

NO SIGN OF SLACKENING IN GREAT RUSSIAN OFFENSIVE FROM VOLHYNIA TO BUKOWINA

Twelfth Day Of Big Drive Shows Fresh Gains All Along Front And Prisoners Now Exceed 150,000 —Semi-Official Report States Austrians Have Evacuated Czernowitz — Canadians Still Hold Positions

The twelfth day of the great Russian offensive against the Austro-Hungarians and Germans from Volhynia to Bukowina shows nowhere any signs of slackening. All along the front fresh gains for the Russian troops and the capture of thousands of additional prisoners and of guns, machine guns and war supplies are claimed by the Russians. The aggregate of prisoners now exceeds 150,000.

While semi-official advices from Petrograd give a report that the Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz, capital of Bukowina, the latest official communication from Austrian headquarters says the troops of Emperor Francis Joseph are making a stand north and east of the city and at both points have repulsed Russian attacks.

In the drive westward from the region of Lutsk the Austrians are counter-attacking or entrenching themselves in new positions for a stand against the Russians.

No reports of gains for either side in Galicia in the region of Tarnopol have come through. Here apparently there is still a deadlock between the Russian and the Austrian and German forces.

On the German end of the northern front in Russia the Russians near Baronovichi attacked and carried German trenches, but later were forced to give them up under strong pursuit by the Germans. Infantry attacks by the Germans have occurred along the Dvina river and in the Lake region south of Dvinsk, but all of these were repulsed, according to Petrograd.

The French on the slopes south of Le Mort Homme, northwest of Verdun, have attacked and captured a German trench. The Germans are still violently bombarding the sectors Thiaumont and Fort Souville, northeast of Verdun probably preparatory to another infantry attack with the hope of a further movement on the fortress.

Only artillery activity is in progress on the remainder of the front in France and Belgium. The Canadians are still holding the positions recaptured from the Germans in the vicinity of Zillebeke, where there is intermittent shelling by both sides.

The fighting on the Austro-Italian line in Tyrol seemingly has died down in violence, only artillery bombardments and small infantry engagements having been reported. To the east of Monfalcone, which lies a Gulf of Trieste, the Italians have hovehorth distance from the head of the captured Austrian positions and made prisoners of 488 officers and men.

Near Felahie, on the Tigris river, the Turks have repulsed an attempt of the British advance, according to Constantinople. The annihilation of four hundred British troops on the Euphrates sector is also reported by the Turkish War Office. Persian volunteers are declared to be attacking the Russians near the Persian border, inflicting heavy losses.

RUSSIAN NAVAL SUCCESS.

Copenhagen, via London, June 15, 8.28 p.m.—The Dagens Nyheder says that in the recent fight in the Baltic between Russian torpedo craft and German war vessels which were convoying merchantmen, two German auxiliary cruisers, the Herzman and the Konig Von Sachsen, and two armed trawlers were sunk by the Russians in addition to ten merchantmen. The newspaper says also that five wounded German sailors who were landed at Nykoping, Sweden, have died since.

QUIET PREVAILS ON BRITISH FRONT FRENCH TAKE TRENCH AND 130 PRISONERS

INTERMITTENT SHELLING ON BOTH SIDES, BUT NO INFANTRY ACTION.

London, June 15, 11.49 p.m.—The British official statement issued tonight reads:

"In the past twenty four hours quiet has prevailed on most parts of the front. Last night there was intermittent shelling on both sides on the front lately retaken by us near Zillebeke, but no infantry action, and the situation is unchanged.

"Today trench mortars and artillery have been active on both sides in the sector about Argers. Mine warfare continued actively in the Loos salient. Otherwise there were no special incidents."

SOCIALISTS ON THE HIGH COST OF LIFE

RAISED QUESTION IN THE CHAMBER OF DEPUTIES DEMANDING REASONABLE PRICES.

The Hague, via London, June 15, 10.50 p.m.—The Socialist deputy Schaper in the Chamber of Deputies today interpellated the government on the high cost of living. He demanded extensive food control measures to prevent speculators carrying out swindling practices and to enable workers to buy foodstuffs at reasonable prices. Premier Van Der Linden in reply detailed the various measures already taken to prevent the exportation of home grown foodstuffs on which he said the embargo would continue until the quantity required for consumption at home was provided for.

TWO BOYS KILLED

BY G. T. R. TRAIN.
Gananogue, Ont., June 15—Harold Legget, and Hubert Mackay, of Lansdowne, both about eight years of age, were instantly killed this evening at the Grand Turn crossing at Lansdowne by a light engine. They were crossing the track under the shelter of an umbrella, which obscured their view.

RAILROADERS WILL HAVE REFERENDUM

VOTE CALLED ON ADVISABILITY OF STRIKE TO ENFORCE DEMANDS.

New York, June 15—More than 400,000 union and non-union railroad workers of America will vote within a month on the advisability of calling a general strike to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day and time and a-half for overtime, as a result of the failure by representatives of the railways and the men to reach a settlement here today, after a two-weeks conference.

All hope of settling the trouble through the conference faded when the representatives of the railroads submitted a tentative proposal today. The conference adjourned today to give the railroad managers an opportunity to discuss further their stand on this point, but when they met the men today they not only refused to make a specific offer covering the compensation rules, but advised that their differences be submitted either to the Inter-State Commerce Commission or to a board of arbitration to operate under the provisions of the Newlands Act. The men declined both offers and the decision to take a strike vote followed.

A. B. Garretson, President of the Brotherhood of Railway Conductors announced later that the ballot will be drafted tonight and rushed to the printer for distribution to all railroad men, whether members of the Brotherhood or not, before the close of next week.

The canvass will consume at least three weeks, Mr. Garretson and other leaders agreed, and before August 1, the result will be known. If the men vote for a general strike the leaders will return here and again present the demands of the men to the railroads in an effort either to gain their demands in full or a compromise offer without the necessity of putting the strike actually into effect.

The Weather

Toronto, June 15—A shallow depression is centered tonight to the west of Lake Michigan and unsettled weather with local showers prevails over Ontario. It has been fair and moderately warm in Quebec, and the Maritime Provinces and with the exception of a few scattered showers it has been fair in the west.

PRESIDENT WILSON AND VICE-PRESIDENT ARE RE-NOMINATED

THIRTY MINUTES DEMONSTRATION MARKS THE CHOICE OF DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION — WM.
J. BRYAN DELIVERS STRONG WILSON SPEECH.

St. Louis, Mo., June 15—At the Democratic National Convention here tonight President Woodrow Wilson and Vice-President Marshall were renominated by acclamation amid wild enthusiasm.

All the Vice-Presidential booms had been effectually killed off by President Wilson's announcement that he desired the re-nomination of Mr. Marshall. The platform committee, weary by an all day session, remained at work drawing up the declaration of principles so that it might be brought in before an adjournment was taken and the work of the Convention might be finished. A session lasting well into Friday morning was assured.

Tonight, for the first time since the Convention began the big hall was completely filled. The Convention's sudden decision today to proceed with nominations and finish up tonight instead of prolonging the sessions through tomorrow and probably into Saturday, as had been planned, let down the bars and the speculators unloaded their tickets at considerable loss.

The crowd yielded to the rapping of the gavel long enough to hear the prayer and then made repeated demands for a speech from Wm. J. Bryan.

Senator Thompson then moved a suspension of the rules to permit Mr. Bryan to speak. After the motion had been overwhelmingly carried, Mr. Bryan was escorted to the speaker's place while the floor and galleries roared their applause.

Senator James introduced Mr. Bryan as one of the leading citizens of the world and America's greatest Democrat.

Mr. Bryan's speech was a ringing endorsement of President Wilson's administration. He alluded to differences of opinion that may exist, or may have existed, as to particular measures or particular acts, but declared the party stood united in every State and ready for the battle. Touching on Mexico and the European War, Mr. Bryan said:

"We inherited from a Republican administration an insurrection in Mexico. This administration has dealt with that administration and the Republican party dare not challenge a verdict before the country on the Mexican situation.

"We have a few men interested in ranches, and a few interested in mines who would use the blood of American soldiers to guarantee profits and their investments in a foreign land. But that is not the sentiment of the American people. The people of this country stand back of Woodrow Wilson in his determination not to intervene in the affairs of Mexico.

"But, my friends, the President not only has had to deal with war to the south of us, but with war to the east of us. I have differed from our President on some of the methods employed in this war but I am one of those who desire sincerely that this nation shall not become a participant in the dreadful conflict."

Mr. Bryan finished at 10.10 p.m. and nominations for President began a few minutes later. Alabama yielded to New Jersey and Judge John W. E. Scott, in an eloquent speech nominated Woodrow Wilson. As Judge Westcott closed with a mention of the name, "Woodrow Wilson," the crowd broke into a great demonstration. Moving picture flashlights blazed and flags were paraded in front of the stand. The band played "The Star Spangled Banner" while a huge banner bearing the President's likeness was unfurled from the roof of the hall.

The delegates began a parade bearing state stanchions. The crowds on the floor and balconies rose to its feet. Many delegates stood on their chairs. The demonstration lasted thirty minutes.

Former Governor Judson Harmon of Ohio seconded the nomination of Wilson.

Free gasoline for thirty-three hundred miles--- the Ford owner's saving in one year.

The light, economical Ford with its smooth running engine averages about twenty-five miles on a gallon of gasoline.

Compare this with the gasoline consumption of the Sixteen-Miles-to-the-Gallon car.

Then figure the difference, having an eye on the present price of gasoline.

Six thousand miles is a fair season's travel. The Sixteen-Miles-to-the-Gallon car, going six thousand miles, burns up one hundred and thirty-five more gallons of gasoline than does the Ford going the same distance.

This means that the Ford owner saves enough during a single season to pay for his gasoline for an additional thirty-three hundred and seventy-five miles.

You can travel a year and half in a Ford for what it costs you to travel one year in the Sixteen-Miles-to-the-Gallon car.

Nervous and Almost Crazy With Pains in the Head

Clergyman Certifies to This Cure of Nervous Prostration by Use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

No ailment is more discouraging than Nervous Prostration. You may feel better for a day or two, only to find the next day that you have lost ground and are worse than ever. The headaches are worse, languid feelings are terribly depressing. As you lose strength you lose hope and courage, and look to the future with fear and trembling.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the greatest blessing that has ever come to the sufferer from nervous exhaustion. It does not deaden the trembling, irritated nerves, but through the medium of the blood nourishes them back to health as nothing else can.

Mrs. Alonzo B. Eisner, Billtown, King's county, N.S., writes: "I was very low with nervous prostration and was about discouraged as I could not sleep nights, and was almost crazy with the pain in my head. I had tried many doctors, but seemed to get little benefit from their treatments. A friend handed me Mr. Chase's Almanac, so that I might read about the Nerve Food. A single box of this treatment convinced me of its value, for I was better. I cannot tell how many boxes I used, but the results were so highly satisfactory that I cannot praise it too much. My health and strength have been restored so that I can do all my own work, and I recommend the Nerve Food to all who suffer from nervous prostration.

"This is to certify that I am acquainted with Mrs. A. B. Eisner, and believe her statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to be true and correct."—Rev. Arthur A. Whitman.

Some patience is required in the treatment of nervous prostration, but you will not be using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food long before you begin to find your strength and good cheer returning. You will then be encouraged to continue the use of the food cure until cured. 50 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Company, Limited, Toronto.

AND 2,467 OFFICERS.

Petrograd, June 15.—The following official statement was given out:

"Supplementary reports give the exact number of prisoners taken as one general, three commanders, 2,467 officers, 5 doctors and 150,000 men. We also captured 163 cannon, 266 machine guns, 139 bomb-throwers and 32 mine-throwers.

"The offensive of Gen. Brusiloff did not stop yesterday. In various regions on the front fresh prisoners were made and more artillery booty was taken. The enemy continues to deliver counter attacks at several points and elsewhere is busy entrenching himself in new positions.

"On the Dvina front, and southwest of Lake Narocz, the enemy artillery at some points opened a violent fire, followed by attempts of the Germans to debouch from their trenches. These were all repulsed.

"In the region of Baranovichi, a local action took place in which we carried enemy trenches, but afterwards, under German pursuit, fell back to the point whence we started.

"In the Baltic on the night of May 31-June 1, our torpedo boats attacked a convoy of enemy steamers sailing under escort. During the engagement with the escort we sank two steamers of a small torpedo type and one auxiliary cruiser, whose crew we captured. There was no loss or damage on our side. We refrained from pursuing the enemy steamers because during the engagement they took their course into Swedish territorial waters.

The Russian statement of yesterday announced the capture of 1,280 officers, nearly 120,000 men, 130 cannon, and 266 machine guns. It is probable that the difference between those figures and the one's given in today's statement does not represent the captures made in the interval between the issuance of the two statements, but rather that the increases are due to the receipt of more detailed information from the front.

The Baltic engagement referred to evidently is the one which took place on Tuesday night southeast of Stockholm. The statement given out in Berlin on Wednesday said the German auxiliary cruiser was attacked by four Russian destroyers and was blown up by her crew, most of her men being saved. The date of this engagement is fixed in the official Russian statement by the Russian calendar.

PRESBYTERIANS
NAME COMMITTEE
TO DISCUSS UNIONDR. A. T. LOVE, OF QUEBEC,
-NAMED TO HOME MISSION
COMMISSION.

Winnipeg, June 15.—A committee was named by the Presbyterian Assembly this afternoon, with President Falconer, of the University of Toronto, as convener, to consider all matters in connection with the Presbyterian Church with the Congregational and Methodist churches. It was explained that this committee would have two chief functions: To secure legal advice and prepare legislation, which in time will be required and to confer with similar committees from the other churches in discussions of various undertakings in which there is to be co-operation. This committee supersedes the old committee which has now ceased to be. The new committee is made up of the following:

President Falconer, Dr. Baird, Dr. Jack, Dr. Foster, Rev. McCarty, Wilson, Rev. R. W. Ross, Rev. G. A. Sutherland, Rev. J. A. McKenzie, Dr. Forrest, Dr. W. J. Clark, Dr. Hanson, Dr. Herridge, Dr. J. H. Turnbull, Dr. Wallace, Dr. Gander, Dr. Drummond, Rev. D. C. McGregor, Rev. R. Martin, Rev. R. D. Fraser, Dr. W. A. McKinnon, Dr. Dyde, Rev. D. J. Wilson, and Elders as follows: C. H. Mitchell, Judge Forbes, Mr. Justice Archibald, Professor Matheson, Mr. Justice Sutherland, Hamilton Cassels, J. K. MacDonald, Isaac Pitblado, Mr. Justice Stewart and President Murray.

Rev. Dr. John Neil, proposed that the Moderator prepare a pastoral letter explaining exactly what the assembly had done in the matter of church union, this letter to be read in all the Presbyterian Churches. This was agreed.

A telegram was read to the Assembly from Rev. Dr. E. D. Silcox, of the Congregational Church, extending congratulations on the success of the union movement.

Principal Oliver, of the Saskatoon Theological College, who appeared in khaki, presented a resolution calling on the Federal government to proceed immediately to mobilize all the resources of the country, and to conserve them and to assist in new ways in recruiting. As principal Oliver is not a member of the Assembly the motion was submitted by Principal Mackay of Vancouver, and was unanimously adopted.

Dr. A. S. Grant, who for the past five years has been the most prominent executive of the denomination, resigned the office of Superintendent of Home Missions, thus covering himself completely from the official positions he has held. In the forenoon he surrendered his post as Chairman of the Board of Finance. Dr. Grant will continue to act as Superintendent of Home Missions until a successor is appointed. The Assembly named a commission to consider all home mission problems, including the selection of a new head for the work as follows: Reverends Dr. Baird, Winnipeg; Dr. Love, Quebec; Dr. Herridge, Ottawa; Bruce Taylor, Montreal; McGillivray, Kingston; Pogue, Peterboro; Turnbull, Toronto; Neil, Toronto; Sedgwick, Hamilton; Sinclair, Winnipeg; and McKinnon, Regina; and the following Elders: John Lowden, Toronto; Dr. Kelly, Montreal; Professor Matheson, Kingston; Alex. Auld, Toronto; President Falconer, Toronto; Mr. Justice Sutherland, Toronto; J. F. Mackay, Toronto; Professor Patterson, London; J. A. Allan, Regina, and President Murray. The Assembly appointed John A. Paterson, K.C., Toronto, Chairman of the Board of Finance in succession to Dr. A. S. Grant.

At the evening session it was agreed that Rev. Dr. John Neil, of Toronto, should act as interim Convener of the Home Mission Committee, succeeding Rev. Dr. A. S. Grant. Dr. Neil will serve only until the special committee on Home Missions makes its decision. A special minute was presented expressing high appreciation of Rev. Dr. Grant's services, and this was passed by a standing vote.

A committee was named to prepare a reply to the dissent recorded by Rev. Robert Campbell, in the question of Church Union as follows: Rev. Principal Chandler, President Falconer, Rev. Dr. R. D. Fraser, Rev. Dr. D. M. Ramsay and John A. Paterson, K.C.

The closing exercises of Miss Barrington's School, Garden street, took place yesterday morning, and the interest taken in the proceedings was evidenced by the large attendance present. Very Rev. Dean Shreve presided, and presented the prizes, addressing the young pupils with earnestness befitting the occasion, but with a touch of humour that greatly commended him to his youthful listeners. A very interesting programme was rendered, opening with a French recitation, prepared by the French

LAST MOMENTS OF
EARL KITCHENER
ON HAMPSHIRESURVIVORS TESTIFY CAPTAIN
CALLED WAR SECRETARY TO ENTER BOAT.

London, June 15, 8.35 p.m.—Details of some of the incidents on board the British cruiser Hampshire just before she sank off the Orkney last week causing the death of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener are given in an official statement issued tonight based on statements by the dozen survivors of the cruiser who were washed ashore on a raft.

"From the report of the twelve survivors of the Hampshire," says the statement, "the following conclusions were reached:

"As the men were going to their stations before abandoning the ship Lord Kitchener, accompanied by a naval officer, appeared. The latter said: 'Make way for Lord Kitchener.' Both ascended to the quarter deck. Subsequently four military officers were seen there, walking off on the port side.

"The Captain called Lord Kitchener to the fore bridge near where the captain's boat was hoisted. The captain also called Lord Kitchener to enter the boat. It is unknown if Lord Kitchener entered it or what happened to any boat.

"The Hampshire was proceeding along the west coast of the Orkneys. A heavy gale was blowing and seas were breaking over the ship, which necessitated her being partially battened down. Between 7.30 and 7.45 p.m. the vessel struck a mine and began to settle by the bow, heeling over to starboard. Before she finally went down about fifteen minutes after.

"Orders were given by the captain for all hands to go their established stations for abandoning ship. Some of the hatches were opened and the ship's company went quickly to their stations. Efforts were made without success to lower some of the boats. One of them was broken in half and its occupants were thrown into the water.

"Large numbers of the crew used life saving belts and waistcoats which proved effective in keeping them afloat. Three rafts were safely launched, and with about fifty to seventy men on each got clear. It was daylight up to about eleven. Though rafts with these large numbers of men got away in one case out of over seventy men aboard, only six survived. The survivors all reported the men gradually dropped off, even died aboard the rafts from exhaustion and exposure from cold. Some of the crew must have perished in trying to land on the rocky coast after such a long exposure. Some died after landing."

teacher, Miss Gagnon; the accent of the children being most favorably commented upon. This was followed by an English play entitled "The Golden Key," in which Master Andrew Dodge as the "Pied Piper" specially distinguished himself, his costume and those of the three little Dutch maids, the Misses Jean and Millicent Price, and Miss Katherine Leonard, causing much admiration. Master Gordon Smith as "Jack of the Bean Stalk" recited his part very clearly and to the pleasure of the audience, and Miss Helen Price as "Mary, Mary quite contrary" also looked and acted her part successfully. The French dialogue by Master William Sharples and Master Drew Dodge, was excellently rendered, and caused much amusement. A recitation very prettily given by Miss Ruth Martin, another by Master Sharples, a dialogue by Miss Isabel Price and Master Geoffrey Scott, and a March and Drill by all the pupils, brought the programme to a close.

The following is the list of prizes:—

MANUFACTURERS
APPROVE SCHEME
FOR MOBILIZATIONWOULD PLACE ENTIRE RE-SOURCES OF CANADA AT COUNTRY'S DISPOSAL.

Hamilton, Ont., June 15.—The closing business session of the Canadian Manufacturers Association were held today on board the steamer Corona on the trips to and from Niagara, where the camp was inspected.

Among the resolutions passed were: That the Association would approve any scheme for complete and effectual mobilization of the entire resources in Canada of men and material which should be placed unreservedly at the disposal of the country; that the government be memorialized to bring in legislation for daylight saving; that the Federal government be requested to remove the excise duty on alcohol under suitable regulations and restrictions—when employed in manufacturing processes in which it would be lost, when used in hospitals, when used in laboratories and when used for the preservation of specimens; favoring preferential tariffs for closer economic union between the Allies; the development of inter-Imperial trade and place the products of enemy countries under such fiscal and other disabilities as will effectually restrict their sales in these markets. It was also advocated that the government liberally encourage by subventions or otherwise the establishment of a shipbuilding industry in Canada on a permanent and profitable basis, and that a special committee to press for action and work out details. The Association also recorded its belief that scientific and industrial research should be developed on a scale commensurate with Canada's resources.

The following officers were elected: President: Hon. Col. Thomas Carleton, President of the Nova Scotia Steel Company.

First Vice-President: S. R. Parson, Toronto.

Second Vice-President: W. J. Bulman, Winnipeg.

Treasurer: George Booth, Toronto.

An executive committee covering all industrial districts in the Dominion, was also appointed.

LAWYERS PLEAD FOR UNIFORMITY IN LAWINSISTENT NOTE STRUCK BY SPEAKERS AT OPENING
BAR MEETING.

Toronto, June 14.—Unity and uniformity in law and legislation were the insistent notes struck by speakers at the Canadian Bar Association Annual Meeting, which opened today. Sir James Aikins, in his presidential address, spoke of the difficulties arising from the different races, ideals and languages in the Dominion, which militated against unity.

"A business confidence," he said, "arises out of the security offered by the law to people transacting business."

Standardizing the commercial laws was well under way. Money, however, was needed for the employment of experienced lawyers to make a comparative study of the laws of the province, and to codify and consolidate them into proper form for submission to the several governments. Another way in which uniformity of provincial laws may be accomplished was by the several provincial governments appointing commissioners for that purpose.

The secretary reported a membership of 300 and the treasurer's statement gave a cash balance of $1,800. It was decided that each province should appoint two members to the Bar Council.

A proposal to remove the executive offices from Toronto to Winnipeg was referred to the council.

The report on legislation on "succession duties" by R. C. Smith, K.C., of Montreal, was referred to a committee. The report dealt with what it called the anomaly and injustice of the present law in regard to succession duties, which resulted in dual taxation. The present law discouraged people outside investing in the province. The remedy was to be found in legislation. It was proposed that the Association should co-operate with other legal bodies to bring about a more equitable law.

At the night session, held in University Hall, an address was delivered by Hon. J. M. Beck, formerly Assistant Attorney General of the United States. His address was a powerful arraignment of Germany, its violation of pledges and outrages on humanity. "Shall not," he said, "the Supreme Court of Civilization sit as one of criminal assize and, if so, what punishment shall be inflicted upon these barbarians and much-decorated criminals who have brought upon the world this unspeakable tragedy?"

ALLIED OFFENSIVE
EXPECTED SOON ON
EASTERN FRONTLONDON GIVES THIS INTER-PRETATION TO SEMI-OF-FICIAL FRENCH COMMUNI-CATION.

London, June 15, 9.30 p.m.—Significance is attached to a sentence embodied in a semi-official French communication received in London today inasmuch as it seems to draw the attention of the public to what is considered the serious failure of Germany's recent strategy. It seems since the Vaux affair, the sentence reads, "that the Germans fronting Verdun are maintaining an attitude of expectation in view of the menace of events which they are becoming increasingly imminent."

This statement is generally interpreted, in the light of previous expectation, that the time is rapidly approaching for an important Entente Allied offensive.

Professor Albert C. Pollard, of the Chair of English History in the University of London, lecturing here today on the progress of the war, said he anticipated a great offensive by the Allies before long, but that the war would not end for another year. The most that could be hoped for this year was the defeat of Austria, and the driving back of the Germans a considerable distance on the western front.

The final defeat of Germany could only come some time next year, the speaker added, after a winter of discontent such as Germany had never known, and after another naval battle.

Professor Pollard's anticipation reflect the prevalent ideas in London. The view is held here that Germany made a serious mistake in strategy when she permitted Austria to withdraw half of her effectives from the Russian front for the operations against Italy after having brought her own reserves from the Russian front to Verdun which apparently has had the result of enabling Russia to make a surprisingly successful drive in Galicia and Volhynia. It is further considered that the recent naval battle deprived Germany temporarily of the means for prosecuting a combined military and naval offensive in the Riga region and thus countering the Russian drive which it is now expected is likely to go on to fresh successes, as it is believed it will be extremely difficult to reinforce the Teutonic allies on the Russian front.

HUN LOSSES TOTAL
300,000 ON THE
RUMANIAN BORDERRUSSIANS SATISFIED TO GET IN CONTACT AGAIN WITH GERMANS.

London, June 15.—It is estimated that the Teuton losses along the front from the Pripet to the Rumanian border now total 300,000 or nearly half the original effectives of the Austrians.

Great satisfaction is felt in Petrograd at the re-establishment of contact with the Teutons along the whole southwestern front, but attention is chiefly centred upon the operations for Kovell, Vladimir-Volinsk, Czernowitz, and Kolemna. Colonel Shumsky, summarizing the results of the fighting, makes the deduction from the latest Russian official statement that the entire line of the Strips is now occupied by the Russians.

Northwest of Bucarez a number of good roads run westward to the Idgaritz, railway, which is regarded as accounting for the vigor of the resistance in this sector to the Russian advance. The village of Kozin, fifteen miles southwest of Dubna, captured by the Russians, is on the road to Brody which leads thence to Lemberg.

The precipitancy of the retreat of the Austrians in other sectors is shown by the fact that the Russians found several telegraphic and telephonic installations intact and are now using them. The cartridges captured in the strips trenches would have sufficed for the use of the Austrians in the most intensive sort of firing for several weeks.

AUSTRIANS HAVE EVACUATED CZERNOWITZ

Petrograd, via London, June 15, 2.36 a.m.—The Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, according to despatches to the semi-official Petrograd news agency from Bukovina by way of Bucharest.

The Canadian Patent Office

---Recognizing Something New---

Has Granted a Patent. Both on the Form of Flake and Process of Manufacture of

New Post Toasties

This remarkable recognition—no other corn flake on the market has achieved it—marks this new food as something distinctly different from "corn flakes" of the past.

What is Th's Difference?

Compare New Post Toasties with the average corn flake—observe the tiny bubbles which cover their surface. These bubbles are caused by a new method of cooking, rolling and toasting under quick, intense heat.

By this process the true corn flavour is developed in all its sweetness. Eaten dry they are a delicious morsel. With cream or milk they are a revelation to the taste. Note the "substance" of New Post Toasties. Unlike old-style "corn flakes" they do not break or "chaff" in the package. They do not mush down under milk or cream. They are wonderfully delicious.

And they come to you direct from the giant ovens of our great Toastie Factories, untouched by human hand and triply sealed in a moisture-proof container which preserves their fresh Golden Goodness for your table.

CANADIAN POSTUM CEREAL COMPANY, LIMITED, WINDSOR, ONT.

QUEBEC, JUNE 16, 1916.

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL RAILWAY.

Complaints have reached us concerning the exceedingly lax manner in which business appears to be conducted in connection with the train service on the Transcontinental Railway. One gentleman found it impossible even to obtain a time table at the Quebec office, and others have called to complain that it is difficult to secure information of any kind here in regard to certain details which ought to be in full possession of the public. The Government has undoubtedly a splendid road from Quebec to Winnipeg, most, if not all of it, in excellent condition, and by far the shortest through route between the two cities. The Department which controls it has done a splendid piece of work in putting on fast express trains between our city and the metropolis of the middle west. So far, so good. But to make a success of this service, or of any service of the kind, publicity is absolutely necessary. Fast trains will not attract traffic if nobody knows anything about them. The inauguration of such a service as the Transcontinental is now giving would have afforded a splendid opportunity to have done some really effective advertising, and to have attracted the notice of large numbers of people. The skillful management of the Canadian Pacific or of the Grand Trunk Railway would not willingly have let such an opportunity slip by unimproved. It is not yet too late to make amends for it as far as possible by issuing immediately to the press and to the public, all possible details of the new service, and particularly to place a good supply of time tables at the disposal of the local offices of the Government railways. These should have been ready prior to the inauguration of the service.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

The Presidential election in the United States is practically narrowed down to a contest between Hughes, as a straight Republican and President Wilson, the undoubted choice of the Democratic Convention. Though nominated as a candidate by the Progressives, Colonel Roosevelt will not, judging from present indications, repeat his bolt of the last election from old party lines, but will fall into line behind the regular nominee of the Republican Convention, providing always that Judge Hughes shows himself to be thoroughly independent of any undue influence by those hyphenated Americans, whom the Colonel regards, with very good reason, as one of the great dangers threatening the existence of the Republic. The preliminary general declaration of the Republican candidate sounds well from the straight American viewpoint, and his complete campaign pronouncement will be awaited with considerable interest. What effect the German-speaking voters' endorsement of Hughes will have is difficult, so far, to foresee. They may, of course, find, later on, that they have formed an erroneous estimate of him, but when he was a practising lawyer his chief clients were some of the biggest German corporations of New York. This fact and the present German-American sponsorship of him may militate against him with many staunch Americans, though it is quite possible that he may not permit them to affect his policy either as a candidate or as President, if elected to that office. There is apparently a strong impression in many quarters that Hughes will prove to be a less popular candidate than Roosevelt would have been, and that the rejection of the latter by the party leaders was influenced rather by a desire to penalize him for his defection of four years ago than by a well considered belief that Hughes was the strongest available all-round candidate. Those who incline to this belief doubtless base their relative appreciation of the two men as candidates, upon the fact that Roosevelt would not have lost to Wilson anything like so large a number of the hyphenated American votes as he would have gained others from him by his sturdy Americanism. Both in Canada and by all the Allied nations the election will naturally be watched with unusual interest. Should Hughes be elected, it is quite conceivable that the Allies may fare worse at his hands than at those of Wilson, although it does not naturally follow that such would be the case. The Democrats, in nominating Wilson are selecting their strongest man. It is a question whether the Republicans could not have done better than they have done.

A MUZZLED NATION.

It is announced that Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the German Socialist leader arrested while making a speech in the streets of Berlin on May day, is about to be tried for treason before a military court. One shudders to think what his fate will be, for the charge against him, to the official Prussian mind, is one of the gravest that can be preferred—that of having dared openly and fearlessly to speak the truth.

An actual eye-witness of the arrest who also heard the offending words of the unfortunate doctor, recently contributed a very graphic account of the proceedings to the New York Sun. In his speech Dr. Liebknecht sarcastically referred to the enforced necessity of "holding one's tongue" ("Maul halten"), and mercilessly scored the authorities for their heartless treatment of the people: "Keep your mouth shut tight when hungry, keep your mouth shut when your children are hungry . . . keep your mouth shut and write no letters to the front. . . . The old proverb says, 'The mouth speaketh out of the fulness of the heart.' And if her children's stomachs are empty it is hard for the wife not to mention the fact to her far-away soldier husband that it is difficult to provide his children with food while he is offering his life for his country. But if it is not found possible for your masters to prevail upon you to keep your mouths shut, then they resort to a more practical means. They have a very simple means of stopping these annoying complaints. The Prussian censor is now supervising these letters of wives at home to their husbands at the front. They simply do not allow this objectionable correspondence to go through. Poor and unfortunate German soldier! He deserves pity! At the command of the militarist government he has gone into the enemy country, and at the command of the government he must steal from other nations. He is required to perform difficult services. The sufferings that he endures are past description. . . . He must hold on and 'suffer' because the capitalists, the hurrah patriots and the armor-plate kings have willed it so. Every one must keep his or her mouth shut, for the war profiteers must make money out of the want and misery of the wives and their husband soldiers at the front. By a lie the German workman was forced into the war, and by like lies they expect to induce him to go on with the war!"

It is not surprising to read that after this plain speaking, there suddenly arose a great commotion in the crowd—the speaker is pulled down from his platform; men fight with their fists; mounted soldiery use whips upon the crowd; women faint and fall; children scream and pandemonium reigns. The same evening, we are told, there is a secret meeting of some twenty-five or thirty Socialist sympathizers—all soldiers in active service, with the exception of four, and not all of these soldiers privates—to determine what is to be done next.

It would certainly be most interesting to know what was the outcome of their all-night deliberations. Not for ever—nor, indeed, for very long—can a nation be kept quiet by the medieval method of scourging with whips. Earl Kitchener himself is reported to have said, just before his tragic death, that he thought the war was nearing a conclusion. From many significant signs, which accumulate daily, it would seem that the doom of the central powers is fast gathering around their guilty heads. Germany's "Day" is ending in blackest Night, whose daughter Nemesis stands ready to do her bidding.

PRESS COMMENT.

Now that the daylight saving movement has been held up until next year there should be no attempt to lay it on a high shelf to be forgotten. The only sensible way to get the plan adopted is to have the Dominion Government take the matter up with the United States Government and have it put into force for the whole continent. Hamilton has shown a more progressive spirit than Toronto in this matter, and Toronto people will have to get up very early in the morning now to get ahead of their Hamilton competitors, but there is this to be said for the Toronto people that the conditions of business here are different from most of the other cities, and less easily adjusted to the stubborn facts of railway timetables and postoffice schedules. There should be an active organization undertaken on the part of those interested to keep the matter alive and before the public, as well as to take up the work of enlightening the government on what is being done in other countries, and the great profit of such action. In Toronto the people are not fully awake to the advantages, and it is probable that had the city council decided to put the plan into force at once it would have proved so unsatisfactory that the movement to get the whole country into line would have received a black eye. Europe is saving millions by the scheme, and there is no reason why America should not economize as well.—Toronto World.

Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, who is attending the meeting of the Women's clubs in New York, is the widow of one of the most brilliant humorists of the country. She evidently partakes of the elements that made her husband famous and is a good deal of a humorist herself.

This is suggested by her interview in which she speaks of "the present day dress of girls luring men to their moral downfall" and she goes on to criticize the deep V cuts of the new style waists, the transparent sleeves, the short cut skirts and other fads of present day fashion.

Her idea is highly humorous, but is not new. Old women, male and female, have been harping on women's dress as immoral for fifty years or more. In that time we have had the low neck dress for all around wear, the great hoop skirts that persisted in kicking out in a most indecent way, the Grecian bend, the long skirt that swept the sidewalk if left to trail, and showed pretty ankles if carried on the arm. Skirts have been so full that critics grieved at the weight women had to carry; and so narrow that it was dangerous for the wearer to step across a gutter. And in all these years the critics have raged till today, when the women are wearing the prettiest, most artistic and the most sanitary garbs in the history of beautiful womanhood, they are harping and howling worse than ever. To a clean mind there has never been an indecent dress, and no dress can so cover womanhood as to be proof against the criticism of an unclean mind. It is part of the business of women to be beautiful. Artistic clothes help amazingly and never were clothes as lovely as since we have relied less on the old world for our fashions.—Albany Times Union.

It is not surprising to read that after this plain speaking, there suddenly arose a great commotion in the crowd—the speaker is pulled down from his platform; men fight with their fists; mounted soldiery use whips upon the crowd; women faint and fall; children scream and pandemonium reigns. The same evening, we are told, there is a secret meeting of some twenty-five or thirty Socialist sympathizers—all soldiers in active service, with the exception of four, and not all of these soldiers privates—to determine what is to be done next.

QUEBEC STREET RY. AND LINE EXTENSION

MATTER DISCUSSED AT MEETING OF QUEBEC PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

The controversy between the City and the Street Railway over the question of extending the street railway system to the limits of the city in Belvedere Ward was again considered yesterday morning at a meeting of the Public Utilities Commission when it was decided that the matter be further discussed at a joint meeting of the Dominion Railway Commission and the Public Utilities Commission.

After the meeting opened Mr. J. E. Chapleau, City Attorney put the points at dispute before the commissioners. He explained that it had been resolved to submit to the arbitration of the Utilities Commission. Mr. Gravel, Counsel for Q. R. L. & P. Co., stated that he understood that the city had not made any overtures to the company with a view to reaching an amicable settlement of the whole question.

Mr. H. G. Matthews, General Manager of the Street Railway explained that at Wednesday's meeting at the City Hall representatives of the company were present to discuss the question, but the Mayor was the only Civic representative present.

Col. Hibbard, on behalf of the Commission recommended that the matter be considered further before a joint meeting of the Commission and Dominion Railway Commission.

Mr. J. H. Morissette, citizen and taxpayer of Limoilou, then made known the request of all the taxpayers of Limoilou Ward that the Q. R. L. & P. Co. be compelled to prolong their gas service into Limoilou. Col. Hibbard again explained that the Commissioners had visited Limoilou and had, therefore, an idea of what was needed.

The question was adjourned for further discussion to Tuesday the 27th, inst.

John Warren, of Murray Bay, was the plaintiff in the next case heard before the Commission. He objected to an order of the Commissioners which had closed for traffic a certain thoroughfare north of the Quebec & Saguenay Ry. Question to be discussed further at the Commission's regular meeting on the 27th.

With Col. Hibbard were present on the bench, Sir George Carneau, of Quebec, and Mr. Laberge, of Montreal.

RECORDER'S COURT.

Eight prisoners appeared before the Recorder's Court yesterday on charges of drunkenness. Fines ranging from $2 or two days to $10, or one month. A charge of loitering was preferred against a man, but he was discharged.

MR. R. R. MARCHANT BEREAVED.

The many friends of Mr. R. R. Marchant of this city will learn with regret of his bereavement through the death yesterday at Longueuil, of his sister Mrs. H. Walford. The deceased lady was formerly a resident of this city, and the many friends of the family will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the great loss they have sustained.

COURT OF SESSIONS.

Samuel Dean, of Toronto, a former member of the 224th Forestry Battalion who pleaded guilty at the Court of Sessions on Friday last to the charge of bigamously marrying a Quebec young lady while having a wife and family in Toronto, was yesterday morning sentenced by Judge Langelier to three years in the penitentiary.

FAREWELL CONCERT TO MRS. WM. ATTLEE

MR. AND MRS. WM. ATTLEE
RECEIPIENTS OF PRESENTATIONS LAST NIGHT.

The farewell concert tendered to Mrs. W. Attlee last night in the Y. M.C.A. Hall, was one of the most successful entertainments held in Quebec for some time. The hall was crowded and the audience enjoyed the fine program presented. Great praise is due to Mrs. W. J. B. Fraser, for organizing such a fine entertainment, and she richly deserved the congratulations showered upon her on the success which attended her efforts. Mr. Fraser also, was the recipient of praise for the tasteful manner in which he had decorated the stage with bunting, etc.

All the artistes acquitted themselves in a manner worthy of the occasion, and every number was enjoyed. Particular mention should be made of little Miss Jessie Knowles' "recitation," "What is Your Duty," for which she received hearty applause and an insistent encore, and on returning to the stage, she was introduced to the audience by Mr. W. H. Wiggs, who acted as chairman, as the little niece of Lieut.-Col. Archie Hay.

By special request, at the close of the program, Mrs. Attlee sang and received an enthusiastic reception. Her song was followed by the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," and the National Anthem.

The presentation then took place. At the intermission of the program, Mr. W. H. Wiggs called Mr. and Mrs. Attlee upon the platform, and said he had been requested by Lady Price and many other friends to express their sincere regret at the approaching departure of Mr. and Mrs. Attlee, who had always been to the fore in giving their services to patriotic, Y.M.C.A., and other concerns, and it was felt now that they were leaving Quebec, they should not be allowed to depart without showing in some tangible manner the esteem they were held in by their many friends.

Mrs. Wiggs, amidst great applause, then presented Mrs. Attlee with a handsome and costly ring, and Mr. and Mrs. Attlee a purse of gold containing the proceeds of the concert.

Mr. Attlee in a very feeling manner returned thanks to Mr. Wiggs and all those friends who honored them in such a happy form. It had been a great pleasure for both Mrs. Attlee and himself to help their friends in the patriotic concerts held during the past season. They had made many friends in this city, and were sorry to part with them. He thought it only right to say that the credit for the organization of these concerts was due to Mrs. W. J. B. Fraser, and the success attained was due in a great measure to that lady's efforts.

The program was as follows:

DEATH OF MICHAEL G. JOYNT

After an illness of several months' duration the death occurred yesterday at his home Little Champlain street of Michael Gerard Joynt. The late Mr. Joynt up to a month ago although declining in health was able to be about, but since that time has been confined to his room where he gradually sank until death relieved him of his sufferings yesterday. Deceased, who was a son of Mr. Michael Joynt, was aged 24 years. He was for a number of years typewriter mechanic for the Remington Typewriter Co., and had taken a keen interest in athletics having been actively connected with the St. Lawrence Hockey Club, the St. Patrick's Lacrosse Club, the Montagnais Club and other sporting organizations.

The late Michael Joynt besides his mother and father, leaves to mourn his loss four brothers, Pte. Joseph Joynt, of the Grenadier Guards, now in England on their way to the Front, Charles Joynt, printer of the Quebec Telegraph, Alphonse and Francis and two sisters Misses Geraldine and Ellen Joynt.

The sincerest sympathy of a wide circle of friends will be extended to Mr. and Mrs. Joynt and family in their bereavement.

JOHN J. COLLINS KILLED IN ACTION

Last night's casualty list contains the name of John J. Collins, No. 12 St. Michael street. It appears that Private Collins who was originally from Ireland, came to Quebec a few years ago and boarded with the family of Mr. James Woods on St. Michael street, previous to enlisting. He was a printer by trade, and for a short time was employed on The Chronicle.

LORTIE'S HORSE
WON LONG RACE

MACK B. BEAT GUY PETERS IN 20 MILE RACE—MEETING A BIG SUCCESS.

Nearly 2500 racing fans were attracted to the Exhibition Grounds yesterday afternoon to witness the big twenty mile race between Art. Lortie's chestnut gelding, Mack B., a free-legged pacer and Victor Giguere's bay mare, Guy Peters a fast trotter, as well as a free-for-all race which brought out some fine entries.

Mack B. driven by its owner, Lortie, trailed the fast bay mare which was handled by Brindamour for seventeen miles but Giguere's entry seemed to tire and losing a kneeboot during this stage her chances were not increased. However, Lortie though gaining perceptibly did not force ahead until almost the last eighth when he let Mack B. out and with a good burst of speed passed the plucky mare and won by several lengths.

It was an exciting race and the winner pulled down the side-bet of $200 on the result.

After this race a free-for-all was on the card, bringing out five entries. Kavak, a gray gelding owned by Jobin and driven by Trivierge winning in straight heats.

A feature of this race was the showing of Silk Mack, Lachance's entrant, driven by Lehoultier. After pacing fourth in the first heat and trailing the field in the second, Lehoultier made a strong bid in the third heat and was a good second to Kavak until he reached the stretch where he was passed by Buena Vista which finished second.

The meeting was the most successful mid-week event of its nature ever held here and Mr. J. M. Landry the starter gave entire satisfaction.

Kilbane and Dunn Pals.

Kilbane is perfectly willing to go through with anything that Dunn undertakes for him. The pair personify the ideal arrangement between boxer and manager. Dunn has handled Kilbane ever since Johnny fought his first preliminary. Frequently Dunn has been criticized for passing up certain matches and has tossed off some big money, but he has accumulated a splendid fortune for Johnny, has a tidy bankroll himself, and has plans that undoubtedly will add to both his own and the champion's worldly wealth. One of the cases in which Dunn has been severely criticized is the making of a match with George Chaney, the Baltimore featherweight, whose record of knockouts really entitles him to a match with the Cleveland. Dunn said there was more to that match than appeared on the surface and wants the public to know his side. He said:

"Chaney or anyone else who can draw a crowd need never have any difficulty getting a match with Johnny. Chaney, however, refuses to box anywhere else but in Baltimore, his home town, and before a club in which his manager is interested. I took the bull by the horns and signed to box there, for I knew one of the men interested in the club would give us a square deal."

ALL EIGHT CLUBS ARE SCHEDULED

THREE GAMES IN QUEBEC AND ONE IN LEVIS—EMMETS-PATRICIA SATURDAY

All the clubs in the Quebec and District League are scheduled to play this week end. On Saturday, Patricia will meet Emmets on the Exhibition Grounds in a game which promises to be a real live event. Sunday afternoon, the Exhibition Grounds will be the scene of a double-header, St. Patricks meeting Laval and Victorias hooking up with C.B.'s and in Levis, St. Romuald will meet the Napoleons.

The games are all good attractions and some fine contests are expected. The Napoleons are confident of trimming the Indians in Levis and Big Jocks and his crowd are of an entirely different opinion.

The Levis team has won three games and lost one while the St. Romuald have won and lost two. Marcotte and Desjardins should put up an interesting pitcher's battle.

Player four games, won three, lost one. Allowed twenty hits and average of five per game, passed eleven to first, an average of almost 3 per game and has struck out 47, an average of nearly 12 strike-outs per game.

Desjardins has pitched four games, winning two and losing two. He has allowed 26 hits, an average of a little more than six a game; he passed eight to first, two per game average, and struck out 50, an average of over 12 per game.

Sporting Notes

President Johnny Bruneau of the Quebec and District Baseball League has announced the umpires for this week's games as follows:—

Saturday:—

Emmets-Patricia, G. Cartier and J. Ledden.

Sunday at Quebec:—

Laval-St. Patricks.

Vica-C.B., Harry Ledden and S. Drouin.

At Levis:—

St. Romuald vs Napoleons, Jos. Ledden and Jos. Pouliot.

Secretary Lepine of the Quebec and District Baseball League is displeased with the way the race-meeting men treated the baseball men. He states that automobiles, horses and rigs were allowed to run wild over the diamond, which is now in weird condition and that though the promoters refused to give the baseball league a percentage of the receipts still they utilized the stand which was built by the baseball league. Mr. Lepine intends to put up a strenuous kick for a share of the gate or at least have the horsemen put the diamond in order.

The Emmets had a workout last night. West-Calkins was in line and practically the whole outfit was hard at work.

The Vics had a good practice, though several of the regulars were absent.

St. Romuald will play in Levis

Sunday. This game promises to be a hard-fought contest. Both are south-side teams and there is keen rivalry between them.

Laval will have a pretty strong line-up next Sunday when they meet St. Patricks. Manager St. Pierre is hoping to shake the St. Patricks jinx this season. Laval has never yet defeated St. Patricks.

The Patricia-Emmet game on Saturday at the Exhibition Grounds will be one of the best of the season. The Patricia's have a real ball team and with big Rick Paquette in the pitcher's box they are ready for the best of them.

Montreal couldn't hold a four run lead yesterday. Toronto scored five runs in the ninth inning and won 7-6.

The Twenty-mile race was certainly an exciting one. Giguere's mare looked like a winner almost until the end.

Lehoultier's spurt in the third heat of the free-for-all brought the crowd up standing. Silk Mack's handler nearly put one over but the horse faded on the stretch.

McCarthy intends to show Que-becers his full stock this evening. And Charlie can show good stuff when he wants to cut loose.

"Bud" Daley, the Athletic A. A.

boxer from Bridgeport, Conn., who has been cleaning them up round those parts is in town just aching for a fight with any good boy weighing between 135 and 140 pounds. He will fight before any Quebec club.

MC CARTHY-ALLEN
FIGHT TONIGHT

FIFTEEN ROUND EXHIBITION AT THE GRANDE ALLEE RINK WILL BE A HUMMER.

The first fifteen-round bout which has been held in Quebec for years will be staged at the Grande Allee Rink this evening between two clever lightweights or rather near lightweights, Charlie McCarthy of Quebec, as the announcer says and Red Allen of Brooklyn, N.Y. McCarthy is an Ottawa boy but is well-known in Quebec in different branches of athletics and other pursuits and his ability is unquestioned. Many of his friends expect the soldier boy to put Allen to sleep before the fifteen.

Red Allen arrived in town yesterday from Montreal after a careful training and he looks in great shape. Red has been looking for a chance to box McCarthy and now that he has it, of course, it is up to him to show what he will do with it.

Joe Montminy will referee the bout which is under the auspices of the St. Roch's Athletic Club and as the two boys are clean boxers, Joe will likely have a much easier time than he has had lately.

In the semi-windup Kid Drolet will make a big effort to put Patsy Dillon. Dillon and Drolet fought a fast six-round draw previously but this bout is over the ten round route and each boxer is confident of a K.O.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to witness the contests and everything is in readiness to receive the big crowd.

"A MORATORIUM UPON GRIEF" SET UP BY MME. DE THEBES

SO THE FAMOUS PARIS SEERESS SAYS ANENT THE POLICE WAR UPON THE "MERCHANTS OF ILLUSION."

Paris, June, 10.—As a result of the severe measures adopted by the police in their war upon fortune tellers, crystal gazers and other "merchants of illusion," Mme. de Thebes, most celebrated of all French seeresses, has delivered herself of theories concerning the wartime exercise of her science.

"It is well to prosecute unfortunate women of this stamp," she said to a representative of Le Petit Journal, "for they dishonor a profession honorable enough when based upon sincere knowledge and practised with sincerity. Speaking for myself, I cannot see how the war can have benefited practitioners of my profession, as the authorities insist it has done. My own clientele is widely dispersed; if I continue to receive those seeking light it is because it is my duty."

"Yes, my duty. I am too old to labor in the hospitals, but I can always console the afflicted and spread hope among troubled hearts. Sometimes in reading the lines of a hand I detect brutal facts the avowal of which would be frightful for those whom they concern. So I lie; I lie piously. I say: 'Your husband is prisoner; he will return after war,' when I well know that the poor woman is already a widow."

"I have sought to set up in effect a moratorium upon grief. Those who come to me have faith in my powers, in my knowledge. They know that I know to a certainty what their palms contain with reference to their future. And at a time like this I feel that I must not always tell these sufferers the whole terrible truth. Hence my moratorium; I let the payment in grief they must eventually make lapse until a brighter hour is in sight."

The attitude assumed toward those engaged in Mme. de Thebes's profession by Mr. Fortin, a representative of the Public Prosecutor's Office, differed considerably from that of the famous seeress.

"Our severity toward this form of petty crime," he observed, "results from our conviction that it has caused an overwhelming amount of distress among all classes of Parisians. From eighty to a hundred grave complaints have been handed in daily against these fakers. There have been numerous instances of girls and young widows made ill to the point of death by the balderdash uttered by these alleged seeresses, the majority of whom couple larceny with their oracular prophecies."

"It is a common thing for the fortune teller to make her visitor supply her with a ring, or watch, or some other object of value belonging to the husband or fiancé about whom the deluded victim desires prophetic information, on the plea that it will help her in learning the truth from the spirits. Of course when the victim returns, the trinket has disappeared. One crystal-gazing lady assured herself of her daily omelette by insisting that her clients bring a fresh egg with them to help in the exercises of her mystic power."

"We have already succeeded in closing up 40 per cent. of the practitioners of this stamp who have sprung up during the war, and the courts are handing down severe sentences almost daily against those who still persist in violating the law. After we have disposed of the 'occasional' we shall tackle the strictly professional types, who are of course more adept at getting around the law and thus are more difficult to suppress."

FIFTY YEARS A

POE TO LIQUOR. A "Live Wire" is Joseph Gibson—"Daddy" Gibson—of Ingersoll, Ontario, the doughty champion, able, fearless, and deadly uncompromising of the anti-liquor forces in Ontario, an outstanding figure, and one of the most picturesque in the public eye, says James Shelton in The Toronto Star Weekly.

A little man—but oh, my!—is Joseph Gibson. To see him mount the platform, all spring and electricity, and concentrated gun fire, and watch him sail in to old Demon Rum is an experience to go down into memory. For what he lacks in stature he makes up in fire and logic.

Be Careful in Using Soap on Your Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mulitified coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

How You Can Quickly Remove Hairy Growths

(Aids to Beauty.)

A well-known beauty specialist advises this treatment for the removal of hair from the face. Mix into a paste some powdered delatone and water, apply to hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rub off, wash the skin and every trace of hair has vanished. This method is quick and entirely safe. To avoid disappointment, however, it is well to make certain you get genuine delatone.

As the breath in his nostrils is the thrust and parry and lunge and counter of a fight. His whole body, brain and spirit is consumed with relentless, vicious hate of the liquor traffic, and he flays it alive! Woe betide the liquor advocate who crosses swords with Joseph Gibson on the platform; he must needs lay about him right lustily, and if he be less than the ablest in their service he will certainly bite the dust.

Mr. Gibson is postmaster in the town of Ingersoll, in the County of Oxford. Although a Conservative in politics, he held the post all through the years of the Laurier Government. He has served the municipality as Mayor, Reeve, Councillor, and school trustee, and although he dropped out of municipal life some years ago, he is still active in every movement to advance the interests of the town.

A member of the Methodist Church in Canada, he has represented the Hamilton Conference for nearly 20 years at the meetings of the General Conference. About 15 years ago he was one of the lay delegates from Canada to the Ecumenical Council, in London, England, and he has been chairman of the General Conference Temperance Committee, and a member for many years of the Book and Publishing House Committee. He has been prominently identified with the Ancient Order of United Workmen, occupying for two years the office of Grand Master Workman.

It is, however, in the field of temperance reform that Mr. Gibson has been best known. During the bitter fights of the Scott Act days he was always in the thick of the fray, and pitted against the strongest platform orators that the liquor party could muster. Mr. Gibson likes to recall those stirring times and the verbal combats in which he engaged. He is one of the best stump speakers in the Province, breezy, original, vigorous, and fluent, and with the happy gift of readily touching the risible faculties of an audience.

The gallant old man has been foremost in the fight this spring for total prohibition. As honorary president of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, and president of the Committee of One Hundred for the South Riding of Oxford, he did yeoman service in awakening public opinion to the duty of the hour. At the memorable meeting in Massey Hall, Toronto, on the evening before the presentation to the Legislature of the monster petition, his appearance upon the platform was the signal for ringing cheers. "I reverently thank God for this day," said he, "I now only want to live long enough to see two things happen. I want to see the Germans licked to a finish, and I want to see King Alcohol buried so deep in his grave that he will never be exhumed!"

Joseph Gibson has never deserted the fight. Although 60 years is a pretty long time to keep on the firing line, he has always been on it or near it. Now, full of years yet still vigorous and in full possession of all his faculties, he sees the Promised Land of Prohibition just ahead. It is a rather happy climax to the life of an earnest, valiant leader in the ranks of moral reform.

The yellow bench-lands gleam and glow

Under an azure sky:
Above the benches trees arroy
March upward, very high;
And higher than the trees again
The scarped summit stands:
My heart is desolate because
I cannot see these lands.

The winding trails go up and down,
The tributary trails
That lead to roads that lead to town,
A town beside the rails,
But happy he who quits the train
And on the wagon-road
Rides watching for the old blazed tree:
He needs not any road.

Dead God, if prayers of men avail
For special things with Thee,
This would I pray—To hit the trail,
And smell the balsam tree:
To see the eagles coasting heaven;
The sun-shafts striking deep
In lonely lakes and laughing streams,
To hear the chipmunks cheep!

Some call the Indians dirty folk,
But I again would see,
And smell, Great Spirit, wood-fire smoke

Of some red man's tipi.
One sign that I was back again
In these tremendous lands,
Would be the sight of silver rings
On brown and lissome hands.

The bench's yellow pales and fades
The sun ebbs up the hill,
'Tis dark in the deep forest glades,
'Tis dark and very still:
The sunlight on the summit dies,
—Was that a drop of rain?
I knew it once from dawn to dusk
And would go home again.

To Trifle With Catarrh Is To Risk Consumption

Usually it comes with a cold. Being slight it is neglected—but the seed is sown for a dangerous harvest, perhaps consumption. To cure at once, inhale Catarrhine. It destroys the germs of Catarrh, clears away mucous, cleanses the passage of the nose and throat. The hacking cough and sneezing cold soon disappear, and health is yours again. Nothing known for colds, catarrh and throat trouble, that is so curative as Catarrhine. It cures by a new method that never yet failed. The one dollar outfit includes the inhaler and is guaranteed to cure. Smaller sizes 25c and 50c, sold everywhere.

Caution to Mariners

Quebec, April 20th, 1916.

Owing to progress of construction of locks and dam on the St. Charles River, at the Canadian Northern Railway St. Charles River Bridge, the river channel will be restricted.

It is the intention to remove the present wooden guide and guard pier on the lower side of the swing bridge pier, and a caisson will be sunk directly across the channel about fifty (50) feet below the swing pier. This will close entirely the channel on the South (Quebec) side of swing pier, and partly obstruct that on North side, but leaving thirty-five (35) feet clear for navigation between caisson and North abutment.

Boats will be enabled to pass up or down ONLY within half an hour, either way, from high tide at which time must pass slowly on North (Limoilou) side of swing pier, and close to North Bridge abutment.

Mariners must also be guided by marks or indications showing at the time.

A gauge will be placed on upper and lower sides of crib on North bridge abutment, showing depth of water over Caisson No. 1 sunk into bed of channel in 1915. Figures on gauge are black 12 inches high, and show actual depth of water. Sides of channel at bridge (lower side) will be marked with white fixed lights.

Premier Feature Film Co. OF CANADA. LIMITED

CAPITAL STOCK, $500,000.

DIVIDED INTO 100,000 SHARES OF THE PAR VALUE OF $5.00 EACH PER SHARE.

All Common Stock. No Personal Liability.

Organized Under the Laws of the Dominion of Canada, "Companies Act."

Offers to local investors a limited amount of shares the money to be used to establish the Company in the City of Quebec, erect a studio and produce feature photo-plays for the markets of the world.

Subscriptions have already been secured in Quebec, Montreal, and New York City, enough to make the enterprise certain, and the Company offers this limited amount of stock for local subscription only.

A very desirable site has been secured at the corner of the St. Louis Road and the Gomin Road, known as "Sangster's property" and plans for the studio and office buildings have been designed by a local architect.

The world's markets are open for Quebec-made films, and the profits accruing to shareholders will be enormous. Quebec offers advantages in the economy of producing feature films which will be fully taken advantage of by the Company.

The profits accruing from certain special feature films have been astonishing.

"Traffic in Souls," is said to have cost $6,500 and to have earned over one million dollars.

"The Million Dollar Mystery," is known to have earned more than one million dollars.

"The Birth of a Nation," playing to $2.00 and $1.00 seat houses, will probably earn two million dollars or more before it is through.

The three well-known serials, "Perils of Pauline," "Exploits of Elaine," and the "Romance of Elaine," are said to have earned more than one million dollars.

The moving pictures have developed into the greatest international amusement within the past few years, and is now said to be the fifth largest industry in the world. You can get an idea of the magnitude of the business and the unlimited demand for films when you recall that practically every one of the 15,000 moving picture houses in the United States exhibits from 6 to 10 reels per day. That means 90,000 reels per day, 630,000 reels per week. Now, figure that yearly demand in the United States alone. Realize that probably 85 per cent. of the pictures are earning from $10.00 to $100.00 per day, and you have an idea of the enormous profits that can be made by a film producing company.

The natural scenery around Quebec, and the subjects of absorbing interest, original, insofar as they are still untouched by other producing companies, will give to the lovers of the screen the most beautiful and interesting pictures ever produced.

The services of well-known "stars" have been secured, together with the services of one of the best-known directors of the American producing profession, whose productions have acquired a world-wide fame. This insures the highest possible quality for all feature films produced by the Premier Feature Film Company of Canada.

Interim receipts will be issued, exchangeable for permanent certificates, when engraved.

NEW YORK MARKET.
(Canadian Press.)
New York, June 15.—The market was in the doldrums during the greater part of today's irregular session dealing tapering off to the smallest total of recent weeks, traders proceeded with greater caution in view of the uncertainties surrounding the railway labor situation and affairs in Mexico. The continued absence of public or investment inquiry was another decided drawback.

Prices received their initial reversal in the forenoon when extensive offerings of Anglo-French war bonds caused a decline of a substantial fraction of a point. The heaviness of this issue was the most inexplicable from the fact that much of the foreign business news was distinctly helpful to the Allied cause. It was regarded as being not unlikely that liquidations of the war shares was induced to an extent by the belief that other and probably more attractive foreign loans are soon to be offered.

Copper shares, which so largely monopolized yesterday's operations were comparatively active but ruled for the most part at or near best quotations. Inspiration Copper coming within a small fraction of its recent high price, the issues yielded to small transactions. Motors made further recoveries from the weakness caused by the abandonment of the merger Wylys-Overland and the Maxwell issues showing decided resistance to pressure.

Interest in war shares was temporarily revived by the strength of Crucible Steel and Pressed Steel Car, but other munitions, Equipments, and specialties of kindred character hesitated, with an almost equal distribution of nominal gains and losses. Mexican petroleum made a substantial recovery at one time, but the uncertain conditions, attending property interests in Mexico continued to militate against activity in shares of that description.

Of all the leaders United States Steel exhibited greatest steadiness, hovering about its recent best price. Bethlehem Steel exhibited greatest steadiness, hovering about its recent best price. Bethlehem Steel made an advance of 5 1/2 points, regaining that much of its quarterly dividend of 7 1/2 per cent. Ralls, except for Canadians, were lethargic, Louisville's gain of the past week being explained in the restoration of the regular rate of dividend. Total sales amounted to 430,000 shares.

Bonds were irregular with total sales (total par value) $4,450,000. Panama coupon 3's advanced 3/4 and the registered 3's, 1-2 per cent.

CLOSING MARKET LETTERS.

By Private Wire to Breen & Gourdeau, Stock Brokers, Telephone No. 185.

Chicago, June 15.—During the early trading today, the market lacked support and with pressure from locals, stop loss orders were encountered and new low levels reached for the July delivery. There was fair support on this break from commission house buying some of which was credited to export account.

Local sentiment is excessively bearish, due to the difficulty of disposing of our large stocks of poor wheat, which have been allowed to accumulate in store here. Corn—July became over-sold in the last few days, when the leading houses gave evidence of liquidation and today the short interest found difficulty in covering. It does not seem probable that any large movement of corn will occur until after harvest.

Oats—Were under the influence of other grain markets being weak early and rallying later. They are relatively cheaper than other grains and consequently active investment buying on breaks.

New York—Today's session of the stock market was without special feature, and trading was utterly devoid of snap. Irregularity continued to characterize the movement of prices, transactions were chiefly professional and the list, as a whole, indicated no decided trend. Periods of pronounced dullness were frequent, while during the greater part of the day prices drifted aimlessly. Realizing sales developed among issues prominently active the past few days, and this selling created a more or less reactionary tendency in the final dealings. Nothing new was suggested by today's doings, the waiting attitude being still strongly apparent. We look for the market to continue along its present lines for the time being.

Sales, stocks, 422,328; bonds, $4,500,000.

CLOSING LETTER.

Bruneau & Dupuis, Stock Brokers, 11-13-15, Sault-au-Matelot, Quebec
A. A. GINGRAS, Manager.

New York, June 15.—Today's market has not gone up nor has it gone down. There has been a fair turn over at about the same prices, but no material changes. Crucible advanced in the early afternoon as there was a meeting of the directors but no announcement has yet been forthcoming. It is expected that they will pay off at least ten per cent. of the back preferred dividend and possibly also declare something on the common.

Everyone calls this a waiting market but we are at a loss to know what it is waiting for. In fact we are inclined to believe that it is too full of stocks. It certainly refuses to enthrone on receipt of favorable news of which we have had a plenty in the past sixty days. One theory for the prevailing apathy is that although Mr. Hughes' nomination seems to unify the republican party, until Mr. Roosevelt announces his and the progressives support of the regular ticket the matter is by no means settled. Our advice is that the progressive executive committee will meet on June 26th, and that time the announcement will be made of the active support of the republican ticket. Perhaps they may and that this will be signal for a better market. As it goes now, it looks as if the heavy foreign selling of the past 15 months had not been digested and that too many stocks are held on borrowed money by people who are merely waiting to sell them out to others at a higher price.
Total Sales, stocks 422,328; Bonds $4,500,000.

MONTREAL CLOSING LETTER

McDougall & Cowans, 116 Mountain Hill, H. S. Thomson, Mgr. Telephone 1409 and 1403.

Montreal, June 15.—Although trading was not very active today there was a better undertone to the market and several stocks showed good advances during the session. The Dominion War Loan was very strong and active at 99 3/4. Cement on small trading advanced very easily to 72 1/4. Laurentide which has been inactive recently sold at 184 1/4. Scotia after a weak opening and a decline to 126 advanced sharply to 127 1/2. There was a fair demand for Steel of Canada and it closed 62 1/4. The Power securities were firm and Cedar Bonds closed 90 bid. In the Unlisted Department there was some demand for Tram Power and this stock at 39. Judging from the trading today, it looks as if with any encouragement from the foreign markets ours should do better.

PACKED HOUSE AT EMPIRE.

Packed houses greeted the opening representations of the famous V. L. S. E. film "For a Woman's Fair Name" at the Empire Theatre, Fabrique Street, yesterday afternoon and evening.

The plot is one of the strongest and most interesting of any photoplay yet produced and with such stars as Robt. Edson Morley and others in the cast its interpretation is perfect. Edson's characterization of the drugaddicted half-brother is a wonderful piece of character work and there is little doubt that seldom has such clever acting been screened in any silent drama of the present day.

Besides the above feature, Frank Daniels simply convulsed the spectators with his antics in "The hash magnate". As the title implied the picture is based on the adventures of Mr. Jack as a lunch-counter proprietor and his subsequent escapades, when he is mistaken for a count, make up one of the funniest comedies produced. Daniel's is not a "rough-house" comedian. He can get a laugh without knocking down a Church and his appearance now is sought for every week at the Empire.

LARGE AUDIENCES PLEASED AT OLYMPIA.

See William Farnum Starring in "A Soldier's Oath" at the Olympia Theatre.

The famous Fox masterpiece is one of the most timely and up-to-the-minute pictures produced and is in accord with events of this period.

William Farnum in the role of Pierre Duval, a lover, soldier and husband, is well known.

This picture is shown again today and tomorrow. The remnants of the Belgian army being re-fitted, and a scene from the River Meuse in France, as shown in The Pathe News make a very interesting program.

NO MORE HAGUE CONFERENCES.

A Futility of Pacificism.

(By Sir Harry Johnston)

On several occasions before the outbreak of the present war I gave written testimony to my hopes of the results which might follow from international conferences at The Hague, and from the gradually-built-up international law which might be formulated by degrees at the Palace of Peace into a universally respected code, binding on all the civilized nations who sent their representatives to The Hague Conference. But the events of August-September 1914 shattered this ideal, so that although mechanically my name may continue to appear as one amongst the many signatories to counsels of perfection connected with Hague Conferences, actually I am not a party to any such aspirations any longer. The admirable work of Mr. Carnegie, at which we have no right whatever to sneer, received its death-blow when neither the United States nor the kingdom of the Netherlands protested to Germany against the invasion of Belgium. From that moment it was evident that the two previous Congresses at The Hague had been a sheer waste of time, a mockery, a mask behind which the Central European Powers carefully prepared for an assault on the liberties of Europe.

Yet I see now that a number of my friends and acquaintances whose opinions I have shared or adopted in the past are actually moving in favour of a Third Hague Conference "after this war is over," at which "all war is to be abolished." The United States is to be invited to convene the Third Hague Congress—the United States which has never protested against the breach of the laws laid down at the previous Conferences—at which it shall be decreed that war shall henceforth cease. The Third Hague Congress is to bind (how can it bind?) all the Powers represented there to accept the future arbitrament of the Hague Tribunal. It is to be able to punish (who is to be the "it"?) future breaches of international law by economic boycott or by coercion through an International Police, naval and military.

A Futile Proposal.

The signatories to this pamphlet do not say who is to command this International Police on sea and land, but there is some slight inference from the text of their proposals that the commands should be placed in the hands of the United States. Is this a proposition to which the British Empire could possibly submit its fate? Or France? Or Russia? Certainly not. The eleven millions of German-Americans and the five or six millions of Austro-Hungarian-Americans, form a most noteworthy element of the world's population and physical value of the peoples of the Central European Empires, both in mind and body, or pretend that they have not all the quantities which lead to success. Quite disproportionately to their numbers they dominate the policy and the actions of the United States. Almost certainly they would come to the front as a source from which would be derived the most capable officers and strategists in such an International Police. And suspicion would be at once aroused in the east and the west of Europe as to the control of such an impossible body.

"Very well, then," it might be urged, "we will place the control the supreme command in the hands of Swedes or Swiss or Dutch." Next we have to ask ourselves whether the subjects of any of these neutral nations who have not been engaged in the present war are likely to be able to cope with the military genius which has certainly made itself evident in Germany and in Austria-Hungary. Then again, we of the British Empire have to recollect that the Swedish gendarmerie in Persia, the Dutch gendarmerie in Albania, and German-Swiss officers chosen for other international forces have by a tendency not unnatural, eventually identified themselves with the interests of Germany-Austria. You cannot overlook the fact that so great is the intellectual potency of Germany that although the German language fully deserves all that Mark Twain ever said about it, it is the dominating tongue amongst the Dutch upper and mercantile classes, over three-fifths of Switzerland, and in the intellectual world of Scandinavia.

Any such proposition, in fact, at that advocated by those who declare it "to be the will of God that war shall cease" is worse than futile: it is actively mischievous.

In the future we can trust no people that have been neutral in the present struggle, and still less none of the enemies we have been fighting. We can trust our Allies large and small because they with us, realise that we are completely interdependent now in the Old World. United we stand; divided we fall a prey to the ambitions and the intentions of Central Europe. For the next hundred years the Old World can only be kept in peace, happiness and reasonable liberty, by the continuance of the existing alliance between Britain, France, Italy, Portugal, Serbia, Montenegro, Russia and Japan, an alliance which, we hope, still may be joined at the right moment by Rumania, may find Spain fraternal and become at any time, present or to come, to welcome the United States and other nations still neutral. But this alliance, nevertheless, in World politics will henceforth trust the welfare of its citizens to no more Congresses held at The Hague or Copenhagen, or Bern, or Madrid, unless the peoples of any one of the neutral nations of which these cities are the capitals join the Allies en bloc.

An Important Conference

No Hague Conference availed to rescue Belgium from a fate more shocking than has befallen any other country in history. No Hague Agreement has saved the Lusitania or the Appam, the Falaba; or the many babies and women shattered by Zeppelins; or the inhabitants of Great Britain and Ireland from a future taxation which will long deprive our lives of opportunities and reasonable pleasures. No Hague Conference of the past checked the race in armaments, nor could it do so in the future; nor should we be wise in trusting for one moment our destinies to an International Police Force, or to an International Board of Trade able to impose an economic boycott; for sooner or later the inevitable German would come to the top in any such international arrangement, either by the direct route of German representation or the indirect way through the United States Scandinavia, Switzerland or Holland.

I write these lines with, perhaps, a better knowledge than is possessed by many Englishmen of Holland, the United States and Switzerland. Next to my own country I love Switzerland better than any other part of the world; and if I had to leave England I would live there sooner than anywhere else, with, however, strong temptations to make by home either in the United States or in Holland. But I try to face facts. I believe that the mass of the Dutch people are rather with the Allies, and especially with Britain, than against us. The Dutch Press has played a splendid part in championing the Right in the tortuous maze of political considerations. I believe that if the masses in Holland better understood the full extent of the horrible treatment of Belgium, especially of Flemish-speaking Belgium, they would before now have forced their Government to protest and to range itself definitely in sympathy with the Allies, as Portugal did. But I also know from many visits to Holland that the greater part of the aristocracy and of the merchants are rather more inclined to sympathise with Germany and to be willing to come to some arrangement which will bring their land very close to fusion with the German Empire. I do not think that they are reasonable in this, because racially and linguistically they are far more nearly connected with Britain (as is Belgium). But facts are stubborn things. Holland, as soon as war broke out, was in a very difficult position when its Government realised that for months to come the united might of Britain and France would be unable to stop the advance of the German armies. Germany had reasons at that time for wishing to avoid an invasion of Holland. It is far too delicate a question now to discuss whether Holland would have been wiser as well as more generous in intervening to save Belgium, risking a Teutonic invasion, which, after all, she might have been able to repel, and which would inevitably have been followed by the most serious injury to Germany (for a Dutch admission to the Western Powers then, or at any later time in the war, would have been a decisive factor against Germany). But in any case, Holland was entirely mistress of her own fate, and she chose the prudent line of strict neutrality, a neutrality which has been most scrupulously adhered to by the Dutch Government.

But this cautious policy has of itself been a disavowal of the whole Hague theory. It has been as though Holland has said to the world, "I allowed you to meet at The Hague and discuss any mortal thing you

GRAND OPEN AIR CEREMONY AT THE CRECHE.

The inauguration of the new building, The Creche will take place on Sunday next at three o'clock p.m. His Grace Archbishop Roy will officiate. Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the beautiful convent grounds cannot fail of being a rare attraction.

Rev. Father Healey of the Redemptorist Order will deliver the English sermon. His Honor Sir P. E. LeBlanc, Lieutenant-Governor and Sir Lomer Gouin will grace the occasion with their presence.

A splendid musical programme has been prepared by the St. Damase Cadets. The Rev. Ladies of the Good Shepherd who preside over The Creche cordially invite all friends and those interested in the charitable work to take part in the celebration. After years of patient waiting and hopefulness and against great odds the noble Sisters have arrived at the realization of their fondest dreams for the proper accommodation and comfort of the little abandoned ones committed to their motherly care. The stately building so delightfully situated on the historic and healthful heights of St. Foye stands as a monument worthy of the devoted energy of the good nuns and the generosity of its benefactors.—(Communicated).

QUEEN MARY'S NEEDLEWORK GUILD.

Montreal Branch Receives Letter of Thanks from Lady Lawley.

The following is an extract from a letter received by the Montreal branch of Queen Mary's Needlework Guild from Lady Lawley, honorary secretary, at the Guild Headquarters, in London, Eng.:

"I hardly know how to thank all those who have so kindly contributed and hope you will come to my aid by conveying the expression of Her Majesty's appreciation to the various branches and individual workers who have contributed to your last consignment. Her Majesty was much interested in the Indian-made socks, and much astonished what one of her little petticoats has been and is doing for the Cause, as we see that in addition to six cases of comforts made from the proceeds of this little petticoat, there is more to follow.

"The South African picture-books are delightful and I will send them to one of the Officers' Hospitals.

"The dressings have been despatched to Clivedon Hospital, as requested.

"I must not forget to mention the Comfort bags from Yarmouth, which were lovely and will be much appreciated.

"Should you by chance get any woman's and children's things, I should now be glad of a few, as I am asked for some for widows and orphans of officers, and as you know, our department for women and children has been closed.

"Could you let Mrs. Hamilton know that her shirt was quite correct?"

"With renewed thanks.

Yours truly,
(Signed) ANNIE LAWLEY.
Hon. Secretary.

liked, but your decisions and resolutions scarcely interested me, and I do not consider myself bound by them in any special degree."

Of course, if the Allies are not victorious, or not sufficiently victorious to impose their will on the Old World, we many have to be content to meet where the deciding factor of the banded neutrals wills that we shall meet, and accept the decisions of the International Council that the dominating neutrals will arrange. Personally, I cannot in the interests of humanity in general face any such humiliating contingency.
