Westmount Scores Honour

District Teams Win Second Place Berth

Through the success of the Canadian Legion War Memorial Building Fund campaign Montreal will be one of the first cities in Canada to establish a permanent veterans' headquarters which will embrace all phases of welfare and recreational work among ex-servicemen and women.

The drive for funds with which to purchase the former servicemen's centre on Mountain Street and turn it into headquarters for the Quebec Command of the Legion, along with recreational facilities and meeting rooms for veterans, was pronounced an outstanding success by its hard-working chairman, Maj.-Gen. C. B. Price, C.B., D.S.O., D.C.M., at the closing dinner Monday night.

In announcing the total for the campaign as $382,371 as the three-week drive ended, Maj.-Gen. Price paid particular tribute to the work of teams in Westmount under Mrs. J. A. deLalanne, with her vice-chairman, Mrs. Harold McMaster. He said their outstanding work in raising $17,382 had been an inspiration to all of the teams.

Over The Top

In the Westmount area, the objective had been set at $15,000, but the determined efforts of the 28 teams in the area met with great success. The district chairman said that while some of the teams had produced more material results than others, the driving spirit shown by all was responsible for the over-all achievement.

"We had teams from every denomination and every race," said Mrs. deLalanne," and their co-operation was wonderful."

An objective for which the Quebec Legion command has been working for the past 10 years, the memorial building, featuring a central shrine room in which will be kept the names of the fallen from this province in both wars, will prove to be of

Guynan Memorial Trophy Competed For On Monday

The John Guynan Memorial Trophy, which has been presented to the Y.M.C.A. Swimming Club by William Guynan, 96 Selby Street, will be competed for Monday at 2.30 p.m. Schoolgirls' Section and the final meet will be held Tuesday at 8 p.m. Each entrant must be prepared for fancy swimming, speed swimming and diving.

The original Guynan Trophy which Mr. Guynan presented four years ago, was won outright by Miss Bernice MacTeer. This new trophy, with a swimmer, and two victory figures in gold, has been given in memorial of John Webster Guynan's only son, who was killed in action south of Caen on July 25th, 1944, while fighting with the 2nd Battalion Black Watch.

The Y.W.C.A. Swimming Club has been fortunate during the past four years in having an excellent trophy donated by William Guynan for the best all-around swimmer of the Y.W.C.A.

The new award is to be a perpetual trophy, encouraging all swimmers of all ages to practice the many arts of swimming. A large entry list of swimmers is a tribute to this practical memorial.

Queen's School Students Hold Easter Assembly

Queen's School pupils gathered in their gymnasium on Monday morning of this week to hear a special Easter programme that consisted of scripture readings, the singing of Easter , Hymns, recitation of the 23rd Psalm by the kindergarten class and a talk by Principal R. N. Bagnell.

Mr. Bagnell announced that he was granting the school a half-holiday to celebrate the Queen's girls' basketball team winning the championship. The Oliver avenue school pupils enjoyed the half-day respite from their studies yesterday afternoon. They do not return to school until Monday, April 29.

Opening of the Westmount Branch of the Royal Edward clinic will take place at Victoria Hall next Friday at 4 p.m., according to Dr. J. J. Day, health officer of the City of Westmount.

The clinic is being operated by the Royal Edward Laurentian Hospital and is sponsored by the Health Department of the City of Westmount.

The purpose of this clinic is to provide the people of Westmount with the facilities for chest X-Rays.

Recaptured In Good Time

Clarence Murray McRitchie, and William Henry Carter, who were originally arrested by the Westmount police, on charges of attempted theft and theft of an automobile and assault, and were sentenced to 14 months in jail in December last, recently escaped from the Bordeaux jail, but were recaptured the following day by Montreal harbor police as they were getting ready to board a ship in the harbor.

Harbor Board Police Constable Rene Landry and Urgel Belisle took the two men into custody at the King Edward Gate.

Wearing overalls over their prison garb and the so-called blue-stripe engineers cap, the escaped convicts aroused the suspicion of the officers and later admitted their identity. Police Capt. Louis Valois escorted them to Provincial Police Headquarters after checking with newspaper pictures.

Attaching a baling hook to a length of fire hose left in the prison yard to combat a grass fire the previous day, the prisoners, former residents of Vancouver and of Cochrane, scaled the

Erect Printing Press Building Of Flat Slabs

Construction of a new building at the corner of Metcalfe and Hillside avenues, for the Inland Press Company, will be rapidly advanced by decision to temporarily proceed with only one floor, with future plans calling for a three storey edifice designed for Printing Press purposes.

With an area of almost 2,000 square feet, approximate cost is estimated at $75,000 and construction is to be of reinforced concrete and flat slabs with some brickwork. Windows will be unusually large, huge bay spans of 25 feet laid between columns, and the whole design extremely modern.

Ordinary heating and excellent lighting are planned, much thought is being given for utility, and an elevator is promised in the future, when the other floors are built.

Westmount Municipal Assoc'n Recommend Improved Lighting

Serious consideration was recommended to the problem of traffic control at Sherbrooke and Victoria Streets, at the Westmount Municipal Association Executive meeting held at Victoria Hall on Thursday, when it was brought to immediate attention the green light for traffic on Victoria Avenue is not of sufficient duration, causing considerable jams of street cars and automobiles, especially during rush hours.

Traffic Chairman Taylor Kennedy advised the tramways are considering stopping Street-Car No. 47 on Claremont avenue rather than Sherbrooke steet. It was recommended to the city Council of Wesmount that the lighting be impoved on Victoria avenue from Westmount station to Sherbrooke street, also on Tupper street from Gladstone to Atwater.

Action was also recommended to rid the City of pigeons in various parts of the City where they are causing destruction and dirt, and creating a general nuisance.

Letters of Help

Col. J. E. Slessor, chairman, Rehabilitation Committee, reported over 500 letters written to ex-servicemen being discharged, offering the help of the committee in meeting readjustment problems. Only 25 requests have been received, indicating the ease with which our ex-servicemen are settling down. The housing situation however is the only serious prob-

Runaway Horse Chased By Taxi

A laundry van runaway horse gave the driver of a Western Taxi a merry chase from Guy to Sherbrooke streets through to Fordham avenue on Cote St. Antoine Road, where it was eventually halted by a Westmount policeman, following a slight collision with the pursuing taxi on Wednesday morning.

At the red lights the taxi driver attempted to corral the horse and vehicle by crowding in front and forcing the animal to the curb, but to no avail. Slight damage was done to the taxi fender.

Business Men's Club Plans Spring Meet

Plans for a gala Spring meeting were matured at a recent gathering of the Executive Committee of the Westmount Business Men's Association, the event to be held at Victoria Hall on Monday, April 29.

The meeting will be called to order at 8.15 p.m. sharp, as a program of more than usual interest to business men and women has ben arranged.

The Business Men's Association of Westmount, prior to the outbreak of war, played an increasingly important part in the life of the community and it is anticipated that a large representation will attend this meeting, the first formal "get-together" of Westmount business interests since the cessation of hostilities.

A number of new business firms have located in Westmount during the war years, and President Don Ross extends invitation to take an active and constructive interest in all matters which usually concern business people of this community.

Westmount Highlights

By GEORGE COCHRANE

Arthur Voronka, the cheerful co-producer and co-director of the Purple and White Revue '46, of which more below, takes pen in hand this week to demonstrate his versatility. Writes Arturo, with crony John Clennel Dickins looking over his shoulder—

Dear Mr. Cochrane,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your untiring efforts in the capacity of publicity director for the revue. The revue committee really appreciated it and it helped a lot to put the show over.

Through this column we would also like to thank Miss Spencer, whom we forgot to thank after the finale, for her marvelous work on the ballet number.

Also Miss Davison, who was with us way back when the revue wasn't a revue and who was always willing to give up any amount of her own time for the good of the show.

Bert Grindley, the business manager, deserves the credit for the smooth functioning of the business side of the show. He was a marvelous fellow to work with and always kept us in the best of spirits.

I want to thank each member of the cast for their marvelous co-operation and hard work. There couldn't have been a finer lot to work with. We enjoyed every moment with them—especially the chorus line.

I'd like to publicly acknowledge the great debt we owe to Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Wearing. Without them the show wouldn't have been the success it was.

Again, leave us thank everyone connected with the show.

We remain, theatrically yours,
Art Voronka and John Dickins.

P.S.: We'd also like to thank Graem Ross, Ted Fenwick, Joan Brown, Patty Peirce and the other members of the scenery painting crew. Without them the scenery would have looked like something from the Elizabethan Age.

Tom Armstrong and the stage crew are also worth mention.

HI-Y

The Girls' Hi-Y Club held their annual mother and daughter meeting at the Y Wednesday evening and the males' organization held their final pre-Easter gathering in the same establishment last night.

Among those who'll be representing Westmount are Wolf Siemers, president of the local group, Jerry Wright and Henry Blakeney.

Reports were also received from J. R. Fenwick, chairman Education and Library Committee, Jean St. Germain, chairman Legislation Committee, and Harold W. Corrigan, chairman Publicity Committee.

Program Chairman Walter Downes announced details of arrangements for a spring meeting also to be held at Victoria Hall May 1, at which members would hear the Royal Regiment, R.M.R. Refreshments will be served and a large turnout is expected.

CENSORING THE GOAT
By Phil Stong

This is a story about a very young goat, inducted into the navy by two sailors as a mascot for a PT boat. John Paul Jones, the goat, grew more rapidly than regular folks. At an age where a baby could do only a knot or two a day, he did five knots an hour and always in the direction of someone's hip pocket.

Unfortunately, the hip pocket usually belonged to an officer, so Jones was rapidly promoted to a destroyer, cruiser and battleship in action because the officers in turn thought he needed more room. Finally after helping the Marines win an island he was wounded and honorably discharged. A rollicking tale with plenty of action and plenty of laughs.

The Evans family were excited and full of curiosity as they waited on the dock at Swansea, Wales, for they were on their way to America. Life was never dull for them and they enjoyed every minute of the day.

BULLETINS FROM BIRDLAND

BY WINIFRED E. WILSON

The Pewee

"Pee-a-wee-e-e." The clear, plaintive, long-drawn-out whistle broke the silence of the forest, making it apparent that the Wood Pewee had arrived unusually early from its winter quarters in Central America. No need to ask why. Spring weather had come upon us with a rush, and consequently the air was filled with little flies. The Pewee's dinner was right there, waiting for him.

"Pee-a-wee-e-e", he repeated in his slow, sweet voice, this time sounding very close. We looked overhead and saw the little olive-grey fellow sitting up very straight on a good-sized branch of an elm tree that shaded the path. Had it not been for his call he surely would have passed unnoticed. Quite a bit smaller than a City Sparrow, he has white wing-bars, and the dainty bill of a flycatcher.

As we watched he gave an exhibition of his dexterity at catching insects on the wing. With a sudden "dive" he was off, and the snap of his bill told that he had been successful even before we saw him return to his stand firmly holding something that gave him the appearance of having whiskers like a cat. Flies of all kinds (including dragonflies and house flies), beetles, ants, moths, caterpillars, and even grasshoppers are on the Pewee's menu.

Although a mature forest with old stumps and logs and a considerable amount of undergrowth is the Pewee's favorite habitat, it frequents open groves and orchards where it is a distinct help to the agriculturist.

Its home is most exquisite — almost an enlarged edition of that of a Hummingbird. Plant fibres quilted together form a shallow saucer. This, saddled on a high, horizontal bough of some tall, deciduous tree, is ornamented with lichens, bark and cobwebs. Three or four creamy white eggs, speckled with brown, are laid in May. Quite unlike most birds, a Pewee does not seem to mind if the nest has been discovered and household arrangements are being watched by our curious eyes. Yet both parents are good, and brave.

As a Pewee is friendly, it is often possible to get near enough to hear the little "grace note" that introduces the sad song. Mr. and Mrs. look exacly alike; but he is the singer, his wife's only musical offering being the call which we know as "Peer." The lovable little couple may be heard until past mid-summer.

walls of the Montreal Prison at Bordeaux and escaped.

Guards on the double walls reported they had not seen the escape which apparently occurred at about dawn in rainy, foggy, murky weather.

After an early breakfast and on their way to the machine shop where they were employed, the two prisoners seized the hose and the hook and made a fast getaway. It was an hour before they were missed.

The mournful howl of the prison siren set up a din in the cupola of the jail as all prisoners were marched to their cells.

Dr. Zenon Lesage, jail governor, began an immediate investigation which centred upon the questioning of the guards whose names were withheld. It appeared probable, it was learned, that the escape was spontaneous and that it had not been plotted. There were no indications of outside help.

great benefit to all returned men and women.

In the words of B. C. Gardner, vice-president and general manager of the Bank of Montreal, the campaign's success now allows the Legion in this province to carry on its two-fold work: "To honor the fallen, and work for the welfare of those who have returned."

Particular tribute was paid to Maj.-Gen. Price who as campaign chairman supplied the drive and leadership necessary to put the project over the top. He in turn praised the work of his committee, the district chairmen, the teams captains, and the 3,000 volunteer workers who canvassed throughout the city. He held in high regard the work of the team chairmen, Major P. L. Hall, and H. Bashford Browne.

The closing total for the special names section under the chairmanship of M. M. Walter, was announced as $233,920. He had as his vice-chairmen: Lt.-Col. Jean E. Chaput, John H. Molson and James M. Morris.

Top honors among the individual district teams went to St. Lawrence-St. George with $17,500 and $3,000 in committments; Westmount, with $17,382; St. Andrews, $17,161; and Central, with $15.431.

HANDEL'S MESSIAH

Handel's "The Messiah" will be rendered with orchestral accompaniment in Westmount Park United Church, corner Western and Lansdowne avenue, on Good Friday, at 8 p.m. sharp.

This outstanding of all Oratorios will be assured of the traditional rendering under the direction of J. Christie Scott, a resident of N.D.G., himself a versatile musician and well-known Handelian exponent. Mr. Scott has augmented his choir for this occasion to 100 selected voices, and has secured as soloists Agnes Scott, soprano, Alfred Wellens, tenor, Olive B. Lewis, alto, and will himself sing the bass solos.

This great Oratorio, although written over 200 years ago, has never lost its appeal to the world of music lovers.

It has been repeatedly said that the atmosphere of this beautiful church is admirably suited to the presentation of sacred works, and it is interesting to note that it was chosen by the Monks of St. Benoit du Lac as being exceedingly suitable for the recording of Gregorian Chant.

The Camp Committee met on Tuesday to consider the many applications for positions on Camp Staff and results will be announced as soon as released by the Committee.

The Camp circular folder, printed every year for the benefit of parents and others wishing to learn more about Tamaracouta, has been changed somewhat this year. It will be issued as usual during May. We hope that every Troop in Westmount Area will endeavor to attend Tamaracouta this summer, which promises to be the best camping season yet.

The Western Area Hobby Show, open to all other areas and to the public, will be held on May 17th and 18th, Friday evening and Saturday afternoon, and not on May 10th and 11th as announced in this column last week. We hope to see many of you there. Don't forget the deadline for entries is May 1.

Hockey Party

The Annual Hockey Party of the Montreal Inter-Pack Hockey League was held on Monday at Western Area Headquarters with 2nd Westmount and Westmount Park Packs representing this area. A grandtime held, the features of the evening were the boxing bouts and the presentations of the cup and the crests. The evening was enjoyably concluded with a feed of hot-dogs and milk, large portions of which were consumed.

Royal St. Lawrence

During the past few weeks the Royal St. Lawrence Rover Sea Scouts have been fortunate in having the services of R. Stewart, a sailor in the square rigger days, who can tell many a yarn. He has been instructing the company in how to build boat-fenders which is quite tricky and needs much practice before being able to make one. The company has benefited greatly by his able instruction.

Mr. Stewart also shows the boys many kinds of knots and is also a renowned sail-maker. He will give several more talks on ships, rigging, knotting, splicing and boat-fenders before the boating season begins. The ship's company hopes to obtain other experienced instructors for such subjects as navigation, boat construction, etc.

Any boy between the age of 15 and 17 wishing to join this unit will be welcomed on Thursday

A Column For The Socially Conscious West End Citizen

Westmounters sometimes assume that their city is free of the social work worries that beset other municipalities in the Montreal area in which large groups of low-wage earners live. This isn't entirely true, as pretty and capable Miss Elizabeth Donaldson can testify.

Miss Donaldson is district secretary of the Family Welfare Association, largest Red Feather Service of Welfare Federation. She points out that 40 families in Westmount received care, counsel and relief from the Association during 1945. In 32 cases, the families belonged to servicemen.

"Five of these cases continued into this year and 10 new ones have cropped up," Miss Donaldson asserts.

The Family Welfare Association also investigated the circumstances of a number of Westmount servicemen's families for the Dependents' Board of Trustees, resulting in many cases in an increased allowance and better living for these folk—and a less worried fighting-man overseas!

In the whole West-End, the Family Welfare Association gave care, counsel and relief to no less than 358 cases in the first three months of this year, according to G. B. Clarke, general secretary of this body of social workers and public-spirited citizens.

As the service is not needed so much in the West-End as elsewhere, many citizens of this area make the mistake of thinking that the raison d'etre of the Family Welfare People is to dispense relief to the many categories of under-privileged folk who don't fit into governmental relief laws—which are peculiarly inadequate in this province by the standards of others, in Mr. Clarke's opinion.

N. K. Macdonald Dies, Aged 76

Funeral service for Norman Kay Macdonald, president of the Major Paper Box and Wire Works Ltd., who died Sunday in his 77th year, was held at 2.30 p.m. on Wednesday at Melville Presbyterian Church. Burial was in Mount Royal cemetery.

Mr. Macdonald, who died in the Central Division of the General Hospital after a brief illness, lived at 241 Kensington avenue. He was born and educated in Montreal.

Active in both business and sports circles, he was a member of the Montreal Board of Trade, Canadian Manufacturers' Association, and a former member of the Kanawaki Golf Club, Heather Curling Club, and the Jovial Fish and Game Club. He served as a member of the Board of Governors of the Montreal General Hospital and the Children's Memorial Hospital.

Young People's Union Easter Sunrise Service

The Easter Sunrise service sponsored by the Montreal Presbytery Young People's Union of the United Church of Canada will be held at the Lookout on Mount Royal on Easter Sunday morning at 7.30 a.m. This year it is to be in the form of a "Crusade" service, and it is hoped through this service young people will be inspired to give their utmost to the Crusade for Christ and His Kingdom.

Rev. Graham Barr, B.A., B.D., assistant minister of Dominion Douglas United Church will bring the Easter message.

The young people of Calvary Church will form the choir, and Miss Helva Nash will sing the call to worship, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." Also taking part in the service will be Miss Vera Jamieson, organist, Miss Gladys Thornberger and Miss June Patterson.

In the event of rain, the service will be held in the Youth Chapel of Erskine and American United Church.

Stanley Presbyterian

On Sunday the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at both the morning and evening services of worship. In the morning for his text Rev. Wilkie will take "The Hope of the Resurrection" and in the evening the text will be "Because I live, ye shall live also."

On Friday evening there will be the usual preparatory service at which the new Communicants will be received into the fellowship of the church.

DON'T BUY LIVE EASTER PRESENTS

A growing practice, which is causing the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals considerable concern, is the purchasing of live young chicks and rabbits as presents for children. The Society points out that in most cases such gifts are nothing more than a slow but certain death sentence on the chicks and rabbits because of too little heat, mauling and squeezing, and improper food. It is one of the worst forms of cruelty to animals. Don't buy live presents this Easter.

EUROPE URGENTLY NEEDS CLOTHES!

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King is giving his fullest support to the forthcoming National Campaign to collect serviceable used clothing for the men, women and children of European countries who lost everything in Give World War. In a telegram to William outdo
A Birks, National Chairman of the Canayoung Allied Relief, which is sponsoring the Dance F
Night
King states:

"Speaking on behalf of the Canadian Government I warmly commend the National Campaign to save used clothing for the Clothing Drive to be held in June. The need for clothing in war-torn lands is very great. Our citizens may be assured that their contributions will help to prevent much suffering."

Plans for the organization of the Campaign are already under way in many communities. Mid-June is not far away, and in order to enable every family in Canada to make their contribution, it is essential that community groups get together as quickly as possible to map out their programs so as to ensure that no serviceable used clothing that is available is left uncollected.

"In every community there are leaders who are ready to undertake the organization of these groups," said Mr. Birks today. "Members of the Service Clubs, labor and church groups, educational, women's and youth groups will, I am sure, again give their fullest co-operation, and are anxious to start as soon as possible.

"Last October Canada's contribution of used clothing helped over a million families to get through the winter. Fortunately for the other millions who had nothing to wear but the rags of what they had on them at the time of the invasion of the country, the past winter was not so severe as many had feared. But next winter they may not be so fortunate.

"We are holding this Drive in mid-June so that the Canadian people can make their gifts in time to get their contributions over to the war-devastated areas before the cold weather again sets in.

"Winter clothes are being discarded now throughout the Dominion. Don't put them away in the wardrobe, but put them on one side in readiness for the Campaign which will start a few weeks hence," concluded Mr. Birks.

TRAFFIC CHAOS

Last Saturday provided a good preview of what traffic conditions are going to be like on City streets when the new cars start to roll. From shortly before noon until well after one o'clock conditions in downtown Montreal on Saturday can be described only as chaotic. More cars were out than at any time since pre-war days, it seemed, and the pile-up at traffic lights and confusion at intersections where there are no lights was something to behold. What driving will be like on Montreal's narrow streets, and even on her wide streets, when the mass of new cars get running, can be estimated by doubling conditions on Saturday.

CARLETON AND SYDENHAM AVENUES AND DORCHESTER STREET

Dorchester Street today extends from Delorimier Avenue to Hallowell Street, Westmount. It is divided into two sections, Dorchester St. East extends from 1119 St. Lawrence Boulevard to 1012 Delorimier Ave., and Dorchester St. West from 1122 St. Lawrence Boulevard, Montreal, to 156 Hallowell St., Westmount.

Extracts from Westmount Council Minutes

(1) In October, 1887, the Secretary Treasurer was authorized to instruct Mr. Irwin, P.L.S., to prepare a survey of Dorchester St. between Greene Ave. and Hallowell St. for the purpose of determining the line and proper level of the said Street. (This Survey was made and accepted by the Council in April, 1888).

(2) Sept., 1890. The Council agreed to the request of the Montreal Turnpike Trust re the opening of the road-bed on Dorchester St. between Atwater and Greene Avenues, and the Council asked that the Turnpike Trust be requested to allow the Council to lower the level of Dorchester St. at its junction with Greene Avenue at the cost of the Town, "to as great a depth as can be attained without damage to the adjoining properties."

(3) In 1903 it was decided to lay permanent side-walks on both sides of the Street, and to place a permanent crossing, across the Street to Gladstone Ave.

The Mayor and Secretary Treasurer signed an acceptance of a Cession by gratuitous title to the Town, for Street purposes, of a piece of land of an area of about 228 ft., forming the south corner of Dorchester St. and Atwater Ave.

(4) In 1908 the City of Montreal requested that Westmount contribute to the cost of paving the portion of Dorchester St. east of Atwater Ave. by assuming a share proportionate to the area within the limits of Westmount. That Westmount cede to the City the portion of Dorchester St. and of Atwater Ave. within its territory, east of the centre line of Atwater Ave.

(5) In 1909, the Council confirmed the proposed arrangement with the construction of water services on St. Catherine and Dorchester Sts. and Greene Ave., where paving operations will shortly be begun, namely that the Montreal Water and Power Co. make these 49 connections for the City, in the sewer cuts, at their own expense, total cost not exceeding $250; the City to assume responsibility for repairs, until such time as they may be used to supply customer, who may build on the lots, to which connections have been made.

(6) "To place electric light wire in underground conduits between Atwater and Greene Avenues."

(7) March, 1911, "To pave the intersection of Dorchester St. and Atwater Ave. west side only, in asphalt and granite Setts."

Sir Guy Carleton (Lord Dorchester)

Sir Guy Carleton 1724-1808, was born at Strabane, Co. Tyrone, Ireland. He accompanied his friend, James Wolfe, to Quebec, as Quarter Master General. He was Wolfe's right-hand man at the siege of Quebec. He was appointed Lieutenant Governor of Quebec in 1766, and Governor-General in 1768. His period of office lasted til 1778.

It was largely due to Carleton's influence that the policy of conciliation of the French Canadian Seigneurs and Clergy, culminated in the passage of the Quebec Act in 1774.

During the American Invasion of Canada in 1775, he was forced to abandon Montreal, and narrowly escaped capture, but he defended Quebec with skill and success, and in the Autumn of that year, he destroyed the American Flotilla on Lake Champlain. In 1778 he retired, because of differences with Lorge George Germain, Secretary of State for the Colonies. However, in 1782 he was recalled from retirement as Commander in Chief of British Forces in North

THE FORUM

Conducted by Howard S. Ross, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper, and it does not accept responsibility for them.

For more than four months Winnipeg's rival newspapers, The Free Press and The Tribune, have been appearing in one edition. The necessity was imposed by a strike of the typographical union, which was remarkable chiefly for the fact that it hinged on one issue. The union insisted that the new contract must contain a clause providing that the publishers accept in their entirety all the regulations passed by the International Typographical Union, and that disputes involving these regulations should not be subject to settlement by arbitration under provincial or dominion laws. The publishers declared that they could not sign such a contract, and suggested that all future disputes, on whatever issue, be settled by arbitration. In November the dominion labor department commissioned Justice Major of Winnipeg investigate the strike. Judge Major's report recommended that all disagreements be submitted to arbitration. The publishers thereupon renewed their offer to submit the terms of the new contract to an impartial board. The union refused this offer, and the publishers proceeded to train returned servicemen as printers.

The Indian National Congress party now has a majority in the new Central Legislative Assembly, which opened in New Delhi on Jan. 21. One of the first acts of the session was to pass, without a division and with support of all parties, a motion of censure against the government for having been a party to the use of Indian troops in Indonesia. Since voting for the Central Assembly was done on the communal system, the Moslems took all 30 seats reserved for them under this plan. Mr. Jinnah and the Moslem League acclaim this as a vindication of their demand for Pakistan, or a separate Moslem state.

Whether or not we agree it is interesting to know what some of the leading journals in the USA have been saying about Mr. Churchill's Fulton speech. Churchill's World Is Gone, says Chicago Sun editorial. Impossible Now to Reconstitute the Imperialism Urged by "Blind Aristocrat.". It is a world which no longer exists in reality. It cannot be reconstituted. It ought not to be reconstituted. To follow the standard raised by this great but blinded aristocrat would be to march to the world's most ghastly war.

We say that he is great and so he is ,for strength and genius to which tribute has many times been paid by this paper, and to which the world owes much. But —quite aside from the lethal wrongness of his goal—his greatness was heavily marred in the Fulton speech by a sanctimoniousness unworthy of any great man.

His boast of the happy freedom of prostrate Greece; his picture of the world's God-fearing cottages as the beneficiary of his strategy of world domination; his failure while denouncing Russian expansion to utter a single syllable concerning British guns which fell colonial peoples struggling for freedom—freedom and dignity; his recourse to Scripture, "in my Father's house there are many mansions," to justify a world system of alliances dominated by a master alliance of Anglo-Saxon herrenvolk—such sanctimony is not what one ought to be able to expect of Winston Churchill.

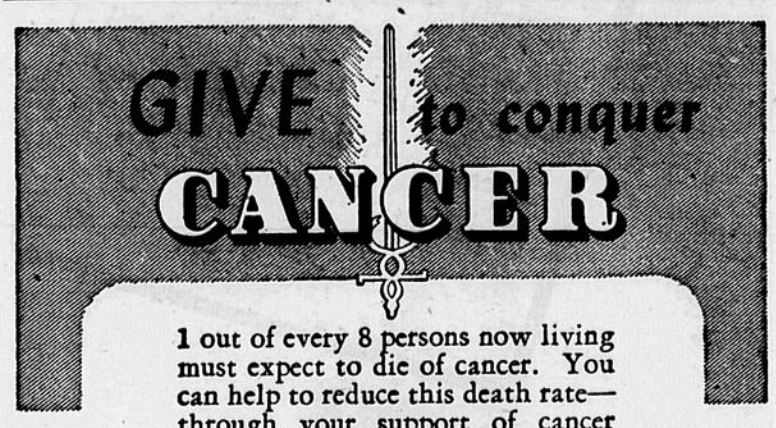

But his personality is not the issue, its objective is world domination, through arms, by the United States and the British Empire.

Gone, he said, is the balance of power. And gone it is. If he could reconstitute it, to permit Britain's holding the balance again, he would do so. He knows this is impossible. Russia and America are the two great powers. So, paying scornful lip service to the United Nations, heaping denunciation on the Soviet Union, he appeals to the USA for an alliance — even an eventual union of nations — to save the privileged imperial world which he cannot believe is dead.

Let this country's rejection of the poisonous doctrines declared by Churchill be prompt and emphatic.

A great American general, George Marshall, when asked recently for a definition of democracy, said: "There seem to be a great many definitions of democracy in the world today. The Russians have one, the British have another, we have our own.

"We think of it as a system which gives us an inherent right to have a voice in our own affairs, the right to speak freely, the right to assemble peacably, and to go about our own affairs without interference unless we interfere with the rights of others."

Last Sunday was a day long to be remembered in St. Andrew's, 69 new members were welcomed at the largest Communion Service in the history of the Church, attended by 906 members and friends.

The service was conducted by the Rev. D. M. Grant, B.A., and Rev. A. J. Mowatt, G.A., G.D. Attendance at service has been increasing of recent months and as Mr. Grant becomes established, it is expected that the membership will be very large.

In place of the regular service, an Easter Drama—"It is I"—was produced in the Church Hall, attended by some 350 persons. The play was staged by Mrs. D. M. Grant, who was one of the leading students at the Curry College of Dramatic Art in Boston, Mass., and who has taken leading parts in many important productions of plays and dramas in the Maritime Provinces. Others taking part were Mrs. Poole, who has taken prominent parts in the M.R.T., also as Elocutionist in Concert Work, Mrs. J. C. Russell and J. McJannett.

The characterization of the play was extremely well done and led by Mrs. Grant, whose skilful acting was convincing and kept well within its scriptural text. As the play is descriptive of the Easter Season with its deep meaning to all Church people.

On Sunday morning Rev. D. M. Grant's subject will be "The First Easter", in the evening, A Choral Service.

Good Friday Service will be held at 11 a.m. when the preacher will be Rev. D. M. Grant.

Calvary United Church was the scene of the marriage at four o'clock yesterday afternoon of Freda Adams, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Stephen, of N.D.G., and Mr. Dale King, youngest son of Mrs. King, of Aurora, Ont., and the late Mr. W. C. King. Easter lilies and white hydrangeas decorated the church, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. T. W. Jones. Miss Vera Jamieson presided at the organ and Mrs. T. W. Jones was the soloist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a high round neckline and long sleeves ending in scallops over the hand. Trimming the yoke of the bodice were seed pearls which had adorned her mother's wedding gown. The bride's white satin Juliet cap, which held her fingertip length veil, was also sewn with the seed pearls, on net, and she carried a semi-cascade bouquet of Easter lilies.

The bride's attendants were Miss Mildred Graham, as maid-of-honor, in a floor length coral crepe frock; and Miss May Jackson, in floor length turquoise, as bridesmaid. Each attendant carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and mauve sweet peas.

Mr. Bob McAdam acted as best man for the groom. The ushers were Mr. Jack Watts, of Weston, Ont., half-brother of the groom, Mr. Jay Cody, of Florida; Mr. Bill Fry, of Aurora and Mr. Bill Cave, of Little Long Lac, Ont.

King's School Sends $111.84 To Aid Hungry

Westmount Youngsters Remember the Needy

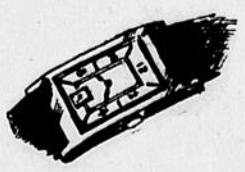

The sum of $111.84 was sent on Wednesday by the teachers and pupils of King's School, Westmount, to the Save the Children Fund.

With energy worthy of a good cause, the school made a concerted effort to get this money and secured it in six weeks. "Second year" carried off the honors for making the largest single contribution.

A lot of work went into acquiring the sum, some of the pupils selling doughnuts and revels (an ice cream and chocolate delicacy) while others collected newspapers and sold them for salvage. King's School deserves great credit for this little project, in more ways than one.

Father Turner Tells Xavier About Chinese

At the monthly meeting of the Xavier Apostolate Guild held in Congress Hall on Monday, the speaker was the Rev. Kenneth Turner, of the Scarboro Foreign Mission Society. Father Turner, who was introduced by the president, Mrs. J. P. Boyle, spoke on "A Missionary's Life in War-torn China."

Father Turner first spoke of the Chinese people, whom he described as generally intelligent, industrious and likeable. His first mission was located in Dolw, where the population was about 75% Christian—Protestant and Catholic. This percentage of Christians is, however, unusual. The Chinese people, whether Christian or not, are deeply religious. Hangchow alone, he said, has a million pilgrims yearly to the Buddhist Temple. In the main, religion is founded on ancestor worship — hence there is a general belief in the soul and immortality.

The main obstacle in christianizing the Chinese is their suspicion of anything foreign, though they are friendly to the individual. Despite the introduction of some modernism there is still a firm adherence to the old beliefs and superstitions.

Few of its Christian missions have escaped destruction by the Japanese, stated Father Turner.

The standard of living in China is almost unbelievably low, the speaker stated. This, added to the constantly sky-rocketing price of rice, has made conditions very austere and trying. The Japanese forces advanced on Father Turner's mission, causing him to retreat farther and farther westward until finally he was ordered home for a rest. He is now waiting until a passage is available to take him back to his chosen work.

Father Turner was thanked by Mrs. James J. McAsey. A musical program was given by Mrs. A. Borlase, accompanied by Mrs. T. B. Shea. Mrs. J. A. Weldon, treasurer gave a financial report on the Sports Night. In the absence of Rev. Edward Brown, S.J., Moderator, Rev. Horatio Phelan, S.J., spoke a few words.

WASTEFUL

A garbage survey of 247 cities in the United States at the beginning of rationing showed that 20 per cent of the food purchased by householders was wasted.

WARTIME AID GIVEN TO MANY PROJECTS

The sixth annual meeting of the Women's Volunteer Reserve Corps was held recently at their headquarters, when Chief Commandant F. Seymour Bell, Commanding Officer of the Corps, was in the chair, and gave the following report of activities during the year.

Last year, the Cadets raised $173.73 from a sale of handicraft and home-cooking, and this was donated to the Queen's Canadian Fund. The "Overseas' Bundles Registered" have discontinued this work, and a report from the department shows 242 crates of clothing, comprising 78 tons were shipped by Mrs. Peillard to the War Relief Fund during the war.

Hospital Aids

In eleven months of last year, the "Hospital Aids", who are on duty four nights a week at the Homoeopathic Hospital, contributed 1,174 hours to this work.

Ripping fur coats was a tedious job, but from reports of the department, it was all worth while; 8,823 fur vests were made from the coats from 1942 to 1945 in Montreal alone, and all the ripping was done at headquarters of this Corps. A good representation of girls worked on the National Clothing Campaign, and credit goes to these girls, for having put in more evening hours than any other organization.

Officers appointed for the ensuing year, are: Chief Commandant, F. Seymour Bell, Chairman, with Captains Whittall, Elder, Rice, Farrell, Moat, and Dodds, forming the Board of Directors.

Women With Ideas

Constance Beresford-Howe

By Helen B. Sandwell

A young lady simply brimful of ideas—ideas by the bookful—is Miss Constance Beresford-Howe, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Beresford-Howe, of 4073 Hampton Avenue, whose recent novel "The Unreasoning Heart" won the $1,200 Dodd-Mead Literary Fellowship and netted her $4,000 for the serial rights in Redbook Magazine.

Twenty-three years old, Constance is small and dark, and must have the energy of several amazons, because at the moment she is studying for her M.A. at McGill, writing her thesis, lecturing to 1,000 servicemen every week and is half-way through another book. Last year she graduated with honors, winning the Shakespeare Medal and the Dorothy Peterson Prize for creative writing. Next year she is beginning a two-year course at Brown University on Rhode Island for the degree of Ph.D.

Book Written In Old Farmhouse

The inside story of how the book was written was told by the young author on Thursday evening when, as guest of honor, she spoke at the annual meeting of the Essay Group of the Canadian Author's Association which was held at the Themis Club. The book, she confessed, was written mostly while she lay on her stomach, or hunched over a desk, or sat at the kitchen table of a French-Canadian farmhouse. It took her just about nine months, during which time she lived under the spell such a job casts over the writer, thinking, worrying and dreaming about the world she was creating and indeed existing in, until the work was completed. Her mother, of whose help she is deeply appreciative, then took over and when the family returned to the city typed out thousands of words in her daughter's "peculiarly illegible" handwriting, and got the manuscript ready for the competition.

Miss Beresford-Howe told her fellow authors at the meeting how Dr. Files, of McGill, read the story and gave her kindly advice about it. "He recommended one or two changes," she said, "and as soon as these were made, I sent it off to Dodd, Mead & Company, fully expecting to get it back with one of those nasty little cards attached. When—a month later—a telegram came announcing that I had won the Award—the first Canadian ever to do so, by the way—I was positively stunned and continued in that state for days. I am only just beginning now to believe that it really happened.

"But my trials were not over. Indeed, they were just beginning. Mr. Dodd, with the greatest sympathy and tact in the world, suggested that the novel would be improved by certain changes—mainly the ending, which had a too-abrupt climax as it stood. So for six weeks I laboured over revisions. Just thinking about them makes me tired. There is no more grudging, annoying, difficult and exacting work in this world. By the time I sent the revised story back to New York, I never wanted to see another page of manuscript again.

"This feeling lasted perhaps two days. At the end of that time I was already beginning to think about a new story and to build in my mind a new set of characters, a new setting and a new situation to involve them all."

Nursing Department And Phillips School Reports Are Given

At the annual meeting of the Homoeopathic Hospital of Montreal yesterday afternoon Miss Vera L. Graham, superintendent of Nurses presented the report of the Nursing Department and the Phillips Training School for Nurses for the year ending December 31st, 1945. The total number of nurses, including senior staff nurses, general staff nurses, and student nurses, both those on duty in the hospital and those on affiliation, was given as 194.

The number of students accepted number 24, and there were 15 resignations during the year from the graduate nursing staff, on account of marriage, military service, home responsibilities and private duty cases.

It was stated in the report that the opening of the Junior Nurses' Residence, which accommodates 17 students, solved to a great extent the problem of housing nurses.

IN MONTREAL WEST OPERATIC SOCIETY PRESENTATION

The Montreal West Operatic Society's Seventh Annual production is "The Gondoliers" under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norris. This comic opera is sponsored by The Lions Club of Montreal for the benefit of welfare work.

Purple White Revue Scores

Bubbling over with youthful humor and zest, the Purple and White Revue '46 was enthusiastically acclaimed by two sell-out audiences at Victoria Hall last Thursday and Friday evenings. Presented by students of Westmount High, under the joint direction of John Dickins and Art Voronka, this is one high school show that contained something to suit everyone's taste.

The musical highlight of the production came toward the end of the second act when the school's Glee Club presented "Things of Moment Are Impending", a 20-minute musical picturization of the goings-on at a Westmount High Students Council meeting. The whole thing was set to the music of Gilbert and Sullivan with the entirely original lyrics written by Parker L. Wearing, French teacher at the suburb high school. Particularly outstanding was the work of soloists Bill Hannington, Mary Campbell, Bob Smith, Norris Masterman and Joan Brown.

Acting honors were divided by comedians John Dickins and Moe Kirsch, two young thespians who each possess loads of talent.

An 18-piece union orchestra, under the baton of Charles Leger, president of the Westmount High Dramatics Society, provided the musical background for the entire show.

Westmount High School students have again rung the theatrical bell by producing one of the best, if not the best, high school show ever seen on this island.

Lightning Strikes Twice For Smiling Jimmy Dunn

Of all the stories that have ever come out of Hollywood, none is more amazing than that of James Dunn, actor.

After nine years out of the movie spotlight, he has suddenly zoomed back to the top of the ladder. Without trying, he won the role of "Johnny Nolan", in the film version of "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn", which is now playing at the Snowdon United Theatre until Friday night. Dunn is now on the verge of stardom for the second time in one lifetime. He played this role so well that he was judged the best supporting actor of the year and given the Academy Award for this performance, this being the second time he has been nominated for such an honor.

Back in 1931, Jimmy Dunn was the discovery of the year. Young, clean-cut, with a 14-carat charm, he became a star overnight in "Bad Girl," and, in addition, was nominated by fellow-actors for the Academy Award. In the finals he lost the "Oscar" to Frederic March. But everybody, including the public, agreed that Jimmy Dunn was a terrific actor. He was rushed into one picture after another. In four years he made twenty pictures.

Then in 1935, Dunn decided to become a free-lance actor; he wanted to do fewer pictures a year.

"I've been free-lancing ever since," he recently said, by way of explaining what happened between 1935 and 1944—"most of the time right in Hollywood; and it paid off financially. Where I made my mistake was in being influenced by the size of the dollar sign. An independent producer offered me a bigger salary than I had been getting, if I'd make a picture for him. For what he was offering, I said, "Why not?" I didn't even look at the script. The same thing happened two or three times, and the pictures didn't turn out so well. After a couple of these "turkeys," I still had jobs, and the jobs still paid off, but they weren't big roles in big-time pictures."

Meanwhile, the best-selling novel by Betty Smith, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," was being readied for production and a search was on to find an actor for the part of "Johnny Nolan."

HILARIOUS STAGE HIT! Shirley Temple, as 'Corliss Archer' in "Kiss And Tell", the film version of the Broadway success that ran for over two years. This fine comedy starts at the Snowdon Theatre on Saturday, for one week.

GREAT MUSICAL HIT! June Haver, Betty Grable and players in a scene from the Technicolor musical, "The Dolly Sisters", which starts at the Monkland United Theatre on Saturday, playing until Tuesday night.

Margaret O'Brien Rises To Acting Heights In Drama

One of the most gripping motion pictures of the year, with a superb cast headed by Margaret O'Brien is now playing at the Monkland Theatre until Friday night. It is entitled "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" and co-stars Edward G. Robinson with little Margaret O'Brien.

Both stars rise to new heights in roles far different from those they have portrayed recently. Little Margaret is simply superb as a seven-year-old Wisconsin farm girl, who battles almost single-handedly against the complacency and self-centred attitude of the town's men and women, which is inevitably leading to their destruction. Robinson, whose last two parts were in "Double Indemnity" and "Woman in the Window," now plays Margaret's father, a farmer whose first and last devotion are to his home and family.

Seen in solid support of these two are James Craig, as the editor of the local newspaper, a forward looking young man who is Margaret's confidant and ally; Frances Gifford, who is beautiful as well as talented, as the new school teacher; and young Jackie "Butch" Jenkins, who is utterly delightful as Margaret's five-year-old cousin and playmate.

"Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" is a true-to-life drama, peopled with realistic characters. It is full of fine performances, full of dramatic highlights you'll long remember.

Everyone Who's Anyone Registers At The Waldorf

For more than half a century since its opening in 1893, the Waldorf-Astoria has been the unofficial "Palace Of New York". Through its portals have passed the world's famous personages. Crowned heads of Europe, newspaper headliners, petted darlings of the 400, kings of industry, together with United States Presidents, and celebrities of the world of art, letters and sciences have signed the register of the world's most fabulous hotel and enjoyed the cuisine creations of Oscar of the Waldorf.

Against this glamorous background, the producers have woven a very interesting plot, using some of the finest talent in Hollywood as the stars of the picture. The top names are Van Johnson, Lana Turner, Ginger Rogers and Walter Pidgeon, aided by such stellar support as Edward Arnold, Keenan Wynn, Phyllis Thaxter, Leon Ames, Robert Benchley, Samuel Hinds and Xavier Cugat and his Orchestra.

Miss Rogers plays the part of a glamorous Hollywood star who has evereything she wants—except love. In New York for the premier of her new picture, she meets under hilarious circumstances, a weary war-correspondent (Walter Pidgeon) who has checked in to sleep for two days before going overseas again.

At the same time an Army flier portrayed by Van Johnson, is having his last fling in New York before proceeding to Washington for an operation, which he may not survive. His chances are good, but he has no will to live. It is when he wants to make his will that he first meets Bunny Smith, (Lana Turner), the public stenographer who was born on Tenth Avenue and aspires to a Park Avenue penthouse.

These two couples provide the exciting romantic themes of "Week End At The Waldorf", and around them is woven a story of intrigue, involving Edward Arnold as a shady operator in oil stocks.

Nova is the driest state in the United States, with 8.81 inches of annual rainfall.

Woman In The Window" Has ovel Dramatic Twist

n unexpected crisis in the of a quiet professor and a tiful woman is strikingly de- ed in "The Woman In The dow", which is now playing he Seville United Theatre, Friday night.

arring Joan Bennett and Ed- G. Robinson, the film story ly recounts the dramatic ex- nces of a psychologist who is d to kill a man in self de- fence. But the circumstances are such that they would inevitably wreck his career and drag down his feminine partner if the authorities should ever find out about it.

Accordingly, he takes steps to remove the body, and leaves no clues which would involve himself, or the woman. But he reckons without the persistence of the police, and without the fact that the dead man had a bodyguard who is not above shrewd blackmail.

The mounting tension, as the two victims watch the police net closing in about them, and at the same time try to deal with the blackmailer, makes the film unusually exciting, and affords both stars exceptional opportunities to display their acting talents.

Raymond Massey heads the supporting cast as a district attorney who, as a close friend of Robinson's keeps him tortured by informing him of the progress the authorities are making with the case. Dan Duryea, Edmond Breon and other well-known players have prominent roles.

Between them they follow a trail of clues that lead to some strange places, including a night club where Deanna has to pose as an entertainer.

Other members of the cast include Ralph Bellamy, David Bruce, Allane Jenkins, George Coulouris, Dan Duryea, Edward Everett Horton, Patricia Morrison, Elizabeth Patterson, Maria Palmer and Jacqueline de Witt.

The title is not unusual and while all the players are excellent they are not outstanding stars. However, a happy combination, rarely achieved, of clever writing plus exceptional acting and inspired direction by Richard Wallace has made "Kiss and Tell" the finest comedy of the season. In justice to this priceless comedy I feel I should urge you to see it. It is really tops."

C.A.T. Workshop Plans To Stage Children's Play

A treat is in store for young Montrealers when Hans Anderson's "The Emperor's New Clothes" comes to Victoria Hall, for a matinee and evening performance on Friday, May 3rd.

A comedy phantasy, interwoven with the delightfully imaginative quality that marks all of Anderson's fairy tales, "The Emperor's New Clothes" will be staged by the Children's Workshop, sponsored by the Canadian Art Theatre.

Joy Thomson has designed a brilliant and colourful setting and is directing the play. Attractive costumes by D'Anjou and specially selected music will be added features of the production.

This will be the second in a series of children's plays planned by the Canadian Art Theatre, and a very low admission price has been arranged in order to encourage school-children to attend.

Deanna Durbin In Mystery-Comedy Hit

"Lady on a Train", Deanna Durbin's newest picture, is now playing at the York United Theatre, until Friday night. The film, a comedy mystery, is based on an original story by Leslie Charteris, the creator of the popular "Saint" series.

The picture is a complete departure from previous roles played by Deanna Durbin, and is another step in the plan to give this star a varied program of pictures.

Although Deanna's role in the film is essentially an acting one, she sings three songs — "Silent Night", "Night And Day" and "Give Me A Little Kiss".

In the new film, Deanna portrays an amateur sleuth. An avid reader of detective and mystery stories, she sees a murder committed as she is arriving in New York on a train. She sees the victim, but does not see the assailant. However, she is determined to run down the murderer, even though the victim, a wealthy man is reported to have died, an accidental death.

When the police refuse to listen to her story, she enlists the aid of a popular mystery story writer.

SHORTS on SPORTS

By George Cochrane

Largely through the medium of our sports column in The Monitor, big brother of The Examiner, we are carrying on quite an argument over the school's football rules. Of course, football is more than a little out of season but, chees, ain't it fun to be unconventional?

The whole thing started when we got to talking with George Jones, publicity director of the Q.R.F.U., sports editor of the Verdun Guardian and member of the public relations staff of M.D. 4. Jonesy told us that the Q.R.F.U. is planning to ask the schools to modify their Americanised rules because they have been finding that a graduate of high school football has too hard a time orienting himself to the Canadian Rugby Union rules.

We quoted Mr. Jones and the result was that Jack Danaher, Catholic High student who accasionally pens a High Spots in Sports column for The Monitor, rushed into print with an enthusiastic defence of the school game.

George Jones, after reading the somewhat vitriolic Danaher effort, decided that he'd better explain himself. So he wrote us a guest column, that appeared in The Monitor last week, in which he said that the four downs rule and unlimited interference had done the high school game more harm than good.

This week we received a reply from five West Hill students, Glenn Douglas, Bob Gibson, Bill Rattray, Bob Iredale and Ross Mackay, praising the high school code and commenting that maybe it wouldn't be a bad idea if the C.R.U. adopted a few rule changes. In addition, Mons. Danaher, never one to shirk a verbal battle, rose to new literary heights in answer to George E. Jones' column

The Danaher comments, and the West Hill lads' letter, can be found in yesterday's edition of The Monitor. But where this is going to end is what is beginning to worry us. The khaki-clad Jones lad is planning to invite Danaher and the Red Raider larrigans to a bull session in The Monitor office so that the matter can be threshed out.

We thought that Examiner readers might like to get in on the discussion and we hereby invite them to put their ideas on the subject down on a piece of paper and mail 'em in. We'll be glad to publish them here.

TO BOX MAY 3

The burly brute pictured above is St. Leo's Academy's Frankie Creaghan. He'll be boxing in the 160 pounds class in the Academy's sixth annual boxing show which takes place at the Olivier avenue school's gym on the night of Friday, May 3. Creaghan took the honors in the 160-pound class in last year's Golden Gloves tournament but had to miss this year's tourney because of a bum ankle. He'll be in tip-top shape for May 3 though.

Watch for results of this Tuesday's games.

BADMINTON

The Westmount Club entertained a team from Southwestern "Y" last week, and won 23 games while losing 13. Total point scores showed Westmount 337, Southwestern, 254.

The executive are going ahead with plans for the Open Inter-"Y" Badminton Tournament to be held April 24 on our floor.

DRAMATIC ACTOR

Byron Barr is one of the few young screen actors who prefers dramatic roles to romantic parts. His first lead is in Paramount's "Tokyo Rose" for Producers Bill Pine and Bill Thomas.

Four Teams Enter Senior Loop

Two Others May Join Circuit

Four clubs stated their intentions of definitely entering teams in the senior section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League at an organization meeting held Monday night at Victoria Hall. The quartet are Ozzie Dalzell's Royals, Norm Harris' Swans, the Police and Fire Department, along with an unnamed nine sponsored by Doug Alexander.

It is expected that at least two more clubs will come into the fold before the season starts. Hank Henson represented the Unity Club at the meeting but was not sure if a club would be entered in the loop or not. Artie Mann, who managed the Dodgers for the past few years, also attended the meeting but stated that he would not have the time to run a team this season. At the same time Mann offered his equipment and help to anyone who would take over the club. A discussion after the meeting revealed that Kev Kennedy and Logue McDonald might take up Mann's offer.

Two other prospects for the section were teams to be organized by Eddie Baylis and Bert Read. Both organizations were notified of the meeting but failed to have any representation.

NEXT MEETING

The next meeting has been called for Tuesday night, April 23, at Victoria Hall, and this will also be the deadline for accepting teams. Any team wishing to enter the league will have to have representation at this session in order to obtain a franchise.

Attending Monday night's meeting were Ozzie Dalzell and Don Haher, Royals; Sgt. Williams and Nichols, Police and Fire; Gordie Williams and Bob Thompson, Swans; Ray Binmore and Warren Chippindale, representing Doug Alexander's club; Hank Hensen, Unity, and Art Mann, Kev Kennedy and Logue McDonald.

The entry of the Police and Fire Department to the loop is an innovation but the cops claim they have a fairly strong team and they should be a distinct asset to the league. The Royals and Swans are old timers in the loop, having played in the pre-war days.

The league opening is slated for Monday, May 20, with the schedule coming to a close around July 18. Four or five teams will participate in the post season playoffs.

One of the first exhibition games of the season is slated for this afternoon (Friday, April 19) at Westmount Park with the Royals meeting Thrift Stores.

5 Teams Enter Local Bantam Ball League

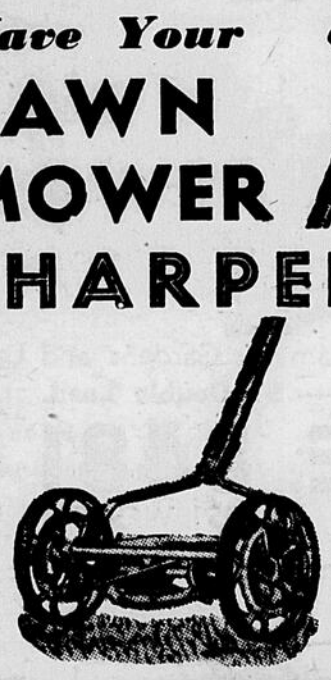

Five teams have entered the bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League this season. The first game will take place on Monday, April 29, at Westmount Park with Dave Ross' Panthers taking on Phil Martin's St. Leo's nine. The other three clubs in the section are Gordie Fehr's Hurricanes, Charlie Baillie's Dodgers and Ray Baillie's Cardinals.

The first four teams in the section standing at the end of the schedule will participate in the post-season playoffs.

The following is the bantam schedule:

Mon. Apr. 29, WP. No. 4, 4.00 p.m., Panthers vs. St. Leo's; Thu. May 2, WP. No. 3, 4.00 p.m. Hurricanes vs. Dodgers; Fri. May 3, WP. No. 4, 4.00 p.m., Cardinals vs. Dodgers; Sat. May 4, WP. Back on the JOB!

OF the 2,500 Bell employees who enlisted for war service, over 1,700 are back on the job. They have been given refresher courses to bring them up to date or to help them recapture their old skills.

Ninety per cent of those returning want to continue in telephone work. Eventually, we expect thirty-seven per cent of our entire male staff to be veterans of World War II.

There's lots of work waiting for them. Our big job right now is to clean up delayed orders and we are losing no time. No less than 75,000 telephones have been installed since V-E Day.

Telephone instruments will soon be in better supply. Central office apparatus is the real problem. It takes time to make and instal this highly complicated apparatus. That's why applicants in areas where switchboards are full will still have to wait some time for service.

We promise it won't be a minute longer than necessary.

ST. LEO'S SPORTS

by DICK GRIFFIN

St. Leo's Academy's sixth Annual Boxing Show will be held this year on Friday, May 3rd at 8.00 p.m. in the school hall. Plans for this fistic event are now near completion and already formidable opposition has been secured for the Academy leather pushers. Included in the line up of visiting fighters are a number of boys who participated in the recent Golden Gloves tournament.

Top ranking officials like Dennis White, supervisor of boxing in the province, Mickey McGowan, well known referee, and Bert Light, will lend their services to help put over the show.

Last year's show drew a capacity attendance and one that was well rewarded with viewing as fine an amateur boxing show as could be dished up in local boxing circles. This year's affair not only shows promise of matching last year's success but chances are bright that it will exceed it both in the point of attendance and calibre of fights. It would occasion no surprise if the S.R.O. sign will have to be dusted off for the occasion.

Coach Andy McGillis will break in a lot of new youngsters in this year's show and is hoping for the best from his promising rookie crop. Peter McMullen, Martin McKenna and Donald Tinnigh are a trio of newcomers that are displaying smart form in training. Frank Creaghan, Dave Manning, Mickey Bourassa and Morre Barre are four experienced boys who can carry their weight with the best in the amateur ranks and this group will feature the card.

Joe Flannagan, of Central Y.-M.C.A., Bert Light, of Westmount Y, and George Wilkins, of the Kinsmen Boxing Club, are the three principal boxing coaches who have promised to have their boys invade St. Leo's on the evening of May 3. They have advised the Westmounters to clear the deck for action at 8.00 p.m. sharp.

RINGSIDE COMMENT

The semi-final bout of the card will feature hard hitting Dave Manning of the Academy against Harold McKeowan of Central Y.-M.C.A. McKeowan recently won a smart win at the Canadian Legion show in the Verdun Auditorium in the 135 pounds class.

For the first time in six years, reserved seats will be sold for the show. This move is being made to look after the demand of those who wish to be assured of a seat close to the fistic front.

Former St. Leo's pupils in boxing did very well in the Golden Glove tournament, winning seven bouts and losing three. Ramon Orr a product of St. Leo's boxing went on to the finals where he found himself more outlucked than outfought. Billy Harold and Johnnie O'Meara are two other former academites who distinguished themselves by their smart performance in the Golden Gloves. Frank Creaghan will again fight at the 160 pound weight, which was the weight he won his 1945 Golden Glove honors. Frank has been hampered by an ankle injury in training but he is confident that he will be at his peak for the show.

Elementary Schools End 1946 Basketball Season

The Westmount Protestant Elementary Schools' Basketball League wound up its 1946 season in King's gym last week when the champion Roslyn senior and junior outfits paid the Western avenue school a visit and split a double bill with coach Bob Putnam's teams. King's seniors won 8-3 while their juniors lost 11-4. Results of the two games had no effect on the league standings, except to settle second and third places in both sections as the Roslynites had clinched both the junior and senior titles prior to last week's tilts.

To celebrate their winning both the basketball championships, as well as winning their section in the pee wee hockey league, Roslyn students were granted a whole day holiday last Friday.

Only Two Teams In Midget Loop

As only two teams have entered the midget "B" section of the Westmount Municipal Softball League, the two clubs will play an interlocking schedule with a couple of the bantam nines.

Dougie Kerr's Corvettes and Richard Lord's Tornados are the only midget "B" entries. Not only will the Corvettes and Tornados play each other but they will also meet the Panthers and St. Leo's nines of the bantam section in interlocking games. The results will only count in the midget "B" section, that is, if the Panthers and St. Leo's teams lost to the Corvettes or Tornados, the loss will not be chalked up against their bantam record.

The midget "B" schedule will get underway on Wednesday, May 1 with Corvettes and Tornados meeting in the initial tilt.

A complete midget "B" schedule is as follows:

Wed. May 1, WP. No. 3, 4.00 p.m., Corvettes vs. Tornados; Sat. May 4, WP. No. 4, 9.30 a.m. Tornados vs. Corvettes; Wed. May 8, WP. No. 3, 4.00 p.m., Panthers vs. Corvettes; Fri. May 10, WP. No. 4, 4.00 p.m., Tornados vs. St. Leo's; Sat., May 11, WP. No. 4, 9.30 a.m., Corvettes vs. Tornados; Wed. May 15, WP. No. 3, 4.00 p.m., St. Leo's vs. Corvettes; Thu. May 23, WP. No. 4, 4.00 p.m. Tornados vs. Panthers.

Sammy Angott was the last light-champion recognized by both New York and the NBA. He announced his retirement in 1942 and New York crowned Beau Jack when he knocked out Tippy Larkin. Jack then lost the title, regained it, and lost it again in battles with Montgomery. Angott thought better of retiring and when he defeated Slugger White, he was again recognized as champion by the NBA. He lost it to Juan Zurita. Williams knocked out Zurita in two rounds at Mexico City last April.

Biography And

America. In this capacity he had oversight of the evacuation of New York by British Troops, and the Loyalists in 1783. In 1786 he was again appointed Governor-General of Canada with the title of Lord Dorchester. His second term of office lasted till 1796.

His justice and kindliness endeared him to the recently conquered French Canadians, and did much to keep them neutral during the American War of Independence. He ordered the Codification of the Civil Law of the Province. He disapproved of the Constitutional Act of 1791, as he did of a provision tending to create an hereditary aristocracy in the new Colony.

A man of arbitrary and autocratic methods was, perhaps, the best sort of man to guide the destinies of Canada during the difficult and dangerous times of his two administrations, for he kept the pepole loyal to Britain, while the French Revolution was threatening the foundations of Governments elsewhere.

He retired to private life in 1796, first to his estate in Kempshot, and later to Stubbings, near Maidenhead, England, where he died suddenly in 1808. His wife, Lady Mary Howard, third daughter of the Earl of Effingham (of Armada fame) who survived him, had borne him nine sons and two daughters.
