RCAF CHAPLAIN WILL ADDRESS MEETING HERE

Wing Commander, The Rev. J. McNab to Give Talk in St. Matthias' Church Hall Tonight

"The Far Horizons of the Unselfish" will be the subject of an address by Wing Commander, The Rev. John McNab at the anniversary meeting of the British and Foreign Bible Society taking place in St. Matthias' Church Hall this evening commencing at 8 o'clock. He is in the city for the purpose of addressing the group.

Wing-Commander McNab is a graduate in arts and theology of Queen's University, Kingston. On graduation he was awarded the Queen's Research Travelling Fellowship, and took post-graduate studies at Columbia University, New York City. He served overseas in the Great War with the Second Canadian Divisional Artillery.

The Principal Chaplain entered the Royal Canadian Air Force on the organization of the chaplain services at the beginning of this war. He was soon appointed Command Chaplain of No. 1 Training Command, being located at Toronto. He was appointed Principal Chaplain of the R.C.A.F. in December last. He has travelled from east to west, visiting the airports of the Empire Air Training Plan. The Bible Society provides members of the active forces with copies of the New Testament bearing a special message from the King. These Testaments are distributed through the chaplains.

Young People's Union Holds Weekly Meeting

The Young People's Union of Westmount Park Church held their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday.

A quiz contest was held under the direction of Gordon Young. This proved to be highly educational and very entertaining, and was followed by a color blind test. The special guests of the evening were the talented young artists, Don and Eileen Ellis, from Montreal West. Don sang several solos and Eileen gave renditions of the Moonlight Sonata and Finlandia. Wilma Pettigill, also present, entertained with several songs. The worship service was followed by refreshments, singing and recreation. An invitation is extended to all Young People of Westmount to come out to the weekly meetings at the church.

Division Has Sufficient Workers

Dan P. Gilmour, returning officer for the Provincial riding of Westmount-St. George, stated yesterday that there was now no shortage of enumerators for the compilation of voters for the by-election on March 23. His headquarters is at 3005 St. Catherine street, Wilbank 4332.

There is as yet little definite news regarding candidates and nomination day is not until March 16. However the name of Montreal Councillor G. C. Marler, member of the Executive Committee, has been mentioned in political circles as a possible Liberal standard-bearer. W. R. Bulloch, former Conservative M.L.A. for the division, may also run again.

PASTOR TERMS ANTI-RUSSIANS AS UNGRATEFUL

Rev. F. W. Kerr Claims Nation Religious in St. Andrew's Church Sermons

Speaking on "Religion in Russia," Rev. F. W. Kerr stated that one of the most tragic mistakes of the past 25 years "has" been our unwillingness to appraise the Russian Revolution with sympathy and understanding. In his sermon in St. Andrew's United Church Sunday evening.

Dr. Kerr bitterly assailed those persons who watch the Nazi campaign in Russia with indifference and with only the hope that the two peoples destroy each other as having reached "the height of callousness, to say nothing of crass ingratitude."

Dr. Kerr denied that the people of Russia were anti-religious, and stated that in spite of all attempts on the part of the Soviet Government to stamp out religion, it was flourishing everywhere. He also drew attention to the fact that the Constitution of the Soviets provides for freedom of worship. Russia, he said, must be influenced through her association with Christian countries in the present struggle against Hitlerism, to return to all Christian ideals.

REV. J. L. SMITH GUEST SPEAKER

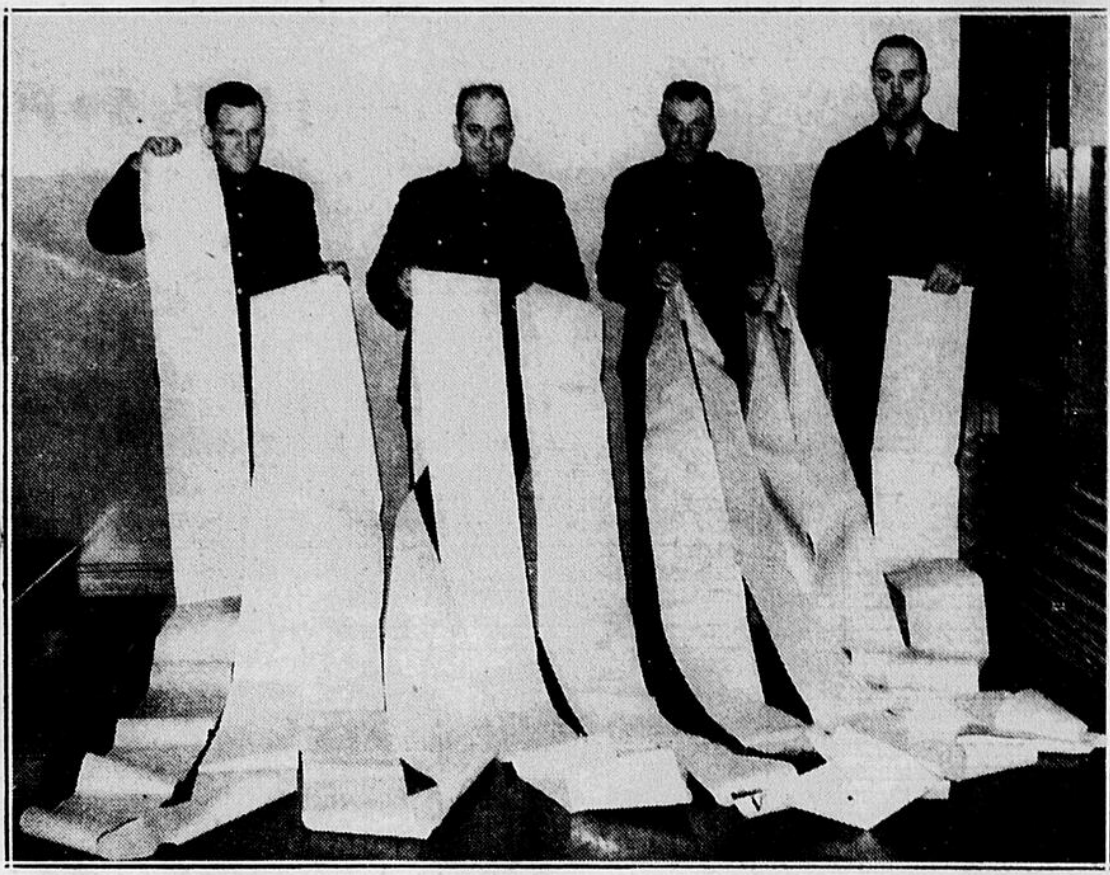

The pulpit this Friday evening at Temple Emanuel-El will be occupied by Rev. J. Lavell Smith, of Westmount Park United Church. Mr. Smith needs no introduction to the members of Emanuel-El. As friend and neighbour of Rabbi Stern, he has on many occasions participated in the programs of congregation Emanuel-El.

On Wednesday evening, the Young People's Society will be hosts to the men in uniform stationed in camps within the vicinity of Montreal. This project is in co-operation with the War Efforts Committee of the Canadian Jewish Congress.

PARK SLIDE NIGHT

Westmount "Y" Night at the Park Slide, one of the most popular events of the year sponsored by the local Y.M.C.A. branch, will be held at the Park Toboggan Club, next Friday evening, Feb. 27. It was announced yesterday by Ernie Taylor, acting executive-secretary. The event will feature tobogganing, skating and dancing.

THIS SHOULD KEEP HIM OCCUPIED A WHILE

Members of the Police and Fire Departments have taken to "letters" on a big scale in this episode addressed to a former colleague, Constable Harold Rowe, now serving overseas. The letter which is 127 feet long and 10 inches wide was written by 70 men on the force. Above is shown four of the men holding up the letter for the cameraman. They are, left to right, Constable A. Lawson, Sergeant F. Porter and Constables A. Cummings and W. Smith.

Library Secures Books On Air Raid Precautions

A comprehensive list of books and pamphlets dealing with various phases of air raid precaution work is now available at the Westmount Public Library. It was announced yesterday by Miss Kathleen Jenkins, librarian. The books and pamphlets are of British, Canadian and United States origin and number over 30.

The complete list follows:

Hessel, F. A., Chemistry in warfare, its strategic importance. N.Y., Hastings, 1940; Ley, Willy, Bombs and bombing. N.Y., 1941; Prentiss, A. M., Civil air defense; a treatise on the protection of the civil population against air attack. N.Y., 1941; Shirlaw, G. B., Casualty training, organization and administration of civil defence casualty services. London, 1940.

Pamphlets: Great Britain. Ministry of Home Security. Air raid precautions in museums, picture galleries and libraries.

POLICE OFFICER SLATED TO GET A LONG LETTER

Missive 127 Feet Long Sent By Police And Firemen To Former Colleague Now Overseas.

A letter 127 feet long has been sent by members of the Westmount Police and Fire Departments to a former colleague, Constable Harold Rowe, who is now on active service overseas with the First General Hospital Corps, R.C.A.M.C. The letter, which is 10 inches in width, was written by 70 men of the force.

It is entirely in one piece, the 79 separate messages having been pasted into the single strip shown above. No estimate has been made of the number of words it contains, but its authors agree that it will take Private Rowe some weeks before he reaches the end. The missive even contains photographs and should present a good picture of activities back home.

The dedication which follows the style adopted in more pretentious works of literature is as follows:

"We, the authors, namely Chief Gough, Inspector Byford, Deputy Chief Burris, Lts. Edmonston, Masse, Durocher, Cobb and Carmichael, Sergeants Beaton, Belce, Baker, Porter and others dedicate this in the name of good fellowship to Harold Maitland (Jack Boulevard) Rowe and we wish you good reading, good health and good luck."

Heading the dedication page is the crest of the City of Westmount. The name Jack Boulevard in parenthesis has reference to the scene of much of the absent officer's service.

SCHOOL GROUPS TO HOLD EVENT

March 1st, the High School, Junior and Intermediate departments of the Religious School will hold a joint Purim celebration in the Temple Community House. A Purim opera entitled "The Purim Tale," directed by Miss F. Katz, will be given. Among those participating in the opera are: Peter Margo, Joan Segal, Eric Miller, Cyril Lewis, Lawrence Neiditch, Sylvia Marks is co-operating in musical arrangements.

Canvassers Exceptionally Well Received By Residents, Unit Organizer Reports — "Things Going Well" — Miss Mary Thorpe Lindsay, of 3047 Breslay Road, Is Purchaser Of First Bond Here.

The first subscriber to enter the local headquarters of the drive have been particularly encouraging with sale of the bonds well ahead of expectations. C. E. McKenna, unit organizer for the city, reported yesterday.

"Things are going exceptionally well and the public reception to canvassers excellent," the unit organizer said.

The first subscriber to enter the local headquarters of the drive at 1383 Greene avenue was 21-year-old Miss Mary Thorpe Lindsay, of 3047 Breslay road, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Sydenham Lindsay. She is a well-known member of the Advent Drama Club.

First brother and sister to buy a bond were Miss Willa Benson, 12, and George, 8. They are the son and daughter of W. D. Benson, unit organizer of the Notre Dame de Grace Victory Loan Drive.

Many in the West End were alarmed by the clanging of church bells and whistling of factory sirens which marked the opening of the loan drive on Monday.

Cautious citizens hastily doused lights or pulled down window shades when the bells and whistles started sounding at 8 p.m., as had been arranged by the Victory Loan newspapers and over the radio. Observers reported "practically half of Westmount is in darkness. What's the matter—a blackout?"

Business Men Hold Meeting

Tentative plans for an entertainment open to the public which the Business Association of Westmount plans to sponsor either in March or May, were drawn up at a meeting of the association held in Victoria Hall Tuesday night.

Donald Ross, chairman of the entertainment committee, stated yesterday that the one definite fact that could be divulged at the present time was that the association was assured of procuring top flight artists — a number of whom have been starring in shows at military centres. Miss Betty Speirs will be in charge of the show.

It has also been announced that the entire proceeds of the event will be donated to a worthwhile war cause.

The president of the association, N. Eric Ohman, occupied the chair.

LAST RESPECTS PAID TO LATE ALFRED HOWELL

Veteran Northern Electric Employee Had Been Member of St. Stephen's Church for 35 Years

The funeral service for Alfred Howell was held on Saturday afternoon in St. Stephen's Church where he had been a member for more than 35 years. Mr. Howell, a veteran employee of the Northern Electric Company, and long associated with the development of the communication system in the Dominion, died on Friday after a lengthy illness. He was 83 years of age.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. E. K. Jones, of London, Ont., Mrs. Lennox W. Beaupre and Miss Dorothy Howell of Montreal; three sons, Norman of Moncton, N.B., Ben A. and John A. of Montreal and nine grandchildren.

Mr. Howell was a member of Christ Church, St. Andrew's East. He was a delegate to the Synod of the latter church for several sessions.

WESTMOUNT MEN ARE APPOINTED BY BIBLE GROUP

George Adam, President, and W. F. Brass, Honorary Treasurer of Montreal Auxiliary

George Adam and W. F. Brass, both of Westmount, were elected to office at the 122nd annual meeting of the Montreal Auxiliary Bible Society held last week. Mr. Adam was elected president in succession to Dr. D. L. Ritchie, retiring president who occupied the chair. Mr. Brass was named honorary treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Webb, of Montreal West, were elected life governors of the parent society in London. Mr. Webb who is vice-president of Jenkins Brothers Ltd., is a former president of the Canadian Manufacturers Association.

The general committee's report was presented by Mr. Adam, honorary corresponding secretary. The report emphasized the indebtedness of the Bible Society to Rev. O. Ritchie for his "strong, wise and gracious leadership." Special mention was made of the New Testaments to the men of the forces, the Canadian total distributor in December was 260,000. In addition, over 17,000 copies of the Scriptures had been sent to chaplains in prison and internment camps.

The treasurer's report was presented by Professor Henry F. Armstrong, and showed that $15,313.55 had been contributed by churches and individuals during the year. He also reported a separate income from bequests. More than $15,000 had been sent to headquarters for translation work and Scripture distribution. Of this amount, about $2,000 was sent to supply the men of the forces with a special edition of the New Testament.

The report of the Bible House showed a total sales of more than 16,000 copies of the Scriptures in 21 languages in the vicinity of Montreal. There were 83 Bibles, 117 New Testaments and 58 Scripture portions given away to needy individuals and institutions in this vicinity. Between seven and eight thousand copies of the New Testament were sent from headquarters to chaplains in this area, for free distribution to the forces.

PRINCIPAL SAVAGE TO ADDRESS GROUP

At 8 p.m. on Friday, the Home and School Association of King's School is holding a special meeting at which Principal Charles H. Savage, M.A., of the Westmount Intermediate School will explain the proposed legislation concerning the Protestant Central School Board, for the whole Island of Montreal. Opportunities will be given the parents present to ask questions, and the recommendations of the meeting will be sent to Dr. Percival of Quebec, for consideration by the Council of Education.

"The Examiner" aims to be an independent, clean newspaper for the home devoted to public service.

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1942

KEEP OUT OF THE WAY!

Prime Minister Churchill did a valuable service to all public men engaged in war work by appealing for less bickering and criticism of our leaders. To the same point, William Feather has published the following in the chain of house organs he prints: "To hasten victory, let us at home keep out of the way of those who are doing the fighting, planning and production. The days and nights of every important person engaged in the prosecution of the war are burdened by unnecessary demands, inquiries, and requests from civilians. Anybody who has ever been in public life knows that strength for the main task is sapped by an endless stream of personal callers, personal letter-writers, and personal telephoners who demand personal attention in matters that are so insignificant in importance as to border on the ridiculous if not the insane. Public men deserve sympathy at this time. They are bombarded by mail, wire, telephone, and in person, by bawling patriots who lack a sense of proportion. Nobody can do his job as well as he might if he is interrupted every few minutes by a request for a favour or a demand for a hearing on a peace plan."

PLAN TO BUY MORE!

As the war lengthens, Great Britain's needs grow and grow, and as Canada's armed forces increase steadily month by month in terms of men and equipment, the Canadian government has had to revise its estimate of what money must be obtained from the people of the country in order to prevent any slackening of pace. As the government revises the general estimate of new money to be found, the private citizen must revise his estimate of how much he shall subscribe to the forthcoming loan and another or others later in 1942.

The most earnest plea which Canada can make to the individual citizen at the present time is that he do everything in his power to increase his purchase of Victory Bonds.

IT WILL DO FOR NOW

One of the hardy perennials of controversy that we can get along without right now is the question of a Canadian flag. It pops up again with notice of motion in the House of Commons from a Quebec Liberal to empower the governor-in-council to create a national flag for the Dominion. In the motion Canada is described as "the only nation in the world which does not possess or fly a national flag."

That, of course, is true. And if a national flag would be any guarantee of a way out of our many troubles, we would be for it without hesitation. But, alas, this question will only add to the turmoil of controversy that we are now in over conscription.

The subject is one about which there always has been distinct cleavage. It touches upon Imperial ties and loyalties and the nationalistic sentiments. Even in normal times it has provoked acrimonious debate. Right now it may serve the purpose of short-sighted politicians, but it will only add fuel to the bitter flames of disunity.

While Canada does not have a distinct national flag it has a purely Canadian battle flag. It includes the Union Jack in the upper corner, while in the centre on a field of white is a spray of three red maple leaves, about which is a golden fleur de lys on blue ground within a circle. But even such a flag as this would not satisfy some of the advocates of a "distinct Canadian flag." In the past the extreme nationalists have made no bones about their preference of a "purely Canadian flag" which did not include the Union Jack.

Most Canadians are content to struggle along under the Union Jack. It will be admitted, though, that there are times when the conduct and behaviour of some Canadians conflict with the traditions of those colours. Another emblem of their own designing would certainly be more in keeping with conceptions of national honour and obligations.

In the meantime Canada has its hands full trying to live up to the high order of traditions for which the Union Jack has become an immortal symbol.

THE 50-CENT LIMIT

The great majority of local residents will, we know, co-operate with pharmacists in their effort to eliminate the delivery of non-essential goods. The problem of getting sufficient messengers to handle small deliveries has become acute of recent weeks, and those boys who can still be obtained should be available to deliver prescriptions and other essential purchases. There have been altogether too many demands on druggists and handy stores by thoughtless people who want a newspaper or a ten-cent package of cigarettes delivered to their home. Some of these people ask for two or three such deliveries in the course of one evening. It will be generally agreed, we think, that pharmacists should not have to make delivery of purchases below the fifty-cent limit.

Shaar Hashomayim Notes and News

Rehearsals in preparation for the annual Purim Spiel are now in full progress under the direction of Mr. S. Lerner, assisted by Miss H. Freeman, elocutionist, and Mrs. M. M. Fineberg, pianist. Preparations for the annual distribution of Shaloch Monas Purim baskets are under way.

At Junior Congregation services last week the following participated: Cyril Berlin, Martin Diodick, Gordon Edelstone, Marvin Feldman, Billy Levy, Perry Meyer, Samuel Nathanson, Maurice Phillips, David Robinson, Melvin Simak, David Solomon, Herbert Stroan and Arthur Victor. Murray Notkin opened the Ark.

The Keren Ami Tree campaign is now drawing to a successful close with all classes in the school participating. Pupils of Grade 9, Mrs. J. Schwartz, teacher, have pledged 10 trees; pupils of Grade 9-H, Mrs. S. J. Leibowitz, teacher, have arranged a concert, featuring recordings of "Gulliver's Travels." Admission will be 3c plus 1c for each year of the child's age. The concert will be held on February 22 at 4.30 at 464 Grosvenor avenue.

After services last Shabbos, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Latsky were hosts to the Bar Mitzvah Fellowship in honor of the Bar Mitzvah of their son Norman Lewis Latsky, who led in the Kiddush. A toast was offered to the Bar Mitzvah and his parents.

FEAR

Nothing we fear is overcome by running away. Retreat brings temporary relief, certainly, but it leaves us even more vulnerable than we were, so that our fear returns with redoubled force next time we encounter the thing that frightens us. When you feel afraid, insist on knowing accurately what it is you fear and why you fear it. Nothing will do more to help you to overcome your fright.

THE SOLACE OF BOOKS

Books to quicken the intelligence of youth, delight age, decorate prosperity, shelter and solace us in adversity, bring enjoyment at home, befriended us out of doors, pass the night with us, travel with us, go into the country with us.—Cicero.

The Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest

The Westmount Examiner's Hidden Titles Contest is run with the kind co-operation of Mr. Godel, manager of the Westmount Theatre. Each week twelve passes are given to the six lucky winners who comply with the following requirements:

Simply find the two "ads." in the current issue of The Westmount Examiner in which the names of the two feature pictures being shown at the Westmount Theatre during the first half of next week are hidden. Submit all answers to The Contest Editor, The Westmount Examiner, 2191 Hampton Avenue, using the special coupon provided in each issue for the purpose.

Contestants must be over 16 years of age. Residents of Westmount, only, are eligible. All answers must be in this office not later than Wednesday, and the names of the winners will be published in Thursday's issue. A convenient coupon will be found elsewhere in the paper.

The winners are drawn from among those who submit the correct answers, as, unfortunately, it would be impossible to give passes to every one submitting the right answer.

The winners of last week's contest are as follows and their passes will be received in Monday's mail.

Mrs. H. W. Fowler, 4821 St. Catherine St. W.; Miss Violet Eamu, 788 Upper Belmont Ave.; Mary Saunders, 452 Victoria Ave.; Mrs. C. Weatherall, 60 Selby St.; Perry Price, 375 Claremont Ave.; Wesley Macrae, 25 Burton Ave.

THE FORUM

Conducted by HOWARD S. ROSS, K.C., D.C.L.

In Which Subjects of General Interest Are Discussed

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

It takes a pretty good man to run the British Navy. So, when the pinch came, they went to the co-operatives and picked one of their fighting leaders, A. V. Alexander, and made him, "First Lord of the Admiralty."

Mr. Alexander is generally considered as the Labor party's greatest expert on ships and trade. He is an ardent free-trader, and a power in the co-operative movement. The latter has been his chief interest outside politics.

His last activity on its behalf brought him the powerful opposition of Lord Beaverbrook's newspaper during the anti-co-operative campaign in the early '30's. "The co-operative movement never made a millionaire, but it never made a pauper," Mr. Alexander said in a speech in 1934, renewing a challenge to Lord Beaverbrook to a public debate.

He added in that speech, "until Beaverbrook is willing to come out into the open where he can be met and not shout from a coward's castle, the public will be able to judge the sincerity of his campaign against us." The story is told that, when Mr. Alexander and Lord Beaverbrook finally met, the publisher held out a hand, saying: "My finest political ally! For years, the controversy about you has increased my newspaper sales."

Mr. Alexander, it is said, shook hands and retorted, "My best commercial traveller! Every time you attacked me, you brought customers to the co-operative."

A recent investigation shows that of late years lynchings in the U.S.A. are confined to rural communities where there is great poverty and illiteracy and that the old charge of rape has almost disappeared.

The winning of equal wages and working conditions by southern miners after weeks of man-overhauling and refusal by the operators shows there is effective unionization. The wage and hour law makes no discrimination against southern workers on the ground that it costs less to live in the South or otherwise. We do not know what the workers claimed or the merits of their claim.

During the second debate on production Mr. Churchill gave the House figures to show that the impression left in some quarters and spread overseas that there had been a lamentable fall-off was not correct. He hotly repudiated the idea, held (he said) by some who had never done a day's work in their lives, that workers could continue at the pace which they kept in the days immediately after "Dunkirk."

There is much in the news these days about Burma, a partly self-governing, separate Empire unit of great importance in the British Empire's strategic scheme.

The country has an area of 250,000 square miles—an area of that of pre-war Germany—and a population of 15 million. Before the war she exported $400,000,000 worth of oil, rice, timber, oil-seeds and minerals annually. She is mainly an agricultural country. She sent three million tons of rice to India and Ceylon before the war, and the peasants of those lands would starve without it. Teak, a monopoly of Burma, and sent to naval yards all over the world, is reserved for Britain's shipbuilding, especially for many new ships in India and Australia. Her oil-seeds and ground-nuts and cotton have helped to feed the Empire's cattle, soap factories and looms.

Normally 200,000,000 gallons of kerosene and petrol worth $65,000,000 are exported to India annually and the exports of metals and ores vary between 150,000 and 250,000 tons a year. The petroleum makes the best aviation spirit and supplies most Royal Air Force units operating east of Suez.

$65,000,000 are exported to India annually and the exports of metals and ores vary between 150,000 and 250,000 tons a year. The petroleum makes the best aviation spirit and supplies most Royal Air Force units operating east of Suez.

In March 1935 the name of Persia was changed to Iran. The population exceeds 15,000,000. The language is Persian and their religion Mohammedan and their chief occupation mining and farming. The area covers 634,360 square miles which is 10 times that of the British Isles and nearly one-fifth that of Canada or the United States. It is a Constitutional Monarchy, the Shah's powers being those generally exercised by a ruler of state under the Cabinet system. Its pre-war foreign trade was about $200,000,000 in American currency, its exports being approximately double its imports. It produces more crude petroleum than Rumania and double the output of Iraq.

Another positive factor which is numerically bound to destroy this German Europe, lies in the national conflicts and resentments which exist within this domain. Eighty million Germans are today faced by some hundred millions of alien peoples. Thus it is doubtful whether the New Order, now being created in France, will ever step out of its present immature form to reach full maturity. In British and American action, in the hearts of our patriotic people who remain faithful to the best traditions of democracy, we place our faith—Genevieve Tabouis, celebrated French publicist (historian, biographer and critic, now resident in New York), in Dalhousie University Review.

U.S. Government reports state that since 1937 railway workers in the U.S. have increased their productivity by 43 per cent. without any pay increases. The average U.S. rail workers wages is $1.324 per year.

Angry Warden: Don't you see the notice, "No fishing here?" Angler: There must be a mistake somewhere, for I'm catching plenty.

The women of Iceland grind dried codfish to powder and use it as flour to bake bread.

One of the gains for Britain and Russia by going into Iran is a supply of oil amounting to 79,000,000 barrels of oil per year. Iran is the fourth largest oil-producing country in the world. The largest is the U.S.A. with 1,351,000,000 barrels. Russia is next with 216,000,000 barrels, and then Venezuela with 184,000,000 barrels.

The world's supply of oil is 2,144,000,000 barrels of which Germany (including Poland) has a little over 9,000,000 though Germany in addition has access to Rumania's 42,000,000 barrels and Hungary's 1,700,000 barrels. Japan's oil production in 1940 was 2,638,000 barrels. This is much less than she needs. She imports most of her oil from

CALVARY CHURCH NOTES

The preacher in Calvary United Church, on Sunday next will be the minister, Capt. Rev. T. W. Jones, M.A., D.D. At the morning service the theme will be "Who lights a beacon?" In this sermon reference will be made to the National Victory Loan Campaign, and the project of lighting beacons across the land, with the lessons for life in these stirring times from this element of the campaign procedure.

At the evening service the theme will conclude the series of sermons on messages from the Book of Daniel, with special reference to "Shining as the Stars for ever and ever."

The Young Worshipers League will meet at 11 a.m. and the regular session of the Sunday School at 3 p.m. The Men's Own Brotherhood will also meet at 3 p.m.

The pastor's class for Church Membership will meet at 4 p.m. in the Vestry.

The Young People's Union will sponsor a special program under the title of "Share the wealth." All young people of the congregation are heartily invited; this meeting will commence at 8.15 p.m.

The Red Cross units will meet on Tuesday from 10.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. and the evening branch at 7.30 p.m.

Wednesday, 8.15 p.m., the mid-week service will be held for prayer and study of the Psalms.

Sunday, March 1st, the Communion of the Lord's Supper will be held at the morning service. At the evening service on that date the congregation of the Welsh Church will unite with the Calvary Church congregation. The choral worship will be led by the Welsh Male Voice Choir. Following the preaching service the Welsh Choir will give a sacred recital in the church.

Westmount Baptist Church

As the second in a series of sermons entitled, "The Red-Plumed Knight," Dr. Johnston will have as his theme, "Breaking a Lance with the Prince of Darkness."

In connection with the second services of the day, the Ministers of Stanley Presbyterian and Westmount Baptist Churches have planned a program of inter-visitations. At the Stanley Presbyterian service at 4.30, Dr. Frank Morley will preside and Dr. Johnston will preach; whereas at the Westmount Baptist service at 7 o'clock, Dr. Johnston will preside and Dr. Morley will preach, his theme being, "The Devil and Adolf Hitler." The attention of all worshippers is called to the change of the hour necessary on account of the blackout Sunday evening.

On account of the blackout arrangements for Sunday evening, the service in Westmount Baptist Church will be held at 7 o'clock instead of at 7.30. Additional arrangements are being made to hold a Fellowship Service in the Lower Assembly Hall, following the evening service, so that people will not have to be on the street during the "alert" or during the "blackout."

BEGINNING THE DAY

Begin the morning by saying to thyself, I shall meet with the busy-body, the ungrateful, arrogant, deceitful, envious, unsocial. These things happen to them by reason of their ignorance of what is good and evil. But I who have seen the nature of the good that it is beautiful, and of the bad that it is ugly, and the nature of him that does wrong, can neither be injured by any of them, for no one can fix on me what is ugly.

We are made for co-operation, like feet, like hands. To act against one another is contrary to nature.—Marcus Aurelius.

Getting married is about to become a serious affair in Ohio. If a man had a dollar he could get a dog license or a marriage license. Getting married now costs more, and has become as serious as owning an automobile. Hereafter all applicants for a marriage license must submit to blood tests and the presence of a disease, if in a communicable stage or likely to become so, will prevent the issuance of a license. Many if not most of the States have for some years had such a law. Some Canadians think it is too easy to get a divorce in some States of the U.S.A. but no one should have anything but praise for a law which requires a blood test before a permit is given to marry.

Wake up, wake up, ye Citizens of Montreal.

The Japs and the Huns are clamoring at the Wall.

Our boys in the air, on land and sea,

Are sacrificing their lives for you and for me.

Wake up, wake up, why so slothful be.

Realize your plight, and let your sacrifice be.

If not your lives, the Tools to win the war.

Must our defenders with their backs to the wall.

Fight without weapons to defend your all.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, who died on the tree,

That our souls be cleaned from sin be made free.

Our Heroes in the air, on land, and sea

Are sacrificing their lives, that our homes might be free.

Wake up, wake up, make free straight for your goal.

And give up, give up, for the Victory Loan.

TIME

For me it is painful to see the destruction of the humblest stone of an ancient building.

However poor and unskilled the mason who hewed it, that stone was fashioned by the most powerful of sculptors, Time. He has neither chisel nor mallet; his tools are rain, moonlight, the north wind; but he puts a wondrous finishing touch to the work of the artisan. What he adds cannot be defined and is of untold worth.—Anatole France.

LINCOLN LAUDED BY LOCAL RABBI ON ANNIVERSARY

Dr. H. Abramowitz and Mrs. L. D. Strean Sketch Career of Great Emancipator

At the general meeting of the Shaar Hashomayim Auxiliary last week, tribute was paid to Abraham Lincoln on the occasion of the anniversary of his birth. His life and work were interestingly portrayed by Mrs. Lyon D. Strean. Dr. Abramowitz, in commenting added that though Abraham Lincoln was not known to have been a member of any church, he was nevertheless a deeply religious man. It was because of his faith in God that he was enabled to maintain his courage through the many reverses in the early part of the Civil War. He had said on one occasion that any church that had inscribed over its portals these two principles of the Jewish Bible: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God" and "Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself" would be the type of church he would be prepared to join. Dr. Abramowitz pointed out as a coincidence that those two mottoes are inscribed in Hebrew on the walls of Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue on either side of the Ark. He pointed out that in the present dark period of the war through which we are passing, we could derive a great deal of courage and inspiration from the strong faith with which Abraham Lincoln faced the ordeal through which he passed until he saw final victory.

Miss Leola Lewis, vocalist, rendered the following negro spirituals as a tribute to the great liberator: "Go Down Moses," "Gimme Dat Ole Time Religion," "Swing Low Sweet Chariot" and "Joshua Fit The Battle of Jericho." She was accompanied by Mr. Coleman Lewis, pianist.

Minute of Silence
A minute of silence was observed in honour of Mr. Jacob Kellert, late honorary treasurer of the congregation. A resolution expressing the esteem and affection of the auxiliary toward him was adopted.

Tea conveners were: Mrs. L. K. Freedman, chairman; Mesdames J. Brodsky, Harry Bronfman, A. Dubrofsky, H. Ein, D. Faber, M. M. Gatz, J. N. Goldsmith, M. O. Kirsch, E. Lazare, H. Levinson, I. Lande, M. Marshall, H. Rosenfeld, and W. Rosenkranz.

Mrs. E. Solomon, the president, was in the chair.
Over a hundred men and women have registered for the first aid classes which are being conducted in the synagogue on Monday evenings by Dr. Arthur M. Vineberg. The course will comprise lectures and practical demonstration and will qualify those who attend for a St. Johns Ambulance certificate. It is expected to complete the work in 8 sessions.

Mayor Merrill Will Open Display

J. E. Pickering, president of the Westmount Stamp Club has announced that Mayor Walter Merrill has accepted his invitation to officially open the Club's Exhibition. The Exhibition which will take place in the early part of April will be held in Victoria Hall.

Vice-president H. E. Guertin presided over last week's meeting of the organization in the absence of Mr. Pickering. The meeting was devoted to informal trading.

The feature of this week's get-together will be a Club Auction. The meeting as usual will take place tonight at Victoria Hall in the Oak Room, the starting time 8.15 p.m.

NAME OFFICERS AT MEETING OF LOCAL CHURCH

Reports Show Generous Giving at Annual Session Of Melville Presbyterian

Reports showing generous giving on the part of members of the congregation were presented at the annual meeting of Melville Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Dr. Mulligan presided at the religious part of the meeting and E. Olive Kerr, the chairman of the board of managers, presided at the business session. D. A. Grant, secretary of the board, was made secretary of the meeting. Mr. A. A. Stewart, treasurer, stated that all bills for the year had been paid and there was a credit balance of 798 dollars. Over 2,500 dollars had been given to missions, of which the W.M.S. had subscribed 660 dollars; the Y.W.M.S. $154 and the S.S. $40. The Red Cross group had made over 1,600 articles and the Guild had sent many useful articles to the men of the Mercantile Marine. The Boys' Brigade had collected and sent away over 6,000 magazines. There was an increase in the enrolment, attendance and activities of the Sunday School, the Boys' Brigade and Girl Guides. These groups had raised over $300. Total givings of the congregation for the year were $11,500. New members elected to the board were Messrs. Philip Musselman, W. H. Walker, John MacFarlane, Jr., M. Matheson and James White. To the Budget committee Messrs. W. A. Doig, A. A. Stewart, J. Rae, D. Fraser, R. Mutch, 41 members were in the navy, army and air forces, many of them overseas.

Some people can't do without the country. They must have it, come wind, come weather and commuting. We visited a family like that last Sunday. We took a leisurely ride of about 15 miles across the fields and along the road, with the sun scorching down and the snow flashing—what a day! The whole countryside smelt of clean snow, woodsmoke and fresh air.

We were sort of expecting you to drop in today," the family said, as we rode in through the gates. A huge black great dane and a red setter plunged gladly around the horses' heels, a stumpy spaniel wriggled at us, a grey Persian cat trotted out to see what was going on. We put the horses in the barn, slightly hindered by the dogs, and went to rest on the sunny verandah of the farmhouse. Why keep a hat on in such like that? It was like summer. We sat there basking, the animals revolved around us and we had a lovely time.

We left most of the livestock outside when we went indoors to have a snack, but country topics followed us into the house. The welfare of the family's generous cow was discussed and advice for roses are gone into, prospects of buying piglets were considered. Oh, yes. The owner of that house goes into the city every day and works, like everyone else. But he has something pretty solid and satisfying to come back to.

MRS. SAVOY WINS PICTURE

The draw for the oil painting donated by Miss Bertha Des Claves to the Overseas Parcels League, British Minesweepers Auxiliary, proceeds of which will be devoted to the Sweater Fund, took place at a Valentine Bridge held by the League in Victoria Hall, Westmount, on the evening of February 14th. The painting was won by Mrs. John A. Savoy, Roslyn Ave., Westmount, the artist drawing the winning number.

EVERYTHING CONSIDERED

BY GERALDINE BRIETZCKE

Mrs. Pierre F. Casgrain, in her address at the mass meeting in the Montreal High School the other evening, hit the nail on the head when she said that the women of Canada were not expected to organize into a gestapo to spy on the merchants.

One point we must remember, a point brought out by Mrs. Casgrain in her charming way, was the fact that merchants have made sacrifices bravely and patriotically to help Canada's great war effort. Therefore, remembering that the merchants are trying to help as much as we are, it is up to us to be sensible and level headed about our price checking.

"Start tomorrow, if you haven't been keeping an account of prices," said Mrs. Casgrain, "write everything down from now on." Everyone at the meeting was given a nice little blue book full of ruled spaces and printed examples of how to keep their own lists, and here's hoping they really will use the books—because, as Mrs. Casgrain remarked, if only ten or twenty percent of Canadian women (the real buyers of Canada) fail to co-operate, it would be enough to cause the breakdown of this wonderful price control system.

As for the inflation that would follow—well, can you imagine all your security and all the comforts of your home blasted beyond recovery—gone, melted away—all your years of saving and care ruined? According to Donald Gordon, chairman of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, who also spoke at the rally, that's no exaggeration of the results of inflation on home life. It's to prevent inflation, to fight its terrible dangers, that we women are called upon to help our government every day of our lives.

Some people can't do without the country. They must have it, come wind, come weather and commuting. We visited a family like that last Sunday. We took a leisurely ride of about 15 miles across the fields and along the road, with the sun scorching down and the snow flashing—what a day! The whole countryside smelt of clean snow, woodsmoke and fresh air.

The following boys will be enrolled this week: Privates Alan Burdett and Terrell Valdez, both having completed their entrance requirements. The date has been set for the company's special re-enrolment service, to take the form this year of a re-union of all men having ever served in The Boys' Brigade, either at home or abroad, and will take place on Sunday, March 8th at 7.30, in Melville Presbyterian Church.

Lieut. Robert Beal is making excellent progress with his Ambulance class and is now completing the final stages of the course, prior to the examination. It is expected that every boy will pass the test and receive his certificate.

DICKENS GROUP PROGRAM FIXED

Birthday Party to be Held In Victoria Hall on Tuesday—Members to Take Part

Tuesday will be Members' Program Night at the Dickens Fellowship in Victoria Hall, Westmount. The evening will take the form of a Dickens birthday party to take the place of the banquet that should have been held on February 7.

The program will be given entirely by the members. There will be a Dickens "True or False," individual novelty numbers, an old-time chorus, games and old-time dancing.

Birthday greetings from other branches of the Dickens Fellowship will be read, and during the evening the honorary president, Ven. Archdeacon Gower-Ross, will give a short address in commemoration of Dickens.

Miss Winnifred Parker, lady vice-president, is in charge of the arrangements, and will introduce the various numbers.

WINS SCARF

Clyde Pangborn was the winner of the beautiful silver fox scarf which was donated by Holt, Renfrew and Company Limited for the drawing held by the Ferry Command Wives' Auxiliary, in aid of V-Bundles of Montreal and District. Pangborn, famous round-the-world flyer, won the scarf during the F.C.W.A. sports weekend party at Domaine d'Estevan, but generously put it up again for re-drawing, so that more funds could be raised for reconditioning and shipping used clothing through the V-Bundles organization, to the bombed out and destitute families in Britain.

The first drawing realized $180 and the second will take place on March 13. Tickets are available from any of the 25 members of the Ferry Command Wives' Auxiliary, and at Dorval Airport.

Mrs. Rudy Haas, who organized the auxiliary and who is leaving this week for California, extends an invitation to the wives of all radio operators, navigators, engineers and others connected with the Ferry Command to attend the meetings which are held every Friday afternoon in the Mount Royal Hotel at 2.30 p.m.

AMERICAN TROOPS VISIT WESTMOUNT

Sunday was American soldier day in Westmount just as much as it was in other parts of the island even though the Victory Loan parade in which they took part did not pass through here.

After their arrival at Bonaventure Station, with colors flying and band playing, the two detachments paraded from the station, up Windsor to St. Catherine street and west to Guy where they boarded buses for Westmount Barracks. Later more than 50 of the American contingent paraded to the church of St. Leon de Westmount for mass.

Following the Victory Loan parade the American units returned to Westmount Barracks for dinner and then proceeded to the R.M.R. Armory where they were guests at a typical Canadian troop show, the Tin Hat Revue, presented by the M.R.T. company which has entertained Canadian troops in camps and barracks since the outbreak of war. At 10.45 the detachment for Toronto, under Brig. Gen. Troland, left by train for the Ontario capital.

Mid-West farmers who are thinking of a sit-down strike against Washington's price control proposals may be sorry they sharpened the stumps to keep the tired man alert.

MEAD IS FOUND AT FAULT ON REDUCED COUNT

Charged With Reckless Driving, Flyer is Given Suspended Sentence by Judge

Francis Mead, 29, of the R.C.A.F., was found guilty on the reduced charge of reckless driving and was given suspended sentence by Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure in the Court of King's Bench last week.

Mead was charged with manslaughter after the R.C.A.F. car which he was driving ploughed through the safety zones situated at the intersection of St. Matthew and St. Catherine streets and killed James Howard Cowan, of 50 Bruce Avenue, Westmount, who was waiting for a street car.

After deliberating from shortly after noon until three o'clock, the jury found the accused guilty on the reduced charge and added that the prisoner be accorded the "greatest clemency."

Passing sentence immediately after the verdict was returned, Mr. Justice Lazure told the accused that he was glad that the jury had brought in the verdict of reckless driving and had added the request for clemency.

"I know that you are subject to disciplinary action on the part of your superior officers and will, therefore, suspend sentence in your case and remit you to the charge of the R.C.A.F.," said His Lordship.

His Lordship also told the accused that relatives of the victim of the accident had interceded on his behalf and had asked that clemency be exercised.

After he had thanked Mr. Justice Lazure, Mead left the prisoner's dock and was met by some of his senior officers who had testified on his behalf during the trial. A brother of the victim also met the accused and shook hands with him and wished him luck.

According to the evidence of the trial, Mead had spent some time in an uptown hotel and admitted on the witness stand that he had taken six glasses of beer on the evening of the accident.

In passing sentence, Mr. Justice Lazure said that he wished to compliment the accused on the frankness he displayed in giving his evidence and in admitting that he had taken some alcoholic liquor that night.

NEEDS OF WAR CAPTIVES TOLD AT Y MEETING

Members of Prisoners of War Association Are Addressed by Y.M.C.A. Worker

Tracy Strong, of the International Y.M.C.A. War Prisoners' Aid, described the life and needs of German or Italian prisoners of war to members of the Montreal Branch of the Canadian Prisoners of War Association at a meeting in the Westmount branch of the Y.M.C.A.

Everyone who has a friend or relative in a German prison camp should do everything possible to make his life as comfortable as possible, Mr. Strong said. He suggested that warm woolens, soap, snapshots, cigarettes, and other gifts of this kind would be the easiest to send, and the most appreciated when they arrived. Concentration camps differ according to the officer commanding, he said. Because most of these camps were run by older German officers, life in them was better than it might otherwise be, he stated.

Mr. Strong was introduced by Mrs. J. O. Asselin, chairman of the national organizing committee of the C.P.W.R. Association.

Mexican Influence Seen In Star's Gown

Patricia Morison, whose frequent visits to Mexico have made her one of that republic's favorite exponents of the "good neighbor" policy, has found much sartorial significance and inspiration in that country. And Edith Head, Paramount studio designer, who lived long there, concurs with Miss Morison's ideas in the creation of a spectacular evening gown for Pat to wear in "Mr. and Mrs. Cugat."

It consists of a slim, slit skirt of black amusee crepe. A wide scarlet satin sash encircles the waist, and the black cape is a duplicate of those worn by the terrors of the bull ring, even including the bright red lining and gold epaulettes.

Westmount Association To Hear Psychiatrist

Dr. Baruch Silverman, noted psychiatrist and Director of the Mental Hygiene Institute, Montreal, will address a gathering of parents and teachers, members of the Westmount High School Home and School Association, on Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock in the Intermediate School, Academy Road. Dr. Silverman's subject will be: "Behavior Problems of the Adolescent" and he will deal with the many angles of Behavior, Mental Health and the practical application of discipline.

Novelist To Address Co-operative Society

J. Hugh MacLennan, author of this year's best selling Canadian novel, "Barometer Rising," will be the speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the West End Co-operative Society. The meeting will be held at Victoria Hall on Wednesday at 8.15 p.m.

Tea will be served as usual after the meeting.

Nassau Recommended For Winter Relaxation

There is an opportunity for warmth, rest and relaxation being arranged by the Tobin's Travel Bureau. There is an all-expense tour to Nassau, by rail and air, via New York and Miami, leaving here Monday, March 23 and returning to Montreal April 7. This party will be personally conducted by Mrs. H. B. Pope.

Clock Presented To W.H. Spearman

Presentation of a travelling clock to W. H. Spearman, former executive-secretary of the Westmount Y.M.C.A., in recognition of his forthcoming departure for overseas service at the Beaver Club in London, England, was made Tuesday by his colleagues on the staff of the Montreal Y.M.C.A.

At the regular weekly soldiers' dance at Westmount Y.M.C.A. on Saturday evening, Miss Betty Stewart, representing the Westmount Girls' Hi-Y Grads, presented to Mr. Spearman a diary and guest book for use in the Beaver Club in recording the names of the Westmount boys who visit the club during the term of Mr. Spearman's managership.

Catholic Women Open New Headquarters On Rosemount Avenue

The Catholic Women of Westmount are opening their new war work headquarters at 8 Rosemount avenue this week, lack of space and available time having necessitated the move from Victoria Hall. The new rooms are on the ground floor, having a private entrance from the side verandah.

Mrs. A. A. Pare, chairman, announces that all the Catholic women of Westmount are invited to visit these new headquarters. Workers are needed, for knitting, sewing or mending, to help either at their own homes or at group headquarters. Donations of clothing for V-Bundles are requested, and may be delivered any day to 8 Rosemount avenue.

Local Parish Group To Hold Style Show

A fashion show is to be held under the auspices of the League of the Sacred Heart, parish of the Ascension of Our Lord, in St. Leo's School hall on Wednesday evening, March 4, at 8.15 o'clock, under the convenship of Miss F. Regan.

Mrs. C. J. Shaw will be the commentator, and the gowns will be shown with the co-operation of Dobridge Ladies' Wear. Miss E. Gibbons is ticket convener, and door prizes will be awarded to lucky ticket holders. Mrs. Joseph Shea will be the pianist.

Westmount Women's Club Scores In "Stage Door"

A New York stage hit proved a success locally when the Westmount Women's Club presented "Stage Door", under the direction of Herbert Whitaker, on Thursday and Friday evenings in Victoria Hall.

Written by Edna Ferber and George Kaufman, the play deals with life in a residence for girls connected with New York stage life. The settings were cleverly designed and the whole play was thoroughly good, moving and entertaining.

Ena Gillespie, as Terry Randall, acted with spirit and sincerity throughout her exacting role. Cecile Wright, as the hard-boiled Judith, proved a clever comedienne, and Margaret Pitt handled tragedy in a delicate and moving way.

The role of Mrs. Orcutt, exactress, was well taken by Margaret McKean, and Winnifred Hogan made a lovely "glamor girl" actress. Rose Greenway and Florence Briegel caused much amusement as the two maids, making real character sketches of their parts; Ruth Slayton and Helen Edwards made the most of the humor of Big Mary and Little Mary.

Frances Lindsay played the part of Bernice with vigor, and Ottawa Power was charming and pathetic as Mrs. Shaw, the mother from out of town. Her daughter, Linda, was well portrayed by Margery Cloutier. Ruth Beckstead was interesting as Olga Brandt, the gloomy and exotic pianist, while Marion Eaton, Alice Kiehl, Blossom Hicks, Muriel Meikle, Dorothy Richardson, Helen Cairns, Betty Cochran and Lois Boyes also turned in good performances.

The men in the cast all proved remarkably effective. Chester LeMaitre, playing Keith Burgess, the young playwright, was completely and cleverly natural, and Don Haldane, as the motion picture director, proved a capable and sincere actor. A brief and biting performance was turned in by John Pinn, as Adolph Gretzel, and Turney Shute was kindly and poised as the father.

Griffith Brewer and Ralph Johnstone were delightful as the two boy friends, and Ken Cooper and Michael Leone gave amusingly accurate portrayals of press agents.

The production was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Landless Pratt, and the proceeds of the play are to be devoted to war work.

ASCENSION SODALITY HAD BUSY MONTH, REPORTS SHOW

The various reports presented at the recent general monthly meeting of the Young Ladies Sodality of Ascension Parish indicated that the sodality has had an active month. Highlights of the meeting were the report on the bridge given by the Sodality on Jan. 21st, which was successful both financially and socially. Miss Anne Landy, chairman of the social life committee, and the members of her committee organized the bridge, the students of 4th year high of St. Paul's Academy looked after the serving of refreshments at this event.

A Valentine social was also arranged for by this committee, and was held on Friday in St. Leo's School Hall.

Special Guests

Special guests at the meeting were Reverend Mother Superior of St. Paul's and a number of the teachers, as well as some of the pupils of 4th year high.

The Prefect, Miss Carroll McDonald, reported that the Dramatic Club of the Sodality were working on an entertainment "Shamrock Hour" to be presented on March 17 and 18, and announced the appointment of Miss Alma Tremblay as ticket convener.

Activities include an "animated rosary" to be presented in May under the direction of Our Lady's Committee and a Spiritual Bouquet to be presented to the Pope on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee as a Bishop of the Church. This latter activity is being looked after by the Eucharistic Committee and every sodalist will be contacted personally for her offering. Sodality members were also reminded to carry on the Perpetual Communion.

The Treasurer of the Sodality reported that a donation of $5.00 had been made to St. Mary's Hospital campaign. This month being Catholic Press Month, several posters were exhibited at the meeting urging the reading of Catholic literature. Miss Mary Allison, chairman of the Catholic Truth Committee, reported that the members of her committee were collecting Catholic literature to send out West, and also for the armed forces.

The members of the Publicity committee made a poster for the Valentine Social and also one for the Apostolic committee, reminding sodalists to save old stamps. Publicity for the Bridge and the Social were looked after by this committee and News sheets were distributed at the meeting.

Asked to Help New Group
The Sodality has been asked to participate in the war work being undertaken by the newly formed Catholic Women's Group in the Parish, under the direction of Mrs. A. A. Pare. Miss Mary MacIntyre, vice-president, has been appointed convener for the Sodality and expects to get a committee working shortly.

Miss Lorraine Taylor, chairman of the Apostolic Committee, announced that no rummage sale would be held this year and that instead clothing would be distributed to needy families. A box has already been sent out west; visits to the Convalescent Hospital are continued and the committee is planning an entertainment for the Sisters of the Poor in March.

The winner of this month's door prize was Miss Mary Dyson.

Father Thoms, the director of the Sodality, read an article on Father Lord on "After-Dependability" and also spoke about the March entertainment, urging the sodalists to support this event and reminding them that the proceeds were for the sinking fund of the church.

The next spiritual meeting of the Sodality will be Tuesday morning, March 3rd, at 7.30 and the next general meeting will be Monday, March 16.

Tab'aux Presented At Dessert Luncheon Of Jewish Council

The Montreal section of the National Council of Jewish Women held a successful dessert luncheon at the Shaar Hashomayim Synagogue yesterday. The program featured a series of tab'aux depicting the social service activities carried out by the National Council of Jewish Women throughout Canada. The text was written by Mrs. Solomon Vineberg and the scenes were directed by Mrs. S. J. Leibowitz. The reader was Mrs. Lyon P. Strean and the musical accompaniment was provided by Mrs. M. N. Fineberg, pianist.

Participating in the program were Mrs. P. Solomon, who portrayed the Council woman, Mesdames Felix Alexander, Maxwell Cummings, Philip Fram, B. A. Garson, Joseph Goodson, G. T. Kenny, H. Hart, I. S. Isaacs, Leon Levin, Rose Medine, Sydney Le-

Maritime Women Mark Charter Day With Valentine Tea

The Maritime Women's Club of Montreal, Inc., celebrated their Charter Day by holding a tea in the Prince of Wales Salon, Windsor Hotel, on Saturday.

The president, Mrs. G. R. MacLeod, Mrs. Guy Lapraque and Mrs. J. G. Joyce received the members and their guests. Mrs. Vance Ward and Mrs. Guy Lapraque poured tea and coffee, and the tea table was decorated with a white tree, on which tiny red hearts were used as leaves. The whole scheme carried out in Valentine colors.

Miss Iobolyka Gyrfas, violinist, rendered Martin's "Andantino," "Hungarian Dance" (Brahms), "The Poem," by Fibich, and as an encore, Schumann's "Traumerel." Miss Gyrfas was accompanied on the piano by Miss Bertha Rogers.

Mrs. MacLeod introduced Mrs. Stewart S. MacInnes of Welland, Ontario, who gave a rendition of "The White Cliffs," by Alice Duer Miller. Leslie Gordon Barnard, a guest of the club, thanked Mrs. MacInnes.

MOSTYN LEWIS AGAIN PRESIDENT OF LOCAL RED CROSS

Mostyn Lewis was re-elected president of the Westmount Branch of the Canadian Red Cross, at the annual meeting held on Monday in St. Leo's School hall. A highly successful year's work was reported, total expenditures amounting to $1,021.75, a decrease of $130.87 as compared with the previous year.

2,327 knitted and sewn articles were donated during the year by groups and individuals, and $596.16 had been received since January 1941, with $300 of this amount from the branch's own canteen. The knitting department turned out 2,496 hospital supplies, 6,771 knitted comforts for the Armed Forces, 992 articles for the Women's Auxiliary Services, and 12,492 articles of civilian clothing. Wool knitted into these comforts amounted to 2,780 lbs., and in addition, the knitters had made 1,937 knitted articles included in the total of civilian clothing.

It was reported that total of 12,051 articles had passed through the sewing room. Civilian kits had predominated, with sufficient hospital supplies kept in hand, in case of sudden calls for hospital and surgical needs. Pyjamas, dental gowns, T-handages, limb bandages, women's and girls' dresses were some of the other articles made.

The salvage department is collecting and sorting tin foil. It was reported, the general salvage having been discontinued.

The following officers were elected: President, Mostyn Lewis; vice-president, Mrs. George C. McDonald; honorary-treasurer, George Hodgson; secretary, Mrs. Percy Turcott; chairman of sewing, Mrs. Alex Hutchinson; chairman of knitting, Mrs. Henry Birks; chairman of supplies, Mrs. W. B. GUILD HEARS OF EXCAVATION WORK AT FORT STE. MARIE

One of the most important scientific contributions yet made to the history of Canada has been the recent excavation work done at Fort Ste. Marie, Ont., according to the Rev. Horatio P. Phelan, S.J., who addressed the Xavier Apostolate Guild at their meeting held in Congress Hall on Monday afternoon.

Taking as his subject, "The Jesuit Martyrs and Recent Excavations at Fort Ste. Marie," the speaker told of the vast archaeological significance of the excavations, as well as the religious association which has drawn many thousands of visitors to the shrine built on the site of the old fort, which was formerly the headquarters of the Jesuit missionaries.

Implements and objects of all kinds have been unearthed, the work having been undertaken by the Royal Museum of Ontario, the speaker said. Numerous cures have been effected at the shrine, which has become a national pilgrimage. Father Phelan concluded. The talk was illustrated by colored moving pictures.

Father Phelan was thanked by Mrs. J. A. Weldon.

Vocal selections were rendered by Herbert Stace, accompanied by Professor Jeffrey Craig, and tea was served by Mrs. J. Colvey. The guests were received at the door by Mrs. C. A. Phelan, mother of the speaker, past president and one of the founders of the Xavier Apostolate Guild.

Mrs. Ethel Reynolds, president presided, and made an appeal on behalf of the current Victory Loan campaign.

We Must Win...

WE SHALL WIN!

● Today... the free peoples of the world are banded together in a gigantic battle to preserve freedom. The foes of freedom are strong, well prepared, ruthless.

To defeat them we must become stronger, better prepared. The only way we can do this is to provide our fighting forces with stronger weapons, better weapons—and more of them!

That's the reason Canada is borrowing money... and that's the reason why you should lend your money to Canada.

So let's "beat the life out of the savage Nazis" by investing in the new Victory Bonds to the full limit of our ability.

FEBRUARY CELEBRITY

Who does not know the comic opera, "Barber of Seville" and the Overture to "William Tell"? The composer of these two immortal works, Gioacchino Antonio Rossini was one of the few singularly fortunate musicians whose life was a happy and prosperous series of interesting events. Yes, indeed, one of the world's great operatic composers who practically stopped composing at the age of thirty-seven although he lived to the ripe old age of seventy-six! A lazy fellow! True enough, but who can say anything against such idleness when he wrote 35 operas from his 18th to 37th year. His "Stabat Mater" is considered the greatest ever written and is always performed during Passion Week in the Roman Catholic Church.

The life of Rossini reads more like fiction than true fact and his popularity has not dwindled with the passing of over a century. No opera company's repertoire excludes the "Barber of Seville" (which he is supposed to have composed in thirteen days!) Rossini was born at Pesaro, Italy February 29th, 1792, and sang church solos at the age of ten. His father was the town trumpeter as well as the inspector of slaughter-houses and his mother sang in small Italian theatres. Rossini had lessons in harmony, counterpoint and singing and on the harpsichord and violinello. As soon as he thought he knew enough to compose he immediately dropped his studies. By nature lazy, his was a genius that just flowed from his pen. The ease with which he composed was remarkable and honours heaped upon him endlessly. He made a great deal of money and when he died left most of his wealth to establish a conservatory at his birthplace. Rossini married Isabella Colbran, a highly successful soprano whose father was a musician to the King of Spain. She died in 1845 and two years later he married a Frenchwoman, Olympe Pélissier. During his eventful life he had many royal honours and was a member of numerous cultural bodies.

Rossini spent most of his later years in pleasure and idleness, rarely composing and even forgetting to write. He was a fantastic matter have not been able to find suitable material to solve the reason for Rossini's ceasing to compose. The jolly musician, also a noted wit, was a very kindly man who was popular wherever he went, due to his happy disposition. He died in November, 1868 in his villa at Passy, near Paris, where he spent many years. Among his most famous works aside from those already mentioned are "La Gazza Ladra" (the Overture to this opera is played often by symphony orchestras) "La Danza" which has the celebrated Tarantella played recently by the First Piano Quartet, "Moses in Egypt", "Othello" and "Semiramide".

SPENCER TRACY HIT IN FIRST DUAL ROLE

Once again Spencer Tracy proves his right to his place as a two-time Academy Award winner with his portrayal of that favorite of fiction, "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." Sharing honors with the star in the new picture, currently playing at the Monkland United Theatre, are Ingrid Bergman and Lana Turner.

Surprise of the M-G-M production is the casting against type of the two leading ladies. Contrary to expectations, Lana Turner is the sedate Beatrix Emery, and Ingrid Bergman the little barroom entertainer, Ivy Peterson. Both prove their versatility in the unusual roles.

But it is Tracy's performance which dominates the film. Admirable in his restraint, Tracy resorts to no gargantuan make-up to denote his transformation from the good Dr. Jekyll into the evil Mr. Hyde. The star achieves personality changes by expression changes.

HOLLYWOOD. — That bare-chested, amateur ape-man, Collin Blair, started something when he camped in a parking lot opposite Paramount and after a 24-day siege finally won an infinitesimal bit in "Reap the Wild Wind."

Woodrow Daniel, 18-year-old self-styled "pittin' image" of Stirling Hayden, admits it was the Blair lot opposite Paramount and after a 24-day siege finally won an infinitesimal bit in "Reap the Wild Wind."

So Daniel and his nag, Faithful, jogged out to North Hollywood and established themselves in a vacant lot across from Republic Studios. They young man says he'll take a part in any picture provided it is "something tragic and emotional." Later he admitted he would consider a contract as a hero of western and declared Republic has promised him a test.

Woodrow Herbert Daniel resembles Stirling Hayden chiefly in the matter of hair, which is blond but much longer—about like Buffalo Bill's. The newcomer also is of medium height, against Hayden's 6 feet, 4 inches. It was it a high school play that Daniel first discovered his dramatic bent. In his spare time he wrote four novels (unpublished) about himself—how he ran away from home and became a song-and-dance man, and met a beautiful girl named Jacqueline who told him he was wonderful, and how after many hardships he was discovered by a

Port Darwin-Boom Town

War in the Far East has wakened Port Darwin from a 70 year doze. The town is situated on one of the most northerly point of the Australian continent and now forms a highly important reserve position behind the main Netherlands East Indies strong-points. From a rural hamlet with a population of a few hundreds, the advent of war has transformed Port Darwin into a bustling naval and air base with a population already in the thousands and constantly increasing.

Air patrols operating out of the port cover the Northern Australian coast from Cape York in Queensland on the east to Wyndham, Western Australia, from the Pacific to the Indian Oceans. It also forms a vital link in the air route which stretches from industrial Australia, far to the south, across the Netherlands Indies, and thence to Singapore and to India. Both military and civil air ports are constantly humming with activity.

As the name implies, Port Darwin also offers facilities for shipping. The naval authorities have been understandably reticent about changes and improvements effected in the harbour, but it is reported that its importance as a naval base ranks perhaps equal with its importance to the air forces.

Land forces are of course essential to guard the naval and air establishments and it is stated talent scout and he and Jacqueline lived happily ever after. In real life, declared Daniel, he learned to tap dance and sing, got on an amateur program in New York, hoofed at the Roxy, then at the Waldorf-Astoria and finally with Olsen and Johnson—at $250 a week. If these things happened, they failed to taint Woodrow with sophistication.

WESTWARD HO

Back in Atlanta after his Broadway fling, he read about Collin Blair and Mary Burgess, the parking lot campers, getting parts in "Reap the Wild Wind." Daniel paid $50 "or the horse he named Faithful and $200 for a wagon on which he painted his name and other data, including the descriptive phrase, "The Dancing Kid With the Golden Voice." He started with $10 and the good wishes of many friends. His father sent him money along the way.

One night near El Paso, when the expedition was meandering along the highway, an automobile crashed into old Faithful. Daniel had to buy a new Faithful—for $45 this time—plus extensive repairs to the conveyance.

While Daniel described his pilgrimage I discovered he still doesn't know the genders of mores or geldings; also that for quite a while he had an awful time getting Faithful harnessed each morning. However, he still feels perfectly qualified to play cowboy roles—in dramatic and tragic—and I had to admit he might be right at that.

When Republic's Mauly Hare and Mary Lee came across the that strong Australian army forces have been quartered there since the outbreak of war in 1939.

Port Darwin was originally founded in 1869 as the first telegraph station to connect Australia with Europe by way of Java, Singapore and Madras. Until 1938, however, Darwin remained an isolated outpost serving a sparsely populated district whose main industries were cattle-raising and pearl fishing. Between Darwin and the rapidly developing cities of southern Australia stretched hundreds of miles of desert land. Supplies had to travel 3,000 miles by land or sea. Land communication is still only by road as there has never been direct rail communication with the south. From Darwin the south-bound land traveller must go 300 miles by rail to Budum, thence by road 600 miles to Alice Springs, then another 700 miles by rail to a junction point with the main South Australian railroads.

The town itself, though situated in a colorful tropical area, has few attractions for the casual visitor. Furthermore its "two-season" climate leaves something to be desired. One-half of the year is hot and dry, the other half is hot and wet, with severe tropical storms for variety. It is not surprising that it took a war to wake Port Darwin from somnolent isolation.

FUNNY CHARACTERS
APPEAR IN 'DUMBO'

A host of funny and fascinating new characters is introduced in Walt Disney's newest feature-length production, "Dumbo," which opened yesterday at the York United Theatre, and completely captivated its audiences. Leading the parade is the hero who gives his name to the title, Dumbo, the sail-eared little baby elephant.

Then there is a new comedy team which convulsed the audiences, the Five Black Crows, birds who speak with the rich and spontaneous humor of the Negroes. Marion McGregor, a gifted young Canadian contralto, will also be heard in two groups of songs.

N. Y. ENGAGEMENT
Lorraine and Rogan, eccentric dance team who made such a hit in "The Fleet's In" that Paramount signed them to a year's contract, are appearing in New York City with Glenn Miller's orchestra.

"Dumbo" is the story of a baby elephant who was born with enormous flapping ears. His appearance makes him a figure of fun and the butt of all the circus pranksters. His experiences and adventures are remarkable as he strives for fame in order to establish himself as a personage in his world of the circus. Of course he eventually succeeds, in a way that makes him world famous and the most renowned little elephant of all time.

NO CLINGING VINE
Frances Gifford has been punched, thrown from a horse, spanked and slapped, in film adventures. But the unkindest cut of all occurs in Paramount's "American Empire," in which, as leading lady to Preston Foster, she is charged by an angry bull.

VERY COLD WORK
Director Sam Wood led a film troupe of 244 actors and technicians into the Sierra Nevada mountains of Northern California in sub-zero temperatures to film snow scenes for use in Paramount's picture of Ernest Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

SAME HOME TOWN
MacDonald Carey and Constance Moore, who play the second leads to Rosalind Russell and Fred MacMurray in Paramount's "Take a Letter, Darling," both hail originally from Sioux City, Ia., and had not met until they went to work in the picture.

Concert Planned
By Masonic Choir

The annual concert of the Montreal Masonic Choir will be given in Stanley Presbyterian Church on Wednesday, March 4, 1942, at 8.30 p.m. in aid of the Quebec Masons War Relief Fund. An interesting choral program has been prepared, a feature being the timely performance of Sir Charles V. Stanford's "Songs of the Fleet" for baritone solo and male chorus. Mr. Harry Maude, a leading Montreal baritone, will sing the solo parts, while Miss Marion McGregor, a gifted young Canadian contralto, will also be heard in two groups of songs.

Snowdon Showing
Tense Thrill Plot

The tense thrill-drama of an accused murderer is the story of "Girl in the News" now showing at the Snowdon theatre. Starring Margaret Lockwood, Emlyn Williams and Barry K. Barnes, the film relates the suspense of the plot which places a girl on trial for her life, for similar crimes — murder by poisoning.

Nurse Graham's fascinating story has been called the strangest adventure a girl ever had. Acquitted once through the able services of the lawyer who didn't believe in her, her attempt to start a new life causes the same dread result when another of her patients is found dead of an overdose of sleeping potion.

Posing the question: could this girl kill two innocent people? — or is somebody plotting to send her straight to the gallows — the film gathers momentum with each thrill-packed scene. As the evidence is stacked, piece by piece, with meticulous care, it seems as if Nurse Graham must be guilty — yet there lingers the awful doubt that someone may be sending her to her death to suit their own needs.

MERRIMENT REIGNS IN 'BIRTH OF BLUES'

The happiest news to report on the local film front at this moment is that Paramount's "Birth of the Blues" opened at the Westmount United Theatre last night, and that it is one of the finest, most exhilarating treasures of jazz music and laughs ever to hit the screen. Last night's audience loved it completely.

"Birth of the Blues" goes back to the days when pioneering white folks first began playing the jazz that Negroes invented. The story takes us to the New Orleans of the early 1900's, presenting us Bing Crosby as a blues-happy clarinetist who wants to organize the hottest band in the Southland. The tale then goes on to relate Bing's hilarious and musical efforts after he gets his band to get the white folks to cotton-up to his Dixieland jazz rhythms.

Victorias Cop Midget League Championship

DOWN STAYNOR CANADIENS IN TWO STRAIGHT GAMES BY SCORES OF 5-3 AND 5-0

The Victorias who ended the season in first place in the midget section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League, proved that their high position was no accident when they took the challenging Staynor Canadiens two straight games for the midget title. The Canadiens, third place team in the loop standing had eliminated the Beavers and were given a good chance of halting the Victorias' win streak, but with the exception of the first game when the Vics outscored them 5-3, they were not in the running. The Victorias shut-out the Canadiens in the second game 5-0.

The first game which was played on Wednesday night was a fairly even game with both teams alternating in scoring. Donnie Bussiere who won the first game for the Victorias single-handed with four goals, notched his first two in the initial stanza to give the Vics a two-goal lead, but Warren Prud'homme tallied for the Canadiens on a passing play with Gordie Craig and Gordie Brace before the period ended.

ORIOLES DOWN RCAF EAGLES BY 4-0 SCORE

The Verdun Orioles defeated the R.C.A.F. Eagles 4-0 in the only game of the week played at Westmount Park in the Westmount-Verdun Intermediate Hockey League. This shut-out marked the eighth win in nine games for the Verdunites, their other game having resulted in a 1-all tie with the Westmounts.

Two goals by James was a material help to the winners while F. Diver and Hal Forrestel accounted for one apiece. Snyder, Hopkins and Mackay were the best for the Airmen.

Both the Orioles and the Westmounts have completed their schedule but the Verdun Restaurant team and the R.C.A.F. aggregation have two more games to play with each other.

The Orioles are far ahead in the league standing with seventeen points, while the Westmounts have six. The Verdun Restaurant team has five points and the Airmen four. Although the local Westmounts have finished their schedule with only six points, they are sure to make some kind of a play-off with the Restaurant and R.C.A.F. team will kick each other off. In the event of the Verdun team winning both games from the Airmen, the flyers will be eliminated, while if the Airmen win both, the Verdun team will be out and in the event the teams split in their two games, the Westmounts will be tied with the R.C.A.F. for third place, necessitating a sudden-death play-off game. In all probability, a play-off game will be staged at Westmount Park on Friday night.

Must Lead Warrior's Life — Tunney BEFORE BREAKFAST

EX-CHAMPION WANTS YOUTH IN CONDITION TO BEAT THE COUNT

NEW YORK. — Presenting Lieut.-Com. James Joseph Tunney with a desk set on behalf of the New York boxing writers at their dinner, James A. Farley expressed doubt that the U.S. Navy Builder would have much opportunity to use it.

As athletic director of the U.S. Navy, Lieut.-Com. Gene Tunney certainly gets around the country. He left the party to catch a midnight train on the first leg of a six-week trip to the Pacific coast. He's busier than a Notre Dame football coach with 150 candidates out for the varsity.

I asked the ex-champion to what extent, if any, U.S. boys had softened up physically.

His answer to that one was that he was not so sure the softening influence of our way of life had been so good for the great majority of them. You quickly gathered that he agreed with John B. Kelly, U.S. director of physical fitness, that America finds itself far behind Germany in conditioning youth.

But our boys have determination and ambition, and under expert guidance, Lieut.-Com. Tunney knows America can produce a warrior force capable of so much strength and endurance that it will be the envy of the world.

IT'S THE WAY YOU LIVE THAT MAKES YOU TOUGH

Lieut.-Com. Tunney warns young America that it must live the warrior's life for duration.

That it why he preaches against the excessive use of cigarettes. He insists he will shout that and other physical training principles as long as there is a listener in the range of his voice. He means to wake up the parents of boys either in or headed for military service.

"What the young men in our armed forces need are bundles of boxing gloves and skipping ropes instead of tons of cigarettes," he stresses.

"Joe Louis didn't do that amazing job on Buddy Baer the other night because he trained for several weeks. Louis was a devastating destroyer because he has lived right for several years.

"It wasn't the training I did previous to my first match with Jack Dempsey that enabled me to win the championship. I was able to beat Jack because I had lived properly for a number of years.

"It wasn't the training I did just before our return match in Chicago that enabled me to get off the floor after being struck by that terrible series of punches in the seventh round. I had built and taken care of my body and legs. That is what pulled me through.

"It's the way you live that makes you tough."

AMERICAN FIGHTERS GET READY TO GO THE ROUTE

Lieut.-Com. Tunney wants American youths in condition to beat the count, if need be.

"I've seen good fighters beaten by the sneak punch of an inferior one—a sneak punch comparable to the attack on Pearl Harbor," he explains.

Any reference to the Japanese as setup rises Lieut.-Com. Tunney. As he points out, the little brown men already have demonstrated they are far from that.

"That's a sucker game, anyway," remarks Tun-

Lieut.-Com. Gene Tunney leads Navy in calisthenics.

ney, "taking any opponent for a set-up. I never took an opponent for a setup, and most any good fighter will tell you he didn't."

If young America isn't buckling down to the grim business at hand, it isn't Tunney's fault.

He already has appointed 600 boxers, football and baseball players and other outstanding athletes as Navy physical instructors, and is taking on 600 more on his current transcontinental tour.

America is getting ready to go the route.

LOYOLA TAKES FIRST 6 PLACES IN INTER-SCHOLASTIC SLALOM HELD ON WESTMOUNT MOUNTAIN

Loyola College skiers, showing fine form, romped home with the majority of events in the senior section of the Inter-scholastic giant Slalom held at Westmount Sunday. Certainly, their names dominated the first six places in the results.

Six Loyola skiers headed by Chris Gribben made a clean sweep of the slalom, holding the first six places. Gribben swept down the difficult course in 42.1 seconds. Second was Bill Close in 44, and Bob Swinton, Bill Asselin, John Pare, and Mervin La Belle, all Loyola men, finished in that order. Peter Gerin-Lajoie, skiing for Stanislas College was seventh, taking the course in 56.2.

In the junior running of the course, Martin McKenna of St. Leo's was only two-fifths of a second off to senior mark when he crossed the finishing line at 42.3. His nearest competitor was R. Cote of Catholic High, well in arrears with 50 seconds flat.

P. Garneau of St. Leo's, who was one of the favorites in the junior division, went away off the course and finished ninth. After the meet, however, he sped through the flags in 36 seconds. Seniors and juniors alike found the course tricky, and a number of entrants went away off the trail as they fell, accounting for the widely spaced times. The tourney was sponsored by Loyola.

DOES IT AGAIN

With thirty seconds left of play and the score tied 30-all between Westmount and Patts, Emmett Jones dropped a free throw into the basket to give the Westend-ers the game. Jones was well known in Notre Dame de Grace as being the ace twirler for the Boule-vardiers in the N.D.G. Soft Ball League.

Y.M.C.A. Squad Wins Close Match

The Westmount Y.M.C.A.'s entry in the Inter-Y Midget Basketball League won a closely contested game from North Branch Y last Saturday at the local Y gym. The game which was kept well in hand by referee W. God-sall was a very exciting one. The high scorer for Westmount was D. Macintosh with a total of 16 points. J. Geary was the high scorer for the visitors with a total of 10 points.

BULLDOGS AND PANTHERS TIE IN LOOP GAME

The Bulldogs and the Panthers played to a 1-all tie in the feature game of the bantam section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League last Saturday afternoon. This was a crucial game for both teams, as the Panthers had to win tie the Bulldogs for a play-off berth in the B group while the draw enabled the Bulldogs to gain the right to meet the first place Argos. The Argos made certain of first place in the B group when they defeated the Tornados 4-2, also on Saturday afternoon. In the third bantam game of the week the Bulldogs and the Tornados battled to a scoreless tie on Wednesday night.

The B group of the bantams will commence their playdowns on Friday night when the first place Argos play the second place Bulldogs in the first game of a two out of three game series for the championship. The second game of the series will be played on the Saturday afternoon, while the third if necessary will take place next week. In the two previous meetings between these clubs they fought to a 1-all draw and the Argos won the other quite easily 8-2.

The Royals winners of the A group await the city playdowns which are expected to start on Monday evening. The Royals are expected to make a good showing in these playdowns.

The Bulldogs-Panthers game on Saturday afternoon was featured by smart exhibitions of goal-tending by Bob Lunny and Donnie Wadsworth in the Bulldogs' and Panthers' nets respectively.

For the best part of the game it looked like the Panthers would run out the winners as they held a one goal lead which was scored by Ross Gillingham but the Bulldogs tied the count in the last stanza on a goal by Dave Manning.

Manning, Paul Moriarty and Bob Lunny starred for the Bulldogs while Rossie Gillingham was a standout for the Panthers. George McLanders led the Argos to help 4-2 triumph over the Tornados with a pair of goals. McLanders also was credited with an assist on a goal scored by John Choyce. The other Argos' goal was scored by Johnnie Drury.

John Turpin tallied both goals for the losers, with George Stephens gaining an assist on the first one.

Final scoring records in the B group of the bantams show George McLanders at the head of the list with an even ten points, resulting from seven goals and three assists. Dave Bussiere captain of the Argos, is next in line with eight points as the results of three goals and five assists. Other Argos' players are near the top with Jackie Martin being credited with six points as is John Choyce.

MIND YOUR SPEECH

Put a seal upon your lips and forget what you have done. After you have been kind, after love has stolen forth into the world and done its beautiful work, go back into the shade again and say nothing about it. Love hides even from itself. — H. Drummond.

SPECTATORS

If you saw a man spending his day idly watching others at work, you wouldn't expect to see him line up for the pay envelope. Yet many people who are content to be mere spectators of life, think themselves entitled to a full share of life's rewards.

The Roberts report shows that the military and naval commandants in Hawaii were laboring under a false impression. They thought everybody understood that the place was not open to visitors on Sunday.

GOLDEN EAGLES DOWN HAWKS IN FIRST PLAY-OFF MATCH; GAME POSTPONED ON MONDAY

The Golden Eagles undefeated in their league this season bid well to go through their play-offs in a like manner. The Eagles defeated the Staynor Hawks 4-1 on Friday night in the first game of a two-out-of-three game series for the championship of the juvenile section of the Westmount Municipal Hockey League. The second game of the series was to be played on Monday evening but the sudden spell of bad weather forced a postponement. In the event of cold weather, the game was to be played last night otherwise it will go on Friday night.

The Hawks gave the Golden Eagles more opposition than usual, holding the high scoring line of Chénier-Pelerson and Read own to one goal. But while the Hawks kept the C.P.R. line in check Donnie Mann and Noel Romney who have regained their scoring habits in the last few games garnered three goals between them, with Romney banking in two and being credited with an assist on the other. Frank Provost counted the lone Hawk goal on a pass from Bob Lord. The game was a rugged affair with referee Tom Brennan handing out ten penalties.

On Wednesday night the Golden Eagles finished off their season undefeated when they swamped the Rebels 9-1. This loss marked the death-knell of any hopes the Rebels had of making the play-offs.

Donnie Mann led the winners' scoring brigade with four points, accounting for two goals and a like number of assists. Adrian Lunny, Stu Beaulne and Johnnie Chénier all scored two goals apiece for Dougie Alexander's team while Eward Read scored the ninth tally. Logue McDonald scored the Rebels' only goal.

The four points Donnie Mann picked up in the game with the Rebels enabled him to tie teammate Johnnie Chénier for the leadership of the scoring in the juvenile section. Chénier and Mann have fourteen points each. Chénier has scored nine times and has five assists while Mann has tallied eight times and was credited with one more assist than Chénier. Another Golden Eagle, Eward Read was right behind the two leaders, Read scored eight times and gave five assists for a total of thirteen points.

Three players, Jack Walsh, Bruins, Rene Chatois, Tomahawks, and Glassford, Skulls, are leading the scoring brigade with three goals apiece. John Gutelius of the Bruins is close behind with two.

HOMELY CLOSE-UPS
Cass Daley is the only screen tyro on record who made herself as homely as possible for her first closeup. She debuts in Paramount's "The Fleet's In," and throughout her big solo number she makes a series of comic valentine faces.

PLANTS SPUDS
Brian Donlevy, featured in Paramount's "The Great Man's Lady," has a large potato garden in back of his Hollywood home. He planted the spuds himself.

TOGETHER AGAIN

Phillip Terry, whose first screen test was with Jean Parker four years ago, recently reported for a leading role in Paramount's William Pine-William Thomas picture, "Torpedo Boat" and discovered he was playing opposite Jean again.

Your Child And You

By DR. FRANCES S. ALEXANDER

Dr. Alexander is associated as consulting psychologist with the Psychological Institute of Montreal and directs its Child Guidance Division.

There are two types of information needed in order to counsel young people in their choice of occupation. Firstly, we need to know a great deal about the individual, his interest, his personality, his intellectual capacities and his physical make-up. But this alone is not enough. We also require information concerning the labor market and the type of schools and institutions giving vocational training. What is the good of advising the average young girl to go into the occupation of stenographer when we know this to be an already overcrowded field of work? Of course, there may be the unusual applicant, who has really aptitude for speed in typing and stenography and could be a successful clerical worker, but, by and large, there are many more clerical workers than there are clerical jobs to be filled. A knowledge of the current demands of the labor market is necessary.

Due to our complex industrial organization, the complexion of the labor market is not static, but continually changing. Twenty years ago there was a demand for skilled woodcarvers in the making of fine furniture. At the present time such artisans are rarely needed since most furniture is factory made on large scale production methods. Machines are continually throwing people out of work and changing the distribution of the occupations. New vocational fields are opening up in the field of radio, refrigeration and airplane production. For women, there are new occupational opportunities in such fields as dietetics, comptometry and styling.

Even knowledge of the labor market is not the whole story. Our financial resources are another important aspect to be considered when we are helping our children choose a vocation. The professional worker requires long training and we must be prepared to support our young people during the long period of professional studies. A few have the stamina to "earn their way", but the majority of those who aspire to be doctors, lawyers, and engineers will require to be supported by their families during their training period. Even after they begin their professional careers they will need supplementary financial aid. If it is necessary that one contribute to the family income at an early age, professions of this type should be discouraged, unless the person has unusual aptitudes.

Parental pressure to engage in certain occupations is an old story and sometimes brings about tragedy and disappointment. To force our children into vocations of which we approve, but for which they have no interest or inclination usually brings sorrow to the whole family. Parents need to recognize that their children are individuals and should treat them as such, and not make them conform against their will to family traditions of occupational choice.

Good vocational guidance is not a simple task and parents will often need to get the advice of an expert in the field. To do our best for our children, we need to make a careful analysis of their personalities and then, with the knowledge of our modern industrial organization, direct them so that they will be happy and contented in their life's work.

Y To Honor Memory Of Basketball Originator

To honour the memory of Dr. James Naismith, the originator of basketball, "Golden Jubilee" basketball games are being played all over North America. With funds from these games, War Certificates will be purchased and after the war they will be sold and the money used to erect a temple of basketball on the ground adjoining the campus of the Y.M.C.A. College in Springfield, Mass. where the game was first played.

On Saturday at 6.15 p.m. at Central Y.M.C.A., a dinner will be held, followed by two "Golden Jubilee" basketball games. The guest of honour will be Mr. T. D. Patton of Toronto, captain of Dr. Naismith's first basketball team in 1891. This will be a splendid opportunity for fellowship together and at the same time to place Montreal on the Honour Roll as one of the many associations supporting the Naismith Memorial.

This effort on the part of the Montreal Y.M.C.A. Associations to raise funds to honor a great Canadian, deserves the support of every lover of sport in the City of Montreal. As the entire proceeds from the sale of tickets will be credited to the fund it is the hope of the committee in charge that even if you are unable to attend the games that you will help support the Memorial Fund by buying a ticket. The tickets are on sale at the local Y.M.C.A. branch.

The committee in charge of this event: Mr. Sydney Chard, Mr.

Fred Shaw, Mr. Frank L. Benedict, Mr. H. H. Field, Mr. Oscar Pearson and Mr. M. McFarlane—ask for your wholehearted support.

Hun Production Is Disintegrating, Bruning Reports

NEW YORK. — Heinrich Bruning, Chancellor of the German Republic in 1930-32 and now Professor of Public Administration at Harvard, said he had received recent information from Germany indicating that "there had been a slow process of disintegration" in the Nazis' production program.

Mr. Bruning told a panel group of the American Political Science Association that he believed that "disintegration" was due to the fact that the entire economic life of Germany, especially the armament industry, had been taken over by the Army's General Staff officers.

"Everything is unfinished," he said. "Plans have not been carried out. The life that formerly pulsed in the various organizations or production has largely vanished."

Nazis Are Seeking Skis For Soldiers

Appealing urgently for skis to be used by the German Army, the Nazis are turning to sports organizations and the general public to surrender their equipment.

A radiocast from Frankfurt carried an appeal from the Reich Sport Leader to all skiers, while a program originating in Bohemia declared that a pair of ski boots in good condition when handed in would entitle the owner to a ration card for a pair of shoes.

A report from Prague said that the Nazi Commissioner Reinhard Heydrich had ordered the confiscation of all skis and skiing equipment in Czechoslovakia, threatening severe punishment for failure to comply.

CLAIRE FANTASY

Rene Clair, famous for his comedy fantasy films, gets back into that realm with "I Married a Witch," which he will direct at Paramount with Preston Sturges as producer.

Turkey has barred the sale of the German news magazine Signal, distributed by the millions over Europe—indicating that, so far as the Tur's are concerned, Goebbels has got his signals crossed.

Clear telephone lines for ALL-OUT PRODUCTION

Your telephone is part of a vast interlocking system now carrying an abnormal wartime load. Don't let needless delays hold up messages on which production efficiency may depend.

OTHER "WARTIME TELEPHONE TACTICS"

1. SPEAK distinctly, directly into the mouthpiece.
2. ANSWER promptly when the bell rings.
3. BE BRIEF. Clear your line for the next call.
4. USE OFF-PEAK hours for your Long Distance Calls.

These things may look trifling, but on 6,500,000 daily telephone calls, they are very important.

LET'S KEEP OUR CANADA
a happy land for them

PINKY-WHITE DIMPLES; a button of a nose; wee, slender fingers clutching at your coverlet—what kind of a world is this to which you will awake?

Your life, we hope, will be rich in love and laughter. God forbid that your Canada should ever come under the heel of a ruthless barbarism, where babies are born to be the future shock troops, or the mothers of a brutal, military race.

We promise that you shall inherit a Canada blessed with the liberty our fathers bequeathed to us. You shall be free as we are free.

So we gladly lend our money to our country in this crisis. We will buy Victory Bonds to the very limit. We must and we will make sure that the threat of a brutal way of life is banished forever.

HOW TO BUY—Give your order to the Victory Loan salesman who calls on you. Or place it in the hands of any branch of any bank, or give it to any trust company. Or send it to your local Victory Loan Headquarters. Or you can authorize your employer to start a regular payroll savings plan for you. Bonds may be bought in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and larger. Salesman, bank, trust company or your local Victory Loan Headquarters will be glad to give you every assistance in making out your order form.
