SELF-HEATING IRONS.
PATENTED, QUEBEC, AUGUST, 1852.
FOR SALE BY THE SUBSCRIBERS.

LADIES are invited to call and examine the IRONS. Those who have tried them acknowledge their superiority over every other description of Smoothing Iron, for all laundry purposes.

The large amount of fuel consumed in heating the common Iron causes an uncomfortable heat, and an extravagant expense, both of which are avoided by using the SELF-HEATING IRON.

With this Iron, three bushels of charcoal are sufficient to do the ironing of a common family twelve months. Once filled, you can use the Iron five hours without replenishing. While using it you do not require to suffer the annoyance of a heated stove or fire place. You need not labour so hard pressing with it as you do with the common iron. The Irons being finely finished, they are easily kept bright and clean, and cannot possibly soil the finest linen.

Manufactured in Canada East only at the Montreal Foundry and City Works.

McDONALD, BROTHERS & CO.,
Importers and Manufacturers of Oils,
25 ST. PETER STREET, MONTREAL,

WILL commence business on the 1st May next, in premises recentlyoccupied by the Messrs. D. & C. DARLING. By devoting themselves exclusively to the IMPORTATION and MANUFACTURE of OILS, they will thereby be enabled to offer to the trade the superior advantages resulting from the purchase in large quantities of the different kinds of OILS at their respective places of production. And by combining the manufacturing and refining of OILS with the Importation of the crude article, they feel confident of being able to execute orders upon the very best terms. Their Stock will comprise—

Bleached and Unbleached Winter and Summer Sperm Oils
Do. do. do. Elephant do.
Do. do. do. Solar Sperm do.
Double Clarified Lard Oil
Best Gallipoli Olive do
Do. Sicily do
Patent Refined Russian Rape Seed Oil
Fine Nut and Palm Oils
Raw and Boiled Linseed Oils
Oils for Fuller's and Currier's use
Pale and Straw Colored Seal Oils
Cod, Whale, and Porpoise Oils

They would call particular attention to their

"Refined Lubricating Machinery Oil,"

which they warrant suitable for Railroads, Steam Boats, and every other class of valuable Machinery. This OIL is the most economical for machinery, it requiring less of it than of any other Oil to lubricate a given amount of friction. It runs machinery perfectly cool, creates no gum, even works off the old gum accumulated upon the journals and slides, &c., by the previous use of bad Oil, and it does not congeal in the coldest weather.

It is, in every respect, a superior article, and the manufacturers having in view the incalculable injury done to machinery in Canada by the use of base Oils are prepared to guarantee its results.

Montreal, April 26, 1853. 1y 50

OIL MANUFACTORY.

THE Subscribers, after several years' experience, and by the introduction of all the recent improvements in the MANUFACTURE and REFINING of OILS, feel confident they can supply the Trade with the following descriptions of the purest quality, and at lower prices than any that can be brought to this market:—
Extra Clarified Lard Oil
No. 2 do do
Anti-Corrosive Machinery Oil
Elephant do
Bleached Whale do
Clarified Seal do
Also, on hand and for Sale:—
Winter Strained Sperm Oil
Refined Rape Seed do
Pale and Straw Seal do
Whale Cod, and Tanners' do

The extensive demand for, and general use of, their No. 1 Lard Oil, is the best testimonial of its superiority, as a lubricating agent, in Railroad and every other description of Machinery; and, for illuminating, is fully equal to Sperm.

THE BALTIMORE CLIPPER BARK
INCA,
900 TONS BURTHEN,

HAVING made two successive voyages from China, each in the very short period of 101 days, has thoroughly established her reputation for fast sailing, and will be dispatched for MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA, on the 25th of August. The ships of the Pioneer Line have made remarkably quick and healthy voyages; losing only one passenger among 950 that sailed in the first five ships, whereas it appears, from the report of the Emigration Commissioners, that the mortality on board English ships to Australia has equalled 4 9-10 per cent. This very gratifying result shows that no care and expense have been spared in selecting, ventilating and provisioning the ships of the Pioneer Line.

The "INCA" will only carry a limited number of passengers, at as moderate rates as are consistent with justice to passengers and owners.

For Freight or Passage, apply on board, at Pier 12 E. R., or to

NEWS BY THE "AFRICA."—We yesterday afternoon received our English letters and files, by the "Africa," which left Liverpool on the 30th ultimo and reached New York early on Thursday morning. The news brought by her is of no great interest. The solution of the "Turkish question" appears to be very much in statu quo ante—the occupation of the Danubian provinces by the Russians—we give the following extracts from the latest English papers:—

(From the London Globe, July 29.)

FRANCE.

PARIS, Thursday Evening.—The Siecle of this morning has a leading article, which would have alarmed the peace party very much, if the recent mistakes made by that journal in its news had not injured its credit. The article begins by stating that, yesterday morning at half-past nine, a messenger arrived from London at the English Embassy with despatches of very great importance, which were immediately sent down to Lord Cowley at Chantilly, his summer residence; that Lord Cowley came up to Paris, and had a long conference at 2 o'clock with M. Drouyn de Lhuys, &c.; and then the Siecle goes on to say, upon the authority of a London correspondence, in which it places full confidence, that the English government has proposed to the Emperor of Russia to state explicitly to the Emperor of Russia that the evacuation of the Principalities must be the basis of any negotiation, and that the two governments have given orders to their fleets to pass the Dardanelles, but not to undertake any warlike operations without fresh instructions.

Now, the fact is, that no despatches arrived at the English Embassy yesterday morning, and Lord Cowley did not come from Chantilly to confer with M. Drouyn de Lhuys, for his lordship was not at Chantilly. He was not to arrive from England till last night, and he is not yet come to Paris.

There does not appear to be any foundation for the alarming reports that are current. Up to this moment all the accounts from the East and the North are of a pacific character, but full reliance must not be placed upon them either. A telegraphic despatch from Marseilles dated yesterday, and hawked about the Bourse to-day, says, "We receive the most positive news of an arrangement to the satisfaction of all parties. The mediation of Austria has been accepted: only slight modifications, which require only the ratification of the English and French governments, have been made in it." The despatch does not say where this news comes from, but there is another from Constantinople of the 20th to nearly the same effect.

An official gentleman here has received a letter from Bucharest. It says:—We have not less than 75,000 Russians close to this town. They are fine looking fellows, but we should wish to see their backs turned towards us."

The Funds have been very heavy to-day, but with very little variation on the prices of yesterday.

M. York, the contractor for the Crystal Palace, and M. Derouville, the director of the Company, were yesterday commanded to wait upon the Emperor at St. Cloud, and to bring with them the plans of the building. They were received in a very kind manner by the Emperor, and when the plans were spread out the Emperor called out Eugenie, and the Empress entered from an adjoining room. She then took a chair at the table, and with the Emperor went through, for more than an hour, the whole of the plans, every now and then expressing gratification and saying something agreeable to the contractor, who is in fact the author of the plans. The Emperor did the same, and the manner of both was kind, encouraging, and unaffected throughout the interview. It is impossible, for these gentlemen, to find a more interesting lady than the Empress.

The preparations for the fêtes on the 15th are going on extensively and rapidly. There is, however, an absurd paragraph in the Constitutionnel about the demands for apartments for the occasion. That journal tells us that some of the hotel keepers have been obliged to put up tents in their yards, for the accommodation of extra customers. From what I hear, I do not believe that as yet a hundred rooms in all Paris have been engaged beforehand.

TURKEY.

On the 16th, the fleets of Great Britain and France remained in the positions they occupied on the 11th, in Besika Bay.

Admiral Hamelin arrived on board the Pluton, and on the 14th instant, Admiral LaSusse resigned his command to that officer.

The French three-decker Friedland, which arrived on the 15th, takes the place of the Montebello, which returns to Toulon.

The latest accounts from Constantinople state that a proclamation from the Ottoman government to all Mussulmans was soon expected to appear. The armaments continued with the same activity. The contingents of Tunis and Tripoli, calculated at 20,000 men, were expected. Abbas Pasha had placed at the disposal of the Sultan 14 ships of war (four of which are steamers), 15,000 men, and a sum amounting to 25,000,000 of piastres. Three Egyptian transports had arrived at Constantinople with a part of the troops. The Porte had decidedly refused the offers of service of the refugees, and had only accepted a small number of foreigners.

A letter from Smyrna of the 17th, in a Marseilles journal, announces the departure of Ali Pacha, the late Governor, after receiving an address from the Levantine colony. On the day on which he left, the Consuls displayed their flags, and the vessels of war fired a salute—with the exception however of the Austrian Consul, and the Commander of the Austrian vessel. The letter then proceeds to say:—"The investigation into the assassination of Baron d'Adelberg is terminated. All the accused have contrived to evade arrest. The Austrian Consul, M. Werkbecker, insisted that the chiefs of the emigration should be bastinadoed; but His Excellency Chosib-Effendi refused, saying 'if they be guilty they will be prosecuted, if innocent, what is the use of this cruelty?' The arrest of a Hungarian refugee at Beyrouth, which took place recently, nearly gave rise to scenes as deplorable as those of Smyrna:—'The refugee, accompanied by his wife and his children, embarked on board the Austrian steamer the Lloyds. The captain immediately signified to him in the name of the Consul that he arrested him and would convey him to Trieste. The Hungarian protested; and then appearing to submit to his destiny, he withdrew to a corner, and waiting until he saw that he was not watched, threw himself into the sea. A boatman picked him up and conveyed him to the Consulate of the U. S. There, proving by his passport that he was entitled to American protection, he was received. Thanks to the energy of the American Consul, the wife and children of the Hungarian, whom the captain wished to keep on board, were restored to liberty, and arrived at Smyrna yesterday by the French steamer."

SPAIN.

We learn from Madrid that the Cabinet has adopted, and the Queen approved, this resolution that the railroads already sanctioned by her Majesty shall be forthwith executed. The Northern line has been begun, and the works are being carried on with great activity.

The view we took last week of the state of the Eastern question has been strengthened by subsequent events, and indeed the statement made by Lord John Russell in the House of Commons confirmed its correctness. During the present week nothing has transpired to alter in the smallest circumstance the position of affairs which we had before the public; except, perhaps, that the Allington, 131 guns, the Agamemnon, 91, and Blenheim are still in the British waters. The most profound secresy is observed with regard to the negotiations, if indeed they can be called negotiations, which are going on between the cabinets of France and England with Russia. Every day, however, brings its plentiful crop of the most absurd reports. "Our own correspondents" in Paris and Vienna favour us daily with an imaginary letter from an imaginary friend, of Austria is doing this, or the other, and that a turbance of the peace of Europe is an absurdity.

Then, in the same breath, blowing hot and cold, there is another imaginary letter from another imaginary friend, a better source still, and he sures that war is inevitable. Next a day more able friend of the legion of friends says just the reverse; so that these perplexed gentlemen be right either way; is peace preserved, public will be laughed at for having dreamt war, and if war ensues we shall be pestered that black portentous cry, "I told you so." only facts we can collect this week to guide opinion are, that the Russians are strengthening their military position in the Principalities, and are taking every step which forecan suggest to maintain permanently their ion. As regards the Sultan, he seems to be ised by the war party [as it seems to us the otic portion of the Turks are nicknamed], orge him to take up arms at once, and to attack the enemy. On the other hand, Lord Stratford has had sufficient influence over the Sultan's to induce him to recall Redshid Pasha to uncils, and both are exerting themselves to in the almost ungovernable fury of the Now, Lord Stratford is, no doubt, acting wisely, provided that Russia can be by word persuaded to recede. If, on the other hand, the Czar is playing out his deeply concentrated game, it must be evident to the commonest capacity that the influence, however well intentioned, of France and England to restrain the Turks from repelling the invasion of their soil, will be a most serious, irretrievable, political blunder. We still retain our opinion that if the British House of Commons had spoken out, and assured Her Majesty by an address to the Crown, that the Commons of England would stand by and support her, if she stood by and supported her ally the Sultan with the whole weight of her power,—we believe that, backed as the British Parliament would be by the French Government, and by popular opinion, there would have been no mistake, and the Czar, unless he has made up his mind to take Constantinople, or "to be crumpled up", would have long since humbled his tone, and we doubt whether the Principalities would have been invaded at all. However, the people of England are no doubts of peace that they will easily pardon the well intentioned, but, in the event of war, the mistaken efforts of the cabinets of France and England. If we should be deceived by Russia, the reaction will be terrible; and Turkey we hope and believe, will have no ultimate cause of complaint, however she may distrust the apparent lukewarmness of her allies just at this moment. The formidable fleet now assembled at Spithead, all ready for sea, needs dates but too distinctly that we shall not stand any nonsense if the Czar attempts to circumvent us by teasing, so as to leave matters undecided until winter sets in, when the combined fleets must of course quit their anchorage in Besika Bay. For the sake of Turkey a decision must be arrived at without delay. The latest news we have from Constantinople is by the Caradoc, arrived at Marseilles with dates up to 20th July. In spite of all the Russo newspaper correspondents choose to tell us about the concessions of the Porte being of such a nature that the question was considered all but terminated, we take leave to refuse the smallest credit to any such a fatal and most ignominious surrender. We do not believe a word of what these writers choose to tell us, without a single official fact to give even a colour to their statements. Because a certain state messenger has proceeded from Vienna to St. Petersburgh by a boat from Stettin, a cock and bull story is invented about the Sultan's ignominious concessions, and the very same writers, who try to palm this trash upon us, after plumbing themselves upon their cleverness in finding out a solution of this Oriental question, wind up their veracious story by confessing that "even if the matter is amicably settled, and Russia pledges herself not to meddle in the internal affairs of Turkey, the sovereign rights of the Sultan, in all matters of the Greek church, are, in reality, lost for ever." Of course they are; and we will say more, her political doom would be equally sealed,—and yet, French and English statesmen, with their eyes open, are said to be consulting the Porte how to make these concessions. These newspaper writers in riding rough shod over Turkey, become knock-kneed when they stumble on the Principalities. Be long and short of the matter is this: will Russia evacuate the Principalities or will she not? There is no middle course; for we have Lord Clarendon's direct assurance that, as regarding making a bargain about Russia evacuating the Principalities," we shall do nothing of the sort." Until, therefore, we see the official document with the signature of M. Drouyn de Lhuys, or of Lord Clarendon, contradicting all that they have officially stated in the face of Europe, we must take leave to disbelieve the various speculations so pertinaciously put before the public about the concessions of the Sultan. It is far more likely that the French and English cabinets are at this moment deeply considering whether they shall not strike a blow at Russia, to show her we are in earnest; for if public opinion is to be wrought upon by Russian intrigue, sent on foot in every form and shape, day by day, and this sort of newspaper agitation is to continue, it will be found very difficult to bring the whole truth fairly before the world, so as to secure the unanimity which is desirable under such complicated circumstances. We can only place our readers upon their guard against all the absurd reports by which some of the leading journals attempt to bewilder them.

The protest of the Sultan, dated the 14th of July, is the best answer to all the reports of his meditating some ignominious concession to the Czar. It is couched in firm and moderate language, and cannot fail to produce a most favourable impression throughout Europe. A fresh case of dispute respecting a returned Hungarian refugee has occurred at Smyrna.

In France everything is quiet, if we judge from the absence of intelligence. Not the smallest light has been thrown on the recent plot against the Emperor's life.

Vienna some forty or fifty persons have been arrested, but whether they are accused of compassing the death of the Emperor, or whether their crime is that of carrying on a criminal correspondence with the revolutionary party in South Tyrol, we cannot say. The Austrians are exerting themselves, it is said, to prevent the Servians from joining Omer Pasha's camp. Now, if this be true, and that the commander of the Servian forces keeps away from his Sovereign's camp through the machinations of Russia or Austria, we do not care which, it is indeed high time for the Sultan to take up arms, otherwise, every semblance of authority will be wrested from him. Servia is still tributary to the Porte. But Russian gold and Russian intrigue are visible in almost every line of the foreign news which now reaches us from the continent. Nothing further has transpired about the Smyrna affair. Upon the appearance of two Austrian frigates the American commander of the corvette quietly left the harbour.—European Times.

MISSISQUOI RAILROAD.—We had yesterday the pleasure of announcing the adoption of this well-considered undertaking by our friends in "old Missisquoi." The following is from the St. John's News—Mr. Seymour has, indeed, been indefatigable and well merits the compliment proposed:—

We are happy to announce the important intelligence of the successful termination of the canvass in the County of Missisquoi, and the return of a large majority in favor of the vote by the Municipality to subscribe for £100,000 of stock in the Montreal and Vermont Junction Railway. This result will not have been unexpected by the readers of the News, who have uniformly entertained and declared our faith in confidence in the success of the undertaking, and we may safely proclaim the road a fixed fact in the history of the County. We have no sympathy with the Railway mania which would impoverish a country, by unnecessary or premature enterprises; but our firm conviction is, as it has ever been, that a road through the fertile and populous heart of Old Missisquoi, is one of the wants of the age, and that its immediate construction will disappoint no sincere friend of progress, improvement and genuine prosperity. We are happy to learn that it is intended to signalize the able and indefatigable exertions of Mr. Charles Seymour, (who, from first to last, has been identified with this important work,) with a public dinner at Missisquoi, to be given by the leading residents of the County.

(From the Portland Argus, August 9.)

NEW MERCANTILE HOUSES.—The opening of the Railway, connecting Portland with Montreal, is already beginning to produce results which are made apparent from day to day. We have just been informed that two houses for the transaction of a general mercantile and forwarding business, will be opened here forthwith, viz: by Messrs. Gillespie & Co., of Montreal, and Messrs. Hill, Sears & Co., of Boston. The former house, who do business in London and Liverpool, will probably be the agents for McKeen & Co.'s screw line of steamers.

Messrs. Hill, Sears & Co., who, we understand, are also most respectably connected in London and Liverpool, were the first to embark in the Canadian transit business in Boston and New York, and at the present time control this trade in both those cities. They are doing well to turn their attention to our rising city.

GRAND EXCURSION.—The very thought of a plunge into the cool waters of the Atlantic is refreshing, with the thermometer ranging—as we take it for granted it does at the present time of writing,—not under 89° or 90° in the shade. What say you, gentle reader, to a trip to Portland? An excellent idea, is it not? Well, then, do not, in mercy, require of us to exert our heat-exhausted intellectuals, to find you any further reasons for at once intimating your irrevocable determination to join—with your wife and little ones, if so blessed—the Grand Excursion, under the management of the Mechanics' Institute, the advertisement for which you will find in another column.

THEATRE ROYAL.—This evening, we would remind the numerous admirers of Mr. and Mrs. Conway, will be their last performance for the season, and, as it is for the benefit of Mrs. Conway, we doubt not they will make a point of attending. The play, as will be seen by the advertisement, is to be Shakspeare's: Hamlet, the part of the Prince of Denmark by Mr. Conway, and that of the love-lorn Ophelia by his fair spouse.

As an additional attraction, the very superior band of the 26th Regiment will play during the evening.

We would direct the attention of the authorities to our correspondent "Commerce's" letter in another column. We have reason to believe that his complaints, regarding the inefficiency of the protection afforded to those engaged in discharging canal craft—employers and employed, —are well founded, and that the police force in that locality is insufficient.

The Banners of the British Host,
Their well-earned victories proclaim:
And ev'ry corps can justly boast
Its share, in Britain's matchless fame.

Their conquests on fair "Maida's" plain,
And "Assaye," float in azure blue;
In gold, appear the fields of Spain,
"Peninsula," and "Waterloo."

To urge th' advance in battle's height;
But where the unresisting fall,
On Cameronia's colours write,
In deepest crimson "Montreal."

MADAME ANNA BISHOP'S CONCERTS.—Notwithstanding the weather—the sultry heat and warm rain falling—a numerous and fashionable audience filled the St. Lawrence Hall, on Thursday evening, and, judging by the continued applause, left it highly delighted with the performances of Madame Bishop and Mr. Bochsa and amply rewarded for the exertion incurred. The selections for the evening were all that could be desired and admirably adapted to display the versatility, as well as the surpassing gifts and genius of the fair cantatrice and her director and accompanist.

As we said on thursday, it is only for a Shakespeare to attempt to describe in words the delicious sensations one experiences in listening to the "concord of sweet sounds"—to be appreciated they must be heard,—and, in preference to any such attempt, we shall merely request the reader to recall to mind the most perfect vocalization he may ever have enjoyed, and to believe that every feeling he then experienced will be renewed in listening to Madame Bishop. It is not, however, as a vocalist alone that Madame Bishop so eminently excels. She is, beyond dispute, one of the most graceful and impressive actresses of this or any other day, and as she sings operatic music always in the most correct costume, sustaining, and most ably sustaining, the character in the Opera from which the selection is made, the "Dresses and Costume Concerts" possess all the dramatic attractions, necessary fully to appreciate the composer's ideas. Thus, on Thursday night, we were favored with two magnificent Scenas—the one from Donizetti's Linda di Chamouni, the other from the same great composer's Anna Bolena. In the first Madame Bishop appeared in the beautiful costume of the French Court of 1760, in the second in the simple but rich and graceful attire of the cruel Henry's unfortunate victim. On this subject of costume, we cannot do better than copy the following remarks, by Mr. N. P. Willis, (an excellent authority on such matters) as published in the N. Y. Home Journal:—

"She (Madame Bishop) dresses so faultlessly, and, with such consummate art, that she seems to communicate her motion to what she wears. The test is most trying, of course, in the dress with which ladies are most familiar: and, at a concert, therefore, where she appears only in the evening dress of society, she has the advantage for comparison; though, on the stage, whatever her costume—Fatinitza or Linda, male or female,—she equally presents the faultless type of its perfection. It is a rarer thing than it would seem at first naming, to see how a high-bred, thoroughly educated, unerringly womanly lady, dresses and bears herself in full dress, and of this sort of courtly phenomena, Mad. Bishop is as fine a specimen as we ever saw in Europe. Her management of her hands and arms, her reception of applause, her looks of courtesy as to the will of an audience in an encore, are all parts of the same picture of accomplished high breeding, and we presume we are not wrong in mentioning this among her attractions as a public performer."

For ourselves, we confess, of the performances on Thursday night, we were most gratified with the scenas, just mentioned, but, to those who prefer the simple melody, nothing could be more sweet and touching than Madame's "Auld Robin Gray," or more replete with rustic naiveté than her "O, dinna ask me gin I lo'e thee"! Of Mr. Bochsa's performances on the harp, and accompaniments on the piano, we shall only say that they were entirely worthy of his established character as the first harpist, and, if not the first pianist, the first accompanist in the world. His "Pleasures of Memory" (on the harp), in which he introduces his reminiscences of favorite American melodies—Yankee Doodle, Mary Blane, Hail Columbia, &c.—was received, as it merited, with unbounded applause: and his "Recollections of Flotow's Martha, on the piano, was a splendid performance.

It is rarely, indeed, that we have the opportunity in Montreal of hearing such music as our present visitors afford us, we would, therefore, warn our readers that this evening Madame Bishop and Mr. Bochsa give their last concert here, as they leave, positively, for Quebec on Monday. The programme will be found most attractive, embracing two grand scenas from Donizetti's Roberto Devereux, and Bellini's Sonnambula—in the former Madame will impersonate "Good Queen Bess," in all her magnificence of regal attire. We anticipate a great musical treat, and a crowded audience—but, if any place of public amusement can be cool, with the thermometer ranging as it has done for the last few days, it is the St. Lawrence Hall, with its lofty ceiling and ample windows.

We are requested to intimate that the Rev. John Girdwood, of New Bedford, Massachusetts, (formerly of this city,) will preach in the Baptist Chapel, St. Helen Street, on Sunday (to-morrow) forenoon at eleven o'clock, and in the evening at seven.

Ariota on the Value of Mexican Farms.
QUEEN'S PRIVATE HOTEL, QUEEN'S ROAD, BAYSWATER,
LONDON, July 16, 1853.

To the Editor of the Gloucestershire Chronicle:

SIR,—In your letter of the 13th instant, in which you have given an account of the Pavilion dinner held in honor of the Royal Agricultural Society's meeting, your readers will have remarked that Sir Roderick Murchison, with reference to information given by me, stated that in Mexico land could be purchased of a good quality, at three half-pence per acre. I feel it necessary, therefore, to give some explanation of those words, in order that no inaccurate idea may be formed of the value of land, which cannot be deemed to be sufficient, might lead to erroneous inductions.

Sir Roderick and I conversed in a manner which might easily lead to a misconception—he in Italian and I in Spanish—but only such guide as the analogy betwixt the two languages might afford. In this manner I answered several of Sir Roderick's questions; and I told him, as a curious fact, that I had sold on the frontier, near the River Bravo, for thirty-five dollars, (£7) an estate of five hundred thousand acres of the very best land. We made a calculation of how much this came to per acre in sterling, and we erroneously made it three half-pence instead of three-pence half-penny, which is the exact rate.

It is a pity that this error, for which I by no means blame Sir Roderick Murchison, should stand before the public as a fact; and from the general terms in which it is stated, almost appearing as if applicable to all lands in Mexico; I am induced to rectify the mistake, and, however slightly, to lay before you what I know relative to the prices of land in Mexico.

A few facts will answer my purpose. 1. The estate of "La Condesa," situated two miles from the capital, with irrigation and good land, being of the extent of about 3,000 acres, would not be sold by the proprietors, as I know from themselves even for $20,000, which would be equivalent to $6⅔ per acre.

2. The estate of Nanac Amilpy, and an adjoining one, lying twenty-two leagues from the capital, with 30,000 acres of land, of fair quality, and partially irrigated, has been sold recently for $200,000, equivalent to $6⅔ per acre.

3. Lands lying beyond sixty leagues distance from the capital, of good quality, although without irrigation, can be obtained at $2 per acre.

The incursions of the barbarians on the frontiers, and the want of population, are the real causes of the almost nominal price of 2½d per acre for lands in those directions. The security and prosperity of the capital, as well as its great consumption of agricultural produce, form the contrast presented in my first case; and lastly, the difficulty of transport and distance of markets, account for the difference in the two remaining cases.

I am, &c.,
MAR. ARISTA.

UPPER CANADA.

SUICIDE.—An inquest was held yesterday before H. Benson, Esq., on the body of Wm. Crankshaw, who had destroyed himself at an early hour the same morning, by cutting his throat with a razor. It appears that the deceased had been for about three weeks before subject to fits of delirium tremens, was at the time he committed the fatal deed, under the impression that he was to be hanged the following day. Chief constable Robbs, who lives in the neighborhood, was awoke about ½ past 3 o'clock a. m. by a noise in the street, and immediately got up and proceeded in the direction from where the noise was coming. When he got to the house several persons were outside watching the man through the window, cutting at his throat, and although the door stood open, none of these persons, to their shame be it told, went in to attempt to prevent him.

Mr. Robbs, as soon as he saw what was going on, went in, and at once struck the razor out of the suicide's hand, but it was too late, as the work was accomplished, and the man expired in a few minutes. Medical aid was promptly procured, but it was of no avail. Crankshaw was a man of about 50 years of age, of stout build, and healthy looking appearance.

Verdict "temporary insanity."—Kingston News.

We deeply regret to have to state that a young gentleman engaged in the establishment of Mr. Scobie, named Edward G. Widnall, was accidentally drowned in the Bay, while bathing. He crossed over to the Island by the ferry, in the afternoon, with a companion, Mr. Spray, and both went into the water to bathe near the natural channel. Neither was able to swim; and Mr. Widnall, unfortunately going beyond his depth, was drowned. We learn that when Mr. Widnall found himself beyond his depth he seized his companion by the arm, but did not retain his hold; he immediately sank and did not afterwards rise. His body is not found at the time we write these lines.—Toronto Colonist, Aug 10.

We are informed that the stories which have been circulating relative to the May Flower, are gross exaggerations. She was ashore but was got off without difficulty or injury. We understand she will be here to-day or to-morrow on her regular duties.—Ib.

LOWER CANADA.

Some thefts having, the night before last, been perpetrated at the Albion Hotel, Mr. Russell set his wits to work to discover the thief, and having fully satisfied himself, accompanied by the detective police, followed an American woman whom he suspected, and whose accomplice, a man, lodged at another hotel, to Montreal, where, before the arrival of the boat, he had her arrested. It is said, on being searched, she managed to throw the money overboard, but both man and woman have been lodged in jail.—Quebec Chronicle.

TWO ANCIENT SHIPS.—The ship which conveyed General Wolfe on his expedition to Quebec is still afloat, under the name of the William and Ann. She was built in 1759 for a bomb-ketch, and now in dock in the Thames recently, sound, and likely to endure many years yet: she is now engaged in the Honduras and African timber trades.

There is a very old ship in this port just now. She is lying at Reyner's wharf, and from her appearance we should say she must be near a hundred years old. She is called "Johanne Marie," and is really a curiosity.—Quebec Gazette.

LEVIATHAN STEAMSHIP.—Mr. Betts, the great Railway contractor, who has just left for Montreal, is a director in the Eastern Steam Navigation Company, who are constructing the Leviathan Steamship, for the purpose of facilitating Ocean navigation. The other head of this company is the Earl of Yarborough, and the names of Mr. Peto and others of equal note, are also associated with Mr. Betts in the direction.

This Company have laid the keel of a monster Steamer, whose dimensions are given us as follows:—

Length,	673 feet.
Breadth,	80 "
Out to out of wheel houses,	120 "

Her deck presents an area of over 1 1-2 acres of surface.

This ship is being built by Scott Russell, Esq., the greatest naval architect of England, and is constructed in separate compartments, made watertight, so that in case of her bow or her stern being stove in, or a slight track road, she cannot sink. We have seen notices of this ship before, but have not been able to ascertain her precise dimensions till now.

All experience has tended to show that speed and steadiness have been attained in proportion to the increase of the size of a ship. The better opinion now is that 30 feet is the extreme depth of the highest ocean wave, and that a vessel drawing 32 feet of water, of a length of 600 feet or over, can ride the waves without being moved from a level. We have this opinion enforced upon our attention by several of the captains in the Cunard and other lines.

It is doubtful if such a steamer could enter our harbor, and Halifax is therefore regarded as the most suitable port for this new move in Ocean navigation.

This Steamer is to sail from Milford Haven—where she is now building—or from Holyhead Harbor, which promises eventually to become the great Steamship Terminus of the British Isles.—Portland State of Maine.

PROPOSITION OF DEFIANCE.—A correspondent of the Washington Intelligencer, who dates his letter from Columbus, Ohio, proposes a plan for the purchase of Mount Vernon. He offers "to be one of the two hundred that will pledge themselves to raise one thousand dollars each, (no one to give more or less,) one half to be paid on the 10th day of January, 1854, and the balance to be paid in as the parties may agree on; the property and its sacred remains to be secured by deed to the people of the United States, and to be under the control of the government of the United States, so long as the government shall remain a republican government." He adds:

"And now I pledge myself, as one of the two hundred, to raise one thousand dollars for the above sacred purpose; but on condition that the remaining one hundred and ninety-nine shall be American born and true, and likewise that no Young American shall have part or lot in the matter, neither foreign or Americon born."

This excludes the editors of the Intelligencer as well as Young America. But he is safe in making the proposition; as without the money of Young America, the required sum will never be raised. "Old Fogyism" has allowed Mount Vernon to fall into decay, and now, when the only hope of rescuing it from the grasp of speculators is in the patriotism of Young America, the above proposition, however good the motive, is an insult to the memory of the great Washington, and an insult to the men who are truest to the Republic which his wisdom and his sword so much aided to establish. No! No! The preservation of the Tomb of Washington must be a National, and not a bigotted or factional question.—N. Y. Sun.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.

(From Edward Way & Co's. Circular.)

Per "AFRICA."

LIVERPOOL, July 29.

Ashes—This week their have been considerable sales of old Pot Ashes, said to be over 1,000 bbls, at 25s@25s 3d. Small sales of new Pots at 26s@26s 6d @ cwt. Pearls dull, at 27s @ cwt.

Provisions.—Beef quiet, but an improved demand is now confidently looked for. Ordinary Prime Mess 80s@90s; Fine 92s 6d@100s, @ tierce.

In Pork, a better business has been done, without change in price. Western 70s@75s; Eastern 70s@80s ℔ bbl for Prime Mess.

There is greater enquiry for Bacon, and prices tend upwards. Western 44s@50s; Eastern 50s @52s.

Lard has risen 1s @ cwt, and sales for the week amount to 300 tons; good to fine is worth 53s@55s @ cwt.

Grease Butter is much wanted at 45s@50s @ cwt.

Corn market—We have experienced a continuance of dull cold weather, but less rain than last week, and in the absence of the required warmth, crops continue very backward, and harvest must of necessity be late. The range of prices for Breadstuffs at our principal markets has rather tended upwards since our last advices. At our market on Tuesday, Wheat was about 1d @ 2d better, and Flour 2s@2s 6d @ bbl, buyers acting very cautiously. To-day, there was an absence of speculation, but a steady demand from the trade at barely Tuesday's prices for both Wheat and Flour. Indian Corn—Floating cargoes in demand, but that on the spot rather easier to buy.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS—July 30.

The weather of late has been unfavourable to the growing crops—there has been too much rain, and in consequence, in addition to a backward season, a small breadth of wheat sown, and floods and storms during the wheat blooming period—we now hear of red rust, blight, and mildew. Barley and oats show fair. Potatoes are reported to show symptoms of disease. In Scotland the rains have not affected the crops so much as in England, the retarding ripening process is the chief cause of complaint there. The accounts from Ireland are on the whole favourable. With regard to the crop the best opinion is that this season the disease will be less violent and more circumscribed than on previous occasions. Tea is held with more firmness in consequence of the accounts from China, but there has been no speculation, till the consumptive demand is better. There has been an active demand for Coffee, and heavy sales have been made at from full price to sllfer rates. The private market for Rice is 3d to 6d better than last week, and the improvement has been supported in the public sales.

In Provisions not more than a fair business has been transacted.

Ashes has been taken to a larger extent; reported small shipments from Canada, causing buyers to operate more freely; sales amount to 500 barrels at 25s 4d to 25s 6d for Pot, 1852, and 26s 6d for 1853 brand. Pearls are quiet at 26s 6d per cwt.

Oils.—Olive is in rather more demand, and for Gallipoli higher prices are required. Sales of Sicily were made at £38, of Lisbon at £37, and of Mogadore at £36 per tun. Linseed is dearer, some extent of business being done at 30s per cwt—Rape has advanced 20s per tun, pale bringing £37 to £38, and brown £36 per tun. Of Seal 200 tuns have been sold at £32 10s per tun. Palm is steady at £36 10s per tun, 400 tuns finding buyers on the spot and to arrive at that rate.

In the Manchester Market the buyers of Yarns and goods are evidently operating with increased confidence. This renders the bareness of the supply more evident, and causes sellers still to harden in their terms. On the whole, the market is much dearer. The demand is for various foreign markets as well as for home consumption.

A large business has been done in the Iron market during the last few days. Scotch pig has advanced to 58s to 59s per ton, cash, in Glasgow. Merchant bar Iron has also advanced 5s to 7s 6d per ton, and the market shews great firmness. Present rates in Liverpool:—Merchant Bar Iron, £8 5s; Nail Rod, £8 15s; Hoops, £10 15s; Sheets, £11.

There has been little fluctuation in the British Funds during the week, prices each day closing at about 98⅜ to ½. Yesterday the Funds slightly declined, owing to the fact that the Chancellor of the Exchequer's present course is regarded as indicative of an apprehension on the part of the Government that later in the year circumstances may be more unfavourable to their negotiations in respect of the stocks now awaiting redemption.

Freights to the United States have not varied much this last week. We quote freight to New York—dead weight, 11s to 17s 6d per ton; fine goods, 15s to 17s 6d; hardware, 12s 6d.

LONDON, July 29.

METALS.—In Scotch Pig Iron extensive purchases have been made, and prices have an upward tendency, ruling at 57s to 57s 6d cash for mixed numbers. Welch in good request, and 77s 6d to 80s paid for number one. In Rails transactions are on a large scale at £8 10s to £8 15s, at the works: Staffordshire £10, and common Welsh Bar £7 15s to £8. A free sale exists for other sorts; Sheet, single in London at £11 10s to £12, Hoops £10 10s to £11, and Nail Rods £9 10s to £9 15s. Spelter is in much better demand, at £21 to £21 5s on the spot, and there is a firm market. British Sheet Zinc sells more freely, at £29 to £30. Lead continues to attract little notice, and prices still tend downwards, British Pig selling at £22 to £22 10, sheet £23 5s to £23 10s. For Tin, demand is decidedly getting larger, and there is more firmness in the market; Banca realized 109s to 110s, Straits 106s to 107s, British 108s to 110s, and refined 112s to 113s per cwt. Tin Plates are much required, and rates incline upwards: IC Coke selling at 24s 6d to 25s, IX do 30s 6d; IC Charcoal 31s to 31s 6d, and IX do at 37s to 37s 6d per box. Swedish Steel in greater request, faggot at £16 10s to £16 15s, and keg £17 to £17 5s. Copper is much wanted for home trade purposes. Prices remain £107 10s for tile and cake; sheet at is per pound.

Spirits—In Brandy purchasers remain of importance, and there is a further rise: Cognac, best brands of the vintage of 1851 realised 1s 10d to 8s, 1850 ditto 7s 11d to 8s 1d, 1849 ditto 8s to 8s2d, older 8s 2d to 8s 4d, low to mid 6s 6d to 7s 6d. Genevs is much wanted, export sort at 2s 4d to 2s 6d, and home trade 2s 6d to 3s. An extensive demand prevails for British made Spirit, and there is an advance, 10s 3d having been paid; Gin 22 per cent under proof 8s 9d to 8s 10.
