WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1939

THE LATE MRS. E. D. LEWIS

A wide circle of friends in this district will mourn the passing of Mrs. E. D. Lewis, whose death occurred suddenly on Monday at her home in Westmount. The late Mrs. Lewis was active in club and church circles. For the past six years she was a member of the Westmount Women's Club, and served for two years as press secretary. She was also an active member of Stanley Presbyterian Church. The Examiner joins Mrs. Lewis' many friends in extending sincere condolences to the bereaved relatives.

FREE POLITICAL RADIO TIME

The decision of the Canadian Broadcasting Company to make time available free of charge, on national hook-ups, to recognized political parties during election campaigns will be heartily applauded. Radio in the past has been available only to those with the money, and a national hook-up costs plenty of money. Now, any party with even a semblance of a national following will be able to present its views to the electorate even though it has no funds.

The plan is simple: the available time is to be allotted to the various parties by the corporation, after taking the following circumstances into account: the standing of the parties in the House at dissolution; the popular vote; the number of candidates in the field; etc.

This new radio policy, in conjunction with the limitation of election expenses passed at the last session, and the new water-tight election act, passed last year, should eliminate election abuses.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC TRIBUTE!

A fine tribute to our basic economic strength and to our "stable, safe government" was paid by S. H. Logan, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at the annual meeting of the bank last week. Mr. Logan was enthusiastic about the prospects for Canadian business this year. He said, in part: "The western wheat situation looks like a 100 per cent crop this year. The western farmer will get his money. The railroads and the Great Lakes transport people will get more money. It is going to help business all along the line. The mining business is extraordinarily prosperous, while there has been an appreciable upturn in general business during the past month. I can honestly say this country is not in bad shape. While money from Britain and the continent has been a bit slow in coming to Canada, United States business men have been quick to pour hundreds of millions of dollars into Canadian industries. Canada has a splendid reputation of having a stable, safe government, and it has the confidence of business men all over the world."

LET THEM IN, BY ALL MEANS!

The most surprising thing about the application of the Bata shoe interests to establish a factory here is the fact that there was some opposition to the proposal. The opposition comes from those who feel that there are plenty of shoe factories in Canada already without admitting more — that another large concern will demoralize the industry and add to our economic difficulties.

But this is false reasoning. The Bata interests can, it is reputed, make shoes at a lower cost than any other manufacturer in the world. This means that every time a Canadian buys a Bata-made shoe he will save a bit of money, and this money will be spent in various other lines of business — the grocer, the butcher, the handy store, the cigarette maker, the shoemaker, the theatre, the gas station — scores of lines will benefit. Furthermore, the Bata people have promised to employ ten Canadians for every Czech expert they find it necessary to bring to Canada to supervise their highly-perfected and patented machinery. Thousands of Canadians will eventually find work in this industry, and Canada will further benefit by bringing to this country the best type of immigrant.

BEAUTY HITS THE CIRCUS
Some thirty-five thousand good little boys and girls—together with their adoring mothers and dads—whirled the turnstile of "The Greatest Show on Earth" Monday and Tuesday of this week, proving that the hippodrome track has lost none of its lure down through the years. Once inside, they fed the elephants, fed the monkeys, fed themselves—and went home with tummy aches and dizzy heads. But that is beside the point!

Since its last appearance here the circus has had its face lifted and its hair dressed. Emphasis today is on beauty, speed, talent, beauty, color, beauty and—beauty. Rotund tumblers, goose-faced bareback riders, buck-toothed aerialists—all have now been relegated to the realm of things that once were, but just ain't any more, if you get what I mean. Today a bareback rider must have class as well as gall; her well-muscled body must appear as graceful and lovely as that of the most alluring screen mama. In other words, she must have "it."

Credit for this revolution of beautification beneath the Big Top must go to an enterprising young chap named John Ringling North, who happens to own Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey. "Throw 'em out if they're ugly," were his words of command to the personnel department last year. "Hire 'em if they're looks. We can train 'em later."

The personnel department listened, looked—and started pickin' 'em. They must have had a grand job all last winter lining up over 100 acts for the 1939 circus, for this year's edition of the big show is simply crammed with legs, hips, thighs, necks, looks and allure. And, wonder of wonders, North's agents have managed to collect a bevy of beauties who can ride, swing, and tumble with the best of circus artists anywhere. You seldom find a more graceful trapeze artist than attractive Josephine Martin, and one would have to look far and wide before discovering a more stylish rider than pretty Desiree Heaton, or a more daring one than blonde Dorothy Herbert. They're tops in talent as well as looks.

The search for beauty in the circus has paralleled a similar search in opera. Portly sopranos and two-ton coloratura contraltos—if any such things exist—have been shoved offstage to make way for the grace of a Rosa Tentoni, a Gladys Swarthout, a Lily Pons. And opera hasn't suffered from the change. A 300-pound Juliet packed just about as much glamour as the butcher's wife three blocks down. A hard-pressed, well-painted trapeze artist possessed as much allure as a cold hot-dog.

Yes, the circus has been streamlined, both in figure and in program. The traditional ringmaster has been supplanted by an announcer and microphone; the Big Top is completely air-conditioned; the old wild west show has given way to a musical revue described as "an elaborate performance, strictly high class, catering to

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C.

The Northern Baptist Convention, under the leadership of Arthur J. Hudson, Cleveland, Counsellor-at-Law, met this year at Los Angeles. Among others the following resolutions were passed:

"Whereas there is widespread propaganda against the Jew in the United States, sometimes disseminated by so-called Christian groups . . . resolved, that we oppose every form of discrimination against the Jew and call upon our members to work for justice for this group in every walk of life."

"We declare that war is utterly contradictory to the spirit and ideals of Christianity and carries with it destruction of spiritual and moral values and is always accompanied by propaganda, unbridled lust and other forms of evil, therefore we declare our emphatic opposition to the whole war system and all things related thereto."

A famous British comedian when visiting the House of Commons was asked what he thought of the debate answered: "It would go better with a piano." A famous Frenchman said: "A saint is ready to part with all his possessions but one: he must keep his harp."

Before her marriage, Mrs. Howe lived for many years at Carillon, Educated at a private school in Argenteuil County, Mrs. Howe's husband was a partner in the Howe McIntyre firm, former wholesale grocers on St. Paul St.

Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Mrs. W. McG. Gardner and two grandchildren.

Interment took place at Mount Royal Cemetery.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE MRS. J. BARROW

Final tribute was paid to Mrs. James Barrow on Tuesday afternoon, when funeral services were held at her home, 605 Victoria avenue, and were conducted by the Rev. H. Pike.

Formerly Miss Sarah Ann Copping, Mrs. Barrow had been in ill health for some time, she died at her summer home at Rawdon, Que., on Sunday. She was in her 86th year.

A native of Rawdon, Mrs. Barrow had resided in Montreal the greater part of her life and was one of the oldest members of the First Baptist Church.

The Government in four years, he said had meant that 8,000 jobs had been obtained. Mr. Massey said that comparing the records of this year with the previous governments towards the solution of unemployment, from December 1932 to December 1935, unemployment in Canada had decreased by 221,000 according to the figures of the Bureau of Statistics, while world trade had increased only five points of index. From December 1935, to December 1938, however world trade had increased 20 points of index, while unemployment had dropped only by 19,000.

Mr. Massey said that he was confident in giving his support to Dr. R. J. Manion, National Conservative Party leader, he was giving it to a man with a keen sense of the requirements of Canada and an even keener determination that these requirements are met.

W. R. Bulloch, M.L.A., for Westmount, thanked the speaker, and said that if the youth training program in this province had been retarded, it was the fault of the apathy of the Federal Government and not that of the Duplessis administration.

W. Herbert Loucks and Duncan Anderson, presidents of the respective groups were joint chairmen of the meeting.

Commissioner read the letter from the King and addressed the gathering. In referring to the world crisis he quoted George Washington's words: Nothing short of respect and that justice which is essential to a national character ought to involve us in war."

An amendment was defeated which read: "the assembly views with concern and regret the introduction of conscription." The main resolution stated that for the present state of affairs none of the chief nations is without blame and asks the Government to do all it can to remove possible causes of war and for the establishment of peace. A suggestion that the church should not say anything which would embarrass the Government was sharply challenged. Principal Cairns, with the assent of the assembly said there were any number of questions on which the church ought to keep a most vigilant eye. He was especially concerned with the question of reprisals. There are he said, some things that even at the risk of destruction.

Summer Resort Has Developed New Sport— Skiing Safer on Sand Than Snow

N. D. G. and Westmount were both well represented this week at the opening of the first summer ski ground in America, on the Little Sahara just east of Tadoussac. Performing on skis before cliking cameras, Miss Helen Saunderson of Westmount and James and Jack Patrick, of N.D.G., together with a group of other summer ski bugs, swept down the sand dunes at 30 miles an hour to inaugurate the first ski season in the history of this oldest of all Canadian summer resorts.

Sand-skiing has literally swept a large proportion of the Tadoussac summer colony off its feet, rushing them head-long down steep grades which lead right to the St. Lawrence water edge. Most spectacular summer sport on any program, sand-skiing promises to leave golf a bad second in this resort which has the most perfect summer ski country imaginable.

Pop-eyed bellboys on the Canada Steamship Lines cruisers have been watching passengers come on board with skis over their shoulders and ski poles strapped to their baggage and wondering just what happened to start this mad invasion of "crazy people" who think that in Canada it is winter all summer. Now, however, they are becoming accustomed to the idea and are as used to lugging skis as golf clubs. For the big majority turned out to be Montrealers who spend their winters in the Laurentians and are now extending their ski season into the summer months at Tadoussac.

350 Feet High
The Tadoussac ski dunes range in height from 100 to 350 feet and in grades from a quiet 30 to almost 75 degrees. The latter are the favorite ski runs and down them skiers travel, on well-waxed skis, about 30 miles an hour. Most skiers at present use floor wax, and put it on heavy, to protect their skis and increase their speed. The experts are already experimenting with metal surfaced skis which promise to boost their speed up to fifty miles an hour or more. Others are trying plastic surfaces and all metal or all plastic skis are not improbable in the near future.

Located four or five miles from the Hotel Tadoussac the ski dunes are in a desert country with nothing but sand for miles in every direction. A few years ago there were farms and homes there, then the sand came and the people moved out. Alone in the miniature desert is the owner of Moulin Boade, a lumber mill which has been there for centuries. The mill owner, startled by the ski invasion, is already talking about building a ski tow and may start construction this summer. He is constantly astounded at the appearance of young armies of skiers on the hills which for years had been deserted but soon discovered what it was all about and realized that it was all about and snow-skiing, as in sand-skiing, as in snow-skiing, what goes down must go up. He had never heard of a ski tow but somebody told him about it and showed him some pictures. He now has plans ready and will use the power from his mill.

Safer on Sand
Safer than snow skiing because there is no possibility of dangerous, bone-breaking spills, sand-skiing is recommended by experts for the beginner as well as the real ski enthusiast who wishes to keep in condition and improve his technique during the summer. Not as fast as winter skiing, it is nevertheless packed with thrills and spectacular. It has the added advantage of having each down hill run culminate in a swim. Tadoussac ski costume consists of ski boots, woolen socks and bathing suits. When the skier reaches the bottom off go the skis, boots and socks and the skier dives into the river for a swim.

PRIVATE FUNERAL
A private funeral service will be held for Mr. George E. Cross of 434 Clarke avenue, Westmount, on Friday.

Mr. Cross who died suddenly at his home yesterday was a teacher at the Montreal Technical School. He was a son of the late Judge Alexander Cross, and was a native of Montreal. Passing on at his 41st year Mr. Cross is survived by his wife and three children.

The devil himself can do nothing to a man as long as he can laugh.

Many Big Stars With Don Ameche In Snowdon Film

The biggest piece of news to come out of Hollywood in many a year is made by Don Ameche, the "also-ran" of many a romantic story, who emerges from a love triangle victorious in his new picture, "Midnight," now showing at the Snowdon United Theatre. The girl he gets is lovely Claudette Colbert, while his handsome rival on the "champs d'amour" is Francis Lederer.

Ameche, whose recent pictures have included "In Old Chicago," "Alexander's Ragtime Band" and "The Three Musketeers," now stars as a Paris taxi driver who shows a fortune-hunting American girl why a working-man is a better bet than a wealthy playboy. Others in the all-star cast are John Barrymore, Mary Astor, Hedda Hopper, Elaine Barrie and Rex O'Malley. "Midnight," the first film to star Miss Colbert and Ameche together, rates on one of Paramount's most lavish productions of the season. It was directed by Mitchell Leisen, whose record numbers such successes as "Swing High, Swing Low" and "Easy Living."

Nelson Eddy Gives Concert On Film Lot

Nelson Eddy recently gave a free concert on a motion picture set.

In the midst of a difficult recording of "My Country 'Tis of Thee" for his new starring picture, "Let Freedom Ring," with the nerves of director, producer and actors on the ragged edge because of difficulties of timing and breaking into the song with lines of dialogue, Eddy walked over to the piano with Adia Kuznetzoff, Alan Marshal, Florence Rice, Ann Rutherford, Mary Howard, Una Merkel and Buddy Ebsen in the exciting story "Four Girls in White" which opens Sunday at the Snowdon United Theatre.

Russian baritone, and without any warning the two broke into a Russian folk song, "No, No, I Can't Do That." They sang it in Russian, making as much noise as possible, with Eddy banging time on the top of the piano and then burlesquing a Russian dance. "When Irish Eyes are Smiling," "Comin' Through the Rye," and "Santa Lucia" followed the 150 extras in the scene joining in every chorus. After which, with everyone in the best of humor, the scene continued. "Let Freedom Ring" is currently playing at the Westmount United Theatre till Saturday.

Taxicab drivers, according to a reader's complaint, charge extra fare on foggy nights. The cabbies' reply is that they can't see their way clear to carry passengers at ordinary rates.—Life (Melbourne).

WIDE PROGRAM MARKS FIRST WEEK AT CAMP

The first week of the 1939 Oolahwan season has been seven grand days of lore, learning, law and laughter. Every evening programme has been a highlight of the week, due to the fact that it has been planned by a council of campers guided by Miss Sonnette Ross.

Supper hikes took place last week. The entire Camp split up into five groups and went to choice spots. Because of camper training, the girls were able to build suitable fires and enjoy their bacon and eggs. Many knew five more bird calls when they returned to Camp. Quiet games and stories preceded cocoa and taps. On Friday evening, when it rained, Marguerite Orme won the progressive games which were laid out on the dining room tables.

July 1 was the day set for the Napoleon ball. Some campers and counsellors rendered the graceful gavotte in costumes of the period. Ambassadors were presented from different nations. Napoleon (Alice Dexter) and Josephine (Miss Eva Hamilton), led the dancing and general frolic.

Lake Oolahwan was the setting for the Sunday evening program of Vespers, which was arranged by Miss Mary MacKenzie. Boats and canoes in formation supported the girls while their voices, raised in hymns re-echoed through the Laurentians. "Matches," a one-act play, written and produced by the entire junior group, is coming off on Saturday. Dorothy Dunning, Jean White, Margaret Wood, Pat McCone, Marjorie Kneeland, Pamela Wood, Ruth Rushton, Olive Cuthbertson, Marion Laws, Phyllis Packard, Marguerite Orme and Bernice Dean are included in the cast.

The very young children also have plans for an original drama. Plans so far developed show the scene to be laid in a South American jungle. They have planned to use the natural out-of-doors for their stage, properties and scenery.

TRAM SERVICE It was pointed out by City Council Tuesday that people living in the vicinity of Sherbrooke street between Atwater Avenue and Claremont Avenue are unable to reach their neighborhood by street cars from the downtown area without transferring unless they resort to the St. Antoine car which passes at infrequent intervals. This has all come about because Windsor cars go west on St. Catherine St. It was suggested that some of the Windsor cars should proceed up Greene Avenue and go west on Sherbrooke street as in the past.

TAX ON PARCELS Cuba has placed a tax on all packages entering the country.

GREAT DRAMATIC HIT OF THE YEAR!

Henry Fonda and Maureen O'Sullivan in a scene from the film "Let Us Live" opening Sunday at the Monkland United Theatre for a three-day engagement.

"LET FREEDOM RING"

Nelson Eddy and lovely Virginia Bruce co-star in "Let Freedom Ring," which is now being presented at the Westmount United Theatre until Saturday.

Driverless Car Rolls Down Victoria

A driverless car parked on a slope of Victoria Avenue near Windsor started away of its own accord Monday afternoon and ran into a truck owned and operated by Jack Gordon, a fruit vendor, who was proceeding west along Sherbrooke St. The bodies of both vehicles were badly damaged.

Seated beside Gordon on the truck was Sam Gitt who suffered leg injuries which had to be treated at the Homeopathic hospital. The car when it started down hill, was parked opposite 528 Victoria Avenue and belonged to E. L. Finch, 3854 Northcliffe Avenue.

CHURCH PLANS STUDY SERVICE

On Sunday morning in Calvary Church, the minister, the Rev. T. W. Jones, will preach on the theme "Brooks by the Traveller's Way" this being one of the sermons in the summer series on Brooks in Bible Stories. At the evening service Dr. Jones will preach the second sermon in the series on Songs of the Bible, the theme of this sermon being Songs of Deliverance and Consolation. Bible students are invited to attend these services. Visitors will be most cordially welcomed.

Insects

Many kinds of insects occur in or about our dwellings. Some attack human beings and may help disseminate disease. Others feed on clothing or household furnishings, often doing serious damage. Again others infest our food, not only rendering it unfit for consumption but contaminating it with bacteria or organisms that may injure health. The chief means of reducing or preventing these insects from entering our homes is cleanliness and care in housekeeping. Woolens or furs are subject to moth attacks and should be protected from them in summer and not left exposed to attack. Floor-cracks and spaces about baseboards which harbour dirt and make a home for insects should be eliminated as much as possible. Food-stuffs should be carefully protected from attacks of flies and other insects. Clean personal habits will remove most human parasites and get into our houses. Dealing with breeding places of flies and mosquitoes and screening doors and windows will do much in preventing their entrance into our homes.

Bette Davis is Modern In 'Dark Victory' Film

Among the more intriguing cinema metamorphoses of the past year is the current modernization of Miss Bette Davis. After almost two years of being hidden away behind yards of petticoats and barricades of corset stays, Miss Davis' figure is being emancipated to the comparatively revealing freedom of modern gowns. Her personality is also being freed from the convention-imposed shackles of Civil War and Gay Nineties periods.

In short, the heroine of "Jezebel" and "The Sisters" is once more an up-to-the-year-and-minute girl. In "Dark Victory," her latest Warner Bros. picture, which opens Saturday at the York Theatre, she comes to the screen as a 1939-model heiress. Orry-Kelly, the fashion designer who handled the exterior decoration details of the modernization, equipped Miss Davis with some eighteen gorgeous outfits. They run the style gamut from informal sports costumes to formal evening gowns. There's also a little item of a $25,000 sable coat which goes with one of the more elaborate evening ensembles. Casey Robinson, who wrote the screen play version of the New York stage production by George Brewer, Jr., and Bertram Bloch, contributed bright, modern dialogue and up-to-date situations for the beautiful but ill-fated young heiress. Art director Robert Haas built her an expensive, but tasteful modern home and put the today touch to her surroundings. The rest, Miss Davis attended to. At the very outset, Miss Davis proved herself a genuinely modern girl by making her own decisions. She doesn't like the new top-of-the-head coiffure, so she had her hair cut in a short bob and wore it that way for practically all her scenes. She did, however, grant a concession. For an outfit or two featuring modern hats that demanded, she wore her hair up. Then there was the question of night gown or pajamas for a bouidoir sequence. Miss Davis said pajamas were the more modern and it's pajamas that she's wearing. And try to imagine Jezebel or the Louise of "The Sisters" wearing pajamas! Another modernity note that the star suggested and which was carried out was the use of trimly tailored slacks for her riding outfit. The character she plays does her riding on her own practice track, supposedly early in the morning.

Stunt Bicycle Performers Acclaimed at Belmont Park

"The Victoria Troupe," comprising four beautiful young ladies and two men who perform on bicycles as well as unicycles, are proving a terrific hit with patrons of Belmont Park. Hailing from London, England, this aggregation of talented performers offer an attraction that is unique as well as entertaining. Wearing attractive costumes, the girls vie with the men in tricky riding much to the delight of old and young. Each performer is an accomplished bicyclist and the many tricks they perform are of a very different nature as they balance themselves on their cycles, while revolving on the specially constructed platform; play musical instruments while riding and mix hilarious comedy with thrills. This attraction is proving so popular that the management of the Park is holding it over for another week. Along the Midway "The Flying Scooters" are proving the most thrilling ride the Canadian public has ever been offered. These Scooters, which are 60 feet in diameter and 25 feet high to the top of the booms are revolved by a 30 H.P. electric motor, causing the cars to travel at 33 miles per hour forming a circle about 100 feet in diameter. There is a rudder in the front of each car, moving on a well balanced pivot which when turned from side to side directs the flight of the scooter. Thus each rider operates his individual car with the result that he can sail and climb through the air with all the thrills of flying an aeroplane. On Sunday the C.N.R. Employees International Brotherhood of Maintenance of Way will hold their annual picnic at Belmont Park. Clubs and Associations desirous of securing picnic dates are requested to get in touch with Mr. Billings, managing-director of the Park. Every evening, including Saturday and Sunday, Stan Wood and his orchestra supply the dance music in the beautiful pavilion.

Waitresses Paid By Customers At Stands

As a result of an increased wage scale for waitresses set by the Fair Wage Board, all road stands on Decarie Boulevard as well as those in other parts of the Island offering curb service, now add a ten per cent service charge to checks for food and beverages. The rate established by the board stipulates that the girls must be paid a minimum wage of 21 cents per hour and the stands found that they were unable to meet the scale and still operate at a profit. Proprietors of the stands stated yesterday that curb service demanded an unusually large percentage of waitresses. Fifteen girls are needed to serve the same number of customers as five could in an ordinary restaurant. Although tips have fallen off about fifty per cent the girls are now much better off than they were formerly, they stated. Few object to the extra ten per cent being added to their bill, one proprietor stated. The move was agreed upon by practically all the stands in order to avoid discrimination.

TEA TIME TOPICS

ACCORDING TO THE AMOS PARRISH Fashion organization, women attending the New York World's Fair, are wearing young-looking, simple, cool and comfortable frocks. What these Fair going women are wearing, is what all women are wearing right now. This is shown by counts of thousands, made by this organization.

SEVEN HIGHTSPOTS of the count show, first that women like to look young. Their skirts are very short. Seventy-six per cent are wearing skirts at upper calf (15-17 inches from the ground) and ten per cent wearing them just beneath the knee (18-19 inches from the ground.) That's the shortest—and most comfortable since 1927. Second that they like white accessories and white hats—fresh, clean and cool. Ninety-eight per cent of gloves worn are white. Forty-two per cent of hats are white. Thirty-eight per cent of shoes are white. Thirty-four per cent of handbags are white.

THIRD, PRINT DRESSES are worn by thousands and thousands of women at the Fair—in pretty, casual types rather than dressy or ornate ones. Fourth; women this summer insist on keeping cool. Ninety-six per cent wear dresses with sleeves above the elbow. Fifth; of all the colors, blue leads—but thousands wear white and pastels. Sixth, more of them wear medium beige hosiery than any other shade.

SEVENTH; COMFORT IS THE RULE in shoes. Forty-eight per cent wear oxfords. Twenty-nine per cent of the shoes have no toes. So the World's Fair or anywhere else in the land, it's decidedly the fashion to look young, look pretty, to look and be comfortable.

THE FRENCH DESIGNERS had in mind not only the young when they fashioned their lines. Paquin created two striking gowns, which are perfect for the sophisticated woman. One is of white pique. It has the virtue of fitting into both informal and formal parties. Informal because, after all, it is cotton; formal because it is so handsomely made. Its fitted basque bodice and deep band on the skirt are of applied pique on a ground of white net. The six-gored skirt bells away from the hugging hip line. It has an icy crispness that belongs to this season of clear whites.

THE OTHER PAQUIN GOWN is of white Alencon lace. It is more youthful than the average dress of this type because of its smartly moulded basque top and the accenting of its lines by means of bias bands that encircle it. These bands do not add breadth to the figure because they are finished with bows at the centre front.

Black Hats Shown For Fall
Paris, —Black is important in Paris fall hat showings. It is especially smart as a basis for colored trimmings. Many are noted in bi-colors. Colorful hats are also favored. Each modiste has her own individual color schemes, which should add unusual variety to the sometimes somber autumn headscape.

Museum of Historical Society Worth Visiting

A visit to the Museum of the Historical Society of the Argenteuil County in Old Carillon Barracks, Carillon, Que., is a particularly attractive experience.

Following are excerpts from a pamphlet on the museum issued by the society:
It is beautifully situated at the foot of the Long Sault Rapids on the north bank of the Ottawa some 50 miles by road from Montreal and 75 miles from Ottawa. It was generously donated in 1937 by its then owner Mr. Felix Humberger to the Society for use as a Museum and restored and fitted up for this purpose by them with the assistance of the Federal Government.

Museum is opened to visitors daily from 12 noon to 6 p.m. during the summer and until November 1st. Refreshments, light luncheon or afternoon tea, are served at request.

Description of Museum
The Barracks is a large 4-storey stone building in good preservation. It is a fine example of military architecture of the early 19th century. The original doors, stairs and wood-work have been preserved.

The following rooms will be found of special interest:
In the basement the old Guard-Room and prison-cell, now housing examples of pioneer farm implements.

On the first floor, to the left of the entrance the Officers' Mess Room, with relics of Seigneurial days and a display of Indian curiosities.

The large room to the right of the entrance shows relics of pioneer days.

Further back on the 1st floor is the old kitchen with an open fireplace and built-in oven in the wall, now fitted up as a habitant kitchen.

At the west end of the 1st floor is the Sir John Abbott Memorial Room with memorials of the first Canadian-born Prime Minister of the Dominion, and furniture of the Mid-Victorian Age.

Upstairs are many interesting displays, as well as a room devoted to Canadian Handicrafts exhibits, and another to the Benjamin Wales Memorial Library.
Tea will be served in the Habitant kitchen or the adjoining Tea Gallery, which affords a beautiful view of the Ottawa River.

Laurentians Playground Of Constant Delight

When the first French settlers built their cabins by the blue waters of the St. Lawrence, Indians told them of the vast land to the north, the dwelling-place of the Great Manitou of Hunting, Fishing and Waterfalls. Today's tourist still finds the Laurentians a beautiful country for every form of sport but he has the great advantage of splendid motor roads and fine accommodations which the Indian never knew.

Stretching north from Montreal right up to Hudson's Bay is a vast area, two-thirds of which is still wooded and replete with fish and game. Every portion of this varied, delightful land can now be reached by train or motor-road. In the clean, invigorating air of the Great Laurentian Plateau the holiday visitor will find everything he could desire in sport, in recreation, in scenic beauty. And everywhere, in all this land so rich in holiday delights, first-rate accommodations supply

Advantages of Laurentians Becoming More Appreciated

The many great advantages of the Laurentian Mountains are becoming constantly more appreciated, this territory being now frequently chosen by discriminating seekers of large areas for use as summer residences. Even to a greater extent has the region become popular in winter months, the lure of the white capped hills resulting in a veritable invasion of city dwellers and others, anxious to experience the thrills and health-giving exercise of skiing and other winter amusements.

Pre-eminent among the innumerable famous places along the Montreal-Mont Laurier route is Lac Mercier—with Mont Tremblant rising to its record height on a pack and a gun or just want to sit in the sun and breathe pure country air, the Laurentians can satisfy.

This vast property, which is part of the O'Reilly Estate, stretches to a distance of two miles in length and contains five large lakes—said to resemble the Killarney Lakes in Ireland. Also on the property are a store, post office and a red granite chapel, considered the finest in all the mountains.

Laurentide Park Stands Out As Fishing Paradise

North of Quebec City lies the huge Laurentide Park, a 4,000 square-mile tract of fishing and hunting country set aside by the Quebec Government to delight the sportsman's heart. In order to use the splendid sporting advantages of the park it is necessary to obtain a special permit. These permits are issued by application to the Minister of Labor, Game and Fisheries, Quebec. Although speckled brook trout are the only fishing stock the park offers at the moment, these trout usually run to a weight of eight pounds and, on more than one occasion, 11-pounders have been caught.

The Lake St. John District with its many tributaries extending in every direction is another favorite fishing-ground. The ouananiche (landlocked salmon) with which the waters of this district abound have made it famous.

WESTMOUNT ARRANGEMENTS "A" SQUAD IS DEFEATED BOXING CLUB

McGill Victors in One of the Closest Finishes Ever Witnessed on Campus

The Westmount "A" team suffered its first defeat in two years, and by losing, relinquished its hold on the Davidson Cup. McGill were the victors, in one of the closest finishes witnessed on the campus in many years. The game ended in a dramatic way, when, with the scores tied at 98, the last McGill batsman came in to bat, and scooped up an easy catch to Brebner who dropped the ball. The batsman hit the next ball to the boundary, and McGill proceeded to the semi-final round of the Cup competition.

Classes Being Held Each Tuesday Night at Athletic Grounds

Boxing classes are being held every Tuesday and Friday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Westmount Athletic Grounds. All boys of 14 years of age and over, interested in this healthful sport are eligible to enroll in the course.

The club is being operated as a unit of the municipal recreation program.

The classes are to be coached by Clarry Harding, noted Canadian boxer. Mr. Harding is a former Ontario amateur light weight champion and has won many other titles. He won the Province of Quebec championship in 1936 and was among the first three in Dominion championships in 1937.

Fortunate in being able to have so capable an instructor to teach the club, Norman Smyth, director of municipal recreation, feels confident of the success of the venture.

Many boys who would not otherwise learn this sport will now be given the opportunity of doing so.

All boys who reside in Westmount and are over 14 years of age who desire to take advantage of this fine opportunity should communicate with the athletic ground officials.

On Saturday, before the torrential downpour, McGill's bowling, aided by two spectacular catches by young Vall, held Westmount down to the low score of 98. Casement, Ryder, and Gaymer bowled excellently. The two catches by Vall, which disposed of Davies and J. Robinson, were of the type that would be applauded even in major league baseball.

On the continuation on Monday evening, the Westmount team fought bravely and, were it not for Brebner's miscue, would have been rewarded by a replay of the game on their own grounds.

At the time of writing, Westmount have decided not to enter the Ross Robertson play-downs, due to the anticipated difficulty in obtaining the necessary funds to travel to Toronto should they be lucky enough to reach the finals. Should this decision turn out to be final, they will entertain the West-Indians next Saturday on the Westmount Grounds in a league fixture, instead of meeting McGill on the campus.

Last Saturday, the Westmount "B" team and the Town of Mount Royal team, both eliminated from the Robertson trophy competition, took the opportunity to play a postponed league game, but the rain interrupted it, with the result that it goes down in the records as a drawn game. At the time of the storm, the Westmount team had amassed 124 runs for 8 wickets. The chief scorers were Turcot, 31; Davis, 29; Sharkie, 17; Sweeting, 17; and Oram, 12. Turcot's effort impels us to predict that the young man has a promising future in Montreal cricket, as his performances have been very consistent.

Next Saturday, the Westmount "B" team will travel to St. Henry to oppose the West Indians.

Leadership In Loop Undecided

The fight for leadership in the Westmount Industrial Softball League is undecided, for last week Inter City defeated Steinberg's 6-3 while Steinberg took the second game from Inter City by the score of 10-4.

Results of games played on Tuesday were: Steinberg's 17, Westmount Police 6; Inter City 37, Elmhurst 12; Wonder Bread 22, Borden 5.

| League Standing | Played | Won | P.C. |

| Inter City | 8 | 1 | .888 |

ROYAL ROVERS RUN SMOOTHLY IN TWO RACES

Walter Strapps Showed Turn of Speed in Covering Century in Fast Time

Walter Strapps helped the Rovers maintain their domination over their rivals in the century dash at Westmount Park this week. After having previously won his preliminary heat, he covered the distance in 10.2 seconds.

In the relay event, the Rovers "A" team were the pick of the field as it sprinted away from all opposition to win handily. Taylor, Carpenter, Kirkwood and Strapps who composed the quartette all ran brilliantly. The "B" team finished third.

In the two-mile event, the Rovers team of S. Thomas and J. Millicamp ran very well to place third and fourth.

The Rovers road team of Wahlberg, Smallcombe and Maskell acquitted themselves ably in last Sunday's marathon at Montreal East.

CHALK UP TEN POINT MARGIN OVER OTHER TEAMS; ROYALS, GRADS TIED IN SECOND PLACE

Infield of Winning Squad Has Won Wide Commendation — Pitchers McClay, Maher and Shane Hurling Fast Ball — Outfielders Also Displaying Excellent Prowess as Team Marches Toward Victory

Granites are well in the lead in the Westmount Senior Municipal Softball League. The squad has a margin of ten points over the rest of the teams in the standing and also one game in hand which should prove an easy victory for them as the match is with the last placed Eagles.

The Granites infield is deserving of great commendation and has drawn many words of praise from spectators at the matches. The outfielders are also snaring almost impossible drives from the opposing batmen.

Pitchers McClay, Maher and Shane are hurling fast balls as their team marches toward undisputed leadership in the league. Royals and Grads are tied for second place with 10 points apiece and are making every endeavor to prevent the Eagles from overtaking them for a playoff berth.

Point standings are as follows: Granites 20; Royals 10; Grads 10; Eagles 4.

Games played since last Friday: Grads 7, Eagles 6; Royals 14, Grads 9; Granites 20, Eagles 1; Granites 7, Grads 3.

MORE MILES WITH GOODYEAR'S "COMPRESSED" TREAD

Goodyear's new tire, the G-100, is more than just a new tire... it is a new kind of tire, new in shape, new in engineering, new in the way it is made. When air pours into this tire it actually compresses the tread, making it harder to cut, giving it greater wear-resistance, longer non-skid life than any other tire at or near its price. Yet, for all its extra value G-100 costs no more than a standard tire. See this great new tire at your Goodyear dealer's... today!
