THE RETURN OF MR. SIFTON.

It is Timed to Fit in Nicely With the Prorogation of Parliament.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—It is learned that Hon. Clifford Sifton will arrive in Ottawa from Europe on July 8th. The cablegram announcing his return was received here on Friday morning, and the announcement of prorogation for the week ending the 7th of July was made in the House in the afternoon. Evidently Mr. Sifton's visit was not merely to consult an aurist.

WAS DETERMINED TO DIE.

(Special to the Star.)

ST. ARMAND, Que., June 25.—William Thompson, sr., an aged farmer living near this place, committed suicide some time during Friday by hanging from a rafter in the barn. A few days ago he tried to end his life with Paris green, but failed. No reason can be given for his desire to die.

IN EUROPE AND GREAT BRITAIN.

The Story of a Successful Trip in An Unexplored African Region.

DEATH OF COUNT MURAVIEFF.

It is Regarded Differently in England and France Was the Friend of the Latter.

LONDON, June 25.—Dr. Donaldson Smith has brought an interesting account to London of his adventurous African journey across the unexplored tract of country between Lake Rudolph and White Nile. He was the first white man to reach the river, approaching it from the Somali coast, and travelling almost due west. He began his journey on the 1st of August, 1899, and reached Fort Berkeley, near Lado, on the 17th of March this year. Dr. Smith says that he came through almost entirely unmolested by natives; had no occasion to fire a shot in self-defence, and lost only two men out of the small force of eighteen Goorkhas who formed his escort, this being the first time ex-soldiers of the Indian army have accompanied an expedition of this character. On reaching the Nile, Smith sent his men with Mr. Fraser, the naturalist, home by way of Uganda and Mombasa, while he himself stayed at the fort for six weeks, and returned with Major Peake and his sudd-cutting expedition, by way of Khartum to Cairo. In addition to important geographical observations, Dr. Smith obtained a large and valuable collection of specimens of the fauna of Central Africa, which elucidate questions of geographical distribution.

HE WAS BRITAIN'S ENEMY.

The death of Count Muravieff, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, evoked no canting obituaries or expressions of regret here, for the British press, in spite of the equanimity of the Foreign Office, was unanimous in realizing the gravity of the present turn of affairs. To quote a staid and humane weekly, "The death of Russia's Minister removes an obstacle to the cordiality between Russia and England," and though this summarizes the comment of the leading papers, there is little hope expressed that Russia's aggressive policy towards China will be much modified. Apart from the material view of the result, Count Muravieff's death is generally referred to as one of the most pathetic happenings in political careers, for, according to the dead mans' critics, he seemed, owing to the crisis in China, on the verge of accomplishing the object to which he had devoted his life.

In Paris the death of the Count has caused deep concern among the members of the French official and political world. In him France felt that she had an influential friend in the event of difficulties with Great Britain. The cordial relations of the Foreign Offices of Russia and France, moreover, has not rested on a purely political basis. A great element of strength was found in the personal friendship existing between M. Delcasse, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Count Muravieff, and to the former the loss of his friend came as a severe blow. The removal of Count Muravieff from the council of the Czar is gravely commented upon by the French press, and in the hopes expressed that the policy of Russia will not be affected thereby, one discerns apprehensions lest the foundations of the Franco-Russian alliance should be rudely shaken by the topping off of one of its strongest roots. M. Delcasse himself—talking with a friend on the subject—set aside these fears, laying stress on the fact that while the personal feelings of Muravieff were of great value in cementing sympathetic accord between the two nations, yet the real Foreign Minister was the Czar, and he has given repeated tokens of sincere friendship for France. Therefore, according to M. Delcasse, Frenchmen could regard the political future with perfect serenity.

SALISBURY CYNICISM.

Salisburyian cynicism which was displayed at the bicentenary meeting of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, has created no little stir. The Premier urged prudence and moderation in missionary enterprise in a way that has proved most unpalatable to his clerical allies. He took as his text the Eastern proverb, "First missionary, then consul, then general," and warned missionaries against so acting as to foster the idea current, at least in China, that missionary work was a mere instrument of the secular government. He dwelt fondly on the days when the murder of a round dozen of missionaries caused no single pang. They earned their martyrs' crown, while England's Foreign Office looked another way. Of course, the church papers and the missionaries at once retort that it is not so much the missionaries who have changed as the foreign Ministers of Christendom, who, in their craving for lands, leases, and usufructs, exploit even the preacher of the gospel.

SHADES OF CROMWELL.

The shade of Cromwell still troubles the Parliament, which he once turned into the street. On Thursday, the enterprising Conservative peer, who owns the Saturday Review, made a final tilt at the Cromwell statue, which the munificence of Lord Rosebery has placed in the precincts of St. Stephen's Hall. He wished the statue to be removed on the ground that England should not honour the greatest enemy of her Crown and Church. He put an awful case to the House of Lords: "If," he said, "the Radicals can honour such a man, with a Tory Government in power, why should they not when themselves in power, erect statues to President Kruger and Guy Fawkes?" Lord Salisbury was in his best gibing form, and treated Lord Hardwick to a revival of his old Saturday Review manner. The statue, he said solemnly, as if dealing with some grave international problem, is placed in a hole, a sufficient proof of the punishment a just monarchical government inflicted on a rebel and regicide. In an endeavour to cap this cynicism, Lord Morris suggested that Lord Rosebery erected this statue to spite the non-conformists, who found offence in his racing associations, and to remind them that their political saint wus, himself, a patron of the turf.

BADEN-POWELL DECLINES.

Gen. Baden-Powell has decided to refuse the many publishers offers made to him to write an account of the Mafeking siege. The reception now being given to reprints of his accounts of the Matabele and Ashanti wars indicate the eagerness with which the public would take up a new book by him, but the General, in view of his military promotion and forthcoming honour of K.C.B., feels that he should not identify himself with the shilling-hunting crowd of war correspondents and amateur specialists. His book should follow in leisurely historian fashion.

FRENCH NAVAL MANOEUVRES.

French manoeuvres on an extensive scale will open next week in the English Channel, where the Mediterranean and Northern squadrons will go through a number of evolutions under war conditions. Admiral Gervais, who took part in the Franco-Russian demonstration at St. Petersburg in the early days of the alliance, has been placed in chief command of the naval forces. It will be the most powerful France has yet brought together. The Mediterranean fleet, which left Toulon on Friday for the North alone comprises 34 ships, including ten iron-clads and ten cruisers.

DEATH OF LORD LOCH.

Lord Loch's death removes one whose name was much connected with matters in the far East. Before he became a colonial governor, Lord Loch assisted in the negotiation which resulted in the treaty of Tien Tsin in 1860, and only escaped execution at the hands of the Chinese Emperor by 15 minutes' grace. Like Muravieff, he was struck down when the dream of his life time seemed about to be realized. In his case it was British federation over the whole of South Africa.

THE IMPERIALISTS PLEASED.

President McKinley's nomination has, of course, pleased all Englishmen who are for Imperialism, though in the presence of Chinese and South African problems it is scantily discussed. The Spectator tucks it away into a note with such a comment as this: "Altogether, the Republican programme is moderate, and the choice for President is as good as circumstances permitted. McKinley is possibly a little too much of a politician, but he has won and receives international respect."

CABLE NOTES.

The Paris Exposition can now be described as finally completed. Everything is quite ready and the exhibits are installed. The jurors are hard at work in all of the sections with usual amount of grumbling and discontent on the part of those not receiving prizes. The insurance policies of the official exhibits against fire and robbery reach in value over $19,000,000. The largest portion is naturally absorbed by the fine arts section.

** ** **

The French Senate has passed the Government bill to repress the scurrilous attacks on the President of the Republic, a measure to facilitate punishment of the offenders by providing for a summary trial in the Police Court instead of legal proceedings, often tedious, before the Assizes Courts. The press severely criticizes the Government for inventing a new game instead of remaining contented with its present weapons.

** ** **

By publicly sneering at the critics of Mr. Jos. Chamberlain's federation views, the Earl Buchamp, the Governor of New South Wales, has got himself into hot water with the Australian delegates and may be recalled. Delegate Kingston writes to the Times demanding that he be officially called down, while Sir Philip Oakley Fysh, the Agent General for Tasmania, in London, publicly refers to the peer as "a foolish young man with a swollen head."

When Hertford House is opened to the public June 25, London will have become possessed of one of the finest collections of pictures and curios in the world. They were secured by three Marquises of Hertford and were left by Sir Richard Wallace, whose widow bequeathed them to the nation. Hertford House was then bought and is now added to the capital's great sights.

The London Trades Council is determined not to be identified with the gift of a Ruskin hall to America. They declare they know nothing about it, deny that funds are being subscribed by English trades unionists and are issuing a circular warning the labour organizations against an appeal for subscriptions.

COWANSVILLE ACADEMY CLOSED

(Special to the Star.)

COWANSVILE, June 25.—The academy in Cowansville was closed for the long vacation, on Friday evening, by an interesting children's concert. In the absence of Dr. C. L. Cotton, M. L. A., chairman of the Board of School Commissoiners, Rev. Jas. A. Elliott, presided. A prominent place was given to the patriotic sentiment in such choruses as "Hearts of Oak," "He isn't Sleeping Now," "Sons across the Sea;" recitations "The Old Land to the Young Land," "Magersfontein," and by a very pretty flag drill.

Principal Von Iffland reported that the attendance during the past year had been better than usual. The distribution of prizes was deferred until the opening in September when the results of the June examinations will be known.

FIGHT RESULTED FATALLY.

OTTAWA, June 25.—A fight at a recent wedding near Buckingham is said to have ended in a murder, and Sheriff Wright is going to investigate. The report of the affair as received is that a man named Jos. Labelle received injuries on the 11th inst., at the hands of a number of men, from which he died. Labelle attended the wedding of E. Jean and Miss Lapointe. It is alleged he was under the influence of liquor and on his way home was attacked by six men, who earlier in the night had assaulted Labelle's son. Labelle was kicked and beaten and his skull smashed. Dr. Aubry, of Hull, and Dr. Metcalfe, of Thurso, attended him, but he has since died.

The members of the North Wentworth and Brant Reform Association, in convention at St. George's, on Friday, selected Hon. Wm. Paterson as their candidate for the next general election.

DEFENDS HIS FATHER

Secretary McInnes Likens Lieut.-Governor's Removal Unto Southern Lynching.

WITHOUT CAUSE AND COWARDLY

He Cannot Believe That Sir Wilfrid Laurier Will Fly in Face of His Own Declaration.

VICTORIA, B. C., June 25.—The Times publishes a letter from T. R. E. McInnes, secretary to the ex-Lieutenant-Governor, in which the writer takes strong objection to the demand for the removal of the Governor. Mr. McInnes characterizes as "all rot" the argument that a majority of the members-elect having asked for the dismissal of His Honour, the Government at Ottawa was bound to comply. No obstinacy of that nature on the part of the legislators, he declares, would affect in the slightest degree any federal Government that cared a straw for its own rights or dignity. The lieutenant-governor can be constitutionally removed for good and sufficient reasons only, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself enunciated those reasons in the celebrated Letellier case.

After quoting Sir Wilfrid's declaration in that case, Mr. McInnes continues:

"No, Mr. Editor, I am not even yet prepared to believe that our leader, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, will fly in the face of his own declaration in deference to the spiteful and cowardly resolution of the Tory convention. I say, cowardly, because in condemning a man unheard they outrage every sentiment of justice and fair play. But it certainly passes my comprehension how the Times, or any self-respecting newspaper, can uphold such preceedings.

"A MOB OF LYNCHERS."

"I understand very well how a few designing scoundrels may for their own purposes, encourage a mob of lynchers to execute their victim at once before the hysterical mania to kill for real or fancied wrong should have time to subside, and the sense of fair play and fair trial return.

"A lieutenant-governor is in the position in which he cannot step into the public arena and answer or explain the charges made against him. He must await the official publication of such reply as he has made. I feel confident, sir, that not only the constitutional editors, but also those members of the Legislature who, while still in the heat and passion of a successful political campaign, passed an ex parte resolution against the lieutenant-governor will before long admit that they should have awaited the reply of the accused before condemning him. A Chinese chicken thief is accorded a fair trial by us, and is given a fair chance to speak in his behalf. Is it going to be said that the people of British Columbia, or their elected representatives, have descended to the level of the nigger-roasting lynchers of the Southern States, and, that against a pioneer of the province, who, for over a quarter of a century, has filled the highest representative positions in the country?

"If so, British Columbia is no fit home for a Briton now."

Premier Dunsmuir has decided to seek re-election in South Nanaimo, although he does not hold a portfolio, on account of some technicality in connection with his acceptance of office.

HEALY IS HOSTILE.

The New Irish Parliamentary Organization Has Its Troubles.

LONDON, June 25.—The Irish National Convention held in Dublin last week and presided over by John Redmond, was an immense success. All the Nationalist members of Parliament attended except Timothy Healy and about fifteen of his followers.

The convention accepted the new programme and adopted the United Irish League as the future organization of the Irish party.

Healy kept aloof because his organization was held by the Committee on Delegations to be not properly qualified for representation. For this he attacked the convention and declared war on the new organization. This means that he has arrayed himself against Redmond, Dillon and O'Brien, and if the feud proceeds to the bitter end Healy will have about three followers in the next Parliament.

Redmond and a few others are still trying to conciliate Healy, but the bulk of the party now regard him as irreconcilable and as using his membership in the party as a level for dissension, and as being hostile to the establishment of any strong organization in Ireland calculated to keep the members of Parliament up to the mark.

The executive of the Conservative Union of Ontario on Saturday appointed Messrs. John Thompson, son of the late Sir John Thompson, and Mr. John Greer, both of Toronto, joint secretaries in the place of Mr. Birmingham, who was retired.

BIG CONSERVATIVE RALLY.

South Leeds Electors Listened to Political Speeches on Friday Night.

(Special to the Star.)

BROCKVILLE, June 25.—The Conservative rally at Newboro' in the riding of South Leeds, Friday night, was in every respect an unbounded success. The canning factory furnished accommodation for an enthusiastic audience of about 1,000 people from Newboro' and surrounding parts.

Some disappointment was felt at first by those who had had the pleasure of listening to Mr. Monk, M.P., when they learned that on account of the emergency food investigation he could not attend. Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, too, had been summoned to British Columbia. But when they heard the speeches of George Taylor, M.P.; J. G. H. Bergeron, M.P., and H. A. Powell, M.P., all agreed that they had attended one of the greatest political meetings ever held in this old Conservative riding.

The chair was occupied by J. H. Singleton, president of the Brockville Dairymen's Board of Trade. The questions of the day were discussed in a clear and able manner, showing the incapability of the Laurier Government to rule. The election, Yukon and emergency scandals received due attention and the broken promises of the Liberals were not left unmentioned. Besides the able addresses of the members of Parliament, speeches were delivered by Dr. Preston, W. Beatty, M.L.A., Mayor Carroll, of Gananoque, and John R. Dargavel.

The meeting was brought to a close with enthusiastic cheers for the Queen, Sir Charles Tupper, Mr. Taylor and others. South Leeds will present a strong front in the interests of Conservatism when the opportunity comes.

A man named Staples, while digging a well in the Swan River district, in Manitoba, fell in and was suffocated by gas. Another man named Bell, who went to his rescue, was also killed, and a third man, name unknown, who followed Bell, is in a precarious condition.

FENIANS ARE RETURNED.

Fitzharris and Mullett Leave New York on the Cunard Steamship Servia.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Joseph Mullett, "The Dwarf," and James Fitzharris, known as "Skin the Goat," who served seventeen years in an English prison for complicity in the Phoenix Park murder, and who arrived in this port May 27, were deported Saturday on the Cunard steamship Servia, which sailed at 1 o'clock.

After the men reached this country they went before the board of special enquiry at the Barge Office and declared they had been imprisoned for a political offence, and being political prisoners were entitled to land in this country and to enter. The board of special enquiry found they were persons of moral turpitude and ordered their deportation. They appealed the case to the Treasury Deparement at Washington, which declared that they have been convicted of a murder, that they were not political prisoners and sustained the board of special enquiry ordering their deportation.

WHO IS THE LADY?

(Special to the Star.)

TORONTO, June 25.—The World's Ottawa correspondent, referring to the emergency rations scandal, says that one apologist of Dr. Borden declared yesterday that the deal would never have gone through if a Montreal lady had not besieged the Minister at the last moment.

Two important water powers at Lake St. John have been sold by the Department of Crown Lands for $15,000 to a company of American capitalists, who bind themselves to erect pulp factories, workshops, etc., at the Grand Discharge, at a cost of $1,000,000, within four years. The contract has been signed by Hon. S. N. Parent for the Department, and Messrs. L. T. Haggin, and B. Scott, Mayor of Roberval.

Hon. Mr. Bernier, the new Minister of Inland Revenue, was given a reception by his political friends at Ste. Hyacinthe on Saturday afternoon.

NOTES OF THE NEWS.

The militia camp at Niagara came to a close on Saturday.

Ottawa Oddfellows decorated the graves of departed members of the order on Sunday.

It is expected that the street railway strike in London, Ont., will be settled in a few days.

Hon. Clifford Sifton, Minister of the Interior, sailed on Saturday from Liverpool for Canada.

John Livingstone, collector of customs at Fort William, has been superannuated on account of old age, and F. C. Perry appointed to succeed him.

Mr. C. R. Devlin, Dominion immigration agent in Ireland, writing to a friend in Ottawa, denies that it is his intention to return to Canada to re-enter political life.

Cologne, Germany, was visited on Sunday by a cyclone, which demolished many buildings and threw down a number of factory chimneys. Several persons were badly injured.

Union linemen of Ottawa say they will not go back to work at the old wages. The grand organizer of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers is expected to arrive in the city soon.

Premier Dunsmuir, of British Columbia, has decided to seek re-election in South Nanaimo, although he does not hold a portfolio on account of some technicality in connection with his acceptance of office.

The admission of dutiable commercial samples from the United Kingdom or other British country through an intermediate country into Canada at the preferential rate has been decided on by the Dominion Government.

A memorandum just issued to collectors of customs provides that until otherwise ordered statistical records are not to be compiled of goods passing in transit through Canada from one part of the United States to another.

Apostolic Delegate Monsignor Falconio arrived in Halifax on Saturday afternoon and was escorted to St. Mary's Roman Catholic Cathedral, where he was presented with an address of welcome on behalf of clergy and laity of the city.

At a Liberal convention for the second district of Queen's, held at Charlottetown, P.E.I., Dr. J. R. Douglass was unanimously chosen to contest the district in the place of Mr. Wise, resigned. The nominations will take place on July 4 and polling on July 11.

ANOTHER SURPRISE.

The Strong National Team Was Downed on Saturday by Shamrock Experts.

OUTPLAYED THEIR OPPONENTS.

In Toronto Cornwall Was Defeated by the Queen City Aggregation.

LACROSSE surprises appear to be the feature of the Senior League this year, and if things keep on at the present rate the experts at predictions will all have to go out of business and wait for results.

Saturday's surprise came in the defeat of the Nationals by the Shamrocks. The ex-champions had a strong team and to the sharps it looked as if it was theirs all the way. Indeed, it looked like a forlorn hope as far as the Shamrocks were concerned. But the champions sent out an aggregation that made the strong National team look like a lot of selling platers in comparison with an aggregation of thoroughbred stake winners, and the Shamrocks set the pace from start to finish, winding up winners.

In Toronto the Queen City aggregation did what was expected of them in defeating the Factory Town team. Cornwall's team looks strong on paper, but they lack the fine condition of the Toronto dozen and in consequence the trained men were able to do the trick.

The result of these matches places the situation in a manner that will permit of much speculation. Shamrocks, after falling down before Montreal and Capitals romp away from the Nationals. Toronto loses to National in easy style and then takes a turn out of Cornwall. Then there is Cornwall that lost to Montreal and then beats the Capitals, who are credited with victories over Montreal and Shamrock. If any one can pick a winner in the future after such tumbles, he will be a pretty wise man indeed.

The Dominion Day matches will go towards clearing things a bit. On that day the Montreal boys will go to Toronto, Shamrocks will go to Cornwall and the Nationals have an engagement in Ottawa. Judging from previous results and the records of past seasons, the three home teams ought to win, but the uncertainties of lacrosse are being amply illustrated this summer and there is no selection to offer.

AT THE LACROSSE MATCH—A Face After a Foul.

The standing of the clubs follows:

	Won.	Lost.	To Play.
Montreal	2	1	7
Capital	2	1	7
Toronto	1	1	8
National	1	1	8
Shamrock	1	2	7
Cornwall	1	2	7

In the matches played to date, the Shamrocks have scored 14 goals and 11 have been scored agaist them, Capital has scored 11 and had 7 scored against them, Montreal has scored 9 and has had 11 scored against them, National has scored 8 and has had 11 scored against them, Cornwall has scored 7 ad had 9 scored against them, Toronto has scored 6 and has had 8 scored against them.

HOW THE SURPRISE RESULTED.

Dear reader, did you ever in those happy days of youth have occasion to pay a visit to one of those persons who were placed in a position to administer that rod of which a certain wise man spoke of? Did you on that occasion, after having committed some youthful misdemeanour, experience a peculiar feeling and wonder if it would hurt? Then if that administrator of justice decided in his, or her wisdom, that it would be wise to spare the punitive rod, what a revulsion of feeling swept over you. If you can remember how you felt then you will have experienced the very same feeling that the Shamrocks and their supporters experienced at the conclusion of Saturday's match.

The change from certain defeat to a runaway victory was so unexpected, so unlooked for, that odds of three to one, five to two and five to three went almost abegging and no takers, save in one or two instances where enthusiasts preferred to lose their money than stand a-talking.

It was nothing more nor less than a runaway game, and after the first goal had been scored, it was all day with the Nationals. Now anybody who could have foretold such a thing on the previous day would have been laughed at, and if he reiterated the statement when the teams went on the field and it was seen that the Shamrocks were short of the services of two such reliable men as Robinson and Currie, well—it would have been suggested that there was an institution for such people a few miles down the road. Not even the most ardent Shamrock supporter looked for such a thing. They had hopes, of course—it is poor supporter that does not always hope for the best—and the realization of those hopes brought such joy to the hearts of the Shamrock men that if they were this season they would yet be happy.

The immense stand of the new grounds of the Nationals was filled from end to end. Of course, it was a National crowd, but the Shamrocks have loyal supporters, and they were there in force to cheer the youngsters to do their utmost. The fine day brought everybody out, and it was as enthusiastic a crowd as one would wish to see. The appearance of the Shamrocks brought out a little applause. A glance at the players brought out questions. Who is that slim youngster with the big stick Hello, who is that chap with the white cap? Oh, where is Currie; Robinson is not there. There's Finlayson, and there's "Jim" McKenna. "Shiner" White is not out. Look at little Nolan; why, the National men will throw him all over the field. And so the questions and assertions came. The slim youngster with the big stick was Kearns, and the chap with the white cap was Feeney. The National supporters laughed and the Shamrock men looked glum.

Then came the Nationals, and what a cheer. Every favourite got a hand as he entered the sandy arena. There were Dade and Hendry, and their appearance against their old club mates was to be the feature of the match. There was big Jim Kavanagh. "Billy" Murphy had stood "Henny" Hoobin off; what would "Jim" Kavanagh do? Poor Hoobin. Joe Valois, his brother Alphonse, then Deerfoot McKeown, Cousineau, Marcellin, St. Aubin. All came in for their share of the cheers. "Paddy" Brennan, as previously stated, exclusively in the Star, was unable to play on account of an injured shoulder, and occupied a seat on the stand to see the good work. Blanchard was the new man on the team, and it was stid he was a wonder. He was.

Now, to compare these two teams looked ridiculous. The Shamrock defence looked fair, their field was weak, and as for the home, why it was a snap for the big, brawny National defence men. Then take the other team. Look at their big defence, look at the fast field, and as for the home, well—but why go any further? Double the score. It was easy.

Alas!

Finally the game started. The ball went down on the National defence. Then it went to the other end, back again. This time a streak of green and gray led the way to the stand, picked up the ball, dashed in. Why Hoobin has a little speed yet, remarked someone. Then there was a shot on the National poles and L'Hereux had

A FEW BUSY MOMENTS.

Then Hoobin had the ball again. This time something extraordinary happened. The big Shamrock home man went by Kavanagh. People on the stand rubbed their eyes. Surely that was not right. Then he did it again. Whoop! Then the Shamrock people began to realize that the aggregation in green and grey could play a bit, the National men began to have a similar realization, but the final result looked the same way as ever, true, however, it might be closer than anticipated. There was some hot work and an astonishing series of assaults on the National poles that made everyone gasp with surprise. Feeney and Brennan missed a couple of chances and it looked as if the pair were rather nervous, but the work of Hoobin more than made up for every chance lost. There were delays. Kearns, the slim youngster with the big stick, received a crack in the nose. This required some patching up. Then Deerfoot McKeown had a knock over the eye that necessitated attention. Brown fouled Smith and the Shamrock man got away with the ball, but was brought back after getting down the field, a peculiar ruling as he was entitled to possession of the ball. Various causes caused stops for over thirty minutes. Then Hoobin picked the ball somewhere out of the clouds, took a running shot before the National defencemen knew whether he had it or not, Galley attracted L'Heureux's attention and the rubber landed in the net.

Surprised?

Well there is an insufficiency of words in the dictionaries to descripe the situation. The people were fairly amazed, but it did not take the Shamrock boys long to find their voices and you may be sure that they used them to advantage. They had one consolation, the boys would not suffer a whitewash, the thoughts of a victory were still few. The game recommenced and the Shamrocks looked the whole thing, they scored again, and they scored again. Four? "Oh, say, am I dreaming?" murmured one Shamrock man, but the cheers soon told him that he was awake, and very wide awake at that. And the National crowd. Well they could not see through the affair at all, indeed some of them fail to see through it now.

So the game went on. Nationals scored a brace of goals, both almost unmerited. In the first one on a pass to Dade the ball struck the wood of the lacrosse and without any effort on his part, and the next was scored while the Shamrocks were short of the services of Smith. After this the Shamrocks netted three more and there the matter ended in their favour with seven goals to the good while the Nationals had but two.

GLANCED OFF INTO THE NET,

How did it happen?

Well, those who were there saw the happening and it would be a difficult matter to explain it to those who were not there. Suffice it to say that the game was in Shamrock's favour from beginning to end and in the last eight minutes of the match the victors played rag with the Nationals and made their men look like a lot of youngsters who had never handled a stick in the senior, or any other league. They stood the Nationals up, outplayed them man for man, were superior by far in combination and the home played in a style worthy of the best annals of the Shamrocks. Every man did his share of the work, but if one man is to be singled out is "Henny" Hoobin. From start to finish he was the aggressive man of the Shamrock team. The first moment he handled the ball resulted in a well placed pass and the goal would have been scored within five minutes of the opening had it not been for a slip on the part of another home man. Hoobin was in the game at all times and he never played a better game. He was on colour. He made Kavanagh stand up, Marcellin tried a hand and looked as slow as a turtle in comparison with a fleet hare, Alphonse Valois made an attempt to stand him off and he might just as well have tried to keep the tide back with a broom. Hoobin is pretty sore to-day. He bears a mark on every part of his body and the manner in which some of the National defence men attempted to keep him out was far from creditable. L'Heureux deliberately struck him on the head and repeated this performance a moment later behind the goal. In the early stage of the match he was struck across the mouth and had a tooth broken. But nothing could stop Hoobin. He took his medicine, went in and scored or else placed the ball where it would do most good. Hoobin is a worthy representative of the family and deserves all the praise that can be bestowed upon him for the victory.

Then the Shamrock defence played a remarkable game. It was not a block game, but every player went out and played his man and every one of them showed that he had enough speed to get back to his place

AND KEEP HIS COVER OUT.

They played an almost faultless game. "Roddy" Finlayson loomed out of every scrimmage and his man never got a chance to go by. The big man played his game in a brilliant, heady manner. His shoulder went back on him again, and he was obliged to retire towards the close of the game, and his absence was regretted by every one. "Jim" McKenna was in at point. He played a steady, cool game, guarded the front of the poles, fielded his position well and paid due attention to every feature of the game. Percy Quinn showed a big improvement over his previous work, and his speed behind the poles and in the field was an eye-opener to everybody. "Pete" Leddy played cover like a veteran, and his work in keeping out the ex-Shamrock stars pleased the Shamrock section of the crowd. "Mike" Hayes may be classed as a veteran, but his work on Saturday was in excellent style. Hayes has played two good games as a senior. One was the day he held down big Louis White on the Shamrock grounds, and the other was on Saturday. In the latter game he showed that there is lots of lacrosse in him yet, and he ought to be one of the mose valuable defence fielders the Shamrocks ever had if he pays proper attention to this work. Smith was just right. He looked after his cover in great style and no man ever went by him. He worked like a Trojan and was on the go all the time. He was ruled out of the game for ten minutes, but it was rather a questionable decision. Cousineau had the ball and attempted to slip in between Finlayson and Smith. He was sandwiched in between the two Shamrock defence men and received a crack on the head. He took big chances, and any lacrosse player knows what a difficult matter it is to check a dodging player. Smith suffered the full penalty and it was while he was off that the Nationals scored. The work of Nolan and Kearns in the field was splendid. Young Nolan was pitched about like a big ball, but he generally landed up feet first and he seldom lost the ball. He and Kearns watched both sides of the field and moved about like a pair of colts. Kearns delighted the stand by the manner in which he took his knocks, and if the Shamrock directors are wise they will remember his work when picking the team for Cornwall. Feeney did some excellent work and some very poor work. He missed some splendid chances. However, he was well attended to and that National DEFENCE IS NO SINECURE.

Brennan did an amount of good, bad and indifferent work, missed some easy chances, then made up by picking up some impossible passes. Galley's work was good, but he shows an inclination to play behind the goal, a fault that should be corrected as it means a loss of valuable time and allows the defence men to cover in. However, he played his position in good style, and has the looks of a comer.

The one man on the National team that did his work well was Cousineau. He worked hard, and did enough fielding for half a dozen men, but the fates were against him, and the one man was not enough to bring victory National way. After Cousineau, reliable Joe Valois was next in order. Valois did not scintillate as brilliantly as in other matches for the reason that he was well watched, and had a busy time with young Galley. "Jim" Kavanagh worked hard, but Hoobin settled him and he made the fatal error of losing his temper. Alphonse Valois and Marcellin did their best, but they could not travel fast enough for the Shamrock home, and their weight was of little account, because their checks kept out of the way. Blanchard was a failure and he very wisely fainted at the conclusion of the second game. He was replaced by Tierney, who was placed in the poles, L'Heureux being brought out in the field. The first shot that was sent in on Tierney went by him, and he was immediately moved down to inside home, and L'Heureux was moved back. Then the goal-keeper failed to stop a shot and was chased out and Marcellin was put in. The team was changed around in this manner, but the changes failed to achieve any results. Dade and Hendry, of whom much was expected, did but little. It was not their fault; they did their best, but were so closely watched that they had but little chance. Hendry was willing to go in, but he was blocked every time, and the only two chances he had while out fielding the ball he made good use of by sending it over to Dade. McKeown never got a chance to shoot at the poles, and was handled in anything but a gentle manner. He was obliged to lay off for repairs on three occasions.

To sum up the game, the Shamrocks had their opponents well in hand at all stages of the game, and only the excellent work of the National defence stayed the scoring so long in the first game. One thing noticeable was the tendency of the National defence to scatter. Here it was that "Billy" Murphy was missed, and only the good work of Joe Valois kept the defence from being demoralized earlier in the game. Then, too, the Shamrock home committed several errors, and this helped the defenders out a bit, but Hoobin's work was so good that the occasional errors of the other men could not spoil it.

There was much hard checking, and the game towards the end was unmistakably rough. Of course, the condition of the field was responsible for a great deal of the mishaps that occurred. The sandy ground was particularly tiresome on the players, and as they were never sure of their footing, they were never sure of their checking. It was quite windy, too, and the dust whirled all over the field in a most annoying manner. At times it was impossible to see the players when there was a scrimmage in front of the poles. It was in these little scrimmages that Hayes showed to advantage, and his scoops and sweeps were found valuable when the ball was apparently buried in the sand in close proximity to the goal.

The players lined up as follows:

Shamrock.	Postion.	National.
Quinn	goal	L'Herieux
McKenna	point	J. Valois
Ledy	cover point	A. Valois
Finlayson	defence field	Kavanagh
Hayes	defence field	Marcellin
Smith	defence field	St. Aubin
Nolan	centre	Blanchard
Kearns	home field	Brown
Feeney	home field	McKeown
Hoobin.	home field	Cousineau
Brennan	outside home	Dade
Galley	inside home	Hendry

Referee—Mr. M. Egan, Ottawa.

Umpires—Messrs. Mackerrow and Porteous, Montreal Lacrosse Club.

Captains—Messrs. T. O'Connell and P. Foley.

Game.	Won by.	Scored by.	Time.
1	Shamrock	Hoobin	26
2	Shamrock	Hoobin	2 1-2
3	Shamrock	Feeney	1
4	Shamrock	Brennan	1

9	Shamrock	Hoobin	2 1-2
10	Unfinished.

Another surprise.

Kearns looks a lively fielder.

"Tom" O'Connell is a mascot.

Cousineau worked in good style.

L'Hereux checks exceedingly hard.

The Nationals were much disappointed.

Kavanagh's long reach was of no avail.

It is hard to keep the Shamrocks down.

The gate receipts amounted to almost $1,400.

The Nationals had three goal keepers in service.

The Nationals made a mistake in taking Tierney out of the poles.

Barney's melodious tones were heard to advantage at all stages of the game.

Currie's physician gave strict orders that he was not to play on account of his injured head.

Barney Dumphy was put off the field, and the National stick holders were allowed to remain.

Cousineau struck Hayes, and Kearns ran in and hit Cousineau, and both were ruled off in the eighth game.

Robinson suffered an injury in the previous game and could not go on the field on Saturday, but he will be out this week.

Dade, Hendry, Hoobin and Brennan were together in the field during one of the waits and amused themselves passing the ball. The crowd cheered to see the old quartette together again.

It is possible to make errors even with the net. One umpire put up his hand for a side shot, but when it was found that the ball had landed on the outside of the net, the mistake was rectified.

AT THE LACROSSE MATCH—An Anxious Moment for the National Goal Tender.

TORONTO DEFATED CORNWALL.

TORONTO, Ont., June 25.—The Toronto Lacrosse Club's first senior game at home on Saturday proved to be a glorious victory over the Factory Town team by 4 goals to 2. The game was won on its merits, and the Torontos deserve all the credit. The attendance was the largest as well as the most fashionable, that has graced a lacrosse match in some years, the crowd being about 3,500, including a number of visitors from Cornwall, while nearly all the island braves were present to get a line on the team they have to play next week. The match was one of the best exhibitions of our national game seen in Toronto for a long time. The combination work of both teams was good, if anything, Toronto being the better, and besides this they had the speed. With such lacrosse as they played Saturday, the Torontos can about beat all comers and fly the championship banner from their clubhouse. Shortly after the scheduled time, Referee Lionel King called the players out and gave them their usual warning against rough play. It was, indeed, heeded, for during the whole afternoon there was no work on the part of either team that would cause any reflection on them.

Moran and Broderick faced off, the Toronto man getting the better of it, and sent it down to the visitors' end. This put life in the Toronto home, and they settled down to work. Several shots were made on Hess, who warded them off. White cleared and sent the rubber to Toronto's end. Yorke was in the game, and passed out to Moran, who, along with Querrie, carried the play to their opponents' end, where Querrie notched up the first game for Toronto.

The next was Cornwall, although Toronto had the best of a long game. Clewes left his goal, and this gave Madden a clear shot, evening up the score. This seemed to put the home players on their edge, and they went out, in two and half minutes Fred. Moran scored, and Toronto was again ahead.

The fourth game was well spread out, Toronto having all the best of it, and fairly played tag around Cornwall's goal till from a scrimmage Iler swiped the ball through and it looked all Toronto.

The fifth was well evened up, and by sheer good luck the visitors notched up their second game; but this was their limit, for with only twelve minutes to play, and Toronto being the aggressors, in eight minutes Quarrie scored the last game, giving Toronto a total of 4 to 2.

The last four minutes of the time were very pleasing to the Toronto sympathizers, for their favourites had the ball and simply passed it from one to the other till the call of time.

The teams were:

Toronto—Goal, Clewes; point, Yorke; cover, Wheeler; defence, McBride, Stewart, Lamb; centre, Fred. Moran; home, Moran, Querrie, Iler; outside, Murray; inside, Greatrix.

Cornwall — Goal, Hess; point, White; cover, Cameron; defence, Tobin, Sands, Kerwin; centre, Broderick; home, Degan, Burns, Madden; outside, Brown; inside, Allan.

Referee—Lionel King.

Goal Umpires—F. Dixon and H. German.

Timers—R. Kerrins and H. Macdonald.

Summary:

Game.	Won by.	Scorer	Time mins.
1	Toronto	Querrie	4
2	Cornwall	Madden	10
3	Toronto	Moran	2½
4	Toronto	Iler	8
5	Cornwall	Madden	9

POINTS WON A VALLEYFIELD.

VALLEYFIELD, June 25.—The Interprovincial Lacrosse League opened here on Saturday by Point St. Charles and Valleyfield teams. Although the score was large, the players were evenly matched, and the game was one of the cleanest that has been seen here for a long time. Attendance about 600. Score, 6 to 2 in favour of Point St. Charles. The Valleyfields scored the first and third games.

The following is the list of players of both teams:

Points — Maudler, Haggerty, Jackson, Roach, Corbett, P. Mines, Taylor, Warren, Masterson, Lahay, Kerwin, Galley. James Mines (captain).

Valleyfield — O'Neil, Bothwell, Lafleur, Adams, Low, MacIntosh, Burriss, Lefebvre, Robertson, H. MacVicar, Masterson, J. MacVicar. Jos. Finnegan (captain).

Feferee—B. Haynes. Umpires — James O'Neil, M. Pelletier. Timekeepers — Wm. Kerr and C. McPherson.

SHOTS.

The Young Capitals defeated the Crescents of Perth, at Ottawa on Saturday, by 6 goals to 5. The ten men and system was seen for the first time, and the concensus of opinion was that it made the play slower instead of faster. The fielders had too large a territory to cover and soon tired.

The Montreal Juniors defeated the Nationals on the grounds of the latter by a score of four straight games. Owing to the late hour at which the senior match was finished, the junior match did not commence until half-past seven, and consequently the referee, Mr. Tierney, had to call the game on account of darkness. The play was overwhelmingly in favour of Montreal throughout.

MISCELLANEOUS SPORTING.

DECISION FOR McGOVERN.

CHICAGO, June 25.—At Tattersall's on Saturday night Terry McGovern upheld his reputation by defeating George Dixon, the ex-champion, in six rounds. Dixon, although not knocked out, was in distress as the bout ended. The go was fast and furious from beginning to end, with Terry on top all the time. Dixon tried in every conceivable manner to get the advantage, but his blows did not have the steam behind them that his younger opponent was dealing out.

The men met at catch weights, McGovern having about three pounds the best of it. The betting was even money that McGovern would knock his man out, but very little money was placed at these odds. McGovern was seconded by his manager, Sammy Harris, and Andy Daly, his sparring partner. Tom O'Rourke and Harry Forbes looked after Dixon. Malachey Hogan was referee and pleased the majority of the 4,000 spectators present by announcing McGovern the winner.

THE M.A.A.A. GAMES

An Excellent Day's Sport at the Big Westmount Field on Saturday.

ATHLETES IN GOOD CONDITION.

The Time Was Not in Record Order, But the Competition Was Excellent.

THERE was a most enthusiastic crowd of spectators at the spring games on the M.A.A.A. grounds on Saturday afternoon. Admission was by invitation only and the response was most hearty, more than sufficient to assure the association of their popularity. It was not supposed that there would be any records broken, and none were, but several of the races were exceptionally interesting. In the heat-races, the final heats were all very fiercely contested, and the winner had not much room to spare. The day was a splendid one to bring out the people, and the seats were well filled with ladies, who were quite as much interested in the competitors as the officials of the association. The competitors were mostly young men, some of them new men, but their work was encouraging for future contests. As announced, the main object of the games was to give the members of the association a chance when they would not have outside and older men to compete with. The day was just about right for track events, and although the sun was hot the competitors did not perspire unduly. Indeed, it was warmer on the stands, where there was much ado with waving of fans and sundry forms of applause. Occasionally, when any event was close, all would stand up, and it looked very much as if the ladies were more excited than their gentlemen friends. The best event of the day was reserved till the very last, the relay race. It was won by the association team with sufficient ease to dispel all doubt as to the merit of the winners.

The music by the Prince of Wales Fusiliers' band was much appreciated, and after the games there was a promenade concert. The prizes won in the afternoon were presented at the gymnasium in the evening. Before the presentation President Brophy announced that Dr. R. Tait McKenzie had generously donated to the association a splendid portrait of Lord Strathcona, from Wyatt-Eaton's celebrated oil painting.

The secretary, Mr. E. H. Brown, then read a letter which had been sent to Lord Strathcona on the occasion of his being made an honourary life member of the association, and the reply just received. These brought forth much applause.

The prizes were presented under the supervision of Major W. B. T. Macaulay, who said that the association intended holding weekly handicap races, so that new men might be brought out and trained to run from the scratch. Then to encourage these men, so soon as they reached a certain standard they would be given due recognition. After this, there were some songs, and altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

Following were the officials:

Referee—Henry Brophy, president M.A.A.A.

Track judges—H. L. Shaw, A. W. Gifford, C. M. Cameron and M. Murphy.

Field judges—E. W. James, C. C. Chitty and Dr. R. H. Craig.

Scorers—David J. Watson, J. F. Savage, W. G. Ayling and Dr. A. D. Irvine.

Timekeepers—Dr. D. D. McTaggart, Louis Rubenstein and Alex. Stewart.

Starter—W. R. Granger.

Announcer—F. C. A. McIndoe.

GREAT ATHLETIC TEAM.

NEW YORK, June 25.—Two more teams of the unprecedented aggregation of American athletic talent to seek international honours abroad, sailed for the English open championship and the Olympian games on Saturday. The New York Athletic Club men, including practically the Yale representation, also got away on the Hamburg-American liner Patrica. The members of the team, who all looked fit, were Richard Sheldon, champion shot putter and discus thrower; John Flanagan, champion hammer thrower; Maxey Long, of Columbia University, quarter mile champion of America; Dixon Boardman, Yale champion quarter mile runner of the Intercollegiate Association, and Bascom Johnson, champion pole vaulter of the Intercollegiate Association. Sheldon and Johnson are also Yale men.

With the New Yorkers sailed A. L. Newton, winner of the Marathon race, who is sent by the Metropolitan Association of the A.A.U.

The Chicago University team sailed on the Cunarder Servia. In the team were: W. A. Maloney, western intercollegiate quarter and half mile champion; F. Maloney, hurdler; C. A. Burroughs, former quarter mile champion of the West, and H. B. Slack, former intercollegiate quarter mile champion. With them sailed A. E. Stagg, manager, who had had the team out on the Knickerbocker field at Bayonne, N. J.

The Boston men, including the Harvard contingent, will sail from Boston next Wednesday. The Ann Arbor crowd will leave on the Saale Tuesday. On July 6, Ewry, the champion standing high and broad jumper of America, will sail. This will wind up the departure from this country of the greatest team of field athletes that America ever sent abroad.

The English open championships begin near London July 14, 17 and 19. All the Americans will go into training on the ocean, and resume their work in both the suburbs of London and Paris.

CHANCES LOOK POOR.

LONDON, June 25.—The arrival here of the American contingent who are to compete in the Amateur Athletic Association's championship games July 7, has awakened English sportsmen to the fact that they had better look to their laurels. Princeton's team looks fit and well. They have gone to Brighton to practice, and will probably enter several events of the London Athletic Club meeting June 30.

Secretary Herbert, of the Amateur Athletic Association, was asked by a representative of the Associated Press what he thought were the chances of the British athletes against the American aggregation. Mr. Herbert said: "I fear they are pretty poor. Up to half a mile we have no man equal to yours, on paper of course. We have to make allowance for climate and expect all the best men in England will compete. Unfortunately most of the university cracks have accepted army commissions, and are now in South Africa. No other foreigners have entered, and, as usual in sporting matters, the championship ties between England and America. Of the London Athletic Club team, which went over to the United States, Hutchins is the only man likely to compete."

ON THE PATH.

The ten mile match foot race at Hamilton, on Saturday, between Dick Grant, of Harvard University, the American champion at this distance, and Eddie Williams, of Hamilton, drew a large crowd to the Cricket Grounds. The race was an exhibition for Grant, who ran away from the Hamilton boy from the first lap, and won by 500 yards in one hour 55 1-2 seconds.

ON THE FOOTBALL FIELD.

VALLEYFIELD ELEVEN WON.

A Splendid Football Game on the Strathconas Grounds.

On Saturday afternoon Valleyfield defeated the Strathconas on the latter's grounds at Montreal Annex, by the close score of three goals to two. It was a splendid game, and the match was won on its merits. The game started at 3.30, and had not been in progress more than a couple of minutes when McCutcheon scored for Strathcona. Play was very fast for a long time, the ball travelling from goal to goal very rapidly. The Valleyfield forwards showed pretty combination, but Strathcona backs played a capital defensive game, and beat them off over and over again. McMeekin at back for Valleyfield saved his side over and over again by his splendid kicking. Valleyfield tied the score by a nice long shot from Jackson. Both teams were now doing their utmost to take the lead, but half time found them equal, with a score of one goal each. Valleyfield in the second half kicked off against the wind, and the same fast football was indulged in. Britton scored for Valleyfield after a fine play. Shortly afterwards Douglas, for the Strathconas, scored by a clever side shot. This put the score two all. Each team now struggled to get the lead, and some fine football was seen. Valleyfield at last got ahead through Jackson, and although Strathcona had really all the game until the finish, they could not score, and a capital game ended in favour of Valleyfield by three goals to two. Following are the players and their positions:

Strathcona.		Valleyfield.
Cogan	Goal	McCulloch
Healy	Back	D. McMeekin
Donald	Back	J. McMeekin
Messer	Half-back	Thomson
Gilliard	Half-back	Summer
Carpenter	Half-back	J. Hewitson
Nelson	Forward	Robinson
Porter	Forward	E. Hewitson
McCutcheon	Forward	Jackson
Douglas	Forward	Kitchen
Frear	Forward	Britton

Referee—Mr. Lawrence.

POINTS TEAM WON THE MATCH.

On Saturday afternoon P.A.A.A. II. defeated Strathcona II., in the intermediate series. Strathcona won the toss and elected to play with the wind in their backs in the first half, and they kept the Point defence very busy for a time, but the Points settled at last, and at the interval led by 1 to 0. In the second half the Points had it pretty much their own way, adding three more goals.

ROYALS TIE WITH WORCESTER.

Providence and Rochester Also Lost Their Games—Notes of the Diamond.

MONTREAL continued the downward journey on Saturday, and Dooley's pets are in fourth place to-day, being even with Worcester.

The team dropped two games to the Springfield aggregation. In the second game the ponies shut out the locals, and Dan McFarlane on the slab, too.

Providence lost one and won another, and remains up head. Rochester lost, and Hartford beat Toronto.

EASTERN LEAGUE GAMES.

HARTFORD, June 25.—Hartford defeated Toronto on Saturday afternoon in one of the most sensational games ever played here. In the ninth Fleming and Gatins singled, and Stratton brought both across the plate by a long triple to right centre. Steelman hit a scorcher to third, and Schaub fumbled long enough to have Stratton score. Bemis lost his head in the seventh and threw a ball carelessly to third, and it went by Schaub. The bases were full and Massey scored the winning tally. The crowd went wild after the game, and Stratton, Fleming and Steelman were cheered for fully five minutes. Bannon and Lynch played phenomenal ball for Toronto. The score:

WHAT THE CYCLISTS ARE DOING

MEET UNDER C. W. A. SANCTION.

An Agreement Reached at Ottawa on Saturday.

OTTAWA, June 25.—The bicycle races here Dominion Day will be known as the eighteenth annual meet of the C. W. A., and the latter organization will collect the 10 per cent. of net receipts. This agreement was reached at a meeting of the representatives of the C. W. A. and C. C. A. held in the Capital rooms Saturday night. Those present were President Gould, of the C. W. A.; Secretary Hal. B. Dooly, A. Griffith, of Toronto; President Tate, of the C. C. A.; Vice-president; A. M. Bilsky, Secretary; W. J. Guilbault and Mark E. McElhinney, C. W. A., consul. The agreement was reached in half an hour.

SPOKES.

An immense crowd witnessed the finals in the international bicycle contests at Paris. The Grand Prix was won by Jacquelin, of France, Momo, of Italy being second, and Tomaselli, of Italy, third. No Americans competed. Baug, of France, won the hour's race, with pacers, making 36 6-10 miles. Harry Elkes, the American, was second. Linton, the Englishman, came in fourth.

At the Vailsburg track, Newark, N.J., yesterday, Frank Kramer defeated Tom Cooper in the two remaining heats of their match race, the first having been run on June 10. Time, 2.22 2-5 and 2.24.

BRIEF NOTES OF THE DOINGS.

T. A. Borden, an athletic young Canadian, who is riding from his home to Colorado, passed through Detroit on Saturday. He left his home in Huntsport, N.S., June 1, and has ridden between eighty and ninety miles a day. He came by way of Quebec, Montreal and Toronto, Niagara Falls and Windsor, and his cyclometers showed a record of 1,500 miles. He met with no accident on the way, and did not even have a puncture, and lost one day from rain.

The bicycle racing season was opened at the Woodside Park track, Philadelphia, on Saturday, under favourable circumstances. The chief events on the programme were a five mile exhibit by Jimmy Michael, and a three-cornered race between Archie McEachern, J. Frank Starbuck and Charles Turville. Michael was after the world's record for five miles but failed to beat it, owing to an unfavourable wind. He finished in 7.47; breaking the Woodside track record of 8.12 held by Harry Elkes. The 25 mile race was won by McEachern in 41 minutes, 40 4-5 seconds; Starbuck was second and Turville third.

RACES OFF DORVAL.

What Took Place at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club on Saturday Afternoon.

SKIPPER DUGGAN WON HIS RACE

Michael Lynch Has a Leg Amputated and Will Be Unable to Row Again.

SATURDAY afternoon the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club held its weekly races off Dorval. Never since the early nineties, those good old days when "lead hung low you know" was considered such an important factor in sail carying power, has there been such a scene of activity at headquarters. The Yacht Club which had last year shown unmistakeable signs of dying away of dry rot, has acquired a new lease of life. Whether the executive this year are a more enthusiastic, hard working lot, or whether, as a natural course of events, yachting on Lake St. Louis had reached its lowest ebb last year and is again on the floor with a spring tide, it is difficult to say—nevertheless, on the arrival of the 1.30 train on Saturday, over fifty lithe and active sailors might be seen getting their boats ready for the afternoon's sport. There is no difficulty in distinguishing the racing man. His garb is of the plainest, consisting generally of a sweater,and a pair of knickers with, perhaps, a useful sheath knife attached to his belt by way of ornament. Whereas his brother of the rocking-chair fleet, usually comes out by a later train attired in immaculate flannels and a brass bound cap. With supercilious superiority he views the races from behind a pair of powerful marine glasses so as not to overtax his eyesight. And, from the comfortable seats at the pier head, he confidentially informs his friends how much better he could perform a certain manoeuvre, or how easily he could out-duggan Duggan.

The cup defenders were again the object of the greatest interest, partly because all the boats had races to their credit so far and partly because the successful cup defender of '99, the third Glencairn, was also entered in this class and it was thought, owing to her light construction, she would give the new craft a run for their money. There was a steady six knot south-west breeze, which the knowing ones prophesied should favour the Glencairn IV. and Whitecap, the supposed light weather boat of the fleet. Promptly at 3.38 p. m. Mr. Arthur Hersey, the officer of the day, with the assistance of Mr. Stanhope Eadie started the 5-raters on their first race to windward and return. The Glencairn IV. sailed by Mr. Duggan, crossed the line first followed by Redcoat, Whitecap, Blackbird and Glencairn III. The official time of 1st round and finish was as follows:

Yacht and Skipper	1st round.	Finish.
Glencairn IV., G. H. Duggan	3.57.07	4.15.19
Redcoat, Chas. Routh	3.57.09	4.15.57
Whitecap, Arthur Abbott	3.57.20	4.17.32
Blackbird, Tom Paton	3.58.30	4.19.15
Glencairn III., H. Drummond	3.59.29	4.20.10

Second race, triangular course, all buoys to starboard, first leg to windward, second leg a reach, third leg a balloon jib run Starting gun, 4.37. Official time:

Yacht.	Start.
Glencairn IV.	4.37.04
Glencairn III.	4.37.11
Blackbird	4.37.15
Whitecap	4.37.21
Redcoat	4.38.00

Yacht.	Finish.
Glencairn IV.	5.06.24
Blackbird	5.06.57
Redcoat	5.07.50
Glencairn III.	5.08.00
Whitecap	5.08.10

Third race, to windward and return. Starting gun, 5.29.

Yacht	Start.	1st Rd.	Finish.
Glencairn IV.	5.29.00	5.48.20	6.10.56
Whitecap	5.29.29	5.49.30	6.11.32
Redcoat	5.29.18	5.50.20	6.13.00
Blackbird	5.29.20	5.50.26	6.13.20

In the 22 foot class, started at 3.41 p.m., Mr. Paton's Bona Dea got away first. After an exciting race, the official time at the finish was as follows:

Yacht and Skipper.	Finish.
Bona Dea, J. Paton	4.01.40
Korrall, S. A. Farley	4.02.12
Ivaloo, C. T. Williams	4.03.11
Viking, J. J. Riley, jr.	4.01.52

Second race, for 22 footers, started at 4.07 p.m. Won by Bona Dea, 4.29.08; second, Ivaloo, 4.30.45; Viking third, 4.31.15; Korrall, 4.34.50. The 22 footers had several impromptu races after this, of which no official times were taken.

The race for the 17 foot knockabout was started at 3.44. Course to windward and return. Mr. Ewing's Viola crossed the line first, closely followed by Mr. Boltons Kittiwake, Habitant, Turtle and Doris in the order given. They finished as follows:

Yacht and Skipper.	Finish.
Habitant, D. Hemsley	5.01.10
Turtle, Kirkpatrick	5.06.35
Kittiwake, E. Bolton	5.08.30
Doris, F. Barlow	5.08.32
Viola, W. Ewing, ran aground and lost board.

Thus ended the most successful day's yachting in the calendar of 1900.

LYNCH WILL ROW NO MORE.

(Special to the Star.)

HALIFAX, N.S., June 25. — Michael Lynch, one of the famous Lynch brothers, double scullers, will race no more. Previous to his race with Harry Vail, on Bedford Basin, he sprained his ankle. He paid no attention to it and the ankle bone became affected. Last week he decided to have an operation performed, which took place on Saturday. After the flesh on the bone had been laid bare and the ankle scraped, the doctors in their opinion considered it necessary to amputate the leg a few inches below the knee to save the oarsman's life, thus ending his rowing career. Michael Lynch and Mark Lynch defeated Durnan and Rice at Halifax, on the North-West Arm, also Johnson and McKay, in double sculls. Michael rowed at Sydney against the advice of the doctor, he then being quite lame. As an oarsman he had a bright future before him. It was the intention of his friends to back him against the best of them next autumn as a single sculler. He was faster than Mark Lynch, his brother, who is backed to row E. Rogers, and who is to row Durnan should he defeat the New Yorker.

13 Running Sores.

Mr. Stephen Wescott, Freeport, N.S., gives the following experience with Burdock Blood Bitters.

"I was very much run down in health and employed our local physician who attended me three months; finally my leg broke out in running sores with fearful burning. I had thirteen running sores at one time from my knee to the top of my foot. All the medicine I took did me no good, so I threw it aside and tried B.B.B. When one-half the bottle was gone I noticed a change for the better and by the time I had finished two bottles my leg was perfectly healed and my health greatly improved.

THE BROCKVILLE REGATTA.

(Special to the Star.)

BROCKVILLE, Ont., June 25.—It looks as though Brockville would be well represented in the various events at the coming regatta of the Canadian Canoe Association. Three war canoes, two four-oared shells, one double scull, possibly a single, besides single and double canoe entries. The Ottawa Rowing Club has expressed a desire for a double scull race and the captain of the Brockvilles says they will be accommodated. A second war canoe crew has been formed in the Bohemian Club with H. R. Gorrell as captain. The medals for the big four-oared event has arrived and are of handsome design. Five crews are practicing for the race, and with outside talent, a hot time is expected. A silver trophy cup has been donated and will be hung up for Canada's speediest canoe fours. The race will be with a turn.

YACHTING NOTES.

Mr. R. B. Angus' steam yacht Nama and Commodore Molson's Alcyone had both large parties out to witness the races.

It is highly probable that the 1st July cruise will only be to Hudson and return Sunday night, with a large card of races over the Pointe Claire course on Monday.

The officers of the day's position last Saturday was no sinecure, and the "man behind the gun" must have had a lively time, judging from the number of empty shells lying around the pierhead.

It is said one of the crew of a cup defender had the temerity to race wearing a straw hat, and that it did not materially effect the centre of effort of the sails.

The officers of the day and spectators greatly apreciated the racing numbers on the one-design boats, otherwise with such a large fleet it would have been an impossibility to take their times or distinguish them.

Mr. Duggan's starts last Saturday afternoon were a revelation in seamanship; a quarter of a minute prior to each start he managed to secure at one and the same time the weather berth, the inside place round the buoy. As he bore away to round at gun fire gathering impetus as he flattened in for the beat to windward. He managed to get the gun in two races, and was barely four seconds behind in the other.

MONTREAL SWIMMING CLUB.

The second series of races at the Montreal Swimming Club took place on Saturday afternoon, there being a large number of members present and quite a number of spectators on the hill overlooking the club grounds. Following are the results:

1st race, 440 yards, senior (handicap)—

W. R. Wilson, scratch	1
H. W. Smythe, 40 sec. H.	2
Frank Pow, 10 sec. H.	3

2nd race, 2.20 yards, junior (handicap)—

Henri Galarneau, scratch	1
G. McKenzie, 30 sec. H.	2
H. Pow, 15 sec. H.	3

Time, 4.55 2-5.

3rd race, 75 yards, junior—

H. Pow	1
H. KcKenzie	2
F. Hamilton	3

Time, 2 min., 2-5 sec.

In the senior duck hunt, the duck was not captured. Though pursued by nearly twenty swimmers, he swam up to the point and landed. The junior duck was captured by Maurice Archambault.

SPRAY.

A big regatta will be held at Winnipeg during July 28, during the week of the Winnipeg exhibition. A telegram from Captain Galt, who is at Toronto, says he has arranged with the Argonaut eighths, fours, singles, and doubles to go west for the event. It is also intended to invite Victoria, Vancouver and Nelson crews, to participate, especially the James Bays, whose last visit to Winnipeg was with the Toronto Argonauts. Crews from St. Paul and Duluth also are expected.

The official list of entries for the Henley regatta, which takes place July 4, 5 and 6, shows the Rowing Club, of Brussels, is the only foreign entry for the Grand Challenge Cup, while a notable innovation is the competition of Eton for the coveted trophy. The Berlin Rowing Club will compete for the Stewards' Challenge Cup, while B. H. Howell, of America, Fritz Miller, of Brussels, and L. Preval, of Nice, compose the foreigners to compete for the diamond sculls.

NEWS FROM THE GOLF LINKS.

THE MONTREAL TEAM LOST.

The Local Men Defeated by the Country Club.

BROOKLINE, Mass., June 25.—The Royal Montreal Golf Club team of eleven players was defeated by the Country Club team on Saturday on the Clyde Park links by the score of 40 to 7.

In the international golf match at the Country Club links at Clyde Park, the Canadian head of the team won the first eighteen holes played with Mr. J. G. Thorpe, who headed the American team, although the standing of the other players indicates an American victory. This match between these two players, Mr. J. P. Taylor, of the Royal Montreal Golf Club, and Mr. Thorpe, of the Country Club, was the principal one of the morning, Mr. Taylor standing six up at the end of the morning round. The make-up of the teams and the pairing of players are as follows:

Country Club—J. G. Thorp, Herbert C. Leeds, Q. A. Shaw, jr., L. A. Frothingham, F. I. Amory, H. C. Ernst, P. M. Hamlen, Herbert Jaques, George T. Rice, Stephen H. Bennett.

Royal Montreal Club—Laurence Curtis, P. Taylor, K. R. McPherson, K. MacDougal, W. W. Watson, F. Brown, H. A. Madden, R. E. MacDougal, Dr. Macphail, O'Flaherty, J. Redmond, G. H. Balfour.

The fair green was in good condition, the greens keen and true and the weather perfect. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Thorpe were the first out. Mr. Taylor played badly at the first hole, Mr. Thorpe winning in 6 to 8, but the Canadian squared matters at the second, going down in 5 to 6. Mr. Taylor took the lead at the third in bogey figures of 3 to 4, and won the fourth, 4 to 5. The fifth was halved in 5. Mr. Thorpe won the sixth in 5 to 6, and in the seventh in 4 to 5, making the match again all even. At the eighth Mr. Thorpe had a stymie, and Mr. Taylor won in 4 to 5. At the ninth Mr. Taylor went into the long grass and both missed puts, and the hole was halved in 5, leaving Mr. Taylor 1 up. Mr. Taylor drove the green with his iron in the tenth and won in 3 to 4. At the eleventh a missed put cost Mr. Thorpe the hole, which was halved in 5. He sliced at the twelfth and lost the ball in the hole, Mr. Taylor now being 3 up. The thirteenth and fourteenth were each halved in 4, and the fifteenth went to Mr. Taylor in 4 to 5, Mr. Thorpe putting poorly. Of the remaining holes Mr. Thorpe won only 1, leaving Mr. Taylor 6 up at the end of the first round.

The score for the first eighteen holes is as follows:

A SCHOOLBOY'S RECORD.

NEW YORK, June 25.—At the golf tournament of the Knollwood County Club, Charles H. Seeley, the young Berkley school boy, won the chief cup at match play on Saturday beside the prizes offered for the best gross and net score with 36 holes handicap. On his second round at medal play he cut he record which Walter J. Travis, established two years ago, a stroke, going out in forty and home in 35, a feat, which, with his defeat of maturin ballou by 9 up and 8 to play, stamped him as one of our greatest golfers. In the finals for the consolation cup, A. D. Compton, of the Westchester Golf Club, beat J. Gordon Douglas, of the Oakland Golf Club by five up and four to play.

TORONTO WAS DEFEATED.

ROCHESTER, N. J., June 25.—The representatives of the Toronto Golf Club were defeated by ten members of the Country Club, of Rochester, on a team match, by the score of 21 up. Vere Brown, of the Toronto team, amateur champion of Canada, was passed with J. G. Averell, of this city, who won by one up. Averell was five down at the eleventh hole.

RESULTS ON TURF AND TRACK

SYDNEY LUCAS WON THE DERBY

A Big Surprise at Chicago on Saturday.

CHICAGO, June 25.— Sydney Lucas, a despised outsider in the betting, won the thirteenth American Derby at Washington Park on Saturday afternoon by 5 lengths. The eastern colt James was second, while the even money favourite, Lieut. Gibson, was a poor third. As the field cantered back to the grand stand there was no tumultuous applause to greet Sydney Lucas, the 20 to 1 shot, whose forelegs had been encased in red flannel bandages. Instead there was the almost sullen hush of disappointment. The race was at 1 1-2 miles, value to winner, $9,775; second, $2,000; third, $1,000. Time, 2.40 1-4. The delay at the post was short, only the nervous temperament of Lieut. Gibson showing by his pirouetting. At the second break Starter Dwyer despatched the field, with Barrack a neck before James, and Lieut. Gibson a head back. Coming past the expectant crowd in the grand stand, Gibson, fighting for his head, was a shade before James, also running easily. Sam Phillips, Sydney Lucas, Barrack and Advance Guard was the order of the others. Going down the back stretch, James led, with Gibson second and Lucas third about two lengths back. Coming around the last turn for the final brush through the stretch, James was still in the lead, a half length before Gibson, the latter an equal distance before Lucas. Then Boland let down his mount, but Lieut. Gibson, the carrier of many thousands of dollars, failed to respond, and the great crowd shouted "Lieut. Gibson is beaten."

Sydney Lucas went up with a rush, with James further diminishing Gibson's glimmering chances by shutting him between the two, so Boland would have been forced to go around, but this was unnecessary, as both Lucas and James were leaving the favourite in the rear.

At the eighth pole Sydney Lucas, moving easily, had rushed to the fore, leading by two open lengths. Gibson and James were almost on equal terms. From the eighth pole home the race was a procession. Try as he would Boland could not arouse the tiring Gibson. Thus the three passed the stand, and the thirteenth Derby went down in turf annals. Summaries:

First race 1 mile—Sam Fullem, 109, Silvers, 6 to 1, won; Modrine, 107, Bullman, even, 2; Larkspur, 102, J. Martin, 3. Time, 1.45 3-4. Bannockburn, Lomond, Owenboro, The Lady also ran.

Second race, 6 furlongs—Reminder, 111, Devin, 3 to 1, won; Mr. Brown, 111, T. Knight, 8 to 1, 2; Fly by Night, 119, Buchanan, 3. Time, 1.16 1-2. Hermoso, Nobleman, Josephine B., Pupil also ran.

Third race, American Derby, 1 1-2 miles, $10,000 added—Thompson Bros.' ch. c. Sydney Lucas, by imp. Top Gallant—Ada C. I. I., 122, Bullman, 20 to 1 and 6 to 1, won handily by six lengths; W. M. Barracks' b.c. James, 122, Mitchell, 6 to 1 and 8 to 5, 2 by eight lengths; C. H. Smith's br. c. Lieut. Gibson, 129, Boland, even and 3 to 10, 3. Time, 2.40 1-4. Barrack was fourth, Advance Guard Fifth and Sam Phillips sixth.

Fourth race, 7 1-2 furlongs—Great Bend, 109, Kilely, 6 to 5, won; Moroni, 109, Mitchell, 5 to 2, 2; Orion, 105, Flick, 3. Time, 1.37 3-4. Onomastus, John H. Morris, Hand Press, Brisk, Castake, Patroon also ran.

Fifth race, 4 1-2 furlongs—Criterion, 111, Mitchell, 7 to 5, won; Alard Scheck, 113, T. Burns, 2 to 1, 2; Sofala, 120, Bullman, 3. Time, 59 3-4.

A POPULAR MISTAKE.

Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases. No person with a vigourous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their begining from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect digestion.

When nearly every person you meet is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when in fact, as Dr. Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but it is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismuth. It is sold by druggists under name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered. They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all that the stomach needs is a rest, which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion. 148*nty 3eod

FOR THE BEL-AIR RACES.

The local turfmen are now becoming interested in the Bel-Air meet, which opens on July 7, and will continue until the 21st. On the opening day an excellent programme will be given, and an enjoyable day's sport may be looked forward to. The event of this card will be the Queen's Plate. There are now ten horses in training for this stake, and the public may find something interesting in the lot. The other feature of the opening card will be the Windsor Hotel Stakes. There are 57 entries for this event, but only the pick will start, and a grand race ought to result.

HOOFBEATS.

J. D. Smith's good Henry of Navarre colt, June Gayle, won the Covington Spring Stakes at Latonia on Saturday in a gallop. The winner was an odds-on favourite and heavily played.

The feature of Saturday's card at St. Louis was the Junior Champion stakes, valued at $2000, at six furlongs. Queen Dixon, the winner, was the favourite in the betting at 3 to 5.

ELEVATOR WAS DANGEROUS.

In the case of Miss Dubois against Horsfall et al for $500 damages for injuries sustained by being struck by an elevator in the premises of the defendant, Mr. Justice Curran has granted $150 and costs. The court held that the apparatus was dangerous, and defendants were in fault. The ringing of a bell in the elevator was not sufficient warning. There should be some guard at the base of the elevator. The plaintiff had accompanied a Miss Bissonette, one of the employes, who had gone in to receive her pay, and she was struck as the elevator came down and rather badly injured.

CONCERNING A LEASE.

Mr. Justice Curran has dismissed the case of McGraw against Dube, which was an action for $500 damages. The plaintiff alleged that he had an annual lease at $10 per month for electric power to run a last and shoe factory, had cut off the power without cause. The defendant pleaded a monthly lease. The court being convinced that plaintiff, if he did consider that he had an annual lease, purposely refrained from taking it in writing, so that if it suited him he might urge simply a monthly arrangement, the action is dismissed with costs.

EYE WORTH $1000.

The Court of Appeal was confirmed the finding of the Supreme Court in the case of Jones vs. Sheridan. The plaintiff had been employed by the defendant, unloading coal from a steamship by tubs, lifted by chains, had been struck in the eye by a piece of coal, and the loss of the eyesight followed. The lower court had allowed $1,000 damages. The Court of Appeal considered that the evidence sustained the judgment, and it was confirmed, with a modification of the reasons, the motive as to there being a presumption of fault being struck out.

CHINAMEN STILL IMPRISONED.

In the Court of Appeal on Saturday, Mr. H. C. St. Pierre, Q.C., moved for the issue of a writ of habeas corpus in the case of the various Chinese imprisoned for non-payment of fines in connection with the non-payment of the laundry license, but the court held that it had not power to hear the application, as the adjournment was merely for the purpose of delivering judgments.

CASE DISMISSED.—Mr. Justice Curran has dismissed the case of Decelles vs. Ford and Honan, interventant for the recovery of $756 alleged to be due under a transfer of bills of costs by Honan. The plaintiff had offered no proof and interventant did not appear. The intervention was also dismissed.

Aged Queen of Opesu is the Brain and Inspiration of the Uprising.

LONDON, June 25. — A despatch to the Daily Express from Prah Su, dated Saturday, says:

"The brain and inspiration of the Ashanti rebellion is the aged Queen of Ofesu. Although old, she is full of physical energy. She carries a gun herself and personally leads 1,000 picked hunters. Her personal confederate is the old, blind, crafty king of the Adansis.

"Cobina Foli, heir to the Adansi stool, is a prisoner of the British. He professes loyalty. The revolt, he says, has been simmering for a year. All the tribes except the Bekwais, according to his account, object to paying British taxes. He says the golden stool is made of wood, covered with thin gold plates."

AMERICANS WERE AMBUSHED.

WASHINGTON, June 25. — The War Department has received the following cablegram from General Macarthur, dated Manila, June 23:

"Detachment four officers, 100 men, 40th Volunteer Infantry, Captain Miller commanding, left Tagayan, June 13, on reconnoissance up Tagayan River, morning, ambushed by insurgents in strong position. Fifty men sent to reinforce from Tagayan; could not take position and troops withdrew to coast post."

Then follows a list of killed, of which there are seven. Also a list of eleven wounded and one missing.

The American attempts to charge were frustrated by the Filipinos pitfalls and traps. The advance line, consequently, was under a heavy fire in front and on its flanks and fell back on Cadayan. The American loss was nine men killed and two officers and ten men wounded.

HE OPENED THE SAFE.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—The man whom no lock can defy or withstand, Mr. Arthur Gravelle, of Renfrew, was in the city on Saturday. Mr. Gravelle's trip was made at the request of the officials of the Merchants bank, who called on him to open one of the safes in the Hull branch, situated on Main street, in the fire-swept district. The bankers' appeal was not made in vain, as, after an hour's work, Mr. Gravelle succeeded in exposing the interior to daylight and the anxious gaze of the officials once more. The contents were found to have scaped the flames. The combination was a 4-wheel one.

TRYING TO SAVE ANOTHER.

Mr. James King Lost His Own Life at Cedar Hall Last Thursday.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 25.—Later details concerning the death of Mr. James King, ex-M.L.A. at Cedar Hall show that he did not die from drowning, as at first reported, but from exhaustion, as a result of having too long clung to Mrs. Nolin in a desperate and self-sacrificing effort to save her life. He survived only a short time after being brought ashore. His heroic death was quite in keeping with his life, for Mr. King was in an unostentatious way one of the most charitable men and one of the greatest benefactors of the poor in this province. He paid for the schooling of 35 or 40 children in a Quebec parish

A PLEA FOR MURDERERS.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 25.—Mr. Ulric Barthe, writing in Le Soleil of Saturday, makes a strong appeal for a commutation of the sentences of Cazes and Dube, who are under sentence of leath for July 6. Mr. Barthe points out extenuating circumstances in the cases of both men, and says that he makes the plea at the instance of many of Quebec's leading citizens.

Lacroix, Pichette & Co., on Quebec, have assigned, with liabilities of about $40,000, assets about the same amount.

WAS IT SIFTON?

That list of instructions which the Vienna correspondent of the London Daily Express alleges that the Russian Minister of the Interior has issued to Russian papers, as a gentle guide to safe comment on the Chinese situation, will start many Canadian people wondering whether the said correspondent has not fallen into a very natural mistake. The Canadian Minister of the Interior was recently in Vienna. The similar Russian Minister may have been there, but we do not remember to have heard of it. The Canadian Minister of the Interior has always taken a keen interest in the press of his party, being at one time suspected of managing a "Puffery Bureau" for the purpose of laying the merits of that party sagaciously before the public. Now, why should it not be that our own Sifton has issued a series of instructions to the Grit press of Canada from his exile's haunt in Vienna; and that, these instructions falling into the hands of the alert correspondent of the Daily Express, he (the correspondent) could not believe them to be the work of a Canadian Minister and so naturally blamed them on the Russians, changing the phraseology a little to make it fit the Russian case.

The instructions, as cabled to the Express, were:

"First—No reference to the movement of Russian troops or warships.

Second—Papers must bear in mind that the Czar is actuated only by a desire to maintain peace and good-will among the nations.

"Third — No gossip about differences among the powers that would be displeasing to the Government.

"Fourth—No criticism of Russian diplomacy or of military or naval strategy.

"Fifth—Editorial writers should recollect that Russia is predestined to predominate in Asia.

"Sixth—Comparisons may be made between Russia's and foreign troops and seamen, when unfavourable to foreigners."

What the original Siftonian instructions might have been can, of course, only be guessed by a journal which has not received them. But the wording of those credited to the Russian Sifton, and the recent conduct of the Liberal press, may afford a clue or two. For instance, "no reference to the movements of Russian troops or warships," might easily have been—"no reference to the movements of the Machine Gang," which is the fighting arm of the Sifton party. Secrecy is far more necessary for the Machine than for the Russian army and navy. In fact, in these days of an active foreign press, it is difficult to see why the Russians should desire their own press to keep silence. But when Pritchett's successor is moved down upon a town, the Grit journalist who would give it away would not be worthy to ride with the new Pritchett in the jubilant procession on the night of the noble "victory."

Then "papers must bear in mind that the Czar is actuated only by a desire to maintain peace and good will among the nations," would be a natural free rendering of the magnificent sentiment that "Liberal papers must bear in mind that Sir Wilfrid is actuated only by a desire to bless the country with his beneficent rule." The necessity for such an instruction lies in the sad fact that such have been the actions of the Premier that even a Grit editor might sometimes suspect that he had other motives. "No gossip about differences between the powers that would be displeasing to the Government," could stand as it is with the single change of "powers" to "factions;" while the "no criticism" clause is most essential. Mr. Sifton knows perfectly well—none better—that this Government cannot endure criticism. The last two instructions suggest their own "originals." It would be very like the methods of the Puffery Bureau to instruct editorial writers to recollect that the Liberal party is pre-destined to predominate in Canada; and to throw out the hint that when comparisons between the Liberal "workers" and those of the Conservatives are unfavourable to the latter, they may be made with impunity.

But was it not very careless of the Minister of the Interior to lose his circular of instructions—if he did lose it?

SHAME ON THEM.

The labels on the "emergency food" sent to South Africa apparently conveyed to the soldiers who received it a message from the Canadian Government to the effect that it was a food that could be depended upon in an emergency, a food that had been thoroughly tested on Canadian soldiers who had lived on it for thirty days. The soldier receiving one small tin of it, which he could put in his pocket, was led to suppose that it would sustain him a long time. Dr. Ruttan, the celebrated chemist of McGill University, stated before the "Emergency Rations" Investigation Committee that it would take eight or nine tins full of the vitaline to sustain a man one day. Mr. Milton Hersey, another chemist of very high standing, stated before the same committee that ordinary pea flour would contain more nutrition than this "emergency" food for which the Government paid two dollars per pound and that it was only about equal in value to infants' food. Other chemists testified before the committee to much the same effect. The committee also read the report of Mr. Thomas Macfarlane, chief analyst of the Inland Revenue Department, made on the 13th February before the food was shipped and before the Government had paid for it. Mr. Macfarlane gave the analysis of the samples showing that they contained only about 16 per cent of proteids and said:

> "Since the average percentage of proteids in wheat is about 12, it does not appear that this protaic powder is a very concentrated food or is entitled to its name or has a food value equivalent to $2 per lb."

Yet when Mr. Monk proposed that the military authorities in South Africa should be warned against this food that was sent out with false labels the Liberal majority of the committee voted against the resolution and passed an amendment endorsing the food.

Whoever was to blame for the fraud in the first place all the Liberal members of that committee made themselves responsible for it by voting for that whitewashing amendment. They should be ashamed to face their constituents. The whole country will cry "Shame on them!"

IN CHINA.

The initial failure of the allied troops to push through to the rescue of the legations at Pekin, must give the Chinese vast encouragement. It is very likely that the men who are now rallying to the "Boxers" standard because of this initial failure of the Europeans and their new allies, the United States and Japan, to assert their boasted power, know little more of the strength of the nations whom they are challenging to mortal combat than they can judge by seeing their ships and men along their coast. They are in the position of Rider Haggard's Boer who knew the exact size of the British army because he had been down to Cape Town in the old days and counted them. They very possibly have heard how in other conflicts these mysterious foreigners who came over the seas with marvellous weapons of destruction, proved themselves to be invincible; and consequently have been in great awe of them. But now, seeing them put forth all their strength and yet possibly fail to protect their own representatives at Pekin, the untutored Chinese is very apt to conclude that the limit of their power has been reached and that again the Chinaman is to rule unhampered in China. So, like the practical politician he is, the Chinaman flocks to the standard of the power to be.

This is unfortunate, and will almost certainly lead to the shedding of much blood which prompt measures might have saved. But the "steam roller" can hardly be expected to be prompt. The European Concert when it once gets ready to move, is effective—as the Chinese will discover—but, from its very nature, it can hardly strike swiftly. Still now it should be able to bring considerable force to bear without delay. And the landing of large bodies of troops in China will under existing circumstances be a peace measure. The sooner the spread of the anti-foreign agitation can be stopped, the smaller will be the opposition which the allies must overcome in order to re-establish a stable government at Pekin.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF.

History is beginning to repeat itself in Prince Edward Island.

When the Davies Government lost the confidence of the people, it is recalled, indignation meetings were held throughout the province. The result was that the Government was soon driven from office.

The Farquharson Government to-day unquestionably has not the confidence of the electors, and we notice indignation meetings are proposed in the Premier's own constituency, where one seat has been left vacant by the manipulation of Mr. Wise's resignation; in the Fort Augustus district, one of whose representatives, Mr. Peters, now resides in British Columbia, but who clings to his seat and leaves his constituency totally unrepresented; and in the Tignish district which Mr. Pineau, who basely betrayed those who elected him, misrepresents.

The local opposition feel that these indignation meetings will assuredly bring forth similar results to those which hastened the downfall of the Davies administration, and that this time they will again involve Sir Louis himself in the crash.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN.

McKinley and Bryan, there is little doubt, will be the chief aspirants for the Presidency of the United States next fall. While the candidature of the former has so far created comparatively little enthusiasm, there is every indication that Mr. Bryan's campaign will not be of that sensational character it was four years ago. It is stated that the managers of the Democratic party have concluded that Bryan is not to stump the country this time, but to do all his talking at his own home. The new plan is for him to remain at Lincoln, Nebraska, and hold receptions on his front lawn. He may make a few speeches, but he is not to make a tour as in 1896. It is stated that Mr. Bryan is not altogether satisfied at being hushed in this manner, but the campaign managers hold that it is not dignified for a Presidential candidate to personally appeal for votes.

This is interesting, if true; but to an outsider the impression comes that if Mr. Bryan doesn't keep his silvery tongue wagging from now till polling day, his chances of election will be decidedly slim. It was his personality that chiefly earned him the large vote he received before; and in four years emotional people are likely to forget what once aroused their enthusiasm. The Democratic performance, too, without the leading star actor, will not be an attractive one.

LETTER FROM PTE. RAE.

Montreal Boy One of Six Who Swam Vet River in the Face of Enemy's Bullets.

Mr. David Rae, of the firm of Rae & Donnelly, St. James street, has received the following letter from his son, John G. Rae, a member of the Second Canadian Contingent:

KROONSTAD, May 17.

Dear Father,—

Soon after leaving Halifax on the transport, I had the misfortune to be bitten by a horse. The animal's tooth pierced the forefinger of my right hand and blood poison followed. I suffered considerably, but am entirely better. This is the reason I did not write during the voyage.

I have been in five engagements with the enemy, but thus far their bullets have not found me. One of our most hazardous undertakings was at the Vet River, when volunteers were called for to swim the stream. The enemy was on the opposite side and keeping up a steady fire. Our troop leader and six men, including myself, offered our services and plunged into the water with all our clothing on, carrying our rifles on our back. Bullets were flying all around us and cutting the surface of the river, but luckily we reached the enemy's side without being hit.

That night we slept in our soaking garments, which was by no means a comfortable circumstance. The following day General Hutton complimented us on our pluck and dash.

We have been winning right along since we left Bloemfontein. We marched 130 miles in twelve days, fighting and skirmishing all the way. I do not know when we will leave Kroonstad. We do not know what is taking place outside of our division, but all seem to think the war will soon be over. The Free Staters are going back to their farms, but there may be some hard fighting before we get into the Transvaal.

I hope it will not be a great while before we leave for home, as we are all tired of it, and the "grub" is not to our liking.

THIRTY-FIVE DEAD.

Night Train Plunges Into Washout in Georgia With Terrible Results.

WRECK AT ONCE CAUGHT FIRE,

And Only Those in the Pullman Car Escaped From Flame and Flood.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 25.—A passenger train on the Macon branch of the Southern railway ran into a washout one and a half miles north of McDonough, Ga., Saturday night and was completely wrecked. The wreck caught fire and the entire train, with the exception of the sleeper, was destroyed. Every person on the train except the occupants of the Pullman car perished. Not a member of the train crew escaped. Thirty-five people in all were killed.

The train left Macon at 7.10 and was due in Atlanta at 9.45. McDonough was reached on time. At this point connection is made for Columbus, Ga., and here every night the Columbus train is coupled and hauled through to Atlanta. Saturday night, however, for the first time in many months, the Columbus train was reported two hours late on account of a washout on that branch and the Macon train started on to Atlanta without its Columbus connection.

Tremendous rains, of daily occurrence for the past two tweeks, have swollen all streams in this part of the South and several washouts have been reported on the different roads. Camps' creek which runs into the Ocmulgee was over its bank and its waters had spread to all the lowlands through which it runs. About a mile and a half north of McDonough the creek comes somewhat near the Southern's tracks and running alongside it for some distance finally passes away under the road bed by a heavy stone culvert.

A cloudburst broke over that section of the country about 6 o'clock Saturday night and presumably shortly after dark washed out a section of track nearly one hundred feet in length. Into this the swiftly moving train plunged. The storm was still raging and all the car windows were closed. The passengers, secure as they thought, and sheltered comfortably from the inclement weather, went to death without an instant's warning. The trains consisting of a baggage car, second class coach, first class coach, and a Pullman sleeper, was knocked into kindling wood by the fall. The wreck caught fire a few minutes after the fall and all the coaches were burned except the Pullman car.

THERE WAS NO ESCAPE.

There was no escape as the heavy Pullman car weighted down the others, and the few alive in the sleeper were unable to render assistance to their fellow passengers. For a brief time there was silence. Then the occupants of the Pullman car recovered from the bewilderment, and after hard work managed to get out of their car and found themselves on the track in the pouring rain. The extent of the catastrophe was quickly apparent. Flames were already seen coming from that part of the wreckage not covered by the water. As the wreck began to go to pieces under the destructive work of both flames and flood, human bodies floated out from the masses were carried down stream by the swift current. The storm did not abate in fury. Flashes of lightning added to the steady glow of the burning train and lit up the scene with fearful distinctness.

Flagman Quinlan, who was one of the first to get out, at once started for the nearest telegraph station. Making his way as rapidly as possible in the face of the blinding storm, he stumbled into the telegraph office at McDonough, and, after telling the operator of the wreck, fell fainting on the floor. Word was quickly sent to both Atlanta and Macon, but no assistance was to be had except in the latter city, as the interrupted track prevented the arrival of any train from Macon. Nearly the entire male population of McDonough went to the scene to render assistance, but little could be done by the rescuers as the fire kept them at a distance. At daylight the bodies that had floated from the gorge were gathered up. One body was found a mile from the wreck, and many were seen along its banks.

A wreck train was started out from Atlanta at midnight, but owing to the burning wreckage nothing could be done until morning. A special train at six o'clock this morning took doctors, ministers, railroad officials and helpers to the scene, but nothing could be done save to gather up the bodies. As the bodies were recovered they were removed to McDonough. There are two undertakers there. Both establishments were soon filled with mangled remains of the passengers. Some of the bodies were terribly burned, while others were crushed beyond recognition. The only means of identification in the majority of the cases were letters and papers in the pockets of the victims of the catastrophe. The bodies were prepared for burial as rapidly as possible. Some may be buried at McDonough. Others will be sent to their home as fast as their proper addresses can be ascertained. Only three women were on the train. Two escaped. It is presumed the other perished.

Besides the regular crew of the train, several conductors and other employes were en route to Atlanta to spend Sunday. All were killed. Conductor W. A. Barclay was in charge of the train. A section boss with a gang of eight negroes occupied seats in the second class coach. They were on their way to repair a washout on the Georgia Midland and Gulf Road. Not one escaped when the car went down.

The dead are: William A. Barclay, conductor, Atlanta; J. E. Wood, conductor, Atlanta; J. H. Hunnicut, conductor, Atlanta; J. T. Sullivan, engineer; W. W. Bennett, baggagemaster, Atlanta; T. E. Maddox, cotton buyer, Atlanta; W. J. Pate, Atlanta; 12-year-old son of W. J. Pate, Atlanta; H. R. Cressinan, Pullman conductor; George W. Flourney, Atlanta; H. C. Hightower, Stockbridge, Ga.; W. W. Park, Macon, Ga.; Eber Hanson, travelling man, supposed to have been from Florida; J. R. Florida, Nashville; W. O. Ellis, bridgeman, Stockbridge; D. Y. Griffith, supervisor; J. H. Rhodes, flagman; John Brantley White, fireman; Will Green, extra fireman; W. L. Morrisset, pump repairer; W. R. Lawrence, foreman extra gang; Ed Byrd coloured fireman, Atlanta; Robert Spencer, train porter; four bodies unidentified; eight nego section hands.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

A train bringing some of the dead from the wreck, arrived last night. Jesse L. Rohr, a travelling salesman of Baltimore, one of those rescued, was seen at the Kimball House. He said: "I was in the Pullman with the others who escaped with their lives when the wreck occurred. There was not an instant's warning. We heard suddenly an indistinct clash and the next instant felt our car pitch forward and drop. The forward end of the car filled with water at once and the lights went out. We heard the roar of the rushing waters and knew we were in a stream of some kind. We got down on all fours and felt and crawled our way to the top of the car and then out. The car was hanging by the car trucks to the stone abutment of the culvert and swayed by the motion of the water swung to and fro like a great pendulum. It was pitch dark and the rain was coming down in torrents. Peering into the breach in the track, we could see a confused mass of broken cars already beginning to burn. What impressed me was the fact that not a single call for help was heard. Those in the forward coatches must have met death instantly. The wreckage was on fire when we reached the top of our car and lit up the scene brightly. Looking toward the middle of our car, I saw the head and shoulders of a woman and soon heard her cry:

"'Save us, we are alive.'

"But we could do nothing for her then, as there was no rope to be had, and we were afraid the car would swing from its position. Then came the struggle to get to the track above. We were many feet from the level of the road bed.

GREAT CHUNKS OF EARTH

loosened by the rain, came falling down on us and we were nearly buried two or three times. We feared, too, that the stone abutments, weakened in its position by the earth, would loosen and crash in on us. We took hold of the roots and several times as we neared the top of the bank they pulled out and sent us tumbling back on the car. Once, Mr. Flynn, who was one of our little party, got within grasping distance of the top. Suddenly, to our horror, he lost his hold and down he came. He did not stop at the car this time, however, but went on into the river and was carried away by the terrific rush of waters. I was delighted at daylight, however, to see him walking up to our party in McDonough. He told us that he managed to catch a tree after a ride of a mile or more in the water.

"Flagman Quinlan worked like a hero. He got to the top and ran as fast as he could to a farm house near by and came with a rope. It was too short, however, and he had to make the trip again to another house. Finally he got plenty of rope and then we pulled the two ladies from the forward end of the coach and all were soon on the top of the ground."

When asked how wide the wash-out was, Mr. Rohr said:

"I can't tell you accurately; to me it seemed the width of the Mississippi river, and the roar of the flames and water was something calculated to unstring any man."

COLLISION KILLED SIX.

Passengers on a Chicago and Northwestern Train in Wisconsin, Yesterday Morning.

GREEN BAY, Wis., June 25.—A north bound passenger train on the Chicago and Northwestern road, loaded with excursionists, bound for the Saengerfest in this city, collided at 10.15 o'clock yesterday morning with a freight train at Depere, 5 miles south of here. Six persons were killed, one is missing, and thirty-four were injured. The dead:

Ed. Kuskie, Fon du Lac, Wis.; George L. Lloyd, Eden, died on way to the hospital; Lawrence Plank, Fon du Lac, Wis.; Charles Mierswa, Oshkosh; Burt Ives, Oskosh; man from Ashland, name unknown.

Missing: Ed. Lawson, Neenah.

The accident happened just as the passenger train was pulling into the station. A double header freight was backing into a side track to let the passenger by, but had not cleared the main track. Those injured were nearly all in the second coach. When the two trains came together the first car, which was a combination, smoking and baggage, was driven through the second coach, where the loss of life occurred.

GIVE THEIR SERVICES FREE.

From Now Till the End of the Session Members Will Not be Paid.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—While Parliament is sitting a member may draw his sessional pay daily at the rate of $7 per diem. Saturday was the 143rd day of the session, so that from this out Senators and members will have the privilege of serving their country for nothing. There has been some talk of an extra $500 indemnity owing to the length of the session, but much difference of opinion prevails on the subject, and the Government is not likely to do anything unless the feeling on both sides is unanimous.

CANADA AND TRINIDAD.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—The Department of Trade and Commerce has been officially notified that the Legislative Council of Trinidad has refused the request of the United States to extend for a year the time within which the convention for reciprocal trade between the Island and the Republic could be ratified by Congress. This practically terminates the proposed convention, as the United States Congress has adjourned, and ratification is now impossible. No barrier now exists to the making of a treaty for reciprocal trade between Canada and Trinidod.

FRENCH-CANADIAN FESTIVAL.

St. Jean Baptiste Celebration Passed Off Very Quietly Yesterday.

FEATURES WERE SERVICE AT CATHEDRAL AND GATHERING AT LOGAN'S PARK

The national French-Canadian festival of St. Jean Baptiste, occurring this year upon a Sunday, was observed much more quietly than is customary. The time-honoured procession, the main feature of the day, was not held this year; but, instead, the officers of the association, as well as those of the various branches, and some invited guests, attended Pontifical High Mass at St. James Cathedral in response to the invitation issued by the Archbishop.

In the evening there was a display of fire works and general illumination at Logan's Park, which display was, however, somewhat marred by the rain. Everything passed off very quietly.

The service at the Cathedral commenced at ten o'clock. His Grace was attended by Mgr. Racicot, Vicar-General; Rev. Abbe Perron, and deacon and sub-deacon. Among those present were: Mr. F. L. Beique, Q.C., president of the association; Messrs. Justices J. Alderic Ouimet, Wurtele, J. Alphonse Ouimet, Loranger, Doherty, Judge Desnoyers, Senators O'Brien and Casgrain, Dr. Kennedy, president St. Patrick's Society; Hon. J. J. Guerin, Hon. Louis Beaubien, Hon. Jos. Royal, Mr. J. A. Descarries, M.L.A., H. Dupre, M.P., J. U. Archambault, L. O. David, Philippe Hebert, the sculptor; Adolphe Ouimet, Dr. E. P. Lachapelle, G. A. Drolet, C. A. Dansereau, Ex-Mayor Grenier, Ald. Gagnon and Lareau, Hon. N. Perodeau, Hon. J. D. Rolland.

The choir, under Prof. Couture, chanted Dubois's "Pontifical Mass" with splendid effect. Mr. J. Saucier chanted at the offertory Neukman's "Confirma Hoc Deus."

Rev. Geo. Gauthier preached a short but eloquent sermon upon the day they honored, taking for his text, "Ego sum vos amantis in deserto." The first portion of the sermon was a panegyric of St. John the Baptist, and his preaching in the desert as the precursor of Jesus Christ. He pointed out the humility and greatness of him whom Christ Himself had called the greatest of prophets. John the Baptist looked himself as the voice of Him who had sent him, and as Christ grew John the Baptist faded away. Christians had great lessons to draw from the life of the beloved saint, and the reverend gentleman held that this was especially the case with the French-Canadians. Time did not permit him to more than allude to the great figures which had honoured the history of this land from the great discoverer down to the heroes, saints, bishops and noble women who had given up their lives for the triumph of Jesus Christ and the work confided to them. The French-Canadian people had once found themselves as in a desert when they had been cut away from France, and had to rely upon their own efforts to ensure their national existence. None but those who had lived in those days had ever known the sufferings, trials and tribulations which their fathers had to endure to assure for their children the proud position which they now occupied.

The sanctuary of the church was decorated with the banner of the association, and English and French flags. A number of flags were displayed over public and private buildings, and a number of stores were also decorated.

There was an immense gathering at Logan's Park in the evening for the fire works. The whole of Park Logan West and Rachel street facing upon the park was lined with Chinese lanterns. The coloured fires greatly added to the beauty of the scene, but the rain interfered somewhat with the programme of fire works.

A band under the direction of Mr. Hebert played a programme of Canadian airs.

SIXTY-FIFTH AT QUEBEC.

Montreal Battalion Were Made Much of at the Ancient Capital Yesterday.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 25.—St. Jean Baptiste day will be officially celebrated here to-day, but yesterday was to a certain extent observed as the fete, owing to the presence in Quebec of the 65th Battalion, of Montreal, which was everywhere as enthusiastically applauded as the Ninth itself would have been. Moreover, flags floated everywhere in profusion, the tri-colour being omnipresent. People wore their holiday attire, and both the streets and the cars bore a most animated appearance all day. The morning was dark and threatening, but the weather soon cleared up and a glorious day was spent, the only drawback being in the evening, when one of the worst downpours of rain this season drove 7,000 or 8,000 people off the Terrace, where the State band of R. C. A. and the band of the 65th were playing alternately.

The 65th arrived by Canadian Pacific Railway at 10.30, on Saturday night, and was met by the members of the 9th Battalion, headed by their brass and bugle bands. The two corps marched out St. Joseph street together and returned to the station, the men sleeping in the cars. All along the route the visitors, who looked extremely well, were enthusiastically cheered, the sidewalks being crowded with spectators. Yesterday morning a special mass was said at the Basilica, the guard of honour being composed of detachments of the two corps. At noon the officers of the Ninth entertained their visiting brother officers at the Garrison Club, and after the lunch the Ninth N. C. O.'s took their brothers-in-arms down to the Montmorency falls by a special train of the Quebec Railway Light and Power Company. The men spent the day in sightseeing. The interrupted band concert was the feature of the evening, the boys leaving about midnight on the return journey.

The Sixty-fifth men were accompanied by Colonels Cooke, P.O.W., R. Ibbotson, Royal Scots; Sergt.-Major Fellowes, M.G.A., and Sergt. Zost, of the Duke of York's Hussars. Altogether the trip was a most successful and pleasant one.

MR. J. D. ROBINSON,
DUNDAS, ONT.,
Gives His Honest Opinion of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mr. J. D. Robinson, a resident of Dundas, Ont., has found these pills to do all that is claimed for them and made the following statement of his case:

"Some time ago I obtained a box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I can now without hesitation say that they have been beneficial in relieving me of an obstinate and long standing complaint affecting my heart and nerves.

"I was troubled with sleeplessness, dizziness, palpitation and neuralgia for such a long time that I had really given up hope of a cure. Now, that others may learn of the virtues of this remedy, I give my unsolicited testimony.

"My honest opinion is that there is no cure so good for heart and nerve troubles as Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box, or 3 for $1.25, at all druggists.

CELEBRATION AT WINNIPEG.

Several Montrealers and Many From the Province are Taking Part.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 25.—The Manitoba celebration of the St. Jean Baptiste anniversary opened on a large scale at St. Boniface yesterday. Over 125 French-Canadians from the province of Quebec, mostly from the city of Montreal, arrived Saturday, among whom were Henri Bourassa, M.P. for Labelle, Que.; the Rev. Father Cinqmars, of Quebec; the Rev. Father Guerin, of Three Rivers, and Dr. Ouelete, of St. Clare, Que. The demonstration opened at 8.30 o'clock in the morning with a reunion of the societies of St. Jean Baptiste of Winnipeg and St. Boniface at the City Hall, where an address was delivered by the Archbishop of St. Boniface. At the City Hall a procession was formed, which proceeded to the Bishop's Palace, where they met the bishop and then proceeded to St. Boniface College grounds, where High Mass was held by His Grace. After Mass an address was presented to His Grace. At 1.30 p.m. the opening of national congress was held in the Academy Hall of St. Boniface College. Archbishop Langevin delivered an address of welcome, and Mr. Bourassa and others spoke briefly. To-day there will be speeches and sports, with sessions of the national congress.

ST. JEAN BAPTISTE DAY.

Celebration at Quebec is the Finest That Has Taken Place in Recent Years.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 25.—The official celebration of St. Jean Baptiste Day began this morning. Everywhere the city was gay with colour, and at eight o'clock the grand procession began. It required three-quarters of an hour for it to pass a given point and fully a dozen bands were in the line, and it comprised many societies, bearing banners. At ten o'clock mass was said at St. Malo Church, and the afternoon was passed by sports at the exhibition grounds. Addresses were presented to His Honour Lieut.-Governor Jette at Parliament buildings; His Worship the Mayor, at the City Hall, and Archbishop Begin, at the Archbishop's Palace. Altogether the celebration was the finest seen here in recent years.

FORESTERS' EXCURSION—From present indications the Foresters' excursion and picnic to Beauharnois on Monday next (Dominion Day) promises to be one of the most popular of the season. A good programme of games will be provided and a first-class orchestra has been secured for the dancing.

BOURASSA TALKING AGAIN.

He Has Not Changed His Views in Regard to the War.

THE LIBERAL GOVERNMENT WAS FORCED TO SEND TROOPS TO HELP BRITAIN.

(Special to the Star.)

WINNIPEG, June 25.—Mr. Bourassa, who is here with Mr. Tardival, president of L'Union Nationale, and a large party of Quebecers, attending the local celebration of St. Jean Baptiste, at St. Boniface, has been interviewed.

He said he entertained the same views regarding the war that led to his resignation a few months ago, and that he believed a large majority of the people of Quebec shared his views. He said there was no doubt that the sending of the contingents was forced on the Government by the hot-headed patriotism of a comparatively small portion of the Canadian people, and he was afraid a bad precedent had been established. The Quebec people, though loyal, did not wish to have their hands forced by suggestions from outside, and as they considered the war to be an unjust one, did not approve of Canada sending troops to assist England.

THE TARTAR ARRIVES.

VANCOUVER, B.C., June 25.—The Canadian Pacific Railway liner Tartar arrived from the Orient yesterday morning. She brings 371 passengers and a large consignment of tea, the first of the seasons crop.

THE TUNISIAN ARRIVES.

The Allan Liner Gets Into Port at One O'clock Sunday.

The Allan line steamship Tunisian arrived in port shortly after noon yesterday, thus completing her second voyage to this port. There were an exceptionally large number of people present on the wharf when the vessel came in, not a few of them being members of the Canadian Parliament, who had come down for the inspection of the harbour on Saturday and remained over.

It gave these gentlemen an exceptional opportunity of seeing just what one of our big Atlantic liners is like. The Tunisian brought out 90 first-class, 82 second and 792 steerage passengers. The Tunisian sailed from Liverpool on Thursday, the 14th, and made a smart run of it.

THE LUSITANIA COMING UP.

WHARF LABOURER KILLED.

He Was Helping to Discharge Albanian's Cargo.

About ten o'clock this morning the Notre Dame Ambulance was called to the Leyland SS. Albanian, to remove one of the labourers named Ovide Amiot, aged 36, who lived at 758 Lafontaine street. A few minutes after reaching the hospital the man breathed his last. Amiot was employed on board the Albanian discharging steel rails. One of the rails struck him on the side of the head and besides inflicted serious internal injuries. The Coroner will investigate the circumstances.

FOR SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

At Point St. Charles on Friday evening at the close of the regular services, a large audience assembled at the Centenary Methodist Church in the interests of Sunday observance. After a few explanatory remarks by Rev. Melvin Taylor, a strong resolution on the subject was moved by Rev. A. E. McKenzie of the Presbytrian Church, and seconded by Rev. J. R. Webb, of the Baptist Church. Rev. D. S. Hamilton supported the resolution after which it was passed unaimously by standing vote A committee of ratepayers consisting of three laymen from each church with the pastors was appointed to lay the resolution before the Police Committee of the City Council at their meeting on Thursday of this week.

THE DOG CAME BACK.

The other day Harry Brown of the St. Lawrence Hall had a dog stolen, under peculiar circumstances, related in the Star. Mr. Brown left the dog in a Bleury Street store on his way up-town, and the dog thief called at the store, saying that the owner of the dog sent him for the animal, and thus got possession of it, much to Mr. Brown's sorrow, as the canine was the gift of a dead friend.

Next morning after the paragraph appeared in the Star, Mr. Brown received his dog again, "The dog came back" where doggie had been or who stole him Mr. Brown doesn't know. But he thinks that the thief, frightened at the publicity made, took the safe course of sending the dog back.

JUDGMENT CONFIRMED.

The Court of Appeal has confirmed the judgment of the Superior Court in the case of Desire St. Amour, a plumber, against his employers, Lessard & Harris, awarding him $3,500 damages for injuries sustained in falling from a scaffold upon which he was working. He had claimed $5,000. Mr. Justice Bosse dissented from his colleagues, holding that defendants were not responsible for the accident, and Mr. Justice Ouimet would have been in favour of reducing the damages.

ENTITLED TO MONTH'S NOTICE.

The Court of Appeal has confirmed the judgment of Mr. Justice Taschereau, in the case of A. F. Gervais, against J. A. Nadeau, notary. The plaintiff sought to recover damages from the defendant for a deed passed by him in his professional capacity. The courts hold that the law protects a notary in the exercise of his profession and that further being a public official he was entitled to a month's notice before the suit was instituted.

GRANBY MUST PAY.

The Court of Appeal has confirmed the judgment of the Court of Review condemning the corporation of the village of Granby to pay the minor children of the late Jos. Cote, killed while in their employ, $8,000 damages and $200 to his widow for expenses incurred. She has since married a second time. The first court had dismissed the action. Cote was working in a drain which collapsed when he was killed.

THE GHOSTS OF BROKEN PROMISES

Confronted the Dominion Ministers in the Precincts of the House To-day.

ANTI-CHINESE LEGISLATION.

The Premier Fails to Please Even the Members of His Own Party.

(Special Staff Correspondence.)

PRESS GALLERY, HOUSE OF COMMONS, OTTAWA, June 25.—The members of the Government who attended the first morning session of the House this morning had a realization of the words: "Oh, what a tangled net we weave, when first we practice to deceive." The ghosts of broken promises rose in judgment against them in connection with Chinese immigration. The debate showed that even in the Government ranks the members for British Columbia and others are not content with the measure of fulfillment of the Premier's ante-election promises, given in the Chinese bill.

The attendance was very slim, the only Ministers present being the Premier, Hon. Mr. Paterson and Dr. Borden. Mr. Fielding arrived later on.

Leave was given the Railway, Private Bills and Public Accounts Committees to meet during the session of the House. The sponsors for private bills were not in the House, so these measures stood. All the questions stood at the request of the Government, eliciting a sarcastic remark from Mr. Foster. The bill to amend the tariff customs of 1897 was read a third time and passed.

CIVIL SERVICE ACT.

Mr. Fielding moved to refer the bill to amend the civil service back for further consideration and verbal amendments in committee. Mr. Foster pointed out that the bill as it stood allowed messengers who were qualified to rank as third class clerks.

Mr. Fielding had not seen this before. The motion having been passed, the bill was taken in committee, and the verbal amendments made. The committee having reported the bill as amended, and it was read a third time and passed.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

The bill respecting and restricting Chinese immigration was read a second time and taken in committee of the whole.

Mr. Foster asked, what, in view of the British Columbian sentiment, was the intention of the Government. At the time of the elections the feeling in British Columbia was very strong and representations were made to the Premier. He signed a telegram to the effect that the Government were prepared to carry out the wishes of the Liberal members. Was this bill in strict accord with the wishes of the British Columbians.

The Premier believed he could satisfy Mr. Foster's curiosity.

Mr. Foster—Oh, more than curiosity.

The Premier said the bill was in the direction of the wishes of the people. He did not pretend to be able to please everybody. This bill was in the direction wanted by the people of the east. The members from British Columbia had jumped into his waggon and were prepared to go as far as he went. The bill was not final.

Mr. Foster thought Sir Wilfrid Laurier was far more Conservative in his actions that he was in his promises. Did he not think it was time he was more conservative at the time he made his promises.

THE PREMIER'S LITTLE CART.

When the telegram was sent the only object would be to gain votes. Now it was certain Sir Wilfrid made a definite promise, which to-day he definitely stated that he did not mean to keep. He congratulated the Premier upon the ease with which people of divers kinds jumped into his little cart and took a ride with him with his little waggon, but what had the members for Victoria and Burrand to say.

Mr. Morrison did not hesitate to say he was in the same waggon with the Premier, and found it much better greased than the ramshackle old vehicle which Mr. Foster occupied. He declared himself as not satisfied with this bill and said the Premier knew it, better than everybody.

MR. EDWARDS' CONUNDRUM.

"Who made the Chinaman?" was the conundrum propounded by Mr. W. C. Edwards, M.P., amidst shouts of laughter. He opposed the bill from end to end. If the object of the bill was to keep the Chinaman out, then if the principle were right, the Boers to-day were right, and the Chinese in China to-day were right. We put ourselves on the level of the "Boer," said Mr. Edwards.

Speak for yourself, quoth Mr. Morrison.

Mr. Edwards has always had the courage of his opinions. Who made the Chinaman? If the same Creator as made the white man, then this was wrong. It was barbarous. He would, as a free trader, like to defeat the bill, it was against economic principles and political right.

Mr. Davin was delighted with the spectacle. Here was a free trade Premier denounced by a free trade supporter, whilst his position on the matter was travestied by Mr. A. Aulay Morrison.

A COMEDY OF ERRORS.

The comedy of errors was the only thing to equal it. Mr. Morrison boasted he was in the same waggon with the Premier, and that it was well set up. It was well varnished, they all knew that, there had always been a lot of varnish about the Government. In fact their policy was all varnish. When the varnish was scratched off there was only poor basswood underneath instead of hickory, and now two great spokes were missing, the Tarte and Sifton spokes. Afterwards Mr. Morrison told him he had no business to be in the waggon at all. He claimed the telegram sent by Sir Wilfrid was, despite Mr. Aulay Morrison intended to catch votes and did catch thousands. It was not probable that the electors of B. C. were gifted with that astute foresight which would enable them to read the character of the Prime Minister and so know that that telegram was only like very other promise made by the Premier and therefore was only worth the paper it was written on. He allied Mr. Davis and others on having been elected on the strength of promises made by the Premier. He argued strongly against Mr. Edwards that the Chinamen would not settle here and were dangerous in Canada to our institutions, and future. Unless this would not prevent Chinese immigration the Premier was as false to his promise, as the Liberal members were to his knowledge, to the opinion of the people of British Columbia.

DENOUNCED THE BILL.

Mr. Puttee denounced the measure as unsatisfactory to the labouring men and to all Canadians. It was specially insufficient to meet the views of the Liberals of British Columbia. Nothing short of the exclusion of the Chinese would be satisfactory.

Col. Prior ridiculed Mr. Morrison's attachment to the Premier's waggon; but that waggon would finally run Mr. Morrison out of political life. The question was more burning now than ever. He estimated that out of a population of 160,000 in British Columbia there were 25,000 Chinamen. He acknowledged the difficulty of dealing with the Japanese Immigration, but British Columbia expected prompt action. He accused the Government of cowardice in not dealing strongly and definitely with the matter at once.

RECEIVED WITH A CHEER.

Mr. Maxwell endeavoured to explain away the famous telegram by saying it was sent to a private individual, but admitted it was received by a great cheer at a meeting he was addressing. He spent a good deal of time dealing with the sins of the Conservative party, and very briefly stated that he himself was not satisfied. The resolutions having been considered, the bill founded on them was taken into consideration. The committee had not risen when, it being one o'clock, the Speaker left the chair.

TROOPS FOR CHINA.

Britain Could Land 25,000 Men in Ninety Days

BY THE CANADIAN ROUTE.

How the C. P. R. Would Arrange for Such an Enterprise if Necessary.

It is quite possible that the hostilities in the far east will give Canada another opportunity to show its devotion to the Empire by offering to furnish an Imperial highway to the Orient, reaching half-way round the world, without leaving the folds of the Union Jack.

If Britain determines upon sending troops from home 10,000 could be carried through Canada to Shanghai within twenty-eight days and in less than ninety days by the same route and the same fleet on the Pacific Ocean an army of 25,000 men could without difficulty be poured into China.

The Atlantic voyage would not occupy more than seven days to Halifax, St. John or Quebec; in four or five days more the North American Continent would be crossed by the Canadian Pacific Railway to Vancouver, thence by the company's three steamships each carrying 1,500 troops, it is only twelve days to Shanghai. This gives liberal time allowance for embarking and debarking en route. The company has two auxiliary steamers which could be put in service with a capacity for 2,000 men and three steamers of the Canadian-Australian line could also be requisitioned. Empress steamships can be transformed into army cruisers within 24 hours as mountings are already fitted and the Admiralty has guns both at Esquimault and Hong Kong.

In speaking to a Star reporter, this morning, President Shaughnessy said that the scheme was quite practicable, but of course it would be well to have ample warning so that the steamers could be on this side of the water. At the present time there was he said only one steamer here, but if a fair notice was given the company there would be no difficulty in carrying out such a plan as that above outlined.

William Weir, double liability, $88,900.

The firm state that they will not contest the demand.

HARBOUR FRONT FATALITY.

Onesime Goulet Struck in Abdomen Saturday, Died Yesterday Morning.

Accidental death was the verdict rendered this morning in the case of Onesime Goulet, of No. 14 1-2 St. Elizabeth street, who died at the General Hospital yesterday morning as a result of injuries received on Saturday while working for the Charlemagne Lumber Company. Deceased was engaged in sawing deals with a revolving saw, when one of the deals flew back striking Goulet in the abdomen. The injured man was brought up on a tug to the Donaldson line wharf and removed in the ambulance to the General Hospital, at 3.45 Saturday afternoon. He lingered until 4.55 o'clock yesterday morning. Deceased leaves a wife and seven children. A lawyer had been retained to look after the interests of the family, but did not attend the inquest, as he expected it would take place this afternoon, whereas Deputy Coroner Biron proceeded this morning at the General Hospital.

EVANGELISTS STONED.

Police Had to Protect Them on Viger Square.

Two evangelists had rather a hard time on Saturday evening on Viger Square and the neighbourhood. The two men were Mr. A. P. Blouin, who was one of the most devoted of the late Father Chiniquy's followers, and the other was Mr. Chas. Kneeland. They had been distributing tracts and exhorting the people on Viger Square to hear the words of the Bible. The crowd did not incline to their view of the matter, however, and instead some one began to throw stones and then the preachers had to take to flight. Three or four policemen came up, and tried to protect Messrs. Blouin and Kneeland. The policemen were powerless, however, and advised the two men to run over to the station. This they did, followed by a crowd made up mostly of boys. When quiet was restored, the two men left the police station by a back window and proceeded to their homes.

HOW TO REACH NEW RANGE.

The new rifle range at Pointe aux Trembles, which has been purchased for the Montreal Militia for $35,000, is immediately adjoining the tracks of the Montreal Belt Line Railway. A convenient route to reach the place is by the Ontario and Wellington cars going east, and thence transfer to the Belt Line Railway as Lasalle street.

The Belt Line trains leave Notre Dame street east every hour, and intending visitors will require to leave the city three-quarters of an hour sooner, or else they will have an hour's wait at Lasalle street.

FOR THE FARMERS.

The Richmond Guardian asks Hon. Sydney Fisher: Is not coal oil 25 per cent. dearer than it was before the tariff was "reformed;" is not fence wire 60 per cent. higher; is not agricultural machinery and cotton cloth or anything else in general demand higher? His government has cheapened diamonds, and silks and velvets and ribbons.

THE PEOPLE ARE AWAKENING.

(Almonte Times.)

The letters from clergymen and others, published in the Montreal Star, show pretty clearly that the people are awakened to the state of politics throughout the country and are determined to put down bribery and corruption.

In an interview given in New York the Boer envoys say they learn that the British have burned their homes for spite. They think the American people should force the Administration, which is against them, to declare for the Boers.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED

Warrants Served on Messrs. Thompson and Savage of Thompson Shoe Co.

ALLEGED BANK CLAIM WAS PAID.

Liquidator Says Stock Was Sold to Clear Their Officials of Personal Responsibility.

Warrants were served by Deputy High Constable Lambert, on Saturday, on Edwin Thompson and Edward J. Savage, president and vice-president of the Thompson Shoe Company, charging them with conspiracy. They appeared before Magistrate Lafontaine this morning and pleaded not guilty to the charge, and were remanded till July 3rd for enquete. The warrants were issued on the complaint of Alexander Desmarteau, liquidator of the Thompson Shoe Company, before Judge Choquet, permission having previously been granted by Judge Mathieu of the Superior Court. The deposition states that Edwin Thompson and Edward J. Savage did during the months of February, March, April and May last, conspire by fraudulent means to defraud the creditors of the said company as follows: That the said Thompson and Savage having borrowed on behalf of the company a sum exceeding $50,000 from the Ontario Bank for which they were personally responsible, did in contemplation of judicial liquidation of the company, dispose of a large quantity of goods of the company at extraordinary rates of discount and with the proceeds thereof did fully repay the said loan to the Ontario Bank, relieving themselves of such personal responsibility, and did further within five weeks of the liquidation of the company take from the stock unmanufactured material to the value of $14,000, which they warehoused, and transferred the warehouse receipts to the Ontario Bank to relieve them of personal responsibility to the extent of $12,000, the whole constituting a fraudulent preference to the prejudice of the creditors of the said company and with intent to defraud the said creditors, the said company being during the whole of the said period insolvent.

The court accepted bail this morning on behalf of the defendants to the extent of $4,000 each for their appearance in court on July 3rd. Their bondsmen are, Samuel Coulson and Alfred J. Whitley who are bound in the sum of $2,000 each for each of the defendants. Mr. F. H. Markey represents the liquidators, and Carter and Goldstein the defendants.

MASONS' BALL GAME.

On Saturday afternoon many members of the Masonic fraternity attended the great baseball match between the Prince Consort Lodge team and that of the Temple Club. Enthusiasm ran high, as all players were credited with a good deal of ability on ball principles.

A special feature of the afternoon was the presence of H. Bartholomew Sousa and his famous musicians. The solo work was grand, and, according to Frank Latty's views, they helped his team play a "foxy" game. One of the features of the day was a real fat man's race, when Captain Billee Little made a home run. Billee made the run of his life, and he is quite satisfied that he used to run faster when playing in Guelph. Fred Howksworth was responsible for Prince Consort making such a finish, his pitching was all right. Speaking of umpires, at one time everyone thought by the many interviews on the field with Tommy Atkins he was going to announce his farewell appearance.

"Billy" Haworth is the greatest debater in town; that is, when the ball passed him everything was foul. Dan Brophy played a slick game; his catching was marvellous, and to see him dance to Piper "Jock" Allan was inspiring to his team, especially when "Charlie" Manhire was pitching those curve balls that Edwards couldn't even connect with. Captain Charlie batted well, and can make Temple win out yet.

Pitcher Thomas was in the game from the start, and shared honours with Hawksworth. Geo. Hudson is a gem, and came near getting the proverbial "box of cigars." Harry Hall had his work cut out, tuning his men up to proper pitch. "Jim" McCleary was a bird, and made quite a record, stealing bases. "Tom" McRobie a la Roosevelt made some good strikes. "Jack" Hawkins was not so bad on batting, but where was his wheel when making runs? Well, the two teams have proven that they can play ball, and will furnish another game in the autumn when a still larger audience will be on hand.

The game resulted as follows:

										Total.
Prince Consort Lodge—
Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Runs	0	0	0	5	11	2	2	2	8	30
Temple Club—
Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Runs	1	2	2	0	2	2	1	8	9	27

At the Temple the game was celebrated in a proper manner with song, speech and story. Captain Little responded for Prince Consort and Captain Manhire for the Temples.

Chairman Campbell announced that the Temple Club has issued a challenge for a lacrosse game to any Masonic Lodge.

NEWS OF THE CITY.

PICNIC.—The picnic grounds at Bout de l'Isle presented an animated appearance on Saturday on the occasion of the annual picnics of the Amherst Park Congregational and Chalmers Presbyterian Sunday Schools. Some eight hundred excursionists were present on the grounds.

PAINTER'S FALL.—Philip J. Florence, of 17 Arcade street, a sign painter, while at work at 301 St. Paul street, this morning, slipped from a ladder and fell some distance to the ground, inflicting injuries about the face. The injured man had his wounds dressed at the General Hospital.

JUDGMENT RESERVED. — A motion was made in the Court of Review this morning on behalf of Mr. Massue Drolet, Seigneur of St. Aime, in his suit against Mr. J. Z. Resther, executor of the Massue estate, to have the recent judgment of Mr. Justice Ouimet, in favour of the plaintiff, given effect to, as to the present revenues pending the final adjudication on the case. The judgment has been appealed from. Judgment was reserved on the motion.

Mr. Alfred Murray, of Montreal, is in Kingston.

Mrs. E. M. Webster is yachting on the Upper St. Lawrence.

Miss Beatrice Vooght, of North Sydney, C.B., has left home on a visit to Montreal.

Mr. Joseph H. Jacob was the guest of His Grace Bishop Emard, of Valleyfield, at his summer residence, Cedar Point, yesterday.

Mrs. A. Hannaford, of Montreal, was among the guests present at the marriage of Miss Ethel E. MacLeod to Dr. F. J. Rayner, which took place last week at the residence of the bride's mother in Buffalo, N.Y.

Mrs. Wellman and her daughter, Miss Mabel Wellman, of Winnipeg, who are en route to London, Eng., are visiting Mrs. James Harnott, 434 Claremount avenue, Westmount, and will sail by the Tunisian on June 30.

United Canada, an Irish-Canadian newspaper of Ottawa, publishes a letter from Mr. Charles R. Devlin, Canadian commissioner to Ireland, stating that the ex-M.P. for Wright does not contemplate returning to Canada "in the near future." He has no desire to return to political life in Canada, he adds.

The Allan line steamer Parisian arrived at Liverpool at 4 p.m. on Monday.

The Dominion line steamship Dominion, from Montreal on June 16, passed Kinsale at 1 p.m. to-day (Monday).

HAS CHANGED THE DATE.

Rev. Adam Murrman's Resignation to Take Effect Sooner Than Was Anticipated.

STATEMENT READ BY THE PASTOR TO CONGREGATION AT SERVICE LAST EVENING.

REV. ADAM MURRMAN.

The following statement was read last evening by Rev. Adam Murrman, pastor of Zion church:

"Taking into consideration all the facts in the case in their bearing upon the case in their bearing upon the future of Zion church, and after a prayerful consideration of they whole matter I have decided to change. The form of the resignation read last Sunday, as follows:

"I hereby tender my resignation as pastor of this church, the same to take effect on August 1st instead of October 1st., and, in order to expedite matters in securing a successor, I hereby assure the church that this decision is final and irrevocable. Thanking the young people of the church for the kind sentiments expressed in the petition received from them, and also those of our members and adherents who have expressed by letter their endorsement of my positions. There appreciation of my ministry, and their desire that I continue as pastor, I pray God that Zion may find no difficulty in finding a true and faithful servant of God who will lead you in all right thinking and holy living; who will preach the Word and will be a true shepherd of God's flock.

"This will make your task on next Wednesday night a very simple one, viz: much prayer for Divine guidance and the appointment of such committees as may be necessary to secure a successor."

THE "COUNT" MAY KNOW.

Inspector of Ontario Secret Service Wants Interview With Man From Chicago.

ABOUT THREE BURGLARS WHO ARE AWAITING EXTRADITION IN THAT CITY.

Inspector Rodgers, of the Ontario Secret Service, arrived in Montreal on Saturday afternoon in order to get some information from "Count" Lautrec, now in gaol here on a charge of forgery, regarding three alleged bank burglars now in Chicago awaiting extradition. Inspector Rodgers has positive evidence that these three men, one of whom is named Rutledge, were in communication with the "Count" while he was in Chicago, and that they made him fully conversant with all the details of their alleged burglaries. On Saturday afternoon the "Count" was seen by the Inspector and Chief Carpenter, but refused to swear to any affidavit then. He said that he wanted more freedom, better quarters and better food, and until he got these he would say nothing. Expostulation was in vain, and nothing was accomplished.

Inspector Rodgers thinks that if he can gain the required information from the "Count" it will complete the evidence against the three burglars.

RECOVERED THE CHALICE.

It Was Found Buried in the Sand at St. Lambert.

This afternoon detectives accompanied Louis Eumane to St. Lambert. He had promised to find the chalice stolen from the church and he did so. He removed a few inches of sand on the embankment near the Victoria bridge and the chalice was exposed to view.

RAILWAY FUND A SUCCESS

The committee in charge of the Canadian Pacific Railway Employes' Voluntary Patriotic Relief Fund report that the proceeds amount to twelve thousand and thirty-three dollars and sixty-four cents. The subscription has proved a great success, and the amount subscribed is a practical proof of the loyalty of the employes of the railway from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The amount is practically the total available figure based upon a half-day's pay. Great credit is due to the chairman of the committee, Mr. Robert Millar, stationmaster at the Windsor street station, to whose energetic patriotism much of the success of the enterprize is owing.

LIEUT. INGLIS ILL.

(Special by Cable from the Special Correspondent of the Star in London.)

LONDON, June 25. — The War Office reports that Pte. Green, of the Second Canadian Contingent, is dangerously ill at Wynburg. Lt. Inglis has been dangerously wounded at Honingspruit.

There are two Greens in the Second Contingent, Herbert and Girshorn. They both belong to Pinder Creek, N.W.T.

PTE. HIAM IS BETTER.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—The Militia Department to-day received cables announcing the severe wounding of Lieut. Inglis, 4th Troop Squadron Second Canadian Mounted Rifles, and formerly of H. M. Berkshire Regiment; also of the convalescence of Pte. H. Hiam, of Montreal company, 2nd R. C. R. I. who was reported dangerously ill on the 29th ultimo.

IRISH PASSED RESOLUTIONS.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A closed meeting of delegates of the United Irish American societies was held last night in this city. Resolutions regarding the deported Fenians were adopted to the effect that the act was evidence "of the charge heard on all sides that the present Administration was controlled and dominated by England and English influences."

PRISONERS OF THE BOERS.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Tribune's London correspondent cables: The Boers have 1,350 prisoners on the Delagoa Bay line and probably about 800 in the Orange River Colony, which were taken at the Rhenoster River. Lords Leitrim and Ennismore have been taken north, with other members of the millionaires battalion.

THE CYCLE AFFAIRS

Were Amicably Settled at a Meeting of C.C.A. and C.W.A. Representatives in Ottawa

NFW ASSOCIATION IN CONTROL

After the Dominion Day Meet Which Is to Be Held in Ottawa—The Agreement.

The Canadian Cyclists' Association and the Canadian Wheelman's Association have amicably settled their difficulties, and from this on each will go their way in peace and harmony.

The representatives of both associations met in Ottawa on Saturday, and everything pertaining to the Dominion Day meet, which threatened to be a cause for strife between the two governing bodies, was arranged in a satisfactory manner. It was agreed that the sanctions issued shall hold good; the C. W. A. will take the usual percentage and the old association has agreed to give up control of the racing game after this meet.

Both parties regard the outcome as highly satisfactory, and all state that the outlook is promising.

Below will be found the agreement which was entered into between the two associations:

Ottawa, June 23, 1900.

Memo of agreement between the C. W. A. and C.C.A.:

1. That the meet shall be the 18th annual meet of the C.W.A.
2. Sanction to be granted by the C.C.A.
3. Ten per cent. of gross receipts to go to C.W.A.
4. That the Capital Bicycle Club name meet officials.
5. Races to be run under C.C.A. rules.
6. The C.W.A. now abandons the government of cycle racing in Canada to the C. C. A. and agree in future to recognize the C.C.A. as the ruling body in cycle racing in Canada, and requests all affiliated clubs to apply to the C.C.A. for sanctions, and all racing men in the C.W.A. must immediately apply to the C.C.A. for racing license.
7. Sanctions already issued by the C.W. A. for provincial meets up to and inclusive of July 1st to remain good.

(Signed)

J. GAULD,
President C.W.A.
H. B. DONLY,
Secretary C.W.A.
GEORGE TATE,
President C.C.A.
W. J. GUILBAULT,
Secretary C.C.A.

UNPRECEDENTED HEAT

Winnipeg is Sweltering and Fears are Entertained for Wheat Crop Unless Rain Comes.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 25.—During the past week Winnipeg has sweated under heat unprecedented in the history of the city. The thermometer has ranged in different parts of the city from one hundred to one hundred and five degrees, and to day the temperature remains unchanged. This continued heat and dry weather, which extends over the province, is causing many to predict serious loss to the wheat crop, and a consequent depression in business circles is feared. Several large business firms are curtailing operations, and on Saturday over five hundred employes of the Canadian Pacific Railway shops were given a vacation until July 3. On the whole the present outlook for Manitoba cannot be said to be bright, unless rain comes at an early date.

GOVERNMENT HAS NO INFORMATION OF OPERATIONS

At Tien Tsin, Though it Believes That Reinforcements Have Reached Taku.

LONDON, June 25.—In the House of Commons to-day referring to the failure of the American and Russian forces to reach Tien Tsin, June 21, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, Mr. Broderick, said that since then British troops from Hong Kong had arrived at Taku and it was believed that 3,000 Japanese, 1,000 Germans and 2,000 French troops had also arrived there. But the Government had no information regarding the later operations.

NORTHUMBERLAND PLATE.

Betting and Probable Starters for Next Wednesday's Event.

(Special by Cable from the Special Correspondent of the Star in London.)

LONDON, June 25.—The latest betting and probable starters for the Northumberland plate are: Ameer, 3 to 1; Innocence, 3 1-2 to 1; Joe Chamberlain, 4 to 1; Ultimatum, 6 to 1; Veroscope, 8 to 1; the Shaughran, 8 to 1. The other probable starters are Aerolo, Sark, Thorney. The Northumberland plate, or better known in the north of England as the Pitmans Derby, will be run on Wednesday, June 27. Distance 2 miles.

LOOKING FOR INFORMATION.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25. — A circular letter issued by Lord Lansdowne, Secretary of State for War, enquiring as to the terms of service of the men who went from Canada to serve in South Africa has been forwarded by Mr. Chamberlain to the Militia Department. A similar letter has evidently been sent to the other colonies taking part in the war. In reply to Orders-in-Council dealing with the subject in Canada have been forwarded to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

DEATH LIST MAY REACH FORTY-ONE.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 25. — Additional reports received here to-day from the scene of the wreck on the Macon branch of the Southern Railway at McDonogugh show that the list of dead probably will number 41. The number of the gang of section hands on the wrecked train who were killed, is not known. Several of the bodies have been removed from the wreckage, but they have not been identified.

WORLD'S TEMPERANCE UNION.

EDINBURGH, June 25.—The World's Woman's Christian Temperance Union Congress re-assembled to-day under the presidency of Mrs. Bailey. The American delegates are greatly concerned at the serious illness of Mr. James Norton, principal of the Lake View College, of Chicago, at Southampton. Lady Henry Somerset and the convention sent telegrams of inquiry and sympathy to-day.

ITALY'S NEW MINISTRY.

ROME, June 25.—King Humbert has signified his approval of the list of Ministers submitted to-day by Signor Saracco, with the exception that the portfolio of Finance will go to Signor Bruno Chimirri. The Ministry took the oath of office to-day. The Governments candidate for the Presidency of the Chamber of Deputies will be Signor Tomasso Villa, the distinguished advocate.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—On Saturday evening at 7.30 there was a railway smash-up at Collin's Bay. A truck in a freight train broke and two cars were piled in a heap. Another loaded with corn was thrown across the track. Kingstonians on the east bound local were compelled to walk to the city.

FEDERATION BILL PASSED.

LONDON, June 25. — The Australian Commonwealth Bill passed its third reading in the House of Commons to-day, amidst cheers.

PLANS ALL APPROVED

Harbour Board Informs Conners' Syndicate That it Must Hasten With Elevators.

GUARD WALL CONSTRUCTION.

The Mayor Thinks the Work Should Begin Opposite Bonsecours Market.

The Conners' Syndicate must now make a start on the harbour improvements which they have contracted to erect. At the meeting of the Harbour Board this morning, a communication was read from the Department of Public Works, stating that the specifications for the freight sheds had been signed. The Harbour Board has informed the Conners' Syndicate that all the plans and specifications have now been approved, and the Syndicate was urged to commence actual work without delay.

The attention of the Commissioners was called to the fact that a floating elevator was, on June 15, struck with a piece of timber, while said elevator was in the act of loading grain into the steamship Manchester Commerce. The damage sustained was placed at $150, and the company wish the harbour board to make the same good.

The commissioners were of the opinion that they had not sufficient proof that the timber which had caused the damage was the property of the trust. The matter was referred to the harbour solicitors.

The managers of the Crystal Palace restaurant wrote asking for privileges in connection with the erection of bath houses, and the managers of another company asked the privilege of constructing a "chute." Both applications were referred to the chief engineer.

The Mayor referred to the construction of the new guard wall. He was of the opinion that the work should be begun opposite the Bonsecours Market. The other commissioners were inclined to wait until the city was prepared to begin its share of the work. Finally it was decided to instruct the chief engineer to report on how much of the work could be done from Berri street down before it was necessary for the city to construct the sewer and other work which it was bound to do.

The commissioners before adjourning moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Robert Mackay, the chairman, for the able manner in which he had arranged the entertainment of the public men on Saturday last.

There will be no more morning meetings of the Harbour Board during July and August. During these months and beginning next week the meeting will be held on each Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock.

MRS. GOULD'S SISTER OFF TO LIVING DEATH.

Ella May Clemmons to End Her Days Among Lepers in a Desert.

A CONVERT TO CATHOLICISM, SHE IS NOW A MISSIONARY IN SAN FRANCISCO'S CHINATOWN.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Miss Ella May Clemmons, sister of Mrs. Howard Gould, has doomed herself to a life stay among the lepers of Central China, and within a fortnight from to-day she starts for her new field of work.

Miss Clemmons has been converted to Catholicism, and she has left the stage, as her sister has, but not for the same reasons. Mrs. Gould left it for wealth; Miss Clemmons leaves it for poverty.

She now lives as a missionary in Chinatown, amidst its vilest slums. She has been inoculated for small-pox and the plague, and she goes among the sick constantly. In a few days she will sail for China with Father Conrardy, of Oregon, who used to be the assistant of Father Damien, of Molokai. Between them they will minister to a leper colony in the plague-ridden centre of China, where they hope to alleviate the last days of many sufferers and to convert them to Christianity.

UTAH MEN CONTRIBUTED FIFTY THOUSAND EACH

To the Republican Campaign — They Endorsed Bryan Four Years Ago.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Three wealthy Utah men have given Senator Hanna $150,000 for campaign purposes. They are Heber M. Wells, of Ogden; Thomas Kearns, of Park City, and Charles E. Loose, of Provo. Four years ago they gave $25,000 each to the Democratic fund and voted for Bryan. This year they will vote for McKinley and Roosevelt.

Kearns is the owner of the Silver King mine at Provo, and his income is $75,000 a month. Loose is vice-president of a bank at Provo, and he has an income of $50,000. Both were ultra-silver men.

"Just to make atonement for what we have done," said Governor Wells, "we have sent our cheques for $50,000 each to Chairman Hanna as our contribution to the campaign."

WHEAT REACHES LIMIT.

(From the Star's Special Correspondent on the Chicago Board of Trade.)

CHICAGO, June 25.—The extent to which speculative excitement has entered into the making of wheat prices lately may well be illustrated by the opening of the various markets to-day. Liverpool opened up about 2 1-2c a bushel, but more than half this advance had been lost before our opening here, and the close was only 5-8d higher than Saturday. Paris opened up and continued strong, closing 1 3-4c.

Minneapolis opened 2½c, a bit higher, and Duluth opened lower than Saturday's close. Chicago opened with sales from 86½c to 87½c, against a close of 88c, but in less than a minute sales were being recorded above 88c, and 88½ was touched. Prices varied considerably in different parts of the pit, and some traders were scared out by the wildness of the fluctuations. Just before noon there was a quick, panicky break, everybody trying to sell at once, and 83¾ was reached.

From this there was a jump to 85 3-4. There was no relief in the North-West except some unimportant showers in Manitoba. The weather was hot all over, with fair weather predicted. Many are beginning to think, however, that the crop loss has been discounted, at least as far as it is safe to follow it now. Foreign markets are relatively slow; our own visible is large, increasing again to-day, and the south-west is just harvesting the largest crop in its history.

Doubtless with the present large outside trade, there will be prompt recoveries from breaks, but I shall hardly feel like predicting much higher prices for the present than have already been reached. Country acceptances of corn have been larger on this bulge and the crop prospect is excellent so far. Of course there will be July and August weather to be reckoned with. This cereal broke on large selling.

STOCKS GO LOWER.

Liquidation Continued To-day With Canadian Pacific a Prime Factor in Decline

PRICES ARE ON A LOW BASIS.

They Are Very Near to the Panic Prices of Last Year—All Markets Depressed.

The stock market opened the week with a continuation of the heaviness which characterized the closing on Friday last. Canadian Pacific was again the leader in the depression, as it is felt that if that stock took a brace in the European markets, the heaviness here would cease. The London market opened at 89½, compared with 91¾ on Friday, a decline of 2¼, but the market there closed still weaker at 89. In the local market the feeling was decidedly depressed and Pacific continued to sell below London parity. Trading opened at 86¼, but fell to 85½, subsequently closing at 86. The rest of the market was proportionately depressed and heavy losses were made. The following table will give an idea of the trend of the market:

Stocks.	Lowest To-day.	Lowest Last Year.	To-day's Decline.
Canadian Pacific	85½	84½	2½
Royal Electric	190	159½	7
Richelieu & Ontario	99½	97	3½
Toronto Rails	95⅛	92	1⅝
Montreal Gas	179¾	176	3
Twin City	57	57	3
Street Railway	242	267	8¾
Dominion Cotton	91	89½	2½
Virtue	60	45½	2½
War Eagle	1.44	1.30	2

The further declines abroad to-day are accounted for in the cables as due to the dread of political complications in the far east. Consols were off ⅜ and Americans generally weak, but Pacific got the worst of the declining tendency. The Berlin situation seems to have a good deal to do with the trouble, while the crop reports are without doubt a factor and the eastern situation helps matters along. In fact, there appears to be a strong combination of circumstances, militating against the stock just now. The following London cablegram in the New York Post throws some light on the situation:

"The week ends with Stock Exchange business utterly stagnant. The reason commonly assigned for this hesitation is the great obscurity of the financial and political outlook. If the international money market could be dismissed from consideration, the local outlook would be undoubtedly for continued ease in money at the recent more moderate rates. But when the situation is considered on international lines, the position becomes at once highly complex. With foreign exchanges against this country, and with the London money market now the cheapest in Europe, a cautious view is necessary. The present stringency at Berlin has not only taken £2,000,000 gold from London, New York, and Russia for the German market's requirements at the end of the half-year, but the excesses of speculation on the Berlin Boerse in the last few years stand clearly revealed. The recent Boerse restrictions imposed by the German Government have aggravated rather than restrained speculative excess, and such tendencies, together with the great dearness of money on the German markets, have very largely transferred the operations to the London Stock Exchange, where a large account is now carried for Berlin operators. Thanks to the elasticity of the German banking system, the crisis will probably be surmounted without disastrous failures. It is, of course, impossible to escape heavy and continued liquidations for this account, but at the same time, barring last year's excessive rise in certain commodities, German trade is inherently sound and decidedly aggressive. At present, indications are that the pace will have to be much slower.

Messrs. L. J. Forget & Co.'s London cable to-day quoted: Grand Trunk first 84 ⅝, second 57¼, third 21⅛, Canadian Pacific 89½, Hudson Bay, £24½, Anaconda, £7⅝.

Practically everything on the list shared in the heavy feeling and there was a good deal of clearing out of weak accounts. Street Railway was the heaviest sufferer with a drop of 8¾, Royal Electric coming next with 7 while other declines ranged from 3½ to 2 points. To-day was looked upon as bargain day, but there was a good deal of hesitancy to take advantage of what appeared to be the good things going on account of the uncertainty abroad. If the causes were directly of the market's own making there would be some basis to form calculations on, but the causes are manufactured far from home and everything depends on the European feeling. The circumstances will doubtless have the effect of putting local stocks business on a healthier basis if that were necessary at all, as it looks as though the weaker accounts in the market are going under.

Montreal Street Railway earnings during the past week, compared with last year, were as follow:

		Increase.
Monday	$5604.67	*$882.78
Tuesday	5498.05	203.02
Wednesday	5597.07	631.54

Saturday	6357.49	———
Sunday	6032.13	295.41

*Decrease.

American securities in London, after a dull and sluggish opening, showed an improvement, but after fluctuating somewhat eased off and closed weak. The weakness was due to the political complications in the East. Spanish four's closed at 71½. Amount of bullion taken into the Bank of England on balance to-day, £105,000.

LONDON—Closing: Consols for money, 100 7-16; consols for account, 100 1-2; Atchison, 24 3-8; Canadian Pacific, 89; St. Paul, 112 1-8; Illinois Central, 114; Louisville, 76; Union Pacific pfd., 72 3-4; N. Money, 1 1-2 to 2 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 2 11-16 to 3-4 per cent.; do., three months' bills, 2 3-4 per cent.

W. J. Curtis, assignee of the firm of Price, McCormick and Co., New York, which failed on May 24, has filed his inventory and schedules in the New York Supreme Court, showing debts and liabilities of $12,698,561.39, nominal assets of $24,180,065, and actual assets of $12,469,921.41.

Mr. Curtis issued a statement Saturday, in which he said:

"Since the assignment the estate has been very largely liquidated, and many of the loans have been paid off in full, leaving a surplus, and the few loans that are still unpaid are protected by such large margins that no forced sale of the securities can be made, and their disposal is entirely in the discretion of the assignee. Justice Smyth fixed the bond of the assignee at $350,000, and the same was at once furnished by the American Surety Company, and approved by the justice."

Among the secured creditors mentioned in the schedules are the following banks: Bank of Montreal, $54,000; Bank of British North America, $50,000.

Saturday's New York weekly bank statement shows the following changes:

Surplus reserve, decreased	$1,971,900
Loans, increased	35,900
Specie, decreased	1,991,900
Legal tenders, decreased	1,176,500
Deposits, decreased	4,787,600
Circulation, increased	66,500

The banks now hold $15,526,850 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent. rule.

Grand Trunk railway system earnings 15th to 21st June, 1900, were:

1900	$453,873
1899	419,099
Increase	$34,774

Chicago and Grand Trunk earnings omitted.

The special correspondent of the Star in Wall Street wires as follows:

The stock market opened exceedingly active and unsettled, while the situation in China was still very threatening, it was scarcely more so than at the close of last week. The news from the spring wheat sections over Sunday, while furnishing no grounds for encouragement, was also no more unsettling than it was Saturday. The London market was reported weak for consols, and in its other quarters, but the price changes in American shares were irregular. Other European stock markets were also reported depressed along with London, on account of the crisis in China. The first prices in local dealings were uniformly effected at sharp declines, in which the railway list suffered most severely.

ALLIED RELIEF FORCE WAS DEFEATED

Casualties Are Reported to Have Been Heavy — Four Americans Were Among the Killed—Four Thousand Chinese Troops Said to Have Fallen—Reinforcements Are Urgently Needed—For Fourteen Days Nothing Has Been Heard From Vice-Admiral Seymour—Again Stated That Pekin Legations Are Safe.

LONDON, June 25.—3. a. m.—The position of the international forces in the section of northern China, where 10,000 men are striving to keep a footing and to succour the legations in Pekin, appears to increase in peril with every fresh despatch. Pekin has not been heard from direct for fourteen days. The last despatch was one imploring aid. Admiral Seymour's column of 2000 was last heard from twelve days ago. At that time it was surrounded midway between Pekin and Tien Tsin. Possibly now it has reached Pekin. The 3000 internationals at Tien Tsin were hard pressed and fighting for their lives Thursday, and a relieving force of less than 1000 had been beaten back to Taku Friday. Observers on the spot think that 100,000 men would not be too many to grasp China firmly.

The Admiralty has recived the following from the British Rear Admiral at Taku:

"Che Foo, June 23.—Only one runner has got through from Tien Tsin for five days. No information could be obtained except that the foreign settlement has been almost entirely destroyed, and that our people were fighting hard.

"News is received as this telegram is despatched that an attempt to relieve Tien Tsin, June 22, was repulsed with some loss.

"The allied admirals are working in perfect accord, with the Russian vice-admiral as senior officer."

DEFEATED ALLIED FORCES.

A press message from Shanghai, dated yesterday at 4 p. m. embodies some later official information. It says:

"Official Japanese telegrams confirm the reports of a defeat of the allied forces at Tien Tsin. The foreigners are now placed in a most desperate situation. The Russian Admiral Hilledradt yesterday sent a mixed force of 4000 from Taku to attempt the relief of Tien Tsin. Nearly half of the force consisted of Japanese. The remainder was made up of contingents representing the other nations.

The guns of the Chinese around Tien Tsin are superior to anything the defending European force has or is likely to have for some time

"The bombardment of Tien Tsin contiued Friday. Bomb shelters were hastily erected by the foreign troops, largely constructed of wetted piece goods. The food supplies are insufficient, and the continued shelling is reported to be telling terribly.

"Among those killed of the relief force Friday was the commander of H. M. S. Barfleur. The foreign casualties were 300. Japan is making every effort. Her troops are now arriving at Taku in large numbers. The Chinese troops in the province of Chi-Li include 60,000 auxiliaries, who have been drilled by Russian and German officers."

A VERITABLE SLAUGHTER.

Captain Beatty and Lieutenant Wright, British, have been severely wounded at Tien Tsin, according to a Shanghai despatch to the Daily Express dated Saturday. The information was brought there by the British cruiser Orlando from Che Foo. The losses of the Russians have been heavy.

It was reported from Shanghai last evening that the allied forces had torn and blown up the Taku forts and that every available man had been sent to the relief of Tien Tsin. Two thousand three hundred Chinese bodies are alleged to have been cremated at Taku, and more than 4,000 Chinese are said to have been killed at Tien Tsin.

Chinese runners who have arrived at Taku report that a foreign force was engaged several days ago with an overwhelming body of Chinese, forty miles west of Tien Tsin. At Shanghai it is assumed that this force was Admiral Seymour's.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Daily Express says:

"I learn from a mandarin who stealthily left Pekin on June 16, and who succeeded at great hazard in getting clear, that the Boxers are massed around Pekin, and that more than half of the northern and western portions of the city, including the foreign settlements, were aflame when the mandarin left. He could tell me nothing as to the fate of the foreigners, nor much as to the general situation, but he had heard that the Empress Dowager was preparing to go to the province of Shan-Si."

NORTHERN CHINA ABLAZE.

A Che Foo despatch to the Daily Mail, dated yesterday, says:

"The attack on the Tien Tsin relief force was made by 20,000 Chinese, using machine guns and modern field pieces. The allies were wise in retreating. Forwarding detachments in this manner is suicidal, and the defeat of the foreigners even though in small force, greatly aids the movement of the Boxers, which is gaining enormously through the inability of the foreigners to make head against it.

"Practically the whole of Northern China is ablaze. Hostilities are now conducted on an extended scale, due to direct orders from Pekin. General Yan She Ki, Governor of Shan-Tung, commands 11,000 foreign drilled troops, organized to a high pitch of excellence, and equipped with Mausers. It was in the plans that these troops should go to Taku, but the seizure of the forts was effected before they could get there."

Some of the special despatches from Shanghai describes the great southern provinces of China as still quiet, but others assert that the news from the north is exciting the southerners to a dangerous height of feeling, and that millions may rise any day.

CHINESE ADMIRAL REFUSES.

Shanghai is quiet but there are fears of a rising. The action of the consuls in asking for the departure of the six Chinese cruisers was objected to by the senior naval officer, who informed them that he had at his disposal a force sufficient to compel them to leave if they objected to the presence of the fleet. The Chinese cruisers are heavily armed; of the vessels of the allies, among whose six vessels is the United States gunboat Castine. The powers are said to have fatally under-estimated the numbers, desperation, and armament of the Chinese, who, for three years, have been accumulating rifles at the rate of 20,000 a month. The question here is what are the powers going to do? Japan is preparing to tranship this week 10,000 additional troops. Russia is sending down from Vladivostock all her available force, estimated at from 8,000 to 9,000 men, although recent events have shown that the number of Russians on the Pacific coast has been over-estimated. The Indian council held a special meeting at Simla yesterday, and considered the feasibility of sending more troops.

Russia, according to a Che Foo correspondent has landed a force of Cossacks at Pei-Tai-Ho and another at Shan-Hai-Kwan to intercept the Chinese troops marching from Manchuria. A correspondent at Li Kung Tao, on Wei-Hai-Wei Bay says that the Russians are sending 30,000 troops all told.

MINISTERS DEMAND PASSPORTS.

The Shanghai correspondent of the Times says:

"Sheng, director of telegraphs, declares that information was received to-day (Friday, June 22), to the effect that the foreigners in Pekin were safe Wednesday, June 20, but that all the legations had been burned except the British, Austrian and Belgian."

A despatch from Shanghai dated yesterday says:

"Sheng says he has news from Pekin, by courier to Shang Tung, that the foreign ministers in Pekin are demanding their passports and that the Tsung-Li-Yamen is disposed to comply with their requests."

If this news be true, it would imply the correctness of the reports of the arrival of Admiral Seymour at Pekin.

At Canton the Boxers are posting inflammatory placards, of which the following is a sample.:

"Kill all Germans, French Americans and English. To have peace prevail in the hearts of the people all foreigners should be driven out. This end can be attained in a few days if we unite our strength."

The British Admiralty has ordered five more cruisers to go to China. This represents an additional 50,000 tons, the crews aggregating 3,000.

FOUR AMERICANS KILLED.

Force Was Ambushed Near the City of Tien Tsin Last Thursday.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—The Navy Department yesterday afternoon issued the following bulletin:

"A telegram from Admiral Kempff, dated at Che Foo, June 24, says:

"'In ambuscade near Tien Tsin, June 21, four of Waller's command killed, and seven wounded. Names will be furnished as soon as received.

"'Force of 2,000 going to relieve Tien Tsin to-day."

The Secretary of the Navy has ordered Admiral Remey to go with the Brooklyn to Taku, and to tender to General MacArthur conveyance of any army troops which the Brooklyn can carry.

Admiral Kempff's despatch, giving the first definite news of the shedding of American blood on Chinese soil, came early yesterday morning, and was turned over to Secretary Long as soon as he arrived at the department. With Admiral Crowninshield, the secretary carried the despatch to the White House, where, on the President's return from church, it was laid before him. The determination thereupon was reached to order Admiral Remey, in command of the Asiatic squadron, from Manila to Taku on board of the armoured cruiser Brooklyn.

The effect of this transfer is to make Taku the headquarters of the Asiatic squadron. The Brooklyn is expected to sail at once to-day, if possible, as the orders sent contemplate getting the admiral on the scene at the earliest moment. The advantage of this, it was officially stated, is not so much in adding the strength of the Brooklyn to the fleet already there, as the fleet is considered by Secretary Long to be quite adequate, as it is in allowing authorities here to deal directly with the situation in China, instead of through the circuitous communications by way of Manila. If the Brooklyn starts to-day, as expected, it will take her fully a week to reach Taku, as the trip is 2,000 miles, and typhoons are raging. The determination to carry some of General MacArthur's troops on a flagship shows the emergency of the situation. The troops are believed to be ready to move, but some delay may be caused in getting on board sufficient supplies for a large body of men for a week.

Admiral Kempff's report caused much concern among officials, but the chief fear was as to the outcome of the second attack which the admiral reported would begin to-day. This is little short of the dimensions of a battle, and its results may be decisive, not only to the immediate force employed, but in determining the fate of the legations and foreign settlements at Tien Tsin and also whether the issue is, or is not, to be war with China.

Word has reached the Navy Department that the battleship Oregon got away from Hong Kong Saturday night, bound for Taku. This is two days ahead of her expected start. She took on 164 sailors and marines brought to Hong Kong by the Zafiro. The big ship may now have a chance to repeat her celebrated performance "around the Horn," as she is being crowded for a fast run to the scene of action. The distance is about 1,500 miles, and if she makes her record time she will be at Taku in six days, about the same time that the Brooklyn arrives from Manila. These ships and the Monadnock are the only ones going to China.

CASUALTIES ARE HEAVY.

The following bulletins have been issued by the department:

"Acting Secretary Hackett has this morning received a despatch from Admiral Kempff, dated Che Foo, June 23, to the effect that our marines, under Major Waller, together with 400 Russians, have had an engagement with the Chinese army near Tien Tsin. They could not break through the line."

Admiral Kempff, through the British Consul at Tien Tsin, sends the following by special courier:

"Reinforcements are urgently needed. The casualties are heavy, the ammunition is insufficient and machine guns are required. The Russians at the railroad station are hard pressed. The Chinese troops keep up an incessant fire from large guns on the European concessions, nearly all of which have been burned."

The following despatch has been received at the War Department from General MacArthur, dated Manila, June 23: "Departure Ninth Infantry delayed until June 27, consequence storm which broke railroad telegraph and made approach to transport impossible."

In answer to a request from the Navy Department as to how many Americans were in Pekin, Rear Admiral Kempff replied, under date of June 23, that twenty Austrians, seventy-five French, fifty Germans, seventy-nine British, forty Italians, twenty-three Japanese, seventy-five Russians and fifty-eight American troops were there. He further says: "No news of whereabouts of Pekin's relief expedition, reported by cablegram, June 12. Japan expects several thousand troops now due. No news from Tien Tsin or Pekin since last report."

HARD FIGHT AHEAD.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The Chinese bombardment at Tien Tsin set fire to the mission buildings, says the Che Foo correspondent of the Journal and Advertiser. It spread to the native city and destroyed everything. The attacking force, well supplied with modern artillery, has been pressing the small allied force very hard. Already the dead number 160. Relief is being rushed from Taku, but the column will have to fight its way through the big Chinese army. The British store ship Humber, arrived at Che Foo, bringing thirty refugees from Tong Shan, including Messrs. Kinder and Parson and Mrs. Parson.

Peio-Tai-Ho (the great watering place of northern China, where two hundred prominent foreigners had their summer homes) has been abandoned. The Governor of Shan Tung province, in which Che Foo is situated, after conferring with the subordinate mandarins, decided not to join the rebels and issued a proclamation decreeing that all Europeans and Americans should be protected. Admiral Kempff held a conference Sunday at the American Consulate with Consul Fowler and the Captains of the Nashville and the Yorkton. The local Governor of Che Foo was present and promised there should be no uprising here against the foreigners, and gave other assurances which seemed all right on the surface.

Captain Edward Bayly, of the British armoured cruiser at Taku signalled the American captains yesterday: "Thank God the Russians were here; otherwise we would all have been murdered."

ORDERED TO RECRUIT.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—An order from Adjutant-General Corbin has been received at the Presidio, directing that the troops of the Sixth Cavalry shall be recruited to their full war strength, presumably to be sent to China.

LORD SALISBURY HOPEFUL

That Crisis Will be Solved Without War Against the Whole of China.

LONDON, June 25. — Lord Salisbury is still hopeful that the Chinese crisis will be solved without war against that country as a whole. In spite of the alarming reports, he inclines to the belief that the Government of China in some satisfactory form will shortly be able to re-assert itself. Without committing himself to a definite view of the future, he appears averse to any scheme of territorial indemnity, which, when order should be restored, might be suggested by the powers who have suffered during the uprising.

The interview of United States Ambassador Choate with Lord Salisbury Saturday was due to instructions received from Sec'y Hay, in which the Ambassador was notified of the friendly professions of the various Viceroys and was instructed to secure Lord Salisbury's views beyond casual conversation. Mr. Choate has not mentioned the crisis in the Far East until he received Secretary Hay's cable message. The Ambassador discovered the British Premier's views were exactly as frequently represented in these despatches. He maintained the belief that the diplomats at Pekin had not been massacred and did not believe they were likely to be. He was eminently satisfied with the action already taken by the United States and expressed the same views as the cable despatches attribute to Secretary Hay.

In short, the conference may be said not to have elicited a single point on which Lord Salisbury differed from the American attitude, and while he expressed his determination to use every endeavour to restore order in the Pei-Ho Valley and extricate the diplomats, his estimate of the situation was tinged with a spirit of hopefulness that contrasted greatly with the general tone of the British press.

PARTITION OF CHINA.

The Ambassador did not discuss the eventual settlement and the likelihood of a partition of China, and it may be reiterated that this phase of the situation has not yet been made the subject of an exchange of views between any of the nations. Judging from the account of what passed between Mr. Choate and Lord Salisbury that Great Britain and the other nations so far as the Foreign Office knew were confining all their energies and deliberations solely to the present predicament, is a sincere statement of fact. If Russia, Japan or any other power shall have an ulterior object in making capital out of the trouble in China, Lord Salisbury does not appear to be aware of it.

DEWEY MAY COMMAND

American Fleet in China Waters and General Miles the Troops.

(Special to the Star.)

WASHINGTON, June 25. — It is said from a reliable source that the United States will rush 10,000 troops to China. The rumour adds that General Miles will be in command.

Another report says that Admiral Dewey may command the American fleet in Chinese waters.

WASHINGTON WAITS ANXIOUSLY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 25.—Up to noon no word had been received at either the War or Navy Departments as to the condition of affairs in China. The anxiously waited list of casualties from Admiral Kempff had not yet appeared, nor had a word come as to the result of the second engagement at Tien Tsin.

A despatch received at the State Department from United States Consul Goodnow at Shanghai said that nothing reliable had been received there as to the condition of affairs at Pekin and elsewhere.

WATER CARRYING SHIPS.

PHILADELPHIA, June 25.—Under orders from the Navy Department a large force of men to-day began the work of preparing for active service the water carrying ship Arethuse, which has been in reserve at League Island since the close of the Spanish-American war. The Arethuse is to be sent to Chinese waters.

FRENCH MARINES SAIL.

PARIS, June 25.—An official despatch received here from Saigon (the capital of French Cochin China) says the French armoured cruiser Vauban and the transport Canavene have sailed north with 500 marines and a battery of artillery.

CITY OF TIEN TSIN A SCENE OF CARNAGE

Rear Admiral Bruce Reports that Foreigners Are Fighting Desperately.

HAS COMMANDEERED A VESSEL

To Carry Sick and Wounded Across the Bay—Was Impossible to Relieve Commander-in-Chief.

The Admiralty has received the following despatch from Rear-Admiral Bruce, dated Taku, via Che Foo, June 24:

"The total force which left Tien Tsin with the commander-in-chief for Pekin was about 2,000, composed of detachments from the allied ships. No action could possibly be taken to relieve the commander-in-chief, because it was only known that he was cut off by Tien Tsin being invested. Tien Tsin has been fighting for its life ever since. It was on receipt of information that the Chinese army had ordered trains for attacking Tien Tsin; that they were ravaging Tong Ku and reinforcing Taku as well as mining the mouth of the Pei-Ho that it was promptly determined to seize Taku. Since then every effort has been made to relieve Tien Tsin. I have commandered a small coasting steamer for taking troops and sick and wounded across the bay to Wei-Hai Wei, where I intend making a temporary base hospital and asylum for refugees."

FORCES TOTALLY INADEQUATE.

Although the powers at last seem conscious of the magnitude of the Chinese peril and are concertedly hurrying forces to Taku. The international troops available to overcome the immediate perils of the situation are apparently totally inadequate. The alarm not only for the safety of Vice-Admiral Seymour and his party, who are not mentioned in any of the despatches purporting to come from Pekin, but for his base at Tien Tsin, remains unrelieved.

Almost the only ray of light is the report of Sheng, the Director of Railways and Telegraphs, forwarded by the French Consul-General at Shanghai, to the effect that the legationers were safe June 19, and preparing to leave the capital with the consent of the Chinese Government. But the motives of the Chinese officials in keeping the powers appeased by re-assuring messages is too obvious to allow the unreserved acceptance of the statements.

Tien Tsin is so hard pressed that it must be relieved before assistance can be sent to Seymour's force. The absence of the exact dates of the last despatch from Taku and other messages makes it difficult to connect the various stories, but some of the despatches might be read as indicating that even the large force mentioned by Rear-Admiral Kempff, as about to start towards Tien Tsin, met the same fate as the combined American and Russian column which was repulsed June 21.

India is sending eight battalions of infantry, a cavalry regiment, artillery and engineers as a fighting force, besides two battalions to guard communications.

PUT TROOPS ON WAR FOOTING.

The Official Gazette of St. Petersburg to-day contains an order of the Czar, as follows:

"As we consider it necessary to raise the troops in the Amur military district to a war footing, we direct the War Minister to take the requisite measures. At the same time we direct that the necessary number of reservists belonging to the Siberian Amur military district shall be called out for active service."

IS THE SITUATION HOPELESS?

(Special to the Star.)

ST. PETERSBURG, June 25.—Grand Duke Alexis, the High Admiral of the Russian Navy, started for China to-day to take command of all the Russian warships in Eastern waters.

Trustworthy information has been received here to the effect that the situation at Tien Tsin is now almost hopeless.

CHINESE ARTILLERY WELL PLACED.

(Special to the Star.)

LONDON, June 25.—The Central News has received the following despatch:

"TAKU, Friday, 3.30 p.m., by despatch boat to Che Foo, Saturday, 4 p.m.—Yesterday 600 Russians and Americans attempted to raise the siege of Tien Tsin. Hordes of Chinese blocked the road. The Chinese artillery was well placed, and it was impossible to drive them out. The allied forces retired in good order. An armoured train with a reconnoitring party was derailed last night. An attempt to relieve Tien Tsin with a larger force will be made on Saturday night."

LATEST NEWS FROM CHINA IS DEPRESSING.

(Special to the Star.)

NEW YORK, June 25.—The London correspondent of the New York Tribune at 1 o'clock this morning reviewed the Chinese situation as follows:

The British Admiralty has confirmed the previous account of the repulse of the relief column which attempted to enter Tien Tsin on Friday. The bulletin is short and depressing. The foreign settlement at Tien Tsin was almost entirely destroyed, and the Europeans were fighting hard. There is nothing about the relief column of the Russians and Americans being cut to pieces, but the repulse is described as attended with some loss. Only one runner had entered Taku from Tien Tsin in five days, and not a word had been received from the relief columns which started for Pekin two weeks ago, nor from the legations themselves.

The foreign relief attempts may be described as a chain consisting mainly of missing links. There is a mixed force of between 2,000 and 3,000 at Taku, including a portion of the Chinese regiment from Wei Hai Wei. This column, with a Russian and American contingent of over 500 men, must cut its way through a superior Chinese force which is said to have 60 guns, although this seems incredible. The foreigners at Tien Tsin are clearly in a desperate state with the garrison surrounded by a Chinese horde and with ammunition and supplies running short.

Somewhere beyond Tien Tsin, either on the way to or at Pekin, is a mixed force of 2,300 men with inadequate supplies of ammunition and food. At the legations, with probably from 150 to 200 Europeans, Japanese and Americans, refugees are being added to the working official forces and military and naval guards. There is a force of about 450. Every link in this chain of relief is weak and detached, and there is no accurate information from any station except Taku.

Men who have lived in China assert that the number of foreigners at Tien Tsin is large, since the city has a Chinese population of over a million and a commerce of over nine million pounds. Tien Tsin is the chief distributing centre of trade for northern China and Manchuria, and the natural outlet for half a dozen of the most populous provinces. There are foreign banks, a large body of English, German, Russian, Japanese and American merchants, and several groups of missionaries. The situation of the foreigners at Tien Tsin is regarded by former British officials to China as deplorable. Doubts are expressed respecting the adequacy of the relief force which is available to Taku, unless Russia takes the decisive measures indicated last night in the official communications from the Foreign Office at St. Petersburg for the invasion of Chinese Territory by a really formidable army.

The European and American fleets may be working harmoniously under the leadership of the senior rear admiral at Taku, but the suppression of anarchy in China now requires the presence of a larger army than any great power except Russia can put into the field without delay.

SITUATION FIVE HOURS LATER.

News, although not of a very reliable kind, has been received at last from Pekin. The Times' telegram from Shanghai states that Sheng, the Chinese Director of Railways, announced on Saturday, on the authority of news brought by a special courier, that the residents of the legations were safe, and that the Foreign Ministers were demanding their passports, which the Chinese authorities were disposed to grant.

At Che Foo it is feared that Admiral Seymour's force has been cut to pieces. The position at Tien Tsin is regarded as almost hopeless.

Count Muravieff, on the day before his death, instructed his representative to make a communication to the St. Petersburg correspondent of the Telegraph. With reference to the Chinese question on the whole he thought the powers would content themselves with the task of immediate pacification, and he did not anticipate that the outburst would extend to any unmanageable degree.

A THORN IN THE FLESH.

(Special to the Star.)

OTTAWA, June 25.—It is reported that Ex-Governor McInnes, of British Columbia, will locate in Toronto, and will aspire for a seat in the House of Commons. It is expected that he will prove as big a thorn in the flesh of Sir Wilfrid as Joe Martin has been.

DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF FINGERS.

The Court of Appeal has confirmed the judgment awarding Dame McCarthy $600 damages for injuries sustained by her minor son P. F. Green, while in the employ of the Davidson manufacturing company. The lad had three fingers cut in a machine.

The Liverpool public cable was steady this morning, quotations being 68s for pork, 35s 6d for lard, 37s 6d to 42s 6d for bacon, and 25s for tallow.

THE CATTLE MARKET.

There was a stiffening tendency in the price of beef at the Eastern Cattle Market this morning. Between the time the stable cattle are marketed and the grass fed cattle are in good condition it is usual for the market to experience a shortage in good butchers' cattle, with the result that prices during that period are likely to increase. The higher prices for beef which are now in force are due to that cause. Best beef ranged from 4 3-4 to 5 1-2c per pound; medium, from 4 to 4 3-4c, and common from 3 1-2 to 4c. The prices of small meats remain unchanged at 3 3-4 to 4c per pound for sheep, $2.50 to $5 for spring lambs and $1 to $10 for calves.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Visible Supply Increases—Total in Sight Decreases

Wheat Advances in Liverpool and Declines in Chicago.

The visible supply of wheat in Canada and the United States increased 1,350,000 bushels, at 45,525,000; corn increased, 931,000 bush., at 12,161,000; oats decreased, 53,000 bush., at 5,838,000; barley, decreased 49,000 at 731,000.

The total wheat in sight decreased 2,250,000 bush., at 77,125,000; wheat on passage, to the U. K., decreased 720,000 at 19,760,000; on passage to the continent it decreased 2,880,000, at 11,840,000.

London reported American clipped oats, July, 14s 9d paid; Canadian mixed, July 13s 3d paid; No. 1 hard Manitoba wheat, steam, July, 35s, steamers.

The Chicago market was weaker this morning. Prices fluctuated considerably, but always under Saturday's closing price, 88c. At one o'clock quotations were around 77c.

The Liverpool wheat market was stronger to-day, July closing 1-8d up at 6s 8 1-4d, and Sept. closing 5-8d up at 6s 10 1-8d.

The Paris market was stronger, July closing 50 down at 21.30; Dec. closing 50 down at 22.75.

French weather was partially cloudy.

Antwerp was strong.

Russian shipments were 191,000 qrs. wheat and 37,000 of maize, compared with 161,000 and 23,000 qrs, a week ago.

Australian shipments of wheat to the U. K. amounted to 20,000 qrs.; none to the continent.

LOCAL MARKETS—The situation was firm to-day, but trade was very light. Oats have been sold at 33c afloat, and that figure is the general view; Manitoba wheat is firm.

Manitoba No. 1 hard wheat, afloat Fort William was quoted at 94c spot, sellers; No. 2 oats quoted at 33c afloat; peas are quoted at 70 1-2c afloat, 63 to 63 1-2c afloat for rye, 49 1-2c for No. 1 barley in store; feed barley, 46c for export; buckwheat, 57 1-2c afloat.

HAY—Demand is good and prices firm for top grades and easy for low.

Choice No. 1, $9 to $10; No. 2, $8 to $9; clover, $6.50 to $7.50 per ton on track.

At Boston, hay is firm at $16 to $18 for best grades, and at $12 to $14.50 for lower grades. At New York the market is firm. Prime is worth $18; No. 1, $16 to $17; No. 2, $14.50 to $15.50; lower grades, $12 to $14.

CUUNTRY PRODUCE.

Price of Cheese Drops Over 1-4 at the Boat.

Butter Continues Firm and Other Lines Are Steady.

CHEESE.—The settlement of the price of cheese at the boat occupied considerable time to-day, and the last report was to the effect that the price would probably be about 9⅝c. Country boards were all down on Saturday, the general quotation being around 9⅞. Quotations are hard to give to-day, but Quebecs might be put at 9 5-8 to 9 3-4c, easterns at 9 3-4 to 9 7-8c, and westerns at 10 to 10 1-8c.

Shipments to Great Britain from the port of Montreal last week amounted to 70,996 boxes, or 27,429 less than for the corresponding week of last year. Total shipments since the opening of navigation were 416,210, or 37,968 in excess of those for the corresponding period of last year.

BUTTER.—There was nothing new noticeable in the market to-day. The general report was that trade was dull and prices were firm. Fancy Eastern Townships creameries are all for direct export, so that they are hardly quotable on the local market. Butter guaranteed to be finest is quoted at 20½ to 20¾c and 21c.

Shipments to Great Britain from the port of Montreal last week amounted to 9930 packages, or 9224 less than for the corresponding week of last year. Total shipments since the opening of navigation were 32,251 packages, or 19,671 less than for the corresponding period of last year.

EGGS.—There is no change to note. A few of the country dealers are holding off and refusing to let go at the figures offered, but dealers are getting all they want at 1cl here. Quotations are 10c for No. 2 stock, 11c for straight gathered, and half a cent or so higher for select candled stock.

MAPLE PRODUCTS—The market for syrup is so dull that prices can hardly be quoted, say 6 to 6 1-2c a pound in wood, and 6 1-2 to 7c in tins. Sugar sells at 8 1-2c.

POTATOES.—Farmers are selling bags of 75 to 80 pounds at 25c each. Local dealers are paying 35c on track for bags of 90 pounds. Stock is re-selling at 45c a bag of 90 pounds.

HONEY.—White comb is quoted at 13½ to 17c in sections; dark comb at 10 to 12c; white extracted is 9½ to 10c a pound; dark extracted is 7½ to 8½c.

POTASH.—The English market is easy. Quotations are $4.50 to $4.55 for first pots; $4.15 to $4.20 for seconds, and first pearls at $5.20 to $5.30.

BEANS—The market is dull, choice primes being offered at $1.50 in 50 bag lots.

IRON AND STEEL MARKET.

Prices are Still Falling, Yet Trade is Not Much Brisker.

Those who were so certain that prices of iron and steel and their products could not by any possibility be reduced this year, saw on Friday last another sensational decline of $7 to $8 per ton on structural beams to 1.9 and on angles to 1.8 cents at Pittsburg, with corresponding reduction at other points nearer the seaboard, says Dun's Review. This covers a large and rapidly growing proportion of the finished iron and steel products. Those that have not been reduced in price at all are steel rails, controlled by a mere manufacturers' agreement, sheets which the association quite recently formed was expected to control, and tin plates, which have been quoted at the same figure, with no reduction from the highest point reached last year. The prices of tin have been quite hugh during all this year and until very lately the prices of tin plates have been strongly held. But the makers are not yet agreed that sales of tin plates below the figures heretofore fixed would bring a sufficient business to compensate for lower prices.

With anthracite No. 1 and Bessemer pig quoted at $20 per ton at the east, and quite large contracts made by the producers for the export trade, it is not to be inferred that the decline in prices of all classes of iron products will be as heavy. It may happen, on the contrary, that the reduction in cost of material will lead to such decline in prices of finished products in some lines as to call out a greatly increased demand for consumption. This would undoubtedly give a strong upward tendency to the market for such products. On the other hand, the recent heavy reduction in prices of wire and nail products has not as yet brought the increased demand which was expected. The average of the ratios for iron and steel products has now fallen to 76.56, against 98.05 last January, which is about as much as the fall in pig from 112.7 to 91.2 in the same period, but it affects very differently operations in different branches of the industry.

DUN'S BULLETIN.

Dun's bulletin says of Montreal trade: With the advance towards mid-summer there is some seasonable modification of the trade movement, but country collections keep up very well, and should do so, considering the good prices being paid for butter and cheese. City retail dry goods business is good, and sorting orders for light summer textiles are still reported in fair volume by the wholesale trade. The sugar refineries report quite an active demand for their goods, buying being stimulated by the recent advances and by the approach of the fruit-preserving season. Some lots of German and Austrian refined sugars are coming to hand, being importations on the order of manufacturing confectioners placed early in the season. Some anticipations are held of a higher tea market. The advance in currants noted last week is now reported to be due to a blight having attacked the vines. Hides, leather and shoes continue quite; leather quotations are nominally about the same, but there is a pretty strong feeling that dealers would be disposed to shade figures for fair lots. Metals tend to quietness, and some easing off in values is reported in black sheets, Canada plates, boiler plates and tank steel; ingot tin is fairly steady, copper and lead a little weaker. Improved demand is reported for cements. Exports of cheese and butter are brisk, and there has been recent notable improvement in values.

The money market is easy at 5½ per cent. for call funds, with expectations in some quarters of a lower rate.

....THE....

Baroness De Denonville.

—o—

BY EDGAR MAURICE SMITH,

Author of "Aneroestes the Gaul."

CHAPTER VI.—(Continued.)

"Between the acts is the most exciting time," observed Ward from the back of the box. "It is then that the general inspection goes on. People look about for their friends and a prominent personality becomes very conspicuous. Take myself, for example. Half the people in the house are looking in my direction."

"Your conceit is only made bearable by your straightforwardness," snapped Miss Holmes.

"Straightforwardness is a quality that few people possess. How many can carry it without being buried beneath its weight? You can, Miss Holmes, and so can I, but the number is limited."

"And do you think yourself such a curiosity as to be the object of general attention this evening?" asked Harrison, from his point of vantage behind Madame St. Mars' chair.

"Pardon me, I didn't say I was the objective point of the public gaze. I merely explained that it was turned in my direction. But I do contend that I am made conspicuous thereby. Of course we all know that the magnetic influence is vested in the occupants of the front chairs."

Hortense St. Mars and Marjorie both acknowledge the compliment by turning their profiles towards the speaker and smiling, but Miss Holmes paid no attention to him.

"Two half smiles are equal to one whole one," Ward remarked.

"Two half smiles," echoed Hortense.

"Yes. You and my cousin Marjorie turned your profiles to me. The smiles were there all right enough, but I thought you perhaps only half liked my remark. Half a face is sometimes better than a whole one, but not in your case, Madame."

"You are very flattering, Mr. Ward, but I will have to fully acknowledge your compliment," and she laughingly turned toward him for an instant and nodded. As she did so she caught Kisselef's eye and returned the smile that he gave her.

Marjorie Ward detected the exchange and moved uneasily in her seat. She was young—but lately out of her teens—though a women who had thus early attained mental maturity by a variety of disconnected circumstances. Without being beautiful, Marjorie was deserving of more than the colourless phrase, good looking. Her style did not appeal to men who paid homage to doll-faced damsels and accepted their giggling, ejaculatory propensities in lieu of conversation. She was far removed from the social interpretation of St. Vitus' dance, and could boast of a store of commonsense too rarely found in the young woman of the present day. She was more admired by her own sex than by the men, though there was no justification for this reversible state of things. Women usually admire a woman less endowed with good looks than was Marjorie Ward. Her brown eyes were soft and expressive, and, indeed, all her features were good. The chin was perhaps a trifle too pronounced, but evinced a commendable characteristic. Her more than medium height was increased by the quantities of blue black hair which she wore on the top of her head.

The play which Miss Holmes had chosen for her theatre party was "Tess of the D'Urbervilles," much to Robert Ward's annoyance, for while he admired it with an intensity only second to the enthusiasm which he felt for the distinguished actress in the title role, he complained of the effect it had on his spirits.

"That Angel Clare's a cad," he exclaimed, as the curtain hid the weeping Tess from view at the conclusion of the second act.

"Don't start a discussion on that subject," muttered Harrison in a stage whisper, that penetrated every crevice of the box.

"No, please don't" commanded Miss Holmes in no uncertain voice. "I admire Mrs. Fisk very much, she went on, "and I even consider her the finest actress on the American stage."

"She is certainly grand," said Hortense. "She is far more natural than Bernhardt and more sympathetic, And you," turning to Marjorie, "do you admire her also?"

"Very much, and I also admire the play."

"You think for yourself, I see."

This drew Marjorie into conversation, and Kisselef took the opportunity to say to Ward:

"My yellow-haired friend is here this evening."

"The watch-dog? Where is he?"

"In the orchestra chairs. On the far side near the back. He has had his opera glasses on the box all evening."

"So have lots of other people, but you weren't to blame for that."

Ward turned his glasses in the direction indicated by Kisselef.

"Ah! there he is. There's no mistaking that head of hair. Great swell, isn't he? certainly he is most persistent in staring but unless I'm much mistaken you're not at the end of his focus. Madame St. Mars is the guilty party."

"Who takes my name in vain? "asked the lady herself, turning to the two men.

"Mr. Ward."

"I must plead guilty, madame, when my accomplice turns State's evidence, but I assure you that there are extenuating circumstances, or rather that there is a circumstance, in the form of a yellow-haired man with a drooping moustache and elevated opera glasses who has had you under examination for a longer time than is permitted by custom."

"And," added Kisselef, "if custom does not justify his behaviour nothing will."

"But do you not know who this individual is?" asked Hortense looking at Kisselef.

"I have seen him a good deal lately but he is a stranger to me. He may be an unknown friend from Russia."

An expectant look came into Hortense's eyes, and as the curtain rose upon the last act of the drama she turned her glasses towards the man with the yellow hair. As soon as he caught sight of him the expression on her face changed to one of annoyance.

"Do you know him?" whispered Ward at her elbow.

She almost started in surprise at finding her movements watched, but without showing the discomfiture she felt she merely shook her head and then apparently gave her attention to the stage. The acting was magnificent but Hortense could not now become absorbed in it as she had been previous to seeing the strange man in the audience, and while she would have liked to examine him more closely she did not wish to arouse any suspicion in the minds of Kisselef and Ward. This she knew might easily be done by an incautious move on her part, and she mentally rehearsed her every action before performing it.

A burst of applause from the audience made her realize that another act had come to a close.

"The curtain will go up in a minute," remarked Harrison. "What follows is little more than a tableau."

"And a terribly heartrending one," added Ward.

"Poor Tess!" murmured his cousin as the last scene of the drama was presented to view.

There were tears in the girl's eyes which did not escape the notice of Hortense.

"I wonder," she thought, "if real life would so affect me," and then she almost smiled at the idea.

"What do you think of it?" asked Kisselef as he assisted her on with her cloak.

"Magnificent," she replied with a velvety intonation in her voice that thrilled him.

URINARY TROUBLES

Kidney and Bladder Ailments that Would yield only to Dr. Chase's Kidney Liver Pills.

Mr. Wm. Giles, carpenter, Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., states: "Unsolicited, I write to tell you of the good qualities of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills in curing urinary troubles. I do not write for your especial profit, but for the good of those afflicted as I have been. I have used eight boxes, and do not now feel the old trouble in the least.

"I felt relief one hour after taking the first pill. It is a great source of comfort to me to know that there is a medicine to help my weak kidneys. Those wishing further particulars may address me as above."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are specific for all kidney, bladder and urinary derangements, and liver troubles, and have an enormous sale all over this continent. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Dr. Chase's Ointment is a positive and absolute cure for piles. It is the only preparation which is guaranteed to cure every form of piles. 148 44o7 1

"CANADIANS IN KHAKI."

"Canadians in Khaki" is the title of a little book, which gives much useful information about the Canadian contingents in South Africa in a compact and attractive form. It contains a complete list of the officers and men of the first and second contingents and of Strathcona's Horse, with their correct regimental numbers. The official lists issued by the Militia Department contained many errors, which have been carefully corrected in the present publication. It will, therefore, be of great value to officers commanding corps, who have representatives in the contingents, and to their relatives and friends. All casualties up to the date of publication are also given, as well as a list of those who have been invalided to England and elsewhere. An interesting account of the sending of the contingents, including a copy of the official correspondence between the Governor-General and the Colonial Secretary, forms a fitting introduction. It is contributed by a soldier's wife, and she depicts the departure of the SS. Sardinian from Quebec, with the first contingent on board, in a graphic manner. The book also includes a list of the officers and committees of the Canadian Patriotic Fund Association, of the Canadian Red Cross Society and Soldiers' Wives' League. It is illustrated with portraits of the Queen, Lord Roberts, Col. Otter and the other commanding officers of the contingents, and has a most attractive cover.

TESSIER TRIAL CLOSED

Evidence and Arguments in Market Case Concluded on Saturday.

ALDERMEN WERE CONTRADICTED

Defence Says Tessier Did Not Commit a Theft According to the Statute.

The Tessier case was concluded on Saturday morning. The evidence in sur-rebuttal proved of a sensational character, showing that one at least of the aldermen mentioned had taken measures to protect himself should an enquiry take place. The assertions of the aldermen examined on the previous Saturday were also contradicted by nearly every witness examined.

The first witness called was Louis Pelland, 207 St. Hubert street, Inspector of Markets. He testified that Ald. Lareau came to Mr. Tessier's office in January last. He had heard a conversation by telephone, but could not say now what went on. He saw Mr. Lareau coming in, and Mr. Tessier told him that Mr. Lareau was coming for some money. He met Ald. Jacques on the market, and the alderman asked whether Mr. Tessier was at his office. This was on the eve of the elections. He did not remember whether he told Ald. Jacques that Ald. Lareau was with Mr. Tessier.

Mr. Taillefer, attorney for Ald. Lareau suggested that the witnesses for defence be asked to retire. Mr. Bisaillon thought it was the Crown's business to make such an application. The order was given, and the witnesses called. Edouard Paul, Ald. Lareau's book-keeper, failed to respond. Mr. Bisaillon remarked that they would try to find out who kept him away. Moise Jolicoeur, clerk of St. Antoine Market, testified that he had made a transfer of the stall of Mr. Larose to Mr. Senecal. He afterwards telephoned to Ald. Jacques saying that Larose had told him that the affair was settled with Ald. Lareau. Ald. Lareau came to the market and asked to see Senecal, who was absent. Ald. Lareau asked that Senecal be sent to him. Senecal went to Lareau and came back saying that the affair was settled. When he telephoned Ald. Jacques, the chairman ordered the work on Senecal's ice-house stopped, and Ald. Lareau came in a short time later, and asked that Senecal be sent to him. He made the transfer in the first place on the word of Larose that Ald. Lareau said it was all right, and then when Senecal came back saying that Ald. Lareau had settled the matter.

PROTESTS AGAINST INTERFERENCE.

During the evidence of this witness Mr. Bisaillon repeatedly protested against the interference of Mr. Taillefer.

Ferdinand Desnoyers had seen Ald. Lareau about a stall at St. James' market. Ald. Lareau said it would take some time. A few days later he went to Ald. Lareau, who telephoned to Ald. Jacques and told witness he could have the stall. He asked how much it would cost, and he said $25, at least. Witness asked to whom the amount was to be paid. Ald. Lareau said "A man will call on you in a few days, we cannot touch this money." The man called and told witness he was sent by the commitee for the money. Witness got no receipt.

The next witness was James Hoolahan, who had already been examined two weeks ago. He repeated his former evidence and directly contradicted what Ald. Lareau had stated in evidence last week. Ald. Lareau then swore that he had never received any money from Mr. Hoolahan. The witness on Saturday swore that when he was transferring his stall to Mr. Montreuil two years ago, he had been required to pay a bonus. He had gone first to Mr. Tessier, and had been directed to see Ald. Lareau.

IN CASE OF ENQUIRY.

At first Ald. Lareau had asked for $50, but finally had agreed to take $25. Ald. Lareau had gone from his to the witness' stall, and the witness had paid $25 in cash. The witness was not sure who had suggested it, but any way Ald. Lareau had given him a cheque for $25, in order that if there should be any enquiry, he could swear that although he had given Ald. Lareau $25 he had received from him a cheque for this amount.

The witness had immediately taken a match and burned this cheque. Two men were standing near by, but the witness could not remember who they were, and they were not employes of Ald. Lareau. Ald. Lareau had remarked to the witness that the affair would be compromising.

Mr. E. Taillefer, counsel for Ald. Lareau, suggested to Mr. Corriveau, clerk of the court, that he should ask the witness if he ever meddled in elections. The witness replied that he had for the last fifteen years, both in municipal and political elections.

He denied having telegraphed votes, but could not swear that he had never organized telegraphing of votes. He swore that he had never telegraphed votes in Ald. Brunet's election.

CLERK OF ST. JAMES' MARKET.

Theodore Giroux, clerk of St. James' Market, testified that Zenon Delorme's transfer had been made by authority of Ald. Marsolais, then president of the Market Committee in 1896. Witness had mislaid the letter. The transfer had been made to Fabien Giroux. Giroux later transferred it to Laurandeau in August, 1898. This time witness made transfer by authority of a letter of Ald. Lareau. This letter witness could not find.

Edouard Paul was again called, but failed to respond. Mr. Bisaillon informed the court that the defence had been most active in the search for this witness, but without success. He, therefore, applied for a bench warrant against this witness. His home had been visited, but found locked, and no trace of him could be found.

Mr. Taillefer again interposed to know whether a proper bailiff had been employed to serve the subpoena.

Mr. Bisaillon wanted to know whether Mr. Taillefer represented Mr. Paul also. It would be interesting to know why the learned counsel for Ald. Lareau wanted this witness kept away.

DEDUCTED PRICE OF BAGS.

Israel Lemay repeated the evidence previously given by him. He admitted that Ald. Lareau had refused the cheque, because it might compromise him. The alderman afterwards consented to receive a cheque payable to bearer, and witness had handled this cheque to Edouard Paul, who was then Ald. Lareau's book-keeper. Witness deducted from the $50 the price of 17 bags at 10 cents as he had lent bags to Ald. Lareau some time before and they had not been returned.

Jules Crepault, Clerk of the Market Committee testified that there was no record in the minutes of the committee of any transfer to Zotique Senecal in the years covered by previous evidence. There was no record either of the transfer from Delorme to Giroux and Giroux to Laurandeau.

Mr. Bisaillon then announced that the case for the defence was closed.

Mr. Taillefer asked that the case be adjourned for two days as he would then be in a position to bring evidence to contradict Lemay and to show that Hoolahan was not worthy of belief under oath.

Mr. Bisaillon objected. Both the witnesses had been heard previously, and if Mr. Taillefer wanted to destroy their evidence he should have brought his witnesses along at an earlier stage. Judge Desnoyers declined to grant a further adjournment.

MR. LEMIEUX'S ARGUMENT.

Mr. Lemieux then began the argument. After defining theft he contended that even granting that Mr. Tessier took the money as pretended, and applied it to his own use, it would not be theft under the statute and the Criminal Code. He quoted art. 319 of the Criminal Code, and contended that since neither the charter nor the by-laws authorized the collecton of money for the purpose of these transfers, Tessier could not be accused of stealing this money, for he had not received it "by virtue of his office." In support of this contention he quoted Russell, Bishop, and other authorities on Criminal law, and showed that the English and American judges had always held that unless it was shown that the servant received the money "by virtue of his office" there was no criminal recourse.

Mr. Bisaillon followed, reviewing the evidence, and contended that according to the evidence the accused must be discharged, because he simply carried out the instructions of the Market Committee, and he had no right to question these instructions.

Judge Desnoyers took the case en delibere, and announced that he would give judgment on Saturday next.

MONTREAL-CHICAGO.

"International Limited" Started Record Breaking Run Between These Points

333 MILES IN 7 HRS. 25 MIN.

Comparison of Speed of G. T. R. Flyer and That of Other Fast Trains.

Montreal to Chicago in twenty-three hours and sixteen minutes. This is what the Grand Trunk Railway started out to do yesterday with the new train, officially known as the International Limited.

Within the memory of comparatively young railway men time between Montreal and Toronto was anywhere from twelve to fifteen hours. Now this time is cut to seven hours and twenty-five minutes, and this is to be done not once in a while, but every day in the week.

Yesterday morning at nine o'clock the International Limited pulled out of the Grand Trunk station at nine o'clock to the second. The train consisted of four vestibuled coaches, including a cafe car, a drawing room car, an ordinary day coach and a baggage car. The train was drawn by an engine No. 579, manned by engineer Fred. Lytle, fireman D. Tringell, and conductor U. Empy.

Besides a number of regular passengers those on board included Mr. G. T. Bell, general passenger agent; Mr. J. M. Herbert, superintendent of the Eastern Division; Mr. W. W. Ashald, train master; Mr. H. R. Charlton, chief of the advertising department, and a number of newspaper men.

As soon as the train was fairly clear of the town, Engineer Lytle gave his iron her head, and she fairly jumped through space. The first stop was Cornwall, a distance of 68 miles, and one of the longest continuous runs on the trip of 878 miles. The train arrived at Cornwall at 10.15, sharp on time, and pulled out again at 10.20. Morrisburg was reached at 10.50, two minutes ahead of the schedule. The distance to Morrisburg is a trifle upward of 92 miles and the running time from Montreal was 1 hour and 50 minutes, an average of a trifle better than 49 and 4-10 miles an hour. Prescott was reached at 11.20, Engineer Lytle still having the pace well in hand.

ENGINES CHANGED AT BROCKVILLE

Brockville was the next stop, and here a change of engines was made. When that city was reached at 11.40, engine No. 581, with Engineer Robert Bell in charge, was ready and waiting, and inside of three minutes the change was made and the International Limited was once more on her way westward. Between Brockville and Lansdowne, a hot box was discovered on the forward end of the train and this necessitated a stop at the latter place of four minutes, whereas the regular schedule allows of no stop at this point. Engineer Bell gave his engine just a trifle more head than he would otherwise have done, and the four minutes were made up by the time Kingston was reached. The distance from Montreal to Kingston was reached. The distance from Montreal to Kingston is 172½ miles and the running time was 220 minutes.

On board the train, the burst of speed necessary in order to bring a train up to this fast schedule is hardly perceptible, and the regular passengers on the train were perhaps not even aware that the time they were making over the Grand Trunk system was something phenomenal for a regular passenger train. The combination of perfect roadbed and rolling stock, with the latest of everything in equipment, are responsible for the improvement.

COMPARISON OF SPEEDS.

A comparison of running time between the International Limited and the Pennsylvania Limited, which is to-day perhaps the most widely-advertised and best-known fast train on the continent, is interesting, as it shows that while the Grand Trunk train has the disadvantage of making over thirty stops between Montreal and Chicago, as against 16 on the Pennsylvania Limited, between Jersey City and Chicago, the running time for the whole distance is only fractionally higher on the American road, 38 and 4-10 miles per hour, as compared with 37 9-10. And if the difference in the stops is considered, the International Limited makes the best time of the two trains.

A comparison of the runs on the two lines is interesting to even the lay reader:

From Jersey City to Philadelphia, 89.76 miles; stops, 1; time, 1.59; miles per hour, 45 3-10.

To Harrisburg, 195.08 miles; stops, 2; time 4.34; miles per hour, 42 6-10.

To Altoona, 327.06 miles; stops, 3; time, 7.39; miles per hour, 42 7-10.

To Pittsburg, 443.96 miles; stops, 5; time, 10.46; miles per hour, 41 2-10.

To Chicago, 911.96 miles; stops, 16; time, 23.46; miles per hour, 38 4-10.

From Montreal to Morrisburg, 92.27 miles; stops, 1; time, 1.52; miles per hour, 49 4-10.

To Napanee, 193.51 miles; stops, 5; time, 4.12; miles per hour, 47 3-10.

To Toronto, 333 miles; stops, 9; time, 7.25; miles per hour, 44 9-10.

To London, 448 miles; stops, 13; time, 10.20; miles per hour, 43 4-10.

To Chicago, 873.32 miles; stops, 30; time, 23.16; miles per hour, 37 9-10.

The G.T.R. train pulled into Toronto at 4.25, on time to the minute, having covered the 333 miles between the two cities in the scheduled 7 hours and 25 minutes.

Women who are obliged to Work in the impure atmosphere of Factories will derive great benefit from the use of the Celebrated French Tonic

VIN ST MICHEL

Women are naturally of a weak constitution, they cannot work steadily like a man, without being troubled often with headaches, dizziness, paleness and backaches, which are sure signs of Anemia, one of the most dreadful blood disease known. More than half the ills of life are the result of poor blood, but fortunately nature provides a remedy to enrich and fortify the blood, in the way of a pure, rich, generous, red wine called Vin St-Michel and which contains a greater amount of blood-making and strength-giving elements than any other tonics known. Its beneficial effects are immediate and lasting, they impart energy and vivacity, increase the red blood corpuscules and therby supply resistance to fatigue.

WESTMOUNT ACADEMY.

The Pupils Who Have Successfully Completed the Year's Work.

The closing exercises of Westmount Academy were held on Friday last in the presence of a large number of parents and friends, the Assembly Hall being completely filled.

Rev. E. Bushell, M. A., chairman of the school board, presided, and with him on the platform were Messrs. M. Hutchinson, D. C. L., and Robert Harvie, Commissioners, and Rev. Mr. Bland, Rev. Mr. Hopkin, Rev. Thomas Everett, and Messrs. W. Ramsay, James Harrison and J. Porteous Arnold.

Excellent addresses were delivered by Revs. Messrs. Bland and Hopkin, Dr. Hutchinson, Mr. Arnold and the chairman, and brief remarks by Rev. Mr. Everett and Mr. Harrison.

Substantial progress had been made during the year and the standard of the school is being gradually raised. The enrolment was 750 and the average attendance 634. Prizes were given for punctuality and conduct alone.

Following is the list of all who gained over 80 per cent. of the marks in the promotion examination of the first six in the work of the year from day to day, and of the winners of prizes for conduct and punctuality.

STANDARD I (BOYS).

Promotion Examination — James Nelson 93, Geoffrey King 92, Edward Stafford 86, Douglas Macaulay 84, George Bell 84, Russel Kelsch 83, Alfred Griffiths 82, Willie Nicholson 81.

Application to Study, (order of merit)—James Nelson, Alfred Griffiths, George Bell, Willie Nicholson, Russel Kelsch, Leslie Hodges.

Prize for Punctuality—Willie Nicholson.

Prize for Conduct—Albert Willis, George Duncan.

STANDARD I—(GIRLS).

Promotion Examinations — Rita Dyer 94, Ruth Hopkins 92, Mildred Mathewson 88, Mildred Allan 88, Lena Campbell 84, Freda Corner 82, Jessie Wright 82, Nettie Gentles 81.

Application to Study.—(In order of merit).—Rita Dyer, Ruth Hopkins, Mildred Mathewson, Mildred Allan, Jessie Wright, Freda Corner.

Prize for Punctuality—Ruth Hopkins, Rita Dyer.

Prize for Conduct—Cora Baillie.

When Travelling

Always take with you a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

The change of food and water to which those who travel are subject, often produces an attack of diarrhoea, which is as unpleasant and discomforting as it may be dangerous.

A bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in your grip is a guarantee of safety.

On the first indication of Cramps, Colic, Diarrhoea or Dysentery, a few doses will promptly check the further advance of these diseases.

As Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is being widely and shamelessly imitated, your safety lies in seeing that the full name is on every bottle you buy.

Corticelli Skirt Protector should not be used as a binding—it is a physical impossibility for any kind of a binding to outwear a skirt.

Corticelli Protector Braid should be sewed on flat—not turned over—one or two rows of stitching—one at upper edge of braid and the second near the bottom of the skirt.

Put on thus it is a real "protector"—its perfect shade match makes a desirable bottom finish for any skirt.

Sold everywhere 4 cents a yard.

The genuine has this label.

ST. ANN'S PROCESSION.

The procession in St. Ann's parish yesterday afternoon, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus was very large, and the different societies were well represented. The weather was fine, and the route was well decorated.

The procession started from St Ann's Church at three o'clock, under the direction of Rev. Father Strubbe, assisted by Rev. Father Scanlan, and was headed by a detachment of policemen from No. 7 station in charge of Captain Fennell.

From the church, the procession went to the Convent of Our Lady of the Angels, on Mullins street, through McCord, Wellington, St Patrick, Conde, Centre, Wellington, Grand Trunk and Richmond sts.

Benediction was celebrated in front of the convent, where a temporary altar stood. On a stand there were about 200 little girls, dressed in white, and one in each window also. During Benediction, the male choir and the young ladies' choir of St. Ann's sang. Afterwards the procession returned to the church. The streets all along the route were lined with men, women and children.

CEREMONY AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

A procession in honour of the Blessed Sacrament was held in St Joseph's parish yesterday morning. The different societies of the parish left the church, on Richmond street, at 10 o'clock, and proceeded by way of Notre Dame, Lusignan, Barre, Aqueduct, Dorchester, Seigneurs and Notre Dame streets, back to the church. An altar had been erected in front of the Grey Nuns' Chapel, on Dorchester street, for the reception of the Blessed Sacrament.

HIGHLAND CADETS AT CHURCH.

The Highland Cadet Battalion attended St Andrew's Church yesterday, at 9.45 a.m. Battalion drills will be held this evening and Wednesday evening of next week, and recruit drill on Saturday. Members are notified that regular attendance will be insisted upon till the annual inspection, which takes place on the Champ de Mars, Saturday, July 14.

REV. MR. RODGERS RESIGNATION

Rev. W. C. Rodgers, who, since February, 1809, has conducted the school of S. John the Evangelist, has handed his resignation, which takes effect immediately. Arrangements are being made by which the school will be re-opened after the holidays under an entirely new management.

DISORDERLY HOUSE CASE.

Court of Appeal Says Lessor is as Guilty as Actual Keeper.

The Court of Appeal has rendered an interesting decision upon the reserved case of Regina vs. Blanche Roy submitted to it by Mr. Recorder Weir, with reference to the criminal responsibility of the owner of a house which has been leased and is subsequently used by the lessee for purposes of prostitution.

On the 4th day of December, 1899, the accused Blanche Roy leased her house, No. 58 St Charles Borromee street, in the City of Montreal, to one Florida Lemieux. The case states that Blanche Roy, the accused, had been know for many months to have been a prostitute and to have kept the house in question as a house of ill-fame, and that she knew, at the date of the lease, that Florida Lemieux proposed to use the house as a disorderly house, and that she actually did and was several times visited by Blanche Roy.

The cause proceeded to trial before Mr. Recorder Weir, but no judgment was rendered as the accused applied for and obtained a reserved case on the point whether the leasing of the house in question by her to a person for purposes of prostitution rendered the accused herself guilty of the offence of keeping and maintaining a disorderly house.

Messrs. Justices Wurtele and White ad hoc, fully reviewed the law upon the matter and came to the following conclusion:

"We are of opinion and we hold, as a question of law, that a person who leases a house to another for purposes of prostitution, renders himself, under the provisions of paragraph (b) of section 61, of the Criminal Code, a party to and guilty of the offence afterwards committed by his lessee, of keeping a disorderly house, although he was not himself the keeper, and that he can be prosecuted, tried, convicted and punished in the same manner as the actual keeper; and we order an entry to that effect to be made on the record."

INSPECTION OF THE 65TH.

The 65th regiment made a very good showing at their inspection on Saturday. Lieut.-Col. Roy, D.O.C., was inspection officer, and he was assisted by Major Stewart, brigade major; Lieut.-Cols. Cooke, Ibbotson and Busteed, Captain Simpson, 6th Duke of Connaught's Own Canadian Hussars, orderly officer.

The 65th was commanded by Lieut.-Col. Labelle, assisted by Major Ostell and Captain Beauchamp, acting adjutant. All the evolutions were performed in a splendid manner, and the regiment was loudly praised. The marches and drills were faultless, and showed that the men had been well drilled. After the inspection, the men took train for Quebec, where they arrived at 10.45 o'clock in the evening, three hundred and twenty-one of them. There they were given a most cordial reception and left for home last night at eleven o'clock, arriving here early this morning.

RAIL FELL.—L. Audette, of 72 St. Germain street, a young man 18 years of age, while working at the C. P. R. bridge at Hochelaga on Saturday last, was severely hurt by a rail which fell on him. He was removed in the ambulance to the General Hospital, where it was found that his thigh and legs were seriously injured.

INSPECTED HARBOUR

Members of Senate and House of Commons Examined Port on Saturday.

AN ELABORATE LUNCHEON.

Politicians Greatly Interested in What They Saw of Canada's National Port.

The members of Parliament have, one way and another, heard a great deal of the harbour of Montreal, and of how it was gradually being made a national port. On Saturday afternoon these members, together with a great many other prominent Canadians, had an opportunity of viewing the harbour as the guests of the Montreal Harbour Commissioners.

Upwards of three hundred gentlemen took advantage of the invitations extended, and at half-past eleven o'clock on Saturday morning they congregated at the Harbour office. The steamer Berthier, which had been chartered for the occasion, was in readiness, and after inspecting some of the new work on foot the members went on board the steamer.

Every tug, barge, and dredge in the harbour was decorated with bunting, and when the Berthier cleared from the wharf there was a series of whistles the like of which this port has never heard. Everything which had a pound of steam on board was blown until that pound was exhausted, and one man on a barge resorted to a fish-horn, which he manipulated in a manner which bespoke volumes for the soundness of his lungs.

The work at Windmill Point was first inspected, and from there the Berthier went down stream, touching here and there on the way. A great many of those on board had no conception of what extensive work is being carried on here, and the inspection will prove an object lesson which should do a great deal of good so far as future legislation is concerned.

MADE EXCELLENT HOSTS.

The Harbour Commissioners, together with the staff of the board, gave their guests every attention, and there was nothing left undone to make the afternoon a memorable one. When the inspection was fairly well over, an elaborate luncheon was served, the tables being presided over by Messrs. Robert Mackay, James Crathern, John Torrance and Joseph Contant.

Ratto Brothers' orchestra furnished the music for the occasion, as did also the private piper of Mr. Robt. Mackay, whom the Scotch members of the party enjoyed immensely.

Those present included:

The Ministry—Hon. Sidney Fisher, Hon. R. R. Dobell.

The Senate—Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Hon. Messrs. Snowball, J. P. B. Casgrain, Macdonald of Prince Edward Island, McSweeney, O'Brien, Longheed, Watson, J. R. Thibaudeau, Young, Bernier, Primrose, Burpee, Ferguson, King and Vidal.

House of Commons—Messrs. MacLaren, Lariviere, Morin, Ellis, Tucker, Domville, Quinn, Rutherford, McGregor, Desmarais, Madore, Snetsinger, Sproule, Hurley, Cargill, Wood, Frost, Dupre, Semple, Geoffrion, Moore, Chauvin, Tolmie, Britton, Beith, Ratz, Brodeur, Flint, Davis, Campbell, McMullen, Gibson, Logan, Holmes, Parmalee, McClure, Calvert, McIsaac, Hutchison, McLennan of Inverness, McLellan of Prince Edward Island, Turcotte, Gauvreau, Talbot, Graham, Proulx, Lang, Somerville.

The Legislature—Hon. J. E. Robidoux, Hon. T. Duffy, Hon. Dr. Guerin, Hon. Jules Tessier, and Messrs. A. W. Atwater, M. F. Hackett and Charles Langelier.

Harbour Commission—Messrs. Robert Mackay, Mayor Prefontaine, John Torrance, James Crathern, J. Contant, J. Hodgson, W. Farrell, Robert Bickerdike and A. Racine.

City Council—Aldermen Laporte, Gagnon, Turner, Gallery, Martineau, Tansey, Wilson, Lamarche, Chevalier, Chausse, Vallieres, Raby, Brunet, Faucher, Jacques, Robertson, Robitaille, and Lareau. Messrs. J. L. Archambault, Q.C., W. Robb, City Treasurer, and R. Bauset were also present.

The others present were Messrs. Hy. Bulmer, Collingwood Schreiber, C.E.; Col. Anderson, James McShane, Harbour Master; Capt. Bourassa, Deputy Harbour Master; D. McNicol, Thos. Tait, P. A. Peterson, R. N. Smyth, Geo. Green, John R. Dougall, Hon. Louis Beaubien, Hon. Jos. Royal, James Cochrane, Richard White, Hy. Lionais, J. R. Bell, F. B. McNamee, James A. Cantlie, A. McFee, B. J. Coughlin, D. Robertson, H. A. Allan, J. H. Semple, A. G. McBean, J. Haynes, Geo. Bourgouin, Ernest Marceau, Capt. Reid, Alex. Robertson, A. Poindron, Monier, of the French Chamber of Commerce; C. F. Gildersleeve, F. D. Shallow, J. M. Nelson and W. J. Sproule, Assistant Engineer of the Harbour Commission; J. Routh, George Thompson, T. McCarthy, W. Cunningham, Hy. Dobell, H. W. Raphael, John T. McBride, E. F. Craig, W. H. Olive, Stephen Tobin, ex-M.P.; G. F. Smith, J. Edgar, James Hardwell, J. P. Dawes, Henry Miles, H. Mason, L. N. Patenaude, J. A. S. Williamson, Chas. McLean, Major David Seath, secretary; A. Archambault, asistant secretary; James McShane, Harbour Master; Capt. Bourassa, Assistant Harbour Master; J. M. Nelson, Assistant Engineer; W. J. Sproule, Assistant Engineer; L. A. Desy, Mechanical Superintendent; J. P. Garnon, Superintendent of Harbour Works; Robert A. Ekin, warfinger.

SOME MEMBERS DELAYED.

Owing to a railway mishap a number of the members were delayed for some time beyond the appointed hour and reached the Berthier a little late. The steamships in port were not behind hand in doing honour to the visitors, and each vessel was not only bedecked with bunting, but blew a salute as the Berthier passed. An exhibition of what the fire tug St. Peter can do was given by way of a diversion. A shanty was set on fire on the guard pier, and the tug called to the rescue. The visitors were also given an object lesson in deep water blasting, the Berthier coming close up to the drill boat for the purpose.

The afternoon was concluded by a run down as far as Pointe aux Trembles, the party arriving back in the city about six o'clock.

NO NOTICE TO PROPRIETORS.

Case of Firm of Architects Against Institution Catholique des Sourds-Muets.

The Court of Appeal has reversed the judgment of Mr. Justice Doherty in the case of Sincennes and Courval, architects, and the Institution Catholique des Sourdes-Muets. The appeal arose from a judgment of the Superior Court maintaining the pretensions of the plaintiffs, as to their having a valid privilege on a certain property, belonging to the appellants, for the payment of their services in connection with buildings erected upon the property.

The claim amounted to $180. The institution sold some lots to one Zotique Terriault, upon which he erected some buildings, Sincinnes and Courval being the architects. In February, 1898, Terriault became insolvent, and left the buildings in an uncompleted state. In the terms of sale the property returned to the institution.

On the 16th of May the architects registered their claim for $180 against the lots. A notice of this registration was on the same day sent both to Terriault and to the appellants by letter, mailed in the city of Montreal. The appellants received it on the following day, or the 18th.

Mr. Charest says that the buildings were worth $3,000, and that he has paid on them $2,718.17.

The judgment maintained the privilege and ordered an expertise to determine the relative value of the lot, and of the buildings, as provided by the Code of Civil Procedure. From this judgment the appeal was taken.

The institution paid off certain claims in the property.

The effect of the judgment of the Court of Appeal is that while it is declared that the architect shall have a privilege for such services as he may render under a contract between him and the builder, the article 2013c tells him it will exist only for eight days absolutely, and that if he wishes to preserve it beyond that time he shall give a notice to the proprietor.

The court was therefore of opinion that the plaintiffs failed to preserve their privilege and by neglecting to give, within eight days from the making of their own contract with Terriault, notice of it to the proprietors, they can no longer exercise it against the property.

GRAVES OF CITY FIREMEN

Were Decorated on Saturday by the Members of the Montreal Brigade.

Saturday was decoration day for the Montreal Firemen. At two o'clock the chief officers of the Brigade, accompanied by some friends, and members of the press, proceeded to the two cemeteries and decorated the graves of their departed comrades by planting about the firemen's lots Canadian and French ensigns, while each grave was decorated with a small flag on which was stamped the figure of a fireman ready for the call. An inspection of the graves decorated reveals the hazardous nature of the work which the firemen are called upon to do for the benefit of the citizens of this city. The following list shows the number killed in the accomplishment of their duty: Patrick Kelly, September 18th, 1873; William Sharp, September, 1867; Hugh S. Scott, March 21st, 1868; Michael Barry, William Ferguson, John Livingstone, Richard Choules, Thomas Higgins, William Perry, April 29th, 1877; George Lynch, April 29th, 1877; John Cloran, August 2nd, 1884; Jos. Towers, July 10, 1881; Frederick Hains, March 10th, 1886; Moses Aumond, September 2nd, 1890; Gilbert Garand, July 11th, 1892; George Dagenais, April 22nd, 1893; John O'Rourke, May 11th, 1893; Paul A. Dufour, June 9th, 1893; William St. George, September 4th, 1894; Edmond Laporte, Henry King, Sylvain Carpentier, Oct. 2, 1896. John Smith, Feb. 12th, 1899; Captain Philip Gibson (accidentally) January 16th, 1900.

THOSE DYING NATURAL DEATHS.

Those who died natural deaths in the same space of time are far less numerous. They were: Frederick Turner, July 8th, 1869; William McKenzie, March 7th, 1874; Chief Alex. Bertram, Aug. 31st, 1875; Nath. Cairns, November 18th, 1877; F. Beausoleil, May 3rd, 1881; William Shaw, November 27th, 1884; John Gunn, (suddenly) April 9th, 1886; Assistant Chief McCulloch, May 18th, 1890; John J. Cairns, jr., June 30th, 1891; Chief William Patton, January 24th, 1896; Omer Asselin, January 1st, 1896; John Nolan, October 2nd, 1897; Arthur Laderman, November 20th, 1897; William Sparling, December 17th, 1897; Chas. McAllister, April 7th, 1898; Ernest Benoit, Feb. 12th, 1899; Assistant Chief Beckingham, December 24th, 1899; Napoleon Burelle, April 2nd, 1900.

Sub-Chief Mitchell, as President of the Cemetery Committee, was in charge of the decorations. He was ably assisted by Capts. Doolan, Briere, Mann, Richard and Deegan. The chairman and members of the Fire Committee had been unavoidably prevented from assisting. Lt.-Col. Stevenson, for so many years president of the Committee was present, as were also Chief Benoit, Chief Massey, of St. Henri; Sub-Chief St. Pierre, Mr. Jos. Beaulieu, Supply Officer A. Damours, secretary of the committee; F. X. Gauthier, of the Fire Alarm Department, Art. Benoit, of the Fire Department Office, and a number of firemen.

MASONS AT CHURCH.

The Ancient Free and Accepted Masons of the Montreal district attended the special service in St. Thomas' Church yesterday afternoon in full regalia.

Rev. J. F. Renaud officiated and welcomed the Masons in the name of the church wardens. It was in part a memorial to those brothers who had gone at the call of their Queen to South Africa. The call had been to uphold the great Masonic principles of freedom and righteousness. The Union Jack, which mantled the pulpit, had been hung there at the time of the going away of the first Canadian contingent, and there it would remain till those now far away, all of them, it was hoped, would again return. He read a letter from Private Harrison, who died before the communication reached home. It was addressed to the secretary of the Eastern Star Lodge.

Rev. Frank Charters preached on "The Manliness of Christianity." Christianity, he said, had in early times been considered as only fit for weak men, and this notion had not yet died away. If self-control was manly, then Christianity was the most manly thing under the sun. Speaking of the soldiers in South Africa, he said: "These men went forth in the strength of earnest purpose and the determination to serve a good cause, feeling also that though dangers assail, He would not fail them.

ATTENDED ST. GEORGE'S.

A special service was held in St. George's Church last night, which was attended by the members of the Sons of England Mutual Benefit Society in a body. Rev. O. W. Howard preached from Hebrews, IV., 14, "Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the son of God, let us hold fast our profession."

Men of high personal worth, he said, should have high ideals and strive unswervingly to realize them. The three principal objects of the Sons of England Society might be summed up in the one word, fidelity. "The first great object of your society," he said, "is to encourage faithfulness to the Scriptures. Scripture teaches us how to live, it inculcates a proper estimate of the service and worship of men. Fidelity to the teachings of Scripture is one of the objects sought after by your society." The other two chief objects of the society were fidelity to home, and fidelity to the Empire. As an example of the latter, the South African war had transformed patriotism into enthusiasm. "We have proved," he said, "to ourselves, and to the astonished nations of the world, that the Empire is one. The war has taught us that the dauntless courage of a dauntless ancestry still throbs in every British heart. There is no need, I feel sure, to urge the Sons of England to patriotism.

The service was very fine, and the music exceptionally good.

FR. SCANLAN AFTER GROCERS.

The licensed grocers of St. Ann's parish received a hurried visit shortly after twelve o'clock on Saturday night from Father Scanlan and two of the city detectives. The trio made their first visit to a grocer on Ottawa street. This was another feature in Father Scanlan's crusade against the illegal sale of liquor, and he found quite a number of places not closed. Between 12.30 and 1.45 o'clock visits were paid to almost every grocery in the parish. Ten or eleven men were found in one place drinking at about 12.30 o'clock.

CHURCH IS NOW FREE

St. Martin's Will No Longer Have any Appropriated Sittings.

PASTOR'S SERMON YESTERDAY.

Solemn Dedicatory Service in Which Congregation Inaugurates Its New Policy.

Rev. G. Osborne Troop, of St. Martin's church, in addressing his congregation yesterday morning, dealt with the interests at issue in that parish.

His introductory words were "Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the Lord; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong all ye people of the land, saith the Lord, and work; for I am with you, saith the Lord of hosts;" Haggai, 2, 4; and "This is the word of the Lord unto Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit,' saith the Lord of hosts,' Zechariah, 4, 6. After expounding the two verses above Rev. Mr. Troop read the two resolutions which had been passed at Thursday night's meeting. He then spoke in part as follows:

"As you know, these resolutions were passed at a very large meeting of the congregation on Thursday, and after the passage of the first one I withdrew my resignation. I also entirely concurred with the sentiment expressed in the second. It was absolutely inevitable that there should be a division of opinion as to the steps to be taken in the matter. The Finance Committee looked at it from one point of view, and I and my supporters looked at it from another. Now, as the restored rector of this parish, I can say that I have the deepest sense of the faithfulness of the finance committee during the many years they have had the welfare of the church to deal with. I am not guilty of the sin of ingratitude, nor do I forget all they have done in the past. But I believe sincerely that they are mistaken, and I believe that if they make a trial of the new movement inaugurated today, they will be as glad of the issue as they are now uncertain. If we take this up in the spirit of the Lord, no member will ever have any cause for regret.

FIRST DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

St. Martin's Church has always been remarkable for its harmony. This is the first time that there has been a serious difference of opinion. It was very serious in the nature of the case, but if faced as it should be, I believe that we, as Christians, will accept the situation loyally, and see that the work goes on to a righteous and successful issue.

"Those not so assured as we are that this move will bring the truest success, blessed by God, may, however, feel released from the responsibility of duty, and they might unite with us in hoping that this may be a success. The finance committee abstained from the meeting of last Thursday, and it was an act of grace. Anticipating the move of the majority, they refrained that there might be no division of opinion, and everything passed off remarkebly well. I shall never forget that meeting. It was an answer to the prayers of many in and out of the parish, and there has been a convergence of prayer honoured by God. Sometimes people think that it is almost insincerity to go to God with matters of finance, but if this is God's work he must in the nature of things be more interested in it than we are.

When he has shown us what to do, he gives us grace to carry on our work till it is accomplished. I have only to say of the voluntary promises that I have handed them to the financial warden, and they will be payable as convenient. I also handed to him a cheque for $50 and sums of $10 and $5, which were paid in advance. It rests with you to show to all interested that my publicly expressed confidence in you was not in vain. I know that I can trust you, and that what we have undertaken will not be in vain.

A GREATER FREEDOM.

There will be a greater freedom in the church than ever before, and we want all to feel that they have a share in the work as it is the Lord's work. All may give, and all giving is relative in the sight of the Lord, that person who, owing to circumstances only gives little may relatively give a great deal. Where the spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty, but all must acknowledge to God the blessing of being able to give and co-operate with Him for the maintenance of His work. God has said that every sincere person shall give as God has prospered him. The poor and the strangers shall be welcome as members of God's family, and those who give little can feel that they have as much interest in the work as those who give much. The only change within the church will be the removal of the divisions in the seats, so that all can see that this is not a pew church but one with long comfortable seats. We need to act wisely, but our duty today is to do our duty, and leave to-morrow with God, with full confidence that all will be well. As worshippers in a free church, we should treat each other in church as we do at the Lord's table. We have a right to expect all Christians to treat one another thus. It is a beautiful sight, and often possible to see a whole family kneeling the Lord's table. There, all have absolutely equal rights, and so it should be in all parts of God's house. Then in church we are taught how to treat one another outside. There are different classes outside of the church, socially, intellectually and otherwise, but Christians are one in God. This doctrine is not a destructive socialism or such like, but simply the announcement that in Christ there is unity."

In closing, Rev. Mr. Troop declared St. Martin's Church to be free and unappropriated, in the presence of God and his hearers.

A NEW DISTILLERY.

Mr. F. H. Walker, of Walkerville, President of the St. Lawrence Distillery Company, is in town for a few days for the purpose of buying a site for their plant and opening an office in Montreal.

HOUSE OF INDUSTRY.

The Superintendent of the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge reports that for the week ended June 23, the number of permanent inmates at the country house was 66 males and 69 females, as compared with 74 males and 66 females in the corresponding week of last year, making a total of 135, a decrease of 5. The number in the George Moore Memorial Home, was 18 males and 22 females, as against 21 males and 25 females last year, a decrease of 6. The number of night lodgings given in the night refuge was 308, as compared with 300 for the corresponding week of last year. This is a decrease of 8 applicants.

The visiting governors for the present week to the Protestant House of Industry and Refuge and to the homes at Longue Pointe are: Messrs. Joseph Richards and John Patterson.

STRUCK BY CAR.—While leaving a street car, bound west, at the corner of Notre Dame and Beaudry streets, near his home, Mr. John Dillon, of No. 1220 Notre Dame street, was struck by an east bound car, and received two severe cuts about the head. He was removed in the ambulance to Notre Dame Hospital, where his injuries were attended to.

SUMMER CRECHE.—The King's Daughters Creche at Cote des Neiges is now open. The creche is designed to furnish day outings to poor Protestant women with children or infants, who might otherwise be unable to secure a breath of fresh country air during the summer.

WHAT CANADA'S MEN ARE DOING IN THE TRANSVAAL.

Second Contingent in a Hard Fight; First Guarding Lines of Communication—Capt. MacDonnell Was Wounded Accidentally.

(Special by Cable from W. Richmond Smith the Special Correspondent of the Star with the British forces in South Africa.)

KROONSTAD, via runner from Pretoria, June 18.—Col. Baden-Powell, the gallant defender of Mafeking, met General Hutton's brigade east of Pretoria to-day, and rode into the city with an escort. He received a warm greeting from Field Marshal Lord Roberts who complimented him on the brave stand made by the Mafeking garrison.

Baden-Powell reported that his ride across the country had been uneventful. A large number of burghers had handed their arms over to him. When he left Mafeking everyone was well and in good spirits.

The Canadian Mounted Infantry were in the fighting which took place east of Pretoria, on Monday, and rendered a good account of themselves. Private Frost was killed and Private Bains, of "D" Squadron, seriously wounded.

Capt. Macdonnell has been seriously wounded by accident.

The foot Infantry are still doing their share towards guarding the lines of communication between here and Springs. They have not had any fighting since the surrender of Pretoria.

W. RICHMOND SMITH.

WAR NEWS FROM SOUTH AFRICA CONSISTS OF SCRAPS.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The corresponpondent of the Tribune in London at an early hour this morning reviewed the war situation as follows:

LONDON, June 25.—1 a. m.—War news from South Africa still runs to emptiness. The closing scenes of the great battle for the unity and preservation of the British Empire passed almost without observation in spite of the fact of 200,000 troops being in the field. There is a budget of scraps in Fleet street night after night. The press censorship is not at fault, but the newspaper correspondents have disappeared and the regular agancies are content to cable rumours about the aproaching surrender of the Boer forces and encircling operations on a large scale against De Wet's commandos.

The War Office gave out, before midnight, a bulletin from General Buller stating that 451 prisoners captured at Lindley had passed through Standerton several days before the entry of the British troops. The Boers consequently have about 1350 prisoners on the Delagoa Bay line and probably about 800 in the Orange River Colony which were taken at Rhenoster River. Lords Leitrim and Enismore have been taken north with the other members of the Yeomanry battalion.

OCCUPATION OF HEIDLEBERG.

Lord Roberts reported that General Hamilton had occupied Heidelberg and that Col. Broadwood's cavalry had been skirmishing and dispersing the Boers. General Hunter's division is passing through Johannesburg toward Heidelberg. Another but less erious raid has been made on the railway at Honings Spruit and several culverst have been destroyed. It is clear that a large force wil be diverted to the Johannesburg Laing's Nek line and that De Wet's resources will soon be exhausted.

END OF THE ARMISTICE.

6 a. m.—The suspension of hostilties which has existed in the neighbourhood of Pretoria for some days has come to an end. A Leader telegram despatched last Wednesday mentions that the end of the armistice was signalized by operations between the British cavalry and a force of Boers under General Botha near Pinnears River, twelve miles north-east of the capital. The burghers were completely repulsed.

SHARP OUTPOST FIGHT.

One Canadian Killed, Two Wounded and One Taken Prisoner.

(Special by Cable from Mr. White, the Special Correspondent of the Star with the Second Canadian Contingent.

KROONSTAD, June 20.—(Delayed in transmission).The Canadian artillery forces were engaged in a sharp outpost fight yesterday. Morden Kerr was killed, Lieut. Trigis Aspinall and Barney T. Miles wounded. Bell was taken prisoner.

There are two Bells in "D" Battery—I. and P. A. They both belong to Hamilton.

A COLONIAL COMPLAINT.

CAPE TOWN, June 23.—The Times publishes and editorially comments on an interview with a colonial volunteer, who complains bitterly of the hospital arrangements. He declares that the accommodation, clothing and food are insufficient, and that there is extortion and robbery by the orderlies, who are largely left without supervision owing to the paucity of medical officers.

JAMESON DEFENDS HIS RAID.

LONDON, June 25.—At Kimberley on Friday evening, Dr. Jameson addressed the electors. He sketched the position of the Rand at the time of the raid, emphasizing the discontent of the working classes, who were groaning under grievances and were ripe for revolt. He denied that the raid caused racial troubles or induced the Boers to arm or hamper the Imperial Government. Race feeling, he continued, always existed and armament already had been commenced, while the Imperial Government did not intend to take effective steps to redress the grievances.

BOERS CAUSED ASHANTI RISING.

NEW YORK, June 25.—A London cable to the World said: The Ashanti rebellion, which is assuming an exceedingly grave aspect, is now known by the British Government to have been fomented by Boer emissaries acting under the direction of Dr. Muller, the political agent of the Orange Free State at The Hague. Dr. Muller resided for many years on the Gold Coast, where he has many friends among the native chiefs and traders, and through them, according to a report to the British Colonial Department, aided by gold taken from British-owned mines in the Transvaal, he was able to effect an intrigue by which Sir Arthur Hodgson was inveigled to Kumasi and then surrounded. Dr. Muller's activity accounts for the natives being better armed than heretofore, and for the successful adoption of methods of warfare roughly copied from those of the Boers, whereby the British relieving force has been driven back twice.

KRUGER IS NOT WILLING.

LONDON, June 25.—According to a Pretoria despatch General Botha possesses full powers to conclude peace and it is reiterated that he is willing to surrender but President Kruger remains obdurate. The fact that a deputation from Pietersburg, in northern Transvaal, has aproached Lord Roberts with an invitation to send a force to receive the submission of the town is regarded as important, for Pietersburg is far removed from the scene of warfare.

PTE. WHITLEY IS DEAD.

OTTAWA, June 25.—A cable was received at the militia department on Saturday morning from Col. Otter, dated Springs, June 23, announcing the death at Johannesburg by enteric fever on June 19 of Private W. F. Whitley, formerly of the Sixth regiment Duke of Connaught's Rifles Vancouver. The Springs is situated ten miles north of Heidelberg.

WERE UNDER VERY HEAVY FIRE.

The Battle of Yester Nek and the Fight in Which Harry Cotton Was Killed.

(From W. Richmond Smith, the Star's Special War Correspondent with the First Canadian Contingent.)

WITH THE FORCE UNDER FIELD MARSHAL LORD ROBERTS, AT SMALDEEL, May 8, 1900.—The long and unsatisfactory delay in the Free State Capital is over at last, and the army is now fairly on the move towards the enemy's stronghold at Kroonstad, which, it is expected, will be in our possession inside of a week. The extraordinary activity of the Boers in the Ladybrand and Thaba N'Chu districts necessitated a departure from the original plan of advance outlined in my last letter. It was first intended that the army consisting of the cavalry division, the mounted infantry division under General Ian Hamilton and four divisions of infantry, the sixth, seventh, ninth and eleventh, should advance in single column north from Bloemfontein along the line of the Free State railway. General Chermside with the third division of infantry was to garrison Bloemfontein, and General Rundle, with the eighth division of infantry and the mounted troops under General Brabazan was to garrison and patrol the Ladybrand district. When the enemy was driven north from DeWet's dorp and Wepener, the 9th division of infantry and Gen. Ridley's brigade of mounted infantry, all under command of General Ian Hamilton, were sent out to Thaba N'Chu to try and cut off the retreat of the retiring commandos along the Ladybrand road. The cavalry, under General French, was also ordered to proceed from DeWet's dorp to the Modder River, in hope of being able to intercept the fleeing enemy there. The nineteenth brigade of infantry and the mounted troops under Gen. Ian Hamilton, occupied the waterworks at Sannah's Post practically without opposition, on Monday, April 23. It was found, however, that a large body of the enemy held a strong position in a range of kopjes between the waterworks and Thaba N'Chu, and that a still stronger force was treking east from Brantford and other places along the line of the Free State railway to cover the retreat of the commandos from Wepener and DeWetsdorp towards Ladybrand. The same day, as General Hamilton occupied the waterworks, General Sir Henry Colville, with the Highland Brigade, three naval guns and several five-inch siege guns marched from Bloemfontein. The second cavalry brigade, under General Broadwood, also proceded to the waterworks. Gen. Hamilton on the morning of April 24, with the nineteenth brigade of infantry, under Brigadier General Smith-Dorrien and Gen. Ridley's brigade of mounted infantry started from the waterworks at daylight and marched to Meanakop, ten miles east, where the force camped for the night. The Highland Brigade, with the naval guns, remained at the waterworks and the second cavalry brigade with the siege guns proceeded to join the force at Meanakop. Early on the morning of the 25th April, the mounted infantry located the enemy in a strong position at Yester Nek, eight miles west of Thaba N'Chu. The whole force moved forward and reached the enemy's position about one o'clock. The Boers were entrenched in a low ridge of kopjes. They were bombarded with artillery after which

THE CANADIANS WERE ORDERED to advance upon the front of the enemy's position, while the rest of the brigade proceeded around the left flank of the position. Only some five hundred strong, the Canadians advanced towards the kopjes held by the enemy, with orders to find cover and remain in firing line as soon as they came within range. With great steadiness the regiment moved forward in extended order until about fifteen hundred yards from the enemy's position, when they were met with a fusilade from the kopjes beyond. When the Boers opened fire the Canadians were approaching a low stone wall, which extended across the front of their advance. This wall afforded splendid cover, and here the regiment remained under a heavy fire for over three hours, keeping up a brisk fire on the enemy from the front, while the mounted troops and the rest of the infantry brigade advanced on the left flank of the position, when the Boers speedily retired. Considering the heavy fire they were under all afternoon, the

CASUALTIES AMONG THE CANADIANS

were very small. Private Defoe, of "H" Company was killed early in the afternoon. Lieut.-Col. Otter was slightly wounded while leading the men into action. Lieut. Ross, of "B" Company, received a bullet wound in the side. Private R. Burns, of "D" Company, was struck in the arm, and Private P. Copley, of "F" Company, in the leg. All of the wounded will recover. After the engagement, General Smith-Dorrien, speaking to Colonel Otter, said the regiment had acted with splendid courage and admirable steadiness and good judgment. He had often tried the Canadians in the most difficult positions and had never once found them wanting in anything that went to make up splendid soldiers. The force under General Hamilton at daylight on the morning of the 26th of April, marched from Yester Nek into Thaba N'Chu, and pushed on to a place called Victoria Farm, ten miles east of Thaba N'Chu, and occupied a neck through which it was expected the Boers would pass on their way north from Wepener. The opposition at Yester Nek the day before had, however, accomplished its purpose, for the Wepener and Dewetsdorp commandos had trekked north-east towards Ladybrand. During the night of the 26th the force under General Rundle passed on its way to Ladybrand in pursuit of the trekking enemy. The following day General Hamilton returned to Thaba N'Chu. At daylight on the morning of the 28th, the whole force marched out of Thaba N'Chu eight miles north to Eden Mountain. As the mounted infantry approached the mountain they were shelled by the enemy occupying the crest. There was an artillery duel lasting the greater part of the day, after which the advanced up the steep sides of the kopje about dark to find that the north end was still strongly occupied by the enemy. The infantry retired with difficulty, clambering down the steep incline among rocks and boulders in the darkness and the whole force returned to Thaba N'Chu that night. This determined opposition of the enemy and the knowledge that there was a considerable force of Boers opposed to the advance of General Hamilton north from Thaba N'Chu as well as to the advance of General Rundle towards Ladybrand necessitated the alteration of the original plan of the advance. General Chermside was ordered to advance from Dewetsdorp to Thaba N'Chu, where one of his brigades—the twenty-first under Brigadier-General Bruce Hamilton, composed of the Sussex, Derbys, City Imperial Volunteers and the Cameron Highlanders—was added to the infantry under command of General Ian Hamilton, and the other was added to the infantry of General Rundle's Division. General Rundle was left in charge of the garrison at Thaba N'Chu, and the command of the Ladybrand column given to General Brabazan, who, up till this time, had been in command of a brigade of Imperial Yeomanry. The brigade of colonial horse under General Brabant was also attached to the Ladybrand column. This splitting up of the division under General Chermside made it necessary to leave one division of infantry to garrison Bloemfontein. The whole force under General Ian Hamilton, composed of the nineteenth and twenty-first brigades of infantry, the second cavalry brigade and the second mounted infantry brigade with two field batteries and three five inch seige guns left Thaba N' Chu at daylight on the morning of the 30th of April and marched ten miles north to Houtnek, arriving at eleven o'clock. The mounted infantry and cavalry located the enemy in a strong position, their front extending along a rolling grassy ridge with their right flank resting on Thaba mountain and their left on a range of ridges of indefinite extent. Their front was eleven miles in length with a perfect glacis approaching it, which afforded little or no cover for advancing troops. The attack was made along the entire front of the Boer position. As the mounted infantry came within range they were met with a tremendous shell fire. The enemy had five guns posted in various places along the front of their position. A heavy bombardment was kept up until three o'clock in the afternoon, when the infantry was ordered to advance. The Canadians, Shropshires and Gordons advanced towards the plateau occupied by the enemy in an extended firing line. For a mile and a half the long lines of infantry advanced under a tremendous shell fire from the ridges beyond. It was enough to shake the nerves of the best soldiers in the world. The shells fell in dozens right among the advancing troops, but fortunately very few of them burst.

GORDONS AND THE CANADIANS

HARRY COTTON'S DEATH.

It was in this advance that the Canadians lost the only man killed that day. Pte. Cotton, of "D" Company, was struck by a shell and instantly killed. The steady advance of the Canadians elicited favourable comment in every quarter. The artillery practice of the five-inch siege gun was simply magnificent. Shell after shell was dropped into the enemy's position with splendid accuracy with the result that the hail of shells hurled upon our advancing infantry was almost stopped. All afternoon until dark the Nineteenth Brigade engaged the enemy in front, while the cavalry and mounted infantry threatened either flank. Towards evening the Gordons, or a portion of them, on the extreme right were suddenly attacked by what is known as the German Legion, under command of Colonel Maxincoff, which was driven off with great loss. Kitchener's Horse with splendid gallantry pursued the flying Germans and drove the scattered remnants back beyond the enemy's lines. As soon as darkness fell the enemy began to trek, and on the following morning the mounted infantry succeeded in turning both flanks of the Boers and the cavalry was ordered to go around Thaba Mountain and cut off their retreat. About three o'clock in the afternoon the Nineteenth Brigade was ordered to advance up the plateau, and charge the enemy. As the long lines of infantry moved forward the enemy bolted and joined the trek which had started the night before. The artillery was hurried on after the infantry to the crest of the plateau, and shell after shell was planted among the ranks of the retiring Boers. The cavalry and mounted infantry charged the tailings with good effect, completing the utter rout of the enemy. During the two days' engagement the Canadians lost one killed and five slightly wounded. The wounded were Pte. J. Lutze, "G" Company, hit in the arm; M. Foster, "G" Company, hit in the arm; J. Letson, "G" Company, struck in the leg; R. Irvine, "B" Company, hit in the leg; C. K. Rorison, "B" Company, hit in the arm.

Four miles beyond the captured position the force camped for the night and remained there the following day. From here Captain Barker and Lieut. Willis, of "C" Company, were compelled to return to Thaba N'Chu through illness. On Monday, April 30th, the Gloucester regiment of the Sixth Division marched from Bloemfontein and relieved the portion of the Highland Brigade left there as garrison, and the whole of the Highland Brigade with Gen. Colville marched on to Thaba N'Chu.

WAR NOTES.

The British casualties at Honing Spruit were thirty-seven killed and wounded.

Lord Roberts and Commandant Botha are still exchanging letters.

Two hundred rebels have surrendered to General Warrent at Blikfontein.

The wives of Generals Botha and Lucas Meyer are seen in the streets of Pretoria every day when they are out on shopping tours.

Mr. Kruger is reported to have issued a proclamation June 17, announcing that the Russians had declared war upon the Japanese and that Great Britain must help Japan.

A London cable says: "Strathcona's Horse, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Steele, on joining the forces of General Buller at Paardekop, received an enthusiastic reception."

The communications of Senekal with Winberg, the nearest supply point have been temporarily interrupted. General Clements is at Senekal. A convoy seeking to reach him Friday was driven back.

The force now available to President Kruger is officially estimated at from 15,000 to 20,000. The Standard correspondent asserts that his sole idea is to hold out until after the American Presidential election.

Sir Redvers Buller in a despatch to the War Office says that among the prisoners taken to Machadodorp are Lords Antrim and Ennismore, both of whom are in good health. Lord Longford was left at Reitz severely wounded.

LIEUT. YOUNG'S QUICK STRATEGY

The Admirable Manner in Which His Men Escaped From a Boer Trap Laid for Them.

(From Mr. H. S. White, the Star's special war correspondent with the Canadian Mounted Rifles.)

Kroonstad, May 14th, 1900.

From Bloemfontein to Kroonstad in eleven days! If the great victorious march of the British army continues as it has begun we shall be in Pretoria early in June! Indeed, it appears to us here practically certain that before this letter reaches you in Canada we shall be in Pretoria; and possibly the war will be over!

In my last letter, I told you how Lord Roberts' army left Bloemfontein. Our boys of the Second Contingent, as I told you, formed part of General Hutton's brigade of Mounted Infantry. Of this brigade we have seen nothing excepting of our own particular corps, known as the "First Mounted Infantry Corps," under the command of Colonel Alderson. The corps comprises the following troops: The 1st Bat. Canadian Mounted Rifles, under Colonel Lessard; the 2nd Battalion. of the same, under Colonel Evans; the 1st Battalion Mounted Infantry—an Imperial organization—under Colonel Amphlett; and some Imperial field guns, besides one Maxim and one Colt, under the charge of "Gat" Howard, and two Maxims, under Lieut. Bliss.

Up to the present all the fighting on this march has been done by the Mounted Infantry, and the Cavalry under General French, supported, of course, always by artillery. Consequently Canadians have been "right in it." Always several miles, sometimes as much as ten or fifteen, ahead of the great army that is marching in solid columns towards Pretoria, our boys with the rest of the mounted troops, are the first to come into contact with the enemy. During the last week of the march they were under fire nearly every day, and yet while they were fighting away in the front, the main body of the army was quietly and peaceably—often beyond even the sound of our guns—advancing along the road, which we had already cleared of the enemy. The result of the work of the mounted troops has been that the main body of the army, composed mostly of infantry and artillery, has not had to pause for one hour in its steady progress towards this place—the second capital of the Free State—which is now in our possession. For them it has been simply one long continuous march; while for the mounted troops—including, of course, all our boys of the Second Contingent—it has been a period of almost continuous fighting.

The great army that is now marching so steadily and surely towards the occupation of the Transvaal capital has, up to this point, proceeded in two columns—the main column, under Field Marshal Lord Roberts following closely the line of railway, and the other column, composed of the troops from Thaba N'Chu, and its neighbourhood, and including the brigade of which the First Canadian Contingent forms a part advancing in a parallel line with the main column, but at some distance to its right. General French's large division of cavalry has been on the extreme left most of the time, and the Mounted Infantry with the Second Canadian Contingent have been between him and the line of railway which forms the centre of the advance. The front of this great army has always covered a great many miles, and at times has extended in one unbroken line for a distance east and west of as much as forty or fifty miles.

LIKE A HUGE TIDAL WAVE

this mass of armed men is rolling irresistibly forward, sweeping every obstacle before it. First comes the long, thin, surf-like fringe of scouts of mounted infantry and cavalry, feeling the way, and if momentarily checked by some obstacle, holding back until the solid mass of the infantry and artillery behind pushes up against that obstacle and drives it before it, or rolls around it and pushes it aside. The fringe of scouts, of which our second contingent forms a part, is composed in itself of many thousands of men and extends along a line, as I have said, of many miles, while behind it the solid infantry divisions follow in columns ready to throw their weight against any point where the fringe of the scouts may happen to meet with an opposition which they cannot overcome without support. But though of mounted men and infantry and artillery, who do the actual fighting, there are many, many thousands; they do not by any means compose the whole army. Behind them come the crafty engineers, repairing roads and railways, rebuilding bridges that the enemy have blown down; the field telegraph people bringing new lines, and repairing old ones; and last, but by no means least, the miles and miles of creaking waggons, each with its long team of mules or oxen, its incessantly screeching Kaffir drivers with their long reed whips which they ply as incessantly as they screech—first the regimental transports, upon which both men and horses in the fighting line, depend absolutely for their daily food, then the brigade convoys, from which the regimental transports draw, and lastly the supply packs of the Army Service Corps, upon whom all depend for the renewal of the supplies which are so rapidly consumed by a number of strong, hungry men that equals the total population of almost any city in Canada. The fighting men in front may drive the enemy before them like so many sheep, and may clear the road so quickly that their progress is not stayed for one moment, but unless these hundreds of waggons that wind along the roads for miles and miles behind them can keep close up to them, their progress is stayed as effectually as if they had an irresistible enemy in front of them. Behind the main column, under Lord Roberts; there must have been an almost continuous train of mule and ox waggons that extended over a distance from front to rear of at the very least ten miles. How many waggons, how many mules and oxen, how many Kaffir drivers, there were in this enormous train of transports, I would not venture to say, but it is only necessary to remember that each waggon with its team of eight mules, or sometimes of more, would not occupy a space probably of as much as 50 yards, and that these waggons follow each other in close succession for a distance of certainly more than ten miles, to realize the fact that there must be many hundreds of waggons with each column, and thousands of mules and drivers, all of whom have to be fed as well as the actual fighting men. It is by the rate of progress that is possible to these long trains of heavily laden waggons that the speed of an advance is measured. Our mounted infantry could do their 20 miles a day, and keep it up for weeks; even the infantry could propably average a steady fourteen or fifteen miles a day, but to the long, lumbering trains of transport waggons this rate of progress is impossible. Our march from Bloemfontein to Kroonstad has been remarkably speedy—the main column advancing along the railway line has done 128 miles in eleven days, an average of nearly 12 miles a day—but it has only been done by working men and mules day and night for such long hours that it would probably be impossible to continue without a few days' rest for both. If the country over which we are marching were one continuous plain—one unbroken level road—we could probably keep up at least this rate of progress indefinitely, but, unfortunately, every other day or so we come to some difficult place—some steep drift—such as the crossings of the Vet and the Zand rivers, and then a delay to the transports occurs which would equal probably in each case fully a good day's march on level roads. Thus, it is easy to see that the march from Bloemfontein to Kroonstad, without taking into account the opposition of the enemy, has been a remarkable feat, and one that will prove a brilliant page in the annals of the British Army.

CANADA HAS DONE HER SHARE.

Both contingents have been engaged —the second contingent no less than on three different days; of the doings of the first contingent you will hear fully from Mr. Richmond Smith; and I will confine myself to chronicling the very interesting experiences of the Canadian Mounted Rifles.

The march from Bloemfontein as far as the little village of Brandfort was uneventful, the country having been previously cleared of the enemy. On the 3rd of May, four miles west of Brandfort, our boys first came into action. They were ordered to clear two kopjes which were held by the enemy in considerable strength. It was the first time that most of the men who had to do this work had been under fire. Nevertheless, they were as steady and as unconcerned as if they had had to fight their way from Cape Town to this position. They were sent to clear the kopjes, and it is needless to say they did it. The first and second troops of B Squadron, under the command respectively of Lieutenants Straubenzee and Young, formed the advance guard of the brigade. The first troop advanced to the attack in extended order, supported by the second troop. They felt their way carefully, but just when they were between two large kopjes the enemy commenced firing at them from their right flank. The advance party retired as the supports were brought up. Lieutenant Young's troop got within a hundred yards before he retired, and it is hard to understand how he got his men out of this trap, absolutely without loss—only one horse being hit. The rest of the brigade was then brought up, and the advance troops were ordered to dismount, and occupy a ridge facing the large kopje, while the artillery, pompoms, and maxims bombarded the enemy from behind the mounted infantry. Here "Gat" Howard got in some good work with his maxims. It took a long time to silence the enemy's guns, and force them to retire. During the engagement Lieutenants Taylor and Brownrigg, with eight men, had a very exciting experience. They were sent to reconnoitre some kopjes on the right. Apparently they went too far, for they had to gallop back to the brigade fully a mile under fire all the way. They had the good fortune that has so conspicuously attended the Canadian Mounted Rifles up to the present, for not a man of them was bit.

Regarding this wonderful good fortune of all our men, I may say right here that it has been a subject of remark among all the troops and officers, who have seen them in action. They have been in places where it seemed absolutely impossible for them to escape without serious casualties, and yet, somehow, they have escaped. It may be sheer good luck, but I think it is fair to credit them with something more. There is no doubt that they approach the enemy more skilfully than the ordinary "Tommy" taking more advantage of cover, handling their horses better, and scouting far more intelligently. To these things, no doubt, as much as to sheer luck, is to be attributed the remarkable immunity from injury that has so far attended them. Indeed, one of the most extraordinary features about their whole work from Brandfort to Kroonstad is the fact that they have had only two men hit, and those only so slightly wounded that they are already back to duty. These two men were Sergeant McCulloch, who was wounded on the shin at Virginia siding; and Trooper Wildman, who received a slight scalp wound from a fragment of a shell in the same fight. Both men belong to D. Squadron.

HEROES OF PAARDEBERG.

Privates Craig and Johnston, Both Wounded, Have Reached Quebec on Their Way Home.

(Special to the Star.)

QUEBEC, June 25.—Two of the Canadian heroes of Paardeberg, the first of the members of the First Contingent to return to Canada, via this port, arrived here on Saturday evening by the steamship Tunisian. They are Private Craig, of Windsor, Ont., a member of "B" Company; and Private Johnston, of St. John, N.B., a member of "B" Company. Both were wounded in the leg at the first Paardeberg engagement, and while the former limps badly, the other does not. Private Craig got a flesh wound in the left leg from a splinter of a shell, and had his right angle badly fractured. He says that he is heartily glad to get back to Canada, and that it is heaven compared to South Africa. Not one of the boys, he says, will remain in Africa, unless they are buried there. The marches made he describes as terrific, being usually over 20 miles in length, while they were often made on empty stomachs. However, while glad to be back, he is sorry not to have been able to see the business through. Private Craig says that the best fighting company in the contingent was "F" Company, Quebec, which is made up of French-Canadians and regulars from the R. C. A. here. He confirms the reports of the splendid reception given the men in Cape Town, and says that the general verdict was that they were the finest body of men who landed there.

Col. Otter had an offer to mount the whole contingent, but declined, probably because he was not up in mounted work. The experience at Belmont during the long stay there, seems to have been anything but pleasant, as the dead bodies there were merely covered with stones.

Private Craig was at Woolwich Hospital, and met among others Rudyard Kipling, Stephen Crane, Robert Barr and many other prominent writers. He knew the latter when he lived in this country, at Walkerville, and showed the Star representative an autograph letter from him, in which he speaks of a Christmas story he is working up in connection with the South African war.

Private Johnston left for home on Saturday night and Private Craig left this morning. He has been the centre of large and admiring groups of eager listeners all day. Major Oscar Pelletier, he says, won the greatest praise by his gallantry at Paardeberg. He has a very poor opinion of the Boers, who, he says, are fair shots and cunning and pig-headed, but not brave fighters.

According to a despatch from Cape Town, it seems that at the recent fight at Zand River, the Boers captured 2,000 mail bags containing a three weeks' accumulation of letters for Lord Roberts' army and £4,000 worth of stamps intended for use of the troops.

REBELLION IS EXTINGUISHED.

General Warren Reports That Cape Colony Rebels Are Completely Subdued.

GEN. BULLER AT STANDERTON.

A Capetown Despatch Says That DeVillier's Commando Numbering 2200 Men Has Surrendered.

LONDON, June 25. — The information from South Africa continues so unimportant that the afternoon newspapers here are trying to make a sensation out of General Ian Hamilton breaking his collar bone by a fall from his horse.

General Warren wires that the rebellion has been extinguished in the north of Cape Colony, but he does not mention the character or disposal of the considerable Boer force which has been occupying that part of the country.

Interest mostly centres in the Orange River Colony, where General Dewet is causing the British much annoyance.

The Transvaal military incidents are summed up officially by Lord Roberts in the following message to the War Office:

"PRETORIA, Sunday, 11.30 a.m.—Buller reached Standerton June 22. He found a good deal of rolling stock. All the Dutch residents had left the town.

"The British prisoners captured since our occupation of Pretoria have been taken to Machadodorp.

"Ian Hamilton occupied Heidelberg Saturday. The enemy fled, pursued by our mounted men six or seven miles. The previous day Broadwood's cavalry had a skirmish with the enemy, dispersing them completely and capturing six.

"Hunter's advance brigade reached Johannesburg toward Heidelberg, June 22.

"The enemy attacked our post at Honingspruit, and before reinforcements arrived from Kroonstad, they had burned three culverts. These had all been repaired by this afternoon."

IMPORTANT CAPTURE REPORTED.

A telegram from Cape Town states that Devillier's commando, numbering 2,200 men, with 230 horses, 18 waggons, 260 rifles and 10,000 rounds of ammunition, has surrendered to General Warren at Blikfontein. Commandant Devillier himself did not surrender.

A Medicine That Cures

Is what the sufferer from disease desires above all things else. Therefore thousands turn to Hood's Sarsaparilla when afflicted with scrofula, salt rheum, rheumatism, dyspepsia, catarrh or other ailments originating in impure blood. This medicine has stood the test, and its great record of marvellous cures attests its power to make new, rich, pure blood and conquer disease. It is what the system needs at this season to give vigour and vitality, tone the stomach, create an appetite and cure that tired feeling. It strengthens and sustains the nerves, and gives sweet, refreshing sleep.

DISORDERED STOMACH.—"I suffered from impure blood and disordered stomach. After taking four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I was entirely cured." W. L. Zwick, 224 Mill street, Poughkeepsie, N.Y.

The flower dinner dance given by the Count and Countess Boni de Castellane on Tuesday evening was the fete of the Paris season. All the women were dressed as flowers, and the men wore evening coats of various bright colours. There was a dinner, served American fashion, at small tables, followed by a cotillon and a "sit down" supper. The Grand Duchess Anastasia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, accompanied by the Grand Duke Alexis, was received in royal state by the host and hostess. The almost entire absence of Americans and the presence of royalists of the most ardent sentiments were noticed. Among the few Americans was the Duchess de la Rochefoucauld, who was one of a party of three duchesses dressed in the tricolour of France, each of them being a flower of the flag. Mrs. Arthur Paget was a yellow jasmine, and Mrs. Michael Herbert was a white rose.

The June ball at the Royal Military College, Kingston, was held this year on Friday night, and was even a greater success than last year. The music, decorations and floor were all that could be desired, and every possible arrangement was made for the comfort of the guests. Commandant and Mrs. Kitson received at the head of the first staircase, the latter wearing black lace, trimmed with black chiffon, and train of white silk. Among the Montrealers present, and those who are well known in town were Miss Hanson, who was in white silk, with gauze overdress, trimmed with ruchings of white satin bebe ribbon; Mrs. W. B. Gilmour, in striped blue and white silk trimmed with pink chiffon and lace; Miss Pansy Rathbun (Deseronto), dotted white net over pale blue taffeta silk; Miss Beatrice Macdougall, white satin and white chiffon; Miss Edith Drury, white organdie over white silk; Miss Marjorie Riddell, cream lace over cream satin; Miss Louden, white satin brocade; Mrs. Almon, black embroidered with sequins.
