MP Charges Some Gold Mines Low-Grade Ore To Get Subsidy

OTTAWA (CP)—The Commons moved today from consideration of Canada's land resources to its riches under the sea.

From faraway thoughts of summer vacations in its atmosphere, the House took up examination of fisheries department spending estimates for the current fiscal year, which ends next March 31.

Rail Union To Oppose Settlement

MONTREAL (CP)—The Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees today came out flatly against the report of a federal conciliation board dealing with the contract dispute between the non-operating unions and the railroads.

The CBRE is the largest of the 15 unions engaged in the $100,000,000-a-year fight, and its announced stand was expected to throw a jolt into sessions here of the unions' policy-making general conference committee.

The committee began closed sessions Wednesday on the question of acceptance of the conciliation board report, which recommended less than half what the unions were asking in a new contract.

The meetings are expected to end today.

MOST WOULD ACCEPT

Information here is that most of the top officials of the 15 unions are inclined to accept the report, though unhappy at getting only about $38,000,000 of the $100,000,000 they have been seeking for the 130,000 workers involved.

It was understood that CBRE officers here were criticized by other members of the general conference committee for unofficial reports that the 3,000 member union was backing the conciliation board report.

Today, the CBRE's house magazine, Canadian Transport, made the reports official. Besides rejecting the conciliation board's recommendation, the magazine was sharply critical of David Lewis, union nominee on the three-man federal board, who signed the majority report.

Jet Downed

CLINTON, Mo. (AP)—A T-33 jet training plane was shot down Wednesday by an F-102 jet fighter when the F-102's Falcon missiles were fired accidentally. Both men in the T-33 parachuted safely. The Falcon automatically seeks its target and is not fired. The planes were supposed to perform a mock interception with no firing.

Today's Chuckle

Ideas are very much like children — your own are wonderful.

It dwelled Wednesday on mines department estimates and the talk ranged from a demand for more federal spending on geological surveys to a plea that the country get together on daylight saving time.

Douglas Fisher (CCF — Port Arthur) said some gold mines are purposely low-grading their ore to qualify for emergency gold mining assistance from the federal government.

HEARD STORIES

He said he has heard stories from miners in the Timmins, Ont., and Port Arthur areas that certain mines — he mentioned Little Long Lac Mines — close off high-content ore bodies, thus producing only low-grade ore, which qualifies them for the federal subsidy.

Red Scientists Liven Genetics Conference

MONTREAL (CP)—A leading American scientist says genetics — the science of heredity — binds all fields of biology into the unified physical science.

Dr. Sewall Wright of the University of Wisconsin told the inaugural session of the 10th international Congress of Genetics Wednesday that this science cuts across all fields of biology and touches the very root of breeding organisms.

He told the assembly of roughly 1,500 scientists from 47 countries that the "real progress" in genetics came recently.

This has been in furthering human knowledge of the nature and actions of genes and chromosomes, the microscopic elements which form the physical basis of the transmission of hereditary characteristics in all life.

CUTS THROUGH

"Thus a subject, which at its origin seemed destined to grind out ratios now has cut through all the biological sciences from the study of molds to the study of the human animal."

During the congress' first day the activities of the Russian delegations attracted almost as much interest as the scientific proceedings.

A congress official announced late in the day that Professor T. D. Lysenko, a favorite in Russia during the Stalin regime, may be flying to Montreal for the sessions.

The announcement followed reports that the Russian program of scientific papers scheduled for presentation had been almost completely revamped. There were substitutions for some papers, but others were cancelled outright.

WESTERNERS SPECULATE

Western scientists speculated the abrupt withdrawal of the Soviet papers and the report that neuve) said the situation is not quite as Mr. Fisher described it. Such complaints of low-grading in mines that had paid large dividends in the past but smaller ones as the high-grade ore was depleted.

Mines Minister Comtois said his department has received no "proof" that low-grading goes on. But if such complaints came to his desk he would have them investigated. Government inspectors currently went underground for checks in addition to examining mine books.

Mr. Dumas at another point urged that more money be provided for surveys by the department's geological survey branch. He said these surveys

Dead But It Won't Lie Down

Hamlet's Ghost Walks In Moscow

LONDON (AP)—A Russian version of Hamlet's ghost ranted on an Arab battle-ment today with a British paratrooper and a U.S. marine standing in for Shakespeare's celebrated sentries.

Moscow's phantom was cockney rather than courtly and his creator no budding bard.

Moscow Radio called its broadcast a "modern ghostly melodrama" entitled "It's dead but it won't lie down."

The night is dark, the wind howls.

Enter ghost in tattered British desert uniform, a relic of the First World War in Mesopotamia.

To the accompaniment of groans and shrieks, the ghost begins his jingle:

"When you 'ear the pact a'moanin' you'll shudder with night and main. The Baghdadless pact's a'groanin' for the day it lost its name.

"It's just too bad, but then, by gad, the fightin' won't die down, while the Baghdad Pact with no Baghdad is dead but it won't lie down."

There are 14 more verses before the curtain falls on a chorus from the sentries:

"Show me the way to go home. I'm scared and I might as well be dead, for we've seen an 'orrid pact just a minute ago and it didn't 'ave no ead."

Exit ghost. Exit sentries.

West Backs Arab Plan

UNITED NATIONS — (CP) — A successful conclusion to the United Nations emergency assembly on the Middle East appeared in prospect today under an Arab plan for non-aggression assurances in that area of crisis.

The assembly, it was felt in many quarters this morning, may be able to wind up this emergency session by Friday with a generally agreed — upon paper blueprint for future stability. It would accept the UN as providing a framework for the immediate future.

The Soviet-led members might not accept it in an assembly vote, it was conceded, but with the Western and middle powers backed up to endorse the Arab plan ready by the African and Asian members, the assembly would be close to unanimity.

CANADA IN FOREFRONT

Canada and Norway had led in a middle-power intervention attempt during the session to put before the assembly a compromise acceptable to all. These countries felt that they could withdraw their own resolution — in favor of the new plan which came out late Wednesday after a hectic series of conferences outside the assembly chamber.

It was expected to be circulated among all delegations some time today in its final wording.

The prospect that Israel might come out with a protest against a Middle East solution tailored to the Arab viewpoint faded Wednesday night when Israeli ambassador Abba Eban talked only in general terms about the Arabs' rights.

He did say that the first requirement for a long-term solution in the Middle East must be universal respect for the political independence and territorial integrity of all states — meaning such a non-Arab one as Israel.

IGNORED PROVOCATION

He ignored the provocation by Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko earlier in the day that Israel should make its position known publicly in what the Russian called "a mysterious intimidation campaign" to the effect that if British troops got out of Jordan, Israel might attack that Arab state on its eastern border.

Gromyko, speaking in the debate for the second time, taunted the Israelis for "merely sitting pretty" — this was the wording of the unofficial translation from the Russian — during the current dispute which involved tensions among the Arab states themselves.

"We might as well state quite frankly that if the Israelis were

Margaret Is 28 Today

BALLATER, Scotland (Reuters) — Princess Margaret today celebrated her 28th birthday on the rugged Scottish moors she has known and loved since childhood.

The princess went for a picnic with the Queen and the other members of the Royal Family on the shores of Loch Muick, not far from Balmoral Castle.

Margaret — just back from her trip to Canada — has celebrated every birthday in Scotland.

Today the question of whom she will marry or whether she will marry at all remains unanswered. Friends of the Royal Family believe her romance with Peter Townsend never will be revived.

Show Canadians

How It's Done

HALIFAX (CP) — When it comes to collecting sweethearts in every port, the Canadian sailor swears he plays second string to no one.

But he's been left holding his own hand here this week. More than 600 Italian sailors are in port, and Canadian Navy spokesmen said Wednesday "it's really something to watch these fellows operate."

He wasn't referring to ships.

He said the Italians "simply follow a shapely miss along the street and gradually catch up with her. How they do it is a mystery, but you'll see them walking along holding hands."

The Italians are attached to the cruiser Raimondo Montecuccoli, which arrived here Tuesday on a courtesy call.

Shipyard Workers Stay Out

LAUZON, Que. (CP)—Barring a change in union plans the Davies Shipbuilding Limited yards will be idle again today — the fourth since a contract negotiation deadlock last weekend.

Union headquarters at the St. Lawrence south shore yard Wednesday night expected no change.

Wednesday they stopped the picketing carried out Monday and Tuesday, but almost all the 2,000 National Metal Trades Federation (NMTF) members stayed off the job.

Picketing was abandoned after the company obtained a superior court injunction prohibiting it. The injunction is effective until Sept. 3 or until a hearing is set.

SUE 26 PICKETS

AT THE SAME TIME the company started a $50,000 suit for damages against 26 pickets it claimed "by force or threats of force" restrained office workers from entering the yard.

The workers voted to picket to point up their demands for wage increases after contract negotiations broke down last Friday.

The workers want hourly pay boosts averaging about 35 cents. Hourly wages now range between $1.28 for laborers to $1.61 for journeymen. They also want the work-week cut to 40 from 42½ hours.

950 Million Bushels Of Wheat Here

OTTAWA (CP) — When wheat farmers have harvested their crops this year Canada will have some 950,000,000 bushels on hand.

This figure, estimated by observers, would be the lowest after-harvest peak in four years, but still would be six times the amount Canadians alone consume in a year, and twice the amount the Canadian wheat board disposes of annually through both domestic and export sales.

The reduction in supplies is attributed to rising export sales and an expected below-average crop.

Byelections Oct. 15 In Labelle, Roberval; Paquette, Spence Quit

QUEBEC — (CP) — Unexpected resignations Wednesday set the stage for two provincial by-elections and may provide the first test of strength for new Liberal party leader Jean Lesage.

The news came at a surprise press conference after the second provincial cabinet meeting in two days. Premier Duplessis announced the resignations and said by-elections will be held Oct. 15 to fill the vacancies.

Stepping down are Dr. Albin Paquette, 68, minister of health and member of the legislative assembly for Labelle since 1935; and Paul Spence, 51, member for Roberval since 1936. Ill health was given as the reason in both cases.

Neither the conference nor the cabinet meeting were expected. Supporters of the premier's powerful Union Nationale government see in the by-elections a chance to get Mr. Lesage and his party into a battle on the hustings.

AVOIDED "BEAR TRAP"

Mr. Lesage was chosen leader this spring. He saw a July 2 by-election in Matane — won by the Union Nationale — as a "bear trap" and no Liberal was entered. Since then he has been on cross-province tour to boost his party and denounce the Union Nationale.

A Liberal party spokesman said there would be comment on the premier's move after a party caucus here Sept. 9.

In Montreal, a spokesman for the Civic Action League, which announced Monday it was studying the possibility of becoming a provincial movement, declined to comment. The CAL, up to now, has been a Montreal municipal political party.

Michel Chartrand, provincial leader of the Social Democratic party (CCF), said his party probably would have candidates in both counties.

Both Labelle and Roberval have been solidly Union Nationale since 1944 and government supporters look for a chance to set back the reorganizing Liberals. Standing in the 93-seat legislative assembly now: Union Nationale, 71; Liberal, 17; Independent, three; vacant, two.

DAMAGE SUITS ON

At the same conference Mr. Duplessis said damage suits which members of his government intend to take against the Montreal newspaper Le Devoir will not be started before Sept. 1, but likely would be taken early that month.

The paper, in a series of articles started June 13, criticized the government over sale of Quebec Hydro's Montreal gas distribution system to the privately-owned Quebec Natural Gas Corporation. It said a $20,000,000 stock market coup marked the transaction.

Mr. Duplessis also said government business was responsible for the few press conferences he has called this summer. His last previous one was June 27 — when he expelled Le Devoir reporter Guy Lamarche from his office.

Press conferences "should not be held to the detriment of the good administration of the province," he said.

Little Rock

New Move To Block Negroes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The Little Rock school board announced Wednesday night it has asked a federal appeal court to stay an order that would send seven Negro students back to Central High School here.

Lawyers for the Negroes had urged the court to make the ruling effective at once so the Negroes could be admitted when school starts in less than two weeks.

Dispatch of the board's request was announced by superintendent Virgil Blossom after board members met with Governor Orval Faubus in a night conference that lasted almost two hours.

Blossom said the board asked the U.S. Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis to stay its Aug. 18 ruling rejecting a 2½-year "breathing spell" in admitting Negroes to Central High.

ASK QUICK DECISION

Lawyers for the Negro students filed a motion Wednesday asking the St. Louis court to instruct its clerk to issue a mandate on its decision immediately instead of waiting the usual 20 days. Otherwise, the motion said, a lower court's order granting a postponement of integration until early 1961 would be in effect when school starts Sept. 2 and the Negroes would be barred.

Faubus had demanded the meeting with the school board in an attempt to learn in detail how it planned to resist integration and whether Negroes expected to enter other white schools at Little Rock this fall.

It had been expected that Faubus might announce the calling of a special session of the legislature to deal with integration.

Faubus said after the meeting there was "always the possibility of such a special session and if and when I reach that decision, it will be announced."

USE ALL LEGAL MEANS

Blossom reiterated that the board would "use every legal means" to sustain the June 21 ruling of U.S. District Judge Harry J. Lemley which granted the board's petition for a 2½-year delay in integration.

It was Lemley's ruling that was overturned by the St. Louis appellate court Monday.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Wednesday notified Faubus the organization will advise the parents of the Negro students that it stands ready to help them press their rights.

Nova Scotia Has Beer Strike Too

HALIFAX (CP) — An early settlement appeared unlikely today as Nova Scotia's two breweries felt the first pinch of a strike by their 150 union employees.

The strike started at 5 p.m. Wednesday, a normal quitting time at the commonly owned A. Keith and Son Limited and Oland and Son Limited. Production and distribution were halted today as picket lines were set up outside the two plants.

Baby For Marilyn

TORONTO (CP)—Marilyn Bell, first person to swim Lake Ontario, gave birth to a baby girl Wednesday. Marilyn, now Mrs. Joseph Di Lascio, gave birth to a nine-pound, eight-ounce baby at Our Lady of Lourdes Hospital in Camden, N.J. Now a resident of the United States, mother and baby are "doing fine," hospital officials said.

New Contracts Good News For Taxpayers

OTTAWA (CP)—There's good news for Canadian taxpayers in the form of a new government defence contract will take.

It's a departure from the cost-plus contract which has been in vogue with many of the most costly defence items. Cost-plus means the cost of the item plus a certain percentage of the cost for profit.

As D. A. Golden, deputy minister of defence production, said before the Commons estimates committee July 14: "The great disadvantage to cost-plus is that if you do not have a conscientious contractor and his costs are not being watched closely, his profit will go up."

Officials disclosed Wednesday that a contract awarded Canadian Vickers Limited, Montreal, for the destroyer Mackenzie, first ship of a new class, will be based on target-incentive.

Canadian Vickers, which also built the lead ships for the St. Laurent and Restigouche class destroyers, will be allowed a certain profit and given a target of a certain number of man-hours of labor in which to complete construction.

If Vickers beats this target, it will receive one-third of the consequent saving, the remaining two-thirds going to the government. Target date for completion of the Mackenzie, an improved version of the Restigouche, is 1962.

All the destroyers of the original 14-ship program, due for completion next year, have been built on a cost-plus basis, the same type of ship being built by Victoria Machinery depot, is $21,835,000.

HOPE FOR REDUCTION

Officials say they hope the new target-incentive contract will reduce these cost differences.

Tenders are not called for destroyer construction. Work is allocated to all six shipyards with the aim of keeping them in operation for quick expansion in event of emergency.

Cost-plus contracts are not confined to the shipbuilding industry, of course. The profit margin allowed varies but the maximum is 7½ to 10 per cent depending on the type of equipment.

HOLDS BACK PAYMENT

On a cost-plus contract, the defence production department always holds back some of the payment until the cost inspection and audit division of the treasury board examines the books of the company which holds the contract.

In some instances, some costs claimed by a company have been disallowed.

As an example, Mr. Golden testified July 23 before the estimates committee that Ontario's Engle Limited, Malton, Ont., had included in its costs sales expenses, advertising, financing charges and entertainment. They had been disallowed by the defence production department.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I never thought Hollywood would use me. There's no place out here for a fat girl."

"I can't stand the sunshine in California. It's so relentless. But it's good for you, I guess. Even the old ladies out here look better than I do."

This was Maureen Stapleton talking, and she was living up to her billing as the female Marlon Bando. She would probably scream at the allusion, but the similarity is there.

Also, she is a great performer, admired by her fellow actors.

Dore Schary is the man who got her to do a movie. He and director Vincent Donahue sought her to play the important role of an unhappy housewife in Lonely Hearts with Montgomery Clift, Robert Ryan and Myrna Loy.

How was she landed? "Vinny called me up and asked me if I wanted to do it," she said. "I loved the book and I liked the setup so I said yes. Then I called up a friend and asked if he'd like to agent the deal."

This goes entirely against the Hollywood system of having agents haggle over salary, billing, and so on. But then, Maureen is not the Hollywood type. Her well-padded figure reflects her delight in good food. She has a pretty, apple-cheeked face and a large, unruly mop of brown hair.

This is Maureen's third trip to California. She was here previously while touring with Katharine Cornell in The Barretts of Wimpole Street and later with The Rose Tattoo. During the latter visit, there was a flurry of activity at MGM, which wanted to sign her.

She recalled a conference with an MGM official: "I felt perfectly at ease with him because I knew he had no interest in me or my career whatsoever. He was simply in buying and selling."

"He tried to sell me on the great number of stars who had been built by the studio. Like Garbo. But then he added, 'she isn't here any more.'"

"I guess I didn't seem too interested. I left the studio and never heard from them again."

Canada Made Substantial Contribution To Peaceful Settlement In Laos

By NICK POWELL
 "I believe that Canada has made a substantial contribution to the political settlement reached in the past few months in Laos, and I believe we were instrumental in the restoration of the royal (pro-west) government's authority over territories formerly held by pro-communists."

Such is the part Canada has played in Indo-China, in the words of a man who should know, W. M. "Tat" Oliver, recently returned from Indo-China where he headed the Canadian delegation in Laos. Mr. Oliver, formerly of Sherbrooke, more recently of Ottawa, stopped over here for a few days before returning to his post in Ottawa.

A head of the Canadian delegation in Laos, one of three sent to Indo-China, it was his job to see through to fulfilment, the terms of the agreement reached at the summit conference in Geneva in 1955. Included in the job, was the supervision of the frontier; control and recording of entry of war materials; surveillance of troop movements and in general act as a "referee" or intermediary. He returned about three weeks ago.

"Canada was also instrumental in the integration of the pro-communist soldiers into the royal army, and in the establishment of the royal government union - which included two pro-communist ministers."

"We considered that with these developments, the terms of the agreement (Geneva) had been reached and we were prepared to leave."

Mr. Oliver pointed out that the commission as a whole was unpopular, but that the Canadians, as delegates were quite popular. He indicated that the two other delegations on the commission, India and Poland, wanted them to stay.

"The Indians believed that if the commission remained, it would ensure peace. The Poles wanted it to remain for their own reasons. In fact Poland was the only communist country which had representation in Laos and they were unwilling to quit their foothold."

 Timely Construction

City Aid Not Disclosed

By GERALD McDUFF

City Council yesterday agreed in principle to lend an undisclosed amount of financial aid to the American Bilrite Rubber Company for the erection of $1,000,000 four-story plant extension which would house 300 additional male employees, Ald. Paul Gervais, chairman of the municipal industrial committee, announced.

He said excavation work would begin immediately at a site adjoining the present building on Jenckes St. in the North Ward. The extension will rise along the Magog River front towards Winter St., he said.

Two stories would be built immediately and two more in a year's time, he said. The extension will cover 50,000 square feet. Hiring of the new employees would probably be gradual until the plant extension was completed and working at top capacity. The company employs 300 workers at present.

Cost of the building is estimated at $400,500 and the machinery, at $500,000, Ald. Gervais said.

The city's loan will probably be extended over a 15-year period, he said.

At next Monday evening's council session of the whole, a resolution will be tabled, voted upon and presumably adopted.

The next likely move, Ald. Gervais said, would be the drafting of a bylaw which would be presented to Quebec for ratification. He said the city would then build the extension on plans ordered by the company. Once completed, the plant would be leased to Bilrite until paid in full. Ownership would then revert to the company.

YESTERDAY'S MEETING
 Technically speaking yesterday's city council session was a meeting of the five man industrial committee increased in size by the presence of invited aldermen.

The meeting lasted from 11:30 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. and its sole purpose was to "feel out" council opinion on the project.

Results of negotiations earlier this week between the industrial committee, the mayor and the representatives of the company, Miah Marcus, Richard Marcus, both of Boston, and C. Evans Joslin, manager of the local plant, were released to the aldermen.

Commenting on the project, Ald. Gervais said the construction of a new plant was "timely" considering the present unemployment situation.

In a written statement, he said: "As chairman of the industrial committee of the City of Sherbrooke, I wish to tell the Sherbrooke population that following an understanding between the American Bilrite and the municipal authorities of the City of Sherbrooke, this company will immediately undertake the construction of a new plant in Sherbrooke."

"Industrial assistance furnished by the city will permit the company to erect this plant and the cost of construction and lay-out will be about $1,000,000."

$150,000 Grant Received

The Province's $150,000 grant to aid in the construction in the new-completed Montcalm Bridge on King St. West was turned over by King St. Treasurer Pierre Bachand by Mayor Nadeau yesterday who in turn had received it from Finance Minister J. S. Bourque.

Payment of the grant had been delayed by a legal technicality, that is, it had not received the approval of the governor in council.

The city obtained the money through the intermediary of Mr. Bourque. Originally the Finance Minister received a $100,000 grant which was later increased by $50,000.

In the construction of the bridge the city turned over about $300,000 in building costs.

The announcement that the cheque was received by the city ended a controversy started by South Ward Ald. Gerard Berard several weeks ago at a public meeting of the council.

Ald. Berard asked whether the city had received the grant.

City Treasurer Bachand answered that he could not say off hand since he had just returned from holidays.

A few days later, Mr. Bachand, in a statement, said that the cheque had been delayed in Quebec because of the legal technicality but payment was expected shortly.

At The Playhouse

Apprentices Take Over Stage

A new idea was instituted at the North Hatley Playhouse last night. In the current production, Out of the Frying Pan, by Francis Swann, practically all the parts are taken by apprentices of the company or young summer residents of North Hatley. It seems to be the fate of summer apprentices that they spend just about all their time on backstage work. Important as this is to a well rounded background in the theatre it is no substitute for the experience of facing an audience and giving what you've got. Rarely do the regular productions offer more than a walk-on for these youngsters.

But last night (and for the next three) they had their chance. Each was entrusted with a good part, and while the comedy is nothing outstanding in its own right, it was a good choice for a young cast.

Drama Topic At YWCA

Lectures on the Assembly theme, "Your Neighbour is Calling," by Miss Margaret Hart, and "Let Drama Say It" by Miss Marion Brillinger, highlighted yesterday's activities at the English National Assembly of the YWCA being held at Bishop's University in Lennoxville.

During the course of the afternoon there was a program exchange among the 38 delegates, dealing with residential life, ladies' day out programs, Y-Teens, and health and physical education.

Later on, Miss Olive Zeron, recently returned from European refugee camps where she had been working with the Red Cross, spoke of the work she had been doing and in particular of the work being done in Europe and the camps by the YWCA and the YWCA.

In Austria, the "Y" has set up barracks on 40 different camps, providing some 4,000 refugees with the opportunity to study languages, orientation, community programs and summer camp activities.

 MONTREAL, Aug. 21st — Remember the old fable about the grasshopper and the ant? While the foolish grasshopper spent the summer chirping merrily, the industrious ant stored up provisions for the winter. Then when the first icy blasts swept the landscape, you know who was in a pretty pickle! I apply the moral to many things... yes, even to fashions. For instance, I'm providing for my new winter suit now... in my "Fashion Account" at the BANK OF MONTREAL. It takes just a little determination to set aside a few dollars each pay-day. It's surprising how quickly regular deposits mount up. Why not open your "Fashion Account" at the Bank of Montreal today?

English College At Quebec

The announcement by Roman Catholic Archbishop Mgr. Maurice Roy that an English classical college will be established in Quebec City is a bold new step in cementing the sometimes loose ties that bind French and English-speaking Canadians.

The fact that the college will be affiliated with Laval University, historically French Canada's intellectual and cultural centre, indicates an intention on the part of educational authorities to make the association mutually rewarding.

Sympathizers with Quebec's point of view have pointed out that French Canadians sometimes lack understanding of their English-speaking neighbors.

French Canadians, in reply, maintain that they have been too preoccupied with a struggle for recognition to be concerned with English Canada's way of thinking.

Now French Canada has taken a long, mature look around. The founding of the Quebec St. Lawrence College is proof of an intelligent awakening to an old problem.

The authorities have judiciously decided to stress the humanities, representative of man's highest intellectual endeavors where difference of opinion and ways of thinking are essential.

Students, though often alive to academic differences of thought are sometimes unfeeling toward these trends in the society around them.

An English college, built in the heart of French Canada, will be able to directly introduce its students to a different way of life.

With this direction, tolerance based on a fine appreciation between English and French-speaking Canadians will result.

Oil - Our Best Ally

Although diplomats have not made it a point to publicly discuss oil in regard to the Middle Eastern situation, it is tacitly agreed among nearly all the countries of the world that this "black gold" is the crux of the whole matter.

Behind the nationalistic fuss and furor being raised by the inhabitants of the area, stands oil.

And it is because of oil, and all its economic implications, that the Western powers are not nearly so jittery about the problems of the Middle East as they may appear to be on the surface.

Co-operation with the western nations in producing and selling their oil is of vital importance to the countries of that sector. Even the most rabid nationalist knows that people who have tasted even some benefits from the $120 to $250 million of oil revenue every year will not lightly forego them.

It is true there are great inequalities of wealth, as the revolt in Iraq forcibly demonstrated. But even with these inequalities oil-rich Arab nations are far better off than they were before the oil era.

The only way to stay "better off" is to keep on good terms with the West.

At the present time, markets for Middle East oil lie in Western Europe and Britain. If the Arab nations decided to cut themselves off from these outlets, what then, quite apart from production considerations?

Could Russia help out?
The chances are that Russia could not. She is already producing some 100 millions tons of oil a year, which is more, say the experts, than she needs for her own needs, and provides a surplus to sell to Red China.

Even if Russia on diplomatic grounds, wanted to buy cheap Middle East oil she would face the problem of how to collect it. She has only 63 small tankers, totalling half a million tons, compared to Britain's nine million tons. To take reasonable quantities of oil, Russia would have to engage in the hazardous, costly and slow business of building pipelines into Iraq and neighboring countries.

The Far East has its own source of supply in Borneo and elsewhere. In any case, it is not sufficiently industrialized to need more oil, and will not be for some time to come.

Africa, also underdeveloped, consumes too little oil. If the entire continent bought its oil from the Middle East, it would need now only one ton in every seven being produced by the gushers.

It is for these reasons turbulent events in Iraq, Lebanon and Jordan have had little influence on the oil industries in those countries. Their operations have remained normal.

It is for these reasons, too, that oil is the West's strongest and best ally in the Middle East, however distasteful nationalistic idealists may find the notion.

NEW START NEEDED IN INDIAN POLICY

(Toronto Telegram)

In his maiden speech to the Senate, James Gladstone, Canada's first Indian senator, said he hopes "equality of opportunity" and "equal status" will soon mean something to Canada's 165,000 Indians.

Senator Gladstone, himself a Blackfoot tribesman, served his people well in this first speech. The Indians, he said, do not want patronage or tolerance, but understanding and help "so that they may materially improve their lot and status in the months and years to come."

Especially, he said, they need education—"not only in academic subjects, but in learning the life of the white men today."

Most of Canada's Indians live in 2,200 reservations from coast to coast. Half are still dependent on trapping, hunting and fishing. Most of the others are in agriculture.

Among the remainder are doctors, dentists, lawyers, teachers, nurses, clergymen, soldiers and technicians. Here is the evidence the Indian possesses the same inherent skills as any member of the human race. This is something Canadians have been slow to accept, judging by the effect of past and present policies based on the assumption that the Indian is somehow inferior and needs to be treated as a ward, not a citizen.

The Senate would be an appropriate starting point for a re-examination of these policies, with a view to amending them to achieve the full integration of the Indian into Canadian life.

Canada has not much to be proud of in its treatment of Indians. The results reflect the original intention to deal with them as conquered primitives, an intention Canadians should have long ago put aside. The elevation of Chief Gladstone to the Senate, through use of the personal prerogative of Prime Minister Diefenbaker, is an omen of change in Canada's attitude to its aboriginal peoples.

What is said of the Indians applies with equal force to the Eskimo, for whom a great role may be waiting in the development of Arctic Canada.

The Bishop of James Bay, Neville Clarke, a true friend of the Indians, says: "We are spoiling the moral character of the Indian by believing he is fair game. And we have put a social barrier against him."

CONTRACT MADE ON SAFETY PLAY

North held 16 good points, but was unable to do anything but pass over West's three-heart bid. Three no-trump would be far too dangerous as would a takeout double.

Pessimistic Pete who sat South is only a pessimist in the play. He bid three no-trump on the strength of his six-card club suit, heart ace and spade king and North jumped right to the small slam.

Pete won the opening heart lead in his own hand and noted that East had discarded the three of spades. He looked over dummy and said, "Parents, a lucky player would wrap up a grand slam, but I am not lucky. I think that I will give up all play for the grand slam and take a safe and sane six."

Suiling the action to the word Pete led the three of clubs. It was well that he made this safety play, because East held all five clubs and if Pete had laid down one of his three top clubs he would have chuckled the small slam right out the window.

As it was, dummy's ten spot forced East's jack, then Pete was able to finesse against the nine spot and make five club tricks. Since he had seven top tricks in the other suits the slam came home.

Lasted 22 Years

Montreal's Durable Summer Festival

By LEO LeBLANC

MONTREAL (CP) — Summer work for musicians was the idea behind the founding of the Montreal Festivals 22 years ago.

The annual August series of music, theatrical shows and other events now is firmly established.

"Montreal is the only big city in the world to have maintained a like festival for 22 years," says Robert Letendre, president of the Montreal Festivals Society since 1955. "An annual summer festival usually does not survive in a city. But in Montreal, the artistic taste of the people and our festivals have grown hand-in-hand."

Founder of the Montreal festivals was the late Madame Athanasie David, who also founded the Montreal Symphony Orchestra.

To illustrate the development of the cultural spirit here Mr. Letendre cited an all-Bach concert which was a sell-out this year.

Montreal festivals was the first to offer Montrealeers performances of such works as Beethoven's Ninth Symphony, Faure's Requiem and Honegger's Roi David, and to bring to Montreal such groups as the St. Paul's Cathedral Choir of London and l'Orchestra National de France of Paris. It was the first to stage special events such as a Canadian composers' symphony concert.

It has presented the Canadian premieres of famous works by modern composers such as Debussy's Pelleas et Melisande, Honegger's Jeanne au Bucher, Richard Strauss' Ariadne auf Naxos, and Stravinsky's L'Histoire du Soldat and Les Noces.

The Modern Ballet of Mexico came this year and various folk-lore films and art exhibitions have been put on.

Low admission prices help attract people from outside the city. In 1957, tickets for a series of 17 different productions could be bought for as low as $20.75. Tickets for the Bach concert this year ranged from $1 to $3.

The society tries to include as many Canadian artists as possible in its productions, but has also presented world-famous artists. This year Erika Koeth, one of the leading coloratura sopranos, made her North American debut in Montreal.

Sir Thomas Beecham and Eugene Ormandy have been guest conductors, and next season's program will be opened by Wilhelm Kempff, the celebrated Beethoven interpreter.

Established European artists stimulate Canada's own, says Mr. Letendre. Fernand Ledoux, French actor-director, this year directed and starred in Moliere's satire on hypocrisy, Tartuffe, supported by an all-Canadian cast at the newly-created Comedie Canadienne.

Gerald Waring REPORTING

OTTAWA — Liberals on the House of Commons public accounts committee profess to see the skilled hand of Conservative National Director Alistair Grosart behind the committee probe of construction of the $16 millions National Printing Bureau plant at Hull, Que.

In what is happening in the committee they see signs of a Grosart-inspired and directed effort to blacken the reputation and memory of the late St. Laurent government, and thus to destroy as a political asset the Liberals' record of achievement in 22 years in office.

When the Republicans came to power in 1952 they branded two decades of Democratic administration as "20 years of treason."

And so notwithstanding the efficient and honest administration of such ministers as C. D. Howe, Walter Harris, Robert H. Winters and Ralph Campney, the late government may be smeared with the charge of "22 years of waste and extravagance."

This is not to deny that the Department of Public Works was wasteful and inefficient in the period prior to 1953. It was notoriously so, and this was known long before this committee began probing the printing bureau. But from 1953 on Winters did a thorough job of housecleaning the department -- just as earlier he had housecleaned the National Film Board.

It appears -- and not only to Liberals -- that "prosecuting attorney" David Walker is more interested in producing headline sensations than in Drama came to the festivals in a big way in 1954 with the Montreal Theatre du Nouveau Monde doing Moliere and the Montreal Repertory Theatre performing Bernard Shaw's Saint Joan.

Many of the outdoor presentations were rained out in 1953 and by the end of 1955 more than 400 creditors, including some 50 artists, were claiming $125,000.

Robert Letendre took over as president and set about to restore its finances. The society expects to have all debts paid and to be fully on its feet by the end of the year, when Mr. Letendre finishes his three-year term and leaves his post.

furthering the committee's task of seeing that money spent on the printing bureau was spent in accordance with Parliament's wishes.

Walker is a Toronto lawyer and a man reputedly close to Prime Minister Diefenbaker. As the duly chosen Tory ball carrier in the committee, he has been making some long end runs in search of fresh scoring opportunities. For example, in questioning a witness before the committee, Deputy Works Minister H. A. Young, Walker elicited testimony that Liberal Senator Sarto Fournier had threatened to have Young fired if a Montreal firm did not get the contract to move machinery, supplies, furniture and files from the old printing plant to the new.

It should have stood to the Liberals' credit that Fournier's friends did not get the contract. But what interested Walker was the threat, not the fact that Young -- with the support of Winters -- withstood this effort to apply political pressure.

And all of this had nothing to do with construction of the new plant.

In Washington, probes like this have been the making of many men -- Nixon, McCarthy, Kefauver and Jenner, to name a few. In a personal sense Walker has a lot at stake.

If his tactics and Grosart's strategy succeed in doing more than temporarily embarrassing the Liberals, it will be a tremendous political achievement. If Walker could prove graft and corruption, he would be made and the Liberals thoroughly discredited. But three weeks of intensive questioning of witnesses have not raised the smell of skulduggery. So far the probe has only exposed the printing bureau as a case, and perhaps an isolated one, of extravagance, inefficiency and monumental stupidity.

Normally the works minister at the time -- who is now Mr. Justice Alphonse Fournier of the Exchequer Court -- would be summoned as a witness. But in addition to a reluctance to bring a judge into a political wrangle, there is a humanitarian consideration: the judge is incurably ill with cancer.

I'LL SEE YOU AT THE SHERBROOKE EXHIBITION

Two Arabs Sentenced To Death

AMMAN, Jordan (AP). — A Jordanian military court today convicted five young Arabs of exploding bombs in Amman and sentenced two of them to death.

One of the defendants was a 19-year-old girl, Miss Nadia Salti. She got three years at hard labor. Her fiancé, 22-year-old Stepho Theodore Stephan, was one of those sentenced to death.

The defendants were accused of exploding five bombs during recent weeks.

The case, which was placed before a military court eight days ago, had become a cause celebre in the Arab world.

Radio Cairo called Miss Salti a Moslem Joan of Arc.

URGES TIME CHANGE

H. W. Herridge (CCF — Kootenay West) urged that the federal government get together with the provinces to try to work out some uniformity in use of daylight saving time. This would avoid the confusion he said is created by having some areas on daylight and others on standard time.

PENAL REFORM OUTDATED

In the Senate, Toronto Liberal Senator David Croll described Canada's present parole system as one of the most backward in the world.

But there was hope that this situation could be remedied by implementation of recommendations in the Fauteux committee report on penal reform. These, he said, would give Canada a penal system that would reform, not penalize.

He spoke as the Senate gave final approval to a government bill establishing a five-member national parole board, in line with one of the many Fauteux committee reports.

"Far too many people in our country want to step on prisoners and make them suffer," Senator Croll said. "They, so to speak, want to get back at him for what he had done to society."

Instead, Canada's penal system should try to rehabilitate the offender so that he wouldn't commit crimes again.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING — Congratulations are being extended to Mr. Napoleon Bachand and Mrs. Bachand, the former Albertine Carreault of Waterloo, who recently celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Bachand, who reside at 77 Shaw Street, were honored at a party held at St. Anne de la Rochelle, where a large number of friends gathered to offer their congratulations and extend good wishes for many more years of happiness.

mit himself for an over all view of the western prospects in the east. He felt that the western position is stronger than that of the pro-communist bloc.

"It's like bush fires," he pointed out. Several small outbreaks could easily lead to real trouble. And that was the job of the commission. To stamp out the possibility of minor flare-ups."

Apart from the dealings with the commission, Mr. Oliver's life was interesting to say the least. He spoke of an outbreak of cholera, travelling conditions (difficult at the best of times and impossible in the rainy season), customs and outlook of the native population.

"In some ways," he said, "They are more civilized than we are. They're an extremely courteous people. None of the children were noisy. Yet in their way too, they're becoming westernized. Clothing is generally western except for state occasions, and each little place has its nightclubs."

Turning back to the present and his job, did he like being called a diplomat? "That word is a little out of style right now," was the jocular reply.

Clad comfortably for the interview in a gaudy shirt "which I picked up in Hawaii on the way back," he quipped "Oh well, I don't suppose you wanted to see me wearing striped pants and tails!"

Liberals To Meet In Windsor

Alcide Courcy, general organizer of the provincial Liberal party has announced that a regional convention of the Eastern Townships will be held in the town of Windsor Mills, on September 21. This congress will include six members: Richmond, Sherbrooke, Stanstead, Compton, Frontenac and Wolfe.

Following the wishes by the provincial Liberal party leader, Jean Lesage during his last visit to Sherbrooke, county organizer will hold a closed meeting to form the basis of a regional body which would be administratively independent from the Montreal and Quebec branches, while still being directed by the central organization.

The convention will study the problems of education, agriculture and relations between factory employer and employees.

According to Mr. Courcy, the exact date of when provincial leader Jean Lesage will visit Sherbrooke is unknown but that it will be during Fall.

Fatal Hair

PHILADELPHIA (AP). — Dr. Philip S. Brachman, a U.S. public health surgeon, disclosed Wednesday that the first epidemic of lung anthrax in modern times broke out in New Hampshire last fall, causing four deaths. The disease was traced to a batch of goat hair imported from India.

Threat To French Language

CHICOUTIMI, Que. (CP). — French-Canadians, to retain their culture and way of life, must protect their language from outside influences and from deterioration through indifference, an educator has warned.

Jean-Marie Laurence, deputy director-general of Quebec's normal schools, told the annual convention of the Canadian Association of French - Language Educators that no language could live only through the written word.

Oral French was being threatened by absorption of English words, a "rustic type" pronunciation and poor vocabulary.

Richard Bergeron, director-general of Sherbrooke, Que., schools and member of the association's executive council, said French spoken by good society in Paris and the north of France should with minor adaptations be the model for the French spoken in Canada.

But, he said, "it would be childish to think that we will achieve our goal through professors from France and French books. The salvation of the language will come from us and not from others."

CALLS FOR UNION

Jean-Paul Tremblay, professor at the Chicoutimi Seminary, called for the union of the association with the Canadian Institute of Adult Education. Such a union, he said, would put the association more in touch with the problems of the Canadian people generally.

Miss Jeanne Lapointe, professor of French at Laval University, Quebec City, said the French language in Canada should endeavour to acquire a better vocabulary, a more correct and pure syntax and a phonetic conforming more to the average French of today.

Markland Smith, president of the teacher-parent federation of Ontario, outlined the differences between the French spoken by Maritimers and the rest of the French-speaking people of Canada.

J. Gerard Degraze, assistant superintendent of New Brunswick's education department and vice-president of the association, said it was the French spoken by the elite which minority groups would finally adopt.

Some 600 delegates are attending the convention.

AT THE PLAYHOUSE

The brief appearance of Eric Heath also added a stabilizing touch and Christopher Fitz-Simon was amusing in a character bit.

The story concerns six young people striving to be actors, who share an apartment in New York City purely for financial reasons. The fact that three of them are boys and three girls, doesn't worry them any but it does worry a rather prim school friend of one of the girls who comes to visit.

Living in the apartment below them is a producer, so the actors decide to rehearse his latest production and then inveigle him into coming up to see it. They succeed in getting him there but constant interruption, including the landlady, and a couple of cops, make hash of the performance.

Even so, the producer is suitably impressed with the young actors' improvisations, and offers them all parts in a road company. Young love also triumphs over parental objections, and all ends happily.

The production was marked by youthful enthusiasm and few prompts and it was evident that the young actors were putting everything they could into their parts.

The fact that the audience was not witnessing the usual profesnot supported by anybody else there could be no question of an Israeli attack upon Jordan," the Soviet foreign minister added. But the Israeli delegate made no reference to this approach when he spoke at the evening session of the assembly several hours later.

The evening session was held to clean up the long list of speakers who have called for the floor during the Middle East debate. More were on tap today, but it was felt that when the Arab solution was put into formal language and tabled in the assembly the speakers would limit their floor time to allow an early vote.

NO WITHDRAWAL

Still before the assembly, besides the Norway-Canada compromise which makes no reference to withdrawal of the British and American forces from Jordan and Lebanon, is the resolution Gromyko put forward in his first speech in the debate last week. This would have the assembly call for a withdrawal as a first step in any kind of settlement under the UN.

The Arab resolution's wording, it was understood before its formal presentation, avoided any direct reference to withdrawal. It stressed the mutual non-aggression angle to the extent that Britain and the U.S. could see fit to get out soon if all the Arab governments including Jordan and Lebanon agree to it.

Lebanon, it was known, was ready to accept this assurance from her neighbors. It was felt that Britain could put enough influence on King Hussein to bring about Jordanian support.

VANCOUVER (CP). — Longshoremen in five B.C. seaports have voted 84 per cent in favor of strike action to back up demands for improved working conditions, it was disclosed Wednesday. If they strike, most import and export shipping through B.C. would be halted with Prince Rupert on the north coast the only deep-sea port still operating.

sional productions did not seem to deter them from enjoying it. This was a bold step for the Playhouse to take but it proved that they are trying to fulfill one of their prime purposes in developing new talent.

Those taking part in the production not previously mentioned are: Michael Pick, Nora Johnstone, Dolly Kaplan, Mary Douglas, Nini Hough, Terry Labrosse and David Raboy.

There's More To These Words Than Meets The Ear

It could be a compliment, but it usually isn't when a woman says: "I like your hair. You ought to keep it blonde." "You have the nicest husband. He's so much fun at a party." "You look simply marvelous. I believe you've gained a little weight and it certainly is becoming." "I'm so glad you cut your hair. Really, you look a hundred per cent better with it short." "What do you care what anyone thinks? If you like it, that's all that matters." "Wherever have you been keeping yourself? I simply never see you any more." "I've always liked that dress you're wearing." "I don't see how you find the time to do all you do. It keeps me busy just looking after my family." "I envy you your job. I wish Jim would let me work, but he has the silly old-fashioned notion that a wife's place is at home." "You've got a better disposition than I have. I wouldn't take that for a minute." "I think it's marvelous the way you never let anything upset you. I'd be worried to death if I were you." "Your hair is so pretty. I simply adore gray hair. I think you're so wise not to dye it." "You've done a marvelous job as club president. It's a shame there aren't more members who appreciate all you've done." "From one woman to another such remarks could be compliments. But they usually aren't."

She Tells You How To Spend

By EDNA USHER

TORONTO (CP) — Florence Philpott's job is to tell other people how to spend their money. Miss Philpott, 49, is vice-president and executive director of Metropolitan Toronto's social planning council.

"Part of the council's work is to ensure that social welfare agencies use donated money efficiently," she said.

"If the council thinks money is being wasted or more cash is needed to provide better service, it makes recommendations to the United Appeal fund and to the agencies concerned."

A BIGGER JOB

But the social planning council has a bigger job than merely dealing in cash.

"We want to establish an ideal of welfare in Toronto where all genuine needs for assistance are supplied, and where the city's inhabitants are aware of the services available," said Miss Philpott.

She has a staff of 40. Nearly 100 societies or associations work with the council.

As a result of study, the council has recommended that homes for old people be included in all new housing projects.

"We have found old persons should not be taken away from the community," she said.

The council looks for gaps in welfare facilities, and as a result of its work, "welcome centres" for immigrants were set up at Union Station and Malton Airport.

It sets standards for welfare services, such as enumerating minimum requirements of safety and care at day camps and nurseries.

The council tries to prevent overlapping in social service work.

Though most of its work is advisory, two services benefit welfare agencies and the public directly.

A register of volunteers is kept so that anybody wanting to help a welfare agency without pay can readily be found. An index of cases being dealt with by agencies is also kept, so that, although reports remain confidential, families need not give details of the family history to every agency they deal with.

"We hope one day to reach the point when nobody in need will stay that way for long," said Miss Philpott. "But this can only be done if the public will maintain interest in social welfare, find out how it works and help it to work."

Beauty Tips

Comfort is important for a person's general outlook, and an especially hot day calls for plenty of comfort. Women who think they are cooler because they wear fewer layers of clothing actually contribute to their own warmth. An under and outer layer insulates the skin against outside heat and helps absorb perspiration.

Newport House where a dinner was served to 85 guests. The bride's table, was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Floating pond lilies and white tapers in silver holders completed the arrangement.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs left by motor for their honeymoon trip. On their return they will reside in Derby Line. For travelling the bride chose a jacket dress of strawberry rose linen with a white hat and accessories and orchid corsage.

The bride attended Sacred Heart school, Newport, and the groom, Derby Academy. He spent four years with the United States Air Force.

This moppet is going back to school in a one-piece dress with a two-piece look. It's done in wool jersey with permanently pleated skirt, a blouse that looks like a vest and white collar and cuffs. A Shephardness design, it washes easily and needs no ironing.

Polish Divorcee May Bring New Spouse To Live With Old

housing shortage in Warsaw has created a new marital status — "divorced but not separated."

Housing has priority in the Polish capital, which was almost destroyed in the war, but whole families still live crammed in a single room.

Divorced couples often have to continue living together.

The problem, sometimes humorous, sometimes tragic, is aggravated by the presence of children and parents-in-law. The effect on young children of a hostile confined atmosphere in which conflicts between their divorced parents are daily routine is inevitably serious.

Another post-divorce problem arises when one of the couple marries again and brings the new wife, or husband, to live in the same apartment. This now is accepted as a normal part of Warsaw life.

A tragic element in many cases is that when only one partner has sought divorce, bitter suffering is caused when he or she brings a man or woman to the same house.

In such conditions, the tragedy of a woman who still loves and has to live in the same flat with her former husband and his new wife becomes a social problem," a Polish law journal says.

"The principle should be binding that the guilty party should leave home."

BOB LORTIE

Wrestling Program Is Popular

The Saturday night wrestling program made such a hit with Ayer's Cliff grandstand audiences last year, that fair officials once more lined up a spectacular show for the closing evening.

This is the program:

ONE Fall of 30 minutes will feature Paul "Madman" Bell vs.
Andre Carpentier.

This will be followed by the famous TV midgets with two out of three falls and a time limit of 60 minutes.

The grand finale will feature the international champion, Bob Lortie against fabulous Terry Garvin. Lortie has been referred to as the "unpredictable French man who fights with the steel hard viciousness of the French fighting man." Garvin, a pro for only three years, has already made a name for himself. An even six-footer and a svelte 222 pounder, the young fighter is fast gaining in popularity.

Dodgers Trounce Braves For Their Third Straight Win Over Leaders

Chicago White Sox Working On Longest Winning Streak In Two Years As They Roll Into Yankee Stadium For Series

The second-place Chicago White Sox have a seven-game winning streak, their longest in two years. The first place New York Yankees have a winning streak of one, their longest in a week.

That's the way things stand as the White Sox roll into Yankee Stadium tonight for the opener in a three-game set with the league leaders.

The Yankees lead by 10½ games. It's up to the White Sox to bring the champs back closer to the field.

SHOOT FOR SECOND

It's not just benevolence that motivates the White Sox. They're on a drive to nail second place (although manager Al Lopez insists they're shooting for the flag) and at the moment they're doing right well, winning 15 of their last 18 games in a rush from fourth place.

They built a three-game lead over third-place Boston by beating the Red Sox 10-8 Wednesday after blowing a six-run lead.

The Yankees, who had lost four in a row, ended that with a 7-1 victory over the Cleveland Indians for their third victory in 11 games.

Detroit clung to fourth by beating Washington 7-1 while Baltimore regained fifth with a 4-3 decision over Kansas City.

Jim Landis drove in four runs for the White Sox, doubling home a pair for a 7-1 lead and then nailing it with a two-run homer, his 15th, in the seventh inning. Turk Lown won his third in relief. Ted Williams' 21st homer counted three runs in the fifth.

BERRA HOMERS TWICE

Art Ditmar (9-4) had a four-hit shutout for six innings and wound up with an eight-hitter for the first complete game by a Yankee pitcher in 13 games. Yogi Berra belted his 18th and 19th home runs for a 3-0 lead against loser Gary Bell (7-8).

Al Kaline rapped a pair of three-run homers for the Tigers. Frank Lary won his 12th with an eight-hitter, losing his shutout bid on an unearned run in the third.

Pete Ramos lost it. Bob Nieman hit a run-scoring triple in a two-run first inning, then led it for the Orioles with a two-run homer in the third off loser Walt Craddock (9-2). Jack Harshman (10-11) allowed only five hits.

Zora Folley Confident He Can Take Floyd Patterson But Manager D'Amato Says Nothing Doing Owing To IBC

CHANDLER, Ariz. (AP) — "I deserve the chance to fight Patterson," says No. 1 heavyweight contender Zora Folley. "I think I can lick him any time, any place."

Folley's manager, millionaire Phoenix sportsman Bill Swift, echoes the refrain.

Why, asks Swift, has the Chandler fighter been sidetracked in favor of opponents of lesser standing?

Champion Floyd Patterson's manager, Gus D'Amato, has said: "Patterson won't fight anybody who's fought for the IBC."

The International Boxing Club is a big bogey to D'Amato. And Folley has fought under IBC auspices.

This attitude leaves Swift and Folley angry, anxious and on a spot.

Folley at 26 has met most of the top heavies. He and his manager feel this is the crossroads. One route leads to the title, the other to oblivion.

WATCHED HARRIS GO

Folley watched the champ score a 12th round knockout over Roy Harris in Los Angeles Monday night and came away convinced — if he ever had any doubts — that he can defeat Patterson.

"Everybody says he's real fast, and he did throw some fast ones against Harris," Folley said. "But he misses a lot."

"I think I can beat Patterson at his best."

Folley's assurance was built the hard way — by 43 professional fights and dozens as an amateur. He's won 39 of his pro bouts, lost two and drawn two. It's the best record in the heavyweight division.

Swift has approached D'Amato about a title fight for Folley several times. And each time, he claims, he was ignored.

Bob Bedard Advances In Quebec Open

MONTREAL (CP) — Favorites moved along Wednesday in the third and fourth rounds of the men's singles in the Quebec Open tennis championships.

Third-round victors included Bob Bedard, Sherbrooke, Que.; Greg Grant, Los Angeles, and Andre Donnadieu, Mexico City.

All-China Body Withdraws From Olympic Group

PEIPING (Reuters) — The All-China Athletic Federation announced today its withdrawal from the International Olympic Committee because of the "un-constitutional recognition" of Nationalist China.

Cheng Lien-hua, secretary-general, told a press conference China also has decided to withdraw from the International Amateur Swimming Federation and seven other international organizations for basketball, track, weight - lifting, amateur wrestling, cycling, shooting and table tennis.

"The admission of the Chiang Kai-shek clique by these organizations violates the principles laid down in their constitutions that only one national federation shall be recognized in each country," Cheng said.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

Hitting: Willie Jones, Philadelphia Phillies—Drove in eight runs with a pair of three-run homers and a double while going 4-for-5 in 12-2 victory over St. Louis Cardinals.

Pitching: Stan Williams, Los Angeles Dodgers—Needed relief help for the final out but blanked Milwaukee Braves on five singles over the last eight innings for 2-1 victory.

Par Takes Beating As 35 Players Get Under In First Round Of Canadian Open; Don January Leads With 65

EDMONTON (CP) — The tournament professionals said in practice they enjoyed playing Edmonton's plush Mayfair golf course. They proved their enjoyment Wednesday in the play-for-money chase for the Canadian open's $25,000 as 35 players in a field of 106 pros and amateurs came in under Mayfair's par 70.

Don January, a six-foot one-inch Texan from Eastland, and Mike Fetchik of Yonkers, N.Y., proved it most conclusively, covering the 6,657-yard course in five-under-par 65.

Seven others made it in 66, another 10 in 67, five in 68 and 12 in 69. One long-time official said it was the greatest assault on par in the history of the Canadian Open.

HIGH AMATEUR

Doug Silverberg of Calgary with a 69 was the only one of the 18 amateurs competing to break par.

Six other Canadians got in their sub-par licks. Moe Norman of Toronto, pre-tournament favorite Stan Leonard of Vancouver and Bud Loftus of Edmonton had 67s.

George Knudson of Toronto fired a 68, while Al Balding of Toronto, Jack Kay of Montreal and Danny Stack of Winnipeg joined Silverberg at 69.

The seven tied with 66 were all from the United States. They are: George Bernardin, 29-year-old native of Lawrence, Mass.; Bill Collins, Baltimore; Jay Hebert, San Jose, Calif.; his brother, Lionel, Lafayette, La.; Tom Jacobs, Whittier, Calif.; Tony Lema, Napa, Calif.; and Bob Goolby of Belleville, Ill.

At 67s with Loftus, Norman and Leonard were Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N.Y., winner of the St. Paul Open; Arnold Palmer, La Trobe, Pa.; Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla.; Doug Sanders, Miami Beach, Fla.; John Pott, Shreveport, La.; Bob Goetz, Tulsa, Okla.; and Wes Ellis, Ridgewood, N.J.

Defending champion George Bayer of Lemont, Ill., fired a par 70 while 1954 open champion Pat Fletcher of Montreal took 71.

Palmer and Sanders, both with 67, were the winners in 1955 and 1956.

Marlene Stewart Streit Still At It, Wins Again; Roma Nuendorf Is Only Other Canadian Left In Event

DARIEN, Conn. (CP) — Mrs. Marlene Stewart Streit, the Canadian golfing pixie who uses her iron like magic wands, stands a good chance to subdue fifth-round opposition today and gain the quarter-final of the U.S. women's amateur championship.

Mrs. Streit, who swept through the third and fourth rounds Wednesday without needing to play well, meets Mrs. Marge Mason of Ridgewood, N.J., this morning in the qualifier for the quarter-final.

Another Canadian golfer, Roma Nuendorf of Toronto, has the unenviable assignment of meeting perky Joanne Gunderson of Seattle.

the 19-year-old defending champion who had no trouble Wednesday disposing of Judy Darling of Hudson Heights, Que., 4 and 3. Miss Nuendorf would have to pull the upset of the tournament to get past Miss Gunderson.

Mrs. Streit and Roma Nuendorf were the only Canadians to reach fifth-round play.

Katherine Helleur and Mrs. John McCarter of Toronto were knocked out in fourth-round play Wednesday. In third round matches, Janet McWha of St. Lambert, Que., and Mrs. Lindsay Mussels of Montreal were knocked out.

To Reduce Margin To 5½ Games As Giants Edge Redlegs; Pirates Win Over Cubs And Phillies Quit Cellar

The Dodgers blew some more foam off Milwaukee's National League lead last night, taking their third in a row from the Braves, 2-1.

That slashed the champ's lead to 5½ games, with two games remaining in the series at Los Angeles before Milwaukee plunges into a five-game set with the second place Giants at San Francisco.

The "dead" Dodgers got four hits off Warren Spahn. At that, they needed only the last two, scoring in the fifth inning on Joe Pignatano's home run, a walk and Norm Larker's triple.

San Francisco took a 4-3 afternoon victory from Cincinnati. Philadelphia quit the cellar and cut a losing string at seven games by rapping St. Louis 12-2 with Willie Jones driving in eight runs. Third-place Pittsburgh beat Chicago Cubs 4-2, then lost 5-1 in the second game of the double-header, which was held to five innings by rain and darkness.

IMPROVE RECORD

The Dodgers, who have won eight of their last nine in a jump from last place to fourth, built a 12-6 season record over the Braves, who began their 10-game tour of California with an eight-game bungle.

Rookie Stan Williams then blanked the Braves after a one-run first on five singles, although needing Johnny Klippstein's help in the ninth.

Williams now is 9-7, Spain 16-9.

Bob Friend, the only other 16-game winner in the NL, also failed at No. 17, taking his 13th defeat in the nightcap at Chicago. Dick Drott (6-10) didn't give up a hit until Bill Mazeroski slapped his 16th home run in the fifth inning. The Cubs battered Friend for 11 hits, scoring twice in the last of the fifth before the rains came.

WIN OPENER

Dick Stuart's two-run homer, his 11th, and a pair of RBI singles by Dick Groat bagged the opener for the Bucs and Ron Kline (12-11). Dave Hillman (3-5) lost it as the third place Pirates gained their 62nd victory—in a 7-1 triumph over the Reds.

The Giants handed reliever Brooks Lawrence (6-12) his ninth defeat in a row. Al Worthington (10-5) won it in relief after starter Stu Miller had given up homers to Frank Robinson and Johnny Temple.

Jones banged a pair of three-run homers and a two-run double for the best one-game production by a Phillie since Del Ennis drove in seven against the same Cardinals in 1955. Harry Anderson also homered for the Phils, making Robin Roberts' 13th victory a breeze. Billy Muffett (4-5) lost it. Stan Musial, staying .004 ahead of Phillie Richie Ashburn in the batting race, had two hits, the Cards—one a double that gave him 2,165 extra bases on long hits, matching Mel Ott's NL record.

Maple Leafs' Chances At Reaching Royals Takes Sudden Setback As Bisons Rout Them 16-0; Jets Win

The last couple of days were supposed to represent move up time for Toronto Maple Leaf, but they didn't figure on the wrath of the Buffalo Bisons.

For the second straight night, the Bisons whipped the Leafs — scoring a 16-0 rout Wednesday that dropped second - place Toronto four games off Montreal's pace. Tuesday night, Buffalo won 7-1.

The cost to Toronto was only a half game as Montreal and Rochester played to a rain - delayed and finally rain-halted 2-2 tie in 13 innings. Columbus pulled into a fourth place tie with Miami, winning 5-0 over the Marlins, and Havana and Richmond split. Havana won the opener 2-1 and Richmond the second game, 10-5.

Lefthander Freddie Hahn's five-hit pitching and Luke Eastton's slugging featured the Buffalo performance against Toronto. Easter slammed his 33rd home run.

The Bisons vacated last place in favor of Havana. The Cubans won the first on Borego Alvarez' two-run homer in the ninth but slipped to last when Richmond's 10th attack coupled with four Havana errors made a Vees' romp — the nightcap.

Bennie Daniels pitched a four-hitter for the Jets.

Rochester had scored once in the 14th inning for a 3-2 lead and was two strikes away from a victory over Montreal when the final downpour of a well-splashed evening caused umpire Wally Vanderhoff to order a rainout.

Thursday's schedule: Rochester at Montreal, Buffalo at Toronto, Columbus at Miami, Richmond at Havana.

Virgil Akins Comes Back To Belt Tombstone Smith Out Of Contention On 10th Round TKO In Close Battle

CHICAGO (AP) — Welterweight boxing champion Virgil Akins saved face Wednesday night with a 10th round technical knockout of hardy Charlie (Tombstone) Smith.

He didn't have much face to save.

Smith, a gangling 4-to-1 underdog, opened cuts at the corner of Akins' eyes and by the 10th the champ's face was a crimson mask.

The end came suddenly for

As the final round started Akins charged like a gored bull.

A left hook decked Tombstone for an eight count. Then Akins drove him into a corner. He landed 16 punches without Tombstone fighting back. Referee Frank Sikora stopped it at 1:18.

Larry Chief Wins In 2.11 4-5 In Handicap Pace; $6,500 Colt Stake To Be Held Here Sunday At 1.30

The picking boys were on their toes last night at the Sherbrooke Race Track and no outstanding prices were shelled out through the pari-mutuel windows. The next card is listed for Saturday evening at 8:00 while on Sunday the big event of the season, the Canadian Two-Year Stake for a purse of $6,500, will be run off. The Sunday program will take place in the afternoon with Post Time at 1.30.

Real Mathieu's Larry Chief walked off with the honors in the Handicap Pace when he pulled in ahead of the field in 2.11 4/5. The field toured the first half in 1.04 2/5 for the fastest time of the evening and then came home in 1.07 2/5. It was a close battle with the winner and Mo Lass followed by Lee Scott Harvester with Fern Desrochers up.

In the only double fixture of the evening, a "D" Trot and Pace, which was run in the fifth and eighth the honors were divided. In the first half Leclair's Doctor Brooke C was the winner starting from the pole position.

In the second half of the race it was a different story as the winner of the first class drew the sixth slot and this changed matters. Bobby Taylor, who was second in the opening heat, pulled around the field on the last trip to come home the winner.

The double of Queen Over and Fabi's Winston Rosecroft paid their backers $20.20. The first quinella in the third was $10.70 for the combination of Eventide Brooke and Slow Poke. In the sixth it was Allie Truax and Tiger Hum and they paid their pickers with $14.40.

In the ninth, with only six starters, saw Dr. Taylor's Peter Ritz round the field on the guiding hands of R. Jutras to come home ahead of the field. Teamed with Mr. Normby they paid $32.20 the top quinella of the night.

Better Coaching In Minor Loops Needed In Canada
MONTREAL (CP)—Since football has become big business in Canada, professional clubs are finding out at least two things: They can't "spend themselves rich" on high-priced United States imports, and there's a desperate need for top-level coaching in Canadian minor football, from high school leagues up.

Homebrew players no longer are a lightly-regarded commodity for a club with Grey Cup aspirations. The ALs have not been a parsimonious club. General manager Gorman Kennedy says the average homebrew with the Big Four club last season drew $5,051 "and I think that's a fair amount for six months work."

"I can't say accurately what the other pro clubs are paying their Canadian players, but you can be sure it's well above what is popularly believed although likely not as high as our scale." The ALs have gone along with the other league teams in promoting a minor circuit this season, but they still maintain football fundamentals should be taught at the high school age.

This throws the problem back on adequate coaching. No Canadian high schools in the East employ coaches with pro experience. In many cases the coaches are faculty members who have never played organized football.

Kennedy thinks the schools—if they're going to have football—should reach across the border for coaching help for a while at least.

"The best thing would be to bring in American coaches, say, at a salary of $5,000 or $6,000 a year, who can also handle academic jobs."

"Within five or six years we would have a steady flow of mighty good football players." H. J. Johnson, Montreal's new chief scout and a pro player in the U.S. for six years, has a high regard for Canadian players. He piloted Kitchener-Waterloo Dutchmen to four consecutive championships in the Ontario Rugby Football Union before joining the Alouettes staff.

"Canadians make every bit as good football players as Americans," says Johnson. "But the difference is that youngsters here generally lack grounding in the game's basic points. So many start their careers a step behind."

through the season and it should be a close affair. Each team has good hurlers as well as top sluggers. The A's however have lost the services of "Chico" Provencher, their top hitter, but Manager Lefebvre hopes that Pierre Langlois can take up the slack.

Manager Lefebvre may send Jean-Guy Mathieu to the mound in an effort to cop the important first game of a short series. Mathieu hasn't pitched for a few weeks owing to a sore arm but it is hoped he will be ready for tonight.

Manager Pepin will have his usual strong defensive team ready for this big series. Yvon Ellyson, chief umpire, will be in charge of all playoffs and contrary as during the season different umpires from over the circuit will be switched around to handle the games.

The tilt is slated to commence at 7.30 and the general public is invited to attend. Admission is free and the fans should witness some good ball.

Athletics Top Indians 8-4 To Earn Tie With White Sox For League Honors; Sudden-Death This Evening

Athletics with their 8-4 win over the Indians in a Little League game last night placed themselves in a tie for first place in the league standing with the White Sox. A deciding game between these two teams will be played tonight at Parade Grounds to decide the league winners.

Athletics took a one run lead in the bottom of the second inning. Clement leftfielder of the A's hitting for a round-tripper. Coming to bat in the third the Indians came up with four runs getting back-to-back hits from Pelouquin, Thibault, Clement, Milam and Labonte to send home the runs.

Athletics tied it 4-4 at the end of the third. Roy with a homer drove in two runs and Boisvert with a single accounting for the third tally. Indians, facing Dore in the last three innings, went hitless and in these frames Bobby Dore sent seven men down by the strike-out route.

Athletics added three more runs in the fourth. Roy G. Gingles, and N. Gingles hitting safely. They added one more in the last of the fifth. N. Gingles with a long single being credited the R.B.I. This finished the scoring the A's taking the game by an 8-5 count.

Big Star for the A's was Bobby Dore, who replaced Leblanc on the mound in the third inning, retiring the last six batters to face him in order: G. Gingles, Roy and N. Gingles were the other stars. Milani, Thibault and Vincent were the Indian stars. Griffin, Courchesne and Olson were the Umpires.

Indians 8-4
Athletics 5-1
G. Thibault and N. Thibault; Leblanc, Dore (3) and Roy.

from all over the country and several top bike men from across the border are competing for the top prizes at stake. Teams are formed and the riders accumulating the most number of points during the event will receive special prizes at the end of the race which is slated to end Sunday afternoon in Quebec City.

upon their arrival and prizes donated by Matte-Masse, local representatives for Molson Brewery, will be awarded the winners. The 500-mile marathon which tours the Province left Quebec City at 8.30 and is run off in different sections. It stops at Thetford Mines, Sherbrooke, Granby, Montreal, Berthierville, Shawinigan and Donnacona before ending in Quebec City. In these cities there will be special races by the contestants.

It is the fifth presentation of this ace cycling event and the results can be followed through the papers as the large field of outstanding pedal-pushers drive their way around the tough course.

Court Refuses To Restrain Radio Stations Broadcasting Wire Service

NEW YORK (AP) — A New York State Supreme Court justice refused recently to restrain three New York City radio stations from broadcasting wire service accounts of the Patterson-Harris heavyweight title fight while the bout was in progress Monday night in Los Angeles.

The restrainer had been sought by Teleprompter, Inc., which asked an injunction against stations WOV, WOR and WINS. In his decision Justice George Tiler ruled:

"The motion (for a temporary injunction) is denied, except that the defendants are enjoined from simulating live broadcasts in the present tense."

The three stations immediately announced that they would go ahead with their original plans to broadcast periodic past tense bulletins on the fight while it is in progress.

SAW VIOLATION
Teleprompter sought the injunction on the ground that any broadcast description of the fight would be to its own exclusive broadcast rights. Teleprompter is televising the fight on a closed theatre network. There will be no live broadcasts from the ring-side.

In his decision, Justice Tiler said the defendants should be restrained from broadcasting an account of the fight simulating "a blow-by-blow or running account phrased in the present tense." He noted, however, that the defendants had protested that they would not simulate a ring-side broadcast and he said they could not be denied the right to present a past tense account.

Justice Tiler added that the dissemination of news is "no longer the exclusive province" of newspapers, declaring that once there has been a public dedication of news, radio broadcasters have the same rights as newspapers.

Manager Ausley Offers Deal To Saskatchewan

WINNIPEG (CP)—Jim Ausley, manager of Winnipeg Blue Bombers, said Tuesday he has offered Saskatchewan Roughriders a package deal, which would include import quarterback Eagle Day.

Ausley said he made the offer when he learned that Rider quarterback Frank Tripucka was injured Monday night. Tripucka suffered a shoulder separation and a doctor said the former Notre Dame player will be lost to the team for a minimum of three weeks.

Ausley said he could not reveal what players are involved in the proposed deal or what Bombers want in return. He said he expects to hear shortly from Rider officials on their decision.

New Spectacular Show To Be Presented On Grandstand

Ten Acts Of Top Entertainment

Combine the rhythm of Broadway, lavish scenery, flowing lava, Willy-West McGinty and other outstanding acts and you have the ingredients which make "It's Wonderful" one of the best grandstand productions ever shown in Sherbrooke.

The Directors of the Eastern Townships Agricultural Association have engaged Ward Beam Associates to produce this show which will run nightly from Sunday, August 24 to Thursday, August 28.

The most complete, most modern grandstand night show ever put on at the Sherbrooke Exhibition will have four scenic changes — the big New York Street Scene, the Train Number with trains operating on the stage, the big Circus Number, and the sensational Volcano number.

In this latter a huge volcano will erupt with huge bursts of fire spouting out of its crater. Molten lava will flow down the mountain side in this spectacular scene which is also one of the finest musical numbers on the program.

Working in each of these musical productions is the "Winged Victory Chorus", 14 young men who have made an international reputation with their fine singing voices.

Norman Brooks, the famous imitator of Al Jolson, will be a feature attraction on the show.

Considered one of Canada's top show people, he has made seven recordings of his French and English songs and has appeared on the Ed. Sullivan Show, the Perry Como Show and at the Canadian National Exhibition.

The Cycling Whiz Kids is one of the most unusual acts in show business. Four youngsters, aged

Mr. and Mrs. O. Clark and family, of Seven Islands, are spending their holidays in Bury and renewing old acquaintances. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Berwick.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil MacAuley, of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Royce, of Sherbrooke, were guests of Mrs. L. Royce recently.

Mr. G. Boynton, who occupied the pulpit of the United Church on Sunday, August 10, when the service was in charge of the Sunday School, gave a very fine talk on "Prayer". The two Bible lessons were read by Pauline and Pamela Goodenough. The choir rendered a special anthem.

CYCLING WHIZ KIDS, one of the most unusual acts in show business. These youngsters — 3, 5, 6 and 9 years old — outdo most adult cyclists in routines that are thrilling in every respect. They will be a big hit at the Grandstand show of the New Sherbrooke Exhibition running Sunday through Thursday, August 24 to 28.

Provincial Exhibit At Fair Demonstrates Conservation

Costly Dangers Of Forest Fires Brought Home To Fair Visitors

Annually, the Sherbrooke Fair is the occasion of a great deal of activity for thousands of people.

The youngsters, for instance, save up their hard-earned money for trips in the "MOON ROCK-ET", the "FERRIS WHEEL" or other amusements. Their parents plan well ahead the budget for this week of festivities so that the children can enjoy as many shows as possible. The industrialists and merchants for their part, study carefully the best methods available to draw the public's attention to their products.

And, one of the best methods of publicity is an exhibit in the Industrial Building on the Exhibition Grounds. Thousands of people stroll by the multi-colored displays, commenting on the ingenuity of the firms in advertising their merchandise, in the originality of design, the eye-appeal of a kiosk, and so forth.

This is one of the reasons why the Department of Lands and Forests has maintained, for the past 15 years, an exhibit in the Industrial Building. This year's exhibit, not unlike those of the past, will carry a lot of eye-appeal. The graceful design and vivid colors will catch the public's fancy. The presence of "Smoky the Bear", the acknowledged symbol of the Forest Ranger, will attract attention and make people stop and listen to its conservation messages.

During this 15 year period, not once has the same exhibit been shown at the same place twice. This presupposes the design in and building of new ones every year, since the Sherbrooke Fair is but one of about 20 cities in the province where such displays are put on by the Department.

How does the Lands and Forests Department go about planning, building and installing such displays? How do they think it will help them in their battle against forest fires? What practical purposes do they serve?

Among the many offices it has throughout the province, the Provincial Forest Protection Service maintains a Bureau of Exhibits. This bureau, under the direction of Mr. Eugene Pepin, employs six people all year round and is located in a spacious building specially designed on Richelieu Street in Quebec. It contains a planning room, building hall, storage bin, garage, tool and machine shop, and so on.

FIRE PREVENTION — The above arresting exhibit arranged by the Quebec Department of Lands and Forests on the fire prevention theme will be on display in the Industrial Building of the Sherbrooke Exhibition.

In planning a display, Mr. Pepin has to keep in mind the number, the size, the frequency and the location of forest fires during the past year. If they have been few and scattered over a wide area, he will put emphasis on the actual fire fighting technique. If they have been numerous, costly and devastating, he will plead for more vigilance in forested areas, explain the enormous cost of fire fighting, the extraordinary amount of damage brought by fires.

Once the subject of his display has been decided upon, Mr. Pepin draws a scale model and calls a conference with Henri Kieffer and Georges-H. Bernier, Director and Assistant-Director of the Protection Service. Together, they iron out the details and decide on the final structure of the display, how big it will be, how much wood will be used and so on.

Plans are then drawn up and work begins on the exhibit itself. For a period of three to four weeks, carpenters, painters, mechanics and day labourers put all their skills into the creation of the show piece. Once it has been completed, tested and approved by Mr. Pepin, it is taken apart in sections and crated for shipment.

The pattern is repeated all through the winter months, so that by the beginning of spring, the Bureau can boast five or six new exhibits. Now comes the problem of deciding where each exhibit will go. Mr. Pepin, having previously consulted his files, chooses the routing and sends word to the fairs.

From April to October, the Bureau's staff is on the road. Usually, the Sportsmen's Show, at the Montreal Show Mart, marks the beginning of the season. Then come the regional exhibitions and the Quebec Provincial Exhibition. This year, the Department goes to Sherbrooke, Trois-Rivieres, Rouyn, Val d'Or, Mont-Laurier, St. Jovite, Trois-Pistoles, Mont-Joli, Matane, Riviere-du-Loup, Chicoutimi, Roberval, Port-Arthur, Shawinigan, Rimouski, St. Jerome, Joliette, Montmagny and Quebec.

On top of all this work, the Bureau maintains a permanent exhibit in the windows of the Hydro-Quebec Building, in Montreal. This display changes every three months.

Mr. Pepin, who has been in charge of the Bureau for the past 11 years, believes this crusade is bearing fruit. Eleven years ago, there were only five cities in Quebec where the Department was allowed to send an appeal on forest fire prevention through an exhibit at the regional exhibition. Today, there are more than twenty.

With the help of music, color, waterfalls and lakes, vivid posters and backdrops, Mr. Pepin thinks the exhibits reach an ever increasing number of persons every year. They show them, in almost life-like realism, the dangers and consequences of forest fires. If only one forest fire was prevented by one such exhibit, it would be worth it. The cost of the displays, high as it may be, does not compare with the toll of a single forest fire.

Vermont Day Tuesday New Feature Of Fair

Directors of the New Sherbrooke Exhibition have set aside Tuesday, Aug. 26 as Vermont Day.

This is the first time that a Vermont Day has been organized. It is designed to strengthen the friendship and good neighborliness between the people of Vermont and Quebec, especially the city of Sherbrooke and the Eastern Townships.

Governor Johnston of Vermont has already accepted an invitation to lead the group of officials of Vermont who will attend. Special invitations are being mailed to the Mayors of the larger towns in Vermont.

Both Prime Minister Diefenbaker and Premier Maurice Duplessis have been invited to attend the function or send their representatives.

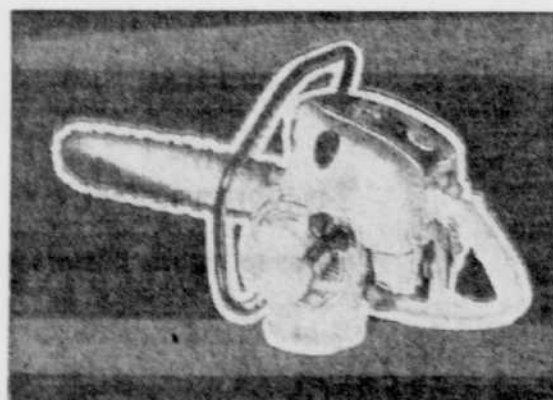

Vermont Day is linked with a special dedication ceremony, to be held at 10 a.m. on Tuesday morning, Aug. 26, when the Vermont State Highway will officially install its first bilingual highway sign with Vermont and Quebec officials in attendance. This ceremony will take place on the highway from Derby Centre and Derby Line, near the C.B. Keeley Restaurant.

Immediately following the ceremony, the group will proceed to Sherbrooke. They will have a police escort from the border to Sherbrooke. At Sherbrooke, officials will meet at the City Hall to sign the Golden Book, from there, they will proceed to the Exhibition Grounds where a reception and luncheon will be held at 12.30. In the afternoon, they will attend the grandstand Show and races and make a tour of the Agricultural and Industrial Exhibits.

Almost half a million tons of newsprint worth more than $60,000,000 was used by Daily Newspapers in 1937 to bring world and local happenings to Canadians.

YOUR DINNER IS READY, BABY!

New Gerber Exclusive:

SPAGHETTI & BEEF
prepared and fresh-packed in the Niagara District

What could be more welcome to baby than another "stick-to-the-ribs" appetite "satisfier" like Gerber Spaghetti & Beef. The spaghetti provides the bulk, meat provides the "beefy" flavor and protein value — vegetables have a natural tendency to add mildness to the whole recipe. The end result — a perfectly delicious vegetable-meat dinner for baby. There's the soft, smooth, strained style that feels "just right" on baby's tongue; or the evenly-minced texture of the junior version that encourages chewing. While you're getting Spaghetti & Beef — try some of the other Gerber vegetable-meat dinner varieties!

Laws Rewritten

BERLIN (Reuters)—East Germany's laws are to be rewritten by 1963, a Communist legal expert wrote in today's edition of the party newspaper Neues Deutschland. The article said East German laws still are basically framed according to the interests of the capitalist class and their "neutral conception" hampered the development of socialist consciousness.

RECOVERY FROM POLIO
ATTACK IS NO GUARANTEE OF FUTURE IMMUNITY
By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

A good and important question comes in from today's first inquirer.

Q—Is it possible for a person who once had polio and recovered completely to get it again?—A.M.
A—It is. There are three principal strains of the virus causing polio. Infection with one of them will result in immunity to that strain, but not to the other two.

This is one of the reasons why it is so terribly important for everyone under 40, whether or not he or she has already had polio, to receive the vaccine which is aimed at producing resistance to all three virus strains.

Q—Is it still true that a pregnant woman should be careful not to paint or spend much time in a recently painted room?—L.A.

A—So far as I am aware, the paint used today does not contain chemicals or fumes which might lead to a miscarriage. However, a pregnant woman should be careful in painting (and other activities) to avoid the risk of falling, or of excessive muscular strain.

Q—What is the cause of heartburn?—F.M.

A—This is probably due to a small amount of regurgitation of stomach juices into the passage-way known as the esophagus, leading from the mouth to the stomach. The acidity of the stomach juices may irritate the lining of the esophagus and cause what is commonly called heartburn.

Q—Authorities on cancer assure us that it is not contagious. I have been puzzled by recent discoveries which indicate that some types of cancer may be triggered by virus. Can you explain this?
—Mrs. L.S.

A—It is quite clear that cancer is not contagious or catching.
However, as pointed out, there is evidence that viruses may be associated in some fashion with cancer, though the matter is still under study.

If viruses are involved in the production of cancer, in all probability they are locked within the cells. There is much still to be learned on this extraordinarily interesting subject.

Q—Please discuss vascular spasm.—Mrs. O.P.

A—This is a vague subject.
Mrs. F. refers, I presume, to temporary contractions of the blood vessels. This probably occurs in ordinary fainting as the result of spasm in the blood vessels of the brain. It can also occur in almost any part of the body and is closely related to what is known as the sympathetic nervous system, which is not under mental control.

Its significance for the general health depends on many factors, including location, probable cause (if it can be determined), frequency of appearance and the like.

and Mrs. Cormier and daughter, Judy, of Lennoxville, the two last remaining for a time with
Mrs. Cormier's sister, Mrs.
Wightman.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Irving, of Rosemere, were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Russell Blinco.

Mr. Kenneth Peets, who has been at the Y.M.C.A. camp in the Laurentians, for some weeks, is now with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. E.
Best.

The remains of Mr. Albert
Fortier of Stanbridge East rested at the funeral parlors of Joseph Dion and Son, from where the funeral was held on Tuesday morning, August 12, to the parish church of Ste. Jeanne d'Arc at Stanbridge East.

Mrs. M. Roup who is spending the summer at Highgate
Springs, Vt., was at her home last week.
