

Trudeau will meet St. Leonard parents

MONTREAL—(CP)—Prime Minister Trudeau will meet with a delegation of English-speaking parents when they march on Parliament hill Thursday to protest unilingual schools in suburban St. Leonard, it was learned here.

A spokesman for the Parents' Association of St. Leonard said he had been notified Tuesday night the prime minister will receive the group, in spite of an unusually heavy schedule due to the opening of Parliament.

With Mr. Trudeau will be cabinet ministers and members of Parliament from the Montreal area, the spokesman said.

The march on Ottawa — by buses most of the way — will include about 4,000 Montrealers from several suburban communities in a show of support for the St. Leonard parents.

The brief to be presented to the prime minister will deal with human rights, citizenship and linguistic rights.

PROTEST DECISION

Meanwhile, Robert Beale, association president, announced the parents will also march on Quebec City at the end of the month to protest the June decision by the St. Leonard Catholic School Commission to gradually eliminate bilingual classes in favor of instruction in French only.

About 50 per cent of the suburb's population is French-speaking. Of the remainder, about five per cent speak English as a mother tongue and the others are largely of Italian origin.

A committee, which comprises parents, teachers, principals and clergymen, says parents are going to Ottawa "because this matter is now one of racial discrimination which touches on the constitution."

"We must remind the government and the school commission that majority rights must never be allowed to violate minority rights of English-Catholic education," a committee spokesman said.

The committee has begun a letter-writing campaign to teachers' groups in Quebec and across Canada seeking support for St. Leonard parents.

Prepare for protest trip to Ottawa Thurs.

MONTREAL (CP)—"Anguish" is the word they use.

English-language Roman Catholics are preparing for their Thursday bus - protest march to Ottawa on the educational question in a mood of mixed militancy and soul-searching.

Don Smith, executive vice-president of the Parents Association for Catholic Education, said in an interview Tuesday there are two main reasons for the Ottawa demonstration on the opening day of Parliament:

1. The school crisis in suburban St. Leonard now was a "matter of racial discrimination."

2. "We feel we have exhausted every possible avenue of hope for change from the Quebec government."

Mr. Smith, 39-year-old Regina-born advertising man, gave his personal opinion that the Union Nationale government is planning to use an atmosphere of tension to introduce educational changes in which so-called immigrant groups would be the chief victims.

PLAYGROUND OF POVERTY — Children playing in a lane in Toronto's east end make the most of their squalid environment.

The Economic Council of Canada recently termed poverty in Canada a disgrace amidst the country's general affluence. Residents of the area say that landlords have refused to make repairs since an urban renewal plan was put on ice two years ago. Landlords say that prices offered by the city for the old homes are too low.

News in brief

Cold war

OTTAWA — (CP) — Canada is not interested in resurrection of the cold war, an external affairs department spokesman said Tuesday.

He was commenting on the day-long talks between External Affairs Minister Sharp and George Ball, US ambassador to the United Nations.

The spokesman said Mr. Sharp and Mr. Ball agreed that despite the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia there need not be a complete halt in negotiations with Russia.

Jet crashes

NICE, France — (AP) — An Air France Caravelle jet with about 95 persons aboard was feared to have plunged into the Mediterranean Sea today on a flight from the island of Corsica to this Riviera city.

A massive air - and - sea search was launched for the plane, which had radioed there was fire aboard.

Most important

DENVER, Colo. — (AP) — Lung disease among coal miners "is the most important occupational dust disease occurring in the United States today," the convention of the United Mine Workers of America was told Tuesday.

"It is a man-made disease that can and should be prevented," said Dr. Lorin E. Kerr, assistant to the executive medical officer of the UMW's welfare and retirement fund.

Leave

ADDIS ABABA (AP) — The Biafran delegation to the suspended Nigerian peace talks left this Ethiopian capital today.

The delegation leader, Dr. Eni Njoku, is expected in Paris later today with one other Biafran for a visit to France. The other eight delegates are returning to Biafra.

Fighting rages

SAIGON — (AP) — Fighting raged northwest of Saigon today as the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese drove deep into the city of Tay Ninh.

United States forces killed 95 insurgent troops in repelling a night attack on a unit of the 25th Infantry Division.

To consider

VANCOUVER — (CP) — The international president of the International Woodworkers of America Tuesday asked Canadian members to consider the question of the IWA's relationship with the AFL-CIO.

Scolds housing experts

OTTAWA (CP) — Heward Graffey, a former Conservative MP who has been assigned by his party leader to shadow the government's "task force" on housing, says home ownership is still the dream of nearly every tenant in the country.

"The so-called experts who say people no longer want to own their own homes talk this way because they have given up trying to solve the housing problem," Mr. Graffey said Tuesday in an interview.

The bilingual 40-year-old Kitchener, Que., lawyer was known by Conservative Leader Stanfield Tuesday to represent him at public hearings on housing that will be conducted across the country this fall under the guidance of Transport Minister Paul Hellyer.

In effect, Mr. Graffey will be holding a parallel inquiry, listening to the same witnesses and briefs as Mr. Hellyer.

"KEEP ME INFORMED"

"Mr. Graffey will keep me fully informed and will discuss and exchange views on problems in the housing field with interested citizens, to ensure that our party's assessment of these problems remains accurate and timely, and our policies constructive and effective," Mr. Stanfield said in a statement announcing the new post for the former MP for Brimley-Mississauga.

Mr. Graffey said he approaches the housing hearings with the conviction that more money must be made available by the private sector of the economy, even if some "tangible encouragement" such as a tax concession is needed.

He said the single-family house has largely become a thing of the past in Canadian cities not because young married couples don't want it, but "because it has been priced right out of their reach."

The Hellyer group, consisting of the minister and five men from outside the government, opens its public hearings next Monday in Ottawa.

Mr. Graffey was an MP for 10 years before losing to the Liberals in the June 25 general election.

Try electro-sleep

TORONTO (CP) — While North American insomniacs gobble sleeping pills, Russians go to their neighborhood medical clinic and hook up to an electro-sleep machine that has them snoozing within 15 minutes.

Dr. Arsen Iwanovsky of Washington, D.C., demonstrated the machine Tuesday at the Canadian Medical and Biological Engineering conference.

As head of science technology at the Library of Congress, Dr. Iwanovsky—once an insomniac himself—learned that Russians have successfully experimented with electro-sleep and electro-anesthesia for 20 years.

The patient puts on the device like a black rubber mask. Inside are inch-wide sponges soaked in a salt solution, two covering the eyes, two behind the ears. The sponges cover tiny electrodes which hook up to a generator.

It sends from three to 200 rectangular-shaped pulses of electricity flowing through the eyes to the ears and about a third flowing through the brain.

BLINDS THAT CLOSE

He won't feel a shock. But at low frequencies he may see what looks like purple venetian blinds, opening and closing.

He will feel a pleasant tingling behind the ears. In less than 15 minutes, most people fall asleep.

The gadget could replace addicting tranquilizers, says Dr. Iwanovsky. But he doubts it ever will be installed in the home. The mask and box belong in medical clinics. In Russia they are as common as x-ray machines.

The Soviets are divided on why electro-sleep works. Some claim they have a direct effect on the central nervous system; others say the mask and box have a suggestive effect.

Soviet and East European documents indicate that electro-sleep has been used with good results in surgery, obstetrics and internal conditions such as stomach ulcers, diabetes, asthma and headaches. For electro-anesthesia, the current is turned up higher.

American doctors lag behind in this field, Dr. Iwanovsky said at a news conference later.

Czech legal code to remain

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovakia's government leaders assured their people Tuesday night that due process of law will be observed despite the Soviet occupation and appealed for the return of refugees from abroad.

There have been rumors of arrests since the Soviet bloc troops invaded Aug. 20, but the leaders' proclamation said:

"We reiterate that we shall never allow deformations of violations of our legal code such as we were witness to."

This apparently referred to the nation's 20 years of Stalinist-type rule, which ended in January when Alexander Dubcek became the Communist party chief.

Dubcek and other top leaders proclaimed Tuesday night: "Personal immunity is guaranteed. . . . No one can be taken into custody except in cases foreseen by law and following the decision of the court or the prosecutor."

ASKS RETURN

The proclamation also appealed to Czechoslovaks—including many intellectuals—who have sought political asylum in Austria, Switzerland and other West European countries in the last three weeks.

"Staying abroad," it said, "multiplies distrust and foreign propaganda and makes impossible first-hand information on the state of affairs at home. It increases helplessness and confusion."

"Your place is here. The republic needs your abilities, your knowledge and experience, your creative work. Your fellow citizens are waiting for you and are resolutely and selflessly continuing to build up their homeland for themselves and their children."

The Czechoslovak government has been issuing exit permits, and anyone with both a permit and a visa to a Western country is still permitted to leave. But there are signs this will change soon.

Soviet troops near the Austrian border were said to be turning back foreigners who had been cleared by Czechoslovak border guards. Diplomatic sources said they expect the Czechoslovak government to close the border Sunday.

The proclamation on civil liberties was issued by Dubcek, President Ludvik Svoboda, Parliament President Josef Smrkovsky, Gustav Husak, Slovak Communist party chief, and Premier Oldrich Cernik after Cernik returned from more talks in Moscow.

Cernik received a promise of deliveries of Soviet natural gas and signed an economic protocol. Communist sources in Moscow said those were the chief subjects of the talks.

Dalhousie University hosts medical experts

HALIFAX (CP) — Some of the world's foremost medical educationists and researchers, including a Czechoslovak whom organizers feared might not make it, opened three days of professional self-examination at Dalhousie University today.

The conference on The Physician of the Future—His University and His Community marks the centennial of the founding of Dalhousie's faculty of medicine.

About 75 physicians will take part in what conference chairman Dr. C. L. Gosse calls "the most outstanding medical program of any conference in Canada or the United States." An estimated 1,000-1,500 university alumni and invited doctors from throughout North America are expected to attend.

Among the guests will be Dr. Pavol Ivanyi of the institute of experimental biology and genetics of the Czechoslovak Academy of Sciences in Prague.

"He is coming," conference officials said Tuesday, after fears that the recent Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia might alter his plans.

Dr. Ivanyi will take part in discussions Friday on organ transplant, one of the three main conference topics, each designated to occupy a full day of panel and round-table talks.

It's a 'first' for Trudeau

OTTAWA (CP) — When Parliament opens Thursday, Prime Minister Trudeau will start finding out what it is like to run the country in a shooting gallery with himself the target.

The Liberal leader has never faced a regular session of the Commons as prime minister. He was sworn in April 20 as Lester B. Pearson's successor.

His only face-to-face contact with the Commons since then came three days later when Parliament met briefly to hear him call the election. Parliament was then dissolved. That meeting lasted about five minutes.

Since then, he led his party to a majority victory in the June 25 election and has governed without having to answer to Parliament.

With Parliament recalled, he will have to show up every day to answer questions from the opposition in the daily question period. That is the shooting gallery.

New Democrats and Conservatives can be counted on to give Mr. Trudeau a hard time.

The shooting gallery has one of its all-time marksmen in John Diefenbaker, who has long since come out of the shell into which he retreated after he was deposed as Conservative leader last year.

Since the election, Mr. Trudeau's well-reported decisions and actions have dominated the federal political scene. The opposition parties did what they could to play their role and cut him down to size through their own public statements.

But it is not the same as Parliament, which is a forum more for the opposition than the government. Mr. Trudeau can be directly tackled on his policy of non-intervention or late intervention in strikes with national consequences.

His decision to cancel the winter works program and halt construction of the Mount Kobayashi observatory in British Columbia are both likely to come under opposition fire.

The first move offended many municipal officials and the second did the same for many scientists.

Another opposition talking point, at least for the NDP, may be the whole principle of trying to balance the budget through such cutbacks. Mr. Trudeau keyed much of his election campaign to fiscal responsibility and that included a balanced budget.

On the campaign trail, Mr. Trudeau proved himself as adept stump orator. But he had everything going for him including a wave of popular support and generally happy crowds that made things easier than normal for a political campaigner.

The 72 Conservatives, 21 New Democrats and 14 Creditistes in opposition will not come to praise Caesar, but to bury him.

Because the Liberals have a majority—155 of the 264 seats—the opposition will no longer be bound by occasional past fears that fierce opposition might lead to an election, as under the Pearson minority administration. It could be a no-holds-barred session.

Await decision on the fate of Northumberland Causeway

OTTAWA (CP) — A federal decision on the fate of the Northumberland Causeway, rumored to be under the austerity axe, is expected in two or three weeks.

Works Minister Laing said Tuesday an intensive review of the major project is under way and a decision should come by the end of this month.

A reliable informant here said that on the basis of the information he has received, he believes the project to link Prince Edward Island with the mainland will be dropped.

The Maritimes Provinces Board of Trade said earlier in a telegram to Prime Minister Trudeau that it had received "reliable information" the project would be cancelled.

P.E.I. Opposition Leader Walter Shaw said in a statement it appears the federal government will abandon the project.

However, Premier Alex Campbell of P.E.I. said his latest information is that the causeway is "under active consideration and intense study." He was optimistic it will be built.

Doubts that it will have risen with cost estimates since former prime minister Pearson announced the first tender call two years ago, saying the government hoped for completion by 1970. The total cost was estimated then at $148,000,000.

Another review last year raised the estimated cost to $300,000,000 and in December, 1967, the government announced it was looking at "alternative ways" of meeting its commitment to the island. A hovercraft service was mentioned.

The proposed nine-mile link between Cape Tormentine, N.B., and Borden, P.E.I., would replace a ferry service.

Mr. Pearson said late last year "there is no thought of scrapping the project."

However, recent federal decisions to drop the winter works program and an observatory project in British Columbia have again raised speculation about the causeway.

Border lady surprised at stork shower

DERBY LINE — Mrs. James Graves, Holland, was the pleasantly surprised guest of honor at a stork shower held recently at the home of Mrs. William Leavens, Nelson Hill.

Mrs. Graves entered the Leavens home on an errand and, amid salutations, was escorted to a seat of honor by Mrs. Wayne Flynn of Derby Line. The decor was carried out by green and yellow streamers. On the table before her was a yellow umbrella, held by a cut out baby.

As the gifts were opened Mrs. Sidney Farrow made a ribbon corsage, and Mrs. Graves and her two daughters, Linda and Sandra, admired the lovely items. Mrs. Graves expressed appreciation for the surprise and kind gesture of her relatives and friends.

The refreshments included the shower cake, served by the hostesses, Mrs. Leavens, Mrs. Flynn and Mrs. John Stratton, Derby Line. The shower cake was made by Mrs. Velma Sloan, Derby, in the design of a baby's sweater, bonnet and booties. Guests attended from Holland, Derby, Beebe and Boundary Villages.

Presbyterian Ladies Circle holds meeting

SCOTSTOWN — The Presbyterian Ladies Circle held their first meeting after the summer recess on Sept. 4 in the church hall, with Mrs. John D. MacDonald and Mrs. Real Boulanger as hostesses. Mrs. Martin Matheson conducted the devotions.

Members plan to cater to a banquet in October, with the final plans to be made at the October meeting. Correspondence included cards of thanks and several acknowledgements for sympathy cards sent during the summer.

The quilt committee reported several quilts to be quilted. Mrs. F. C. Goodin, fancy work convener, reported several articles on hand.

The hall had been re-wired during the summer and the Circle catered for the Darlington-MacLeod wedding in August. The hostesses served refreshments at a social hour.

Beebe UCW, Unit One, holds busy meeting, following summer recess

BEEBE — Mrs. H. J. Stubbs, with Miss Viola Moranville as co-hostess, entertained the Sept. 4 meeting of Unit One, U.C.W. of Wesley United Church. There was an attendance of 17 members and two guests at the Stubbs home.

Devotions were led by Mrs. G. Laberee, also silent prayer in memory of the late Mrs. Harold Emslie, and a prayer for Mrs. Ida Haselton, who is hospitalized with a broken hip.

As it was the first meeting following the summer recess, all reports for approval were given in detail. The secretary read several thank you notes, three letters from the foster child in South America, an invitation to attend a rally in St. Paul's United Church, Magog, on Sept. 25. Several ladies expressed plans to attend.

A refund was received from a donation forwarded to St. Johns Hall.

Mrs. Hurley, of Sawyerville, is to attend a meeting Presbyterian UCW in Ottawa, Ont., and a letter was read asking for suggestions for topics to be debated at the sessions.

It was voted to make a donation to the Memorial Fund in

Stanstead Oxfam walker ready again

STANSTEAD — (Staff) — Seventeen-year-old Lynne White plans to strap her pack on her back and hit the road again for Oxfam on October 5.

This time Lynne plans to walk from Stanstead to Magog a distance of about 20 miles.

May 4, Lynne humped along 34 miles of Highway 5 from Stanstead to Sherbrooke to earn funds for the organization which engages in famine relief work.

Lynne said yesterday she "maybe has three or four people" pledged for the Stanstead to Magog jaunt.

So far Lynne said she has written to Stanstead College and Sunnyside High School for walkers.

Lynne, who is apt to set a blistering pace, has walked many a mile in the past. She walked for Oxfam while living in England and later in Montreal.

Anyone interested in joining Lynne for a brisk Saturday stroll can contact her on week-ends at 876-2417 — it'll be a gas.

Gets two years for breaking, entering

Mr. Justice William Mitchell of Superior Court yesterday sentenced Andre Chico Martel, 22, of Sherbrooke, to two years in penitentiary after a jury of 12 men found Martel guilty of attempted breaking and entering.

The jury acquitted Martel of a charge of possession of burglary tools and recommended clemency on the first charge.

The jury deliberated about 80 minutes before it came to its unanimous decision and returned the verdict.

Judge Mitchell congratulated the jury on their conscientious decision.

He told Martel he had no choice but to sentence him to two years in the penitentiary because of his criminal record.

Crown Prosecutor Andre Langlais informed the Court that the accused's record began in 1964 when he pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering with theft.

At that time, he was sentenced to 15 days in jail.

The trial of crimes that followed included more breaking and enterings with theft, causing damage to private property and assault.

He was sentenced to 23 months in jail at one time in his career in crime which began when he was just 18 years old, Mr. Langlais said.

In January this year, he was given a chance when he was found guilty of a breaking and entering charge and was put in the care of his family and a social service worker.

Mr. Langlais told the Court that Martel had had his chance and didn't deserve another.

He reminded the Court that the maximum sentence for attempted breaking and entering was 14 years in jail. He recommended a two-year sentence.

Martel was found guilty of attempting to break into the Gerard Roy clothing store at 55 King West in Sherbrooke on the night of May 12 at 8 p.m.

His lawyer, Yves Lafontaine, told the Court that no one had been injured in the crime and that the only damage caused was to Mr. Roy's lock on the door of his store.

He called the infraction minimum

However, Mr. Langlais said in his summation that if two citizens had not warned the police of the attempted crime, more damage would have been caused.

Judge Mitchell said Martel should try to learn a trade while he serves his two year sentence.

The sentencing yesterday culminated a day long trial on Monday in which five witnesses appeared for the Crown and one for the defence. Martel never testified.

Child hurt in crash

A five-year-old boy was slightly injured and a Granby man received facial cuts in two separate accidents in Sherbrooke yesterday.

Both accident victims were released from hospital after they received emergency treatment.

Wed 63 years

12 men apply for Magog job

MAGOG — (Special) — Since reorganizing the Magog arena's administrative group, the City of Magog has been looking for a manager to take charge of the sports centre. At the last Council meeting, 12 persons applied for the post, some asking for salaries that would come close to $9,000 per year. Among the applicants is that of Lucien Therrien, former manager, whose request is $8,000 salary.

The city also received tenders from six persons who have made bids on the arena's restaurant concession, including one from Mr. Therrien amounting to $2,400 per year in the form of rent to the municipality. This was the highest offer. Lowest of the bids was one from Marcel Hamel, who offered $20 a week rent during the periods of major activities at the sports centre.

Boy dragged

A four-year-old Sherbrooke boy escaped with bruises to both knees and back yesterday when he caught his trousers in a car's rear bumper while playing in Daigle Lane, and was dragged to Galt Street West before the driver realized he had the youngster in tow.

Andre Beaudoin, son of J. M. Beaudoin, 469 Galt Street West, was taken to the Hotel Dieu hospital where he was released shortly after receiving treatment. Andre had been playing behind the Rex Theatre.

Police said Orphir Phaneuf, 53, 419 Daigle Lane, drove away yesterday without realizing he was dragging the boy until he fell off as Mr. Phaneuf turned onto Galt Street West.

Record crowds jam Street Fair

RICHMOND — (Special) — Record crowds jammed into the Coliseum on Saturday evening for the 28th Annual Street Fair sponsored by the Royal Canadian Legion Branch No. 15.

The weather was ideal and young and old spent a very enjoyable evening at the various booths of towels, fruit, blankets, chocolates, dolls and toys, not to mention the fish pond and money wheel and the bingo seating space was always filled.

The president of Branch 15, Orin Taylor welcomed all in English and French and said he hoped everyone would have a good time, then called on Mayor Roger Trudeau to officially open the event in both languages. Mrs. Trudeau accompanied Mr. Trudeau and was presented with a corsage by a little boy Jimmy Ignatieff.

A common sight during the evening was people carrying prizes won at the various booths. Mrs. Stella Parkes, president of the Ladies Auxiliary to Branch 15, with other members was busy handing out hot dogs, sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee and drinks at the lunch booth.

The set of ladies' luggage, raffled by the Ladies Auxiliary was drawn for at the close of the evening. This was won by Larry Drolet of Silley.

The 28 door prizes were awarded to: First, transistor radio unclaimed; second, Corning Ware, unclaimed; third, Ray Oullette, Richmond, ladies watch; fourth, Robert Dalton, Richmond, electric toaster; fifth, set of TV tables, claimed; sixth, Guy Letourneau, of Richmond, electric kettle; seventh, Mrs. G. SILVER WEDDING — Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Reynolds, who recently celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary at

100 guests attend 25th anniversary party

HUNTINGVILLE — A surprise party was held recently at Grace Christian Home here honoring Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Reynolds, on their 25th wedding anniversary.

The astonished couple was ushered into the prettily decorated new wing to the strains of Wagner's Bridal Chorus played by Mrs. Bowen at the organ and C. Shontoff at the piano.

About 100 guests were greeted by Jim Reynolds at which time he presented Mrs. Julia Vaudry Cochrane, (Mrs. Reynolds' matron of honor) to the company. An address was given by F. Buchanan, who then toasted the happy couple to which Mr. Reynolds replied.

Following this, the beautifully decorated cake was cut and D. Fish made the presentation of a gift. A lovely white guest book was signed by all present as a souvenir of this happy occasion.

Also in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds of Montreal, Jim, Grace and Mary Reynolds.

Anniversary

MAPLE HILL — On the evening of Aug. 27, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Allan were pleasantly surprised at a party in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary. It was arranged by their son and daughter.

John Allan showed colored slides of his recent trip through East Germany, Poland, Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Belfast for the July 12 celebrations.

Among those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allan, Mrs. J. M. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allan and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Nugent, Samuel Nugent, Stewart Warcup, Mr. and Mrs. Eric MacCrae and sons, of Kinnear's Mills, Mr. and Mrs. George Rothney, Kinnear's Mills and Miss Dorothy Montgomery, of East Angus.

For and about Women

David Jackson marries Muriel Rogers

SWEETSBURG — The marriage of Muriel Eileen Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet E. Rogers of R.R. 3 Cowansville to David Milford Jackson, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Jackson of North Sydney, Nova Scotia, took place recently here at Christ Church.

Rev. John O. Peacock officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony, Aug. 10 with Elizabeth Watson as organist and Mrs. Douglas Smith as soloist. Yellow and white gladioli decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, Garnet E. Rogers, the bride was lovely in an A-line gown of white ligoda crepe featuring an Empire waist and a fitted bodice fashioned with a scoop neckline and long fitted sleeves. The gown was trimmed in Guipure lace. Her detachable chapel train was also applied with Guipure lace and her short bouffant veil of tulle illusion was held by a flower headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow and blue carnations.

Linda Jackson, sister of the groom, was maid of honor wearing a yellow princess style crepe dress trimmed with yellow and white lace. She wore a yellow bow headpiece and matching tulle veil and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Mrs. Alden Edwards and Sharon Petts were bridesmaids in blue crepe princess styled gowns trimmed with blue and white lace. They also wore blue bows and matching tulle veils and carried colonial bouquets of yellow and white carnations.

Peter Jackson, the groom's brother was best man and John Madill and Robert Rogers the bride's brother were ushers.

Receiving guests at the reception held at Christ Church Hall, the bride's mother wore a blue metallic brocade semi-fitted A-line dress featuring a side front band, a shaped collar complete with tie and short sleeves. The dress was made by the bride. Accessories were white and she wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

The groom's mother chose a pink embroidered dress and coat ensemble featuring a round neck. The coat had sheer three-quarter-length embroidered sleeves. She also wore pink hat and white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Table decorations included a three-tiered wedding cake fashioned in a replica of the church and was made by Mrs. Irene Williams. Tables were decorated with yellow, blue and white summer flowers, and white taper holders in cut-glass candelabra.

Leaving on her honeymoon, the new bride chose a rust metallic brocade semi-fitted A-line

Fall and winter coatwear fashion shows a definite shape this year

NEW YORK (CP) — Coats for fall and winter wear carry a definite shape this year in the New York fall fashion showings. Most are outlined by belts, and there's a tentative feeling for a muffled look, seen in the high-riding collars, many of them arched in coachman or Napoleonic style.

However, a number of coats and even suits use wide and longish scarves for an even more muffled look. In Betty Carol's fall collection many of the coats were collarless but had their own exciting neckline extras—a capelet, a throw scarf or matching muffler carefully shaped to stay comfortably in place.

Coty Award winner Oscar de la Renta introduced several coats and capes with huge stoles. One was in grey tweed with a black leather belt. Monte-Sano showed several nubby Linton tweeds in a fitted style with a huge fringed scarf. Anne Fogarty used several mufflers on tweed suits, one in a pink-and-brown tweed, the other in brown wool jersey.

Leo Chevalier included a scarfed coat in his boutique collection, a checked scarf-stole worn on a black max-length military coat, red leather belted. This muffled look is a trend well worth watching.

Most coats are belted and are either slender-skirted or slightly flared. The dirndl, too bulky for the tweeds that are the top fabric for coats this coming season, appears mostly in dresses. A few coats are loose and full, but are in a minority. Coat tops remain spare, but shoulders seem to be widening. In fact, a few designers even padded some shoulders.

BELTS ADD INTEREST
This year several designers added another interest to the popular military look in coats. This is the almost-harness-like Sam Browne belt. De la Renta used it with several trousered coat outfits including a lynx-trimmed oatmeal tweed. So fond is he of this over-shoulder belt that he made a jewelled version for a few of his evening gowns.

Hold reception for couple after Maritimes honeymoon

KINNEAR'S MILLS — A largely attended reception was held for Clarke Nugent and his bride in the Community Hall here, Aug. 31, after their return from a honeymoon spent in the Maritimes.

The hall was attractively decorated with pink and white streamers. Dancing was enjoyed throughout the evening.

On behalf of the Council, Mayor Russell Rothney presented the couple with an electric clock in appreciation of the groom's excellent service as secretary - treasurer for the municipal corporation of Leeds for more than 20 years. On this clock were two plaques, on which were engraved the names of the mayor and councillors in 1948 and the present 1968 mayor and councillors.

Refreshments were served in the assembly room. Seated at the head table with the bride and groom were their attendants, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Patterson brother-in-law and sister of the groom as well as several other relatives. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake, made by Mrs. Edgar Nugent and decorated by Mrs. Eric MacRae.

The cake was flanked by low vases of pink and white flowers, in keeping with the color scheme.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many gifts as well as currency.

Guests present were from various points in Ontario, New York, Barre, Vt., Montreal, Sherbrooke, Lennoxville, North Hatley, Waterville, East Angus, Birtchton, Bulwer, Quebec City, Ste. Agathe de Lotbiniere, St. Pierre Baptiste, as well as many from the surrounding areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Nugent are residing in Scarboro, Ont.

Women's groups

UNIT 1 LENNOXVILLE UCW

Mrs. A. R. Parsons, leader of the group, presided at the regular meeting of Unit 1, UCW, which was held in Douglas Hall.

The members repeated the UCW purpose in unison and a moment of silence was observed in memory of Miss Kate Scott, a former member who died at Brunswick, Maine.

Mrs. A. R. Parsons was in charge of the devotional. An article entitled "Beginning Again" was read by Mrs. W. J. Lane.

Mrs. W. S. Richardson called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Forty-three calls on sick and shut-ins were reported. The treasurer, Mrs. A. N. Flint, also reported a satisfactory bank balance and all bills were ordered paid.

A number of members expressed thanks for birthday cards which they had received. A card of thanks was read from Mrs. Abbie Willard, a former member who now resides in Montreal, as well as thank-you notes from members who had been remembered while in the hospital.

A quilt which had been made by Mrs. L. Davidson was on display and Mrs. A. N. Wright had made blocks for another quilt, which Mrs. Davidson offered to put together.

A number of members donated Talent money and a generous donation was received from a member who had been unable to attend regularly.

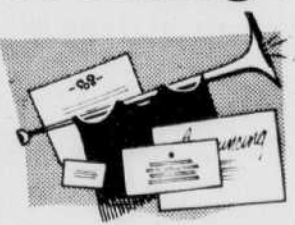

The meeting closed with the Mizpah benediction. Tea was served by Mrs. Harry Webster and Mrs. W. J. Lane assisted by Mrs. Len Stafford and Mrs. Mildred Andrews.

Mrs. Hugh Beattie presided at the lace-covered table which was centered with pansies and pink tapers.

Grain men study new wage offer

OTTAWA (CP) — Representatives of 1,300 striking Lakehead grain handlers studied a new management wage offer Tuesday but evidently were smarting about the way it was publicly announced.

Union and management were to discuss the offer face to face in today's session, scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. EDT. The strike has tied up Great Lakes grain shipments since it began July 18.

Parliamentary assemblies Thursday and Labor Minister Bryce Mackasey has indicated that legislation will be brought down to end the strike if mediation efforts fail.

How the union feels about the company offer wasn't made known but the representatives made it clear how they felt about Tuesday's announcement of the offer by grain elevator company officials in Winnipeg.

As they emerged from another long session near midnight Tuesday, the rankled union men criticized the announcement and its tone.

SEEK A RAISE

The unions have been seeking $1.06 an hour more for the grain handlers, who earn an average $2.50 hourly, over a two-year contract. The companies have been offering 53 cents over 28 months.

QUEBEC SCENE:

QUEBEC (CP) — The Quebec government has given priority to French as a working language in its civil service in a new contract being negotiated between the government and its professional employees, it was learned Tuesday.

A government spokesman said in an interview the language clause in the working agreement, expected to be concluded in November, gives French-language employees the right to speak nothing but French within the provincial civil service.

French given priority

The clause also indicates that no employee will have his chances of promotion diminished because he speaks French only.

The contract will affect about 1,800 government employees including engineers, biologists and agriculturalists.

COURSES START WEEK OF SEPT. 22nd.

EDUCATIONAL BREAKTHROUGH

The Reading Dynamics Method was developed by Mrs. Wood and the 127 Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institutes in Canada, the United States, Europe and Australia. More than 400,000 graduates read an average of 470% faster, with equal or better comprehension.

COMMENTS FROM SOME OF OUR QUEBEC GRADUATES

"If you are a student or your business is reading, you should take this course, it's essential. It should be part of every academic curriculum. It has given me more efficient study habits." Robert MYRAN, student — Sir George Williams University — 3,950 words per minute.

"The Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics technique is an excellent way to improve one's reading ability. It can provide vital assistance to anyone who is keeping up with today's rapid technological development." Peter V. GLASHEEN, Montreal businessman — 4,750 words per minute.

"Reading Dynamics permits you to discover the importance of modifying your mental attitude toward reading. It's a course that is of great benefit to everything one does in life." Paul-O. TREPANIER, architect and mayor of Granby — 2,450 words per minute.

"It's a question of realizing what you can do with your eyes and mind, i.e. discovering your possibilities." Guy P. BRUNELLE, Accountant — McDonald Currie & Co — 1,592 words per minute.

The average reading speed of these graduates at the beginning of the course was 256 words per minute.

WHAT READING DYNAMICS CAN DO FOR YOU...

Imagine being able to read a full daily newspaper page in less than two minutes... a 400-page novel in less than an hour... a complete magazine in 25 minutes... technical documents of over 100 pages in less than one hour... with better retention.

WHAT YOU MUST DO TO BECOME A DYNAMIC READER...

The course consists of 8 weekly sessions of three hours duration each. You choose one specific day of the week, and you attend each class, for 8 consecutive weeks. You must practice at least one hour each day.

GUARANTEE

Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics guarantees to increase the reading efficiency of each student at least three times, according to the beginning and ending tests, or will refund the entire tuition. This refund is conditional upon the student's having attended all the required classes, accomplished the required hours of homework and followed the directions of his instructor.

English courses are given in Quebec City, Sherbrooke, Ottawa, Montreal and all other major cities in Canada.

Royal Trust Co., has set a price of $18 a share for its previously announced rights offering of one new share for each four shares held. Record date for the offering is Sept. 16 and expiry date Oct. 18.

Fulcrum Investment net asset value as of Aug. 31 last amounted to $5.67 a share, the company reports. This compares with $5.16 a share at the end of July this year and $4.87 a share as of Aug. 31, 1967.

Hudson's Bay Co., increases in both sales and earnings are reported by the company for the first fiscal half ended July 31. Net earnings amounted to $3,920,000 or 29 cents a share, as against $3,615,000 or 27 cents a share in the same period a year earlier. Sales totalled $202,798,000 compared with $190,890,000. Pound sterling figures have been converted into Canadian dollars at the rate of $2.60 per pound for the latest period and at $3 for the 1967 first half. The company has declared an interim dividend of nine per cent — the same amount as a year earlier — payable Oct. 22 to shareholders of record Sept. 30. Because of devaluation of the pound, the dividend when converted into Canadian dollars will amount to 23.4 cents compared with 27 cents in Oct. 1967.

House to open with backlog

OTTAWA (CP) — Parliament, opening Thursday, "will be a jumping place," predicts Prime Minister Trudeau.

But he didn't say at an impromptu meeting with reporters Tuesday what it will be jumping about.

Earlier, Mr. Trudeau said there will not be much new in the first session of the 28th Parliament.

This has already led to the unofficial tag "left-overs" session before Parliament even opens.

The reason is the big backlog of legislation left over from the last session, dissolved April 23 for the June 25 election.

The backlog includes an omnibus bill to amend the criminal code, a bill to lower the price of prescription drugs, a bill to change the structure of the Canada Labor Relations Board and a bill to implement tariff reductions.

NEW FEATURE

One new feature promised by Mr. Trudeau will be an official languages bill to give recognition to French and English in the executive, judicial and legislative branches of the federal government.

Mr. Trudeau said Tuesday the government has legislation to deal with poverty in Canada.

He added that he agrees with the report of the Economic Council of Canada that poverty is a national disgrace.

Informants said the throne speech, to be read at the official opening of Parliament Thursday by Governor-General Michener, will also include a reference to removal of regional economic disparities.

Zoar funeral to be held on Friday

Funeral services for Elie Zoar, Canada's third heart transplant recipient and the world's thirty-fifth, will be held at St. Ephrem's Church on 13th Avenue, Sherbrooke, on Friday, Sept. 13 at 10 a.m.

Mr. Zoar, who was 58 years old when he died, suffered a stroke yesterday, 11 days after receiving his new heart on August 30.

His body is exposed at the Gerard Monfette Funeral Home situated at 33 Bowen Street South, Sherbrooke. At Mr. Zoar's request, a box for donations to the Heart Fund will be set up in the funeral home.

In a bulletin issued Monday night by the Montreal Heart Institute, it was learned that Mr. Zoar died at 9 a.m. yesterday. Mr. Zoar is survived by two sisters, Mrs. A. Badro of Ottawa and Helen of Beirut, Lebanon.

He was predeceased by his wife, who died about 20 years ago, and his brothers.

He is also survived by his four daughters and son, three grandchildren and a number of relatives.

His daughters are Augustine, Mrs. Marin Emond, of Springfield, Massachusetts; Florence of Sherbrooke, lawyer Dewey Zoar's secretary; Irene, Mrs. Marc Dion of Sherbrooke and Micheline.

His son, Lawrence, is single and lives in Springfield.

The three grandchildren, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Emond are Debbie, Mark and Joyce.

Mr. Zoar received on Aug. 30 the heart of Aime Lamothie, 38, of Sorel, Que., who died from a massive brain hemorrhage.

Doctors say his progress seemed favorable until Sunday. The transplanted heart performed satisfactorily until the end, they added.

Mr. Zoar, who came to Canada from Turkey, suffered a blood clot on Wednesday, but after an operation to remove this "acute thrombosis" he was able to take his first steps out of bed and talk to nurses and doctors.

Mr. Zoar had been employed by the Dominion Textile Co. Ltd.

Austin

Recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Lachapelle and family were Mr. and Mrs. Romulus Mitchell and daughter, Dianne; Beausjour, Man. Mr. and Mrs. Lachapelle spent the Labor Day weekend touring in Vermont and New Hampshire States.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Wilkinson and two children, Dianne and David, are visiting in England.

Divorce hearings

MONTREAL (CP) — Divorce hearings, the first in the province, started Tuesday before the new divorce division of Quebec Superior Court.

More than 1,000 divorce applications have been on file for the Montreal area since July 2, with another 100 from Quebec City.

Lack water

QUEBEC (CP) — The 1,000 residents of suburban Saint Henri de Levis have been without a sufficient supply of water since the municipality's four artesian wells dried up Monday.

The four wells supplied the municipality's reservoir with 200,000 gallons of water.

Gerard F. Roberge, village clerk, said Tuesday that municipal authorities decided Monday to buy about 15,000 gallons of water daily from Levis, across the St. Lawrence River from Quebec City.

Births

HAYWARD — Carol and Cathy are happy to announce the arrival of a dear little brother Paul Alan, on Sept. 3, 1968, at St. Joseph's Hospital, Toronto, Ont., a son for Max and Joyce (nee Ward), 7 lbs., 9 ozs.

TREPANIER — Lucien and Gloria (nee Wallace) are happy to announce the arrival of their daughter, Louise Claire, 7 lbs., 1 oz., at St. Joseph's Hospital, on Sept. 7, a sister for Dixie.

Deaths

BOYD, Mrs. Marie Rosa — On Monday, Sept. 9, 1968, Marie Rosa Devost, beloved wife of Robert J. Boyd, at the age of 80 years, resided at 125 Frontenac St., Apt. 2. Resting at Brien's Funeral Parlor, 160 Ball St. Funeral will leave the parlor on Friday, Sept. 13th, at 10:45 a.m. for service in St. Patrick's Church, at 11:00 a.m. Interment St. Michael's Cemetery.

WHICH OF OUR 222 STORES GET THE BEST BEEF?

Believe it or not, there are some people who think the quality of our beef varies from store-to-store. It's not true!

Every one of our Meat Departments offers the same high-quality beef, the only quality we sell... "SUPER-RIGHT" Quality.

Our quality specifications for "SUPER-RIGHT" Beef are so high that some beef graded "No. 1 Red Brand" just isn't good enough to be labeled "SUPER-RIGHT."

This one "high quality" policy for all stores applies to all the meats we sell.

It is true, that where customer demand calls for it, you will find thicker steaks, double lamb chops, etc., but they are all cut from the same quality meat that is available in every A&P Meat Department.

After all, to satisfy customer demand is just plain good business.

One other thing we want you to know.

No matter where you live, if you want that thick steak, double lamb chop or any cut you don't see in the case, just ask for it.

WE CARE about, and want to satisfy, every customer... and we mean every customer.

Mr. Dan Hutt, Nakina, Ont., was a recent visitor of his grandfather, Mr. Melville Hodge. Other guests at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hodge and family, Richmond Hill, Ont. While here they visited other relatives.

Charles Hodge spent a week in Montreal at the Sargent home and while there attended Man and His World. He was accompanied home by Mr. James Sargent, Ville Jacques Cartier.

The summer national championships of the American Contract Bridge League have just been held in Minneapolis. As a preliminary event a team representing the Twin Cities played a 72-board match with IMP scoring. The match was an exact tie with Montreal after the 72 boards and Minneapolis won by four IMPs in an eight-board play-off.

Montreal had the better of game and part score hands but Minneapolis gained enough to win by the right slam contracts.

The bidding, rather than the play, is important in today's hand. South has no trouble picking up the queen of trumps at a heart contract. The club finesse works for him also but the diamond ace is behind dummy's king so that he has to lose two diamond tricks.

The first three bids were the same at both tables. Minneapolis expert Dave Clarren, the old-timer of the team, chose three hearts as his rebid over Larry Oakey's two spades. Larry continued to four hearts and there was considerable trepidation among the home town crowd while Dave thought. He thought but he wisely decided that his hand did not warrant any further bid.

At the other table the Montreal North rebid to three spades instead of three hearts. Everything would still have been fine if he had chosen to pass when South went to three no-trump. Instead, he bid four hearts. South had the values for a further bid but might well have contented himself with a bid of five clubs which would surely have led to a five heart sign-off by North, but South jumped to six hearts.

Five hearts would have been a mighty poor contract. There is no extra bonus given to a pair that stops between game and slam. It would have been a poor contract but it would have made.

Mrs. William Eyland went by plane to visit her son, Billy Eyland in Vancouver, who obtains his Doctorate in Chemistry in January from Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, B.C. He was chosen as Canadian delegate to the World Seminar of Students, one of the few Canadians chosen for this seminar, held recently in Berkeley, Calif. Mr. Eyland declined an offer as Associate Professor in Chemistry in favor of returning to Laval University for a law degree, where his studies will be entirely in French. Before going to Simon Fraser, he studied four years at McGill University and two years at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He is now writing his thesis. His school friends may remember that he took honors at Knowlton High School, where he graduated at the age of 17, and now at the age of 25, is still contin-

His brother, Don Eyland, following in his brother's footsteps recently obtained a second Degree in Bachelor of Commerce, after nine years of studying, while carrying on full employment. He has been enjoying a well-earned holiday at home, with visits to Ocean City, N.J., Massachusetts, Maine and quite often to golf links in Vermont.

Miss Olive McCubbin, Montreal, spent the weekend with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moynan.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Blue, of Montreal, spent the weekend with the latter's father and sisters, Mr. E. F. Dougall and the Misses Helen and Doris Dougall.

Mr. and Mrs. Whelan and family, Montreal, were calling on friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Borden Ingalls spent the weekend in Montreal with Mr. and Mrs. A. MacKay.

JOB SECURITY: Job security is to be retained as established by the last labour agreement. Therefore, all employees who previously enjoyed this security are assured by the Board that it will be retained.

RETROACTIVITY: The Board had offered an amount of $135.00 for the period of November 1, 1967 (the end of the last labour agreement) to June 22, 1968 (date of work stoppage). The Board now agrees to make the labour agreement effective from April 1, 1968 rather than June 22, 1968. Since the period has changed, the Board is ready to offer an amount open to negotiation for the period of November 1, 1967 to April 1, 1968.

SEEKS TEARLESS MARRIAGE — School teacher Diane Podkawa, 24, consults with hypnotist Ron Hutchings to get a post-hypnotic suggestion to keep the tears from cascading during her wedding ceremony.

Miss Podkawa says she breaks out in uncontrollable sobs at joyous or sad events. She said the hypnosis would not keep her from being "able to feel emotional during the wedding." The attractive brunette was scheduled to marry Thomas Lee Schoenith, a Detroit nightclub executive. (AP Wirephoto)

Stanstead North Women's Institute makes plans for September events

STANSTEAD — A meeting of Stanstead North Women's Institute was held on Sept. 5 at the Red Brick Schoolhouse, where Mrs. Douglas Putney, Mrs. Franklin Miller and Mrs. Geneva Lyons were hostesses.

Mrs. Douglas Cooper, the president, welcomed the several guests attending. The roll call was to say a sentence in French or pay a nickel, a few paid the fine.

The Sept. 20 harvest dinner, to be served the public, was planned under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ivor Lemon with Mrs. Miriam Osborne in charge of the dining room details. Several members volunteered to assist and two servings are planned, one at noon and a second at approximately 12:45 p.m.

Members were reminded of the rummage sale, taking place at the Rock Island Town Hall on Sept. 28, under the convenership of Mrs. Doris Belanger.

A questionnaire from the Vanier Institute on Family Life education was reviewed but the secretary was asked to contact the W.I. Provincial president, Mrs. G. McGibbon, before responding as many felt an answer from the Provincial level would answer the paper.

Mrs. Cooper read excerpts from the Macdonald College magazine about Institute work and meetings. She also thanked those from the branch who had worked at the Red Cross Blood clinic to serve refreshments and at the fair at Ayer's Cliff.

Mrs. Douglas Johnston and Mrs. William Curtis said workers are needed for the Sept. 14 school fair at Ayer's Cliff fair grounds and members volunteered to assist. Mrs. R. Knight will be one assisting for the talent show.

Mrs. Ralph Ashman gave an excellent account of the reception held at Bishop's University on Aug. 23 to honor Mrs. A. Dutt, of India, ACWW President, en route to Lansing, Mich., for the conference of the ACWW. Mrs. Ashman also mentioned a broadcast on the radio from the conference in Lansing, which was interesting as over 7,000 women of the World Institutes had gathered for the convention.

Mrs. Geneva Lyons, convener of welfare and health read an article on lung cancer. Mrs. E. J. Curtis, sunshine, read a letter from Mrs. Lillian Whitehouse, Dixville, for remembrances during her shut-in days. Mrs. Whitehouse was at the meeting and added her appreciation.

Mrs. Ashman gave the report of the Quarterly meeting, held in Beebe in August, and noted that the Hatley Branch will entertain the November Quarterly meeting, starting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Burton Hill, publicity convener for the County, will give the Nov. 21 broadcast over CKTS Radio station, Sherbrooke.

Mrs. Grace Taylor said that Sept. 4 was the birthday of the late Mrs. William Abbott, first president of Stanstead North Branch, she would have been 100 years old on that date and her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Sowden, Stanstead, made the donation of all items which were formerly loaned by Mrs. Abbott to the schoolhouse and Institute branch.

The program of the evening was in charge of Mrs. Ralph Ashman, convener of education, who introduced Mrs. Warren Soutiere, a member of the Institute, and school teacher at Sunnyside School grade five. Mrs. Soutiere read excerpts from a copy of the Macdonald College magazine in reference to education, then gave a demonstration and her own ideas on the three R's and modern methods of teaching reading, writing and arithmetic or maths in the present school system.

The hostesses served refreshments, with Mrs. Sowden pouring.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Harmless Hobby Has Its Hazards

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Many famous and not-so-famous persons turn to painting for relaxation. It is more creative than fishing and can be done indoors as well as out. Even so apparently harmless a hobby as this, however, is not without certain hazards. All the traditional media, such as oil, water color and egg tempera, use pigments which may contain arsenic, lead, cadmium, chromium or mercury. The molding of the brush tip with one's lips, although universally frowned on, is a dangerous habit that is still observed in some oldtimers and may be imitated by some young admirers.

The U.S. Department of Commerce has published standards for voluntary compliance by manufacturers of paints but some painters still prefer to grind their own pigments. These can be handled safely if the artist takes the precaution to avoid inhaling the dust and to clean his hands and fingernails when the grinding is completed. While painting, he should be careful not to stroke his lips with paint-splashed hands.

Modern technology has devised new and popular synthetic media for the painter's pigments. These include acrylics, vinyls and polyvinyls which are safe enough in themselves but which require diluents or thinners in their preparation. These solvents are often highly flammable, give off toxic fumes or irritate the skin. Carbon tetrachloride and benzene are the most toxic. Methyl chloroform is less toxic than carbon tetrachloride and has all its advantages. Toluene is less toxic and less flammable than benzene. Acetone is one of the least toxic of the thinners but is so highly flammable that it must be used with great care. Turpentine has a low index of toxicity and flammability but is a notorious skin-irritant.

Controlling these hazards requires a well-ventilated studio, tidy housekeeping and protective smock and disposable gloves to reduce skin contact. If resins, curing agents or diluents are accidentally spilled they should be washed off the hands promptly with water and a mild soap.

Aerosols containing coating, fixatives or adhesive agents are often used by artists. Since they may contain toxic and/or flammable components, they should be used only in a well-ventilated place. Careful attention to the manufacturer's instructions will prevent injury.

Arthur Ashe, Jr. quits court after 162 games

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — They finally got a weary and bedraggled Arthur Ashe, Jr., off the centre court at West Side Tennis Club at 2:33 p.m. EDT Tuesday.

In the 24 hours ending at that time, the skinny Negro star had played a total of 162 games, winning the U.S. Open singles championship, fighting his way into the doubles final in a

Club champions to compete for O'Keefe crowns

MONTREAL — Individual club champions from golf clubs throughout Quebec and eastern Ontario will compete with each other for the top championship titles in classes A, B and C in the annual "Champion of Champions" tournament at Beloeil golf club on Sunday, September 15.

The "Champion of Champions" event is organized by the Province of Quebec Golf Association and the club champions will compete for O'Keefe trophies and prizes. The tournament is the final event on both the official PQGA and O'Keefe circuits for the season.

Eligible to participate in the official invitation tournament are class A, B and C champions of PQGA member clubs in Quebec and eastern Ontario. Fifty-three clubs were represented in the 1967 match at Richelieu Valley golf club.

three-day match and then losing in the last round of the men's doubles.

The men's doubles crown went to America's two young Davis Cup Specialists, Stan Smith and Bobby Lutz of Pasadena, Calif., who whipped Ashe and his partner, pro Andres Gimeno of Spain, 11-9, 6-1, 7-5.

Smith and Lutz thus added the U.S. Open to their U.S. Amateur conquest at Brookline, Mass., two weeks before and further buoyed American hopes of recapturing the Davis Cup from Australia in December.

STARTED MARATHON
Ashe, the top singles ace of the American team, started his tennis marathon at 3 p.m. Monday, beating Holland's Tom Okker in the men's singles final 14-12, 5-7, 6-3, 3-6, 6-3—a total of 65 games.

Then, after a brief rest, he took the court again to try to complete a semi-final doubles match that had been halted Sunday by darkness with the score tied 4-4 in the fourth set.

Sixteen games were played and still there was no decision. Again darkness intervened with the score 12-12 in the fourth with Clark Graebner of New York and Charlie Pasarel of Puerto Rico, the other U.S. Davis Cup pair, leading Ashe and Gimeno, two sets to one, 4-6, 6-3, 6-4.

Starting at 10:30 a.m. EDT Tuesday, Ashe and Gimeno rallied to pull out the match 6-4, 3-6, 4-6, 20-18, 15-13. The match had lasted three days and there were 42 more games added to Ashe's phenomenal string.

WINS SKEET SHOOT — Bill Hopps, Winchester representative for Quebec Province is seen presenting the first prize to Earl Blair of Windsor, who won a skeet shoot held Sunday, at the Mountain Lodge Orford Lake, organized by Roger Lamoureux, of Eastman, right. Sixty contestants

Three new names added to Montreal Expo's roster in National League

MONTREAL (CP) — Three more names were added to Montreal Expos' personnel list Tuesday as the club continued preparations for its 1969 debut in baseball's National League.

Two administrative appointments and the signing of the team's first player were the latest developments announced by club president John McHale.

McHale has chosen Louis F. (Lou) Martin, general manager of Louisville Colonels of the International League, as his administrative assistant and Jean-Pierre Roy, a former IL pitcher, has been hired as season advance ticket salesman.

Dave Hartman, a 21-year-old southpaw pitcher acquired in last June's college draft, has the distinction of becoming the club's first player to sign.

TAKE ON JOB

Martin, a 35-year-old father of four, will take on a job that will encompass the entire administrative operation of the team.

He will be involved in setting up the club's new office with emphasis on liaison with the city of Montreal on planning and construction of the interim Jarry Park stadium in the city's north end.

Martin has been in organized baseball since 1957 when he first joined New York Yankees organization as ticket manager of Richmond Virginians, a New York farm club.

He became business manager of the Virginians in 1963. Two years later he ran a ball club at Newport News, Va., in the Carolina League. In 1966 and last year, he was business manager at Richmond—now an Atlanta Braves farm club—and he started the 1968 season at Louisville.

BRIEF STINT

The 48-year-old Roy began his baseball career in 1939 as a pitcher with Trois-Rivieres, Que., of the old Canadian-American League. He spent most of his career in the minors except for a brief stint with Brooklyn Dodgers in 1946, where he won one game and lost two.

He retired in 1954 while with Ottawa Athletics. Roy will work under Lucien Geoffron, recently appointed ticket manager of the infant NL ball club.

Hartman has signed to play with Sarasota in the Class A Florida State League, a development loop. He was one of 16 players Montreal picked up in the college draft.

Hartman, a native of Austin, Minn., pitched for Iowa College last year and went on to carry a semi-pro team to the Iowa State championship, where Montreal scouts spotted him.

Fulton will be scrambling for his job tonight when Eskimos meet Rough Riders this evening

EDMONTON (CP) — Charlie Fulton, Edmonton Eskimos' pint-sized rookie quarterback, will be scrambling to keep his job when he faces high-scoring Ottawa Rough Riders in a Canadian Football League interlocking game tonight.

The University of Tennessee rookie, first handed the role as starting quarterback in Calgary last Sunday, will face stiff pressure against the Rough Riders, leading the eastern conference with eight points.

"I sure felt the pressure in Sunday's contest," said the 21-year-old Fulton who has not played quarterback on a regular basis since his sophomore season with Tennessee.

"With Frank Cosentino and John Hankinson on the bench I knew I had to produce. But the pressure I faced in Calgary will be nothing compared with tonight. We now have four quarterbacks, including Randy Kerbow who did well for the Eskimos in previous seasons."

The Riders will be out to strengthen their two-point margin over three teams, Hamilton, Toronto and Montreal, all tied for second in the EFC with six points apiece.

NEED A WIN
The Eskimos' holding third place in the west with seven points, need a victory to narrow a three-point gap between themselves and second-place Calgary Stampede.

Fulton, who started the season at halfback, directed the Eskimos to a 10-8 victory over the Stampede in Calgary last Sunday.

Neill Armstrong, head coach of the Eskimos, said after the game that Fulton had played himself into the starting job and the only way he could lose it would be to play himself out of it.

Kerbow, who in 1966 led Edmonton to its first WFC playoff berth in five seasons, rejoined Eskimos this week after a try-out with New Orleans Saints of the National Football League. But Armstrong says Kerbow will not be in the lineup for the East-West affair, to be televised nationally over the CTV network with an Edmonton black-out.

"If I do not make it as a quarterback with the Eskimos, then I will play at halfback or anywhere they want, as long as I can help the team," said Fulton.

"The Canadian game suits me better because of my size. In the U.S. they tend to look for the bigger fellows, but here it is a little different."

Armstrong listed defensive back John Wydryny, out with an ankle injury, and defensive halfback Joe Hernandez, sidelined with a pulled leg muscle, as doubtful starters.

Defensive end Ron Forwick of Edmonton is still out after a cartilage operation.

The Rough Riders are expected to be in good shape.

Dalton annoyed at Blum trade with Stamps

MONTREAL (CP) — The football trade Tuesday, that sent Canadian linebacker Mike Blum to Toronto Argonauts of the Eastern Football Conference for a player to be named at the end of the season, brought some harsh words from head coach Kay Dalton of Montreal Alouettes.

"Those lousy bleeps," Dalton said as he walked from the practice field Tuesday. "Don't let anyone tell you the Alouettes are helped by anyone but the Alouettes."

Western Open slated Sunday at Dufferin

The Western Open Golf Tournament will be held Sunday, Sept. 15, at the Dufferin Heights Golf Club, announced Ed Martin, co-chairman of the annual tourney yesterday.

This is open to all golfers of the District and in past years has proven very successful as well as enjoyable. Each group forms their own foursomes for the match.

It is an 18-hole handicap tournament and the Atlantic Handicap system will be used to determine the winner. In this manner everyone is on an even keel. Players are requested to bring token prizes.

Cards wallop Miners 7-0, Guilbeault stars

Marcel Guilbeault held the Thetford Miners to four hits in seven innings and clouted a home run last night as the Granby Cardinals defeated the Miners 7-0 to put the Provincial Baseball League best-of-seven final, 3-2. Thetford leads the series.

Guilbeault, Cards' mentor, who started on the mound, gave up four hits, walked three and struckout six. Offensively he homered and doubled, driving home three runs.

Adrien Davault came on in relief in the eighth and allowed only one hit. Davault also gave up three walks and did not strikeout any. Granby opened the scoring in the bottom of the third, driving home two runs on three singles and a double. Mentis and Alston led off with back-to-back singles. Self doubled to score Mentis and Reggie Grenald followed with a single to score Alston. The Cards added two more in the fifth on three hits and an error. One of these runs was scored by Guilbeault after booming a Jose Herrera pitch over the right-field wall.

Granby scored two more in the sixth. Dennis Jensen and Ramon Seara were walked and both runners advanced on a double steal. Guilbeault followed with a double to score both runners.

In the top of the seventh with the bases loaded, Guilbeault got the Miners to hit into a double-play. This was the only big threat by the Miners all night. The Cards scored once more in the bottom of the seventh to give Guilbeault a 7-0 lead and a chance to shower early. Davault came on in relief in the top of the eighth.

Offensively for the Cards, other than Guilbeault, were John Self with a double and a single in three trips to the plate, Matty Alston and Reggie Grenald, a pair of singles each, Mario Miranda, a run-scoring single, and John Mentis, a single and scored a run.

For the Miners, Ramon de la Cruz was the best offensively with a double and a single in three appearances; Kenny Kaiser, John McKee and Billy Boulier, a single each.

Denny McLain chalks up his 29th win, Yanks sweep two Denny McLain's 29th triumph in 1968 probably will be remembered as something less than a pitching masterpiece. But his stick work never has been sharper.

The Detroit Tigers' fireballer climbed within a single step of becoming baseball's first 30-game winner in 34 years when he hurled the American League leaders to a 7-2 victory over California Tuesday night.

McLain, 29-5, struck out 12 Angels. But he had to struggle to escape two tight jams and was tagged for nine hits in all, including a pair of sixth inning homers.

His performance with a bat in his hands was something else. The husky right-hander, batting .133 going into the game, banged out two singles and a triple in four trips to the plate.

DRIVES IN 2 RUNS
His fourth inning single drove in two runs in a decisive four-run flurry.

"It's the first time I ever had three hits in a game," he said. "And I was all confused, running the bases."

While McLain boosted Detroit's league lead over Baltimore to 8½ games—with 15 to play—New York Yankees continued their late surge with a 2-1, 5-0 doubleheader sweep over Chicago. Oakland trimmed Boston 5-3 and Cleveland beat Minnesota 6-2. Washington and Baltimore were rained out.

The Tigers staked McLain to a 6-0 lead before he faltered momentarily in the middle innings. The Angels loaded the bases with one out in the fourth, but McLain got Tom Satriano on a pop up and fanned Bobby Knop.

NAILS AT PLATE
Ed Kirkpatrick, Vic Davaillo and Jay Johnstone stroked fifth inning singles but Detroit right fielder Jim Northrup nailed Kirkpatrick at the plate on the third hit.

Charlie Smith's first homer of the season, a two-out blast in the ninth, sent the Yankees past the White Sox in the opener.

Right-hander Joe Verbanic tossed a five-hitter in the nightcap for his first major league shutout as the Yanks soared five games over 500.

New York has won five in a row and 24 of its last 34 starts completing the bang-bang-bang to move from seventh place into contention for third. The Athletics kept their first division hopes alive by cuffing Boston's Gary Bell for four runs in the first inning—two of them on Dick Green's double—and then staving off the Red Sox' late comeback.

DROVE FROM MOUND
Winner Lew Krausse allowed five hits until the ninth, when the Sox scored twice and drove him from the mound. Jack Aker protected the edge by getting the last two outs.

Tony Horton knocked in a pair of Cleveland runs with a homer and triple, then bounced into a triple play—the seventh in the majors this year—as the Indians topped the Twins behind Stan Williams.

Third baseman Rich Rollins started the triple killing by gloving Horton's tap with runners on first and second in the fifth. He stepped on third, forced the front runner, and threw to second for another force. Rod Carew's relay to first baseman Bob Allison retired Horton, row and 24 of its last 34 starts completing the bang-bang-bang to move from seventh place into

Wilson has Reds dancing to his tune again, Cardinals lose 2-0

"For it's one, two, three strikes you're out . . ." hums Don Wilson with his fast ball, and he has Cincinnati Reds swinging right along.

But you can bet the tune is not a hit with the Reds. Wilson played it for them almost two months ago—July 14—and 18 Reds went down swinging, giving Wilson a share of the major league record.

Wilson had the Reds dancing to his tune again Tuesday night as the Houston Astros' right-hander struck out 16 en route to a 3-2 victory in the opener of a two-night doubleheader.

But with Wilson silent in the dugout during the nightcap, the Reds made a little noise with their bats for a 4-3 triumph and a split.

CARDS GO DOWN
St. Louis Cardinals, who have plenty of reason to sing, hit another flat note in their march to the National League pennant as Los Angeles Dodgers beat them 3-0 for the second night in a row.

Second-place San Francisco Giants, still nursing mini-hopes of pulling a major miracle, trimmed the Cardinals' lead to 10½ games by beating Atlanta Braves 4-2.

Chicago Cubs, behind Billy Williams' three home runs, blasted New York Mets 8-1 in an afternoon contest, and Philadelphia was rained out in Pittsburgh in the order scheduled contest.

Wilson had not faced the Reds since he equalled the nine-inning strikeout mark set by Bob Feller and tied twice by Sandy Koufax.

He had a little trouble getting in tune, giving up John Bench's 15th homer in the second.

He fanned two in the seventh and struck out the side in the eighth and ninth to complete a six-hitter for his 13th victory against 14 losses.

SINGLE DOES IT

The Astros relied more on their bats in the second game as Jim Wynn, Doug Rader and Norm Miller slammed solo homers, but it wasn't enough. Alex Johnson won it for the Reds with a tie-breaking bases loaded, two-out single in the ninth after two walks and a hit batter by Steve Shea.

The Dodgers handed the Cardinals their sixth loss in seven games and kept the pennant clinching number at six—a combination of St. Louis victories or San Francisco losses totaling six would give the Cardinals the flag.

Bill Singer scattered nine hits and ignited a two-run burst in the third inning off Steve Carlton, 12-11, with a single to raise his record to 11-15.

San Francisco beat the Braves on Willie McCovey's 33rd homer with two on in the third inning.

Williams had the Mets holding their ears as he blasted homers in the first, sixth and seventh innings for the Cubs, giving him 29 this season.

Mike Walton reaches terms

TORONTO (CP) — Centre Mike Walton signed his 1968-69 contract with Toronto Maple Leafs Tuesday night and will report to the National Hockey League team's training camp at Peterborough next Monday.

Walton came to terms after a lengthy arbitration meeting attended by NHL president Clarence Campbell, lawyer Alan Eagleson who serves as executive director of the NHL's Players' Association, and chief scout Bob Davidson of the Maple Leafs.

"I came down a little and they went up a little," said Walton, a 30-goal scorer last season.

SAFETY "99" HIGH TRACTION

Torture-tested at speeds — you'll never need!

Ruggedly built with heavy, 4-ply Dupont Nylon Cord ... pound for pound stronger than steel ... OR ... for smoothest rolling, more miles and even more miles per gallon, it's Safety "99" with Polyester. Can't "cold-morning-thump." So tough, we'll replace it with a new one if it punctures. (see guarantee).

Keep company with SAFETY "99" ... a great travelling companion and at 2 FOR THE PRICE OF 1.
