POLICE PROTECT COUNCIL.

OTTAWA, June 4. — Five policemen armed with batons had to intimidate a big crowd of angry citizens in Hull city council meeting last night. The city council is considering a by-law to prevent the erection of frame houses within the city of Hull. The by-law is bitterly opposed by the smaller rate-payers and supported strongly by the more well to do citizens. A petition against the by-law signed by 500 citizens, was presented and when the council showed a disposition to reject it the angry ratepayers were about to handle them roughly. The police kept the crowd back and the by-law was left over for further consideration.

VLAKFONTEIN FIGHT.

ENEMY TOOK ADVANTAGE OF FIRE ON VELDT

To Rush the Rear Guard of a Considerable British Force Returning to Camp — Captured Two Guns Which Were Re-taken — Losses Heavy on Both Sides.

LONDON, June 4.—Lord Kitchener, in a despatch from Pretoria, dated June 4, says:

"Dixon's report of the fight at Vlakfontein, May 29, just received. On our side 1,450 men, with seven guns, were engaged. The force was returning to camp at Vlakfontein when the enemy, under cover of a veldt fire, rushed the rear guard, consisting of two guns of the 28th Battery, and 330 men of the Derbyshires and Yeomanry.

"They temporarily captured the two guns. When the remainder of the force came into action the Boers were driven off and the guns were re-captured and the Boer position was occupied.

"Our casualties were 6 officers and 51 men killed; 6 officers and 115 men wounded, and one officer and seven men missing. One officer and four men have since died of wounds. Forty-one Boers were killed on the ground. The further Boer casualties are not known. Reinforcements are being sent."

MANY BOERS DYING.

A number of Boers who were captured by Intelligence Office men near Pitreburg, Transvaal, were found to have a thousand rounds of ammunition each. They state that the Boers in the northern part of the Transvaal are suffering considerably from fever. They have no doctors and many are dying.

Boer marauders continue to make trouble for the British. They generally avoid a battle, but wait for favourable opportunities to attack small parties by ambush, and inasmuch as they are badly off for clothing and boots, they use all their skill to kill in order to strip the dead.

Commandant Ben. Viljoen, with a considerable number of men, is dodging about to escape the British troops between the railway at Carolina and Ermelo. He avoids fighting, but some of his men are surrendering.

A DESPERATE FIGHT.

After a desperate all-day fight, a hundred men belonging to the Molteno district guard forced 250 Boers to retire near Bushman's Hoek, Cape Colony. Boers in large numbers are moving about in the vicinity of Strekstroom, Stormberg, Molteno and Dordrecht.

Commandant Sheeper, with 700 men, attacked Willowmore, Cape Colony, Saturday, but was beaten off after 9 hours' fighting.

Jamestown is threatened by Fouchee's commando.

SOLDIER VISITS CANADA.

(Special to the Star.)

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 4. — James W. Sears, brother of ex-Mayor Edward Sears, is in the city. Major Sears was through the greater part of the South African campaign in the South Staffordshire Regiment, under General Rundle. He was taken ill with fever and was invalided home. Having received a three months' furlough, he decided to visit Canada and will spend a couple of weeks in St. John.

COL. STEELE'S DEPARTURE.

OTTAWA, June 4.—Colonel S. B. Steele has arranged his affairs here and will sail on the SS. Australasian on June 8 for England and Cape Town. He will be accompanied by Capt. Boyd and Captain Ogilvy. He will not take Baden-Powell's place, as reported in certain quarters, but will have charge of Lydenberg district, one of the five districts into which the country has been divided.

PRISONERS FOR BERMUDA.

HAMILTON, Bermuda, June 4.—The Governor has received notification that the transport Armenian will arrive here on July 3, with nine hundred Boer prisoners, and that two companies of the Royal Warwickshire Regiment will act as their guards.

TO-MORROW'S BIG RACING.

The Derby Has Created Greater Enthusiasm Than Usual.

LONDON, June 4.—The great Epsom racing carnival commenced to-day with an excellent programme, which attracted big crowds. To-morow's Derby has aroused far greater enthusiasm than usual, owing to its open charcater. The betting is more widespread than usual. It would appear that the field will number twenty-five. W. C. Whitney's Volodyovski remains a strong favourite at 5 to 2 against.

American horses and jockeys started the day in excellent form, taking the first three places in the initial race, the Craven stakes of 200 sovereigns, which resulted as follows:

Mr. Croker's The Scotchman II. (L. Reiff), first; Mr. Gardner's Encombe (C. Jenkins), second; Mr. Whitney's Holstein (J. Reiff), third.

The second race, the Egemont Plate handicap of 300 sovereigns, resulted:

Edmee (Maher), first; Cassine (J. Martin), second; Handspike, (J. Reiff), third.

NOW A CIGAR TRUST.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Journal of Commerce says it is reported on Wall Street that a new tobacco company is to be formed, which is to take over both the American and the continental companies, and also the new cigar company recently organized and now acquiring various cigar plants throughout the country. Another rumour is that there will be a large increase in the capital stock of the American company for the purpose of acquiring the continental tobacco and the cigar companies.

QUEEN'S GRACIOUS SMILE.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—The correspondent of the Tribune, in London, says: The chronicle prints interviews with some of the American visitors regarding their impressions of the trip to Windsor, where they were received by the King and Queen. J. T. Terry, according to the paper, declared, "If you have another woman in the Empire with such a heavenly smile as your Queen I would like to see her."

BALLINGTON'S NEW SCHEME.

CHICAGO, June 4.—The Record-Herald this morning says:

General Ballington Booth, Commander-in-Chief of the Volunteers of America, is planning the establishment of a Volunteer settlement in the Southern part of Georgia which will be larger than any similar settlement in the United States. It will be known as "The Volunteer City" and will comprise a tract of land covering 15,000 or 20,000 acres.

STRIKE AT SYDNEY.

THE MEN AND EMPLOYERS REFUSE TO GIVE IN.

It is Not Likely That There Will be Any Important Developments for a Few Days—All the Union Men in the Steel Works Have Been Laid Off.

(Special to the Star.)

SYDNEY, N.S., June 4.—The situation among the strikers is about the same. The painters went out yesterday morning and are determined to remain out until their demands are acceded to. At a meeting held yesterday they decided that if the trouble was not settled by Saturday they would open a union shop.

The leading master mechanics have taken no action in the matter yet.

The bricklayers Union held a meeting last night. About 150 were present. The men are more determined than ever to fight. It is understood, however, that some of the formen are desirous of having the men go back and are trying to arrange a conference with the company to that effect. It could not be ascertained last night whether a committee was appointed to confer with the Steel Company or not.

President Lazett wished to have two or three wrong impressions removed. There was no strike at the steel company's works, as the company did not give the men a chance. They laid off every union man on Friday evening.

The North Sydney men were not asked to go out. It is understood that a number of bricklayers who live in this vicinity will go home until the trouble is settled. The bricklayers of Riter Conley Co. outnumber about a hundred and twenty. Another meeting will be held to-day.

Rhodes Curry & Co., last night stated that the company had not granted the nine-hour system. They had one small job which they had to have completed by a certain date and which only required about three days work and the men were allowed to finish it at the nine-hour rate job only. They consider that the bricklayers are getting good wages at present. It is expected that their will be no developments of any consequence for a few days at least.

NO CHANGE AT OTTAWA.

OTTAWA, June 4.—There is no change in the strike situation to-day, but there is some talk of all employes of the W. C. Edwards Company going out on strike as a sign of sympathy with the striking wood workers. Some of the contractors are signing the agreement with the Carpenters' Union, and a number of the men have gone back to work, but the bulk are on strike.

PAY OF MEN INCREASED.

(Special to the Star.)

KINGSTON, June 4.—The iron-workers in the Kingston foundry demanded a uniform wage of $1.25 per day. A conference was held between representatives of the men and the firm, with the result that the increase was granted. The men got $1.15 and $1.20 before.

At Saginaw, Mich., all the machinists on the Pere Marquette Railroad system, went on strike on Monday, because the road refused them a nine hour day with ten hours' pay.

The manufacturers and the 1,600 striking machinists in Chicago apparently settled down yesterday for a siege. The strikers put out pickets, but so far as known, no attempts were made to engage non-union men. The pickets organized on military lines.

The street car employes of Kingston have demanded an increase in wages of 15 cents a day, and the watchmen want $8.50 per week instead of $7.50. The company has refused to grant the increase in pay, on the ground that the receipts of the road do not warrant the incurring of further expense.

EXPLOSION KILLED EIGHT.

IRON MOUNTAIN, Mich., June 4.—Eight men were killed in the seventh level of the Ludington shaft of the Chapin mine by an explosion of powder last night. Their names have not been learned.

POSITION FOR MR. DAWSON.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—The statement that G. W. Dawson was to be second inspector of penitentiaries is officially confirmed. The new inspector represented Addington in Parliament from 1887 to 1896, and since that time until a few months ago was Liberal organizer for Eastern Ontario.

NEW MONEY ORDER RATES.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—The new rates adopted by the Post Office Department for the sale of money orders payable either in Canada or the United States are as follows: Up to $5, 3c; $10, 6c; $30, 10c; $50, 15c; $75, 25c; and $100, 30c. This change has been made necessary to compete with the express companies.

MR. SIEGFRIED HONOURED.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 4.—M. Siegfried, of Paris, is the social lion of the day here. Yesterday he was lunched at the Garrison Club by Hon. Mr. Turgeon. Last night he was dined by Hon. Mr. Dechene. He will remain here during the greater part of the week and will then visit Lake St. John and the Saguenay before going to Boston. In the course of an interview here upon the subject of what the European papers are calling "the American peril," M. Siegfried declares that he sees no cause of alarm; that the American trusts will certainly not tend to the reduction of prices, and that in any case European nations have the remedy in their own hands in the shape of their protective duties.

THE RAILWAY COMMITTEE.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—The Railway Committee of the Privy Council sat yesterday to hear the appeal of the Canadian Atlantic Railway for permission to cross the ends of Court, St. James and Wilbrod streets in the city of Ottawa. As the portion of the streets concerned are on the land leased to the railway by the Crown, there was practically no opposition and the appeal was granted on the company undertaking to put in culverts for the removal of surface water.

BASEBALL

OUR BALL PLAYERS.

THEY DID NOT WIN THE GAME, BUT WORE NEW CLOTHES.

Klobendanz Proved a Puzzle to Montreal Batters—Dan McFarlan Was Touched Rather Freely and the Support Was Poor—Other League Games.

(Special to the Star.)

WORCESTER, Mass., June 4.—Klobedanz pitched wonderfully well yesterday, and for six innings Delehanty was the only visitor to hit safely. Nine men struck out in that period and but one man reached second. After that Kloby let down and Montreal scored two runs in the seventh. Dooley's men appeared in new uniforms, knickerbockers of navy blue with snow white shirts and the little (M) on the breasts red and blue; striped stockings and blue caps added to the flaring display; but these were poor mascots. In Montreal first Raub and Odwell struck out, Shearon was fielded out at first by Wrigley. Sharrott led off for Worcester with a single. Rickert hit safely. Unglaub flied out to Odwell, and on Oddie's poor throw in, Sharrott scored and Rickert moved to third. Wilson made a wide throw to third to catch Rickert and Joe came home. Clements was out at first and Raub caught Slater's fly. Delahanty hit safely in the second, but was caught off first. Wilson walked on balls. Dooley and Sheehan couldn't get one past the pitcher and both were out at first. Johnson struck out in the third and McFarlan was thrown out at first by Wrigley. Clements caught Raub's bunt fly. In Worcester's half, Rickert singled, and on Unglaub's bunt went around to third. Smoot's single scored him. Clements and Slater were easy outs at first. Odwell, Sheehan and Wilson struck out in the fourth, Delehanty sandwiching in a hit that was wanted. In the next two innings Klobedanz struck out three more men. A single by Clements in the sixth and Shannon's double after two were out scored a run for Worcester. In the seventh Shearon hit safely and Delehanty poked one to left field for two bases. Wilson flied out to Unlaub. Dooley's drive to left field scored Shearon and Delehanty. In the local's half Sharrott reached first on Johnson's fumble. He was thrown out at third in Rickert's hit to McFarlan. Rickert stole second and scored on Ungkaub's single. Smoot hit safely and three runs came in when Clements hit over right field fence.

PROVIDENCE DEFEATED.

PROVIDENCE, June 4.—Solid batting by Rochester broke the Providence string of victories when Rochester won by a score of 9 to 4. There were three home runs in the game, and both pitchers were touched up hard. Left field hitters were favoured by a strong wind. The game was a listless one in spite of the rugged stick-work. A Woman's Eyes

Will tell her love, though every other feature be hidden under the oriental Yashmak. A woman's eyes are equally eloquent as to her health. She can teach her lips to laugh in spite of pain, but the eyes will never be partner in that deceit. Deep hollows, dark circles, wrinkles at the corners, tell the story of pain and sleeplessness. Much of the nervousness, sleeplessness and suffering in general, endured by women, is caused by a diseased condition of the womanly organs. When that diseased condition is cured there are no more hollow, dark ringed eyes. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures irregularity, inflammation, ulceration, and female weakness, stops enfeebling drains, strengthens the nervous system and gives to the mother health for her duties, and happiness in their performance.

"My niece was troubled with female weakness for about four years before I asked for your advice," writes Mr. J. W. McGregor, of 62d St. and Princeton Ave., Chicago, Ills. "You advised her to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which she did faithfully for nine months, and now we must acknowledge to you that she is a well woman. We cannot thank you enough for the cure. We have recommended your medicine to all our friends, and believe it to be a wonderful discovery."

LACROSSE

SATURDAY'S SENIOR MATCH.

On Saturday afternoon Toronto will meet the Shamrocks here at the S.A.A.A. Grounds and the enthusiasts anticipate a fast game. The north end boys have been doing splendid work in practice, and their first contest will find them in excellent physical condition. Last night there was a big attendance at the practice, 26 players being on the field.

PRACTICE ON LEPINE PARK.

The Hochelaga Lacrosse Club, one of the new clubs admitted to the Junior Lacrosse League, have secured the Lepine Park grounds for practice. The boys have been turning out well, and are showing good form. The officers of the club believe that the team will be a factor in the struggle for the championship.

LAMB MAY BE OUT OF GAME.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, June 4.—The Torontos may be without the services of "Hughie" Lamb in the game against the Shamrocks next Saturday at Montreal. "Hughie" injured his leg in the Capital match, on May 24, and has not recovered yet.

SHOTS.

Montreal will have a day off on Saturday.

Howard is doing excellent work in practice.

Kavanagh is out with the Nationals again.

Phil Rielly will play inside home for the Nationals.

Hoobin has lost a good ten pounds since he has been at practice.

Dade was the only absentee from last night's Shamrock practice.

The Shamrocks are busy preparing for Toronto on Saturday. There was a splendid attendance at last night's practice.

The Nationals go to Cornwall on Saturday. A special train will leave Bonaventure station at 1 o'clock for the Factory Town.

A despatch from South Bethlehem, Pa., says: In the cleanest, fastest, and most scientific game of lacrosse ever seen on Lehigh Field, the Toronto University team won from Lehigh University yesterday afternoon by 11 goals to 6.

A NEW CLUB AT VAUDREUIL.

The residents of Vaudreuil have formed a lawn tennis club, and the following officers have been elected:

Hon. president—Ald. Rainville.
Hon. vice-president—Mr. R. J. Tooke.
President—Ald. Sadler.
Vice-president—Mr. Edwin Hanson.
Secretary-treasurer—Mr. Walter B. Ramsay.
Committee—Messrs. P. C. Nash, J. Richard and A. Geoffrion.

The club is called the Dorion Club, and it is expected that by the end of the week the grounds will be in first class shape, so that the opening can take place on June 8.

CORRESPONDECE.

A. H. B.—J. Watts has ridden the winner of the Derby four times—on Merry Hampton, Sainfoin, Ladas, and Persimmon.

According to a London cable, in a pigeon shooting match, for $50 a side, fifty birds each, Banwell, of Weston-Super-Mare, beat Elliston, of New York, with 36 kills out of 44. The American gave up the match, having killed only 28 birds out of 43 shot at.

The members of Glengarry Camp, Sons of Scotland, have arranged for a grand field day on the Agricultural Grounds at Williamstown on Saturday, June 22, when they expect a big gathering of the brawny sons and winsome maidens of Stormont and Glengarry. Their programme includes twenty-four events of Caledonian sports, Highland dancing and bagpipe competitions. No less than sixteen gold medals and fifteen silver medals are offered for the amateur events. A feature of the day will be the annual tournament for the McLennan Cup, between tug-of-war teams from the different camps of the Sons of Scotland in Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry. The camps eligible to compete are: Aberdeen, Cornwall; Bonnie Briar, Maxville; Bonnie Prince Charlie, Finch; St. Mungo, Martintown; and Glengarry, Williamstown. The contests for this cup have become one of the big events of the year in this end of the province.

The body of Mabel, the 14-year-old daughter of William Vaughan, of Sault Ste. Marie, who mysteriously disappeared about five weeks ago, was found on Monday afternoon floating in the water off the international lock.

Statistics got at the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, show that the past month was not by any means a record breaker in the rain line. The fall was 4.36 inches, compared with 3.70 the year previous and 4.72 in 1899. It rained on 17 days, there being 5 days without sunshine.

ATHLETICS

BRITISH ATHLETES.

'VARSITY MEN DISCUSS THE COMING MEET.

What British Colleges Want—Financial Conditions Mean Much to the Toronto College Athletes—Correspondence With McGill About the Matter.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, June 4.—Fuller information is wanted by the committee of the University of Toronto Athletic Association before proceeding further with arrangements for the meeting of McGill-'Varsity athletes with with these of Oxford and Cambridge who are to compete this fall with representatives of Yale and Harvard.

At a meeting of the 'Varsity Committee yesterday afternoon to consider the acceptance of the Canadian challenge by the English University men, the only action taken was to instruct Secretary Henderson to write both to McGill and to England asking for more definite terms of the acceptance. Pending replys no further action will be taken, but the 'Varsity "possible" competitors will continue training and be ready in any event. Secretary Henderson last night wrote to McGill asking if any further information was to hand there other than that contained in the letter received from England at 'Varsity on Friday evening accepting the challenge for a contest giving the events and asking the same terms as those given by the United States Universities. This is considered very vague by the 'Varsity Committee who do not know what financial arrangements have been made with the United States Universities and would like to know whether the contestants in the different events will be limited to a certain number or be unlimited. To get official statements on these points Secretary Henderson will write to England by the first mail, as a matter of fact the question of ways and means is an important one to 'Varsity. The Athletic Association is by no means wealthy and financial arrangements provide an anxious subject in connection with preparations for the big meet, though there is no doubt that whatever arrangements are made 'Varsity will be able to place her best in the contest.

TO CANOE AT BUFFALO

ST. LAMBERT CLUB WILL BE REPRESENTED.

Mr. J. Smith, Who Won the Championship Two Years Ago, is Sure to Carry the Club Colours There, and it is Very Likely That a Four Will Also Go.

ST. LAMBERT BOATING CLUB.

The annual spring regatta of the St. Lambert Boating Club will be held on Saturday June 15. The boys are training hard for the canoeing events, and some good close finishes are expected. The committee have ordered a new 20-foot "four in a canoe," and all the boats and canoes to be put in first class order. The club will also be represented at the Pan-American Exposition by the single paddler, Mr. J. Smith, who won the championship of the world at the A. C. A. meet two years ago. It is quite likely the club will send a four-in-a-canoe also, to uphold the colours of the club. The membership has increased, and the committee intend making it the most successful year in the existence of the club.

A DEFENDER LAUNCHED.

DETROIT, June 4.—The local Canada's Cup defender, built by a syndicate of Detroit Yacht Club owners, was launched yesterday afternoon, and christened Detroit. She is from designs by Captain "Kid" Willis.

TRIALS FOR BOTH DEFENDERS.

NEWPORT, R.I., June 4.—The Constitution had a trial run. It was a magnificent day for sailing, and Manager Duncan had the boat tried in every possible slant of the wind. Apparently the test was thoroughly satisfactory.

BOSTON, June 4. — Mr. Lawson's Cup defender candidate, Independence, was given a trial spin. The yacht appears to go through the water very smoothly, but there was neither wind nor sea enough to give a good idea of what she really could do.

LAWSON STILL HAS BOAT.

BOSTON, June 4. — Thomas W. Lawson handed out the following statement last night regarding a report that he had made complete transfer of Independence:

"I know of nothing that has in any way changed or affected the status of my yacht Independence since the publication of my letter of May 25."

The Independence is all rigged. This, of course, does not count a few simple matters which although small, are a portion of the outfit necessary for yacht racing. The gaff and hollow boom were hung yesterday, and fit perfectly. Five tons of lead pigs were placed over the keel yesterday and five tons more went in to-day. Trial trip will be made Monday.

SENT A LETTER TO MR. LAWSON

NEW YORK, June 4. — The Challenge Committee of the New York Yacht Club met yesterday for three hours at the office of Lewis Cass Ledyard. None of the committee nor Secretary J. S. V. Oddie would discuss what occurred at the meeting further than to admit that the committee had under consideration the question of the preparation of Thomas W. Lawson's Independence in the trial races against the Constitution and the Columbia. It was learned last night that a letter has been sent to Mr. Lawson in which the manner and method of chartering his yacht was set forth. Besides this matter the Challenge Committee took up the matter of the Shamrock II.'s accident, the delay in the contest and other matters connected with it.

BISHOPS COLLEGE CLUB MEETS.

The Bishop's College Football Club held its annual meeting yesterday. The secretary's report showed that the past season had been most successful, financially and otherwise, while the prospects for the coming season are bright. The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. F. J. B. Allnatt, D.D., D.C.L.
Vice-President—R. A. Cowling, B.A.
Secretary—G. E. Weagant, B.A.
Captain—J. G. Ward, B.A.
Committee—T. G. Read, M. Shewen, G. Bansfield.

THE TURF

ANOTHER DERBY DAY.

A VERY LARGE FIELD IS EXPECTED.

A List of the Horses That May Start and a Few of Their Characteristics—The Regular Racing at Gravesend Was Attended by About Five Thousand People.

To-morrow is Derby Day, and to all appearances the field will be larger than it has been for years. It is quite probable that as many as twenty horses may go to the post, a number which has not been reached since 1879, when Sir Bevys was landed a winner by George Fordham. The following list of horses, with the jockeys, so far as known, will face the starter:

Sir W. J. Ingram's b.c. Cottager, by Common-Marguerite II. (——.)
Mr. L. de Rothschilds' br. c. Doricles, by Florizel II.-Rosalie (K. Cannon.)
Mr. T. S. Jay's ch.c. Floriform, by Florizel II.-Maid of Athol (J. Fagan or C. Cannon.)
Sir E. Cassell's b.c. Handicapper, by Matchmaker-Agnes Osborne (Jenkins ?)
Sir R. W. Griffith's ch.c. Veles, by Isinglass-Velleda (O. Madden.)
Sir R. W. Griffith's b.c. Ian, by St. Serf-Beregaria (——.)
Sir J. B. Maples' ch.c. Lord Bobs, by Bend Or-Silver Sea (S. Loates.)
Mr. F. Keene's ch.c. Olympian, by Domino-Belle of Maywood (——.)
Mr. H. J. King's b.c. Orchid, by Orme-Musley Maid (F. Pratt.)
Lord Wolverton's b.c. Osboch, by Oberon-St. Isabela (H. Jones.)
Mr. G. Faber's b.c. Pietermaritzburg, by St. Simon-Sea Air (M. Cannon.)
Duke of Portland's b. c. William the Third, by St. Simon-Gravity (M. Cannon.)
Mr. J. Gubbins's ch.c. Revenue, by Blairfinde-Income (W. Halsey.)
Mr. P. Lorillard's ch. c. Tantalus, by The Sailor Prince-Tarbouche (D. Maher.)
Mr. C. Morbey's b.c. Royal Rouge, by Florizel II.-Red Enamel (S. Gomez.)
Mr. W. Raphiel's b.c. Ruskin, by St. Frusquin-Ambleside (——.)
Col. H. McCalmont's b.c. St. Maclou, by St. Simon-Mimi (J. Dalton.)
Mr. W. C. Whitney's b. or br.c. Volodyovski, by Florizel II.-La Reine (L. Reiff.)
Sir J. Duke's b.c. Wargrave, by Carbine-Warble (——.)

Cottager is a brown colt, by Common, out of Marguerite II. He was bred by Lord Coventry, and as a yearling was sold to Sir William Ingram for 300 guineas, and is trained by William Stevens at Compton. Last year Cottager only made one public appearance, running fifth to Marshcress, Vidame, Belteneбrosa and Bronzewing in the Rangemore Stakes at Derby. The form was below classic, but Cottager was undoubtedly backward, and by no means wound up. Of course it is possible that he may be a good horse.

Doricles II., the mount of Kempton Cannon, ran second in the Two Thousand and the Newmarket Stakes. In the first of these races he was beaten two lengths by Handicapper. Those who make excuses for beaten horses have lately been urging that the Two Thousand was a falsely run race, and that Halsey, on Handicapper, "slipped" his field, and obtained such a lead that it was impossible to catch him. Doricles, no doubt, struggled gamely enough, but could not go with the winner down the hill into the Abingdon Bottom, and if he was slightly gaining ground at the finish, so also were Osboch and Veles. Again in Newmarket stakes excuses were made for Doricles, and many statements have since been made in print that he ought to have won. As it was he was beaten a short head by William the Third.

Floriform is an unknown quantity as far as the present year is concerned. He is a biggish, very handsome chestnut colt, by Florizel II. out of Maid of Athol, and it is in his favour that he is unbeaten as yet, though as a matter of fact he has only once carried silk. Not many days ago he was described by one who is connected with the Garlogs stable as "too handsome to be a Derby winner," and there is no doubt that he is a very showy horse, whose only defect in appearance is that he has bad hocks. They appear to stand, however. Floriform's one performance was in the Middle Park Plate, when in M. Cannon's hands he beat Orchid by a neck, with Star Shoot a head behind. Both second and third were giving Mr. Jay's colt 7 lb., but Floriform won very cleverly, and moreover, small allowance must be made for the fact that he was running his first race. Star Shoot has since become a bad roarer, and Orchid was badly beaten in the Two Thousand, but these matters hardly affect Floriform's Derby chance, and as he has won his trial, he should certainly be included in any lot taken against the field.

Handicapper showed no great form as a two-year-old, but he certainly won the Two Thousand Guineas in great style, and he comes of a winning family on both sides. He is not exactly an attractive horse to look at, but is of the wear-and-tear, wiry sort, and has, moreover, plenty of size.

Veles on last year's running should be one of the favourites, but he failed to secure a place in the Guineas, and as he has not grown much the idea was formed that he had not improved as he should have done. Last year he ran all his races out with uniform gameness except his first, and it may be that he will repeat the performance this year. To go back a twelvmonth, Sir R. Waldie Griffith's colt made his first appearance in the Fitzwilliam Stakes, and so well had he been tried that slight odds were laid on him. He only finished third, but the defeat was followed up by a series of five victories before the colt was beaten by Orchid in the Champagne Stakes, and again by Veronese (in receipt of 10lb.) in the Triennial Produce Stakes at Newmarket. It should be mentioned, too, that in the Two Thousand, Veles apparently failed just where he had always been successful when a two-year-old, viz., through lack of stamina. He looked very dangerous at the top of Bushes Hill, but was beaten halfway down and dropped back. He is considered one of the best outsiders in the race, and in Madden he will have up one of the finest jockeys of the day.

Ian was the unlucky one of the four who fought out the finish for the Newmarket Stakes, as he was in the middle and had no room to spare.

Lord Bobs was badly beaten in the Guineas, and the American Olympian is practically unknown; moreover, he broke a blood vessel when at exercise recently. Orchid, who has not grown since last year, seems to have trained off, and Osboch may run forward, but appears to be held quite safe by Handicapper.

Pietermaritzburg and William the Third can represent Kingsclere, and whilst the first named is much the finer horse, William the Third has shown the best form. Both are by St. Simon, Pietermaritzburg being out of Sea Air, by Isonomy, and William the Third out of Gravity, by Wisdom, his dam being a full sister to Tact, who was the dam of the Oaks winner Amiable. Pietermaritzburg won the Tudor Plate at Sandown, but was beaten by Ypsilanti at Kempton Park, whereas William the Third has taken three good prizes off the reel, and has not known defeat this year. He beat Tantalus by half a dozen lengths in the Craven week, and a few days later he won the Esher Stakes from a lot of older horses with consummate ease. Lastly, he just scraped home in the Newmarket Stakes, and if Doricles ran to the same form in that race and in the Two Thousand, Handicapper has the best of the Duke of Portland's colt. William the Third may improve upon his last Newmarket performance at Epsom, and the longer course will be all in his favour. He is not a big one, and is lacking in that grandeur which a typical Derby winner ought to show, but he is one of the gamest of horses.

Revenue is a very nice horse, but on form he is not quite in the first flight, and, as he has not run this year, his present merits are hardly known outside his own stable. He will be ridden by Halsey, the luckiest jockey of the day in big races.

Tantalus, though he has won thrice off the reel, will hardly beat William the Third on their form in the Wood Ditton Stakes.

Ruskin does not run his races out, and has never yet performed in keeping with his great good looks.

Royal Rouge appears to be very highly estimated by his owner and trainer, and his one performance, at Sandown last summer, tells little about him.

St. Maclou is a great, fine horse, but on form can have small chance, and Wargrave, though he won three nurseries at the end of last season, is wanting in class. Osboch ran third in the Two Thousand.

Last of all comes Volodyovski, who was beaten by St. Maclou in the Craven week, but who has since returned to the favouritism which he held all the winter. On his two-year-old running it is very short odds against this colt, and as he has lately beaten Kilmarnock II in a trial it may be taken that his Craven week form was all wrong, and that he will run in very different style at Epsom. Kilmarnock II ran so well in the Kempton Jubilee Handicap that a mistake should hardly be possible.

RACING AT GRAVESEND.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Between five and six thousand people were on hand to enjoy the racing at Gravesend yesterday. Winning favourites were scarce, however, Gold Spinner, equal choice with Nones, being the only one to score. The Criterion stakes of $3500 for 2-year-old fillies was the only fixture, and it resulted in a big upset. Blue Girl was an odds-on favourite at 3 to 5 in the four horse field, with Hanover Queen a strong second choice. They raced in close company for half a mile, with Grail and Chirrup trailing three lengths behind. In the stretch Grail closed with a rush under Landry's vigorous ride and got up in the last few jumps, beating Blue Girl a head on the post. Hanover Queen was the third four lengths away. Summary:

First race, 1¾ miles, hurdle handicap—Cephalalgia, 130, Brase, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Desperado, 136, Barry, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, second; Monroe Doctrine, 150, Donohue, 8 to 5 and 3 to 5, third. Time, 3.22. King Barleycorn, Belam, Wandering Minstrel, Bermuda Hundred, Bon Jour, Roxburgh, Islington and Bob also ran.

Second race, selling, 5 furlongs—Neither One, 104, McGinn, 12 to 1 and 4 to 1, won; Right Away, 108, O'Connor, 5 to 2 and 9 to 10, second; Rossignol, 106, Burns, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, third. Time, 1.02 4-5. James Fitz, Postillion, Wild Oats and Illuminate also ran.

Third race, mile and seventy yards — Gold Spinner, 112, Piggott, 5 to 2 and even, won; Ethics, 112, Michaels, 20 to 1 and 8 to 1, second; Belvine, 112, McQuade, 15 to 1 and 6 to 1, third. Time, 1.47. Nones, Dr. Preston, Satire, Isaac Hopper, Arden, Golden Grain, Dactyl, Argonaut, Your Grace, Cespedes, Anna Darling, Egotism and Henrist also ran.

Fourth race, Criterion stakes, 5 furlongs—Grail, 114, Landry, 10 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Blue Girl, 124, Burns, 3 to 5 and out, second; Hanover Queen, 150, Spencer, 2 to 1 and 2 to 5, third. Time, 1.01 4-5. Shirrup also ran.

Fifth race, 1 1-16 miles—Dr. Barlow, 110, Odom, 2 to 1 and 1 to 2, won; First Whip, 121, O'Connor, 5 to 1 and 6 to 5, second; Alcede, 126, Walsh, 20 to 1 and 5 to 1, third. Time, 1.48 3-5. Beau Gallant and Sailor King also ran.

Sixth race, selling, about 6 furlongs — Godfrey, 100, Bullman, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1, won; Dr. Riddel, 106, Cochran, 11 to 10, and 4 to 5, second; Oliver Mc., 100, Miles, 6 to 1 and 2 to 1, third. Time, 1.12. Ante Up, Bounteous, Drogheda, Yorkshire Boy, His Royal Highness, Candling, Connie and Manchuria also ran.

THE HAMILTON MEETING.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 4.—The spring meeting of the Hamilton Jockey Club opens to-day, and will continue for the balance of this week. About 300 horses are now stabled at the track, all the principal owners who attended the Toronto races having brought up their horses. The track was somewhat heavy owing to Sunday's rain, but it will be in fair condition. The entries have all filled well, and the prospects for a good five-days' sport are excellent. J. J. Burke will be the presiding judge, Frank Nelson associate judge and handicapper, and Mars Cassidy starter.

MANY HORSES AT THE PARK.

DETROIT, Mich., June 4.—Strings of runners are beginning to arrive at Highland Park, where the spring meeting of the Highland Park Club will commence one week from next Wednesday with the running of the trial Derby. Secretary Parmer predicts that there will be close to one thousand horses in attendance at the meeting, and he is already worried to find stableroom to house them. Four carloads of horses arrived from Toronto yesterday.

CLARENCE MACKAY'S PURCHASE

NEW YORK, June 4.—It is announced that Clarence MacKay has purchased His Eminence for $18,000, and that Senator "Tim" Sullivan has sold his horses to Frank Farrell.

An epidemic of smallpox has broken out in the cottonwood district twenty-five miles miles north-west of Regina, N.W.T. Dr. Mackenzie, the Dominion Government expert, reports that every child in the school district has contracted the disease, which, fortunately, is of a mild type. The Territorial Government is taking the necessary steps to stamp out the contagion.

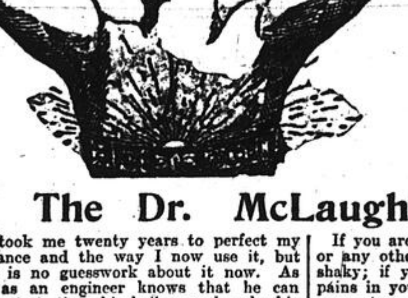
WEAK MEN
YOU DON'T HAVE TO PAY UNTIL CURED



It's something new in the field of medicine to meet with a man who positively knows what his remedy will do, and is willing to wait for his fee until the work is done. I am that way. I know that my Electric Belt will cure where every other treatment fails. To make you feel secure I don't ask for my pay until you are cured.

The Dr. McLaughlin Way

It took me twenty years to perfect my appliance and the way I now use it, but there is no guesswork about it now. As sure as an engineer knows that he can pump steam into his boilers and make his engines go, I know that I can pump electricity into your body and make it go, and go right. There's no guesswork about the engineer's task, as he has learned his trade. I have learned mine in the same way—by experience—and know what I can do.

If you are broken down from hard work or any other reason; if your nerves are shaky; if you have those "come and go" pains in your back, shoulders and hips; if your stomach is weak, your kidneys and bladder ailing, or if you are a man or woman with any trouble which you have tried in vain to cure with drugs, I will cure you first and you can pay me afterward.

My appliance cures while you sleep, and causes no bother.

SPECIAL NOTICE—If you have a belt of the burning kind or a "no electricity" band which has disappointed you, bring it in and I will make you special terms on one of mine for it.

CALL TO-DAY and get a free test of my Belt. If you can't call write for my beautifully illustrated 80-page book, which I will send, sealed, FREE. Address, enclosing this ad.

NATURAL HISTORY.

ANNUAL MEETING REVEALS THE SOCIETY'S WANTS.

More Funds Urgently Needed — Library and Museum Require to be Enlarged to Accommodate the Additions Constantly Being Made — The Superintendent's Illness.

The annual meeting of the Natural History Society, which took place last night, under the presidency of the Rev. Dr. Robt. Campbell, brought out three facts, namely, that the society is badly in need of funds, that it will soon be obliged to enlarge its premises, owing to the additions which have been made to the museum and library in recent years, and that, unless the means at its disposal are considerably augmented, the society will be unable to keep abreast of the times, and perform its work in the manner in which it should be done.

In alluding to the needs which confront the Society, Dr. Campbell, in the course of his annual address, said:

"The museum has continued to attract the public in increasing numbers since the entrance fee was abolished. It has been visited by a large number of boys and girls, just at the age when their eyes are wide open, and when their minds are impressionable, and excellent seed has thus been sown, which may be expected hereafter to yield good fruit in the way of a crop of students of natural science.

"In these several ways the society has prosecuted its work during another year; but it could have done still better work, in every department, had it larger means at its disposal.

GOVERNMENT GRANT REFUSED.

"Application was made to the Government of the province for a renewal of the grant made by the Government of Canada for many years prior to Confederation, and continued for many years afterwards by the provincial treasury, but dropped when the finances became embarrassed. The society has good reason to feel disappointed that the application was not entertained, as it has very strong claims to consideration, being the only society in the province doing the same class of work, especially as it was understood at the time of Confederation that the province would continue to foster the educational agencies which had previously been recognized by the Government of Canada.

AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS.

"Failing to receive aid from this quarter, there is nothing left to the society but to appeal to the generous public of Montreal for support. Were it not for the peculiar situation of our city, it might not be out of place to ask the municipal authorities to come to the society's rescue. The educational work done by the society merits such recognition There is not a city or town in the United States of any importance that has not its museum, and the municipalities, as well as the State governments, make liberal grants for the support of such institutions as ours. Except the $4,000 left by Mr. Somerville to found the lectures bearing his name, the society has not received any considerable legacy.

CHANCE FOR BENEFACTOR.

"Here, then, is an opportunity for some large-minded benefactor to do a good turn to Montreal. Let him settle on the Natural History Society an annual income that will enable it, not only to continue, but enlarge its operations. We would not even breathe a proposal to ask help from the Pittsburg millionaire; it would be a dishonour, alone, to our wealthy and public-spirited citizens to even hint at such a thing. But we hope they will come to our help. The workers in this society give their time gratuitously, from their love of science, and their desire to see the scientific spirit and scientific attainments more general, and give also liberally of their limited means, believing that they are doing as valuable work for the masses as the great McGill University is doing for the superior intellectual few. Now things have come to such a pass that we cannot, with the means at our disposal, do what is required to keep abreast with the needs of the time, We are straightened for room for our valuable library, and we have nowhere to exhibit the additions constantly making to our museum.

THE SUPERINTENDENT ILL.

"Our very efficient superintendent is overwhelmed with work and needs assistance in the museum. The fact is, he is seriously ill at present, and probably this illness is traceable to over-exertion, and what are we to do? Well, I believe we have only to let it be known that the continuance of the important work done by the society is endangered, to rally to its support our enlightened citizens. Why may we not look to a great many of them, ladies as well as gentlemen enrolling themselves in the list of membership of the society? If we had an addition of even a hundred more members these with the modest annual fee attached to membership, would enable us to carry on our work better than we are able to do at present. Shall we make this appeal in vain? I do not believe it."

The treasurer's statement showed a deficit of about $450, caused largely by repairs, etc., to the building during the year, which had made the expenditure somewhat greater than usual. It was proposed, in order that the revenue and expenditure might balance more evenly in the future, that the publication of the Record of Science should be dispensed with, but the proposal was not approved of.

LIBRARY AND MUSEUM COMMITTEE.

From the reports of the Library and Museum Committee it was learned that large additions had been made to both of these departments during the year, and that upwards of 10,000 people had visited the museum during that period.

Mr. J. S. Buchan, in recording the motion of Mr. Justice Wurtele, that the reports be received, drew attention to the fact that the reports were full of references to the lack of space and want of funds; that no place could be found for many of the exchanges which came in, and that, therefore, much of the instructive influence which the society might have and exert, was doubtless lost. In view of these reports they ought to consider if there was not some way by which they could reach out and improve upon this state of things financially. He was satisfied that there were enough citizens of Montreal who were interested in the work of the society, who, if they only knew about its work and needs, enough money would be forthcoming to put the society in a position where the present difficulties would be overcome.

DR. CAMPBELL'S ADDRESS.

Dr. Campbell, in his annual address, drew attention to the Somerville lectures, the Saturday afternoon talks, and excursions, and the field days, and referred in feeling terms to the deaths of Messrs. J. S. Shearer and E. T. Chambers.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The election of officers took place at the close of his address, and resulted as follows:

Hon. president—Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal.

President—Prof. E. W. MacBride.

Vice-presidents— Prof. F. D. Adams, Prof. B. J. Harrington, A. Holden, J. H. Joseph, Rev. Dr. Robert Campbell, Prof. Wesley Mills, Hon. J. K. Ward, C. T. Williams, and Mr. Justice Wurtele.

GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE BAR

Annual Meeting at the Court House Saturday Morning.

The General Council of the Bar of the Province of Quebec will hold its annual meeting at the Court House on Saturday morning, at ten o'clock. Reports will be received and officers elected. It is expected that Hon. H. T. Duffy will be elected as batonnier-general in the place of Hon. H. Archambault, whose term of office has expired. As to the position of secretary-general, there are three candidates, viz., Mr. Arthur Globensky, the present incumbent, who has held the position since 1896; Mr. A. E. DeLorimier, and Mr. Ch. DeGuise. The proposed amendments to the advocates' tariff will also be considered at that meeting.

BANK OF MONTREAL.

The Old Board of Directors Re-elected Yesterday Afternoon.

The old Board of Directors was re-elected by the shareholders of the Bank of Montreal yesterday afternoon. They are as follows: R. B. Angus, Esq., Hon. Geo. A. Drummond, A. F. Gault, Esq., E. B. Greenshields, Esq., Sir William C. Macdonald, A. T. Paterson, Esq., R. G. Reid, Esq., James Ross, Esq., Rt. Hon. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, G.C.M.G.

THE LAURIER CLUB.

About a thousand people attended the meeting of the Laurier Club in St. Jean Baptiste ward last night. Speeches were delivered by Messrs. D. A. Lafortune, E. Gareau, Jeremie Decarie and J. Beland. Hon. Mr. Gouin, Mayor Prefontaine, Mr. J. A. C. Madore, M.P., and Mr. Charles Marcil, M. P., sent letters of excuse, as previous engagements prevented them from going to the gathering.

RESULT OF DRUNKEN SPREE — Charles Hebert, who said that he was an actor and that he lived in Boston, and, that further, if he got off this time he would go out of the country at once, was arrested Sunday night on a charge of stealing $200 from a man in whose company he was during a spree. The man was in the Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, and said that it was quite possible that the accused told the truth when he said that he took the money for safe keeping. In any case the plaintiff was willing to let bygones be bygones if he got his money. He got it and the two shook hands and left the court.

YOU ARE NOT SICK

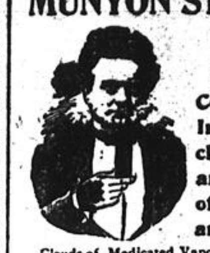
BUT FEEL MISERABLE.

Nearly everybody seems to complain more or less at this season of the year. You feel the need of some tonic to put new strength and energy into the system. You don't sleep well, and suffer more or less from headache and dyspepsia. It may be you are depressed and discouraged, and feel the affairs of everyday life a burden. Little things worry and irritate you. You are not sick, but lack the vitality that is necessary for health and happiness.

There is one preparation which is doing wonders these days as a restorative and nerve invigorator, and that is Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. It is different from any medicines you ever used, for instead of tearing down the tissues of the body it builds them up, and so thoroughly fills the system with new life and vigor as to overcome pains and aches, weaknesses and irregularities. It is surprising what a host of people are using this great food cure. A few weeks' trial will convince you of its singular merits.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50. At all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. Agents wanted for Dr. Chase's Latest and Complete Receipt Book. 130 1



MUNYON'S INHALER CURES CATARRH

Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

Clouds of Medicated Vapor are inhaled through the mouth and emitted from the nostrils, cleansing and vaporizing all the inflamed and diseased parts which cannot be reached by medicine taken into the stomach.

It reaches the sore spots—heals the raw places—goes to the seat of disease—acts as a balm and tonic to the whole system—$1.00 at druggists or by mail. Munyon, New York and Philadelphia. 130 1

The Best Physicians Recommend MALT BREAKFAST FOOD As a True Health Food.

Many of the common and cheaply prepared grain foods use the term "Health Food" on their labels; this is misleading, as a proper analysis would prove. The term "Health Food" is truthfully applied to Malt Breakfast Food, and the ablest physicians recommend it as such. The pure health-giving Malt, scientifically combined with the choicest Wheat, gives to the world a health food unequalled for producing flesh, bone and muscle. Grocers everywhere. 130 1

"Oh, thank you so much. That will be so pleasant," Mrs. Hawkins answered for herself and her cavalier.

When she had left Elise and her husband, she turned to Edgehill, saying angrily: "That's a very pert young woman."

"She's deuced pretty."

"The dairy-maid type. I don't envy the taste that admires it."

"I can imagine what made him marry Medhurst," he said, contemplatively, looking straight before him.

"I can't imagine what made him marry her."

"What?" the young man asked, interestingly.

"Her persuasion."

"Oh, that's hard on her. She's bright and clever, you know."

"Yes, you would soon have known how clever only for me. You had a narrow escape," said Mrs. Hawkins.

Her companion began to wish his escape had not been effected, but he thought silence the better part of discretion.

"Glad you asked them to lunch," Arthur said, when they were out of earshot.

"Are you? I hope you'll limit your supply of champagne whilst they are at the table and not get rowdy as you did when the Walmers dined with us," remarked Elise.

"Why, I was only jolly. Remember, I'm on my honeymoon, and that's a thing that may come only once in my life, you know."

"It's to be hoped so. But before your marriage you used to drink too much. I have often thought of speaking of it, for I hate to see you maudling."

"All right, my dear. I'll pull up," he replied, good-naturedly.

"What do you think of Lord Edgehill?" she asked presently.

"Think of him? Oh, he's rather a nice chap and I'm sure we should get on all right together."

"I have no doubt you would," assented Elise.

"What do you think of him?" Arthur asked.

"That he's a bit of a fool."

Next morning whilst at breakfast in the open air, shaded by a verandah from the sun, deep purple patches of heavily scented violets around them, the gardens seemingly stretching to the deep azure of the sea in front of them, Elise received a note from Lord Edgehill expressing his regrets at being unable to accept her invitation to lunch, as he had just received a telegram from his invalid uncle at Nerve summoning him without delay, and was therefore obliged to leave Monte Carlo by the first train.

Elise smiled contentedly as she read it, gratified by the fear that Mrs. Hawkins showed of her. "For she has sent him away," she thought.

"What are you so pleased about?" Arthur asked.

"That I am spared the boredom of Lord Edgehill's company to-day," she answered. "He has been called away by his uncle."

"Which uncle?"

"I'm sure I don't know. But uncles are always convenient relatives."

"I suppose Mrs. Hawkins will come to lunch?"

"I daresay she will if her sympathy with this invalid doesn't also induce her to go and see him."

CHAPTER XX.

SCHEMES.

It was late in the afternoon of a glorious summer day. Not a breath stirred, scarcely a sound was heard, and the sky was without cloud. The sun beat fiercely against the gloomy granite walls and on the glittering roof of Dartmoor Prison, and steeped the wide, lonely moors surrounding it in a somnolent haze of golden glory.

In one of the high-walled cobble-paved yards of the great building, from which neither light nor warmth could banish its air of desolation, stood a representative of that brightest and most enterprising of all London journals, the Evening Flail.

The representative, who was none other than Sheila Hunt, was being shown over the convict settlement by the deputy-governor, a retired army officer, smartly dressed, middle-aged, with iron-gray moustache, a square chin, and watchful eyes. Still a bachelor with a susceptible heart and a dread of matrimony, he was gracious towards women, on whom it was his cherished belief he invariably made a favourable impression.

It was not every day that chance sent in his solitary way so interesting a member of her sex as Sheila Hunt. A glance at her pale, serious face, with its blue-gray eyes, had pleased his errant fancy. The quiet refinement of her manner and her evident intelligence had greatly impressed him, so that he took infinitely more trouble in conducting her over the building and explaining the prison discipline than if she had been a mere male creature, or an uninteresting specimen of her own sex.

For reasons of her own Sheila had already read all she could find about the prison, and the treatment of the convicts, so that whatever questions she asked were concise and to the point.

She had already seen the workshops and laundries, the punishment cells, and the bath-houses, and was about to enter one of the wings when sounds of heavy, measured footsteps reached them.

"If you will stand here," said her conductor, drawing her into an angle, "you will see some of the outdoor gangs returning from their work on the moors."

"What have they been working at?" she asked quickly.

He stepped to the gate, looked out, and then returning answered: "Peat cutting."

She drew a sharp breath, her heart jumped, and she fixed her eyes on the gate with an intense stare, whilst the thud of approaching footsteps hammered on her ears. And then in another moment she saw a body of the civil guard, heavily armed, march past, followed by lines of convicts in their jackets and knickerbockers of fustian, their striped woollen stockings, and hob-nailed boots, each with his spade over his shoulder. An evil-looking lot of all sizes and various ages, their glances stealthy, their expressions hardened and morose when not cynically brazen.

And then as she swiftly and eagerly searched amongst their lines she caught sight of the figure she longed yet dreaded to see, and for a brief second their eyes met, startled surprise in his, infinite pity in hers. Then a mist seemed to blind her, and a second later he had passed out of the yard surrounded by his ruffianly companions.

Sheila remained motionless, stricken by misery and shivering as if from cold. The deputy-governor noticed her horrified expression and hastened to reassure her.

"They are a rough lot, but you need have no fear," he remarked.

"No, of course not," she replied, mechanically.

As they crossed the yard she strove to recover and brace herself that she might be able to put her plans into execution.

"I never saw such faces. It must have taken a long course of crime to have stamped them with such an expression; they were terrible," Sheila remarked. "And yet I suppose there are men of education amongst them?" she added, as if by an after-thought.

"Well, I don't know if they're amongst that gang, but the professions are well represented in this prison. We have two parsons, a doctor, at least three lawyers, and a man who once held a commission in Her Majesty's army," he answered, with the air of one who delighted in giving information; "and we also have a peer of the realm—Lord Aberboyne."

"He is here?" Sheila muttered.

"He just passed you amongst the peat cutters. He was not distinguishable from the others," he explained; "for no matter what a man's rank or position may have been before he came here, we make no difference in our treatment of him. But you can see Lord Aberboyne in his cell if you wish."

"Ah, that would be so kind of you," she managed to say, still striving to recover the shock the sight of him had given her.

They recrossed the grim stone-paved yard, took their way through a gloomy little passage, entered a wing of the prison, and began to mount a spiral metal staircase. Her companion was talking, but she was too much occupied by her own thoughts to heed what he said. When they came to the first floor he pointed out the central row of iron cells standing back to back in the dreary corridor.

Lord Aberboyne's cell is on the third landing," he told Sheila, and they began to mount another stair.

Brave and self-refrained, as she usually was, the girl could not keep from trembling. A sickly feeling came over her at sight of these gloomy, narrow cells, that in such weather as this must seem as ovens to their wretched occupants, at the sense of insurmountable depression pervading the place, at the thought of the intolerable calamity and degradation which her friend suffered.

On reaching the third floor she paused at the head of the staircase as if from want of breath whilst she endeavoured to master herself. As she did so the deputy-governor called out authoritatively: "Holman, Holman."

A warder hastened towards them from the far end of the corridor and saluted.

"What is the number of Lord Aberboyne's cell?" he asked, lowering his voice so that the convicts might not overhear him.

The man mentioned it.

"Open the gate and the door that this lady may see him."

"Oh, no, no," Sheila said, coming forward. "Pardon me, but I have changed my mind. I would rather not see him, it would seem intrusive, prying; it would be cruel."

The warder's quick glance showed him her uncontrollable emotion.

"Convicts are not used to such consideration," replied the deputy-governor, who, less sharp than his subordinate, had not noticed her distress.

"Perhaps not, but he— Well, even the life here cannot have blunted his feelings, and any other cell you may show me will give me an idea of what they are like quite as well, for I suppose they are all the same."

"Yes, they are all the same," the deputy-governor said.

Sheila, looking from him to the warder who stood silently by, was almost startled by the penetrating look he fixed on her. Then in some sudden inexplicable way she understood his thoughts and her eyes flashed back their answer to him, when a sense of inexpressible relief and hope surged through her, and with a light step she followed him as he flung open the door of a cell from which a whimsical, good-natured face with keen gray eyes looked out at her, and a mellow voice said:

"An' sure it's a blesed sight for me eyes to see such company this day, thanks be to God for that same."

The deputy-governor looked at the smiling face before him, saying: "Like all his countrymen he never loses a chance of hearing himself talk."

"I am half-Irish myself," Sheila told him.

"Ah, thin, that accounts for your purty face," said the convict.

"You old schemer," laughed the official.

"Sure, an' it's not too ould I am to admoire beauty," came the quick reply.

Sheila apparently busied herself in making notes, but unseen by her guide she managed to tear a leaf from her book which she folded and kept hidden in one hand. When her inspection of the cell and the corridor was made and she was about to descend the narrow spiral stairs, she drew back nervously, saying to the deputy-governor: "It's very steep. Would you please go first."

As he stepped forward to obey she stooped to pick up her skirt and drop a piece of paper, on which the warder who stood behind her quickly put his foot. When left alone he picked it up, read the scribbled lines, and smiled grimly. "I thought I wasn't mistaken," he said to himself, well pleased with his astuteness.

Meanwhile Aberboyne was sitting in his cell, his elbows on his knees, his head buried in his hands. The sight of Sheila's once familiar figure, the flash of illimitable sympathy coming from her eyes, warmed his heart and moved him more deeply than anything else had done since the day of his trial, when her half-smothered sob had thrilled through every nerve of his body.

Suddenly he asked himself why she had been there to-day. She could have visited him in the ordinary way if she wished, in company with her brother or Arthur; but he had always felt grateful that she had spared him the pain and humiliation of appearing before her in shaven head and prison garb. And yet she had seen him today as he passed from work, without giving a sign to him or others of her recognition of him. Could she have come in the way of business, or had some other motive brought her to the prison.

At the question he suddenly rose as if to face the thoughts that swiftly pressed upon his mind, the possibilities that might result from her visit.

It was past six o'clock when Sheila got back to the Dutchy Hotel in Princetown. As she entered her private sitting-room her brother—who thought it best his presence in the neighbourhood should remain unknown to the prison authorities—looked at her pallid, troubled face.

"You have seen him," he said, rising and going towards her.

Without answering she sat down and broke into sobs.

Knowing how seldom it was that she cried and how deep down in her heart pain must have sunk before tears were reached, he put his hand on her shoulder, saying:

"My poor Sheila, the sight of that terrible place has been too much for you."

"But what must it be to him?" she asked through her blinding tears.

"A living hell."

When the first outburst of her grief had exhausted itself she said: "After all, I'm glad I have seen the place and the desperate looking scoundrels he has to mix with, for even if our schemes end with his death I shall never reproach myself. Better to die than live there."

"I've no doubt Aberboyne will agree with you. But tell me, did you manage to carry out any of your plans?"

"I have seen his warder and slipped him a note asking him to meet us on the road between Princetown and Two Bridges about half-past nine to-night. It will be dark by then and nobody will see him."

"Do you think he will come?" Hubert asked excitedly.

"I am sure he will. If I read faces aright he will risk a great deal for money."

"That's our man, and I'll open his eyes when I promise him a thousand pounds down the day Aberboyne escapes from Dartmoor," replied Hubert exultingly.

It is a well known fact that any physician will substantiate, that there is a greater percentage of Cancer among those of mid-life than at any other age.

Persons at this time of life would do well to regard with suspicion any lumps or growths on their body. Should these prove malignant or of a cancerous nature, they can be removed completely without operation, by the use of our painless home treatment.

It is the most successful remedy for the cure of cancers and tumours, and has cured numbers of people here in Canada and saved them from the torture of the surgeon's knife or the painful plaster.

THE POLICE.

It was indeed a serious charge that the counsel for a man accused of theft made in his plea for mercy before the Police Magistrate yesterday afternoon. He announced that his client was an honest man when he came to Montreal, and until he joined the police force.

The knowledge now before the public that one of the very men employed to protect the life and property of citizens has been engaged in robbing people, makes it necessary that the very fullest enquiry should be made into all the circumstances. Does the man's counsel mean that his client was but one of several who are using the police force as a cloak for carrying on crime? What is the demoralizing influence of a society that a man becomes a member of when he joins the police force?

Every honest man on the force is interested in having these charges thoroughly investigated, and the body cleared of any immoral influences. As we have before said, those who have paid cash for their appointments must have had more than a constable's salary in view when they put up their money. That some of the men were not particularly efficient as policemen was no secret, but now that one has been discovered to be guilty of serious crime and his counsel has made so grave a charge against the character of the force, the public want to know just who were the man's comrades who led him astray, and how they did it.

BEGGING LICENSES.

His Honour Mr. Recorder Weir, in dealing with some juvenile beggars brought before him, yesterday, remarked that Montreal was fast becoming the Naples of America, and he warned people not to encourage begging by giving charity to persons not holding the necessary permission from the city.

As to the disgraceful growth of begging on the streets of Montreal, the evil cannot be exaggerated. We have mendicants from puny children with whining voices, who want "a few cents to buy bread," people with horrible deformities and unsightly wounds, aged and tottering men and women, to stalwart, able-bodied blackguards. The business part of the city is pestered with them, and the residential sections do not escape.

The deserving—that is, those who are really the victims of illness or other misfortune—should have a better fate than being compelled to stand at corners whining, or hobbling from door to door soliciting charity; the idle and dissolute who would simply rather beg than work, cannot be rounded up and gaoled too soon.

But can it be that there are some of the poor creatures we see on the streets really do have "permission from the city" to beg? If this be true we have indeed sunk to a low state of civic degradation.

No place to send the helpless poor but the common gaol! Issuing official licenses to beg to poor old cripples! And this in the metropolis of Canada.

Is it not time our city fathers got around to this question, and began the discussion of a project for a poor farm somewhere in the suburbs? By discussing it now we may arrive at something definite by the time the present generation of beggars dies off, and be able to provide a home for their children's children.

INTERNATIONAL POLICE.

There is an interesting gathering of very worthy and well meaning persons held every year at an attractive spot known as Lake Mohonk. They are earnest philanthropists who aim at doing away with war and substituting arbitration. The seventh session has just been held, for lack of success in getting the world to follow the conference's usually excellent advice does not prevent the annual gathering.

This year they have gone a step farther than before in admitting the necessity for force being used to preserve peace. They hold that all courts must have officials charged with the duty of seeing that the behests of the court are carried out. Therefore, they advocate an international police force. One speaker, on behalf of this proposal, held that if such a force were in existance they would suppress the unspeakable Turk and the Armenian atrocities would become impossible.

We have a sample of an international police force suppressing the Chinese just now, and the awful outrages against common humanity some of these "constables" have been guilty of makes one hope that there will never again be such an aggregation. The spectacle the world was treated to on Saturday of five of the international policemen engaged in a deadly combat with two hundred of the force, to prevent the two hundred indulging in their favourite occupation of housebreaking, murder and other outrage, was highly edifying.

It is a grave question whether it would not be less injurious to the cause of civilization to allow the Chinese to go unpunished, so far as paying indemnity is concerned, for the rough and bloody way in which they sought to assert their disapproval of having golf played over the bones of their fathers, than to have any continuance of such an international disgrace as the occupation of China by the allies has proved.

Let us hope all the police force may now be disbanded without any further varying the occupation of murdering Chinese by murdering each other.

Montreal has a rival. A letter from Tien Tsin states that the dust is so thick there that when a rain comes the washed down thickness of the air gives the appearance of raining mud. We get the mud rain in the dust season, but we have places where the mud is with us always. It will give some comfort to know that some people keep their China as dirty as we keep our streets.

The city of Vienna has over twenty thousand telephones in its system, and the subscriber who pays $50 a year not only has connection with all of this system, but with Berlin, over four hundred miles away, and with over two hundred other towns and cities in Austro-Hungary. Now a scheme is being considered whereby every house in Vienna will be supplied with a telephone, at an annual cost of $12.50 per house. Talk is cheap in Vienna.

A touching evidence of the affectionate esteem with which Queen Victoria was held by those outside the Empire was shown by the action of people in Tampa, Florida. On the twenty-fourth of May a wreath of magnolia leaves, gathered from trees which had been planted each year, on the Queen's birthday, was sent to England to be placed on Victoria's tomb. The tree-planting had been carried on for ten years before the Queen's death, and the means the people took of celebrating Victoria Day was most fitting.

The new electric cars on Broadway in New York are not provided with fenders. The fender is only a device to save life, and the president of the company explains that the street is too crowded a thoroughfare to take up so much room on as the fender would require. Then, it is further explained that the cars can hit teams, that do not move out of the way quickly, a harder bump with the bare car than with any wire netting attachment as a buffer. After all, it is necessary that any vehicle which is to charge its way through a Broadway crowd should be something to inspire wholesome dread.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

There are only about 10,000 Protestants in Belgium.

It is estimated that there are in the United Kingdom three million people over the age of fifteen, who never drink liquor.

The daily circulation of newspapers in the United Kingdom rose from 60,000 copies in 1801 to 700,000 in 1850, and now reaches 8,500,000.

The liquors consumed in England and Wales in 1899 contained 79,782,063 gallons of alcohol; in Scotland 7,865,585 gallons; Ireland, 7,257,234 gallons.

It is estimated that over fifty per cent. of Russia's foreign trade is carried by British vessel. Only a little over ten per cent. is carried by Russian vessels.

Rio de Janeiro, the chief city of Brazil, has over 780,000 inhabitants, while Buenos Ayres, the chief city of the Argentine Republic is estimated to have about 800,000 inhabitants.

The average cost of dredging in the harbour of Montreal, per cubic yard, has varied a great deal in different years. In 1899 the average cost per cubic yard was a little less than eleven cents. In 1897 it was nearly 24 cents.

Four thousand feet below the surface is considered to be the lowest depth for profitable coal mining. The average depth of British coal mines is 750 to 850 feet, but some of them are worked at a depth of 2500 feet.

A DONATION PARTY AT SQUAWVILLE.

(James Barton Adams, in Denver Post.)

'Twas a tenderfoot who'd recently took shelter in our gates
To escape too marked attention from a sheriff in the States
That suggested of the doin's, tellin' us that every spring
In the church that he belonged to it was thought the proper thing,
An' the idee seemed to ketch us a bein' something new
In the boostin' of religion from a worldly p'int of view,
An' we grappled with the matter, all determined fur to treat
Parson Bill to a donation that'd rise him off his feet.

Got our women interested, an' we soon observed that they
Was a holdin' secret meetin's in a quite mysterious way,
An' if one of us would ask 'em what was goin' on so shy
They would smile in knowin' manner, an' 'd wink the other eye.
Got a holdin' sewing circles—called 'm thread an' needle teas —
An' was buzzin' round as busy as a hive o' honey bees.
Tenderfoot a meetin' with 'em fur to give 'em his advice
'Bout the proper way o' cuttin' the donation party ice.

On the night of the donation all the sportses closed their games,
An' we hung our finest raiment an' adornment on our frames,
An' we gathered at the parson's, an' to see his smilin' face
Made us all feel we was baskin' in the sun o' Christian grace.
Then a flash of indignation through the party seemed to shoot,
Fur the tenderfoot was missin', an' the cash had follered suit,
An' our language as we chased him wasn't delicate nor frail
Till we overtook the snoozer shinnin' down the mountain trail.

I have of'en heard the sayin', "Everything is fur the best,"
Which was proved by the results that follered up the hangin' fest,
Us recoverin' the money, an' a hefty wad o' bills
That the tenderfoot brought with him when he came into the hills,
An' a medico from Cripple added to the nightly gains
To the tune of fifty dollars, which he paid fur the remains,
All of which in Christian spirit an' in brotherly good will,
Was turned over with our blessin' to the smilin' Parson Bill.

SNAP SHOTS.

Many a man who knows his own mind has a somewhat limited acquaintance.

A cross old bachelor suggests that births should be announced under the head of "New Music."

"This potato is only half done, my dear," said he crossly. "Then only eat half of it, my love," she replied affectionately.

The finding of a stolen watch in a policeman's hat, has impressed some of the aldermen with the idea that the police force needs a head.

PROVERBIAL PHILOSOPHY REVISED.

GLOBE TROTTING.

Mr. William Whyte, assistant to the president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, started yesterday on a trip round the world. Mr. Whyte is about the first man since Capt. Cook to start on a trip round the world with any practical object in view.

THE OTTAWA STRIKE.

The Ottawa strike has not yet reached very serious dimensions. The only alarming feature is that it is feared the services of the Deputy Minister of Labour will be enlisted in the attempt to bring about a settlement. Under these circumstances it seems the part of wisdom for the troops to hold themselves in readiness.

A SCHOOL FOR CRIME.

Ex-Speaker Leblanc, advocate for Constable Plouffe, we are told, made a strong appeal for clemency for his client, who, he declared, "had been an honest man until he joined the police force. There he found a school of immorality and he fell." The severity of Mr. Leblanc's criticism will be better appreciated when it is remembered that Plouffe was once an official of the Quebec Legislature. He passed through that ordeal unscathed, but the Montreal police force was too much for him.

THE HEIGHT OF EXTRAVAGANCE.

The Dundas Banner is one of the truthfullest papers of its persuasion, but the Banner simply tells the Banner whopper when it says:

"All the gold, silver and copper coins required in Canada are to be manufactured at our own mint, in our own country, from our own gold."

The Government may contemplate using a little Canadian silver and copper in making the gold coins, but we do not believe it is so extravagant as to manufacture the silver and copper coins out of "our own gold."

FOLLOWING THE DIRECTIONS.

The census taking reminds one of a story which occurred ten years ago. On the printed forms were the words: Age of father (if living), age of mother (if living). One of the papers was returned with the startling information that the father was 120 years old and the mother 112. The authorities hastened to see this ancient pair, and were much surprised to hear that they died long ago.

"Then what do you mean by this?" said an angry official, pointing to the ages.

"Why, that's right enough. It says 'Age if living,' and that would have been their ages if living now."

LOGAN'S PARK.

We hate to see our old friend, J. X. Perrault, unhappy, and if a little thing like changing the name of Logan's Park, or any other old park, will restore his peace of mind, why not change it? And that reminds us, we have no parks or streets in Montreal named after the present King or Queen. If Mr. Perrault does not think much of the late Sir William Logan, we are sure he thinks a good deal of Their Majesties. Instead of calling the park, the "National Park," and putting up a monument in it to Sir William Logan; let us call it "Alexandra Park," and put up a monument in it to Mr. Perrault.

A SAFE MAN.

A Methodist minister charged with improperly taking the oath and voting in a Dominion election when not qualified, has been acquitted by a committee of conference of intentional wrong-doing, on the ground of ignorance. On the question whether a man who did not know enough to understand the oath, knew enough to preach, the committee declined to commit itself. The conference, however, decided that the reverend gentleman's standard of ignorance was not high enough to disqualify him. The decision is quite in harmony with modern orthodox practice. The chief function of an examining chaplain seems to be to see that candidates for ordination do not know enough to be dangerous.

A "CLEARING" STORY.

A correspondent sends to the Yorkshire Post a letter from a Royal Horse Artillery driver in South Africa, who tells a story at the expense of the British columns engaged in clearing the Orange River Colony of supplies. He put it into the form of a dialogue as follows:

Scene—Boer farmer sitting at the door of his cottage; large stack of oat straw in the background.

Enter Col. Shovealong's staff officer.

Staff Officer—"I have orders to either buy or destroy all forage and food in this district. I therefore give you notice that I am about to set fire to that pile of oat-straw."

Boer Farmer—"Bod I dell you"——

Staff Officer—"Resistance is futile."

Boer Farmer—"Bod vould you blease"—

Staff Officer—"I can listen to no excuses."

The stack of oat straw presently bursts into flame, and the staff officer goes on his way rejoicing. The Boer turns to his wife and says: "Dose Khakis are strange peoples. I vanted to dell him dat dis vas de oat straw dat I haff sold to de colonel half an hour ago."

And he thoughtfully jingled the British sovereigns in his pocket.

COURT FOR EMPIRE.

CONFERENCE IMPERIAL AID COLONIAL JURISTS ON SUBJECT.

Invitations Sent Out by Colonial Secretary to All Colonies—Object Conference to Discuss Formation—New Court of Appeal for the Empire—What Court Will be Like.

The departure of the Minister of Justice, Hon. David Mills, and the Solicitor-General, Hon. Charles Fitzpatrick, for London, to take part in the conference which will be held there within the next few weeks to discuss the suggestion of the Imperial Government for the rehabilitation of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and the formation of a bran new court of appeal for the Empire, which will better answer the requirements of the colonies than the present one in Downing Street, has called public attention to the details of the suggestion which this conference will consider. The announcement was first made when the Australian Commonwealth Bill was receiving its first reading in the British House of Commons, by Hon. Joseph Chamberlain. It made somewhat of a stir at the time, but was allowed to drop for a time. Recently the matter was brought before the public again by invitations being issued by the Colonial Secretary to the Premiers of the various colonies, requesting that delegates to a conference be appointed to meet in London to discuss the proposal of the Imperial Government. Among those who will attend this conference are:

Canada—Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice.

Australia—Hon. H. E. A. Hodges, of the Federal Bench.

New Zealand—Hon. T. Thompson, Minister of Justice.

Cape Colony—Right Hon. J. H. de Villiers.

India will also be represented.

It is understood that during the past year the Lord Chancellor has had before him several separate schemes for the constitution of the new court. The first proposal made in this connection came from Mr. Haldane, K.C., and it was to amalgamate the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council with the Judicial Committee of the House of Lords. In explaining his proposal to the House of Commons, Mr. Haldane said that by this means a great single tribunal could be erected for the whole Empire, dealing not only with selected and important cases, but giving advice, as the Privy Council is sometimes called upon to do at present, on constitutional questions referred to it from all parts of the Empire. On this tribunal judges from the various groups of colonies, versed in different kinds of law, which the Imperial tribunal would have to administer, would have seats.

THE OBJECTION OF CANADA.

The proposal met with considerable approval at first, says the London Times in a recent issue, but it is now an open secret that the Government were reluctantly obliged to abandon all thoughts of such a fusion under pressure of colonial opinion. Canada, for instance, very broadly hinted that the new appellate body must be a revivification of the old Court, not the establishment of a new. The self-governing colonies, Mr. Chamberlain was told, would not tolerate the abolition of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, or the transfer of the appeal from the Common (or Imperial) Crown to the essentially British Parliament. To do this would, in the opinion of the best colonial authorities, be confusing the Imperial Constitution, which is just beginning to develop; pledging the colonies to an "unnecessary and retrograde subordination of their State" to ours; and emphatically falling away from the advance made by the appointment made in Jubilee year of colonial judges and Premiers as Privy Councillors.

It was this feeling that caused the Government to hesitate at amalgamation. Yet the personnel of the two Courts is almost identical at present. The chief difference in character and procedure seems to an ordinary observer to be that, in adjudicating upon English, Irish and Scotch cases, Lords Macnaghten, Morris, Davey and Robertson sit in considerable state with all imposing accessories. In adjudicating for the British Empire, they ascend a flight of stairs in Downing street, where, wigless and robeless, in a small dingy chamber, the members of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council foregather.

MR. FABER'S SUGGESTION.

Another plan, considered by the Lord Chancellor, has been put forward by Mr. Faber, M. P. It provides for a Supreme Court of eleven judges consisting of the Lord Chancellor, six Lords of Appeal, three judges from the Colonies, and one from India. These judges would constitute two Courts, in which the quorum would be five, one dealing with English, Irish and Scotch, and the other with Indian and colonial appeals.

What will probably most commend itself to the delegates, and will not be opposed by the Imperial Government, will be a rehabilitation of the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. If this course is followed the promised "new" Court, "His Majesty's Supreme Court of the British Empire," will be substantially the same body which has existed from the time of Charles I., or even prior to the establishment of separate judicial authority for the plantations. Appeals were heard from the old feudal duchies of King John by a separate judicial body, the source of whose authority lay in the Crown rather than in Parliament. Therefore, there is probably little to fear from the proposal that the Privy Council's judicial functions be abolished.

ROYALTY'S POWER TO REMOVE JUDGES.

At the present time, if a Colonial Court should refuse to carry out the decree of the Sovereign in Council, the King, as the executive, can enforce the decree through the Governor of the Colony by virtue contained in the Imperial Statute 22, George III., c. 75. It has been pointed out that under the new Australian Constitution, although the executive power is still vested in the King, the power of removal of judges is transferred to the Commonwealth Parliament, since by its provisions the judges are only to be removed on an address from those Houses. Thus, it is asserted, the power of enforcing the Crown's decree by the Crown is taken away.

In other words, if the King in Council were to reverse a decision of the Colonial Court, that judgment might be so unpopular as to make the judges hesitate before enforcing the Crown's decree. The Crown, "stripped of the purgative power of removing the judges, would no longer be able to see that justice is done nor in a position to protect them in doing it from the wrath of the local Legislature, induced by an irritation of a possibly temporary character." Such is the apprehension entertained by those who desire certain amendments bearing upon these somewhat remote evils to be introduced into the Federal Parliament. If general confidence is reposed in the new Court of Appeal, equal to that entertained in the principle of Imperial Appellate jurisdiction by Canada, there can be little doubt but that Mr. Barton and his colleagues will seek to strengthen its powers in the proper direction.

REMOVAL OF COLONIAL JUDGES.

Particular value has always been attached to the following memorandum of the Lords of the Council of 1870, on the removal of Colonial judges:

"When the misconduct charged is purely judicial, and therefore not properly amenable to the decision of the executive authority acting on the advice of the law officers or advisers of inferior rank, it would seem that the due maintenance of the independence of judges requires that judicial acts should only be brought into question before some tribunal of weight and wisdom enough to pronounce definitely upon them, and this function appertains with peculiar fitness to the Privy Council, which, as a Court of Appeal, has to review the decisions of the Colonial Courts."

As to the importance to the Empire of a uniform final Court of Appeal, it is interesting to learn that the members of the Australian Cabinet, including Mr. Barton, are now agreed. Even if a dozen Australian appeals did not come annually before the rehabilitated Court of the Privy Council, yet, as Todd observes, "its controlling power, though dormant, would be felt by every judge in the Empire, because he knows that his decisions are liable to be submitted to it."

WILD ANIMALS HAVE HUMOUR.

Circus Men Maintain That Even Elephants and Hippotami Can Give and Enjoy a Joke.

Circus men think Darwin was pretty near right when he posted the monkey as the original tree from which man and his flowering offspring sprang. Alf. Ringling, one of the five brothers, who have been active in bringing the circus to its present high state of development and consideration, thinks so, and is plain-spoken and fervid in saying so. The other night, in the course of a random talk, he illustrated the truth of this proposition, in the most picturesque and entertaining way. To show that there are useful spots of gray matter in every species of animal, he picked out the ugly and forbidding hippotamus. He said:

"Maybe you think this freak of animal nature doesn't know a thing or two. I'll show you that he does. We have one with us who is as big as all out doors, and with his eyes peeled, looks like an old-fashioned picture of the Inferno. His keeper is named Spencer. This name ought to make him know better, unless he is so far removed from the Herbert Spencer of metaphysical fame that the name is a gauzy label of heritage rather than sense. This keeper feeds the hippotamus with bran balls. Punch is very fond of these. They are rolled up and tossed far into his internal economy before he can close his jaws.

A short time ago this keeper got funny and teased Punch by holding a ball of the coveted morsel close to his nose, where he could get the sweet savour of it, and then jerking it out of his reach. This was not a very pleasing performance for Punch, and in many ways peculiar to his kind he showed it. He lay down on his tank and held his nose low, and when the keeper held out the bran ball, he pretended to be indifferent or asleep. Seeing this, the keeper became careless and began rubbing the bran ball about Punch's nose. Here is where Punch showed the cunning of ancestry, and waiting his chance, grabbed the keeper's hand between his teeth.

"Wow-wow-wow! yelled the keeper.

"Whu-u-owwa-a-a-h! snorted Punch in great delight.

"After enjoying the situation for a minute or more, and winking his eye knowingly, he eased up on Spencer's hand, so that the latter could get it back to its original ownership. Punch then slid back into his tank of water, and the bubblous noise that ruffled the surface indicated that he was having a jolly good laugh underneath at the expense of Spencer.

"Elephants are the trickiest of all, however. They look dull and heavy, but just the same they are, like a mischievous boy, always on the alert for forbidden fun. In the twenty-five elephants of our show, fifteen of them are trick performers, and able to do a lot of things that startle observers.

"The humorous sense of these fellows is forever taking an unexpected turn that makes the crowd laugh, but keeps Prof. Souder in a nervous frame of mind, almost at the door of fits. Only the other day five of these were doing a pyramid act, and Prof. Souder had just climbed up to the top of the head of the beast forming the apex, when the largest elephant gave a keen squeal, and, at this signal, the huge animals turned in opposite directions, and the surprised professor had to jump to save himself from a disagraceful tumble. The elephants got together in a corner, and the shrill blast they blew in unison, showed the knowing that they were in a mood of enjoyment and the joke was on the professor.

"The monkey, too, is one of those wild animals you don't want to get gay with, unless you are prepared to make fun for your friends, and possibly wear a war scratch or two, like a hero of a football scrap. Last season a well-dressed youngster, who had all the ear marks of a rich father and an easy life, wanted to entertain a party of girl friends, and picked out a mild-mannered monkey for an easy subject. He gave the monkey a cigar, with the hot end first.

"The monkey got it good and warm, and screamed with rage. But his mind was equal to the occasion, and with his eyes flashing and his mouth shut tight, he hurled the cigar back at his tormentor. As good or ill-luck would have it, the burning end struck the dude square in the eye, and with a yell of pain he turned hastily away from the cage and sought the relief of a doctor. The monkey began to scream 'chicka, chicka,' again and again at this successful revenge, and all the surrounding animals began to roar as if in intelligent sympathy."

PASSED MUSICAL EXAMINATION.—Professors Bohrer and Illsley, of the Dominion College of Music, after an examination, in which the applicants proved their proficiency in pianoforte playing and technique, awarded certificates to the following young ladies: Intermediate grade, Miss Anna Seguin, Miss Matilda Oger; junior grade, Miss Lilise Mayer, Miss Annie Slattery; elementary grade, Miss Bessie Slattery. These young ladies were pupils of the Congregation de Notre Dame, Pointe Claire, and their success reflects credit alike on themselves and the institution, where, besides a solid course of studies on ordinary subjects, they received such good musical training.

NOT JUST AS GOOD

Did you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 1847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, Forks or Spoons, don't accept any bogus Rogers' stamp because your dealer tells you it's just as good.

TRADE MARK 1847 ROGERS BROS

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Francisco Alasko Kills His Cousin, Who Had Married a Rival Lover.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Francisco Alasko, 24 years ald, shot and killed his first cousin, Mrs. Angelina Faia, 27 years old, early to-day, and then committed suicide by shooting himself in the breast. Mrs. Faia, her husband, Angelo, and Alasko were natives of the little town of Potenza, Italy, and grew up together. Alasko and Faia were rivals for the woman's affections. She married Faia and Alaska appeared to make the best of his disappointment. This morning Faia went out to buy milk and bread for the breakfast. When he returned he was met at the threshold by his daughter, Carmelia, who cried, "Oh, papa, Francisco has shot mamma."

NO ARGUMENT NEEDED.

Every Sufferer From Catarrh Knows That Salves, Lotions, Washes, Sprays and Douches do Not Cure.

Powders, lotions, salves, sprays and inhalers cannot really cure Catarrh, because this disease is a blood disease, and local applications, if they accomplish anything at all, simply give transient relief.

The catarrhal poison is in the blood and the mucous membrane of the nose, throat and trachea tries to relieve the system by secreting large quantities of mucous, the discharge sometimes closing up the nostrils, dropping into the throat, causing deafness by closing the Eustachian tubes, and after a time causing catarrh of stomach or serious throat and lung troubles.

A remedy to really cure catarrh must be an internal remedy which will cleanse the blood from catarrhal poison and remove the fever and congestion from the mucous membrane.

The best and most modern remedies for this purpose are antiseptics scientifically known as Eucalyptol, Guaiacol, Sanguinaria and Hydrastin, and while each of these have been successfully used seperately, yet it has been difficult to get them all combined in one palatable, convenient and efficient form.

The manufacturers of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have succeeded admirably in accomplishing this result. They are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, to be dissolved in the mouth, thus reaching every part of the mucous membrane of the throat and finally the stomach.

Unlike many catarrh remedies, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets contain no cocaine, opiate or any injurious drug, whatever, and are equally beneficial for little children and adults.

Mr. C. R. Rembrandt of Rochester, N. Y., says: "I know of few people who have suffered as much as I from Catarrh of the head, throat and stomach. I used sprays, inhalers and powders for months at a time with only slight relief and had no hope of cure. I had not the means to make a change of climate, which seemed my only chance of cure.

Last spring I read an account of some remarkable cures made by Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and promptly bought a 50-cent box from my druggist and obtained such positive benefit from that one package that I continued to use them daily until I now consider myself entirely free from the disgusting annoyance of catarrh; my head is clear, my digestion all I could ask and my hearing which had begun to fail as a result of the catarrh, has greatly improved until I feel I can hear as well as ever. They are a household necessity in my family.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents for complete treatment and for convenience, safety and prompt results they are undoubtedly the long looked for catarrh cure.

CORNER STONE LAID.

BARON DE HIRSCH INSTITUTE ON BLEURY STREET.

A Notable Event in the Life of the Jewish Colony of Montreal—The Loyalty of Canadian Jews to the Empire—How British Ideas are Inculcated in the Minds of Children.

The corner stone of the new Baron de Hirsch Institute, on Bleury street, was laid yesterday afternoon, with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. D. A. Ansell, president of the Institute, performed the ceremony, and all the leading members of the Jewish colony, as well as the Mayor, and a large number of other leading citizens, were in attendance. The new building, when finished, will be an ornament to the city. It will be of Egyptian design, of cut stone foliage, with six massive pillars in front. The three stories will provide class room for four hundred children, a large assembly hall to seat eight hundred persons, another meteing room fitted to hold a hundred people, a library, reading room, etc. In rear of the building will be a large playground for children. It is proposed later to build on this ground a home or temporary shelter for immigrants.

THOSE PRESENT.

Among those who gathered on the staging around the corner stone were: The Rabbis B. M. Kaplan, Meldola De Sola, E. Friedlander, A. M. Ashinsky, the Rev. Principal MacVicar, Messrs. R. Prefontaine, M.P., R. Bickerdike, M.P.; Jas. Cochrane, M.L.A.; Lt.-Col. A. A. Stevenson, Messrs. D. A. Ansell, Mr. Clarence I. De Sola, Mr. S. W. Jacobs, A. Goldstein, I. Rubenstein, S. Fischel, L. Holstein, Lyon Cohen, M. Coviensky, M. Markus, Principal Baker, Z. Fineberg, A. M. Vineberg, the Misses Rubenstein, Mrs. Fredmann, Mrs. Fischer and Mrs. Jacobs. A letter of regret was also received from Sir Wililam Hingston.

FINE APPEARANCE OF THE CADETS.

The Hirsch Cadets and Zion Cadets, of the Jewish Lads' Battalion, formed a guard of honour, under the command of Captain Levinson, while Captain Harris and Captain Kaplan commanded the units. The young soldiers marched up, headed by the bugle band of the 65th Regiment, and looked quite smart in their neat uniforms, while their marching and evolutions would have done credit to far more pretentious organizations. The girls attending the schools of the institute were also present, with their banner, under the direction of the Principal, Mr. W. H. Baker.

Rabbi B. M. Kaplan, of the German and Polish congregation, opened the proceedings with prayer.

RABBI MELDOLA DE SOLA'S ADDRESS.

He was followed by Rabbi Meldola De Sola, of the Spanish and Portuguese congregation, who delivered an eloquent address. The event they had met to celebrate was an historical one, inasmuch as the Jewish population, for the first time, were laying the corner stone of an institution which was not sectional, but concerned the whole community. While thanking the Divine Author of all blessings, they must remember His instruments, the Baron and Baroness de Hirsch, who had dispensed munificent charity with such wise discrimination. He saw in the institute a three-fold claim upon the community's support. It helped the helpless, hapless and forlorn; it educated the immigrants from Europe in the language and customs of the country, and it fostered loyalty to the British flag, under which their oppressed co-religionists could ever find the fullest liberty.

LOYAL BRITISH SENTIMENT.

The formation of two cadet corps recognized by the Government of the country showed that the Jewish people were prepared to do their share for the defence of the country of their adoption. The selection of the birthday of the Duke of Cornwall and York, the heir apparent to the British throne, for this ceremony had been made with a view to impress on the pupils of the institute sentiments of love and loyalty towards the members of the Royal family. In conclusion, he paid a high compliment to the officers of the Institute for their devoted efforts in the cause of charity, education and patriotism, and appealed to his hearers to assist them to the utmost of their power in the good work.

Rabbi E. Friedlander, of the Temple Emmanuel, then offered a prayer for the Royal family, the Cadets presenting arms.

Mr. D. A. Ansell, the president of the Institute, then formally laid the stone in position.

THE INSCRIPTION.

The inscription on the stone is as follows: "This corner stone was laid by D. A. Ansell, president, June 3, 1901," and in Hebrew characters the Jewish date "Sivam 16, 5661." Beneath it was placed a box containing letters from Mr. B. Levine, president of the Jewish Association of Paris, and Mr. Alfred Cohen, of the Anglo-Jewish Association of London, lists of the officers of the Hirsch Institute, the Hebrew Benevolent Society, and the Young Men's Hebrew Benevolent Society, records of the institute, coins of the Dominion and copies of the current Montreal daily papers.

In laying the stone Mr. Ansell said:

"As you are ware, we all feel a deep sense of gratitude to the most estimable of women, the late Baroness Hirsch de Gerueth, for her generosity in aiding the accomplishment of such a worthy undertaking, and we are, therefore, relieved of much anxiety in being able, with the assistance of the Protestant Board of School Commissioners, to provide education for the children who are brought under our care."

"I declare the corner stone well and truly laid, and may Almighty God bless the good work."

The school children, assisted by the audience, then rendered the hymn, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

PRESENTATION TO MR. D. A. ANSELL

The vice-president, Mr. A. Goldstein, on behalf of the directors, then presented to Mr. D. A. Ansell, a commemorative silver trowel, with an ebony handle, and at the same time moved a vote of thanks to the following terms:

"The pleasant duty has fallen to me, as vice-president of the society, to tender you the thanks of your fellow directors for the work you have just performed, and to express their acknowledgment of the hearty interest you have shown in all the objects of the society, but more particularly in the cause of free education of the children of our Jewish poor, ever since your election to the office of president some eight years ago."

While the foundation of the school is due to the magnificent gifts of the beloved and lamented Baron de Hirsch and his equally beloved and lamented spouse, together with the generous aid of the Jewish Association of Paris, its success is largely due to the zeal and efforts of Mr. D. A. Ansell.

MAYOR PREFONTAINE'S ADDRESS.

Mayor Prefontaine said that he had known the institute for many years, and as a member of the School Board he had watched its work with interest. He congratulated the institute on the success achieved, and paid a tribute to the charity. The Baron de Hirsch Institute made no distinction in questions of nationality, and he believed that was the proper spirit in which to educate the young in a country like ours. They were setting a noble example to this cosmopolitan city, and to the whole Dominion, where people of so many races and creeds were called to dwell together in peace and harmony.

Rev. Principal MacVicar, as chairman of the Protestant Board of School Commissioners, was pleased to have this opportunity to express the sympathy of the board with the good work of the institute. He was fully convinced of the true patriotism of the policy which welcomed under the glorious British flag the oppressed of other lands. He had lived in this city for forty years, and he could agree with His Worship the Mayor in his tribute to the good feeling which existed in this city between the people of different races and creeds. He would rejoice at the introduction of a uniform system of education for the boys and girls of all nationalities and creeds.

Mr. R. Bickerdike, M.P., as the parliamentary representative of the division, was glad of the opportunity to pay a tribute to the good work of the institute. The Jewish race had furnished statesmen who had defended well and truly the honour of the British Empire, and he was confident that they would do so again.

Mr. James Cochrand, M.L.A., and Lieut.-Col. A. A. Stevenson also added a few words in appreciation of the good work, after which Rabbi A. M. Ashinsky, of B'nai Jacob, offered the closing prayer in Hebrew. The singing of the National Anthem closed the proceedings.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

MEGANTIC'S AQUEDUCT—Mr. J. O. A. Laforest, former superintendent of the City Water Works, has been granted the contract for the aqueduct of Megantic at $38,885.

A NEW PULP COMPANY. — A new company, called the Metabetchouan Pulp Company, is in process of formation with a capital of $150,000, divided into 1,500 shares of $100 each.

THE 65TH REGIMENT VISITS ST. JEROME — The 65th Regiment paid a visit to St. Jerome on Sunday. They attended church and were given a nice reception. In the evening, an entertainment was given in their honour.

C. P. R. PHOTOGRAPHING CAR.—The Canadian Pacific Railway's photographing car, in charge of Mr. Clark, went west on Sunday night, and will remain in the Yoho Valley region during the summer months.

AN INTERCOLONIAL APPOINTMENT.—Mr. E. G. Russell, manager of the Intercolonial Railway, has appointed Mr. E. T. Howe, a man of wide experience on American railways, to the position of his assistant.

ROBERT JONES CONVALESCENT HOSPITAL.—The members of the corporation of the Robert Jones Convalescent Hospital, at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon, adjourned at the call of the president, without transacting any business.

THREE FINGERS TAKEN OFF. — A. Lalime, while at work on some machinery at 25 Bleury street, about eleven o'clock yesterday, got his right hand caught, and three fingers were taken off. He was removed to the General Hospital for treatment.

THE PLATFORM COLLAPSED.—The platform at the top of the steps in front of St. Gabriel's Church collapsed on Sunday, while three or four hundred people—who were making the jubilee procession—were coming out. Fortunately, the most serious injury consisted in slight bruises.

CUSTOMS EMPLOYE DEAD.—Henry Murren, who died at his home at 379 Mance street Sunday, was for thirty-five years employed in the customs office with the rank of tide waiter. Of late years he had been in the landing waiters' office, and on Saturday last was superannuated. He was 70 years old.

BROKE HIS LEG IN THE SHIP.—William Hendrie, one of the stewards on board the Allan Line SS. Australasian, fell into the hold yesterday, shortly after eight o'clock. When picked up it was found that he had broken his right leg. He was removed to the General Hospital, where he received the necessary attendance.

FREE MILK ASSOCIATION.—The Free Milk Association will open its first distributing depot, 1104 Ontario street, in about a fortnight. The following are the directors: Mr. F. L. Beique, president of the St. Jean Baptiste Society; Mr. Raphael Bellemare, president of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul; Mr. F. X. St. Charles, president of the Hochelaga Bank, and Mr. Rodolphe Forget.

NEW CLOTHING MANUFACTURING CO.—G. H. Harrower, R. A. Dunton, Alfred Walford, F. G. Roe and Joel C. Baker give notice in the Quebec Official Gazette that they will apply to the Lieutenant-Governor for a charter of incorporation, under the name of G. H. Harrower Company, limited, with a capital stock of $50,000, to carry on the business of manufacturing men's and women's clothing.

LIQUOR LICENSE COMMISSIONERS.—The following licenses were signed by the Liquor License Commissioners yesterday: Marie Drolet, 125 Commissioners street; John Knox Joyce, restaurant, 122 Windsor street; Alice Oviat, temperance hotel, 711 Craig street; Henry Renaud, restaurant, 1873 St. Catherine street; and Octave Leblanc, 1929 St. Catherine street. The 400 liquor certificates have now been all granted.

INSPECTOR OF TOBACCO MANUFACTORIES—It is announced from Ottawa, that Mr. H. Lawlor, who has been Collector of Inland Revenue in Montreal for the past eight years, has been appointed Inspector of Tobacco Manufactories. Mr. Lawlor states that as yet he has received no official notification of the appointment. He has been connected with the Inland Revenue Department in Montreal for the past twenty-two years.

The Standard of "Dewar's Whiskey" has always been maintained, therein lies the secret of its success.

Lactated Food.

A PERFECT SUBSTITUTE FOR MOTHERS' MILK.

Lactated Food has met with the greatest favor at the hands of the medical profession. It is the most perfect infant nourishment that mothers can procure for babies who cannot get sufficient breast-feeding. It agrees with the weakest stomach; all babies relish it and thrive wonderfully on it.

Lactated Food possesses all the important constituents of pure breast milk, making it the most valuable diet for infants in the hot weather. Lactated Food, being sweetened with sugar of milk, renders it invaluable for overcoming any irritable condition of the stomach and bowels. It wards off diarrhoea, dysentery and cholera infantum. Tens of thousands of mothers use it and find it the best.

If you would have your baby sleep sweetly and naturally, and grow up bright and happy, use Lactated Food. Ask your druggist or dealer for it. 130 1

PROCTOR'S.

The bill at Proctor's this week is one of the best that has been given since the house opened, with vaudeville. The audience was fairly large and thoroughly enjoyed itself. Several numbers were enthusiastically encored, especially one by Mansfield and Wilbur, called "A Bird and a Bottle." Harry Tsudo, a Japanese equilibrist, did some very clever work on a rolling ball, besides some good tumbling. Thurman, a card manipulator, came next, his work being much appreciated. Gertrude Mansfield and Caryl Wilbur, then introduced their sketch, "O Bird and a Bottle," one of the cleverest, if not the best, presented this season. It is a skit on the female doctor, and Wilbur got all the laughs he possibly could out of it. Miss Mansfield is a protege of Mr. Proctor, being a daughter of his partner, when he was in the circus business twenty-five years ago. Eddie Heron & Co. presented their sketch, "A Friend in the Family," which is very funny, and afforded Heron an opportunity for the display of his droll humour. He is assisted by Ethel Milton and W. L. White. Adele Purvis Ouri, as "The Geisha," in her juggling and balancing act on the revolving ball, is a strong feature. She concludes with what she terms a spherical sepentine dance, in which she is assited by Tsudo. The coloured lights are most effective. Hill and Wittaker do a musical turn, which consists of a banjo duet and some coon songs by Miss Wittaker with banjo accompaniment. Miss Wittaker is much after the style of Marie Dressler, and made a big hit. Barr and Evans are comedy entertainers, but much of their turn is of the coarse order. A number of new and also some old views were shown by the kaletechnoscope. This is the last week of straight vaudeville.

THEATRE FRANCAIS.

Hazel Kirke—a play without a villain—was the offering at the Theatre Francais last night. Most of us have seen this drama of real life before, and probably we shall all see it again. It belongs to a class; it goes on and on and on; and why not? As revived by the Baldwin-Melville Stock Company, there was a handsome lover and lass—two of each, in fact. There was a picturesquely stern old father, and a pathetically obedient mother, and a proud, stern mother, who sought to keep apart her son and the girl of his choice. There was, too, a really funny Irishman, who did ridiculous things, and looked even more ridiculous. There was also a good old gentleman, who forgave debts, tore up mortgages, renounced his loved one and did many other things to make the rest of the people happy. And in the end they were all happy.

What more is wanted?

Then, too, there was Pittacus Green. But everyone knows Pit. He was capital in the hands of Mr. Deming. If Pit's lines were spoken slowly they wouldn't be funny. They are made up of bad puns, garbled quotations, half rhymes and a play upon words—a style of "humour" that has passed out of fashion. But Mr. Deming has an agile tongue, and he rushed through the part in a manner that prevented understanding, but excited laughter. Hazel Kirke was in the hands of Miss Odell. She gave an altogether artistic depiction of the miller's daughter, my lord's lady, and the broken-hearted wife. Mr. Kolker was Travers. His work was evenly good. Mr. Hart's character work was conspicuous once more as Dunstan Kirke. The other principal members of the cast were Mr. Day as Rodney, Mr. Gibson as Barney, Miss McGregor as Mercy, Miss Seymour as Dolly and Miss Moore as Lady Travers.

The play was well received by the audience. It was artistically staged and costumed. The ladies' gowns in the second act were particularly noticeable.

THEATRE ROYAL.

The Theatre Royal is running the end of the season out with the best plays it has had since the opening. This week a new play entitled "A Royal Prisoner," is being produced. It deals with a story of Russian intrigue, and while dabbling here and there in historical suggestions, must be set down as more of a comedy drama than a play founded on fact and taken seriously. The leading role is played by Mr. True S. James, a young actor, who has the polish of a veteran, and a keen conception of humour. He will become one of Montreal's favourites without any doubt. Frank Allen's Count is a good bit of work, and Adelbert Knott got much out of the Major. Walter Horton did some of the best work of the production. Two little ladies, the Misses Knott, once more return to Montreal, and are seen to fair advantage in this piece. Many friends will pay the Royal a visit this week if only to see them. Miss Alice Keen looks haughty enough for any duchess. There is some nice scenery used, and altogether it is a very creditable performance.

SOHMER PARK.

Sohmer Park is putting up another splendid programme this week and the many encores last night testified to the popularity of the selections. The quartette of singers added much to their reputation by their rendition of several operatic numbers. Signor Ciaperelli was in excellent voice and was recalled many times before people were satisfied. The trapeze work of the Bicket family appeared little short of marvellous. They have introduced several new features this week that are even more wonderful than what they did last week. They will close their engagement at the end of this week. The new comers are the Lenton brothers, two very funny acrobats. They are not only excellent humourists, but their acrobatic work is good. Marmant, the comic singer, is always welcome at the Park. He sang a number of catchy songs that took immensely. The band members are now used to each other's methods, and the result is some splendid music. The carousal for the children is again in running order, and many enjoyed it yesterday.

EGGS A LA GLYCERINE.

TORONTO, June 4.—The suit against William Meldrum & Co., of Montreal, which D. D. Wilson, of Seaforth, is bringing, is causing much consternation among egg dealers. A meeting of egg dealers from all over Canada was held here to-day to consider the question the suit involves. It appears that Mr. Wilson claims that eighteen months ago he invented and patented the glycerine process of preserving eggs, by which, after being limed, they are dipped in glycerine to preserve the colour and freshness. Of eight million dozen eggs exported from Canada last year, 70 per cent. were subjected to the glycerine process. Mr. Wilson wants a royalty of a cent a dozen, an enormous sum in the aggregate, and dealers have decided to take part in the fight against his claim. One man to-day said he had used glycerine for six years, and that it was used in Denmark quite commonly. Among those present who will oppose the royalty claim were: William Hunter, Montreal; H. P. Clemes, Port Perry; William Flavelle, Lindsay; J. H. Walker, Detroit; T. E. Moore, Waterloo, and John Nicholls, Waterloo. A permanent association of egg dealers will be formed.

NEW GOVERNMENT STEAMER.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—The contract for the new twin screw Government steamship to replace the old Druid will probably go to Messrs. Fleming and Ferguson, of Paisley, Scotland. This firm a week or two ago obtained the contract for the new vessel to replace the steamer. Newfield, which was wrecked last fall. Captain McElhinney, nautical adviser to the Marine Department, will start for England next week. There he will join Sir Louis Davies and the two will proceed to Paisley to arrange for the commencement of the work.

A shooting affray took place in Metropolist, Ill., on Monday night. M. Covington, a hotelkeeper, shot and fatally injured Marshal W. E. Oakes. The marshal subsequently fired three shots at his assailant, killing him instantly.

STEEN CONTROVERSY

LIKELY TO COME UP AT NEXT SESSION OF SYNOD.

A Discussion as to the Rights of the Clergy and Laity — The Question Whether a Bishop Can Condemn a Clergyman Without Trial to be Raised by Prof. Steen's Friends.

The Steen controversy, it was learned this morning, is likely to result in a vigourous discussion at the next annual session of the Anglican Synod of Montreal, in the course of which, it is said, an effort will be made to reach an understanding in regard to the relative rights of the clergy and laity of the church in this diocese. A prominent churchman said to a Star reporter this morning: "The matter will most assuredly come up in some form or another at the next Synod, and I anticipate a long discussion on several of the points brought out during the controversy. I may say that the question of Mr. Steen's orthodoxy does not enter into the matter at all, in so far as I am concerned.

"Mr. Steen, I am sure, has many friends, who have undoubted faith in the inspiration of the Holy Scriptures, and among these are several of his backers. It is not because they hold the opinions he is alleged to hold in regard to inspiration that they are supporting him. Rather is it because they believe he should have had a trial before being condemned. If the canon law of the church is such that a bishop can condemn a clergyman without a trial, then it is time to make such a change in that law as will make a repetition of such an action an impossibility. When charges are made against a clergyman, the parties making them should substantiate them in a properly constituted ecclesiastical court, and, in my opinion, they should be the first to move in securing that trial. The present canon which makes it necessary for the clergyman, against whom a charge is made to take the initiative towards bringing on a trial, is entirely wrong."

Y. M. C. A. JUBILEE EXERCISES

Delegates From Britain and the Continent Beginning to Arrive in Montreal—Mr. John R. Mott, of New York, Here.

The delegates from Great Britain and the continent, who are to attend the jubilee exercises of the Y.M.C.A. in this city on Sunday and Monday next, are beginning to arrive in Montreal. Mr. Thomas Jameson, secretary of the Liverpool Association, and Pasteur R. Meyhoffer and wife, of Brussels, Belgium, have already reached the city, and are the guests of prominent Y.M.C.A. members here. Mr. John R. Mott, of New York, senior college secretary of the association, will arrive tomorrow.

After graduation from Cornell University, in 1888, Mr. Mott was called to be one of the secretaries of the Student Department, and in 1891, when C. K. Ober, his associate, became field secretary, Mr. Mott became senior secretary of this department. The Student Volunteer Movement, which spread throughout the colleges of the country as an outgrowth of the first Northfield Student Conference in 1886, needed more thorough organization, and Mr. Mott was appointed chairman of the executive committee in 1888, and since then has guided the movement. The three conventions of the Student Volunteer Movement, two of which were held at Cleveland, and one at Detroit, were presided over by Mr. Mott. These were the largest student gatherings which have been held, not only in this country, but anywhere in the world. Between 1890 and 1895 Mr. Mott made several trips to England and the continent in order to promote christian work among the students of Europe. In 1895 representatives of these movements and of the North American Student Movement gathered in conference at Vadstena, in Sweden, and organized the World's Student Christian Federation. Mr. Mott was the unanimous choice of this conference for general secretary. By request of the executive committee, and upon invitation from the students of the Orient, he made a tour of eighteen months to promote the organization of Christian work among the students of the far East. He visited colleges in the Levant, India, Ceylon, Australasia, China and Japan. In all of these countries student Christian organizations were founded, large Christian student conventions held, and national movements of students formed which were admitted to the Federation.

In response to calls from leading student centres in the Orient, secretaries have been sent out by the International Committee to develop Christian work. Mr. Mott's contact with students led to his selection as the home administrator of this department of the American Associations.

P. D. OGDEN FOUND GUILTY.

The Jury Find Charge of Altering Forged Documents Correct One.

The case of P. D. Ogden, charged with uttering a forged document, was resumed in the Court of King's Bench, to-day. The judge decided at the opening that the evidence given by the prisoner at the preliminary investigation could not now be used as Mr. Ogden had not been notified beforehand, according to law, that all his testimony might be used against him. Stenographer Lamox was then called in the witness box and he read part of that evidence in which the accused had refused to give his right address, lest some disgrace might ensue to his family.

Mr. T. H. Trihey, counsel for the accused, then addressed the jury. He laid particular stress on the fact that the complainants in the case had not denied their signatures and admitted paying money on the strength of a contract in 1899 and 1900. Nothing had been adduced to show that Ogden had acted in bad faith.

After the Crown Prosecutor's address, Sir Alexander Lacoste made his charge to the jury. His Honour did not accept the theory that the folding or clipping of the discontinuance slip in this case could make it a contract. The first thing to be proved was forgery and the evidence of one witness was not sufficient for that. If the document had been signed, no matter for what motive, it was not a forgery. There was something mysterious in the case, but whether or not the prisoner had committed the fraud was hard to say. The jury retired at 12.15 o'clock and at one o'clock when the court adjourned they had not yet agreed as to their verdicts.

When the jury were recalled after recess they brought in a verdict of guilty.

FRESH AT NIGHT.

If One Uses the Right Kind of Food.

If by proper selection of food one can feel strong and fresh at the end of a day's work, it is worth while to know the kind of food that will produce this result.

A school teacher of Media, Kan., says in this connection: "I commenced the use of Grape-Nuts Food five months ago. At that time my health was so poor that I thought I would have to give up my work altogether. I was rapidly losing in weight, had little appetite, was nervous and sleepless, and experienced, almost constantly, a feeling of exhaustion. I tried various remedies without good results, then I determined to give particular attention to my food, and have learned something of the properties of Grape-Nuts for rebuilding the brain and nerve centres.

I commenced using that food and have since made a constant and rapid improvement in health in spite of the fact that all this time I have been engaged in the most strenuous and exacting work.

I have gained twelve pounds in weight and have a good appetite, my nerves are steady and I sleep sound. I have such strength and reserve force that I feel almost as strong and fresh at the close of a day's work as at the beginning.

Before using Grape-Nuts I was troubled much with weak eyes, but as my vitality increased the eyes became stronger. I never heard of food as nutritious and economical as Grape-Nuts. Please omit my name from print." Name can be given by Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich. 130 1

WELCOME THE PRINCE

STREETS MUST BE CLEAN AND PAVEMENTS REPAIRED,

Contractors for Asphalt Roadways Being Compelled to Carry Out Terms of Their Guarantees—Repairs to the City Hall Causing Aldermen Much Uneasiness.

The City Surveyor received reports today as to repairs that have just been made by contractors to asphalted streets in various parts of the city. Contractors are making more repairs than usual this spring owing to the motion that was recently passed in council threatening to take contractors' deposits unless they did so. The report in question shows that pavements have been repaired on the following streets:

"Those made to date by the Sicily Asphalt Company: On Murray street, McCord, Bleury, St. Catherine, Beaver Hall Hill, Philips square, Dorchester, St. Lawrence, Notre Dame, Chaboillez square and St. Denis street.

The Bellhouse, Dillon Company has repaired Craig street from Lacroix to St. Lowrence streets.

The Northern Paving Company is repairing Craig from St. Lawrence to Bleury streets. These contractors are also busily engaged repairing other streets.

Repairs are being made by the city to asphalt along the car tracks in many streets, also repairs on St. James street, from McGill street to the Court House, Notre Dame street, from Lacroix street to St. Lambert Hill, and on side streets from Lacroix street to McGill.

The above report gave much satisfaction to the aldermen this morning, who had been working to have the streets put in a better condition. The city is having trouble with only one contractor. He has filed certain reasons why he is not legally bound to make repairs. If these reasons are not found to be weighty enough, the contractor will have his deposit seized by the corporation and the repairs will be made.

TO RECEIVE THE PRINCE.

Many aldermen are also anxious to have the streets put quickly in order so they will be in good state when Prince George and his party arrives. They point out that it would be a disgraceful state of affairs to have yawning holes over the city when the royal visitors were being shown around. In this connection it may be said that there was much unpleasantness at the City Hall to-day over the contemplated repairs which are to be made to the City Hall in order that the Civic Palace may be in good condition when a reception is given there to His Royal Highness. Speaking of the difficulty an alderman said: "The City Hall now is in a most dirty condition and in no wise fit for a reception. The mayor desired that a lump sum of fifteen thousand dollars should be voted for the reception of the visitors, and out of this sum a certain amount could have been taken to put the City Hall in good order. This course has not been followed and only ten thousand dollars has been voted. It is true that the Finance Committee has promised to vote an additional five thousand dollars so the place may be put in some kind of shape, but as this amount will have to go to a special committee, and not to the general reception committee, certain aldermen say they will have nothing whatever to do with the repairs. It is too bad that there should be trouble at the outset over the voting of this reception money. It is certainly intended that there will be a grand reception at the City Hall, and so it will have to be painted, varnished and made look respectable. Now there is division among the aldermen over the work. Anyway, the streets are being repaired and that is something to be devoutly thankful for."

SIR WM. VAN HORNE'S TRIP.

Has Gone to Cuba in the Interests of His Cuba Railway Scheme.

Sir William Van Horne left for New York Sunday night, and will sail from there for Cuba on Friday. His mission to the island at this time is in connection with his great railway enterprises there, and to make such arrangements as will be in consonance with the present status of Cuba, as a country, which, since the Washington Government is not satisfied with the modifications made in the Platt amendment by the Cuban Constitutional Convention, is little more than a ward of the United States.

Under the relationship of the island to the United States, until the Platt amendment—a document in which the Cuban people can see nothing in common with absolute independence for them, if accepted—shall have been unconditionally accepted and the American forces withdrawn, there exists in Cuba no government which has the power to grant franchises, rights of way, and other privileges necessary to the construction of railway lines through the island. Nor can the American Government give them, for Congress, by special enactment, has made this impossible.

But at Sir William's office the Star was told this morning that the construction of railway lines was being pushed along as rapidly as possible, and it was not known that any obstacles had been raised to their further progress in consequence of the latest phase of the Cuba-American controversy.

Sir William will not return home before the middle of July.

WILL HONOUR THE PREMIER.

Programme of the Demonstration Which Will be Tendered Sir Wilfrid Laurier at L'Assomption.

The Premier, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, accompanied by Lady Laurier and Hon. J. I. Tarte, Minister of Public Works, will arrive in the city on Monday evening next, and will stay at the Windsor Hotel until the following morning, when the party will proceed by street car at 9.30 to Maisonneuve, where they will transfer to the Montreal Terminal Electric Company's system. The Premier will receive addresses from the citizens of Maisonneuve, Bout de L'Ile, Riviere des Prairies, Point aux Trembles, Charlemagne, and St. Paul l'Hermite. On reaching L'Assomption, the Premier and his party will receive a magnificent demonstration. It will be a non-political affair, in which the citizens of the town and county will combine, without regard to politics. At night a banquet—also of a non-political character—will be held. At noon, on the 12th, Sir Wilfrid's Alma Mater, L'Assomption College, will hold a reception in his honour.

THE SKIN DIAMOND HAS GONE

And the Montreal Baseball Team When Returning Will Find Things Nice and Sodded.

When the baseball enthusiasts assemble at the ball park on or about June 17, to welcome the Royals back, they will find the teams playing on a grass diamond. The work of sodding has been completed and the ground keepers are now putting on the finishing touches with the hose and roller. Heretofore the Montreal club is the only one which has been playing on a skin diamond. The result has been that they have suffered considerably while away from home owing to the difference in the grounds on which they have to play. The game as played on a skin diamond is much faster than when played on grass. The big circle outside the diamond has not been sodded, neither has the base running path.

THE WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for the next twenty-four hours, as predicted for the Star at 11 a.m. to-day: Moderate winds; fine and warm. Wednesday fine and warmer.

Maximum and minimum temperatures during the past twenty-four hours: Victoria, 52, 40; Kamloops, 62, 40; Calgary, 58, 36; Edmonton, 63, 40; Prince Albert, 46, 38; Qu'Appelle, 63, 48; Winnipeg, 80, 60; Port Arthur, 62, 46; Parry Sound, 64, 42; Toronto, 72, 44; Ottawa, 66, 52; Montreal, 58, 54; Quebec, 62, 42; Halifax, 56, 50.

BRIBING A WITNESS.

A TRIAL RESULTING FROM BARSALOU ARSON CASE.

John Hoolahan Found Guilty of Attempted Subordination of Perjury in Offering a Man Named Plamondon Twenty-five Dollars to Swear Falsely.

After many postponements of his case, and many attempts to have it dropped altogether, John Hoolahan, who was mixed up in the famous Barsalou arson case, was this morning found guilty of attempted subornation of perjury, and attempting to obstruct the course of justice. The case has attracted a great deal of interest, as the condemned man is well known.

It was shown by the Crown in the Barsalou case that certain cans which had contained oil were provided by Barsalou, and that it was the oil and varnish from these that was spread around the house that was to have been burned down. Hoolahan, as a friend of Barsalou, tried to prepare a reply to this by endeavouring to get a man named Plamondon to swear that Landreman a Crown witness had stolen the cans and had himself tried to set the place on fire without the knowledge of Barsalou. According to the evidence Hoolahan showed Plamondon over certain ground and told him just what to swear to offering him $25 if he carried out his part of the affair successfully. The prosecution got a tip as to the condition of affairs and Plamondon was put in the witness box at the former trial. He took an oath as to Hoolahan's attempt to bribe him, and Hoolahan was arrested. This morning Mr. J.C. Walsh, acting for him, put up a good defence but the evidence was overwhelming. In giving judgment, Judge Choquet said that although Plamondon had been proved to be a drunkard, nothing had been presented to show that he was a perjurer; Hoolahan had sworn to the very opposite of all that Plamondon said, but the latter's testimony had been to a large extent corroborated by other witnesses. The evidence showed the guilt of the accused and he must be found guilty. Sentence will be delivered on Thursday.

IN AND AROUND THE CITY.

THANKS HER FRIENDS—Mrs. Harold Wadge, Montreal Annex, desires to thank her many friends, as also those of her late husband, for their kind expressions of sympathy with herself and family in their recent bereavement.

EXAMINATIONS FOR STENOGRAPHERS. — Mr. Robert Taschereau, secretary of the Montreal Bar, has sent notices that the examinations for stenographers will take place next Saturday at 10.30 a. m., at the Council's Chamber, fourth floor of the Court House.

GUILTY OF STEALING ROPE.—John Clancy charged with stealing a roll of rope valued at $4.00, from the Consumers' Cordage Company, was found guilty, after half an hour's trial, at the Court of King's Bench this morning. He had no lawyer and produced no witnesses.

SENT TO GAOL FOR STEALING FROM EMPLOYER. — For having stolen goods to the amount of about $10 from W. H. Scroggie, Valmar Jobin was to-day sent to gaol for fifteen days by Magistrate Lafontaine. Jobin, while working for Mr. Scroggie sent articles to his home which he did not pay for.

A VERDICT OF SUICIDE.—Coroner McMahon held an inquest this morning at Notre Dame Hospital on the body of Mrs. Joseph Normandin, the deaf and dumb woman who poisoned herself yesterday at her residence, Deslauriers avenue. After hearing the evidence the jury returned a verdict of "Suicide."

A DISHONEST COLLECTOR.—James Carmichael pleaded guilty to-day before Magistrate Lafontaine to a charge of stealing $7.50 from his employers, the Blade Express Company. He had been acting for some time as a collector and had failed to turn in sums of money. He was sent to gaol for one month.

WANTS DAMAGES FOR A BROKEN LEG.—Mr. Justice Davidson authorized this morning, Mr. Cleophas Cote, to take an action in forma pauperis, for $1999.99 against the Canadian Brewery Company. Mr. Cote broke his leg while walking in the company's establishment and he holds them responsible for the accident, on the ground that the floor was badly kept through carelessness.

ST. PATRICK'S CHURCH LAWN PARTY—Great preparations are being made by the ladies of St. Patrick's congregation for a lawn party, which is to be held in the spacious yard of the orphanage on Dorchester street, adjoining the church. The affair has been fixed for June 12th and 13th, and the committee in charge is determined to make it a more brilliant succes than any preceeding celebration of its kind.

BILL POSTERS' TRUST.—The latest trust in contemplation is one to include the Bill Posters of the United States and Canada. Delegates from the International Bill Posters' Association of the United States have been offering large sums to buy out the bill posting concerns in this city and in Quebec, but so far without success. Those who have refused the offers have been invited to attend the meeting of the International Bill Posters' Association, to be held in Buffalo, on July 7 next.

COMPLAINT AGAINST A SHIP CARPENTER.—The captain of SS. Bawtry appeared as complainant in the Police Court to-day against a ship carpenter named Francis Pinn. The captain said that the man had left the ship and had refused to return. Pinn says that he was given work to do that was not his and that when he protested he was told if he did not do it he would be thumped. This was a plea of not guilty and the Magistrate remanded him in gaol until to-morrow for trial.

CAPTAIN MATTHEWS LOSES LEG—Captain G. H. Matthews, the well known broker, has undergone a most successful operation, by which one of his legs, which has troubled him for a long time, has been amputated, and he will be, in all probability, as well as ever he was in his life. Captain Matthews has bene lame for a long time, and after much deliberation it was decided to submit to the operation, which took place in the Montreal General Hospital a short time ago. He has so far recovered that he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

MRS. WILLIAM EAGAN'S DEATH.—Mrs. William Eagan died yesterday afternoon, at Notre Dame Hospital, to which institution she had been removed two or three days ago, by order of Captain Clark, of No. 4 police station. On Sunday afternoon the Captain was informed that a woman was dying in a destitute condition, at 335 Cadieux street. Going to the house with a couple of his men the captain found that the rooms were in a most neglected condition and the poor woman, who was about sixty years of age, lying helpless in bed. She was removed to the hospital and received attention, but succumbed to illness yesterday.

THE DEBT OF A MAN'S WIFE—Mr. Justice Davidson decided this morning that a creditor cannot take a seizure in the hands of a man for a debt owing by the latter's wife. The case was that of Wilfrid Page against Mrs. Francois Beauchamp. Plaintiff had obtained judgment against defendant for $50, and he had a writ of attachment issued in the hands of Mr. Beauchamp, who declared that he owed no money to his wife, unless it be $800 which he had bestowed on her in his marriage contract, his intention being that she were entitled to the amount at the time of his death. The court held that this did not form a gift inter vivos, which was only completed when accepted and delivered. The seizure was therefore dismissed.

RECORD RUN.

The steamer "Simonsides" Captain Garrow, which left this port last Friday, bound for Liverpool, had on board a record load of deals, tonnage of vessel (1956) considered. She steamed away without a hitch, with 1608 St. Petersburgh standard.

VOLUME OF TRADE.

COMPARATIVE REVIEW OF SHIPMENTS FROM PORT MONTREAL.

Prospects of a Record Year in Shipment of Peas and Flour — Falling Off of Three-Quarters of Million Bushels in Wheat—Bad Year for Cheese Due to High Price of Butter.

Of all exports from the port of Montreal this year, the greatest increase is shown in peas and flour, while the largest decrease is in wheat and corn. The shipment of peas to Europe this season has more than doubled as compared with a corresponding period last year, while the falling off in wheat from the opening of navigation up to the first of June amounts to about three-quarters of a million bushels.

From the opening of navigation to June 1st last year, the shipment of wheat amounted to 2,271,000 bushels, while for the same period this year the European shipments amount to 1,639,000 bushels. In corn the decrease is not quite so large. From the opening of navigation this year up to the first of June the shipments of corn amount to 1,008,000 bushels, while for a corresponding period last year the amount was 1,490,000 bushels.

RECORD YEAR FOR PEAS.

The shipment of peas is astonishingly large and bids fair to be a record year for this product. The shipments from the opening of navigation to the first of June in the present year amount to 214,000 bushels, as compared with 101,000 bushels for a corresponding period last year. In flour the increase in exports is also very gratifying. Last year the exports from Montreal to foreign parts from the opening of navigation until the first of June, amounted to 36,000 barrels, while this year for the same period the total is 54,000 barrels. Among the other articles of export which show increases over last year are oats, rye and butter. In oats the increase is very slight, being 905,000 bushels last year from the opening of navigation until the first of June, as compared with 908,000 bushels for the same period this year.

The largest proportionate increase is in butter, showing that the Canadian article is fast getting a permanent foothold in the foreign markets. The shipments for the present season of navigation via the St. Lawrence amounted to 15,000 packages, as compared with 4,000 packages for the same period last year. In barley shipments there is also a very large increase. From the opening of navigation to the first of June this year, the shipments to foreign parts from the port of Montreal amounted to 280,000 bushels, as compared with 175,000 for the corresponding period last year. Rye shipments have increased from 100,000 bushels last year to 172,000 for a corresponding period the present spring.

BAD YEAR FOR CHEESE.

The cheese shipments are very much behind last year, being 58,000 packages from the opening of navigation up to the first of June, as compared with 124,000 last year. The main reason given for this dropping off in cheese exports is the fact that there was little or no fodder cheese made, and as a consequence the early shipments were small. The farmers were advised not to make fodder cheese, the principal reason being that it was not wanted in Great Britain. Another reason assigned for the non-manufacture of cheese early in the season was that butter was high and it paid the farmer better to manufacture it rather than cheese.

THE TORONTO-CAPITAL GAME.

It is Still Creating a Great Deal of Talk in Lacrosse Circles—Opinions of Various Clubs.

The decision of President Pittaway, of the Senior Lacrosse League, is still creating a great deal of talk. The concensus of opinion among the Lacrosse Clubs here seems to be that if the Senior League meets to decide upon President Pittaway's action in regard to the Toronto-Capital match, it will be decided to allow things to stand as they stood before last Saturday.

Mr. Bramley, the president of the Montreal club, speaking simply as an individual, said that he thought Mr. Pittaway had done the only thing he could have done. The question of letting matters stand as they were, now that Toronto had received a lesson and a warning, was something that would be properly discussed later.

Mr. Dumouchel, speaking for the Nationals, said that although the Nationals had given their sanction to the rule at the convention, they had since come to the conclusion that it was a very foolish one. There was no doubt in his mind, but Toronto should be given the match. The rule was bad and gave an opportunity, or rather left a loophole for undignified speculations, if clubs were so inclined, because if a club wanted to make two gates, or two clubs want to double their gates, all they would have to do would be to instruct their secretaries to neglect to send in the return, and then the league would in all probability order the match to be played over again.

'VARSITY WANTS M'GILL NEWS.

McGill Will Not Take Any Action Till Further News is Received from the Oxford-Cambridge Men.

The McGill University Athletic Association received a letter from Toronto 'Varsity Athletic Association to-day, asking if any further information than that imparted in the joint letter from Oxford and Cambridge people, received in Toronto on Friday last, and by McGill yesterday, had been received from England regarding the proposed visit of the English University Athletes. At the college it was stated to a Star representative that nothing further has been received. It is not likely that any further action will be taken by the McGill people until they hear definitely from the English athletes that they are coming and, of course, this all depends on the arrangements which they may make with the American college athletes, Yale and Harvard.

It it hinted that the Americans want them to come over to New York, and do their training there, thus hoping to gain an advantage by having the Englishmen go stale in a climate which will not be suitable to them. This it is said is just what the Englishmen want to avoid, and their only reason in coming to Canada is to put in two or three weeks training in the cooler climate. They are not going to take the risk of being caught out of form as was the case when the London Athletic Club representatives met the men of the winged foot in New York a few years back.

MONTREAL GOES TO BROOKLYN

The much talked of trip to Brooklyn, by the Montreal Lacrosse Club, will take place this week, and on Saturday the team will play the Crescents of Brooklyn, a game on the latter's grounds. The team that is to go has not yet been decided upon, but whoever composes it, will have a hard game to go up against to judge from the way in which the Torontos were treated last Saturday. They will also run up against a few old Montrealers, and their own particular friend Mr. Liffiton.

They will leave here on Friday.

IN CHARGE OF THE HORSES.—The remount horses which were shipped on the Iona for South Africa were sent in charge of Dr. Tamblyn, veterinary surgeon, 34 Union avenue. Mr. James de L. Cherry went as Dr. Tamblyn's assistant.

BIRTHS.

BARNS—At Truro, N.S., May 31st, 1901, to Mr. and Mrs. Byron N. Barns, a daughter.

DEATHS.

QUELCH—In this city, on the 4th June, at 28 Busby street, Joseph (Josie), second eldest son of Joseph Quelch, and dearly beloved nephew of M. J. Quelch, aged 18 years 5 months and 11 days. Funeral notice later.

OUR MARRIAGE LAW.

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE DISCUSSED IT.

All Classes of People Should Have Their Rights Unrestricted — Dr. Williams Presents a Further Report Dealing With the Finances of St. James Church.

(Special to the Star.)

PEMBROKE, June 4.—When the Montreal Methodist Conference opened this morning, Rev. Dr. Shaw presented the educational report, showing an increase of income of over $600 from this conference. He also presented a report of a committee appointed last year concerning the relation of civil law to marriage in the province of Quebec, consisting of Rev. Drs. Williams, Shaw and Jackson, and R. C. Smith, K.C., and A. R. Oughtred, B.C.L., presented an interim report.

The following propositions were presented and adopted unanimously:

1.—That all parties should have their right and liberty unrestricted to seek the solemnization of matrimony in the province of Quebec, from any minister of religion they may choose, when he is duly qualified as a competent civil officer for such purpose.

2.—That no religious denomination should have the right to intervene and declare a marriage null when solemnized by a duly qualified minister of religion and in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Code. We admit that in the exercise of its legitimate functions a church may administer and impose what ecclesiastical penalties its members may voluntarily endure for seeking solemnization of matrimony from other than their own clergy, but we protest against the ecclesiastical authorities of any denomination taking any legal process which would be recognized by civil courts as determining when solemnization of a marriage is legal or not, where, for example, the discipline of the Methodist Church forbids the marriage of our members to persons making no profession of Christian faith, it would be intolerable that our church should have power simply on this ground to make such a judicial case as that the civil courts would recognize as sufficient to annul a marriage, and what we disclaim in this regard for ourselves should be refused to every other church in the Dominion.

No civil court should declare a marriage invalid simply because it contravenes the discipline of the Methodist, Roman Catholic or any other church. That, though it is a civil contract and not a sacrament, it should be performed in a suitably impressive manner.

SUPERANNUATION FUND.

The report of the Superannuation Fund was presented and adopted.

The memorial service followed. A hymn was sung, Dr. Shaw and S. G. Bland led in prayer. The obituary notices of Revs. John Hiscox, James Brock, James Simpson and Thomas Bell were received and words of tender appreciation spoken by many.

ST. JAMES CHURCH.

Dr. Williams was then heard further concerning the St. James Relief Fund. He showed that the effort has reached an encouraging stage. A resolution was moved by Dr. Antliff, seconded by Mr. Morton, expressing sympathy with the object, and appointing a small committee to act with Dr. Williams; carried unanimously.

MONDAY A BUSY DAY.

PEMBROKE, June 4. — When the Montreal Methodist Conference opened at 2 p.m. on Monday, Rev. Mr. Busfield, of the Anglican Church, and Rev. Dr. Bain, of the Presbyterian Church, of this town, were introduced and spoke words of welcome. The president replied, inviting them to remain to listen to the deliberations.

Rev. J. Talman Pitcher read the report of the trustees of Stanstead College. The college is in a prosperous condition and the endowment has been increased, and the erection of a new wing is contemplated. Rev. Dr. Flanders read the Principal's report, which was encouraging.

ST. JAMES RELIEF FUND.

The report of the St. James Relief Fund was presented by Rev. Dr. Williams. The debt was reduced last fall by $108,000. The figures could not be given down to the present, as the last half year's books have not been audited. The interest is reduced by $6,480. The payments have been made on the floating debt, which is paying six per cent. The Temple Building is paying four per cent. on $300,000. It is hoped that interest will be reduced to that on the mortgage. From increased income from Temple Building and reduction of the interest, the annual charges are reduced to the extent of $125.00. Dr. Williams was speaking when the time set for adjournment arrived.

The conference adjourned that the ministerial and lay conferences might meet.

IN MINISTERIAL SESSION.

The ministerial session immediately assembled, Rev. E. Crummy leading in prayer.

A letter of resignation was received from Rev. H. Hill through the Waterloo District. He was given credentials by the Credential Committee.

To fill a vacancy in the delegation to the General Conference, Dr. Antliff was elected on second ballot.

Sir James Grant was first introduced. He was present in the interests of the Anti-Consumption League. He said nothing is now attracting more attention than the subject of tuberculosis.

STEAMERS TRY THEIR SPEED.

Great One Hundred Mile Contest in Progress on Lake Erie.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 4.—Stripped of everything that would unnecessarily catch the wind, the two large modern side-wheel passengers steamers, City of Erie of Cleveland, and the Tashmoo, of Detroit, lined up this morning for their 100 mile race from Cleveland to Erie to decide the speed championship of the great lakes.

Steamboat men from many lake ports gathered to see the contest. Special excursion boats from Cleveland, Toledo, Erie, Buffalo, and smaller ports took large loads of passengers to points along the course. Throngs of curious people also gathered along the lake shore.

Off Fairport, 28 miles east of the start, the City of Erie led by nearly a quarter of a mile. The boats were steaming at terrific speed.

The City of Erie crossed finish line first.

BRITISH SHIP WENT DOWN.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 4.—The British steamship Ranald, from Trinidad, for New York, whose cargo of asphalt melted and shifted and caused the ship to list so badly that she anchored off here yesterday, sank early this morning off shore, about a mile from Young's pier. The ship lies easily in six fathoms of water. Her crew came ashore in row boats. An immense crowd of summer visitors is gathered along the board walk viewing the unusual spectacle.

SLEEPING SENTRIES.

LONDON, June 4. — About a week ago, the Daily Chronicle made a startling statement as to the number of soldiers confined in Portland prison for military offences. That statement was somewhat exaggerated, but it appears to be a fact that there are some forty soldiers in Portland undergoing more or less lengthy terms of imprisonment, the offence of most of them being that of sleeping on sentry duty in South Africa.

MRS. McKINLEY THE SAME.

WASHINGTON, June 4—Drs. Johnston, Sternberg and Rixey were in consultation over an hour at the White House this forenoon. At 11.30 Secretary Cortelyou gave out the following statement:

"Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she has had a comfortable night, and that her condition has not materially changed since yesterday."

BUOYANT SECURITIES.

MONTREAL STREET, LIGHT AND POWER ADVANCE.

Trading Brought Only Fractional Changes in Canadian Pacific and Twin City—Decline in Dominion Steel Pfd.—Dominion Cotton and Cable Strong Features in Trading.

The special correspondents of the Star in Wall Street and on the Chicago Board of Trade report in this column that stocks were strong, but erratic, while wheat was weaker. In the local market, stocks were steady to buoyant. The sales on the New York Stock Exchange yesterday were 1,760,200 shares.

The leading features in local price changes this morning were Montreal Light and Power and Montreal Street. Both were buoyant, the former advancing 1¼ to 99 and Street gaining 2¼ to 284¾. Other changes were of a fractional character.

Canadian Pacific was steady in London at 109¼ and in the local sold at 106½ at the opening, down to 106¼, compared with 106¼ at the close yesterday. The price in Wall Street was higher at the opening, 106⅞ being quoted, subsequently receding to 106. Yesterday's sales in Wall Street were 2400 shares, closing at 106⅜.

In Twin City the price was about steady at the advance, the local market opening at 84½, dropping the fraction and closing the forenoon at 84¼. In Wall Street the opening transactions were at 84½ and 84¼. The sales there yesterday were 1000 shares and the closing 83¾.

An incident of the market was the offerings of Dominion Steel preferred a fraction below the recent subscription price of 85 to 84¾, the first time it has happened since the stock was listed on this market. Just about the time the subscriptions were being allotted a number of people were glad to pay 95 to cover sales they had made before they knew how much of the stock they where going to get.

The advance in Montreal Street from 282½ at opening to 284¾ was on comparatively light sales, but the trading in Montreal Power amounted to 2850 shares for the forenoon, two large blocks figuring at 98 and 99. Yesterday's closing was 97¾.

Cable was strong, opening at 188, selling up to 189 and closing equal to yesterday's highest at 188. Dominion Cotton was fractionally stronger at 80½. Republic mining sold down to 10, the lowest it has ever reached in the market.

Messrs. L. J. Forget and Co.'s London cable to-day quoted: Grand Trunk first 93¼, second 81¾, third 37¼, Canadian Pacific 109, Anaconda £10⅝.

The directors of the American Sugar Refining Company have declared a dividend of 1¾ per cent. on its common stock for the quarter, which is unchanged from the last dividend.

Prices were generally higher at the opening, but there were a few exceptions among the internationals in sympathy with lower prices in London. Reading, Union Pacific, St. Paul and Rock Is. were off a fraction and Sugar dropped 1¼. Amalgamated Copper, Denver and Rio Grande preferred, Atchison preferred and Ontario and Western rose from 1 to 1¼, and Des Moines and Fort Dodge was up 2¼. Dealings were large and well distributed.

Grand Trunk Railway System earnings 22nd to 31st May:

1901	$797,784
1900	752,046
Increase	$45,738

It is reported that the Bank of Toronto will shortly increase its present capitalization of $2,000,000, having been restricted in the matter of issuing additional circulation. On April 30th, its note circulation was $1,615,000, deposits $14,400,000, discounts $12,478,000, and call loans $1,388,000.

The earnings of Detroit United Railway for the week ending May 30, were $19,868.05. The increases over last year during that period were $6,035.96 and the decreases $1,723.38, leaving a net gain for the week of $4,312.58.

Bank clearings in Toronto for May were $35,008,820 compared with $43,215,794 last year and $44,349,214 in 1899.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Company's return of traffic earnings from May 21st to May 31st:

1901	$884,000
1900	856,000
Increase	$28,000

ACTIVITY IN WALL STREET.

(From the special correspondent of the Star in Wall Street.)

NEW YORK, June 4.—Early prices in the market were for the most part at advances in comparison with yesterday's final figures. In the absence of developments of particular novelty, the interest respecting the London market for Americans was again fairly common. Very irregular price changes were shown there, and declines predominated. Operations here for foreign account were on both sides of the account. The purchase by the New York, Ontario and Western of Delaware and Hudson Canal Bed led to an exceedingly active and strong opening for that stock. Sugar was heavy at the opening on the report that the president of the company might resign. There also appeared to be a conviction that no advance in the rate of dividend was likely at to-day's meeting. The stock dropped 5 1-4 points. After the opening dealings, however, it developed marked strength. Other conspicuously strong features were Amalgamated Copper, American Smelting and Consolidated Gas. United States Steel stocks were heavily dealt in, but fluctuations were trivial. Tobacco stocks continued strong on large dealings. In the railway list a further advance was scored in Chicago and Alton, and other strong features were Erie issues, Missouri Pacific, Texas and Pacific, and Reading, although the latter became reactionary. Atchisons were conspicuously strong. Union Pacific was heavily dealt in around yesterday's final prices, and small price changes appeared elsewhere in the railway list. The local traction group was strong and active, notably for Manhattan and Metropolitan. Towards noon the market became firm, with the coal stocks in demand at irregular prices.

WHEAT MARKET STILL BEARISH

(From the Star's Special Correspondent on the Chicago Board of Trade.)

CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—A few excited shorts paid ridiculous prices for July wheat at the opening this morning, but it soon developed that the short interest had obtained relief and the price began to decline, selling off from 79¾ to 75⅝ almost without opposition. There is some mystery as to who bought enough long wheat during the last two months to force shorts to cover; although the situation was still a bearish one. Pit gossips have it that the Weare Com. Co. had a line of 10,000,000 long July wheat, held for an unknown principal. It is probable that the existence of an unusually large short interest in commission houses has been known to the local heavyweights for some time, leading them to make a vigorous campaign against the public, or against that part of it which could be forced in by manipulative tactics.

Liberal rains in both the North-West and South-West made September wheat, which is responding for the most part to natural influences, very weak.

Chicago stocks of wheat are 8,839,000. The visible is large; and there will be plenty of new winter wheat available during the month of July. No corner is possible.

NORTHAM ARRIVES.

The Steamer is Reported at Hamburg After a Passage of 35 Days From Chicago.

NEW YORK, June 4.—In the cable news to-day it is announced that the American steamer Northman arrived at Hamburg to-day from Chicago, after a passage of 35 days, of which 19 days had before occupied traversing inland waters before leaving Montreal for the ocean voyage. The Northman is the first steamer in the new Chicago-Hamburg service to cross the ocean and her voyage has been watched with interest as a test of the probable success of the undertaking.

$10,000 VOTED.

AMOUNT GRANTED FOR PRINCE GEORGE'S RECEPTION.

However, None of It Can be Used for Painting the City Hall or Repairing the Streets—The Police Force — Re-naming Logan's Park — A Steamship Line to Cuba.

In order that Prince George and his party may be received with proper dignity, the City Council decided yesterday afternoon to vote the sum of $10,000. This amount is to be used solely for reception purposes, and not partially spent upon brightening the City Hall, and repairing the streets, as had been proposed.

When the matter was brought up yesterday the following report was read from the Finance Committee:

"That, as directed by Council, they have considered the question of the approaching visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York, and the elaborate preparations which will be necessary in order to make their visit a memorable one, worthy of Montreal, the Commercial Metropolis.

'Your committee are of opinion that the Council should not be backward in this connection, and that the required work of decoration, embellishment, general setting-off, and other incidentals connected with this important event should be determined and attended to without unnecessary delay.

"They, therefore, recommend that, pursuant to the enactment adopted at the last session of the Legislature, a sum of $15,000, ex reserve, be placed at their disposal for this purpose.

"Your committee would further recommend this His Worship the Mayor be authorized to confer with the committee of citizens appointed to carry out certain arrangements connected with the coming visit of Their Royal Highnesses in order, if deemed advisable, that your committee may co-operate with said committee of citizens with a view of making the event an unqualified and brilliant success."

MADE THE AMOUNT $10,000.

When the City Clerk had read the above Ald. Laporte, chairman of the Finance Committee, rose and said he wished to make an amendment. After further considering the matter, the committee wished to make the amount $10,000, instead of $15,000. He went on to explain that he desired this $10,000 to be used for entertainment only. It had been suggested to vote $15,000 and use a portion of the sum for repairing the City Hall, etc. This idea he did not like. It was necessary that the City Hall should be brightened, and so an effort would be made to get $5,000, out of a premium on a recent loan, for this purpose. He hoped his amendment would be approved.

MAYOR WANTS $15,000.

The Mayor made a strong plea for having $15,000 voted. He thought the sum of $10,000 would be too small on account of the grand reception that was contemplated. He had just been reading the Australian papers and had been amazed at the lavish way Australians had been entertaining the Royal visitors. Montreal was the metropolitan city of Canada and should act in a way that would be a credit to it. It might be necessary, it was true, to take a portion of the $15,000 and spend it upon repairing the City Hall. It was known there could be no balls, and so there would be more receptions than anything else. There would certainly be a reception at the City Hall, and the place would have to be painted and decorated. He would rather a lump sum of $15,000 be voted than a separate amount got, from premiums, in order to repair the civic palace. He dwelt upon the fact that when the present King came to Montreal the sum of $10,000 was voted; the city had grown immensely since then and now nothing less than $15,000 should be given.

WANTED AMOUNTS SEPARATE

Ald. Ekers, in a brief business-like speech, showed that the best way to act would be to keep the reception fund, and the fund for repairing the City Hall, etc., entirely separate. He certainly approved of the amendment for voting $10,000, to be used exclusively for entertaining. As for cash for repairing the City Hall, and cleaning the streets, it could be taken out of the premium on the recent $300,000 loan. By voting a specified amount for reception purposes, and by having special amounts for other purposes connected with the reception, there would be far more satisfaction given to the taxpayers. Personally he was willing to have the reception on a scale that would do honour to the city; but at the same time he did not want any sum that might be voted spent in a way that might lead to unpleasantness afterwards.

This sensible view of the matter was agreed in by other members and then the amendment, calling for $10,000 was carried. The Finance Committee will meet at once and see what can be done about getting special funds for cleaning the city hall and fixing up the streets. Work on these will have to be begun at once in order to have things in order by the time the Royal visitors arrive.

MUST HAVE A NEW CHIEF.

Ald. Lamarche now brought up the question of the policeman who had been arrested for stealing a gold watch from a man he had arrested and who he believed to be drunk. The speaker contended that a new chief of police should be appointed at once so the force might have a proper recognized head. It was too bad that such criminals should be on the police force.

In reply Ald. Lebeuf said that a new chief of police would be appointed as soon as possible. Chief Hughes had been ill for many months and his health was still very poor. A good man would be selected and appointed to the important position of chief. While the chief had been so ill he (the speaker) had willingly acted as chief. He had gladly given his time to the city, but he could not go on for all time doing this. At the present time Inspector Leggatt was filling the duties of chief of police.

The case of the policeman who had been arrested was now dwelt upon. It was shown how he had been trapped. His career was shown not to have been satisfactory in many other ways. Come what would the speaker was determined to weed such men out of the force. Since the man had been arrested it had been amazing the influence that had been brought to get him set free. This influence had failed. Indeed all influence would be lost when it was used to screen policemen who had done wrong. Only a few days ago three officers had been punished for neglecting to do their duty. Come what would the police force of Montreal would have to be made a thoroughly good one. He did not want the public to run away with the idea that the force was in a demoralized condition; it was not. As chairman of the Police Committee, however, he was determined to weed out all the policemen who failed in any way to faithfully perform their work.

LOGAN'S PARK.

Quite a long discussion now arose over the proposition to change the name of Logan's Park. Petitions were read asking that it be named St. Jean Baptiste Park, National Park, Park Maisonneuve, etc. Ald. Gagnon proposed the park be named Park National. He said this name was of such a character that it could give offence to no one. The park was of great area, and it should be known as a national park.

Ald. Ekers—"I cannot see why we want to change the name of the park. The present name is an honourable one in Montreal, and there is nothing to be gained by making a change. Every one knows the park by this name and we should be content with it."

Ald. Gallery contended that as the park belonged to the Government, the City Council had no legal right to change its name.

At this juncture Ald. Chausse moved, seconded by Ald. Tansey, that the park be given the name of Park Maisonneuve. This was objected to, and finally it was decided to refer the whole question to a special committee composed of Ald. Hart, Robertson, Lavallee, Gagnon, Lebeuf, Martineau, Lariviere and Chausse.

Ald. Ames took the occasion to say that the point raised, as to the authority of council to change the name of the park was a very good one, and should be carefully considered by the special committee.

A COOL PROPOSAL.

A cool communication was then read to the effect that the city of Montreal should contribute a large amount in order to improve the shipping trade of Hamilton and Toronto. The communication, which was from Messrs. Ryan & Co., agents for the Canadian Colonization Association in Cuba, was as follows:

"Our Association intends to establish a new steamship service between some Canadian port and Gibara, Cuba, first steamer to leave not later than October 15, 1901. Your hearty co-operation and that of the council and citizens of Montreal is requested. If a bonus or subsidy were granted, we would be pleased to establish a service from Montreal to Gibara; the seaport town for Little Toronto, Cuba. A steamer similar to the Modjeska, of the Hamilton Steamship Line—about the same size—would do at first as a supply boat, thus, at one stroke, making the two cities, Toronto and Hamilton seaport cities. About fifty thousand dollars would be sufficient inducement from each city. We will likely run one trip on our own account as an experiment."

The communication was laid on the table without any comment.

Council adjourned.

THE PASTOR OF KNOX CHURCH

Presentation to Rev. James Fleck in Commemoration of the 25th Anniversary of His Induction.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the induction of Rev. James Fleck, as pastor of Knox Church was commemorated last night. The edifice was crowded, many reverend gentlemen from other city churches being in attendance. It was a happy event, and Mr. Walter Paul presided. On behalf of the elders and members of the church, Rev. James Patterson read an address, in which devout thankfulness to Mr. Fleck was expressed. It told of their long association and the splendid progress which had been made. The earnest hope was expressed that their pastor might long remain with them to "break the bread of life, minister to their present comfort and future hopes."

Rev. Mr. Fleck, in reply, said that he was perfectly happy in his surroundings; no minister could be happier. For twenty-five years he and his congregation had laboured together and not once have they had a misunderstanding. And this without any sacrifice or compromise of principle on behalf of the pulpit, nor of any curtailment of the rights of the pew.

Rev. Canon Ellegood, Principal MacVicar and Rev. J. Edgar Hill spoke briefly, after which the assembly adjourned to the lecture hall, prettily decorated for the occasion, where refreshments were served. On behalf of their respective congregations, Rev. William Patterson, Rev. Mr. Webb, Rev. Dr. McWilliams and Rev. Dr. Campbell congratulated Rev. Mr. Fleck and his church.

Then came the presentation of a cabinet of cutlery to Rev. Mr. Fleck. This was a gift from his congregation. Mr. John Bailey, president of the church board, made a short speech in presenting it. Mr. Robert Henderson, representing the ladies of the church, presented Mrs. Fleck with a bouquet of flowers.

THE TARTE-GRENIER CASE.

Recalled by a Judgment Just Given by the Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals has just rendered a judgment which recalls the circumstances of the Tarte-Grenier trial. When La Libre Parole published its famous article against Mr. Tarte, the latter, besides having Mr. W. A. Grenier arrested, accused him of trying to blackmail him out of $200. Mr. Grenier held that he had asked the Minister for that sum, which was owing for work done on Le Soir, the organ of the Liberal party. He said his claim against that newspaper was for $773, and the late Mr. C. A. Geoffrion, who was the party's treasurer, being without funds, only consented to pay $200, and recommended him to Mr. Tarte. The latter first promised to settle the claim, but delayed the payments and finally refused to make it. Subsequently the article was published. The contention of the Minister of Public Works always was that he did not owe anything to Mr. Grenier. The latter sued Mr. (now Justice) P. A. Choquette, and Mr. (now Hon.) L. P. Brodeur, who were the proprietors of Le Soir, for $773. In the Superior Court, Mr. Justice Gill granted him the full amount. The Court of Review reduced it to $35, and the Court of Appeals has just given him judgment for $200 with costs, which are in the neighbourhood of $1000.

LAURIER AT L'ASSOMPTION.

Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier will be the objects of a great demonstration on next Tuesday, at the L'Assomption College, where the Premier made his classical studies. The feast will last two days and an elaborate programme has been prepared. Sir Wilfrid and a few friends will go to Bout de L'Ile from Montreal by the electric cars. They will cross the Charlemagne, whence they will drive to L'Assomption. Addresses will be read and speeches delivered by Hon. J. I. Tarte, and Hon. H. Archambault, former students of the institution. In the evening there will be a grand display of fireworks.

ROYAL ELECTRIC COMPANY SHAREHOLDERS TO MEET. — A meeting of the shareholders of the Royal Electric Company, will take place on Friday, the 14th instant, at 3 o'clock, for the consideration of the contract with the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company, transferring the former's business over to the latter. The opportunity of reducing the number of directors and of performing certain works at Chambly will also come up for discussion.

HACKMEN'S UNION.—There will be a meeting of the Hackmen's Union to-morrow evening, in the Monument National.

You may pay a higher price, but don't flatter yourself that you can buy better tea than Blue Ribbon Ceylon. Ask your friends about it.

WANT TWO ELEVATORS

CORN EXCHANGE COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT INSISTS.

One Elevator in the Centre of the Harbour Would Not Meet the Requirements of Trade—The Ticker Service—German Tariff Discrimination.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Corn Exchange Committee of Management yesterday afternoon the members expressed the opinion that it was the intention to build only one grain elevator in the harbour. They considered that one elevator would not meet the requirements of the trade and it was resolved that they should again renew their representations to the Harbour Board and the Minister of Public works in favour of having two elevators and having them placed in the centre of the harbour.

The ticker service having been withdrawn, the president, Mr. Metcalfe, with Messrs. Harling and Peddie, were appointed a committee to endeavour to arrange for the procural of the market quotations.

In the matter of German tariff discrimination against Canadian produce, respecting which the Government was addressed last December, praying that it endeavour to secure the German market, the secretary was instructed to place himself again in communication with the Government as to the result of its negotiations.

President Metcalfe reported that in consequence of difficulties arising in the passing of entries of export grain, which often occasioned serious delay, that he and several members of the association had recently interviewed the collector of customs, with a view of overcoming the difficulty, and as a result of those representations the following letter, dated May 25, has been received by President Metcalfe from Mr. R. S. White, collector of customs:

"Referring to our conversation of this morning on the subject of the passing of entries of grain exported at this port, and more particularly to the suggestion that duplicate bills of lading should be accepted by customs as evidence of the export instead of the certificate of the Montreal Elevating Company, I beg to say that upon enquiry into the matter I learn that discrepancies frequently exist between the quantities as set forth on the bill of lading and the elevator certificate respectively, and that the latter is the more reliable. I have concluded, therefore, that it will be better to continue the practice of requiring the certificate of the Elevating Company in connection with export entries of grain.

"I have arranged with the Montreal Warehousing Company not to delay delivery of bonded grain required by shippers from that company's warehouse, and no occasion for complaint on that score should arise. If exporters of grain will pass their entries for warehouse and ex-warehouse and clear the ship's manifests with reasonable promptitude, I am satisfied the business of the port will be found free from any restraint or vexatious regulations on the part of the customs."

The committee considered this settlement entirely satisfactory and ordered that the thanks of the association be tendered to Mr. White for his prompt attention to the matter.

NOT TO BE ABOLISHED.

It having been stated in some of the newspapers that the Jacques Cartier Normal School, Sherbrooke street, would be abolished, Hon. Mr. Gouin, Minister in the Provincial Cabinet, writes that such cannot be the case, as there is room in this province for two institutions of this kind The one in Quebec would not be sufficient.

STEALING FROM BURNING HOUSE —Francis Bisson was charged before Magistrate Lafontaine yesterday with stealing a quantity of goods from the house of Albert Richer, 262 Wolfe street. The house was badly damaged by fire on Friday, and the boy and his companions made a raid on the remains of the household goods. He was arrested by Detective Cote, and remanded for six days, as the detective would like to get hold of the rest of the little gang.

Charge That Immigrants Refused Admission at New York Got Into United States Through Canada Unfounded.

The charge made in the United States that immigrants from Europe who were refused entry into the Republic at New York came into Montreal and crossed the border from Canada, is not founded on fact. Edward Watchorn, the special commissioner sent here by the Washington Government, after a thorough enquiry, has returned to New York satisfied that while there may be unintentional irregularities, there is no cause for a discontinuance of the immigrant traffic from Canada to the United States. Stricter regulations, however, are desirable.

MONEY TO LOAN.

SALARIED PEOPLE

Can get money on their own names, without endorser or security; payments to suit borrower. Montreal Credit Company, 104 Temple Building, 185 St. James st. 62 306

Do You Ever Borrow Money?

IF SO, WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS.

Whether you want to borrow $10 or $1000, whether you want it one month, six months, or one year, come and talk it over with us. We can save you money. No loan is too large; none too small to receive our careful attention. YOUR FURNITURE, PIANO, ORGAN, HORSE, WAGGON, ETC., can be used as security. No removal of goods. No enquiries among your neighbours. No publishing your transactions.

WHY TROUBLE YOUR FRIENDS

For the loan of a little money when you can borrow from us on one hour's notice, and so cheap? Because we guarantee our rates the cheapest in the city and have made the terms within the reach of all. That's why our old customers are borrowing of us from time to time.

Steam Yacht "Presto" For Sale.

The "Presto" is a trunk-cabin, schooner-rigged twin-screw steam yacht, and was built in 1898 for Mr. J. Adolph Mollenhauer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., under a guaranteed speed of 22 miles per hour, and upon trial attained a speed of slightly over 30 miles per hour. Composite construction; five water-tight compartments. Gross tonnage, 22.47; net, 15.28. Length over all, 80 ft. 4 in.; water line, 75 ft.; beam, 9 ft. 6 in.; depth of hold, 6 ft.; draught, 2 ft. 6 in.

The owner's accommodations comprise a deck-room aft, which will accommodate 8 or 10 people, connected by a companion way with the main saloon; large stateroom and toilet-room. The main saloon is 13 feet long; broad seats extend the whole length of the sides, which may be used as berths for four persons at night; it can be subdivided into four staterooms by hanging draperies; octagon buffets in each corner. Saloon finished in polished mahogany with plush upholstery and silk curtains.

Forward are a large galley, fitted with ice-chest, range, sink, dish-racks, closets, large storeroom, crew's quarters with accommodations for six men, with water-closet, folding wash basin, etc.

Notice to Mariners

Notice is hereby given to all vessels navigating the St. Lawrence River that work on the Quebec bridge is in progress, and will continue throughout the present season. On the north side of the river, 500 feet south of the north high water mark, and 2000 feet west of the mouth of the Chaudiere River, false works have been constructed around the site of the north main pier, and it is marked by white beacon lights at night. A trestle work connects this false work with the north shore, and all vessels are warned to keep within the main channel of the river at this point.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

PRUSSIAN FARMERS RECEIVE STATE AID THIS YEAR.

The German Crop Failure is More Serious Than Supposed—Wheat Was Rather Stronger in Liverpool But the American Markets Sold Off, Particularly New York.

The following press cable indicates a more serious crop failure in Germany than the crop reports have hitherto indicated. Berlin, June 1.—Owing to the bad crop prospects in Prussia, Count von Buelow, in his capacity of President of the Prussian Ministry, has advised the various Government departments concerned to prepare for taking suitable measures to provide State aid for the purpose of meeting the situation. The harvest threatens to be a failure over large areas of the monarchy.

The Liverpool wheat market was stronger to-day, July closing ⅝d up at 6s 0¼d, September closing ⅛d down at 5s 11⅝d. No. 2 red winter was steady at Antwerp at 17¼. Paris was firm, June closing at 20.25, and September at 20.90. London reported No. 1 standard Cal., iron, passage, 29s 9d pd., less ½ per cent.; Walla Walla, iron, passage, 29s 7⅝d, strs.; Australian wheat, iron, arrived, 29s 10½d, strs. fine and heavy. American markets were weak.

LOCAL MARKET.—Oats have been selling at 36c afloat, but the market was feeling easier to-day in sympathy with Chicago. No. 2 was valued at 35¾ to 36c, and there were holders who would not accept these figures.

Peas are dull and scarce at 76c. Rye is very slow at about 58c bid; No. 1 spring wheat is quoted at 77½c afloat.

FLOUR—Manitoba spring patents, $4.30; best strong bakers $4; winter whea tpaents $3.60 to $4; straight rollers, $3.20 to $3.40; in bags, $1.60 to $1.65.

ROLLED OATS.—The west quotes $3.75 to $3.80 for barrels on track here, and $1.82½ ot $1.85 for bafs, but dealers claim to be selling 20c a barrel less.

FEED.—Manitoba bran, in bags, $15.00; shorts, in bags, $16; Ontario bran, in bulk, $14.00, and shorts, $15.50 in bulk; moulile, $18 to $25.

HAY.—The market is steady with more offering. Prices are $12.00 for No. 1, $11 for No. 2, and $9 to $9.50 for clover mixed, in car lots.

VISIBLE SUPPLY.

The following table shows the visible supply of grain in Canada and the United States, on the dates mentioned:—

THE LIVE STOCK MARKET.

An Easier Feeling Both in the Local and British Market—Ocean Space Rates Decline.

Prices for cattle at the Eastern Abattoir are easier in view of the slight depression originating in the Toronto market and quotations which had advanced 1-4 of a cent a pound for beef a week ago declined to the same extent yesterday when buyers and sellers got together. Choice beeves sold at 5 1-4 to 5 1-2c per lb., good at 4 1-2 to 5c, fair at 3 3-4 to 4 1-4c and common grades at 3 to 3 1-2c per lb. 400 head of cattle were offered. There was no change in the situation, so far as sheep were concerned, export goods selling at 4c per lb., and the butchers filling their wants at prices ranging from 3 1-2c to 4 1-2c per lb. Spring lambs ranged from $2.50 to $4.50 and calves from $3 to $10 each. Live hogs declined 10 cents per 100 pounds in view of the heavy feeling at western points local sales being effected at $6.40 to $7.15 per 100 lbs., weighed off the cars.

London quotations for Canadain cattle range from 11 to 12c per lb, and in Liverpool 11 1-2c is the only quotation given. The British market for sheep was easier at 12 1-2c per lb. and lambs at 14c per lb. In London American cattle are quoted at 12 to 12 1-4c per lb. In spite of the easier cable advices and the recent decline in prices for butchers' stock in Toronto, the tone of that market for really choice export cattle continues strong, and on Friday last the highest price of the season was paid, viz., $5.40 per 100 lbs., and $5.25 for good, while medium and light weights sold freely at $4.75 to $5. At the above prices the demand was keen, as shippers were short of stock to fill space contracted for.

The shipping space rate to London has scored another decline of 5s per head, with engagements at 30s to 35s. The Liverpool rate is also weaker and any space not contracted for is now offering at 35s to 40s, which is 7s 6d to 10s per head lower than what contracts were made at before the opening of the season.

Live stock shipments from the port of Montreal for the week ending June 1, were: Cattle, 2,613; sheep, 1,002; horses, 7. The total shipments of live stock for the month of May, with comparisons, were:—

	Cattle.	Sheep.	Horses.
1901	11,332	8,454	1,042
1900	11,426	2,314	1,440
1899	12,983	3,365	674
1898	15,536	309	1,669
1897	18,073	2,736	1,530

TORONTO, Ont., June 4.—Seventy-one loads in to-day, including 380 hogs, 461 sheep and lambs and 83 calves. Export cattle, choice, $5.25 to $5.35 per 100 lbs.; export cattle, light, $5 to $5.20; export bulls, choice, $4.25 to $4.35; export bulls, light, $3.75 to $4; butchers' cattle picked lots, $4.85 to $5; butchers' cattle, medium mixed, $4.40 to $4.75; butchers' cattle, common, $3.75 to $4.25; feeders, heavy, $4.40 to $4.70; none wanted; feeders, light, $3.80 to $4; feeding bulls, none offered; stockers, $3.40 to $3.80; milk cows, each, $35 to $48; export ewes, 3 3-4 to 4c per lb.; export rams, 2 1-2 to 3c per lb.; grain fed lambs, 4 1-2 to 5c per lb.; barnyard lambs, 4 to 4 1-2c per lb.; spring lambs, $2.50 to $3; calves, per head, $1 to $8; hogs, singers, 7c per lb.; fats and lights, 6 1-2c off cars. Trade easier for butchers' cattle and Buffalo stockers, and steady for export cattle.

COUNTRY PRODUCE.

The Butter Market is Steady to Easier — Cheese is Steady and Opinions Upon the Egg Market are Divided.

BUTTER—There is very little change in the local market. Finest quality box creamery can be had for 19c, and unsalted at 1-4c more; finest tubs can be had at 18¾ to 19c. The quality of the make now coming in is said to be rather inferior, and is explained by the soft grass producing an inferior quality of milk. St. Hyacinthe is reported to have sold at 18¼c. Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day were only 168 packages.

CHEESE—The market is steady. Prices here range from 8¾ to ⅞c for eastern, and 8⅝ to ⅞c for western white, and 8⅞c for western coloured. Demand is not very active. Receipts reported on the Board of Trade to-day were 5,423 cases.

EGGS—There is an undecided feeling in the market, some thinking it easier and some stronger. All agree that the association prices, at 9¾c f.o.b., are not being kept. In fact, 10½c f.o.b. is very commonly paid. Packers declared this morning that rather than pay more than 10c they would go without. Their vats are now pretty well filled, fortunately without having to candle any of the goods. A number of dealers have put down very few this year, fearing a loss. Straight stock sells to-day at 11 to 11¼c, No. 1 candled at 11¾c and No. 2 at about 10c. Receipts reported to-day were only 263 cases.

MAPLE PRODUCTS.—Kegs are being offered at 6c a pound, though tins are still held at 7c. Good sugar was sold at 8 1-2c yesterday.

POTATOES—There is a good demand at slightly higher prices. Dealers pay 43c on track for 90 lb. bags, and resell at 50c. In ten bag lots 55c can be obtained.

HONEY.—Dark comb is quoted about 10c; white comb, 12c; dark strained, 8c; white strained, 9c to 9 1-2c.

BEANS—Primes, in 6 bag lots are worth about $1.40 a bushel, hand picked being 10 to 15c more.

POTASH—The market is dull again at $4.20 to $4.25 for firsts, and about $3.80 for seconds, and pearl ash is enquired for, but there is no stock here at the moment.

MANITOBA WEATHER REPORT.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 3.—C. P. R. weather reports received continue to be most favourable, nearly every part of the province having now had nice showers. Following are reports from sections of the C. P. R., received up to last evening:

North-Western section—Light rain from 30 minutes to 2 hours.

North Central section—One to 2 hours rain.

Pembina section—Light rain St. James to Altona, and good showers from Pilot Mount west.

Waskada section—Light rain yesterday.

Snowflake section—Cloudy, light rain.

South-Western section—Light rain west of Culross to Treherne. Good rain at Methven, and 2 hours' rain at Nesbitt and Corral.

Souris section—Light rain at every point, heavy showers at Gainsborough, Carlievale and Oxbow.

Pipestone section—Cloudy, warm, light rain.

Emerson section—Light rain at points west of Niverville.

Stonewall section—Light rain at Stony Mountain.

West Selkirk section—Cloudy, light rain.

Brandon section—Light showers at Reaburn, Poplar Point and half hour's rain west of Carberry.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Cotton futures opened steady, June offered 7.85; July, 7.81; August, 7.30; September, 7.06; October, 7.05; November, 7.02; December, 7.04; January, 7.05; March, 7.08.

QUEBEC LADIES WON AT GOLF

They Defeated the Montreal Ladies in Beautiful Weather by Five Holes Up.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 4.—The Quebec Ladies' Golf Club defeated the Montreal Golf Club by 5 holes up this morning in their semi-annual match, which was played in perfect weather. There were only ten players on each side, and some of the play was exceptionally fine, as can be judged by the closeness of the scores. This is the narrowest victory the local club has ever won. The scores are:

	Quebec.	Montreal.
Miss H. Sewell	3
Miss Greene		0
Mrs. Meredith	0
Miss Linton		0
Miss M. Scott..	1

The gentlemen present included: Lieut.-Col. White, Lieut.-Col. Sewell, Lieut. Champion, Mr. Foy, R. E. A. Boswell, D. Oliver, Hy. McGreevy, Wm. Brodie, Alex. Brodie, Herb. McGreevy, Stuart Gillespie, H. S. Thomson, R. Reid Dobell, Dr. G. H. Parke, Arch. Laurie, Harcourt Smith, Mr. A. Thomson, Mr. L. Pacaud, Very Rev. Dean William, Mr. D'Eschambault, and R. Meredith.

At the conclusion of the match at one o'clock a luncheon was served at the Garrison Club, and in the afternoon a tea will be given after the playing of foursomes.

HOCHELAGA COUNTY W. C. T. U.

The Annual Meeting in the American Presbyterian Chapel, Inspector Street.

The annual meeting of the Hochelaga County Women's Christian Temperance Union was held this morning in the American Presbyterian Chapel, Inspector street.

Among those present were the following: Miss Dougall, Mrs. McLauchlin, Mrs. Jaques, Mrs. Radford, Miss Barlow, Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. Woodly, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Currie, Mrs. Suddington, Mrs. Toller, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Massiah, Miss Cochrane, Mrs. Gladstone, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Gass, Mrs. Lymer, Mrs. Chapman, Miss A. Reed, Miss Baylis, Mrs. Wilkinson, Mrs. Pollock, Mrs. Ashold, Mrs. Latham, Mrs. Cayford, Mrs. Elliott, Miss Ansley, Mrs. Waycott, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Mack, and Mrs. Trafford.

The corresponding secretary's report was read by Mrs. Radford, in the course of which she stated that a great and important step had been taken during the year in the way of getting in closer touch with the teachers of the public schools, the object being to interest them in the work of the Union and through them the scholars. The report stated that the School Commissioners had expressed themselves as being in sympathy with the aim of the Union and as having approved of holding meetings with the teachers in the various districts of the city. Mrs. Radford, in conclusion, spoke of the success which had attended the series of health talks held in the various sections of the city.

The treasurer's report showed the receipts for the year to have amounted to $300.77, and the disbursements to $274.71.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Miss Dougall; vice-president, Mrs. McLachlin; recording-secretary, Miss Barlow; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Radford.

Reports were received from the Central and Fairmount Unions.

During the morning an address was delivered by Mr. Oatts, of Glasgow, delegate to the Y. M. C. A. jubilee in Boston, who is at present staying in the city.

MONTREAL TO LOSE STUDENTS.

An order has been issued by Archbishop Keane, of Dubuque, Iowa, that in the future the ecclesiastical students in his diocese shall attend the Seminary at St. Paul, instead of coming to Montreal as formerly has been done up to the present.

The Seminary at St. Paul is conducted by priests of the diocese under the direction of Archbishop Ireland, and it is doubtless a wish to secure the success of this institution nearer home that has induced His Grace of Dubuque to take the step. A great many of the dioceses in the United States send the students for the priesthood to the Seminary in this city which has an international reputation. One of the reasons for this action on the part of the prelates of the Republic is that they wish to have the priests of their diocese proficient in the French language, to be able to minister to the spiritual wants of the large number of French Canadians who are to be found in the large cities of the United States.

The Seminary at St. Paul is largely the gift of James J. Hill, the railway magnate, whose wife is a Roman Catholic, and one of the most generous supports of the church in that diocese.

The Ottawa branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union yesterday decided to invite the World's W.C.T.U. to meet in Ottawa in 1902.

VISIT OF PRINCE.

CITIZENS' COMMITTETE FORMALLY ORGANIZED.

A List of Strong Working Committees Named—Will Open a Permanent Office With Regular Secretary—Interview the Mayor to Find Out What City Intends Doing.

The Citizen's Committee for the reception of the Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York decided last evening to open an office at once and to keep it open until after the royal visit. Premises will be secured at once and a paid secretary installed who will be able to answer all questions and give all information with regard to the intentions of the committee. This was decided yesterday at the meeting of the executive of the committee held under the presidency of Hon. George A. Drummond.

The speakers emphasized the fact that the Citizens' Committee wished in no manner to interfere with the arrangements made officially by the City Corporation. A small committee, to be accompanied by the president and the two honourary secretaries, Hon. J. P. B. Casgrain and Mr. J. B. Allan, will call on the mayor and find out what the city intends to do, so that it may be settled what may be done by private citizens.

Hon. George A. Drummond, the chairman, explained that since the appointment of the executive, several names had been added, among others those of Hon. J. I. Tarte and Mr. W. C. Macintyre.

It was also stated that while the executive had appointed a concert committee this did not mean that a concert would be held. The appointment of the committee is made simply in case such a form of entertainment is decided upon.

A resolution was adopted that no liability shall be incurred by any committee until it has submitted its expenditure to the finance committee, and obtained the signatures of the members of that committee.

Sub-committees were appointed as follows:

Carriage committee—Messrs. H. Montagu Allan, chairman; A. Baumgarten, and Hon. A. Boyer.

Accommodation committee—Mr. James Ross, Dr. E. P. Lachapelle, Mr. Justice Ouimet, Sir William Van Horne, Messrs. E. S. Clouston, H. V. Meredith, C. R. Hosmer.

Transportation committee—Sir William Van Horne, chairman; Messrs. G. B. Reeve, William Wainwright, T. G. Shaughnessy, Hon. L. J. Forget, Lieut.-Col. Henshaw.

Concert committee—Messrs. Donald Macmaster, K. C., chairman; W. H. Benyon, Hon. N. Perodeau, Reid Taylor, Charles Cassils, E. B. Greenshields, Mr. Justice Loranger, A. W. Hooper.

Address Committee—Sir Alexandre Lacoste, Mr. Justice Taschereau, Hon. Mr. Robidoux, Messrs. Hugh Graham, Richard White, Sir William Macdonald, Sir Melbourne Tait, Mr. Justice Wurtele.

Historical Committee, in connection with parade — Mr. Justice Baby, Mr. Justice Wurtele, Mr. Justice Loranger, Sir William Hingston, Hon. Mr. Dandurand, Messrs. F. D. Monk, K.C., M.P., and W. D. Lighthall.

A committee was also appointed to confer with the Mayor. It is composed of: Hon. George A. Drummond (chairman), Sir Alexandre Lacoste, Hon. L. J. Forget, Messrs. T. G. Shaughnessy and W. J. White, K.C.

The chairman, Hon. G. A. Drummond, and the joint secretaries, Hon. J. P. B. Casgrain and Mr. J. B. Allan, are ex-officio members of all committees.

MAY BECOME A NUN.

LONDON, June 4. — A rumour is current here to the effect that the Dowager Duchess of Newcastle, mother of the present Duke, and of Lord Francis Hope, is about to become a nun. She has long been a Roman Catholic, and since the death of her second husband, Tom Hohler, the professional singer, has devoted herself almost entirely to Roman Catholic mission work in the East End slums of this metropolis, under the direction of Cardinal Vaughan.

Special Notice.

Hamilton's have a special sale of Wall Papers to-morrow, Wednesday. Prices range from 2 1-2c. roll up.

The Vocalion Organ.

Churches that have not sufficient funds, nor sufficient space, for a pipe organ, will find the Vocalion organ suited to their requirements. The price is small, as low as $250; the size, not much larger than an ordinary reed organ, yet the tone is full and deep, and has a carrying power that fills any ordinary auditorium. Full particulars, with illustrated catalogue and prices sent on enquiry. Mason & Risch Piano Co., Ltd., 2469 St. Catherine street, Montreal, sole agents.

People needing Wall Paper should see the special line Hamilton's will sell to-morrow, Wednesday, at 2 1-2c. roll.

YORK COUNTY ELECTION CASE.

Details of the Agreement Which Led to the Unseating of Mr. Gibson.

FREDERICTON, N.B., June 4.—The decision of Chief Justice Tuck on Monday unseating Mr. Alex. Gibson, Liberal, who was elected at the last general elections over Dr. McLeod, was the result of an agreement between the Conservatives and Liberals whereby Dr. McLeod agreed not to press the matter further, in connsideration of a written pledge by the leading representatives of both parties that they would refrain from all corrupt and illegal practices in all further elections in the constituency, and that they would use their utmost influence to prevent the use of such methods by any one in behalf of their respective parties. This pledge was signed by Fred P. Thompson, M.L.A.; W. T. Whitehead, M.L.A.; Willard Kitchen, E. B. Winslow, J. H. Crockett, C. E. A. Simonds and Jas. S. Neal. Mr. Gibson agreed to pay all the costs and expenses incurred by Dr. McLeod in connection with the petition.

THE NEW YORK CENTRAL.

NEW YORK, June 4.—It is rumoured that the elevation of Superintendent Vanetten might bring about important changes in the executive force of New York members. Mr. Van Etten, it was said, might go to Boston to take charge of the Boston and Albany road. Such a change would necessitate the selection of another general superintendent.

A THEATRICAL TRAGEDY.

An Actor Shoots and Kills An Actress Whom He Vainly Loved.

CHICAGO, June 4. — Edward Forshay, of Kansas City, an actor and assistant manager of theatrical companies, last night shot and killed Miss Edna Stokes, an actress whose home is at Sedalia, Missouri, with whom he was deeply in love. Forshay claims to have met Miss Stokes in St. Louis six years ago, when they were both playing an engagement. The couple had engaged in a desperate quarrel three days ago, and Forshay is said to have beaten the actress, badly cutting her head in two places. Miss Stokes gave orders to the proprietor of the Vernon Hotel, at which she was stopping, that Forshay should not be admitted. However, he succeeded in arranging a meeting in the hotel parlours. When Miss Stokes entered the room, Forshay fired twice, killing her instantly. He was captured after a fierce struggle. Forshay said he intended to kill himself, as he could not live without Miss Stokes, but that his nerve failed him at the last moment.

EXPERIMENT WITH WHEAT.

WINNIPEG, June 4.—An experiment is to be made with fall wheat in Manitoba this year. A private concern is sending out a supply, with the object of ascertaining whether it will exist during the western winter. The idea is to get the fall wheat into the ground as soon as the other harvest is off the ground, and if it winters well an early harvest will be brought about. In case the wheat fails to stand the winter, the farmers can plough it under and put in spring wheat. All that the experiment will cost will be the price of the seed. Experts claim that the experiment will be a success, as it has been found that it is not one solid frost that injures, but the "frosting and thawing" periods.

FISHERIES DISPUTE.

CONCILIATORY MESSAGE RECEIVED FROM BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Which Will Probably Bring About An Amicable Arrangement Between the Federal and Provincial Government—Western People Express a Wish to Avoid Any Friction.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4. — An amicable arrangement between the Dominion and the Province of British Columbia in regard to the ownership of the fisheries appears to be on the eve of being arrived at. On Saturday, Attorney-General Eberts wired to Sir Louis Davies, stating that the British Columbia Government desired to assume control of those fisheries to which it was entitled under the Privy Council Judgment and was entering upon possession in accordance with an act passed by the provincial Legislature.

The Attorney-General expressed a wish to avoid any friction in connection with so important an industry. The Minister of Marine and Fisheries yesterday replied to this conciliatory message. Sir Louis assured Attorney-General Eberts that there was no objection to the province taking charge of these fisheries to which it was entitled under the judgment of the Privy Council. This had been done by the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec without any trouble resulting. As to the sea coast fisheries, there was a difference of opinion and it had been agreed between the Dominion and Quebec to submit a test case to the courts. He hoped this would prove satisfactory to the province. The Dominion would retain control of the sea coast fisheries, and if the judgment in the test case proved adverse to it would pay over the revenue to British Columbia, less the expense of administration.

With respect to the Fraser River, both the Dominion and British Columbia could issue licenses and exact fees up to the point where the river debouches into the Straits of Georgia. As to any regulations affecting the fisheries which the Provincial Legislature may have passed, they are ultra vires, as the power to regulate rested with the Dominion, according to the Privy Council judgment.

HAMILTON CONFERENCE.

Would Endorse Any Good Scheme to Reduce Debt on St. James Church.

HAMILTON, Ont., June 4.—At the Hamilton Methodist conference meeting yesterday the discussion on the affairs of St. James Church, Montreal, postponed from Saturday, was resumed. A motion was passed that the conference sympathized deeply with the Montreal church and would endorse any general scheme for securing assistance toward further reducing the debt on the church.

MINING COMPANY'S TROUBLES.

Shareholders of British-American Company Hold Stormy Meeting and Decide on Voluntary Liquidation.

LONDON, June 4. — The meeting of the shareholders of the British American Corporation, held on Monday, was a stormy affair. A decision was arrived at to go into voluntary liquidation.

The corporation was closely affiliated with the London & Globe Finance Corporation, Limited, whose suspension in December last caused so much excitement on the Stock Exchange. Lord Dufferin was a director of the British-American as well as of the London & Globe Corporation. When the chairman said that owing entirely to the London & Globe default the British-American Corporation could not continue business, he was assailed with all kinds of hostile demonstrations and cries of "The same old game," and "Are you not ashamed to face us?" Mr. Whittaker Wright's explanation met with an equally hostile reception. The uproar continued during the whole meeting.

A SHIRT COMBINE.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The Mail and Express says that, under the title of the American Shirt and Collar Company, a $20,000,000 linen goods manufacurers' trust will be incorporated under the laws of this state. It will control completely the wholesale shirt and collar trade of the country. The retailers, it is said, regard the combination with disfavour. It was learned today that at a meeting held last Tuesday, in Troy, a tentative agreement signed by eight of the largest manufacturers met the approval of nine others who expressed their willingness to ratify this combination.

A gentleman interested in the combination of the American shirt and collar interests said that much work had been done towards such a combination. He stated that it had not been consummated. It might fall through entirely. He wished any reference to be made to it to be in conservative terms. He said the amount involved might be twenty millions.

SOLD TO SALT COMBINE.

WINDSOR, Ont., June 4.—E. G. Henderson, president of the Windsor Salt Co., says that his company has sold out to the Canadian Salt Company. He is very reticent in discussing the situation, and says he cannot tell whether the Windsor works will be closed down or not. The Windsor Salt Co. claims that he council has not kept faith with it in promised exemption from taxation. The closing of the works would be a great loss to Windsor, as the local pay roll amounts to $40,000 annually.

CONSERVATIVE NOMINATION.

PICTON, Ont., June 4.—At a mass-meeting of the Prince Edward County Conservatives held here on Saturday, Levi P. Williams was selected to be the candidate of the party at the approaching elections for the legislature. Seventeen nominees were mentioned, among them were W. R. Dempsey, the present member, but all retired in favour of Mr. Williams.

BOOTH DENIES STORY.

NEW YORK, June 4.—General Ballington Booth, of the Volunteers of America, denied that he was about to return to the Salvation Army to be re-united with his father. He said many bitter and cruel things had been said of him by members of his own family and that no evidence had been given of a desire to recall them.

DELIVERED BY THE MOB.

SYDNEY, June 4.—A man named Harvey was arrested at Reserve Mines, on Saturday, for being drunk, and he was lodged in gaol. Shortly afterwards a mob of 50 men attacked the lockup for the purpose of rescuing Harvey. Windows were smashed, the iron bars broken and Harvey was carried off triumphantly. Edward Poir, one of the rescuers, was arrested and yesterday he was fined $25. Other arrests will follow.

Paine's Celery Compound

The Great Summer Medicine That Makes Sick People Well.

Paine's Celery Compound is the one true specific recognized and prescribed to-day by the most able practitioners for all diseases arising from a debilitated, nervous system.

The eminent medical practitioner, Dr. Phelps, gave Paine's Celery Compound to his profession as a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism and neuralgia, and in every case it has proved victorious over sickness and disease.

Paine's Celery Compound works wonders in the hot summer weather. It gives vim, energy and strength to the weak, languid, irritable and morose; it banishes all tired feelings, and enables men and women to go through the routine of daily toil with heart soul and energy.

Let us urge you to try this marvellous healing medicine that millions are speaking of. Let us assure you that the use of Paine's Celery Compound means vigorous appetite, good digestion, happy disposition and good health. 130 1

NEW MODE OF MARRIAGE.

Agnostics Imitate Religious Bodies and Prescribe a Form of Matrimonial Ritual.

CINCINNATI, O., June 4.—An agnostic couple were made man and wife here on Sunday according to the formalities prescribed by the Agnostic Society of this city, for the marriage of its members. It is said that this is the first marriage performed under these rules. The contracting parties were Frederick Federie, an employe of the Pittsburg Coal Company, and Martha Seaman. The ceremony took place in the College Hall of the Young Men's Mercantile Library building, on Walnut street.

At the conclusion of the agnostic Sunday school services the couple were made man and wife, on the stage of the hall, which was decorated with the American colours and mottoes of the society. Mr. Sparks acted as master of ceremonies. Mr. Federie and Miss Seaman repeated the pledges after Sparks, and acquiesced in them by spoken words and by nods. The voluminous pledges were in effect that they be frugal in habits, that the man at once insure his life for the benefit of the woman, that they avoid wrangling, and if they found in time that they were not "mated" that they separate. The woman also repeated the words: "I will not bring children into the world not born of affection." Both promised to rear their children, should children be born, in the agnostic faith, and after the teachings at the agnostic Sunday.

Magistrate Alexander Roebling took the couple after they had taken the agnostic pledges and completed the ceremony, according to the civil law requirements, as administered by magistrates. The magistrate, however, according to instructions from Mr. Sparks, did not use the word "obey" in his form of ceremony. After the magistrate, Mr. Sparks again stepped to the front, and in loud tones declared, "These who have thus bound themselves together in a marriage contract let no man or woman put asunder, or seek so to do under pains and penalties of dishonour and of the law."

SUPREME COURT CASES.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 4.—In the Supreme Court on Monday, the arguments in Sinclair vs. Preston were concluded and judgment reserved. In the Gurney Foundry Co. vs. Morris, the action is to recover damages in consequence of personal injuries received while working as an employe in the appellant's foundry at Toronto. Respondents recovered $1,170 damages at the trial, which verdict was sustained by the Court of Appeal. The judgment is attacked by appellants on the ground that there was no evidence of negligence for the jury; that if there was, the verdict was against the weight of evidence; that the injury was caused by negligence of a fellow servant of respondents. The arguments were not concluded when the court adjourned for the day. C. Robinson, K. C., and Greer, for the appellants. Lindsay, K. C., for the respondents.

CANADIANS AT BUFFALO.

BUFFALO, N.Y., June 4.—The famous 13th Regiment Band of Hamilton, Ont., gave its first concert at the Pan-American Exposition yesterday and was received heartily by the crowd. It will play for a week. They are the forerunners of Canadian troops that will come later. Major Wolf, director of military, is arranging for detachments of crack Canadian soldiers that were in the Boer war. Above all he is endeavouring to obtain a troop of the famous Strathcona Horse. The 15th Light Argyle Infantry of Belleville, Ont., Colonel William Ponton commanding, will be here from June 29th to July 1st. They will bring two bands.

It was practically assured yesterday that the 48th Highlanders of Toronto with their band will come some time in August.

The Standard of "Dewar's Whiskey" has always been maintained, therein lies the secret of its success. 130 1

SOUTH AFRICAN TRADE.

Dominion Trade Commissioner Writes on That Subject and Other Matters.

(Special to the Star.)

BROCKVILLE, June 4. — An interesting letter, dated Durban, April 27, has been received here from James Cumming, Dominion Trade Commissioner to South Africa. He says there is no plague, but plenty of fever, and the weather very hot. The city has a population of 30,000 whites and 40,000 coloured. He says the war has demoralized business. The military run everything, wharves and railways, and merchants are unable to ship anything when they expect to. The port is crowded with steamers and sailing vessels, four abreast at the wharf, and many cannot get in. He says the Pretoria and Johannesburg Loyalists are nearly all at the coast, refugees or fighting in volunteer companies, so that the Government are virtually feeding 200,000 men and probably 20,000 Boer women and children, besides prisoners. He says: "There will be a big demand from this country for lumber and furniture when peace is re-established, but the merchants here carry enormous stocks. Some firms have buildings covering acres, filled with everything in dry goods, groceries, furnishings, hardware, stoves, carriages, fancy goods, flour, lumber, drugs, paints, etc., and they send goods to the interior perhaps 2,000 miles up by the coast steamers and then on the backs of natives. This city is largely kept in ordinary times by the Johannesburg trade. The gold mines are the foundation of everything in business in South Africa. This country is quite newly settled. Saw a house only three miles out where forty years ago the verandah was repeatedly knocked down by elephants rubbing themselves on the posts and the farmer put in iron posts and then had peace. Coal is only 20s. or £1 per ton, but everything else is very dear except fruit. Hair cutting costs 2s and 6d. Hotels charge 12s and 6d to 25s per day."

Mr. Cumming expected to start for home in one month after writing. He left Durban to go to Pietermaritzburg and Ladysmith or as far as it was safe.

BROKE INTO A POST OFFICE.

(Special to the Star.)

ST. JOHN, N.B., June 4. — The post office at Penobsquis, Kings County, was broken into early Sunday morning and a number of letters torn open in search for money. Little if any was obtained, but the thieves carried off a quantity of clothing, etc., from Freeze Bros.' store, in which the post office is situated. Suspicion pointing to two young strangers seen in the village Saturday night, searching parties started out, with the result that the suspects were caught on the Intercolonial Railway track, near Dunsuane, Sunday afternoon, and will be taken to Sussex for preliminary trial to-day. The men gave the names of Watson and Walsh, and Walsh says they belonged to Chatham. Watson, before his arrest, drew a knife on the constable.

MORE RAILWAY COMBINES.

NEW YORK, June 4. — The Press says that one tremendous consolidation of all the railways operating between the Mississippi River and the Pacific Coast promises to result from a settlement of the differences which caused the Northern Pacific corner.

Exact details of the harmony agreement are withheld until J. Pierpont Morgan arrives from Europe. He will sail for this country on Wednesday.

THE AYRES MURDER CASE.

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 4.—The case of Mrs. Lotta Henri Bonine, held for the killing of young Ayres, the Census Bureau clerk, at the Hotel Kenmore a few weeks ago, was presented to the grand jury yesterday. The efforts of the Government point strongly to the theory that the victim was shot in the thigh while lying on the bed and that the other shots were inflicted while he was going toward the assailant. Mrs. Bonine will not be a witness before the grand jury.

WOODSTOCK SOLDIERS KICK

Because the Government Does Not Supply a Proper Mess.

(Special to the Star.)

WOODSTOCK, June 4.—A lively discussion took place in the County Council here on Monday afternoon. It was started by a deputation of officers from the Oxford Rifles, waiting on the Council and asking for a grant of $300 with which to buy a mess tent for the men for the approaching camp. It was shown by the deputation that eight or ten men have to eat and sleep in a bell-shaped tent sixteen feet square, and the conditions thus are not fit for human beings. The question was raised by three or four of the councillors why the Government did not provide properly for the men in camp. Several of them said they had no idea that such things existed. Councillor Daniel Sutherland moved a resolution that the money be granted to the regiment, but that the bill be sent to the Minister of Militia. "Just to let them know our feelings down there," said Mr. Sutherland. "I think it is a downright shame," he said, "that the Government of any country will allow her soldiers to live like dogs." Mr. Sutherland didn't get a seconder, because the Council could see anything to be gained by sending the account to Ottawa, but the members approved of his stand. "We've got to make our men as comfortable in camp as any others," said Lt.-Col. J. C. Hegler. "Others regiments have mess tents, and if the Council doesn't buy one for us, we officers will do it ourselves." The $300 grant was passed unanimously.

The Ditzel Metal Company, Limited, has been incorporated by the Ontario Government. It proposes to reduce and otherwise treat ores. Its head office is in Toronto, and its capital is $500,000.

DID NOT HEAR WHISTLE.

An Old Couple Dashed Into by a Train at Berlin.

BERLIN, Ont., June 4.—A fatal accident happened near here yesterday afternoon, about three o'clock on the Berlin branch of the Grand Trunk. It appears Moses L. Snider and wife, of Wilmot township, were leaving for their home, and when they reached Albert street crossing a train came along and whistled, but evidently it was not heard by the unfortunate couple, who were upwards of 70 years old. The train dashed into them. Mr. Snider has since died, and Mrs. Snider had her ribs and arms broken, and is likely to die. The horse was carried on the cowcatcher over fifty feet, and then hurled towards the fence.

WANT THEIR GRATUTITY.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—The Militia Department are receiving numerous enquiries from discharged members of the Canadian contingents, who are eager to receive their war gratuity of £5 sterling. It is notified that so far the Militia Department have only received from the Imperial War Office the amount of the gratuity for soldiers invalided home early last year. It is understood that a list is being prepared by the department for the War Office of all who are entitled to receive gratuity, and within twenty-four hours of these lists being authorized the cheques will all be distributed.

ANOTHER BIG COMBINE.

NEW YORK, June 4. — It is announced that the preliminary details in the formation of the $50,000,000 cotton duck combine have all been completed. Articles of incorporation will be filed at Trenton, N.J., before the end of the week.

Natrue's True Beauty
The Charm of a
Beautiful Complexion
Lies in the use of..... VIN ST-MICHEL

A trifle vain, but commendable for all ladies, is pride in looking well. Unfortunately a great many ladies think that to obtain a good complexion they must use paints or powders. These preparations, whatever kind you buy, whatever price you pay for them, are all bad and injurious to the skin. Do not defy nature by putting on a complexion, when you can obtain one by using which gives a rosy clear complexion, bright eyes, red lips which are sure signs of good health and pure rich blood. This celebrated French tonic wine, contains all the necessary elements to ensure a pure, rich, red blood which flows colored and warm, through the veins and thus gives a refined, fascinating, healthy complexion and enhances loveliness beyond the most extravagant expectations.

MAJOR HIBBARD'S SPEECH.

Makes An Eloquent Reference to the Good Feeling Existing Between Britons and Americans.

(Special to the Star.)

BOSTON, Mass., June 4.—At the anniversary banquet of the Ancient and Honourable Artillery Company, in Faneuil Hall, yesterday afternoon, Major F. W. Hibbard, of the 2nd Regiment, Canadian Artillery, responded to the toast "The Honourable Artillery Company of London, and our Guests from over the Border."

"I am proud," he said, "to speak to you on behalf of the Artillery Company of London. Speaking in Boston, I feel the truth of the saying that there are other conquests than those of war, for I am in an ancient city, which grasps firmly with one hand the great historic traditions and the strenuous past of our country, and with the other reaches forth with no uncertain touch for that which in the future is to make for the best and the highest development of men. Hence, I can repeat here the saying of General Chaffee to the effect that no American, and no British army would ever find themselves in hostile action against one another, a truth which has gone all over the world. We look forward with confidence to the progress and onward march of the British Empire. But if it should ever come to pass that this Empire is in danger of going down before its enemies and the armies of the hostile world should gather to attack our dear land to the north, we are sure that every man, woman and child would gather to its defence. It would be shown that we are blood of your blood, and of your race, our race and no matter what might come, you would proclaim to the world that no despot should wrest that land from us and no tyrant shall call us bondmen."

Wm. Pelham, a fisherman, of Herring Cove, N.S., was drowned on Monday by the sinking of his boat in a squall.

CARPETS

Are a special and important factor to every home, and like all business conducted on a reliable basis should be entrusted to the specialist. Ours is the only exclusive Carpet business in Montreal, may say Canada, as all Carpet houses appear to combine other branches, which takes their attention from this all-important and artistic business.
Work rooms in our new premises are fully equipped with a competent staff, and orders for making and laying, as well as orders for removing, altering and beating Carpets, will receive our prompt and careful attention.

The Archbishop of Canterbury wrote regretting that his official engagements prevented his presiding at the celebration at Holy Trinity, Paddington. The Archbishop of Cape Town and Bishop Bickersteth also wrote and expressed deep sympathy and regret. The Duke of Argyll telegraphed his hearty sympathy. Letters of regret, expressing their pleasant recollections, respect and affection for the late Archbishop of Ontario were received from the Countess of Aberdeen, the Earl of Derby, the Marquis of Lansdowne, and others.

The marriage of Mrs. Elizabeth Drexel-Dahlgren, a daughter of the late Joseph Drexel, to Mr. Harry Symes Lehr, of Baltimore, took place in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Fifth avenue, New York, yesterday at noon. The bride was accompanied by her brother, George W. Childs Drexel, of Philadelphia. She wore a morning gown of white, with a bonnet to correspond. The bridegroom's brother, F. William Lehr, was his best man. The ushers were Messrs. George J. Gould, Theodore Frelinghuysen and Arthur T. Kemp, of New York; T. M. Parr, jr., Thomas de Foord, jr., and Robert Lehr, brother of the bridegroom, of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Archbishop Corrigan, who was assisted by Father Lacelle, the pastor of the cathedral, and several other of the parish priests. The main body of the church was crowded, but a small percentage of the persons who attended the ceremony went later to the reception and wedding breakfast at the bride's home, at 20 West Fifty-sixth street. On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Lehr will sail for Europe, where they will remain for two months, going later to Newport.

Miss Annie Urquhart Potter, daughter of Mr. James Brown Potter, was married yesterday afternoon in Grace Church, New York, to Mr. James Alexander Stillman, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stillman. The ceremony was performed by the granduncle of the bride, Bishop Henry C. Potter, who was assisted by the rector of the church, Dr. Huntington. The decorations in the church were characterized by simplicity and good taste, and consisted of masses of apple and dogwood blossoms and marguerites. The bride was given away by her father, and had but one attendant, Miss Alice W. Babcock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Babcock. Mr. Reginald Brooks was the best man, and Messrs. Bart Jacob, F. Murray Forbes, Howland S. Russell, Robert H. Hollowell, George T. Rice, George G. Amory and Elton Clark acted as ushers. The bride's gown was of ivory white satin, chiffon and lace, with court train, embroidered in thistles and their leaves in heavy white silk, which form long vines, which narrow as they near the shoulders. The leaves are delicately veined with silver thread, and are picked out with seed pearls. The veil of point d'Alencon was arranged in a point in front, quite low on the forehead, and formed a broad, fan-like piece of lace over each ear, held up by large bunches of natural orange blossoms, fastened in Japanese fashion to her hair. In place of a bouquet the bride carried an ostrich feather fan, mounted on mother of pearl, studded with diamonds. Miss Babcock wore pale blue Louisine silk, embroidered in tiger lilies, and trimmed with lace tinted to match the silk, and hat of blue, trimmed with pink roses, and a big beetle of green paillettes. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the residence of Bishop and Mrs. Potter. The bride's going-away gown was of military blue mercerized linen, with trimming of Syrian drawn work, having the effect of heavy ecru linen lace. Mrs. Stillman also wore a cloak of linen, with trimming to match the dress, and lined throughout with blue silk. Her hat was of blue straw and linen.

The Standard of "Dewar's Whiskey" has always been maintained, therein lies the secret of its success. 130 1

THE MARCONI WIRELESS.

The Lake Champlain Arrives in Port With the System Installed on Board—Found to Work Satisfactorily.

The steamship Lake Champlain, of the Elder, Dempster Company, with the Marconi system of wireless telegraphy on board, arrived in port yesterday. On the passage messages were transmitted to Holyhead and Rosslare, Ireland, for the saloon passengers, and then sent to their friends in different parts of the United Kingdom. Captain Stewart sent a message to the ship's owners, and received a reply back from Holyhead wishing him a pleasant voyage. When the telegraphing was done the steamer was about fifty miles at sea.

The battery and instruments for the installation of the Lake Champlain are placed in a small cabin built for the purpose aft of the deck house. A pole is lashed to the top of mizzenmast, and connection by means of a wire is made with the deck house. The installation, which is temporary, was placed in position by Captain Daly, who will be remembered in port as the commander of the steamship Mexico, and now marine superintendent of the Marconi International Marine Communication Co., of London. The expert in charge of the system on the vessel is Mr. F. Stacey, of Marconi's staff.

While leaving the other side the Lake Champlain was in communication with one station approaching and drawing away from it for a matter of six hours, messages in the interval being freely transmitted.

In order to make the use of wireless telegraphy of benefit to vessels entering the St. Lawrence it will be necessary to have coast stations at Cape Race, Belle Isle, or somewhere in that vicinity. While the Lake Champlain is here the Minister of Public Works will be asked to inspect the Marconi installation, and this matter will be brough to his notice. It is understood that the installation on the Lake Champlain will be made permanent, when she returns home, and the other vessels will be supplied with Marconi installations also.

Lumbago Backs Straightened.
Don't lie around the house losing time and money because your back is stiff from lumbago. Do as thousands before you have done. Buy a large bottle of that unusually good liniment, Polson's Nerviline, and rub it frequently over the sore part. It gets at the pain, drives it out, limbers you up in no time. Nerviline is quick to relieve; never fails; never harms. Try it to-day. 25 cents. 130 1

BANK OF MONTREAL.

Proceedings at the 83rd Annual Meeting.

A SATISFACTORY REPORT.

Mr. Clouston's Remarks on the General Commercial Situation in Canada.

The eighty-third annual meeting of the shareholders of the Bank of Montreal was held in the Board-room of the Institution, at 1 o'clock yesterday.

There were present: Hon. George A. Drummond, vice-president; Sir William Macdonald, Hon. James O'Brien, Capt. Benyon, Messrs. R. B. Angus, A. W. Hooper, Hector Mackenzie, David Morrice, F. S. Lyman, K.C., F. T. Judah, K.C., B. A. Boas, J. G. Snetsinger, W. H. Evans, W. J. Buchanan, E. B. Greenshields, Richard White, A. T. Taylor, J. Try-Davies, Henry Dobell, Hugh Cameron, M. S. Foley, Henry Mason, H. Drummond, A. Walmsley, Nicholas Murphy, John Morrison.

On the motion of Mr. R. B. Angus, Hon. George A. Drummond, vice-president, was unanimously voted to the chair, in the absence of the president, the Right Hon. Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal.

On the motion of Mr. F. T. Judah, seconded by Mr. Henry Dobell, it was agreed: "That the following gentlemen be appointed to act as scrutineers: Messrs. F. S. Lyman, K.C., and W. J. Buchanan, and that Mr. James Aird be the secretary of the meeting."

DIRECTORS' REPORT.

The report of the directors to the shareholders at their eighty-third annual general meeting was then read by Mr. E. S. Clouston, general manager, as follows:

The Directors have pleasure in presenting the eighty-third annual report, showing the result of the Bank's business of the year ended 30th April, 1901.

Balance of Profit and Loss Account, 30th April, 1900		$ 427,180 80
Profits for the year ended 30th April, 1901, after deducting charges of management and making full provision for all bad and doubtful debts		1,537,522 39
		$1,964,703 19
Dividend 5 per cent paid 1st December, 1900	$600,000 00
Dividend 5 per cent. payable 1st June, 1901	600,000 00
		1,200,000 00
Balance of Profit and Loss carried forward...		$ 764,703 19

As shareholders are aware, the present bank charters would have expired on the 1st July next. Instead of introducing an entire new Bank Act, the Government proceeded to continue the charters of the banks, and has provided for the changes which in its opinion were advisable by amendments to the Bank Act of 1890.

The accommodation in the bank's building at headquarters having become very inadequate for the proper conduct of the business, it has been found necessary to erect suitable premises on the site recently acquired on Craig street, and the work is now in progress. The new premises are to be connected with the present building by a bridge over Fortification lane.

Premises are also being erected at the corner of Wellington and Magdalen streets, for the use of the Point St. Charles sub-agency, and since the last annual meeting the bank's building at Sydney, N.S., has been completed and occupied by that branch.

It has been decided to open a branch of the Bank at Glace Bay, N.S., at once.

The Head Office and all the branches have passed through the usual inspection during the year.

Bank of Montreal,
Montreal, 30th April, 1901.

E. S. CLOUSTON,
General Manager.

THE GENERAL MANAGER.

Mr. Clouston then said:

The statement before you requires a little explantion, as it is made up to conform to the Amended Bank Act of last session, and now embraces our foreign business as well as our Canadian. Previous statements showed only the balances which would be due us from other countries after our business there had been liquidated. Consequently, our statement now includes all deposits and loans elsewhere than in Canada. This makes a comparison with former statements an impossibility, but for the information of the shareholders, I may say that the principal changes in our Canadian business are as follows:

Circulation, increase..	$ 321,000
Deposits not bearing interest, increase..	1,963,000
Deposits bearing interest, increase	5,422,000
Current loans and discounts, decrease.....	360,000

You will notice that our profits are a little in excess of those of last year, and the statement is one of the strongest we have had the pleasure of laying before you.

As the charters of all the banks would have expired in July of this year, a further extension of ten years was granted, and certain amendments to the Bank Act were enacted.

The chief changes were:

The rate of interest on the notes of suspended banks be reduced from 6 per cent. to 5 per cent.

Power has been given to enable a bank to purchase the assets of another, thus overcoming the barrier which formerly existed to the amalgamation of banks.

In addition to the annual return of unclaimed dividends and balances, we are also required to furnish a statement of all drafts and bills of exchange issued and remaining unpaid.

In the case of a suspended bank, the Canadian Bankers' Association has been given power to appoint a curator. The association has also been entrusted with the work of inspecting and supervising the note circulating acounts of all the banks in the Dominion, an added safeguard, if any were needed, to the circulating currency of the country. In this way the association has practically become an agent of the Government in the administration of the act.

The form of our statement to the Government has been changed, and fuller details are now required. It was this that rendered advisable the new form of statement now laid before you. Other changes were more of interest to bankers themselves than the public. Generally speaking, the alterations were in the direction of strengthening and improving the act under which we have worked for the last ten years.

At the last session of Parliament the Finance Minister took power to establish a mint. The opinion of the bankers, not from any selfish point of view, but from what we believed to be in the best interest of the country at large, were set forth at the last annual meeting of the Bankers' Association, and I do not propose to say anything more on the subject here. The Act was only permissive, and it may be that on looking more closely into the matter, the Government may decide not to incur considerable expense in order to deteriorate the value of one of our products, as the gold is more available to pay our foreign indebtedness, and more valuable for export, as bullion, than it it were minted into coin. As a circulating medium, it will not displace the paper currency here, any more than it does in the United States, while the miners to-day can obtain from the banks the same value for their gold as they would if the mint were established even in British Columbia.

Business during the last year has been generally good, notwithstanding a short crop in the North-West, and in spite of the unfortunate condition of affairs in the mining districts. In other sections of Canada, even the most pessimistic of farmers should have been satisfied with the results of the last two years. If, from a sentimental point of view, we were eager and willing to aid the Mother Country by the despatch of troops, as will always be the case, the practical result is a magnificent advertisement to Canada, and an additional market established for our products, which will probably recoup the outlay of this country. In the last year there has been an increased demand for its products, in consequence of the Boer war in South Africa.

On the other hand, the woollen manufacturing industry has not been prosperous, and I am sorry to say the outlook for the lumber trade is not of the best, prices ruling low and the markets being congested, and we can only hope for an improvement before the season finishes.

There are also signs of over production in textile goods, and in the manufacture of pulp, which only need judicious restraint to be put on a good basis. We must not forget the return of the wave and get so far beyond our depth as to lose our footing.

It is too early to speak of the future crops, though up to the present the reports are good, and if they turn out according to promise, we ought to have another good year, and if that comes you can see that this Bank is in a position to take advantage of it.

ADOPTION OF REPORT.

Hon. George A. Drummond said:

You have heard the statement of the general manager, and the report of the directors, and the statements placed before you appear to me to be so full and complete that I do not consider it necessary to make any further amplification of them. I will content myself, therefore, with moving: "That the report of the directors now read be adopted and printed for distribution among the shareholders."

The motion was seconded by Mr. E. B. Greenshields, and after a few remarks by Mr. John Morrison, who thought that the general manager had taken the correct view with regard to the proposed establishment of a Canadian mint, it was carried unanimously.

Senator O'Brien moved :—

"That the thanks of the meeting be presented to the President, Vice-President, and Directors for their attention to the interests of the Bank."

This was seconded by Mr. David Morrice, and was unanimously agreed to.

Sir William Macdonald moved :—

"That the thanks of the meeting be given to the General Manager, the Inspector, the Managers, and other officers of the bank for their services during the past year."

The motion was seconded by Mr. R. B. Angus, and having been unanimously concurred in, was acknowledged by the General Manager.

Mr. B. A. Boas moved :—

"That the ballot now open for the election of Directors be kept open until 3 o'clock unless fifteen minutes elapse without a vote being cast, when it shall be closed, and until that time, and for that purpose only, this meeting be continued."

This was seconded by Mr. Hector Mackenzie, and unanimously agreed to.

On the motion of Mr. John Morrison, seconded by Hon. James O'Brien, a hearty vote of thanks was accorded the Chairman for his conduct of the business of the meeting; and he acknowledged the same.

THE DIRECTORS.

The ballot resulted in the election of the following directors :—

R. B. ANGUS, ESQ.
HON. GEORGE A. DRUMMOND.
A. F. GAULT, ESQ.
E. B. GREENSHIELDS, ESQ.
SIR WILLIAM C. MACDONALD.
A. T. PATERSON, ESQ.
R. G. REID, ESQ.
JAMES ROSS, ESQ.
RT. HON. LORD STRATHCONA AND MOUNT ROYAL., G.C.M.G.

The President and Vice-President will, in the ordinary course of business, be elected at to-day's meeting of the Board of Directors.

CABINET CHANGES.

There Will be None for a While Yet—When Sir Louis Davies Will Go on Supreme Court Bench.

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, June 4.—The Globe's Ottawa correspondent says: It is understood there will be no Cabinet changes until Sir Louis Davies returns from England, which will be about the beginning of July. Sir Louis will then ascend the Supreme Court Bench, but it is not yet known who will succeed him in the Government.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—In connection with the rearrangement of the Imperial Council so as to give life representation to the great colonies gossip is busy. Mr. Mills, it is said, has no ambition for a seat in the Judicial Committee with a life peerage. It is said that Sir Louis Davies intends also pressing his claims to the position after a brief service on the bench of the Supreme Court of Canada, which is expected he will be appointed to early in the recess. There has also been mention made of Solicitor-General Fitzpatrick for the life peerage and membership in the Judicial Committee, but he seems latterly to have dropped out of the running. But if indications count for anything, the result of this high office will be given to Hon. Edward Blake, and the hope is expressed in legal circles that he may be induced to accept.

GENERAL O'GRADY-HALY

Starts Next Week on a Trip to Inspect the Militia Camps.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 4.—General O'Grady-Haly will leave Ottawa on June 12 on a tour of inspection to the various militia camps. On the 13th, he will proceed to London, and will devote the 14th to inspecting the camp there. On the 15th he will return to Toronto and stay over there until the 17th, when he will go to Niagara.

The 18th and 19th will be spent by the General at Niagara camp, and on the 20th he will go on to Kingston, where he will be the guest of Lieut.-Col. Reade, commandant of the R. M. C. The General will stay at Deseronto camp on the 21st and 22nd. Returning to Kingston, he will spend the 24th in work of inspection at that city. Afterwards he will visit the Levis camp, the Quebec Citadel and the Three Rivers camp.

The first course of instruction at the Dominion School of Musketry is to be opened at Rockliffe on July 1. Thirty officers and non-coms. will take the course. They will live under canvas for the six weeks, and undergo a thoroughly practical training under Col. Cartwright, who will be assisted by three sergeants.

The Whole Truth!

There's nothing so bad for a cough as coughing.

There's nothing so good for a cough as

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

The 25 cent size is just right for an ordinary, everyday cold. The 50 cent size is better for the cough of bronchitis, croup, grip, and hoarseness. The dollar size is the best for chronic coughs, as in consumption, chronic bronchitis, asthma, etc.

Three sizes: 25c., 50c., $1.00.

If your druggist cannot supply you, send us one dollar and we will express a large bottle to you, all charges prepaid. Be sure you give us your [illegible] express office. Address, J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

AROUND HOTEL CORRIDORS

Eminent Parliamentarians have been noticeable around the Windsor rotunda of late. On Sunday we had the two Bordens. The Minister of Militia left hurriedly the same day, but the leader of the Opposition, with his immaculate clothes and glossy silk hat tarried until Monday to transact some private business in the city. Hardly had the Bluenose leader been whirled away at noon on his long journey to the Maritime Provinces when two others appeared. This time it was the Minister of Justice, Honourable David Mills, wearing a rose in the lappel of his beautifully fitting frock coat. He was accompanied by Honourable Charles Fitzpatrick, the Solicitor-General, who wore a jaunty light coloured felt hat. The two statesmen spent a part of last evening chatting with friends in the rotunda.

The Minister of Justice, in the course of a chat with a Star representative, stated that his trip to Montreal at the present time was quite unconnected with Cabinet business.

"I have taken a run down to your city," said he, "wholly on a pleasure jaunt. I sail for England shortly by the steamship Commonwealth from Boston."

"How long shall you spend on the other side?"

"Upwards of two months," replied Mr. Mills. "I go over in connection with the changes contemplated in the judicial committee of the Privy Council."

"What will be the extent of these changes?"

"Well, really," replied the Minister, "I am not so sure on that point myself. I have been invited, however, to go over and take part in the deliberations, but until I get there I am somewhat at sea as to their exact scope."

"It is rumoured that Sir Louis Davies will shortly go on the Bench of the Supreme Court."

Hon. David Mills, Minister of Justice, Talks About His Trip to England.

"Yes, I have read of such a possibility, but cannot at present either confirm or deny the statement."

•• •• ••

The recent guarded intimation of Mr. T. G. Shaughnessy, President of the C. P. R., that it was not improbable in the near future that an agreement might be reached between his road and the Trans-Siberian Railway, now under construction by the Russian Government, whereby an all-around-the-world route might be established, of which a most important link would be the Canadian Pacific Railway, has aroused intense interest in Canada. This statement, taken in connection with the departure of Mr. William Whyte last evening for St. Petersburg furnishes interesting food for thought for Canadians.

Mr. Whyte, just prior to his departure last evening for New York, interviewed by a Star representative at the Windsor Hotel, gave a statement as to the scope of his mission. Said he:

"My journey has for its aims commercial development primarily—always keep that in view. I sail by the Germanic, from New York to Liverpool, and from there proceed to Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg, at which place I hope to arrive about the end of the present month. At St. Petersburg I shall present myself and my credentials to the representatives of the Russian Government. I expect consideration at their hands and shall, before leaving that city, make every effort to obtain such privileges which shall enable me to carry out my project of a thorough examination of the Trans-Siberian railway and the country through which it runs, with a view, if possible to develope trade between that country and Canada. Always keep in mind," repeated Mr. Whyte, "that my mission is essentially a commercial one.

"How long shall I remain? Well, that will altogether depend upon circumstances. But it is my intention to make as thorough an examination of the country as possible. The country is a vast one, and I think there should be great possibilties for trade with Canada in the future."

Mr. William Whyte Talks of His Russian Trip.

"Will you not define, Mr. Whyte, somewhat more definitely, the exact lines which you, as the representative of the Canadian Pacific Railway, propose to follow in your endeavour to develope commercial relations between the two countries?"

"Now, you see," said Mr. Whyte, smiling oracularly, "the Russian Government is such a very suspicious government, that it might be perhaps the wiser way not to enter into too many details just at present. In fact," continued Mr. Whyte, with a far-away look in his eye, as if he were already in the country of the Czar, "I think, perhaps, it is the most suspicious country in Europe."

"Are you not, Mr. Whyte, in setting out on this mission, duly accredited by the Canadian Pacific Railway to make, if possible, an arrangement with the Russian Government, whereby upon the completion of the Trans-Siberian Railway now under construction, a world encircling system may become an accomplished fact?"

The assistant to the President looked wise—very wise—and said: "I should not be a bit surprised if, in the near future, there was a line of steamships running between either Port Arthur of Vladivostock and Vancouver."

Mr. Whyte left for New York by the Delaware and Hudson train, at seven o'clock last evening, and was given an extremely cordial send-off at the Bonaventure Station by a host of friends.

The Intercolonial Railway, which has proved somewhat of a white elephant to governments in the past, was the subject of an interesting interview with the Honourable A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways and Canals, at the Windsor Hotel to-day. The honourable gentleman arrived from Ottawa this morning and proceeds to Boston to-day where he will to-morrow take the steamship Commonwealth for Liverpool. The Minister looks in the best of health and seems little the worse for the labours of the parliamentary session.

Hon. A. G. Blair, Minister of Railways, discusses deficit on working of Intercolonial.

"Is it a fact," Mr. Blair was asked, "that the Intercolonial Railway will be behind upwards of $600,000 for the past half year?"

Mr. Blair replied: "Not quite that much, but the road has not been doing quite as well as we could have wished—that is, the expenses this past while have been unusually heavy. Our wage items have been large. Heavy purchase of rolling stock have been made and extensive repairs carried out. Expenses in connection with supplies have been very heavy. The road has always been run with a very small margin, and in inaugurating improvements and adequately providing for the train service it does not take long before $400,000 or $500,000 is swallowed up."

From the tenor of the minister's remarks it was gathered that the road's deficit would be in the vicinity of half a million.

Continuing, Mr. Blair said: "Extensive improvements are being made on the Intercolonial in connection with the growth and development of Sydney, C. B. The policy of the Government along that line is to provide every possible facility for the development of that important mining centre. New sidings, etc., will be built for the accommodation of the increased traffic."

"Is it the intention of the present Government to double track the Intercolonial Railway between Sydney, C. B., and Truro?"

"Well, we do not think that at present the exigencies of the case require this extra expenditure."

The Minister of Railways and Canals announced that his visit to England would be of about six weeks' duration, and was purely of a personal character, and in the nature of a rest, which he felt that he much needed.

The death of the great missionary, McKay, of Formosa, was discussed by a group at the Windsor last evening, and several tributes were paid to the famous Zorra man's memory. A young Nova Scotian in the group remarked: "I remember, as a child, the impression the man made upon me. It was away back in 1880, if I recollect aright, when one afternoon in Sunday school, the word was passed around that McKay, of Formosa, would address a meeting in the church during the week. The interest the news of his coming aroused was extraordinary. People flocked to hear him from all quarters, and a wonderful sight Prince Street Presbyterian Church, Pictou, N.S., presented on the eventful night. The pews were packed, and an eager crowd thronged the aisles to the very doorways. Old men and young were there, and women and children of all ages. McKay was then not much more than started on his extraordinary career, but the great work which he had already accomplished had raised very high expectations. I shall never forget the man's appearance on that memorable night. Perched high up in an imposing pulpit of quaint, rich beauty, he leaned at times far out over the heads of the people below in the exercise of his powerful oratory. His voice swept the congregation, stirring it as a trumpet. With uplifted arm he solemnly denounced the apparent lack of interest in the cause of missions. The sound of the voice coming from the black bearded gaunt man, whose thin white face seemed transfigured as he dealt with the subject nearest to his heart, will ever remain with me.

Just landed from England.

"It was fourteen years later when I next heard the man in the same sacred edifice. Time had brought changes, and the pulpit was a thing of the past. The simple platform and desk were flower adorned in honour of his coming. He addressed another immense congregation, but not larger than the first, for all the fame which had come to him in the interim. There was the same fire, intensity and eloquent abandon in dealing with the subject of missions. His words flowed in torrents, and the effect at the close was profound. 'My friends, in this old beloved sanctuary,' said he, 'it may be that I shall never more in life talk to you again.' His foreboding has proved well founded. To my mind, our greatest Canadian missionary is gone."

BROTHERHOOD OF CARPENTERS AND JOINERS. — The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners will hold a public meeting in the Federated Trades Council Hall this evening.

BEAVER LODGE, NO. 6, I.O.O.F.—The regular weekly meeting of Beaver Lodge, No. 6, I.O.O.F., will be held this evening in their rooms, Unity Hall, Wellington street, Point St. Charles.

ST. ANN'S T. A. AND B. SOCIETY.—St. Ann's T. A. and B. Society, at their last meeting, decided to hold their annual excursion to Lake St. Peter on the steamer Three Rivers on Thursday, July 18.

EXCELSIOR LODGE, NO. 12, I.O.O.F.—The Excelsior Lodge, No. 12, I.O.O.F., will meet this evening in their lodge rooms, 251 St. James street, when a candidate is expected to be initiated into the mysteries of the order.

GARMENT WORKERS' ASSEMBLY.—The Garment Workers' Assembly held a meeting last evening at 5 St. Lambert Hill. Addresses were delivered by Messrs. L. Kellert, M. Collie, A. W. Walsh, N. Levi, J. S. Fitzpatrick and J. Levi. A number of new members were initiated.

BRASS WORKERS' UNION.—There will be an important meeting of the Brass Workers' Union to-morrow evening in the Oddfellows' Hall, 251 St. James street. The constitution will be revised, the picnic committee elected, and report of Federated Trades Councillors received.

MACHINISTS' UNION. — The regular meeting of Victoria Lodge, No. 111, International Association of Machinists, was held last evening in the Federated Trades Council Hall. Three new members were initiated. It is now believed there will be no strike in Montreal among the machinists.

GROCERY CLERKS' EXCURSION. — The grocery clerks will hold their annual excursion this year on the 16th of June to Louisville, Que. It is the intention to make it a big affair. The following games committee has been appointed: Ald. Raby, Ald. Vallieres and Ald. Ricard, Messrs. J. O. Levesque, C. J. Spenard, L. O. Delorme and J. P. Beauvais.

THE ARMY AND NAVY ASSOCIATION.—The British Imperial Army and Navy Association will hold a very important meeting to-morrow evening, in their hall, 15a Bleury street, when the veterans' brass band, about twenty-seven men, will be initiated. After the initiation ceremonies the men will be measured for their new uniforms. Lord Strathcona is Colonel and Chief of the association.

MASTER BAKERS AND BREAD DRIVERS.—The adjourned meeting of the master bakers and bread drivers will be held to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in Willis' Hall, Notre Dame street, to receive the report of the delegation sent to Huntingdon to arrange for grounds for the annual picnic and games. A full attendance is requested, as the general picnic committee will be appointed.

ELECTED A DELEGATE.—At the last meeting of the Toronto Typographical Union, Mr. George W. Dower, of the Toronto Saturday Night, well and favourably known in Montreal, was elected a delegate to the next meeting of the Trades and Labour Congress, which meets in Brantford this year, by a very large majority. The Congress is, in Canada, almost like the American Federation of Labour is in the United States, and both organizations have fraternal delegates at their respective sessions.

STONEMASONS' UNION. — The stonemasons held a large meeting last evening in St. Joseph's Hall. Mr. L. Pilon, the president, was in the chair. A communication was read from the Department of Labour requesting the names of the contractors for Government work who are not conforming to the clause in their contract. The secretary was instructed to furnish the Department with the names. The president stated that he had interviewed a number of contractors in reference to a nine-hour day and a uniform rate of wages of $2.50 a day. Some of the members expressed the opinion that the union would have to take a decided stand and put the scale into effect.

INDEPENDENT TAILORS' UNION.—The Independent Tailors' Union held a special meeting last evening. The attention of the union was called to a resolution adopted by the Reformed Presbyterian Synod at Pittsburg, Pa., on Saturday, condemning trades unions and secret societies. The president remarked that in his opinion the resolutions in question would only tend to create and foster intense ill-feeling between the church and the working classes. Secretary Rappaport said it was time to abolish the church entirely and have a revival of the Christianity as expounded by Jesus Christ instead of a paid hierarchy. Bro. Cooperman said he had been a minister for some years. He was now of the opinion that the ecclesiastical authorities, finding that the labouring classes are deserting the churches in very large numbers, are trying to throw odium and contempt upon organized labour. He now believed that the church was only a big trust. He claimed that working people were obliged to organize to protect their families owing to the growth of trusts and combined capitalists. He did not think much of the remarks of Dr. T. P. Robb, a professed Christian. The meeting adjourned to meet again next Wednesday.

Hay Fever Can Be Prevented.

Don't seek other climes at "Hay Fever Season," don't destroy your stomach and nerves by drugs—prevent the disease. Hay Fever is caused by germs that float about in the air and finally find lodgment in your throat and lungs. Medicine won't reach them there, but Catarrhozone will. Catarhozrone is sure death to germs. Start now to use Catarrhozone. Inhale it into the throat, lungs, nasal passages and bronchial tubes; it goes wherever the air you breathe goes, and it will prevent and cure Hay Fever. Endorsed by not less than one thousand doctors in Canada and U.S. Sent to any address for $1.00 forwarded to Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S., or Kingston, Ont. 130 1
