He even threatens to withdraw the U.S. team from the Olympics if the standards of the Olympic committee are "lowered."

By that he means he disapproves of broken-time payment, "the athletes' all very ready to take a simon-pure stand," if the athletes concerned have a tidy bank account to tide them over competition periods.

These instances are rare today and leaving a job to compete for the country's honor doesn't make up for unpaid rent and moneyless pockets when mealtime comes around.

Disagree With Brundage tide them over competition periods. Brundage against Brundage, but he is in full disagreement with his stand.

Owens pointed out that he grossed many amateur athletes still draw salary from their firms while they are in training. What would Mr. Brundage say?

"We're fine ones to preach amateurism for other countries," the former world's champion sprinter and broad-jumper said, "when the expense account system really makes a pro out of every outstanding track athlete."

The Negro star recalls that when he was at Ohio State University, he received between $300 and $400 expense for every meet he participated in at New York.

Even among the simon-pure athletes there have been ways of getting around giving them money they would not ordinarily accept.

Owens tells the story of the high jumper at his college who refused to take $100 expense money to go to a certain meet though he could not afford to go if he didn't have the money.

The kind-hearted soul who offered to pay expenses thought for a few minutes, then finally said: "I'll bet you $100 you can't jump over this chair."

"You're crazy," the jumper said, "it's only 1 1/2 feet high."

The jumper was still a little puzzled but stepped over the chair with ease. Then the promoter gave him the $100 he won on the "friendly bet."

The jumper competed in the meet and didn't lose his amateur standing.

Ontario Liberals have chosen a new provincial leader—43-year-old Farquhar Oliver, leader of the legislative opposition.

He won the party's convention ballot with a substantial majority over four other candidates—including Colin Campbell, choice of Federal Liberals.

Born at Priceville, near Owen Sound, Ont., Mr. Oliver has been a continuous representative of Grey South, his home constituency since his election to the provincial House in 1926.

As leader of the 18-man Liberal opposition, he is an able, but not colorful debater—particularly on farm issues—and a keen critic of the Conservative administration.

Appointed minister of public welfare and works by Premier Mitchell Hepburn in 1941, he resigned a year later but again assumed the post in Harry C. Nixon's cabinet of 1943.

Addressing a political rally at Ayr, Scotland, Winston Churchill termed Palestine the "most dismal of all quarrels into which we have blundered" and that "we are making fools of ourselves by keeping 100,000 soldiers in Palestine."

Further arrangements were made for the tea and plant sale being held in the Howick Curling rink this week.

CANADA'S health

SUNNING THE BABY When a baby is being given sunbaths or placed out in the sun, health authorities urge mothers to ensure that the eyes are protected.

An infant should be shielded from direct rays of the sun, they point out, until able to move about easily. The baby should be placed with the feet pointing away from the sun, so that eyebrows and upper lids screen the eyes. It is also a good idea to line the hood of a baby carriage with some dull, preferably dark, material as extra protection.

SQUINTING TROUBLE Squinting causes strain, fatigue, general discomfort and often headaches, and medical authorities urge those who habitually squint to consult their family physicians for the cause, and remedy.

A squint isn't funny, the doctors agree. Astigmatism causes blurred or distorted vision, and narrowing of the eyelids and contracting the pupils won't make up for it. Competent advice should be sought to see what can be done about it.

SUN IN THE EYES Unless an eye specialist has specially advised them, sunglasses should be worn, if at all, only during periods of exposure to sunlight. Indiscriminate use of sunglasses tends to lower the tolerance of the eyes for light.

The best medical advice is against using sunglasses for night driving. Doctors say that they just provide an additional hazard. In the first place, sunglasses should not change the hues of natural colours.

SOFT LIGHTS Members of the fair sex, particularly, will learn with interest that medical science agrees with them that those soft overhead lights which "do so much" for the bedroom are quite sufficient, under normal conditions, to provide adequate lighting.

Health authorities do advise, however, that lighting of the boudoir type be supplemented by properly shaded lights on both sides of a mirror.

And what about reading in bed—that "pin-up" lamp which looks so intimate and pretty? That's all right, too, say the authorities, as long as it gives light which is adequate in quantity as well as quality.

Of course, normal posture, when reading in bed, is most important, and the best lighting won't be enough unless the reader who is resting maintains a correct position in bed or on the couch. The material being read must be held in such a way as to have light sufficient for eye comfort.

TOOTH EXTRACTION If teeth are bad, and possibly spreading infection through the body, doctors and dental surgeons agree that they are better extracted.

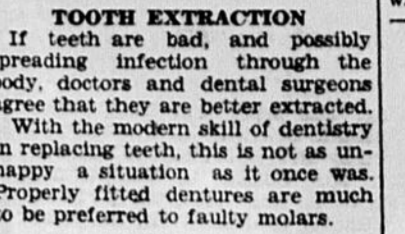

With the modern skill of dentistry in replacing teeth, this is not as unhappy a situation as it once was. Properly fitted dentures are much to be preferred to faulty molars.

FOR WARM WEATHER With warm weather on the way, health authorities pass on a few tips to Canadians on health conservation in early summer.

"Don't demand too much of your body" the experts tell us. "Take it easy. Don't eat too many heat-producing foods." They also recommend a reasonable increase in liquid intake at this season, and point out that the diet and habits of our people should always be in keeping with the prevailing weather.

FARM and FACTORY

Imagine the first man lumbering moodily around the land hunting his food and clothing.

Follow his development.

Soon he realizes that by hunting and working alone he is doing things the hard way.

So he divides the work among members of the community. Tasks naturally fall into two great divisions, farm and factory.

Down through the centuries as a new land is opened up by hardy pioneers the farm appears first, followed closely by the factory as the community grows.

That is the basis of our entire civilization.

Nowhere is this better illustrated than in the Town of Huntingdon and surrounding county. The town population has increased from 1,619 in 1931 to better than 2,500 today. With this growth has come prosperity.

Valleyfield Boat Club International Regatta to be Held on July 19 - 20

The International Regatta of the Valleyfield Boat Club which brings together some of the fastest racing boats in the United States and Canada, will be held this year on July 19-20 in Valleyfield, Quebec, 35 miles from Montreal.

This event, being held for the sixth straight year, is sanctioned by the American Power Boat Association and, judging from past attendance records, more than 50,000 racing enthusiasts will view the proceedings during the two-day meet. The large entry list and spectator volume make the Valleyfield Regatta the largest in Canada and a contender for top honours on the North American continent.

The feature of the program is a race for the Provincial Challenge Trophy, open to 225 cu. inch hydroplanes, while $2,000 in cash and prizes is up for competition in all outboard and inboard classes. Included in the schedule are races for outboards in classes "A", "B", "C", "D" and "E"; inboard runabouts, class "D"; unlimited runabouts, inboard; outboard runabouts, class "C" and the 151-135 class.

The regatta takes place on the waters of St. Francis Bay, with the course providing a one mile test for outboards and a two and a half mile grind for inboards. All boats and motors must be registered with the A.P.B.A. and all owners and drivers must be members of an A.P.B.A.-affiliated association. Entry blanks and complete information are obtainable from the American Power Boat Association; race committee chairman Robert Schelling, Box 216, Fort Erie, Ontario, and Armand Clairmont, president, Valleyfield Boating Club.

John C. Fisher To Open Exhibition

Opening Date Ormstown Exhibition, June 4th

Arrangements for the Ormstown Exhibition are rapidly being made in readiness for the dates June 4th to 7th, and it promises to be better than ever this year. Word has been received that Mr. John Fisher, CBC Commentator will be a guest and will officially open the Exhibition on Wednesday evening, June 4th. This man is well known to many radio listeners and it will also be remembered that he has visited in the Chateauguy Valley on at least one occasion. There will be the usual school parade and floats on the opening night and this is the children's night. The Midway attractions will be by the same company as last year and many new attractions have been added. The free grandstand attractions will provide plenty of entertainment and fun for all the patrons and the Horse Show promises more and better entries than ever before.

The Bellerive Band will provide music on all days of the exhibition and the racing entries will give lovers of this sport many a thrill. In all departments the entries have increased and more prizes are being offered. In many instances it has been impossible to include all the prizes in the prize list and these are being advertised in the columns of this newspaper. It will pay to watch for these special prizes as they are published. Entries closed on Wednesday, May 14th, and the catalogue of these entries will soon be issued.

 be built for the younger children. Some very good softball teams are in the making and interest in this project is climbing. During the summer months Mr. Liversidge will do his best to recruit members for the Boys' Club and it is hoped that the building for this purpose will be available by fall so that the Boys' Club can take over.

If the plans under discussion by the Huntingdon Youth Association Board can be put into effect, the Boys' Club promises to be a going concern right from the start. All boys and girls who may be interested in being members of this club are asked to contact Mr. Liversidge and make their wishes known. Mr. Liversidge says he promises that there will never be a dull moment for the boys and girls and he is anxious to know what possible membership he can expect by the time the club is officially opened. Teen-agers are specially invited to become interested and above all, boys and girls must remember that this club is their very own. As soon as other particulars are available for publication, they will be announced in these columns. In the meantime see Mr. Liversidge and tell him you want to be a member.

Signs to be Erected on Hospital Site

New Barrie Memorial Hospital Campaign Moulding Into Shape

Plans for the new Barrie Memorial Hospital campaign were further discussed at a meeting of the executive committee, on Wednesday night, at Ormstown. It was noted that several large contributions had already been received or promised and this was great encouragement to the committee in charge of the campaign. The Publicity Committee reported that arrangements had been made to erect signs on the site of the new hospital to acquaint all of what is being done. It is hoped that a tag day will be held during the period of the Ormstown Exhibition and also that a display will be placed in the Industrial Building so that all visitors will be aware of the forthcoming campaign to raise a minimum objective of $100,000.

Persons receiving mail from surrounding Post Offices in the near future will be further reminded of the campaign by wording to that effect which will appear on the cancelling stamp on such mail. No effort is being lost to acquaint the people of the campaign and it is likely that it will be well known by the time it commences on June 16th. From that time on to the 30th, it will be intensified with a view to reaching the objective set and it is hoped that it will be exceeded considerably as this is only a minimum objective.

The formation of a Montreal Committee is going on at present and it is hoped to find considerable support for the campaign from well wishers in that city. Many of them have voiced their appreciation of the fact that Ormstown will provide increased facilities both for the traveller and for the summer visitor to various parts in the Chateauguy Valley. For this reason they feel that their support is well deserved.

The W.M.S. met on Tuesday afternoon, May 13th, in the Church Hall. The meeting opened with the hymn, "Stand up, Stand up For Jesus." A devotional period was taken by Mr. Finlay Milne, who read the 8th chapter of Matthew from the revised version of the New Testament, which is used by the students at Macdonald College. The Glad Tidings Prayer was given by Mrs. M. Turner and the roll call was responded to by the text word, "Courage." Three new members were added to the roll. The minutes were then read and approved.

Arrangements are being made for a play by Rockham Players to be given in Riverfield in the near future. A letter was read from Mrs. (Rev.) Kik, of Montreal, who sent names of two missionaries assigned for special prayer, Miss Margaret Ramsay, of British Guiana, and Miss Grace Lee, of Victoria, B.C. Hymn 546, "Soldiers of Christ, Arise" was sung, and the Glad Tidings item, "St. Christophers' Training School" was read by Mrs. Jas. Angell. The peculiarly cold weather with frosty nights we have had this month has reminded one of our oldest farmers how, one May nearly 70 years since, there was a bee hauling logs on sleighs on the Hill, and, early in the same month, 100 lbs. of Maple sugar were made on another farm here.

Better Equipment For Better Farming

Now that agricultural equipment is becoming more available, many Canadian farmers are planning to purchase electrical aids such as cream separators, refrigeration pumps, motors, milking machines, or to install lighting, heating and water systems.

They know that improved equipment makes farming more pleasant and more profitable, too.

Don't let the lack of ready cash prevent you from getting your share of modern farm machinery. Discuss the necessary financing with Mr. Pope, manager of the Bank of Montreal. You will find he has a first-hand knowledge of the farmer's problems, and is anxious to help you modernize your farm, and enjoy the comforts and profits that come from increased production.

A timely farm improvement loan from the B of M has helped many a farmer make his farm a better farm. (Adv.)
