Howick To Lose First Woman School Commissioner

Many in the area are sorry to hear that Mrs. Douglas Lambie, first woman to be appointed to the Howick School Board, will have to resign shortly. The Lambies have sold their home in Howick and are leaving the school area.

The appointment of a woman to the Board had been hailed quietly, but with considerable enthusiasm. Mrs. Lambie, when interviewed concerning her appointment, and subsequent resignation after such a short time, said:

"I believe a woman can make a major contribution to the school board, to the advantage of her fellow commissioners. In the few meetings I have attended I have begun to feel that my experience and background as a woman could speed a number of items which are necessary routine of the board's work. However, I also feel most strongly that a mother's point of view is a vital part of school operation. While all mothers differ in detail, won by "Pickelo Pete", now six years old. This pony was purchased from C.J. Kyle, Huntingdon and is trained to be driven and ridden. "Lucky Boy Pepper", an up and coming two-year-old, is fast distinguishing himself in the show ring and Mr. Tallon has high hopes for him.

So far this year these two ponies have been shown at Ormstown Exhibition and at the Bonnamour, Keesville and Malone 4-H Horse Shows. One show in Vermont was not entered. These shows are judged on the point system. The entry gaining the highest total points in all four shows is awarded the "Clinton-Exeter County Championship" ribbon. "Pickelo Pete" winning ten firsts and four seconds was presented with this award. "Lucky Boy Pepper" with four firsts and ten seconds was awarded the Reserve Championship ribbon.

Other shows to be entered this year are being held at Chateaugay, Plattsburgh, Malone, Huntingdon and Ottawa.

Mr. Tallon recently purchased "Estrelita Sensational Cindy", a registered Hackney one-year-old filly, from Mrs. Ellen Drown, Ellenburg Depot, N.Y. He expects to have this fine new addition to his stable very shortly. Another addition is the tiny colt (as yet unnamed) born last Thursday to "Flicka", a black and white Shetland pony.

Eleven-year-old Brian takes a keen interest in the training and care of the ponies. He first entered the show ring at the age of four and has been a consistent exhibitor ever since. Last year he entered ten shows and won thirteen trophies, sixty ribbons and three championship ribbons. "Miss Viola Lallemand", a neighbour herself, an ardent horse woman, has taken an interest in Brian and has helped him in the training of the ponies as well as showing him useful showmanship techniques.

When the shows are over and the snow is on the ground Brian likes to drive the ponies hitched to the sleigh. By tying a toboggan behind the sleigh he is able to ride to the Alleys Hyde Hospital with several body injuries inflicted by the propeller of the 23-foot cabin cruiser.

The accident occurred about 6:30 p.m. at Hopkins Point, Que., where Mrs. Oumet was water skiing behind her father's cruiser.

Oumet said at the hospital that his daughter had fallen from the shore about 50 feet from the shore where the water was five feet deep. He added that he began backing the boat to reach his daughter when the craft went out of control hurtling towards the girl.

The propeller, Oumet said, caught her in both inner thighs inflicting severe lacerations resulting in profuse bleeding.

Oumet said he plucked the girl from the water and placed her in the boat. The father's next move probably saved the girl's life.

His extensive first aid training in the Army enabled him to check the flow of blood from the girl's badly injured legs.

Meanwhile a companion in the cruiser, Errol Haverstock, took the boat to shore. Once there, Oumet continued, he and Haverstock carried the girl to their car. The father then applied a tourniquet to one leg, using a belt.

Oumet also instructed Haverstock how to apply the proper pressure on the other leg to stop the bleeding.

They then rushed the girl to Ft. Covington where they stopped at Dr. Robert Smith's office. Dr. Smith joined them to Alice Hyde Hospital and applied further first aid on the way.

At the hospital, Oumet said, Dr. Smith and Dr. Manderson Phillips worked over her for nearly eight hours.

Because she had lost so much blood, an emergency appeal was made for blood donors over Radio Station WICY and to the Frank-

Young Girl Injured Near Hopkins Point

A girl water skier was hospitalized in Malone July 21st with severe leg injuries after a cabin cruiser operated by her father went out of control and crashed into her.

Cynthia Oumet, 14, of Massena, daughter of James Oumet, is in Alleys Hyde Hospital with several body injuries inflicted by the propeller of the 23-foot cabin cruiser.

The accident occurred about 6:30 p.m. at Hopkins Point, Que., where Mrs. Oumet was water skiing behind her father's cruiser.

Rotarians Given Insight Of Married Women's Rights In Province Of Quebec

The weekly luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club of Huntingdon was held at The Chateau Huntingdon, Monday noon. President James E. Smith reported progress is being made with regard to the new plan for raising funds for the Huntingdon Rotary Nurse Training Fund, more about which will appear in The Gleaner when these plans are finalized.

Mr. Arthur W. Lang, one-time principal of Ormstown High School was present as the guest of a former student, Rotarian Eric C. Martin. Mr. Lang retired from the teaching profession some years ago after being principal in a Montreal school for many years. Not content with being fully retired, some ten years ago he accepted the secretaryship of the Province of Quebec Protestant School Board Association, which position he still holds. Mr. Lang will also lecture in the Chateaugay Valley, particularly in Ormstown, his home town, and in Huntingdon and the Lakeshore areas. At present, he and his wife are vacationing at their summer home at Port Lewis.

The Rotarians were most pleased to have as their guest speaker a prominent lady lawyer, Mrs. E. J. Holmes of Montreal and Front River (Huntingdon), who gave an enlightening talk concerning the rights of married women in the Province of Quebec. The speaker was introduced by Rotarian Fred Anderson who stated that Mrs. W. Holmes had graduated in Arts from Queen's University in 1925, after a short time she married and gave up her business career. When her family grew up, this charming lady's interests turned to the study of law and she received her degree from McGill University in 1942.

Since then, the couple's only daughter has followed in her mother's footsteps and also graduated in law from McGill, resulting in their unique distinction of being the only mother and daughter combination of lawyers in North America. Rotarian Anderson also stated that Mrs. Holmes is co-author of the book "You and Your Family Under Quebec Law", also that Mrs. Holmes, B.A., B.C.L., is regularly heard on radio and for the past three years has been appearing every two weeks on a "Channel Six television program."

Married Women's Rights In Quebec Are Different

The status of married women in Quebec is different from the other provinces. Here we are governed by English Criminal Law and by the old French Civil Law. Mrs. Holmes stated: "The Rotarians' wives might only be interested in how this affects them, she said, but she would like the Rotarians to know how it affects husbands as well. She said Montreal is thriving industrially and actually thousands of non-Quebecers are moving to that city annually. Many of these people are forced to seek legal aid when wives learn that their rights are different here."

To demonstrate the position of Quebec wives, Mrs. Holmes sometimes asks her clients to imagine her desk is divided in half. On one half she suggests they imagine all the women with full rights, such as widows, divorcees, spin-in County Fire Central Center on Pearl St.

Saturday morning, Oumet choked with emotion and gratitude, said the immediate response of Malone area blood donors made it possible for the two doctors and the nurses to perform 23 transfusions.

"Please tell all of these people thank you," Oumet said, "for helping us in this time of distress."

The father, who had kept a sleepless vigil at the hospital, going without any sleep, reported that his daughter, one of seven children, had regained consciousness this morning and had talked to him.

Although Troop B State Police were notified of the accident it will be investigated by Quebec Provincial Police since it happened in Canadian waters.

Letter To The Editor
 The Editor,
 The Huntingdon Gleaner,
 Huntingdon, Que.
 Dear Sir:
 Last week's Gleaner told a rather strange story of a tomb-stone.
 I am afraid I can tell nothing as to how, why, or when it was placed in the base, but, in the cemetery in Atholton is a stone bearing the names Mary Ann Watson Stott and her husband Thomas Stott.
 This stone marks the graves of my maternal grand-parents, John Stott and Isabella Dunsmore, who were also natives of County Down and my mother's name was Mary Ann Watson Stott (Grant).
 I can only guess, but I think — after studying the dates — that it is reasonable to think that Thomas and his wife were John Stott's parents; and the names would lead one to believe that the wife, whose tombstone has been found, was my mother's grandmother.
 This may seem rather complicated, but I hope it will help solve the mystery of the stone.
 I am,
 Mrs. Isabell Armstrong, (nee Grant), 820 Montgomery St., Arvida, Que.

Howick
HOWICK. — On Friday evening, July 20th, the Howick Athletic Association held a street dance at Brault's Garage. The paved area had been cleared for the event and about 200 adults, as well as many children enjoyed square and round dancing; music being supplied by Wilson's Westerners. The purpose of the dance was to raise funds to cover operation costs of the Midway, Hamtram and Senior Baseball teams. Unfortunately, due to weather conditions the attendance was not as good as had been expected but those who did attend had an enjoyable evening. During the latter part of the evening, due to heavy rain, the dance was moved in to the garage showroom.
 To all those who did attend, the Association extends sincere thanks for their support. Thanks are also extended to all those who helped to organize and prepare for the dance and to those who supplied the sandwiches, coffee, etc.
 To Mr. Phillip Brault, the Association wishes to extend particular thanks for donating the use of his property to aid this worthy cause.

 Dorothy was surprised to be met at the door by her niece Linda English and her sister Marian who led her to a chair under a prettily decorated umbrella. About 45 guests were present. Miss Caroline Emble, Dorothy's schoolmate from their early years at McKay Institute, sat beside her friend during the evening, where they could converse happily with lips and fingers, as the beautiful gifts were opened.
 Three charming little Misses, Linda and Cheryl English, Peggy Roy and Master Hugh English assisted the hostess during the evening.

A train from Montreal was travelling in the same direction. But Mr. Patenaude did not hear the whistle. As he drove across the track, the truck was completely wrecked. Seriously injured, Mr. Patenaude was rushed to the Neurological Hospital, five hours of surgery followed, but several days must elapse before further report can be made.

General Information On Blood

The Canadian Red Cross Society undertakes the provision of a continuous flow of whole blood and plasma free of charge to more than 180 hospitals throughout the Province of Quebec for use by patients in need of blood transfusions.

For this purpose, the Red Cross Blood Bank must supply a weekly demand of 4,500 pints of blood in this Province. Volunteer donors are needed to keep this Blood Bank alive and functioning through their donations.

The discovery that human blood could be transfused to other humans constitutes one of the most wonderful acquisitions, doing much to bring about progress in surgery and the swift advance now evident in modern medicine.

About Blood Points You Should Know

Any normal adult of medium weight has some 12 to 13 pints of blood, so that doctors estimate men can give blood every three months, and women every four months.

Persons who have had jaundice cannot give blood and those who have had malaria within the last 12 months may not give blood. About 38¢ c.c. is taken and each donor receives an identity card showing his blood group and the number of times he has given blood.

There are four main types of blood: A, B, AB, and O. The donor's blood must be the same as that of the receiver. However, in certain cases the O group — called universal — can be given to the others.

Every donor is first given a haemoglobin test, to determine if he is in good physical condition. Anyone between the ages of 18 and 65 in average health may contribute to the Blood Bank. Doctor's certificates are only necessary in cases of high blood pressure. There is no discomfort experienced in the giving of blood; however, it is important to have eaten before giving blood.

Enlightened physicians everywhere today use blood to abate human suffering, so invest now in the Red Cross Blood Bank. A mobile unit will visit Chateauguy, August 10th. The clinic will be held at Marguerite Bourgeoys School Gymnasium, Chateauguy Center from 3 to 5:30 and from 7 to 9:30.

Notes From The Police Blotter

The Police of the Town of Chateauguy Center report that Raymond Reid suffered a fatal heart attack Saturday, July 21st. Police were called at 10:15 p.m. and Constables Allard and Brisebois answered and administered oxygen until the arrival of Dr. Williams.

IMPERIAL GARDENS

Mrs. Mary Stafford, Correspondent, 56 St. Leon, OX. 2-4663. Andre Ferland, Route Boy.

Hi Neighbours! Still more folks have gone off on holiday so there is very little news. Welcome Home. We do welcome home however, the Bernards of St. Leon St. And what a welcome they received. Some fun loving neighbours arranged that they come home to a For Sale sign outside their house with a flashing light to attract the attention of passersby with flags as an added attraction. The sign work was done by Mr. Lamarche and the electricity of course was done by Mr. Trotter. There are, I suppose, many ways to say "Welcome Home Bernards!"

C. H. O. A. 14th Annual Field Day Saturday

All is ready for the big Field Day events to be held this coming Saturday, July 28th starting at 1:00 P.M. In case of rain, this event will be held next Saturday, August 4th. The Merry-Go-Round, however, will be in operation for the youngsters from 11:00 in the morning. There will be games and races for all ages, even the very young. The ladies and gentlemen of our district will each have a softball game of short duration. The men of Lang Street will challenge the men of St. Francis Blvd. If there are any ladies who wish to play ball, please come to the Field Day prepared to do so.

Refreshments will be served to the children. These activities are open to all residents of the following developments: Chateauguy Gardens, President Gardens, Modern and who pronounced death at 10:30 p.m. Mr. Reid was 53 years old and resided at 108 Salaberry South. The funeral was held today at St. Joachim Church.

A Huntingdon resident was arrested Saturday, July 21st, at 11:55 a.m. for speeding and driving under the influence of alcohol on D'Anjou Blvd. The man was taken into custody and after a period of 12 hours was released on bail of $50. Residents should note that many of the speed signs in Chateauguy Centre have been changed. The 45 m.p.h. and 60 m.p.h. are now reduced to 30 m.p.h. which is the maximum speed allowed in the Centre, unless otherwise shown.

Judge for the event will be the well known Canadian horse authority, Viola Lallemand, Ringmaster is Gene Timmons; clerk, Emile Vaugan; and assistant clerks, Linda Ives and Linda Loperdo.

In case of rain, the horse show will be held on August 12th but the other activities of the field day will be held July 29th — rain or shine.

Proceeds of the day's celebration will be used to complete this park and for needed equipment for use by the Chateauguy Fire Department.

Caughnawaga

The regular Gleaner carrier boy in Chateauguy, Karl Purdon, has been enjoying the past couple of weeks' camp. This week he is vacationing with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Purdon and his sisters, who are away on a combined motor and camping trip. Their many friends hope they are enjoying their vacation. In Karl's absence, The Gleaner is being delivered by Angus Deane, who lives about a mile from town on Route 9-C. Angus is a keen 12-year-old who skips here and there on his bike and he too is looking for new Gleaner subscribers so that he may have a Gleaner route after Karl's return. During Reverend Purdon's absence anyone wishing to have news appear in this newspaper may do so by phoning Mrs. Mildred McCutcheon at OX. 2-6068.

Incident Points Up Need For Greater Efficiency In Cases Of Emergency

On Friday evening July 13th, an unfortunate and rather disquieting incident occurred in the Prudential-Parkway area. Donald Pearson, age 20 of 85 St. Ferdinand Place, who suffers from periodic epilepsy, became ill in Tony's restaurant. He fell from one of the seats in the restaurant onto the cement floor, and in so doing injured himself. It later transpired the injuries were a fracture of the nose, concussion and grazed forehead and face. Our Chateauguy Police were called to render First Aid as well as a local doctor. After a lapse of 10 minutes or so both parties arrived. After a lapse of perhaps another 10-20 minutes, the parents were contacted and upon arrival were informed by two constables that the young man should be taken to hospital. No doctor was in evidence, and precious time was lost, due to the fact that neither constables could properly converse in English. No attempt had been made to take the boy to hospital or to give aid in taking him to a hospital. It was left entirely to the mother on her arrival to make the arrangements. A private car was placed at the parents' disposal and it was not until reaching the LaSalle General Hospital that proper care was obtained. Our Mayor, Mr. Brisebois, was contacted the following day, but, as in the past, no satisfaction was gained. If our police force is not hired and trained to help tax-paying citizens in an emergency, then where are we to turn? It is rather difficult, to dissect the fact, that emergency care and fast thinking, can only be obtained from a neighbouring community and not from our own, when, without question the LaSalle Police Ambulance, upon being summoned by the LaSalle Hospital quietly and most efficiently, transported the unconscious patient to the Montreal General Hospital, where, after emergency X-rays it was felt he would receive the necessary medication.

T.V. Visits Seignory Park

Over 100 little ones at Seignory Park - and some others not so little - who came from all sections of Chateauguy district were on hand last Wednesday, July 18th, when Mr. Tom Auburn (Magic Tom) and CPCT technicians arrived to film sequences for Channel 12's "Surprise Party". Two of the shows were filmed with the day-camp activities, such as archery, trampoline and rifle-shooting, as background. Two others were planned for the pool area, but unfortunately a deluge of rain forced the cancellation of the final item. The youngsters formed the supporting cast of the three shows taped. They were themselves entertained by Magic Tom with cartoons and displays of his famous tricks. Mr. Auburn next interviewed some of the children, and was kept busy responding to demands for his autograph. Among those making their debuts as TV stars were Steve and Norman Perry, Lovel and Brent Butler, Norman and Michel Leroux, Mary-Anne and Lucie Leuven, and Blake Jennings from Colonia. A special word of thanks for their cooperation is due to Managing Director Anthony Bell of Seignory Park Country Club, Camp Director Wade Kenny and Aquatic Director Cameron Grout, the well-known Canadian Olympic swimmer. Also to be commended for their excellent service in controlling the crowd are Constables Allard, F. Prigent and Krekko of the local Police Department.

Results Of Garden Competition Chat. And District Horticultural Society

The judging of the Garden Competition of non-professionally kept gardens of members of the Chateauguy and District Horticultural Society took place Saturday, July 21st. The competition also included window and veranda boxes. The judges commenced their task in somewhat unfavorable weather and perhaps the gardens did not appear at their best with many plants beaten down with the rain. There were thirty-three gardens entered and the entries were from most of the districts of Chateauguy and Beauharnois. The following are the judges' findings: Class 80 Best new garden: 1st, Mrs. W. J. Hanna; 2nd, Mr. F. A. Bemrose; 3rd, Mrs. K. Cowper. Class 81 Best kept garden: (10,000 sq. ft. or less): 1st, Mrs. W. A. Gay; 2nd, Mr. L. Rock; 3rd, Mr. B. S. Hanney. Class 84 Best kept front garden: 1st, Mrs. R. Hill; 2nd, Mrs. R. L. Bessy; 3rd, Mr. G. H. Robinson. Class 85 Vegetable garden (over 500 sq. ft.): 1st, Mr. S. C. Pritchard; 2nd, Estate Ross Lang; 3rd, Mrs. M. Butt. Class 86 Vegetable garden (under 500 sq. ft.): 1st, Mrs. Enstace; 2nd, Mrs. W. A. Gay; 3rd, Mr. C. L. Cammell. Class 87 window and veranda boxes: 1st, Mrs. R. L. Bessy; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Redmond; 3rd, Miss M. Horsnell. It is a rule of the society that owners of the winning gardens will welcome members to their gardens at any time. At the Annual Meeting, to be held in September, it is hoped to have available the detailed findings of the judges on the garden competition. It will then be possible for contestants to compare marks and see where they failed to measure up with the prize winning gardens. Then they can say as all good gardeners do "Wait until next year." Just remember diggers and weeders, past experience should be a guide post, not a hitching post. The judges this year were James Kidd and Frank Cave. The Annual Flower Show will be held Aug. 11th, in St. Andrew's Church Hall, Chateauguy.

CHATEAUGUY SPORTS ROUND UP

(by JOHN McDONALD)

Chateauguy's entree at the Annual Softball Tournament at Massena, N.Y. Cliff's Auto Bar came through with a convincing victory over Massena's Woodlawn Hotel in the first round of the five-game tournament. Auto Bar's pitcher, Dave Pierce was a stand-out for the team, allowing only two hits while striking out sixteen. At the plate, Rene Bourcier, David Bourcier and Ray Levesque came through with extra base hits. Next Sunday, Auto Bar meets Plattburgh Air Force Base at two o'clock in the Second Round of the tournament, with the winner playing again at 3:30 in the same afternoon in the Third Round.

With a little co-operation from the weather the new pool in Chateauguy Park will open by August 1st. Memberships to this Pool are still available and the price is made to fit the average family man's pocket.

Took in a couple of Little League games at Little League Stadium in Montreal this past week. The fine brand of ball displayed by these young lads made this reporter more determined than ever to bring Little League to Chateauguy.

Tonge of Gilmour Avenue, who entered a contest conducted by Station CKVL at the Queen Mary Veteran's Hospital and emerged second and was awarded a Susan Van Huesen Blouse. Hear that Linda has a lovely singing voice.

Mrs. Evelyn Powers of Verdun, was a recent guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. Tonge, the Heights.

Supervision of the regular bus route to keep the youngsters happy for hours, bring one cup of water to a boil, add food coloring, stir in one cup of flour and one cup of salt. Boil, stirring hard for one minute, remove from the heat and work the clay in your hands, shaping it into smooth balls. Store in plastic container in the refrigerator. If you are not convinced of how nice it feels you can put all your homemade clay inside a plastic bag and work it that way, then store.

Chateauguy Gleanings

Jean-Denis Rousseau, former Chief of Police in Chateauguy, visited The Gleaner Office this morning, Wednesday, on his way to visit friends in Malone, N.Y. Mr. Rousseau reports that a mutual friend of Chateauguy manager, Mr. Irvin Wait, former friend of Chateauguy, is not feeling as well as his many friends would wish but is enjoying the pleasant weather. Mr. Wait is suffering from an affliction that has impaired his eyesight.

Among Gleaner carriers out-of-town on vacation are Miss Joy Friedlander, Wade Gilmour, Mike Ducross, Karl Purdon and Kent Leach.

Chateauguy Aquatic Club Holds Fourth Place

by Norman Kerray

The C.A.C. again placed fourth, this time at Cartierville's 58th Annual Regatta last Saturday. It was a bad day for racing with rain and wind blowing from the inside courses out. In Cartierville the best courses are between four and nine but with the wind the boats easily ran off course giving new paddlers a difficult time such was the case for about half of the C.A.C. paddlers.

This year, the new paddlers are racing only for experience although the points do help. They are doing a great job and deserve much credit. But the boys and girls cannot keep up their spirit in representing the Town of Chateauguy if they do not have the people to support them. The kids are on the water six, sometimes seven nights a week practicing all their bodies are sore. This exercise is just as healthy as any other sport, building up muscles in the wrist, arms, shoulders, back, chest and legs. There is no diet necessary just the normal day's requirements. Some kids think they will have to pay out money all year. This is not true, for the membership fees are five dollars a year for boys and two dollars for girls.

The transportation costs are small compared to regular bus rates, — $2 to Three Rivers and back compared to $5, by some local transport service. The more paddlers the less cost. For those who cannot afford it, something could be worked out.

Supervision of the club is short-handed too. The officials who are hard-working men and women are depriving themselves of many pleasures enjoyed by other parents. Their effort is greatly appreciated but they would appreciate a helping hand from adults who are willing to give up a night or two a week to come down and help out. Coaches are few and the C.A.C. is fortunate to have two of the finest coaches in the Eastern Division. They voluntarily come down almost every night to train the boys and girls. With the people to support the club they could cut the other clubs down and give them a good fight at every regatta.

Here is the final standing from Cartierville: Cartierville 178; Lachine 76; Grand Trunk 54; Chateauguy 26; Otterburn 11; Radisson 9; Rideau (Ottawa) 8 1 entry.

Chateauguy's Individual Scoring: Junior C-4 (awarded Bimbo Trophy) — first, with Vic Rock, H. Clayton, G. Kezar, B. Lobban. Senior C-4 — fourth: A. Dewitt, I. Lemington, T. Bates, J. Rock. Junior C-1 — fifth: J. Rock. Juvenile C-2 — fifth: B. Davies, I. Emberley. Junior C-2 — G. Kezar, B. Lobban. Bantam C-4 — second: B. Davies, I. Emberley, R. Zizian, S. Rayfenstein. Bantam C-2 — second: B. Davies, I. Emberley. Junior War Canoe — fifth: D. Rose's crew. Senior War Canoe — 2nd: D. Rose's crew. 1500 (1 mile) War Canoe — 5th: I. Emberley.

There were no Ladies' War Canoes. Next week: the Eastern Dominion Championships at Otterburn on Saturday.

Last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vincent of St. Patrick Square, entertained Mr. and Mrs. George Allridge and Mr. Bernard and his son all from Montreal.

On Monday, Mrs. Vincent's sister Mrs. Rita Herb and her family arrived from Syracuse, N.Y. They left on Wednesday taking Miss Yvette Vincent with them for a motor trip to Tupper Lake and Sullivan Beach.

Mrs. D. Bullock of Ottawa, paid a visit to the Dooley home last Sunday.

We were very sorry to hear Mrs. Margaret Petrill had to go to the hospital. Everyone is wishing her a speedy recovery. Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Chagnon and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Egerton all of St. Eugene St. on the births of their new daughters.

Mrs. A. Langlois of St. Patrick St. and her sister, Mrs. A. Bourgeois, of Berling St., gave a kitchen shower for their younger sister Miss Joyce Langlois last Friday. The wedding will take place on Aug. 11th.

Mrs. A. Langlois will be going on a cruise this week with her husband on the S.S. Menihck Lake, as a second honeymoon. They will be stopping at Cleveland, Toledo and other ports. Andrew Langlois Jr. will be away at scout camp.

On Sunday, the Prudential Married Ladies Softball Club hooked up in a close duel with the mens ball team. It was a ding-dong battle all the way with Vi Barclay pitching superb ball against Frank Smith, for the men. The game ended in a 16-16 tie with the men going all out to score 3 runs in the bottom of the seventh to earn the tie. The keystone combination of "Jolly" Jim Barclay and "Bulgy" Bert Taylor saved the day for the men by hitting their fine all around play. For the women "Terrible" Tony Besard and "Hustling" Hazel Young played fine defensive ball, besides getting some timely hits. These games starting at 2 P.M. every Sunday are drawing a bigger crowd every week. Any Sunday now the organisers are expecting to put up the S.R.D. soon before game time. So come early and root for the team of yours. Who knows, you may be inspired as a pitch hitter or a runner of what have you!

On Friday, the married ladies sharpened up their game with an exhibition test against their farm team, the "teen aged Lassies". The Lassies, turned the tables by trouncing the Ladies 16-6 with Debby McEnroe doing some lusty clouting for the winners.

Editorial Notes

Are We Missing the Opportunities?

AT this time of year there is much tripping around to various places of interest to find out what it is all about. This one and that one will say I went to such a spot and it certainly was very pleasing and interesting, it is too bad we have not something nearer. Perhaps these trips are in the States and perhaps they are in Canada, but so often they are in the States.

We believe there are places right in Canada and even in our own area which could be developed as such things have been in the States. For instance we have a natural in Covey Hill Gulch. Much has been said from time to time about this piece of nature, yet it has never been developed as an attraction. A few miles away in the States, much has been done and is heard of a similar piece of nature — Ausable Gasham. This was inaccessible until someone went to work to make it possible and safe for people to explore this natural wonder. Covey Hill Gulch is very similar and we believe could be developed into an attraction in these parts if someone would work it up. The area around the Gulch could also be developed so as to provide more attraction and make for a day's outing. In the course of time people would be coming here from all parts of the surrounding territory. The name Covey Hill Gulch suggests many trends the development could take and the attractions that could be provided. A few thousand dollars spent now could put many thousands into the coffers of the future, just as the other developments mentioned are now doing.

We pointed out a few weeks ago that we believed we had the makings of an "Upper Canada Village" right here in Huntingdon County if some work was done and a little publicity worked up. It would take some artistic touches, a little imagination, some research and ingenuity to make the place attractive. Good publicity and the re-education of visitors would do the rest. In a short time we feel sure there would be a steady flow of people to see for themselves. Covering charge could be made, part of which could be used for maintenance and servicing, with the rest going into a reserve fund for improvement and so forth.

From these there could be a branch out into tours of historical interest of which this whole countryside abounds.

We therefore believe we have the potential. What is lacking is the initiative to start developing. These are projects that will cost money to get started, but eventually they will return the original cost many times over as they will become continual attractions over the years.

Such a development could mean as much for Huntingdon as industrial efforts. It is probable that we should have a very large transient population during the summer months after a few years

The Kind of Gift That is Always Appreciated

LAST week's announcement in the Huntingdon Local of this newspaper stating that Mrs. Margaret Kidd, highly respected senior citizen of our town, had made a substantial donation to Huntingdon County Hospital has caused immediate reaction. The fact that this generous contribution has been ear-marked "for building fund" means only one thing. Huntingdon County will have a new hospital at some future date.

The original building was obtained from the Presbyterian Women's Missionary Society in January, 1943. In December of the same year it was officially opened. At that time, some people had serious doubts if a hospital was really needed in Huntingdon, especially as there already was a hospital in operation in nearby Ormstown. With the passing of time, there are few indeed who would raise that question today. Time after countless time, Huntingdon County Hospital has proved its worth.

Now the governors and physicians at the County Hospital foresee the possibility of a new home and a new location, thanks to the foresight and generosity of a public spirited lady. Again, will there be a few who will ask if we need a new hospital, or shall we all pull together to raise funds to make this possibility a reality?

The present hospital building is serving its purpose, beyond a doubt. But the main building is certainly in need of extensive renovation. This renovation would undoubtedly be much too costly. It has been determined that it would be prudent to tear down the present main section and rebuild from the foundation up. Now the question arises, would there be sufficient room on the present site? The answer is No, and for multiple reasons: first, it would be too near a busy street; second, it would detract from the beauty of this residential section; third it would serve for the present only because there would be no room for expansion. Some may ask why not build another storey onto the Clouston Memorial Wing of Huntingdon County Hospital, but this is not feasible for several reasons nor is it even possible.

The amount of the donation from Mrs. Kidd is not known by The Gleaner, but we presume it to be more than generous. Mrs. Kidd does not mind her name being used in The Gleaner, but the amount has not been divulged at her request. Now, would it not be well for our Hospital governors to look for a site for a new hospital.

A Peaceful Purpose

RECENTLY a satellite was launched which had a peaceful purpose in mind and one that would be used for the benefit of people. We refer to the "Telstar" which was placed in orbit and by a private enterprise effort of the Bell Telephone System.

This satellite is not to go to the moon, although it may help in keeping up communication between those who do go and their station on earth. Already a television program has been received in England as a result of Telstar. Other messages can be bounced off this satellite from sending stations to be received by other stations in various parts of the world. In due time it is figured that live television programs originating in countries across the seas will be transmitted to stations say on this side of the earth and be just as clear as those which are broadcast here. Such a feat would bring communications much clearer than they are at present. It would be possible to televise an event taking place in England, or Europe and broadcast it almost immediately to this country. Furthermore the picture would be clear and thus add to the pleasure of receiving it.

Other communications will be much more distinct and more easily understood because they are reflected after striking Telstar and given greater strength thereby. More of this sort of thing would be of great benefit to this world.

Provincial Capital Report

QUEBEC (CP) Rosario Lemire, 74-year-old former Director of the Quebec Liquor Police, testified this week that he was chief of the disbanded force in name only. "It was Willie Cote who was in charge," said Lemire, testifying at his fraud trial. "The men even called him boss in front of me." Lemire said he started withdrawing $100 monthly in expenses in 1954, the day after Cote, then assistant Chief of the Force, told him he could. Cote died a few years ago. "I had no reason to doubt the word of Cote because it was he who had told me several years earlier that I was able to make accounts of $50 a month." Lemire, looking tired but testifying in a strong voice, said authorization for the $50 monthly expenses came from Cote after he had asked Justice Antoine Rivard, then Attorney-General in Quebec, for a raise. Justice Rivard, now a member of Quebec's Court of appeal testified that he authorized Lemire to withdraw $50 a month after the late Premier Maurice Duplessis ordered him to do so. He said he did not remember if he had made out the authorization message himself or if someone else had done so.

Lemire testified also that when Cote died in 1959, he went to the Attorney-General and asked if he should stop making out the expense accounts. "He said to me then that I could continue." The former director is charged with defrauding the Quebec Government of $3,999 in false or fictitious expense accounts. It is one of three fraud charges against him and the only one currently being heard.

The trial was the headline act of the week, though Premier Jean Lesage's back-to-the-people tour of the Gaspé Peninsula also was prominent. It was announced after his return that he will make a similar tour of the Abitibi region in September and visit Bafé Comeau next week for the Port's 25th anniversary celebration. He told one audience in Gaspé he didn't expect to return "before the next election." "I want to go elsewhere and see their needs." Politics and law didn't interfere with the activities of thousands of tourists throughout the city. The horse-drawn caresses and victorias could hardly keep up with business. At this time of the year, a Quebec City resident can put on sun glasses and sport shirt, visit the art shops and roam the plains, and in general behave like a tourist. Or he may become an unofficial guide, explaining a bit of history to a visitor or pointing out the right direction. As the week ended, hundreds of Canadian and American students attending the annual French summer school at Laval University were given a cocktail party by the Provincial Government. The students this year include Roland Michener, former speaker in the House of Commons who lost his seat in the June 18 federal

by FRANK NAPIER

According to the recent issues of Farm and Breed publications the agitation for "Payment of milk on a quality basis," that is, in brief for the recognition of the value of solids not fat in addition to the butterfat content of milk, continues to make considerable headway in both England and Scotland. In fact a recent issue of Farming News cites a Scottish Milk Marketing Board report that plans for "Quality" payment for milk next year are being worked out. In that respect, we may explain that Scotland and England and Wales (combined), respectively, have National Milk Marketing Boards which control the distribution and sale of all milk and milk products, that is, on a wholesale basis to distributors and processors.

An interesting item in that respect appeared in the Ayrshire Cattle Society's Journal which we may quote here, not in advertisement of the Ayrshire breed of cattle nor the herd concerned, but by way of information as to the butterfat and solids not fat content of milk. In this instance it was the Lessnessock Ayrshire herd that was concerned. The number of cows concerned is not given but since that herd is one of Scotland's largest a considerable number of cows were involved; all of them mated with the best being made of samples from Bulk Milk Tanks. Commencing on the 4th of January 1961, the tests were made on varying dates each succeeding month until the 13th May 1962 — 20 tests in all. The averages of the monthly tests worked out at 4.27% butterfat, 8.89% solids not fat with a combined average of 13.16%. Incidentally 38% of the cows involved have over 5 lactations to their credit.

In Canada, there is also a growing demand for the adoption of a plan whereby milk will be sold on a quality or protein basis — butterfat and solids not fat combined, and the Ontario Agricultural College Animal Husbandry Department is carrying out an extensive test program in that respect. It has therefore been predicted that there will soon be protein testing in Ontario. Unfortunately, however, insofar as the overall milk production and producer sale is concerned, all such have to be on a Provincial basis; not National as in the case in the United Kingdom.

Dairy Farmers of Canada
Just before this time of writing we heard a brief radio report of the semi-annual meeting of the directors of Dairy Farmers of Canada which was then in progress. Chairman of the meeting was John K. Dickson of Ormstown, whose appointment as President by the Executive Committee was confirmed at this meeting. Also in attendance from this area was Gilbert Macmillan, O.B.E., Huntingdon, a director in virtue of his being the senior representative of Ayrshire Breeders' Association of Canada. Another breed association representative, George McLaughlin of the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada was appointed Vice-President, in succession to John K. Dickson.

Jersey Changes
After 35 years of devoted service James "Jim" Bremner recently retired as Secretary-Manager of the Canadian Jersey Cattle Club. When he was feted at a reception in his honour, considerable mention was made of the progress made by the Club during his tenure of office, including a permanent office building in Toronto, a breed magazine and promotion of Jersey milk. Jim Bremner has returned to spend his retirement, at his home farm at Chatham, N.B.

The new Secretary-Manager is Hume Grisdale, a son of the late Dr. J. H. Grisdale, long time Deputy Minister of Agriculture and Canada. A graduate of the O.A.C., Hume Grisdale was for several years Fieldman of B. H. Bull & Sons, Jersey Breeders' Brampton, Ont., after which he, his father and brother purchased two farms and there developed a Jersey herd and an extensive Apple Orchard near Ingersoll, Ont. However, with the coming of the Seaway and the Ontario Hydro Development the best parts of their farms were taken over by the latter, after which Hume eventually joined the Jersey Cattle Club as Fieldman for Ontario and the Maritimes. During the past several years he has also been Editor of the Jersey Cattle Breeder.

Clear Brook, Balquhider
Leta hope that the Clear Brook and Balquhider Joint Production sale of Ayrshires will meet with the support, thereby the success it merits. That sale to be held at Clear Brook Farm, Franklin Centre, Que., on August 29, will be the first of its kind to be held in this area in a great many years, including the former Burnside and the Burnside Invitational sales. In fact it will be a unique sale inasmuch as the "Production" actually means in calf heifers and young cows bred in the Balquhider herd of Archie Roy, Howick, and Allan H. Wilson, Franklin Centre. In both instances second generation owners of old established herds.

It is noted that both herds figure in the list of high Ayrshire herd averages for the period March 1, 1961 to February 28, 1962, published in the July issue of the Canadian Ayrshire Review. That is of cows milked twice daily for periods of from 240 to 305 days. Listed in Group B (16 to 25 records), the 21 milking cow and heifer, Balquhider herd of Archie Roy, Howick, and Allan H. Wilson, Franklin Centre, in both instances second generation owners of old established herds.

Report From Ottawa

OTTAWA (CP) The reshaping of Prime Minister Diefenbaker's cabinet — five of whose members were defeated in the June 18 federal election — continued last week with the filling of three vacancies by temporary appointments. Mr. Diefenbaker announced other department heads would fill the posts formerly held by Works Minister Walker, Postmaster-General William Hamilton and Mines Minister Jacques Flynn.

The three jobs will be held on an interim basis by External Affairs Minister Green, Fisheries Minister MacLean and Forestry Minister Fleming.

State Secretary Noel Dorion resigned earlier. His duties will be assumed by Transport Minister Balcer.

Subsidiary-General William Browne also was defeated in the election. An official recount reduced the majority held by Liberal Richard Cashin to 24 from 45 votes but was not enough to swing the decision.

Close in Stormont
Another recount was expected in Stormont riding where the defeated election July 16 gave Liberal candidate Lucien Lamoureux a 92-vote plurality over his nearest opponent, Grant Campbell, the former Conservative member.

An official recount later in the week narrowed the margin to 65 votes and Mr. Campbell had four votes.

Que., has returned home after enjoying a week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace.

Guest of Miss McConnell for the past week was Miss Della Robertson of Montreal.

Mrs. Saunders and Mrs. Brown of Montreal are enjoying a two week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Koski.

Mrs. Henry Wallace visited friends in Ottawa for a day. On her return she accompanied her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan of Lynhurst, Ont., who spent the week-end at the Wallace home.

Miss Ines Whelen of Toronto, Ont., is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wallace.

days following the official count July 23 in which to ask a recount. Mr. Diefenbaker told reporters he intends to appoint new ministers as well as a government whip and deputy whip "at an early date."

The former chief whip for the Progressive-Conservatives, John Pallett, was defeated June 18 in Peel. His deputy last session, Theogene Richard, was re-elected in St. Hyacinthe-Bagot but is believed to be in line for a promotion to the chief whip's post or into cabinet ranks.

Whips of all four parties will be key figures in the new Parliament, expected to open near the end of September. They will have to round up all MPs for crucial votes that conceivably could topple the minority Conservative government.

Present standings in the House are Conservatives 116, Liberals 100, Social Credit 30, New Democratic Party 18, vacant one.

The vacancy resulted from the resignation of Erhart Regier, NDP member for Burnaby-Coquitlam in British Columbia, who won re-election July 16.

Mr. Regier gave up his seat to give NDP national leader T. C. Douglas a second chance to enter Parliament. The former Saskatchewan premier was defeated June 18 by Conservative Ken More in Regina City.

Seamen's Dispute
While political sparring diminished considerably after the long election campaign, the government moved to investigate the waterfront feud between two seamen's unions on the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence Seaway and related topics.

Justice T. G. Norris of the British Columbia Appeal Court was named as a one-man commission to probe into shipping disruptions and acts of violence resulting from a bitter dispute between the Seafarers International Union of Canada (I.U.C.) and the newly-formed Canadian Maritime Union (C.M.U.).

The royal commission on banking and finance, headed by Chief Justice Dana Porter of Ontario, continued public hearings in Ottawa after touring most provincial capitals earlier. The final hearings are expected to be held in the fall.

Meanwhile the MacPherson royal commission on transportation was preparing to publish the third and final portion of its report.

The Glasco commission on government organization handed the first portion of its report to Prime Minister Diefenbaker. He was expected to make the report public later.

CBC Revenue Loss
The Canadian Broadcasting Corporation said in its annual report that it lost up to $12,000,000 in advertising revenues in the year ended March 31 due to competition from new privately-owned television stations in large centres and the CTV network.

The CBC said if the present trend continues it will either have to get more money from Parliament or lower its program standards. The CBC's grant from Parliament exceeded $70,000,000 in the last fiscal year. Expenses totalled $107,611,154.

The report revealed that the CBC has been told by its board of directors to avoid expressions beyond the normal limits of good taste in television and radio dramas.

The CBC also was instructed in the policy statement to air "youth" grade plays at times when children normally do not watch television, presumably late in the evening.

Common Market
The six member countries of the European Common Market announced tariff concessions to Canadian exporters as compensation for European markets that will be lost when the market's external tariffs are increased.

The concessions will affect Canadian exports worth nearly $250,000,000 including base metals, wood products and frozen and canned salmon.

Jobless Decrease
The latest unemployment statistics showed that 301,000 Canadians were looking for work in mid-June, a drop of 35,000 from the previous month and 69,000 from June, 1961.

Here's what Canada should know about a 40 year old native son NORANDA

From its beginning—in Northern Quebec in 1922—the Noranda Group has grown big enough to contribute well over $100 million a year to the Canadian economy in goods and services.

If one factor can be credited for such growth, it is foresight. Forty years of foresight—in judging opportunities, often years before payoff, and relating risks to rewards with a high degree of accuracy. The record:

Continuous exploration unearths new minerals as industry creates the need for them and finds replacements for depleted mines. While covering virtually all of Canada, Noranda's exploration is constantly at work to further develop Quebec's mineral resources.

Early diversification: The advantages—in creating jobs and protecting mine investment—were apparent even when Noranda was in its early stages. A copper refinery—now the world's second largest—was established in 1930. Continuous expansion through new mines and fabricating plants, has made the Noranda Group a substantial Canadian employer.

Marketing: Volume growth, diversification of products and the need for increased Canadian exports, prompted Noranda in 1961 to set up its own sales corporation which now sells Canadian metal products to over 500 customers in 32 countries.

Canadian Ownership: In spite of the trend towards foreign ownership of Canadian industries, Noranda remains under Canadian control. To-day, Canadians hold 84% of Noranda's shares, 27% of which are owned by residents of Quebec. Recently, Noranda purchased from United States owners, substantial interests in two Canadian companies.

LITTLE DENMARK FLOWER SHOP

Little Denmark Flower Shop
This is the time of year to begin giving your peonies some care if you want healthy, beautiful blooms next year.

After blooming, peonies have a resting period until August when a season of intense root energy begins, and energy and food are stored in the roots to be used the following spring. At this time the plants should be cultivated monthly and small applications made of wood ashes and bone meal. When you are working around the roots be careful you do not injure them. Peonies need to be watered in dry weather during early spring and summer, but keep the water off the foliage and flowers. In very dry weather a mulch of peat moss or humus is good, but care must be used to keep it several inches away from the stems.

Peonies should be properly supported. It is best to provide some sort of support in the Spring when the plant is young and easily trained. Welded iron supports are for sale at reasonable prices, and they will last for years.

If you prefer to have large, fine flowers rather than a profusion of bloom, you can disbud before the blooming period. Remove all buds but one from each stem.

In the fall cut off the plant foliage as soon as the frost kills it and burn it to avoid the spread of disease.

A few do's and don'ts to remember in caring for your peonies are as follows. Don't allow plants to go without transplanting over four or five years, or they will stop blooming satisfactorily. Don't bruise or injure roots in transplanting, and don't plant in a small hole, use one thirty inches wide and two feet deep. Mix your fertilizer with the soil, but don't let any come in contact with the roots directly. Don't transplant all your peonies at once, as they are liable not to bloom the next year. Spread your transplanting over several years.

Remove the seed pods and stems after blooming. This conserves the vitality of the plant. Remember that a peony is an investment for years, so buy carefully and plant well. Handle carefully to protect from injury before planting. If possible two people should dig against each other in removing the old plant. Remove as large a ball of earth as possible, using forks, not spades. When dug, the roots will be brittle. Expose the ball to the wind and sun for a few hours until the tops have wilted. The roots will then be more pliable. Wash the earth until thoroughly clean, then cut back the tops to two inches.

Bend the large clump carefully to find the weakest part and divide there. Cut with a strong sharp knife, and subdivide each section into strong roots having four or five eyes. Roots without eyes are worthless.

proposed that Hydro-Quebec and the Montreal Cottons Company jointly engage an engineer to find a solution to the water pollution problem in the St. Charles River which is used by the cotton mill as a discharge. Seconded by Councillor Charlemagne Pilon, Bellevue East Ward, Mr. Lalonde presented his resolution after a petition had been carried by the council seeking better maintenance of the discharge and the ground which forms the steep bank of the river. Mayor Cauchon asked Mr. Lalonde to withdraw his proposition as the matter was on the agenda for the meeting and would be discussed later in the evening. Mr. Lalonde replied, "You put what you want on the memorandum without consulting us. Everyone in the city knows that we are not doing anything. Everyone knows that only you lead here." The mayor replied that according to the town and city law and the municipal charter, only the first magistrate of a town was allowed to include the items to discuss on the memorandum of the council. Councillor Georges Leduc, Bellevue West ward then asked that a vote be taken because the town had already last year spent a considerable sum of money on this water pollution problem. The resolution was defeated by a vote of 4-2.

Valleyfield Council Meeting

At the council meeting held on July 16th, Mayor Robert Cauchon announced that he will be in Arvida on August 2nd to attend a meeting of the Union of Municipalities. He is a director of this organization.

The council homologated the supplementary roll of the recently annexed part of Ste. Coelle Parish, Valleyfield, after a special meeting had been held at which any interested person could present a complaint.

A letter from the federal minister of Public Works was read advising the council that a decision to their request concerning the clearing of woods from St. Francis Beach will be forthcoming as soon as a survey of the situation is made.

The resignation of Mr. Gerard LeGros, due to ill health, as librarian of Valleyfield after a term of fifteen years, was unanimously accepted.

Hydro-Quebec informed the Council that they have decided to open more gates to assure a higher water level and to provide a better circulation of water.

Representatives of the Parent Teachers' Association of Emard School, Maisonneuve Ward, were present at the meeting and obtained a grant of $200 which will be used to help defray the cost of the equipment needed for the 230 children under their care for the summer months.

(By Mrs. S. St. Onge)

First of all, apologies to Beryl. I was "flying under false colors" last week when my notes were put under her name.

It's odd how when something takes place in this day and age, I often wonder just how something like it was planned in the days of "long ago". I'm thinking now of Surprise Parties. I can well remember how, when I was a little girl, and there was a party planned down at Riverfield how everyone gathered at the church or most likely — "Melrose". Some folks

This is a long way round of getting to the well planned Surprise Party in the form of a Baby Shower which was held for Mrs. Taylor last Thursday evening. Her sister Isa, told her she was taking her out for the evening, even to hiring a baby sitter. So Isa went out for Peggy, but had to come down late as she had to stop at (Continued on page 12)

Ormsdown Borden Plant Closed

For some weeks now, the Borden Co. Ltd. Farm-Division Plant at Ormsdown has been closed. The above picture shows one of the large tanks at one time used in the manufacture of cheese, being loaded onto a truck. Mr. Archie Hughes, popular manager of the Ormsdown Borden factory, reports that most of the machinery has been dismantled, some being sold locally and some to district dairies, such as Belle Valley Dairy Ltd. in Valleyfield. The windows of the plant have been boarded up and except for a skeleton crew kept on to help remove the equipment, the once busy factory has already taken

Maple Leaf Grange News

Maple Leaf Grange No. 11 met for its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, July 17 with W.M. Peter Tully in the chair.

After the routine business had been transacted, under new business the Fair Booth Refreshment stand was taken up. Several members volunteered to help during the Fair days also before to get things in readiness. A committee was named to get the helper's list ready, and it is the hope of the members that if it is not convenient to work at the time you are listed, that you will try and work out an exchange with someone. "Please remember" the Grange depends on its members for support at all times. A committee was appointed to contact Mr. Beaudin in regard to giving a trophy in the Club work, instead of a cash donation. A report will be given at next meeting.

A note of thanks was received by the Sec. Rupert Hawley from Sis. Dorothy McLain, Flora, of New Hampshire State Grange for the very fine evening she and Bro. and Sis. Flandreau of Bedford N.H. had with us at our meeting on July 3rd.

The picnic table and bench for Somerville park and the Grange property was discussed. Bro. David Rankin volunteered to see about them and have them built as soon as possible.

The programme, in charge of Bro. Cecil O'Connor, was on 'Safety' both in the water and on land. Bros. Rankin and Tully and Sis. Cosgrove gave a demonstration of artificial

St. Agnes

ST. AGNES — The type of weather we have been having during the last couple of weeks certainly is not the kind one would order for haying. The rain, which literally came down in bucketfuls, has been a godsend to pastures, lawns and gardens, but now farmers are anxious for warm, sunny days again so that they can get on with the job at hand.

Reports throughout the area would indicate that the long drought just at the crucial growing period has resulted in a serious hay shortage and the over-all yield will probably be less than half the 1961 bumper crop.

News of Old Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McCaffrey and family of Hilton, N.Y., recently spent a week with Bob's mother, Mrs. Gladys McCaffrey of Fort Covington. It seems like a long time ago since the McCaffreys lived in St. Agnes, but old friends are not soon forgotten and it is always good to hear news of them.

Bob has a position in the chemistry department of the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester, N.Y. and recently he was awarded a bachelor of science degree from the University of Rochester.

Bob and his wife have four children, Patricia, Catherine, Bruce and Robert John.

It is a number of years ago since Dr. F. G. Ronan had his practice in Fort Covington, but I know of several people in this area who will remember both the doctor and his charming wife, Inez, with a certain undeniable fondness.

They are now residing in Bala-Cynwyd, Pa. and Dr. Ronan, his wife and three children Christine, Peter and Paul are enjoying a three weeks' vacation in Antigonish, N.S. where they are visiting Dr. Ronan's mother.

The members of the H-C group are requested to be present at a meeting planned for Friday night, July 27th, at 8.15 p.m. The president, Jean Fraser, hopes for a full attendance as there are several items of business to be discussed as well as plans to be made for an anticipated trip to Upper Canada Village sometime in the near future.

Enters Hospital — Mr. Wilbrod Marchand, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, entered Barrie Memorial Hospital on Sunday, where he will undergo a series of tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Aurele Lefebvre and Mrs. Josephat Lefebvre of Alexandria, Ont. were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Leger.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Farndom and family of Montreal are spending holidays at the Marchand home.

Gore

Sunday guests at the Mason home were Mr. and Mrs. Phil Salbourn, Montreal, who also visited Mrs. Daisy Ingram, who has been in the Huntingdon County Hospital for a week. She fell and injured her knee, there was a tendon cut in the fall, and infection set in, she is having a painful time.

Glad to report that Mrs. Mervyn Graham arrived home on Saturday, and is fairly comfortable, although she must be quiet for a time yet.

Roxham

Mrs. Howard Kirtland and children, Barbara and Linda, of Syracuse, N.Y., were visitors of her mother Mrs. Dela Smith and brother Reginald.

Mrs. Hattie Akester, has just returned home after spending a week in Rosemont with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Akester.

THE BRIDGE OF BANKRUPTCY

Early in the 19th century, says Encyclopedia Americana, the city of Aberdeen in Scotland extended its chief thoroughfare, Union Street, with a huge granite arch spanning the Denburn Valley. As a result of this feat, the town, as it then was, went bankrupt in 1817 despite its later reputation for thriftiness.

In his remarks professor Jones spoke of the extraordinary service rendered by Dr. Glover not only to the students, but to the college and the staff, 1200 members, former students and their families re-

MULBERRY TREE AT FRANLIN CENTRE

"Here we go round the Mulberry Bush, the Mulberry Bush, the Mulberry Bush on a cold frosty morning," thus runs a nursery rhyme which children have sung for many generations. Like many nursery rhymes, however, parts of them are not correct. Above is a photo of a Mulberry tree, not a bush as in the rhyme, and we cannot say that we ever saw or heard of a Mulberry bush. We have seen many a tree and they are quite tall, not in any way like a bush. This one above is very old and many we have seen before were very old too. But in Canada, this is the first one we have seen and in fact had thought that perhaps they did not grow here. This latter thought was probably shared by others.

The reason for our making a story about this tree came from the fact that a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickenson of Franklin Centre had a lesson on this type of tree registered for the week's celebrations which brought people from all over the world back to their alma mater for the Centennial Celebration.

ASEM Gary of the R.C.N. and Mrs. Faloon of Halifax, N.S., are spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Faloon. ASEM Faloon recently was honored by the distinction of obtaining first place in an engineering class.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cullen and Miss Myrtle Cullen visited on Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Dan Gruer in Sutton, P.Q.

Mrs. Ross Winter spent Saturday in Montreal with Miss Chris-at school. The teacher in talking on the tree, said she did not think there would be any in this part of the country. The child said there was and it was located on her grandfather's farm. Mr. Dickenson therefore thought the matter would be of interest to others and called the Gleaner.

Above is the tree and it is loaded with fruit that is something like a very large raspberry, or blackberry. The fruit makes good eating and excellent pies. This tree has been bearing fruit since 1919 and probably before that. Mr. Dickenson bought the farm from Fisher Aimes and the tree was on the farm then. His father farmed the Arthur Rowe farm a little distance further down the road. Mr. Dickenson figures that the tree has been bearing fruit for approximately fifty years.

In any case we can say that there is at least one mulberry tree growing in our area. The above photo is proof of that.

 Doyons for a minute. Mrs. Doyon was upstairs when Nicole very innocently called her as Isa and Peggy came up the steps. When the light was switched on and door opened and Peggy saw and heard the group call "Surprise", well she just stood there. Not only friends here in Nitro, but Kathie Hughes (an old Nitroite) and her sister Agnes who is at present here from Scotland — cousins of Peggy's — her aunt Betty, another sister, Mary, and her mother were also among the gang.

wiped away must surely have been happy ones. Peggy was taken to the chair of honor and given a few minutes to catch her breath and after a "drink all round" over which none remembered to give any kind of Toast. I started things off by apologizing for not having my parcel wrapped but I had been so busy helping so many friends get baby things for her, plus the wrapping, I didn't have time to fix my own. But at the last minute I thought of some things folks hadn't bought at my store — altho they may be in with some of the things wrapped in other parcels, that she could make use of. And sure enough, absorbent cotton, a measuring cup and bottles had been left out. Little Danielle Doyon had quite a time handling

HONORARY COMMODORE'S CAP PRESENTATION

The Nautical Club of Valleyfield this year has again awarded an Honorary Commodore cap to Mr. W. F. Tigh, chairman of Canadian Schenley Ltd., and former manager of the Valleyfield plant. all the parcels over to Peggy to open. I'm quite sure one of the girls present was glad when two or three came in late and there was more ribbon to add to the yards and yards which had been round the group! Mrs. Czech and Mrs. Doyon were the hostesses but there were many helping hands. After the gifts had been opened and admired by all, the usual delicious lunch was served and social hour spent, all of us so glad this secret had been kept so well.

Some weeks ago I was rather provoked with the birds, in particular a pair of Wax Wings who were having quite a free feed in our strawberry patch. I chased these two quite often and began to notice how tame they seemed to be. Then I read in a bird book that they weren't easily scared. Yesterday, Sunday, a little boy brought in a baby Wax Wing to us. Well, rather than let it be a feed for the cat, I found that the Forger family had a cage they would let me have, so now along with all my other odd jobs I have a bird to feed. And yes, it gets strawberries along with grapes and bananas. It's just beginning to fly and make a beeline for my head or shoulder. Will let it go free as soon as it is old enough. Wonder if it will be like the sparrows and come back and visit as they do. I swear it's the same gang who gather at my back door after the first snow fall and each succeeding snowfall asking for cats in their own particular way.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Yates, Kathryn and Gary have just begun a holiday visit from Phill's mother, Mrs. Barry, now of Miami, Fla., but who used to live here in Nitro at one time. Haven't seen her yet but won't be long after she's had a chance of a rest after a long trip.

I've also been wondering how many people in the Howick, Riverfield and Aubrey district read Nitro news, as I have a bit of news for them. I have had friends for over ten years in Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lévesque, but both Maurice and I were very surprised one night not so long ago to find how many people we both knew in the past and hadn't seen for years. I don't know whether the subject was good eating corn, maple products or plumbing but I do know I mentioned someone I knew "down home" by name, and this person was Bob McKell. Maurice asked me how I knew Bob and I answered that I'd known him since I was two years old but how did he know him? Wonder how many up Norton Creek way remember the Lévesque family? We had never met before but Maurice had gone to Howick High School when the school was first consolidated — driving in Ernie Carson's bus — so we had quite a time remembering this one and that one. Boy oh boy it's a small world!

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Quenel last week were her nephew and his wife and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Martin. Little Carol Roy celebrated her birthday a few days ago also Marco Lavigne, (Romas' youngest son) and on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ringette entertained quite a group of teenagers to celebrate Jean-Pierre's fifteenth birthday.

I was quite delighted to have a phone call last week and heard a "Hi Beth, I'm home." This was Mrs. Jim Halliday. Operation behind her. Just the very uncomfortable body cast to wear now for what seems a long six weeks. But after what she has suffered through the years hoping to at last have relief makes up for this discomfort. Sunday afternoon Linda and Arlene were in for candy. They were at Port Hope while mother was away.

And now another story can be told. I always make a point of saying families have been away after they are back. This is the case with the Clendenning family right now. I did write about Carole and Susan flying to Euclid (and I believe they really had the "red carpet" treatment from the plane personnel) but I didn't say that their Dad and Mother followed a few days later and that while they were away I had once again one of their prized possessions and a particular pet of mine to care for. This was Miss Susie, the doggy one of their family. Susie has often been boarded here and follows me all around so I really missed her when the family returned. Jimmie came home with them for his summer vacation. One of the highlights of the trip to England was a visit to Jimmie's school.

ing it was decided to hold a food sale on Aug. 11 in McGerrigle's Electrical Store. Mrs. Huntley Greig read an article entitled "Living With Oneself". Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ross Winter, Mrs. Arnold Bryson, Mrs. H. Tavenier and Mrs. Bury McGerrigle.

The late George Rutherford
 The community was saddened to learn of the death on July 19th, 1962, of George Rutherford at the Grace Dart Hospital in Montreal. Mr. Rutherford spent his lifetime on his farm at Allans Corners, until his retirement to Ormstown in 1955. He was born to the late Henriette Black and the late John C. Rutherford on Feb. 4th, 1884, at Allans Corners. In 1914 he married Ina Seward of Glenelg, who predeceased him eight years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford bore two children, a son Gordon, who passed away in 1954, and a daughter Vera. Mr. Rutherford was a member of St. Paul's United Church Session and Choir, and only ill health kept him from his accustomed place on Sunday.
 His great love of literature earned him a reputation for recitation and rarely was a concert or enter-

ANIMALS FLEW BEFORE MEN DID

The first airborne transportation developed by humans took place in 1783, when the Montgolfier brothers of France sent up a hot-air balloon. On its first trip the balloon carried a sheep, a rooster and a duck. A few weeks later, it bore aloft the first two humans ever to fly, according to the Book of Knowledge. They were Jean de Rozier and the Marquis d'Arlandes.

The funeral service was largely attended on July 13th, from St. Paul's United Church, with Rev. A. E. Loree conducting the service. The pallbearers were Lorne Forrester, Merrill Kerr, Cameron Bryson, James Winter, Lyold McClenaghan and William Craig.

WINNER OF SCHENLEY GOLD THROPHY

CAUCASIANS OF JAPAN

The descendants of a Neolithic people who once occupied all of Japan still live in the Kurile Islands, in Sakhalin and in the most northern island of Japan proper, the Book of Knowledge notes. The Ainu, as they are known, are a short, fair-skinned people of Caucasian stock. They are simple hunters and fishermen and only 15,000 are left.
