CITY'S DEATH ROLL LESS THAN IN PAST

Lower Than Average For the Past Eighteen Years—Birth Rate Also Shows Slight Decrease But is 3709 In Exc[illegible] of the Death

Montreal's mortality rate appar[illegible] is not increasing with its growth [illegible] population according to the figures furnished by Dr. Laberge's report as city health officer.

During the past year excluding the prematurely born and illegitimate children, the city's death rate reached the high rate of 20.8 per 1,000. This is .50 per 1,000 more than in 1903, when the summer was unusually cool, but is 3.99 less than the average for the eighteen years prior to 1903. This means a great deal when the great increase in population with its consequent congestion in the down town and poorer districts is considered.

Including the mortality amongst prematurely born and illegitimate children the death rate was 23.39 per thousand.

This death rate of 20.08 figured on the basis of other large cities is, despite its apparently high percentage, by no means an unfavorable showing. It is considerably lower than that of Liverpool, Dublin, Belfast, St. Petersburg, Moscow, Breslau, Prague, New York and Venice, but approximately about one per cent. per thousand higher than that for Birmingham, Munich, Baltimore, Glasgow and Milan.

Amongst the special causes of death it is noteworthy that that ancient scourge of Montreal, smallpox, was only responsible for one death, while measles carried off forty-three, very much less than in the last two previous years.

Scarlatina killed ten people, sixteen less than in 1903, and fifty-one less than in 1902.

Diphtheria Was Deadly.

On the other hand diphtheria, despite the use of anti-toxine, killed 122 people, thirty-three more than in 1902, and sixty-five more than in 1902.

Typhoid also showed an increase, due to the hot weather, and killed ninety-four, or four more than in 1903, and eight more than in 1902.

Increase in Infant Deaths.

Of course infantile diseases top the list, with 1,286 deaths, or 134 more than in 1903, again due to the great heat and humidity of July.

Consumptive diseases show the results of the continued fight against [illegible] in a steady reduction, there being [illegible]4 deaths from this cause in the [illegible] forty-nine less than in 1903, [illegible] less than in 1902.

[illegible] amongst the prematurely born [illegible] 2.45 per cent. of the total mortal[illegible].

Under six months of age, the mortality was 28.03 per cent. of the total; from six months to one year 10.32 per cent.; from one to two years, 5.87 per cent.; from two to five years 4.78 per cent., making a total under five years of age of 51.47 per cent.

The Birth Rate.

For the other side of the account the results are by no means discouraging, although the birth-rate was not up to the average of the past seventeen years. Yet during the year there were 3,709 more births than deaths, the rate for the year being 36.96 per thousand, as compared with an average of 38.92 for the past seventeen years. The birth-rate amongst the French-Canadians was double that amongst the Protestants, being 44.72, as compared with 22.04 per thousand, while other Catholics was 22.87.

The French-Canadian birth-rate was 1.86 higher than in 1903, that of the other Catholics 7.82 lower and of the Protestant races 1.52 higher.

As compared with other cities the birth-rate stands: Montreal, 35.96; Toronto, 24.2; New York, 88.9; Paris, 19.5; Venice, 26.5; St. Petersburg, 29.7.

In marriages there was a slight increase, despite the fact that the French-Canadian matrimonial statistics showed a slight decrease.

The marriage rate for the year was 10.21 per thousand, or 0.5 higher than in 1903. Amongst the French-Canadians it was 10.44, or 0.31 lower than in 1903. Amongst other Catholics it was 8.48, or 0.13 higher than in 1903, while amongst the Protestants the rate was 10.67, an increase of 0.33.

Smallpox Figures.

At the Contagious Diseases Hospital there were 162 diphtheria and 80 scarlet fever cases, of whom 206 were cured and 26 died, a mortality of 10.74 per cent. There were 30 smallpox patients, of whom every one in the hospital was discharged cured. Of these there were 1 English and 2 French-Canadians.

THE FRIENDLY PARTING

VOTE OF CENSURE ON AGED EMPEROR

Crisis Between Austria and Hungary no Nearer Settlement

Budapest, September 25.—The executive committee of the coalition parties, summoned to discuss the situation arising from the ultimatum presented to the Hungarian leaders by the King-Emperor, has passed what amounts to a severe vote of censure on His Majesty and his advisers. The committee in the resolution expresses the deepest regret that the King-Emperor did not listen to the statesmen summoned by him to Vienna, who represent the majority in the Hungarian Parliament.

The committee further indignantly censured those who advised His Majesty to take such a course and approves the action of the coalition leaders in declining to negotiate with Count Goluchowski and in declining the memorandum presented by the King-Emperor as a violation of the constitution and unsuitable for the settlement of the present constitutional conflict.

EXAMINATION FOR DRUGGISTS.

Quebec, Sept. 25.—(Special)—Pharmaceutical examinations commence this morning at the Laval University. There are many candidates from Montreal and elsewhere.

VLADIVOSTOK RESUMING ANTE-BELLUM ACTIVITY

Vladivostock, Sept. 25.—The old time business activity of this city is rapidly reviving since the proclamation of peace. The inhabitants who left here during the troublous times are returning, commercial and industrial life is resuming and foreign steamers and sailing vessels with frieght are already arriving. Forty-five foreign steamers are expected from Hong Kong and Shanghai shortly.

The municipal authorities have received inquiries from thirty American firms concerning the acquirement of business quarters at Vladivostok. Japanese firms are also coming in and are preparing to lease ground on which to erect buildings. Russians also are organizing companies to deal in Far Eastern products.

CANADIAN EXHIBITIONS.

(Canadian Associated Press Cable.)

London, Sept. 25.—There is some talk of transporting the entire Canadian exhibit at Liege, in Belgium, to London, but there is difficulty to find a suitable place to hold such an exhibition. It has been suggested to the London City Council to allot a space in the Strand but no decision has been arrived at. It is proposed that the exhibition should be open for six months.

MR. J. P. O'DONNEL DIED SUDDENLY.

Mr John Patrick O'Donnel, thirty-seven years of age, died very suddenly yesterday morning at his home, 297 St. Hippolyte Street. Coroner MacMahon, who investigated the matter and satisfied himself that death was due entirely to natural causes, disposed of the case without a jury this morning.

CANADA WILL PAY THEIR PENSIONS

Canada Will Look After British Troops Stationed at Halifax

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special)—In guaranteeing the pensions of British soldiers and officers who leave the Imperial for the Canadian service at Halifax, the Dominion will be assuming about the same financial obligation as though the officers and men had been continuously in the Canadian Permanent Force. The pension rates of Canada were based on those of the British army, though they are a little more generous.

The recent order of the Canadian Militia Council merely recognizes, for pension purposes, that the British soldiers at Halifax have been serving Canada.

BARD CELEBRATED 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Philharmonic Band of St. Hyacinthe Was Founded in 1880—Occasion Suitably Marked.

St. Hyacinthe, Que., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The celebration yesterday of the 25th anniversary of the foundation of the Philharmonic Band of St. Hyacinthe proved one of the greatest musical treats ever presented here. Notwithstanding the threatening weather in the morning train loads of excursionists came to participate. The principal bands were the Musical Alliance, of Montreal, the Harmony, of Three Rivers, the Harmony of Montreal, the Harmony of Sherbrooke, and 1st Prince of Wales Fusiliers. The open air concert commenced at one o'clock in the afternoon at Laframboise Park, and was attended by several thousand people. In the evening a banquet was given at the Grand Hotel under the auspices of the Philharmonic Society at which over 300 guests took part.

Some able addresses were made in response to the various toasts, during which a beautiful and massive silver cup was presented to the members of the Philharmonic Society by the Musical Alliance of Montreal.

At the request of the president of the Philharmonic, Mr. A. Bourgault, gave an outline of the Society's career since 1876, when it was founded, and gracefully alluded to the few present that evening who had been the chief promoters in the movement.

Seated at the table of honor were His Worship Mayor St. Jacques, Mr. A. M. Beauparlant, M.P., Mr. Joseph Morin, M.L.A., Mr. J. De Lache, Mr. Eusebe Brodeur, Mr. Jules St. Germain and others.

HUSSARS SHOW ABILITY IN THE FIGHTING OF FIRE

A detachment of about fifty of the Duke of York's Hussars performed valiant service at Dorval on Sunday, and succeeded in finally saving the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club-house from being devoured by fire. The soldiers were riding past the clubhouse when they noticed that the jetty was burning. There was no one else to fight the fire, so the volunteers set to work, and for more than an hour did their utmost to drive back the flames which raged furiously on the dry timbers of the jetty. The work was severe, but the fire-fighters were determined and were at length successful in extinguishing th flames.

The fire is supposed to have been caused by a spark from the gasoline engine which is used to force water up to the clubhouse.

ORDER OF TELEGRAPHERS WILL NOT FIGHT CO

Closing of Several Small Stations Along I. C. R. Matter for Company to Decide.

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—T. W. D. Campbell, chairman of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers in an interview this morning stated that the session just closed here was a usual meeting and business of startling nature. Regarding the alleged closing of several I.C.R. stations, Mr. Campbell stated that the board had nothing to do with such matters. The management of the I.C.R. had the right to close stations if they wished. It was not the intention of the order to take this matter up.

Fire caused considerable damage last evening in Mr. Jos. Chouinard's grocery on the corner of Rivard Street and Duluth Avenue. The flames started on the ground floor of the building under the stairs and mounted to the next story and to the roof. Fortunately the firemen were able to prevent a further spread and to extinguish the blaze without trouble.

IMPERIAL GOV'T WILL DECIDE

What Armament Will be Provided for the Vigilant

RUST-BAGOT TREATY OF 1817

Determined Question But Improvement in Artillery Has Made Present Wording of Treaty Indeterminate.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Whether the Canadian cruiser Vigilant, mounts guns powerful enough to sink American poaching vessels depends upon the Imperial authorities. The guns are ready and have been ever since the cruiser was launched last year. They consist of four three-pounders quick firers, with a range of four miles, firing a shell and ability to sink a fisherman at that distance. When the Vigilant was put on Lake Erie the guns were not mounted to avoid international complications. By the Rush-Bagot treaty of 1817 Great Britain and the United States agreed that no guns more powerful than an eighteen-pounder should be floated on the great Lakes. Though the Vigilant guns are only three-pounders, they are vastly more powerful than were the old eighteen-pounder muzzle loaders.

The Imperial authorities have been asked whether the modern three-pounder is powerful enough to constituate a violation of the smooth bore muzzle-loading agreement of 1817. Had these guns been put on the Vigilant when launched it is probable there would have been some United States fishermen sunk this summer and some international complications ensured. It is felt too that it is is not wise to set an example in the matter of putting modern armament on the Government boat on the Lakes.

A wide range of subjects for discussion touching the preservation of public health has been prepared. Section meetings were held to-day at the medical library in the Fenway. The convention proper will hold its opening sessions to-morrow, and all its general meetings will take place in Association Hall, in the Y.M.C.A. building on Boylston Street. SIR FREDERICK POLLOCK HAS ARRIVED AT QUEBEC

Distinguished Legal Authority Came Over on the Parisian.

Quebec, Sept. 25. — (Special.) — Sir Frederick Pollock, LL.D., D.C.L., the distinguished English jurist, arrived in Quebec last night by the Allan SS. Parisian for a trip through Canada. Sir Frederick is corpus professor of jurisprudence in the University of Oxford and editor of the law reports from 1895. He was born in London, on Dec. 10, 1845.

He succeeded his father, the second Baronet Pollock, in the title in 1888. He married Georgina, daughter of John Deffell, in Calcutta, in 1873. He was educated at Eton, of which he was King's scholar, Trinity College, Cambridge, where he took his M.A. degrees and became a Fellow of Trinity College, Cambridge, in 1868. He became a corresponding member of the Institute of France in 1894.

Sir Frederick Pollock became a barrister in 1871, professor of jurisprudence, University College, London, 1882 and 1883; professor of common law in the inns of court, 1884 to 1890; member of Royal Labor Commission, 1891 and 1894. He is also an author of well-known standard works and essays in jurisprudence.

TARIFF COMMISSIONERS ARE AT REVELSTOKE

Have Completed Tour Through the Boundary Country and Visited Granby Smelter.

Revelstoke, B.C., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The tariff commissioners arrived here Saturday, having completed their visit to the boundary country on Thursday. They visited the immense "Granby Smelter" at Grand Forks, the largest in Canada, where over 2,500 tons of ore are being smelted daily. This enterprise is doing well, and though the ore is low grade, it is easily mined, in fact it is quarried and lifted from the surface into the cars by steam shovels. In the afternoon the Ministers inspected some of the fruit farms in Kettle River Valley. At Revelstoke a number of local Liberals waited on the commissioners. They go to Banff to-night for a few days, after which it is proposed to visit the fruit section of Okanagan Valley, to study that feature of the resources of the Province. It is, therefore improbable that Vancouver will be reached, and the inquiry resumed, before a week from Monday.

GERMAN KAISER IS STILL BUSY

Latest Scheme is to Weaken the Anglo-Japanese Alliance

LATEST NEWS FROM LONDON

Winston Churchill is Writing Biography of His Father—Lord Bobs May Soon Visit America.

New York, Sept. 25.—The London correspondent of the Tribune cables as follows:

The immediate publication of the text of the agreement between England and Japan was expected when peace was made at Portsmouth. The armistice was the first excuse for delay, and now the formal ratification of the treaty of peace early in October is the alleged reason for holding back the text. A more plausible explanation is the series of negotiations still in progress between the British and German foreign offices over the previous understanding respecting China. The intervention of the German Emperor is suspected since the interests of both Japan and England would have been promoted by the early disclosure of the conditions of the renewal of the alliance for the command of the Pacific and the security of India. Nobody with good sources of information supposes that the Emperor expects to modify, much less nullify, the new agreement which has been signed and cannot be set aside. The more natural explanation is that he is striving to bring about an early meeting with the King for the discussion of the succession to the throne of Norway, the Morocco conference and other matters.

Winston Churchill is giving the biography of his father the advantage of preliminary advertisement by showing the proofs to various journalists. Filial affection does not stand in the way of the disclosure that Lord Randolph Churchill miscalculated the effect of his resignation from the Treasury, and that Lord Salisbury and Queen Victoria displayed sound judgment in dealing with the affair. The son makes free use of his father's correspondence, and is producing an interesting but by no means startling memoir.

Lord Roberts has been forced to defer his visit to America, and is sorely disappointed. His friends have feared that Lady Roberts's health would keep him at home, but he has hoped it would improve and that he would be able to sail in October and redeem the promise made to many Americans.

The funeral of Dr. Barnardo will be a prolonged pageant in the East End, beginning with a three days' exhibition of the bier in Mile End Road, and ending with a procession of wards and workers. He was, with the exception of General Booth, the best representative of the working functions of Evangelical Protestantism in London, and while his methods of advertising were criticised during his life the tributes to him since his death have been unexampled in recent times. The great enterprises conducted by him were in urgent need of financial support during his closing years, and he realized at sixty that he lacked the physical force required for commanding public interest.

New Rhodes Scholars.

A second contingent of Rhodes scholars is beginning to arrive at Oxford from America, Germany, Canada and the colonies. The number of new recruits seems smaller than last year, but the trustees do not admit it. The plans have been altered and the work of the Rhodes trust is quietly managed, and the new scholars drop into their places at the Oxford colleges without public observation; yet, as the college accommodations are limited, they crowd out English students. Dr. Jameson has returned to London from the Continent, in impaired health, to attend the meetings of the Rhodes trust and transact colonial business.

The death of Colonel Frank Rhodes saddens a large group of journalists and personal friends, but is without effect on South African interests. He was the unluckiest among the Johannesburg conspirators responsible for the Jameson raid, because Cecil Rhodes never forgave him for his lack of judgment.

Large Russian contracts for naval construction in England have not yet been made, but are expected by the shipbuilders. The Brazilian Lloyd, having a monopoly of the coasting and river trade, is ordering a fleet of thirty steamers here. No marked change in business has yet occurred as a direct result of the peace in the Far East, nor is expected, while money rates continue to harden.

The woollen manufacturers in the Bradford district are curtailing production, not because business is declining, but because wool remains high and there are no signs of a slump in prices. The merchants now admit that the American buyers shrewdly forecast the trend of the market a year ago and that the Bradford trade has been overreached by excessive caution and reluctance to raise the prices of woollen goods.

MR. J. C. MAILHOT LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Mr. J. C. Mailhot, formerly of The Herald job department, took place yesterday from his late residence, Huntly Street. Brothers and brothers-in-law of deceased were the chief mourners. The craft was well represented by Typo. Unions No. 176 and 145. The following were among those who formed the funeral cortege: Mr. J. S. Brierley, Mr. F. Boardman, Mr. Jno. Taylor, Mr. J. T. Howes, Messrs. Tremblay, Morreau, Tardif, Legare and many other well-known citizens.

REV. F. PLUNKETT ORDAINED.

Quebec, Sept. 25.—Rev. Francis Plunket, B.A., of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, was ordained to the priesthood yesterday in the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity yesterday by the Lord Bishop of Quebec. Rev. Mr. Plunkett is under order to leave for the Canadian Labrador immediately to work with Rev. A. T. Vibert, lay reader and schoolmaster, engaged there.

HUSSARS RODE OUT TO DORVAL

Montreal's Cavalry Squadron Put in Two Days in the Saddle

The annual ride to Dorval of the Duke of York's Royal Canadian Hussars took place on Saturday. The squadron formed up in the Drill Shed, and at 3.30 p.m. left for Dorval. The route was Cadieux, Dorchester and University streets, Phillips Square, St. Catherine, Crescent and Sherbrooke streets, thence via the new road to Montreal West and Upper Lachine Road to Dorval. The squadron presented a very smart appearance and attracted much attention on St. Catherine Street.

The horses were quartered in the box stalls at the Bel-Air race track, and a large tent was pitched to provide shelter for the troopers.

The Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club was placed at the disposal of the squadron and an expert chef and waiters looked after the comforts of the inner man.

In the evening the boys took possession of the comfortable reading room in the Yacht Club. Patriotic songs were sung and some of those who had seen active service recalled reminiscences of by-gone days.

Sunday morning reveille was sounded at 6 a.m. The horses were watered, cleaned and fed, and at 8 o'clock the men marched to the clubhouse for breakfast. They were then free until 10 a.m., when they returned to camp to attend church service, which lasted about half an hour. The horses were then watered and fed again, the men returning for dinner, after which they saddled up, and at 2.45 started on the homeward way. The return journey was made through the bush and was thoroughly enjoyed. The squadron arrived at the Drill Shed at 6.15 p.m., all the members tired but well satisfied with their outing.

Captain Brock and Captain Riley both announced that it was the most successful ride the Hussars have ever had and thanked the non-coms and troopers for turning out in such strong numbers.

DIAVOLA WAS BADLY INJURED

Famous Loop the Loop Act Went Wrong at Critical Moment

Fredericton, N.B., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—G. F. Mathieson, known as "Diavolo," who has appeared all over the country in his spectacular "looping the loop" and "leaping the chasm" acts on a bicycle, was seriously, perhaps fatally, injured at the exhibition here this afternoon. An immense crowd was present to see his dare-devil ride, and were horrified at the accident.

BURNING COAL DUMP GIVES FIREMEN TROUBLE

The huge coal dump of the Great Northern Railway Company at Hochelaga still continues to give trouble to the East End firemen. Capt. Carson and his men, of No. 13 company, had started on Friday evening to fight the smouldering fires in the heart of the heap and were compelled to work almost all night at it. Saturday morning at 8.30 they received another call, and spent over eleven hours more sousing the coal dump. This seemed to extinguish the flames for a time, but yesterday morning a third call came in and the men were compelled to spend still another nine hours at the work.

OUTREMONT PRACTICE.

The Outremont Juniors will hold a practice to-morrow morning at 5.30 o'clock. All members are requested to turn out.

SALVATION ARMY TAKES ST. LOUIS CASE TO COURT

The negotiations between the Salvation Army authorities and Mr. Brunet the owner of the hall in Fairmount Avenue, St. Louis, in which the Salvationists held their meetings until they were deprived of possession, have fallen through and the probability now is that the next incident in the drama will be a fight in the law courts.

Staff-Captain Creighton informed a Herald representative to-day that he was hopeful until the end of last week of obtaining peaceful possession of the hall and recovering their property. The owner of the hall seemed to receive in a fair spirit the representations that were made to him but apparently other influences hostile to the army were at work, and the army officers were unable to get a satisfactory settlement.

"We have now," said the staff-captain, "put the matter in the hands of our attorneys who have served a notification upon the owner demanding the return to the building of our chairs and other property which had, as we contend, been wrongfully removed. We claim that the hall is ours in virtue of the arrangement that was made and that the persons who closed the building and boarded up the entrance against us were guilty of illegal acts. We also contend that the removal of our furniture from the building was unlawful and we insist upon its return. We have still the key of the hall, but are unable to enter it on account of the boards that have been placed across the door. We are just waiting to see what reply is sent to our notification before issuing a writ. We are assured that we are entitled to the undisturbed possession of the building and on that assumption we mean to proceed to enforce our rights."

And falls in love with a neat boot,
While caring not a snap what his wife says,

When his last act upon this earth he plays,
Would certainly go up among
That ever bright and happy throng,
But for the world and all its wicked ways.

"We find The Herald is universally read by the class of people we desire to reach. One thing, among others, that has impressed us very favorably with regard to The Herald is the quality of the other advertisements that appear in that paper. We have never found any objectionable matter in its columns, and this, I am sure, is of value to all the other advertisers."

NEW MASCOTTES BEAT FARNHAM ON SATURDAY

The baseball game between Farnham and the New Mascottes team Saturday was a slugging contest throughout, with the local boys in the lead. Both teams fielded well, with one exception, McKenzie at short for Farnham, who, although he may be a good player, put up a very poor game yesterday, and was a decided handicap to his team.

Woods, the new man for Mascottes, went in behind the bat when Payette hurt himself in the first inning, and handled Briggs' delivery in fine style.

MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG AND SICK WOMEN WELL.

Forty years ago, Dr. Pierce searched Nature's laboratory for a remedy with which to supplant the ignorant and vicious methods of treatment, with alcoholic stimulants, then in vogue, and still too commonly prescribed and advised for woman's peculiar ailments.

Nature abounds with most efficient remedies, and in Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Unicorn root, Blue Cohosh root and Golden Seal root, Dr. Pierce found medicinal properties, which when extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure glycerine, have proven most potent in making weak women strong and sick women well. It contains no alcohol; is not a "patent medicine," nor a secret one either.

"I was suffering with nervous headache, pains in the back and dizziness, so that at times I had to lie down for hours before I could raise my head," writes Mrs. Mary M. Thomas, of 337 Winston Street, Los Angeles, Cal. "After taking the first bottle of 'Favorite Prescription," however, I was so pleased with the results that I kept on taking it until I was restored to health and strength. I shall never be without this great medicine, and shall take a few doses when I do not feel strong."

One of the principal uses of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the preparation of prospective mothers for the time of trial and danger that comes when a child is born. The "Prescription" is strengthening and invigorating and lessens pain and danger. It insures the perfect well-being and the perfect health of both mother and child. Every woman should know these things before she really needs to know them. There are many things in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, that every woman ought to know. This celebrated work reached a sale of 680,000 copies at $1.50 each. The expense of production having thus been covered, it is now being given away. A copy will be sent to any address on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, or, in cloth binding for 50 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.

Don't Be Hoodwinked, hoodooed, or over-persuaded into accepting a substitute for the Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce, over 40 years ago, and called Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Sugar-coated, tiny, granules, but never gripe. One or two are laxative, three or four cathartic.

Miron, Mulhall and White in the infield played particularly brilliant, while the outfied not ony took care of anything in their district, but batted very well, Rivet getting four hits five times up for the visitors. Gillen, who played here last season, did exceptionally well, and lead his team in hitting. Considering the heavy batting on both sides, the fielding was particularly brilliant.

M'GILL RIFLEMEN ARE DOUBLE OF LAST YEAR

The McGill Rifle Club opened its third year with the most encouraging beginning of its existence. In the prize competition last year there were not fifty men participating, while on Saturday there were over one hundred rifles in use, besides several students who were interested spectators.

The great disadvantages which hinder the students are inability to get away from lectures for the afternoon and shortness of the season in which shooting may be indulged with any degree of comfort. These are, however, somewhat counterbalanced by two concessions recently granted by the Government, namely, free transportation and free markers.

The fifty fifles secured from the Government alone would have been of little use this year, but the club, through the kindness of Lt.-Col. Hibbard, are using one hundred additional ones belonging to the 2nd Regt., C.A.

There will be a big shoot about the third week October for trophies and cash prizes The prize list will be a substantial one and the handsome trophy donated by Lt.-Col. Birkett will be again competed for by teams from the different years.

HIS CONSCIENCE DROVE HIM TO CONFESSION

Adams, a former resident of Toronto, Ont., has surrendered to the police as the real murderer of Florence Baker, in 1899, at Pelauma, Cal., consequently J. V. RETURNS TO ST. JOHN'S.

After spending several years as a missionary in the southern and western parts of the United States, Rev. Father Matthew McGuire, is in the city on his way to Newfoundland, where he will take up parochial duties in the diocese of St. John's, his birth place. There is a Catholic population there of 45,000, with only twenty-five priests to minister to their spiritual needs. The summer that has closed Father McGuire has spent in travelling through Texas, where the Catholic families, mostly Irish, are widely scattered, but it is surprising, he says, the tenacity with which they cling to the faith of their fathers.

HIGHWAYMAN GOT A DOSE OF LEAD

A Grocery Waggon Driver Attacked at St. Paul

Early on Sunday morning Procul Audette, driver of a grocery delivery waggon, reported to the Point St. Charles police that he had wounded a man with a revolver shot, while on the way back from Ville St. Paul, where he had been delivering goods.

Audette explained that while passing along a quiet part of the road near the canal, two men sprang out of the darkness, and while one seized the horse by the head, the other started to climb into the waggon. As he is in the habit of making late deliveries outside the city limits the grocer's man carries a revolver, and this he promptly drew on the hold-ups into whose hands he now had fallen. After the firing of one shot the man by the horse's head fell to the ground, while the other quickly made off, and sending after the latter a farewell bullet, Audette whipped up and made for No. 9 police station, where he told his story to Capt. Coleman.

Accompanied by two constables, the captain visited the scene of the attack, but could find no traces of the men, nor were there blood stains on the ground, although Audette was certain he hit one of the would-be robbers.

Near the same spot, a butcher was attacked and fired on in March last, but although his horse was mortally wounded he succeeded in getting clear away.

ST. LAMBERT WILL SPEND MONEY

Passed By-Laws on Saturday Authorizing $15,000 Expenditure

At St. Lambert, on Saturday morning, two new by-laws, one for $9,000 for the purpose of extending the water and drainage to Notre Dame Avenue (the street east of Victoria Avenue), which is fast building up now, and the other for $6,000 for the rebuilding of the Town Hall, were both unanimously carried, in fact, very little interest was manifested by the "Landed Proprietors" at all in these by-laws.

In the new town hall it is intended to have a proper office for the town clerk, as well as, a "Lock-up," and proper fire hall too, both of which are much needed at present.

MR. A. LAURIN HONORED.

SIR WILFRID WAS IN TOWN ON SATURDAY

Sir Wilfrid spent Saturday in the city and called on Senator L. O. David and Mayor Laporte at their offices in the City Hall.

With Senator David, Sir Wilfrid discussed the question of holding an annual exhibition in Montreal. A company has already been formed to carry out such a project, and Sir Wilfrid was strongly in favor of a fair being held in the city during the early autumn after the different country fairs had been held.

The city has contributed $10,000 to the project and the Provincial Government $20,000. The Federal Government has been asked to contribute $50,000, and the Premier stated he would do everything in his power to have the grant made.

After visiting Senator David the Premier spent some time in the Mayor's office. During the afternoon he received calls from a number of local politicians.

THREE GAMBLING HOUSES RAIDED AND SIXTY-THREE MEN ARRESTED

Chiefs Campeau and Carpenter Were Out With the Net on Saturday Night to Some Purpose

The biggest round-up of gamblers made in Montreal for many years was effected early yesterday morning, when officers raided three houses in the upper part of the city and made forty-two arrests, besides gathering in much gambling paraphernalia.

It had been arranged to make the visits simultaneously, and detachments slipped away from police headquarters shortly after midnight, taking different routes towards the central St. Catherine Street district. Chief Campeau, in person, led a squad of men to 1935 St. Catherine St., where ten persons were found engaged chasing fortune by the means and methods customary at such resorts.

At Dwyer's, 49 University Street, a party, headed by Detectives Sloan and Riopti, secured seven men, along with some gambling apparatus.

But Chief Detective Carpenter was fated to secure the heaviest haul of any of the detachments, and this success is expected to have a far-reaching influence in the suppression of such places, which, Chief Campeau has decided, will not, in his time at any rate, be permitted to regain that freedom of action which at one time characterized the situation in Montreal.

Chief Carpenter led his party to 11½ McGill College Avenue, where at the St. Charles Club, several raids have been made at various times.

Here an extensive business was going on, and in addition to Andy Maloney, charged with managing the concern, the names of other twenty-four persons were taken as breakers of the law prohibiting the frequenting of such places.

In court this forenoon it was pointed out that Mr. Maloney was only a visitor at the place on McGill College Avenue, and with the acquiescence of Chief of Police Campeau, the name of James Simpson was substituted as manager of the house. The latter admitted the offence and was remanded until to-morrow for sentence, while the following pleaded guilty to having been found on the premises at the time of the raid and were each fined $25: John Cooper, John Stone, John Hughes Geo. Smith, J. J. Walker, John Lowrie, John Macintosh, James McNally, Geo. Henderson, John Emerson, Henry Edwards, Andy Maloney, George Brown, Geo. Harrison, Chas. Smith, F. Allan, F. W. Stephen, Henry Thompson, John Donovan, Jas. McLaren, F. McBurney, Alfread Lemay, C. Mackenzie, J. O. Hasting.

Bernard Kauffmann, 1935 St. Catherine Street, pleaded not guilty to conducting a gaming house, and nine others not guilty to frequenting same and enquete was fixed for Sept. 29, a similar decision being come to regarding Thos. Dwyer and six other persons arrested at University Street.

The raids were made in such fashion that not a visitor managed to get away, each of the places being surrounded before the inmates became aware of what was happening. None of those arrested, the lot including business men, theatrical men, students and others, were taken to the police station, the police contenting themselves with noting their names and addresses and giving personal bond to appear at court to-day.

The gaming tables, wheels, dice, cards, chips, etc., found in the three houses, and valued at close on $4,000, were conveyed to the City Hall by patrol waggons, and will, of course, be destroyed after the trial.

TORONTO WORLD WILL PUBLISH APOLOGY

Anxious to avoid an expensive lawsuit, the Toronto World, through Messrs. E. Nichols and A. Smallpiece, has endeavored to settle its difficulties with various French-Canadian Montreal aldermen by an apology.

The two World representatives last week had several conferences with Mayor Laporte, Ald. L. A. Lapointe, and the City Clerk, and arrived at a basis of settlement which will probably be put into force ere long, and the courts relieved of a number of damage actions. The World accused the Montreal aldermen, more especially those of French-Canadian extraction, of graft along Tammany lines, and Ald. L. A. Lapointe, as one of those chiefly concerned, took action against the World, as a test case. Ald. Lapointe states that he is disposed to accept a satisfactory retraction and apology, provided that the Toronto World pays all costs.

THE STANDARD.

On Saturday forenoon it may be said the whole city was interested in the issue of The Standard. The public had great expectations, and it is safe to say none were disappointed. In fact, all were surprised at the value they got. The excellence of The Standard from every point of view was universally conceded and the marvellously brisk sales, not only by street vendors, but on the news-stands, bore testimony to the popularity of the paper. For getting into the good graces of the public, The Standard has the distinction of being in a class by itself. To think that a paper could have thousands of yearly subscribers before the issue of its second number, and that the dealers in a few hours had their supplies to the extent of many thousands of copies all sold out, with hosts of customers disappointed, is a condition of things in journalism unique. Montreal may, indeed, be proud of The Standard. Its a paper that can do great things in advertising the city. Its attractive pictures make it more than an ephemeral publication, and vast numbers will doubtless be sent away by people to their friends at a distance. The Standard will be a great home paper. The Standard Office is already one of the beehives of industry. It takes a lot of hustling to turn out such a paper.

DETECTIVES MADE GOOD HAUL.

Toronto, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Fred. Wilson and Thomas Morse were arrested yesterday at their boarding house on Wilton Avenue. Each man had a loaded revolver under his pillow, and in the same room were found slouch hats, cartridges, a chisel, brace and bit, dark lantern and two candles. The detectives were admitted to the house by the occupants, who directed them to the room occupied by Wilson and Morse. They used a duplicate key and without further ceremony placed the handcuffs on the sleeping men. Both awoke to find themselves chained to detectives, overpowered and disarmed. Morse was in the bed and Wilson on a mattress on the floor. Another important find was a small bottle of ether about three parts full, which was analyzed by a local chemist. The stuff was bundled up and with the prisoners was taken to the police station.

EXPORT TRADE TO SOUTH AFRICA IS INCREASING

Proof of the extension of the export trade from Canada to South Africa is afforded by the manifest of the S.S. Canada Cape, which left this morning with an exceptionally valuable cargo, including 300 tons of plows and agricultural implements, 30,000 bags of flour, a quantity of fine pine lumber, and apples, for which she will call at Halifax for 1,200 barrels, having taken 300 barrels here. The Canada Cape also takes 209 sheep and 151 cattle, many being valuable animals for breeding purposes, including one bull. Some of the 131 horses are for German East Africa, while one consignment goes to Hull's South African Circus Company. One buffalo is a novel feature of the shipment. Mr. Campbell, local manager of the Elder-Dempster line, states that enquiries for freight to South Africa are greatly on the increase.

TRENT CANAL SURVEYS ARE NEARLY COMPLETED

Report on Project Will be Presented to Parliament at Next Session.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special.) — The field work of the Trent Valley Canal surveys will be completed this autumn, and the work of digesting the reports of the four parties will be done during the winter, probably in time to be reported to Parliament. Three routes have been surveyed at the Ontario end. These are by way of Port Hope, Cobourg and Trenton. At the Georgian Bay end two outlets have been surveyed, one from via the North River to Matchedash and the other by the Severn River. In addition, the parties will have completed surveys for the improvement of the two branches of the Holland River, and also of the Black River.

MR. A. J. SMALL HAS ENTERED SUIT FOR 100,000 DAMAGES

Quebec, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—Mr. A. J. Small, of Toronto, lessee of the Quebec Auditorium Theatre, reached the city to-day and announced he would enter action for $100,000 damages against the Quebec Auditorium Company for their action in shutting his local manager out of the theatre.

There has been trouble between the officials of the company and Mr. Small, the lessee, for some time past, and the company had entered suit against Mr. Small. The latter had fyled his reply in court, but the suit had not come up for trial.

Mr. Small has had bookings made for the local theatre for some months ahead, and by the action of the company will be obliged to break his contracts with the different companies or get another house for them.

CIGAR MAKERS WANT HIGHER DUTY

And Other Things to Stimulate Use of Canadian Tobacco

London, Ont., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—A most important meeting of the cigar manufacturers of Canada was held in this city Saturday. It was called for the purpose of discussing the raising of duty on imported leaf and inaugurating but one stamp for cigars manufactured in Canada, the object being to protect Canadian tobacco and encourage its growth. The result of the meeting was that a resolution in accordance with the above was passed though not unanimously.

All the leading cigarmakers of Montreal were present, or represented. The resolution carried embodied the following demands, which will be presented to the Government shortly:

First—That the present duty of ten cents a pound on imported tobacco be increased to twenty cents a pound.

Second—That the rebate of ten cents a pound allowed on cuttings of imported tobacco shipped out of Canada, be done away with.

Third—That in future the Government issue but one stamp for cigars manufactured in Canada, no matter whether they be made from Canadian leaf or imported leaf.

It was said at the meeting that the Government has already practically agreed to grant the requests.

The manufacturers claim that the action of the Government in allowing ten cents a pound rebate on all foreign tobacco cuttings shipped out of Canada, helps the foreign product at the expense of the Canadian article and this they desire to have abolished.

Regarding the stamps of Canadian cigars, the manufacturers claimed that the present system injures cigars made from Canadian tobacco. They favored the issuing of one stamp to designate the strictly imported article and but one stamp, instead of four for all cigars made in Canada. It appeared to be the opinion that if but one stamp is issued the smoker will not be able to differentiate between the cigar made from Canadian tobacco and that cigar made from imported stock.

THINKG GREAT COLD CAUSES FREEZING

A somewhat peculiar request was received this morning by Chief Benoit, of the Fire Department, from the New York Fire Insurance Journal. The journal enquired as to statistics of the number of hydrants frozen annually in Montreal, and what was the cause of such freezing. The chief has replied that to the best of his knowledge extreme cold cause the freezing of the hydrants, as he remembered no cases of frozen hydrants in summer.

MR. EDWARD T. SCOTT PASSED AWAY TO-DAY

Mr. Edward T. Scott passed away this morning at his late residence, 462 Grosvenor Avenue, Westmount. He had been in failing health for several months.

He was for many years cashier in the Customs House here, retiring some time ago on account of ill-health. Prior to his entry into the Customs he was for a long period secretary-treasurer of the Ottawa River Navigation Co.

Few men were better known or more highly respected, both in business and social circles. He married a sister of the late Dr. W. G. Biers, who, with one daughter, survives him.

The late Mr. Scott was long prominent in Masonic and Orange circles, but out of deference to his wishes the funeral will be of as plain and quiet a nature as possible, and will take place at 3 p.m. on Tuesday from his late residence.

SIR FREDERICK POLLOCK IN MONTREAL TO-DAY

Sir Frederick Pollock, the eminent English jurist and constitutional and legal authority, arrived in Quebec yesterday by the Parisian and is now understood to be on his way to Montreal. He is accompanied by Mr. Pitt Kennedy, M.P., and Mr. Geoffrey Drage, M.P., both of whom are interested in Imperial questions and supporters of Sir Frederick's scheme of Imperial unity, based upon effective colonial representation through the Privy Council.

The principal object of Sir Frederick's visit is understood to be to ascertain the feeling of representative Canadians to the scheme which he puts forward tentatively.

Arrangements have been made by Sir George Drummond, Principal Peterson and others to entertain Sir Frederick and his friends at the St. James' Club to-morrow. On Wednesday afternoon he will deliver a lecture before the students of the law faculty at McGill, and on Thursday he will be entertained at dinner by the Economic Association at the Canada Cub.

Mr. T. Chase Casgrain, K.C., M.P., is in Quebec to-day.

Premier Gouin is in the city for a day or two, and spent this morning at the Government offices.

FINAL REPORT ON VILLE MARIE BANK WAS ISSUED TO-DAY

The liquidators of the Ville Marie Bank to-day issued their final report on the affairs of the bank.

one of the biggest swindles ever committed by a large banking institution.

The most interesting part of the report as explained to The Herald by one of the liquidators, is that dealing with the bank's notes that had to be redeemed. When the liquidators took charge, the bank's statement showed that the bank's notes that had to be redeemed amounted in round figures to $261,000. When the liquidators, however, had completed their examination of the affairs of the bank they found that the value of the notes in circulation that the bank would have to redeem totalled $550,156, a difference of $288,000. Further investigation showed that notes that ought to have been destroyed were re-issued by some of the interests connected with the bank and the proceeds from them was not accounted for in the bank's statement.

The final financial report of liquidators of the bank is as follows:

Amount realized from the assets of the bank.....	$746,391.05
Double liability from shareholders	96,147.64
Total	$842,538.69
Notes in circulation that had to be redeemed.....	$350,156.97
Dildends paid to depositors (17 per cent.).....	245,072.59
Privilged claims	13,819.38
Cost in connection with liquidation	33,489.75
	$842,538.69

GAYNOR AND GREENE WILL SOON GO BACK TO GEORGIA

John F. Gaynor and Benjamin W. Greene must return to Georgia and face the courts there.

At least, Judge Lafontaine has committed them for extradition, and Mr. Justice Ouimet Saturday refused to grant them their freedom under a writ of habeas corpus. What other efforts to gain their freedom or delay the course of justice they may make remains to be seen. There may or may not be an appeal from Judge Ouimet's decision; they may or may not desire to appeal. In any event their fight in Canada, which has lasted years and cost hundreds of thousands of dollars, is nearly at an end.

In giving his decision Judge Ouimet carefully analyzed all the facts and legal points concerned in the case, and in every instance found against Gaynor and Greene.

He concluded that the case had been properly handled, that the New York evidence was properly admissible in a Canadian court, and that Judge Lafontaine had drawn up his warrant of committal in accordance with the statutes. The facts, he held, were proven sufficiently, and therefore no writ of habeas corpus could issue. Therefore, Messrs. Gaynor and Greene must return to the Montreal gaol and there await the arrival of Georgian officers to take them to Savannah for trial.

Gaynor and Greene were, of course, present Saturday. They were grimly silent, nervously attentive. They expected the result, but were evidently affected by it.

A LOADED GUN COST HIM LIBERTY

William Welsh Pointed Revolver at Innocent Passers By

A young man named William Welsh, residing on St. James street, was charged before Mr. Recorder Weir today with having presented a loaded revolver at several people on that street early on Sunday morning. He was also accused of being in possession of a pair of knuckle-dusters.

Two constables testified to hearing the shots while they were on Cathedral street, and to having, on reaching the scene, observed accused pointing a revolver at three men who were standing on the sidewalk. The revolver was found to be loaded in five chambers.

A civilian witness said that prior to the arrival of the officers Welsh had put up the gun in front of a crowd of about twenty, and after shouting "I'm going to kill you all," fired off one shot, which, however, did not harm. He also saw him cross the street and point the revolver at three people standing there.

Accused pleaded it was his first drunk, and that he had no idea of how he came by the weapon and the knuckles, and asked for lenient treatment under the circumstances. But Judge Weir said the matter was too serious for leniency, and imposed sentence of $50 or three months for pointing the revolver, and for carrying knuckle-dusters $10 or thirty days.

Frank Byrne, a companion of Welsh, was fined $20 for interfering with the police and attempting to rescue his friend.

LOOKS FOR BIGGER RUSH THAN EVER NEXT YEAR

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—C. W. Speers, General Colonization agent, of the Interior Department, who has just reached Ottawa states the big crop of this year had advanced the values of Western land at least thirty per cent. Many farmers harvested thirty-five to forty bushels an acre and found help scare though they paid for it at $2 to $2.50 a day. Half the Canadians who went from the East for harvest work will remain. In the past year only ten to fifteen per cent stayed in the West. Mr. Speers expects an inrush of Americans next years. This year the movement was considerably diverted to the Southern States but people who went were not well satisfied and Canada will be the favorite goal next year.

ST. LAWRENCE LIBERAL CONVENTION.

A convention will be held to-morrow night at the Monument National to select a candidate to represent St. Lawrence division in the Provincial Legislature. It is expected that Mr. Robert Bickerdike, M.P., wil preside, and that Hon. J. C. McCorkill will also be present. Only accredited delegates will be admitted to the convention, which it is confidently anticipated will select a candidate who will be able to easily carry the riding.

WAS IT AN ACCIDENT OR WAS IT A CRIME?

Thomas McQuaid Unable to Tell How He Was Injured

Thomas McQuaid, of 442 Delorimier Avenue, was discovered about two o'clock yesterday morning, lying in an unconscious condition between the C. P. R. tracks, near the Mountain St. crossing He was taken to the General Hospital, where his injuries were pronounced to be not dangerous. He has regained consciousness, but so far has not recovered sufficiently to tell his story.

McQuaid had been working for some months at Chaplau, and had written his wife taht he would be home on Saturday. It is therefore probable that he fell from an incoming train and lay between the rails until discovered by one of the yardmen. The man's face is covered with bruises, but these might easily have been caused by the fall. The fact that no money was found on him has given rise to the suspicion of robbery. Of this, however, nothing definite can be known until McQuaid's recovery.

WATERMAN'S WINDOW BROKEN; MAN ARRESTED

The many valuable and attractive articles in the window of L. E. Waterman Co., on St. James Street, proved a strong temptation to an early Sunday morning wanderer, who, after smashing the large plate glass window with a stone, grabbed a quantity of pens and made hurried pace towards home. In collaring the plunder, however, the thief had not exercised sufficient care, and as he ran, the full flow of blood from a glass-torn wound on his wrist, laid a track, the following of which called for no high bred animal of the dog tribe.

The blood stains led to he arrest in the course of a few hours of Peter Stevenson, twenty-four, a machinist, residing on Dorchester Street, and he was to-day remanded by Judge Lafontaine to answer a charge of theft by house-breaking.

Personal Mention

Mr. Robt. Kerr, passenger traffic manager of the C.P.R., has returned from Chicago where he attended a meeting of the Transcontinental and Western Passenger Associations.

Mr. D. McNicoll, vice-president of the C.P.R., accompanied by Mr. Arthur Piers, manager of the C.P.R. steamship lines, returned Saturday night from a tour over the Atlantic division.

Mr. H. Bragg, editor of the Canadian Municipal Gazette, left on Saturday for New Westminster as special representative of the Union of Canadian Municipalities at the formation of the British Columbia Union. Mrs. Bragg accompanied him and they will visit other Western points before they return.

Mr. William E. Curtis, the Washington correspondent of the Chicago Record-Herald, spent Sunday in Montreal on his way home from an extended trip through the Canadian West, on which he was accompanied by his wife and private secretary. Speaking of emigration from the States to Canada, he said the Dominion was getting the best class of settlers among whom, fortunately for it, there were no politicians.

LADY WANTS $750 FROM MONTREAL STREET RAILWAY

Claims to Have Sustained Injuries in End Collision Two Months Ago.

Miss Lettie Irwin, Montreal, has entered action through her lawyers, Messrs. McCormick & Lebourneau, against the Montreal Street Railway, for $750 damages, for alleged injuries sustained in alighting from a St. Catherine Street car over two months ago.

It appears that Miss Irwin was riding west on St. Catherine Street and, in alighting from the car at Buckingham Avenue, another car, so she claims, came up behind and she was thrown to the ground from the force of the collision. Her wrist is said to have been disigeated and her arm disabled partially since that time.

MUST GO BACK FOR TRIAL.

An order was received this morning by the Sheriff of Montreal, from Lord Grey, granting the extradition, to England, under The Fugitives Act, of John Forbes Maguire, an old countryman, from Birmingham. Detective Charles Goldwick will escort the prisoner back to England, having come arcross for the purpose.

Maguire is alleged to have stolen a sum of money from his Birmingham employer and decamped for Canada, leaving a note to the effect that he would repay the sum.

Richard Trusley and Thomas Lafferty were remanded to-day for enquete on a charge of driving off with a horse and rig belonging to Noe Clauthier, while the latter was making a business call on St. Lawrence Street.

I.C.R. SHOPS HAD NARROW SHAVE

Moncton, N.B., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The Intercolonial shops narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire Saturday night. Some material in the paint shop which is filled with highly combustible and inflammable material became ignited. It was discovered after a little headway was made.

For restoring gray hair to its natural color and beauty, for cleaning the skin and curing dandruff, in a word, for preserving and restoring the hair, LUBY'S PARISIAN HAIR RESTORER is unequalled. Its composition is such that it never fails if the directions are followed. The numerous demands for Luby's and the large quantity sold prove that it gives satisfaction to all who use it. 50c a bottle.

MAKING THE INTERCOLONIAL RAILWAY.

Mr. Emmerson's conclusions concerning the Intercolonial Railway, reached after a much more intimate study of its nature and operations than had previously been possible to him, are the most gratifying, because the past attitude of the Minister of Railways has not been unduly optimistic. Mr. Emmerson has reminded the public of one source of the troubles of the Intercolonial which it is very apt to overlook, and we presume that he intends to make the suppression of that source one of the first steps in his campaign for economy. The troubles in question are those which arise from the conflicting demands of local boards of trade at various points on the system. It is no reflection upon the boards of trade that they are made the mouthpieces of these demands. They are simply the representatives of that spirit of local exclusiveness and rivalry which has to be dealt with, and to some extent catered to, by every Government department which has money to spend. This local spirit, which is certainly not less strong in the Maritime Provinces than in any other part of Canada, is in flat opposition to the broad lines of general policy upon which a large railway undertaking should be managed. It goes without saying that if the boards of trade and other local organizations of the Maritime Provinces had to deal with a private company in charge of their railway service, their demands and suggestions would receive no more consideration than was necessary for the handling of whatever business they could contribute to the road, and would be completely subordinated to the requirements and interests of the railway as a whole. For such a policy to be carried out, however, by a Government department requires two indispensable conditions. There must be a man at its head who is not afraid to offend local prejudices when it is necessary to do so in order to serve general interests. And he must be working for a people which will as a whole appreciate what is done for it as a whole. The support that is alienated by refusal to cater to merely local demands must be made up by compelling recognition of the success of the general policy. The Intercolonial has undoubtedly suffered from a tendency in the past to be run for forty or fifty different objects instead of one. We have no doubt that Mr. Emmerson will provide the courage necessary to unify its policy; and we rely on the Liberals of Canada, but particularly of the Maritime Provinces, to give him the support that he will need.

THE BRITISH LIBERALS.

So certain are the principal organs of public opinion of all political shades in the United Kingdom that the Liberal party will come into power at the next general election that there is a general indulgence in Cabinet making. The most interesting feature of those forecasts is the unanimity which exists in allotting the Premiership to Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, with a seat in the House of Lords, and the appointment of Mr Asquith to a Cabinet position, with which will be combined the leadership of the House of Commons. Under these circumstances the recent speech made by the latter gentleman, in which he dealt with the attitude likely to be taken by the official Liberals in regard to international affairs, has a special interest. Speaking of the new Anglo-Japanese alliance Mr. Asquith said:—"We are told in the ordinary sources of information that the alliance between England and Japan is at this moment being refashioned in a larger and more extended form. I have no acquaintance with the details of what is being done, and, of course, like everybody else, I reserve judgment upon those details, but speaking generally I think I shall carry all my fellow-Liberals with me when I say that the alliance being as it is a mutual insurance of our common interests, which we believe to be also those of civilization and progress, and involving as it does no antagonism to the repute and susceptibilities of other powers, that alliance is heartily approved by the people of this country, and is coming to be regarded by them—nay, has come to be regarded—as an integral part of our policy in the Far East."

By this outspoken statement while in Opposition, and his definite laying down of a programme of domestic legislation upon which the election shall be fought, Mr. Asquith is believed to have done a great deal towards solidifying the strength of the Liberal party in the great business centres and securing the allegiance of those hundred candidates who are classed as "Imperial" Liberals and have hitherto looked upon Lord Rosebery and Sir Edward Grey as their principal oratorical exponents.

Mr. Haldane, who is freely named as the future Lord Chancellor, in addressing the same Scotch Liberal convention which listened to Mr. Asquith, named next March as the season for stormy political weather and seems confident that Easter will see the United Kingdom in the throes of the long-looked for general election, adding that the Liberal party had to learn from Japan to put aside their domestic differences and concentrate themselves on the great national purposes which lay in front. Freed from international anxieties the party would, he prophesied, find a new lease of life which would secure to it a dominating power in the State for a period as long as that which has seen Unionism in the ascendant. It is over twenty years since the present Opposition held office with the assent of a great Parliamentary majority, and not half a dozen of the men who then ranked as its leading administrators and debaters are now eligible for work in the House of Commons. Not since the formation of Mr. Gladstone's first Cabinet in 1868 has there been such a splendid opportunity for infusing new life into British Liberalism and eliminating those individual elements which have been so largely responsible for the party's lack of cohesion and enthusiasm.

A REMARKABLE LESSON IN SURGERY.

Two medical authorities, representing different schools, who have been in Montreal during the past few days, have paid tribute to the remarkable results achieved by Japan in military surgery and pathology. Sir James Grant, just returned from the British Medical Congress, has testified to the exceptional interest which Japanese methods of treatment had aroused, as evidenced by the discussions in that important body. Dr. Jacobi, of New York, one of the foremost pathologists of the day, told in his inaugural lecture before the McGill Medical Faculty, of the extraordinary success of the Japanese in banishing disease from their armies during the war. He stated that for two men killed in battle during the Spanish-American war ten died from disease, whereas in the recent conflict between Russia and Japan the proportion of deaths from disease was as one to ten killed in battle. The marvel of the healing powers of the Japanese seems to be scarcely less remarkable than their marvellous fighting powers. Surgeon-General Suzuki, of the Japanese navy, who has come to America to attend the Congress of Naval Surgeons, which is being held on the shore of Lake Erie, explains that all the doctors do is to help nature to work the cure. Simplicity of treatment is the characteristic of their processes. The Mikado's doctors were in no hurry to amputate limbs nor did they aggravate angry wounds by probing for bullets or fragments of shell. The edges of the wounds were as speedily as possible washed with aseptic cotton, dipped in sterilized water, and no time was lost in conveying the bandaged patients to the hospitals, where time and nature were allowed to effect the cure. This, according to practitioners of the antiseptic school, would have left the patients at the mercy of the disease; but the Japanese show that nature, though sometimes cruel and relentless, is on the whole a kind mother. At all events, simplicity, cleanliness, aseptic washes and bandages, an efficient system of field and hospital hygiene, reduced to a small percentage a mortality that is usually greater in war than that carried by shot and shell. The inference to be drawn from the remarks of both Sir James Grant and Dr. Jacobi was that these simple and enlightened surgical processes may be regarded as not the least valuable of the lessons that have been taught by the recent war.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Dr. George Johnson is, it appears, about to leave the Dominion's Statistical Bureau, of which he has so long been the head. It is the highest possible compliment to Dr. Johnson, who brought the Bureau to the position it now occupies, that no one doubts that it will continue to do the same excellent work that it has done in the past. The retiring Statistician's honor, which we hope he may live long to enjoy, will be that of having got into working order one of the most admirable offices of its kind in the world.

Mr. Verville has been re-elected, without opposition, to the presidency of the Dominion Trades Congress, in recognition of excellent service during the past year and in compliment to the French-Canadian race. Yet the French-Canadians are a small minority in the Trades Congress, smaller even, through the divisions in the ranks of Quebec's organized labor, than they should be in proportion to their numbers in the general population. There is a lesson in this action by the Trades Congress for those Montreal citizens who are so blindly attached to their "rights" under the "tour de role" that they grudged the renomination of so exceptionally good a public servant as Mayor Laporte. When the organized workingmen of Canada can on occasion rise above petty considerations of the rights of this and that nationality, it would seem that a city such as Montreal might do the same.

The Globe has denied, specifically and in toto, Mr. W. F. Maclean's extraordinary charges anent the alleged control of the paper by and in the interests of Senator Cox. But the denial, which was scarcely needed and is given more for formal reasons than any other, is far from the most crushing part of its article. Mr. Maclean has perhaps never been so effectively summed up for what he is than in the following opening sentence: "Nothing more significant, nothing in its way more pitiable, is before the community these days than the spectacle of a public man, a member of Parliament, and his daily paper, uttering without let or hindrance the most damaging statements against great financial institutions and the men who manage them, while nobody, not even the most nervous stock holder or policyholder, pays the slightest attention or manifests the most superficial concern."

BURGLARS NOT SUCCESSFUL.

Quebec, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—A despatch received here from St. Anne de la Pocatiere reports that an attempt was made to rob the accountant's office of the college there early on Saturday morning last. One of the professors heard the noise made by the burglars filing an entrance. He opened a window and discharged a revolver when the figures of several men were seen to run away in the dark. At the same time one of them fired a revolver at the open window.

The Blue Flag of Carillon

It is interesting to note, especially in our Province of Quebec, the diversity of flags that are unfurled to the breeze on a public holiday. The Union Jack, in both its original and provincialized forms; the Irish banner; the Stars and Stripes; the tri-color of France, and in growing importance has also appeared the blue flag of Carillon The last, in its white-crossed azure glory; flying broad and straight against the blue sky in the light of a noon-day sun, is a pretty banner to look at. In soft alluring piles of color it catches the eye in the shops. And, eventually, one wonders with an appealing interest as to what this flag may signify.

In the University of Laval at Quebec there is jealously guarded the original flag of Carillon. For nearly a century and a half this souvenir of the victorious army of France in the New World has been preserved. After the battle of Ticonderoga, or Carillon, it was hung in the Church of the Recollets, at Quebec City, and after the death of the last survivor of that Order it was given into the keeping of the University. To-day it is a sacred souvenir of the past to the Canadians of French descent. Because of their reverence for it they have dignified it to the significance of being almost the national symbol of the people of French Canada, and the blue flag of Carillon is daily becoming more familiar to us.

It is not strange that it is dear to the heart of the "Canadiens." To them it stands for the days when they were a conquering and confident people; the days when Montcalm made the name of France honored, even in the midst of dishonest and corrupt officialdom in high places—the days of success — the days when Canada had but one Fatherland—France. Their poet, Cremazie, has endeared it to them in song, has urged them to keep their faith, their country's honor secure, as did their fathers who bore this banner to battle, a banner which is to-day the sole but "glorious relic of a noble age." It is the spirit of Canadian patriotism, though but locally significant, that has re-awakened the interest in "le drapeau de leurs peres," and has given it a place among our diverse banners of many countries. Montcalm, Levis, Bourlamaque—these are the names that the flag of Carillon recalls to them That dauntless general, who was destined to die at the fall of Quebec, tasted the sweets of victory in battle as well as the bitter of defeat. Indeed he deserved a happier fate, for his soul was as noble in conquest as it was brave in adversity. Even in the hour of the success of the arms of France, he shrank from any self-congratulatory form of expression of his pleasure, and on the battle field of Carillon planted a cross on which was inscribed in Latin:

"Soldier and chief and ramparts strength are nought;
Behold the conquering Cross; 'Tis God the triumph wrought."

The flag of Carillon claims a long and noble descent. In the fifteenth century, in the time of Joan of Arc, is the white cross found in France, and appears on the old asure banner of the Dukes of France, with the fleur de lys as a royal standard in the time of Charles the VII. On the flag that was carried in the battle of Carillon were the arms of France and the image of the Virgin, these having been replaced in the present ones by the white cross and there has also been added the symbol of the Sacred Heart, an innovation that is to be regretted, for it has not emphasized the national meaning of the flag the French-Canadians have chosen.

The question of having a strictly Canadian national flag cannot but receive consideration when the lack of uniformity in the choice of those flags Canadians fly on an occasion of celebration, almost leaves one in doubt as to what part of the world we are in. Imperialists point to the awkward results we have obtained by utilizing the Union Jack, and applying the Canadian coat-of-arms to it, and forcibly deplore any effort to make another popular. That is the Canadian flag, they affirm, and with that we should be satisfied.

The fact that Canadians of French descent have shown a desire to have a flag more distinctly Canadian than the tri-color of France is a sign of the times. Canada is a part of the Empire of Great Britain, it is true, but an integral and individual part. Her individuality is daily becoming more marked, and a very natural result of the growth of her national sentiment would be its expression in a flag distinctly Canadian. Nor would such a wish be disloyal. It would merely be a result of individuality.

The blue flag of Carillon is the result of the "Canadian" influence, however typical it may be of the nationality of its originators. As another flag to be added to our present "many," it may almost be regretted; but as an expression of growing Canadian patriotism it may be welcomed, for it may lead to the day, when, without disloyalty or difference, we may unfurl beside the Union Jack, her child, the Ensign of the Maple Leaf. —Francis Daor.

Are We Perfect on Law and Order?

(Cy Warman in Toronto Globe).

Comparisons are odious, but this one is meant to be. In making it, however, I shall give Canada more than the best of it, geographically. I shall match your staid conservative (but lately Liberal) Ontario with a wild, alleged lawless mining camp of Colorado.

One day a would-be bad man rode up to a tent in Creede Camp, and called to the keeper of the tent. The man inside turned, to face a twin-barrelled shotgun. The murderous coward pulled the trigger, emptying both barrels, killing the dance hall keeper.

Kelly, the killer, said he slew the man, Bob Ford, because the latter had murdered Jesse James. He thought he would be a hero, but Judge John C. Bell said it was murder, sent Kelly to Canon City for life, and they sent Bell to Congress.

The other evening a South African hero took deliberate aim at a house that sheltered women and children. One of the alleged hero's bullets plunged through a little girl, and sent the soul of a lad into eternity. After going through the farce of an inquest the jury let the hero go.

There are a couple of deadly parallels to ponder over when you take your pen in hand to write of the lawless west. To my mind it is all in Kelly's favor. He faced his man in daylight, taking a shade of a chance for Bob Ford was feeling round for his forty-five when he fell.

Your hero took no chances. His friends went ahead, attracted the children to the window, and he let them have it before they could defend themselves. But, after all, I presume it is largely a matter of viewpoint. It may look all right to you here in Ontario, but I'm afraid they would have hanged this hero if he had committed his crime in Creede.

"Dr." Slade's Canadian Experience.

(Hamilton Herald.)

The remarkable career of the late "Dr." Henry Slade, the so-called slate-writing medium, who died recently in a Michigan sanitarium, is the subject of an interesting article in the Woodstock Express. Slade was perhaps the most successful imposter of his class. He was a very clever sleight-of-hand artist and a man of versatile mind. Though not well educated he had picked up a superficial knowledge of an amazing number of things, and his tact and cunning enabled him to pass himself off as a man of culture. In Europe his success was almost equal to that of Cagliostro, the great charlatan of the eighteenth century. He was courted by the great, and was even the guest of royalty both in England and at St. Petersburg. Men of science, shrewd men of the world, and even police detectives were convinced that through his mediumship disembodied spirits did really communicte by writing on slates. His methods were exposed in a London police court by Ray Lankester, the scientist, and Maskelyne, the conjuror, but this exposure did not by any means destroy the faith of fanatical spiritualists in the man. Our Woodstock contemporary mentions this and other exposures, but omits any reference to the most complete and sensational exposure of Slade that ever took place. This happened at Belleville, Ont., about twenty-four years ago, where Slade had been engaged for a week to hold a series of "seances." A committee of half a dozen young men was organized to watch him. One of them was present at each "seance," and by comparing notes they discovered how several of the "spirit communications" were managed—for slate-writing was not the only mediumistic accomplishment of this clever fakir. On the last day came the exposure in the presence of a number of gentlemen. A warrant for Slade's arrest was made out. He confessed everything, explained how he produced his "spirit phenomena," offered to make a full confession in writing, and, crawling on his knees from one to another of the party, and with tears streaming down his face, pleaded for mercy. He was allowed two hours to get out of town.

The story of the exposure produced a big sensation in spiritualistic circles at the time. But Slade as usual had his explanation ready. Safe back in New York, he declared that he was taken captive by a band of low, brutal Canadians, who first drugged him and then, at the point of the revolver, forced a confession out of him. The only drug the man had was good Canadian whiskey, for which he developed an immoderate fondness.

The Express errs in one particular. It says that Robert Browning, the great poet, "satirized Slade unmercifully in his poem on Mr. Sludge." Slade went to Europe in 1876, and Browning's poem, Mr. Sludge, the Medium, was written in 1864. The original of that vigorous poem was D. D. Home, an earlier American medium who created a great sensation in Europe and was petted and lionized in exclusive circles. One of those whom he duped was Mrs. Browning, then residing in Florence, and that is why Browning's wrath was kindled against him and his kind. Sludge, however, would do very well as a pen-portrait of Slade.

Pretty Grudely.

The venerable economist, Edward Atkinson, who recently told a woman how much she ought to spend on dress each year, met in Brookline the other day a young girl.

The gown of this girl was simple and beautiful, and Mr. Atkinson, in his capacity of dress expert, admired it.

"A grudely gown," he said. A pretty grudely gown.

"But I don't know what 'grudely' means," the young girl protested.

"'Grudely' is an epithet of eulogy," said Mr. Atkinson. "It is an obsolete word, preserved in the story of the Northern farmer as extinct flies are sometimes preserved in amber."

"But what is the story of the Northern farmer?"

"I'll tell you," said Mr. Atkinson, smiling. "There was a Northern farmer of the old school who, as he rode Londonward on his grey mare, espied one morning a cozy inn. He stopped before the in door and rapped with his cropstick. A pretty maid appeared.

"'Has 'tou gotten and grudely good beer?' the farmer asked.

"'Yes, sir,' said the maid, and she dropped a courtesy.

"'Then fetch a quart, lass,' said the farmer.

"The quart was brought in a mug of polished pewter and the farmer tossed it off smacked his lips, and said, in a hesitating way:—

"'It seems pretty grudely. Fetch another quart.'

"This too, was brought, and the farmer, after draining it, smiled.

"'It is grudely,' he said. 'A grudely beer. I'll ge' down and have some."

"Sailing" on the Railway."

(London Daily Express).

An enterprising inhabitant of the village of Thames Haven, which is not far from Canvey Island, has discovered a novel possibility in the railway trolly as a mode of conveyance.

With the wind in the right quarter—provided there was enough of it—he found he could, by means of mast and sails, travel at a speed of from twenty to twenty-five miles an hour, by his own computation.

Tacking, was of course, impossible, and consequently, when the breeze was adverse or when the sailing trolly was becalmed, put poles had to be used.

Thames Haven became mildly excited, more especially as the single branch lines which connects the village with the outside world has been recently closed to passenger traffic, and there were immediate suggestions of forming a sailing railway syndicate The more sanguine foresaw the time when such notices as the following would be posted at the Haven terminus:—

"The single-decked sailing trolly White Wings will leave the Haven Station at 9.30 for Stanford-le-Hope, wind and weather permitting. Passengers are requested to bring their own punt poles, in case of a calm."

But the affair has reached the ears of the railway authorities at Fenchurch street and the experiments have been officially forbidden. Consequently the good trolly White Wings will sail no more, and the stirring prospect entertained by young and reckless Havenites of shaking out another topsail in a gale of wind in order to catch the early train to the city have been dashed to the ground.

Tortures of the Aeronaut's Wife.

(Manchester Guardian.)

The aeronaut Baldwin, who has just been blown to pieces in mid air at Greenville, Ohio, writes a correspondent, is, I believe, the man who a few years ago created a great sensation in London, Manchester, and other towns by his parachute descents from a baloon. In my capacity as a journalist I was required to be at one of these performances at the Alexandra Palace, Muswell Hill, and quite by accident I strolled round, a little away from the crowd, to a position from which I could see into a little tent set up in the grounds for the accommodation of the aeronaut. To my great surprise I saw Baldwin taking what appeared to be quite a distressing farewell from his young wife, who evidently had the liveliest sense of the peril of his performance, and who was clinging to him with a pale and tearful face. When, after his successful descent, Baldwin appeared on the theatre stage in the Alexandra Palace and smilingly bowed his acknowledgments of the thunderous applause, I could not help reflecting that not one of that enthusiastic crowd had the faintest idea that the "drop from the clouds" which they had witnessed with thrilling delight had been to at least one solitary watcher a period of the most sickening anguish. That woman has, it appears, lived to stand with her two children and see the father blown to pieces 1,500 feet up in the air, while engaged in amusing a holiday crowd at a country fair.

Miss Gould's Patron Saint.

(Harper's Weekly.)

The following anecdote is being told of Miss Helen Gould: Miss Gould, who is noted for her wit, recently entertained at luncheon a party of little girls from some charitable institution. Afterward, Miss Gould showed the children about her house, pointing out some of its interesting contents.

"This," she said, stopping before a bronze in the hall, "is a statue of Minerva."

"Was she married?" asked a little girl.

"Oh, no, my dear," replied Miss Gould; "you know Minerva was Goddess of Wisdom."

Mark Twain's Retort.

(Boston Herald).

Mark Twain had finished his speech at a dinner party, and on seating himself a lawyer rose, shoved his hands deep into his trousers pockets, as was his habit, and laughingly inquired of those present: "Doesn't it strike the company as a little unusual that a professional humorist should be funny?"

When the laugh that greeted this sally had subsided Mark Twain drawled out: "Doesn't it strike the company as a little unusual that a lawyer should have his hands in his own pockets?"

Mushrooms Made of Apples.

(Chicago Chronicle).

"It has been a good mushroom season," said a grocer. "The mushrooms have been so plentiful and cheap that little use has been made of adulterants."

"Adulterants? Do they adultreate fresh mushrooms?"

"Yes, with apples. There is a little machine that cuts apples up into the mushroom shape. The fruit is pared and tossed whole into the large end of this machine. It comes out of the small end in the form of pretty little white mushrooms.

"But don't think when you go to your high-class, advertising grocer for mushrooms that you get the adulterated ones. You don't. If you did you would detect the adulteration at once.

"Adulterated mushrooms go to big cheap restaurants, where 'steak and mushrooms' only cost a quarter. They go also to cheap canners with a large trade."

Courting.

How lovingly they sit!
How sweet it is to watch them!
They do not care a bit,
Although her pa may catch them,
She listens with delight
To every word he utters,
The big electric light
Close by the couple sputters.

Her hand is in his hand,
Her head is on his shoulder,
His arm is—well, good land!
They couldn't be much bolder.
The people passing stare
And make remarks ungentle.
But, bless you, they don't care
A single continental.

But, seated in a park
I would not woo a lady,
I like it where it's dark—
At least, where it is shady.
It's not that I would mind,
I think it would be grand to,
But I'm convinced I'd find
I hadn't got the sand to.

Enriched by Vest Buttons.

(London Daily News).

One of the most absurd misprints I have known for a long while occurred the other day in a nswapeper which, alluding to the consolidation of the Astor, Lenox, and Tilden libraries of New York, stated that "New York, perhaps, has never fully realised until this day how greatly it has been enriched by the receipt of the vest buttons of James Lennox." No one could make out what the "vest buttons" of Mr. Lennox had to do with the library, until it was discovered that for "vest buttons" one ought to have read "vast bequests."

The Economical Kaiser.

At times the German Emperor, always very saving of his money, pushes his economy to the verge of niggardliness. When he visited Constantinople some time ago he was magnificently received and was loaded down with handsome presents. During his stay he instructed an aid to distribute the usual presents among the Turkish servants attached to his persons, but carefully limited the total amount. When the aid offered a dollar to the head coachman the latter said with perfect respect: "No, thank you, I am not thirsty."

Mr. Monk and Leadership.

(Ottawa Journal).

Mr. Monk's sincerity and honesty are nowhere questioned. But a habit of thought, which in the case of a less ponderous personality would be described as peevishness, prevents him from reaping the fruits even of a local leadership. Mr. Tarte after his retirement from the Dominion ministry, had seen fit to forswear his allegiance to the person of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Monk as a possible leader of the French Canadians in Dominion politics would have quickly disappeared.

Married in Her Pet Name.

(Chicago Correspondence).

"Pet names for a sweetheart may be all right in courtship, but they ought not to be carried as far as the marriage license window," commented License Clerk Salmonson upon receiving a letter from the Rev. William A. Quayle, of this city, explaining an error in a license issued a few days ago for the wedding of Ephraim Davis to "Miss Dallas Texas."

The correct name of the young woman before her marriage was Catherine Dallas, and her "pet" name was "Dallas Texas." The Rev. Mr. Quayle ascribed the mistake to a "rattled condition of the bridegroom" when Mr. Davis applied for the marriage license. The record has been corrected.

Quebec.—Rev. Father Bacon, cure of L'Islet, died at the presbytery in that parish. He was sixty years of age, and had previously held charges at Berthier, Notre Dame de Latteriere, Saguenay, and had acted as prefect of studies at the College of Ste. Anne de la Pocattere. The funeral takes place on Monday.

"First Aid" to the Bowels

DOCTOR CASCARET

Office - In your own Vest Pocket

On call any Minute - Day or Night

When Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Headache, Bad Breath, Coated Tongue, Belching of Stomach Gas, or any of these forerunners of Indigestion appear, Old Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot in your pocket.

He wants to check the coming trouble instantly before it can grow into a habit of the Bowels to be costive.

Ladies, who extend to Dr. Cascaret the hospitality of their Purses or their Dress Pockets, will be rewarded with a fine complexion, and healthy Happiness.

These will about fifty times repay for the trifling space occupied, and the ten cents per week at cost.

Dr. Cascaret guarantees to cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation and Indigestion, without discomfort or inconvenience.

His medicine does not gripe nor purge, nor create a drug habit.

Because it is not a "Bile-driver," nor a Gastric-Juice Waster, but a direct Tonic to the Bowel Muscles.

It exercises naturally the muscles that line the walls of the Intestines and Bowels.

Want of Exercise weakens and relaxes these Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg muscles.

Old Dr. Cascaret goes directly after these Bowel-Muscles. He wakes them up just as a cold bath would wake up a lazy person.

Then he works them (through the nerves) till they get so strong from that Exercise that they don't need any more help to do their duty.

But Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot, in your Pocket or Purse, where he can regulate these Bowel-Muscles all the time, in health, and out of health.

Because, even the strongest Bowel-Muscles may be overworked.

Heavy dinners, late suppers, whiskey, wine or beer drinking, nervous excitement, sudden exposure to cold or heat and a dozen other every day likelihoods tire the Bowel Muscles.

In such cases a little Cascaret is time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

Old Dr. Cascaret carried constantly in your Vest Pocket, or in "My Lady's" Purse is the cheapest kind of Health-Insurance, and Happiness - Promotion, that ever happened.

The Standard.

PHENOMENAL RUSH FOR THE STANDARD

The greatest reception ever given to a new paper. Thousands disappointed in trying to purchase copies. All the editions sold out in three hours. Excitement in Ottawa, Quebec and Toronto over the New Journal. Outside cities ask for thousands of copies.

The delivery of The Standard commenced punctually at 7.30 a.m. on Saturday.

By 10 o'clock thousands upon thousands were in the hands of dealers, and by 11 a.m. every copy of all the large editions were sold, with hundreds of orders unfilled and urgent demands for supplies coming by telegraph and every mail

The first subscriber was Hon. J. C. McCorkill, the Provincial Treasurer. The first man in Canada to get a copy was Hon. Senator Cox of Toronto.

To give an idea of how the orders came, we quote from the order blotter.

Here are samples of the telegrams :—

OTTAWA, 23rd September, 1905.

The sale of The Standard in Ottawa was quite an event. The demand here was very large, and the dealers sold out inside of an hour. Amongst those to get the early copies were Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Sir Richard's Secretary, Sir James Grant, H. J. Morgan, Parliamentary Librarian, Mr. S. E. Dawson, Queen's Printer, and the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod. The paper came in for cordial praise with the crowd, and it is the universal opinion that nothing like it has been seen in Canada.

TORONTO, September 23rd, 1905.

The Standard rather startled the Toronto people. They expected a good paper, but were not prepared for anything so attractive. The first man to secure a copy was Hon. Senator Cox. Amongst the first to get copies were Lieut.-Gov. Sir Mortimer Clarke, Hon. George E. Foster, M.P., Mr. E. B. Osler, M.P., and Sir Wm. Mulock. The Standard came in for unstinted praise. There is only one opinion.

In Montreal amongst the first to receive copies were Hon. Senator Mackay, Mr. R. Bickerdike, M.P., Mayor Laporte, Mr. C. M. Hays, Rev. Dr. Barclay, and Mr. E. S. Clouston.

All day Saturday complimentary letters and messages were pouring into The Standard office, and they were all as cordial as those here quoted:

Dear Mr. Murray, OTTAWA, Sept. 23rd, 1905.

Let me congratulate you on the success of The Standard.

The first number is magnificent, as good as anything of the sort we have ever seen in America or Europe. The paper also possesses features of its own which add to its interest and enhance its value. May it have a long life and useful one.

Always yours, HENRY J. MORGAN.

This is very, very fine, Its equal, I think, has not been produced in the world of American journalism. MAYOR LAPORTE.

Simply grand. A credit to Canada. I have never seen its equal. JAMES McSHANE.

A very fine paper. It deserves to succeed. The illustrations are superb. MAJOR SEATH.

The Standard is full of extremely interesting matter and is likely to fill a long felt nced. REV. DR. SYMONDS.

The Standard is extremely rich in material of interest. W. D. LIGHTHALL.

An excellent paper in every respect. W. J. LEARMONT.

The matter and illustrations are equally good and that is saying a lot. C. A. HOWARD

A great paper—greater than the public have ever been led to expect. Any one may justly feel proud of it, and it will do a very great deal to make Canada better known abroad.—Daily Gazette.

The Standard is a surprise to the public. In justice to the publishers it must be said they have more than lived up to their promises.—The Daily Star.

The Standard will bear inspection, and inspection is almost certain to result in universal approval.—Daily Herald.

The publishers, while appreciative of the kind words of admiring readers, are not unmindful of the fact that in many respects the paper can be improved.

The Standard office was thronged with people clamoring for supplies and the telephone was kept busy carrying orders. By ten o'clock it was seen that the supply would run short of the orders, but it was not even surmised for a moment that so large a demand would set in as developed by 11 a. m., when every copy was gone and hundreds of orders only half filled.

FINLAND IS ON VERGE OF REVOLT

All Parties Are Preparing For Uprising Against Russia

St. Petersburg, Sept. 25.—An article in the Novoe Vremya, which bears marks of inspiration, intimating that all parties in Finland are preparing for an uprising, and that the country is on the verge of revolt, is attracting much attention. Finlanders fear that the article was put forth in behalf of the Russian administration in Finland in order to justify more vigorous military measures, or even a declaration of martial law, as has been threatened by the Emperor. There is reason to believe that the recent importation of rifles into Finland was arranged by those favoring active resistance, and who are working in cooperation with terroristic and revolutionary organizations in other parts of Russia and especially with the socialist revolutionaries in the Baltic provinces, to precipitate a revolution. The constitutionalists, however, do not look with favor upon attempts to bring about an uprising in Finland, which undoubtedly would result, like the Polish revolution of 1863, in useless bloodshed and suffering, and measures for sterner repression. They prefer to work along the lines as the Russian reformers and are exerting steady and stubborn pressure against all measures for Russification.

LARGE FORCES OF TROOPS.

Helsingfors, Sept. 25.—Large forces of troops are already been drafted into Finland. Over 1,200 men arrived at Helsingfors to reinforce the garrison of Sveaborg, which is adjacent to Helsingfors and garrisons at other points have also been reinforced by between 700 and 1,000.

PRESIDENT PALMA'S PARTY WON OUT

Liberals Defeated in Cuban Elections—No Disorders Reported

Havana, Sept. 25.—The election here passed off quietly and telegrams from the interior say there were no disorders except at Placetas, Santa Clara province, where many shots were fired, but no one was killed.

The Liberals admit the complete victory in Havana of the Moderates, the party of President Palma. They claim that they did not vote because Moderate policemen stationed at the polls prevented them doing so. A representative of the Associated Press visited a majority of the polls here, but at none of them noted any indication of restraint upon voters.

Good order is being maintained throughout the city, and with the exception of a man being shot and probably fatally injured in a row, and another being seriously hurt by being struck on the head by a stone, there has been no trouble

Crowds which gathered in the Liberal clubrooms were dismissed by orators, who informed them that the Moderates were victorious and requested Liberals to retire to their homes. The Liberal Club was closed and barricaded. A number of Liberals say that this was done because they had received word that the Government intended to search the place for arms.

Returns from the entire island confirm the complete victory of the Government in the elections for members of the boards of registration. There were no important disorders.

LABOR ATTACKS CANADIAN SENATE

Congress Decides Against Even an Elective Body

Toronto, Sept. 25.—Another frontal attack was made on the Senate by the Trades and Labor Congress on Saturday. A resolution moved by Mr. Todd was submitted. This recommended that the Congress "take action by requesting the different trades councils and local unions affiliated with the Congress to demand of all candidates offering for general or Federal bye-elections a definite pledge to the effect that they will support a motion in the following session of Parliament having for its purport opposition to the granting of the usual and recently increased financial support for the Senate."

"I don't agree with your preamble," said the secretary. "You've called the Senate a political graveyard."

"We've been resoluting in an effort to abolish the Senate," said Mr. Todd. "What I want is to do something practical. You may abolish the whole preamble if you like. What I want to see is the abolition of the Senate. This is a practical way to fight it."

The resolution, minus the preamble, was adopted.

The Congress expressed itself as in actual agreement with the manufacturers in one point out of one hundred. The point of agreement was the necessity of uniting to secure technical instruction; a resolution on which stated that whereas the Dominion and Provincial Governments lack greatly in schools of technical education and are very much behind Germany, France and the United States in matters of technical education; and whereas the United States are our most serious competitors in trade, it was resolved that the incoming executives be instructed to appeal to the Federal and Provincial Government to enact such legislation and make such appropriations as will permit the mechanics and artizans of Canada the privilege of technical education, on lines of civil and electric engineering, chemistry, wood-carving, modelling, etc.

MR. GALLERY TELLS OF HIS ELECTION

St. Ann's Member Emphatically Repudiates Imputation of Corruption

Ald. D. Gallery, M.P., for St. Ann's, was kept busy on Saturday morning answering a fusilade of questions as to how he came to be elected. A majority of votes was the view of the matter taken by Mr. Gallery who scouted any idea of corrupt proceedings and declared with emphasis that no such thing was necessary, because he could have sat in his office and been elected. As to the exact amount of money he spent on the election, Mr. Gallery could not give details, because he had not kept an elaborate series of accounts as Ald. Ames did, but gave his agents money as they needed it. No regular canvassing was done, the main efforts being to locate the voters so as to get them out on polling day, and to prevent telegraphing by the other side.

Mr. Gallery said he had secured two committee rooms, one at the Mechanics Institute, in charge of Francis McCabe, a school master and the other on St. Maurice Street, in charge of a custom house clerk named Edmund Redmond. To both of these Mr. Gallery said he had given money as they required it for legitimate work, but he could not say just how much.

A strong effort was made by Mr. Bisaillon to establish agency on the part of Messrs. Boucher and Roffey, a tailoring firm on Notre Dame Street, but Mr. Gallery denied having ever given them money or been in any way connected with them on the election work.

A butcher named James O'Grady, next furnished material for a series of questions. Mr. Bisaillon laying considerable stress upon the fact that Mr. Gallery had aided this man to start in business. Mr. Gallery said that this matter had nothing to do with the election, that about eight months before the election he had assisted Mr. O'Grady, who had repaid him the loan in May, 1903, polling occurring in November of the same year.

Ald. Gallery said he had another committee room in Ottawa Street, which was in charge of John Killoran and Martin Fitzgerald. This, he said was run just as the others. Fitzgerald engaging such locations as were needed, securing the necessary funds, light, rent and wages, etc., from Mr. Gallery.

As to election day, Mr. Gallery said his time was taken up preventing telegraphers operating for his opponent, he having charge of a whole district.

So Godwin, showing nothing in his face of the doubt that he felt in his heart, patted Flame upon the neck, and, after hanging back a little, the horse started lifting its hoofs high and glancing from side to side at the terrible gulf beneath. Where Flame went Smoke knew that it could go, and came on bravely, but snorting a little, while the mules, that did not fear heights so long as the ground was firm beneath their feet, followed. Only Masouda's horse was terrified, backed, and strove to wheel round, till she drove the spur into it, when of a sudden it started and came over at a gallop.

At length they were across, and, passing under another gateway which had broad terraces on either side of it, rode up the long street beyond and entered a great courtyard, around which stood the castle, a vast and frowning fortress. Here a white-robed officer came forward, greeting them with a low bow, and with him servants who assisted them to dismount. These men took the horses to a range of stables on one side of the courtyard, whither the brethren followed to see their beasts groomed and fed. Then the officer, who had stood patiently by the while, conducted them through doorways and down passages to the guest chambers, large, stone-roofed rooms, where they found their baggage ready for them. Here Masouda said that she could see them again on the following morning, and departed in company with the officer.

Wulf looked round the great vaulted chamber, which, now that the dark had fallen, was lit by flickering lamps set in iron brackets upon the wall, and said:

"Well, for my part, I had rather pass the night in a desert among the lions than in this dismal place."

Scarcely were the words out of his lips when curtains swung aside and beautiful women entered, clad in gauzy veils and bearing dishes of food. These they placed upon the ground before them, inviting them to eat with nods and smiles, while others brought basins of scented water, which they poured over their hands. Then they sat down and ate the food that was strange to them, but very pleasant to the taste; and while they ate, women whom they could not see sang sweet songs, and played upon harps and lutes. Wine was offered to them also; but of this, remembering Masouda's words, they would not drink, asking by signs for water, which was brought after a little pause.

When their meal was done, the beautiful women bore away the dishes, and black slaves appeared. These led them to baths such as they had never seen, where they washed first in hot water, then in cold. Afterwards they were rubbed with spicy-smelling oils, and having been wrapped in white robes, conducted back to their chamber, where they found beds spread for them. On these, being very weary, they lay down, when the strange, sweet music broke out afresh, and to the sound of it they fell asleep.

When they awoke it was to see the light streaming through the high, latticed windows.

"Did you sleep well, Godwin?" asked Wulf.

"Well enough," answered his brother, "only I dreamed that throughout the night people came and looked at me."

"I dreamed that also," said Wulf; "moreover, I think that it was not all a dream, since there is a coverlet on my bed which was not there when I went to sleep."

Godwin looked at his own; where also was another coverlet added, doubtless as the night grew colder in that high place.

"I have heard of enchanted castles," he said; "now I think that we have found one."

"Ay," replied Wulf, "and it is well enough while it lasts."

They rose and dressed themselves, putting on clean garments and their best cloaks, that they had brought with them on the mules, after which the veiled women enterd the room with breakfast, and they ate. When this was finished, having nothing else to do, they made signs to one of the women that they wished for cloths wherewith to clean their armour, for, as they had been bidden, they pretended to understand no word of Arabic. She nodded, and presently returned with a companion carrying leathers and paste in a jar. Nor did they leave them, but, sitting upon the ground, whether the brethren willed it or no, took the shirts of mail and rubbed them till they shone like silver, while Godwin and Wulf polished their helms, spurs, and bucklers, cleansing their swords and daggers also, and sharpening them with a stone which they carried for that purpose.

Now as these women worked, they began to talk to each other in a low voice, and some of their talk, though not all, the brethren understood.

"A handsome pair truly," said the first. "We should be fortunate if we had such men for husbands, although they are Franks and infidels."

"Ay," answered the other; "and from their likeness they must be twins. Now which of them would you choose?"

Then for a long while they discussed them, comparing them feature by feature and limb by limb, until the brethren felt their faces grow red beneath the sunburn and scrubbed furiously at their armor to show a reason for it. At length one of the women said:

"It was cruel of the lady Masouda to bring these birds into the Master's net. She might have warned them."

"Masouda was ever cruel," answered the other, "who hates all men, which is unnatural. Yet I think if she loved a man she would love him well, and perhaps that might be worse for him than her hate."

"Are these knights spies?" asked the first.

"I suppose so," was the answer, "silly fellows who think that they can spy upon a nation of spies. They would have done better to keep to fighting, at which, doubtless, they are good enough. What will happen to them?"

"What always happens, I suppose—a pleasant time at first; then, if they can be put to no other use, a choice between the faith and the cup. Or, perhaps, as they seem men of rank, they may be imprisoned in the dungeon tower and held to ransom. Yes, yes; it was cruel of Masouda to trick them so, who may be but travellers after all, desiring to see our city."

Just then the curtain was drawn, and through it entered Masouda herself. She was dressed in a white robe that had a dagger worked in red over the left breast, and her long black hair fell upon her shoulders, although it was half hid by the veil, open in front, which hung from her head. Never had they seen her look so beautiful as she seemed thus.

"Greetings, brothers Peter and John. Is this fit work for pilgrims?" she said in French, pointing to the long swords which they were sharpening.

"Ay," answered Wulf, as they rose and bowed to her, "for pilgrims to this—holy city."

The women who were cleaning the mail bowed also, for it seemed that here Masouda was a person of importance. She took the hauberks from their hands.

"Ill cleansed," she said sharply. "I think that you girls talk better than you work. Nay, they must serve. Help these lords to don them. Fools, that is the shirt of the gray-eyed knight. Give it me; I will be his squire," and she snatched the hauberk from their hands, whereat, when her back was turned, they glanced at one another.

"Now," she said, when they were fully armed and had donned their mantles, "you brethren look as pilgrims should. Listen, I have a message for you. The Master"—and she bowed her head, as did the women, guessing of whom she spoke—"will receive you in an hour's time, till when, if it please you, we can walk in the gardens, which are worth seeing."

So they went out with her, and as they passed towards the curtain she whispered:

"For your lives' sake, remember all that I have told you—above everything, about the wine and the ring, for if you dream the drink-dream you will be searched. Speak no word to me save of common matters."

WEST INDIES MUST UNITE WITH CANADA

Self Interest and Patriotism Point to Political and Commercial Union

Mr. John Whyte, managing director of the Whyte Packing Company, whose factory is at Stratford, Ont., is in Montreal on business connected with the company's export warehouse in St. Paul Street. He is very strongly in favor of the admission of the British West Indies into the Dominion of Canada.

In conversation with a Herald representative Mr. Whyte said he was convinced that if the West Indies entered the Canadian Confederation they would open up a new field for Canadian produce and in all probability Canadian manufactures that would be of enormous advantage to this country. When in the West Indies last year he devoted some attention to commerce and transportation, and from what he saw he judged that there were many things that Canada could supply. By far the greater part of the trade of the West Indies was done with the United States, but that was not because the West Indians preferred to deal with Americans. On the contrary, they would rather if they could have business relations with Canada, but were unable to for the reason that practically all the fast steamship lines ran to United States ports, principally New York and Boston, and the facilities for direct transportation with the Dominion, although improving, were still very imperfect.

"Don't you think," The Herald representative asked, "that the political disadvantages of such a union would outweigh the commercial advantages that you have just described?"

"I admit there are difficulties and disadvantages, such as the extraordinary disproportion of the white as compared with the black population and the consequent impossibility of extending the franchise and the privileges of self-governing institutions to all classes of the people. Still the advantages you could set against these are, I venture to think, more important still. Among exporters I can assure you there is quite a strong feeling in support of the movement."

"Some people have declined to look upon it as a rather fantastic idea—that it had rather too much of an Imperialist flourish for the practical business man?"

"I do not think so at all. Just think what an advantage it would be to the Canadian consumer to have the best sugar duty free, as it would be if the West Indies joined the Canadian Confederation. The feeling in favor of the union is not by any means confined to the Maritime Provinces or to Halifax, where the Board of Trade put forward the idea very seriously and obtained for it a good deal of support."

"You think there should be an extension of the transportation facilities between Canada and the West Indies?"

"I do; I think we should have a fast line from Montreal in the summer months and St. John, N.B., in winter. Of course the trade is not sufficiently developed at present, but it only needs looking after. Just think of nineteen vessels sailing every week from Boston to some port or other of the West Indies, and not one from Montreal, where there is a great demand for fruit and other tropical products which has to be met chiefly by transportation through American territory, and to no small extent through the enterprise of American firms.

"Canada could and should have a considerable share of the trade for self-interest and patriotism would be strong factors in directing it into Canadian channels. I do not say that an alliance with Canada is likely to come immediately, but I think the question should be looked upon in the light of one of the possibilities of the future."

CANNOT ACCEPT KING'S PROPOSAL

Hungarian Leaders Decline to Meet Emperor Francis Joseph's Views

Vienna, Sept. 25.—Count Cziraky, who was appointed by the King-Emperor, Francis Joseph, to negotiate with the leaders of the coalition parties in the Hungarian Diet, with a view to the formation of a Hungarian Cabinet, had a conference with these leaders at the Hotel Bristol, lasting for an hour and a half. It is understood that the Count received from them a written declaration to the effect that they would be unable to resume the responsibility of government on the conditions imposed by His Majesty, as these conditions were directly in opposition to their personal views, and also in opposition to the mandate of the people at the last election.

It is admitted here that the situation is now worse than ever and Count Cziraky's mission is considered hopeless. Considerable excitement prevails in political circles and the developments of the next few days are anxiously awaited.

The King-Emperor received the five leaders of the Hungarian coalition at the palace in Vienna Saturday and after outlining the conditions on which he would sanction a ministry under the control of the coalition, suggested that the leaders enter into negotiations with Count Goluchowski, the minister of the Imperial and royal household, relative to the formation of a Cabinet. They declined to negotiate with Count Goluchowski, declaring that if the King-Emperor did not want to negotiate directly with the leaders, he ought to appoint a Hungarian go-between and not an Austrian. Later His Majesty appointed Count Cziraky.

NO UNDUE HASTE.

Budapest, September 25.—All parties here discuss without excitement the meeting between the King-Emperor and the coalition leaders Saturday, and the conference between the leaders and Count Cziraky. They describe the King-Emperor's condition as an ultimatum which cannot be accepted by the Hungarian nation. The entire press is united in warning the people to act with reserve, pointing out that prudent observance of the law is their best weapon.

FIRST WEEK

A Dutchman with a goat and a goose met a milkmaid leading a cow, whereupon the maiden screamed with terror.

"What frightens you?" asked Hans.

"You are going to kiss me against my will," said the coy maid.

"How can I do that with these cranky animals on my hands?" asked Hans.

"What prevents you from thrusting your cane into the ground so as to fasten the goat to it and then put your goose under my pail?" queried the maiden.

"Because that cross-looking cow might hook me," said Hans.

"Oh, that fool cow wouldn't hook nobody, and what is to prevent you from driving all three of them into my pasture field?" replied the terrified maiden. And right here comes the most interesting puzzle, for during the subsequent discussion following the facts developed: They found that the goat and the goose together would eat just as much grass as the cow, so if that field would pasture the cow and the goat for 45 days, or the cow and the goose 60 days, or the goat and the goose for 90 days, how long would it pasture the cow, the goat and the goose? Early replies are requested, as Hans and Katrina are contemplating a speedy partnership.

MONTREALS HAD FINE PRACTICE

Two Teams Went Through an Hour's Hard, Fast Work

The best practice of the season of the Montreal football squad was held Saturday afternoon, fully thirty seniors and intermediates appearing in uniform. Two complete fourteens were in the play throughout, and the quality of the work performed presages well for the success of the colors Saturday next when the red and black open the season at Ottawa with St. Patrick's.

The members of the squad showed eagerness to get in the valrus plays and gave evidence that the past two weeks practices have put the majority in good shape. Billy Murphy and Benedict were new men in uniform.

On the wings Percy Christmas, W. Murphy, P. Molson, W. Molson, Benedict, Ewing and Fred. Roberts put up good work against the senior scrimmage and backs.

The play of the intermediate back division consisting of Ted Savage, E. Russell, Madill and McLean was better than that composing the seniors Gordon, Craig, J. McLean, Alex. Christmas and Bert Molson. The latter had the fast wings to contend against, and did not get many opportunities for runs. Hannaford and McAllen played splendidly in scrimmage. Others out were Gale, Davidson, Kemp, Denhan, Marlow, Ryan, Johnston, Simon, Cameron, Marshall and Chipchase.

Lessor, Percy Roberts, Phil McKenzie, Vittie and S. Rayside will be in the game during the present week.

A practice will be held Monday night when other workouts will be arranged. It is likely a practice will be arranged for Thursday night.

NARROW ESCAPES AT AUTOMOBILE RACES

Mineola, L.I., Sept. 25.—In the elimination automobile races Saturday, by which five American cars were to be selected to enter the W. K. Vanderbilt cup race, on October 14, A. L. Pope's sixty-horse power car, driven by Albert C. Dingley, made the best time over the 113.2 miles course, going the distance in two hours and fifty seconds. This time is three and three quarters miles an hour better than Heath, who won the cup last year, made in his 90-horse power machine. The four other cars that qualified for the big race in to-day's trial were Dr. H. E. Thomas' 90-horse power machine, driven by Joseph Tracy, which came in second, going the distance in two hours one minute and nine seconds. E. D. Shurman's 40-horse power car, driven by Robert Jardine, was third, time, two hours, nineteen minutes and eighteen seconds. Elwood Haynes, 50-horse power car, driven by Frank Nutt, came in fourth in two hours, 23 minutes and 32 seconds, whilst the fifth car was H. S. Houpt's 60-horse power car, driven by Montague Roberts, in two hours, 29 minutes and 45 seconds. Haynes got away first at 5.30, followed two minutes later by Dingley. The other entrants followed at two minute intervals. The course was four times around an irregular triangle of 28.3 miles.

There were no serious accidents during the race, although Jardine, in Shurman's car had a narrow escape when his car turned turtle. He jumped and with the help of spectators, righted the machine and proceeded.

Ed. Shurman's forty horse power car turned turtle at the junction of the Glencove Road, and the Old Swearing Pond Road, east of Albertson, while making the third lap. Robert Jardine who was steering, approached the short turn at this spot under full head, and when the car turned over a shout went up from the spectators, who feared that Jardine and his machinist were killed. The machinist, however jumped as the car turned. He was somewhat shaken up but not injured. Jardine managed to shut off the power before he was pitched out of the car. He also escaped injury. It was found that the steering wheel and rod were bent by the overturning of the car, but this was soon remedied and Jardine resumed the race. The accident caused a delay of only three minutes.

INTERESTING FOURSOME AT BROOKLYN SATURDAY

Brooklyn, Mass., Sept. 25.—Following the open golf championship at Myopia Friday, an interesting foursome tournament for both amateurs and professionals was held Saturday at the Country Club and Devereaux Emmett, of the Garden City Club, playing with Stewart Gardner, the professional, of the same club, won with a net score of 154 for 36 holes.

Amateurs and professionals were paired, playing a best ball foursome in the morning, and a two ball foursome in the afternoon. The club offered substantial prizes in plate and money for the leaders of the day's play and also for the best work for each 18 holes. Emmett won the first cup, while Gardner received $100 and $25 in addition for the best score in the morning round.

The second prize went to W. Stiles, of Allston, and Will Maguire, of the same club, whose total of 155 gave the former a cup and the latter $50.

There was a tie for third place at 156, between G. F. Willett of the Oakley Club, playing with Alec. Smith of Nassau, and M. Fred O'Connell, of Fitchburg, playing with George Cummings of Toronto. The professionals received $50. There was a triple tie for the last prize at 158, and the three professionals, George Low, of Baltimore, Matt. Campbell, of the Country Club, and P. F. Barrett of Toronto, received $10 each. O'Connell and Cummings also received a special prize in the best score in the two ball foursome. W. A. Chandler, Worcester, playing with P. Robertson, Buffalo, scored 165; G. H. Lyall, Salem, and J. H. Oke, Ottawa, 166; H. Thacher, Country Club, and C. R. Murray, Royal Montreal, 162; R. F. Tilney, Country Club, and D. Robertson, Toronto, 176. Much was expected of Willie Anderson, the open champion, who played with Mr. A. G. Lockwood, of Allston, but both players showed the effects of the strain of the previous days. Their total was 169.

SHAMROCKS CHAMPIONS OF WORLD

The Shamrocks, champions of the National Amateur Lacrosse Union, defeated the Athletics of St. aCtharines, champions of the Canadian Lacrosse Association, Saturday in the second and final match for the Minto Cup, by 8 goals to 1, winning the round by 13 goals to 4, the scores being:

Sept. 16—Shamrocks 5, Athletics 3.
Sept. 23—Shamrocks 8, Athletics 1.
Total—Shamrocks 13, Athletics 4.

The Shamrocks therefore have a clear margin of 9 goals to establish their right to the envied title, champions of the world.

As a lacrosse match, Saturday's struggle was not absorbingly interesting, as the Athletics, far from playing up to the form they displayed in the first game, were outclassed from the start in every department.

Those who saw the initial match of the series predicted and expected that the deciding contest would be of the brand that lives in history. It was not a fake and the Athletics were very much in the game at every stage. Had they used their heads properly they would have given the famous Irishmen harder battle for the laurels. Their mistakes were pointed out to them during the ensuing week and it was naturally expected that with their knowledge of their blunders and with the coaching they got in Cornwall, they would loosen the Minto Cup's foundations.

A BIG CROWD.

In anticipation of a match to remember 5,000 people journeyed to the Mile End grounds Saturday only to suffer disappointment with a shiver or two thrown in. It was ideal football weather, cold, raw and breezy, and after the first enthusiastic outburst or two, the spectators sat back in cold silence. Any applause that rent the atmosphere in the last half of the match was due to the Shamrocks, for if the Athletics deserved any encomiums, that fact could not be discerned with the nude optic.

Before the match, Jack Richardson one of the Athletics' defence men, observed that his team was either going to play a whirlwind game or else go very much to the bad. The score indicates rather clearly which happened. The challenger's play was punkest of the punk. Their home couldn't shoot, pass nor catch, and their defence allowed themselves to be drawn out on the least provocation. Hess, their goalkeeper, spent a very disagreeable afternoon, as the protection given to him was so weak that shots were fairly showered on him. He stopped many, but he could not be expected to stop them all, as the Irishmen were shooting hard and often and from sudden angles.

THE ATHLETICS STARS.

Cameron and Richardson were the only players in front of him to play up to standard. As in the first game, Cameron starred from the toot of the whistle. None of the Shamrock homeplayers had anything on him and once when Jim Kavanagh came down and attacked, he bested Jim in a skirmish. After his two exhibitions here Cameron can well be placed in class A. Richardson deserves honorable mention for he put up a steady, useful game.

On the Athletics' home,. Kalls scintillated occasionally, but he seemed averse to taking chances. Twice he did take chances and performed stunts that s[et] the spectators cheering. The other home men were just so-so.

SHAMROCKS ALL GOOD.

With the Shamrocks, the case was radically different. In the previous game, they played better than they had in any N. A. L. U. game this season, but Saturday they showed vast improvement. The entire team worked like a piece of generously-lubricated machinery and scores of times their attacks were inaugurated by Johnnie Howard at point and concluded by Johnnie Hogan at inside home. They played fast, clever scientific lacrosse and at all times did their prowess overshadow that of the visitors.

There wasn't a flaw in their performance. Just as soon as Referee Joe Lally tooted his whistle they set sail under a full spread of canvas and at no time was a stitch of that canvas pulled in. They were out to win by as large a majority of goals as possible and they did not show the challengers any more leniency than the law allows.

SHAMROCKS METHODS'

Instead of pursuing any circuitous methods, they played from goal to goal, indulging in no more field work than they could possibly help. The defence stayed close in on the flags, staved off the Athletics' home, and when relieving, made long, swift passes to Currie or Hennessy at centre. In this way the energies of the Shamrocks were conserved and they were fresh and strong when the full time whistle blew.

On the other hand, the Athletics passed loosely, caught indifferently and fought shy of the Shamrocks' goalcrease. They met with a woeful lack of success when they tried to penetrate the Shamrocks' defence and after the first quarter, it was painfully evident that the challengers would be much busier keeping their opponents' score down than in piling up one of their own.

They were outgeneraled in every department. Their home's attempt to score were almost too sad to describe and the number of shots Casey had to stop could be counted on one lilywhite hand. Their defence was strong at times, but for the most part, it was easily gulled by the astute Shamrocks, whose lightning passes appeared to bewilder them.

Defeated C.L.A. Champions by Comfortable Margin of 9 Goals in Minto Cup Series

The St. Kitts' rooters were fain to remark in loud rasping tones, "Fudge" on so many occasions that their vocal organs were badly frayed by the time the match ended.

ARCHAIC LACROSSE.

Barring the absence of long throws, the Athletics played archaic lacrosse while the Shamrocks were right on the spot with the crisp brand new article. What chance obsolete methods with those that are up-to-date is evidenced by the score.

Not a Shamrock player was there who was not too foxy for his cover—Don Cameron always excepted, Hogan, the two Brennans, Hoobin, Currie, Kenny, McIlwaine, Reilly Kavanagh, Howard, and Casey, all played cyclonic lacrosse and no other team in the world would have beaten them Saturday. They were all on edge.

Currie, in his younger days, never played better lacrosse than he did Saturday and for all the use he was to the Athletics, Forrester might just as well have been enjoying himself at some corn-husking bee.

After the match both President John Dawson and Secretary Joe Timmons expressed disappointment at the result. The substance of their remarks was: "Dunno, what the matter was, but our boys played lacrosse they would be ashamed of in their native town. No cohesion, no speed, no skill, no nothing. It was a sad blow to our vanity but you may stake your last cent. that we'll profit by our experience."

TEAMS MADE MONEY.

Speaking of profit, the Athletics did not fare so badly in a financial way. The total receipts of the two games were about $5,000, of which the Athletics get half after the expenses for grounds, attendants and advertising are paid. They should get about $2,-000 as their share and as their expenses on the trip did not amount to over $1,000, they should have a nice little bundle of coin to take back to St. Catherines.

The Athletics were banquetted in the evening at the La Corona and had the melancholy satisfaction of drinking champagne out of the Minto Cup. Expressions of good will and good cheer were exchanged and the defenders and challengers parted the best of friends.

THE GAME ITSELF.

Of th play it need only be said that it was clean and insofar as the Shamrocks were concerned, fast. Referee Lally penalized for every foul, no matter how apparently insignificant, and few escaped his keen vision.

The Shamrocks scored four goals in the first quarter, two in the second and two in the third. The Athletics scored their lonely goal in the third quarter. There was no scoring in the last quarter.

It was 3.35 when the game started. Shamrocks got the ball in the draw and Kenny threw it to Hoobin, who passed to Hennessy, who, however, missed. St. Kitts got the ball, but it was recovered by Johnnie Currie, who made a pretty pass, but it was recovered by Elliott who passed to O'Gorman, who tried a long shot which went wide. The ball went behind the poles and was recovered by Kalls, whose pass to Barnett was wide, and Currie captured the sphere, carrying it well up the field, and passed to Hogan, whose shot was wild. Elliott inaugurated an attack on Sham's goal, but Currie saved the ball from a scrimmage in front of the net, and the ball went to the stick of J. Brennan, whose shot was cleared by Hess. Currie then got the ball and gave it to Kenny, who carried it up field and gave it to P. Brennan, who passed it to Hogan, and latter scored.

On the face-off Hoobin and the Brennans took the ball right into the Athletics' net, but it was lost in a scrimmage after a good stop by Hess. St. Kitts then made a very pretty attack which was cleverly broken up by Johnnie Currie right in front of the nets. He went clear up to the Athletics' end, but Elliott and Cameron relieved to Downey, who brought the ball in and gave it to Kalls, whose shot went high. Forester had an open chance to shoot, but passed right into Currie's stick, and he carried it up the field, gave it to Hoobin, who gave it to P. Brennan, whose shot was wild. Howard broke up another nice rush by St. Kitts with a clever stop and again the Shamrocks took the offensive. The attack was broken up by Elliott. Howard picked out another pass, O'Gorman to Kalls, and broke what looked to be a dangerous onslaught. At this period the Athletics were doing most of the attacking, but their combination was loose.

Reilly stopped a hard shot in front of the nets and cleared nicely to Currie, the ball going right to the other end, where P. Brennan had a shot which was stopped by Hess. In another moment, however, Hogan scored in 10 minutes. Cameron was ruled off just before game was scored.

Score: Shamrocks, 2; Athletics, 0.

A half minute later J. Brennan scored again for Shamrocks, making the score 3 to nothing in favor of Shamrocks.

Barnett was taken with cramps and had to be taken to the fence, Kenny going off to even up.

Just after the fourth game started P. Brennan had a nice shot, which Hess turned aside in great style. J. Currie intercepted a pass from O'Gorman to Lowe, who carried the ball up the field and passed to Hennessy, who gave it to J. Brennan, who scored with a neat side shot in two and ahalf minutes.

Score: Shamrocks, 4; Athletics, 0.

P. Brennan was ruled off for encroaching on the crease just after the fourth game was scored, and Cameron started again just as he went off, giving the Athletics one man to the good. Howard saved a shot from Forester's stick. O'Reilly cross-checked Kalls, spoiling a close attack.

SECOND QUARTER.

Goal Umpire Dave Reynolds, who was behind the nets in which the four goals were scored in the first quarter by the Shamrocks, stated that the Shamrocks home did not seem to be covered at all, and that their shots were all open and from short range. In spite of the and Kavanagh broke up a loose attack by the Athletics.

Shamrocks, 8; Athletics, 1

The ball came down on the Athletics' end, but Cameron relieved for the steenth time. Then the ball travelled to the Shamrocks' goal, but Kalls' shot was very wide, and Currie brought the sphere down to P. Brennan, whose shot was nicely stopped by Hess.

Casey made his first stop of the match on a shot by O'Gorman. The Athletics' home worked hard to get in on the nets, but did not have a chance in the world. Hess stopped two hard shots from Paddy Brennan in grand style. The game had practically re-

Henry Hoobin says he will never play lacrosse again. This determination of "Henny's" will not come as a great surprise, for it has long been known that this redoubtable home-player only entered the game this year when he saw his team mates in sore need of his services. Hoobin was one of the best known home players that ever stepped on a field, one of the most brilliant stickhandlers that ever held a lacrosse, and as clean, as game, and as fearless a player as any team could possess. He retires with all honors and with a consciousness of his duty well done.

solved itself into a contest between the Athletics' defence and the Shamrocks' home, the latter having the better of the argument. The quarter ended at 4.3[?] with no further scoring.

THIRD QUARTER.

A half-minute after the game resumed Hogan scored for Shamrocks after a beautiful combination by the entire Irish team, all the players being on both sides. Score: Shamrocks, 7; Athletics, 0.

Forrester was ruled off for slugging Kenny. The Athletics had the best chance of the game so far to score, but Kalls made a wild shot and Reilly relieved.

Hogan was ruled off for slashing Lowe. Casey picked out a shot by score Hess played a strong game, but the Athletics in front of him appeared to be incapable of giving him the protection he deserved.

The second quarter commenced at 4.12. The Athletics were two men to the good, P. Brennan and Reilly being off. Hennessy hit Elliott on the head and was ruled off, leaving the Shamrocks three shy. Another goal was scored on neat combination play from P. Brennan to J. Brennan to Hogan, who put the ball home, three Shamrocks home being opposed to five St. Catharines defence men.

Score: Shamrocks, 5; St. Catharines, 0.

The play was principally with the Shamrocks, but with a couple of men off they could not do anything but attack, being compelled by force of numbers to keep at a good distance, never seeming to relax. P. Brennan took a nice pass from Hennesy and, by a beautiful shot, beat Hess out, giving the world's champions a lead of eight goals.

Score: Shamrocks, 6, St. Kitts, 0.

Up to this point the play had been all Shamrocks, the challengers playing like a lot of terriers, Cameron being the only man of the entire crowd who was playing lacrosse worthy of the name. Elliott was ruled off for five minutes for slugging Hennessy, Kalls and once again the ball travelled down into Athletics' territory.

Kalls made one of the prettiest runs of the match, beat out Currie, and passed to Hagan, who scored in about seven minutes.

Score: Shamrocks, 7; Athletics, 1.

On resuming play another good rush by the Athletics was broken up by Casey off a shot by Lowe.

Harris was ruled off 10 minutes for striking Hoobin, and the latter, for slashing Harris when he was going off the field, was put off for 15 minutes. McIlwaine was ruled off for hitting Kalls. The Shamrocks took the ball right up the field and P. Brennan scored in about 4½ minutes, making the standing 8 to 1 in favor of the Minto Cup holders. Casey stopped two shots in quick succession from Kalls and Lowe. The Shamrocks attacked promptly, Hess making a brilliant stop of P. Brennan's shot.

J. Brennan was ruled off for slashing Cameron, and on the next pass Forester went off for hitting P. Brennan. The whistle for the end of the quarter sounded as these players were going to the side. There was no scoring in the fourth quarter. The Shamrocks eased up, but held the Athletics safely. Quarter ended 5.15.

Total score: Shams. 8, Athletics 1.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Minto Cup stays.

Hail, Shamrocks, champions of the world!

The West has yet to send a team strong enough to walk away with the mug.

It was rivetted down in the first quarter, and bunches of spikes were added during the balance of the game.

It was easy; ay, verily so.

In fact it was like purloining a morsel of sweetmeats from the dimpled hands of a babe in arms.

The Cornwall brand of ozone didn't seem to agree with the Athletics.

The visitors didn't put up anything like the game they did the previous Saturday. It is hard to find the cause. It might have been a case of "nerves."

They're a good bunch of sports, these Athletics, "allee samee." Fine fellows, everyone of 'em, and game from the drop of the hat.

A possible explanation of the result was that Shamrocks were their own selves again.

The green-shirted champions of the world played as no other team on play—and they had a whole lot of reserve force up their sweaters, at that.

The attacks of their home were swift, furious, dazzling and of the whirlwind variety, the fielding was superb and the defence was impenetrable.

On the contrary the St. Kitts home lacked agressiveness, they were outfielded, and their defence, though staving off many an attack, was unable to cope with the invading Irishmen.

The crowd was fully as large as last Saturday's, but there was hardly enough of excitement to keep them warm.

The Athletics have three mighty good defence men in Cameron, Richardson and Downey.

But, talking about defences. Didn't the Shamrocks defence have a stonewall just faded away to an egg-shell.

It was a wise move for the Shamrock executive to put Kenny in the field. He seems to be of the genus "jack rabbit." He absolutely must run.

The easiest quarters for the champions were the fourth, first, third and second quarters.

The game was very free from rough play. Lots of body-checking, 'tis true, but the penalties were mostly for minor offences.

The champions have most effectually disposed of every team looking for championship favors—with the exception of the "Holy Terrors," of St. Chrysostome.

And just think of it, girls, the visitors never scored a game till the third quarter. Wasn't that just too awfully lovely for anything!

Johnnie Howard played one of the most brilliant defence games of his career. Time and again did he pick out the dangerous ones.

Spike Hennessy was sick and when Barnett had to retire on account of a sore knee, the noble "Bill" was given a much-needed rest.

It's useless to try and pick out any of the champions and present them with bunches of merry daffodils or modest, sweet-smelling violets.

They all deserve them, every man jack of 'em by beck! Here's to their good health, may they live long and prosper!

The crowds were at first amazed, then astonished, later on surprised, finally vaguely interested.

"What have we done, what have we done,

"We beat the St. Catharines eight to one."

Shouted a bunch of youngsters after the game was over.

We were almost afraid there would be no fights in the grand stand, but thank heaven, one came between the third and fourth quarter and saved the day.

It may be deucedly bad taste, you know, and may be a shame to repeat it, but——

It was disgracefully easy.

And once more.
Hail to the champions!

Seitz May Never Race Again---He Collapsed Trying to Beat Morton

New York, Sept. 25.—John W. Morton, the English sprint champion, defeated Charles J. Seitz, of the New York Athletic Club, in a special scratch 100-yard dash at the annual fall games of the New York Athletic Club, held Saturday at Travers Island. During his attempt to beat Morton, Seitz snapped several fibres in the tendon in his right foot and may never be able to compete again.

Morton, Seitz and "Smy" Northridge, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, faced the starter in this event, heralded as the banner short-distance race of the year. All field events were forgotten while the spectators watched the three take their marks.

Seitz got off slightly ahead of the Englishman, but the latter caught the former Georgetown sprinter before half the distance had been covered, with "Smy" Northridge a yard behind—but there were no eyes for "Smy."

Inch by inch Morton forged ahead, until a yard from the tape, he had a two-foot lead, with Seitz straining every nerve and muscle to catch him. Suddenly the Mercury Footer went all to pieces, a scant three feet from the finish. He staggered as though hit a blow in front. His feet shot upward and forward and his body backward; but he regained his feet, reeled over the line and fell in a heap two yards further on.

He was carried unconscious to the dressing-rooms, where the club physician ascertained that the hurt was serious and said that Seitz may be forced to give up the cinder path.

Harry Hillman broke the world's record in the 300-yard scatch hurdle race. It was announced before the event that the New York A.C. man would make a try for the mark. After thirty strides the other men were practically out of the race.

Then the greyhound athlete tore over each hurdle with barely an inch to spare, yet leaving each one untouched. He was forced to hesitate a little before each of the last four hurdles, as the "sun was in his eyes," but he covered the distance in 34 3-5 seconds. The former record held by Alvin Kranzlen was 34 3-5 seconds. With very little effort Harvey Cohn, of the Irish-American A.C., won the two-mile steeplechase A.A.U. championship. The 8,000 people who filled the grandstand lined the track and hung from limbs of trees, laughed as heach tired competitor flopped into the water jump, instead of trying to clear it on the final round.

For a mile and a half in the two-mile relay race, the New York A.C. and Irish-American A.C. runners ran barely five yards apart. J. P. Sullivan, the last "Irish" man, started with a lead of four yards, with H. V. Valentine hot on his trail. With the first quarter-mile, the two men had changed places four times. In the home stretch Valentine, who had lost five yards, made them up and won by six.

BENEDICT LEAVES THE M'GILL TEAM

Big Scrimmage Man Throws in His Lot With Montreal

Benedict, the big scrimmage man, whose work was of such sterling value to the McGill team last year, will be missed from the line-up this season.

Saturday afternoon he was out with the Montreal Club, and will probably catch a place at inside wing on that organization. Benedict's loss will be a severe one to McGill, as, in addition to his weight, his speed and ballhandling were invaluable in the line.

While no one is yet slated for the vanancy, a lot of promising material is available in the squad, and a trio for the centre will be trained for the opening match of the intercollegiate schedule.

The work-out Saturday on the college campus was thorough and satisfactory, bringing out many good features in the playing of the candidates for senior honors. With Patterson, McCallum and "Tom" Grayden on the field dealing out admonition and encouragement, the men were so interested in the game that a spectator would imagine the teams lined up were really intercollegiate opponents fighting for championship laurels.

For the first time in the history of McGill, American students who have played on American teams are turning out in the Canadian game this season. There are six men from "across the border" trying for places on the college teams. They are rapidly becoming accustomed to the Canadian style of play, and can most certainly give McGill men pointers in tackling.

There is an interesting scrap between Reid of Bishop's and Rathbourn, Upper Canada College, for the position of quarter-back on the senior team. Both are putting up a good fight.

Richards has been shifted from quarter-back, the position held by him last year, to his old place, centreback.

The wing line will be decidedly heavier than last year.

An unfortunate feature of Saturday's practice was that Martin was injured just as the teams started to work. During a tackle Martin's knee was wrenched, and, as this is an old trouble returned, the chances are that he will not play again this season.

It looks very much as though the Freshmen will be well represented in the senior line-up.

BETWEEN THE GOALS.

After it McGill! It's worth having.

McGill, Queen's, Toronto, Ottawa, have a guess.

A Kingston paper says Queen's look like winners. Have another look!

"Malcolm's playing rather good, too, isn't he?

Ottawa would like to have the cup. Sorry we can't oblige her.

If Zimmerman has to show his best, why he can do it.

"Tom" Grayden says that the practises are the best yet—and he knows.

Oh push, is the latest football slang.

Toronto wants a look in. Perhaps she'll get a peep before the game starts.

Reid and Rathbourn both want the "quarter." How would it do to split it?

Watch the American tackle; then try the same yourself.

Richards has gone from quarter to centre-half. However, he'll come forward all right when the game starts.

That's right. Freshmen: get into the game. Never too young to learn.

MONTREALER SAW MORTON BEAT SEITZ

Louis Rubenstein Tells of Englishman's Victory Over Yankee—Band Played God Save the King.

Louis Rubenstein, who witnessed the New York Athletic Club's sports at Traver's Island, Saturday, returned to Montreal this morning. He was enthusiastic in his praises of Morton, the English sprinter, who competed in the Calendonian and the C.A.A.U. sports here. Morton defeated Seitz, the New York crack, in the 100 yards at Travers Island. The Englishman got away to a poor start, but at the fifty yards, he caught up to Seitz and inch by inch overlapped his stride, till at the ninety yards he was two feet in the lead. Seitz made a desperate effort and collapsed at the tape. "It was a clear victory for Morton," said Mr. Rubenstein, "and so kindly did the crowd take to his performance that the band played "God Save the King," when it was announced that he was the winner."

Mr. Rubenstein stated that Hillman's record of 34 3-5 seconds for the 300 yards steeplechase was on the level, as he held a watch on the American sprinter, which recorded the same time as that given out by the official timekeepers.

FAMOUS IRISH WRESTLER APPEARS HERE THIS WEEK

Apollo, the Irish champion wrestler, will be seen here this week, Friday night, Sept. 29, at Sohmer Park. He will wrestle Emile Maupas, the Canadian champion. This will be Apollo's first appearance in America, as he arrived in America only last week. He was called on by the local wrestling club to enter the International wrestling championship tournament which starts at Sohmer Park, Sept. 29th. Apollo, not being able to stay in America for the finals in the tournament, consented to make one match at Graeco-Roman style, best two out of three falls to a finish. He is a powerful giant, weighing 265 lbs. and standing six feet three and one-half inches in his stockings. He comes to America ready to defeat any other man in the wrestling game, and will bet any part of $5,000 he can defeat any one. His calibre will be demonstrated Friday when he meets Maupus on the mat.

ST. LAMBERT BOATHOUSE.

The closing dance for the season was given in the St. Lambert boathouse on Friday evening, and was very largely attended.

Representatives were present from the neighboring clubs, as well as a number from the city. The floor was in excellent condition, and the music, with Mr. Cooper at the piano, was all that a dancer could wish for. Owing to the repairs and alterations going on, which were commenced early in the week, it was found necessary to close the boathouse much earlier than usual this season, but after the alterations are completed, St. Lambert will be able to boast of as fine a boathouse as there is in or near Montreal.

The Athletics left for home last night, President Dawson being the only member of the club to remain over. He is settling up the financial end of the matches to-day.

Montreal Woollen Mills having notified Westmount that they are not able to play on Saturday the last league match, the game consequently goes to Westmount by default.

Providence Won Eastern League Championship by Close Margin

Played One Game More Than Baltimore and Won, Victory Giving Them the Pennant—Orioles Are Second and Skeeters Third

Providence won the championship of the Eastern League yesterday after the most exciting race in the organization's history.

Baltimore closed the season Saturday but Providence had an extra game with Rochester and this one victory gave the Greys the pennant.

Sixteen thousand people saw the game, which was all in Providence's favor and the cheering fans accorded Captain Jack Dunn and his players an ovation at the finish.

The results of Saturday's games made Providence and Baltimore tied for first place, each team having won 82 and lost 47 games, giving a percentage of .636. Baltimore's season closed Saturday, while Providence was scheduled to play Rochester yesterday. If Providence had lost yesterday's game the team would have been given second place, but the victory over Rochester gave Providence a percentage of .638, two-tenths of one per cent. higher than Baltimore.

BOUQUETS FOR LEROY.

New York Herald: Louis Leroy, Chippewa Indian, placid mentally as the forest primeval, pitched at American League Park yesterday against the palefaces from Chicago, and these fell victims to the red man's cunning. More than once the little expert at the white man's favorite pastime fell upon evil moments, upon situations bristling with trouble, but in each case he emerged coolly triumphant.

Griffith's "little red man," of whom he is justly proud, proved stoically impervious to every assault by the "White Sox." Hardly a spectator in the crowd got a square glimpse at his face, for the peak of his cap was pulled down over his eyes and he used the spitball so much that his hands were up in front of his face most of the time not occupied in the actual delivery of the ball. Old timers in the crowd said the little Pathfinder reminded them a great deal of "Micky" Welch in his work. He walks and carries himself, however, very like Clarke Griffith. Leroy comes from the Montreal team of the Eastern League.

It was a disappointed lot of ball players that faced the Highlanders' new pitcher, for they wanted the game badly. The Quakers were in trouble, and the visitors hoped to pick up a point or two on the American League leaders. They had not counted on the advent of the crafty redskin nor the drubbing dealt to "Nick" Altrock, the hefty Chicago lefthander. Nor had they anticipated George Davis' bad error, a misplay that was followed, in the third inning, by three tallies for the Highlanders.

ARNPRIOR SPORTSMEN ARE ALREADY TALKING HOCKEY

Arnprior, Ont., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The prospects for a good hockey team in Arnprior are brighter now than they have been for many years, even years since the Citizen shield has taken up its abode here. The old guard of local players will in all probability turn out as soon as the ice takes, and although Pearson and McMillan will hardly appear this winter there are some very capable juniors to take their places. The erecting of a new factory here will likely bring in some mechanic hockey players to the town, who will be quite eligible to play this coming season. There are "ringers" and rumors of "ringers" being brought into some of the towns which make up the upper and lower leagues. Local players are rejoicing in the fact that Pembroke have a new rink this year; playing in Pembroke was always a pleasure to the boys of the blue and white, because in Pembroke it matters not whether the home team wins or loses the visitors are treated in a sportsmanlike way. Everything goes to show that the feelings of the different O.V.H.L. teams, which were a little strained over last year's contests, are likely to b much improved next winter. Rumor has it that Milne may not figure in next winter's games, but so far nothing definite is known as to the course he will pursue. Although Arnprior is likely to have a worthy quota of players the cause of hockey has met with a decided loss in the removal of Mr. F. T. De Wolfe from town. Mr. De Wolfe was one of the most energetic members of the executive of last year's organization and his unceasing efforts to have an A1 hockey team will be missed. Anrprior's loss in this case is Brockville's gain.

VICTORIA LADIES CLUB.

The members of the Ladies' Victoria Club, generally, have returned to town and the fixtures at St. Lambert's will be resumed this week.

CANADIAN HUNT HOLDS FIELD DAY

Large Crowd Attends the Sixth Annual Meet—Good Sport Provided

Over two thousand spectators were attracted to the sixth annual meet of the Canadian Hunt Club at St. Lambert on Saturday afternoon, and never has better sport been provided. Only two entries were scratched all afternoon, Bally Castle, the property of Colin Sewell, M.D., in the Open Handicap, and W. V. Henderson's Doreen in the qualified hunters' event.

The Jorrocks' steeplechase for the Christ'e & Co. Cup, was won by Mr. Gravel's Gladstone, Mr. J. Wray's Silver King second, a length back, and Mr. G. Vandelac's Frank a good third. The distance was about two miles, and 165 pounds.

Doreen scratched in the second number the qualified hunter's race, purse $200, for horses having a master's certificate of a recognized Dominion club. Bubbles, a warm favorite, fell on the second round, and Bob McGregor finished first, Trackerson second and Lizzie third.

The farmers' race for animals bred in the counties of Chambly, Laprairie and Assumption, called out six starters. Omer Page's entry finished in the van, with E. Rousseau's second, Damase E. Charron's third and Emile Charron's fourth.

A feature of the Open Handicap was the riding of Marston Moore's jockey, an English lad. He rode in English style and put up a nice, clean finish.

Summary:

First race, Jorrocks Steeplechase Cup, about 2 miles, over 165 lb.—Gladstone, N. Gravel, won; Silver King, J. Wray, 2; Frank, G. Vandelac, 3. Also started, Zinc Plate, Catch Me and Miss Moffatt.

Second race, Qualified Hunters' Steeplechase, purse, $200—Bob McGregor, 155, H. H. Learmont, won; Trackson, 150, E. C. Brosseau, 2; Lizzie, 155, A. Shearer, 3. Also started, Ros, 150; Silver Penny, 160; Bubbles, 171, and Gig Lamps, 137.

Third race, farmer, for horses bred in the counties of Chambly, Laprairie and Assumption, to be owned and ridden by farmers of said counties—Omer Page, won; Mr. E. Rousseau, 2; Mr. Louis Gravel, 3. Entries of Messrs. D. Charron, E. Charron and J. Sausconey also ran.

Fourth race, open handicap steeplechase, purse $200, about 3 miles—Marston Moore, 153, J. F. Smith, won; King Top, 163, W. V. Henderson, 2; Rob Salter, 140, D. Raymond, 3. Also started, Trackson, 144; Ben Bolt, 141, and Bally Castle, 145.

Fifth race, Hunt Cup, penalties and allowances—Silver Penny, 165, G. Vandelac, won; Rose, 165, J. Wray, 2; Virginia, 165, Hugh Burnett, 3. Also ran, Rob McGregor and Zinc Plate.

The officials were:—D. Thos. Tees, judge; Fred Vincent, starter; J. S. Robertson, president, and A. E. Beauvais, secretary-treasurer.

WESTMOUNTS HAVE BRIGHT PROSPECT

Material Most Promising and Players' Enthusiasm Unbounded

Westmount has apparently an executive that means to make things hum in the western suburb during the coming football season. Never in the short and notable history of this active association has such a large number of men been seen in uniform as on Saturday afternoon on the Westmount Park. Coach Powter and the committee had a hard time getting players into position so as to allow practice to proceed in decent order. After considerable delay, the men were divided, and for fully three hours and a half the field was kept busy with different teams doing the needful.

The talent at the disposal of the committee is astonishing, and the Montreal public is going to get the surprise of their sporting life next Saturday and also at the finish of the season. What the team will be is difficult to say, but this much is certain, that the Westmount scrimmage will this season be the heaviest in the league. What is more to the point is that the men are all experienced, and will easily hold anything coming its way. An authority who played the game some years ago stated on Saturday evening that Westmount has the material to bring the championship to Montreal, and that he had confidence in them, as no influences could do harmful work in Victoria Hall.

WESTMOUNT THAT'S.

That Ross, Patrick and Ruel are doing some great stunts, and have shown fine combination in practice.

That Frankie had six dropped goals on Saturday afternoon.

That Ross is kicking better than ever and carries more weight than last year.

That Ruel is a very fine tackler and kicks beautifully with either foot.

That either Bailie or McMaster will please the Academy supporters.

That Shearer looks heavier than a year ago and spends a lot of time with the gloves. Jamie is fully qualified for the diplomatic service, and his influence can be seen in the building of the team.

That Shewan and the two unknowns did great work on Saturday.

That McC. Snowdon took electric baths to strengthen his knee.

That Bro. Walter has not gone to the Dental College, as reported.

That Shearer had two husky looking Irish boys on the side line Saturday who both played international for their country last year. They like the style of game, and have promised to report Tuesday.

CASE OF ALLEGED RINGING.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 25.—Dry Monopole, the fine pacer, owned by the estate of George S. Fleming, of this city, and which, it is alleged, was started in races at Baltimore, Bethlehem and other places under the name of Tasberg, was brought back to Pittsburg Saturday by Attorney William J. Brennan. Dry Monopole was reported as having died at Sommerville, Pa., last December, while on the way to the Fasig-Tipton sale in New York, and Mr. Brennan executor of the Fleming Estate, thought the report was true, until June 8, when he was told the horse was at the Baltimore track, about to race under the name of Tasberg. Mr. Brennan started Chief of Detectives McQuaid, of Pittsburg, on the case, and it was found that a horse had been shipped from Sommerville to Coatsville on the day that Dry Monopole was reported dead. Th suits in the case have been dropped by Brennan, who has spent the entire summer establishing the ownership of the animal Dry Monopole, who is valued at $7,000.

JUNIOR C.L.A. CHAMPIONS.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 25.—About 3,000 people witnessed the "sudden death" lacrosse match at the Island Saturday afternoon between Toronto Junction Shamrocks, and Brantford for the junior C. L. A. championship. The Shamrocks had the best of it at the start. Both teams put up a splendid defence, but the former could not stand the pace set by their opponents. Brantford won the match by a score of 3 to 1.

M.A.A.A. SPORTS WERE EXCITING

Competitors Performed Creditably Considering the Chilly Weather

Most of the participants in Saturday afternoon's meet at the M.A.A.A. grounds were M.A.A.A. men and of the later generation. Few outsiders entered and only a small number of the old standbys and champions showed themselves in uniform. The consequence was that the outcome of every event was in doubt to the very end, and the interest of the spectators was held to the very last.

The cold weather and the Minto Cup match doubtless kept many away who might otherwise have been present, but the small crowd easily made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers.

Following are the results of the meet:

SYSONBY HAS BEEN THROWN OUT OF TRAINING

New York, Sept. 25.—According to the Sun, the proposed match race between Sysonby and Artful, which was to have been run at Brighton Beach next Wednesday for a purse of $15,000 has been declared off. Sysonby has been unexpecedly thrown out of training for the rest of the season because of the appearance of an eruption of the skin commonly known as Girth disease.

The disease generally makes its appearance on the body where the saddle girths are tightened and consist of blotches of an angry nature. A horse thus afflicted must have long rest in order to get the blood cool that it may be relieved of its impurities.

When trainer Rogers learned of Sysonby's condition he made no further attempt to work Artful over the Brighton mile but said that Mr. Whitney's great mare would positively be seen in both the cup preliminary next Tuesday and the Brighton cup a week from Saturday.

IN THE MATTER OF $10.00 HATS.

WE have no exhibition prices. No fictitious values. If a hat is marked $50.00 or $60.00 there is something in it that makes that hat worth that money. Probably its production cost the artist a measure of mental distress that the wearer knows not of. But nevertheless, we recognize this fact—that there are many ladies who have made up their minds that they won't pay more than $10.00 for a hat, and we are certainly going to give our best service to any lady so minded. To prove it we shall make

A Demonstration on Tuesday of $10.00 Hats

NEWS FROM ALMONTE.

Almonte, Ont., Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The North Lanark Agricultural Society's Exhibition this year was one of the most successful fairs in the history of the society. The attendance yesterday was larger than ever before and the exhibit of horses and stock excels everything ever exhibited here before. The financial result will also be satisfactory to the officials.

A meeting will be held here this week for the purpose of organizing a Retail Merchant's Association. Mr. Eadie the organizer has enrolled the majority of the merchants as members. The local officers will be elected at the meeting to be held here early next week.

Mr. John Dulmage, who has been ill for the past few days, is reported making a fair progress towards recovery.

The Pakenham Exhibition week was quite successful, although the attendance was below the record of other years. The show of horses was unusually good. The weather which threatened it at the outset no doubt effected the attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Church, formerly of this town, leave this week for British Columbia, with their son Harvey, where they expect to reside permanently.

JURYMAN'S BIG KICK WON A GLASS OF BEER

To the man who is accustomed to a drop of beer to the dinner cracker and cheese, the sudden change to cold water is not usually a matter that brings rejoicing in its train. And in this regard many citizens who are called upon to serve their country on a jury consider they suffer under a quite unnecessary hardship, and one moreover, for which there can be no real reason other than that it is "writ down" in the law books.

That it is old, antiquated, and altogether unnecessary in such civilized parts as Montreal is the firm conviction of more than one member of the jury that had to be locked up from Saturday until to-day in consequence of the Rocco Caporale murder trial being uncompleted, and before the adjournment one gentleman gave expression to that feeling of discontent.

After stating the law on the subject, Judge Trenholme intimated that the dinner beer would be forthcoming on the Sunday to the extent of at least one glass for each of the jurymen who was addicted to such luxury.

TROUBLE HAS ARISEN OVER ALLAN'S ISLAND

Halifax, N.S., September 25.—A peculiar condition exists at Allen's Island, one of the Tusket group on the Yarmouth coast the ownership of which has been in dispute for some years past. Persons in Yarmouth claimed it by inheritance from some old ancestors, but never occupied it for any purpose or derived any profit from it for nearly half a century. Meantime fishermen often used it as a base of operations in summer. Finally the island was leased by claimants to the Mud Island Lobster Company. They forbade fishermen to set foot on the soil, making them pay for the privilege of landing on the other small island in the neighborhood. Three years ago the courts decided the title was void and the fishermen entered in and took possession, but the claimants have again entered on the scene, warning off all comers, and have placed a sentry on the island with a rifle and dogs. The Crown Land department will be called on to step in and still the strife.

THREE DEATHS WILL RESULT FROM COLLISION

Binghamton, N.Y., Sept. 25. — Erie train No. 146, eastward bound, was wrecked in a collision with an engine about a quarter of a mile east of Susquehanna, Pa. Both engines were turned on their backs beneath a coal pocket. As the train had just left the station it was not going at a high rate of speed, and no cars were derailed. The collision was caused by an engine from the coal pocket making an attempt to cross the main line. Frank Robbins, of Susquehanna, engineer of the wrecked train, was killed. His fireman, whose name is O'Rourke, and who also lived in Susquehanna, is thought to be under his engine. An Erie detective named Samuel C. Hemstead, of Clark Summit, Pa., was fatally injured.

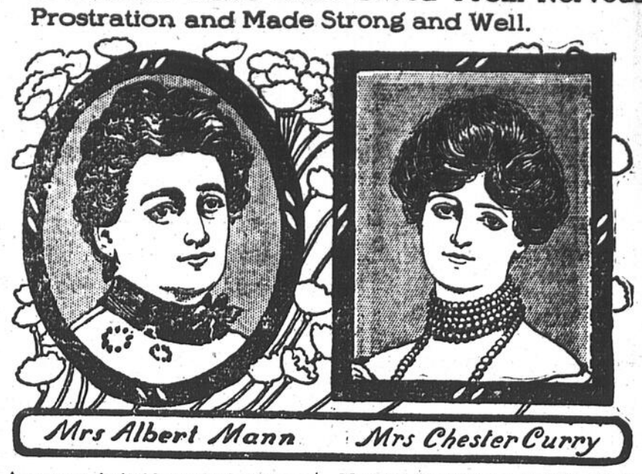
Tired. Nervous. Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.



Mrs Albert Mann — Mrs Chester Curry

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency. "the blues," sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the ovaries, and especially between the shoulders; bearing down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga St., East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights. I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well, and all nervousness has disappeared."

The following letter is from Mrs. Albert Mann, 154 Gore Vale Ave., Toronto, Ont.:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I suffered a long time with ovarian trouble having intense pains in the back and abdomen and very sick headaches every month. I was tired and nervous all the time and life looked very dreary to me and I had no desire to live until I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to get some relief. My recovery was slow but it was sure and I have never regretted the money spent for the Compound as it brought back my good health."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

MR. CAMPEAU MUST PAY COMMISSION ON FARM SALE

Mr. Justice Curran Gives Judgment in Minor Cases.

In the SuperiorCourt, Saturday, Mr. Justice Curran rendered judgment in the case of Brown vs. Campeau, for $325 as five per cent. commission on a sale of a farm placed in the hands of the plaintiff, March 30, 1898. The farm was to be sold at $10,500; but the plaintiff on September, 1904, sold the farm to one Dupont for $6,500, claiming $325 as commission. The agency of plaintiff was to extend to April 1, 1899, and special clause provided that the commission held good after that date until a notice was given of termination.

Mr. Justice Curran gave judgment for the plaintiff for the $325, with interest and cost.

In the case of Riendeau vs. Boisvert for an alleged assault, on July 4, 1904, the action was dismissed, each party paying his or her own costs. Plaintiff claimed $100.

In the case of Bell vs. Bell et al, judgment was given for $377.11, with interest and costs. The demand of abandonment was withdrawn, each party paying his costs.

ENTER SUIT AGAINST THEATRICAL COMPANY

To throw peanuts at Royal Theatre chorus girls may or may not be taken by the objects of this attention in the light of a compliment; but to be summarily made to walk the managerial carpet for the alleged offence is certainly not one of life's chiefest joys.

This is the stand taken by two young men, Messrs. Leonard and Beauchamp, who were made to explain "why they did it" to the manager of the Royal last week. The youths deny the ungallant act, and have entered action against the "Gaiety Girls" Company for $1?0 each—all told, $800.

It seems that last week when the company was holding down the boards, the gaiety reached a height where only peanuts could meet the occasion. The girls objected, and two young men were paraded before the manager. They protested their innocence and were allowed to take their seats again, but their dignity had received a $300 blow. The company gave security and went out on the road.

HERALD DAILY PATTERN

A SMART LITTLE RUSSIAN SUIT.

Pattern No. 1189. Sizes 2 to 6 years.

Of all the styles ever designed for small boys, the Russian has held its place as prime favorite the longest and steadiest. Kilts used to be the intermediate step between aprons and trousers, but the Russian suit is now worn almost universally by boys during this intermediate stage of dressing. They have all the air and style of tailored suits and are so simple to make that they are gladly welcomed by busy mothers who still feel that all such sewing should be done in the house. The material of a suit worn very effectively by a little lad in Paris last week was dark red serge, with black patent leather belt and black silk tie. Six big pearl buttons fastened the front—three on each side. The full trousers should not come more than two inches below the bottom of the jacket. The little men themselves are particularly fond of this costume as it seems much more "grown up" to them than kilts, and anything with a mannish air always appeals to them. For several weeks yet wash materials will be used in these suits, and linen, galatea or crash in dark colors will be very serviceable, while a little later light weight serge will be first favorite. For a boy 4 years old 3¼ yards of material 32 inches wide will be required. The pattern, No. 1189, is cut in sizes for boys from 2 to 6 years of age, and may be obtained, post paid, by sending ten cents, the number and size desired, and the name and address to the Fashion Department of this paper.

STOCKS AND MONEY.

C. P. R. Goes Much Lower; Power and Detroit Fairly Strong

Trading Here Fails to Show Any Increase in Volume

The local market, while quiet, ruled fairly strong.

Canadian Pacific, though not very active, sold considerably lower. Compared with 175 1-4, the closing price for the stock on Saturday, the stock to-day touched 173. At the noon hour it sold up to within a fraction of 174. Sales of the stock on Wall street this morning only amounted to 1,400, showing that comparatively few holders were frightened by the decline.

Montreal Power held its advance very well, and it looks as though once the stock starts to move in real earnest it will touch higher prices without much difficulty. There is a much broader market for the stock than there was a few years ago, and this will naturally help local interests in discounting any increase in dividend that may be allowed.

In any movement in the stock the trader is likely to play quite a prominent part.

The continued weakness in Dominion Iron common continues to surprise quite a few. As one broker put it today: "If the stock is worth anything at all, it should certainly be worth what it has been selling at for some little time past. It puzzles me why more people have not taken up at least some small blocks of the stock and put it away for a while."

Detroit United was fairly active on the local market, but was very quiet in the Wall street market. The movement in the stock here on Saturday seemed to be occasioned by the activity of the stock in the New York market. The recent flurries in the stock have not amounted to very much, the stock usually losing towards the close of the market almost anything it gained in a sudden spurt. Certain local interests continue bullish on the stock, and maintain that with the big earnings the company is showing the stock should sell higher. It opened at 94 1-2, but later sold at 94 1-4.

Toledo holds very steady, and today sold fractionally below 35 in the Wall street market. All the way from last spring the stock has held right around the same figure, seldom varying more than a small fraction one way or the other. The company's earnings have been showing large increases throughout the summer months. Six hundred shares of the stock were traded in on the Wall street market before noon.

Textile preferred was also a strong feature, and without being very active sold up to 92. Dividend prospects and good business conditions are the reasons given for the recent strength in the stock.

Montreal Cotton held very strong at 120. One thing that the fight for the control of the company has certainly done was to advance the market value of the securities. The higher prices are naturally tempting more holders to become sellers.

Of the curb stocks, the Mexicans are showing most activity. The Mexican Light & Power Company will shortly have its full plant in operation delivering power into Mexico City, and the present strength of the stock may be discounting this action.

Recently Toronto has been a willing buyer both of Mexicans and Rios.

Wall Street Market

The Wall Street market was slightly weaker at the opening. After the opening sales the selling movement subsided for a time, but was renewed with increased force after 11 o'clock. Canadian Pacific was carried down 2½, L. & N. and Metropolitan St. Ry. 2; Reading, St. Paul, Union Pacific, Erie and Metropolitan Securities, 1⅛ to 1½, and Illinois Central, N.Y.C., Pennsylvania, Southern Pacific, Amalgamated Copper, Colorado Fuel and Sloss-Sheffield Steel, 1. Locomotive advanced a point, Gen. Electric 1½ and Chicago Union Traction pfd. 1. Bonds were heavy.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Sales to noon on Wall Street were 389,400 shares.

Charles Head & Co.—The prevailing opinion at present is that prices may sell still lower and that it will prove profitable to wait before buying.

Norris P. Bryant—Erie is to issue only twelve millions of bonds to finance the C. H. & D. purchase, although more may be put out later. There is considerable bullish feeling regarding B. & O., which is relatively low, considering dividend yield.

Marler & Hodgson—The money market opened steady at 4¼, some loans being made at 4½. Banks not only did not extend their accommodations, but called in loans somewhat freely. Call money may go to 6 per cent. this week.

J. S. Bache & Co.—Noon—The opening was irregular. Steel stocks acted well and advanced fractionally which kept the market fairly steady during the early session. The bear contingent were early in the field and once more determined to try the stability of the bull position, their advantage at present writing amounts to about one point, and it being vigorously pushed. Keen observers are of the opinion this will be beneficial to the market, and the disappointed would-be purchasers of the past week will take advantage of any further break.

Produce Firm Assigns

A petition for a winding-up order has been served upon the Loynachan-Scriver Co., Ltd., one of the largest butter and cheese commission firms in the city, and the company has consented to assign. A meeting of the creditors is to be held on Wednesday next, when it is likely some satisfactory arrangement will be arrived at.

In a circular issued to their creditors, Messrs. Loynachan, Scriver & Co. say that they consider it only right that each one of their creditors should understand the exact position and why they consider it necessary to assign at the present time. In order that this may be explained and the creditors may give their advice touching upon the future position of the company the meeting has been called for Wednesday next.

Transactions on the New York Stock Exchange for the past week aggregated 4,087,900 shares and $14,910,000 of bonds, as compared with 3,873,020 shares and $11,621,000 of bonds for the previous week, and 3,489,230 shares and $19,394,000 of bonds for the corresponding week of last year.

Failures of Week

Commercial failures during the week in the United States, as reported by R. G. Dun & Co., are 206, against 194 last week, 180 the preceding week, and 225 the corresponding week last year. Failures in Canada number 34, against 29 last week, 23 the preceeding week and 30 last year. Of failures this week in the United States, 70 were in the east, 40 south, 76 west, and 20 in the Pacific States, and 71 report liabilities of $5,000 or more. Liabilities of commercial failures reported for September to date are $4,101,222, against $6,731,785 for the same period last year.

Market Situation

Henry Clews, the New York banker, says of present market conditions: So far as general market conditions are concerned there are no indications of a reaction from the high degree of prosperity that is so general throughout the country. Railroad earnings, bank clearings and other standards of measurement fully attest this, and the reports of railroads that are now appearing for the fiscal year are generally favorable in character, with the exception of the Atchison, which suffered from heavy floods during the year. There is no longer any question regarding the volume of the crops and their generally fine quality; and the only adverse factor now possible in this direction would be the appearance of early severe frosts, which might cause some deterioration in what corn has not been fully secured.

Traders' Market to Rule

J. S. Bache & Co., in their weekly circular say of the Wall Street market:

"Turning to the speculative situation, the outlook is less brilliant. For the next few weeks the market will probably continue largely professional and under the influence of closely held specialties. Prices are high, and the public shows little inclination to come into the market on a big scale at the moment. Consequently, a traders' market will probably rule, in which standard shares such as the Gould, Morgan and Harriman issues, and those of the Pennsylvania group, are a purchase on recessions and a sale on rallies. Values make prices in the long run, and we feel confident that in the near future the market will work to a higher level.

Railway Earnings

Railroad earnings are scarcely up to the average of preceding months last year. Total gross earnings of all United States roads reporting for September to date are $13,531,734, a gain of only 2.5 per cent. compared with last year. The same roads in August and in preceding months reported a larger increase. They are chiefly southern and southwestern roads, and temporary conditions in the section of the country traversed by them have affected adversely the revenue of some of these important systems, notably the floods in the southwest. The more complete report for the month of August, including a number of leading systems in all sections of the United States, shows a gain of 4.7 per cent. over last year, in spite of some losses in the West and on some southwestern roads.

Granby Shows Big Earnings

The annual meeting of the Granby Consolidated Mining Company, which was to have been held in New York on October 3, will be adjourned for two weeks owing to the absence abroad of President Langloth.

The annual report for the year ended June 30 will show net earnings of $700,000, as compared with $283,000 the previous year. The company has been liberal in its expenditures the past year in purchasing new properties, $432,000 having been expended in doubling the company's acreage. Other charges have been made for extraordinary mine development work and smelter enlargement and improvements, so that net earnings will be smaller than might be expected. Next year the company is expected to be able to earn at least $130,000 a month net, and the beginning of dividends at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum is looked for at any time.

Heavier Trains on C.P.R.

Mr. Charles Drinkwater, assistant to President Shaughnessy, has returned from Minneapolis, where he attended the annual meeting of the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway.

Speaking of conditions on the C. P. R' lines Mr. Drinkwater is reported to have said:

"We have added enormously to our equipment since last year, and this advantage, taken in connection with the many reductions we have made in grades, enabling us to haul bigger loads and heavier trains, will assist us wonderfully in handling the crop.

"The work of double tracking the Canadian Pacific is being pushed with all possible despatch between Fort William and Winnipeg. This is the important link in getting the grain to the lakes.

"So far as the double tracking proposition of the entire line is concerned, I can only say that it is a big thing to consider Doubtless it will come in time."

MARKET REPORTS.

Dairy Produce Firmer in Country But Export Demand Continues Slow

Fair Business Passing in the Local Grain Market

Prices for dairy produce have again advanced a fraction in the country, though there is nothing in the condition of the local market to warrant this firmer feeling and local dealers say they are unable to account for it.

The receipts of cheese this morning were 13,805 boxes. The demand from foreign sources continues very slow, bids being below local quotations. At the country boards the ruling figure was about 11¼c for Ontario cheese, but with the prevailing conditions it is impossible to make any proft in the export business, buying at that figure. Local quotations are a fraction firmer at 11¼c to 11⅜c for Ontario, and 11c to 11⅛c for Quebec makes.

The receipts of butter this morning were 2,419 packages. The export business continues dull, but there is a fair demand for local consumption Local dealers are quoting salted creamery at 22c to 22½c, and unsalted at 22½c to 23c, but there is no demand at these figures. Local buyers have made an agreement to buy only for Montreal inspection on the Cowansville board, and at the last meeting prices were unusually firm.

The receipts of eggs this morning were 757 cases. The market is steady at 18c to 18½c for straight receipts and 22c to 22½c for selects.

Country Produce

Beans.—The market for beans continues unchanged, business being still quiet at $1.50 to $1.60 per bushel for choice primes. The weather this season has been very favorable for the bean crop and the early planted are all harvested. About 75 per cent. were late and will take about two weeks yet of favorable weather to secure. The quality of this year's crop is good, but the yield is not large, being only from 10 to 15 bushels per acre, so that the total yield will probably only be about 20 per cent. of that of last year. Prices for new crop beans are a little lower than last year and farmers are holding off.

Honey.—There is no change in honey. The demand for white clover in the comb is good, but business in other lines is quiet and many local dealers and commission men have large stocks on their hands, which they are unable to dispose of. White clover in the comb is quoted at 12c to 13c; white extracted at 6½c to 7c; and buckwheat at 5½c to 6c per lb.

Maple Produce.—The market for maple produce is dull and featureless. Syrup, in 60-gal. kegs, 5¼c to 5½c per lb.; in tins, 50c to 55c per wine measure, and 6c5 to 70c per imperial, and Beauce sugar, 8c to 9c; and Eastern Townships sugar at 6½c to 7c per lb.

Hops.—The market for hops is quiet and steady. Canadian choice at 16c to 17c, and ordinary at 15c per lb.

Potash.—There is no change in potash, for which the demand is still quiet. Pearls, $7.75 to $7.85; first pots, $5.17½ to $5.20; and seconds at $4.65 per 100 lb.

Provision Market

The condition of the local provision market was unchanged to-day under a fair demand for all lines of smoked meats. The market for live hogs was about steady, good to choice stock selling at $6.50 to $6.60 per 100 pounds and a few selects at $6.75. Inferior grades sold as low as $6. The receipts were fairly large and there was a fair demand at both the East End and the Point St. Charles market. Abbattoir fresh killed hogs are still quoted at $9.50 to $10 per 100 lbs.

Heavy Canada short cut mess pork, in tierces, $34 to $35; heavy Canada short cut back pork, $23 to $24; heavy Canada long cut mess pork, none; heavy Canada short cut clear pork, $20 to $21; heavy flank pork, none; light Canada short cut clear pork, $21.50 to $22.50.

Hams, 28 lb., 13½c; do., 12 to 18 lb., 14c; 8 to 12 lb., 15c to 15½c; boneless hams, rolled, 16c; English boneless breakfast bacon, 16c; Wiltshire bacon, 50 lb., sides, 14½c.

Cheese Boards

Brockville, Sept. 24.—At the cheese board here the sales of cheese amounted to but 910 boxes in all, being as follows:—M. W. Evertts 600; J. Webster, 220, and O. E. Earls, 90. From 11¼c to 11 5-16c was paid. On the curb 11 5-16c was paid in several hands for regulars, but the demand, outside of a couple of buyers, was not brisk. As near as can be figured out, white ruled at 11¼c and colored at 11 5-16c. The sales were divided up as follows: Derbyshire, 2,600; Bissell, 1,700; Webster, 800; Dickey, 1,200; A. A. Davis & Co., 400; Gardiner, 500; O. E. Earle, 200; Evertts, 700; Murphy, 800; Patton, 200; total, 9,000.

Belleville, Sept. 24.—The offerings here were 3,810 boxes white and 165 boxes colored. Sales on market were: 470 boxes at 11 5-16c and 180 boxes at 11¼c. Balance refused 11¼c on the market. On the street 11¼c ruled. A few bought at 11 5-16c.

London, Ont., Sept. 24.—Five factories offered 535 boxes of cheese; 135 sold on the board at 11⅜c. Market quiet.

Lindsay, Ont., Sept. 24.—The Victoria County Cheese Board met here, and after considerable hesitancy sold most of the cheese at 10¼c; 1,648 boxes were boarded.

Vankleek Hill, Ont., Sept. 24.—There were 1,232 boxes cheese boarded and sold on the Vankleek Hill Cheese Board. Bidding was opened at 11¼c, and at that figure all the cheese was sold.

Cornwall, Sept. 24.—At the Cornwall cheese board 1,097 boxes were boarded, 765 white and 332 colored. All sold except one small lot. Colored brought 11 7-16c and white 11 5-16c to 11⅜c.

Cowansville, Sept. 24.—At the Eastern Townships Dairymen's Exchange 20 factories offered 880 boxes of cheese and 24 creameries offered 1,395 boxes of butter; 757 boxes of salted butter sold for 23c, 300 sold for 22 3-4c, 35 sold for 22½c; 260 boxes saltless butter sold at 23¼c; butter all sold; 288 boxes cheese sold for 11¼c, 275 sold for 11 13-16c, 252 sold for 11⅛c; balance unsold.

St. Hyacinthe, Sept. 24.—About 700 boxes of cheese sold here. The ruling price was 11c. Salted butter, 21½c.

New York, Sept. 24.—Butter, quiet; official prices, creamery, common to extra, 17c to 21c. Cheese, steday and unchanged.

Watertown, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Cheese sales, 5,000 boxes at 11½c for all sizes.

Canton, N.Y., Sept. 24.—1,400 tubs of butter sold at 22c; 2,525 boxes of twin cheese at 11⅝c.

Grain, Flour, Hay

Grain—There was a good demand from foreign sources for new crop Manitoba spring wheat and bids are becoming more satisfactory. Sales of about 40,000 bushels were made this morning. There is also a fair business passing in old crop wheat and Canada oats.

Flour.—There is no change in the condition of the local flour market. There is a fair demand for small lots from both local and country buyers. Manitoba spring wheat patents, $5 to $5.10; strong bakers', $4.70 to $4.80; winter wheat patents, $4.65 to $4.75; straight rollers, $4.30 to $4.40; and in bags, $2 to $2.10.

Millfeed.—The market for millfeed is quiet and steady, buyers having filled their immediate wants. Manitoba bran, in bags, $17 to $18; shorts, $20 to $21 per ton; Ontario bran, in bulk, $15 to $15.50; shorts, $20 to $20.50; milled mouillie, $21 to $24; straight grain mouillie, $28 to $29 per ton.

Rolled Oats.—Business in rolled oats continues quiet and prices are unchanged at $2.25 to $2.30 per bag. Cornmeal is steady at $1.45 to $1.50 per bag.

Hay.—There is a fair local demand for baled hay at steady prices. No. 1, $8.50 to $9; No. 2, $7.50 to $8; clover, mixed, $6.50 to $7; and pure clover, $6 to $6.25 per ton, in car lots.

Grain Marketing Record

Winnipeg, September 24.—Saturday established a record for the marketing of grain on the C. P. R. in the West. The quantity reached over 500,000 bushels for the day, being 519,000 bushels of wheat and 9,000 bushels of other grains, making a total of 528,000 bushels. The unusual activity is due to the following of particularly favorable weather after the spell of rain, so that the rush has been delayed for some days, and now reaches elevators in greater volume. There have been over 2,000,000 bushels more shipped than for the corresponding date last season.

Shipping Grain East

Winnipeg, Sept. 25.—(Special.)—The grain movement eastward is now in full swing and forty trains comprising 824 carloads, were shipped to the lake ports during yesterday and today. Saturday's receipts here totalled 450 cars and heavy loading is reported at all points in the West.

Importance of Our Wheat Crop

Minneapolis—A feature of prime importance, and one being carefully watched by cash grain men, as likely to influence wheat prices eventually, is the quality of the Canadian crop. All interest centered in the comparison, the increase oevr the corresponding day of last year being phenomenal, the figures at that time being ony 56 cars. The really important thing, however, was not the increase, but the quality. There were no less than 92 cars of No. 1 hard wheat in the lot, and 329 of No. 1 northern, the two highest spring wheat grades. As Minneapolis views it this is going to be hard competition abroad for the American product a little later on.

Picton Fruit Packers Prosecuted for False Marking

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Messrs. Jas. Coyle, David Coyle, J. and R. Coyle, J. E. McDonald and H. W. Dudley, of Colborne and Messrs. John Bongard and J. G. Jarvis, of Picton, were prosecuted a few days ago by the Fruit Division for violation of the Fruit Marks Act, and a conviction was secured in each case. The crime for which these parties were prosecuted was that of shipping apples, branded No. 1, or XXX, which were small and immature. Every year the early market is flooded with consignments of immature apples that seriously affect not only the good name of Canadian fruit but the prices for really good fruit which appears later on. Unfortunately no prosecutions can be made against shippers sending forwards small and immature fruit except when it is marked No. 1 or XXX, and by marking such fruit No. 2 or XX, a great many shippers are able to ship it without being liable to prosecution under the Fruit Marks Act. The Fruit Division intends to make every effort to suppress this evil.

Local Cattle Market

At the East End Cattle market this morning the offerings were about 900 head of cattle, 200 hogs and 2,000 sheep and lambs. Good to choice cattle sold at $3.50 and inferior grades at $3 to $3.25 per 100 lbs. Good hogs sold at $6.50 to $6.60 per 100 lbs. and inferior trade at $6 to $6.25. Sheep sold at $3.75 to $4.

COTTON MARKET

New York, Sept. 25. — Cotton futures opened firm. September offered at 10.65; October, 10.66; November, 10.65; December, 10.81; January, 10.92; March, 11.05; May, 11.16.

New York, Sept. 25.—There was no sign of weakness at the close on Saturday and the character of the buying around the ring seemed excellent with common report having it that representatives of New England spinners were buying the cotton of old longs as a hedge. Without accepting the extreme bullish estimates of the crop, there seems to be some basis for bullish hopes in the prospect for a continued and increasing demand which will so greatly favor the plans of the southern grower that whether or not the coming yield turns out larger than actual requirements there will at least be a period during which holders can dictate and can perhaps for a time secure eleven cents at interior points toward which their efforts are now directed. For ourselves, we are inclined to believe that longs should go very slowly and carefully above eleven cents in the local market, but for the immediate future purchases on moderate dips are likely to prove popular.

VISIBLE SUPPLY OF COTTON.

New Orleans, Sept. 25.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton shows the total visible to be 2,746,828 bales, against 2,646,662 last week and 1,422,797 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 1,955,828, against 1,812,662 last week and 557,000 last year.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and Continental Europe 1,421,000, against 659,000 last year; in Egypt 34,000 against 51,000 last year; in India 521,000 against 284,000 last year, and in the United States, 761,000, against 429,000 last year.

Messrs. G. R. Knight and E. Temple, of the Bank of Montreal, left Sunday for a fortnight's shoot in Nova Scotia.

MORE HOUSES STILL NEEDED

The Supply is Not Yet Sufficient to Meet the Demand

The Real Estate Record, in its monthly review, says of the local real estate market: There is a good deal of building going on, but not enough as yet to meet the demand for house accommodation. More houses are needed, and were it not for the increased cost of building there is no doubt but that a more active construction movement would be under way. The tenements, flats, and apartment houses now being built will relieve the situation somewhat next spring, but not for long. Concrete is being used in the United States and in some cities in Canada as a substitute for brick and stone, and some builders look upon concrete as the building material of the future. A concrete building is stated to be practically fireproof, more durable, more easily maintained, and the first cost is less than the ordinary house of brick or stone. If such is the case concrete dwelling houses may soon restore the normal relation between the demand for house accommodation and the supply.

There were 268 real estate transfers in the city wards and Town of Westmount recorded at the registry offices during the month of August, amounting to $1,472,709.

NOTES.

The Elder-Dempster liner Angola arrived at Halifax this morning, en route to Cuban and Mexican ports.

The well known Allan liner Parisian is again in port, having been transferred from the Glasgow and New York route to temporarily take the place of the turbiner Victorian in the mail service. Captain J. M. Johnston reports much fog and heavy weather, but the mails were landed at Rimouski at daylight Sunday, and the steerage passengers at Quebec last evening. The officers of the Parisian are J. C. Gourlay, chief officer; Dr. Alexander, surgeon; J. S. Williamson, purser; G. Jackson, chief engineer, and A. Stuart, chief steward.

Mr. McMinn, late chief steward of the Ottawa, is coming out in the same position on the Kensington, which vessel is to take home the bulk of the garrison from Bermuda. Mr. Torr has succeeded Mr. McMinn in the Ottawa.

The Dominion liner keeps up her former reputation as the White Star Germanic for speed and comfort, having made the passage from Liverpool to Quebec in 7 days, 11 hours, 15 minutes, allowing for difference in time, despite stormy weather. She left Liverpool Thursday afternoon, Sept. 14, and actually landed her passengers in Montreal last Friday afternoon.

The Allan Line Royal Mail steamer Bavarian sailed from Moville at 2 p.m. on Friday, 22nd September, with 167 first, 252 second and 700 steerage passengers.

The turbiner Virginian reached Liverpool at 7 a.m. Saturday. Passage, 6 days, Rimouski to Moville.

The R.M.S. Tunisian only got away from Rimouski at 7 p.m. Saturday, with 53 first, 88 second and 151 steerage passengers, and the mails which left Montreal Friday evening.

The Allan Line steamer Pretorian sailed from Glasgow 23rd Sept., with 20 first, 125 second and 43 steerage passengers.

The Happiness of Home

Very largely depends on the mother's disposition; if she is animated and bright, everyone is happy; but if she is nervous, irritable and cross—everything goes wrong. Bright, cheery women usually use Ferrozone, the greatest health-maker known. By acting through the blood Ferrozone is able to reach all the organs that need assistance; it establishes regular and healthy action of all functions, builds up the general health, fortifies the system with a reserve of energy that defies disease. Don't put off — Ferrozone costs only 50c at any drug store; get it to-day.

Michael Marr, thirty-five years of age, while at work painting his house at 601 Park avenue, Montreal Annex, on Saturday, fell from a ladder and fractured his right thigh. He was conveyed to the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Detroit, Mich.—Capt. David B. Cadotte, a well known master of lake vessels, died at his home here, from paralysis.
