TRADE AND COMMERCE.

Montreal, July 7.

—There was increased depression on the London Stock Exchange to day.

—The Beaver Line ship "Lake Ontario" arrived at Liverpool on Monday all well.

—The total valuation of real estate and personal property in the city of New York is $1,143,764,727, an increase of $49,696,392 over last year.

—The S.S. "Montreal," from Quebec, 26th June, with 322 cattle and 500 sheep, arrived at Liverpool, Wednesday, and landed her live stock in fine condition.

—The S.S. "Colina," hence on the 25th ult., arrived at Glasgow on Tuesday, 6th instant (11 days from Montreal), and landed all her cattle, 341 head, in good condition.

—Among the shipments for Boston from St. John, N.B., were 10 cases of fresh sturgeon from the North Shore. There was also a considerable quantity of salmon, etc., shipped.

—The United States Treasury holds $361,652,050 in United States bonds to secure the bank circulation. The National Bank circulation outstanding is: Currency notes, $343,203,361; gold notes, $1,317,490.

—The London, Eng., Board of Trade returns for June show that the exports have increased £3,879,344, as compared with June, 1879, the greatest increase being in iron, steel, and cotton manufactures. The imports increased £96,689.

—Average of freight on wheat from Chicago to New York by water in 1879 was 7 cents, 2 mills and 2 fractions; in 1880, 11 cents, 8 mills and 4 fractions. Average freight on corn in 1879, 6 cents, 2 mills and 5 fractions; in 1880, 10 cents, 8 mills and 6 fractions.

—The Boston Wool market is comparatively active, and manufacturers are now free buyers at current rates. There is apparently too much wool in the hands of growers, dealers and speculators to justify any immediate advance. The principal transactions this week have been in washed fleeces, California spring, super pulled, Australian fleece and English combing, the sales of fleeces amounting to 604,000 lbs., the largest for several months. The sales of spring California reached 659,700 lbs.

FINANCIAL.

The Money market is comparatively quiet, but the abundance of money is so great, as compared to the demand, that rates of discount are very easy at 6 @ 7 for commercial bills, and 3 @ 5 on the open market as to date and collaterals. Sterling Exchange continues dull and in very limited demand at 8¾ between banks and 9 to customers, sight bills being drawn at 9¼. Documentary are not salable at over 8¼, except for really gilt-edged. On New York the business has been done at par for round amounts, and a fraction more for small transactions. The Stock market opened very strong, and the tone was strong throughout. Bank of Montreal sold up to 139, and would command that price for more. There was a fair demand for Merchants, with sales up to 96¼, which would have been paid for more. Molsons sold at 85 at the Morning Board, and advanced to 86½ bid, with no sellers under 89. Toronto was strong at 130, and Ontario at 77⅞ @ 78. Montreal Telegraph closed steady at yesterday's advance. Richelieu declined, and Gas advanced ¼ @ ½, selling up to 126¼.

The New York Stock market opened weak, and as a rule values declined during the day, and closed lower. Among the stocks which fell off were:—Western Union ⅛, Lake Shore ⅝, St. Paul ⅛, North-West ⅛, Michigan Central 1, Erie ⅞, Wabash 2½, and Pacific Mail ½. A MONTREALER ABROAD.

A late number of the Albany Evening Journal states that Mr. Emil Poliwka, of this city, has established a branch of his business in that city. Our contemporary says:—"Outside of his glue and oil business he has been doing a large trade in 'Kaoka,' an article described as the integument of wheat, saccharized and caramalized, and intended to be the only satisfactory substitute for tea and coffee, being highly recommended for regular use at ordinary meals, and also being the very best article for dietary use ever discovered.'

CATTLE MARKETS.

GUELPH, Ont., July 7.—The usual monthly cattle fair, held to-day, was poorly attended, owing to the farmers being engaged in harvest. Between one and two hundred head were sold at from 4c to 4½c per lb live weight.

CHEESE MARKETS.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., July 7.—1,220 boxes of Cheese were offered to-day. There was little activity, and no sales reported.

THE TEA TRADE.

Fearon, Low & Co's tea circular, dated Yokohama, June 4th, says:—During the interval of fourteen days, which we have now to review, our tea market has continued very active, and settlements average more than a thousand piculs per day. Receipts, however, have continued on even a more liberal scale; so that, though the business which we report is large, it has been accomplished without forcing any advance in values; while, in fact, the market for the better grades of tea has ruled throughout slightly in favour of buyers, though only very slightly so. A strong desire to secure teas at prices which sounded nominally cheap has been continuously shown by all buyers, and has resulted, as is so frequently the case, in causing the lower grades of tea to show much the poorest value. Buying on anything like an extensive scale is still confined to three or four firms, who have purchased between them more than half the leaf which has so far been brought to the port. The market closes steady at the quotations given below, and there being still two steamers loading on the berth for New York via Suez, we can scarcely anticipate much decline for some time to come. Settlements since 21st ult. have been 14,308 piculs, making the total from commencement of season to date 36,464 piculs. Stock at present, 6,872 piculs. We quote as follows:—Common, $17 50 @ $18 50; good common, $20 @ $21; medium, $22 @ $23; good medium, $24 @ $26; fine, $27 @ $29; finest, $30 @ $31; choice, $33 @ $36, choicest, $38 @ $43.

Another circular, dated Hiogo, June 1st, says:—An active demand throughout the fortnight has kept prices quite up to those ruling at departure of last mail. The bulk of the business done has been in medium to good medium; teas grading above fine are in small supply. The crop generally is not up to an average, being much mixed with yellow leaf. Purchases to date are 24,604 piculs, leaving in stock 335 piculs. About 370 tons go forward from here for the Belgic; rate of freight 5c gross to New York. We quote: Medium, $24 @ $25; good medium, $26 @ $28; fine, $29 @ $30; finest, $31 @ $32; choice, $33; choicest, $34 @ $37.

THE S. S. "CYPHRENES."

This steamship, now lying at the Victoria Pier, Montreal, was one of the successful pioneer mail steamers on the Pacific. Every effort made by the New Zealand and Australian R. M. S. P. Company, and by W. H. Webb, of New York, having failed, a local Melbourne Company ran the "City of Melbourne," "Cyphrenes" and "MacGregor" as a monthly mail line between Sydney, N. S. W., and San Francisco, Cal. The line succeeded so well that the Pacific Mail Steamship Company entered the business, and by means of much finer steamers drove off the local line. At this time the "Cyphrenes" had magnificent accommodation for over 100 saloon passengers. She then entered the China trade, and on her last voyage her gross freight on tea, from Hong-Kong to New York, was over $70,000. She was then chartered by Messrs. Hart Brothers & Co., of this city, to bring them a cargo of 1,700 tons of Welsh coal. She has had her saloon passenger accommodation taken away, and is fitted up for carrying cattle instead, which pays much better than carrying passengers. Among her crew are some twenty veritable pig-tails, shipped at Singapore, perhaps the largest number of Celestials ever seen here. Her sister ship of the old mail line, the "MacGregor," was in Montreal last year.

PRODUCE, PROVISIONS, ETC.

Montreal, July 7.

FLOUR—An unusually large business was done in flour to-day. The total transactions on 'Change and after 'Change were in the neighbourhood of 10,000 barrels, and would doubtless have been larger had there been more selections, but stocks were limited. Superior Extra for export and local inquiry sold freely at $5.30 @ $5.35, and we heard of a sale of 1,500 barrels on private terms, understood not to be below the maximum figure. Extras are scarce, and would readily bring $5.20 @ $5.25. Spring Extra changed hands at $5.05 @ $5.15, and a round lot of Superfine at $4.75. 3,000 City Bags were disposed of at $3 delivered. The market closed firm, with a decidedly better feeling in the trade.

WHEAT—Prices were somewhat irregular to-day, the fluctuations covering a range of 2c @ 3c. Holders are asking from $1.07 @ $1.08 for No. 2 Chicago and Milwaukee. The Chicago market, which closed yesterday at 93¾c July, 89⅞c August, advanced to-day to 95c July and 90½c August. Cable advices state that cargoes at hand and for prompt shipment are about 1s better in the English market. Latest despatches also state that the spell of wet weather, which lasted three or four days, is over, and that it did not materially affect the favourable crop prospects. Private information from Ontario says that the rust is likely to somewhat injure Spring Wheat in some districts in that Province. The market here was not very active to-day.

CORN—The market is stronger, and a few cargoes have changed hands at a figure supposed not to be under 48c.

OATS—The demand has not improved, and there has been but few transactions in the last day or two. We quote the price as steady at 33½c @ 34c per 32 lbs.

PEAS—The market is firm with light offerings. The quotations may be repeated at 90c @ 92c per 66 lbs.

BEANS—In the absence of business quotations remain nominally at $1 10 @ $1 25 as to quality.

OATMEAL—For export to Glasgow the demand continues brisk at $2.15 for bags, and $4.30 @ $4.40 for barrels.

PORK—The small offerings of Canada Thin Mess are held firm at $14.75 @ $15. Heavy Mess is worth $15.50 @ $16, and the market is strong, with an upward tendency, in sympathy with advanced prices in the Western markets.

LARD—For Lard we quote tierces at 9½c, tubs at 10c, and pails at 10½c @ 10¾c. Chicago pails are worth 11c. The market is active and firm.

HAMS AND BACON—Finest Sugar-cured are in pretty active demand at 13c. Canvas are steady at 12c @ 12½c. Cincinnati are nominally 13c @ 14c, but there are none in the market.

BUTTER—The market has developed no activity since yesterday. Buyers are willing to purchase at moderate figures, but do not appear anxious to encourage fancy prices. At the moment there is a scarcity of a really gilt-edged article. For a choice lot of Morrisburg 18c was offered and refused. The inquiry for inferior to middling grades for the Lower Province market continues brisk at 13c @ 14c. Choice Eastern Townships we still quote at 17½c @ 19c; Morrisburg, 17½c @ 18c; Brockville, 15c @ 17c; and Western at 13c @ 16c. The offerings of Creamery are small at 21c @ 22½c as to quality.

CHEESE—The market is in a feverish state. The public cable to-day quotes Cheese at 53s 6d in Liverpool, while some private cable advices quote still lower at 51s. Holders, as a general thing, are asking at 9c @ 9½c, without meeting buyers' views.

EGGS — The offerings are better, but the price is firm yet at 13c.

ASHES — The sales to-day were small at $4.40 @ $4.50 and the market closed very firm.

FLOUR—A very marked improvement in the volume of business was evidenced this forenoon, reported sales aggregating over five thousand barrels, while in addition there were probably between two and three thousand not quoted. Excepting in Superior Extra, which being in special request has advanced, prices generally were not materially affected by the increased demand, but the market is undoubtedly firm at quotations. Sales as follows:—Superior Extra, 800 brls at $5.30; 1,500 do, $5.35; 360 do, $5.37½; Extra Superfine, 75 brls at $5.15; 50 do, $5.20; 100 do, $5.25; Spring Extra, 550 brls at $5; 100 Choice, $5.12½; Superfine, 200 brls $4.60; 225 do, $4.65; 100 do, $4.75; Strong Bakers, 200 brls at $6.25; Med. NEWS SUMMARY

DOMINION.

HON. J.H. POPE, Minister of Agriculture, will accompany Sir John Macdonald and Charles Tupper to England. The object of their visit is in relation to the Pacific Railway and Immigration matters.

THE Royal Humane Society medals have reached the Secretary of State Department, Ottawa, for John Hill and Charley White, who some time ago bravely rescued Willie Somerville from drowning.

UNITED STATES.

AMAZA STONE, the railroad millionaire, has offered the Western Reserve College $500,000 to remove from Hudson to Cleveland.

THE Herald's Washington special says it is understood among personal friends that General Hancock will, prior to the publication of his letter of acceptance, tender his resignation as Major-General.

IN an interview in the N. Y. Tribune, Gen. Wm. T. Smith confirms the statement that Gen. Hancock declared his intention in 1877 to obey the orders of Tilden, as President of the United States, should that gentleman take the oath of office.

THE Sun's Harrisburg specials reports the sensational scheme of a number of leading politicians to divide Pennsylvania, at the next session of the Legislature, into two States; the Eastern portion to retain its present name, and the Western portion to be called West Pennsylvania.

THE interest in Dr. Tanner's fast greatly increases. At present, three watchmen are on duty: the doctor's own attendant, the Herald reporter, and a physician of the regular profession. The last-named watch was begun voluntarily at twelve o'clock last night by Dr. Bradley, who said that he came to watch Tanner that the latter might have fair play, and asserts that other reputable physicians will take turns in watching. He thinks everything thus far has been carried on fairly, and that Tanner is perfectly sincere. Tanner's condition has not materially changed since yesterday.

MR. GLADSTONE'S POLICY.

Mr. Gladstone's opening has been, without any fault on his part, to some extent unfortunate. The Bradlaugh incident arose in a manner quite beyond the control of himself or any other Premier; and it was one of those affairs in which feelings of various kinds are so hustled together round the central subject as to make it difficult for a leader to determine upon a course consistent at once with principle, and with the general sentiments of his party. The Caillemel-Lacour affair was not less troublesome, though for a different cause. In the House of Commons, unlike most other national assemblies, where some authorized method is known of stopping impertinent debate, freedom of speech is the rule. But it is evident that, under this rule, any obstructionist can, if he please, create a great deal of delay and do all the mischief which can be done by provoking discussions of a character indiscreet in themselves, or calculated to make enemies of other nations. Governments have always exercised the right to make representations against, and even in the last resort to refuse the acceptance of Foreign Ministers whose characters or persons were disagreeable. But diplomacy has, hitherto, been a matter chiefly between Cabinets; and admitting theoretically the right of the House of Commons to intervene, considering the functions which it practically wields, it is plain that it cannot do so, by general debate on a subject of this kind, without the gravest dangers to the good understanding which should be maintained with other countries. If the present Government of France is to be represented in England by any means fairly expressing its views and spirit, such a man will not be a persona grata to Mr. O'Donnel or to any persons who participate in his views, and possess a temper like his own. But is Republican France, such as we see her, therefore, to be without a representative in England? Or is her representative, and through him herself, to be insulted by a debate in which the supposed demerits of her Minister would be set forth by those who disliked him, with much passion and not much discrimination as to facts? The answer seems easy; yet the application, consistently with the rule of entire freedom of speech, will be found very difficult. No doubt these two questions, which really are of very small importance, have hampered the legislative movement since the beginning of the session. Yet, withal, not a little has been done. In finance Mr. Gladstone has proposed, and doubtless will carry, his scheme for re-establishing the equilibrium. And among his proposals is one for the abolition of the malt tax, which appeals at once to the good will of a class, whose representatives have been usually, and, indeed, still are, as to the majority of them, his greatest opponents. Though it would seem that a tax on malt was ultimately only one on beer, the form of the tax has always been most annoying to the farmer. Its abolition will, therefore, meet with the hearty support of a class to whom certainly the Liberals, hitherto, have owed very little. The same class has, for some time, desired a settlement of the question of ground game. Rabbits and hares, maintained for the sport of the landlord and his friends, have been very destructive to crops, and incidentally have checked good husbandry, because a man does not want to adopt expensive methods for producing that which is to be destroyed without profit to himself. Sir Vernon Harcourt's Bill is intended to give the farmer a practical means of saving himself from these depredations. For this measure, and the one already spoken of, the most authoritative organs of tenant-farmer opinion have publicly expressed their thanks, though the farmers, who have long leases, wish the law to be made retroactive, so that they may benefit from it; but, with characteristic fair play, offer to accept a provision that will oblige them to pay an increase of rent proportioned to the value of the game to the landlords. Then the Government is endeavouring to carry through an Act which will make the church yards, which are really common property, the common burial places of all classes, without respect to religious creeds, so as to get rid of the embarrassment, and sometimes, unfortunately, the insult to which are exposed the survivors of deceased persons who have not belonged to the Church of England, and who, sometimes, are not within practical reach of any other burial ground than that controlled by the established clergy. In the Lords the majority has at last consented to go a great way in this direction; but it still attempts to prevent the complete carrying out of the principle. It desires to dictate, though within very broad limits, the kind of ceremonial with which friends are to conduct the funerals of their dead. The advance is great; but it does not come up to the policy of the Ministry. In this case the projected Bill, if carried, will do away with what is often a great material inconvenience; but, perhaps, it will be more valuable for its abolition of ill-feeling between different classes, which naturally arises from the almost necessary use of a common property being made a monopoly in the hands of men who do not always exercise their offensive prerogatives with gentleness. Lastly, carrying out the idea that a tenant, who has put labour and capital into a farm, is entitled to remuneration for what improvement he leaves there, the Ministry is seeking to apply this rule to Irish evictions. We here speak only of great measures of internal policy. They do not occupy much room on paper; but they are matters of great interest; and whatever may be said about the desire of Mr. Gladstone to close the session, we imagine that he will not close it till he shall have placed all these Bills in such a posture that their rejection or mutilation, whether in the Commons or in the Lords, shall be made clearly traceable to the true authors of it.

THE MILITARY COLLEGE.

We are not among those who frequently complain, either directly of the British Government or indirectly of the consequences of our connection with the Empire. We see no reason to think that any British authorities either coerce us into injurious courses, or as a rule stimulate our follies. On the contrary, we are disposed to believe that the alleged wishes of the Mother country have been used by our own politicians without the least justice, on one or two occasions, for the purpose of covering their own jobs. This was notably the case with the Intercolonial Railway, which has cost millions more than was necessary to do the thing which was required—that is to say, the putting of the whole country into communication with a good winter port. But we are bound to add, there is one particular in which it seems to us that indirectly the influence of a certain class of opinion in the Mother country costs us money, without the promise of any reasonable return. There is about our relations with the Colonial Office a military atmosphere which impels us to follies, which cost sums, not, we admit, of very considerable amount, but still to an amount very creditable to our good sense. Whether the country really has a military attache, as we were once to have, in Sir A. T. Galt's household, we do not know; but the Imperial Government, certainly with much more reason, always has a military attache in Canada in the person of the Adjutant-General of Militia, who is always selected from officers well up in the service. This gentleman has in his office comparatively little to occupy the mind of an accomplished and experienced soldier; and if he has any activity he devotes it chiefly to insisting on a greater military expenditure here in reports of various kinds, and probably in unofficial communications, addressed to friends in England, which thence find their way to headquarters. We do not affect to condemn this course of action. The business of the professional soldier is soldiering, and the British head of the Canadian militia, if he have his heart in the duties of his life, must doubtless perceive many defects in our defensive system which a good officer will desire to correct. The policy of keeping up a considerable armed force is not a matter for his consideration—that it is right is the assumption on which he works. It was doubtless owing to the influences of which we speak that the Military College was established. We do not think it is a great thing to do for the Empire supposing the Imperial authorities to desire it, and we believe they desire it, as an alternative of other more expensive and costly things which they were pressing upon the notice of our authorities in Canada. At the same time we fully participate in all that has been said of the impropriety of the expenditure, considered on Canadian grounds alone. We have at the College forty-four young men, and as these things generally grow, we may, probably, expect that number soon to be considerably increased. If they are doing anything in return for the cost of their education, they are learning to be military officers. But where are their soldiers? And whom is it proposed that we shall fight? If we have not a professional army, what is to become of all these professional officers? Here and there one may doubtless drift into the volunteers; but we apprehend there are several causes which will prevent that from being a very common occurrence. The volunteer officers will always, we suppose, be selected rather for their popularity with the men than for their military knowledge. What is really being done at the College is to give a cheap education of a very high class in applied science to a small number of lads, who will thus be fitted, largely at the public expense, to compete advantageously with other men who have had to pay for their own instruction in engineering, mining and similar pursuits. This is what really takes place in the United States; but why the country should pay specially for the higher education of a certain chosen number, leaving the rest to get on as best they can with the ordinary facilities for education, is more than we know. Having no army, and the volunteers, when no service is required, not being a force which affords much scope for highly educated and disciplined soldiers, there is, unfortunately, no security that the country will continue to enjoy, in any capacity, the services which she has prepared these young men to undertake. A certain number of them will doubtless render good service in such manners as we have suggested. But we may reasonably suppose that a large number will be always drifting away, at all events may drift away, to foreign countries, where engineering works will soon be wanted, but where educated engineers will, for a long time, be much more scarce than among ourselves.

THE SURVIVORS OF WATERLOO.—After sixty-five years there are still a good many survivors of the great battle. The London Telegraph gives the names; but the names only of the officers. There must doubtless be a good many privates dispersed throughout the world, though the number must yearly decrease, and of course decrease each year with greater rapidity. The honoured names thus given are these, in all sixteen: Field-Marshal Sir C. Yorke, G. C. B., Captain of the Forty-fourth; General Sir T. Reed, G. C. B., of the Twelfth Light Dragoons; General Lord Bokeley, G. C. B., Lieutenant of the Third Foot (Scots) Guards; General G. Macdonald, Colonel of the Sixteenth Foot, who was Lieutenant of the Twenty-seventh Foot; General G. Whichcote, Lieutenant of the Thirty-second Foot; General J. A. Butler, Lieutenant in the Grenadier Guards; General the Earl of Albemarle, who was Ensign in the Fourteenth; General Sir John Bloomfield, G. C. B., Colonel Commandant of the Royal Horse Artillery, who was First Lieutenant; General T. C. Smith, who was Ensign in the Twenty seventh; Capt. Dugald Macfarlane, who was a Lieutenant in the Rifle Brigade; Captain W. Harris, who was a Lieutenant in the Sixteenth Light Dragoons; Lieutenant J. Bramwell, who was Ensign in the Ninety-second Foot; Lieutenant A. Gardner, who was Lieutenant in the Twenty-seventh Foot; Lieutenant James Robinson, who was Lieutenant in the Thirty-second Foot; Assistant-Surgeon George Evers, late of the Fourteenth Foot, and Quartermaster Luke Hardy, who both served in the ranks of the Grenadier Guards. It is remarkable that in this list of officers there should not be remaining a single Life Guardsman, while of officers of cavalry only two survive. No foot artillerymen and no engineers, and it is equally curious that in the course of sixty-five years several officers have only gained a single step in rank from lieutenant to captain, or from ensign to lieutenant. Two gentlemen, lieutenants on the 18th of June, 1815, were still lieutenants on the 18th of June, 1880. They were wounded, perhaps, at Waterloo, and went immediately on half-pay. It is very easy in this world to be completely forgotten.

COST OF ELECTIONS IN ENGLAND.—A Parliamentary paper gives the certified expenses of members returned at the last English general election. The costs are, of course, very various, according to place, circumstances, and, we may suppose, persons. The lowest are about $2,500 in small boroughs. But some, especially in counties, go over $50,000. At the last general election, six years ago, the total cost was over $7,500,000, or an average of $11,500 for each one of 650 members. But this does not cover illegitimate expenditure, which, doubtless, in the aggregate is large, though small compared with the legitimate expenditure, if both are compared with the costs of elections when bribery was not as dangerous as it is to-day. The very rich Liberals are understood to have subscribed very largely, and possibly the great body of the moderately wealthy Conservative class was not in as good a position for contributions as in ordinary years. The Parnell fund, made up largely in America, also played a considerable part in providing for a portion of the expenditure in Ireland. Sir William Harcourt, alluding to his own experience, said recently at a city dinner that the possession of a seat in Parliament ought to be regarded as of great value to make a man willing to go through three elections in order to hold it.

ALLEGED CRIME AT HAMILTON.—A servant girl, a few days ago, was prevented from drowning herself. She stated as the reason for her rash attempt that, coming into town by one of the railways, she took a cab to be driven to a friend's; but that the driver, instead of obeying orders, took her into a yard, drugged her, and then ill-treated her. The supposed driver is named Tobin, and he has been arrested. It is said that he has hitherto maintained an excellent character. The girl's character also appears to be irreproachable.

ASSESSMENTS IN NEW YORK.—The New York Herald states that, during the year there has been an increase in the value of property subject to assessment of $25,000,000, two-thirds of it in up-town wards made accessible by the elevated railways. The taxation on the city is about $23,000,000, and our contemporary makes a remark which may be, we fear, too widely re echoed in other cities—"most of it will go to pay old debts, and for a public service which is wretchedly poor at its price."

THE CROPS IN THE OTTAWA DISTRICT.—The Ottawa Free Press publishes a report of the crop prospects in the district round that city. The result, as a whole, is not favourable as to wheat. The fall wheat is generally said to be winter killed, and the spring wheat has suffered from rust. But all other crops, judging from these notes, will be considerably above the average throughout that part of the country.

SPANISH VESSEL.—The first Spanish vessel that has been in port for some years is at present in harbour, having a cargo of sugar for the Canada Sugar Refining Company. She is a barque, and is endeavouring to get a Spanish return freight.

THE PRENTICE-CHAPLEAU AFFAIR

From our Special Correspondent.

Quebec, July 7.

This inquiry was continued this morning in the Public Accounts Committee.

By Mr. Chapleau—The witness said he met Mr. Robertson in Montreal on the 24th December, and also that he had seen Mr. Chapleau in Montreal on his way to Sherbrooke on Christmas Eve, and had told him the affair was settled. The next day he wrote Mr. Chapleau at his request, and the letter was produced and read as follows:—

Montreal, December 25, 1879.

My Dear Chapleau,—For nearly a month past troubled and troublesome negotiations have been carried on by me on your behalf, which was brought to a conclusion satisfactory to your Treasurer and to yourself only yesterday. Had I not been left to find out for myself the difficulty between your Government and the Bank of Montreal I would, earlier in the negotiation, have taken a different course, and saved you and myself much wrong. I was only informed, as you will remember, there was a difficulty about the rate of interest, and that I must find you the money at five per cent., irrespective of market values. Almost at once, on the 2nd of December, I did arrange a loan for $10,000 with Mr. Barbeau at 6 per cent. to me, but at 5 per cent. to the Government, with what results you know. The Bank of Montreal at once stopped this and also visited the other banks and frightened them so that for a time my action was paralyzed. Mr. Ritchie also sent a Star reporter with all the facts for your dispute and the banks and the managers were interviewed. Now let me give you the reasons for capitulating this unpleasant story on the 2nd of December. I announced to you that I had the loans ready for you. This was communicated to your colleagues subsequently, as above related. The Bank of Montreal killed my negotiation and the blame, in the minds of your colleagues, falls on my shoulders. I know that much harm has been done in their estimation, but you can, I am sure, and will put this matter right at the first opportunity. I enclose a copy of my formal letter to the Treasurer, notifying him that the loan is completed in accordance with his own wishes, and when you speak of this with your colleagues at Quebec you can say that not only did I not fall in my promise to find you the money at five per cent., but that I kept it at he cost of borrowing it at a higher price I would not, however, speak even to Mr. Robertson until the loan is closed with La Banque du Peuple. Wishing you and Mrs. Chapleau a very merry Christmas,

I am, yours sincerely,

ED. ALEX PRENTICE.

The witness continued that, having spent all his time for over a month in overcoming these difficulties, he thought the Government would be pleased to learn of his getting the money at five per cent., instead of which, he said, Mr. Dansereau told him, what he had written in the letter just read, that Mr. Chapleau's colleagues were much disappointed. This very much surprised him, and he had a telegram from Mr. Chapleau in reply, saying, "I will give you the Treasurer's views to-morrow."

To Mr. Irvine—The object he had in paying himself the difference between the five and six per cent. was that he was on the most friendly terms with the Premier, and had the most implicit confidence in him, and had an understanding with him, which Mr. Chapleau did not question for long afterwards. The Government loan was to be negotiated through him, but he could not commence the negotiations abroad without knowing what price would satisfy the Government, and when the Legislature was to meet, he felt certain that the negotiation of the public loan, and the sale of the Government Railways, were both to be conducted through him. Witness said he had met Mr. Decelles, and told him it was extremely inconvenient for him to pay the amount himself, and Mr. Decelles immediately said that Mr. Senecal would probably advance the money. An appointment was then arranged at the Richelieu Hotel, between Decelles, Senecal and himself. Senecal at once, in his off-hand way, said: "Certainly, if Mr. Chapleau requires any money, he will have it." Senecal agreed to furnish the difference between five and six per cent on the $300,000, and witness said he would take care he should not lose it. Senecal said: "Oh, never mind, I shall get it back some way or other." He liked the generosity of the man, and both were trying to do what they could to please Mr. Chapleau. He offered to repay it out of the commission upon the four million dollar loan.

By Mr. Chapleau.—Witness made the same or a similar remark to Decelles as to Mr. Trottier to be very careful, but did not mention the name of the Government, or of any member of it, for he was aware that he had written the whole matter himself to Mr. Chapleau. He would never have asked Mr. Senecal for money, only that he had so much of his own locked up in New York Railways. It was not mentioned to Mr. Senecal what the commission on the Government Railway loan would be, but it was supposed not to be less than one per cent. No further conversation occurred until Messrs. Senecal and Dansereau called upon him to pay the difference on the loan, but shortly before the money was paid they called upon him previous to 3rd January, and Mr. Senecal laid the amount of difference of interest upon the table. Mr. Dansereau then stated they must have two-thirds of witness' commission on the Government loan. Witness objected to this, saying it was most unfair. Mr. Senecal went away saying, "Well, settle it with Mr. Dansereau." Mr. Dansereau then attempted to make out that he was not making so much out of it, that he had to divide it into three. After further argument, witness agreed that he should have one-half, but not two-thirds. Mr. Dansereau then said, "We will have a good commission on the sale of the Railway." Witness said, "Well, when that time comes, I will make up the balance of the two-thirds commission." He found himself at their mercy, and had to give way. Mr. Dansereau told him the commission had to be divided between Messrs. Chapleau, Senecal and himself.

Mr. Chapleau then attempted to make a theatrical effect by producing the two cablegrams from Paris which informed him of the completion of the French loan, and then wanted to know if the witness would not be surprised to see a telegram from Mr. Wurtele to himself, Mr. Wurtele being then in Paris and authorized to act by an Order-in-Council, which Order-in-Council was proposed by Mr. Robertson himself.

Mr. Prentice said he was not now surprised at anything after the gross deception which had been practised upon him.

Sir Leonard Tilley has been summoned to appear before the Committee as a witness.

PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT

THIRD SESSION-FOURTH PARLIAMENT

From our Special Correspondent.

Quebec, July 7.

In the Legislative Assembly, after routine,

Hon. Mr. FLYNN introduced his resolutions respecting mines.

Hon. Mr. IRVINE asked that they might be held over till members had an opportunity of studying them.

Hon. Mr. FLYNN agreed to the suggestion.

On the motion for concurrence in the report of the Committee of Supply on the item of $10,000 for immigration and repatriation,

Mr. MERCIER objected to the item, which was an increase of 100 per cent on that of last year. He stated that he was against expense in inducing strangers to settle here.

Mr. CHAPLEAU would see that the money was well spent. It was impossible to carry on the system with a less sum than was asked. The Supplementary Estimates would contain an additional grant for colonization, which he hoped would meet the views of the House.

Mr. GAGNON moved that the item be reduced $5,000.

Mr. CHAPLEAU objected to the amendment. It would be a discredit to the Province to vote less than $10,000, which was even too small a sum in view of the immigration which was now going on.

Mr. JOLY thought $5,000 quite enough the system should be changed so as to bring the requirements of this service within this sum. He was surprised that the Government had spent over $9,000 last year without any benefit to the Province, as very few emigrants had settled here.

Mr. MOLLEUR, seconder of the amendment, wished the item struck out altogether, and the system of encouraging immigration abolished. He would encourage the repatriation of French-Canadians from the States, but he considered money spent otherwise was thrown away.

Mr. BERGEVIN regretted he could not vote with his friends, as he intended to support the amendment.

Mr. DUPUIS said it was a shame to be spending money on the immigration of strangers, when so many of our own people were leaving for the States. Moreover, what was the use of bringing people here when there was nothing for them to do.

Mr. GAGNON pointed out that, until 1870, no money was spent by the Province for emigration, and that the $253,149 expended under this head was paid for printing pamphlets and in keeping up a large staff of agents, while nothing was done for the emigrants who went to Western Canada and the United States.

The amendment was lost: yeas, 23; nays, 30; Messrs. Irvine and Meikle voting for the motion.

Another amendment to the item was defeated, after which the remaining items of the Estimates were adopted.

At 6 o'clock the House took recess.

AFTER RECESS.

A few Private Bills were advanced a stage.

The Bill to abolish the property qualification of members was read a second time.

On the second reading of the Bill respecting internal economy of the House,

Hon. Mr. MERCIER moved the three months' hoist, contending that it was an attempt to take all power out of the hands of the Speaker in the internal management of the House.

Hon. Mr. LORANGER denied that the Bill was intended to lessen the independence of the Speaker. Though prepared by himself, it was now the property of the House, which could adopt it, or otherwise as it chose.

After further discussion the Bill was adopted, on division, by a majority of three, several members of the House being absent without pairs.

The Stamp Bill of the Solicitor-General was also read a second time, and reported from Committee of the Whole.

The House adjourned at midnight.

EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY,

120 Broadway, New York

LIFE INSURANCE PROFITS DEMONSTRATED BY ACTUAL SETTLEMENTS MADE IN 1880.

The Society is now paying maturing Tontine Policies with the following remarkable results.

POLICIES CARRIED TEN YEARS WITH THE RETURN OF ALL PREMIUMS PAID AND INTEREST THEREON.

1st Example: Policy No. 43,563, issued May 25, 1869. Amount.....$10,000 00
Total premiums paid (11 years,) 5,594.60

The assured is now entitled to draw, in cash, $6,455 80, having had besides $10,000 of assurance for eleven years. 115 per cent. of premiums paid returnable in cash. This example and those which follow show that

LARGER PROFITS ARE PAID POLICY-HOLDERS THAN ARE NOW DECLARED BY ANY OTHER COMPANY.

2nd Example: Policy No. 58 543, issued Dec. 30, 1870. Endowment 20 years. Tontine Period 10 years. Amount...$10,000 00
Total premiums paid (10 years,) 7,539.00

The assured on Dec. 30, 1880, will be entitled to draw, in cash, $9,033.30, 120 per cent. of the premiums paid.

These results although predicted by carefully made estimates are

NOT ESTIMATES, BUT ACTUAL CASH RETURNS.

3rd Example: Policy No. 41,621, issued March 27, 1869. Amount.....$5,000.00
Total premiums paid..... 2,908.95

In this case, the assured withdrew, March 27, 1880, in cash, $3,312.45, being 114 per cent. of premiums paid.

Many policies will thus be paid in 1880, showing

CASH RETURNS OF FROM 100 TO 120 PER CENT. OF THE PREMIUMS PAID.

Assets securely invested of $38,000,000. Surplus $7,500,000. The Society's popularity is shown by the fact that for the past eleven years the total amount of new policies issued has been greater than that of any other company in existence, thus making its average

ANNUAL NEW BUSINESS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER COMPANY.

The Society pays death claims promptly and in full. Its policies are clear and concise, and with no unreasonable conditions.

EVERY POLICY BECOMES INCONTESTABLE AFTER THREE YEARS.

MILITARY CADETS ON THEIR VISITS

A BLUNDER ABOUT VICE-ROYALTY.

QUEBEC, July 7.—The municipal authorities of the adjoining Parish of St. Foy have issued instructions to stop lacrosse and other games from being played on Sunday on the Plains of Abraham.

A party from the Kingston Military College, consisting of ten cadets and two officers, arrived here last evening, and to-day visited Point Levis Fort, the Round Towers and other military fortifications, also the harbour improvements and the Graving Dock. They leave to-morrow morning for Halifax via Intercolonial Railway.

It is rumoured that Mr. Dunscomb, Collector of Customs at this port, is to be superannuated to make room for some more important office-hunters.

It is stated that the Levis forts are fast becoming delapidated. It seems the Government Engineers some time ago condemned the roofs and interior facings of these works.

A number of names are already mentioned in connection with the Judgeship vacant by the death of Mr. Maguire.

The Quebec Fire Assurance Company have declared a dividend of 5 per cent. for the past six months.

The Chronicle gives the following amusing explanation of the blundering report with reference to the return of the Governor-General's party to Quebec:—It seems that, early in the evening two young gentlemen of the Governor-General's staff, who have remained behind at the Citadel since the departure of His Excellency and the Princess, met a prominent member of the Legislative Assembly, and said, "We are coming down to-night to see the House, and hope there will be an interesting debate in progress." The member, who is a Minister of the Crown, understood that the pronoun "we," included the whole Vice-Regal party, and immediately rushed to the Speaker and the Prime Minister to have fitting preparations made for the reception of the expected illustrious guests. The Speaker had a number of cushioned arm-chairs with scarlet velvet coverings placed prominently upon the floor of the House, and all the gas lamps in the Chamber were brilliantly lighted. The Speaker's messenger was on the alert, and so was the Sergeant-at-Arms, while another messenger was stationed at the front door of the House to conduct the party to the Speaker's apartment. About half-past eight two covered carriages drove up to the main entrance. The attentive messenger advanced to receive the ladies as they alighted, and conducted them up to the Speaker's private staircase to his apartments, meanwhile the Sergeant-at-Arms was to the fore, but it was not until the party reached the Speaker's room that the messenger discovered he had no Princess in tow. The Speaker was informed of the blunder, and was not much more surprised thereat then were the Ministers and friends who formed the party at their previous reception, and the unusual honour accorded to them. They were escorted, however, to the Speaker's gallery, and a few minutes later two gentlemen in civilian's dress sauntered into the Speaker's room in happy ignorance of the amusing blunder, of which they had been the innocent cause. Being shown on the floor of the House, they seated themselves with admirable grace in two of the State chairs, doubtless unaware of the reason for all the staring to which they were subjected by the occupants of the gallery who, having heard of the supposed Vice-Regal visit, were the whole evening on the qui vive. It was at last agreed in the House that the wet weather must have prevented the attendance of the Royalty that night, and remarks were passed respecting the privacy with which His Excellency and Her Royal Highness must have arrived that day in town and driven to the Citadel.

OTTAWA

MR. FLEMING'S RESIGNATION.

OTTAWA, July 7.—A sea serpent is said to have been seen above Aylmer in the Dechene Lake. The story is taken cum grano salus.

The Civil Service Commissioner has ordered a statement to be prepared, showing the age, nationality, date of appointment and length of service of all persons in the Civil Service. A blue book containing this information was printed by order of Parliament a few years ago, but considerable change has taken place since then.

The reported find of silver at the Hull iron mines turns out to be a joke.

Mr. Nicholas Flood Davin, Secretary of the Railway Commission, has arrived.

Mr. Haggart, M.P., will leave for Winnipeg next week.

The Railway Commission met again to-day. It is at present going into the early history of the Canada Pacific Railway, and should it desire to take evidence on particular points afterwards, this will probably be done with open doors.

Rev. Mr. Huntington will leave here the last week in July, as his successor, Bishop Withen, will not arrive until September. Some temporary arrangements will have to be made. A formal letter of acceptance of the Rectorship from the Bishop is expected.

Mr. Mosgrove has to-night forwarded the papers in connection with his protest against the composition of the Grand Jury at the late County Court to Toronto.

CANADA PACIFIC RAILWAY,
Ottawa, July 1, 1880.

To the Members of the Engineering Staff and other officers:

You will learn from the documents appended, published by permission, that I am no longer in the Government service. For the past seventeen years I have served under successive Administrations as Engineer-in-Chief of important public works. First the Intercolonial Railway and more recently the Pacific Railway. I cannot cease to act, as have hitherto done, without thinking of my past relationship with many who have aided me, and I cannot retire from the position I have so long held without bidding farewell to those with whom I have been associated in undertakings so gigantic, involving questions so complicated. It is not possible to avoid differences of opinion and such difficulties as are incident thereto. But these difficulties have been exceptionally few, and they have been far more than compensated by exceedingly agreeable relations which have generally prevailed, by the genuine satisfaction which has arisen from the performance of duty, and by the engrossing character of the work itself. As the head of the engineering staff to whom the Government has looked for opinions and reports on all questions, as the officer held responsible for the direction of every operation and the organization of every detail, from first explorations to the present time, it is with peculiar regret that I break my connection with the Pacific Railway at this particular stage. I cannot conceal from the members of the staff that I would have preferred to have remained with them to help forward the more complete fruition of our great labours, but circumstances have exacted that it shall be otherwise, and time has come when my professional connection with the great undertaking, into which I have thrown my best energies, must close. On the other hand, I conceive that I may, with legitimate satisfaction, look back on the progress which has been made. The vast territory in which our investigations have been made is no longer a terra incognita. Our labours have successfully pierced the formidable barrier imposed by nature, and every problem of practibility has been solved. Construction is being proceeded with at different points within a range of nearly two thousand miles, and in a little more than another year the completion of at least six hundred miles of railway is assured. In that short period, a line of communication will be open, within Canadian territory, for the influx of settlers to our great fertile wilderness.

The documents bearing on the matter are attached.

The jury in the case of Brisbois came into Court this evening and returned a verdict of "not guilty."

TORONTO

CREDIT VALLEY RAILROAD.

TORONTO, Ont., July 7.—The workmen on the Credit Valley Railway have struck work in consequence of arrearages in their wages, and this morning a general strike occurred. Not a single train on the line has arrived in or departed from the city to-day. The train men, engine drivers, and ballasting men have all ceased work, and this evening a meeting will be held by the employees at Parkdale to decide upon their future movements. The men complain that at the present time there are three months' wages due them, and that before stopping work they underwent grievous sufferings in the hope that the Directors would be able to make some arrangement whereby they would be able to provide for their wives and families. From a statement by the Managing Director, it would appear that the Company has expended about $300,000 more money than they had on hand, the above sum having been realized by mortgage and by borrowing from various parties until their credit has entirely departed. The road was finished in January, but the rolling stock was insufficient for the business. Mr. Laidlaw states that the men have been subjected to many trials and have been very considerate and patient, but that this strike will have the effect of losing the Company $600 per day and will consequently lessen the chances of the men receiving their back pay so soon as they might otherwise have looked for. The bonds of the Company have principally been mortgaged for the payment of steel rails, and the Managing Director feels confident that if this mortgage were paid off the bonds could be placed so that every cent of debt could at once be paid off. The road has been doing remarkably well, considering that it is a new line, and with such a small amount of rolling stock, which is fully 40 per cent. short of what should be employed. It is probable that the road must stay shut till the men agree to go on again, as the Company has exhausted all its resources, and as the Court of Chancery has, at present, charge of the road, they will probably protect themselves.

The prisoner, George Bennett, now under sentence of death at the gaol, is in excellent health and apparently good spirits. He does not seem at all to keenly feel the awful position in which he is placed. He occupies the larger portion of his time in scribbling, being engaged in writing an autobiography.

The ceremony of swearing in the Hon. John B. Robinson, as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, will take place at the Legislative Chamber, Parliament Buildings, to-morrow, at four o'clock.

HALIFAX.

DIPHTHERIA.

HALIFAX, N.S., July 7.—The American yacht "Atalanta" arrived at Pictou last week to have some slight repairs effected, having damaged her keel on a reef on the Prince Edward Island coast. She sailed on Monday for Labrador.

The Government steamer "Glendon" ran into a pilot boat down the harbour this afternoon, cutting her to the water's edge; but the crew managed to get her up to town.

A horse mackerel, weighing 600 pounds, was captured by a schooner fishing off Meagher's Beach to-day.

Vice-Admiral McClintock and family are expected back from Niagara and the Western cities to-morrow.

Donald Archibald has brought to town a number of rich specimens of gold and gold-bearing quartz from Moose River, east of Halifax, where prospecting has been going on for some time.

Diphtheria has broken out among the children in the Protestant Orphanage, and two deaths have occurred.

It is reported the Princess Louise will spend some portion of the summer in this city, but nothing definite is yet known.

ST. JOHN, N.B.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 7.—The holidays in the city schools commence to-day. At the Grammar School examination the bronze medal given by the Marquis of Lorne for proficiency in the English branches was awarded to Holman Peiler, who had 257 marks out of 300.

Hon. Mr. Bowell, Hon. Mr. Pope and Hon. Mr. Baby are in Prince Edward Island.

It is reported that fifty Chinamen are to be brought to New Brunswick to work in the Woodstock Iron Works.

CHARLOTTETOWN

OFFICIAL VISITORS.

CHARLOTTETOWN, VIA HALIFAX, N.S., July 7.—The hay crop will certainly be the largest ever cut in the Province. The acreage under wheat is larger than ever before, and at present the prospects are that the crop will be heavy. About the usual quantity of oats have been sown, and prospects are good. Hardly as many potatoes were planted as last year; there are no complaints of the plants having missed, and at present the prospects are good. Barley and other crops about as usual. Reports from all parts of the Island state that the crops on the whole never looked better.

Hons. J. C. Pope, M. Bowell and F. G. Baby arrived here last night. Mr. Pope has taken passage in the "Sardinian."

NEWCASTLE.

NEWCASTLE, July 7.—Hon. Mr. Adams, Attorney-General, Mr. Fraser, Chief Commissioner, Mr. Landry and Mr. Tache, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, left for Tracadie this morning to make the transfer of the Tracadie Lazaretto to the Dominion Government. Hon. R. Young will meet the party at Tracadie.

WINNIPEG

THE MARQUETTE ELECTION.

NEIL WARNER IN THE NORTH-WEST.

WINNIPEG, Man., July 7.—Neil Warner has arrived here from Montreal, and opened a Shakesperian week with the McDowell troupe. Last night General Sherman and suite attended, and met with a cordial reception by the audience. Frank Clark's new musical burlesque, "Hymen's Harvest," has been played here by the McDowell troupe with much acceptance. The author has been highly complimented on the success attending his dramatic production.

Mr. Hespeler, emigration agent at this point, states that there is now arriving in this country a very desirable class of emigrants, principally Scotch and English, many of them with quite sufficient money to settle upon farms and commence the cultivation of the soil. The greater portion of them are destined for the Little Saskatchewan and Bird-Tail Creek country.

Kenneth McKenzie, ex-M.P.P., has been unanimously chosen by the Liberal Convention at Portage la Prairie to contest the County of Marquette in their interest. W. A. Luxton, of the Free Press, and other leading lights of the party, addressed the Convention, as did also the nominee, who accepts the candidacy.

CRIMES AND ACCIDENTS

QUEBEC, July 7.—A melancholy accident happened at Lake Beauport this evening, by which a fine young man, aged about twenty-five years, son of Mr. Patton, of Lewis street, lost his life. It seems he was out boating on the lake, when, by some means, he fell into the water and was drowned before he could be rescued. Dr. Russell, who was with him at the time, made great exertions to save him, but without avail. It is supposed he must have taken cramps after getting into the water.

POVERTY AND SUFFERING.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring, which did them no good. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of my pastor, I procured Hop Bitters and commenced their use, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost, I know it.

DISTURBANCES IN IRELAND.

LONDON, July 7.—The Russian Grand Duke Alexis, at Glasgow, to-day, will witness the launching of the Czar's new steam yacht "Livadia."

The Standard says it is not expected that Parliament will rise before the 21st August.

The Daily Telegraph says it is improbable Parliament will be prorogued before the middle of September.

The steamer "Trojan," with ex-Empress Eugenie on board, left Cape Town on Monday for England.

The Birmingham Centre Sunday School Union celebrated its centenary on Monday by a conference in the Town Hall. Dr. Vincent, of America, read a paper on "The Teacher," and R. W. F. Crofts, also of America, delivered an address.

A Dublin despatch says meetings to sanction the land agitation in its more advanced character were held on Sunday last in various parts of the West of Ireland. Representatives of the Land League attended the meetings. At Dunmore, County Galway, resolutions were passed pledging the meeting to continue the agitation for the abolition of landlordism and the establishment of a personal proprietary. Also, congratulating the American nation on its anniversary of Independence. A representative of the Land League said the Irish to-day were fighting the same battle that the Americans fought in the last century.

The Post says the Speaker of the House of Commons has informed Bradlaugh that it was no breach of privilege to serve a member with a writ within the precincts of Westminster Palace. Another writ was served on Bradlaugh yesterday.

The Daily Telegraph states that an informal Cabinet Council has been held to consider the state of public business, particularly the Compensation for Disturbance in Ireland Bill. It is also understood the attitude of the Porte was discussed. Considerable opposition is anticipated to the Compensation for Disturbance in Ireland Bill on motion for going into Committee.

The Echo thus comments on the report of the Honorary Secretary of the Relief Committee on the distribution of the American funds: "Since the announcements made of large contributions offered by America to the New York Herald fund for the relief of the distress in Ireland very little has been stated of the doings of the Committee in the distribution. A report in a recent number of that paper details the operations of the Committee to the end of May. They seem to have set to work in a very sensible fashion. They husbanded their resources, while the Mansion House and Duchess of Marlborough's funds were most active, and now that the latter are approaching exhaustion the American money is being spent more freely. Instead of giving one special dole and leaving a place, the Herald Committee put 300 places on the list for regular fortnightly contributions. The Duke of Edinburgh lent them the use of the gunboat "Goshawk," and they loaded her with clothing and materials for making up for children and with cans of the soap which were brought over from the United States by the "Constellation." Rev. Dr. Hepworth, in a fortnight trip, distributed these things among the Western Islands; $10,000 was spent in feeding the children at the schools, and 51,214 children every day received a meal of a penny loaf of bread with milk, where it could be got cheaply, and in some of the convents cocoa was furnished. The effect of this regimen, as a change from Indian meal, is a wonderful improvement in the health of the little ones, but the children could not go to school without clothes, and, to provide these, a Ladies' Committee was formed in Dublin and over 100 seamstresses are maintained in that city by the work provided for them in making corduroy trousers and flannel blouses for the boys, and linsey dresses and calico chemises for the girls. Over 1,000 children have thus been clothed. The discount allowed on the cost of materials has covered the cost of postage and stationery, and the fund has been managed at a cost of only one-half per cent. About £600 has been spent upon fishing nets for the poor fishermen of Kerry and Clare, and fishing gear and and repair boats for the Islanders of the coasts of Mayo, Galway and Donegal, have cost another £1,000. The cargo of the "Constellation," nearly all of which went to the same districts, out of the reach of railways, included 1,335 barrels of seed potatoes, 1,143 barrels of cornmeal, 680 barrels of flour, 148 barrels of oatmeal, 58 barrels of canned meat and seven cases of clothing.

The statement that the Queen would visit Ireland is unfounded.

It is rumoured that Lord Derby, Liberal Conservative, will lead the opposition to the Compensation for Disturbance in Ireland Bill in the House of Lords.

FRANCE

OPERATIONS OF AMNESTY LAW.

THE FRANCO-AMERICAN BANQUET.

LONDON, July 7.—General reports of the crops in France are highly satisfactory for quantity. In some cases the probable yield of wheat is considered deficient, but barley promises excellently.

PARIS, July 7.—The three Republican groups met before the sitting of the Chamber of Deputies to consider the Amnesty question. The Left Centre resolved to accept the Senatorial amendment, if so modified as to exclude only Communists condemned for assassination and who were previously convicted for non-political offences. The Advanced and Extreme Left preferred the adoption of Senator Labiche's amendment, subject to any verbal alterations. If, as had been suggested, criminal antecedents are taken as a criterion of exclusion from amnesty, it will apply to 509 of 805 Communists still in exile. The 509 are not under condemnation for assassination or incendiarism, and would not, therefore, be put out by the Senatorial amendment.

In the debate on the preceding vote on the report of the Committee on the Amnesty, M. De Cassagnac, Bonapartist, maintained that the Ministry, having been defeated in the Senate, ought to resign. De Freycinet explained the Government's attitude on the question. He said the Ministers in the Senate on Saturday voted for the amendment excluding assassins and incendiaries, to frustrate certain designs, though they had first rejected it because of the difficulty in carrying it out. He said he the Bill, in the form it was sent back by the Senate, left a way open for compromise. Bonapartist deputies declared they would vote for the amendment of the Committee.

A Committee of reactionary gentlemen purpose awarding gold medals to all magistrates who resign rather than sanction the execution of the decrees against religious orders.

The Committee of the Franco-American Union gave a banquet to-night to celebrate the official notification to the United States of the assured completion of the Monument commemorative of the Independence of the United States, which will be inaugurated in 1883. Henri Martin, H. Stonan, Senator Bozarian, Oscar de la Fayette, and M. Laboulaye, M. De Lesseps, Governor Noyes, the American Minister, Gen. Peltier representing President Grevy, Dietz Monin Walker, the Consul-General of the United States, General Keyes, Henry Wood, M. M. Detmold, and Ryan and Bartoldi the Sculptor of the Monument, and a large number of journalists were present. M. Laboulaye, President of the Committee, proposed the various toasts. He gave an account of the work of the Committee, and stated France had provided the statue and the artist, while America would supply the pedestal. In future ages the Statute of Liberty would stand forth as the monument of the great epoch and as a souvenir of the friendship between the two great peoples. He concluded with the toast, "Eternal Friendship between France and America." Minister Noyes delivered an eloquent address, which was frequently applauded. He warmly thanked the Committee for mitaling the work. The monument would be a testimony of the friendship and glory, and a living emblem of the appreciation of America for France, who aided the United States in gaining their Independence. Consul-General Walker proposed the health of "President Grevy." M. Bozarian offered the toast, "The American Press." Oscar de la Fayette gave the toast in honour of "President Hayes." Minister Noyes and M. De Lesseps recalled the memory of the Frenchmen who shed their blood in the cause of American independence. M. Leprere, ex-Minister of Justice, in his own name and the names of his former colleagues in the Government, saluted the great American nation.

The Chamber of Deputies has adopted the Committee's final report on the Amnesty Bill by 321 to 150.

ITALY

ROME July 7.—The Minister of Finance, continuing his speech in the Chamber of Deputies in support of the abolition of the grist tax, stated that the budget for 1880 showed a clear surplus of nearly 13,000,000 lire. He considered the abolition of the grist tax an act of justice and social reparation.

GREECE

TURKISH TACTICS AGAINST THE GREEKS.

ATHENS, July 7.—The enlistment of volunteers, principally for Epirates and Thessaly, is progressing rapidly. Troops are concentrating on the eastern and western frontiers of Greece, in consequence of the concentration of Turkish troops, and also to prevent brigand inroads. The Government has received information that the Porte is releasing all Albanian malefactors in Constantinople prisons, where they are willing to provide military service.

BELGIUM

BRUSSELS, July 7.—The Government formally denies that small-pox is prevalent in Belgium.

RUSSIA

REVELATIONS OF A NIHILIST.

THE RUSSIANS AND CHINESE.

LONDON, July 7.—A Berlin despatch says the murderer of Prince Krapatkin is believed to have disclosed the names of all the principal Nihilists to the Russian Government, which has thus been able to arrest all the ringleaders.

A Berlin correspondent, discussing the relations between China and Russia, says there seems to have been an idea of purchasing ships and cannon in America, and pitting American seamen against the duller land-lubbers forming the bulk of Russian crews, but there is little prospect of the scheme being carried out before the war is over.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 7.—The Valide Russe asserts that telegraphic advices from Turkestan contain nothing justifying the reports, by way of India, respecting the alleged defeats of the Russians by the Chinese. It is said that a thousand Sarts, collected by the Chinese in Kashgaria to make roads, were forcibly impressed into the Chinese army. Fort Tashkurgan, near Fort Naryn, was recently sacked by Mussulmans, hence probably originated the report of the capture of Fort Naryn by the Chinese. The Russian cruiser "Yarostaff," now at Marseille, will leave there in about a month to join the Pacific fleet. The "Russia," which just sailed from Cronstadt for Vladivostock, carried 8,000,000 cartridges, 10,000 submarine mines for harbour and coast defence and two torpedo boats. She will be the sixth Russian cruiser in the Pacific, and it is intended to send six more.

An official despatch says the reconnoitering column sent forward by Gen. Skobeloff from Dousoloum on the 9th of June, reached Bami on the 11th. The inhabitants fled. The Russians are fortifying Bami and collecting provisions there. A further reconnoissance was made on the 28th ult., in the direction of Artschman, whence the Turcomans withdrew after an insignificant skirmish.

TURKEY

LONDON, July 7.—The wives of the ex-Khedive of Egypt have returned to Naples from Smyrna.

WEST INDIES

TRADE PROSPECTS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 7.—The Minister to Siberia, in a despatch to the Department of State, writes in glowing terms of the land and of the opportunities afforded settlers. Every family on arriving in Siberia receives from the Government 25 acres of the finest land, and each individual emigrant 10 acres. A competence is within reach of all. American tobacco, cotton goods, salt, provisions and improved agricultural machinery are in demand. Steam communication between the United States and Africa is sadly needed. Native traders desire closer relations with the United States. The United States Vice-Commercial Agent at St. Marie, Hayti, informs the Department of State that dry goods of American make are being imported throughout the Republic on a large scale, and are rapidly driving out British manufactures. Agents from England are being sent to the West Indies to try and regain their lost market.

INDIA

LONDON, July 7.—A Bombay despatch says that Afsia Khan, who had been visiting Abdurrahman Khan, says the latter has only two or three thousand soldiers. He suspects his entourage and lives in fear of assassination. The leaders of the Ghuznee faction have announced that they intend to fight in the interest of Tapark Khan.

UNITED STATES

TANNER'S FAST.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The Post's Washington special says the Democrats have certainly lost one member of Congress for Virginia. John Goode, jr., the present has representative from the 2nd district declined to run if the Readjusters run an independent candidate, and places his refusal on the ground that the Democrats could not possibly elect a candidate with a Readjuster and Republican in the field. The Readjusters have decided to make a nomination.

Dr. Tanner claims that the crisis is past. No severe craving for food was experienced this morning. Should none make itself felt the test will hereafter devolve entirely upon the ability of the vital organs to maintain their functions without food. One physician expresses the opinion that Dr. Tanner will suddenly become delirious after the 12th or 13th day. Following that event he may die at any moment from lock-jaw or convulsion of the muscles. He might be resuscitated if his condition were discovered in time. but the chances would be against him owing to his excessively weakened condition.

Several French Communists, who went into voluntary exile, and who have been residing in New York for some years, sail for France to-day. They propose to take their chances under the new Amnesty Act passed by the French Deputies, but rejected by the Senate. They have no fears of being arrested on their arrival.

United States District-Attorney Woodford began libel suits to-day in the United States District Court against the steamboats "Osseo," "Wyoming," "D. R. Martin," "Adelphi," "Minnie Cornell," "Mattewan," "Blackbird" and "Riverdale" plying in waters hereabouts for violation of the United States statutes in not having an inspection made of their machinery, boilers and hulls according to law. The certificate of the "Mattewan" expired on the 26th May last and of the "Blackbird" some time in 1879, while the certificates of the others expired last month and had not been renewed.

A mysterious package was sent to the office of Anthony Comstock, special agent for the Society of Suppression of Crime, in May last. Comstock was not in. His stenographer, Arthur Ducrel, received it, and noticed it had a peculiar and obnoxious smell. After placing it down he washed his hands. Ducrel is now dangerously ill. Physicians say it is blood poisoning. When the package was opened it resembled a sticking plaster, and the stench was so great that the office had to be disinfected. Physicians are greatly puzzled over the case. The young man's whole body is covered with eruptions, and though formerly strong and healthy, he has wasted away to almost a skeleton, and is now in a very critical condition.

The principle change to-day is decrease in temperature, being 98 2-5 at 6 p.m. If it falls five degrees more the result will be fatal. The doctor is still resolute and hopeful.

CINCINNATI, O., July 7.—Two more of the victims of the boiler explosion, near Dunkirk, Ohio, died this afternoon. Robert Thrush and a little son of Mr. Frederick's, owner of the thresher, Harry Bowers whose legs and arms are broken and who is badly scalded, cannot recover; John McVilty, who had his leg and arm broken and was badly scalded, will die.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

TURKEY STILL STUBBORN.

LONDON, July 7.—The Times says the stock markets are suffering partly from the basence of business, but principally from a kind of scare about the reports from the East. Neither the attitude of the Bulgarians nor that of the Sultan is liked. Operators for the fall are making the most of the fears excited by the prospect of renewed disturbances in Bulgaria and of war between Turkey and Greece.

A Constantinople despatch says the Vakit announces the decision of the Conference was communicated to the Turkish Minister at Berlin, who has been instructed to reply that the boundary adopted cannot be accepted.

A Vienna despatch says in diplomatic circles here the belief gains ground that war between Turkey and Greece is certain and that it will end in the dissolution of Turkey. A Berlin despatch coincides with this. The news from the East is not reassuring.

A Constantinople despatch says, by order of the Minister of War, Reouf Pasha, Governor of Adrianople, has commenced to mobilize the second army corps. The task is difficult, as arms and horses are wanting, but Reouf Pasha hopes by the 20th to have 20,000 effective men, three squadrons of cavalry and 33 guns in readiness for the field. Offices for the enrolment of volunteers were opened throughout the Velayet of Adrianople on the 28th of last month, and the returns for the past two days report 1,400. Enrolled troops have been constantly arriving at Adrianople during the past week from Boulaire and Constantinople, to be stationed, it is said, on the East Roumelian frontier.

Mr. Goschen, British Ambassador at Constantinople, is convinced that, without the employment of an armed force, no action of the united Powers will avail anything against the passive resistance of Turkey.

A Berlin despatch says the union of Bulgaria and Eastern Roumelia, with the help of Russian officers and soldiers will be answered by Austria entering Novi Bazar and penetrating beyond Mitravitza. To use the ambiguous phrase of the treaty of Berlin, Germany is likely to support Austria.

The Times says, editorially, the concessions of territory to Greece and Montenegro, and the introduction of reforms into the other Turkish provinces, must be persistently urged as the indispensable demands of Europe. Let this combined course of patience and firmness be pursued, and let it be clearly understood, if necessary, that stronger measures will be unhesitatingly adopted, and we may reasonably hope that self-interest alone will induce the Sultan to give way.

PARIS, July 7.—La Republique Francaise says the Sultan's refusal to obey the Powers would be equivalent to dissolution of his Empire and the forfeiture of power by his race. Anything short of absolute refusal will not require the intervention of the Powers, for if the Porte merely declares itself unable to deliver the territory awarded to Greece the latter is quite able to take it, and we do not see why that should disturb the peace of Europe.

A telegram from Ragusa reports that the Montenegrins are abandoning all their positions near Dulcigno and marching on Tusi and Podgoritza, which they intend to attack without delay. It is said they have resolved to gather the crops in the fields belonging to the Albanians as they advance.

A serious affray, in which several Turks were killed, occurred between Mussulmans of Jakoka and the Christians of Fondesi on account of acts of cruelty committed by the Turks.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE

MONTREAL GOLF CLUB.

On Saturday last ten members of the above Club met at Fletcher's Field to compete for the Sidey Handicap Medal. The weather was everything that could be desired. After two rounds had been played it was found that Mr. G. A. Drummond was the winner.

AQUATICS.

—The Grand Trunk Rowing Club intend holding their annual regatta in a few weeks. The course will be the usual one, between Nun's Island and the St. Cunegonde Water-Works. Good prizes are offered, and some excellent contests are looked forward to.

NEW LONDON, Ct., July 7.—The two mile race between the six-oared freshmen crews of Harvard and Columbia Colleges was rowed here at noon. Harvard won by a boat's length. The time of the Harvard was 11.32; Columbia, 11.37. The race was an exceedingly pretty one, hotly contested throughout. The race created little excitement, not over 1,500 witnessed it.

CRICKET.

TORONTO, July 7.—To-day the Young America Cricket Club, of Philadelphia, opened a match on the Cricket Ground with the Toronto Club. The Philadelphians went to the bat. The batting of the visitors was admirable, and surprised the home Club considerably. The Torontos changed bowlers ten times. R. A. Newhall, T. H. Dixon, E. W. Clarke, and Van Rensallaer played a fine game, running up good scores. The first innings resulted in a score of 284 runs for the American team. The Torontos will commence play in the morning. The principal runs were:—Newhall, 120; Dixon, 37; Clarke, 43; Van Rensallaer, 38.

THOUSANDS VISIT THE MINERAL SPRINGS here and abroad, and spend thousands of dollars in search for health, when a few doses of

LOCAL NEWS

Trade Sale of New Teas this morning at 10 o'clock, at the Sample Rooms of Messrs. David Torrance & Co. The Catalogue comprises over 2,000 Half-chests. Jno. J. Arnton, Auctioneer.

INSPECTIONS. — On Saturday next the annual inspections of the Prince of Wales' and Victoria Rifles will take place on the Champ de Mars at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

THE CHURCH OF NOTRE DAME.—Workmen are engaged in the cleaning and decoration of the Church of Notre Dame, and the value of their work is already appreciated, although they are not yet half through.

TOO MUCH POWER.—As a number of trucks were being shunted at the freight sheds, Chaboillez square, yesterday afternoon, a little extra momentum given to them drove one clear through the fence and into the street. The damage was not serious.

ENCOURAGING.—The shareholders of the Mechanics' Bank will be glad to know that the "Harwood" Farm, valued in the statement submitted at the last meeting at $12,900, has been sold by auction for $16,009, and this does not include the standing crops.

BOOT AND SHOE PLANT.—Mr. H. G. H. L'Ecuyer, boot and shoe machinery importer, of this city, has purchased the plant and machinery of the defunct St. Hyacinthe Boot and Shoe Company, valued at $9,000, and has removed them to his place of business here.

THE THOUSAND ISLAND PARK.—It will be noticed by an advertisement which appears in another column that this pleasant and popular summer resort is opened for the season of 1880. The best of accommodations have been provided for the comfort and convenience of tourists.

THE FRENCH FETE.—Active preparation is being made for the celebration of the French Republic on the 14th instant, and a grand fete will be held on that day on Isle Grosbois, when speeches will be delivered in accord with the occasion, and games indulged in suitable to all. The band of the 65th Battalion will form an additional attraction.

THE PIC-NIC.—The St. Patrick's National Association hold their annual pic-nic today, and have engaged the steamer "Three Rivers" for a trip to Berthier and Sorel. The excursionists will be accompanied by an excellent band of music, and the outing promises to be a most enjoyable one, most of the leading Irish gentry having signified their intention of being present.

WANTED.—A young man named Peter Moran was arrested on Monday, and brought before the Police Magistrate yesterday, on suspicion of stealing a watch, which he wanted to dispose of to M. Teichman, pawnbroker. The detectives have been searching all the pawnshops for some trace of it, and gave a description of it to the several pawnbrokers.

ASSIGNEE'S CHARGES.—In reference to a paragraph headed as above in one of our issues of last week a false impression may have been conveyed by our report. The Judge found that the Assignee was indebted to the petitioner in the sum of $104.40 (instead of $202 as claimed) but omitted to state that Mr. Bain had tendered the petitioner a note for about $80 and in reality was only condemned to pay over the sum of $24.40.

RECORDER'S COURT.—At this Court yesterday the following cases were disposed of:—Margaret Robinson, charged with assault, was remanded; Jean Baptiste Beaupre, charged with using the knife, did not appear and a warrant was ordered to issue; Jean Baptiste Pertoin, drunk and assault, $1 or eight days; Alfred Lafranchise, ditto, $10 or a month; Frederick Gibson, James Dwyer, and William O'Neil, charged with bathing opposite the city, were discharged.

POLICE COURT—Before Mr. Dugas, P.M.—In this Court, yesterday morning, Charles Shutt, a sailor, was charged with refusing to go to work on his ship. He asked to be forgiven, and was allowed to go back to his duty. Matthew Crow, for stealing rope from the barge "Mainville," was sent to gaol for two months. Mary Bray, stealing some towels and a hat, was discharged, no prosecutor appearing. Edward Carmody, charged with larceny, was remanded for further examination. Thomas Brennan, arrested on suspicion of larceny, was discharged.

COTTON IN CANADA.—The Hudon Cotton Company has ordered a 500 horse-power steam engine, to be made in Bolton, Lancashire, England, at a cost of £3,500. Whether the new engine, which is counterpart of the present one, is to be "McNaughted" or not we do not know, but the probability is that this will be done. The Canada Cotton Company, Cornwall, are also putting forth fresh efforts and making preparation for the addition of 200 looms, the Corporation of Cornwall giving the Company a bonus of $10,000.

MADE A MISTAKE.—A thief named Elie Champagne was before the Police Magistrate yesterday morning, charged with stealing a saw from Mr. Vineberg's second-hand store. It appears the fellow stole the article some days ago, and forgetting the shop he hooked it from, and wanting to sell, went back to Vineberg's and was at once arrested. The prisoner was remanded for further examination, the Magistrate remarking that if the prosecutor was as active in prosecuting other thieves as those that victimized him, society would be benefited.

DRAMATIC.—We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Scott-Siddons has engaged Miss Isabel Morris as a member of her dramatic company. Miss Morris has many friends in Montreal, and the pleasure of seeing Mrs. Siddons in drama will not be lessened, since we are assured that all the members of her troupe will be selected with the same care as to fitness. Mrs. Siddons, we believe, begins her season in Canada, and we sincerely trust it will be as brilliant, both financially and otherwise, as her worth as a woman and excellence as an artiste deserves.

MUSIC IN OUR SQUARES.—The band of the 65th battalion (City Band) will play at Viger Square, this evening, from 8 to 10 o'clock, the following programme:—Quick Step, "Aida," Salvini; Overture, "Pique Dame," Suppi; Picolo Solo, "L'Aurore dans les Bois," Julien; Solo by Signor Maddleleno; Quadrille, "A Night on the Seine," Clodomir; Mazurka, "Beatrice," V. Berri; Cornet Solo, "Inflammatus from Stabbat Mater," Rossini; Solo by Mons. Ernest Lavigne; Waltz, "Soldatenlieder," Gungl; Galop, "Halloo! Halloo!" Steinbragen; God Save the Queen. Ernest Lavigne Director.

A HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—When engaged in the engine-room of Messrs. Belding, Paul & Co., yesterday afternoon, Robert White, joiner, of Lusignan street, by an accident, got his hammer caught in the driving belt, and in attempting to get it out his arm was caught, and, as a consequence, his wrist was severely crushed against the ceiling. As soon as possible the engine was stopped and the man extricated, when it was seen the hand was almost severed from the arm. He was conveyed to the General Hospital where all that was possible to do was done for him.

UNITED PROTESTANT WORKINGMEN'S BENEFIT SOCIETY.—A meeting of the above Society was held on Tuesday evening, when the President, Mr. John Boyle, occupied the chair. The report of the physician, which was read, showed that the number of candidates examined during the past month was two; office consultations, 83; members ill less than a week, 13; members receiving sick benefit, 10. The Treasurer's report placed the receipts from all sources at $347 18, disbursements, $199.92, leaving a balance on hand of $147.26. The sick benefits for the past month amounted to $65.

A YOUNG BEGINNER AND HIS INDUCEMENT.—Yesterday afternoon, a boy named Adelard Pigeon, twelve years of age, was taken into custody for stealing a bridle and head gear of a set of harness, belonging to Toussaint Aubertin, Longueuil, and which he had sold to F. Menard for the ridiculous sum of ten cents. It appears that Mr. Auberitn came into the city with his horse and cart, and while doing business put them into the yard of Mr. Dupros, grocer, St. Paul street. Directly after, the youngster, Pigeon, went into the yard and boldly took off the head gear of the harness, taking it to Menard's second-hand store in St. Paul street, where he was paid ten cents for the lot. Both the thief and the receiver are in custody.

MARKET COMMITTEE.—A meeting of the Market Committee was held yesterday afternoon, Ald. Holland presiding. The other Aldermen present were Messrs. Mooney, Lavigne, Fairbairn, Gauthier and Kennedy. Several subjects of nominal importance were dealt with, and a number of accounts were passed. The plan of the proposed shed at St. Ann's Market was shown, from which it was seen the erection was to be 150 feet, and would give protection to all the country farmers coming to market. Ald. Kennedy said a watering trough would be needed. Ald. Mooney moved that the Committee ask the Council for an appropriation of $850 for the purpose, and this was agreed to. It was decided to take action against all the tenants in arrears for market rents.

THE DESALABERRY MEMORIAL FUND.—In addition to the lists of contributors to this fund, furnished us by the Secretary, Mr. Dion, of Chambly, we have much pleasure in publishing the following supplementary list of subscribers:—Mr and Mrs Henry Lyman, Messrs Alex Manson, Geo A Guir, A C Lyman, Joseph Hudon, Chas P Hebert, W E Lyman, J B Learmont, Wm Learmont, Jas W Knox, Montreal; S A Fisher, Knowlton, Que; H H Lyman, P M Galarneau, E C Saunders, Wm Massell, Henry Miles, James Peck, J T Latourneux, William Cahill, R C Lyman, Montreal.

ENGLISH WORKINGMEN'S BENEFIT SOCIETY.—The monthly meeting of this Society took place on Tuesday, when the usual reports were presented by the various officers and adopted, the Treasurer's representing a balance on hand of $2,530. Four members received sick benefits during the month, and twelve availed themselves of the services of the doctor. Two members were elected and two proposed. The following motion was then carried unanimously:—"That the thanks of the Society are due and are hereby tendered to Captain Harwood and Mr. Brownlee, G.T.R. agent at Vaudreuil, for their kindness and attention to the members at their annual pic-nic, and also to the officers of the G. T. R. generally, for the excellent train accommodation afforded."

THE MOISIC IRON COMPANY.—Yesterday morning His Honour Mr. Justice Mackay gave judgment in the case of $330,000 on the insolvent estate of the above Company. The Company became insolvent some time ago, and among the claims fyled on the estate was one from Mr. Patrick Lynch, of Syracuse, for the sum of $330,000. This claim was fyled by Mr. Lynch, in his official capacity as Assignee to the Morris Run Coal Company, also insolvent. It was contended that, in consequence of certain agreements entered into with Mr. W. M. Molson, President of the Moisic Iron Company, it was indebted to the Morris Run Coal Company in the sum claimed and fyled. Messrs. F. W. Henshaw, W. J. Buchanan and F. J. Brady contested the claim and pretensions of the Morris Run Coal Company, urging that the pretended debt arose from stock transactions between the Morris Run Coal Company and Mr. W. M. Molson, intended to lead and deceive the public into the belief that the Moisic Iron Company was solvent. His Honour, in passing judgment on the case, held that the contestants proved their allegations, maintained the contestation, and dismissed the claim.

JUDGMENT IN THE HOUSE OF LORDS.

CITY BANK VS. BARROW.

A cablegram from England announces that the House of Lords has dismissed the appeal of the City Bank in this case. The question at issue was whether, according to the law of the Province of Quebec, a party resident there, to whom certain hides had been sent for the purpose of being tanned, could legally pledge the Bills of Lading of such goods after they had been tanned. Messrs. Barrow Bros. contended that the tanner had simply the working possession of the goods in question, and that he had never acted as their agent in respect of the said leather within the meaning of the Factors Act, and consequently, that the Bank of Toronto and their Agents, the City Bank, were not entitled to hold the Bills of Lading for the due payment of the advances made on the leather. Judgment was originally given in favour of the City Bank, but Messrs. Barrow Bros. appealed, and the Lords Justices of Appeal unanimously sustained Messrs. Barrow Bros.' pretensions, and the City Bank finally carried the case to the House of Lords, which has recently confirmed the judgment of the Lord Justices of Appeal. Messrs. Dunlop & Lyman, Counsel for Messrs. Barrow Bros. in Canada.

HURRICANE AT SHERRINGTON

We have some details of the damages which passed over this parish on the 28th ultimo. The hail completely destroyed all the growing crops for a distance of five miles by the whole breadth of the farms on the St. Margaret range. The peas especially suffered very badly. For example, M. Pierre Gagne has sown over again with buckwheat land which had been sowed down with 36 minots of peas. Messrs. Patenaude and Beaudoin have also suffered in the same way. The peas of these and other neighbouring farmers had previously presented the finest possible promise of an abundant harvest. At the Parish Church fifty-eight, and at the Town Hall forty-two panes of glass were broken. The same accidents occurred in all the houses over which the hailstorm passed. It would be hardly possible fully to reckon the damage at Sherrington. Five years ago this parish suffered from a storm of a similarly destructive character, but this year there is plenty of time to sow buckwheat

COUNTY OF GLENGARRY

From Our Own Correspondent.

Alexandria, July 7.

On Tuesday afternoon a meeting of electors of the County of Glengarry was held at Alexandria, under the presidency of Mr. Harrison. The Chairman having briefly alluded to the object of the meeting, called on Dr. Bergin, M.P., who said the object was the enabling of members to give to their constituents an account of their stewardship, and remarked upon the present as a genuine political demonstration—the first held within forty years—Sandfieldism and anti-Sandfieldism having been effectually killed, both in the county of Glengarry and the town and township of Cornwall. He contrasted the professions of the Mackenzie Government with their practices, being especially severe upon the present leader of the Opposition, whom he charged with unworthy conduct in his suppression of Mr. Mackenzie. He approved the proposals of the Government to transfer the building and running of the Pacific Railway to a special Company. He denounced the conduct of the Opposition generally. He contended that, whereas the course of the late Government had been that of mere flies on the wheel powerless to act, those at present having the seats of Government had acted vigourously and in such a manner as to show that the Government could aid manufacturers. He traced up the history of the National Policy, which he generally commended. He dwelt upon the full and exhaustive discussions anterior to the late Dominion elections, and complained that the late Government had failed to profit by the lesson taught them by their last appeal to the electors. He averred that, since their consignment to the left of the Speaker, the Opposition had failed to be equal to their position, but urged that occasionally even the Globe was compelled to admit that the National Policy had benefited matters. He enlarged upon the peculiar benefits that had been done by the National Policy to the neighbourhood of Cornwall, contending that the local benefits that accrued from a policy of protection were incalculable. He charged the late Government with falsehood and treachery to its friends, among them to Mr. Mackenzie; charged Mr. Blake with inconsistency, and deprecated the idea that either Ministers or members were blameworthy because a number of measures never went beyond their first reading. He vindicated the position of the Senate, which he held to be essential to the well-being of the country. He attacked the Ontario Government for, as it seemed to him, an undue exercise of political patronage, and defended, indeed approved, the Government proposal to place the Canada Pacific Railway in the hands of a Company. He charged the Mackenzie Government with having needlessly disposed of contracts without due alignment or survey, and cited the Premier's Bath speeches on the subject of the proposed economy to be effected by the transference of the Canada Pacific Railway from the Government to a private Company.

Mr. ROUTHIER, M. P. for Prescott, having followed in a brief speech,

Mr. MCLENNAN, M. P., spoke of the general questions at issue. He denounced the Mackenzie Administration for its weakness, and generally reviewed political matters. He denounced Mr. Cartwright's financial administration, and cited figures to show the benefits that had accrued since the introduction of the N. P. He also defended the Government's Pacific Railway policy, deprecated the mortgage system, as it obtained among farmers; opposed the idea of seeking for the special exercise of Ministerial patronage and then at some length defined his own position in respect to the Coteau and Ottawa Railway, an undertaking in which he expressed great hope for the future.

Mr. MACMASTER, M. P. P., condemned the idea of building new Provincial buildings for Ontario, which he denounced in no measured terms; and then, dwelling on the railway subject, while being undesirous of prejudicing the present Directors, hoped the road would ere long be continued to a final completion.

THAT STRANGE POISONING CASE.

Yesterday morning, before His Honour Mr. Desnoyers, the cross-examination of Acting-Sergeant Bigras was continued and closed, and counsel argued the points of the evidence.

Mr. F. X. Archambault, Q.C., counsel for the defence, contended that there was sufficient evidence to show that Bigras was a monomaniac, and a great injustice would be done if, upon his testimony, two women should be subjected to the hardships of appearing before the Criminal Court. The evidence upon which the case rested was that of Bigras, and he urged that he should be allowed to bring the complainant's brother and sister to be examined in relation to his sanity. It had always been Bigras' mania that people were trying to poison him, and his brother could give evidence on this point. With much emphasis he contended that there was no proof that the poison had ever been placed in the food by Madame Bigras or her mother, and prayed for their discharge.

Mr. Maclaren, Q.C., for the prosecution, said he felt confident that His Honour, on looking over the record, would see no occasion to summon the other two witnesses, as the only evidence which they could give would be upon events which occurred ten years ago. Bigras had been in the police force for five years, and had been promoted to the position of an acting-sergeant. This would probably be considered by his learned friend as another evidence of insanity. The promotion had been because he wrote both languages correctly, and this was certainly a presumption of his intelligence. During the intercourse he had had with Bigras he never had detected anything approaching insanity, and the principal evidence of folly alleged was that he went away a Catholic and returned a Protestant. The evidence of Dr. Baker Edwards and Dr. Taylor was then reviewed, showing that in the bread and butter submitted to them for analysis no less than three grains of antimony had been found. Bigras had eaten three-quarters of the bread before he thought of presenting it for analysis. The doctor had sworn that one grain a day would cause great weakness and eventually death.

A MISSING CHILD.

HER SKELETON FOUND IN THE DEN OF AN ENORMOUS BLACK SNAKE.

WEST UNION, Adams Co., Ohio, June 22.—Ginger Ridge, a rugged, sterile upland, about six miles north-west of here, is much excited over the killing of an enormous black snake, which for several years has played havoc with the farmers' flocks. Hogs, poultry, calves, sheep, etc., have mysteriously disappeared, always at night. Two years ago a band of gypsies were camped in the neighborhood, and they were accused of stealing the missing property. John Rainforth, a farmer, who greatly suffered from these depredations, swore out a warrant before 'Squire Peter Anns and had several of them arrested. They had a preliminary examination, but nothing was proved against them, and they were discharged. They went away muttering threats of vengeance.

Mr. Rainforth had a golden-haired little daughter, four years old, whose beauty and sunny temper were the pride of her parents. On the day after the arrest of the gypsies little Nellie Rainforth was missed. She was last seen playing on the edge of a rocky ridge, a short distance from the house. Search was made for her, but neither she nor the lamb was found. The whole neighbournood was aroused and men scoured the fields and woods for miles around. Mr. Rainforth suspected the gypsies of abducting her out of revenge for their arrest, and followed the party across the Ohio River into Lewis County, Ky. When he came up with them they indignantly denied all knowledge of the child's whereabouts, and a search of their camp failed to discover his little daughter. He returned to his home broken-hearted.

One day last week Mr. Rainforth was planting a field of about twenty-five acres, situated near his house. He had not been at work long when he discovered what at first seemed to be a fresh furrow across the middle of the field. He stopped work and followed the track to a fence which separated the field from a dense thicket of underbrush. On the fence he found blood and some sheep's wool, which at once convinced him that the body of a sheep had been dragged across the fence. He went to his pasture and found that a large Cotswold ram was missing. Accompanied by four or five neighbours, Mr. Rainforth made search for the missing sheep. The track through the brush was marked by drops of blood and tufts of wool. About sixty rods from the fence they came to a ledge of rocks, forming one side of a steep hill. The track led directly to this ledge, in which was found an opening of sufficient size to admit the body of a large man. A large charge of giant powder was exploded in the opening, and the rocks were thrown asunder by the blast. When the smoke cleared away the farmers drew near and peered down the opening, and there, among at least a waggon load of bones, lay a huge black snake quivering from his hurt. The farmers waited till the snake was dead, and then attached a chain to his body and dragged the monster out of the hole. He measured fifteen feet, seven inches in length, and the biggest part of his body was over two feet in circumference. He had an ugly looking head and enormous fangs, sharp as needles. The missing ram lay beside him, crushed out of shape, and covered with a sticky, glutinous substance.

I visited the spot to-day and saw the monster snake. While I was there men were at work clearing the den of the bones. In a corner one of them picked up a human skull. It was small, like a child's, and he brought it forward to the light. Mr. Rainforth was standing by my side when the man came toward us with the skull in his hand. He glanced at it, and, staggering against a tree, buried his face in his hands, and burst into tears.

"Poor little Nellie," he cried, through his sobs. "My God, it is horrible!"

After a time he controlled his feelings, and told me a story of his little daughter's mysterious disappearance two years ago. The bones of the little one were gathered together, and buried in the family plot, in the cemetery at West Union. The discovery was kept from Mrs. Rainforth, for the poor woman has never ceased to mourn for her lost child, and her husband feared that this intelligence might seriously effect her, she being in delicate health. There can be no doubt as to the identity of the skeleton, for a gold chain which she wore around her neck was found among the bleaching bones.—N. Y. Sun.

SITTING BULL.

HE AND HIS BRAVES ATTEMPT TO RESCUE ONE OF THEIR NUMBER FROM MAJOR WALSH.

A letter from Wood Mountain, dated June 2, says:—

Quite a little stir was occasioned at the Mounted Police post this afternoon by Sitting Bull and his braves attempting to rescue one of their number from Major Walsh's men, who had taken him prisoner, and was conveying him to the post, on a charge of horse-stealing. The following are the facts:

Mr. Legare, a trader at Wood Mountain, had a horse stolen from him. He, being a Justice of the Peace, appointed two half-breeds special constables, and sent them to arrest the Indian who took the horse. The Indian refused to go with them. They returned to Mr. Legare, and reported that they could not take the man. Mr. Legare then applied to Major Walsh to make the arrest. The Major at once ordered Acting Sergeant-Major Parke to send for the Indian. He accordingly sent Corporal Davis and one man, with an interpreter, to the Uncapapa camp, to tell the Indian, who is a nephew of Sitting Bull's, to come to the post. This the Indian, by the advice of Sitting Bull, refused to do—Sitting Bull telling him not to come, as the police would tie him up; that he (Sitting Bull) would get an interpreter, and see if he could settle it with Major Walsh; but, if he could not do so, the Indian must make his escape from the camp. Corporal Davis, having no orders to use force in making the arrest, sent to the post, half a mile distant, for instructions. Major Walsh then despatched Acting Sergeant Major Parke, with four men, to assist Davis to arrest the Indian, and with strict orders not to return without him. The Indian, however, seeing more red coats coming, concluded to accompany Corporal Davis.

In the meantime, a number of Indians had gathered around the post. Major Walsh told the half-breed constable to mount his horse and proceed at once to Legare's and tell Mr. Legare to come to the post. Sitting Bull just then rode up and seized the half-breed's horse by the reins. The half-breed became scared at this and jumped off, leaving the horse in Sitting Bull's hands. Maj. Walsh ordered Acting Sergeant Major Parke to take the horse from Sitting Bull and return it to the half-breed. This was done. Lone Bull (nephew of Sitting Bull) then seized the horse. Major Walsh pushed him aside, and told Sitting Bull that, if they touched the horse again, there would be bloodshed, and the consequences would be upon their own heads. He then sent the half-breed off at speed for Legare.

By this time about 100 braves had congregated in front of the post, and were trying to prevent the police from getting the prisoner inside the gates, while the squaws were busily engaged in carrying guns and belts of ammunition to them. This was the critical moment. Sitting Bull was calling to the prisoner to resist.

Major Walsh and twelve men formed a barrier between a hundred whooping, yelling savages and the prisoner, whom the four remaining men of the detachment were forcing through the wicket. This occupied only an instant, when the gate was closed on the prisoner, and the Major, with his dozen "peelers," was left outside to face the music—which he did in the most approved fashion, by telling the aborigines that he was Chief here, and would give them one minute to disperse. The bluff was a good one. The Indians looked at those twelve Enfield carbines and revolvers, and saw men holding them who meant to keep that gate or die. The pause was but momentary, and the Indians retired, accompanied by their taurine commander, with his narrative in a woful state of depression.

It is almost impossible for any one not an eye-witness of the scene to realize this exploit. Here stood Major Walsh and sixteen men, the whole strength of his command. Facing him were 100 warriors, led by the renowned Sitting Bull. Within half a mile were over 100 lodges of hostile Sioux. And yet nerve triumphed and firmness gained the day, even in the face of those terrible odds. The Major has certainly reason to feel proud of his handful of men, who showed on this occasion a courage and a coolness worthy of veteran soldiers.

Shortly after the Indians dispersed Mr. Legare arrived at the post, and the prisoner was handed over to him by Major Walsh. Upon a hearing of the case he was dismissed by Mr. Legare.

In the evening, after the occurrence Major Walsh was visited by several of the Ogallallas, under Stone Dog, who told him that they came into this country to obey the laws, and in any trouble like that of to-day they would assist the police, and, if necessary, be found dead by their side.

In an interview with your correspondent this evening, Major Walsh said that, when he told Sitting Bull not to touch the half-breed's horse again, he knew that the moment had come when he must either completely cow Sitting Bull, or lose all control of the Sioux on this side of the line, and had made up his mind to arrest Sitting Bull then and there if he attempted to touch the horse. This, the Major said, might have led to killing Sitting Bull; and killed he would certainly have been if himself and every man of his detachment fell the next minute. The Major says he was well aware that the police would in all probability have been wiped out, as the odds were terribly against them—several time-expired policemen having taken their discharges and left the post this morning: "but," he said, "we might as well be killed at once as to let the Tetons think we fear them." He said he fully expected bloodshed when it was reported to him that the squaws were carrying arms and ammunition to the Indians around the post.

A council was held in the Uncapapa camp to-night, at which Sitting Bull said he considered he had the narrowest escape of his life. He said he was sure he would have been killed if he had raised his hand. His heart was bad, as he had been told he was a rascal, and been driven away from his post like a dog. Another chief, in speaking, said, if they wanted to live in this country, they must obey the White Mother's laws, for the Major was a man like their own Crazy Horse, and was not afraid to die in making them do what he told them.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Service Gazette.—Sold only in packets labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, London, England

ALL SORTS.

IT is rumoured that the Empress Eugenie doubts whether her son was ever really killed, and to satisfy her doubts was the impelling motive of her journey to Africa.

So far the present year a total of 1,570 miles of new railroad have been constructed in this country, against 661 miles reported at the same time in 1879, 413 in 1878, 570 in 1877 and 1,181 in 1873.

WHEN Charles Fox's country house was on fire, and he found all efforts to save it useless, he actually went to an adjoining hill to make a drawing of the fire—an instance of philosophy almost without parallel.

THE clergyman in a certain town, as the custom is, having published the banns of matrimony between two persons, was followed by the clerk's reading the hymn beginning with these words: "Deluded souls, that dream of Heaven!"

SUNDAY-SCHOOL Scholar (to the teacher) —"Did you say that the hairs of my head were all numbered?" Teacher—"Yes, my dear." Sunday School Scholar—"Well, then" (pulling out a hair and presenting it), "what's the number of that one?"

JANESVILLE, WIS, boasts of a wonderfully just man. He secured the conviction and imprisonment of his wife on a charge of elopement, and then, to show that he was not vindictive, he circulated a petition for her pardon and secured her release.

A BOSTON preacher said, "The little good any of us can do must be done with our hearts thumping against the hearts of our fellow-men;" and every young woman in church looked at every other young woman and smiled approvingly.

A GIRL who is red-headed and cross-eyed and wears number eleven brogans can be advertised all over the country as a beautiful creature by committing some crime. Who ever heard of a female horse-thief or a murderess who wasn't just lovely?—Boston Post.

EITHER we must make the ocean wider or the steamships narrower. Something must be done to enable two ships to pass without going through each other. Society kind of demands it, and the comfort of the passengers seconds the demand.—Burlington Hawkeye.

AT dinner she had a doctor on either hand, one of whom remarked that they well served, since they had a duck between them. "Yes," she broke in—her wit is of the sort that comes in flashes—"and I am between two quacks." Then silence fell.

MATRIMONY: "Jennie," said a venerable Cameronian to his daughter, who was asking his consent to accompany her urgent favoured suitor to the altar; "Jennie, its a very solemn thing to get married." "I know it, father," replied the sensible damsel; "but it's a great deal solemner not to."

WHEN a young lady tripped into a music store, the other day, and asked the bashful clerk in attendance for "Two Kisses," he jammed on his hat and rushed out of the back door. The clerk, never having heard of the piece of music, thought he was the victim of a leap-year proposal, and his salary was not large enough to support two.

MARRIAGE a la mode. Old Gunnybags—"So you want to marry my daughter, eh? Well, sir, what are your expectations, sir?" Young Sharpey—"Well, I expect that you'll do the handsome thing in the way of a marriage gift, and that will last us until you drop off, and then, of course, you will make your will in our favour."—Andrew's Bazaar.

A GENTLEMAN once asked a little girl, an only child, how many sisters she had, and was told "Three or four." Her mother asked Mary, when they were alone, what induced her to tell such an untruth. "Why, mamma," cried Mary, "I didn't want him to think that you were so poor that you hadn't but one child. Wouldn't he thought we were dreffull poor?"

THEY were walking arm in arm up the street, and just ahead of them was a woman in a splendid dress. The setting sun was gilding the Western heavens and throwing a beautiful crimson glow all over the earth. He said, in a subdued tone, "Isn't it lovely?" "Well I don't know," was the reply of his fair companion; "I don't think the trimming matches very well, and it doesn't fit her a bit." He shuddered.

SAID Angelina, suddenly breaking the oppressive silence, "Don't you feel afraid of the army worms, Theodore, that are coming so rapidly this way?" The question was such a strange one that Theodore's surprise caused him to look right at Angelina for the first time in his life. Why did she ask that, he wanted to know. "Oh nothing," she replied, as she toyed with her fan; "only the papers say they eat every green thing wherever they go."—Boston Transcript.

AN ignorant correspondent wants to know if a banana, after it has traveled and sat up with a train boy three weeks, is called in and destroyed? Oh dear, no. It is transferred to another boy and sent on to another road as a new issue. Only last Tuesday we met a banana on the Northern Central, in Pennsylvania, that we had seen six days before on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Chicago division, and the boy who had charge of it at that time told us that he had got it from the Missouri, Kansas & Texas.—Hawkeye.

A CLERGYMAN in Pittsburgh lately married a lady with whom he received the substantial dowry of ten thousand dollars and a fair prospect for more. Soon afterward, while occupying the pulpit, he gave out a hymn, read the first four stanzas, and was reading the fifth,

Forever let my grateful heart,
His boundless grace adore—

when he hesitated, and exclaimed "Ahem! The choir will omit the fifth verse," and sat down. The congregation, attracted by his apparent confusion, read the remaining lines—

Which gives ten thousand blessings now
And bids me hope for more.

PROBABLY there is no public criminal so bitterly execrated by all mankind as the driver of a street sprinkling waggon. The other day on Market street one of those blots upon our boasted civilization observed a fat old Dutchman standing with his back to the curbstone apparently absorbed in the enjoyment of his pipe. The sprinkling fiend sneaked up to within a few feet and deluged his victim's feet and pants with Spring Valley. The driver almost fainted with rage when the exultant chuckles of the bystanders apprised him that he had simply washed the dust from a cigar store sign.—San Francisco Post.

THEN AND NOW.—She was at a party. He had not yet arrived, but she was momentarily expecteing him. The hum of conversation through the room had no significance for her. All her faculties were bent on the front door. Every time it opened, at every step in the hall, she would start, while her face would flush, and her eyes light up with feverish expectation. Then the colour would go back from her cheeks, her eyes would become dull, and her heart sick, when another than he would enter the room. Finally he arrived, and took a seat by her, and she leaned over his shoulder and joyously murmured, "My darling—my darling!" She was too happy to say ought more. Ten years later, and she again waits. It is in their own home now. His step is on the sill; he opens the door. She springs quickly to the hall—"Wipe your boots on the mat!" she screams. Ten years ago they were not married. Now they are.

THE LAST HOURS of the heroine of a modern novel are described as follows by the London Saturday Review:—"Matters go on from bad to worse. The heroine very imprudently goes out for a walk when the East wind is blowing and rain falling heavily. She gets so wet that she enters her home by the kitchen, for fear of leaving a trail of water behind her in the hall. She perspires, she shivers, she trembles, her teeth knock together, and she obstinately refuses to take anything to eat. She does not even send for the doctor. It is within less than a dozen pages of the end of the third volume that she is guilty of this act of rashness. It was, indeed, deliberately throwing away her life. Instead of getting into a bed over which the warming-pan had been first passed, and then taking a good hot drink, she completed her toilet, drew near the glass, and examined her face. "The eyes, the mouth were dead." The nose, we suppose, was still alive, and so she could manage to breathe. But not even a single sneeze is heard to give us confidence. Though we are not told in so many words, the nose must have very quickly followed the eyes and the mouth, and after it went the chin. In fact, in the very next page but one the whole woman dies, and the reader is at last free from her and her author."

FEELS YOUNG AGAIN.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system, headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicans or medicines did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 yerrs old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family. A LADY, in Providence, R. I."

It sets the sluggish liver in motion, very slightly acts on the bowels, giving a sense of health and comfort within 24 hours. It is the safest medicine. Taraxacum and Podophyllin is a fluid made only by J. PEPPER, Bedford Laboratory, London, whose name is on every label. Bottles, 2s. 9d. and 4s. 6d. Sold by all Chemists. Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
Vice-Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne, that the whole story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—Times, July 13, 1864.
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. The Right Hon. Earl RUSSELL, communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was Chlorodyne.—See Lancet, December, 31, 1864.
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE "is prescribed by scores of orthodox practitioners. Of course it would not be thus singularly popular did it not 'supply a want and fill a place.'"—Medical Times, January 12, 1866.
