

On Monday Next (Thanksgiving Day) Canadians Will Offer Thanks for the Gift of a Bountiful Harvest

The Handsome Memorial of the Heroic Men and Women Who Originated Thanksgiving Day on this Continent

IN MEMORY OF THE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE MAYFLOWER—Under Cape Cod, in Massachusetts, the land-fall which greeted the eyes of the pilgrim band of the Mayflower on November 11th, 1620, there now rises the monument shown in the above picture. It was recently dedicated to their memory. The machicolated and battlemented tower rises to a height of 252 feet. It cost about $30,000. President Taft made the principal address at the inauguration. Thanksgiving Day, which is now an annual festival of prayer and praise in the United States and Canada, may be said to have originated with the Pilgrim Fathers.

SAVING A CATHEDRAL FROM DESTRUCTION—The south transept of Winchester Cathedral, showing the extent to which it leans from the perpendicular owing to the sinking of the foundation. For six years now the work of renewing the foundation has been going on, with the result that the venerable building has been saved from what appeared to be imminent destruction. An exhaustive description of the manner in which the restoration was carried out, and the difficulties that accompanied the task, appeared in a recent issue of The Standard. THANKSGIVING.
Thanksgiving comes in autumn! Aye,
Thou heart within my breast:
Now thou art old, thy best joys told—
Yet one outlives the rest.
Though loss and age upon the press,
One inward joy naught can destroy;
It is the joy of thankfulness:
It flowers—it sings—it makes thee blest!

A THANKSGIVING LITANY.

For happy homes and firesides bright,
For loving hearts and faces light
And joyous smiles that bless our sight,
We thank Thee, O our Father.

For bracing air and zephyrs mild,
For sunshine fair and breezes wild
And breathing spaces undefiled;
We thank Thee, O our Father.

For grass of field and wealth of grain,
For ample yield of hill and plain
And flowing tide of honest gain;
We thank Thee, O our Father.

For luscious fruits and lovely flowers,
For glad pursuits and golden hours
And freest use of all our powers;
We thank Thee, O our Father.

And not for earthly good alone,
For truth revealed, and mercy shown,
And all Thy loving kindness known;
We thank Thee, O our Father.
—C. Flemington.

LORD, HEAR OUR PRAISE.

For summer's bloom and autumn's blight,
For bending wheat and blasted maize,
For health and sickness, Lord of light,
And Lord of darkness, hear our praise!

We trace to Thee our joys and woes—
To Thee of causes still the Cause—
We thank Thee that Thy hand bestows;
We bless Thee that Thy love with-draws.

We bring no sorrows to Thy throne;
We come to Thee with no complaint,
In providence Thy will is done,
And that is sacred to the saint.

Here, on this blest Thanksgiving night,
We raise to Thee our grateful voice;
For what Thou doest, Lord, is right,
And thus believing, we rejoice.
—Josiah Gilbert Holland.

A THANKSGIVING LITANY.

For the fruits of tree and field,
For the wealth of mine and weald,
All that land and sea doth yield,
Gracious Lord, we thank Thee.

For the ruling of Thy hand,
For the boons Thou dost command,
For the peace that fills our land,
Gracious Lord, we thank Thee.

For the love of home and friends,
For the help that knowledge lends,
For the hope Thy promise sends,
Gracious Lord, we thank Thee.

For Thy love that quells all fear,
For the drying of the tear,
For Thy care throughout the years,
Gracious Lord, we thank Thee.

For Thyself, great God alone,
Mighty Father, loving Son,
Gentle Spirit, three in one,
Gracious Lord, we thank Thee.
—Donald A. Fraser.

"NELSON AT TRAFALGAR," a commemorative statue of the Empire's greatest admiral by Henry Hudson Kitson, sculptor.

NELSON'S MONUMENT IN ST. PAUL'S CATHEDRAL, LONDON—Beneath the majestic dome of this splendid cathedral the body of Nelson is entombed in a marble sarcophagus designed by Torregiano as the tomb of Cardinal Wolsey, Chancellor of England and Archbishop of York in the reign of Henry VIII. This sarcophagus occupies a prominent position in the crypt. The Cathedral proper contains the monument shown in the illustration.

Where There's Suds, There's Soap.

MANY WASHING POWDERS CONTAIN NO SOAP—THEY OUGHT TO!

Most Women use a Powder of some sort. Some use Soap with Soap Powders or Washing Powders; how can they tell the value of either? USE PEARLINE ALONE; all the Soap that's necessary is there. Richer Suds, Better, Safer, more Effective than any mixed product. Soap with PEARLINE is Waste, for PEARLINE will have done the work before the Soap begins to take hold.

TRY PEARLINE without Soap, Soda, Borax, Naphtha, Kerosene; TRY IT without help of any sort and as directed on each package; then you will be Washing and Cleaning Scientifically, Safely, Quickly, Thoroughly, Economically and Healthily.

PEARLINE saves Women, Fabrics, Colors—saves everything but the Dirt.

TURNER'S AMBITION.

Turner could not bear to sell a favorite painting. He was always melancholy after such a transaction. "I have lost one of my children this week," he would sadly exclaim. At a meeting at Somerset House it was decided to purchase his two great pictures, the "Rise" and the "Fall of Carthage," for the National Gallery. A Mr. Griffiths was commissioned to offer £5,000 for them. "A noble offer," said the painter, "a noble offer; but no, I cannot part with them. Impossible." Mr. Griffiths, greatly disappointed, took his leave. Turner ran after him. "Tell those gentlemen," he said, "that the nation will most likely have the pictures after all."

Long before this Turner had matured a purpose which continued to be his dominant idea while life lasted. This was to bequeath to his country a Turner gallery of pictures and to amass £100,000 to build and endow an asylum for decayed artists. It was for this great object that he denied himself all pleasures that cost money, all luxuries. His resolve, once made, could not be shaken. On one occasion he was offered £100,000 for the art treasures locked up in the "den." Give me the key of the house, Mr. Turner," said a Liverpool merchant, "and here is the money." "No, thank you," replied Turner. "I have refused a better offer," and that was true. By his will he bequeathed £140,000 to found an asylum for poor artists born in England and a magnificent art collection to his country. This latter bequest was, however, coupled with the condition that his "Rise and Fall of Carthage" should be hung in the National Gallery between Claude's "Seaport" and "Mill."

Pen Angle Hosiery

Only SEAMLESS Hosiery Fits Right!

You should wear Pen-Angle Hosiery, and no other kind. For this is the only Canadian-made hosiery that is seamless AND priced moderately AND guaranteed. All three merits ought to be in your hosiery. Because no hosiery that is not SEAMLESS can be comfortable—and Pen-Angle machines are the only ones in Canada able to knit such hosiery, form-shaped to the leg and foot, instead of merely water-shrunk into shape. Thus, though priced reasonably, Pen-Angle Hosiery holds its shape indefinitely. And it is reinforced wherever wear falls.

To these merits add the GUARANTEE you read here—two pairs for one if Pen-Angle Hosiery disappoints. Note next the modest price you need pay to get all this—and then remember name and trademark when next you need hosiery
