HE MAY RETURN.

Alexander Formally Abdicates, but Says it may not be Forever—A Russo-Turkish Commission Proposed.

SOFIA, September 8.—Prince Alexander has signed the deed of abdication and has departed from Sofia. A compact mass of people witnessed Alexander's departure from the palace and thousands lined the route taken by him through the town. The Prince stood up in his carriage bowing to the people and saying, "Good bye, my brethren." The populace were much affected. Tears sprang to many eyes and hearty wishes were expressed for the Prince's speedy return. Prince Alexander will go first to Lom-Palanka.

WIDDIN, September 8.—Prince Alexander was welcomed here by an enormous crowd with the utmost enthusiasm. The Prince thanked the people and bid them au revoir. Prince Alexander is accompanied by M. Stambuloff. The Prince will go direct to Darmstadt.

THE PRINCE'S MANIFESTO.

A manifesto was issued by Alexander prior to his departure. It says: "We, Alexander Prince of Bulgaria, being convinced that our departure will contribute to Bulgaria's liberation, having received assurances from the Czar that the independence, liberty and rights of our country shall remain intact and that nobody shall interfere with its internal affairs, inform our beloved people that we renounce the throne, wishing to prove how dear to us are the interests of Bulgaria, for which we are willing to sacrifice that which is more precious to us than life. After expressing his affection for his subjects and his heartfelt gratitude for their devotion, he says he will pray God to shield and prosper the country. He concludes by asking the people to obey the regency and ministry to the end that order and peace may be preserved.

PERHAPS NOT FOREVER.

VIENNA, September 8.—The Neue Frie Presse says Alexander yesterday, when delivering his farewell address to his officers and informing them of the urgent necessity he was under to leave Bulgaria, said: "It may departure is not forever it is until the national assembly of Bulgaria decides the question."

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 8.—Diplomats here believe that the Bulgarian national assembly will re-elect Prince Alexander.

A RUSSO-TURKISH COMMISSION.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 8.—On the definite abdication of Prince Alexander, a Turkish and Russian commission will be appointed to form a provisional government to conduct Bulgarian affairs pending the election by the national assembly of a new ruler. The Porte has formally declared that Turkey will never consent to any proposal contingent on the basis that Russia shall occupy Bulgaria, Eastern Roumelia or any part of Turkey.

DISAFFECTION IN SYRIA.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 8.—The population of Syria is almost in a state of insurrection because of the active efforts of Turkey to force Syrian recruits to the Turkish army. The Syrian reserves have been called out and a general conscription is being enforced. Several thousand recruits have been sent to Damascus. People, generally, are much excited, trade is stagnant, most of the people are very poor and recruits who are sent away from their homes as a rule leave their wives and families destitute.

M. DE GIERS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 8.—It is stated that M. DeGiers threatens to withdraw from the triple alliance, if Germany and Austria insisted upon the retention of Alexander.

PARIS, September 8.—The Soir says it is probable that Baron Mohenheim, the present Russian Amoassador to France, will succeed M. De Giers as Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Czar being dissatisfied with the course of M. De Giers in the Bulgarian affair.

A RUSSIAN GOVERNOR.

VIENNA, September 8.—The New Frei Presse says that in spite of her promises Russia will not permit the appointment of any other than a Russian as Governor of Bulgaria.

At Indianapolis, yesterday, the federation of coal miners decided that it was inexpedient to place additional organizers in the field. A resolution was adopted favoring arbitration in machine mining, and urging that the wages of machine miners be equalized with those of pick miners, and a resolution favoring a union with the International Trades' Union of the United States and Canada was adopted. The question of uniting with the Knights of Labor provoked a lengthy debate, and a resolution opposing such an alliance was adopted.

The other night, Gabe Watts, a colored man living near Gadsden, Ala., brained his three children with a club while they slept, because he did not wish to support them. Thinking they were all dead he set the house on fire. The long spell of rainless weather has been very injurious to corn, and late potatoes have suffered seriously. Reports as to potatoes vary greatly. Quality seems to be good, but the quantity is somewhat limited. Buckwheat, will be a small crop and a poor one. As to fruit, apples will be a limited crop, and pears and plums abundant. Hops are a miserable failure.

The work performed by the second commission is confined to the settlement of disputed claims which could not be arbitrated on by the first. To overcome the difficulty the commissioners were empowered to take evidence under oath.

Liability of a Wife for Necessaries.

Judge Torrance heard yesterday an interesting case involving the liability of a wife to pay for necessaries supplied to her and her children. Mr. Wm. Dangerfield, the boot maker, sued a Mrs. Charbeois for an account. The lady pleaded that she had purchased the goods as agent for her husband who was bound to provide for the family. It was proved that the husband was worthless and that the account had been opened in the wife's name. The learned judge decided in favor of the plaintiff for the full amount sued for. Mr. Francis McLennan, of McGibbon & McLennan, appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. A. E. Merrill, for the defendant.

PARNELL'S LAND BILL.

All Hope of a Compromise Abandoned—Chamberlain's Supporters Will not Vote—Reported that Gladstone Will not Support it.

LONDON, September 8.—Since the interview between Lord Hartington and Lord Salisbury all hope of a compromise between the Government and Mr. Parnell has been abandoned. Lord Randolph Churchill is disposed to bargain with Mr. Parnell on the basis of Government support of the single clause of Mr. Parnell's bill relating to the suspension of evictions, but the majority of the Cabinet are opposed to any Irish legislation until next year. Lord Hartington insisted that there should be no tampering with the Parnell bill, and promised Lord Salisbury the vote of the Unionists if the Government absolutely opposed the bill. The Chamberlain section will not vote on the bill. Mr. Chamberlain, who has gone to the country, says he will take no part in the debate. He adheres to his determination to do nothing to embarrass the Government in dealing with Ireland. Lord Randolph Churchill will offer Mr. Parnell facilities for the second reading of his bill on the 16th inst. on the condition that the Parnellites offer no obstructions prior to the passing of the whole of the estimates. The Parnellites, aiming to retain control of the Government, insist upon the consideration of Mr. Parnell's bill before the estimates. The probable issue will be that Mr. Parnell will accept Lord Randolph's offer, knowing that the defeat of his bill is certain. Mr. Parnell has sent a draft of this measure to Mr. Gladstone. The first clause provides that leaseholders may apply to the court to fix equitable rents, the second that the tenants whose rents were fixed a year ago may apply to the court for a re-valuation, and the third that the court, pending discussion on application, may suspend an ejectment on the payment of such proportion of the rent as the court may decide to be proper. The Government whips predict that the debate will be short, and that the House will adjourn on the 25th instant.

The London Standard says Mr. Gladstone has announced that he will not support Mr. Parnell's land bill.

Parnell, in a speech at a banquet to Mr. Justin McCarthy prior to his departure for America, said Mr. McCarthy would be welcomed in America as the foremost Irishman of the age. Great Britain's first duty, he said was to give effect to the principles upon which her own greatness was based, namely, equity, by the people, by the people for the people, and also, if she pleases, to guarantee fair play to the Protestant community in Ireland, though he doubted there were many who feared that the Protestants would not have fair play. A majority of the Liberal party had supported the Irish bill, and he hoped with means of legality and moderation to enable Ireland to take the position for which God had destined her. Mr. McCarthy, in reply, said he was not going to America on a political mission, but merely to pay a friendly visit, as he was extremely fond of Americans.

THE EARTHQUAKE.

Arrangements for the re-Building of Charleston—Another Shock at Summerville.

NEW YORK, September 8.—At an informal meeting held here to-day of several prominent business men of Charleston, S. C., and a portion of the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to solicit aid for the Charleston sufferers, preliminary steps were taken toward the organization of a trust company with its principal office in Charleston, with branch offices in all large cities of the country, for the purpose of raising the necessary funds by subscription for the rebuilding of the ruined portion of the city, the money to be loaned on bonds secured by mortgage on the property improved at 3 per cent. interest.

CHARLESTON, S. C., September 8.—The scene in the market to-day was cheering and hopeful. Long rows of buildings escaped injury, with the exception of a ball at the western end of the market. No attempt has been made to advance prices. The Sailors' home is a complete wreck and will have to be re-built from foundation. The Mariners' church is so seriously injured that it cannot be used. Reports of great distress in coloured villages along the South Carolina railroad are reaching this city. There will be speedy action and what relief is needed will be given out of the Charleston fund. The mayor has appointed a board of engineers and architects, with Capt. W. H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer corps, as chairman, to examine and report upon dangerous buildings for removal. Four colored infants have died from exposure to-day and one man. There was some rain to-day, but the weather to-night is fine and clear.

CHARLESTON, S. C., September 8.—There was a distinct earthquake shock at Summerville this afternoon, but no damage was done.

PORTLAND, Me., September 8.—Captain Clark H. Jewett, of the schooner "George W. Hinshing," thinks the experiences on the Le Have Banks the earthquake that prostrated Charleston. He says that the appearances at that time indicated a high wind, but all was quiet, when suddenly, almost without warning, a black wall seemed to rise on the water and a mighty wave came rolling in that fairly lifted the schooner on its crest to a height that he never before knew a wave to reach. Then the schooner went down, "like going over a bank," Capt. Jewett says, and was buried in the foam below. Emerging from this gave with sails torn from her spars and with the crown work of the topmast gone, the schooner encountered a second wave, but nothing to be compared to the first. A terrific gale followed.

SAVANNAH, Ga., September 8.—A strange incident of the earthquake is the recovery of power of speech by Manuie Marius, daughter of a retired army officer.

A LIBERAL VICTORY.

Haldimand Elects Mr. Colter, the Reform Candidate by 88 Majority.

CAYUGA, Ont., September 8.—The election in Haldimand county to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons caused by the death of Mr. David Thompson, the late member, took place to-day and resulted in the return of Mr. Colter, the Liberal candidate, by a majority of 88 over Mr. Merritt, Conservative against a Liberal majority at the general election of 1882 of 126. Following are the returns of majorities by polls:—

	Merritt.	Colter.
Rainham	....	118
North Cayuga	....	107
Cayuga township	....	31
Seneca	....	39
Walpole	86	....
Caledonia	75	....
Oneida	17	....
Indians	28	....
Totals	206	294
		206
Colter's majority		88

At the general election in 1882 the Liberal majorities were 21 in Cayuga, 106 in Cayuga township, 55 in Rainham, 70 in Seneca and 77 in Walpole, and the Conservative majorities 40 in Caledonia and 9 in Oneida. The Liberals have thus increased their vote in Rainham and Cayuga, and decreased it in Seneca and Cayuga township, while the Liberal majority of 77 in Walpole is wiped out and a Conservative one of 86 substituted, and the figures in Caledonia and Oneida have also increased on the Conservative side.

THE HALIFAX SUGAR REFINERY.

Particulars of the Failure—Due to Mismanagement.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

HALIFAX, September 8.—The report that the Halifax Sugar Refining Company had gone into liquidation has been confirmed. Their affairs are in a deplorable condition. Altogether about $810,000 has been expended, including the amount of stock originally paid up, $600,000, and $200,000 additional obtained on preferential bonds issued a short time ago. To show how this immense sum there are the refinery buildings, machinery, wharf property, etc., at Woodside, several thousand tons of raw sugar and between six and seven hundred puncheons of molasses. Steps are now being taken to dispose of the stock on hand, but whether the buildings and plant can be sold remains to be seen. That the latter will ever realize anything like the amount expended in the purchase and erection is regarded as very improbable. The refinery complete cost half a million dollars, the amount expended in constructing the immense wharf alone being over $17,000. The company's difficulties were rendered more embarrassing by the English creditors pressing for settlement, and it was finally determined that the best course was to place the concern in liquidation. Some of the raw sugar, purchased before affairs reached the culminating point, has already been sold to the Nova Scotia Refinery Company, but a great deal still remains on hand. That purchased by the Nova Scotia Company includes the cargo of the "Sarah Wallace," about 500 tons brought from Macelo, and some hundreds of tons of beet sugar, which arrived some time ago by the steamer "Ulunda" from Hamburg. The latter does not include the $20,000 worth refined two weeks ago, but is a larger part of the same cargo. The unsold sugar is the cargo of the barque "St. Olaf," about 4000 tons imported from Porto Rico by Messrs. J. Butler & Co., and sold to the Halifax Company for cash before the concern suspended. The molasses which also remains undisposed of is worth probably between $1200 and $1400 and arrived here early in August from the Barbadoes. The collapse is said to be the result of the greatest mismanagement, the purchasing and financing being done in England, the manufacturing in Dartmouth and the selling and distributing of the sugar superintended in Halifax. The various bosses clashed with each other.

ANOTHER FISHERY SEIZURE.

HALIFAX, N. S., September 8.—The American schooner "Pearl" was seized at Arichat to-day, for being in harbor without entering the Custom house, and fined $400. She was on her voyage home from the Banks. It is understood that the trial of the "David J. Adams" has been fixed for the 24th inst. That case will be completed and judgment filed before the "Doughty" case is taken up.

The Huntingdon Fair.

The annual fair at Huntingdon on the 15th and 16th inst., which is always a notable event for the surrounding district, promises this year to excel any previous effort. The entries are numerous, and a great deal of interest is taken in the show. The list of attractions is a lengthy one, and among these may be mentioned an address by Professor Brown, of the Ontario Agricultural Society. With the view of attracting a large crowd, passengers will be conveyed at single fare. A special train will leave the Bonaventure Depot, at 8.40 a. m., on the 15th instant, for Huntingdon.

"La Minerve's" Anniversary.

La Minerve celebrates to-day the 59th anniversary of its foundation. Speaking of the events it says: "What we have been in the past we will remain in the future." La Minerve is a French journal, Catholic and Conservative. It belongs to no color, group, coterie, it is faithful to the grand Conservative party, such as it was given to us by Lafontaine, Morin, Taché, Cartier. This morning's issue is a double one and contains a number of very able articles from prominent writers.

HALDIMAND.

Haldimand, a Liberal stronghold since Confederation, has again withstood a siege successfully. The Conservatives are unusually, perhaps unduly disappointed at this last repulse because they had formed great hopes of at length wresting Haldimand from the Liberals. These hopes were based not upon the strength of their standard bearer, for he was anything but a strong candidate; nor we imagine upon any exceptional brilliancy of the government record; but rather upon the recent mistakes of the Liberal party. They had imagined that the Liberals of Haldimand, like many other Liberals, would find it impossible to approve of the questionable alliances that the Liberal leaders have recently formed. One of the inferences to be drawn from the result seems to be that there is not at present so much feeling on the Riel question in Ontario as is pretended by Riel agitators in this province.

STREET ALTERATIONS.

Why should not all work involving the tearing up of the roads be carried on day and night? With the aid of the electric light the work would proceed just as well by night as by day and the inconvenience and loss now caused to the public might be reduced one half. The nuisance occasioned by street alterations is no slight one. Store keepers on the afflicted streets must be great losers. Their stocks are injured and their customers driven away. The only things that go on just as usual during street repairs, pipe laying or sewer building are the rent taxes and other expenses which form the minor delights of shop-keeping. To minimise the nuisance is the very least the Corporation ought to do. It ought to be possible to carry on the work by night at very little expense now that the electric light is being used by the city. These annoyances exasperate the tax-payer more than almost anything the Corporation can do or leave undone, because literally the nuisance is brought home to one's own door.

PROTESTANT CHURCH UNION.

The sermon preached by the Bishop of Algoma before the Provincial Synod is perhaps the most remarkable episcopal utterance that has been made for some time. The grand idea of a union of the Protestant Churches is older than Dr. Sullivan, but it is somewhat novel to hear it discussed as a practical question, and especially by a bishop of the Church of England. Has not the attitude of the Church of England in the past, with regard to this question, been somewhat uncompromising? Has it not been that of a mother most anxious to receive a rather large family of returning prodigal children? Dr. Sullivan believes that union is impossible without mutual concessions. There is a marked tendency towards union among the Protestant Churches in Canada, partly to be accounted for by economic considerations peculiar to widely scattered populations, and perhaps also to some extent by the prominence of the Roman Catholic Church in this country. We do not mean that the Protestant Churches are impelled towards union by a common hostility towards the Roman Catholic Church, but that the outward and visible unity of the Roman Catholic Church makes the disunion of the Protestant Churches a reproach to them. In overwhelmingly Protestant countries many people question whether the separate organizations are a reproach or a source of weakness to Christendom. Few in Canada will consider this a debatable question.

Enormous as the difficulties in the way of the proposed union appear to be, there are none that are insurmountable if the desire for union be general. The differences of doctrine and ritual between the Church of England and other Protestant Churches are not greater than he differences between various sections of the Church of England. In all the Churches we fancy there is a tendency to regard fewer doctrinal ideas as essentials. Dr. Sullivan clings to the Apostolic succession, but a great many Anglicans attach no more importance to it than do dissenters, and are not inconvenienced in the slightest by the fact that a majority of their fellow members share the views of the Bishop of Algoma on this question. It is gratifying to find an Anglican bishop recognizing the responsibility of his own Church to initiate by concessions the movement towards union and also to adapt itself to the requirements of the age. As Dr. Sullivan says: "In this age people do not care for abstract theories, they want tangible facts," and surely men of all churches will agree with him when he says "that Church is destined to success, and deservedly, whether Apostolic or not, which is the first to solve the problem which is presented by the thousands dying in drunkenness and debauchery in the cities; the numbers lacking spiritual attendance on the prairies of the North-West, and the eight hundred millions of pagans in the regions beyond who are waiting the knowledge of the kingdom of Christ." There was a subtle touch of humor in the Bishop's counsel to his brethren to be united among themselves, however, before asking others to be united with them.

THE METHODISTS.

Sir John Macdonald Speaks.

TORONTO, September 8.—The debate on University confederation was resumed this morning. Dr. Nelles said that neither Trinity nor Queen's would ever go in for federation, and Victoria would be left alone. Queen's had spoken out against it and would oppose it. There would be a fight every year over the vote of this money, and the time might come when the Government would refuse to vote the amount. It had been said that a degree from a university including all the colleges would have greater value than one from either of these if disunited, but all the colleges would not join it. Queen's would not, and he would not like to say that a degree from the provincial university would be any better than one from that healthy and growing institution—Queen's. He argued with Principal Grant and Provost Boddy that several universities well equipped would be better than one.

Judge Dean spoke in favor of Confederation, saying that the University should remain in Cobourg. The experience of the United States had shown that denominational university education was the most successful.

Sir John Macdonald, who had entered while Judge Dean was speaking, was invited to the platform after the conclusion of Mr. Maclaren's speech, and being called upon to address the conference, said he took a great interest in the question under discussion, as when he was attorney-general of Upper Canada, he had a very great deal to do with Toronto University. His speech was received with great applause.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

In the afternoon, Mr. Maclaren said, if Federation took place, the university would be managed by the Ontario Government, and the Methodist Church would have no more control than they now have over the Central prison. By the terms of federation the head of University college is ex-officio to be head of the federated university. Would Ontario, when the provinces were united, have permitted one of the clauses of the union to read that the head of the Quebec Government must be ex-officio head of the Dominion Government? Federation would reduce Victoria to the rank of a theological school.

Mr. John Macdonald, the Toronto wholesale merchant, opposed federation, but said the Methodist University should be removed to Toronto, and he would be willing to give $25,000 if it was removed to that city.

Mr. Graham, of Montreal, moved that the discussion close and a vote be taken to-morrow night, and that speakers to-morrow be allowed not longer than twenty minutes, Mr. Mills and Mr. Burwash to be excepted from the latter part of the resolution. This was carried with the amendment that speakers have not longer than fifteen minutes.

During the afternoon Mr. A. B. Powell, of London, asked permission to make an explanation and said he had been wrongly reported in the Christian Guardian in regard to his statement made concerning Mr. Carling. He had the greatest respect for that gentleman and had made no remarks which could be construed as derogatory to his character. Dr. Dewart agreed to make the correction.

EVENING SESSION.

After the reading of the minutes this evening the deputation from Toronto presbytery, consisting of Rev. Dr. Reid, Rev. Mr. Parsons, Rev. Mr. Nicol and Mr. Carlile, were introduced and made speeches congratulating the Methodists on their union and progress, and expressing the hope that the university question would be settled in the way that would most conduce to the welfare of the church.

Some discussion arose as to who should have the floor for this evening's debate, but the chairman finally ruled that Mr. Moore should have the right to speak. Mr. Moore, of Toronto, then addressed the conference in opposition to confederation. It had been said that the association of the youth of the country would soften asperities. Now, Dr. Sutherland and Dr. Dewart had associated for years, but that association did not seem to have softened their asperities. They were asked to go into this to keep a few Methodist students from going to Johns Hopkins and other universities of that kind. Their students who needed that kind of teaching are so few in number that it would not pay them to attempt such work. He closed his speech by promising if the university were removed to Toronto, which he hoped would not be done, to give five acres of ground in Rose Hill park as a peace offering to the university authorities.

Mr. Mills, Principal of Guelph College, then spoke in favor of confederation. He said the experience of the Methodist College connected with McGill showed that they can rely upon a university like Toronto to do their utmost to make a union agreeable. Dr. Ryerson had entreated Dr. Nelles to bring about a union of Victoria and Toronto, but it had not been done, because Dr. Nelles had been afraid to do so.

Dr. Nelles here got up and explained that in 1868, when the Government allowance had been withdrawn, Dr. Punshon had asked the board whether they would continue at Cobourg or give up the college and go to Toronto. So far from himself favoring removal he had voted against it. He denied that he was frightened, and Mr. Mills should make no such statement.

A letter was read from Vice-Chancellor Mulock, Toronto university, which contained a promise that there should be no attempt to remove subjects from the curriculum of the colleges to that of the university without consulting these latter, and also stating that the authorities of Toronto university would grant Victoria twice the number of representatives proposed by the original scheme and in every way concede to her fair demands for modifications.

Under the Canadian Ensign.

All of the steamships of the Allan Line have been lately registered at this port, and the crews during the stay of the vessels in port have been changing the name of the registry port on the sterns of the life boats and the steamships themselves. Some of the older steamships of the line have always carried on their sterns the words: "Of Montreal," but the newer vessels, including the "Parisian" and "Sardinian," have been designated: "Of Liverpool," or "Of Glasgow." In future, all of the vessels of the line will be: "Of Montreal," and this change will add some 50,000 tons to the ocean tonnage registered in the port of Montreal. The object of the change is to obviate the necessity of paying the higher taxes exacted on shipping registered in Great Britain. In virtue of this change, the Allan liners now carry the Canadian ensign and not the red ensign of the British one, as heretofore.

The Vaudreuil Expropriations.

A new issue was reached in the Vaudreuil expropriation cases yesterday, when Mr. L. R. Masson instituted an action against the Ontario & Quebec railway for $14,000. It will be remembered that the arbitrators granted him $3300 some days ago, but this he claims is by far insufficient.

Mr. H. Abbott, on behalf of the company, presented a petition in chambers yesterday for the warrant of possession against Mr. Mallette.

The petition was continued until Friday.

Opinion From the Eastern Townships.

[From the Coaticook Observer.]

The British Canadian (if he be a man of average intelligence and common sense) who pretends to sympathize with Riel is simply a knave and a demagogue in whose honesty it is impossible to believe. * * * * "English speaking people are totally opposed to Mr. Mercier's course on the Riel question, and sooner than support him in a wrong and vicious policy on a vital question they will give a qualified support to his opponents. The course of Mr. Mercier and his friends on the Riel question has placed the English-speaking Liberals of Quebec in a difficult position, but one thing they are determined on, viz., they will not back the Rielites, and will not accept the platform of the Parti National. For the rest they will await the progress of events and be guided by circumstances. If the final result be the total separation of the English Liberals from the party with whom they have heretofore acted, and the reconstruction of parties in Quebec on lines based on differences of race and creed, the French Liberals will have themselves to thank for it, and for the overthrow which is sure to follow of all true Liberalism in the province. The Parti National are courting an antagonism with the British race throughout the whole Dominion which the French Canadians may yet have abundant reason to regret that they ever provoked."

A grand lawn tennis tournament commenced Tuesday at Rochester, N. Y. Canadian representatives from Montreal, Toronto and London were expected.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

Property owners who wish to sell by this method, would consult their own interests by giving me an early call. The entries already made in my diary for September and October, and the number of enquiries from intending buyers, portend an active season. My long experience and unequalled success at this important specialty are well known, and afford a sure guarantee to owners that their interests will be well looked after.

I shall be happy as heretofore, to confer with those intending to sell, and give reliable estimates of market price, cost of advertising, &c., and all necessary information.

Real Estate sales need to be managed from beginning to end with energy, ability, and tact, backed by experience. Advertisements should be well written, and nothing left undone to put each parcel well before the public, both in the newspapers and in the auction room. The Conditions of Sale, both written and verbal, must be so explicit and plainly set forth as to make disputes impossible, so that no "hitch" will occur in having deeds passed promptly. Neglect or lack of experience has often caused serious loss and expensive law suits.

She Didn't Enjoy The Bathing.

"And so you have returned from the seashore?" chirruped a Philadelphia belle, kissing her dear friend.

"Yes; got back this morning."

"And how did you enjoy the bathing?"

"Unfortunately, I could not bathe. The first day I arrived there a mosquito bit me on the arm and made a big lump, and you know my lovely bathing dress was made with short sleeves."

"My, that was too bad."

"Yes, indeed. I was so disappointed that I cried."—Philadelphia Herald.

PURE WINES

VS.

INTOXICATION.

We beg to announce that we are appointed agents in Montreal for the celebrated Ontario Grape Growing and Wine Manufacturing Company, of St. Catharines, Ont.

Previous to our accepting the agency of those celebrated wines, we explained our ideas to the manufacturers, stating that our object was to give the public a first-class article, delightful in taste, made from the PURE JUICE OF THE GRAPE, superior in quality to the imported wine, and at one-third the cost, thereby discouraging the use of strong drinks as a beverage. They understood our "aim" immediately by adopting the "motto" Large Sales and Small Profits, an agreement which they have faithfully carried out. Since we have placed this article before our customers we are constantly in receipt of the highest testimonials from them who are delighted at our success.

THE LATEST BUSINESS RULE.

This new business rule we have established to dispense with cutting samples. Some of our country customers have written for such ridiculous samples that we now make this new rule—that for the future we will not cut any more samples, but any of our customers who require goods can send an order, and if any of the lines which they disapprove of we will accept back and return the money, or any city customer can have the prices sent home on approval—it don't matter what part, Cote St. Louis or Cote St. Antoine, Hochelaga, &c., &c. We keep boys for this purpose, and this will, we are sure, meet the approval of all our customers. Again, we have heard of people writing to about ten merchants for samples, just to use a few bits for crazy patch work quilts, and this we consider unfair to the merchants, giving trouble and expense for nothing.

Our Fall Importations are very cheap.

CANADIANS BENEFITED.

A Leading Nova Scotia Fish Dealer Says Canada Should Not Try to Renew the Fishery Reciprocity Treaty—Another Seizure—The Trials.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

PORT MULGRAVE, N. S., September 8.—Mr. James Purcell, one of the best known Nova Scotia fish dealers, reviewing the six months' experience of both the United States and Canadian fishermen under the treaty of 1818, advocates maintaining the present position of affairs with increased efficiency in protecting our fisheries in preference to entering into a new reciprocity arrangement. He says that while the fifty cents duty on cod fish has completely failed to injuriously affect Canadian fishermen the $2 duty on mackerel has equally failed to cripple our mackerel fishermen or to aid the Americans. By refusing the privileges of transshipment in the Strait of Canso, and other privileges enjoyed under the treaty of Washington we have prevented the American fleet from taking over 300,000 barrels of mackerel where they might otherwise have caught at least 100,000 barrels. Consequently the prices will be unprecedentedly high, the benefit of which will be enjoyed by Canadian fishermen at the expense of American consumers. The Americans having destroyed their own mackerel fisheries by purse seining and other destructive practices are now absolutely dependent upon Canada. During the past four years Mr. Purcell estimates that the American fishermen have destroyed in their own waters over three million barrels of mackerel, and two-thirds of the quantity caught during that time were tinkers and unfit for food. Had those tinkers been allowed to mature they would have been worth $15 per barrel this season, as against $2.50 per barrel obtained for them. He compares the American mackerel minnow in Canadian waters to Algerine pirates, and says it must be a pitiable sight for the American people to see their fishermen assembled here to obtain by fraud and plunder those privileges which only a year ago they declared to be absolutely valueless. Mr. Purcell argues that Canadian fishermen will prosper most by refusing any new reciprocity treaty with the States.

THE LATEST SEIZURE.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

ARICHAT, N., September 8.—The Provincetown schooner "Pearl Nelson," Captain Kempt, anchored at this port yesterday without entering the Customs and was seized by collector Benoit, and deposited $400 before being released.

NOTES OF THE TRIALS.

SPECIAL TO THE STAR.

HALIFAX, September 8.—The date of the trial of the case of the captured schooner "David J. Adams" has been finally agreed upon. It will begin on the 23rd inst., when evidence of the violation of the treaty of 1818 will be taken before a stenographer. The Crown will examine about a dozen witnesses. The United States counsel for the defence are in a quandary about producing Captain Kempt as a witness. An action was taken against him in the Supreme Court for $1000 penalty for violating an imperial statute of 1818. He entered no defence and judgment was entered against him for that sum. But it is understood that in case the United States counsel consider his presence and evidence necessary that the Government will not press the judgment against the Yankee skipper. The United States counsel were anxious to have the case against the "Doughty" tried simultaneously with the "Adams," as they have the strongest grounds to hope for success in that case, but the Canadian lawyers insist on the "Adams" being tried first. The last seizure will be the first case to be tried, as the trial of the "Highland Light" is set down for the 13th instant. Consul-General Phelan was in communication with the Minister of Justice to-day to get an extension of time in that case.

DISASTROUS BATTLE WITH INDIANS.

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., September 8.—An American resident of Sonora, Mex., brings the news that two days ago Col. Torres with two hundred men engaged 2000 Yaquis and drove them back. Subsequently the Yaquis gathered reinforcements and three or four thousands strong attacked Torres' command. A serious battle ensued in which Torres lost the greater portion of his men, returning with but a small remnant.

DOWN THE RIVER.

The Corn Exchange Excursion to Sorel—A Merry Time Without the Ladies.

The Corn Exchange Association adjourned to-day at noon in order to afford the members an opportunity of attending the excursion down the river. The steamer "Canada" had been chartered and left this afternoon at two o'clock from the Richelieu wharf. They expect to stop a short time at Sorel and will return to the city at about eleven o'clock this evening; dinner being served on board immediately after leaving the latter port. Over a hundred of the members and their friends were on board, amongst whom were noticed Messrs. W. W. Ogilvie, F. Gardner, J. M. Young, H. Labelle, G. G. Thompson, Stewart, Alex. Rough, D. Robinson, Edgar Judge, James S. Norris, James Thom, E. H. Craig, John Baird, John Brodie, T. S. Yipond, George McBean, T. W. Benson, J. E. Hunsicker, R. Finlay, Wm. Evans, A. J. Brice, C. H. Gould, Alex. McFee, R. M. Esdaile, A. G. MacBean, D. A. Watt, D. C. McDougall, Jno. Torrance, Jas. Carruthers, M. T. Macrae, Jas. E. Rendell, Chas. McLean, J. L. Smith, D. Rees, Geo. Wait, A. Girard, J. G. Brock, M. Brassard, J. M. Bucknall, Robert Reford, E. McLennan, A. Dobell, P. E. Wyth, James Allan, O. M. Gould, James Inglis, George H. Hanna, Robt. Harvie, Alex. Mitchell, Walter Wiley, James P. Cox, J. R. Labelle, Rufus Fairbanks, T. R. Brown, A. L. Desaulniers, R. D. Hale, H. W. Raphael, Jno. Mitchell, A. G. Thompson, W. C. Manderloh, James Williamson, A. L. Johnston, Jas. R. Mitchell, R. T. Routh, G. M. Kinghorn, R. Hampson, Hugh McLennan, E. J. Wade, R. C. Adams, Dickson Anderson, W. Lemesurier, J. P. Dawes and others.

Ladies were not invited and the "stags" evidently expected a merry time.

A Dangerous Spot.

On Monday evening, Mr. Somerville Weir, with a lady, was driving in from the Back River. On reaching the Mile End crossing of the Canadian Pacific Railway where there is also a siding, a freight engine, as he approached the crossing, began blowing off steam and backing down on to the crossing. The horse Mr. Weir was driving, being a very high spirited animal, immediately bolted, and Mr. Weir, in order to avoid running into the moving train, ran the horse into the barbed wire fence. His trap was upset, the lady was thrown completely over the fence and sustained severe injuries, while he was thrown into the barbs and badly bruised. He seized the horse, which was incensed in several places, and held it, calling for assistance; none of the railway men or gate men paid any attention. The matter has been laid before Mr. Shaughnessy, assistant general manager, who stated that engineers had very strict orders not to blow off steam at this point. He immediately ordered an investigation and gave every satisfaction that the matter would be looked into.

A Challenge.

La Presse is out with a $1000 challenge to G. W. Stephens, M. P. P. It says his statement that the sale of the North Shore Railway caused a dead loss to the province of $3,897,000, is a tissue of falsehoods. La Presse says it will deposit $1000 against $1000 to study the figures before a jury of business men, and continues: "If we do not prove that Mr. Stephens lies by millions at a time, he will keep the money, and dispose of it as he sees fit. If we confound him, his $1000 will go to the Notre Dame Hospital. The question can be decided in a few days."

Notre Dame de Bonsecours.

At the request of Madame Loranger, mother of Mr. Justice Loranger, the old inscription has been replaced over the main entrance of Notre Dame de Bonsecours Church, and reads as follows:

"Si l'amour de Marie en ton cœur est grave, En passant ne t'oublie de lui dire un Ave."

"If the love of Mary is graven on thy heart, when passing, do not forget to say an 'Ave' to her."

The agent of the Department of Marine at Gaspe, Que., telegraphed Tuesday that the barque "Harvest Home" had been wrecked on the Island of Anticosti, and asking what action to take respecting the transportion of the crew. The department instructed him to forward them to Quebec. The vessel is not a Canadian bottom.

The Beaver Line SS. "Lake Winnipeg" from Liverpool passed Heath Point (Anticosti) inward at 9 a. m., this morning.

Boycotting the Police—Armed Men Flocking to a Trial at Waterford—General Notes.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

DUBLIN, September 8.—In consequence of the enforcement of evictions on the property of the Marquis of Clanricarde at Woodford, County Galway, the sentiment of the entire county has become inflamed. Notices have been posted urging tradesmen to abstain from furnishing the police and others who have assisted in evictions with supplies of any kind, and to a large extent these appeals have been complied with. The police have torn the bills down, but they have been replaced by others, and the tree trunks, gate posts, walls and fences are covered with them. Twenty-one prisoners were remanded at Waterford yesterday, charged with pouring boiling water mixed with lime upon the heads of police and bailiffs, and the town is in a fever of excitement. Men are flocking in from all parts of the country, many of them armed, in readiness for defence in case of attack by the police and possibly for offensive use.

PARNELL AND JUSTIN M'CARTHY.

LONDON, September 8.—At the McCarthy banquet, Mr. Parnell in proposing Mr. McCarthy's health, said it was a good thing for Ireland, that men like Mr. McCarthy were willing to use their energies and talents in her behalf. Irishmen were deeply grateful to him. Americans and Irish patriots in America would welcome him as he deserved. Mr. Parnell said the question between England and Ireland was rapidly coming to a solution under the guidance of the illustrious Gladstone. Speaking of the unwillingness of England to concede Ireland a national standing, he said England wanted to make Irishmen Englishmen, but God had made them Irishmen, and the speaker ventured to think that it would take all the genius of Lord Churchill and Lord Salisbury to make them anything else. (Laughter and cheers.) In conclusion, he said, there was nothing to fear from the Tory Government. He was confident that the Irish question would soon arrive at a peaceful issue. (Prolonged cheers.) When Mr. McCarthy rose to respond, he was warmly greeted. He gracefully acknowledged the compliment that had been paid him, and promised never to abandon the cause of Ireland.

There were three competitors the "Nautilus," Mr. Baden-Powell, R. N.; "Pearl," W. Steward, both English; and "Lassie," M. S. Vaux, New York Canoe Club. PROVINCIAL SYNOD.

The First Business Session—The Metropolitan's Charge—A Dispute Over the Election of Officers.

The first business session of the Provincial Synod was convened yesterday afternoon in the St. George's school-room.

Rev. Canon Norman, Clerical Secretary, called the meeting to order and announced that the bishops were waiting to enter the Synod.

The members of the Synod then rose and the bishops entered and took their places upon the platform. After prayer by the Metropolitan, His Lordship delivered his usual charge, which referred eloquently to the necessity of avoiding dissensions in the church. After speaking of the liberty enjoyed by the church in Canada His Lordship remarked: "Enjoying, as we do under Providence, so much freedom and security, it becomes us the more to recollect that our duty to the church is not ended when our synod is prorogued; that our chief business is to work lovingly together as brethren, to think and say the best we can of each other; to provoke not to envy and strife, but to good works, trying who shall give the most and do the most for Christ's sake, so as to bear one another's burdens and set before the world the bright example of a Christian commonwealth who preach Christ by their love, and live to Christ as the source of every holy thought, of every self-sacrificing word and deed. Who can doubt that if this spirit thoroughly pervaded every member of the Synod, it would spread itself abroad in every diocese and quench the flames of party spirit, and allay if not destroy all unbrotherly strife. I say no more on this point lest I should be thought to stir up the very evil which I desire to lessen." Speaking of the work before the present Synod, His Lordship stated: "I infer from papers sent to me that a vast deal is expected from the present meeting of Synod; so much, indeed that I feel sure it cannot all be accomplished. A new title and a new prayer book, new discipline and new offices, the union of all acts which have the force of law in our several dioceses, and which have occupied the care and attention of our several synods for years, the burning question of patronage, which at present varies, and which, like everything human, certainly admits of improvement. Here is work enough for the Provincial Synod, if it sat for a whole year, and even the question of "Home Rule" might not prove more troublesome, or bristle with more difficulties of every kind and our sad heartburnings and rival forms might ascend, not as incense, but as signs and instruments of disunion to the throne of Him who once prayed that all His people might be one. It is not given to every one to compose new prayers, it is not given to every assembly to delight in them when they are made. Happy is the man on whose shoulders the responsibility does not rest of a new Canadian prayer book."

At the conclusion of the delivery of his charge His Lordship announced that he had come to arrangements with the Archbishop of Canterbury that the Church of England in Canada is to be informed of all the consecrations of bishops in the church throughout the world.

The Metropolitan having appointed Rev. John Langtry, of Toronto, Prolocutor pro tem, the bishops withdrew.

The roll having been called, the election of officers of Synod was proceeded with, and evidence of a division among the members was educed at an early stage of the proceedings. The first election was that of Prolocutor. Rev. John Langtry was proposed by Hon. Geo. Irvine, seconded by Rev. Canon Brock. This was the church party nominee. The motion had hardly been made before the Very Reverend the Dean of Montreal presented the name of the Rev. Canon Brigstock, of St. John, N. B., as the evangelical party's nominee. Hon. George Kirkpatrick, Speaker of the House of Commons, was also nominated. The vote was first taken on the name of Rev. Mr. Langtry, who was elected amid great enthusiasm by a vote of 100 to 40.

The new Prolocutor was then escorted to the House of Bishops and introduced to their Lordships.

On returning, the Prolocutor appointed as his deputy the Very Reverend the Dean of Montreal.

Rev. Canon Norman, amidst continued applause, was elected clerical secretary, and Mr. L. H. Davidson, D. C. L., lay secretary.

Considerable discussion took place over this last appointment, it being pointed out that Dr. Davidson is not a delegate to the Synod.

Dr. Davidson was elected on division by a vote of 45 to 17.

Hon. G. A. Kirkpatrick, and Mr. S. Bethune, Q. C. were elected assessors.

Mr. James Hutton was elected treasurer, and Messrs. T. P. Butler and Mr. Charles Garth, auditors.

The Synod then adjourned until this morning.

In the evening a special service was held in Christ Church Cathedral, when the Metropolitan preached a sermon from the text XIX St. John, 2nd verse, "I go to prepare a place for you."

BOULANGER AND CANADA.

The Would-Be Dictator Still Remembers His Friends—A Graceful Act.

Some time ago a suggestion was made at the French War office to change the name of certain barracks in Paris known as "The Barracks of New France" to something else. A number of French Canadians strongly protested against the change, and asked Mr. de Brière, the editor of Le Soleil, who came to Canada last year, to give expression to their feelings to General Boulanger, the Minister of War, who is at present the subject of so much comment as a would-be dictator. It will be remembered that Gen. Boulanger visited Canada in 1881, at the time that he came to America as the head of the Yorktown delegation. Gen. Boulanger has addressed the following letter to the editor of Le Soleil:

PARIS, August 25th, 1886.

SIR,—I have just read your well written article referring to the name of "Barracks of New France" which it is suggested should be changed.

You invoke souvenirs which will not disappear, when you recall the reception I received in Canada some years ago; and you would surely obtain the triumph of the cause you defend if that triumph were not already yours.

Tell your French Canadian friends, who are also mine, that the name will remain and that never will their exploit of 1881 remove from Paris this testimony of our sympathy for them.

Receive, sir, the assurance of my most distinguished consideration.

GENERAL BOULANGER.

TESTIMONIAL FOR MR. JOHN JORDAN.

The Man Who Has Saved 150 Lives.

A memorial addressed to the Department of Marine and Fisheries is being circulated, asking the Department to make some proper and suitable recognition of the saving of lives performed by Mr. John Jordan, the Montreal boatman, who has during the past 45 years saved no less than 150 persons from drowning. The memorial is being largely signed by our leading citizens and business houses. During the time Her Majesty's troops were quartered here Mr. Jordan saved 50 from drowning, and during the construction of the Victoria Bridge he rescued fully 25 of the workmen, who at various times fell into the river. He has also saved a large number of raftsmen. For these services the only recognition so far made has been the giving of the Royal Humane Society's medal, and the customary testamur for saving the life of an officer of the Royal Artillery. No doubt, these extraordinary services are deserving of more ample recognition.

The annual meeting of the British American Bank Note Company, was held in their office, St. John street, Tuesday afternoon, Mr. G. B. Burland, president, in the chair. DRAIN CONSTRUCTION.

Dissatisfaction Expressed at the Slow Progress on Bleury Street—How the Matter Is Explained and Why Work is Not Done at Night.

Bleury street, one of the leading thoroughfares of the city, has been practically closed to traffic since the 26th of August last, involving a heavy loss to the business men of that street. On the date mentioned the construction of a drain was commenced, the said drain to extend from Craig street to Lagauchetiere street. Mr. C. H. Bessette, the contractor, has been doing this work, and especially during last week, a great deal of dissatisfaction has been expressed at the slow progress made. A STAR reporter went to investigate the matter this morning, and calling upon Mr. Lavallée, the assistant City Surveyor, was informed that the City surveyor was empowered by the terms of the specifications to place on any number of men he thought necessary, should he believe that the work was not pushed ahead sufficiently fast. The department were unable to compel the contractor to work at night, as no specification had been made in the contract. The STAR representative then went up to Bleury street, where the work was being done, and there he met Aldermen Kennedy and Holland, who were examining the progress made. Ald. Kennedy said, "a great deal of dissatisfaction existed here last week, but now the people along the street seem generally satisfied that the work is being pushed through as satisfactorily as possible under the circumstances. Last night's rain had the effect of interfering somewhat with the work; but the contractor is doing all he can to push the thing through." Ald. Holland corroborated the statement.

As the work of finishing the drain is being carried through, a new opening is being made for the water main. The officials explain that both openings could not have been made at the same time without closing up traffic altogether on both sidewalk and street. The excavations are about eleven feet deep. A strong feeling prevails among the citizens that the Road Committee should take some means of having this work carried on night and day.

Alderman Mesbane said he was in favor of having such work done at night, and would take action in the matter at the next meeting of Council.

TEN THOUSAND REALIZED

At the St. Peter's Bazaar up to Date—Yesterday's Receipts, $2150.

The St. Peter's Bazaar was crowded last night, a deputation of about two hundred coming in from Lachine with their excellent brass band which played a fine selection of music. The Montmagny choir, under Mr. Labelle, also gave an excellent programme which was highly appreciated. The dinner given by the ladies of St. Joseph's parish was attended by about three hundred, and was a success. To-night the ladies of St. Anthony's parish will give their dinner, and music will be furnished by St. Anthony's choir.

The Wanzer Sewing Machine Company have given a gold medal sewing machine to the bazaar, of a value of $55, through their agents, Messrs. Willis & Co., of Notre Dame street.

The receipts yesterday were $2150.75, making a total thus far over of $10,000.

St. Henri parish will visit the bazaar next week. Wotman & Son have sent a large beautifully framed portrait of Archbishop Fabre, which is a most excellent likeness.

The ladies of the bazaar have sent a beautiful mourning tribute of flowers for the late Madame Olivier, whose funeral services take place to-morrow morning at 8.30 at the Bishop's Palace.

The ladies of St. Patrick's parish give their dinner Saturday at 7 p. m.

The St. Edward committee, named after the patron saint of His Grace, has given eight New Williams sewing machines; four of these for the centre tables, two to be raffled for at the bazaar, and the other two in the small lottery. Each is worth $175, and each has a silver plate with the inscription "Souvenir of the bazaar of the Cathedral." Mr. C. Marcil, N. C. Simard, O. Levert and A. Fortin are the St. Edward committee.

KILLED BY A FLY WHEEL.

Shocking Fatal Accident at the Canada Cigar Box Factory.

A dreadful accident occurred at the Canada cigar box factory, on Vitre street, yesterday afternoon. The engineer, Mr. A. Lesperance, living at 15 Philip street, was attending to his duties, although he had complained of feeling unwell. About a quarter to four one of the workmen went into the engine room to enquire the time, and was horrified to see the body of Lesperance lying across the top of the flywheel, jambed between it and the wall, whilst the wheel was still continuing its rate of speed. He rushed into the sawing room and called two men named Garrick and Belanger, who immediately stopped the engine and extricated the body. From its position they suppose that he must have stood on the machinery to reach something from the shelf, and lost his balance, causing him to be precipitated on the fly wheel, and crushing him against the wall. The unfortunate man was dead when taken off, and his legs and head were severely gashed, the wall presenting a horrible spectacle where the blood had trickled down. The remains were conveyed in the ambulance to his late residence. The deceased was very careful and steady, a smart workman, and much esteemed by his fellow men. He was born of French Canadian parents at Ogdensburg, N. Y., and was 37 years of age. He had been married 13 years, but leaves no family. The Coroner has been notified, and the inquest will be held this afternoon or to-morrow morning.

APPRAISER AMBROSE AGAIN

Wants to Impose a Fine Upon Bennet & Co., St. Paul Street.

It has just leaked out that Messrs. Bennet & Co., wholesale paper dealers, 453 St. Paul street, are in difficulties with the Customs. It appears that a consignment of lead pencils was forwarded to them from the Eagle Pencil Company of New York, some days ago. Messrs. Bennet's manager proceeded to the Custom House to take possession of the merchandise, when he was told by Appraiser Ambrose that he would be forced to pay duty on the American market price, instead of according to the Canadian price as heretofore. Messrs. Bennet's manager did not offer very serious objection to this, but when he was told that he would moreover be held to hand over a fine of fifty per cent on the whole consignment, he was astounded. He objected and informed the Customs officer that he would never comply with his demand. He and his employers had always been doing an honorable business, and they were not going to stain their past irreproachable business career by paying fines in a case where they had acted in good faith. Mr. Ambrose told him that he would not be allowed to take away the pencils before he had paid the fine. The matter is to be referred to the Minister of Customs at Ottawa.

It is understood that over a dozen other paper dealers and stationers are in the same position as the Messrs. Bennet.

A STAR reporter respectfully requested a Customs official to furnish him with the names of these firms this morning. That gentleman said he not deny the fact that the number of firms above mentioned were in difficulties with the Customs, but he positively refused to give their names. He also told the reporter that he would not get any more information from Mr. Ambrose.

Messrs. Fabre & Gravel, who, it will be remembered, refused to pay a fine on a consignment of Dixon's pencils, have not yet received an answer to the letter of protestation they sent to the Minister of Customs some time ago. A second letter of theirs has also remained unanswered.

The Savings Bank Wins.

Judgment was rendered this morning in the case of the Savings Bank against Hon. Alex. Ogilvie, Alex. Buntin and E. K. Greene, ex-directors of the Exchange Bank. The plaintiff entered action some time ago to recover one year's interest, amounting to $6000, on a loan of $99,236, for which the defendants were security for the Exchange Bank. The Court rejected the defendants' pretension, which claimed a right to offset in compensation a certain dividend declared by the Exchange Bank in favor of the plaintiff in deduction of a larger amount due the Savings Bank by the Exchange Bank, and maintained the plaintiff's action.

An Advocate's Disgrace.

A. Kierkowsky, an advocate, was arraigned before the Police Magistrate this morning on the charge of stealing a pair of pants from Dr. J. E. Dorion. He was found guilty and sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

Mr. W. J. Spicer, the General Manager of the Chicago and G. T. R., left the city this morning for Toronto.

PROVINCIAL SYNOD.

This Morning's Session—Fraternal Greetings from the American Episcopal Church.

This morning's session of the Provincial Synod was opened with prayer by the Prolocutor, Rev. Jno. Langtry.

It was resolved, on motion of the Ven. Archdeacon Lindsay, to refer a petition from the Women's Christian Temperance Union, asking recognition of their work by the Synod, to a committee to be nominated by the Prolocutor.

A number of notices of motion were given, among them one by Hon. Judge Armstrong, setting forth the claim that as Rev. Canon Norman and Dr. Leo R. Davidson had not been appointed delegates they have not the right to act as Clerical and Lay Secretaries of the Synod, to which positions they have been appointed.

Mr. F. P. Butler gave notice of motion for a rule providing for the prevention of the introduction of unauthorized forms in the celebration of the Holy Communion.

Chief Justice Allan, of Nova Scotia, presented a number of suggestions from a committee appointed at the last Synod, as to proposed changes in the conduct of the meeting of Synod. All of these were adopted, although a lengthy discussion ensued on a suggestion that the rules should be amended to provide that business unfinished at any Synod should lapse.

While Chief Justice Allan was proceeding with his explanations a message was received from the House of Bishops to the effect that the Rev. Canon Cooper having explained the objects and organization of the Church Emigration Society, the House heartily approved of the work of this organization.

The message also stated that a deputation of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States was desirous of being introduced to the Lower House at 12 o'clock.

The Prolocutor appointed the Very Reverend the Dean of Montreal, Rev. Dr. Henderson, Hon. Geo. Irvine and Ven. Archdeacon McMurray, a deputation to receive the American delegates.

At 12 o'clock, the bishops entered the hall and took their seats upon the platform. The Metropolitan announced the arrival of the delegation, and as the gentlemen composing it walked up the hall to the platform, they were warmly applauded.

As the deputation stepped on to the platform they were severally introduced to the Metropolitan by Dean Carmichael as follows: Right Rev. Dr. Harris, Bishop of Michigan; Rev. Dr. H. G. Hoffman, Dean of the General Theological Seminary of the United States; Rev. John Converse, rector of St. John's Church, Boston Heights, and Mr. Nelson, of Alabama.

The Most Reverend the Metropolitan, in welcoming the deputation, remarked that it was not necessary for him to dilate upon the unanimity with which the churchmen of Canada recognized the friendly and Christian feeling which prompted the members of the deputation with the sacrifice of great expense, time and labor, to be present at the Synod. A strong tie of Christian Catholicity binds the Church of England in Canada to the Episcopal church of the United States, but such courtesies cannot fail to make these bonds stronger and stronger.

The Prolocutor also addressed a few words of welcome to the distinguished visitors. He pointed out that the two churches are members of one household and remarked that oftimes, even in the members of the Church of England in Canada, all discouraged they were encouraged to persevere by the brilliant successes of the sister church across the border.

The Right Rev. Dr. Harriss, Bishop of Michigan, having requested the members of the Synod who had risen to their standing since the deputation entered, to be seated, proceeded to reply and delivered a most eloquent address. The Right Reverend gentleman remarked that the members of the deputation could see for themselves happy to be able to appear as representatives of the American Church, and bearing its fraternal greetings to the Church of Canada. American churchmen watched with affectionate pride and warm interest the progress of the church in Canada, and could not forget that they could claim a common ecclesiastical lineage. They cherish the same venerable traditions, have the same regard for order, and are beset with the same difficulties.

The message the deputation bore was not merely an empty form, but a genuine expression of faith and good will. In giving tidings of those who sent the speaker and his fellow delegates, the speaker remarked that since the churches had last exchanged greetings there have been battles in the American church, but thanked God there had been no dissensions. There had been quarrels without, but peace reigned within. Party spirit and spite is with the American church a thing of the past.

The American church stands the representative of Anglo-Saxon Christianity in the United States. He explained that this gave the church great prominence in the Republic, as despite the introduction of much foreign blood the Americans are a great English nation obeying the laws of Alfred the Great, and speaking the language of Shakespeare and Milton. Speaking of the admiration American churchmen feel for the mother church, he claimed that this was largely on account of her adherence as a primary principle to duty. The Church of England knew conscience and duty to the fore, and long before Trafalgar the war cry of England introduced by the National church was, "England expects every man to do his duty."

Rev. Dr. Hoffman also made an address in which he spoke forcibly of the advantage to be gained by promoting intercourse between the two churches. He remarked that the American church would never fail to remember the noble generosity of the British Society for the Propagation of the Gospel which had so wonderfully assisted the early development of the American church.

Rev. John Converse spoke of the necessity of some arrangement being come to whereby members of the Church of England going to the United States would be brought to identify themselves with the American Church and vice versa.

Mr. Nelson made a short speech, remarking that he had come from the tropics to bring to the North an assurance of brotherly feeling and the kiss of peace.

The proceedings terminated with the singing of the Doxology.

AN OLD CITIZEN'S DEATH.

Demise This Morning of Mr. James McShane, Senior.

Mr. James McShane, Sen., died this morning in the arms of his son, Alderman McShane, at the ripe old age of 87 years. The deceased gentleman was one of the oldest and most respected amongst the Irish citizens of Montreal. He was a native of county Armagh, Ireland, and came to this city over half a century ago. Up to within fifteen years ago he was largely engaged as a cattle merchant, and pork and beef packer. He took a lively interest in politics and was a warm friend of Messrs. Baldwin, Lafontaine, Holton, Drummond and others, of the old Liberals, and a true and warm personal friend of the late D'Arcy McGee, during the McGee riots, he was present in company with the late Wm. O'Brien and a few others and they opposed at the risk of their lives the sacking of the Mechanics' Hall. He was a true Irishman, and one of his last words was a wish to God that his native land might enjoy the same liberties as Canada under Britain, and a farther wish that God would spare Gladstone to carry out to a successful issue his plan of doing justice to Ireland. He was one of the first members of the St. Patrick's society when Protestants and Catholics marched together, and one of the early communicants of St. Patrick's in the days when they worshipped in the old Recollet church, and was an old friend of Father Dowd, who visited him almost daily up to the last. He was upright and honest in all his dealing, his sterling integrity being a by-word amongst all who knew him. He leaves two sons and a daughter, who is married to Hon. M. J. Dumont, of Chicago.

A BROKEN RUDDER CHAIN.

A Scare in the Lachine Rapids.

The passengers by the "Filgate" from Beauharnois this morning had a terrible scare just upon entering the Lachine rapids. The rudder chain snapped and for some time the vessel became unmanageable. She swayed about at will in the raging and seething rapids until the pilot again obtained control by steering the vessel from the rudder post. Quite a panic ensued, but this was allayed by the parish priest of Chateauguay, who happened to be on board. The defect was remedied as soon as possible, and the vessel arrived safely after one hour's delay.

Erastus Wiman.

Mr. Erastus Wiman, the well known financier of New York and president of the Great Northwestern Telegraph Co., is a guest at the Windsor. He is accompanied by Miss Wiman and Miss Wonham.

—The household effects of the late Hon. J. L. Beaudry are advertised for sale on the 15th inst.

THE YACHT RACE.

SANDY HOOK, 11.03 a. m.—The wind is east, 24 miles; weather foggy and cloudy, with light rain. It will be impossible to see the start.

SANDY HOOK, 11.05 a. m.—The "Galatea" passed the whistling buoy at 11.04, followed closely by the "Mayflower" to windward. They are still on the starboard tack.

SANDY HOOK, 11.43 a. m.—There is a very heavy sea which is felt perceptibly by the sloops. The weather is rainy. At 11.34 the yachts, having apparently crossed the line, were standing on the starboard tack running to the eastward. The "Galatea" is leading, with the sloop about 20 yards astern, but to the windward, the Boston sloop outfooting her adversary.

SANDY HOOK, 11.53.—The "Galatea" went about off buoy 1, outside the Bar and crossed "Mayflower's" bow. The latter went about 20 seconds later. Both are now on the port tack.

12.—At last sight of the yachts in the fog the "Mayflower" seems to be closing the gap between her and the cutter. The wind is 12 miles.

12.45.—A special tug from Sandy Hook, returning at 12.45, signalled that the "Galatea" is still leading the Boston sloop.

SANDY HOOK, September 8.—The wind is from the rain quarter. The prospects for a good race are excellent. There is a choppy sea running. There was an immense fleet in the Horseshoe this morning.

A RACE IN A GALE.

NEW YORK, September 8.—Gen. Paine, owner of the yacht "Mayflower," called on Lieut. Henn yesterday, and offered to keep the "Mayflower" in commission in Marblehead Bay after the international races until a gale shall come up, then he proposed to race with the "Galatea" from Marblehead to Cape Cod. Lieut. Henn asked him to consider the matter. The general opinion in yachting circles is that the race across Massachusetts Bay in a gale of wind would be a much better test of the weatherly qualities of the American and English champions than a race round Bermuda. The race to-day is to be over the outside course 20 miles to the windward and return from the Scotland lightship if a good course can be laid from there. If not the start will be made from Sandy Hook lightship. The start from the lightship will be made at 10.30 a.m.

THE METHODISTS.

The University Federation Discussion Resumed—Eloquent Speeches in Favor of the Scheme.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

TORONTO, September 9.—The debate on the Confederation scheme was resumed from last night when Professor Mills and others spoke. Dr. Burwash resumed the debate after various motions on the table had been referred to several committees and delivered a lengthy and well prepared address. As the doctor has taken a very prominent position in respect to the Confederation scheme, some have condemned him for changing his position on this question. In his address to-day he defended himself as to the course which he had pursued on this question. It was astonishing to see the deep interest that is taken by the Methodist people and the general public—on Confederation as to-day the Church is well filled with visitors, and last night very inch of space was occupied. No doubt the most important speeches have now been delivered and at the close of Dr. Burwash's address, the time allowed to succeeding speakers is to be 15 minutes.

It is not easy to foretell how the vote will go, but it is somewhat remarkable that several of the graduates were always spoken and also most of the professors have favored the Federation scheme. Dr. Burwash gave a most exhaustive address in which he mentioned several instances of Canadian students who have attained prominent positions both in England and the United States one especially a graduate of Victoria University, who went to Germany to prosecute his scientific studies, and became so distinguished as a scientific author that his book was translated into the Russian tongue and he has since been taken into the service of the United States Government who have sent him at the head of a commission to Europe to study the great problems between capital and labor. Dr. Burwash connected with federation, but he felt assured that the scheme well worked out is the most feasible, and best adapted to further the cause of higher education in Canada than any other that has been presented. Dr. Burwash resumed his seat in the midst of very great applause.

Dr. Dewart introduced to the president the Hon. E. Blake, Chancellor of the University of Toronto, who introduced him to the conference, and he was received with the most deafening applause. The honorable gentleman eulogised Dr. Burwash's grand speech, and said he thought we were at a crisis in high education. His sympathies were with the conference at this critical moment, and he prayed that the conference might be guided aright, and he hoped that whatever conclusion may be reached, that the wealthy members of Methodism may contribute munificently to the support of such educational institutions as the conference may be disposed to establish. The honorable gentleman expressed his interest in the cause of Christian union, and especially Methodist union, which he believed had been the means of greatly quickening the religious life of the nation and the world.

Chancellor Nelles in a few pleasant words introduced Vice-Chancellor Mulock, who was received very cordially. The Vice-Chancellor addressed the conference in a Christian and fraternal manner, and said that as he was only a layman, he might perhaps receive the deputation, so as a reward for his services, which produced much laughter. He gave a history of the question from his standpoint and clearly proved that his sole object in all that he had done was to promote the

in all the churches of the land.

Dr. Withrow introduced the Rev. Dr. Castle, President of McMaster Hall, the Baptist College, who was cordially received. Dr. Castle said he felt great interest in the discussion now before the conference and had been present at most of the sessions. He believed that the scheme now under consideration was one of the most important ever launched. Hence at the inception he went into it heartily. He assured the conference the interests of all the denominations were safe in the hands of the Senate of Toronto University. So far as the Baptist denomination was concerned they felt that as they had an institution of learning at Woodstock they could not at present relinquish it though personally he was opposed to multiplying small universities. They must watch the openings of Providence and act according to the circumstances. He gave an interesting account of the origin and history of the Baptist college. He resumed his seat amid great applause. Dr. Sutherland introduced the Rev. Dr. Crawford, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, New York, who was most cordially received. In a few well chosen words he addressed the conference. He had been engaged four weeks' travelling in the Dominion of Canada, and he was delighted beyond measure. The letter of the day was then resumed, and Mr. Millar, of the High School at St. Thomas, took the floor. He said that the question of the day was whether the churches of Canada should control the higher education of the country.

He quoted statistics which proved to his satisfaction at least that Victoria University had lost in consequence of isolation while the number of students in University College, Toronto had rapidly increased. Victoria had also suffered by reason of the fact that the report has gone abroad that the students of the University of Toronto are preferred as texters of high schools. The conference then adjourned.

THE VANCOUVER EXTENSION.

The Canadian Pacific not to be Completed to the Terminus Until a New Charter is Obtained.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

WINNIPEG, September 9.—Mr. Henry Abbott, general superintendent of the Pacific division of the Canadian Pacific Railway in an interview said his company had now given up all idea of completing the road from Fort Moody to the terminus until it could secure legislation for the purpose. It had not yet decided whether it would apply to the Provincial or Dominion Parliament for the necessary powers, but the Dominion House would most probably be asked to grant a charter. Sir Richard Cartwright, who is now in the city, in interviews has been encouraging the Liberals with statements about the bright Reform prospects at the next Dominion elections. One of his statements is that Sir Hector Langevin and Hon. Mr. Chanleau have lost their hold on the French electors, and that Laurier is the representative Frenchman.

Hon. Messrs. Bowell and Foster spent yesterday seeing the sights of the city and left for the east last night, a number of friends being at the station to see them off.

AFTER THE ELECTION.

What the "Mail" and "Globe" Have to Say About the Liberal Victory in Haldimand.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

TORONTO, September 9.—In regard to the Haldimand election the Globe says: "Despite everything that money, unrivalled electioneering skill and almost superhuman unscrupulousness could do against them the Liberals of Haldimand have held their gallant old county true to its glorious history. The verdict of Haldimand the country is prepared to ratify. Seven years of riotous misgovernment and plundering cannot be forgiven because one lunatic rebel has been hanged. The Dominion's obligation to the Haldimand Liberals cannot be measured in words. A more satisfactory feature of the victory is that the Indians have shown surprising independence. Such of them as are ignorant and pagan Sir John and his agents were able to cajole, coerce and bribe, but there are others who are educated, intelligent and well versed in the history of Tory treatment of the Indians. These must have voted solidly for Mr. Colter. There is but one thing to be regretted. The consequence of yesterday's defeat will be that the general election will be postponed and Tory be rule prolonged for some months." The Mail says: "Mr. Merritt made a gallant attempt to capture Haldimand, but he has been overborne by weight of numbers. Haldimand has been a Reform constituency from time immemorial. The contest was watched with great interest immediately as it was the first held in Ontario since the commencement of the Riel agitation in the Province of Quebec. The supporters of the Government as well as the large body of independent Reformers who are with the Cabinet on the Riel issue looked to the people of Haldimand to make a fitting response to the verdict in the recent election in Chambly. That they have not done so is, we frankly admit, somewhat disappointing, but we think their action may be very reasonably accounted for by supposing that they are not as yet fully alive to the danger involved in the Riel movement."

A WOMAN'S IMAGINATION.

A Witness in the Longue Pointe Murder Case Says Her Evidence was False.

[SPECIAL TO THE STAR.]

ST. THOMAS, Ont., September 9.—The evidence in the Havelock-Smith murder case was closed last night. There now remain but the addresses of counsel and the judge's charge before the jury consider the case. It was getting dusk in the room and the evidence was drawing to a close when Mrs. Elizabeth Harkinson stepped into the box and desired to make a statement. It will be remembered that yesterday she was one of the most important witnesses for the defence, having stated that upon one occasion when Edward Pigrott was at her place she saw cloths in his buggy which resembled those afterwards found in the lake. To-night Mrs. Harkinson said she had been thinking the matter over carefully and had come to the conclusion that what she had said about the clothes was untrue and that she had imagined it while suffering from a severe illness some time ago The witness appeared very nervous and looked more like a ghost in the box than anything else. It was a complete surprise to the defence and for a moment the prisoner's counsel were speechless. When Mr. Meredith put a few questions to her as to why she had changed her mind she adhered to her statement that the long story she told yesterday must have been wholly imagination on her part. She left the box asking forgiveness of the prisoner if she had done him any harm. The case will likely be given to the jury some time to-day. The trial has been one of the most lengthy criminal cases on record, Mr. Butcher, the official reporter, having already taken nearly 4000 folios of evidence.

Money in London unchanged at 2¾ per cent. New York Stocks by MERADITH & MONK.—The market was dull and drooping to the absence of many leading operators, but in sympathy with London opened strong and has been steady all day, gossip is bullish and in the absence of unfavorable developments predicts a further upward movement before some time. The Western Union statement is generally considered good, as the gross earnings on commercial messages continue to show an increase and the cable business has largely increased. Missouri Pacific has reduced a part of its bonded debt at 4 per cent which is equal to ½ on the stock. Points are out to buy Ohio and Mississippi.

COMMERCIAL.

There were no sales of flour reported on 'Change to-day. A fair jobbing business is reported among dealers outside. Fresh ground is in good enquiry at firm prices. No. 1 Cala. wheat off coast, 34s 6d, do just shipped or promptly to be shipped, 35s, do nearby, 34s 6d. Arrivals off coast, for orders, wheat, moderate, corn, nil. English and French country markets, quiet. Liverpool wheat, spot, steadily held, do corn, firmer. Mold higher. Wheat in Paris, quiet, flour, in Paris, rather easier. Weather in England, rather unsettled.

CHICAGO MARKET.—(By Doran & Wright Co.) Wheat has inclined to weakness to-day on account of absence of encouraging advices from abroad. The whole thing hangs on foreign markets. If they advance we will advance, and should they show more tone we will probably show a disposition to accumulate. Nobody cares to sell, and everybody wants to see some substantial reason to buy. Their experience leads them to distrust their judgment. wheat is low enough, but a decline is not at all impossible. Its purely a question of foreign news. Corn drags on account of large stock here and little demand. Wheat closes tame and corn dull.

Wholesale Produce, Provisions, etc.

CHEESE.—English cable repeats yesterday's quotations at 46s for choice. Our market is quiet but firm, sellers do not seem overanxious, as stocks held here are moderate. Shippers say their orders do not warrant the payment of full prices. Reports from country markets state that a large proportion of the June cheese has been bought up, with buyers offering full prices for balance. At Ingersoll on the 7th inst., 9000 boxes were offered, 5000 sold at 10 to 10¾c., and 9¼c bid, and refused for finest offered. 10c is considered full value for August cheese. The N. Y. Commercial indicate that it is a 10c market. For anything fancy, with some of the special marks held still higher, supplies are quite small, but the cost in the country is higher." Our market quotations are as follows: fine to finest August, 9¾ to 10c; finest July, 9 to 9¾c; medium to fine, 8 to 8¾c; lower grades, 7 to 7¾c.

BUTTER.—The market is well supplied with ordinary and low grades of butter, for which there is little enquiry. Choice creamery and dairy selections are in limited supply and command full prices for city grocers trade. In some instances small lots of the latter have brought one cent per lb. over outside quotations. Export trade continues very dull and indifferent, the English markets being unsatisfactory in values and tone. We quote: Creamery, 19 to 20c; Townships, 15 to 16c; Morrisburg and Brockville, 18 to 18½c; Western, 13 to 15c.

EGGS.—The market is quiet but steady, and stocks are quite ample for the demand. Fresh laid eggs in case lots bring from 13½ to 14c, and ordinary 12c per dozen.

LARD.—Market is firm; a steady local jobbing trade is reported at quotations. We quote: Fairbanks at 10c, and Canadian 8½ to 9c in pails.

PORK.—Hog products generally are firm; Canada short cut mess, is scarce; cut meats are in fair enquiry; a fair, steady business is doing in the several lines. We quote: Chicago mess pork new, $15 to $15 50; Canada short cut mess, $15 to 15 50; Western short cut clear, $14 50 to $15; smoked hams, 12 to 12c; do canvassed, 12¾ to 14c; breakfast bacon, 10½ to 11c.

FRUITS.—The market is well stocked in the seasonable lines of fruit, for which there is a brisk demand. Apples and peaches are coming in very liberally. We quote: Apples, $2 to $2 per brl; Messina and Palermo lemons, $9 50 to $10 per box; Naples lemons, $12 50 to $13 per case; yellow bananas, Jamaica, $1 50 to $2; red do, 50c to $1 50 per bunch; dried apples, 4c per lb; Spanish onions, $5 per case; California grapes, $2 50 per case; Jersey peaches, $2 75 to 3 50 per crate; do in carriers, $3 60 to $5; do, $1 25 to 1 50 per basket; Canadian plums, 70 to 90c per basket; Quebec plums, $1 0 per crate; Southern grapes, pears, $6 to $8 per brl; New York do do, $3 to $4 per keg or $6 to $8 per brl; cocoanuts, $6 per 100; watermelons, 30 to 40c each.
