MARTINVILLE WAR COMMITTEE
ISSUES REPORT

District of Johnville, Martinville, Bulwer and Birchton Announce War Loan Objective of $12,000 Exceeded by $6,950.

Martinville, Nov. 18.—The joint committee of Martinville, Johnville, Bulwer and Birchton have issued their report which gives an idea of the war effort accomplished by these committees under the leadership of Messrs. Wilfrid Veilleux, Oscar Lessard, Leon Cote, Camille Cote, Wilfrid Turcotte, Francois Cote, Armand Beaudoin and J. M. Perusse, Secretary.

They extend to the citizens of these localities sincere thanks for their spirit of patriotism. They also wish to thank two devoted canvassers, Messrs. Arsene Cote and J. M. Lessard, who have by their untiring efforts realized such appreciative results. With an objective of $12,000 the population subscribed the generous sum of $18,950.

It is interesting to mention the subscription of an eleven-year-old lad, Gaston Lessard, of Martinville, who unknown to his parents spontaneously decided to take a fifty-dollar Victory Bond, the amount of his savings of several years. This fine patriotic gesture given by young Gaston Lessard deserves the congratulations of all and shows the spirit of the youth of Canada.

Retreating German

Monday without encountering a single enemy plane.

The fall of Derna placed the 8th Army within 150 miles of Bengasi along the coastal road. El Mechili, on the desert trail flanking the green mountains along the coast, is only 125 miles east of Bengasi and 220 miles from El Agheila.

No Axis stand is expected at Bengasi where demolition fires have been observed, but there is some indication of a fight at El Agheila where salt marshes narrow the passageway along the Mediterranean to about thirty mine-studded miles.

"Our troops have occupied Derna and El Mechili," a terse headquarters communiqué said. "The 8th Army continues its pursuit of the enemy."

Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery has not lost contact with the fleeing Germans and Italians but he has been unable to bring them to bay for a death blow.

Military sources said that even a superb mechanical army like Montgomery's sooner or later has to wear and tear on machines and men.

As Rommel retreats, his forces pick up communication and supply groups as well as garrisons which manned the long land route from Tripoli to Egypt. These additions, however, are not all fighting units and some perhaps only add to the burden of traffic on the road of retreat.

His first-line fighters are believed to have dwindled to fewer than 20,000 tired and tattered men, but the men he has picked up on his retreat probably have swollen his surviving force between 70,000 and 100,000 men.

Their remaining equipment is so sparse, however, and their morale is believed so low that they are no longer considered a formidable fighting force. It is a matter of overtaking them for the final kill.

Roosevelt Claims

will be established not by any individual in metropolitan France or overseas—but by the French people themselves, after they have been set free by the victory of the United Nations.

This statement coincided with the policy of the Fighting French who all along, ever since their organization soon after the fall of France, have declared they are not a political movement but a military organization and that only the French people, in the immediate post-war period, can decide the government of France.

Mr. Roosevelt emphasized not only the temporary nature of the arrangement with Darlan but its necessity. He said it was justified "by the stress of battle" and was designed to save American, British and French lives and to save time.

"The temporary arrangement," he said, "has made it possible to avoid a 'mopping-up' period in Algiers and Morocco which might have taken a month or two to consummate. Such a period would have delayed the concentration for the attack from the West on Tunis, and, we hope, on Tripoli."

"Every day of delay in the current operation would have enabled the Germans and Italians to build up a strong resistance, to dig in and make a huge operation on our part essential before we could win."

"Here again, many more lives will be saved under the present speedy offensive, than if we had had to delay it for a month or more."

This part of the President's statement was interpreted to mean that Darlan had been used by Eisenhower to solve an urgent problem of civilian administration in Morocco and Algiers and that the arrangement had only an indirect bearing on military operations. This view was strengthened later when Mr. Roosevelt declared the arrangements with Darlan "apply, without exception, to the current situation only."

The only direct reference to military operations was this: "It will also be noted that French troops, under the command of General (Henri) Girard, have already been in action against the enemy in the fighting by the side of American and British soldiers for the liberation of their country."

The statement made no elaboration of this situation which is rendered extraordinary by the fact that Gen. Girard, who never has been pro-Nazi and who headed the dissenting movement in Vichy, Africa, immediately after the invasion, later assumed command of French garrison troops under the titular control of Darlan who only a few months ago was designated in succession to Marshal Henri Philippe Pétain as "Chief of State" at Vichy.

Similarly, the President's statement made no reference to ex-colonialists and reactionary French politicians "escaping to French North Africa, men like Pierre-Francois Flanzy and Pacheux."

The statement concluded with these words: "I have requested the liberation of all persons in Northern Africa who had been imprisoned because they opposed the efforts of all Nazis to dominate the world, and have asked for the abrogation of all laws and decrees inspired by Nazi governments or Nazi ideologists."

"Reports indicate that the French of North Africa are subordinating all political questions to the formation of a common front against the common enemy."

are operating both in North and South Tunisia.

The Allied forces were pictured as driving both for a head-on clash with the estimated 10,000 Germans in the Bizerte-Tunis area and in an enveloping move to the South which would cut the road to Libya, perhaps at Gabes, and thus divide the Axis forces.

The Southern column was reported advancing from Tebessa in Western Algeria toward Gafsa, Tunisia, a small military post less than 100 miles Northwest of Gabes which is also expected by rail with the Tunisian force of Sfax.

Reuters said some paratroopers landed "close to an important key town in Tunisia and were moving swiftly Eastward to carry out important reconnaissance."

The planes encountered no difficulties on their flight into Tunisia and "the crews of the transport planes saw people rushing out of their homes and waving at them as they sped toward their base," the dispatch said.

The German air force was reported massing, however, in Sicily and Sardinia and in Southern Italy and that around 1,000 German planes now are in these areas in addition to Italian machines. Tremendous air battles are expected to develop for control of the mid-Mediterranean.

Reports continued of clashes between advanced French patrols and German reconnaissance groups operating out of Bizerte. The word at Allied headquarters was that the French patrols did not engage the Germans, but reported back to headquarters.

Rotary District Governor Batchelder Outlines Objectives of Organization At Sherbrooke Rotary Club Meeting

District Rotary Governor Lee Batchelder, of Nashua, N.H., classed the four principal objectives of Rotary as community, club, vocational and international services last night when he addressed members of the Sherbrooke Rotary Club in the New Sherbrooke House while making his official visit.

"To encourage and foster high ethical standards in business and professions" was his definition of vocational service. He said that this means the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

Owing to its international scope, the speaker explained that Rotary International as a unit has its hands tied so far as doing anything in furthering the war effort. He pointed out that this is not to be taken as a fact that each and every Rotary club is autonomous.

Pointing out also that he has developed virtually the entire globe, he said that in countries which are still neutral, there are seven Rotary clubs in Ireland, 111 in Argentina, 92 in Chile, 25 in Switzerland and 41 in Sweden.

He conveyed the "greetings" from Rotary International in Chicago and thanked the local club members for nominating and subsequently electing him to the post of Governor for District 195. Speaking on the recently elected officers and directors of Rotary International, Mr. Batchelder declared that all the officials are capable men and that once again the international organization is in

FEW MOTORISTS ABLE TO PROVE TIRE OWNERSHIP

Should Keep Record of Tire Numbers, Size and Make for Identification Purposes in Case of Theft.

If a motorist's tires are stolen and he has not a record of their numbers, size and make to give investigators, the chances of their recovery will be considerably lessened and he will be unable to prove ownership if they are found, Director of Police Percy Donahue warned today.

He said that less than ten per cent of automobile owners have any record of their tire numbers and a marked increase is reported in the stripping of automobiles of their tires and wheels and in the theft of automobiles to obtain tires.

He pointed out that the department and officers of the theft bureau are doing a good job in rounding up the tires but their work is greatly handicapped by the inability of the owners to identify them.

Every motorist, Director Donahue added, should give special thought towards security when he parks his car. Cars which are placed in dead storage, whether in a private or a public garage, are not immune from theft and while the owner may be guaranteed by insurance for the value of his tires, new ones cannot be secured unless the owner is in the eligible class.

In any case, he repeated the advisability of all owners to immediately record the numbers, size and make of their tires, as this will not only be helpful to police authorities, but also will assist in recovering their own property.

LIFE INSURANCE LEGISLATION IS SAID OUT-MODED

The Civil Code as it pertains to life insurance was explained to members of the Life Underwriters' Association at their regular monthly dinner meeting held yesterday at the Chateau Frontenac by Arcadius Denis, local advocate.

Mr. Denis pointed out that laws concerning the life insurance business in the Province of Quebec are not up to date, that the other eight provinces in the Dominion have a uniform life insurance act and that Quebec would do well to enact such legislation.

In outlining the Civil Code Mr. Denis gave a review of the insurance business throughout Quebec and Canada from the time of its commencement. He said that when the Dominion was taken over by Great Britain in 1774 and French Canada was allowed to retain its own laws, there was no clause in the legislation concerning insurance and the first entry in the Civil Code was made in 1860.

Butter And Egg Shortage In E.T. May Be Relieved In Several Weeks

There is a definite butter and egg shortage in Sherbrooke and in the Eastern Townships, but the situation, at least as far as eggs are concerned, should be alleviated in several weeks, a survey conducted by a Record reporter indicated today.

Shoppers have in recent days noticed the shortage. Numerous places have been out of stock of these dairy products before noon. The survey disclosed that the storekeeper is not to blame for the situation. The fact is that war conditions have drawn heavily on fresh and storage stocks and the stores are bending every effort to assure equitable distribution to the public.

This is the time of the year which egg men describe as the "short period" and in pacetime the low production of fresh eggs would be offset by the use of storage eggs. But eggs in war years, instead of being put into storage, are powdered and shipped Overseas and therefore are not available here.

According to experts, however, the production of fresh eggs should be high enough in the next two or three weeks to look after normal requirements.

It was also learned that the recent beef shortage also had its effect on the egg situation. People switched to eggs and reserves for the "short period."

The butter shortage, on the other hand, can be directly traced to the old law of supply and demand according to a manager of a local chain store. He said that production is down, while demand is up. Part of the increased consumption can be attributed to the heavy demands made by the armed services.

According to an official of a local concern which curries butter, the price ceiling also has played an important part in the butter shortage. The price was frozen at thirty-five cents a pound in carload lots until the beginning of November.

Then a monthly increase of three-quarters of a cent was permitted for the following four months and one-half cent for March. Consequently, much butter is being tied up for February and March.

It is unlikely, according to this official, that the situation will be relieved until more cheese factories switch to butter.

Supply Of Womanpower Locally Is In Excess Of Demand In Industry

Supply of womanpower continues to be far in excess of demand in Sherbrooke, National Selective Service officials stated here today. At the present time there are several hundred women registered as unemployed on the files of the Sherbrooke Office of Selective Service.

Permits are only issued to applicants when orders are placed with the Selective Service office. When applicants are told at the factory that they must have permits before they can be interviewed, it does not mean that the factory needs girls at that time. The factories are only following out instructions under the National Selective Service Act.

It is known that in some cases women are going to factories to seek employment without the necessary permits, which is a direct contravention of the Act.

HOLIDAY MAIL OVERSEAS SET RECORD HIGH

Christmas mail for Overseas has set a new high in Sherbrooke, Post Master C. E. Soles said today. He pointed out that relations between post office employees and the public were amazingly good, considering the large increase of parcels that have been sent Overseas compared with last Christmas.

"People have at last learned not to pack presents in flimsy containers," he remarked. "It's taken three years of war, but parcels were better packed this year than they've ever been."

All parcels for Overseas were first sent to Ottawa. Christmas greetings also are going out via airgraphs at the rate of several thousand a week. Air letters are rapidly gaining in popularity and the "straight" mail is at an all-time high.

Boxes for bombed out victims Overseas are packed by a self-supporting group of ladies and turned in to the Salvation Army for Overseas shipment.

The guest speaker was introduced by Ernest Germain and thanked by W. Fortin.

A report on the Membership Committee was given by its chairman, Jean Valenti, who announced that a letter had been received by the Sherbrooke Association from Frank Robinson, President of the Life Underwriters' Association, stating that ten new members will have to be added to the local organization to bring its membership up to par.

This addition would raise the number of members from sixty-five to seventy-five. The membership quota for the Dominion is 9,000,000 while only 2,000,912 have so far registered.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, H. Robitaille, who also read a letter from J. Vidal thanking the members for the delegation that visited him while he was in hospital and also for the flowers sent him.

The Life Underwriters' Association of Toronto sent a letter to the President, S. H. Gallinger, who acted as chairman for the meeting, requesting that names be submitted to them for nomination as Provincial Vice-President. As no definite decision could be made at yesterday's session, this matter will be discussed at the next meeting.

In his letter he wished Brome County every success and sent greetings to his friends in Knowlton.

GERMANY FACES A GRIM WINTER

The Allied blows in North Africa struck Nazi Germany at a time when it was entering the grimmest winter of the war, for from the standpoint of five determining factors of war—military, economic and political strength, tenacity of allies and morale—Germany is at a crossroads.

It is not a question of a "turnip winter" like that in 1917 which presaged the fall of Imperial Germany. Goering has told the world the suppressed peoples will starve before Germany does. But Germany has eaten through her reserves despite the strictest rationing. This year's overall harvest is reported to be only eighty per cent of normal, although the Germans are tilling one million more acres than last year when the harvest was fifteen per cent below average.

Disorganized by war, flood, drought, peasant hoarding and guerilla warfare, the rest of Europe is much worse off. In France total wheat production is down 500,000 tons to 6,000,000 and the Germans have ordered the French to double their deliveries to the Reich despite the recent loss of African supplies. Italy can barely squeeze through the winter with its 7,000,000 tons. The Balkans, supposed to be the Nazi granary, will have barely enough food for themselves. Fodder is generally less, meaning there is likely to be extensive livestock slaughter. The Nazis are claiming nothing from the Russian Ukraine this year. Finland, Poland, Belgium and Norway are Europe's black spots, with young and old sinking under food deficiencies and diseases.

Economically, Germany is hitting an all-time low. Most of the deterioration is traceable to manpower shortage and transportation knots. And Hitler still has not obtained the oil and rubber he covets. The war in Russia proved a tremendous drain of economic resources for Germany and blockaded Europe, instead of filling the reservoirs as the Nazis had hoped. The North African occupation has cut off Germany's access to phosphates, irreplaceable as fertilizer, cobalt, vegetable oils, manganese, antimony, wool, cotton, fresh fruits and vegetables. Besides it has closed a leak in the blockade through which Hitler was getting Far Eastern supplies such as rubber.

Hitler has exhausted his own labor. Six million foreigners, one in every four workmen, are engaged in Germany, but they are mostly of low efficiency. The skilled hands he needs are in France where Frenchmen have declined to help the Nazis. Meanwhile, the growing strain of long hours, R.A.F. raids and war conditions on health and stamina of the industrious German workers is beginning to tell in declining productivity per man.

An iron and steel shortage is becoming a bottleneck. As a result machinery in plants closed down, because of wartime transfers, is being scrapped. Air raids on the Ruhr district are estimated to have caused a drop of 1,250,000 tons in Germany's steel production. To stretch the supply of steel, the quality is being diluted. After four years of high-speed war production, machinery is beginning to balk, due to normal wear and tear and inability to make replacements. It is estimated that only twenty per cent of Germany's present production is for civilian needs.

Hitler is beginning to exploit Russian potentials, but he faces a colossal transportation and machinery problem. The Russians worked the land he has occupied with 200,000 tractors and kept traffic moving with more than 7,000 locomotives. He has not a fraction of that number, unless he wants to paralyze the rest of Europe. Already the German radio has warned the Germans they may have to fetch goods, food and fuel from railway stations and ports this winter with handcarts.

Politically, Hitler's last year has been barren. Instead of winning over the suppressed peoples, he was forced to use harsher measures to keep them in control. Hitler, Goering and Goebbels have been apologizing for hardships and making threats against saboteurs. Doubt about the outcome of the war is creeping into the leaders' speeches. This wavering among the leadership and reports that Hitler has shaken up the high command because he has lost faith in some of his generals are helping to undermine and weaken the morale of the Germans who went into the war expecting it to be over with the fall of Poland. Instead victory after victory has led merely to greater hardships and great trials. Anti-war talk, especially among soldiers, appears to be spreading. A German anti-Nazi station said "Hitler can no longer win the war. He can only prolong it—and prolongation spells ruin for us Germans."

NORWEGIAN HUMOR STILL LIVES

It is hard to laugh in German-occupied Norway—unless you are a German. Yet the Norwegians are laughing anyway, even if their mirth is ironic and even bitter at times.

The pent-up emotions of a people who have seen their land despoiled and who are seeing their cherished monuments of hand and brain trampled beneath the feet of the Nazis lie behind the nudgings and smiles of the Norwegians.

The new humor of Norway, say spokesmen of the Royal Norwegian Government in England, has arisen because of, and revolves around, the German occupation, the feverish invasion exercises by Nazi troops, the German attack on Russia and the difficulties of the Norwegian Quislings.

"The new humor is aimed at the whole ridiculous farce of the 'new order' which promised the 'golden era' but which has provided only grinding poverty and misery so deep that the spirit of man is confounded," said a spokesman.

So great has the scale of arrests in Norway become, say Government officials in London, that it has almost become embarrassing to remain free.

It is that feeling that gives rise to the story, told in cafes and meeting places, of a man who wanted to be arrested because so many of his friends were in prison and had, because of this, become immensely popular as a result.

SHIPPING AFTER THE WAR

The United States Maritime Commission and the War Shipping Administration are reported to have received a request from the Chinese Government for the transfer of a number of new merchant vessels to form the nucleus of a Chinese mercantile marine after the war. China has never possessed an overseas shipping service of any size, and even the coastal service has largely been carried on by ships owned by foreign companies. Yet there are thousands of Chinese seamen on foreign freighters, and very capable seamen they make, too.

The Norwegian Government has also asked for a large allocation of ships. Norway has a strong claim to consideration. When Norway joined the Allies she handed over nearly 900 vessels of about 6,000,000 tons, but lost 1,600,000 tons of shipping in German, Danish and other ports. Of the original 900 ships about 350 have been destroyed, aggregating over 2,000,000 tons, and she is still losing them. It is reported that the Maritime Commission made a tentative offer of a large number of old ships, but the Norwegian Government regarded this as an insult. Norway has done a valuable work in carrying oil to the British Isles.

The problem of allocation of shipping after the war will be different from the last war. The aggregate Allied losses have probably been much higher. Germany lost very few merchant ships between 1914 and 1918 because she mainly fought an internal war and did not have to send her ships to sea with supplies. They simply were interned or remained in home ports. After the war the Allies partly recouped their losses by appropriating part of the German mercantile marine. The United States liner Leviathan, and the British liners Berengaria and Majestic were former German vessels. Germany and Italy have kept their big ships at home, but these two nations have suffered severe mercantile marine losses owing to the North Africa campaign and the traffic which has been stealthily carried on between Germany and French, Dutch and Norwegian ports. So heavily has the Axis suffered that the British Government announced last week that Germany had demanded the handing over of thirty-five ships from the Vichy regime to reinforce the diminishing resources, these ships being either French, or interned ships of other nationalities.

The close of the war will see a great shortage of shipping, notwithstanding the intensive building programmes. Building will be continued at a rapid rate, but the needs of the United Nations must come first.

And it will be a matter of condign retribution that China gets a real mercantile marine and not be wholly dependent on Japan or any other nation.

The allied Balkan powers have agreed to the plea of Turkey for an armistice, but before the fighting ceased, the Servians took Monastir, the second most important city in European Turkey. The agreement is believed to have eased the general tension somewhat and Russia is reported to have suspended its general mobilization order.

Several Reasons Why Newspaper Advertising Essential In Wartime

Ottawa Journal

People are sometimes heard to ask why advertising should be allowed in wartime. They argue that it is a wasteful and useless practice that should be abolished or at least greatly curtailed.

Sensible answers to such people are provided in the Retailers' Bulletin, an official publication of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board. The Bulletin states simply that if the production of particular goods or services is permitted then it is permissible to sell them, and it is permissible to assist their sales by using advertising media within the few regulations set forth by the Government. Moreover, the Bulletin outlines the following ways in which advertising may contribute to the stabilization of business and the economical distribution of goods and services:

"Informing customers of the effect of Government regulations upon purchasing."
"Giving current information regarding available goods to prevent panic buying or hoarding due to rumors or temporary shortages."
"Interpreting priority or simplified practice rulings by giving reasons for rationing, limitations of supply, reduced deliveries or other curtailments of service."

"Guiding the buying public quickly to available perishable goods or other goods in plentiful supply."

The Bulletin further makes clear that merchants may advertise comparative prices in order to move perishable, out-of-season stock or broken ranges of stock which are offered at special prices. Such advertising is helpful to organized commerce, although it should not encourage unnecessary buying, nor stimulate desire to hoard.
Concludes the Bulletin:

"Until peacetime conditions are restored, advertising will find many new and different functions to perform urging customers to restrict their choice and to save rather than to choose and to spend, educating the public to more economical and fuller use of available commodities, informing consumers of the facts behind the elimination of 'frills' from new standardized and simplified products, etc."

PRESS COMMENTS

GENERAL GIRAUD AND GENERAL DE GAULLE

Detroit Free Press
Perhaps the strongest testimonial to the value of Gen. Giraud is Lieut. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's readiness to accept him as the key man in the job of swinging the French forces in Africa to our side.

Just what Gen. Charles de Gaulle thinks about all this is a subject as yet undiscussed by that officer. The grace with which he accepts the new situation will tell a great deal about his character, however, for there can be no doubt that Gen. Giraud has supplanted him as head man among the Fighting French. The matter of rank, alone, would make this so.

Gen. Giraud was one of the French Republic's senior commanders and a member of its Supreme War Council. Planned as a fort, its residents live like spartans. They know that Gibraltar will give more than a good account of itself if the Axis hurls its forces against them.

They know, too, that the Empire's fate may depend upon the toughness of their fort. The quantity of those hidden fortifications below the rock.
Watching trucks loaded with limestone running over narrow gauge railway tracks, I marvelled at the ingenuity of these men. Their work is a lasting monument to British engineering skill and adaptability.

WHEN THE DAY OF FREEDOM ARRIVES

Ottawa Journal

The Polish Government in exile has come out to decree the death penalty for anyone responsible for the death or "special suffering" imposed upon Polish citizens, says it has detailed evidence against 3,000 Germans guilty of such crimes. This brings out a new angle to the "trial of the guilty" discussion of the past week. It is natural that the United Nations should be considering trial and punishment of Nazi leaders such as Hitler, Hess, Goering, Himmler and Goebbels but what of the Nazi rank and file—the Gestapo terrorists who range over Europe with the rope of the hangman? A day will come when Hitler's armies will be driven from the countries they now torture; fall back towards Berlin. The thought of what will come then is a terrifying thing. Easy it is for the people on this continent untouched by atrocities, to think of the German army in surrender under ordinary war usages. Not so easy will the same thought be for the people who have seen their homes put to the torch, their families tortured, their women despoiled. Day in to the waist and France, what Hitler has sown, may well be a terrible thing.

FORCED TRUMP LEAD ASSURES CONTRACT

Members of the American Contract Bridge League who enter the armed forces are invited to participate in any tournament event of the league without fee, and a sprinkling of uniforms is found at all league tournaments today. The All-American Masters individual, one of the standing individual events of the country, was won this year by Lieut. Comdr. Robert Cunningham, who is stationed at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Today's hand is one that helped Commander Cunningham to victory. West's double of his three heart bid looked sure-fire, but the Commander was too much for him. The first trick went to the diamond ace. A club lead put dummy in with the ace to lead the queen of spades, which held. After cashing the ace of spades, South exited with a club. West returned his third spade, which South ruffed. Now the diamond lead forced West in with a trump and he had to lead trumps back. That assured South of five trump tricks besides his four side tricks.

rial, transacted much important business, and made plans for future activities, including a card party at the Chateau Frontenac on Tuesday evening, December 8th.

Mrs. R. M. Loughheed, Regent, presided and the minutes as read by Mrs. May Bordwin, and the financial report given by Mrs. F. Shorter, Treasurer, were approved.

STORM CAUSED BIG DAMAGE AT CLARENCEVILLE

Roofs Torn from Houses, Barns and Sheds and Chimneys Knocked to Ground by Heavy Wind.

Clarenceville, Nov. 18.—A terrific storm coming from a Southerly direction caused extensive damage in the village of Clarenceville and also in Clarenceville East one night, recently, continuing its violent attack the following morning. The wind, coming in squalls, was strong enough to tear the tops from houses, barns and sheds and to blow chimneys to the ground.

Heavy property damages were experienced by Herbert McCarthy, Clement Derick and Albert Rowe. Mr. McCarthy had the metal roofing stripped from his residence, while the upper part of a chimney was blown completely down. Canvas, provided by neighbors, was thrown over the exposed boarding to prevent the rain which followed from doing damage to the interior of the house.

Albert Rowe sustained the complete loss of the metal roofing, boards and rafters covering his stable thus exposing hay, straw and cattle to the falling rain. Destruction of a barn roof and a portion of the roof of his house was experienced by Clement Derick. Metal, boards and rafters were blown down and a chimney was also damaged on the residence formerly owned by the late Frederick Beerworth.

Others in the village losing part of their roofing were Aubrey Hunter, metal sheeting on roof of residence; Mrs. Flora Miller, shingle roof on barn; John Brault, shingle roof; and John Brown, Jr., metal roofing from barn and veranda. A summer house in front of Joseph Girard's home was overturned and slight damage was done to the Empire Hall and Lewis' store.

Outside the village and in Clarenceville East Charles Hawley lost shingles, boards and rafters from a stable and shed, Jesse Derick had similar damage done to a cow shed and roofing from one of Kenneth McCullough's barns was lost.

"The War—and Your Underwear"

While we are doing our best to provide good underwear for our retailers and consumers in every city, town and village in Canada we would like to remind our patrons that good underwear is more precious than ever. This, of course, is because the needs of Canada's gallant fighting forces must come FIRST. Furthermore it must be remembered that our allotments of wool, cotton and practically everything entering into the making of good underwear are limited by government restrictions.

For this reason we ask STANFIELD'S distributors, retailers and consumers not to buy any more underwear than they actually need; and to consumers particularly we suggest that they take good care of the underwear they now have on hand. In order to help you do this please write for our new folder: "How To Make Your Underwear Last Longer." The folder covers instructions for the underwear worn by men, women, children and infants.

Stanstead, Nov. 18.—The first session of the Adult School, which has been held at Stanstead College during the past six weeks, took place on Wednesday evening, November 11, in Pierce Hall.

Rev. C. M. Stewart introduced Mr. Hickson, who made a few remarks on "Esperanto."

How SKINNY People GAIN WEIGHT

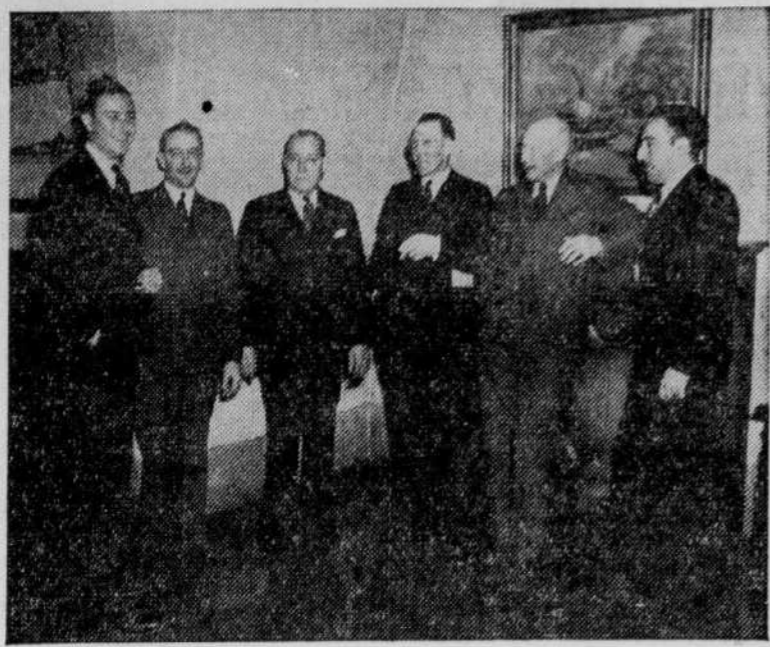

Do you worry because you're thin, your cheeks hollow, your figure so bony that people call you "skinny"? Worry no longer—many can now gain EXTRA pounds of solid flesh if they will only let Nature help.

Yes, chances are, you too can gain weight by taking a special tonic—medicine that works entirely on natural principles. This tonic, called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, works in 2 ways to help Nature. (1) Stimulates appetite.

(2) Promotes flow of gastric juices, so essential to proper digestion and assimilation of food. You eat more, get greater nourishment. The result in extra pounds, new strength and vigor, is often amazing.

See what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery can do for you! Over 30 million bottles already sold. All druggists sell Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in liquid or tablet form. Excellent for listless underweight children who won't eat—to regain strength after sickness, or if tired, weak, rundown.

ENTERTAINMENT MUCH ENJOYED AT BIRCHTON

Large Number of Young People Attended Halloween Party Held at Home of Mr. Oscar Desruisseaux.

Birchton, Nov. 18.—A unique group of people wandered into Mr. Oscar Desruisseaux residence on the evening of October 31, where they found several companies of Birchton's youth begging for charity.

The guests were invited into the house by a grinning Jack-o-lantern in the window, and a gay "welcome" on the door. Their next act was to greet their host—an immense being, who kept his post all the evening, greeting each fellow-sufferer with a jingling shake of his red, clammy fingers.

The old witch's illuminated pall of fire acted as the source of a maze of "cobwebs" which presented slight difficulty to any being who wandered blindly.

After a considerable period of silence, broken only by the characteristic action of certain personalities, or muffled exclamations of others, their identities were learned.

Among those in costume were Mrs. Bernal Hodgman, as a Country Gentleman; Mrs. F. A. Hodge, as a witch riding her broom; Mrs. Charles Lefebvre posed as an old-fashioned lady; Mrs. Weston and Mrs. Stuart Costes were ladies of the Gay Nineties; Mrs. O. Desruisseaux and Mrs. W. A. Soutiere, a pair of nightbirds; Mrs. Howard Kerr, a modern gentleman; Mrs. Beaton, Lady Esther; Mrs. Stanley Taylor, a wandering gypsy; Mrs. Leo Williams, the ghost.

KEEP VISION KEEN!

FOR CLOSE WORK LONGER HOURS

Men and women can work no better nor faster than they can see. At home, at the office, in the factory, scientific lighting is helping to prevent the eyestrain that so often leads to sub-standard work and reduced production.

To Protect Precious Eyesight, Reddy Kilowatt recommends that you:

- Shade every light to eliminate glare.
- Use indirect reflector lamps wherever possible.
- Use light-coloured shades.
- Place lamps in positions where they will give the most light.
- Avoid sharp contrasts between brightly lighted surfaces and dark backgrounds.
- Guard against light reflected into the eyes from shiny surfaces.
- Keep fixtures, and especially globes, clean.
- For close eye work do not work in your own shadow.
- Use the right size globe.
- When redecorating, use light colours on walls and ceiling.
- Rest your eyes by closing them occasionally.
- If your eyes feel strained or unduly tired, see a competent eye specialist.

REDDY SAYS:

"With lighting fixtures, too, make this your motto:

FIX THEM UP! MAKE THEM LAST! KEEP THEM WORKING!"

REMEMBRANCE DAY BANQUET AT KNOWLTON

Canadian Legion Holds Annual Armistice Service Celebration at Lakeview Hotel—Nearly Two Hundred Present.

Nov. 18.—At the Knowlton Branch Canadian Legion annual Armistice Day banquet held at the Lakeview Hotel, Knowlton, nearly 200 were present. Veterans, wives and members of the Eastern Townships Group Mobile Force were present.

Mr. E. Fleury, Mayor of Knowlton, presided at the head table. Also were Mr. F. A. Sutcliffe, Group Commander of the Mobile Force; Mrs. Sutcliffe, who represented the ladies; Colonel R. Stockwell, the guest speaker; Mr. X, a Free Fighting Frenchman; Mr. Thomas Devlin, the President of the Knowlton Legion; Mr. K. Mincner, Secretary, and the Rev. Mr. Mitchell.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell having asked the blessing, everyone sat down to an appetizing meal. A toast to the King and the National Anthem opened the programme. A piano selection was rendered by Mrs. Gingras, after which tribute was paid to the departed for whom Remembrance Day was created. Rev. Mitchell also asked for a moment's silence for the late Legion President, Mr. Bannister, also a two-minute silence for the gone but not forgotten heroes of the First Great War.

The next item was a solo by Mr. Bullard, "Trumpet What Are You Sounding?" followed by an encore, "We'll Never Let the Old Flag Fall." A toast to the ladies was proposed by Colonel R. Stockwell and responded to by Mrs. F. A. Sutcliffe, who, representing the mothers, wives, sisters and sweethearts, spoke of the huge task they were shouldering in helping to "keep on keeping on." Another piano selection by Mrs. Gingras was enjoyed. Then Mr. Fleury rose to introduce the guest speaker, Mr. X, who like himself, being a Frenchman, took great pleasure in introducing him in his own language and requesting Mr. F. A. Sutcliffe to present him in English.

Mr. X, who was in the French army at the beginning of hostilities, gave a very vivid account of his experiences while there, and also after getting his discharge after the French armistice with Nazi Germany. His account of conditions in German-occupied France, though terribly sad was most interesting and everyone's interest was held to the last word. The hearty applause proved it most effectively. The new Legion President, Mr. Thomas Devlin, was next introduced and his popularity was also demonstrated. Mrs. Gingras, taking her place at the piano, accompanied many popular songs of the First Great War in which everyone joined most heartily.

Mr. F. A. Sutcliffe rose to propose a vote of thanks and appreciation to Mr. Fleury, Brome County's grand old gentleman, who although no longer a young man, is tireless in his efforts to help out in any way possible to make things generally happy for everyone. The National Anthem brought a thoroughly enjoyable evening to a close. Congratulations were extended to the manager and staff of the Lakeview Hotel for the very efficient management and excellent dinner served.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING

The parents' and teachers' gathering held in the Heroes' Memorial High School on November 13, was most interesting. Two short films opened the programme. Principal Arthurs introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Hatcher, whose address was entitled "Some Problems of Education." Mr. Hatcher said in part that in a democratic country education should be everybody's concern and everybody should contribute and not just the rate-payers.

He stressed the necessity of the curriculum being broadened to meet the needs of pupils. So often the course of study does not suit the child and he is marked as a failure. More patriotism and internationalism should be taught. If that were done there would be no more wars. Mr. Hatcher concluded his remarks with a humorous poem, written by one of his summer school pupils from Newfoundland concerning his teaching. The lady teachers served refreshments after a social hour.

AN ODE TO OLD ENGLAND

Oh an ode I would sing to old England, To her wondrous tenacious power; When at grips with the foe, she will never let go, But will hold him from hour to hour. Her courage well known is unfailing, Proverbial her honor and truth; To tyranny she will never be yielding, An example to each country's youth. Give a toast to her brave fighting soldiers, To her airmen and sailors in blue; May God guard them and guide them forever, To our cause may they ever prove true. Then a toast to our fine loyal Allies, Who have come to our aid in our need, "For blood it is thicker than water," So for kinship and democracy they bleed. May all nations rejoice then together When the horrors of war shall cease, Be united in friendship forever; In a world of long lasting peace. May we follow our Saviour's example, Unto all men be kind and just; May we practice the golden rule of love, Inspiring in each heart full trust. —Rebecca H. Pope. Danville, Que.

HOLLETT HEADING TOWARD SCORING TITLE

Recovers Old Scoring Kick In Boston Event

Registers Initial Tally Against Canucks Which with Third-Period Assist Brings Points Standing to Seven.

By The Canadian Press
 William (Flash) Hollett has uncovered an old scoring kick which seems destined to place him among the National Hockey League's top-scoring defencemen this season.

In his early playing days with Toronto Maple Leafs, the 30-year-old North Sydney, N.S., native was regarded as an outstanding front-line prospect, but somehow his promise always exceeded his performance. This year things may be different. Hollett scored the all-important first goal last night as Boston Bruins thumped Montreal Canadiens 4-1 before 7,500 fans at Boston Garden to move into a third-place tie with Leafs and Canucks.

It was Hollett's third goal in three games and, coupled with a third-period assist, brought his point total to seven, higher than any other defenceman in the league.

Bruins never were in danger after that. Murph Chamberlain made it 2-0 at 4:00 of the third period on a pass from Herbie Cain and Art Jackson added another for Boston before Buddy O'Connor, heading a three-man rush, beat Frankie Brimsek for the only Montreal goal. Harvey Jackson converted Hollett's passout 36 seconds before the final whistle to complete the scoring.

The Flying Frenchmen played without Maurice Richard, Emile (Butch) Bouchard, Elmer Lach and Terry Reardon, who are unable to obtain passports to cross into the United States. Bruins lacked the services of Bill Shill, youthful centre of Boston's kid line.

Plaintive Plea Of Vancouver Fighter Termed Mere Kidding

By CHARLES EDWARDS, Canadian Press Staff Writer
 Toronto, Nov. 18.—Possibly taking a tip from the Joe Louis-Billy Conn merry-go-round, Vancouver's Ken Lindsay, now a shipyard worker, told newsmen he owed $1,200 in 1940 income tax and wanted one more big fight "in order to square up with the income tax department". The story was published and Ken's manager, Arnold Bertram, rushed to explain Lindsay was only kidding. "How would he ever owe $1,200 for 1940 anyway?" asked Bertram. "That was the year he won the amateur title. He didn't even turn pro until March. I wish he would quit kidding folks." I'll bet he does, what with the income tax inspectors reading newspapers so carefully.

Hockey League, Dick (Port Arthur News-Chronicle) Elliott writes: "Maybe Madison Square Garden, which apparently thought it could no longer handle two clubs, had better send out an S.O.S. to Mervyn Dutton to bring back, post haste, his Brooklyn Americans."

All three armed services are represented in Halifax's six-team senior basketball loop... Elmer (Montreal Herald) Ferguson tells this one: The day after Hockey Czar Frank Calder slapped a $100 fine on Detroit's Jimmy Orlando for the Gaye Stewart fight in Toronto, Orlando accidentally entered the referee's room in the unfamiliar Montreal Forum. Orlando, no pal of officialdom, was beating an orderly retreat when in stepped Calder. "What are you doing here?" asked the czar in chilly tones. "I'm not wearing a street cap," muttered Orlando and plunged outside.

ANNUAL L.O.L. MEETING HELD AT REEDSDALE

Megantic Lodge in Session in New Orange Hall — Committees Named and Assigned to Various Tasks.

Reedsdale, Nov. 18.—The annual meeting of the L. O. C. Lodge of Megantic was held at Reedsdale, on November 18, in the new Orange Hall, a building in which L. O. L., No. 678 and Orange Lily Lodge, No. 1041, L.O.B.A., have their respective rooms.

There was a goodly number of brethren present from practically every English speaking section of the County and while the number present was not as large as usual, this was due to the fact that it is almost impossible to secure hired help on the farms here and many were compelled to remain at home for this reason.

The meeting was called to order at eleven o'clock by the W. C. M. Bro. Murray Nugent and the Lodge got down to business at once. The various committees were named and assigned to their tasks. At twelve o'clock the Lodge adjourned for dinner, which was served by the ladies of No. 1041, with the assistance of several sisters from other lodges, who had motored in for the day. In spite of wartime restrictions, on various necessities required by those in charge of such a dinner, the ladies met the challenge with a smile and by their skill and experience served a wonderful dinner, which was enjoyed by all.

At one-thirty the Lodge resumed its business and the committees appointed soon reported their findings to the Lodge. The committee on returns found the Order still going strong and plans were laid for an energetic campaign to be launched at once to secure more members.

Another fact disclosed by this same committee was that practically every Orange Lodge in Megantic has one or more members in the armed forces, something of which all are very proud.

An invitation was extended to the Ladies' Lodge to send in a delegation to the County Lodge. Three Sisters, representing the L. O. B. A., in this county, were admitted. They were Sisters Clara McHarg, Grand Mistress of Quebec; Vera Little, of Osgoode Valley, No. 995, and Pearl Marshall, Worthy Mistress of No. 1041. Short but appropriate addresses were given by the visitors.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: W.C.M. Bro. Murray Nugent; W.C. D.M., Bro. C. W. McVetty; W.C.C., Bro. Robert Cruickshank; W.C.R.S., Bro. C. W. Nugent; W.C.F.S., Bro. Ben Seale; W.C.T., Bro. James Moore; W.C.M., Bro. Ernest Ross; W. C. Lecturers, Bros. George Davidson, Albert Adley and Ben Rothney; Sentinel, Bro. William Learmonth, Jr.; Tyler, Bro. Carrol King.

In the evening a large number of members, their families and friends gathered together to spend a very pleasant social evening in dancing to the excellent music provided.

This account of the proceedings of this pleasant fraternal and social event would be incomplete indeed if thanks were not expressed to Bro. William "Bill" Espan, who delighted the audience with several songs after lunch.

General Notes

Mr. W. D. Lowry has sold his farm to Mr. Guy Davidson, of Millfield.

Mrs. C. W. McVetty and Mrs. A. J. McVetty spent a day with Mrs. James Longmoss and family.

Mr. P. H. Cox, of East Angus, spent the week-end at his home here.

Sport Shorts From Britain

By ALLAN NICKLESON, Canadian Press Staff Writer.
 London, Nov. 18.—Britain's history of wartime sport will record that the first woman to design and construct a golf course was a member of the W. A. A. F.

The course is to be carved from waste ground adjoining an air force station and will be for exclusive use of R. A. F. and W. A. A. F. personnel. Play will be in full swing this winter.

The woman architect, for whom this will be a spare-time job, is Kathleen Garmham, well-known English international golfer who won the French title. An assistant staff officer in the W. A. A. F., she is stationed at the camp and is sure of all volunteer labor necessary.

"It will be a nine-hole course and I have one or two long ones in mind," said Miss Garmham. "There will be no bunkers because we can't afford them but the character of the country lends itself to natural hazards and the golf won't be easy."

Cleveland Missed Chance To Advance In American League

(By the Canadian Press)
 Hershey Bears added two points to their first-place margin in the Eastern Division of the American Hockey League by nosing out Cleveland Barons 5-4 last night in Cleveland.

It was the only game played in the circuit and by losing the Barons missed an opportunity to tie Indianapolis Capitals for second place in the Western half of the League.

Cleveland had a 1-0 lead going into the second period but after twenty minutes had passed the score was tied 3-3.

With the assistance of Les Cunningham, Earl Bartholome put the Barons one goal ahead at 2:30 of the final stanza.

The Bears tied the count at 4-4 at 14:40 on a goal by Roger Jenkins.

One minute and 45 seconds later, Wally Kilrea drilled home the goal that gave the Bears the game.

Providence Reds, who now are trailing the Bears by three points, will play at New Haven tonight while Hershey will try to extend its streak at the expense of Washington Lions in Washington.

Buffalo Bisons, Western half leaders, will not see action until Thursday night when they tangle with the Caps at Indianapolis.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR COMMUNITY SCHOOL IN 1943

The fifth annual Community School was brought to a most successful close at the last session. The largest attendance this year was welcomed by the Executive, and enthusiastic plans were made for next year's school.

Two movies, "Food for the Nation" and "Bip Goes to Town" were followed by an interesting talk by Dr. Stanley Allen, of Sir George Williams College, Montreal.

After a lively discussion, cocoa and cookies were enjoyed and a short sing-song, then the floor was cleared for square dancing under the direction of Mr. Yates, of Milby.

The Executive Committee for next year was announced as follows:

Father and Son

Today fathers and sons are getting to know each other better than ever before. They're working together in Civilian Defense... mapping their own global strategy on the fireside front... and sharing their leisure hours at home. Today, too, fathers and sons are shopping together... buying the same "duration" quality clothes,—the kind of clothes for which ARNOLD'S has long been famous.

ALL PROCEEDS DEVOTED TO WELFARE ORGANIZATIONS
BELVIDERE STREET ARMOURY
NOVEMBER 19-20-21

"SERVICE ABOVE SELF—HE PROFITS MOST WHO SERVES BEST"

Rotary Fair Will Open At Belvidere Armory Tomorrow

Everything Is In Readiness For Opening Of 10th Annual Rotary Fair Tomorrow Night

Planned on a scale to outclass all previous performances, the tenth annual Sherbrooke Rotary Fair opens tomorrow evening at the Belvidere Street Armory, and will continue Friday evening and Saturday afternoon and evening. The proceeds are to be used to assist in war work and to help crippled children.

The Fair is looked forward to and eagerly anticipated by young and old alike, citizens, not only of Sherbrooke, but of all parts of the Eastern Townships. The slogan of this year's entertainment epitomizes the basis and background of the whole affair: "Taking Pleasure in Making Pleasure to Give Pleasure to Others."

Organization of this annual undertaking of the local Rotary Club requires months of preparation and tireless effort on the part of every Rotarian. The fact that these efforts are being put into the planning of their Fair and that every year the show breaks all previous records is assurance that this year's entertainment will surpass all other shows.

Held every year since 1931, the Rotary Fair has continued to grow in size and favor with the public. The 1942 affair is to be the biggest and most attractive of all, the Rotarians striving to make their tenth anniversary an outstandingly successful one. Guaranteed to contain everything that will please one and all this year's Fair has many new games added to the long list of old favorites. Erection of booths for games, refreshment stands and decorations, the color scheme of which gives the show a patriotic theme, have made a remarkable transformation of the Belvidere Street Armory.

This is a difficult job the Rotary Club members undertake, but for ten consecutive years they have kept it up. The reason is because the Rotarians are essentially a service club, their main objective being to help others, and it is through their Fair that they are able to accomplish such splendid and beneficial work. The public in recent years has come to realize this and has given such enthusiastic support to the project that over $4,000 was realized from last year's show.

The Rotary show can well be considered Eastern Canada's greatest indoor Fair, providing the amusement, color and thrills of a regular country Fair. Proceeds are distributed among such institutions as the Child Welfare Clinic, Bien Etre de l'Enfance, Junior Welfare League, Jeunes Ouvriers Canadiens, Sherbrooke Hospital, Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, Boy Scouts Toy Shop, Les Scouts Catholiques, Toc H, Canadian Legion, 'Girls' Cottage Industrial School, Sherbrooke Public Library, l'Assistance Maternelle, Salvation Army, Strikers Hospital, St. Vincent de Paul Society, Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A., summer camps for boys and girls, Victorian Order of Nurses and a number of others.

General Chairman of the tenth annual Fair is Willard G. Cross, whose past work as director of this great undertaking has merited re-election to this important post.

Phil Mathias is making preparations for the gala "Kiddies' Day" ceremony, the annual Saturday afternoon feature of the Fair, when the children of the city are the guests of Rotary at an entertainment that will long be remembered by them. Special attention is being given this project to insure a happy matinee for the kiddies.

Among the many games and various types of entertainment that will be enjoyed by the customers are the two blanket booths, fruit booth, Superline (always one of the most attractive and biggest drawing cards), Contact (a new and interesting game), grocery booth, the ever-popular Hoop-la, chicken booth, cigarette booth, two Jubilee booths, candy booth, the fascinating new auto game, Keno and several new games which doubtlessly will prove very popular.

Raffle tickets are to be sold in the armory during the Fair and drawing for prizes will take place each evening, with the drawing for the grand prize coming as a climax to proceedings on Saturday night.

In recognition of the beneficial results to be derived from this event the manufacturers, industrial establishments, business firms and private individuals of Sherbrooke and district have lent their enthusiastic support to help the organizers of the Fair. One of the main features of the event is, of course the fact that no admission is being charged to enter the armory.

DUCKETT'S WORK IN ORTHOPAEDIC FIELD REVIEWED

Physical Deformities Greatly Attenuated or Completely Corrected by Advanced Technique.

A Record representative recently had the opportunity of inspecting the laboratory and exhibit room of J. A. Duckett on Bleury Street, Montreal, who gave explanations about his art and the peculiar technical aspects of orthopaedics.

For many years Mr. Duckett has been experimenting in the field of human activity, striving all the time to improve his orthopaedic apparatus in order to procure the greatest relief to those who have to use such appliances. In many instances, the brace has not only brought relief but also prevented aggravation of the ailment. Since such instruments are intended to offset physical deficiencies they ultimately help rehabilitation.

"Rehabilitation," said Mr. Duckett, "could be defined as the reintegration in its normal functions, in as much as humanly possible, of a limb or any part of the body previously injured. It has existed from time immemorial. Its name alone belongs to our century. Doctors, surgeons and later the orthopaedists have given their time and talents to the worthy task of improving the cripple's lot. Since many years, much importance is conceded to the therapeutic value of massages, electrical and mechanical treatments as means of rehabilitation.

"More recently, the therapeutic occupation has gained popularity and is now of precious help. It consists in prescribing a kind of work which while occupying the mind of the patient will make the injured part of the body execute certain motions. For instance, a worker suffering from a stiff knee will fashion a piece of wood with a hinge as motioned by a pedal impelling the patient's knee to perform its regular functions. Needless to add that such treatment must be prescribed only by the doctor and applied under his supervision. Other times, the therapeutic occupation will have in view a change of trade or profeSSION when the injury prevents the patient from going back to his original work. Therefore a brace aims at rehabilitation since it is fashioned to correct or prevent deformity of the human body.

"The art of rehabilitation is no less warranted in the case of a prosthesis since the artificial limb like the orthopaedic apparatus must be made by an expert orthopaedic technician having a certain knowledge of the anatomy and physiology of the human body.

"An artificial limb cannot be appropriate in two different cases. Its structure and weight must depend on the age, nature of work, weight and size of the amputee; also on the quality of the stump and functional value of the near articulation. This notion is not well understood in certain quarters. Like an automobile, an artificial limb or any orthopaedic apparatus requires the care of a qualified technician who will assure the necessary service in view of maximum efficiency. Any such apparatus must be re-examined from time to time by the orthopaedic technician who shall see to it that the amputee benefits by the greatest comfort and results obtainable thanks to periodical readjustments which prolong the life of the apparatus. No automobile owner would think of buying a car without making sure of the proper service. No more would he think of assuring himself the service of a mechanic living outside his country; the loss of time would be too annoying and too expensive. This applies as well to the limb-wearer. It is entirely a certain number of amputees allow themselves to be the victims of peddlers, expert at gilding the pill, who sell them ready-made artificial limbs on a commission basis. These peddlers have no knowledge of anatomy or mechanics. Most of them wear an artificial limb and this is the main factor of their so-called competence. No dental faculty of any University would dare deliver a dentist's diploma to any student just because he happens to wear one or two dental plates. Unfortunately, no law has yet been passed which would protect the amputee who suffers from an ill-fitted prosthesis and the orthopaedic technician who puts his apparatus and experience at the service of those unfortunate victims. Many societies justly protect the crippled child. No society protects the adult in this sense. Yet there is one to protect animals against cruelty on the part of human beings. One must also understand that the artificial limb is a mechanical assemblage just like an automobile. After a certain time, one must discard it and purchase a new one. After all, is it not worth while to spend two hundred dollars if necessary, considering what the artificial limb enables the amputee to earn during five or eight years.

"Note must be taken of this, for certain people who should understand this item seem to forget it by complaining that an artificial limb is too expensive.

"Here is a particular instance to demonstrate what such an apparatus can do. A boy aged 16, the eldest of the family, could not use his right leg on account of abnormal growth. This member was consequently much shorter than the other and the youngster could only walk with the help of two crutches, his right knee dangling and in fact because his muscles were contracted. Without his crutches he could never have attended one of our schools for crippled children in Montreal. His surgeon made him understand that it would be nearly impossible to offer his services in any office by introducing himself with his crutches. It was also explained to him that, on the contrary, if he was operated on and has his knee disarticulated, he could later on be fitted with an artificial leg which permit him to solicit a position as an office clerk without the help of unsightly crutches. What had been proposed to the lad has been accepted and done. Result: since he left the school, the lad works, earns an honourable living and in turn helps out his brothers and sisters. J. A. DUCKETT

Has the largest and most modern establishment of its kind in Canada. All vital work is done under Mr. Duckett's personal supervision.

WARNING TO THE AMPUTEE

The present method of supplying limbs is not in keeping with scientific progress. Surgery had made giant steps forward during the last fifty years and the making of Orthopaedic and prosthetic apparatus has also greatly improved, but the fitting of same is not modernized. Peddlers are still providing amputees with prostheses more or less adjusted. Even if the surgeon gives a good advice to his patient, the latter, having gone back home, is now subject to the influence of salesmen who may or may not wear an artificial limb and care more for their commission than the comfort of the limb-wearer. This system is detrimental to the amputee. And all this is the result of the absence of a law (similar to that regarding the setting of false teeth or glasses) prohibiting the fitting of a prosthesis by an unqualified fitter.

SERVICE

Whatever is the type of limb, wherever it comes from, it is worthless if the wearer cannot have it properly fitted and refitted at times when needed. This is service that only an experienced orthopaedic mechanic can successfully give you. SERVICE TO THE AMPUTEE is the spirit of J. A. DUCKETT.

DUCKETT'S IMPROVED APPARATUS FOR PARALYSIS OF THE LOWER EXTREMITIES

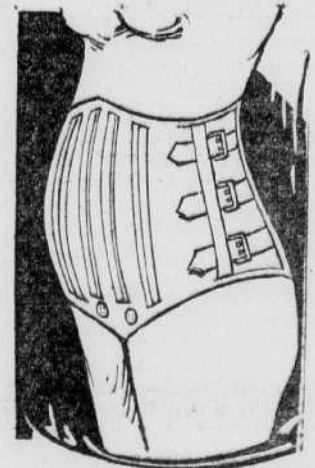

Illustrates our latest apparatus for partial paralysis affecting the limbs, to the hip joint. Its construction is radically different from those usually made and offers several important points of merit. As shown in the cut, the joints at knee and hip are placed at points of advantage. That at the knee is set back to prevent the limb at this point from too-ready flexion and that at the hip to counteract the possibility of the body from shifting forward, which is materially assisted by an additional light steel band encircling the waist around the back from hip to hip and connected in front with an adjustable band.

FLAT FOOT

In severe cases of flat foot we recommend Whitman plates. But, in milder cases, your patient will find great relief from Duckett's special muscle building Arch Supports, made light and flexible.

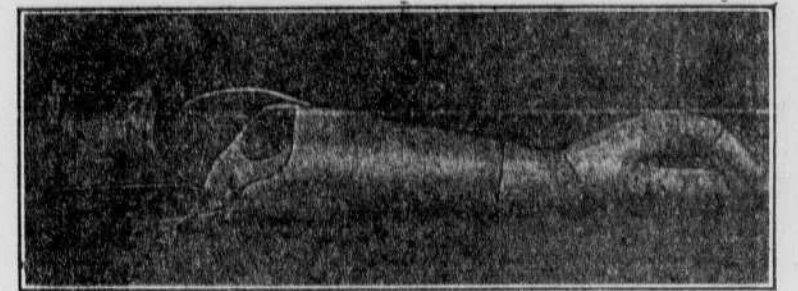

There are numerous Arch Supports put on the market to correct flat foot that are made over a form, and in some cases answer the purpose. We have always maintained that there is no ready made Arch Support manufactured in this way that will give the desired results in more than ten per cent of the cases. The reason is that there are different ligaments in the foot that may be affected, that cause pain in the various joints viz: Astragalo-Scaphoid Junction, Calcaneo Cuboid Junction, External Malleolus, Oscalis and Metatarsal Joints, also Rigid Flat Foot caused by inflammatory conditions or rheumatism. All conditions can not be corrected by ready-made Arch Supports but can be improved by our Arch Supports made according to the conditions of the case.

We advise all patients who require one of our appliances to have their case diagnosed by their doctor to be sure that they will have the suitable appliance made for their case.

MECHANICAL TREATMENT OF ABDOMINAL HERNIA

Definition — Hernia is the protrusion from a cavity, of any of its natural contents. Abdominal hernia is, therefore, the protrusion through the retaining wall of any of the enclosed viscera. This generally occurs at some point in the muscular wall that is weakened by the transmission of nerves and blood vessels, at points congenitally defective, or through muscular parts that have been previously lacerated or incised. Hernia results, in almost every instance, from the gradual stretching of tissue and escape of the abdominal contents, either into a preformed (congenital) sac, or by the formation of a sac (acquired) from the peritoneal lining of the abdomen. Abdominal hernial derive their names from the part of the abdominal wall through which they pass. The terms inguinal, femoral, or umbilical, denote at once their place of escape, the exception to this being ventral hernia, which may occur at any point in the anterior abdominal wall other than in the regions named. As ventral hernia occurs at points in the muscular wall so strong as ordinarily to resist hernial protrusion, it follows that when it does occur, it is either due to some congenital defect or is the result of some injury, such as a stab wound or a cutting operation. Extreme distention of the abdomen may also result in such separation of its aponeurotic fibres as the allow of protrusion. Rupture is a serious matter. Consult your doctor. If you do not wish to have an operation, have a truss made to order and scientifically fitted. Beware of so called expert fitters. All our trusses are made to order and fitted to each individual case. Patient is shown how to fit his truss which is very important for his comfort.

SPINAL CURVATURE

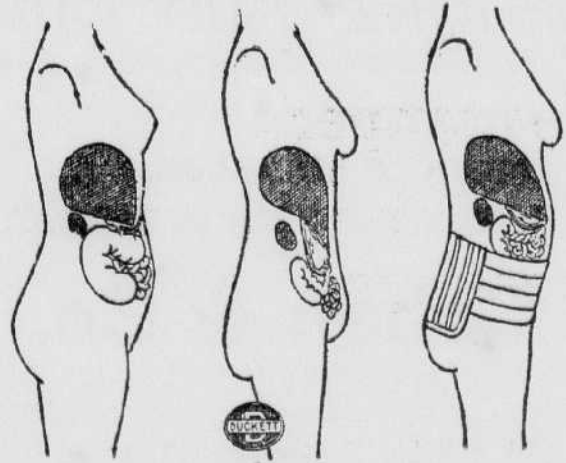

We have Coutil, Leather, reinforced with steel, and Celluloid Corsets, for lateral and antero posterior curvature of the spine. These corsets are made from a plaster cast of the patient.

ABDOMINAL BELTS

Duckett's Abdominal Belts are made to order and fitted to each individual case according to the directions of their Doctor.

GASTROPTOSIS OR SAGGING STOMACH

- No. 1 — Correct posture with stomach and intestines in good position.
- No. 2 — Protruding abdomen of a patient, showing a sagging in the intestines and a displaced stomach.
- No. 3 — Same case after Duckett's special Gastro-enteroptosis Belt has been applied showing the stomach and intestines elevated and maintained in their usual position.

HONOR MEMORY OF WAR HEROES FROM KNOWLTON

Special Services Marking Remembrance Day Held at St. Paul's Anglican Church at Knowlton.

Knowlton, Nov. 18.—A remembrance Day service took place at St. Paul's Anglican Church on November 8, in the evening, with Rev. Canon Mason in charge, assisted by Mr. Hitchcock, lay reader, the sermon being delivered by Rev. E. D. Mitchell.

The hymns sung were "Onward Christian Soldiers," "God of Our Fathers Known of Old" and "Sun of My Soul." The anthem, "O Valiant Hearts" was rendered by the choir during the Offertory.

Psalms XLII, XLIII and XLIV were read responsively. The lesson was taken from Psalm XXVII and Revelation XXI.

Rev. Canon Mason welcomed the members of the Brome Branch Canadian Legion, who were in attendance in a body and called upon their

ON OFFICIAL VISIT TO ROTARY CLUB

David Lee Batchelor, Governor of the 195th District of Rotary International, who last night paid his official visit to the Sherbrooke Rotary Club. It is probable that Governor Batchelor will stay over to officially open the annual Rotary Fair, which will get under way at the Belvidere Street Armory tomorrow night.

Chaplain, Rev. E. D. Mitchell, to deliver the message. Rev. Mitchell took as his text the fourth chapter of St. Paul's second Epistle to Timothy: "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

In his letter to Timothy, St. Paul is mentioning the fact that life is a conflict, life is progress and development and also means stewardship.

Rev. Mr. Mitchell went on to say that God has given us an heritage that is our faith. This is our trust today and thank God for those who are defending this trust of ours, protecting our faith, our way of life, our freedom. These things are entrusted to us. Let us defend them or protect them and thus life is three-fold.

UNITED CHURCH UNVEILS HONOR ROLL

A special service took place in the United Church on Sunday morning, November 8, with the Pastor, Rev. E. D. Mitchell, in charge, when an honor roll for thirty boys and one young lady of the church who are serving in the forces was unveiled.

Hymns sung were "Lord, While For All Mankind We Pray," "O God of Love, O King of Peace" and the National Anthem. Mrs. L. M. Knowlton at the organ.

Psalm XLVI was read, the honor roll was placed on the wall by Mr. D. H. Hayes, Jr., who also read the names, after which Rev. Mr. Mitchell offered special prayers for these young people.

The pastor chose for his theme "Remember this Day," taken from the book of Exodus, and likened the young people to a Church family and said "these young people whom we know are truly making a contribution that no money can repay. No remembrance is enough, for they are giving themselves." His closing words were "May God be with them and bless them; our prayers are ever with them. We commend them to a loving Heavenly Father and in His care they are safe."

PATRIOTIC EASTMAN REACHES VICTORY LOAN OBJECTIVE

The Village of Eastman is the latest municipality in Brome County to go over the top.

The citizens of the village were afraid they were not going to reach their objective, so a group of English and French ladies, headed by Mrs. Breault, bought sufficient bonds to put the municipality over the top on the last day of the Campaign.

This little act of patriotism also shows the splendid unity which exists in this little community between the English and French speaking population.

General Notes

"...We could no more teach school today without the newspaper than we could have taught it a hundred years ago without the slate."

THIS TRIBUTE to the importance of the newspaper in the classroom is from a recent statement by E. R. Van Kleeck, Assistant Commissioner of Education of the State of New York. His department supervises the education of 2,000,000 children in North America's largest public school system.

Mr. Van Kleeck is not alone in this view. Educators and teachers throughout the country know that textbooks alone are not enough to prepare today's students for the world of tomorrow. They realize that if the boys and girls in our schools and colleges are to solve tomorrow's problems successfully, they must know and understand what's going on in the fast-moving world of today.

They realize, too, that the newspaper is indispensable in acquiring this knowledge and understanding. For, in the classroom or out of it, the daily newspaper satisfies the need for the news... and its interpretation... as no other medium can.

In these critical days, all of us... young and old, students, teachers and parents... are relying on newspapers more heavily than ever before, not only for the news of the day but also for guidance and instruction in waging the war on the home front.

It's not surprising, therefore, that so many advertisers find the newspaper today's most effective medium for presenting their messages to the public.

CLUB LOST VALUABLE MEMBER

In the death of Bert Williams, the Sherbrooke Rotary Club lost one of its most valuable members as Mr. Williams had filled the position of Secretary for the past sixteen years.

DIXVILLE

The friends of Mrs. Delmar Huff will regret to learn that she is a patient in the Sherbrooke Hospital. Mrs. Thomas Robinson has received a cable from her husband, Cpl. Robinson, announcing his safe arrival in Great Britain.

Mr. Henry Major is spending the week in Rock Island, where he has a situation in Butterfields.

The Women's Mission Circle held its regular meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred L. McCoy with a fair attendance. Mrs. George Ham, the President, was in the chair and conducted the opening exercises. This was followed by the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the Secretary, Mrs. C. Mayhew. Missionary readings were presented and the service closed with a hymn.

During the very high wind which prevailed on Tuesday, November 10, the Town shed across from the Post Office was lifted from its foundation and turned completely over.

Veteran Guards I. R. Whitehouse and Nelson A. Beaton have been transferred from Sherbrooke to Valcartier.

Miss Elizabeth Parsons, of Pownal, Me., is spending a few days here with her aunt, Miss Emma M. Damon, Church Street.

FULFORD

The Women's Association of the United Church met at the home of Mrs. Oscar Davis on November 5 for the purpose of finishing a quilt. The attendance was good and a very pleasant day was passed. The President, Mrs. Cooper, presided at the business session. After the general routine of business was taken care of, refreshments were served at the noon hour. Mrs. Harold Strick offered her home for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fessenden, of Washington, D.C., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fessenden, at The Island, for a week. On Sunday, November 8, Mr. Luke Fessenden celebrated his eighty-fifth birthday and received congratulations from many friends and relatives. Those present for the birthday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Fessenden, of Washington, D.C.; Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Webb, daughters, Luvia and Joanne and son, Merton and Charles Webb, of Asbestos; Mrs. Roland Hutchison and daughter, Pamela, of Drummondville, and Mr. and Mrs. Eben Fessenden and daughters, Betty and June, of Fulford. A very pleasant family reunion was enjoyed. Mr. Fessenden's family and friends extend sincere wishes that he may have many more years of comfortable life before him. Three of his children could not be with him in person, but sent messages by air mail for the occasion.

Mr. Ernest W. Beard and son, Byron, of Iron Hill, called at The Island on November 8.

Mr. Roland D. Hutchison, of Drummondville, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Fessenden.

More than 40,000,000 boxes of grapefruit were produced in 1940, compared with 9,000,000 in 1925.

1,942 MEMBERS IN 53 CLUBS IN 195TH DISTRICT

The Sherbrooke Rotary Club has the unique distinction of being the only all-Canadian club in the 195th District of Rotary International and a few years ago a signal honor was paid to this city's service organization when one of its members, George E. Ewing, was named Governor.

There are fifty-three clubs in the 195th District, with a total membership of 1,942. Although Sherbrooke is the only all-Canadian club, there are two clubs in Canada, the other being at Rock Island and known as the Boundary Club.

The other organizations are in New Hampshire and Vermont. In New Hampshire are Berlin, Bristol, Claremont, Concord, Conway, Franklin, Gorham, Hanover, Keene, Laconia, Lancaster, Lebanon, Littleton, Manchester, Meredith, Nashua, Newport, North Conway, Ossipee, Peterborough, Plymouth, Tilton, Whitefield, Wolfeboro and Woodsville-Wells River; in Vermont, Barre, Bellows Falls, Brandon, Chester, Ludlow, Manchester, Middlebury, Montpelier, Morrisville, Newport, Northfield, Poulney, Randolph, Rutland, St. Albans, St. Johnsbury, Springfield, Stowe, Vergennes, Wallingford, Waterbury, Welsl River-Woodsville, West Rutland, White River Junction, Windsor and Woodstock.

BOYS' WORK OBJECTIVES

The following objectives have been approved as guides for the Boys' Work Committee of Rotary International and as suggestions for Rotary clubs:

- To suggest ways and means whereby Rotarians can effect an intelligent contact with boys.
- To emphasize the importance of education and organized recreation in a boy's life.
- To provide a plan to help in vocational guidance for boys.

BACKGROUND OF BOYS WORK IN ROTARY CLUBS

Each Rotary Club Is Encouraged to Make Survey of Boy Life Situation in Its Community.

The establishment of boys' work as an activity of Rotary clubs was the outgrowth of a more general Rotary programme of community service. It first received official recognition at the 1916 convention when a committee was appointed to ascertain how general was the activity of Rotary clubs in connection with boys' work. At the 1917 convention, an R. I. committee on boys' work was established to guide clubs in their boys' work activities and to encourage additional clubs to engage in the work.

Upon the adoption of the aims and objects plan in 1927, boys' work was directed by the community service and boys' work committees. The following year, a resolution was adopted by the convention providing for a separate boys' work committee.

Boys' work concerns boys, usually under 18 years of age, whereas youth service concerns both young men and young women, usually between the ages of 16 and 24.

There is no conflict between boys' work and youth service. Where overlapping of ages occurs, the two services are complementary, not conflicting.

Boys' work by Rotary clubs is for the purpose of developing boys into good citizens.

Each Rotary club is encouraged to make a survey of the boy life situation in its community; to cooperate with worthy organizations for boys; to help create public organizations for boys; to help create public opinion favorable to affording every boy an opportunity to attain his full mental, physical, and moral development.

GALA TIME HAS BEEN ARRANGED FOR CHILDREN

Kiddies' Matinee Promises Fun and Frolic for Youngsters at Rotary Fair Saturday Afternoon.

When the boys and girls of Sherbrooke hear of the Rotary Fair, their one thought is about the Kiddies Matinee, and according to Rotarian Phil Mathias this year's programme will be of surprising proportions. Leaving no stone unturned to make this Saturday afternoon entertainment one that will long be remembered, the Rotarians plan on giving the children of the city a whole afternoon at the Rotary Fair, devoted just to the things that the children like best.

One of the main attractions this year will be the Sherbrooke Air Cadet Band, which will parade to the Armoury at 1:30 p.m., on Saturday afternoon, and will entertain throughout the entire matinee programme. Beginning at two o'clock, when the doors will be opened to receive the rush of happy youngsters, Rotarian Mathias and his able crew of assistants will have everything in readiness to make the affair a real "fun frolic." Clowns and funmakers of all kinds, pipers with their entrancing bag-pipe music, games to satisfy everyone, and surprises of all kinds are in store for the kiddies.

Ten door prizes of one dollar each will be given away to the lucky ticket holders, each boy and girl will be given a ticket on entering the Armoury and must hang on to their stubs until the drawing takes place just before they go home.

Other prizes and special favors will be distributed to the winners of the various contests and group games, while the majority of the games will be in full operation throughout the afternoon, just the same as in the evening.
