AFTERNOON REPORTS.

SIR MICHAEL HICKS-BEACH ON HOME RULE.

EXTRAORDINARY PRECAUTIONS FOR MR. BALFOUR'S SAFETY.

Collision and Loss of Life at Sea.

FRANCE AND ITALY AT LOGGERHEADS.

WHOLESALE ARREST OF NIHILISTS IN RUSSIA.

Osman Digna on the Warpath.

LONDON, January 18.—At a meeting at Deptford yesterday, a letter was read from Mr. Balfour, declaring that Mr. Blunt's assertion that his sentence had been pre-arranged was without foundation.

Sir Drummond Wolff writes to the Times to contradict Mr. Shaw Lefevre's assertion that Sir Drummond Wolff and the Conservative whip negotiated with Justin McCarthy on the subject of Home Rule. He calls upon Mr. Shaw Lefevre to give the grounds for his statement.

Official anxiety about Mr. Balfour has much increased. The police authorities say he is in greater danger of assassination than ever Mr. Forster was, whose repeated escapes were nothing short of miraculous. These opinions are based not upon the general hatred shown to Mr. Balfour by the Irish leaders and their English allies, but upon specific information which the police believe is absolutely accurate. Plot after plot to murder the Chief Secretary has been formed and frustrated. The Invincibles are steadily at work. They believed they had a chance when Mr. Balfour spoke lately at Manchester and an attempt would certainly have been made had not the police insisted on his sleeping in the Town Hall, which is also the police headquarters. The precautions now taken at Dublin are greater than ever before. The Viceregal lodge, where the Chief Secretary lives, and Phoenix Park, in which the lodge stands, swarms with detectives and he is never allowed to take a step alone. His custom is to walk every morning from the lodge to the gate of the Park, at the gate a carriage is waiting and he drives to the Castle with a strong escort. During the drive, during the time at the Castle, during his return and all night long at the lodge he is surrounded by every safeguard which the wit of the police can advise. Lord Londonderry is thought to be in less danger. He hardly takes more than a formal part in the business of governing Ireland.

There was a trifle easier feeling in financial circles yesterday, owing to the pacific utterance of the Czar reported from Moscow, but the fluctuation, up and down, are of very slight importance, and well informed people here take no stock in Russian professions of a desire of peace, even from the pen of the Czar. Circumstantial accounts of new Russian troop movements were received, one from Brody, on the Galician frontier, announcing the arrival of two regiments of cavalry at Lutzk, the other remodelling the building of a vast military bakery at Rovono. Interviews from Vienna indicate an increasing belief in military and political circles that Russia, despite two months of active preparations, is still far from ready for war and that it is the obvious Austrian policy to mobilize and pitch into her before she is ready.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says the alleged important reduction of the effective strength of the Imperial Guards turns out to be a very small matter; only 1,000 men unfit for service have been dismissed.

The Queen received Dr. Mackenzie yesterday. The doctor reported very favorably on the condition of the Crown Prince of Germany.

During the past three days there has been a noticeable outburst of crime in Vienna. Several murders, attributed to jealousy, robbery and insanity, are reported.

In his speech at Bristol last night, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said: "We must trust to patience to remove the antagonistic feeling in Ireland. We must put aside narrow prejudices, and grant the Irish as great a voice as the Scotch now have in the settling of their own affairs. We must make political officials charged with the administration of the Government directly responsible to Parliament, instead of appointing them to permanent possession and making them responsible to one man. "We must hand over to the local authorities every thing possible that is consistent with the interests of the United Kingdom. He concluded by expressing the belief that the Gladstonians are not stupid enough to obstruct English legislation to the injury of their own influence with the public. He hoped the Government would occupy itself with the questions of local Government and finance and retrenchment.

The Daily News says: "Sir Michael Hicks-Beach takes an independent line, which must lead him toward Gladstone's policy and which has already taken him far beyond the helpless obstinacy of mere coercion."

Lords Hawarden and Orkney have granted their Irish tenants reductions in rent hitherto refused.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 18—The steamer "Toronto," from Portland, reports that during a fog off Skerries, Ireland, she collided with and sank the Norwegian bark "Freidis," Capt. Larsen, from Liverpool for Savannah and that 13 of the bark's crew were drowned. Only one man was saved. The "Toronto" was slightly damaged.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18—W. J. Lane, member of Parliament for the Eastern Division of Cork, has been sentenced to a month's imprisonment without labor for inciting tenants to resist bailiffs.

PARIS, Jan. 18—Charles Ferry has brought an action for libel against M. Rochefort, of the Intransigeant, for accusing him of realizing 15,000,000 francs from dealing in Tunisian bonds, through a knowledge of State secrets imparted to him by Jules Ferry.

The Republique Francaise has a telegram from Rome which says that M. Flourens, the French Foreign Minister, has complained to Signor Crispi, the Italian Foreign Minister, of Italy's delay in settling the Florence Consulate incident, and warned Signor Crispi if the Italian Judge at Florence executes his threat to re-enter the French Consulate and seize the papers sought after, France will recall her ambassador and take such measures as the honor and interest of the country demand. The incident mentioned consisted of a breach of consular rights on the part of the Florence police, who searched the French Consulate for papers connected with a pending law suit.

BERLIN, Jan. 18—Emperor William has assented to the holding of the annual ball at the Opera House. The date will probably be February 9.

SUAKIM, Jan. 18—Osman Digna's force was attacked yesterday and dispersed by friendly tribes. The rebels afterward rallied and compelled the friendly tribes to retreat. Col. Ketchener and Major McMurdo were wounded. Six friendly natives were killed and twenty wounded.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan 18—Gen. Gresser, prefect of St. Petersburg, on the night of January 12 ordered that numerous houses be searched. The result was the arrest of 887 persons. One house was set on fire by the occupants and several Nihilist printing machines and a large number of revolutionary pamphlets were burned. The contrabands were arrested.

PESTH, Jan. 18—The Pester Lloyd says Russia's candidate for the Bulgarian throne is the Voivade Marko Milanoff, of Kuesi, a leading Montenegrin commander. The paper considers, however, that he has even less chance of success than the Prince of Mingrelia.

Ayer's Hair Vigor improves the beauty of the hair and promotes its growth. It prevents the accumulation of dandruff, cleanses the scalp, and restores a natural color to gray hair. Have you received Ayer's Almanac for the new year?

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, Jan. 18—The Baptist Union has accepted the Rev. Mr. Spurgeon's resignation. The committee appointed to wait upon him and request him to reconsider his determination to resign, reported that its efforts to effect a reconciliation were without avail.

The trial of Cunningham Graham, M. P. for Lanarkshire, and Mr. Burns, the Socialist leader, for participating in the riots near Trafalgar Square on Nov. 13, was concluded today. The prisoners were declared not guilty of the charges of rioting and of assault, but guilty of the charge of taking part in an unlawful assembly. They were sentenced to six weeks' imprisonment.

The first steamer of a new line, the vessels of which are to be fitted with tanks to convey petroleum from the United States to Europe, has been launched at Greenock.

A committee has been appointed with Mr. Goschen as chairman, to consider various proposals for reform in the Navy Department.

A convoy of prisoners while being taken from Penth, Russia, to the Caucacus mutinied and attacked the engine driver. The train was stopped and a desperate fight ensued, in which 8 soldiers, two gend'armes and thirty one prisoners were killed. Twenty-one prisoners escaped.

BELFAST, Jan. 18—The Ulster Liberal Unionist Committee have resolved to request Lord Hartington to express to the Government their regret at the postponement of the reform of local Government in Ireland.

DUBLIN, Jan. 18—Father Matthew Ryan, who was imprisoned at Limerick for a month for inciting the people to illegal acts in connection with the plan of campaign, was released to-day. Ten thousand persons were collected around the prison, and he was received with loud cheers. The Mayor, Sheriff, Municipal Council and many clergymen congratulated him upon his release. The crowd escorted Father Ryan 14 miles to his parish at Herbertstown. The police followed the whole distance, but were delayed when half way to Herbertstown by a car which had been drawn across the road. Father Ryan was thus enabled, on his arrival home, to address the people without interference. He advised the tenants to adopt the plan of campaign, which, he said, was moral and just, notwithstanding everything that lords, both spiritual and temporal, said to the contrary.

A Nationalist meeting announced to be held at Ballygawley, County Tyrone, to-morrow, has been proclaimed.

The Conference of the Church of Ireland, in session here, has sustained the view taken by the Primate of the Church, that the position of Professor Galbraith as a member of the Finance Committee of the Church is incompatible with his membership of the National League. Prof. Galbraith has in consequence intimated that he will resign from the Church Committee.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Jan. 18—The Paris states that Premier Tirard has rejected the Budget Committee's decision touching the taxation of the liquor traffic, and will make the acceptance of his proposals regarding the matter a Cabinet question. Several of the Ministers, the Paris adds, oppose M. Tirard and a crisis is imminent.

The Paris urges the Government to demand complete satisfaction from Italy for the indignity offered to the French Consulate at Florence, and in the event of a failure by Italy to comply to sever the relations between France and Italy and expel Italians from France.

A priest in the Rouen Cathedral personated God in a dialogue with the devil. The congregation became incensed and hissed and sang the "Marseillaise" and "Revenant de la Revue." The police were called upon to quell the disorder. They made several arrests but failed to clear the Cathedral.

The strained relations with Italy depressed commercial and financial business to-day. The Bourse was heavy. Several evening papers attack Italy and La France alludes to Premier Crispi as "Bismarck's valet." The French Consul at Florence has received instructions as to the course to pursue in case the incident is prolonged.

It is semi-officially announced that Count De Mony, the French Ambassador at Rome, having informed M. Flourens that the Practor of Florence had intimated his intention to remove on Friday the seals affixed by the French Consulate to the documents relating to the Hussein succession, M. Flourens has requested Count De Mony to inform Signor Crispi that if such an act of violence is committed the French Government will hold Italy responsible.

M. Flourens, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Count Menabrea, the Italian Ambassador, had a friendly interview this evening. An early settlement of the dispute over the Florence incident is now certain.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, Jan. 18—The committee of the Reichstag to day disposed of the Landwehr clauses of the military bill, and adopted an amendment relating to the period of service for the second ban, the effect of which will be to enable men entering the active army before their twentieth year, to leave the Landwehr earlier. In the course of the sitting General Von Schellerdoff, the Minister of War, stated that the measure would give the army in time of war an addition of nearly 700,000 trained men. The cost is estimated at between 80,000,000 and 100,000,000 marks. The committee approved the bill without further amendments.

The Russian Government has renewed its anti-German measures in the Baltic Provinces. Forty Lutheran clergymen in Livonia have been deprived of their benefices without a moment's notice, because they used only the German language. The Czar revives the post of Governor of the three provinces, and that official will be specially responsible for Russianizing measures. The Polish circle in Vienna has received an accession of strength in the persons of the exiled nobles hitherto residing in France and Italy. They have learned from Warsaw that secretly printed proclamations unauthorized by the Polish nationalists, bearing the arms of Poland and Austria are being circulated in Warsaw. These proclamations call upon the Poles to rise in view of the impending war. The directors of Polish journals in Galicia held a conference in Lemberg and decided to maintain the greatest reserve, and to warn Prussian Poles against the men who are trying to incite a rising.

ITALY.

SAN REMO, Jan. 18—The Crown Prince still keeps to the house. He has a slight cold.

ROME, Jan. 18—Advices from Massowah say that General San Marzano, the Italian Commander, had reconnoitered as far as Saati and had found no trace of the Abyssinians.

The Riforma announces that the Government will postpone the removal of the seals placed on the Hussein documents by the French Consulate at Florence, but declines to be responsible for the acts of the judicial authorities there.

BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 18—The troubles among the Belgian miners are being renewed. Many of them have already quit work. The men in a large colliery at Paturages, near Mons, struck to-day without notice.

It ought to be an easy thing for the bakers' union to get up a dough nation party.

CANADIAN REPORTS.

MONTREAL'S NEW CHIEF OF POLICE.

SIR JOHN A. MACDONALD IN TORONTO.

The Ocean Mail Contract.

MR. McCOLL'S ANNEXATION VIEWS

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS IN THE SISTER CITY.

(Per C. P. Tel. Line)

QUEBEC.

MONTREAL, Jan. 18—Hon. Mr. McShane failed to put in an appearance this morning to answer the proceedings against him for bribery and corruption during the recent electoral contest in Laprairie. Mr. W. H. Kerr, Q.C., was present on behalf of the Minister of Public Works and asked for a short stay of proceedings, in order that he might examine the record in the case and file preliminary objections. The Court fixed Friday for the hearing of these objections.

Mr. Prefontaine, M.P., on behalf of Mr. Goyette, produced an affidavit to the effect that his client was still down with typhoid fever, and would be unable to appear in Court before one month. He therefore wanted the proceedings for his personal disqualification stayed for that length of time. His Honor declared that the case had already been postponed for one month, and that it would have to go on.

There appears to be nothing but uncertainty as yet regarding the new ocean mail contract. The manager of the Allan line states that there has been no further arrangement suggested, and that the position, so far as he knew, is unchanged from what it was when the first tenders were put in. He had heard nothing regarding the suggestion to make the railway companies contribute towards the increased subsidy. Everything now depends on the Government. Tenders are in and they merely have to come to a decision. Mr. Andrew Allan stated that he expected the Government would come to a decision shortly.

Another fire occurred this afternoon in the building occupied by the Royal Insurance Company. Flames burst from a recess in the wall on the first flat. The fire had originated amongst a heap of rubbish and had found its way up to the next flat before being got under. A perfect deluge of water was thrown on the flames and ran down stairs into the offices of the Insurance Company. The damage by fire is slight. The whole amount will be covered by $500.

Sir Hector Langevin arrived in the city from Ottawa this afternoon and is stopping at the St. Lawrence Hall, having come for the purpose of consulting with the Harbor Commissioners and others interested in the proposed harbor improvements. During the day Sir Hector was the recipient of many callers, including Messrs. Bulmer and Hudon, and others of the Harbor Commission. While Sir Hector declined to express his views on this all important question, it is known that the proposition laid before the Government by the Harbor Commissioners and the statement of their position are receiving very careful attention from him, and he has lost no time in taking up the question. The Commissioners have represented to him that until the Lake St. Peter debt is assumed by the Government they can do nothing, and their propositions, together with the opinion of the Minister of Public Works, will be laid before the Council at one of its earliest meetings. As the Minister of Public Works is known to be well disposed to the extension of traffic and the improvement of the harbor, it is thought probable his recommendations will be in the direction of favoring the plans of the Commissioners. In conversation, Sir Hector said that he had no doubt the immense traffic from the west would in a short time necessitate the construction of wharves at other points as well as Montreal, such as Three Rivers. But for the present year the steamship accommodation would probably be sufficient. Sir Hector will attend a meeting of the Junior Conservative Club to-night.

Col. Rhodes, of Quebec, delivered a very interesting lecture last night in the rooms of the Natural History Society on "Winter Blooming Plants." The culture of flowers for winter use was minutely described and the lecture practically illustrated.

Fahey's lawyers have given up their intention of going to Ottawa to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. The accused will therefore remain in gaol until the 1st of March, when they will stand their trial before the Court of Queen's Bench.

The heavy snow storm of last evening has rendered the country roads impassable. The Grand Trunk trains were fairly on time. The Montreal and Sorel and the Central Vermont were about two hours late. The incoming locomotives were covered with about six inches of frozen snow, testifying to the severity of the storm through which they had passed.

The traffic earnings of the Canadian Pacific for the week ending January 14th, amounted to $176,000 as against $148,000 during the corresponding week of 1887. An increase of $28,000. This is exclusive of the earnings on the South Eastern section.

Sir Donald A. Smith has sent a cheque for $50 to the St. Pierre Benevolent Society, for the benefit of their soiree to be held on the 25th instant, at the Cabinet de Lecture Parois.

Mr. William James Whitehead, Manager of the Hochelaga Cotton Company, died this morning at his residence on Summerhill Avenue. The deceased was well known in business circles.

The Police Committee this afternoon considered the applications for Chief of Police. A large number of Aldermen were present. At the commencement Ald. J. Grenier suggested only making a six months' appointment and this was agreed to. The committee decided to report to the Council in favor of Capt. Heigham's appointment.

Yesterday afternoon fire broke out in the C.P.R. storeroom, Barrack street. It originated amongst some unclaimed baggage. In a short time the flames were extinguished. The damage will amount to between $1,000 and $2,000.

Miss Margaret McTavish, daughter of J. H. McTavish, Land Commissioner of the Canadian Pacific Railway, was married yesterday morning to Dugald MacTavish, son of the late Governor MacTavish, of Assiniboine. The ceremony took place at St. Joseph's Church, Bishop Clut, of the North West Territories, officiating. Among the guests present were Sir Donald and Lady Smith, Miss Smith, Monseigneur Clut, Mrs. and Miss VanHorne, Mr. and Mrs. Drinkwater.

Mrs. Flora Samuels has been committed to the Court of Queen's Bench on the charge of bringing stolen goods into the country. No charge of forgery has been laid against her.

ONTARIO.

OTTAWA, January 18—The young man R. Royer who was frozen while lost in the woods near Buckingham a few days ago, had both his feet amputated at the Water street Hospital yesterday.

On Monday evening James Doherty, of Wakefield, when on the road home from the city after dark, was accosted by a man who asked him if he smoked, answering in the affirmative, he was handed a pipe and proceeded to enjoy the luxury of the weed, while so engaged he was robbed of a gold watch. The act, however, being clumsy and the perpetrator being detected in the deed, the cold muzzle of a six shooter was held near his head by Mr. Doherty, who demanded the immediate restoration of the stolen valuables, accompanying his demand with a threat that in default of compliance he would blow his brains out. The thief handed the stolen property back and vanished in the darkness.

The Department of Justice received a letter to-day signed by several Sault Ste. Marie lawyers protesting against the outrage of the Sheriff from Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan, in crossing into Canada and seizing an escaped prisoner. It appears that a man named Nixon, imprisoned in Michigan for arson, escaped and gained Ontario territory. A Sheriff and his officers followed and captured him and took him back to Michigan gaol. This was of course illegal, and the department here is communicating with Washington over the affair.

TORONTO, January 18—David Henderson, banker, of Acton, has been nominated by the Conservatives of Halton for the seat recently declared vacant by the Election Court.

Sir John A. Macdonald visited the Free Library yesterday and promised to give his favorable consideration to the repeal of duty on books not possible of production in Canada.

Wm. Selby, late senior partner of Selby & Co., paper makers and stationers, was arraigned before the Police Magistrate this morning, charged with forging the name of Taylor Bros to a promissory note for $3,000. Two fresh charges were laid against him for forgery, one on a note for $4,000 and the other a note for $1,500 The counsel for the prosecution stated that the total forgeries amounted to $15 688. The prisoner was remanded for a week, bail being fixed in two sureties of $10,000 each.

The following special cable appears in this morning's Globe:—London, Jany. 17—The issue of £750,000 sterling of Canadian Pacific Algoma Branch 5 per cent. first mortgage bonds has been a remarkable success. The issue was announced late last night and early this afternoon the list closed with £5 000,000 sterling subscribed, although some financial critics had declared the price of issue, 98½ per cent., too high. This unusual degree of success is partly due to the opportune time of the issue. The stock and money markets were all ke favorable. The bonds mature 1st July, 1937.

The Highland Land League urge on the Secretary of State for Scotland that the British Columbia emigration scheme will not settle the crofter question. The real remedy, they say, is a further amendment of the Crofter's Act.

LONDON, January 18—Ex Banker Taylor has had another charge of embezzlement made against him. It is not believed his counsel will now apply for bail. Meanwhile he occupies a prison cell. At the Middlesex Assizes yesterday the case of R. M. Meredith against Taylor, a claim for the par value of 150 shares in the Ontario Investment Association, was decided, judgment being given for the plaintiff for $15,337 and costs.

MANITOBA.

WINNIPEG, Jan 18—Telegrams from St. Paul, Min., say the number of fatalities in Dakota, Minnesota and neighboring States will reach over two hundred. The Minneapolis Journal reports 153 deaths and the St. Paul Despatch 159, with a number of missing. It is thought there are a large number of school children, 31 being reported lost in Turner County.

The morning Free Press gives the following as the new Cabinet: Greenway, Premier and Provincial Treasurer; Joseph Martin, Attorney General and Railway Commissioner; Smart, Minister of Public Works; Jones, Provincial Secretary; the French representative has not yet been selected.

Another Reform caucus was held this morning when it was decided to accept Mr. Prendergast as French representative, and he will possibly be sworn in before Thursday. A. F. Martin is furious, and it is probable that he may change the decision of the caucus to-night or early to-morrow. The new Cabinet will be sworn in to-morrow morning. The Conservatives will oppose, and probably beat Prendergast and Jones, if the latter runs in South Winnipeg.

In the case of the Attorney-General for the Dominion against Ryan & Haney, contractors for the building of the Red River Valley Railway, an application was made to-day for a perpetual injunction to restrain the defendants from further entering upon, or in any way interfering with, certain lots through which a part of the line is already constructed. There were two cases, in each of which application was granted without costs, no resistance being offered on the part of the contractors.

C. P. R. officials state that the reports regarding a wheat blockade are grossly incorrect. During the past two weeks the company has moved much more grain than delivered. Shortage of cars in Minnesota and Dakota is treble what it is on the C. P. R. The increase of storage at Fort William will prevent a blockade this year.

The body of Edward Meers, who strayed from Saskatoon during Wednesday's storm, was found to-day near Clarke's Crossing on the South Saskatchewan by Indians. This makes the second death in the Canadian against over 200 in the American North-West.

NOVA SCOTIA.

HALIFAX, N.S., Jan. 17—The people of Pictou are treating Mr. McColl's annexation views as a huge joke. Mr. McColl is an inveterate punster. He was elected to the legislature as a joke and his annexation advocacy is merely a practical joke. Because the electors refuse to treat it seriously, and did not press a vote of censure at Friday night's meeting, Mr. McColl is making his new "fad" still more ludicrous by alleging that his constituency unanimously approved of it.

When the "bloods" and "dudes" of Halifax were funking from going to the Northwest in the Halifax provisional battalion, the patriotic indignation of Lostford Woolrich, a Halifax boy then in New York, was aroused and he telegraphed Capt. A. G. Cunningham, volunteering to throw up his New York situation and fight the rebels. Captain Cunningham accepted the offer and Woolrich joined the battalion at Montreal, where he was immediately made a sergeant. He was one of the bravest and most popular non-commissioned officers in the battalion. After his return he became a traveller for the dry goods house of W. & C. Silver. For some time past he has been very low spirited, it is supposed from love affairs. Some time ago he gave up a Halifax girl and engaged himself to a Sydney girl, whom he was shortly to marry. He went to Cape Breton on a trip and was to have driven to see his affianced this morning, but twenty minutes before the team was to start he hung himself with a small satchel strap, in the sample room. He left a letter addressed to his mother saying he was in great trouble and had committed a great crime, but it would soon be all over and bidding her farewell. The great sin is believed to be a delusion of his imagination. His suicide caused a great sensation here. His father was recently lost in the woods for eleven days without food or water and is still suffering from the effects of the exposure.

George Dixon, a brother of Sergeant Louis Dixon, a Northwest veteran, fell on the ice yesterday, broke a blood vessel and died in convulsions.

AMERICAN.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18—Mr. Lamar took the oath of office as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States.

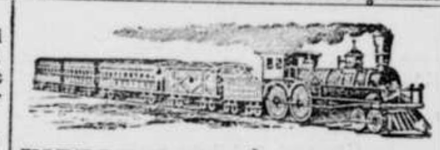

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 18—Charles Gray, living near Lekonah, died yesterday from exposure in Thursday's storm. Miss Lomer Royce, a school teacher stationed 8 miles from Plain View, had three pupils on the day of the storm She started at two o'clock with the children for a house twenty rods distant but lost her way. All lay down in the snow and Miss Royce wrapped up the little ones as best she could. Early in the night one child died, and later a second one, and just as morning broke the third child succumbed to the cold. Miss Royce then managed to reach the house less than twenty rods away. Both her feet are badly frozen and will have to be amputated. A school teacher and eight children (names unknown) are reported from Religh to have perished. Five men named Stickle, brothers, are reported from the same place to have been frozen to death, also an old man named Gloses, and a boy named Miller. Mrs. Miller, the boy's mother, was also badly frozen and will lose both legs.

WASHINGTON, Jan 18—The Fisheries Conference resumed its session to-day.

The Government of Portugal has notified the Secretary of State that it has renounced the protectorate over Dahomey which it assumed by a treaty concluded in 1885. The efforts of Portugal to control the King of Dahomey and abolish human sacrifices and other barbarous customs have proved unsuccessful, and the Portuguese Government has therefore renounced the protectorate and declared itself absolved from all responsibility for the future actions of the Dahomese.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18—The American Society of Civil Engineers to-day elected J. C. Keefer, of Ottawa, as President.

Reading by lamplight probably accounts for the different shades of opinion.

"The Century Magazine is doing more than any other private agency to teach America people the true meaning of the words Nation and Democracy. It is a great magazine and doing a great work."—Phila. Daily News.

THE CENTURY MAGAZINE

Begins its new volume (the 35th) with a magnificent November number containing the beginning of a powerful novel by Edward Eggleston (author of "The Hoosier Schoolmaster") and charming three-part story by Geo. W. Cable. It contains also "The President-elect at Springfield," by the private secretaries of Abraham Lincoln,—as interesting as a novel and full of facts hitherto unpublished. The writers of the Lincoln History, having completed their preliminary work, now enter upon the more personal and important part, to be called "Lincoln in the War." A great feature of the November CENTURY is the paper on "The Last Appeal of the Russian Liberals," being the first of the long-expected series on and the Exile System," by George Kennan who has recently returned from a journey of 15,000 miles through Russia and Siberia (accompanied by an artist), undertaken at the expense of THE CENTURY. Mr. Kennan knew the language thoroughly, he visited all the prominent Siberian prisons, and made the acquaintance of some 300 Nihilists and Liberals—and the papers which he is now writing for THE CENTURY will form the most thorough and graphic study of the Exile System that has yet been made. All dealers sell the November CENTURY; price 35 cents, $4.00 a year.

QUEBEC, THURSDAY, JAN. 19, 1888.

TIMELY TOPICS.

Nothing but an appeal to the people will settle the Manitoba question. Parties are so evenly divided that a general election alone can restore order out of chaos, and as Mr. GREENWAY, the new Premier and Treasurer, will make the appeal at the head of a ministry composed of fresh material, it will occasion little surprise, we think, if he were to secure a working majority at the polls. The HARRISON deal proved a veritable fiasco, and the Doctor not only lost his Government, but before the sun had sunk to rest he also was deposed by his party, and the old chieftain, Mr. NORQUAY, was again raised to the leadership of the Conservatives.

Late returns from Manitoba say that on counting noses it is found that the balance of power is held by three gentlemen who claim to be Independents. They are Messrs. BROWN, GLASS and MCARTHUR,—the latter elected the other day. The Reformers number sixteen, and sixteen also are claimed by the Conservatives. Mr. GREENWAY expects to secure the support of at least two of the Independents on general measures, but with so slender a majority he can scarcely hope to carry on affairs, with any degree of success. Among the principle measures that may be looked for, from his administration, is a redistribution bill. There is likely to be energetic opposition over this bill. Mr. GREENWAY expects that it may cost him his Cabinet, but he is resolved to stand or fall by it. Should he fall, he will ask the Lieutenant-Governor for an early dissolution of Parliament. This, His Honour, will be disposed to grant, doubtless, as it seems the only feasible way out of the difficulty. Probably, if the whole truth were known, Mr. GREENWAY courts defeat on some measure, feeling confident that a general election, with a decent political cry, might help the fortunes of him and his party.

Mr. MERCIER has given us all the slip, and instead of going to Florida, or Georgia for the benefit of his health, he has resolved to put the sea between himself, and his untiring suite. His personally-conducted tour to New York, was accomplished without a mishap, but while his friends drove down to the depot to see him off by one of the trains, he quietly hailed a cab, and drove to a wharf, and embarked on an ocean-bound steamer. He will probably visit France, and beyond a doubt, he will make a pilgrimage to Rome to see the pictures and the statuary, though he might see some prettier things in that line, in Florence, the collections therein, really surpassing those of the world. While in London, of course, Mr. MERCIER, will look in at his brokers and see how his loan is getting along. The Credit Lyonnais is, we understand, a very strong concern, being worth at least four times the capital of the Bank of Montreal. He may also run over to Ireland, and make a speech or two on Home Rule, while the Scotch will not rest satisfied unless he braves the blasts and swirling waters to secure a foothold on Lewis, where the crofters await his coming, with open arms. Indeed, there is no end of places that Mr. MERCIER might not visit, for the benefit of his health. And now that he is at last away, we would advise him to make the most of his opportunities. He needs rest, and Mr. TURCOTTE is managing the Government very well, in his absence, while Mr. MCSHANE continues to maintain his solidity with the workingman. As the snow drifts increase in volume, so mounts higher Mr. MCSHANE's wide-earned popularity. WORDSWORTH's primrose made the fortune of Lord BEACONSFIELD, and it is now the emblem of a club. It will be in order for the Minister of Public Works to cultivate the snow-drop.

At least one member of the Local Parliament of Nova Scotia, is dissatisfied with things as they are in that Province. Mr. JEFFREY MCCOLL, M.P.P., for Pictou, addressed his constituents the other night and told them that the Local House ought to be abolished instanter. He recommended his people to put in its place, County Councils. He thought that we were too much governed. In that opinion he is not far wrong. Further he said:—

"The Legislature must be abolished—even if direct taxation be resorted to. If this were done there would be less expended on our worse than useless Legislature in Halifax. As a people, we are too much governed and there is too much paraphernalia connected with it, all of which adds largely to the cost. The only objection against its abolition would be that we would lose $60,000 per year for legislative expenses; and besides, there would be no offices to distribute among the camp followers. He complained of the Legislative Council, and wanted it done away with. In making appointments to that body a written pledge was taken that when the question of the abolition of the Council came up these appointees would vote for it. A majority had been appointed since the rule was adopted, and if such be the case that these pledges are on file, the appointed have violated their pledges and the Governor should dismiss them and appoint new ones. If the Government do this their skirts will be clean; but if not, they have to take the responsibility of getting clear of this useless body. Mr. McColl went on to refer to acts passed last session, and attacked members for having their names incorporated in certain private bills. He next took up annexation, and said though Governments should rise or fall he would ever put country before party. He was not only prepared to repeat that he was a repealer and an annexationist, but to justify the statement. He advocated 'annexation in the interests of the Province, the Dominion, the empire and the world. The people of the United States and of Canada are the children of the people of Great Britain and Ireland. With the people of the United States, Canada and the West Indies on this side of the Atlantic as one nation, and Great Britain on the other side with her colonial possessions in Asia, Africa and Australasia as another nation, having an offensive and defensive treaty with one another, there would be no more wars and the world could be controlled by them.' Mr. McColl proceeded to explain what in his opinion annexation would do for Pictou county and Nova Scotia generally by bringing in American capital to develope its resources."

NOTES AND NEWS.

HERE AND ELSEWHERE.

LOCAL AND OTHERWISE.

Personal Intelligence.

Thos. Bell, Esq., of Montreal, is in town.

The Hon. George Terry, of Idaho, arrived in the city yesterday, looking well, as usual.

The Hon. Mr. Longley, Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, will arrive here on Saturday.

Mr. Thos. Chapais, editor of the Courrier du Canada, has gone to St. Denis de Kamouraska for a few days.

Hon. Mr. Garneau, through having been suddenly indisposed at Havre, could not leave on Saturday for Canada as expected.

Lieut.-General Dyett, of the New York State Militia, returned to his winter quarters, Staten Island yesterday afternoon, by the C. P. R.

Every political circle in London is interested in the news that Miss Sybil Disraeli is to be married to Mr. Selwyn Calverley. The young lady is a daughter of Mr. Ralph Disraeli, brother of the late Prime Minister, a shrewd, worthy man, though not a genius. Lord Beaconsfield never sought to push his brother's fortunes, although he obtained for him the post of deputy clerk of Parliament, with a comfortable salary. Moreover, the author of "Vivian Grey" left the bulk of his property to Ralph's eldest son, who is now at Oxford and is said to be showing signs of great promise. Ralph named most of his children after characters in his brother's novels. One son is called Coningsby and the daughter Sybil. And she is well named, for she is as bright and charming as the original heroine. She has her uncle's peculiar epigrammatic force and brilliant wit. People are looking forward with interest to the entrance into public life of Coningsby Disraeli. What a trying ordeal will be his first speech in the House of Commons! Meanwhile everybody wishes long life and happiness to Miss Sybil Disraeli.

Joncas and John J. N. Savage, of Grand River.

At a meeting of the above directors held on 28th December, 1887, Mr. Joseph A. Lavoie, Prothonotary of Gaspe, was elected President, Mr. James Baker, Warden of the County, Vice-President, and Mr. James M. Remon, re-elected Secretary Treasurer.

OPINIONS OF THE PEOPLE.

(To the Editor of the Morning Chronicle.)

DEAR SIR,—In this morning's paper the Y. M. C. A. report for the past year is made to specify as one of the addresses delivered under its auspices that given by Canon Wilberforce in the Y. M. C. A. last May, on Gospel Temperance. Now, sir, I cannot imagine how such an error crept in, as Canon Wilberforce certainly spoke under the auspices solely of the Women's Christian Temperance Union; and not to make this correction would be to place that Union in a false position. The eloquent Divine himself said that he was "proud to speak under the auspices of that noble band of devoted Christian women," and as a matter of fact he was invited by them to deliver that address before he had crossed the Atlantic; or rather the invitation awaited his arrival in the hands of the Bishop of New York.

Grand Railway Jubilee.

SAULT STE. MARIE EN FETE.

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., Jan. 18—The "Soo" celebrated all day yesterday and today. Guests have been continually arriving to attend our grand railway jubilee. The members of the reception committee greeted all with a warm reception at the different railway stations. The following railroads are well represented: The Canadian Pacific, "Soo" line and the Duluth, the South Shore and Atlantic. This afternoon the opening procession started at 2 30, headed by the seven Indian dog trains which carried the mail to the Sault from 1875 to 1880. Next came the different civic societies, Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Knights of Labor, fire and police departments and the railway officials. Arches were erected on Water, Portage and Spruce streets, also one at the railway station, and the whole town was tastefully decorated for the occasion. At one o'clock a national salute of thirty-eight guns were fired from Fort Brady. The procession was enlivened by music from Milwaukee and Marquette. Letters of regret were received from the President of the United States and others, all of which express their heartiest sympathy in the celebration. The "Soo" presents a beautiful appearance in its winter garb, the International Bridge and St. Mary's Rapids showing to great advantage. The banquet which takes place at the "Iroquois" this evening, will be an elaborate affair. Seats have been ordered for four hundred persons, and the bill of fare will be the finest, costing $10 per plate. The banquet hall at the "Iroquois" is decorated in gorgeous style.

Another special train arrived from Marquette at six o'clock with two hundred invited guests and the Marquette band aboard. They met with a warm reception at the station. The prominent persons of the party were Governor Swinford, of Alaska, Mayor Nester and Wm. McArthur. The banquet hall at the "Iroquois" presents an enchanting appearance. The wall and ceiling are covered with evergreens and bunting. The table, which is loaded with the choicest delicacies, has accommodation for three hundred. The principal decoration is a model of the international bridge made of choice and fresh flowers. The banquet, which took place at 10 o'clock in the evening was a great success.

The Work Done in the I. C. R. Yard.

let that cold of yours run on. You think it is a light thing. But it may run into catarrh. Or into pneumonia. Or consumption.

Catarrh is disgusting. Pneumonia is dangerous. Consumption is death itself.

The breathing apparatus must be kept healthy and clear of all obstructions and offensive matter. Otherwise there is trouble ahead.

All the diseases of these parts, head, nose, throat, bronchial tubes and lungs, can be delightfully and entirely cured by the use of Boschee's German Syrup. If you don't know this already, thousands and thousands of people can tell you. They have been cured by it, and "know how it is, themselves." Bottle only 75 cents. Ask any druggist.

ROUND TOWN.

The Latest Local Intelligence.

—The police arrested one Lacroix last midnight lying drunk in Glacis street.

—The storm abated last night and the weather seemed to be much milder.

—We regret to learn of the serious illness of Senator Trudel, director of L'Etendard.

—A defendant was arrested yesterday on a warrant charging him with drunkenness and assaulting his wife.

—His Eminence Cardinal Taschereau paid a pastoral visit yesterday to the Convent of the Congregation of St. Roch's.

—An enquete was continued at the Police Court yesterday in the case of Lepine, accused of robbery at Guay's restaurant.

GREGORIAN CHANT.—Mgr. Langevin, of Rimouski, has ordered the use of the Gregorian chant, such as is heard in the churches of Rome, for all the churches in his own diocese.

—His many friends will be delighted to learn that Mr. Duchastel, Chancellor of the French Consul Generalship of Canada, has been appointed by his Government an officer of the Academy.

MASON & HAMLIN.—The Mason & Hamlin upright piano used on Tuesday evening at the reception of the Lieut.-Governor, at the Canadian Institute, has been much admired by connoisseurs and highly praised by every one.

ST. SAUVEUR—Mr. F. Kirouac has been re-elected Mayor of St. Sauveur. At a meeting of the Municipal Council held the night before last, Mr. Antoine Rousseau was re-engaged Secretary-Treasurer, and Mr. Giroux Assistant-Secretary.

YOUNG LADIES' JOURNAL—Capt. Holiwell has received the February number of the Young Ladies' Journal, the favorite fashion magazine of England. It is full of light and entertaining reading matter, suitable fashion plates, patterns, &c. The colored plate is also very attractive.

Y. M. C. A. LECTURE POSTPONED.—Hon. Mr. Longley will not arrive in time to deliver his lecture on Friday evening, having unfortunately missed the train leaving Halifax yesterday. The lecture is consequently postponed until Saturday evening, as will be seen by the alteration in the advertisement.

MUNICIPAL.—Mr. William J. Pratten, of South Ireland, Megantic, has been again unanimously elected Councillor for the Township of South Ireland, and at the following meeting of the Council was elected for the seventh time to the Mayoralty. Mr. Pratten is a son of H. J. Pratten, Esq., of this city.

ACCIDENT.—We regret to learn that Lieut.-Col. Miller, of the 8th Royal Rifles, met with an accident yesterday to his foot, which through not very serious may confine him for some days to the house. He sprained a muscle in some unaccountable manner and for several hours suffered excruciating pain.

FIRE ALARM.—The firemen were called out yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by an alarm from box 8 for a chimney fire at the residence of Mr. Quirk, on the Ramparts. It was fortunate that the fire was prevented from spreading to the interior of the house, where the body of the late Mrs. Quirk remains, awaiting interment.

RECORDER'S COURT, YESTERDAY.—A young boy arrested in a state of drunkenness was acquitted yesterday by reason of his youth. A youngster for sliding in Lacroix street, Palais, was condemned to $1 fine and costs or to two days' jail. Several tavern keepers, accused of selling on Sunday, pleaded "not guilty," and their cases were fixed for next week for proof.

INSTITUT CANADIEN.—The fine large hall of this society was crowded with ladies and gentlemen on Tuesday evening, to witness the presentation of an address to the Lieut.-Governor, who replied with his usual skill and good taste. The address was presented by Mr. J. Fremont, President of the Institut. Papers were then read by Messrs. Legendre and LeMay, and admirable music was furnished by the Septuor Haydn.

HEAVY STORM.—The snow storm which set in last night continued all day yesterday. Heavy drifts have formed in places and contractors have their hands full. Most of the incoming trains were considerably behind hand, and consequently the mails were all some four hours late. The snow is light, however, and no very serious blockade is anticipated, as there are not yet very high banks of snow along the different lines of railway.

FOUND DEAD—The population of St. Julienne, County of Montcalm, was excited the other morning at the news that Mr. Francois Bertrand had been found frozen in a yard. The deceased was in perfect health on the previous day. The Coroner held an inquest which revealed the fact that death had resulted from disease of the heart. It is supposed that he was about entering the house on the previous evening when he fell dead in the yard, his body being subsequently frozen where it lay.

MILITARY INTELLIGENCE.—The last number of the Canada Gazette contains a large amount of military intelligence of interest to Quebecers. Capt. Geo. Rolt White, Quarter Master of "C" Battery, Canadian Artillery, British Columbia, has resigned and been placed on the retired list of Captains. The full strength of the Quebec Squadron Queen's Own Canadian Hussars is gazetted at 104 men, exclusive of officers. This will enable the officers of this popular corps to obtain horses for the band in future without having to pay for them out of their own pockets as heretofore. Lieut. T. I. Poston, of the 8th Royal Rifles, has been promoted Captain and second Lieutenant Charles Dunn, of the same corps, Lieutenant. Captain H. Roy, of the Quebec Garrison Artillery, has been gazetted Brevet Major. Enlistments have been authorized, on 19th December, 1887, of men to be enrolled in "D" Company, Infantry School Corps. The Royal School of Infantry, at London, will open for the instruction of attached officers, non-commissioned officers and men, on 2nd April, 1888.

FUNERAL—The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Trudel, formerly of this office, which took place yesterday morning, was, notwithstanding the inclement weather, attended by a large number of our citizens, including a strong representation of his late fellow-employees. The cortege left the late residence of the deceased at 9 o'clock and proceeded to the Basilica, mass being celebrated by the Rev. Mr. Vaillancourt. At the conclusion of the service, the procession reformed and proceeded to Belmont cemetery, where the interment took place. The floral tributes were very numerous, the employees of the CHRONICLE contributing a most handsome wreath. The pall-bearers who were selected from the employees of this office, were Messrs J. Rouseau, J. Dugal, W. A. G. De Ernsted, and L. Bolduc. We may add that the deceased, who was connected with the printing business for over half a century, served his apprenticeship at the office of the Quebec Gazette, under the supervision of the late Hon. John Neilson. Very few, if any, of those who started in the business with the late Mr. Trudel, in this city, now survive.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE PARLIAMENT HOUSE—A number of very necessary improvements are now being make in the interior of the Parliament Buildings. Two elevators are in course of erection, which are to be worked by water. They will be found of very great service to all having business with offices upon the upper flats of the building, especially during the sessions of the House. A beautiful spiral iron staircase is in course of erection in the central tower of the Parliament House which is probably one of the most handsome pieces of work in the country. It has been manufactured by Messrs Carrier, Laine & Co. of Levis, and is intended to lead from the third flat of the building, on a level with the galleries of the Parliament House, to the upper portion of the tower. Already 137 steps have been place in position, and each step measures 6½ inches in height. The staircase as far as erected passes through five flats of the tower, and it is to pass through two more before it is completed. The central stem or pillar round which the stairs are ranged will be nearly 100 feet in height. The whole is enclosed in a diameter of less than six feet, or not quite three feet from each side of the central pillar. It is very much admired by all who have seen it. From the top of the staircase, when completed, long ladders will be required to reach to the base of the flagstaff.

Mothers

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 35 doses, 35 cents

Remarkable Presence of Mind.

Pat Hoolihan, while slating the roof of one of our highest buildings, lost his footing and fell.

Over and over he went until within twenty-five feet of the pavement, when he struck a telegraph wire and managed to grasp it, first with one hand, then with both.

"Hang on for your life, Pat?" shouted his fellow workmen, and the bystanders rushed to the nearest dwelling for a mattress.

Pat held on for a few seconds, when, suddenly, with a cry of "Sthand from undher," he dropped and lay senseless on the street.

Whiskey was used and Pat finally came to.

When asked why he did not hold out longer, he feebly replied:

"Oi wuz afraid the woire 'ud break."

He recovered.—Life.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhœa. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Ethel: 'Was there a donkey on our steps when you came in, Mr. Featherly?' Mr. Featherly: 'Why, no, Ethel! What would a donkey be doing there?' Ethel: 'I don't know; but Clara said just as you rang the bell, 'There's that donkey coming in here again.''

It takes like wildfire.

Thousands of voluntary compliments and recommendations are pouring in from all parts, declaring Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder much better than any other. All grocers sell it.

$3.50 FOR YOU WONDER WHY $1.50

We can give so much for the money? Thousands say this in their letters. It is because after plates are made it costs far less proportionately to print 150,000 copies than 100,000. During its nearly fifty years' existence the has absorbed twenty-four other agricultural periodicals, and continues to be the recognized authority on agricultural matters the world over. With the old staff of editors who have made it a power in both hemispheres, reinforced with new writers, it will be more valuable during 1888 than ever. Each number now contains nearly one hundred original illustrations and original articles on the Farm, Garden, Hearth and Household, from over fifty different writers. It is Absurd

For people to expect a cure for Indigestion unless they refrain from eating what is unwholesome; but if anything will sharpen the appetite and give tone to the digestive organs, it is Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Thousands all over the land testify to the merits of this medicine.

Mrs. Sarah Burroughs, of 248 Eighth street, South Boston, writes: "My husband has taken Ayer's Sarsaparilla for Dyspepsia and torpid liver, and has been greatly benefited."

A Confirmed Dyspeptic.

C. Canterbury, of 141 Franklin st., Boston, Mass., writes, that, suffering for years from Indigestion, he was at last induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and by its use was entirely cured.

Mrs. Joseph Aubin, of High street, Holyoke, Mass., suffered for over a year from Dyspepsia, so that she could not eat substantial food, became very weak, and was unable to care for her family. Neither the medicines prescribed by physicians, nor any of the remedies advertised for the cure of Dyspepsia, helped her, until she commenced the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. "Three bottles of this medicine," she writes, "cured me."

Mail Steamers.

SARNIA—The Dominion Line Royal Mail ss "Sarnia," Capt Jos. Gibson, sails from Halifax, for Liverpool, with mails and passengers on Saturday afternoon. Her mails close at the Quebec Post Office this evening.

OREGON—The Dominion Line R.M.S. "Oregon," Captain J. H. Williams, is the next steamer to arrive at Halifax, from Liverpool, with mails and passengers.

CATTLE TRADE.—During the St. Lawrence season, recently closed for Liverpool and Bristol, steamers of the Dominion line embarked 9,938 cattle, of which 9,920 were landed alive, two in carcase, and sixteen were put overboard on the passage the percentage of loss being only one in 572 head.

DAMAGED.—Halifax, January 16.—Brig "Corinne," Byrne, from Prince Edward Island via Halifax, with 7,000 bushels of potatoes for a United States port, has arrived at Liverpool, N.S., leaking badly, and with loss of sails and a damaged cargo. The crew refuse to do duty. A survey was held and she was ordered to discharge for a further survey.

HUMANITY REWARDED.—The Board of Trade have received a gold watch and chain and a gold medal, which have been respectively awarded by the President of the United States to Capt. H. Steele, master, and Reinbold Peterson, first mate, of the British bark "Scott's Bay," of Windsor, N.S., in recognition of their humane services in rescuing the crew of the American schooner "Marcus A. Davis" on the 24th of March, 1887.—Liverpool Shipping Telegraph.

LOW POINT SIGNAL STATION.—Following is the number and rig of vessels reported and signalled from Low Point marine signal station, Sydney, C.B., from May 1st to December 31st, 1887:—Steamers, 328; ships, 6; barks, 55; barkentines, 33; brigs, 7; brigantines, 55; topsail schooners, 46; tern schooners, 3. Of these 265 exchanged signals while passing.

RESCUED.—Gloucester, Mass., January 16.—Schooner "Thomas F. Bayard," arrived from Grand Banks to-day, reports speaking schooner "Magnolia," of this port, on the Banks, which reported falling in with a British schooner, coal laden, in a sinking condition and rescuing the crew of seven men, which they had on board. She was bound from Sydney, C.B, for Miramichi, and had encountered heavy weather and was blown off the coast, where she was fallen in with.

STRANDED.—Yarmouth, N.S, January 17.—Schooner "Lily E," from Boston for Yarmouth, with a cargo of flour and meal, is stranded high and dry at Pubnico; condition critical.

WRECKAGE.—Stornoway, Jan. 3.—A number of logs of timber, described as red pine but believed to be pitch pine, have washed ashore in several places from Barra Head to Butt of Lewis. The logs are described as being charred and marked "D D." They show, however, traces of other marks, among them "OK" or "OR, XXX," and there is an opinion that they were part of the cargo of bark "Ornate" (Br), from Pensacola for Ardrossen, which was posted as missing December 1, 1887.

Wisconsin Has a Rip Van Winkle.

Herman Harms has Slept Eleven Years and Isn't Through Yet.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 16—The case of Herman Harms, a Buffalo County farmer, who has enjoyed a Rip Van Winkle sleep of eleven years, completely puzzles the physicians. In 1877 Harms moved to this State from Illinois, taking a farm on the Mississippi River, opposite Winona, in Utica Township. While attending his sick wife one day he suddenly fell asleep and dropped to the floor. He was picked up by his friends and placed upon the bed, and has not since been off it. He sleeps soundly all day, and at 9 or 10 o'clock in the evening rises, takes a little nourishment and at once lies down and goes to sleep again. During the time he is awake he pays no attention to anybody, but drinks a little soup or coffee without making any remarks, and at once goes sound to sleep. His sleep is quiet and without any apparent pain or discomfort.

When he first fell asleep he weighed 180 pounds, but he has now dwindled to ninety pounds. His pulse is regular and very strong, rather more vigorous than the pulse of the average wideawake man. His head is very warm, while the flesh of his body is cold and has the appearance of a dead man's flesh. While he sleeps one hand is closed tightly in front of him and the other pressed firmly against the right temple, and he invariably sleeps in the same position. His eyelids are seen to blink very fast at times as if the light hurt them.

The opinions of physicians as to his trouble are very various. Some say it is kidney trouble, some say he is crazy and others assert that his heart is in a dormant state and that he will never recover from his present condition. Mr. Harms is forty-nine years old, and up to the time he was taken in 1877, had not been sick a day in his life. He has five children.

When the story of his peculiar ailment was first published it was so ridiculed that no one took the trouble to investigate the case. It is a fact that this man has slept eleven years, and only once has he dressed himself and gone out of the house. The doctors say he will soon die, because he is losing flesh so fast. At the time he awoke in 1882 he was told he had been asleep for four years, but he would not believe it. He was led to the mirror, and when he saw his gray whiskers and long hair his surprise was very great. His hair, which has not been cut, is now over two feet long and very black. His flesh is of a yellow color and is very flabby. Harms came to this country from Hanover in 1869.

The Cost of Law Suits,

The following significant paragraph is from the Monetary Times: If the information is correct in detail, the subject is one not only for thought, but action:—"The law courts of Nova Scotia evidently need reformation in the way of decreased law costs in small cases. Four cases have recently been tried in a county court in Colchester County, Nova Scotia, which suggests to a correspondent the idea that 'a modern lawyer's office more than equals a sugar refinery or a gold mine for making money.' One case was that of a debt of $28 for balance due on a horse and buggy; on this the taxed costs were $88.66. Another was a dispute about a cow, heifer and calf, valued at $26, and the costs allowed are $195.77. The Singer Company sued a man named McLeod for $15, and the defendant was obliged to pay not only the debt, but also $161 20 to the lawyers. The worst case of all was a suit for a heifer, valued at $15, killed in a bear trap, on which the poor trapper is obliged to pay $240. He no doubt wishes he had fallen into the tender mercies of the bear trap rather than those of the lawyers."

Russian Proverbs.

Pray to God, but row to shore.
Modesty is a maiden's necklace.
A maiden's heart is a dark forest.
To marry in May is to suffer always.
A bad peace is better than a good quarrel.
By a wedge may a wedge be driven out.
It's a bore to go alone even to get drowned.
To stir the fire with another's hand is no hardship.
Calumny is like a coal; if it does not burn it will soil.
A mother's prayer has power to save from the bottom of the sea.
It is not so much the dew of heaven, as the sweat of man's brow, which renders the soil fruitful.

Hamburg Fruit Market Report.

(From Albert Cohn, Fruit Broker, Hamburg.)

HAMBURG, 2nd January 1888.—Although the demand for American apples has somewhat abated since Christmas, yet it may be safely anticipated that fresh arrivals of American apples will the more readily find buyers, since the stock of the home fruit is beginning to get short. Superior qualities of apples are still the most in favour and may calculate on fetching from 16 to 22 marks whereas the more inferior sorts are being offered cheaper. Arrivals during last week about 3 000 barrels.

For dried American apples last week's tendency was firm and the demand brisk, there being paid according to quality 52 to 70 marks. For evaporated apples in boxes, the offers being plentiful, 82 to 104 marks per 100 kilos were realized.

Two old sports accustomed to catch the granger at poker are playing against one another.—"I call you. What ye got?" "Four aces." "What's yer outside card? I've got four aces myself."—San Francisco Chronicle.

In Turkey when a man is caught in a lie an official is sent around to paint the front of his house black. It is to be hoped that such a practice will not obtain in this country. Our streets would soon look as if they were in mourning.

"A Friend of Mine."

The Law Which Encircles the Entire Globe.

Travelers who have gone "far countries for to see" say that they find human nature pretty much the same all the world over.

They find wide variance in color of skin, in physical contour, in mental characteristics, but in the essential elements that control social conduct, the human family is a brotherhood.

The law, unwritten, found in no statute book, enforced by no court decrees, but having an influence circumscribed only by the limits of earthly space, is the law of kindness.

Among peoples where cruelty to human kind is almost a fixed habit, who are relentless foes, and as friends scarcely less to be dreaded, whose savage natures revel in fiendish atrocities, there yet lingers the spark of divinity which lifts man above the beasts.

Sorrow melts the human heart wherever found, and sympathy mingles its tears with grief all the world over. Where pity does not dwell, there lives no thing of human kind. It is "the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin."

What a terrible world this would be to live in were it not for the sympathy and loving kindness shown us when sorrow comes, for it is decreed that in all lives "some days must be dark and dreary."

The 10,000 and more voluntary testimonials the proprietors of Warner's safe cure have received in regard to the efficacy of that remedy, reveal "this touch of nature" in a peculiar manner. The great majority of them acknowledge that it was through some kind friend who, in pity for their suffering, had made known to them the wonderful merits of this great remedy.

The testimonial of Capt. Geo. B. Wiltbank of Philadelphia, is a fair sample. He was put ashore from his ship to die of a fever resulting from kidney and liver trouble, and as physicians could not help him, there seemed no hope for him. But he says "A friend of mine, who happened into port, came to see me, and urged me to begin the use of Warner's safe cure." He began to use it as his friend advised, and was cured in a very short time.

How many men there are to-day in the world, rounding out lives of usefulness, making the world happier and better, who would have long since passed to the other shore, had it not been for the loving kindness of friends, shown in this practical way, as these testimonials from all quarters of the globe afford ample evidence.

The Earth Is His.

SOME THOUGHTS ON THE ORIGIN OF THE STRIPED POLE AND THE RISE OF THE BARBER BARON.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW YORK HERALD:

I have been reading in regard to removing the barbers' poles in your paper. Would you tell me how it was they took the colors red, white and blue for a sign? What do they denote? By so doing you will oblige

BARBER'S FRIEND.

It is hardly conceivable that our correspondent is a friend of a barber, for if it is his good fortune to really enjoy the intimacy of one, it is strange that he does not know the meaning of the colors with which his friend ornaments the façade of his castle.

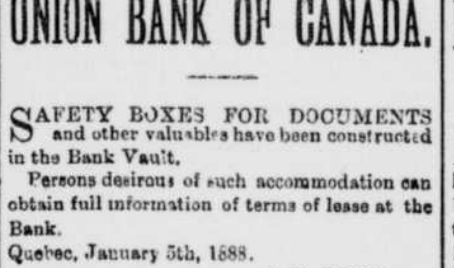

Assuming, however, that he really does want to learn something about barbers and their customs, it is the pleasing province of the Herald to suggest a few lines of thought in strict accordance with the gravity of the subject. Know then, "Barber's Friend," that many years ago the barber so far forgot himself as to associate with ordinary people. Among the most noticeable of his associates was the surgeon. They became so intimate, in fact, that it was a common occurrence for each to do the work of the other. This association grew until the two professions became merged in one and the residuum of the amalgam was the surgeon barber, who shaved, let blood, cupped, put on leeches, cut hair and cut throats with zeal and promptness, according to the terms of the contract.

The original trade mark of this interesting business was a human arm bound about with a piece of red cotton, indicating that a maximum amount of blood would be let in a legitimate way at a minimum cost. In 1745, however, the barber threw the blood letting business overboard and attended strictly to the profession which par excellence brings fame, wealth and power. Some historian of that day who had doubtless been snubbed by a barber has written that the shops were a resort for the idle and vicious, as well as a place where the gossip and news of the day were retailed, but his prejudice would not bear the test of time, for everybody now knows that a barber has no liking for idle talk, gossip or news.

They retained the bandaged arm as a sign, and when the arm gave place to the pole the bandage gave way to a blood red ribbon. The barber rose in power and wealth. All the world bent the head before him and paid him tribute. The white staff signified his power, purity and prestige, the blood red ribbon twined about it meant that the blood and wealth of humanity was his at command. All men stood uncovered before him. The boundless world was his. It was then that he added the blue stripe to indicate his sovereignty over the mighty deep as well.

A steel gun that will weigh five and a half tons and be 193.53 inches long, when it is bored and ready for mounting, has been successfully cast in Pittsburg. It is the largest steel gun ever made at one casting. It will toss its projectile with a speed of 2000 feet a second, the pressure in the chamber being fifteen tons. This king of military weapons was made for the government, and will cost about $3,300. A built-up gun of the same size, or one not made by a single casting, would cost $22,000. In view of this fact, the success of the experiment is considered one of the most important recent achievements in gunmaking.

When the eyes become weak or the lids inflamed and sore, a disordered system or a scrofulous condition of the blood is indicated, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best remedy. It invigorates and vitalizes the blood and expels all humors.

Notice to the Clergy and to the Public.

I, THE UNDERSIGNED GIVE NOTICE to the Clergy and to the Public that M.M. A. TOUSSAINT & CO., of Quebec, are the Sole Agents authorised for the sale of my Wines, viz:—Claret, (table wine), Port, and Mass Wines. These last named are approved by Monseigneurs Walsh, Bishop of London, and Thomas Dowling, Bishop of Peterborough, of the Province of Ontario.

M.M. A. TOUSSAINT & CO. alone have a deposit of my Wines above-named. These Wines are analysed by Dr. Valade, Government Analyst of Ottawa, and by Revd. M. Page, Professor of Chemistry at Laval University, Quebec.

A. C. TOURNIER,
Viticulteur at Sandwich,
Ont.

Any wine offered for sale not bearing the label and burned cork of the firm of Tournier must be considered falsified.

☞ For sale at all first-class Grocers. ☜

This wine, bought in cask or by the gallon, must be bottled in the 24 hours that the cask is opened, so you will have an excellent wine, otherwise it would lose its flavor.

I have analysed for M.M. A. TOUSSAINT & Co. two samples of Port Wine (red wine) and Claret, manufactured at Sandwich, Ontario, by Mr. A. C. Tournier. These two wines are agreeable to taste, and possess a certain flavour that is found only in the best wines. The proportion of Alcohol in these two wines is of 10%. As to the coloring matter, I have no doubt that it comes from the grape.

The Century Magazine.

WITH THE NOVEMBER, 1887, ISSUE THE CENTURY commences its thirty-fifth volume with a regular circulation of almost 250,000. The War Papers and the Life of Lincoln increased its monthly edition by 100,000. The latter history having recounted the events of Lincoln's early years, and given the necessary survey of the political condition of the country, reaches a new period, with which his secretaries were most intimately acquainted Under the caption

Lincoln in the War.

the writers now enter on the more important part of their narrative, viz. : the early years of the War and President Lincoln's part therein.

Supplementary War Papers,

following the "battle series" by distinguished generals, will describe interesting features of army life, tunneling from Libby Prison, narratives of personal adventure, etc. General Sherman will write on "The Grand Strategy of the War."

Kennan on Siberia.

Except the Life of Lincoln and the War Articles, no more important series has ever been undertaken by THE CENTURY than this of Mr. Kennan's. With the previous preparation of four years' travel and study in Russia an Siberia, the author undertook a journey of 15,000 miles for the special investigation here required. An introduction from the Russian Minister of the Interior admitted him to the principal mines and prisons, where he became acquainted with some three hundred State exiles,—Liberals, Nihilists, and others,—and the series will be a startling as well as accurate revelation of the exile system. The many illustrations by the artist and photographer, Mr. George A. Frost, who accompanied the author, will add greatly to the value of the articles.

A Novel by Eggleston

with illustrations will run through the year. Shorter novels will follow by Cable and Stockton. Shorter fictions will appear every month will comprise several illustrated articles on Ireland, by Charles De Kay ; papers touching the field of the Sunday-School Lessons, illustrated by E. L. Wilson ; wild Western life, by Theodore Roosevelt ; the English Cathedrals, by Mrs. van Rensselaer, with illustrations by Pennell ; Dr. Buckley's valuable papers on Dreams, Spiritualism, and Clairvoyance ; essays in criticism, art, travel and biography ; poem cartoons ; etc.

By a special offer the numbers for the past year (containing the Lincoln history) may be secured with the year's subscription from November, 1887, twenty-four issues in all, for $6.00, or, with the last year's numbers hand somely bound, $7.50.

CANADIAN CHESS ASSOCIATION.

The fifteenth meeting of this Association was held on Monday last, 16th instant, at 4 p.m., in the rooms of the Quebec Chess Club, when the following members were present :— T. LeDroit, Esq., President, in the Chair, Messrs. J. E. Narraway, of Ottawa ; George Barry, of Montreal ; C. P. Champion, D. E. Grant, R. McLimont, E. Sanderson, jr., B. J. Whitehead, F. H. Andrews, N. MacLeod, D. R. MacLeod, E. Pope, J. E. Walsh and M. J. Murphy.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed, and the rules governing play adopted, seriatim. The election of officers for the ensuing year was deferred to the close of the tournament. The entrance list was then laid on the table and the following contestants signed their names as participants, viz :— Messrs. J. E. Narraway, Geo. Barry, C. P. Champion, N. MacLeod, E. Pope and E. Sanderson, senr.

The handsome Trophy-Cup, valued at $120, was on exhibition during the meeting, and was very much admired by those present. Three of the players, Messrs. E. Sanderson, N. MacLeod and Geo. Barry have already a lien on the cup, and should any one of them win the first prize, it will become his sole property, otherwise, it will have to be competed for at the next place of meeting, to be decided upon at the close of the tournament.

The following games have been concluded up to the hour of going to press :—

E. Sanderson vs. J. E. Narraway, won by Narraway.

N. MacLeod vs. Geo. Barry, won by MacLeod.

Champion vs. Pope, won by Pope.

Narraway vs. Barry, won by Narraway.

Pope vs Narraway, won by Narraway.

Narraway vs. Champion, won by Narraway

Our thanks are due to Mr. C. F. Nordhoff, Secretary of the Ohio Chess Association, for a very neat pamphlet of 22 pages, containing a history of that Association, a copy of the Constitution, a record of the last tournament and the scores of several of the games played. The pamphlet is neatly printed and reflects much credit on the Association. The membership for 1887 numbers 76, representing the Cincinnati, Mount Auburn, Queen City, Walnut Hills, Toledo, New London, Dayton, Xenia, Wellington and Cleveland Chess Clubs.

The Christmas number of the Columbia Chess Chronicle is an exceptionally fine one, containing no fewer than 47 pages of interesting matter, comprising chess sketches, poems, games, problems and general news. Two excellent portraits of the past and present champions, Paul Morphy and Herr Steinitz, grace its pages. The Chronicle is a racy publication and reflects credit on its enterprising editors. It is the only weekly paper in America devoted entirely to chess, and the subscription price, $2 per annum, is so small that it should find its way into every chess player's hands. It is published in the "Columbia Chess Club, No. 1 Second Avenue, New York."

Chess players will learn with pleasure that Mr. Steinitz has in preparation a work on Chess, which will treat on all parts of the game. A book emanating from such a renowned master of the game, will command quick sale.

Among those present at the last meeting of the Cincinnati Chess Club was Mr. Phineas Moses, now in his ninetieth year. He is a native of Gosport, England, and saw the 1st Napoleon a prisoner at Portsmouth. When he came to Cincinnati in 1821, the city had but fourteen thousand inhabitants.

According to the Brooklyn Standard-Union, Deacon John T. Howard, of Plymouth Church, has entered suit in the Supreme Court of New York County, claiming possession of a royal chessboard, which was originally made for the King of Spain and presented by him to a nobleman, and which, after affording amusement to many royal and noble personages, has at length found its way to republican America. The board is of Venetian inlaid work and is valued at $5,000, the chessmen being of carved ivory, also inlaid. Gen. Wiseman sent the board and men to Tiffany's for exhibition, and there Deacon Howard, on seeing them, claimed them. Tiffany & Co. have obtained an order of court directing the two claimants to settle the case between them, and relieving the jewelers of all responsibility. The board and men are now in a safe deposit vault.

Some Noted Writers.

HOW A FEW FAMOUS AUTHORS DO THEIR WORK.

Habits of British Literary Men, Spencer, Black, Stevenson, Gilbert, Payn and Prof. Blackie at Home—Recollections of Carlyle and Anthony Trollope.

Literary men at work might be divided into smokers and non-smokers, and there is little doubt that the smokers have it. Among them are not included the men of letters or journalists who smoke only before they write or after they have finished. Such a one is Mr. Andrew Lang, who is such a busy man nowadays that he would probably grudge the time spent in lighting his pipe occasionally. Mr. Lang does most of his work in the early part of the day, in which habit he resembles Mr. Sala. Both get through an astonishing amount of work, twice as much certainly as they get credit for, yet they are often seen in society. Mr. Sala is such an authority on cooking—he has the largest library on culinary matters in this country—that the country would be astonished could they see him at his frugal breakfast and still more frugal lunch. He breakfasts well if he eats one egg and lunches heavily if he has a chop. It is acknowledged among literary men generally that the best work is done on the lightest food. Many of them make up for their abstemiousness in the early part of the day by an exhaustive and even exhausting late dinner, but not if they have to work after it. Several of the best-known editors of great newspapers are such confirmed smokers that they fill and relight their pipes without knowing it. I know one prominent London editor who smokes cigars while he writes. This is unusual ; indeed, to smoke a cigar and write at the same time requires a great deal of practice. The editor referred to has a trick of sticking any pen-nib that he sees lying about into his cigar, and when his staff see him approaching they conceal their pens.

HERBERT SPENCER AND WILLIAM BLACK.

A great many literary men who are spoken of as resident in London do not really live there. Brighton, for instance, is the home of Mr. Herbert Spencer, Mr. William Black, Mr. Edmund Yates and many others. Though these writers, other things being equal, would prefer London, they find that their health is not only better in Brighton, but that they can do more work away from the roar of the metropolis. It is rather curious that the only two society papers of note in London should be edited by gentlemen whose residence is outside of it. Mrs. Oliphant lives on the Thames, near Eton, and it is understood nowadays to be assisted in her literary labors by her son. Mr. Blackmore is among the writers who do not like to be driven and only care to write when in the vein. Consequently he pursues two callings, combining literature with market gardening.

Mr. Robert Louis Stevenson is like Descartes in this respect, that he works out some of his best ideas in bed. Descartes kept to his bed on principle, but Mr. Stevenson cannot always help himself. According to an American reporter who recently interviewed him and found him on his couch smoking a cigarette, this writer's "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" was dreamt before it was written. If so, Mr. Stevenson dreams to some purpose. As a matter of fact, he only dreamt the continuation of a story that had haunted his waking hours. He is an author who writes best with quiet surroundings, and his house at Bournemouth, within high walls, is in curious contrast to the life and incident of his romances.

GEORGE MEREDITH'S METHODS.

Mr. George Meredith writes his wonderful comedies in three volumes in an arbor. It consists of two or three rooms erected in the garden of his house, near Dorking (where Keats wrote "Endymion.") Here Mr. Meredith does most of his writing, and his friends know that it is one thing to be asked into his house and another (and a rarer) to be taken to the arbor. As can be gathered from his novels, Mr. Meredith is of opinion that smoking is an assistance in thinking out a story.

Mention must also be made of the historian—whose name it would probably be unfeeling to mention—who, while he writes, smokes not only one cigar but several. To manage this he had to invent a new cigar-holder. This has the ordinary mouthpiece, but branches off, so to speak, at right angles at the other end. There are holes in these branches into which the cigars are placed, as many as four at a time being a possibility. Though Carlyle was a great smoker he flung himself too completely into his work to be able to keep his pipe in while he wrote. Had he contrived to do so some of his writing might have been less bitter, for a pipe is said to check irritability. A good story of Carlyle, in this connection, is not generally known. When he was still a young man he walked from Ecclefechan to Edinburgh, a distance of more than eighty miles, to consult a doctor about his health. The doctor asked if he smoked, and hearing that he did, said that was what was wrong with him. Carlyle gave up smoking, and some time afterward he went for a walk in a wood. Here, beneath a tree, he saw lying a pipe, with tobacco and matches. He at once remembered that the medical prescription had done him no good, and came to the conclusion that the whole affair was providential. So he lit the pipe and never again gave up smoking.

TROLLOPE AT WORK.

Carlyle's walk in the wood reminds one that this was Trollope's favourite prescription for planning a fresh novel. He held that once you were inside a wood of which you could not see the limits a quietness came to you that was admirable for inventing. As he always tried a wood himself when he could get it, there is doubtless something in this. Trollope's way of working, however, was so methodical that he could plan a story or write it anywhere. Others besides him have found it possible to beguile the voyage between England and America by writing, but he is the only author who is known to have triumphed over the difficulties of writing in a railway train. Trollope always felt uncomfortable at the thought that a long railway journey meant the loss of a great part of a day, and it preyed on his mind till he got a writing table specially constructed for the train. This was a complete success. There might be other persons in the compartment, but as soon as the novelist got in he set up his table, got out his writing materials and worked as unconcernedly as if he were at home. As Trollope held that serial stories for magazines were spoiled if written from month to month, and always, except in one case, finished his own before its publication began, it is notable that the exception, which appeared in the opening numbers of Cornhill, is generally acknowledged to be his best novel.

In "First Person Singular," one of Mr. Christie Murray's stories, there is a novelist whose manner of working is doubtless to some extent autobiographical. Sometimes the novelist is longer worrying over a sentence than writing the rest of the chapter. In another of his books Mr. Murray gives a curious glimpse into the manner of writing pursued by more Bohemian writers, who find that inspiration goes if there is not a tumbler beside the ink pot. One of these, when he had a little money considered that he saved up for a rainy day by spending the greater part of it in soda water. Then, if he wanted ready money all he had to do was to send back a few empty bottles to the shop, for which he got twopence each. Of course this compelled him to go on drinking the soda water, but he did not mind that. Our writers nowadays are so busy that they have not the time to play the Bohemian.

JAMES PAYN'S SEVEN YEARS' WORK.

Mr. James Payn has said that in seven years he only took one holiday of more than a few days, and Mr. Grant Allen speaks of being "glad enough to lay down the pen out of my aching fingers as soon as the day's work is fairly over." It used to be no uncommon thing for literary men to make some money by writing and then not put pen to paper until it was spent. Artists twenty years ago worked on the same principle, but now they, too, seek to make large incomes—though they still sometimes spend it all and more. Lamb is not by any means the only writer who has found London an aid to composition. Many, however, write more comfortably in the country.

Mr. Jones, the playwright, for instance, as he had made some name by his dramas, left London and took a house in the country, where he now writes all his plays. Some men can only write at a particular table and at a particular side of that table. The writer is thinking especially of one who writes best with rusty pen nibs. He has hundreds of these in his desk—the accumulation of years —and he frequently changes them. The one he has been using, however, goes back to the desk for use on some future occasion. He is also devoted to antimacassars. From these he abstracts the threads with which he ties his papers together, and on days when there are no antimacassars he does not write.

HERBERT SPENCER'S RECREATIONS.

It is curious to think of Mr. Herbert Spencer playing lawn tennis. One would have as soon expected to see Carlyle at shuttlecock and battledore. A few years ago, however, Mr. Spencer used frequently to lay down his pen and lift a racquet. His brain was overworked with less than an hour's writing, and it became quite a common thing with him to seek relaxation in the tennis court. Before he became so much of an invalid Mr. Spencer also went a great deal to the theatre—always to the pit, into which he enjoyed fighting his way.

Nothing shows Miss Braddon's popularity with novel readers more than a change which she made in her way of writing a number of years ago. She used to write in a large hand, but discovered that she could "get over the ground" quicker by writing small, as she does now.

Perhaps the pleasantest picture of a literary man at work is afforded by Prof. Blackie. He sings to himself while he writes as well as when he climbs a mountain (to write a sonnet on it) or walks down the street. In one of the letters published in Scribner's last month Thackeray gives a humorous description of the selfishness which came over him when he was writing verse. While composing his ode in connection with the great exhibition he forgot that there was anybody in the world beside himself and anything worth thinking of except his ode. Had some one come to him and announced a serious accident to his dearest friend, he would only have murmured in reply, "Tidum tidy, tidumtidy." While he was writing novels, however, he was less engrossed. He could stop and count up the lines to see how much they would come to—at, say, half a crown apiece.

Mr. W. S. Gilbert finds a piece of blotting paper by his side a great help when he is writing comic operas. This is not for blotting his manuscripts, but for drawing pictures on. These are caricatures, and oftener the sketch suggests a quaint thought than a thought suggests the sketch.—Edinburgh Dispatch.

To say that anything has been "sold for a mere song" is not very explicit and does not of necessity imply the degree of cheapness that is generally intended, for there is quite a difference in merchantable value between a song by Patti and a song by your next door amateur warbler.

Messrs. Northrop & Lyman are the proprietors of Dr Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which is now being sold in immense quantities throughout the Dominion. It is welcomed by the suffering invalid everywhere with emotions of delight, because it banishes pain and gives instant relief. This valuable specific for almost "every ill that flesh is heir to," is valued by the sufferer as more precious than gold. It is the elixir of life to many a wasted frame. If you have not purchased a bottle, do so at once, and keep it ready for an emergency. Its cheapness, 25 cents per bottle, places it within the reach of all. To the farmer it is indispensable, and it should be in every house.

Holloway's Pills.—Weary of Life.—Derangement of the liver is one of the most efficient causes of dangerous diseases, and the most prolific source of those melancholy forebodings which are worse than death itself. A few doses of these noted Pills act magically in dispelling low spirits, and repelling the covert attacks made on the nerves by excessive heat, impure atmosphere, over-indulgence, or exhausting excitement. The most shattered constitution may derive benefit from Holloway's Pills, which will regulate disordered action, brace the nerves, increase the energy of the intellectual faculties, and revive the failing memory. By attentively studying the instructions for taking these Pills and explicitly putting them in practice, the most desponding will soon feel confident of a perfect recovery.

"All is over between us, Mr. Sampson," she said, coldly. "The presents you have given me will be returned to-morrow." He stood there proudly, but his face was ashen. "Everything shall be returned," she went on, with a queenly sweep of her rounded arm, "with the exception, of course, of the caramels and ice cream." And thus they parted.

RACKED BY INNUMERABLE PANGS, restless by day, sleepless at night, rising unrefreshed in the morning, without appetite, and pestered by varying and perplexing symptoms, the dyspeptic takes indeed a gloomy view of human existence. For him the zest of life seems gone. Heartburn, oppression at the pit of the stomach, and the attendant annoyances of constipation and biliousness, combine to render him utterly wretched. But there is, if he will but take advantage of it, a reliable source of relief from all this misery. NORTHROP & LYMAN'S VEGETABLE DISCOVERY and DYSPEPTIC CURE is, as its name imports, a botanic preparation, free from mineral poison, and an all sufficient remedy for indigestion in its most obstinate form. It not only enriches the blood by enabling the digestive organs to convert the food received into nutriment, but depurates it by increasing the action of the bowels and kidneys, the natural outlets for its impurities. But while it relaxes the bowels, it never does so violently and with pain, like a drastic cathartic. It aids, but never forces, Nature, invigorating as well as purifying and regulating the system. It thoroughly removes those diseased humours which tend to irritate the blood, purifies the urinary secretion, and promotes a flow of healthy bile into the natural channel, besides expelling it from the circulation. Experience has proved that this standard medicine is a thorough remedy for dyspepsia, biliousness, costiveness, kidney complaints, scrofula, erysipelas, salt rheum, lumbago and all impurities of the blood. Price, $1.00. Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Ask for NORTHROP & LYMAN'S Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. The wrapper bears a fac-simile of their signature. Sold by all medicine dealers
