A regular practice of the Stars of Notre-Dame was held Friday evening in Notre-Dame School auditorium. The parents had been invited to attend and see for themselves the progress accomplished by the group.

Unfortunately only a few were present. The master of ceremonies, Mr. Campeau, gave a short resume of the activities since the foundation in 1964. He mentioned the great help and encouragement received from the School Board, the local merchants and other persons.

Some members of the committee having resigned, a new committee was formed. President, Mrs. S. Campeau; Vice-president, Mr. G. Campeau; Secretary, Mr. G. Parent; Treasurer, Mrs. J. McCallum; Directors, Mrs. Debraze, Parent and Renaud.

The committee took this opportunity to honor two majorettes for having attended all practices since the start of activities in November 1964; they are Johanne Côté and Maureen Campeau. Also in the leader, Miss Anne Campeau was honored for services rendered as trainer and for not having missed a practice since she took the post.

Those present then witnessed the ability of the group will be demonstrated through a demonstration; all were in accord in recognizing the progress made in the routine and in the marching of the girls. Mr. Tessier, who is training a group who will become drummers, said he is very pleased with the results so far. He insisted on the importance of attending all sessions of practice for absences from one session degrades the whole group. He asked the cooperation of the parents to see that their children attend regularly. Our town should be proud of this group.

On Sunday evening, part of the group (24) went to St. Stanislas, where they had been invited by the organizers of the annual winter festival. They formed the guard of honor for the queen of the festival. Later they gave a demonstration of their ability to the gathering which filled the hall to capacity; they received well deserved applause.

Congratulations to this group of youngsters and it is hoped they will keep up the good work. The citizens are invited to encourage them in all their activities. It is hoped that other groups will sponsor a few dances and other events to gather the amount needed to pay for the musical instruments which will no doubt add further to the Stars of Notre-Dame.

Unusually High Water Near Athelstan

It is many years since we have had such high water in the month of February. The only way out of this village where you would not have to go through any, was via the Ridge Road and then No. 52 to Huntingdon.

Moonlight Lake acquired proportions not seen in the summer time when it would really be enjoyed, and those who got a kick out of riding snow sleds on it will now have to wait until it has ice of a safe thickness again.

The river road from Huntingdon, portions of which was under water early, rose rapidly after three o'clock and by evening it was not safe for cars to try and drive through it. However some did and had to secure assistance before they could get through.

At a time like that it seems that those responsible for this road and the Lost Nation should take steps to close same with a sign advising an alternative route not only for the protection of people who use this road daily, we have to think of strangers. In fact some that were marooned on Friday evening were coming from Montreal. Let us not wait until something happens to shake us out of any indifference we may have in this respect. To close the door after the horse is gone is too late.

Huntingdon Beaver Cub Pack Activities

Parent's Night took place in December with a full Pack present along with four leaders and 32 parents and friends. The Cubs, after completing a short meeting, performed a sketch, along with a Christmas poem and songs. While the entire gathering joined in singing "Silent Night" each Cub presented his mother with a gift, made over the previous weeks. At the close of the evening refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Last Saturday the Pack enjoyed a Nature Ramble.

Approximately three miles were covered with each Six gathering a variety of objects. At the end of the Ramble they were greeted by a Leader and Mother at the Athelstan Presbyterian Church where all enjoyed a lunch and drink. All returned home safe and satisfied but rather weary.

Then entire Pack wishes to thank Mr. Dan Tully, the Board of Managers of the Church, Mr. Allan Stewart and Mrs. Carl Levers for the kindness extended them.

Further Contributions To March of Dimes Campaign

Some areas around Huntingdon experienced some flood conditions on Thursday Friday and Saturday of last week.

Following the big snowstorm which blanketed the countryside with many inches of snow and then drifted this into high banks, a mild spell came followed by rain. The rain rapidly melted the snow and added to its moisture until it was running off the fields into the low spots and into rivers. In some cases this run-off either swelled the rivers, or flooded out areas of land until the water flowed over highways and roads in the area to make them impassable. Large chunks of ice were carried by the flowing water and some of these were deposited on the roads and highways so as to block them and make them dangerous.

Snowplows from the Roads Dept. were sent out to Highway — just above Kensington to clear away ice in this part

Flooding Conditions Subside As Weather Grows Colder

The Athelstan area was another place when flooding caused difficulties.

However, the rain took the huge snowbanks down quite fast, but there is still plenty more to go. Temperatures have lowered somewhat now and the rivers has subsided too. The Chateaugay River became quite high in that part which flows through Huntingdon but it stayed within its banks in this area. It is several winters since we had such a volume of snow and Winter is not over yet. We could have several more quite bad storms before spring comes to clear away ice in this part

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER 1966.

Requests for special prayers have come from many lands, this year as final arrangements are made for the observance of the World Day of Prayer. As has been customary in recent years the first Friday of Lent, February 25th, 1966, has been set aside for services which will unite Christian women in 150 countries and areas.

Services in the Hemmingford area will be held in St. Andrew's United Church at 3:30 p.m. under the convener-ship of the United Church Women's Group. It is expected that women from all Christian groups in the area will participate and details of the service and details of the service are being sent to the Anglican Church, Presbyterian Church, Catholic Church, the Explorers, C.G.I.T., the Cubs and the Scouts.

In preparing the service to be followed this year the committee, composed of Scottish Women in Edinburgh have kept in mind the needs of churches round the world. Africa, for instance, asks special guidance for those in authority in the face of that continent's rapid emergence into independence.

Asia's women request intercession for those who may be confused by the difference between democracy and totalitarianism. They pray also for freedom in education and the growing threat to individual liberty in all countries will be curbed.

The old and the lonely are a prime concern of the women of the British Isles and continental Europe, while Latin American women have asked that prayers be said for youth who are questioning their Christian principles, and for the church which must find new ways to approach many complex social problems.

Offerings made by those who attend the World Day of Prayer services are divided among a number of Christian projects in many lands with special emphasis on literature, Bible Societies, the Refugee services of the world Council of Churches, Braille books for the blind and other areas of Christian work receive grants.

When Canada first joined the World Day of Prayer in 1921 offerings for the day were under $400.00. In 1965 more than $64,000.00 was distributed through the Women's Inter-Council of Canada which is responsible for World Day of Prayer services in this country.

Our congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Michael Sauve of Venice, California, on the arrival of their son, Raymond. For the information of all his friends Leo and his family are now living in Iowa.

Presbyterian W.M.S. Meeting

The ladies of the senior W.M.S. met in the church hall Tuesday, under the leadership of Miss Mabel Elvidge. After the devotional and business periods a report on Presbyterianism was given by Miss Elvidge. Although no one from Ormstown was able to attend the Presbyterian due to the season's severest storm, a report was read through the kindness of a friend in Montreal who typed her own personal report and sent it along to the President.

We regret to report that Mr. Sam Cullen is confined to his bed for a few days, having injured his back on Saturday.

BACK AT HOME BASE

The gossip column is a new addition to the O.H.S. news. Perhaps, it will allow you a better insight as to what really goes on inside O.H.S. B.B. and H.W. are competing for the curling championship. We're all in suspense! Who will finally put the biggest hole in the ice? The verdict is yours. Simply visit the curling rink on Monday, or Tuesday night, and see these two pros at work. Decide for yourself — who the champ will be.

There was quite an uproar in the Grade 10 classroom when a few boys gaily flung numerous fish about the room and also placed them in the girls schoolbags. Our home-room teacher also joined in the fun. Since our biology experiment was over, one lad decided they were of little use and proceeded to cut one in half, much to the disgust of the ladies who were even more disgusted when the fish head swam about for at last fifteen minutes.

A certain french specialist allowed his nickname for another of the teachers, to slip. We weren't aghast at his mistake though. "Maggie," wasn't exactly a french sound.

A cross-eyed lass stepped boldly out of Grade two's line to acclaim, "My you're handsome, Mrs. Winter."

would be lower. To summarize these remarks, the autonomy of the confessional schools should be respected. I would support neutral schools. A new system of school taxation is required. A new method should be established to teach French in English schools and vice versa. Regional schools, in some areas, are being set up too rapidly with not enough thought being given to utilizing the same site for all pupils of the district, thus benefiting the pupils, lowering the capital cost and lessening the transportation problem. ST. ANDREW'S U.C.W.
 The monthly meeting of St. Andrew's United Church Women was held in the Church Hall, on Wednesday evening February 9th. This meeting was open to all ladies of the community and proved most enjoyable to all who attended. After devotions, led by Mrs. A. Kyle and Mrs. P. Pederson a short business period followed. A list of the dates of events during the coming year, as set forth by the Executive, were brought to everyone's attention and then postponed, they are the St. Patrick's Tea — March 12, (should be snow bound, on that date then it will be held on March 19th), Strawberry Social — June 24th, Turkey Supper — October 20th, Bazaar — November 26th. The programme booklets were distributed to all members present. Those members not at the meeting may obtain their booklet from the Programme Committee. A superb job has been done on this informative booklet and it will prove most helpful to all members.

The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Hollis Stevenson, who spoke on his recent trip to Haiti, during which he practised dentistry in the Methodist Mission centres there, illustrating his talk with slides.

Among the many interesting details brought out by Dr. Stevenson was the fact that in Haiti there are two distinct classes of people, the very well-to-do and the illiterate whose earnings barely reach $70 a year. The three necessities of life which the missionaries are giving these people, said Dr. Stevenson are food, education and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

At the close of an interesting evening, refreshments were served by Mrs. H. Warner, Mrs. P. Pederson, Mrs. A. Kyle and Mrs. G. Clark.

DAHLIUS WHATNOTS

By Mrs. W. R. Perry

I've known of men in two groups who aspired to pastoral work and mastered difficulties before succeeding. These were week-day workers who ministered acceptably to congregations on Sunday and holidays, and there were men who, in middle life gave up their secular jobs and began studying for the Ministry, proving successful pastors. Men in both categories should be encouraged in their spiritual aims. In view of the shortage of young men offering themselves as candidates, think women should be eligible for the Ministry.

Even St. Paul would have had to admit that, many modern women are the equals of men in intellectual and persuasive powers, and in missionary zeal.

I like those non-conformist words, minister and ministry, but I could wish to substitute the Anglican word — Warden, for Manager.

It is essential that the eldership be retained. It is Apostolic, it is one of the strongest planks in the democracy of the Christian Church, and it and Mrs. Fergus Moore and family had made many friends in this locality. Deep sympathy is extended to her family.

The U.C.W. held their monthly meeting last Wednesday at the United Church Hall. Seventeen ladies were present. Mrs. Boothmore ably conducted the program. Mrs. Donald Robinson and Mrs. E. A. Robinson were joint hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Graham of Ormstown entertained 12 members of her family to a Franklin Centre. Mr. Duncan was attending special meetings at Macdonald College.

Wedding

Oswald-Bayard

The marriage of Margaret Helen, daughter of Mr and Mrs Charles Edouard Bayard of Huntingdon, to Mathew Oswald of Csatalla, Hungary, took place recently in St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon. The Rev. Msgr. J. A. David officiated. Miss Gilberte Demers was at the organ and Mrs. F. X. Pinto was soloist. Mr. Daniel Galigne acted as best man for Mr. Oswald.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chiffon velvet fashioned on Empire lines with a floating floor length panel gracefully draped from the shoulders. Her veil of tulle illusion was held in place by a tiny pill box type crown of white chiffon velvet. She carried a nosegay of red roses.

Miss Tammy Booth, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She was dressed in a floor length frock of turquoise chiffon velvet and carried a tiny

A buffet reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where decorations were carried out in white mums and red carnations.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald left on a motor trip to the New England States. The bride chose for travelling an aqua woolen dress with a grey fitted mink-trimmed coat and matching accessories. The couple will reside in Huntingdon.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Booth and family of Orillia, Ont., Mr. and Mrs. Willie Murphy and Laurent Murphy of Beauharnois, Miss Juliette and Mr. Louis René Bayard of St. Timothée, Mrs. J. R. Priest and Miss Susan Furtenbaker of Hemmingford.

This and That In Town

One hears, sees, reads a great deal about tractionized snow sleds these days. The machines are manufactured and sold under a variety of trade names and vary in size, power, style, etc. quite considerably. There are probably upwards of twenty in Huntingdon, a dozen in Ormstown, about the same in Hemmingford and perhaps closer to fifty in Valleyfield. Merchants predict these sleds will become as popular for winter sport as boats are now for summer sport. In short, within a few years there will be a sled for every ten families. At first, one may doubt this prediction, but to be thoroughly convinced all one has to do is cross the border to Chateaugay, N.Y., a town less than half the size of Huntingdon or Ormstown, and try to count the number of machines scurrying around Chateaugay Lake on a week-end. A fair number of the machines there were purchased on this side of the border too, because in the snow sled business, Canada is ahead of our neighbours to the south.

At Chateaugay, the machines are running around day and night. The road-bed of the former Rutland Railroad is ideal for snowmobile buffs and we're told one can zoom over to Burke, Malone, Ellenburg or any number of nearby centres in less time than it would require to go by car. Until this year, it was even possible to travel to Vermont.

In Chateaugay, too, snow machine races are a big thing. The machines appear quite ordinary and innocent, in fact they don't look any different than the ones offered for sale anywhere, but they're souped-up jobs that can do up to 60 m.p.h. and the races are really something to see. It's more like glorified car racing; the starting point, at most races, is wide enough for up to twenty machines, then it narrows right down to about one-third of the width and it's really something to see the gaily-painted sleighs converge in a roar and jockey for position on the narrower track.

Which all leads up to the point we want to make. Did you know the grand-pappy of all these various makes of tractionized sleds is none other than our own M. Marshall Hooker who is perhaps just about the best machinist living today on either side of the border? That's right, Marshall made these machines for a private company long before they were mass-produced as a sports-sled to be sold to anyone with the necessary folding cash.

And the grand-pappy of the machines sold here, there and everywhere isn't too impressed with the average one on sale today, either. Which brings us back to Chateaugay, N.Y. and the border towns in general where snow machines are really popular. Marshall is well known to the more serious sportsmen and especially the racing buffs, for it's he they turn to when they graduate to the devil-may-care, bust-a-leg-or-arm type who have the bug for racing. Marshall does a thing here, another there and changes such-and-such gear and the end result is a bomb that fairly makes your hair stand on end when it's opened up.

Well, so much for that sport, but we did want you to know the whole thing's nothing new for one man and asking him if he wants a ride on one gives him about as big a charge as asking him if he'd like a glass of water.

Did you ever see snow disappear as quickly as it did last week? At the first of the week, the drifts were so high one thought there would be snow around until the middle of August. Then a week ago today (Wednesday) the weather began moderating, rain followed and by Friday afternoon it began to look as if spring was around the corner. Saturday, too, was mild and one had to look around to find snow. The sudden thaw and rain caused the ice in some parts of the Chateaugay River to break up: on Route 4 between the Holbrook Bridge and Trout River there was real trouble when the ice jammed near the bridge causing the water to back up and flow across the road. Huge chunks of ice floated down the highway and snowplows and graders had to be used to clear the road when the river finally did get back between its banks the next day. Meanwhile, confusion reigned: Ossie Watson, well-known farmer, couldn't get from his house to the barn because of the high water; Dan Wilson, a teacher at Huntingdon High living on the former Steve Quenneville farm on Route 4, got a good soaking when he decided to leave his car on high ground and walk to his home through the fields... he'd almost made it when the ice jammed again and he was caught in water waist-deep (this may not sound dangerous, but don't forget the cakes of ice were swirling past a mile a minute). Funny thing, we all thought Old Man Winter had lost much of his punch in recent years, but lately he's been showing us he's got muscle left yet in his old arms. Then that wet snow Sunday afternoon... made driving treacherous.

So much for the weather, except for the fact that a Huntingdon lady had one of those blue flowers blooming on her front lawn Sunday and in Mrs. Crawford's Howick column she reports that a pansy was in full bloom in that town the same day.

Congratulations to Miss Nina Caldwell, a Huntingdon high student in the graduating class, who won the semi-finals in the annual McGill Alumnae Public Speaking Contest at Ormstown High last Thursday. (See elsewhere).

The recently-revived Huntingdon Citizens' Band will make their first public appearance in almost five years Saturday night at the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena Rink Romp. Safety Sam and his executive of the County War Memorial are hoping to see friends from Dundee, Hemmingford, Howick, Ormstown, Valleyfield and other centers of our Chateaugay Valley at the Rink Romp: fun for all and admission is only three dollars PER FAMILY. If you haven't been to the County War Memorial Arena yet this year, please come along Saturday night (you won't be sorry). It will be a stoupenous snow as Ed Sullivan says.

And television: a friend remarked the other day she felt like throwing up (her arms) in despair. Seems she reads about a movie to be shown and flips the dust off the picture book starter button and settles down to enjoy the movie that appeared to millions back in a different era. Then the announcer proclaims a short message from the sponsor, Canadian Field Marshall Belectric, and from then on for every five minutes or so there's an interruption from a manufacturer of detergent soap and detergent makers saying that their product is the greatest. After learning that green olive soap will keep you smelling better longer you're told five minutes later that just is the only soap that kills body odors and makes you shine all over. But if you really want to sparkle you have to use Ride. After this brain-washing you've either vowed never to use soap again in your life or you do like more and more people are doing every time they want to see a movie: you go to the nearest theatre.

Meat is up. Meat is up. Bread is going to go up. Costs are up. Now ask Frank F. Farmer how much more per cwt. meat is setting for mink than he was five years ago.

Huntingdon will have ANOTHER band in the very near future. A number of instruments, the best at that, have already been purchased. We're referring to Notre-Dame majorettes and we go on record as predicting success in march tempo.

News reached us this week that friend Chet Oney was hospitalized and in an oxygen tent for a few days recently but has made a full recovery and is again enjoying life in Florida.

Following up last week's news of Myles Flynn's accident, we report that he is still a patient in the Montreal General where his badly burned right leg has been placed in a cast.

And one of Ormstown's better lady drivers says the road south of the border on Saturday zigged while she was zigging and the tree just stayed in the middle. It was 'fini' for the red hard-top but for once we're sure glad you have a hard head, friend.

IT'S HAPPENED! Here at The Gleaner we thought we were pretty dense when we got stuck with a phony twenty recently and we were downright disappointed that the source who passed it onto us didn't spot it as funny money, but guess who got stuck with one on Monday: No, not our bankers, but it was CHIEF JOFFRE L'HEUREUX. Ho boy, we'll bet if he traces down the guy who gave it to him, it'll cost the person twenty ONE DOLLAR bills.

Safety Sam took it on the chin Monday night and learned the hard way: seems Jon (President of Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena Ltd.) was at the Arena while a hockey game was being played. In true NHL style, a couple of players got into a fight. The Prez got onto the ice to break up the fun just as one lad let go a terrific swing. You guessed it: the other player ducked and Safety Sam took it full on the jaw. Ouch. And ouch again at the County Hospital when they moved his jaw around to see if anything was fractured. Fortunately, only Safety Sam's ego, and that wasn't completely shattered because we hear rumors now he's thinking about challenging Cassius Clay: a simple case of the greatest vs THE GREATEST.

We've all heard about pipe smoking contests here and there and for the past couple of years, since Huntingdon has become known as the Corn Cob Pipe centre of Canada, we've been wondering why Dave (Dry Cleaner King Cob) hasn't started one in Oortown. Well, he has, and anyone interested in joining the Corn Cob Pipe Club of Huntingdon can get all the info from that man-about-town. Dave foresees pipe smoking contests (not necessarily corn cob pipes) from time to time with suitable prizes for the winners and a real big smoke-in at the '66 Huntingdon Fair. There's such a club in

CURLING Bill Tobin

In the Saturday, February 5th play for the Chateau Trophy, one out of three local teams came out with a win to enter the finals, results were, J. Logan, Howick 12, A. Deme 3, O. McRae, Howick 12, G. Collum 7 and Merrill Smith 13 over Dr. St. Onge, Valleyfield 5. The finals for the trophy will take place on Saturday, February 26th, (not the 24th as I had previously mentioned) but more about that next week.

If you happen to be driving along the North side of the Chateaugay river, between Howick and Ormstown on Friday and Saturday of this week, don't be alarmed if you see a group of people running up and down the river ice sweeping like mad, their reason is this, The Chateaugay Valley Historical Society is running an invitational bonspiel at Allan's Corners, and get this, they are using the curling irons I spoke about in last week's column. Men will be delivering the 60 lb. iron and the weaker sex the 40 lb. ones. Did I say weaker sex?

I have noticed a number of curlers, both male and female experiencing difficulty when delivering an out-turn. In all but a few cases they hold the handle in a straight line with the skip, as you would do when delivering an in-turn, this causes the elbow to be raised up and away from the body and the stone to be delivered well off broom line. If you are one of these curlers, I offer this tip, try to use a cross handle pointing to the left at about a 60 degree angle, and remember, the thumb rests lightly on top of the handle, and use your fingers only. Now, one last check before you deliver. See that your stone is on line with the skip's broom. The only time your stone should be bisected by the center line is when the skip is holding his broom on that line, move your stone slightly to the right or left as required, also remember to face your body towards the broom by adjusting your body left or right. OK now back-swing, let go on broom. Yep there's an improvement already.

Closing note, and the editor should like this one, - The constant drop of water wears away the hardest stone. The constant gnaw of Tower masticates the toughest stone; The constant wooing lover carries off the blushing maid. And the constant advertiser is the one who gets the trade.

Montreal and members have a smoking good time. Dave figures we can make them look like amateurs and even foresee such a contest at Expo '67. South of the border, he says, there are annual pipe smoking contests for the weaker sex and the winner of the men's event gets a bonus of a kiss from the winner of the ladies' do. So, mild or mildy, if you think your pipe is contest material and you want to join up, give Dave a buzz.

False teeth are dentures, manure is fertilizer and on and on so we weren't really too surprised at the Hemmingford lady who asked for a pink-colored plastic place des arts to match the rest of the decor in her new powder room. AND she did it with a straight face.

And congratulations to Oortown's Kennedy Scott to whom adjudicators awarded the Valleyfield Toastmasters' Club annual trophy in that city Monday evening. (See elsewhere).

We're advised that the Beaver Cub Pack will conduct a door-to-door sale of home baked cookies on February 22nd. Proceeds are in aid of the Retarded Children's School so, ladies, forget baking for a few days and help these youngsters in their worthwhile endeavour.

Sincere sympathy to the parents of Marcel and Jacques Richer, two young Riviere Beaudette brothers killed Friday night when struck by a car while walking along Highway Two.

A timely Reminder - Don't take chances with the patrol Police in New York State. We know of two Ormstown drivers who were accused of fast driving on highway No. 11 on Saturday - One was doing 62 miles per hour - the other - much faster. The speed limit on the state highways is 50 miles per hour, and apparently means - 50 per hour.

That Theatre Night we mentioned last week, is not being sponsored by the Chateaugay Valley Association of Retarded Children, but for them. The sponsors are the Dewittville W. I. Members. Tickets are available from the Dewittville W. I. who are presently looking for your support. More particulars of this event later. Help the Dewittville W. I. in their worthy effort to support the retarded children.

The February meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. R. Barr on Thursday afternoon with an attendance of eleven members and three visitors. Mrs. Bert Rennie, President, conducted the meeting which opened with the singing of hymn, Come to the Saviour, after which Mrs. Barr read the Scripture lesson, followed with prayer by Mrs. S. Farquhar.

Mrs. W. Currie read the minutes of the previous meeting, also "Thank you" notes from recipients of sunshine baskets.

It was decided the society send for a number of tea-spoons to be sold as one project for raising money during the year.

Many of the members worked on a quilt which was nearly completed, while others embroidered blocks for a second quilt.

The meeting closed by repeating The Lord's Prayer in unison after which refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Rod Arthur spent the week end in Montreal and visited Mr. Arthur who is a patient in the Royal Victoria Hospital.

As required, also remember to face your body towards the broom by adjusting your body left or right. OK now back-swing, let go on broom. Yep there's an improvement already.

Reverend John J. Durnin Retires As Pastor of Parish He Founded

Four changes in English-speaking Roman Catholic parishes in the Montreal diocese were announced on February 9th and one is of especial interest to residents of the New Erin and Huntingdon areas. The communicant reads as follows: "Topping the list is the retirement because of ill health of Reverend Father John J. Durnin, founding pastor of the Church of the Resurrection of Our Lord, Lachine. He will be replaced by Reverend Father Norman Griffin, pastor of the adjoining parish of St. Veronica, Dorval."

Reverend Father Durnin was born in New Erin and is a brother of Messrs. Richard, Bernard, James and Francis Durnin, all of this area. He received his early education at

OLD SWEAT

When will the war be over? How many shall be slain? It seems we fought like this before.

It's tyranny again. Say not—we're weaker now than then. That freedom's on the wane A million wrongs need righting. The world is dark with pain.

When will the fighting. This warring clamor cease? And will there dawn a calmer A brighter lasting peace?

O say—if truth shall save us Who march against the foe— Or evil power enslave us.

—How does the battle go? (J. Cameron).

ORDO Eglise St-Joseph - Huntingdon

Après la tempête de neige dont nous avons à peine eu le temps de nous remettre, ont suivi deux journées de temps doux et de pluie. Ceci a causé la fonte de la neige et les terres basses de la région puis vers la rivière La glace s'est brisée en plusieurs endroits de la rivière Châteauguay pour se déposer sur les rives et même sur la route en divers endroits. Ces morceaux de glace ont empêché les automobilistes de circuler jusqu'à ce que les routes à la voirie viennent débayer. L'eau sur les routes a aussi nu à certains endroits, elle était assez profonde pour atteindre le système d'ignition des automobiles. Plusieurs personnes qui s'étaient aventurées à ces endroits ont dû être remorquées.

"Suicide Lane"
Proposed Changes

Progress is something which should not and cannot be stopped. It is all about us in this country because our country is forever progressing. It has to be in order to maintain its standing in the world. Thus it is that Chateauguy is caught up in a part of this progress. It has been steadily taking place over the past decade. In earlier days when route 4 was just a small road that led through the Village of Caughnawaga and onto Old Mercier Bridge. And when Route three was not much more than a lane passing through Chateauguy Village and over the narrow bridge there. Beauharnois was a little village with narrow streets and not much more. Maple Grove was not even known. Apple orchards were to be seen along almost any road in the area. Well in those early days, one did not hear too much about traffic tie-ups at Mercier Bridge and accidents in the area of Chateauguy.

But someone, somehow found out that Chateauguy, Maple Grove and other such points had building possibilities and that they might be considered good points to build a residence out in the quiet countryside. It just seemed overnight and a building boom was on in this area. The municipal councils were getting headaches at the speed with which sewer, water and sidewalk installations were being required. They also had headaches as to where the money was to come from for all this sudden expansion. Then the schools seemed to be shrinking in size, more accommodation was needed for the influx of new pupils. In due course we have three Chateauguys welling into city proportions and requiring city administration. Highway No. 4 was the first part to be built up and to suddenly blossom into a busy highway. Mercier Bridge became an important link with the metropolis, Caughnawaga Village was a bottleneck. Progress strode forward with big feet and hands requiring more and more space for the spewing traffic that piled between Montreal, the Chateauguys, Valleyfield, Huntingdon and the Border points. At one point it was alleviated by the passenger trains that were in operation. These were withdrawn and more and more people had to find a way to reach their employment in the city daily.

It was at about this time that Route 4 through Chateauguy started to become a traffic menace. This newspaper carried many stories week after week of the accidents and killings that took place on this strip of highway. Came the time it was widened and became three lanes, the centre lane for passing only. In due time traffic did not pass in this lane, it collided with one another and the accident toll mounted. At this time it is still going on. Thus the name "Suicide Lane."

Announcement was made the past week that this three-lane portion was soon to be made into two lanes. This was hailed as a most likely improvement and a possible preventer of accidents.

This week another proposition is being put forward by the Town of Chateauguy. It proposes to alternate the third lane night and morning to accommodate traffic rush hours. In the morning hours, the centre lane would act as a two-way for traffic going into the metropolis. In the evening hours it would serve the same purpose but for the traffic coming out of Montreal. It is suggested that this operation be guided by light signals.

There is no doubt that this plan would be a great help and to the people of this area it would appear quite simple. However, it has its elements of danger and perhaps even more so during the in-between time of the morning and evening changes. Such an operation would require a traffic constable at each end of the strip of highway to direct the traffic. It would not be possible to paint double white lines, as they would not be in constant use. It would not be possible to change the passing lane lines as they would still be required. To the stranger this would be very confusing and he would likely attempt to pass into the passing lane during one of the times when it was not supposed to be used for the purpose. The accident rate could be even higher under such circumstances. It would also require signs to direct how the traffic would use each portion of the road at the stated times. But it would require extra policemen to direct at each end for safety purposes. It would possibly require a policeman on duty at this part at almost all times to check on how the traffic was running.

It would seem that dividing the highway into two with a solid white line, either double, or single, would be the less confusing and therefore much more safe for all concerned. The other alternative would be to widen the highway sufficiently to allow for two-way traffic on both sides of the centre line. It is quite possible that a bottleneck could be caused with the system of alternating. We believe that this important matter needs more thought yet before a final decision is reached. There is a very urgent need for a decision on the matter, so that no unnecessary delays should be tolerated.

Like all other towns today, it is much better that highways be made to bypass them. Service entrances can be built for the purpose of business transactions within the towns. As in Montreal, the trend is to fly over on the overpass, or expressways as they are sometimes referred to. With the possible increased influx of traffic into Montreal for Expo, this is a matter that brooks no delay.

Chateauguy News Notes

By Fergus Horsburgh

✓ The Brownsies, Guides and Rangers of the Chateauguy Division are holding a Tea and Home Bake Sale at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church Hall, next Saturday, February 19th, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. The function is in aid of Camp Funds.

✓ The picture in last week's Gleaner of the C.C.R.A. Winter Carnival showed (bottom right) Shane Kevin McDade, wearing authentic Indian beads. These handcrafts came into the possession of Shane's father, Mr. Thomas McDade, many years ago from his father, Shane's grandfather. The beads are reputed to be well in excess of one hundred years old.

✓ A meeting of the Chateauguy Valley Expo Committee will be held in Ste. Martine, next Saturday, at 2:30 p.m.

✓ Mr. Harry Grimes, chairman of St. Andrew's United Church Group Committee told me last week-end that the Mohawk Sea Scouts are badly in need of a leader. The Scouts meet every Friday evening at the Julius Richard-son School.

✓ Mr. Grimes also says that at least one and if possible two assistant Cub Masters are needed for the Cheetah Pack which meets at the Heights Recreation Club on Wednesdays at 7 p.m.

✓ Mr. Ken Smith has been appointed Commodore of the Canadian Canoe Association.

✓ The Town of Chateauguy Council has proposed to the Provincial Roads Department that "Suicide Lane" on Routes 3 and 4 between Mercier Bridge and Chateauguy be converted to alternating directional use by peak-hour traffic. See further details elsewhere in this Gleaner.

✓ Another accident occurred on Mercier Bridge last Thursday evening, during the home-coming rush. The Gleaner was unable to obtain details, but we hear that quite a traffic jam resulted from the accident. South-bound vehicles were lined up for a considerable distance.

✓ Town of Chateauguy Police report 8 minor accidents over the past week. One of these is reported elsewhere.

✓ Another item from the accident files: A Gleaner correspondent was called last week by a local resident, asking details of a quote, "terrible accident" in front of the High School on McLeod, corner-Maple. According to the caller, gruesome details were mentioned. The correspondent went to the scene immediately to discover that what had appeared to be dreadful was in reality quite a minor accident. A snowplow had sheared off one of the tail lights of a parked car. Police were there making a report, and there was no evidence of a ghastly accident. Looked as if someone had bled profusely over the fire hydrant at the scene — however it was discovered that a reddish-brown powder had been used to thaw the hydrant. All's well.

✓ Centre Police were kept busy over the week-end with minor accident calls. Incidentally they had 66 accidents in the Centre area in the month of January '66.

✓ What were the R.C.M.P. doing in Chateauguy Centre Police station last Monday A.M.? Two special constables accompanied by one other gent were in the process of leaving the Police Station as The Gleaner correspondent entered.

✓ From the Town of Chateauguy's recent committee meeting — a few paragraphs:

✓ The Town has requested the Quebec Municipal Commission to approve a 99 year lease on land owned by the Grey Nuns. Located in the area of CFOX radio transmitter, the lease for the land was signed recently by the Grey Nuns, after two years of red tape. This land is for the Parks programme.

✓ A notice of motion has been given to prepare a by-law for the general and special tax assessment. It is necessary each year to prepare this.

✓ Town of Chateauguy has given the sum of $800.00 to Federated Charities. This is a similar sum as in other years.

✓ Chateauguy Hockey Club were also given a gift of $100.00 from the Town.

✓ The C.P.O.A. has also received the sum of $20.00 to reimburse them for the registration fee when playing hockey recently at the Maurice Richard Arena in Montreal. This sum was actually given to C.R.V.C. who in turn gave it to C.P.O.A. Very involved?

✓ In a recent issue of The Gleaner, it was announced that a two-lane highway would replace the present "suicide" 3-lane road on No. 3 and 4 highway. A new proposal is now under consideration. Read elsewhere.

✓ The Town is looking for a Director of Sports. This would be part-time except for July and August, when full time would have to be given. Presumably this would mean a bilingual Physical Education expert.

✓ Next Town meeting is on Feb. 22nd.

✓ A fund raising effort is being held next week at Mary Gardner School. Military Whist is always popular. See advt. for details.

✓ From Chateauguy Centre's recent meeting Feb. 8th following—

✓ Council has authorized architects Gagnon and Archambault to prepare plans and specifications of the Civic Centre. First figure given was $700,000.00 but now the latest figure is $871,000.00 which is quite a jump. Further news on this will be available in future issues of The Gleaner.

✓ Alderman Roland Colpron gave notice of motion that he will propose the adoption of a by-law for execution of surface drains, curbstones and paving on Lot 146.

✓ Also the same as above for Lot 151.

✓ By-law 544 was adopted to amend existing construction by-law 208, in order to permit construction of a gas station at less than 45 feet from the street in order to allow parking space in rear. This at the corner of d'Anjou Blvd. and Tremblay Street. Electors' meeting March 1st between 7 and 8 p.m.

✓ Council decided to purchase for $1.00 from Mr. Robert Brunet passage rights on lot 249-154 to install surface drain pipes.

✓ Also same as above for $1.00 to Albert Labreche on lot 249-172.

✓ Mr. Desjardis, Centre Building Inspector, has been authorized to contact owners of lots 108-123-124-125 to regularize the situation where town services are installed on these private properties.

✓ Mrs. Gabrielle Montpetit has been awarded the sum of $1000.00 for a piece of land that the Town had taken some years ago, for widening of Salaberry Blvd.

✓ Council is to study the possibility of purchasing all

I guess you have heard the Chateauguy Park met them and assisted them in arranging for accommodation. Then with a friend Mrs. Peters drove them all over the city and Jean reports what so many others have said, St. Petersburg is a very beautiful city. Then on those which the average home uses the most of. Bread for children and dad's lunch (if he takes a lunch). Milk has already risen again. I wonder if housewives will bake again. Well maybe for a while until spotters see more flour being used then we will hear flour is going up in price. There seems to be no happy medium, but there's not much more elastic left in the pay cheques, is there?

Holiday Treat

Three weeks ago Mrs. Ken Smeall and Mrs. F. Howie left our cold snowy city by bus for Miami, Florida. The trip took 42 hours upon arrival at Miami they went immediately to arrange for their 3-day cruise to Nassau, Bahamas. The cruise was most enjoyable and Jean says she misses those bowls of luscious fresh fruit which were placed each day in the stateroom. While in Nassau they attended church services at Christ Church Cathedral, where Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip will attend upon their tour. Upon returning to Miami they took the bus for Daytona — spent the day, then bus for Orlando to spend one week with parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jones, (who treated their daughters to this trip). After a week of walks and sightseeing, again they took a bus, this time for St. Petersburg (City of Benches). Mrs. A. Peters of

In case you've been looking for a Chocolate Cake recipe that is lovely and moist you might like to give this one a try.

Chocolate Cake
1/2 cup white sugar
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2 eggs
2 tablespoons corn syrup
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 cup cocoa
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. vanilla
1 cup cold water

Cream the sugar, butter, beaten eggs and syrup.
Add cocoa to the flour, and baking powder, baking soda and salt.
Add the dry ingredients to the batter alternately with the cold water and blend well.
Bake for 30 minutes in a 350 degree oven.

Handy hints for homemakers

You can prevent your gravy from soaking through the lower crust of your meat pie if you'll brush the white egg over the crust.

To remove white rings left on a table top by too hot dishes, try placing a few drops of camphorated oil or sweet oil on the spot, let soak for a few minutes, then polish off with a soft cloth.

To remove grease spots from wall paper make a paste of cornstarch and water, apply this to the stained area and allow to remain until dry then brush the dried paste off. This usually does the trick but if it doesn't try a paste of fuller's earth and carbon tetrachloride and use it in the same manner.

Before measuring molasses grease the cup or dip it full of flour and empty it. Either method will enable every drop of molasses to come out of the cup without sticking.

To soften liquid glue to a sable consistency add some vinegar and this will soften the liquid that has hardened.

Prevent vegetables, macaroni, or rice from boiling over by adding a small piece of butter to the cooking water. Keeping the heat low, once the boiling has begun, is another trick to control the situation. When it's cold outside, rub a little salt over the outside of your windshield and you'll discourage ice, snow and sleet from sticking to it. Another anti-freeze for windshields in the winter is to rub the glass with a cut onion — works like a charm.

The boys won a few basketball games last week, one being against John Rennie High and the other against Riverdale High.

In the next few weeks practices will be starting for the Drama Club's play. It has not been decided which it will be, but as all others have been, this one should be good as well.

On March 11th, a dance has been planned at C.H.S. As always we're having a band: "The Haunted". This is an evening to keep free and everyone is invited to come. See you there!

Till next week, study hard and bye for now.

It's Official — English Catholic And Protestant Schools To Merge

By Russ Faughnan

The war is over and to the victors belong the spoils. In this case, the spoils are greatly improved educational facilities for English speaking Children of the Chateauguy district.

It was a short, but bitter fight. The end result is one of the most amazing decisions in Quebec educational history. Catholic children in Protestant schools, something that would not have been considered possible a few years ago. Today, it is almost a trend.

For us, it is now official. English Catholic high school students will attend classes under the jurisdiction of the Protestant Regional School Board—when their new school is completed. This happy event is expected to occur in September, 1967. We say expected because there is much to be done. Authorization for the school has been given by Quebec but final approval was held up at the Government's request, to await the decision of English Catholics. Now new plans must be prepared and submitted. Final approval is expected in a few weeks.

Local authorities have clarified a number of points on the "merger". The most important, from a Catholic viewpoint, is that ALL students will come under the Protestant Regional School Board, John A. Blake, Chairman. However, Mr. Marcel Roy, Chairman of the Catholic Regional Board, points out that the Catholic students will not be completely without representation. The law provides that a Catholic cannot serve on a Protestant School Board. In our case, a committee will be set up comprising a Catholic parent, teacher and member of the Clergy, to advise on Catholic student problems. In the new school an office will be provided for a Catholic Chaplain and classes will be set aside for separate religious instruction. It would appear that these would be the only concessions to religious differences. There will not be a "quota" of Catholic vs Protestant teachers. In fact, the agreement seems to stress that teacher selection will not be based on religious affiliation. Naturally, there will be unofficial contact between the two boards such as with directors of studies. It is hoped that official liaison will not be necessary.

While the official opening date has not been set, it has been announced that the expected total of 2400 students will enjoy the best facilities available. Subject promotion technical classes, laboratory gym, full lunchroom facilities all are to be included. It sounds like a dream come true to local parents of high school students. Now, if we can find a way to guarantee straight "A" results...

The Role of the... (Continued from front page) beyond concrete assessment. Child experts, pediatricians (including Dr. Spock), psychologists, and many parents who have had this experience, consider nursery school to be a valuable part of a child's life. This thinking is becoming more popular, and will result in a demand for more nursery schools.

So let's get back to the most important person in the nursery school... the teacher. Her Loveliness

It is part of the nursery school teacher's training that she should smile often, and use a gentle voice and gentle hands. It is obvious, though that an unloving kind of person would not be attracted to teaching at this age level in the first place.

Of all the qualities a nursery school teacher should have a great love of little children is the most important. Whatever other qualities she possesses or lacks are relatively unimportant in comparison. Her own loveliness influences the children, in that they not only return her love, but they become loving with each other, because of her example.

This results in a relaxed unhurried atmosphere which everyone enjoys. It is the foundation of the secure environment which children must have in order to learn and flourish at maximum capacity.

Hostilities among children are bound to occur, but these are settled by the teacher quietly and firmly, with a minimum of disruption for the rest of the group. The teacher prefers that as many children as possible remain unaware of the conflict. Before she leaves the former combatants, she makes the effort to re-instate a feeling of friendship between them.

Her kind of discipline In the nursery school, behavior is carefully and deliberately taught by example.

Nursery school training in Quebec

In short here and now, many short courses are given in English, at night, by the McGill University Extension Department, the Montreal Nursery School Association, and the Council of Family Life Education. It follows that the people giving these courses received their training elsewhere, usually the United States.

Until now, it has been necessary for these agencies to limit their enrolment to people who were already teaching in nursery schools. Next year, it should be possible to enrol people who wish to complete some training, before they begin teaching.

The demand for nursery school teachers is greater than the supply. Training available in the Montreal area is very flexible, and teachers are encouraged to take courses at any and all of these institutions. The reason is that there is no standardization of courses at present.

It is only recently that L'Institut Pédagogique in Montreal has established courses for French-speaking nursery school teacher-trainees.

All these groups are in close contact with the provincial Department of Education, urging that standards be set for nursery school training. This goal is likely to be still far off, with great changes in other areas of education demanding so much attention, but there is a firm and interested commitment from government authorities.

The item concerned the arrival of Alison, baby sister for Jeffrey and a joy to Alice and Stuart Brown of Ashmore. I think I'll get a horn for my telephone car, because occasionally things don't get through!

A very extra special wish this week for a good friend of so many here in Chateauguy. Our best birthday wishes to Fred Berry of Hillsdale Drive, who will celebrate his 70th birthday on Wednesday, Feb. 16th. We wish you many more Mr. Berry

RE-TRAINING... AND TRAINING

Construction of the Beauharnois Finishing Plant is not yet terminated but a very elaborate program to retrain the present employees of the Valleyfield Converting plant has begun. One hundred and forty will follow classroom courses and on the job training to learn the operation of the new and modern machinery. Eighty persons will also be trained to fill the new jobs created through this plant to be operated by Dominion Textile Company Ltd. This vast program will be conducted in cooperation with the federal and provincial governments on a cost sharing basis.
AROUND THE INDUSTRY: Editor of the St. John's (Que.) News recently drew attention to difficulties of the man-made fibre section of the industry. "In 1965 it is estimated that the total of imports from Japan exceeded 25,000,000 square yards in this category — approximately 28 per cent of the imports," he said. Meanwhile U.S. imports had continued at high levels and supplies from other countries had doubled since 1961. Japanese sales of man-made wovens fabrics here are being made solely at the expense of Canadian production and jobs," the editor noted. Centres affected included his own community, Drummondville, Cowansville, Coaticook, Sherbrooke, St. Hyacinthe, Joliette, Louiseville, Montmagny and St. Rose, in particular.
APPOINTMENTS: L. McDonald, Group Manager, replacing E.J. Webster who has retired due to ill-health. Ray-Louiseville, Montmagny and St. Rose, in particular.

Dear Ann Landers: Regarding your recent column about hotel and restaurant guests stealing equipment...

Dear Ann Landers: Regarding your recent column about hotel and restaurant guests stealing equipment. Any well-operated company has a planned advertising budget. Ash trays, glassware, towels, table lamps and serving equipment are not part of it.
It is not unusual for a menu or a glass to cost $1 to design and produce. If a couple comes in for a cocktail and dinner and steals one of these items it is just like going into a department store to buy a shirt and stealing a tie on the way out.
Please tell these glue-fingered clowns that every time they take an ash tray or a sugar bowl or a piece of silverware they cost the owner money. — K.H.

Dear Ann Landers: I was fascinated by the remarks of the hotel manager and I was glad you slapped him down.

Dear Ann Landers: I was fascinated by the remarks of the hotel manager and I was glad you slapped him down. This news item appeared recently in our local newspaper: "In a year's time nearly 10,000 trays have vanished from the Pentagon's cafeterias and snack bars. What's more, 2,000 salt and paper shakers and nearly 1,200 sugar dispensers also have disappeared. Throw in all the knives, forks and spoons and you run into a cost estimated at five figures."
It is discouraging to read such articles. Do you think people are less honest than they used to be? — PESSIMISTIC
Dear Pess: This is not a matter of opinion, it's a matter of record.
The experts tell us that one fourth of us will not steal anything, under any circumstances. One-fourth of us will steal anything that isn't bolted to the floor and the other half of us vary according to the strength of the temptation and the chances of getting away with it. Prosperity has grown a fatty

Ann Landers... Answers your problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am 13 magazine and say, "Attractive divorced woman desires male companion — object matrimony." Or can I? Some women have I need your help. — EARLY FITZES
Dear Early: Some papers — and some magazines — will accept such ads but what kind of man would it attract? I can tell you — the scum of the earth.
A tone of self-pity runs through your letter — and self-pity can be deadly for a woman alone. No man wants to be the star of a rescue mission. Cultivate friends at work, join worthwhile groups that do things. Don't wait for the time to hand you a new life because it won't happen. Go out and make one.
Dear Ann Landers: It is fair for a mother to keep telephoning her married son and asking him to do her painting and repair work?
My mother-in-law's younger son lives with her now. Her constant interference finally got under his wife's skin and it broke up their marriage.
Yesterday my mother-in-law called and said, "Tell Olaf I need him to fix up the back porch steps and paint the basement." I asked her why she didn't ask Otto to do it. She snapped, "Because Otto works hard all day!" — and hung up.
My husband works hard all day, too, and if he has any extra time there are plenty of things that need doing around OUR house.
This problem has been the major cause of arguments between my husband and me. He says when a woman loses her husband her sons should help her out. I say when a man gets married his wife should come first. What do you say? — FED UPSTVILLE.
Dear Upville: When a man marries, his wife should be the Number One woman in his life but this doesn't mean that his mother should drop dead. A good wife should be mother-in-law to be treated well — just as she will want to be treated when her son marries.
It's really up to your husband to decide how much of his mother's repair work he wants to do. Stay out of it.
If excessive drinking is wrecking your health or destroying someone you love, send for Ann Landers' booklet, "Help For the Alcoholic", enclosing with your request 20¢ in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.
Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Dear Ann Landers: I just read from the mother who wanted to pay for the hotel ash tray her son took. The manager's reply, "We want people to steal them. It's good advertising."

In the light of this appalling attitude it's small wonder that young people are confused. I see them every day in juvenile court — mixed-up teenagers who take little souvenirs labeled "Ford" and "Chevrolet" right out of people's driveways. — CALIFORNIA JUDGE
Dear Ann Landers: As a hotel-motel owner I want to comment on "Souvenirs" taken by guests when they leave. A large percentage of ash trays, towels and silverware are lost every year if they are labeled with emblems or names. Many operators have reduced this loss by eliminating identification on these items. It is a shame that managements have had to leave plain towels, ash trays, etc. in the rooms when an inexpensive deal adds so much to the decor. Please maintain your stand, Ann Landers. The industry is behind you. — G.L.P. OF BURLINGTON, VT.

Dear Ann: Hotel managers who want people to steal things should put signs by their cash registers which read: "Please take any article that has our name on it. We appreciate the advertising."

A family moved into our townhouse every Monday with names of hotels from all over. Had we known they were helping to advertise the hotels we would have become friendly

Fewer Breaths For Better Health

How often do you breathe? Probably too often.
At least that's the view of one expert, Londoner William Knowles, whose breathing exercises have helped 100,000 men and women learn to use their lungs properly in the past 30 years and have earned him the nickname of "Breather" Knowles.
According to a Reader's Digest article, Knowles believes that most of us should take far less than the 14 to 18 superficial breaths we draw per minute. He takes only four. Fewer breaths mean deeper breaths, he says.
One key to proper breathing is to exhale fully. Try this to test your own capacity. With your mouth open, exhale all you can. Now purse your lips and blow. Chances are there was lots of air left, indicating that you're allowing stagnant air to accumulate in your lungs.
To help increase your capacity for blowing out, try reading a paragraph aloud each day. Notice how far you get the first day, then gradually increase the number of lines you can read without inhaling.
Another exercise is to breathe in to the count of four and out to the count of 12, increasing the count gradually until you can inhale to seven and exhale to 21.
According to Knowles proper breathing will help you feel better, have more energy, suffer less from fatigue, sleep better and wake up faster. Breathing well can also provide greater strength for strenuous tasks, a fact well known to athletes. Their "second wind", for example, is really only the shift from shallow to deep breathing.
You may think that breathing is a "natural" act, similar to your heartbeat. But there is this essential difference: you cannot control your heartbeat. You can control your breathing. Exerting such control can help you to better health and better living.

To your GOOD HEALTH

By Joseph G. Molner, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: How does one dry up the breasts after nursing a baby? I have nursed mine for six months, and plan to discontinue in about four more Mrs. W.T.

The flow of milk depends on your good health plus continued, regular nursing. When the baby is to be weaned, the frequency of suckling is reduced gradually and eventually stopped. You can omit one breast feeding each day, or every other day, substituting, of course, a bottle feeding. The flow of milk then decreases rapidly and automatically.

The breast may become swollen and sore at this time, but the discomfort subsides in a few days and they return to normal.

A firm (not necessarily tight) support, as a brassiere may ease the discomfort during these few days, but no other precautions are necessary.

Dear Dr. Molner: I suffer extreme pain from hemorrhoids in spite of chiropractic treatments, suppositories and petroleum jelly. I would like your booklet, "The Real Cure for Hemorrhoids," and enclose the required stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20c in coin. Is there really a cure for hemorrhoids? — E.F.

Yes, hemorrhoids can be cured, but not by any of the three methods you mention, An M.D. or D.O. (doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy) is necessary to treat you. The booklet will explain what the problem is, what you can do to relieve or prevent it, and what kind of treatment will be effective. After reading it, you will understand why home remedies won't suffice, but you will learn some simple things you can do which will help.

You need a doctor for some things — but when you understand basic facts about an ailment you can do a lot to help yourself, too.

Dear Dr. Molner: I would like to prove to my husband that I wasn't seeing things when you wrote about not Mrs. Margaret Stark has returned from Lake Worth Florida where she spent nine weeks with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Geller and their children, David and Brenda.

Other Livestock
Regarding the other livestock maintained on Riding Barns Farm, Mr. Bowman wrote, in part: "We don't keep any milk cows, and so have to buy our milk from others. However, each year we buy Irish heifers to fatten off — some of them on grass, the others on turnips in winter.

"The present-day farmers now have a better chance of making money — better crops, including 2 tons per acre of corn (over there — oats, barley, etc.) and good hay.

"We have our own combine; drier for corn (grains); the latest in a hay swather; two crude oil tractors." He also avers that they get the best results from the use of semi-disc ploughs, disc harrows and drills. And, of course, the broadcasting of commercial fertilizers and manure; likewise spraying for charrack and "thistles. In the latter connection, he added: "I am sorry to say it, but the spray also kills the birds."

COUNCIL MEETINGS

A regular session of St. Anicet parish council was held with Councillors H. Mainville, A. Quesnel, E. Wylie, Y. Latreille, A.J. Caza, C.

he wrote, the rents are all up from $3 to $6 an acre (per year); also wages" Part of his explanation with respect to wages being that, in addition to their regulation (statutory) wages on a forty hour week basis, farm workers are paid for all holidays, and are also entitled to an annual holiday of two weeks, with pay.

Since so many of the farmers over their own farms, we asked Lester Campbell the reason annexed to the Bowman farm being still on a tenancy basis He explained that same is in a Colliery area and that all the land in that area is owned by the National Coal Board (in effect a Crown Corporation). Originally that land was owned by the Bowes-Lyon family, with the Earl of Strathmore (father of Queen-Mother Elizabeth) as the last individual owner. The latter sold out to another Colliery Company, which was subsequently nationalized. We are not sure whether it was the intermediate company or the Crown Corporation, but one or the other in deciding to discontinue the payment of claims for damages resulting from the Colliery operations, etc., offered the tenants rent free occupancy for a period of several years, after which the rental would be at the rate of $3 per acre. And, of course, as in many other instances, the rents have been doubled to $6 (say, $18.06) per acre per annum.

LONG DISTANCE RATES Being Reduced Again!

Whoever said that the cost of everything keeps going up and up was definitely not aware of what's been happening with Long Distance rates over the years! Less than two years ago (in June, 1964, to be exact) Long Distance rates for "daytime" station-to-station calls were reduced, and now, effective March 6, rates for "Night and Sunday" station-to-station calls come down as well. From March 6th on, Long Distance users in Huntingdon will find that calls over 250 miles to communities in Ontario and Quebec will cost from five to forty cents less, while calls over 600 miles to other provinces will drop from five to fifty-five cents.

Night and Sunday "station" rates are in effect from 6:00 p.m. on weekday and Saturday evenings, and, of course, all day on Sundays. Since they are already lower than "daytime" rates (and very much lower than "person-to-person" rates) it's doubly pleasing that they will be still lower starting Sunday, March 6th.

Incidentally, I'm saving some more good news about Long Distance for a later column, so be prepared to be pleasantly surprised once again!

CAREFUL MANAGEMENT

What's the opposite of a "vicious" circle? — a "happy" circle? Well, whatever you call it, it's the opposite of a vicious circle that has led so many Long Distance rate reductions over the years. In constantly striving to improve service and reduce costs, telephone engineers have come up with a remarkable number of discoveries that long ago brought the costs of Long Distance calls way down to within everyone's budget. The result was that more and more people began making Long Distance calls. The more people who make Long Distance calls, the lower the cost-per-call of providing the service, and the lower the rates can be. And of course, the lower the rates, the more the people who take full advantage of the service.

But all these things just didn't sort of happen: it took good management by our Long Distance people to tie everything together and push that happy circle to start with — and it still takes good management to make sure that the circle keeps turning in the direction of better and better service for lower and lower rates.

IT HAD TO HAPPEN

Just to prove how unsettling a wrong number can sometimes be, here's an answer one careless caller received: "You've got the wrong idiot, you number!"

ness arising from the minutes was the purchase of contribution envelopes. It was agreed that as we need such a small number of them, we would share with St. Luke's, Hemmingford. The Rector reported that this matter was being taken care of by 'their Secretary.

Mrs. McKee made a motion that the Rector purchase six additional Hymn Books and six Prayer Books to be used for special services, for example — Christmas Eve. This was seconded by Mr. J. Allen and carried.

Information from the Synod Office regarding Stipends Pensions and Taxes was read by Rev. Prendergast to the meeting with explanation given in detail. It was moved by Mr. Garth Waddell and seconded by Mrs. G. McKee that the Stipend Guarantee allotment remain the same for 1966. Carried. It was also moved by Mr. J. Allen and seconded by Mrs. H. Allen that the Budget Apportionment for 1966 remain the same. Carried.

The Rector then gave a report of his work in the parish mentioning that he hoped he would have more time for visiting this year, also he would like to see a plan set up for some religious training for the children, and proposed that if it were not possible for a Sunday School to be formed right now, maybe something could be worked out as a start by mailing question and answer papers to the young ones. He and his warden, Mr. Garth Waddell will get together to find out how many would be interested in this project. He also stated he would like to form a Bible Study group along the lines of that operating in Hemmingford which is proving quite successful. He ended his report by extending his thanks and those of the congregation to Mr. Garth Waddell for all help and assistance in the work of the church and parish, to Mrs. Harris for keeping the records, and to Mrs. J. H. Goodman for her services at the organ, and as a token of our appreciation will purchase a small gift for her. Mrs. Harris was asked to send a note of thanks to Mrs. D. Wooley who substituted for Mrs. Goodman when absent.

The lighting of the church was discussed. It was suggested that Mrs. McKee contact the ladies of the non-active Guild with a view to getting their opinions on using some of their fund to purchase new lights for the church, also an outside sign showing the name of the church and denomination.

Mrs. Harris moved and Mrs. H. Allen seconded that the leak in the church roof be attended to when the weather is suitable, also that consideration be given to the painting of the roof. Carried.

Rev. Prendergast reported that the posts and chain for the fence around the cemetery will go in the ground when the weather permits this work to be done. This will do away with the parking problem and it was considered that the balance left in the Cemetery Fund will be ample to take care of finishing this work.

The officers remain the same for 1966. Rector's Warden — Mr. Garth Waddell. People's Warden — Mr. Clifton Pate-naude. Secretary-Treasurer — Mrs. C. Harris. Synod Delegates — Mr. Garth Waddell and Mr. Geo. McKee. Cemetery Trustees, Mr. Howard Miller and Mr. William Miller.

Church will re-open on Easter Sunday, April 10th at 9:30 A.M.

There being no further business, Mr. Garth Waddell moved the business meeting adjourn, and the Rector closed with prayer. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harris.

Noyan
NOYAN — Clarenceville Grange No. 10 held a card party recently. Due to the stormy weather it was held at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Beerwort, 500 was played at eight tables and bridge at one table. Prize winners for 500 were: Ladies High — Mrs. Gerald Beerwort; Low — Mrs. Gladys Beerwort; Gent's High — Mr. Gordon Mosher; Low — Mr. Aubrey Hunter. Bridge prizes were high — Mrs. Lloyd Bullock, Low — Mr. Lloyd Bullock. During the evening tickets were sold on a cushion, it being won by Mrs. George Dallaire. Refreshments brought the evening to a close.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Schmidbauer and three children left by train on Monday for their home in Chilliwack, B.C. They have spent the past seven weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Schmidbauer and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schmidbauer and family.

Mrs. Harold Murdock and two children Debbie and Hal of Verdun were recent guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Elgar.

Miss Sylvia Holzgang, student of Bedford High School, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Holzgang.

Sympathy is extended to the family of the late Mr. Elwood Beerworth of Clarenceville. He had been a patient in a Montreal Hospital for quite some time.

Miss Beverly Derby returned home recently after undergoing surgery at the Shriners' Hospital in Montreal. Her school friends welcomed her back following her absence of several weeks.

The regular monthly meeting of the Anglican Ladies' Association was held on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Stella Derick and Mrs. Dorothy Weir. Several items of business were discussed. New officers were elected for the coming year which were unable to be elected at the annual meeting due to their absence: Work Convener: Mrs. Gordon Mosher; Social Service: Mrs. Rodney Derick; Assistant to the Food Convener: Mrs. Stanley Emrick; Calendars and Living Message: Mrs. Robert Stewart. Refreshments brought the afternoon to a close.

Farmers And The Pension Plan

The Quebec Pension Plan offers the same benefits to farmers as to other Quebec workers. Consequently, farmers are required to contribute to the Plan on the same basis as other workers.

Wage-earning farm workers contribute as employees, so long as they earn more than the general exemption of $11.54 a week, $50 a month or $600 a year. Their contribution is 1.8% of earnings between the general exemption and a maximum of $5,000 a year. Their employers will make an equal contribution.

Those who work on their own farm contribute as self-employed workers as long as their annual revenue exceeds $800. Their contribution is 3.6% of annual revenue between the general exemption of $600 and a maximum of $5,000.

The Department of Revenue is entrusted by the law with the responsibility of collecting contributions to the Pension Plan and making remittance to the Pension Board.

At first glance, the Pension Plan may seem complicated to some farm people who see their contribution as a new financial burden.

Everyone protected
It must be emphasized that the Pension Plan offers protection to all working classes, including wives and children. It is only right that farmers should benefit, as do other citizens, from the security afforded by the different benefits of the Pension Plan.

These benefits are as follows: the retirement pension the death benefit, the widow's pension, the disabled widow's pension, the orphan's pension, the disability pension and the pension for the child of a disabled contributor.

No contributions, no benefits
To become entitled to all these benefits, however, one must make contributions. No contributions, no benefits. The Plan must pay for itself, it is not financed by taxes like some other social security measures. Everyone receives benefits according to the earnings upon which he has contributed.

Information
Information concerning contributions is provided by the Department of Revenue. To obtain information about social insurance numbers and the benefits of the Plan, one must write to the Pension Board.

For the moment, it is essential for every farmer who must contribute to the Pension Plan to obtain his social insurance number. It is indispensable to have such a number so that each person's contributions will be credited to him.

Many organizations and information services have already promised to cooperate with the Board so that farmers will be able to benefit from the Plan in the same manner and just as fully as other classes of employees or self-employed persons in the province.

Information concerning contributions is provided by the Department of Revenue. To obtain information about social insurance numbers and the benefits of the Plan, one must write to the Pension Board.

Powerscourt

POWERSCOURT—The sudden change in temperature certainly caused a complete change of appearance in the countryside. A week ago snow-blowers were in demand so that people could get out of their yards and lanes. Now most of the snow is gone and the fields and ditches are full of water. The road between Powerscourt and Athelstan was completely blocked with ice in the vicinity of the canal. Saturday we made a trip down the road to see what was happening and the rushing water across the road and fields was quite fearsome.

Mrs. E. M. Wood and Mrs. John Fleming of Huntingdon enjoyed a trip to Montreal during the week they attended the movie, "The Sound of Music," which depicts the life of the singing Trapp family. They also thoroughly enjoyed a performance of the Ice Follies.

Miss Jeannie Taylor of Pointe Claire spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Taylor.

It is sad to relate, but trees like humans are subject to disease. As a result many lovely shade trees throughout the countryside have to be cut down. Two such, one of them a magnificent elm over 80 years old, were cut down in

Dundee

W. I. Meeting

DUNDEE—The February meeting of the Dundee W.I. was held last Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Thos. Stowell. Unable to be present, Mrs. H. Ferguson sent a paper which was read concerning the many and wonderful ways plastic is used today as replacement parts of the human body. To mention a few—a tube to drain water from the brain; to seal or prevent a rupture of a brain artery; a plastic mixture is sprayed on to replace valves to the heart; to replace or bypass parts of major arteries. Even part of the cornea of the eye has been successfully replaced by plastic. All of this has been possible because of man's brain but the inventive brain foresees no possibility of a plastic replacement of itself.

For roll call members told about the most useful article in their medicine cabinet and why it was. Members also showed valentines they had made or had received. As there will be no public speaking in the school this year the $10.00 prize money will be used for hot lunches instead. Several letters were read. The group being so small no action concerning tickets for Expo 67 or tourist accommodations was taken at this meeting. A letter about the Christmas stockings was read with notes from several countries telling how much the gifts were appreciated.

Miss Thelma MacMillan and Mrs. H. Ferguson were appointed to look after a new program for the coming year. Mrs. T. Stowell reported that February is the time to bring dahlia bulbs into warmth and light so that they will sprout. These can then be planted in small containers and when weather permits transplanted in the garden. Miss Thelma MacMillan told about computers being used again to mark school exams. For Home Economics it was reported that white vinegar is useful to clean steam iron and baking soda will remove the black scuff marks from a tile floor.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Stowell served a delicious supper.

By Safety Sam

Last week's action at the Arena was curtailed by the mild weather at the end of the week. Monday's Junior League Action saw the Roughriders win their third game in a row with a 6 to 2 win over the Sea Cadets. Notre Dame had no trouble with the last place Washouts, winning 7 to 1.

The Town League leaders, the Red Hawks won 10 to 2 over Notre Dame in Wednesday's action, the Villains knocked over the Flyers 5 to

2. Ronnie Tremblay broke loose for five goals in the Red Hawks win. André Fournier picked up four.

Friday's games were cancelled due to wet ice.

Rink Romp
The event of the year is coming up this Saturday evening at the Arena. The Children's Masquerade should be the highlight of the evening. Trophies will be presented to the winners in both age groups, other prizes will be given to the other places.

News from Howick

By Mrs. Crawford

Curling

HOWICK — Two successful senior meetings have been held in Feb. Two weeks ago the roads were plowed during the morning and 34 appeared for the social gathering. It was Mrs. Wm. Anderson's birthday. Mr. J. Marsden made his debut as a winning skip, with Wallace Elliott, Wm. Anderson and Mervin Craig.

Last week there was a record attendance of 41, so the tables were stretched when lunch time came. One quilt was quilled and the usual games played. It was Mrs. Bradley's birthday and Mrs. J. Marsden and Mrs. J. Whyte celebrating the same week. The winning curlers were: skip, Mervin Craig, Mr. Weir, J. Marsden, G. Easton.

Mr. and Mrs. Weir made their first appearance as they are living now at Chateaugay. Mr. Weir led the sing song.

Snow removal has been the main objective for a few weeks but as soon as the weather permits the winter works projects will be started. They include cutting dead trees along the roads and cleaning the ditches.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Legion met at the home of Mrs. H. Brady on Tuesday evening of last week, with 8 members present.

The Juniors gained their third consecutive victory Friday, February 4, at the expense of Ormstown and by a score of 7-3. Once again the first line of the Howick team dominated the game with the scoring being accomplished by Michael Murray (3), Bill Stuckey (2), and Peter Stuckey (2). Others who took a prominent part in the win were Keith Horison, Ralph Templeton, and Gerald Brown. Apart from a certain sluggishness evident in the third period, the Howick Juniors played a good brand of hockey.

Bill Tracy of Saguenay-Lake St. John district emerged as the winner with a 9-1 record. Elmer Black's rink tied with North-Western Quebec for second place, each with 8 wins and 2 losses.

The Howick rink did not win but the home folk are pleased with their record and another year may give another opportunity.

A meeting of the Akita C.G.I.T. group was held Tuesday, February 8, 1966, after school. The meeting was opened with the "Purpose". Devotions were conducted by Cathy McFarlane. The girls who attended the "Senior Girls Conference" in Montreal suggested different projects which our group could undertake. were treated to a coffee break and a gift of cosmetics. The ladies were members of the Cercle de Femmes and other clients of Madame Peledreau, who organized the party.

A general meeting of U.C.W. was held in the United Church Hall, on Thursday evening, Feb. 10, with Miss I. Frith presiding.

The devotional period was taken by Mrs. Melville Brown, whose theme was, "Planning Fellowship". Further studies on this theme will be held at other meetings, one of which will be held at St. Lambert on March 12, when laymen will be invited to participate.

Fortunately, Mrs. Brown's devotional was a perfect introduction to an inspiring talk given by the Rev. Mr. A. E. Lorce, entitled "Bridges". There are many kinds of bridges, among them the Bridge of Understanding between races and countries. The world is now a neighbourhood. The task of the Christian Church is to change it into a brotherhood. The Bridges of Understanding are to be built by Christian laymen, who will use the material found in the New Testament teachings of Christ.

The installation of U.C.W. officers was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Lorce.

The regular business meeting followed. Mrs. Eldon Orr presented the new budget which was accepted with one amendment.

Tentative plans were made for a Tea and Food Sale in April, the time to depend on when a special speaker could come.

The Supply Convener, Mrs. Brodie McFarlane, had a display of quilts that had been made recently. Letters of thanks and appreciation were read from those who had received quilts and other gifts, locally, and also from Gaspe for Christmas gifts.

Mrs. D. Ness, C.F. Convener, read letter of thanks for flowers and other Christmas gifts.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 10.

Mrs. Tieseur will hold the first dance at her restaurant hall on Saturday evening. See ad in this paper.

are being made in an eminently satisfactory way and several new members have been added since the turn of the year. The last two of that batch of recruits were duly initiated on February 10 by the President and the 1st Vice-President, Mrs. Anne Cameron; the initiates being Dr. Fred A. Horsley, Area Representative of Health of Animals Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, and W. R. ("Bill") Tannahill, farmer and well-known Holstein cattle breeder.

Entertainment Committee reports included the highly satisfactory one with respect to the Legionaires Troupe's recent variety show. R. W. Cappiello, President; Mrs. Anne Cameron, 1st Vice-President and Mrs. Winifred Napier, convener, Refreshment Committee of the Branch. It was emphasized, that this was not actually a Legion project and that the two past events were staged at the request of representatives of the Teenagers concerned. Also, that at the time of the last dance, a number of seniors of the group conferred with the Branch Committee and that it was then decided that any future requests would be favourably considered.

Past President David L. Watson was appointed Chairman of a sub-committee to consider and devise ways and means whereby the Branch will do its bit, so to speak, with other Branches in contributing to The Royal Canadian Legion's Centenary Fund. Mr. Watson subsequently co-opted Past Presidents R. W. Daniel and Erik Rottensten as members of his committee, together with the President, John J. Cappiello, ex-officio. At the time of a subsequent meeting of the said committee, it was decided that, as a start in the Fund raising project, there will be a Get-together Social Evening at the Legion Hall on Friday, February 25.
