EXECUTIVE COUNCIL OFFICE.

QUEBEC, 10th October, 1817.

WHEREAS reports have been circulated, that there now exists in the city of Quebec a contagious Fever—PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given, that after an inquiry which has been instituted by command of His Excellency the Governor in Chief, it appears these reports have been greatly exaggerated, and that there does not exist in the city of Quebec any fever of a contagious description other than such as frequently occur at this season of the year; and that the number of those cases are very limited. But, inasmuch as cases may occur, in which persons may happen to be afflicted with fevers which may degenerate into contagious from the want of proper assistance, and good air, which without the public aid, they may not be able to obtain—FURTHER NOTICE is hereby given, that a healthy and convenient situation has been provided in the country, to which such persons, upon application to Dr. HACKETT (Health Officer) in Buade street, in the city of Quebec, will be transferred, and there receive such medical attendance and assistance as their cases may respectively require.

And all Persons whomsoever, are hereby required, in case of the appearance of any fever in their families or neighbourhood, which may be considered as dangerous in any respect, to make the same known with all possible dispatch, to Dr. HACKETT, to the end that a course may be forthwith adopted, which shall effectually secure the inhabitants of the city of Quebec against the probability of contagion, if any danger thereof shall be found to exist. By order of His Excellency the Governor in Council.

HERMAN W. RYLAND.

BUREAU DU CONSEIL EXECUTIF.

QUEBEC, 10e Octobre, 1817.

VU qu'il a été répandu des bruits qu'il existe maintenant dans la cité de Québec une Fièvre contagieuse—AVIS PUBLIC est par le présent donné, qu'après une enquête qui a été établie par ordre de Son Excellence le Gouverneur en Chef, il parait que ces bruits ont été grandement exagérés, et qu'il n'existe dans la cité de Québec aucune Fièvre d'une description contagieuse, si ce n'est seulement telle qu'on voit fréquemment se montrer dans cette saison de l'année, et que le nombre de ces cas est très limité. Mais comme il pourroit survenir des cas dans lesquels des personnes peuvent se trouver atteintes de Fièvres qui pourroient dégénérer en contagion, par manque de secours convenable et de bon air, ce qu'elles ne pourroient être en état de se procurer sans l'assistance publique.—Avis est de plus donné par ces présentes, qu'une situation saine et convenable a été pourvue dans la Campagne, où ces personnes, en s'adressant au Docteur HACKETT, (Officier de Santé) dans la Rue Buade, dans la cité de Québec, seront transférées et y recevront tels secours et assistance de la médecine que leurs cas respectifs pourroient requérir.

Et toutes personnes quelconques sont par le présent requises, dans le cas où quelque Fièvre paroît dans leurs familles ou leur voisinage, qui pourroit être considérée comme dangereuse, sous aucun rapport que ce soit, de le faire savoir avec toute la diligence possible au Docteur HACKETT, afin que telles mesures soient immédiatement adoptées qui pourroient mettre efficacement les habitants de la cité de Québec en sûreté contre la probabilité de la contagion, s'il paroit qu'il en existe quelque danger.

Par Ordre de son Excellence le Gouverneur en Conseil.
