Windsor-ite killed by car

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

As the Victoria Day weekend came to an end, accidents on road, river and lake, including a spate of multiple deaths in Ontario, pushed national fatality figures steadily up to predicted totals.

A verdict of accidental death was brought in by a coroner's jury Monday morning in Windsor, investigating the death late Saturday night of Marcel Doiron, 40, of Windsor, hit by an automobile about one mile outside Windsor.

Driver of the car, Alfred Laflamme, 60, of Danville, was observed of all blame in the accident.

It was the only fatality reported in the Townships.

A cross-Canada survey by The Canadian Press showed that from 6 p.m. local times Friday to Monday midnight at least 56 persons were killed—36 of them on highways.

The reported traffic toll fell just short of the 40 Canadian Highway Safety Council predicted would die in holiday accidents. Late reports could send it over the mark.

Drownings accounted for 14 deaths. Five fire deaths were reported, and one person was electrocuted.

Ontario suffered 23 accidental deaths, 22 on the roads and one drowning.

Other provincial totals with traffic deaths bracketed:

Manitoba 10 (5); Quebec 6 (4); Nova Scotia 4 (2); Saskatchewan 4 (0); Alberta 1 (1); British Columbia 4 (2); Newfoundland 1 (0). Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick reported no fatal accidents. These figures do not include natural deaths, known suicides or industrial accidents.

Other Quebec dead:

Edward Connelly, 30, of St. Laurent, and his four-year-old daughter, Elaine, Saturday when their canoe capsized on Lac Gunder.

Ginette Varennes, 18, Saturday in a highway collision near her home in St. Therese.

Alfred Brunelle, 60, of Cap de la Madeleine, Saturday when his car plunged into the St. Lawrence River near Trois-Rivieres.

Mrs. Adolphe Cadorette, 59, killed Saturday in a two-car collision near St. Romuald.

Patrice Boudreault, 22, Sunday of injuries suffered when his car crashed into a post in the district of Limoulin.

Thadée Capsembaes, 27, Sunday in a two-car collision in east-end Montreal.

Crackers pelted at police

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Police at Hamilton tried to disperse a mob of 400 fire-cracker throwers Monday night. The crowd responded by pelting the 30-odd officers and a police dog with fireworks.

The same group of Victoria Day celebrants set fire to the front of a clothing store and turned the intersection nearest the shop into a mass of flames by setting fire to a gasoline-soaked car tire and throwing into the street.

Traffic at the busy downtown intersection was tied up for an hour. No arrests were made.

Elsewhere in Canada burns, injuries and even death were blamed on the misuse of fire-crackers by holiday fun-seekers. In Toronto they sent fire

To chart future of Geneva talks

GENEVA (CP) — The international conference on Laos prepared today to chart its future course after a week of opening statements that showed the delegates deeply divided on the way to supervise neutrality in the Southeast Asian kingdom.

The conference must now decide whether to (1) split up in study committees, (2) go on debating points at issue in full sessions, or (3) recess until after the June 3 meeting in Vienna of President Kennedy and Soviet Premier Khrushchev.

The countries at the conference table are split roughly three ways on how the International Control Commission—set up to police the cease-fire in Laos—should function, both in checking the military situation and later in supervising the Laotian neutrality of the conference is supposed to underwrite.

The Communist bloc wants to limit the commission's activities and subject it to vetoes of just about everybody concerned. The West wants to extend its operation to every corner of the jungle kingdom and eliminate any veto restrictions.

India, chairman of the commission that also includes Poland and Canada, favors a middle position that would allow a veto but permit the filling of majority and minority reports. Neutral Burma and Cambodia support the Indian stand.

ICC leaders are back in Laos but have been marking time until the delegates here spell out their functions and powers.

With neither the United States or Russia showing any tendency to modify its stand, there was growing belief that the dispute would be left for President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev to resolve at their meeting.

The United States had demanded that the commission be empowered to investigate true violations without hindrance. Russia would allow investigations only on order of the co-chairmen of the conference, Russia and Britain, and require all commission decisions to be unanimous.

Car sideswiped

Member admitted to hospital

Louis-Philippe Brousseau, Liberal MPP for Sherbrooke, is under observation in St. Vincent de Paul Hospital here as a result of a car accident in which he was involved Monday.

The car in which Mr. Brousseau was riding was sideswiped by another near East Broughton as Mr. Brousseau was on his way to the provincial legislature at Quebec City.

Mr. Brousseau suffered a fractured rib and his condition is "very good."

Damage to the car in which he was riding was reported to be heavy.

Tractors-for-Cuba deal under fire in Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charges and demands threatened the tractors-for-prisoners trade today from two sides—the U.S. Congress and Fidel Castro.

State Secretary Dean Rusk was faced with congressional demands that he say whether the administration approves the private efforts to exchange earthmoving equipment for the freedom of 1,200 Cuban invasion prisoners.

Heated speeches in which Cuban Prime Minister Castro's proposal for such an exchange was described as a "heinous barter" by an "inhuman monster" kept the Senate in session until Monday evening.

From Cuba came word that Castro threatens to break off the negotiations.

"If the insults of Mr. Kennedy's agents continue with regard to the indemnification Cuba demands," said an official Cuban radio commentator, "then all discussion will be stopped and the mercenaries (prisoners) will have to face the revolutionary tribunals of the Cuban people."

Castro has been infuriated by the United States' calling the proposal an exchange. He insists it is indemnification for damage caused by the invasion.

Senator Wayne Morse, Oregon Democrat who is chairman of the Senate Latin American subcommittee, said the state department owes it to the people to make a statement of policy on the offer.

He asked Rusk to announce soon "what the position of our government is."

Morse called it "a dangerous thing to countenance" voluntary committees whose operations are bound to have " repercussions on our foreign policy."

Senator J. William Fulbright (Dem. Ark.), chairman of the Senate foreign relations committee, that he didn't believe the government "should lend itself to that kind of a blackmail operation."

Senator Homer Capehart (Re. Ind.) said that if sponsors of the fund-raising drive are acting without President Kennedy's authority they "are violating the law."

The government has officially remained aloof from the negotiations.

Senator Styles Bridges (Rep. N.H.) asked "how much more humiliation and contempt must we suffer from this Communist operation?"

Morse called it "a dangerous thing to countenance" voluntary committees whose operations are bound to have " repercussions on our foreign policy."

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Police today announced the arrest of a man accused of beating an NBC cameraman and a soundman in the outbreak of race rioting that put this city in the deep south under martial law.

Roving bands of white youths, bomb threats and reports of new attempts at racially integrated freedom rides caused an uneasy night in this Alabama capital city, ruled by National Guardsmen.

The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) said it was trying to make bus reservations for another freedom ride. Such a trip Saturday touched off the bloody riot and led to Sunday's attempted mob assault on a Negro church.

Assistant police Chief E. P. Brown said a man identified as Claude Henley, 37, of Montgomery, was jailed and then released under $200 bond on charges of attacking NBC cameraman Maurice Levey and soundman H. W. Riser.

WAS IN CROWD

Brown said Henley admitted being in the crowd, but refused to say whether he participated in the violence.

The mob jerked cameras from photographers and beat Levey and Riser before savagely attacking nearly two dozen white and Negro freedom riders just after they stepped off a bus in the Greyhound station Saturday.

Also beaten was John Seigenthaler, an assistant to Attorney General Robert Kennedy. Seigenthaler had come here as President Kennedy's emissary to ask Governor John Patterson to guarantee the safety of the freedom riders.

Five previously arrested persons were fined from $25 to $100 Monday for failing to obey officers at the bus station riot. Police said the five did not take part in the violence.

Commons quiz

Gordon's future on block?

OTTAWA (CP)—Is the government preparing to guillotine the railroad career of CNR President Donald Gordon?

The Commons got no answer Monday after hours of opposition quizzing.

J. W. Pickersgill (L-Bonaville-Twillingate) said the government is waiting for passage of its capital punishment bill to decide about Mr. Gordon.

"They can't really make up their minds whether to hang him or give him a life sentence," he said.

All that Transport Minister Balcer would say was this: "I must say that personally I have always had extremely good relations with Mr. Gordon. He has co-operated during the time I have been the minister and personally I am satisfied with his work."

WANT HIS HEAD

Mr. Balcer became transport minister last October. Since then, CP and Progressive Conservative back-benchers, led by Douglas Fisher (CCF — Port Arthur), have demanded Mr. Gordon's head.

Under persistent opposition pressure, Mr. Balcer declined to say whether Mr. Gordon will be re-appointed CNR president. His term expired last Sept. 30 and he has been kept on from day to day since.

The subject came up during discussion of a bill, subsequently given third and final reading, to increase membership of the CNR board of directors to 12 from seven.

The Liberals, opposing the enlargement of the board, tried unsuccessfully to write into the bill automatic re-appointment for Mr. Gordon.

Jack H. Horner (PC—Acadia) said that if the board were enlarged to take care of political appointments, why stop at 12? Why not 25 directors?

MADE PROGRESS

The Victoria Day holiday sitting, opened by the singing of "God Save the Queen," also saw the Commons make progress on two other bills.

It gave second reading—approval in principle—to the Agricultural Rehabilitation and Development Act and to a 41-section bill amending the Canada Shipping Act.

The rural rehabilitation act would provide for various federal-provincial agreements to put marginal farm land to better use and generally strengthen the economies of agricultural areas.

Lionel Chevrier (L—Montreal-Laurier), a former transport minister, said the great many amendments to the Canada Shipping Act proposed by present and past transport ministers demonstrate it is outdated. The government should appoint a commission to study the act.

Firemen called in to switch flags

A hook and ladder from the Sherbrooke fire department was called in today to remove a fleur de lys flag from a pole in front of the Sherbrooke legion branch No. 10 on Prospect Street.

The flag was put there early Saturday morning apparently as a protest against the recent attack by the Amicale du Royale 22e Regiment, a veterans organization, on Quebec independence movements.

J. A. Bourgeois, treasurer of Branch No. 10, said members of the local legion are not up set by the incident and are taking it as a joke.

A new red ensign was raised this morning after two members of the Sherbrooke fire department using hook and ladder equipment removed the fleur de lys which had got snagged at the top of the flag pole.

Mr. Bourgeois said that the incident was obviously connected with the statement by Col. William A. Mackay at a press conference last Thursday in Montreal condemning Quebec separatist movements. Col. Mackay is a member of the Amicale du Royale 22e Regiment.

The placard which accompanied the flag had on it written in French "Col. Mackay, we are not afraid of your bullets." The placard also had on it one of the French language Montreal paper's accounts of Thursday's press conference.

The fleur de lys was stolen early Saturday morning, the St. Jean Baptiste Society of the University was apparently willing to effect some sort of trade with the Sherbrooke branch of the Legion. Mr. Bourgeois said he had heard nothing of this plan and went ahead on his own to have the flag removed.

"There has been no suggestion of returning it to the University of Sherbrooke," he said. "We'd like to keep it as a souvenir."

Vandals paint home of Separation critic

MONTREAL (CP) — Vandals in north-end Montreal and on Monday daubed black and yellow paint on the home and car of Paul Aubut, veteran of Quebec's Royal 22nd Regiment and outspoken critic of the separatist movement in Quebec.

Mr. Aubut, 45, a lawyer, said the words "traître" and "li-berte" were painted in foot-high letters on the walls of his home.

The veterans' group issued a statement last week saying members of three secessionist parties were "traitors."

FLEUR DE LYS REMOVED — J. A. Bourgeois, treasurer of the Sherbrooke branch of the Royal Canadian Legion holds the fleur de lys which was put up on the legion flag pole early Saturday morning. Attached to the flag pole was a placard saying "Colonel Mackay we are not afraid of your bullets. Long live our French Canadian veterans. This was one of a series of incidents resulting from statement made by Col. Mackay in Montreal on Thursday condemning Quebec separatist movements. (Record Photo by Gerry Lemay)

How to get the most from your life insurance
It's a three step suggestion and, as it should, it starts with you. When you purchased life insurance, you no doubt had in mind definite jobs for it to do for your family if you die; for you if you live. But time brings many changes... and it makes good sense for you to review your objectives and to check whether your life insurance currently meets them.

There are two other people who can help. The first is your wife. Your life insurance is designed for her and the family and it's wise to have her know your plans. The more she understands your objectives, the more she will be able to help you keep them up-to-date, and the better she'll be able to use this priceless protection that is being paid for through her careful budgeting.

The second is the Man from Manufacturers. Through him, the flexibility of your policies will come to life. His experienced, practical recommendations add up to an invaluable source of service for you now and for your family later.

How to get the most from your life insurance
It's a three step suggestion and, as it should, it starts with you. When you purchased life insurance, you no doubt had in mind definite jobs for it to do for your family if you die; for you if you live. But time brings many changes... and it makes good sense for you to review your objectives and to check whether your life insurance currently meets them.

There are two other people who can help. The first is your wife. Your life insurance is designed for her and the family and it's wise to have her know your plans. The more she understands your objectives, the more she will be able to help you keep them up-to-date, and the better she'll be able to use this priceless protection that is being paid for through her careful budgeting.

Stresses importance

Town plan vital to orderly progress

With a master town or city plan it is possible to foresee the evolution of a municipality, to plan its development and coordinate all the working elements, thereby making such a plan indispensable to any municipal council which intends to pursue a rational policy of development.

"This plan must remain alive, which is to say that it must adapt itself constantly to changing conditions," Jean-Louis Doucet, Q.C., Quebec Deputy-Minister of Municipal Affairs, told guests at the closing banquet of the provincial convention of the Community Planning Association of Canada held at the New Sherbrooke Hotel, Friday and Saturday.

"In this sense, the master plan must be a reference book, a positive guide and an indispensable plan for the future," he said.

At Friday Night's meeting, Sherbrooke Director of Services Charles Langlois was elected president of the Quebec Division of the Community Planning Association of Canada.

Emphasizing the importance of zoning the speaker told his audience that "after undergoing a slow maturation, zoning is now reaching the turning point in its evolution. That which started as a method of safeguarding property, more and more is becoming a dynamic instrument of planning."

"The zoning bylaw must, in a positive manner, permit development and not restrain it. However, certain rules must be followed or anarchy would result. And these same rules must be set aside at times for the general good."

"A more flexible bylaw, based on the future needs of a municipality, best meets the zoning requirements."

He noted that this master plan must not only integrate itself in the complex mechanism of municipal administration, but must also meet with the approval of the public.

"To this end, the municipal urbanism committee must be

Break into garage, pair are arrested

Two brothers, Denis and Gilles Pelletier, of R.R. 1 in Magog Township, were apprehended early Tuesday morning after breaking into the Garage Langlois, 719 Main Street, Magog.

The pair, in their twenties, caused an estimated $200 damage to cigarette and chocolate bar machines in the garage, according to Magog police. They also stole money, lighters and cellulose tape valued at $85.54.

Constable Antonio Goyette noticed the pair inside while making a regular check of the garage. He chased and caught them.

Blast at A-plant

instrumental in explaining the details of the plan as well as in carrying them out. The committee must also do the preliminary work in formulating a policy for council to follow.

"It can hire specialists, technicians and councillors whenever necessary because the municipal urbanism committee is the heart of a good urbanism plan," he said.

The general public can be interested in town planning through the local newspapers or by an exhibition of various facets of the master plan. They can then be invited to give their opinions to the urbanism committee and can thus participate in the planning of their own municipality, he concluded.

Strike vote taken

Union members working at the Richmond Pulp and Paper company Bromptonville, met at noon Tuesday in Sherbrooke to consider further an offer made by the company to the union regarding a recent wage dispute.

Friday afternoon 304 union members cast a 96 per cent vote in favor of a strike because the company refused the conciliation decision of a 45-cent per hour wage increase, retroactive to June 1, 1960, the union says.

The 15-cent increase meant an additional expense to the company of about $125,000 per year, the union said.

The company's counter-offer to split the difference meant an increase in expenses to the company of nearly $50,000. Furthermore, the company's offer was to begin June 1, 1961, the union said.

Representing the company are A. M. Swan, manager; J. T. Lang, personnel manager, and Maurice Emmond, superintendent of personnel.

Union representatives during negotiations were J. G. Morin, technical advisor; Joseph Viboux, union president; Marcel Nadeau, secretary, and Charles Quiriaux, treasurer.

The Vienna summit

Announcement of President Kennedy's forthcoming meeting with Mr. Khrushchev in Vienna June 3 and 4 has been generally received around the world with hope and optimism.

The general feeling seems to be that even if no great accomplishments come out of the meeting, it will be good for the two leaders to get to know one another. There is a feeling, too, that Mr. Kennedy as a person will appeal more to Khrushchev than Mr. Eisenhower did. He could, in any case, hardly appeal less.

But the meeting will be a tough test for the U.S. president, one of the toughest, perhaps, that has ever been faced by the head of any great country.

World events are heavily weighted in Mr. Khrushchev's favor, and there can be doubt that he will capitalize on this.

His forces now control about half of Laos, where a few years ago, they didn't control a square foot of the country, and there is reason to believe that this situation is going to improve in the West's favor.

Cuba has become almost a satellite of the Soviet Union. The fact of Cuban Communism alone would be a feather in Mr. K's cap, but added to it is the invasion fiasco in which the United States covered itself miserably with ignominy.

Never before has an American president had to discuss world tensions with a Soviet leader with such a gun pointing at the back of the U.S. only a few short miles away. There is no possible way in which Mr. Kennedy can minimize the Cuban situation; there are, on the other hand, a multitude of ways in which Mr. Khrushchev can use it to his advantage.

In the race for space, Russia has a clear and giant lead. At this particular summit meeting, Alan Shepherd's exploits will be hardly worth mentioning. They will certainly carry little weight. And Russian timing of space accomplishments being what it is, there is a distinct possibility that some new achievement will have been added to the Russian list by the time the two leaders sit down together.

Berlin is still an unresolved issue. Khrushchev has let it lie quiet for some time now, but he can heat it up quite easily at a moment's notice.

On the domestic front, the United States has racial problems, and labor troubles connected with her space program. Both of these are gaping chinks in whatever armor the United States has, and Mr. Khrushchev will have no trouble finding them.

For all of these reasons, plus the bitter memory of the last summit attempt and the long record of Russian tactics at similar gatherings, optimism over the coming meeting must be qualified.

The most that Mr. Kennedy can hope to achieve is modification in the world atmosphere; a loosening of the tension, some warming of feelings, based, perhaps, on nothing more than individual personality.

If he can do this, then his time will have been well spent.

Workshop for handicapped

A workshop to employ the handicapped is soon to be opened in this area.

With 329 unemployed handicapped persons registered at the Sherbrooke unemployment office the project is a welcome and worthwhile one.

Jobs such as packaging, wiring, and finishing will be done at the workshop, and local merchants have promised to support the project.

The decision to set up a workshop is the culmination of months of work by the Sherbrooke Welfare Council whose limited budget makes additional projects difficult to undertake.

Although it is hoped that the workshop will eventually become self-sufficient it will have to be subsidized in order to get started.

The Sherbrooke Trade School will provide the workshop with facilities rent-free but more than this is necessary to make the project a success.

The businessmen who have shown an interest in the project must support it fully, and private citizens must be willing to subscribe to the Welfare Council when an appeal is made for funds.

In these ways the people of Sherbrooke will be providing themselves with increased services and helping other residents to make a living, some of them perhaps for the first time.

Editorial notes

Some researcher, digging back through newspaper files, came up with the following article which appeared in The Economist of London, February 22, 1861, just one hundred years ago: "... the income tax (we were told) might be gradually reduced, and might in 1860 be relinquished. . . . These sanguine expectations are now past — the year 1860 has gone and the income tax is pressing on us more heavily than ever, in time of peace, it did before. Mr. Gladstone, who told us it would cease, was the very Minister who proposed its augmentation. What practical man ever now expects to see its end: who is credulous enough to hope for a year in which we will not pay it?"

Man feeds as much grain to animals as he consumes himself according to a survey released by the Food and Agriculture Organization in Rome.

But don't feel too noble about it. Most men also show a distinct preference for beefsteak over grain.

Takes over from Raab in Austria

Stability new chancellor's aim

By FRANK HAARHOFF

A man who survived Dachau and other concentration camps has become chancellor of Austria, succeeding Julius Raab.

who resigned for reasons of ill health. He is 62-year-old Dr. Alfons Gorbach. The new head of government is chairman of the People's Party, succeeding Julius Raab.

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — President Kennedy is reliably reported to have been wondering, after his unexpectedly pithy and pointed speech to Parliament last week, whether he had gone too far and offended Canadians.

Some reaction tended to support the president's reflective thought. Almost everybody described the speech as "tough." Some Conservative MPs called it "direct and demanding," and "arm-twisting."

But surprisingly, even those who reacted most sharply seemed to resent the Kennedy speech less than they had resented a milder speech by President Eisenhower here two years ago.

The explanation of this anomaly is largely the warm personal image that President and Mrs. Kennedy projected. For instance, the wife of a leading parliamentary figure objected to Kennedy "coming up here and telling us what to do." After two minutes in his company, talking with him, she reversed her opinion.

Political leaders here suggest that Kennedy was speaking as much for the benefit of European members of NATO as for the Canadian Parliament and government. His firm determination to strengthen the West's military and economic defences was thus made amply clear in advance of his meeting with Nikita Khrushchev. And his pleas for acceptance of American nuclear weapons by NATO countries, for increased conventional forces committed to NATO, and for greater integration of the alliance's national forces were specially significant a fortnight in advance of his meeting with a leader who has been strongly antagonistic to such ideas — President de Gaulle of France.

At the same time, however, the speech reflects American uncertainty as to our government's position on important matters. And also, although perhaps only in minor degree, US annoyance over Foreign Minister Green's reported eagerness to mediate between the US and Cuba, and US coolness on our wheat deal with Red China. Country's economic well being depends on the good will and cooperation of the administration in Washington. The cost of saying "No" to all of Kennedy's suggestions might be more than the cost of adopting some.

The likeliest area for quick and favorable response is that of inter-American affairs, with Canada joining the Organization of American States. Also likely is an increase in money allocated to foreign aid. However, high sources here do not consider Kennedy made a feasible suggestion when he proposed that Canada and the US should devote one per cent of the The president and the prime minister are temperamental opposites. The former is direct and decisive; the latter prone to procrastinate, to postpone hard decisions. In part this explains the punchiness of Kennedy's speech. It inhibited a true meeting of minds. And it will be a factor of continuing importance in Ottawa-Washington relations.

Nevertheless, Kennedy's firm approach will force Diefenbaker to some firm decisions. A substantial measure of this value of their gross national products to foreign aid. And Kennedy was so informed.

Whatever increase the government may request of Parliament, it is likely that only a modest amount of it would go to Latin America. Quite obviously the president does not appreciate what has been called "the mystique of the Commonwealth." He was perplexed as to why Canada should concentrate nearly all its foreign aid program on underdeveloped Commonwealth countries in Asia and Africa, and ignore Latin America's needs.

The government may well rectify its neglect of Latin America, but it isn't likely to do this at the expense of its Colombo Plan program.

Dr. Gorbach lost a leg on the Italian front in World War I. He was arrested when Hitler took over Austria. He had always opposed the Nazis, who sent him to a concentration camp from 1938 until 1943. After his release that same year, the Nazis put him to work in a factory. But this relative freedom did not last long. One year later, Dr. Gorbach ended up in Dachau where his steadfastness and courage won general praise. The Americans liberated him in 1945.

Austria's chancellor is considered a middle-of-the-roader, committed to the preservation of the coalition with the Socialists. This coalition—eight Conservatives and eight Socialists in the cabinet—entails a sharing of power between the two large political parties which are almost equally strong. This system is known in Austria as the "proporz."

Dr. Gorbach sees the most important task of the new government in maintaining Austria's independence which was restored in 1955 with the State Treaty and the withdrawal of the occupation forces. He is also determined to follow a sound economic course, to preserve the country's monetary stability and to do everything possible to advance its prosperity.

Although Alfons Gorbach pledged to continue the coalition with the Socialists, he plans at the same time a reform of the so-called coalition committee formed by the leading politicians of the two parties meeting in private conclave. As a result of the proporz, many decisions are detached from parliament and

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

NORTH'S BID IS INTERESTING

When a good partnership is clicking away it is a pleasure to watch it operate. Mervyn Key and Bobby Nail of Houston are one of these good partnerships and it is worthwhile to see how easily they reached three no-trump with the North-South cards.

Of course, many other players would handle these cards all right also. Experts don't have a monopoly on good results.

Bobby has a normal double of West's one heart opening and Mervyn, in the South, has a sound one no-trump response. He has eight high card points, two potential heart stoppers, and no interest in the other major suit.

Bobby's raise to two no-trump is the interesting bid of the hand. He saw no reason to show one of his four card suits after Mervyn had bid no-trump and his only problem was whether to bid two or three. His choice of a mere two no-trump showed his confidence in the fact that Mervyn would know about the bonus for bidding and making a game.

Sure enough, Mervyn went to three. There was nothing much to the play. West opened the queen of spades. Mervyn won in dummy and led the jack of hearts. Eventually he set up one heart trick which was enough when added to his two spades, two diamonds and four clubs.

Q—The bidding has been: West North East South 1 Club Dble 1 Spade 1 N.T. Pass 2 Hearts Pass ? You, South, hold: Spades K-J-4, Hearts 8-7, Diamonds Q-10-6-5, Clubs K-J-8-7. What do you do?

even from the cabinet and placed in the hands of this committee, and many Austrians consider this system undemocratic.

In his first statement on taking office recently, the new chancellor hinted it would be difficult to replace Julius Raab, who had given this Alpine country strong leadership for eight years. Dr. Raab is credited with Austria's reconstruction. Nevertheless, many Austrians feel that with younger men taking over in both parties, there will be a fresh wind blowing that might bring more prosperity and security than ever before. Chancellor Gorbach has already promised this fresh wind.

A—Bid two no-trump. This is not a denial of hearts, but rather shows your partner that you

RESCUE HOPE FOR TV FANS
(Detroit Free Press)

Newton N. Minow, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, has earned a niche in the Hall of Fame by warning TV stations that if they insist on cramming more commercials into their programs the FCC may take action.

That is the sort of talk which will endear Mr. Minow to millions of long suffering TV viewers whose favorite gunslingers are in danger of being crowded right out of the picture by interminable sales pitches about detergents.

There was a time when station breaks were only long enough to enable the viewer to get to the kitchen and back with a re-filled glass and a fresh supply of popcorn. Now, however, the trend is such that if one is so minded he almost has time to prepare a seven course meal before the sheriff gets back in action.

We concede that TV stations and program sponsors have to live, and that they're entitled to a reasonable puff. But the audience has to live, also and there's danger of its succumbing to sheer boredom from windy spiels by the product pluggers.

Obviously, Mr. Minow is a TV watcher himself. More important, he sounds like a great humanitarian.

ON THE POLAR ICE

(Ottawa Journal)

What has happened to the trackless North? Consider four men stranded on the polar ice pack less than 700 miles south of the North Pole, almost as far north of the Arctic Circle as Winnipeg is south of it, and as far north of Winnipeg as Vancouver is from Ottawa. Saturday their plane goes down; early Monday morning they are found.

These explorers worked by air from a base at Isachsen, on Ellef Ringnes Island, one of a group of the Queen Elizabeth Islands first explored by the Norwegian navigator, Otto Sverdrup. For Sverdrup that exploration meant four years without leaving the Arctic, from 1898 to 1902, and slow and rigorous progress by dogsled.

But the new way has its own problems too. Isachsen is 350 miles north of the North Magnetic Pole. Here the compass falters. When these surveyors flew out of Isachsen they were headed for Meighen Island. It is low and small—30 miles from north to south and 15 miles from east to west—it is ice capped, and it is on the edge of the sheer, white expanse of the polar ice pack. To us in the tame and familiar South, the wonder is not that they apparently overshot their goal, but that once down, they were so quickly found.

Perhaps the best clue to the nature of the new North is that one member of the expedition was not an adventurous flier, not an intrepid explorer, but a sales manager for a manufacturer of mining equipment. The North is in business.

By CHARLES CATCHPAUGH

The long standing association of the Sherbrooke Regiment RCAC and No. 2 Cadet Corps (Bishop's College School) will be remembered on Friday, May 26th, when the latter unit observes the centenary of its formation.

A number of ex-Cadets served with the Regiment in the Second World War, including Lt.-Col. S. V. Radley-Walters, who was commanding the Regiment at the end of the War.

In 1948-50, Lt. Ian MacLean, Lt. K. T. Paton, Lt. C. M. Williams and Lt. R. S. S. Grier.

One of the School's most prized trophies is the McArthur Cup, donated by a former O.C. of the Regiment, and awarded annually to the best shot in the Corps.

The Inspection on May 26th by an Old Boy, Major-General Robert Moncel, will commemorate the formation of the Corps in 1861. Five years later, the cadets as a Rifle Company attached to the 54th Battalion, before it again became the 53rd, was called out on active service during the threatened Fenian Raids, and so became one of the three Cadet Corps in Canada to be permitted to carry Battle Colours. The Corps is the oldest in Canada in continuous service.

Major R. W. Sweet, O.C. 24 Technical Squadron RCAC, and Capt. Edson Warner of the Sherbrooke Regiment RCAC left Sherbrooke last Friday for Camp Borden, where they'll spend two weeks taking the Militia Field Officers' Course part II. They expect to return on June 4th.

The following resume of training activities directed by the Quebec Command Sherbrooke Sector I-Staff from the first of January, is good evidence of the fine work done by these permanent force soldiers on behalf of the Militia.

Eight trade and specialty courses followed by tests were conducted by the staff during this time. Eighty candidates attended these courses, of which 75% qualified.

A driver (MT) group 1, block 1 course was given to candidates from The Sherbrooke Regiment, 24 Technical Squadron, 72nd Field Artillery Battery RCA of Coaticook and Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke.

A junior NCO qualifying course was conducted for The Sherbrooke Regiment, 8th Medical Company and Magog's "D" Company of Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke.

A senior NCO course was given for the benefit of The Sherbrooke Regiment, Les Fusiliers de Sherbrooke, 24 Technical Squadron and 8th Medical Company.

Headquarters Squadron of the 7/11 Hussars, Bury, and 24 Technical Squadron were given the signaller group 1, block 1 course.

"B" Squadron, 7/11 Hussars Windsor were given the signaller group 1, block 2 course.

Besides these courses the I-Staff conducted seven recruit tests and seven trained militia men tests for the local units which gave their own instruction in these two subjects. On numerous occasions the I-Staff loaned their assistance to the units' instructors.

On several occasions the I-Staff instructors gave their own time to assist cadet corps at Stanstead, and Bishop's in Lennoxville.

Capt. R. Durand, who heads the I-Staff in Sherbrooke will be stationed at Camp Farnham this summer. All other members of his staff will be at this centre during the month of June, but some will be posted elsewhere during July and August after militia camps are completed.

After summer camps Sgt. J. J. McGillis will be posted permanently at Camp Gagetown, Sgt. J. Marois to Camp Petawawa and Sgt. J. Desrochers to Camp Valcartier.

The remaining five members of the I-Staff: Sgt. E. Westerman, Sgt. M. Sitter, Sgt. R. Atlas, Sgt. L. K. O'Murtagh and Sgt. T. Bechard are expected back at Sherbrooke in September.

Replacements for the three NCOs being posted are not known at this time.

Wednesday, May 24th all headquarters staff of Quebec Command, which includes members of the Sherbrooke Sector I-Staff will go to Mount Bruno for their annual range qualification.

WELL-DERVED SALUTE

Today's tribute is to W.O. Earl Hallett, CD, RSM for the 8th Medical Company, RCAC. Mr. Hallett has been with the Militia for many years, having served in the field artillery, armoured corps and medical. His long experience and conscientious attitude toward military service has won him many admirers.

SPIT IN POLISH

Today I'll harp on the old subject of good appearance, and remind militiamen reading this item to give special attention to their bush uniforms which will be issued soon. These uniforms were designed for rough use in outdoor summer training, and require considerable care to look smart. When you receive your issue, give it a good grooming, and get it adjusted to fit properly. Otherwise you'll appear shabby, and a sloppy looking soldier does not bring credit to the army, his unit or himself.

S. Africa tightens security

JOHANNESBURG (Reuters) — Tightened security measures were enforced throughout South Africa today as the government — with Republic Day only eight days away — braced for trouble.

The country's biggest peace-time military callup was well under way and whites were reported buying up small arms and ammunition in preparation for any threat that may emerge when the republic is proclaimed May 31.

Four hundred Negroes appeared in court here today, bringing the total arrested in five days of roundups in the Johannesburg area alone to nearly 2,500.

African organizations have asked Negroes to stage a three-day strike at the end of the month in protest against the change to republic status.

The security squeeze was tightened still further Monday after alleged seizure of explosives in Johannesburg and the Western Transvaal. Two prominent members of the British organization, United English speaking South Africans, were arrested on charges under the Explosives Act.

BOAC to expand

WASHINGTON (Reuters) — British Overseas Airways Corporation received authority from the United States Monday to expand its services to South America. The U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board issued the British carrier a permit to fly between co-terminal points in England and Scotland to the U.S. east coast and the Bahama Islands and Jamaica and beyond to new intermediate points in Cuba, Panama, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru and terminating at Santiago, Chile.

Reds welcome talks

MOSCOW (AP) — First deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan said Monday night that even if Premier Khrushchev and President Kennedy do nothing but exchange views, it will be a good thing. This was the first high-level Soviet comment on the early June talks in Vienna.

quick quiz with
on our free hospital insurance services

WHO qualifies?

- 1 Any person who has been living in the Province of Québec for at least three months.
- 2 The new-born child of such residents is entitled immediately to these services.
- 3 It is up to you to prove to the hospital that you qualify.
- 4 Transients and visitors do not qualify: services received here will be charged to their own provinces.

WHEN to seek hospital admission?

- 1 When you really need it. It's up to the doctor to decide.
- 2 If you are in a serious accident, the hospital may decide instead.
- 3 You may stay at the hospital just as long as your doctor considers it medically necessary.
- 4 Whenever we say "your doctor", we mean the attending physician.

WHICH hospital to select?

- 1 Any hospital having a contract with the provincial Department of Health.
- 2 This excludes TB sanatoriums, hospitals for mental patients, old people's homes and a few other institutions.
- 3 If you are transferred to another hospital for medical reasons, you still qualify for Hospital Insurance benefits.
- 4 If you are admitted to a hospital elsewhere in Canada, Québec will foot the bill — at the rate in force there.
- 5 If you require hospital treatment outside Canada, Québec will refund costs incurred — up to $15 per day.

WHAT benefits are free?

- 1 The usual standard ward accommodation and meals.
- 2 Whatever nursing care is required.
- 3 The following services: laboratory, radiology and other means of diagnosis — including the required interpretations.
- 4 Medication, medicines and other products prescribed by the doctor and administered at the hospital. But you must pay for any item taken home with you.
- 5 The use of operating and delivery rooms, including anaesthetic facilities and standard surgical requisites.
- 6 Radiotherapy and physiotherapy, namely X-ray, electrical, massage and other treatments.

* Items which you must pay for:

- A The doctor, the surgeon and the anaesthetist.
- B Patent medicines and the ambulance or other means of transportation.
- C Services supplied in the out-patient department or outside the hospital.
- D Services received solely for the purpose of "check-up" examinations.

-  A private or semi-private room is provided free of charge only in two instances:
- 1 — when your doctor decides that your condition requires such accommodation;
 - 2 — when there is no vacancy in the standard wards.

In all other cases, you must pay for the room at the new low rate established by the Hospital Insurance plan.

AND PLEASE REMEMBER!

- 1 On leaving the hospital, be sure to get a Form AH-108 properly filled out. It will indicate clearly what you must pay, if anything, — and what our Hospital Insurance plan will pay for you.
- 2 Never ask your doctor for hospital treatment unless it is strictly necessary. Never remain at the hospital one day too many: this is an unfair and costly practice!

CONVERTED FARMHOUSE — A view of the back of the W. S. Sutherland home in North Hatley shows how the old house has been kept unspoiled and how the shrubbery and vine covered chimney add to its charm.

House and Garden Tour

Antique charm still remains in converted Victorian farm house

A Victorian farm house with a completely new interior — this is the North Hatley home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Sutherland. The house is one of seven which will be on display during the House and Garden Tour being held on June 6 sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Sherbrooke Hospital.

The house is set on a large and beautifully laid garden overlooking the North Hatley golf course. The large field stone chimney covered with vines and the old windows with many small panes of glass gives the impression that the house has changed little since it was built in the 1890's.

Although the interior of the house has been completely remodeled the antique charm remains. Many of the pieces with which the house is furnished were made by Mrs. Sutherland's grandfather, Samuel Burns, who was one of the early settlers on Stanstead Plain.

The house is furnished at most entirely with furniture handmade by early settlers in the Eastern Townships. Mrs. Sutherland inherited some of the furniture from a branch of the family who were Lawrenceville's first settlers.

The house is designed in such a way that the top of the house can be cut off if the rooms are not needed and then opened up when there are guests.

Ban Paint Odor

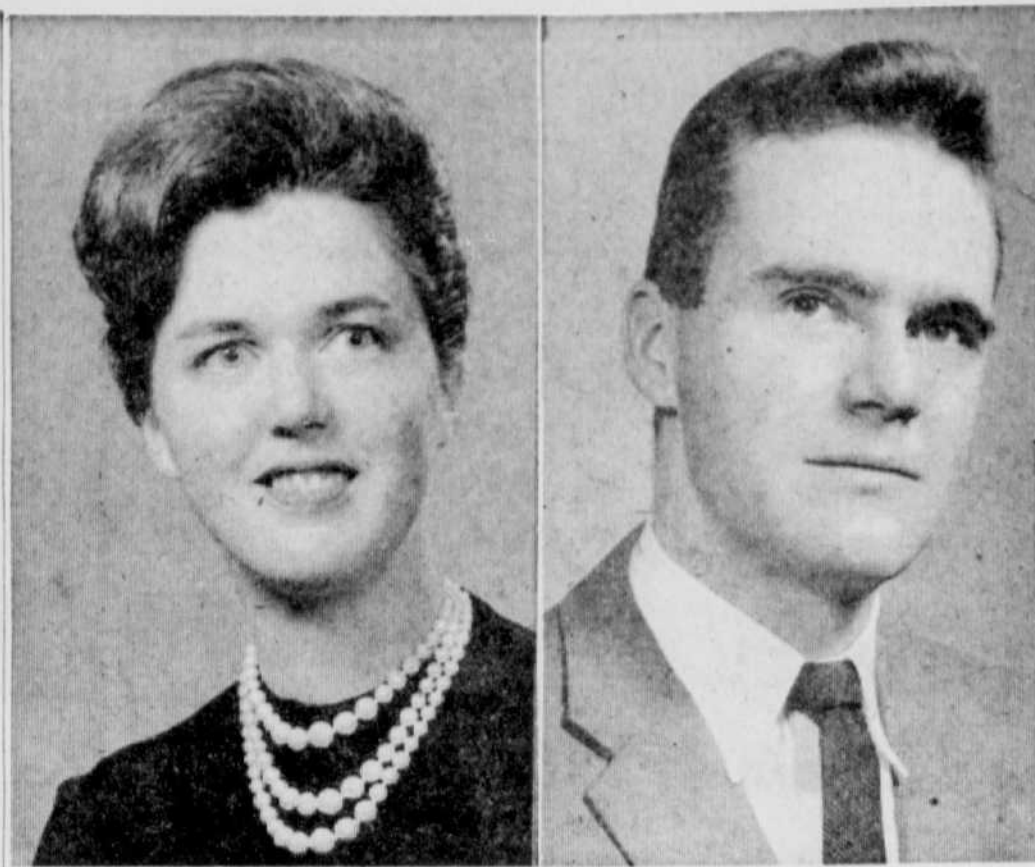

The odor of paint is unpleasant. You can remove the odor while painting if you put one tablespoon of vanilla into one gallon of paint. It will not harm or change color of the paint.

Save That Gravy

If you have leftover gravy, freeze it in an ice tray and you'll have the exact amount needed for individual hot sandwiches at a later date.

Safety Measure

When you remove the lid of a boiling pot, lift the far side first to prevent the steam from burning your face.

Y.W.C.A. presents summer program

"The Program Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association met recently to formulate plans for the summer and fall months. In addition to the Stay-at-home camp which will meet every morning for six weeks starting on July 10, there will be swimming for the whole family on Tuesday and Friday afternoons, and a mixed dip for adults on Monday and Thursday evenings.

The program for the Fall term includes swimming classes for children and adults, Keep Fit for adults, and a Basketball team, as well as activities for teenagers and younger girls. Tap and Ballet will continue under the able direction of Mrs. K. Hoogenberk, and it is anticipated that extra classes will be opened for these two items. An adult education series is also planned—details to be announced later.

The annual spring demonstration of Red Cross Swimming classes, combined with a family supper, will take place on Thursday, June 8. The committee to plan this supper, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Norman Stafford and Mrs. Adam Clarke, assisted by Mrs. Nowell Porritt, has already planned an attractive and tasty menu. Tickets will be on sale for this either from the office or from the members of the Y.W.C.A."

In Home Economics, Mrs. Eugene Naylor reported, Milby clubroom had been painted. Lennoxville made drapes for their clubroom and these two branches had entered hooked chair-seats in the Tweedsmuir Competition.

The Welfare and Health Convener, Mrs. M. MacDonald reported that gifts had been given to cancer patients, the Grace Christian Home and the School for Retarded Children. Members had given time making dressings at the Cancer Dressings Station in Sherbrooke.

Several members have given radio broadcasts about the fifty year growth of the Quebec Women's Institutes and more will be heard about the Jubilee being held on June 29 at MacDonald College.

After the noon recess, when lunch was served by the Milby Branch, Mrs. Wallace introduced Mrs. Herbert Ellard, QWI president, who was impressed by the number of young women present and she stressed the ways that the WI could help them in this time of great changes in the world around them.

GEORGEVILLE — The sudden death of Mrs. Flossie Hand occurred at her home here on May 5, 1961, she was in her 64th year.

Mrs. Hand was born in England on Dec. 31, 1897, daughter of the late Arthur Silvester and his wife, Harriet Burroughs. She came to Canada as a small child, spending most of her life in and around Georgeville. She was married to Herbert Hand, who predeceased her four years ago.

Left to mourn are her four children, Thera, Mrs. George Groome, Bromptonville, Elgin, East Greenfield, Kneha, Mrs. Oscar Reeves, Beebe, and Berta, Mrs. Ralph Gerry of Sherbrooke; one sister, Mrs. Ethel Hand, Beebe; one brother, George Silvester, St. Lambert; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral was held at the Georgeville United Church at 2:30 on May 8, Rev. F. Mitchell of Magog officiating.

The bearers were Alton Keet, Freddie Keet, Donald Bernas, Allison Dustin, Lloyd McTavish and Pat Dixon, all friends of the deceased.

The service was largely attended by friends and relatives from the surrounding communities.

Interment was in Macpherson Cemetery.

MRS. MILTON BREWER, OF HOLLAND, VT.

ROCK ISLAND — Mrs. Nettie Brewer, a life long resident of the Town of Holland, Vt., and at the time of her death, the oldest resident there, died on Tuesday, May 2.

The funeral took place on the following Friday afternoon from Racine and Cass Funeral Home, Derby Line, to Stanstead South Church, Rock Island, for service at two o'clock. Rev. T. W. Tyson, officiated.

The bearers were Fred Plinn, George Smith, Sr., William Bosley, Ralph Smith, Roy Gray and Cecil Whitman. Interment took place in the family plot in Crystal Lake Cemetery, Stanstead.

Nettie Rose was an only child, born on April 15, 1869, to W. A. and Ann (Forbes) Parsons, on the farm which overlooked another farm where later she began her married life and where she spent the remainder of her days.

In June, 1896, she was married to Milton Brewer and they were the third generation to reside at the Brewer Homestead. Mr. Brewer died in Nov. 1915.

Mrs. Brewer was faithful to her church and a devoted worker in West Holland Ladies Aid and Stanstead South Ladies Aid.

Since the marriage of her younger daughter, Mildred, to Harry Goodall, Mrs. Brewer had lived with them at the Brewer Homestead. In failing health the past two years, she was in rest homes for short intervals and with a relative in Stanstead, when not at her home. Three weeks prior to her death she fractured a hip and was a patient in Broadview Hospital, Newport, when she died.

Mrs. Brewer spent many happy hours in her later years doing light household tasks, knitting and making patchwork quilts.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Goodall, a grandson, and two granddaughters. An elder daughter, Mrs. Annie B. Taylor, died in 1924.

Among those attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Demick, Newport, Mrs. Ada Johnson, St. Johnsbury, and others from Holland, Derby, Beebe and Three Villages.

LET 'INDUCTIVE REASONING' GO TO WORK ON YOUR ILLS

Here are two more examples of successful application of my method of diagnosis and indicated treatment through what the detective called "inductive reasoning."

"Last fall when the nights began to get cool," writes a most gracious correspondent, "I began using two old, lightweight homespun wool blankets that had come down to me through two generations. I had kept them partially because of sentiment and had never actually used them before."

"Immediately, I began to have trouble in breathing at night, making sleep impossible. I was advised to use nasal sprays but they did me no good. My only relief came from walking the floor with the windows open, despite the cold."

"After reading your column, I decided to experiment and I purchased a blanket, 100 per cent acrylic and nonwool. I did that because I recalled that, years ago, I had shown an allergy to a detergent that produced an itching red rash on my face and arms."

"The first night under my new blanket, I slept nine hours without waking. And the second and third restful nights assured me that the wool blankets must have caused my trouble. I restored the bedrooms to the attic and have been comfortable ever since."

The second of these correspondents, a 70-year-old factory superintendent, developed headaches, fatigue and a sense of depression some five years ago. He visited a prominent diagnostic clinic where he was told he had "no organic disease but merely a nervous condition and a severe depression." Electric shock treatments were recommended and refused because of advanced age.

Returning to his family doctor, he decided "to try to battle out of the depression by continuing to work so as to keep my mind off myself." To assist him, tranquilizers were prescribed.

Over the course of the next years, our correspondent faithfully took at least eight different tranquilizers that he lists and others whose names he could not recall. Fearful of a further recommendation to submit to shock treatments, he took tranquilizer after tranquilizer although, to his original complaints, he now added dizziness and a lack of muscular control of his legs.

He had just about decided that "life seemed hardly worthwhile" when his attention was attracted to my column on "detective diagnosis." He stopped taking tranquilizers and has concluded that he believes he is "on the right track since my headaches are not so severe, my legs are getting stronger and I can see a great change in my outlook, though I suppose it will take some time to get back to normal."

Billy Hewitt Retires As Official Of CAHA, But Remains Life Member

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. (CP)—The Toronto News, and from W. A. (Billy) Hewitt, 86, retired Monday night as an official of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association but indicated he plans to be around for some time yet to promote the game he loves.

The Torontonians received a standing ovation from a dinner crowd at the CAHA's annual meeting here. He is retiring as the association's registrar-treasurer—a job he performed since 1924.

Hewitt told the crowd that he plans to continue taking a strong interest in hockey. "I may have a long way to go," he said.

Hewitt remains a life member of the CAHA and recently was elected to his 59th consecutive term as secretary of the Ontario Hockey Association. He said in an interview he plans to complete 60 years in the OHA job, then retire.

Billy Hewitt, father and grandfather respectively of radio and television hockey commentators Foster and Bill Hewitt, was born in Cobourg, Ont., May 15, 1875.

At 22, he was sports editor of

Sir Winston's Horse Captures Churchill Stakes

HURST PARK, England—(AP)—Sir Winston Churchill won his own horse race Monday for the first time in 10 years — and cleaned up $5,714 in prize money.

The 86-year-old statesman's High Hat won the Winston Churchill Stakes, named in Churchill's honor after the Second World War. The news was sent to him at his country residence, Chartwell, where he is spending the national Whitsun holiday weekend.

His only previous victory in the race was in 1951, when he won it with Colonel II.

The victory boosted Sir Winston's prospects of winning the coveted Ascot Gold Cup next month. High Hat is one of Britain's brightest hopes in that race.

High Hat led from the start in today's race, an event for horses over four-years old over two miles and 70 yards. In a close finish he held his lead and won by three-quarters of a length from Shatter, with Jet Stream third, four lengths behind. The time was 3:44.4.

Canadiens, Aces Reach Agreement

QUEBEC (CP)—Quebec Aces of the American Hockey League announced Monday night they have reached a "gentlemen's agreement" with Montreal Canadiens of the National Hockey League.

"We need the Canadiens, and the Canadiens need us," Gerald Martineau, honorary president of the Aces, told a press conference.

Mr. Martineau said the Aces will continue as an independent club, however.

The Aces also announced they have acquired left winger Guy Rousseau of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League in exchange for right winger Norm Corcoran and cash.

Rousseau, 26, played the last three seasons with Rochester Americans of the AHL, while Corcoran, 30, spent the last two seasons with the Aces.

The amount of money involved was not disclosed.

Yanks' Maris Plays Blind Right Field

NEW YORK (AP)—"Imagine," laughed manager Ralph Houck of New York Yankees today, "having a guy playing right field who can't even see the pitcher."

It happened Monday night in the first inning of the Yankee-Baltimore game at Yankee Stadium. Two Orioles were out and two were on base with Gus Triandos at bat.

Suddenly, Yank right fielder Roger Maris called time and rushed into the dugout and conferred with Houck. Then he disappeared from sight for a few minutes, reappeared, dashed back to the outfield, held a hurried conference with centre fielder Mickey Mantle and resumed his position.

"I couldn't see a thing, really," said Maris. "I had some drops in my eyes a couple of hours before the game and all of a sudden everything became blurred."

"I couldn't see the pitcher and could barely see the scoreboard. So I figured I'd better tell the manager. I washed the eyes out a little, but it didn't help much. Later on, they cleared up."

What was the conference with Mantle about?

Said Houck: "I told him to tell Mantle that if he saw a ball hit toward right field to get over there and fast."

Houck added that he left Maris in for the final out because he never had seen Triandos hit to right. Triandos forced Jim Gentile on a grounder to shortstop Tony Kubek and the Yanks went on to win 8-2.

Players And Officials Still Are At Odds Over Canada Cup Matches And Memphis Open, PGA Backs Club

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials talked of a "friendly and imminent solution" without any indication what it might be today in the squabble over whether golf stars Arnold Palmer, Gary Player at the same time, insist they will not release the three from routine PGA commitments.

Player, the Master champion from South Africa, says he has no intention of risking a six-month suspension and a $500 fine—called for if he defies his PGA commitment and represents his country in the San Juan matches. Palmer, defending U.S. Open champion who won the Canada Cup title paired with Sam Snead last year, and Leonard, one of Canada's top professionals, also are caught in the middle awaiting the outcome of the fuss between PGA and the International Golf Association, a negotiator and sponsor of the Canada Cup matches.

Said Ed Carter, PGA tournament director, of the Memphis move: "All the sponsors of our tour tournaments are endorsing the move because it means the existence of the whole tour. . . . If committed players are permitted to withdraw to play in competing tournaments without full agreement, the whole tour is threatened."

MUST PLAY

The system of commitments by top players in golf has been in effect for several years. Agreed to by the tour members, it states that if a golfer is in the top 25 money winners or has won a PGA-sponsored tournament within the last year, he must play in all sanctioned PGA tournaments or not compete at all while each tournament is in progress.

Two-man teams from 34 countries are scheduled to compete in the eighth annual Canada Cup matches. Snead and Palmer have been named to defend the crown as the U.S. team while Player and Leonard head their country's teams.

Leonard said Saturday in a telephone interview he will go home to Vancouver and "retire until this schmozzle is over." He said "I can't afford to play in the Canada Cup if it breaks the contract."

Paul Richards Named Manager Of AL All Stars

BOSTON (AP)—Paul Richards will make his debut in the all-star baseball games — as American League manager.

Richards was named Monday by American League president Joe Cronin as pilot for the two games, July 11 at San Francisco and July 31 here.

In seven seasons as a major league player and 10 previously as a manager, Richards had made an all star appearance.

Richards, 52, was named the AL manager-of-the-year when he directed Baltimore to a second place finish in 1960.

Richards' selection marks only the third time since 1933 that the previous year's pennant winning manager has not automatically directed the team.

Cronin said the retirement of Casey Stengel, manager of New York Yankees last year, necessitated the action.

American League starters, except for the pitchers, will be chosen on the vote of all active AL players, managers and coaches. Richards will name the rest of the squad including the pitchers and two coaches.

Cliff Bradley, Racing Official, Dies In London

LONDON, Ont. (CP)—Clifford R. Bradley, 65, special supervisor of the Canadian Trotting Association, died in hospital here Monday night.

Mr. Bradley, an Oakville resident, suffered a heart attack May 17. He was here to attend the opening of harness racing at the Western Fair Raceway, Born in Little Current, Ont., Bradley was appointed CTA racing supervisor in 1955 and spent much of his later years at Quebec tracks.

Registers 89 Points To Edge SHS By 11 Points In Close Battle, Six Records Broke And One Tied

By LEN O'DONNELL

Bishop's College School track and field team walked off with honors in the 19th Eastern Townships Track and Field Meet Saturday at the Parade Grounds, for the fifth consecutive time. It was the closest battle for years and it was only in the last five events on the program that Capt. Abbott's squad pulled out the victory over Sherbrooke High School team, by a slim eleven points.

Bishop's amassed a total of 89 points while Jim MacKinnon's maroon and white boys compiled a total of 78. Asbestos-Danville-Shipton finished third for the day with 64½ points and Knowlton High School followed with 52 and Lennoxville High School 44. The spread then dropped to Granby High School with 26 points closely followed by Princess Elizabeth High School of Magog with 25, Cowansville High with 23 and St. Francis High School of Richmond 21. Cookshire High picked up eight points with Sutton getting six and a half, Drummondville High five and Windsor High School with two.

President Earl Caunter of the Y's Men's Club, sponsors of the meet, presided at the presentation of the thirteen trophies immediately following the last event on the card, the Open Mile.

Six records were broken and one was tied during the day. In the Pee Wee Wayne Stewart of Sherbrooke tied the mark in the 75-yard dash and Peter Coupland of ADS set a new record for the diuis in the same class. In the Bantam David McGaw of ADS heaved the shot put 38 ft. 5 in., for a new mark. In the Midget class Terry Lewington of Granby High School romped over the wire in 2:19.6 to set a new mark.

The other two new records came in the Junior class with Bruce Ross of ADS going over the bar at 5 ft. 10½ in., to better the mark set last year by Mike Allatt of SHS by five inches. He tried for a higher record but failed after his three attempts to get over but he set a good mark.

In the Open Mile for the Sam Abbott Trophy Charlie Boreham of ADS set a record when he led the field across the finish line in 4:41.55 to better his own record, set last year when he won in 4:48.0. He opened at a fast clip and maintained it the whole distance crossing well ahead of his opponents.

Ken Flewelling of Knowlton High copped the Sports Commission Trophy for the high aggregate of the Meet. It was presented by Gordon McFarlane of Verdun, former member of the club. Bishop's won the Junior and Juvenile classes with S. Marshall and Hamilton Carter cleaning up. Chick Whately and Bill Richardson awarded the Mitchell and City of Sherbrooke Athletic Commission trophies.

Ken Flewelling of Knowlton copped the Inspector Hunter Trophy for winning the Midget High Aggregate and Ian Hume made the presentation. Tom Heron of ADS won Bantam High Aggregate and the Syd Hart Trophy while Wayne Stewart of Sherbrooke copped the H. A. Rothfels Trophy for winning the Pee Wee High Aggregate. Curtis Bishop presented the C. A. Connors Trophy to Knowlton for winning the Aggregate in the Midget section.

ADS picked up the Bantam High Aggregate and Bob Jarjour made the presentation while Len O'Donnell presented the Sherbrooke Daily Record Trophy to Sherbrooke High for winning the Pee Wee class. Capt Sam Abbott presented his own trophy to Charlie Boreham of ADS for copping the Open Mile.

Bishop's won five of the thirteen trophies with Asbestos-Danville-Shipton and Knowlton High each picking up three apiece with Sherbrooke High School getting the other two.

Jack Martin of Montreal acted as starter while the field events were under Gordon "Beef" Ross and Emsey Elkas was in charge of the track. The Meet finished only a few minutes behind schedule but this was owing to the records. When there was a chance of setting a new mark in the field the officials allowed the boys a little extra time.

It was the closest meet held for quite a few years and it was only after the last three events that Bishop's pulled out in front. At the noon break BCS held a slim five-point spread over Sherbrooke but during the mid-afternoon the SHS moved ahead and held a slight advantage.

The Juvenile and Junior classes were where BCS picked up the points. They gathered 21 in the Juvenile and 37 in the Junior while SHS registered only 18 points and this was the difference. Stanstead College withdrew Friday evening which reduced the field to thirteen schools competing. A total of 265 entries were handled during the day.

Only one injury was reported when Ted Rutter of Sutton High sprained his ankle in the pole vault. He was taken to the St. John Ambulance tent and after a few minutes returned to action but was forced to retire owing to the injury.

Say Foul Play Possible In Derby Poisoning

NEWMARKET, England (AP)—The trainer of the co-favorite in the May 31 Epsom Derby said Monday the horse has become ill from poisoning and has been withdrawn from the race.

"I cannot rule out the possibility of foul play," said trainer Noel Murless, who conditions Sir Victor Sassoon's Pinurichio.

The three-year-old colt became ill a week ago, recovered, then became ill again last Saturday.

There is no way of knowing just how much money already had been put down with bookmakers on Pinurichio but horsemen say that at least $280,000 has been wagered at 8-to-1 odds. The bookmakers, legal in Britain, now pocket that amount.

Lusty Double Of $703.60 Highlights Opening Race Program

Super Sonic C, Miss January Team Up For Big Payoff, Classes Close; Wednesday's Program Is Cancelled

A double of $703.60 was the future. No horse or driver can take part in a program unless he has his papers all in order. Some good times were registered during the afternoon considering it was the first start for the better part of the horses. The new paddock helps to keep things moving along as at all times there are two classes waiting to start. When one heat is over a new one moves to the paddock.

The program which was scheduled for Wednesday evening has been cancelled, stated Andre Olney, racing secretary, last night. The main reason being that horses, who are in order, are lacking their papers. They haven't returned from the Canadian Trotting Association and until they do they can't race.

It was only a eight-race card which is set down by the government in accordance with the new rules but despite this some good races were witnessed. It was the first appearance of season for the majority of the horses but some good times were registered.

Miss Dube's Super Sonic C paid his backers the top prices of the afternoon across the board. It was $29.60, $40.20 and $13.50 that was shelled out at the pari-mutuels. It was the first race on the program and three of the favorites broke during the heat.

The fastest race of the day was in the sixth when Guertin's Daring Guy nosed out W. St. Cyr's Cardinal Prince G. It was a close one but the photo-camera showed Guertin's bay horse at the wire by a nose. They were timed in 2:11 4/5 for the heat.

The quinellas were $14.80, in the third, for Lassic Land and Merrie Darnleyson, while in the fifth Suzanne Clap and Helen Volo H paid their backers $46.40. In the eighth $12.90 was doled out for the winning combination of Bishop's Pride and Rugged Lee Volo.

The program commenced right on Post Time at 2:15 and the last race was over at 4:50. The new rule regarding the Post Time will be strictly enforced during the season which will be a big improvement over the past seasons.

It is expected that several more will be able to start their horses very shortly as they expect their papers in the near

Dodgers' Pitcher Stan Williams Has To Work Hard For His Victories As He Stops Redlegs, Giants Win 3-1

All right hander Stan Williams has to do to nail a complete game victory these days is the fire a four-hitter and keep firing until Los Angeles Dodgers finally get around to putting it away.

After getting only a 1-2 record and no complete game of six starts this season, Williams hit on the four-hit, extra-inning formula for a 2-1, 11-inning victory over Milwaukee last Wednesday. He stayed with it again Monday night, once more giving up just four hits for a 2-1 decision at Cincinnati, this one in 10 innings, as the Dodgers remained just percentage points shy of the National League lead with their fifth straight success.

San Francisco stayed .014 percentage points ahead with a 3-1 victory at St. Louis. Third place Pittsburgh, one game behind the Giants, defeated Milwaukee 2-1 in the only other NL game scheduled.

Williams fanned eight and walked three while blanking the Reds on two singles after they had tied it 1-1 in the first inning. That gave him a total of 19 strikeouts in his last 21 innings and the NL lead with 55.

WON EIGHT STRAIGHT
The Dodgers, winning their eighth in a row on the road, collected 10 hits, but still barely pulled it out. Loser Bob Purkey (4-2) gave up a walk to Maury Wills opening the 10th, but after a sacrifice and Willie Davis' single moved him to third, Wills was nailed at the plate trying to score on Wally Moon's infield bouncer. A two-out single by Tommy Davis finally broke it up.

The Giants, after losing three in a row to the Dodgers, bounced back behind Jack Sanford (3-3) at St. Louis, cracking a shutout duel with two runs in the sixth off loser Ernie Broglio (3-5). Two singles, by Chuck Hillier and Harvey Kuenn, and errors by second baseman Alex Grammas and right fielder Joe Cunningham, both on a grounder by Willie Mays, gave the Giants one run. Hobie Landrith's sacrifice fly sacrificed to score Plourde. This was Sherbrooke's big inning as the scored three runs to cut the lead to 6-3.

Dussault hit a single, Monette walked, and Plante singled to load the bases. Fern Dube, Dion and Duquette each singled to send runners home. Monette closed the gap to 6-4 when he homered in the sixth frame.

Claude St. Vincent homered for the visitors with one aboard in the seventh to send his club into an 8-4 lead. Sherbrooke got its final tally in the eighth when Serge Gregoire doubled to score Bob Plante.

Waterloo added three runs in the final inning to sew up the match. Morin walked, St. Vincent singled, and Bayeur doubled to score. Morin, Jubinville then smashed a long double to score Bayeur and St. Vincent.

Most effective performer in the game was Len Crooke of Waterloo who had three R.B.I.'s on a double. Jubinville with three hits, St. Vincent and Monette with homers also played well.

The Als' next home game will be Sunday at 2:00 when Drummondville journeys to Sherbrooke for the first time this season.

Slamming Sam Edges Leonard, Wins Tourney

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—A rejuvenated Sam Snead won his 100th golf tournament victory Monday in the 14th Sam Snead Festival.

His victory in the Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas earlier this month made him the oldest pro to ever win a major golf title. He celebrates his 49th birthday at his West Virginia home Saturday.

Then he heads for San Juan, Puerto Rico and the International Cup matches. After that he will take a shot at the U.S. Open next month at Oakland Hills in Detroit.

The Slammer plans to try to qualify for the open in Detroit June 6. It is the one major golf tournament that has eluded him.

LED THE PACK

Snead led all the way during his own 72-hole tournament, beating out Vancouver's Stan Leonard by one stroke. Snead finished with a 268—14 under par—for his sixth festival victory.

But for a poor start, Leonard might have been in the winner's circle instead of Snead, who collected the $2,000 first-prize money.

Leonard opened with a 72, then added sparkling rounds of 63, 64 and 67. Snead's rounds were 65, 64, 67 and 70.

Third was Chick Harbert with 270. Gary Player and Arnold Palmer tied for fourth with 271. Defending champion Dave Marr was well down the list with 285.

REMEMBER WHEN

Ted Lyons, 37-year-old right hander, scored his 200th American League victory 23 years ago today, when Chicago White Sox defeated Washington 9-2. The veteran knuckleballer yielded nine hits that day including a homer by Jonathan Stone in the eighth inning.

The rule now states that the referee stops the play only if a defending player other than the goalie touches the puck after it passes the goal line. The CAHA's bid to have this changed was rejected by the joint rules committee.

CAHA To Take Stronger Stand In Debate With NHL Regarding Playing Rules, Another Meeting In June

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. (CP)—Friday, decided that for at least another year helmets and goalkeepers' masks will not be compulsory.

A resolution calling for the elimination of the centre line also was defeated.

The association reversed one of its policies when it approved a resolution calling for a visiting team in playoff series to get $200 expense money and the home team $50. The new regulation, designed especially for senior clubs, eases the burden of lost wages shouldered by the travelling players.

The association, indignant over what it feels is automatic rejection of its rule suggestions by the professional-dominated joint rules committee, warned that it will ask for a board of arbitration if it happens again.

The joint rules committee, in which the pros have majority vote, meets again in June. Under an amateur-professional agreement any hockey rules adopted must have the committee's seal of approval.

If the board of arbitration is sought and refused, said the CAHA secretary-manager Gordon Jukes of Melville, Sask., "our next semi-annual meeting will have to decide what to do about the agreement."

Either party can terminate the agreement but must give two years' notice.

RULE BOTHERS CAHA
One of the more controversial rules bothering the CAHA is that covering "icing the puck." The body last year adopted a resolution calling for a quick call, or an automatic stoppage of play, when the puck is iced—shot from a team's own side of the centre line across the opposing goal line when the clubs are at equal strength.

The rule now states that the referee stops the play only if a defending player other than the goalie touches the puck after it passes the goal line. The CAHA's bid to have this changed was rejected by the joint rules committee.

If Suspended Will Play Exhibition, Says Palmer

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va.—(P)—Arnold Palmer said Monday that if the Professional Golfers' Association suspends him for six months he will play exhibitions.

Palmer says he hasn't made up his mind whether to play in the International Cup matches in San Juan, Puerto Rico, or the Memphis Open. Both events are set for June 1-4.

If Palmer, getting ready to defend his United States Open crown, plays in San Juan he faces a six-month suspension and a $500 fine for skipping the Memphis Open which is co-sponsored by the PGA. The San Juan matches are an International Golf Association promotion. The U.S. Open is a United States Golf Association event and is not involved.

"If I go to San Juan and get a suspension I will play exhibitions," Palmer said. "I have to make a living. I have a wife and two children."

"I first learned about the San Juan dates one or two months ago Sunday that he thought Memphis would release us."

Others involved in the PGA-Memphis contract are South Africa's Gary Player and Canada's Stan Leonard who hope to represent their respective countries in San Juan.

"I'll make a decision about San Juan one week from Tuesday," Palmer added. "That's when the plane leaves."

Leonard, runner-up to Snead by one stroke in the Sam Snead festival tournament here, said: "If I go to San Juan and get suspended I'll go fishing and play exhibitions."
