YOUTH'S UNLUCKY SHOT Will Connected Boy in Trouble for Wounding Another.

For shooting a boy named Hector St. Armand with a shot from a rifle last Sunday morning, William Williams, aged 19, appeared before Judge Lanctot this morning. He pleaded guilty and was remanded for enquiry on the 27th. Williams denied the shooting with intent to injure St. Armand, and told the court that it was accidental. He admitted carrying a loaded rifle, but had not used it.

Mr. A. Townes, contractor at Walton-On-Naze, England, is guardian of the accused boy, and told the judge upon enquiry that he was inclined to believe that the boy was not a bad boy, and was well connected in England. He was sent here by his parents to see if the witness in his nature would be taken out of him, or until he naturally turned his face towards the law in his place of the family hearth. One of Williams' uncles is Commander Lowman, of the North German Line; another is a Captain in the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, a third uncle of the boy, was here from England, when the boy was his guest at the Windsor Hotel.

William Borer and William Reobott, two other lads who were witnesses of the shooting, say it was accidental, and told the court that they were injured he called for a handkerchief to stop the flow of blood. None of the boys having one handy, Williams tore his underclothing and made a bandage for the wound in the knee, which they say was caused by the bullet being deflected from its course by his rifle.

Young Williams is credited with being a good steady boy by the foreman of the pattern shop at the C. P. R. Angus Shop, where he has been learning his trade as pattern maker for the past three years.

EXTENSIONS The management of the Wabasca Cotton Company of Three Rivers, which is also associated with the Shawinigan Cotton Corporation at Shawinigan Falls, is considering the advisability of enlarging the productive output, by the erection of another large mill at Three Rivers.

These huge plants are, it is said, enjoying a good business, due to careful and judicious management, and a wide-awake executive, who are alert to the best interests of the industry. When seen about the reported new plant at Three Rivers, Mr. J. N. D.U.R. DIRECTORS AT MEETING TALK OVER FRANCHISE

Detroit, Oct. 25 (Special).—At noon today the directors of the Detroit United Railway were awaiting the arrival of Mr. A. J. Ferguson of Montreal so as to convene a meeting of the board of directors. It is the most important held for some time.

The recent arrangement entered into between the city and the Detroit United Railway interests regarding the reduction of fares, accompanied by universal transfers, will be further considered with a view of bringing to a focus the long drawn out franchise dispute, which has been a serious impediment in the financial progress of Detroit United.

It is believed here that while the recent arrangement between the city and the company gave every evidence of being favorable to the former, in reality, it is believed, paved the way for an early and conclusive settlement of the vexed question of franchise.

President Hutchins stated that the outlook for the company was exceedingly promising and that he was inclined to believe that from now on those interested in the traction system of Detroit and district would profit by their assistance in hastening the much desired settlement.

The decision in favor of the Montreal Street Railway by Judge Charbonneau, in the case of the Montreal Street Railway, has been returned, the intercity injunction applied for by Senator Belque to prevent arrangements being made by the Montreal Street Railway to acquire the traction lines on the island of Montreal into the Montreal Tramways Company was received with considerable satisfaction in Stock Exchange circles, and as a result the stock exhibited a healthier tone this morning, selling around 224 to 225. However, the fight now on before the Public Utilities Commission has more the aspect of a deterrent effect upon M. S. R. securities, but the feeling appears to be that the whole situation will clear up in a few days.

Canadian Pacific was fairly active and strong at 231 1/4, while Montreal Power continues to show strength, touching 174 3/4, with Shawinigan at 116 1/4. Utilities and Cement were very firm, while Steel Common was fractionally higher at 59, with the preferred at 102. Crown Reserve held firmly around 13.00, while banks securities and bonds came into the market in moderate quantities.

New York, Oct. 25.—The stock market drifted slightly through the morning session, which was the dulllest of many weeks. The government cotton ginning report was construed as being favorable to the cotton market, which it produced was in the cotton market.

U.: 53 pastors, 31 missionaries in foreign fields; 28 S. S. Supts., 38 deacons, 5 church clerks, 4 college teachers, 3 Y. M. C. A. secretaries, 3 social settlement workers, 200 S. S. teachers, 188 Unions had reported a membership of 7,531, 6,029 active and 1,512 associates, an increase from last year of 600; 310 conversions; $5,190.75 had been raised by all the Unions, $2,021.44 for local work, $2,020.08 for missions; 62 societies reported a Bible Reader's course with 2,333 readers, an increase of 1,171; 12 societies reported a Sacred Literature course of 454 members, an increase of 115; 25 Unions reported mission study classes with an average of 12; 12 societies reported 22 Unions report other courses with a membership of 4,118, an increase of 1,694. In addition there were about 31 similar unions with a membership of between 1,300 and 1,400.

The time has come when the church must stop doing the easy things because they are easy and do the hard. Any little job will satisfy most Christians. The average Christian does not know the difference between the McKinley Bill and the Revenue Bill. We thought our limitations were God's. The church needs to get the spirit which will admit nothing impossible. The possible is a fool's word. The spirit of genius is not the doing of what cannot be done.

Every delegate was in attendance when D. E. Thomson, K.C., LL.D., rose to introduce the question of 'Church Union.' The movement, he said, demanded, not declaration, but dispassionate consideration. Nothing can be more fatal to a denomination than an uncertain policy. Union must be considered. Appeals to denominational loyalty and enthusiasm are all right, but you must face the dull, grey morning afterwards.

At present the fall of the shots in target practice is observed from the tops of the cage masts of our battleships and cruisers, the 'spotter' noting through his glasses whether the shot falls short or over, or has a deflection to the right or left. Lieutenant-Commander Cleland Davis has invented a method of spotting by the aid of the camera. The splash is photographed and in a few seconds the negative is developed. The necessary corrections in the range and deflection are then made and it is stated that the operations are so speedy that there is practically no delay as compared with the present methods of spotting.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS

Great Elevator Nearing Completion.

With huge cranes which stretch their gaunt forms high on the sky line, and regularly travel on the bed of the river earth, which goes to make new land, where it is more useful, puffing engines that have done so much towards the progress of civilization, and have paved the way for all great engineering works, mighty dredges, the scoops of which descend to the bottom of the river, reclaiming from there land over which the waters of the mighty St. Lawrence have flown from endless time, a network of railway tracks, numerous wooden boxes to fill in the gaps, the new material which is revolutionizing construction work, is poured, rear their irregular forms, and from which later these wooden boxes disappear, displaying structures of great magnitude, all of these things are the sights which greet one's gaze when he visits the scene of operations at the new dock at Maisonneuve.

About ten acres of the thirty acres, which it will be necessary to make at the new dock, have been placed, and construction work will be completed within the next three months. The harbor engineer stated to a 'Witness' reporter this morning, that the east wall of the dock would be completed for about eight hundred or one thousand feet at the end of the season. At the present moment there is three hundred feet of the wall finished, and the work is progressing rapidly.

To consider the best methods of church and denominational finance and the best means to make it effective, Dr. Baker, Rev. S. Sheldon, Rev. H. McDiarmid and the Rev. M. C. McLean, the Rev. John Galt, of Picton, in speaking upon the 'Place that Baptist Teaching should have in our Church Life,' said that many churches did not regard the propagation of the distinctive truths of great importance. Such was not true. For the plastic condition of the present made much to be gained by the attitude of the church. 'We live in a new type of day when denominations must show a reason for their existence,' there were many, he said, who were doing a little need for denominational teaching, and there was a tendency towards a lessening of emphasis upon its importance.

Gulland, the Scottish Liberal whip, speaking at Dundee, after a six weeks' tour of Canada, said that really to save Canada from a higher condition of protection a great many votes against reciprocity should be secured. He believed that reciprocity would mean that the American trusts would get their markets.

STILL NEGOTIATING

Nothing Definite About Election by Acclamation. Ottawa, Oct. 24.—It is stated that the negotiations which have been in progress in regard to the election of the ministers of the new government by acclamation and the return of the Hon. George P. Graham to the Commons unopposed, probably for South

Renfrew, are still incomplete. Whether or not an agreement will be reached along these lines is still a matter of conjecture, but it would not be surprising if an understanding is arrived at. There is also talk of an arrangement being reached whereby there will be a saw-off of all election protests. No announcement is yet forthcoming as to which Ontario seat Mr. W. T. White, the new Minister of Finance, will sit for. REINDEER FOR THE YUKON. Ottawa, Oct. 24.—Bishop Stringer, of Yukon, who is here just now, is interviewing officials of the Interior Department, more particularly the Indian Branch, in reference to several matters affecting the Yukon. One important proposal he is making to the Government is that a part of the herd of reindeer bought from Dr. Greenell, Labrador, and shipped to unorganized territory of the Northwest, be sent to the Yukon. Reindeer would be a particularly valuable addition to the animal life of the Yukon, and it is altogether likely that Bishop Stringer's request will be accepted to that effect and that next summer a number of reindeer will be taken to the far north.

DOMINION W.C.T.U. Reports of Work in Several Provinces Given at Annual Convention in Sherbrooke

Sherbrooke, October 25.—The Dominion W. C. T. U. Conference was resumed yesterday morning in the Congregational Church, Mrs. Craig, of Kingston, giving an address at the consecration service on 'The parable of the vine'.

MISS ELEANOR E. SMITH, Dominion Y Secretary.

drunkenness and the use of strong drink, and she thought that if posters showing the evil effects of liquor, given from a medical point of view, were pasted up they would have a beneficial effect.

Mrs. S. A. Jones, of Sherbrooke, in submitting the prison reform and police station report, stated that the work done had been fuller and more satisfactory than in former years.

Mrs. McKee, the honorary president for Ontario, in giving the Curfew Bell report, said that where the law existed it was carried into effect.

At the afternoon meeting the franchise convention, led by Mrs. H. S. Dettlor, had an enthusiastic and interesting discussion, culminating in the following resolution, moved by Mrs. Mary E. Sanderson, seconded by Mrs. Sparkes, of Kingston, being adopted:—We heartily recommend that each provincial union begin an active campaign for woman's franchise asking for the ballot because we are citizens!

Miss E. E. Smith, of Windsor, N.S., the Dominion Y secretary, said that she was able to report an increase in membership in all the provinces, and that the members were taking a deeper interest in the work.

and as a result the number of Y unions was not as great as it might be. The report of the Dominion corresponding secretary, Mrs. Hattie A. Stevens, of Toronto, showed a gain in membership. They had now a membership of 14,260 in their W. C. T. U. in the province of Quebec they had 84 unions, with 2,251 members, 369 honorary members, 17 Y's with a membership of 308, and 136 honorary members, and they had 18 loyal temperance legions with a membership of 823. Ontario had 230 unions, 7,102 members, 789 honorary members, 21 Y's with 411 members, 1,081 honorary members, 91 loyal temperance legions, with a membership of 4,300. Manitoba had 20 unions, 784 members, 137 honorary members, two Y's with 39 of a membership, 24 loyal temperance legions, with a membership of 1,062. Alberta and Saskatchewan had 91 unions, 1,404 members, 149 honorary members, one Y and six members. British Columbia had 44 unions, with 1,388 members, 294 honorary members. Nova Scotia had 27 unions, 783 members, 59 hon. members, and 11 Y's with a membership of 111. The Rev. G. Ellery Read gave an address to the delegates and extended to them a cordial welcome.

Mrs. S. R. Wright, the Dominion president, gave her address, and for nearly an hour and a half the convention listened to an earnest and eloquent speaker referred to the spread of temperance over all the land. The report of the World's W. C. T. U. held in Glasgow, Scotland, on June 17th, 1910, and the lessons to be learned from it, the opening question, the Mormon question, the department of moral education, prison reform, departmental pension and the need for greater extension, were all dealt with by the president who went on to speak of the possibilities wrapped up in an effort to uplift the children of our foreign-born. 'That no other work can take first place before this in Empire Building' the children of to-day will be the voters of tomorrow, and the increasing number of foreigners coming to our shores should be the call for us to do with them, and how shall we discharge our responsibility, these are questions we cannot, dare not, avoid. Shall the low standard of the alley and the high ideal of the Continent prevail, or the Christian citizenship? It is through the children that the opportunity comes. We would that our Dominion Union could place a loyal temperance legion organization in each of our Western Provinces, who would gather the children of the foreigner into some of her minutes with her children immediately upon their return from school. If this talk is postponed for even a few hours the child loses some of her zest, and the mother, in the meantime has been cautioned by her playmates not to tell her mother. One mother, who had a wonderful influence with her children and who never felt that school life was taking them away from her, laid her success to the after-school lunches she prepared. Whenever her children returned from school she always had a lunch ready. Sometimes it consisted only of a slice of bread and butter and a glass of milk, sometimes on a cold day, it was a bowl of hot soup. A child always is hungry when school is out and will hurry home if she knows a lunch is awaiting her. This wise mother always took this opportunity for a little heart to heart talk with her child. Sometimes a schoolmate was invited to join them and this gave the mother an opportunity to become acquainted with her child's associates and to judge as to their desirability as intimate companions. This after-school lunch also prevents the child from overloading her stomach at the evening meal. So long as about ten hours sleep to maintain the equilibrium of her nervous system. Plenty of rest, plain, nourishing food (very little pastry) combined with a moderate amount of exercise in the fresh air will enable a child to keep well during school years.

RESENT THE AMERICAN FLAG.

Western Cities Follow Example of Toronto and Prohibit U. S. Flag in Picture Shows.

Winnipeg, Oct. 24.—There is an agitation in Winnipeg to prohibit the introduction of United States flags in moving-picture shows. At Regina, Brandon, Calgary, Edmonton and Saskatoon, the same movement is under way. The recent agitation over reciprocity is the immediate cause, but resentment against films glorifying the United States flag over the Union Jack has been gradually growing in western Canada for some time. In Winnipeg there are a number of moving-picture houses said to have an aggregate admission of ten thousand daily. These films are supplied chiefly through St. Paul and Chicago syndicates. The city censor is to be instructed to refuse to permit any display of United States flags in cinemas.

KINGSTON POWER ESTIMATES.

Kingston, Ont., October 24.—The Hon. Adam Beck has submitted new estimates for the power for Kingston, Brockville, Morrisburg, Cardinal and Prescott for 3,000 to 10,000 H.P. For 3,000 H.P. Kingston will pay $32.25, while Morrisburg will only have to pay $13.07, and for 10,000 H.P. Kingston is quoted at $17.80 and Morrisburg at $6.46. As other towns range inside these figures Kingston will in all probability refuse and accept services of Seymour Power Company. The Beck scheme is evidently Waddington, N.Y., power, but, he does not say so.

Of Interest to Women. The 'Witness' Daily Fashion Hint.

THE STRIPE STILL POPULAR. The stripe appears on afternoon, morning and evening gowns. There are many odd ways of using the stripe, and the ingenuity of the modiste is seen in this respect. Three smart models are illustrated.

AFTER SCHOOL LUNCHEES.

Dr. Edith B. Lowry contributing an article to 'Woman's World' makes a suggestion that some mothers of children of school age may find helpful. A method of protecting little ones from any hurtful influence and of retaining their confidence is by means of after-school lunches and talks. When a child first comes home from school she is full and bubbling with the experiences of the day, and ready and anxious to repeat them to mother. The wise mother plans to spend a few minutes with her children immediately upon their return from school. If this talk is postponed for even a few hours the child loses some of her zest, and the mother, in the meantime has been cautioned by her playmates not to tell her mother. One mother, who had a wonderful influence with her children and who never felt that school life was taking them away from her, laid her success to the after-school lunches she prepared. Whenever her children returned from school she always had a lunch ready. Sometimes it consisted only of a slice of bread and butter and a glass of milk, sometimes on a cold day, it was a bowl of hot soup. A child always is hungry when school is out and will hurry home if she knows a lunch is awaiting her. This wise mother always took this opportunity for a little heart to heart talk with her child. Sometimes a schoolmate was invited to join them and this gave the mother an opportunity to become acquainted with her child's associates and to judge as to their desirability as intimate companions. This after-school lunch also prevents the child from overloading her stomach at the evening meal. So long as about ten hours sleep to maintain the equilibrium of her nervous system. Plenty of rest, plain, nourishing food (very little pastry) combined with a moderate amount of exercise in the fresh air will enable a child to keep well during school years.

IRISH LACE FLOWER MOTIFS.

Even a comparative novice can easily learn to make the little single dashed roses, which are used so much both in 'all-over' Irish laces and as motifs in collars and jabot edges. They need not have the many layers of petals unless the worker so chooses, but the addition of these is not at all difficult, and certainly adds to the effect. For these little roses, either single or double, a very effective and novel use is seen in the newest mode of trimming undersleeves and gumpes or chemisettes of net or chiffon. They are made singly and in rows, and can be made around and around the neck in either single or double rows, just touching each other. The woman who is good at little original touches will find many uses for these flowers, made of rather coarse Irish lace rather than the ordinary cotton. For trimming all sorts of neckwear they are beyond price. So the art of making them is well worth acquiring. By the way, many directions for making jacobes, handkerchiefs and other articles for personal and household use tell one to crochet the edging on one of the tiny lace braids sold at embroidery counters for making 'needle point' lace or fine Battenberg. These braids are all iron, and can be had in very narrow widths. They add to, rather than take away from, the appearance of the work, and make a finishing that can easily be sewed to the article which it is to trim, and is as easily ripped off when the proper time comes. If desired, the braid can be sewed to the linen before the crocheting is begun. This makes it easier to get the corners and turns even. The use of lace braid, moreover, makes it possible to crochet intricate lengths of lace usually made with a 'chain of the desired length' for foundation.

A DAILY COOKERY RECIPE.

Orange Cake—Beat two eggs, add a cup of sugar and a tablespoonful of melted butter beat together, add half a cup of milk, and stir in a cup and a half of flour sifted with three level teaspoons of baking powder. Lastly, add a tablespoonful of strained orange juice and a little of the grated rind. Bake in a round shallow pan; when it is taken from the oven and cooled, split the cake, and spread between the halves orange cream, made as follows: Put in a cup the juice of an orange, a tablespoonful of lemon juice, and half an orange rind grated. Fill the cup with cold water, strain, and put on to boil. Mix a tablespoonful of cornstarch smooth with a little cold water, add it to the liquid, stir, and cook over hot water ten minutes. Beat the yolk of an egg, add a little sugar, and a little sugar, stir into the starch, cook a minute longer, then add a teaspoonful of butter. Let the cream cool, fill the cake with it, frost the top, and decorate with sections of orange.

DR. COOK LECTURES Is Forced to Make Exit by Back Door and Proceed to Hotel Under Protection

Copenhagen, October 24.—Dr. Fredrick A. Cook's theatrical attempt to-night to vindicate his reputation by a lecture in the hall where two years ago he addressed the royal family and some of the most prominent people of Denmark under the auspices of the Geographical Society, on the occasion of his triumphant entrance into the capital, resulted in extremely riotous scenes. Dr. Cook finally was compelled to retire ignominiously by the back door.

Ever since it was announced that Dr. Cook was returning to this city for the purpose of lecturing, the newspapers and the people have been strongly excited, and threats of violence were freely circulated. Fifteen hundred persons assembled within the hall to-night, and a great crowd surrounded the approaches to the building. Those outside greeted Dr. Cook's appearance with an uproar of insulting cries. He was escorted by police, however, and no actual violence was committed.

The meeting within the hall was turbulent throughout. A small fraction of the audience supported Dr. Cook and applauded his efforts. The others hissed continually, with the result that the two sides almost came to blows. Count Holstein-Ledreborg, son of the ex-Premier, who entertained Dr. Cook at his historic castle on the explorer's previous visit, was chairman.

The lecturer talked for an hour, illustrating his recital by means of lantern slides and repeating, for the most part, his original lecture. Dr. Norman Hansen, the Danish explorer, who formerly was a warm supporter of Cook, started the trouble by loudly denouncing Cook as a pure swindler. The climax was reached when an alleged picture of the North Pole was thrown upon the screen. The audience was so hostile that Cook stopped his lecture and withdrew. He was escorted by a strong detachment of police to his hotel by the side streets.

On the return trip Cook's carriage

NEW CHILDREN'S LEAGUE.

One of the movements which is today engaging the attention of the leaders in Christian work, in the Old Country, is that known as the League of Worshipping Children. Such men as Sir W. Robertson Nichol, editor of the 'British Weekly,' and Lord Guthrie are strong supporters of the movement, the object being to secure the attendance of the boys and girls at the services of the church on the Lord's Day. The idea has been carefully considered by some of the Christian workers in this city, and last Sunday morning a branch of the league was formed in Livingstone Church, Park Annex. The attendance of the children was exceptionally good, and the simple but interesting 'Order of Service' planned by the pastor, made the hour of worship peculiarly attractive to young and old.

NEW BUILDING BY-LAW.

Measure Will Make Necessary Many Inspectors.

A meeting of the committee of experts on the proposed new building by-law of the city was held yesterday afternoon, at the City Hall. This committee comprises: Mr. Joseph Venne, Mr. W. N. J. Francis, consulting engineer; Mr. W. H. Butler, city attorney; and Mr. Alois Chausse, building inspector. The committee has agreed on the general by-law, and it is now working upon the clauses of buildings to be erected. Plans will be framed for the construction of theatres and churches. This measure will call for a more detailed examination of the plans of buildings by the building inspector and the employment of a larger staff of inspectors to insist upon the carrying out of the plans and specifications in the buildings.

MESSANGER SENTENCED.

Found Guilty of Stealing $15 From Canadian Express Company and Gets Three Months.

Hamilton, Oct. 24.—George Ken- nough, the Canadian Express messenger who was found bound and gagged in the company's office the night that $8,000 was stolen, and who told a sensational story about masked men entering and holding him up at the point of a revolver, was to-day found guilty of stealing $15 from the company, and sentenced to three months. The police had no evidence against Kenough to connect him with the larger robbery, and that case was dropped.

EARL GREY BANQUETED Many Distinguished Guests Receive Late Governor-General at Royal Colonial Institute.

TRIBUTE TO SIR WILFRID. Canadian Post is the Pleasantest Billet in the Whole Empire.

London, Oct. 24.—The Royal Colonial Institute banqueted Lord Grey to-night, Sir L. Harcourt, Colonial Secretary, presiding; Lord Minto, Sir J. Bevan, Earl of Carrington, the Hon. Alfred Edward, the Duke of Marlborough, the Earl of Carrington, the Hon. Alfred Lytton, the Earl of Dundonald, and Earl Brassey being among those at the table. The general body of guests included practically all the leading men in London and Canadian circles. The crush was so great that many of the guests were forced to dine in an ante-room. The total company nearly numbered three hundred. The Colonial Secretary, in proposing Earl Grey's health, said his departure from Canada coincided with Sir Wilfrid Laurier's resignation. Sir L. Harcourt was quite sure there could be no assembly of Englishmen who would pay a tribute to that distinguished prime minister, and expressed his gratified surprise that the great services rendered for so many years to the progress and prosperity of the Dominion, to which he had devoted his intellectual and administrative energies upon his latest policy could detract from the warmth and gratitude felt for the achievements of his past career. (Cheers.)

EARL GREY'S SPEECH. Earl Grey had a rousing reception on rising to respond. Alluding to his welcome, he said: "It is a great relief for seven years of constant effort to serve Canada and the Crown. I hardly think such a reward is deserved when the conditions of my governorship are considered. I have said more than once that I believe I have been privileged to occupy the most pleasant billet in the whole Empire. It is no ordinary privilege to be in an atmosphere of undiluted optimism and confidence."

EARL GREY'S SPEECH (Continued). Alluding to the humorous opening remark of the Colonial Secretary, Earl Grey said: "It is quite true that I never recollect during the five years I have been connected with him a speech with which I so heartily concur as that which he has just concluded." (Laughter.)

EARL GREY'S SPEECH (Continued). Earl Grey proceeded to acknowledge the references to Lady Grey and his daughters, and referred to the willing and ungrudging co-operation of his cheerful and sympathetic staff. Alluding to the shadow of governorship still upon me, that it would be out of place to give expression to any individual views upon subjects in controversy, I can say, however, with the greatest confidence, that with the exception of an occasional crank here or there, it is impossible to find an antagonism throughout the whole of Canada. (Cheers.)

these proposals. (Cheers.) Rightly or wrongly, it is not for me to say. Thousands of Liberals feared their adoption might lead them into the United States. Mr. Frederick Towne, past harsh treatment suffered from the hands of the United States and the present great and abounding prosperity of the Dominion, all combined to urge the adoption of these proposals.

Canada and Imperialism. Earl Grey then made eloquent reference to the policy of the Empire and their sacrifices, and said: "Let it be clearly understood the Canadian people are not in sympathy with the form of imperialism which involves the idea of the subordination of the governed people to authority outside or any form involving the idea of jingo aggressiveness or arrogance towards the rights of others, but now that it is recognized in Canada that imperialism is the best authority for local nationalism, Canadians are all imperialists and all nationalists. It may be possibly objected by some people that these are the same thing, but they are not. These are two entirely different things, and are opposed to participation in the national defence of the empire for the moment. That is true, but I honestly believe it is for the moment only. It is my conviction that the reluctance of the French-descended citizens of Quebec is due not to any lack of appreciation of what the British Empire means to them, but to the lack of appreciation of what are the requirements of the Empire, to an exaggerated idea of its omnipotence. To tell them that the Empire requires the assistance of the people of Quebec seems to them absurd, but once let them grasp the true facts of the situation and I am confident that they will prove themselves as ready to do their share as the people of any other part of the Empire."

atended by half Chicago's society folk, Mr. Martin proceeded to say: "Somewhere there is something wrong. I speak as a rich man. I cannot go down through the crowded tenement sections of our great cities without having it borne in upon me that we, as a nation, pay a fearful price in human blood and tears for our industrial triumphs. For the grim fact stands out beyond denial that the men who are the workers of the nation, and the women and the children dependent upon them, are not to-day given the opportunities that are their proper birthright in free America; and that, struggle as they will, save as they may, they cannot obtain from our industrial hierarchy much more than a mere living wage."

can gold." He was astounded, and told her she replied: "Oh, Mr. Martin, you do not know me—I am almost ashamed to confess the truth. I dream night and day of gold. I want to have a room at the top of my house filled with it—filled with gold sovereigns. I would like to go into that room night after night, when ever one else is asleep, and bury myself in yellow sovereigns up to my neck, and play with them, and toss them about, and hear the jingling music of the thing I love best."

TRAMWAYS MERGER BEFORE UTILITIES COMMISSION

Mr. Cahane Says it Would Not Affect Price City Would Have to Pay if it Were to Take the Franchise Over.

Argument upon the amalgamation of the Montreal Street Railway Company, the Montreal Terminal Railway Company, the Montreal Island Railway and the Public Service Corporation, under the act of the Montreal Tramways Company, was continued before the Public Utilities Commission yesterday afternoon. When this was concluded Senator Beique appeared before the commission and said that his application for an injunction to prevent the fusion was denied by the Superior Court and he wanted the present body to determine on its legality.

Col. Hibbard, chairman of the commission, said that he was of opinion that the public interest alone concerned the commission, while individual citizens should have recourse to the courts. He announced that he would hear the Senator, however, this morning, and adjournment was made till 10 o'clock.

Sir George Garneau told a 'Witness' reporter that till the case of Senator Beique was disposed of before the board a decision would not be made in the appeal of the city against the merger.

In resuming his argument yesterday afternoon, Mr. C. H. Cahane, K.C., referred to the commission's article forty-two of its contract with the city and the company entered into in March, 1903. This provides that when thirty years expire the city may acquire the property of the company at a fair valuation of its assets plus ten percent. Thus the merger would not affect the price the city would pay for the company if it were to take that franchise over. He then compared this contract with the agreement between the Toronto Railway Company and the city of Toronto, one of which was that it could not be successfully attacked, although the city had the right to take over the line at the expiration of 30 years or in periods of five years thereafter, on a year's notice. The Privy Council held a view in accord with Mr. Justice Robertson.

"We cannot consider this Montreal contract as one that terminates absolutely at the expiration of a thirty years' privilege. No provision is made for any reduction of this privilege. Article 35 fixes the percentage of gross income to be paid to the city. This contract must be carried out in good faith."

"In the new contract of amalgamation there is no sale in the new sense," said Mr. Cahane, and this shows that it is really a reconstruction of the Montreal Street Railway and not an attempt to evade the contract with the city. The shareholders get their stock in the same proportion of value as they had in the old, he said. This agreement, which in 1903, applies only to the old city limits as confirmed by a decision of the Privy Council.

"We are dealing," he said, "with the transfer, not only of the Montreal Street Railway franchise, but with a number of subsidiary franchises. The contract with the Westmont expires in 1934, with St. Cuneo's in 1932, with St. Henry in 1922, with St. Paul in 1931, with Verdun in 1929, with St. Louis in 1929, with St. Laurent in 1935, with Outremont in 1936, with St. Laurent in 1925, and with Rosemount in 1939. The Sagat and Recollet franchise is a perpetual one. Under no circumstances, he declared, should this commission determine these values by bookkeeping values. The lands of the company are entered in the books at cost."

The St. James Methodist Church property cost $350,000 a few years ago, he said, and it has been greatly augmented. The church has recently received an offer of $2,500,000.

"If that property is transferred over at the price which others are willing to pay for it, that watered capital in the sense in which that watered word 'water' is used?" he asked. "I would say that transfer would be in good faith."

The chairman inquired whether that physical valuation of $2,000,000 of the company's assets shows that it is an under valuation.

"If we take these subsidiary companies into consideration," Mr. Cahane replied, "that valuation is not too high."

The cost of the equipment of this railway as applied to writing off the depreciation is entered at $1,000,000. The real estate has cost something like $3,200,000, and it could not be purchased in the city to-day for $6,000,000 or $7,000,000. On a fair appreciation as disclosed from the facts we have something like $28,000,000 of real value.

"If the city corporation," he continued, "assumes that it will take this property over by arbitration at a value of less than this it is much mistaken."

"This city has also a value that is appreciable in the market," declared Mr. Cahane, "and it is paying in three months to raise and pay $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 in cash for the company's assets. But the shareholders do not want to give up their property."

There is no better way of determining the value of the company's assets, Mr. Cahane affirmed, than the price for which the shares sell on the market. "Take the Bank of Montreal, for instance," he said. "It is capitalized at $10,000,000, and it is paying dividends on a capitalization of $20,000,000."

"The very fact that these subsidiary companies are under federal charters," he said, "makes it difficult to bring them under uniform systems of operation, and it will be a benefit to the city itself to have them under one charter."

"This city must grow and become in ten years a city of a million people. This company has simply outgrown its swaddling clothes. Those bonds we are buying in now because we are able to get them under special circumstances. We have a railway company planning to build a tunnel under the mountain, at an expenditure of $20,000,000 to $30,000,000. If this tramway company wishes to maintain an exclusive contract it must give the city a full measure of service and expend up to $50,000,000. This company must readjust its finances to put out a large quantity of securities so that it will meet the needs of the public. The other way of extending it by putting out its common stock. We cannot," he said, "obtain the funds which we require in this country by issuing stocks. We have to obtain our money in large amounts from abroad, and we have to sell bonds. The proceeds of the sale can only be used to the extent of 75 percent of the actual physical value created. We are providing means by pany and in return for it receive common stock in the new. If such a shareholder did not wish to have his stock transferred all he had to do was to withhold his endorsement and retain his certificate and after the merger he would still remain a full-fledged shareholder in the Street Railway Company.

Continuing, His Lordship said it would be difficult to say if the injunction was granted on which side the balance of inconvenience would fall. On the one hand, according to the allegations of the petitioner, if the agreement was put through, and if by final judgment he succeeded in having the resolution set aside, it would be almost impossible to have the judgment executed. Whereas, a couple of years' delay in the amalgamation of this big concern would be very sensible.

With regard to the statement of the petitioner that the directors of the company and a group of other persons had been guilty of a conspiracy to control at a general meeting in 1910 for the purpose of amalgamating the company with the Canadian Light & Power Company, the judge said that the majority withheld from petitioner information, and refused to grant an injunction when asked by plaintiff, the Court did not think it incumbent on it to give an opinion, but could judge as to the merits of the proceeding. The Court dismissed the plaintiff's motion with costs.

THE MNAMARA TRIAL

Expect that 3,000 or More Veniremen Will be Examined.

Los Angeles, Oct. 25.—Efforts to obtain talemens satisfactory to both sides in the case of James B. McNamara, indicted for murder in connection with the explosion of the 'Times' building here, continued to-day, under the multifarious customs of counsel. The discovery yesterday of a talemensman who, while waiting as a venireman to be called to the jury box for examination, actually referred to his possible jury service in the case, talking with friends, had illustrated in another way the difficulty that is being experienced in court daily in signing men who have kept their minds free from discussing the 'Times' disaster during the year that has elapsed since it occurred.

B. W. Clark, the talemensman who talked with Harry Chandler, vice-president of the company publishing the 'Times,' and whom he met in a street, mentioning only casually that he was drawing for jury duty, elicited the comment from Chandler that he hoped Clark would qualify, has been summarily excused by the court from serving, but stern warning has gone forth to other veniremen to maintain absolute silence on the subject in view of the fact that they too be placed in confinement, as are the talemens under examination.

The incident in which Clark disclosed his chance conversation, so far as the court is concerned, has been ended, no action with reference to either Chandler or Clark being contemplated, but Clark's statement that his son had convinced him of how gas had destroyed the 'Times' building drew forth more than passing interest from both sides.

The conflict between the defence and the prosecution as to the cause of the explosion—the former holding to the gas theory and the latter to the dynamite opinion—it is anticipated, will draw forth the testimony of many experts, but neither side is overlooking opportunity to find people who may have changed upon their minds information relative to the cause.

With only four men left of the original panel of 125 veniremen, a new panel ready to be called and hardly a juror agreed upon, entirely satisfactory to either side, the chances for an examination of possibly 3,000 or more veniremen before the jury finally is chosen was generally held to-day in the light of developments as little possible, in one California case no less than 3,100 veniremen being called.

At the opening of court to-day there were eight talemens in the box, four of whom have been passed for cause by both sides.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL CONVENTION.

Being Held in Brockville to Mark the Centenary of First Sunday-School on This Continent.

Brockville, October 25.—Exactly one hundred years ago this month the first Sunday school on the continent was organized at Elizabethtown by the Rev. William Smart, of the Methodist church, sent out by the London Missionary Society. Adiel Sherwood, the first teacher, superintended the school for upwards of fifty years. The name of the town was changed by General Brock in 1812 to Brockville. Here, therefore, fittingly the Ontario Sunday School Association is holding its annual convention this year, the forty-sixth of its existence. Five hundred and thirty credentials have been issued, and at the first session yesterday afternoon 327 had registered, more than ever before at the outset of a convention. Mr. T. F. Harrison, Kingston, is president. The convention church is the First Presbyterian. Major Albert Patterson, mayor, and the Rev. Dr. William Sparling, pastor of the Wall street Methodist church and president of the Ministerial Association, welcomed the delegates. Mr. William Hamilton, chairman of the general executive committee, presided at an unusually large numbers for the opening day, and decided after full consideration of the proposal to alter the constitution to make the secretary to make the change. The secretary's report showed a marked advance along almost all lines.

Regarding a summer training school, a committee was appointed with power to co-operate with the denominational boards. Ottawa and Owen Sound are eager for the 1912 convention, next year's going to Hamilton as fixed last year. Mr. Theron Gibson, Toronto, showed a gold cup sent him by Count T. Dalku, president of the Imperial Bureau, Decoration Japan, in gratitude for $2,510 contributed by Sunday schools all over the Dominion to save the famine-stricken Chinese children. The evening meeting, closed with the audience standing while the organist played 'Hallelujah Chorus.' The usefulness of the 'Pocket Testament League' was stressed by Mr. S. Dinick, Toronto, honorary secretary of the league.

That the Sunday school is not for children only, or for small segments of the church membership, but is the Bible school of the church as a whole, was emphasized by the Rev. W. P. Price, pastor of North Bay Baptist church.

A pleasant incident was the reception of a message of greeting from the Dominion W. C. T. U., and a suitable reply was sent.

TO PREACH AT ST. ANDREW'S.

The Rev. Prof. John Dall, B.D., of Queen's University, Kingston, late of Rothesay, Scotland, will officiate next Sunday at both services in St. Andrew's Church of Scotland.

CHRISTIAN COMMISSIONERS

Rush to Register for New Phase of Men's Missionary Movement.

SEVENTY-FOUR YESTERDAY.

Non-members Asked to State Reasons for Remaining Away From Congress.

Yesterday was a record day for registration in the office of the Men's Missionary Congress, although it will probably often be surpassed in the future. Seventy-four men were registered as commissioners during the day. Many of the application cards came by mail and many applicants came on foot. A dozen or more at a time, they came in from some of the theological colleges. Visitors dropped in at all hours and brought some cards and two-dollar bills with them. The pastor of one church brought three cards from his parishioners, who he had happened to meet in the street. Three new cards came in from a little church out in the Townships, which already had three commissioners registered.

Three cards came in together from the only one of the Congregational churches in Montreal which had not yet registered its pastor and one or more laymen. Another of the Congregational churches so far leads all the churches in the province in the number of commissioners registered, although it is expected that another denomination will soon break that record. As you would suspect, it was a life insurance man who had 'gotten after' these men, doubtless on the principle that to register for the great Congress would be one of the best ways of 'insuring' their Christian life.

of which is printed: I elect to stay away from the congress for the reasons opposite, which I have set an 'X'. And then follow some reasons which remind one of the excuses made by the guests invited to the great feast described in the Gospel: 'I have brought a field and must needs go and see it. I have bought five yoke of oxen and an automobile and I go to prove them. I have married a wife. I have a Peradventure he sleepeth and must be awakened.' Probably his fourth reason fits more people than any other. On the other side of the ballot it reads: 'I elect to register as commissioner to the congress for the reasons opposite, which I have set an 'X'. And then follow five strong reasons which seem to be convincing, as although the 'ballot' is of course intended mainly to provoke thought, and explain the reasons why it should be supported, the mails have already brought in several, marked with 'X's on the right hand side, with application for registration.

CHINESE CIVIL WAR IS NOW INEVITABLE

Revolutionists are in Possession of Strongest Parts of the Empire and Government is Disheartened.

IMPERIALIST TROOPS ARE REVOLTING.

Stated That Rebel Agents Entered Peking, Over Night, Which Will Mean Death Blow to Government's Hope.

Shanghai, October 24.—News from the scene of operations on the Yangtze Kiang is to the effect that the rebels have captured and occupied Kiu Kiang, 130 miles south-east of Hankow. They burned the yamen of the governor and cut the telegraph lines. Hu Kow, at the entrance of Po Yang Lake, is also in the hands of the rebels.

The revolutionists occupied Chang Sha, the capital of the province of Hunan, on October 22. The governor of the province fled. Some of the Manchu officers were killed, but all the foreigners in the place were protected by the rebel commanders. The Japanese consul is holding a Japanese steamboat for the transfer of women and children.

GENERAL CIVIL WAR NEAR.

London, October 25.—The Daily Telegraph's Peking despatches, dated October 24, say that throughout Monday night there was continuous firing of skirmishers near Hankow. The insurgents who adopted bold tactics, engaged the imperialists at many points. The northern army is pushing to the southward and the government forces are retreating. The remainder of the government forces are fighting without regard to order or method. The general staff at Peking is reported to be arranging for the mobilization of a second northern army, comprising two divisions from Manchuria and one from Shan Tung. There will also be at Peking a reserve army. The insurgent cause is strengthening and unless the struggle around Wu is brought to a speedy and successful end a general civil war is inevitable.

Since noon communication between Peking and Ka P'ing Fu, the capital, has been interrupted. It is said that rebel agents entered the city overnight, and that since their arrival the troops have revolted. If this be true it will be the death blow to the Government's hope that Yuan Shih Kai, as a native of Ho Nan, will be able to pacify the province.

Yuan Shih Kai has ordered his special train to return to Peking, and this is interpreted to mean that he has decided that he is not able to undertake the mission.

GOVERNMENT DISHEARTENED.

Two important towns, Kiu Kiang, in the province of Kiang-Si, and Sian, capital of Shenan Province, have fallen into the hands of the revolutionists, very materially extending the area of the uprising, disheartening the Government and giving new confidence to the leaders in the movement to establish a republic. Sian was regarded as a Government stronghold.

Consular reports from Kiu Kiang say that the people of that town rose on the evening of October 24. They burned the Taoist's yamen and declared in favor of the rebels. The imperial ist troops were repulsed on both sides of the railway.

On the latest messages from Sian says that the rebels are making overtures to the Mohammedans in the province of Kansu, which lies to the north of Sze-Chuen. The Mohammedans have been in open rebellion since August, and the sender of the message believes that the two revolutionary parties will join forces. Kai-Peng, in the province of Ho-Nan, is in a serious position because the local officials have practically abandoned the whole place to the soldiers. There have been several clashes between soldiers and police, and there is much danger of rioting. Numerous reports are at hand from Soochow, Tai-Nan-Fu and other centres. Numerous sailors have deserted the Chinese gunboats and joined the rebels.

It is unquestionably a fact that the entire Yangtze region and most of Southern China are now in a revolutionary sentiment. All the cities which have been taken over by the rebels in the past few days have been captured without resistance. The local government has surrendered quietly, and the rebel army has taken the place of the little stir. A few Manchu officials have been killed, but most of them have joined the rebel cause.

Details of the transfer of Chang Sha, capital of Hunan province, to the revolutionists, were reported to the telegraph headquarters here by the editor in chief. Please take notice, he said, that the insurgents have duly occupied this office. He said he himself had joined the revolutionaries. He declared his intention of the leaders, he added, was to gradually take over city after city, and to start the revolution in their possession, and thus push on to Shanghai. They planned, he said, to re-establish the telegraph lines as soon as possible in order to continue under a provisional government, which they declared, would have the sympathy and support of the entire country south of the Yangtze.

Trade conditions in Shanghai have already improved somewhat. Commercial interests expect complete confidence that no serious disturbances to business enterprises will occur. They point out that if the revolution is successful the result will be to encourage legitimate commerce, while if the imperial forces win, helpful reforms in government are certain to be introduced. They are confident that any massacres will be permitted in Shanghai if the native city is surrendered to the rebels. The Manchu officials who are being held in the north unmolested. Foreigners are safe so long as they remain neutral. Any interference in behalf of the Manchus would undoubtedly arouse tremendous indignation.

The German warships are setting a few wireless messages through from the neighborhood of Hankow.

GETS ACADEMY RANK

Inspector Highly Pleased With Work at Verdun Schools.

There was a large attendance at the Verdun Town Hall last night, on the occasion of the presentation of the prizes given by the Protestant School Trustees. Ald. Farrar occupied the chair and he was supported by Principal Rexford, of the Diocesan Theological College, the Rev. F. L. Whitley, and Principal Smith of the Verdun School.

An interesting programme of eulogical and musical items was given by the pupils of the school assisted by a few friends, which was much enjoyed.

The Chairman in a few introductory remarks reviewed the school history, and the principal said that the Inspector had granted the rank of Academy to the school for their excellent work. He expressed the hope that the parents would allow their children to remain at school as long as they could in order that they might receive the benefit of the systems. You are, therefore, informed the audience that it was his intention to request the Trustees to consider the question of providing for the accommodation of the school, which was taxed to its utmost.

GOES OVER TO REBELS.

Peking, Oct. 24.—Sian Fu (Tsin-an Fu), has gone over to the rebels. The Government is endeavoring to force the rebels to take command. Since then, he says, he has found all the men, from the highest to the lowest, of one mind, and thinks it better to belong to a united than a disunited party.

IMPERIAL TROOPS CUT OFF.

Shanghai, Oct. 25.—The capture by the revolutionists of Chang Chou, an important railway centre in the province of Honan, was announced in despatches which reached this city shortly after noon to-day. From a strategic point of view this city should prove of great value to the rebels. It is the junction of the Kai P'ing and Peking-Hankow railways, and is located about 250 miles north of Hankow. Its capture apparently cuts off from Peking all the Imperial troops now gathered around Hankow and Wu Chang.

To-day's news from the lower Yangtze valley was recognized by the government. With Kiu Kiang in the disputed possession of the rebels the Imperial fleet has retreated on down the river, some of the vessels being reported as far eastward as Wu Hu. Conditions are ominous not only in Wu Hu but also in Nanking. Most of the cities of the Yangtze valley have left these two cities, and are crowding into Shanghai, where every hotel is already filled with refugees.

TURCO-ITALIAN MANOEUVRES

Flying' Italians are Helping to Influence Natives to Surrender.

BLOCKADE IS RAISED.

Notice to Shippers Has Been Issued That Certificates of Origin Must Accompany All Goods.

Rome, via Frontier, October 24.—Messages from the interior of Tripoli say that the reports of 'flying' Italians with destructive machines are everywhere causing consternation and terror. Some of the native tribes have decided to migrate to points further into the interior, while others are buying their valuables in the ground. Bolder tribesmen are devising means to attract the aeroplanes into positions where they can be fired upon.

In military circles it is thought that the aeroplanes are helping to influence the natives to surrender.

NOTICES TO SHIPPERS.

London, October 24.—The Board of Trade, acting upon information received by the Foreign Office, has sent out notices to shippers that after November 1 certificates of origin must accompany all goods shipped to Turkey and to all European countries with Mediterranean ports, to Morocco and to Egypt. Otherwise such shipments shall be regarded as Italian, by Turkey until disproved. Turkey will impose one hundred per cent ad valorem tax on all Italian goods.

COMPANIES AS VOTERS

The following circular letter has been sent to-day to Montreal members of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association.

At the last session of the Quebec Legislature, the following amendment to the charter of the city of Montreal was made:

44. Joint stock companies or corporations may be entered on the voters' list and vote in the name of, and through a representative of the company, duly authorized to that effect by a resolution, a copy whereof shall be filed with the City Clerk, on or before the first day of December, each year; and they may so vote in all the wards where they pay taxes; provided such representative be a director or employee of the company when authorized and called upon to cast his vote.

This change was brought about at the instance of the Association and of the other commercial organizations of Montreal. As manufacturers, we are deeply interested in seeing that the many controllers and aldermen elected, are progressive, businesslike men, who will work to improve our streets, and our fire, police and lighting systems. You are, therefore, strongly urged to take full advantage of the voting power accorded you.

All that is necessary is to have your board of directors pass a resolution in the following sense:

Resolved, that John Blank be herewith authorized to be entered on the voters' list of the city of Montreal, as representative of the firm of Blank & Co., Limited.

Send a copy of this resolution to the Hon. H. O. David, city clerk, before December 1st, with (or embodied in) a letter stating the date on which your directors met; and also stating what office the person authorized holds in your company, whether as a director or as an employee.

Yours faithfully,
H. T. MELDRUM,
Montreal Secretary.

TO STAND HIS TRIAL

Late Bank Manager to be Brought Back From New York.

St. John, N.B., October 24.—Detective P. E. Killen left for New York to-night with a warrant to bring here Harry E. Clark, former manager of the branch of the Bank of Montreal, Brunswick here. Killen was accompanied by Chas. F. Sanford, one of the bank's solicitors. There are no other developments in the case here except that R. B. Kessen, general manager of the bank, says the charge against Clark will be theft. He states no amount, but says there was theft from the bank outside the financial transactions of outside parties. The amount, however, he says, is less than is reported.
