Plans For Addition To School Sent To Quebec Department

The Huntingdon High School Board of Commissioners met at the school, on Thursday evening, for a regular meeting with all members present except Commissioner Watson.

Following the reading of the minutes of previous meetings and passing a number of bills, Mr. J. M. Smellie put the case of his son for admission into Grade 1 before the Board.

Mr. Smellie told the board that his son was presently attending the kindergarten class in the school, but that actually he was farther advanced than this and was ready for Grade 1. He asked that the Board give permission for the boy to have a month's trial in grade 1 to see if he could be promoted. He explained that the boy was six years old on September 27th. He said he was aware of the ruling made by the Board, but felt the boy should be given the chance of going on, that he paid considerable in taxes to the school due to owing several properties in the municipality, in addition to the fees and expense of transporation for the kindergarten.

Commissioner Gaw pointed out that if the Board made exception in such cases, it would mean there are probably others who could claim the same privilege. The Grade 1 class is presently overcrowded and it would not be to fair to anyone to make any further changes at this time.

Mr. Smellie left the matter in the hands of the Board for further discussion later in the meeting.

A letter was read from the firm of lawyers who had handled the Roskies case and stated that the case had now been closed to the satisfaction of all parties and enclosed a bill for the services rendered in the case.

Principal Willis brought a number of routine matters before the Board for their consideration. Some of these were acted upon, while others were left in abeyance for the time being.

The Board regretted that they could not make any exception in the Smellie case and that the matter should be left as is.

Further plans for the new addition to the school were received from architect and an estimate as to the overall cost which was given as approximately $146,000. The Board discussed the plans and it was finally decided they should be sent to the Dept. of Education, Quebec, for acceptance or otherwise and to await the outcome as to the next step to be taken.

Several Commissioners were in favour of avoiding any further delays in the matter of getting the new addition underway. They felt that the new part should be ready for occupation for the new school year next September. If this is to be done there must be as little lost time as possible. Certain proceedures must be followed which will take time, but these should be speeded up as much as ever possible. It was decided to phone Quebec to speed along the necessary forms required to send along with the plans and any other instructions with regard to procedure.

A set of plans submitted by Mr. W. R. Wilson in the form of a rough sketch, which included the removal of the old school was presented to the meeting. A good point was that a space and been provided on the Dalhousie Street side of the school for the buses to pull in under a canopy for loading and unloading. More classrooms were also a part of the plan. After some discussion, the Board felt they should go ahead with the present plan as it would cause the least disruption of the school while the building would be going on.

Chateauguay to Fight Discontinuance of NYC

A meeting of Chateauguay residents has been called for this week to consider steps to counter the application of the New York Central Railway to discontinue its Malone-Montreal commuter service.

Only one train now runs each way daily for the convenience of the rural commuities along the line. It is estimated that about 200 people use the service, which has been gradually reduced during the past 10 years despite repeated protests by commuters. At the same time rail fares have been increased.

S. G. Modeland of Chateauguay Heights chaired a "committee" meeting early last week which made plans for a meeting to be held (today) Nov. 7 in the Julius Richardson School auditorium at 8 p.m. He said that Central, in its application to the Board of Railway Commissioners to withdraw the last passenger train, had entered a very strong plea.

No Passenger Increase

One of the points it had made was that despite a large post-war increase of the population along the line, there had been no appreciable increase in passenger use of the train; in fact, passenger-use had decreased relative to the population increase.

On the side of the commuters, he explained that there was belief that the railway's charter contained a clause making it mandatory on the company to continue passenger service so long as the line continued in operation. He also pointed out that the municipal councils of Chateauguay Basin; the Heights and Ville La Salle had all entered protests against discontinuance of the service.

Commencement Exercises Held At Gault Institute

The Annual Commencement Exercises of the Gault Institute took place on Friday, November 2nd, and the following were the graduates for 1956:

Robert Amy, Claude Balazs, James Collins, Mary Felszegi, Robert Horwood, Murray Lamb, Elizabeth Lander, Eileen Norton, Edward Osborne, Paul Osborne, Lillian Rider, Norma Ross, Guelda Sugden, Gerard Van de Werfhorst.

The programme opened with the singing of "O Canada". The invocation was given by the Rev. J. C. Hood in the absence of Rev. W. G. New.

Mr. A. G. Osborne's remarks as chairman were splendid. He regretted that Mr. W. G. E. Aird was unable to be present and he was very proud that his twin sons Paul and Ted were in the graduating class. Mr. J. A. Ferris, the Principal, gave a very fine report and said that it was the largest graduating class in the history of the school.

Mr. Norman Clifford then distributed the Academic Awards assisted by Mr. Lionel Robb and Mr. Percy Parry.

Lillian Rider, the Valedictorian was exceptionally good. She is so composed and has such a pleasing voice that it is indeed a pleasure to listen to her. The choir was well trained and their selections very well chosen: "Carolina Moon"; "The Happy Wanderer"; "Whatever will be, will be"; "Good luck, Good health, God bless you". By the applause, everyone enjoyed this part of the programme.

Mr. Lionel Robb very ably introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Professor C. Wayne Hall, of Macdonald College, who gave a very interesting address. He was thanked by Mr. George Osborne. Gifts were presented to the following:

Miss Getty by James Collins.
Mr. Ferris by Norma Ross.
Miss Whalley by Claude Balazs
Mrs. Blanche Peck by Mary Felszegi.

One could tell the esteem in which Mrs. Peck was held by the ovation which she received on Friday night.

Beverly Henderson gave two beautiful piano solos: "Malaguena" and "Clair de Lune", and should in the future become a very accomplished pianist.

The school hymn: "Take my life and let it be", was sung by pupils and audience, ending with "God Save the Queen".

The benediction was given by the Rev. W. Charles Pelletier.

Refreshments were served to invited guests and parents of the students of the graduating class.

These go to students from the rural districts of the province and were won for the year 1955-56 by Miss Andrea Gustafson, Magog, now in her second year of the B.H.Sc. (H.Ec.) course; Miss Evelyn Kerr, Howick, in her fourth year of the same course, and Mr. Norris Sample, Hemmingford, entering his second year of the Diploma Course in Agriculture.

Howick Legion To Observe Remembrance

Robert Templeton, President of Howick Branch 123 of the Canadian Legion has issued an appeal to all citizens asking them to wear a Poppy on Remembrance Day. Mr. Templeton called on all veterans to set an example by wearing the memorial flower. "Let us show that we remember and honor those who served by our side and gave their lives for Canada.

"Most people," he said "wear a badge or emblem on their lapel which proclaims membership in one organization or another, Through such emblems they make known their beliefs and principles."

"The greatest beliefs and principles of all are those for which men die. "Mr. Templeton continued. "Therefore let us for a few days proudly wear the badge of remembrance which symbolizes our faith ideals for which our fellow Canadians died."

Mr. Templeton on behalf of the members of the Howick Branch extended an invitation to all citizens to join them at the Annual Remembrance Service which will be held in the Auditorium of the Howick High School on Sunday, November 11th, at 11 a.m. Envoy A. L. Steele M.B.E. of the Salvation Army will be the Speaker for the event.

Any member of the community who would be interested in placing a wreath at the ceremony following the Armistice Service should contact Cecil Younie Chairman of the Poppy Committee on or before November 9th.

Concerning Pollution Of Rivers, Lakes, Etc.

In connection with a study being made of the pollution of waters in this area, the following concerns the Chateauguay River.

"Chateauguay River: The study undertaken as a corollary to that of Lake St-Louis is of a preliminary nature. . . These results indicate, from the chemical point of view, that the water of the Chateauguay at its mouth is of very good quality. At the same time, bacteriological tests, although few in number, have indicated serious contamination at Dewittville, Chateauguay and in the sector included between Cote St-Joseph and The Mound. Although it is impossible here to establish a pollution profile of the whole of this watercourse, there are indications that a danger from the sanitary point of view exists at certain points. A further-reaching study is evidently required".

Remembrance Services At Cenotaph and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Arrangements have been completed for the Remembrance day services to be held next Sunday, November 11th, at the Cenotaph and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church.

At 10.30 a.m. there will be a parade headed by Huntingdon Citizen's Band to the Cenotaph in Prince Arthur Square, where the first item will be "O'Canada". This will be followed by the Roll Call of the fallen in two World Wars and Korea, then the depositing of wreaths, Reveille aand Last Post.

At 10.45 a.m. this gathering will adjourn to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, where the service will be opened at 11 o'clock. Rev. Rural Dean W. S. Hatcher, Chaplain of the Huntingdon Branch of the Canadian Legion and Rector of St. John's Anglican Church, will be chairman of both services and will take the Lesson at the Church service. Rev. Robert Beal, Pastor of Huntingdon United Church will give the Prayer. Rev. James Grant, Minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, will give the address and the benediction. The open offering will be for the benefit of the "Poppy Fund".

All are welcome to attend these combined services and it is hoped that a number of the public will attend the service in Prince Arthur Square as well as that in the church. It is also the hope that all attending will wear the "Poppy" which is the emblem of "Remembrance Day".

Poppy Day will be observed on Saturday, November 10th, and a house to house canvass will be conducted on that day in the Town of Huntingdon. Letters of appeal for contributions to the "Poppy Fund" have already been sent out to the country points in the district and it is hoped that there will be a good response to this. In addition, cans will be placed in various stores in Town and a special appeal will be made to patrons at the Huntingdon Theatre, on Friday and Saturday evenings. The "Poppy Fund" needs a boost this year and the committee hopes the public will see that it gets it. The following poem has been handed to us as being appropriate at this time:

'A Little White Cross'

Tonight as I wander out under the stars,
I think of the pals that I have lost,
Who are sleeping today, 'neath a blanket of clay
That is marked by a little white cross.

Many years they had trained in a land that they loved,
On England and our native shores,
Oh how hard I would try, seems I can't realize,
That their laughter we'll hear never more.

Now as years roll along, will past glories grow dim,
Will their mem'ry so dear slowly fade,
Or in dreams will our mem'ry drift back to the place
Where a little white cross marks their grave.

May God grant that we shall never forget,
The great sacrifice they have made,
And a symbol of glory forever enshrined,
A litlle white cross on their grave.

It is all up to us now that their work is done.
To see that we win the great peace,
That their loved ones may reap all the glory they won,
When at last all the fighting has ceased.

As great nations rise in all glory again,
May Peace and Love honour the brave,
As they peacefully lay, 'neath a blanket of clay
Where a little white cross marks their grave.

Council Sends Resolution Asking N.Y.C. Train Malone-Montreal Be Kept Operating

Huntingdon Town Council met in regular session at the County Building, on Monday evening, with all members present.

Also present were a number of students from Huntingdon High School under the supervision of Miss Jean Pryde, the idea being to study the conduct of the meeting in conjunction with studies on this point in the school work. The students were from Grade IX.

The minutes of previous meeting were read and a number of bills passed for payment. Arising from the minutes, Alderman Fournier states that on the question of the new street lights, he was not absent from the meeting when this was discussed because he was against this change. He wanted this recorded as he had heard that such a reason had been given for his absence.

Town Foreman Brunette asked permission to order several loads of gravel and a number of bags of calcium for winter use. This was granted.

Milk reports for Samples taken on September 24th were read as follows: Salaberry Dairy 37,000cc and 540cc coliforms; Belle Vallee, 120,000cc; Elmhurst, 12,000cc. Samples on October 23rd: Elmhurst, 7,500cc; Belle Vallee, 170,000cc; Monique, 8,000cc and Goodfellow, 200,000cc.

A letter was read regarding the discontinuance of the passenger train on the NYC from Malone to Montreal and return. The council felt that a resolution should be made and sent to the railway strongly favouring the continuance of the train and being opposed to it being discontinued. It was also mentioned that the C.N.R. train may be discontinued in the near future.

Alderman Picard submitted a plan of the Picard Subdivision, which has been before the council on several previous occasions and which had been turned down due to one of the streets being too narrow for acceptance according to regulations laid down. Mr. Picard showed a letter he had received from the Quebec Dept. stating that this Dept was awaiting the resolution from the Town Council approving the plan. After a lengthy discussion Alderman Fournier made a motion that the council is not in favor of accepting the plan on account of the street mentioned being only forty feet in width. This was seconded by Alderman Gaw and carried by all other members excepting Alderman Picard.

The water consumption for the month of October was read as follows: Industrial Use, 10,821,900 gallons and Domestic Use, 12,169,900 gallons, a total of 22,991,800 gallons for the month.

Some complaints were made about the pressure at the Filter Plant and inspectors of the Fire Underwriters are to visit Huntingdon to make checks into this. It was said that a pressure of 80 lbs was required at the Filter Plant to maintain the pressure required for sprinkler systems in the mills operating here. Alderman McWhinnie said the pressure at the plant was 70 lbs now and he did not think the present equipment could stand any more.

The contract of Mr. Rene Rousselle was renewed for another term at the same rate as before.

Alderman Picard was named Pro-Mayor for the next three months.

More Interest Shown In Skating Rink Question

Is Huntingdon going to have a skating rink or is it not, that is the question. And it was this question which caused a number of influential business men of this community who are members of the Rotary Club, the Canadian Legion and the Board of Trade, to meet last night (Tuesday) in the Legion Hall for further discussion. Much of the meeting was taken over with the discussion of the proposed building to which several contractors have already tendered.

It was announced that the final payment of the Provincial Grant has been received by the Committee. There is, presently $40,000 intact in the bank. If the rink is built, it is expected that the cost will exceed $70,000 and therefore, discussion took place as to how to procure another $30,000 or more. Several ideas were put forward, however nothing definite was decided on.

It was decided by motion of the meeting that another meeting would be called for next Tuesday night when representatives of the Wonder Building Company of Canada, would be in attendance. Representatives from the other firms will also be invited to meet with Committee within the near future to discuss plans for the rink. The general trend of the meeting is a little more definite in that the rink could become a reality and that construction could commence next spring and be finished for the winter season of 1957-58. It is too late now to begin construction as there would not be enough time

American Thanksgiving November 22nd.

Some calendars have Nov. 29 as Thanksgiving Day in the apparent belief the holiday is on the last Thursday of the month.

Gov. Harriman's office said last week he would set Nov. 22 in his official proclamation of Thanksgiving.

Body of Man Taken From St. Lawrence On Monday

A body said to be that of 28 year old Marcel Gallen of Montreal was found floating in the St. Lawrence River ship Channel opposite light house, Lancaster Ont., on Monday morning.

He had been missing since about 2 weeks ago from the freighter Cedar Branch and was supposed to have fallen to his death from the deck of the ship in the vicinity of Hamilton Island, 6 miles up river. His disappearance took place at night and in the darkness it was impossible to effect a rescue.

The body was spotted by members of a steamer crew who radioed Prov. Police headquarters at Cornwall, Ont. Then followed slowly down river so that they would keep the drowned man in view. A detachment of police was sent to Lancaster, who with Bill Laframboise, local boatman, put out into the river, to pick up the body.

By this time it had drifted down as far as Grand Trunk Island where it was picked up and taken to the Lancaster wharf. Other police and a medical man were called who made a quick examination best found no positive identification.

It was not known at the time if the dead man had any relatives. He was about 5 ft 6" and medium build.

Dr. J. A. McDonald Honored At Valleyfield Church Service

DR. JOHN A. McDONALD

At the close of the evening service a special ceremony was held to honour Dr. John A. McDonald, beloved physician and surgeon of the city of Valleyfield, who in the month of September had completed fifty years as an elder of the Church.

The Rev. W. Charles Pelletier, minister of the Church first read extracts from "The Canadian Gleaner Almanac" for 1907, which had been lent to him for the occasion from the archives of the Gleaner. These extracts were from the summary of the main items of news for the year 1906, and Mr. Pelletier chose a few of those which were of special interest to residents of Valleyfield, culminating with "Sept. 7, 1906: John A. McDonald, ordained an elder at Valleyfield before going to China as a medical missionary." Dr. McDonald was requested by Mr. Pelletier to come forward to take the front pew in the church, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. K. G. MacMillan and her husband, who had been the guest preacher. The other elders of the Church took their places beside Mr. Pelletier, and Mr. David P. Boyd, the clerk of Session read the minutes of the meeting of the Session held on the occasion of the ordination fifty years ago.

Extracts were also read from the records of proceedings of the 52nd Annual Meeting which reviewed the events of the year 1906 in which the ordination of Dr. McDonald was highlighted. Mr. Pelletier read further from copies of records in the archives of the Board of Overseas Missions of the United Church of Canada in which great appreciation was expressed of the work of Dr. McDonald as a medical missionary in the Province of Kwantung in South China from 1906 to 1932, and finally, referring to the fact that the Congregation wished to express its appreciation of the work of Dr. McDonald and its affection for him, he presented him with an engraved desk clock on behalf of all present.

Following this, the congregation moved to the lower hall of the church for a social hour sponsored by the Couples' Club in honour of Dr. McDonald where all were able to greet him personally and where he expressed his thanks for the surprise of the occasion and for their token of appreciation.

Special services were held in the Valleyfield United Church on Sunday, Nov. 4th, to mark the 102nd Anniversary of the Congregation. Special Preacher at the morning service was the Rev. George B. Caird, M.A., Ph. D., Principal of the United Theological College and Professor of New Testament language and literature at the Faculty of Divinity, McGill University. Dr. Caird, a keen student of world affairs, pointed out that the early Christian Church, working in the different strata of society, had been a great unifying force in the world and that to accomplish the same mission in the 20th century the Christian Church must find its own unity.

The Guest Preacher at the evening service was the Rev. Kenneth G. MacMillan, B.A., B.D., minister of the St. Lambert United Church who spoke on "The Church Sounds the Note". A special feature of the evening service was a male choir whose singing was the occasion of much favourable comment.

Young Boy Shoots Companion with .22 Rifle

Six young boys were playing in the bush near the Plank Road on Sunday, when one of them was shot in the thigh by a bullet from a 22 rifle. Three of the boys had rifles and they were aiming at a chipmunk, when it moved and one of the boys fired and hit his campanion in the left thigh. Dr. George Lefebvre attended the boy who is in the Huntingdon County Hospital. Det. Wilmot investigated the matter.

Some of the parents were unaware that their boys had the rifles. Police point out that it is a dangerous practice for young boys to have these rifles. This incident could have easily been more serious. Parents are warned to check upon their children if they suspect that they may be going on one of these expeditions and make sure that they know what they are doing.

TWO LOCAL HUNTERS GET THEIR VENISON

In the above photograph are seen Mr. Roy Goodfellow (left) and Mr. Hector Provost (right) who each shot a doe while they were on a hunting trip in the Maniwaki area over the past week-end. The photograph was taken on their return to Huntingdon.

Well over two hundred children were present for this gala treat. Twenty prizes, ten for the best girls' costumes and ten for the boys were awarded by these Staff House Judges –Miss Solonge Bergeron, Miss Eleanor MacArthur, and Mr. Bill Keir. Before enjoying the movies the children were treated to a drumstick ice cream cone and after were given shell-out bags filled with goodies to start them on their round of the village for trick or treat. This party was certainly a grand start for the children's enjoyment of Hallowe'en.

CARS ARE MY Line
by Noel A. Foisy

As anyone can see, the station wagon is having a boom. In two years they've jumped from 5 percent of auto production to around 11 or 12, a popularity you can notice on any Sunday drive.

And they're not so new as all that, you know. The first car that looked like a station wagon was the 1923 Star. The station wagon is popular in Russia, too, where the wood-panelled Moskvitch totes four people around with its little four-cylinder engine.

The Moskvitch looks very much like American station wagons of the 1939-40 period, which isn't surprising since the Russians, carried off the dies and jigs for it from an American-owned factory in East Germany.

The great attraction of the station wagon, of course, is that it fills the need to cary around the whole family and their summer-time equipment, stuff for the cottage, new plants for the garden or practically anything you can name.

One big advantage that the manufacturers never thought of is that the rear area makes a wonderful play pen for the kiddies. It's roomy and flat and keeps them (and their lollipops) off the upholstery and Grandma.

You don't have to worry about taking a great whacking loss in depreciation with a station wagon, the way you used to. They're popular, and therefore, depreciate at about the same rate as any car.

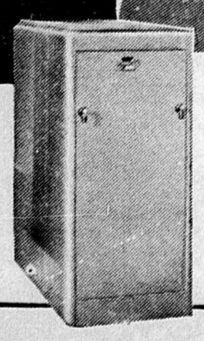

Buying a station wagon is buying a car to fit a popular need or yen. Any of our people will tell you all about them when you drop in.

They can show you the best values around here in snazy new ones or economical used ones, too.

Editorial Notes . . .

Two Good Causes Look For Your Help

EVER since soon after the ending of World War I an annual appeal has been going forth for the public to buy Poppies to create a fund with which to help the disabled veteran and his dependents. It is a most legitimate cause and is really more than a charity, as it offers an emblem that should be worn by every citizen on what is now known as "Remembrance Day". Probably there are some who do not fully understand this emblem for it is now thirty-eight years since the end of World War I, although it still remains vividly in the minds of a large number. The poppy was the emblem of the blood that flowed in Flanders Fields and because so many of these flowers sprang up all around on the battlefields. Thus it became the badge of the sacrifice that was made by the men of the forces who fought in that war. When World War II came along it still remained, for the battlefield was almost identical to that of the first war.

At eleven o'clock on the eleventh day of the eleventh month, an armistice was declared and great was the delight all over the world that the hostilities had ceased. Joy was manifest everywhere. Thus November 11th came into being as Armistice Day and after World War II came along was changed to "Remembrance Day", but it is still observed on November 11th every year.

The Canadian Legion in this country sponsors the sale of the Poppies and hopes that everyone will buy a Poppy and contribute to the Poppy Fund. We urge you to do just that in remembrance of those who made such sacrifices that everyone might be free and happy.

No. 2 cause is to help the Blind people of our district. This is sponsored by local committees under the Canadian National Institute For The Blind. This organization is responsible for obtaining proper recognition of the people who have been afflicted with blindness and to help them to become self sustaining once again. This is done in many ways by training of various sorts and it is surprising what these people can do despite the loss of their sight. But to those who have their sight and know its benefits, the appeal goes out for just a little help for those who have lost this precious thing. It is wonderful for those who have sight when they go to sleep at night to wake up in the morning and behold all the wonders of nature as well as to look upon their loved ones. This and much more is denied the sightless person, so the least we can do is to contribute to the fund for their benefit and try to make their lot a little easier through the comforts this fund will provide. A small donation from everyone will soon make up the aggregate of the $1,000 objective that has been set. This fund will be administered locally for the good of people in our own area. Several have been helped here in the past few years that this fund has been in operation and each year new cases are being found which need assistance of one kind and another. Not only is the fund used to help those who are blind, but it is used also to try and prevent blindness where this is possible. This may be by the use of eye examinations and the fitting of glasses or by treatments for certain diseases which may lead to blindness. the campaign will open on November 11th and continue through until the 20th. Do what you can to help these unfortunate people by contributing generously when the canvasser calls.

The Middle East Battleground

THE flames of war have started to burn in the Middle East with Israeli attacking Egypt and invading that country perilously near to the Suez Canal. Rightly or wrongly, Great Britain and France also jumped into the area and issued a 12-hour ultimatum to Gen. Nasser of Egypt that they would send troops to protect the Suez Canal. The ultimatum was ignored and both these countries have become embroiled in this war.

It can have serious consequences and may mean a break between the western allies. There has been an ever widening gap between France, Great Britain on the one hand and United States on the other, ever since the Suez crisis came about in July. At that time Great Britain and France dispatched forces to the area and were ready to take over the canal by force. However, the United States brought pressure to bear and stayed the action pending a peaceful settlement. These nations had been in constant consultation on the matter until the time when it was suddenly announced Israeli had sent troops into Egypt and had penetrated that country for a distance of 120 miles and was within ten miles of the Suez Canal.

Hurried meetings were held by Great Britain and France and in a matter of twelve hours it was announced that both these countries had dispatched troops and supplies to the troubled zone and the ultimatum had been issued to Nasser. Following this the United States and Canada and some other nations were notified of the action.

This hurried action and the fact that no consultation was held with the United States until after, has resulted in a breach between the allies and a charge that Great Britain and France are really aggressors, according to United Nations policy. President Eisenhower in an address to the American Nation and heard in Canada, on Wednesday evening, said Great Britain and France had acted in error. He also said that the American Nation would not be involved in the conflict.

Russia is allying itself with the American opinion and has pledged support to Nasser to supply trained airmen and other supplies.

Opinion in this country is not being aired to any great extent, a wait and see attitude being adopted.

To anyone who does not understand the British attitude in diplomacy, it would seem that a grave mistake has been made by following the course taken in this affair. However, one must weigh the facts more minutely before reaching a hasty opinion. First the Suez Canal was built at great sacrifice to both Great Britain and France and it was done at tremendous cost and has been maintained for about 90 years under their supervision and mainly under the British. It has become in that time a lifeline for much of the supplies for these countries and in latter years mostly oil. By agreement the canal was open for the use of all nations in was and peace and the British maintained a watch on this canal and preserved the rights. Nasser came along in July and seized the canal under the guise of nationalization in the interests of Egypt. At the same time he denied the right of Israeli to use the canal. Now, Israeli invades Egypt and comes within ten miles of the canal and there is every indication that their forces might occupy at least a part of the canal zone. Could Great Britain and France stand idly by while the canal fell into other hands and there was danger that this great work could be destroyed? Was there time under conditions of such a rapid advance into Egypt without opposition, to hold meetings and discuss what should be done? In the light of circumstances already in connection with the Suez Canal, it does not seem logical that the United States could expect it. Rapid action had to be taken and while the present look at the results may not seem too good, time may prove that the action taken was the right course. In fact while the action could mean another world conflict, there is also a chance that it can prevent it.

Russia has been waiting for a chance to see a split between the Western Allies and now she has the propaganda with which to work. She also has the soft attitude she used toward Poland as further proof that she is trying to keep peace. She has an excuse to go in and help Nasser and she can make up to the United States. But, when the truth is known, if it ever is, could it not be that Russia has been engineering this manoeuvre with ideas that would eventually mean profit to her?

Great Britain and France may have made a mistake, but the United States is equally guilty of making a mistake. Her mistake is that she openly acknowledged that her allies are in error, whereas she should have hidden her feelings and uttered no condemnation at this time. No call has been made on her to help in this situation and none may ever be made. Great Britain has had to work out many problems such as this before and we feel she is capable of doing so again. One of her greatest problems was the Battle of Britain when she was entirely alone against overwhelming odds much greater that those presently facing her. The though by those outside was that all would be lost and it would not be long before their countries would become battlefields. However, she stood alone until the tide of battle turned in her favor. This side of the Atlantic owes much to the Battle of Britain and the stalwart people who stubbornly resisted and held their own. Before we start accusations let us not forget a debt we owe and will owe, for it can never be repaid.

MEMBER AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

Looking Back Along the Trail

Editor's Note — The following article has been taken from a letter written by R. B. Somerville and contained in a scrapbook which contains clippings of the days gone by in Huntingdon. We feel it will be of interest to a large number of people. From Mr. Alister Somerville, M.P.P., the following information has been obtained: Robert B., John and Andrew Somerville were brothers. Andrew was the youngest and father of P.H.M. and so my grandfather. Robert B. was an uncle to my father and would be a grand uncle to me. The article, as will be seen after reading it, gives some idea of the early politics of Huntingdon County and the district of Beauharnois.

By R. B. Somerville

Recollections of parliamentary elections in the old County of Beauharnois, and the present counties of Huntingdon, Chateauguay and Beauharnois, then comprised in it, together with some incidents therewith connected from 1833 to the time of Confederation of the provinces in 1867. For some years previous to the Rebellions of 1837 and 38, the political aspect of affairs was very stormy. Public meetings were held all over the province "to take into consideration the state of the Country" at which evolutionary and inflammatory doctrines were promulgated. In 1833 a meeting of this kind was called and held in the Village of Huntingdon, then better known as Bowron's village, the promoters were Yankees, Canadians, Radicals and the audience was chiefly composed of settlers from the Irish Ridge. The leading men of the townships feeling aggrieved at a small disaffected facteur, pretending to represent the opinions of the people called a meeting, which the writer attended, the object of which was to condemn the then celebrated "92 resolutions" and also to nominate a candidate for the approaching election to represent the English speaking electorates of the county. The meeting took place in the village of Huntingdon outside of the school house which then stood on the south side of the upper bridge. Rousing and truly loyal speeches were delivered by several speakers, mounted on a table in the center of what was then considered an immense crowd, of the resolute and local hearted pinions of the then wilderness, all of whom were conspicuously determined to stand by the old flag, and to fight for if called upon, "British Connection"—The movers and seconders of the resolutions passed were chiefly the aspirants for parliamentary honors, amongst whom the writer distinctly remembers the late William Bowron of Huntingdon. Lt. Col. John Davidson of Dundee and Thomas McLeary Gardner of Hinchinbrook.

The meeting closed without coming to any understanding regarding the candidate, subsequently, however at a meeting in No. Georgetown, which the writer also attended, Mr. Bowron was nominated.

At this time the county had two representatives, Dewitt and Archambault, and it was understood that I.W.B. and the latter would form some sort of alliance. A poll was opened for these three candidates at the village of Beauharnois and after being kept open for a considerable time, was moved to Huntingdon and was only there closed in one hour having elapsed before another vote was tendered. There was a Committee to promoto Mr. Bowron's election, with the late L. G. Brown, agent, as chairman and the writer acted as secretary—some rather amusing things might be related attending the mode of electioneering in those primitive times, the meetings were of a somewhat social nature. At one of Mr. B's in a school on the Beau. river, after the speeches were over, the inevitable whisky jar was introduced, the candidate was asked to sing and he at once complied and sung in good style the good old song of "Maggie Lanther" to the delight of all. After the union of Upper and Lower Canada in 1841 a very unfair and disgraceful election took place at the village of Durham, that being the only polling place for the whole county, one can easily imagine the bickering and confusion that was sure to occur, more especially when the voting was open, the late Jacob Dewitt and I. W. Dunscomb were the candidates. The then Governor General Robert Thompson, before he was created Lord Sydenham being desirous of having the union confirmed by the House of Assembly about to meet at Kingston resorted to means, to say the least, of a very questionable character to obtain that end. A gentleman of the Roman Catholic faith, newly out from Ireland, was sent up to Huntingdon as election organiser.

Judged Championship Show

Robert (Bobby) Ness of J. E. Ness & Sons, Terrace Bank Farm, Howick, Que., has won his spurs, so to speak, as a judge at what might well be termed one of the Major Ayrshire Shows. That is, at the Western Ontario Ayrshire Championship Show held this year, as heretofore, in conjunction with "The World's Fair", Rockton, Ont. In assuming that chore, Robert Ness was following in the footsteps of a long line of outstanding Ayrshire judges. In that respect we may say that the Western Ontario Championship Show Committee has always chosen an outstanding judge and breeder from outside the component Clubs' area—from other parts of Ontario and Quebec—to place the awards.

However, while this may have been the first Major Show at which "Bobby" Ness has officiated he has a distinguished background insofar as an expert knowledge of Ayrshire cattle is concerned. That is, what might be called his inherited livestock acumen; his brilliant records as a 4H Club member and Leader; his training under his father—J. Earle Ness—and, his outstanding "herdsman-showmanship", not only in connection with the Terrace Bank herd, but also, on many different occasions, in connection with the Burnside show herd.

Leading Winners Only

First and Second prize winners only at the some seven Ayrshire Club "Red and White" Shows of Western Ontario are eligible to compete at the Championship Show. The first of its kind, and which dates back over a decade or so.

Due to that several of the eligible animals were away at the International Dairy Show, also to the late season, there were not so many animals out at the Championship Show this year, as heretofore. However, 17 breeders from 6 Clubs had forward their first and second prize winners at their own "Red and White" Shows, while a report in that connection says that it was still an outstanding, large show of top quality animals.

State Herd Winners

Insofar as State Herd awards are concerned, the Ayrshire Cattle Club of Ontario is now on a par with Quebec Ayrshire Society. A Quebec group won the State Herd class at the 1956 Eastern States Exposition, while an Ontario group carried off the same honour at the 1956 International Dairy Show, held at Chicago, Ill., on October 12. In the latter instance, the other winners were Kansas, Ohio, New York, Wisconsin and Indiana.

Leading Winners

The grand champion bull at the 1956 International Dairy Show was Valehaven Crown Duke for Norris Lehman & Sons of Indiana, and he was sired by Brookview Brilliant, bred by J. P. Bradley & Son, Lachute, Que.

The reserve Grand Champion, Shirecrest Ames, for West Unity Farms of Ohio, also has a Canadian background. His sire, Burnside White King, was bred by R. R. Ness & Sons, Howick, Que.

The grand champion female was Brisklea Dairy Queena for Ralph Coolley, Ghent, N.Y. The reserve grand champion was Leitchcroft Jewel 2nd., second in her class to the champion, and owned by Stansell Bros., Aylmer, Ont. However, later on Leitchcroft Jewel 2nd. won first in Best Uddered class, in which 26 animals competed. Ontario animals also took second and fifth prizes in that class.

In the individual classes Ontario entries won 3 first, 6 second, 5 third, 5 fourth; 4 fifth and three other prizes.

In the group classes Stansell Bros. won firsts on Dairy Herd and Best 3 Females; second and third on Get of Sire; third and fifth on Produce of Dam. Also the Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor Awards.

Frank Thorogood builds for the future

In 43 years, foreman carpenter Frank Thorogood has seen many improvements in building methods.

"Power tools, pre-fabricated sections and the use of new structural materials make all the difference," says Mr. Thorogood. "Developments like these have simplified our work — and make for stronger, more fire-resistant buildings."

In building for the future, Mr. Thorogood has enjoyed still another advantage — through the wider range of financial protection he can give his family because of modern developments in life insurance.

Life insurance gives today's families many new benefits. It not only affords them financial protection that is more flexible, but can also provide money for the children's education, for safeguarding the home mortgage, for arranging retirement income and for other purposes.

In these and other ways, the life insurance companies have progressed with the times . . . meeting the needs of people in all walks of life.

Life insurance companies are a major source of mortgage funds for Canadian families — last year they invested four hundred and sixty-five million dollars in this way.

Aluminum helped today's high-speed, high-compression car engine get that way. Aluminum pistons brought not only toughness but lightness to this up-and-down job. Less weight meant less inertia and so made possible higher engine revolutions. It brought heat conductivity, too—so your engine doesn't overheat when you drive fast and far.

It started in the twenties—and today every car produced in North America is equipped with aluminum pistons. And much of the aluminum comes from Canadian smelters. To match the needs of the automotive, aircraft, construction and many other industries for large quantities of aluminum, Alcan is again stepping up its already enormous smelting capacity.

Lord's Day Alliance Called 'Blue Law Busybody Spinsters'

Canada's Sundays are the strictest in the World, thanks to a parcel of blue law busybodies," Hugh Garner, prominent Canadian writer, says in a November magazine article. A nation-wide group of "spinsterish spoilsports" called the Lord's Day Alliance has made the Lord's Day Act "a millstone around Canada's collective neck," he says.

To many sensible and devoutly religious Canadians today, the 1906 Lord's Day Act is in need of repeal, says Garner. Vancouverites voted last December 38,000 to 36,00 for Sunday sports. The Alliance suffered a shattering reverse in 1950 when Toronto, generally thought to be unalterably opposed to anything but church-going on Sunday, voted almost 88,000 to 82,000 in favour of Sunday sports. And Quebec, the "most religious yet most tolerant of our provinces," passed a law of its own on the day preceding the coming-into-force of the Lord's Day Act—so that citizens of Quebec have enjoyed Sunday sports all along.

Many prominent Canadians denounce the "horse-and buggy" Act and its upholders, says the article. Dr. Boyd Neel, dean of Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music, fumes, "Like Hitlerism and fascism combined-----The actions of the Lord's Christian, anti-cultural-----like the Dark Ages coming back." Rev. E. B. Ratcliffe, president of the First Unitarian Church of Hamilton, Ontario calls it "inconsistent with the modern conceptions of democray." Dr. F. H. Yost, secretary of the International Religious Liberties Association, asserts, "There should be no Sunday laws of any kind". Vancouver lawyer James J. Sutherland claims, "One of the freedoms we obtained with blood and sweat was the privilege of going to hell in ways of our own choosing."

Garner calls members of the Alliance "interfering prudes" and says, "When an archaic law cannot be enforced and is broken weekly by nearly everyone, including its dedicated upholders, then it should be abolished." Our present-day "blue-law Sundays", says the article, should give way to the kind they have had for years in Great Britain, the U.S., Quebec, and most civilized countries of the world.

Display Design Needs Art Plus Ingenuity

Don't discourage the crayons-and-coloring book clan—there may be a budding artist among them!

At least that is how Mrs. Peggie Trumble started on her career as a commercial artist. Peggie, who is a displaydesigner for Canadian Industries Limited, Montreal, credits her interest in art to her coloring book days at her home in London, England.

Peggie continued to develop her artistic talents for six years at London art schools, then after working for a time, started out to "see the world". In 1947 she found herself in Canada. Today she is one of the few women in this country who can take a blueprint of a structure and from this make an attractive drawing of the building in accurate perspective.

Although she is actually a free-lance artist, Peggie spends most of her time doing displays for C-I-L. One time it might be a window display showing color schemes in home decorating, the next time a display of fashions and fabrics, and again, an exhibit of ammunition and explosives.

But whatever it is Peggie has found that she must be a Jack-of-all trades. For her work is not complete when a paper sketch is finished.

For instance, often a scale model has to be made before the design is approved. A recent window display called for a living room to be decorated around a central picture illustrating new color combinations in paint. This had to be a modern room so in her model Peggie decided to feature a modern triangular chair, which she made of cardboard. Modern overhanging lamps in a cone shape were concocted out of tinfoil and the focal point, the picture, Peggie painted herself.

When the model had been approved, the actual display had to be prepared. Peggie's search for a suitable picture ended in the art gallery where she obtained a small print. She solved the problem of a modern chair by cutting a section from a wooden salad bowl, and sheets of copper foil were deftly transformed into hanging lamps.

Sketching designs, making models and setting up displays keep this ingenious young designer hustling. But there's real satisfaction in starting with a mere idea and creating something for all to see and enjoy.

YOBroadcast For Young Canada's Book Week

Nothing ever will take the place of a good book in the life of a growing child, asserts Miss Catherine Fraser, Children's Librarian at the Westmount Public Library. Miss Fraser makes her remarks on children's reading in a special broadcast in connection with Young Canada's Book Week, ad is joined before CFCF microphones of Home and School on the Air by Mr. Andrew Pitcairn, principal, Carlysle School, Town of Mount Royal, and Mrs. A. The Late Mrs. Pommela Douglas

Mrs. Pommela Douglas, wife of the late George Douglas, and daughter of the late Mr. Peter Vaillancourt and his wife Amelia Gervais of Covey Hill, passed away in the Huntingdon County Hospital, after a long illness, on October 30th 1956.

Her married life was spent in Rockburn and vicinity, where, left a widow with a family of little children her life was not an easy one, but she found her happiness and cheer in being able to provide for the needs of her family. The funeral was held from the Sharpe Funeral parlors to the R.C. Church at Herdman where the Service was conducted by Rev. Abbe Marcil, and interment was made in the Catholic Cemetery of Hinchinbrooke. Her children: Mr. and Mrs. A. Durocher of Cascade, Que. Mr. and Mrs. Le-Blanc of Laprairie, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lavoie of Valleyfield, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fera of Sudbury, Walter of Malone, Roy of Sudbury, George of Sault Ste. Marie, and Floyd of Rockburn, were all able to be present, a few for the last days of the Mother's life. The funeral was largely attended by friends and neighbors, who had appreciated her loyal and faithful services to them in their homes.

The flowers were beautiful, and the sympathy of the community is tendered her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend of Malone were callers recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver.

Miss Iris Waller of Montreal General Hospital, spent the week-end at home.

Canadian Addicts Gulp 18 Tons of Happy Pills

Canadians consume more than 18 tons of barbiturates, sleeping and tranquilizer pills each year—enough to put every man, woman, and child in Canada to sleep every night for a week, according to Fred Edge, in November issue of a popular Magazine.

"Pilladdiction in Canada has become a threat to the national health second only to alololism, and more serious than addiction to narcotics," the article says. And in Ontario, one-tenth of the cases admitted to mental hospitals are people addicted to "happy" pills, sleeping pills, or relaxing pills.

The article reviews the case of a 60-year-old war veteran written up in the October 1956 issue of the Canadian Services Medical Journal to another non-prescription pill and ate up 100 a day. He saw little men running around on his ceiling when he had a "pill jag" on. He once imagined the fire department came in through his window and put him in a coffin-like black box. He needed on or two bottles of beer to soothe him after the terrifying hallucinations brought on by pilladdiction.

Pep-up pills became popular during the last war, when flyers on long, hazardous night missions used them to stay awake and alert. And Adolph Hitler was well-known for his addiction to benzedrine, a "pep-up" pill. He took it constantly and worked all night. Although pep-up pills sold over the counter were weakened following a crack-down by Canadian and U.S. health authorities, students cramming for examinations still use them to study till dawn.

The article quotes Dr. Robert Gordon Bell, head of the Bell Clinic in Willowdale, Ont., and a leading Canadian medical authority on addictions, "One-tenth of my patients," says Dr. Bell, "have pill problems." There is true addiction, and it is one of the most difficult addictions to treat clinically.

Aubrey - Riverfield

AUBREY-RIVERFIELD. — The Aubrey-Riverfield W. I. was held on Friday, November 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Easton.

Seventeen members answered the roll call, Duties of a good citizen.

The secretary noted in her minutes that 168 tins of apple sauce had been canned at the home of the president, 50 were sent to the Barrie Memorial Hospital, and the remainder to Howick School Cafeteria. Mrs. Math. McKell brought the highlights of the semi-annuel meeting.

The salute to the flag was followed with a moment's silence.

We were delighted and honored to have with us Mrs. Bayford of England and Mrs. Bruce Chisholm of Howick W.I. as our guest speakers. These ladies were introduced by Mrs. Ewart Orr. As citizenship was the theme for the day, Mrs. Bruce Chisholm presented a carefully prepared paper on Women and the Law, bringing to our attention many facts which are rather disturbing and entreated us to study and become better acquainted with the laws and also to use our ballot when it comes to elections.

Mrs. Bayford brought greetings from England and told us of the work of the W.I. over there.

It was very interesting to know how very much alike we were in our various undertakings, and we all thoroughly enjoyed listening, as she related some of the high lights and also some of the problems that are bound to come in our every day life.

Mrs. Reddick thanked both speakers for the pleasure they had given us as they had each left us some thoughts well worth pondering over. The president then asked two former life members, Mrs. Bennie and Mrs. C. Orr to come forward. Mrs. Bennie very graciously presented a life membership certificate to Mrs Janet Reddick, while Mrs. Orr placed the pin. Mrs. Reddick, very much surprised but very happy, accepted this honor with thanks.

Quilt blocks were brought in to this meeting in preparation for our social service day in December.

Improvement Shown In Canadian Agriculture 1956

MONTREAL. — A definite improvement in the three chief sectors of Canadian agriculture for 1956—grain, meat and dairy products—is forecast by the Bank of Montreal in its October Business Review, just released.

Observing that, over the past five years, agriculture has been the one major sector of the Canadian economy at variance with the general pattern of prosperity and expansion, the B of M review says, "There are signs, however, that such may not be the case in 1956."

Preliminary estimates show that farm income during the first six months of this year amounted to $1,182 million, a rise of 13 per cent over 1955, and the highest first-half figure recorded since 1951. The most important factor in this improvement, the review observes, has been the increase in the sale of wheat.

In the last four months of the crop-year to July 31, exports of wheat and wheat flour amounted to 151 million bushels compared with 79 million a year earlier and brought total exports for the full crop-year to 309 million bushels, an increase of 57 million over 1954-55.

"Nearly three-quarters of this net increase," adds the B of M, "resulted from the agreements negotiated by the Canadian government with Russia, Poland and Czechoslovakia whereby these countries purchased Canadian wheat for the first time since the immediate postwar years."

The review notes, that total sales of wheat by the Canadien Wheat Board to domestic and export markets fell short of last year's harvest, and that, since there is little immediate scope for increasing domestic consumption, a further expansion of export sales of about 46 million bushels in the current crop-year will be necessary to prevent still another annual addition to the stockpile of wheat in Canada.

The B of M adds, however, that increased export sales may be looked for as production of wheat in Europe this year might be significantly lower than in 1955, due to weather conditions, but cautions, "in attempting to meet these requirements, however, Canada will be in keen competition with other exporting nations, notably the United States."

Meat Consumption Up

Describing the absorptive capacity of the Canadian market for meat one of the most encouraging features of the agricultural situation, the review points out that per capita consumption has risen from 140.5 pounds in 1953 to 151.5 pounds in 1955. It believes there will be another rise this year, despite increasing competition from poultry, per capita consumption of which was 29.7 pounds last year.

In the dairy industry, the problem of large surplus stocks of butter and cheese sill remains, says the B of M, but this year the trend has changed from accumulation to a moderate depletion of inventories.

Pointing out that the marketing propects surrounding grain, livestock and dairy products, which collectively account for 70 per cent of total farm cash income, are fundamental to any appraisal of the outlook for Canadian agriculture, the B of M says that with developments indicating improvement in each of the three sectors this year, it would seem that in the second half of 1956, as in the first half, an increase in farm cash income over 1955 may be recorded.

"But the question of whether or not these changes for the better mark a permanent turning point in the fortunes of Canadian agriculture cannot be answered with equal assurance," the B of M concludes. "For as long as inventories on farm products remain as large as they have for the past five years, and as long as the economic movement of grain in international trade is disrupted by the highly protective policies pursued by other countries, uncertainties will continue to becloud the outlook for Canadian farming."

A Low Down Hallowe'en Trick

A rather low down Hallowe'en trick was played on Warren Fewster of Roxham on Hallowe'en Night. Mr. Fewster had left his car outside his home and when he came out the next morning he found it had been painted on the inside and on the outside with an enamel paint and which was thoroughly dry. His mail box had also been stolen. Damage to the car amounted to about $200. The matter was reported to the Provincial Police and Det. F. Wilmot is now investigating.

The Cost and Loss BY Sickness In Canada

Is Canada a nation of hypochondraics, with a host of real or imagined ailments that keep eight in every ten Canadian in bed at least twelve days a year?

A survey on national sickness would seem to indicate that this is true, reports David MacDonald in a magazine article.

The average Canadian feels under the weather about fifty-one days a year, writes MacDonald, and stays home from work a quarter of that time on account of illness. The cash cost of this gigantic headache is about $325,000,000.

In addition to this mass total of illness about a million Canadians have some form of permanent disability, and 423,00 are totally disabled.

Although eighty percent of Canadians get sick, according to the Maclean's article, only fifty-three percent receive medical care, ror which each family pays an average of $82 a year—a total of $373,800,000 for the whole country.

What is Canadians' main complaint? Influenza and the common cold, says MacDonald. They account for about half of all our ailments. Next come diseases of the digestive system, infective and parisitic disease and accidents, poisonings and violence.

The legend of the complaining woman has more truth than fiction, he says—the average Canadian woman feels under the weather about two months a year, fourteen days more than the average man.

But it's not true that the wealthier people pamper themselves more than those in more modest circumtances. "Among Canadian families whose annual income is under fifteen hundred dollars a year—and this takes in a fifth of the population—illness disables the average person eighteen days a year, against only ten days for those whose earnings are three thousand a year."

Although Canadians are often ill and spend a fortune on their ailments—the nation is by no means sickly, according to MacDonald. The mortality rate has been reduced by one third in fifty years and in that time the average Canadian's life expectancy has been raised from forty-five years to seventy.

Man Killed In Accident At Valleyfield

An accident occurred on Tuesday evening at about 9.40 on the road leading into Valleyfield from Route 3 in the Municipality of Ste. Cecile, which took the life of one person.

A transport truck, the driver of which was Philip Lepage, age 21, of Cazaville, was parked on the road and had a flat tire. The driver had left the vehicle to get some help or to phone, when Roma Langlois, the victim, ran into it. The victim's address is given as New York Central Hotel, Valleyfield, and his age as 33 years. It is understood that Langlois is well known in Huntingdon. The truck was carrying some pipes which were protruding out beyond the vehicle and it is assumed that these caused the death of Langlois. Langlois was alone in the vehicle and was killed instantly.

It is understood that another car came along at about the same time and avoided hitting the truck and the car by only a few inches, but did run into a house that was nearby. It is said that there were six people in this car and that it was from Montreal. It is not known if any of these people were injured or what damage was done in this case.

Police from Valleyfield investigated the accident and an inquest will be held.

Barrie Memorial Women's Auxiliary Holds Fall Meeting

The Fall General meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Barrie Memorial Hospital was held in the hospital Board Room on the evening of Oct. 29. The President Mrs. A. A. McCormick, welcomed the members and friends and expressed her pleasure in seeing so many there. Mrs. Sauve extended a welcome in French.

The Secretary Mrs. Hamilton, read the minutes of the June meeting. Mrs. Gartshore sec. of the Bursary Committee, gave her report on the work of the committee. This Bursary is given annually and provides $200.00 for initial expenses, upon entering training, such as uniforms, shoes, etc. and $10.00 per month during the three years training course. The girls who receive the assistance are expected to work at least one year in the Barrie Memorial Hospital after graduation. If an accepted applicant should resign from her training before graduation, for other than unavoidable reasons, the money given her must be refunded.

A cheque for $40.00 was received from Ormstar Chapter No. 36 Order of the Eastern Star. Province of Quebec, to start a fund for this worthy project.

By motion of Miss Rodger and Mrs. Parkinson a note of thanks is to be sent to Mrs. K. Younie, Superintendent of the hospital for her work in gathering information necessary to set up this Bursary, and formulating regulations and application forms. Mrs. A. Brunet gave the report in French.

The Treasurers report was very gratifying. The balance on hand January 1st was $53.96. Total receipts to Oct. 29 were $3526.69. Expenses $1396.01 leaving a balance as of Oct. 29 of $2130.68. The Howick Aubrey Riverfield Branch gave $100.00 more toward the cost of the food conveyor for 3rd floor. The President expressed the appreciation of the Auxiliary to this group for the splendid way in which they are carrying out their project.

In view of the substantial balance the president mentioned two suggestions that had been made—these were $1000. more toward the Auxiliary Lighting plant which had been installed at a cost of $4000. and on which the W. A. has already paid $1000.—or purchase the Isolette which is now in the nursery on trial. This is a very modern and efficient type incubator, and greatly needed. After a short discussion it was moved by Mrs. Davidson and seconded by Mrs. Lalonde that we pay $1000. toward the Auxiliary Lighting plant and $865. for the Isolette.

Mrs. C. J. Bryson in her charming and inimitable way, introduced the speaker of the evening Mrs. Handfield of Montreal. It was a privilege and a pleasure to listen to Mrs. Handfield tell some of the ideas for raising money and improving the work of Hospital Auxiliaries, that she had gathered in her extensive travels.

One of the points she stressed was the importance of leadership and in this connection she emphasized the fact that the presidency of an active Auxiliary is a time consuming task and that no member should be expected to hold the office for more than one term.

In speaking of public relations she said it is vital for each and every member of the Auxiliary to remember that she is representative of the hospital, and that her attitude toward the work of the hospital influences those with whom she comes in contact, either for benefit or detriment of the hospital.

In concluding her address Mrs. Handfield congratulated the Women's Auxiliary on their splendid achievements and expressed pleasure in being able to be of some assistance to the group.

Mrs. Ward Rember very ably thanked Mrs. Handfield for her inspiring and most interesting talk.

Mrs. Stalker Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee took charge of drawing the tickets for the raffle. She voiced her thanks to all who had sold tickets and mentioned especially Mrs. E. A. Fennell who sold 136 books and Mr. Norman Logan who had sold 120 books.

The first ticket drawn was for a chenille bedspread and was won by Mrs. Mary McNeil Ormstown; Clothes Hamper won by Mrs. Jean Lalonde, Folding chair won by Miss Helen Clark, Nitro; Tray won by Miss Rose Beauchamp Ormstown, and Hand Bag won by Mrs. Lorne Elliott, Ormstown.

Rotary Club To Meet With Other Groups Re: Memorial

At the Monday meeting of the Rotary Club it was decided the Rotarians call a meeting of the Huntingdon County War Memorial Committee and the Huntingdon Branch of the Canadian Legion and discuss the County War Memorial which is to take the form of an Arena.

Mr. H. A. D. Somerville reports having received a cheque from Quebec as the balance of its pledged amount of $25,000 toward the building of the Huntingdon County War Memorial Arena.

On Monday, Nov. 12, Principal Blanchard and two teachers of Mackay Institute, for the Protestant Deaf Mutes, and eight of the boys and girls who are pupils are to be at the meeting. Principal Blanchard will make a short address and the pupils will put on a demonstration. Evidently the pupils intend to put on a dance as they have requested that a piano be placed on the dining room floor for and girls though deaf-mutes can dance as they acquire their time from the piano through the vibrations in the floor. Each Rotarian was asked to be accompanied by his Rotary Ann. The meeting starts sharp at 12.30 p.m. During the afternoon it is expected the Mackay delegation will visit the Franklin Co-operative Apple Packing and Cold Storage plant, as guests of Rotarian Gerry Beaudin.

VITAMINS

Native, or so-called "uncivilized" peoples, living in their original environment and with their normal food supply, rarely suffer from deficiency diseases caused by a lack of essential dietary elements. They seem instinctively to gather for their food edibles which contain sufficient vitamins and minerals.

While civilization has brought many boons to mankind, it has also brought problems. The refined food which we eat, while more desirable, has in many instances lost much of its original value as a body builder.

That is why doctors must prescribe additional vitamins and minerals to supplement the diet. Most infants and children regularly take extra vitamins in liquid and capsule form.

Adults too often require these additional vitamins. Your pharmacist features a wide selection of vitamin products for the whole family. BE SURE that your family is receiving its full quota of VITAMINS.

Here's what keeps the price of gasoline low

Why have wholesale gasoline prices increased only one-third as much as wholesale prices in general since 1935-1939?

Raw material and other costs have gone 'way up. Why not gasoline?

Gasoline prices have stayed down because a lot of companies are in the oil business—producing, refining and selling, more and more efficiently.

The consumer can shop around—looking for the best products at the best price.

Competition for the motorist's dollar keeps the price of gasoline low.

Better Hospital Care Leads To Bigger Deficits

"Today's hospital care is the best ever available, so it is natural that it would cost more than ever before". This was the statement made some time ago by a leading hospital authority. And since people are demanding the best of hospital care, regardless of the ability of many to pay for it, it is understandable that this, combined with the pressure of rising costs outside, must inevitably lead to heavier deficits.

The big problem in hospital finance is that the costs involved in the operation of a hospital cannot be divided among the patients according to service rendered, for, if they were, only a very small proportion of patients could afford to pay the rates this would involve. On the other hand, if the hospital service were cut to fit the purse of the average person, the quality of service would, of necessity, be far below what it should be, with many of the advances of modern medical science missing; which is unthinkable.

Last week, in our report of the appeal of The Barrie Memorial Hospital for local financial assistance, we dealt with the factor of personnel remuneration which takes the major portion of any hospital's budget. The next biggest blow dealt the hospital is the effect of the higher cost of living. And this applies not only to food but also boosts the bill for drugs and surgical supplies as well as for the many maintenance necessities.

Non-Paying Patients Boast Deficit!

All hospitals have a comparatively large number of patients who, while not being considered as indigents by the various municipalities, are totally incapable of paying their own hospital expenses or that of their dependents. This is a group entirely separate from those who are officially recognized as indigents and for whom the municipalities and the province pay a certain part of their per diem cost which does not cover the bed charge nor does it include anything for medicines and surgical services. Incidentally, the attending doctors receive absolutely nothing for such patients from any source regardless of the medical or surgical services rendered.

But insufficient as the Q.P.C.A. payment is to cover the ward charges, let alone actual cost, it is most welcome, under the circumstances, for, without it, such accounts would be a total loss as are the accounts of those who cannot pay yet who are not accepted as indigents.

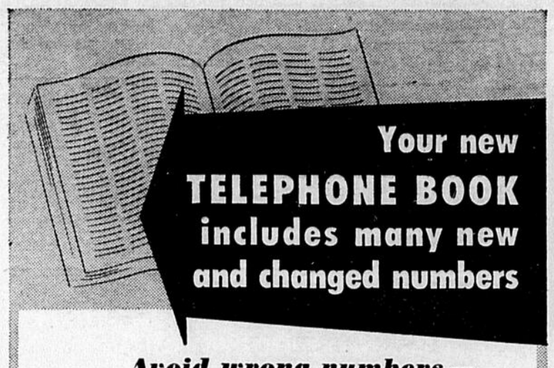

The Provincial Government does make an annual grant towards the hospital costs of such people, as do some of the more progressive municipalities, and it is greatly to be desired that more of the latter should see fit to recognize their obvious responsibility in this respect. To the municipalities as to the people themselves, the privilege of having modern hospital care conveniently available to them should justify an annual grant for its maintenance.

Citizen' Help Necessary!

We have discussed the impossibility of expecting the average patient to be able to pay what it actually costs for his or her hospitalization, and we have indicated what the provincial and municipal governments are doing, or should do. But the financial assistance of public-spirited citizens to the hospital in their community is more greatly needed than ever, and the more fortunate must continue to make it possible for others to enjoy the benefits of modern hospital care which they want for themselves.

The Barrie Memorial's annual solicitation of funds will not, we know, go unheeded by those who can respond. All contributions should be sent directly to the hospital form which official receipts for income tax purposes will be sent.

Christmas Good Turn

The collecting and repairing of toys for distribution at Christmas by the Huntingdon Wolf Cubs and Scouts is a project which we hope will be successful. It is realized that this good turn does come at a time when there are many campaigns in the district. Nevertheless it is felt that as our project does not involve the handling of money and in many cases it is simply a matter of sorting out many toys which are of no more use and placing them in one of the Christmas boxes. These boxes for depositing toys are now placed in the following places: The Bell Telephone Office, McCoy's Store, Braithwaite's Hardware, Heath's Reg'd, Laberge's Grocery in Garden City and the White Rose Service Station. In addition to the above places Gordon Grant has kindly offered to pick up toys while on his bread delivery route. As this project will require a good deal of work on the part of Leaders, Cubs and Scouts, it is hoped that citizens will deposit whatever toys they may wish to as early as possible.

THE WEEK AT OTTAWA
by the Canadian Press

OTTAWA, Nov. 1 (CP). — Developments in Europe and the Middle East occupied the attention of the capital last week as External Affairs Minister Pearson described the upheavals in Soviet-dominated Hungary, and earlier Poland, as being for the West the most important Iron Curtain developments since the Second World War.

Some diplomatic sources said it appeared from Prime Minister Eden's statement to the British Commons last Saturday that Britain was "moving along the general lines of Canada's thinking." Britain had expressed qualified acceptance of Canada's UN police force proposal for the Middle East.

Sir Anthony told the British Commons that the "police action" of Britain and France in Egypt would go on, but that they would halt hostilities as soon as a UN force was ready to take over.

The view here was that it may take weeks to get a UN police force together. However, diplomatic sources felt there was a good chance the UN might agree to have Britain and France do the policing as a temporary UN force until troops from other countries could be added.

There was some speculation that Canada might contribute an infantry battalion of 900 men to such a force, but government officials said last week-end that discussion of numbers before any UN decision would be fruitless. Reports that a 10,000-man force was proposed were described by Mr. Pearson as "entire speculation."

Meanwhile, Canada decided to continue trade negotiations with a Hungarian delegation that arrived in Ottawa before the Hungarian upheaval. Their status had first been questioned because of the rapid developments in their own country.

New Bank Policy

The Bank of Canada has decided to follow a new policy designed to keep it automatically one step ahead of the short-term money market, and help prevent an inflationary rise in the country's money supply.

The central bank announced its interest rate on loans to chartered bank and securities dealers will be fixed at one-quarter of one per cent above the average weekly tender rate for 91-day government treasury bills.

The action brought another immediate rise in the central interest rate — to 3.59 per cent from 3.5 — the seventh in 15 months.

It incidentally plugged a hole through which borrowers sometimes could make a profit by borrowing from the Bank of Canada and investing in the government's short-term treasury bills.

Treasury bills, a kind of short-term government bonds maturing anywhere from 90 to 180 days, are usually offered for sale once a week, under a tender system with the government accepting the lowest. Announcements of acceptance are made on Thursdays. Since the average tender last Thursday was 3.34 per cent for the 91-day bills, the central bank rate will be 3.59 per cent until the following Thursday.

If money is scarce, the rate likely will climb, dropping if money is plentiful. The Bank of Canada, however, can influence the rate through its huge monetary operations. The rate has been rising steadily since the central bank switched from an "easy money" policy early in 1955 to "tight money" in 1956.

New PC Candidate

On the political scene, George Nowlan, 58-year-old Commons member for Digby-Annapolis-Kings, N.S., was reported by a Progressive Conservative party source as a certain entrant in the race for the leadership resigned by Hon. George Drew for health reasons.

He would join three other lawyers-MPs who have made themselves available for the post, to be filled at a national convention of the party here in December. The others are John Diefenbaker, 61, MP for Prince Albert, Sask., who bid unsucessfully for the leadership in 1942 and 1948; Donald Fleming, 51, member for Toronto Eglinton, third behind Mr. Diefenbaker in the 1948 leadership choice won by Mr. Drew, and Davie Fulton, 40, member for Kamloops, B.C.

Massey on Planning

Governor-General Massey, admitting his "very deep interest" in the subject, weighed the beauty of Canadian communities at last week's annual conference of the Community Planning Association of Canada and found them in considerable want.

"We need not remind ourselves of the varied beauties of our country," he said. "But I think we would all agree that we have not fully responded to the challenge offered by nature.

"Perhaps, indeed, we hardly saw that she was challenging us. We have many cities in noble settings. I cannot say we have too many noble streets and squares. We have many peaceful, prosperous towns, set in a natural harmony of field and sky, but the town has frequently been given no logical shape and is really a scene of man-made confusion."

He advocated more parks and squares, greater preservation of trees and the natural beauty of areas in which communities are located. A zoo, he added, "should be within the capacity of any city of a reasonable size."

How could these things be afforded? "If we could induce a mood in which the citizen of a modest surplus would ask 'what could I give my town?' it would become easier to ask the municipality to play its part."

"It is of the utmost importance," he added, "that with shorter hours of labor for all, the atmosphere of the town should be stimulating and satisfying. There must be interest and occupation for the mind and the imagination."

Athelstan

Thankoffering meeting ... ...

The autumn Thankoffering meeting of the W.M.S. was held on Nov. 1st., at the home of Miss Tully and Miss Kimball.

Fourteen members answered the roll with a verse on 'THANKS' and were pleased to welcome several neighbors and also friends from Elgin and Huntingdon.

A notice was read of the mass meeting and reception in Stanley Church in honor of Sir Francis and Lady Ibiam of Nigeria. The group made plans to pack a bale for the supply department and also to remember the folks in the Old People's Home at Christmas time.

Miss Kimball read a most helpful Thanksgiving Message written by Capt. Don McMillan of the Salvation Army on the text Ps. 65:11, "Thou crownest the year with thy goodness and thy paths drop fatness". Men, to-day, see what they have eyes to see. The farmer looks on a field of golden grain and sees the reward for his toil, the artist sees a glorious subject for a picture and the economist may think of prices, averages and national prosperity. But the devout Christian sees God's hand opening in answer to prayer for daily bread. The harvest field means many things to different people but to all may it speak of Thanksgiving, Obedience to God's law, Patience, Co-operation and Hope for the future.

Mrs. Grant showed several pictures taken by Rev. Geo. and Mrs. Malcolm of their work in Formosa and also their trip thru' Western Canada and the west coast cities of U.S.A. These were very much enjoyed.

The offering amounted to $32.

ALBERTA LOVES ITS ICE CREAM

CALGARY, Nov. 7 (CP).—The Alberta Dairy Association says Albertans consumed more ice cream in 1955 than citizens of any other provinces. The per capita figure in Alberta was 20.64 pints. British Columbia was second with 20.40 pints. The Canadian average was 16.7 pints.

A total of 407,000,000 ice cream cones were produced in Canada during the year, about 25 for everyone. Altogether 50 flavors were listed, but vanilla accounted for more than half the total sales.

MONARCH RICHELIEU PHAETON COUPE

We are proud of our new '57 Monarch. Read the following messages and see why.

Representing one of the most extensive model changes in the history of the automotive industry, the 1957 Monarch will be introduced to Canadians November 12. This new Canadian car will set styling and performance standards for years to come.

The 1957 Monarch is distinguished by an unusually low silhouette, a completely new and longer body, a new 255 h.p. engine, and a unique new floating ride which pioneers air-cushion suspension. Five inches longer than previous models, it is three inches wider and four inches lower. Headroom has been increased two inches and there is also more hip room and leg room. Wheelbase is increased three inches from 119 to 122 inches, and the front tread is one and a half inches wider.

Among new mechanical features is a keyboard control, with automatic transmission, which is mounted on the instrument panel to the left of the steering column. It features a "Neutral-Start" button which automatically cancels the previous push-button setting and engages the starter when the ignition is on the "On" position. Buttons are illuminated for night visibility.

The 1957 Monarch has a new chassis for increased safety, durability and improved road-handling qualities, with a new, stronger bow-shaped frame which is 12.5" longer and 14.5" wider. Air cushion suspension — first in the industry for passenger cars — is featured as part of Monarch's all-new "floating ride", designed to smother bumps, vibrations and road noises and provide smooth, effortless driving.

A new power booster fan, which saves up to 17 h.p. that other cars usually waste, boosts performance, saves fuel and reduces engine sound.

New 14" wheels have extra low-pressure tires on wide-shouldered 6" rims which contribute to improved ride and lowered car height.

New body features include new high-level, controlled cowl ventilation with fresh air taken into passenger compartment away from the exhaust air level.

Zion Church W.A.

DUNDEE.—The regular meeting of the W.A. was held Wednesday afternoon, October 31, at the home of Mrs. Lisle Watterson, with the president, Mrs. Clarence Platt, presiding.

A very detailed account of the Montreal Regional Meeting of the Presbytery W.A. was given by the delegates, Mesdames Elizabeth and Grace Fleming. The theme of the meeting was "Our responsibility to build for the church of tomorrow." Grace described a skit which showed how new members might be approached. Elizabeth gave some facts about the Missionary and Maintenance Fund and showed some literature she had bought for the society.

Mrs. W. D. Fraser reported about redecorating the Manse.

New crokinole discs have been bought.

Special guest speaker was Mrs. A. Armstrong who gave a book review on "Apples Don't Just Grow", by Maida Parlow French. Her reason for choosing this book was because it has its setting in or near the town of Iroquois, Ontario, which is being moved to a new site because of the Seaway project. The farm described in the book is one of those affected. The book deals with the problems and trials of the author, who, as a young widow in Toronto, was faced with the care and upbringing of 3 small sons. Finding the city was a poor place to bring up active boys she decides to live at her grandfather's abandoned apple farm. Although unused to farm life she adapts herself, paying for necessities from the income of her orchard, once it is producing again, and also from the sale of her pictures. She had been a good portrait painter in Toronto. Iroquois, not being too far from Dundee, is familiar to many as well as some of the people described in the book, thus the interest in the book, also Mrs. Armstrong has a gift for making characters live.

Mrs. Watterson served a most delicious supper, assisted by Mrs. Geo. Sutton.

Mrs. Earl McNicol returned home Sunday afternoon after spending the past week with her sister, Mrs. Cecil McNicol, and family.

On Thursday, Mrs. Thos. Stowell, president of the Dundee W.I., and Mrs. A. H. Fraser attended the Semi-Annual Convention of the Chateauguay-Huntingdon Counties Women's Institute, held at the home of Mrs. Wallace Kerr, Howick.

Miss Thelma MacMillan returned home on Saturday after taking her mother, Mrs. H. Smith, back to Schenectady, N.Y.

Week-end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cameron were the Misses Phyllis Haughton and Minola Gould of Ottawa, the Misses Ethelyn Ferguson and Marilyn Cameron and Mr. Robert Pentinga of Montreal. Miss Lello Cameron of Malone, N.Y., called at the same home Sunday afternoon then went on to Montreal, taking with her the Montreal guests.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chaffee of Summerstown, Ontario, called on Mrs. Elizabeth Fleming and Mr. Arthur Gordon, also Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McNicol.

Mrs. George Tait of Prescott, Ontario, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. A. F. Armstrong.

On Saturday, Mr. A. P. O'Reilly attended the wedding of Mrs. O'Reilly's niece in Canton, N.Y., then the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. James Bussham, motored to Dundee to spend part of their honeymoon at the O'Reilly home. Miss Mary Ellen McDonald is also visiting at the same home.

The Dept. of Citizenship and Immigration has just recently built a new school at the Schnaille in the St. Regis Indian Reserve. The new school will fill a long felt need for more classroom space for the rapidly growing number of Indian Reserve children. Under the jurisdiction of the Dept. the new school is located on the same site as the one which was built a number of years ago to replace and modernize the educational system on the reserve. The structure will be modern in every detail but as power line facilities are not available in the immediate area a Delco plant will take care of the electrical needs of the two buildings. The Indian children are now being well educated and are rapidly becoming able to fill a place in Society in common with their white brothers.

Mr. R. G. Steven received a telegram on Monday informing him that his brother-in-law, Mr. James P. Robertson of Stoney Mountain, Manitoba, had passed away in his sleep the previous evening. He was 86 years of age in July and although well advanced in years was very active for an octogenarian.

Mr. Robertson was born in Scotland and came to Canada at an early age where he was brought up by a Wilson family at Shawville, Que. Mr. Steven's sister, Miss Georgianna Steven taught school at Shawville and met him in his early manhood and later they were married. For a time he was manager of the McCauley farms at Hudson Heights and later the family moved to Manitoba where he obtained a position as manager of the prison farm at Stoney Mountain. He has led a retired life for the past several years. Mrs. Robertson predeceased him in 1949. He leaves 4 sons and two daughters all of whom are married. One other son was killed in an airplane crash a number of years ago.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont. (CP).—A family memento, an American Civil War rifle, was stolen from M.L.G. Armstrong's summer cottage six years ago and the thief apparently tossed it into a river. It's just been found in a beaver dam near Wasaga Beach. Beavers apparently felt it was a strong support for their structure.

Hallowe'en

Probably October 31st 1956 was one of the most orderly Hallowe'en's Ormstown has experienced. The small fry did some very early calling but everyone was anxious to get to the Ormstown Community Centre where a Hallowe'en party for all ages had been arranged by the executive of the Boys' Club.

Games, dancing and surprises were planned and much credit is due the committee in charge.

Ormstown Study Club

Sessions at the Ormstown Study Club are drawing to a conclusion. The various groups are planning suitable contributions for Achievement Night which will be held next week.

7-2-11 Club

The second meeting of the year of this club will be held when the special speaker will be Mr. Walkington, Provincial President of the Home and School. Since one of the basic tenets of the Home and School organization is "to understand the child through Child Study and parent education" and "to study and support progressive education", it is felt that the speaker will enjoy transmission of thought with the members of the club who have shown themselves to be vitally concerned with the best interests of their teen-agers.

Mr. Walkington will visit the school on Tuesday afternoon and will address the High School on "The Romance of Chemistry".

Tatehurst — Y.P.S.

A report of the previous meeting held at the home of Donald Hooker was given and plans made for the monthly Bible Study on Sunday evening.

Games were enjoyed and refreshments served by the committee.

Marion Greer thanked Mr. and Mrs. Hooker and Milton for their hospitality.

Ormstown — Local Association Re-organized to Assist Guiders and Guides

"Here Comes Charlie"

On Friday evening, members of the St. Paul's United Y.P.U. presented a three-act play "Here Comes Charlie", under the able direction of Rev. I. Johnston.

The action took place in Larry Elliott's home in a suburb of St. Louis. Miss Shirley Layton as Nora Malone, was a typical Irish maid in the Elliott home.

Larry Elliott, a young business man, was played by Carlyle Brown and he was supported by his fiancée, Vivian Smythe-Kersey (Mildred Bryson), his ward Charlie Hopps (Heather Towns), his old-time college pal Ted Hartley (Daril Lang).

Uncle Aleck Twiggs (Leigh Coffin) a typical stage hick, had a loud voice and a breezy manner and was really devoted to his charge Charlie.

Vivian's mother, Mrs. Smythe-Kersey (Patsy Baskin), tended to be ratter arrogant and snobbish while her son Mortimer (Walter McKell) was generally horrid.

Rev. I. Johnson was the policeman on the beat and Nora's admirer Tim McGrill.

Dorothy Beattie was cast as Mrs. Fanny Farnham, Larry's aunt by marriage, but, due to an unfortunate accident, on Thursday evening, Grace Harkness became Dorothy's understudy and played the part of Mrs. Farnham in Friday's performance.

The play was fast moving and the audience was very responsive to the clever humor and thoroughly enjoyed the escapades of Charlie.

The play will be repeated on Saturday evening of this week.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Adam McNeil were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Harvey and family of Stanbridge East; Mr. and Mrs. Keith MacMillan and Barry of Finch, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henderson, Flavis and Dale.

Ladies Aid

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Bryson.

Mrs. A. A. Tannahill conducted the meeting with Miss Annie Sangster leading the devotions and Mrs. James Anderson, the program.

The main item of business was the Bazaar and Covered Dish Supper to be held in the Church Hall on December 1st. Mrs. A. A. Tannahill, Mrs. Harold Kerr and Mrs. Lindsay Cullen were named convenors, for this event.

Tea was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. George Kilgour.

Miss Ruth Duguay of Macdonald College spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Coffin and Laura Lee.

W.C.T.U.

On Thursday afternoon, Nov. 1st., nine members of the W.C.T.U. met for their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Alfred Greig. Mrs. C. L. Taylor presided, and Mrs. Geo. Gate had charge of devotions.

Necessary business was arranged and reports received, the treasurer's statement showing a satisfactory balance in the treasury. A donation of One Dollar from a well-wisher was gratefully received.

November being White Ribbon Tidings Day, this was fittingly observed, several members reading special articles from this, the only women's temperance paper in Canada and the only temperance paper distributed nationally.

The need of a trained National Field Secretary was stressed at the Canadian Convention held Sept. 24 to 28 in Winnipeg, and it recommended provincial and local unions supporting the Sarah Rowell Wright Endowment Fund.

With Olympic games coming off this month in Australia, a Sports Quiz was conducted under three headings: (1) Are Sports for Education or are they just fun? (2) What real value have Sports? and (3) Is not the competition spirit of public sports a bad thing?

The Children's Lessons, grades 1 to 8 of the National Temperance Study Course were briefly reviewed by Mrs. A. Greig.

Sick - visiting convenors for November are Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. T. Sproule.

The December 6th meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elizabeth Maw.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray McEwen have returned home after spending the past week on a motor trip to various points in the Maritimes where they called on Dr. and Mrs. George Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kilgour.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCormick of Toronto were guests of relatives in and around town over the week-end.

Campaign For Blind

Ormstown campaign for the Canadian National Institute for the Blind has reached $550 out of the objective of $800. The Committee hopes that the canvassers will complete their calls as soon as possible, that the objective may be reached by November 15th.

If the canvasser has missed you, please leave your contribution with the treasurer, Mr. B. Brittain at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Ormstown.

Observes Birthday

Mr. George Hope was the recipient of congratulations and good wishes on Monday, November 5th, when he observed his birthday.

Curtis, Mrs. Adah Pennington and John D. Hamilton, Ormstown; Wm. J. Curry, Hemmingford; Nelson Middlemiss, Mr. and Mrs. Mattew Atcheson, Athelstan; Allan Marshall, Beauharnois.

Mr. Francis Rowe, of Franklin has became a life member of the Barrie Memorial Hospital.

Franklin

The regular meeting of the Franklin Centre W. I., was held on Nov. 2nd in the Consolidated School. The hostesses were Mrs. A. Lamb, Mrs. F. Rowe and Mrs. N. Rowe. Mrs. John Goldie, President was in the chair. Mrs. Goldie and Mrs. F. Rowe reported on the recent County Executive W. I. meeting held at Mrs. W. Kerr's home.

Eisenhower Returned

Dwight E. Eisenhower has been returned for a second term as President of United States. The people there gave him an overwhelming majority and it is believed his peace program had much to do with it. He was given a clean bill of health during the early part of the campaign and it is hoped that his new term will find him just as fit to carry on the strenuous duties of President in times such as we are experiencing at the moment. The future contains many problems and no one can forecast the probabilities. It is hoped by everyone that the developments presently being faced will soon fade and the world once again be on a peaceful and even keel.

Further Facts About Visit To Europe By Howick Girls

The following account is a further description of the travels of Miss Dorothy McKell and Miss Marge Rusch as they travelled through Europe on a recent trip. The first part of their trip was given in this newspaper a few weeks ago.

We took a bus from Salzberg this morning. Only one hour, and are really up in the hills. There isn't too much here except scenery but there is lots of that.

We thought Hitler's house was right in the town but we had to take a bus and had a real scary mountain ride — probably something like going through the Rockies — a narrow road with a gorge on one side, that looked miles down (and was). Hitler's house was about half way up and there is not much left of it. We were right to the top of the mountain — part way by elevator, 5,000 ft. up to his tea room. It is pretty commercialized, apparently he only had tea there about five times, and it must have cost a fortune to build. We saw the fireplace that was donated by Mussolini It seemed strange to have snow all over the place, but the the sun was so bright it was warm.

We came back through Villack Anustria and on to Venice. It was a riot getting into a gondola with all our bags and being rowed up to the hotel. There are so many narrow streets and alleys that you can really get lost, so we usually got lost every day. It must take weeks to get used to the directions. Venice is a very dirty city, the small canals inside the city are filthy, as everyone throws garbage into the water. The people are poor and some of the living quarters are real slums. The only way to get around is by walking or gondola.

From Venice we went to Lucerne and as we travelled by night we missed seeing the beauty of the Alps, however we saw villages covered with snow, mountains and deep valleys. There are very few mountains to Basel.

Milan is another big city. We went to the church where the original painting of The Last Supper hangs. I was surprised to find that it is pretty faded and moth-eaten. During the war, the church was bombed, and the only wall left standing was the one with the painting on it.

We took a tour to the top of Mt. Pilatus, 7,000 ft up. It was so clear and warm. We were above all the clouds. At that height its hard to realize how high the mountains are, you just see the tops sticking out of the clouds. Hotels and food are cheaper here than in Italy. We went to see Eiffel Tower, Arch of Triumph, Place de la Concorde.

I am leaving for London by T.C.A. to-night.

Arts and Crafts Show At Malone Next Week

The third "Arts and Crafts at Work" show will be held in Malone, N.Y., at the First Congregational Church on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 13 and 14, from 11 A.M. to 9 P.M.

The show will feature actual demonstrations by North Country artists and craftsmen including pottery making, enameling on copper and the various phases of decorative techniques, weaving on looms, expert knitting from original designs, the use of nut shells for jewelry and novelties, floral decorations and winter bouquets, Christmas card painting, sketching and portrait painting, candy making and decorating, spinning, chair caning, crocheting, corsage making, etching and fly tying. All articles will be for sale.

Of particular interest will be Mrs. John E. White's apple dolls, recently featured on the cover of a national crafts magazine.

The Kenneth Drysdale art class will hold its regular painting lesson on Tuesday evening and a number of paintings will be on display.

An innovation this year will be a general exhibit of "one of a kind" articles by North Country artists and craftsmen not participating in the actual demonstration exhibits. These items will not be for sale and will be displayed for the purpose of acquainting the public with the large number of talented artists and craftsmen in this area.

In the general exhibit will be hooked rugs, quilts, dolls, needlepoint, stenciling, flower arrangements, wood carvings, copper and aluminum trays, paintings, fabric designing and others.

Setting the theme of the show will be a central display containing one article from each exhibit, arranged by the Hotchkiss decorators of Chateauguay, N.Y.

Luncheons and dinners will be served both days and sandwiches, salads, and refreshments will be available at all hours.

Sponsored by the Women's Association of the Malone First Congregational Church, the show will be under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Elmer B. Drake.

A nominal fee will be charged for admission and all area residents are cordially invited to attend.
