THOUGHT NO BURGLARY TO ENTER WITH KEY.

So Pleads Not Guilty, Although Admits Stealing Watch.

"I do not plead guilty to burglary," said Samuel Bazin, this morning, "I got into the house with a key."

Clerk of the Court Denery could not see the difference and reiterated the charge of burglary. The accused finally pleaded not guilty. He wanted to draw a distinction between burglary and entering a house with keys, but the court would not countenance it.

The accused was jointly charged with William Murray of having entered the house of Mr. Alphonse Dannequin, of 1416 St. Denis street, on the 4th of April last, and stolen valuables, jewellery and furs amounting to $200. Rousseau resides at 1560 St. Denis street. One large ostrich feather was produced in Court, as one of the articles that had been recovered. It was valued at $25.

Murray volunteered the information that he stole nothing but a watch, and that he had only entered the house once. He registered a plea of not guilty to the charge as drawn. They will come up for preliminary enquete on the 11th.

INAUGURATION OF PRESIDENT POTTER

Vermont University Scene of Much Ceremony as New Head Takes Post.

Burlington, Vt., October 6.—The most notable gathering of educators in the history of Vermont assembled here to-day to participate in the ceremonies attending the inauguration of Mr. Guy Potter Benton, as the twelfth president of the University of Vermont, succeeding the late Rev. Dr. Mathew H. Buckham, whose death ended a college administration extending over a period of more than a quarter of a century.

The new president, Dr. Benton, resigned the presidency of Miami University to accept the presidency of the Burlington Institution.

RECOUNT ASKED IN QUEENS-SUNBURY

If This Fails Conservatives Will Enter Protest On Usual Grounds.

Special to The Montreal Star.
Fredericton, N.B., October 6.—An application for a recount of the votes cast in Sunbury-Queens at the recent election will probably be made before Judge Wilson in his chambers here to-morrow by the representatives of Mr. Luther B. Smith, the Conservative candidate in the constituency.

At the conclusion of the third session of Returning Officer Dykeman's declaration court, Col. McLean, the Liberal candidate was declared elected by a majority of 10. The total vote being 2,220 to 2,210.

There were thirty-two rejected ballots. In the event of the recount not resulting in upsetting the election of Col. McLean, it is altogether likely that a protest will be filed by the Conservatives.

At the declaration proceedings, and at the trial of William Wade, charged with operating loose ballots at the Lincoln pool in Sunbury County, the revelations have been many and startling.

CAMPAIN TREATED AS BIG WAR GAME.

Chiasso, October 6.—A despatch from Chiasso says the censorship is so blindly exercised and telegrams confiscated wholesale. The censorship has evidently entered into the plan of the Italian government, which seems to be making a general rehearsal of what the war would be if it had an adequate enemy to face.

In the present case the navy has proved its thorough fitness, and the army has shown wonderful rapidity of mobilization, while the armaments respond to the most modern requirements. The only thing lacking is an enemy.

ANNIVERSARY OF MCGILL'S FOUNDER OBSERVED TO-DAY

Hon. James McGill Was Born 167 Years Ago.

To-day signifies the one hundred and sixty-seventh birthday of McGill University's generous founder, the Hon. James McGill.

Subsequently he came to Montreal. In partnership with his brother Andrew, he became a leading merchant.

He identified himself closely with the city, and was a recognized leader in its educational life.

When the Royal Charter had been granted, and promises of further support given, this great institution of higher learning was organized.

The opening meeting held in Burnside House was largely attended. On October 15th, 1828, the date on which the Montreal Academy was united to the university.

The next twenty years were ones of great difficulty, the existence of the university being threatened, and the Medical Faculty only showing signs of life and progress.

In 1850, however, a number of benefactors attempted to solve the problem, the university was reorganized under an amended charter.

McGill's Utility Increases. If the future may be anticipated as the past, McGill's utility will in time be seen to grow with the growth of our country and providing all departments useful and honorable occupation.

T.R.H. The Duke and Duchess of Connaught Sailed for Canada To-day

GREAT CROWD PRESENT AT EUSTON STATION TO WISH THEM BON VOYAGE

Representative Canadians in London and Distinguished Englishmen Join in the Farewell—Their Royal Highnesses Take Affectionate Leave of Princess Patricia and Prince Arthur Who Will Follow Later—London Newspapers Unite in Good Wishes to the Duke—Party Met at Liverpool by Lord Mayor and Other Distinguished Persons and Escorted to Steamship.

(BY WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY FROM THE STAR'S STAFF CORRESPONDENT ABOARD THE EMPRESS OF IRELAND.)

Liverpool, October 6.—The Empress of Ireland, bearing the Duke of Connaught and his party, sailed from this port at 4.55 this afternoon, flying the Royal Standard by order of the King. The Royal special train arrived at Riverside station at 3.53 o'clock, and the Duke of Connaught immediately proceeded aboard, only stopping for a few moments to shake hands with the officers of the Ireland. The party while passing along the stage to the gangway, cordially greeted the assembled guests. The Duke and Duchess are apparently in excellent health.

By Special Cable From Our Own Correspondent.

London, October 6.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, bade farewell to London this morning in simple human fashion, prior to their departure from Euston station by special train for Liverpool to embark on the steamship Empress of Ireland for Quebec.

The Duke himself wore a plain morning coat with a sprig of white heather and a maple leaf in his buttonhole. He had a kindly word and a smile for everyone, including a tottering old man who had served under His Royal Highness in the latter's Fenian raid days in Canada, and had come to wish him God-speed on his return to the Dominion as Governor-General.

The Duchess was attired in a simple black travelling costume and black hat. She also wore a sprig of white heather.

TENDER FAREWELLS TO THE PRINCESS PATRICIA

The Duke and Duchess bade the tenderest of farewells to the Princess Patricia and Prince Arthur. The Princess Louise, the Duchess of Albany, and other members of Royalty were present to say good-bye. There were also three officers in their gold lace and plumes but otherwise there was no parade of pomp or power. It was just such a gathering as assemblies every day to bid adieu to those who have won many friends and great esteem.

"Au revoir, au revoir," said the Duke, as he kissed the Princess affectionately on both cheeks. "See you soon in Ottawa."

AMONG THOSE PRESENT AT THE RY. STATION

Among the Canadians present, with many of whom the Duke had a friendly word, were: Mr. W. L. Griffith, representing the Canadian Government; Mr. J. G. Colmer, representing the Canada Club, from which association of influential Anglo-Canadians beautiful baskets of fruit and flowers, had been sent aboard the Empress of Ireland for the Duchess; Lady and Miss Helen Kirkpatrick, Mr. P. C. Larkin, Canadian member of the new Imperial Trade Commission, with Mrs. Larkin; Mr. Campbell Nelles, Mr. H. H. Norman, representing the Grand Trunk Railway Co.; Mr. H. G. Brigg, representing the Canadian Pacific Railway Company; Mr. Scott Griffin, representing the Canadian Northern Railway; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Armour; Mr. F. William Taylor, representing the Bank of Montreal; Mr. Ash, representing the Union Bank of Canada; Mr. Bothford, representing the Royal Bank of Canada; Hon. J. H. Turner, Agent-General of British Columbia.

There were also present many distinguished Englishmen, including the Duke of Argyll, Lord William Seymour and the Right Honorable Richard Harcourt, Colonial Secretary.

The station retriever dog, "Bob," said to relate, was prevented by the crush on the platform from doing his usual good business in collecting money for the hospitals and the collection box fastened to his curly black back for once went almost unnoticed.

The cheers which greeted the Duke's party as they drove through the lines of spectators in and about the station bespoke the popularity in which they are held as also do the comments in to-day's papers.

LONDON NEWSPAPERS ON DUKE'S DEPARTURE

The Times says: "Their Royal Highnesses may not have time to travel so far afield as Earl Grey has done, but they will bring to their new and splendid task the same spirit of comradeship rather than of patronage, and will stand but little on ceremony," and then, proceeding to argue against the late Sir John A. Macdonald's idea that Canada should be made a kingdom with its own branch of the royal family, the Times says: "This is not the line of development pointed out by the trend of Imperialistic sentiment in the last fifty years. The Royal Family has, in the nature of things, lived mainly for the British people in the British Isles, but the time has come when we shall share its presence more and more with the sister nations beneath the flag. That way and not the way of dividing divided kingdoms, lies the true Imperialistic ideal."

The thought in many minds to-day is how fortunate the Duke is in going to a Canada which has chosen the Imperial rather than the continental path of progress. The Daily Mail to-day makes a most pertinent allusion to this, when it says:

"Canada has refused to take that which might have brought her some immediate gain at the price of peril to the Imperial tie. None will better understand or more admire her act of splendid self-sacrifice than the Duke of Connaught, who himself refused a foreign throne that he might remain a British prince. It is well that in this age of Canada's progress and immense material growth and expansion a member of the British Royal House should represent the Throne in her beautiful capital of Ottawa, and that her devotion to the flag and her faith in the future of the Empire should be strengthened by the magnetic touch of personal affection and intimacy which the Duke of Connaught knows so well how to impart."

MANCHESTER GUARDIAN'S "UNNEEDED WARNING"

The Manchester Guardian, speaking as a leading Radical organ, gives what itself declares to be an unnecessary reminder to the Duke that the most powerful strain of sentiment in the recent elections was the feeling for Canadian nationalism and belief that Canada should work out her own fortune on lines that seem best to her, uninfluenced by any pressure from without. The Guardian adds: "It is for the best interests both of Canada and the Empire that there be no such pressure; still more that it should not come from the Governor-General, who should play no personal part in the political contentions of the day, and most of all that it should not be associated with a close connection of the Crown. There is not the slightest reason to suppose that it will be. We remember the admirable tone and spirit of the Duke's public references to South Africa's conduct of her affairs, but it is well for us all to remember that an appointment of this kind is not a mere decorative honor. It involves great responsibilities to Imperial interests."

WINDERMERE

Their Royalties At Liverpool

From a Staff Correspondent Aboard the Empress of Ireland.

Liverpool, October 6.—Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught sailed from here this afternoon on the Empress of Ireland. They arrived in Liverpool but a short time before the vessel was due to leave and they had no more than gotten fairly settled aboard ship before the order to weigh anchor was given. Rousing cheers were given by those on the dock as the ship pulled out and a forest of waving handkerchiefs gave a last parting salute.

DEPARTURE KEPT FREE FROM UNDUE CEREMONIAL

It was the expressed wish of H.R.H. the Duke that the departure from Liverpool should be kept as free from elaborate ceremonial as it could possibly be, and his desire in this regard was observed to a marked degree. However, the Lord Mayor of Liverpool, the Lady Mayoress, and a number of distinguished citizens assembled at the Riverside Railway station to greet the royal, special on its arrival and to welcome the Duke and his suite. Included in the party which greeted their royalties were Major-General C. W. Park, representing Major-General Sir Henry MacKinnon, with four staff officers; General E. C. Bethune; Mr. H. R. Robertson, chairman of the Liverpool Dock Board, with Miss Robertson; Mr. George McL. Brown, European manager, and Mr. F. W. Foster, Liverpool representative of the C.P.R. Co.

LADS FROM TRAINING HOME FORM AN ESCORT.

Inside the station a guard of honor selected from the Sixth Battalion of the Liverpool Regiment was drawn up, while along the special route from the station to the Prince's landing stage, a short distance away, a company of lads from the Lancashire Sea Training Homes at Lisicard, formed a special guard of honor.

The royal party comprised H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught; H.R.H. the Duchess of Connaught; the Hon. Miss Pelly, lady-in-waiting; Lieut.-Col. H. C. Lowther, military secretary to the Duke; Capt. Walter Long, of the Royal Navy, aide-de-camp; Lieut. the Hon. A. Ramsey, aide-de-camp. Major Murray, comptroller of the Household, accompanied the party as far as Liverpool, but returned to London after the embarkation. The Major will accompany the Princess Patricia when she leaves for Canada in December, after her visit to Sweden.

The royal passengers found everything on board ship ready for their reception. A royal suite of rooms had been prepared in advance. For over a week Stateroom No. 120 on the lower promenade deck and the three adjoining cabins had been in the hands of a small army of workmen undergoing preparations for their royal occupants. A partition had been removed and a passageway eliminated so that an intercommunicating series of three rooms had been provided. The furnishings were in quiet but rich simplicity, in conformity with the quiet tastes of the Duke and the Duchess. One room, the largest of the three and about twice the size of an ordinary stateroom, had been converted into a sitting-room. This is furnished with a suite of tastefully contrived furniture of the Chippendale style, very comfortable-looking but suggestive also of marked newness. The sleeping rooms are similarly furnished.

The absence of all ostentation gives renewed evidence of the intention of their Royal Highnesses to preserve to the full the democratic traditions of Rideau Hall.

PARTY WILL DINE IN ORDINARY SALOON

Throughout the trip across the Atlantic the party will dine in the saloon with the other first-class passengers. When I came aboard the Empress yesterday, as the vessel lay in Sandon dock, two of the alcoves in the saloon dining room were receiving the finishing touches in anticipation of the Ducal party's arrival. They are on the port side of the vessel and farthest aft. It is here that the royal guests will take their meals—in comparative seclusion, but unisolated in any way from the remainder of the passengers. Similar alcoves, in fact, run the full length of the saloon on both sides of the vessel.

The preparations for the embarkation of the royal party attracted numerous sightseers to the vessel while she was in port. All were eager to catch a glimpse of the apartments prepared for the distinguished passengers, but would-be visitors had to run the gauntlet of the ship's watchful officers and none were allowed aboard without a special permit.

The Ireland is carrying almost a full complement of passengers. For some days past the saloon list has been filled up and late applicants, of whom there were several, had to be disappointed.

The Empress of Ireland bore a festive air as she slipped down the Mersey into the Irish Sea. From stem to stern she was decked in colors, with H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught's flag flying at the main, every steamer and ferry in the river gave a whistle as a parting salute as she passed, and from the crowds on the landing stage the cheers rippled over the water.

The weather, which had been threatening last night in a cheerless drizzle gripped the city, but the sun broke through the clouds sufficiently this morning to lift some of the usual mist over the Mersey, and add their quota to the greeting on shore.

Liverpool, October 6.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught expressed much gratification with the arrangements made for their reception at Liverpool and expressed themselves as charmed with the basket of fruit from the Canadian Club of London, and for the bouquet of flowers from the French Canadian Association, wishing them bon voyage. They also expressed gratification and thanks to the Canadian Pacific Railway for the arrangements made for their comfort during the voyage. His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, was conducted on board by Mr. Piers, the Duchess by Mr. MacLaren Brown, of the C.P.R. The band at the station played the "Maple Leaf." A large crowd was present.

The general crowd of onlookers, both on shore and the Duke's fellow-passengers, raised hearty greetings which the distinguished voyagers repeatedly acknowledged. Their general bearing indicated that they were looking forward to the voyage with feelings of the keenest pleasure, and the sincere and hearty manner in which the Duke responded to those privileged to give him their personal good wishes, showed that His Royal Highness's replies were no mere formal commonplaces.

At the same moment that the Duke stepped on board the Royal Standard was broken at the masthead by special command of the king.

Their Royal Highnesses remained in view of the crowd for the whole time prior to the time of sailing.

The whole incidents relating to the departure of the vessel occupied little more than half an hour, and when at 4.20 p.m. were cast off and the liner forged out into the river and proceeded towards the broad Atlantic a round of cheers were given by those on the shore and responded to heartily by those on the boat.

LIBERAL GOVERNMENT'S RESIGNATION HANDED TO GOVERNOR-GENERAL

Mr. R. L. Borden Immediately Called Upon to Form New Ministry by Earl Grey, and Accepted the Task—Asked for Few Days Delay in Which to Form His Cabinet—Full Attendance of Ministers at Last Cabinet Meeting This Morning—Installation of New Ministry Expected Within Fifteen Days.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Ottawa, October 6.—The Laurier Government this afternoon yielded to the mandate of the Canadian electorate and submitted to His Excellency the Governor-General the resignations of its Ministers. Mr. R. L. Borden was immediately called upon to form a Government.

The final sitting of the Cabinet began this morning at eleven o'clock in the Privy Council Chamber, and lasted till one o'clock. There was practically a full attendance of the Ministers, and following the putting through of a little routine, some time was spent in talking over the situation. Then the Ministers took leave of each other, and left the Council Chamber, thus marking the end of the Liberal Government, after fifteen years of office.

The occasion was not without its funeral aspect. After the final meeting of the Cabinet, Sir Wilfrid Laurier drove to Government House, where he met His Excellency and submitted to him the resignations of himself and his Ministers. The interview, which was purely formal, did not take long. Afterward a messenger was despatched by Earl Grey to Mr. Borden, at the latter's private residence, and the Premier-elect immediately went to the Vice-regal residence, where he was called upon to form a government. Mr. Borden accepted the responsibility, but asked for a few days' delay to prepare the list of his Ministers.

It is not likely that the personnel of the Cabinet will be announced before Monday, when the members will be sworn in, and afterwards go back to their constituencies for re-election. As none of them are likely to be opposed they should all be installed within fifteen days. All the Ministers left their offices this afternoon, and handed over the keys to be kept for their successors.

It is expected that Mr. Borden will take possession of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's quarters to-morrow.

North-Western Railway system; then through busy, smoky Warrington.

The special train, bearing the Royal party, left Euston station at 11.55 o'clock. Their Royal Highnesses occupied semi-Royal coaches, which were decorated with carnations, chrysanthemums and roses. Luncheon was served on the train during the couple of hours' journey to Liverpool.

Almost up to the time when the masts and funnels of Merseyside came into view the skies shed a tearful farewell to the Royal voyagers. The mighty river itself looked swollen and sullen.

The Canadian Pacific Company's steamer, Empress of Ireland, lay out in midstream until shortly before the Royal party's embarkation, but the tender was busy throughout the whole of the morning conveying favored guests to view the accommodation which had been provided for the Duke of Connaught's party.

The weather improved to a pleasant degree in Liverpool towards the afternoon, and the sun was struggling through the banks of mist lying over the river as the great liner came to the landing stage from midstream at three o'clock.

The Union Jack flew from several buildings adjoining the docks. The scene, with civic and military uniforms, lending a welcome touch of color, and the sun now shining in real good earnest, was a most enlivening one, when the Duke's special train steamed into Riverside station. Cameras were busy all the time.

To detain was the work of but a few minutes. Their Royal Highnesses smilingly acknowledged the greetings of those who awaited them at the station. As the party emerged, the band burst forth with the National Anthem, all the military and the ship's officers and crew standing at the salute. His Royal Highnesses also saluted. All the civilians stood with heads uncovered.

The Duke then inspected the guard of honor and afterwards proceeded to the liner's gangway at the entrance to which he was received by Captain Forster, the ship's commander.

The general crowd of onlookers, both on shore and the Duke's fellow-passengers, raised hearty greetings which the distinguished voyagers repeatedly acknowledged. Their general bearing indicated that they were looking forward to the voyage with feelings of the keenest pleasure, and the sincere and hearty manner in which the Duke responded to those privileged to give him their personal good wishes, showed that His Royal Highness's replies were no mere formal commonplaces.

WOULD FORCE STREET RAILWAY IMPROVE SERVICE

Ald. Lariviere Will Bring Delay Caused by Amalgamation Up in Council.

"As the Railway Commission has decided," said Ald. Lariviere to-day, "that it has no jurisdiction in the matter of the amalgamation of the Park and Island Railway Co., and the Terminal Railway Co., with the Street Railway Co. I have decided to bring the question of the Street Railway's contract with the city before the City Council at its meeting on Monday. As is known, the Company has held that it can enter into no new extension of franchise, better service, etc., until this amalgamation scheme was completed. I shall ask the Council on Monday if it is the intention of the city to put up with the present service for another year. What the Council ought to do now is to notify the company that a better service must be given at once. The Council has power to order this whether the company is given an extension of franchise or not. I will continue any more delay on the Company's part, in giving citizens a better service."

Aquatic Polo Association New President—Toronto Soccer Team Plays Here

THE CANADIAN AQUATIC POLO ASSOCIATION ELECTED L. G. NORRIS PRESIDENT—Y. M. C. A. TEAMS ARE OUT

At the annual meeting of the Canadian Aquatic Polo Association, which was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at Dominion Square, the following were elected to office for the coming year: President, Mr. Leonard G. Norris, of C. P. R. A.; 1st vice-president, Mr. E. D. Vernet, of Nautique; 2nd vice-president, Mr. Lee Smith, of McGill; secretary, Mr. A. W. Ross, of Nautique, 1874 St. Catherine street, east. There will be six clubs represented in both the senior and intermediate leagues this season. The Y. M. C. A. failed to enter their teams this season, but the M. A. A. entered both a senior and an intermediate team in their place.

The six clubs represented at the meeting were: Montreal S. C., the Nautique, the Laurentian, the C. P. R. A., the McGill and the M. A. A. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, the 11th, at the M. A. A. club house on Peel street, at 8.30 p. m. for the purpose of drawing up the schedule.

Mr. E. D. Vernet of the Nautique Polo Club and Mr. Urie Cypriot of the Laurentian Polo Club, passed the examinations of the Royal Life Saving Society at the Laurentian Baths last night, for general proficiency, certificates and also the test for bronze medals. Mr. Cypriot and Mr. A. W. Ross represented the Life Saving Society and they had quite an easy time of it in trying Mr. Cypriot and Mr. Vernet as both are expert swimmers.

The Montreal Swimming Club held a real lively polo practice at the Laurentian Baths last night. Mostly all of the old champions turned out to the call, the only one missing from the old line up was "Billy" Wilson, who is at present in Chicago. Big Bill Williams the former McGill star, turned out with the island boys and with him in a senior costume this year, the champions should be able to go through without a defeat again.

Mr. Lane added that the league never in its history had a president or an official who had done so much for the game or had worked so hard on behalf of the league, as Mr. Hart. This statement was warmly endorsed by the delegates present, and they all wished Mr. Hart the best of luck in his new home in Welland.

The British Columbia Amateur Swimming Association, having affiliated with the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association, has applied for and received sanction for two Canadian swimming championships, viz., the 850 yards speed and the 100 yards ladies' speed.

The races will be held on October 23rd at Victoria, B. C., in the tank of the Y. M. C. A. Entries close on the 19th, and should be made to Mr. C. H. Hopper, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., or to Leonard G. Norris, honorary secretary, C. S. A., 58 Church street, who will supply blanks.

Longboat's Latest Victory.

Stratford, Ont., October 6.—Tom Longboat won a popular but mighty close race from A. E. Wood at eight miles at the Roller Rink last night. Fully one thousand people watched the race, which was fast all the way. The first mile was ripped off in 4.32 and the eight in 41.22. Early in the race the Indian made a futile attempt to lose the Englishman, and thereafter to the finish it was almost neck and neck. Longboat printed away in the last lap and finished about fifteen feet to the good.

BYRNE'S CLEVER RIDING CANNED QUESTION MARK

Sensational Third Race at Laurel Provides Fastest Mile of the Meet.

Special to The Montreal Star.

Baltimore, Md., October 6.—Bright skies and a fast track were the order again yesterday afternoon at the new course of the Maryland State Fair Association at Laurel when a well-balanced card of six races, which included a steeplechase, was run off. This was the commencement of the step-chasing over the new course and only two out of the five starters which went to the post, finished the course. The jumps are stiff, they being built well up to the United Hunt's rules, and the event was not as successful as the other events, the boys seemingly being at sea as to the course and the lay of it.

The race was won by Diabold, which was not started in some time. The track was remarkably improved yesterday afternoon, the fastest mile of the meet being run by Madrugall, the recent purchase of Capt. P. M. Watter, from the stable of Mrs. L. A. Livingstone. This is the second victory for the horse since changing hands. There were fewer winners than on any of the previous ones, only four being scratched out of the fifty-seven named in the overnight entries. The going has so improved that a number of the owners who shipped away are asking for their stalls back again and will race out the meeting at Laurel.

QUEBEC'S ARENA TO BE READY FOR SEASON 1912-13

Disgusted at Rumors of Dropping Capital City From Association.

The following letter shows how keenly Quebec feels her position in hockey: Quebec, October 5, 1911.

Sporting Editor Montreal Daily Star.

Sir,—Following, as per clipping attached (referring to dropping Quebec), appeared in outside as well as in our local papers, and as I consider it unjust towards the Quebec Hockey Club, who after working all summer and succeeding in getting their names down for large amounts towards construction of an Arena, are confronted with this sort of rumor, it is rather dampening on our efforts, as it hampers the whole deal, besides the Quebec Club has signed four or five of its players, and has two new men in sight. So here are a few lines to let you know that we are not giving up, and as one of the managers of the Quebec Hockey Club, I can say that we now have the right to put up the most up-to-date Arena in Canada, so please dispel these reports, as it hampers the whole deal, besides the Quebec Club has signed four or five of its players, and has two new men in sight. THE SALIENT POINTS.

World's Baseball Championship, 1911:

Contestants — Philadelphia (American League); New York (National League).

Managers — Connie Mack (Phila.), John I. McGraw (N. Y.).

Number of games, six. Seven in case of tie.

Dates.

October 16—At New York.

October 16—At Philadelphia.

October 17—At New York.

October 18—At Philadelphia.

October 19—At New York.

October 20—At Philadelphia.

Umpires — Klem and Brennan; Connolly and Dineen.

New York, October 6.—The National Commission to-day decided to play the first of the world's baseball championship games at the Polo grounds here Saturday, October 15. The choice was determined by the toss of a coin. Ben Shibe, president of the league, called head and the coin settled with tails up. The games will alternate between the two cities.

The following schedule for the games was adopted: October 14, 17 and 18 at New York; October 16, 18 and 20, at Philadelphia.

Game begins at 2 o'clock.

Should any of the games be postponed on account of rain or from any other cause, the commission decided that the visiting nine shall remain in the city where the game was scheduled until it can be played.

A postponement of any game would, therefore, necessitate a change in the remainder of the schedule. The commission also decided that the seventh game should be necessary to decide the championship should be played in New York. In the event of a tie, the game must be played off on the grounds on which the tie occurred before the next game is played.

Umpires Klem and Brennan were detailed by the National League for the contest, and Umpires Connolly and Dineen by the American League.

Giants Start Off Favorites.

The Giants will take the field as favorites at odds of 6 to 5, according to the betting here to-day. Half a million dollars, it is estimated, will be wagered on the contest.

A Philadelphia syndicate is said to have a pool of $35,000 to bet on the Athletics. There is another pool, it is reported, of $20,000, also to take the shorts. Wall street brokers are reported to be looking for Philadelphia money, while a score of well known gamblers of sport have declared that they will bet $100,000 on the Athletics to $30,000 on the Giants.

Ten thousand dollars is reported to have been actually placed on the Athletics, but after the bet was made with spades became dissatisfied and the bet was declared off to be resumed on the day of the first encounter. If this decision goes in the box for the Giants on the first day, both sides calculate that odds of about 7 to 5 on the game will be right.

Heavy freak bets have been recorded. One is that of a Pittsburgher, who has wagered $300 to $50 that the Giants will win three straight victories. Another, of $150 to $500 is to the effect that Mathewson will be knocked out of the box after the first game he pitches. A third is that the New York team will not get more than three hits off Conner, and a fourth man has wagered a considerable sum that the Athletics will steal more bases than the Giants.

A dozen book makers have recorded wagers of from $500 to $5,000 at odds money, 6 to 5 and 7 to 5, the Giants being the favorites of the betting. Several carloads of hoodlums and overcoats, it is estimated, have been wagered by the fans.

Montreal Horse Gets Honors

Mr. Wm. P. Kearney's Aria Scores Great Victory at Brockton, Mass. Horse Show.

Aria has thus far competed in four classes and has been awarded two blues—was twice placed second to Mr. J. W. Harriman's high acting stallion Nala—winner's champion.

Mr. Kearney's brilliant actor is now entitled to battle for the heavy harness horse championship of America, which will be decided to-day. Practically every horse that will be seen at the Garden in November is being shown at Brockton and it is reported that this year's exhibition is the greatest ever held in twelve years.

216 Answer Yale Call

Record-Breaking Registration of Candidates for the Crews.

New Haven, Conn., October 6.—The careful canvass of the university by Capt. Romeyn for candidates for the Yale crew attracted 216 students when registration closed yesterday, a record-breaking total. Capt. Romeyn was here to take charge of the reorganization of the rowing, under the newly formed graduate coaching system—Bob Cook, the veteran coach; Jim Rodgers, the new head coach; Fred Stevenson, captain of the 1888 crew, which made the record which has never been broken, and Fred Allen, captain of the 1900 crew. Two eighteens were formed as follows:

First—Stroke Snowden; No. 7, McCHenry; No. 6, Ross; No. 5, Stevenson; No. 4, Denman; No. 3, Bugbee; No. 2, Rodgers; bow, Gore; coxswain, Shepard.

Second—Stroke Beck; No. 7, Capt. Romeyn; No. 6, Spencer; No. 5, Chandler; No. 4, Beale; No. 3, Pease; No. 2, Appleton; bow, Street; coxswain, Barum.

As now composed, the first eight is the freshman crew which defeated Harvard last June on the Thames.

Fall baseball work began at Yale yesterday, and a more extended programme than ever is planned. Frank Quibby, the new head coach, arrived, and with Harold Carhart, last year's catcher, who has been appointed acting captain by Capt. Merritt, the freshman squad was set to work. About fifty candidates have already registered. The varsity will begin practice to-day, and the class and Varsity squad will work as late this fall as weather will permit.

MR. JUSTICE DUGAS BACK FROM YUKON MEETS OLD FRIENDS

Likes the North, But Is Glad to Get Back to Montreal, He Says. RETURN IS PART OF OLD GOVT.'S POLICY. Only Work Enough at Present to Keep One Judge Busy.

Mr. Justice Dugas, senior judge of the Superior Court of the Yukon district, who is well remembered in Montreal, where he sat as Judge of the Sessions for over twenty years, has returned from the Yukon and is at present staying with his sister, Mme. Ledieu, on Sherbrooke street, east.

In an interview with a representative of the Star this morning, the Judge, who seemed in good health and excellent spirits, expressed his unfeigned delight at being back in civilization once more. "It is not so much the cold or the excessive cost of living, from three to five times what you pay here, that makes any one residing in that far off region, over 4,000 miles away, glad to get back, if even for a short time only. It is the sense of distance, the complete absence of news, or, rather, the fact that when you do receive it, many days have elapsed, and in consequence, the news has grown old and stale. I was fortunate in leaving Dawson City just before navigation had ceased. Owing to the severe outbreak of smallpox with which the region has been visited this year, the influx of tourists and prospectors fell far below the average of ordinary years."

COMPLETE UNITY OF METHODISM SPEAKERS' PLEA

Maryland Delegate Rouses Enthusiasm by His Fervid Appeal to This End. RESPONSIBILITY OF CHURCH WORLD WIDE. Danger of Multitude Lapsing Into Materialistic Attitude Pointed Out.

Special to The Montreal Star. Toronto, Ont., October 6.—The third day of the Ecumenical Conference was greeted with dull and dripping skies. Foreign missionary enterprise was the topic, and Bishop C. S. Smith, of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, presided. The devotional service was conducted by Bishop C. T. Shaffer.

Among the announcements was a cable message from the Methodist Episcopal Church in India, a verse from the Epistle to the Thessalonians. The Conference delegates will gather for a group photograph, on Saturday noon. A tremendous appeal for the unity of the Methodist churches, if they were to be efficient in missions, was made by Rev. T. H. Lewis, of Maryland. "Love alone keeps the flame alive," he said, "if the Methodists were united, they might ask for the conversion of the world, and it would be given them. The very altar cries out to us, 'Go thy way, first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come to thy gift.'"

Charged with threatening to kill his wife and two days' old baby because they were unable to take care of themselves, Joseph Louzon, 374 St. Timothy street, was arraigned before Judge Burt this morning. Louzon pleaded not guilty to the charge of threatening the life of his wife, and was remanded until the 13th for enquete.

CITY VS. M.S.R.

Argument Over Car Service for Emard Ward. Argument on the petition for a mandamus against the Montreal Street Railway Co. to force the company to give a service to Emard ward, took place this morning. The city attorneys argued that the company was bound by the act of legislature to give the service requested, while Mr. T. Binnett, for the company, pleaded that a mandamus could not be issued on a private contract, and that the city and the company were bound only by a private contract. If the city found that it had any claim against the company for the non-fulfillment of a contract, the only remedy was a regular action for damages.

MANY UNCONFIRMED RUMORS IN ROME.

Rome, October 6.—News has been received here that Turkish destroyers retreating from the Dardanelles, several of them attempted to approach the Italian fleet at night and blow it up, but the Italian destroyers and torpedo boats always detected the enemy in time. The report that two torpedo boats were sunk by the Italian fleet yesterday morning cannot be verified. The report that a part of the Turkish fleet is not in the Dardanelles, but in the Aegean sea, is confirmed here, but its objective point is not known. A report that the squadron commanded by the Duke of Abruzzi sank two more Turkish torpedo boats in the Adriatic cannot be verified.

HAS A VISION OF CHURCH UNIVERSAL.

At the evening session of the Ecumenical Conference, Rev. W. H. Fithett, L.L.D., of the Australian Methodist Church, speaking on "Methodism and its Place in the Church Universal," said that out of the mechanical uniformity of Rome's deal and the diversity of Protestantism some day a greater religion will emerge with some idea of perspective and with some of the best of both each fragment has contributed to the whole. "Only then," he said, "can we have an adequate interpretation of church history."

HAS A VISION OF CHURCH UNIVERSAL.

At the evening session of the Ecumenical Conference, Rev. W. H. Fithett, L.L.D., of the Australian Methodist Church, speaking on "Methodism and its Place in the Church Universal," said that out of the mechanical uniformity of Rome's deal and the diversity of Protestantism some day a greater religion will emerge with some idea of perspective and with some of the best of both each fragment has contributed to the whole. "Only then," he said, "can we have an adequate interpretation of church history."

LADY TRAVELLER IN RHODESIA ON HER EXPERIENCES

White Children Neglected While Money Pours Into Country to Educate Natives. A lady traveller in Rhodesia has written a book on her experiences, from which the following extracts are made: In a work of travel one expects at once a narrative of adventures, and of information. There is still vast area of the globe's surface left unexplored in the true sense: unvisited about in a way entertaining and instructive to the booklover and the student. For though many men pass to and fro in strange places, upon not everyone has been bestowed the gift of narrating their experiences, their impressions, and the knowledge gained in a manner valuable and helpful. Many travellers' tales have come from the wonderland of Africa; weird tales of a vast and of, in parts, a little-known country. In many instances the purely sensational predominates, and the pictures of life as it actually is, the customs and characteristics of the peoples, and the majesty of Nature, undisturbed by the meddlings of men, are disposed of with but scanty attention. In "Via Rhodesia," by Charlotte Mansfield, who accompanied only by native carriers, journeyed through the wilds of Rhodesia, we have a valuable addition to the literature of that marvellous country. The reading public has been given but little concerning the actual conditions of living in that great land which holds the grave of Cecil Rhodes, and in "Via Rhodesia" the reader will find not only an entertaining narrative, pleasingly simple and directly told, but an amount of information valuable alike to the tourist and the prospective settler. Why was the journey made? The author had heard of Rhodesia's vast, empty lands; and after a reference to the deplorable conditions existing in crowded cities, she remarks: "After thinking over Rhodesia as a possible settling-place for the middle classes who find life such a struggle in England, I decided that it would be a good thing to go—not for sport, but to try to gather together those little details which perhaps, would help intending immigrants, and, from a woman's point of view, ascertain the possibilities of Rhodesia as a good settling ground for women."

Auction Sale Horses, Waggon, Buggies, Sleighs, Harness Blankets, Tents, Etc.

WALTER M. KEARNS, Auctioneer. "Take Basement and Pie IX electric car to corner of St. Catherine, or Ontario and Levesque-sts."

Black and White.

One of the chapters of the book deals with educated natives, and it is remarked that throughout Africa there are white children in large numbers who can neither read nor write, and know very little of religion, of the right kind of men have been the pioneers and the result is that one succeeds on one's own merits and personality. The beginner on a ten-acre plot has as much chance socially as the owner of many thousand acres.

The Rhodes Memorial.

"The site chosen for the Rhodes Memorial," says the author, "is one of grandeur on a height, as all memorials to idealists should be, and commands the view of a vast panorama. It is used to being the burial place of Cecil Rhodes in the Matopos spoken of in this World's View, but rather should this name be given to the view, obtained from this hill, for here is the World's View of life, there is the World's End—Death. Here, on a spot not far from the foot of the present monument, the world's greatest modern imperialist sat morning after morning. Maybe the vastness of this view, the panorama embracing two oceans, the Indian on the one side, the Atlantic on the other, with the wealth of a verdant world between, inspired him to develop his ambitions, and gave birth to his ideals. "Silence and solitude; no greatness was ever yet achieved without them, nor without them was the just reward of greatness, perfect rest, ever attained. The concentrated silence and solitude of all time seemed to hover over the Matopos. Surely since creation first caused those rugged mountains to rise, no one has laughed in their midst. Or, if any human voices rose in mirth or derision, did not the solemn voices of the wind turn back upon themselves the frail echoes of the sound of fools? Granite, hard, inflexible as fate, under one's feet granite towering above one's head, till its apex seemed to pierce the blue vault of heaven, on every side granite, and a feeling from the moment one leaves behind motor or cart that one stands upon consecrated ground. One feels the presence of Rhodes' life on the hill side near Groote Schuur where his memorial stands, one knows that the spirit of the dead has risen from those bones which lie at rest under the granite slab and involuntarily one looks upward, almost expecting to see a spirit face watching and still guarding the Rhodessa."

MR. RUSSELL MADE OFFER OF FURS AND DIAMONDS

This is Story of Mr. G. S. Dougherty, Deputy Police Commissioner of New York.

HAD ALL "BUFFALOED" DECLARES THIS WITNESS

Mr. Allan Pinkerton is Also Heard as Witness in Alleged Conspiracy Case.

Mr. G. S. Dougherty, now a Deputy Police Commissioner of the city of New York, and formerly a superintendent of the Pinkertons, was one of the witnesses examined yesterday in the suit of Mr. David Russell against the detective agency, and proved an interesting one.

Another interesting witness was Mr. Allan Pinkerton, grandson of the famous founder of the organization, and one of the principals of the company. Mr. Dougherty said that when Mr. Russell was in New York he, Mr. Russell, seemed to have every one "buffaloed."

Mr. Russell was in New York he, Mr. Russell, seemed to have every one "buffaloed." He said that Mr. Russell was flashing a lot of money and that he had offered to send furs and diamonds to Mr. Dougherty's wife.

"If you do, I'll send them back," Mr. Dougherty avers he answered.

Mr. Dougherty told the court that the New York operatives slipped up in their shadow of Mr. Patterson and Mrs. Allen on the latter's arrival in New York, but afterwards located their quarry.

Mr. Allan Pinkerton Denies Interviews.

When the Russell case was resumed yesterday afternoon, Mr. Allan Pinkerton, the grandson of the founder of the agency, and one of the principals of the company, stood up to testify.

"Did you give any interviews to newspaper men about this case?" asked Mr. Macmaster.

"I do not think that I have spoken to newspapermen for ten years," replied Mr. Pinkerton.

The witness was then confronted with a clipping from the New York American of January 7th, which was supposed to be an interview given by the witness to one of the reporters of that paper.

"Is this interview that this paper was kind enough to give you correct?" asked Mr. Macmaster.

"It is not genuine. Not as far as I am concerned, there is no truth in it."

Mr. Pinkerton repudiated the interview that the New York American published in the early part of January. He was in Rhinebeck that day.

He was not in the city when he was supposed to be talking to a reporter from the New York American. Another interview had appeared from New York in the Montreal Star on the 23rd of January.

"I do not recall any interview, whatever," said Mr. Pinkerton.

Mr. Geoffroy asked the witness if he were aware that previous to these articles being written another paper had mentioned the case.

"It is the standard, as a matter of fact," said Mr. Geoffroy. Witness knew naught about that.

Mr. Dougherty, New York Police Commissioner.

Mr. G. S. Dougherty, a former Superintendent of the Pinkertons at New York, and now Deputy Commissioner of Police for the City of New York, was called to the stand by the Pinkertons for 23 years previous to their retirement last year.

Mr. Dougherty was very brief in his replies, and was the first witness that did not have to be admonished to speak so little louder.

He was the man who had been in charge of the shadowing of Patterson and the woman in black when they returned to New York from Montreal.

He had received instructions from the Montreal office to do so. He detailed two men to look after the couple, but they eluded him. The man was located at the Astor House afterwards, and the woman at the Merlins Hotel.

In the meantime witness said he was receiving communications from McNamara over the phone and wire, telling him that their part of the job had been bungled.

"Detail six men if necessary," McNamara had said, "but locate the couple." He had put on all the men available.

Mr. Russell Criticized New York Report.

When witness met Mr. Russell in New York, the latter had been very chagrined and criticized the report handed to him by the Pinkertons. Mr. McNamara, their Montreal manager and one of the defendants in this case, had also criticized their work and the way the New York end of the investigation had been handled.

MR. KENNETH R. MACPHERSON, K.C. Who conducted the examination of Detective Dougherty yesterday.

His report to Mr. Russell on that morning read that the woman was the regulation type of "sporting woman."

As far as Patterson was concerned he informed Mr. Russell that the man was the Vice-President and General Manager of an enamelling concern.

Witness had qualified that report by giving it for what it was worth. He had asked for further authority to investigate this report in Pittsburgh.

He had never given it to Mr. Russell, but information that he could vouch for himself personally.

Witness Was Accused of Falsehood.

Mr. Russell had said that the report presented to him was all wrong. "Several times he accused me of telling falsehoods, and that the report had been cooked up to cover up the poor work of our operatives in New York," continued the witness.

Mr. Russell then wanted to go and see Inspector Russell, of the New York City Force and have the woman arrested. Immediately, Witness and Chief Carpenter had argued with him to the contrary.

"Why do you not go and see this woman and have a talk with her," Mr. Dougherty said he advised Mr. Russell. "No, he would not go and see the woman."

"Well, then, go to Pittsburgh and see the man," advised the witness, and this course was declined upon.

The famous $1,000 to $10,000 wager was discussed. Mr. Dougherty was very emphatic when he said that he had taken up the bet at the time, but afterwards attempted to call it off.

Mr. Russell would not agree to call the bet off, and the woman arrested. Another interview had appeared from New York in the Montreal Star on the 23rd of January.

"I do not recall any interview, whatever," said Mr. Pinkerton.

Mr. Geoffroy asked the witness if he were aware that previous to these articles being written another paper had mentioned the case.

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY. From a Special Correspondent. New York, October 6. SIR FREDERICK POLLACK, the famous British jurist, now delivering a course of lectures at Columbia University, was asked to-day what woman's real status was under the law. "Really," you know," he replied, "this question is a little bit of a back number with us. The married woman's property act was passed several years ago, and conditions have bettered immensely. I understood that this act had been copied in some of your States."

Therefore it became men to take thought for her and not put her in a position where her 'rights' would force her to take thought for herself. "But the legislation all over the world during the past thirty or forty years has taken a fairer trend. As I have said, in England to-day, the power over one's husband what can be done with it" ended Sir Frederick with a smile. "Then you don't think woman suffers from her husband's unequal justice for the sexes?" "I'm not saying that," replied Sir Frederick, "I don't believe it or any other thing is a panacea of reform."

"I think that if women voted some things would be accomplished, but no changes would be made in the other side hopes and the other side fears. The logical way to judge the suffrage question is to study the work in countries where it is already being tried. New Zealand and Australia are two of these countries. "I believe that the women who take the time and trouble to go to the polls and vote are good women; if they were not they would not bother. And up till now woman suffrage in the countries I have mentioned has been productive of no harm, so far as I can judge, and has certainly accomplished some good."

Blushing at the suggestion that she is "easy" the Baroness, who was the wife of the late Baron, sister of the well-known English aviator, called Wednesday on the Baroness. "With her was the Baron, who also called. At first neither would deny the rumor of their engagement. "It was not my fault," she said, "I was with a glance at Miss Grahame-White. "And I had scrambled eggs for breakfast. "It isn't true—the engagement rumor," said the young lady. "No, not yet," declared the Baron, who, by the way, is thirty-seven years old and handsome. "Do you expect to be before you reach the other side?" asked a persistent questioner. "You never can tell," said the Baron, whereupon both he and his fair companion laughed.

Miss Grahame-White came over to attend the aeroplane meets with her brother, Claude Grahame-White, at Boston and Nassau Boulevard. The Baron had been here for a couple of months. A new quotation came to-day in the market of love. For many years the courts have been quibbling prices against all sorts of affection, ranging from the insipid interests of an unloved bride to the perverted emotion of a Titan beauty, who, at the full bloom of youth, finds man lacking and sues for either breach of promise, separation, divorce or desertion. The figures have ranged variously. "I considered him his man," said Mr. Macmaster. "That is one of the offences I am not guilty of." Mr. Macmaster: "You seem to display a little bit of temper, but I do not do anything else, until he instructed me, and I followed his orders." Calls Mr. Cochenhalter a Man Friday. "You let the word money drop a moment ago," did Mr. Russell offer you any money? "He told me I could name my own figure." "What authority have you for saying Mr. Cochenhalter was Mr. Russell's confidential adviser?" "I considered him his man," said Mr. Cochenhalter. "He had told me that when I looked these people not to do anything else, until he instructed me, and I followed his orders."

Leicester, England, October 6.—One of the greatest fires which has been experienced in this Midlands town broke out last night in one of the large hosiery factories, off Rutland Street, in the heart of the manufacturing district. The flames spread to adjoining factories and were carried off by St. George's Anglican Church, a magnificent stone structure with tall spire, which was totally destroyed. Three hosiery factories were burned down. A number of dwellings in the district were also damaged. The total loss is placed at $1,250,000, making the fire the most destructive Leicester has ever suffered. A WANT EXPERIENCE. An interesting experience came to light the other day, showing how thoughtful housekeepers often are in regard to the welfare of their servants. A young woman who was leaving town to make her home in another city. She had a servant who for several years had been a part of the household and was very highly regarded. When the change of residence was decided upon, the good housewife, through the means of a Star Want Ad, had located another splendid place for the servant, where her work would be less arduous and congenial and where her new employer, knowing of the splendid record the servant had made, would show her every consideration. This is but one of the thousands of little human interest stories that are enacted through Star Want ads. The movement designed to reduce the cost of living by the establishment at various points of markets where the truck farmers can sell their produce direct to the grocer and to the

Full of Fight, But—

CURTAIN SERVICE IS DECISION OF STEAMSHIP COS.

Due to Falling Off in Freight Shipments From Canada and States.

A Canadian Associated Press despatch from London this morning states that the companies engaged in the Atlantic trade propose curtailing the winter service between British and Canadian and United States ports.

Local steamship men, when seen today by the Star, state that, while nothing definite has yet been done in this regard, there is a strong probability that such action will be taken.

Both eastbound and westbound freight is considerably behind last season in tonnage and the curtailment will probably be effected for economic reasons.

Freight men of the different steamship companies state that the advance in freight rates mentioned in the despatch from London have not yet been put into effect, but it is likely that such an increase will be imposed upon shippers and importers.

The recent troubles in Great Britain have with pen and ink instead of being resulted in a material addition to the cost of handling cargoes and, as is usually the case, the man who pays the freight is the man who suffers.

Why the freight offering on this side of the Atlantic should show a falling off as compared with last year, is a problem the steamship officials have not yet been able to solve satisfactorily.

Business conditions in the United States are known to be poor, but why Canadian exports and imports should show a decrease is unaccountable at the present time.

Mr. W. I. Gear, manager of the Redford companies, stated to the Star representative this morning that his concern, like others engaged in the trans-Atlantic freight service, had noticed the falling off in the amount of available cargoes, but said that so far nothing definite had been done, so far as he was aware, to cut down the winter sailings.

"Such action, however," he said, "is very probable, in view of existing conditions, and we know that the English companies are considering the matter. To what extent this curtailment would be effected, is impossible to say at the present time."

MR. GARRICK IS RETURNED FROM THUNDER BAY DIST.

Conservative Majority now 47. Hon. Jacques Bureau Wins Out in Recount.

Port Arthur, Ont., October 6.—Mr. J. J. Carrick, Conservative, and former member of the Legislature, was elected here by acclamation to represent Thunder Bay and Rainy River in the House of Commons. Mr. Borden's majority in the House is now 47.

Result in Three Rivers. Three Rivers, October 6.—The result of the counting of the votes given at the election of Three Rivers, leaves, according to the decision rendered by Mr. Justice Tourigny, the Liberal candidate, Mr. Jacques Bureau, with a majority of nine instead of two.

Mr. Bureau is declared "elected," thanks to the irregularities committed by the deputy returning officers. Thus, in one of the polls of St. Barnabé, Mr. Normand, who had a majority considerable enough, saw it diminished by 20 votes.

When this poll was being examined it was stated that the cross in 116 votes had been made with pen and ink instead of being black lead pencil and Judge Tourigny has put all these bulletins aside, of which 68 were for Mr. Normand and 48 for Mr. Bureau.

Mr. Munson Elected. Special to The Montreal Star. Cobourg, Ont., October 6.—The recount of votes for West Northumberland, which has been in progress here since Tuesday, before His Honor Judge Benson, was concluded yesterday afternoon. The result gives Mr. Chas. Munson, Conservative, two more votes, making his majority six instead of four.

By municipal officials the final figures are as follows: Munson 460, McCall 512, 460, 104, 91, 342, 541, Hamilton, 467, 358.

Probing the Leduc Charge. Special to The Montreal Star. Quebec, October 6.—Mr. Rene Leduc and his wife gave evidence yesterday in the private investigation being conducted by Judge Charles Langelier, into the charges of bribing a candidate made against Mr. Leduc, M.L.A., and Mr. Depyre.

Mr. and Mrs. Leduc produced the affidavits they had made at the time of Mr. Leduc's withdrawal from the candidature in Quebec East, and Mr. Leduc declared that he remembered nothing of what had occurred about signing his resignation as a candidate, nor how the $5,000 came into his possession. He has ceased publishing his weekly paper, the Libre Parole, since his withdrawal as a candidate in Quebec East.

Payment May be Held Up. Special to The Montreal Star. Ottawa, October 6.—One of the last official acts of Mr. Pugsley as Minister of Public Works, was to arrange a settlement with Messrs. Stewart and Kirby, of Ottawa, respecting their contract for the construction of a dam in the Temiskaming district in connection with the scheme of water storage.

The work was taken over by the hands of the contractors by the department and there has been considerable negotiation as to the amount to be paid for that part of the job which was finished. It is understood that the case is now in the hands of the Auditor General, who is demanding certificates of value of the work and the payment may be held up.

MONARCHISTS RIDE ON OPORTO WITH REINFORCEMENTS

Portuguese Republicans Routed in First Fight and Royalists Proclaim the King.

INVASION EFFECTED IN TWENTY AUTOMOBILES

Royalist Soldiers Are All Portuguese, Organized as a Regular Army.

Special to the Montreal Star.

Madrid, October 2.—A special telegram from Santiago to the "Imparcial" says: "After leaving the garrison at Braganza, Captain Courcello left for Braga, but it is not yet known whether he has entered that place. Two monarchist divisions, reinforced by troops which joined them at various towns, are proceeding by a combined movement to Oporto.

The "Eco De Santiago" says:—At Guimarães a sanguinary fight took place between Monarchist and Republican groups. The monarchists, victorious, proclaimed the restoration of the king. Two regiments have mutinied in Oporto, and in Viana De Castelo the artillery and infantry have proclaimed the monarchy.

Invasion by Automobiles.

London, October 5.—A Daily News despatch from Vigo, Spain, says the leaders of the monarchist invading forces crossed the frontier into the province of Braganza on Saturday and Sunday last in twenty automobiles. Accompanying the invaders is Prince Francis Joseph, son of Don Miguel. This fact has led many to believe that the throne is sought in interest of the Miguelists, although it is expected that the people will be left to decide between the rival claimants.

The intention was for Captain Courcello to occupy Braganza, where the garrison was known to be friendly to the monarchist cause and for Captain Camacho, chief of the second division, to establish himself at Chaves. Captain Courcello had 2,000 men of all arms, with twelve guns, and Captain Camacho 1,400 men, with four guns. Ammunition had been hidden during three months in the Spanish province of Sierra Zamora, where also were ready horses and mules, bought in Castilia and Catulia.

The invading force was divided into battalions of 300 men each, with captains, lieutenants and sergeants, also doctors, priests, hospital attendants and sisters of charity. The soldiers are all Portuguese, mostly former republicans, and are equipped and organized as a regular army.

Clash will Come at Oporto.

Vigo, Spain, October 5.—The report that six monarchist divisions, reinforced by a Portuguese frontier village, has been confirmed. Republican infantry and artillery from Chaves have started in pursuit. The invaders entered Portugal in three parties, under Captains Courcello, Macado and Christoforo. The soldiers, all Portuguese, are mostly members of the reserve. Others are students and members of distinguished Portuguese families. Captain Courcello went to Braganza with 2,000 men and twelve cannon, and was welcomed by the inhabitants. The monarchists claim to have the sympathy of the whole north of Portugal. They say also they have two warships.

Chatham Man Held for Murder.

Chatham, Ont., October 5.—That Orlando Arnold, a prominent Chatham township farmer, who passed away in hospital on September 23, came to his death as the result of injuries received in an altercation on July 13, was the verdict of a coroner's jury empanelled by Coroner Breton, to inquire into the circumstances.

Thomas Griffith is held on a murder charge as the result, it being alleged that Arnold's fatal injuries were caused by him.

No fewer than 901,605 persons, on an average, are in receipt of Government old age pensions.

ONE STRIKE BREAKER SHOT IN FIGHT ON ILLINOIS CENTRAL

Governor Noel Seeks to Settle the Railwaymen's Differences by Arbitration.

New Orleans, La., October 6.—One man was shot and probably fatally wounded last night, when a party of Illinois Central strike breakers were fired upon while on their way from the company's fruit sheds to their quarters for the night. A United States deputy marshal who was escorting the men was also slightly wounded.

Jackson, Miss., October 6.—Arbitration as a means of settling the differences between the Illinois Central Railway and its shop and office employees is suggested in a telegram addressed by Governor Noel, of Mississippi, to President Markham and Vice-President Park of the railroad.

It is proposed that officials of the road and representatives of the strikers meet at the office of Governor Noel. Up to an early hour to-day no announcement was made as to a reply from the officials of the road.

Caugnawaga Indian Arrested Walking Across C.P.R. Bridge.

A test case is to be fought out to ascertain whether or not the Caugnawaga Indians have the right to cross the Lachine bridge otherwise than when going to and from their work on this side of the river.

He was represented by Mr. Maurice Alexander, of the firm of Davidson & Wainwright, Mr. F. McD. Jacobs acting as interpreter.

LOCK OF NELSON'S HAIR SOLD AT AUCTION

At the Manor House, Fiddletown, near Dorchester, Eng., auctioneers began the sale of the valuable collection of works of art and historical and royal relics formed by Mr. John Gawler Bridge and his son, Mr. John Bridge.

The bulk of the collection was made by a member of the firm of Messrs. Rundell, Bridge and Rundell, Crown Jewellers and by Mr. John Gawler Bridges, who was a member of the Great Chamber to King William IV. and Queen Victoria.

The articles offered for sale include an antique jeweled pendant, formerly the property of Queen Elizabeth, a cavalier's badge of Charles I., an ornate escutcheon from Napoleon's coronation coach, a sword scabbard worn by the Duke of Wellington during the Peninsular War, and an autograph letter from Lady Emma Hamilton.

This letter from Lady Hamilton addressed to George IV, when Prince of Wales, enclosed a lock of Lord Nelson's hair, which in its wrapper, was included in the sale yesterday with the letter.

In her letter Lady Hamilton writes: "I have opened the paper with his dear hair for the first time, and am most unhappy and agitated."

Three hundred pounds were paid for the letter and the hair.

Four silver salt-cellars, formerly the property of George III, sold for £2,105, per oz., and for other silver formerly belonging to that monarch the following prices were paid:—Muffinier, 10gs. per oz.; sugar-caster, 45 lbs. per oz.; pair of sauce-boats £3 per oz.; beaker, £5 16s. per oz.; inkstand, £11 10s. per oz.

Six teaspoons, formerly the property of Queen Charlotte, brought £4 per oz., and two pairs of antique sugar-tongs, at one time the property of Queen Charlotte, sold for £5 16s. per oz.

A sum of £200 was paid for a half-length portrait of the Duke of Wellington. The glazed case of the frame encloses the silver-gilt scabbard which was presented to the Duke by Indian officers and was worn by him in the Peninsular Wars.

The scabbard bears the indentation of a bullet. Enclosed in the frame are an autograph letter of the duke written from Paris in 1814, and a Waterloo medal.

THREE GENERATIONS

Kept Healthy By Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills

Over fifty years ago people began to find out the effectiveness of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills in correcting constipation and toning up the system.

Since then the popularity of this reliable old family medicine has grown steadily, and the increase in sales during the past year was the greatest in the whole half century.

As long as livers get sluggish, bowels constipated or kidneys inactive, just so long will cure these conditions and banish their distressing effects for those who are wise enough to use them.

Sick headaches, coated tongues, indigestion, biliousness, dyspepsia, rheumatism and similar disorders are almost invariably caused by impurities which should be removed from the system by the bowels, the kidneys and the pores of the skin. By toning up these organs so that they can do their work properly, Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills cure, or prevent altogether, a large proportion of the common everyday ailments which keep so many people miserable.

Failures in Canada Show Big Increase

Commercial failures in the Dominion of Canada as reported by R. G. Dunn & Co., during the third quarter of 1911 numbered 268, with liabilities amounting to $2,514,245, a somewhat indifferent comparison with the 277 last year, when $2,246,871 was involved, or the 370 of the same period two years ago for $2,170,515.

Much of the most unfavorable comparison is made by the manufacturing division, with 75 suspensions owing $1,828,882, against 69 last year for $777,484 and 69 in 1909 for $175,972. The majority of the 15 classes into which these failures are divided make a fairly satisfactory showing, especially lumber, with 11 for $2,649 against 12 last year for $227,800 and clothing with 15 for $78,776 against 14 for $81,000.

Most of the expansion is due to the suspension of four concerns with obligations aggregating upwards of $160,000. In the trading division 297 defaults make a fairly close comparison with the 293 last year, but the amount involved shows considerable increase, $1,854,442 against $1,779,990. There is a notable improvement over 1909, 233 failures being reported during the corresponding period of that year, with defaulted indebtedness of $1,694,541.

Among the classes showing improvement over last year are general stores with 23 for $193,763 against 44 for $274,511; groceries, with 48 for $115,985 against 57 for $211,670; and dry goods, with 14 for $142,050 against 57 for $304,564. On the other hand, there were 18 in hotels, 15 for $111,858, comparing with 11 for $62,062 last year; 10 for $47,235; furniture, 4 for $93,800 against 2 for $5,800; jewelry, 5 for $267,348 against 2 for $14,600; and hats, caps and furs, 5 for $152,058 against 2 for $23,200.

In the third division, which includes brokers and transporters, there were 4 defaults, a slight decrease compared with the 5 reported during the same period in both preceding years, but the amount involved shows a considerable expansion over the $90,643 of last year or the $18,990 of 1909.

FUTURE OF THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

Exactly what the future of the medical profession is going to be during the next two generations is a difficult matter to forecast. Both professionally and commercially (and ethically as well) there are changes in the air, the ultimate issue of which no man can predict, and which will probably prevail no longer and the majority view with some apprehension the result of the foundations of medicine as a profession.

Apart altogether from the provisions of the Insurance Bill it is to be remembered that man's other factors of recent growth have altered, and will continue to alter, the relations of the art of medicine to the general policy of the commonwealth.

The growth of specialism; its popularity with the upper and middle classes; the expansion of the newly-arisen branches of medicine, such as radio-therapy, vaccine-therapy, and the rest; the development of modern surgery; the advances of hygiene and preventive medicine—all these have modified profoundly the position of the medical profession in relation to its clients and to the world at large.

Moreover, the same developments have provided work for a considerable and ever-increasing percentage of those who complete the medical curriculum and obtain admission to the register.

It is apparent, therefore, that the career of medicine may now (and in fact does) attract and provide work for many men who have no aptitude for general or special practice; far more so than was the case a few years ago. The man with a slight, an incurable stammer, a lame leg, or a glass eye need no longer be considered as barred from the study of medicine if he desires to adopt it; for the last is no more of a hindrance to a medical officer of health than the first is to a bacteriologist, all other things being equal.—The "Hospital."

GENERAL BOOTH'S VISITS TO ROYALTY.

General Booth related some interesting stories about Royalty during his visit to Nunawaton last week. On one occasion, preparatory to a visit to Cochin, he was anxious to enlist the sympathy of the Dowager Empress of Russia, and addressed a letter to her sister, Queen Alexandra.

KNIFE AND POISON ALARM MR. RUSSELL, WITNESS DECLARES

Says Chef and Butler were Discharged Lest Mr. Greenshields Should Bribe Them.

GIVEN THIRD DEGREE. MR. RACINE TELLS COURT.

Describes Gruelling Quiz by Detective Burns on "An Empty Stomach."

"I was put through the third degree by Detective Burns," announced Mr. Charles R. Racine, former clerk to Mr. Russell, who was on the witness stand all forenoon to-day as defence witness in the Russell case.

He said that he had been put through the "third degree" by Mr. Burns, of the Burns Agency, with a view to getting a confession of the alleged asylum plot from him. "I went through it on an empty stomach," he said. "He kept me at it from 12 o'clock till 3:30." While this "third degree" as witness called it, was in progress, he said Mr. Russell was in the room and threatened to throw him out of the window.

Subsequently, witness said that Mr. David Russell telephoned him and said: "If you don't have a confession in my office by 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, I will have you put in the penitentiary where you belong."

The witness also declared that Mr. David Russell's butler and chef had been discharged because Mr. Russell was afraid that Mr. J. N. Greenshields might bribe them to poison him or stick a knife in him.

He also explained that on October 24 last, Mr. Cochenhalter had sent a wire to Mr. Russell, the wire saying, "mind affected," in reference to Mr. David Russell. Mr. Cochenhalter had told the witness that he would assume the responsibility for sending the wire. The witness answered that he did not believe Mr. Russell's mind was affected, and that he was still of the opinion that Mr. Russell's brothers were subsequently called in to be identified by the case in evidence.

"Mind Affected" Words Used in Wire.

Mr. Charles R. Racine who had been in Mr. Russell's employment in October last, was called to the stand the first thing this morning, and examined by Mr. Macpherson. He was first asked to explain how it was that Mr. John Russell had been sent for on October 18th, while Mr. David Russell was in New York. He replied that he later learned that Mr. Russell had been sent for for Mr. Macpherson. "It may be very important as to who was the initiator—Cochenhalter, McNamara, or anybody else?"

Mr. Cochenhalter said that he had sent a wire and he thought that Mr. Russell told me.

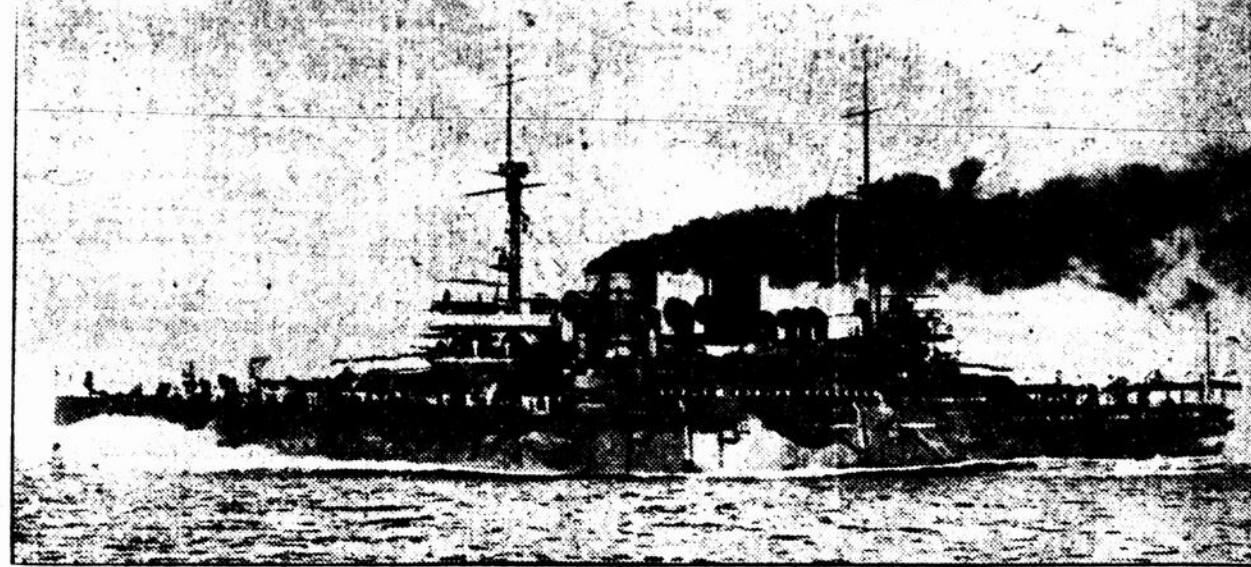

Witness explained that another wire had been sent on October 19 by Mr. Cochenhalter to Mr. John Russell and that the words were used: "Mind affected."

"You have any discussion between you and Mr. Cochenhalter before the wording of this telegram was decided upon?"

"Yes, I objected very strongly to the words, 'Mind affected.' I suggested the wording of the telegram and Mr. Cochenhalter said it was not strong enough. The telegram was sent and the main gist of it was his. The 'mind affected' part of it was his."

Mr. Cochenhalter acted in a hurry.

ITALIAN BATTLESHIP BENEDETTA BRIN.

It was from this warship that the first story by an eyewitness of the Tripoli bombardment came.

Chief Carpenter came in later. "Did you have a conversation with Mr. McNamara on the 20th?" "No direct conversation."

"We have heard something in this case about a list of names that was taken to the Windsor Hotel. People left on the evening of the 20th?"

"Yes, on the afternoon of the 20th, before Mr. John Russell left for New York," he said. "Who is there that knows there is anything wrong about this?"

Witness stated that he heard that Dr. Roddick, Mr. Galland, Mr. Cochenhalter, Chief Carpenter, Mr. John Russell, and Mr. McNamara were all wanted to go down to New York at the time. "I do not know who suggested them," he said. "It was a general talk. John Russell, Jr., wanted them to go."

Mr. Cochenhalter assumed the responsibility.

"Who was to assume responsibility for having sent for John Russell?"

At the day the wire was actually sent off, I told Mr. Cochenhalter that I would not sign the telegram and that I would not assume any responsibility for it.

Mr. Macpherson—"Are you aware, Mr. Racine, that you have been yourself accused of being in a conspiracy against Mr. David Russell?"

"Has it been made to you personally by Mr. David Russell?"

PRESIDENT TAFT WARMLY DEFENDS SUPREME COURT

Bitterly Assails Critics of Chief Tribunal's Decisions in Recent Trust Cases.

MAKES ANOTHER ATTACK ON TRUSTS

Remedy for Great Evils Bound to Produce Unsettlement, He Declares.

Pocatello, Idaho, October 6. — In a speech before the Chamber of Commerce, to-day, President Taft bitterly assailed the critics of the United States Supreme Court and asserted his views as to the relations of the Government to business.

"I love judges and I love courts," said the President. "They are my life and soul. They shall be my last breath. When a court is doing its duty, when it is trying to interpret the law, and is not to be have it condemned and attacked and its motive questioned for mere political purposes, without any solid ground for doing so, to my heart and I resent it with deep indignation."

Mr. Taft referred to the Supreme Court's disposal of the Standard Oil and the Tobacco cases as "two great decisions."

"They were two of the greatest things that have ever happened in the working out of the decree the Standard Oil Company presented all the phases of illegality and criminality necessary to establish a monopoly at a time when it did not see a necessity for concealing its methods for their motives. The Tobacco trust represented an organization made in anticipation of the operation of the law, and it was a deliberate attempt to evade the law."

Mr. Taft said it was unfortunate that the country had got into a condition that required a remedy like this. A remedy of any kind would be bound to produce for a time, not business disaster, but a difficult situation, and he added that he was not out of the solution had been worked out, he saw no reason why the country should not go on to greater and greater prosperity.

TWENTY-FIVE ARE STILL MISSING IN AUSTIN DISASTER

Fifty Bodies Recovered—Inquest Proceeding Cautiously as Violence Threatened.

Special to The Montreal Star. Austin, Pa., October 6.—With the schoolhouse completely surrounded by State constabulary and every precaution having been taken to guard against any demonstration, the hearing of evidence in the Austin disaster inquest opened here this morning. The inquest is held in the schoolhouse, the scene of the disaster. The bodies of the victims are being recovered from the wreckage. The inquest is proceeding cautiously as violence is threatened.

Subpoenas have been served secretly and the names of witnesses are withheld. Mr. George Franklin and Mr. Stanley Bayless, company officials, are said to be at Coudersport, awaiting the call to testify, but they have not been in Austin since the disaster. Other officials of the company have also arrived at Coudersport.

After the conference with their attorney the officials declared they did not think the question of criminal responsibility would figure in the hearing. The prosecutor refused to say what he expected.

Fifty bodies have now been recovered from the flood ruins. Twenty-five former residents are yet to be accounted for.

In a day's work of overhauling the wreckage here, due to the breaking of the dam last Saturday, and the resultant flood, five additional bodies were accounted for yesterday. Four complete bodies and the mangled limbs of an adult female, supposed to have weighed about 200 pounds, are in the morgue to-night.

Of the bodies recovered yesterday three were children, one a two-year-old boy with white hair, and Clarence Barnes, aged 5, and a three-year-old child. The only adult found was Mrs. Anna Fitzgerald. All had been washed some distance below the village, down the valley toward Coatsville.

HER MARRIAGE A MISTAKE.

So Says Actress Who Asks Divorce From Egyptian Prince.

London, October 6.—Princess Hassan, who was the American actress Oia Humphrey, is now in London consulting lawyers. Her marriage to the wealthy Egyptian Prince Ibrahim Hassan, a first cousin to the Khedive, has not been happy, and she has left him.

Oia Humphrey, whose name in private life was Pearl Oia Mordant, was married to Prince Hassan in London, on April 15 last. She says that though she married for love she was never really happy after a short while. In Paris, she says, she found that she was regarded as no more than a servant, and was practically a prisoner for a month.

"I have found the marriage a great mistake," she added, quoting Kipling: "For East is East, and West is West—and never the twain shall meet."

A RAILWAY PROMOTION.

MR. GEORGE J. BURY. Who succeeds Sir William Whyte as a Vice-President of the C.P.R.

MR. BURY SUCCEEDS SIR WILLIAM WHYTE

Will Become Manager of the Canadian Pacific Railway's Western Lines.

The official announcement was made yesterday afternoon of the appointment of Mr. G. J. Bury to succeed Sir William Whyte as vice-president and manager of the Canadian Pacific Company's western lines. The appointment was generally expected and in railway circles is generally popular.

Mr. Bury is a Montrealer. He was born in this city forty-five years ago and his promotion has been rapid. He was educated at the Montreal College, and at the age of 21 entered the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway as a clerk in the office of the purchasing department.

After two years service he became secretary to the president and it was while serving in this office that his abilities as a railroad man quickly became apparent and promotions soon followed. He became superintendent of the parlor, sleeping and dining car service and was afterwards made assistant superintendent of the Chalk River and Sault Ste. Marie division of the C. P. R. His next appointment was superintendent at Cranbrook, B.C., and then he became assistant superintendent of the Lake Superior division of the road.

In 1904 Mr. Bury was made general superintendent of the Central division of the road with headquarters at Winnipeg, and in 1908 he became general manager of the western lines. A number of congratulatory messages were sent to Mr. Bury last night and it is the intention of his friends, as soon as he can be induced to come to Montreal, to tender him a complimentary banquet.

Then the crew was taken out, and the experiment was equally successful when the boat was submerged. Similar experiments are being made with torpedoes.

SUBMARINE CONTROL BY HERTZIAN WAVE

Special to The Montreal Star. Portsmouth, Eng., October 6.—Successful experiments with the wireless control of submarine boats have been made here, but the details are kept well guarded. It is known, however, that a submarine was taken to shallow water, off Selsey, while the Hertzian waves were worked from the cruiser Furious.

The submarine, which was on the surface, was manned and was found to be entirely under the control of the cruiser.

Then the crew was taken out, and the experiment was equally successful when the boat was submerged. Similar experiments are being made with torpedoes.

MOUTH HYGIENE = HEALTH + BEAUTY

There is more to "tooth-brushing" than just cleansing and polishing surfaces. Outside of cleanliness for its own sake, the deep purpose of brushing one's teeth is to prevent decay and to keep a clean, healthy mouth—oral hygiene.

This is bound to include tooth beauty and whiteness. With this end in view your dentifrice is determined for you.

SANITOL POWDER & PASTE

is the whole science of tooth soundness and mouth cleanliness put into a dentifrice. Assures tooth beauty—cleans and whitens—and then it goes the step further, that makes it your dentifrice.

It is antiseptic—it destroys the germs of tooth decay. It is antacid—it absolutely neutralizes those mouth acids that attack the teeth.

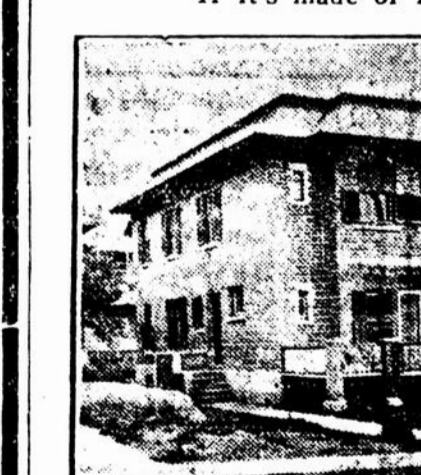

You can detect these qualities of Sanitol Tooth Powder as soon as you use it. Leaves a fresh taste, because it leaves a clean mouth.

Try "Stove" Coal in Your Furnace

You have long been accustomed to using two sizes of coal—a stove size and a furnace size. Has it ever occurred to you to try the smaller of the two, "stove" size, in your furnace—using only one bin and simplifying your coal buying?

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL COMPANY'S LEHIGH COAL

This contains more carbon than ordinary coal. It lasts longer. A smaller size may be used in your furnace without it being consumed so quickly as the freer burning coal. Because of this fact users of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company's Lehigh Coal save money.

THE AMERICA II. FORCED TO DESCEND AT EMMETSBURG

First Heard From in Gordon Bennet Balloon Race—Others Going North.

Kansas City, Mo., October 6.—All nine balloons that went up from here yesterday in the Bennett Cup race, the Lahm Cup race, and the altitude contest, save one, were still in the air to-day, according to information at the headquarters of the race club.

The American II, a two-man balloon, Emmetsburg, Iowa, about 300 miles from here at 1.30 this morning, after weathering a severe storm. Its pilot Wm. Aseman, and his aide, J. C. Hulbert, were painfully bruised when the bag came down amid telephone wires.

All the other balloons are believed to be sailing northward over Minnesota.

The Pennsylvania, the pilot for the James Gordon Bennett Cup balloon race, rose at 5.13 p.m., with Arthur T. Atherton as pilot and E. R. Hunsnewell as aide, and sailed rapidly northwest.

The Condor, flying the French flag, left here at 5.15 p.m. This was the first official balloon to start in the race for the James Gordon Bennett Cup. The Condor is in charge of the Dubonnet as pilot, with Pierre Dupont as aide.

The balloon America II, got away at 5.42 p.m., and followed the others, going northward. Pilot, William E. Assman; aide, J. C. Hulbert.

Rising from the ground at 5.53 p.m. the Berlin, headed by Pilot, Lieut. Leopold Vogt; aide, Lieut. Martin Schoeller.

At 5.58 p.m. the Million Population Club John Henry Pua, McCullough, aide, rose to a great height and started northwest.

The balloon Buckeye, Lieut. E. P. Lahm, pilot; J. H. Wade, Jr., aide, ascended at 6.01 p.m. and went straight north.

The German balloon Berlin II, ascended at 6.11 p.m. This was the last of the entrants for the James Gordon Bennett Cup to leave the grounds.

The competitors for the Lahm Cup followed in quick succession, all going in a northerly direction.

Interest centred in the Bennett race on account of its international character, the contest for the Lahm Cup being a national event for Americans only. The Bennett prizes are—First, $1,500; second, $1,000; third, $500.

As each balloon left it was greeted by the band with the national air of its country.

Rogers Nearing Chicago. Chicago, October 6.—C. P. Rodgers, on his coast-to-coast flight, for a prize of $50,000, was expected to land this afternoon in Grant Park, Chicago, where the aviation meet was held in August. He spent the night at Hammond, Ind., and planned shortly after noon to start a four-day flight for Chicago. After a rest here Rodgers will depart for Kansas City.

TEGUMSEHS STILL IN HOPES OF VICTORY

Charie Querrie's Men Expect to Profit Largely by Experience of Last Week.

Special to the Montreal Star. Vancouver, October 5.—The Minto Cup holders and the challengers are practising steadily for the second and probably deciding game, to be played probably to-day. Charlie Querrie, of Tegumseh, gives assurance of a better game than last Saturday but in any case it is reasonable to assume the Tegumsehers will be in the first game.

Certainly their high record was not gained with play of last Saturday's quality.

Tegumseh clearly underestimated the strength of the Vancouver defence. They calculated that the home was more to be feared. This was a mistake. Games against the Westminister dashing home prove this. In one of the five championship games the Vancouver defence held the Westminister back. Games against the Westminister they shut out Westminister altogether.

Now Tegumseh know what they are up against and practice for events will show they have benefited by their lesson.

When the draw was made, two clubs received by the fortunate pair being C.P.R. and Lachine. In their first year, St. Pauls have done remarkably well. Even if they lose, which is no certainty, the Saints should send the soldiers all the way ere victory can be claimed.

A Business Woman's Suit

Will be the Main Feature in our Show-rooms To-morrow

We call them Business Women's Suits, although women not in business will find them just as attractive, but these suits are specially made up for women who are part of their time outdoors, who must have a suit that after a shower of rain or fall of snow will retain its original shape. Every yard of material used in these suits is thoroughly shrunk before being made up. The styles are smart, snappy models; the materials are all wool; the linings are durable, and the workmanship is of the best.

Very little behind in the afternoon's interest is the meeting of Fairmount and the workmanship of the best, every garment being bench-made and hand-tailored. They are worthy of your investigation, if you have a suit need. Suppose you come in and see them to-morrow. Come in anyway — if it's only to look around.

P. Q. F. A. SOOTHED RUFFLED REFEREES

Mutual Explanations Cleared the Air. Benefit for Tom Wall.

Explanations and discussions on points of football law took up a lot of the time of the P.Q.F.A. at its regular weekly meeting last evening, most of it being given to a complaint lodged by the Referees' Association.

The referees' grievance was that the governing body had appointed the referees for the first round of the Quebec Cup, instead of leaving it to the Referees' Board. They claimed hurt feelings violated constitutions, and other things too numerous to mention.

President Fred. Barber, pointed out that the Referees' Association was responsible to the P.Q.F.A. He then declared that it was an understood thing that there had been certain discriminations made against a man who was acknowledged on all sides to be a most capable referee. It was because the governing body did not think that the Board had ways and means in the best interests of the game in its appointments, that it chose to appoint the referees for its competition.

Messrs. F. B. Barber, Dora, who represented the arbiters, both spoke at length, and claimed that the association had a right to appoint whom it thought proper, and that if it was thought fit they denied unjust discrimination.

Finally, a resolution was adopted assuring the Referees Board that the P.Q.F.A. had acted entirely without animus and promising to leave the appointments for all games in the future in the hands of the Referees' Board, with the single exception of representative games.

The Cote St. Paul club asked for and was granted permission to run a benefit performance for Tommy Wall, their clever outside left, who recently suffered a severe accident, which will cause him the loss of four fingers of his right hand. A member of the Association was appointed to co-operate with the St. Paul club, in the arrangements, and the club was commended for its proper action in seeking permission from the governing body to organize the benefit.

A request from the Junior League for permission to run a Junior League English International was laid over until next week.
