CITY WILL PAY TRIBUTE TO WAR DEAD ON SUNDAY

NEW AERIAL FIRE TRUCK IS TESTED

Type of Machine to be Purchased by City Tested on Tuesday—Mayor, Aldermen, Fire Department Officials Inspect Apparatus

A demonstration and road test of a 100-foot aerial ladder fire truck of the type shortly to be added to the equipment of the Westmount Fire Department, was conducted in the city Tuesday afternoon by the American Lafrance Co., manufacturers of the machine.

Present at the demonstration were Mayor Walter A. Merrill, K.C., Alderman W. B. Scott, K.C., commissioner of police and fire, Ald. B. Panet-Raymond, K.C., Ald. Douglas Lorimer, Ald. C. K. McLeod, Chief Walter Gough and Deputy-Chief Burris, as well as many representatives from the fire departments of the City of Montreal, Verdun, Outremont, Lachine and other municipalities.

The test was made following an order for a new ladder truck placed by the City last fall. If the machine fulfills requirements specified by the city it will replace the 75-foot ladder reel now in use. The latter will be converted into another type of fire fighting apparatus.

The demonstration was held on Stanton St., the powered extension ladder being swung in many directions and raised to a number of different heights. A fireman was raised to the top window of the high spire on St. Andrew's Church.

Following the demonstration a road test to determine the machine's manoeuvrability was made in various sections of the city. All fire apparatus must be able to round the severest curves of city streets with ease.

Powered by a 240-horse power motor, the ladder truck is among the most modern and largest pieces of fire apparatus in Canada. Its equipment, in addition to its aerial ladder, includes 300 feet of duraluminum ground ladders.

The aerial ladder, which is able to reach the roof of Westmount's tallest building, is equipped with telephonic communication from top to base.

Fire department representatives from nearby municipalities at the demonstration included Chief Dubois and Captain McPherson of Verdun, Director Paré of Montreal and Mr. Hawington, Sec. F. and P. Chiefs Assoc.

TO PLACE WREATH.

At the Remembrance Day Service at Westmount Cenotaph, on Sunday, Mr. J. Goldstein will represent Temple Emanuel-EI Sisterhood and place a wreath at the monument in memory of those who made the supreme sacrifice.

Truck Runs Into Rear Of Regiment

Thirteen Soldiers Injured In Accident at Corner of Atwater and Western

Thirteen soldiers were injured, one of them seriously, when a truck ploughed into the rear of the Third Company Motorcycle Regiment while it was on parade at the corner of Western and Atwater avenues at 7.30 o'clock last night.

The driver of the truck, who police say was Gerald Neill, of 2359 Workman street, was proceeding from north to south on Atwater avenue, in the rear of the soldiers. He told the police that rain and the resultant poor visibility made it impossible for him to see the men ahead until he was too near to avoid striking them.

The most seriously injured of the soldiers was Trooper Hall, who suffered a possible fracture of the leg and internal injuries. He and Troopers McCowan and Young were taken by ambulance to the Royal Victoria Hospital where they were detained.

The other ten injured suffered but minor wounds and were taken for treatment to the regiment's barracks on Cote des Neiges Road, formerly the armoury of the Royal Canadian Hussars.

First aid treatment was given at the scene by Regimental Doctor Belfour, who accompanied the unit on the march. At the time of the accident the soldiers had come to a halt at the intersection.

HIGH STANDARD OF WHS Praised By Dr. C. James

McGill Principal Addresses Westmount High School Graduation Exercises

F. Cyril James, principal of McGill University, praised highly the scholastic eminence of Westmount High School when he addressed the 26th annual graduation exercises of the school on Friday evening. Principal James pointed to the fact that the school had been successful in obtaining three out of the five university scholarships this year offered by McGill and open to public and private schools all over the Dominion.

In presenting the principal's report H. B. Parker stated that 50 per cent of the pupils writing the final examinations as set down by the Board of Education succeeded in passing.

Dr. James told the students that the picture often painted to them of their responsibilities in the future might leave the impression that there is a pretty tough road ahead. But that, he said, was in his opinion the wrong way to look at it. Actually it is more an opportunity than a responsibility, and one that is almost greater than any ever offered previous generations, he declared.

There is nothing in the record of this generation, he said, to suggest that it lacks any of the finest qualities of any that preceded it. "Youth today is doing a job not because it has to but because it has a profound human values and now has taken a decision."

"Even in the case of our own students," he continued, "and they have not yet been called upon to take an active part in the struggle, there is, and I have seen it, a magnificent response, a splendid esprit de corps."

People have come to take democracy—the democratic way of life—to much for granted, he said and writers told of the accomplishments and the future of the Norse countries, of the Czechs, wrote of the liberty of the French yet today all of these countries

WESTMOUNT, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1940

"POPPY DAY"

Saturday is "poppy day," set aside each year for the sale of poppies in commemoration of those who sleep among the poppies of Flanders Fields. The sale is undertaken by the Canadian legion and proceeds all go to disabled veterans of the last war. The public is urged not to forget the boys who fought the last war. With so many appeals being made in connection with our present struggle, the veterans of 1914-1918 are liable to be forgotten. But their need is still as great as in the past, and they are in large measure dependent upon the pupils. As far as Westmount is concerned, we know that this district will again "come through."

THE COMMON MAN'S WIN

Mr. Roosevelt has won another emphatic mandate from the American people to carry on with his New Deal policies at home, and unlimited aid to Britain in the prosecution of the war. There was never any real doubt of the outcome, although the advertising campaign conducted by the Republicans which apparently won the support of nearly every newspaper and magazine of consequence, gave a false impression of a swing to the G.O.P. All the smoke raised by the heat of battle confused many observers, although at this distance, in Canada, we had a clearer view of the issues and Canadians generally predicted a substantial Roosevelt victory. In last week's issue of The Monitor, we called for Mr. Roosevelt to win on the following grounds: "If political values are weighed by the American people as Canadians weigh them, Mr. Roosevelt will win by a colossal majority. The state of the world being what it is, and Mr. Roosevelt being what he is, it is difficult to concede Mr. Willkie any chance whatever." The entire history of Anglo-Saxon nations has been a history of the rise of the common man. Mr. Roosevelt is the champion of the common man, and it was inconceivable that the common man would turn him down, even in the face of the terrific high pressure salesmanship conducted by his opponents. Incidentally, the result emphasizes the fact that good-will cannot be bought. In Canada, the Democratic victory will be doubly hailed, for a Republican win would have abrogated the trade treaties and prejudiced the "good neighbour" relations now existing between the nations of the British Commonwealth and the United States at a time when friendship is vitally necessary.

FLYING FORTRESS

Everyone knows what little boys are made of—"snips and snails and puppy dogs' tail"—but the ingredients of an aeroplane are even more varied and incongruous. Business Week, of New York, reveals a list of the seventy basic raw materials, parts and accessories that go into the Flying Fortresses, those American super-bombers, which may be cruising over Germany before long.

The list begins at abrasives and ends at zinc, and all the way through the alphabet are such ingredients as casein, fish oil, lamp-black, molybdenum, peanut oil, sponges, tin, twine and wool.

It was no idle curiosity which prompted Business Week to find out what big bombers are made of. Though the Flying Fortresses are manufactured in the Boeing plant at Seattle, Washington, every one of the 48 states contributes some material to the completed job.

Arizona, a state with comparatively little industrial development, supplies silver, copper, molybdenum, vanadium, and garnets for the jewels on flying instruments. Iowa, usually regarded as a purely agricultural area, provides lead, zinc, starch, oil and steel parts.

The opinions expressed in this Forum are not necessarily those of this newspaper and it does not accept responsibility for them.

In an editorial in the Halifax Herald of recent date under the heading "Sheer Waste" it was stated: "A Halifax magistrate expresses astonishment that in a crisis like this men are using up their economic resources in buying liquor."

"The liquor question, always a serious one in times of peace, becomes extremely grave in time of war."

"What is a moral and economic question in peacetime is one that goes to the very foundations of national efficiency in a country's war effort."

Last year sales of liquor in Canada amounted to over $173,000,000.

DR. G. VLASTOS, DR. G. McNALLY TO SPEAK HERE

Education Sunday Will be Celebrated in Calvary United Church

Calvary United Church, will be the scene of the opening celebrations of Education Week on Sunday afternoon. Two outstanding educationists will address the morning and evening meetings. Opening Education Week here, Dr. Gregory Vlastos of Queen's University will give the address at the morning service of Calvary Church, while Dr. G. F. McNally, Deputy Minister of Education in the Province of Alberta, will deal with the Education Week theme, "Education for Democracy in War and Peace" at the evening service. The special music and orchestral numbers will be under the direction of Mr. Irvin Cooper, Supervisor of music in Montreal Protestant schools.

Education Week, which extends from November 10 to 16, will be observed at this time in every province in Canada. This is the one time of the year when schools, school districts, teachers, and pupils, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, unite in a worthy effort to display before the public the cause of education and its constant need of change and growth in a young country. Everywhere, in large cities and in small rural communities, school authorities and teachers and pupils will be inviting the public to special lectures, exhibitions of work, demonstration lessons, and school entertainments in order to inform the taxpayers of the work that is being done for and by the youth of Canada, and to solicit their support of the changes and improvements that must still be effected.

Current real estate columns in Canada and the U.S.A. show a marked increase in the sale of small farmsteads, rural home sites, plots for vacation cottages and land for retirement homesteads. The trend is credited to the fact that people are beginning to realize that land ownership is the one certain security in the face of increasing National debt and possible inflation.

"I never knew a man living in a home of his own with rambling roses growing on the porch and a garden behind the house who was interested in overthrowing the government of the people."

One-third of the Indians in Canada are engaged in classified occupations. 15,000 are employed in fishing, hunting and trapping. 10,000 are in agriculture, 1,200 in lumbering and 1,800 in manufacturing. Many are in the following trades: carpenters, blacksmiths, machinists, plumbers, masons, mail-carriers, bakers, printers, police officers and soldiers. Quite a number are in the Civil Service. Almost every occupation in Canada has an Indian on its payroll, from locomotive engineer to librarian.

Players' Group Preparing Comedy

The Players' Group of Shaar Hashomayim will present as its first production of the season "What a Life," a comedy in three acts by Clifford Goldsmith, to be presented on the evenings of December 14 and 15. The play was originally produced by George Abbott and was immediately welcomed as an outstanding comedy hit. It ran on Broadway for well over a year and won marked success on the road, later being produced in Hollywood as a moving picture.

The play is under the direction of John Mellor, whose work with the group last year received such well-deserved praise. The cast includes the following: Judith Cohen, Beth Tannenbaum, Janice Fischel, Mavis Kussner, Pat Pearson, Dorothy Cohen, Marguerite Kirsch, Buddy Halperin, Morton Schleifer, Ralph Messinger, Marvin Feldman, Jack Goodson, Raymond Miller, George Gilbert and Bernard Blumer.

and many others are "temporarily overwhelmed by the military flood."

He saw in the response of youth to the present challenge an awakening he said, to the fact that democracy is not to be taken for granted but depends on the individual, an awakening to the fact that government is not "someone else's business."

The military victory to be won is but the first step in a view order, he said, and a new order that will not create itself. "You will all have to do the work of reconstruction," he said, "and in a situation more serious, I believe than that of 1920-1929, but I believe you realize that fact."

Finally, he urged, "learn to separate falsehood from fact, truth from opinion, and in the role that Canada seems destined to play not only will the military victor come but a world closer to our ideals than men have yet known."

Others who spoke briefly were Mayor Walter Merrill, K.C., who urged the graduates and pupils to learn to speak the French language as well as to learn to write it, and Hugh M. Scott who read a brief report of the school cadet corps. The school choir sang several selections. Rev. F. S. Morley delivered the opening prayer. The chairman was W. A. Eden, chairman of the Board of School Commissioners of the City of Westmount.

CANON WARNER TO PREACH AT TRINITY CHURCH

Canon Quintin Warner, Rector of Cronyn Memorial Church and Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, Ont., will preach at the first service of Trinity Parish Centennial week on Sunday morning, November 24, which service will be dedicated to the memory of the late Archdeacon John M. Almond, rector of Trinity Parish for thirty-five years from 1904 to 1939.

The selection of Canon Warner for this honor is very suitable for he held the office of curate at Trinity Church for five years from 1912 to 1917 under Archdeacon Almond and carried on the work of the church while the late Rector was overseas.

He was formerly curate at St. Alban's Church, Sydney, N.S., 1909 to 1911, Rector of Christ Church, Amherst, J. S., 1911 to 1912. In 1917 he left Trinity Church to become rector of Cronyn Memorial Church and in 1929 he was appointed a Canon of St. Paul's Cathedral in London, Ont. It is interesting to note that at the time of the dedication of Trinity Church on St. Denis Street in 1865 the Right Rev. Benjamin Cronyn, Bishop of Huron, preached at the evening service.

VICTORY SURE AID. W. B. SCOTT TELLS GROUP

Sense of Responsibility has Replaced that of Cynicism, He Asserts

We are confident both as to the war and as to the future after the war, in spite of the grim task ahead of us, Alderman W. B. Scott, president, stated while addressing the graduates of the Montreal School of social work last week.

"During the latter part of May and June we had to feel the bottom, but we found that it is sound, and from there we go on both to victory over the enemy and to a world regenerated by the character of the British peoples throughout the world," he told the graduates.

He said that cynicism has gone out of fashion and that selfishness has been replaced by a sense of responsibility. Such virtues of courage, faith and duty are taking their rightful place in the daily life of the people.

Hitler, the speaker said, has recreated all that is best and endearing in the British Empire—

Blackboard Not All That Is Cleaned

Next thing we know those women will be taking in washing!

It's all for the good of the cause though.

Miss Dorothy Ross, teacher of history at the Montreal High School seems to be proving that a woman's place is not in the home. With the assistance of others she has raised about $100 towards the "spiffire" fund started in Montreal to which all "Dorothies" in Canada have been invited to contribute in order to purchase a plane for Britain.

Miss Ross and her cohorts are raising the money in no other way than simonizing cars.

If the girls keep on at that rate no doubt garage owners will have to get up a petition to prevent them from cutting in on their business.

BOYS' BRIGADE WILL ENROLL NEW MEMBERS

Annual Service To Take Place in Melville Church On November 17

The annual enrolment of the First Company of the Boys' Brigade will take place in Melville Church on Sunday, November 17, on which occasion all new recruits will be officially accepted into the membership of the Company and the older boys re-enrolled, following which each boy will receive his new card of membership. Membership button-hole badges will also be awarded to new members who have completed the necessary requirements.

A Team of Boys from the Company will assist in the sale of Poppies this coming Saturday. They will be chosen Friday night, and will be in charge of St. Robert Morrow and Corp. Leonard Gough.

The company extends a welcome to Pte. Busby of the Black Watch, who has kindly consented to instruct the band in the absence of Mr. King. Pte. Busby has been leading drummer of the 2nd Verdun Company during the past three years as well as having first spent much of his time as bugler.

The monthly squad medal went to 1st Squad, under the command of Sergeant Robert Morrow, which was two points higher than the band squad. All squads were closely tied during the month with the band leading. However the last week's inspection changed the lead to the first squad. There is keen competition for the Walter Goodale Memorial Trophy and a close record is being kept each week of those still eligible.

While the weather is still suitable, lanyard tests will be taken by the Captain on Saturday afternoons. Pte. Stanley Williams is the first boy this season to pass the requirements and will be awarded his lanyard on Friday evening.

Hallowe'en party at the Blind Institute. On Saturday evening another program was provided the soldiers at the Westmount Y.M.C.A. under the sponsorship of the Westmount Women's Club, where Nancy Teifer, Peggy Cooper, and Peter Miller received a warm welcome.

FINAL TRIBUTE PAID TO LATE JOHN HODGSON

Funeral Service Held Tuesday in Erskine and American Church for Prominent Resident

The funeral service for John Cassils Hodgson, of 460 Lansdowne avenue, was held Tuesday afternoon in the Erskine and American Church. Mr. Hodgson, a prominent Montreal business man, died suddenly at his residence on Saturday in his 84th year.

Born in Montreal on November 22, 1856, Mr. Hodgson had spent all his life in this area and was undoubtedly one of the best loved residents of the city. Up to the day of his passing he had pursued the regular course of his life. He possessed to an outstanding degree the ability to make and keep friends and was particularly known to his many acquaintances as "Jack."

On completion of his scholastic education Mr. Hodgson entered the hardware firm of Pihlow, Hersey and Co. He later established the firm of Abbott and Hodgson, manufacturers of spikes, nails and horseshoes. He subsequently formed the firm of Hodgson Iron and Tube Co., in partnership with his brother, J. C. Hodgson, in which business he remained until it was absorbed by the Steel Company of Canada. Since then he had confined his business interests to the Consolidated Mining and Smelting Company and the Canadian Tube and Steel Products, being a director of both.

Like his brothers Mr. Hodgson engaged in athletic sports in his youth, becoming a life member of the M.A.A.A., also a member of the Royal Montreal Golf Club and the Canadian Club of Montreal.

Mr. Hodgson's wife, a daughter of the late Hon. Thomas White, died on January 9, 1931. He is survived by three sons, Cassils J. Hodgson of Vancouver, Bruce J. and Thomas W. Hodgson of Montreal; by thirteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; and by three brothers, C. J. Hodgson, W. C. Hodgson and A. R. Hodgson. He was the second son of the late Jonathan Hodgson, for many years prominent in mercantile circles as the head of the wholesale firm of Hodgson, Summer and Co.

day evening. Had the weather been more favourable this past Saturday, numerous others might have been added to the list of presentations.

The following boys have been chosen as orderlies for the N.C. O's Banquet and will be under the supervision of Sgt. Robert Morrow: Ptes. Stanley Williams, Jack Laird, Edwin Goring, George Montgomery, Sandy Edmondson. On this occasion Corporal Leonard Gough will give the toast to the church. Max Ford will be in charge of the sing song.

The Life Boys, junior section of the Brigade, under the leadership of Rodgie Stewart and Herbert Wilson, have been growing steadily and will be enrolled very shortly. The boys are rapidly getting into uniform and once completed, the team will be ready for a public appearance. Special one year's service stripes as well as other awards will be presented at that time.

The Way to a Man's Heart

Baked Acorn Squash With Apples and Sausages

Winter squash baked to perfection, is rich in vitamin A and supplies calcium phosphorus and iron. It is low in calories and is therefore welcome by those trying to keep down their weight and at the same time keep up their intake of vitamins and minerals.

Winter squash is divided into several branches. The Table Queen or acorn squash is one of the most widely used. Its shell is dark green, hard and rigid, and the flesh is a rich orange-yellow. Hubbard and Boston marrow squash are other popular winter varieties.

In selecting squash, choose one heavy for its size and free from blemishes. The rind should be firm and smooth. If rind is soft, that means the squash may be immature and the flesh thin and watery when cooked; also lacking in flavor.

The mild tartness of apple and calorie-rich sausage combined with acorn squash can produce a delicious vegetable, fruit and meat combination at low cost.

BAKED ACORN SQUASH AND SAUSAGES
(Serves 6)
Three acorn squashes, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 apples, 2 tablespoons sugar, 12 sausages.

Wash squashes; cut in half and clean. Place in two-quart glass baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and dot with butter. Pare apples; cut into thirds and core.

A WELL BALANCED MENU

BREAKFAST: Sliced oranges, oatmeal, buttered toast, coffee, milk.
LUNCHEON: Spanish rice, French-type bread, fresh fruit cup, macaroons, tea, milk.

DINNER: Baked acorn squash with sausages, creamed spinach, wholewheat muffins, ginger pears, chocolate layer cake, coffee, milk.

Place one-third, rounded side up, on each squash. Sprinkle with sugar. Bake in hot oven (400 F.) for 45 minutes.

Fry sausages until brown in skillet over direct heat. At end of 45-minute baking period, place two sausages at the sides of apple on each squash. Return to oven and bake for 15 minutes longer.

NEWS OF THE THEATRE WORLD

Theatrical AttractionsDavis And Boyer Star In
'All This And Heaven Too'

There's a never-to-be-forgotten experience waiting for you at the Westmount United Theatre, where Bette Davis and Charles Boyer have combined their dynamic talents in bringing Rachel Field's novel, "All This and Heaven Too" to glowing life on the screen. Directed with incomparable artistry by Anatole Litvak, "All This and Heaven Too" emerges as the most superb love story of modern times.

One of the leading best sellers of the past few years, Miss Field's novel comes to the screen with its dramatic essence immeasurably heightened by the brilliant performances of the two great dramatic stars, aided by an outstandingly fine supporting cast.

The story of Mademoiselle Henriette Desportes was flashnews in the European press of 1847. Its repercussions helped a French king from his tottering throne. Later Miss Desportes came to America and began life anew as the wife of Henry Field, a New England minister, a great uncle of authoress Rachel Field.

Henriette (Bette Davis) comes to the luxurious Paris home of the Duc de Praslin (Charles Boyer) to act as governess to his four children. To them she gives the love and understanding they have never had from their mother, a hysterical, neurotic woman, whose only interest is in her

DANCE GROUP

Theatregoers everywhere are asked to rally to the call of the Theatre, as it makes its annual appeal for funds on behalf of the Lachine General Hospital.

Arrangements have now been completed by Miss Ivy Ashworth for the Montreal Concert Dance Group to give a production in the Lachine High School Auditorium, the entire proceeds from which will be handed over to Mr. K. D. Woodward, chairman of the Special Campaign Committee of the Hospital, as the first public gift to the Hospital's drive for funds.

Norma Darling, the directress of the Concert Dance Group, has been working in close co-operation with Miss Ashworth during the past few weeks, and a highly attractive program has been arranged.

The special lighting effects of the production are in the hands of Ewart Fogarty, who has definitely distinguished himself in the field of stage-lighting during recent years. It will be remembered that Mr. Fogarty was responsible for the lighting of the Lakeside Summer Theatre during its seven weeks' season at Light-house Point this summer. Assisting him will be John Bradley, a tall energetic lad from N.D.G., who also shares honors with Mr. Fogarty for the efficient handling of the Summer Theatre switchboard.

The Dance Production has all the promises of an excellent evening's entertainment. Patrons will be contributing directly to Hospital funds, for private donations have already covered the expenses of the production. The artists of the Montreal Concert Dance Group have very graciously donated their services to this Hospital effort, and are co-operating wholeheartedly with the committee in charge of arrangements.

STARTING AT THE SNOWDON SUNDAY

'Maryland' Film
Now At Monkland

The romance, beauty and traditions of the proud South, climaxed by the most spectacular Steeplechase in America, The Maryland Hunt Cup Race, are highlights of Darryl F. Zanuck's Technicolor production of "Maryland," new 20th Century-Fox picture which is now playing at the Monkland United Theatre until Saturday night. Said to be greater than the tremendously popular "Kentucky," "Maryland" which was directed by Henry King, promises to be rated as one of the best pictures of this or any entertainment season.

Rich in Talent
Three leading members of the cast in "Maryland" have been awarded "Oscars." In addition, five members of the production staff have been honored. The superb list of prominent players is headed by Walter Brennan, the Academy Award-winning star of "Kentucky." The human, lovable role of the horse trainer in "Maryland" has been called another made-to-order part for him.

Fay Bainter, who won an Academy Award for her sterling work in "Jezebel," has another important featured role in the picture.

Brenda Joyce and John Payne, as the headstrong young lovers, torn by fierce family pride, share the romantic lead. Others prominent

'Young People' Is Now
Playing At York Theatre

Chock full of fun, songs and dances, "Young People," the 20th Century-Fox film which stars Shirley Temple, Jack Oakie, and Charlotte Greenwood, gave audiences at the York United Theatre a rollicking good time last night.

"Young People" is Shirley Temple's twenty-second picture and it is her happiest hit. In it Shirley sings five grand tunes written by Mack Gordon and Harry Warren: "Fifth Avenue," "Tra-la-la-la," "I Wouldn't Take a Million," "The Mason-Dixon Line" and "Young People."

Jack Oakie is at his best in a thoroughly humorous role while Charlotte Greenwood is lovelier, funnier and funnier than ever. The story pattern concerns two small-time vaudeville entertainers, Oakie and Greenwood, who adopt Shirley. She grows up with them on the stage—but they decide the stage is not the place for children, so they retire to a small New England farm.

Their attempts to be well-liked in the reticent town meet with rebuffs and sly pokes at which they are slow to take offense. The denouement comes when Shirley, in an attempt to put over a so-called revue at the annual school performance, is hoodwinked into the stage by the shocked and indignant parents.

The film has a stirring and surprising climax which caps the unusual story. The outstanding performances were directed by Allan Dwan, who worked from a superb screen play prepared by Edwin Blub and Don Ettlinger. Arleen Whelan and George Montgomery turn in exceptionally fine performances in the romantic leads, while Kathleen Howard excels as the small-town school teacher.

Harry Joe Brown produced the picture, while the dances were staged by Nicholas Castle and Geneva Sawyer.

British Comedy At
Snowdon Theatre

The outstanding first run British comedy, "George and Margaret," has been doing a standing-room-only business at the Snowdon United Theatre.

The picture concerns the Garth-Bander family, probably one of the daffiest aggregations of people outside a mental institution. The story takes place in one day in their household, in a suburb of London. The early post brings word that George and Margaret are coming for lunch. The family are inclined to regard these friends of their mother's as a terrible nuisance, but after Mrs. G-B turns on a few tears, they all promise to be home to help entertain. Everything that can happen to a family, happens to the Garth-Banders this day, which results in jolly good fun for the audience.

A splendid cast of London stage and screen stars includes Judy Kelly, Marie Lohr, John Boxer, Oliver Wakefield, Noel Howlett and Ann Casson.

Judy Canova appears in the leading role of a second feature on this program, "Scatterbrain," which gives the Snowdon one of the funniest shows it has ever presented. "Scatterbrain" is uproarious comedy of Hollywood picture producer, directors and publicity men. Alan Mowbray heads an excellent supporting cast for Miss Canova.

Gordon Perrigard demonstrates the art of "Judo" on this bill, which is rounded out by the latest News of the Day.
