Mobutu survives assassin

LEOPOLDVILLE — Reuters — Congolese army chief Col. Joseph Mobutu survived another assassination attempt today and tightened his rule of the Congo after overnight negotiations between Patrice Lumumba and President Joseph Kasavubu broke down.

Mobutu announced he had arrested a major in the gendarmerie who tried to kill him this morning, marking the third attempt on his life since he took over the Congo a week ago.

The 30-year-old appointee of Kasavubu also sent troops to occupy the capital's administrative buildings which house most of the government ministries.

The soldiers turned scores of civil servants into the street.

Mobutu announced he was taking over the building to establish the "College of Students" he claims is going to run the country.

The college is to be made up of commissioners drawn from the ranks of Congolese university students and graduates who would act as ministers according to their qualifications.

Reuters news agency quoted authoritative sources as saying Lumumba rejected a compromise offer from Kasavubu that he should become vice-premier in a new government.

Milk damages vital statistics

LONDON (Reuters)—Teachers at one of London's biggest dancing schools staged a one-hour strike Monday because the management insists on them drinking a pint of milk a day.

The London Dance Institute said they must consume the pint issued on their arrival at work each day "to replace lost energy." Institute directors said they were concerned about the number of teachers quitting because of fatigue.

But the 30 women teachers said although milk may be nourishing, it endangered their vital statistics. So they walked off the dance floors and sat talking for an hour instead of guiding pupils through the intricacies of tango and foxtrot.

Police Chiefs meet today

Law enforcement sessions

Problems of law enforcement will receive a thorough going over during the next few days at a series of panel discussions which will highlight the annual convention of the Canadian Police Chiefs Association which got underway at the Hotel Sherbrooke this morning.

Over 200 police chiefs from all parts of Canada, including federal, provincial and municipal forces and heads of railway and industrial security organizations, are expected to attend the gathering which winds up with luncheon on Friday.

Following registration the guests were welcomed to Sherbrooke by Mayor Armand Nadeau and Sherbrooke Police Chief Edouard Moreau, first vice-president of the national organization.

Response to the address was given by Chief John D. Boyer, of Sudbury, second vice-president.

Among the other items on the agenda this morning were the presentation of the report by Chief L. S. Partridge, of Calgary, president of the Association, and of the secretary, George A. Shea, O.B.E., of Montreal.

This afternoon will be occupied by the presentation of the reports of the divisional associations and an address by Director J. Albert Langlois, of the Montreal police.

A number of important addresses and panel discussions are slated for the four days of the convention.

Subjects covered by discussions will include juvenile delinquency, firearms, the narcotics traffic, police training, traffic, uniform recording of police activities, communications, automotive theft and amendments to The Criminal Code.

"Cave of spies"

Cubans threaten base

HAVANA (AP) — Acting Premier Raul Castro warned today in an outburst of anger that Cuba might "in any determined moment" demand the United States withdraw from Guantanamo naval base.

He threatened to take over the base during an hour-long blast at the United States, heard by more than 50,000 cheering Cubans who flocked to the palace square for a hastily called post-midnight rally.

Castro also blasted the U.S. embassy here as "a cave of spies" and aimed another threat at American business in Cuba.

"We will nationalize here as many things as we have to nationalize," he said. Indicating that severe penalties await three Americans being held on spy charges, he said: "Now you are going to see how spies are nationalized."

He cried out a new revolutionary slogan "Hit the Yankees hard."

The mass demonstration was summoned by radio to protest against what the Cuban government called abusive treatment against Premier Fidel Castro in New York.

The crowd shouted for the United States to get out of the big naval base at the island's southeast end. Raul, Fidel's younger brother, then declared: "... We warn that an incident there will be self-provoked—it is also within our possibilities in any determined moment to reclaim that piece of our national territory that is in the hands of a foreign power."

The wrath of the Cubans resulted from the premier's purported hotel difficulties in New York.

Montreal shooting spree

Three hospitalized for wounds

MONTREAL (CP) — A wild shooting spree in east-end Montreal Monday night sent three men to hospital for treatment of bullet wounds.

Fernand Major, 31, is in serious condition with bullet wounds in the stomach, thigh, chest and left arm. He also suffered a broken left arm and head injuries.

Also wounded were Lionel Dumais, 28, shot in the left arm, and Adolphe Leclerc, 33, with a bullet wound in the thigh.

A police spokesman said the shooting started when an unidentified man fired a bullet through the door of the Montreal tavern at the corner of St. Lawrence Boulevard and St. Catherine Street, wounding Dumais in the arm.

Two nearby policemen and the owner of the tavern chased the man but lost him in the crowd.

SHOOTING BEGAN AGAIN

As the police searched the crowds for a sign of the gunman another burst of shooting began from across the street and Leclerc, a cigar store owner, was struck by a stray bullet.

Major, the third victim, then fell badly wounded at the feet of a constable. He was rushed to hospital.

Police later recovered a sawed off .22 calibre rifle at the scene of the shooting. The rifle was cut down to a size that could easily be slipped into a pocket.

The shooting took place in an area which has recently been plagued with crimes of violence.

Last Friday Francis Ouellette was found shot to death behind a nearby night club.

Unemployment main problem

SAINT JOHN, N.B. (CP)—Unemployment is Canada's main problem, Canadian Labor Congress President Claude Jodoin said in addressing the National Union of Public Employees Monday night.

"All sections of our economy will have to make efforts, but it is natural to look to the federal government for leadership," he repeated a CLC demand for a conference of government, management and labor representatives to seek ways of creating more jobs.

Mr. Jodoin offered these "suggestions" for study at such a conference: a more "energetic" examination of the effects of automation; a training program for displaced workers; more low-rental and slum clearance projects; a lower interest rate on government housing loans; and measures to raise farmers' purchasing power.

Greatest collection of rulers, statesmen since Versailles

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. — (CP) — The 15th General Assembly of the United Nations opens today in an atmosphere of high drama after a pre-session setback for the Soviet Union and a lively sideshow by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

Described here as the largest collection of rulers, statesmen and diplomats since the Versailles peace conference, the Assembly will hear leaders from across the political spectrum — from President Eisenhower to Premier Khrushchev to Prime Minister Nehru to Castro.

In a defeat for Russia, the 82-member body passed without a dissenting vote an Afro-Asian resolution backing UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld on his Congo policies and opposing any military aid to the Congo except through UN channels.

Soviet deputy foreign minister Valerian Zorin did not press to a vote a resolution criticizing Hammarskjöld. He also dropped Russian amendments to the 17-country Afro-Asian resolution when it became clear they had no chance for passage.

The Russian promised the subject will come again during the regular Assembly, when his delegation will be headed by Khrushchev.

The vote was 70 in favor, none against and 11 abstentions. One country, Bolivia, was absent. Russia and other Soviet-bloc members abstained, along with France and South Africa.

The Congolese question came before the Assembly at the initiative of the United States after Russia used its 90th veto in the 11-member Security Council.

Extraordinary security measures are in effect at the big UN headquarters on New York's East River to protect Khrushchev and the other 15 chiefs of state attending the Assembly.

Traffic clogged around the residence on Park avenue where Khrushchev has his headquarters — and around the various places visited by Castro.

Police battled to hold back shouting anti-Communist crowds when Khrushchev came out of the residence to greet Antonin Novotny, president of Czechoslovakia.

"Let them yell," Khrushchev said. "It's good for their throats."

Fidel Castro quits hotel

NEW YORK (AP)—An angry Fidel Castro, complaining of tight security restrictions and room rates, stalked out of his hotel

CASTRO ... not enough towels

Monday night and moved into the heart of Negro Harlem.

The familiar cry of "Cuba si, Yankee no" roared from a crowd of 1,000 as the Cuban premier moved into the Hotel Theresa.

The bearded Castro, clad in battle green fatigues, waved and smiled at his supporters — in sharp contrast to his earlier angry mood.

The move to Harlem apparently jumped the daily hotel bill from $400 to $700 for the Castro entourage of almost 90 persons.

Love Woods, Negro owner of the Hotel Theresa, said a Castro representative paid $700 in cash for the first day.

Castro, here to attend the United Nations General Assembly session, also took a complaint of "discourtesy" and "braque police methods" to UN Secretary-General Hammarskjöld.

The switch in hotels came after Castro assailed the management of the Hotel Shelburne

$11,000 damage

Policemen to patrol park area

By PAT BOUGIE (Record Staff Reporter) City council last night ordered Sherbrooke police to conduct an all-out drive to curb vandalism in the city's North Ward.

The decision resulted from a letter from Senator C. B. Howard, owner of Howards park in the North Ward, who claimed that vandals over the years have caused an estimated $11,000 damage to his properties.

Council last night decided to patrol the park regularly, order anyone playing football, golf or any other sports on the land off the property and finally, have plain clothes policemen patrol the park so that authorities can "catch a few of them."

Senator Howard's letter, addressed to Alderman Antonio Pinard, chairman of the Parks and Playground Committee reads as follows:

"On Monday night, September 5, a group of boys pulled up and destroyed four complete flower beds in Howards park in the North Ward, throwing the flowers, with their roots on the pavement and in the pond."

"Quantities of ferns have also been pulled up and thrown on the road, causing a damage of about $1,000 besides destroying the beauty of the park."

"There seems to be no reason for this destruction except pure vandalism."

"Over the last few years, boys have destroyed completely the building at the south end which was on the valuation roll for $10,000."

As a solution, Senator Howard suggested that a policeman be in the park from 8:45 a.m. to 9 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. to 10:45 a.m., and in the afternoon from 12 noon to 12:15 p.m. and 12:45 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

For the evening, Senator Howard suggested that the park should be regularly patrolled by radio police.

Going one step further Alderman Antonio Pinard suggested that the park be patrolled by plain clothes police "so that we can catch a few of those vandals."

Protection committee chairman, Alderman Everett Nicol not only supported Alderman Pinard's suggestion but also added that anyone playing any kind of sports in the park be stopped immediately.

Barrette to cabinet position?

MONTREAL (CP)—Le Devoir says today rumors in political circles are that Prime Minister Diefenbaker will offer former Quebec premier Antonio Barrette a post in his cabinet.

The newspaper says Mr. Barrette could be the Progressive Conservative candidate in Labelle riding, vacant since the appointment of state secretary Henri Courtemanche to the Senate.

A by-election is scheduled for Oct. 31 and the Conservative candidate has not yet been chosen. Mr. Barrette, whose Union Nationale government was defeated by the Liberals at Quebec's June 22 provincial election, resigned from provincial politics recently because of internal difference within the Union Nationale.

He had campaigned strongly in favor of the Progressive Conservatives at the last federal election.

Le Devoir says it is not secret Mr. Diefenbaker has been seeking a "strong man" from Quebec to lead the French-speaking government members.

ly appeal of the Lassie series. This one is the story of a girl and her horse. So far, we only know that Velvet Brown, played by cute little Lori Martin, has saved a chestnut stallion from the stockyards, and won a steepchase riding him bareback. But it shows promise, a statement hard to make about many other new entries.

And then, also on NBC, came The Tab Hunter Show. This was until recently called Bachelor at Large and that pretty well sums up the plot of the series. The pattern of the first show is embarrassingly reminiscent of the old Bob Cummings Show except that the gay blade is a cartoonist and his comical sidekick is a playboy millionaire. You can imagine the complications these two are going to have with pretty girls each week. You can, in fact, almost write the scripts yourself.

Check Mate, an hour-long suspense series, made its debut on CBS Saturday night. This one is built around the idea of a team of investigators stopping crimes before they occur. The first episode concerned a woman who appealed to them to prevent her own murder. Either I'm seeing too many of these things or they're not being very subtle, but I had the plot figured after the first five minutes. This one, however, is nicely produced and has some good performers around—Anne Baxter was the first guest star.

Show Business

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "One day I looked in the mirror and I saw some lines in my forehead," Lola Albright said. "I was aghast. They weren't there the day before."

If the same thing has happened to you, ladies, you're over 30. But don't despair Lola says the best is yet to come.

"I used to worry about encroaching age," she admitted. "Now I realize how foolish that was."

"The 30s are a wonderful period, I think a woman in her 30s is happier, better looking—yes, and sexier than a girl who is younger."

This statement carries Lola far out on a limb, but she's not averse to limb climbing, even at 36. She is unabashed about admitting her age, and that's part of the adjustment to the 30s.

NOW BETTER ADJUSTED

"I think I'm much better adjusted to life," she observed. "I've had some rough years, both personally and professionally. I was easily upset then. Now I take everything as it comes."

"That's one reason I think women are more appealing after 30. They've lost that anxious air that a young girl has. Most women have become contented with their life."

"They also have more background and character with which to interest men. Unless they have failed to grow emotionally and mentally, as some do, women over 30 have more appeal as conversationalists."

"Of course, sex appeal is a matter of opinion," Lola observed. "There are some men who don't think Marilyn Monroe is sexy, though I think they would be crazy."

Lola herself is enjoying a success that eluded her when she was a starlet type. She is a hit as Craig Stevens' sexy companion on the Peter Gunn TV show. She'll soon be seen in a new film, Cold Wind in August, in which she plays a woman who has a tragic love affair with a boy many years younger.

Leopold Vachon, 32, and Romeo Larocque, 36, appeared in District Court yesterday morning, both charged with assaulting a peace officer. Two charges of a similar nature have been laid against Larocque while Vachon had one accusation brought against him. Both pleaded not guilty to all charges.

The pair was arrested on September 17, in Burroughs Falls, following what appeared to be an altercation with constable Robert Hetu. Apparently, another constable, Raymond Cote, arrived on the scene and was allegedly assaulted by Larocque.

Judge Redmond Hayes remanded the pair to September 22. Bail was set at $9.50, in property, in each case.

Second sidewalk fall claim Sues city for over $9,000

A damage suit for $9,731.39 has been filed in Superior Court by Miss Jessie Wootton against the city of Sherbrooke.

Miss Wootton was severely injured last March when she lost her footing on a city sidewalk. She claims that the city was negligent in not covering the slippery portion with sand, salt, calcium, or any other substance.

This is the second damage suit filed against the city of Sherbrooke within a week. Last Friday, a $29,663.07 suit was filed in Superior Court by Stewart Hansford, pertaining to a similar situation. The latter claims he slipped on an icy portion of a city sidewalk on March 20, suffering a double fracture of the Bank Street.

Miss Wootton, claims among other things, $1,257.89 in medical treatment and $5,000 for 15 per cent of permanent partial incapacity.

The legal firm of Blanchette, Pelouin, Allaire and Roberge is handling the suit.

15-year-old Magog youth arrested for series of thefts

MAGOG — A 15-year-old Magog youth was arrested yesterday afternoon following a series of thefts during the preceding night.

Three other youths taken into custody at the same time, were later released after establishing their whereabouts during the time at which the robberies were committed.

The 15-year-old who remained in custody is suspected of breaking into a postal sub-station and stealing $90, and of breaking into two homes. At one, a soft-drink machine was broken into and at the other the sum of $13 and a revolver were taken.

He was brought to Sherbrooke where he spent the night in a Social Welfare home and was further interrogated this morning.

Require $55,000 more

Need third loan law for city Olympic pool

Council last night decided to hold a special meeting to-day to approve a $55,000 loan by-law for the construction of the Olympic swimming pool in Victoria park.

This will be the third loan by-law for money for the construction of the pool.

The first loan by-law was for $75,000. The second was for $25,000.

The 160 x 80-foot swimming pool was to have originally cost $75,000. However, when plans were drawn up last spring, architects estimated construction costs at $105,000.

But last night after opening tenders for the construction of the pool, a neighboring building, sidewalks about the pool and metal fences, council found the lowest bid was for $132,700.

However, not included in the tenders were landscaping costs which council estimated at about $5,000; $6,000 for sewers, architect fees amounting to $7,900 and finally $5,000 for the unexpected.

After the by-law is approved by council this evening, the chairman of the meeting will set a date so that citizens can vote on the proposed loan.

At first, council suggested that only the pool be built without the building and bath-rooms so that the city would not have to spend their allotted sum of $105,000.

"The rest of the work could probably be completed next spring," suggested Center Ward Alderman Marcel Savard.

However, the first suggestion was turned down in favor of a suggestion by Alderman Carl Camirand that council should present a loan by-law to the public.

Although Mr. Camirand's suggestion was adopted, council had a one-hour discussion to decide how much money would be needed.

A proposition by Mayor Armand Nadeau that a $51,000 loan by-law be drafted instead of a $55,000 loan by-law posed by Alderman Everett Nicol was turned down in favor of the latter.

Mayor Nadeau claimed that only $51,000 would be needed to build the pool and all the facilities.

However, Mr. Nicol claimed that the pool would probably cost more "as have many projects we have undertaken in the past."

The City's business

Mayor Nadeau attacks winter works program

Mayor Armand Nadeau last night attacked the Federal Government's winter works program. He said the Government should participate more financially in the program.

"The Government pays part of the salary of unemployed men hired by the city in winter months," the Mayor said.

"This is all they pay. Here in the Province of Quebec, most winter work is done with heavy machinery which the Government does not subsidize," he added.

"However, if the people of Sherbrooke feel they want such a program, we can always prepare a schedule of works and present these to the population for approval," he concluded.

The City of Sherbrooke's valuation office last night presented to council the 1960 special valuation roll.

This special roll affects tenants, sales, stores and professional men. It does not affect in any way or have any connection with the 1960 real estate valuation roll presented by the valuers last month.

Figures released last night show that tenant taxes will amount to $5,831,982; business tax, $2,645,647; the Domicil and Combustion Engineering are evaluated at $900,400; special chain stores, $7,091,600; poll tax, $2,137 and professional tax, $183.

Council has demanded a report from the police chief concerning a request by owners of the King Street West shopping center that traffic lights be installed on King West facing the shopping center.

Police chiefs meet

Sherbrooke today is the proud host to one of the most important conventions to gather here in recent years — the Canadian Association of Police Chiefs — whose annual congress got underway this morning.

Adequate law enforcement is the very basis for the modern way of life. If law enforcement breaks down, virtually every other aspect of modern living disappears. There is no longer safety for person and property and the community soon returns to the law of the jungle — that might prevails over right and that to the winner belong the spoils.

Like any other branch of endeavour, law enforcement has become more difficult in recent years by the increasing complexity of modern living. Law breakers have adopted the latest techniques in carrying out their depredations. Fortunately, police agencies also have taken advantage of the latest means of communication, etc.

But it is a continuing struggle, one which requires constant study on the part of legal agents. The program of the convention opening today indicates that the police chiefs will make a serious review of the causes and possible solutions of recent developments in the field of criminology. By an exchange of views they hope to make their position easier.

African 'Colombo Plan'

Finance Minister Fleming has given Canadian approval of a proposed "Colombo Plan" for Africa.

In England to attend a two-day meeting of Commonwealth finance ministers starting today, Mr. Fleming said very high priority should be accorded to plans for technical assistance and education in the troubled continent. He expressed the hope that other countries would join in the African plan, as they did in the Colombo Plan, in order to ensure its success.

Canadians will endorse Mr. Fleming's stand.

The Colombo Plan, ten years old this year, has proved to be, along with the Marshall Plan, one of the most effective and most beneficial projects of the Western world.

It has helped construct projects ranging from dams and irrigation systems to atomic reactors and railroad lines. It has arranged the training of more than 8,000 Asians outside their own countries, and it has despatched more than 10,000 experts to Asia.

This has been accomplished without compromising the neutrality of any of these underdeveloped countries, without irritating their new nationalism, or humiliating them.

A Wisconsin Colombo Plan expert has characterized the results of the Colombo Plan as follows:

"The predicament of Asian countries striving for internal development has been likened to that of the Red Queen in Alice in Wonderland. They have to run as fast as they can in order to stay where they are. Through increased assistance from the West, however, along with more efficient channeling of their own efforts, they are beginning to outrun the under-development treadmill."

The same can be done in Africa.

The experience that Canada, and other Colombo Plan countries have gained in Asia can be put to precious use in Africa.

But the project must be put into effect quickly; political developments there are much more rapid than they have been in Asia generally, and the African people are impatient.

Participation essential

In 1959, for the first year in Canada's history, there was not a single death from diphtheria in the country.

This achievement results solely from the fact that diphtheria toxoid, discovered about 1926, has been used to immunize children, and in recent years, has been used on a massive scale.

In this modern day, facts like this tend to make one a bit careless and complacent about immunization. Too often, it is assumed that the diseases for which immunization is available have been wiped out.

This is far from the case. The diseases are still there; only immunization prevents us from getting them.

Last year, for example, despite the availability of Salk vaccine, 1,869 cases of polio were recorded, and 182 deaths. Over 100 of those deaths occurred in Quebec.

There were, in addition, 7,112 cases of whooping cough, and 46 deaths from this disease.

And, although there were no diphtheria deaths last year, there were 37 cases treated.

This proves that while much has been done by immunization, much remains to be done, not by those responsible for providing the immunization programs, but by those for whom it is provided.

This week is National Immunization Week in Canada. It is set aside to emphasize the importance of the participation of every individual in the country's immunization program.

Participation costs only a few cents and a few minutes of your time.

Lack of participation can cost you your life.

Older dogs can learn new tricks

WINNIPEG (CP)—Young men are better jet pilots, but older men are safer car drivers, it is indicated in studies made by Dr. R. G. Fraser, psychology professor of the University of British Columbia.

A man of 60, 70 or even 80, in some skills can have a mind as valuable as that of a man 25 or 30, he said in an interview on his investigations into the relationship of age and intelligence.

"Old dogs can learn new tricks, but it takes longer. General belief that memory and intelligence reach their peak in early adult years and decline in middle age is not entirely untrue. But some elements of memory and intelligence improve with age."

One of his first jobs at the university will be to make tests to pinpoint these elements. A brain of 60 has fewer cells to work with than a 30-year-old brain.

DEPENDS ON PERSON

"But intelligence depends on the individual so it's difficult to set any limit. All these tests are made with above-average people to begin with."

"If you start out with a good brain and keep developing it, you could go on to many skills, learning until senility sets in."

"Older people react differently than younger ones. That's why a jet fighter should be no more than 35, younger preferably. But an

Alarming forecast

Situation is bleak for India unemployed

NEW DELHI (Reuters)—India will continue to be dogged by acute unemployment for years to come, say official forecasts.

Although India's third five-year plan, beginning next April, is designed to provide employment for an additional 14,000,000 persons, Indian planners hold no hope of an early solution to the country's chronic unemployment problem.

On the contrary, according to rough estimates, the number of unemployed Indians will swell from an estimated 7,500,000 at the beginning of the third five-year plan to about 9,000,000 when it ends in 1966.

For the next 15 years, a far more alarming picture is forecast by experts.

From 1951 to 1961, India's labor force increased from 144,000,000 to 172,000,000. By 1966, it will increase by another 20,000,000. Rough forecasts put the Indian labor force at 217,000,000 in 1971 and 239,000,000 in 1976.

The bulk of this force will be engaged in agriculture. Nevertheless, non-agricultural labor will far outnumber jobs available. Statistics show that India had a labor force of 42,000,000 engaged outside agriculture in 1957. By 1976, this is expected to increase to about 96,000,000.

While successive five-year plans in the next 15 years will create millions of new jobs, even the most optimistic forecasts predict that India will have a backlog of at least 15,000,000 unemployed in 1976.

HIS 11 CENTS

(Ottawa Journal)

The tale in The Journal column below the Hill of the man who found a worm in a can of corn and tried to get his 11 cents back seems a sorry little vignette of today's attitudes.

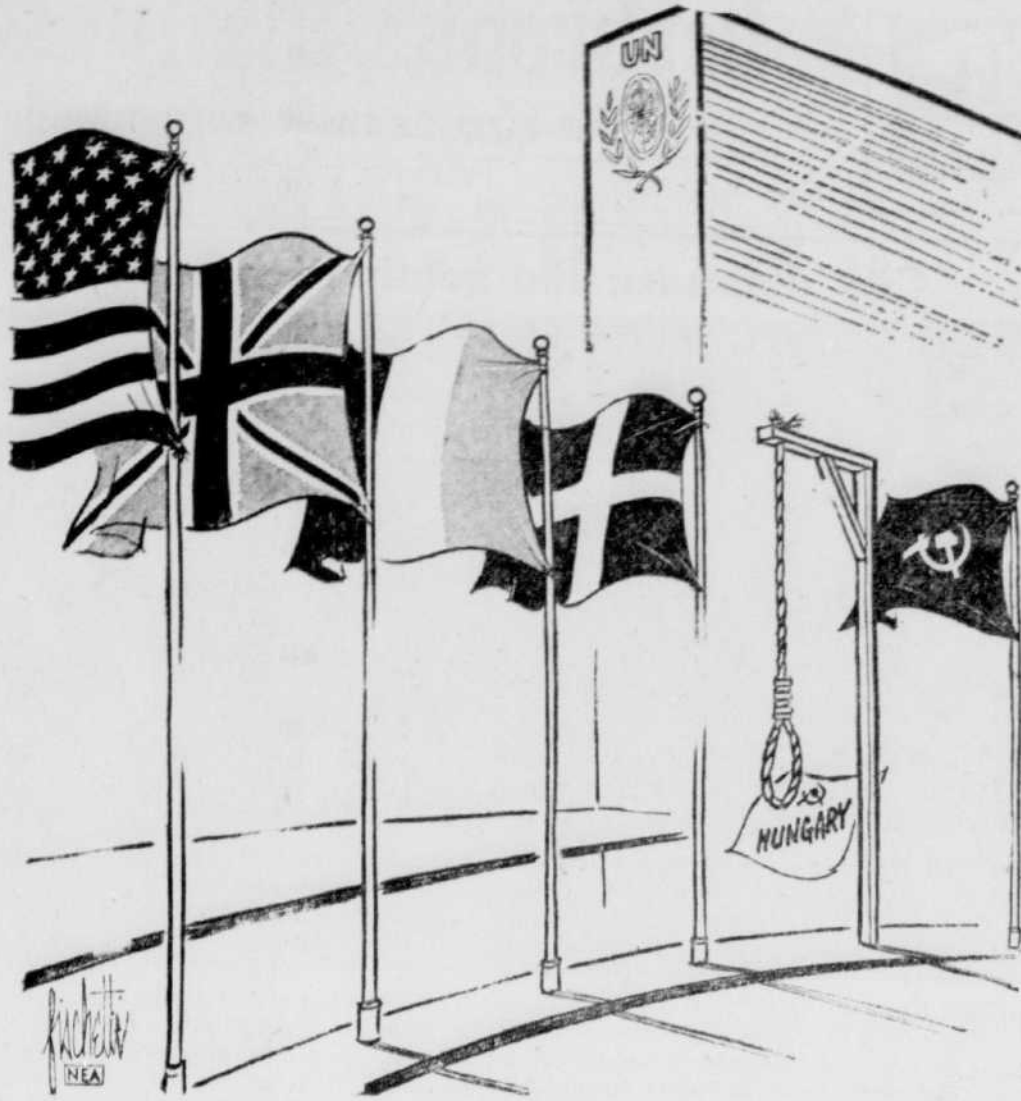

It seems that when he told the food company his story the reaction was: These little accidents are bound to happen occasionally and people are always trying to sue food companies. There would be no refund.

But this customer didn't want to make a killing. He just wanted his money back. That request was fair. Has business become so hardened by dealing with the many who make unfair requests or demands that it is unwilling to meet a fair one?

Attempt misfires

Reds would muzzle India press

By RUKMINI DEVI

Canadian Press Correspondent

BOMBAY (CP)—An attempt by the Communist party of India to muzzle the country's press has misfired.

The Indian Parliament has rejected a Communist party resolution recommending appointment of a 45-member parliamentary committee "to go into the question of dissemination of news and views by newspapers with a view to ensuring truthfulness, objectivity and good moral standards in the field of journalism."

Political observers consider the rejection of the Communist move as significant in the light of what is happening in neighboring Ceylon. There, the new Ceylonese government proposes to turn over the country's two most influential newspaper groups to public corporations.

Within hours of announcement of the Ceylon move, the Communist party launched a press campaign clamoring for "more effective control over the monopolistic press of India," and its members introduced the parliamentary resolution asking for a committee study.

Meantime, the Indian government has promised to support attempts to start a second news agency in the country. At present, there is only one news agency—the Press Trust of India.

While assuring any new venture of government sympathy, the ministry of information and broadcasting has made it clear the government could only aid it by subscribing to the alternative agency. There was no question of government itself sponsoring any news agency.

A move now is under way to start a second news agency. The Express Newspapers Limited have been given permission to float the venture.

At present, the bulk of the foreign news published in Indian newspapers comes from Reuters which has an agreement with the Press Trust of India. Recently, Agence France-Presse has also started supplying news to Indian papers through the Press Trust.

At the same time, more Indian correspondents are being sent abroad to key foreign news centres. For the first time, Indian journalists are operating in Africa, Europe and the United States.

There is, however, no Indian correspondent in Moscow or Peking. The Press Trust says shortage of funds stands in the way of ensuring representation in Russia and China. A leading Bombay newspaper's permission to station a correspondent in Peking has been rejected by the Chinese authorities.

Report From Ottawa

by Clyde Blackburn

OTTAWA — This is about a number of things that make one (me) wonder what goes on here.

CBC's good morning program, Preview, last week jolted me as a starter for the day.

From Montreal someone apparently teaching there and named what sounded like "Cameron Nish," talked about the Congo.

He told us Lumumba was all that was good and those who opposed him were tools or worse. And he was not complimentary to the U.N. Far from it.

ALL SIDES

Everything he said was in diametric opposition to what we have been told by seasoned correspondents, including those of the CBC.

Okay, I thought, we must hear all sides, but I wondered why anyone in CBC would dig up such an obscure person to talk on such an explosive subject.

So, at breakfast with the morning paper, CBC again broke in to my thinking. I distinctly heard a song that seemed to me risque and suggestive to an extreme unexpected on CBC.

My wife told me it was from a current New York success and that I had better get up-to-date because such things were now accepted.

ADVERTISED

So I went through the day without any further dependence on CBC until nine o'clock in the evening.

Then I had a date set down long before. I waited to hear the CBC's much advertised program on which some 20 parliamentarians would talk about Canada's parliamentary system and its problems.

That was right up my alley. Couldn't miss that.

Paul Fox of the University of Toronto, whose political commentaries have been so interesting, was moderator.

AN HOUR

For an hour he, presumably, introduced over and over again

a series of parliamentarians who talked about their work as though everyone knew the fine points of parliamentary procedure.

And he introduced them as "the honorable Mr. So and So." They are not that officially no matter how honorable they are in fact.

But they had nothing to say about anything vital to the preservation of our parliamentary system. It was a mess.

If it conveyed any enlightenment to the general public I suggest it was the sort of enlightenment not planned.

And I am not blaming the MPs.

matter of FACT

Schoolboys are taught Lincoln's Gettysburg Address as a prime example of forceful, inspiring speech. But at the time, not everyone recognized its greatness. In an editorial, the old Chicago Times had this to say: "The cheek of every American must be tinged with shame as he reads the silly, flat, and dishwater utterances of the man who has to be pointed out to intelligent foreigners as the President of the United States."

over room prices and treatment and threatened to camp in Central Park or on UN grounds.

"Purely propaganda," snorted the Shelburne's owner, Edward Spatz.

Castro has been restricted to the 22-square miles of Manhattan during his UN stay—for security reasons.

En route to his hotel from the airport he complained that he had received rough treatment at the hands of security forces when he tried to greet his followers.

INTOLERABLE SITUATION

At the Shelburne, the situation became intolerable, said Castro. The Cuban delegation had difficulty getting accommodations in the first place, and finally landed at the Shelburne only after the U.S. state department and the United Nations intervened.

Policemen guarding the hotel prevented some members of the Cuban delegation from leaving the hotel because of the anti-Castro forces massed outside.

The Castro entourage had moved into 20 Shelburne suites at $20 a day each—for a daily total of $400. The hotel asked a $10,000 guarantee on the bill.

Spatz received $5,000 and another $5,000 was promised, but when a bond for that amount arrived, Spatz turned it down, saying it looked phoney.

And for his $400 a day, what did he get? Incredibly bad service, said Castro—his party didn't even get enough towels.

SOUGHT FOOD ELSEWHERE

The Cubans refused to partake of hotel food, sending out for hamburgers instead. They also brought along crates of biscuits. Cuban black beans and bags of peanuts.

"Then Castro sent a protest to Hammarskjöld, followed by a personal visit to the UN headquarters. After three hours, it was announced that the Castro party was moving to Harlem, despite an offer of free accommodations at the Commodore Hotel.

Even Spatz agreed later to forget about charging the Cubans for their rooms. But Castro turned down both offers.

Andrew H. Berding, assistant U.S. secretary of state for public affairs, criticized Castro, calling his hotel complaint "Castro's hotel drama in three acts... more of a comedy than a tragedy."

Bingo was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Betty Boast, sister of the bride-to-be.

U.K. columnist
blasts ex-butler

LONDON (Reuters) — Cassandra, outspoken columnist of the Daily Mirror, today lashed out at Thomas Cronin, former butler of Princess Margaret, labeling him a "preposterous ass."

Cassandra described a series of articles by Cronin in a popular British Sunday newspaper as a "concoction of humbug, snobbery, pomposity and key-hole confidences that set up something of a new record in snide reminiscence."

Cronin has taken a $12,000, to $14,000-a-year job at the Jai-Alai Palace Hotel in Dania, Fla., since leaving the home of Princess Margaret and her husband, Antony Armstrong-Jones, in August.

The Mirror columnist said that not since Buckingham Palace was plagued by the "microscopic trivia" of the "ineffable governess 'Crawley' has there been such a concoction of impudence, insolence and crawling condescension" as Cronin's articles.

Cassandra—in real life William Connor—described Cronin's comments about Armstrong-Jones as "a cleaning woman's pay, saying that when he was in 'digs' (rooms) in Liverpool things were different."

"To which the preposterous ass Cronin replied: 'I venture to say sir that a royal residence is somewhat different from 'digs' in Liverpool,'" Cassandra said.

The columnist added the monarchy did not deserve the "miserable etiquette" and "tawdry patronage" of "the likes of Cronin."

SOME FACTS IN ARGUMENT ABOUT FOOTBALL DANGERS

By HAROLD THOMAS HYMAN
M. D.

"My son," writes a troubled mother, "enters college this fall on a partial athletic scholarship. He was the star of his high school football team. Over the course of the three years that he played on the first team, he never really suffered a serious injury although many times he was a mass of bruises and appeared to be sore or in pain though he was careful never to let on that he had any discomfort.

"I have tried to persuade him to give up football even if it means the loss of his scholarship. He refuses to listen to me and my husband has taken his side. They say I'm foolish to be so worrisome and they accuse me of trying to make a 'sissy' of him. Am I silly to be so nervous? Is college football as safe as my husband says it is?"

Not being as wise as Solomon, dear mother, I'll not presume to hand down a decision in this domestic difference of opinion. But I am in a position to supply you with certain facts that may strengthen your case.

A report issued by the American Football Coaches Association states that 108 deaths occurred in the United States over a five-year period that ended in 1959. Of these fatalities, 81 were due to activities directly associated with the game such as tackling and blocking. The remaining 27 deaths were due to indirect causes such as heat stroke and heart failure. Of the 81 deaths directly associated with play, high school players accounted for 51 and college players for 30. To my knowledge, there have been no fatalities in professional football.

Interpreting these figures, those

Ham stuffed sweet potatoes

Plain baked sweet potatoes are fine eating, just as they come out of the oven but here are recipes for stuffing baked "sweets".

Ham-stuffed Sweet Potatoes are hearty enough for a meal-in-one. The other stuffed sweet potatoes are flavored to team up deliciously with ham, fresh pork or any kind of fowl.

HAM STUFFED SWEET POTATOES

6 medium sweet potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1/4 teaspoon double-acting baking powder, 1 cup diced cooked ham, 6 teaspoons butter or margarine.

Wash sweet potatoes, wipe dry and rub skins with a little bacon fat or shortening. Bake in a preheated very hot oven (450°F.) until tender, 40 to 50 minutes. (If oven is used at a lower temperature bake potatoes at that heat, but increase the baking time.) Cut a slice from the top of each. Scoop out the inside, being careful not to break the shells. Mash potatoes and add butter or margarine, black pepper, sugar, baking powder, and ham. Mix well. Fill shells, dot each with one teaspoon butter or margarine. Bake in a very hot oven (450°F.) 20 minutes or until puffy and lightly browned. Serve at once. YIELD: 6 servings.

ORANGE STUFFED SWEET POTATOES

6 medium (2 pounds) baked sweet potatoes, 3 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 1/2 cup diced oranges, 1/4 cup shredded coconut, 1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind, 6 teaspoons butter or margarine.

Cut off tops from baked potatoes. Scoop out the inside, keeping the shell intact. Mash potatoes with butter or margarine. Add salt, sugar, diced oranges, coconut and lemon rind. Mix well. Spoon into potato shells. Dot each with 1 teaspoon butter or margarine. Bake in a preheated hot oven (450°F.) 20 minutes or until lightly browned. YIELD: 6 servings.

Homemaking

Acrylic and nylon upholstery fabrics respond well to sponging with dense lather and a little water. Even so, spot-suds arm and backs of upholstered furniture often to remove oil from hands and heads before it becomes imbedded in the fabric.

Try using a dry mop instead of a broom for daily sweeping in the kitchen. Crumbs and dust lint will cling to it, and you can be sure every bit of debris has been picked up.

It's a cinch to keep copper pans shining bright now that the special paste cleaner leaves a protective film that inhibits tarnish from forming.

Beauty Tips

Many of the new fashions have plunging necklines. So when you wear them, remember to apply your foundation make-up below the gown's neckline so that you can't see where the foundation ends.

Ruth Millett

Subtle come-hither wiles are best bet, my dear

If you want men to find you attractive you had better keep in mind—

That the woman a man considers intelligent is the one who can express her ideas without being high-handed about it or without making a man feel she thinks she knows more than he does.

That the woman who calls attention to her own faults makes a man uncomfortable.

That when one woman runs down another woman, no matter how justified she may be in her judgment, a man is sure to think she is jealous for some reason.

That men hate to be fussed over in public by a woman and resent such proprietary gestures as having a necktie straightened, their grammar or pronunciation corrected, their facts challenged, or their manners corrected.

That men hate to hear a woman complain.

That men are leery of the woman who is always bragging about how she got the best of someone or put a person in his place or told someone off.

That men do their best to avoid the woman who talks constantly and says nothing.

That men are embarrassed by a woman who attracts too much attention in public, by loud talk or laughter, by berating someone for poor service, by table-hopping or trying to be the life of the party.

That men are usually charmed by a woman who is a good listener, the kind who can draw them out until they are happily talking about themselves.

That men shy away from women who love to argue and who insist on having the last word.

Fashion

Kilties and culottes have brought knee socks back into fashion focus. They'll be worn on campuses across the land this fall. So will stocking caps.

The secret of looking always well-groomed is constant attention to your clothes. This may sound tiresome but it's essential. You can't look neat with a slip that's hanging down, run-over heels and a ripped hem. Take care of minor repairs as they're needed.

When you store those pastel cottons from the early part of the summer first have them laundered or dry cleaned and pressed. Otherwise, you just set the wrinkles if you stuff them away unironed.

MR. and MRS. KENNETH MAITHER whose marriage took place recently in St. John's Anglican Church, Brome. Mrs. Maither is the former Janet Darbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Darbe of Brome. Mr. Maither is the son of Mr. Morris Maither and the late Mrs. Maither of Rockburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Evans entertained on anniversary

Mrs. John Evans, who was the organizer of the party, presented the couple with a silver tea service from those present and relatives and friends who were unable to attend. Mrs. Evans also received a mix master from her family on the occasion of her birthday.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. John Evans, assisted by Mrs. C. Osborne, Mrs. W. Hobbs, Mrs. D. Richardson, Mrs. E. Hobbs, Mrs. A. Boisvert, Mrs. J. Evans, Jr., and Miss Dianne Evans, daughter of the honored couple.

Mr. Evans, on behalf of himself and his wife, expressed thanks to all those present for the beautiful gifts and wonderful evening.

Happiness key to longevity

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C. (CP) Happiness is the key to long life, says Granny Seymour, who celebrated her 108th birthday here. "The old days were best, but these days are good, too," she added.

She was born Margaret Bouchey, daughter of a Hudson's Bay Company factor, at old Fort St. James, one of the pioneer fur posts. The record of her baptism in 1860 at Stuart Lake is preserved by the church, and the birth date of 1852 was accepted by the pioneer priest who officiated at the baptism.

Frail, but bright and alert, she sat up straight in her familiar black skull cap when asked to pose for a birthday picture.

She said she remembers many noted figures of British Columbia history, including Sir James Douglas, governor of Vancouver Island and later governor of British Columbia, who died at Victoria in 1877.

Annual Meeting And Golf Tournament Of St. Francis Valley Badminton To Be Held At East Angus On Saturday

The annual meeting of the St. Francis Valley Badminton Association will have an added attraction this year, a nine-hole mixed golf tournament.

On Saturday, September 24, a nine-hole mixed tourney will be held at the East Angus Golf Club and there will be a draw for partners. There will be gross and net prizes in the golf tournament and the Atlantic handicap system will be used to determine net winners. Following the tournament there will be the annual meeting of the St. Francis Valley Badminton Association and this will be followed by a social gathering. Tournament starts at noon.

On the agenda at the meeting will be the election of officers for the coming season, selection of dates for the various tournaments and setting up a schedule for team competitions. All clubs in the Eastern Townships are asked to send at least two club representatives and as many golfers as possible. Miss Dorothy Shattuck is the president of the St. Francis Valley Badminton Association and Mrs. Lucille Le Seclleur is the secretary-treasurer.

Entries for the golf tournament should be sent in before Thursday, Sept. 22. Either write or phone Gordon Harmer, the tournament director.

The E.T. open, E.T. closed, E.T. team championship finals, play-downs for the team championship and several invitation tournaments are hoped to be held again this year.

Countess Adios Sets Six World Records By Winning Breeders' Filly Stake To Up Her Winnings To $160,000

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP)—Countess Adios, winner of two of the three legs of the triple crown, lived up to her trainer's predictions Monday by setting six world records.

The daughter of Adios made her mark in the record books by romping to 1:59 1-5 and 2:00 heat victories in the Breeders' Filly Stake for three-year-old pacers as grand circuit harness racing got under way at the Delaware county fairgrounds.

The Countess thereby upped her season's earnings to $160,000.

With trainer Del Miller at the reins, Countess Adios stormed home for an eight-length victory in the first heat, and her 1:59 1-5 time broke these world records:

1. The three-year-old pacing fillies mark of 2:00 set in 1955 by Dottie's Pick, also driven by Miller, in a heat for the Little Brown Jug. (The Countess, incidentally, isn't eligible for Thursday's running of the $70,000-plus Jug here, the third leg of pacing's triple crown.)

2. The 1:59 2-5 record for three-year-old pacers regardless of sex, set last year by Adios Butler in the Jug.

3. The 1:59 3-5 mark for pacing mares regardless of age, set by Belle Acton.

These are the records erased by her two-heat total of 3:59 1-5: 3:59 4-5 for pacers regardless of age and sex, set in 1958 by Belle Acton.

4. The two-heat record of 4:00 1-5 for three-year-old pacers regardless of sex, set last year by Adios Butler in winning two Jug heats.

5. The two-heat record of 4:00 3-5 for three-year-old fillies, set by Belle Acton in 1956.

Depression Loop To Hold Meeting This Evening

A meeting of the Depression Hockey League has been called for this evening at the King George Hotel. The meeting was slated for Monday night but was postponed until tonight.

All members who assisted at the first meeting are asked to be on hand for tonight's at 7:30. President Eugene Lalonde is hoping that a good crowd will be present as some very important matters are on the agenda.

LAST NIGHT'S FIGHTS

New York—Jorge Fernandez, 150, Argentina, outpointed Stefan Redl, 150 1/2, Paterson, N.J., 10.

Providence, R.I.—Willie Green, 139, Providence, outpointed Mickey Dwyer, 138 1/2, Dorchester, Mass., 12.

Rough Riders Main Occupation Is Spoiling Opposition Offensive Plans, Got To Contain Them To Win-Clair

OTTAWA (CP)—Spoiling the opposition offense seems to be the main occupation of Ottawa Rough Riders, co-leaders in the Big Four Football League.

"You've got to contain the opposition before you can beat 'em," says assistant coach Bill Smyth.

In Ottawa Monday the singing was for the defensive corps following Ottawa's 38-12 victory over Argos Sunday. Price went to the tackling and pass defence of Joe Poirier, Gary Schneider, George Brancato, Doug Daignault and Joe Stracina.

Stracina, a centre, recovered two fumbles and made one pass interception while playing for the first time as defensive end. He replaced Lou Bruce who had to work at offensive end to replace the injured Bill Sowalski.

Sowalski will be out for at least two weeks with a shoulder separation and possibly for the rest of the season. Another Canadian offensive end, Ted Smale, may also be lost for the rest of the season with torn knee ligaments.

Fullback Dave Thelen and line-man Fred Robinson and Larry Hayes were slightly injured Sunday but are expected to be ready for Saturday's game in Hamilton.

Regular quarterback Russ Jackson is still on the mend after suffering a torn rib cartilage Aug. 29. He appeared briefly in Sunday's tilt when Ron Lanyer was dazed by Cookie Gilchrist's crusher and probably will see more action against Tiger-Cats.

US Sweep Series With Venezuelan

CLEVELAND (AP)—Barry Mackay of Dayton, Ohio, and Bernard Barzen of Dallas won singles matches over Venezuelan netters Monday as the U.S. team completed a sweep of the American Zone Davis Cup tennis finals. Mackay defeated Ivo Pimentel 6-3, 6-3. Barzen overwhelmed Marcos Gambus, 6-1, 6-0, 6-0.

The United States now goes into the Davis Cup semi-finals against the Philippines.

Phil Goyette, Marshall And Pronovost Sign

MONTREAL (CP)—Phil Goyette, Donnie Marshall and Andre Pronovost signed 1960 contracts with Montreal Canadiens Monday, the first announced this season by the National Hockey League club bidding for a sixth consecutive Stanley Cup.

Goyette, a centre, had his best season last year scoring 21 goals. Marshall, a player who can fill in at any forward position and one of the league's ace defensive specialists, counted 16. Pronovost had 12.

The purchase was made by Philip Boylen, acting on behalf of his father, M. J. Boylen of Toronto.

The sale, held at the nearby York Mills Farm of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Taylor, is unique in that all the yearlings are pre-priced and available first to priority buyers, purchasers at previous Taylor sales.

Fourteen yearlings were sold for a total of $160,000. Twenty-eight were offered.

The colt bought by Boylen is a half-brother to Grey Monarch, winner of numerous stakes in Canada and the United States.

Kist Faces Elimination, Fuller Leads Series 2-0, Game Slated For 7.30, Both Clubs Ready For Important Tiff

The third tilt of the Sherbrooke Junior Baseball League playoffs is scheduled for this evening at 7.30, weather permitting, stated President Marie-Louis Fortier last night. If any others are required they will be played tomorrow night and Thursday.

Tonight's tilt is an important one for both clubs. Fuller leads the best-of-five finals 2-0 and a victory would give them the championship while Kist will be fighting to stave off elimination and extend the series.

During the season the league has played Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday but for the playoffs President Fortier has been obliged to change this with the adding of a game tomorrow night in order to complete the fixture.

The postponement of the games, forced by the weather, won't help Fuller as they stand a chance of losing their hurler, Wayne Nugent, who is obliged to return to College. His loss will hurt Coach Hamel's chances but the rest of the club will be obliged to pick up the slack.

Coach Claude Ruel is gunning for a victory and with a few breaks he figures his club can pull it out of the fire. In their two setbacks it was slackness on some of his players that Fuller posted the wins. In both cases Kist held the lead but they couldn't take advantage of their breaks to post the victory while Fuller capitalized on theirs.

The two coaches, late last night, hadn't named their starting hurlers for tonight's important clash but it is expected that they will send their best to the mound. The rest has helped both clubs and all the boys are raring to go.

Red Wings Find Breach In Leafs' Hurling Staff And Chalk Up 5-2 Win To Tie IL Finals At 1-1 Each

TORONTO (CP)—Rochester Red Wings found a breach in the Toronto Maple Leaf pitching ramparts Monday night and pushed through for a 5-2 victory that tied up the International League finals at one victory apiece.

The Leafs and the Red Wings resume their battling in Rochester tonight, with Leafs convinced the Wings will be no pushovers in the contest for a berth in the Little World Series.

The Leafs, who have been winning all year on superlative hurling, got five top-notch innings from Steve Ridzik (14-10 on the season). But with his team ahead 2-0, Ridzik lost control in the sixth. After Johnny Buchek singled, Ridzik walked a pair and hit Jim Frey on the leg to force in a run.

Dewitt blames the decline on a bad ball club.

He has had a five-piece, strolling Dixieland band playing for 37 games—nights, Sundays and holidays. Fireworks displays after all 23 night games cost about $300 a showing.

There have been pre-game and between-game shows by well-known baseball clowns, dog obedience demonstrations, trampoline acts, old-timers' days and numerous other events.

Despite the extravagant promotional schemes Dewitt's Tigers will fall far short of his forecast of 1,500,000 paid admissions.

LAST NIGHT'S STARS

Pirates And Yanks Commence Mop-Up Operations Tonight

Magic Number Reduced To Seven For Both Clubs With Eleven Games Left, Hold 5½ And 4-Game Lead Over Rest

Pittsburgh Pirates, with triggerman Dick Groat due back sooner than expected, and New York Yankees start 11-game mop-up jobs tonight that should sweep them into the World Series opener two weeks from now.

Pittsburgh, inching toward its first National League pennant in 33 years, has a 5½-game lead over second-place St. Louis going into a two-night doubleheader in Philadelphia against the last place Phils. And the Yankees, with a four-game bulge over Baltimore and Chicago after belting the Orioles four straight, meet the troublesome Washington Senators in their next-to-last home series.

Only three games were scheduled Monday, all in the National, where the Cardinals eliminated Los Angeles Dodgers 1-0 on Joe Cunningham's home run, and San Francisco swept a doubleheader at Chicago, beating the Cubs 11-4 and 4-1.

SEVEN IS MAGIC NUMBER

That left both the Pirates and Yankees with magic numbers of seven. Any combination of victories and St. Louis defeats totalling seven clinches the flag for Pittsburgh. The same formula applies for the Yankees over the Orioles and defending champion White Sox.

Neither leader is a sure-shot cinch, but it will take some doing to muscle either the Pirates or the Yankees out of the picture. In addition, the Bucs got the good word from their club doctor Monday that Groat should be playing again "within a week or 10 days."

The sparkling shortstop suffered a fractured wrist two weeks ago—when he was hit by a pitch from Milwaukee's Lew Burdette. He had been considered lost for the rest of the regular season, and perhaps for the World Series.

With sub Dick Schofield filling in, swinging his supposedly light bat at a .411 clip, the Pirates have won six of 10 without Groat. The Cards have done better (7-3) and the third-place Milwaukee Braves just the same (6-4), but the Pirates were seven games ahead when Groat was sidelined.

LARKER DROPS POINT

Groat, who was second in the league batting race when he went out, moved into a first-place tie with Los Angeles first baseman Norm Larker at .325 when the Cards' Bob Miller and Lindy McDaniel allowed the Dodgers only five hits Monday night. Larker's lone hit in four

Over-Eagerness Brought Orioles Their Defeat In Torrid Weekend, Says Veteran Manager Casey Stengel

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel says it was Baltimore's over-eagerness at bat that brought the fledgling Orioles four straight defeats in the torrid weekend series with New York Yankees.

"The trouble with them kids," the New York manager observed, "is that they're in a slump and they don't figure to snap out of it because they're over-eager. They won't wait for a walk. They swing at bad pitches. They just can't contain their eagerness."

"Now take Ted Williams. He's got tremendous control over himself. He can start his swing, like this, (and Casey stood up to demonstrate) and then suddenly check himself right in the middle of it. But these kids, they can't stop the bat and let it go right through."

HIGH PRAISE

The name of Williams brought a gleam to Casey's eye. It brought back memories to the old man.

"Here's something I've never mentioned before," he said. "But did you know that way back in 1937—I believe it was his first year in professional baseball—I recommended Williams to the Boston Braves. Ted was with the San Diego team in the Pacific Coast League."

He was a tall, gangly kid and

I believe he hit only about .280 but you had to be blind not to see that this kid had it. He had the most beautiful swing, even then.

"That was the year when Brooklyn was paying me for not managing. They had let me go the winter before but my contract had another year to run. I had already agreed to manage the Braves the next year."

OFFERED FIVE PLAYERS

"On my recommendation, the Braves offered five players for Williams. The San Diego club was receptive but they told us they were obligated to Eddie Collins, then general manager of the Red Sox. If the Sox didn't take him, we could have him."

Stengel called Williams the greatest judge of balls and strikes he had ever seen.

"He's easily the hardest man in baseball to pitch to," Casey added. "Next to him is Eddie Yost of Detroit and then Gene Woodling of Baltimore. But Williams, he's in a class by himself, possibly the greatest hitter I ever saw."

Top British Racing Car

BORIS JANDA AND HIS LOLA

Boris Janda, 27-year-old transplanted Czechoslovakian, and his Lola were in town yesterday.

No Boris is not a movie star, and Lolo happens to be a small, British-made racing car.

Janda stopped briefly in Sherbrooke as part of a sponsored tour, showing the car to people throughout the Townships. He has entered the car in eight events, has won first every time out, and has placed second or third overall, a most creditable showing.

The Lola, is a low-slung (28 inches high) machine capable of speeds up to and including 150 m.p.h. It is powered with a 90 b.h.p. Coventry Climax engine, weighs 800 pounds total; 48 inches wide at the tread and 104 inches long at the wheelbase.

The body is fibre glass; painted green (British racing colors) while the frame is chrome-moly tubing, weighing about 45 pounds.

The engine itself is set at about two degrees for the horizontal to permit the greatest possible aerodynamic flow. The brakes are mounted inside the magnesium wheels.

Janda and his mechanic, "Jack" Jaczynski, a native Pole, have worked together since the car first arrived from Great Britain last June. The work "Jack" does, according to Janda, is invaluable.

Gasoline used in the car is the highest octane fuel available, and develops power at a 10.1 ratio. Tested in England, the Lola has travelled from a dead stop in one quarter of a mile, from 0 m.p.h. to 138 m.p.h.

Blue Bombers Chalk Up Their 10th Straight Win By Downing Stamps 19-17; Esks Dump BC Lions 18-10

Western Interprovincial Football Union teams took another run at league-leading Winnipeg Blue Bombers Monday night. They didn't gain an inch.

The Bombers, defending Grey Cup champions, picked up their 10th straight victory with a 19-17 win in the rain over Calgary Stampeders. The visiting Bombers intercepted an end-zone pass and recovered a Calgary fumble to preserve their undefeated string.

Meanwhile, second-place Edmonton Eskimos defeated third-spot British Columbia Lions 18-10 in a water-soaked affair at Edmonton.

The Bombers thus maintain their six-point lead over Eskimos.

Winnipeg has 20 points, Edmonton 14, British Columbia seven, Calgary four and Saskatchewan Roughriders one.

PARKER HIGH SCORER

Quarterback Jackie Parker of Eskimos scored 10 points on a touchdown, field goal and convert to raise his total at the top of the individual scoring race to 80, 20 more than teammate Johnny Bright and Willie Fleming each scored a touchdown.

Mike Lashuk kicked a single and Cowboy Woodruff converted one touchdown to round out the Edmonton scoring.

George Grant came up with a 47-yard field goal and a convert to add to Fleming's touchdown.
