Egyptian, Israel guns blaze across Canal

PROBING WRECKAGE FOR VICTIMS — Firemen probe the wreckage of a DC3 that crashed and burned while landing in heavy fog Thursday morning at the New Orleans International Airport with 24 persons aboard.

A fire department spokesman said 19 bodies were visible in the wreckage. (AP Wirephoto)

Egyptian and Israeli guns blazed away across the Suez Canal from the southern to the northern end today after one of the leading Arab guerrilla organizations reported large movements of Israeli troops into the Sinai Desert.

Each army accused the other of firing first, but they agreed that it began at the southern end of the canal then spread north.

No casualties were announced. The Israeli Army said United Nations observers arranged a ceasefire at midmorning. But the Egyptians continued firing and the Israelis resumed their barrage after half an hour, Tel Aviv said.

Radio Cairo said the Israeli refused to heed the UN ceasefire appeal and instead extended their fire northward.

It was the first artillery duel along the canal in six days. Sporadic fighting has been going on across the 103-mile waterway for a month. Six Israelis and the Egyptian army chief of staff have been killed and 25 Israelis wounded.

Two recent lulls lasting several days were attributed to sandstorms in the area.

An Israeli spokesman said hostilities began today when one Egyptian shell was fired on Israeli troops in the southern sector of the canal. He reported firing became heavy along a 15-mile front, from the Little Bitter Lake to Port Taufiq.

Cairo Radio said the Israelis fired first, sending over three shells from a moving tank south of the Bitter Lakes.

Two hours later, the Egyptian communique said, the Israelis opened up with tanks and artillery in the Suez and Port Taufiq areas.

"Our forces answered the enemy to silence his guns and to destroy his forces, which started the firing," the Egyptians said.

A later Cairo communique said the fighting spread to Ismailia, midway along the 103-mile waterway. Still later the Israeli army reported firing had started in the El Qantara and Firdan regions at the northern end of the canal.

An Israeli army spokesman scoffed today at the report of Israeli troop movements into Sinai made by the Al Fatah guerrilla organization.

"We regard Al Fatah claims as largely imaginary," he said.

Egypt in recent weeks has been reporting Israeli build-ups along the canal as justification for artillery attacks the Egyptians have made across the waterway.

Al Fatah said Israel appears to be moving almost all its forces on the Jordanian front to the Sinai in what appears to be "more than just another exercise."

"It could be a manoeuvre to put Jordan off guard or could signal a major attack on the canal," said an Al Fatah spokesman in Amman. "We have been expecting an attack for several days but believe it has been delayed by bad weather."

"With the shooting down of an Israeli jet on March 21, an Israeli reprisal now is almost certain."

Torrential rains have been falling on much of the Middle East for several days.

In Jerusalem, an Israeli military court imposed a life sentence on a 17-year-old Arab youth convicted of throwing a hand grenade that wounded 45 praying Jews in Hebron last Oct. 9. The grenade was hurled into the cave of Machpelah, which is said to house the tomb of Abraham and is sacred to both Jews and Moslems.

In Gaza City, two Bedouins were sentenced to 10 years imprisonment for smuggling arms from the Sinai Desert into Jordan.

King Hussein asked Foreign Minister Abdel Moneim Al Rifai to form a new cabinet.

By early today, Rafai had completed a quick round of consultations.

Bertrand says study educational reform

QUEBEC (CP) — Premier Jean-Jacques Bertrand told delegates from 19 African governments Sunday they should examine "the spirit of educational reform" in Quebec's education system.

In a welcoming speech to about 40 delegates to a 12-day education conference Mr. Bertrand said Quebec did not wish to impose its education ideas on the delegates.

"We have no intention of offering you our system of education as a model.

"Rather it seems to me that it is the spirit which resides in educational reform, the efforts we make to combine our most profitable resources with our needs, that should guide your reflections."

The delegates will study both French and English education systems until April 4. They were invited by education minister Jean-Guy Cardinal at an education conference held in Paris last April.

A text of Mr. Bertrand's address was released in advance.

News in brief Talks begin

CALCUTTA, India (AP) — Commanders of Indian and East Pakistani border security forces began talks today near the Indian border town of Malda, about 250 miles northwest of Calcutta, to discuss weekend clashes there.

Indian officials said Pakistani troops fired without provocation on troops near Malda Saturday until shortly before noon Sunday. Three Indian soldiers were seriously wounded and some houses on the Indian side were damaged by mortar shelling, they said.

PRIME MINISTER TRUDEAU

WASHINGTON (CP) — Pierre Elliott Trudeau meets Richard Nixon today at the White House and Nixon is going all out to impress his Canadian neighbor with trumpet blasts, gunfire and other protocol trappings.

The United States president begins the welcome on the White House lawn after the 10 a.m. EST arrival of Prime Minister Trudeau.

Nixon has laid on not only trumpet fanfares for his sophisticated guest, but trumpet "ruffles and flourishes" as well.

Trudeau flies to Washington from Ottawa early today for his first official visit to the U.S. since he became prime minister almost a year ago. He will be airlifted to the White House by helicopter.

Tonight, there'll be a White House dinner with Nixon as host as he welcomes the first foreign head of state to Washington since his inauguration.

In between these and other social events, Trudeau and External Affairs Minister Mitchell Sharp are to spend hours conferring with U.S. officials on U.S.-Canadian relations during the two-day visit.

ABM A PRIME TOPIC

Although the two political leaders are to discuss a wide variety of subjects, the Nixon decision to establish an anti-ballistic missile system close to the Canadian border seems likely to take centre stage.

Correspondents are wondering whether Trudeau will end his "open mind" position of last week on the delicate Nixon decision which has provoked a mild uproar in the U.S. and Canada.

Clearly a strong Canadian position one way or the other would have some influence on the debate over the value of the defensive system which is supposed to knock down enemy missiles over Canada in the event of war.

The manner in which the two men hit it off in a personal way could have an important bearing on future relations between the two countries.

While Nixon cannot assure that kind of personal rapport, he is making sure of the welcome in other ways. In addition to the White House dinner for his guest, the U.S. secretary of state, William Rogers, will give him a luncheon.

In addition to the ABM discussions, the two days of talks are expected to involve Canada's role in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and other matters of continental defence.

On way out

ROME (AP) — Institutional religion is on the way out, a West German expert on the sociology of religion told a symposium on atheism sponsored by the Vatican and the University of California at Berkeley.

"I suggest we live in a period of transition in which a particular social form of religion, institutional specialization, is on the wane," Prof. Thomas Luckmann of the University of Frankfurt said today.

Shout from heart

TORONTO (CP) — Quebec chanteuse Pauline Julien said Sunday her cry of

"Vive le Quebec libre!" which interrupted a speech by State Secretary Gerard Pelletier last month in Niamey, Niger, was a "shout from the heart."

Interviewed on her arrival here for an April 2 performance at Massey Hall, she was asked about reports that the incident embarrassed her hosts at a conference of French-speaking nations in Niamey, Niger.

Offer made

NEW YORK (AP) — Percy Foreman, the lawyer who advised James Earl Ray to plead guilty to murder in the slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., said today an offer of $175,000 has been made for the movie rights to the story.

Foreman said the offer was made by Carlo Ponti, film producer and husband of Italian actress Sophia Loren, to William Huie, Ray's official biographer.

"And I'll get 60 per cent of it," Foreman said in an interview in his New York Hotel.

Spring ritual

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Collegians by the thousands are flocking to Florida's east coast beaches, preparing for their annual spring ritual of sex and sun—but minus the seaside suds of previous years.

Fort Lauderdale police, eyeing a college crowd estimated at 10,000 which is expected to triple before next weekend, said all was well Sunday.

KARACHI (Reuters) — Troops stood guard at strategic centres here today as nearly all the city's factories—about 40 per cent of Pakistan's industrial capacity—remained strikebound.

Commissioner faces test

THE VALLEY, Anguilla (Reuters) — British Commissioner Tony Lee, the target of angry demonstrations for two straight days, today faces a key test of Anguillan feelings as resentment continues to smoulder about the British invasion of this tiny isle Wednesday.

Lee, who was prevented from reaching his administrative office by a screaming mob of 300 Saturday and was the subject of a mock funeral Sunday, said he might make another attempt to get to his office today.

"We will see what the situation is," he said. "If they are making a fuss, there is no point in going."

The crowd of "mourning" Anguillans demanded Lee's removal. A sign on a flower-bedecked coffin said: "If Lee don't go, Anguilla is dead."

Observers said the views of the 6,000 islanders could be tested crucially today because the small local police force—five men and two women—is slated to resume duties beside the 42 London policemen now on Anguilla.

In other developments, Robert Bradshaw, the premier of the Caribbean federation from which Anguilla rebelled in 1967, is expected to arrive in London—although British officials would not confirm the report.

WANT A STATEMENT

In London, lawmakers of both parties are slated to press the government for a statement about whether the federation, St. Kitts-Nevis-Anguilla, is dead.

They also are reported ready to prod Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart to produce evidence that gangster types had undue influence on the island, a claim cited by the government to justify its occupation.

Diplomatic sources at the United Nations said Ronald Webster, self-styled president of the 35-square-mile Leeward island, would seek a meeting with Secretary General U Thant and Britain's chief representative, Lord Caradon.

British police on Anguilla handed out leaflets Sunday pledging that Britain would continue to prevent any outside interference in island affairs.

The leaflet warned the inhabitants of the island that occupying British troops would remain as long as necessary to maintain law and order.

It also contained a message from Lee saying no one would be prosecuted for past political activities and promised the island extra money from Britain for development.

The leaflet said British administration would continue as long as needed "to prevent any outside influence in your affairs"—an apparent reference to the claim of gangster control.

Burned in effigy

FREDERICTON (CP) — Premier Louis Robichaud was burned in effigy and there were demands for the resignation of his Liberal government during the weekend as protests rose against tax increases announced last week.

Straw-stuffed figures of the premier, Finance Minister L. G. DesBrisay and Education Minister W. W. Meldrum were burned on a scaffold on the roadside near Mr. Meldrum's farm, about three miles east of Sackville.

The protest against a $29,400,000 increase in taxes started as a 200-car motorcade inside Sackville and grew in taxes started as a 200-car motorcade inside Sackville and grew to a mile-long parade before it reached the education minister's farm.

Meanwhile, a group calling itself the Save New Brunswick Committee held its first meeting in Saint John Saturday night.

the government-controlled Radio Pakistan. Others patrolled the city's television station, a microwave communications centre and other key points.

By NICHOLAS MOORE

President Mohammed Ayub Khan was in a brief National Day message Sunday appealed to the people "to save the country."

The president's 10-year-old government faces an ever-mounting toll of life and property in the two seething halves of his country—brought about by strikes, violence and demonstrations by students, workers and political leaders.

Moslems prayed for the country in mosques throughout the land as Ayub declared: "The people pass their days in terror and all economic life is coming to a standstill."

CLAIMS 140 LIVES

Sunday was the 29th anniversary of the day the Moslem

League in British-ruled India passed a resolution to set up Pakistan as an independent homeland for Moslems—but usual festivities and parades were cancelled because of the lawlessness that has already claimed at least 140 lives in East Pakistan this month.

Terror, looting and arson continued in East Pakistan. Persons have been crucified by mobs roaming the countryside and conducting "peoples courts," with dozens nailed to trees and left to die.

Others have been beheaded, buried alive and clubbed to death.

"Corrupt elements" and "wrongdoers" lynched by the mobs are believed to have included local officials and supporters of Ayub's governing Moslem League. Police are powerless, outnumbered in the fight against mob rule.

Ayub has bowed to public pressure and pledged to step down from the presidency at the next election. But the riots continue.

East Pakistan's new governor, economist M. N. Huda, was sworn in Sunday and said he seeks to restore peace through joint commitment of students and politicians.

And West Pakistan's new governor, Yusuf Haroon, blamed widespread labor unrest on "irresponsible speeches" by politicians. He said he would announce reforms but added he would call in the army if these did not restore order.

Inverness Institute elects officers at annual meeting

INVERNESS — The annual meeting of the Women's Institute was held Mar. 8 at the home of Mrs. Allan Little. Two visitors, Mrs. John Bodkin and Mrs. Edgar Nugent, county president, and 11 members were present.

The president, Mrs. R. C. Muir, opened the meeting. Mrs. W. Joslin read the treasurer's report, which was followed by interesting reports of the year's work by the conveners.

There was a short discussion on the J. and P. Coat's contest as it was not clear to members if handmade aprons meant that all sewing must be by hand or if part could be done by machine. Mrs. Nugent explained that every stitch must be by hand. Several ladies plan to enter this contest.

The county president took the chair for the election of the following officers: Past president, Mrs. A. Little; president, Mrs. R. C. Muir; first vice-president, Mrs. W. Graham; second vice-president, Mrs. B. Robinson; secretary, Mrs. B. Robinson; treasurer, Mrs. W. Joslin.

Conveners: Agriculture, Mrs. A. Little; citizenship, Mrs. L. Henderson; education, Mrs. L. Kelso; home economics, Mrs. R.

Wright; publicity, Mrs. W. Graham; welfare and health, Mrs. W. Dacres; penny treasurer, Mrs. W. Joslin, auditors: Mrs. A. Minnaugh and Mrs. Russell Marshall.

Mrs. A. Little moved a vote of thanks for the work done by the president, secretary and treasurer during the past year.

Mrs. Little reported that a quilt had been sold and showed the members the three which she is making for the W.I. Some of the members stayed after the meeting to help tack the second quilt.

Mrs. P. Wright handed in a pair of socks which she had knitted and Mrs. B. Robinson donated a pair of socks and a barbecue apron which she had made.

The president thanked the members for their co-operation, then called on Mrs. Nugent, who gave an excellent report of the semi-annual board meeting, and said that the county meeting is set for May 16 in Inverness.

The travelling prize, given by Mrs. Little, was won by Mrs. R. Wright.

At the close of the meeting a supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Graham.

ACW plans to send bale to Schefferville

DANVILLE — The March meeting of the A.C.W. of St. Augustine's Church was held in the Parish Hall on Mar. 11, with eleven members present. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Gordon Statton, the vice-president, Mrs. Nellie Lockwood, took the chair. A new member, Mrs. E. G. Coyle, was welcomed. Mrs. L. G. Westman lead in the Devotionals in the absence of Mrs. George Robins.

It was agreed to send a bale to Schefferville in the near future and members were asked to do knitting and sewing for the preschool Indian children.

A contribution toward sending a child to Summer Camp will be made and a tea or food sale held to start a fund to send a delegate to the Biennial in 1970 at Gaspe.

The Educational portion of the meeting was taken by Mrs. Westman and a questionnaire was handed out and completed by the members.

The next meeting will be held in the Parish Hall with Mrs. John Philbrick as hostess.

GENERAL NOTES
Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell were Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dier and infant son of Brampton, Ont., and Mr. Neil Mitchell, Montreal, who was accompanied by Messrs. Albert Lafontaine, Gilles Martin and Dr. Michael Tetreault were also guests at the same home.

Lack of water means fiery end for Deauville furniture works

DEAUVILLE — (Staff) — A fire that raged out of control because of the lack of water to fight it completely destroyed Le Meuble Rustique Inc. building in Deauville Friday night causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

The cause of the blaze is still unknown.

Deauville and Sherbrooke firemen could not control the blaze after they had emptied their tank trucks. The building, the machinery, and finished furniture inside were all destroyed.

Deauville fire chief Gerard Roy said this morning that less than an hour after his men answered the alarm at 9:10 p.m., there was no water left in their 2,500-gallon tank.

Water brought by Sherbrooke re-enforcements was not sufficient to effectively fight the fire, he said.

Chief Roy said the fire was burning out of control when he and six volunteers first arrived on the scene. A truck and four men from the Sherbrooke fire department were called at 9:25 p.m.

There was no one in the building at the time of the outbreak and the alarm was given after smoke was seen filtering through the roof.

A Sherbrooke official said the back of the building was completely in flames when Lieutenant Jean Claude Bourque arrived with his men.

After 10 p.m., the fire burned out of control and Sherbrooke firemen left the scene at 11:30 p.m.

Romeo Hebert, the owner of the building, said this morning he would rebuild his business once he found the needed capital. He said, because of the high fire insurance rates, only a small part of the plant and contents was covered.

He said eight men worked regularly in the plant.

Bullet wound unseen at first

82-year-old East Angus man found slain at home

EAST ANGUS — (Staff) — An 82-year-old man, George Davis, of 3 Westgate Street, was found this weekend lying dead in a pool of blood in his home here.

The incident is the second in the region, a St. Martyr resident was found shot to death last month. Money does not seem to be the motive in the East Angus death, however.

The discovery was made this weekend by a friend of the victim, a Mr. Jameson, also from East Angus.

Mr. Jameson visited his friend frequently, and found it unusual to find no lights on in the house. Puzzled, Mr. Jameson opened the door and found the body lying facedown on the floor in a pool of blood.

Mr. Jameson notified the East Angus police department, and Dr. Oscar Guertette.

Cookshire Quebec Provincial Police were also called in.

Upon his arrival, Dr. Guertette pronounced the old man dead. District Coroner Dr. Louis Gagnon along with other persons believed that the victim had not died a natural death, although there were no exterior signs of injuries.

During examination of the body, one of the specialists present removed the victim's upper teeth and found a bullet hole. The bullet had left no traces at all, except inside the mouth.

The bullet, from a .22 calibre gun, penetrated the victim's head. It also seems that the bullet was not fired from very far, nor very near, although the exact distance it was fired has not yet been determined.

The body has been transported to Montreal for further investigation. Corporal Andre Magny of the Cookshire QPP detachment says the investigation is still under way.

Candidate views Sports Palace deficit, parking

With voting in the by-election for the Centre Ward aldermanic seat taking place Wednesday, the rival candidates for the post — Raymond Bergeron and Lucien Bedard — are intensifying their campaign for the support of the ward's 1,000 electors.

Mr. Bergeron, the only candidate to announce public meetings, met some 60 persons at the St. Michel School Friday night when he discussed such problems as the deficit incurred by the Sports Palace, the construction of "pocket arenas" and the serious traffic problem in the Centre Ward.

The candidate promised that when elected he would give serious study to the ways and means of increasing the rentability of the local Sports Palace. Each year this city-owned building incurs large deficits and he declared, "I am sure that a way can be found to attract more spectators to the Sports Palace in order to keep this building occupied the year round."

He also stated he was in favor of the construction of pocket arenas in other wards of the city, but only after the whole population had been given an opportunity of speaking on the matter. His reason for favoring the idea was that even with two arenas in Sherbrooke, certain teams still must rent ice time outside of Sherbrooke for games and practices.

The parking and traffic problem in the Centre Ward is another problem which will be given priority study if he is elected, Mr. Bergeron said. He reported that in his visits to merchants in the Centre Ward he had found much dissatisfaction concerning the problems of parking and circulation, particularly in the Wellington Street area.

Lack of urban planning in the Ward was also touched on by Mr. Bergeron who said that if development was to continue, a plan must be drawn up immediately. A vacant lot on King Street which is at present being used as a graveyard for old cars was also a target for his criticisms.

"Unless this lot can be used for a building at least a fence should be erected to hide these old relics," Mr. Bergeron declared.

Mr. Bergeron has another meeting scheduled for Tuesday night at the St. Michel School when he will further develop the program for his City Hall activities.

Other speakers included Gaston Goulet and Ald. Romeo Quintal with Germain Beaudoin acting as chairman of the meeting.

A friend and a trophy honor ET skiing pioneer

It is with deep sorrow that on January 19, 1969, I was told of the passing away of Erich Schiller, a very well-known personality in the sports world of the Eastern Townships.

Erich was a very close friend since he had been for me a very precious counsellor at the very

MEMORIAL TROPHY — The late Erich Schiller, long a prime mover in Eastern Townships skiing who died Jan. 19, will be remembered next Sunday with the presentation of the Erich Schiller Memorial Trophy at the end of the Jean Lessard outset of my career in competitive skiing.

His continued dedication to sports in general brought him the admiration and respect of everyone; he was considered as the pioneer of skiing in the Eastern Townships.

A native of Goppingen, Germany, Erich Schiller was already an excellent alpine skier when he came to Canada in 1932.

In 1938, he was a member of the St. Francis Golf and Ski Club, and also co-founder of the Hillcrest Ski Club in 1940. He then accepted to contribute all his knowledge to further ski developments such as Eustis, Que. and Capelton, Que. in 1941.

In 1942, Erich was responsible for the complete expansion of Green Timber mountain in North Hatley. Many skiers will remember such memorable names as the following ski trails: Sylvester, Lusignan, Mooney, Standard 21 and the unique Schiller Slip. That same year, Erich was responsible for installing the first mechanical uphill facility of the area.

Being fully aware of the increasing needs of the skier, Erich became the instigator of the evening Ski Classes then taking place at Brault's farm on Brompton Road.

As a joint effort with Mr. Hermann Smith Johansson, he laid out the famous Three Creeks Trail at Mount Orford. Later on he acquired for Hillcrest at North Hatley, the first Poma-Lift in the Eastern Townships. His valued experience and responsibility in fostering the development of skiing made him the Technical Adviser of the Eastern Townships Ski Zone during many years.

Over the years, he devoted to skiing, his reputation was such that he was requested to participate in the developments of areas such as Madona Mountain, Vermont, Mount Sutton, Mount Echo, La Reserve, Mount Bellevue in Sherbrooke, Granby, and others.

Erich was also an accomplished horseman. He directed the Horsemanship camp at Mount Echo which enjoys a worthwhile reputation through the Province.

On the occasion of the Jean Lessard Invitation Race which will be held on March 30, this race being sanctioned by the C.A.S.A. as Divisional, I am deeply pleased to present the Erich Schiller Memorial Trophy, which will be awarded every year in Sutton, to the winner of the Men's Giant Slalom. On that day, March 30, Mrs. Jeannette Schiller and her two daughters will be present for the official presentation of this Memorial Trophy.

I am sure this occasion will be marked by the presence of many of Erich's close friends.

TOP DISPLAY — Robert Clayton of Montreal won the first prize for the best display at the Lennoxville Rifle Club's

Lennoxville Rifle Club show attracts over 300 viewers

More than 300 antique and modern firearms and ammunition pieces were put on display by the Lennoxville Rifle Club yesterday in an attempt to interest more people in arms collecting and rifle competition.

Displays of collections from throughout the province were on view at the Rifle Range, 22 Beattie Street and more than 300 people inspected them.

The show included rifles and ammunition dating from the days of the Fenian Raids up until the Second World War. Finely-edged weapons and modern high accuracy rifles were also on display.

H. R. Derick, chairman of the committee that organized the presentation, said the aim of the display was to show the public the different types of weapons that are collected and how they are used.

He said the turnout was better than expected and he hoped that it would encourage more people to join the Lennoxville Rifle Club. He noted the membership fee is very low compared to organizations in the rest of the province.

Collectors were able to trade and buy weapons and exchange ideas with other interested people from areas outside the Eastern Townships.

The Sherbrooke Hussars put on an historical display showing the weapons used by its men since its founding.

Mr. Derick showed some of his own collection, including arms captured from the Fenians during their raids in the mid-Nineteenth Century.

Handguns were displayed and made available for purchase. In the morning competitions with a black-powder muzzle loader and a cap and ball revolver were held.

Old uniforms and decorations from military units were also shown.

MD hurt in crash

WINDSOR — (Staff) — Dr. Paul Michaud, 30 years old, of Sherbrooke, was rushed to the Hotel Dieu Hospital early this morning, after a car accident.

The accident occurred as Dr. Michaud was coming back to Sherbrooke early this morning. The victim was traveling alone in his car when a strip of ice made him lose control, police say. The vehicle immediately hit the ditch and the man was thrown from it. The accident happened at 2:20 a.m. today about two miles from Windsor.

Dr. Michaud was immediately driven to the Hotel Dieu Hospital, for treatment of multiple cuts to the face.

Richmond QPP detachment answered the call to the scene of the accident.

Burglars hit church

SOUTH BOLTON — (Special) — Thieves here stole everything they could move from the Holy Trinity Anglican Church some time over the weekend.

Cowansville Provincial Police are investigating the theft of articles from the altar, including chandeliers and almost all moveable items, some of them antiques.

There is no accurate estimate of the value of the missing articles.

Lincoln Davis, head church warden discovered the thefts Sunday morning.

The thieves originally had tried to force a back window, Mr. Davis said, but later had simply walked through the front door which was left open.

Included among the missing articles were seven antique kerosene lamps which have been priced by a Montreal dealer at $55 each.

Rev. Malcolm Brett, of Sutton, who has been conducting services here recently, is filing a report on the damage.

You can speak French by June 9

The trick is how we teach you. When the course starts, you start right in with simple words. Le déjeuner. Lunch. Du vin. Some wine.

After the first lesson, you're speaking easy sentences. Useful stuff, like Qui est cette demoiselle? Who is that young lady?

And by the time the course ends, you'll know enough French to get around. Garçon, l'addition est incroyable. Waiter, this cheque is outrageous.

At this point, we feel it's only fair to warn you that not more than 6 people can take each French group course at Berlitz. (The cost is $170.) The same goes for our Spanish, Italian, German and English courses. So maybe you should call or write us tout de suite. Or in other words, right now.

Plan drastic reforms in Quebec jail system

Legislation announced last week by Premier Bertrand should go a long way towards the modernization of the Quebec penal system and bring it into line with the most advanced thinking on the rehabilitation of those who run afoul of the law.

The provisions of the act would end the vindictive idea which is the basis of present penal practise, replacing it with the principle that most prisoners are basically responsible human beings who can be restored as productive members of society, something that existing rules have failed to accomplish.

Probably one of the most important provisions of the bill is that which would allow the courts to suspend sentence and permit the convicted person to be released under the supervision of a probation officer.

This has long been recommended by most criminologists, especially in the case of comparatively minor offences. Coupled to this is a clause providing that at the request of the court, probation officers would inquire into possibilities of rehabilitation of an offender to aid the court in passing sentence.

But most revolutionary is the proposal that persons imprisoned in houses of detention, which will replace the district jails for many classes of convicted individuals, could have full-time jobs or follow courses outside the establishment "to promote social rehabilitation."

One of the great problems in the past has been that very often when a man was released from jail he had no where to go. The stigma of a prison sentence often prevented him from obtaining gainful employment with the result that all too soon he returned to a life of crime to gain a livelihood.

The proposed reforms mean that he would be given a chance to work his way into the economic life of the province before completing his sentence.

What goes well with pizza is a loud plaid suit.

Riding shotgun again

Will "riding shotgun" become an integral feature of the movement of the mails in Canada?

The return of this practise common in the early days of the American West, by which a sharpshooter accompanied mail coach drivers to protect them against bandits and hoodlums, is envisaged as the result of an admission by Postmaster General Eric Kierans that a "reign of terror" is disrupting mail services in Montreal and having its repercussions across the nation.

One step in this direction has been taken already. Employees of a private security agency now a private security agency now accompany truck drivers charged with collecting and distributing the mail on Montreal Island but to date they have been unarmed. Their responsibility is to act as witnesses in cases of attack on the truck drivers.

But this has not prevented acts of sabotage against the trucks used by the mail service nor attacks on the drivers themselves.

The next step could be the arming of the detective agency employees.

Mr. Kierans says he hopes to have a solution to the troubles in Montreal by the end of this week.

Users of the Canadian postal service will hope sincerely that this is the case, but will be excused if they express doubts as to the accuracy of Mr. Kierans' forecasts.

More people are engaged in making mistakes than in any other occupation.

OTTAWA OFFBEAT

OTTAWA — Ever since the Yippie riots in Chicago during the Democratic convention last summer, newspapers, radio and television, lumped together as the "media," have been under fire for encouraging and inflaming dissent and disorder.

The simple fact of news coverage of assorted forms of protest, contend the media's critics, feeds the flame of violence.

The Vietnicks picketed the American embassy and it usually gets on page one and on radio-TV prime time.

The anti-Americans occupy External Affairs Minister Sharp's office and it makes headlines.

The Hippiess stage a camp-in around Parliament's Centennial Flame and it gets mass coverage.

Press, radio and television become sort of "captive" of events of violence.

Just last fall when a group of dissenters took over Mitchell Sharp's office, one of their leaders came to the Press Gallery to command — not demand, but, in truth, command — newspaper, radio and TV coverage.

"You've got no choice, baby," he told the newsmen, a few of whom were reluctant to make a big thing of the occupation. "We're taking over the external affairs minister's offices, and you've got to cover it — so bring along the cameras and the notebooks baby."

So the dissenters got their coverage. And who knows how many other potential protesters it might have encouraged on the basis of "if they can do it and yet get away with it, why can't we?"

THIS TIME, DIFFERENT:

Well, suddenly it isn't working that way any more.

Protest on Parliament Hill no longer is automatic route to the front page and prime time.

There has been some sort of a news watershed.

It came the other day when more than 100 students and others from Montreal, almost all of them from the West Indies, "marched on Ottawa," as the phrase goes, to "protest" the recent riot at Sir George Williams University.

They weren't "protesting," said their Negro spokesman, the $2,000,000 lost when the university's computers were put to the axe and the torch.

"No," it was explained, "that wasn't the product of conscious destruction, but merely of angry reaction."

Reaction to what? To the failure of the university, the city of Montreal and Canadian society generally to respond to student demands.

Just like that.

It was also, the student spokesmen explained, a protest against the denial of bail for some of those arrested, and against the government's warning that, if convicted of planning and staging the rampage of destruction, they could face deportation.

The dissenters "marched" aboard two buses to Ottawa and came to Parliament Hill carrying placards with such messages of protest as "Kill the Honky Pigs."

They came unannounced and "demanded" to see Prime Minister Trudeau. But he was otherwise occupied and so Treasury Board President Charles Drury saw them.

They demanded the federal government "investigate," not the $2,000,000 riot of student destruction itself, but the university administration, and Canadian "attitudes."

Quietly, politely, Mr. Drury declined, patiently explaining that the matter was in the hands of the courts and the provincial government.

BACK PAGES:

But he did express sympathy with the black students in their frustrations and suspicious of discrimination.

And he told them that in Canada they would find less discrimination and more acceptance than in a lot of other places.

There was an instant explosion of hostility, and he sat there, head bowed, as they booed, hooted and hissed him.

They turned their backs on him, and some of them began reading — ostentatiously — Time magazine's story of the Negro in Canada.

Then just as ostentatiously, they ignored him, chatting and laughing among themselves as he tried to continue to extend them sympathy mixed with a little paternal advice.

Finally, in a tone of regret, he observed, mildly: "You do make it a little difficult for anyone to assist you."

There were more hoots and hisses.

As they went on with their reading, backs turned, he said that he didn't want to "interrupt" them, and if they had to read while he was trying to talk to them, perhaps they would find more quiet in the hall outside.

The end came when one of the students suggested that Mr. Drury "be permitted to leave."

It was, they laughed, "a dismissal."

They had "marched" to the Hill, protest banners waving. They had taken over the big Railway Committee Room for most of the afternoon. They had "summoned" and "dismissed" a cabinet minister. They had made "demands" and exuded naked hostility.

For once, dissent and protest on Parliament Hill didn't make headlines or prime time.

The media, like the minister, kept its cool, and as if by unspoken consensus, gave the whole thing a very low key treatment.

It just might reduce the previously heavy traffic of dissent, protest and violence on Parliament Hill.

In Burma

Bizarre war hasn't slackened any

RANGOON (Reuters) — Burma's bitter and often bizarre war against Communist and other rebels—virtually unnoticed by the outside world—shows no sign of slackening as it enters its 23rd year.

Some of the odder features of the battle involve the theft of elephants by rebels who hope to gain ransom and the abduction of young girls by guerrillas in an attempt to trade them for arms and ammunition.

Roving bands of guerrillas menace peasants and travellers in the countryside, and many families have fled to government refugee centres where they form militia groups to help government troops.

Rangoon press reports of the deadly jungle feuds indicate the war is not on the wane, although many pro-Peking Communists who have surrendered say rebel groups are declining in strength.

The war has cost Burma huge sums and defence budgets soar each year. Thousands have been killed and millions of dollars worth of property has been devastated.

But the rebels have almost lost. The Burmese Communist party has been torn asunder since the assassination in September of its leader, Thakin Than Tun.

Latest reports say 200 rebels were killed in the last four months of 1968, nearly half members of the Communist party. The party went underground and began the revolt against the government in March, 1947—a year before Burma gained independence from Britain.

Communist-inspired rebels suffered a turn in their fortunes ever since the Communist party continued to support Peking during anti-Chinese riots here in 1967. This action was reported to have angered many Burmese.

Recent reports say 150 rebels were captured with their weapons in the last months of 1968 while 300 more voluntarily turned themselves in to the authorities.

Christ's passion

New presentation of the gospels in print for the first time

The narrative of Our Lord's

Passion and Resurrection we are about to publish is a text that was prepared, most particularly, to give a chronological view of the subject according to the four Gospels. As a matter of fact, it is an excellent thing to know the four narratives apart from one another, taken from the four Gospels respectively. It is even a necessity. But a great many Christians, with very good reason even nowadays, wish to read a combined narration of the four texts inasmuch as it is possible to get solid probabilities for the manner of combining them. Four authors told the story of the Passion; but, of course, there was but one Passion of Our Lord as it happened in one point of the past. So it is more than natural that one should wish to recall all the facts and words that occurred during that Passion by reading them in only one order and sequence, after one has read them separately in four books that are complementary between themselves.

The following narrative results from a prolonged and meditated studying of the original texts in Greek, as they are found in good editions of the New Testament. Rev. Laurent Tousignant is the author of that text. He is a Redemptorist priest stationed here in Sherbrooke. An interesting point of view of the author is that he wanted to treat the prospective reader as if he were a Greek-speaking reader of the first century, to whom the New Testament was offered for his instruction. That reader of old was happy enough to feel deep impressions while reading the narratives about Our Redeemer. But too often our modern readers are more or less deprived of that source of enjoyment, a fact which is perhaps against their spiritual profit. More and more modern translators nowadays try to meet such requirements as much as possible.

We hope our readers may be helped, even themselves to narrate the Passion and Resurrection before children for instance, with this new presentation that we now begin to print for you. It is given in print for the first time.

ON HOLY THURSDAY AT NIGHT

By REV. LAURENT TOUSIGNANT
Of the Redemptorist Fathers

The Agony in the Garden

Mt. 26, 30-44. The hymns being over, they set off for the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them: "All of you will be lacking in true attachment for Me this very night. For it is written — 'Smite the Shepherd and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' But, after I have risen, I myself, will go into Galilee in advance of you."

Here Peter answered to him: "Even if everybody else should be lacking in true attachment for You, as for me, never shall such a failing befall me!"

Jesus then comes with them to a country place called Gethsemane.

And He says to his disciples: "Stay here, and let Me go there, I beg you, to make it easy for Me to pray."

But He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee.

He fell into sadness and despondency.

Then He confides to them: "My soul is sad, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me still!" And, going forward a few steps, He let himself fall on his face thus praying: "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me! nevertheless let it be, not as I will, but as You will!"

And, coming back to His disciples, He finds them sleeping. "So," He says to Peter, "You have not been able to watch one hour with Me! Be watchful, and begin your praying that you may not have to undergo temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

He went away a second time and began praying: "O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup not pass away unless I drink it, let Your will be done."

And He found them asleep again when He came back near them so much weighed down their eyelids were.

He left them and went to a distance anew.

And He fell to praying a third time, saying over the same supplication.

L. 22, 43-44. Now there appeared to Him an angel from heaven, who took heart to comfort Him.

As He felt He was dying from anguish, He renewed his entreaties, and His sweat looked like clots of blood that were flowing even upon the ground.

Mt. 26, 45-46. Next He comes back to His disciples and says to them: "So, you will go on sleeping and taking rest? But look from now on is the time for the Son of Man to be given up to the hands of sinners! Stand up; let us go! There now, he is right here, he who is on the point of betraying Me!"

Jesus Arrested

Mt. 26, 47. He was not over with talking when Judas, one of the 12 was coming and, with him, a large crowd with swords and clubs, that was sent by the chief priests and the elders of the people.

J. 18, 2. Judas, who was betraying his Master, knew the place himself well, since Jesus had more than once met there together with his disciples.

Mt. 26, 48-50. And, for a signal, the traitor had given them this indication: "The one at all events, whom I will greet with a kiss, yes, that is He: lay hold of him!"

And he at once came up to Jesus: "Hail, Rabbi!" and he greeted Him with the kiss.

L. 22, 48. "My friend, Jesus said, what have you come for Judas, with a kiss you betray the Son of Man?"

J. 18, 4-9. Now Jesus, who had the knowledge of everything that was to befall him, went forward, and he asks them: "Who is it you are looking for?"

They answer him: "Jesus of Nazareth."

"I am He," He declares to them.

(And, among them, just in front of Him, he too, Judas the traitor, spelled one.)

But, at this only word of Jesus, "I am He," they, in a way, shrank back and fell to the ground.

"Who is it you are looking for?" He asked them again.

"Jesus of Nazareth."

CHEMCELL: The company looks forward this year to "further gains in sales and earnings which should bring us closer to a satisfactory level of return from our operations." Clifford S. Malone, president, says in the annual report. "We are entering 1969 in a much stronger position than at this time last year." A number of special problems, however, "continue to future prospects," Mr. Malone says. "Chief among these is the intense pressure of imports, particularly in the polyester-cotton blend area from low-wage countries and those with state-controlled economies." As reported earlier, Chemcell had net earnings in 1968 of $8,875,000 or 61 cents a share, up from $6,862,000 or 46 cents in 1967. Sales totalled $120,751,000 compared with $110,461,000.

CANADIAN BRITISH ALUMINIUM: The company announced Saturday it has shut down its $100,000,000 aluminum smelter on the Gulf of St. Lawrence "as a measure of security," in case of a sudden work stoppage. The company said in a statement that the shutdown was affected at midnight Friday night, to coincide with the expiry of a conciliation period in contract talks with the union representing the 750 plant employees.

UNION ACCEPTANCE: Net earnings of the company for 1968 amounted to $640,459 or an increase of 5.9 per cent over the previous year's $604,696. After first preference share dividends, earnings on a participating basis on the second preference and common were 55 cents a share compared with 50 cents.

Demonstrators, police clash in a Greek independence ceremony

MONTREAL (CP) — Demonstrators, police and participants in a ceremony marking the 148th anniversary of Greek independence clashed Sunday in a fist-swinging donnybrook which spread from Dominion Square into nearby downtown streets.

One police constable was slightly injured in the fighting. Eleven persons were taken to police headquarters for questioning.

About 150 people were gathered before the cenotaph in Dominion Square for a wreath-laying ceremony marking the proclamation of independence of Greece March 25, 1821.

At about the same time, a group of demonstrators showed up carrying placards denouncing the present government in Greece and "American imperialism."

When the ceremony ended with the playing of the Canadian and Greek national anthems, the participants attacked the demonstrators.

company official is quoted as saying Saturday.

Carl Lindell, chairman of the company's board, said in an interview with Ottawa radio station CFRA that the result of the first exploratory drilling is "a technical success but a commercial failure."

He added in the interview that prospects are very good, but assessment of funds so far has not established a continuous ore body.

Pay increase

MONTREAL (CP) — The 2,200 longshoremen in three St. Lawrence River ports Montreal, Trois-Rivières and Quebec have been offered a 15-per-cent pay increase over three years by the Shipping Federation of Canada.

The offer, made Saturday to a three-man conciliation board headed by Judge Alan Gold, includes two pay increases of 7 1/2 per cent one for the first 18 months of the contract and the other for the next 18 months.

The federation offered to pay 15 cents a ton handled into the longshoremen's job security fund.

The members of the International Longshoremen's Association, now earning $3.75 an hour, are asking for an hourly increase of $1.25 in the first year and $1.75 in the second year of a two-year contract.

Judge Gold said the board will hold private talks with both sides, now that hearings are completed, before preparing a report for Labor Minister Bryce Mackasey.

Shut down

BAIE COMEAU, Que. (CP) — Canadian British Aluminium Co. Ltd. announced Saturday it has shut down its $100,000,000 aluminum smelter on the Gulf of St. Lawrence "as a measure of security" in case of a sudden work stoppage.

The company said in a statement the shutdown was effected at midnight Friday night, to coincide with the expiry of a conciliation period in contract talks with the union representing the 750 plant employees.

Ratify contract

MONTREAL (CP) — A contract with 11 trucking companies providing for a 57-per-cent pay increase over three years was ratified Sunday by 2,100 Quebec members of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

The union said the contract involves an additional $22,000,000 expenditure for the companies and gives Quebec members wage parity with their Ontario counterparts.

For hourly-paid employees, the increases will boost their wages by 25 cents April 1 to $2.95 and by May 29, 1971, to $3.80.

The contract, which affects another 300 workers not present for the ratification meeting, also provides for a contributory pension fund, improved vacations and other fringe benefits.

The current agreement expires March 31, with the new one effective April 1 to March 31, 1972.

In 1939 he was named director of station CBV in Quebec City. Father Seguin founded the first two Canadian radio institutes at Queen's University, Kingston, Ont., and at Laval University Quebec City, in 1942.

He organized the French television network of the CBC and became its first director in 1952.

Record number

MONTREAL (CP) — The International Air Transport Association says a record number of passengers crossed the North Atlantic last year on scheduled flights of the association's member airlines.

In a weekend report, IATA said the total of 5,258,195 was an increase of 270,762 passengers over 1967.

Cargo traffic on scheduled flights over the North Atlantic was up 31 per cent.

The total number of IATA-member flights across the North Atlantic also went up 12.2 per cent to 78,116 from 69,468.

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canadian housewife never had it so good in terms of food costs and services, a five-man study group on agriculture policies says in a preliminary report to the federal agriculture minister.

Those who complain of high food prices fail to recognize that a large part of the increase in price is caused by marketing services and conveniences demanded by consumers, the report states.

In the 10 years from 1957 to 1968, the percentage of personal income spent on food decreased to 19 per cent from 23 per cent.

The report says the farm industry, "far from contributing to the large increase in the cost of living over the past 20 years, has had a strong moderating influence."

Colonel Whelton was married to Marian Bliss Greenwood (Ingis), who survives him, also Dr. Moreen Whelton, of London, Dr. Andrew Whelton, of Cork, Ireland, Dr. Frank Whelton, of Cork, Ireland, Mrs. Tom O'Connor, M.D., of Dublin, Ireland, Mrs. P. McSweeney, of Kilkenny, Ireland, and Dr. Johanna Murphy, of London, England, all brothers and sisters, and several nieces and nephews.

Burial was in North Hatley.

Waterloo High holds workshop

WATERLOO — (Special) — An educational workshop was held at Waterloo High School March 13, when the draft of a new report card for the elementary grades was submitted for approval.

The new report was approved with a few revisions. The report submitted was an open letter type, as opposed to the old Check list type. The committee felt that this would give the teacher more opportunity to comment on the child's effort, potential and achievement.

The committee consisted of three teachers — Mrs. Lois Jones, Miss Davis, and Mr. Peter Bruck; and three parents — Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Lewis, and Mr. Keith Durrell. Mr. Durrell acted as chairman.

There will be a copy of each report for the parents to keep. The first editions of these reports will be issued for the balance of 1968-69.

The committee also recommended that a Meet the Teacher Night be held at the end of September to give parents and teachers a chance to meet. Personal interviews will also take place during the year.

The reports will be issued three times a year, in November, March and in June.

All enjoy St. Pat's

WATERLOO — (Special) — A successful St. Patrick's Day Tea was held Saturday, March 15, at St. Paul's United Church, sponsored by the C.G.I.T.

President Miss Christine Bazinet greeted the guests at the door. The hall was decorated with streamers, black hats and shamrocks, and the tea table was centered with a large black hat surrounded by shamrocks. Mrs. Henry Snow and Mrs. Roger McKernan poured tea.

At four p.m. the girls, all looking very smart in their uniforms, sang five musical selections for the ladies enjoying tea. They included what the World Needs Now, I'm Singing, Happiness Is, Yesterday, and a number done by a trio.

The girls were assisted in the kitchen by Mrs. June Derbyson, Mrs. Bobby Cochrane and Mrs. Ellen Heath.

Happy marriage

Couple must battle for it

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. — (NEA) — Everybody agrees that this is a violent age, but not everybody agrees on what to do about it. One novel theory is that of psychologist Dr. George R. Bach — he thinks what we need is more fighting in the home, and then maybe there would be less outside.

Bach is a household hawk. He advocates that husbands and wives fight — often — to maintain a happy marriage.

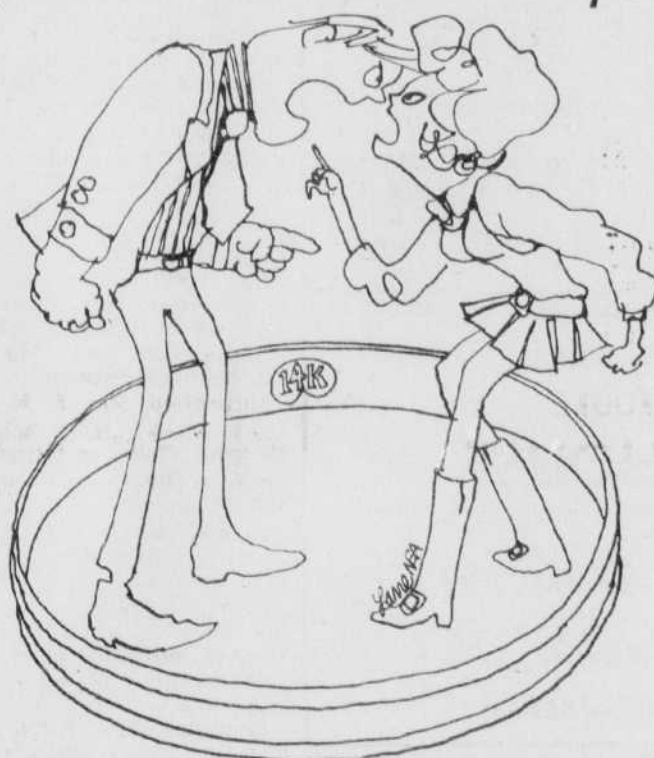

"A happy marriage," he says, "is a turbulent marriage."

He believes that fighting clears the air and achieves an atmosphere of intimacy and emotional involvement that cannot be obtained any other way. Furthermore, he says that people who avoid fights — those who seek peace at any price — may have mutually boring lives which can lead to infidelity and divorce.

Bach is a bouncy, little, white-haired man given to bright sports clothes, who runs the Institute of Group Psychotherapy here. He himself has had a long and happily turbulent marriage.

He has written his theories in a book, "The Intimate Enemy," but he has since gone beyond the book with some newer ideas.

One of these is that it's just as sensible to have some good fights before marriage — during courtship — as it is later on.

In fact, he has had a series of workshops for young singles, designed to teach them how to fight. One of his theories is that plain fighting isn't enough; you have to fight according to rules so that the battle is clean and evenly matched.

"During the average courtship," Bach says, "the two people can each other. They put on false fronts.

They tell each other their life stories, generally tailored for the occasion.

"It would be much better if, instead, they had fights. They would learn much more about each other that way."

Bach says that computer matchmaking is not satisfactory for many reasons, but that a couple of good fights will let people know more about themselves than even the most sophisticated computer.

"Good relationships," he says, "are not based simply on personality match-ups. There's a lot more to it than that."

He even has worked out certain exercises for singles to use in what he calls "non-verbal communication," so that they can learn about each other without saying a word.

These include such things as one partner trying to push the other against a wall, or one partner falling and the other catching him (to learn trust), or one he calls "The Diane Crump" in honor of the first female jockey, which has the girl riding the boy around the room like a horse.

Later on, they should fight verbally. These exercises are simply preliminaries to word fights, which are the most revealing.

Bach says that hippies, since they like to avoid any hassle, are unable to establish meaningful permanent relationships. They are only capable of what he calls "romantic trips."

"A romantic attachment," he says, "lasts on the average five months and nine days. After that, a more lasting interpersonal relationship has to develop — or else it's all over."

An olive quiche, an Easter extra

Easter dinner should be a springtime festival and all festivals include surprises. That's why this ripe olive quiche, a California adaptation of Quiche Lorraine, is suggested.

It is new, different and delicious. For the first course, before the baked ham, it is ideal.

RIPE OLIVE QUICHE

- 1 cup canned California ripe olives
- 3 cups onion rings
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 4 eggs
- ½ cup half and half
- ½ cup catsup
- ½ teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon seasoned pepper

Irish motif feature of St. Patrick's tea, sale

STANSTEAD — The main hall of the Canadian Legion Memorial Home was attractively decorated in Irish motif with hats, harps, shamrocks on Mar. 16, for the Legion Auxiliary annual tea and sale.

The event was largely attended and guests were received by the president, Mrs. Geneva Lyons. Mrs. Adelaide Laberec sold the admission tickets.

The sales tables of fudge, mystery packages, handicrafts and home-made foods were well patronized. The salesladies were Mrs. Cyril Crawford, Mrs.

George Hatch, Mrs. Lawrence Winter, Mrs. Galeon Sisco, Mrs. E. J. Curtis and Mrs. Maude Probert. Mrs. R. Hilliker sold numbers on a beautiful cake, made and decorated by Mrs. Julia Bacon in green and yellow on white. The cake was in the design of a large shamrock. Mrs. Owen Quillman was the lucky winner.

Mrs. Grace Dezan was in charge of the special prize of $25, which went to Silas Simpson of Newport Center.

Door prizes, contributed by the members, went to Miss Irene Willard, Waterville; Mrs. Percy Poaps, Miss Linda Bliss, Mrs.

Lexie Huitson, Mrs. James Fearon, Mrs. Owen Quillman, all of Stanstead, Mrs. Ina Wilson, Beebe, and Mrs. Geneva Lyons, Rock Island.

Mrs. E. C. Middleton and Mrs. Roger Roy, in charge of the dining room tea table, were assisted by the Misses Diane and Lucille Belanger, Penny Middleton and Wendy Winter. The tea tables were each centered by a vase holding a yellow flower. The main tea table was attractive with an arrangement of spring flowers. Mrs. Mabel Crawford and Mrs. Aileen Arbery poured. The kitchen details were in charge of Mrs. Jack Heald, Mrs. T. Bowden, Mrs. Lillian Probert, Mrs. Joe Chartier and Mrs. Henri Wesseling.

Chart Wearables

Try dividing the clothes in your closet into several classifications — day clothes, sports clothes, afternoon and evening clothes. Label accessories according to what they go with. Try keeping a master chart on the back of your closet door, matching up your clothes and accessories, so that you can tell what goes with what at a glance.

Women's groups

LENNOXVILLE WI

Lennoxville Women's Institute held the annual meeting and election of officers in the club room, Town Hall, Queen Street, recently. Mrs. Neil Tracy, president, opened the meeting with the salute to the flag and collect.

Mrs. Francis Smith took the chair for the election of officers which resulted as follows:

President, Mrs. Neil Tracy; first vice-president, Mrs. Sterling Parker; second vice-president, Dr. Kathleen Atto; secretary, Mrs. Lyman Rothery; and treasurer, Mrs. Gerald Cascadden. All were re-elected.

Conveners: Agriculture, Dr. Kathleen Atto; citizenship, Mrs. Gilbert L. Patrick; education, Mrs. Charles E. McKee; home economics, Mrs. Hugh L. Wallace assisted by Mrs. Lewis Eager; publicity, Mrs. Rupert Porter; welfare and health, Mrs. George Povey.

Special committees, sun-shine, Dr. Kathleen Atto; ways and means, Mrs. Sterling Parker, Mrs. Rupert Porter and Mrs. Lewis Eager; telephone, Mrs. Raymond Pariseau.

Annual reports were called for and the financial report showed a satisfactory balance with all commitments met and the auditors report correct.

Highlights from the conveners reports included in agriculture, members assisted at the annual school fair which was a decided success; held a seed contest and heard many good articles regarding agriculture and horticulture and had a plant and slip exchange as well as support given to local 4H Club and other worthwhile projects.

Citizenship, highlight of the year was the visit of Mrs. Roti Dutt, president of the associated Country Women of the World; Christmas stockings made and filled for the Save the Children Fund; poppies bought and wreath placed at cenotaph on Memorial Day; UNICEF cards sold and a donation given to UNICEF collectors' party; many excellent articles read.

Education, donations given to local schools for prizes; had speaker on new regional school project and many articles read.

Home economics, held handicraft display; work of members at meeting; members took part in provincial handicraft competitions with resulting winners; demonstration on crewel embroidery; recipe books distributed and many helpful hints given; articles read and grocery sales slips collected.

Welfare and health, members made 1,232 dressings for cancer patients and donated 21 Christmas gifts; many items were made for patient gift cupboard; donations Maplemount Home dental clinic; a jam and jelly shower; a talk given by local health nurse; donations to hot lunch fund for local school; many articles and items read.

Publicity, meetings were reported to press and one radio broadcast given; posters made for events and members have pen pals.

Special committees, Sunshine, remembered sick and shut-ins with cards, gifts and Cheer baskets.

Ways and means, money was raised through, sales of handicrafts, teas, cook books and mystery donations.

This just points to highlights from each department, much more has been carried out and shows a busy and successful year by a membership of 28.

Mrs. Neil Tracy in giving her annual address congratulated all conveners for the interest shown in each department of work and thanked the officers and members for their loyal support and asked for the continuation of same.

The year's program was out lived and it was decided that in the future meetings would be held at 2 p.m. instead of 2:30 p.m. The next meeting will be under home economics and a display of handicraft will add to the interest. All members are asked to contribute one or more articles. The same evening the members will hold a family night with pot luck supper and social evening.

A decision was made to enter the provincial play contest and there will be entries in an embroidery competition. Notice was given of the coming county meeting in May and conveners reminded to have reports in order.

At the conclusion of the busy session, a delicious tea was served by the hostesses, Dr. Kathleen Atto and Mrs. Lyman Rothery.

ST. ANDREW'S GUILD

The March meeting of the St. Andrew's Guild was held in the Ladies Parlor of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Frontenac Street, recently with Mrs. Allan Goodfellow presiding. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer in unison followed by the scripture reading by Mrs. Clarence Foley.

It was suggested future meetings be opened with a hymn. Mrs. Allan Morrison accompanied on the piano to a hymn.

Mrs. Morrison agreed to select a hymn for next meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Treasurer, Mrs. George Burroughs, reported a substantial increase in the bank balance.

Mrs. Herbert Mayhew and Mrs. Peter Boulton reported on the progress of the Presbyterian men's supper held, Mar. 18, in the church hall.

It was decided to postpone the casserole supper scheduled for April 12 until a later date.

The members were reminded to bring their rummage to the next meeting. The date of the sale is April 22 from 10 a.m. until noon.

Secretary, Mrs. Herbert Parrell, is to write the bulletin board and the treasurer is to take care of the French-language advertising.

The members were asked for their support at the youth workshop to be held in the hall, Mar. 25, at 7:30. Tea money was collected by the treasurer.

Meeting closed with Mizpah Benediction. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Herbert Mayhew and Mrs. Peter Boulton.

The members then purchased items from the bring and buy bake sale.

THE EASTERN INFLUENCE — Claire Haddad sits in the showroom of her fashion company in Toronto, which she formed with her husband in 1964. Mrs. Haddad's interest in the east is reflected in the decor and in the fashion worn by the model at right.

Go to bed fashions should do for pool wear as well.

TORONTO (CP) — Dynamic, dark-haired lingerie designer Claire Haddad says fashions "that go to bed also must go to the pool—even perhaps out for an evening."

She backs up this philosophy by designing sleepwear that can be worn as a hostess outfit with aplomb. Indeed, one of her short chiffon cover-ups turned up at an opening night at the Stratford Festival. It was actually a companion piece to a short halter-neck nightie with boa neckline.

"Fashion today is electric, alive—fun, yet serious," says the Toronto-born graduate of the Ontario College of Art and three design schools, including one in New York. She was literally born into the business as her father, J. H. Bardwell, is a well-known manufacturer of housecoats.

Claire worked for her father's firm for a time but found being confined to one line was frustrating. She had married Al Haddad, a Canadian Army captain, late in the war, and in 1964 they formed their own company. "He keeps the business running," she says.

TROPHIES LINED UP

In the entrance lobby of their downtown factory stand the 11 trophies she has won since 1964, including one from the United States. Claire was the first Canadian designer recognized by Vogue magazine in a full-page picture layout.

Her showroom is oriental in decor. White walls are broken by windows topped by Moorish grill boxes covered in the same ivory antique satin as the tie-back drapes edged in blue-and-olive braid and tassels. There's an antique Turkish smoking stand and an oriental drop-lamp.

This oriental interest runs through much of Mrs. Haddad's fashion thinking. She is probably best known for her harem adaptations for sleepwear. At home, she likes to entertain with Lebanese dishes.

Both her label and boutique collections feature co-ordinated sets, as in the combination nightie and cover-up whose latter part appeared at the Shakespearean festival.

Brome bride-elect surprised at shower

BROME — A miscellaneous shower was recently held at the home of Miss Evelyn Miller with Miss Lois Hardacker as co-hostess in honor of Miss Janice Draper whose marriage takes place in May.

About 17 former school friends attended. Miss Draper was completely surprised, having been called to the home to look over some patterns for wedding attendants' dresses.

She was welcomed and escorted to a chair decorated in yellow and white over which were hung a white watering can filled with yellow flowers and streamers of tinsel icicles from the spout as well as yellow and white balloons containing confetti.

Miss Hardacker presented both the bride-to-be and her mother with corsages of yellow and white poms.

The bride-elect's mother assisted Miss Draper in opening the many gifts and later poured tea, assisted by Mrs. Hardacker at a lace-covered table centered by a bride's cake decorated also in white and yellow.

The guest of honor thanked all for the gifts and the hostesses for giving her the shower.

St. Anne's ACW reports show satisfactory balance

RICHMOND — The regular meeting of St. Anne's A.C.W. was held in the parish hall on March 13 with Miss V. Noble in the chair.

The treasurer's report showed a satisfactory balance and the correspondence and thank you notes were read.

Mrs. George Walker reported a good attendance at the World Day of Prayer held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Upper Melbourne.

Mrs. H. Moret and Miss H. Penfold were unable to make their usual monthly visits at the Wales Home due to the snow condition.

Donations of wool is badly needed for the knitters.

Mrs. L. Pye, ways and means convener, reported four quilts finished, one more to finish the quilting. It was decided to have an all-day work meeting on March 27.

The regular meeting took place with the president, Mrs. Douglas Cooper, asking all to stand for a moment of silence in memory of the late Mrs. Lillie Whitehouse, of Dixville, who was a dedicated member of the Branch. A tribute was read by Mrs. George Hatch.

The roll call was payment of dues for the ensuing fiscal year. Routine reports were heard. Mrs. Cooper completed plans for the rummage sale to be held on March 29 at the Rock Island Town Hall at 9:00 o'clock. Mrs. Edward Simpson, Sr., and Mrs. Doris Belanger are to be in charge with several members to work Friday night to prepare for the sale and again on Saturday morning.

At the April meeting the Senior Citizens of the Branch will display their hobbies. Mrs. Cooper

Stanstead North Women's Institute

names president at annual session

STANSTEAD — Mrs. Ralph Ashman was elected the new president of the Stanstead North Women's Institute at the annual meeting held March 6 in the lounge of the Legion Memorial Home.

The regular meeting took place with the president, Mrs. Douglas Cooper, asking all to stand for a moment of silence in memory of the late Mrs. Lillie Whitehouse, of Dixville, who was a dedicated member of the Branch. A tribute was read by Mrs. George Hatch.

The roll call was payment of dues for the ensuing fiscal year. Routine reports were heard. At the April meeting the Senior Citizens of the Branch will display their hobbies. Mrs. Cooper reminded them there will also be a cookie sale and the cookie recipe, proceeds to go into the Pennies for Friendship box.

It was the first at the club since 1937. Other members are, left to right, George Trew, second, Juli Dowbiggin, lead, and Evelyn Griffiths, third.

Expos fighting to retain Staub, need hitters to off set pitching WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Why all this fuss over Rusty Staub?

Simple: At 24, Staub is a highly valuable property. Montreal Expos wanted him so much they traded Donn Clendenon and Jesus Alou to Houston Astros to get him.

Now, with Clendenon clouding things by not reporting to Houston, the Astros are upset by the prospect of losing Staub for only Alou.

"He's one of the top hitters in the game," explained Montreal manager Gene Mauch.

An expansion club doesn't often get that kind of material.

Staub has been working only in the outfield for the Expos, although he also has played first base. He is coming off a season in which his average dipped to .291 following a high of .333 in 1967.

SEEN AS KEY MAN

But he is one of the keys for the Expos, who expect him to return to the .300 ranks while providing some power for a club that appears to lack pitching strength.

With Staub in the outfield likely will be Mack Jones, acquired from Cincinnati Reds in the expansion draft, and two other draftees, either Manny Mota (Pittsburgh Pirates) or Jim Fairley (Los Angeles Dodgers).

The infield will be anchored at shortstop by the veteran Maury Wills, who rarely played the position in the last two years at Pittsburgh.

Bob Bailey, a former $175,000 bonus baby who never has lived up to expectations while playing third base and the outfield for Pittsburgh and Los Angeles, is being tried at first base by the Expos.

Gary Sutherland, who Mauch worked with when he managed Philadelphia Phillies, will be the second baseman and Coco Laboy, a product of the St. Louis Cardinals farm system has been given the first shot at third base.

While Wills steadies the infield, catcher John Bateman will have to do the same with the pitchers, and that could be the most trying job with the new club. For right now there are only three certain starters—Jim (Mudcat) Grant, Larry Jaster and John Billingham.

Grant had a 6-4 record with a 2.08 earned run average with the Dodgers last season while Billingham, one of their brightest prospects, had a 2.15 ERA in 50 games, mostly in relief. Jaster was 9-13 with St. Louis.

Mauch had counted on Larry Jackson for his fourth starter, but the Philadelphia veteran retired, leaving the void to be filled by such young arms as Ernest McNally, Bob Reynolds and Mike Wegener, who never have pitched in the majors.

It's not a staff guaranteed to put the Expos into the pennant battle in the National League's Eastern Division with St. Louis, Chicago Cubs, New York Mets, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

Phillies' Deron Johnson's bat paying off, stop Dodgers 5-2

Deron Johnson, who travelled downhill for the last three National League seasons, appears to be making a comeback with Philadelphia Phillies.

Johnson, who drove in 130 runs for Cincinnati Reds in 1965 but delivered only 33 for Atlanta Braves last season, continued to sparkle for Philadelphia in exhibition baseball play Sunday, slugging a pair of two-run homers and a run-scoring double in a 5-2 victory over Los Angeles Dodgers.

The 29-year-old slugger, sold to the Phillies after battling 208 for the Braves in 1968, has connected for three homers in the last three days.

Jerry Koorman, New York Mets' sore-shoulder southpaw ace, hurled three scoreless innings in a 7-3 victory over Boston, but Red Sox right-hander Jim Lonborg worked only two full innings before his pitching shoulder tightened up.

Detroit Tigers edged St. Louis Cardinals 7-6. Dave Campbell scoring the winning run in the ninth on an obstruction play.

Washington Senators spotted Houston Astros a 6-0 lead, then struck for four runs in the seventh inning and six more in the eighth to win 10-6.

MARTY SAVES GAME

Second baseman Marty Mar-

nez made a leaping catch of Craig Nettles' bases-loaded liner and turned it into a game-ending double play as Pittsburgh Pirates nipped Minnesota Twins 5-4 with the help of Bob Robertson's three-run homer.

Sal Bando, Danny Cater and Dick Green tagged left-hander Mike Paul for homers, powering Oakland Athletics to a 7-4 victory over Cleveland Indians. The Cleveland B team bowed to San Diego Padres 17-10 in a 36-hit slugfest despite six Cleveland homers, two of them by Zoilo Versalles.

Chicago White Sox capitalized on two errors by shortstop Jackie Hernandez for four unearned runs in the eighth and a 4-2 verdict over Kansas City Royals. Dave May's two-run single in a three-run seventh swept Baltimore Orioles past Atlanta 4-3.

Lee May slugged a two-run homer and Alex Johnson and Johnny Bench each hit one with the bases empty, pacing Cincinnati Reds to a 6-3 victory over New York Yankees.

San Francisco Giants pasted California Angels 10-1, with Gaylord Perry scattering six hits through the first seven innings.

Two ninth-inning errors by shortstop John Kennedy helped Chicago Cubs score twice and shade Seattle Pilots 7-6 in the second game of a doubleheader after the Pilots took the opener 5-4 on Wayne Comer's triple and Larry Haney's infield out in the 11th.

Saturday, California downed San Francisco 7-3, New York Yankees blanked Washington 3-0, New York Mets ousted Chicago White Sox 14-8, Houston topped Kansas City 6-3, Montreal Expos nipped Atlanta B team 3-2, Minnesota defeated Pittsburgh 3-1, Philadelphia edged Boston 4-3, Cincinnati shut out Los Angeles 4-0, St. Louis walloped Detroit 9-1.

REMEMBER WHEN... Seattle defeated Montreal Canadiens 7-2 to take a 2-1 lead in the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs 50 years ago today—in 1919. The series was never completed. With the teams tied 2-2, it was called off after an outbreak of influenza among the players. Montreal star Joe Hall died of the illness.

Jerry Quarry, Buster Mathis meet tonight in elimination

NEW YORK (CP) — With their charges and counter-charges behind them, Jerry Quarry and big Buster Mathis meet tonight in a 12-round heavyweight elimination battle at Madison Square Garden.

Mathis is a 2-to-1 favorite despite being ranked sixth by Ring magazine, compared with Quarry's No. 4 rating. Buster will also have a four-inch height advantage, a four-inch advantage in reach and a 40-pound advantage in weight.

"That won't make any difference," Quarry said.

"Ted Spencer was five inches taller and I outjabbed him. And all that weight doesn't bother me. He ain't as big across the shoulders as I am."

Quarry plans to use the jab against Mathis but his heavy artillery will be aimed low.

Trainer Teddy Bentham says there's no secret about Quarry's fight plan.

"Jerry is going to bang Mathis in the belly from the opening bell till he can't take it any more and then he's going to knock him out. That's the whole story."

Quarry was a little more definite about the outcome of the fight. When asked what his strategy will be, he retorted: "Strategy? Hell, I ain't got no strategy. I'm just gonna fight him. I'm going right after him. He'll quit after about six rounds. Remember what I said, he'll quit."

Mathis has been accusing Quarry of throwing an illegal

Sags down Vics 2-0

Tigers take finals' opener 3-1

VICTORIAVILLE — (Staff) — Victoriaville Tigers, defending Quebec Provincial Senior Hockey League playoff and Allan Cup champions, took one step toward their second consecutive playoff crown in Victoriaville last night as they downed Chicoutimi Saguenéens 3-1.

Victoriaville leads 1-0 in the finals with the second game scheduled for Wednesday night in Chicoutimi.

Phil Watson's charges advanced into the finals Friday night as they downed Granby Vics 2-0. Claude Cyr, Chicoutimi's goaltender, was the star of the game as he shutout the Vics.

Thursday night the series returns to Victoriaville for the third game. The finals, a best-of-seven contest, see Victoriaville as the highly favored team.

Both Chicoutimi and Victoriaville advanced into the finals by taking their semi-final series in six games. The Tigers chalked up two important wins in Sherbrooke to take the Beavers four games to two while Chicoutimi beat Granby once on the Vics' home ice.

With their 3-1 victory last night, Victoriaville stretched their current playoff winning streak to four games. Prior to this Victoriaville beat Sherbrooke by scores of 5-3, 2-1 and 4-1.

SCORERS

Scoring for Victoriaville last night were Jocelyn Hardy, Jacques Michel and Guy Black. Gilles Delisle scored for Chicoutimi to prevent Jean-Guy

After the end of the first period the score was tied 0-0. Claude Cyr allowed Chicoutimi to go to the dressing room still in the game as he stopped 25 shots in the first 20 minutes of play.

Neither team was able to muster a proficient power-play in the first period with a total of five minors and two majors having been handed out.

equalizer on passes from Leclerc and Labadie.

Pint-size Jacques Michel, standing in front of Cyr, put the Tigers ahead 2-1 later in the second period as he deflected a shot by the brilliant Chicoutimi netminder.

Guy Black, midway through the third period, spoiled Chicoutimi's hopes of tying the match as he slipped past a sleeping Saguenéens' defense, went in all alone on Cyr and made no mistake with his drive.

A total of 10 penalties were handed out in the game, six of which were taken by the Victoriaville Tigers.

Bruins' hopes of finishing first are fading, Habs and Rangers stop Boston

Boston Bruins' hopes of finishing in first place in the Eastern Division of the National Hockey League were deflated Sunday by defenseman Jim Neilson.

Neilson scored two goals and assisted on another to lead New York Rangers to a 4-2 victory against Boston, leaving the Bruins four points back of first-place Montreal Canadiens, who were idle Sunday.

The Bruins and Canadiens, both with three games left in the regular-season schedule, meet at Montreal next Saturday and at Boston next Sunday in the season finale.

Boston must win both those weekend games to entertain any hope of finishing first. Montreal's other remaining game is at Toronto Wednesday while Boston plays host to the Rangers Thursday.

Neilson's second goal of the game Sunday came at 0:28 of the final period, breaking a 2-2 tie as the Rangers stretched their unbeaten streak at home to 17 games.

In other action Sunday, Oakland Seals edged Los Angeles Kings 5-4, Philadelphia Flyers nipped St. Louis Blues 4-3, Pittsburgh Penguins blanked Minnesota North Stars 5-0 and Chicago Black Hawks topped Toronto Maple Leafs 4-1.

Saturday, Montreal took New York 3-1, Toronto downed Detroit Red Wings 3-1, Boston outscored Chicago 5-3, Philadelphia defeated Minnesota 5-1, Pittsburgh nipped St. Louis 2-1 and Oakland blanked Los Angeles 4-0.

COMPLETE THE SCORING

Scoring the other New York goals Sunday were Vic Hadfield and Rod Seiling. Derek Sanderson and Ken Hodge tallied for Boston before 17,250 New York customers.

The third-place Rangers, five points ahead of Toronto, have not lost at home since Jan. 2 when they dropped a 4-2 decision to Boston.

Philadelphia clinched a berth in the Western Division playoffs with its victory Sunday and moved into third place, one point ahead of Los Angeles.

Forward Garry Peters scored the winning goal before 14,558 at Philadelphia at 15:16 of the second period, with each team playing two men short.

Other Philadelphia scorers were Gary Dornhoefer, Bill Sutherland and Jim Johnson. Bill McCreary, Terry Gray and Camille Henry scored for St. Louis, which has won only one of seven games since clinching the Western Division title.

Rookie Norm Ferguson scored two goals, his 32nd and 33rd of the season, to help Oakland clinch second place in the Western Division Sunday. His second goal, coming with less than four minutes remaining, broke a 4-4 tie before 4,219 at Oakland.

Ferguson moved ahead of Minnesota's Danny Grant as the NHL rookie with the most goals. Grant has 32, and the record for a rookie had been 30 goals by Bernie Geoffrion of Montreal in 1951-52.

LEMIEUX ADDS TWO

Sharing the other Oakland goals were Earl Ingarfield, Bert Marshall and Gerry Ehman. Real Lemieux scored two goals for Los Angeles and Howie Menard and Jim Peters added one each.

Right winger Kenny Wharram scored two goals for the Black Hawks against Toronto in front of a crowd of 16,666 at Chicago.

Other Chicago goals went to Stan Mikita and Jim Pappin while rookie defenseman Jim Dorey scored for Toronto.

The loss left the Maple Leafs four points ahead of Detroit in the battle for the fourth and final playoff spot in the Eastern Division, and Toronto has a game in hand.

A crowd of 3,739 at Pittsburgh saw Keith McCreary and Ken Schinkel score two goals each for the Penguins and Billy Harris one.

Rookie Joe Daley picked up the shutout, stopping Minnesota for playoff contention.

Saturday, Phil Esposito of Boston scored his 46th and 47th goals of the season to tie the record for most goals in a season by a centre set by Jean Beliveau of Montreal in 1955-56.

Other Boston scorers were John McKenzie, Garnet Bailey and Fred Stanfield. Doug Mohns, Dennis Hull and Wharram tallied for the Black Hawks.

KEON CELEBRATES

Dave Keon celebrated his 29th birthday by scoring one goal and assisting on another in Toronto's 3-1 victory before 16,485 at Maple Leaf Gardens.

Brit Selby and George Armstrong had the other Toronto goals while Frank Mahovlich scored his 47th of the season for Detroit, which appeared tired after a mid-week road trip in California.

A crowd of 14,664 at Minneapolis Saturday saw Don Cherry of Philadelphia and Bill Collins of Minnesota exchange first-period goals before the Flyers erupted for four straight goals. Other Philadelphia scorers were Dick Sarrazin, Bob Blackburn, Andre Lacroix and Leon Rochefort.

Gary Smith picked up the shutout Saturday for Oakland before 10,835 at Los Angeles. Scoring for the Seals were Mike Laughton, Ehman, Ingarfield and Ferguson.

A crowd of 15,157 at St. Louis Saturday saw rookie Ted Ouimet play goal in a losing cause for the Blues. McCreary and Val Fonteyne scored for Pittsburgh and Red Berenson replied for St. Louis.

Yvan Cournoyer scored two goals Saturday to lead Montreal to a victory. The win gave the Canadiens 101 points, tying the record established by Detroit in 1950-51. It was Montreal's 45th win—a team record.

Bobby Rousseau scored the other Montreal goal and Jean Ratelle connected for the Rangers before 17,935.

Jr. Habs dump Petes 9-3 as Flyers win 4-3

Don Tannahill turned the sixth game of the Niagara Falls-Ontario Hockey Association Junior A series quarter-final into a one-man show Sunday night. And the Flyers need only one more point to gain a berth in the semi-finals, thanks to his efforts.

Tannahill scored twice and assisted on two other goals, including the winner at 19:45 of the final period as the Flyers edged the 67s 4-3 at Ottawa before 9,585 fans.

The victory gave Niagara Falls seven points on three wins and a tie. The Flyers need only a tie at home tonight to advance against St. Catharines Black Hawks in a semi-final.

Meanwhile, Montreal Junior Canadiens scored five consecutive goals in the third period to rout Peterborough Petes 9-3 in the opening game of their best-of-seven semi-final.

67S RALLY

At Ottawa, Pierre Jarry, Pete Laframboise and Murray Wilson scored for the 67s in the third period to wipe out a 2-0 deficit. Then Tannahill went to work.

France's Jean-Noel Augert and Kiki Cutter win slalom races, Austria cops Nation's Cup

WATERVILLE VALLEY, N.H. (AP) — Jean Noel Augert of France and Kiki Cutter of Bend, Ore., won the men's and women's slalom races Saturday at the close of the three-day North American alpine championships, final event of the World Cup Series this year.

Augert, 19, moved into second place in the over-all standings with his first slalom victory of the season. Augert, who finished second and fifth in the two races, had a combined time of one minute 24.10 seconds.

Herbert Huber of Austria was second in 1:24.11.

Frenchmen Henri Brechu and Patrick Russel followed with times of 1:24.30 and 1:24.34.

Miss Cutter, 19, captured her second slalom of the season.

The victory moved her into second place in the over-all slalom competition and into fourth place in the Cup standings.

She had a combined time of 1:18.18, for the 46-gate course that measured 1,100 feet with a 350-foot vertical drop.

The course was icy in spots with 33 skiers either disqualified or not finishing during the first runs.

in a deadlock for the top hockey award for excellence and sportsmanship at Stanstead College, Coach Peter Boyd made the presentation at the mid-term Athletic banquet held last week.

Stanstead College presents awards to winning students

THREE VILLAGES — The Stanstead College mid-term Athletic Banquet was held last week in the LeBaron dining hall and was followed by the program in Pierce Hall which was filled to capacity by the student body and staff members.

The Dawes trophy for all round excellence and sportsmanship in hockey was shared by Don Campbell and Andre Hardwick and was presented amid loud applause.

Alex Philip, Director of Athletics, was master of ceremonies. Raymond Lester, Headmaster, asked a question. How does the term add up? He invited the students to write a paper on this before the end of term and the best one will receive a prize.

The season was one, he said, to be proud of. There were problems but the teams came through. He recalled the bus accident returning home from Richmond and how well our students behaved in a frightening situation; I'm proud of the Seniors who took over. Then came the damage to the Arena roof which caused extra travel as all games had to be played away, there were no home cheers, yet the teams carried on as this makes me proud.

Mr. Lester said tribute to the team coaches in a difficult, but not an unsuccessful term, with special tribute to Mr. Philip. He had the difficulties arranging buses, places to play hockey, lunches, but the sportsmanship reputation of Stanstead College teams is largely due to the leadership and dedication of Mr. Philip. Mr. Lester's words were greeted with a standing ovation on the part of all present.

In the absence of Coach

Michael Sudlow, who suffered a fractured leg, James Woods-McMullen spoke on the intramural season which he termed a good year. In a humorous vein he referred to highlights of the season and presented crests to Seniors and team crests. Grade 10 Colby House won the volleyball interclass games.

Roger Meldrum, coach of the ski team, had been called away. Mr. Philip spoke and said the season had been a most successful one, and the Coach and trophy was won by Stanstead team for the first time. George Hamilton and Hugh Gurd were presented the Major S and the Senior S by Ian McEachern. Varsity pins were given each member of the team.

Barry Gallant and John Thomson, coaches of Bantam hockey, noted only eight games were played, six were wins, one was a tie with LCC and Stanstead was beaten by Selwyn House. Mr. Gallant said the boys were a good team to work with, no trouble to get them on the ice but sometimes a problem to get them off. He too made amusing comments of the season.

Bantam S awards went to Don Anderson, Bruce Hodge, Little, J. McCormick, Jim Deacon, D. Schofield, J. McIntyre and B. Bourne. The complete team received bantam bars.

Michel Lucas was presented with a red light bulb and was dubbed "Goal Judge of the year".

Mr. Philip, coach of junior basketball, said it had been refreshing to work with the team of young boys who were willing to learn. The Bantam S awards were to Peter Roman and Bill Craighead, with team awards for junior basketball to everyone on the team and manager Ron Gasco.

Andre Lebel, coach of junior varsity hockey, stated they had won two games, lost three and tied four in the season. Junior S awards went to D. Blanchard, G. Brown, P. Ward, B. Robinson and D. Harvey. The complete team received team bars as well as B. Lester, and G. Beaudoin, managers.

Brian Denney, coach of varsity basketball, mentioned the team had won four games and had scored more points than against. Things looked good, he said, until he lost two star players because of injury. He recalled exciting moments of the season, and presented Major S to G. Haig, Paul Quattrocchi and Greg Scotcher. The Senior S to Peter Wills and Varsity pins to Haig, Quattrocchi, Scotcher, Wills, Steve Etcheverry, Robert Ho, Neil Ostroff, Lewis Roy, N. Wallace and Jack Weissman.

Peter Boyd, coach of Varsity hockey, recalled incidents of a very good season taking into consideration all the problems. Four games were lost by only one goal each time, which was disappointing. He noted outstanding games and paid special mention to the two bantam goalers on loan to the senior team, J. Anderson and Bruce Hodge, for doing a good job.

The Major S awards were presented to Don Campbell, Andre Hardwick, Scott Waugh, Ron Ward, Steve Mitchell, Andy Lester, with notes of tribute by Mr. Boyd about each player. The Senior S to Doug Ross and J. Payne, while varsity pins were presented to D. Ross, S. Mitchell, D. McKenzie, T. Doran, T. Sproule and J. Payne.

Hap Emms, man Hockey Canada wants to mould team, pays visit to Stockholm

STOCKHOLM (CP) — Hap Emms, the man Hockey Canada wants to mould a contender for the title next year, is on the world hockey scene making his initial study.

Hopes of a Canadian medal this year have all but vanished. Czechoslovakia won over Canada 3-2 Sunday night, the fourth loss for Canada in six world hockey tournament starts.

But Emms says he won't be little the first Canadian entry to lose four games in a single tournament in the history of the championships.

"We should be proud of these kids coming over here to fight against odds like this," he said on his arrival Sunday.

Russia, Sweden and Czechoslovakia just about clinched the gold, silver and bronze medals.

The Russians, still wearing a hang-dog look after their 2-0 loss to Czechoslovakia last Friday, looked unimpressive against the United States Sunday while winning 8-4.

MEET SWEDEN TODAY

But the Russians could have been saving themselves for today's crucial match with Sweden. The 1 p.m. EST contest is the only one scheduled.

The Swedes, with the best defensive record in the tournament, flashed by Finland 5-0 in the other Sunday game.

Russia, Sweden and Czechoslovakia remain tied for first place, each with five victories, one loss and 10 points. Canada is fourth with four points based on wins over Finland 5-1 and the United States 5-0.

Sunday's competition completed six rounds in the six-country tournament. Four more rounds remain in the double round-robin.

There are three key games left on the schedule that should help break the deadlock. Today's Russia-Sweden contest is one. The others are Russia-Czechoslovakia on Friday and Czechoslovakia-Sweden on Sunday, before the finale between Canada and Russia.

Russia already has one win over Sweden, 4-2, while the Swedes have defeated the Czechs 2-0.

FOUR GAMES REMAIN

Canada still must play Sweden and Russia as well as Finland and the U.S. In their first appearances, Sweden beat Canada 5-1 and Russia did the same by a 7-1 score.

The revived Canadians fought Czechoslovakia to a standstill for a little more than 2½ periods, and might have salvaged a tie except for penalties. It was a far superior showing compared with Canada's 6-1 loss to the Czechs March 15, when the tournament started.

Jaroslav Holik's goal late in the third period was the winner after Richie Bayes tied the score 2-2 for Canada.

Bill Heindl provided a one-goal lead for Canada midway in the first period. But when two penalties within six seconds left Canada short two men, Josef Golonka quickly tied the game.

Jan Hrbaty sank a backhand late in the second period, and the Czechs led 2-1. Then it was Bayes, teaming with Steve King and Terry Caffery on the best play of the night, who evened matters. The rookie line is the team's most productive, scoring eight of Canada's 13 goals.

Finally, the Holik brothers, Jiri and Jaroslav, caught the Canadian defence out of position. Jiri passed to Jaroslav, who flipped a shot through Wayne Stephenson's legs.

HIT STICK FIRST

"On that third goal the puck hit a stick and went right through Stephenson's legs," said coach Jackie McLeod.

The Canadian coach admitted "penalties hurt." The team has a total of 70 minutes in penalty time, more than any other country. The Czechs are next with 69 minutes.

Czech coach Jaroslav Pitner said his players were nervous and didn't play as well as against the Russians.

"They found they had good reason to be nervous," Pitner said. "This was a big game for Canada—maybe its last chance for a medal."

"The Canadians played well, especially their forechecking."

The Czech coach said Canada's second goal, in which Vladimir Dzurila stopped King's shot with his chest only to have Bayes flip it in, could be blamed on the face mask.

COUNCIL'S SEE IT

"He couldn't see the puck there at his feet for the mask," Pitner said.

Stephenson now has allowed 20 goals in a little less than six games. He stopped 23 shots Sunday night to Dzurila's 26.

Replacement goalie Steve Rexe of Ottawa hurt his right knee in practice. Doctors will examine him today to determine whether he should be returned to Canada for an operation.

On hand but not used was goalie Ken Dryden of Etobicoke, Ont., a senior at Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y. He led Cornell to the U.S. national championship final, losing to the University of Denver, 4-3.

Dryden, six-foot-three and 205 pounds, is on the negotiation list of Montreal Canadiens, one of the two National Hockey League teams that have promised help in bolstering the 1970 national team for the championship in Winnipeg and Montreal March 15-31.

The International Ice Hockey Federation approved the 1970 dates Saturday.

MAY BUILD CONTENDER

Hockey Canada, a federally-backed body of top sportsmen and hockey figures, was formed recently to produce a Canadian contender.

Emms said that while he was in Stockholm he would "look over the opposition."

He has been offered a "top managerial post" with Hockey Canada.

"I haven't made any decisions yet and I won't decide on whether I'll take the job until I know where the players are coming from," Emms said.

Emms, a former manager of Boston Bruins of the NHL, is owner of Niagara Falls Flyers of the Ontario Hockey Association Junior A Series.

The Russians were never in danger Sunday after assuming a 5-1 lead against the U.S. in the second period. Russia trounced the U.S. 17-2 March 15.

Russia's scorers were Evgeny Mishakov with two and Valery Charlamov, Anatoly Firsov, Evgeny Paladjev, Vladimir Jurinov, Vladimir Petrov and Boris Mikhailov.

SCORE FOR U.S.

Playing coach John Mayasich with two and Ron Nasland and Larry Skime scored for the U.S.

Mayasich scored a goal in the 4-3 loss to Finland Saturday, a severe blow to U.S. chances of avoiding relegation to the B tournament in Romania next year.

The last-place club automatically drops out of Pool A, and the Americans are last with six losses.

Sweden started goalie Gunnar Backman for the second time in the tournament and he came up with an easy shutout against Finland. He had but 18 saves while Urpo Ylonen turned aside 33 for Finland.

Stefan Karlsson scored three goals, Stig-Goran Johansson picked up a goal and three assists and Lars-Erik Sjöberg would it out.

Mike Curran is one player who went to bed Sunday night with his head spinning. He had to face more than 100 shots in the two U.S. weekend defeats. Mike stopped 49 against Finland while Ylonen totalled 30 saves. Against Russia, Curran stopped 42 shots while Viktor Zinger had 16.

In the individual scoring race, Jaroslav Holik holds a one-point lead over Russia's Charlamov. Holik has three goals and nine assists for 12 points. Charlamov scored five and with six assists has 11 points.

Russia's Firsov leads in goals with eight.

E. T. Open Badminton Tourney slated for Magog Mar. 29-30

The annual Eastern Townships Open Invitational Badminton Tournament will be held March 29-30 at Princess Elizabeth High School in Magog.

Play gets underway at 9:00 a.m. Saturday, Mar. 30, and will continue through until the finals. The finals will be held on Sunday, Mar. 30.

The tournament has been divided into two classes "A" and "B" with five events in each respective class.

The events are men's singles and doubles, women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles. All entries in the tournament will be from the Eastern Townships entirely, with participants expected from Stanstead College, Magog, University of Sherbrooke, Sherbrooke, Bishop's University, East Angus and other areas.

All badminton clubs in the Eastern Townships are cordially invited to compete in the tourney and all entries should be mailed in care of George Corbiere, 350 St. Catherine Street, Magog, or Gordon Harmer, 1964 Adam Street, Sherbrooke. All interested persons are requested to mail their entries in early.

Calgary rink wins World curling title

PERTH, Scotland (CP) — Ron Northcott has much more than superior sense as a skip and pinpoint shooting accuracy going for him. He has three men—Dave Gerlach, Bernie Sparkes and Fred Storey.

Saturday night after the Calgary curler had won the world championship for the third time in four years with a 9-6 victory over Bud Somerville's superior, Wisc., rink, Northcott said it takes four special characters to make a championship rink.

It was the second successive world championship for Northcott.

Storey, who plays lead, and Sparkes, who plays second, have been with Northcott since he first won the title in 1966. Gerlach joined the rink this year at third.

"It all depends on how much longer our skip plays," said Storey Saturday, discussing how much longer they expect to continue together. "When he quits the game, we quit along with him."

The consensus is though that the Calgary foursome is shooting at the four-championship record established by Ernie Eirichardson of Regina in 1959, 1960, 1962 and 1963.

Saturday's victory was the 31st for the rink in 32 provincial, Canadian and world competitions this season despite freak accidents to Gerlach and Sparkes.

Gerlach suffered an eye injury before the start of the Canadian championships at Oshawa, Ont., earlier this month and Sparkes suffered a muscle spasm in his back early in the world event and played with the aid of injections of cortisone for the remaining matches.

EARNED A BYE

Canada, which won the regular eight-country, round-robin preliminary tournament with a 6-1 won-lost record Friday night, earned the bye into the final.

Somerville and his U.S. champions won a 7-5 semi-final victory over Bill Muirhead of Scotland Saturday afternoon before going into the final against Northcott in the evening.

The Canadians showed the benefit of their day of rest by grabbing a 6-0 lead after three ends of the final when Somerville missed his final shots on each end.

Northcott then missed his final shots on the fifth, eighth and 10th ends to allow the U.S. rink to narrow the Canadian lead to 7-6.

Northcott retained last rock in the 12th end by intentionally blanking the 11th and it paid off.

Goaltender Marv Edwards blanks Cleveland Barons in his first appearance

Goaltender Marv Edwards has wasted little time in adjusting to American Hockey League play.

Edwards, 33, recalled from Amarillo of the Central Hockey League last week, posted a shutout Sunday night as Baltimore Clippers blanked Cleveland Barons 3-0.

A native of St. Catharines, Ont., Edwards made 26 saves, 11 in the first period.

Scoring Baltimore goals were Willie Marshall, Sandy McGregor and Jim Bartlett.

In other AHL games Sunday, Buffalo Bisons nipped Providence Reds 4-3 and Rochester Americans edged Quebec Aces 4-3.

Saturday, Springfield Kings outscored Buffalo 7-5. Quebec defeated Hershey Bears 5-3 and Providence and Cleveland played to a 2-2 tie.

Dennis Hextall scored his second goal of the game Sunday at 15:56 of the third period to give Buffalo its victory.

CLINCH FIRST PLACE

Other scorers for the Bisons, who have clinched first place in the Western Division, were Norm Beaudin and Wayne Rivers. Jean-Pierre Mallette scored two for Providence and Ed Kachur one.

Rochester moved back into third place in the Western Division, one point ahead of Quebec, with its win Sunday.

Rochester scorers were Ron Ward, Tom McCarthy, Ken Block and Jerry Sillers. Serge Bernier, Larry McKillop and Rosey Paiement tallied for Quebec.

Springfield spotted Buffalo a four-goal advantage Saturday, then roared back for the win.

Gordon Labossiere scored three goals for the Kings while single goals went to Bryan Campbell, Marc Dufour, Skip Krake and John Rodger. Ron Attwell scored twice for Buffalo and Hextall, Beaudin and Dennis Kassian once each.

Bernier scored twice Saturday and set up a third goal for Quebec. Paul Cates, Myron Staniewicz and Guy Dufour had the other Quebec goals while Roger Dejorjy, Ted Snell and Gil Gilbert replied for Hershey.

Cleveland goals Saturday went to Garry Monahan and Ray Comeau. Tony Gogan and Mallette scored for Providence.

"Well, partner!" growled North, "you just about won first prize for throwing the dummy."

"What do you mean?" replied South. "I know I could have made my contract by stripping my hand, running all my trumps and throwing West in with his last heart to make him lead a diamond up to my ace-queen. But that play would fail if hearts were to divide 3-3 or if West should happen to unguard his king of diamonds. My play was much better. It would work against a 3-3 heart break or if the diamond finesse was on for me."

"Not that at all," said North. "I was referring to your play of the jack of hearts at trick one."

"How was I to know that East held the doubleton queen?" said South. South's play at trick one was as bad as North thought it was. At slam contract you play as safely as possible to make the slam and disregard overtricks. You take the overtrick only if it comes with no risk.

South did not need to take a heart finesse. He would make his contract any time West held the queen. He should win the first heart with his king. Then, after drawing trumps, he would cash dummy's ace. This time the queen would drop and everything would be fine. But, if the queen did not drop, South could come back to his hand and lead a third heart toward dummy's jack. If West held the queen, this would set up the jack for a discard of the diamond queen.

Suppose East held the queen? If hearts were 3-3, the fourth heart would still set up. If East started with four or five to the queen, there would have been no way to develop three heart tricks but the diamond finesse would still be available to declarer.

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

West played out three top diamonds quickly. East discarded the jack of clubs on the third diamond. West gazed at it with interest before gathering in the trick. Then he played his fourth diamond.

The student declarer ruffed and played his ace of hearts. When West dropped the queen the student smiled happily and proceeded to play out all but one of his trumps slowly and carefully. He watched each discard with great interest and obviously was engaged in trying to count the distribution. It didn't do him any good. East sat in back of dummy with both black kings and the student had to lose the setting trick.

"Reminds me of Ping-pong," said the Professor who was kibitzing. "The contract was battled back and forth."

"I don't understand," said the student. "What did I do wrong?"

"West could have made sure of beating you," said the Professor. "He looked at his partner's jack of clubs discard. If he had led a club instead of the fourth diamond, you would have been dead but he did lead the fourth diamond and you should have made your contract."

The professor was right as usual. When West dropped the queen of trumps under the ace, South could be sure that East would show up with both black kings. If West held either, he would have had 15 high card points and opened the bidding.

With that knowledge South could have executed a Vienna coup by playing his three of spades to dummy's ace and then running all his trumps. Dummy would come down to the ace-queen of clubs and East would have to blank his king in order to hold the king of spades.

Look who's arrived in Sherbrooke with fresh money to lend

In the Pacific Finance office you'll find a courteous, efficient businessman whose job is lending money to people who need it.

He may lend you money to clean up old bills, for instance. Instead of a pile of bills, all due right now, you may pay them off and extend the payments over a longer period of time with a PF loan. That way, you'll keep your good credit and actually have more of your paycheck for yourself each week.

Or, if you need money to fix the car, make repairs or improvements on the house, take a trip, or for any good reason, he's the man to see.

It's simple and convenient to borrow from Pacific Finance Loans. If you call before you come in, chances are the money will be waiting for you.
