

MR. COCKBURN, SURGEON, &c. &c.

RESPECTFULLY informs the Merchants, Owners and Masters of vessels, that he has opened a House at No. 42, Champlain street, for the reception and accommodation of sick and wounded Seamen, and others; where immediate Medical and Chirurgical assistance may be had, and every necessary attention and comfort administered during their illness, proper persons being engaged for that purpose.

Terms of admission, &c. may be known by application to MR. COCKBURN, at his residence, No. 3, corner House above Prescott Gate, leading to the Union Hotel, or at the above House immediately behind the Cul-de-Sac.

QUEBEC, MAY 1, 1811.