SHERBROOKE, QUEBEC, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1948.

Fifty-Second Year

World News In Brief

Prague, Sept. 2.—(P)—Doctors said today former President Eduard Benes has sunk deeper into unconsciousness and is virtually paralyzed.

Benes, 65, has been unconscious since 5 a.m. Tuesday, and today's bulletin from doctors attending him said it was apparent he could not recover.

London, Sept. 2.—(P)—Diplomatic sources said today Britain has sent a special envoy to Washington, by way of Ottawa, to speed negotiations for an American pledge of military help for western Europe's hve-power alliance in case of war. The envoy is Gladwin Jebb, one of Foreign Secretary Bevin's top assistants.

The informants said Jebb stopped off at Ottawa to discuss the need for specific military pledges with Canadian leaders.

Stuttgart, Sept. 2.—Hjalmar Schacht, Hitler's financial wizard, was released from prison this afternoon.

Yesterday a German appeals court absolved him of charges that he was a major Nazi offender but United States military government officials kept him in jail overnight pending a decision on the validity of the sentence.

Paris, Sept. 2.—(Reuters)—The chances for a peace settlement in Palestine have improved, Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations Palestine mediator, declared here today after talks yesterday with Trygve Lie, U.N. secretary-general.

San Sebastian, Spain, Sept. 2.—(P)—The Spanish government today ordered municipal elections for the first time in 12 years.

No date was specified in the order, which was issued by Generalissimo Franco's cabinet.

Idaho Falls, Idaho, Sept. 2.—(P)—Senator Glen Taylor of Idaho reported today he was peppered with peaches and eggs in making a campaign appearance in his home state.

The Progressive party's vice-presidential nominee wound up his Idaho campaign with addresses last night.

Buenos Aires, Sept. 2.—(P)—A Foreign Ministry source said last night Argentina has decided to turn down a United States proposal for internationalization of the Antarctic.

In Santiago, a Chilean foreign office official said Chile plans a similar rejection.

Ottawa, Sept. 2.—(P)—The External Affairs Department today warned Canadians against attempts being made by persons in Soviet-dominated regions of Europe to obtain strategic information about Canada by mail.

A spokesman disclosed that a "gentleman's agreement" already had been reached in the Arctic seeking postcards showing "barbaric views" in exchange for scenes of Vienna and that other requests for road maps and tourist information had been requested.

Cattle Parade And Judging Share Interest Today As Sherbrooke Fair Nears End

Studios Have Rallied To Actor's Aid

Noted Lawyer Will Defend Movie Star Who Faces Narcotics Charge.

Hollywood, Sept. 2.—(P)—With a heavy stake in three unreleased pictures starring Robert Mitchum, two studios have rallied to the defence of the 31-year-old cinema hero, accused of violating narcotics laws.

R-K-O and Seiznick studios announced last night that Jerry Giesler, noted western criminal lawyer, who has figured in several cases involving screen stars, would represent the handsome Mitchum.

The actor, and a real estate agent, Robin Ford, 31, were arrested with 20-year-old actress Lila Leeds and dancer Vickie Evans, 25, in what police said was a marijuana-smoking party in the girls' room.

The studios and Giesler asked that Mitchum be given the benefit of doubt until all evidence is in. Giesler, counsel for Charlie Chaplin and Errol Flynn in past cases, said there were "many unexplained facts and circumstances surrounding the raid" and that the actor's friends were convinced he would be cleared.

Mitchum, rising star whose salary has been $3,000 weekly, and the others charged were released on bail of $1,000 each. A hearing on writs of habeas corpus was set for Sept. 8.

Detective Sgt. Alva Barr, who headed the investigation, said the raid was "only the beginning of a Hollywood clean-up and we have many other important and prominent Hollywood screen people under surveillance, not only actors and actresses, but others high up in the industry."

"We have been watching Mitchum and Miss Leeds for eight months. Others are facing arrest. We want not only the users of marijuana and other narcotics, but the ring that is supplying the big people in Hollywood."

Barr said Mitchum had a package with 13 marijuana cigarettes, Miss Leeds a few others, and added that officers had watched the party smoking the cigarettes for 2 1/2 hours, peering through a rear bedroom window.

Police quoted Mitchum as saying his arrest "ends hope of a reconciliation with my wife, Dorothy," who has been in the east for several weeks with their two young sons but was en route west by automobile.

Idol of bobby-sox groups, Mitchum was scheduled to appear in the Canadian youth month program at Los Angeles City Hall yesterday.

Charles Conroy, radio public relations man for the mayor, said Mitchum had cancelled his appearance and gave laryngitis as his reason for failing to appear.

Police are scheduled to appear in court today to seek a writ of habeas corpus for Mitchum and the others.

Championships to Be Awarded in Judging Classes—Attendance Yesterday Was 17,112. Bringing Total Up to 54,144.

Judging will be completed, another grand cattle parade will be staged and Midway entertainment and the Grandstand revue will continue in full swing at the Sherbrooke Fair today.

This is second last day of the Eastern Townships Agricultural Association's 63rd Exhibition and it is one of the most important.

Championships will be awarded in the judging classes and a special card of harness races will be run off.

The best crowd of the week, 17,112, was on hand for yesterday's full program, boosting attendance since the Fair began to 54,144. The attendance fell off from last year's big Wednesday crowd of 19,380, but total admissions still are ahead of this time last year when the figure had reached 50,940.

Two Provincial Cabinet ministers, Hon. J. S. Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and Hon. Patrice Tardif, Minister without Portfolio, were among the guests yesterday.

From mid-morning until late at night, men, women and children, many of them from out-of-town, thronged the Fair Grounds.

The grandstand was packed again for the George Hamid revue and in the Midway people were shoulder to shoulder as they lined up before the side-shows, tried their skill at the various booths or dined at the food stands and ate hot dogs and hamburgers.

Farmers were attracted to the arena for the judging of Holsteins and light horses.

The grand cattle parade was another big attraction and the opinion of veteran fair-goers it was one of the best on record.

The various buildings with their exhibits drew hundreds of sight-seers, especially the industrial building where merchants and manufacturers are displaying their products.

Joe LaFlamme, the northern Ontario trapper whose Canadian wild animal zoo will leave after tonight's performance, was another big attraction, with children especially drawn to Muskogee the moose and the bears, wolves and other animals.

Music yesterday was provided by two of Sherbrooke's top bands—the Sherbrooke Regiment Band and the "Canadian Legion pipe band. The pipe band is playing again today and the Sherbrooke Harmony Band, which played on Tuesday, will be heard again.

More judging results were announced yesterday and some of these appear elsewhere in today's Record.

Policemen's Brotherhood Has Meeting

Improved Conditions for Policemen in Quebec Are Recommended.

Granby, Que., Sept. 2.—(P)—The Canadian Brotherhood of Policemen called today for sweeping legislation providing all policemen in Quebec with "decent professional status, working efficiency and pension protection."

The call came from Det.-Lt. Emile Joyal of Montreal, general president of the Brotherhood, which opened its three-day annual congress here today.

With sections in 25 Quebec cities and towns, the Brotherhood claims a total membership of 2,050.

Joyal's recommendations:

1. The 48-hour work week for all policemen.

2. Establishment by the Provincial Government of police schools where uniform, streamlined training would increase police efficiency and permit better inter-force co-operation.

3. Establishment by the Provincial Government of pension funds in Brotherhood sections where such funds do not exist.

The president of the police union, which was established in Montreal on February 2, 1944, told the 500 odd delegates and Federal and Provincial Government dignitaries that in some Quebec municipalities policemen were obliged to work 60 and 72 hours a week, with no annual vacations.

Despite Brotherhood progress, which included the establishment of six new sections in the last year and "substantial improvements in wages and working conditions generally," the great majority of policemen in Quebec had yet to attain "a decent living standard."

Modern Methods of investigation "have contributed more than any other factor in making the police

Lawyers Told Rights Bill Not Needed

Civil Liberties Report Presented to Canadian Bar Association.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—(P)—Canada does not need a bill of rights.

This opinion was expressed in a report of the civil liberties section of the Canadian Bar Association at the association's 30th annual convention.

The section, headed by R. M. Willis Chitty of Toronto, proposed yesterday instead a formal declaration of those freedoms and rights already inherent in the Canadian constitution.

At a luncheon meeting of the association, Premier John Costello of Eire pictured Canada and his country laying the foundations of a new chapter of freedom "in this troubled world."

The outstanding Irish lawyer was later honored at a special convocation at University of Montreal where he received an honorary doctor of law degree. John T. Hackett, president of the C.B.A., Maurice Riabert, Battalionier of the Bar in Paris and Chief Justice Tynedale of Quebec also received honorary doctorates.

Premier Costello said "to secure peace that all desire peace that all desire it would be essential to bring about a greater degree of co-operation between all nations sharing the same pattern of life and cherishing the same ideals."

The Premier said in Eire the feeling was that the nation had already been able to play a "not unimportant role in bringing about a clearer understanding between western Europe and the United States in regard to economic co-operation."

Dominion's Oldest County Exhibition Opens At Bedford

Bedford, Sept. 2.—Canada's oldest county fair, Missisquoi County's 119th annual exhibition, opened here this morning, with Bedford fairgrounds bustling with activity as exhibitors brought in their entries and prepared for the judging which gets underway at 1 o'clock.

In the fair's floral hall, which is also the main exhibition building, commercial displays were being completed and everything pointing to a record-breaking year for Bedford's Fair.

Today, with the hot sun pouring down on the fairgrounds, early arrivals found much to interest them as many improvements were noted both on the grounds and in the buildings. With this being preparation day, many folks are waiting for the big programs tomorrow and Saturday, while horse racing fans have three days of racing in store for them, tomorrow, Saturday and a special Sunday matinee. Kiddies especially today congregated around the midway, where the rides and shows were being readied for the incoming crowds.

Under the direction of Reg Hibbard, hard-working president of the Bedford Fair Board, Missisquoi County's annual Fair this year sets a new high, not only in exhibits but in prize money being offered. Thanks to the wholehearted support of many friends of the Society who have donated cash or merchandise to the big special prize list, plus the $1,500 grant from the Bedford Fair Board, Jean J. Bertrand, of Sweetshrub, from the Provincial Government, Bedford Fair this year offers over $5,000 in prizes, the largest prize list in the 119 years of the Society.

Entertainment of a very high order will predominate the day

Bourque, Minister of Lands and Forests and of Hydraulic Resources, and Alderman Alex Ross, managing director of the E.T.A.A.

Draft Proposals For The Introduction Of Unified Currency In Berlin Studied By Military Governors

Berlin, Sept. 2.—(P)—The third meeting of the four allied military governors in Berlin began in the allied control council building at 3 p.m. today, two hours earlier than usual.

Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky of Russia was the first to arrive, closely followed by the other three military governors.

The four were expected to discuss draft proposals for introducing a unified currency in Berlin and ending the blockade of the city, according to unofficial reports from American sources.

The draft proposals were worked out by the four-power technical committees on finance, trade and transport which have been meeting for the past two days.

The finance and trade committees met again this morning in the control authority building.

Before the military governors met, the city's anti-Communist city government demanded a voice in the four-power deliberations. The appeal faced a virtually-certain Russian veto.

The city government's appeal is understood to have been for an end to the east-west strife in Berlin; restoration of a unified city administration under the elected government; guarantees of protection for the city assembly and guarantees of freedom of travel between Berlin and all four occupation zones.

Cape Breton Is Lashed By Hurricane

Heavy Damage Caused But No Deaths Nor Injuries Reported.

Sydney, N.S., Sept. 2.—(P)—A danger-packed hurricane whaled across Newfoundland today after leaving a trail of wreckage in northern Cape Breton during a savage attack yesterday.

Dominion public weather office in Halifax said the storm would pass over Newfoundland to the northeast today and weather in the area would clear.

Striking Sydney and nearby communities at noon yesterday, the Atlantic-bred twister from the south-southwest and whirled over the industrial area of Cape Breton until late evening when it headed to sea.

Trees were uprooted, small craft were dashed ashore, power lines were tangled and streets were littered with debris. No deaths or injuries were reported.

Winds reached 60-65 miles an hour and rain fell in a steady, driving torrent.

Damage was still being counted today and the exact amount probably will not be known for days.

Power linesmen worked throughout the night to restore snarled wires which left Sydney, Glace Bay and neighboring towns in darkness throughout the evening.

Everywhere trees were uprooted and tossed across power lines and

Communism, Capitalism Are Assailed At Church Session

By RICHARD TOMPKINS

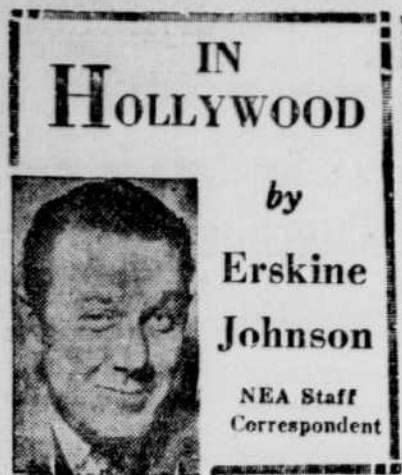

Amsterdam, Sept. 2.—(P)—An advisory session of the World Council of Churches today condemned both Communism and capitalism. It said neither was an ideology capable of ensuring justice and freedom in the world.

The charges against both forms of society were made in a report drawn up by the section on "the church and disorder of society." The report was submitted today to the plenary session of the council and leading members of the session said it will undergo only minor revisions.

As the report went to the plenary session, a paragraph was inserted warning against identification of the Christian church with any political party.

"One problem is raised by the existence in several countries of Christian political parties," the paragraph said. "The church as such should not be identified with any political party and must not act as though it were itself a political party. In general, such parties are hazardous because they so easily confuse Christianity with the inherent compromises of politics. They may cut Christians off from other parties which need the love of Christianity. They tend to consolidate all who do not share the political principles of the Christian party, not only against that party but against Christianity itself. But when all these warnings have been given, it may still be desirable in some situations for Christians to organize in a political party for specific objectives,

SOAP BOX DERBY WILL STAR IN NEW FILM "HOLD ON TIGHT"

Hollywood—Exclusively Yours: Here's good news for kids. The famous soap box derby, held at Akron, O., every year, is headed for the screen. And not just in the newsreels, either. Director Al Santell and writer Bogart Rogers went to this year's race in Akron and photographed it for a feature picture, "Hold on Tight." The rest of the story will be filmed in Hollywood, with a big-name cast to be announced soon.

The Marx Brothers' movie, now titled "Blondes Up," is going back to the cameras for added scenes. Groucho, who played only a minor role in the original, took one look at the finished film and said, "I'm not in it enough." The added scenes will star Groucho.

The John Payne-Gloria de Haven reconciliation didn't pan out and Gloria will seek a divorce.

Squabble Story
The recent dispute between Abbott and Costello and the UI studio contained a few undertones that have never been aired. Comes now the information that when the British film embargo on U.S. pictures plunged Hollywood into despair, Bud and Lou made a very reasonable deal with UI for their services.

Later, as the British crisis became eased, the boys went to the front office and asked for a readjustment. They felt they were entitled to one because of the more favorable aspect of the foreign market and because their last two pictures, "Wistful Widow of Wagon Gap" and "Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein," were tremendous money-makers.

But the UI brass couldn't see it that way. They admitted the boys had not made a very good bargain for themselves, but insisted that business was business.

and that Bud and Lou would be held to their contracts. The boys argued that, given the slight bonus they requested, they would save money for the studio by working extra hard and finishing their present picture, "Mexican Hayride," ahead of schedule. The executives remained unmoved.

"Mexican Hayride" ran two weeks over schedule. I'm only asking. Was it a coincidence?

On the same night Lois Andrews was reported engaged to an eastern dress manufacturer, she was holding hands with estranged husband Steve Brody at Slapsy Maxie's. . . All of Fox's top stars, including Ty Power, will play bit roles in the film version of "Call Me Mister." Judy Clark has one of the singing leads.

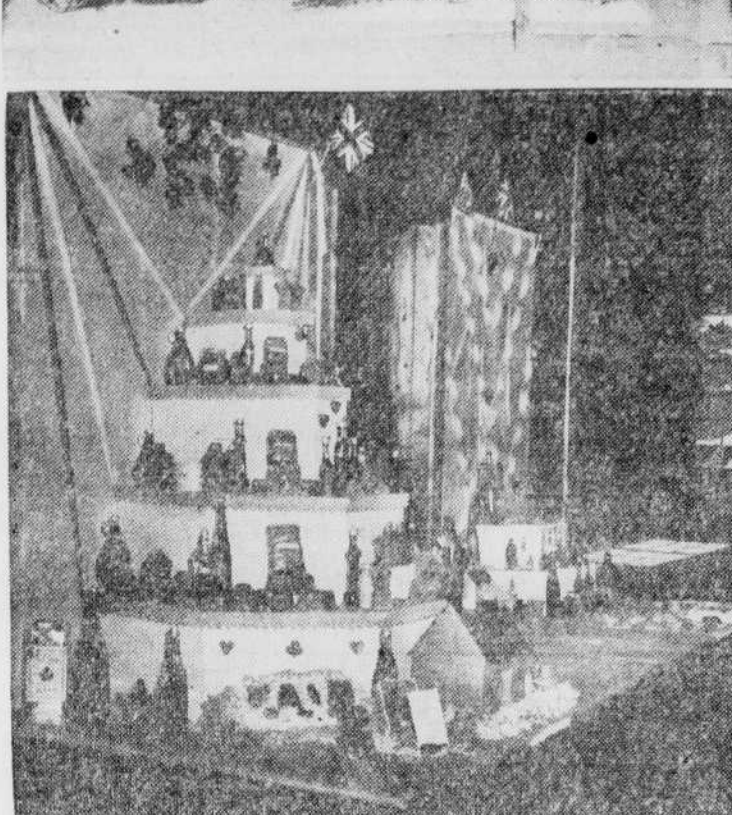

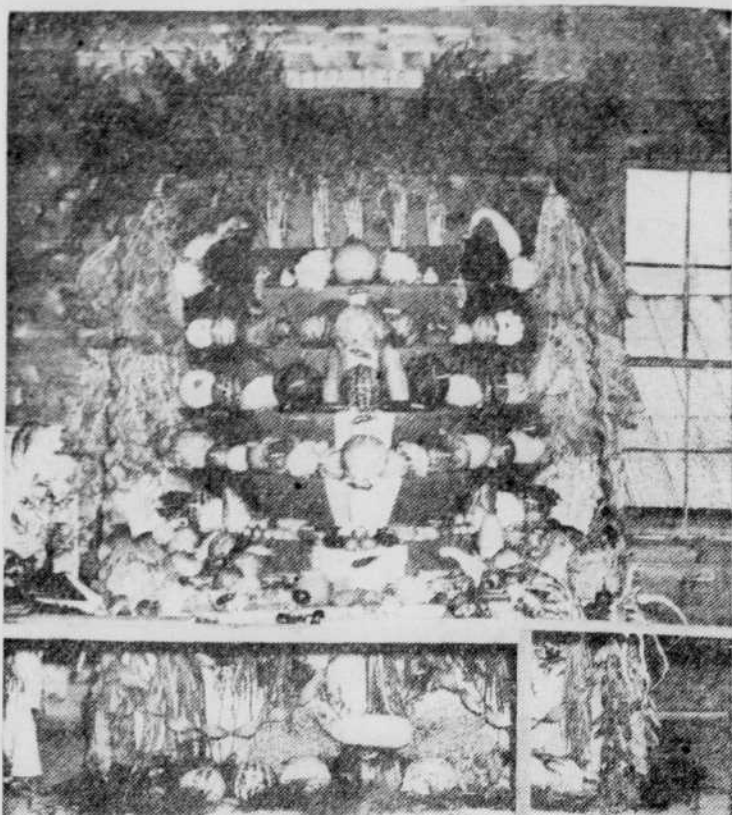

Need Answered

"The Green Promise," saga of the nation's 4H Clubs now before the cameras, sounds like the answer to a public demand for clean, purposeful films which tell the real story behind the greatness of America. Bob Paige and Walter Brennan head the cast.

RKO is looking for a good musical for Jane Greer, who sang with bands before hitting film. Up until now, she's done only heavy dramatic parts on the screen. . . Joan Crawford's hair will be bleached blonde for one sequence in "Flamingo, Read!"

That handwriting on the wall again: Trade paper headline: "Republican Studio Going Into Television Within a Year."

Prize Winning Exhibits

These exhibits, one of vegetables and the other of maple products, were first prize winners at the Sherbrooke Fair. The upper picture shows the collection of garden vegetables, distinct from entries, which won top prize money for L. W. Taylor of Richmond. The lower picture is the commercial display, "the most complete and artistic," which was judged best in the maple products class. The prize winner in this class was O. M. George of South Stukely.

ULVERTON

The X. T. C. Group was entertained at the regular meeting by Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Fraser. Mrs. K. Skillen led the devotional portion of the meeting and Mrs. D. S. Macintosh presided for the regular business portion. There was some discussion about disbanding due to the absence of a minister who acts as the discussion leader.

As many of the members were reluctant to do this, it was decided to carry on until the first of November, with the same officers and then drop meetings until April.

The vice-president, Mrs. K. J. Armstrong, will act as president as Mrs. D. S. Macintosh has moved from this vicinity. Tentative plans were made to send more food parcels overseas to families, who have sent letters of appreciation for other parcels received from the group. Mrs. Macintosh invited the group to meet with her in Richmond in September.

Mrs. Leslie Booth and daughter, Sheila, spent a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. C. Massey, returning home on Sunday with Mr. Booth who had spent the week-end at the same home.

Mrs. K. Armstrong accompanied by Mrs. A. R. Ross, of Asbestos, and Mrs. C. Boast and Mrs. D. S. Macintosh, of Richmond, motored to Sherbrooke, where they attended an executive meeting of the Women's Missionary Society.

Members of the local W. M. S. met at the parsonage for their regular monthly meeting. Devotions were led by Mrs. W. Smith, and the last chapters of the study book were taken by Mrs. F. Higgs and Mrs. U. Massey. The work of the literature conveyor is to be taken by Mrs. U. Massey for the remainder of the year. A gift from the Auxiliary was presented to Mrs. D. S. Macintosh as she has moved to Richmond. Plans were made to help the S. S. teachers and Mission Band leader with their picnic at Lake Richmond, and to furnish ice cream for the little folks as well as to convey them there.

Sunday evening service in Ulverton United Church was taken by the W. M. S., Mrs. H. Smith and Mrs. M. O. Fraser led the devotional portion of the service. Lantern slides were shown after the service and Mrs. K. J. Armstrong and Mrs. D. S. Macintosh were commentators on the slides.

Mrs. John Harriman and four children spent a day with Mr. and Mrs. S. Hask and family, in Melbourne.

Mrs. Whitton, Miss Eleanor Whitton and Mr. Ross Whitton, of Toronto, Ont., are the guests of Miss Kerr.

Livestock Parade One Of Best In History Of Fair

A huge Grandstand crowd was on hand at the Sherbrooke Fair yesterday afternoon for the horse races, several numbers of the spectacular George A. Hamid Revue, and one of the best livestock parades in the history of the fair.

The livestock parade is always an important feature of the Wednesday afternoon performance and draws many distinguished visitors from all parts of the province.

In yesterday's parade were the black and white Holstein Friesian cattle from the Flemish and Dutch countries, bonny Ayrshires, "red and white," dainty Jerseys and the hardy small black Canadian cattle.

Names of the exhibitors and the number of cattle are as follows:

Jerseys: — J. L. Dion, East Farnham, 13; Miss E. B. Speyer, Massawippi, 19; Mrs. A. R. Virgin, North Hatley, 14; A. A. Carson, Melbourne, 13; G. Bellows, Dixville, 15; Alden Peasley, Stanstead, 12; Stewart Coates, East Angus, 10; W. R. Healey and son, Richmond, 11; R. W. Simpson, Melbourne, 12; R. R. Crack, Kingsbury, 13; C. W. Page, Sherbrooke, 2.

Ayrshires: — Orphelinat St. Joseph, Waterville, 15; O. A. Fowler, Kingsbury, 13; Mrs. W. J. Fowler and son, Richmond, 12; A. Lyster, South Durham, 12; Douglas John-

Grand Cattle Parade At The Fair

The first of two grand cattle parades was staged in front of the grandstand at the Sherbrooke Fair yesterday. In the opinion of veteran fair-goers, yesterday's parade was one of the best on record. Some of the cattle may be seen in the above picture as they were led through the crowds to the race track. Another parade is being held today.

Advantages Of Bishop's Traditions, Site, Size Are Stressed By Dr. Jewitt

By JOHN MAFFRE
Sherbrooke Record Staff Writer

Rare advantages possessed by Bishop's University in its old traditions, its size and location were stressed yesterday by Dr. A. R. Jewitt, B.A., M.A., Ph.D., whose appointment as principal was announced in June following the death of Rev. Dr. A. H. McGreer.

"In remaining small, by having students live on the campus and through close personal contact between staff and students — this would be one of the soundest contributions to Canadian education this university could offer," Dr. Jewitt stated yesterday afternoon during an interview in his office in the Old Arts building.

Elaborating on this point, he expressed concern over a trend in colleges today toward expansion at the expense of that close instructor — principal relationship which he deems so essential for sound education in liberal arts and science.

"Within two years I will make it my business to know every single person in the university," he added.

The doctor emphasized his agreement with a speech made at last June's convocation by Chief Justice O. S. Tyndale, chancellor of McGill University, when the jurist urged Bishop's not to expand unnecessarily but to concentrate on its policy of thorough training in liberal arts and science.

Dr. Jewitt expressed the hope that the high school students in the area would be given an increased opportunity to learn about the many entrance scholarships available at the university. He mentioned several of these, noting a new one called the Sir James Dunn Scholarship which has a value of $550 for three years' study.

Bishop's new principal was born in Surrey, England, 44 years ago, and came to Canada as a child. He studied in Calgary and at the Ottawa Collegiate Institute, and was later graduated with honors in English and Latin from Dalhousie University, winning the Governor's Medal. From 1927 to 1930 he was the Rhodes Scholar for Nova Scotia, receiving his Master's degree from Corpus Christi college at Oxford.

He married Elva Creelman, of Truro, Nova Scotia, in 1931 and from then until 1946 he was assistant professor of English at Dalhousie and Kings, going from there to Western University at London, Ontario, to head the English department. He remained there until his present appointment.

He is presently engaged in a research project into dialects of the West Midlands in 13th Century England.

MANY HORSES ON EXHIBIT AT THE FAIR

Despite the trend in Quebec towards modern farming, which embraces the use of farm machinery, there are many heavy draft horses, Clydesdales, Belgians and Percherons as well as standard breeds, grade, hackney and light carriage horses on exhibit at the Sherbrooke Fair.

The Conklin Brothers have once again put up their special challenge plaque which will be awarded the best display of heavy draft horses, the winner to hold the plaque for one year.

In the Belgian class Edmond Proteau, from St. Sebastien, copied twelve first places to be the leading money winner. Other prominent exhibitors were: Arthur Taylor, Sawyerville, J. M. Lavigne, St. Robert, Hugh McGarry, North Hatley, and John Peters, Magog.

Rosario Bernier, of Windsor Mills, was the leading money winner in the Percherons class. He had the champion stallion while the reserve champion was owned by Ben Corey of North Hatley.

Alden Peasley, of Stanstead, owned the champion mare while the owner of the reserve champion was W. J. Whitcomb of North Hatley.

Winston H. Duffy, of South Durham, showed the champion Clydesdale stallion and the reserve champion mare while J. W. McGillivray owned the champion mare and the reserve champion stallion.

In the light horse class, a new class this year, several fine horses were shown by Mrs. B. Trizante, Sherbrooke, Mrs. F. Pouliot, Magog, Mrs. R. Blouin, Dr. L. A. Gendron, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Howard, Reg Bishop, Aime Choquette, all of Sherbrooke, and Paul Rexford, of Newport, Vt.

According to Bob Choquette, superintendent of the horse division of the fair, the horses on exhibit are of good stock.

Office Staff Admitted Into Strikebound Paton Factory

Office workers are to be allowed back into the strikebound Paton Manufacturing Company's mill, it was announced this morning after a meeting between company officials and representative of the employees who began picketing the factory in a general strike yesterday morning.

Company officials had not stated at press time today whether they would call the office staff back to work as a result of this development.

They pointed out that the pickets had originally offered to allow only payroll workers back into the office, but that the manager, W. L. Goddard, had refused to accept these conditions. This morning's agreement gives the company complete admittance to all its office staff.

It was also learned this morning that many of the striking Paton workers have been applying for Unemployment Insurance benefits, and that to receive this compensation they require various forms to be completed by the Paton office staff. This cannot be done until the office is in full operation, officials stated.

A spokesman for the mill workers stated this morning that Deputy-Minister Gerard Tremblay had telegraphed them to the effect that the company should provide the workers with a basic wage table whereby they could determine their own rates of pay. However, the workers' prepared statement said that this does not affect the present situation "as the Deputy-Minister does not seem to be aware of the general walkout."

They further stated that a meeting was in progress this morning between B. N. Holtham, company attorney, and Ronald Fortier and Joseph Gervais of the Workers' Association. No results of this meeting were yet available.

Nearly 450 workers are affected in the general strike which closed the plant yesterday morning. This action followed a meeting on Tuesday night of Paton employees when Gaston Ledoux, president of the National Catholic Textile Federation, who gave an outline of negotiations with the company over the inauguration of a much disputed bonus plan.

AN ERA CLOSES

This closing week-end will close the close of a glorious era in the history of The Netherlands and the opening of what gives promise of being an even greater period. Having celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of her accession to the throne on Tuesday, Queen Wilhelmina on Saturday will abdicate and on Monday her daughter, Princess Juliana will become Queen of the Netherlands.

Throughout her fifty years on the Dutch throne, Queen Wilhelmina has strengthened her hold on the hearts of her people and has won ever-increasing respect abroad. Driven from her native land when Hitler's hordes swept over the border during the Second World War, the aging Queen took refuge in England, where she played a dominant role in directing the affairs of her government-in-exile although remaining out of the political spotlight.

The warm and spontaneous welcome given her on her return from exile has seldom been equalled in history, but the sufferings and worry of the occupation took a heavy toll of her health, which deteriorated to the point where she felt compelled to abdicate in favor of her only child. Such a decision could not have been made easily, for she had spent virtually her entire adult life as ruler of the country, having ascended to the throne when only eighteen years of age.

Canadians will show special interest in the crowning of Princess Juliana, for the future head of the ancient House of Orange was a guest of this country for the five-year period during which her country was under Nazi domination. Her third daughter, Margriet, was born in the Canadian capital although an act of diplomatic fiction designated the area as a part of the Netherlands, so that her rights of succession to the throne would not be jeopardized. Prince Bernhard, who married the Crown Princess, is also well-known in this country, having paid several visits to his family during their stay in Ottawa.

BRITISH RECOVERY AFFECTS THE WORLD

The importance of British economic recovery to the world employment picture is well illustrated in the case of the tobacco growers of Kentucky, the Carolinas and other tobacco producing states who have become alarmed at the restricted amount of buying Great Britain is doing this year. They predict they will be ruined unless Britain resumes buying on something like its former scale.

There are many thousands of Americans, and some persons in this country, who look upon the United Kingdom as a suppliant for American charity, and a borrower who will take many years to pay back her loans. They argue: "Britain got into the European war mess herself and helped drag us into it. If two great wars have left her broke, let her stew in her own juice. We are a vast, wealthy nation and it does not matter to us if she sinks or swims." The same argument is used in connection with the Marshall plan which calls for aid to European nations, including Great Britain.

The plight of the tobacco growers proves the fallacy of this argument. For decades, Britain was the greatest importer and cash buyer of United States products. Now circumstances over which she has no control have put her in the position of having to curtail imports drastically and pay for the bulk of the balance through loans. Thus United States producers are finding that many of their lines are finding markets curtailed. In addition to tobacco, industries feeling the pinch include the motion picture industry which has had almost a monopoly in the British market for nearly forty years.

It has been estimated that if Britain had to depend entirely on her dollar balances to pay for her American imports, at least eight million Americans would be unemployed.

Thus, it is obvious that the Marshall Plan of the United States and similar projects by Canada are of great self-interest to these nations as well as a humanitarian work in rebuilding the world.

ANDREI ZHDANOV

Observers of the international political scene will naturally seek to determine if the death of Andrei Zhdanov, a member of the powerful Politburo and a founder of the Cominform, will have any bearing on the future activities of the Soviets. Admittedly Zhdanov was not the sole determiner of Communist policy but he was one of the senior members of the administration and he was known as a determined individual who pushed his ideas to the limit. As one of the leading contenders for the Stalin mantle, it is apparent that he was held in great respect by his colleagues. Thus his judgment would do much in deciding the path to be followed by Communism, especially in the international field on which he was considered an expert.

His death may to a great extent reveal the actual position of the Supreme Soviet which is ruling Russia today and which is also directing the world revolutionary movement. From time to time in recent months reports have been heard that the inner circle of Communism is experiencing many difficulties and that there is a strong movement to oust the present holders of power. Prime Minister Stalin is aging rapidly and Zhdanov is removed from the scene, leaving Foreign Minister Molotov as the last hope of "the big three."

Perhaps the dissident element may take advantage of latest developments to force a reorganization of the high command, in which case new policies might be adopted. But if the reform move fails, it is only reasonable to expect that there will be numerous sudden deaths in Moscow official circles.

TRUMAN DOCTRINE IN GREECE APPEARS TO BE PAYING OFF

Approaching end of the Greek army's campaign against the Communist guerrillas provides a good peg on which to hang a round-up of whether it's possible to win this kind of a war, what it costs and what it will take to finish the job through the Marshall Plan.

It was March, 1947—only a year and a half ago—when the President went before Congress to announce what has become known as "the Truman Doctrine" for combating communism in foreign countries that wanted to be free. The President asked for $400,000,000 as a starter. Military aid for Turkey was to get $100,000,000. Military aid for Greece was to get $150,000,000, with another $150,000,000 for civilian aid.

It was May before Congress finally approved this highly controversial foreign policy. Survey missions went out at once. But it was June and July before any contracts were let. August before the munitions and consumers' goods began to arrive in Greece.

COMMUNISTS ALMOST HAD TOP HAND

At that time the Communies held or terrorized over half the country. The Greek army was disorganized and the Greek government demoralized. Though the British had succeeded in putting a king on the Greek throne and had poured $288,000,000 into trying to preserve the monarchy, they had failed. The British wanted to pull out and that was where the United States came in.

The prospect was about as hopeless as anything could be. But as of today, one year later, the business begins to look as though it might eventually pay off. Even the most skeptical critic of the Truman doctrine must admit that if it had not been carried through Greece today would probably be just another satellite in the Soviet orbit.

Ex-Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska, American administrator of the Greek program, is coming home. A start has been made on reorganization of the Greek government, getting a little sense into its tax and fiscal policies. The relief and reconstruction program has not been finished, but what remains to be done is being transferred to the Marshall Plan Economic Co-operation Administration.

The original $150,000,000 earmarked for military aid in the first year wasn't enough. It had to be raised to $172,000,000. The extra money was obtained by cutting back the reconstruction program. Even that wasn't enough. An additional $235,000,000 had to be appropriated by the last Congress to carry operations through June 30, 1949.

It all depends on how much outside pressure there is against the Greek government, how well the reorganized Greek army, navy and air force of 200,000 men will be able to guard against future Communist campaigns from the north and from within.

PRICE PER COMMIE SEEMS LITTLE HIGH

But the total of $397,000,000 required for a two-year campaign to wipe out the Communies in a territory not much larger than the state of Louisiana seems kinda high. The following of the Communist Gen. Markos Vafiades has been estimated at 25,000 by the Greeks, at about 10,000 by the Americans. Taking even the larger figure, it comes to $13,400 per head. If that's what it takes to chase all the Communies out of western Europe, the cost may be prohibitive.

The relief and reconstruction part of the program makes much pleasant reading. The original $150,000,000, cut back to $128,000,000 when military operations were expanded, was all gone last June 30. Of this amount $35,000,000 went for food, mostly grains. Civilian goods ranging from clothing to medical supplies to iron and steel to airplanes for spraying DDT over the malarial areas, took $65,000,000 more. Reconstruction took $23,000,000. Administration and expenses of the American missions ate up the final $5,000,000.

This year's crops have been brought back to 85 per cent of prewar normal. The deficit is due largely to lack of production in areas of active military operations. Industrial production is still only about 75 per cent of prewar.

A start has been made on rebuilding harbors, bridges, canals, 1,000 miles of roads, schools, mines, factories. Preliminary estimates for carrying on this work under ECA have been put at $146,000,000 for the year ending next June 30. After that, three years more at possibly somewhat lesser amounts.

SLOT-MACHINE STOCKINGS

New York Herald Tribune
The automatic vending machine—robot salesman of nylon stockings, toothbrush kits, fruit juice, insurance policies and other items—is putting La Guardia Airport on a paying basis for the first time in its history.

Vending-machine returns at the field have soared to such an extent in the last few months that they now are producing 60 to 70 per cent of the airport's revenues.

The nylon machine sells hose in neat little packages, about the dimensions of a pack of cigarettes, offering a choice of size and color. An immensely popular name-branding gadget, it is a source of great profit. It costs each customer a dime to see his name in tin, and it costs the vending machine company one quarter of a cent to produce it.

Of the 17 types employed at the airport, one of the more novel is the toothbrush machine. This emits a toothbrush, toothbrush case and a tiny packet of powder for rushed passengers who have forgotten their own.

THE SHAPE OF THINGS TO COME AT OTTAWA

Quebec Chronicle—Telegraph
The shape of things to come in the Progressive-Conservative convention, so far as this Province at least is concerned, is beginning to come more sharply into focus. At the Winnipeg gathering which chose Hon. John Bracken as leader, the Quebec delegation was a small one, partly because of the factors of time and distance but even more because the party fortunes in this Province were then at their lowest ebb. This time is already assured that the Quebec delegation to Ottawa will be a particularly numerous one.

There has been less talk this past week of the formation of a new Quebec party and our guess is that the promoters have decided general course of events and in part by the patient, untiring missionary work of Ivan Sabourin and his fellow-workers, performed under extremely difficult conditions.

Pains have been taken to emphasize that the Quebec delegation is not going to the convention as a sectional bloc but with a perfectly open mind to work, along with the delegates from the other Provinces, for whatever appear to be the best interests of the country and the party. This is a welcome assurance that goes far to clear the atmosphere in advance, even although the holding of a caucus of Quebec delegates at Montreal would seem on the face of things, to discount it a little. So also does a considerable movement through the Province in favor of Donald Fleming of Toronto—who is not seriously considered elsewhere—as leader for reasons that are particular to Quebec. As a matter of fact, if the convention is to be held on a Quebec leadership candidate, it will have to be given some substantial assurance, first of all, that he will be adequately supported by Quebec when chosen.

Hon. R. J. Manion was Quebec's candidate at the last Ottawa convention, which accented him as such, but he got little support from Quebec in the ensuing elections. Although not Quebec's candidate, Mr. Bracken was Quebec's choice among those nominated at Winnipeg but he, too, was unable to attract electoral support from Quebec. This time, therefore, the convention is likely to insist upon confiding the leadership to that man who seems able to carry the largest number of seats across Canada, without giving much consideration to "favorite sons."

to mark time, pending the holding of the Progressive-Conservative convention at Ottawa. Conceivably, though not certainly, a leader and a program may come out of these deliberations which Quebec autonomists will be willing to accept. If that should happen, there is nothing to be gained by making confusion worse confounded with another new party, nor would those responsible stand to gain anything from the attempt. But in the event that popular sentiment in Quebec is dissatisfied with the outcome of the Progressive-Conservative convention, aggressive autonomists will almost certainly go ahead with their plans for a new party, sooner than permit the Liberal party to reform its solid Quebec bloc behind Mr. St. Laurent.

This means that both the Progressive-Conservative Party and non-Liberal Quebecers, generally, are on trial. If both play their parts with patriotism, good-will, understanding, moderation and common-sense, the Canadian electors will have a real choice when they are next appealed to—something they have not had since the time of R. B. Bennett. If, however, on whose door the opportunity now knocks, fail to respond, the political future of the country will be darkened with hopeless confusion.

DAME OR LADY?

Geoffrey Howard in London Times

Is it too much to suggest a slight but significant change in the usage of address to Dames of the Orders of Knighthood? What ever may be felt about "Dame" as a title, as a mode of address it seems archaic and is not only associated with age rather than honor, but is even to many redolent rather of the pantomime stage than of any other form of public recognition.

When John Smith is created a KBE he is addressed as Sir John Smith and the prefix "Lady" is the feminine equivalent of the masculine "Sir." Why, therefore, when Mary Smith is created a DBE, should not she be addressed as Lady Mary Smith?

A change in the present awkward and archaic method of address would be socially less embarrassing and, in the case of younger women, somewhat less ridiculous.

CHANGING OPINION?

Halifax Chronicle

For what the results are worth, here is what one of those popular polls discovered about the people's feelings in the United Kingdom.

A year ago, 42 per cent of the voters expressed themselves as satisfied with the government, and 45 per cent dissatisfied. Today the figures are 35 per cent and 55 per cent respectively.

Two years ago, 45 per cent would have voted Socialist and 39 per cent Conservative. The figures today are 40 per cent and 44 per cent.

The validity of these polls is often with good reason, called in question. For those who wish to interpret them, however, there are the figures that come from Britain.

monstrated Mr. Croll retorted: "I haven't forgotten the padlock law. I haven't forgotten the treatment accorded trade unions. I haven't forgotten the billboards displayed by the Duplessis party during the recent provincial election saying 'we don't give money to strangers,' meaning we don't want to give aid to Britain. I am also aware of the origin of the Social Credit party in Alberta, Quebec and Alberta are our blind spots."

The remarks may be good politics for Mr. Croll personally. But their general effect cannot be anything but bad and it is regrettable that a man who is usually as constructive as he is should have made them.

For the Manning government in Alberta and the Duplessis government in Quebec represent in a more real sense that any governments in the country the people of those two provinces. They have both recently been returned to office by majorities so conclusive that there can be no question on that score.

Therefore we have the picture of an Ontario M.P. in effect criticizing the people of two provinces in Canada. And he is one of the people who would accuse Ontario Premier George Drew of destroying national unity.

The people of any Canadian province have a perfect right to elect

Under our democratic system they don't require the permission or approbation of Mr. Croll or anyone else for that purpose.

There has been nothing said or done by those governments or any of their members contravening the laws of Canada. If there has been it is up to the government Mr. Croll supports to do something about it.

They are giving satisfactory administration to the people who have elected them. Therefore it ill behooves a politician from another province to make such comments as Mr. Croll did.

Obviously the Toronto M.P. doesn't like some of the things that have been said by Mr. Duplessis and some of the Alberta Social Crediters. Frankly, neither do we. But we don't like some of the things Mr. Croll has said during his political career and probably the Alberta and Quebec people feel the same way.

Canada needs unity today. Alberta and Quebec are still part of Canada. And the way to induce unity in Canada is not for some Ontario politician to pass out gratuitous insults at their governments. In saying what he did Mr. Croll rendered a distinct disservice to the national unity of which he has spoken so fervently on other occasions.

Zhdanov Death Stirs Speculation

By

DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

Rarely does the death of an individual give rise to such widespread speculation regarding its possible effects as has that of Andrei A. Zhdanov, one of Russia's big three and generally regarded as possible successor to Stalin as chief of state.

Zhdanov long had been a powerful figure in Communism. He had lived daringly and dangerously, projecting his dominating personality into national and international affairs until his voice had the ring of authority second only to that of Stalin. He and Foreign Minister Molotov were supposedly the two from whom the new chief would be picked when Stalin stepped down.

However, like many other dynamic leaders he never had hesitated to advance drastic proposals which, if they failed, might end his career. Such was his advice to Stalin to make the attack on Finland in 1939-40—a project which turned out badly. More disastrous was his recent launching of the assault on Premier Tito of Yugoslavia, thereby creating his first breach in the solidarity of the Soviet satellite bloc in eastern Europe.

Zhdanov's anti-Tito policy seemed to clash with that of Molotov, and there was widespread speculation in the western world whether one or the other would drop out of sight. More recently friends of Ana Pauker, Romanian foreign minister and darling of Moscow, quoted her as saying that Zhdanov had incurred Stalin's displeasure as a result of the Yugoslav developments. And one high Yugoslav official has said that the breach between Russia and his country would be closed only by a change of policy-makers in one country or the other.

Well, on that basis Zhdanov's death might ease the bitter clash between Moscow and Yugoslavia—a clash which threatens the security of the Soviet bloc. It could be, too, that it would lessen the tension between Russia and the western democracies, since Zhdanov was a bitter foe of the democracies and of the Marshall Plan for European rehabilitation.

All these circumstances have inspired speculation in some British newspapers as to whether the sudden and unexpected death of the 52-year-old soldier-statesman was in fact from natural causes. Human life being so tenuous in some parts of Europe these perilous days, it is perhaps small wonder that such speculation should arise.

However, the only answer your correspondent knows is that five surgeons have said Zhdanov's demise was due to heart trouble and hardening of the arteries. That's official, and nobody is likely to dispute a verdict of death from "heart trouble," though he may wonder what caused the trouble.

Zhdanov and Stalin long had been close friends and Stalin clearly placed much reliance on his advice. Apparently any mistakes in judgment by Zhdanov had been forgiven at least up until the anti-Tito policy was launched two months ago under the auspices of the Communist information bureau (successor to the Comintern, or general staff for world revolution) which Zhdanov founded. In fact he participated in the Cominform meeting which denounced Tito.

The outside world may get an answer to some of its wonderment by watching the weather-vane of Moscow's international policies. It would be interesting to see whether Zhdanov's ideas continue to hold.

justice will follow as a by-product of free enterprise. That, too, is an ideology which has been proved false.

"It is the responsibility of Christians to seek new creative solutions which never allow either justice or freedom to destroy the other."

The church itself must accept its "share of responsibility" for "contemporary disorder," the report said, conceding that Christians often had failed to understand the forces which shape society and as a result were unprepared to "deal creatively" with social problems.

"Christians should ask why Communism in its modern totalitarian form makes so strong an appeal to great masses of people in many parts of the world," the report added. "They should recognize the work of God in the revolt of multitudes against the injustice that gives Communism its strength."

NELSON ADAIR WAS GUEST OF KIWANIS CLUB

Fair week at Kiwanis means entertainment, and last evening the Kiwanis Club of Sherbrooke, meeting at the New Sherbrooke Hotel for their first dinner session following their summer luncheons, were royally entertained by Nelson Adair, old time trouper, vaudeville star and minstrel man, whose early associations with the stage brought him in contact with Jolson, Cantor and other famous names of past and present in the theatrical world.

Staging an impromptu one-man show, Mr. Adair, who today is Managing Director of Hornet Industries of Guelph, Ont., in the Province of Quebec, brought his audience many reminiscences of the old minstrel days, when he toured Canada and the United States with some of the foremost vaudeville and minstrel troupes.

Native of London, Ont., Mr. Adair prefaced his entertainment with a few words to the Kiwanians on the benefits of service club work. Former Kiwanian himself, Mr. Adair stressed the point of speaking both languages, urging that everyone should become equally proficient in French and English, developing Canada as a bilingual country, with both languages taught in schools from coast-to-coast.

Beginning his stage career at the age of six Mr. Adair has had a colorful history in the theatrical world, having played with the old Famous Boy Minstrels and other famous troupes, including a famous musical comedy unit that played in Sherbrooke at the old His Majesty's Theatre back in 1916. He toured with the troupe overseas in the First War, and one of the highlights of his routine was an impersonation of the experience of a soldier.

He gave a resume of his life in song and story that was highly enjoyable, and entertained his audience with several songs and parodies, as well as some of his own compositions, including "Canadian Winter Blues," accompanying himself on the guitar.

Introduced by Gordon Beerworth, Mr. Adair was thanked by Art Lawson, of Sherbrooke, local Hornet Power Saw dealer, Rev. William Belford of Ottawa, Frank Tarte of Montreal and Armand Reynolds of Lennoxville.

As a special added feature of the evening, the winners in the Junior Calf Club competition at the Sherbrooke Fair were guests of the Kiwanians, with Agnomen J. H. Marcoux, in charge of Calf Club work, and John Beerworth of Brome, winner of the Kiwanis Club of Sherbrooke Trophy in the Calf Club Judging Competition this year, Gilbert Sauvage, of St. Alphonse de Granby, who also won the Waterloo Kiwanis Club Trophy for Calf Club work at the Waterloo Fair, presented to him here at Sherbrooke, and Malcolm MacGillivray of Knowlton, as well as Jean-Paul Desroches of St. Alphonse de Granby, Pat Goode, chairman of the Agricultural Committee for the Kiwanis Club, who assisted Mr. Marcoux, introduced the visiting Calf Club members and other guests were introduced by Clayton Conley.

President Newman Hunter presided, and a special directors' meeting followed the dinner session.

CAR ACCIDENT VICTIMS STILL IN HOSPITAL

The three men injured in an automobile accident which occurred Tuesday evening between Marlboro and Weeden are still in a critical condition in Hotel Dieu Hospital this morning. Attendants at the hospital, however, report their condition as slightly improved over last evening.

The injured are: Gerard Heine, 23, of Theford, Hypocrite Heine, 20, of Theford, and Charles Heine, 50, also of Theford.

The younger son is suffering from a fractured arm and lacerations to the body while Gerard and the father are suffering from serious head injuries. The father has a possible fractured skull.

The victims are under the care of Dr. Lionel Groleau and Dr. E. Brunet.

Maritime Miners Want Wage Boost

U.M.W. Miners Seek Increase of $2.56 a Day When Contract Expires

By DAVE MCINTOSH
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Truro, N.S., Sept. 2.—The annual convention of United Mine Workers, District 23 (C.C.L.) today adopted its policy committee's report calling for a daily wage increase of $2.56 for 13,000 Maritime miners.

The convention's mandate enables the union to seek the increase when the present contract expires Jan. 31, 1949. Current basic rate is $7.64 a day.

The convention also asked for a 10 per cent increase for long-haul operators—men who load conveying belts manually in the deeps—and a 33 1/3 per cent increase for all other contract workers.

Other demands endorsed by the convention:

1. Time-and-a-half for any hours worked over eight.

2. Double time for Sunday work and on statutory holidays.

3. Straight time for statutory holidays when not worked.

4. Starting hour of 8 a.m. instead of the present 7 a.m.

Endorsement of the report came after a two-day discussion. The convention altered in some respects the committee's recommendations regarding long-haul loaders but did not change the basic demand for the daily increase.

Following the last annual district convention two years ago the miners won a $1 a day increase after a prolonged strike in 1947. Later they got a 40 cent a day bonus for increased production and last March their new contract contained another 40-cent bonus. There was no convention last year.

Accident during the two years past has been on increased production and this has been achieved by the miners and Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, by far the largest operator, in many collieries.

A program of mechanization, agreed on by union and Doseco, has been undertaken.

Today's redrafted policy statement said coal mining is an essential industry to the Canadian economy and recognized as one of the most hazardous jobs.

It reiterated the past policy that the coal industry should be operated and if necessary subsidized by the Federal government it added:

L'AVENIR

This community was deeply moved and previously shocked by the tragic death of Mr. George Norris, of Ulverton. The deepest sympathy of all in this district is extended to Mrs. Norris and family and other relatives in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Graham and Master Franklin have returned from a motor trip to Toronto, Ont.
A large number from here attended the funeral of Mr. George
R. Norris, in Ulverton, on Sunday,
August 29th.

Evening guests at the Bogie home included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Porter, of Ulverton; Miss Lorraine
Porter, of Sherbrooke; Mr. Herbie
Stevens, of Kingsbury; Mr. Clifford Arguin, of Montreal; and Col.
M. L. Brady.

Sympathy is extended Dr. Leopold Charpentier, of Drummond-ville, and son, Paul, in their bereavement.

Mr. Alex Charpentier and Miss
B. Charpentier spent a day with
Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Charpentier, in Contrecoeur, and returned home the following day, after attending the Sherbrooke Exhibition.

Col. M. L. Brady and C. S. Bogie attended the funeral services for Mrs. Leopold Charpentier, in Drummondville.

Browning, Montana, are visiting
Mr. and Mrs. R. M. MacFie.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Beerworth were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Beerworth.
A very pleasant time was spent on Tuesday evening, August 24, when over thirty young people gathered at the home of Mr. and
Mrs. Willis Beerworth to surprise
Miss Alta Wilson, on the occasion of her sixteenth birthday. On arriving Miss Wilson was greeted with the singing of "Happy Birthday." The evening was spent in playing games and contests on the lawn, after which refreshments were served including a three-tiered birthday cake.

Miss Wilson received many nice gifts for which she very graciously thanked her young friends.
Captain D. Jones and her troupe of Girl Guides attended the morning service at the United Church, Clarenceville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Thompson and Miss Thompson, of Flint, Mich., were tea guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Thompson.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Watson returned to Champlain, N. Y., after spending their holidays at their summer home here.

The Doctor Says

SCIENCE MAKES GREAT STRIDES TO STOP ONCE-FATAL DISEASE

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

The germ which causes influenza meningitis was discovered by the German bacteriologist, Pfeiffer, in 1892. He and some others at first mistakenly believed that it was the cause of true influenza. This accounts for the name and a certain amount of confusion.

Influenza meningitis is a rather common disease in children, although rare in grown-ups. The meningitis part of the name refers to an inflammation of the lining of the spinal cord and brain. Until recently, most of those who were stricken with this disease died. In one hospital between 1920 and 1931, only one survived out of 78.

The first sign of improvement came when a serum was developed which enabled 31 of another group of 201 to recover. Other new discoveries have made possible still better results in the treatment of this killer of infants and children.

Sulfa Helps
Part of the improvement is caused by the development of better serums, the most powerful being one prepared from rabbits. The use of the sulfa drugs has also helped a great deal.

How great a change has been brought about in the chances for these children is shown by a report of 28 children with influenza meningitis. Twenty-four of them recovered completely and only four died.

The treatment was the use of serum and sulfa drugs combined. Other good results with anti-biotics, such as penicillin, either alone or combined with sulfa or serum have been reported.

This fine result shows what remarkable progress can be made in treating a highly fatal disease.

Q—Should enlarged, although uninfected tonsils and adenoids, which do not interfere with breathing, be removed in a 6-year-old child?

A—At present, the tendency is to leave such tonsils and adenoids where they are. However, it must be pointed out that there may be some special reason why the physician may feel that they should be removed.

KIRKDALE

The Kirkdale Parsonage and grounds were once more the setting for a real old fashioned parish picnic.

The weather was ideal, a little on the warm side and the crowd all that could be asked. There were upwards of 125 old and young present.

There was a large delegation from South Durham and almost as large a one from Gallup Hill, a number from Richmond, Asbestos and L'Avenir and nearly all of Kirkdale's population assisted in making the day a huge success. Starting off with a real substantial luncheon with lemonade and iced tea every one began to enjoy themselves. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Irwin, the general hosts, had prepared a good program which was run off from start to finish without a hitch.

There were races for the young and old, a sack race, a peanut race, a grandmothers race, a married men's race, and a married women's race, horse shoe pitching, throwing the rolling pin for the ladies and a glorious tug-of-war, after all these strenuous activities, a short address was given by Mr. Harrington, of Richmond, and Mr. Irwin spoke very feelingly of his and Mrs. Irwin's enjoyment of their summer here. Prizes were distributed to all taking part in the events and also to every child present. Before leaving, three hearty cheers were given for the Irwin family. Ice cream cones for every one brought a very enjoyable event to the finish. The ticket for the Guild quilt was drawn by Miss Eliza Burrill, of Gallup Hill, and the lucky winner was Mrs. Edson, N. Montgomery, of South Durham.

Mrs. Harry Cross entertained at a family picnic dinner at her home here in honor of her husband's birthday. Upwards of 25 relatives were present and all enjoyed a pleasant luncheon and wished Mr. Cross many happy returns of the day.

This community was shocked and saddened when it learned of the sudden and tragic death of Mr. George R. Norris, of Ulverton, on Thursday morning, August 26. Mr. Norris was saving in his mill, when he was struck by a heavy beech board and suffered internal injuries, to which he succumbed while en route to the Sherbrooke Hospital. He will be greatly missed in this little community. Sincere sympathy goes out to his bereaved wife, sons Lloyd and Dick, and Mrs. Lloyd Norris.

cluded, delicious refreshments were served and a very pleasant evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham and the Misses Noelia and Mary have left by motor on a holiday trip.

A large gathering of ladies attended the afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. P. Sanborn on Friday afternoon in aid of the United Church Sunday School. This local function was a great success and much enjoyed. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Thomas and several pupils of the S.S., served delicious refreshments. Mrs. James Beattie poured tea. The sum of $19.25 was realized.

MRS. A. BATLEY ENTERTAINED W.I. MEETING

Brookbury, Sept. 2.—A largely attended meeting of the Brookbury Women's Institute was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Batley.

The meeting was held on the lawn, where upwards of fifty members, visitors and children enjoyed the shady spot.

The meeting was opened in the usual way with the "Salute To The Flag," the singing of the "Ode" and repeating the "Credo" in unison. Several "thank-you" letters were read. Parcels for the overseas box were brought in and packed.

Three new members joined the group.

Money was donated to a needy cause and a committee of three was named to take charge. Mrs. Ernie Bennett, Mrs. Collins Vintinner and Mrs. Rufus Stevenson.

A "Sunshine Bag" is to be given to a member, who has spent two weeks in a hospital. Mrs. S. Batley is in charge of this.

Mrs. S. B. Coates offered to send another box overseas.

Mrs. Jack MacKenzie invited the group to meet at her home on September 11, with Mrs. Ernie Bennett, the joint hostess.

Pictures were taken of all the grandmothers present, the oldest and the youngest grandmothers and several of the whole gathering. The meeting closed by singing "God Save the King."

A delicious salad tea was served on the lawn by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. J. McKenzie, Mrs. L. Allison, Mrs. G. Lawrence, Mrs. S. Batley, Mrs. E. Batley and Mrs. G. McIntyre.

SHOWERS AND TEAS FOR A BRIDE-TO-BE

Granby, Sept. 2.—Miss Jerry Lane entertained at a supper in honor of Mrs. Lillian Bowker, whose marriage takes place shortly. The table, which was covered with a white damask cloth was centered with a miniature bride. The place cards were small colonial bouquets. Mrs. Bowker was presented with a gift of linen.

On August 12, Mrs. Clarence Robinson entertained at the tea hour in honor of Mrs. Bowker. The table was covered with a white damask cloth, centered with a bowl of multi-colored petunias. The guest of honor was presented with a Wedgwood cake plate by the hostess.

Mrs. Herbert Robinson was hostess at a supper on August 19, at which Mrs. Lillian Bowker and Mr. Veldon Laurie were present. On this occasion Mrs. Bowker was presented with a green damask table cloth and serviettes.

On Wednesday, August 18, Mrs. K. U. Campbell entertained at the tea hour in honor of Mrs. Bowker. Mrs. Campbell, on behalf of the guests presented the guest of honor with a pair of crystal boudoir lamps. Following the presentation delicious refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Miss Joyce Reith, Mrs. Earl Laurie poured tea. The table was covered with a lace cloth centered with a crystal bowl of variegated sweet peas flanked by tall white tapers in silver holders.

On August 21, Mrs. N. R. Mitchell entertained at a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Bowker, who with her mother was presented with corsages of sweet peas and pansies. The table was covered with a cut work cloth centered with a bouquet of pink and white gladioli and pale pink tapers. Mrs. Bowker was presented with an Italian lattice china bon bon dish.

Mrs. Bowker was the guest of honor at a tea given by Mrs. Russell Bradford. The table was covered with a lace cloth centered with a crystal bowl of pink petunias and phlox. Mrs. Earl Laurie poured tea. Mrs. Bradford presented Mrs. Bowker with a towel set.

MODERN MARRIAGE

MAKE YOUR COMPLAINTS WORTHWHILE

By Dr. Paul Popenoe

His wife cooks with gas—and he pays for the gas. That's why Mr. C. complains.

"She'll light a burner, and then begin to prepare something that she will put on the burner ten minutes later," he narrates. "She'll take a pan off the stove, and leave the gas burning because she expects to use it again. Why can't she turn off the burner when it isn't actually in use, and thus save money? It costs nothing to relight it—the thing is automatic. Maybe you'll think this is a small matter, Dr. Popenoe, but I think it is a useless waste of money."

Marriage is made up of just such small matters, Mr. C. Small matters—and the emotional reactions to them—make or break a marriage. You could look at this one from several points of view.

1. Your wife wastes a dime's worth of gas a week. Is she worth a dime a week to you?

2. Maybe you have made an issue of this, and she is simply trying to assert herself. According to the way she looks at it, you waste a dollar a week on cigars, of which she disapproves. "When he saves the dollar, I'll save the dime," she tells herself.

3. She is over-anxious to please you, and knows you like to have your meals on time. She keeps the gas going because she is determined to be punctual at any cost.

Well, you can stretch the list, Mr. C. There might be a lot of other possibilities. Maybe you have already nagged her on this until she is continuing it just to spite you—just to show that she won't be bossed, least of all in the kitchen. If you consider this important, and haven't exhausted your credit by calling attention to it so often that you have made a feud out of it, you might sit down with your wife and figure out how you can save more money on your budget for something she wants: "I'll save on this item; maybe you can save on that one."

But first pick out a good item on which you yourself propose to save.

Practical Courtship

Prospective Bridegroom Should Quiz Future Wife On Domestic Skills

Undoubtedly many unhappy marriages could be prevented if, during the engagement, the prospective bridegroom would stop asking Sweetums: "Do you love me—will you always love me—would you pine away and die of a broken heart if something unforeseen happened to me?" long enough to get her views on various practical matters that will affect his happiness and well-being just as much as the state of her affections.

DOROTHY DIX

He might, for instance, open the questionnaire by saying: "Darling, I feel that I am the most blessed of men in having won you for my bride, but before we go any further with this matter, tell me what is your domestic rating? Are you allergic to the kitchen, or is it your favorite haunt where you perform culinary miracles?"

"Do you thrill at the sight of pots and pans, or do they give you that tired feeling? Can you cook like my mother, or will your coffee always furnish grounds for divorce? I love you, but I also have a passion for good food and, inasmuch as when I marry I will put my stomach as well as my heart in my wife's hands, I would like to know what risks I am taking."

Or he might say: "Angel of my soul, how do you stand on the financial proposition? Can you run a budget, or do you think money was made to throw at the birds? I am no tightwad, but the prospect of spending my life slaving for dressmakers and milliners does not allure me and so, unless you can get as much of a kick out of helping me make a fortune as you would out of running me in debt, you had better transfer your heartthrobs to some guy whose father guessed right about the stock market."

And, going on from there, he might inquire further into how she would treat his mother, and how many of her own family she planned to have camp in the guest room, and whether she expected a tired business man to take her stepping every night when his feet hurt and he only wanted to rest them? Also, whether she would buy his neckties, and make him eat the kind of food she liked, and make him attend her church, and vote for her candidate, or else.

Oh, there are plenty of questions the prospective husband might ask the girl friend before marriage, but the trouble is he doesn't. He waits until after marriage, and then it is too late.

The Record will be pleased to receive any letters to this Dorothy Dix column. These will be forwarded to Miss Dix who will answer them as quickly as possible.

SCOTSTOWN

The annual "Memorial" service and decoration of graves, which is held, in turn, at each of the Protestant Churches, was held at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, on Sunday, and was attended by the Legion and the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Legion Branch No. 20, in a body. The veterans marched from the Town Hall to the church, to a pipe band, from Sherbrooke. A large number of veterans were present from Bury, Branch No. 48. Rev. J. W. Smith conducted the service and gave a stirring and timely address. Mr. F. J. Buck read the Scripture lesson from Revelations XXI, and the hymns sung were "Before Jehovah's Awful Throne," "Soldiers of Christ, Arise," and "God of Our Fathers, Known of Old." Mrs. Antonio Lartich sang the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" as a solo. The program at the cemetery opened with the hymn, "O God Our Help in Ages Past," followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. Smith, who also read Psalm XXIII. The hymn "Abide with Me" was sung, followed by brief remarks by Rev. Mr. Smith, and the placing of crosses on the graves of veterans of any wars, by Gerald Ladd, representing the Boy Scouts. The "Last Post" and "Reveille" were sounded by Mr. F. J. Buck. Mr. Philip Boy, Sr., acted as standard-bearer. The service closed with the Benediction and the National Anthem.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Morrison, and Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacRae, who spent a holiday with friends and relatives, have returned to their respective homes, in East End, and Seattle, Wash. During their visit here Mr. Morrison, and Mr. MacRae did splendid work in the Tolsta Cemetery, in co-operation with other interested friends, and relatives, building a new fence and repairing monuments, etc. Mr. MacRae, with the assistance of friends, also gave a helping hand in the St. Mary's Cemetery, repairing a monument there. Grateful appreciation is extended to those men, for the practical interest shown in the resting-place of "those whom we have loved long since, and lost awhile." To them, and all concerned in this work, is extended grateful and sincere thanks, with special thanks to "Mac" and "Angus."

In view of the approaching marriage of Miss Donna Boy, the Misses Ruth and Mary Whittingham were hostesses at a delightful party, in her honor, at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E.

A. Whittingham. As the guest of honor entered, the "Wedding March" was played by Miss Mary Whittingham, who also, on behalf of the assembled friends, presented Miss Boy with a "shower" of cups and saucers, and assisted the honor-guest in unwrapping the lovely gifts, daintily wrapped in yellow and white. Later, the hostesses, assisted by Miss Sylvia Parsons, of Sherbrooke, served delicious refreshments. The tea table, decorated with streamers in the color scheme of white and yellow, was centred with roses in a crystal bowl. Miss Boy extended grateful thanks to her friends for the pleasing occasion.

Prior to the departure of Miss Dorothy Smith to her home in Sawyerville, she, with Mr. and Mrs. Bowman were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John M. MacKenzie, at "Hilton."

Friends regret the departure of Mrs. S. J. Scott, and her daughter, Miss Wilma Scott, who, after many years as local residents, have taken up residence in Montreal, Mrs. Scott having sold her summer home, "Ardintoul," on Moffat Lake.

In honor of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Smith, of Sawyerville, Mrs. W. W. Bowman, entertained the younger set, at a very enjoyable party, at her home on Main Street.

"Bingo" provided amusement for the evening, the prizes being awarded to Mr. Murray MacDonald, and Miss Annie MacLeod. At the conclusion of the game, delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

HEALTH PLANS REVIEWED IN BROME COUNTY

East Farnham, Sept. 2.—“Co-operative health services for the rural families” was the main topic of discussion of the Brome County Council of the Farm Forum held in the Protestant school in East Farnham.

The first part of the meeting, which dealt with reports of the president, secretary and delegate to the co-operative tour of parts of Ontario, was under the chairmanship of the president, Gordon Shufelt.

Mr. Shufelt gave a brief report of the semi-annual meeting of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, held in Kentville, N.S. He pointed out to the members present how important it is to the director to have resolutions relating to farm problems in his hands before he attends the meeting. “If the voice of the Forum members is to be heard, the director must know its wishes,” he said.

The secretary, Mrs. E. S. Bradley, of Mansonville, reported that during the year the county had sent a delegate to the annual meeting of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture at Brockville in January, and had aided a representative to go on a co-operative tour through Ontario.

A short course had been held in Sutton from March 1-4 inclusive, where the students, ranging in age from 18 to 80, received instruction in co-operative principles, conducting meetings, writing minutes, publicity, keeping accounts, etc. Mr. Lawrence Horner, president-elect for the county for the coming year and delegate on the co-op tour, thanked the members for

Yugoslavia Is Critical Of Bulgaria

Charge Is Made That Bulgaria Has Territorial Designs on Macedonia.

London, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Bulgaria has become the fourth Cominform country to draw critical fire from Yugoslavia.

Tanjug, official Yugoslav news agency, last night accused Bulgaria of having territorial designs on the southern Yugoslav province of Macedonia. It accused the Bulgarian press department of giving free rein to “aspirations of the present leaders of Bulgaria toward Macedonia.”

Earlier yesterday, the Belgrade Communist newspaper, Borba, charged Albanians were carrying on an unrelenting campaign against Yugoslavia. Last Wednesday, Yugoslavia formally accused high Romanian officials of trying to provoke a revolution against Premier Tito. Similar charges were made Friday against Hungary.

All four countries—Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Romania—sided with the Communist information bureau in its denunciation of Tito and other Yugoslav leaders two months ago.

The Macedonian office of information issued a statement describing Bulgarian press department assertions concerning Macedonia as “a continuation of the unrelenting campaign against Yugoslavia and separately against Macedonia which began with the notorious resolution of the Cominform,” Tanjug said.

Tito himself displayed no signs of knuckling under. Instead, he took a firmer grip on the Yugoslav government yesterday by shaking up his cabinet in the face of the Cominform challenge to its leadership. He made vice-premier Edvard Kardelj his foreign minister and promoted interior minister Alexander Rankovic to the post of vice-premier. Both men had been singled out by Cominform for criticism.

STANBURY

The many friends of Mrs. Ronald Short will regret to learn that she is a patient at the B. M. P. Hospital, St. Andrews. Latest reports are she is recovering from an operation satisfactorily.

Mr. Ovela Coupal has purchased a tractor. Miss Susan Coupal will teach again in the school in Haseville.

having given him the opportunity to see the work of the varied co-operatives in Ontario.

The itinerary, planned by Mr. Leonard Harman, secretary of the United Farmers Co-operative Co., took the party to the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph, to Toronto and to Niagara Falls. The members visited the co-operatives and historic spots en route. Mr. Horner spoke very enthusiastically of the welcome and entertainment given them by the farm organizations.

Mr. Shufelt, in relinquishing his office, thanked the members for the support they had given him and requested that they carry on as faithfully for Mr. Horner.

A very interesting discussion followed. Co-operative health services was the theme. The members present expressed the belief that it was time for all those vitally concerned over the state of health services for rural families to take an active part in some form of action.

A committee was named, which is to convene in Sutton on Sept. 10 to discuss further the organizational work and to draw up tentative by-laws to be placed before all Forums in the county.

SIDE GLANCES

ENGLISH AND ITALIAN CARS ARE ON DISPLAY

Enviously eyeing the sleek new cars and bright new trucks, visitors to the Automobile Building at the Sherbrooke Fair this year find much to interest them, especially in the showing of English and Italian cars, the largest exhibition of these small, imported cars ever seen in Sherbrooke.

Smartly styled Canadian-made cars of standard size seem to give the smaller cars a haughty glance as they look down on them from their greater height and longer length, and visitors display to examine the many features of the various models on display, comparing notes, asking questions, and generally wishing, small or large, that they could just get in and drive away in one, any one at all!

With the small English cars and trucks predominating the display, the Automobile Building is crowded from early morning until late at night as throngs gather to see the new models, anxiously inquiring from the salesmen on duty when they might have delivery, and comparing notes on the many features, as well as the new prices. Women admire the sleek lines and smart colors, glancing inside to see the upholstery and fittings, while the men want to get under the hood and see the engine, examine the dash, and ask about mileage, etc. The kiddies, too, take a great interest in the automobiles this year, the tiny cars drawing them like magnets as they wish they could have one “all for myself, daddy!”

Seemingly out of place in Automobile Row, two farm machinery exhibits are found in the building, apart from the large display of equipment shown outside. Hodge Motors are showing the Roto-Tiller plow, while Hall Machinery Company of Sherbrooke has a large booth showing their Spiral Rotary Tiller Plow. On the outside there are displays of Massey Harris and Cockshutt farm machinery, Canadian General Insulation, Mussen of Canada Limited industrial machinery, Aluminum housing, precision power saws, etc., while in a spacious park near the entrance is the novel and much appreciated “B-A Rendezvous,” a neat, well-arranged rest center, with easy chairs, tables, umbrellas, and ice water, etc., thanks to the British American Oil Company Ltd. who conduct the “Oasis.”

In the Automobile Building there are several Sherbrooke dealers showing the new cars, both Canadian and imported models, as follows:

Hodge Motors, exhibiting a Kaiser, a Frazier, a Fiat coup (from Italy) and an English Standard sedan, also Excelsior Motor-bikes.

Goodyear Dealers of Sherbrooke have co-operated in the large display of Goodyear Tires shown in this building, too.

Webster Motors Limited have three models of Chevrolet cars on display, a Stylemaster coupe and sedan, a Fleetline Aero sedan, and an Oldsmobile sedan, also two Chevrolet trucks, a 3-4 and a 1-1-2 ton model.

Thibault & Bouchard are showing a Studebaker truck, a Commer English light delivery van and the Hillman Minx sedan, the Commer making its first appearance in Sherbrooke.

Thompson's Garage have a large display of English cars, including the Morris Ten sedan, a Morris light delivery truck and a Morris 8 sedan.

Coombs' Garage is showing an Austin 2-door and an Austin 4-door sedan, as well as an Austin light delivery truck, and one Packard sedan.

Marquis Automobiles are exhibiting three Pontiac Silver Streaks, a 2-door and 2 four-door sedans, and a GMC Light Delivery truck.

The whole building is very attractive, with banners and special displays for the various cars and firms, with baskets of flowers and special lighting adding a colorful note to the unusually large exhibit.

MAGOG INSTALS NEW DIAL TELEPHONES

Magog, Sept. 2.—More than 100 new telephones will be in service in Magog early on Wednesday, Sept. 8, when the installation of additional dial exchange equipment is completed in the Main Street exchange, according to H. E. Walker, Bell Telephone manager for this area.

The new dial equipment will eventually provide service for a total of nearly 700 new subscribers, the manager said. Because of shortages of wire and cable, it is only possible to connect some 100 at this time. The remaining facilities will be allotted to waiting applicants over an extended period of time, as supplies of wire and cable are obtained and put into service.

All applicants, who will receive service next Wednesday, have already been informed, Mr. Walker added.

Rev. Father H. Duffy, of the Sacred Heart Fraternity, is spending a few days at his home here before his departure for Europe.

FLOWERS ARE WELL DISPLAYED AT EXHIBITION

Visitors to the Fair should not overlook the Floricultural building, which, this year particularly, is well worth seeing. The floral exhibits on the ground floor, are more numerous than usual and very tastefully arranged, as are the many fascinating articles in the arts and cooking departments, located upstairs in the same building.

A huge display of cut flowers, exhibited by the City of Sherbrooke, occupies the centre of the large hall and is really breathtaking in its beauty. The City is showing these flowers for exhibition purposes only and is not entering into any competitions.

Other exhibits feature gladioli in brilliant colors, asters, snapdragons, large dahlias, nasturtiums, and marigolds, in a riot of autumn colors. There are also a few lilies, as well as several exhibits of sweet peas and larkspur, in pastel shades, scabiosa, phlox, petunias, and beautiful roses in various sizes and hues.

There is quite a variety of potted plants this year, one of the most predominant being the begonia, which is featured with orange, yellow, pink and red blooms.

In the fine arts section there are attractive hooked rugs, worked in intricate patterns, hand-woven bedspreads and drapes, beautifully embroidered table cloths and cut work, all kinds of knitted and crocheted articles, dresses, nightgowns and bed-jackets, as well as homespun material and blankets. Several attractive luncheon cloths evoked favorable comment, as well as some fine pieces of needlepoint.

The art exhibit, although not very large this year, nevertheless shows evidence of the talent which exists in Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships.

It features charcoal sketches, landscapes in oil and water colors, pastels, attractive Christmas cards, and a few pieces of wood carving.

The canning department is well stocked with peas, string beans, carrots, cucumbers, tomatoes, in short, every vegetable and fruit which is dear to the housewife's heart. There are also appetizing cakes, baking powder biscuits, doughnuts, pies, fancy breads, jelly rolls, and cookies.

A wide assortment of exhibits is found in the Young People's Department and it is gratifying to see the ever increasing interest shown from year to year, by the children.

In the work done by the 13 year olds and under, a blue knitted dress is worthy of mention. It is a very fine and delicate article which must have required great care and patience and is a remarkable accomplishment for a child. The wood work display is also interesting, as are the colorful scrap books, the paintings (some copies and some original designs), coin collections, photographs, snapshots, sketch books, and knitted articles including socks, gloves, mitts, scarves, carriage robes and dresses.

Institution and guidance are evident in the children's cooking. Many an adult could take a lesson from these youngsters who have cookies, cakes, baking powder biscuits, pies and bread on display behind the glass show case.

It is expected that the prize list in both the Floricultural and Fine Arts Sections will be released today.

MORE JOBS
for Young Canadians

TODAY CANADA'S manufacturing capacity has been increased—and diversified — to an extent never thought possible in pre-war years. Now Canada can do more — can make more — offers far more opportunities to young Canadians commencing their careers today. While established industries have been expanding, new ones have been springing up. Over 200 new products formerly imported are now being made here.

EMPLOYMENT figures, too, tell the story of our emergence as one of the world's great industrial nations; today almost twice as many Canadians are engaged in manufacturing as there were before the war.

CAPACITY for steel production doubled; chemical output more than twice 1939 level; pulp and paper mills operating at 50% above pre-war; everywhere the magnitude of the advance is evident.

"... UNTOLD OPPORTUNITIES"

"If one wants to give service and work, Canada is full of untold opportunities — greater than ever. It is well, too, for young Canadians not to overlook small towns and rural parts, because in these places the door is ajar, life can be gloriously free and very full."

... says ROY SHIELDS of Cobocook, Ontario. He and his brother Charles have, by industry and initiative, supported by loyal, hard-working employees, attained a remarkable success as General Merchants in their rural community. Their store has been referred to as the "Biggest Little Department Store" in the country.

DR. C. E. TAYLOR COPS 2.15 TROT AND PACE WITH BILLY JANE

Pat O'Donna Takes Top Money In 2.25 Class As Riot Grattan Wins Second Heat To Upset Mixed Field

Some six thousand people were in the grandstand yesterday afternoon as Dr. C. E. Taylor drove his Billy Jane gelding to cop all three heats in the 2.15 class, while J. C. Wiener teamed his Pat O'Donna to take two firsts, and top money in the 2.25 class.

Dr. Taylor, repeating his previous performances, drove his Billy Jane paces to first place in all heats. Billy Jane walked away from the field in the first and second heats, as Dr. Taylor coasted under the wire. In the third event Lon Direct took the pole from the start, and held on till the three-quarter, but then Billy Jane made his bid and coming up on the outside to cross the wire well out in front.

In the last heat, which was the fastest of the week, Dr. Taylor stepped the first half in 1.04 1/4 and finished the heat in 2.11 for the best time of the day.

In the 2.25 class Pat O'Donna, driven by J. E. Weiner, of Brandon, Manitoba, copied the initial heat dropped the second and came back to take the third and final heat of the afternoon. In the second heat Riot Grattan, owned by A. Russell, of Warden, Quebec, and driven by Lucien "Smoker" Denault upset the field and came home the winner by a good length. R. Grattan paid $122 on the pari-mutuel for the highest investment of the week, only a few bettors had wagers on the horse.

This afternoon the free-for-all pace will be the main event of the afternoon. There is four horses entered in the class and they will fight it out for top money. Thunderbird and Miss Royal Majesty are given a slight edge in the class. The horses, owners, drivers and positions they finished in, follow:

2.15 Trot and Pace
 Billy Jane, Dr. E. Taylor 1 1 1
 (E. Taylor) 1 1 1
 Lon Direct, W. Hebert, ... 2 2 3
 (W. Hebert) 2 2 3

With Feller Back In Form, Indians Become Team To Beat For Pennant

With Bob Feller serving warning that he is once again the master moundman of old, Cleveland Indians loomed today as the team to beat for the American League pennant.

True, the Tribe is in third place, a game and a half behind the leading Boston Red Sox and half a game back of the New York Yankees. However, with Feller apparently returned to form and Bob Lemon to back him on the firing line, the outlook for the Indians appears bright, especially with the schedule so much in their favor.

Feller turned in his second straight sterling performance last night, permitting Philadelphia Athletics only six hits and striking out his season high of nine as the Indians won 8-1.

Judging by the remaining schedule, only a complete collapse on the part of the Indians, or a sensational spurt by either the Red Sox or the Yankees, could cost Cleveland the flag.

The Indians have 28 games left to play, 19 of them at home. In addition only five of the 28 are against first division clubs, and in Cleveland. They have only one piece remaining with the Red Sox and Yankees and three with the fourth-place A's.

On the other hand, the Red Sox must play 18 of their remaining 29 games on the road, with eight against the Yankees, one against the Indians and six against the A's. The Yankees' schedule is even tougher. They play only nine of their remaining 29 games at home and meet Boston eight more times, Cleveland once and Philadelphia five times.

Feller and Lemon should be available for about eight more starts apiece. Two of Lemon's last three efforts resulted in shutouts.

Commissioner Chandler To Probe Detroit Club

Detroit, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The Detroit News said today that baseball Commissioner Albert B. Chandler will crack down within a month or so on a series of minor-league baseball deals involving Detroit Tigers of the American League.

The newspaper said it had learned Chandler is completing an investigation of deals between the Detroit major-league team and the Dallas Team of the Texas League. The transactions involve at least nine players signed by the Tigers and "covered up" in the minor leagues, the News said.

A Detroit baseball club spokesman said the only comment on the reports would have to come from Billy Evans, Tiger general manager. Evans was not available for comment.

The News said Chandler was aiming his attack principally at violations of the rule against so-called "gentlemen's agreements" and evasions of the bonus rule.

The Detroit Club previously hit in 1940 by the action of the late Commission Kewas Mountain Landis, who made free agents of 91 players owned by the Tigers and scattered through the minors.

Talbert-Mulloy May Be Named As Doubles Team

Chestnut Hills, Mass., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Billy Talbert and Gardner Mulloy are the United States National Doubles Tennis Champions for the fourth time. Last Saturday they beat their Davis Cup teammates, Frank Parker and Ted Schroeder, 1-6, 9-7, 6-3, 3-6, 9-7.

Louise Brough and Margaret Osborne Du Pont won their seventh consecutive National Women's Doubles crown.

The Talbert-Mulloy victory virtually ruled out Parker and Schroeder as the official U. S. doubles team in Davis Cup competition.

YESTERDAY'S STARS
 Batting—Yogi Berra, Yankees, homered in the 12th inning to give the Yankees a 5-4 victory over St. Louis Browns.

the Reds 11-1.
 The Brooks' victory over the Cubs was especially gratifying. No only did it atone somewhat for the double licking the Cubs gave them the day before, but they finally managed to whip Schmitz.

The ace Cub southpaw had defeated the Dodgers five times without a setback this season. Preacher Roe pitched the shutout, his second straight.

St. Louis Cardinals swept past Pittsburgh Pirates into third place defeating Philadelphia Phils 4-2 in a night game in St. Louis.

Southpaw Monte Kennedy dumped the Pirates into fourth place by pitching New York Giants to a 3-1 triumph in Pittsburgh.

Cleveland - Brooklyn Picked By Baseball Experts For World Series

New York—(NEA)—With Bob Feller pitching with authority again and a tremendous break in the schedule, the Indians are the choice of the majority of impartial baseball men to win the American League pennant.

The Red Sox lack pitching, can't take Fenway Park's friendly left field wall on the road, and must knife it out with the Yankees.

Spez Shea and Joe Page failed the New Yorks, and the club has no great amount of confidence.

The Athletics have been operating on borrowed time for quite a while.

In the National, the Braves weren't cut out to be where they were, and the patched-up outfit Eddie Dyer led in the end looked like anything but one of the fine Cardinal outfits of the past. Bill Meyer turned in an incredible job in Pittsburgh.

But the Dodgers have too many young and strong arms and too much speed. Otherwise the Brooklyn club could not have come from eighth place, 10 games off the pace, on July 2 to first.

So the close observers see another Brooklyn-Cleveland World Series, which would stir memories. For it was when the clubs last met—in 1920—that a couple of million-to-one shots were put across. In one game at Cleveland's old League Park, the ultimate in offensive and defensive feats were performed.

Elmer Smith smacked a home run with the bases full.

Bill Wambagans made the only unassisted triple play in World Series history.

When—and if—the Indians and Dodgers clinch the flag, these herculean performances will be retold and rehearsed, so you might as well brush up on them now.

Charley Jamieson and Wambagans of the Indians were on base in the first inning, Oct. 10, 1920, when Burleigh Grimes fell down attempting to field what Tris Speaker intended for a sacrifice. It was here that outfielder Smith unloaded his history-making home run over a very short right field fence.

Only one other ballplayer has manufactured a home run with the bases full in a World Series game—Tony Lazzeri of the Yankees against the Giants in the third inning, Oct. 2, 1935.

With Grimes out of there early in a game ultimately won by Jim Bagby, the Old Sarge, and the Indians, 8-1, Clarence Mitchell picked off the pitching burden for the Brooks.

As pitchers go, Mitchell was one of the more accomplished hitters, but on this particular occasion, if memory serves, the left-hander had the dubious distinction of hitting into seven putouts in three times at bat—but double plays and the triple.

In the fifth inning, squatty second baseman Pete Kilduff singled to left, and catcher Otto Miller to center.

Mitchell made a habit of hitting the ball over the second baseman's head, so Manager Speaker had Wambagans playing well back on the grass. With the count three and two, Uncle Wilbert Robinson hung out the hit and run. The runners were off with the pitch, and there it was.

Wambagans grabbed the liner off Mitchell's bat with one hand, sprinted to the bag to double Kilduff, and Miller practically ran into him and the ball as he turned to complete the triple killing.

Well, they're patting what practically amounts to a golf ball these days, and all that is needed for an unassisted triple play is the set-up.

Salmon Named As Canada's Top Swimmer

Vancouver, Sept. 2.—(AP)—Peter Salmon of Victoria has been awarded the Sir Edward Beatty trophy as Canada's outstanding swimmer. It was learned here today.

Salmon, who represented Canada at the Olympics in Breast-stroke and Free-style swimming, succeeds Irene Strong of Victoria as the trophy holder. The 1946 winner was Doris Gelbert of Toronto.

Oakland, Calif.—Bob Foxworth, 176, St. Louis, stopped Leonard Morrow, 176, Oakland (4).

Shorts and Shells
 Vinnie Richards has agreed to advise the American Davis Cup team how to play against Parker Schroeder and Co. this week-end but claims he doesn't know what to tell the Aussies.

He Couldn't Bear It
 After returning from a campaign-fishing-photographing trip to Canada (the photographs were enlarged to match the fish stories) Biggie Munn, Michigan State football coach, remarked: "I heard the wolves howl every night while I was on vacation. I sure hope I don't hear them around here next fall."

Southerns Threaten To Upset U.S. Amateur
 Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Chubby Eugene Dahlbender of Atlanta, Ga., headed a four-man southern filibuster which threatened today to disrupt the usual order of business in the National Amateur Golf Tournament.

Dahlbender had capable mates in veteran Jimmy McGonagill of Shreveport, La.; Ham Carothers of Greenwood, Miss.; and William Barrett of Memphis.

Also considered a threat to the title was Lanky Charles Coe of Oklahoma City.

The South Block figured at the best, however, to provide only booby traps for ex-champions Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash.; Willie Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y.; and the British and Canadian title holder, Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.

Bears Have Slim Chance Of Overtaking Royals

Newark Bears still have a mathematical chance to wrest the International-League flag from Montreal, but their chances are as bright as a 10-watt bulb.

The Royals need only two more victories in their remaining 14 games to clinch the flag. Two Newark defeats or any combination thereof would do the trick, too.

The Bears kept their faint hopes alive last night by sweeping a pair of games from Baltimore, 3-2 and 8-5, while Toronto Maple Leafs were turning back the Royals, 4-3.

Although they picked up a game and a half, the Bears still trail Montreal by 12 1/2 games.

Toronto overcame a 3-0 Montreal lead to nose out the Royals. Stan Lopata drove in the winning run for the Leafs in the eighth.

Veteran Oscar Judd was credited with the victory. Don Newcombe was the loser. He had won his last seven starts.

Rochester and Buffalo divided a doubleheader, the Wings coming back to win the second game 4-2 in 10 innings after Buffalo had capped the opener, 2-1.

Ed Erault earned his 13th victory and his fourth in as many starts against Jersey City as Syracuse Chiefs defeated the Little Giants, 5-2. Clyde Vollmer's 30th homer with one aboard in the first inning highlighted a three-run uprising by the Chiefs.

Miss Looney Retains Pro Swimming Title

Toronto, Sept. 2.—(AP)—An attractive blonde with a ready smile and plenty of fighting spirit, 21-year-old Berniece Looney of Warren, Ohio, is still the Women's Professional five-mile swim champion.

Fighting recurrent cramps during the last half mile of the Canadian National Exhibition's world-title classic yesterday, Miss Looney added to the lead she held from the start to triumph handily over eight other starters and win a total of $2,000.

It was her second successive victory in the big race. She finished more than a half mile ahead of her aunt, May Looney, 38, also of Warren, in the time of 2:31.41, four minutes slower than her finishing time in 1947.

May Looney, who has been swimming for 19 years and finished in the money in the C.N.E. swim eight times, won $750 for second place.

A 22-year-old Toronto mother, Mrs. Winnie Leuzler, who swam under her maiden name of Winnie Roach, also fought off last-mile cramps to finish third, 14 minutes after May Looney. She is the mother of a year-old baby and her father, Ed Roach, said she is expecting another baby in six months.

Back from a Q.R.F.U. meeting in Montreal, Swimmers' Coach Glenn Brown and Secretary Jack Ratray said they had been successful here.

RANGERS TO PLAY BRAVES
 Valleyfield, Que., Sept. 2.—(AP)—Coach Jerry Philbin of Valleyfield Braves, said yesterday that New York Rangers of the National Hockey League will play an exhibition game with the Braves here Oct. 3.

The Quebec Senior Hockey League entry will open its training camp here Sept. 15.

Claro Duany Leads Local Hitters With .388; Trails Connie Creeden And Jimmy Clarkson In Circuit

Big Claro Duany, the heavy slugging right-fielder for the Sherbrooke Baseball Club, is at present holding down third position with a average of .388 while Manager Roland Gladu trails along in fourth spot with .383 according to figures released by Marcel Bouchard, secretary of the Provincial League.

The averages are calculated to August 24th and places five local players over the .300 mark. In the home run department Duany holds down third spot, with a total of 26 round trippers. Jimmy Clarkson is top man with 28, while Joe Atkins, of Farnham, is second with 25, and Dave Pope, also of Farnham, has banged out 23 to tie Duany.

In the hurlers division Adrian Zabala, the local ace southpaw, is 10th man with sixteen wins to seven losses while Paul Calvert is next with ten wins and one loss charged to him and Lou Shapiro swings along with nine and five and Big Ralph McCabe is next with seven and five.

Q.R.F.U. Grants Permission To Dress 30 Players; Quebec Signs Varsity Backfielder For Season

Quebec, Sept. 2.—(AP)—The cessful in fixing all Swimmers football season in Quebec City home games four Sundays instead of Saturdays as in previous years.

Coach Brown said the meeting had also accepted his suggestion that each team playing in a Q.R.F.U. game be permitted to dress 30 players.

Brown's plan is to replace all 12 men on the playing field halfway through each quarter. The half-dozen spare players on Swimmers' bench will be worked into play according to developments.

Swimmers have started their pre-season workouts at Battlefields Park and last night assistant Coach Fred Kovalchuck gave Jack MacReynolds, backfielder with the University of Toronto last year, a chance to show his exceptional ball-carrying ability.

A friend in need...

An important weight in the balance of nature is the Prairie Chicken. By destroying weed seeds, grasshoppers and other insects, it makes the farmer's work easier and more profitable... it helps protect the food you eat.

The Prairie Chicken is a fine game-bird too. Given fair protection, it thrives near farms and towns and can contend with its natural enemies. But bush-fires and over-hunting are two enemies it cannot successfully fight against. The Prairie Chicken needs our help in reducing these threats to its survival.

The Heath Hen, a close relative of the Prairie Chicken, has been extinct since 1933. The forces that exterminated the Heath Hen can destroy the Prairie Chicken unless we act now to protect it.

FOSTER

The annual meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society of the West-Brook and Foster Branch took the form of a morning service in the Bishop Carmichael Memorial Church, on August 15, at which time the Rev. Maynard Booth, district secretary of the branch was the guest speaker, assisted by the Rev. W. A. Bockus, incumbent. Rev. Booth spoke very earnestly of the aims and obligations of the Bible Society, stating that now there are over 3,000 different languages in the world and the translation of the Scriptures covers only a little over 1,000. These want are supplied through the collections made annually by the many branches of the Bible Society. At the close of a very inspiring address, there was a short business meeting. The annual report was presented by the secretary-treasurer, Mrs. N. N. Crowhurst, who in her opening remarks, thanked the Rev. Maynard Booth for his visit to the branch and also for the encouraging words he had given in his address. The amount collected this year by Miss Donna Gibbs, Bruce MacPherson, Allen Perkins and Harry Hartree amounted to $34. The offering was $3.85 making the total of $37.85. Mrs. Crowhurst thanked all the collectors for giving their time to this great work. Officers for 1948-49 are as follows: President, Mr. Harry Hartree; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. N. N. Crowhurst.

BUYS AND WHYS BY Barbara Brent

A weekly shopping and information service for today's woman

MONTREAL, September 2nd.—Beat Labour Day heat with that popular refreshment combination of E. D. Smith's Grape Juice and ginger ale... and, for something different, try adding iced tea in the following proportions: 2 parts dry ginger ale, 2 parts Grape Juice, 1 part iced tea and 1 ice cube. Better make plenty, because the iced tea highlights the full-bodied, refreshing, grapey flavour of E. D. Smith's Grape Juice, so you'll want more and more! Be sure it's E. D. SMITH'S Grape Juice because it's bottled pure and full strength... with all the flavour perfection of Niagara's finest Concord. Include it in this week's shopping list.

50% More Jam Or Jelly From Your Fruit... more appealing colour, more fresh fruit flavour! That's the story when you use Certo, bottled fruit pectin. Certo recipes use fruits at their choicest—fully-ripe, full-flavoured—and retain the precious flavour lost by the long-boil method. Certo cuts boiling time to a fraction—½ to 1 minute for jellies, 1 to 2 minutes for jams. And results are sure, even for beginners, if you follow exactly the tested recipes in the booklet under the label of each Certo bottle. No wonder so many women are turning to Certo, for better jams and jellies.

Can't Think When People were as enthused over a cereal premium as they are over these cute decal transfers KELLOLOGS are putting in packages of PEP. I haven't seen anything quite like them (perfectly natural since they were designed exclusively for Kellogg's). A friend of mine has decorated her kitchen glasses with butterfly transfers and they look gay as a party! The Pep Transfers were intended originally for youngsters, but from what I've seen, grown-ups enjoy them, too. And of course, everyone does enjoy Pep. Pep's made from whole wheat... it's crisp, delicately flavoured—and really good to eat!

Are You Fair To Yourself come housecleaning time... or do you make too much of a chore of it? A happy homemaker I know tells me she's made a point of cultivating time-in-labour-saving habits to simplify housecleaning. One of her favourite time-savers... the weekly habit of cleaning her drains with GILLET'S DRAIN CLEANER. Just two tablespoons a week of this oil-soluble cleaner and your drains will keep them clear and sediment-free! You'll find when drains run free that sinks, tubs and basins are easy to keep bright and sparkling... that this will be one chore you won't have to worry about when you're housecleaning. "A stitch in time..."—so why not put Gillett's Drain Cleaner on your very next grocery order?

Say Good-Bye to big cleaner's bills! With ENERGINE Cleaning Fluid to help whisk away dirt, it's not necessary to send clothes or furnishings to the cleaners at first glimpse of a spot or stain! Enengine removes grease stains like magic from fabrics of all kinds... cleans rugs and drapes—hats and dresses... keeps everything clean as white as a little coat to you! And Enengine is so very simple to use... just follow the directions for results that will really amaze you! Try this—just once... and I know you'll be a satisfied "Energene fan" forever after!

Wonderful Closet Accessories... made of VINYLITE PLASTICS... colourful as can be to make a showplace of your closet—to protect your clothes from moths—from dust—from dirt and dampness! Gleaming and transparent to make identification easy, there are Vinylite Plastic garment bags of all shapes and sizes... beautiful matching pieces in gorgeous colours... Burundy—Silver Blue—Peach Bloom and Spry Green. And they simply won't discolour or crack. You can be absolutely sure of their quality when you see that important "made of Vinylite Plastics" signature. It means they've been tested and approved by "The Better Fabrics Testing Bureau"—and you'll find them in leading stores throughout Canada.

Are You A "Breakfast Skimper?" Even though you know it's not good tactics, is there an occasional morning when time is scarce and a hurried cup of coffee is your breakfast? Time to reform. One wonderful way is to get that good "CREAM OF WHEAT" feeling! Tasty, wholesome 3 Minute "Cream of Wheat" is quick and easy to prepare... cooks to full digestibility in only 3 minutes of boiling. What's more, it's fairly brimming with blood-building iron and it provides Calcium and Phosphorus for diets deficient in these elements. So, you see, "Cream of Wheat" is as good as it tastes! And it tastes wonderful!
