

A Close Game.

College Won the Play-Off.

Bishops College vs. School played their first scheduled match in the Eastern Townships Hockey League, on the College rink, last Saturday, resulting in a victory for the College. The ice was not in the best of condition, a fact which told against the School, as they had the faster forwards. The College certainly had the advantage in the defence. The game was not as fast as might have been expected, and both teams will have to practice hard if they intend to conquer the victorious Village.

Chambers was ruled off for foul playing during the 5th game. When time was called the score stood three all. After a few minutes rest, play was resumed, and Rothera was called upon to stop some hot shots. However Rankin managed to make a pretty rush and passed to Boyle who scored, and college had won the match. There was a little dispute about the interpretation of the rules regarding a "play off" which was quickly settled by Mr. A. Simpson who made an efficient referee. Chambers, R. Purvis and Hayward played the star game for the school, while Rankin, Carter, Rothera and Winder did very effectual work for the College.

The teams lined up as follows:

Rothera	goal	Hayward
Carter	point	Porteous
Winder	cov.	Gilmore
Boyle	cen. forward	S. Purvis
Johnson	center	R. Purvis
Rankin	Rt. wing	Cowen

Leaving for Italy.

Our genial friend, Assistant Postmaster M. A. Miquelon, expects to leave Sherbrooke, Thursday the 18th, via Boston & Maine R. R.; for New York, from which place he sails Saturday, the 20th, on the North German Lloyd's Steamer, Kaiser Wilhelm. His destination is via the Mediterranean to Italy, where he visits Naples, Genoa, etc. Close attention to his duties in the post office has so undermined his health that an absolute rest is imperative. He does not name definite date for his return but hopes to be back fully recuperated by April 1st. "Bon voyage".

Heard before Justice White.

The principal cases heard before Hon. Justice White, on Saturday, were two actions taken by the Quebec Pharmaceutical Association against Dr. Elie. The first was for the sale of a bottle of carbolic acid, at his store, by an uncertified clerk, and the second for employing an uncertified clerk. The first action was dismissed but the second taken "en delibere".

Chamberlain, the energetic proprietor of the deserving popular dry goods store (The Bon Ton) has requested us to call the attention of the readers of the SHERBROOKE DAILY RECORD, to the Bon Ton's columns, which will always be found the newest and corner of this paper for store news, so interesting to the ladies.

his arrival in this place to assume the duties of his new position. On Sunday, January 31st, he conducted services at the pro-Cathedral, and in the evening confirmed thirty candidates. Tuesday evening last a reception was tendered him by the congregation. A large company was present. All denominations were represented.

In an address on behalf of the laity, the new Bishop was congratulated on his appointment and welcomed to the Sault. The address expressed confidence that the diocese would prosper under his auspices and that its claims on the mission fund would rapidly diminish. It congratulated the Bishop upon that broad liberality which had distinguished his career in the Province of Quebec, and had endeared him to all people there as it certainly would do here.

The Bishop, in reply, said that any misgivings he might have had had been entirely dissipated by the warmth of the reception tendered him and the bright prospects of the church which had opened up to his vision. He was personally introduced to every one in the hall and greeted all with his well known cordiality showing especial friendliness to the ministers of other denominations.

SHERBROOKE MARKET.

Butter and Eggs sold readily.

The market on Saturday was the best held for a number of weeks. There was a good attendance. An extra large supply of butter and eggs was offered. All sold readily at quotations except frozen beef, of which, the sale, was slow.

Death of S. W. Twose.

On Friday night last, there passed away Mr. S. W. Twose, one of the leading citizens of Sherbrooke. For over a year he has been sick with consumption, but with strong vitality has held on to life much longer than his friends could hope for.

For several years previous to his illness, he had charge of the furniture business of his father, located in Twose Block, Wellington street.

He was a very prominent member of Unity Lodge, I. O. O. F.; also of the I. O. F.

The funeral takes place this afternoon at 2:30, from the residence on Queen street to the Episcopal church, and thence to the English cemetery. The I. O. O. F. has charge of the funeral, assisted by the I. O. F. Mr. Twose was unmarried.

Three Cows Burned.

Lennoxville, Feb. 8.—On Sunday evening at half past seven the barns of Rev. Mr. Scarth were found on fire. It had reached such headway as to be beyond control, and three cows and one heifer were burned, with 20 tons of hay as well as other contents. The cause of fire is not known but thought to be incendiary.

Board Meeting
Encouraging Report

$700 Surplus.
The annual meeting of the Sherbrooke Hospital was held in a chamber of the Art Building last evening.
R. W. Heneker Esq., President, was in the chair. After a few preliminary remarks, the President proceeded to read the address on behalf of the governors. It reported a most favorable outlook for the Hospital. The institution is well equipped. There is a surplus of $700 on hand. The interest taken in it has been great and wide spread.

The governors desire to record their thanks to every member of the ministry for the great interest they have taken in the institution. Much praise is due to the Lady Superintendent, Miss Bliss, and the nurses for the devotion, care, and kindness which they have shown in the discharge of their duties.

Among the names of visitors to the Hospital during the past year, were noticed those of Hon. L. O. Tallon, Hon. E. J. Flynn, Hon. Louis Beaubien and Hon. M. F. Hackett.

The Secretary, Mr. E. Hargrave reported that, since the opening of the Hospital, on the 27th of June last, 68 patients have been admitted. Of these 38 have been cured and discharged, 12 improved, 5 unimproved and 5 have died. The cost of each patient, per diem, has been $1.11, which amount covered all expenses.

The following gentlemen were elected governors for the ensuing year: Hon. Justice White, Maj. L. Wood, Dr. Austin, Dr. R. W. Heneker, Messrs. W. S. Dresser, T. J. Tuck, J. S. Mitchell, W. Blue and G. G. Bryant.

The officers for the following year are, R. W. Heneker, Esq., President, T. J. Tuck, Esq., 1st Vice President, W. Blue, Esq., 2nd Vice President, E. Hargrave, Esq., Sec'y.

Executive, Maj. Wood, R. W. Heneker, T. J. Tuck and G. G. Bryant.

The question of free admission of patients received considerable discussion. It was finally resolved that the governors be given the power to admit, at any time, free of charge, any patient, if they deem it expedient.

Quines

The Viscount of Quebec and his family are to be entertained by the addition of quines to a collection of sugar, there being added a slight amount of salt and water, so we k that it excites no saline taste, the result is extra sweetening of the sugared water. The weakest of quines solution is said also to produce similar results. The explanation given of the above seeming incongruity is that the ever so feeble saltness, or bitterness imparts an increased sensibility to the sensation of taste by the simultaneous stimuli, and hence an appreciation of additional sweetness. - British Medical Journal.

The Fire Inquest at Lennoxville.

THE WORK OF AN INCENDIARY.

He was Arrested and Lodged in Jail.

Coroner Woodward was called early Monday morning to investigate the fire, which had occurred the previous evening at Lennoxville. The cattle barn belonging to the Rev. A. C. Scarth having been entirely consumed together with four cows, hay, and machinery. As there was suspicion that it was the work of an incendiary, an official enquiry was requested. The jury was empaneled with Thos. Brown as foreman.

The following facts were elicited at the inquest. The Rev. A. C. Scarth and family were at church leaving the house in charge of one of the servants.

The hired man, James Byrd, left the barn before dark, and did not use a light of any kind to finish his work. About two hours afterwards smoke was seen issuing from the barn and an alarm was given.

About three weeks ago the Rev. Mr. Scarth received a threatening letter from the United States, the purport of which was that the writer hoped his house would be burnt. Some fifteen witnesses were examined. The evidence given by Mr. Wood, Mr. Hope, and others, differs considerably from the statement made by the accused, whose evidence was contradictory, and the circumstantial evidence proved so strong against him as to warrant the jury in committing him for trial. They returned the following verdict: "We, the said jury, find that the fire was the work of an incendiary and James Hubson was in our opinion, guilty of causing the said fire."

James Hubson was brought to Sherbrooke by Constable Dundin and lodged in jail. He stoutly maintains his innocence. The prisoner is 22 years of age and resided with his uncle, Mr. Sterling, about a mile and a half from the village. Great excitement prevails over the affair. It will be remembered that about two years ago Mr. Scarth suffered a similar loss. The property was fully covered by insurance.

Bishop's College and School Notes.

LENNOXVILLE, Feb. 8, 1897.—We are glad to welcome among us again Prof. Parrock, who has just returned from Cambridge, England, having taken his degree of M. A. in course. Rev. R. A. Parrock is Professor of classics at this University.

We are pleased to see that Master Herbert Chambers of Ottawa, who has been laid up with a broken arm, is among us again.

The Lecture Course held by Dr. Robins of Montreal on Saturdays in Bishop Williams' Hall, has been well attended by the students. These lectures to teachers are very interesting and cannot fail to be of benefit to all who intend to follow that Profession. We are surprised that more outsiders do not avail themselves of this opportunity, as the cost of the whole course (40 lectures) is only one dollar.

A New Light

Mr. Codere has placed an acetylene gas plant in his store. The light given rivals any other artificial light we have seen. Economy of course is one great object gained by its use as the claim is made and substantiated that the cost will not exceed two cents per night, burning five hours. It is hoped that the element of safety is at last certain as the number of fatalities in connection with its manufacture and use have been many. There may be a question as to the attitude of insurance companies towards this. As with the well known conservative opinions of these people it may be difficult to obtain their sanction. We understand that they have the question under consideration at present.

New Yacht for Little Lake.

Pleasure seekers on Little Lake are on the qui vive at the news that a pleasure yacht has been purchased and is now on its way hither. Our friend Wm. Milford with his usual enterprise noted the need and has supplied it. The yacht is 27 ft. in length by 7 ft. beam, drawing only 27 inches water, which will enable it to make many landings that a larger boat could not. The carrying capacity is from 20 to 25 persons in comfort and safety. This means of enjoying this romantic spot is all that has been lacking heretofore and we look now for increased interest in its many attractions.

Killed at Sutton

A brakeman by the name of Bennet was killed at Sutton Saturday, while stepping from one car to another. The train broke apart and the unfortunate man fell between, and on the track.

A HIDEOUS TYRANT.

LORD JUSTICE HAWKINS THUS REFERS TO DRINK.

After Twenty Years' Experience on the Bench of England He Is of the Opinion That 80 Per Cent of Crime Is Due to Alcohol—Source of Misery and Want.

In the 20 years that Lord Justice Hawkins has sat upon the queen's bench of England he has won the respect of lawyers the world over. His record has been one that has reflected honor on perhaps the most famous of judicial bodies on this earth. He is known as a man of great breadth of learning and soundness of observation. In the 20 years that he has honored England's judiciary he has made a critical study of crime and its causes. In this investigation the liquor traffic has constantly loomed up before him as the one great fountain of crime. At the Leeds winter assizes in 1876, at the Bedfordshire summer assizes in 1878 and at the Chester spring assizes in 1883 his lordship declared that nine-tenths of the crimes in the various calendars were in one way or another attributable to drink. At Durham, in 1888, Lord Justice Hawkins repeated this same declaration with more emphasis. He said:

"In many a cottage that is denuded of the commonest articles of comfort and necessity article after article has gone to the pawnshop, simply for the purpose of providing that hideous tyrant, drink, and I do believe that nine-tenths of the crime committed in this country—and certainly in this county—is engendered within the doors of the drinking house."

On another occasion he is on record as follows:

"I have thought very seriously as to what is for the most part the origin of crime, and every day I live and the more I think of the matter the more firmly do I come to the conclusion that the root of almost all crime is drink, that tyrant which affects all ages and both sexes, the young, the middle aged, the old, father and son, husband and wife."

"It is drink which for the most part is the immediate and direct cause of those fearful quarrels in public streets in the night which terminate either in serious mischief to one or other of the parties, or in some other cause of crimes of dishonesty. It is drink which causes a man to be impoverished, and if you trace to its source the cause of misery it is to be found in drink."

In Bristol, in 1886, he said: "There are millions of men who are in their sober moments as quiet and well conducted as men can be, but the moment they get excited by drink, evil intentions and vicious spirits arise within them; hence an immense number of men appear in calendars who never would if they had been sober."

At Berkshire assizes, in 1891, he said that 75 per cent of crimes of violence were traceable to drink, and at Gloucester assizes, also in 1891, he said that more trouble was caused by drink than all other things put together, and that of every 100 persons who got into crime, he believed 80, either directly or indirectly, assigned their fall to drink. At Liverpool assizes, in May, 1895, but a little more than a year ago, Justice Hawkins referred to that terrible habit of drunkenness, which got everybody who had it into trouble.

A TEETOTAL VILLAGE.

Good Effects of No Rum in an English Mining Town.

Some interesting facts have recently been published respecting the teetotal colliery village of Roe Green in Lancashire. Five and twenty years ago the houses of the village belonged almost exclusively to the Bridgewater trustees, who employ most of the men. Today, out of 140 houses, 81 are inhabited by their owners. The Rechabite Tent has a membership of 270, the Band of Hope 286. There is a co-operative store, the property of the village, yielding a profit of 8 shillings in the pound. The chapel and Sunday school have been built by the workmen themselves at a cost of £2,700, and, while in the United Kingdom as a whole, one in four persons over 60 years of age receives parish pay at least for a part of the year, in Roe Green there is not a single one over this age receiving pauper relief. Clearly there is something to be said for a teetotal village.—Westminster Gazette.

Wretched Teetotalism.

One of the best known stories in connection with the late Sir Benjamin Ward Richardson's advocacy of temperance tells how he had been on a visit to one of the three or four small towns in England which have no public house. Although there were 4,000 people there, the doctor was nearly starving. One day a young medical man came to Sir Benjamin for advice as to taking the practice, and Sir Benjamin, placing his hands on the young doctor's shoulders, said: "Take my advice, and don't. Those wretched teetotalers not only shirk accidents, but, when wounded, heal so fast that there is neither pleasure nor profit after the first dressing."—Westminster Gazette.

Strong Treatment.

The surgeon in charge of the troops of Vancouver barracks has a stern and effective treatment for drunkenness, the main features of which are, in brief, the stomach pump, stomach cleansing with a strong solution of soda, a bowl of hot beef extract with cayenne pepper, an hour's rest, return to work. The malady is said to be on the decrease.—Exchange.

Becoming Civilized.

In the British possessions on the lower Nile shells were formerly used for money, but a few years ago the "sound money" craze struck the country, and now whisky is the medium of exchange. Verily, they are becoming civilized on the lower Nile.

ST FRANCIS VALLEY

HOCKEY CLUB.

Cookshire vs Angus.

East Angus, Feb. 8.—The sixth game in the series was played on Angus rink, Saturday evening last, between Cookshire and Angus teams, resulting in giving the match to Angus. Score 8 to 6.

The referee Dr. McCurdy, was detained in getting there and it was 8.58 when the teams lined up as follows:

Angus	position	Cookshire
Cowling	Goal	Planche.
Wilson	Point	Goff.
Stewart	C. Point	Ross.
Jarrett	Rover	Flaws.
E. Parsons	Forward	Hurd.
H. Parsons	"	Rand.
Dorey	"	Blanchard.

The game was swift from the start, Rand scoring the first game for Cookshire in two minutes. Soon after the puck was faced Parson's skate was broken, but not much time was lost. Both teams settled down to work, and at half time the score was Cookshire 4, Angus 1. Ross, Rand and Blanchard doing the needful act. Play was resumed at 9.52 and in fifteen seconds Dorey had scored for Angus, and one minute and a half later Flaws did the same for his side. During the ten minutes between half time Angus had shifted some of their men, apparently for the better as they now began to score in rapid succession, but not till Rand had scored another for Cookshire. Angus now brought the score up even and great excitement prevailed in the midst of which Dorey scored. The game which followed was secured by Angus also. Thus putting Angus two in the lead. Score 8 to 6 when time was called.

The rink is very small (more so than Cookshire's) and no team could play a combination game. It is in that sort of a game that Cookshire gets its strength. This leaves the three teams Cookshire, Sawyerville and Angus, the same footing, each of them having won two games and lost two. The tie matches will be played off on neutral ice.

Runaways.

On Sunday a fractious horse, owned by Mr. Darche, objected to being harnessed too tightly. Coming down Moore street he collided with a telephone pole, throwing out the occupants of the sleigh, and ran through Mr. J. S. Mitchell's grounds towards the G. T. R. track. Fortunately no one was hurt, but the sleigh was badly smashed.

Another runaway occurred Sunday afternoon on the Lennoxville road. No serious damage being done with the exception of a few cuts on the horse's legs, and a general fright to the pedestrians.

SHERBROOKE DAILY RECORD.

With this issue we commence the publication of a daily paper in the city of Sherbrooke. It is the only English daily in the Province of Quebec, outside the cities of Montreal and Quebec, but the size of Sherbrooke and the large number of people within a radius of a few miles, we believe warrant support to a paper issued every day.

For some time past we have given considerable attention to the study of daily papers, carried on in different cities and towns, some even smaller than Sherbrooke. The result has been that we are firmly convinced of the feasibility of successfully publishing a daily paper in Sherbrooke. A personal canvas of the business men of the city, soliciting contracts for the DAILY RECORD increased our confidence, and with this issue we have commenced the publication of a daily paper that is bound to prove a success.

With fourteen years practical experience in the newspaper and printing business, we believe we realize all the difficulties in store when we say that the SHERBROOKE DAILY RECORD has come to stay. There is no doubt about it, and in the future it can be reckoned on as one of the established industries of the city.

We have adopted two new features, different from other journals of a similar character. The first is a daily paper at the low subscription price of only $1.50 a year. The second is that we shall not publish so called editorials, our whole time, and that of the writers connected with this paper will be devoted to the gathering of local news in Sherbrooke and throughout the Eastern Townships.

After several years study of the question of editorials in weekly and small daily papers, we are convinced it is a waste of time and space. The people of the country have grown beyond such, and do their own thinking. If the ablest writers and thinkers in the country can be secured to write on subjects in which they are recognized as specialists, then, only do we approve. Unfortunately the revenue of the RECORD will not now warrant us in going to that expense, consequently we shall devote the money that could be paid for second-class editorial writers, to the gathering of readable and interesting news items.

In politics we shall be independent. Our columns will contain impartial reports from all political parties, and the same left for our readers to form their own opinion. The DAILY RECORD is not the organ of any party or politician; expects no favors from either the Liberals or the Conservatives, and most certainly will ask none. This paper has been established on strictly business principles and will be continued on the same.

We believe that when a man lives in a place he should do all in his power to promote the interests of that place, giving his time and money for such a purpose, in so far as his circumstances will allow. Wishing for the prosperity of Sherbrooke, everything that will assist the city or its inhabitants, it will be our aim to promote.

In starting we have made the size of the paper small, but shall enlarge it as fast as the advertising patronage will warrant. One thing we shall always remember, is not to allow the advertising to encroach on the news columns. It is not an advertising sheet that we purpose issuing, but a news paper in every sense of the word.

In addition to the local news we have completed arrangements for receiving the latest telegraphic and cable news from all parts of the world every afternoon just before going to press. We will not be able to compete with large dailies in giving quantity and details, but shall present a summary of the important events.

Arrangements are made with L. A. Belanger, proprietor of Le Progres de l'Est, Sherbrooke, for use of part of his office in printing the DAILY RECORD. Later on, when the paper increases in circulation, as we expect, a plant of its own will be required, and then purchased. Mr. Belanger has no connection with the paper, or the firm of L. S. Channell & Co.

A good word spoken in favor of a new enterprise like the DAILY RECORD, goes a long way toward making it popular. These good words are what we ask for, in so far as our efforts warrant.

We trust that the relations between our readers and the management will ever be of a pleasant and profitable nature. Soliciting the assistance of all in the Eastern Townships, to make the RECORD a success,
 L. S. CHANNELL,
 Editor and Manager.

Jules Verne.
 Except when he brings out one of his marvelous books, we hear little of M. Jules Verne, but the fact is that he is leading a very quiet life at Amiens. Although 68 years of age and wearing the appearance of a general, he is full of energy and working as of yore. He is now busy in the execution of his plan for publishing a series of stories bearing on different countries. Before beginning a particular work M. Jules Verne reads up a number of geographical, historical and other books treating of that part of the world, and as he goes on the plot gradually germinates in his mind. He is indeed an active and laborious toiler. He rises regularly at 4 o'clock in the morning and writes steadily until noon. He retires to rest at 9, except on two evenings in the week when he accompanies his wife to the Grand theater, dining before at a restaurant opposite the building. This is his great treat, and he is fond of remarking that on these occasions he and his wife enjoy themselves just as if they were a young couple on their honeymoon. As a matter of fact, M. and Mme. Jules Verne have not been near Paris for the last eight years and find that their life at Amiens suits them perfectly. —Paris Cor. London Telegraph.

The Triumph of Festus Orastus Butt.
 Two years ago Festus Orastus Butt had a bill before the Arkansas legislature to remove his disability of being under age so he could be licensed to practice law. The bill passed the lower house, but was killed in the senate by some senator offering an amendment to the effect that Mr. Butt should first change his name. This year Mr. Butt is the representative of Carroll county, having been elected by a large majority over the most popular Republican in the county, and this, too, without changing his name. At the last term of the circuit court at Berryville he obtained the "sheepskin" to practice law and was complimented by the bar as having passed the best examination ever heard in the circuit. He will be heard from at Little Rock in January, and his name will still be Festus Orastus Butt. —Eureka Springs Times-Echo.

Tom Reed's Vagabond Clothes.
 One of Tom Reed's cast off suits of clothes is wandering about the country on the person of a vagabond barber who was in a party of tramps that broke into Reed's cottage at Grand Beach last summer. The fact leaked out in the Portland police court, where one of the tramps was arraigned on Saturday, and now the Cumberland county officials want to get a pull on that vagabond barber's whiskers. Meanwhile all persons are cautioned against bestowing hospitalities or courtesies upon any of Tom Reed's clothes unless Mr. Reed is present to vouch for them. —Lewiston Journal.

WORN BY WOMEN.
 Very large hats of tan colored felt are trimmed with a profusion of black plumes and black velvet ribbon.
 Ladies who have become weary of renewing silk petticoats will find it to their advantage to try those made of alpaca.
 Bright red waists are fashionable and becoming to brunettes. They are especially pretty for dull and gloomy weather.
 Among the new trimmings are jeweled buttons and those done in enamel so cunningly applied that they resemble Florentine mosaic.
 A dress of spotted taffeta is one of the most useful additions to a woman's wardrobe. Given a silk of good quality, and there are few more satisfactory investments.
 Some of the newest skirts are padded inside and so arranged as to increase the fullness about the hips. As the shoulders grow smaller the contour below the waist line grows space.

HIS CHAMPION.

The Little Man Had an Ally and Was Not Afraid.
 There was a crowd on the depot platform, and in it a little man who was tumbling over himself to hunt up boxes and parcels. He finally ran against a man who turned on him with:
 "Now, don't you do that again or you'll hear from me."
 "I've got to find about 14 different things," explained the little man as he looked around.
 "Well, you'll find my boot if you bump against me like that again."
 "Who talks of booting me?"
 "I do."
 "But I don't allow any one to talk to me that way!"
 "Don't give me any sass!"
 "I'll sass you all I want to!"
 "See, here, bub," said the man who had been bumped. "You close that month of yours and get away from me, or I'll drop you off the platform!"
 "You dasent do it!" shouted the little man.
 "I'll show you that I dare!"
 "I'm no fighter, but if you want a row I'll bring some one along to give it to you!"
 "Oh, you will! Well, just trot out your champion and I'll cook his goose for him!"
 While the little man skipped for the waiting room the other took off his coat and made ready. He was spitting on his hands, when back came the little man, but accompanied by a woman who seemed to be about 7 feet tall and weigh 800 pounds. She had a hand on her armpit as a lobster and as big as a ham, and there was business in her eye as she walked up to the costless man and said:
 "I'm his wife, and my name's Hanner. Is there a row on hand?"
 "I—I haven't heard of any," stammered the surprised belligerent as he backed away.
 "Nor I either," she continued as she pushed up her sleeves. "But if one takes place you jest count me in. I knocked a horse down last week, and my hands are a little sore yet, but if anybody starts to drop Joshua off the platform I think his Hanner can make 'em wish they had never been born—I think she can!"
 The crowd applauded, the man put on his coat and walked away, and after a triumphant look around Hanner returned to the twin boys waiting for her, and peace was restored all around. —New York Sunday Journal.

Their Relationship.
 "The Bluvvingtons keep up a very imposing establishment," remarked the gossip man who had just moved in the neighborhood.
 "They do that, indeed," replied the corner grocer, "and my store's the one that's mostly been imposed on." —Washington Star.

Sound Advice.
 "Always call a spade a spade, my friend," said the plain, blunt map dogmatically.
 "Yes," assented the forty-niner, "I once knew a man to lose his life by calling a spade a club and opening a jack pot on the strength of it." —New York Journal.

Possibly the Right Theory.
 Tommy—I wonder why the words is spelled in such funny ways?
 Jimmy—'Cause they was made, in the first place, by the schoolteachers, and they made 'em that way so's they would have to be hired to teach how to spell 'em. —Cincinnati Enquirer.

Its Disadvantage.
 "Where are ye workin'?"
 "I'm plasterin a new flat down on Sennsnet avenue."
 "Is it a good job?"
 "Naw. Ye have to walk a block for yer beer." —Buffalo Express.

His Practice.
 Smith—Is young Flyingwedge practicing law?
 Williams—I think not. He was called to the bar, but I think he's practicing economy. —Illustrated Bits.

Nothing to Say.
 Officer—Come, now. If you're innocent, where did you get all that money?
 Burglar Bill (haughtily)—I decline to be interviewed. —New York Journal.

Positive Proof.
 Police Justice—Why are you certain that the prisoners threw eggs at you?
 Tragedian—I caught them in the act. —Detroit Free Press.
